understand spiritual truth which they could not understand in any other way. They "see" something of what they are like and of what God is like and what salvation is. But believers do not understand everything in a moment. God who enlightened them at first continues to enlighten them.

So Paul prayed this prayer – a prayer we should all pray for ourselves and for others. Without spiritual enlightenment people may read and reread the Bible and be little wiser for their efforts. Compare 2 Cor 3:15. Paul prayed they might understand three things: their hope, God's inheritance, and God's power.

"Hope" – Rom 5:2; 8:23-25. The hope of believers is to be made like Christ and to be with Him in eternity – Rom 8:29; 2 Cor 3:18; 1 John 3:2,3; John 17:24.

"Inheritance" – believers have an inheritance in Christ (v 14) and God has an inheritance in them. They are His prized possession, His treasure, His riches. He wanted them so much He paid for them with the death of His Son (v 7). At the time of the resurrection from the dead He will fully claim His inheritance – 1 Thess 4:16-18.

"Power" – God's power working in us and for us makes the fulfillment of our hope a certainty. It makes it sure that He will claim His inheritance. His power is so great that it cannot be compared to any other power. So He is well able to keep His people safe – John 10:29. In the next verses Paul gives an illustration of what God's power has done so that we might know what it can do for us.

1:20,21 In the resurrection and ascension of Christ we see the greatest display of God's power in the history of mankind – Matt 28:6; Mark 16:6,19; Luke 24:6,7,51; Acts 1:3,9; 2:32,33; Rom 1:4; Phil 2:9-11; Heb 1:3. Christ sits on the throne of His Father, exalted far above all the created universe with its powers and authorities – Col 2:10; Rev 1:5. There is no man, no angel who ever lived, or who lives now, who can come anywhere near to Jesus in power, authority, glory and honor.

And the same power of God which raised Him there is at work for us and in us – v 19. This is how we can be more than conquerors – Rom 8:37. This is how we can truly serve Christ in a hostile world, overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil, and finish our earthly life with joy. If we do not, it will be because we fail to use the power available to us.

1:22,23 "Under His feet" – Acts 2:34-36; Heb 1:13; 2:8,9; 10:13.

"Head" – 4:15; 5:23; Col 1:18; 2:19.

over everything to the church, 23 which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all.

2 And you he has made alive, you who were dead in trespasses and sins, 2 in which in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience. 3 Among them we also, all of us, had our life in time past in the cravings of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind,

Christ is the only Head the true Church has, or can have. Head means director. It suggests the mind or brain which plans and thinks and gives orders to the body. Christ is not merely the one authority over the Church, He is one with it by God's Spirit. The same life and the same Spirit in Him are in it. "Church" here means His spiritual body made up only of true believers in Him - John 17:20-23; 1 Cor 12:12,13; note at Matt 16:18.

"Fullness" - Christ fills the universe - 4:10; Col 1:17. The true Church is His fullness, His completion. A head cannot be said to be full and complete without a body. This is one interpretation of v 23. Another is that Christ is the fullness of God. Compare Col 2:9,10.

2:1-10 In these verses Paul continues the theme he introduced in 1:19 - "the exceeding greatness of his power toward us." He showed in 1:20-23 how this power was at work in Christ. Now he shows how it has been at work in and for believers. God raised Christ from death and exalted Him to heaven (1:20). He has raised believers from spiritual death and has exalted them also (vs 5,6). God's great power made Christ the Head of the Church (1:22). That same power made believers a new creation united with Christ (v 10).

2:1 "Dead" - no one separated from Christ has true spiritual life. Because everyone has sinned (Rom 3:23) every person is spiritually dead until Christ gives him new life. This death means separation from God's life and fellowship - 4:18; Isa 59:1,2. See Gen 2:17; John 5:24; Rom 7:5; 8:6; Col 2:13; 1 Tim 5:6; Jam 1:15; 1 John 3:14. This is the reason the new birth is essential for salvation. See John 1:12,13; 3:3-8.

2:2 The "course of this world" - 1 John 2:16; John 1:10; 7:7; 14:17; 16:8; Rom 12:2; 1 Cor 1:21; Jam 4:4; 2 Pet 1:4. The world's way comes out of spiritual death and leads to eternal death. The "ruler of the power of the air" is Satan. He is a spirit being who moves about in the region of the lowest part of the heavenly places (6:12), and it seems that he exercises his authority from the earth's atmosphere. He is called the "god" and "ruler" of this world - John 12:31; 2 Cor 4:4. He is at work in all those who are disobedient to the Lord Jesus Christ. Compare John 8:44; Acts 5:3; 2 Tim and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. 4 But God, who is rich in mercy, because of his great love with which he loved us, 5 even when we were dead in sins, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), 6 and raised us up together, and seated us together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7 so that in the ages to come he might show the exceedingly great riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. 8 For by grace you are saved through faith, and that not of

2:3 "All of us" - Rom 3:9,19; Titus 3:3.

"By nature" - means the nature we received from our parents at birth. See Gen 8:21; Ps 51:5; 58:3; Rom 3:9-19.

"Wrath" - God's anger against sin appears everywhere in the Bible. See notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18. To be "children" of wrath means to be objects of God's anger, under his anger, deserving of his anger.

2:4 "Rich in mercy" - Ps 5:7; 51:1; Micah 7:18; Rom 2:4; 10:12; Titus 3:5; Jam 5:11; 1 Pet 1:3. As sinners we all deserve God's anger and punishment. Only mercy can spare us, forgive us, save us. There is no hope whatever in anything else.

"Great love" - John 3:16; Rom 5:8; 1 John 3:16; 4:8,9.

2:5 God has made believers spiritually alive and brought them into union and fellowship with Christ - John 1:12,13; 5:21,24; Rom 5:17; 6:4,8; Col 2:13; 1 Pet 1:3,23; 1 John 3:9; 5:1,18. This was a gift of God - v 9; Rom 6:23.

2:6 "Raised us up together" - see Rom 6:3-5. Christ is the representative of all believers. Because they are "in Him" (1:3) and united to Him, God counts what happened to Him as if it happened to them also. In His eyes believers on earth are already raised from the dead and exalted to heaven. Compare Col 3:1-4.

2:7 Here is God's grand purpose toward us. Who can even imagine what it will mean? God will satisfy His love toward us by pouring out on us the greatest blessings and gifts that even He can imagine. And He will continue to do so for all eternity.

"Riches" - 1:7.

2:8,9 Salvation from beginning to end is a gift of God to unworthy people. Human merit has nothing whatever to do with it - Acts 15:11; Rom 3:24; 4:4; 5:15; 6:23; 11:6; Titus 3:4-7.

"Through faith" - John 1:12,13; 3:14-16,36; 5:24; 6:47; Acts 13:38; 16:31; Rom 1:16; 3:25,28; 4:16; 5:1; 10:9-13; Gal 2:16,21; 3:26.

"Gift of God" - this refers to both salvation and the faith through which it comes. Even our faith is a gift of God, and we can no more boast of that than of anything else about us (Acts 18:11; Phil 1:29; 2 Peter 1:1). No one could or would yourselves; it is the gift of God; 9 not of works, so that no one should boast. 10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good deeds, which God ordained beforehand that we should be active in them.

11 Therefore remember, that in time past you were Gentiles according to the flesh, called "Uncircumcision" by those who are called "the Circumcision" in the flesh made by hands; 12 that at that time you were without Christ, were shut out from the commonwealth of Israel, and were strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who at one time were far off are brought near by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who has made the two one, and has broken down the middle wall of partition between us, 15 by abolishing in his flesh the cause of enmity, that is, the law of commandments with its regulations, so that from the two he might make one new man in himself, and so make peace; 16 and that he might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, by which he destroyed the enmity. 17 And he came and believe in Christ apart from God's work in the mind and heart. In God's way of salvation boasting in man is altogether shut out - Rom 3:27; 1 Cor 1:29-31.

If anyone boasts that he is saved because of something he is, or something he has done, or because of some good thing in him, or because of his connection with some religion, or any such thing, we can be sure that he (or she) has not understood God's way of salvation. It is impossible that any way of works can lead to salvation. Every work of a sinner (and all are sinners - Rom 3:23) is stained with sin and is not really good or meritorious in God's eyes (Isa 64:6). And no matter how many works he has, no matter how long a time he works, he can never earn salvation.

2:10 The new spiritual birth of believers is not something they achieve, any more than their physical birth into the world was something they achieved. It is something God does in them. It is a work of creation - 2 Cor 5:17; Jam 1:18; John 1:13. Observe here one reason why God creates new life in us. We are not saved by good works, but we are saved so we will do good works - Titus 2:14; Matt 5:16. God has prepared us for good works and good works for us. He places the opportunities to do good works before us all. Good works are a fruit of salvation. If we do not do good works we show that we are not God's workmanship (Matt 7:16-20; etc). The new life in us will bear good fruit as surely as a good tree will bear good fruit.

Since believers are God's workmanship we should think that He will finish this work and not abandon it somewhere along the line - Phil 1:6.

"Be active" - the Greek word may also be translated "walk", "go forward", "live", "behave", "conduct oneself", "be occupied with", etc, depending on the context. In the letters of Paul (and of John) it is never used of literal walking.

2:11-22 In the Old Testament the nation Israel was God's special people. God gave them His word, His law, His covenants, etc - Rom 9:4,5. The other nations of the world (Gentiles) had no part in all that - v 12. They were far away - v 13. And there was an actual barrier of enmity between Israel and all other nations - v 14. Now, Paul says, God has changed all that. In Christ there is no longer any separation between people of Gentile and Jewish background - vs 14-22. All believers are one in Christ. Compare 1 Cor 12:12,13; Gal 3:28.

2:11 "Gentiles" - peoples other than Jews. The Jews (the "circumcision") called them the "uncircumcised." This was a term of contempt - Jud 14:3; 15:18; 1 Sam 14:6; 17:26; 2 Sam 1:20. Notes on circumcision at Gen 17:9-14; Gal 5:6.

2:12 This is still the sad condition of all people on earth who are apart from Christ - they do not have the true God, and so they do not have a true and proper expectation of salvation (1 John 2:23; 5:11,12; Gal 4:8).

2:13 "You" means "you Gentiles." They had been far away from God because of their sin and unbelief. But being "in Christ" they are brought near to God. The way for all believers into the presence of God has been opened - Heb 10:19-22.

2:14 "Our peace" - the Lord Jesus is peace between believing Jews and believing Gentiles. In Him all national barriers are destroyed and there is unity and oneness.

2:15 "In His flesh" - on the cross Christ destroyed the state of hostility between the Jews and the Gentiles - v 16. This was by abolishing what created the hostility and division - the law given through Moses (Rom 7:4; 10:4). This hostility is destroyed only in Christ. It often prevails among those out of Christ.

"One new man" - means the whole number of Jewish and Gentile believers together in one body with Christ as the Head. It is "new" because there was nothing like it before and it is a new creation with new spiritual life.

2:16 "Reconcile" - notes at Rom 5:10; 2 Cor 5:18,19.

2:17 "He came" - the Lord Jesus came. He is the Prince of peace who came to bring peace to men and between men and God and between men and men who receive Him - Isa 9:6; Luke 1:79; John 14:27; 16:33; Acts 10:36; 2 Cor 5:20. He preached peace Himself and through His apostles and is still preaching it through His servants everywhere.

"Far off" - Gentiles - v 13. "Near" - Jews.

preached peace to you who were far off, and to those who were near. 18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father.

19 Now therefore you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but are fellow citizens with the saints, and belong to the household of God, 20 and are built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone. 21 In him the whole building is fitted together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord. 22 In him you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God through the Spirit.

2:18 See 3:12; Rom 5:2; Heb 10:19-22. Now everyone whether Jew or Gentile can come directly to God through Christ. Observe the Trinity here – we approach God the Father through God’s Son by the Holy Spirit.

2:19 The exact opposite of v 12. “Fellow citizens” suggests a connection with a city or country. Compare Gal 4:26; Phil 3:20; Heb 11:16; 12:22.

“Household of God” – God has a family. It is not made up of all mankind but of those who have been born into His family by His Spirit – v 5. Spiritually speaking all believers in Christ are brothers and sisters with God as their Father – 2 Cor 6:17,18.

2:20-22 Believers in Christ are also God’s house, God’s temple. Compare 1 Cor 3:16; 6:19; 1 Pet 2:4,5. See the many expressions Paul uses in this letter to reveal what believers are to God. They are

God’s sons (1:5),
 God’s inheritance (1:18),
 The Son of God’s “Body” (1:23),
 God’s workmanship (2:10),
 God’s people, citizens of God’s heaven, and God’s household (2:19),
 And God’s temple (v 21).

A temple is a place where worship goes on and where offerings are made. So it is with God’s living temple composed of His people – Rom 12:1; Heb 13:15,16.

2:20 “Apostles” – 1:1; Matt 10:2.

“Prophets” – this word could refer to Old Testament prophets, to New Testament prophets (3:5; 4:11; 1 Cor 12:28), or to both.

“Cornerstone” – 1 Pet 2:6; Isa 28:16. Builders cut out the cornerstone first. It was the most important stone in a building. It gave a true line to the walls with which it is connected and so gave stability and beauty to the whole building.

2:21 “Grows” – God’s building is not completed. It continues to grow as He adds new believers to it day by day. The building holds together in Christ and grows in Christ. Believers are like living “stones” fitted into the structure of God’s spiritual temple – 1 Peter 2:5. There is no reason to think that God ever tears any of these living stones out of His temple if they sin, or fits them back in again and again as they repent again

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles – 2 since you have heard of the administration of the grace of God which is given to me for you, 3 how that by revelation he made known to me the mystery (as I wrote before in few words, 4 so, by reading that you can understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) 5 which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit, 6 namely, that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs with Israel, and of the same body, and share in the same promise in Christ, through the gospel; 7 of and again. God is a better planner, architect and builder than that, and His placement of the stones more permanent than that. Before the foundation of the world He knew what stones He wanted in his temple and chose them in advance – 1:4,5 – so there is no question of taking any of them out once He has placed them in.

2:22 “You also” – you Gentile believers.

“Dwelling” – see notes at Ex 25:8; Rev 21:3. Believers in Jesus Christ form the only temple God now has on earth. He does not live in any temple made by men – Acts 17:24,25.

3:1 “For this reason” – 2:20-22.

“Prisoner” – Paul was in prison when he wrote this letter. He was there because of his devotion to Christ and because of the work of Christ he had done among the Gentiles (compare Acts chapters 21, 22). So he calls himself Christ’s prisoner. Also he well knew that men could not imprison him apart from Christ’s will for him.

“Gentiles” – Paul does not finish this sentence. He means to say that he is praying for them and he does say this in v 14 where he picks up the thought of this verse. Verses 2-13 contain another line of thought that came to his mind.

3:2 “Given me for you” – Paul was the apostle to the Gentiles – Gal 2:7-9; Acts 9:15; 22:21.

3:3,4 “Revelation” – Gal 1:11,12.

“Mystery” – notes at Matt 13:11; Rom 11:25; 16:25; 1 Cor 15:51. What mystery is Paul speaking of here? He tells us in v 6.

“Few words” – he is probably referring to some of the things he said in the first two chapters of this letter, such as 1:9; 2:19.

3:5 Rom 16:25,26; Col 1:26,27. The teaching of these apostles and prophets recorded in the New Testament is not of men but a revelation from God.

3:6 Paul here sums up what he said in 2:11-22. He lists three benefits to the Gentiles who believe the gospel of Christ. Together with Jewish believers they are heirs, members of the one true Church, the Body of Christ, and they share in the promise of God. “Promise” here may refer in general to salvation or more specifically to the Holy Spirit (1:13).

3:7,8 See how Paul regarded his service in the which I became a servant, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effectual working of his power. 8 To me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, 9 and to make everyone see what the fellowship of the mystery is, which, from the beginning of the world, has been hidden in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ. 10 His intent was that now through the church the manifold wisdom of God might be known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places, 11 according to gospel ministry. To him it was a wonderful gift of God. What a difference it would make in the churches if all Christians viewed the matter like this!

"Power" – 2 Cor 3:5,6; Col 1:29; Acts 1:8. Only God's power can make anyone a good servant of the gospel.

"Less than the least" – see Paul's view of himself. Compare 1 Cor 3:5-7; 15:9. He thought he was the least of all believers, the worst of all sinners (1 Tim 1:15). It is sad that some people have the opposite view of themselves and think they are the best of believers and the least of sinners.

"Unsearchable riches" – v 16; 1:7,18; 2:7. Some people hold the gospel in contempt, considering it a simple, foolish, useless thing (compare 1 Cor 1:18,23). Little do they know that the gospel speaks of spiritual riches in Christ which no one can trace out. There is no greater work on the face of the earth than telling others of these unsearchable riches of Christ.

3:9 In ages past God revealed other truth to men, but this truth He kept back until the time was ripe for it. Then He chose Paul to reveal it.

"Created all things" – Paul wanted people to know he was not speaking about some "god" but about the Creator of the universe (Gen 1:1).

3:10 God teaches through the Church (1:22,23) not only men but heavenly beings as well (and they want to learn – 1 Pet 1:12). God's dealings with Jews and Gentiles, His making believers from both groups one "body" in Christ, Christ's death to accomplish this – these matters are a revelation of God's great wisdom.

"Rulers and authorities" – in the unseen spiritual world there are both evil ones (6:12), and good ones (Col 1:16; 1 Pet 3:22; Dan 10:12,13). Here Paul probably means good ones. They must be filled with wonder and admiration at God's ways with the Church.

3:11 "Eternal purpose" – what has been happening on earth in the formation and growth of the Church has all been in accordance with an ancient master plan – 1:11.

3:12 See 2:18. "In Him" – John 14:6.

"Assurance and confident access" – Heb 4:16; 10:19-22.

"Through faith" – Rom 5:2

the eternal purpose which he ordained in Christ Jesus our Lord. 12 In him we have assurance and confident access to God, through faith in him. 13 Therefore I ask you not to lose heart because of my sufferings for you, which are your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, 16 that according to the riches of his glory, he would grant you to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner person, 17 so that Christ may dwell in 3:13 "Not to lose heart" – they might have been tempted to think that if Paul was a true servant of God he would not have to suffer. Or that if he had to face persecution they too would have to face it. In any case Paul did not want them to lose heart. As for himself he rejoiced in his sufferings for Christ – Col 1:24; 2 Cor 12:10; Rom 5:3.

"Sufferings" – v 1. Compare 2 Cor 11:23-29. His sufferings were for their sake 2 Cor 1:6; 2 Tim 2:9,10.

"Your glory" – Paul's sufferings were proof of God's love (and his love) for them. Suffering for Christ brings glory to Christ and Christ's "Body."

3:14,15 Paul now continues the thought he broke off at v 1.

"Father" – note at Matt 5:16. God's family of believers (2:19) are a family only because He is a father with a true father's nature and heart.

3:16 "Riches" – v 8; 1:7,18; 2:7; Phil 4:19. In his prayer in 1:17-19 Paul asked that they might have wisdom and know God's great power. Here he prays that they might be strengthened with that power and know Christ's great love.

"Spirit" – the Father has given the Holy Spirit to live in believers (1:13). He is the inner spiritual source of power for them.

3:17 "Dwell" – Paul was writing to believers, and all believers have Christ in them (Rom 8:9,10; 2 Cor 13:5; Col 2:27. See note on v 19). Here Paul is praying for something more for them. He wanted Christ to fully live His life in and through them (Gal 2:20), to make their hearts His home (John 14:23). It is sadly possible to have Christ in us and for us to try to keep Him as a sort of guest in one small room in our hearts. Christ wants to occupy with us the whole house – every part of our inner being. He wants us to recognize that the whole house is His, not ours. He wants our loving submission, obedience, and fellowship. He wants to be Lord in our hearts and govern all we think, plan, and do (Rom 14:9).

We should not try to be masters in our houses (our hearts), but servants to Him who lives there. He is the King of kings and wants our hearts as His palace and the place of His throne. This can happen only if God's Spirit strengthens us with power (v 16). If He does not, we will behave in such a way that Christ your hearts by faith, that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 may be able to comprehend with all saints what is its breadth and length and depth and height, 19 and to know the love of Christ, which passes knowledge, that you might be filled with all the fullness of God.

20 Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21 to him be glory in the church through Christ Jesus will be put into a corner of our hearts.

“By faith” – the true Christian life from beginning to end is a life of faith (2:8; Rom 1:17; Col 2:6), and Christ will occupy all of our hearts and feel at home there only as we continue to trust Him. If we have trusted Him to save us we should trust Him to fill us and completely occupy our inner being. And since He has revealed that He wants to do so why should we not trust Him to do it?

“Love” – the most important thing in this relationship between the Lord Jesus and a believer (John 14:23,24; 1 Cor 13:13). Love is like good ground where believers are to be “rooted” and grow. It is like a solid foundation to build their lives on.

3:18 The knowledge of Christ’s love inspires love in believers (1 John 3:16; 4:9-12,19). So we need to grasp the greatness of His love so that we will be rooted and established in love and love Him as He ought to be loved. Christ’s love is wider than the world, so long that we can never come to the end of it, so high it reaches beyond the skies to the eternal dwelling place of God, as deep as the fathomless wisdom and purpose of God (Rom 11:33).

3:19 How can we know that which surpasses knowledge? How can we grasp the infinite? God’s Spirit can give us an inner knowledge and experience of it. We will not understand the ocean merely by reading about it, but by sailing on it and by plunging into its depths. God Himself is infinite and eternal and beyond the full understanding of man. But believers know Him – Matt 11:27; Heb 8:11; 1 John 5:20. So it is with the love of Christ.

“Filled” – 5:18. To be filled with Christ is to be filled with God and with the Spirit of God. The fact that Christ is in the hearts of all believers in all places at the same time is proof that He is God. Only God is able to be in so many places at one time. See references on Christ’s deity at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

What greater prayer can there be than this one for the divine fullness? But can our little hearts hold all the fullness of God? Can a teacup hold all the fullness of the ocean? It can hold all the ocean it is possible for it to hold. It can be full to the brim with ocean. So with the believer’s heart and God. Believers should aim at nothing less than this.

3:20 But are the wonderful things of vs 16-19 really possible for us? Certainly. God would not present them to us and cause throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

4 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, appeal to you to walk worthy of the calling which you received, 2 with complete humility and meekness, with patience bearing with one another in love, 3 striving to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 4 There is one body, and one Spirit, just as you are called in one hope of your calling, 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism, us to hope for them if they were not possible. God is able to do these things in us and to do them beyond our ability to imagine. Then why is not this the usual experience of all believers? Because God requires that we really want it, yield ourselves completely to Him, humbly obey Him in everything, and trust Him and go on trusting Him for it (v 17; John 14:21; Rom 12:1,2. Compare Jer 29:13; Isa 57:15).

3:21 “To him be glory” – 1:6,12,14. Since it is God who does everything in and for believers it is only right that He should have the glory for doing it.

4:1 In the previous chapters Paul revealed what God has called us to be in Christ – God’s children, God’s inheritance, Christ’s body, God’s temple, Christ’s home. Now Paul exhorts us to live worthy of this calling. We must constantly behave as God’s own special children should behave. We should always keep in view the glorious truth of what we are in Christ and live in the light of it.

“Walk worthy of” – live and behave in a manner worthy of – Col 1:10; 1 Thess 2:12. Note on “walk” at 2:10. A worthy manner is a life lived in love for God and men. A loveless life, no matter how correct and moral and self-sacrificing and faithful, can never be a life worthy of our calling.

4:2 “Humility and meekness” – Matt 5:3,5; 11:29; Col 3:12; 1 Pet 5:5,6.

“Patience” – Paul defines one aspect of Christian patience. It is bearing with one another in love. It is love which makes it possible to bear things patiently in our relationships with one another which we could not (or at least would not) bear otherwise (1 Cor 13:4).

4:3 “The unity of the Spirit” – this is the unity God’s Spirit has created in making all believers one “body” in Christ (1 Cor 12:12,13). It is not an organizational unity, and believers cannot create it (see John 17:20-23). But in this unity believers can live in peace with one another, and this is what Paul here tells us to do (Rom 12:16,18; 2 Cor 13:11; 1 Pet 3:11). To do this requires much effort – “striving.” It will not happen by itself. In the next verses Paul shows the ground for unity and the reasons why believers should live in peace with each other.

4:4 “Body” – 1:22,23; 3:6. “Spirit” – 1:13; 2:22. “Hope” – 1:18.

4:5 “Lord” – 1:2; 1 Cor 8:6 (note at Luke 2:11).

6 one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But to each one of us grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. 8 Therefore he says,

“When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.”

9 (Now that “he ascended”, what is it but that first he also descended into the lower parts of the earth? 10 He that descended is the same also who ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) 11 And he gave some to be apostles, and some to be prophets, and some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, 12 for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for building up the body of Christ, 13 until we all come into the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a complete person, to the measure of the mature state of the fullness of Christ, 14 so that we will not be children,

“Baptism” – this is the only mention of baptism in Ephesians. Paul does not say whether he means baptism by water or by the Holy Spirit. He does not say “one mode of baptism”, though it seems likely that he means water baptism here. By “one baptism” he probably means baptism as symbolizing the forgiveness of sins and union with Christ. Notes on water baptism at Matt 3:2; Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; 1 Cor 1:14-17; on Spirit baptism at Acts 1:5; 1 Cor 12:13. Also see notes at Rom 6:3,4. 4:6 “God and Father” – 1:2,3,17; 3:14.

“In you all” – in all believers (2:22). God is not in all human beings (2:12; 4:18). The word “one” appears seven times in vs 4-6. Since all believers are one in all these seven matters, they should keep this oneness in the “bond of peace” (v 3). Observe the Trinity in these verses – one Spirit, one Lord, one Father, three persons, one God. Notes at Matt 3:16,17; 28:19; 2 Cor 13:14; Eph 4:4-6.

4:7-11 There are some matters in which all believers are the same (he has just listed seven), but in other matters they differ. This is true concerning their spiritual abilities and work. Paul mentions only the most important ones here.

4:7 Rom 12:4-8; 1 Cor 12:4-11.

4:8 Ps 68:18.

4:9 “Lower parts of the earth” – he probably means the unseen world of the dead (Rom 10:7).

4:10 “Ascended” – 1:20,21; Acts 2:31-35.

“Fill all things” – see Jer 23:24 which speaks of Jehovah God as doing this. This is another indication in the Bible that Christ is the incarnation of Jehovah. See note and references at Luke 2:11.

4:11 Compare 1 Cor 12:28.

“Apostles” – Matt 10:2.

“Prophets” – 2:20; 3:5. Note at Gen 20:7; 1 Cor 12:10,28.

“Evangelists” – those who have a special gift of preaching Christ’s gospel.

“Pastors and teachers” – these two words signify the same group of men. All pastors ought to have the gift of teaching and all teachers of God’s Word should have the pastor’s heart. If God has called them to this ministry they should confidently look to God for the abilities necessary to do it well.

Observe that “priests” are not here – for all believers are priests. See 1 Peter 2:5.

4:12 Here is the grand purpose Christ has in giving spiritual gifts to individuals and giving those individuals to the Church. Compare 1 Cor 12:7.

“For the perfecting of the saints” – the Greek word translated “perfecting” here is not the same word found in Matt 5:48 or Heb 6:1, but has in it the idea of preparing or making fit, of a process that leads to completion.

“For the work of the ministry” – or “the work of service” – in this verse it is the saints who are to do service for others to build them up in Christ (see Gal 5:13), and it is the work of the pastors and teachers and evangelists to prepare them to do it. Not every believer is in what is called “full-time ministry”, but every believer should be ready at all times to serve fellow believers.

“For building up” – Rom 14:19; 1 Cor 14:12,26; 1 Thess 5:11. This should be the aim of every believer. He should always be seeking ways to edify others. Imagine the changes there would be in some churches if this principle were put into practice by everyone.

4:13-15 Growth into spiritual maturity is what God desires for us. Compare 1 Cor 3:1-3; Heb 5:11 - 6:1; 1 Pet 2:1-3; 2 Pet 3:18. In v 13 this maturity is in unity of faith in Christ and in knowledge of Him. In v 15 it is in all spiritual things. We should grow deeper and deeper into Christ and up to Him until we all together attain His fullness. This is what God plans for His Church as a whole, and He will accomplish it. Individually we are to work with Him by “speaking the truth in love” (v 15).

This is exceedingly important in spiritual growth. If we wish to grow we must learn to speak to one another God’s truth revealed in the Bible, and to tell the truth in all our dealings with one another (v 2,25; 6:14; Ps 15:2; 25:5; 31:5; 51:6; Prov 6:16,17; 12:22; 1 Cor 5:8; Col 3:9; 1 John 2:21). Truth is the ground in which the Church is planted. It is the food it must eat, the air it must breathe. When truth is lost all is lost. We must love the truth and learn to speak the truth out of a heart of love for one another. Of course, this is the exact opposite of the way of many who creep into churches and practice the things God condemns in v 14.

4:14 Rom 16:17,18; 2 Cor 11:13-15; Col 2:8; 1 Tim 4:2.

tossed this way and that and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery and cunning craftiness of men in their deceitful plotting, 15 but speaking the truth in love, in everything may grow up in him who is the head, that is, Christ. 16 From him the whole body joined and knit together by what every ligament supplies, with the effectual working of every part in due measure, causes the body to grow and edify itself in love.

17 This I say, therefore, and solemnly declare in the Lord: henceforth you must not live as other Gentiles live, with their futile thinking. 18 Their understanding is darkened, and they are shut out from the life of God because of the ignorance that "Tossed. . .carried about" - this can happen to those who do not understand and apply God's Word and so fail to grow in Christ. Compare Gal 1:6,7; 3:1.

4:16 "Joined and knit together" - a physical body is held together by physical ligaments, muscles, bones, etc. Christ's body the Church is held together by spiritual bonds created by God's Spirit (1 Cor 12:12-27). And every member has a responsibility to the whole body to see that it will "edify itself in love." 4:17 "Live" - 4:1. If we live like people in the world we are not living a life worthy of Christ (2:2,3). Because others behave in a certain way is no reason why we should behave in that way.

"Futile thinking" - Rom 1:21; Acts 14:15; 1 Pet 1:18. Many in the world pride themselves on their ability to think and reason. In God's eyes their thinking, especially their religious and philosophical thinking, is empty and useless.

4:18 In four phrases Paul states the condition of people in the world without Christ.

"Understanding is darkened" - 6:12; Ps 82:5; John 1:5; 3:19; Acts 26:18; 2 Cor 4:4; 1 Pet 2:9; 1 John 2:11.

"Shut out" or "separated" from the life of God - 2:12; John 14:17; Rom 8:9,16; Jude 19.

"Ignorance that is in them" - no doubt they know many things, but they do not know the one true God (John 15:21; 16:3; Rom 1:22; 1 Cor 1:21; 1 John 2:4).

"Blindness of their heart" - this is the condition of all men without Christ. Compare 2 Cor 4:4. Sad it is for anyone to be physically blind. Sadder still when people have blind minds, blind hearts which cannot see the truth of Christ. The Greek word translated "blindness" in this verse may also be translated "hardness" or "insensibility" or "dullness."

4:19 See 2:3. This is the result of blinded, hardened hearts - men lose moral and ethical feeling. Sin no longer seems like sin, and they begin to deny it is sin. The next step is abandoning themselves to sexual immorality, or other evils. Rom 1:24-32 is a true and terrible description of what happens then.

"Unrestrained lust" - lust is never really is in them, resulting from the blindness of their heart. 19 Being past feeling they have given themselves to unrestrained lust to commit eagerly every impure act.

20 But you did not learn Christ like that. 21 If indeed you have heard him and been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus, 22 you learned this with regard to your former conduct: put off the old man, which is corrupt according to its deceitful desires, 23 be made new in the spirit of your mind, 24 and put on the new man, which is created by God in righteousness and true holiness.

25 Therefore putting away lying, every man must speak the truth with his neighbour, for we are satisfied. The more men try to satisfy it the more it craves, the more it rages and demands.

4:20,21 Even some so-called Christians live as those described in v 19. But their style of life contradicts everything they learned about Christ.

"As the truth is in Jesus" - John 1:17; 14:6. Humbly, obediently learning from Him will result in being delivered from all that is seen in vs 17-19.

4:22 "Old man" - compare Rom 6:6. The old man is what we were before Christ called us and saved us. It means the whole of our former way of life (2:1-3). This old self was crucified with Christ, and believers have already put it off (Col 3:9). Why, then, does Paul tell them to put it off? Because some of the old ways of thinking and behaving and desiring stick to us and we need to deal with them.

4:23 Rom 12:2. This will make all the difference in the way we behave.

4:24 "The new man" is the new way of living in Christ. He Himself, when He was on earth, showed us how to live. And He created in us a new spiritual nature that will enable us to live a holy, righteous life (2:5,10; Rom 8:4).

"Put on" - Col 3:10; Rom 13:14; 1 John 2:6. "Putting on" speaks of outward behavior. A believer's actions should be in accordance with what he is in Christ. He is a new creation (1 Cor 5:17), and must behave like one. Hypocrites put on something outwardly that is not real inwardly. Believers have something spiritual, real, and wonderful inwardly and are to let this be seen in the way they live.

"Created by God" - 2 Cor 5:17. The new nature believers have is as holy and righteous as the old nature is unholy and unrighteous, or even more so, and they are to live accordingly.

4:25-32 Paul makes clear what he means by the words "put off" and "put on." Believers must "put off" (quit, reject) everything contrary to truth and holiness and goodness, and "put on" (start practicing) everything in harmony with them.

4:25 Verse 15. Truth builds up. Falsehood destroys. When Christians fail here they members one of another. 26 Be angry, and do not sin. Do not let the sun go down while you are angry. 27 And do not give place to the devil. 28 He who formerly stole must steal no longer. Instead, he must labour, working with his hands at some good task, so that he may have something to give to those in need.

29 Let no corrupt talk come out of your mouth, but what is good and useful for edification, that it may minister grace to those who hear it. 30 And do not grieve the holy Spirit of God, by whom you are sealed until the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness and rage and anger and uproar and evil speaking be put away from you, together with all malice, 32 and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, just as God, will be in continual trouble with each other and with the God of truth (Ps 31:5). All lying and deceiving by believers is a sin both against God and against the body of Christ the Church.

4:26 Ps 4:4; Matt 5:22. Anger can lead to the sins he mentions in v 31. Believers should deal with it the very day that it rises in their hearts.

4:27 Falsehood and anger are two ways Christians give opportunity to Satan to create trouble among them. And Satan is always looking for such opportunities (2 Cor 2:11; 1 Pet 5:8).

4:28 "Steal no longer" - stealing would include taking a fund entrusted to our care, or "borrowing" from it and not returning it, or falsifying accounts for personal benefit, etc, as well as taking things which belong to others. Compare John 12:6. This is a terrible temptation to a certain kind of person. The many failures in this matter among Christians make spiritual people weep - indeed they make Christ weep. If anyone is guilty of this let him or her have the good sense to return what has been taken and get right with God. Should not God's smile, God's fellowship be more important to us than any amount of unjust gain?

"Working . . . to give" - Acts 20:34,35; 2 Thess 3:6-10. Money earned honestly and shared with others glorifies God. Dishonesty and selfishness dishonor Him.

4:29 "Corrupt talk" - 5:4; Col 3:8; Matt 12:36. If Christ is in our hearts how can we dare to use filthy language?

"Useful for edification" - this should always be the purpose of what we say and do (vs 12,15,16).

4:30 "Grieve" - the Holy Spirit is not an unfeeling, unconscious influence, but a person (see John 14:16,17). How do believers grieve Him? By the sins Paul has been speaking of - lying, anger, stealing, selfishness, bad talk, etc. Anything unholy will grieve Him who is pure holiness. And anything we do that unnecessarily grieves any of God's people grieves Him.

"Sealed" - 1:13,14. Even if believers for Christ's sake, forgave you.

5 Therefore be followers of God as dear children, 2 and walk in love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God as a fragrant aroma.

3 But as for sexual immorality, and all uncleanness or greed, let there be not even a mention of these among you, as is proper for saints; 4 nor let there be filthiness, or foolish talk, or coarse jesting, which are improper, but rather giving of thanks. 5 For this you know: no sexually immoral person, no impure person, no covetous person (he is an idolater), has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. 6 Let no man deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath grieve the Holy Spirit He does not leave them. But there will be misery in their hearts.

4:31 Other sins which grieve God's Spirit. We must put them off - reject them as having no right to exist in our lives.

4:32 Verse 2; Rom 12:10,17,19; Col 3:12,13. God has forgiven believers freely and completely. So believers must forgive those who offend them. If they do not they will be in trouble with God Himself. He will act toward them as they act toward others. See Matt 6:12,14,15; 18:21-35. If we refuse to forgive those who offend us we injure ourselves, grieve Christ, and cause trouble to the Church.

5:1 Matt 5:48. God's children must behave like their Father.

"Dear children" - 1 John 3:1.

5:2 "Walk in love" - or "Live a life of love" - 3:19; 4:15; John 13:34; Rom 12:10; Gal 5:6,13; 1 John 3:11,16-18; 4:7,8. Note on "walk" at 2:10.

"Christ loved us" - v 25; John 13:1; 15:9,12; Rom 8:37; Gal 2:20.

"Offering. . . fragrant aroma" - Matt 20:28; 26:28; John 1:29; Rom 3:25; 5:8; 2 Cor 5:14; Heb 9:14; 10:10,14; 1 Peter 2:24; 3:18. The word "fragrant" brings to mind the offerings of the Old Testament which are symbols of Christ (Lev 1:9,13,17, etc).

5:3 4:1; 1 Cor 6:13-18; 1 Pet 1:14,15; 1 John 2:6.

"Greed" - v 5; Luke 12:15-21; 1 Tim 6:6-10; Heb 13:5; 2 Pet 1:4.

5:4 4:29; Col 3:8. "Giving of thanks" - v 20; Col 3:17; Phil 4:6; 1 Thess 5:18; Heb 13:15; Ps 50:14; 113:1; Lev 7:12,13.

5:5 1 Cor 6:9-11; Gal 5:21; Heb 10:26,27; 1 John 3:9,10.

"An idolater" - a covetous person is called an idolater because such a person is worshipping the thing or things he has greedily set his desires on. His idol is in his heart - see Ezek 14:3,4.

"Kingdom" - see Matt 4:17; Rom 14:17; Col 1:13.

5:6 "Let no man deceive you" - 1 Cor 6:9; Gal 6:7; 1 John 3:7,8. Some people of God comes upon the children of disobedience. 7 Therefore do not be sharers with them.

8 For at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Behave as children of light 9 (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 finding out what is acceptable to the Lord. 11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. 12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. 13 But all things exposed are made evident (including some Christians) persuade themselves that they can go on sinning as they please and still have a place in God's kingdom, and they try to persuade others also. But such people are indulging in base deceit and empty words.

"The wrath of God" – see notes at Num 23:5; Deut 4:25; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18; etc.

5:7 2 Cor 6:14-18; etc.

5:8 Sinners and unbelievers are not only in spiritual darkness, they are darkness. Similarly believers are not only in the light, in Christ they are the light (Matt 5:14-16). They have the privilege and duty of living according to what they are. God is light (1 John 1:5). Therefore His children are children of light, children of the One who is absolutely pure and holy. So they must endeavor to live in an absolutely pure and holy way.

5:9 "Fruit" – Matt 7:17-20; John 15:1-8; Rom 7:4.

"Goodness" – Gal 5:22.

"Righteousness" – 4:24; Matt 5:6; Rom 6:18; 8:4; 14:17,18; 2 Cor 5:21; Phil 1:11; 1 Tim 6:11; 1 Pet 2:24; Ps 15:1,2.

"Truth" – 4:15,21,25.

5:10 Rom 12:2; 2 Cor 5:9. The whole aim of the believer should be to find out what pleases the Lord Jesus and do those things.

5:14 This is not a quotation from the Old Testament but may be based on some verses there – Isa 60:1; Mal 4:2. The words may be part of an ancient Christian hymn.

"Rise from the dead" – those who live in darkness and sin are spiritually asleep and "dead" (2:1). The light of Christ is shining in the world through His people. And those who are asleep and dead must rise and come to Christ.

5:15 "Behave" – or "walk" – note at 2:10. Believers are to live in such a way that God's light shines through them into the darkness where men sleep in sin and are dead.

"Wise" – Col 4:5; Matt 10:16. Believers need wisdom to know how to live in a fallen world like this. We can have this wisdom (Jam 1:5,6).

5:16 He means we should make the most of our opportunities to let our light shine in the world.

"The days are evil" – Gal 1:4; Phil 2:15; 2 Tim 3:1.

5:17 "Understand" – 1:18; 4:18; Col by the light. For whatever makes evident is light. 14 Therefore he says, "You who are sleeping, awake and rise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."

15 See then that you behave carefully, not as fools, but as wise, 16 redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17 Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is. 18 And do not get drunk with wine, in which is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, 19 speaking among yourselves in psalms and

1:9; 2:2; Rom 12:1,2.

5:18 "Drunk" – Rom 13:13; 1 Cor 5:11; 6:10; Gal 5:21; Isa 5:11,22; Gen 9:21. The "Spirit", of course, means God's Spirit (1:13,14; 2:18,22; 3:16).

"Filled with the Spirit" – this is God's will for every believer. God does not tell us to do something or to have something which is not His will for us. This fullness of God's Spirit is the same thing seen in Paul's prayer for believers in 3:19. Since this is God's will we know that we can have this fullness (1 John 5:14,15; Luke 11:13). We can have it by going directly to the heavenly Father and receiving this by faith, without the involvement of any human being. Also see notes at Acts 1:5; 2:4,39.

"Be filled" means to be constantly filled, to receive the fullness and remain in that condition. God wants this to be the normal state of all believers. This is the Christian life as we should live it. How else can we deny ourselves as we should and live as we should and serve Christ as we should? To be constantly filled means, on our part, constant obedience, submission and trust.

What does "filled" mean? A person drunk on wine is under the influence and control of wine. A person filled with God's Spirit is controlled by God's Spirit. But this does not mean he loses control of himself (1 Cor 14:32,33). A fruit of the Spirit is self-control – Gal 5:23). It is a conscious, loving obedience to the Spirit and a joyful fellowship with Him.

5:19-21 What is the evidence for the fullness of God's Spirit? Paul says nothing here about signs and miracles, or gifts or manifestations of the Spirit. No single one of those is given to all believers. Some have one and some another (Rom 12:4-8; 1 Cor 12:7-11,28-30). It is possible to have some gift or many gifts of the Spirit and not be in a Spirit-filled condition (1 Cor 1:7; 3:1,3). And it is possible to be filled with the Spirit and not have the gift that some Christians emphasize so much (notes at Acts 2:4,11; 1 Cor 12:10,28-30).

Paul here speaks of other things, things which show the fullness of God's Spirit – joyful fellowship with other believers, thanksgiving to God, and submission to one another. The fruit of the Spirit (Gal 5:22) grows best in those constantly filled with the Spirit.

5:19 Music and singing of a spiritual kind hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, 20 giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

21 Submit yourselves to one another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, be submissive to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, just as Christ is the head of the church and the saviour of the body. 24 Therefore as the church is to be in submission to Christ, so the wives should be to their own husbands in everything.

25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself for it, 26 that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing naturally spring from a Spirit-filled heart.

5:20 Notice the words "always" and "for all things." See 2 Cor 4:15; Col 2:7; 4:2; 1 Thess 5:18; 1 Tim 2:1; Heb 13:15; Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; etc. Believers can do this because of Rom 8:28 - if they are filled with God's Spirit.

5:21 "Submit" - vs 22,24; 6:1,5; 1 Cor 16:16; Heb 13:17; 1 Pet 5:5. Submission means obedience. It is the opposite of self-will, self-assertion and arrogant independence.

"Fear" - see notes at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

5:22-24 "As to the Lord" - this does not mean that wives are to regard their husbands as they regard Christ, but that they are to be in submission to both their husbands and Christ. Submission to their husbands is a duty that they owe to Christ, in these modern days just as in the days when Paul wrote these words. Compare Col 3:18. See also 1 Tim 2:11-13; 1 Pet 3:1,2,5,6. Wives who refuse to do this are fighting against God's order and will bring sorrow on themselves. "Head of the wife" - this does not mean that women are inferior to men. It means that God in His great wisdom has established an order in the home and in society and He wants believers to follow that order. See 1 Cor 11:3-16 and notes.

"Body" - v 30; 1:22,23.

5:24 "In everything" - Paul is speaking of a situation where both husband and wife are believers and both are submitting themselves to the Lord. If a husband wants a wife to do something contrary to God's Word or against her conscience she must not obey him. God does not want a wife to obey if it means her sinning. See the principles laid down in God's Word - Acts 4:19; 5:29; Rom 14:23; etc.

5:25 "Love" - wives have their duty - submission. Husbands have theirs - loving (this is not to say that wives should not love their husbands, or that husbands should never give in to the wishes of their wives). Paul is speaking of love in action, lived out in the way husbands treat their wives, not of water by the Word, 27 that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish. 28 So men ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. 29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church. 30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. 31 For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two of them will be one flesh. 32 This is a great mystery. But I am speaking about Christ and the church. 33 Nevertheless let each one of you also love his wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she shows reverence to her husband.

as some mere romantic feeling. Husbands who fail in this are responsible for many difficulties and much sadness in the marriage relationship.

"Just as Christ" - compare John 13:34.

"Gave himself" - v 2; Gal 2:20; Rom 5:8; John 10:11,15.

5:26,27 See why Christ died for the Church. Compare 1:4; Titus 2:14; 1 Cor 6:11. He is perfectly holy and will not be satisfied until His Church is perfectly holy. Verse 27 will be accomplished when the Church rises to meet Christ in the air at His second coming (1 Cor 15:50-57).

"Washing of water by the Word" - some scholars seem sure that Paul here means water baptism. This seems very unlikely. Let us all know and remember that the important thing is an inner cleansing by God's Word and God's Spirit and not an outward symbol of cleansing (baptism). On cleansing and washing see Ps 51:2,7; Ezek 36:25,26; John 13:5-10; 15:3; Titus 3:5 (John 3:3-8); Heb 9:14; 1 John 1:7,9.

5:28,29 He means that husband and wife are "one flesh" (v 31). Since she is like his own flesh he should love her as he does his own body.

"Cherishes" - this means love in the way he behaves toward her (v 25). Love that is not expressed in action is not Christian love, not Christ's love - 1 John 3:18. Christ did not remain in heaven sending messages of love. He came down and gave Himself for us (v 25). He now "nourishes and cherishes" the Church.

5:30 See 1:23; 2:16; 3:6; 4:4,12,16; Rom 12:4,5; 1 Cor 12:12,13,27.

5:31 Gen 2:24.

5:32 For this reason a person will leave his (or her) parents, and sisters and brothers, and all he has and himself also to be united to Christ, and the two will become "one spirit" (1 Cor 6:17; Matt 4:18-22; 10:37-39; Luke 14:26,27,33). Paul speaks of a husband as being a symbol or type or picture of Christ, and his wife as being a symbol of the Church. Compare 2 Cor 11:2; John 3:28,29; Rev 19:7.

5:33 Need it be said that a husband should

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 2 "Honour your father and mother." This is the first commandment with a promise: 3 "That it may be well with you, and that you may live long on the earth."

4 And you fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Slaves, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Christ, 6 not live in such a way that he deserves the respect of his wife? or that a wife should live in such a way that she is worthy of her husband's love? The Greek word translated "reverence" in this verse and the word translated "fear" in v 21 are from the same root.

6:1 Paul is still speaking to believers in Christ ("in the Lord"). Children are not bound to obey parents if those parents give instructions and commands contrary to God's Word. But in all other matters they should obey. Disobedience to parents is a mark of the sinful and rebellious nature in children and a child who disobeys his parents will not find it difficult to disobey God (Rom 1:30).

6:2,3 Ex 20:12; Deut 5:16. Believers are not under the law (Rom 6:14,15; 7:4; Gal 3:25). But the righteousness of the law is to be fulfilled in them (Rom 8:4). And obedience to parents is "right" (v 1). If Christian children do not obey their parents they have no good reason to expect that things will go well with them or that they will enjoy a long life on earth.

6:4 Treating children unjustly or too severely, or without sensitivity or sympathy will provoke them. Discipline is absolutely necessary (see Prov 13:24; 19:18; 22:15; 23:13,14; Heb 12:7,8), but it should be discipline with love and the children should be made to see this. God has placed children in the hands of their parents. They belong to God (Ezek 18:4). God has given their parents the duty and privilege of bringing them up for Him. By acts and words parents must help make children what God wants them to be. Compare Deut 6:6,7; Ps 34:11; 78:4-8. If parents neglect this supreme duty should they be surprised if their children turn out badly and bring much sorrow to them?

6:5 "Slaves" - or "servants" - the Greek word means either, but Paul is speaking to those who were under the authority and control of others, and not to those who were paid servants. Slavery was a common thing in the ancient world. In the Roman Empire (where Ephesus was) people were bought and sold like cattle. Many of these slaves were prisoners of war or descendants of prisoners. In some cities there were more slaves than free men. Many of these slave became Christians. What should they do?

with service because he is watching or as pleasers of men, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, 7 serving with good will, as to the Lord and not to men, 8 knowing that whatever good anyone does, he will receive a reward for it from the Lord, whether he is slave or free.

9 And you masters, act in the same way toward them, leaving off threatening, knowing that your Master also is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord

Revolt and try to escape from their masters? The New Testament does not say so (1 Cor 7:20-24. See also Col 3:22; 4:1; 1 Tim 6:1,2; Titus 2:9,10; 1 Pet 2:18-25).

The NT does not teach that slavery is a good thing. It only shows that in the situation as it then existed both slaves and masters had duties to one another, and it lays down certain principles of behavior. But Christians came to see that slavery was an evil because it violated the law of love (Rom 12:10; 13:8-10; etc), and they got slavery abolished in those countries where they were able to do so. Slavery cannot long exist where the gospel of Christ has free course. See the note on slavery at Ex 21:3.

6:6-8 Paul is saying that there are more important matters than personal freedom. Obeying Christ, doing the will of God, being freed from the slavery of sin, having the right attitude about the condition we find ourselves in - these are the supreme things whether one is a slave or a free man.

"Slaves of Christ" - Rom 6:16-18,22; 1 Cor 9:19.

"Reward" - Matt 5:12; 10:41,42; 16:27; 1 Cor 3:8,14; Heb 10:35; Rev 11:18; 22:12.

6:9 Believing slaves were just as much members of Christ's body the Church as believing masters, and together they had one Head, one Lord, one Master. So masters had better recognize this and behave accordingly. This is just as true today in regard to hired servants and those who hire them.

"No favoritism" - Rom 2:11; Col 3:25; 1 Pet 1:17. Christ will judge us by what we have actually done and by our words and motives, not by our situation in society.

6:10 "Strong in the Lord" - 1:19-21; 3:16; 1 Cor 16:13; 2 Cor 12:10; Phil 4:13; Col 1:29; 1 Tim 1:12; 2 Tim 2:1; Heb 11:34; Josh 1:6,7,9,18; Ps 18:32-36; Isa 40:30,31; Rom 8:37. Believers are on a spiritual battlefield. They are God's soldiers (1 Tim 6:11; 2 Tim 2:3,4; 4:7). As such they must be equipped to fight and to win. Their own strength and will power are not enough for this. They need God's strength, and they should look to Him for it and trust Him for it (1 John 5:14,15). And we must not neglect His Word. The whole Bible is available that we might be and in the power of his might. 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against rulers, against powers, against the princes of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickstrong for the fight.

6:11 "Whole armor" - Paul has spoken of great blessings (1:3), great salvation (1:13,14), great understanding, great power, great love (1:18,19; 3:17-19). But we should not get the impression that the Christian life will be an easy thing. We should not be surprised if Satan attacks us; we should be surprised if he does not (1 Pet 5:8). Paul here used a figure of speech based on the way Roman soldiers of that day fought in battle. Partial armor would not have meant partial success. It would have meant no success at all. It would have left them vulnerable and in mortal danger. God has prepared spiritual armor for believers in Christ.

We must understand what this armor is and put all of it on. We must not try to choose the helmet of salvation and refuse the breastplate of righteousness, etc. If we do not have the whole armor on, instead of standing against Satan's schemes we may fall. And if we fall we may be sure that Satan will try to keep his foot on us and give us many a wound. Notes on the devil at Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44.

"Wiles" - 2 Cor 2:11. Believers have a very clever enemy who is determined to defeat them and who is always plotting their downfall.

6:12 The devil is not alone in his fight against believers. Many in the unseen realm of spirits (the "heavenly places" - note at 1:3) are on his side. Satan is the "ruler" and "god" of this world (John 12:31; 2 Cor 4:4), but there are other unseen rulers working with him (see Dan 10:13,20; 1 Tim 4:1; Rev 16:14). These are evil spirits, demons, angels who rebelled against God. These are the "gods" worshiped by many people (1 Cor 8:5; 10:20; Deut 32:17; Ps 106:37). Of course these "gods" will try to convince people they are good or God Himself or supreme lords and destroyers of demons).

6:13 "Therefore" - without God's armor how can we stand against such evil powers, their deceitful tricks, and their desire to ruin us?

"Put on" - this indicates that the armor is within our reach. Where is it? In Christ. Or we should say it is Christ Himself. Compare Rom 13:14 - this verse should help us understand what Paul means by putting on God's armor. Putting on the armor means to understand and apply the truth Christ has revealed, that He is. It means to study, to understand, to believe, to apply God's Word to ourselves. This putting on is first in the mind, in the heart, in the spirit, and then in the outward behavior.

"The evil day" - this whole age is evil (Gal 1:4), and the days in which Paul wrote edness in the heavenly places. 13 So take for yourselves the whole armour of God that you may be able to resist them in the evil day and, having done everything, to stand. 14 Stand, therefore, having your waist girded with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness, we evil (5:16). But for each individual believer there will come special times of temptation and trials when unseen evil authorities will make special efforts to defeat him or her. We can never know when those evil days may come, and so must have God's armor on every day. Without any warning, very suddenly Satan may strike at us. Compare Job 1:6-19; 2 Sam 11:2; Gen 3:1. We need to be always alert (1 Pet 5:8).

6:14 "Stand" - this is the fourth time in four verses Paul uses this word. We are not to lie down and let Satan walk over us. We are not to turn our backs and run away. We are not to sit lazily by while others do the fighting. We are not even to refuse to fight by turning the whole battle over to Christ. Christ will be in us and by our side, but we too must fight. We cannot be passive spectators on this spiritual battleground and hope to participate in the victory. We must stand and fight against all evil powers, unshaken in faith and loyalty to Christ, with unflinching courage and determination to fight and win. If we do not, the battle for us is almost lost before it begins. See note at Josh 1:17.

Paul names six pieces of armor. Observe that there is none for the back - there can be no protection for cowards who turn their backs to the enemy.

"Waist girded with truth" - truth is the foundation for everything else in the believer's life and warfare. Paul here can hardly be speaking of the believer's truthfulness and sincerity. Of course, all believers should be truthful and sincere (4:15,25, etc). But do we dare go against Satan merely with our own truthfulness and sincerity? To fight him successfully we need the truth God has revealed in the Bible. Compare John 8:31,32; 17:17,18. And we need to "put on" Christ who is the truth (John 14:6). Truth makes us free from Satan's power and fits us to live and fight.

Here the truth is to be used for defensive purposes. In v 17 it is to be used for offensive purposes. We must believe and understand and behave according to the truth. Otherwise we will have neither defense nor offense in this fight against Satan. In particular we must know and believe the gospel of Christ (4:21; 2 Thess 2:13,14; Titus 1:1; 1 Pet 5:8,9; John 14:6). To buckle on the belt of truth means to fill our minds with Bible truth and with Christ and be ready to apply it when facing Satan's attacks.

"Breastplate of righteousness" - compare 1 Thess 5:8. Here Paul is not speaking primarily of the believer's attempts to live a righteous life. Of course, we should all live righteous lives (4:1,22-24). But will

15 and your feet fitted with the preparation of the gospel of peace. 16 Above all, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, 18 praying always in the Spirit with all kinds of prayers and requests, and being alert for this with all this alone enable us to defeat the devil? This armor signifies Christ and what He is to believers. He is our righteousness (1 Cor 1:30; 2 Cor 5:21). We stand against Satan in Christ and in His righteousness, or we do not stand at all. God counts believers righteous in Christ and then sets out to make them actually righteous in their behavior in Him. To stand against Satan we need both aspects of righteousness – the righteousness God gives to us by faith (Rom 3:22-26; 5:1; 8:1), and the righteousness God works in us by His Spirit (Rom 8:4).

To put on and keep on the breastplate of righteousness means to keep constantly in mind that we are righteous by faith and that God has called us to live a righteous life and given us power to do so. It means to put on the "new man" (4:24). It means to be right with God and to know we are standing on the basis of the truth God has revealed. It includes confessing and putting away all sin and knowing we have been cleansed from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9). We must have this knowledge and this confidence, or Satan will wound us. Need it be said that if we rely on our own righteousness he will be able to knock us off our feet without difficulty?

6:15 "The preparation of the gospel of peace" – Paul is not speaking about our readiness to tell others the gospel. Of course we should all be ready to do that. And an element in the victory of believers over the devil is "the word of their testimony" (Rev 12:11). But here he is speaking about standing our ground against Satan and he knew that only the gospel of Christ can make us ready for that. Our spiritual "feet" must be fitted with the gospel. In other words, we must understand the gospel, believe it, love it, know we have peace with God because of it, and apply its principles to our lives and "walk." This, too, is like being "clothed" with Christ. He Himself is the gospel and He is our peace (2:14; 3:8).

6:16 "Shield of faith" – Satan will hurl at us fiery temptations to sin, to leave the fight and seek comfort and pleasure, to forsake God and live for self. How can we stop these arrows from sticking in our minds and hearts and destroying our will to fight? By taking the gift of faith God gives us and using it. In Hebrews chapter 11 see what faith is and does. See also 1 Pet 5:9. If we want to defeat the devil we must trust the word of Christ. We must put our confidence in Him, not in ourselves. We must believe that He is with us, that He will give us strength for the fight, and victory over everything Satan can throw at us. This was Paul's assurance and it can be ours (Rom 8:31,37; 2 Cor 2:14; 2 Tim 4:18). It is by faith that we "clothe" ourselves with Christ and successfully resist the enemy.

6:17 "Helmet of salvation" – 1 Thess 5:8; Isa 59:17. A helmet is for the head. As God's spiritual soldiers we must fill our minds with thoughts of salvation. We must understand what salvation is. We must know that we are saved at present from sin (1:7; 2:5) and have the living hope of the completion of our salvation in the future (Rom 8:23-25). The Lord Jesus Himself is the salvation of His people and we must "clothe" ourselves with Him (Ps 18:2,3,17; 27:1; Jer 3:23; Luke 2:30; 1 Cor 1:30; 2 Tim 2:10).

"Sword of the Spirit" – a sword can be used for both defense and attack. See in Matt 4:1-11 how the Lord Jesus used this sword of the Spirit against Satan. Believers in Christ can do the same thing today. But they must know God's Word and understand it and be able to apply it to the temptations and trials that come to them. So we must believe the Bible and love it and study it and let it fill our minds and hearts and use it – 4:13,14; Col 3:16; 2 Tim 2:15; 3:16,17.

Why is God's Word called the sword of the Spirit? Because God's Spirit inspired the Bible and He alone can enable us to understand and use it properly (1:17,18; John 16:13; 1 Cor 2:10-14). What do we need to do to defeat Satan? Use God's Word against the suggestions, doubts, and temptations he brings to our minds.

6:18 Paul is still speaking of God's soldiers. He is still showing the way of victory over spiritual enemies. He knew that to be prayerless is to be defeated already, but that Satan trembles when he sees believers praying, because by praying they are calling God into the struggle. He is telling us that without prayer the armor will fail to protect us, that we should put it on with prayer and stand in it with prayer.

On prayer see references and notes at Gen 18:32; Ps 66:18; Jer 33:3; Dan 10:13; Matt 6:5-13; 7:7-11; 26:41; Mark 11:24,25; Luke 11:5-13; 18:1-14; John 14:13; 15:7; 17:1-26; Acts 1:14; Rom 8:26; 12:12; Phil 4:6; Col 4:2; 1 Thess 5:17; Heb 4:16; 10:19-22; Jam 5:13,16; 1 Pet 4:7.

Holding right views about the gospel and Christian doctrine, important as this is, is not enough to give us the victory over the devil. Without prayer we will be without spiritual strength in the battle against Satan.

Our praying should be "in the Spirit" – 2:18; Rom 8:26; Jude 20. This means God's Spirit. We should be yielded to Him and directed by Him in our praying. We are perseverance and requests for all saints.

19 And pray for me that it may be given to me to speak, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains, that in doing so I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 Tychicus, a dear brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you everything, so that you may know my situation and what I am doing. 22 I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you might know our state, and that he might encourage your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

to pray on "all" occasions with "all" kinds of prayer – requests for all sorts of things according to God's will, intercession for others, thanksgiving and praise (compare 1 Tim 2:1), secret prayer and public prayer, oral prayer and prayer in the heart.

"For all saints" – all believers are in this fight against spiritual enemies and should help each other in it by prayer. Can our prayers actually help others? Certainly. God has appointed this way and God does not tell us to do things that are useless.

6:19,20 "And pray for me" – Rom 15:30; 2 Cor 1:11; Phil 1:19; Col 4:3; 1 Thess 5:25; 2 Thess 3:1. Paul was a great apostle, filled with God's Spirit and a very successful soldier of Christ. Could the prayers of ordinary believers help him to speak as he should? Very evidently, yes.

"Mystery of the gospel" – means that the gospel is a revelation from God. Men could not have known it apart from this revelation.

"Boldly" – Acts 4:13,29,31; 28:31.

"Ambassador in chains" – 3:1; 2 Cor 5:20. 6:21,22 "Tychicus" – Acts 20:4; Col 4:7; 2 Tim 4:12; Titus 3:12.

6:23 "Love with faith" – love accompanies true faith (Gal 5:6). And the source of both love and faith is the Lord Jesus along with God the Father.

6:24 All true believers love Christ and love Him sincerely (1 Cor 16:22; 1 John 4:8). The Greek word translated "sincerity" here means "incorruptness" and is the same word used in 1 Cor 15:42,50,53,54 of the resurrection body believers will have. The love God plants in the hearts of His own people is divine and eternal love (1 Cor 13:1), and so it is sincere, incorruptible, undying.

The Letter of the Apostle Paul to the PHILIPPIANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime about 60 AD.

Themes:

Paul had founded this Church during his second missionary journey (Acts 16:12-40). Now he is in prison, being persecuted for preaching the gospel of Christ. However the key words of this letter are "joy" and "rejoice." Though encountering many troubles and dangers Paul did not give in to discouragement, did not complain about anything. He was rejoicing and he encouraged others to rejoice. Another theme of this letter is the proclamation and spread of the gospel (1:4,7,12,18,27; 2:15,22). For the sake of Christ's gospel Paul renounced his own aims and desires and patiently endured all things that he might make it known. He found his joy, his ability to endure and persevere, his righteousness, his strength and power in Christ alone, and revealed to the believers at Philippi (and to us) the way of life that is satisfying and fruitful, the kind of life that brings glory to Christ. Another important theme is renunciation – 2:5-8; 3:8-10.

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, together with the overseers and deacons:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God at every remembrance of you. 4 in every prayer of mine for all of you I pray with joy, 5 because of your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now, 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who has begun a good work in you will go on completing it, until the day of Jesus Christ.

7 So it is right for me to think this of all of you,

1:1 "Timothy" - Acts 16:1. We need not think that Timothy helped Paul in the contents of this letter but possibly wrote it down as Paul dictated it. Compare Rom 16:22. "Servants" - Rom 1:1.

"Saints" - Rom 1:7.

"Philippi" - Acts 16:12-40.

"Overseers" - Acts 20:28; 1 Tim 3:3; 1 Pet 5:2.

1:2,3 Rom 1:7,8.

1:4 "In every prayer" - Rom 1:10.

"Joy" - so me churches were at times a source of grief to Paul. In 1 Corinthians or Galatians there is no mention of his joy in them. The church at Philippi was quite different from those churches. Joy is a keynote of Philippians - it appears more in this short letter than in any other letter Paul wrote - 1:18,25,26; 2:2,17,18,28; 3:1; 4:1,4,10.

1:5 Here is the reason for Paul's thanksgiving and joy - there had been no break in the fellowship and mutual helpfulness they experienced - 4:14-16. The gospel of Christ had united them in mind, heart, and action.

"Gospel" - Paul defines the gospel in 1 Cor 15:1-8. The whole letter to the Romans is a fuller description of it.

1:6 "Confident" - 2 Cor 1:14,15; Gal 5:10; 1 Thess 1:4,5; Heb 6:9,10.

"He who has begun" - God. Let us learn from this verse the following:

True Christians are a work of God - Eph 2:10; 2 Cor 5:17. He is the one who begins the work of salvation in them (Jam 1:18; John 3:5-8; 6:37,44), and He is the one who carries the work on - 2:13; 1 Cor 12:6; Col 1:29; Heb 13:21.

This is a "good" work.

This is an inner work ("in you"), a work in the heart, the mind, the inner being - 2:13; Gal 2:20; Eph 3:16,20.

It is a work God finishes - Rom 8:29,30. Men may begin a work and leave it unfinished for one reason or another. Not God. When He begins the work of salvation in anyone He intends to complete it and will do so. Paul was confident of this and so should we be. In 2:12,13 we see that we should cooperate with God in this work. See notes there.

because I have you in my heart. For both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all share with me in God's grace. 8 For God is my witness how greatly I long for you with the tender affection of Jesus Christ.

9 And I pray that your love may overflow still more and more, in knowledge and in complete discernment, 10 that you may approve things that are excellent, and that you may be sincere and without offense until the day of Christ, 11 being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, for the glory and praise of God.

"The day of Jesus Christ" - Christ's second coming.

1:7 "In my heart" - 2 Cor 3:2; 6:11; 7:3.

"Chains" - v 13; Eph 4:1; 6:20.

"In the defense" - God's servants should know how to defend the gospel against attacks, objections, slanders, misunderstandings, etc, as well as to preach it.

"Grace" - note at John 1:14; Rom 1:7. It was God's grace which made them believers in Christ and brought them into the true Church the body of Christ.

1:8 Christ was in Paul and Paul's loving was Christ loving through him - Gal 2:20. We will not learn to love as he did unless we learn Christ as he did - Eph 3:17-19. Love is a fruit of God's Spirit in believers who live in obedience to Christ - Gal 5:22.

"I long for you" - here he reveals the heart every Christian worker should have. See also 4:1; Rom 1:11; 2 Cor 2:4; Gal 4:19,20; 1 Thess 2:17; 2 Tim 1:4.

1:9-11 Compare Paul's prayers for the Ephesians - 1:17-19; 3:16-19, and Colossians - 1:9-12. In Paul's prayers, inspired as they were by God's Spirit and recorded for our instruction, we can learn what God wants to do for us and in us. We can also learn how to pray for others.

1:9 "Your love" - he means their love for God and for fellow believers and for all mankind. He wants their love to increase in the right ways. They should know more and more what real love is and how to show this love to others in action. This love should not be blind but full of the knowledge of Christ and His love - Eph 3:17-19.

1:10 "Approve things that are excellent" - he is speaking of their lives together in one church as believers. He mentions some of these excellent things in 2:1-5,14,15; 4:8,9.

1:11 "Fruits" - Matt 7:17; Rom 6:22; 7:4; Gal 5:22; Eph 5:9.

"Of righteousness" - Heb 12:11; Jam 3:1;8 - fruit that comes from a right relationship with God.

"By Jesus Christ" - only through Him can there be any fruit acceptable to God (John 15:4,5).

"For the glory and praise of God" - Eph 1:6,12,14.

12 I want you to understand, brethren, that the things which happened to me have really turned out for the advancement of the gospel, 13 so that it has become clear among all the palace guard, and ever other place, that my chains are for Christ, 14 and many of the brethren in the Lord, becoming confident because of my chains, are much more bold to speak the Word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ out of envy and strife, but some with good will. 16 The former preach Christ out of selfish motives, not sincerely, thinking to add trouble to my chains, 17 but the latter out of love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the gospel. 18 What, then, is the result? Only that in every way, whether in pretense, or in truth, Christ is being preached. And

1:12 What happened to him was his arrest and imprisonment. This did not discourage him or cause him to murmur or complain. Compare Gen 50:20. He believed what he wrote in Rom 8:28.

"Advancement" - what some may consider an obstacle to the advance of the gospel might actually serve to advance it, and seeming disasters may turn into blessings. In God's hands all events in a believer's life serve a good purpose.

1:13 Paul was a witness for Christ to the soldiers who guarded him, soldiers who served the Roman emperor or governor or king as the case may be (we are not sure where Paul was in prison when he wrote this). So the gospel advanced in places it had not gone before. Compare 2 Tim 2:9.

"My chains are for Christ" - everyone came to understand that Paul was no criminal, no law-breaker, but was in prison because he preached Christ's gospel.

1:14 They knew it was a bold thing for Paul to preach to the authorities and guards who held him captive. His example of boldness made them more bold. And this too caused the gospel to advance.

1:15-17 Not everyone then who preached the gospel did so with good motives. Some were envious of Paul's greatness and success and considered themselves his rivals. Selfishness governed their outlook and ministry. The same is true today also. Some preachers want to be popular, want to succeed for their own sakes, want to put down other preachers and even cause them trouble if they can. But some now as then preach Christ sincerely, out of love for Him and for the souls of men.

1:18 Paul did not consider himself in competition with anyone. He wanted Christ and His gospel to be known everywhere. He could rejoice even if those who disliked him and caused him trouble preached Christ, and even if their motives were bad. It was not himself he wanted to see exalted but Christ. There is a great lesson here for all preachers. Of course Paul was referring to those who preached the truth about Christ and His gospel, not to those he warned in that I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance, through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ. 20 This is in accordance with my earnest expectation and my hope, that I will not be ashamed in anything, but that with complete boldness, now also, as always, Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. 21 For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. 22 But if I live on in the body, this will mean fruit from my labour. But I do not know what to choose. 23 For I am held between these two: I have a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better, 24 but to remain in the body is more necessary for you. 25 And being convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all against in other letters (2 Cor 11:13-15; Gal 1:7,8; etc).

1:19 Probably Paul is speaking of deliverance from the accusations against him and so deliverance from death at that time - vs 25,26.

"Through your prayer" - Philemon 22; Rom 15:30-32.

"Spirit of Jesus Christ" - see Rom 8:9 and note.

1:20 He was full of hope that he would not lose his boldness to speak for Christ at any time in any situation. Compare Eph 6:19,20.

"Christ. . .exalted" - this had always been the result of Paul's life and ministry from the time he speaks of in Gal 1:16, and this was still his aim and expectation. There can be no greater purpose than this in either life or death.

"In my body" - Christ was exalted by Paul's actions, by his day to day behavior, by the words of his mouth, not merely in his thoughts and desires.

1:21 "To live is Christ" - Gal 2:20. Paul lived by Christ's life in him, not his own. He served by Christ's power, not his own. His aim was Christ's glory, not his own.

"To die is gain" - Paul had no fear of death (see Heb 2:15). He knew the truth of Ps 116:15. He was sure that Christ would be exalted in him whether he lived or died - v 20. But, as v 23 shows, at least part of the gain he was thinking of was the joy of going to be with Christ. Is it true of everyone that to die is gain? No - only of those who live for Christ. No one whose life is self will find death a gain. Death is an enemy of all who do not know Christ.

1:22-24 "Fruit from my labor" - Rom 1:13; 7:4. Observe his confidence that his labor for Christ would be successful. This was born of the knowledge that it was Christ in Him doing the work - Col 1:29.

"What to choose" - both living and dying were very acceptable to him. He could hardly decide which he wanted most.

"Be with Christ" - 2 Cor 5:8; Luke 23:43. A believer at death goes into the presence of the Lord Jesus.

1:25 "I will remain" - personally he would of you for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 so that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you, or be absent, I may hear about you that you are standing firmly in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel, 28 and not at all afraid of your opponents. This is a clear sign to them of their destruction, but to you of your salvation, and that of God. 29 For it has been given to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake, 30 finding yourselves in the same conflict which prefer to die and go to Christ. To him this was far better than remaining on earth. But as usual what he wanted was not the important thing to him. The need of others – this is what determined his actions and prayers. Compare 1 Cor 9:19-23; 10:24,33. But how could Paul know he was not going to die at that time? God had given him assurance that prayer for his deliverance was going to be answered – v 19; 2:24.

“Progress. . . in the faith” – Eph 4:12,13. Joy will accompany progress in the faith. Every believer should be more concerned with progress in the Christian faith than with progress in anything of this world.

1:27 “Worthy” – Eph 4:1; Col 1:10; 1 Thess 2:12.

“Standing firmly” – Eph 6:11,14.

“One spirit”, “one mind” – 2:2; Eph 4:2; 1 Cor 1:10; Rom 12:16.

“Striving” – v 7; Jude 3. Believers must never weakly submit when the gospel is under attack, must never compromise with error and false teaching. The truths of the gospel are worth struggling for, and we must do so with all the wisdom and spiritual strength and ability (and love) God gives us.

1:28 “Not at all afraid” – vs 14,20; Matt 10:28; Heb 13:6.

“Your opponents” – v 30.

“Sign” – their boldness in Christ would be evidence that God was with them. See Acts 4:13; 2 Thess 1:4-7. Their opponents would be able to recognize that if God was with Christ’s believers, He was not with themselves who opposed them.

1:29 “Given. . . to believe” – faith is a gift of God – Eph 2:8. “To suffer” for Christ is also a gift of God. It is one of the great privileges we can have on earth. Happy are those who know this. See 3:10; Acts 5:41; Rom 5:3; 2 Cor 1:5; 1 Pet 5:13,14,16. Is it not an honor to suffer for the Lord Jesus who suffered and died for us? Love answers “yes”, and will not try by every possible means to escape discomfort, hardship, persecution, trouble or suffering for His sake.

1:30 “In my case” – for some of Paul’s difficulties in Philippi see Acts 16:19-40. There were still many opponents of the gospel in that place and believers there were you saw in my case, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is, therefore, any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender affections and mercies, 2 then make my joy full by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. 3 Let nothing be done through selfish motives or self-esteem, but in humbleness of mind let everyone consider others better than themselves. 4 No one should look only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, 6 who, being in the form of God, did still suffering at their hands.

2:1,2 Paul was concerned about the lack of harmony in the church there – 1:27; 4:2. He appeals to them on the basis of what they have as believers in Christ.

“If” – he is not doubting that they have the things he now lists. The meaning is “since you have these.”

“In Christ” – John 17:20-23; Rom 6:5; Eph 4:15,16.

“Comfort” – 2 Cor 1:3,5,7.

“Fellowship” – 2 Cor 13:14.

“Tender affections and mercies” – qualities every believer should have toward other believers.

2:3 “Ambition” – 1:17; Jer 45:5; 1 Cor 13:5; Gal 5:20.

“Consider others better” – Rom 12:10, 16; Gal 5:26; 1 Pet 5:5,6. See an example of this in Paul himself – Eph 3:8; 1 Tim 1:15.

2:4 Rom 14:19; 15:21; 1 Cor 10:24.

2:5-11 Paul puts before them the greatest possible example of the humility and love for others he has been speaking of. Is it possible for believers to have the same attitude as Christ, to think as He does? Certainly it is possible or Paul would not have written v 5. See 1 Cor 2:16; Rom 8:5. Christ is in believers, and when He is the master in their hearts (Eph 3:17) He can fill their minds with the thoughts and attitudes they should have. When this happens strife and selfishness and conceit and arrogance among them will end.

In these verses Paul gives a brief summary of truth which the New Testament teaches in other places. Remember that Paul’s aim here is practical. He is teaching truth he wants believers to apply to their lives. Jesus left the full glory and riches of heaven behind for His time on earth and lived a life of humble service. All believers must learn to renounce the false and contemptible glory and riches of this world and spend their lives here humbly serving God and others.

2:6 “Being in the form of God” – the Greek here can mean only one possible thing: Christ has the very nature of God. Jesus is called God in other places in the Bible. See Isa 9:6; John 1:1; 20:28,29; Acts 20:28; not think it robbery to be equal with God, 7 but made himself of no reputation and took the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death,

Rom 9:5; Titus 2:13; Heb 1:8; 1 John 5:20. Besides these there are other places which indicate that Christ is God. See Matt 1:23; 2:11; 3:17; 10:37; 11:27; 12:8; 14:33; 18:20; 22:41-45; 28:17,19,20; John 5:17-26; 8:19; 9:38; 10:30-33; 11:25; 14:7,10,23; 17:1-5; Acts 3:14,15; Rom 1:7; 8:9,10; 1 Cor 8:6; 2 Cor 4:4; 13:14; Eph 3:17-19; Col 1:15-17; 2:9; 1 Thess 1:1; 1 Tim 1:1; 3:16; Heb 1:3,10,12; 1 Pet 3:15; 1 John 1:3; 2:22; Rev 1:4,5,8 (with 22:12,13); 1:17; 5:8,13,14; 19:16; 21:6. Other verses reveal that He is the incarnation of Jehovah (God's name in the Old Testament). See vs 10,11 and other references at Luke 2:11.

"Did not think it robbery to be equal with God" - the Greek here has been translated in various ways. For example, "did not consider equality with God something to be grasped", "did not cling to his equality with God." No doubt it is difficult to bring out the exact meaning of the Greek phrase. The word translated "robbery" is related to a Greek verb meaning "to seize" or "to carry away by force." It may mean either the act of seizing, or the thing seized. However that may be, from the wording here, the context, and from the teaching of the Bible as a whole, we can say the following:

In nature and attributes God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are equal, and this is not something that one of them can either grasp or give up. So in this sense, for Christ to consider Himself equal with God the Father is certainly not robbery. But the three members of the Trinity are not equal in position in the Godhead. The Father has the highest place. See John 5:19-23; 14:28; 1 Cor 15:27,28. Christ the Son of God did not try to seize an equal place with God the Father. Quite the opposite. He was happy for the Father to be the Father and Himself to be the Son in obedience to the Father - v 8; John 4:34; 5:30; 6:38; 8:29; 9:4; 14:31; 15:10; 17:4. Observe the clear distinction in this verse between the Father and the Son before the Son came to earth.

2:7 "Made himself of no reputation" - the Greek here too has been variously translated. For example, "emptied himself", or "made himself nothing." The Greek verb has the meaning of "to empty", but we should be careful not to misunderstand how it is used here. The meaning is clear from the words which follow. Jesus did not empty Himself of deity - this is an impossible thing. He did not stop being God when He came to earth. But He emptied Himself of the glory that He had with the Father (John 17:5), of the rights and privileges He had as God's own Son. He deprived Himself of His even the death of the cross.

9 Therefore God has also highly exalted him and given him a name which is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee would bow, of those in heaven, and those in earth, and heavenly dwelling and all that this meant (2 Cor 8:9). He put Himself in a position where men could count Him nothing, as a person of no reputation. He who made mankind was willing to become despised and rejected by men - John 1:10,11; Isa 53:3; Matt 8:20; 12:24; Mark 6:3; John 18:30.

"Made himself of no reputation" is a fitting way to describe the huge step down from the heights of power and glory in the universe to a lowly position among men on earth.

"Servant" - Rom 15:8; John 13:3-5; Luke 22:27; Matt 20:28.

"Likeness" - John 1:14; Rom 8:3; Heb 2:14. Jesus is both God and a person with real human nature.

2:8 "Appearance" - outwardly Jesus seemed to be a man like other men and nothing but a man. His divine nature and the glory He had before He came to earth were concealed from the eyes of men.

"Humbled himself" - this was true all through His life (Matt 11:29), but His humility appeared most vividly at the time of His death - Isa 53:7,8; 1 Pet 2:23,24. He did not insist on His rights as the Son of God, did not proudly resist those who falsely accused Him, mistreated and killed Him.

"Obedient" - this means obedient to God the Father - Matt 26:39; John 18:11; Rom 5:19; Heb 10:7; John 10:17,18.

"Cross" - Paul says "even the death of the cross" because the cross was the most humiliating way for a person to die. Public execution on a cross was the way Romans dealt with criminals.

2:9 "Therefore" - God rewarded Him for His renunciation, humility and obedience. This is in accordance with Christ's own teaching - Matt 23:12.

"Highly exalted him" - Acts 2:33; Eph 1:20,21; Heb 1:3; Rev 3:21. No one ever humbled himself as low as Jesus, none was ever exalted so high. He has the highest place because He alone is worthy of it.

"Name" - what is this name above all - "Jesus" (v 10), or "Lord" (v 11)? Paul probably means "Lord" because the name Jesus was given before the Father exalted His Son from the place of humiliation and death, and Paul seems to be referring to a name God gave Jesus at the time of His exaltation. Compare Acts 2:36. "Name" can signify authority. See John 14:13,14. It can also be used in the sense of "title" - Isa 9:6.

2:10,11 "Lord" - the Greek word here translated "Lord" in the New Testament ("kurios") is the word used to indicate Jehovah, the Old Testament name of God (see Luke 2:11; Ex 3:14,15). Knees should bow only to Him - Isa 45:22-24; Matt 4:10. God the Father has given this name, this title to Jesus. That those under the earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Therefore, my dearly loved ones, as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, 13 for it is God who is working in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do everything without complaining and disputing, 15 that you may be blameless and sincere, the sons of God, without fault, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life. Thus I will be able to rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, or laboured in vain. 17 Yes, and even if I am being poured out is, He has declared to the universe that Jesus who became man and suffered death is the Lord of the universe, the incarnation of Jehovah the great God of all (Acts 2:36; 1 Cor 8:6; Matt 28:18), and that Jesus is worthy of worship. See other references which show that Jesus is Jehovah at Luke 2:11.

"Confess" – believers now gladly confess that Jesus is the mighty Lord with all authority in heaven and earth. The time will come when everyone will have to confess this, willingly or not.

"Glory of God the Father" – when Jesus is exalted and confessed as Lord the Father is glorified. Compare John 5:23; 1 John 2:23.

2:12 "Therefore" – in the light of the truth given above.

"Obeyed" – he means they obeyed God's revealed truth (Rom 6:17; 1 Pet 1:22). This is of the utmost importance – Jam 1:22-25. Christ was obedient to God – v 8. So must they be, whether Paul was there or not. So must we be wherever we are.

"Work out" – Paul does not say "work for salvation." He well knew that salvation cannot be earned by good works and human effort – Eph 2:8,9; Rom 3:28; 4:4,5; 6:23; 11:6. He is saying believers should work out in their lives the salvation they already have. They should have the same attitude Christ had and apply the truth to every part of their lives.

"Fear and trembling" – Isa 66:2; Jer 5:22. The work is extremely important and has eternal consequences; it means dealing with the God of the universe. So it demands reverence and fear and carefulness and trembling. See notes on the fear of God at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

2:13 "God... is working in you" – see 1:6; Eph 2:10. Because God works in believers we are not to think we have nothing to do. Instead we are to work with Him in the living out of the inner spiritual life He has given us. We are not puppets or robots. God is active in us. He is directing us with a good will toward a good goal – He wants us to be as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service that come from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. 18 For the same reason you also must be glad, and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be encouraged, when I know your state. 20 For I have no one else of the same mind, who will sincerely care about you. 21 For everyone seeks his own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. 22 But you know his proven character, that as a son with his father, he has served with me in the gospel. 23 Therefore I hope to send him presently, as soon as I see how things will go with me. 24 But I trust in the Lord that I myself will come shortly.

25 But I have considered it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in more and more like Christ (Rom 8:29). We should cooperate with Him in this most sublime work.

2:14-16 Here are two very serious sins – complaining against God and the leaders He has appointed (Ex 16:2-8; Num 11:1; etc), and disputing with each other (Rom 14:1-4; 1 Cor 3:3,4). Instead of behaving like that, believers must become like Christ. Only then can we be "blameless" (1 Thess 2:10; 5:23; Matt 10:16; 2 Cor 11:2), and "without fault" (Matt 5:48).

"Perverse generation" – Matt 17:17; Acts 2:40; Gal 1:4; Eph 2:1-3; 4:17-19. Every generation is a perverse, depraved generation, but some more so than others.

"Lights" – Matt 5:14-16.

"Word of life" – God uses His word to give spiritual life to those who believe (Jam 1:18; 1 Pet 1:23).

"Not... in vain" – if they live as they should, he (the founder and teacher of the church there) would have reason to be proud of them when Christ returns. Compare Gal 4:11; 1 Thess 2:19,20.

2:17,18 "Drink offering" – see Ex 29:40. Paul is speaking of the possibility of death and probably death by violence (2 Tim 4:6).

"Faith" – their faith in Christ had produced loving service toward Paul (and others – 4:14-16; 2 Cor 8:1-4). This was like a sacrifice (see 4:18; Heb 13:16). If he should die for the service of Christ and be like an offering poured out to God he will rejoice. And if things turn out like that they should rejoice too.

2:19 "Timothy" – 1:1; 1 Cor 4:17; 16:10; 1 Thess 3:2.

2:20 "Of the same mind" – he means no one in the place where he was at that time. Timothy was with Paul at the very beginning of the work in Philippi – Acts chapter 16.

2:21 This is the state of things in the world and all too often among Christians as well.

2:22 "Son" – Paul considered Timothy a son in spiritual matters – 1 Tim 1:2. Compare 1 Cor 4:14,15; Gal 4:19; 1 Thess 2:11.

2:23,24 See 1:25,26.

2:25 "Brother" – he means brother in spiri-

the work, and fellow soldier, who is your messenger, and the one who ministered to my needs. 26 For he has longed for all of you, and has had a heavy heart, because you heard that he had been sick. 27 And indeed he was sick almost to death. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me also, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 Therefore I have sent him the more eagerly, so that when you see him again, you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful. 29 So receive him in the Lord with all joy, and hold such men in esteem. 30 Because it was for the work of Christ that he was near death, not regarding his life, to make up any deficiency in your service toward me.

"Companion in labour" – in God's work (1 Cor 3:9).

"Fellow soldier" – 2 Tim 2:3,4; Eph 6:11.

"My needs" – 4:18. Probably Epaphroditus, after bringing the gift of money to Paul, helped him in prison in various ways.

2:26 "Has longed" – 1:7,8.

"Sick" – he did not want the believers in Philippi to be grieved because he was sick. 2:27 "To death" – evidently Paul who had healed many people (Acts 19:11,12; 28:8,9) was not able to heal him immediately. See also Gal 4:13; 1 Tim 5:23; 2 Tim 4:20. But eventually God healed him ("had mercy on him").

"Sorrow" – joy is a major theme of this letter (1:4). But on earth the joy of believers is often mixed with sadness – 2 Cor 6:10; 1 Pet 1:6.

2:28-30 The church had sent Epaphroditus to be a help to Paul while he was in prison. But Epaphroditus fell ill because of the work of Christ and longed to return to the church in Philippi. Would the church there think he had failed in his mission and was deserting Paul in his time of need? Paul is careful to assure them that this was not the case.

"Esteem" (v 29) – such men are more worthy of honor than anyone else on earth, and God Himself will honor them – John 12:26.

"Not regarding his life" (v 30) – Acts 20:24; Rom 16:4; 1 John 3:16.

3:1 "Rejoice" – 1:4; 4:4. The believer's rejoicing is not to be in his circumstances, in his successes, in his possessions, in his worldly hopes, but "in the Lord". See Hab 3:17,18.

"Same things" – perhaps Paul is referring to his repeated exhortation to rejoice; or perhaps to the warning against evil men in the verses which follow – previously he may have given them similar warnings.

3:2 Paul here speaks of the same sort of people he wrote about to other churches – 2 Cor 11:13-15; Gal 1:7; 2:4; 5:12. See also Acts 15:1,2,5.

"Dogs" – the Jews regarded dogs as unclean animals and called Gentiles "dogs." Paul says the Jews who rejected Christ and 3 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you again is no trouble for me, and for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs! Beware of evil workers! Beware of the mutilators!

3 For we are the circumcision who worship God in the Spirit and rejoice in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh. 4 Though I too might have confidence in the flesh. If any one else thinks he has reasons for trusting in the flesh, I have more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the Law, a Pharisee; 6 concerning zeal, persecuting the church; as for tried to harm Christians were the real unclean animals.

"Evil workers" – trying to pervert Christ's gospel and to turn Christians from the truth is the greatest of evils. It has to do with eternity.

"Mutilators" – he refers to circumcision – Gen 17:10-14. Some Jews were trying to compel Gentile Christians to submit to this ceremony. He uses sarcasm here because the unbelieving Jews who opposed the gospel of Christ did not live up to the meaning of circumcision (Rom 2:25-29), and so with them the rite of circumcision became an empty and meaningless cutting of the flesh.

3:3 "We" – he means believers in Christ, whether Jews or Gentiles. Though they may not be circumcised they are "the circumcision" – that is, they have the inner reality which the old ceremony of circumcision pointed to. See Rom 2:29; Col 2:11. Paul now defines true believers.

"Worship God in the Spirit" – John 4:23,24.

"Rejoice in Christ" – or "glory in Christ" or "boast in Christ" – 1 Cor 1:30,31.

"No confidence in the flesh" – the false teachers taught that ceremonies performed on the body, human merit, good works, etc, could make people acceptable to God and earn salvation. Paul completely rejects this idea. He knew what human nature is like – Rom 7:18; 8:5-8. True Christians put their confidence in Christ, not in themselves or what they can do, or in what others can do to them or for them – Gal 2:16; 5:24; Eph 2:8,9.

3:4-7 The Jewish false teachers put their confidence in themselves and in the observance of their religion. See Rom 2:17-20. Paul looks back at his past and says that he was in no way inferior to any of them. But, unlike them, he had learned to reject all that confidence in self and in religion. He lists seven ways in which he had been (in the eyes of the Jews) an ideal Jew.

"Eighth day" – Lev 12:3.

"Israel" – God's chosen nation (Rom 9:4,5).

"Benjamin" – a tribe which the Jews regarded with much esteem. Jerusalem was located in territory belonging to Benjamin.

the righteousness that is in the Law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. 8 Yes, indeed, and I count all things as loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ, 9 and be

"Hebrew of the Hebrews" – this means he had learned the Hebrew language and had followed the old customs of the people.

"Pharisee" – he was of the most orthodox and conservative sect of the Jews (note at Matt 3:7).

"Zeal" – he was zealous for what he thought was the truth and hated any teaching that seemed contrary to his religion (Acts 8:3; 9:1,2). Because of this the Jewish leaders regarded him highly.

"Blameless" – he means outwardly he did not break God's law given through Moses (he did not worship other gods, or make idols, or steal, or commit adultery, etc). He observed its external requirements. He could find no fault in his own behavior (later on he learned that inwardly he was guilty of breaking one of the ten commandments – Rom 7:7-11). It is safe to say that no one ever tried harder than Paul as a Jew to be saved by his own efforts, to be righteous, to be acceptable to God.

3:7 This new view of things began with his experience on the Damascus road – Acts 9:3-6. He was enlightened as to the true value of things. What he had considered spiritually profitable he now saw was loss. Self-confidence and pride had kept him from Christ. Now he renounced it all – pride of birth, pride of race, pride of religion, pride in attainments. With the opening of his spiritual eyes, what had been pleasing to him became useless and vile. Self had been the center of Paul's life. Now Christ became the center. So it will be with all those who are truly enlightened and come to know Christ.

3:8 "All things" – not just the things he names in vs 4-6. In his eyes everything connected with himself, everything that religion can offer, everything in the world became as loss, useless and empty of value. Compare Matt 10:39; 16:24-26. Knowing Christ was the great prize that made everything else seem like rubbish. Compare John 17:3; 2 Cor 4:6. Paul means far more than merely knowing about Christ. He is speaking of a personal acquaintance and fellowship with Christ. For this he let everything else go into the garbage heap. It is sad that the majority of people on earth live for what Paul knew to be rubbish.

"The loss of all things" – Luke 14:33. If a person loses all things and gains Christ he is gaining far more than he loses, and should not dream of feeling sorry for himself. For in Christ is wisdom, righteousness, holiness, redemption, and every spiritual blessing – 1 Cor 1:30; Eph 1:3. What does it cost to be a real Christian? Everything a person has. What does a person gain by becoming a real Christian? Everything God has – 1 Cor 3:21; Rom 8:17; 2 Cor 6:10; 8:9.

3:9 "My own righteousness" – v 6; Rom 10:3. This is the only righteousness many people try for. It is all they know. But it will not be sufficient when they stand before God to be judged. Compare Luke 18:9-14; Isa 64:6.

"Righteousness. . . though faith" – Rom 3:21-26,28; 5:1; 10:10; 2 Cor 5:21; Gal 2:16.

3:10 "That I may know him" – v 8. Paul wanted to know Christ better and better. He is speaking about a knowledge resulting from personal experience, not mere head knowledge gained from reading about Him. Compare 2 Pet 3:18.

"Power of his resurrection" – Paul knew something of this power, more than most men ever know (Col 1:29). But he wanted to experience more of it. Compare Eph 1:19,20; 3:20; Rom 6:4.

"Fellowship of his sufferings" – 1:29; Col 2:24; Rom 8:17. Paul had suffered much for Christ, more than most men ever do – 2 Cor 11:23-29. He wanted to know even more of this. He knew that to share Christ's life in His Body the Church, to enter more fully into his fellowship, meant to share His sufferings as well. And he did not think this was something to be avoided at all cost (as some seem to think). See Col 1:24. At one time in his life Paul made Christ suffer – Acts 9:4,5. Now he wanted to share the sufferings of Christ which continue as long as His people are on earth. Sharing in the power of Christ's resurrection means to share in His sufferings also. Sharing in His sufferings means to share in His comfort and peace now (2 Cor 1:5-7; John 16:33), and in His inheritance hereafter (Rom 8:17).

"Conformed to his death" – 2:8. Christ's death meant complete humility, obedience, and abandonment of Himself to God's will. Paul wanted to experience this more and more in himself. Compare 2 Cor 4:10-12; Gal 2:20. God's life in us comes out of our death to ourselves. See John 12:24,25.

3:11 "Resurrection from among the dead" – this implies that when some are raised others will not be. In other words, Paul is here speaking of the resurrection of believers (1 Cor 15:50-54; 1 Thess 4:14-17; Rev 20:5). But is this resurrection something to be "attained"? Was Paul in doubt whether he would "attain" it? There is no reason to think he was in doubt – 3:21; 1:6; Rom 5:8,9; 8:38,39; 2 Cor 5:1,2; 2 Tim 4:18. But he knew that the resurrection of believers came at the end of a life of faith, and that it was necessary to choose Christ and from among the dead.

12 Not that I have already attained, or have already been made perfect. But I press on so that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has laid hold of me. 13 Brethren, I do not consider myself as having laid hold of it. But one thing I do: forgetting those things which are behind, and stretching forward to those things which are ahead, 14 I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Therefore, let us, as many as are fully continue to choose Him, to believe and go on believing to the end – Col 1:23; Heb 3:6,14. Growing in the knowledge and fellowship of Christ, becoming more and more like Him, insured that this would be the course of his life. This perseverance in faith is one of the great themes of the letter to the Hebrews (indeed of the whole Bible). 3:12 "Not. . .obtained" – v 10. He knew something of Christ's power and fellowship but not all it was possible to experience.

"Perfect" – perfection was his aim, but not yet his experience. See notes on perfect at Matt 5:48. There may have been some in Philippi who claimed a kind of perfection and looked down on other believers (Paul wrote what he did in each of his letters to fit the spiritual condition of those he wrote to). If there were any there, Paul wanted them to know that he did not claim perfection for himself. If Paul the great apostle had not become perfect, we may be quite sure that we have not.

"I press on" – Heb 6:1,11,12.

"Lay hold" – he wanted to become all that Christ wanted him to become when He saved him and called him. He wanted to become as holy, as humble, as obedient, as loving, as fruitful as it was possible for a believer on earth to become. He was not content with his present spiritual condition. Past accomplishments did not satisfy him. He still wanted more of Christ in his life.

3:13 "One thing I do" – he had no divided heart, no double-mind about the spiritual life (compare Jam 1:8).

"Forgetting" – this does not mean blotting altogether from the memory. Such a thing is hardly possible to us. Paul meant that he deliberately and continuously refused to dwell on the past. To him the future was the important thing and he was willing to leave the failures and successes of the past behind him and press on. He did not want his failures to discourage him or his successes to make him self-satisfied and complacent.

"Stretching" – or "straining" – this word indicates great effort, like the effort of a runner using all his strength to win a race. 3:14 "The goal" – see 1 Cor 9:24-27; Acts 20:24.

"Prize" – he does not say what this will be. He knows it will be something tremendous – as great as the God of the universe can make it. On rewards see Matt mature, have this same mind. If you think differently in anything, God will reveal this also to you. 16 In any case, in the measure we have already attained, let us conduct ourselves by the same rule, let us have the same mind.

17 Brethren, you have us as an example, so join others in following me, and take note of those who walk so. 18 (For many walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. I have often told you of them, and now tell you even weeping. 19 Their end is destruction, their God is their belly, and their glory

5:12; 10:41,42; 16:27; 1 Cor 3:8,14; Heb 10:25; Rev 11:18; 22:12.

"Upward calling" – v 20; Heb 3:1.

3:15 "Mature" – or "perfect" – 1 Cor 2:6; Eph 1:13-15; Col 1:28; 4:12; Heb 5:14; 6:1. Paul did not claim perfection in the sense of being sinless or without flaw – v 12. But he knew that he was a mature believer, grown up spiritually in Christ. All such believers should take the view on perfection he has been setting forth – Paul knew that his teaching on perfection in the above verses was a revelation from God and he was praying that God would open their eyes to understand it (1:9,10), and he was confident that God would hear his prayers.

3:16 Believers should live up to the light they have. If they do so, God will surely give them more understanding of the truth.

3:17 "Example" – note and references at Acts 20:18. Paul not only taught believers how they should live, he showed them.

"Take note" – v 2; Rom 16:17.

3:18 "Weeping" – Acts 20:31. Paul wept because many who professed to believe in Christ proved by their behavior that they were Christ's enemies. It seems that everywhere a local church began such enemies of the cross soon appeared – Acts 20:29,30; Rom 16:17; 2 Cor 11:13-15; Gal 1:7; 6:12; Col 2:8,16; 2 Tim 3:1-7; 4:1-5. They had a form of godliness but denied its power – 1 Tim 3:5.

3:19 "Destruction" – Matt 7:13; John 17:12; Rom 9:22; 2 Thess 1:9.

"Belly" – the word as used here probably stands for the "flesh", the whole life of the body in contrast to spiritual life (Rom 7:5). Some people worship and obey this "god." They are willing to lie, cheat, and steal for it. They say they are followers of Christ, but follow their own desires and lusts – Rom 16:18; 1 Tim 6:5; 2 Pet 2:3. A full stomach is what they want – not the fullness of God's Spirit.

"Shame" – in their terrible spiritual ignorance they boast about things which should make them ashamed. Compare 1 Cor 5:1,2,6; 2 Pet 2:18; Jude 16; Ps 10:3; 52:1. The only glory they have is what Paul knew to be rubbish and filth.

"Earthly things" – Rom 8:5-8. Their desires are not for spiritual things (no matter how much they may speak or preach about them), but for the passing things of this world (1 John 2:16). Money, is in their shame, and their mind is on earthly things.) 20 But our citizenship is in heaven, and from there we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who will transform our lowly body, that it may become like his glorious body, according to the power that enables him to subdue all things under himself.

4 Therefore, my brethren dearly loved and longed for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord, my dearly loved ones.

2 I plead with Euodias and plead with Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. 3 And I beg you also, true colleague, to possessions, prestige, popularity, satisfaction of the desires of the body – these they love and pursue. This is the broad way which leads to destruction.

3:20 Believers are in the world, but they do not belong to the world – John 17:6,11, 14,15. Their city, their country is above – Heb 11:10,16; 13:14; Gal 4:26. They belong to heaven. Their hopes, their desires are fixed on it. God is their King. They look forward to the return of their Saviour – Acts 1:11; 1 Thess 4:14-18; Heb 9:28.

3:21 “Transform” – 1 Cor 15:50-53.

“His glorious body” – 1 Cor 15:42-44,49; 1 John 3:2; Rom 8:23-25.

“Subdue” – 1 Cor 15:24,25; Heb 2:8; Eph 1:19.

4:1 “Longed for” – 1:7,8.

“Joy and crown” – 2:16; 1 Thess 2:19 – a joy to him then, both a joy and a crown afterwards.

“Stand firm” – Eph 6:11,13,14; etc.

4:2 We do not know who these two Christian women were, but their quarrel alarmed Paul. He begged them to settle their dispute. Compare 2:1,2. He well knew what factions and divisions can do to a group of believers – 1 Cor 1:10-13; 3:3,4.

4:3 “True colleague” – we do not know who this was. Paul evidently considered him able to help bring peace between the two women.

“Book of life” – compare Ex 32:32; Ps 69:28; 139:16; Luke 10:20; Rev 3:5; 20:12-15. How did Paul know their names were in the book of life? By observing their deeds and words. Compare 1 Thess 1:4-10.

4:4 See 3:1; Neh 8:10.

4:5 “Gentleness” – 2 Cor 10:1; 1 Tim 3:3; Jam 3:17.

“The Lord is at hand” – this may mean He is near to believers now (Ps 145:18; Matt 28:20; Heb 13:5), or perhaps that His second coming is near (Jam 5:8; Rev 1:3).

4:6 Here is God’s way for us to have continual peace of mind and heart in all circumstances of life (except when sinning – that will always rob believers of their peace).

“Anxious” – anxiety reveals that trust in God or understanding of His truth is weak. Worry and faith are like oil and water; they do not mix. See Matt 6:25-34.

“Nothing” – we should refuse to worry help those women who laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with my other fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. 4 Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand. 6 Be anxious about nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving make your requests known to God. 7 And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are even in the most difficult or alarming situations. If we are believers, God is in us, near us, around us, with us. He is our Father who loves us beyond our ability to grasp, and has power without limit to use in our behalf. Our part is to cast all our care on Him by faith and to rest in Him and in His promises – 1 Pet 5:8.

There are different kinds of prayer and Paul here uses four different words to indicate some of them.

“With thanksgiving” – see notes at Gen 18:32; Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; Eph 6:18; 1 Thess 5:17,18; Heb 13:15. Without giving thanks to God can we imagine that the other forms of prayer mentioned here will be effective? Will not a lack of thanksgiving contribute to anxiety of heart?

“Requests. . . to God” – not to people. See also Matt 7:11.

4:7 The peace of God means here the peace He gives. It is like His own peace. God does not worry about anything. Peace in us is the result of submission to God and trust in Him – Isa 26:3. See also John 14:1,27; 16:33; Col 3:15. This peace is like the “rest” Jesus promised in Matt 11:28-30. Believers can have peace in situations where others could never have it, and they will not be able to understand how they have it and will wonder at it. This peace of God will act as a guard at the door of their minds and hearts, and will keep out the anxieties, worries, and disturbing thoughts that so greatly trouble those without this peace.

4:8 “Think on these things” – our mind, our thoughts are exceedingly important in the spiritual life. To a large extent they will determine our actions. Believers should have minds made new – Rom 12:2. They should set their thoughts on heavenly things – Col 3:2. They should keep their thoughts on the things of God’s Word. See Ps 1:1,2. Sinful things, worldly things, evil things are attractive to the sinful nature in us – Gal 5:16,17. If we let our thoughts dwell on such things we may be overcome with the desire for them. If our thoughts are always on true, pure, and excellent things we will be better able to reject and subdue sinful desires. So we should be very careful what just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue, and if there is anything praiseworthy, think on these things. 9 Those things that you have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you.

10 But I greatly rejoice in the Lord, that now at last your care for me has flourished again. Previously you certainly cared, but you lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I am speaking about my needs, for I have learned, in whatever state I am, to be content. 12 I know both what it is to have little, and I know how to have plenty. Everywhere and in everything I am instructed both how to be full and to be hungry, both to have plenty and to suffer need. 13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

14 However, you have done well, in that you shared in my trouble. 15 Now you Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel there, when I was leaving Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you. 16 For even to Thessalonica you sent again and again for my need. 17 Not that I am seeking a gift. I seek to have fruit going abundantly into your account. 18 But I have everything in abundance. I am full, having received by Epaphroditus the things from you. They are a sweet-smelling aroma, a sacrifice acceptable and well-pleasing to God. 19 And my God will supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now to our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me greet you. 22 All the saints greet you, chiefly those who belong to Caesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

Amen.

we read, what things we watch, what kind of music we listen to, where we allow our imaginations to take us. If we fill our minds with things unworthy for believers in Christ we may soon be living lives unworthy of Christ. 4:9 God set Paul forth as an example to believers. We can learn from him what we should think, believe and practice - 3:17. "God of peace" - Rom 15:33; 16:20; 1 Thess 5:23; Heb 13:20. Only if the God of peace is with us can we have the peace of God in us - v 17.

4:10 "Rejoice" - 1:4,5. He was not happy for his sake, because he had received something. He was happy because it meant a reward for them from God - v 17. This is a wonderful attitude to take toward those who give to us.

4:11,12 See 1 Tim 6:6-8; Heb 13:5; Luke 3:14. Who is the truly rich person on earth? He who is content with what he has. Contentment is something Paul "learned", not something he had by nature. Contentment goes along with the peace of God which guards the hearts of those who trust Him. For some of the situations in which Paul learned to be contented see 2 Cor 4:8,9; 6:4-10; 11:23-27. He was not writing this letter from a mansion, in the midst of plenty, but from prison - 1:12,13. The desire of some Christians to pile up money, possessions, luxuries, etc, is contrary to God's Word and exceedingly harmful to the spiritual life. 4:13 "All things" - he felt he was able to face any circumstance of life, any task, any difficulty and come through victoriously.

"Through Christ" - Rom 8:37; 2 Cor 2:14; 3:4-6; Eph 1:19; 3:20. Paul's confidence was not in his own strength, or in self-control or self-discipline (though he practiced these - 1 Cor 9:25-27).

"Strengthens" - Ps 73:26; Isa 40:31; 2 Cor 12:8,10. Each of us should learn what Paul learned here, and no one should ever feel that he or she can do nothing.

4:14-16 See 1:5. In the matter of giving they were an ideal church. See also 2 Cor 8:1-5.

"Thessalonica" - Acts 17:1.

4:17 Verse 10.

4:18 "Sweet-smelling aroma" - compare John 12:3; Matt 26:10; Lev 1:9;2:2; etc.

"Sacrifice" - 2:17; Heb 13:16.

4:19 They had met Paul's needs - v 18. This was out of their great poverty - 2 Cor 8:2. God would meet their needs according to His great riches. There is a principle at work in this matter which we should all learn and put into practice. See Luke 6:38; 2 Cor 9:6-8.

"All your need" - not all we may want, but all that He sees we really need. Matt 6:33; 7:9-11; Ps 23:1; 37:25. God supplies all our spiritual needs also - v 23; Eph 1:3; 3:16-20.

"Riches" - Rom 2:4; 9:23; Eph 1:7,18; 2:7; 3:8,16. Do believers need to be anxious as though God did not have enough to supply their needs? Absolutely not - v 6; Matt 9:29. If it is necessary to beg people for anything, God can do this on the believer's behalf. That is, He can move the hearts of His people to help those in need much more successfully than they can. We should learn to leave these matters in His hands where they belong and to trust Him only. We should never imagine that God cannot do anything or will not do anything. See also Num 11:23.

4:20 Rom 16:27; etc.

4:21 "Saint" - Rom 1:7.

4:22 "Caesar's household" - 1:13. He probably means those in the service of the emperor or government officials.

4:22 "Grace" - Rom 1:7; 16:20. This is how all our needs are met.

The Letter of the Apostle Paul to the COLOSSIANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime about 60 AD.

Themes:

Paul is in prison, being persecuted for preaching the gospel of Christ. However he is not occupied with his own difficulties but, as usual, has his mind and his heart fixed on Christ and Christ's people. He had never visited Colosse but he knew the condition of the church there, and so he writes this letter to encourage them and to show them more fully who Christ is and what He has done for believers. His principal theme is the preeminence and greatness of Christ and the believer's completeness and fullness in Him. Some false teachers had gone to Colosse, acted as though they were very wise, taught some philosophical nonsense and doctrine contrary to the truth of Christ, and tried to pervert His gospel. They insisted that the "wisdom" they taught was necessary for salvation, that Christ is not God or the Saviour of the world, that there were many angels and spiritual beings who were mediators between God and men and that Christ was only one of these, that worshipping angels and practicing severe austerities on the body were good things. Opposing their false teaching, Paul writes of the complete redemption and salvation Christ has purchased for men (1:13,14,20), of Christ's full deity (1:15-19), and of the perfect wisdom believers can find in Christ (2:3). Some key verses are 2:8-10.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2 to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Colosse: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all the saints, 5 because of the hope which is laid up for you in heaven. You heard of this hope previously in the message of the truth of the gospel 6 which has come to you, as it has to all the world and brings forth fruit, as it does in you also since the day you heard it and truly knew the grace of God; 7 since indeed you learned from Epaphras, our dear fellow worker who is a faithful servant of Christ for you. 8 Also he has told us of your love in the Spirit.

9 For this reason we too, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you and to desire that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in complete wisdom and spiritual understanding, 10 so that you might behave in a manner worthy of the Lord and please Him in everything, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God, 11 being strengthened with all might according to his glorious power, so that you may have complete endurance and patience together with joy, 12 and go on giving thanks to the Father, who has made us fit to

"Timothy" - Phil 1:1.

1:2 Rom 1:7. Colosse was a small unimportant town about 160 kilometers east of Ephesus in the land now known as Turkey. It was near Laodicea.

1:3,4 Compare Rom 1:8; Eph 1:15,16.

1:5 "Hope" - here hope means that which believers expect some day to have, not the present experience of hope in their hearts. Compare v 27; Titus 1:2; 2:13.

"Laid up for you" - 1 Pet 1:4.

"Gospel" - Rom 1:16; 1 Cor 15:1-8.

1:6 "Fruit" - Matt 13:8; Mark 4:26-29. The gospel is the power of God for salvation (Rom 1:16). When it is clearly, boldly and faithfully preached it will bear fruit.

"Knew" - observe the connection between knowledge and fruit-bearing. Compare Matt 13:23.

"Grace" - notes at John 1:14,16; Rom 1:7; Eph 2:8,9.

1:7 "Epaphras" - 4:12; Philemon 23. These references give all we know about this servant of Christ.

"Servant" - Rom 1:1; 6:18,22. What greater thing can be said of anyone than this: "A faithful servant of Christ"?

1:8 "Love in the Spirit" - Rom 5:5. We can only have God's love (Greek "agape" - see note at 1 Cor 13:1) in our hearts through God's Spirit. In all the earth it is to be found only in true believers in Christ.

1:9 "Pray for you" - here is another example of Paul's prayers for believers - Eph 1:17-19; 3:16-19; Phil 1:9. In none of them does he ask God for material things. Wisdom, understanding, strength, love - these are the things above all else that he wanted them to have. Let us learn from this the lesson God wants us to learn.

"Knowledge of His will" - Rom 12:2. He prays this for them because the other things he wants to see in their lives (v 10) are based on this. We cannot set out to do God's will unless we understand what it is.

"Complete wisdom and spiritual understanding" - this is one of the themes of this letter - v 28; 2:2,3; 3:16. God alone can give them - Eph 1:17. Neither education nor philosophy can produce them. They mean far more than knowing about God or the Bible. They come from heaven, and to get them we must seek the God who is in heaven. Compare Job 28:12-28; Prov 2:1-6; 1 Cor 1:20,25,30; 2:10-14.

1:10 "Worthy of the Lord" - Eph 4:1; 1 Thess 2:12. Wisdom and understanding are not an end in themselves. They are to enable us to live as we ought. If what we call wisdom does not do this, it does not deserve the name of wisdom.

"Please Him in everything" - 2 Cor 5:9; Gal 1:10; 1 Thess 2:4. If we live to please ourselves we will not please the Lord in any way. We must have the same attitude He had - Phil 2:5; John 8:29. Our actions should not be based on what we want or do not want, what pleases us or does not please us - Matt 10:38,39. If we live as this verse directs, we can become people according to God's heart (as David was - see note at 1 Sam 13:14).

"Fruitful" - John 15:1-8.

"Increasing in the knowledge of God" - not just in the knowledge of God's will, but of God Himself. Compare Phil 3:10; 2 Pet 3:18.

1:11 "Strengthened" - Eph 3:16; Phil 4:13. "All might" is God's power which alone can give true spiritual strength. Why did Paul want these believers to have this strength and power? That they might do miracles? That they might become great preachers? No - that they might endure their trials, have patience and joy, that they might do the good they could in their little town and live a life that would bring glory to God.

"Endurance and patience" - see Rom 8:25; 1 Cor 13:4; 2 Cor 1:6; Gal 5:22; Eph 4:2; 1 Thess 5:14; Heb 6:12; 10:36; 12:1; Jam 5:10.

"Joy" - Phil 1:4; 3:1; 4:4.

1:12 "Thanks" - this is a recurring theme in this letter (2:7; 3:15,17; 4:2) and throughout the Bible (Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; 100:4; Dan 6:10; Matt 14:19; 26:27; Eph 5:4,20; Phil 4:6; 1 Thess 5:18).

"Made us fit" - they did not make themselves fit for God's inheritance. That is totally impossible for any person share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of his dear Son, 14 in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins.

15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation, 16 for by him all things were created, things that are in heaven, and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers – all things were created by him, and for him. 17 And he is before all things, and by him all things hold (Rom 3:19,20; Eph 2:1-3; Jer 13:23). Only if we are God's children by a new, spiritual birth are we qualified for an inheritance with Him – John 1:12,13; 3:3-8; Rom 8:16,17; Eph 4-10.

"Inheritance" – Eph 1:14; 1 Pet 1:4.

"In light" – the light of God and of Christ, the light of glory – Rev 21:23,24.

1:13 Here are two very different kingdoms. Every person is in one or the other.

"Darkness" – Acts 26:18; Luke 22:53; Eph 6:12; John 3:19,20. Satan is the ruler of the kingdom of darkness. Christ rules His kingdom of light (note on kingdom of God at Matt 4:17). He rescues people and brings them from Satan's kingdom to His own. He does this by giving them light and by His almighty power making them children of the light (2 Cor 4:4-6; Eph 5:8). This is the great work of God now going on throughout the world.

1:14 "Redemption through his blood" – Eph 1:7.

1:15 "He" means the Lord Jesus Christ.

"Image of the invisible God" – God is spirit and cannot be seen by physical eyes (John 1:18; 1 Tim 1:17; 6:16; Heb 11:27). But Christ revealed what God is like. He is the exact likeness of God in human form – 2:9; John 1:1,14; 14:9; 2 Cor 4:4; Heb 1:3.

"Firstborn" – Rom 8:29; Heb 1:6; 12:23; Ps 89:27. The Son of God shares the nature of God, is God. This means He is eternal. As God He never had a beginning, was never "born." The Greek word translated "firstborn" (prototokos) here signifies pre-eminence and sovereignty. The Jews could even say of Jehovah God, the uncreated Creator of the universe revealed in the Old Testament, that He was the firstborn of the world. Here Paul is saying that Christ is the Lord over all creation. That this is his meaning is clear from the next verse. See also notes and references at Luke 2:11; Phil 2:6.

1:16 "For" – Christ is called the "firstborn" because all creation came into existence through Him (John 1:3; 1 Cor 8:6; Heb 1:2; Gen 1:1), not because He was born first (or because He was born at all). Since He is the Creator of all things it is clear that He Himself was not created.

"For Him" – only of the one true God could together. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church, and he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that in everything he might have the preeminence. 19 For it pleased the Father that all fullness should dwell in him, 20 and, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself; by him, I say, whether things on earth, or things in heaven.

21 You also were once alienated and enemies in your mind with wicked deeds, but now he has reconciled you 22 in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and blameless and above it be said that all creation was for Him. The same Greek words are translated "to Him" in Rom 11:36. There they refer to God alone. Christ is not some kind of lesser god created by a greater God. He Himself is God.

"Thrones" – compare Rev 4:4.

"Dominions... powers" – Eph 1:21; 3:10.

1:17 "Before all things" – Christ, the Son of God, was not a part of creation. He existed before creation and brought creation into existence.

"Hold together" – compare Heb 1:3. Christ keeps the vast universe from becoming a chaos. His is the power that makes it an ordered system. He holds all its parts together. Could this be said of anyone except God?

1:18 "Head" – see Eph 1:22,23.

"Body" – Rom 12:5; 1 Cor 12:12,13.

"Church" – Matt 16:18.

"Beginning" – the Greek word means either "source" or "one who has the first place." Christ is the one from whom His Church came into existence, and He occupies the supreme place in it.

"Firstborn from the dead" – Rev 1:5. This means more than that Christ was the first to conquer death. It means that He has first place, He is the sovereign of all those who shall, like Him, rise from among the dead. Compare Rom 14:9.

"Preeminence" – Eph 1:22; Phil 2:9-11. Christ must have the supremacy and He will have it.

1:19 All the fullness of God was in the man Christ Jesus – 2:9; John 1:1,14.

1:20 "Reconcile" – the whole world had fallen away from God into sin (Rom 3:19,20), and God's anger burned against the sins of mankind (Rom 1:18). There was no peace between heaven and earth. God sent Christ to make peace. Christ did so by becoming a blood sacrifice to take away the sins of the world – John 1:29; Rom 5:10; 2 Cor 5:19; Eph 2:16.

1:21 "Alienated" – Eph 2:12; 4:18.

"Enemies" – Rom 5:10; Jam 4:4.

"In your mind" – they did not think they were God's enemies, but because the thoughts and desires of their minds and hearts were contrary to God, they were His enemies. Compare Rom 8:5-8.

"By wicked deeds" – sinning is what makes men God's enemies.

1:22 Verse 20; Eph 2:16-18.

reproach in his sight, 23 if you continue in the faith established and firm and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you have heard, which has been preached to every creature which is under heaven, of which I Paul have been made a servant.

24 I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up what is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for the sake of his body, which is the church. 25 I have been made a servant of this church, in accordance with the position of overseer that God has given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God, 26 the mystery kept hidden for ages and generations, but now revealed to his saints. 27 To them God desired to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles,

"Holy" - Eph 1:4; 5:25-27.
 "Above reproach" - 1 Cor 1:8; Rom 8:33.

1:23 "If" - Paul is not suggesting that some believers may not continue in their faith. He is defining what true believers are and do. Their continuing in the faith would be the proof that they had been reconciled. Compare 1 Cor 15:2; Heb 3:6,14; 10:38,39; John 10:27; Luke 22:32; 1 John 2:19.

"Established and firm" - true faith rests on a firm foundation (1 Cor 3:11; Eph 2:20), and makes believers firm.

"Under heaven" does not have the same meaning as "the ends of the earth" or the whole world - Mark 16:15; Acts 13:47. But Paul is informing them of how widespread the preaching of the gospel was in that part of the earth.

1:24 "My sufferings for you" - 4:10,18; 2 Cor 1:5,6; Eph 3:1,13. Paul's sufferings were a result of preaching the truth, winning people to Christ and working to establish Christ's Church on earth. He rejoiced not because suffering was pleasant to him, but because he suffered for Christ and for others. This he regarded as a privilege - Phil 1:29; 3:10. Compare 1 Pet 4:13-16.

"Lacking" - was there something lacking in Christ's sufferings on the cross? No, absolutely not. Was His sacrifice for the sin of the world incomplete? No, and Paul is not speaking of that here. Certainly Christ's sufferings for our sins were once and for all, and perfect, and finished forever - John 19:30; Heb 10:10,14; 1 Pet 3:18. But now Christ is building His Church (Matt 16:18; Eph 2:19-22), and He is giving His servants the privilege of working with Him. In this sinful world this means troubles and tribulation and suffering and affliction. These are not yet finished, so are still "lacking." Christ has given His servants the honor and privilege of suffering with Him for the sake of the Church.

1:26 Eph 3:2-9; Rom 16:25-27.

"Saints" - Rom 1:7.

1:27 "Riches" - Eph 3:8. Compared to these riches every system of thought devised by men is poverty-stricken.

which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

28 We preach him, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone perfect in Christ Jesus. 29 Indeed for this purpose I labour, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

2 For I want you to know what a great struggle I have for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, 2 that their hearts might be encouraged, being knit together in love, and so enter into all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, into the complete knowledge of the mystery of God, of the Father and of Christ. 3 In Christ are hidden all "Christ in you" - John 17:23; Rom 8:9,10; 2 Cor 13:5; Rev 3:20.

"Hope of glory" - Rom 5:2; 8:18. If Christ is not in us we have no good reason to hope we shall be saved and see God's glory.

1:28 Compare Acts 20:20-24.

"Complete wisdom" - the wisdom God gave him - 1 Cor 1:30; 2:7,10,12,16. He was not boasting in his own wisdom. He prayed that they might have complete wisdom - v 9. He knew this was possible to have because he had it. So can believers now - Jam 1:5.

"Perfect" - compare 2 Cor 11:2; Eph 4:12-15. See references and notes at Matt 5:48; Phil 3:12,15; Heb 6:1; 10:14.

1:29 To Paul Eph 3:20 was not mere theory. Observe that though God's power was working in Paul this did not mean easy activity for him. Quite the opposite - it meant great labor and struggle (the same Greek word is used in 4:12; Luke 13:24; 1 Cor 9:25).

2:1 "Struggle" - 1:29. Paul struggled in prayer for believers whether he had met them or not. He well knew that every believer is precious to Christ and bore Christ's name before the world.

"Laodicea" - Rev 3:14.

2:2 Another example of the content of Paul's prayers - 1:9.

"Encouraged" - Acts 4:36; 9:31; 16:40; Rom 1:12; 15:4; Eph 6:22; Phil 2:1; 1 Thess 2:11,12. Paul considered this an important ministry.

"Knit together in love" - Rom 12:10; Eph 4:2,3; Phil 2:2.

"Understanding" - see what Paul considered "riches." Compare Prov 3:13,14; 8:10,19; 16:16.

"Mystery" - a revelation from God. See note at Matt 13:11.

"Of God, of the Father and of Christ" - no one can know Christ unless God reveals Him - 2 Cor 4:4-6. In the same way no one can know God unless Christ reveals Him - Matt 11:27. The knowledge of Christ and God the Father is greater riches than everything else put together. Compare Phil 3:7-11; John 17:3.

2:3 If we know Christ we are at the source the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. 4 And I say this so that no one may deceive you with persuasive words. 5 For though I am absent in the body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

of all spiritual wisdom. Observe the word "all." All wisdom, without limit, is in Christ. If we do not know Him we are completely lacking in spiritual wisdom even though we know all philosophy and have all of the world's knowledge. See 1 Cor 1:20,21. What some people call the way of wisdom for salvation is the way to pride and arrogance, not the way to salvation.

"Hidden" - the wisdom and knowledge of Christ are not clear to everyone, they do not lie on the surface. They must be sought as people would seek for hidden treasures. Compare Prov 2:1-6. Psalm 119 gives the example of one seeking for spiritual understanding with his whole heart. Happy are those who imitate him.

2:4 There are always those who deceive others (and themselves) with "persuasive words." They can make man-invented ways and the wisdom of philosophy or religion sound very reasonable and good. Only by faith in Christ and an understanding of the truth, and of the reality He gives, can we keep ourselves from false ways.

2:5 "In spirit" - 1 Cor 5:3,4. Paul is not suggesting that his spirit could leave his body and travel to other places. He means his mind, his heart, his thoughts were on them and their affairs. What Paul "saw" (understood from the information he had received about them) made him hopeful that they would not be deceived by fine-sounding arguments.

"Order" - 1 Cor 14:40.

"Firmness of your faith in Christ" - this is what enables us to stand against deceptive teaching and every device of Satan (2 Cor 1:24; Eph 6:16; 1 Pet 5:9; 1 John 5:4).

2:6 Notes on "Christ" and "Jesus" at Matt 1:1. Notes on "Lord" at Luke 2:11. They had received the truth about the Jesus of history. They had not received some mystical idea, some Christ of speculation and imagination. They believed in a flesh and blood Jesus who was the God-anointed one and the Lord from heaven. Observe carefully that by faith they had received "the Lord." This is the truth they had been taught and they had believed it and submitted themselves to Him. Now by that same faith they must continue to live (2 Cor 5:7).

"Go forward" - or "walk" - note at Eph 2:10.

2:7 "Rooted and being built up" - compare Eph 3:17. Believers can be compared in some ways with plants or trees - Matt 12:33; 13:1-30; Ps 1:3. Christ is like the good ground where their roots are. They are already rooted, but gradually developing. They are like a building and Christ is the foundation where they are being built up -

6 Therefore just as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so continue to go forward in him, 7 rooted and being built up in him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, overflowing in it with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man despoil you through

Eph 2:19-22; 1 Pet 2:4,5; 1 Cor 3:11.

"In the faith" - they should be more and more established in the truth of Christ, believe it more and more firmly.

"Thanksgiving" - Eph 5:4,20; 1 Thess 5:18.

2:8 "Beware" or "be very careful" - a subtle danger was there - the danger of being captured by a false system of thought. In vs 16-23 Paul speaks of the system which the Colossians faced. Those we face today may be similar or different, but we too need to be on our guard. One thing is certain in every generation - any philosophy, or system of religious thought that leaves out the Lord Jesus Christ is hollow and deceptive.

Philosophy is the pursuit of what men regard as wisdom, an attempt to find out truth and the nature of reality by logic and reasoning. Christ is the truth, and all spiritual wisdom is hidden in Him. The methods of philosophy will never lead men to Him. The Bible is a revelation of the nature of reality, and all the truth about spiritual matters which God wants men to know is contained in it. Philosophy is speculation. It never leads to the true God (1 Cor 1:20,21). The Bible leads us to Christ who is true God. Philosophers in general contradict one another, and make statements which cannot be proved. They are dealing with things they do not know, things too high for them.

Christ, the wisdom of God (1 Cor 1:24), stands before us. In him alone are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. It is interesting that the word "philosophy" is used just this once in the whole Bible. The word "philosophers" also is used just once in the Hebrew and Greek Bible (Acts 17:18), but they appear under different words once more - 1 Cor 1:20. In this way God, the Author of the Bible, reveals the uselessness of philosophy in the field of spiritual wisdom. If God ignores something, or fails to speak approval of it, then we may be sure it has no contribution to make to those things God wants most to teach us.

"Despoil you" - or the Greek could be translated "make a prey of you" or "take you captive."

"Traditions of men" - the philosophy troubling the Christians at Colosse was based on human traditions (either spoken or written down), and on certain basic lessons men thought they had learned from the world. Those philosophers were dealing with only the ABCs of things (but probably prided themselves on their deep thought). Their philosophy was not based on Christ and therefore was "empty deceit." Since it was not based on Christ all true wis-philosophy and empty deceit, according to the traditions of men, according to the rudimentary things of the world, and not according to Christ.

9 For in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily. 10 And you are complete in him, who is the head of all sovereignty and power. 11 In him also you have been circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh in the circumcision done by Christ, 12 and have been buried with him in baptism, in which you have also been raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

13 And when you were dead in your sins and the lack of circumcision in your flesh, he made you dom was left out. So it promised something it could not give. This is as true today as it was then. There are many systems of philosophy and of religious thought based on certain traditions, or ancient religious writings, or on pure human speculation. Since they leave out Christ, who is the wisdom of God, these systems also are hollow and deceptive.

2:9 See 1:19. This means that Christ is the incarnation of the one true God, the Creator of the universe. All the fullness of the divine nature dwells in His body. See references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

2:10 Believers are "in Christ", united to Him by God's Spirit - John 17:20-23; Rom 6:5; 1 Cor 12:12,13; Eph 1:4,7,11,13. Therefore in Him they have all they need for a holy, wise, and spiritual life. The "completeness" God has given them is not, of course, the fullness of deity. Human beings can never become God and receive God's attributes (see Gen 1:26; Ps 9:20; Isa 40:6-8,12-26). But God has given to believers fullness of grace and power and wisdom in Christ. They are to understand this and appropriate these things to themselves and use them. Compare John 1:16-18; Eph 3:19; 5:18.

"Head" - Eph 1:20-23; Phil 2:9-11.

2:11 "Circumcised" - Paul is speaking of the true spiritual meaning which the religious ceremony of circumcision pointed to. See Rom 2:28,29; Phil 3:3. The flesh (in Greek "sarx" - see note at Rom 7:5) cannot be improved in any way. It deserves to die, and Christ by dying in our place has put it to death. He has cut believers off from any connection with it - 3:3; Rom 6:6; 7:17; 8:9. They have a new heart, a new nature; they are separated from the old life - 3:9,10; 2 Cor 5:17. This does not mean that the actual sinful nature within them is inactive - Rom 7:17,18; Gal 5:17.

2:12 "Buried with him in baptism" - see Rom 6:3,4.

"Raised with Him" - Eph 2:6.

"Through faith in the working of God" - compare Rom 4:20,21,24. When we believe the God who revealed His power in raising Christ from physical death, He raises us alive together with him, forgiving you all trespasses, 14 and blotting out the handwriting of decrees that was against us, which was opposed to us, and took it away, nailing it to his cross. 15 And having plundered principalities and powers, he made an open spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

16 Therefore let no one judge you in the matter of food or drink, or regarding a festival, or new moon observance, or sabbath days. 17 These are a shadow of things that were to come, but the substance is of Christ. 18 Do not let anyone keep you from receiving your reward, by a self-willed humility and worshipping of angels, entering into things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by from spiritual death. Compare John 5:24; Rom 10:9,10.

2:13 "Dead. . . alive" - Eph 2:1,5.

"Forgiving" - 1:14; Eph 1:7.

2:14 Eph 2:15. "Against us" - the law of God was opposed to people because all are sinners and have broken it, and the law demanded punishment and death - Gal 3:10; Rom 3:19; 4:15; 7:12-14.

"Nailing it to His cross" - Christ took our place and endured all the punishment and curse of the law against sin - Gal 3:13. He died under the curse of the law and all believers died with Him (in God's reckoning). Because they are dead to the law, it is as though the law was crucified and dead to them - Rom 7:1-6.

2:15 "Principalities and powers" - here Paul means Satan and other evil spirits (Eph 6:12). They tried to destroy Christ by the cross - Luke 22:53. Instead, Christ by His cross and resurrection gained the victory over them, and freed His people from their power - John 12:31; Heb 2:14,15.

2:16-23 Paul now speaks of some ways false teachers tried to deceive the Colossians by "persuasive words" (v 4).

2:16 "Let no one" - here he is referring to the Jews who still held to the "written code with its regulations" (the whole law of Moses) - v 14.

"Food or drink" - see note at Lev 11:1; Mark 7:18,19; Acts 10:9-16; Rom 14:1-4.

"Festival" - he means Jewish observance of special days and times. Believers now are not under such Old Testament rules and regulations. See notes on "Sabbath" at Rom 14:5-8; Gal 4:10,11. These regulations are part of the written code Christ nailed to the cross - v 14.

2:17 "Shadow" - Heb 8:5; 10:1.

"Substance" - the rules and regulations of the Old Testament were shadowy pictures of spiritual truth found in Christ.

2:18 Paul now speaks of another danger. Some people in Colosse were in a false religious path. They were proud of what they considered their humility, and they worshiped angels. This worship and their so-called humility went hand in hand. They may have argued something like this: human beings his carnal mind, 19 and not holding to the Head, from whom the whole body is supplied and knit together by muscles and ligaments, and grows with the increase God gives.

20 Therefore if you died with Christ to the rudimentary things of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you submit to rules 21 (do not touch, do not taste, do not handle, 22 all of which are to perish with the using), according to the commandments and doctrines of men? 23 These cannot go to God directly – He is too high above them, too holy, too unapproachable; so men should worship Him only through mediators and these mediators are angels. Some religious people today use a similar argument. But instead of worshipping angels or through angels they venerate those they call the “saints” who have died. They regard them as mediators, and ask them to intercede with God in their behalf. Besides these there are a great many people who worship various “gods”, not God the Creator. All of this is contrary to God’s Word and will revealed in the Bible – Ex 20:1-6; John 14:6; 1 Tim 2:5; Heb 10:19-22.

“Reward” – see 1 Cor 9:24; 2 Tim 2:5. Believers should not let anyone cause them to stumble in the spiritual race they are running. If they do they may lose the prize they could otherwise have received.

“Self-willed humility” – not the kind of humility produced in a believer by the Holy Spirit.

“Puffed up” – this is the result of self-willed humility. Such “humility” is only pride in disguise.

“Carnal mind” – the mind of the flesh, the fallen nature – see Rom 8:5-7. The people described here were controlled by their sinful nature and their worship, religion, and philosophy came out of that, but they may have considered themselves very spiritual.

2:19 “Not holding to the Head” – the NIV here has “lost connection with the Head.” This is an unnecessary and misleading translation. It implies that these false teachers once were connected with the Head (Christ), but somehow lost that connection. This strikes the author of these notes as something very unlikely. The phrase may possibly be translated “not taking hold of the Head” or “not united to the Head” (The Jerusalem Bible). The false religious teachers at Colosse were not controlled by Christ. His teachings did not rule their lives. That is why they went astray. Probably they professed to be His followers, but proved by their teachings that they were not.

2:20 “Died in Christ” – Rom 6:6,8; Gal 2:20.

“Rudimentary things” (v 8; Gal 4:3) – things that are related to the old creation, not the new spiritual creation in Christ.

2:21,22 Some people thought then (and think now) that laws and rules and regula-things indeed have an appearance of wisdom in their self-chosen worship, and humility, and bodily austerities, but have no value against fleshly indulgence.

3 If then you have been raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sits at the right hand of God. 2 Set your affection on things above, not on things of the earth. 3 For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in tions about food, drink, etc are at the heart of spiritual life. Believers in Christ have, in Christ, died to all that.

2:23 “Appearance of wisdom” – this is quite enough to satisfy most people on earth. The true wisdom that comes from God they do not have and do not try to obtain.

“Self-chosen worship” – many people try to worship in their own way and ignore God’s appointed way. Compare Matt 15:7-9; John 4:23,24; Ex 20:1-6; Ps 29:2; Prov 14:12.

“Bodily austerities” – some think that they can become spiritual by ill-treating the body, and forcing it to obey them by ascetic practices. Self-control and subjection of the body are certainly good (1 Cor 9:27). But not all methods men practice to accomplish this are good. But neither that alone, nor the other things Paul mentions here, can make anyone spiritual or enable him to overcome his sinful nature. There is only one way to do this, and that is through the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul takes this matter up in the next chapter.

3:1,2 What men need is new, spiritual life, not the things false teachers tried to impose on Christians at Colosse (2:4,8,16-23).

“Raised with Christ” – 2:13; Rom 6:4,5; Eph 2:4-6. Believers died in Christ who is their representative and substitute, and they were raised in Him. This became a living experience when they received Him by faith and were born again – John 1:12,13. Christ is at the right hand of God – Eph 1:20; Phil 2:9; Heb 1:3. That is where every believer’s thoughts and desires should be. This is the only way to live a holy life worthy of Him. Compare Phil 4:8; Rom 8:5; etc.

“Affection” – or “mind”, or both.

“Things. . .above” – these are the things of Christ and God, spiritual things, the truth God has revealed, the true wisdom, the blessings He has given us in Christ (Eph 1:3). We should seek those things with all our thoughts, desires and strength. This is the way to continued peace and joy and assurance and power and holiness and power and growth in the Christian life.

3:3 “Died” – Rom 6:2-4,8; Gal 2:20.

“Life” – the new, spiritual life that God has given to believers.

“Hidden” – no one on earth can see it, no enemy can come at it to destroy it (John 10:28,29). Though this treasure in Christ

God. 4 When Christ, who is our life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

5 Therefore put to death your members which are upon the earth: sexual immorality, uncleanness, bad passion, evil cravings, and covetousness, which is idolatry. 6 Because of these things the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. 7 Once you also spent your life in these things, when you lived in them. 8 But now you must also put off all these: anger, rage, malice, blasphemy, filthy language from your mouth. 9 Do not lie to each other, since you have put off the old man with his deeds 10 and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator, 11 where there is neither Greek nor may seem far away, it is very near, and very safe.

3:4 Christ is the life of all believers – that is, they have this new, spiritual life because He is in them (1:27; John 11:25; Rom 8:9,10; 1 John 5:11,12,20). They are united to Him (John 17:20-23), and His life flows through the whole body of believers.

“Appears” – 1 Tim 6:14; 2 Tim 4:1,8; Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28; 1 Pet 5:4; 1 John 2:28; 3:2.

3:5 “Put to death” – Paul bases this command on the great truths he has set before us in vs 1-4. Compare Rom 12:1; Eph 4:1; 5:1. Since God has given believers new life in Christ, since they have a glorious future, they should behave accordingly. They must set out to remove sinning from their lives. And this is possible (though it is not possible for us to eradicate the sinful nature within us). If it is not possible, Paul by the inspiration of God’s Spirit would not have told believers to do it. They will not accomplish it by any methods of the false teachers (2:23). But they can do so through Christ, by His Spirit, using the strength He gives. See Rom 8:4,13,14; Gal 5:22-25; Eph 3:16-20.

“Members” – “parts of the body.” The sins Paul now lists are as closely connected to our nature by birth as eyes, hands or feet are to the body. They must be dealt with harshly, drastically. See Matt 5:29,30.

“Covetousness” – or “greed” “desiring more” – a sin very common even among Christians.

“Idolatry” – Eph 5:5. Idols in the heart are detestable and destructive just as exterior idols are. See Ezek 14:3,4.

3:6 “Wrath” – Eph 5:6; Rom 1:18; Ps 90:7-11; Num 25:3.

“Children of disobedience” – this expression means those who are disobedient, those whose nature and practice is disobedience.

3:7 Eph 2:1-3; Rom 3:9-19.

3:8 “Put off” – Eph 4:22-32.

3:9,10 “Do not lie” – Eph 4:25; Ps 15:2; Prov 12:22.

Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian nor Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Therefore, as the chosen of God, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with tender mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness and patience. 13 Bear with one another, and forgive one another, if anyone has a quarrel against another. Just as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. 14 And above all these things clothe yourselves with love, which is the perfect bond.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, for you were called to this in one body. And be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one

“Have put on” – when people repent (Matt 3:2) and believe in Christ they are putting off the old way of life and putting on a new. They obtain a new nature, they become new people – 2 Cor 5:17. This new nature is in the “image” of God – that is, it is spiritual, holy and righteous (Eph 4:22-24). It exists in believers side by side with their sinful nature – Gal 5:16,17; Rom 7:14-25; etc. So each believer has to deal with the faults, sins, bad habits, evil desires, etc., of the old nature. And the way to deal with them is to put them to death, to put them off.

3:11 Gal 3:28. All who believe in Christ have the new nature and all are united with Christ. Christians should not make distinctions where God has made none.

3:12 “The chosen of God” – 2 Cor 6:16-18; 1 Pet 2:9,10.

“Holy” – notes at John 17:17-19; etc.

“Dearly loved” – Eph 1:5; 3:18,19; 5:25,26; 1 John 3:1.

“Put on” – or “clothe yourselves” – Rom 13:14.

“Tender mercies. . .patience” – Phil 2:1; Gal 5:22,23.

3:13 Eph 4:32; Matt 6:12,14.

3:14 “Above all. . .love” – John 13:34; Rom 12:10; 1 Corinthians chapter 13; Eph 4:2; Phil 2:2; 1 John 3:18; 4:7,8. Only love can make perfect unity among believers. Without it there will be selfish ambition, quarrels, factions, etc.

3:15 “The peace of God” – John 14:27; Phil 4:6,7. Peace should sit on the throne of our hearts and direct our actions. We should avoid doing anything that strikes against inner peace, that is a traitor to peace, that makes us uneasy and fearful. Peace in the heart is a tender flower and sin will cause it to wither.

“One body” – 1 Cor 12:12,13. So we should behave toward one another in the light of this – 1 Cor 1:10; Phil 2:2.

“Thankful” – 1:12; 2:7.

3:16 Compare Eph 5:18-20. There is a close connection between being filled with God’s Spirit and letting the word (teachings) of Christ dwell richly in the mind and heart.

“Dwell” – compare Eph 3:17; Ps 119:11. See the importance of the word of Christ to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. 17 And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

18 Wives, submit to your own husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter toward them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord well.

21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they will not be discouraged.

22 Slaves, in everything obey those who are your masters according to the body, not serving because he is watching, not as pleasers of men, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God. 23 And whatever you do, do it heartily, as for the Lord, and not for men, 24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. For you serve the Lord Christ. 25 But he who does wrong will be repaid for the wrong he did, and there is no favoritism with God.

4 Masters, give your slaves what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in believers. Compare Ps 1:2; Deut 6:6,7; Josh 1:8.

"Teaching and admonishing" - all believers are to be teachers of one another. But this can happen only as Christ's word richly lives in them.

3:17 Compare 1 Cor 10:31.

"In the name of the Lord Jesus" - on His authority, according to His nature and teachings, as those who represent Him on earth. Here is a rule that should govern our every action and word. If we cannot do or say something by the authority of the Lord Jesus we should not do it or say it. Believers are His people on earth, members of His body. They are to present Him to the world, not to speak and act as they please.

3:18-25 See Eph 5:22-6:8 and notes. "Slaves" - or "servants" or "bondservants".

4:1 Eph 6:9.

4:2 Eph 6:18; Luke 18:1.

"Thankful" - 1:12; 2:7; 3:15,17; 1 Thess 5:18.

4:3 Eph 6:19,20.

"Mystery of Christ" - 1:25-27. Paul, an example to us all, was always looking for opportunities to tell others of Christ. He prayed for opportunities and asked others to pray for him.

4:4 "Speaking as I should" - in the variety of situations we face, and with the variety of people that we meet, it is not always easy to speak as we ought. To be ready to speak in every situation, to every kind of person, requires much prayer and thought and study.

4:5,6 Believers must always consider what effect their words and actions have on heaven.

2 Persevere in prayer, and be alert in it with thanksgiving, 3 and be praying for us also, that God would open to us a door for the Word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains, 4 that I may make it clear, speaking as I should. 5 Behave with wisdom toward outsiders, redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you should answer everyone.

7 Tychicus will tell you all the news about me.

He is a dear brother, and a faithful servant and fellow worker in the Lord. 8 I have sent him to you for the same purpose, that he might learn how you are and encourage your hearts, 9 with Onesimus, a faithful and dear brother, who is one of you. They will tell you everything that is happening here.

10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (you received instructions about him. If he comes to you, receive him), 11 and Jesus, who is called Justus. These are the only ones of the circumcision who work with me for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. 12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, greets you. He is always striving earnestly for you in prayer, that unbelievers. Outsiders may know nothing more of Christianity than what they see in us or hear from us. If we are not wise we may offend them unnecessarily. If we do not take the opportunities God gives us to speak to them of Christ, their blood may be on our hands - Acts 20:25-27. When we do speak to them our way of speaking should be gracious, courteous, pleasant. And, of course, our message to them should always put emphasis on God's grace. Compare Ps 45:2; Luke 4:22.

The word "salt" may suggest two things. Salt makes things tasty. Our way of speaking should make people want to hear more. Salt preserves from corruption. We do not need to adopt the corrupt way of speaking common among men. Compare Eph 4:29.

4:7 "Tychicus" - Eph 6:21.

4:8 "Encourage" - 2:2.

4:9 "Onesimus" - Philemon 10-12,16.

4:10 "Aristarchus" - Acts 19:29; 20:4; 27:2; Philemon 24.

"Prisoner" - v 18; Eph 3:1; Phil 1:13.

"Mark" - Acts 12:12,25; 13:5,13; 15:37,39; 2 Tim 4:11; Philemon 24; 1 Pet 5:13.

4:11 "Jesus" is the Greek form of Joshua and was not an uncommon name among Jews in those days.

"Of the circumcision" - or of the Jews. The rest of his fellow workers were people of other nations or races.

"Kingdom of God" - notes at Matt 4:17; Rom 14:17.

4:12,13 "Epaphras" - 1:7.

"Striving. . . in prayer" - 2:1. This was not you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him witness that he has a great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea and for those in Hierapolis. 14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you. 15 Greet the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church that meets in his house.

16 When this letter is read among you, see that for himself but for others. He wanted to win spiritual victories for them. Spiritual wrestling is often necessary because of the weakness of the flesh, and the opposition of enemies in the spiritual world – Matt 26:40,41; Eph 6:12. Compare also Gen 32:24-32. Epaphras wanted very important things for those believers – things believers still need today. He wanted them to have the ability to know God's will and stand firm in it (1:9,10), and to enjoy spiritual maturity (Eph 4:13-15). Notice the word "always."

"Laodicea" – vs 15,16; 2:1.
4:14 "Luke" – Philemon 24; 2 Tim 4:11. Luke was a Gentile (compare v 11) and the

it is read in the church of the Laodiceans also, and likewise that you read the letter from Laodicea.

18 This greeting I, Paul, am writing with my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you. Amen.

author of Acts and the Gospel of Luke. This is the only place he is called a physician.

"Demas" – Philemon 24; 2 Tim 4:10.
4:15,16 This was one way Paul's letters (and other portions of the Bible) became known to the churches. Remember that in those days there were no printing presses and no copying machines of any kind.

4:17 "Archippus" – Philemon 2. One of the major concerns of every believer should be to finish the work the Lord Jesus has given him or her to do. See Acts 20:24; 2 Tim 4:7.

4:18 "Own hand" – 1 Cor 16:21; Gal 6:11; 2 Thess 3:17. "Chains" – v 10.

The First Letter of the Apostle Paul to the THESSALONIANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime between 50 and 54 AD.

Themes:

During his second missionary journey Paul visited Thessalonica and preached the gospel of Christ. Some people there believed in Christ, left their idols, and became disciples (Acts 17:1-9). Now Paul writes to strengthen their faith, to let them know of his joy concerning them, and to give them some further teaching. A principal theme is the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul refers to this event in each chapter of this letter (1:10; 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-17; 5:1-4). Christ will come again and gather His believers to Himself to be with Him forever, therefore believers should now rejoice in this great truth and live lives worthy of it.

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, 3 remembering constantly your work of faith and labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of our God and Father, 4 knowing, dear brethren, God's choice of you. 5 For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance. You know

1:1 "Paul" - Acts 8:1-3; 13:9.

"Silvanus" was the same person as Silas - Acts 15:22,40.

"Timothy" - Acts 16:1-4. Silas (and possibly Timothy) was with Paul when the church in Thessalonica was started - Acts 17:1-4,10-14.

"In God. . . and Christ" - Paul in this way shows the oneness of two distinct persons in the one Godhead (notes at Matt 3:16,17; 28:19; John 10:30; 17:1-5; Phil 2:6). Believers are "in" God. He is their refuge, their home, the location of their spiritual life. Compare Ps 90:1; Col 3:3.

1:2 "Thanks" - Rom 1:8; 1 Cor 1:4; Phil 1:8; Col 1:3.

"In our prayers" - Rom 1:9,10; Eph 1:16; 3:16; Phil 1:4,9; Col 1:3,9; 2:1.

1:3 Here are three great Christian qualities and something of what they produce. True faith will always produce good works. See Jam 2:14-17,26. The Greek word translated "love" here is "agape." See 1 Cor 13:1-13 for its description. Love can be known only by what it produces and seen only in how it behaves. Real love is always willing to labor for Christ and others.

"Hope" - see Rom 5:2-5; 8:24,25. Believers are willing to endure all things because their hope is fixed on God who has promised them eternal life with Himself - Titus 1:2.

1:4 "Knowing" - the evidence that they were true believers was very strong indeed and made Paul sure that God had chosen them for eternal life.

"Dearly loved" - Rom 5:8; Eph 3:18,19; Col 3:12; 1 John 3:1.

"Choice of you" - Mark 13:20; John 13:18; 15:19; Rom 8:33; Eph 1:4,5,11; 1 Pet 1:2; 2:9.

1:5-10 These verses, together with v 3, give the evidence that made Paul certain of their salvation. When he first preached to them he experienced the power of the Holy Spirit, he saw the profound change that occurred in them, a change which stood the test of persecution, and he knew that their witness for Christ was true and fervent.

1:5 "Our gospel" - the gospel revealed by Christ which they preached (2:8; 3:2; Gal 1:11,12; Rom 1:16; 1 Cor 15:1-8).

"In power" - Acts 1:8; 1 Cor 2:4,5; Col 1:29. Too much preaching is simply with words and lacks the power of God.

"In the Holy Spirit" - notes at Matt

what kind of men we were among you for your sake. 6 And you became followers of us and of the Lord. You received the word in much suffering, but with the Holy Spirit's joy. 7 So you became examples to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. 8 For the word of the Lord sounded out from you. Not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith in God is becoming known, so that we do not need to say anything about it. 9 For they themselves declare concerning us what kind of entry we had among you and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, 10 and to wait for his Son from 3:16,17; John 14:16,17; Acts 1:4; Eph 5:18. Paul moved about and preached and served others in the heavenly atmosphere of God's Spirit. This was the source of his power.

"In much assurance" - both he and they were convinced that God was at work among them.

"What kind" - 2:5-12. Compare Acts 20:18-20,33-35.

1:6 "Followers of us" or "imitators of us" - Christian leaders must be examples which all may safely follow. See 1 Cor 4:16; 11:1; Phil 3:17; 2 Thess 3:7,9; 1 Tim 1:16; 4:12; Titus 2:7; Heb 6:12; 13:7; 1 Pet 5:3.

"In much suffering" - 2:14; Acts 17:5-10. This did not turn them from the gospel. It never will turn away those whom God has chosen.

"Joy" - compare Acts 8:8; 13:52; 16:34; Rom 14:17. God's Spirit alone can produce this joy in the hearts of those who believe the gospel.

1:7 "Examples" - Paul became a model to believers by following the greatest of all examples (1 Cor 11:1). They imitated Paul and became models to others.

"Macedonia and Achaia" - what we call Greece today consisted then of these two main regions. Thessalonica was in Macedonia.

1:8 "Word. . . sounded forth" - they were clear and open witnesses for Christ as all believers should be.

"Everywhere" - compare Rom 1:8.

1:9 "Idols" - many of the believers there were Gentiles - people other than Jews - and idolatry then was as common as it is now in some parts of the world. A clear mark of their conversion was that they abandoned their idols and turned to the one true God. So it must be with us.

"The living and true God" - Paul uses this expression to distinguish Him from the "gods" which are false and lifeless, the idols the Thessalonians had worshipped and that others still worshipped. See 1 Cor 8:5,6; Ps 115:3-8; Isa 44:20; Jer 10:14; Rom 1:22,23,25. If we want the true and living God to be our God we must do as these Thessalonians did. We cannot have both the true God and idols.

1:10 "Wait" - 1 Cor 1:7; Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28. The second coming of Christ is an important theme of both letters to the Thessalonians - indeed an important theme heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who has delivered us from the wrath to come.

2 For, brethren, you yourselves know that our coming to you was not in vain. 2 But even after we had suffered previously and been spitefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to speak the gospel of God to you, in the midst of much conflict. 3 For our exhortation did not arise from error, or from impurity, or from deceitfulness, 4 but since we were approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak, not to please men, but God, who tests our hearts. 5 For we did not at any time use flattering words, as you know, or a cloak to cover greed. God is our witness. 6 And we did not seek glory from men, either from you, or from others.

As the apostles of Christ, we could rightly have been a burden to you, 7 but we were gentle among you, just as a nursing mother lovingly takes care of the whole New Testament – 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-18; 2 Thess 1:7; 2:1; Matt 24:30; John 14:3; Acts 1:11; Rev 1:7.

"Raised from the dead" – Matt 28:6; Acts 1:3; 2:24-32; 1 Cor 15:3-8.

"The wrath to come" – Rom 1:18; 2:5; Eph 5:6; Col 3:6; Rev 6:16. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18. God's wrath will come when God rises to judge the world. Wrath is the opposite of salvation – 5:9. It means eternal punishment – 2 Thess 1:7-10; Matt 25:46. Jesus is the only one who rescues believers from this wrath. See Rom 5:9. Some commentators on this passage of Scripture have expressed their belief that the wrath Paul speaks of here is the same as the great tribulation at the end of this age (Matt 24:21). However, the great tribulation is nowhere called the wrath of God. Actually it is the wrath of Satan and of evil men against God's people. See notes at Matt 24:29; Rev 6:12-17; 13:7,15-17. Paul does not say here (or anywhere else) that believers will be rescued from this. Also we should understand that whether or not the church will be in the great tribulation period, true believers of some kind will certainly be – see Rev 12:17; 13:7. If the tribulation is the wrath of God this would mean that the wrath of God will come on those saints who resist antichrist to the point of death. Can we think that this is possible? Surely "the wrath to come" refers to something far different and far worse than the great tribulation period.

2:1 "Not in vain" – 1:5-10 makes this very clear.

2:2 "Philippi" – Acts 16:19-24.

"Conflict" – Acts 17:5-10.

2:3 It is probable that someone at Thessalonica had been speaking against Paul. Compare 2 Cor 1:12; 2:17; 4:2.

2:4 "Entrusted with the gospel" – 1 Cor 4:1; Gal 2:7; Eph 3:7,8; 1 Tim 1:11,12.

of her children. 8 We yearned over you with such affection that we were willing to give to you, not only the gospel of God, but also our own lives, because you were dear to us. 9 For you remember, brethren, our labour and toil. For labouring night and day because we would not be a burden to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

10 You are witnesses, and God also, how holy, righteous and blameless our behaviour was among you who believe. 11 Also you know how we encouraged and comforted and instructed every one of you, as a father does his children, 12 that you should behave in a way worthy of God, who has called you to his kingdom and glory.

13 For this reason also we constantly thank God: because when you heard the Word of God from us and received it, you embraced it, not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the Word of God. Also it is effectively working in you who believe. 14 For, brethren, you became imitators of

"Not to please men" – Gal 1:10.

"Tests our hearts" – 1 Sam 16:7; Ps 66:10; 139:1,23,24; Prov 21:2; Jer 17:10; Rev 2:23.

2:5 Acts 20:33-35; 2 Cor 7:2. Some preachers are after money, and put on a mask of piety to trick people into giving it – 1 Tim 6:5. Paul was not like them. He well knew that the anger of God rests on the greedy and deceitful – Eph 5:5,6; Col 3:5,6; 1 Tim 6:9-11.

"God is our witness" – v 10. A very solemn and emphatic way of speaking.

2:6 "From men" – compare John 5:44; Rom 2:29.

"Burden" – see 1 Cor 9:7-15; 2 Cor 11:9. 2:7 Verse 11; Gal 4:19.

2:8 2 Cor 7:3; 12:15; 1 John 3:16.

2:9 Acts 18:3; 2 Cor 11:9; 2 Thess 3:8.

2:10 He is not speaking like this for his own sake, but for their sake and for the sake of the gospel he preached. Compare 2 Cor 1:12; 11:16-21; 12:19. He wanted them to have no doubts about the truth of the gospel.

2:11,12 He was like both a mother and a father to them – v 7. Compare 1 Cor 4:15; Gal 4:19. He is an example of how evangelists and pastors should behave toward converts.

"Behave" – or "walk" – note at Eph 2:10.

"Worthy of God" – see Eph 4:1; Phil 1:27; Col 1:10.

"Called you" – note at Rom 1:6; 8:30. Observe what God calls us to.

"Kingdom" and "glory" – see Matt 4:17; 25:34; John 17:22,24; Rom 5:2; 8:17; 14:17; Col 1:12,13; Heb 12:28; 2 Pet 1:11.

2:13 "The Word of God" – here means the gospel of Christ. See Gal 1:11,12. Compare 2 Tim 3:16.

"Working in you" – compare Phil 1:6; 2:13. The Word of God in the hearts and minds of people is an active force for great good – Ps 119:11; Heb 4:12. So we have the instruction in Col 3:16.

2:14 "Imitators" – 1:6.

the churches of God in Judea which are in Christ Jesus. For you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen that they have from the Jews, 15 who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us. And they are not pleasing to God, and are opposed to all men, 16 forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, and so always filling up the measure of their sins. And wrath has come on them to the utmost.

17 But we, brethren, for a short time, being removed from you in person (but not in heart), with great longing, made every effort to see your face. 18 Therefore we would have come to you, certainly I, Paul, more than once, but Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? 20 For you are our glory and joy.

3 So when we could no longer endure it, we thought it good to be left alone at Athens,

"Your own countrymen" – Greeks. Unbelieving Greeks persecuted believing Greeks just as unbelieving Jews persecuted believing Jews. And as all other peoples of earth tend to persecute believers in Christ. 2:15 "Killed" – Roman soldiers did the actual killing, but the Jews handed Jesus over to the Romans and demanded His death, and so were responsible for it (Matt 27:1,2,22-25; Acts 2:23; 3:13-15).

"The prophets" – Matt 23:37; Acts 7:52. "Persecuted us" – Acts 13:50; 14:2,5, 19; 17:5; etc.

2:16 "Gentiles" – Acts 13:45,50; 20:3; 21:27; 22:21,22.

"To the utmost" – compare Matt 23:35,36.

2:17,18 "Being removed" – Acts 17:10. He was in Thessalonica only a brief time and had to leave new believers before he had much opportunity to teach them. He loved them dearly (vs 7,11) and longed to visit them.

"Satan hindered us" – compare Rom 1:13. We do not know what circumstances Paul refers to here. But we do know that Satan is constantly opposing God's servants, and, it would seem from this verse, he can cause delays and disruption of plans. On Satan see 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44.

2:19,20 See Phil 4:1. How proud he was of these who believed in Christ! What joy they brought to his heart!

"Crown" – he speaks of the reward of the soul winner. It is to see people in Christ's presence won through his (or her) efforts. Compare Ps 126:5,6; John 4:36.

3:1 "Athens" – from Thessalonica Paul and his companions went to Berea and then on to Athens (Acts 17:10,15).

3:2 "Timothy" – 1:1; Acts 16:1.

"Encourage" – he was always concerned

2 and sent Timothy, our brother and servant of God, and our fellow worker in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and encourage you concerning your faith, 3 that no one would be upset by these troubles. For you know that we are appointed to this. 4 For in fact, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we would experience tribulation – even as it came about, as you know. 5 For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I sent to find out about your faith, fearing that perhaps by some means the tempter had tempted you, and our labour might be in vain.

6 But now Timothy has come from you to us, and brought us good news about your faith and love, and reported that you always have good memories of us, and greatly desire to see us, even as we desire to see you. 7 So, brethren, we were encouraged about you in all our trouble and distress, because of your faith. 8 For now we live, since you stand firm in the Lord. 9 For what thanks can we offer to God again for you, for all the joy we experience for your sakes in the presence of that believers, especially new believers, be strong in the faith and encouraged to live for Christ. See v 13; 2:12; 2 Thess 2:17; Acts 14:22; 2 Cor 12:19; Eph 3:16; Col 1:11; 2:7.

3:3 "These troubles" – 2:14.

"We are appointed to this" – observe this truth very carefully and compare John 16:33; Acts 14:22; 1 Pet 4:1,12.

3:4 Paul knew from the Word of God and from his personal experience what would happen, and he plainly told them so. When speaking of the blessings of the gospel he did not fail to speak also of the troubles that would come to believers. Compare Acts 20:20,27.

3:5 "Fearing" – compare 1 Cor 15:2; Gal 4:11. True faith in Christ enables believers to overcome trials, persecutions and temptations – John 10:39; 1 John 5:4,5; etc. Paul knew the Thessalonians were facing such difficulties. Was their faith real enough to stand the test? He was anxious to find out.

"The tempter" – Satan (Matt 4:1-10).

"In vain" – Gal 2:2; Phil 2:16.

3:6 "Faith and love" – 1:3.

3:7 "Encouraged. . . because of your faith" – he understood that their faith had passed the tests that came to it and so proved itself genuine (compare 1 Pet 1:6,7).

3:8 "Now we live" – Paul felt his life was bound up with theirs, that if they lived faithfully in Christ it made him feel alive. Compare 1 Cor 12:24-26.

"Stand firm" – 1 Cor 15:58; Gal 5:1; Eph 6:14; Col 2:5; Jam 5:8; 1 Pet 5:9,10.

3:9 "Thanks" – 1:2. These Thessalonians had come to Christ through his ministry, but his thanks were to God because he knew it was God alone who produced this result.

"Joy" – 2:19,20. This was the joy that our God, 10 night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and fill up that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. 12 And may the Lord cause you to increase and abound in love toward each other, and toward all men, just as we do toward you, 13 to the end that he may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness in the presence of our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

4 Finally then we urge you, brethren, and encourage you in the Lord Jesus, that as you have learned from us how you ought to behave and please God, so you would excel in this more and more. 2 For you know what instructions we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

came because they had proved themselves to be genuine believers and strong in Christ. It was a joy like the joy of a father who sees his children turning out well – but it was doubtless greater than that kind of joy because it was a spiritual joy in God's fellowship.

3:10 "Praying" – 1:2,3.

"Lacking in your faith" – they had believed in Christ and stood firm in faith in the face of persecution. But Paul does not pretend that their faith was fully mature and perfect. They needed to grow in faith – compare Luke 17:5; 2 Cor 10:15; 2 Thess 1:3. For this they needed more teaching of God's Word – Rom 10:17; Eph 4:12-15. Paul longed to visit them and give them this teaching.

3:11 "Direct our way to you" – compare 2:18.

3:12 "Abound in love" – 4:9,10; 2 Thess 1:3; John 13:34; Rom 12:9,10; 1 Cor 13:1,13; 1 John 2:5,10; 3:11,14,16-18.

3:13 "Establish your hearts" – inner spiritual strength is the great need of believers, and Paul prayed in the will of God that they might have it. See Eph 3:16.

"Unblamable in holiness" – 5:23; 1 Cor 1:8; Eph 5:26,27; Phil 2:15; Titus 2:14; 2 Pet 3:14.

"Holy ones" – may mean angels or believers who have died, or both (4:14; Matt 25:31; Jude 14; Rev 19:14).

4:1 "Please God" – Rom 14:18; 2 Cor 5:9; Eph 5:10; Col 1:10. No believer should ever try to live in any other way. Pleasing God is our whole responsibility, and we should ask about everything we do "does this really please God?" Then we can become people according to God's heart, as David was – see the note at 1 Sam 13:14.

4:2 "By the Lord Jesus" – he knew he was an ambassador for Christ (2 Cor 5:20). Christ gave him the gospel he preached and the teachings he passed on to the churches – 2:13; Gal 1:11,12. So he could speak with all the authority of heaven behind him.

3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification, that you should abstain from sexual immorality, 4 that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in holiness and honour, 5 not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God, 6 that no man transgress and take advantage of his brother in this matter; because the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also warned you before and solemnly affirmed. 7 For God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness. 8 So he who rejects this teaching is rejecting not man but God, who has given to us his Holy Spirit.

9 But concerning brotherly love you have no need of my writing to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. 10 And indeed you do so toward all the brethren who are in all of Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, to excel in this more and more, 11 and to aim to live a quiet

4:3 "Your sanctification" – 3:13; 5:23; John 17:17-19; Rom 6:19; 2 Cor 7:1; Heb 12:14; 1 Pet 1:15,16.

"Immorality" – 1 Cor 6:18-20; Gal 5:19; Eph 5:3; Col 3:5.

4:4,5 "His vessel" – the body is the vessel of the spirit of a person and he must learn to control this vessel and not let it control him.

"In honour" – immorality brings dishonor and shame.

"Lust like the Gentiles who do not know God" – see Eph 4:17-20.

4:6 Adultery is a wrong done not only to those who engage in it but to their spouses.

"The Lord is the avenger" – Rom 12:19. He will bring punishment in due time – Eph 5:5,6; Col 3:6; Heb 13:4, and believers will not need to seek revenge, and, indeed, they must not.

4:7 "Called. . . to holiness" – Rom 1:7; 1 Cor 1:2; Titus 2:14; Heb 3:1; 12:14; 1 Pet 1:15.

4:8 "Rejecting not man but God" – Paul's teaching was "by the Lord Jesus" (v 2), so to reject his teaching was the same as rejecting God who sent him.

"Holy Spirit" – 1 Cor 6:19; Gal 4:6; Eph 1:13; John 14:16,17.

4:9 "Brotherly love" is the love believers have for one another. They are all spiritual brothers (and sisters) belonging to one heavenly Father, and should behave in accordance with this truth – John 13:34; etc.

"Taught by God" – compare Isa 54:13; John 6:45; 1 John 2:27. See Ps 25:4,5.

4:10 "Macedonia" – Acts 16:9. Thessalonica was located in that province.

"More and more" – 3:12; 4:1. The Christian life should be a constant growth until Eph 4:12-15 becomes a reality.

4:11 "Aim" – people have many ambitions, sometimes very selfish ones (Gal 5:20; Phil 1:17; Jam 3:14). Paul shows us a good one to have. God has placed each of us where He wants us to be and has given each a work to do. Let us get on with this work, and not meddle in other people's business.

life, to mind your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we instructed you, 12 so that you may behave honorably toward outsiders, and that you will lack nothing.

13 But I would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you do not grieve like others who have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, just so God will bring with him those who sleep in Jesus. 15 For this we tell you by the word of the Lord: that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will not precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

17 Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be forever with the Lord. 18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5 But about the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I write to you. 2 For you yourselves know perfectly well

"Work. . . hands" - some people then (as now) thought that manual labor was demeaning and beneath them. The great apostle did not think so (2:9; Acts 18:3; 20:34,35), and he did not want any believer to think so.

4:12 "Lack nothing" - laziness and meddling in other people's business will not produce so good a result - Prov 24:29-34.

4:13-18 Other prophecies of Christ's second coming are at Matt 24:27-31,36; John 14:3; Acts 1:11; 1 Cor 15:23 (51-54); 2 Thess 1:7; 2:1,8; Heb 9:28; 1 John 2:28; Rev 1:7; 19:11-16; 22:12.

4:13 "Fallen asleep" - an expression sometimes used in the Bible to indicate death. See John 11:11,14; Acts 7:60. "Sleep" suggests that a time will come to wake from sleep - the resurrection. In this "sleep" it is only the body which sleeps, not the soul or spirit. See Rev 6:9-11.

"Do not grieve" - believers can know that death is not the end, that there will be resurrection and reunion with those who have gone on before them.

"No hope" - people without Christ have no valid hope for the future (Eph 2:12).

4:14 "Died and rose again" - Matt 27:50; 28:6; Acts 1:3; Rom 1:4; 1 Cor 15:3-8.

"Just so" - if we really believe one thing God has revealed, we should also be able to believe the other things He has revealed.

"Asleep in him" - when He comes the Lord Jesus will bring with Him the spirits of believers who have died.

4:15 "The word of the Lord" - it is probable that the Lord Jesus revealed the following truth - the truth that the dead in Christ would rise first - directly to Paul as He did other truths (Gal 1:11,12). But it is possible that Jesus revealed it to His apostles while He was still on earth - though it is not recorded in any of the Gospels.

"We who are alive" - some will be living when Christ returns. By using the word "we" Paul did not necessarily mean that he believed he would be one of them. He is speaking more generally - at the time of the second coming some believers would be dead, some alive. Paul did not know the time of Christ's return any more than we do - 5:1,2; Matt 24:36 - and so could not assume that he would be alive. Later on he came to know that he would not be (2 Tim 4:6,7). Here he gives no hint whether the coming of Jesus for His people will be before the great tribulation (Matt 24:21) or after it.

"Not precede" - those who are still alive will not be changed and caught up into the air before those who have died.

4:16 "From heaven" - Acts 1:11; 3:21; Rev 19:11.

"Shout" - the Greek word means "a call" or "a summons" or "a shout of command." Jesus will call His believers from their graves, or from wherever they may be - see John 5:28. Compare John 11:43,44.

"Archangel"-Michael (Jude 9; Dan 10:13). Not Michael alone but many angels will come with Christ - Matt 16:27; 25:31.

"Trumpet"-see 1 Cor 15:52; Matt 24:31.

"Dead in Christ" - Paul says nothing about unbelievers rising at this time. Compare Rev 20:4-6; Phil 3:11.

4:17 "Caught up together" - in 1 Cor 15:52,53 Paul tells us what will happen at that moment. See also Phil 3:20,21; 1 John 3:2. This event is often called the Rapture (this word is from a Latin word meaning "to transport" or "carry away").

"The clouds" - Dan 7:13; Matt 24:30; 26:64; Rev 1:7.

"Meet the Lord in the air" - compare Matt 24:31. Here Paul does not say what will happen after this - whether He immediately returns to earth with His people or not.

"Forever with the Lord" - this is the glorious goal to which every believer moves (5:10; John 14:3; Col 3:4; Rev 21:3; etc).

4:18 "Comfort" - or "encourage" - the Greek word means both. The truth expressed in these verses is an encouragement and comfort to God's people in every grief that can come to them on earth, in every kind of disappointment, trial, difficulty, persecution, and suffering.

5:1 "Times and seasons" - Matt 24:36; Acts 1:6,7.

5:2 "The Day of the Lord" - Acts 2:20; 1 Cor 5:5; 2 Thess 2:2; 2 Pet 3:10. The phrase is taken from the Old Testament. See Isa 13:6,9 (2:12-18); Joel 1:15; 2:31. It is distinguished in the Bible from the great tribulation which comes before it. See notes on Matt 24:29 and Rev 6:12-17, and that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

3 For when they say, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. 4 But you, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you like a thief. 5 You are all children of light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. 6 So let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober. 7 For those who sleep, sleep at night; and those who get drunk, get drunk at night. 8 But let us who belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep, we should live together with him.

11 Therefore encourage each other, and edify one another, just as you are doing. 12 And we urge you, brethren, to pay attention to those who labour among you, and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, 13 and to regard them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, to warn those who are unruly, to comfort the fainthearted, help the weak, and be patient with everyone. 15 See that no one pays back to anyone wrong for wrong, but always follow what is good, both for yourselves, and for everyone.

compare these two Scriptures. In 4:13-18 Paul wrote of the resurrection and catching up of believers (the Rapture). Here he indicates that while writing to them of that event he was speaking of the "Day of the Lord." It seems then he was teaching that the return of Christ for believers occurs at the beginning of the period of time called the Day of the Lord.

"Thief in the night" - Matt 24:43,44; Luke 12:39,40; Rev 3:3; 16:15.

5:3 "Peace" - compare Jer 6:14; Ezek 13:10.

"Sudden" - compare Prov 6:15; 29:1; Isa 29:5,6.

"Destruction" - Phil 3:19; 2 Pet 3:7. 2 Thess 1:8,9 reveals what this destruction will mean - eternal banishment from the Lord's presence. "Labour pains" strike suddenly. So will the destruction that comes on the Day of the Lord.

5:4 In this verse Paul seems to be teaching that Christian believers will be on earth up to the very time that the "day of the Lord" begins. If he did not believe that some of them would be here why would he speak of their not being surprised by its coming? And if he believed that none of them would be here at that time here was a good opportunity to say so, instead of urging them to "watch" (v 6).

"Not in darkness" - Acts 26:18; 2 Cor 4:6; Col 1:13.

"Overtake you" - those who are on the lookout for a thief will not be surprised when he comes. Believers are in the light and are waiting for the revelation of God's Son from heaven - Titus 2:13. If so, they cannot be surprised when it occurs. They should not attempt to set dates, but the Bible gives some signs of the coming end of this age so that believers can see its approach (Heb 10:25; 2 Thess 2:3,4; Acts 2:20; Matt 24:29,33).

5:5 "Children of light" - Eph 5:8; John 12:36; Matt 5:14.

5:6 "Let us not sleep" - sleeping people do not know what is going on or what is going to happen.

"Watch" - Matt 24:42,43; 25:13.

"Be sober" - the Greek word may also mean "self-controlled" - compare Acts 24:25; Gal 5:23; 1 Pet 4:7; 5:8; 2 Pet 1:6.

5:7 Rom 13:13,14; 2 Pet 2:13.

5:8 "Who belong to the day" - v 5. Believers belong to the new day that will dawn when Christ comes - 2 Pet 1:19; Rev 22:16. They already walk in the light of that day.

"Breastplate" - compare Eph 6:14 where the "breastplate" is righteousness. All Christian qualities are intimately connected. All are "put on" by putting on "Christ." See Rom 13:14. Notes at Eph 4:24; 6:13.

"Helmet" - see Eph 6:17.

5:9 "Wrath" - note at 1:10. "Wrath" is put in contrast with "salvation" (not with some supposed escape from the great tribulation). The one means God's anger on sin and sinners, the other means deliverance from sin and therefore deliverance from God's wrath that comes on sin.

5:10 "Died for us" - John 10:15; Rom 5:8; 1 Pet 3:18. Here "awake or asleep" means alive or dead (3:13).

"Live together with Him" - living believers share Christ's life and fellowship even now (Rom 6:5-8; 1 John 1:3). Believers who have gone to heaven do so face to face with Him - 2 Cor 5:8; Phil 1:23.

5:11 "Encourage" - 4:18. This is a duty and privilege of every believer.

"Edify one another" - Rom 14:19; 15:2; 1 Cor 14:3-5,12,17,26; Eph 4:29.

5:12,13 "Over you" - 1 Tim 5:17; Heb 13:17; 1 Pet 5:1-3.

"In the Lord" - the authority of church elders comes from the Lord, and must be used in the Lord.

"Be at peace" - Mark 9:50; Rom 12:16; 2 Cor 13:11; Eph 4:3; Phil 2:2; Heb 12:14.

5:14 "Fainthearted", "weak" - local churches will have all sorts of believers. None should be belittled or neglected.

"Weak" - Rom 14:1.

5:15 "Wrong for wrong" - Rom 12:17-21.

16 Rejoice always. 17 Pray without ceasing. 18 In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

19 Do not quench the Spirit. 20 Do not despise prophecies. 21 Test everything, hold firmly what is good. 22 Keep away from every form of evil.

23 And may the very God of peace sanctify you completely. And I pray God that your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 He who calls you is faithful, and he will also do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us. 26 Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss. 27 I charge you by the Lord to have this letter read to all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

5:16 "Rejoice" - Phil 3:1; 4:4; Rom 12:12; Hab 3:17,18.

5:17 Paul did more than instruct others to do this. He did it himself - 1:3; 2:13; Rom 1:9,10; Eph 6:18; Col 1:3; 2 Tim 1:3. He knew the power and privilege of prayer, and always kept his heart in tune with the Lord regardless of what work he may have been doing. When one is occupied with other activities it will not always be possible to formulate a prayer or speak one audibly. But prayer is lifting the heart to God even if no words are spoken with the lips. Notes and references to prayer at Gen 18:32; Matt 6:5-13; 7:7-12; Mark 11:24; Luke 11:1-13; 18:1-8; Rom 8:26,27; Eph 1:17; 6:18; Phil 4:6,7; Col 1:9; Heb 11:6; Jam 1:5-8; 5:16-18; 1 John 5:14,15; Ps 66:18.

5:18 Heb 13:15; Col 3:17; Phil 4:6; Eph 5:20; Ps 50:14; 113:1; Lev 7:12,13. "In everything" means all things without exception, whether the circumstances are pleasant or unpleasant, safe or dangerous, smooth or rough. There are always things to thank God for in every circumstance of life and we should all learn the practice of thanksgiving.

"This is the will of God" - we may not know God's will about some things, but we know it in this matter of thanksgiving.

5:19 "Do not quench the Spirit" - God's Spirit gives warmth, light and burning zeal to the hearts of believers. But it is possible to quench His fire in us by sin, neglect, prayerlessness and ingratitude. Compare Eph 4:30.

5:20 "Prophecies" - he means prophecies uttered by those in the church who then had this spiritual ability. See Rom 12:6; 1 Cor 12:10,28; 14:3.

5:21 "Test" - 1 Cor 14:29; 1 John 4:1. Not every prophet or prophecy is from the Lord - Matt 7:15; 2 Pet 2:2; Jer 14:14. Every word men speak must be tested in the light of the Word of God.

5:22 Some people are good at avoiding evil things they do not want to do, but fall into those evils which are pleasing to them. Believers have no business doing any kind of evil.

5:23 "God of peace" - Rom 15:33; 16:20; 1 Cor 14:33; Phil 4:9; 2 Thess 3:16; Heb 13:20.

"Sanctify" - note at John 17:17-19.

"Completely" - of course Paul would not pray for their partial sanctification, nor should we desire such a thing for ourselves or for any believer. To be only partly holy is to be partly unholy. Compare Matt 5:48; 1 Cor 1:2; 2 Cor 7:1.

"Blameless" - references at 3:13.

5:24 "Faithful" - Deut 7:9; 32:4; 1 Cor 10:13; 2 Thess 3:3; 2 Tim 2:13; Titus 1:2; 1 John 1:9.

"He will also do it" - see 1 Cor 1:8,9; Phil 1:6. This word, this promise, is spoken to all the believers in Thessalonica (and to all now), not just to the exceptionally holy and mature.

5:25 Rom 15:30; Eph 6:19.

5:26 "Kiss" - Rom 16:16.

5:27 All the family of God still need the truth revealed in this letter, and the instructions of the apostle.

5:28 Rom 1:7; 16:20.

The Second Letter of the Apostle Paul to the THESSALONIANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime between 50 and 54 AD.

Themes:

The principal theme in this letter, as in the first letter Paul wrote to them, is the second coming of Christ. Some religious teachers had visited Thessalonica at a time when believers there were undergoing persecution, and troubled them by insisting that the Day of the Lord had already come (2:1-2). The Day of the Lord is the future time connected with the second coming of the Lord Jesus, and, among other things, involves God's anger and punishment on the disobedient and unbelieving. Opposing the false views of those religious teachers, Paul informed them that the Day of the Lord would not come until the wicked person he calls the "man of sin" (or "lawless one") appeared. This is the antichrist who will come at the end of this age (1 John 2:18; Revelation chapter 13; Matt 24:15-24). Paul encouraged the believers in Thessalonica to be free from fear and to hold fast to the truth about Christ which he had taught them. He concludes the letter with a long warning about idleness and laziness.

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you for each other abounds, 4 so that we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God, for your patient endurance and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you bear.

1:1 1 Thess 1:1. "Silvanus" – the same person as Silas.

1:2 Rom 1:7.

1:3 Rom 1:8; etc. "Your faith grows", "love . . . abounds" – see 1 Thess 3:10,12; 4:10. Paul's hopes for them were being fulfilled, his prayers answered.

1:4 "Boast" – 2 Cor 7:14. This was not flattery – 1 Thess 2:5. He was happy with the condition of the church there and was also happy to tell them and others so.

"Persecutions and tribulations" – 1 Thess 1:6; 2:14; 3:3.

1:5 "Evidence" – faithfully enduring trials and persecutions that come to us because we believe in Christ is evidence that our faith is genuine and living. It is evidence also of "the righteous judgment of God." The meaning of this here is not very clear but it probably means that God's decision to choose them and work among them was vindicated by their perseverance in the faith. Compare Phil 1:27,28.

"Counted worthy" – compare Luke 20:35; Rev 3:4. No one is worthy of salvation, of being taken into God's kingdom – Rom 3:9,19,23; Col 1:13,14. But believers can prove by their conduct and by continuing on in the faith that God has changed them and enabled them to live in a way that is worthy of His kingdom.

"Kingdom of God" – note at Matt 4:17.

"Suffer" – Rom 8:17; Matt 5:10. This was evidence of their worthiness. Those who refuse to suffer for the sake of God's kingdom are not worthy of that kingdom.

1:6 "A righteous thing. . . to repay" – a truth seen everywhere in the Bible (Deut 32:4; Ps 9:16; 11:7; 89:14; 111:7; Prov 29:26; Isa 30:18; Dan 4:37; Rom 3:26; Rev 15:3; 16:5-7). God shows His justice both by punishing the wicked if they refuse to repent, and by giving eternal relief to those who suffer for His kingdom (v 7). Compare Rom 2:6-11.

"Repay" – Num 31:1-3; Deut 32:35,41; Rom 12:19; Heb 10:30.

1:7 "When the Lord Jesus will be revealed" – God may sometimes take vengeance on people and rescue believers here and now, but for the most part these matters await the end of this age when Christ comes. Then all things will be made right, and absolute justice will prevail and all men will see that it is prevailing.

5 This is clear evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer, 6 seeing it is a righteous thing for God to repay tribulation to those who trouble you, 7 and give rest to you who are being troubled, along with us, when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, 8 in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God and who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 They will be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory

"Revealed" – observe that Paul says relief will come to God's people in His Church at the revelation of Christ when He comes to punish the wicked, not at some time before that. Compare Matt 24:29,30; 1 Cor 1:7; Titus 2:13.

"Angels" – Matt 24:31; Jude 14.

1:8 "Fire" – Heb 10:27; 12:29; 2 Pet 3:7; Rev 19:11-16; Isa 66:15; 30:27; 24:6.

"Taking vengeance" – God does not take delight in punishing anyone. See Ezek 18:23,30-32; Joel 2:13; 2 Pet 3:9. But when people refuse to repent and continue to sin, God in justice must and will punish them. Compare Ex 34:6,7; Nahum 1:3. If God left the guilty unpunished He would not be just, and the universe would be a chaos without moral order.

"Those who do not know God" – people in general do not know the one true God because they do not want to know Him, and they refuse any offer to know Him. They prefer their sin to God's fellowship. Compare John 3:19,20; Rom 1:18-25; Eph 4:17-19.

"Do not obey the gospel" – evidently this refers to those who have heard the gospel and refused it. They want what they mistakenly regard as their freedom rather than obedience to Christ. Observe here that the gospel of Christ is something to obey, and not merely something to believe. Compare Matt 7:21,24; Acts 5:32; Rom 6:17; Heb 5:9; 1 Pet 1:22; 4:17. In fact, truly believing the gospel results in obedience to it. Believing and obedience are joined together and cannot be separated. Compare Jam 2:14-26. Faith is not a passive thing. See notes at Acts 22:10; Heb 11:4.

1:9 "Everlasting destruction" – 2:3; Matt 7:13; Rom 9:22; Gal 6:8; Phil 3:19; 1 Thess 5:3; 1 Tim 6:9; 2 Pet 3:7,12,16; Rev 17:8,11. Destruction means utter ruin, the second death (Rev 21:8). The Bible does not say that such people cease to exist. Compare Matt 25:46; Luke 16:26.

"From the presence of the Lord" – compare Matt 7:23; 25:41; Rev 22:15,16. This is what their destruction will mean. They will be cut off forever from God who is the only source of blessing, joy and peace. This is what they chose during their lives (v 8), and this is what they will get. And it is perfect justice that they should receive this punishment.

of his power, 10 when he comes to be glorified in his saints and admired among all believers (because our testimony among you was believed), in that day.

11 Therefore we always pray also for you that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power, 12 that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you

1:10 "Glorified" – John 17:10; Eph 1:12,14.

"Saints" – all true believers in Christ (Rom 1:7; 1 Pet 2:9).

"Admired" – what admiration will seize us when we finally see Him as He is!

"Among all believers" – Christ is glorified in those who believe in Him, and only they will share His glory. All others continually dishonor Him by their unbelief and behavior.

"Our testimony among you was believed" – 1 Thess 1:7-10.

"In that day" – compare 1 Thess 5:2; Isa 2:12.

1:11 "We always pray" – Rom 1:8,9; Eph 1:16; 3:16; Phil 1:4,9; Col 1:3,9,21; 1 Thess 1:2; 3:10.

"Worthy" – v 5; Eph 4:1; Phil 1:27; Col 1:10; 1 Thess 2:12.

"This calling" – see Eph 4:1; Rom 1:6; 8:30.

"And fulfil. . .with power" – compare Ps 90:17; Isa 26:12. It is because of His working in us that we are able to accomplish any work of faith – Phil 2:13; Eph 2:10.

1:12 "Name" – Christians bear Christ's name before the world (1 Peter 5:16).

"Glorified in you" – this will happen when Jesus comes (v 10); it should happen now also – 1 Cor 6:20; 10:31; Col 3:17; 1 Pet 4:11.

"You in Him" – those in whom the Lord Jesus is glorified He will glorify in Himself. Compare John 17:10,22; Rom 8:30.

"Grace" – everything connected with the salvation of believers and their blessing is all of grace (Rom 6:23; Eph 2:8,9). The last phrase of this verse may also be translated "our God and Lord, Jesus Christ." There is no word for "the" in the Greek here.

2:1 "The coming of our Lord" – 1:7; Acts 1:11.

"Our gathering together to him" – compare 1 Thess 4:17; John 14:3; Matt 24:31. This event is sometimes called "the Rapture" (from a Latin word meaning to transport or carry away).

2:2 "By a letter seemingly from us" – we do not know who was trying to alarm these believers, but he probably means false teachers who (he thought) would not have hesitated to forge a letter and tell them Paul wrote it, or use some other trick to upset them. We know the character of such teachers from Paul's description of them in other letters – Rom 16:17,18; 2 Cor 11:13-15; etc. We have no reason to expect that the enemies of the truth will be ethical in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to him, we plead with you, brethren, 2 not to be hastily shaken in mind, or alarmed, either by a spirit or by a message or by a letter seemingly from us, that the day of Christ is at hand. 3 Let no one deceive you when they fight it.

"Day of Christ" – Phil 1:10; 2:16. This means the day of Christ's coming. In 1 Cor 1:8 it is called "the Day of our Lord Jesus Christ." That day will take place sometime toward the beginning of "the Day of the Lord" (1 Thess 5:2). Some commentators say that some years before that the Rapture (1 Thess 4:16,17) will take place, but Paul himself never says so. Paul did not want the believers in Thessalonica to think that the Day of Christ had already come – that he was mistaken in his teaching about the coming of Christ. If they thought he was wrong about this, they might think he was mistaken about the gospel and all other teaching he gave them. And this would have produced disastrous results.

2:3 "Let no one deceive you" – there will always be deceivers who want to turn believers away from one Biblical truth or another. Compare Matt 24:4; Rom 16:18; Eph 5:6; Col 2:4. We need to know the Word of God and be always alert.

"Until" – Paul now speaks of an event that must take place before the Day of Christ (or the Day of the Lord) comes. Observe that he does not say that that event is the Rapture of the Church. If he had believed that the Rapture would occur before the beginning of the Day of the Lord this would have been an ideal time for him to say so, but he does not. Instead, he speaks of "the apostasy." The Greek here means "the rebellion" or "the forsaking" or "the apostasy." In general apostasy means departing from one's religion or forsaking the principles of one's religion.

Apostasy from the Biblical point of view is rebelling against God and departing from the truth of Christ. Since the fall of the first man into sin (Genesis chapter 3) mankind in general has always been in rebellion against God, always willing to depart from Him. In this matter God's own people Israel are representative of all peoples. See Deut 9:7,24; Ps 106:43; Isa 1:2; Jer 6:28. All sin is evidence of rebellion (see 1 John 3:4). But Paul wrote to the Thessalonians about a final great rebellion or departure or apostasy that will occur at the end of this age. It will be something extraordinary, something that will have its effect on all of earth's religions and peoples (including apostate Christianity) – v 4; Matt 24:10-25; 2 Tim 3:1-5; Rev 13:4,8,13-15.

"The man of sin" – this revolt will be headed up by a person so sinful that he will by any means. For that day will not come, unless apostasy comes first and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition. 4 He opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped, so that he as if he were God sits in the temple of God, setting himself forth to be God.

5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? 6 And now you be the embodiment of rebellion and evil. This is the coming antichrist – 1 John 2:18.

“Son of perdition” – compare John 17:12. The expression means one tied closely to destruction, one doomed to destruction.

2:4 The “man of sin” will be an exceptional political and military leader, but He will claim to be God and demand worship from everyone on earth – Rev 13:1-8,15. He will have no regard for either the laws of God or the laws of men. In nature and character he will be the exact opposite of the Lord Jesus (Heb 10:7; Ps 40:8). The world does not want Christ, so they will get the antichrist instead. They do not want God’s royal law, so they will get the lawless one.

“Exalts himself” – compare Dan 7:8,11,20,25; Rev 13:5,6.

“The temple of God” – a building dedicated to the worship of the true God. Compare Matt 24:15; Mark 13:14.

“Declaring himself to be God” – this is the ultimate sin. According to the Bible for any man to say he is God is the worst possible blasphemy against God. See notes at John 5:18; 10:31-33; Matt 26:64,65. For the embodiment of rebellion and evil to say it – this is wickedness developed to the utmost. God is the almighty Creator; all men are creatures made by God. God is absolutely holy; all men are sinful. See Gen 8:21; Lev 20:7; Isa 6:3; Rom 3:9-23; 1 Pet 1:15,16.

2:5 “When I was still with you” – Paul was with them for only a comparatively short time (Acts 17:1-10), but he evidently thought this teaching about the coming antichrist important enough to include in the basic instructions he gave them.

2:6,7 Some power or some person will prevent the appearance of antichrist until the time God has chosen for him to appear. Paul told the Thessalonians what this power or person will be, but he did not repeat his words in this letter, so we do not know what he meant. Therefore we should not speak dogmatically about it. There has been much speculation on this matter.

Some believers say Paul meant that the Holy Spirit is the one who holds back the appearance of the antichrist. In their view “taken out of the way” means the Rapture of the Church, and that then the Holy Spirit who is in all believers will depart from earth with them. However this too is speculation. There is no mention here of either the Holy Spirit or the Church or the Rapture. Even if Paul did mean the Holy Spirit, “taken out of the way” would not necessarily refer to the Rapture of the Church.

One difficulty with the view that Paul here know what is restraining that he might be revealed at his proper time. 7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, but he who is now restraining will continue to restrain until he is taken out of the way. 8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the spirit of his mouth and will destroy with the brightness of his coming. 9 This one’s coming will be according to is referring to the departure of the Holy Spirit before the great tribulation or during the tribulation is this: there will be believers of some kind, “saints” on earth throughout the tribulation period (Rev 7:9-17; 13:6; etc). How is it possible that they will be left here without the Holy Spirit as believers now have Him, just when they will need Him most?

Also there is the uncertainty of the meaning of the phrase “taken out of the way.” This is not a literal translation of the Greek. Literally it is “until he becomes out of the midst.” It could mean until he moves aside. Certainly, being taken upwards is not indicated by anything in this phrase. And there is no suggestion that anything or anyone is included with him in this going out of the midst. Nor are we informed what “midst” he goes out of. To take such a doubtful phrase and assert dogmatically that it means the Rapture of the Church is surely not wise commentary.

Others have suggested that in verse 7 Paul was referring to some particular angel. Certainly angels will be very active in events at the end of this age – Rev 7:1; 9:14,15; etc (the word “angel” – singular or plural – occurs about 80 times in the book of The Revelation). And it is possible that God has appointed one to restrain the appearance of antichrist until the right time. This explanation seems as good as any other to the author of these notes. But it must be repeated: Paul did not tell us what he meant and so we do not really know.

“Mystery of lawlessness” – on “mystery” see Matt 13:11; Rom 11:25; 16:25; 1 Cor 15:51; etc. We could not know about the final development of lawlessness and sin in the world if God did not reveal it to us. Lawlessness was already at work in Paul’s day. It is still working and will work until the man of sin appears. Then lawlessness will come to its full development, law will be abandoned, and the will of one wicked person will prevail throughout the earth.

2:8 Powerful as the lawless one will be, he will not be able to stand against Christ. See Rev 19:19,20.

“The breath of His mouth” – Isa 11:4. The Greek word translated “breath” also means “spirit.” Here it may signify His all-powerful word (compare Heb 1:3; 4:12). Christ has but to speak and His purpose is certain to be fulfilled (compare Gen 1:3; etc; Isa 55:11).

“Brightness of his coming” – Matt 24:30; 25:31; Titus 2:13; Rev 19:11,12.

2:9 The coming of Christ was in accordance with the work of God. The coming of antichrist the working of Satan, with all power and miraculous signs and deceiving wonders, 10 and with all the deception of unrighteousness among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, so that they will believe the lie, 12 that they all might be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But always we are bound to give thanks to God for you, brethren loved by the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth. 14 To this he called you by our gospel, to obtain a share in the glory of our Lord Jesus will be in accordance with the work of Satan (Rev 13:2). We can judge the true condition of the world by the fact that to mankind in general the antichrist will be more popular than Christ has ever been - Rev 13:3,4,8. Compare John 1:10,11; 5:43.

"Power. . .wonders" - see Matt 24:24; Rev 13:13,15. These miracles will probably be very similar to those Christ did (see Acts 2:22 where the same words are used). But the wonders will be "deceiving." The Greek word can mean "unreal", "counterfeit", but here probably means "deceiving." In other words, they will be real miracles which will cause those who see them to believe lies.

2:10 "All the deception of unrighteousness" - evil deceives people (compare Heb 3:13). It is one of the three deceitful powers in the world (for the other two see Jer 17:9 and Rev 12:9). At the end of this age all three will reach horrible development.

"Perishing" - 1 Cor 1:18; 2 Cor 2:15; 4:3; John 3:16. The perishing are those who love sin rather than the truth of God. They do not want the truth and willfully reject it because they want to do what pleases their sinful nature. Compare John 3:19,20; Rom 1:18. Observe carefully the connection Paul makes between love of the truth and salvation. We cannot have the one without the other.

2:11 "The lie" - the lie of the antichrist that he himself is God (v 4). God will see to it that they will be deceived enough to believe this lie (compare Rom 1:28; 11:8; Isa 29:10; 6:10; 1 Kings 22:19-23). This will be a punishment for their rejecting the truth, and it will be a perfectly just punishment. It will be God giving to sinful men exactly what they deserve. See Ps 18:25,26 and note.

2:12 Refusing the truth is the most dangerous thing anyone can possibly do. It will result not only in believing that which is false, but in eternal condemnation.

"Condemned" - compare Matt 23:33; Mark 16:16; John 3:18; 5:29; Gal 1:8.

"Unrighteousness" - notice carefully that delighting in wickedness and believing the truth are complete opposites. If we do one we cannot do the other.

2:13 "Brethren dearly loved by the Lord" -

Christ. 15 Therefore, brethren, stand firm, and hold the traditions you were taught, whether by word of mouth or our letter.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and our God and Father, who has loved us, and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through grace, 17 encourage your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.

3 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, just as it is with you, 2 and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; for not everyone has faith. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and keep you

Col 3:12; 1 Thess 1:4; 1 John 3:1.

"God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation" - Eph 1:4.

"Sanctification of the Spirit" - 1 Pet 1:2. This means God's Spirit sets apart those whom God has chosen and begins to work in them to make them holy. This is true of every believer, not merely of a special few.

"Through. . .belief of the truth" - this is the method God uses to save people. See again the emphasis on truth. The truth Paul refers to here is the gospel of Christ, as he makes clear in the next verse.

2:14 "Called" - See Rom 1:6; 8:28,30.

"Our gospel" - the gospel they preached, the gospel Christ entrusted to them (Gal 1:11,12; 1 Cor 15:1-8).

"Share in the glory" - 1 Thess 2:12; Rom 5:2; 8:17; John 17:22. This will be the difference between those who believe the truth and those who do not - one group inherits eternal glory, the other suffers eternal condemnation (v 12). Compare Rom 9:22-24.

2:15 "Therefore" - in the light of the truth he has given he urges them (and us) to hold firmly to that truth. Compare Rom 12:1; Eph 4:1; Col 3:1.

"Stand firm" - 1 Cor 15:58; Eph 6:11,13,14.

2:16 Observe the distinction Paul makes between the Lord Jesus and the Father. See also Matt 3:16,17; 28:19; John 17:1; 2 John 3.

"Loved us" - v 13; Jer 31:3.

"Hope" - 1 Pet 1:3; Rom 5:2; 8:24,25.

2:17 "Comfort" or "encourage" - 2 Cor 1:3,4. Men may encourage each other but the best kind of encouragement comes from God Himself.

3:1 "Pray for us" - Rom 15:30-32; Eph 6:19,20; Col 4:3,4.

"The word. . .glorified" - Paul never asked any of the churches to pray that he might get material things or money for God's work. His mind and heart were on other matters - as ours must be if we would truly serve God.

3:2 At this time Paul was in Corinth and evil men were opposing him - Acts 18:12,13.

3:3 "Faithful" - 1 Cor 1:9; 10:13; 1 Thess from evil. 4 And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command you. 5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from every brother who behaves disorderly and not according to the tradition he received from us. 7 For you know how you ought to follow us. For we did not behave disorderly among you, 8 and we did not eat anyone's bread paying nothing, but worked night and day, labouring and toiling, so that we might not be a burden to any of you, 9 not because we do not have the right to receive from you, but we wanted to make ourselves an example to you to follow us. 10 For even when we were with you, we commanded you that if anyone would not work he should not eat.

11 For we hear that there are some who behave disorderly among you, not working at all, but are busybodies. 12 Now such people we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly, and eat their own bread. 13 But you, brethren, do not be weary in doing well.

14 And if anyone does not obey our word in this letter, note that man and do not associate with him, so that he may be ashamed. 15 But do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of Paul with my own hand. This is the sign in every letter. This is how I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

5:24; 2 Tim 2:13; Heb 3:6; 1 Pet 4:19; 1 John 1:9; Rev 19:11.

"From evil" - Matt 6:13; John 17:11,15.
3:4 "Confidence in the Lord" - 2 Cor 2:3; 7:4; Gal 5:10; Heb 6:9.

"We command you" - as an ambassador for Christ (2 Cor 5:20), as one to whom God had given a special revelation of the truth (Gal 1:11,12; Eph 3:2,3) Paul could speak with complete authority in the name of Christ (v 6). What he wrote to the churches was like commands coming from Christ.

3:5 "Love" - Eph 3:17-19; Rom 5:5.

"Patient endurance of Christ" - when Christ was on earth He patiently persevered in doing God's will in the face of all the opposition of men and Satan. He wants all believers to have this same quality, and He Himself works it in our hearts. Compare Heb 12:1-3.

3:6 "In the name of our Lord" - by the authority of the Lord (v 4). Believers should take the following command as the command of Christ.

"Keep away" - this may not mean a complete break, but it certainly means to withdraw from any close fellowship, and may mean even more than that. If any brother (or sister) does not live according to Paul's teachings we should not behave toward them as if it does not matter. Instead we should make it clear that neither God nor we are pleased with him. Compare vs 14,15.
3:7,8 "You ought to follow us" - Acts 18:3;

20:34,35.

3:9 "Right" - 1 Cor 9:12-15.

"An example" - Paul was a model for us all not only in the matter of working, but in how to live the Christian life (1 Cor 11:1; Phil 3:17).

3:10 "Would not work" - he is not referring to people who want to work but can find none, but to those who refuse to work even when they have opportunity.

3:11 "Busybodies" - 1 Tim 5:13. Idleness often leads to meddling in other people's affairs. And so sin is added to sin, and the result can be trouble to the whole church.

3:13 Gal 6:9; 1 Cor 15:58.

3:14,15 See notes at v 6. Paul is urging them to discipline those who are disobedient Christians. Discipline may make them ashamed of their conduct and cause them to start living as God wants them to live.

3:16 "Lord of peace" - compare Rom 15:33; 16:20; 2 Cor 13:11; Phil 4:9; 1 Thess 5:23; Heb 13:20.

"Peace" - in Phil 4:6,7 he shows the way to this peace Christ gives.

3:17 Paul dictated some (and perhaps all) of his letters and others wrote them down. Compare Rom 16:22. He was aware of the possibility of false teachers writing to the churches using his name - 2:2. So in all his genuine letters he wrote something at the end with his own hand - see 1 Cor 16:21; Gal 6:11; Col 4:18.
3:18 Rom 1:7; 16:20.

The First Letter of the Apostle Paul to TIMOTHY

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime about 64 AD.

Themes:

When Paul wrote this letter the number of Christian churches had much increased, and questions about the proper behavior of believers, order, discipline and leadership in the churches, and related matters had increased with them. Paul wrote two letters to Timothy and one to Titus about all this. He was Christ's apostle, and wrote with Christ's authority and with the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, so the instructions and teachings he gave them are the truth of God and apply to all churches in all times. We might call 3:15 a key verse of this letter – "that you may know how you ought to behave in the church of God." Again and again in his letters to Timothy Paul emphasizes the necessity of sound doctrine and correct instruction as an antidote to the false and deadly teaching that would attack the churches.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the command of God our Saviour, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who is our hope,

2 To Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I urged you when I went to Macedonia, remain in Ephesus so you can command some not to teach any other doctrine, 4 or pay attention to empty stories and endless genealogies, which cause debates instead of godly edification, which comes by faith. 5 Now the purpose of this command is love from a pure heart and from a good conscience and from sincere faith. 6 From these some have

1:1 "Apostle" - Rom 1:1; Gal 1:1.

"Saviour" - here Paul says God is "our Saviour." In Titus 2:13 (and other places) he says Jesus Christ is "our Saviour." Is this not evidence once again that Jesus Christ is God? See Isaiah 43:11. See other references showing that Jesus is God at Phil 2:6.

"Hope" - Christ is the one and only basis of the believer's assurance of final salvation (Col 1:27; Rom 5:2).

1:2 "Timothy" - Acts 16:1.

"Son" - spiritual son, not literal.

"Mercy" - Paul usually writes "grace and peace" (Rom 1:7; etc). Only in the two letters to Timothy and the one to Titus does he add the word "mercy." Timothy and Titus worked full time in the service of Christ. Do such people need mercy more than other Christians? See Jam 3:1.

"Our Lord" - notes at Luke 2:11; Phil 2:10,11.

1:3 It would appear from this that Timothy was a leader in the church at Ephesus and probably the principal leader (about matters concerning the church there Paul writes only to him). He had authority to forbid false teaching in the Church. "Any other doctrine" means teachings contrary to the truth Christ revealed to His apostles. By the authority God gave them the apostles taught this truth, and it was very important for all Christians to believe it (compare 4:16; Gal 1:6-12; Rom 6:17; Jude 3).

God has appointed pastors and elders to be overseers of the church (Acts 20:28-31). They must not permit teachings contrary to God's revealed truth to be taught to Christians in their care. If they do permit them, they are being traitors to the faith and a cause of great harm to the churches. Today's Christians, like the Christians in the first century, are to be devoted to the apostles' teaching (Acts 2:42). In the three letters written to Titus and Timothy there is much emphasis on sound doctrines and teaching - see v 10; 4:6,13,16; 5:17; 6:1,3; 2 Tim 3:10,16; 4:2,3; Titus 1:9; 2:1,7,10.

1:4 "Empty stories. . . genealogies" - Paul is referring to empty legends and genealogies (probably Jewish) not found in veered off and turned aside to useless talk. 7 They desire to be teachers of the Law but do not understand either what they say, or what they affirm.

8 But we know that the Law is good, if a man uses it lawfully, 9 knowing that the Law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for killers, 10 for sexually immoral men, for those who practice sodomy, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine 11 that is according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was entrusted to me.

the Bible. Compare Titus 1:14. Such teachings do not contribute in any way to God's work on earth. God's work can be fulfilled only by those who believe His word the Bible and preach and teach His Word.

1:5 "Love" - Paul used the Greek word which means the love that God shows to men and gives to His people ("agape" - 1 Cor 13:1). The goal of every believer should be to love others as Christ loved them (John 13:34, etc). This love is not mere human sentiment, has nothing to do with impurity or selfish desire.

"Pure heart" - Matt 5:8; 1 Pet 1:22.

"Good conscience" - v 19; 3:9; Acts 23:1; 24:16. Compare 4:2.

"Sincere faith" - Gal 5:6; 1 Cor 2:4,5.

This is in contrast to pretended faith which hypocrites have. Without the three things Paul lists here love will not be what it should be, will hardly be worthy of the name of love.

1:6 Verse 5 gives the heart of the Christianity God wants people to experience. It is a sad truth that today also many professing Christians turn to "useless talk" and ignore these vital matters.

1:7 "Desire to be teachers" - they want to be honored by men. Compare Matt 23:5-12; Jam 3:1. They are spiritually ignorant but want others to think they are wise. How confidently and boldly some speak about matters they know so little about!

1:8 "The law is good" - Rom 7:12. It was given by a good God for a good purpose. "Law" here means God's law given through Moses (Exodus chapter 20). It is good but it is not a way of salvation, and it does not give power for a holy life. God uses it to shut people's mouths (Rom 3:19,20), and to make them realize their need of Christ as Saviour (Gal 3:24,25). That alone would make it good, even if there were no other reasons, which there are. Christ's servants should learn to use it as God does.

1:9,10 "A righteous man" - Paul means Christians who live in a manner worthy of the Lord. They do not need the law to restrain or punish them. They want (as God wants) the righteousness of the law to be fulfilled in them (Rom 8:4). The case of evil men is quite different.

1:11 Observe what Paul means by sound

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, for he counted me faithful and put me into the ministry, 13 me who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and harmful. But I obtained mercy because I did so in ignorance, in unbelief. 14 And the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant toward me together with faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.

doctrine. True teaching will conform to Christ's gospel; false teaching will be contrary to it.

"Glorious gospel" – compare 2 Cor 4:4. Notes on gospel at Mark 1:1; 1 Cor 15:1-8.

"Blessed God" – 6:15. He has in infinite measure all the blessings of peace, joy, holiness etc, that He wants men to experience in Christ.

"To me" – 1 Cor 9:17; Gal 2:7.

1:12-17 Paul shows how the "glorious gospel" worked in his case and gives thanks and glory to the "blessed God" whose gospel it is. He knew in his own life that the gospel is the power of God for salvation – Rom 1:16. He did not try to preach to others truth he had not experienced himself (as some do).

1:12 "I thank" – Eph 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; Lev 7:12,13.

"Strengthened me" – Col 1:11,29; Phil 4:13; Eph 3:16; 6:10; 2 Cor 12:9,10.

"Faithful" – this means that Christ considered (in his foreknowledge) that Paul would be faithful, and appointed him as an apostle. The Bible puts much emphasis on the need for faithfulness and trustworthiness for those in Christ's service (Matt 24:45; 25:21; Luke 16:10-12; 1 Cor 4:2). All dishonesty and disloyalty are a disgrace to Christ.

1:13 "Blasphemer" – he denied that Christ was the Son of God, the Saviour, and this is blasphemy against God (see note at Matt 9:3).

"Persecutor" – Acts 8:1-3; 9:1,2; 22:4,5; 1 Cor 15:9,10; Gal 1:13; Phil 3:6.

"Injurious" – the Greek word indicates an arrogant, insolent man who harms others by word or deed, or both.

"I obtained mercy" – mercy is what he needed and what all human beings need (Luke 18:13; Rom 3:9,19; Titus 3:3-5), and what God delights to give (Rom 11:32; Eph 2:4; Micah 7:8).

"In ignorance, in unbelief" – see Acts 26:9; 23:1. Paul thought he was doing the right thing in persecuting Christ's people (compare John 16:2). He was not knowingly rejecting the light God gave him or willfully refusing to believe what he thought was true. When men do willfully, knowingly reject Christ and His gospel (and many do) they may put themselves in danger of going beyond mercy (compare Matt 12:22-34; Heb 2:2,3; 6:4-8; 10:26-31; 12:25-29; Prov 1:22-33).

1:14 "Grace" – John 1:14,16; Rom 1:7; 2 Cor 8:9; etc.

"Exceedingly abundant" – Rom 5:20,21.

15 This is a trustworthy saying, and worthy of all acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. 16 However, for this reason I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might display complete patience, as a pattern for those who would afterwards believe on him for everlasting life. 17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise,

Faith and love are in Christ. His grace brings them to men. Only as we are united to Him do we truly believe the gospel and love God. All this is a gift from Christ (Phil 1:29; Eph 2:8; Gal 5:22; Rom 5:5).

1:15 "Trustworthy saying" – 3:1; 4:9; 2 Tim 2:11; Titus 3:8.

"Jesus came. . .to save sinners" – not to destroy them – Matt 1:21; 9:13; Luke 19:10; John 6:51; Rom 5:8. Sinners are what we all are (Rom 3:9,19,23). If Christ had not come into the world there would not have been salvation for anyone, ever (Acts 4:12).

"I am chief" – Eph 3:8. Paul was one of the greatest and holiest men who ever lived. But in this verse he gives his estimate of himself. He does not say "Once I was the chief", but "I am the chief." Paul was not saying that he was rolling in the mire of sin and doing more bad things than anyone else. He is revealing his conviction about the depraved nature he received at birth and the fact that this nature was still in him (Gal 5:16,17; Rom 7:18,25). He knew what this nature had led him to do in the past, and he knew that only abundant grace could save him and keep him saved. What do we think of ourselves? The answer we give to this question is exceedingly important (compare Luke 18:9-14).

1:16 By showing mercy and saving Paul, the chief of sinners, Christ has shown that He can save any sinner. No one should despair thinking he is too bad and beyond the reach of Christ's grace and power.

"Patience in full measure" – 2 Pet 3:9,15. If Christ was not patient with sinful, weak, foolish human beings no one would ever be saved.

"Pattern" – Paul was an example of how God saves men – it is all a matter of grace and mercy towards those who do not deserve them in the least. To be saved we do not need to see a great light as Paul did or have the exact experiences he had, but we all need the same grace and mercy he received.

"Everlasting life" – John 3:15,16. This is received only by believing on Christ (John 1:12,13; 3:36).

1:17 "King" – Ps 10:16; 24:10; 45:1; 47:2; Rev 19:16.

"Immortal" – 6:16; Rom 1:23.

"Invisible" – John 1:18.

"Who alone is wise" – Rom 11:33; 16:27; 1 Cor 1:25; Col 2:2,3; Jude 25.

"Glory" – the true and only God will have all the honor and glory for saving men from be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I set before you, son Timothy, in accordance with previous prophecies concerning you, that by them you might fight a good fight, 19 holding on to faith and a good conscience. Some have cast these away and made shipwreck concerning the faith. 20 Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have given over to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort, therefore, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men, 2 for kings, and for all those their sins, and Paul wanted Him alone to have it. Compare Eph 1:6,12,14; 2:9.

1:18 "Prophecies" - Rom 12:6; 1 Cor 12:28; 14:3. Evidently when God called Timothy into His service He enabled Paul (or some other prophet) to understand God's call and speak of it. Compare Acts 13:1,2.

"Fight a good fight" - 6:12; 2 Tim 4:7; Eph 6:11.

1:19 Verse 5. Observe the connection between faith and a good conscience. That is, between faith and avoidance of sin. The only way to a good conscience is to refuse to do what conscience forbids.

"Made shipwreck concerning the faith" - not "their" faith - the word "their" is not in the Greek here. "The faith" is the body of Christian truth which God revealed and the apostles taught. In any case, true believers do not make shipwreck of their faith - Heb 10:39; Luke 22:31,32; John 10:27. But people who profess to be Christian can make shipwreck concerning the teachings of the faith and fall into grave heresies.

1:20 Paul did not hesitate to name individuals when he thought churches should be warned against them. See also 2 Tim 2:17; 4:14,15.

"I have given over to Satan" - compare 1 Cor 5:4,5. Notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44; etc. Note on blasphemy at Matt 9:3.

2:1 "Requests. . . intercessions" - Eph 6:18; Phil 4:6. References on prayer at 1 Thess 5:17.

"Thanksgiving" - Eph 5:20; Col 1:12; 2:7; 3:16; 4:2; 1 Thess 5:18; Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; etc.

"All men" - our prayers should not be restricted to our own little circle of relatives and friends, but should be as wide as the world.

2:2 Paul says pray for rulers, not criticize them. He indicates here that the prayers of Christian believers can influence the course of events in a country. This is true even when those in authority are not believers and may even be opposed to them (as was true in Paul's day). Perhaps one reason why believers in some countries are not able to live peaceful and quiet lives is that they fail to pray for their rulers as they ought.

in authority, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, 4 who wants all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, 6 who gave himself a ransom for all, testimony about this given in due time.

7 For this I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am speaking the truth in Christ, and am not lying), and a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 So I want men everywhere to pray, lifting up

2:3 Praying for unsaved and saved people pleases God. And what pleases God believers should be eager to do.

2:4 Here is a clear statement of God's attitude to everyone in the world. He wants every person to learn the truth about Christ and receive His salvation. Compare 4:10; John 1:29; 3:16; Rom 11:32; 2 Cor 5:19; 2 Pet 3:9; 1 John 2:1; Ezek 18:32. This is just what we would expect from a God whose nature is love (1 John 4:8). Then why do so many people fail to know the truth and to receive salvation? See Matt 23:37; John 3:19,20; 5:40; 2 Thess 2:10-12. Also see notes at Rom 8:29.

2:5 "One God" - 1:17; 1 Cor 8:6; Eph 4:6; Isa 44:6,8; 45:5,18. In other places Paul taught that Christ is a member of the Godhead - 1:1,2; Rom 8:9; 9:5; Phil 2:6,11; Col 1:15; 2:9; Titus 2:13. He certainly is not denying that truth here, but speaking of Christ as man, the Word made flesh (John 1:14; Phil 2:7,8; Heb 2:14,17).

"Mediator" - in the New Testament this word is used only here and in Heb 8:6; 9:15; 12:24, but the same truth in different words is found everywhere. Compare John 14:6,13,14; Rom 5:1,2; Eph 2:18; Heb 4:14-16; 7:25; 10:19-22; 13:15; 1 John 2:1. Because Jesus is both God and man He understands both and can lay His hand on both and be the mediator Job desired (Job 9:32-35). There is no other person, no saint, no so-called "god" or godman who is a mediator between God and men. And since Jesus is a perfect mediator no other is needed. If all men, even if all who are called Christians, believed this what a difference it would make on earth!

2:6 "Ransom" - Matt 20:28; Rom 3:24,25; Gal 1:4.

"For all" - Christ died for all men and the price He paid is sufficient for the redemption of the whole world. When people perish without salvation the fault is theirs not His.

"In due time" - Gal 4:4.

2:7 "Appointed" - once again Paul puts emphasis on the fact that God had called him for this work and that he taught the truth. Compare Gal 1:11,12.

"Gentiles" - Gal 2:7,8.

2:8 "Lifting up holy hands" - the practice of holy hands, without anger and doubting.

9 In the same way I want women to dress in decent clothing, modestly and soberly; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly garments, 10 but with good works (which is proper for women professing godliness).

11 Let a woman learn in silence with complete submission. 12 And I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over the man, but to be silent. 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.

lifting hands in prayer was common among Jews and those of other religions. Paul is not, however, suggesting that posture in prayer is the important thing. See Matt 14:19; 26:39; Luke 18:13; John 17:1; Acts 1:14 with 2:1; 20:36.

"Holy hands" - compare Ps 26:6; Isa 1:15; Jam 4:8. If we want God to answer our prayers we should make sure we are not holding on to some sin or other. Lifting up unholy hands to God is to insult Him. "Anger" against others is an obstacle to praying as we ought. Compare Matt 6:12,14,15; Eph 4:23,31,32; Col 3:13,15.

"Doubting" - the Greek word indicates "reasoning" or "questioning hesitation" - Jam 1:6-8.

2:9,10 Does God really see and care how women dress? Certainly. That is why He inspired Paul to write as he did here. Compare Isa 3:16-23. See also 1 Pet 3:3,4. Women who are believers should dress modestly and decently because they have no business trying to copy worldly women or to be the center of attention or to attract men. They should not wear gold or expensive jewels or costly clothing because they live in a world where the poor and needy suffer without proper food and clothing. Also their Lord and Saviour, who was poor Himself (Matt 9:20; 2 Cor 8:9), has called them to a life of self-denial, not self-indulgence - Matt 10:38,39; Luke 14:33.

It is far better to give money to the poor or to use it to spread the gospel than to spend it on gold, jewelry and expensive clothes. God wants both believing women and men to be humble, modest and contented (6:6-8), and to lay up their treasures in heaven, not on earth (Matt 6:19-21). All believers should make sure they wear the "ornaments" and "clothing" of good deeds. 2:11,12 "Silence" - 1 Cor 14:34,35.

"Submission" - 1 Cor 11:3,7-10.

"Teach" - he meant public teaching when men were present. This is not a woman's task. But they have a teaching ministry to younger women (Titus 2:3-5). In the New Testament we have one example of a woman helping to explain the Scriptures to a man privately (Acts 18:26), but the author of Acts makes no comment on it.

2:13,14 Paul gives two reasons why women should not teach publicly or have authority over men. Neither reason has anything to do with the customs of the times, or what men in the Roman Empire thought was fitting, or any such thing. 14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. 15 However, she will be saved in childbirth, if they continue in faith and love and holiness with self-control.

3 This is a true saying: If a man desires the position of overseer in the church, he desires a good work. 2 An overseer must be blameless, the husband of only one wife, temperate, sound in fitting, or any such thing.

The first reason is that God made Adam first - Gen 2:17,18,21,22. Paul says that God thus showed He intended man to be in the position of authority over the woman.

Second, Satan deceived Eve, not Adam - Gen 3:1-6. It seems Paul is suggesting that in theological matters women are more easily led astray than men. This would fit the context and be a good reason why they should not be permitted to have authority over men or teaching positions in the church.

"Transgressor" - Paul does not mean that Adam did not become a transgressor (see Rom 5:12-14), only that Eve sinned first.

2:15 Pain in childbirth is one of the penalties for Eve's sin - Gen 3:16. Here is an encouraging word to women who believe in Christ and show the proof of their faith in the way they live.

3:1-7 The Greek word translated "overseer" (episkopos, translated "bishop" in the KJV) is used only five times in the New Testament - Acts 20:28; Phil 1:1; 1 Tim 3:2; Titus 1:7; 1 Pet 2:25. Actually it is a combination of two Greek words meaning "one who watches over." The word was used to indicate the elders of local churches (compare Acts 20:17 with 20:28; Phil 1:1). The work of an overseer is a "noble" one, one of the noblest works on earth and it will bring great reward to those who do it well - 1 Pet 5:1-4. Because the office of overseer or elder is so important the qualifications are high. If churches ignore these qualifications and choose their overseers on other grounds they will be failing in a very important area of church life and will bring trouble on themselves.

3:2 "Blameless" - anyone the church considers for the position of overseer must live in such a holy and honest and moral way that no one can justly charge him with wrong doing.

"Husband of one wife" - polygamy was not uncommon in that time. It is very likely that some men who had more than one wife became Christians. Such a person should not become an overseer. An overseer should be an example to the whole church of what God wants His people to be (1 Pet 5:3). And from the beginning God's plan for human beings was that a man should have only one wife - Gen 3:22-24; Matt 19:3-9. Some think that "husband of one wife" means an overseer should not be a man who has remarried under any circumstances.

thinking, of good behaviour, hospitable, able to teach, 3 not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for sordid gain, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money, 4 one who rules his own home well, keeping his children obedient with full respect 5 (for if a man does not know how to rule his own home, how will he take care of the church of God?),

And some think that Paul was teaching that bachelors should not be overseers in churches. However, he himself was single (1 Cor 7:8) and yet had a higher office than that of overseer which involved him in overseeing many churches (1 Cor 12:28; 2 Cor 11:28). Can we think it is possible that the man who wrote 1 Cor 7:1,8,26,27,32-34 is teaching here that unmarried men should not be overseers? See note also on v 4.

"Temperate" – not self-indulgent.

"Sound in thinking" – 1 Cor 9:27; 2 Tim 1:7.

"Of good behaviour" – it is not enough to know the Word of God or to teach the Word of God, we must behave as the Word of God says we should.

"Hospitable" – he must welcome people into his home and show them kindness – see Heb 13:2. In Titus it is even more strongly put – "a lover of hospitality" – that is, one who loves to show hospitality, not to receive it. He must not selfishly withdraw from those who may need his help.

"Able to teach" – to teach God's Word. This means that overseers must know God's Word – how can they teach something they don't know themselves? And they must have some God-given ability in teaching.

3:3 "Not given to wine" – not addicted to wine. Rom 14:21 and Eph 5:18 give us the best principles to follow. Every believer should give himself to the Lord, not to wine.

"Not violent" – God's servants must not abuse others in any way. And, of course, he must not hire others to be violent toward anyone. A person who does such a thing is not worthy of the name "Christian" and must absolutely have no place of leadership in the church.

"Not greedy for sordid gain" – money or property obtained in base and dishonest ways disqualifies anyone from being a church leader. Not only so, a desire for such things can ruin him forever – 6:5; John 12:6. May every Christian renounce such greed and avoid it like poison.

"Gentle, not quarrelsome" – 2 Tim 2:24,25; Matt 11:29.

"Not a lover of money" – 6:10; Matt 6:24; Luke 16:13,14. How many present leaders in churches would be excluded if this principle were put in practice?

3:4 "One who rules his own home well, keeping his children obedient" – see also Titus 1:6. If a man cannot take his rightful place in the home, he shows himself incapable of rightly leading the church. This is an important test in determining whether 6 not a new convert, or he may get puffed up with pride and fall into the condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover, he must have a good testimony among outsiders, or he may fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise, the deacons must be honorable, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not a person is qualified to be an overseer. Does the mention of children here mean that no one should be an overseer who does not have them, even though he is married? This cannot be. Paul means, of course, if he has children he must be able to control them. Compare "husband of one wife" in v 2. If Paul is not saying an overseer must have children he is not saying he must be married. The two statements are in the same category.

3:6 "Not a new convert" – Paul immediately tells us why. It is better not to have overseers than to appoint men to that position who have no experience. Before being laced in positions of authority believers need time to grow spiritually and become established in God's truth. Otherwise they will not be able to teach others, or to lead the church. Also those who are still spiritual infants may get puffed up with pride if they are put in positions of leadership.

"The condemnation of the devil" – or "the devil's judgment" – the meaning may be this: Satan is constantly accusing believers to God (Rev 12:10). If he sees pride and conceit in a church leader this gives him grounds for condemning him to God's face. Note on "devil" at Matt 4:1.

3:7 "He must have a good testimony among outsiders" – Col 4:5; 1 Thess 4:12; 1 Cor 10:32; 1 Pet 2:12; Matt 5:16. This is very important indeed. It means that his life (and not merely his words) must be a testimony to those who are not believers; he must have a good reputation. If a church selects a man as an overseer whom outsiders know to be crooked or immoral, etc, they may accuse him and bring disgrace on him and the whole church. And this may be an obstacle to any of them believing in Christ and joining the church.

"The snare of the devil" – compare Luke 22:31,33; Ps 91:3; 124:7; 2 Tim 2:26.

In Titus 1:6-9 once again Paul gave a list of qualities necessary for an elder, mentioning some of the same things in the list here in 1 Timothy, using the same words, or using different words to express the same qualities. And He added some qualities – and elder's children should be "faithful children not accused of wildness or unruliness"; he should not be "soon angry"; he should be a "lover of good"; and he must be "upright" and "holy"; and hold firmly to the "faithful word."

3:8 "Deacons" – this word comes from a Greek word meaning "to serve." The early churches had both elders ("overseers" or "bishops") and deacons – Phil 1:1. The greedy for sordid gain, 9 but holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And let these men also first be tested, and when found blameless, let them serve as deacons.

11 Also their wives must be honorable, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons each be the husband of only one wife, ruling their children and their own homes well. 13 For those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

14 I write these things to you, hoping to come elders had the oversight and spiritual care of the church, and had to be able to teach God's Word (v 2). Deacons did other kinds of service. Compare Acts 6:1-6.

"Honourable" – if men are not worthy of respect they are not worthy to hold any position in the church.

"Not greedy for sordid gain" – in this regard the very least servant in the church must be as clear of this as the principal overseer – v 3. Crooked people in any position in the church (or in any organization) can play havoc and bring both material and spiritual loss to its members. And the sad fact is, this qualification for leadership is very often ignored in churches and organizations.

3:9 "Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience" – 1:5,19. "Mystery of the faith" means God's revelation of what should be believed. Deacons and other church leaders (and every member, for that matter) must sincerely believe these truths, and not merely pay lip service to them.

3:10 "Tested" – before any person is given responsibility in the church, those who consider appointing that person should be satisfied that he has the qualifications for that position. If they appoint someone who is not worthy or if they appoint someone for any reasons other than those God has revealed in this chapter the church will have trouble.

3:11 The wives of deacons or any women in the church who serve in any way (Romans 16:1) must also have a good reputation among the people.

3:12 Verses 2,4.

3:13 A strong and assured faith will come to those who serve Christ faithfully, who received the power needed for that service from Him, and who are devoted to His work. Compare Heb 6:10,11.

3:14,15 "The house of God" – here probably means "God's household" – Eph 2:19; Heb 3:6. The church which Christ has founded and which He nourishes is God's family. Compare Eph 3:14,15; Matt 12:46-50; Heb 2:11. As is true in all families those in God's family must learn how to behave.

"The pillar and ground of the truth" – Paul here is not speaking of some local church or other. Some of those, unfortunately, are not pillars and foundations of the truth but of false teaching. And Paul is not speaking to you shortly. 15 But in case I am delayed, I am writing so that you may know how you should behave in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God appeared in the flesh, was declared righteous by the Spirit, seen by angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, and received up into glory.

4 Now the Spirit clearly states that in later times some will depart from the faith, giving of some Church denomination. Paul here means the Church which is Christ's body, the temple of God. Christ is the Head of this church and its foundation and its cornerstone (Eph 1:22,23; 2:20-22; 1 Cor 3:11; Col 1:18). It is the church which Christ is building for Himself (Matt 16:18). Only those who have been born again by the Spirit of God through faith in Christ are members of this church (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8; 1 Cor 12:12,13). This is the only church which is built on the solid foundation of God's truth. In God's hands this church becomes the "pillar and ground" that bears the truth (God's Word) before the world. It becomes the foundation of the truth because Christ is the Head of it and the foundation of it.

3:16 "Mystery of godliness" – Paul has been speaking of the behavior of those belonging to God and His church. This, as all other truth God has revealed, is a "mystery." See Rom 16:25,26; Eph 3:2-6; 5:32; Col 1:26,27. In the New Testament a mystery is a truth that men could not know unless God revealed it. The Greek word translated "godliness" means piety, devoutness. As used in the New Testament it means living in accordance with the teachings God has revealed, with true reverence for God. Compare 2:2; 4:7,8; 6:3,5,6,11; 2 Tim 3:5; Titus 1:1.

"God appeared" – Christ was the incarnation of God, God appearing in human form – John 1:14. See notes and references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

"In the flesh" – John 1:14; Rom 8:3; Heb 2:14; 10:5.

"The Spirit" – Matt 3:16; 12:28; John 1:32-34; Rom 1:4. In the life of Christ and in His resurrection from the dead God's Spirit revealed that Christ is the holy, spotless, righteous Son of God.

"Angels" – note at Gen 16:7. Angels were present at the birth of Christ, at His temptation in the wilderness, at His resurrection and at His ascension (Luke 2:9-15; Mark 1:13; Matt 28:5; Acts 1:10,11; Heb 1:6).

"To the Gentiles" – Matt 28:18,19; Eph 3:8,9; Col 1:23.

"Believed" – Acts 4:4; 5:14; 9:42; 11:21; 14:1; 17:12; 18:8; 19:18; 21:20.

"Glory" – Luke 24:51; Acts 1:9; Eph 1:20,21.

4:1 "Spirit" – God's Spirit revealed the future. Compare Isaiah 46:10. God knew attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their conscience seared as with a hot iron, 3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. 4 For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be refused, if received with thanksgiving, 5 for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If you remind the brethren of these things, in advance that false teachers and false prophets would come, so in many places in the Bible He warned His people about them – Matt 7:15; 24:4,5,24; Acts 20:29,30; Romans 16:16,17; 2 Cor 11:13-15; 2 Tim 3:1; 4:3; 2 Pet 2:1; etc.

"The faith" – here the meaning is the body of truth God had revealed, the truths accepted by true believers.

"Seducing spirits" – Matt 4:24. We must understand that in the unseen world of spirits some spirits try to teach Christians false doctrines to lead them away from the truth of God. Compare Eph 6:11,12.

4:2 Paul now speaks about those men whom demons use to introduce false teachings into the churches.

"Speaking lies in hypocrisy" – they themselves do not necessarily believe the things they teach. Also it is no problem for them to tell lies. In this way they reveal whose children they are – John 8:44. A "seared" conscience is one that is dead and silent. Compare Eph 4:19.

4:3 We should not think that these are the only two things these false teachers forbid. There are others besides these. But these two are enough to show that their teachings are not based on the Word of God. Actually they raise their teachings above the Bible. This is one of the very dangerous things about all false teachings.

"Forbidding to marry" – see Gen 1:27,28; 2:22-24; Matt 19:4-6; Heb 13:4. "Forbidding" is a strong word. Compare the language Paul used in 1 Corinthians chapter 7 (7:2,25,26, etc). Even at a time of crisis for the church he did not forbid to marry, but only gave wise suggestions. See also Heb 13:4. No one on earth has divine authority to forbid anyone else to marry. There is no suggestion of such a thing in the Bible, and here Paul is saying that this teaching comes, not from God, but from demons and hypocritical liars.

"Foods" – Gen 1:29; 9:3; Mark 7:19; Acts 10:9-16; Rom 14:14,20. Observe the word "commanding." Trying to exercise authority over others in the matter of food – telling them what they must eat or when they must eat it – is not in accordance with the teaching of the New Testament. Compare the way Paul taught in Romans chapter 14. According to the New Testament there is no longer any kind of food that God forbids. Some people in almost every religion on earth believe that if someone abstains from certain kinds of food and does you will be a good servant of Jesus Christ, nourished by the words of faith and good doctrine that you have followed. 7 But reject godless stories and old wives' tales, and, instead, train yourself in godliness. 8 For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, holding promise for the present life and for that which is to come.

9 This is a trustworthy saying and worthy of full acceptance. 10 For this reason we both labour not marry then he is more spiritual and holy than other people.

Perhaps this is one reason why demons want such teachings given out. They will seek ways to promote a false and destructive kind of righteousness and holiness among men. Also they much prefer to have people occupied with foods or austerities or penances or denying themselves this or that thing than with the Word of the living God. Compare Col 2:20-23. The teaching that such things help to make us acceptable to God has its source in evil spirits. We become acceptable to God only by believing in the Lord Jesus Christ and having our life in Him. We need no commands except His. We need no righteousness except His.

"Thanksgiving" – Matt 14:19; 26:26; Rom 14:6; Col 2:6,7; 1 Thess 5:18.

4:4 "Good" – Gen 1:1,31. Paul is reminding Timothy that God is the great Creator of all things, and there was nothing bad in anything He created. In nothing He has appointed for men (such as marriage) is there the slightest thing contrary to holiness and spirituality. And no kind of food is forbidden.

4:5 God's Word has consecrated every kind of food for the use of mankind. See the references on verse 3. A prayer of thanksgiving makes the food "clean" and holy for the those who offer the prayer.

4:6 "Good servant of Jesus Christ" – in the church every teacher, every leader, every preacher, every evangelist must labor to be like this with all his mind, heart, strength and spirit. If they want to be like this they must hold on to the truths God has revealed and with faith and courage declare them to others.

4:7 "Godless stories" – 1:4.

"Old wives' tales" – Paul means religious stories which are not true, ancient legends which have no basis in reality and history.

"Godliness" – Paul uses the Greek word to indicate a true Christian life put into practice, the life of faith every Christian must learn to live. This means they must train themselves, discipline themselves in doing so. Compare Heb 5:14; 1 Cor 9:24-27. The servant of Christ must discipline himself in mental and spiritual matters as the able athlete trains himself in physical matters.

4:8 "Holding promise" – godliness is what brings God's blessings now and in the future. The ungodly have no right to expect any good thing from God either now or then.

4:10 "Labour" – 1 Cor 15:10; Col 1:29.

and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those who believe.

11 Command and teach these things. 12 Let no man look down on your youthfulness, but be an example to the believers in speech, in behaviour, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 13 Until I come,

"The living God" – 3:15. The believer in Christ has a "living hope" in the "living God" (1 Pet 1:3).

"Saviour" – Paul is not saying that all men will be saved. He is saying that God is the one who protects all and provides for all until it is time for them to leave this earth (Acts 14:17; 17:25-27). Not only that – He stands ready to forgive and to give His eternal salvation to all who will turn to Him for it (Isa 45:22). Believers in Christ have turned to Him so He is Savior to them in every possible meaning of the word (1:1).

4:11 "Command and teach" – true servants of Christ can speak with authority. They should do so. They represent Christ on earth. They have God's own revelation of the truth about spiritual matters. And they know they have them. They are not teaching doubtful matters or invented stories or old wives' tales. And they must not create the impression that they are teaching doubtful matters. See 1 Pet 4:11.

"These things" – things that God has revealed, not things like 4:3. No church leader has any right or authority to command or teach anything that God has not revealed in His Word.

4:12 "Youthfulness" – Timothy, the leader of the church at Ephesus, would have been younger than many of the Christians there. But God had appointed him to that position, so he must speak the Word of God with authority and not permit anyone to look down on him because he was younger than they.

"Be an example" – something every Christian leader should be (1 Pet 5:3; 1 Cor 11:1; Phil 3:17; 2 Thess 3:7). If he is not a good example he should not be a leader.

"Love. . .purity" – Paul here lists things essential to a full Christian life. It is not possible to take any one of them away and still have that kind of life. The sad fact is that some preachers show great zeal in one or another of these matters and neglect others.

4:13 "Reading" – the Greek word here as used in the New Testament meant the public reading of the Scriptures in the church or synagogue. This was a practice of the Jews when they came together for public worship. See Luke 4:16,17; Ezra 8:1-3; Acts 13:15. After the formation of the church Christians retained this practice (Col 4:16,17; 1 Thess 5:27). This practice was very important and beneficial in those days because not every Christian had a copy of the Bible, and even if everyone could have obtained his own copy, many of them were not able to read. Today also in many parts apply yourself to reading, to exhortation, to instruction. 14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you that was given to you by prophecy, with the elders laying hands on you.

15 Meditate on these things, and give yourself wholly to them, that your progress might be evident to everyone. 16 Watch yourself and your of the world the practice of public reading of Scripture can be very beneficial.

"Instruction" – observe that a pastor is to both preach and teach. Preaching is directed to the will and conscience, as well as to the mind of the hearer. Teaching is instructing people in the truths of the Christian faith. This is directed more to the minds of believers (but, of course, should not ignore the will). Both of these have an essential place in the ministry of the Christian pastor.

4:14 "Neglect" – it is possible to neglect any of the gifts God gives to men. Compare Matt 25:24-27.

"Gift" – 2 Tim 1:6. Paul is speaking of a spiritual ability. See Rom 12:6-8; 1 Cor 1:7; 12:4-11,28; 14:1.

"By prophecy" – 1:18. The ability to give a prophetic message was one of the gifts given by the Holy Spirit – 1 Cor 14:29-31.

"Hands on you" – this occurred in the church at Ephesus when the elders met together and consecrated Timothy to the ministry. Compare Acts 13:3. God can and does give spiritual gifts and abilities to His servants without anyone laying hands on them. But the laying on of hands as practiced in the early church was an indication of the unity and harmony that existed between God and believers in the appointing of people for special service.

4:15 "Wholly" – service not performed wholeheartedly can never please God. Every servant of Christ should have the same strong desire that Paul had – Acts 20:24; Col 1:29.

4:16 Every servant of Christ must be very careful about how he lives and what he teaches. It is not enough to live a holy life if our teaching is not right and it is not enough to teach correct doctrine if our lives are unholy.

"Save. . .those who hear you" – compare Ezek 33:6,9. God alone is the Savior (1:1). And Paul was sure that Timothy had already been saved, had already been born again and received eternal life (1:2). God's servants by their method of preaching and living can never earn salvation (Eph 2:8,9). But by the grace of God they can go forward in faith and work out their salvation with fear and trembling (Phil 2:12). This is very necessary (Col 1:23; Heb 3:6,14; 6:12). And by watching themselves and their teaching they can save themselves from God's severe chastisement. The Greek word translated "save" is used in the New Testament to indicate salvation from sin, but it also means to be saved from various dangers and ills.

doctrine. Continue in it, for in doing this you will save both yourself, and those who hear you.

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but plead with him as if he was your father, and treat the younger men as brothers, 2 the older women as mothers, and the younger as sisters, with complete purity.

3 Honour widows who are widows indeed. 4 But if any widow has children or nephews, let them first learn to practice piety at home, and to repay their parents, for that is good and acceptable before God. 5 Now she who is a widow indeed, and alone, trusts in God, and continues in requests and prayers night and day. 6 But she who lives in pleasure is dead while she lives. 7 And command these things, so that they may be blameless. 8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his own household, he “Save. . . your hearers” – Jam 5:19,20. This means that the faithful servant of God will be an instrument in God’s hands, that God will use him either to bring others to salvation or to keep them moving forward in faith. Is there any greater or more blessed work possible to men?

5:1,2 The pastor whom Christ has appointed as the leader of the church has authority, but he should not regard the church as his own little kingdom and try to rule it like a dictator. He should recognize that the church is like a home, like a family (3:15) and behave accordingly (1 Pet 5:1-3).

5:3 The church and its pastor have a responsibility to look after the poor in the church. This is especially true when the poor are widows who have no resources and cannot work.

5:4 Notice carefully the responsibility that children and grandchildren have toward needy parents and grandparents.

“Practice piety” – that is, show their devotion to God by living in the home in a way pleasing to God. How important this is for every believer! We must not only believe the truth, we must also practice it among those nearest to us. We must not only know that God has said something, we must do what He has said. This is the only possible way to please God. If children or grandchildren who can help a widowed mother or grandmother who is in need do not do so, they are sinning against God.

“Repay” – children may think they owe their parents nothing, but God has a different view of this matter.

5:5 Paul is speaking about Christian widows. If they are in need and there is no one to help them, the church or an individual in the church must do so. This is the way God has appointed to meet their needs.

5:6 “Dead while she lives” – this means such a person is separated from the life of God and spiritually dead (Eph 2:1; 4:18). This is true not only of those widows who live for has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Do not let a widow less than sixty years old be taken into the number. She must have been the wife of one man, 10 and be well spoken of in the matter of good works, if she has raised children, if she has shown hospitality, if she has washed the saints’ feet, if she has helped those in trouble, if she has carefully sought to do every sort of good work.

11 But refuse the younger widows, for when they are overcome with desires against Christ, they will want to marry, 12 being condemned, because they disregard their first assurance. 13 And besides they learn to be idle, going about from house to house, and not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, speaking things which they should not. 14 So I want the younger women to marry, bear children, manage the house, and give no pleasure but of anyone who does so. Anyone without Christ is dead, no matter how much he or she seems to be alive. Sometimes those who live for pleasure instead of for God may think they are very much alive. Why? See Jer 17:9.

5:8 “The faith” – Paul uses the word here to indicate the sum of Christian belief and practice. The heart of this is love. If anyone does not put love into practice he is denying the faith (1 John 3:16-18; 4:7,8). Even many unbelievers who totally reject Christ take care of needy relatives. Can believers in Christ even think of not doing so?

5:9,10 “The number” – or “list” of widows. It is not likely that Paul is saying that the church should not help widows under 60 who are in need, or that even though a widow is in need in order to receive help she must meet all the conditions in these verses. Therefore the widows in the list most likely were those whom the church had appointed to serve in some way or other. Such widows must meet certain conditions, and have certain qualifications just as the elders and deacons in the church must have (3:1-12).

“Washed the saints’ feet” – John 13:5.

5:11,12 All the widows on the list must be dedicated to Christ and consecrated by the church for service. Remarriage in itself is not wrong but if those widows dedicated to Christ’s service remarry it was not likely that they would be able to devote themselves fully to their service and might even leave it altogether. Leaving the work of Christ which we have promised to do is no small sin. In this way God’s judgment could come on such widows.

5:13 This is one reason why younger widows (v 14) should not be appointed to serve in the church.

5:14 Paul is saying it is far better for young widows to remarry than to be dedicated to service in the church, promise to do it, and then break their promise, leave that occasion to the enemy to speak reproachfully. 15 For some have already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them assist them, and do not let the church be burdened, so it can assist those who are truly widows.

17 Let the elders who manage the church well be counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in the word and teaching. 18 For the Scripture says, You shall not muzzle the ox that treads out the grain.

And, The labourer is worthy of his wages.

19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder, except in the presence of two or three witnesses. 20 Those who sin rebuke in the presence of everyone, so that others also may be afraid.

21 I charge you in the presence of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you observe these things without showing favoritism, doing nothing from partiality.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, and do not share in other men's sins. Keep yourself pure.

23 No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and they follow some men. 25 So also good works are evident beforehand, and those that are not cannot be hidden.

6 As many slaves as are still under the yoke must count their masters worthy of complete service and remarry.

"The enemy" - anyone who is opposed to Christ and His Church. This kind of people are always looking for opportunities to criticize and find fault with Christians. Christians must be careful not to give them opportunities.

5:15 It seems clear that some widows had already promised to serve in some way in the church, then were overcome by sensual desires (v 11) and left Christ's service.

"After Satan" - by rejecting God's will in order to go after sensual pleasure they were following Satan. To follow the pleasures and sins of this world is to go after our worst enemy. See notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10.

5:16 Women who are able to help the widows among their relatives are to take this responsibility just like everyone else. Compare verses 4 and 8.

5:17 "Double honour" - the next verse shows that Paul means financial assistance as well as other kinds of honor.

5:18 Deut 25:4; Luke 10:7; 1 Cor 9:9-12.

5:19 Sometimes an innocent servant of Christ may be accused of some wrong doing or other. If others believe such accusations that person's service can be grievously affected. So Paul gives this wise instruction here.

"Two or three" - Deut 19:15; Matt 18:16; 2 Cor 13:1.

5:20 To safeguard the holiness and purity of the church, discipline is necessary. If known sin in the church is not resisted and publicly rebuked then that sin may bring ruin to the church. See Acts 5:1-11; 1 Cor 5:1-5,13; Matt 18:15-17. One way to make God's children fear to sin is to expose their sins publicly. Of course great care must be taken in a matter like this and God's love even for the sinful must not be forgotten.

5:21 See how strongly, how emphatically Paul writes here. He knew that showing favoritism is a very common matter even in churches. Many church leaders will defend sinning relatives or close friends and try to cover up their sin instead of exposing and rebuking it. But if others sin they may behave very harshly toward them. This is very wrong and can work great harm to the church. Every servant of Christ should wholeheartedly obey Paul's instructions here.

5:22 "Hands" - 4:14; 2 Tim 1:6. Perhaps Paul is speaking of the appointment of elders and deacons. If people are appointed to these positions before they prove themselves worthy of them they may later bring great harm to the church. Compare 3:10. If the leaders of the church appoint those as elders and deacons who are living a sinful life, those leaders will be responsible for the results. Church leaders themselves must lead holy lives and must appoint as elders and deacons only those who lead holy lives.

5:23 "Frequent infirmities" - Paul had the gift of healing (Acts 28:8,9) but neither he nor anyone else was able to restore Timothy to full health. This is very significant when we study the subject of the sickness and health of believers. Compare 2 Tim 4:20; Phil 2:27; 2 Cor 12:7-10. It is possible that Timothy's physical problems came from drinking impure water. In such a case adding a little wine to it would be beneficial. Adding some wine to drinking water was a common practice in those days. Notice here the word "little." See 3:3,8; Gen 9:21; Prov 20:1; 23:30,31.

5:24,25 Sometimes neither the good deeds nor the bad deeds of a person are obvious to the general public. Men can for a time hide either their secret sins or their good works (Ps 90:8; Eccl 12:14; Matt 6:1-4). For this reason church leaders should not be hasty in appointing people as elders and deacons. Eventually everything that people do will be revealed - Matt 10:26; Luke 8:17; 12:2,3; Rom 2:16; 1 Cor 4:5.

6:1 Eph 6:5,6 (notes); Col 3:22; Titus 2:9; 1 Pet 2:18.

"Blasphemed" - if Christian servants or slaves did not show respect to their masters but rebelled against them this could very well be the result. For some unbelievers might think that Christianity was respect, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. 2 And those who have believing masters, should not regard them lightly because they are brethren, but rather serve them, because those who are benefitted are believers and loved. Teach and encourage these things.

3 If any man teaches otherwise, and does not consent to wholesome words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the teaching that is according to godliness, 4 he is proud, understanding nothing, but has a morbid interest consistent with disrespect and rebellion and so speak ill of the God that Christian servants and slaves worshipped.

6:2 Christian servants or slaves thinking that their believing masters were kind and merciful might try to take advantage of them and not do their work properly. This sort of thing is unworthy of any Christian in any job.

"Brethren" – when a master and a slave both believe in Christ they become spiritual brothers.

"Loved" – is it possible for slaves actually to love their masters? Yes, in Christ this is possible – Gal 3:28; Col 3:11. Christ's commandment to love one another (John 13:34) was given to all believers in all circumstances of life.

6:3,4 "If . . . otherwise" – compare 1:3,10,11; 4:1. Here Paul is speaking of those who are Christians in name only, but it can be applied to others as well. He is here emphasizing once again the importance of the truths Christ has revealed to the apostles. Some people say that their intellect and knowledge keep them from believing these doctrines of the Bible. The fact is that what causes men to reject the truth of Christ is not that they know too much but that they know too little. They may be highly educated, but in spiritual matters they have no experience or understanding. They are in darkness and ignorance – John 3:1,9,20; 1 Cor 1:18-22; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 4:18. But even though they do not have even the beginning of wisdom (Prov 1:7) they may be proud and think they are very wise.

"Morbid interest" – Paul is speaking of the condition of those who are spiritually sick. Instead of accepting the truth of God which is able to make them well they show themselves ready to fight against it.

6:5 "Corrupt minds" – 2 Tim 3:8. A mind that opposes the truth of God is not thinking rightly about spiritual matters. A new mind is one of the great blessing Christ gives to us (Rom 12:2; Col 3:10).

"Destitute of the truth" – the truth was before them. They had heard it and professed to believe it. But they had let Satan take away the truth from their minds. Compare Matt 13:18,19.

Observe how some who call themselves Christians reveal their corrupt minds – to them their profession of Christianity is only a means to get money or some other benefit. See Acts 8:18-23; John 12:6; in debates and quarrels about words, from which come envy, strife, abusive language, evil conjectures, 5 and empty disputations from men of corrupt minds who are destitute of the truth and suppose that financial gain is godliness. Keep away from such people.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. 8 So having food and clothing let us be content with that. 9 But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and

2 Pet 2:15; Jude 11. Instead of leaving everything they have for Christ (Luke 14:25-27,33; Phil 3:8) they desire to take whatever they can from Christ's people. It is a horrible thing that people in churches and Christian organizations show this kind of mind. Some are willing to lie, cheat, and deceive in order to get money, or to steal it outright. They have forgotten (if they ever knew) that it is far better to be a poor man than a liar (Prov 19:22).

6:6 Phil 4:11,12; Heb 13:5. Christ's believers should desire to be rich not in material things but in spiritual. Only in these is their eternal benefit (Matt 6:19-21). Contentment is the result of confidence and trust in God. The way to contentment is believing that God has put us in the place and position and circumstances He knows are best for us and has given us what He knows we should have, neither more nor less.

Contentment will keep us from complaining, and from going after greedy desires (which are the same as idolatry – Eph 5:5; Col 3:5). It will keep us from allowing material things to rule us. Contentment is a very important quality in a servant of Christ. Refusing to be contented is the same as criticizing God's ways and His behavior toward us. It leads to the sin of murmuring against God. Compare Ex 14:11,12; 15:22-24; 16:2,3,8; Num 14:3.

6:7 Job 1:21; Psalm 49:16-20; Eccl 5:15. During our time on this earth the only things we can store up are the things we send to heaven before us (Matt 6:19-21).

6:8 Paul means the things that are really essential to life. Here he does not even speak of a house of one's own – possibly because one can live his whole life on earth without owning a house.

6:9 People (including some Christians) may think that running after money is a very wise thing to do. But such people are terribly deceived, and are in the way that leads to destruction. Desire for riches is a trap laid by the devil, a temptation he puts to ruin us. This desire never brings contentment, but only increases as possessions increase and at last it leads to destruction (Matt 7:13; 2 Thess 1:8,9; Psalm 49:20; 73:18,19). Consider some Bible examples of this – Balaam (2 Pet 2:15), Gehazi (2 Kings 5:20-27), Judas (Matt 26:14-16; John 12:4-6). Do we want to end up as they did? If not, let us not permit desires like theirs to rule us.

a snare, and into many foolish and harmful desires which drown men in destruction and ruin. 10 For the love of money is a root of all evils. Some while coveting it have gone astray from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But you, O man of God, flee from these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and meekness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which also you were called, and have made a good confession in the presence of many witnesses. 13 I charge you in the sight of God who gives life to all things, and in the presence of Christ Jesus who, standing before Pontius Pilate, gave witness in a good confession, 14 that you keep this command without spot, blamelessly, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 which in his own time he will reveal. He is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, 16 who alone has immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach, whom no man has seen or can see. To him be eternal honour and power. Amen.

17 Command those who are rich in this world not to be arrogant, and not to trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy. 18 Command them to do good,

6:10 The love of money is a root of all kinds of evil because it turns us away from God and spiritual matters to material things, and lets them have power over us. See Matt 6:22-24. Love of money is actually hatred toward God. If we keep the command in Matt 22:37 there will be no room in our hearts for the love of money. On the other hand if we allow the love of money to possess us there will be no room in our hearts for the love of God. One of the sins (possibly the principal sin) that made Judas Iscariot like a demon was the love of money (John 6:70,71; 12:6; Matt 26:14-16). If we have any spiritual understanding, any sense at all, will we want to follow that path?

"Gone astray from the faith" - v 21; 1:19; 4:1,6; 5:8. Those whose God is money will not have any desire to follow the way of Christ, and will go off to wander in their own ways.

"Pierced. . . sorrows" - running after money is the same as chasing after grief and misery. The rewards wealth gives its lovers are sadness, delusion, dissatisfaction, and eternal loss and ruin. See James 5:1-3; Matt 19:22; Luke 6:24,25; 12:16-21; 16:19-31.

6:11 Every servant of Christ, every believer must flee from the temptation to go after money and property. If they do not they are likely to fall into the trap of the devil (v 9). Let every one of us turn our back to all of that and go after the true riches Paul speaks of here - the fruit of God's Spirit (Gal 5:22,23). If we do so we will not need to worry about the necessities of life (Matt 6:33; Phil 4:19), and will have contentment along with them.

6:12 "Fight" - Eph 6:10-18; 1 Cor 9:26; 2 Tim 4:7.

"Take hold" - God has placed the blessings of eternal life within our reach but we must take them for ourselves. The true Christian life is true life, not merely existing without purpose. God has given us many blessings in Christ (Eph 1:3), but we must realize they are ours, claim them, and make use of them.

"Eternal life" - v 19. Note at John 3:16. "Good confession" - compare Matt 10:32,33; Rom 10:9,10; 1 John 4:15.

6:13 5:21. "Gives life" - Acts 17:25.

"Pilate" - Matt 27:2. In John 18:36,37 see the good confession Christ gave.

6:14 "Commandment" - perhaps here Paul means the whole way of life that Christ appointed for His disciples. Certainly that is the theme in verses 11,12.

"Appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ" - the second coming of Christ (2 Tim 4:1,8; Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28; Matt 24:30,31; Acts 1:11).

6:15 "His own time" - Matt 24:36. Compare Gal 4:4; John 7:30. God has a perfect time for everything He does. Here Paul calls God the "only" Sovereign, the "King of kings and Lord of lords." Rev 1:5 says that Christ is the ruler of the kings of the earth and Rev 19:16 calls Him the "King of kings and Lord of lords." Is there a contradiction here? Absolutely not. The clear meaning is that Jesus Christ is the incarnation of God. See John 1:1,14; Phil 2:6; etc.

6:16 See 1:17. "Light" - 1 John 1:5; John 1:4,5.

6:17 It is possible for wealthy people to fall into the error of thinking that they have no need of God. Compare Ps 49:6; 73:3-12.

"Uncertain riches" - Prov 23:4,5; 28:20. God can take away from men whatever He has enabled them to obtain. Such a result is fitting for those who are indifferent toward God.

"Gives us richly" - 2 Cor 9:8; Phil 4:19. God is not a miser who holds tightly to whatever He has. Our hope and confidence should be in Him, not in people or in the material things which appear to our eyes.

"To enjoy" - Eccl 2:24-26; Acts 14:17. God wants people to enjoy what He has given them and He does not want them to think it is wrong for them to enjoy them. This does not mean living in luxury while others live in poverty - 2 Cor 8:13,14.

6:18,19 Matt 19:21; 6:19,20; Luke 14:33. "Rich in good deeds" - in these verses we have true spiritual riches. Compare Luke 12:21. Those who use their riches only for themselves are actually throwing them away.

"Share" - what we do now, what we give now has a profound influence on our eternal future. Compare Matt 25:19; Luke 19:15. It is a very sad thing that many people who could do much good with their money selfishly use it only for themselves or spend it and to be rich in good deeds, ready to give, willing to share, 19 and so storing up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, guard that which has been for nothing of real value. See references on giving in the note on 2 Cor 9:15.

6:20 "Guard that. . . entrusted to you" - 2 Tim 2:14. Paul is speaking of the truths God has revealed, of the Gospel (1:11). We should all regard this as of the highest value and see to it that neither Satan nor anyone else takes it away from us.

"Falsely called knowledge" - v 3,4; entrusted to you, and avoid ungodly empty babbling, and the opposing arguments of what is falsely called knowledge, 21 which some have professed to possess and have gone astray from the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

Col 2:8; 1 Cor 1:17-25.

6:21 "Professed" - compare Rom 1:22. Some people claim to be very wise and think they have no need for the gospel of Christ. They are on the borders of destruction.

"Gone astray from the faith" - v 10; 4:1.

"Grace" - only by the grace of God can any servant of Christ put into practice the instructions given in this letter.

The Second Letter of the Apostle Paul to TIMOTHY

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime about 67 AD.

Themes:

Paul is in prison, being persecuted for preaching the gospel of Christ. His friends and helpers have forsaken him (1:15; 4:16). He knows that the time of his death is near (4:6). But in the midst of what could have been depressing circumstances Paul is not discouraged or sad or afraid or defeated – in fact, just the opposite. He reveals his hope and confidence to Timothy and writes to encourage him in the Lord’s service. By the inspiration of God’s Spirit he points out how people will be in the future, and emphasizes again the importance of right doctrine, correct teaching, holy living, faithful work, and courageous preaching.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To my dearly loved son Timothy: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve, as my forefathers did, with a clear conscience, that night and day in my prayers I constantly remember you. 4 Recalling your tears, I have a great desire to see you, that I may be filled with joy. 5 For I remember the sincere faith that is in you, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also. 6 Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7 For God has

1:1 Rom 1:1; Gal 1:1. "According to" – Paul's apostleship had to do with one great fact above all: the fact that God has promised eternal life to those who believe in Christ (compare Rom 1:2; Titus 1:2; 1 John 5:9-12).

1:2 1 Tim 1:2.

1:3 "I thank God" – Rom 1:8; 1 Cor 1:4; Phil 1:3; Col 1:3; 1 Thess 1:2.

"Forefathers" – God's servants in the Old Testament. Paul indicates his conviction that true religion and service for God had their roots there, that his faith and service was a continuation of theirs.

"Clear conscience" – Acts 23:1; 24:16; 1 Cor 4:4; 2 Cor 1:12.

"Night and day" – Paul was in prison (v 8) but his ministry was not bound. He had plenty of time for prayer and he constantly used the opportunity.

1:4 "Tears" – Paul is probably referring to their last parting. Timothy's tears revealed his love for Paul and what Paul stood for. Compare Acts 20:37,38.

"A great desire to see you" – Rom 1:11; 1 Thess 3:6; Phil 1:8.

1:5 Timothy's father and paternal grandfather were Greeks and may not have been believers, but his mother and maternal grandmother were Jews. Both his mother and grandmother had believed the gospel of Christ (Acts 16:1-3).

"Sincere faith" – 1 Tim 1:5.

1:6 By the "gift" he does not mean a natural ability but a spiritual ability which God gave Timothy at a specific time. God's servants may neglect such an ability or let its bright flame die down. So Paul gives this exhortation. Timothy received a gift by the laying on of hands of the elders of the church (1 Tim 4:14). We do not know whether Paul is referring to that occasion here. Two separate laying on of hands for different purposes was not unknown. See Acts 9:17; 13:3.

1:7 "Spirit of fear" – it would seem from this that Timothy was tempted to let the flame of his spiritual ability die down because of a lack of boldness to use it. Courage is needed in the exercise of God's gifts (Acts not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

8 So do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me his prisoner, but share with me in the sufferings of the gospel, by the power of God, 9 who has saved us and called us with a holy calling. This was not according to our deeds, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began, 10 but is now revealed by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who has abolished death, and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 11 For this gospel I have been appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. 12 For this reason also I suffer these things. However, I am not ashamed, for I know

4:29; Eph 6:19). Paul speaks of three more things very much needed in the service of Christ. God's Spirit is the one who gives them. When God calls us to serve Him He makes us able to serve Him (2 Cor 3:5,6).

"Power" – Acts 1:8; 1 Cor 2:4; 4:20; 2 Cor 4:7; 12:9; Eph 1:19; 3:16; Col 1:11.

"Love" – love without power would be frustrating. Power without love would be harmful, not helpful. Above all, Christ's servants need love – 1 Cor 13:1-3.

"Sound mind" – or, possibly, "self-control". This is an ability to think in a healthy way, to control one's thoughts and so one's behavior. See 1 Tim 3:2.

1:8 "Ashamed" – Mark 8:38; Rom 1:16. Many people consider the gospel of Christ foolishness (1 Cor 1:18,23), and the preaching of the cross of Christ offensive (Gal 5:11). A naturally timid Christian, giving in to the pride that rises so easily out of our fallen nature, might be tempted to be ashamed to speak of Christ to others. This temptation we should all overcome by the power of God's Spirit.

"His prisoner" – 2:9; Eph 3:1.

"Sufferings of the gospel" – sufferings that may come to those who proclaim the gospel or believe the gospel – 2:3; 4:5; Rom 5:3; 8:17; 2 Cor 4:17; 1 Pet 4:12-16.

1:9 "Holy calling" – Rom 1:6; 8:30; 1 Cor 1:2; Eph 1:4.

"Purpose" – Eph 1:5,9,12.

"Grace" – Rom 3:24; Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:5,7.

"In Christ" – John 15:4; Rom 6:5; 8:1; Eph 1:1,4.

"Before time began" – Eph 1:4; Titus 1:2.

1:10 "Revealed" – John 1:17.

"Abolished death" – Matt 28:6; Heb 2:14; John 5:24; 11:25,26. Christ has laid the foundation for death's final overthrow – 1 Cor 15:26, and has opened the way to eternal life for believers – John 3:16; 5:24; 6:47. And He has revealed the truth about life and immortality – truth hidden and unknown before He came. On immortality see 1 Corinthians chapter 15.

1:11 1 Tim 2:7.

1:12 Paul's sufferings (2:9; 2 Cor 1:8; whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep what I have entrusted to him until that day.

13 Hold firmly the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, with faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. 14 By the Holy Spirit who lives in us, keep that good thing which was entrusted to you.

15 You know that everyone in Asia has deserted me, including Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord be merciful to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains. 17 When he was in 4:8-12; 6:4-10; 11:23-27) came because he was a servant of Christ (John 15:18-21; 16:1-4). He could have avoided them by withdrawing from the ministry. He did not do so because he was not ashamed to suffer for Christ – quite the opposite (Rom 5:3; 2 Cor 4:17,18; 12:10; Col 1:24).

“Whom I have believed” – he also knew what he had believed, but here he speaks of his personal knowledge of Christ. This is eternal life (John 17:3) and this knowledge all of God’s children have (Heb 8:11).

“What I have entrusted” – he is probably referring to himself and all that pertained to him. Long before this he had committed himself completely into the strong hands of Jesus Christ and was confident Christ would not let anything or anyone remove him from His care. Compare Rom 8:35-39; John 10:28; 1 Pet 1:5.

“That day” – Christ’s second coming.

1:13 What Paul had taught Timothy was the very truth of God. Christ Himself had taught Paul this truth – Gal 1:11,12; Eph 3:2,3. Timothy was not to make his own “pattern” of doctrine. Neither are we. Everyone should follow the pattern God has given once and for all. If we preach and teach we must continually consult this pattern and build our ministry according to it. If we do not, we will make a wreck of it in God’s eyes (however much we may seem to be a success in the eyes of men).

“Faith and love” – we must hold to Paul’s teaching with a living faith. It must not become dead orthodoxy to us (compare John 5:38-40,45-47). And we must hold the truth with love. It is not enough to be sound in doctrine and to “contend for the faith” (Jude 3). If we do not have love along with all that we are nothing – 1 Cor 13:1-3.

“In Christ” – v 9.

1:14 The “good thing” was God’s revealed truth, the pattern of sound teaching. Why do Christ’s servants need to guard it? Because there will be those who try to take it away from them and the Church.

“Holy Spirit” – note at John 14:16,17. God does not ask us to guard His truth with our own poor resources, our own arguments or wisdom or strength. He has given His servants a power and wisdom far greater Rome he sought me out very earnestly and found me. 18 The Lord grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord in that day. You know very well how many ways he served me in Ephesus.

2 You, therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 And the things you have heard from me with many witnesses present, those same things entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. 3 You, therefore, endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 4 No man that goes to war entangles himself in the affairs of civilian life, that he may than anything they have by nature. Compare Matt 10:19,20; Luke 21:15; John 16:13-15; Acts 4:13.

“Lives in us” – Rom 8:9; 1 Cor 6:19.

1:15 Paul was in prison and in danger. It was a sad fact that those who should have stood with him and helped him then did not do so (4:16). Compare Matt 26:56.

“Asia” – see Acts 16:6.

1:16-18 “Onesiphorus” – he was in great contrast with those Paul mentions in v 15. They searched for a way not to help Paul; he searched for Paul to help him. There are still these two types of Christians in the world.

“Merciful” (v 18) – Paul’s desire was in accordance with the Scriptures – Matt 5:7. We have no right to expect God to be merciful or helpful to us if we are not merciful or helpful to others.

2:1 Spiritual strength is a gift of God which is given in Christ to all believers. We should learn to appropriate this strength (Eph 1:3,19; 3:16,20; 6:10; 2 Cor 12:9,10; Isa 40:31).

2:2 This is the way God has planned for His truth to spread throughout the earth. Paul taught Timothy (1:13); Timothy was to teach others and they, in turn, would teach still others. Compare Matt 28:19,20.

“Faithful men” – it is of no use to entrust important things to unreliable men. Compare Matt 24:45-51; 1 Tim 1:12; 1 Cor 4:1,2.

2:3 “Hardship” – 1:8; 3:12; John 16:33; Acts 14:22.

“Good soldier” – Eph 6:11-18. All believers are soldiers in Christ’s spiritual army. Being so we should try to be good ones and bravely endure what comes to us in the line of duty. This is especially true for those whom Christ has called into positions of leadership. We must not murmur or complain or try to avoid difficulties at any cost (as the manner of some is).

2:4 “Entangles” – there is nothing wrong with either believers or preachers of the gospel having a secular job and working for a living (Acts 18:3; 20:34,35; 1 Thess 4:11,12; 2 Thess 3:7-10; Titus 3:14). But it is wrong if we get entangled in that or in any of the affairs of the world so that we fail to be good soldiers of Christ. We must have please the one who has chosen him to be a soldier. 5 Also if a person competes in athletic contests, he does not gain the victor's crown unless he competes according to the rules. 6 The hardworking farmer must be the first to get a share of the crop. 7 Consider what I say. May the Lord give you understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ, among the descendants of David, was raised from the dead according to my gospel, 9 for which I suffer trouble, as if I were a criminal, even to the point of chains. But the word of God is not chained. 10 So I endure everything for the sake of God's chosen ones, our priorities right. We must want to please our commanding officer (Christ) above all else – 2 Cor 5:9; Gal 1:10; Col 1:10; 1 Thess 4:1. Even if we are in a secular job or attending to some affair in the world we must always remember we are Christ's soldiers under His orders.

2:5 "Athletic contests" – believers are also like athletes in the spiritual realm – 1 Cor 9:24-27; Gal 5:7; Phil 3:13,14; Heb 12:1. There are crowns for winners – 4:8; Jam 1:12; 1 Pet 5:4; Rev 2:10. But no one will be a winner who does not obey the "rules." There are spiritual laws, training and discipline which believers must follow. If they do not they will lose the rewards they might otherwise obtain – 1 Cor 9:27; Col 2:18; 2 John 8; Rev 3:11.

2:6 1 Cor 9:10; Gal 6:9; John 4:36; Ps 126:5,6. Paul's emphasis here is on "hardworking." Compare 1 Cor 15:58.

2:7 Here are two things necessary to understand and apply any revelation from God. We must think, reflect, meditate, and the Lord must give insight, discernment, wisdom. Compare Ps 1:2; 1 Pet 1:13; Eph 1:18; Phil 1:9; Col 1:9; Jam 1:5.

2:8 Rom 1:3,4; Matt 28:6.

"Remember" – an exhortation we need because of the possibility of forgetting Him among our cares and pleasures, labors and relaxations. Compare Deut 6:12; 8:11. We are to keep Him in mind always, fix our thoughts on Him – Col 3:1,2; Heb 3:1; 12:2,3. It is the only way to peace, power and victory.

"My gospel" – Rom 2:16; 16:25; 1 Cor 15:1-4.

2:9 See 1:12. This is one error in thinking (among many) that opponents of the gospel fall into. They think they can bind God's Word by locking up God's servants, or destroy the gospel by destroying them. Actually by such methods they are often unwitting instruments for the spread of the gospel (Phil 1:12-14; Acts 8:3,4). Striking a seed-bearing plant scatters the seed.

2:10 Paul (an example set forth by God for us) did not live for himself or face sufferings for his own sake, but for Christ. Compare 1 Cor 9:19-23; 10:33-11:1; Acts 20:24.

"Chosen" – Matt 24:22,24,31; Rom 11:7; Titus 1:1. Here Paul means those that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 This is a faithful saying: For if we died with him, we will also live with him. 12 If we endure, we will also reign with him. If we deny him, he will deny us also. 13 If we are faithless, he remains faithful; he cannot deny himself.

14 Remind them of these things, and solemnly declare in the presence of the Lord that they must not quarrel about words, which is useless and ruins those who hear it. 15 Make every effort to show yourself approved to God, a workman who does not need to be ashamed, using the word of truth whom God has chosen for salvation and whom He has not yet brought into His kingdom. Compare John 6:37; Rom 8:29; Eph 1:4; 1 Pet 1:1,2.

"Eternal glory" – John 17:5,24; Rom 5:2; 8:17,18.

2:11 "Died with him" – Rom 6:2-8; Gal 2:20.

2:12 "Endure" – vs 10; Matt 10:22; 24:13; Rom 12:12; 1 Cor 13:7 – the Greek word contains the idea of patience or courage. Patiently, courageously enduring for Christ what He has given us to endure is a proof that faith is genuine.

"Reign" – Matt 19:28; Luke 1:33; Rev 5:10; 20:6; 22:5. This promise is not made to those who are not willing to endure hardship for Christ's sake.

"Deny" – Mat 10:33; Luke 12:9. Here Paul does not mean a temporary denial such as Peter's was (Matt 26:34,75), but a way of life.

2:13 Rom 3:3,4; Ps 57:10; 89:1,8,14,33; 117:2; Titus 1:2. The believer's expectation of salvation is based on God's faithfulness, not on his own. God can never act contrary to His Word or His nature.

2:14 Here are two duties of a pastor or teacher – reminding and warning. The people of God need both (Acts 20:31; Rom 15:15; 1 Cor 4:14; 15:1; Gal 5:21; 2 Thess 3:15; 2 Pet 1:12,13,15; 3:1).

"Quarrel about words" – some words are very important – God, Christ, truth, faith, love, salvation, etc. The realities these words represent are worth dying for. Paul here doubtless means quarreling about less important matters. Compare v 23; 4:4; 1 Tim 1:4; 4:7; 6:4. But quarreling about even the greatest matters is not the task of God's servants (vs 24,25), though they must proclaim them with much zeal, and stand for them with all the strength God gives.

2:15 Here is excellent instruction for every preacher, pastor, evangelist, or teacher.

"Approved" – Rom 16:10; 1 Cor 11:19; 2 Cor 10:18; Gal 1:10; 1 Thess 2:4.

"Ashamed" – if any servant of Christ turns out poor quality work because he is lazy or careless he cannot gain God's approval. Our work is going to be very carefully examined – 1 Cor 3:12-15. We should do it in such a way that we will not need to be ashamed when we stand before God.

rightly. 16 But avoid profane, empty babblings, for they will result in more ungodliness. 17 And their teaching will spread like gangrene. Among these are Hymenaeus and Philetus. 18 They have veered away from the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place. And they upset the faith of some. 19 Nevertheless the foundation of God stands firm, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are his"; and, "Let everyone who utters the name of Christ keep away from wickedness."

20 But in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and

"Word of truth" - in Eph 1:13 and Col 1:5 Paul defines this as the gospel of Christ. Here he may mean that, or, possibly, the whole of God's revelation in the Scriptures. To win God's approval we must learn to handle God's truth correctly and well. We need to understand it thoroughly and be able to teach it and explain it to others. It is the most important thing God has entrusted to us and we should study and labor accordingly.

"Using. . . rightly" - the Greek has a single word here. Originally its literal meaning was to cut straight, but it came to mean to accurately deal with a thing. In Paul's usage here it can hardly mean to cut or divide the Scriptures. Its more likely meaning is to use them accurately, rightly or in a straight way.

2:16 Verse 14; 1 Tim 1:6; 6:20.

2:17 "Gangrene" - this is the dying of body tissue. It happens when the blood supply is cut off. It spreads up a limb of the body until the limb has to be amputated. If neglected it kills the whole body. False teaching is like this. If it is allowed to spread in a church or denomination it can gradually bring it to a state of spiritual death. This is the reason why it must not be permitted to gain a foothold.

2:18 "Veered away from the truth" - 1 Tim 1:6,19,20; 6:10,21. The future resurrection of the dead is a clear teaching of Christ and His apostles - John 5:28,29; 1 Cor 15:20-23. By saying it was already past these false teachers dared to deny this teaching. They were saying that the resurrection is only spiritual - man's spirit being made alive now, not his body rising sometime in the future.

"Upset" - the false teachers were causing much confusion and some of the Christians for a time hardly knew what to believe. But if their faith was genuine it would not be destroyed.

2:19 Whatever false teachers may do they will not be able to destroy Christ's true Church or His people. God knows how to keep the foundation firm and His people believing (Matt 16:18; Luke 22:31,33; 1 Pet 1:4,5; 2 Pet 2:9).

"His" - John 6:37; 17:6; 1 Cor 6:19,20. "Keep away" if a person practices evil and yet claims to be a Christian, there is reason to doubt the reality of his faith. Compare clay, some valuable and some of no value. 21 So if a person cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a valuable vessel, sanctified, and useful to the Master, and prepared for every good work.

22 Also flee from youthful cravings, but follow righteousness, faith, love, and peace, together with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But avoid foolish and ignorant debates, knowing that they engender quarrels. 24 And the servant of the Lord must not quarrel, but be kind to everyone, able to teach, and patient. 25 He should humbly instruct those who oppose him, hoping

Rom 8:13,14; 1 Cor 6:9; Gal 5:24; Eph 5:5,6; 1 John 2:4,6; 3:9,10.

2:20,21 In the visible church in the world there are different kinds of people. Some belong to the Lord, and He knows who they are. Some do not belong to Him, and He knows who they are too (compare Matt 13:24-30, 36-43, 47-50). Here Paul compares these two kinds of people to two kinds of vessels or articles in a house. Compare Rom 9:21. Paul in the preceding verses has been speaking of false teachers and the need to turn away from wickedness. False teachers and those who practice wickedness in the church are like dishonorable vessels. God's true people must have nothing to do with them (3:5). If we want to be the kind of honorable "vessels" God wants us to be, we must do what He tells us in this verse. If we do not, we are in danger of being corrupted - 1 Cor 15:33.

2:22 See 1 Tim 6:11; 2 Pet 1:3-9. There are some things we should run from as from a great danger. Others we should run after. Some evil desires are very strong in young men. The best way to deal with them is to stay clear away from opportunities to satisfy them, and to flee if they appear.

"A pure heart" - Matt 5:8.

2:23 Verses 14,16. God's servants should never allow themselves to be distracted from their main task and should not engage in quarreling at all.

2:24 "Must not quarrel" - the Greek word is translated "fighting" in Acts 7:26. Verbal battles that have the sole aim of crushing an opponent do not promote the work of God. Of course, standing for the truth and reasoning with people in order to win them to Christ is good and necessary. But we should be careful that kind of situation does not develop into a useless quarrel. Our fight is not against men but against Satan - Eph 6:12.

"Able to teach" - 1 Tim 3:2.

"Patient" - opponents sometimes say cutting things, objectionable and unreasonable things, and make personal attacks. Christ's servants must learn to bear such things patiently and lovingly.

2:25 "Humbly" - compare Matt 11:29. If opponents of the truth do not receive instruction from us given in a humble, gentle way, they will not likely receive it in some other way. See the hope Christ's servants that perhaps God will grant them repentance leading them into a knowledge of the truth, 26 and that they may wake up and escape from the snare of the devil, who has taken them captive to do his will.

3 Understand this also: In the last days perilous times will come. 2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3 without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, lacking self-control, fierce, opposers of the good, 4 traitors, reckless, arrogant, lovers of pleasures rather than lovers of God, 5 having a should have when they instruct their opponents. Observe too that it is God who can enable men to repent, not our arguments or instruction (Acts 5:31). Notice also that it is only by repenting that men can come to a knowledge of God's truth.

2:26 "Come to their senses" – compare Luke 15:17. Those who oppose the gospel of Christ are spiritually out of their minds (compare Eccl 9:3). They behave in a senseless way against their own welfare. This is because Satan has taken them captive and they have believed his lies (compare John 8:44; Acts 26:18; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 2:2). Christ's servants must not be ignorant of the forces opposing them. They should understand also that it is only the power of God which can set men free, and that God may use our teaching of the truth to accomplish this.

3:1 "The last days" – Jam 5:3; 1 Pet 1:5; Jude 18 – the time at the end of this age. There have always been terrible times and people in the world such as Paul described in vs 2-4. Compare Rom 1:28-32. But Paul evidently means that the times will get worse and that such people will be in the outward visible church (v 5).

3:2-4 The word "lovers" is the key word in these verses. The terrible people of those terrible times will be "lovers" but altogether of the wrong kind. Their character will be opposed to the clear teaching of God's Word. They will be "lovers of themselves";

"lovers of money" – compare Luke 16:14; 1 Tim 6:10;

"lovers of pleasure" (v 4) – 1 Tim 5:6; Titus 3:3; Jam 4:3; 2 Pet 2:13.

They will be "without love" for what is good and right, for their parents and neighbors, for God. They will not be willing to give up sinful pleasures for Christ's sake, or obey Him in the matter of money or renounce anything they really want. By their attitude and actions they will show that they do not have the one kind of love that really matters – the love of God (1 John 2:15,16; Matt 22:37-40; 1 Cor 13:1-3; 16:22).

Because of this all the other evils in these verses will find a nest in their hearts and minds. Of all people they will have the least form of godliness but denying its power. Keep away from such people.

6 These are the sort who worm their way into households and take over silly women who are loaded down with sins and led away with various cravings, 7 always learning, but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. 8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so these also resist the truth, these men of corrupt minds, rejected in regard to the faith. 9 But they will proceed no further, for their folly will be made clear to everyone, just as theirs was.

10 But you have fully known my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faith, patience, love, to boast about, but they will boast. If they are rebuked they will get abusive. They will have no more gratitude than those of Rom 1:21. They will reveal they do not have God's forgiveness by refusing to forgive others. Believers will not be able to trust them or believe anything they say. Though they are spiritually blind and ignorant they will think they know everything and will not listen to godly teachers.

3:5 "Form of godliness" – outwardly they are Christians, inwardly they are fierce wolves (Matt 7:15). In other words, they are hypocrites. They can use Christian language but do not really know its meaning. They know nothing of the power of the gospel to save sinners (Rom 1:16), the power of Christ's Spirit to make men new (John 3:5-8). Not knowing this power in their own lives they deny it altogether.

"Keep away from such people" – compare 2:21; Matt 18:17; 1 Cor 5:11,13; 2 Cor 6:17; 2 Thess 3:6; Titus 3:10. Paul's telling Timothy to avoid them shows that there were such people then also. There are such in every generation. But it is probable that there will be even more of them as the end of the age approaches (Matt 24:10-14; 2 Thess 2:1-12).

3:6 Some of these hypocrites will seek for some people to deceive and control, and their eyes will fall on the women in the church. It seems they will consider them easier prey than the men.

3:7 This is the sad condition of many. They hear the truth again and again, and may even think they want the truth. But actually they do not, so they do not understand what they hear. This is the reason why opponents of the truth are able to lead them astray (2 Thess 2:10).

3:8 The names Jannes and Jambres appear nowhere in the Bible except here, but the opposition to Moses is recorded in Ex 7:10-12,22, etc.

"Corrupt minds" – 1 Tim 6:5.

3:9 They will not be able to conceal forever their lack of truth and power. Jannes and Jambres were exposed (Ex 8:18) and so will these hypocrites be.

3:10 Paul was not trying to get glory and honor for himself. He speaks in this way because he knew God had set him forth as endurance, 11 persecutions and hardships which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra. What persecutions I endured! But the Lord delivered me out of them all. 12 Yes, and all who want to live godly lives in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and hypocrites will go on getting worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14 But you must continue in the things you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you learned them, 15 and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures that are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 16 All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, 17 that the man of God may be perfectly prepared and thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4 Therefore I give you this charge in the presence of God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom: 2 Preach the Word. Be ready in season, out of season. Refute errors, rebuke, exhort with complete patience and teaching. 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but following their own an example of how believers and Christian workers should live, and he wanted Timothy to follow him (v 14; 1 Cor 11:1; Phil 3:17; 2 Thess 3:7; Acts 20:18-35).

3:11 Acts 13:49 - 14:20; 2 Cor 11:23-27.

3:12 John 15:18-21; 16:33; Acts 14:22; 1 Pet 4:1,12; Rom 8:17.

"In Christ" - 1:9. Persecution will vary from place to place, from time to time, from individual to individual. Sometimes it will result in physical sufferings, sometimes it will mean facing dislike and discrimination. But all godly believers will face it in some measure at some times in their lives.

3:13 They have an evil goal in life and will make steady progress toward it. Evil always results in further evil, deceiving others will result in becoming unable to recognize the truth oneself.

3:14 Verse 10; 1:13,14; 1 Tim 1:3.

3:15 "From childhood" - 1:5. The likely meaning is this: Even before they became Christians Timothy's mother and grandmother taught him the Old Testament ("Holy Scriptures"). They took seriously God's command in Deut 6:6,7; etc. Should Christian parents today do any less? - Eph 6:4. Now the "Holy Scriptures" are both the Old and the New Testaments in one holy book. Observe here that the O.T. when understood is able to make people "wise for salvation." Compare Luke 24:25-27,45-47; John 5:39,46.

"Faith. . . in Christ" - the Old Testament is not an end in itself, is not God's complete revelation. It points to Christ and proclaims to all men "have faith in Him."

3:16 By "all Scripture" Paul did not mean all that the various religions of the world regarded as holy books or as God-given writings. Absolutely not. He was referring to the Holy Bible. See also 2 Pet 1:20,21; Matt 4:4; 5:17,18; 15:3,4; 22:43; Mark 12:36; Luke 24:44; John 10:35; Acts 4:35; 1 Cor 2:13; Heb 1:5-13; 1 Pet 1:11; Rev 1:1; 2:1; 22:18,19. Compare Jer 1:2,9; etc. See the Introduction to Judges.

"All" - not some words of Scripture more than some others, not one book of the Bible more than some other.

"Inspiration of God" - the word literally means "God-breathed." God breathed His truth, His thoughts, His words into the minds of His servants the prophets, and He breathed His Spirit into their hearts and inspired them to write down exactly what He wanted them to write. And so the words of Scripture can be called "God-breathed." In another place it is said that man must live by every word that comes "from the mouth of God" (Matt 4:4).

Observe why God acted in this way. It was not that men should worship the Bible or merely regard it as sacred and hold it in awe. He gave the Bible that men might use it. Paul speaks of four ways in which it is useful - teaching the truth (about God, Christ, man, salvation, etc), rebuking sin and false teaching, correcting those who err or go astray, and training God's people how to behave righteously in an unrighteous world.

3:17 No servant of Christ can be thoroughly equipped for every good work without a thorough knowledge of the Bible. We may learn other things but let this be the chief study of our lives.

"Every good work" - 2:21; Eph 4:11-13; Heb 13:20,21.

4:1 How very solemnly Paul now speaks. He has something of very great importance to say.

"Judge"-John 5:27; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:16; 1 Cor 4:5; 2 Cor 5:10.

"Appearing" - v 8; 1 Tim 6:14; Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28.

"Kingdom" - Matt 4:17; 13:11; 19:28; 25:34; Luke 19:11,12; Acts 1:3,6.

4:2 "Preach the Word" - here is the great work of pastors, teachers and evangelists (and there is no greater work on earth). They are not to preach their opinions or the opinions of other men. The Word of God is to be their message and nothing else. Compare Matt 28:20; Mark 16:15; 1 Cor 1:23; 2:1-5; 2 Cor 4:5; 1 Pet 4:11.

"In season, out of season" - this speaks of being ready always whether in church or out of it, whether it is convenient or not.

"Refute. . . encourage" - 3:16; 1 Thess 3:2; 4:18; 1 Tim 5:20; Titus 1:9,13; 2:15; Heb 3:13; 10:25.

"Patience and teaching" - 2:24,25.

4:3,4 See 3:1; 1 Tim 4:1.

"Sound doctrine" - 1:13; 1 Tim 1:10,11; 6:3; Titus 1:9; 2:1.

desires they will heap up teachers for themselves because they will have itching ears. 4 And they will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn them to empty stories. 5 But you be watchful in everything. Endure hardships. Do the work of an evangelist. Make full proof of your ministry.

6 For I am now being poured out as a drink offering and the time of my departure is at hand. 7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my race, I have kept the faith. 8 Now there is reserved for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me in that day, and not to me only, but also to all those who love his appearing.

9 Make every effort to come to me quickly,

"Following their own desires" – such people wish to do what they please and hear what pleases them. Their question is not "what is true?" but "what makes me feel good?" (though they would not put it in these words). They do not want the truth, because the truth condemns their way of life and interferes with what they want to do. So they draw back from the light of truth into the darkness. This is their great sin and condemnation – John 3:18-20. To receive God's salvation we must desire the truth above everything else. But these people do not desire it and do not want to desire it. See 2 Thess 2:10-12.

"Empty stories" – 1 Tim 1:4; 4:7; Titus 2:14. They will prefer empty stories to God's truth.

4:5 "Hardships" – 2:3.

"Evangelist" – though Timothy was a pastor and teacher he was also to win people to Christ by preaching the gospel.

4:6 "Drink offering" – Phil 2:17.

"My departure" – evidently the Lord had revealed this to Paul.

4:7 "Fight" – 1 Cor 9:26; 2 Cor 10:4; 1 Tim 1:18; 6:12; Eph 6:10-18.

"Race" – 1 Cor 9:24; Gal 2:2; 5:7; Phil 3:13,14; Heb 12:1. His goal expressed in Acts 20:24 was reached.

"The faith" – the truth God gave as a foundation for faith. This had been entrusted to him (1 Cor 4:1; Eph 3:2-9). He kept it – kept it as the object of his own faith, and as the rule of his life, and kept it as a steward to give out to others. Because he had faithfully done this he could view his "departure" with great joy.

4:8 "Crown" – the Greek word used here (and in 1 Cor 9:25; Phil 4:1; 1 Thess 2:19; Jam 1:12; 1 Pet 5:4; Rev 2:10; 3:11) does not mean the sort of crown kings wear. It means a wreath made of leaves which was given to the winners in athletic contests in those days. Paul, his race over, looked forward to his "crown." Compare 1 Cor 9:25. Crown of righteousness means a crown which is the reward of the kind of righteous life he lived, a reward for fighting against unrighteousness, running a righteous race and keeping the righteous faith. Concerning 10 for Demas has deserted me, because he loved this present world, and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. 11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me in the ministry. 12 And I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. 13 When you come bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm. The Lord repay him for what he has done. 15 You too beware of him, for he has greatly resisted our words. 16 At my first defense no man stood with me, but everyone deserted me. May it not be put to their account. 17 However, the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through crowns see the references given above.

"That day" – 1:12,18; 2 Thess 1:10.

"Love his appearing" – what is the connection between a crown of righteousness and loving Christ's appearing? Only those who are living righteous lives will long for Christ to come again. And those who want Him to return will purify themselves. See 1 John 3:2,3. It is not enough to know about His coming and talk and preach about it. To earn the crown of righteousness we must earnestly desire it. 4:10 "Loved this present world" – a very sad thing to have to say of anyone. See 1 John 2:15-17.

4:11 "Luke" – Col 4:14; Philemon 24.

"Mark" – Acts 12:25; 13:5,13; 15:37,39; 1 Pet 5:13. After his failure Mark proved himself to be a faithful servant of God. It is a very good thing that God does not cast us off when we fail, but bears with us and works in us to make us better.

4:13 "Parchments" – scrolls were of papyrus (writing material made from a plant), parchments were made of the skins of animals. Paul does not tell us what was written on these particular ones.

4:14,15 See 1:15; 2:17; 1 Tim 1:20. Paul did not hesitate to name harmful individuals and warn people about them.

4:16 "Defense" – he was in prison and had to face a trial in court. Here he speaks of a preliminary investigation. Compare Acts chapter 24.

"Deserted me" – 1:15. Evidently Luke was not there at that time. It is highly unlikely that he would have deserted Paul. 4:17 Men may desert the servants of the Lord Jesus but the Lord will not – Heb 13:5,6. "Strengthened" – Isa 40:29-31. Compare Acts 18:9,10.

"Might hear" – Paul probably means those who conducted his trial and any others present who were Gentiles. The Lord gave Paul boldness even at such times to declare the gospel. Compare Matt 10:17-20; Mark 13:9; Luke 21:12-15; Acts 26:19-23.

"Mouth of the lion" – he means some kind of extreme danger, but whether physical or spiritual danger he doesn't say.

me the message might be fully known, and all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. 18 And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will keep me safe for his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household

4:18 "Deliver me" – he does not mean that the Lord will rescue him from death. He has already said the time of his death was near – v 6. But he is sure the Lord will preserve him from evil and take him to heaven in His way and at His time. Compare Matt 6:13. 4:19 "Prisca" (Priscilla) and "Aquila" – Acts 18:2,18,19,26; Rom 16:3.

of Onesiphorus. 20 Erastus stayed at Corinth, but I have left Trophimus at Miletum sick. 21 Make every effort to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and Pudens does too, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

4:21 Verses 9,13. Winter in that area could be very cold.

4:22 These are the last written words we have of the great apostle. He repeats two principal themes of his whole ministry – the presence of the Lord Jesus with His people and the grace of God which saves, keeps, and blesses them.

The Letter of the Apostle Paul to TITUS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime about 65 AD.

Themes:

As in his first letter to Timothy, Paul teaches how believers should behave and serve in the church of God, and toward one another. In all his letters Paul emphasizes the grace of God and he does so in this one in two great passages – 2:11-14; 3:3-7.

1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's chosen ones and the knowledge of the truth that is in accordance with godliness, 2 in expectation of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before the world began, 3 and at the proper time has revealed his word through preaching, which has been committed to me according to the command of God our Saviour,

4 To Titus, my own son in the common faith, grace, mercy and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should set in order what was lacking, and ordain elders in every city, as I had instructed you, 6 if there is anyone who is blameless, the husband of only one wife, having faithful children not accused of wildness or unruliness. 7 For an overseer in the church, as God's steward, must be blameless, not self-pleasing, not soon angry, not given to wine, not quarrelsome, not greedy for sordid gain, 8 but a lover of hospitality, a lover of what is good, able to think soundly, upright, holy, temperate, 9 holding firmly the faithful word as he has been taught, so that by sound doctrine he will be able both to exhort and to convince opponents.

10 For there are many unrestrained people, empty talkers and deceivers, especially from the

1:1 Rom 1:1; Gal 1:1; 1 Tim 1:1. Paul's great work was to bring people to faith in Christ, and to encourage and strengthen their faith by giving them the truth of God. Compare Rom 1:5,11,12. The truth Paul proclaimed as "in accordance with godliness" - to real devotion to the Lord Jesus Christ, to holiness of life (2:12). Any religious teaching that does not do this is false.

"God's chosen" - Rom 8:33; Col 3:12; John 6:37; 15:16; 17:6.

1:2 "In expectation of eternal life" - faith and knowledge of the truth do not rest on our expectation of eternal life, but Paul's work as a servant of God and the faith and knowledge of God's people are all related to the expectation of eternal life.

"Expectation" - clearer than "hope" for today's reader. Rom 5:2; 8:24,25; 1 Pet 1:3.

"Eternal life" - note at John 3:16. Sometimes eternal life is said to be a present possession of believers (John 3:36; 5:24). But the full manifestation and enjoyment of it is still in the future. Therefore the New Testament sometimes speaks of it as something believers enter into later on (3:7; Rom 2:7. Compare Rom 13:11; Heb 6:12; 1 Pet 1:5).

"Cannot lie" - Heb 6:18; Num 23:19; 1 Sam 15:29; Ps 31:5.

"Before the world began" - 2 Tim 1:9; Eph 1:4. How could God promise something to men even before He created mankind? He could make the promise to His Son and later reveal it to men.

1:3 "At the proper time" - Gal 4:4; John 7:30; 1 Tim 6:15.

"Preaching. . . committed to me" - Eph 3:2-9; 1 Tim 1:11; Gal 1:11-12.

1:4 1 Tim 1:2.

1:5 Crete is a large island in the Mediterranean Sea, south of Greece.

"Elders" - the same as overseers. See 1 Tim 3:1. Doubtless appointing elders in new churches was done in a way similar to the way we see in Acts 6:3-6.

1:6-9 See the list of qualities for an overseer in 1 Tim 3:2-7. Some qualities in this list are not found there; some in that list are not here. For the complete picture of what an elder or overseer (this is the same position - Acts 20:17,28) should be both these lists are necessary.

"Faithful children" - or "children who believe" - not only must the children of elders be obedient (1 Tim 3:4,5) they should be believers, faithful to the Lord.

"Not self-pleasing" - the Greek word means to be taken up with self and inconsiderate of others, to proudly assert one's own will.

"Not soon angry" - a church leader who gets angry easily and quickly can offend people and do much harm.

"Not greedy for sordid gain" - 1 Tim 3:8; 6:5-11.

"Lover of good" - compare Phil 4:8,9. If we do not love what is good, it means we love what is not good, and so are not fit for God's service (Matt 12:35). "Good" may also mean "good men."

"Able to think soundly" - 2:2,6; 2 Tim 1:7. A church leader must not be a victim of his desires and impulses.

"Upright" - 2:12. A crooked, unjust, unrighteous leader is a curse to a church, not a blessing.

"Holy" - if an elder is not holy, he is unholy and can never properly lead God's church in the way of holiness.

1:9 An elder must not only hold firmly to the Word of God, he must know it well enough to teach others the truth and be able to refute error.

"Sound doctrine" - see note at 1 Tim 1:3.

1:10 "Unrestrained people" - or "rebellious" or "disobedient" - literally "not subjected to rule." Such people rebel against God and the spiritual authority - 2 Tim 2:3,4; Heb 3:8,12; Deut 9:7,24; 31:27; Josh 22:18; 1 Sam 15:23; Ps 78:40,56; Isa 1:2,20.

"Empty talkers" - 1 Tim 1:6. Many like to talk about Christianity but have nothing meaningful to say and they do not put the truth into practice.

"Deceivers" - Matt 24:24; Rom 3:13; 16:18; 2 Cor 11:13; Eph 4:14; 1 Pet 3:10; Rev 21:27; Ps 50:19; 51:6; 101:7; Jer 14:14; etc.

"Circumcised group" - probably Paul means those Jews who professed to be circumcised ones, 11 whose mouths must be stopped, who destroy whole households, teaching things they ought not, for the sake of sordid gain. 12 One of them, a prophet of their own, has said, "The Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons." 13 This witness is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 and not pay attention to Jewish fables, and the commandments of men who turn away from the truth. 15 To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are unclean and unbelieving nothing is pure. Even their mind and conscience are unclean. 16 They profess to know God, but in works they deny him, being abominable and disobedient and unfit for any good work.

2 But as for you, speak the things that are appropriate to sound doctrine: 2 that the older men be sober, honourable, able to think Christ's followers (Gal 2:12; Acts 15:1,5). 1:11 "Stopped" – church leaders should not let such people preach and teach. They must refute their teaching (v 9), and rebuke them sharply (v 13).

"Households" – false teachers often go from house to house trying to find a foothold for their teaching (2 Tim 3:6).

"Sordid gain" – v 7; 1 Tim 6:5,9,10.

1:12,13 "Cretans" – v 5. These words are attributed to a poet of Crete. Paul from his own experience with Cretans had learned the truth of the poet's words. People of each nation have certain general characteristics which have been formed by their social and religious background. These traits of character are clear to those who know the people well.

"Sound in the faith" – those who rebuke others should have a good purpose in mind. Compare 2 Tim 2:24-26.

1:14 "Fables" – 1 Tim 1:4.

"Commandments" – Col 2:21,22. Some people try to exercise authority over Christians even though they have no right whatever to do so.

1:15 "Pure" – Luke 11:41; Mark 7:15,19; Rom 14:20; 1 Tim 4:3-5; Matt 5:8; 6:22,23.

"Unclean" – many religious people who are corrupt in heart are very careful about outward rules and ceremonies and "clean" and "unclean" foods, etc. See Matt 23:25-28. Paul says that in fact nothing is clean or pure to such people. They are sinners who refuse to believe God's Son and so they defile everything they touch.

"Conscience" – Acts 23:1; 24:16; 1 Cor 8:7; 1 Tim 1:5,19; 4:2; Heb 9:14. 1:16 Many people who do not know God claim that they do – John 8:41; Rom 2:17.

"Deny him" – what they do reveals that they do not know God and have no regard for Him (Rom 2:24; 1 John 2:4-6; 3:10; Matt 7:17-20). Their words are in sharp contrast with their deeds.

soundly, sound in faith, in love, in patient endurance. 3 Teach the older women also to be reverent in behaviour, not slanderers, not addicted to much wine, but teachers of good things, 4 so that they can teach the young women to think soundly, to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to be discreet, pure, homemakers, good, and obedient to their husbands, so that the word of God may not be blasphemed.

6 Likewise exhort the young men to think soundly. 7 In all things make yourself an example in good works. In doctrine show integrity, seriousness, sincerity, 8 and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that your opponents may be ashamed, having nothing bad to say about you.

9 Instruct slaves to obey their own masters and to please them well in everything, not to talk back, 10 not to steal, but to show complete

2:1 Verse 15; 1:9; 1 Tim 1:3. Teaching the truth is the best defense against false teachings.

2:2-10 Good teaching will be suited to the particular needs or weaknesses of different classes of people. Teachers in the church should minister to every kind of person.

2:2 "Love" – the love that comes from God (1 Cor 13:1).

"Patient endurance" – Rom 5:3,4; 15:4,5; 2 Cor 1:6; Col 1:11; 1 Thess 1:3; Rev 1:9.

2:3-5 "Teach" – compare 1 Cor 14:3,4; 1 Tim 2:11,12. Christian women can have a valuable teaching ministry. "Good things" – Paul is probably speaking of practical matters of the Christian life, not doctrine.

"Blasphemed" – if Christian women rebel against their husbands, are unkind, impure, etc, they will bring a bad name not only to themselves but to the Word of God they profess to believe and follow. This was always an important concern to Paul – 1 Tim 6:1.

2:6 "Think soundly" – it is all too easy for the young to be frivolous or unrestrained in thought and behavior, and no doubt many of them need this exhortation – not to say that older ones do not sometimes need it too.

2:7,8 Teaching others the truth is not enough. Teachers must be examples of what they teach – 1 Tim 4:12, etc.

"Opponents may be ashamed" – 1 Pet 3:16. There will always be some who oppose true teachers of God's word and search for some reason to speak ill of them. So much the more careful Christ's servants should be in both words and actions.

2:9,10 Eph 6:5-8; 1 Tim 6:1,2.

"Complete trustworthiness" – Eph 4:28; Luke 16:10.

"Adorn the teaching" – every believer should make the gospel of Christ appear to others to be the beautiful thing it is. This is the way to make others want to believe it. Compare 1 Pet 2:9; Matt 5:16.

trustworthiness, so that they may adorn the teaching of God our Saviour in every way.

11 For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared for all men, 12 and teaches us to reject ungodliness and worldly desires, and to live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world, 13 as we look for the blessed hope and the glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ, 14 who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all wickedness and purify for himself a special people, eager to do good deeds.

2:11 3:4-6; Eph 2:8,9; Rom 6:23.

"Grace" – notes at John 1:14,16; Rom 1:7; 2 Cor 8:9; etc.

"The grace of God that brings salvation has appeared for all men" – or this may be translated "The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all men." This does not mean that all men will be saved but that salvation is for all kinds of men wherever they are – for slaves and masters, young and old, women and men, Jews and Gentiles.

"Salvation" – notes at Matt 1:21; Rom 1:16.

2:12 God's grace is like a wise teacher, teaching believers both how to live and how not to live. It does not say to us "Because I have given you the gift of salvation you may live as you please." See Rom 6:1,15-18; Eph 4:22-24. It teaches us to say "no" to sin, self, and Satan, and "yes" to goodness, godliness and God. If we have not learned these things we might well ask, Is grace our teacher at all? Has grace saved us? Learning by grace how to live is the true evidence that we have spiritual life in Christ.

"Reject. . .worldly desires" – because of what the world is. See 1 John 2:15-17; 5:19; also notes at Rom 12:1,2.

"Soberly" – the Greek word means "with sound mind", "in control of one's thoughts."

2:13 "The blessed hope" – notes on hope at Rom 5:2; 8:24,25. Christ Himself is our hope (Col 1:27; 1 Tim 1:1) and will be the fulfillment of all we as believers desire. His coming will be a blessed time, a happy time for those who are saved by grace.

"Glorious appearing" – this could also be translated "appearing of the glory." See Matt 16:27; 24:30; 25:31. Observe closely that Paul says that he and other believers looked for the appearance of Christ in glory. This does not suggest a secret rapture.

"Our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ" – this translation is in accordance with the Greek here and with the teaching of the whole New Testament concerning Christ. See references at Phil 2:6. In the Old Testament the LORD (Jehovah God) is the Saviour (Isa 49:26; 60:16). In the New Testament the Lord Jesus is the Saviour. In other words, Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah. See note at Luke 2:11.

2:14 "Gave himself for us" – Rom 5:8; 2 Cor 5:21; Gal 2:20; Heb 9:28; 1 Pet 2:24; 3:8.

15 Speak these things, and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Do not let anyone despise you.

3 Remind them to be subject to rulers and those in authority, to be obedient and ready for any good work, 2 not to speak evil of anyone, not to be quarrelsome, but gentle, showing complete humility toward everyone.

3 For in time past we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various desires and "Redeem" – Ps 78:35; 130:8; Matt 20:28; Rom 3:24; Eph 1:7; Col 1:14; Heb 9:12,15; 1 Pet 1:18.

"All wickedness" – Matt 1:21; Gal 1:4; Heb 13:12.

"Purify" – Eph 5:25-27; John 15:3; Heb 9:14; 1 John 1:7,9; 2 Cor 7:1. Compare Ezek 37:23. Notes on holiness at John 17:17-19; Lev 20:7.

"For himself" – John 6:37; 17:6; 1 Cor 6:19,20; 1 Pet 2:9,10. Compare Ex 19:5.

"Eager to do good deeds" – Matt 5:16; Rom 12:11; Heb 13:6; 1 Tim 6:18. This is a good description of the kind of people the Lord Jesus wants us to be. It is the opposite of what the sinful nature in men is like. That is eager to do evil. Believers have a new spiritual nature and it should not be necessary to compel us to do good. We should have no reluctance. Enthusiasm and zeal to do good should flow up out of our hearts. This too is evidence that we have been saved by grace and are being taught by grace – Matt 7:17-20; 12:33-35; Heb 6:9-11.

2:15 "Speak these things" – vs 11-14. Paul has set forth many of the basic truths of salvation – the grace of God, self-denial and devotion to God, the second coming of Christ, the deity of Christ, redemption through Christ, Christ's purification of His people, and the spiritual life believers are to live. These are things every Christian teacher and preacher should emphasize. If any teach contrary to these things it is because there is no truth in them (1 Tim 6:3-5).

"Authority" – 1 Tim 4:11-13; 1 Pet 4:11.

3:1 Rom 13:1-7.

3:2 Rom 12:16-18; Gal 5:22,23; Eph 4:31,32; Phil 2:3; Col 3:12; Jam 3:13.

3:3 "We too" – Rom 3:9-19; Eph 2:1-3. Observe the words which describe those who do not know and serve the Lord Jesus Christ.

"Foolish" – Ps 14:1; Jer 5:21,22; 10:8; Matt 7:26; Rom 1:21,22.

"Disobedient" – Rom 5:19; 10:21; 11:30-32; Eph 2:2; 5:12; Isa 1:2; Jer 5:23.

"Deceived" – Gen 3:13; Jer 17:9; 1 Cor 12:2; 2 Tim 3:13; Heb 3:13; Rev 12:9.

"Serving. . .desires and pleasures" – John 8:34; Rom 6:16,17; 7:14; Gal 4:3; Heb 2:15.

And what is the result of life lived under these four powers of foolishness, disobedience, deception and enslavement? Some of the worst passions possible to men pleasures, living in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another. 4 But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, 5 he saved us, not by righteous deeds that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the washing of new birth and renewing by the Holy Spirit, 6 whom he poured on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, 7 so that having been justified by his grace, we would become heirs in accordance with the expectation of eternal life.

8 This is a trustworthy saying, and I want you to declare these things constantly, that those who have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable for men.

9 But avoid foolish debates and genealogies or to demons – malice (Ps 28:3), envy (Matt 27:18), and hatred (Lev 19:17).

3:4 “But” – compare Rom 3:21; Eph 2:4.

“Kindness and love” – John 3:16; Rom 2:4; 5:8; Gal 2:20; Eph 2:7; 1 John 3:16; 4:8-10.

“God our Saviour” – note at 1 Tim 1:1.

3:5 “Mercy” – Eph 2:4; 1 Pet 1:3; 2:10. This means God saw us in our spiritual need and helplessness, had compassion on us, and saved us though we did not deserve any good thing from His hand. Compare Luke 18:13,14; Rom 6:23; 9:16,18; 11:32; Eph 2:8,9; 2 Tim 1:9.

“Washing of new birth” – compare Eph 5:26. This new birth has nothing to do with the teaching that men are born on earth physically again and again (Job 11:12; John 3:3; 9:3). “Washing” here has nothing to do with water baptism. The new birth itself is the washing and this is an inner spiritual work of God, not an outward ceremony. This work of God gives us a new, holy nature. See John 1:12,13; 3:3-8; 2 Cor 5:17; Eph 2:5; Jam 1:18; 1 Pet 1:3. Compare Ezek 36:26,27.

“Renewing” – Col 3:10; Eph 4:23,24; 2 Cor 4:16.

“Holy Spirit” – notes at John 14:16,17; Acts 1:5. The Holy Spirit both gives us new birth and continues to work in us making us new people.

3:6 “Poured out” – Acts 1:5,8; 2:4,33; 10:44; Rom 8:9,15.

“Through Jesus” – God gives His Spirit only through Christ, and only to those who trust in Christ (Gal 3:1,2,14; etc).

“Saviour” – v 4; 1 Tim 1:1.

3:7 “Justified by His grace” – note at Rom 3:21-26.

“Heirs” – Rom 8:17; 1 Cor 6:9; 15:50; Eph 1:14; Heb 9:15; 1 Pet 1:3-5.

“Hope of eternal life” – 1:2.

3:8 “These things” – 2:15.

“Good” – 2:14; Jam 2:14.

3:9 See 1:13,14; 1 Tim 1:4,7; 6:4; 2 Tim 2:14-16,23,24. Paul is saying that preachers and controversies and quarrels about the Law, for they are unprofitable and useless. 10 Reject a person who chooses to follow heresy, after a first and second warning. 11 Know that such a person is twisted and sinning, and stands self-condemned.

12 After I have sent Artemas or Tychicus to you, make every effort to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. 13 Make every effort to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos for their journey, so that they will lack nothing. 14 Our people must learn also to maintain good deeds, to provide for pressing needs, so that they will not be unfruitful.

15 Everyone with me greets you. Greet them who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all. Amen.

and teachers should not be diverted from their main task of declaring the important truths God has revealed. They should stick to the heart of the gospel and emphasize those things which are useful and build people up in the faith. Observe in vs 8,9 what is spiritually profitable and what is not. 3:10 “Heresy” – a belief or opinion or teaching contrary to the teaching of the Bible. The Greek word here may also be translated “a divisive person”, because that is what such belief does. Compare Rom 16:17. Paul means those who try to divide the church by teaching false doctrines. He found them in churches everywhere and warned believers about them – Acts 20:29,30; Gal 1:7; 1 Tim 1:3,4. Such people must be warned, but if they will not repent in the face of two warnings there is no use giving them further warnings. All that is left is to reject them and have nothing further to do with them – Rom 16:17, etc.

3:11 By rejecting the solemn warnings of God’s servants he proves he is sinful and has a twisted mind which does not want the truth. And by doing so he condemns himself.

3:12 “Tychicus” – Acts 20:4; Eph 6:21; Col 4:7; 2 Tim 4:12. There was a small band of preachers and teachers under Paul’s leadership and guidance whom he sent from place to place as the need arose.

“Nicopolis” – there were several towns of this name in the Roman Empire and we cannot be sure which one Paul means here.

3:13 “Apollos” – Acts 18:24-28.

3:14 See the great emphasis in this letter on doing good – vs 1,8; 1:16; 2:7,14. God wants us to devote ourselves to doing good to others – give ourselves completely to it. By “pressing needs” he probably means the needs of others as well as one’s own – Acts 20:35; Rom 12:13; Eph 4:28.

“Unfruitful” – compare John 15:8,16.

3:15 “Who love us in the faith” – who love us because both they and we are believers in Christ.

The Letter of the Apostle Paul to PHILEMON

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime about 60 AD.

Theme:

Paul wrote this letter while he was in prison, being persecuted for preaching the gospel. Onesimus, a slave belonging to Philemon, had run away from his master and come to the place where Paul was. He heard the gospel through Paul and believed in Christ. Now Paul is sending him back to Philemon. The name Onesimus means "profitable." Though he may have been useless to Philemon in time past, now being changed by God's grace he was useful to Philemon, to Paul, and above all, to Christ Himself. This is one thing the gospel of Christ accomplishes in those who believe it: It makes useless people useful. An important theme in this little letter is the love that believers should show toward God's children no matter how low their station in life may be.

1 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our dear brother and fellow worker, 2 and to our dear Apphia and Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

3 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, always mentioning you in my prayers, 5 for I hear of your love and faith which you have for the Lord Jesus and for all saints, 6 that the sharing of your faith may become effective by knowing every good thing that is in you in Christ Jesus. 7 For we have great joy and encouragement in your love because the hearts of the saints are refreshed by you, brother.

8 Therefore, though I could be very bold in Christ to order you to do what is fitting, 9 yet instead, for love's sake, I appeal to you as Paul an old man and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. 10 I appeal to you on behalf of my son Onesimus; in my chains I have become his father.

11 In time past he was not profitable to you, but now is profitable to you and to me.

12 I have sent him back to you. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart. 13 I wanted to keep him with me, so that in your place he could be of service to me in the bonds of the gospel, 14 but without knowing your mind I would do nothing, so that your good deed would not be like something forced, but voluntary. 15 For perhaps he left you for a time that you might receive him for ever, 16 not now as a slave, but more than a slave, a dear brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the body and in the Lord?

17 So if you count me a partner, receive him as myself. 18 If he has wronged you, or owes you anything, put that to my account. 19 I Paul have

1 "Prisoner" - Eph 3:1; 4:1; 2 Tim 1:8.

"Timothy" - Phil 1:1; Acts 16:1-3.

"Philemon" - this is the only place in the Bible he appears.

2 "Apphia" - we are not told who she was.

"Archippus" - Col 4:17.

"Soldier" - 2 Tim 2:2; 4:7.

"House" - Rom 16:5; 1 Cor 16:19; Col 4:15.

3 Rom 1:7.

4,5 Rom 1:8; 1 Cor 1:4; Eph 1:15,16; Phil 1:3; Col 1:3,4; 1 Thess 1:2; 2 Tim 1:3.

6 "By knowing" - knowing what we have in Christ and sharing our faith effectively are intimately connected. The more we know what we have in Him, the better we can speak to others and treat them with kindness.

"In Christ" - Rom 6:3-8; Eph 1:1,4.

7 "Refreshed" - v 20; Rom 15:32; 1 Cor 16:18; 2 Cor 7:13; 2 Tim 1:16. This is what loving fellowship, generosity, and kindness do.

"Saints" - Rom 1:7.

8,9 As a servant of Christ Paul could have set before Philemon his duty as a believer, and the commands of Scripture. But Philemon had already shown that he had love in his heart (v 7), and so Paul appeals to him on that basis.

"Old man" - Paul was then probably about 60 years of age. Compare Acts 7:58.

10 "Son" - he means spiritual son, not literal. Compare 1 Tim 1:2. Through Paul's teaching Onesimus received new birth in Christ (John 1:12,13). Being in prison did not stop Paul from witnessing for Christ.

11 The name Onesimus means "useful." He was a slave of Philemon (v 16) who had run away and become useless to him. But having become a child of God he became useful in a far higher sense.

12 "My own heart" - such was the love the great apostle had for one from what men regarded as the lowest class of society. This is what Christ's love can do in anyone who will receive it.

13,14 Paul was sure that Philemon would have gladly been a help to him if he had been where Paul was. But he would not try to use another man's servant without consent. If a favor is forced and not free, it is no favor at all. This is true also of any gift we make to God or to His people - 2 Cor 9:7.

15,16 "Slave" - notes at Eph 6:5; Ex 21:2.

"A dear brother" - Col 4:9. In Christ masters and slaves, rich and poor, educated and uneducated, those whom men regard as high caste or as low caste or as outcaste, are all brothers and one people and one body - Col 3:11; Gal 3:28; 1 Cor 12:12,13. Any Christian who does not accept this is rejecting a very important truth revealed by God Himself. Exalting ourselves over those considered lower is very offensive to God.

17-19 Paul had learned this from Christ. He knew that God accepts believers as He does His own Son - Acts 15:8; Rom 5:2; 14:3; Eph 2:18. He knew that we must accept one another as Christ accepts us - Rom 15:7. He knew that accepting someone a person sends is the same as accepting the person who sent him - John 13:20. He knew that all the wrongs, sins, and spiritual debts of believers have been put to Christ's account and that Christ paid them in full - Isa 53:5,6; Rom 8:33,34; 2 Cor 5:19-21. Paul had learned what love is and what these divine principles mean, and was happy to put them into practice. So must we be. We should be happy to pay the debts of other believers as Christ has paid our debts, and to accept other believers who have offended us as God has accepted us who have offended Him.

"Your very self" - Paul probably means that Philemon had come to Christ and gained salvation through Paul's ministry. Philemon had gained this great thing through Paul. So he should be willing to written this with my own hand, I will pay it back; but I do not need to tell you that you owe me even your very self. 20 Yes, brother, let me rejoice in the Lord because of you. Refresh my heart in the Lord. 21 I have confidence in your obedience and so write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

22 Moreover, prepare a place for me to stay, overlook the offenses of another brother in Christ whom Paul loved.

20 This benefit was not for himself but for one who was dear to him.

"Refresh" - v 7.

21 "Obedience" - not obedience to a command, for Paul gave none (vs 8,9), but obedience to the high principles of love. This is the best of all kinds of obedience. We should do things to please Christ for I trust that through your prayers I shall be granted to you.

23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, 24 as do Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow workers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Amen.

simply because we love Him, and to help others on the same basis.

22 Because of the prayers of Philemon (and others) Paul expected to be released from prison. Compare Acts 12:5-11.

23 "Epaphras" - Col 1:7; 4:12.

24 "Marcus" - Mark - 2 Tim 4:11.

"Aristarchus" - Col 4:10.

"Demas, Luke" - Col 4:14.

25 Rom 1:7; 16:20.

HEBREWS

Author:

Unknown. Some scholars believe that the apostle Paul wrote this letter. Some have suggested others as the possible author – Apollos, Silas, Barnabas, etc. The author does not make himself known in the letter, and the Bible does not inform us who he was in any other place, so we conclude that we cannot now know and do not need to know who wrote it. It is enough to know that it was written by divine inspiration and that God caused it to be included among the books of the Bible.

Date:

Sometime shortly before 70 AD when the Roman army came to Jerusalem and destroyed the city and the temple and exiled all the remaining Jews.

Themes:

The greatness of the Lord Jesus Christ and the greatness of the New Covenant which He made. The writer shows clearly that in every way the New Covenant is better than the Old Covenant God made with Israel through Moses. Some Jewish Christians, being persecuted because of their faith in Christ, were tempted to abandon the teachings about Christ they had received and to go back to the old ways. Therefore the writer not only shows the greatness of the New Covenant but also gives 5 very severe warnings to those who were possibly thinking of turning away from it. Another leading theme of this letter is announced in the first two verses and in 12:25: God has spoken, not merely through His prophets, but through His own Son, and everyone should listen and obey. Two of the key words in this letter are “better” (1:4; 7:19,22; 8:6; 9:23; 10:34; 11:16,35,40; 12:24) and “faith.” The Bible’s great chapter on faith is in this letter (chapter 11).

1 God, who in time past, at various times and in diverse ways spoke to the fathers by the prophets, 2 in these last days has spoken to us by his Son, whom he has appointed heir of all things, and by whom also he made the worlds.

3 The Son is the brightness of God's glory, and

1:1 "God. . .spoke" – this is one of the great themes of this letter. What God spoke is recorded in the Old Testament. Compare Matt 4:4; 2 Pet 1:21; 2 Tim 3:16. See how the following verses in this letter are introduced: They reveal God speaking – 1:6,7,8,10; 2:11-13; 3:7; 4:3; 5:5,6; 6:13,14; 7:21; 8:8; 10:5,15-17; 12:25,26; 13:5.

"In diverse ways" – see Gen 15:1,12; 18:1,10; 28:12-15; Ex 3:1-4; 19:20; 25:22; 33:11; 34:5-7; Josh 5:13-15; 2 Sam 23:1-3; 1 Kings 19:11-13; Isa 6:1-8; Jer 1:4,9,10; Ezek 2:1,2; Dan 8:15-18; 9:20-22.

"The fathers" – ancestors of the Hebrews.

"Prophets" – those men whom God inspired and sent to speak His messages in the Old Testament. Notes at Gen 20:7; etc. Since it was the one true God who spoke through the prophets, obviously the study of the Old Testament is very important for an understanding of His will and ways.

1:2 Verses 1 and 2 give the first of several comparisons in Hebrews.

"His Son" – see John 7:16,17; 8:28; 12:49,50; 17:8. Jesus was the final great prophet spoken of in Deut 18:18,19. In vs 2-4 the writer of this letter says nine very important things about Jesus the Son of God.

"Heir" – the writer begins to show who the Son of God is and how much greater He is than the prophets. Heir means one who is to come into possession of what is willed to him.

"Made the worlds" – v 10; Gen 1:1; John 1:1-3; 1 Cor 8:6; Col 1:16. The Son was in existence before the universe was made – He did not become God's Son by being born on earth (John 17:5; Col 1:17). Note on "Son" at Matt 3:16,17; 11:27; John 3:16; 5:18-23.

1:3 "God's glory" here means the divine nature itself. God can be described as "light" (1 John 1:5). Christ is the shining forth of that light (compare Luke 1:78,79; 2:29-32; John 1:4,5,9; 8:12; 2 Cor 4:6). The radiance of the sun reveals the sun and is of the very nature of the sun. In the same way Christ reveals God and has the very nature of God – John 1:14,18; 10:30; 14:9; other references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11. Only one who shared God's nature could be the radiance of God's glory. He is "light of light."

"Exact image of His nature" – compare 2 Cor 4:4; Col 1:15. The Greek word translated "nature" means "substance", "essence", "actual being", "real nature." God in His eternal spiritual being dwells in "unapproachable light" and is invisible (1 Tim 6:16; John 1:18). He became the exact image of his nature, and upholds all things by the word of his power. When he had by himself purged our sins he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 being made so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they.

visible in Christ. God's nature and attributes appear fully in Christ (Col 2:9). Christ reveals in His own person exactly what God is like. This too, could be said only of one who shared God's nature. See further references at Phil 2:6.

"By the word of his power" – compare Col 1:17. His Word speaks of His will – what He says is done. The universe with its galaxies, constellations, stars, sun, and planets holds together and is kept from collapsing by the power of Jesus Christ. By Him it moves forward to the purpose He has for it. In this too, we see that Christ shares the very nature of God. Who but God Himself could have a word and will so powerful as to uphold the whole universe?

"Purged our sins" – this means that Jesus, by the sacrifice of Himself on the cross, provided the way for men to be cleansed from their sins (7:27; 9:26; Matt 26:28; 10:10; 1 John 1:7; John 1:29; Rev 1:5). He did this "by himself." No man had any contribution to make to this divine work.

"He sat down" – v 13; 2:9; 10:12; Ps 110:1; Mark 16:19; Acts 2:33; Rev 3:21. By His sacrifice on the cross, the work of providing cleansing from sin was finished, and Jesus sat down at the highest place of power and glory in the universe.

1:4 In showing Christ's superiority to the prophets (vs 1,2), the writer has shown His superiority to the angels as well. Note on angels at Gen 16:7.

"Being made" – the Greek word also means "having become." He was superior to the angels before He came to earth. But as a man on earth He was a "little lower than the angels" – 2:9. After His resurrection, He rose to a place higher than the angels.

"A more excellent name" – judging from the next verse this superior name is "Son." "Son" here means one who shares the nature of God and is to be worshiped, the Lord of the universe (vs 6,8,10). Compare Phil 2:9-11. Jesus, born into the world in a position lower than the angels, "inherited" this name which belonged to the Son of God before the universe came into existence.

It is possible that some of the "Hebrews" did not have a right understanding of who Christ is. Some may have thought that He is some sort of angel, or a person whom God created as He had the angels. This chapter shows the falsity of such views. But in showing the superiority of Christ over the angels the writer is certainly aiming at this great point: the superiority of the new covenant established by Christ over the old covenant of the Law. And the old covenant was given through angels – 2:2.

- 5 For to which of the angels did God ever say,
 You are my Son,
 this day have I begotten you.
 And again,
 I will be a Father to him, and he will be a Son to me.
- 6 And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says,
 And let all the angels of God worship him.
- 7 He says of the angels,
 Who makes his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
- 8 But he says to the Son,
 Your throne, O God, is forever and ever.
 A sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of your kingdom.
- 9 You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness,

therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your associates.

- 10 And he also says,
 You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.
- 11 They will perish, but you remain.
 All of them will wear out like a cloak,
- 12 And like a garment you will fold them up, and they will be changed.
 But you are always the same,
 and your years will not end.
- 13 But to which of the angels did he ever say, Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool?
- 14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to serve those who will be heirs of salvation?

1:5 See Ps 2:7; 2 Sam 7:14. No angel can claim the title "God's Son" for himself (see note at John 3:16). In 2 Sam 7:14 God is speaking first of David's son Solomon. But He knew a greater than Solomon would come who would be the Son of David and the Son of God (Rom 1:3,4; Isa 9:6).

1:6 "Firstborn" – in Greek this term signifies the pre-eminent One. It would not be incorrect to call even God the Father the "Firstborn" – meaning the pre-eminent one in the universe. See note at Col 1:15. The word need not refer to a literal birth of any kind (see Ps 89:27 – "appoint him my firstborn").

"Worship him" – these words appear in Deut 32:43 in the Greek translation of the Hebrew Old Testament (Septuagint). Here the Holy Spirit puts His stamp of approval on these words. See also Ps 97:7. Because angels are to worship Christ it is clear that He is far above them. It is also clear that Christ shares the nature of God – otherwise God would not command angels to worship Him. In the Bible worship is to be for God alone (see Matt 4:10).

1:7,8 See Ps 104:4; Ps 45:6,7. These verses show that angels are beings God has created. The Son of God is not a created being but shares God's nature. In v 8 God the Father speaks to the Son and says through the prophet David – "Your throne, O God." Some who deny Christ's deity have tried to translate this "God is your throne." This is an absurd translation. It actually makes Christ greater than God – for greater is the One who sits on a throne than the throne itself. See other references to Christ's deity at Phil 2:6.

1:9 "Your God" – God the Father – Eph 1:3.
1:10-12 "And again" – see Ps 102:25-27. Here is another example of God speaking through a prophet. And He speaks of Christ the Son of God (v 8) as "Lord" and says in v 10 that Christ created the heavens and earth. This is further proof that Christ shares God's nature, for God alone is the Creator (Gen 1:1). In vs 11,12 God says that the Son is unchangeable and eternal. These are attributes only God has. And who but God could ever fold up the heavens "like a garment" (v 12)? And Christ will do that. Also we should note that psalm 102 is a prayer to Jehovah God (102:1), but here the writer says it is a prayer to Christ. In other words, Christ is the incarnation of Jehovah. See other references at Luke 2:11.

1:13 See Ps 110:1. Only to Christ His Son has God given the highest place in the universe.

1:14 Christ is the Lord of men (v 10; Rom 14:9; Phil 2:9-11). But the angels are sent to serve those who will inherit salvation, those who are believers in Christ. "Salvation" here means the final step in their salvation – Rom 8:23,29,30; 1 Pet 1:5. We are not told here what service angels perform for us. Notes on angels at Gen 16:7.

With these words the writer has finished his first main point – God has spoken through His own Son who shares His nature and who is far greater than all men and all angels. We may be sure that God's revelation through His Son is His final revelation. After sending His own Son and speaking through Him, why should He go back to His former method and choose a prophet from among men to speak through?

2:1-4 This is the first of five very severe warnings in this letter. The others are 3:7-19; 6:1-8; 10:26-31; 12:25-29. The warnings are against treating the gospel lightly (2:3), unbelief (3:12,19), falling away (6:6), deliberately going on in sin (10:26), and refusing God and His revelation of truth

2 Therefore we ought to pay more careful attention to the things we have heard, lest at any time we drift away from them. 2 For if the word spoken by angels was firm, and every violation of the Law and every disobedience was justly paid back in full, 3 how will we escape, if we neglect so great salvation, which at the first was spoken by the Lord, and which was confirmed to us by those who heard him? 4 God also gave witness with them, both with signs and wonders, and with many (12:25). These five things can be summed up in one word – apostasy. Apostasy means to rebel against God and to turn away from the truth He has revealed.

2:1 “Therefore” – since God has spoken by His own Son who is incomparably great we must regard what He has said with exceptional care.

“What we have heard” – the gospel of Christ.

“Drift away” – from the truth God has given to us. Drifting is one of the easiest of things. It requires no effort, only a lack of effort. There are currents in the world that bear people away from Christ. To drift downstream on any such current is to head for disaster.

2:2 “Spoken by angels” – this “message” was the law that came through Moses at Mount Sinai (Exodus chapter 19, etc). Nothing was said of angels at that time, but the Jews believed that God used angels in the giving of the law. Gal 3:19 confirms this. See also Acts 7:53.

“Firm” – it was God’s law the angels spoke and He demanded obedience to it (Ex 19:5; Lev 18:1-5; Deut 6:1-3; 32:45-47), and punished disobedience (Lev 26:14-39; Deut 28:15-68; 2 Kings 17:7-20).

2:3 “Salvation” – the salvation God has provided through Christ (Rom 1:16). The writer’s point is this: God’s revelation through His Son (the gospel, the new covenant) is greater than His revelation through angels (the law). Those who neglected God’s law did not escape; neither will they escape who neglect the gospel of Christ. The gospel is a revelation of God’s love and grace, and provides salvation for men. But this does not mean that those who hear the gospel and treat it lightly can escape punishment. Rather their punishment will be more certain and more terrible because that which they ignore is greater than any previous revelation.

This salvation is called “so great.” Christ’s gospel is exceedingly great in:

- Its Author – God Himself,
- Its certainty – many infallible proofs (Acts 1:3)
- Its uniqueness – there is one, and only one true gospel – John 14:6; Acts 4:12
- Its saving power – 7:25; Rom 1:16,
- Its revelation of love and grace – Rom 5:8,
- Its satisfaction of justice – Rom 3:25,26,
- Its permanent results – 9:12; 10:10,14;

kinds of miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will.

5 For it is not to the angels that he has subjected the world to come, of which we speak. 6 But someone in a certain place testified and said,

What is man that you bring him to mind?
Or the son of man, that you visit him?

7 You made him a little lower than the angels.
You crowned him with glory and honour,

Rom 5:9,10; etc.

Observe that to face the just punishment of God, men do not have to vigorously reject the gospel. Ignoring or neglecting it is enough.

“Spoken by the Lord” – Jesus Himself was the first to proclaim the gospel (Mark 1:14,15; Luke 4:18-21). The writer says this to emphasize its great importance.

“Confirmed” – the apostles of Christ confirmed all that He taught.

“To us” – this may rule out Paul as the writer of this letter (see Gal 1:11,12,15-17; 2:6). At least, it is not the sort of statement we might expect Paul to use.

2:4 “God also” – the Father confirmed the gospel of His Son by mighty miracles – Matt 28:6 (Rom 1:4); Mark 16:20; Acts 2:43; 5:12-16; etc.

“And gifts” – the Holy Spirit giving spiritual abilities to believers was also a part of God’s witness to the gospel (1 Cor 12:7-11). The Trinity (see Matt 3:16,17) was at work to provide the gospel for people and to give absolutely sure evidence of its truthfulness.

2:5-18 The writer returns to the subject of chapter 1 – Christ is superior to the angels (vs 5,7,9). He knew that some people, lacking a full knowledge of the truth, might object: “If Christ is superior to the angels how is it that He was a man lower than the angels? How could one greater than angels experience temptation, suffering and death?” Christ’s death on the cross was a stumblingblock to many Jews – 1 Cor 1:23. And many would not receive the truth that He was God incarnate – John 5:17,18; 10:31-33.

The writer answers any possible objection by making two chief points in these verses: Christ was made lower than the angels only for a brief time (v 9), and it was both fitting and necessary that Christ should be made a man, lower than the angels, so that He could be the Saviour of men (vs 10,14,17).

2:5 “The world to come” – Matt 25:31,34; Acts 3:21; Rom 8:18-23; Isaiah chapter 11; Revelation chapters 20-22.

2:6-8 The writer quotes from Ps 8:4-6 to show that God will make men, not angels, the rulers of the world to come. See also Matt 19:28; 24:46,47; 25:21; Luke 19:17; 2 Tim 2:12; Rev 5:10; 20:6; 22:5.

“But now” – v 8 has not yet been completely fulfilled. Man does not now have the high place that God intended him to have.

and placed him over the works of your hands.

8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet.

For in putting all things in subjection under him, he omitted nothing that is not put under him. But now we do not yet see all things put under him. 9 But we see Jesus crowned with glory and honour, the One who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death so that by the grace of God he might taste death for every man.

10 For it was fitting for him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both

2:9 Man's authority over the world to come will be realized only through the Lord Jesus. He is mankind's representative, "the last Adam" (1 Cor 15:45-47), the leader of a redeemed people who shall rule the world to come. He wanted to raise men far above the angels. So, though He was the Creator of angels, He was made lower than angels – that is, He became a man (John 1:14; Phil 2:5-8). The purpose of His incarnation was to suffer death.

"Taste death" here means actually to die. God's purpose is for man to rule the world to come. But there was a great obstacle to the fulfillment of this purpose. All men were sinners and subject to death as a punishment for their sins (Gen 2:17; Rom 5:12; 6:23). The Lord Jesus came to die "for every man" – 2 Cor 5:14,15; 1 Tim 2:6; 1 John 2:2. This was "by the grace of God." It was God's gift to mankind – John 3:16; Rom 5:8. Because Jesus willingly gave Himself up to death (John 10:17,18), God highly exalted Him – 1:3; Phil 2:9-11.

2:10 "Many sons to glory" – this is God's purpose in all that He has done and is doing among men. Compare John 17:22,24; Rom 5:2; 8:18,28-30; 9:23; 2 Cor 4:17; Eph 1:18.

"Author of their salvation" – the Lord Jesus – 12:2. He established the way they must go to reach the glory God has prepared for them. To make Him "perfect" does not mean that the nature of Jesus was not perfect before His sufferings. He was sinless and perfect in character and action. To make Him perfect here means that through suffering God perfectly fitted Him to be the Saviour of men – 5:7-9; 7:28. His sufferings not only took away their sin and guilt (7:27; 9:28; 13:12; 1 Pet 3:18), they made Him fully able to sympathize and help His people in their sufferings and temptations (v 18; 4:15,16).

2:11-18 The Lord Jesus completely identified Himself with those whom God is bringing to glory.

2:11 "He who sanctifies" – means "the one who makes people holy." The one who does this is Christ – 10:10,14; 13:12. Notes on holiness at Lev 20:7; John 17:17-19. Those who are made holy are those who believe in he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all of one. For this reason he is not ashamed to call them brothers, 12 saying,

I will declare your name to my brothers, in the midst of the church I will sing praise to you.

13 And again,

I will put my trust in him.

And again,
See, I and the children whom God has given me.

14 Since therefore the children had flesh and

Him and receive Him as Saviour from sin and Leader to glory. Christ has set them apart from the rest of mankind and consecrated them to God. He and they are "all of one." They belong to the same God. He is the Son of God born as a man. They become the children of God by a new spiritual birth – John 1:12,13; 3:3-8. God is the Father of Christ and the Father of all those who believe in Christ – John 20:17. And Christ, the Lord of glory, the heir of all things, is not ashamed to call believers "brothers" – though now they are poor, weak, and often foolish.

2:12,13 He quotes Ps 22:22 and Isa 8:17,18 as evidence that the Lord Jesus and His believers share together in human nature and in their relationship to God.

2:14,15 "Children" – the children of God, the "many sons" of v 10. They are all human beings, so Christ became a human being with real flesh and blood – Matt 1:20,21; Luke 2:5-7; 24:49; John 1:14; 6:53-58. His purpose in this was threefold: to die (Matt 16:21; 20:28; John 10:17,18), by dying to destroy Satan, and to free His people. Notes on the devil at Matt 4:1-10.

"The power of death" – he brought death into the world by leading Adam and Eve into sin – Genesis chapter 3. He rules in the realm of sin and death, taking men captive – 2 Tim 2:26, and keeping them in a state of spiritual death. He even has, it seems, the power to kill – Job 2:6; 1 Cor 5:5. By His death and resurrection Christ defeated Satan and made it possible for men to receive forgiveness of sins and spiritual life, and to be completely delivered from death – John 5:24; 11:25,26; 1 Cor 15:54-57; 2 Tim 1:10. This means the overthrow of Satan and the eventual destruction of him and his kingdom – John 12:31; Rev 20:10,14,15.

"Has the power" – the Greek verb is in the present tense. Even so, some versions have the translation "had the power" – as though Satan has it no longer. Satan still has the power of death over those who remain in their sins and reject Christ, but he has no such power over believers in Christ (except in a case like 1 Cor 5:5). Christ has rescued us from the power of Satan and the blood, he also himself took of the same, so that through death he might destroy the one having the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and deliver those who through fear of death were, throughout their lifetime, under the heel of slavery.

16 For he certainly does not take hold of angels to help them, but he takes hold of the children of Abraham.

17 Therefore in all things he had to be made like his brothers, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things relating to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 For since kingdom of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of God (Acts 26:18; Col 1:13).

Observe that the "fear of death" is one way Satan holds men in slavery. Because of this fear men do all sorts of things at Satan's bidding that they might not otherwise do. The "fear of death" means more than merely being afraid to die - it is a fear of what happens after death. And this brings men into bondage to false religion. Men may do anything the devil tells them to do if they think that by doing it their lot will be better after death. Christ frees believers from the fear of death and all other bondage - John 8:32,36; Rom 6:18; 8:2,15,21; 2 Cor 5:6-8; Phil 1:21-23.

2:16 This verse is not easy to translate. All that is in the Greek is "For certainly he does not take hold of angels, but he takes hold of the children of Abraham." The KJV put the verb in the past tense and added the words "him the nature of" and "him" in italics, indicating that the words were not in Greek. The meaning of the Greek probably is that Christ, having become a man, now lays hold of certain men, not angels, to help them (v 18).

"Children of Abraham" - Christ became a man, and not an angel, in order to help men. Abraham's "children" are his literal descendants (Jews) who believe in Christ and his spiritual descendants who believe God as he did - Rom 4:11,12,16,17; Gal 3:7-9.

2:17 "In all things. . .like his brothers" - this does not mean that Jesus was a sinner or that He had a sinful nature like them. See 4:15; 7:26; Luke 1:35; John 8:46; 2 Cor 5:21; 1 Pet 2:22. And it does not mean that as a man He was no longer God - 1:6,8. It means that He had real flesh and blood, true human nature (v 14), and had to face real sufferings and temptations (v 18). There were two reasons for this - to make propitiation, and to become the high priest of his people. On atonement see Ex 29:33; 25:17; Rom 3:25,26.

"High priest" - the writer here introduces one of the great themes of this letter (3:1; 4:14; 5:10; 6:20; 7:26; 8:1; 9:11; 10:21). In the Bible a priest was one who offered sacrifices for the people, saw that the work of God's tabernacle or temple was carried on, and represented the people he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

3 Therefore, holy brethren, sharers in the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus, 2 who was faithful to him who appointed him, as Moses also was faithful in all his house. 3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, since he who has built the house has more honour than the house. 4 For every house is built by someone, but he who built all things is God. 5 And Moses as a servant was indeed faithful in all his house, as a before God. Note at Ex 28:1. The high priest was over all the priests and there was certain work that only he could do - 5:1-3; 9:7. See Leviticus chapter 16.

Now God has abolished the Old Testament priesthood (no other priesthood in any other religious system was ever ordained by God). Christ in heaven is the only high priest, and His believers on earth are the only priests on earth acceptable to God - 1 Pet 2:5,8; Rev 1:6. Christ is a merciful and faithful high priest - merciful to men, faithful to God in all His service.

"Propitiation" - many scholars think that this word brings out better the meaning of the Greek word than "reconciliation" or "atonement." See the meaning of it at Rom 3:25; 1 John 2:2.

2:18 See 4:15; Matt 4:1-10. Jesus has felt the sharp arrows of temptation. He has suffered under the suggestions of Satan to think only of Himself, to avoid the cross, to do wrong. Since He has been through all that, He knows by experience Satan's ways and how they come against the human mind and heart, and He can sympathize with His people facing them. On temptation see also Matt 6:13; 1 Cor 10:13.

3:1-6 Christ is greater than Moses. Moses was a servant in God's house, but Jesus was God's Son over the house.

3:1 "Therefore" - this is God's way: He gives glorious truth then appeals to people to act according to it (Rom 12:1; 1 Cor 15:58; 2 Cor 7:1; Gal 5:1; Eph 4:1; Col 3:1).

"Holy" - 2:11.

"Heavenly calling" - the call to believers came from heaven and leads them to heaven (Rom 8:30).

"Apostle" - this is the only place in the Bible where Christ is called "apostle." It means God sent Him on His mission into the world and spoke through Him (1:2; John 6:38,39).

"High Priest" - 2:17.

3:2 Both Moses and Jesus were faithful - Num 12:7; John 8:28,29; 17:4.

"House" means the household of God, God's people.

3:3,4 Moses was a part of the household of God, but the Lord Jesus is the one who created it. So obviously Jesus is far superior to Moses.

3:5,6 The Son over the house is in a far testimony to those things which were to be spoken afterwards, 6 but Christ as a son over his own house; whose house we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.

7 Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says,

Today if you will hear his voice,

8 do not harden your hearts,

as in the provocation,

in the day of testing in the desert,

9 when your fathers tested me, proved me,

and saw my works forty years.

superior position to a servant in the house. Moses spoke of things to be "spoken afterwards." That is, he pointed to a further revelation of truth from God (compare 10:1). Christ is the one of whom Moses testified – Luke 24:27; John 5:46. Why does the writer show Christ's superiority to Moses? Moses is the representative of the old covenant of law; Jesus is the founder of the new covenant of grace. The writer will later show that the new is far superior to the old (8:6-13). Here he shows the new is superior because of its Founder.

"Whose house we are" – Moses served among the people of Israel; Christ's household is made up of all believers in Him, and He is the Head of the house.

"If" – see v 14; Col 1:23; 1 Cor 15:2. This does not teach that believers who are members of His household may lose their faith and cease to be members. The meaning is that continuing to believe is the real evidence of membership. See v 14. It is useless to say of anyone who gives up his courage and hope, rejects the gospel, and goes back to live in sin that he ever possessed God's salvation (10:39; John 10:27; 1 John 2:19; etc). It is a sad fact that many boast that they are of the household of God when they are not.

3:7-19 These verses give the second warning against apostasy. Verses 7-11 are taken from Ps 95:7-11. See notes there. They show that a whole generation can profess to be the household of God and yet be guilty of unbelief and fail to receive the blessing God promised to give to those who believed (v 19). If it happened once it can happen more than once.

3:7 "The Holy Spirit says" – observe these words. A man wrote psalm 95, but God's Spirit inspired the writing and spoke through him. Compare 9:8; 1 Tim 3:16; 2 Pet 1:21.

"Today" – this word signifies a new beginning, a new day of opportunity. It means this era of Christ's gospel. Compare 2 Cor 6:1,2.

3:8 "Provocation" – Ex 17:1-7; Ps 95:8.

3:9 "Forty years" – Num 14:26-35.

3:10 "Grieved" – acting in a provoking way, hardening the heart and going astray – all that was (and is) a grief to God.

"Always go astray" – they were not like 10 Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and said,

They always go astray in their heart, and they have not known my ways.

11 So I swore in my wrath,

They will not enter my rest.

12 Watch, brethren, so that there may not be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God, 13 but encourage each other daily, while it is called "today", lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we have become sharers with Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence firm to the end;

Christ's sheep (who obey His voice and follow Him – John 10:27). Outwardly they had the name of being God's people, inwardly they were hard, unbelieving and rebellious. Compare Ps 58:3; Isa 1:2,3; 53:6.

3:11 "My wrath" – see notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; etc.

"My rest" – rest from the desert journey and from their enemies in Canaan (Deut 1:34-36; 12:9; Josh 23:1).

3:12-19 The writer applies the words of Ps 95:7-11 to the situation among the Jews in his day. We may well apply it to the situation in the churches in our time. The warning is against unbelief among those who are called God's people.

3:12 "Watch" – 12:25; the dreadful possibility of unbelief is there; be very careful about it. An unbelieving heart is sinful. Sin produces unbelief which leads to further sin. An unbelieving heart cannot be seen but the outward evidence of it is turning away from the living God. Whenever men turn away from Him we know the cause is this – not their reason, their intellect, their learning, etc. It is the state of the heart that determines what men do. See Prov 4:23.

3:13 Christians should constantly encourage other Christians to really believe God and go on believing, and to avoid sin. This can be an instrument in God's hands for much good. Observe two facts about sin. It hardens men's hearts against God, and it is deceitful (2 Thess 2:10). Sin likes to present itself as something pleasant rather than the ugly thing God says it is. It tries to appear as honey rather than the poison it really is. It speaks of pleasures but is quiet about the wages it pays (Rom 6:23), and God's anger against it (Rom 1:18).

Sin is one of the three deceitful powers that make men blind and keep them in the broad way which leads to destruction. For the other two see Jer 17:9 and Rev 12:9. When the great deceiver Satan uses deceiving sin in man's deceitful heart, is there any limit to the possibilities of deception?

3:14 Verse 6. Observe carefully these verbs. We have become sharers in Christ (past tense – not "we will become sharers) if we hold our confidence in Him firm to the end (speaks of the future). If we have come to 15 while it is said,

Today if you will hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts,
as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke God; however not all that came out of Egypt by Moses. 17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? Was it not with those who had sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the desert? 18 And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who refused to believe? 19 So we see that they could not enter because of unbelief.

4 Therefore let us fear that, perhaps, having received a promise of entering his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. 2 For the share in Christ we have come to share in Christ – the future cannot abolish an actual event in the past. It can only confirm it. It can reveal whether we have really come to share in Christ or not. The writer is defining the true people of God – they share in Christ and prove it by continuing to believe. Faith will be tried, its profession will be tested. The genuine believer will appear by his perseverance in the faith. It is not enough to make some sort of beginning as a Christian. We must go on believing till the end. Real believers do this. Apostates do not, because the faith they professed to have is not genuine (compare 10:35-39; Rom 5:9,10; John 10:27; 17:11,12; Luke 22:31,32; 1 John 2:19).

3:15 Hardening the heart and rebelling against God is evidence of an unbelieving heart.

3:16 "Not all" – the whole nation of Israel, with only two exceptions (Num 14:1,2,30).

"Out of Egypt" – Ex 14:29-31.

3:17 Verse 10; 1 Cor 10:1-12; Eph 5:6; Col 3:6. The writer is warning of the possibility that the Hebrews of his generation too might face the wrath of God. It was essential for them to believe and obey God's revelation in Christ.

3:18,19 Verse 11; Num 14:11; Deut 9:24; Ps 78:10-12,21,22; Acts 7:51-53.

"Refused to believe" – see the note at John 3:36. It could also be translated "disobeyed." Disobedience and unbelief (v 19) work hand in hand. They are partners in every crime against God and man. And they are twin thieves which rob men of the opportunity to receive and enjoy what God offers to all. Then they kept Israel from entering Canaan, the promised land. Now, just as surely, they will keep men from entering heaven.

4:1-13 The theme of this section is entering God's rest – v 1. Believers in Christ do enter it, but unbelieving Israel did not – vs 2,3. This rest existed in Israel's day and they could have entered it – vs 4-6. Since they did not, and it was God's purpose that some gospel was preached to us, as well as to them. But the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. 3 For we who have believed enter into rest, as he said,

As I swore in my wrath,
if they will enter my rest.

And yet his works were finished from the beginning of the world. 4 For in a certain place he spoke of the seventh day like this:

And God ceased from all his works on the seventh day.

5 And in this place again,

If they will enter my rest.

6 Seeing, therefore, it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached people should enter, He appointed another day and time – vs 6-8.

Conclusion: there is a rest that can be entered now – vs 9,10.

Exhortation: make every effort to enter it – v 11, because God's Word can discern and forever bar the unbeliever from entering – vs 12,13.

4:1 "God's rest" means spiritual rest, the rest Jesus spoke of in Matt 11:28. It signifies salvation in Christ. The land of Canaan was only a type or picture of this rest (see note at Josh 1:18).

"Any of you" – he does not say "any of us." He is not suggesting that believers can't know whether they are saved or not, or that they should go around in fear they may be lost (see 2:15; Luke 12:32; Rom 8:15; 1 John 5:13). The writer was not fearful for himself but for some of them. All of us should be alarmed when those who profess to be Christians show signs of unbelief and disobedience. And we should be careful to warn and exhort them – 3:13; 1 Tim 5:20.

4:2 The good news preached to Israel was this: the promised land is before you; go up and possess it – Deut 1:19-21. The good news preached to men now is: God offers you rest and salvation in Christ. Receive them by faith in Him. The people of Israel would not take possession of the land. In this way they showed their unbelief and disobedience. People now show their unbelief by not receiving Christ and taking possession of God's blessings in Him. Hearing the good news is not enough. Hearing must be mixed with faith, the kind of faith that results in obedience.

4:3 Belief in Christ is the only way of entering God's rest – the rest God spoke about in Ps 95:11.

4:4,5 The writer quotes Gen 2:2 and Ps 95:11 (again) to show there is a "rest" of God, and that it has been there since creation was finished. God's rest is a picture of the spiritual rest He gives to believers.

4:6-8 It is God's purpose that some among did not enter because of unbelief, 7 again, he appointed a certain day, saying through David, "Today", after so long a time, as it is said,

Today if you will hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts.

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, then afterwards he would not have spoken of another day.

9 Therefore there remains a Sabbath-rest for the people of God. 10 For he who has entered his rest, has also ceased from his own works, as God did from his. 11 Therefore, let us strive earnestly to enter that rest, lest any man fall after the same men should enter His rest. Israel did not, even after they entered Canaan (which was a type or picture of that rest). Through Joshua God gave rest from human enemies (Josh 21:44; 22:4), but not spiritual rest. So God appointed a new time and called it "today." "Today" means this era from Christ's first coming onward. See 3:7. Neither Joshua, nor Moses, nor the law, nor the whole old covenant could give people the rest God wanted them to have. So God appointed another time and another covenant.

4:9 "Sabbath-rest" - in Greek "Sabbatismos" - Sabbath "observance" or "rest." Concerning the Sabbath see Ex 20:8-11. The Jews regarded the Sabbath as a type or picture of the next world - "The Israelites said, O Lord of the whole world, show us a type of the world to come. God answered them, That type is the Sabbath" (words found in a Jewish commentary). They said that psalm 92 was "a psalm for the Sabbath day because it refers to the world to come, which is all Sabbath and a rest unto eternal life." The writer of this letter here seems to be teaching the same thing.

4:10 When do believers enter God's rest? Certainly at the end of their earthly life. Then they cease from their toil and rest in God's presence. Compare Rev 14:13; 2 Cor 5:8; Phil 1:21-24. But, in a sense, to some extent they enter into rest now - Matt 11:28,29. The rest now is not the final Sabbath-rest, but it is a foretaste of that. And it means ceasing from any attempts to be saved by one's own works and trusting in Christ for salvation (see Rom 4:4,5). This rest begins now and will result in the final perfect rest in God's presence. If we do not begin this rest in Christ now, it is certain we shall not have the Sabbath-rest in the next world.

4:11 Compare Matt 11:12; Luke 13:24; 2 Cor 13:5; 2 Pet 1:10. Let us all be on the lookout for disobedience and unbelief in ourselves and in other Christians, and go forward together in faith to the goal. Let us make sure we will enter that final rest by making sure we have Christ's promised rest now and are moving ahead yoked to Him.

"Strive earnestly" - he is not teaching example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any double edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intentions of the heart. 13 Nor is there any creature that is hidden from his sight. All things are naked and open to the eyes of him to whom we will give an account.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest who has passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. 15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our weaknesses, but one who salvation by works, but emphasizing again a persevering faith (3:14).

4:12,13 The writer is saying that an "evil heart of unbelief", a heart "hardened through the deceitfulness of sin" (3:12,13), cannot be hidden from God. God's Word exposes the inner man, and God who gave His Word will know whom to receive into His rest and whom to keep out.

"Living and powerful" - 1 Pet 1:23. The Greek word translated "quick" in the KJV means "living", not swift in action.

"Sword" - compare Eph 6:17; Jer 23:29. "His sight" - 2 Chron 16:9; Ps 14:2; 90:8; 139:1-12; Jer 23:24; Matt 6:4.

"Give an account" - Matt 12:36; Acts 17:31; Rom 14:12; Rev 22:12.

4:14 The writer returns to the subject he introduced at 2:17 - Christ as high priest. He continues this subject, with breaks for exhortations and warnings, all the way to 10:18.

"Seeing then. . .let us" - 3:1; 4:1. God gives His truth that we might apply it.

"We have a great high priest" - it seems that men everywhere feel the need of a priest - someone who they think is nearer to God than they are and who can represent them to God. The idea is common to nearly every religion on earth. The Jews had priests and a high priest for 1400 years before Christ came. But the followers of Christ have no visible high priest, and Jews who did not believe in Christ might have thought and said that because they had no visible high priest on earth they had none at all.

The writer of this letter refutes this false notion. Christ's believers have the greatest possible high priest - the Son of God Himself. And the fact that He is not on earth and not visible at all is no disadvantage - just the opposite. For He has gone through the heavens into the very presence of God on high. There He can represent His people far better than any high priest on earth could ever do. Ignorance of this truth holds people in bondage to human priesthood everywhere. So the writer takes great pains to present Jesus as high priest and to show how wonderfully fitted for this work He is.

4:15 "Touched" - this was one reason God established the priesthood for His people was tempted in all points as we are, yet without sin.

16 Therefore let us come boldly to the throne of grace, so that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

5 For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things relating to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2 He should be able to have compassion on those lacking understanding and on those who have gone astray, since he himself is clothed with weakness. 3 Because of this he is obligated to make offerings for sin for himself, as well as for the people. 4 And Israel. The ideal priest was one who knew the weaknesses, sorrows, troubles and needs of the people and could sympathetically present them to God – 5:1,2; compare Ex 28:29. The Lord Jesus can do this far better than any priest in Israel or anywhere else ever could.

“Our weaknesses” – every one of us has more than enough of these. Compare Matt 26:41; Rom 7:18; 8:26; 1 Cor 2:3; 2 Cor 12:5,9; Gal 5:17.

“Tempted” – 2:18; Matt 4:1-10. So He can sympathize with us. Jesus faced all the temptations that come to men on earth. He had real flesh and blood, real human nature – 2:14. He found out by experience how Satan rages against all who belong to God. He knows the terrific force of evil Satan brings against us and our faith. He has suffered from every fiery dart Satan can hurl. Yet He was “without sin.”

This could mean He never sinned, but always came through temptation victoriously. Or it could mean that He did not have a sinful nature. Both, of course, are true (note at 2:17). But is it possible for someone without a sinful nature to be tempted? Of course. See Gen 3:1-6. See also 2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6. Indeed, it would seem that a sinless person who does not give in to temptation would feel the full power of the temptation in a way not possible to the sinful person who soon gives in to it.

4:16 “Throne of grace” – God’s throne where He sits to rule the universe. Christ our great high priest sits on it by His side – 1:3; Rev 3:21. Because of His sacrifice for our sins grace now reigns. See Rom 5:21; 6:14. He Himself urges us to come to God for all we need – Matt 6:9-13; 7:7-10; John 16:23,24. Our greatest needs are mercy and grace. We need to be kept strong to resist sin, and to be forgiven if we do sin. We need the strength that grace can give us, and we need compassion and mercy when we fail in our weakness. Since we come to the throne of the universe we may be sure that no power that exists can keep God from giving us what we need. Since it is a throne of grace we know that He is willing to give us what we need (compare Phil 4:19). What more truth do we need to inspire us with no man takes this honour for himself, but only he who is called of God, as Aaron was.

5 So Christ also did not glorify himself to become high priest, but he who said to him,

You are my Son,
today I have begotten you,

6 also speaks like this in another place,

You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

7 Jesus, during the days of his earthly life in the body, when he had offered up prayers and requests with strong crying and tears to him confidence, and cause us to come before Him with faith?

5:1-10 He continues with the subject of Christ as high priest. Verses 1-4 give the qualifications of a good high priest among the people of Israel. Verses 5-10 show that Christ has these qualifications.

5:1 “Every” – he is referring to the religious system of Israel in the days between Moses and Christ.

5:2 “Those lacking understanding” – Lev 4:2; 5:17; Num 15:28. The priest could deal gently in such cases. But punishment was severe for those who sinned deliberately and arrogantly – 2:2; Num 15:30-36; etc.

5:3 “Offerings for sin for himself” – Lev 16:3-6. Like other men the high priest in Israel was weak and prone to sin. See the weakness of Aaron himself, the first high priest, in Exodus chapter 32.

“For the people” – Lev 16:15,16,32-34. 5:4 Ex 28:1.

5:5 1:5; Ps 2:7.

5:6 Verse 10; 6:20; 7:17. See Ps 110:4. Psalm 110 is a prophesy about Christ, the “son” of v 5. God the Father appointed Him high priest just as He had Aaron.

“Melchizedek” – see notes on chapter 7.

5:7-9 The writer shows that Christ had another of the qualifications of a high priest – the ability to “have compassion” on people. This ability was made perfect because of His sufferings on earth. In other places in the letter he shows how Christ fulfilled the other duties of a high priest – representing people before God (v 1; 7:25; 9:24), and offering a sacrifice for sins (7:27; 8:3; 9:11,12; 10:28; 10:10,14).

5:7 “Prayers and requests” – the Lord Jesus in His days on earth was always a person of prayer (Matt 14:23; Luke 5:16). But the writer here seems to be referring to a specific time when He was facing death. More than likely he is referring to Christ’s time in Gethsemane (Matt 26:36-46; Mark 14:32-42; Luke 22:39-46). There He was overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. He was in anguish and His sweat was like drops of blood. And God sent an angel to strengthen Him. This all speaks of a dreadful time of testing, and an experience of physical weakness (compare 2 Cor 13:4).

who was able to save him from death, was heard because of his reverence. 8 Despite being the Son, he still learned the meaning of obedience by the things he suffered, 9 and being made perfect he became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey him. 10 He was called of God to be high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

11 We have many things to say concerning him, things difficult to explain, because you are slow to

And so loud cries and tears burst from Him. "Save him from death" – some commentators say that Satan was trying to kill Jesus in Gethsemane and that Jesus was praying that God would save Him from this and enable Him to die on the cross as a sacrifice for sin. But there is no teaching like this in the Bible. Others say that He was praying to be delivered from dying on the cross at all. This cannot be true. He knew He had come for the very purpose of dying (Matt 20:28; John 10:17,18). And He committed Himself to God for this very thing (Matt 16:21; John 12:27,28). Also the writer says that Jesus "was heard" – that is, His prayer was answered. And we know that He was not kept from dying on the cross, so His prayer could not have been for that.

The likeliest explanation is this: Jesus was praying that God the Father would deliver Him from the realm of death after He died, that death would not keep its hold on Him (Acts 2:24); in other words, that God would raise Him from the dead. Compare Ps 22:15-21 (vs 19-21 seem to be a prayer for His resurrection). But did He not know that God would raise Him? Why pray about it? He knew God had promised to raise Him (Ps 16:10).

But this is one important element in prayer – pleading with God to fulfill His promises (compare John chapter 17; Dan 10:2-19; etc). And when faced with the "cup" (Matt 26:39) containing the awful experience of 2 Cor 5:21, and with the hour of darkness upon Him (Luke 22:53), Jesus was overwhelmed and cried out with tears. And God heard Him (Matt 28:6). This was because of His "reverence" or "fear" (as it could be translated, meaning the reverential fear of God – Isa 11:2; notes at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7). 5:8 "Learned the meaning of obedience" – this does not mean He was at one time disobedient but gradually learned to be obedient. Disobedience is sin and He was never once disobedient (John 4:34; 6:38; 8:29; Phil 2:6-8; 1 Pet 2:21,22). But He learned in actual experience what obedience meant, what self-denial and temptation and suffering were involved in it. And face to face with the "cup" (Matt 26:39) He found out in experience that obedience was no easy thing.

5:9 "Made perfect" – this does not mean that there was some flaw in His character which needed to be corrected. See the note at 2:10. God took Him through suffering to understand what you hear. 12 By now you ought to be teachers, but you still need someone to teach you again the basic things of God's revelation, and have become like those who need milk and not solid food. 13 For everyone who takes milk is inexperienced in the teaching of righteousness, for he is a little child. 14 But solid food is for those who have grown up, to those who by continual use have trained their minds to discern both good and evil.

make Him perfectly fitted to be our high priest. Without that process He would not have been the perfect one we needed.

"Obey Him" – in the light of this verse (and similar ones such as John 3:36; Acts 5:32; 2 Thess 1:8) can we think there is salvation for anyone who refuses to obey the Lord Jesus? This does not mean salvation comes by works but by what Paul called the obedience of faith (Rom 1:5). It is grace which gives us just such a faith and heart to obey (Eph 2:8,9). See note at Acts 22:10.

5:11-14 The writer begins another exhortation and warning which concludes at 6:12. It is a warning against falling away (6:6). He gave it because he saw in some of these Hebrew Christians a lack of progress in the Christian life.

5:12-14 This, no doubt, is the complaint of many a pastor, teacher and evangelist today also. Many Christians there are who, after years of Christian profession, still want only milk and seem able to take only milk, that is, the more simple truths of the gospel. They flock to evangelistic meetings and stay away from meetings for Bible study. And even the basic truths seem to slip away from them so that there is need to teach them over again.

"Solid food" – means solid teaching on such subjects as Christ as high priest and other doctrines concerning Him. Refusal to take in the deep truths of God's Word reveals immaturity. See also 1 Cor 3:1-4.

"Inexperienced in the teaching" – such infants in the spiritual life may hear teaching about righteousness, but they have no skill or experience in applying it to their lives.

"Teaching of righteousness" – this probably means the same as the "solid food" of v 12. It is similar in meaning to the "wisdom" Paul taught to mature believers (1 Cor 2:6-10).

"Those who have grown up" – those who have grown strong in spiritual understanding and practice of God's Word. Distinguishing good from evil and truth from error is sometimes no easy matter. It requires "training" oneself, taking effort to learn the meaning of the deep things of God's word and to apply it in the situation one faces. It means constant effort and study and discipline. Those who remain spiritual babies are those who perhaps have little time and opportunity to develop spiritually, or who are not willing to make the effort to grow in the things of God.

6 Therefore leaving the basic matters of the teaching concerning Christ, let us go on to perfection, and not lay again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, 2 of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3 And this we will do, if God permits.

4 For this is something impossible: those who were once enlightened, and tasted of the 6:1,2 "Perfection" – or "maturity" or "full growth" – 5:14; Eph 4:13-15.

"Foundation" – it is not altogether clear what foundation he means. He is writing to Jews who had become Christians. He perhaps meant the foundation in the Old Testament which they had received as Jews. Or perhaps He meant the new foundation laid by the apostles for this New Testament era. His meaning is doubtful because of the six things he mentions here not one of them is distinctly Christian; all could easily be a part of the foundation laid in the OT.

"Repentance. . . faith in God" – notice the writer does not say "faith in Christ." This way of stating it would seem strange if he were speaking about the foundation of the Christian life (note on repentance at Matt 3:7; etc).

"Baptisms" – notice the plural. If he had been referring to Christian baptism would he not have used the singular? See Eph 4:5. "Washings" is a possible translation here, and could be a better one. In the Old Testament there were various washings – Ex 29:4; 30:19-21; Lev 11:25; 13:6; 14:8; 16:26; 17:16; Num 8:17; 19:18; etc.

"Laying on of hands" is also seen in the Old Testament – Num 8:10; 27:18; Ex 29:10; Lev 1:4.

"Resurrection" (Dan 12:2; Isa 26:19; Ps 16:10), and "judgment" (Ps 9:8; 82:8; Dan 7:9,10; Joel 3:12) are also in the Old Testament.

However, some scholars view the matter differently. They say that in the writer's mind "faith in God" could include the idea of faith in Christ; that "baptisms" could mean John's baptism, Christian baptism, and the baptism with the Holy Spirit; and that laying on of hands could mean the practice of the early Christians (Acts 6:6; 8:16-18; 13:3; etc).

Still it seems a strange list of things to use if one wished to describe the very foundation of the Christian life – there is no mention in it of Christ, of His incarnation and sacrifice for sin, or the giving of the Holy Spirit, or teaching about Christ's Church, or eternal life through Christ. But the meaning of these verses is doubtful and we should not be too dogmatic in what we say about them.

6:4-6 These verses, too, are not easy to interpret, and there have been great differences of opinion among scholars about the meaning of them. There are four principal interpretations of these verses.

First, they describe real believers in Christ and teach that they can fall away from Christ and lose their salvation.

Second, they describe believers, but if they fall away they do not lose their salvation but only the rewards they might have obtained by faithful service.

Third, they describe real believers who are warned against falling away because there is real danger of it, but actually they will not fall away.

Fourth, they do not describe real believers at all – the things listed in these verses are true of believers, but may be true also of Christians who have never been real believers.

The author of these notes rejects the first two interpretations. He believes the Bible clearly teaches that real believers in Christ do not fall away or commit the other sins connected with final apostasy (note at 2:1-4). See 10:39; John 10:27; 1 John 3:9; 5:18. Compare also John 5:24; 6:37-40; 10:27-29; 17:11-12; Rom 5:9,10; 8:28-39; Phil 1:6; 1 Pet 1:5. We should never use obscure and difficult Scriptures (like the ones here in Hebrews) to overthrow clear ones. These verses in Hebrews do not clearly state that true believers in Christ may fall away and be lost. In fact, faith in Christ is not mentioned in these verses at all.

The third interpretation given above seems more in harmony with the teachings of the New Testament as a whole. Satan tries to get believers to fall away, and they are in danger of it. But being in danger of it does not mean they will actually do it. They might do it if it were not for the Word of God, God's keeping power, and the prayers of Christ for them (compare Luke 22:31,32; John 17:11,12; 1 Pet 1:5). But because of these they are kept from falling away. And the warnings against falling away themselves are helps to keep them from falling away when the danger arises.

But the fourth interpretation given above may possibly be the true one. Verses 4-6 may be a description of those who know the truth, have been much influenced by it, have come very close to the kingdom of God, and yet have not actually entered it. Those who are not God's children, yet profess to be, can appear for a time as if they were (compare Matt 13:18-23,24-30; 25:1-12; 2 Cor 11:14,15). All the things said in vs 4-6 are true of believers, but possibly they may also be true of those who are not believers but only seem to be.

6:4 "Enlightened" – describes people who know the truth. Compare 10:26. Christ's light has shined on them. But this need not mean that they put their trust in the light or become "sons of light" (John 12:35,36). People can know the truth without repenting and trusting Christ for salvation.

"Tasted of the heavenly gift" – this does not have to mean that they received the heavenly gift. The writer here may have used the word taste in contrast with eat (John 6:57). Compare Num 13:23,26. The heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, 6 if they fall away, they cannot be renewed again to repentance because they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that often comes on it, and brings forth plants suitable for those who till it, receives blessing from God. 8 But that which bears thorns and briars is Israelites who never entered Canaan because of unbelief (3:19), could still have tasted of the fruits of Canaan.

"Partakers of the Holy Spirit" - the writer does not say "received the Holy Spirit." Partaking or "sharing" may or may not mean that. There are different ways of sharing in the Holy Spirit. The false prophet Balaam did (Num 24:2). It seems that the apostate Judas Iscariot did (Matt 10:1; John 6:70,71). Simon in Acts 8:9-24 may be an example of this. Perhaps sharing here means to be present when the Holy Spirit is working in power, to be convicted by the Spirit (John 16:8-11), and brought by the Spirit to the place of repentance, to the very border of God's Kingdom.

6:5 "Tasted. . .word" - compare Matt 13:20,21.

"Powers of the world to come" - compare Matt 7:22,23. It may or may not be significant that the writer does not say they had believed in Christ or received eternal life, or were saved, etc. But if he did not say this, is it wise for us to say it?

6:6 "If" - actually this verse does not teach that the people described in vs 4,5 do fall away. It only states what would happen if they did. But the writer certainly seems to teach the danger of it.

"Fall away" - fall away is something far worse than falling into a sin. Peter fell badly but he was renewed to repentance (Matt 26:69-75). If we fall into sin we can be forgiven (1 John 1:9; 2:1; Matt 6:12; 12:31,32. See Prov 24:16). "Falling away" means final apostasy, leaving the faith. It means abandoning the truth altogether (note on 2:1-4). Why does the writer say it is impossible to renew them again to repentance? Why does he not say "renew them again to faith" if the people he described have faith? Repentance means a change of mind, and the meaning here may be this: these Hebrews at first thought Christ was not their Messiah. They changed their minds and thought He was. If after all that is said of them in vs 4,5, they turned away fully from Him, how can they be brought to change their minds once again?

"Crucifying. . .again" - this gives the reason why there can be no further repentance for them. They reject Christ and so take the side of His murderers as Judas did. The writer is speaking of something worse than backsliding. It is possible to bring backsliders to repentance and faith (2 Cor 2:5-11; rejected, and is ready to be cursed. And its end is to be burned.

9 But, dear brethren, we are persuaded better things about you, and things that go along with salvation, though we speak like this. 10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which you have showed toward his name in the service you have performed to the saints, and are still performing. 11 And we want every one of you to show the same zeal to the full assurance of Gal 6:1; Jam 4:8-10; Ps 32:3-5; 51:1-12; Jer 3:12; Ezek 18:30-32; Hos 14:1-4).

"Open shame" - if the Hebrews turned from Christ and went back to Judaism it would be known to everyone. And if anyone renounces Christ now and goes into another religion it becomes known to many people. And this means public disgrace for Christ and His gospel, and men will dishonor the true God because of it.

6:7,8 The writer gives this illustration to make his meaning clear. The land that produces a crop signifies believers (see Matt 13:23). Land that does not produce a crop signifies unbelievers or apostates. They produce no fruit for God (compare Matt 13:19-22; Luke 13:6-9; etc). Both kinds of land may receive rain (rain here signifies God's truth and the influence of the Holy Spirit), but both do not produce fruit for God. What a person's life produces reveals whether or not Christ is in Him. The thorns and thistles of apostasy are evidence that Christ was never in such people (compare 1 John 2:19). See Matt 3:8; 7:16-20; etc.

6:9,10 Evidently he wanted to remove any unnecessary alarm his words might have caused them (compare 4:1; Rom 8:15). The reason why he is confident that they will not "fall away", be "cursed" or "burned" is simply this: spiritual fruit had appeared in their lives. They loved God, worked for God, and helped the people of God (see 10:32-34). If things like this do not appear in a Christian's life where is the evidence that he is a believer? Even if all of vs 4,5 is true of him, if no fruit for God is seen in his life it is all in vain. He is only like land that brings forth thorns and thistles.

"Service. . .performed" - Matt 25:34-40; 1 Thess 1:3; etc.

6:11,12 Here is the lesson he wanted them to learn from the warning he gave in vs 4-8. It would do them (or us) no good to speculate about the meaning of all that, if they are not earnest about moving forward in the Christian life. The important thing is to go on believing in Christ and serving Him to the end of our time on earth. If we do this we will not become apostates and will not need to fear we will.

"Full assurance" - 2 Cor 13:5; 2 Peter 1:10; 1 John 5:13.

"To the end" - 3:6,14; 10:36.

"Lazy" - Matt 25:26; Prov 18:9; 24:30. Laziness in spiritual matters is disastrous, just as it is in any kind of work.

hope to the end, 12 that you be not lazy, but followers of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself, 14 and said,

Surely in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men certainly swear by those greater than themselves, and an oath given for confirmation is to them an end of the whole dispute. 17 So God, willing more fully to show to the heirs of promise the unchangeability of his purpose, confirmed it with an oath, 18 so that by two unchangeable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge to lay hold on the hope set before us might "Patience" – 10:36; Rom 8:25; Jam 1:4.

6:13-20 Here the writer concludes this section of exhortation (begun at 5:11) and brings us back to the subject of Christ as high priest (v 20). He has spoken of diligence, faith and patience in vs 11,12. Now he gives an example of one in the past who practiced these, and applies it all to believers now.

6:13-15 Abraham was the ancestor of all the Hebrews. Also he is the spiritual father of all who believe (Rom 4:11,16). The faith of Abraham is described in 11:18-19. He is a great example of faith and patience.

"Promise" – Gen 22:16-18.

6:16-18 If men swear to tell the truth what more can be demanded? Indeed, what more than that can men demand of God? Men after such an oath may lie, but God certainly will not (Titus 1:2). If He swears to do something we may be sure He will do it. The "two unchangeable things" (v 18) are God's promise and His oath. He gave them both that believers might have "strong encouragement", that they may be encouraged to believe and go on believing to the end. Believers have "fled for refuge" – fled from sin, and God's anger against it, from the fallen world, from all that would keep them from salvation (compare Num 35:9-29). They have laid hold of God's promise of eternal salvation.

"Refuge" – Ps 7:1; 18:2; 91:2; etc.

6:19,20 The kind of hope the Bible speaks of is not some weak and wavering thing. It is like a strong and secure anchor. It will never fail (compare Rom 5:2-5). An anchor holds a ship steady in one place in the sea. Hope holds believers steady to one place – to the "inner things behind the veil" (heaven, where Jesus is). They will not be wrecked by any storm of apostasy.

"Veil" – 10:19,20; Matt 27:51. The veil or curtain in both tabernacle and temple separated the Holy Place from the Most Holy have strong encouragement.

19 This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and firm. It enters the inner place behind the veil, 20 where the forerunner has entered for us, Jesus himself, who has become high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2 and Abraham gave him a tenth part of everything. By interpretation he is first "King of righteousness", and then "King of Salem" also, that is, King of peace. 3 Being without father, without mother, and without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, he is made like the Son of God and remains a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the plunder. 5 Certainly those who are of the Place (the inner sanctuary). The Most Holy Place signifies heaven. Those believers had not yet entered there, but Jesus had. And they are forever bound to Him by faith and hope. He is there "before" them and "for" them – 4:44; 9:24; Eph 2:6; Col 3:1-4. He is there and will see to it that all of them get there (John 17:24).

7:1-3 Melchizedek was a type or picture of Christ who is both king and priest – 5:6,10; 6:20. Melchizedek appears only once in the history of the Old Testament – Gen 14:18-20, and is mentioned only once more in the Bible until this letter to the Hebrews – Ps 110:4. We know nothing more about him. The language here in v 3 is obscure. Because of it some scholars think he was actually Christ Himself. But if Melchizedek was literally the king of Salem in the land of Canaan then he could not have been Christ. And the writer here says he was "like" the Son of God, not that he was the Son of God.

What does it mean, then, that he was without "father or mother", etc? It probably means that there is no record of any of these in the Bible. We know nothing of his parents, his genealogy, his birth and death. He suddenly appears in the Bible and remains there always the same, always a king and priest, a picture pointing to Christ. He is a good picture. Christ is the King of righteousness, the King of peace, who is greater than Abraham, and who has no beginning and no end (1:2,3,8,10-12), and who is priest forever (5:6).

7:4-10 The writer shows the greatness of Melchizedek – he was greater than Abraham (vs 4-8), and greater than Levi (vs 9,10). This means higher in position. His purpose in showing this is to show that Christ's priesthood is greater than the priesthood of the tribe of Levi.

7:4 Gen 14:20.

7:5 "Levi" – this was the tribe of Israel from which all the priests of the old covenant came sons of Levi who receive the office of the priesthood are commanded according to the Law to take tithes from the people, that is, from their brethren, even though they are descended from Abraham. 6 But he whose descent is not traced from them received tithes from Abraham, and blessed him who had the promises. 7 And without any contradiction the less is blessed by the greater. 8 And here men that die receive tithes. But there they are received by one about whom it is affirmed that he lives. 9 And, I may say, Levi also, who receives tithes, paid tithes in Abraham. 10 For he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

11 Therefore, if perfection came by the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the Law), what further need was there that another priest should arise according to the order of Melchizedek and not be called according to the order of Aaron? 12 But the priesthood having been changed, it is necessary that there be a change of (Num 1:48-53; 3:5-10).

"Tithes" - Lev 27:30; Num 18:24-28.

7:6 "He whose descent is not traced from them" - Melchizedek.

"Blessed him" - Gen 14:19.

7:7 "Greater" - that is, the person in a higher position.

7:8 "Here" - in the case of the priests descended from Levi.

"There" - in the case of Melchizedek.

"That he lives" - v 3.

7:9,10 Melchizedek was in a higher position than anyone descended from Abraham, including Levi and the priests of that tribe. Levi was born about 150 years after Abraham paid a tenth to Melchizedek.

7:11-19 In the remainder of this chapter (and on to 10:18) the writer shows how Christ as priest is far superior to the priests of Levi's tribe. In these verses he begins by showing that the Old Testament priesthood was completely unsatisfactory. If it had been able to accomplish what God wanted done God would not have promised another kind of priest after the order of Melchizedek.

7:11 "Perfection" - 10:14. The priesthood of Levi's tribe could not take away men's sins, or change their hearts, or fit them for heaven.

"The law" - before God gave the law through Moses there was no priesthood of the tribe of Levi. That priesthood was a part of the old covenant (Ex 19:5).

"Aaron" - the first high priest under the law. He was, of course, of the tribe of Levi - Ex 6:16-20; 28:1-3.

7:12 The law and the Old Testament priesthood were tied together. Since the one failed the whole system failed, the whole old covenant failed (this the writer shows in chapter 8). And God laid it aside and brought in something new and better.

7:13,14 "Judah" - in His human nature the law also. 13 For the one about whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, and from it no man served at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang from Judah, and about this tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And this matter is far more evident, since according to the likeness of Melchizedek another priest arises, 16 who has become one, not according to the law having to do with a command concerning bodily origins, but according to the power of an endless life. 17 For he declares,

You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

18 For without doubt the previous commandment has been annulled because of its weakness and uselessness. 19 For the Law made nothing perfect, but bringing in a better hope did, and by this hope we draw near to God.

20 And since he was not made a priest without

Lord Jesus was descended from Judah (Matt 1:1,3-6,16). When Jesus was on earth the temple authorities would not have let Him enter into the Holy Place, or serve at the altar, nor would He have tried to do so (see 8:4; Num 3:10).

7:15-17 The writer has said that there has been a change in the priesthood and the law - v 12. This is clear not only because God has appointed one of the tribe of Judah as high priest, but because God did so on a new basis. The OT priests were chosen strictly according to their ancestry. They had to be descendants of Levi and Aaron. But God chose Christ because of His "endless life" - vs 16,24.

7:17 The writer is showing that this prophecy in Ps 110:4 was also a prophecy about God's setting aside the whole old covenant with its priesthood and law.

7:18,19 "Previous commandment" - the commandment that only men who were descended from Aaron and Levi could become priests. That regulation was "weak and useless" and so the whole Old Testament priesthood and the old covenant based on it were weak and useless to bring salvation to men. They made nothing and no one perfect - v 11. We should learn a very important lesson from this. Since the OT priesthood which God Himself established was weak and useless, we may be sure that any human priesthood in any religion is even more weak and useless. But why did God establish something that proved to be weak and useless? To teach us that it is weak and useless, and to show us we need Christ the great high priest.

"A better hope" - 6:18-20. It is related to the priesthood of Christ. Because of Him and His work as priest on our behalf we can "draw near to God" - 10:19-22.

7:20-22 The writer gives another reason why Christ's priesthood is superior to the an oath 21 (those priests were made such without an oath, but this one with an oath by him who said to him, The Lord swore and will not change his mind, You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek), 22 so much more surely has Jesus become a guarantee of a better covenant.

23 And in fact they were many priests, for they were prevented from continuing because of death. 24 But this man, because he goes on forever, has an unchangeable priesthood. 25 Therefore he is able also to save to the utmost those who come to God through him, because he always lives to make intercession for them.

26 For such a high priest is fitting for us. He is priesthood of Levi's descendants. When God appointed Christ as high priest He promised very solemnly that He would be priest. There was nothing like this in the case of the priests of Levi's tribe. God's oath reveals His unchangeable purpose - 6:17. He wanted the Jews (and us) to be absolutely sure about the priesthood of Christ. That priesthood is at the very foundation of salvation for men. If Christ is not a priest after the order of Melchizedek there is no salvation for anyone, ever.

"A better covenant" (v 22) - the writer takes this up in 8:6-13.

7:23-25 Here is another reason why Christ as priest is greater than the priests of the Old Testament. Christ's priesthood is permanent, theirs was not. Each high priest in Israel died and left his work and position to another. Between Aaron and 70 AD (when the temple was destroyed) there were more than eighty high priests. Jesus lives and carries on His work forever. As a result He is able to save His people forever.

7:25 The word translated "utmost" could also be translated "completely" or "forever." Perhaps all these ideas are here. Jesus saves people perfectly and for all time and eternity. But He saves only "those who come to God through Him" - people who accept Him as the one way to God (John 14:6), as the one Mediator between God and man (1 Tim 2:5), as the one sacrifice for their sins (v 27; 9:28; 10:10; 1 Pet 3:18).

"Because" - Christ's saving people completely and forever is related to His intercession for them. See 9:24; 1 John 2:1; Rom 8:34. Believers in Christ are kept in a state of salvation by His life in heaven - Rom 5:9,10. When still on earth He gave examples of what His prayers for His people were like - John chapter 17; Luke 22:32. Because He is the interceding high priest in heaven He is able to bring all believers to glory (2:10), help them in temptations (2:18; 4:16), and enable them to hold fast their faith to the end (3:6,14; 10:39).

7:26-28 The writer gives another reason why Christ's priesthood is superior to the Old Testament priesthood: Christ Himself is far superior to all those priests. He meets our holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and exalted above the heavens, 27 who does not need to offer up sacrifice daily, as those high priests, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people, for this he did once for all, when he offered up himself. 28 For the Law ordains as high priests men who have weakness, but the word of the oath, which was after the Law, ordains the Son who is consecrated forever.

8 Now the main point of what we have been saying is this: We have such a high priest who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, 2 a minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle that was real need; none of them ever could. He is perfectly holy; they were sinful and needed to offer sacrifices for their own sins. They had to make sacrifices again and again for the people; He took away their sins once and for all by His one sacrifice of Himself. They were weak men; He is the Son of God.

"Separate from sinners" - on earth He lived among sinners, ate with them, received them, was called their friend, showed love for them, was "made sin" for them, and died for them - Matt 11:19; Luke 15:2; Rom 5:8; 2 Cor 5:21; 1 Pet 3:18. But in character He was always in a different class from them. Their sinfulness did not defile Him. He was without a sinful nature and never sinned.

"Exalted above the heavens" - 1:3; 8:1 - something not true of any other priest.

7:28 "Oath" - vs 20-22.

"After the law" - since the law and the OT priesthood proved weak and ineffective for salvation, God appointed another way.

"Consecrated forever" - this was not true of any other priest - v 19.

8:1-13 The writer continues to show that Christ's priesthood is superior to the OT priesthood (and so, of course, to any human priesthood imaginable). It is better because He serves as priest in the true sanctuary of God in heaven itself, but all Old Testament priests performed their work in an earthly sanctuary which was only a little picture of the heavenly one - vs 1-5. Also Christ's priesthood is superior because it is associated with a better covenant than the old one - vs 6-13.

8:1 See 1:3; 7:26.

8:2 "True tabernacle" - 9:1,11; Rev 7:15; 11:19; 13:6; 14:15; 15:5,6; 16:1. The spiritual, heavenly tabernacle (or temple) of God is called "true" in contrast to the Old Testament one described in Exodus chapters 25-30. The Old Testament tabernacle was not "false", but it was only a copy or picture of the true (the heavenly) one - v 5; 9:23,24; 10:1. See Exodus 25:9. (It would seem that the heavenly tabernacle extends to earth. Only the Most Holy Place, the immediate presence of God, is in heaven. The brazen altar - Ex 27:1-8 erected by the Lord, and not by man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this man also have something to offer. 4 If he were on earth, he would not be a priest, since there are already priests who offer gifts according to the Law, 5 who serve at the representation and shadow of heavenly things. So Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle. He said,

See that you make everything according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain.

6 But now Jesus has received a more excellent ministry, and by so much more he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established on better promises. 7 For if that first covenant had been without fault, then no place would have been sought for a second. 8 But finding fault with them, he said,

See, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, – was a picture of Calvary where Christ died as a sacrifice. The basin or laver of the heavenly tabernacle is on earth and believers wash in it – compare Ex 30:17-21. The Holy Place is Christ's Church on earth – compare Ex 25:31-40; Rev 1:12,13; 2:1. See the note at the end of Exodus chapter 30).

8:3 See 5:1. "This man" – the Lord Jesus. What He had to offer was Himself and His own blood – 7:27; 9:14.

8:5 Verse 2. "Moses was warned" – Ex 25:8,9,40; 26:30; 27:8. God does not lightly command something four times. He wanted the earthly tabernacle to teach heavenly truth. He did not want that truth to be distorted by a tabernacle not made in the pattern He gave.

8:6 The writer now begins to compare the old covenant which He gave through Moses with the new covenant established by the Lord Jesus. He continues this comparison up to 10:18. See notes on the old covenant at Ex 19:5,6,21-25; on the new covenant at Jer 31:31-34; Matt 26:28. See another comparison between the old and the new at 2 Cor 3:6-18. The new is far superior to the old because it accomplishes what God wants done in the salvation of men, and the old did not. A covenant is an agreement made between two parties or a promise made from one to another. In the old covenant God promised His blessings to the people of Israel if they obeyed His laws. In the new covenant God promises the forgiveness of sins, a new heart, the knowledge of God which results in eternal life. The one requirement on man's part is repentance and faith.

"Better promises" – vs 10-12. Christ is the "mediator" of the new covenant – 9:15; 12:24. Through Him God established it and 9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt. Because they did not continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them, says the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their mind, and write them in their hearts, and I will be their God, and they will be my people.

11 And among them no one will teach his neighbour, and no one his brother, and say: "Know the Lord", for everyone, from the least to the greatest, will know me.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.

13 By his saying "A new covenant," he has through Him God continually makes it effective.

8:7 What was wrong with the old covenant? The people were all sinners and could not (and would not) obey God's laws. Therefore it brought a curse rather than God's blessings – Rom 8:3; Gal 3:10-13.

8:8-12 See notes at Jer 31:31-34.

8:9 "Did not continue in my covenant" – this was the whole problem. The old covenant of law could show the people what they should do and be, but it could not help them to do or be that. The whole history of the Old Testament from Exodus to Malachi is a story of Israel's failure and unfaithfulness.

8:10 God here promises to make His people new and different, to give them a mind and heart that can keep His commandments (compare John 1:12,13; 3:3-8; Rom 8:3,4; 2 Cor 5:17; 1 Pet 1:23).

"My people" – 2 Cor 6:16-18; 1 Pet 2:9,10.

8:11 "Everyone. . . will know me" – Matt 11:27; John 14:7,17; 17:3,6; 2 Cor 4:6; etc. The new covenant promises the knowledge of God and gives what it promises. This is not merely a knowledge about God, but a direct, spiritual experiential knowledge. No other way, no philosophy, no religious system, can give this. See notes at 1 Cor 1:19-21; 2:7-16; Col 2:8.

8:12 Isa 44:22; Mic 7:19; Luke 24:47; Acts 13:38,39; Rom 4:6-8; 8:33. Notice here in vs 8-12 God's words "I will" repeated again and again. The new covenant is based on God's "I will." The old covenant was based on the people's words "We will" – Ex 19:8; 24:7. This is why the old was weak and failed, and why the new is powerful and succeeds.

8:13 "Obsolete" means no longer in use, made the first old. Now that which is old and has become obsolete is ready to vanish away.

9 Then indeed the first covenant also had regulations for divine service, and an earthly sanctuary. 2 For a tabernacle was constructed. In the first part were the lampstand, and the table, and the showbread. This is called the Holy Place. 3 And behind the second veil, there was that part of the tabernacle called the Most Holy Place. 4 This had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant completely covered with gold in which were the golden jar containing manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant, 5 and over the ark the cherubim of glory no longer acceptable. In God's eyes the covenant given through Moses was at an end. And with it the old priesthood was at an end.

"Ready to vanish away" – the temple still stood in Jerusalem and priests were still active there. But all that came to a stop in 70 A.D. See Matt 24:1,2; Luke 19:41-44. From that time there has been no Jewish temple in Jerusalem and so, of course, no priesthood functioning in accordance with OT laws.

9:1 In this chapter the writer continues the comparison between the priesthood of Christ and that of the OT. He speaks of the old tabernacle and the services of the priests there – vs 1-7. Then he shows what service and worship in the tabernacle signified – vs 8-10. Then he speaks about Christ's one sacrifice as high priest and His entry into the heavenly tabernacle – vs 11-28.

"Sanctuary" – note at Ex 25:8.

9:2 Exodus chapters 25-40 describe the tabernacle and its construction. See notes there on the significance of the items connected with it. Much of Leviticus and parts of Numbers deal with its ministry. The amount of space given to it indicates its importance in God's program of instruction for His people. Some forty chapters are given to it in the Bible. Only two chapters are given to describe God's creation of heaven, earth and man (though creation is referred to many times in the Bible after Genesis chapters 1 and 2). See the note at the end of Exodus chapter 30 on how to use the tabernacle as a spiritual exercise today.

"Lampstand" – Ex 25:31-40.

"Lampstand" is a more accurate translation than "candlestick." People do not put lamps on candlesticks.

"Table" – Ex 25:23-30.

9:3 "Second veil" – Ex 26:31-35. The first curtain separated the Holy Place from the courtyard.

9:4 "Censer" – Ex 30:1-10.

"Ark" – Ex 25:10-15.

"Manna" – Ex 16:14-16,33.

"Aaron's rod" – Num 17:8-11.

"Tablets" – Ex 25:16.

9:5 "Cherubim" – Ex 25:17-22.

overshadowing the mercy seat. About this we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things had been prepared like this, the priests went at any time into the first part of the tabernacle, performing the service of God. 7 But into the second part only the high priest went just once a year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the people's sins of ignorance. 8 In this way the Holy Spirit was showing that the way into the Most Holy Place was not yet revealed, while the first tabernacle was still standing.

9 The tabernacle was a symbol for the present time. Both the gifts and sacrifices offered in it could not make him who performed the service "Glory" – Ex 40:34,35.

9:6 The "first part" means the "Holy Place" – v 2.

"Service" – Ex 27:21; 30:7,8; Lev 24:5-9.

9:7 The "second part" means the Most Holy Place – v 3. Leviticus chapter 16 describes this once-a-year work of the high priest. That chapter should be studied with this one for the full understanding of this one.

"Sins of ignorance" – the writer may not mean sins committed in ignorance of the law, or unknowingly, but in ignorance of God, that is, without a personal experiential knowledge of Him (compare Eph 4:17-19). Actually the day of atonement in Israel dealt with all the people's sins, including uncleanness, wickedness, and rebellion – Lev 16:21,22,30,34 (observe the repeated phrase there – "all their sins"). The work of the high priest in Leviticus chapter 16 was not limited to errors, to sins done unknowingly.

9:8 "The Holy Spirit" – 3:7 (notes at John 14:16,17). From this we see the writer's conviction that God's Spirit inspired the account of the tabernacle and the work of the high priest (see 2 Tim 3:16,17). What lesson did He teach by the day of atonement in Israel? That the way into God's presence then was not yet revealed. As long as the tabernacle (and later the temple) was in use no individual except the high priest in Israel ever got into the Most Holy Place. And the Most Holy Place was the one place in the tabernacle where God's presence was. The tabernacle spoke of barriers to God's presence, not access. Note at Ex 27:9-19.

This does not mean that no individuals in Israel ever got into God's presence apart from the tabernacle. They certainly did – compare Gen 5:24; 6:9; 27:7; Ex 33:14; Ps 51:11; 89:15). But in that era God had not yet revealed the way this could be possible. Now He has revealed it. Sinful men can come into the presence of God, the absolutely Holy One, only because Christ sacrificed Himself to take away their sins – 10:19,20; 1 Pet 3:18.

9:9 The Old Testament sacrifices were not able to take away the consciousness of sin and guilt. So they were not able to cleanse perfect in regard to the conscience, 10 but had to do only with foods and drinks, and various washings, and regulations about the body, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ has come as a high priest of good things to come. Going through a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, 12 and not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, he entered in once for all into the Most Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the ceremonially unclean, sanctifies to the extent of outward bodily purification, 14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this reason he is the mediator of the new covenant, so that as a result of his death as a ransom for sins committed under the first covenant, those who are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 Now where there is a testament, of necessity there must also be the death of the one who made it. 17 For a testament is in force only after men are dead. It has no power at all while the one who made it is living.

the conscience – 10:2. And if the conscience is not clean, there can be no going into God's presence with "full assurance of faith" (10:22). Note on conscience at Acts 23:1.

9:10 The Old Testament regulations concerning food, etc (Leviticus chapter 11; Num 6:15,17; 28:7,8; Ex 30:17-21; Lev 16:24) were also only types, shadows and pictures of spiritual things. They had no spiritual value in themselves but were only external "regulations." And God did not give them for His people forever – only until the "time of reformation." The Greek word translated "reformation" means "making straight." The Old Testament regulations were only meant to last until God introduced a new arrangement (the new covenant established by Christ).

9:11-28 The writer takes up again the subject of Christ as high priest and shows how His ministry accomplishes what all the activities of the priests under the old covenant did not accomplish.

9:11 See 8:2,5.

9:12 "Goats and calves" – Lev 16:14,15,27. "Own blood" – in vs 11-28 the word "blood" is used eleven times. Sacrifice and death also are used several times and these words imply blood. The writer shows that the blood (the sacrifice, the death) of Christ is so important because:

It cleanses the consciences of believers (v 14)

It was a ransom to set them free (v 16)

It is the only basis for forgiveness (v 22)

It purified "heavenly things" (v 23)

And it did away with sin (vs 26,28).

"Redemption" – v 15. Notes at Ps 78:35; Matt 20:28. Notice the redemption Christ obtained for believers is "eternal." Compare 5:9; 10:14. Its result is permanent. He has bought His own at the price of His blood and they are His forever – 1 Pet 1:18,19; 1 Cor 6:20; John 6:37; 17:6,11,12.

9:13 "Heifer" – see Numbers chapter 19. This ceremony had nothing to do with taking away guilt or cleansing the heart from sin. Nor did any other animal sacrifice.

9:14 "Conscience" – conscience is the faculty in a human being which judges his actions and declares them either right or wrong, good or bad. On conscience see Acts 23:1; 24:16; Rom 2:15; 9:1; 1 Cor 8:7; 10:28,29; 2 Cor 1:12; 1 Tim 1:5; 3:9; 4:2; Titus 1:15. If a conscience is defiled with sin and conscious of guilt, it needs to be "cleansed." That is, it must be satisfied that sin and guilt have been taken away, that there is no longer any reason for God's judgment and punishment to come.

This is what the blood of Christ does. Our knowledge of the sacrifice of Christ, our faith that His blood was shed to take away our sins, satisfies our conscience. The blood of Christ does not cleanse us from the knowledge that we are sinners (1 John 1:8; 1 Tim 1:15; etc), but assures us that God's anger is removed from us. God uses the truth about Christ's sacrifice in our minds to instruct our consciences and so cleanse them. Compare Acts 15:9.

An awakened conscience that accuses and rages against us is a very painful thing. How can it find peace and rest? Only in Christ's sacrifice. When this happens we can freely and gladly "serve the living God." Observe the Trinity in this verse – the Son offered Himself to the Father through the Holy Spirit. Notes on the Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; etc.

"Without spot" – 4:15; 7:26; 1 Pet 1:19; 2:22; 3:18.

9:15 "For this reason" – the fact that Christ's blood cleanses the conscience. This is what the OT sacrifices could not do – v 9; 10:2.

"Mediator of the new covenant" – 8:6-13. This covenant is based on the shed blood of the Lord Jesus – Matt 26:28.

"Ransom – v 12; Matt 20:28.

"Under the first covenant" – Christ died for the sins of His people in all ages of the world. This includes all those who sinned before He came into the world. Compare Rom 3:25.

"Inheritance" – 1:2,14.

9:16 "Testament" – in Greek the word for "covenant" is the same as the word for "will" and "testament." In English (and many other languages) we use two entirely different words. In v 15 the writer has spoken of an "inheritance" which comes to believers. Now he says that this inheritance could not come unless the one who made the testament

18 For this reason even the first covenant was not dedicated without blood. 19 For when Moses had spoken every commandment to all the people, according to the Law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, 20 and said, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."

21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels used in its service. 22 And according to the Law almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness. 23 It was therefore necessary that the copies of things in the heavens should be purified by these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves by better sacrifices (Christ) died.

9:18-20 See Ex 24:1-8. The writer now speaks of the old covenant (Ex 19:5), as if it were a will or testament. God made this covenant and in it promised an inheritance to Israel (Deut 12:8-10; Josh 1:6; 23:4; Ps 105:11). But God did not die in order that this covenant or "will" should come into effect. Instead He ordained that animals should die. How can the death of animals bring God's testament into effect?

We must keep in mind that all that was a type or picture or shadow of things to come (vs 23,24; 8:5; 10:1). Israel's inheritance was a picture of the eternal heavenly inheritance promised to believers now. And the sacrifice of animals was a picture of Christ's sacrificial death. God knew then that later in time He would become a man and die, and gave that illustration of His coming death. Moses sprinkled literal blood on the people's bodies (Ex 24:8). Christ sprinkles His blood (spiritually, figuratively) in the inner parts - the heart and conscience of believers (v 14; 10:22).

9:21 This is not recorded in the Old Testament. The writer obtained the information from some other good source.

9:22 "Almost everything" - usually the blood of animals was required for atonement. But there were exceptions (Lev 5:11-13; Num 31:22-24).

"Without. . . blood. . . no forgiveness" - see Lev 17:11. Now God forgives men only on the basis of Christ's shed blood - Matt 26:28; Eph 1:7.

9:23 "Copies of things" - 8:5; 10:1.

"Heavenly things" - heaven itself did not need to be purified. That is God's holy dwelling place and there is no taint of sin or evil there. "Heavenly things" probably means those things of the new covenant, this new relationship between God and believers, the sphere where redeemed men have access to God and serve Him here on earth. These "things" are spiritual realities having to do with believers' present sanctification, worship and service. The OT tabernacle, etc, had to be purified with the blood of animals (Lev than these.

24 For Christ has not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are only copies of the true, but into heaven itself, to appear now in the presence of God for us. 25 And it is not that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with the blood of other sacrifices. 26 For then he would have had to suffer often since the beginning of the world. But now once for all, at the end of the ages, he has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed to men to die once, but after this the judgment, 28 so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. And to those who look for him he will appear the second time for 16:16,20). In the New Testament the "house" of God is His people, Christ's Church (3:6). This "house" had to be purified with Christ's blood. Christ Himself and His blood are the "better sacrifices" of this verse.

9:24 "Copies" - or "representations." This is what the holy places in both the tabernacle and the temple were. They were made according to the pattern of "the true" - note at 8:2. Heaven is the "true" Most Holy Place. "For us" - 7:25; 1 Tim 2:5; 1 John 2:1.

9:25 Lev 16:14,15,34.

9:26 "Once for all" - vs 12,28; 10:10,14. Christ's one sacrifice nearly two thousand years ago was all that is needed for men to be forgiven. He offered Himself and took away the "sin of the world" (John 1:29). Any repetition of this one sacrifice is unnecessary and unthinkable.

9:27 "Die once" - the Bible does not teach that individuals are born physically again and again on earth and die again and again. There is only one physical birth and one physical death. See notes on reincarnation at Job 11:12; John 9:3. The idea that through reincarnation individuals can obtain salvation is completely unnecessary (as well as false). Christ by the sacrifice of Himself took away all our sins. In a moment of time any of us by trusting in Him can receive complete forgiveness, spiritual birth and eternal salvation.

"Judgment" - Matt 10:15; Acts 17:31; etc. After that one death men die, there is something that awaits them, and it is not rebirth back into the world.

9:28 "The sins of many" - Isa 53:11; Matt 26:28. Compare John 1:29; 2 Cor 5:14; John 3:16; 1 John 2:2. Though Jesus died for the whole world only those who receive Him by faith have the forgiveness of sins.

"Second time" - see references at John 14:3. In this verse "salvation" means the final salvation of believers, viewed here as something future. It is like an inheritance to be received hereafter - 1:14; Rom 8:23,24; 1 Pet 1:4,5. Believers are saved already from the penalty of sin, from condemnation and hell. They are being salvation, without bearing sin.

10 For the Law has a shadow of good things to come, not the very substance of the things. So with those sacrifices which they offer continually year after year it can never make perfect those who approach it. 2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? Because the worshippers once cleansed would no longer have a consciousness of sins. 3 But in those sacrifices sins are remembered again every year. 4 For it is saved from the power of sin (Matt 1:21; John 5:24; Rom 8:1-4; 1 Cor 1:21; etc). They will be saved from the presence of sin and its effects, and obtain complete salvation of spirit, soul, and body.

Notice the words "Those who look for him" – Matt 24:42-51. This means to look forward with hope for His appearance. Compare Titus 2:13. On the day of atonement (Leviticus chapter 16) after the high priest entered the Most Holy Place the people of God waited outside for His appearance. Jesus has entered the true Most Holy Place, heaven itself. Outside, on the earth, His people wait for Him. This suggests that this entire age between the first and second comings of Christ is like a great day of atonement.

10:1 "Shadow" – 8:2,5; 9:23,24. The law with its tabernacle and offerings and regulations and rules was only a type, a hint, a picture of "good things" – the things of Christ's ministry for men and the eternal salvation of His believers.

"Can never make perfect" – v 14; 2:10; 5:9; 11:40; 12:23. Animal sacrifices could never begin to make anyone perfectly fit for God's presence (7:11,19). For the significance of animal sacrifices see notes at Lev 1:2.

10:2,3 See 9:9. "Consciousness of sin" – or, possibly, a "sinful conscience." The writer means that if the people had really thought that their sins were completely, finally taken away by their offerings, their consciences would have been cleansed; they would have realized that their heart need no longer accuse them. See 9:14.

10:4 "Not possible" – why was this impossible? Animals could not be a substitute for men and die in their place. All they could be was a picture, a type of someone dying in the place of men. Animals have no moral nature. They were only ignorant, unwilling victims which could never bear the guilt and punishment due to the sins of man. This punishment is spiritual death, separation from God. See Matt 25:41; 2 Thess 1:9; Rev 20:14.

Even men could never be a sin offering for other men. Every man is a sinner and can die only for his own sins, not the sins of someone else. If there were a sinless man, and if he could be a sacrifice for sin, he could only die in the place of one other man, not for all men. Also God would have to agree to it, and He has not. To grasp fully not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Therefore when he comes into the world, he says,

Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you have prepared for me.

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you have had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, See, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God.

the teaching of the Bible about atonement and substitutionary death we should understand the following facts.

All sin is against God – see Ps 51:4. Even those sins which seem to be only against other people, or oneself, or the world, are really against God, because all men and all creation are His property. If a person destroys your house he is sinning against you because it is your house. If a person harms another human being or property or the environment he is sinning against God because everything is God's. If a person sins against you (like destroying your house) and you forgive him without demanding payment you are bearing the results of his sin against you. You are showing that you are willing to pay the cost of it.

If God is willing to forgive all men, then he must be willing to bear the results of their sins and pay the cost Himself of what they have done. Sin cries out for punishment, for vengeance (see Num 31:1-3; Deut 32:41,43; Isa 34:8; 47:3; Rom 12:19). Who will, who can bear this punishment? Who can bear the just penalty that God demands for His broken laws? Then who? Only guilty people, or else God Himself. Only He, coming as a sinless man and offering Himself as a sacrifice for the sins of men, could bear their penalty and take away their guilt. This He did.

This is the meaning of Christ's incarnation. He, the sinless God-man, could be the substitute for all men. All sin was against Him. In our place He bore all sin in His own body on the cross and suffered its penalty (2:9; 13:12; Acts 20:28; 1 Pet 2:24). Atonement and forgiveness are based on suffering – not the suffering of a sacrificial animal, not our own suffering, but God's. If Christ is not the incarnation of God there could have been no final and complete atonement for sin.

10:5-7 See notes at Ps 40:6-8. This quotation is from the Greek translation of the Old Testament (Septuagint) dating from the 3rd century BC. The writer is showing from the OT that his teaching about animal sacrifices is correct.

"Sacrifice and offering" – God did not want animal sacrifices but a much better sacrifice than those. "I" in v 7 means Christ. "Your will, O God" here means God's will that Christ should be the one sacrifice for sins.

10:7 Matt 26:39; etc.

8 Above when he said, "Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you did not desire, and have had no pleasure in" (which are offered by the Law), 9 and then said, "See, I come to do your will, O God." He takes away the first things so that he may establish the second.

10 By this will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest stands daily ministering and offering over and over the same sacrifices which can never take away sins. 12 But this man, after 10:8 "Offered by the law" – God appointed them so that they could be an illustration of the sacrifice of Christ. But He knew that they could not do all that He wanted done.

10:9 "That he may establish the second" – he means the old and new covenants. He has set aside the first one – 8:7,13.

10:10 "Sanctified" – by completely fulfilling God's will and dying for believers Christ has made them holy. This means He has set them apart and consecrated them to be God's people – 1 Pet 2:9. See notes on holy and sanctify at Lev 20:7; John 17:17-19. The word here in v 10 does not speak of the life of holiness believers are to live. That is seen in 12:10-16. Believers in Christ are now holy, they are being made holy (12:10), they will finally be made completely holy (Col 1:22). This is true of all His believers, not merely a special few.

10:11 "Stands" – there was no chair in the tabernacle or temple. This may well signify that the work of the priests there was never finished.

"Never take away sins" – v 4.

10:12 "Forever" – vs 10,14; 9:12,25-28. His one sacrifice is forever, because no other sacrifice for sin is needed.

"Sat down" – this indicates that His work of offering a sacrifice was finished forever. Nothing can be added to it. See John 19:30. Nothing that any so-called priest can do now is in any way necessary for the salvation of anyone.

"Right hand" – the writer brings us back to where he started his letter – 1:3.

10:13 "Footstool" – 1:13; Ps 110:1. God the Father has not yet made Christ's enemies a "footstool." Christ still waits for that time. It will come – Rev 11:15-18.

10:14 For many hundreds of years priests sacrificed many thousands of animals each year, but by all that not one sin was taken away, not one person made "perfect." But Christ's one offering made all believers in Him perfect forever. What does this mean? One meaning of the Greek word translated "perfected" is "made complete." In this verse this would mean this:

Christ's sacrifice for His people saves them completely with nothing lacking (compare 7:25).

His one sacrifice is the basis of a perfect standing before God. By it every barrier has been removed and perfect reconciliation made.

he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God. 13 From now on he waits expectantly until his enemies are made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are sanctified.

15 Concerning this the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us. For after he first said, 16 "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and write them in their minds," he adds, Christ has perfectly taken away their sins – not one is counted against them (Rom 4:8; 8:33).

He has given them a perfect relationship with God (Rom 8:1,15; 2 Cor 5:18,19).

He has perfectly cleansed their conscience (9:14).

He has perfectly fitted them to enter the presence of God now and forever (v 22; Rom 5:2; Eph 2:18).

That this is the meaning of the word "perfected" as used here is clear from the verses which follow (up to v 23). No believer on earth is perfect in the sense that he has no flaw, or has no sin in him, or never errs – Jam 3:2; 1 John 1:8. No believer yet is perfect in every sense – see Phil 3:12 where the same word is used. That kind of perfection awaits the future – 1 John 3:2.

"Forever" – 5:9; 9:12. The results of Christ's sacrifice for His people individually and collectively are permanent and irreversible.

"Those who are sanctified" – v 10. If this phrase is translated "those who are being sanctified" (as some scholars say it should be translated), then the phrase would point out what is happening to all believers in Christ; it would be a definition of what all real believers are. Compare 12:5-10; Matt 5:6,8; Rom 6:15-22; 8:12-14; 1 John 3:3,6,9,10. All believers in Christ, not merely some exceptionally holy and dedicated ones, are "made perfect" in Him, and have been sanctified, and are being sanctified.

10:15 "Holy Spirit also is a witness. . . saying" – 3:7; 9:8; 2 Tim 3:16; 2 Pet 1:21. Here He reveals what it means for believers to be "made perfect."

10:16 See Jer 31:34. This is a very important element in the perfection that Christ brings believers into. God gives them a spiritual understanding of His laws and an inner desire and ability to obey them. This is what Christ had (v 7), and this is what God gives His people on the basis of Christ's sacrifice. It is a very important mark of the new covenant. Indeed, without it what real evidence is there that anyone is a believer? See John 14:15,23; Rom 8:3,4; 1 Cor 2:16; 2 Cor 3:3. What use is it for a person to say his sins are gone if he has no heart for God, no mind to serve Christ, no delight in doing God's will revealed in the Bible? Can the blessings of the new covenant be divided? Can we have one and refuse the others?

17 "And their sins and lawless deeds I will remember no more."

18 Now where these have forgiveness, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Therefore, brothers, we have boldness to enter into the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way that he has consecrated for us through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; 21 and we have a high priest over the house of 10:17 This too helps to show the writer's meaning when he says Christ has made believers "perfect." He has given them perfect forgiveness of sins. The meaning here is the same as Paul's meaning when he says believers have been counted righteous. See Rom 3:24; 4:6-8; 8:33. Christ has made the believer's standing before God perfect.

10:18 "No more" – the work is finished completely and perfectly and forever. God does not require any other sacrifice or any repetition of Christ's one sacrifice.

10:19-23 Here, in some of the most significant and powerful words ever penned, is the essence of all the writer has been saying up to this point.

10:19 "Therefore" – 2:1; 3:1; 4:1,14; 6:1. The writer has concluded the teaching about Christ as High Priest and Mediator of the new covenant. Now he exhorts all believers to behave in accordance with all this truth. In doing so he further shows how "perfect" is their standing with God.

"Boldness to enter" – under the old covenant only the high priest could enter the Most Holy Place and that only once a year (9:7). No ordinary Israelite ever had the boldness to enter there. Now any moment of any day the believer in Christ can confidently enter the heavenly Most Holy Place – that is, can enter the presence of God. God has made all believers "priests" (13:15,16; 1 Pet 2:9; Rev 1:6), and all may follow their high priest into God's presence. But this is only because the blood of Jesus has made atonement for sin and removed that barrier that separated God and men.

10:20 This way of Christ is new compared with the way of the old covenant which kept people at a distance – Ex 19:21-25; 27:9-19. It is a living way, a way that depends on Christ's life and gives new spiritual life to those who believe in Him – John 14:6; 3:1-4. This is in contrast to the dead ceremonies and rituals of the old covenant.

"The veil" – in both the tabernacle and the temple there was a curtain which separated the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place (9:3). This signified that the way into God's presence was not yet revealed – 9:8. That curtain was a symbol of Christ. When Christ came in a human body (10:5) and died for our sins the curtain in the temple was torn into two parts – Matt 27:50,51, leaving a gap in the middle. In other words, His death revealed the way into God's presence. We can enter the Most Holy Place because of Christ's crucified body, torn for us.

God. 22 So let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold firmly the confession of our faith without wavering (for he is faithful who promised).

24 And let us consider how to stir each other up to love and good works, 25 not forsaking our meetings together, as the way of some is, but

10:21 "We have a high priest" – 2:17; 4:14; etc. "House of God" – 3:6.

10:22 "Let us draw near" – see 4:16; Eph 2:18; 3:12; Rom 5:1,2; Jam 4:8. The writer says four things are involved in drawing near as we ought.

"Sincere heart" – Luke 12:1; Matt 5:8; John 4:23,24; 1 Cor 5:8.

"Full assurance of faith" – 11:1,6. Compare 3:12. This is what all believers should have and can have. We should be sure that Christ has taken away our sins, that He is our high priest, that His way brings us to God, that God will receive us into His presence. Doubts and fears about these matters should have no place in our hearts. And the better we understand what God has revealed in this letter to the Hebrews the greater our assurance can be. Compare 3:14; 6:19; 1 John 5:13; 2 Tim 1:12; John 14:1; Luke 12:32.

"Sprinkled from an evil conscience" – this "sprinkling" of the heart speaks of an inner experience. See 9:13,14. The blood of Christ is sprinkled on the believer's heart. This means that the understanding of Christ's sacrifice, and belief in it, gives cleansing to his heart.

"Bodies washed with pure water" – all through this letter the writer has regarded the physical things of Old Testament worship as symbols of spiritual realities. He is doing the same thing here (though some scholars think he was referring to Christian baptism). See Ex 30:17-21; Lev 8:6; 16:4. This physical washing of the bodies of the priests signifies the cleansing of the acts of the bodies of believers now. They are the priests under the new covenant – v 19. Their outward behavior is to be clean, just as their hearts are to be clean. The new and living way which God has opened for believers now was pictured to some extent in the Old Testament. See the note on the spiritual use of the tabernacle at the end of Exodus chapter 30.

10:23 "He is faithful" – 6:16-18; Titus 1:2; 1 John 5:9,10. We should not dishonor Him by doubt and unbelief – these would suggest that He is not faithful to His promises.

10:24 In vs 19-23 he has spoken of the relationship of believers to God, now he shows they have responsibilities to one another. See also 3:13; Rom 14:19; 15:2; 1 Cor 9:24; Col 3:16.

"Consider" – we ought to give thought as to how to go about encouraging others to love Christ more and to serve Him better.

10:25 No believer should give up going to encouraging each other, and so much the more as you see the day approaching.

26 For if we wilfully go on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins, 27 but only a fearful expectation of judgment and fiery indignation which will consume the adversaries. 28 He who despised Moses' law died without mercy on the testimony of meetings where other believers will be. Each one needs fellowship and each one should encourage others in this life of faith. What is meant by seeing "the day approaching"? Possibly the writer meant the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple (Matt 24:1-3; Luke 19:41-44; 21:20-24). This was very near to the time he wrote this letter. Or he may have meant the day of Christ's return (9:28; Matt 24:33). Or he may have included both in this phrase. Many among the first generation of Christians were looking for both of these events to happen at more or less the same time.

10:26-31 This is the fourth warning against apostasy. See note at 2:1-4. This one concerns deliberately sinning against the light of the glorious truth God has revealed through Christ and about Christ.

10:26 "Go on sinning" – this describes a settled state of the heart and life, not one or more acts of sin. The writer does not say that he thinks any of them will fall into this condition. He uses the word "if" (compare 6:6). In v 39 he says he is sure that the believers to whom he is writing will not be guilty of it (compare 1 John 3:9,10).

The writer seems to be referring to one kind of sin in particular. Believers may sin and obtain forgiveness (1 John 1:9; 2:1; 5:16). But there is a sin for which there is no forgiveness. Here that sin is described as rejecting Christ and His sacrifice, turning away from the new covenant in His blood, and refusing to obey the voice of God's Spirit (v 29). There are those who teach that if believers commit sin they may be lost forever. This is not the teaching of the New Testament – Matt 6:12; 1 John 1:9; 2:1.

"Knowledge of the truth" – he does not say "after repentance and faith." We may have the knowledge of the truth and yet refuse to repent and believe in Christ. The sin the writer speaks about in this verse may be this continual refusal. That is indicated in the next words.

"No more sacrifice" – if anyone rejects Christ's sacrifice he has cut himself off from the one way of forgiveness. And if such a person thinks that he can offer again the OT sacrifices (or any other such sacrifices), and that God will accept them, he is making a grave mistake.

10:27 "Judgment" – 9:27; Acts 17:31; Rev 20:11-15.

"Fiery" – 12:29; 2 Thess 1:7; Matt 3:10; Mark 9:42-48; Luke 16:24; Rev 20:14.

"Adversaries" – he means God's enemies. Anyone who deliberately rejects the truth God two or three witnesses. 29 Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought deserving who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know him who has said,

Vengeance is mine, I will repay, has revealed about Christ and His one sacrifice for sin will find that they are among God's enemies. Compare John 7:7; 15:18; Rom 5:10; Jam 4:4.

10:28 See 2:2; Deut 17:6,7. For sins under the law that were punished by death see Ex 21:36. See an example in Num 15:30-35.

10:29 This is the sin the writer speaks of in v 26. Compare 6:6; Matt 12:31; 1 John 5:16,17. Deliberate sin against the old covenant was punished by death. The new covenant is far greater than the old, so sin against it is far worse than sin against the old. The greater the light and truth God gives, the greater our responsibility to obey it, and the greater the punishment if we do not. Will a true believer in Christ commit the sin described in this verse – trample Christ under foot, count His blood unholy, etc? It seems impossible in the light of other teaching about believers in the New Testament. See John 5:24; Rom 8:1,28-33; Phil 1:6; 1 John 3:9,10; etc.

But what about the phrase "the blood. . . with which he was sanctified?" Can a person be "sanctified" by Christ's blood and not be a believer, not be saved? The word sanctification does not necessarily imply salvation and faith. The root meaning is to "set apart" (notes at Lev 20:7; John 17:17-19). For a case of unbelievers being sanctified see 1 Cor 7:14. Let us keep in mind that in this letter we have a comparison of the old and new covenants, and that it was written to Hebrews. They knew that as a nation Israel was sanctified by blood (9:18-20; Ex 24:7,8; 31:13; Lev 21:8). But this did not at all mean that every individual in Israel was a true believer or saved from God's wrath – see 3:10,11,19.

The foundation of the new covenant is Christ's blood – 9:15. See 13:12, which says that Christ suffered to sanctify "the people" with His own blood. The new covenant was made with the house of Israel – 8:8. The nation of Israel is still set apart (sanctified) from other nations for God's special purpose (Rom 9:1-5; 11:11,25-29). But most of them reject Christ and remain without faith and salvation. And is it not possible to say that the visible church on earth is sanctified by the blood of Christ? And is it not true to say also that a great many in the visible church are unbelieving and have never been saved? See also 1 Tim 2:6, which says that Christ gave Himself as "a ransom" for all men. The ransom He gave was Himself, His own blood – 1 Pet 1:18,19.

10:30 Deut 32:35,36; Ps 135:14.

says the Lord.

And again,

The Lord will judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But recall the former days, when, after you were enlightened, you patiently endured a great struggle with sufferings. 33 On the one hand, you were made a spectacle by both insults and oppression, and on the other hand, you associated yourselves with those who were so treated. 34 For you had compassion on me in my chains, and endured joyfully the plundering of your possessions, because you knew that you have in heaven a better possession and 10:31 Falling into the hands of the living God is a fearful thing because God is holy, hates sins and will surely punish unbelief and rebellion. We need not worry about this if we receive God's truth and follow it, if we do as He says in vs 19-25.

10:32-39 As he did in 6:9-12 after the warning against falling away from the truth, so he does now. He wants them to know he believes they are saved people who will not commit the sin of vs 26-29. He wants them to have confidence and go on proving their faith by their deeds.

10:32-34 Their firmness in the face of suffering, their love for other people of Christ, their willingness to lose all things for Christ's sake – all this was strong evidence that their faith was real.

"Struggle" (v 32) – v 26; Acts 26:18; 2 Cor 4:6; 2 Tim 3:12.

"One that lasts" (v 34) – see 6:12; Matt 6:19,20; Rom 8:17; 1 Pet 1:4. Eternal possessions are what every believer in Christ has, so he should not be much concerned with what happens to his possessions down here, or whether he even has any or not.

10:35-36 "Reward" – Matt 19:28-30; Rev 22:12.

"Patient endurance" – see 3:6,14; 6:11; Rom 3:3-5; 8:24,25; Jam 1:2-4. Simply going on enduring all things and keeping faith in Christ in spite of anything that happens – this is what every believer must do. And the writer is confident that they will do so (v 39). We should have the same confidence.

10:37,38 Hab 2:3,4. See also Rom 1:17; Gal 3:11. God counts men righteous when they believe Him – Rom 3:24,25,28; 4:24; 5:1. Having been counted righteous they begin a life of faith which goes on to the end of their time on earth (2 Cor 5:7). In Hebrews the emphasis is on this living by faith and persevering to the end by faith.

"If anyone draws back" – 6:6.
10:39 "We" – he means true believers in Christ (he knew he was one, and they had given much evidence that they were – vs 32-34; 6:11). "If" they "draw back", God will not be pleased; it will mean one that lasts. 35 Therefore do not cast away your confidence. It involves a great payment of reward. 36 For you have need of patient endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise. 37 For yet a little while and he who is coming will come, and will not delay.

38 "Now the righteous will live by faith, but if anyone draws back, my soul will have no pleasure in him."

39 But we are not of those who draw back to destruction, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

destruction for them. But the inspired writer says they will not draw back. Some say even true believers may draw back, commit the sins described in v 26; 2:3; 3:12; 6:6; 12:25, and be lost forever. The writer indicates that they will not. Faith is much more powerful than some people think. It is stronger than the world (1 John 5:4).

It can move mountains and make seemingly impossible things possible (Matt 17:20; Rom 4:19-22).

It enables us to see the invisible (2 Cor 4:18).

It is the instrument God has chosen to save men and to keep them saved (Eph 2:8; 1 Pet 1:5) – so it must be the very best instrument for that.

Will an instrument God has selected fail to achieve His purpose? It is an object of Christ's special prayer for believers (Luke 22:32). Will it, then, fail? The writer to Hebrews expresses his confidence that it will not. See the note at Rom 5:9,10 also. True believers in Christ go on believing to the final salvation God has promised them. In the next chapter he shows something of the power of faith.

11:1 This is the only place in the Bible where faith is defined in words (many places show what it is by revealing it in action). Faith has to do with two areas or spheres – the future (what we hope for), and the unseen. God has made promises and given revelations concerning these two spheres. Faith believes these promises and relies on these revelations. This brings assurance to the heart. Faith is not a leap into the dark; it is a leap into the light. It is not wishful thinking; it is based on the powerful evidence of God's Word. True faith does not believe every idea about God that men may have, or everything that men think is God's revelation. It believes the truth revealed in the Bible.

"Assurance" – the word also means "substance" or "essence" or "nature" or "confidence" but here "assurance" seems best. The Greek is a combination of two

2 For by it the forefathers obtained a good commendation.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were created by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain did. By it he obtained a testimony that he was righteous, God testifying of his offerings. And by it, though he is dead, he still words, one meaning "under", the other meaning "standing." In other words, faith is something which stands under something else, something like a foundation. What is this something else that faith stands under? Here in Hebrews it is all that is hoped for in Christ. Faith is a true foundation for our hopes. Without faith we would have no right to hope and no good reason for hoping. And faith is a foundation, a quality, which enables us to stand under every kind of hardship, difficulty or suffering that could possibly destroy hope. Compare Rom 5:1-4.

"Conviction" – or "evidence" or "proving" or "exposing" – the Greek word may mean any of these. The verb is used in John 3:20; 16:8; 1 Cor 14:24; Eph 5:11,13; etc. Faith is a conviction that the unseen things the Bible speaks of actually exist. In a way, it brings them to light, enables the unseen to be "seen." Compare v 27; 2 Cor 4:18. 11:2 "Forefathers" – here means the people of God who lived in olden times. God commended them for their faith. The commendation was this: out of the whole human race they alone were on the right road, believed the one true God, were righteous before God. We have a part of that commendation in this chapter. From God's point of view the history of mankind is a history of those who believed Him. Faith and what it accomplished is what really matters, for that is what will last forever; all else passes away (1 John 2:17).

11:3 Observe that faith is not contrary to understanding or reason – faith gives understanding. It is like the eye which lets in the light. Believers know how the universe came into being because God has revealed it. They need not speculate about its origin as unbelievers do. God spoke and creation began (Gen 1:1,3,6,9, etc; Ps 33:6; Isa 40:26; 42:5; John 1:3; Col 1:16).

11:4 Now he begins to speak of the "forefathers" who had faith. Not all of them were great or exceptional people (Abel was a shepherd, Jacob and Samson were full of faults, Rahab had been a prostitute, etc). But they all had one thing in common – they believed God and in this they are examples to us all. Not all Old Testament believers are here by name. The writer chose various ones to illustrate various aspects of faith, the many sides of faith. The results of faith as seen here are three.

First, it caused those who had it to do something. True faith is not lifeless, not speaks.

5 By faith Enoch was taken away so he would not experience death. He was not found, because God had taken him away. For before his being taken away he had the testimony that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

inactive. It is a powerful force which always produces action (see notes at 10:39; Jam 2:14-26).

Second, faith obtained blessings from God. God blessed each believer in this list in some wonderful way or other.

Third, faith enabled those who had it to endure all things and go on enduring to the end. So true faith works, obtains, and perseveres. A faith that does not do these three things is not true Bible faith.

"Abel" – see Gen 4:1-10. In him we see the relationship between faith and sacrifice. This is where all of us as sinners must begin, and that is one of the chief teachings of this letter. Abel's faith was based on a revelation (true faith always is), and by faith he chose the sacrifice God had appointed. Cain refused to do this. So Abel's sacrifice was better than his.

"Faith. . . righteous" – compare Gen 15:6; Rom 1:17; 3:22; 5:1. By his example Abel still speaks today and says "Believe God's revelation and choose God's appointed sacrifice." Now this sacrifice is the Lord Jesus Christ – 7:27; 9:12,26,28; 10:10,14.

11:5 Enoch illustrates the relationship between faith and fellowship with God. See Gen 5:21-24. There is no possibility of knowing God or walking with God apart from faith. Unbelief calls God a liar (1 John 5:10), and how can there be fellowship between two persons when there is distrust and slanderous thoughts in the heart of one? Enoch illustrates also the relationship between faith and immortality, the change that will come to believers when Christ returns (1 Cor 15:51-53; 1 Thess 4:15-17).

11:6 "Without faith it is impossible to please him" – not merely difficult. Unbelief is not a small fault God can overlook, not some sort of misfortune. It is a deadly sin that strikes at the very heart of that relationship that should exist between God and man. It is the inner choice of a person for sin and darkness instead of God and light. It is a rejection of God's revelation and God's Son. And God punishes it as it deserves – 3:11,12,19; John 3:36; Rev 21:8.

Observe that faith accepts two things as true: that the God revealed in the Bible exists, and that He will reward the earnest seeker. Here are the two realms of v 1 – the unseen (God), and the future (rewards). Faith accepts these two truths because God has revealed them – 1:1-3; Isa 44:6; 45:5,18,21; John 1:18; Matt 7:7,8.

7 By faith Noah, being warned of God about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to save his household. By it he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go to a place that he would afterwards receive for an inheritance. And he went out not knowing where he was going.

9 By faith he lived in the land of promise, as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. 10 For he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith Sara also received strength to become pregnant, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she considered the one who had promised faithful. 12 Therefore from just one man, and him as good as dead, came offspring as many as the multitude of the stars of the sky, as innumerable as the sand at the sea shore.

"Earnestly seek him" – see Deut 4:29; Jer 29:13.

11:7 Noah illustrates the connection between faith and refuge from God's anger against sin. See Gen 6:9-7:5. Now Christ is the refuge for people. They are safe under His protection.

"Fear" – notes at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:7-11; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

"Household" – compare Acts 16:31.

"Condemned the world" – an example of faith condemns unbelief as light condemns darkness (compare John 3:18-21; 15:22-24).

"Righteousness which is by faith" – Rom 1:17; 3:24,25; etc.

11:8-19 This chapter gives more space to Abraham than to anyone else. He is the supreme example of faith in the Old Testament and is called "the father of all who believe" – Rom 4:11,16. His life is an illustration of several different aspects of faith.

11:8 See Gen 12:1-5; Acts 7:2-4. Here is the relationship between faith and obedience to God. Without faith there will be no real obedience and if there is no obedience it is proof that there is no faith. See 5:9; John 3:36; Acts 5:32; Rom 1:5; 2 Thess 2:8; and the note at Acts 22:10. God called Abraham to leave all behind and to set out for an unseen place. So he illustrates also the connection between faith and separation from one's former way of life, faith and forsaking all (compare Luke 14:33; 18:28-30; 2 Cor 6:17,18). But is it not foolish to set out and not know where one is going or what one will be doing? Foolish to man's reason, perhaps, but not to faith and its greater understanding.

11:9,10 Gen 12:6-9. Abraham's living in tents and being frequently on the move illustrates the relationship between faith and pilgrimage. See vs 13-16. Abraham had his eyes on the eternal world, so he did not

13 These all died in faith, not having received the things promised. But they saw them far off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they who say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. 15 And certainly, if they had been thinking of that country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But they were longing for a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, 18 of whom it was said, "In Isaac will your descendants be called." 19 Abraham took into account that God was able to raise him even from the dead. And he received him back from there, figuratively speaking.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau settle down in this one. Compare 1 Pet 2:11. Believers now are to have the same outlook. Their lasting possessions and their citizenship are in heaven (10:34; Matt 6:19,20; Phil 3:20). By faith they understand this and rejoice in the fact that this world is not their home, that they are only passing through it on their way to the city of God in heaven (12:22; Gal 4:26; Rev 21:2). 11:11,12 Gen 15:4-6; 21:1-5; Rom 4:18-21. It is certain that Abraham believed God's promise that he and Sarah his wife would have descendants. But in Genesis when God promised He would give a son to Abraham and Sarah, nothing is said about Sarah's faith. See Gen 18:10-15. According to the writer to the Hebrews later on she too believed God's promise. Together they illustrate the connection between faith and fruitfulness, or faith and seeming impossibilities (Matt 17:20).

11:13 They all illustrate the faith which perseveres to the end (10:39).

"Strangers and pilgrims" – not just Abraham (vs 9,10), but all believers the writer has named had the same understanding, the same outlook. Things hoped for, things unseen (v 1) were the great objects of their thoughts, desires, and belief.

11:17-19 Gen 22:1-19. Several aspects of faith are seen in this event – faith and victory in trial, faith obedient in a time of perplexity, faith and resurrection, faith and the infallibility of God's promises. For the fulfillment of God's promise in Gen 21:12, Isaac had to live. Abraham believed that if he had to sacrifice Isaac, then God would raise him from death; that God would fulfill His promise regardless of appearances to the contrary. True faith perseveres in spite of circumstances and appearances. It lays hold of the fact that God cannot lie and reasons in His favor.

11:20 Gen 27:27-40. This illustrates the concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph, and worshipped, leaning on the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when he was about to die, mentioned the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was an exceptional child, and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 By faith Moses, after he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. 25 He chose to suffer ill-treatment with the people of God, rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time, 26 considering reproach for Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, for he had fixed his eyes on the giving of the reward.

connection between faith and things hoped for (v 1).

11:22 Gen 49:1-28; 50:24,25. Both Jacob and Joseph illustrate faith that goes on until death still sure about things God promised for the future (v 13). Jacob's faith actually shone brightest at the end of his life. True faith does not "draw back" even in the hour of dying (10:39). Were the Hebrews who received this letter tempted to forsake this faith because of difficulties? Let them look to their ancestors. Through what troubles and trials they came! But each one endured to the end. This is what God enables true faith to do.

11:23 Ex 1:22; 2:2; Acts 7:20. They believed God and so were not afraid of the king's orders. Strong faith overcomes fear - 13:6; Matt 8:26; Mark 4:40; Acts 4:13. They illustrate faith working in behalf of children. Compare v 7; Acts 17:31.

11:24-26 Ex 2:11-13; Acts 7:23-26. Moses at the age of forty made the choice between Egypt and God. Choosing Egypt would mean worldly power, wealth, and pleasure. Choosing God meant to give all that up, and to suffer with God's people who were then slaves in Egypt. Moses chose God and let everything else go. He could do this because he had faith, and faith helps men to put the proper value on things. Faith is sure that the future unseen things of God are of far more worth than all the world can offer. Compare Phil 3:7,8.

Moses illustrates the connection between faith and renunciation. See 10:34; Luke 14:33; 18:28-30; Matt 4:18-22; 10:37-39; 16:24-28. True faith will always be willing to give up everything for Christ. Those who are not willing, though they may say they have faith and though others may think they have faith, actually are without true Bible faith. Then what shall we say of those Christians who reject the way of Moses and Paul, refuse to suffer for Christ, and go after the pleasures, wealth and power of this world? They have a profound need to learn this 27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the anger of the king. And he patiently endured, as though he saw him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land. The Egyptians, trying to do this, were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho collapsed, after they were encircled for seven days.

31 By faith the prostitute Rahab did not perish with those who refused to believe, since she had peacefully received the spies.

32 And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah, and David, and Samuel, and the prophets, 33 who through faith subdued great truth - disgrace for Christ's sake is of greater value than the treasures of the world (v 26; 13:13; Acts 5:41; 1 Pet 4:12-16).

11:27 "Not fearing" - Ex 2:14 says Moses was afraid that his acts mentioned in vs 11,12 had become known. He must have realized this would cause further trouble to his people Israel. Evidently he feared for them, not for himself. He left Egypt "by faith", not by fear. True faith is always based on some word from God. Moses left Egypt because he knew God was telling him to do so. He persevered in faith (10:39), and he "saw" Him who is invisible (v 1; 2 Cor 4:18). Faith gives spiritual sight to men.

11:28 See Ex 12:1-30. Here is faith and deliverance from God's judgment. Compare v 7; 9:27,28; 1 Cor 5:7.

11:29 See Ex 14:15-31. Here is faith and deliverance from enemies.

11:30 See Josh 6:12-20. Here is faith and taking what God has promised (compare Josh 1:3; 1 John 5:14,15; Mark 11:24).

11:31 See Josh 2:1-21; 6:24,25. Here is faith triumphing over great sin and ignorance and delivering from God's curse (compare Gal 3:10-14; John 5:24).

"Refused to believe" - or "were disobedient" - the Greek word can indicate either or both. See John 3:36.

11:32 The writer would have given many other illustrations from the Old Testament, but it was not necessary. He has shown what true faith is and what it does. Now he groups together a number of heroes of faith and shows how their faith worked, obtained, and persevered (note on v 4).

11:33-38 These verses give ten things OT believers accomplished and eight things they endured. Their certainty about unseen things enabled them to accomplish what they did, and their confidence about things hoped for enabled them to endure what they endured. 11:33 "Kingdoms" - Num 21:23-35; Josh 12:7-24; 2 Sam 8:1-14.

"Obtained promises" - the many promises God gave in the Old Testament kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, became strong in weakness, became valiant in battle, and put to flight foreign armies.

35 Women received back their dead, raised to life again. And others were tortured, refusing deliverance, that they might gain a better resurrection. 36 And others experienced trials of cruel mockings and beatings, yes, and bonds and imprisonment. 37 They underwent stoning, they were sawed in two, were tempted, were killed with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, ill-treated, and tormented 38 (of whom the world was not worthy). They were given because there was someone there (often not many) to believe them.

"Lions" – Dan 6:16-22.

11:34 "Fire" – Dan 3:19-27.

"Sword" – 1 Sam 17:45-50.

"Became strong" – Jud 6:15; 7:7,8; 16:21,28-30; 2 Chron 14:11; Isa 40:31. Compare 2 Cor 12:9,10.

11:35 "Received back their dead" – 1 Kings 17:17-24; 2 Kings 4:32-37.

"Refusing deliverance" – they did not accept deliverance if it meant compromise with wickedness and unbelief.

"A better resurrection" – the future resurrection to eternal life, which is far better than being raised from the dead as the sons of the above two women were.

11:36 "Imprisonment" – Gen 39:20; Jer 37:15,16; 38:6.

11:37 "Stoning" – Matt 23:37.

"Sawed in two" – according to tradition this is how Isaiah died.

"Were tempted" – this is certainly true of those heroes of the faith, and of all believers since then. Many of us may not face other things listed in these verses, but all of us will be put to the test by various temptations.

"Destitute, ill-treated and tormented" – words that often describe the best people on earth in every era. Compare John 15:18-21; 16:2,3,33; Rom 8:35-37; 1 Cor 4:11-13.

11:38 The world treated them as if they were not worthy of it. But the reverse was true. They could find no sure home on earth, but God prepared one for them in heaven.

11:39,40 "A good commendation" – v 2.

"The things promised" – vs 10,16. The writer is referring to the promised blessings Christ would bring, the eternal inheritance – 1:14; 6:12; 9:15.

"Some better thing" – this includes all the better things we can see in this letter – 7:19; 8:6; 9:23. God's plan was (and is) that believers who lived before Christ, and those who have believed since He came, should be "made perfect" together. Christ's sacrifice was as much for them as for us, and is the only way anyone can ever be made perfect – 10:14; Rom 3:25,26. The final wandered in deserts, and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And all of these, though they gained a good commendation through faith, did not receive the things promised. 40 God had provided some better thing for us, so that they, apart from us, would not be made perfect.

12 Therefore since we also are surrounded with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that so easily adheres to us, and let us run with patient endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking to Jesus the author and finisher of our faith. For the joy that was set before him he endured the cross, perfection will come at the return of Christ – Rom 8:23-30; 1 Cor 15:50-53; 1 Thess 4:15-17; 1 John 3:2.

12:1,2 Here we have a crowd of witnesses (the believers of chapter 11), hindrances to be avoided (sins, etc), a necessary principle of the race we are running (patient endurance), and a great model to look at (Jesus). The writer implies that there will be a great prize at the end of the race.

"Witnesses" – the Greek word means those who testify to something they have seen or experienced. The English word "martyr" is derived from this word. Everywhere we turn in the Bible these witnesses appear. They look at us from the pages of Scripture and testify to us. They tell us the life of faith is a good one, that the rewards are great, that it is possible to overcome every obstacle.

"Every weight" – what runner ever goes into a race loaded down with weights? In the race of faith a weight is any thing that slows us down, or distracts us, or hinders us, or makes running more difficult, or takes away our determination to win. It may be laziness, or worldliness, or lack of discipline, or discouragement, or any of a great number of things. The worst hindrance of all is sin. And there seems to be a specific sin the writer warns about – "the sin that so easily ensnares us." It seems likely that he is referring to unbelief (though some think he is referring to all sin). Unbelief is surely the greatest hindrance of all in the race believers run. And it barks at the heels of all who are running in faith for the goal.

"Patient endurance" – an emphasis all through this letter – 3:6,12-14; 4:11; 6:11,12; 10:36.

"Race" – compare 1 Cor 9:24-27; Phil 3:13,14; 2 Tim 4:7.

12:2 "Looking to Jesus" – Jesus is in heaven, but by faith we can fix our eyes on Him (11:1,27; 2 Cor 4:18).

"Author" – if we have faith He is the one who produced it in us (Eph 2:8; Phil 1:29).

"Finisher" – or "perfecter" or "completer." Jesus is the one who will see that our faith becomes more and more complete and that it goes on until the day we see Him face to despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him who endured such opposition from sinners against himself, or else you may grow weary and faint in your minds. 4 You have not yet resisted to the shedding of your blood, fighting against sin. 5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to children,

My son, do not scorn the discipline of the Lord, face (10:39; Luke 22:32; Phil 1:6). He finishes what He begins.

"Joy" – how could Jesus endure 2 Cor 5:21; 1 Pet 2:24; Isa 53:5,10? Joy awaited Him on the other side (Ps 16:11). What was this joy? Perhaps the joy of pleasing God the Father and finishing His work (John 4:34). Perhaps the joy of seeing many sons brought to glory (2:10), of opening the way for sinners to obtain eternal salvation (Luke 15:7,10).

"Shame" – dying by crucifixion was the worst kind of public disgrace.

"Sat down" – 10:12; 1:3.

12:3 In the life of faith Jesus is the believer's best example (1 Pet 2:21-23). Filling our minds with thoughts of Him gives great encouragement in the race believers must run. See also 3:1; Col 3:12.

"Opposition" – Matt 9:3,34; 12:14,24; 21:23,46; 22:15; 26:3,4,14-16,47-50, 65-68; 27:20-23, 27-31, 35-44.

12:4 The life of faith is not only like a race; it is a warfare (Eph 6:10-18; 2 Tim 2:3; 4:7). Sin is the enemy. It fights believers from within as well as from without (1 John 1:8; Rom 7:17,18). To give up the fight against it invites disaster.

12:5-13 Though they had not yet died for their faith (v 4), they had suffered in many ways (10:32-34). Unbelieving Jews would have told them that this was because God was displeased with them, that He was punishing them for abandoning the old ways. The writer wanted to encourage those believers. He wanted them to understand that troubles and hardships in the lives of believers were a sign of God's love, not His displeasure. God was disciplining or chastising them because they were His children and He was seeking their highest good. We can learn here five truths about chastisement (training by discipline or punishment).

First, it is inescapable for believers. God disciplines "every son" He receives (v 6).

Second, the method God uses is painful. It is like a whipping. This results in pain, not pleasure (v 11). "Uses a whip" – or "flogs" – this is the meaning of the Greek word. It is used in Matt 10:17; Mark 10:34; Luke 18:33. Of course, God Himself does not use a literal whip on us, but his chastisement and discipline may feel to our hearts and minds and spirits as a literal whip does to the body. And human beings may or become faint-hearted when you are rebuked by him.

6 For whom the Lord loves he disciplines, and whips every son whom he receives.

7 If you are patiently enduring discipline, God is dealing with you as with sons. For is there a son whom the father does not discipline? 8 But if you are not undergoing discipline, in which all sons have a share, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. 9 Moreover, we have had human fathers beat us with literal whips which God may use as a means of discipline for us.

Third, this discipline is a sign. It shows that those who receive it are God's children. It is evidence that He is taking them into His special care. He loves them as an ideal father should, and therefore trains them (v 8). Some think "if God loved us He would not treat us like He does." But He treats us like He does just because He loves us.

Fourth, God's disciplining us has a wonderful purpose – our good, our holiness (v 10).

Fifth, it has a good result to those who patiently endure (v 7) and submit (v 9) and are exercised by it (v 11).

There are three possible ways to respond to God's discipline or "whipping." People may "scorn it" – disregard it or reject it; or become "faint-hearted" under it; or submit to God and be trained by it. The choice is either rejection, dejection, or subjection. The writer does not tell us what methods God uses to discipline us. But did he not have in mind such things as he had already listed in 10:32-34; 11:35-38? See also 1 Cor 11:29-32; 2 Cor 12:7-10; 1 Pet 1:6,7. Compare Ps 66:10-12, and see psalm 73 where a man of God described his experiences while under discipline.

12:5,6 Prov 3:11,12. See also Job 5:17; Ps 94:12; 119:67,71,75.

12:7,8 True believers often seem to meet with more trials and difficulties than others (see Ps 73:2-14). Here is the reason for it. God is dealing with them as sons. A person who considers himself a Christian should not worry if God is disciplining him, only if God is not. God does not discipline Satan's children. His anger rests on them, He punishes them, and will judge them one by one at the proper time.

12:9 "Human fathers" – Prov 13:24; 18:18; 22:15; 23:13,14.

"Respect" – when parents discipline and punish their children in love, children understand and respect them for it. If they do not discipline them well, the children may wonder whether their parents really love them.

"Father of spirits" – the only time this phrase appears in the Bible (a similar phrase appears in Num 16:22; 27:16). It seems by it the writer is contrasting earthly fathers and the Heavenly Father. They chastise the bodies of their children; he deals chiefly with who disciplined us, and we showed them respect. Much more then should we not be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? 10 For they indeed disciplined us for a few days, as they thought best, but he disciplines us for our good, so that we might share in his holiness. 11 Now no discipline seems joyful at the time, but painful. However, afterwards it produces the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who are exercised by it.

12 Therefore lift up the hands which hang down, the spirits of His children.

12:10 "Good" – Rom 8:28.

"Holiness" – God wants His children to be separated more and more from the world with its moral filthiness (2 Cor 6:17), to get complete victory in their "struggle against sin" (v 4), and to become more and more pure in heart (Matt 5:8). He disciplines, chastises, and punishes them with this end in view. Welcome troubles and trials when they bring such a result! What are a few pains if they help to purify us and make us share more completely in God's holiness?

Observe here how God goes about enabling His children to share His holiness – it is not by giving us a once-for-all extraordinary experience. He carries on His work of disciplining, and no doubt carries on with it until we leave this world.

For some other benefits of the troubles which come to believers see the note at Job 3:20.

12:11 Here is a "harvest" all believers desire (Matt 5:6). Then they should welcome the means God uses to produce it – discipline, chastisement, punishment.

"Exercised by it" or "trained by it" – when troubles and sufferings come it is very possible to feel sorry for ourselves, or to fall into discouragement. Instead we should be "exercised." That is, we should learn to examine ourselves, seek the reason for God's chastisement, and correct ourselves. Compare Lam 3:40.

12:12-16 "Therefore" – in view of what he has been saying about God's discipline, he now urges believers to actively respond to it all. We should do 4 things: "strengthen" (v 12), "make straight paths" (v 13), "follow" (v 14), "take care" (v 15). If God's discipline is to produce the desired effects, we must actively cooperate with Him, and not merely passively endure it.

12:12 "Strengthen" – how can anyone properly run the race (v 1) if he lets his knees buckle and arms hang down? God has strength for us in Christ, and we must learn to use it. See Ps 29:11; 73:26; 105:4; Eph 1:18,19; 6:10; Col 1:11,12,29.

12:13 "Make straight paths" – to run best we need straight and level ground. It is up to us to see that we have it. We are not going to win if we let crookedness into our lives.

"Feet. . .healed" – Prov 4:25-27. There is healing in God's way of discipline if we submit to it. Sadly, many Christians are trying to run the race with lame feet.

and the feeble knees, 13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame may not be turned aside, but healed instead.

14 Follow peace with everyone, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord. 15 Watch carefully so that no one misses out on the grace of God, and that no root of bitterness springs up to trouble you, and defiles many, 16 and that there may not be any sexually immoral or ungodly person like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal.

12:14 "Follow" – once more we see that our personal effort is involved. We must not dream of passively drifting through life.

"Peace" – Matt 5:9; Rom 12:18.

"Holiness" – v 10. Holiness requires effort, much effort (Rom 8:13; 1 Cor 9:27; 2 Cor 7:1; Gal 5:16-18; Eph 4:22-32; Col 3:5; Heb 12:4,10-13; 1 Pet 1:13-16; 2 Pet 1:5-8). Holiness has to be pursued as if it were of great value (which it is).

"See the Lord" – holiness is an absolute essential (Matt 5:8; 1 Cor 6:9-11). Those who live according to the world, the flesh, and the devil, calling themselves Christians, and hoping to be received into God's holy heaven, are going to meet with a terrible surprise. Notes on holiness at Lev 20:8; John 17:17-19; etc.

12:15 "Take care" – it is possible that some people in any church are missing out on the grace of God – compare 2 Cor 6:1; Gal 5:4,7. The writer is continuing with the subject of holiness. He knows that the only way anyone can become holy is by the grace of God, and that if a person does not take care he may miss out on this one way. If that happens roots of bitterness can spring up in the heart and in the church. If care is not taken the fruit of such a root in any church can be as bitter as the root – quarreling, factions, evil speaking, seeking revenge, etc. And so it will defile many. This was actually happening to some extent in the Corinthian and Galatian churches.

12:16 There are many things we must watch out for in the churches. Everywhere in the Bible we see dreadful possibilities of going in the wrong way.

"Esau" – see Gen 25:24-34. He is an example of those who miss out on the grace of God. Observe here why Esau did not value the birthright and the promises of God which went along with it.

"Ungodly" – the Greek word also means "profane", "common", "base." Esau was the kind of person who has no interest in spiritual things. He is an example of those who are of "the flesh", who set their minds on what the flesh wants (Rom 8:5-8), who try to please themselves, not God. Are there not many in our churches today, and among the leaders of our churches, who are like Esau – immoral, profane, and for base gain willing to sell their spiritual birthright? Unless there is a radical change in their lives such people will end up as Esau did – rejected. Compare Mal 1:3.

17 For you know that afterward, when he wanted to receive the blessing, he was rejected. Though he earnestly sought it with tears, he found no place for a change of mind.

18 For you have not come to the mountain that was touchable and that burned with fire, or to blackness and darkness and storm, 19 or to the sound of a trumpet and the sound of words (the sound was such that those who heard it begged that no further word be spoken to them; 20 for they could not bear what was commanded: "And if even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned, or pierced with a spear." 21 And the sight was so terrible that Moses said, "I am very afraid, and trembling").

22 But you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to 12:17 "Afterwards" – Gen 27:30-40.

"Change of mind" – this probably means he tried to get his father to change his mind about the blessing he had given to Jacob, but was not successful. Some think that this means that Esau himself tried to repent but was unable to do so, but this seems unlikely. The Greek word translated "repentance" in the KJV literally means a change of mind.

12:18 "For" – this word does not connect what follows with v 17, but with the theme of the first part of this chapter – patiently enduring God's discipline and being trained by it. This is the happy privilege of believers because they are not under the old covenant and law (vs 18-21), but under the new covenant of grace (vs 22-24). Compare vs 18-24 with Gal 4:24-26.

"You have not come" – as believers in Christ they were no longer under the law – Rom 6:14, and believers are not to look to the old covenant as a way of salvation or of fellowship with God.

"The mountain" – Mount Sinai. The description in this verse and the next two is based on Exodus 19:16-19; 20:18-21 and Deut 4:11.

12:19-20 All this indicates that the giving of the law was a fearful thing. See the notes on Exodus chapter 19.

12:21 The words of Moses recorded here are not found anywhere else in the Bible. The Holy Spirit, who knew what Moses said, by some means revealed it to the writer of this letter.

12:22 "You have come to Mount Zion" – the writer now shows some of the blessed results of faith in Christ and being under the new covenant Christ established. He speaks of the heavenly Mount Zion, the spiritual realities of which the earthly city was only a shadow.

"Heavenly Jerusalem" – Gal 4:26; Rev 21:10.

12:23 "General assembly" – in Greek this is one word and indicates either a general assembly of the people (rather than a restricted meeting of leaders), or a meeting for worship or for a public festival.

an innumerable company of angels, 23 to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of righteous men made perfect, 24 and to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks of better things than that of Abel.

25 See that you do not refuse him who speaks. For if those who refused him who spoke on earth did not escape, it is much more certain that we will not escape, if we turn away from him who speaks from heaven. 26 His voice then shook the earth, but now he has spoken this promise:

Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but heaven also.

27 And this word, "Yet once more," indicates

"The firstborn" – in Greek the word is in the plural indicating "firstborn ones." Who are these? The best answer seems to be: Those who through faith are united to Him who is the great Firstborn – see Rom 8:29; Col 1:15,18; Rev 1:5.

"Written in heaven" – Luke 10:20; Rev 21:27.

"Judge" – Ps 50:4-6; 96:13; Isa 33:22; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:16.

"Spirits of righteous men made perfect" – those who have already died in faith, perfected by the sacrifice of Christ (Heb 10:10,14), and made without blemish or fault in the presence of God.

12:24 "Jesus the mediator" – 8:6; 9:15; 1 Tim 2:5. Through Him, and through Him alone, we can approach the holy God of the universe – 10:19-22.

"New covenant" – 8:8-13; Matt 26:26-28.

"Blood of sprinkling" – 9:14; 10:22; 1 Pet 1:2.

"Abel" – Gen 4:10. Abel's blood cried out for punishment and vengeance on the one who had shed it. Christ's blood speaks of redemption and forgiveness – Eph 1:7. In vs 18-24 the writer has shown in vivid language how much better the new covenant is than the old. The old spoke of fear and punishment, the new speaks of mercy and access to God and eternal blessing.

12:25-29 Here is the last warning against apostasy in this letter (2:1-4; 3:7-19; 6:4-8; 10:26-31). It is against refusing God's revelation of the new covenant.

12:25 The one who speaks is God (1:1,2).

"Earth" – God spoke through Moses at Mount Sinai.

"Heaven" – God speaking through His own Son is as if He spoke directly from heaven (John 1:18; 8:23; 12:49,50). Those who refused God's Word through Moses did not escape. Much less will anyone escape who refuses Christ's Word (2:3; 10:28,29; John 12:48).

"If" – see 6:6; 10:26.

12:26 "Shook the earth" – Ex 19:18.

"Heaven" – Hag 2:6.

12:27 See 1:10-12; Rev 6:12-14; 21:1.

the removal of those things that are shaken, as of created things, so that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Since, therefore, we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace so that we can serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear, 29 for our God is a consuming fire.

13 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by doing so some have unknowingly entertained angels. 3 Remember those who are in bonds, as though bound with them, and those who are ill-treated, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable among all, and the marriage bed is undefiled, but God will judge the Sometime in the future the material creation will pass away, but God's kingdom, the perfection that has come through the new covenant, the things listed in vs 22-24 - these cannot be shaken.

12:28 "Kingdom" - notes at Matt 4:17; Rom 14:17.

"Godly fear" - Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 90:11; 111:10; Prov 1:7. Without reverence and awe and godly fear there is no wisdom and no worship acceptable to God.

12:29 "Fire" - note at Ex 3:2. "Consuming fire" suggests fiery holiness that will destroy everything that is contrary to it. The judgment that will come on unbelievers, and those who forsake God and refuse His voice, will be very terrible indeed. Compare 2 Thess 1:7,8.

13:1 John 13:34; Rom 12:10; 13:8; etc. 13:2 Rom 12:13; 1 Pet 4:9; 3 John 5-8.

"Angels" - Gen 18:2,22; 19:1-3. Angels sometimes appear in the form of men. Only if we show hospitality to strangers will there ever be any opportunity of having one in our home.

13:3 Luke 6:31; Rom 12:15; Matt 25:34-40. Love can enable us to put ourselves in the place of others and experience and show compassion.

13:4 "Honourable" - Christians should count marriage an honorable thing because God has ordained it (Matt 19:4-6).

"God will judge the sexually immoral" - Rev 21:8; Col 3:5,6; Eph 5:3-6; 1 Cor 6:9,10.

13:5 "Be without the love of money" - this is the meaning of the Greek words here, and it is a very important exhortation indeed. The love of money is ruinous. See 1 Tim 6:9,10; Matt 6:19,20,24; Luke 12:15-21; 16:14; John 12:4-6.

"Be content" - Luke 3:14; Phil 4:12; 1 Tim 6:6-8.

"I will never leave you" - Deut 31:6; Matt 28:20; John 14:16. The presence of God with us is far better than all the wealth of the world. If He is with us He will supply what we need (Matt 6:25-34; Phil 4:19), and by His presence in us we can learn contentment in sexually immoral, and adulterers.

5 Your manner of life must be without the love of money. So be content with what you have, for he has said,

I will never leave you or forsake you.

6 So that we may boldly say,

The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man will do to me.

7 Remember your leaders who have spoken God's word to you, and follow their faith, considering the final result of their manner of life.

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

9 Do not be carried away with various strange all circumstances. But if believers sin will not God forsake them? Since He says He never will forsake them, then He never will. This does not mean they are free to sin. On the contrary, it makes them free to be holy (Rom 6:1,2; 15:18). But can't believers forsake Him? They do not want to, and they do not (10:39; John 10:27. Though some who claim to be believers, and are not, do want to and actually do so). Even if true believers tried to do so, which they will not, it would be most difficult (see Ps 139:7-12).

13:6 See Ps 118:6,7; Rom 8:31; Matt 10:28-31; Ps 27:1-3. Men had already done much against them (10:32-34), but fear of men was to have no place in their lives. Whatever men could do was temporary. If God was with them they had a blessed eternity awaiting them. Compare 2 Cor 4:17,18.

13:7 "Leaders" - he is probably referring to those who first preached the gospel to them.

"Imitate" - 1 Cor 4:16; 11:1; Phil 3:17; 1 Thess 1:6; 2 Thess 3:7,9.

13:8 Human leaders live and die, come and go. Christ is always the same (1:12) and His ministry as the great High Priest of His people will remain the same (7:24,25). The principal point here is that there will be no change in His character or in His loving care for His people. He will be forever what He was in eternity past and in Old Testament days and during His life on earth in the body.

This does not mean that He will enable believers now to exercise all the gifts and signs that the apostles exercised (believers in Old Testament days did not do so and Jesus was the same then, and believers in the eternal ages will not do so - see 1 Cor 13:8-10 - and Jesus will be the same then). In the past at special times He manifested Himself in special ways, and in different ages emphasized different aspects of His divine being, but in His character and qualities Jesus will remain forever what He has always been. This is the subject here.

13:9 "Strange doctrines" - Eph 4:14; Rom 16:17; Acts 20:20; Matt 7:15. Evidently the writer had in mind some strange Jewish teachings about the spiritual value of doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods, which have not profited those who have been occupied with them. 10 We have an altar, and those who serve in the tabernacle have no right to eat there. 11 For the bodies of those animals, the blood of which is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp.

12 So Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered outside the gate. 13 Therefore let us go to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach. 14 For here we have no lasting city, but we seek one to come.

15 Therefore let us offer through him the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. 16 And do not forget to do good and to share what you ceremonial foods (compare Rom 14:2,14,21; 1 Cor 8:8; Col 2:8,16-23. See notes on Lev 11:2-23). It is only God's grace that can nourish the spiritual life, not physical things.

13:10 "An altar" – believers in Christ have no visible, material altar. The writer is speaking of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. Those who receive Christ by faith have spiritual food, not ceremonial food (see John 6:53-58,63). And those who serve in the old Jewish system and refuse Christ and the new covenant have no part in this "altar."

13:11 He refers to the Day of Atonement – 9:7. See Lev 16:27. No one could eat the flesh of the animals sacrificed that day. And certainly no one can eat the literal flesh of Christ sacrificed for us. It is unthinkable.

13:12 "Sanctify" – "make holy" or "set apart" or "consecrate" – 10:10. This is what the blood of Christ does for believers.

"Outside the gate" – the place of the cross (called Golgotha or Calvary) was outside the city of Jerusalem (Matt 27:32,33).

13:13 "Outside the camp" – he means outside the camp of the Jewish religion, outside the system of the old covenant.

"Reproach" – or "defamation" or "disgrace" – 12:2. Convicted criminals were crucified on crosses. If we go to Christ accepting His death in our place we are acknowledging that we are sinners worthy of death. Believers are the crucified people of a crucified Saviour (Gal 6:14), and must not be ashamed to say so.

13:14 "City" – 11:10,16; 12:22.

13:15,16 The old covenant had priests who offered sacrifices. Here the writer indicates that now all believers in Christ are the priests of the new covenant. See 1 Pet 2:5,9; Rev 1:6. Their offering is not animals, not any material things on any material altar, but something far better.

"Praise" – notes and references at Ps 33:1-3.

"Do good" – this is a very important part of the ministry of believers as New Testament priests. See Matt 5:16; 25:34-40; have, for God is very pleased with such sacrifices.

17 Obey your leaders and be submissive, for they watch over your souls, as those who must give an account. See that they are able to do so with joy, and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us, for we are confident that we have a good conscience, and are willing to live honorably in every way. 19 But especially I urge you to do this so that I may be restored to you more quickly.

20 Now the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom

Luke 6:27,35; Rom 12:21; 2 Cor 9:8; Gal 6:10; Col 1:10; 2 Thess 2:17; Jam 1:27; 1 Pet 2:12.

"Share what you have" – Matt 5:42; Rom 12:13; Gal 6:6; 1 Tim 6:18; 1 John 3:17. God is pleased with offerings like these. Compare 10:6. See Rom 12:1 for another offering that pleases Him very much.

13:17 "Leaders" – churches must have leaders, and leaders must have some authority. Their authority comes from God who appoints them. The writer was convinced that these leaders of these Hebrews Christians were good ones. Not all leaders are good, and none should be obeyed who do not live according to the truth God has revealed (compare Acts 4:19; 5:29), or who give commands not in accordance with the teachings of the New Testament. Good church leaders "keep watch" over the members – Acts 20:28; 1 Pet 5:1-4.

"An account" – church leaders will have to give account not only of their lives, but of their leadership over God's people.

13:18 "A good conscience" – 2 Cor 1:12; 4:2.

13:19 Compare Rom 15:30-32; Philemon 22.

13:20 "God of peace" – 7:2; Rom 15:33; 16:20; 2 Thess 3:16.

"From the dead" – Matt 28:6. This is the only place in this letter where the writer speaks of Christ's resurrection. But several times he implies it – 1:3; 2:9; 10:12,13.

"Blood of the everlasting covenant" – 9:12; 10:29; Matt 26:28. Here the new covenant is called "everlasting." There will be no need for another one to replace it. It accomplishes forever what God has purposed for His people.

"Again" – this means back to life again.

13:21 This is what God can do for every believer, and what no believer can do for himself. If God does not equip us we will never be equipped, and if He does not work in us, our activities will never please Him. Compare 2 Cor 3:5; Phil 2:13; Col 1:29. The aim of every believer should be exactly the same as that of the Lord Jesus (Matt be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I urge you, brethren, bear with this word of exhortation, for I have written a letter to you in few words.

23 Know that our brother Timothy is set at 26:39; John 4:34; 6:38; 8:29) – the will of God – nothing less, nothing more, nothing else. God works this in believers “through” Jesus Christ. He is the one channel of God’s grace and power.

13:22 “Exhortation” – the doctrinal truths the writer presented were mixed with frequent exhortations. Often he says “therefore” and “let us” – v 13,15; liberty. If he arrives shortly, I will come with him and see you.

24 Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

2:1; 4:1,11,14,16; 6:1; 10:19,22,23,24; 12:1,28. His reason for writing was practical, and he gave them deep truth that they might put it into practice and have deep spiritual lives.

13:23 “Timothy” – Acts 16:1. Evidently he had been in prison.

13:25 “Grace” – notes at John 1:14,16; Rom 1:7; 2 Cor 8:9; etc

The Letter of JAMES

Author:

In the New Testament there are several persons named James: the brother of John and one of the original apostles (Matt 10:2), the son of Alphaeus who was another of the original apostles (Matt 10:3), the father or brother of Judas who was one of the original apostles (see Luke 6:16 and note), and a younger half brother of the Lord Jesus (Matt 13:55). The author of this letter is generally thought to be the half brother of the Lord Jesus and a leader in the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:13). On the authorship of the books of the Bible, see the Introduction to Judges.

Date:

Probably sometime between 45 and 50 AD.

Theme:

The very important theme of proving one's faith by one's behavior. Genuine faith is shown to be so by enduring trials, by obedience to God's Word, by love and impartiality toward others, by good deeds and by the words the mouth speaks. A key verse is 2:17.

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, 3 knowing that the trying of your faith produces patient endurance. 4 But let patient endurance have its perfect work, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing.

1:1 "James" – there are several persons with this name in the New Testament (Matt 10:2,3; Mark 15:40; Luke 6:16; Matt 13:55). More than likely it was James the half-brother of Jesus who wrote this letter. During Christ's lifetime neither James nor his brothers believed Jesus was the Messiah, the Son of God. But after Christ's death and resurrection they became believers (Acts 1:14). Later on James became the leader of the church in Jerusalem (Acts 12:17; Acts 15:13; Gal 1:9).

"Lord" – one who did not believe in Him before the resurrection now recognizes who He really is. See 2:1.

"Twelve tribes which are scattered" – there were twelve tribes in Israel, and "twelve tribes" became another name for the Jewish people. But James was writing to Christians (2:1). So we can say he wrote to Jews who had become Christians in the countries and regions outside Israel.

1:2-4 "Count it all joy" – while undergoing trials our attitude is very important. If we are convinced they will bring a good result and are permitted by God for improving our spiritual life, then we can regard it as "all" joy. See John 16:33; Rom 5:3-5; 2 Cor 8:2. God wants His people to be spiritual and strong in faith. He wants us to be "perfect and complete" (compare Eph 4:13-15). He wants us to be able to patiently endure anything that may come to us in this life. Trials are one means God uses to produce this result. See Ps 66:10-12.

"Trials" – the Greek word here means either trials or temptations or both. Trials seems a better translation in the context here.

"Knowing" – this is the important thing. Knowing a good result will follow helps us to endure what brings the good result.

"Patient endurance" – Col 1:11; 2 Thess 1:4; 2 Tim 2:12; 3:10; Heb 12:10; 1 Pet 2:20. In Greek "patient endurance" is one word, which contains both meanings. By using this word James teaches us to endure whatever comes and to go patiently on trusting Christ and serving God. Without this quality our trials will not do us the good that they otherwise could do. Can we not rejoice about anything that brings us out of spiritual infancy and makes us better fit to live for God?

"Perfect" – the Greek word means "finished", "lacking nothing for completeness", "mature", "fully developed", etc.

5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask it from God, who gives to everyone liberally and without criticizing, and it will be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, without wavering at all. For he who wavers is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. 7 For let not that man think that he will receive any thing from the Lord. 8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

1:5 The trials we face – the testing of our faith – will sometimes confuse and perplex us. We may not understand what God is doing or why He is dealing with us as He is. By our reasoning we will not understand why trials have come to us or how to make use of them spiritually. We need a wisdom that comes from God so we will know how to face trials and all the varied circumstances of life. Let us ask God for it, both for ourselves and for others. He delights to give it – Col 1:9; 2:3; Eph 1:17; 1 Cor 1:36; 2:6-10; Dan 2:20,21; Prov 1:20; 2:6; 8:1; Ps 51:6; 111:10. James describes this wisdom in 3:17.

"Liberally" – Matt 7:9-11; 2 Cor 9:8; Phil 4:19; 1 Tim 6:17.

"Without criticizing" – God does not criticize us when we come to Him; He does not refuse us because we are unworthy or do not pray in a perfect manner. We can come boldly to Him counting on His love and grace – Heb 4:15,16.

"It will be given" – this is a promise from the God who cannot lie (Titus 1:2).

1:6-8 "But. . .ask in faith" – here is one thing absolutely necessary if we want our prayers answered. See Heb 11:6. Believing prayer makes all things possible (Mark 9:23; 11:23,24).

"Wavering", "double-minded" – expressions indicating doubt or unbelief. Unbelief is the same as calling God a liar (1 John 5:9,10). In other words, it is saying that God will not do what He says He will do. Doubting means to lean to the side of unbelief. It is to be without a firm trust in God's character and promises. Facing a promise of God faith says "God will do it", unbelief says "He will not", doubt says "He may or may not." In all his dealings with God and God's Word a doubter will be "unstable." He will always be pulled in two directions. He won't be settled in his thoughts, his motives, his aims, or his dedication to God's will. The very reason why he is a doubter is that he has a divided heart. See David's prayer in Ps 86:11.

All believers are tempted to doubt at some time or other. We must learn to resist this temptation, and rest in the truth that what God says He will surely do. In this Abraham is a great example to us – Rom 4:18-21. What is the cure for doubt? The Word of God (Rom 10:17), meditating on God's promises and God's character (Ps 1:2,3), and full consecration to Him and His will (Rom 12:1,2).

9 Let the brother in lowly circumstances rejoice because he is exalted, 10 but the rich because he is made low, for like the flower of the grass he will pass away. 11 For as soon as the sun has risen with burning heat, it withers the grass, and its flower falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also the rich man will fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed is the man who endures trials, for when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love him.

13 When tempted let no one say, "I am tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone. 14 But each person is

1:9 "Lowly. . .exalted" – God, the great Creator of the universe, has raised poor, uneducated believers, whom the world counts as complete nobodies, to great heights in Christ. He has made them His own children and chosen them for a great future (John 1:12,13; Rom 8:29,30; Eph 2:6,7). In Christ no distinction is made between rich and poor, slave and master, educated and illiterate (1 Cor 12:13; Gal 3:28; Col 3:11). The poor man should recognize this and have great joy and satisfaction because of his high position in Christ.

1:10 "Rich. . .made low" – the rich man who is a believer has the same high position in Christ as the poor man. But through Christ he has learned (in a way he did not learn before) of his frailty and mortality. He can know that self-abasement is the way to exaltation (Matt 18:4; 23:12). He has learned his sinfulness and the great truth that apart from God's grace he can have no good thing either in the present or in the future. He must find joy and satisfaction in all this. We should all rejoice in any truth that brings us down low before God. See 4:6.

1:11 Compare Ps 103:15; Isa 40:6-8; 1 Pet 1:23-25.

1:12 "Blessed" – compare Ps 1:1; 119:1; Matt 5:3-12. Trials work for the good of believers both now and hereafter – vs 2-4; 2 Cor 4:17.

"Crown" – note at 2 Tim 4:8. See also 1 Cor 9:25; Phil 4:1; Rev 3:11; 4:10. The "crown of life" appears again in Rev 2:10. There, too, it is promised to those who faithfully endure trials; in other words, to those of genuine faith who prove their faith (and their love) by such endurance.

"Love Him" – this is the motive power which enables believers to persevere under trials (1 Cor 13:6). This perseverance is the evidence of their love.

1:13 God tests us and proves us, but does not tempt us (Gen 22:1; Ps 66:10-12). Matt 6:13 is a prayer He delights to answer.

"Tempted by evil" – no evil, no sin has the slightest attraction for God. He utterly, eternally hates all wrong – Lev 20:7; Deut 12:31; Ps 11:5; Prov 6:16-19.

1:14 We are not innately, naturally holy as tempted, being drawn away by his own evil desire, and enticed. 15 Then when desire has conceived, it brings forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, brings forth death.

16 Make no mistake, my dear brethren, 17 every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variability, or shadow of turning. 18 Of his own will he begot us with the word of truth, so that we would be a kind of firstfruits of his creation.

19 So, my beloved brethren, let everyone be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to get angry. 20 For the anger of man does not produce the God is. Our old nature is fallen and corrupted. That is why sin has an attraction for us (Gal 5:16,17; Rom 7:15-20; Eph 4:22-24). Satan knows this very well and brings enticing, tempting things before us (1 Thess 3:5). But if we give in to temptations the fault lies only in us, and we should not dream of blaming God for it. Compare 1 Cor 10:13. 1:15 Spiritual death is the final result of sin. Compare Gen 2:17; Rom 5:12; 8:6. Acts of sin have their beginning in desire (Gen 3:6; 2 Pet 1:4; 1 John 2:16). In the strength given by God believers must fight in the battlefield of their desires, and win before desire brings forth sin.

1:16 "Make no mistake" – v 22; 1 Cor 6:9; Gal 6:7; Eph 5:6; 1 John 1:8.

1:17 God's gifts can be nothing less than good and perfect. They cannot be tainted with sin or promote sin. If men abuse God's gifts and make with them opportunities for sin, the fault is in men, not in God's gifts.

"Father of lights" – God is the creator and giver of every kind of light – literal and spiritual (Gen 1:3,14-16; Luke 1:78,79; John 1:4,5; 3:19; 2 Cor 4:6).

"No variability" – Num 23:19; 1 Sam 15:29; Mal 3:6; Heb 1:10-12; 13:8. God is eternally perfect. He does not need to develop and grow. Nothing can be added to His character, nothing taken away.

1:18 Here is God's greatest and best gift to men.

"Begot us" – gave us the new birth, made us His own children – John 1:12,13; 3:3-8; 1 Pet 1:23. This was God's way of delivering us from sin and death (v 15). "The word of truth" He used to give us this new birth is the gospel of Christ.

"Firstfruits" – Rom 11:16; 1 Cor 15:20, 23; Rev 14:4. Believers now are "firstfruits" of a greater harvest still to come.

1:19,20 From thoughts of the new birth he turns to thoughts of what that experience should produce in our lives.

"Swift to hear" – he may mean swift to hear God's Word, or, possibly, a willingness to listen to what others have to say.

"Speak" – 3:1-8; Prov 10:19; 13:3; 17:28; 29:20; Matt 12:36,37. People who talk too much will surely say much that is useless or wrong or harmful, and they will righteousness of God. 21 Therefore lay aside all filthiness and the abounding wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted Word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers, deceiving yourselves. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like a man seeing his natural face in a mirror. 24 For he sees himself, and goes his way, and immediately forgets what he looked like. 25 But whoever looks into the perfect law of liberty, and continues to do so, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the deed, this man will be blessed in what he does.

26 If anyone among you seems to be religious, and does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is useless. 27 Pure and faultless religion before God the Father is this: To look after the fatherless and widows in their not be able to hear what they should hear.

"Slow to get angry" – Matt 5:22; Eph 4:26; Prov 16:32. Man's anger, even so-called righteous anger, does not establish or promote God's righteousness. Compare 2 Tim 2:24,25. Gentleness and meekness are much more useful than any kind of anger we can display.

1:21 "Lay aside" – Eph 4:22-32; 5:3,4; Col 3:5-10.

"The implanted Word" – the Word of God planted in our hearts. Compare Matt 13:3-9,18-22. If God's Word sown in us is to produce a harvest we must humbly, believingly accept it, yield to it and let it work. God's Word in the heart has power to transform and save.

1:22-24 Hearing the teachings of the Bible without acting according to them is useless. Mere hearing only increases our condemnation. In the parable of the sower all four classes of people hear the Word (Matt 13:19,20,22,23), but only one class produces fruit. The Jews were great for reading the Word and hearing it and memorizing it, but (like most of us) not so great in acting according to what they heard (Matt 23:3; Acts 7:53; Rom 2:17-24). See in Matt 7:21-27 the emphasis the Lord Jesus put on obedience to His teaching. A great many who are called Christians will be lost forever because they have not done what the Word of God says they must do to be saved. And many more will lose the rewards they might have had because they did not do what God's Word told them to do.

1:23 "Mirror" – the Bible is like a mirror. If we inspect ourselves in it, it will show us exactly what we are. But if we do not act according to this knowledge, it will do us no good and we will soon forget it.

1:25 The law of Moses brought bondage – Acts 15:10; Gal 5:1. Believers are free from that law – Rom 6:14; 7:4. But they are under Christ's law – 1 Cor 9:21 – a law of grace and love. This law when obeyed gives freedom – not freedom to trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

2 My brethren, having faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, do not show favoritism. 2 For if a man with a gold ring and fine clothes comes to your meeting, and a poor man in dirty clothes also comes, 3 and you show respect to the one who wears the fine clothes, and say to him, "You sit here in a good place," and say to the poor man, "You stand over there, or sit here by my footstool," 4 are you not showing partiality among yourselves, and becoming judges with evil thoughts?

5 Listen, my dear brethren, has not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him? 6 But you have treated the poor with sin, but freedom from sinning.

1:26 Verse 19; 3:2-12. On every hand there are many who do not control their tongues. Evidently, then, many are self-deceived and have a useless form of worship.

1:27 We should understand that God does not accept every kind of worship and religion – Matt 15:8,9. Compare Ps 50:7-21; Isa 1:11-17. The kind of religion God wants to see is love and holiness in action, not merely in word. God has a special concern for the weak and helpless and poor – Ex 22:22; 23:11; Lev 23:22; Deut 10:18; 24:19; Ps 146:19; Isa 1:17; other references at Gal 2:10. We too must have concern for them, if we want to be pleasing to Him. God has a hatred for the pollutions of the world. So must we have if we want our worship to be fully acceptable to Him (Rom 1:18; 2 Cor 6:17; 7:1; 1 Pet 1:15,16; Jude 23).

2:1 "The Lord of glory" – 1 Cor 2:8. Notes on Lord at Luke 2:11; Phil 2:10,11.

2:1-4 God does not show favoritism or partiality. As believers in Christ we must follow Him in this (Rom 2:11; 1 Cor 12:13; Eph 6:9; Col 3:11,25; 1 Tim 5:21; 1 Pet 1:17). It is a sad truth that this instruction is often ignored and disobeyed in churches. James (and God's Spirit speaking through James) plainly tells us that favoritism comes from "evil thoughts" (v 4). In Christ we are to accept all men alike, and honor and respect all alike – Rom 12:10,16. Looking down on fellow believers because they are poor, or uneducated, or poorly dressed, or from a different class or group or caste, or for any other reason, must have no place among Christ's people.

2:5 Compare Luke 6:20. See also Matt 11:5; Luke 4:18; 1 Cor 1:26. It is far, far better to be rich in faith than to be rich in material things.

"Heirs" – Matt 5:5; 1 Cor 6:9; 15:50; Gal 5:21; Heb 1:14; 6:12; Rev 21:7. Note on God's kingdom at Matt 4:17.

"Love Him" – 1:12. Those who do not contempt. Do not rich men oppress you, and drag you to court? 7 Do they not blaspheme that worthy name by which you are called?

8 If you fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself," you do well. 9 But if you show favoritism, you commit sin and are convicted by the Law as transgressors. 10 For whoever keeps the whole Law, and yet goes wrong in one point, he is guilty of breaking the whole Law. 11 For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," said also, "Do not commit murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the Law.

12 So speak and act as those who will be judged by the law of liberty. 13 For the one who has not love God will have no inheritance with Him - 1 Cor 16:22; 1 John 4:8.

2:7 "Name" - Christ.

2:8 "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" - Lev 19:18; Matt 19:19; 22:39; Luke 10:27; Rom 13:9,10; Gal 5:14.

"Royal law" - it is the supreme law relating to human relationships, and given by the King of kings for all those in His kingdom.

2:9 "Favoritism" - James takes us back to vs 1-4. Looking down on the poor and showing favoritism to the rich is a sin. It is disobedience to God's greatest law for men.

2:10 A person is a lawbreaker if he keeps all the law and disobeys only one command. And if he disobeys the command to love he is breaking a very great command and so is a very great sinner. So we see that showing favoritism is not at all a small matter. We should see also that every one of us in some way or other is guilty of breaking God's law. And we are worthy of the whole condemnation of the law (Col 3:10). Everyone of us needs forgiveness through Christ (Rom 3:9,19,23).

"Goes wrong" - the literal meaning of the Greek word is "stumbles", but in the context it means to break a law of God. See 3:2 where the same word is used.

2:11 Ex 20:13,14. Observe how he joins adultery, murder, and showing favoritism together in one brief passage. In this way he shows the seriousness of the sin of showing partiality or favoritism, of exalting some and looking down on others.

2:12 "Judged" - 2 Cor 5:9,10.

"Liberty" - 1:25. If we are at all wise we will behave toward others in the light of the coming judgment.

2:13 Matt 5:7; 7:1,2; 18:23-35; Luke 6:37,38; Prov 21:13; Ps 18:25,26.

2:14 "Can such faith save him?" - clearly the answer is "No, such faith cannot save him." The reason is this: such faith is not genuine faith, not the kind of saving faith the Bible speaks about. The plain teaching of the Bible is this: we are saved by God's grace through faith apart from works (Eph 2:8,9; Rom 3:24,25,28; 4:5). But through this way of grace and faith God shown mercy will have judgment without mercy. And mercy rejoices against judgment.

14 What use is it, my brethren, if a man says he has faith, and does not have works? Can such faith save him? 15 If a brother or sister is without clothing, and destitute of daily food, 16 and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them those things which are needful to the body, what is the use? 17 Even so faith, if it is without works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yes, a man may say, "You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works." 19 You believe that there is one God. You do well to believe it, but the devils also believe it, and tremble.

20 But do you want to know, O foolish man, transforms people. He gives them new spiritual birth. He makes them a new creation. See 1:18; 2 Cor 5:17. Such people are God's workmanship created in Christ Jesus to do good deeds (Eph 2:10). Good deeds are a part of the evidence that our faith is real, that God has done His work in our hearts (Heb 6:10; Gal 5:6).

A consistent lack of good works is proof that our faith is only in words, that we have not been changed by God's grace. True faith is a powerful force in a person's life. See notes at Heb 10:39; 11:4.

2:15-17 All words and no action is a mark of spiritual death. Compare 1 John 3:17,18. A person who behaves in this way shows he does not have God's love in him. If he does not have love he does not know God (1 John 4:8). In other words, the faith he claims to have is not real (note and references on giving at 2 Cor 9:15). What is "dead" faith? A faith that does not produce what God wants to see - mercy, love, kindness, etc (Gal 5:22,23). A dead faith may be very orthodox. It may believe the right doctrines. It may persuade itself that it has a firm belief in God and His Word. But it has not laid hold of the Lord Jesus in a saving, life-giving way. Compare John 5:39,40.

2:18 Someone may object to James' teaching and say, "some people have faith, others have deeds. They are both an important part of religion. But the one can exist without the other." James denies this. He insists that if there are no good deeds there is no faith. It is quite impossible to show faith without deeds.

2:19 Demons know the truth about God and Christ. See also Mark 5:2-7. They "believe", but they are not saved. They believe, but they are without good works. They do not have a living faith that changes them. It is a sad and terrible truth that many very religious people, including many Christians, have no more of a living faith than demons. They believe there is one God, but they are merciless, unloving, selfish and hard-hearted. And what good will the faith of demons do them?

2:20 "Foolish" - the Greek word literally that faith without works is dead? 21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son on the altar? 22 Do you see how faith was working with his deeds, and that faith was made perfect by works? 23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness," and he was called "the friend of God." 24 You see then that a man is justified by deeds, and not by faith only.

25 In the same way was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works, when she received the messengers and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is also dead.

means "empty" and here signifies a person who is lacking in the wisdom God gives, an empty-headed man, a "hollow" man.

"Dead" – a dead faith will never produce anything useful. And if it produces nothing useful, how can it be acceptable to God?

2:21-26 James is not at all contradicting the teachings of the apostle Paul in Rom 1:16,17; 3:22-28; 4:5; 10:9,10; Eph 2:8,9. He is giving the opposite side of the same truth. He is showing that true faith and good works are inseparable – so united that what can be said of one may be said of both together. He is teaching what Paul himself taught in Rom 2:7-10; Gal 5:6; Eph 2:10; Titus 2:14. And what the Lord Jesus taught in Matt 7:21,24-27; 25:35-43.

Faith that does not express itself through love is useless, dead faith. James' language suggests that since good works come out of faith, they may be considered a part of faith. James is not contradicting Paul. He is opposing those who said that bare faith is sufficient even if it never results in good actions.

2:21 Gen 22:1-18.

2:22 If faith and actions do not work together they will not work apart. Actions are the evidence of faith, the fulfillment of faith, faith itself revealed to view.

2:23 See Gen 15:6; Rom 4:3. Both James and his readers knew that this event took place many years before Abraham offered Isaac. God had already counted Abraham righteous through faith. But Abraham's faith was living and proved itself when he offered Isaac. We might even say that the offering of Isaac was inherent in Abraham's faith long before he actually offered him.

"The friend of God" – 2 Chron 20:7. Compare John 15:15.

2:24 He is speaking this way for the sake of emphasis. He means that God justifies men through the kind of faith that will produce good deeds, the kind of faith that has good deeds inherent in it.

2:25 Joshua 2:1-21; Heb 11:31. If Rahab had not had faith she would not have acted as she did. Her actions came out of her faith, were the proof of her faith.

2:26 Faith that does not produce good works, that does not have good works inherent in 3 My brethren, let not many of you be teachers, knowing that we teachers will receive more severe judgment. 2 For all of us go wrong in many ways. If anyone does not go wrong in what he says, that person is a complete man, able also to control the whole body.

3 See, we put bits in the horses' mouths, so that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body. 4 See also the ships. Though they are so large, and are driven by fierce winds, yet they are turned about with a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. 5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. See, what a great forest is set on fire by such a little flame! 6 And the tongue is a flame, a world of evil. Among it, is like a corpse. It is lifeless, inactive, and will soon begin to stink. Is our faith active? Is it producing fruit for God? If not, let us shudder and tremble as demons do (v 19), and let us repent and turn to God with all our hearts.

3:1-12 "Teacher" – he means a teacher of the Bible. Such a person has a very solemn responsibility. First of all, he should live according to the truth he is teaching. Since he has more knowledge, God will require more of him, and will judge him more severely. See Luke 12:47,48. So teaching the Bible is a very serious matter. The more so because they and all other believers "go wrong in many ways." And they have to use a very dangerous instrument in their work – the tongue. So no one should rush into the work of teaching. Each teacher should be sure God is calling him for that and has given him the gift of teaching (Rom 12:6,7). Of course, a teacher called and prepared by God to teach His Word has a very wonderful and satisfying task, and can do much good. All such teachers may well rejoice – with trembling – in this glorious calling.

3:2 "Go wrong" – see 2:10, where the same Greek word is used, also Rom 11:11. The Greek word is "stumble" but when used figuratively means to go astray, to err, do wrong, or sin. Observe that James says we "all" do this, and in many ways. How good it is, then, to have Matt 6:12; 1 John 1:9.

"In what he says" – James is saying that the tongue is more difficult to control than anything else a person has. And the one who has mastered his (or her) tongue is a complete, mature person, well-fitted for the work God has for him.

3:3-5 The point is that small things can have great effects. The tongue has more power for good or ill than any other part of the body. It has amazing power. It can build or tear down, create or destroy. It can be a tree of life (Prov 15:4; 18:21), or the fang of a snake (Ps 140:3). It can be a murdering sword (Ps 57:4), or a healing medicine (Prov 12:18). It can promote trouble and evil (Ps 10:7), or justice and righteousness (Ps 37:30; 51:14).

3:6 James is speaking of the untamed our members the tongue is such that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell.

7 All kinds of beasts and birds, and serpents, and creatures in the sea, are being tamed, and have been tamed, by man. 8 But the tongue no one can tame. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. 9 With it we praise God, the Father, and with it we curse men who have been made in the likeness of God. 10 Out of the same mouth proceeds praising and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so. 11 Does a spring send forth from the same place sweet and bitter water? 12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olives? Or a vine, figs? In the same way no spring can give tongue, the tongue as it is by nature. And by "tongue", of course, he means the power to speak, to communicate what is in the mind and heart.

"Flame" - the tongue can be a great destroyer (Ps 52:2). One spark from it can ignite a fire which destroys many people. The tongue is a whole "world" in itself. And by nature this world is evil - Ps 58:3. It is on fire with desire and sin, and the fire has come from hell. Satan has taught human beings to lie and deceive and slander and blaspheme and curse. These things are fire which destroys lives.

3:7,8 Has there been a single person in the whole of human history (apart from Christ) who always controlled his own tongue completely? Abraham did not - Gen 13:11-20; 20:2-9; 17:17,18. Moses did not - Num 20:10-12; Ps 106:33. Peter did not - Matt 26:69-74. Paul did not - Acts 23:2-5. James confesses he did not. This is not to say we should not try to control our tongues. We must. Far better to have some control over it than to have none at all (Ps 141:3; Prov 10:19; 11:12; 21:23). The best of all is to have our hearts and minds filled with God's Word and then our tongues will speak good things - Matt 12:34-37; Col 3:16. Though alone we cannot control our tongues, God and His Word can.

"Unruly" - Ps 39:1-3.

"Deadly poison" - Ps 58:4; Rom 3:13.

3:9,10 This should not be so, need not be so, but often it is so. Some men are like saints in public, but like demons at home or in private.

"The likeness of God" - Gen 1:26,27; Eph 4:24.

3:11,12 In all creation it seems only man's tongue has a double source and a double channel.

3:13-18 There are two kinds of wisdom in the world. One comes from Satan (v 15), and the other comes from God (v 17). The results which flow from the one are very different indeed from the results which flow from the other. We can tell whether a person is really wise by what we see in his life. No one has the wisdom which comes from God who is evil or proud or envious or selfish or both salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man and has understanding among you? Let him show it by good behaviour, by his deeds with the meekness produced by wisdom.

14 But if you have bitter envy and strife in your hearts, do not boast, and do not deny the truth.

15 This wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. 16 For where envy and strife are, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, readily obedient, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

worldly-minded or unspiritual. Such people may gain a reputation for wisdom with men. They may think they are wise. They may be very intellectual, very bright, very clever. But God sees where their so-called wisdom comes from. For another comparison between these two kinds of wisdom see 1 Cor 1:17 - 2:16.

3:13 Only the good are wise. An evil man is a fool no matter how much intellect he has. Humility is one of the fruits of true wisdom. Those who have the wisdom that comes from God will not exalt themselves, will never think that they themselves are God or any similar wicked nonsense (Ps 14:1; 111:10; Prov 3:7; 8:1-8). 3:14 "Envy" - Job 5:2; Prov 14:30; 23:17; Matt 27:18; Mark 7:22; Rom 1:29; 1 Cor 13:4; Gal 5:26.

"Do not boast" - can a person filled with bitterness, envy and strife still be a boaster? Oh yes, partly by denying that it is true.

3:15 Do many religious people (including some professing Christians) have the devil's wisdom, and not God's? Their actions, aims and ambitions lead us to think so. A lack of meekness, a spirit of envy and strife, boasting, denying truth - these do not reveal the wisdom God gives.

3:16 See the result of Satan's wisdom working in the minds of men.

3:17 "From above" - heavenly wisdom, God's wisdom - Prov 8:22,23; 1 Cor 1:24,30; 2:7,13; Col 2:3.

"Pure" - the wisdom God gives is free from any kind of sin or defilement or corruption, and it does not lead to any such things. It is holy and separate from the wisdom of this world. This wisdom loves peace between God and men and between men and men. It is kind and concerned for the well-being of others and is obedient to God. It recognizes the truth of Matt 5:7,9 and puts it into practice. It produces good fruit for God's glory. It makes us impartial in our treatment of others (2:1), and sincere (Acts 2:46; 2 Cor 1:12; 6:6; 1 Tim 1:5; 2 Tim 1:5; Heb 10:22; 1 Pet 1:22). There is no hypocrisy whatever in it. If we do not have such wisdom, let us ask God for it, and let us believe that He will give it to us - 1:5,6.

3:18 Righteousness grows when there are

4 Where do conflicts and fights among you come from? Do they not come from your desires that are at war in your members? 2 You desire and do not have; you kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain what you want; you fight and struggle, yet you do not have, because you do not ask God. 3 You ask, and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, that you may use it up on your desires.

4 You adulterers and adulteresses, don't you know that the friendship of the world is enmity toward God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. 5 Do you right relationships between God and men, and between men and men. Peace and righteousness go together and both flow from God's wisdom - Ps 85:10; Prov 3:17; Isa 32:17. Therefore, with all our getting, let us get wisdom (Prov 2:3-6).

4:1,2 Here are some of the results from having the devil's "wisdom" (3:15) instead of the wisdom God gives. The picture is a raging war within the heart, and this war erupts into quarrels with other men. Compare 1 Cor 3:3; Gal 5:17.

"Kill, and desire" - James is writing to Jews who professed to be followers of Christ. Evidently the behavior of some revealed them to be followers of Satan (John 8:44). Wrong desire is at the root of all the corruption in the world (1:15).

"You do not ask God" - rather than pray, some people prefer to quarrel, fight and even kill to get what they want.

4:3 Notice carefully why God sometimes does not answer prayer, and what is meant by wrong motives. God does not always give us what we ask for because, if He did, it would only make us more selfish, and worse in every way. A desire for selfish pleasure is often the reason why people ask for things. We should not blame God if He does not give them. God is not like some foolish parents who give whatever a child wants whether it is good for him or not. Let us open our hearts to God and sincerely pray as He wants us to pray (Ps 139:23,24; 66:18; Matt 6:9-13).

4:4 "Adulterers and adulteresses" - there may have been individuals among them guilty of literal adultery, but James probably means adultery in spiritual matters, since he immediately speaks of friendship with the world. On adultery in spiritual matters see Jer 2:2; 3:6-9; Ezek 16:31-34; Hos 1:2. It means that those who are called God's people forsake God for something else.

Why is friendship with the world hatred toward God? The word "world" here means the fallen sinful world of men. It is clearly described in John 3:19; 7:7; 15:18-21; Gal 1:3; 1 John 2:15-17; 5:19. It is in rebellion against God. It loves sin and hates Christ. So to have friendship with it is to join the enemies of the one true God, and to become His enemy. Let us take these solemn words to heart. Will we dare to be think that the Scripture says in vain, The spirit that dwells in us desires jealously? 6 But he gives more grace. Therefore he says,

God resists the proud,
but gives grace to the humble.

7 Therefore submit yourselves to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9 Grieve and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your friends with the world that crucified the Lord Jesus? Will we follow its aims and ambitions, its desires and pleasures, its methods and ways? Let us beware. Compare Rom 12:2.

4:5 The Greek here is very difficult. It could be translated in several different ways. For example, besides the above translation it could mean - "God jealously longs for the spirit He has made to live in us", or "The Spirit [the Holy Spirit] He caused to live in us longs jealously." In any case, James is saying that in spite of what men are by nature, God can enable us by His grace to renounce the world and draw near to Him (vs 6-8), and this is what God desires. God is a "jealous" lover of our spirits and wants us for Himself. See Ex 20:5; 34:14; Deut 4:24; 5:9; 6:15; Josh 24:19. "My child", He says to each of us, "give me your heart." 4:6 Prov 3:34; 1 Pet 5:5.

"Proud" - Prov 6:16,17; 16:5; 21:4; Isa 2:12-18; 13:11. If we allow pride to rule us God will be our enemy and will fight against us.

"Grace"-John 1:14,16,17; Rom 5:2,20, 21. God's grace is what we need in order to reject the world, overcome our selfish desires and devote ourselves to God.

"Humble" - 3:13; Ps 138:6; Prov 16:19; Isa 57:15; 66:2; Matt 5:3; 18:3,4. 4:7 "Submit" - this is what the humble do, what the proud will not do.

"He will flee" - here is a great promise. Satan is afraid of those who resist him in the strength God gives. But he will run only from those who submit themselves to God. Submitting comes first, then resisting the devil. Note on the devil at Matt 4:1. To resist the devil in one's own strength or in pride is to ask for a fall.

4:8 This is another great promise we can always count on, if we come to God in the manner he tells us to come. Compare Zech 1:3.

"Cleanse" - compare Isa 1:16,17.

"Purify your hearts" - compare Ezek 18:31. James is speaking about full repentance (notes at Matt 3:2,8), and the earnest use of the means God has given for cleansing - 1 Pet 1:22; 1 John 1:7,9.

"Double-minded" - 1:8. If we want God to draw near to us we must turn from all known sin and have a firm faith in Him.

4:9 Matt 5:4; Luke 6:21; 2 Cor 7:8-10.

joy to gloom. 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will lift you up.

11 Do not speak evil about one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of his brother, and judges his brother, is speaking evil of the Law, and judging the Law. But if you judge the Law, you are not a doer of the Law, but a judge. 12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you that judges another?

13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into a certain city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and make a profit." 14 The fact is you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away. 15 Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will live, and do this, or that."

James is speaking of sorrow for sin. God does not draw near to bless those who take sin lightly. How long should our grief and mourning continue? Until we know that God has drawn near, forgiven us, and lifted us up. We must do a thorough work of repenting (Jer 29:13).

4:10 Verse 6; Luke 1:52; 1 Sam 2:7,8; Ps 15:1,3; 50:20; Prov 10:18; Matt 15:19; 23:12; Eph 4:31; Col 3:8.

4:11 "Do not speak evil" – slander is a work of the devil and the meaning of his name. What business do Christians have doing the devil's work? Anyone who speaks against another is judging him (or her). The law tells us to love others as ourselves (2:8). Speaking against them is not loving them. And if a person does so he is setting himself above the law, and treating it as if its words have no importance, and becomes a judge of it.

4:12 "Lawgiver" – Isa 33:22; Ex 20:1. "To save and to destroy" – Matt 10:28; Isa 43:11.

"Who are you that judges another" – Matt 7:1,2; Rom 14:4,10-13.

4:13 Here is another very common fault even among Christians. Some make their plans as if God were not important to them, as if they were perfectly able to carry on their affairs without His guidance and help.

4:14 Compare 1:10,11; Job 7:7; Ps 39:5; 102:3; 144:4; Prov 27:1; 1 Pet 1:24; Luke 12:16-20. We do not know what natural calamity may come tomorrow, or what accident may befall us, or whether tomorrow is our last day on earth.

4:15 "Say" – he is not suggesting that we should merely say the words that follow as a kind of ritual. We should mean them and submit ourselves to the will of God and do what He tells us (v 7; Matt 6:10; John 4:34; Acts 21:14; Rom 1:10; 12:1,2). 4:16 "Now you boast" – Ps 52:1; 75:4; Jer 9:23; Amos 4:5; 1 Cor 4:7; Gal 6:13. Men like to boast about what they have done or what they think they will do or can do. God tells us what such boasting is like.

4:17 Luke 12:47; John 9:41; 2 Pet 2:21.

16 But now you boast in your arrogant presumption. All such boasting is evil. 17 Therefore to him who knows to do good, and does not do it, to him it is sin.

5 Come now, you rich men, weep and howl because of your miseries that will come on you. 2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you, and will eat your flesh as if it were fire. You have heaped together wealth for the last days. 4 See, the wages of the labourers who have harvested your fields, which you have fraudulently kept, cry out, and the cries of those who have done the harvesting have entered into the ears of the Lord of hosts. 5 You have lived in pleasure and

They may have been acting as they did in ignorance, but now they would know the right way to behave and can have no excuse. Observe that good left undone is sin just as evil done is sin. Compare Num 32:23; 1 Sam 12:23; Matt 25:41-46.

5:1-6 "You rich men" – James is speaking to the selfish rich who oppress the poor and care nothing for what God says about heaping up riches (Ps 37:16; 52:6,7; 62:10; Prov 11:28; Matt 6:19-21; Luke 12:16-21; 14:33; 1 Tim 6:6-10,17-19).

5:1 "Miseries that will come on you" – Luke 6:24,25; 16:19-31.

5:2,3 "Corroded" – James uses the past tense, not because this wealth had already been destroyed, but to show how certain it was that this would happen. And he is showing the eventual worthlessness of earthly riches. Whatever those riches are they will perish and leave those who had them naked before God. James knew that gold does not literally "corrode." He is stating in vivid language the fact that absolutely nothing will remain to the rich of what they had loved and hoarded.

"Heaped together wealth" – with so many people poor, destitute, starving and dying in the world, hoarding riches is a great crime. And the rich will pay for it with the misery God will send on them (v 1). They will find that piling up riches costs too much.

5:4 "Labourers" – the Bible is for the poor, the working man, the down-trodden.

"The ears of the Lord of hosts" – there is a just Judge on high, and we may be sure He hears the cries of those oppressed by the rich.

5:5 "Luxury" – Luke 16:19,25. Woe to those who deny themselves nothing they want. Compare Luke 9:23. Selfishness will always end in disaster.

"Slaughter" – the end of their luxury and self-indulgence is death. James compares them to dumb cattle being fattened only to be slaughtered (compare Amos 4:1). Let us learn to seek the truly important things during our brief earthly life – salvation, luxury on the earth. You have fattened your hearts as in a day of slaughter. 6 You have condemned and killed the righteous, when he was not resisting you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it, until he receives the early and later rains. 8 You also be patient and make your hearts firm, for the coming of the Lord draws near. 9 Do not grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be judged. See, the judge is standing at the door!

10 My brethren, as an example of patient suffering take the prophets who have spoken in the name of the Lord. 11 See that we count them wisdom, righteousness, truth, holiness (Matt 6:33; etc).

5:6 It is a strange and terrible fact that men, who are here today and gone tomorrow, will kill or trample any law of God under their feet to get money or property. Truly "madness is in their hearts while they live" (Eccl 9:3).

5:7 "Brethren" - James leaves off his remarks to the rich and speaks again to believers. Though they are facing oppression and hardships they should be patient (Rom 12:12; Gal 5:22; Col 1:11; Heb 6:12).

"The coming of the Lord" - Matt 16:27; John 14:3; Acts 1:11. Farmers patiently wait for God's work in nature to produce a harvest. Believers are to wait patiently for the fulfillment of God's plan in the spiritual realm.

5:8 "Firm" - Matt 24:13; 1 Cor 15:58; 16:13; 2 Cor 1:21,24; Eph 6:14; Col 1:23; 4:12; 1 Pet 5:9,10.

"Draws near" - he does not say how near or make any prediction. None of the writers of the New Testament knew the day of Christ's return. Sometimes it seems that they believed (or at least hoped) that it would take place during their life time. But see John 21:18-23; 2 Tim 4:6. See notes on Rev 1:1-3.

5:9 Grumbling about others is the same as judging them, and this is not our business (4:11,12).

"Lest you be judged" - Matt 7:1,2.

"The judge" - the Lord Jesus (compare 4:12). He is always at the door.

5:10 He has told them to have patience (v 7), now he points them to great examples of patience in the Old Testament. Heb 11:35-39 briefly sets forth some of the things they suffered.

"Prophets" - note at Gen 20:7.

"In the name of the Lord" - Ex 5:1; 1 Kings 17:1; 2 Kings 7:1; Isa 1:10; Jer 1:9,10; 7:2; Ezek 3:4; 13:2; Hos 4:1; Amos 1:3.

5:11 "Endure" - 1:2-4. Their sufferings did not destroy their patience and perseverance, but increased them (Rom 5:3).

"Job" - Job 1:13 - 2:10.

blessed who patiently endure. You have heard of the patient endurance of Job, and have seen the end the Lord brought about, and that the Lord is very compassionate, and very merciful.

12 But above all things, my brethren, do not swear, not by heaven, or by the earth, or with any other oath, but let your "yes" be yes and your "no" be no. Otherwise you will fall into judgment.

13 Is anyone among you in trouble? He should pray. Is any happy? He should sing psalms. 14 Is anyone among you sick? He should call for the elders of the church, and they should pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. 15 And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed "The end" - Job 42:10-17.

"Compassionate. . .merciful" - Ex 34:6,7; Ps 5:7; 25:6; 103:13; 116:5. God will never put more on us than we can bear, and will bring good out of all we have to suffer (Rom 8:28).

5:12 Matt 5:33-37. We should speak every word as if God Himself were listening to what we say. And indeed He is. So there should be no attempts to deceive anyone.

5:13,14 The three situations he mentions covers much of the life of believers.

"In trouble" - the Greek means to suffer or endure hardship (2 Tim 2:3; 4:5). This is the common lot of all believers (Acts 14:22).

"Pray" - in answer to prayer God either delivers us from trouble or gives us comfort and strength to endure it patiently. But we should not think James is teaching us to pray only when we are in trouble (compare Eph 6:18; 1 Thess 5:17).

"Happy" - there are times when believers experience relief from their troubles, feel no burdens and are filled with happiness - a good time to sing praises to God (Ps 9:13,14; 18:49; 35:28; 47:6; 51:14,15). All times are good for praising God (1 Thess 5:18), but no doubt there are times when we are better able to do it.

5:14 Times of sickness are the common lot of mankind, and believers in Christ are not immune from them. James tells us what to do when we are sick. It is one provision God has made for the healing of His people. It is surprising how few believers avail themselves of it. What he states here should be the common practice in all Bible-believing churches.

"In the name of the Lord" - everyone must recognize it is not their power or the power of their words or the oil that heals anyone. The Lord is the healer. It is one of His names - Ex 15:26.

5:15 It seems clear that God does not always choose to heal His servants immediately when they fall sick (Phil 2:26,27; 1 Tim 5:23; 2 Tim 4:20). In such a case it will not be possible to pray in faith that they will be healed at once. When anyone has called for the church elders, and sins, they will be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. A righteous man's prayer at work is very powerful.

17 Elijah was a man with a nature like we have, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. 18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back, 20 let him know that he who turns the sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death, and will hide a multitude of sins.

God chooses to heal that person, He will give faith to one or more of the elders and then restore the sick person to health.

"If he has committed sins" – he seems to be suggesting that in some cases ("if") sickness comes as a result of the sick person's sin. Compare 1 Cor 11:30 – there weakness and sickness are said to be a result of God's chastisement for certain sins.

"Forgiven" – the Lord who raises him up will forgive him the sins which led to his sickness.

5:16 "Confess" – he is not speaking of confession to a "priest", but "to one another." This should be a regular part of the fellowship ordinary believers have with each other, especially if any of them falls sick. There should be an openness, and a love and understanding and acceptance which would make this possible. (According to the New Testament all believers are priests – 1 Pet 2:5,9.) We should not think that prayer is a weak and ineffective thing. If we are righteous it has great power.

"Righteous man" – this means a man right with God, who walks in God's ways. If we are to be right with God He must count us righteous (note at Rom 1:17; 3:21-26; 5:1), and we must live righteous lives in obedience to His Word and will (Ps 66:18; Prov 15:29; Isa 1:15; John 9:31). If these two things are true of us, we then have the use of a powerful means for good – prayer. See references at 1 Thess 5:17.

"Very powerful" – or "strongly prevails", or "is able to accomplish much." The Greek noun related to the verb here means "strength", "power", "ability." The prayers of righteous people prevail with God, are a powerful force in the world, and accomplish great things.

5:17,18 Here is an example of the power of prayer. See 1 Kings 17:1; 18:41-46. There are many other Bible examples of prayer's power – Gen 20:17; 25:21; Ex 8:30,31; 10:18,19; Num 11:2; Deut 9:20,25-29; 2 Sam 15:31; 17:14,23; 2 Kings 4:32-35; Job 42:10; Ps 18:6-24; Dan 9:4,20-23; Jonah 2:1,10; Luke 9:29; 22:31,32; John 11:41-44; Acts 4:31; 9:40; etc.

"A nature like we have" – Elijah was no superman. He was flesh and blood as we are. He had a sinful nature as we do. He was tempted and tried as we are. His power was not in him but in the God he served. If he could effectively use this wonderful means God has given (prayer), then so can we – if we are righteous as he was righteous.

5:19,20 "Brethren" – he is addressing a large group of people who are called Christians. We cannot assume that they were all true believers in Christ, or that James thought they were. In most large groups of Christians there are a variety of people – some born again, some not; some following the truth, some not. In such a group there is always the possibility that some might forsake the truth altogether (1 Tim 1:6; 6:10,21; 2 Tim 2:18; 2 Pet 2:15). It is very difficult to bring such sinners back to the truth, but James suggests it is possible.

"Death" – spiritual death, separation from God (John 5:24; Eph 2:1). To save anyone from that is surely a very great thing. When it happens all the sins of the rescued sinner are put out of God's sight forever (Ps 103:12; Micah 7:19).

Theme:

Peter wrote to Jewish believers in Christ (1:1) because he was the apostle to the Jews (Gal 2:8,9). However, the blessed truth he writes down came by the inspiration of God's Spirit and is for all believers in all times. The command the Lord Jesus gave to Peter in Luke 22:31,32 he partly fulfilled by writing this letter. Countless believers in Christ have been strengthened in their faith through what Peter wrote here. Some key words are "hope", "suffering", "grace" and "glory." The principal theme is the suffering of believers and the glory that will follow.

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those residing as foreigners and scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 who are chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling by the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace, be multiplied.

1:1 "Apostle" - Matt 10:2.

"Foreigners" - 2:11; Heb 11:9,13. Believers in Christ are not at home in this world. Their citizenship is in heaven - Phil 3:20.

"Scattered" - Peter uses a technical word in Greek (diaspora) which means Jews living outside of Palestine (John 7:35). The ones Peter was writing to had become followers of Christ. Peter was the apostle to the Jews (Gal 2:7,8), and in his two letters he sends instructions to Jewish Christians. It seems very likely that some of them heard the gospel from him on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:9).

"Pontus. . . Bithynia" - these were all provinces in the area now known as Turkey.

1:2 "Chosen" - Matt 24:22,24,31; John 17:6; Eph 1:4.

"Foreknowledge" - see notes at Rom 8:29 and at the end of the notes on Romans. Observe the three persons of the Trinity in this verse (notes at Matt 3:16,17; etc). Here several things are said about the salvation of believers.

We see the cause and the origin of it - God's choice.

We see the manner and process of it - the Spirit's work.

We see the purpose and goal of it - obedience to Christ.

And we see the means and basis of it - the blood of Christ.

Compare 2 Thess 2:13,14.

"Sanctification" - note on sanctify at John 17:17-19. See also Lev 20:7. God's Spirit sets believers apart from everyone else in the world, He convicts them of sin, brings them to repentance and gives them new spiritual life, and teaches them the truth (John 3:5-8; 16:7-15).

"Obedience" - the purpose of God's call and the Spirit's work is to make us obedient to Christ. See note at Acts 22:10. Observe here that it is put before being sprinkled with the blood of Christ. We receive Him as Lord and Saviour and so are cleansed and consecrated by His blood. After this, all our life through, God wants to see loving obedience in us (John 14:15,23; Rom 1:5).

"Sprinkling" - in the Old Testament the blood of animals was sprinkled to signify four things:

Cleansing (Lev 14:1-7)

Consecration of priests (Ex 29:20-22)

Confirmation of God's covenant (Ex 24:1-8).

Atonement (Lev 16:14).

Through the blood of Christ believers

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, in accordance with his abundant mercy has given us new birth into a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 for an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, 5 who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in have been forgiven and cleansed from their sins (Eph 1:7; Heb 9:14; 1 John 1:7), as priests they have been given full access to God's presence (Heb 10:19-22), and they have been made partakers of the new covenant (Matt 26:28; Heb 12:24).

1:3 "God and Father" - Eph 1:3.

"Mercy" - Titus 3:5; Eph 2:4.

"New birth" - John 1:13; 3:3-8; Eph 2:5; Jam 1:18; 1 John 3:9; 4:7; 5:1.

"Living hope" - Rom 5:2; 8:24,25; Titus 1:2. "Hope" here means "expectation."

"Resurrection" - Matt 28:6; Acts 1:3; 2:24; Rom 1:4; 1 Cor 15:12-19. If Christ had not risen there would be no hope of salvation for anyone, ever.

1:4 "Inheritance" - Matt 25:34; Acts 20:32; Eph 1:14; Col 1:12; Heb 1:14; 6:12; Jam 2:5. Only the children of God by the new spiritual birth have an inheritance. Those who renounce this world for Christ will inherit the world above (Matt 19:27-29). The inheritance is, first of all, God Himself (Gen 15:1; Ps 16:5; 73:25,26; Lam 3:24); then everything else He chooses to give us (Rev 21:7).

"Does not fade" - the inheritance is not of this creation, not something perishable (1 Cor 15:50,53), but indestructible and eternal.

"Reserved. . . for you" - there is no danger of anyone breaking in and stealing it. God has "reserved" this inheritance for believers and nothing and no one can get it from His care. Those who believe they have such an inheritance in heaven should not be (and will not be) eager to lay their hands on everything they can get now on earth.

1:5 "Kept. . . through faith" - the Greek word translated "kept" is a military term meaning "to keep with a guard." God's power is the guard. He is the Lord of hosts who has all the armies of heaven at His command, and He sends forth His powerful angels to serve believers (Heb 1:14; Ps 91;11,12). He can and does arrange matters both in this world and in the unseen spiritual world so that His believers are guarded and safely kept to the end (John 6:39; 10:28,29). This is in answer to the prayer of His Son (John 17:11,12; Rom 5:9,10; Heb 7:25).

But what if believers stop believing - will they not lose their salvation? God shields them "through faith." Faith is the gift of God (Eph 2:8; Phil 1:29). It is the instrument in His hand to keep us in living contact with Himself. It is a powerful force that God has brought into our lives. It is a perfect gift and perfectly fitted for the work the last time. 6 In this you greatly rejoice. Though now for a while, if need be, you are distressed by various trials. 7 These have come so that the proving of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perishes, though it be tried with fire, might be found to result in praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. 8 Him you have not seen, but love. Though now you do not see him, yet believing in him, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory, 9 and receive

God planned to do in us. He who gives faith to believers is well able to keep faith alive in their hearts (Luke 22:31,32). God does not keep us whether we believe or not – He keeps us believing (Phil 1:6; Heb 12:2), though, no doubt, He also keeps us even when our faith temporarily stumbles, and then He renews our faith.

“For salvation. . .in the last time” – God does not keep believers only until they sin or until some doubt enters their minds. He keeps them until their salvation is completed. Here Peter is speaking of the future aspect of salvation. Believers are already saved (John 5:24; Rom 8:24; Eph 2:5; 2 Tim 1:9; Titus 3:5). They are being saved (1 Cor 1:18; 2 Cor 2:15). They will be saved (Rom 13:11; Phil 1:28; Heb 1:14; 9:28).

1:6 “Rejoice” – having spiritual joy in Christ is one of the marks of a true Christian. It too is a gift of God to His own. This joy is not mere happiness that arises from our own natures when things go well. It is a supernatural joy. If we have never experienced it at all, this is strong evidence that we have not trusted in Christ (John 15:11; 16:24; 17:13; Acts 5:41; 8:39; 16:34; Rom 5:2,3,11; 14:17; 2 Cor 6:10; 8:2; Gal 5:22; 1 Thess 1:6). Notice the words “in this.” These words refer to all he has said from v 3. He is saying that joy comes from four things:

- The new birth
- A living hope
- A knowledge of a future inheritance in heaven

- And an assurance of God’s keeping power.

“Though now” – there are certain experiences which can block the flow of God’s joy in our hearts. Sin is one (Ps 32:3-5; 51:3,4,8,12). Doubt is another (Matt 14:29-31; Luke 24:37,38; Jam 1:6). Falling into false teaching is another (Gal 3:1-3; 4:15-17). Trials can be another (Job 3:1-26), though they need not be. A strong faith can rejoice even in the most severe trials (Acts 5:41; 2 Cor 12:7-10; Col 1:24; Jam 1:2). So distress and joy can exist in us at the same time (2 Cor 6:8-10). Observe that trials are only “for a little while” (2 Cor 4:17).

1:7 Men use fire to refine gold and prove it. God puts believers in fiery trials for the same reasons. Compare Ps 66:10-12. Faith is far more precious than gold. Is it not a sad thing then that men neglect faith and go after gold and other riches of this world?

the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

10 Concerning this salvation the prophets who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, made earnest search and enquiry, 11 trying to find out what the Spirit of Christ who was in them indicated, or what time it would take place, as he predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that would follow. 12 It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but us, in these things which are now made known to you by those Faith is so precious because it lays hold of eternal riches in heaven.

“Proving” – this word brings out the meaning of the Greek better than “trial.” Trials (v 6 – altogether a different Greek word than the one here) reveal whether we truly believe, or only think or say we believe. When we go on believing through fiery trials, and do not turn back to the world, this is strong evidence that our faith is real. Compare Matt 13:21,23; Heb 10:32,39.

1:8 “Love” – John 14:15; 21:16; 1 Cor 13:7; 16:22; Gal 5:6 – here is further evidence that faith is genuine. True faith and love for Christ go hand in hand. If we do not have one, we will not have the other.

“Do not see” – is it possible to love and believe in someone whom we have never seen? Certainly. We have Christ’s Word, and His Spirit who makes Him real to believers.

“Joy” – v 6; Neh 8:10; Ps 4:7; 16:11; 21:6; 28:7; 43:4; 81:1; Isa 12:3; 35:6,10; Luke 2:10; John 16:20-24. “Inexpressible” – “unspeakable” (KJV) today usually has no good connotation.

1:9 “Receive” – v 5. Even now in the midst of trials believers are experiencing the salvation they shall more fully experience hereafter.

1:10 “Prophets” – he is speaking of Old Testament prophets (notes on prophets at Gen 20:7; etc). They wrote of the grace that comes to believers now. Their writings are full of prophecies, pictures, types and shadows of Christ and the salvation He has brought (Luke 4:17-21; 24:25-27,45-47; John 5:39,46; Heb 8:5; 10:1).

1:11 The Spirit of Christ was in OT prophets and caused them to write words they themselves did not fully understand. They searched their own writings to try to understand them better. Observe that the Spirit of Christ was in the world before Christ came into the world. He “predicted” Christ’s suffering and glory. For example compare psalm 22 – in vs 1-21 there is suffering, in vs 22-31 there is glory. The same is true of Isaiah chapter 53. In vs 1-9 there is suffering, in vs 10-12 glory. Both sufferings and glory appear in Isa 52:13-15, and glory in Isaiah chapter 54. Other examples could be given.

1:12 God revealed to the prophets that their words would be fulfilled afterwards, and that they were serving future generations. The Old Testament is for the instruction of Christian believers (Rom 15:4; 1 Cor who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven. These things the angels desire to look into.

13 Therefore gird up your mind for effort, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 14 As obedient children, do not let yourselves be conformed to the cravings you formerly had in your ignorance, 15 but just as he who has called you is holy, so you be holy in your whole way of life. 16 Because it is written,

You be holy, for I am holy.

17 And if you call on the Father, who, without

10:11). They spoke of things which gospel preachers now proclaim to the world – the death, resurrection and exaltation of Christ. All gospel preachers should preach “by the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven”– John 14:16,17; Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4,5,8; 2:1-4.

“Angels” – note at Gen 16:7. It seems that they do not understand all that God is doing through Christ and His Spirit in the salvation of believers. God is teaching them now (Eph 3:10). So great are these mysteries that they long to know more of them.

1:13 Angels are eager to know more of this great gospel of salvation. Should we who have been given this salvation be less eager? We should have new minds (Rom 12:2; Eph 4:23,24) and fill them with God’s Word. The Christian life demands effort in thinking, meditation, and careful study to try to understand all that God has revealed to us. Compare Ps 1:2; 119:26,27,34,73, etc; Eph 1:18; 3:18; Phil 1:9,10; Col 1:9.

“Gird up your mind for effort” – literally tucking a long garment up to the waist indicates preparation for action. Believers are to get ready for mental activity.

“Sober” – figuratively the Greek word may mean “self-controlled” or, possibly, “sober minded”.

“Grace” – God has already given believers grace, but there is more to come (v 4; Eph 2:7). Setting our hopes fully on that enables us to bear our trials and sufferings with joy.

“Revelation of Jesus Christ” – v 7; Matt 24:30; Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28.

1:14 “Obedient children” – v 2. This is what God wants – v 2; Rom 6:17,18; 2 Cor 2:9; 2 Thess 2:8.

“Conformed”–Rom 12:2; 8:29.

“Cravings” – or “evil desires” – Matt 15:19; Rom 1:24; 8:5; Eph 2:1-3; Gen 8:21.

“Ignorance” – John 15:21; Acts 3:17; 17:30; 1 Cor 15:34; Eph 4:18; 1 Tim 1:13. 1:15,16 Lev 20:7; Isa 6:3; John 17:17-19; Rom 6:19,22; 2 Cor 7:1; Eph 4:24; Heb 12:10,14. This must be, and is, the aim of every believer.

“Whole way of life” – we must not try to divide our lives into secular and sacred. For believers in Christ the whole of life is to be partiality, judges according to everyone’s deeds, spend the time of your stay on earth in reverential fear. 18 For you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, such as silver and gold, from your empty way of life received by tradition from your fathers, 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 20 He was indeed foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for you. 21 Through him you believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Since you have purified your souls in obeying sacred.

1:17 “Father” – note at Matt 5:16.

“Without partiality” – Rom 12:11; Eph 6:9; Col 3:25.

“Your stay” – v 1. The Greek word means living as a foreigner, living away from home.

“Fear” – notes at 2:17; Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 86:11; 90:7-11; 111:10; Prov 1:7; Rev 14:7; 15:4; 19:5. Reverential fear and respect and awe of the one true God, fear of offending Him or dishonoring Him – this is at the heart of the spiritual life. Without it we do not have true religion. This fear will cause us to depart from evil and to do good, and to worship God as He ought to be worshiped. This is why it is commanded in the Bible (2:17; Rev 14:7).

1:18 “Redeemed” – notes at Ps 78:35; Matt 20:28.

“Empty way of life” is all any of us had before we believed the gospel of Christ, and all anyone has now apart from Christ (though many, lacking understanding of the Bible, may think otherwise). Compare Eccl 1:2; 2:11. To be filled with the things of the world is to be empty. Do any of us feel this vanity and emptiness of life? Let us turn to Christ. He can fill our lives with meaning, purpose and hope.

1:19 Here is the price God paid to redeem us and make us His own (Matt 20:28; 26:28; Acts 20:28; Rom 3:24,25). It is precious beyond words.

“Lamb” – John 1:29.

“Without blemish” – 2:22; Heb 4:15; 7:26; Ex 12:5; Lev 1:3. Without the shedding of Christ’s blood there would be no salvation for anyone, ever (Heb 9:22).

1:20 Before He created the world, before mankind fell into sin God had a plan for the salvation of man, and Christ was at the heart of that plan. Compare Eph 1:4; Acts 2:23.

1:21 “Through him” – Peter is saying that it is only through Christ that men come to trust the living God. Apart from Christ men may think they believe in Him but they really do not.

“Gave him glory” – Acts 2:32,33; 3:13; John 17:1. Only because God raised Jesus from the dead is it possible for us to have our faith and hope in the true God – v 3.

1:22 Observe the only way we can be holy and purified – it is by obeying God’s truth the truth through the Spirit into a sincere love for the brethren, fervently love one another with a pure heart, 23 being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which lives and abides for ever. 24 For,

All flesh is like grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass.

The grass withers,
and its flower falls away,

25 But the word of the Lord endures for ever.

And this is the word, which, by the gospel, was preached to you.

2 Therefore laying aside all malice, and all deceit, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all revealed in the Bible. Compare Rom 6:17-19; John 8:31,32. The result of this purification is sincere love. If there is no love in our hearts for God's people we may be sure that we have no real purification, no salvation (1 John 3:14; John 13:34). See here the kind of love believers should have for one another - sincere, fervent, pure.

1:23 "Born again" - v 3; John 1:13. The Word of God is the imperishable seed. The new birth comes through God's Word planted in the heart (James 1:18).

1:24,25 Isa 40:6-8. All that man apart from God does, or can do, has no permanence. The Word of God (and those who have been given new life through that Word) will stand forever - Matt 24:35; 1 John 2:17.

2:1 Eph 4:25,29,31; Col 3:5-10. All such things are of the old nature and must have no place in the believer's life (Gal 5:19-21).

2:2 "Newborn infants" - may suggest that he has new believers in mind particularly. Or he may be rebuking older Christians for making slow progress in the Christian life (compare 1 Cor 3:1,2; Heb 5:11-14). Or his meaning may be that we are all spiritual babies compared with what we shall be after Christ's return (compare Matt 18:3). Three qualities of infancy we should always retain:

Desire for spiritual nourishment

Innocency and simplicity

And dependence on God.

If there is no appetite for spiritual things, no desire for God's Word, is it not a sure mark that there is no spiritual life in a person?

"Pure milk" - the Greek word translated "pure" means either "without guile" or "unadulterated" (pure). The milk we need is the teaching of God's Word. We should all crave this, new believers and old alike (Ps 119:40,131).

"Grow" - Eph 4:13-15.

2:3 Ps 34:8.

2:4,5 "Living stone" - the Lord Jesus. Believers do not go to lifeless images but to a living person.

evil speaking, 2 as newborn infants desire the pure milk of the word, that you may grow by it, 3 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 Coming to him, as to a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, and precious, 5 you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 6 And so it is contained in the Scripture,

See, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, chosen, precious;
and he who believes on him will not be put to shame.

7 Therefore to you who believe he is precious, but to those who are disobedient, the stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner, 8 and a stone of stumbling, and a rock of

"Rejected" - Matt 21:42; Mark 8:31; 9:12; Luke 17:25; John 1:11; Acts 4:11.

"Precious" - Matt 3:17. See how different God's thoughts are from men's. Men did not think Christ was fit for the building they were constructing.

"Living stones" - coming to Christ the Living Stone believers become living stones themselves. For the Living Stone is also a "life-giving spirit" (1 Cor 15:45).

"House" - Eph 2:19-22; Heb 3:6; 1 Cor 3:9. God is an Architect and Builder. We may be sure He has planned His house well. He knows each stone and where it should go. Surely He will not have to tear some stones out later and put others in their places. Surely God is not tearing out with one hand and building with the other. See note at Eph 2:21 also.

"Priesthood" - not only are believers built into the "house" of God, they are all priests to serve in the house - v 9; Rev 1:6; Heb 10:19-22. In the New Testament there is no separate priesthood taken from among believers. All believers are priests. It is a striking fact that in the New Testament no individual disciple or apostle of Christ is called a priest. And among those whom Christ gave to be the leaders of the Church the office of priest is not given (Eph 4:11; 1 Cor 12:28). Mark this well.

"Spiritual sacrifices" - Rom 12:1; Heb 13:15,16. Priests must have something to offer God. Believers as priests have themselves, their praise, and their deeds of love and kindness to offer.

2:6 Verse 4; Isa 28:16; Zech 1:4; Eph 2:20.

2:7 "Precious" - 1:8. Only to those who believe in Him is Christ precious. Only they see His value. Only they truly love Him.

"Head of the corner" - Ps 118:22; Matt 21:42; Acts 4:11.

2:8 Isa 8:14; Rom 9:33. Those who do not want to obey God's truth will stumble over the truth. And this truth is Christ (Luke 2:34). Those who want Him will rise; those who do not will fall.

offense. For they stumble at the Word, being disobedient. Also they were appointed to this.

9 But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, so that you may declare the praises of him who has called you out of darkness into his marvellous light, 10 you who in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God, you who had not obtained mercy, but have now obtained mercy.

11 Dearly loved ones, I plead with you as foreigners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly desires, which war against the soul. 12 And have your conduct among the Gentiles so beautiful that, although they speak against you as evildoers, seeing your good deeds they will glorify God because of them, in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves, for the Lord's sake, to every institution for governing men, whether it is to the king, as supreme, 14 or to governors, as to those who are sent by him to punish evildoers and to praise those who do well. 15 For such is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men. 16 Be as free men, not using your liberty as a cloak for evil, but as the servants of God. 17 Honour all men. Love the "Appointed to this" – Peter is probably referring to the rejection of Christ by the Jewish nation. Both the Lord Jesus and the apostle Paul used references from Psalms and Isaiah to teach that. On this subject see Romans chapters 9-11 and notes, particularly 9:14-24,30-33; 11:7-12,22-32.

2:9 "Chosen" – Eph 1:4,11; John 15:16. "Royal priesthood" – v 5. These words may mean a priesthood belonging to a king and in the king's service, or a priesthood which forms a kingdom (Rev 5:10), or a priesthood where all the priests are princes as well, or all three.

"Holy nation" – a nation set apart from all other people on the earth, and consecrated to God. Compare Ex 19:5,6; John 17:6. Peter is not calling the Church "The new Israel" or "the Spiritual Israel." He is writing to Jewish believers. They, and not the nation of Israel which rejected Christ are the true stock of Israel. Peter is not implying that God is finished with the old nation of Israel (compare Acts 1:6,7). No New Testament writer calls the Church the new Israel, and since they did not we should not. Gentile believers are grafted in to the stock of Israel. See Romans chapter 11; Eph 2:11-19.

"Belonging to God" – the Greek word here means several things – "keeping safe" or "obtaining" or "possessing" (but not what we mean now by "peculiar" – KJV).

"The praises" – the Greek word means virtue, goodness, excellence, that is, things worthy of praise. See Phil 4:8 and 2 Pet 1:3,5, where the Greek has the same word. It is the duty and privilege of all believers now, whether Jewish Christians or Gentile, to declare to the world the excellence and goodness of the one true God. We are not to seek our glory, but His. We are not to declare our goodness, but His (compare Ps 40:10; 71:16; Isa 42:12; 43:7; Eph 1:6,12,14).

"His...light" – Acts 26:18; 2 Cor 4:6; Eph 5:8; Col 1:13; 1 John 1:5-7.

2:10 Before believing in Christ it was true of both individual Jews and Gentiles that they were not God's spiritual people – Hos 1:9,10; 2:23; Rom 9:24-26; Eph 2:11,12. In calling people from darkness into His light God acts in pure mercy (Titus 3:5).

2:11 "Foreigners" – 1:17 – those now living away from their true home – heaven.

"Fleshly desires" – 1:14. These are of this world, of the sinful nature in man. Believers are of heaven.

"War" – desire for wrong things is one of the instruments Satan uses in his fight against believers (Eph 6:11,12). Evil desires are like swords that cut and wound our spiritual life, like flaming arrows in the mind that turn us from thoughts of God and holiness. They can be as destructive to the soul as bullets are to the body, wounding and causing much pain and suffering. We do not have to give in to them or give them a place in our hearts.

The command to "abstain" means we can do so by God's grace. Total abstinence from every wrong desire – this should be our goal. If evil desires are permitted to lodge in our minds they may well prove to be overpowering, and we will find it is easier to allow such thoughts in than to expel them once they get in. Abstinence from evil thoughts is the way of wisdom, the way God teaches us. And it involves the believer's choice and will – we must choose not to permit them in our minds.

2:12 See Matt 5:16.

"Beautiful" – the Greek word means also "excellent", "admirable", "praiseworthy", "honorable", "attractive", "good."

"Speak against you" – rejecters of Christ like to slander believers, pick at every fault in them, and invent new ones. Slander on the part of others is to be a motive for us to do better. This evil can work for our good.

"Day of visitation" – this may refer to a special time of either blessing or judgment from God.

2:13,14 Rom 13:1-5.

2:15 "Doing good" – good deeds can do what arguments cannot do. One of the very best of arguments for the gospel of Christ is the changed and holy lives of those who believe it.

"Ignorance" – 1:14; 2 Pet 3:16. They talk ignorantly about Christ, His gospel and His people because they do not know the true God (John 15:21; Eph 4:17,18).

"Foolish men" – Rom 1:21,22.

2:16 See Gal 5:13 and Rom 6:15-18.

2:17 "All men" – rich or poor, high or low, brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Slaves, be subject to your masters with all respectful fear, not just to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh. 19 For this is praiseworthy, if a man suffers wrongfully and endures grief because of his conscience toward God. 20 For what glory is it, if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do well and suffer for it, if you take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. 21 For you have been called to this, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow his steps. 22 He committed no sin, nor was deceit found in his mouth. 23 When he was insulted he gave no insults in return. When he suffered, he did not threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously. 24 He himself bore our sins in his own body on the tree, so that we, being dead to sins, should live for righteousness. By his wounds you were healed. 25 For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

3 Likewise you wives be in subjection to your own husbands, so that, if any do not obey the Word, they also, without the Word, may be won by the behaviour of the wives, 2 seeing your chaste behaviour joined with reverential fear. 3 Do not let your adornment be that outward adornment of braiding the hair, and of wearing gold, or of merely putting on outer garments, 4 but let it be the hidden person of the heart, in what is not perishable, that is the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is of great value in the sight of God. 5 For in this way in times of old the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands, 6 even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, educated and illiterate. All racial pride, bigotry, and feelings of superiority must be renounced. Believers must not despise or look down on anyone. Compare Rom 12:10; Jam 2:1-4,9; 1 Cor 12:14-26; Acts 6:1.

"Fear God" - references at 1:17. This is a command to believers just as certain as the command to love God. In fact, reverential fear, respect and awe of God go hand in hand with the love of God, and cannot be separated from it. Since it is commanded to Christians we should make sure that we have it. And if we are lacking in it, we should pray as David did in Ps 86:11.

"Honour the king" - compare Rom 13:1-7.

2:18 "Slaves" - Eph 6:5-8; Col 3:22-24.

2:19 "Praiseworthy" - God himself will commend and reward such people.

2:20 Compare 4:15,16.

"Take it patiently" - without getting angry, without seeking revenge.

2:21 "Called" - when God called us to be His own special people, suffering for doing good was part of the calling. Christ is the great example of suffering for doing good. He never did anything but good, but suffered far more than any of us.

"Follow" - Matt 4:19; 8:22; 16:24; 19:21; Luke 9:23; John 1:43; 10:4,27; 12:26; Rom 15:5; 1 Cor 11:1. They who think they believe in Christ but will not follow Him are deceiving themselves.

2:22 Isa 53:9; Matt 27:23; John 8:46; 19:4; 2 Cor 5:21; Heb 4:15; 7:26.

2:23 Isa 53:7; Matt 26:63; 27:12-14; Luke 23:8,9. We should behave in the same way. The one "who judges righteously" is God.

2:24 Here is one of the clearest statements in the Bible that Christ suffered in our place, as our substitute. See also 3:18; Isa 53:5; Matt 20:28; John 1:29; 10:11,14; Rom 3:25; 2 Cor 5:14,21; Heb 9:28. See here the purpose of Christ's sufferings and death. Compare Rom 14:9; 2 Cor 5:15.

"Dead to sins" - Rom 6:10-14; Gal 2:20; 5:24; Col 3:5.

"Live for righteousness" - Rom 6:18,19; 14:19,21; 2 Cor 5:21; Eph 4:24; Phil 1:11; 1 Tim 6:11.

"Healed" - Isa 53:5. The sins were ours, the punishment for them that brought us healing was His.

2:25 "Going astray" - Isa 53:6.

"Shepherd" - 5:4; John 10:1-18.

"Overseer" - the same word used of elders in churches in Acts 20:28; Phil 1:1; Titus 1:7. As Christ is the Chief Shepherd He is also the Chief Overseer and the only such one.

3:1,2 "Be in subjection" - Eph 5:22-24.

"The Word" - God's Word, especially the gospel.

"Won" - won to Christ. Compare 1 Cor 7:16.

"Behavior. . .and reverence" - this can bring unbelieving husbands to Christ even though all talk, all arguments fail. Indeed wives preaching to their husbands may drive them away rather than win them to Christ.

3:3,4 Compare Isa 3:16-23; 1 Tim 2:9,10. Women will not win their husbands to Christ by fixing their hair, but by fixing their hearts; not by gold, but by godliness; not by outer garments, but by inner grace. There is such a thing as inner spiritual beauty which is far superior to any outward beauty. And it is a beauty which will never fade away. Compare Proverbs 31:10-31. The churches and the world would be better places if more women went after the inner sort of beauty.

3:5,6 Holiness, hope in God, and a submissive spirit are the marks of the beauty God wants to see in believing women.

"Sarah" - Gen 18:12.

"Daughters" - Abraham is the "father" of all believers (Rom 4:16). Sarah is the "mother" of all believing women who are calling him lord. You are her daughters, as long as you do well, and are not afraid with any terror.

7 Likewise, you husbands, live with them with understanding, giving honour to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

8 Finally, all of you should be of one mind, having compassion on one another. Love as brothers, be merciful, be courteous. 9 Do not pay back evil for evil, or insult for insult, but, on the contrary, blessing. You know that you have been called to this, so that you might inherit a blessing. 10 For,

He who would love life,
and see good days,
let him keep his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking any deceit.

11 Let him avoid evil, and do good;
let him seek peace, and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, submissive to their husbands.

3:7 Eph 5:25,28; Col 3:19. He is speaking to Christian husbands.

"Understanding" - husbands should understand their wives' problems, desires and weakness, and honour them in spite of any of these.

"Weaker" - women are physically weaker, not mentally (though they are different in the way they think and in emotional makeup). Their position is also weaker - they are the ones to submit and obey.

"Prayers. . .not hindered" - if a married couple want their prayers answered they must be very careful in the way they treat each other. God may well refuse the prayers of a man who behaves badly toward his wife, or the prayers of a wife who refuses to submit to her husband.

3:8,9 Rom 12:9-17; Eph 4:2,3,32; Phil 2:2,3; Col 3:12-14; Luke 6:28; John 13:34; 1 Thess 5:15.

"Might inherit a blessing" - 1:3-5; Gal 3:14; Eph 1:3. In view of God's blessings poured on us, and of the blessing that still awaits us in the future, we should be willing to bless others instead of seeking revenge.

3:10-12 Ps 34:12-16. If we do not live as God tells us to live in vs 8,9, He may cause us to see bad days instead of good days, and may turn away His ears from our prayers instead of answering them.

3:13 Rom 13:3. Unbelievers also can recognize and appreciate kind and compassionate behavior, blessing instead of cursing, doing good instead of evil.

3:14 But suffering for doing what is right is always a possibility in a world like this - 2:19,20; 4:12,13. If it happens to us we should remember the truth the Lord Jesus spoke in Matt 5:10-12.

"Do not fear" - Isa 8:12. Compare Matt 10:26,28,31; John 14:27.

and his ears are open to their prayers, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.

13 And who is he who will harm you, if you are followers of what is good? 14 But even if you suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed are you. And do not fear their dread, or be troubled, 15 but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give an answer, with meekness and fear, to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, 16 having a good conscience, so that, although they slander you, as if you were evildoers, those who falsely accuse your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. 17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that you suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. 18 For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous one for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the body, but made alive by the Spirit. 19 By whom also he went and preached to the spirits in prison,

3:15 "Sanctify the Lord" - see the use of the word "sanctify" here. It means to set the Lord apart from everyone else to be the one we worship, adore, and obey. We must consciously, willingly, continuously make Him Lord in our hearts.

"Always be ready" - Eph 5:15,16. We should know why we are believers in Christ and why we have our hope in heaven, and we should be able to tell others about it in a clear and convincing way.

3:16 "Conscience" - Acts 23:1; 24:16; 2 Cor 1:12; 1 Tim 1:5,19; 3:9.

"Ashamed" - 2:15.

3:17 See 2:20; 4:15,16.

3:18 See 2:24.

"Suffered" - 2:21; 4:1.

"Once" - John 19:30; Heb 9:25-28; 10:10.

"The righteous one" - Luke 23:47; Acts 3:14; 7:52; 22:14; 1 John 2:1.

"Unrighteous" - this is what we all are by nature (Rom 1:29-32; 3:9-20,23). See the purpose of Christ's sufferings for sinful men - to bring us to God. Compare Eph 2:13,18; Heb 10:19-22; John 14:6.

"Put to death" - Matt 16:21; 27:50,58-60; Mark 15:43-45; John 19:32-34; 1 Cor 15:3.

"Made alive" - Matt 28:6; Rom 1:4.

"Spirit" - God's Spirit (John 14:16,17; Matt 3:16).

3:19-22 This passage is obscure and difficult. It seems that sometime between His death and ascension into heaven Christ went somewhere and proclaimed something to some spirits in prison. Peter does not tell us what he means by "spirits" or "prison" or by Christ's going there. Some think Peter means that Christ's Spirit was in Noah preaching to the people of that day, but this seems to ignore the wording of v 19.

3:19 Where did Christ go when He died? In 20 who in time past were disobedient, when once the patience of God waited in the days of Noah while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls were saved through the water.

21 The exact representation of this water now saves us, baptism, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the pledge of a good conscience toward God) through the resurrection a statement of faith called "The Apostle's Creed" these words appear: "He descended into hell." Christ certainly did not descend into hell to endure punishment. All His sufferings were ended on the cross (John 19:30). But it seems He went to the unseen realm of the dead called, in Hebrew, "Sheol" (Eph 4:9; Ps 16:10).

"Preached" - Peter does not use the Greek word which means preaching the gospel (euangelizo), but a word which means to proclaim something as a herald (kerusso).

"Spirits" - Peter does not say the spirits of men, so it is not necessary to think they were people who died in the flood. In the Bible the word "spirits" sometimes refers to either demons or angels (Matt 8:16; Heb 1:14).

"Prison" - the Bible does not tell us the departed spirits of men are in prison, but indicates that some angels are (2 Pet 2:4). So "spirits" here may possibly refer to fallen angels.

3:20 "Disobedient" - this was true of both angels and men before the flood (Jude 6,7; 2 Pet 2:4; Gen 6:2-7).

"Eight" - Noah, his wife, his three sons and their wives (Gen 6:10; 7:1).

"Saved through the water" - compare with the first sentence of the next verse. Observe that in the same way that going through the water of the flood saved them, so going through the water of baptism saves believers now. In actual fact going through the water did not save them at all - being in the ark is what saved them. The ark going through the water of the flood delivered them from destruction and death by that water.

3:21 "Baptism" - notes at Matt 3:6,13-16; 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38. The waters of the flood are a picture of water baptism. The Greek word translated "exact representation" is used in the plural in Heb 9:24 (there translated "copies"). Just as the Holy Place in the tabernacle was an exact copy of the one in heaven, so the water of the flood is a copy or type or exact representation of baptism.

Now it is clear that Noah and his family were saved, not by being in the water, but by being in the ark. The ark symbolizes Christ (Gen 7:24). The water did not save them, but they were saved "through the water" (v 20). Heb 11:7 clearly states that they were saved by faith.

Since baptism is an exact representation of the flood waters, how can anyone think that the ceremony of baptism itself can save of Jesus Christ, 22 who has gone into heaven, and is at the right hand of God, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

4 Therefore, since Christ has suffered for us in the body, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind. For he who has suffered in the body has ceased from sin, 2 so that he no longer should us? Only if we think that the water of the flood saved Noah and his family should we think that baptism saves anyone.

For salvation and new life we first get into Christ, our "ark", and only after we have salvation and new life should we go through the water of baptism. Compare Mark 16:16. If we are not already in Christ, and so saved, we should not be baptized. Baptism is only a picture of the death and resurrection of Christ and our union with Him. The Bible is very clear about what saves us:

God Himself saves us by His mercy - Titus 3:4,5

Jesus saves us - Matt 1:21; Rom 5:9,10

The blood of Christ saves us - Eph 1:7

The sacrifice of Christ saves us - Heb 10:10,14

We are saved by grace through faith - Eph 2:8,9; Acts 16:31; Rom 3:22-25; John 5:24; Heb 10:39

We are saved by believing the gospel - 1 Cor 15:1-4; Acts 10:44-47

Peter says that the living hope we have is because of God's great mercy in giving us the new birth - 1:3, and that the goal of our faith is the salvation of our souls - 1:9.

"Not the putting away of the filth of the flesh" - Peter says that this is what baptism is not. "Flesh" is the translation of a Greek word that means several things, including the physical body and the fallen nature in man. Baptism does not deal with either of these. It has to do with the inner person - "the pledge of a good conscience toward God" (compare Heb 9:14 where we see that what cleanses the conscience is the blood of Christ). Baptism is a public announcement that those receiving it mean to live as God wants them to live and not defile or silence their conscience any more. The outward ceremony of baptism can no more save a person than circumcision could save any Jew - see Rom 2:28,29. But the attitude of heart that baptism signifies is essential, that is, in faith submitting to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Notice that we are saved through "the resurrection of Jesus Christ" - compare Rom 4:25.

3:22 Acts 2:33; Eph 1:20,21; Phil 2:9-11; Heb 1:3.

4:1,2 Christ suffered to free us from sin (2:24; 3:18). We must be willing to suffer in our fight against sin. If we have this attitude it will be like a weapon in our warfare. Christ died to sin; believers should recognize their union with Christ and the fact that in Christ they too have died to sin. See Rom 6:5-13; Col 3:3. In the light of the live the rest of his time in the body for the desires of men, but for the will of God. 3 For the time of life already past is enough for us to have performed the will of the Gentiles, going about in lustfulness, evil desires, excessive drinking, carousing, drunken parties, and abominable idolatries. 4 Now they think it strange that you do not rush with them into the same excessive reveling, and speak evil of you. 5 But they will give an account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6 Because for this reason the gospel was preached also to those who are dead, so that they might be judged sufferings of Christ we should be finished with sin forever. We are to live not to fulfill our desires but to do God's will (Rom 8:5,12; 12:1,2; Col 1:9; 4:12; 1 Thess 4:3; Heb 13:21).

4:3 Compare Titus 3:3; 1 Tim 1:13; Eph 2:1-3; 1 Cor 6:11. The gospel of Christ can reach people in the very depths of sin and change them forever. Observe that idolatrous religions and the life style described here can go hand in hand.

"Abominable idolatries" - Deut 7:25; 12:31; 13:12-14; 17:2-5; 27:15; 29:17; 32:16.

4:4 The holy lives of believers who have left the old life are a rebuke and condemnation to those who remain in it. This partly accounts for the abuse and slander of the ungodly. See Matt 12:36; Acts 10:42; 17:31; Rom 2:16; 14:12; 2 Tim 4:1; Heb 4:13.

4:5 "Give an account" - Rom 14:12; etc.

4:6 This is another difficult and obscure verse. The meaning seems to be this: some who are now dead had the gospel preached to them while they were still alive on earth. The purpose for them, as for us who are still living, was the same - that they might have spiritual life and live "for the will of God" (v 2).

Some teach that this verse means that the gospel was preached to men after they died, if they had not had a chance to hear it on earth. They link this verse with 3:19 and believe "spirits" there means the spirits of men who have died. However, there is no such teaching in any other book of the Bible, and we should not believe so important a teaching of men based, as it is, on obscure and doubtful phrases in a verse or two. If such a teaching is ever true, God has not revealed it to us, and all we know is what he has revealed - Deut 29:29. Others teach that the "dead" means dead in "transgressions and sins" (Eph 2:1). This interpretation seems unlikely here.

4:7 "At hand" - Rom 13:12; 5:9; Rev 1:3; Jam 5:8; 2 Pet 3:8,9; Matt 24:36,42. At the time of the end of this age there will be great troubles and temptations, great deception (Matt 24:4-14,21-25). To stand true and firm for Christ prayer will be absolutely vital. See here two qualities needed for real prayer. Compare Luke 21:36; 22:40,46.

"Sober minded" - the Greek indicates according to men in the body, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand. Therefore be sober minded, and watch so you can pray. 8 And above all things have fervent love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins. 9 Be hospitable to one another without grudging. 10 As each one has received a ministry gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 11 If anyone speaks, let him do so like one speaking the utterances of God. If anyone ministers, let it be done with the ability a mind that is healthy, kept from unreasonable or corrupting thoughts, a mind sound in every way.

4:8 "Love"-1:22; John 13:34; 15:12,17; 1 John 3:11,18; 4:8. Peter uses the Greek word for divine love. See 1 Cor 13:1.

"Covers" - we should try to understand what this means and does not mean. Peter is not speaking of church discipline, of a local church trying to cover sin which should be exposed and put away. Compare Matt 18:15-17; Acts 5:1-11; 1 Cor 5:1-5,12,13. Peter is showing how love works in personal relationships. See Prov 10:12. Love does not like to expose the sins of others. It does not want to bring shame and condemnation on anyone. It will do its best to turn everyone to God who alone can really cover sin (compare Ps 32:1,2; Rom 4:6-8; Jam 5:20).

Peter may also be reminding believers that love will forgive and go on forgiving (1 Cor 13:5; Matt 18:21,22). He may mean too that if we have love, God covers a multitude of our sins (compare Luke 7:47-50). He is certainly giving the nature of love wherever it is found. Divine love always seeks for a way to cover sins consistent with justice and holiness. Compare Gen 3:21; 9:21-23; Rev 3:18,19. Of course, love will never cover the sins of others if that will be harmful to them, or will be a reason for them to go on sinning. Love will always try to get those sinning to forsake their sins (compare Prov 28:13). Real love can never promote sin in any way.

4:9 Rom 12:13; 16:23; Heb 3:2; 3 John 8. This is one way love can be expressed.

4:10 "Gift" - Rom 12:6-8; 1 Cor 12:4-11; Eph 4:7-13.

"To serve one another" - those who love use the abilities God gives to help others, not for personal advancement, money, fame, etc.

"As good stewards" - Matt 24:45-47; 1 Cor 4:1,2.

4:11 "Speaks" - refers to any kind of spoken ministry using the Bible. Those who do so should be conscious of standing in Christ's place as His representative and ambassador, and speak the Word of God with authority.

"Ability which God gives" - it is very possible to try to serve with our own natural ability or strength. This will come to that God gives, so that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

12 Dear ones, do not be surprised at your fiery trial which is for your testing, as though some strange thing happened to you, 13 but rejoice because you are sharers of Christ's sufferings, so that when his glory is revealed, you may be glad also with exceeding joy. 14 If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. He is slandered by them, but glorified by you. 15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a meddler in other men's matters.

"God may be glorified" – the motive of all our service should be this. Those who speak or serve for their own glory are trying (perhaps unconsciously) to rob God of the praise that belongs to him. Compare Matt 6:2,5; 1 Cor 10:31.

4:12 "Surprised" – Christ and His apostles warned repeatedly that troubles and persecution would come (2:20,21; 4:1; John 16:33; Acts 14:22; Rom 8:17; 2 Tim 3:12).

"Fiery" – Peter is speaking of trial by "fire" – the process used in refining metals. See 1:7; Ps 66:10. God permits fiery troubles, or sends them to us to test and prove us.

4:13 "Rejoice" – Matt 5:11,12; Acts 5:41; Rom 5:3; Col 1:24; Jam 1:2. This is always God's instruction to believers when they face trials. Our inner attitude toward them is extremely important. When suffering trials we must never grumble and complain, faint or be discouraged. We must trust God that He knows best how to deal with us for our good, and rejoice in the knowledge of Rom 8:28. Observe that enduring fiery trials is the same as having a part in the "sufferings of Christ" (2 Cor 1:5).

"When his glory is revealed" – Titus 2:13. Then we shall have the rewards of our trials and sufferings (Rom 8:17,18; 2 Cor 4:17,18).

4:14 "Blessed" – see Luke 6:22. This is true only of those insults which come because we are believers in Christ, not those that come for other reasons.

"Spirit of glory" – God's Spirit comes from the glory of heaven and leads believers there. He now rests upon them (Acts 1:8; 1 John 2:20), and their patiently enduring sufferings and insults for Christ's sake is proof of this.

4:15,16 See 2:19,20.

"Let him not be ashamed" – compare Acts 5:41; Heb 11:26. Why should Christians suffer because they bear His name? That is the kind of world we live in (John 15:18-25; 16:1-4). The world is willingly in darkness and hates any spiritual light (John 3:19,20).

4:17 "Judgment" – 1 Cor 11:31,32; 2 Thess 1:5. God judges and disciplines believers so He will not have to condemn them with 16 Yet if any man suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God that this is his lot. 17 For the time has come that judgment must begin at the house of God. And if it first begins at us, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? 18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as to a faithful Creator.

5 I urge the elders who are among you, I who also am an elder and a witness of the the world.

"House" – Gal 6:10; Eph 2:19.

"Those who do not obey" – John 3:36; 2 Thess 1:8,9. Note at Acts 22:10.

4:18 Prov 11:31.

"Scarcely be saved" – Mark 10:24. Why is it difficult for the righteous to be saved? Consider the following:

Their enemies are many and strong – 5:8; Eph 6:11,12.

They are weak and have a sinful nature – Rom 6:19; 7:18; 8:26; Gal 5:16,17; 1 John 1:8.

God's law of sowing and reaping cannot be set aside for believers – Rom 2:6-8; Gal 6:7,8.

God must make them righteous in their behavior. God's standards are very high. He has laid down certain principles which must be fulfilled in His people.

They must not only enter the narrow gate but be kept on the narrow road (Matt 7:13,14).

They must learn to refuse their own will and do God's (Matt 7:21), and forsake all they have to follow Christ (Luke 14:33).

They must learn to follow holiness (John 10:27; Heb 12:6).

They must be brought safely through fiery trials and much discipline (Heb 12:5-13). And they must be kept believing to the end (Heb 10:38,39).

But though the salvation of the righteous is difficult it is certain (1:5; John 6:39; 10:28; Rom 5:9,10).

"Ungodly" – since the salvation of the righteous is so difficult, what hope is there for those who reject Christ and His narrow way and His will, and spurn holiness and faith?

4:19 "Commit" – 5:7; Ps 31:5; 37:5; Acts 20:32.

"In well doing" – 2:12,15; 3:11; Rom 2:7; 2 Cor 5:10; 9:8; Gal 6:9,10; Eph 2:10; Col 1:10; 2 Tim 3:17; Titus 2:14. We must never let trials, insults, persecutions, or God's discipline keep us from doing good to others.

5:1 "Elders" – Acts 14:23; 15:2; 20:17; 1 Tim 4:14; 5:17; Titus 1:5.

"Witness" – Peter was one of the original apostles of Christ.

sufferings of Christ, and also a sharer in the glory that will be revealed: 2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion, but willingly; not for sordid gain, but with a ready mind; 3 not like lords over God's inheritance, but being examples to the flock. 4 And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive a crown of glory that will not fade away.

5 Likewise you young people, be submissive to older ones. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for and gives grace to the humble.

God resists the proud,

6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty

"Glory that will be revealed" – Rom 8:17,18. 5:2-4 Here we see that elders (Greek "presbuteros") are to do the work of overseers (1 Tim 3:1, in Greek "episkopos") – evidently Peter is equating the two terms. See the qualifications needed for elders or overseers in 1 Tim 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9. Christ is the Chief Shepherd and He has delegated to elders the work of looking after local churches – Acts 20:28. Christ has entrusted His people into their care and they will have to give an answer to Him as to what they have done. They should all feel very keenly their responsibility to be the kind of shepherds He wants them to be. Compare 2:21; Isa 56:10-11; Jer 3:15; 10:21; 12:10; 23:1-4; Ezek 34:2-10. "Sordid gain" – Matt 6:24; 1 Tim 6:8-10; Titus 1:7.

"With a ready mind" – Titus 2:14.

"Not like lords" – Matt 20:25-28.

"Examples" – 1 Cor 11:1; Phil 3:17; 2 Thess 3:7; 1 Tim 4:12; Titus 2:7.

"Appears" – Matt 24:30; Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28; Rev 22:12.

5:4 "Crown" – Phil 4:1; 1 Thess 2:19; 2 Tim 2:5; 4:8; Jam 1:12. There will be glorious rewards for faithful elders.

"Not fade away" – 1 Cor 9:25.

5:5 "Submissive" – 2:13,18; 3:1; 1 Cor 16:16; Eph 5:21; Jam 3:17; 4:7.

"Humility" – Prov 11:2; 15:33; Zeph 2:3; Phil 2:3; Col 3:12; Titus 3:2; Jam 3:13; Matt 5:13; 11:29. One mark of humility is to think lowly of ourselves and to be willing for others to think lowly of us. The first of these is easier than the second.

"Proud" – Jam 4:6. Do we want God to oppose us? Here is the way. Pride keeps us from getting God's grace which He gives to the humble. It is the root cause of much failure and defeat in the Christian life.

5:6 James 4:10.

"In due time" – he is still speaking to young men (v 5). Due time is not what they think is due time, but what God thinks. The young should not be restless and self-assertive but prove themselves in small matters (Luke 16:10) and wait on God to put them in the place He chooses in His way and time (Ps 75:6,7; 31:15).

hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time, 7 casting all your care upon him, for he cares for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary the devil, walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 9 Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing that these same sufferings are being imposed on your brethren that are in the world. 10 But the God of all grace, who has called us to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, make you perfect, make you stable, strengthen, and establish you. 11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 With the help of Silvanus, whom I regard

5:7 Ps 55:22; Matt 6:33,34; Phil 4:6,7.

"He cares for you" – Matt 6:30; Heb 2:6-8; Phil 4:19. God thinks about us, plans for us, is concerned for us as a Father for His children. To be anxious is to make ourselves miserable and to dishonor Him. Casting our cares on Him means to bring them to Him and trust Him to take them and work everything out for the best, resting in His goodness and wisdom and power.

5:8 "Sober" – The Greek means literally "sober", but figuratively may mean "self-controlled" or "sober minded" or "alert" – not controlled by anything foreign to a true Christian walk. 1:13; 4:7; Prov 25:28; Gal 5:23; 1 Thess 5:6,8; 2 Pet 1:6.

"Vigilant" – Eph 6:18; 1 Thess 5:6. Satan can catch those who are spiritually asleep or self-indulgent. Note on "devil" at Matt 4:1. He has to "walk about" because he cannot (like God) be in every place at the same time. Though he comes like a lion, he is cowardly when facing faithful believers (James 4:7), and they can trample on him (Ps 91:13).

5:9 "Resist him" – Eph 6:10-18. Believers need never give in to any temptation or trick of Satan, if they will meet him with a firm trust in Christ (1 John 4:4; 1 Cor 10:13).

"Same sufferings" – when we are tempted and tried we may think we alone are having to face such things. It is not so. All believers face similar trials.

5:10 "Grace" – John 1:14,16,17; Acts 15:11; 20:24,32; Rom 1:7; 3:24; 5:21; 2 Cor 8:9; 9:8; Eph 2:8-10.

"Called" – 2:9; 3:9; Rom 1:6,7; 8:28-30; 11:29; Eph 4:1; Heb 3:1; 2 Pet 1:10.

"Glory" – John 17:24; Rom 5:2; 8:17.

"In Christ" – notes at Rom 6:3-8; Eph 1:1,3.

"After you have suffered" – 1:6; 4:1,12. Sufferings, then glory was the way with Christ (1:11) and it is the way God has appointed for believers. See what God says He will do for us who are undergoing trials and sufferings. Compare Ps 66:12. He promises to bring us safely through them all and make us stronger than we were before.

5:12 "By the help of Silvanus" – compare as a faithful brother to you, I have written briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon, chosen

Rom 16:22; 1 Cor 1:1; 2 Cor 1:1; Phil 1:1; Col 1:1. Silvanus is the same person as Silas - Acts 15:22; 2 Cor 1:19.

"The true grace of God" - throughout this letter the grace of God has been one of his major themes - 1:2,10,13; 4:10; 5:5;10. Salvation comes by God's grace alone, and that same grace will bring God's saved people safely to glory at last.

5:13 "The church that is" - notice that the words "church that is" have been added. It could be translated "She who is" and could mean either the local church in Babylon or possibly Peter's wife.

"Babylon" - Gen 10:10; 2 Kings 17:24; Isa 13:1; Jeremiah chapters 50-52. There together with you, greets you, and so does my son Mark.

14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be with all of you that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

was also at that time a military station in Egypt called Babylon. Many commentators think Peter meant Rome (compare Rev 17:5,18). There is a tradition that he wrote his first letter from there, but no proof. If he wrote from Rome the question comes, why would he not plainly say so?

"Mark" - Acts 12:12,25; Col 4:10; 2 Tim 4:11. Peter considered Mark his spiritual son. Compare 1 Tim 1:2.

5:14 "Love" - divine love - agape - note at 1 Cor 13:1.

"Kiss" - Rom 16:16; 1 Cor 16:20; etc.

"Peace" - Luke 1:79; 2:14; John 14:27; Rom 1:7. There can never be real peace to anyone who is not "in Christ".

The Second Letter of the Apostle PETER

Author:

Peter one of the original apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime about 67 AD.

Themes:

Peter knows that very shortly he will die (1:13-15). His purpose in writing was to remind believers of what they had already learned and to encourage them (1:13; 3:1), to warn them again about false teachers, and to urge them to go on growing in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus (3:18). "Knowledge" is a key thought of this letter, used 7 times. The words "know", "knows", "known", and "knowing" are used another 7 times, and the word "ignorant" appears 3 times. All this indicates Peter's conviction of the great importance of true knowledge in the Christian life.

1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, 3 just as his divine power has given to us all things that we need for life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who has called us by his glory

1:1 1 Pet 1:1.

"Simon" - Matt 4:18; 10:2.

"Servant" - Rom 1:1. Observe that Peter calls the Lord Jesus "our God and Saviour." This is a more literal translation of the Greek and brings out the deity of Christ better than the KJV. The Greek phrase here is constructed exactly like the one in v 11 - "our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." On Christ's deity see also Titus 2:13; Phil 2:6; Heb 1:3,8,10; John 20:28; etc.

"Precious" - faith is of very great value indeed (1 Pet 1:7). Those who have faith have "obtained" or "received" it. In other words, faith in Christ is a gift of God (Acts 3:16; Eph 2:8; Phil 1:29).

"Righteousness" - Rom 3:20-26.

1:2 Rom 1:7.

"Be multiplied" - 1 Pet 1:2. Observe in what way grace and peace overflow to believers. Compare John 17:3. The better we know the Father and the Son the greater will be our peace, the more we will appreciate God's grace. God wants us to know Him better that we might better receive and use His grace (3:18). Paul was always praying that believers might know God better - Eph 1:17; 3:19; 4:13; Phil 1:9,10; Col 1:9-12.

1:3 "His divine power" refers to the power of the Lord Jesus. He has divine power because He is God. For living the Christian life as it should be lived He has given us everything we need. Compare Eph 1:3. All resources of wisdom and power and holiness and strength are in Him, and He is in all believers (Rom 8:9,10; 2 Cor 13:5; Col 1:27; 2:3).

"Godliness" - 1 Tim 2:2; 3:16; 4:8; 6:5,6,11; Titus 1:1.

"Called" - 1 Pet 1:15; 2:9,21; 3:9; 5:10 (notes at Rom 1:6; 8:30).

"Glory" - John 1:14; 17:5.

"Virtue" - the Greek word is translated "praises" in 1 Pet 2:9. It means excellent qualities, worthy of praise. God is good, His character is praiseworthy - Ex 33:19; Neh 9:25; Ps 17:13; 31:19; 145:7; 1 Pet 2:3.

1:4 "Great and precious promises" - the New Testament, the whole Bible, is full of them.

"Through them" - we must find these promises, believe them, meditate on them, use them to claim the things God has given us. Otherwise there cannot be the blessed results in our lives that God wants us to experience. It is by faith in God's Word and His promises that we overcome sin, Satan and the world, and it is by faith that we walk with Christ and serve Him.

"Partakers of the divine nature" - and virtue. 4 Through these, great and precious promises have been given to us, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through evil desire.

5 For this very reason, giving all your effort, add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, 6 and to knowledge self-control, and to self-control patient endurance, and to patient believers in Christ do not become God. This is quite impossible for any man, any created being. But believers are united to Christ; they are in Him and He is in them, and God's Spirit is in them (John 14:17; 17:20-23). In this sense they participate in the divine nature.

"Having escaped" - if we do not escape the world's corruption we shall not escape the anger of God which comes on it (Matt 23:33; Rom 2:3; 1 Thess 5:3; 2 Tim 2:26; Heb 2:3; 12:25). And it is only by believing the promises of God that we can escape.

"Corruption" - Gen 6:11,12; Ps 14:3; Isa 1:4; Acts 2:40; Eph 4:22.

"Evil desire" - all the world's corruption can be traced to man's heart. See Jam 1:14,15; 4:1,2. We all need to obey Peter's exhortation in 1 Pet 1:14 and 2:11. God's very great and precious promises hold out a way of complete escape from corruption. Let us use them.

1:5-7 Because Christ has given us everything we need, we should lay hold of what He has given and make earnest efforts to grow in all the good qualities of the Christian life.

"Add" - he does not mean to wait until we have one good quality before trying to add another one. These qualities should all be added together as we grow in the spiritual life. How can we add them? By laying hold of God's promises by faith, by self-examination, prayer and meditation on God's Word, by simply putting His Word into practice - doing those things we know we should do, by "putting on" Christ and the new nature (Ps 1:1-3; Luke 11:28; Rom 13:14; 2 Cor 5:7; Eph 4:22-24; etc).

1:5 "Faith" - this is where we all must start. Without it, of course, we are not real Christians at all, and even if we could add the other qualities they would do us no permanent good - Heb 11:6; John 3:36.

"Virtue" - v 3. The Greek word suggests an excellent character, moral, upright, good.

"Knowledge" - v 2. This is something that cannot be added once and for all. Believers need a constant growth in knowledge - 3:18; Phil 3:10 - but we can begin to add it.

1:6 "Self-control" - this is a fruit of God's Spirit (Gal 5:23). We "add" it by yielding to the Spirit and walking in the Spirit and using the strength the Spirit gives to bring our thoughts and desires and actions under control.

"Patient endurance" - means to persevere no matter what troubles and trials endurance godliness, 7 and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love. 8 For if these things are in you, and are increasing, they will cause you to be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 But he who lacks these things is blind, and cannot see far off, and has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Therefore, brethren, give even more effort to make your calling and election certain. For if you do these things, you will never fall. 11 For in this way an entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ will be richly provided to you.

12 Therefore I will not neglect to remind you always of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. 13 Yes, I may come to us, and go on in the faith. This is not something we have by nature. We must learn to "add" it (Jam 1:2-4,12).

"Godliness" - v 3; 3:11. The word means piety and devotion to God put into action.

1:7 "Brotherly kindness" - Rom 12:10; 1 Thess 4:9; Heb 13:1; 1 Pet 1:22. This is love of fellow believers expressed in action, tender affection.

"Love" - divine love which God puts into the hearts of His believers ("agape" - note at 1 Cor 13:1).

1:8 "Increasing" - 3:18; Gal 5:22,23; Eph 4:12-15; Phil 3:12-14.

"Neither barren or unfruitful" - we may not wish to be useless and unproductive in our Christian lives, but we will be just that - if we do not add the above qualities to our lives.

1:9 "Blind. . . far off" - blind, that is, to certain spiritual truths, to many wonderful things he could see if his eyes were opened. See Paul's prayer in Eph 1:18,19. Those who can't see far off are not totally blind. They can see the things of this world, things that are all around them, but they lack the kind of sight Paul speaks of in 2 Cor 4:18.

"Forgotten" - if he kept in memory what cleansing from sin meant he would realize that God had called him to a high and holy life and would be adding the good qualities of vs 5-7.

1:10 "God's calling and election" - Peter means God's choosing them for salvation and calling them to it. In the way the word "election" is used in the Bible God's people are chosen by only one vote - God's - and this vote was cast before the world was created (Eph 1:4; 1 Peter 1:2). See notes at John 6:37; Rom 1:6; 8:28-30; Eph 1:4-6. How do we make sure God has chosen and called us? One way is by adding the good qualities of vs 5-7. If we do not add them we might well doubt whether we know anything about the salvation God gives.

"Fall" - by adding those good qualities we become more sure that God has chosen us, our confidence in Him grows, and with it our strength to stand also grows.

think it fitting, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by giving this reminder, 14 knowing that shortly I must put off my tent, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has showed me. 15 Moreover, I will make an effort to see that you will always be able to keep these things in memory after my decease.

16 For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when such a voice as this came to him from the majestic glory: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

18 And we heard this voice which came from heaven, when we were with him in the holy mountain.

1:11 "Kingdom" - Matt 4:17; 5:3,10; 6:10,33; 7:21; 25:34; 1 Thess 2:12; 2 Tim 4:1,18; Heb 12:28. Christ will give a rich welcome to those believers who have eagerly added the qualities of vs 5-7. It may not be the same for those who have failed to add them. Compare Matt 5:19; 2 Cor 5:10; Rev 22:12.

1:12 "Remind" - Rom 15:15; 1 Cor 15:1; 2 Tim 1:6; 2:14. There is a continual need for believers to remember the truths God has revealed. Forgetting is all too possible, and it will have very harmful results. See Deut 8:1-5; etc.

"Established" - Col 1:23; Luke 21:19; 1 Cor 16:13; 2 Cor 1:21,24.

1:13 "Tabernacle" - or "tent" - 2 Cor 5:1,4.

1:14 In other words, Peter was expecting to die soon. See John 21:18,19. Compare 2 Tim 4:6. Then Peter was not expecting the return of Christ in his lifetime.

1:15 "Effort" - he was making part of that effort then, but he probably means he will write more fully on the above matters and send it to them.

1:16 "We" - himself and the other apostles. They were with Jesus throughout His ministry and saw His supernatural power on many occasions.

"Cunningly devised fables" - compare 2:3; 1 Tim 1:4; 4:7.

"Eyewitnesses" - John 15:27; Acts 1:3. They knew exactly what He did and what He said. There was no room for doubt whatever.

"His majesty" - John 1:14. Here Peter may be speaking of a particular event - the transfiguration of the Lord Jesus. See Matt 17:1,2.

1:17 See Matt 17:5. The voice came out of heaven, God's dwelling place.

1:18 Matt 17:6. Peter is not reporting something he heard from someone else. He was there. He saw that Jesus was transfigured. He heard the voice from heaven. This is one factor that made the witness of the original apostles so powerful. Compare Acts 1:8; 2:32; etc.

"Holy" - the mountain became holy 19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy. And you do well to take heed to it, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the day star arises in your hearts. 20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation. 21 For prophecy did not come in olden times by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

because God set it apart for that event. Note at Lev 20:7.

1:19 "Prophecy" – he means the writings of the Old Testament prophets. Note at Gen 20:7. They too spoke of the "power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ" (v 16; Ps 2:8,9; 96:13; 98:9; Isa 2:12-19; 13:9-11; 26:21; 62:11; 63:1-6; Dan 7:13,14; Zech 14:3-5; etc). The transfiguration of Jesus confirmed their prophecies, made believers even more certain that they would be fulfilled. The word of the prophets is a light which God has given believers (compare Ps 119:105; Prov 6:23). It shows us where we are and where we are going. It helps us to walk without stumbling and falling.

"Dark place" – Ps 82:5; Prov 4:19; John 1:5; 3:19; Rom 1:21; Eph 4:18; 6:12; 1 John 2:11.

"Day dawns" – the appearing of the Lord Jesus. Then the long night of earth's sin and darkness will be over – Rom 13:12; Isa 60:1-3.

"Day star" – or "morning star" – Rev 22:16. In this verse Peter is urging us to study the Old Testament prophets and observe carefully what they say.

1:20 "Scripture" – he is referring to the Old Testament. The prophets did not write down their own interpretation of what they saw, and we will not be able to interpret what they wrote with our unaided reason. False prophets are just the opposite. They both prophesy and interpret prophecy out of their own hearts and imaginations – Jer 14:14; 23:16; Ezek 13:3. The prophecies of Scripture came from God and God's help is necessary to understand them.

1:21 "By the will of man" – he means prophecy uttered by God's prophets and recorded in the Old Testament. The prophets did not of themselves decide to speak or to write something or other. Their prophecies came from heaven. Compare Jer 1:9. They could truthfully say, "Hear the word of the Lord", or "Thus says the Lord" (Isa 1:2,10,11; Jer 2:4; Ezek 3:16,17; etc) because it was absolutely true. God gave them the very words they should say. They were instruments in the hands of God's Spirit to declare God's truth. See Matt 4:4; 5:17,18; Mark 12:46; John 10:35; Acts 4:25; 1 Cor 2:13; 2 Tim 3:16; Heb 1:5-13; 1 Pet 1:11.

If we neglect the Bible we are neglecting the Word of the living God. If we are ignorant of prophecy, we are ignorant of what God will yet do on this earth, and many other

2 But there were false prophets also among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many will follow their destructive ways. Because of them the way of truth will be slandered. 3 And because of greed they will make merchandise of you with fabricated teachings. Their truths we need to know.

2:1 "False prophets" – Deut 13:1-5; 18:20-22; 1 Kings 18:19-40; 22:6,7; Isa 9:15; Jer 2:8; 5:31; 14:14; 28:1-9; Ezek 13:2-7.

"Among you" – Matt 7:15; 24:11; Acts 20:29,30; Rom 16:17,18; Gal 1:7; Phil 3:18; 1 Tim 4:1,2; 2 Tim 4:3; Jam 4:1. Satan will not give up a method which has proved so successful through the centuries. He himself was the first false prophet on earth. See Gen 3:4; John 8:44.

"Secretly" – 2 Cor 11:13-15; Gal 2:4; Jude 4. Very cleverly they try to gain the confidence of Christians before introducing their false teachings. They mix truth with error so the false is more appealing and attractive. Many of them are pastors and teachers and professors and bishops accepted by churches and denominations.

"Destructive" – false teachings destroy the souls of individuals and whole churches. Religious lies are very deadly. Satan's first one (Gen 3:4) plunged mankind into ruin. His followers keep many people there.

"Denying the Lord who bought them" – Matt 20:28; 1 Cor 7:23; Gal 3:13; Rev 5:9. Christ gave Himself "a ransom for all men" and this includes false teachers. See 1 Tim 2:6. He paid a sufficient price to save everyone if everyone will repent and believe the gospel. False teachers deny Christ. This may mean they deny His deity or that they deny the necessity of His sacrifice. But they will call themselves Christians, and their denials may be subtle and sly (compare Rom 16:18).

"Bring upon themselves" – Phil 3:19. False teachers are inviting disaster. They are provoking God to destroy them. Their behavior cries out for judgment. They will be fully responsible for what happens to them.

2:2 "Many will follow" – Matt 24:11; Phil 3:18.

"The way of truth will be slandered" – those who profess to walk in Christ's way when actually they do not, cause people to think that the way of Christ is not good. They dishonor the gospel they say they believe.

2:3 "Greed" – v 15; Rom 16:18; Phil 3:19; 1 Tim 6:5,10. Their religious activity is not for God or for others, but for their own gain.

"Make merchandise of you" – they care nothing for God's people, or for the church. Like Judas they would sell anyone for money.

"Fabricated teachings" – 1 Tim 4:1,2,7; 6:20,21; 2 Tim 4:3,4. The clear teachings of the Word of God is not to the liking of such condemnation uttered long ago now does not delay, and their damnation does not slumber.

4 For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be kept for judgment; 5 and did not spare the old world, but saved Noah one of eight, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; 6 and if he turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes and condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those who afterwards would live ungodly lives, 7 and delivered righteous Lot, troubled with the filthy behavior of the wicked 8 (for that righteous man living among them, in seeing and hearing them, had his righteous soul pained day after day with their unlawful deeds), 9 then the Lord knows how to people, so they make up their own teachings.

"Condemnation" - God has already condemned them and will deal with them at the proper time.

2:4 This is the first of three examples Peter gives to show that God is well able to punish those who will not walk in His truth.

"Angels who sinned" - Jude 6. Notes at Gen 6:1-5; 16:7; etc. Compare Rev 12:4,7,8. Sometime in the past some of the angels in heaven revolted against God and were cast out. Since God did not spare them, we may be sure He will not spare false teachers.

"Hell" - the original has "Tartarus", a Greek word indicating a place of punishment.

"Chains of darkness" - compare v 17; Matt 25:30.

"Judgment" - 1 Cor 6:2,3.

2:5 Gen 6:5-8,11-13,18; 7:11,12,23.

"Noah. . . a preacher" - this is the only place in the Bible where Noah is called a preacher. He was a righteous man (Gen 6:9) and preached righteousness to the people of his day, but they refused to listen. His ministry went on for many years without a single convert. Since God did not spare the whole of mankind except for eight persons, we may be sure He will not spare false teachers.

2:6-8 See Gen 19:1-29. How then will false teachers escape?

"An example" - Jude 7; Mal 4:1; Matt 3:10,12; 25:41.

"Righteous Lot" - Gen 18:23. From this verse we understand that Lot had believed God, and that God had counted him righteous (compare Gen 15:6), though we have no record of this in the Bible. Peter gives us further information about Lot's inner experiences as he lived in Sodom. His words show us what goes on in a righteous man's heart when he sees the sins of the world.

2:9 As in all former eras, so now mankind is divided into two groups - the "godly" and the "ungodly". In the Bible the "godly" are those who have faith in the one true and living God and are devoted to Him. The Lord Jesus Christ is His one incarnation, and so deliver the godly out of temptations, and to keep the unrighteous for the day of judgment to be punished, 10 and especially those who walk according to the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise authority. They are arrogant and self-willed, and are not afraid to speak evil of honored ones. 11 Whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring abusive accusations against them before the Lord.

12 But these people, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things they do not understand. And they will utterly perish in their own corruption, 13 and will receive the consequences of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to carouse in the daytime. They are blots and blemishes, delighting themselves with their own deceitfulness while they the godly believe in Him and follow Him. The unrighteous reject Him (though, some of them may say they believe in Him), and their lives reveal that they do not truly believe in Him.

"Deliver. . . out of temptations" - 1 Cor 10:13; Rom 8:35-39.

"Day of judgment" - Acts 17:31.

"To be punished" - though the day of final judgment has not come, the unrighteous who have died are now being punished (Luke 16:22-25). This will continue until the day of judgment, and afterwards.

2:10 "Walk according to the flesh" - see Rom 7:5; 8:4-8.

"Lust of uncleanness" - Matt 15:19; Rom 1:24; Eph 4:19,22.

"Despise authority" - that is, despise any authority anyone tries to exercise over them. This often goes along with greed and immorality. Under the power of these things men reject all authority, God's or man's, that would interfere with them in their wickedness. They reject the Lordship of Christ. The more they follow their corrupt desires the more bold and arrogant they become.

"Honored ones" - or "heavenly beings" - such people are contemptuous of the unseen world. To them this world is everything. 2:11 Compare Jude 9.

2:12 Eph 4:18; Jude 10. They are not humble enough to admit they are ignorant of anything. In their arrogance they speak evil of glorious truth beyond their understanding.

"Brute beasts" - Ps 49:12,20; 57:4; 74:19. Such people have no more spiritual understanding than animals. The satisfaction of bodily desire is all they want. They may pride themselves on their ability to reason, but behave as if they had none.

2:13 "Consequences of unrighteousness" - Gal 6:7,8; 2 Thess 1:6.

"Daytime" - the nights are not enough for them to satisfy their corrupt desires. They have no shame and do not try to hide their sins.

"Feast with you" - Acts 2:42; Jude 12; note at 1 Cor 11:20-22.

feast with you. 14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin, they entice unstable souls. They have a heart exercised with greedy practices. They are cursed children 15 who have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness 16 (and was rebuked for his wickedness. The dumb donkey speaking with man's voice prohibited the madness of the prophet).

17 These people are wells without water, clouds that are carried about by a storm. The blackness of darkness is reserved for them forever. 18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much shamelessness, those who had completely escaped from those who live in error. 19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the slaves of corruption. For 2:14 They look at every attractive woman with lust and think how they might seduce her. They sin continually in thought, desire and deed. Compare Matt 5:28-30.

"Greedy" - v 3. They are utterly selfish, totally inconsiderate of others.

"Cursed" - 1 Cor 16:22; Gal 1:8,9; Heb 6:8; Gen 4:11; Deut 16:22; Gal 1:8,9; Heb 6:8; Gen 4:11; Deut 11:26-28; Prov 3:33; Isa 24:6.

2:15 "Forsaken the right way" - 1 John 2:19.

"Balaam" - Jude 11. His story is found in Numbers chapters 22-25. See notes on Num 22:1-7,19. False teachers and false prophets are for hire. They go after money or other worldly advantages, and are willing to teach what people want to hear.

2:16 Num 22:28-31.

"Madness" - it is madness for anyone to think he can hide his motives and intentions from God, and to be determined to take one's own way instead of His.

2:17 "Wells without water" - compare 2 Tim 3:5. They appear promising on the outside but are empty of spiritual life. They profess to belong to God but are without God's Spirit. On "water" see John 4:13,14; 7:38,39.

"Clouds. . .carried about" - Jude 12. See Eph 4:14.

"Darkness" - they choose darkness here on earth (John 3:19,20); they will have darkness forever (Matt 8:12; 22:13; Jude 13).

2:18 "Swelling words of vanity" - the ungodly are often great boasters - Ps 52:1; 75:4; 94:4; Rom 1:30; Gal 6:13; 2 Tim 3:2; Jam 3:5. They who have least to boast about are often the most boastful.

"Escaped from them" - these evil teachers want to regain control over those who show an interest in the gospel, or who are new Christians, and try to corrupt them.

2:19 "Promise them liberty" - the only so-called liberty they know is the freedom to do what their sinful natures desire. They pervert the grace of God and seemingly believe that Christians may go on in their whatever overcomes a man that same thing brings him into bondage. 20 For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, their latter end is worse than their beginning. 21 For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy command delivered to them. 22 But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog has turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

3 This second epistle, dearly loved ones, I am now writing to you. In both of them I would stir up your pure minds by way of reminder, 2 so that you may remember the words sins and still be saved (Jude 4; Gal 5:13), ignoring the teachings of God's Word on this (1 Cor 6:9,10; Gal 5:21,24).

"Slaves" - John 8:34,35; Rom 6:16. Slaves to money and to lust sometimes stand and preach freedom to others - the freedom to be enslaved as they are.

2:20 "Escaped. . .through the knowledge of the Lord" - such people may have much knowledge of Christ, may even know Him as Judas did. Notice the word "if" and compare Heb 6:4-6; 10:26,27. People may know a great deal about Christ, may decide to turn over a new leaf and turn away from the corruption in the world. This does not necessarily mean they have received a new spiritual life and a new nature by God's Spirit.

"Worse than their beginning" - compare Matt 12:43-45.

2:21 Christ's way is the way of righteousness, a straight and narrow way (2:2,15; Matt 5:20; 7:13,14; Isa 35:8; Ps 15:1-5). It is very possible to know this way and turn back from it.

"Holy command" - Matt 4:17,19; Mark 1:15; Luke 24:47; Acts 17:30. The gospel message is like God's holy command to man.

2:22 The first proverb is found in Prov 26:11, the origin of the second is unknown. True believers are "sheep" (John 10:27), not dogs or pigs. Sheep neither return to their vomit nor wallow in the mud. It is possible for Christ's people to fall into sin (Jam 3:2; 1 John 2:1; Gal 2:11-13; 5:17), but they do not stay wallowing in it (Prov 24:16; 1 John 3:9). Peter gives a clear picture of those who for some reason or other become religious and leave behind for a while their former corrupt and immoral practices. But soon their real nature reasserts itself and they return to them. A washed pig will always be a pig and not anything else.

3:1 "Reminder" - 1:12-15.

3:2 "Prophecs" - 1:19-21.

"Command" - 2:21. Again he which were spoken beforehand by the holy prophets, and the command of the Lord and Saviour through us, the apostles.

3 First understand this: in the last days there will come scoffers, walking after their own lusts, 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." 5 For they are willingly ignorant of the fact that long ago by the word of God the heavens existed, and the earth stood out of the water and in the water, 6 and that the world that then existed was covered with water and perished. 7 But by that same word the heavens and the earth which now exist are reserved for fire, kept until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, dearly loved ones, do not be ignorant of this one thing, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day. 9 The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some men count slowness, but is patient toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. In that day the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fiery heat. The earth also and the works that are in it will be burned up. 11 Since then all these things will be dissolved, what kind of people you ought to be in holy conduct and godliness, 12 as you look for and speed the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens will be on fire and dissolve, and the elements will melt with fiery heat! 13 Nevertheless, in accordance with his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness will dwell.

emphasizes the importance of both the Old and New Testaments to the understanding and growth of believers.

3:3 "Scoffers" - 2:12; 2 Chron 36:16; Ps 1:1; Ps 73:8; 74:22; Prov 14:9; 15:12; 19:29; 21:24; Isa 28:14; Acts 13:41; Jude 18. Some men ignorantly sneer at the well-founded beliefs of Christians. It is easier to scoff than to examine the evidence and renounce evil desires.

3:4 "His coming" - Matt 24:3,30; John 14:3. These scoffers will assume that because Jesus has not returned for a long time He will not return at all.

3:5 "Are willingly ignorant" - they wish to follow their evil desires and do not want to keep in mind anything that might interfere with that. Their beliefs are not based on the facts, but on what they want to be true. Compare Rom 1:28. Their ignorance of God's truth and unbelief are intentional, deliberate.

"By the Word of God" - Gen 1:1-3,6,9, etc.; Ps 33:6.

3:6 See 2:5.

3:7 "Word" - Heb 1:3.

"Fire" - v 12; Isa 66:15,16; Nahum 1:56; Mal 4:1; Rev 20:9. When will the heavens and earth be destroyed by fire? At the time of the judgment of the unsaved, not before (see Rev 20:11-15). Compare Matt 19:28; Acts 3:21; Rom 8:19-21.

3:8,9 To men it seems a long time since Christ promised to return. But God does not experience time as we do, and to Him it is like two days, or less. See Ps 90:4 and note. If He waits 2000 years (or more) in our reckoning before sending Christ again, He has a very good purpose in mind. He is at work bringing men to repentance and waiting until He knows He should wait no more. Compare Gen 6:3.

"Not willing that any should perish" - Ezek 18:32; 1 Tim 2:4; John 3:16. God wants every human being to come to repentance - Acts 17:30. "Repentance" - Matt 3:2; etc. 3:10 "The Day of the Lord" - notes at Isa 2:12; 13:6-13; Joel 2:1,2,30,31; Zeph 1:14-18; Acts 2:20; 1 Thess 5:2; 2 Thess 2:2. In the Bible the word "day" does not necessarily mean one single literal day. See Gen 2:4; John 9:4; Isa 34:8; 1 Thess 5:5,8. The "day" of salvation (2 Cor 6:2) has continued from Paul's day to ours, nearly two thousand years. The period of time for the "day" of the Lord may be a thousand years or more, beginning with the return of Christ and ending with the final judgment of Rev 20:11-15.

"Like a thief" - 1 Thess 5:1-3; Rev 3:3; 16:15.

"Fire" - v 7. Peter does not give us a schedule of future events. His language does not rule out the possibility that Christ will return and reign for a thousand years before the final judgment of men and the complete destruction of the heavens and earth (Rev 20:1-6). There will be fiery punishment both before and after that thousand years - 2 Thess 1:7; Isa 24:6-13; 29:6; 30:30; Rev 16:8,9; 20:9,14,15. 3:11 "What kind" - is it reasonable to live for the things of a world which is heading for destruction? Compare 1 John 2:15-17.

"Holy conduct and godliness" - Titus 2:11-14; 1 Pet 1:15; 1 John 1:6.

3:12 "Day of God" - v 10; 1 Cor 1:8; 3:13; 5:5; 2 Cor 1:14; Phil 1:6. How can believers speed its coming, that is, cause that day to come more quickly? By doing what the Lord Jesus told us to do. He has instructed us to pray for His Kingdom to come (Matt 6:10), and to take His gospel to all the various peoples on earth (Matt 28:19; Mark 16:15). When His Church has completed this task the end of this age will come (Matt 24:14).

3:13 "New heavens and a new earth" - Isa 65:17; Rev 21:1.

"Where righteousness dwells" - Rev 21:27; 22:14,15; Ps 15:1-5; 89:14; 118:19; Isa 11:4,5; 1 Cor 6:9,10. It will be the exact opposite of this world where true righteousness, God's righteousness, is 14 Therefore, dearly loved ones, since you look for such things, make every effort to be found by him in peace, without spot, and blameless. 15 And consider that the patience of our Lord is salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also according to the wisdom given to him has written to you, 16 as also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things. In them some things are hard to understand. Those who are ignorant and unstable twist these things, as they do also the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 Therefore, dearly loved ones, seeing that you know these things beforehand, be careful that you also are not led away by the error of the wicked, and fall from your own firm position. 18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

despised and persecuted.

3:14 Dan 12:10; 1 Cor 1:8; Eph 1:4; 4:3; 5:27; Phil 1:10; 2:15; 1 Thess 5:23; Heb 12:14. If we live as He has told us, we can look forward to His coming with joy and confidence.

3:15 "Patience" - v 9.

"Paul" - he wrote of God's patience in Rom 2:4; 3:25,26; 9:22,23; 10:21. Peter may be referring to that letter.

3:16 "Hard to understand" - there are difficult matters and difficult language in some of Paul's letters (for example, parts of Romans). Without much study and, above all, the enlightenment and wisdom God's Spirit gives, we shall not understand them.

"Ignorant" - this seems a better translation than "unlearned." It is not a lack of education that causes people to "twist" the Scriptures, but ignorance of God and ignorance of how God's Word should be studied and understood.

"Unstable" - 2:14; Jam 1:8 - not firm in the truth (Col 1:23; 4:12; 1 Thess 3:8; 2 Thess 2:15; 1 Pet 5:9,10).

"Twist" - or "distort" - Acts 20:30; 2 Cor 4:2; Gal 1:7; Jer 23:36. How the writings of Paul (and indeed, the whole Bible) have suffered at the hands of such people - many of them highly educated people.

"Other Scriptures" - observe that Peter places what Paul wrote to them on a par with the Scriptures (which Peter accepted as inspired by the Holy Spirit - 1:21,22).

"To their own destruction" - 2:1,3; 2 Thess 2:10. We must be extremely careful how we treat God's revelation. If we twist and pervert His teachings and do what we wish we cannot escape His condemnation.

3:17 "Be careful" - or "be on your guard" - Matt 10:17; 16:6; Mark 13:9,23,33; Acts 20:31; 1 Cor 16:13.

"Wicked" - or "lawless" - 2:7,8; 2 Thess 2:3,7-9; 1 John 3:4; Jude 4; 1 Cor 9:21; Jam 2:8.

"Fall" - 1:10; 1 Cor 10:12.

3:18 "Grow" - Eph 4:12-15; 1 Pet 2:2.

"Grace" - see in Titus 2:11-14 what grace teaches us and what we are to grow in. This is the grace of Christ, and growing in it will be growing more like Him.

"Knowledge" - Eph 1:17; 3:18,19; Phil 3:10; Col 1:9; 2:2. To know Christ better and to be more like Him - this must be the great aim of every believer.

"To him be glory" - Peter knows glory belongs to Christ. Only God is worthy of this glory. Isa 42:8; Rom 11:36; 16:27. Christ is worthy of it because He is the incarnation of God.

The First Letter of the Apostle JOHN

Author:

John one of the original apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Probably sometime between 85 and 95 AD.

Themes:

This letter is written to all those who, by God's grace, have received new spiritual birth in Christ. They are God's dearly loved children (2:1,12,13,18,28; 3:7; 4:4; 5:21). They are members of the family and household of God, and John writes that they should behave in a way worthy of this great truth. That is, they should live in fellowship with God and with each other (1:3-7), confess any sin they might be guilty of and obtain forgiveness (1:8 - 2:2), obey the commands of God the Father (2:3-7), and love one another (3:11-20). Three key words of this letter are "life" (1:1,2; 2:25; 3:15; 5:11,12,13,20), "light" (1:5,7; 2:8,9,10), and "love" (3:11-18; 4:7-12). Another key word is "know" (2:3,5; 4:6,7; 5:13,18), and an important theme is assurance – how we can know we have really been born into God's family.

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked on, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life 2 (for the life was revealed, and we have seen, and bear witness and declare to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was revealed to us), 3 that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And truly our

1:1 "Beginning" - Gen 1:1; John 1:1.

"We" - John speaks of all the original disciples of Christ. When Jesus was on earth they knew Him personally, heard what He taught and saw what He did. Compare 2 Pet 1:16; John 15:27; Acts 4:20.

"Handled" - see Luke 24:39; John 20:27. This was after Christ's resurrection.

"Word of life" - Christ Himself is the Word, God's fullest revelation to mankind. And He is eternal life (5:20; John 1:4; 5:26; 14:6), and He came to bring eternal life to people (John 10:10; 6:51). The words He spoke were also "life" (John 6:63). And His gospel produces spiritual life (Rom 5:21; 6:23).

1:2 "Was revealed" - eternal life appeared when Christ appeared (John 1:14; 2 Tim 1:10).

"Eternal life" - 5:11,12; John 3:16.

"With the Father" - John 1:2; 17:5. Christ was not the Father, but is with the Father in the one Godhead. See notes at John 17:1,5; 1 Cor 8:5,6; 2 John 3.

1:3 "We have seen" - this is the third time in three verses he says this. He is saying very emphatically that he and the other apostles did not pass along information gathered from others, or stories they had invented. They knew exactly what they were talking about because they personally had seen and heard Jesus.

"Fellowship" - Acts 2:42; 1 Cor 1:9; 2 Cor 13:14; Phil 3:10. The Greek word means sharing together. John had good reasons for proclaiming the truth of Christ. This is one. Others appears in v 4; 2:1; 12-14,21; 5:13.

"With the Father. . .with his Son" - John distinguishes between these two persons of the Godhead (notes on the Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; etc), but they are so united that to have fellowship with the one is to have fellowship with the other also. Other references on Christ's deity at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11. Fellowship with God means to know Him (John 17:3), to share in His joy, His peace, His thoughts, His work on earth. Only believers in Christ know God, and have fellowship with God. No one else has true enlightenment or spiritual life (5:11,12).

1:4 "Joy" - Luke 2:10; John 15:11; 16:22,24; 17:13; Rom 14:17; Gal 5:22. Joy is the result of truth received into the heart and practiced in the life. So John writes the truth to them which he had learned from Christ. Complete knowledge of the truth of Christ and complete obedience to it will fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we write these things to you, so that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message we have heard from him, and declare to you: God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we are lying and are not practicing the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus mean complete joy.

1:5 "God is light" - not physical light, of course, but spiritual light. In the New Testament darkness signifies sin and ignorance of spiritual things; light signifies holiness and truth - Matt 4:16; Luke 2:32; John 1:4,5; 3:19,20; 8:12; 11:10; 12:36,46; Acts 26:18; Rom 13:12; 2 Cor 4:4,6; Eph 5:8,9,13,14; 1 Tim 6:16.

"No darkness at all" - there is much evil in the world, but there is none whatever in God. He did not create it and He does not approve of it in any form. He is absolutely holy and gloriously pure (Lev 20:7; Isa 6:3).

1:6 "If we say" - it is impossible to have fellowship with holiness and truth while living in sin and error. Choosing sin is the same as rejecting God, and if we reject Him how can we share with Him in anything? See 2 Cor 6:14. The sad fact is that there are many who claim to know God who do not know Him, and they prove they do not know Him by their manner of life (Titus 1:16).

"Lying" - such people are either deceived or trying to deceive others. In either case their claim is utterly false.

"Not practicing the truth" - simply hearing the truth or studying the truth is not enough. We must put the truth into practice in our lives.

1:7 What does it mean to walk in the light? John shows what it means in the rest of this letter. It is the opposite of walking in the darkness of sin, ignorance and error. It means to renounce sin and all that is contrary to God's Word, and to put into practice what His Word tells us. It is to be open toward God, trying to hide nothing of what we are and do. If we would walk in the light we must first have the light. It is the work of God to bring us into it - 2 Cor 4:6; 1 Pet 2:9; Col 1:12,13. Being in the kingdom of light we are responsible to behave accordingly (2:6).

"Fellowship" - true Christian fellowship can exist only when believers are walking in the light. Sin and error will kill fellowship.

"The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanses us from all sin" - believers sometimes sin in thought, word, or deed (2:1; Jam 3:2; Gal 2:11-13; 5:17; Rom 7:18; 1 Kings 8:46; etc). If they walk in the light God will forgive their sins, cleanse them away, and blot them out as if they had never existed. He does this on the basis of the sacrifice of Christ on the cross (2:2). This process goes on continually (the Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his Word is not in us.

2 My little children, I write these things to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Greek verb is in the present continuous tense – “goes on cleansing”).

1:8 If Christ’s blood cleanses us from every sin, does this mean we are sinless? Not at all. Lest anyone should mistakenly think so John immediately makes the point clear. No human being on earth, no believer is sinless, not even the holiest. Paul, the great and holy apostle, spoke of sin living in him (Rom 7:17). See also Matt 7:11; Rom 7:14-25; Gal 5:16,17; 1 Tim 1:15; Jam 3:2. None of us in this life ever gets beyond the need of confessing sin and of the blood of Christ cleansing from sin (Matt 6:12).

If any of us think our nature is sinless “we deceive ourselves” – that is, we are leading ourselves astray. We are persuading ourselves that something is true which is not true, and we are responsible for doing this, and so guilty of doing wrong. Thinking we are sinless comes out of our own efforts to think so, not from God’s Word.

“The truth is not in us” – whatever other truth may be in us, the truth about sin and cleansing from sin is not in us, if we think our nature is sinless. In such case we are not facing the truth, but evading it, calling sin by a different name and excusing it. In this way falsity takes the place of truth in our hearts.

All believers should aim to be perfect, but none achieves it – Phil 3:12. As believers we should aim to live without ever sinning (2:1), but we do not achieve this either. If we do not sin knowingly, we do unknowingly, and sins done ignorantly are still sins and not something else (compare Lev 4:1,2). If we do not sin by what we deliberately do, we sin by not doing what we should do (see notes at Num 32:23 and Matt 25:42,43). Who of us can say we never fail to do what we should do?

1:9 “We” – John is writing to believers (2:1,12-14) and he includes himself in what he says. He knew the need of all believers to confess their sins – Matt 6:12; Luke 11:4.

“Confess” – the Greek word means to say the same thing as another person, to agree, to admit that an accusation is true, etc. Confessing sins means to say the same thing that God says about them. We must not call them by some other name such as mistakes or errors of judgment, etc. Anything in thought, word, or deed in any way contrary to God’s standard of perfect righteousness and holiness is sin. Also anything left undone that should be done is sin (Jam 4:17; Matt 25:41-46; 1 Sam 12:23; etc).

Committing sin makes us guilty and we need forgiveness. So we must agree with God, call our sins by their names, and ask God for forgiveness. Confessing our sins and walking in the light go hand in hand. God’s light exposes our sins (Eph 5:13,14), and as they are exposed we are to confess and forsake them. Of course our confession should be to God for He is the one who can forgive us.

“Faithful” – Ps 33:4; 111:7,8; 145:13; 146:6; 1 Cor 1:9; 2 Tim 2:13; Heb 10:23; 11:11; 1 Pet 4:19. God is always faithful to His Word, to His plan to save people, and to His own nature. He is a forgiving God – Ex 34:7; Num 14:18; Neh 9:17; Ps 86:5; 99:8; 103:3; Dan 9:9; Micah 7:18; Matt 6:12; 9:2; Rom 4:7,8; Heb 8:12; Jam 5:15. His Word (the Bible) shows that in order to forgive the sins of people He sent His own Son to die as a sacrifice for them – John 1:29; 3:14-16. So we may be sure that He will forgive us our sins if we repent and truly desire forgiveness and cleansing.

“Just” – Deut 32:4; Ps 9:16; 36:6; 89:14; 111:7. He will forgive our sins on the basis of justice. Christ has paid for our sins, endured the penalty for them. Therefore God can justly forgive them when we repent and confess them. See 2:2; Rom 3:25,26.

“Cleanse” – v 7. God forgives our sins, blots them out forever and cleanses our consciences from all unrighteousness (Heb 9:14).

1:10 Verse 8 speaks of the present; this verse speaks of the past. God says “all have sinned” (Rom 3:9-23). If we say we have not, we are saying that God’s Word is not true, that the God of the Bible is a liar. In such case, no part of the Bible has any real place in us.

2:1 “My little children” – he considered them his spiritual children. Compare 1 Tim 1:2.

“So that you will not sin” – this is the ideal, the goal to which we should press. And this word opens up a grand possibility for all believers. Though a sinful nature is in us (1:8), we can overcome it by the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit. We do not need to be overcome by temptation and knowingly sin. Compare 1 Cor 10:13; 2 Cor 7:1. Having a sinful nature does not mean believers in Christ have to sin, and it gives them no excuse if they do sin, for they also have a new nature created by God in righteousness and holiness (Eph 4:24), and God’s Spirit lives in them (1 Cor 6:19).

“We have an advocate” – see Rom 8:34; 1 Tim 2:5; Heb 7:25; Rom 5:9,10. Jesus is the heavenly advocate, the defense attorney, speaking to the Father on behalf of believers when they sin. Satan accuses us (Rev 12:10), Christ defends us. If a believer sins, is he destroyed? Does he lose Christ the righteous, 2 and he is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we know that we know him: If we keep his commandments. 4 He who says, "I know him, and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5 But whoever keeps his word, in him indeed the love of God is perfected. By this we know that we are in him.

6 He who says he remains in him ought to walk just as he walked.

7 Brethren, I am not writing any new command his salvation? Is there no hope? That is not the teaching of the Bible - 1:9.

How can they be destroyed and lose their salvation when they have such an Advocate and Defender? This is an Advocate who can defend us with perfect justice, who loves us with infinite love, who is determined to have us released from the penalty of every sin, to rescue us from God's anger against all sin. Can we doubt that He will be successful?

"Righteous" - Acts 3:14; 7:52; 22:14. He will not do anything in His dealings with us, or in His work as Advocate, Mediator and Defender, that is in any way contrary to perfect justice and righteousness. He can righteously defend believers when they sin because He has taken away their sins by the sacrifice of Himself.

2:2 "Propitiation" - Christ is the one who turns aside God's anger, by taking away sins. This is the meaning of the word as used in the Bible. See Rom 3:25; Heb 2:17. Compare Matt 26:28; John 3:14,15; 1 Cor 15:3; 2 Cor 5:19,21; Gal 1:4; Eph 1:7; Heb 9:12,28; 1 Pet 2:24; 3:18.

"Sins of the whole world" - 4:14; John 1:29; 2 Cor 5:14; 1 Tim 2:6; Heb 2:9. Men are not lost because Christ has not died as a sacrifice for them. They are lost because they do not accept this sacrifice and do not believe in Him. They choose darkness rather than light, sin rather than holiness. This is their condemnation.

2:3-6 "We know" - v 5; 3:14,19,24; 4:13; 5:13. Here John is not speaking of knowing about God, but of knowing Him personally. The Word "know" is a key word in this letter. It appears 33 times (more than in any other letter of the New Testament). In this verse John speaks of knowledge based on evidence. People can think they know God when they do not. They can be deceived by some emotional or mystical experience. There are powerfully deceptive forces in the world which lead people astray - Jer 17:9; Heb 3:13; Rev 12:9.

John insists that we should not think we know God unless there is proof of this knowledge in the way we live. The true knowledge of God has a profound effect on people (John 17:3). It changes their hearts, their thinking, their behavior. If there is no change, we may be sure there is no true knowledge of God. There are those who claim to have enlightenment, to know the to you, but an old command, which you have had from the beginning. The old command is the word which you have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, I am writing a new command to you, a thing that is true in him and in you, because the darkness is past, and the true light is now shining. 9 He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness even until now. 10 He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no cause of stumbling in him. 11 But he who hates his brother is in darkness and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because ultimate truth about God and to be perfectly one with Him. But do they keep the commandments of Jesus Christ? If not, their wisdom and experience is deceptive and useless.

What is the proof that we know God?

Obedience (v 3)

God's love in the heart (v 5)

A life that follows the pattern Jesus gave us (v 6).

"Keep his commandments" - 3:24; 5:3; Matt 28:20; John 14:15,23; Acts 4:19; 5:29; Rom 6:16; 16:26; Heb 5:9. True believers receive Jesus as Lord as well as Saviour (note at Acts 22:10).

"Liar" - v 8; 4:20; John 8:44.

"Love" - 4:7,8 - another key word in this letter. It appears 35 times (more than in any other book of the New Testament). The real proof of love toward God is obedience to Him. All else is mere sentiment and deception (John 14:15). Truth planted in the heart results in love and in obedience.

"In Him" - see John 17:21-23; Rom 6:3-8; 1 Cor 12:13; Eph 1:1,3.

"Walk just as he walked" - see 1 Pet 2:21; compare Eph 5:1; 1 Thess 1:6.

2:7 "Have heard" - 1:1-3. The message is who Christ is, what He is, and what He wants us to be and do. See 3:23. John was not writing some strange new thing which he had invented (compare 2 Pet 1:16).

2:8 "New" - like the old command but emphasized anew and put in a new way.

"Now shining" - before Christ came into the world there was great spiritual darkness everywhere (Isa 60:2). He came as a light (John 8:12), sent forth His disciples as lights (Matt 5:14), and gives light to people through His gospel. This light began to shine in Israel but in John's day soon began to spread throughout the Roman empire. Now it shines in every country of the world.

2:9-11 Love is the test of whether we are in light or in darkness. People may think or say all sorts of things about being in the light and being enlightened, and they can deceive themselves and others. But we can know what they are by their behavior. Love and light go together; hate and darkness go together.

"Brother" - probably means here another Christian, but John is not suggesting that it is all right for Christians to hate those who are not Christians. See Matt 5:44; etc. If that darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning.

I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one.

I am writing to you, little children, because you have known the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.

there is God's love in our hearts we will love everyone, though we will have a special love for fellow believers.

"No cause of stumbling" (v 10) – this probably means that there is nothing in him to make others stumble. God's love in our hearts will make us the sort of people who will not give others reason to stumble spiritually. Lack of love among Christians is a significant stumblingblock to many people. On stumbling see Rom 14:13; 1 Cor 8:9; 10:32; 2 Cor 6:3.

"Where he is going" – John 12:35; Prov 4:19.

"Blinded" – compare 2 Cor 4:4.

2:12 "Are forgiven" – 1:7,9.

"His name's sake" – we are forgiven because of who Christ is and because of what He has done for us, and because we have believed and accepted God's revelation about Him, and because He wants us to be forgiven.

2:13 "Known" – v 3; John 17:3; 2 Cor 4:6; Matt 11:27.

"Who is from the beginning" – 1:1 – he is referring to Christ.

"Overcome" – see 4:4; 5:4; Rev 2:7; 12:11; 21:7. The wicked one is Satan. People "overcome" him when they repent, trust in Christ and begin to live a true Christian life.

"The Father" – v 1; Matt 5:16 (note).

2:14 "Strong" – they had the physical strength of youth and, far more importantly, the spiritual strength God gave them to overcome Satan.

"Word of God remains in you" – vs 24,27; John 15:7; Ps 119:11; Col 3:16.

2:15 John now appeals to all and gives a command to all.

"World" – 3:1,13; 4:5; 5:19. This is another key word in this letter, appearing 20 times. It means the system that has been developed by sinful men apart from God; the society, the aims, the thoughts, the religions, the ways of living that come out of man's fallen nature. According to God's Word the world does not know God (John 14:17; 15:21). It does not know what believers are (1 John 3:1). It hates Christ and believers (3:13; John 15:18,24). And it is controlled by Satan (5:19; Eph 2:1,2). God has chosen believers out of the world to be His own special people (John 15:19;

15 Do not love the world, or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world – the desire of the flesh and the desire of the eyes and the pride of life – is not of the Father, but is of the world. 17 And the world passes away, and its desires also; but whoever does the will of God continues on forever.

18 Little children, it is the last hour, and just as you have heard that antichrist will come, even now there are many antichrists. By this we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but none of them were of us. For if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us.

17:6,14,16). All of this is reason enough for them not to love the world.

"If. . .the love of the Father is not in him" – this "world" is utterly opposed to all that the one true God is and desires, therefore to love it is to show a complete lack of love for Him. What shall we say, then, of those Christians who run after the world and imitate the world and long for the things of the world? They do not know God or love God. 2:16 "All" – there is no exception. There is nothing in this fallen world worthy of a believer's love. Desires that come from man's fallen nature, desires that come because of what man sees, pride and exalting self – these are the only things in the world – compare Gen 8:21; Matt 15:19; Rom 1:28-32. And so we must not be conformed to it – Rom 12:2.

"Flesh" – see the note at Rom 7:5.

2:17 "Passes away" – God will judge the world, punish it, and put it away forever (Acts 17:31; Isa 24:1-13; 2 Pet 3:10-13).

"Does the will of God" – Matt 7:21. Notice again John's emphasis on doing, not merely believing, though he well knew that we are saved by grace through faith. Compare James 2:14-26. True faith produces a great change in one's life which results in a mind to obey God. See note at Acts 22:10. God's will is for us to believe in Christ, receive Him as Lord and Savior, obey the gospel and follow Him. They are the ones who will live forever with God. All others will have to experience "the second death" (Rev 20:14,15).

2:18 "Last hour" – compare Acts 2:17; Rom 13:11,12; Jam 5:3; 1 Pet 1:20; Rev 1:3. This last hour is still going on. Perhaps we are in the last minutes of this last hour. Compare 2 Pet 3:8.

"Antichrist" – v 22; 4:3; 2 John 7; 2 Thess 2:3,4. The antichrist will come opposing Christ, but possibly claiming to be Christ. He will certainly claim to be God.

"Many" – compare Matt 24:4,5; 2 Cor 11:13-15.

2:19 "Out from us" – Acts 20:30. These antichrists claimed to be followers of Christ.

"None. . .of us" – that is, they were not real believers, not born again, not of God's spiritual family. Their going out proves they did not belong. God's chosen ones remain in the faith (Heb 10:39; John 6:67,68; etc).

But they went out, so that it might be made evident that all of them were not of us.

20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He who denies the Father and the Son is antichrist. 23 Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father, but he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

24 Therefore let that remain in you which you have heard from the beginning. If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will continue in the Son and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he has promised us, eternal life.

2:20 "Anointing" – compare 2 Cor 1:21,22. This anointing is the gift of God's Spirit (3:24). It sets believers apart to be God's servants. Christ means "The Anointed One" (Matt 1:1). Believers have an anointing from Him and so are able to recognize antichrists when they appear. They will be able to discern from their teaching and behavior that they are not Christ's servants. "The Holy One" – Mark 1:24; Acts 2:27; 3:14.

"You know all things" – John certainly did not mean that those believers knew everything that can be known about all subjects. He understood very well that only God knows like that. But those to whom he was writing had God's Spirit and had been well taught in the truth of God. They knew all the things he was writing to them were true. Now we who have the Bible and God's Spirit are also at the source of all true spiritual knowledge. 2:21 Verse 13 – anything that deviates from the truth God has revealed in the Bible is false and dangerous.

2:22 The man who says Jesus is not the anointed Messiah, the Son of God, is a liar, and the worst of all possible liars. Some people do this. They deny that Jesus combines in Himself both God's nature and man's nature, that Jesus is the eternal Son of God become man. Such people by denying the Son are denying God the Father who sent Him. Compare John 5:23. See references to Christ's deity at Phil 2:6 and Luke 2:11.

2:23 Whatever people may think, no one has God who does not believe and receive the Son of God Jesus Christ. It is absurd to think that we can have God and reject His Son. But those who believe in Jesus have God the Father as their Father.

2:24 "Heard" – 1:1; 2:7.

"If" – Heb 3:6,14; Col 1:23; 1 Cor 15:2. "Remains" – John 15:4,5,7,9,10.

2:25 "Promised us, eternal life" – 5:11; Titus 1:2; John 3:16; 6:47.

2:26 "Astray" – 3:7; Matt 24:4,14; 2 Cor 11:3; Rev 12:9. This is the kind of world we live in – if we believe in the Lord Jesus, Satan and his angels do their best to deceive

26 I have written these things to you concerning those who would lead you astray. 27 But the anointing which you have received from him remains in you, and you do not need any man to teach you; but as that same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it has taught you, you will remain in him.

28 And now, little children, remain in him so that when he appears, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of him.

3 See what kind of love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called the sons of us and turn us away from the true faith.

2:27 "Remains" – the Holy Spirit does not forsake believers (John 14:16; Eph 1:13,14). "To teach you" – they had already been taught the truth concerning antichrist and false teachers – that is the context here. And God's Spirit was in them to enable them to understand what they had learned. They did not need even the apostles to teach them any new truths, and they certainly did not need false teachers who claimed to have new truth and did not.

John is not denying the need of teachers in the churches. God Himself appoints them (Eph 4:11; 1 Cor 12:28), and John himself was one of them. The believers John was writing to had been taught and knew the truth, but many today have not been taught and do not know the truth. And none of us, no matter how much we think we know, should arrogantly think we cannot learn from godly teachers of God's truth.

"Anointing teaches you" – through God's Spirit we learn spiritual truths which cannot be learned by any other means (1 Cor 2:10-14). Compare Isa 54:13; Ps 25:4,5. The divine Teacher actually lives in believers – Rom 8:9,15,16.

2:28 "Remain in him" – v 24.

"Appears" – 3:2; Matt 24:30; Col 3:4; 1 Tim 6:14; Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28.

"Not be ashamed" – the only way to be without shame before Him is to live in a way pleasing to Him. And this can be done only by continuing in Him – John 15:4,5.

2:29 "Righteous" – what a person is will be revealed by what he does (Matt 7:15-20). Notes on doing right at Matt 7:21; Rom 6:16-18; 8:4; etc. In fact, we might say what a person does is what he is.

"Born of Him" – John 3:3-8; Jam 1:18; 1 Pet 1:23.

3:1 "What kind of love" – 4:8-10; John 3:16; Rom 5:8; Eph 1:4; 2:4. We are worthy of nothing but hell. It was because of His great love that God took such sinners as we are and transformed them into His children.

"The Father" – note at Matt 5:16.

God. Therefore the world does not know us, because it did not know him. 2 Dearly loved ones, we are now the sons of God, and it does not yet appear what we will be, but we know that when he appears, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. 3 And everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as he is pure.

4 Whoever commits sin also breaks the Law, for sin is the breaking of the Law. 5 And you know that he was revealed to take away our sins, and in "Sons of God" - John 1:12,13; Rom 8:16,17; Phil 2:15; Heb 2:13; 1 Pet 1:14. Not everyone is a child of God - only those who have received the Lord Jesus and been born again by God's Spirit.

"Does not know us. . . know Him" - John 15:21; 16:3. Because believers are new people, born again, and "in Christ" the world does not know them any better than it knows Christ. They are not of the world just as Christ is not of the world (John 17:14,16). The world cannot understand their nature, their motives, their faith or anything that God has put in their hearts.

3:2 "What we will be" - God has not given a full revelation of what it will mean in eternity to be God's children.

"When he appears" - 2:28.

"We will be like Him" - see Rom 8:29. This is the highest conceivable goal for any human being. When believers see Him they will be changed into His likeness forever (1 Cor 15:48-54).

"We will see him as he is" - Matt 5:8; 1 Cor 13:12; Rev 22:4.

3:3 Those who hope to become like Christ when He comes will want to be like Him now. The process of becoming like Him has already begun (2 Cor 3:18; Col 3:9,10), and real believers will cooperate with God in this work of purification. Compare Heb 12:14.

"Purifies" - 1:7,9; 2 Cor 7:1. We can only purify ourselves by walking in the light.

3:4 Sin is setting up one's own will against God and against God's revelation of right and wrong. It is to act as if there were no law of God, no principle of righteousness in the universe. It is to be taken up fully with one's own selfish desires.

3:5 "To take away our sins" - John 1:29; Rom 11:27; Heb 9:28; 10:11-14,17.

"In him is no sin" - Heb 4:15; 7:26. This can be said only of the Lord Jesus Christ. John has already pointed out that believers must not say it of themselves - 1:8.

3:6 Everyone is either in sin or in Christ. Those in sin practice sin as a way of life. Those in Christ cannot do this. They have been born again (2:29). They are the children of the righteous God and therefore have a righteous nature (3:1). God's Spirit lives in them (4:13). It is impossible for them to continue as they were before (Eph 2:1-3). Believers sometimes fall into sin (1:7; 2:1; 5:16; etc), but they do not, cannot knowingly continue to sin as a way of life (Prov 24:16). If they sin, their new him is no sin. 6 Whoever remains in him does not go on sinning. Whoever goes on sinning has not seen him, and has not known him.

7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. 8 He who commits sin is of the devil. For the devil has been sinning from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was revealed, that he might destroy the works of the devil. 9 Whoever is born of God does not go on sinning, for his seed nature revolts against sin and causes them to reject it and strive to get out of it. And Christ is praying that they will get out of it. And the Holy Spirit in them (Luke 22:31,32; John 17:17; Heb 7:25) convicts them and urges them to get out of it.

If people who profess to be Christians remain in sin and practice it as a way of life, this shows they were not Christ's sheep, not born of God. Compare 2 Pet 2:22. The children of God are totally different from the children of the devil and this will be seen in their behavior.

"Does not go on sinning" - the Greek word is in the present tense and may be translated like this, and this certainly states the truth accurately. Or it could be translated "continue to sin" or perhaps "practice sinning." The translation "does not sin" may suggest that a believer never, ever sins. But John (just as other apostles) has already shown that this is not true - 1:9; 2:1.

3:7,8 "Let no one deceive you" - 2:26; 1 Cor 6:9; Gal 6:7; Eph 5:6. There are only two ways of life open to people - the way of sin and the way of righteousness. Every one is either in the one way or in the other (compare Matt 7:13,14; Rom 2:6-10). This does not mean that a righteous person never sins (1:7,9; 2:1; Jam 3:2; etc), or that a sinner never does a righteous act. John is speaking of the whole course of a person's life. In the life of a righteous person doing right will predominate. In the life of a sinner doing wrong will predominate.

"Righteous" - 2:29.

"Devil" - Matt 4:1; Eph 2:2. Every person is either of God or of Satan (v 10). See John 8:44. If God does not rule our lives, the devil will.

"Beginning" - Satan was the original sinner.

"Destroy the works of the devil" - the devil's work is sin and death. Christ came to destroy these in His people. By dying for their sins and rising again He laid the foundation for this destruction, and for the destruction of the devil too.

3:9 "Born of God" - John 3:3-7.

"Does not go on practicing sin" - v 6.

"His seed" - God's seed, spiritual seed that gives spiritual life (1 Cor 9:11). This seed is the Word of God (Jam 1:18; 1 Pet 1:23; Matt 13:3,23; Luke 8:15). It is sown in the hearts of people; it germinates and produces a new nature.

"Remains in him" - believers need not remains in him and he cannot go on sinning, because he is born of God. 10 In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, neither is he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, 12 and not be like Cain, who was of that wicked one, and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous.

13 Do not be surprised, my brethren, if the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren.

fear that God's seed in them will die or be taken away by Satan. It will remain, and God will continue the work He has begun (Phil 1:6; 2:13).

"Cannot go on sinning" – continuance in sin is altogether contrary to the believer's new nature received from God. This new nature cannot sin at all (Eph 4:24), and will join with God's Spirit in the fight against sin and the sinful nature in believers (Gal 5:17,18,24).

3:10 John is saying every person is either a child of God or a child of Satan (John 8:44; Matt 13:38), and we can tell what an individual is by what he does or does not do (Matt 7:15-20).

"Practice righteousness" – doing what is right is doing what the Bible teaches, not what people may think is right (compare John 16:2). Those who do not do right are doing wrong, through they may not always realize this. And if they do not practice doing right they are Satan's children, not God's.

"Love his brother" – this is one of the right things Jesus commanded. "Brother" has a broad meaning – including a fellow believer and brother by blood (as in v 12). 3:11 John 13:34; 15:12,17.

3:12 "Cain" – Gen 4:1-8; Heb 11:4; Jude 11. Cain belonged to the "the wicked one", Satan (v 10). Abel was a child of God who did what God told him (Heb 11:4).

3:13 John 15:18-21. Cain is one example of the people of the world hating the people of God.

3:14 "Passed from death to life" – see John 5:24. What is the great evidence seen in those who have experienced this? Love of fellow believers. Compare v 19; 2:3.

"Death" – spiritual death (Eph 2:1). Having a heart that does not love is the great evidence of this. God who is love lives in the hearts of all believers, and He causes them to love.

3:15 Hate is like murder because if it could it would destroy the person it hates. God looks at the state of the heart as well as the acts of a person. Compare Matt 5:27-30.

"Murderer" – a murderer could receive eternal life if he repented and trusted Christ. Then he would stop being a hater, and the murder he had committed would be forgiven.

He who does not love his brother remains in death. 15 Whoever goes on hating his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life dwelling in him.

16 By this we know the love of God: because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But whoever has this world's good things, and sees his brother in need and shuts up his heart toward him, how can the love of God be in him? 18 My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. 19 And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 20 For if our heart condemns us, God is greater

3:16 "By this we know" – John shows what love is by pointing us to one who is love incarnate, and speaking of what love caused Him to do. See Rom 5:8; Gal 2:20; John 3:16; 10:11,15. Believers should be willing even to die for fellow believers. This is the standard of love God shows and teaches us. How sad it is that many who think of themselves as good Christian people will hardly lift a finger to help another Christian. How sad, and also how dangerous, as the next verses show.

3:17,18 Compare Jam 2:14-17. Without deeds faith is dead. We can say the same about love. Love that does not practice good deeds is not love at all. So-called love that does not help others is a false, deceptive and useless thing. When Christ comes to judge the nations the basis of His judgment will be what people have and have not done, not the fine words they may have uttered, or the fine emotions they may think they have felt. See Matt 25:31-46 (vs 41-46 are especially meaningful in the light of John's words here). Of course those who have real love do not help others with a view of getting some benefit for themselves (such help is only disguised selfishness). They help those in need simply because they need help. Note and references on giving at 2 Cor 9:15.

3:19 Verse 14. If we know we love fellow believers because we have proved our love in helping them, this gives us knowledge that we are rightly related to God's truth. And we have rest in God's presence. Perhaps one reason some Christians lack assurance of salvation lies in this: They have not proved their love in action, in kind and helpful deeds.

3:20 "Condemns us" – sometimes the hearts of believers condemn them. This may be because they have sinned (1:9; 2:1); or perhaps because they are reminded how little their love is, how scarce the fruit of the Spirit in their lives, or how they have failed to do what they should have done. But if we love and have shown our love in action we can have rest in God's presence.

"God. . . knows" – He is the great one and knows all about our weakness, failures, and sinfulness, and still receives us as His than our heart, and knows all things.

21 Dearly loved ones, if our heart does not condemn us, then we have confidence toward God. 22 And whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commands, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his command, that we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he commanded us. 24 And he who keeps his commands remains in him, and he in him. And by this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he has given to us.

4 Dearly loved ones, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into dear children, and leads us on to higher things. Compare Ps 103:8-14.

3:21 "If our heart does not condemn us" – when we are full of love and good works, and victorious over sin, our hearts and consciences will not accuse us.

"Confidence" – this is not the confidence of self-righteousness but the confidence that God is in us and working in us.

3:22 John 14:13-15; 15:7.

"Those things. . .pleasing in his sight" – we have no right to expect God to answer our prayers if we will not obey Him or try to please Him. He will not reward our disobedience and self-centeredness by giving us the blessings of answered prayer. The things which please God are things produced by faith and love, the acts of faith through love (Gal 5:6; Heb 11:6).

3:23 "Name" – John 1:12.

3:24 John 14:20-23; 17:21-23.

"Know" – vs 14,19; 2:5; 4:13.

"By the Spirit" – the Holy Spirit (John 14:16,17). The Spirit gives believers the knowledge that they are the children of God – Rom 8:15,16.

"Has given us" – 1 Cor 6:19; Gal 4:6; Eph 1:13,14.

4:1-6 In these verses John gives two tests which enable us to know whether people are following God's truth or not. Verses 2,3 gives the first one, v 6 the second.

4:1 "Do not believe every spirit" – God's Spirit is in the world, but so are evil spirits. These evil spirits influence men to teach false doctrines, and may also speak through them. See 2 Cor 11:14,15; 1 Tim 4:1-3. So we must not believe every person who claims to teach the truth, or every spirit which speaks through men.

"False prophets" – 2:18; 2 Pet 2:1. Observe the word "many."

4:2,3 See 2:22.

"Flesh" – John 1:14; Heb 2:14. To deny this is to deny the incarnation, the virgin birth, the union of God's nature and human nature in Christ – all clear Bible truths.

"Does not confess" – they do not openly say that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. They do not preach the truth expressed in the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. This is that spirit of antichrist, about which you have heard that it would come. And even now it is already in the world.

4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world, so they speak of the world, and the world listens to them. 6 We are of God. He who knows God listens to us, but he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Dearly loved ones, let us love one another;

John 1:14. They may not openly deny it either. But by their failure to acknowledge it they show they do not believe it. Deceivers and false teachers can be recognized by what they do not say as well as by what they do say.

"Already in the world"– compare 2 Thess 2:7.

4:4 "Have overcome them" – 2:13; 5:4. Believers are God's chosen ones; their new spiritual life has come from God. They are able to discern false teachers and reject their teachings.

"He who is in you" – the Spirit of Christ (3:24; Rom 8:9,10).

"He who is in the world" – Satan. God's Spirit is far greater than this evil spirit. Therefore believers can overcome Satan (Jam 4:7; Eph 6:10-13).

4:5 "They" – false teachers.

"World"–2:15,16. False prophets teach what unsaved, unspiritual people want to hear, so they are accepted (2 Tim 4:3).

4:6 Here is a very important test.

"We"–John means true teachers of God's Word, those whom God has sent. Real believers (those who know God) listen to them, recognize them as men of God and obey their teaching (compare Acts 2:42). Believers recognize teachers of God's truth, and the teachers recognize God's children. The test and proof have to do with God's revelation of the truth. Those who will not receive the teaching of Christ's gospel as recorded in the Bible are not of God, no matter what they may think.

4:7-21 These verses reveal what love is. The words love, loves, and loved, noun and verb, appear 24 times in these verses. John's point is this: God is love and has proved His love toward us in action, therefore we must love and prove our love toward others in action (3:18).

4:7,8 "Let us love" – John 13:34. Real love has its source in God, and because believers are born of God they should be like God in loving. The love he speaks of here is divine love (agape; see note at 1 Cor:13:1). It is the love God has and which He imparts to those who believe in Christ (John 17:26).

for love is of God, and everyone who loves is born of God, and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. 9 In this the love of God was revealed toward us: God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. 10 Love is seen in this: Not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Dearly loved ones, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. 12 No man has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwells in us, and his love is made perfect in us.

13 By this we know that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father sent the

No one else in the world has it. This love is not at all the same as the natural affection the people of the world may feel for friends, and families. It has nothing to do with sexual love. It is unselfish love, love that wants to serve and bring blessings to others, love that seeks the spiritual good of others. It is best seen in God's sending His Son to die for us (v 9; Rom 5:8). The surest evidence that people have been born again and know God is that they have God's love in their hearts. If people have it, it will appear in what they do.

"He who does not love does not know God" – people may pride themselves on their enlightenment and knowledge of God, but if they do not have God's love, they are deceiving themselves. They may have all sorts of mystical experiences and self-satisfying emotions, but if these do not cause them to love believers in Christ those things are false and useless and deceptive.

"God is love" – also v 16. This is God's essence, His nature. He cannot but love.

4:9,10 John 3:16; Rom 5:8; Eph 2:4,5. God is the source of divine love, not man. We would never know what divine love is if God did not show us. We would never love Him if He had not loved us and given His love in our hearts (v 19).

"Propitiation" – see the note on 2:2.

4:11 Believers ought to love one another because of what God is and what they are.

4:12 "No man has seen God" – John 1:18; 1Tim 6:16.

"God dwells in us" – John 14:23; Rom 8:9. This is true only of believers in Christ (Eph 2:12; 4:18). And the proof that it is true of them is the fact that they have love for each other. If God is in us, love is in us, and if God's love (agape) is in us, God is in us.

"Love. . .made perfect" – it is through the love of God's people for one another that God's love is fulfilled on earth.

4:13 See 3:24; John 17:21-23.

4:14 See 1:1,2.

"Saviour of the world"–2:2; John 4:42; 1 Tim 4:10.

4:15 "Confesses" – see 1:9 where the same word appears. Confessing Jesus is God's Son means that we believe Him and what Son to be the Saviour of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwells in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him.

17 Our love is made perfect in this: That we can have boldness in the day of judgment, because in this world we are just as he is. 18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear is linked with torment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. 19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For he who does not love his

He said, and we say so. We know He is the Son of God only because He revealed it to us. And this faith brings us to God and joins our life with His.

"The Son of God" – not a son of God. Notes at Matt 3:17; John 3:16; 5:18-23.

4:16 We know God's love not merely because He says He loves us, but because He proved His love in the most wonderful way possible (v 9; 3:16). Since God has given us absolutely convincing proof of His love we must never doubt that He loves us. No matter what difficulties, troubles or suffering come to us, or to those we love, we can count on God's love. It will never fail, never leave us (Ps 23:6; Rom 8:35-39; 1 Cor 13:8).

4:17 "Perfect" – v 12.

"Boldness" – 3:19,21; 2:28.

"Day of judgment" – Matt 10:15; 11:22,24; 2 Cor 5:10; 2 Pet 2:9; 3:7.

"We are just as he is" – as Christ is – John 17:14. God will judge believers as His children, as those who have His life and His love in them.

4:18 Do thoughts of the day of judgment bring fear to our hearts? Then we are not loving as we should.

"Perfect love" – this means love that is complete and fully developed. We see it in the life of Christ and we should know this love and have it in our lives (compare Eph 3:16-19). When we have it we will not fear even the judgment of God. See 2 Cor 5:6-9; Phil 1:21,23; 2 Tim 4:7,8.

"Drives out fear" – John is not speaking of the fear of God, that reverential respect and awe which is very important to the spiritual life of believers (notes at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 86:11; 111:10; Prov 1:7). John here means fear of punishment, fear of meeting God face to face in judgment.

4:19 Verse 10. God has shown us what real love is, and through His love has made us His children and put His love in us. Compare Rom 5:5.

4:20 See 2:9; 3:14,15. People may imagine they can love God without loving other people, but this is quite impossible. If we love God it is only because God has put this love in us, and this divine love in us brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? 21 And we have this command from him: He who loves God must love his brother also.

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves him who did the begetting loves him also who is begotten by him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commands. 3 For this is love for God, that we keep his commands. And his commands are not grievous.

4 For whoever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that overcomes the will cause us to love people just as surely as we love God. Real love for God and for people cannot be separated.

4:21 What is a spiritual necessity, God commands us to put in practice. He is speaking of love shown in action (3:16-18).

5:1 "Jesus is the Christ" - 2:22; 3:23; 4:2. To believe Jesus is the Christ is to accept God's revelation about Jesus and to trust that truth. A real belief that Jesus is the Christ is a gift of God (Phil 1:29; Eph 2:8,9). It has a profound effect on anyone who has it (compare Acts 2:36-42). Of course, merely to say we believe that Jesus is the Christ without really believing it will have no good effect whatever.

"Born of God" - 2:29; John 1:12,13.

"Loves him also who" - if we love God we will love all those who are born of God (4:20).

5:2 "Know" - can we not know we love God's people because we have good feelings toward them and want to help them? This is not proof of love if we do not show our love to God by obedience to His Word. Love and obedience go together. If we know we love God because we heartily obey His commands, we can be sure we love God's children.

5:3 John 17:15,21,23.

"Grievous" - or "burdensome" - a principal meaning of the Greek word. Compare Matt 11:29,30.

5:4 God's commands are not burdensome to believers because they have a new nature which loves God, and God Himself lives in them (4:12).

"Whoever" - everyone without exception.

"Overcomes the world" - compare 2:13,14; 4:4. Believers began to overcome the world by leaving the ways and sins of the world and coming by faith to Christ. The moment they did this they had overcome the world, and they continue to overcome it by continuing to believe in Christ. God has called them out of the world and separated them to be His special people (John 17:6,14,16). Faith is victory over the world because it binds us to Christ who is the great Victor over the world (John 16:33).

5:5 See 4:15.

"But the one who believes" - people may try to overcome the world by ascetic world: our faith. 5 Who is the one who overcomes the world, but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three who testify in heaven: The Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one.

8 And there are three that testify on earth: The Spirit, and the water, and the blood, and these three agree as one.

9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the practices or by withdrawing from the world. This is not overcoming the world but running from it. This will not work. Those who try this method take the world along with them in their hearts, and what they are doing is actually a part of the world they hope to overcome. Note on overcoming at Rev 2:7.

5:6 Matt 3:13-17; 26:28; John 19:34. In the Bible water is sometimes a symbol of spiritual life and God's Spirit (John 4:10,14; 7:38,39). Blood speaks of sacrifice for sin, the basis of forgiveness and cleansing (1:7; Eph 1:7). Christ was born of God's Spirit, anointed by the Spirit, was full of spiritual life, and became the source of spiritual life to others. And He finished His earthly life by laying it down as a sacrifice for our sins.

"Spirit who testifies" - John 15:26; 16:13-15. God's Spirit continues to do this everywhere throughout this age.

"The Spirit is truth" - John 14:6,17; Ps 31:5; Titus 1:2.

5:7,8 A part of these verses - "in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one. And there are three that testify on earth" are missing from all the earliest Greek manuscripts now available, but are found in a famous Latin translation of the Greek. Erasmus, a Greek scholar of the 16th century, included them in the Greek text he published and so they came into the King James Version of the Bible. It is not impossible that they were in the original Greek manuscript, unlikely as nearly all authorities on the subject think this is. However that might be, the truth these words teach is seen everywhere in the New Testament. See notes at Matt 3:16,17; etc.

5:8 The facts of the life and death of Christ are written down and are like witnesses. God's Spirit speaks to us of them also. All three are in perfect agreement. The inner witness says the same thing as the outer. The believer's experience and the Bible agree.

5:9 "The testimony of men" - compare John 8:17. We believe many things because men say them. Should we not then believe a far greater testimony, that of God Himself? The water, the blood and the Spirit (vs 6,8) are God's witness to Christ. Two of them are testimony of God which he has given concerning his Son. 10 He who believes on the Son of God has this testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he does not believe the record that God gave about his Son. 11 And this is the record: God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

13 I have written these things to you who believe on the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may believe on the name of the Son of recorded in the Gospels; God's Spirit testifies both in the words of the Bible (which He inspired) and to our minds and hearts.

"The testimony of God" - compare John 5:36,37; 8:18. We have this testimony in the New Testament. Indeed, we can say that the whole Bible is God's testimony to Christ.

5:10 When we trust in Christ we obtain an inner conviction that the written record about Him is true. This is produced by God's Spirit.

"Liar" - 1:10. Not to believe what God says is a grave insult and dishonor to Him.

5:11 "Eternal life" - John 3:16,36; 6:47; 17:2.

"In His Son" - v 20; 1:2; John 11:25,26; 14:6; Col 3:4.

5:12 Eternal life, spiritual life is obtainable only in one person - Jesus the Son of God. If we do not have Him in us we are spiritually dead (Eph 4:18). And we will not be able to obtain spiritual life from God in some other way (John 3:36). How can we expect to receive it if we reject the one and only source of it?

"Has"-believers have eternal life as a present possession (John 3:36; 5:24).

5:13 God does not want believers in Christ to be doubtful about their salvation. They have eternal life, and they should know that they have it. This is one reason why God inspired John to write this letter. How can believers be sure they are saved? What is the evidence, what are the signs John points to? Assurance of salvation comes from the following:

By believing the testimony of God in His Word (v 9,11)

By the inner testimony of God's Spirit (v 10; 3:24)

By relying on the promise of the forgiveness of sins (1:7-9)

By the evidence of obedience to God (2:5; 5:2)

By the evidence of right living (2:29; 3:6,10)

By the evidence of the fruit of love in our lives (3:14,18,19; 4:12).

John also gives us statements of truth which assure believers (4:15; 5:1). Full assurance of salvation is based on three things -

The written Word of God

God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him: If we ask any thing according to his will, he hears us. 15 And if we know that he hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have made to him.

16 If any man sees his brother commit a sin which is not to death, he should pray, and he will give him life for those whose sin is not to death. There is a sin leading to death. I do not say that he should pray concerning it. 17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin that is not to death.

18 We know that whoever is born of God does

The inner experience of believers

The outer evidence of the way they live and love.

5:14,15 Because believers have eternal life they can have confidence in coming into God's presence (compare Rom 5:2; Eph 2:18; 3:12; Heb 4:16; 10:19-22). Our confidence is this: God will answer all prayers if they are according to His will, and He will give us what we ask for. Asking God according to our own will is a different matter. We should not expect Him to answer such prayers. Matt 6:10 gives what should always be the chief concern of every believer. But how do we know what God's will is? The whole Bible reveals it. If we are ignorant of the Bible we will not know God's will. But if we study it we can see what He wants to give us in answer to our believing prayer (compare Jam 1:6,7).

5:16 Praying for others who sin is a duty of believers. Compare Jam 5:16.

"Sin which is not to death" - why does some sin not lead to death? Because God can forgive it, and will forgive it when confessed (1:9). What is the sin that is "to death"? Since John did not explain it we should not speak too dogmatically about it. The probable meaning seems to be this: a sin which God will not forgive. See Matt 12:31,32; Heb 2:3; 6:4-6; 10:26-31; 12:25. Those who knowingly, willfully, deliberately reject Christ and His gospel and go on doing so make it impossible for God to forgive them. John does not say that believers can commit this sin. Indeed, 3:6,9 teaches that they cannot.

5:17 See 3:4. The fact that there is sin which does not lead to death should not encourage us to sin, but should give us hope of forgiveness if we sin.

5:18 "Does not go on sinning" - 3:6. Many translators of this verse believe that "whoever is born of God" refers to any believer, and "he who was born of God" refers to the Lord Jesus. His physical birth of a virgin was by the Holy Spirit (Matt 1:21; Luke 1:35; Gal 4:4). His resurrection from the dead was like a birth (Acts 13:33; Heb 1:5). And the life He had from eternity was from God (John 5:26).

"Keeps him" - that is, Christ keeps the believer (John 10:28; Rom 5:9,10).

"That wicked one" - Satan.

not go on sinning, but he who was born of God keeps him, and that wicked one does not hold him.

19 And we know that we are of God, and that the whole world lies prostrate in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

"Does not hold him" – or "does not touch him" (KJV); the same verb is translated "do not cling to me" in John 20:17. Satan cannot keep his hands on believers, cannot hold them in his power. Christ is in them and He is greater than Satan (4:4). What John says here is true of all who have been born again, not of just a few exceptional saints.

5:19 "Know" – see in this letter the things John says believers "know" – 2:5,20; 3:2,5,14,16,19,24; 4:16; 5:13,15,18,20.

"In wickedness" – 2:16. Or the Greek could be translated "in the wicked one." See John 14:30; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 2:2; 2 Tim 2:26. This is why the world is the ungodly place it is.

5:20 "Given us an understanding" – compare Luke 24:45; 1 Cor 2:12,16.

"That we may know Him" – Matt 11:27. This is the only way to a true knowledge of God.

"In Him" – John 17:21-23; 1 Cor 12:12,13; Eph 1:3,4. The world is "in" the wicked one; believers are "in" Christ. The words "true God" refer to Christ. See references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11. He is also eternal life (v 11; John 11:25; 14:6). Only of God could it be said that He is eternal life.

5:21 "Idols" – he has spoken of the true God, and this has brought to his mind the thought of false gods. All that men worship or serve which is not the true God is an idol. An idol may be a physical object or it may be a false idea of what God is like. Let us guard ourselves against any kind of idolatry.

The Second Letter of the Apostle
JOHN

Author:

John one of the original apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Probably sometimes between 85 and 95 AD.

Theme:

Some scholars think that John is writing to a church which he speaks of figuratively as "the elect lady." Others think he is writing to a Christian woman and her children (this seems a more likely view). In either case what he writes has the same value for us. Two key words are "truth" and "love." There is a very severe warning about false teachers in verses 7-11, and we would all do well to pay close attention to it.

Contents:

| | |
|---|-------|
| Walking in love and truth | 1-6 |
| Warning about false teachers | 7-11 |
| They do not teach the truth about Christ | 7 |
| Following them results in great loss | 8 |
| They go away from the truth of Christ | 9 |
| Believers must have nothing to do with them | 10,11 |
| Closing remarks | 12,13 |

1 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth; 2 for the truth's sake, which dwells in us, and will be with us forever. 3 Grace be with you, and mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I greatly rejoiced because I found some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received a command from the Father. 5 And now I urge you, lady (not as though I wrote a new command to you, but that which we have had from the beginning), that we love one another. 6 And this is love: that we walk according to his commands. This is the command: just as you have heard from 1 "Elder" – John does not call himself an apostle (though of course he was one). The apostles were called elders by others and sometimes referred to themselves as elders (1 Pet 5:1). The word indicates both mature years and leadership in the Church.

"Elect" – the Greek word may also be translated "chosen" (Matt 24:22,24,31; Rom 8:33; Eph 1:4; Col 3:12; 1 Pet 1:1; 2:9; etc).

"Lady" – the Greek here is Kyria and was a common personal name. John was writing to a well-known believer and her children.

"I love in the truth" – his love was not human emotion or mere natural affection but divine love (agape – note at 1 Cor 13:1). And this love is always based on the truth. "Truth" here is the same as the message of Christ (John 1:17). Believers love each other because of their mutual devotion to the truth God has revealed.

2 "Dwells in us" – believers in Christ do more than acknowledge the truth with their minds. They welcome the truth into their hearts, and the truth remains there to influence all their behavior. Compare Ps 51:6. And Christ, who is the truth (John 14:6) is in them.

"Forever" – John was confident that truth once fully implanted in the believer's heart would remain to eternity.

3 1 Tim 1:2.

"The Son of the Father" – observe how John distinguishes between the Father and Christ. Christ is not the Father. The Father is not Christ. They exist in eternity as two distinct persons in the one Godhead. See v 9 also. See notes on Father, Son, and Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; 5:16; 28:19; John 3:16; 17:1; etc.

"Grace", "mercy", and "peace" are what make Christian life and service possible. Grace is the fountain in God's heart; mercy is grace poured out; peace is the result.

4 "Very glad" – we can learn much about the character of a person by what gives him joy.

"Walking in truth" – believing God's truth and putting it into practice. Compare John 8:31,32.

"Command from the Father" – compare the beginning you should walk in love.

7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world, who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 Watch yourselves so that we do not lose those things which we have worked for, but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whoever transgresses, and does not remain in the teachings of Christ, does not have God. He who remains in the teachings of Christ has both the Father and the Son.

10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house, and do not greet him. 11 For he who greets him shares in his evil deeds.

Deut 5:33; 10:12; 1 Kings 2:3; Isa 30:21; Jer 6:16. God's command to repent (Acts 17:30) is a command to forsake all evil and all lies and deception and to walk in the truth.

5 John 13:34.

6 John 14:15,21,23. It is useless and deceptive to think or say we love God if we do not do what He tells us to do.

7 "Deceivers" – compare Matt 24:4,24; Rom 16:18; 2 Cor 11:13-15. They come from the chief of all deceivers (Rev 12:9).

"In the flesh" – John 1:14. Christ became a man with real human nature (Heb 2:14,17). In fact, He still has it, now risen from the dead and glorified, and He will come again with it.

"Antichrist" – 1 John 2:18,22; 4:3 – an opponent of Christ who tries to take Christ's place.

8 By listening to false teachers and falling under their influence true believers will not lose their salvation, but they may lose everything else. Compare Rev 3:11; 2 Tim 2:5; 1 Cor 9:27.

"Full reward" – Rev 22:12.

9 Some people believe they are advanced thinkers and can leave the truth of Christ behind. Such people only reveal that they are without God. Compare 1 John 2:19.

"Remains" – John 8:32; 2 Tim 3:14. Those who continue in the truth reveal that God is in them.

"Both" – v 3 – evidently refers to more than one person.

10 "If anyone comes" – he is speaking of those who teach something other than what Christ taught. We must not welcome false teachers into our homes or have any fellowship with them anywhere. We should not even greet them (compare 2 Cor 6:15; Rom 16:17). If we do, we place ourselves in danger, and give the impression to others that their teaching may not be so bad after all.

11 "Evil deeds" – this is what teaching contrary to Christ's teaching really is. In fact, it is some of the most evil work possible to men. Believers must have no share in it, or seem to have a share in it, or help it in any way.

12 Having many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come to you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

13 The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

12 "Joy" – this is the joy of true Christian fellowship in the truth. Compare 1 John 1:4.

13 Evidently her sister was a believer and this sister's children were living in the same city where John was at the time.

The Third Letter of the Apostle
JOHN

Author:

John one of the original apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Probably sometime between 85 and 95 AD.

Theme:

Three individuals – John’s good friend Gaius who behaved in accordance with the truth, Diotrephes who exalted himself and opposed John, and Demetrius witnessed to by the truth itself. Believers are to follow the example of Gaius and Demetrius and to reject the example of Diotrephes. Verse 11 seems to be the key verse.

Contents:

| | |
|---|------|
| Gaius – someone who proved he was a believer | 1-8 |
| Diotrephes – someone who proved he was not a believer | 9-11 |
| Demetrius – someone even the truth speaks well of | 12 |

1 The elder to the dearly loved Gaius whom I love in the truth.

2 Dear friend, above everything I want you to prosper and be in health, just as your soul prospers. 3 For I greatly rejoiced when the brethren came and testified about the truth that is in you, just as you are walking in the truth. 4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in truth.

5 Dear friend, you are doing faithfully whatever you do for the brethren, and for strangers. 6 They have testified before the church about your love. If you bring them forward on their journey in a godly way, you will do well; 7 because they went forth for his name's sake, taking nothing from the Gentiles. 8 Therefore we ought to receive such, so that we might be helpers together for the truth.

9 I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, will not receive us. 10 So, if I come, I will remember the deeds which he does, chattering against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he does not receive the brethren himself, and forbids those who want to do so, and puts them out of the church.

11 Dear friend, do not follow what is evil, but what is good. He who does good is of God, but he who does evil has not seen God.

12 All men speak well of Demetrius, and the truth itself does also. Yes, and we also testify for him; and you know that our testimony is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not write to you with ink and pen. 14 But I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. Our friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

1 "Elder" - 2 John 1.

"Gaius" - there are three men named Gaius in Acts and the letters of Paul (Acts 19:29; etc). It was a common name in those days, and we do not know whether this Gaius was one of those three or another person.

"In the truth" - 2 John 1.

2 Gaius was doing well in his inner spiritual life. But it seems he was facing difficulties in other matters, and these may have affected his health. No doubt John prayed for what he saw was Gaius' real need.

3,4 "Very glad" - 2 John 4.

"The brethren" - spiritual brothers, believers in Christ.

"Walking in the truth" - Gaius was sincere and loyal to God's revelation. He accepted the truth and lived according to it.

"In the truth" - 2 John 4.

"My children" - he means spiritual children, those who had come to Christ through his ministry, or those whom he had nurtured with the Word of God. Compare 1 Tim 1:2.

5 "Faithfully" - his faithfulness to the truth of God made him faithful in helping Christ's servants in any way he could. He put the truth he had learned into practice - an example to us all.

6 "Love" - love shown in action - 1 John 3:16-18.

"Bring them. . .on their journey" - John is referring to traveling evangelists who went from place to place preaching Christ's gospel. When it was time to go to another place to preach, Gaius would give them provisions or money for the journey.

"You will do well" - Christians in local churches should treat God's servants in a way pleasing to God who calls them and puts them in the ministry.

7,8 "For his name's sake" - he meant the Lord Jesus Christ. These traveling preachers did not go out for their own sakes, or for any profit or gain.

"Gentiles" - evidently they were working chiefly among people other than Jews. These servants of Christ trusted God to meet their needs and went to preach the truth. And they did not accept help from the people among whom they went. If believers in the churches did not help them they would have to endure great difficulties.

"Helpers together for the truth" - not all believers can be evangelists or traveling preachers or missionaries, but all can help those who are. The whole church with one heart and mind should do all in their power to see that the gospel goes out to everyone on the face of the earth.

9 "Diotrephes" - here was a man so vain, so arrogant, so ambitious that he would have nothing to do with the great apostle John himself. He wanted to be the one authority in the church, the one everybody else noticed and looked up to and obeyed. Such men are still with us in the churches. We must watch out for those who are ambitious for self rather than for Christ.

10 "Chattering against us" - some people think that the way to be first is by putting everyone else down. By destroying the reputation of others they vainly imagine that theirs will shine brighter.

"Puts them out of the church" - he not only had no interest in helping God's servants spread the gospel, he tried to prevent others from helping, perhaps thinking these "brothers" were a threat to his supremacy in the church there?

11 "Follow. . .what is good" - 1 Cor 4:16; Eph 5:1; 1 Thess 1:6; 2:14; Heb 6:12; 13:7. "He who does good is of God" - that is, he who practices good, as revealed by God - 1 John 3:7-10. Not everything that men think is good is good in God's eyes (Luke 16:15).

"Does" - he is not speaking of one act, but the manner of life of a person.

12 "The truth itself" - in other words, he put the truth of God into practice, and so according to the truth in the Bible he was a good man. The word of God tells each of us what we are by judging what we do.

14 "Peace be to you" - John 20:19,21,26; Rom 15:33.

The Letter of JUDE

Author:

A younger half brother of the Lord Jesus Christ and the brother of James.

Date:

Somewhere between 68 and 80 AD.

Themes:

Jude writes of those in the Church who reject the truth of Christ and teach their own false doctrines. By the inspiration of God's Spirit he severely condemns their teaching and their life style. A key thought is in v 3 – "earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the saints."

1 Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: 2 May mercy, peace, and love be ever increasing toward you.

3 Dearly loved ones, while I was fully prepared to write to you about our common salvation, necessity drew me to write to you and urge you to

1 Jude means "praised." It is the same name as Judah in the Old Testament and Judas in the New Testament. There are several men named Judas or Jude in the NT. This one, it seems sure, was a half brother of the Lord Jesus (Matt 13:55; John 7:3). Before the death and resurrection of Jesus Jude did not believe in Him, but afterwards we see him among the believers in Acts 1:14; 1 Cor 9:5.

"Servant" - Rom 1:1.

"James" - Jam 1:1.

"Sanctified" - Acts 20:32; 26:18; Rom 15:16; 1 Cor 1:2; 6:11; Heb 10:10,14.

"Preserved" - John 6:37-40; 10:27,28; 17:11,12; Rom 5:9,10; 8:28-30,35-39; 1 Cor 1:8,9; 1 Pet 1:5.

"Called" - Rom 1:6,7; 8:28,30; 9:24; 1 Cor 1:9; Gal 1:6,15; Eph 1:18; Phil 3:14; 2 Thess 2:14; 2 Tim 1:9; 1 Pet 2:9; 3:9; 5:10; 2 Pet 1:10.

2 "Mercy" - Rom 9:15,16; 11:32; 12:1; 15:9; Eph 2:4; Titus 3:5. When believers were helpless in their sin and ignorance and weakness God saved them by His mercy. It was all an act of kindness and grace to the undeserving. Now God's mercy continues to be available to us, and this mercy of God is the foundation of peace.

"Peace" - Rom 1:7. The meaning is peace of mind and heart that comes from a right relationship to God, and harmony among believers.

"Love" - divine love (agape - see John 13:34; Rom 5:5; 1 Cor 13:1; Eph 3:17). This comes because we have received God's mercy and peace. It is the greatest of all qualities (1 Cor 13:13). Its source is God, who is love (1 John 4:7,8).

3 "Salvation" - note at Rom 1:16. Jude wanted to write about something very great and glorious. But he saw the need of writing on another subject not so pleasant as that.

"Necessity drew me" - the need of the church demanded it and there was a great danger threatening the Christian community. God's Spirit was at work in him and compelling him.

"Contend" - the Greek word suggests combat on a battle field, which is where believers are. Compare Eph 6:11-18; 1 Tim 6:12. On the earth in general and in the Christian world there is a war going on concerning the truth God has revealed.

"The faith" - Jude does not mean here the inner experience of faith, but the body of truth God has given through Christ. He and His apostles taught us what we should believe and how we should live. This is "the contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For there are certain men who have crept in secretly, who were long before this marked out for this condemnation. They are ungodly men who have turned the grace of our God into uncontrolled lust, and denied the only Master, our God and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 So I want to remind you, for you once came faith." It is not enough to hold right doctrine (important as that is). We must also live according to these doctrines (Eph 4:1; Col 1:10; 1 Thess 2:12). Jude's emphasis in this letter is not on doctrine alone, but on right behavior and right doctrine together. The error he warns about is unholy living which comes out of false doctrine.

"Once delivered" - the "faith" God has revealed through Christ and His apostles is complete. Nothing should be added to it, nothing taken away. Compare Deut 4:2; Prov 30:6; Rev 22:18,19. God will not make any further revelation of any truth to be added to "the faith", not through anyone, anywhere. Any new doctrine is sure to be false. God has given the truth to believers to keep, practice and defend when it is attacked. Compare 1 Cor 4:1; 1 Thess 2:4; 1 Tim 1:11; 6:20; 2 Tim 1:14.

"Saints" - Rom 1:7.

4 Here was the danger Jude saw. A terrible heresy had been introduced among Christians. That false teaching was this: since salvation comes entirely by God's grace and does not in any way depend on good works, Christians may live as they please; however they live, whatever they do, grace will forgive them. Compare Rom 6:1. This false teaching still exists today.

"Secretly" - 2 Pet 2:1. Often false teachers do not come openly and honestly. They slip in like thieves. They mix their errors with truth to make it more deceptive.

"Ungodly" - they professed to be Christians and followers of Christ but their behavior proved otherwise.

"Turned. . . grace. . . into uncontrolled lust" - it seems that some professing Christians in Corinth had this same idea (1 Cor 5:1,2; 6:9,12). In Titus 2:11-14 see what God's grace really teaches. See also Eph 4:19-24.

"Denied" - 2 Pet 2:1. Denial can be by actions as well as by word. These men rejected Christ's Lordship over them, but they may have said they believed He is the Lord.

"Only Master" - the Greek word here is "despotes" and means owner and possessor of absolute authority. In Luke 2:28,29 and Acts 4:24 it is a title given to God. Since Christ is our "only" Sovereign this means that Christ is God, as the whole last phrase of this verse makes clear. The above translation brings this out accurately.

"Our God and Lord" - compare 2 Pet 1:1.

5 "Remind" - 2 Pet 1:12-15.

"The Lord" - this is a title (Greek - kurios) to know this, that the Lord, after rescuing people out of the land of Egypt, destroyed those who did not believe.

6 And the angels who did not keep their first position but left their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day.

7 Just as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, which in the same way gave themselves up to sexual immorality and went after unnatural flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 In a similar way also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak evil of honored ones. 9 Yet Michael the archangel, when given to Jesus everywhere in the New Testament. And Jude calls Him Lord in the preceding verse. In this one he says He delivered His people from Egypt. In the historical record it was Jehovah who delivered the people. See Ex 3:7-12; 18:10; 19:2. This means that Jude is equating Jesus with Jehovah. See note and references on "Lord" at Luke 2:11.

"Destroyed" - Heb 3:16-19; 1 Cor 10:1-6; Num 14:11,22,23; Ps 78:22,32,33; 106:15,18,24-26,29.

6 "First position" - 2 Pet 2:4.

"Dwelling place" - heaven.

"Day" - the day of final judgment (Rev 20:11-15).

7 "Just as. . . in the same way" - this seems to mean that the sin of the people of Sodom mentioned here and the sin of the angels in v 6 was the same sin. Compare Gen 6:1-4.

"Unnatural" - Genesis chapter 19.

"Fire" - 2 Pet 2:6; Mal 4:1; Matt 3:10,12; 25:41.

8 "Dreamers" - they were out of touch with reality, behaving as if they were stupefied with lust. The word dreamers may suggest also that these men claimed to get revelations from God in visions (Deut 13:1-3; Jer 23:25,26).

"Defile the flesh" - Rom 1:24; 1 Cor 6:18.

"Reject authority. . . honored ones or 'heavenly beings'" - 2 Pet 2:10.

9 "Michael" - Dan 10:13,21; 12:1; Rev 12:7. An archangel is an angel of the highest rank.

"Devil" - note at Matt 4:1.

"About the body of Moses" - this event is not recorded in the Bible. We do not know what this dispute was about. It is not important for us to know - Deut 29:29.

"The Lord rebuke you" - see how careful Michael was in his language even when speaking to Satan. He left judgment and condemnation of others in God's hands, as we should do.

10 "Speak evil of" - 2 Pet 2:12. This shows their arrogance and wickedness.

"What they know naturally" - they know nothing of spiritual things, only the things he contended with the devil, disputing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive accusation, but said, "The Lord rebuke you." 10 But these speak evil of those things which they do not know; but what they know naturally, like brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe to them! for they have gone in the way of Cain and for reward have run greedily after the error of Balaam, and have perished in the rebellion of Korah.

12 These are blots in your love feasts, when they feast with you, looking after themselves without fear. They are clouds without water, carried about by winds; trees whose fruit withers, without of the body.

11 "Woe" - Isa 3:11; Matt 18:7.

"Cain" - see Gen 4:1-12. The way of Cain is to ignore God's instructions about sacrifice, and to hate those whom God accepts. See also Heb 11:4; 1 John 3:12.

"Balaam's error" - see 2 Pet 2:15.

"The rebellion of Korah" - Numbers chapter 16. These godless men bring destruction on themselves, as Korah did, by rebelling against God. In this verse we see that at the heart of these godless men are three things - hatred of the truth and those who practice it, greed for anything they can get, and rebellion against God.

12 "Love feasts" - note at 1 Cor 11:20-22.

"Looking after themselves" - greed, selfishness, and lack of consideration for others was at the heart of all they did. Compare Ezek 34:1-10; Jer 10:21; 12:10; 23:1.

"Without fear" - their conscience does not bother them, God's warnings are as nothing to them. Compare 1 Tim 4:2.

"Without water" - like clouds which promise refreshing showers and give nothing (Prov 25:14).

"Carried about" - 2 Pet 2:17.

"Without fruit" - without good fruit (they produce plenty of bad). Compare Matt 21:18,19; Luke 13:6,7.

"Twice dead" - dead in trespasses and sin (Eph 2:1), with their death confirmed by the kind of life they live (1 Tim 5:6). They were spiritually dead and dead to the truth they had rejected. And they were heading for the second death (Rev 20:14). Jude indicates that they brought it on themselves as surely as they exist. By their arrogance, unbelief and rebellion they cut themselves off from the possibility of eternal life in Christ. They were like trees not planted by God, so they were lacking spiritual life; and they were uprooted so there would never be any hope of spiritual life.

"Plucked up by the roots" - see Matt 15:13. God had not planted these people. They had no contact with anything that could produce good fruit in their lives. They were the exact opposite of what true believers should be, and, to some extent, are - fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; 13 raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these people, saying, "Look, the Lord is coming with ten thousands of his saints, 15 to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all the ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all their hard words which ungodly sinners have spoken against him."

16 These are grumblers, complainers, walking after their own lusts. And their mouth speaks great swelling words, flattering people for the sake of getting some advantage.

17 But, dearly loved ones, remember the words which were spoken previously by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 how they told you there would be mockers in the last time who would walk after their own ungodly desires. 19 These are those who separate themselves, sensual, not having the Spirit.

20 But you, dearly loved ones, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

22 And have compassion on some people, making a distinction; 23 and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, 25 to God our Saviour, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

Eph 3:17; Col 2:7.

13 "Raging waves" - restless, tossed by their raging desires. Compare Isa 57:20,21. "Foaming out their own shame" - the sin in their hearts coming out in filthy actions.

"Wandering stars" - they have no fixed orbits around Christ, and are not heading for the goal set before Christians (Phil 3:14).

"Darkness" - 2 Pet 2:17; compare Phil 2:15; Dan 12:3.

14,15 Gen 5:18,21-14. This quotation is not from the Bible. The Holy Spirit inspired Jude and gave him words spoken by Enoch thousands of years before. (There is a book called the "Book of Enoch", but it is not inspired by God and it contains some ridiculous legends. It cannot be proved that Jude used it for this quotation). Apart from Jude we would not know that Enoch was a prophet. Ungodliness was exceedingly common in Enoch's day, as it is in ours. So he condemns it very strongly.

"These people" - Enoch's prophecy was about people in this age.

"Execute judgment" - Acts 17:31.

16 There are five marks of these godless men given in this verse.

"Flattering people for . . . advantage" - they are not straight and truthful in anything. They tell others what they think they would like to hear. Their aim is to get some benefit or profit. Do we not see this on every hand today? On flattery see Job 32:21,22; Ps 12:2,3; Prov 26:28; 28:33; 29:5; Rom 16:18; 1 Thess 2:5.

17 "Remember" - v 5; 2 Pet 1:12-15.

18 Compare 2 Pet 3:3.

19 "Not having the Spirit" - again he tells us that these professing Christians are not real Christians at all. See Rom 8:9. Observe that not all people even in churches have God's Spirit. See John 14:17; Rom 8:9,16; Eph 4:18.

20 Jude now shows how believers can be safe from apostasy and apostates.

"Building up yourselves" - compare Acts 20:32; Rom 15:2; Eph 4:12,13; 1 Thess 5:11 - it is by studying God's Word and putting the truth into practice that we can build ourselves up. It is the responsibility of every believer to do this.

"Praying in the Holy Spirit" - Eph 6:18.

21 Christ keeps believers in a state of salvation (v 1). Believers must keep themselves in God's love. This can be done only by obedience to His Word - John 14:21,23; 15:9,10.

"Mercy" - no matter how much we obey and keep ourselves in a condition where God can express His love toward us, the fact is our salvation from beginning to end is all of His mercy.

"Eternal life" - here means the final entering into that which believers already have (John 5:24; Titus 1:2; 1 Pet 1:5).

22 Do not be hard and unsympathetic toward them. Try to understand them and help them to believe.

23 "Others" - we have to be able to discern the condition of people and act accordingly. Some are struggling with doubts and want to believe. Others are in grave danger and need swift action to save them. They are in danger of the fire of God's judgment. With some others we should fear lest we be dragged down into their sins (compare Gal 6:1). We should show love to the sinner but hate his sin.

24,25 One of the greatest doxologies in the Bible.

"Keep you from falling" - or "stumbling" - God can keep us from either one - Ps 37:23,24; Rom 8:37.

"Present you faultless" - Eph 1:4; 5:26,27.

"Exceeding joy" - instead of sorrow over many failures.

"Who alone is wise" - Rom 11:36; 16:27.

THE REVELATION of Jesus Christ

Author:

John, one of the original apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Probably sometime about 96 AD, though some scholars think it was much earlier than this.

Themes:

John wrote down what Christ had revealed to him (1:1). It is "prophecy" (1:3). In it Christ appears in glory. He is the Ruler of the kings of the earth (1:5), the One who judges the churches (chapters 2,3), the "lion" of the tribe of Judah (5:5), the glorified Lamb of God (5:6), the King who will reign over God's kingdom (19:15), the Lord of lords (19:16), the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End (22:13). This book contains things to take place after John wrote them (1:1). The theme in it is the second coming of Christ and the things that will occur before and after that event, things in heaven and on earth. This book is full of figurative language, of symbols, of signs given in language not always easy to understand. However, the leading themes are clear – the condition of churches in general and the promises and warnings Jesus gives to them, the end of this age when evil will develop to the full, the rule of antichrist over the whole earth and his cruel persecution of the people of God, the punishment God will mete out to those who follow the antichrist and the fearful disasters He will send on the earth, the harvest of the earth, the second coming of the Lord Jesus with great power and glory to rule the world, and the glorious future that awaits His followers. Along with the revelation of these events God has given many great promises and words of encouragement to believers, and visions of heaven which are sources of joy and comfort to them.

It is only fair to say that some Bible teachers do not agree that the principal theme of this book is the second coming of Christ and events related to it. Their explanation of the things revealed in this book are quite different from the explanation given in the following notes. Some of them teach that the visions and signs John saw are related to John's own time and to a large extent have already been fulfilled. Others teach that they began to be fulfilled in John's day and have been slowly and progressively fulfilled all through this age, that this book is a sort of pre-written church history. Still others teach that for the most part the visions and symbolic language in this book were not meant to indicate literal events, but reveal spiritual principles and lessons which apply throughout this whole age. The writer of the notes given with the text of this book does not accept any of these systems of interpretation. Of course there are spiritual principles and lessons in this book, just as there are spiritual principles and lessons in every part of the Bible, whether literal history, prophecy of future events, poetry, or those portions which give direct instruction. But this does not at all mean that the things revealed in this book do not signify real events which will take place sometime in the future. Symbols are used in other parts of the Bible to indicate literal events, and there is no good reason to think the same is not true in this book.

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, to show to his servants things which must quickly take place. And he sent and signified it by his angel to his servant John, 2 who testified concerning the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ, and everything that he saw. 3 Blessed is he who reads the words of this prophecy, and those who hear it and keep those things which are written in it, for the time is at hand.

4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be to you, and peace, from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness and the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings

1:1 "Revelation" – this book is not an invention of men. It is a gift from heaven. Its source is God Himself, not the brain of any human being. John did not borrow the symbols, the pictures, the words of this book from any other literature. The Lord Jesus revealed it all to him.

"To show" – God gave this book to reveal the future, not to conceal it. It is for our understanding, not for our confusion.

"Servants" – in Rom 6:17-22 Paul says all true believers in Christ are God's servants or "slaves" (the Greek word means both).

"Quickly" – this does not have to mean that this book had its fulfillment in John's day or shortly after, or that it even began to have its fulfillment then. Compare 22:7,12, 20 – three times Jesus says He is coming "quickly," but He did not come in John's day or shortly afterwards, or even up until our day. What, then, does "quickly" mean? Commentators offer various explanations:

The word means soon from God's point of view (2 Pet 3:8 – less than two days from John's day to ours. See note at Ps 90:4).

Or the Greek word translated "quickly" may mean "suddenly" (things that must suddenly come to pass once they begin to happen – 1 Thess 5:2).

Or John was caught forward in vision to see the end of this age – from that point of view things took place very quickly.

Or God used the word "quickly" to indicate that the things in this book are always imminent ("at hand" – v 3) – they may begin at any moment and each generation of believers should be alert and prepared for the Lord's coming (Matt 24:36,42-44).

"Signified" – the English word means to make known by speech, action or signs. The Greek word has the same general meaning. The Revelation uses many signs and symbols, along with explanations in ordinary words, to reveal what God wanted us to know.

"Angel" – the words "angel" and "angels" are used about 80 times in this book, and about 300 times in the whole Bible. They are spirit beings usually unseen by men, but they may appear in human form from time to time. There are innumerable angels – 5:11.

1:2 Here the "word of God" and "testimony of Jesus Christ" refer to this book of Revelation. The Lord Jesus was the final great prophet of God – notes at Deut 18:18,19; Matt 1:1; John 7:16; Heb 1:2. In this book He continued this ministry He began on earth. It comes with His full authority.

1:3 "Blessed" – this blessing will come on those who read and obey the truth in this book. Reading merely with the view of trying to understand the mysteries God has revealed will not result in blessing. See notes on "blessing" at Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1-3; Matt 5:3-10; etc. Since God has promised a special blessing on this book we should all be encouraged to read it and apply its truth to our lives.

"Prophecy" – 19:10; 22:7,10,18,19. This is the only book of the New Testament called a prophecy, though every book in it (and in the whole Bible) came by God's inspiration.

"The time is at hand" – these words (like the word "quickly" in v 1) indicate that the things revealed in this book had not even begun to happen when John wrote these words down toward the end of his life.

"At hand" – compare 22:10; Rom 13:12; Matt 24:33; 1 Pet 4:7; Joel 1:15.

1:4 "John" – see the Introduction.

"The seven churches" – v 11. There were more than seven churches in the province of Asia (for example, the church at Colosse was also there). But God chose these seven to represent all the churches in Asia (and no doubt, throughout the world – note at v 20).

"Asia" – note at Acts 16:6.

"Grace and peace" – Rom 1:7; etc. John now points to the Trinity as the source of grace and peace (notes on the Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; etc). From "Him who is and who was and who is to come" means God the Father.

"Seven spirits" – 3:1; 4:5; 5:6. These seven spirits are linked with the Father and the Son in this divine benediction and are set forth as a source of grace and peace to the churches (compare 2 Cor 13:14; Matt 28:19). So we may be sure they symbolize the one Holy Spirit of God (John 14:16,17). He is the sevenfold Spirit. "Seven" in this book is often used as a symbolic number meaning perfection, fullness, completion (compare vs 11,12,16,20; 4:5; 5:1,6; 8:2; 10:3; 12:3; 13:1; 15:1,7).

1:5 "And from Jesus Christ" – the eternal Son of God. Here He is given three titles.

"The faithful witness" – a witness is one who knows the truth and reveals it. A faithful one does not bend the truth in any way, hides nothing that needs to be known. The Lord Jesus tells us exactly what we need to hear and holds back nothing that would be of the earth. To him who loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, 6 and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Look, he is coming with clouds, and every eye will see him, and those also who pierced him, and all the peoples of the earth will mourn because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End," says the Lord, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

9 I John, who also am your brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patient endurance of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos, for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet, 11 saying, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last. Write what you see in a book, and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia, to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

12 And I turned to see the voice that spoke to me. And being turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, 13 and in the middle of the seven lampstands someone like the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the feet, and with a golden sash tied around the chest. 14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were like a flame of fire. 15 And his feet were like fine bronze, as if they burned in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many waters. 16 And he had seven stars in his right hand, and for our good.

"Firstborn from the dead" - "firstborn" is a title of dignity, indicating pre-eminence and supremacy (Col 1:18; Ps 89:27). Christ has risen from the dead (Matt 28:6; 1 Cor 15:1-8), and has the highest position of all who will ever be raised (Phil 2:9-11).

"Ruler of the kings of the earth" - 19:16; Prov 21:1; Dan 4:34,35; 5:21. The events in this book which the kings of the earth will think they are controlling will actually be under the control of their unseen Ruler, the Lord Jesus Christ. See John 17:2; Matt 28:18.

"Loved us" - Rom 5:8; 8:37; Gal 2:20; Eph 3:18,19; 5:2. Some Greek manuscripts have the present tense of the verb.

"Washed us" - 1 Cor 6:11; 1 John 1:7.

"Blood" - Matt 26:28; Rom 3:25; Heb 9:12; 10:19.

1:6 "Kings" - 2:26,27; 3:21; 20:4; 2 Tim 2:12; Matt 19:28-30.

"Priests" - 5:10; 7:15; 1 Pet 2:5,9.

"To Him be glory" - see John 12:28; Rom 11:36; 16:27; Jude 25.

"Amen" - this word comes from the Hebrew word for truth and means "so be it."

1:7 John announces the great theme of this book - 2:25; 3:3,11; 11:15; 14:14-16; 16:15; 17:14; 19:11; 22:7,12,20.

"He is coming" - Matt 16:27; John 14:3; Acts 1:11; etc.

"Clouds" - Dan 7:13; Matt 24:30; 26:64; 1 Thess 4:16,17.

"Pierced Him" - John 19:34,37; Ps 22:16; Zech 12:10.

"Mourn" - Matt 24:30; Zech 12:10-14.

1:8 "Alpha. . .Omega" - here the Lord God speaks. In 22:13 the Lord Jesus uses the same words about Himself. In other words, He knew that He was the Lord God. Alpha was the first letter of the Greek alphabet, Omega the last. God is the beginning (the One who brought things into being) and end of all things. Compare Rom 11:36; Isa 44:6. 1:9 Observe what accompanies the kingdom of the Lord Jesus in this world.

"Tribulation" - 2:9,10; 7:14; Matt 5:10;

John 16:33; Acts 14:22; Rom 8:17; 1 Pet 4:1,12.

"Patient endurance" - 2:2,3,19; 3:10; 13:10; 14:12; Rom 5:3,4; Cor 1:6; 2 Tim 2:12; Heb 6:12; 10:36; Jam 1:3.

"Patmos" - a small island near the coast of present-day Turkey, about 80 kilometers southwest of Ephesus. Evidently the Roman authorities had banished John there because of his preaching the Word of God and the gospel of Christ.

1:10 "In the Spirit" - 4:2; 17:3; 21:10. God's Spirit gave John an exceptional spiritual experience, a vision of the unseen. Compare Ezek 1:1; Dan 8:1; Acts 10:10,11.

"The Lord's day" - Sunday, the first day of the week, the day on which Jesus rose from the dead - Matt 28:1-6.

1:11 Note at v 4. "Seven" - note at v 4.

1:12 "Golden lampstands" - a fitting symbol of the seven churches (v 20; Matt 5:14). Compare Ex 25:31-40. "Lampstands" is a more accurate translation of the Greek word than "candlesticks."

1:13 "Son of man" - Dan 7:13; Matt 8:20 (note).

"Garment. . .golden sash" - probably speaks of Christ as the High Priest of His people. Compare Ex 28:4. See Heb 2:17; 4:14; 8:1; 10:21,22.

1:14 "Wool" - compare Dan 7:9.

"A flame of fire" - 2:18; 19:12; Dan 10:6 - a person's eyes tell us much about him. Here Christ's eyes speak of the fiery holiness of His character, and His ability to discern all the secrets of men.

1:15 "Bronze" - Dan 10:6. The feet that walk about in the midst of the churches are of a burning purity.

"The sound of many waters" - Ezek 43:2. Christ's voice is like the voice of the God of Israel, powerful and irresistible (compare Ps 29:3-10).

1:16 "Seven stars" - note at v 20.

"Sword" - 2:12,16; 19:15,21 - a symbol of the Word of God (Heb 4:12; Eph 6:17). It speaks of offensive warfare - the fight against evil. Christ has only to out of his mouth went a sharp double-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining in its strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. And he laid his right hand on me, saying to me, "Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. 18 I am he who lives. I was dead, and, look, I am alive for ever and ever. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and death.

19 "Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are now, and the things which will take place after these things. 20 The mystery of speak and judgment is executed.

"Sun" - Matt 17:2. This speaks of Christ's glory and splendor. He is the radiance of God's glory (Heb 1:3; 2 Cor 4:6). This is the light that blinded Saul of Tarsus on the Damascus road (Acts 9:3,8,9; 22:11).

1:17 "At His feet" - where we should all be, and would be if we saw Him as John did. Compare Ezek 1:28.

"Do not be afraid" - Matt 17:7; 14:27.

"First and Last"-words only God can truly speak. Compare v 8; Isa 44:6; 48:12,13.

1:18 "I am he who lives" - a reference to the Living God (Ps 42:2; Jer 10:10; Matt 16:16; 2 Cor 6:16; 1 Thess 1:9. Compare John 8:24,58). Jesus here says He Himself is that one.

"Dead" - Matt 27:50; Mark 15:44,45; 1 Cor 15:3.

"Alive. . .for ever and ever" - 4:19; Matt 28:6; Acts 1:3; Rom 6:9,10.

"Keys of Hades and death" - Christ has absolute authority over the unseen realm of the dead, and no one else has any at all. See the note on the Greek word "Hades" at Luke 16:23.

1:19 John's writing is in three parts:

"The things you have seen" - the vision of Christ in this chapter

"The things which are now" - the conditions prevailing in the seven churches (chapters 2 and 3)

"The things which will take place after these things" - the things that will happen after conditions in the churches have run their full course (4:1 to 22:5).

1:20 "Mystery" - truth revealed by God which men could not know if He did not reveal it.

"Angels" - the Greek word can be translated "messengers" (as it is in Mark 1:2; Luke 7:24; 9:52; etc). Here (and in 2:1,8,12,18; 3:1,7,14) the meaning is probably this: the messengers through whom the Lord can speak to the churches, those He counts responsible as representatives of the churches.

"Seven churches" - vs 4,11. These seven churches were literal historical churches of John's day which needed the messages of chapters 2 and 3. But they may be viewed in a different way - as churches that represent all churches both in that day and throughout this whole age. The number seven is significant. It suggests fullness the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and of the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw are the seven churches.

2 "To the angel of the church of Ephesus write: He who holds the seven stars in his right hand and walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands says these things:

2 "I know your works, and your labour, and your patience, and how you cannot endure those and completion. Just as the seven spirits symbolize the one Spirit of God (v 4), so may the seven churches symbolize the one Church in the world. The picture of Christ in the midst of the lampstands holding the seven stars also suggests this. Had Christ only seven literal churches in His care? Has He none now? Is it not clear that these seven lampstands represent all churches? So we may expect to see these seven kinds of churches in our day.

Some commentators have taught that these churches have a further meaning. They think the seven churches gave a prophetic outlook of the Church from its beginning to its end. In this view the seven churches were chosen in perfect order beginning at Ephesus and ending at Laodicea to indicate seven successive eras through which the church would pass. This is a possible interpretation, and an interesting one. And there is actually some agreement between the contents of the letters which follow and church history. But there is no real proof for this interpretation. In any case, we should be more interested in what these letters say to us personally and to the churches we attend.

2:1 "Angel" - 1:20.

"Ephesus" - Acts 18:19,14; 19:1-20; Eph 1:1.

"Write" - the Lord Jesus told John exactly what he must write to each of the churches - vs 8,12,18; 3:1,7,14. John did not fabricate any of it. He wrote to the "angel" of the church but the message was for the whole church.

"Stars. . .lampstands" - 1:12,16,20.

2:2 "I know" - the Lord says the same to each church. Compare Ps 33:13-15; 139:1-4; Prov 5:21; Jer 16:17; 23:24; Heb 4:13. He knows all about us as individuals and as churches, and stands ready either to give blessing or chastisement.

"Cannot endure those who are evil" - compare Ps 101:3-5; 1 Cor 5:13. They followed the apostle Paul's instructions in Eph 5:5-7 and refused to compromise with evil and evil people.

"Tested" - compare 1 John 4:1; 1 Thess 5:21; 1 Cor 14:29. This is very important today also.

"Liars" - Matt 7:15-20; 2 Cor 11:13-15; 2 Pet 2:1. In Acts 20:28-31 Paul had warned the elders of the Ephesian church against who are evil, and that you have tested those who say they are apostles, and are not, and have found them liars, 3 and that you have persevered, and have had patience, and for my name's sake have laboured, and have not fainted.

4 "Nevertheless I have against you that you have left your first love. 5 Therefore remember from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the first works. Or else I will come to you quickly, such people.

2:3 "Laboured" - v 2 - this second reference to their hard work indicates that they were very active in the Lord's service, toiling for His "name's sake." Paul had set an example of this when he was among them - Acts 20:19,20,31,34; and he had written to them to "redeem the time" (Eph 5:16). Evidently all this they had put into practice and had strength to continue without fainting or growing weary of it.

2:4 "Against you" - in some ways they were an ideal church, hardworking, persevering, careful about evil men and evil doctrine. But they were failing in the most important matter of all - love. See 1 Cor 13:1-3,13; Matt 22:37-40. The Lord does not say they had no love at all. The meaning is that they didn't have as much as they had at their beginning as a church. Evidently they had gotten away from Paul's words to them in Eph 3:16-19.

2:5 "Fallen" - losing one's first love is sin, and no small sin at that. It is a fall in the most important of all things. If there is no sin there is no need of repentance.

"Repent" - vs 16,22; 3:3,19. Jesus began His ministry on earth with this word (Matt 4:17). He continues with it in His present ministry to His people. Here it encourages us to believe that first love once lost may be regained. Notes on repentance at Matt 3:2; etc.

"Unless" - a church or an individual who will not obey Christ's command to repent is heading for judgment. Let us understand that when love begins to go everything God values in a church begins to go with it.

"I will. . .remove" - this means either that they would cease to be a church or that He would have nothing more to do with them as a church.

2:6 "Nicolaitans" - v 15. The Bible says nothing about what these people believed and taught, but there seems to be two possible interpretations. Some have taught that they were followers of a man named Nikolaus who, after professing to adopt Christianity, became a heretic and the leader of an immoral sect. Others have taught that we should look at the meaning of the word Nicolaitans itself to understand who they were. The name could have been derived from two Greek words - nikan, which means to conquer, and laos, which means the people. Thus the Nicolaitans would be a class of people arising in the church who tried to gain power and lord it over God's and will remove your lampstand out of its place, unless you repent. 6 But this you have in your favor: You hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give the right to eat of the tree of life, which is in the middle of the paradise of God.

8 "And to the angel of the church in Smyrna flock. Perhaps they indicate the beginning of a priestly class that eventually came to dominate many of the churches, and still retains its hold over much of Christianity. Whoever the Nicolaitans were, we may be sure that both their practices and teachings were contrary to the Word of God and hateful to the Lord Jesus.

2:7 "Let him hear" - Matt 11:15; 13:9,43. This word is given to each of the seven churches, and so to all churches and individuals today also.

"The Spirit" - Jesus spoke to John through God's Spirit and John, filled with the Spirit, wrote these words down.

"Overcomes" - there is a promise to overcomers in each of these letters to the churches. On overcoming see Matt 16:18; Luke 10:19; John 16:33; Rom 8:37; 1 John 2:13,14; 4:4; 5:4,5; Rev 21:7. The word means getting the victory over opposing forces (such as we see in Eph 6:10-18). This does not mean that overcomers never fail, never sin (see notes at Ps 37:24; Prov 24:16; Matt 6:12; etc). Overcoming is consistent with such experiences as Rom 7:18-25; 2 Cor 4:7-12; James 3:2; 1 John 1:8,9; etc.

Overcoming means to go on believing in Christ to the end of life, regardless of difficulties, trials, hardships, temptations and persecutions, regardless of what the world, the flesh and the devil can throw against us. Overcomers go on in faith and give evidence in their lives that they do so (compare Luke 22:32; Heb 10:39; Jam 2:14-17; 1 Pet 1:5; etc). They overcome because greater is the one who is in them than the one who is in the world (1 John 4:4). The Spirit of the great Overcomer, Christ Himself, is in them, and God has put within them a powerful conquering force - faith (Heb 10:39 - 11:1).

"Tree of life" - compare Gen 2:9; 3:22-24. God then barred sinful people from the tree of life. At last sinners forgiven and overcoming will enter into eternal life. What man lost by sinning he can have through Christ. Christ was nailed to a tree of death (Acts 5:30; Gal 3:13; 1 Pet 2:24) that we might eat of the tree of life. This tree is for those who believe in Christ and persevere in believing - on perseverance in faith see Col 1:23; Heb 3:6,14; 6:12; 10:38,39.

"Paradise" - see Luke 23:43; 2 Cor 12:4.

2:8 "Angel" - 1:20.

"Smyrna" - a city about 60 kilometers write: The First and the Last, who was dead and has come to life again, says these things:

9 "I know your works and tribulation and poverty (but you are rich). And I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear none of those things which you are going to suffer. See, the devil will cast some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful even to death, and I will give you the crown of life.

11 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.

north of Ephesus and famous then for its beauty. In present-day Turkey it is called Izmir.

"First and the Last" - 1:17.

"Has come to life again" - 1:18; Matt 28:1-10.

2:9 "I know" - v 2.

"Tribulation" - the people of Smyrna, and the large community of Jews there persecuted the Christians. Though the city was beautiful its citizens were ugly in their behavior toward God's people.

"Poverty" - it would seem from this that the Christians for the most part were from the poorest classes of society (some may have willingly become poor to follow Christ). Compare Jam 2:5; Luke 6:20-22; 14:33.

"But you are rich" - 1 Cor 3:21-23; 2 Cor 8:9; Eph 1:3 - poor in material things, rich in spiritual things.

"Who say they are Jews and are not" - compare Rom 2:28,29; Phil 3:2,3.

"Synagogue of Satan" - 3:9. They no doubt thought they were a synagogue of God. For one reason why people can be so grossly deceived see Jer 17:9. Notes on Satan at 12:9; 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44; etc.

2:10 "Fear none of those things" - compare Matt 10:26-28,31; Luke 12:32; John 14:27; 16:33; Heb 13:5,6; Rom 8:28.

"Tested" - the devil intended to persecute and crush them; God meant it as a test. Compare Ps 66:10-12; 1 Thess 2:4; 1 Pet 1:6,7; 2 Pet 2:9; Jam 1:2,3.

"Ten days" - God knows exactly how long to permit any test to continue and He will not ask us to endure more than we are able.

"Be faithful" - continue to trust Christ in the midst of persecution and trial and do not deny Him.

"Crown of life" - Jam 1:12. Note on "crown" at 2 Tim 4:8.

2:11 "Hear" - v 7.

"He who overcomes" - v 7.

"Second death" - 20:6,14; 21:8. This means final separation from God. Compare 2 Thess 1:8,9.

2:12 "Angel" - 1:20.

"Pergamos" - or Pergamum - a famous city in those days, about 160 kilometers north of Ephesus.

12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write: He who has the sharp sword with two edges says these things:

13 "I know your works and where you live: where Satan's throne is. And you hold fast to my name, and have not denied my faith, even in those days when Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan lives.

14 "However I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak how to cause the children of Israel to stumble, to have them eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication. 15 Also you have those who hold the "Sword" - 1:16. Introducing Himself to this church in this way indicates that there was much there that He opposed.

2:13 "I know" - v 2.

"Where Satan's throne is" - Satan's throne is not in hell but on earth. Compare John 12:31; 14:30; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 6:12; 1 Pet 5:8; 1 John 5:19. At that time he made Pergamum his headquarters, the center of his operations. Doubtless it is somewhere else now. Pergamum has completely lost the importance it had in those days. Then it was the center in Asia for the worship of the Roman emperor. It was also very near the center of the wonderful work God accomplished in the first century, being nearly equidistant from Rome and Jerusalem and close to the churches founded by Paul and others in Asia Minor, Macedonia and Greece.

"Have not denied my faith" - they continued to confess Christ as Lord and Saviour in the place that was the center of opposition to Him. This required much spiritual strength - Eph 6:10.

"Antipas" - one of the first martyrs for Christ in the province of Asia. Satan tried to destroy the church in Pergamum by persecution.

"Faithful martyr" or "witness" - compare 1:5. It was Christ the faithful witness working in him that made him one too.

"Where Satan lives" - what a world this must be when the devil himself feels at home in it. The people of Pergamum must have given him an especially wholehearted reception.

2:14 "Against you" - v 4. Christ first commends His people for the good He sees and only then speaks of their failures.

"Balaam" - Num 25:1-3; 31:16; 2 Pet 2:15; Jude 11.

"Balak" - Num 22:1-6. The two things the Lord points out here troubled the church in Corinth also. See 1 Cor 5:1,2; 6:9; 8:1-13. See also Acts 15:20,29. Satan, not being able to destroy the church by persecution from without, tried the way of corrupting it from within. And this was a greater danger.

2:15 "Nicolaitans" - compare v 6. Practices have a way of becoming teachings.

doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. 16 Repent! Or else I will come to you quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, known to no man except he who receives it.

18 "And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: The Son of God, whose eyes are like a flame of fire, and whose feet are like fine bronze, says these things:

19 "I know your works, and love, and service, and faith, and your patience, and your works, and that the last are more than the first.

2:16 "Repent" - v 5.

"Fight" - compare Jer 21:5. We must be careful in matters of teaching and doctrine or we may find the Lord Himself at war with us.

2:17 "Hear. . .overcomes" - v 7.

"The hidden manna" - Christ Himself. Compare Ex 16:14-16,31; John 6:35, 48-51. It is hidden from the world.

"White stone" - in those days sometimes white stones were used like tickets to festivals. This may be the meaning here - admission to the marriage supper of the Lamb (19:9).

"New name" - a name Christ gives to an individual will indicate exactly what he or she is. Compare Gen 17:5; 32:28.

2:18 "Angel" - 1:20.

"Thyatira" - a town about 70 kilometers ESE of Pergamum.

"Son of God" - notes at Matt 1:18; 3:16; John 1:14; 3:16; 5:18,19; etc.

"Fire. . .bronze" - 1:14,15.

2:19 "I know" - v 2.

"Love. . .faith" - note at Gal 5:6.

"The last are more than the first" - they were not like many churches where zeal and service for Christ decrease with passing time.

2:20 "Against you" - vs 4,14.

"You permit" - compare v 2. Toleration of evil and evil people in the church is a very serious matter indeed. It brings the church into opposition to Christ.

"Jezebel" - the literal Jezebel was one of the most wicked women in Bible history. See 1 Kings 16:30-33; 18:4; 19:1,2; 21:1-23; 2 Kings 9:7,10,22,30-37. In the church at Thyatira an equally wicked woman called herself a follower of Christ and God's prophetess, pretending that she got messages from God. What she taught was similar to "the teachings of Balaam" in the Pergamum Church - v 14.

2:21 "Time to repent" - Rom 2:4; 2 Pet 3:9. "She did not" - 9:20; 16:9,11; Matt 23:37.

2:22 Refusal to repent will always bring God's

20 "However, I have a few things against you, because you permit that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 And I gave her time to repent of her fornication, and she did not repent. 22 Look, I will cast her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their deeds. 23 And I will kill her children with death, and all the churches will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to every one of you according to your works. 24 But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, to as many as do not hold this doctrine, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say: I will put on you no other burden. 25 But punishment, now or later.

"Adultery" - this may mean either literal or figurative adultery (unfaithfulness to God - compare Jer 2:2; 3:6-9; Ezek 23:37; Hos 1:2; 4:15), or it may mean both.

2:23 "Her children" - those who followed her teaching.

"Death" - in the law of Moses this was the penalty of both kinds of adultery (Lev 20:10; Deut 22:22-24; Ezek 16:38-40; 23:46-49). By sending punishment on evil-doers in a church God means for other churches to learn some important truths.

"Searches the hearts and minds" - 1 Sam 16:7; 1 Kings 8:39; Ps 139:1,2; Prov 24:12; Jer 17:10; Heb 4:13.

"According to your works" - 18:6; 20:12,13; 22:12; Matt 16:27; Rom 2:6.

2:24 "Depths of Satan" - since this Jezebel called herself a prophetess she no doubt tried to pass her teaching off as God's deep secrets. But she was a servant of Satan (compare 2 Cor 11:14,15). There was a teaching in the first century that one could learn Satan's secrets by doing evil and so gain the experiences needed to defeat him. This was turning the truth completely upside down - we can never defeat Satan by giving in to Satan or conquer sin by sinning, or overcome the world by indulging in worldly things. If we try that method we become slaves not overcomers. But is it possible that people can accept teachings from Satan and think they are teachings from God? Yes, indeed. We see it everywhere.

2:25 Christ did not demand too much of this church or lay heavy burdens on them. (Compare Matt 11:29,30.) It was enough for them to hold to the truth they had heard from God's true servants and refuse the teachings of false prophets. Compare John 8:31,32; 1 Cor 15:2; 2 Thess 2:15; 1 Tim 3:9; Titus 1:9; Heb 4:14.

"Until I come" - the literal church at Thyatira would not be in existence at Christ's second coming, but see the note at 1:20. That which Thyatira represented will be on earth when Christ comes.

hold on to what you already have until I come.

26 "And he who overcomes and keeps my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations; 27 and he will rule them with a rod of iron. Like the vessels of a potter they will be broken to pieces. This I have received from my Father. 28 And I will give him the morning star.

29 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

3 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars, says these things:

"I know your works, and that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. 2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, which are about to die, for I have not found your works complete before God. 3 Remember, therefore, how you have received and heard, and hold it firmly,

2:26,27 "Overcomes" - note at v 7.

"To the end" - compare Matt 24:13; Heb 3:6,14; 6:11; 2 Tim 2:12. Perseverance in faith and service is of the utmost importance.

"He will rule them" - this is the same promise God the Father gave to Christ in Ps 2:8,9. Overcomers are united to Christ. They share His sufferings now, but will reign with Him after He comes - 3:21; 20:4,6; 2 Tim 2:12.

"I have received from my Father" - Matt 28:18; John 3:35; 17:2.

2:28 "Morning star" - Christ Himself. See 22:16.

2:29 Verse 7.

3:1 "Angel" - 1:20.

"Sardis" - a famous and wealthy city about 50 kilometers south of Thyatira.

"Seven spirits" - 1:4.

"Seven stars" - 1:16,20.

"I know" - 2:2.

"You are dead" - spiritually dead. The reputation they had for being a living church was probably based on the previous generation of believers. Or, perhaps, on much religious activity. People sometimes mistake church activity for spiritual life.

3:2 "Be watchful" - compare Eph 5:14. They were spiritually sleepy and unaware of their true condition.

"Strengthen. . .remains" - the church was not yet in a completely hopeless condition, but even what they had of truth and light was about to die among them.

3:3 "Remember" - 2:5.

"Received and heard" - the Word of God.

"Hold it fast" - it seems it was about to slip away from them - or they from it. Compare Heb 2:1. The truth must be valued, held on to, and obeyed. Otherwise the church would sink further into death. Once truth is gone, everything is gone.

"Repent" - 2:5,16,21.

"A thief" - compare Matt 24:43,44; 1 Thess 5:2-4.

and repent. But if you will not watch, I will come on you like a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come on you.

4 "You have a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their clothes, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. 5 He who overcomes will be clothed in white clothing, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name in the presence of my Father and in the presence of his angels. 6 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

7 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: He who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, he who opens and no man can shut and shuts and no man can open, says these things:

8 "I know your works. Look, I have set before you an open door, and no man can shut it, for you have a little strength, and have kept my word, and

3:4 "Few" - often even in dead churches some are spiritually alive and follow holiness (Heb 12:14; 1 John 3:3).

"White" - v 18; 4:4; 6:11; 7:9,13; 19:14.

"Worthy" - 2 Thess 1:5.

3:5 "He who overcomes" - note at 2:7.

"Book of life" - 13:8; 17:8; 20:12,15; 21:27; Phil 4:3. Compare Ex 32:32,33; Ps 69:28; Dan 12:1. The Lord Jesus here is not threatening to blot anyone out of this book, but promising He will never blot out the names of true believers.

"I will confess" - Matt 10:32.

3:6 2:7.

3:7 "Angel" - 1:20.

"Philadelphia" - a city about 50 kilometers southeast of Sardis. The name means "brotherly love."

"Holy. . .true" - 6:10; 15:4; Isa 1:4; Ps 31:5; John 14:6.

"The key of David" - Isa 22:22. Christ is the manager of God's house, God's kingdom, the treasurer who has the key to the storehouse of wisdom and grace and spiritual gifts and power.

"Shut. . .open" - Christ has absolute authority in the affairs of churches and nations. Compare Matt 28:18; John 17:2. He can open or shut doors anywhere in the world, and does so in perfect wisdom.

3:8 "I know" - 2:2.

"An open door" - Acts 14:27; 1 Cor 16:9.

"A little strength" - compare Eph 1:18,19; 6:10; Col 1:11. Evidently they could have had much more than they did have.

"Kept my word" - this is what the Christians at Sardis were urged to do - v 3.

"Not denied my name" - 2:13. From this we judge that holding fast the word of the Lord Jesus and not denying His name requires only a "little" spiritual strength. If there is any real spiritual life at all there will be this much strength. Think then what believers may do if they are "strengthened with all power" (Col 1:11; Eph 3:16).

have not denied my name. 9 Look, I will make those who are of the synagogue of Satan – who say they are Jews and are not, but lie – look, I will cause them to come and show reverence at your feet and to know that I have loved you. 10 Because you have kept my word about patient endurance, I will also keep you from the hour of trial which will come upon the whole world, to test those who live on the earth.

11 "Look, I am coming quickly. Hold on to what you have, so that no man takes your crown. 12 Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never go out. And I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God. And I will write on him my new name. 13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

14 "And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write: The Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God says these things:

15 "I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either cold or hot. 16 So then, because you are lukewarm, neither cold nor hot, I will spit you out of my mouth. 17 Because you say, 'I am rich, and have many

3:9 "Synagogue of Satan" – 2:9.

"Lie" – they were Jews by physical descent, but their lives were a denial of all that God wanted Jews to be, so they were living a lie (compare Rom 2:28,29).

"At your feet" – compare Isa 45:14; 49:23; 60:14.

"I have loved you" – a special love for a church that was special in His eyes. Compare John 14:21,23.

3:10 "Patient endurance" – Rom 12:12; 2 Thess 3:5; 1 Pet 2:20,21.

"Keep you from" – in Greek this may mean to keep them altogether away from the presence of the coming trial, or it may mean to keep them safe even though the trial is going on around them.

"The hour of trial" – this may have a double reference – to a trial coming in the time of the early churches, and to a trial at the end of this age (possibly to the time of great tribulation spoken of in 7:14 and Matt 24:21. See also Dan 12:1). In this case, the promise of keeping believers from that hour would also refer to both times. During the time of persecution and tribulation which came on the early churches, certainly the church at Philadelphia was not removed from the earth in fulfillment of this promise. Instead, it was preserved during that time. Should we think that the promise of Jesus would be fulfilled in one manner then, and in an altogether different manner at the end of this age?

3:11 "Quickly" – 1:1,3; 22:7,12,20.

"Hold on to what you have" – 2:25.

"Your crown" – probably refers here to rewards for faithful service. Compare 2:10; 1 Cor 9:24-27; Phil 4:1; 2 Tim 2:5; 4:8; Jam 1:12; 1 Pet 5:4; 2 John 8.

3:12 "Him who overcomes" – 2:7.

"Pillar" – every believer is a part of the spiritual temple God is now building (Eph 2:19-22; 1 Cor 3:17; 6:19). Being a "pillar" signifies an important and permanent place in this temple.

"Name" – 2:17. Overcomers will have three names written on them.

"God" – God's holy character will be stamped on them, the mark of God's ownership. They will have a nature fully in tune with God's nature.

"City" – 21:2-27. Overcomers will be perfectly fitted to live in that bright, shining, golden, glorious place.

"My new name" – compare 19:12. We do not know what this new name may be, what unknown wonders about Him we shall afterwards see.

3:13 See 2:7.

3:14 "Angel" – 1:20.

Laodicea was a city about 80 kilometers southeast of Philadelphia, and about 150 kms due east of Ephesus.

"The Amen" – 1:7. The word here means truth, faithfulness, trustworthiness. In Isa 65:16 it is used of God (in Hebrew there it is "the God of amen." It means the God who will do exactly as He says he will do).

"Witness" – 1:5.

"Beginning" – this does not mean that He was the first one whom God created. He was one of the Trinity and so was never created at all. The Greek word here means the one through whom creation came into existence, the source, the origin of creation. Compare John 1:3; Col 1:16,17.

3:15,16 "I know" – 2:2.

"Cold" – spiritually cold. Here it probably means utter rejection of the gospel of Christ or even open opposition to it. "Hot" means love for the gospel and fervent zeal for Christ.

"Lukewarm" – means not being either much for the gospel or against it, but a form of godliness lacking its power (2 Tim 3:5), no heart for Christ but not wanting to abandon the Christian religion altogether. It is the opposite of Rom 12:11; 1 Cor 15:58. This is a spiritual condition that disgusts Christ, the one consumed with zeal for God (John 2:17).

"I will spit you out" – if they will not repent (v 19), He will have nothing more to do with them; they will cease to be a church in the true sense of the word (though they may continue to have their meetings, ceremonies, etc). It is surely possible for churches who have been spit out of the mouth of Christ to carry on more or less as before as if nothing has happened!

3:17 What a contrast between Christ's view of those Christians and their thoughts about themselves! Their condition disgusted Him; possessions, and need nothing,' and do not know that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked. 18 I counsel you to buy from me gold tried in the fire, so that you can be rich; and white clothing, so that you can be covered and that the shame of your nakedness does not appear. And anoint your eyes with ointment, so that you can see.

19 "All those I love I rebuke and discipline. Be zealous, therefore, and repent. 20 See, I stand at the door, and knock. If anyone hears my voice, and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will eat with him, and he with me.

it was a source of satisfaction and pride to them. Compare Luke 16:15.

"And need nothing"-compare Hosea 12:8; Luke 18:11,12; 1 Cor 4:8.

"Do not know" - how dangerous is self-deception and self-ignorance, and how common they are, both in the world and in the church. The reasons for them? Compare Jer 17:9; 2 Cor 4:4; 2 Thess 2:10; Heb 3:13.

3:18 "Buy" - not with money or good deeds. Compare Isa 55:1; Matt 13:44-46.

"From me" - Jesus is the only source of the things we need for a true spiritual life and a happy eternity. There is no use trying to buy them somewhere else.

"Gold" - here signifies something of great spiritual value, true, divine riches.

"White clothes" - means righteousness (compare Isa 61:10).

"Ointment" - Christ's remedy for spiritual blindness, His power to give spiritual understanding.

3:19 "I love" - their lukewarmness disgusted Him but His loving heart was not changed because of it.

"Discipline" - Heb 12:5-11; 1 Cor 11:32; Prov 3:11,12.

"Repent" - Jesus appeals to five of these seven churches to repent (2:5,16,21,22; 3:3). Does this not suggest to us that a great many churches in our times also need to repent?

3:20 The church there as a whole had shut Christ out, and He had to knock to get into the hearts of any of its members. This indicates that the whole membership was in unbelief (compare 2 Cor 13:5).

"I stand" - who is this "I"? See in v 14 how He presents himself to this church: As the source of the whole creation, the one whose word is absolutely sure, the one of supreme authority. The picture we sometimes get of a meek Saviour standing there is not at all true to the context, though He is the Saviour as well as the universal Sovereign. (See the note at Acts 22:10).

"I will come in" - this is a promise from the Lord of glory who cannot lie. Let us all believe it, receive Him, and become the children of God in truth (John 1:12,13). Christ in the heart is all we need to have eternal life and begin a truly spiritual walk

21 "To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with me on my throne, just as I also overcame, and have sat down with my Father on his throne. 22 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

4 After these things I looked, and saw a door opened in heaven, and the voice which I first heard speaking to me was like a trumpet which said, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after these things." 2 And immediately I was in the Spirit, and saw that a throne was set in heaven, and one sitting on the with God. To keep Him shut out of our hearts is all we need to do to perish forever.

3:21 "Him who overcomes" - 2:7.

"Sit with me" - means to share His authority and rule - 2:26,27.

"My throne" - 5:10; 20:4,6; 2 Tim 2:12.

"I also overcame" - 5:5; Heb 2:17; 4:15; 12:2,3; Matt 4:1-10.

"His throne" - God's eternal throne. Jesus' throne is different (Luke 1:32,33). He has not yet ascended it - 2:7; Matt 19:28; 25:31.

4:1 "Door open" - suggests God is about to reveal more of heaven's secret truth to John.

"Saw" - the Greek word literally means "behold", "see", "look." See notes at Gen 1:31; Matt 1:23.

"Trumpet" - 1:10 - loud, piercing, clear.

"Come up here" - some commentators teach that John here going up to heaven symbolizes the Rapture of the Church (1 Thess 4:16,17). Unlikely as this seems to many students of God's Word, this may possibly be true. But there is no real proof for it. And we should all be careful not to teach dogmatically something lacking in real proof. In chapters 10 and 11 John is once more on earth (10:1,4,7,9,10; 11:1-3), yet who suggests he represents the Church returned from heaven? Some commentators say also that in the visions which follow, the Church is not mentioned by name as being on earth and so it must be in heaven. But it is also true that in the visions which follow, the Church is not mentioned by name as being in heaven. Should we therefore reason that it must be on earth? One argument is as good as the other.

"Things. . .after these things" - 1:19 - probably means what will occur after conditions in the churches of chapters 2 and 3 run their full course, or reach their full development at the end of this age.

4:2 "In the Spirit" - 1:10.

"Throne. . .in heaven" - 1 Kings 22:19; Ps 9:4; 47:2; 123:1. God reigns over the universe, and all the events in this book are under His control and He is working out His purposes through them. See 19:6. God's throne is referred to 40 times in this book. We may call it the central fact of the Revelation.

throne. 3 And he who sat there in appearance was like a jasper and a sardius stone. And there was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance. 4 And around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white clothing, and they had crowns of gold on their heads. 5 And from the throne came lightning flashes and thunderings and voices. And seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 Also before the throne there was a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the central area of the throne and around the throne, were four living beings full of eyes in front and in back. 7 And the first living being was like a lion, and the second living being was like a calf, and the third living being had a face like a man, and the fourth living being was like a flying eagle. 8 And the four living beings each had six wings. All around and on the inside of the wings they were full of eyes. And they do not

4:3 "In appearance" - no one has seen God in His spiritual essence (John 1:18; 1 Tim 6:16). John saw only an appearance of His splendor reflected as in precious gems. The Greek word here translated jasper indicates a gem clear as a diamond (2:11). The sardius (or carnelian) is red.

"Rainbow" - suggests God's glory and faithfulness (Gen 9:13-16; Ezek 1:28).

4:4 "Elders" - vs 9-11; 5:5; 8-10; 7:11-14; 11:16; 14:3; 19:4. It seems they are different both from ordinary angels (7:11), and from God's people in heaven (5:8-10; 7:9-11,13,14; 19:4-7). But they could possibly be special angels in an exalted position in heaven (compare Eph 1:21; 3:10; Col 1:16; 2:10). It seems unlikely to the author of these notes that they represent the church already rewarded and reigning in heaven before John gets there, and before the seventh trumpet sounds (11:15-18; 1 Cor 15:52). The saved people of 7:9 are not on thrones but are "standing before the throne." And can we think the bride of Christ, the Church, sits enthroned in heaven before the wedding of the Lamb occurs (19:7,8), or before Christ takes His own throne at His return?

4:5 "Lightning. . .thunderings" - 8:5; 11:19; 16:18. Compare Ex 19:16-19; 1 Sam 2:20; Job 36:29,30; Ps 18:12,13; 29:3; 77:18.

"Seven Spirits" - 1:4.

4:6 "Sea of glass" - 15:2. Compare 2 Chron 4:2,6,10. In Solomon's temple the "sea" was for the priests to wash in. In heaven there is a temple - 7:15; 11:19; 14:15,17; etc. But there is no need for anyone to wash in that "sea" for all people there have already been washed from all sin and defilement (1:5; 1 John 1:9; Heb 10:19-20). So the "sea" in heaven is solid.

"Four living beings" - compare Ezek 1:5-14; 10:20; Isa 6:2,3. See also Gen 3:24. Evidently these "beings" are similar to rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come."

9 And when those living beings give glory and honour and thanks to him who sits on the throne, who lives for ever and ever, 10 the twenty-four elders prostrate themselves before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 "You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power, for you have created all things, and for your pleasure they exist and were created."

5 And I saw in the right hand of the one sitting on the throne a scroll written inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals. 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll, and to break its seals?" 3 And no one in heaven, or on earth, or under the earth, was able to open the scroll, or even to look cherubim and seraphim. There is speculation, but no proof, that they represent the Church in heaven. The above references are not in harmony with such a view.

"Full of eyes" - see Ezek 1:18; 10:12. Probably speaks of great intelligence and great watchfulness.

4:7 "Lion. . .eagle" - see Ezek 1:10.

4:8 "Six wings. . .holy, holy" - Isa 6:2,3.

"Is to come" - 1:4.

4:9 "Give glory and honour and thanks" - 5:12,13. This is what believers now on earth may also do, should do, and will do, if they are in tune with heaven (1:6; John 5:23; Rom 11:36; 16:27; 1 Cor 6:20; 10:31; Eph 1:12; 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18; 1 Tim 1:7; 6:16; Heb 13:15).

"Who lives forever and ever" - 1:18.

4:10 "Cast their crowns" - they thus humbly acknowledge that all their authority and the power associated with their thrones come from God the supreme authority.

4:11 They praise God as the Creator of the universe (10:6; Gen 1:1; Job 38:4-7; Ps 19:1; Isa 40:25,26; Acts 14:15; 17:24-28; Rom 11:36).

"For your pleasure" - or "because of your will" - the Greek word translated "pleasure" is usually translated "will" or "desire."

5:1 "The one. . .on the throne" - God the Father.

"A scroll" - writing material rolled up like a roll of paper. The Jews used scrolls in their synagogues - Luke 4:17; Heb 10:7.

"Seven seals" - means perfectly secure, completely sealed up.

5:2 "Angel" - one of about 80 references in this book to heavenly angels.

"Who is worthy" - breaking the seals of this scroll and opening it to view was not a matter of strength or power, but of worthiness.

5:3 "No one" - not Abraham, friend of God; not Moses, the mighty lawgiver; not David, king of Israel; not any of the prophets; not at it. 4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and read the scroll, or even to look at it. 5 And one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the book, and to break its seven seals."

6 And I looked, and there in the centre of the throne and of the four living beings, and in the middle of the elders, stood a Lamb appearing as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. 7 And he came and took the scroll out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. 8 And when he had taken the scroll, the four living beings and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each of them having a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

9 And they sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the scroll, and to open its seals, for you were slain, and have redeemed us to God by your blood out of every tribe, and language, and any of the elders or living creatures or angels in heaven. All in heaven and on earth and anywhere in the universe had to confess their unworthiness to break the seals. No one dared approach the throne to take the scroll.

5:4 Evidently John realized something of the importance of this scroll and longed to see what was in it.

5:5 "Lion of the tribe of Judah" – a title of Christ. Compare Gen 49:8-10. It speaks of His royalty, His right to the throne of David (Luke 1:32,33).

"Root of David" – see Isa 11:10; 53:2; Rom 15:12 (Jesse was David's father).

"Has prevailed" – the same verb in Greek as in 3:21.

"Prevailed to break its seven seals" – because He has demonstrated His worthiness (v 9).

5:6 "In the center of the throne" – the Lord Jesus is at the very center of sovereign rule in the universe. He has authority over the whole earth (1:5; Matt 28:18; John 17:2).

"Lamb" – the kingly Lion of v 5 is also a Lamb (John 1:29,35). One symbol cannot signify all that Christ is.

"Slain" – Isa 53:7,8; Matt 27:35,50; John 20:25-27; Acts 2:23; 3:15. The words "appearing like" suggests that the scars of His wounds were visible. Compare John 20:25-27.

"Seven horns" – in the Old Testament horns are sometimes a symbol of power, strength, or authority (Deut 33:17; Ps 89:17; Zech 1:18,19). Seven horns signify that Christ has these to perfection. Literal lambs are very weak and completely lacking in power and authority. But not this Lamb who is also a Lion.

"Seven eyes" – Zech 4:7.

"Seven Spirits" – notes at 1:4. The seven spirits are both before God's throne (4:5) and in all the earth. The Holy Spirit, being God, can be in more than one place at the same time. Christ has the "seven spirits" – that is, He has the Spirit of God in the fullest possible measure (compare John 3:34). In fact God's Spirit is the Spirit of Christ. See Rom 8:9.

5:7 This is one of the greatest moments in the Bible. John is weeping. Silence reigns in heaven for no worthy person is found to open the scroll. The whole world waits to see what will happen. Then the Lamb, meek and lowly, comes with full confidence to that brilliantly shining omnipotent One on the throne, reaches out and takes the scroll from His right hand. And immediately heaven is filled with praise.

5:8 "Fell down before the Lamb" – this is an attitude of worship. In heaven, in the presence of God the Father, worship is offered to Jesus (compare Heb 1:6). This would be impossible if Jesus is not the incarnation of God, if He did not share the divine nature. Throughout the Bible God forbids the worship of anything or anyone but Himself. See Ex 20:3-5; Deut 6:13; Matt 4:10. They know in heaven what many on earth have not yet learned – the truth of John 5:23 (see other references to Christ's deity at Phil 2:6.

"Harp" – 14:2; 15:2.

"Incense" – Ex 30:1,7,34-38; Ps 141:2.

"Prayers" – the prayers of His people are sweet-smelling to God and they are kept in heaven and offered to Him (8:3). The mention of them here indicates something of their importance in regard to the opening of the seven-sealed book.

5:9 "A new song" – 14:3; Ps 33:3; 40:3; 96:1; 144:9; 149:1; Isa 42:10.

"You are worthy. . . for you were slain" – see why the Lord Jesus alone is worthy to open the scroll. It is because He gave Himself as a blood sacrifice to take away our sins. See 1:5; Matt 26:28. No one else ever did this, and no one else ever could have done it (see note at Heb 10:4).

"Redeemed" – it is perfectly true that Christ has redeemed His people – Gal 3:13; 4:5; Eph 1:17. But here the literal meaning of the Greek word is "bought" or "purchased." Compare Acts 20:28; 1 Cor 6:20.

"Us" – some Greek manuscripts (and what a many of even evangelical scholars consider the best manuscripts) do not have the word for "us" here. The NASB adds the word "men" in italics, indicating that the word is not in the original. Other translators prefer to add the word "some" in italics. If John actually wrote the word for "us" in this phrase, this would mean that the elders (and the living beings), unlikely as other evidence makes this, are redeemed men (see note at 4:4). But even if this were so, it would not necessarily mean that the resurrection of believers had already taken place at the time this vision points to; they could be representatives of the spirits of believers who have died and gone to heaven (2 Cor 5:8; Phil 1:23; Heb 12:22-24).

people, and nation, 10 and have made us kings and priests to our God; and we will reign on the earth."

11 And I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living beings and the elders. Their number was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands. 12 They were saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise."

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and those who are in the sea, and everything that is in them, I heard saying, "Praise, and honour, and glory, and power, be to him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb for ever and ever."

14 And the four living beings said, "Amen." And the twenty-four elders prostrated themselves and worshipped him who lives for ever and ever.

6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living

"Tribe. . . nation" - 7:9; Matt 28:19; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:47. The gospel of Christ is for all peoples and will bear fruit among all. 5:10 "Made us kings and priests to our God; and we will reign" - according to some Greek manuscripts "made them kings and priests to our God and they will reign."

"On the earth" - 3:21; 20:4,6; 2 Tim 2:12; Matt 19:28; Luke 22:29,30.

5:12 "Slain" - v 9. The death of Christ for sinners is a matter for great praise in heaven.

"Power. . . praise" - compare 4:11; 5:12; John 5:23. Jesus is just as worthy as God the Father of having these ascribed to Him. 5:13,14 It is clear again that God the Father and the Lord Jesus are equally worthy of the praise and worship of every created being in the universe.

6:1 "Seven seals" - the scroll (5:1) was sealed in such a way that as a seal was broken a part of the scroll could be unrolled. The scroll contained what we have in the following chapters of this book. The scroll that John longed to see opened, that caused great praise and rejoicing in heaven, is now open before us. Among the Jews title deeds to property were sealed documents (see Jer 32:9-14), and the sealed scroll in this book may represent Christ's title deed to the earth, His right to possess it and reign over it (see notes at Lev 25:24-31; Ruth 2:20; Jer 32:11). At the end of this age, He will come to claim His property, His inheritance (Matt 21:38; Heb 1:2,13; 10:13), and share it with His people (Rom 8:17). This Christ does in chapters 19 and 20. Chapters 6-18 give events shortly before the end which lead up to that. Though the seals, trumpets and bowls all reveal disasters to come we beings say in a voice like thunder, "Come and see." 2 And I looked and saw a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. And a crown was given to him, and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second living being say, "Come and see." 4 And there went out another horse, a red one, and he who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and to cause men to kill one another. And a great sword was given to him.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living being say, "Come and see." And I looked and a black horse appeared. And he who sat on it had a pair of balances in his hand. 6 And I heard a voice among the four living beings say, "A measure of wheat for a day's wage, and three measures of barley for a day's wage; and see that you do not damage the oil and the wine."

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living being say, "Come and see." 8 And I looked and a pale horse appeared. And he who sat on it was named Death, and Hades followed along after him. And power should remember it is Christ the Redeemer who is in charge of events.

"Come and see" - vs 3,5,7. John is now permitted to see the things contained in the scroll (and so are we).

6:2 "White horse" - Christ also will come on a "white horse" (19:11), but His coming will be after this event, after all the seals have been opened. When this white horse rides forth Christ is still in heaven opening the seals. The white color probably speaks of someone trying to take Christ's place and claim the earth for himself. Can this be anyone but the great impostor, the antichrist (chapter 13)?

"He who sat on it" - since the other horses and their riders (and all the rest of the seals and the trumpets and bowls) represent coming troubles or disasters, it is very likely that this one does too.

"Bow. . . to conquer" - it appears from this that toward the end of this age there will be a determined effort by someone to conquer the world. "Crown" suggests that he will be successful. Compare 13:7.

6:3,4 Toward the end of this age there will be much warfare (compare Matt 24:6-8). "Take peace from the earth" suggests that the whole world will be caught up in the coming struggle for power.

6:5,6 "Measure" - the Greek word indicates an amount the equivalent of about a liter dry measure.

"Day's wage" - in Greek "denarius" - the pay for a day's work (Matt 20:2; etc). This suggests famine conditions for the common man (Matt 24:7). If his daily wage all goes for a measure of wheat how will he meet other expenses? "Oil and wine" indicate things that are not basic necessities. The rich, as usual, will have plenty of everything.

6:7,8 "Hades" - see notes at Matt 16:18; was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held. 10 And they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, will you refrain from judging those who live on the earth and avenging our blood?" 11 And white robes were given to each one of them, and they were told that they should rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers who would be killed, as they had been, was completed.

12 And I looked when he had opened the sixth seal, and immediately there was a great earthquake, and the sun became as black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood, 13 and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, just as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. 14 And the heaven receded like a scroll when it is rolled up, and all the mountains and islands were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every slave, and every free man hid themselves in the dens and among the rocks of the mountains, 16 and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb! 17 For the great day of his Luke 16:23.

"Fourth part of the earth" – may refer either to a geographical part of the earth or, more likely, to the number of people killed (compare 8:7; 9:18). At the end of this age the powers of darkness will be let loose on earth as perhaps never before.

"Sword. . .beasts" – in Ezek 14:21 these are called God's "four dreadful judgments." They are judgments which have often come to some of the peoples of the earth, but it seems we should look for an even greater working of them at the end of this age.

6:9-11 The scene indicates persecution and martyrdom for Christ's servants, and probably points to the "great tribulation" or "great distress" at the end of this age – 7:17; Matt 24:21.

"The altar" – Ex 27:1-8. Christ's martyrs are like a sacrifice whose lives are poured out (compare Phil 2:17; 2 Tim 4:6; Lev 1:5,11,15).

"Avenging our blood" – while they live on earth Christ's servants are not to pray for vengeance on their enemies. See Matt 5:44; Acts 7:60; Rom 12:14. But the end of this age will be a time when God will rise to take vengeance on the world – 2 Thess 2:6-9; Ps 94:1-3; Deut 32:35; note on God's vengeance at Num 31:1-3. Then the prayers of those who have died will be in harmony with God's just purposes. Observe that the dead are conscious and able to pray.

"White robes" – 3:5,18; 4:4; 7:9,13; 19:14.

"Rest a little longer" – tribulation had come, but not the day of God's vengeance. We see that day coming later in this book – 14:17-20; chapters 15 and 16; 19:11-15.

6:12-17 Compare the changes in sun, moon and stars with Matt 24:29. These are events which will take place after the "great tribulation" Christ spoke of in Matt 24:21. This means that the great tribulation takes place sometime under the opening of the first five seals, before the sixth seal is opened. But these changes in sun, moon and stars take place before the "Day of the Lord." See Acts 2:19,20. Therefore the Day of the Lord is not the same as the great tribulation. The Day of the Lord will bring God's anger and vengeance against the people of the world – vs 10,16,17; 1 Thess 5:2,3; 1 Pet 3:10; Isa 13:6-13; etc. The great tribulation is the anger and persecution Satan and evil men pour on God's people at the end of this age – 12:12; 13:7.

The great tribulation and the Day of the Lord are separated by these unmistakable signs in sun, moon and stars. The one comes before these signs, the other comes after them. It is very important to see this. We should not think that both the great tribulation and the Day of the Lord happen in the exact same period of time, and are the same thing. This is to confuse two things that God has separated. Those who do not distinguish between these two separate periods of time are failing to take into consideration some very important information He has given us about the time of the end. So they will inevitably make mistakes in their interpretation of the Revelation.

6:12 "Earthquake"– Isa 24:19,20; Heb 12:26-28. "Immediately" – literally "Look". 6:15-17 See Isa 2:9-21 which also speaks of the Day of the Lord.

"Wrath of the Lamb" – a lamb is a meek and harmless creature. But this Lamb is the Lion of Judah's tribe (5:5). He is meek (Matt 11:29), but will at last rise up in terrible anger to punish the world for its wickedness. Observe that the wrath of God comes after the signs at the beginning of the Day of the Lord, after the great tribulation is over. If we want our interpretation of the Revelation to be correct it is very important to see this.

"Wrath" – this is God's just anger against sin and unrepentant sinners. See notes at Num 25:3; Deut 4:25; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18; 2:5. This is the wrath that Jesus rescues believers from – 1 Thess 1:10; 5:9.

7:1-17 Before the Lamb opens the seventh seal there is a break in the narrative. Here Christ gives John visions which help to explain what has been going on under the wrath has come, and who will be able to stand?"

7 And after these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, so that wind would not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, who had been given power to harm the earth and the sea, 3 saying, "Do not harm the earth, or the sea, or the trees, until we have put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." 4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed, and a hundred and forty-four thousand from all the tribes of the children of Israel were sealed.

5 Of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand were sealed.

6 Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand were sealed.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand were sealed.

8 Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand were sealed. Of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed.

9 After this I looked and saw a great crowd, which no man could number, of all nations, and tribes, and people, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in opening of the six seals. Such explanatory visions appear in other parts of this book - 7:1-17; 10:1-11:14; 12:1-14:20; 17:1-19:11. It seems clear that the seals, trumpets and bowls carry the main narrative straight to the end in perfect order and sequence. These explanatory visions give added information. They are like explanations given in parentheses or brackets.

This is the view of the author of these notes. Not every scholar agrees with it. In the present portion we see two distinct groups of people, one on earth, the other in heaven. The first group has a limited number, the second has a number so large that a person cannot count it. The first group has to do with events after the six seals have been opened, the second has to do with events which took place under the first five seals. The first are to be protected against judgments to come under the seventh seal. The second group has already come through the "great tribulation" which occurs before the sixth seal is opened.

7:1 "Four winds" - these signify forces of destruction, released by God to punish sinful men. Compare Jer 49:36-38.

7:2,3 God's seal here signifies God's ownership. Compare 2 Cor 1:21,22; Eph 1:13. Seal on the "foreheads" here means to mark them out for protection in the midst of the coming judgments and disasters. Compare Ezek 9:3-6.

7:4-8 The "servants of our God" (v 3) to be sealed at the end of this age with God's seal are of the nation Israel. There are about thirty lists of the tribes of Israel in the Bible, all of them meaning literal Israel up to this list. It would be very strange if only in this one place the names of the tribes would not signify literal Israelites.

It is not clear, however, whether they are called servants here because they will do special service or simply to mark them out in general as believers (compare 1:1; 2:20; 6:11; 10:7; 19:2; 22:3,6. See Rom 6:16-18). It seems quite clear from the Word of God that Israel as a nation will turn back to God at the end of this age. Now, as a nation, they are in unbelief rejecting Christ as their Messiah. But that will change. See Rom 11:11,25-32; Jer 23:5-8; 31:31-37; 32:37-40; Ezek 20:40-44; 37:21-28; Dan 12:1; Hos 3:4,5; Zech 10:10-12; 12:9-14; 13:1,9.

The number 144,000 (v 4) may be a symbolic number indicating completeness. 144 is 12 X 12 X 1000. In the Bible twelve is a number that may signify completeness - twelve tribes of Israel, twelve apostles, twelve gates and twelve foundations and twelve crops of fruit (21:12,14; 22:2). One thousand may be 10 X 10 X 10 - a perfect cube also indicating fullness or completion. Or 144,000 may be used here to indicate a fairly large but limited number of people. Or possibly, as some think, it may be a literal number. In a book containing many symbols we must be very careful not to be dogmatic about doubtful things. If symbols are explained, as they sometimes are, then we can know what they mean. Otherwise, we should be cautious about our statements. Then "may", "perhaps", "possibly" or "might be" seems the language that best suits the case.

7:8 "Joseph" - Manasseh (v 16) was a son of Joseph. Ephraim was his other son. Since Ephraim is not in this list of tribes Joseph must represent Ephraim. The tribe of Dan is not in this list.

7:9 This great multitude is put in contrast with the 144,000 of v 4. Those are from the tribes of Israel; these are from every tribe and nation. Those are comparatively few in number; these are innumerable.

"All nations. . . languages" - 5:9; 10:11; 11:9; 13:7; 14:6; 17:15. This is proof that the gospel will go into every corner of the earth before the end of this age. Compare Matt 24:14.

"Before the throne" - 4:2.

"White robes" - 6:11.

"Palm branches" - Lev 23:40; John 12:13

white robes with palm branches in their hands. 10 And they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

11 And all the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living beings, and they prostrated themselves before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 saying, "Amen. Praise, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power and might be to our God for ever and ever. Amen."

13 And one of the elders responded and said to me, "Who are these who are dressed in white robes? And where did they come from?"

14 And I said to him, "Sir, you know."

- a symbol of rejoicing and praise. 7:10 "Salvation" - 19:1; Ps 3:8; 37:39; 62:1; Isa 43:11; Hos 13:4; Jonah 3:9; Rom 1:16; Eph 2:8,9.

"And to the Lamb" - 5:13; 14:4; 22:1,3. 7:11 "Elders. . .living beings" - 4:4,6-8.

"Prostrated" - 5:8.

7:12 Compare 5:12.

"Thanksgiving" - see Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; Eph 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18.

7:14 "The great tribulation" - see Matt 24:21. The word for "the" is in the Greek here, but for some strange reason the KJV omits it. The tribulation called "the great" is an exceptional time of trouble coming at the end of this age. It will be similar to the troubles believers usually face in the world (John 16:33; Acts 14:22; 1 Thess 3:3,4. The same Greek word translated "tribulation" here in Rev 7:14 is in those verses. Compare also 1 Pet 4:12,13). But the trouble at the end of this age will be more severe, more widespread than ever before (13:7,8). There is no reason here to think that to "come out of" means to be rescued from. Judging from 13:7,15 the way they come out of it is by being put to death for their faith.

"Washed their robes. . .in the blood of the Lamb" - this indicates that their faith is in the gospel of Christ. Compare 1 John 1:7.

7:15 "Serve Him" - see 22:3. Service does not end when believers leave earth for heaven.

"Day and night" - their service will increase in heaven, since sleep is not needed there.

"Temple" - the Greek word here means the inner part of a temple, the Most Holy Place. See Ex 26:31-35; Heb 9:3. This service of believers in the temple shows that they are God's priesthood (1:6; 1 Pet 2:9). Their "sacrifice" of praise (Heb 13:15) will not stop when they get to heaven.

"Will dwell among them" - suggests living together in the closest sort of fellowship, and perfect protection from anything that could ever bring harm (v 16).

And he said to me, "These are those who have come out of the great tribulation, and who have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple. And he who sits on the throne will dwell among them. 16 They will hunger no more and thirst no more; nor will the sun beat down on them, or any excessive heat. 17 For the Lamb who is in the centre of the throne will shepherd them, and will lead them to springs of living waters, and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes."

8 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Compare 21:3; Ex 25:8.

7:16 "Hunger no more and thirst no more" - compare Isa 49:10; John 4:13,14; 6:35,58. Many believers during the great tribulation will suffer literal hunger (13:16,17), as some have throughout this age (1 Cor 4:11; 2 Cor 6:5; 11:27; Luke 6:21). In heaven such things will not exist. "Excessive heat" - compare 16:8.

7:17 "In the centre of the throne" - note at 5:6.

"Shepherd" - this is a more accurate translation of the Greek word than "feed." Christ's work as shepherd will not end when believers get to heaven. He will continue to be their great leader through eternity.

"Lead them" - believers follow Him on earth (John 10:3,4,27) and will follow Him in heaven. Without the one there will not be the other.

"Living waters" - John 4:10; 7:38,39. Believers have been drinking of these now and will not stop drinking them in heaven. Christ, who is the source of their spiritual life here, will be that to them there.

"All tears" - there are many reasons for tears on earth (2 Kings 20:5; Job 16:20; Ps 6:6; 42:3; 56:8; 119:136; 126:5; Jer 9:1; Matt 26:75; Luke 7:38; Acts 20:19,31; Phil 3:18; 2 Tim 1:4). There will be none in heaven - 21:4; Isa 25:8; 35:10.

8:1 "The seventh seal" - in chapter 6 most of the seven-sealed scroll was opened. The last seal is now opened and out of this last part of the scroll come all the seven trumpets and all the seven bowls of wrath. The time of the great tribulation ends before the 6th seal is broken (see the note on 6:12-17). Now in this chapter the trumpets announce the beginning of God's judgments on wicked men at the very end of this age. And under the bowls (chapters 15,16) God's wrath is fully poured out on them.

"Silence" - compare 4:8-11; 5:9-14; 7:10-12. This silence after such continual praise surely indicates that something very significant is about to happen. It is like the silence that comes before a great storm. See Zeph 1:7. The "Day of the Lord", His time to pour out His fierce anger on the

2 And I saw the seven angels who stood before God; and seven trumpets were given to them.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and much incense was given to him that he might offer it, with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the saints, went up out of the angel's hand to the presence of God. 5 And the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar and threw it onto the earth, and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightning flashes, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to blow them.

7 The first angel blew his trumpet, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth; and a third part of trees was burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

8 And the second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and a third part of the sea became blood, 9 and a third part of the creatures world, is very near, and He announces His judgment with a series of trumpets. The troubles which come under the trumpets are not nearly as severe as those under the bowls of wrath. It seems that the trumpet troubles are more like warnings and announcements of further troubles to come. 8:2 "Seven" – this is the number of completeness or perfection.

"Trumpets" – in other places the Bible shows the significance of the sounding of trumpets. See Ex 19:16; Lev 23:13-25; Num 10:1-8,9; Jer 4:19; 1 Kings 1:34,39; 2 Kings 9:13; Josh 6:13-16. So when the seven trumpets are sounded here in this book we may expect to see the following: The manifestation of God's majesty, war, the gathering of the people of God, the appearance of the King, and the overthrow of God's enemies. And all these do appear at the sounding of these trumpets and just afterwards.

8:3-5 "Censer" – a censer was a metal bowl containing hot coals for burning incense (Lev 16:12).

"Incense" – Ex 30:1-9,34-38.

"Prayers of all the saints" – the prayers of God's people have their importance at the opening of the seals (5:8). We see the same thing here at the blowing of the trumpets. It seems that what follows here is an answer to their prayers (especially, perhaps, prayers like 22:20; Matt 6:10; etc). True prayer is very powerful indeed – Jam 5:16 (compare Ps 18:6-9).

"Golden altar" – Ex 30:1-6; Heb 8:5; 9:4.

"Thunderings. . . earthquake" – note at 4:5. The author of these notes believes that the things which appear at the sounding of the trumpets are disasters that will occur very near the end of this age. Symbols and which were living in the sea, died; and a third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a lamp, and it fell upon a third part of the rivers, and upon the springs of waters. 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third part of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from these waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third part of the sun was struck, and a third part of the moon, and a third part of the stars, so that a third part of them was darkened, and a third part of the day had no light, and likewise the night.

13 And I looked and heard an angel flying through the middle of heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth because of the other trumpet blasts of the three angels who are yet to sound!"

9 And the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth; and to him was given the key to the pit of the figurative language are here, but they speak of literal calamities of some sort. Interpretation of all the details is difficult and cannot be attempted in brief notes like these. 8:7 Compare Ex 9:22-26. What once happened in one country (Egypt) will happen on the earth at large. And it will be a worse disaster – fire and blood will be mixed with the hail and lightening. See also Ezek 38:22; Joel 2:30; Acts 2:19.

8:8,9 Compare Ex 7:19,21.

8:10,11 Could this blazing star be some sort of comet or asteroid or huge meteor? Possibly, but we cannot say with any certainty. In 9:1,2 "star" symbolizes a living being. In 12:4 stars symbolize angels. Could this star be an angel who is given power to poison a third of the sources of fresh water on earth? We do not know. "Wormwood" means bitterness.

8:12 Compare 6:12,13; 10:12-23; Isa 13:10; Joel 2:2; Amos 5:18.

8:13 God gives warning of terrible disasters still to come before He actually sends them.

"Woe" – the Greek word indicates some cause of great grief or pain. Two of these three "woes" are described in chapter 9. The third one comes after the seventh trumpet sounds (11:5), and actually seems to be the pouring out of the seven bowls of wrath in chapter 16 which takes place under this last trumpet.

9:1,2 The "star" here is no literal star but a living being, as can be seen from the language concerning him. He is probably an angel.

"The key" – compare 20:1,3. Luke 8:31 indicates that the Abyss is a place of punishment in the unseen world of spirits and is much feared by demons (compare 2 Pet 2:4). In Rom 10:7 the same Greek Abyss. 2 And he opened the Abyss, and smoke came up out of the pit like the smoke of a huge furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the Abyss. 3 And from the smoke locusts came out upon the earth, and power was given to them like the power the scorpions of the earth have. 4 And they were commanded not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green plant, or any tree, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. 5 And they were not given power to kill them, but to torment them for five months. And their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a man. 6 And in those days men will seek death and will not find it, and will desire to die, and death will flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle. And on their heads were something like crowns of gold, and their faces were like men's faces. 8 And their hair was like women's word is used, and means the realm of the dead.

"Smoke" – contrast 8:4. The smoke in heaven is quite different from this hellish smoke.

9:3 "Locusts" – it is not plainly said that the "locusts" come out of the abyss, but out of the smoke which comes out of the Abyss, but they probably come directly from the Abyss. It is clear from their description that they are not literal locusts (locusts are similar to the grasshoppers of India, but not identical. None is anything like a scorpion).

9:4 Grass, plants and trees are what literal locusts feed on.

"The seal of God" – used about Israelites in 7:3. But all believers have God's seal – 22:4; Eph 1:13. Compare Ezek 9:4-6. There may be few of them left on earth when this 5th trumpet blows. This takes place after the great tribulation when a great many of them will die – see 7:9-14; 13:15.

"On their foreheads" – probably figurative language indicating God's ownership. The Lord knows those who are his and will protect them.

9:5 "Five months" – it does not seem necessary to take this also as a symbol. Because there are many symbols used in this book that does not mean that each thing in it is a symbol of something else. When a symbol appears it usually seems clear that it is a symbol. There is either a hint in the language itself, or in the context, or an explanation of the symbol is given. Compare 2:28 with 22:16; 12:5 with 19:15; 12:14 with 12:6; 12:9; 13:11 with 16:13,14; 17:15,18; etc).

9:6 Compare 6:16; Jer 8:3 – wanting to die but afraid to commit suicide.

9:7-10 These "locusts" are the strangest creatures ever to appear on earth, almost indescribable. "Horses and wings" speak of speed. "Crowns" suggest authority to do what they do. "Men's faces" indicate hair, and their teeth like lion's teeth. 9 And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running to battle. 10 And they had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails, and they had power to hurt men five months. 11 And they had a king over them, the angel of the Abyss, whose name in the Hebrew language is Abaddon, but in the Greek language he has the name Apollyon.

12 One woe is past. And look! Two more woes are coming after this.

13 And the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound in the great river Euphrates."

15 And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third part of mankind. 16 And the intelligence and personality. What do these "locusts" symbolize? If they come out of the abyss (vs 2,3), and this is very likely, they are evil spirits, demons. If they are only produced by the smoke which comes from the abyss, they may be another sort of plague caused by Satan and his helpers working among the nations.

9:11 Both Abaddon and Apollyon mean "Destroyer." Some think he is Satan, and he may be. We know that Satan is the great destroyer of men – John 8:44; Heb 2:14; 1 Pet 5:8. However, if he is shut up in the Abyss with the "locusts" he cannot be Satan. Satan is not thrown into the Abyss until the return of Christ – 20:1-3. Also we should observe that this horde of "locusts" will not kill people (v 5).

9:12 "Two other woes" – vs 13-19; 16:1.

9:13 "Altar" – 8:3,4. The horns are the corners which project upwards.

9:14 "Release the four angels" – evidently not the same angels seen in 7:1.

"Bound" – probably signifies only that they cannot act until God gives permission.

"Euphrates" – see also 16:12. This long river flows from Turkey through Syria and Iraq into the Persian Gulf.

9:15 "The hour. . . year" – all things are in God's control and He has an appointed time for everything. See Acts 1:7.

"To kill" – it seems from vs 16-19 that these angels use some kind of army to produce this result. This is not to suggest that four angels by themselves could not kill so many people. Compare 2 Chron 32:21.

"A third of mankind" – the death of such an enormous number of people speaks of terrific agents of destruction of one kind or another. The population of the world now at the beginning of the 21st Century is about six thousand million (6 billion, 600 crores). But under the 4th seal a fourth of the earth's population will perish.

9:16-19 Compare Joel 2:2-11. Two hundred number of the army of horsemen was two hundred million. And I heard their number.

17 And I saw the horses in the vision were like this: Those who sat on them had breastplates of a fiery colour, and a dark blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire and smoke and sulfur. 18 By these three, by the fire, and by the smoke and by the sulfur which came out of their mouths, a third part of mankind was killed. 19 For their power is in their mouths, and in their tails; for their tails were like serpents and had heads, and with them they do harm.

20 And the rest of mankind which was not killed million (twenty crores) make a vast army indeed. At present the armies of all the nations on earth would not add up to anything near this number.

"I heard their number" - v 16 - he knew the number was amazingly high and insisted he was not exaggerating it. But what do these strange and terrible horses with their riders symbolize? Enormous human armies equipped with frightful weapons? A horde of demons let loose on the earth? Who can say with any certainty? As with some other prophecies of future events we may not know the exact method of fulfillment until the events take place. And can we think it is necessary for us to know before then?

9:20,21 "Nor did they repent" - 16:9,11; Matt 3:2,8; Luke 13:3-5; Acts 17:30. In spite of pains, plagues and disasters of every sort men will refuse to turn to God from the sins which bring His judgment on them. They love their idols and their sinful habits, and will not give them up, even when all around great numbers of people are injured and dying. Observe what sins in particular they are wedded to, sins evidently that will be very common in the last days of this age.

"Worship demons" - see Deut 32:17; 1 Cor 10:20 (men will call them gods and think they are gods).

"Idols" - Deut 4:28; Ps 115:3-8; Isa 40:18-22; 44:12-20.

"Murders" - after the fall of mankind into sin, beginning with the first family of the human race, murders have continually stained the earth with blood. At the time of the end there may be an increase in this savagery.

"Sorceries" - Acts 8:9-11; 19:17-20; Ex 7:11,12,22; 8:7,18,19; Deut 18:10-12; Rev 21:8; 22:15.

"Sexual immorality" - a sin that grips the hearts of men very powerfully (Prov 2:16-19). The Bible very clearly reveals the evil of that way of life - 1 Cor 6:9,10; Eph 5:3-7; Heb 13:4; Rev 21:8; 22:15.

"Thefts" - Ex 20:15; Jer 7:9,10; Matt 15:19; Rom 2:21; Eph 4:28. This is a sin that is so common among some people that it is almost regarded as natural shrewd behavior. God takes a different view of the by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands, so that they would no longer worship demons, and idols of gold and silver and brass and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk. 21 Nor did they repent of their murders, or of their sorceries, or of their sexual immorality, or of their thefts.

10 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was over his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. 2 And he had in his hand a little scroll which was open. And he set his right foot on the sea, and his left foot on matter - 1 Cor 6:10.

10:1 As between the 6th and 7th seals so here between the 6th and 7th trumpets we have a break in the narrative. This is a pause to reveal matters not directly caused by the sounding of the 6th trumpet, a parenthesis to look at other events to take place at the end of this age. This break for these explanatory visions goes on to 11:15. It seems some of these events (11:1-6) will actually take place before any of the trumpets sound, or even before the 6th and 7th seals are opened.

10:1-3 The description of this mighty angel suggests the Lord Jesus. In this book both a cloud and a rainbow are associated with the divine presence - 1:7; 4:3; 14:14.

"Face. . .like the sun", "feet like pillars of fire" reminds us of the vision of Christ in 1:15,16. The word "lion" (v 3) suggests the Lion of the tribe of Judah (5:5).

"Set his. . .foot on" - this phrase suggests victoriously claiming possession. Compare Deut 11:24; Josh 1:3. If that is the meaning here (some scholars deny it), again it may cause us to think this angel is Christ. Who but He has a right to claim the world as a possession? But is Christ called an angel any other place in this book? No, but He is called an angel (which means "messenger") in other parts of the Bible - see Gen 16:7. However, is it really possible to refer to Christ as merely "another mighty angel" (v 1)? It does not seem very likely, so we cannot say with any certainty that the angel is Christ. He may (or may not) be the mighty angel of 5:2.

10:2 "A little scroll" - this can hardly be the same as the seven-sealed scroll of 5:1. This is not called "the" scroll, as it might well have been if it were the same as the one previously referred to. Also it is not called the "scroll" but a "little scroll." Moreover, the scroll of 5:1 was in heaven and was not yet completely unrolled. But the angel tells John to eat this scroll. It seems that this little scroll contains additional visions and prophecies (such as those in chapters 12 to 14 and 17,18), that do not come under the orderly opening of seals or blowing of the trumpets or pouring out of the bowls. See what the angel tells John after he eats this the land, 3 and cried out with a loud voice like the roar of a lion, and when he had cried out, seven thunders spoke with their voices. 4 And when the seven thunders had spoken with their voices, I was about to write; and I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up those things which the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them down."

5 And the angel which I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his hand to heaven, 6 and swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, and the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there would be delay no longer, 7 but in the days when the seventh angel sounds his trumpet, when he begins to sound it, the mystery of God will be completed, as he declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, and said, "Go and take the little scroll that is open in the hand of the angel standing scroll - v 11.

10:4 What did these seven thunders say? No man now knows, and it is useless to speculate about it. Compare Deut 29:29.

"Seal up" - compare Dan 12:4,9.

10:5,6 Here is a very solemn moment in this very solemn book. It indicates that what the angel says is of great importance in understanding this book and the events recorded in it.

"Delay no longer" - a little delay was announced at 6:10,11. Here the delay is over - the time now comes for God to judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge the blood of His people.

10:7 This age will come to its end in the days of the 7th trumpet. The word "days" suggests a brief time - not years or an indefinite long period. These "days" will give time for the outpouring of the bowls of wrath (chapters 15,16).

"Mystery of God"-in the New Testament a mystery means truth which God has revealed and which no one could know if He did not reveal it. Several such mysteries are revealed in the New Testament. See Matt 13:11; Rom 11:25; 1 Cor 15:51,52; Eph 3:3-10; 5:22; Col 1:24-27; 2 Thess 2:7; 1 Tim 3:16. Which of these mysteries will be finished at the 7th trumpet? Or are several of them included in this phrase "the mystery of God?" Are they perhaps gathered together in a greater and more inclusive mystery - the one Paul speaks of in Eph 1:9,10? It seems quite possible; see the things that happen when the 7th trumpet sounds - 11:15-18.

10:9 "Eat it" - compare Ezek 3:1,2.

"Bitter. . .sweet" - it was sweet to his taste because it contained words from God. Compare Ps 19:9,10; 119:103; Jer 15:16; Ezek 3:3. It was bitter in his stomach - when understood and digested prophecies of coming judgment seem painful and bitter to those with a heart of love and on the sea and on the land."

9 And I went to the angel and said to him, "Give me the little scroll." And he said to me, "Take it, and eat it. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth be as sweet as honey." 10 And I took the little scroll out of the angel's hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but as soon as I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.

11 And he said to me, "You must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and languages, and kings."

11 And I was given a reed like a rod. And the angel stood by, saying, "Get up and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and the worshipers there. 2 But exclude the court that is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it is given to the Gentiles, and they will trample the holy city underfoot forty-two months. 3 And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will compassion. Compare Ezek 21:6,12; Jer 9:1; 10:19; 13:17; Isa 22:4; Ps 119:5,136. This is the character of God's true prophets.

10:11 "Prophecy" - 1:2,3.

"Again" - this may mean that John must cover the same ground here briefly covered before and give further prophecies about the same people and events (note at v 2).

11:1,2 "Temple" - not the one in heaven (7:15), but one on earth. Its location is Jerusalem "the holy city" (v 8; Matt 4:5; 27:53). It is a Jewish temple dedicated to God and so is God's temple. The fact that Gentiles (a word used in the Bible for peoples other than Jews) occupy the outer court indicates that the worshipers in the inner part are Jews. Today there is no Jewish temple in Jerusalem, and there was none in John's later years. The temple that was standing during Christ's time on earth was destroyed in 70 AD (Matt 24:2; Luke 19:41-44). It seems this message to John indicates that before the end of the age a new temple will be built in Jerusalem. See also Matt 24:15; 2 Thess 2:4.

"Measure" - a symbol indicating a marking out a place for either destruction or protection. Compare 2 Kings 21:13; Isa 34:11; Lam 2:8; Zech 2:1-5.

"Given to the Gentiles. . .trample" - at this time (2005) the Jews control Jerusalem and have done so for several years. But judging from this there will be a brief time at the end of this age when other people will take the city. Compare Zech 14:2.

"Forty-two months" - 13:5. This same period is said to be 1260 days (v 3; 12:6), a time, times and half a time (12:14). This seems to mean 3 1/2 years), and "one hour" (17:12). So it seems clear that this period is a very limited time. The author of these notes can find no reason in the Bible not to take these 42 months as literal. See also Dan 7:25; 9:27; 12:7.

11:3,4 "Two witnesses" - some teach these prophecy for a thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth. 4 These are the two olive trees, and the two lampstands standing before the God of the earth. 5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone wants to harm them, this is how he must be killed. 6 These witnesses have power to shut heaven, so that it does not rain during the days when they prophesy, and they have power over waters to turn them to blood and to strike the earth with all kinds of plagues, as often as they will. 7 And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the Abyss will fight against them, and will defeat them and kill them. 8 And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which is figuratively called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. 9 And some from the peoples and tribes and languages and nations will see their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be put in graves. 10 And those who live on the earth will be glad about them, and celebrate, and will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who lived on the earth."

11 And after three and a half days the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. 12 And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they went up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them go.

two symbolize a group of Jewish believers who witness during the time of the great tribulation at the end of this age. Others think that because they are called "two lampstands" they may symbolize witnessing churches (compare 1:20). Still others teach they are two individuals. The language of vs 5-12 makes this last view more likely. Some Bible teachers seem sure they will be Moses and Elijah (who appeared together at Christ's transfiguration—Matt 17:3). There is no word in the Bible about Moses returning to earth to die again. Concerning Elijah (who did not die – 2 Kings 2:11) see Mal 4:5; Matt 17:11. The only other person in history who went to heaven without dying is Enoch (Heb 11:5) who prophesied about the end times (Jude 14,15). Will he return to earth and die here? Who can say with any certainty?

"Two olive trees"— see Zech 4:3-14.

"Two lampstands" – the seven lampstands are the seven churches (1:20); however, it does not seem impossible that the two lampstands refer to witnessing groups or individuals other than churches. Lampstands suggest those who are a light for God and who point to Christ who is the light.

11:5 "Fire comes out of their mouths" – this is obviously a symbol, but a symbol of what? Compare 2 Kings 1:9-12. They have but to speak and God acts in their defense.

"Devours their enemies" – this seems to rule out the interpretation that these two witnesses are any of the churches of this age. It is not the work of the Church to destroy its enemies.

11:6 "Shut heaven", or "shut up the sky" – compare 1 Kings 17:1; Jam 5:17.

"Blood. . . plagues" – Ex 7:20; 8:5,6,16; etc. Since these things literally happened in history is there any Scriptural reason for thinking they will not literally happen again?

11:7 "Finished their testimony" – God will appoint a specific time period for their work and will protect them until that work is finished. Once a servant of God in India said, "If He has work for me to do I cannot die." This is a true word.

"The beast" – see 13:1-8; 17:3,7-11. Compare 2 Thess 2:3,4; 1 John 2:18.

"Abyss" – note at 9:1. "Up from the Abyss" suggests that the "beast" comes from the realm of the dead. See also 13:3; 17:8.

"And kill them" – compare 13:7. Antichrist (another name for the "beast") will have great power and will be permitted to put a great many of God's people to death. But God will still be in control of His universe and will have a wise purpose in all that happens. The fact that the two witnesses are in Jerusalem and that the "beast" kills them is not evidence that up until then he has his headquarters there (see notes on 17:9,10, 18). He could be at a distance and have them killed. Or he could come personally to Jerusalem at this time.

11:8 The words here seem to clearly identify this great city with Jerusalem. That, of course, is the city where the Lord Jesus was crucified. And Jerusalem is figuratively called Sodom in Isa 1:8-10. In the Bible "Egypt", figuratively speaking, means spiritual slavery. And that is what Jerusalem represents (compare Gal 4:25).

11:9 How will so many in such a brief time be able to see this? In these days of television can we think this will be difficult? The words "dead bodies" and "put in graves" seem plainly to indicate literal individuals who die.

11:10 See here what mankind by nature is like. The death of God's prophets is good news. Men in general do not want the truth of God. It tends to torment them and they feel only relief when they don't have to hear it. Compare John 3:19,20; Rom 8:5-8.

11:11 The devilish glee of wicked men will be short-lived (compare Job 20:5). The language seems clearly to mean a physical resurrection, a coming to life of dead bodies.

11:12 This, too, seems to speak clearly of a literal event, an ascension of those who die and live again.

"Cloud" – compare Acts 1:9.

13 At that very hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth part of the city fell, and seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were frightened and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past, and now the third woe is coming quickly.

15 And the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and loud voices in heaven said, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he will reign for ever and ever."

16 And the twenty-four elders who had been sitting on their thrones in the presence of God, prostrated themselves and worshipped God, 17 saying,

"We give you thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who are and was and are to come, because you have taken your great power and reigned. 18 And the nations were angry, and your wrath has come, and the time when the dead should be judged and for you to give rewards to your servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to those who fear your name, small and great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and in his temple the ark of his covenant appeared.

11:13 The fact that this severe earthquake put ~~ilslslslslslslslslslslslslslslsl~~ kills only 7,000 people in "the city" is evidence that the city (vs 2,8) is the literal city of Jerusalem. This earthquake is not a worldwide disaster but a local one. It will have a good result among those who remain alive (compare 16:9,11).

11:14 "The second woe" – the events that happen under the 6th trumpet. See 8:13; 9:12. "Now" – literally, "Look".

"The third" – the long break in the narrative that began at 10:1 is over. The 7th trumpet is about to blow, and out of the 7th trumpet come the 7 bowls of wrath. They are the third (and last) "woe."

11:15 The 7th trumpet is the last trumpet in this series, the last in this book, the last before the return of Christ. Compare Matt 24:30,31; 1 Cor 15:51,52; 1 Thess 4:16. Judging from what has been revealed in earlier chapters and what is said in the following verses this trumpet sounds after the rise of the antichrist and after the great tribulation.

"Kingdoms of the world have become the kingdoms of . . . Christ" – 19:15,16; Matt 6:10; 13:40-43; 19:28; 25:31; Luke 1:32,33; Acts 1:6,7; Ps 2:1-12; Isa 11:1-9; Dan 2:44,45. One of the principal themes of the Revelation is this: God will openly establish His kingdom on earth. This book reveals the way all other rule and authority is destroyed and the coming of Christ to rule the world takes place. Note on kingdom of God at Matt 4:17.

"Has become" – the elders seem to be standing at the last event that takes place under the 7th trumpet (19:11-16) and looking back at all the things that take place under it. Or else they are here uttering a prophecy of future events using the past tense of the verb (as in Isaiah chapter 53; note at Isa 55:10,11).

"Forever and ever" – Isa 9:7; Dan 7:14,27. It appears that His rule will be in two phases. See 20:4,6; 1 Cor 15:24,25. The thousand years reign will be the beginning of His eternal reign.

11:16 "Elders" – 4:4.

11:17 "Thanks" – it will be a reason for great thanksgiving – the reign of sin in the earth will be over and Christ will reign. On thanksgiving see Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; Eph 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18.

"Who are . . . are to come" – compare 1:4,8; 4:8. Under the 7th trumpet He will come. The days of the 7th trumpet (10:7) extend to the great event described in 19:11-16.

"Reigned" – God has always been a great King over the earth (Ps 47:2; etc). Though his reign before the 7th trumpet is hidden from the eyes of earth's people, all along He has been ruling over events. After the 7th trumpet He begins to reign openly.

11:18 "The nations were angry" – indicates the anger which Satan will stir up among nations against one another, and against God and God's people. See 12:12. This anger will be fully displayed in the reign of antichrist – 6:4,10; 13:7; 16:9,11; 19:19.

"Your wrath has come" – 6:17; 14:19; 15:1,7; 16:19; 19:15; Ps 2:4,5. All the bowls of wrath in chapter 16 come under this 7th trumpet.

"Time when the dead should be judged" – there are three possible interpretations of the meaning of "the dead" here: those who have died unsaved, or those who are still alive physically but dead in sin (Eph 2:1), or believers in Christ who have died. The first interpretation is unlikely – judging from chapter 20 the unsaved dead will not face the final judgment until the thousand year reign of Christ is over (20:7-15). The second interpretation, though not impossible, seems unlikely in this context. The third interpretation seems the most likely.

"Time . . . for rewarding" – the Lord Jesus will reward His servants on His return to earth – 22:12; Matt 16:27; 25:19-21; Luke 19:15-17.

"Fear your name" – Heb 12:28; 2 Cor 7:1; Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

"Who destroy the earth" – a new name for sinners. They are destroyers of what God made good, and the time will come when God will destroy them.

11:19 "Temple" – 7:15; 16:1.

"Ark" – Ex 25:10-22; Heb 9:4. The ark on earth was only a copy of the true one in

And there were lightning flashes, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

12 And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. 2 And she was pregnant and labored to give birth and cried out in pain. 3 And another sign appeared in heaven: a great red dragon that had seven heads and ten horns appeared, with seven crowns on his heads. 4 And his tail dragged heaven (Heb 8:1,2,5). The ark of the "covenant" spoke of the covenant God made with the nation Israel at Mount Sinai (Ex 25:15; Deut 10:1-5). The mention here of the heavenly ark of the covenant may cause us to think of Israel and God's faithfulness to that people. It seems that in the next chapter He reveals His faithfulness toward them at the end of this age.

"Lightning. . . hail" - compare 4:5; 8:5; 16:18.

12:1-5 This begins another break in the narrative before the seven bowls of wrath in chapters 15,16. The end of this age comes with the 7th trumpet, but it seems clear that chapters 12-14 look back at events before the 7th trumpet sounds, and give us additional information about those days.

"Woman" - as with many of the other symbols in this book there has been a variety of interpretation about the meaning of this one too. Let us note the facts given about her.

She is seen here immediately after the mention of the ark of the covenant in 11:19.

She is a "sign" - this may suggest that we are not to regard her as a literal individual woman but as a representation of something else. This interpretation of her seems to be confirmed by the use of other symbols in the description of her.

She appears in "heaven" - "in the sky" is also a possible translation. This suggests her heavenly calling - she is in a higher position than the nations of the earth (compare Deut 7:6).

The symbols of sun, moon and stars are associated with her (compare Gen 37:9,10).

She wears a crown, which indicates authority to reign (compare Matt 19:28; Acts 1:6,7; Isa 2:1-5; etc).

She gave birth to a son who will rule the world (v 5. Compare 19:15,16).

She will face a time of great persecution at the end of this age (vs 6,13-15. Compare Jer 30:7-9; Dan 12:1).

She has other offspring besides her son who will rule (v 17).

For these reasons the author of these notes believes the woman represents the people of Israel. In the Old Testament the nation of Israel is called the "wife" of Jehovah God. See Isa 54:5; Jer 3:14; 31:32. This accounts for her splendid appearance in the sky.

12:2 Evidently this verse looks back to the away a third part of the stars of heaven, and threw them down to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born. 5 And she bore a male child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron, and her child was caught up to God and his throne. 6 And the woman fled into a desolate area, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there for a thousand two hundred and sixty days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his birth of Christ two thousand years ago.

12:3 "Dragon" - Satan (v 9). One of several symbols explained in this book (note at 9:5).

"Seven heads and ten horns" - compare 13:1. The seven heads may speak of completeness of evil intelligence and leadership; the ten horns the fullness of worldly power (17:12; etc).

"Seven crowns" - complete authority to rule in the realm of darkness and evil (Eph 6:12). Note on "seven" at 1:4.

12:4 This seems to look back to the original fall of Satan and the fall of many of God's angels with him.

"Stars" - compare 9:1. Satan too now has angels - v 7. Or perhaps this picture may only indicate that Satan is so huge and powerful that he can brush a third of the stars in the sky from their natural positions. But the first interpretation seems the better one.

"Devour her child" - Satan wanted to destroy Christ if possible as soon as He was born. Surely he was behind the attempt of king Herod (Matt 2:13-16).

12:5 Jesus was born as a son of Israel of the tribe of Judah (5:5; Rom 1:3; Gal 4:4).

"Rod of iron" - 19:15; Ps 2:9.

"Caught up. . . to His throne" - 3:21; 5:6; 7:17; Acts 1:9; 2:32-36; Heb 1:3,4. Could this be said of any other person or any group of persons?

12:6 "A thousand two hundred and sixty days" - v 14; 11:3; 13:5 (note at 11:2).

There seems no good reason for thinking this time period is not literal. And it seems to point to a time at the end of this age after Satan is cast out of heaven (vs 9-13).

This period of 1,260 days did not take place immediately after Christ ascended into heaven. The things said of the woman in vs 1-5 were given that we might identify her.

After these facts were given, it was not necessary to say any more about her history, so the next great event in the woman's future is given to us. All the time in this age from the first century to the last is passed over in silence because it has no direct bearing on the purpose of this book.

The Revelation is not a history of the past but a prophecy of the future.

12:7 "War in heaven" - Satan and evil spirit beings who are with him are now in "the heavenly realms" - Eph 6:12 (note at Eph 1:3). This expression may be the equivalent angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought, 8 but did not win. And no longer was a place found for them in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was thrown out, that old serpent called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, "Now salvation and strength and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them in the presence of our God day and night, has been thrown down. 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they did not love their lives even to death. 12 Therefore rejoice, you heavens, and you who live in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that he has only a short time left."

13 And when the dragon saw that he was thrown to the earth, he persecuted the woman who bore the male child. 14 And the woman was given two wings of a great eagle that she might fly into the desolate area, into her place, from the presence of the serpent, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time. 15 And the serpent spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. 16 And the earth helped the woman, for the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed up the flood that the dragon spewed out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was angry with the woman and went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep of "heaven" here. Satan now has access to heaven itself, into God's presence - v 10; Job 1:6,7 (notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1). It seems that this war to expel him comes at the very end of this age. When Satan is cast out it is said that the kingdom of God comes (v 10) and that he knows "he has only a short time left" (v 12). Also, we should note he is able to persecute the woman for only 1260 days.

"Michael" - see Dan 10:13,21; 12:1; Jude 9. This great angel is the protector of the nation of Israel.

12:8 "Could not win" - then surely Satan could have been cast out of heaven (or the heavenly realms) long ago. Yes - if it had been God's wise purpose to do so.

"No longer was a place found for them in heaven" - the plan of God for the future age will move to its complete fulfillment, and Satan will have no part in it.

12:9 "Serpent" - Gen 3:1-5; Isa 17:1; 2 Cor 11:3.

"Devil" - Matt 4:1-5; John 8:44.

"Who deceives the whole world" - Satan is the great deceiver (20:3,8,10). For the two other great deceiving powers in the world see Jer 17:9; Heb 3:13. We can see from all this that the possibilities of deception are almost without limit (but compare Matt 24:24).

12:10 "Now" - does not mean at that exact moment, because Satan will still be permitted to work on earth for a little while (vs 13-17). Here "now" means that the coming of God's kingdom is very near, even at the door (11:15).

"Accuser of our brethren" - examples of this at Job 1:9-11; 2:3-5; Zech 3:1. This has been one of Satan's works throughout this age. The word "Satan" means opponent, "devil" means accuser.

"In the presence of our God" - in heaven.

"Day and night" - Satan is very zealous in pointing out the faults and sins of believers. Fortunately believers have an advocate with the Father to speak for them (1 John 2:1).

12:11 "Overcame" - 2:7. Heaven tells us how to get the victory over Satan.

"Blood" - 1:5; 5:9; 7:14; Matt 26:28; Heb 9:14; 1 John 1:7-9.

"Testimony" - Matt 10:32; Rom 10:9,10. A Christian who does not confess Christ is defeated.

"Did not love their lives" - Matt 10:37-39; Luke 14:26,27; Acts 20:24. True disciples are the ones who conquer the devil.

12:12 "Rejoice" - because of Satan's banishment.

"Woe" - indicates grief, pain and trouble.

"With great wrath" - this will result in the great tribulation (7:4; Matt 24:21). That coming time will not be the outpouring of the wrath of God on men, but the wrath of Satan and evil men against God's people.

"Only a short time left" - vs 6,14.

12:13 Satan will try to destroy Israel.

12:14 We do not know what exact things "wings of an eagle" and "desolate area" may mean here. We do know that somehow, somewhere God will enable Israel to escape and will protect her (v 6; Jer 30:7).

"Time, times and half a time" - v 6; 11:2,3. See also Dan 7:25; 12:7.

12:15,16 For an understanding of the details of this we await the fulfillment. Satan will do all in his power to destroy the people of God, but will be unable to do so.

12:17 "The rest of her offspring" - these are distinct from the woman herself and so signify another group of people. If the "woman" is Israel what can this group be? Can we not say that Christians united to Christ have also sprung from Israel? That believers now have their roots in the Old Testament? That the godly in Israel gave birth to the New Testament church? If the "rest of her offspring" are not Christians living at the end of this age, it is very difficult indeed to say who they might be.

"Testimony of Jesus" - this also seems strong evidence that the "rest of her offspring" are believing, practicing Christians. Satan at the end of this age will make a special attempt to destroy them too.

the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

13 And I stood on the sand of the sea and saw a beast rise up out of the sea. He had seven heads and ten horns, and ten crowns on his horns, and a blasphemous name on his heads. 2 And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like a bear's feet, and his mouth like a lion's mouth. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne, and great authority. 3 And I saw one of his heads as if it had received a fatal wound, and his fatal wound had been healed. And the whole world was amazed and went after the beast.

13:1 "Beast" – 11:7 – called by this name nearly 40 times in this book. In Daniel "beasts" are symbols which signify literal kingdoms and their rulers (Daniel chapters 7 and 8). Doubtless "beast" here has the same meaning. See 17:9-13. Observe how in some respects this beast resembles the red dragon of 12:3. But the dragon has seven crowns on its heads, this beast has ten on its horns. The dragon has complete authority in his realm. The beast's authority is derived from ten kings (17:12,13) and from the dragon.

"Ten horns" – see also Dan 7:7.

"A blasphemous name" – v 5. Compare 2 Thess 2:4; 1 John 2:18,22. Note on blasphemy at Matt 9:3.

13:2 "Leopard. . . lion's mouth" – this beast combines some of the features of all four beasts of Dan 7:2-8, but must be identified with the fourth beast. It seems clear that this beast is some sort of revived Roman Empire. See notes on Dan 2:32-45; 7:7. It will be the final form of Gentile power in the world. And it will be a dreadfully evil power because the dragon will be behind it. What Satan is in the unseen world of darkness and opposition to God, the beast will be openly and visibly on earth. See 2 Thess 2:9,10.

13:3 See 17:8-11. In Daniel's visions of beasts "heads" signify parts of a kingdom and/or their rulers. Here "a fatal wound" seems to mean that either a part of the coming world empire, or one of its rulers is destroyed or dies. See 11:7 – the "beast" will come up "from the Abyss." The Abyss is the realm of dead individuals. It seems clear that the "beast" sometimes indicates a man who will be the ruler of the empire which is also called the "beast" (see v 18; 17:8-13; 19:19,20; 20:10). He represents the empire and sums up all of its "beastly" characteristics in his own person. 2 Thess 2:3,4 and 1 John 2:18,22 speak of a person called "the man of sin" and the "antichrist". Can we doubt that the "beast" is that person?

"Healed" – evidently this will be a miracle so great that the "whole world" will be amazed. This miracle could be the resurrection of a dead individual one of the former rulers of the Roman Empire is a

4 And they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who can make war against him?"

5 And he was given a mouth speaking big things and blasphemies, and he was given power to continue for forty-two months. 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and those who live in heaven. 7 And it was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them, and he was given power over all tribes, and languages, and nations. 8 And all who live on the earth will worship him, those whose names are not written in the possibility. See 17:10,11.

13:4 "Worshipped the dragon" – men will be worshipers of Satan at the close of this age. One reason they will do so is that it will seem to them that Satan and the beast have achieved the final victory over God and God's people. Satan has always wanted worship (see Matt 4:8-10), and has received it from some people (9:20; Lev 17:7; Deut 32:17; Ps 106:37; 1 Cor 10:20). Such worship will, it seems, be more prevalent and more open at the end of this age.

"The dragon who gave authority" – Satan tried to destroy Christ by offering Him all the kingdoms of the world. Christ refused that offer. But at the end of this age Satan will find someone who will accept it.

"Worshipped the beast" – the ages-long tendency to worship men will reach its full development toward the end of this age.

"Who can make war" – the beast will have world-wide power (v 7), and no country will be able to fight him.

13:5 "Big things and blasphemies" – v 1; Dan 7:8; 11:36.

"Forty-two months" – 11:2,3; 12:6,14; 17:12. Many dictators in history lasted longer than the antichrist will, in spite of his great boasts.

13:6 "Blaspheme" – since this is mentioned three times in these verses we may judge that it will be a striking feature of the beast's character.

13:7 "The saints" – Dan 7:21,25. This is the word used throughout the New Testament to indicate believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. Compare Rom 1:7. It is also used in the Old Testament to designate believers.

"Overcome them" – 6:10; 7:14; 11:7; 12:17. The "great tribulation" will be a result of his activities. The beast will overcome the saints, but at the same time they will overcome him. See 15:2. He will overcome them physically, they will overcome him in the way that matters most – spiritually. They will still be more than conquerors even while he is torturing them or putting them to death.

"All tribes. . . nations" – the empire of antichrist will be the first to encircle the whole globe.

13:8 Verse 4.

"Book of life" – 3:5.

book of life of the Lamb who was slain, from the beginning of the world.

9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

10 He who leads into captivity will go into captivity. He who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I saw another beast, coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon. 12 And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who live in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. 13 And he performs great signs. He even makes fire come down from heaven onto the earth in the sight of men. 14 And he deceives the inhabitants of the earth by those signs that he had been granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling earth's inhabitants to make an image of the beast who had the wound caused by a sword, and yet lived. 15 And he was given power to give life to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast would both speak and cause all who would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. 16 And he caused everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, 17 so that no one could buy or sell except he who had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is "From the beginning of the world" – this phrase may be taken with the words "Lamb who was slain", or, possibly, "whose names are not written." Compare 17:8. The Lamb was slain from the creation of the world in the plan of God (1 Pet 1:19,20), though not, of course, in actual fact. And we also have reason to think that the names of certain people were written in the book then (for example, see Eph 1:4). Here those written in His book are God's chosen ones mentioned in Matt 24:24. They will love God and recognize the wicked nature of the beast and so refuse to do what all the world will do.

13:9 "Hear" – 2:7.

13:10 Compare Ps 7:15; 18:25-27; Prov 22:8; Gal 6:7.

13:11 "Out of the earth" – evidently in contrast with "out of the sea", the origin of the first beast. Here "sea" may symbolize the "sea" of humanity (compare 17:15). If this is so then earth probably means a particular country, perhaps Israel.

"Like a lamb. . . like a dragon" – his appearance is deceiving. He looks (and doubtless wants to look) like one thing, but is actually the opposite of it. But his words will reveal what he is (compare Matt 12:34,35). In 16:13; 19:20; 20:10 he is called "the false prophet." He may try to convince Israel that he is their Messiah (compare John 5:43; Zech 11:15-17; 11:36-45). He will be the chief of all those false prophets and false Christs that Jesus warned about in Matt 24:23-26. So at the end of this age the whole world will be deceived by an evil threesome – the dragon, the antichrist, and the false prophet.

13:12 Wherever he may live he will act as the representative of the first beast, the ruler of the world empire.

"Worship" – being a false prophet his particular field will be religion and he will lead a world-wide religious movement which will oppose the one true God and make the antichrist the one object of worship.

13:13 See the warnings at Matt 24:24; Deut 13:1-3.

"Fire. . . from heaven" – or, "from the sky." He will do what a true prophet twice did (1 Kings 18:38; 2 Kings 1:10).

13:14 "Deceives" – see 2 Thess 2:9-12. Men will not want Christ, who is the truth (John 14:6), so in punishing them God will see to it that they receive "the lie" who is antichrist.

"Image" – when this age draws to a close people everywhere will be engaged in the worship of an evil man and his image instead of in the worship of the Creator of the universe.

13:15 "Life. . . speak" – to the world this will seem a great display of supernatural power, and it may well be so. Jesus said that false prophets will perform "great signs and miracles", and gave no hint that those miracles might be mere tricks of some sort.

"To be killed" – no doubt the believers we read of in 7:9,14 will leave the world in this way. They will prefer death to unfaithfulness to God, and in this they will be wise. Compare Daniel chapter 3.

13:16,17 See how the people of the world will become worshippers of the beast – first political authority and military might (v 4); then deceiving miracles (vs 13-15); then the economic squeeze. The choice in many cases may be either to worship the beast or to suffer great hunger. Those will be times which will fully try men's souls.

13:18 What is the meaning of 666? It is "man's number", a symbolic number signifying a man taking God's place, saying he is God and trying to force God out of His world. If 7 is the number of perfection and completeness (1:4), 666 may speak of man at his most powerful, trying to take God's place but coming short as he must always do. No doubt the meaning of this number and how it will be related to antichrist, will become clear when the events of this chapter are being fulfilled. Believers will then know all they need to know to resist him. Today in the world there are many forces preparing the ground economically, psychologically, politically, and religiously for the advent of the "beast." Let us be on our guard.

the number of a man. And his number is 666.

14 And I looked, and there, on Mount Zion, stood a Lamb, and with him one hundred and forty-four thousand who had his Father's name written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of great thunder, and I heard the sound of harpists playing on their harps. 3 And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living beings and the elders. And no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. 4 These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed from among men, the firstfruits to God and to the Lamb. 5 And in their mouth no deceit was found, for they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel flying in the upper sky, and he had the eternal gospel to preach to the inhabitants of the earth, and to every nation and tribe and language and people, 7 and he said with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give him glory, for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made heaven and earth and the sea and the springs of water."

14:1 This chapter is a continuation of the long break in the orderly progression of seals, trumpets and bowls which began at 12:1. It gives further information about the end time before the bowls of wrath are poured out. This portion looks back to a time before the sounding of the last trumpet.

"There" - literally, "look".

"Mount Zion" - here this may refer either to the Jerusalem in the land of Israel (2 Sam 5:6-9; Ps 2:6; Matt 23:37-39), or to the Jerusalem which is in heaven (2:12; Gal 4:25,26; Heb 12:22-24). If the earthly Jerusalem is meant the picture here is of a time after Christ's return to earth. But it is possible the heavenly Jerusalem is meant - v 3 gives this impression.

"A Lamb" - 5:6. The word for "the" is lacking in the Greek of the text used with this translation, but there is only one "Lamb", and no possibility of thinking another is meant here.

"One hundred and forty-four thousand" - the word "the" is lacking here too. One group of 144,000 is seen in 7:4. Is this the same group as that one? There is reason here to think they are not - those in chapter 7 are from the tribes of Israel and are on the earth; the ones here are "from the earth", "from among men", and the further description of them is not given in chapter 7, and there is no reason to think this description applies to those chosen from Israel.

"Written on their foreheads" - this means they are God's special property, and that His character can be seen in them.

14:2 "Harp" - 5:8; 15:2.

14:3 "New song" - 5:9.

"Learn" - we are not told who first sings this song or who teaches it to the 144,000.

"Redeemed" - 1:5; 5:9; 1 Pet 1:18; Heb 9:12; Eph 1:7; Rom 3:24; Matt 20:28.

14:4 "Not defiled with women" - marriage is not defiling. See Heb 13:4; Matt 19:4-6. But sexual activity outside the bonds of marriage is defiling.

"Virgins" - if this is taken literally the meaning is obvious. Some commentators prefer to take it figuratively. See a figurative use of the word at 2 Cor 11:2. If taken in this way it means that the 144,000 were not guilty of spiritual unfaithfulness to God (compare Hos 1:2; 2:2; Jer 2:2,5; etc).

"Follow" - 7:7; John 10:27. Those who follow the Good Shepherd here and now will follow Him there and then. They who will not follow Him now will not be there.

"Redeemed" - see note at 5:9, where the same word appears.

"From among men" - this phrase is evidence that they may not be the same as the group in 7:4-8 who are all from the nation of Israel.

"Firstfruits" - before Christ came the whole nation of Israel was called "firstfruits" (Jer 2:3). After Christ came the whole body of people now born again are "firstfruits" (Jam 1:18). Firstfruits always indicates that there is a greater harvest still to come. Here it may point to the great number of people to be gathered into Christ's kingdom during His thousand year reign (15:4; Isa 2:2-4; 60:3-9; Jer 3:17; Zech 14:16).

14:5 "No deceit" - compare Ps 15:1-5. Liars will have their portion in another place (21:8,27; 22:15). Lying is exceedingly hateful to God who is the God of truth - Ps 31:5; Prov 6:16-19; etc.

"Without fault" - Ps 15:2; 24:3-5; Gen 17:1; Deut 18:13; Eph 1:4; 5:27; Phil 1:10; 2:15; 2 Pet 3:14.

14:6 This angel may be symbolic just as the woman of chapter 12 and the beast of chapter 13 are symbolic. In Greek angel means "messenger" (1:20; Mark 1:2; Luke 7:24; 9:52), and here may represent the world-wide preaching of the gospel of Christ before this age ends. See Matt 24:14.

"Nation. . . people" - 5:9; 7:9.

14:7 "Fear God" - for the importance of this see 15:4; 19:5; 1 Pet 1:17; 2:17; 2 Cor 5:11; Rom 3:18; Heb 12:28; Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7. Observe here that the fear of God is connected with the "eternal gospel", and, like repentance (Acts 17:30), is commanded to all people everywhere. Repenting and turning to the one true God and believing His gospel will produce the fear of God that He commands. The gospel is called eternal because it began with God's plan for men in eternity past and produces results that will last for eternity in the future. It will always be God's good news

8 Another angel followed and said, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen! That great city! Because she made all nations drink of the inflaming wine of her adultery."

9 And a third angel followed them and said in a loud voice, "If any man worships the beast and his image and receives his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, 10 he himself will drink of the wine of God's wrath which is poured out unmixed into the cup of his indignation, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. 11 And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever. And day and night there is no rest for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name. 12 Here is the to mankind, the best news ever heard.

"Give him glory" - 16:9; 19:7; 1 Cor 10:31.

"Judgment" - 11:18.

"Worship him who made the universe" - Matt 4:10; Acts 14:15; 1 Cor 8:5,6; Isa 40:18-26; 42:5; 43:10,11; 45:18. People must worship the Creator and nothing else and no one else.

14:8 "Babylon" - 17:1-5; 18:2. Here she is said to be already fallen but her fall is not described until chapter 18.

"Wine of her adultery" - 18:3,9.

14:9-11 This warning against worshipping the "beast" (13:4,8,15) implies a warning against ever worshipping anything or anyone except the one true God, the Creator (v 7). All idolaters, not merely worshipers of the beast, will suffer the vengeance of eternal fire (21:8).

14:10 "Wrath. . .indignation" - v 19; Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; Isa 51:17; Jer 25:15; John 3:36; Rom 1:18; Eph 5:6.

"Fire and sulphur" - compare Gen 19:24; Ps 11:6; Jude 7.

"In the presence of the Lamb" - the Lord Jesus, who gave His life to save men, will look on the torment of these wicked people and will do nothing to prevent their suffering. This is proof that their suffering comes to them in perfect justice and that it would not be right, not according to heaven's laws, to relieve it.

14:11 "Forever and ever" - Isa 33:14; Matt 25:46; Mark 3:29; 9:48; Luke 16:22-26. This verse does not actually say that the torment of those wicked people goes on forever, only that the smoke from their torment rises up forever (compare 19:3), but the presumption is that the torment also will go on forever. Compare 20:10. As long as day and night exist the beast worshipers will be without rest. It is interesting that the verbs in this verse are not in the future tense, as we might expect, but in the present tense.

14:12 See 13:10; Heb 6:12; 2 Thess 1:4.

14:13 "From now on" - this truth should be an encouragement to all believers who will face death under the reign of the beast patience of the saints, here are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus."

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labours. And their works follow them."

14 And I looked and a white cloud appeared, and sitting on the cloud was one like the Son of man. He had a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. 15 And another angel came out of the temple and called out in a loud voice to the one who was sitting on the cloud, "Thrust in your sickle and reap, for the time has come for you to reap, because the harvest of the earth is ripe." 16 And the one who was sitting on (13:15). Of course it is always true that it is a blessed thing for believers to die in the Lord (2 Cor 5:1-6; Phil 1:21-23; Ps 116:15; etc). But it will be especially true for those who refuse to submit to the beast and the false prophet.

"Rest" - compare v 11.

"Their works follow them" - there will be special rewards for special faithfulness in the face of great pressure and great danger.

14:14 "Cloud" - 1:7; Matt 24:30; 26:64; Acts 1:9,11; 1 Thess 4:16,17.

"Like the Son of man" - this same expression is used of the Lord Jesus in 1:13. Is there any good reason to think this one on the cloud is not He?

"Crown" - the word is never used in regard to angels. The Greek for this (stephanos) speaks of the reward given to a victor, not a royal crown worn by a king. Compare 2:10; 1 Cor 9:25; Heb 2:9. Later Christ appears wearing many crowns - 19:12. There the Greek word means the kind of crowns kings wear. Here Christ is not yet coming to reign but to "reap."

14:15 If the one on the cloud is the Lord Jesus why should an angel come and tell Him what to do? Because Jesus is always in submission to God the Father and gets His instructions from Him (compare John 5:19; 6:38; 14:31). This angel comes out of the temple - from the presence of God - and brings a message from the Father to the Son. Or the angel may be merely symbolic of a message that passes between Father and Son.

"Time to reap. . .ripe" - compare Matt 3:12; Mark 4:29. When Christ reaps He will use angels as His agents - Matt 13:39; 24:31.

14:16 We are not told what this harvest is. However, it is put in contrast with the harvest from "the earth's vine" in vs 17-20. That is a harvest of wicked people, so this harvest, it would seem, will be of God's people. In other words vs 14-16 may be a symbolic picture of the Rapture of the Church (see 1 Thess 4:16,17). Other scholars think the Rapture takes place at 4:1; still others think 11:12 may refer to that event; and some the cloud thrust his sickle onto the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel, who had authority over fire, came from the altar, and called out in a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle and said, "Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth's vine, for its grapes are fully ripe." 19 And the angel thrust his sickle onto the earth and gathered the earth's vine and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God. 20 And the wine press was trampled outside the city and blood came out of the wine press up to the horse bridles for the distance of a thousand six hundred furlongs.

think it will take place only when Christ appears from heaven in chapter 19.

The author of these notes thinks the verses here (14:14-16) probably speak of the Rapture, but thinks also that dogmatism about doubtful things is not wise. Let us always be ready for the events of the end of this age, and for the coming of the Lord Jesus.

14:17-20 "Another" - obviously these verses depict a different harvest from the previous one. This one is for the purpose of judgment and wrath on evil men.

14:18 "Authority over the fire" - probably the angel of 8:3-5.

"The altar" - 6:9; 8:5; 16:7.

"The earth's vine" - not God's vine. See Deut 32:32,33 (compare John 15:1-5).

"Ripe" - evil will have come to full ripe fruit under the reign of the beast.

14:19 "Wine press of the wrath of God" - Isa 63:3,4; Lam 1:15; Joel 3:13.

"Wrath" - references at v 10.

14:20 "Trampled" - the Lord Jesus himself does this - 19:15. That is, God the Father has appointed Him to execute God's anger against earth's wicked people.

"The city" - these words standing alone almost surely refer to Jerusalem (11:2,8, 13). Certainly Jerusalem will be the scene of some terrible judgment from God in the last days. See Joel 3:12-16; Zech 14:1-3.

"1,600 furlongs" - nearly 300 kilometers, which is the approximate length of the most highly populated area in the land of Israel from the northern border into the desert in the south. So much blood signifies an enormous slaughter of human beings. Compare 19:17,18.

15:1 The long explanatory section that began with 12:1 is over, and the main thread of the narrative of seals, trumpets and bowls begins again here. These seven bowls come under the 7th trumpet and the trumpets all come out of the 7th seal.

"With them the wrath of God is completed" - 6:16,17; 11:18; 14:10,19.

15:2 Before the angels pour out the bowls

15 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having the seven last plagues, because with them the wrath of God is completed. 2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had gotten the victory over the beast and over his image and over his mark and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass with harps from God. 3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb and say, "Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God Almighty. Just and true are your ways, King of saints. 4 Who will not fear you, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. For all nations will come and worship before you, for your judgments have been revealed."

5 And after this I looked, and saw that the of wrath, a scene of beauty and blessedness appears.

"Sea of glass" - 4:6.

"Fire" - note at Ex 3:2. All heaven will then be prepared to execute God's judgment on the earth.

"Those who had gotten the victory over the beast" - will actually be those the beast conquers and kills (13:7,15). They would rather die than compromise with evil. And this is a great spiritual victory anytime, anywhere. The beast seems to be victorious and has a physical victory, but these believers will have the spiritual victory, the eternal victory. Their victory will be this: they will refuse to worship the beast or receive his mark. So it will be time for music and singing.

15:3 "Song of Moses" - there are two songs of Moses in the Old Testament - Ex 15:1-18 and Deut 31:30-32,43. Either one seems appropriate to this occasion. The one speaks of rescue from Pharaoh and his armies (in some ways Pharaoh is a good picture of the "beast"), the other describes the final overthrow of the wicked (Deut 32:16-19,22,32,35,41-43).

"The Lamb" - 5:9. The song of the Lamb is the one that follows.

"Great. . . your works" - Ex 15:11; Ps 92:5; 111:2.

"Just. . . your ways" - 16:5,7; 19:2; Deut 32:4; Ps 33:5; 89:14; 145:17.

15:4 "Who will not" - the meaning is that eventually all of earth's peoples will fear Him and glorify Him. See references on fear at 14:7.

"You alone are holy" - compare what is said of the Lord Jesus in Luke 1:35; Acts 2:27; 3:14 (note there). Note on God's holiness at Lev 20:7.

"All nations" - Ps 66:4; 86:9; Isa 66:23; Zeph 2:11; Zech 14:16,17; Mal 1:11.

"Your judgments" - displayed in His wrath poured out on evil men.

15:5 "Sanctuary" - 7:15; 11:19.

"Tabernacle of the Testimony" - Ex 38:21; Num 1:50; Heb 8:2,5 - called this in the Old sanctuary of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. 6 And out of the sanctuary came the seven angels with the seven plagues, and they were dressed in clean and bright linen, and with golden sashes tied around their chests. 7 And one of the four living beings gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives for ever and ever. 8 And the sanctuary was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one was able to enter the sanctuary until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

16 And I heard a loud voice out of the sanctuary saying to the seven angels, "Go, and pour out the bowls of God's wrath on the earth."

2 And the first went and poured out his bowl on the ground, and harmful and painful sores came on those who had the mark of the beast, and on those who worshiped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man, and every creature living in the sea died.

4 And the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of waters, and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, "You are righteous, O Lord, who are and was and will be, because you have judged like this. 6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink, for they deserve it."

7 And I heard another from the altar say, "Yes, Lord God Almighty, your judgments are true and righteous."

8 And the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and power was given to it to scorch people with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, who had power over these plagues, but they did not repent and give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast. And his kingdom became full of darkness, and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain, 11 and blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his bowl upon the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried Testament because the "testimony" (the ten commandments) was kept in it in the ark. This is the only place in the New Testament this name appears - here perhaps because God is about to pour out His full anger on the world that has trampled His laws under its feet.

15:6 "Out of the sanctuary" - from God's presence.

15:7,8 "Four living beings" - 4:6-8.

"Wrath" references at 14:10.

"Smoke" - Ex 19:18; Ps 18:8; Isa 6:4; 30:27.

"No one was able to enter" - Ex 40:34; 1 Kings 8:10,11.

16:1 "Loud voice out of the sanctuary" - probably the voice of God. No one else could enter there at this time (15:8).

"Bowls" - the seven seals completely seal the scroll in God's hand (5:1). The seven trumpets give complete warnings of coming disasters. These seven bowls contain the complete measure of God's wrath against the world as a whole. The disasters that come under them are similar to the ones under the trumpets, but much more severe and intense.

16:2 "Sores" - compare Ex 9:9-11.

16:3 "The sea" - 8:8,9. Under the 2nd trumpet only a third part of the sea and its living creatures were affected.

16:4 Compare 8:10,11 - under the 3rd trumpet only a third part of the sources of fresh water was affected.

16:5-7 See references at 15:3. God's justice in pouring out His wrath on evil men is three times declared. See also 2 Thess 1:5-7 and the note at Ps 47:2. This is emphasized, perhaps, because people find it hard to believe. When disasters come on the earth now, some complain against God as though He were guilty of unjust dealings with innocent mankind. This is because they have an entirely perverted view of things. When the most terrible plagues possible come on the world at the end of this age, everyone in heaven will agree that God is perfectly just in sending them.

16:6 Here is the law of perfect retribution at work. Compare Lev 26:23,24; Num 31:1-3; Deut 32:35,41,42.

"They deserve it" - no one receives any punishment from God that they do not fully deserve.

16:7 "Altar" - 6:9,10.

16:8 "Sun" - compare 8:12 where only a third part of the sun, etc was affected.

16:9 "Blasphemed the name of God" - this is thrice repeated (vs 11,21). This emphasizes the depravity, hardness, and folly of human beings. Instead of confessing and forsaking their sins which bring these plagues on them, they will rage against God who in justice must send them. See Rom 8:7; John 7:7.

"Did not repent" - 9:20,21.

16:10 "Throne of the beast" - the only mention of this throne in this book (God's throne is referred to 40 times). The beast will think he is in control of things and too late will realize that heaven rules (Dan 4:26).

"Darkness" - compare Ex 10:21-23.

"Pain" - from the burns received from the previous plague.

16:12-16 Compare 9:14-19.

"Euphrates" - note at 9:14. To the east of this river lie Iran, Afghanistan, Pakistan, India, China, etc. This drying up of its up so that the way for the kings of the east might be prepared. 13 And I saw three foul spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. 14 They are the spirits of demons, performing signs, that go out to the kings of the earth, of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 "Look, I come as a thief. Blessed is he who watches and keeps his clothes so that he does not walk naked and they see his shame."

16 And they gathered them together to a place called Armageddon in the Hebrew language.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the sanctuary in heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done." 18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightning flashes, and a great earthquake. An earthquake so mighty and so great had not occurred since men were on the earth. 19 And the great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and great Babylon was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21 And a great hail out of heaven fell on men, each stone weighing about fifty kilograms. And men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because its plague was exceedingly great.

17 And one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me. He said to me, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, 2 with whom the kings of the earth have committed adultery. And the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her adultery."

waters may be a symbol indicating the removal of all obstacles for the rulers of those nations to march to Western Asia.

16:13,14 Reason and sound military strategy will not be the basic causes of this movement of vast armies at the end of this age. Compare Ezek 38:4; 39:2. Rulers will be deceived and stirred up by demons. Observe the source of these demons - Satan, the coming antichrist and the false prophet (the second "beast" of chapter 13). Note on demons at Matt 4:24.

"Battle of that great day of God Almighty" - compare 6:17; 19:19; Isa 42:13; Joel 3:9-13; Zeph 1:14-18; Zech 14:3.

16:15 "As a thief" - 3:3; Matt 24:42-44; 1 Thess 5:2; 2 Pet 3:10.

"Watches" - 1 Thess 5:4-8.

"Naked" - 3:17,18.

16:16 "They" - the demons (vs 13,14).

"Armageddon" - means the mountain or hill of Megiddo. The Hebrew word for mountain or hill is "har." Megiddo is the large plain in Israel south of Nazareth and the hills of Galilee and east of Mount Carmel (2 Chron 35:22; Zech 12:11). It is called the Plain of Esdraelon and the valley of Jezreel. Mount Tabor lies northeast and Mount Gilboa lies southeast of this plain. The ancient and important fortress city of Megiddo lay on its southern edge (Judges 1:27; 1 Kings 9:15).

16:17 "Sanctuary" - v 1.

"From the throne" - 19:5; 21:3.

16:18 Compare 4:5; 8:5; 11:19.

"Earthquake" - the word is used seven times in this book. This one will be worse than any in history.

16:19 "City" - the mention of Babylon immediately after the reference to the earthquake gives us reason to think that the city which Babylon symbolizes is meant here (17:9,18). Also the description of her fall in chapter 18 is suggestive of what happens in a great earthquake (18:8-10,21. Fires often result from earthquakes).

"Cities of the nations fell" - this earthquake is no local one (as in 11:13). Compare Isa 24:18-20; Heb 12:26,27.

"Wine. . . of his wrath" - 14:10.

16:20 See 6:14.

16:21 "Hail" - compare Ex 9:22-26.

"Blasphemed God" - vs 9,11.

17:1 "Prostitute" - in the Bible this word is sometimes used of those called the people of God who are unfaithful to Him and go after other gods. See Isa 1:21; Jer 2:20; 3:1; Ezek 16:15-34; Hos 9:1. When used in a figurative sense, as here, this is the usual meaning of the word. In one place it is used of the merchant city of Tyre (Isa 23:15-17), and once of Nineveh (Nahum 3:4), both cities of idolatry. In those cases it means ignoring the true God and going after the treasures of this world. The "prostitute" in this chapter is a city - v 18. But we make no mistake in thinking it is a city that represents a vast religious and commercial system.

"Many waters" - v 15.

17:2 "Adultery" - this word too is frequently used in the Old Testament to signify the unfaithfulness in spiritual matters of those called God's people. See Jer 3:6,8,9; Ezek 23:37,43; Hos 1:2; 2:4,5; etc. Indeed, it is not used figuratively of anything else. In the Old Testament it always spoke of fallen, apostate Israel. It seems almost certain that here it means fallen, apostate Christianity at the end of this age (compare Matt 24:10-12; 2 Tim 3:1-5; 4:3,4; 2 Pet 2:1-3). If it does not mean this, then apostate Christianity is not mentioned anywhere in these chapters which describe God's judgment coming on the world. And this would be a very strange thing indeed.

The "kings" committing adultery with the "woman" means having close dealings with her for their benefit or pleasure.

"Drunk" - people drink and are out of their right minds with this false religious and commercial system. Her "wine" is what she

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman was dressed in purple and scarlet and adorned with gold, precious stones and pearls, and had a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and the filthiness of her adultery. 5 And on her forehead a name was written:

MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, uses to seduce them to share her ungodliness.

17:3 "Wilderness" - perhaps indicating that what the woman represents is like a spiritual desert.

"Woman" - in the Bible woman is used sometimes to signify a religious body (Isa 54:5,6; Jer 3:1; Eph 5:23-32. In the Revelation 12:1; 19:7,8).

"Beast" - 13:1. The beast signifies both a kingdom and its ruler. Therefore the woman is not either of those. But sitting on the beast indicates that in the beginning of the beast's reign the woman is supported by the beast and may even try to control it. Later the beast destroys her - v 16.

17:4 "Purple and scarlet" - some commentators say these colors indicate only luxury and splendor or royalty. Others point to the fact that the cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church, as well as high officials in some other churches, wear these colors.

"Gold. . . pearls" - signify great wealth.

"Golden cup" - rich and attractive on the outside (compare Matt 23:25,26).

"Abominations" - in the Old Testament abominations frequently mean idols and idolatry (note at Jer 7:30).

17:5 "Name. . . on forehead" - in other words this name describes exactly what she is.

"Mystery" - this means she is a mystery that no one could discover the meaning of if God did not reveal it (compare Matt 13:11; Rom 16:25; etc).

"Babylon the Great" - she is not the literal Babylon that was destroyed long ago (see v 18; Jer 50:39,40). She is "mystery" Babylon. But in certain respects she is like that Babylon. Babylon was a city of false religion. It was built originally in defiance of God (Gen 9:1,7, with 11:1-4). It became a city full of idols (Jer 50:38), and the center of a vast religious system. The chief priest of that system was called "Pontifex Maximum" (eventually the emperors of Rome took this title, and later still the bishops of Rome and the popes of the Roman Catholic Church. It means "Chief Bridge Maker." The word "pontiff", used of popes today, means "bridge maker").

"Mother of prostitutes" - this means she is the chief producer of groups, like herself (v 1), unfaithful to God in spiritual and religious matters. This woman is a false system of religion which has some of its

THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I was amazed, greatly amazed.

7 And the angel said to me, "Why were you amazed? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, that has the seven heads and ten horns. 8 The beast that you roots in ancient Babylon and reaches its end in the final apostate religion with its headquarters in Rome.

"Abominations of the earth" - the abominations religious people are capable of when they forsake the teachings of the one true God.

17:6 "Blood of the saints" - in the first centuries Rome under its emperors sometimes persecuted Christians. After that for many centuries the greatest religious persecutor of true believers in Christ was the Roman Catholic Church, and she put multiplied thousands of believers to death (one scholar has estimated the total at five crores - 50 millions). At the end of this age the beast (probably the head of the revived Roman Empire - note at 13:2) will be the persecutor - 13:7,15, but we see the woman here riding the beast.

17:7-18 In these verses the angel gives John (and us) a straightforward explanation of the woman and the beast in literal language. We should accept this explanation and not try to explain it away - which we may do if we try to take this literal language and make it symbolic. Yet we need wisdom to understand some of his words (v 9).

17:8 One question that has perplexed commentators is this: Does the word "beast" here mean an individual or an empire? The answer seems to be it represents an individual who is the head of the empire (as a king of France once said, "I am the state").

"Once was, and is not" - both the "beast" and the "woman" are connected with the city of Rome (vs 9,18). When the angel gave this explanation to John the city of Rome was the flourishing capital of a mighty empire. The angel could not have said either of the city or of the empire in John's day that it "is not." But he could have said it of an individual.

"Will come up out of the Abyss" - see 11:7. The Abyss is the unseen realm of the dead (note at 9:1). The future head of antichrist's kingdom comes from there. And his manifestation was future to John's day (and still is future).

"Destruction" - 19:20.

"Book of Life" - 13:8; 3:5; 20:12.

"Amazed" - see 13:3. There the cause of astonishment is the death and coming to life of one of the heads.

saw was, and is not, and will come up out of the Abyss and go to destruction. And those who live on the earth whose names were not written in the book of life from the beginning of the world will be amazed when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 "Here a mind that has wisdom is needed. The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits. 10 There are also seven kings: five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain for a short time. 11 And the beast that was, and is not, he is the eighth king, and is one of the seven, and goes to destruction.

12 "And the ten horns that you saw are ten

17:9 Wisdom is required because the seven heads are a double symbol.

"Seven hills on which the woman sits" - Rome was famous in that day as the city on seven hills. To John it could not have meant any other place on earth (and we must keep in mind that the angel is giving him an explanation so he can understand, not trying to confuse him). The same is true of the word of the angel in v 18. The Greek word here translated "hill" also means mountain.

17:10 This is the other explanation of the seven heads of the beast. Rome and its empire rested solidly upon its first powerful emperors, beginning with Julius Caesar. In John's day five of them had "fallen." This may mean death by violence. From Caesar to John's day (a period of about 140 years, if John wrote about 96 AD.) there had been eleven emperors. Eight of them died by murder or suicide but only five of those eight were powerful rulers on whom Rome could be said to sit. Counting Julius Caesar they were Caesar, Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius and Nero. The other three (Galba, Otho and Vitellius) were insignificant and between them ruled for only about 2 years.

"One is" - the emperor in John's day was Domitian. Or, if John actually wrote sometime between 54-68 AD (as some think) the emperor in his day would have been Nero (in this case the emperors who had passed off the scene - not necessarily by violence - would be Julius Caesar, Augustus, Tiberius, Caligula and Claudius. Nero would be the sixth).

"The other has not yet come" - he is the seventh king whose place is taken by "the eighth" (v 11), the individual who will come up out of the Abyss (v 8). There were many emperors after Domitian (or Nero) until the Roman Empire collapsed nearly 400 years later. But all that time is passed over in silence because it has no bearing on the purpose of this book. Revelation does not give a history of the Roman Empire, but a picture of things at the end of this age. In vs 10,11 after explaining the origin of the coming individual ruler of the revived Roman empire the angel passes on to the end.

kings who have as yet received no kingdom, but will receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour. 13 They will have one intention, and will give their power and authority to the beast. 14 They will make war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and those who are with him are called and chosen and faithful."

15 And he said to me, "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages. 16 And the ten horns that you saw on the beast, these will hate the prostitute and will make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. 17 For God has put it into their hearts to execute his will,

"A short time" - 13:5.

17:11 Observe in this literal explanation of the angel the words "the beast. . . is an eighth king." He lived before the angel spoke to John but was not living then. He would come to power afterwards.

"He is one of the seven" - since he comes up out of the Abyss (v 8; 11:7), it seems he is resurrected from the dead. Compare 13:3.

17:12,13 "Ten horns" - v 3; 13:1; Dan 7:7. Again we have the explanation in literal language. These ten kings are future to John's day and have still not given their help to the beast. Since they do so all at the same time they must be rulers of places other than Rome. Rome will not have eleven kings at once.

"One hour" - most emphatically a short period of time. Compare 13:5.

"One intention" - probably world-wide power under the leadership of the beast - 13:7.

17:14 "Will make war against the Lamb" - 13:7. Waging war against the people of the Lamb is the same as waging war against the Lamb. Compare Acts 9:4,5.

"Lamb will overcome them" - 19:19-21.

"King of kings" - 19:16.

"Those who are with him" - 19:14.

17:15 "Waters" - v 1. If the prostitute sits in Rome how can she sit at the same time over many other peoples? Rome is her home, the headquarters of her operations. But she will dominate or influence people in many countries around the world.

17:16 "Hate the prostitute" - she will "sit" on them, but they will not be happy about it, and when opportunity comes they will turn on her and destroy her.

"Eat her flesh" - suggests taking her wealth for themselves.

"Burn her" - possibly a literal burning of her possessions and properties which gets out of hand and consumes the whole city (18:8,9). It is difficult to conceive how the beast and the ten kings will hate her as a wealthy commercial center. It is clear though how they could hate her as a religious system - she will be in competition with them.

17:17 "For God" - God is on the throne in 4:2, and His throne is mentioned forty times to agree together and give their kingdom to the beast until God's words are fulfilled.

18 "And the woman that you saw is that great city which is reigning over the kings of the earth."

18 And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven. He had great authority and the earth was lit up with his brightness. 2 And he cried out loudly in a strong voice and said, "Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen and has become the home of demons, a guardhouse for every foul spirit and a cage for every unclean and hateful bird. 3 For all nations have drunk of the inflaming wine of her in this book. In the world's darkest period He will still be in control of events, working out His purposes toward the world. A former king of literal Babylon learned this - Dan 4:35.

"Put it into their hearts" - compare Prov 16:9; 21:1; Gen 45:5. No matter how evil men oppose Him, God accomplishes His purposes on earth.

"Until God's words are fulfilled" - 10:7; Matt 5:18. What God says will happen, and no one can prevent it.

17:18 When the angel gave this literal explanation Rome was the city that ruled over the parts of the earth John knew. To him it could mean only that city. See also v 9 and 18:20. We might suppose that he did not then know all that Rome would become as a center of apostate Christianity, etc, but he could know that it was to be the center of important events at the end of this age. The woman, then, is the city of Rome but a city that represents the religious (and other) characteristics of a people.

18:1 "Another angel" - an angel was already speaking to John. One purpose he had was to show John "the judgment of the great prostitute" (17:1). This he did in v 16. Why then does another angel come now to announce it? It may be because this chapter reveals a different aspect of her fall, or that her fall is in two stages.

18:2 "Fallen", "fallen" - 14:8; Isa 21:9. Why is the word "fallen" repeated? Possibly for emphasis. Or possibly because she falls first from her high religious position, and then from her commercial position. By destroying the one (17:16) the beast finds he has also destroyed the other. Or it may mean that this woman Babylon first fell spiritually, morally, and ethically, and then will fall into literal destruction.

"Home of demons" - this sounds like a fall in the spiritual sense, completely away from God (note on demons at Matt 4:24). After the destruction of the old literal Babylon it became the haunt of jackals and hyenas (Isa 13:19-22; Jer 50:39; 51:37). Mystery Babylon is filled with worse than these.

18:3 "Wine of her adultery" - 17:2. Here the wine is said to be "inflaming." Compare Jer 51:7.

adultery, and the kings of the earth have committed adultery with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the power of her luxuries."

4 And I heard another voice from heaven say: "Come out of her, my people, so that you do not share in her sins and that you receive none of her plagues. 5 For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her wrongdoing. 6 Give her back just as she has given you and pay her back double for her deeds. Pour out for her a double amount in the cup that she poured. 7 In the measure she has honoured herself and lived luxuriously, give her torment and sorrow. For she

"Merchants" - vs 11,15,23. This is the first mention of them in this book. Until now there has been no reason to think that the "prostitute" of chapter 17 is anything but a city which represents a large and powerful religious system. But of course a great city is more than its religion.

"Luxuries" - vs 7,9.

18:4 "Another voice from heaven" - compare Heb 12:25.

"Come out" - compare Isa 52:11; Jer 51:45; 2 Cor 6:17. Some of God's people will be in this "mystery Babylon" in the last days. Coming out of her does not mean to leave physically the city of Rome. It means to separate from the system that city represents, and from its greed for gain as revealed in this chapter. Compare 1 Tim 6:10,11.

"Share in her sins" - sharing her sins will mean sharing her punishment also. Compromise with evil is very dangerous.

18:5 "To heaven" - Jer 51:9. When they built the original Babylon men wanted a tower that reached to the heavens (Gen 11:4). But in the end it is their sins which reach the heavens.

"Remembered" - 16:19.

18:6 "Give her back just as she has given" - here is the perfect principle of justice that God reveals throughout His word (Ex 21:23-25; Lev 24:20; 26:23,24; Esther 7:10; Ps 18:25-27; Isa 59:18; Jer 51:56; Rom 2:5-11; Gal 6:7-9).

"The cup" - 17:4. She used her "cup" to destroy others; justice will see that it destroys her.

18:7 Three sins (v 5) are listed here in this verse: self-glory, luxurious living, and proud boasting.

"Honoured herself" - what she did was all for self rather than for God whom all should glorify.

"Luxuriously" - this is another of her sins for which God will punish her. When many in the world live in deep poverty, rags and hunger, living in luxury is a crime. It is also a sign that those who indulge in it have no heart for God (compare Luke 16:19-21). And God will punish those guilty of it - Jam 5:1-5.

"Queen" - mystery Babylon thinks she is says in her heart, 'I sit as queen and am not a widow, and will not see grief.' 8 Therefore her plagues will come in one day: death, mourning, and famine. And she will be consumed by fire, for the Lord God who judges her is mighty.

9 "And the kings of the earth who have committed adultery with her and lived luxuriously with her will weep and lament for her, when they see the smoke of her burning. 10 From fear of her torment they will stand far off, and will say, 'Alas, alas, the great city Babylon! The mighty city! In one hour your judgment has come.'

11 "And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her because no one buys their merchandise any more, 12 the merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet cloth, and every kind of citron wood, and every kind of article made of ivory, and every kind of article made of costly wood, of bronze, of iron, and of marble, 13 and cinnamon, perfumes, fragrant ointment, frankincense, and wine and oil, and fine flour and wheat, and cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and souls of men.

14 "The fruit that your soul craved has gone from you, and your luxuries and splendors have gone from you, and you will never find them again.

15 "The merchants of these things who were made rich by her, will stand far off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, 16 and say, 'Alas! alas! that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! 17 For in one hour such great wealth has come to nothing.'

"And every ship captain, and all who travel by ship, and sailors, and all who trade by sea, stood far off, 18 when they saw the smoke of her burning, and cried out and said, 'What city was ever like this great city!' 19 And they threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and said, 'Alas! alas! that great city, where all who had ships on the sea were made wealthy through her riches! For in one hour she has been destroyed.'

20 "Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, because for you God has executed judgment on her."

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, and said, reigning now and that no disaster can overtake her. But Prov 11:2; 16:18 will be true of her (as those verses always are).

18:8 "In one day" - very suddenly and quickly. It seems there will be two stages in her destruction, and possibly three. First death, mourning and famine, then fire, then (possibly) a violent, overwhelming disaster (v 21). It takes time for famine to develop and affect a city.

"God who judges her" - 16:5,7.

18:9 "Kings of the earth" - v 3; 17:2. Apparently these are different kings than the ones in 17:12,16 (if they are the same this means that they did not want to destroy Rome as a commercial system, but only as a religious system). And they are different from the beast and the woman.

"Weep" - because an important source of their power and influence is destroyed.

18:10 "Fear" - their own future will seem grim and fearful.

"The mighty city" - 17:18.

18:11-17 "Merchants" - v 3. Evidently Rome will represent a very large commercial system (v 23). More and more the economies of various nations of the world will be tied together. When one large market is affected the whole world is affected.

"Fear" (v 15) - fearful that a similar thing might happen to them.

"Wailing" - those who have their treasures in this world (rather than in heaven - Matt 6:19-21) will be alarmed and sad when there is a threat of losing them.

18:13 "Bodies and souls of men" - "Babylon" cares nothing for people but only what can be gotten out of them. Her dealings result in every kind of bondage and enslavement.

Her leaders will sell souls like cattle.

18:17-19 Sailors and their captains will join the lament. The fall of Rome will be a serious blow to commerce by sea.

"What city was ever like this great city?" Will Rome in the future be greatly developed as a commercial center as well as a political one? It seems quite possible from this question and this chapter. Or is it here viewed more as what it represents than what it will be in itself?

"Wealthy" (v 19) - the kings will think of her power (v 10), merchants and sailors will think of her wealth.

18:20 These words are spoken by the voice from heaven which has been speaking from v 4. See how different are God's thoughts from the thoughts of unbelievers about the same event. The destruction of mystery Babylon is a source of grief to men of the world, but of joy to God and His people. Compare Luke 16:15; Isa 55:8,9. It will mean the end of a system based on greed, covetousness, and love of money; a system that craves power and cares nothing for people; a system that ignores God and tries to build a world of leisure, luxury and satisfaction without Him. Such a system deserves to be destroyed, and it will be.

"Apostles and prophets, because for you God has executed judgment on her" - v 24; 17:6; 19:2. This is more evidence that the woman means Rome. It was Rome which killed Paul and Peter and countless other believers, and had persecuted John and banished him to Patmos.

18:21,22 It would seem that mystery Babylon's final destruction will result from a sudden terrific act of violence.

"In this way that great city Babylon will be violently thrown down and will never be found again. 22 And the sound of harpists, and musicians, and flutists, and trumpeters will never again be heard in you. And no workman of any kind of work will ever again be found in you. And the sound of a millstone will never again be heard in you. 23 And lamplight will never again shine in you. And the voice of bridegroom and of bride will never again be heard in you. For your merchants were the world's great men and all nations were deceived through your sorceries. 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who had been killed on the earth."

19 After these things I heard a loud voice of many people in heaven saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and honour and power belong to the Lord our God, 2 for his judgments are true and righteous, because he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth by her adultery and has taken vengeance on her for the blood of his servants she shed."

3 And again they said, "Hallelujah! And smoke from her rises up for ever and ever."

4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living beings prostrated themselves and worshiped God, who was seated on the throne, and said, "Amen, Hallelujah!"

5 And a voice came from the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all you his servants, and you who fear him, both small and great."

6 And I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, and like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord God omnipotent reigns! 7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give him honour, for the wedding of the Lamb has come and his wife has made herself ready. 8 And to wear she was given fine linen, clean and bright; for the fine

"Never again" - one name men have given Rome is "The Eternal City." It will prove a false title.

18:23 "World's great men" - v 11,14,15. Again we see that the city represents a great commercial system with its immensely rich and powerful bankers and industrialists.

"Deceived" - 12:9. Here this means led astray from God into ungodliness. Satan uses her for this purpose.

"Sorceries" - compare what is said about Nineveh in Nahum 3:4.

18:24 "All who have been killed" - how can this be said of any single city? For a similar thing see Matt 23:35,35 and notes. Mystery Babylon by her attitude and behavior reveals herself as one with all the violent persecutors of history and shares and inherits the guilt of all. She is their successor who has willingly imbibed their spirit.

19:1 "Hallelujah" - this word occurs in the New Testament only in the first six verses of this chapter. The word joins two Hebrew words - "Hallel" meaning praise, and "Jah" (Yah) meaning Jehovah God. It can be translated as "Praise the Lord", or "Praise Jehovah", or "Praise Yahweh."

"Belong to the Lord our God" - 4:11; 5:12; 7:10,12.

19:2 "True and righteous" - 15:3; 16:5,7.

"Adultery" - 17:2,5.

"Taken vengeance" - 6:10; 17:6; 18:20. It is not our place to take vengeance, but when God does it there is great rejoicing in heaven. They all recognize that it is God acting in perfect justice for the good of the universe.

19:3 They praise God because mystery Babylon will be destroyed forever. Never will she rise again to corrupt the earth or persecute true believers.

"For ever and ever" - 14:11.

19:4 "Elders. . .living beings" - 4:4,6-8.

"Amen" - 1:6.

19:5 "From the throne" - 16:17; 21:3.

"Praise our God" - note at Ps 33:1-3.

"Fear Him" - 14:7; 15:4; notes at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 86:11; 111:10; Prov 1:7; Rom 3:18; 1 Pet 1:17; 2:17. Observe in this verse that God's servants and those who fear Him are the same persons. Without the proper fear of the Lord it is not possible to be a true servant of God. How can a person truly serve God if He does not have a reverential awe and respect for Him, a fear of offending or dishonoring Him?

19:6 "Reigns" - 11:15. Here is reason for great praise and rejoicing. God is the great King over all the earth, and He will demonstrate it by destroying all corrupt and ungodly power on earth, religious or secular.

19:7 "The great prostitute" has been judged and destroyed. Now, in great contrast to all that she was and did, the bride of the Lamb appears.

"Wedding" - the public manifestation and celebration of what has been true of all His believers throughout this age. All believers are even now united to Him. The "bride" is the same as what is called the "body" of Christ in Rom 12:4,5; 1 Cor 12:12; Eph 1:23; 5:23; Col 1:18. On this subject see Matt 22:2-14; John 3:29; 17:20-23; Rom 6:3; 7:4; 2 Cor 11:2; Eph 5:22-32. In the Old Testament the nation Israel was the "wife" of Jehovah - see Isa 54:5-7; Jer 3:14,20; 31:32; Hos 2:16,19,20. See also notes on Song of Songs and Ps 45:8-17.

"His wife has made herself ready" - compare Eph 5:26,27. There we see it is Christ who makes the bride ready. How then does she make herself ready? By cooperating with Him and doing what He commands.

19:8 "Righteous deeds" - believers have the righteousness of Christ (Rom 3:21-26; 1 Cor 1:30; 2 Cor 5:21; Phil 3:9), but they prove this by their own righteous acts.

linen is the righteous deeds of the saints."

9 And he said to me, "Write: Blessed are those who are called to the wedding supper of the Lamb." He also said to me, "These are the true words of God."

10 And I prostrated myself at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, "Look, do not do that! I am a servant together with you and with your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

11 And I saw heaven opened, and there appeared a white horse and he who sat on him. He is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness

he judges and makes war. 12 His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns. And he had a name written that no man knew except he himself. 13 And he was dressed in a garment dipped in blood. And his name is called The Word of God. 14 And the armies in heaven followed him on white horses, dressed in fine linen, white and clean. 15 And out of his mouth comes a sharp sword with which he should strike the nations. And he will rule them with an iron rod. And he tramples the wine press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16 And on his robe and on his thigh he has a name written:

On this subject see Matt 5:6; 25:34-40; Rom 2:6-10; Jam 2:14-26. No righteous acts means no real faith and no readiness to meet the Lord.

19:9 "Those who are called" - this does not refer to the open invitation given to many who do not accept the invitation (compare Matt 22:2-7; Luke 14:16-24). This means a special invitation in heaven to those who have already accepted the one on earth. The "called" are all those who actually attend (see Rom 8:30). Who are they? Is there any doubt that they constitute the bride? The symbol of the bride views them collectively; the words "those who are called" view them individually. In the parable in Matt 22:2-14 those who accept the King's invitation, and wear the wedding garment he gives, all together make up the "bride" for the King's Son. They show they are part of the bride by accepting his invitation.

"Blessed" - notes at Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1; Matt 5:3.

"True words of God" - not the angel's own invention. Everywhere in the Bible God has spoken (Heb 1:1,2). On His revealed Word believers can rest and rejoice.

19:10 If this angel was the one in 18:1 perhaps John was overcome by his splendor and his words of authority and blessing, and mistook him for Christ.

"Do not do that" - no good angel and no good man has the desire that Satan has (to receive worship - see Matt 4:9). All of them will refuse worship and point people away from themselves to God. Any who accept worship reveal their wickedness.

"Spirit of prophecy" - anyone who gives true witness concerning Christ is giving a witness that is truly prophetic. It is speaking forth truth revealed by God Himself and it has to do with both the present and the future.

19:11 The great prostitute has been judged. Now the evil triumvirate - the dragon, the beast and the false prophet - must be dealt with to redeem the earth from its enslavement to wickedness. This Christ will do at His return (v 20; 20:1-3). The picture in this verse is of Christ's sudden coming to earth again. Believers from the first century onwards have looked forward to this great event. See references at 1:7.

"There appeared" - literally, "look".

"White horse" - the rider of this one will be in great contrast to the one in 6:2.

"Faithful and True" - 1:5; 3:14 - He is the Lord Jesus and no other. He is not unfaithful and false as the prostitute, the beast and his prophet will prove to be.

"Makes war" - 17:14; Ex 15:3; Josh 10:42; 23:3; Ps 45:3-7; Isa 11:4. Christ will fight for His world and for His people, and He will win. Compare His coming here with His first coming (Luke 2:7), and His riding into Jerusalem on a donkey (Matt 21:1-5).

19:12 "Fire" - 1:14.

"Many crowns" - this is the only place in the New Testament where Christ is said to wear any royal crown (diadem) and it is when He comes to earth to reign.

"No one knew, except he" - compare 2:17; Matt 11:27. Only God can fully understand all that Christ is.

19:13 "Blood" - probably signifies Christ as Redeemer who shed His blood for sinners (Matt 26:28; Rom 3:24,25; Eph 1:7). Some think it speaks of Christ as warrior and the defeat of His enemies. But this comes in v 15.

"Word of God" - John 1:1,14.

19:14 "Armies in heaven" - certainly His angels (Matt 16:27; 25:31; 2 Thess 1:7), and perhaps His believers also (17:14; see note at 1 Thess 3:13). In this book fine white linen is the dress for both angels and believers (v 8; 15:6).

19:15 Note at 1:16.

"Strike" - 2 Thess 2:8; Isa 11:4.

"Iron rod" - 2:27; Ps 2:9. Very clearly, his rule over the nations of earth is after His second coming.

"Wine press of the . . .wrath" - 14:19; Isa 63:1-4.

19:16 "King of kings and Lord of lords" - means the greatest and highest of all who are called kings or lords. Could this be said of anyone who does not share the nature of God and is not God Himself? Compare Deut 10:17; Ps 136:2,3; Dan 2:47. See 1 Tim 6:15 where God Himself bears this name. In the Old Testament the LORD (Jehovah God) is the great King (Ps 47:2). Here the KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun. And he shouted in a loud voice and said to all the birds that fly through the sky, "Come and gather together at the supper of the great God, 18 so that you may eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of captains and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of their riders and the flesh of all kinds of people, both free and slave, both small and great."

19 And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse and against his army. 20 And the beast was captured and with him the false prophet who performed signs in his presence, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who

Lord Jesus is the great King. Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah (see note and other references at Luke 2:11). This name "written" on Christ at His coming means that He Himself is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords - 17:14. He does not bear a title that belongs to someone else. This is the "glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ", the blessed hope of believers (Titus 2:13). Other references to Christ's deity at Phil 2:6.

19:17,18 The reference to birds, flesh, horses and men suggest a literal battle with many killed. This "supper" is in great contrast with "the wedding supper of the Lamb" (v 9). That one is for Christ's righteous people; this one for Christ's opponents. God provides this supper for the vultures who feed on the dead. Compare Ezek 39:17-20.

"All kinds of people" - people of all nations who have received the mark of the beast and joined the armies mentioned in v 19.

19:19 "Beast" - see 13:4. Now One is seen who can make war against him.

"Kings of the earth" - 6:15; 16:12, 14,16; 17:2,18; 18:3; 21:24.

"Gathered together" - 16:14,16. This is the final great battle of this age. They will come to this battle whether they think it is militarily reasonable or not (compare Ezek 38:4; 39:2). Christ is sovereign over all the kings of earth - 1:5. And He who brought Pharaoh's army to the Red Sea and their destruction (Ex 14:4,23-38) can bring earth's armies to this final battle. And He will do so. We are not told what the beast and these kings will think - whether they realize they are trying to fight the Lord from heaven. For all we know they may think it is an invasion from space which must be resisted to save the earth. But we should not rule out even a conscious attempt on their part to fight the Son of God. There is no limit to the willful and stubborn depravity of men energized by Satan. Remember that Satan and his angels fight in heaven worshiped his image. Both of them were thrown alive into a lake of fire burning with sulfur. 21 And the rest of them were killed by the sword of the one who sat on the horse, the sword that came out of his mouth. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key to the Abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he seized the dragon, that old serpent, who is the Devil, that is, Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, 3 and threw him into the Abyss and locked him up and put a seal on him, so that he could no longer deceive the nations until the thousand years were finished. And after that he must be let loose for a little while.

itself (12:7). And men can know God's coming judgment and still continue in their rebellion against Him (Rom 1:32; etc).

19:20 "False prophet" - 16:13; 20:10.

"Signs" - 13:13-15.

"Lake of fire" - 20:10,14,15; 21:8. The throwing of them alive into the lake of fire is further evidence that the beast and false prophet are individuals. The Bible says nothing about kingdoms and empires being thrown there.

19:21 "Sword. . .out of his mouth" - Christ will but speak and destruction results.

20:1-3 Before this event Christ has dealt with the prostitute, the beast and the false prophet. But before the earth is prepared for His glorious reign one more person must be removed. That is what we have here.

20:1 "Abyss" - note at 9:1.

20:2 "Dragon" - 12:3,9.

"Satan" - notes at 1 Chron 21:2; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44.

"Bound him" - in a sense Christ at His first coming bound Satan (Matt 12:29). Some teach that Satan is bound throughout this whole age and that these verses here in this book refer to that. However, if that is true Satan must be on a very long chain - see 12:10,12,13,17; 1 Pet 5:8; Eph 2:2; 6:11,12! We should notice that here it is an angel, not Christ, who binds Satan. And that having bound him he throws him into the Abyss. And there is not a word about this anywhere else in the New Testament, not a suggestion that Satan has been in the Abyss all these centuries and not able to deceive the nations.

"Thousand years" - vs 4,6. There have been many attempts to make this mean anything but a literal thousand years, but in the view of the author of these notes these attempts have all been unsuccessful.

20:3 "Locked him up and put a seal" - compare Isa 24:21-24. This surely indicates imprisoned so that he cannot for a moment step out of the Abyss and put his foot on earth.

"So that he could no longer deceive the 4 And I saw thrones and those who were sitting on them. Authority to mete out judgment was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the witness of Jesus and for the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or in their hands. And they lived again and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the nations until" – we can be sure that this speaks of an event still in the future, because deceiving the nations is something Satan constantly does now (12:9). See also 2 Cor 4:4; 11:3,14,15; 2 Thess 2:9; 1 Tim 4:1.

"A little time" – v 7.

20:4 "Thrones" – it does not say where they are, but the whole scene from v 1 to v 9 seems clearly to be on earth. Verse 1 says the angel came "down out of heaven" and vs 8,9 are events which will take place on earth.

"Authority to mete out judgment" – compare Matt 19:28.

"Souls of those. . . beheaded" – 6:9.

"Beast" – the antichrist does not appear until the end of this age and Christ Himself will deal with him at His coming (19:20; 2 Thess 2:3-8). It is perfectly clear that the events revealed here in this verse happen after that.

"Lived again" – in the next verse this is called resurrection; that is, souls entering the bodies they once occupied and the bodies coming to life again.

"Reigned with Christ" – as Christ promised (2:26,27; 3:21). It speaks here of those reigning who had been beheaded by the beast, but this does not mean that other believers will not reign with Christ. Their reign had been revealed before in other Scriptures, and so it was not necessary to state that truth again. See 5:10; 2 Tim 2:12; Rom 8:17; compare Luke 19:15-17,19.

"A thousand years" – all the time Satan is in the Abyss. This is the only place in the Bible that speaks of the length of this time when Christ will reign with His saints on the present earth. But this book is a special revelation from God, and it should not surprise us that there is truth in it not revealed before. There are Christian scholars who say there will be no literal reign of Christ on this present earth after His return. Some of them teach that the promises of glory and blessing made to Israel in the Old Testament are being fulfilled in the Church in this present age, that Satan is bound now, and that now the saints reign with Christ. And some scholars teach that this "thousand year" reign does not refer to the earth at all, but to the reign of the saints in heaven. The reasons they give for these views do not satisfy the author of these notes. On Christ's reign as prophesied in the Old Testament see Isa 2:1-4; 9:6,7; first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy is he who will have a part in the first resurrection. On such people the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years have ended, Satan will be let loose from his prison, 8 and will go out to deceive the nations that are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together for battle. The number 11:4-16; 24:23; 32:1-5; 35:1-10; Dan 2:34,35,44,45; Zech 14:8-21.

20:5 According to this there are two resurrections.

"The rest of the dead" – unbelievers who have died in their sins. Compare John 5:28,29. See note at Phil 3:11; Luke 20:35. Other references on the resurrection of believers: 1 Cor 15:20-25, 42-44, 51-53; 1 Thess 4:14-17.

20:6 Blessed and holy surely applies to all true believers in Christ throughout this age – Matt 5:3; Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; John 17:17; Rom 1:7; Eph 1:4; 2:21; Col 1:2; 3:12; Heb 10:10,14; 1 Pet 2:9.

"Second death" – v 14.

"Priests" – 1:6; 5:10; 1 Pet 2:5,9.

"Will reign with Him" – no description is given here of Christ's reign on earth. It was not necessary to give it here because God had revealed it before this in other parts of the Bible. For example see Isa 2:1-4 and other such Scriptures.

20:7 "Let loose" – this will be for the "little time" referred to in v 1. It is different from the little time in 12:12. There Satan was cast out of heaven; here he is let loose from the Abyss – a huge difference.

20:8 "Deceive" – immediately he will be up to his old tricks again and he will succeed remarkably well. Even after one thousand years of universal justice and righteousness, peace and prosperity and perfect government, the hearts of men will prove to be as rebellious and depraved as ever. These will be people born and grown to maturity during the thousand year reign. Their rebellion at the end will reveal other lessons (or deeper truths) God will be pleased to teach about the depravity of the human heart.

"Gog and Magog" – compare Ezek 38:2. In Ezekiel Gog is the chief prince of Magog, and Magog and the other nations that come against Israel are from the far north of Israel (Ezek 38:6,15; 39:2). And it seems they will invade Israel sometime before the end of this age, before the thousand year reign (notes at Ezek 38:1,8). Here in this book Gog and Magog are nations from the "four corners of the earth." Also this invasion takes place after the thousand year reign. Why are these nations called Gog and Magog? Possibly merely to reveal their character – they will be just as rebellious and determined, etc. as the ones in Ezekiel chapters 38,39.

of them is like the sand of the sea. 9 And they proceeded across earth's wide expanse and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. Then fire came down from God out of heaven and consumed them. 10 And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are, and they will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne and him who was sitting on it. From his face earth and heaven fled away, and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God, and the books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by the things 20:9 "The earth's wide expanse" - this is not said of the invaders of Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39 (38:6,15; 39:2).

"The beloved city" - Ps 87:2.

"Fire. . .from heaven" - compare Ezek 38:22; 39:6; Ps 11:6,7.

20:10 "They" - the verb is in the plural here, indicating that all three of those mentioned here will be tormented. Two of them will have been there for 1000 years (19:20). Evidently being cast into the lake of fire does not mean annihilation, extinction of being.

"Day and night for ever and ever" - 14:11.

20:11-15 The final judgment of people and the end of the heavens and earth as they are now. God's throne is now a throne of grace - Heb 4:16. Those who reject God's grace will face His just judgment on all their sins. Does this judgment take place when the 1000 years are over, or before? The wording here does not make this clear. It may be that what is revealed here are the principles of the judgment and not the time of it. All we can say is that from the context it seems likely that it happens after the 1000 years reign of Christ. But this does not necessarily rule out a similar judgment before the 1000 years.

20:11 "Him who was sitting on it" - Christ; see John 5:22; Acts 17:31.

"No place was found for them" - 21:1.

20:12 "The dead" - presumably those raised from the dead in the second resurrection (v 5). They will be raised, but still called "the dead", because they will be without spiritual life. Compare Eph 2:1; 1 Tim 5:6.

"Books" - distinct from the book of life, and containing a record of the deeds done by those dead while they were on earth.

"The book of life" - note at 3:5.

"Were judged" - Ps 9:7,8; 82:8; 94:2; 96:10-13; Dan 7:9,10.

20:13 "The sea" is mentioned probably because some might think that bodies sunk in the depths of the sea or devoured by sharks or fish will be beyond recovery. But they too will rise and stand before the judgment throne.

"Death" - the power that separated written in the books, according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them, and each one of them was judged according to his deeds. 14 And death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death. 15 And whoever was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

21 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. And no longer was there a sea. 2 And I, John, saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride dressed for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from heaven which said, "Look, God's peoples' souls from their bodies. But death will not be able to keep souls and bodies separated.

"Hades" - see Luke 16:23; etc. There unbelievers are kept until God's final judgment on them.

20:14 Death will no longer separate souls from bodies but will be merged into the final separation of the wicked from God. Hades will no longer be a place where the wicked are kept until judgment. All the wicked will be judged and Hades merged into hell.

"Second death" - this means eternal separation from God who is the source of all peace, joy, and blessing (Matt 25:41; 2 Thess 1:8,9).

20:15 Those not written in the book of life will not have spiritual life (John 1:12,13; Eph 2:5), and they will practice the sins listed in 21:8. And they will receive exactly what they will deserve. Let us remember again the one way to escape this just judgment and punishment - John 5:24; Rom 8:1.

21:1 "New" - Isa 65:17; 66:22; 2 Pet 3:13. "Passed away" - 20:11; Matt 24:29; 2 Pet 3:10.

"A sea no longer existed" - there will be vast changes from the state of things now.

21:2 "New Jerusalem" - compare Gal 4:26; Heb 11:10; 12:22; 13:14; Phil 3:20; John 14:2.

"Coming down out of heaven" - the final dwelling place of redeemed mankind will be on a new earth, not in heaven. Or should we say heaven becomes earth and earth heaven.

"As a bride" - vs 9,10.

21:3 "From heaven" - 4:2; 16:17; 19:5 - the central place of authority in the universe.

"God's dwelling place is with men" - that is, on the new earth. The new earth will become heaven, for God will live there with men. This is the climax of the whole Bible, the fulfillment of the plan God has had for mankind from the beginning. Note and references at Ex 25:8.

"His people. . .their God" - 2 Cor 6:16; Lev 26:11,12; Ezek 37:27; 2 Cor 6:16; 1 Pet 2:9.

dwelling place is with men, and he will live with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them, and be their God. 4 And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes. And no longer will there be death, or sorrow, or crying. And no longer will there be pain, for the former things have passed away."

5 And he who sat on the throne said, "See, I make all things new." And he said to me, "Write this, for these words are true and faithful."

6 And he said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsty I will freely give from the fountain of the water of life. 7 He who overcomes will inherit all things. I will be his God, and he will be my son. 8 But the cowardly, and the unbelieving, and the vile, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars will have their part in the lake which burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

9 And one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues, came to me and talked with me and said, "Come here, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife." 10 And he 21:4 "Eyes" - 7:17.

"No. . . death" - 20:14 - no more physical death, the separation of soul and body, and no more spiritual death which is separation from God.

"Passed away" - the root cause of death, mourning, crying, and pain is the fall of mankind into sin (Rom 5:12). When sin is abolished from the world these other things will vanish with it.

21:5 "New" - He has already begun this work. See 2 Cor 5:17; Eph 2:10. Once the present earth and its system have fulfilled the purpose for which God made them, He will lay them aside and make new ones.

"True and faithful" - 19:9; 22:6. These things are not visionary or imaginary, but eternal realities.

21:6 "He" - God.

"It is done" - when God says something is done it means that it is absolutely certain it will be fulfilled, though it does not always become so at the moment of speaking. See Isa 46:10; Rom 4:17.

"Alpha and Omega" - 1:8; 22:13.

"Water of life" - here it is God who gives the water of life; in John 4:10,14 it is the Lord Jesus who gives it. Observe that it is given without cost. See 22:17; Isa 55:1; Rom 6:23.

21:7 "Overcomes" - see note at 2:7.

"Inherit" - 1 John 3:1-3; Rom 8:15,16, 19,23,29. This is a promise that should make everyone who reads it determine to be among the overcomers and not to be much concerned about any inheritance in this present world. But we should not think from this verse that becoming a child of God is a reward for overcoming. Becoming a child of God is altogether a gift of God's grace (John 1:1,13,14; Gal 4:4-7; Eph 2:8-10; 1 Pet 1:3-5). Overcoming is a result of becoming a child of God, is evidence of the new birth (1 John 5:4,5). However, overcoming is not something that takes place automatically without the child of God having any part in it. Winning, continuing in the faith, requires spiritual effort through the power God has put in believers.

21:8 There will be only two classes of people - the saved and the lost; God's people with whom He will dwell (v 3), and these who have refused to be God's people.

"Cowardly" - in the context this means those who refuse to believe in Christ and confess Him because of the fear of other people.

"Unbelieving" - those who preferred darkness to light, themselves to Christ, this world to heaven and so do not believe in Christ because they do not want to (John 3:19,20,36; 5:40; 2 Thess 2:10,11). Unbelief is not some light thing, some misfortune, something to be easily excused. It is the sin above all which will condemn men to the lake of fire. It is here put together with murder and sins which make people vile.

"Whoremongers" - the original meaning of the Greek word (used also in Eph 5:5; 1 Tim 1:10; Heb 13:4; Rev 22:15) seems to be men engaged in buying or selling sex, but in various versions in various places has been translated "fornicators" or "sexually immoral person". Certainly all such immorality is condemned in many places in the Bible. See 1 Cor 6:9,10; Eph 5:5,6; Col 3:5,6.

"Sorcerers" - 9:21; 18:23; 22:15; Acts 8:11; Deut 18:9-14. This means those who practice black magic with the intention of deceiving people, and the result of which is to lead them away from God's truth.

"Idolaters" - a sin everywhere condemned in the Bible and one forbidden in the list of the ten commandments God gave (Ex 20:4-6). No idolater will ever be among God's people - unless he or she repents and forsakes all idols and gods.

"Liars" - see also v 27; 22:15. Because this is put last we should not think it is least. Liars are classed with "dogs" and murderers. Telling lies is no light thing. It is a deadly sin which will bring people at last to the lake of fire. God condemns it everywhere in His Word - Ex 20:16; Ps 5:6; 15:2; 31:5; Prov 6:16-19; 12:22; 19:5,9,22; Matt 19:18; Eph 4:15,25; Col 3:9. Liars are children of Satan (John 8:44), and will go where Satan goes (20:10). Observe that God says "all" liars will go into the lake of fire - all who practice any form of lying and deception whether they profess to be saints or Christians or Christian workers or anyone else. Let us all escape for our lives from this soul-destroying sin.

"Lake. . . second death" - 19:20; 20:6,10,14,15.

21:9 "Last plagues" - 15:1.

"The bride" - 19:7.

21:10 In v 9 the angel said he would show John "the bride, the wife of the Lamb." But carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, 11 having the glory of God. And her light was like a very precious gemstone, like a crystal-clear jasper. 12 The city had a great, high wall with twelve gates. And twelve angels were at the gates, and names were written on the gates, the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. 13 Three gates were on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 He who talked with me had a gold rod to measure the city, and its gates and its wall. 16 The city is laid out like a square, and its length is the same as its breadth. And he measured the city with the rod, twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth and height are equal. 17 And he measured its wall, a hundred and forty-four cubits, according to man's measurement, that is, of the angel.

instead of showing John the people of God the angel shows him the city of God. This city will be the residence of the people of God (v 27) and represents them. Compare the great prostitute of chapter 17 who is also said to be a city (17:18). A city means more than buildings and streets. It means also the people who live there, and it can represent a whole system of religion. Compare Matt 23:37-39. It was not literal buildings and streets which killed the prophets but the people of Israel represented by the literal city of Jerusalem. As the old Jerusalem represented the Jews so the new Jerusalem represents the redeemed people of God and they will fully share its holiness, glory and splendor.

21:11 "Glory of God" - v 23. Compare John 17:22,24; Rom 2:10; 5:2; 8:17,18,30. "Jasper" - 4:3.

21:12 "Twelve tribes" - 7:5-8. Evidently this city represents both Israel and the Church of the New Testament (v 14) united forever. Compare Eph 2:14-22; Rom 11:17-24. Since this city represents the bride of Christ (v 9) it seems that redeemed Israel is a part of the bride.

21:14 "Twelve apostles" - Matt 10:2-4. Judas Iscariot lost his place as an apostle - Acts 2:15-20. Can we doubt whose name will appear here with the remaining eleven? See Rom 1:1; 1 Cor 15:7-10; Gal 2:8,9.

21:16 "Twelve thousand furlongs" - about 2,200 kilometers. This city will be of tremendous size and reach far into the sky. Evidently a city of this size is required to represent the great multitude of redeemed people who will live there. Compare 7:9.

21:17 "A hundred and forty-four cubits" - about 66 meters. Why is a wall necessary? It is perhaps a symbol signifying the exclusion of all who do not belong there -

18 The wall was built of jasper, and the city was pure gold like clear glass. 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were embellished with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was with jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcidony, the fourth emerald, 20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprasus, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate was a single pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold like transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple in the city, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. 23 And the city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it and the Lamb is its light. 24 And the nations of the saved will walk in its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory and honour into it. 25 And its gates will never be shut by day (for there will be no night there), 26 and they will bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. 27 And no defiling v 27; 22:15.

21:18 Gold transparent as glass is not a substance now known to men (nor pearls as large as city gates - v 21). God the Creator is not limited to the rude and solid materials we now have on earth.

21:19,20 We cannot be sure what the Greek names for some of these gems represent today.

21:21 No oysters produced these pearls, but He who will make all things new - v 5.

21:22 There will be no need of a temple built of materials. The temple (and tabernacle) in the Old Testament was a place for God to dwell (Ex 25:8), and no one but the high priest of Israel could even enter His presence (Heb 9:7; Lev 16:1,2). All others were excluded. In the new Jerusalem God and Christ are the temple and all His people will live in His presence and in Him (v 3; 3:12; John 17:20-23).

21:23 "Sun or moon" - we do not know whether there will be anything like our present sun or moon - 20:11.

"The Lamb is its light" - compare John 8:12; 2 Cor 4:6; 1 John 1:5,6. Only those who walk in His light in this world will live in it in the next.

21:24-26 This picture suggests that the redeemed in the new earth may have distinct lands with their individual rulers and come and go to and from the city. But we cannot be sure of this.

21:27 This makes it clear that the nations and kings of vs 24-26 will be the people of God, born of His Spirit.

"No defiling thing" - sin is what has ruined the earth we now live in. It will not ruin that one. Ah, eternal purity and holiness without a blot or stain!

"Anyone who practices lying" - singled out for special mention (see v 8). Not one thing will ever enter it, or anyone who commits an abomination or tells a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

22 And he showed me a pure river of the water of life, clear as crystal, issuing from the throne of God and of the Lamb, 2 in the middle of the city's street. And on each side of the river there was the tree of life, producing twelve kinds of fruits and yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3 And no longer will there be any curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city. And his servants will serve him, 4 and they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. 5 There will be no night there, and they will need no lamp or light of the sun, for the Lord God gives them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

lie will ever be told in the new Jerusalem - we might almost think now that this alone will be heaven enough!

"Book of life" - 20:12,15.

22:1 "River of the water of life" - 21:6. Compare Ps 46:4; Ezek 46:4. It is the flow of eternal life which believers will experience forever.

"From the throne" - the throne is shared by God and the Lamb, and that throne will be in the city on the new earth. The new earth will be the place from which God will reign over the universe.

22:2 "Tree of Life" - 2:7. The history of mankind begins with mention of the tree of life (Gen 2:9) and man barred from it because of sin (3:22-24). The last scene is of men redeemed from sin and having free access to this tree.

"Twelve kinds of fruit" - one taste of that fruit will mean the end of all that has afflicted God's people throughout the ages on this sinful earth.

22:3 "Curse" - Gen 3:17; Isa 24:6. The Old Testament concludes with a warning about a curse - Mal 4:6. The Bible concludes with a promise of the curse removed forever.

"Serve him" - see 7:15. The service of believers will not end when they enter the eternal ages. They will have the privilege and joy of serving God forever. This will be service without sin or fault, without opposition, without weariness.

22:4 "See his face" - Matt 5:8; 1 Cor 13:12; Heb 12:14; Isa 33:17.

"His name. . . in their foreheads" - 14:1. They will belong to Him and be like Him - Rom 8:29; 1 John 3:1,2.

22:5 "No night" - 21:25.

"Light" - 21:2.

"Reign forever and ever" - this will be part of their service. Their reign will not end at the completion of the 1000 years reign of Christ - 20:4. Like Christ's reign their reign will be in two stages. Nothing here is said about them being priests (as in 20:6).

6 And he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true, and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show to his servants the things which must quickly take place."

7 "Look, I am coming quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

8 And I, John, saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen them, I prostrated myself to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things. 9 But he said to me, "Look, do not do that; for I am a fellow servant with you, and with your brethren the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."

10 And he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. 11 He who is unjust, let him still be unjust, and he who is vile, let him still be vile, and he who is 22:6 "True" - 19:9; 21:5.

"God of the holy prophets" - it was the God who inspired the prophets of the Bible (2 Pet 1:21) who inspired this book also.

"Must quickly take place" - see 1:1.

22:7 These are the words of the Lord Jesus - vs 12,20; 3:11. Perhaps the angel was quoting Jesus' words here, or else the Lord Himself spoke. "Quickly" - see not at 1:1.

"Blessed. . . prophecy" - 1:3. See who this blessing is for - it is not for those who interpret this book or speculate about its symbols, etc, but for those who obey the truth revealed here.

22:8 "I, John" - 1:9.

"I prostrated myself to worship. . . the angel" - see 19:10.

22:9 "Do not do that" - so we can learn the nature of angels and the nature of demons. God's angels reject worship; Satan and his angels crave it.

"Worship God" - then flee for your life from any person teaching the veneration or worship of any angel, or spirit, or human being, or object of any kind. Such teaching is devilish.

22:10 "Do not seal" - compare 10:4. The command not to seal the book means it is to be written for all to see, with nothing concealed. Compare Dan 12:4. Daniel's prophecies were given in such a way that they could not be understood until a later time. But this prophecy given through John was given for the understanding of God's servants now (1:1-3).

"The time is at hand" - 1:3.

22:11 The meaning here seems to be this: in the light of this unsealed book with its descriptions and promises of great glory and its warnings of terrible punishment, if anyone chooses to do wrong and to be vile, then let it be. No compulsion will be brought to bear upon such a person to move him from his determined course. Part of his punishment will be the terrible one of being left to his vileness and wrongdoing. The righteous, let him still be righteous, and he who is holy, let him still be holy."

12 "Look, I am coming quickly, and my reward will be with me to give to every man according to his work. 13 I am the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last. 14 Blessed are those who do according to his commands, so that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. 15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoever loves or practices a lie. 16 I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you in the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the bright and morning Star.

17 "And the Spirit and the bride say, 'Come.'

reverse of this is also true. In the light of this book the holy and righteous should continue on this course.

22:12 "Quickly" – a better translation than "soon" – see 1:1, etc.

"My reward" – Matt 16:27; 1 Cor 3:12-15; Col 3:24.

22:13 "Alpha and Omega" – compare 1:8; 21:6. The Lord Jesus could not more plainly say that He is God. He would not take for Himself a name of God unless the name belonged to Him. See also references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

"Beginning and the End" – 21:6.

"First and Last" – 1:17.

22:14 "Blessed" – these words appear eight times in this book – here, v 7; 1:3 (twice); 14:3; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6.

"Do. . .his commandments" – compare 1 John 2:3-6; James 2:14-26; see the note at Acts 22:10.

22:15 "Outside" – this does not mean lurking just outside the gates hoping to slip in if an opportunity offers. We have already been told where such people will be – 21:8.

"Whoremongers" – see not at 21:8.

22:16 "My angel" – 1:1.

"Root and Offspring" – 5:5; Matt 1:1; Rom 1:3; Isa 11:10; Ps 110:1.

"Morning Star" – compare 2:28; Num 24:17.

22:17 This last invitation in the Bible is a great one, and stands as a reminder of all the many promises God has given throughout the Bible. God's Spirit invites people to come to Him. The Church, the bride of Christ echoes this invitation. Every individual who hears it should repeat it to others.

"Thirsty" – Isa 55:1; Matt 5:6.

"Whoever" – John 3:16,36; 7:37; 1 Tim 2:4; 2 Pet 3:9; Isa 55:7; Ezek 18:32.

"Water of life" – v 1; 21:26; John 4:14. This water of life is God Himself (Jer 2:13; 17:13). He invites all to come and drink of Him and gain eternal life.

And let him who hears say, 'Come.' And let him who is thirsty come. And whoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 "For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book. 19 And if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the book of life, and from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book."

20 He who testifies these things says, "Surely I am coming quickly." Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

"Freely" – Rom 5:16,17; 6:23; Eph 2:8,9. 22:18,19 This last warning in the Bible is a very severe one. See how important this book is. The emphasis here is on the words. Deliberately adding or taking away any of them would be trying to pervert the truth God has revealed. Compare Deut 12:32; Prov 30:6. Of course, this refers to the sin of willfully doing so, not to copying mistakes or printing errors, etc. God has chosen to convey His truth to men through words, and these words are of the utmost importance. Compare Deut 4:2; 12:32; Ps 12:6; 119:160; Prov 30:6; Jer 1:9; 15:16. New translations of God's Word may be made, and should be made, as languages and writing styles change, but no one should try to add or take away from the words of the Greek and Hebrew manuscripts which have come down to us. This inspired warning is surely enough to prevent any true believer from meddling with these.

22:20 This is the last doctrine in the Bible. This teaching is referred to in one out of every 25 verses in the New Testament. Jesus will come personally, visibly, triumphantly, and suddenly. The suddenness, the swiftness of His coming is taught three times in the last chapter.

"Come, Lord Jesus" – this last prayer of the Bible is an expression of the desire of His Church from the beginning until now. All our hopes are in Him. His is the glory we want to see.

22:21 This last blessing of the Bible is a fitting conclusion to all the Bible teaches. The grace of the Lord Jesus is what overcomes sin and death and alone makes it possible for people to be God's people and to inherit all God has promised.

"Amen" – 1:6. And so the Bible ends. So be it. We should all say "Amen" to all of it, every book and every word and every jot and tittle of it. Blessed indeed is the person who can say from the heart "amen" to all that God has said.

జార్జ్ రాబర్ట్ క్రో, తన హిట్లర్ని ఓడించానని చెప్పేవారు. రెండవ ప్రపంచ యుద్ధంలో ఫ్రాన్స్లోని యునైటెడ్ స్టేట్స్ సైనిక శిబిరంలో సైనికోద్యోగిగా ఆయన పని చేశారు. యుద్ధానంతరం యు.ఎన్ ప్రభుత్వం ఆయన్ని చికాగో యూనివర్సిటీకి పంపింది. అప్పట్లో జి. ఆర్. క్రో నాస్తికునిగా ఉండేవారు. క్రైస్తవ్యం పని పాటాలోని వారికోసమని రుజువు చేసే ఒక రచనకు పూనుకున్నారు. అందులో భాగంగా 'రోమా పత్రిక' చదువుతుండగా, ప్రభువు ఆయన్ని పట్టుకున్నారు. బాబ్ (క్రో గారిని గౌరవంగా పిలిచే పేరు) క్రీస్తుని తన స్వంత రక్షకునిగా అంగీకరించారు. తన మారుమనస్సు పొందిన తర్వాత, చికాగో యూనివర్సిటీలో బి.ఎ పూర్తిచేసి, వెస్ట్ వర్జీనియాలోని ఒక సంఘానికి పాస్టర్గా బాధ్యతలు స్వీకరించారు. హార్వన్ టేలర్, జార్జ్ ముల్లర్, ఎమ్మీ కార్మికేలేచే ఎంతో ప్రభావితం చేయబడ్డారు. "చిక్కాగోలో జీవిస్తూ, క్రీస్తును సేవించడమనే వారి ఆధ్యాత్మిక సూత్రం" ఆయనపై ఎంతో ప్రభావం చూపింది.

తెలుగువారి మధ్య సేవచేస్తున్న సమయంలో తెలుగు బైబిల్లోని భాషకూ, తెలుగువారు తమ దైనందిన జీవితంలో గూట్లాడుతున్న భాషకూ చాలా వ్యత్యాసమందని ఆయన గమనించారు. దీని విషయం ఏదైనా చేయాలనే ఆశ ఆయనలో పుట్టింది. సువార్త ప్రకటన, బైబిల్ డీచింగ్, రచనా వ్యాసంగాల్లో ఉత్పన్న స్థానంలో కొనసాగుతున్న సమయంలో ప్రభువు ఆయన్ని తెలుగు వాడుక భాషలోకి బైబిలును అనువాదం చేసేందుకు పిలిచినప్పుడు ఆయన ఆనందానికి అపర్యయం. తన బోధనా పరిచర్యను ఆపివేసి కొంతమంది భాషా పండితులతో కలిసి అనేక సంవత్సరాలు తెలుగు వాడుక భాషలోకి బైబిలును అనువాదించే పనిలో నిమగ్నమయ్యారు. అప్పటికి తెలుగులో కానీ, ఆ మాట కొన్నే భారతదేశపు ఇతర భాషల్లో కానీ వ్యాఖ్యాన సహిత బైబిలు గ్రంథాలు లేవు. అందుచేత వాడుక భాషలోకి తెలుగు బైబిలును ప్రచురించాక, తెలుగులో స్వడీ బైబిలు లేదా వ్యాఖ్యాన సహిత బైబిలు రాయడానికి పూనుకున్నారు. పాశ్చాత్యదేశాల్లో లభించే బైబిలు నోట్సును కాపీ చేసి ఇందులోకి అనువాదించడం, ప్రత్యేకంగా భారతీయుల్ని హైందవ సంప్రదాయ నేపథ్యాన్ని దృష్టిలో ఉంచుకొని ఈ నోట్సును తయారు చేసారు. ఎన్నో సంవత్సరాల ప్రయాణ, కృషి తర్వాత 1983లో ఇండియా బైబిలు లెటరేచర్ వారి సహకారంతో గ్రేన్ మినిస్ట్రీస్ (క్రోగారు స్థాపించిన సంస్థ) చరిత్రలోనే మొట్టమొదటి తెలుగు స్వడీ బైబిలును ప్రచురించింది. ఇప్పటివరకు 1,00,000 పైగా కాపీలు పంచిపెట్టడం జరిగింది. తెలుగువారికి తమ దైనందిన భాషలో ఒక వ్యాఖ్యాన సహిత బైబిలు లభించటం అక్షరాలా ఒక చారిత్రాత్మిక ఘటం. ఇందుకోసమే దేవుడు బాబ్ను ఇండియాకి పంపాడు.

బాబ్ వ్యాఖ్యాన సహిత బైబిల్ కాక మరో ఐదు పుస్తకాలు కూడా వ్రాసారు. వీటిలో యుగాంతానికి సంబంధించిన 'ది లాస్ట్ టుమారో' అనే పుస్తకాన్ని చదివిన ప్రముఖ క్రైస్తవ సాహిత్య రచయిత జె.ఐ.పాకర్ 'బాబ్ క్రో లూయీస్ వలె వ్రాసారు' అని వ్యాఖ్యానించారు. బాబ్ 2007, మే 23 రాత్రి 7.45 నిమిషాలకు తన సొంత రక్తకుని దగ్గరకు వెళ్ళిపోయారు

నేను ఎందుకు మిషనరీగా సమర్పించుకున్నాను?

(క్రో గారు చనిపోవడానికి కొన్ని నెలల ముందు ఆయన స్వయానా వ్రాసిన మాటలు)

"చికాగో విశ్వవిద్యాలయంలో గ్రాడ్యుయేషన్ చివరి దశలో నేను యేసుప్రభువు వైపు తిరిగాను. మునుపెన్నడూ ఎరుగని శాంతిని, జీవనోద్దేశ్యాన్ని ఆయనలో కనుగొన్నాను. దేవుడు నన్ను సేవచేయమంటున్నాడని గుర్తించాను. కానీ ఎక్కడ, ఎలా చేయాలో తెలీదు.

చికాగోలోని మూడీ బైబిలు ఇన్స్టిట్యూట్లో ఉన్నప్పుడు 'మిషన్స్' ప్రాముఖ్యత తెలుసుకున్నాను. ఆ తర్వాత ఒక పెద్ద మిషనరీ కాన్ఫరెన్సుకు హాజరైనప్పుడు మిషన్స్ పట్ల నా ఆసక్తి మరింత గాఢమైంది. వెస్ట్ వర్జీనియాలోని మేసన్ కంట్రీలోని ఒక బాప్టిస్ట్ చర్చికి పాస్టరుగా ఉన్న రోజుల్లో 'మిషన్స్' పట్ల సంఘస్థలలో ఆసక్తి కలిగిస్తూ ఉండేవాణ్ణి. ఆయా మిషనరీలను సంఘానికి ఆహ్వానించి వారి సేవా వివరాలను తెలుసుకునేవాళ్ళం. క్రమంగా కోస్టరికాలో మిషనరీగా చేస్తున్న విలియం టేలర్కు సహాయం చేయటం ప్రారంభించాం. అతని రాక, నన్ను ఇతర దేశంలో మిషనరీగా పనిచేయటం గురించి ఆలోచించేలా చేసింది. భారతదేశంలో పనిచేసిన ఇద్దరి మిషనరీల జీవిత చరిత్రల్ని చదవమని టేలర్ నాకిచ్చారు. విలియం టేలర్, హెన్రీ మార్టిన్ నన్నెంతో ప్రభావితం చేసారు. మరో రెండు సంఘాలకు నేను పాస్టరునయ్యాను. ఇతర దేశాలకు క్రీస్తు సువార్త అందాల్సిన అవసరాన్ని సంఘస్థుల దృష్టికి తెచ్చాను. క్రమంగా నాలో భారం పెరుగుతూ వచ్చింది. దీని విషయం ఇతరుల్ని ప్రోత్సహించడమే కాకుండా, స్వయంగా నేనే ఆ అవసరాన్ని తీర్చాలని దృఢంగా ఒప్పించబడ్డాను.

బైబిలు ఉపదేశాలూ, పరిశుద్ధాత్ము ద్వారా నాలో ఈ తీర్మానం గాఢమవుతూ వచ్చింది. 'ఇండియా మిషన్' సంస్థ నా దరఖాస్తును అంగీకరించడంతో 1952 డిసెంబర్లో ఇండియాకు ప్రయాణమయ్యాను.

ఇండియానే ఎందుకు? ఎందుకంటే ప్రపంచంలోనే అత్యంత అవసరత ఉన్న, అతి పెద్ద మిషనరీ పొలమిది. దేవుడు నాకు నిర్దేశించిన ప్రదేశం ఇండియానే. నేను ఇండియాకు బయలుదేరిన నాట నుండి నేటికి 50 సంవత్సరాలు దాటుతున్నా, నాకు ఈ విషయంలో ఎటువంటి సందేహం లేదు. అపొస్తలుల కార్యముల గ్రంథాల్లో శిష్యులకు ప్రభువిచ్చిన ఆదేశాలు, సుస్పష్టంగా వారోమి చేయాలో తెలియజేస్తున్నాయి.

"కాబట్టి మీరు వెళ్ళి సుస్తజనలలో శిష్యులను చేయండి. తండ్రి కుమార పవిత్రాత్ముల పేరట వారికి బాప్టిస్మం ఇవ్వండి" (మత్తయి 28:19)

"మీరు సర్వలోకానికి వెళ్ళి సృష్టంలోని ప్రతి వ్యక్తికీ శుభవార్త ప్రకటించండి." (మార్కు 16:15)

"జెరుసలం మొదలుకొని జనాలన్నిటికి ఆయన పేర పశ్చాత్తాపం, పాపక్షమాపణ ప్రకటించడం జరగాలి." (లూకా 24:47)

"తండ్రి నన్ను పంపిన ప్రకారం నేను మిమ్ములను పంపుతున్నాను." (యోహాను 20:21)

"అయితే పవిత్రాత్ము మిమ్ములను ఆవరించినప్పుడు మీరు బలప్రభావాలు పొందుతారు. జెరుసలంలో, యూదయ, సమరయ ప్రదేశాలలో నలుదిక్కులకు, భూమి కొనలవరకూ కూడా మీరు నాకు సాక్షులై ఉంటారు." (అపొ. కా 1:8)

ఒక ప్రాంతంలో సువార్తకరణ జరిగాక, సువార్త అక్కర ఉన్న మరో ప్రదేశానికి శిష్యులు సాగిపోయేవారు. ఈ లేఖనాలన్నీ శక్తివంతంగా నన్ను సంధించాయి. నేనిలా ఆలోచించాను:

ఒక ప్రక్క కొన్ని దేశాల్లో సంఘాలు, క్రైస్తవులు బైబిలు స్కూళ్ళు, కాలేజీలు, క్రైస్తవ రేడియో కార్యక్రమాలు, ప్రచురణ సంస్థలు విస్తారంగా, సమ్మద్ధిగా ఉంటే, మరో ప్రక్క చాలా ప్రాంతాల్లో ఇవేమీ లేక, సువార్త వినే అవకాశం లేక ఘోరమైన చీకటిలో మ్రుగుతున్నాయి. ఇలా ఎందుకు జరుగుతుంది?

ఇండియాలోనూ, ఇంకా ఇతర దేశాల్లోనూ కనీసం ఒక్క క్రైస్తవుడు కూడా లేని గ్రామాలు, పట్టణాలు వేలాదిగా ఉన్నాయి. నేను యువకుణ్ణి, ఆరోగ్యంగా ఉన్నాను. సువార్త తెలుసు. నేనిలా హాయిగా అమెరికాలోనే ఉండిపోనా?

అవకాశం ఎక్కువగా ఎక్కడ ఉందో అక్కడికి వెళ్ళాలి. పనివారు తక్కువగా ఉన్నచోటికి వెళ్ళాలి. ఇది సమంజసం కాదా? లేఖనానుసారం కాదా?

ఒక క్రైస్తవ సేవకుడు ఎలా ఉండాలనేదానికి పౌలు గొప్ప ఉదాహరణ. పౌలు ఏమన్నాడంటే "ఈ విధంగా, నేను మరొకరి పునాది మీద కట్టకుండా క్రీస్తు పేరు కూడా వినిపించని ప్రాంతాలలో శుభవార్త ప్రకటించాలని ఎప్పుడూ నా ఆశయం. రాసి ఉన్నదాని ప్రకారం ఆయనను గురించిన సమాచారం తెలియనివారు చూస్తారు. చేరనివారు విని గ్రహిస్తారు." రోమా 15:20,21.

ఇందుచేతనే నేను మిషనరీనయ్యాను. మీరూ దీని విషయం లేఖనానుసారంగా ఆలోచించాలని కోరుతున్నాను. మా గ్రేన్ మినిస్ట్రీస్ ప్రస్తుతం ఇండియాలో హైందవులు, ముస్లింలు, గిరిజనుల మధ్య సువార్త ప్రకటిస్తూ, సంఘాలు, స్కూళ్ళు స్థాపిస్తూ పనిచేస్తుంది. మాకున్న కొద్ది వనరులు అక్కరలో ఉన్న వారికి సాయంమందిస్తున్నాం. మరింత అధిక ప్రార్థనా భాగస్వామ్యంతో, మరిన్ని ఆర్థిక వనరులతో మనం ఇంకా ఎక్కువ పనిచేయగలం. గొప్ప దేవుడు మనకున్నాడు భారతదేశంలో పనిచేసేందుకు గొప్ప అవకాశాలు మనకున్నాయి.

రండి. పగటి వెలుగుండగానే పని చేద్దాం. ఎవరూ పనిచేయలేరు. ఎందుకంటే చీకటయ్యాక!!

వ్యక్తిగతంగా బాబ్ క్రోగారి గూర్చి తెలిసిన వారికి 'అతని సేవ రోజులయిపోయినప్పుడు తన ఇంటికి వెళ్ళిపోయాడు.' లూకా 1:23; "అతడు చనిపోయాడు ... ఇంకా మాట్లాడుతూ ఉన్నాడు." హీబ్రూ 11:4 అనే వాక్యాలే గుర్తుకు వస్తూనే ఉంటాయి.

George Robert Crow claims he defeated Hitler – he (Bob not Hitler) was a corporal in the United States Army stationed in France during the II world war. He was born in 1924 in Ohio. After the war, he was sent by the US government to the University of Chicago. Bob Crow was an atheist then. He wanted to prove Christianity was for the birds and so started to write a paper. While reading the book of Romans to write the paper, the Lord zapped him and Bob accepted Christ as his personal Saviour.

Soon after his conversion and completing his BA program in the UC, he began to pastor a church in the hills of WV. He was much influenced by Hudson Tyler, George Muller and Amy Carmichel and their spiritual principle of “living and serving Christ by faith.”

Bob came to India in 1952; chose a very remote, primitive, hot, dusty village in Andhra Pradesh as his base to start his missionary work. Someone once commented that there were more poisonous snakes in that village than people. Within the first six months of arriving there, he began to preach in Telugu, the language of that state. Also he spent considerable time learning Hinduism and the Hindu culture.

After a few years, he moved to Secunderabad, a major city in central India. Here he helped build up a local Church called the Good News Centre (and later another one called the Secunderabad Bible Fellowship); got involved with the UESI and the Youth for Christ ministries that work among students; travelled all over India teaching and preaching in large Christian conventions and student camps leading many to Christ. When someone once pointed out to Bob, “Hey, Bob, this gentleman claims you led him to Christ”, his response was, “I have been accused of worse things than that in my life”.

In 1953 and began his work among the Telugu people. Before long he saw that the language of the existing Telugu Bible was not at all like the language that people were actually speaking in their daily lives. A desire was created in his heart to do something about it, and he was overjoyed when, at the height of his preaching, teaching and writing career, the Lord called him to translate the Bible into spoken Telugu.

Bob Crow stopped, for the most part, his preaching ministry and, with the advice and help of a few Indians proficient in the language, spent the next several years in translating the Bible into spoken Telugu. He saw also that there were almost no study helps in the Telugu language (or in other languages of India), no commentaries or concordances. So after the Telugu Bible in spoken language was published, he felt moved by the Lord to prepare a Study Bible in Telugu, not something copied from a study Bible produced for the West, but writing notes especially for India, where the background of the people and their ways of thinking are quite different from those of people in western nations.

For the next several years he was engaged in writing notes on the entire Bible, choosing references and making a topical concordance. Altogether this came to nearly 2000 pages. After all this it was translated into Telugu, with the help of India Bible Literature, Grace Ministries (founded by Crow in 1983) published the first Telugu Study Bible in history. Up to now more than 1,00,000 copies of this Study Bible have been distributed. He wrote 5 Books. Dr. J. I. Packer once commented after reading some of Bob Crow's books, “Bob writes like C. S. Lewis.”

Bob Crow went to be with his and our Saviour on May 23rd around 7.45 pm.

WHY I AM A MISSIONARY?

(This was written by Bob Crow about a year ago)

Just before I graduated from the University of Chicago, I turned to the Lord Jesus Christ. In Him I found peace and purpose in life, which I had never known before. I realised that God wanted me to serve Him, but I did not know where or how.

During my brief seven months at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago I learned the importance of foreign missions. My interest deepened when I attended a large missionary conference and heard more about God's great program for the earth in this age of grace.

About two years after becoming a Christian, I became the pastor of a Baptist church in Mason County, West Virginia. I began to rouse the interest of church members in foreign missions, inviting missionaries to the church to tell the people about their work. We soon began to support William Taylor who was then serving as a missionary in Costa Rica.

His visit encouraged me to think that service in a foreign land might well be the thing God wanted for me. Taylor loaned me two biographies of missionaries who had served in India. William Carey and Henry Martyn, both of which moved and inspired me. I became the pastor of two more churches, where I brought before the people the great need of many foreign lands for the Gospel of Christ. The conviction grew on me that I should not be simply telling others of the need, but trying to meet that need myself. This conviction came through the teachings of the Bible and by the Holy Spirit. So I decided to apply to The India Mission. I was accepted and sailed for India in December, 1952.

Why choose India? Because it was the largest and neediest open mission field in the world. I might well have gone to China, had China been open to foreign missionaries. But India was God's place for me, and I have not doubted it from the time I sailed for that land more than 50 years ago. After rising from the dead and before ascending to heaven, the Lord Jesus Christ spent 40 days with His disciples. During this time, He taught them concerning the kingdom of God and instructing them about what they were to do. In each of the Gospels and in the Acts of the Apostles we have His final instructions, revealing His heart concerns and what He wants His people to be doing. Here they are:

* Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations.. (Matthew 28:19)

* Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. (Mark 16:15)

* Repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. (Luke 24:47)

* As the Father has sent me, I also send you. (John 20:21)

* You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come on you, and you will be witnesses for me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. (Acts 1:8)

After evangelizing in one place, the disciples were to move on to others places and lands that needed the Gospel. These commands of the Lord Jesus came with great power to me, as indeed they should to all believers everywhere. I reasoned like this:

* Why should some countries have a great abundance of churches and Christians and Bible schools and colleges and Christian radio programs and publishing houses, and where anyone who wants to hear of Christ and believe in Him can certainly do so, while many areas of the earth remain in gross darkness, without churches, Christians, Christian schools, or the opportunity to hear the Gospel?

* In India and many other parts of the world there are thousands of villages and towns without a single Christian, let alone a church, and where the opportunity of hearing the Gospel of Christ is remote.

* I was young and healthy and knew the Gospel. Should I then remain in the United States, the most heavily evangelized nation on earth, when I could go to places with desperate need of the Gospel and to those who had little or no chance of hearing it?

Is this not both Scriptural and reasonable? The Communists had a slogan. Go where the revolution needs you most.. Should Christians be less sensible and dedicated?

Paul is the great example of what a Christian and Christian worker should be. Here is the example he set for us: I have made it my aim to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build on another man's foundation, but as it is written, To whom He was not announced, they shall see; and those who have not heard shall understand... (Romans 15:20,21)

Some may say, But what about the needy person in my own town, down the road from my house, my neighbor? Certainly we are to help them and share the Gospel at every opportunity. But this does not relieve us of the responsibility of taking the Gospel to those in other lands, who have far greater needs and much less opportunity. It does not free us from the final commands of Jesus to His believers.

This is God's great program in this age of grace. This is why I have been a missionary, and why I will encourage others to think in a Scriptural way about all this. To me it is a matter of simple obedience to the Lord's marching orders to His church. If this is not already true of you, I pray that it will become so. May you carry out your duty to do what is in your power so that the whole world, and not merely your little corner of it, has the opportunity to hear the wonderful Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. This alone can save from eternal ruin.

Grace Ministries is serving in India, in areas of great need. We work among Hindus, Muslims and tribal people, preaching the Gospel, establishing churches and schools and helping those in need with the few resources we have. With more prayer partnerships and financial resources we could do more. We have a great God, a great commission and great opportunities to serve in India. Let us work together while it is yet day, for the night comes when no man can work.

Those who have known Bob Crow may say, "...as the days of his service were completed that he went to his own house." Luke 1:23

"he...died, but through his faith he is still speaking" Heb 11:4.
