2 And, suddenly, a leper came and worshipped him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

3 And Jesus put out his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed away. 4 And Jesus said to him, "See that you do not tell anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

5 And when Jesus went into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, pleading with him, 6 and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, suffering terribly."

7 And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

5:36; 10:37,38; 14:11; Acts 2:22). They were Christ's credentials, God's commendation – not in writing, but in action. They were proof that the kingdom of God had come (12:18).

The miracles of the Lord Jesus were not tricks which can be performed by a magician's art. He healed diseases like leprosy, generally regarded as incurable, opened blind eyes (9:27-30; 11:4; 20:34), walked on water (14:25), and raised the dead (Luke 7:11-15; 8:49-56; John 11:43,44). Jesus did more than teach; He revealed the power of God and the character of God in ways which were unmistakable.

This does not mean that all who do miracles have come from God (7:22; 24:24). The miracles of false prophets are evidence of the power of Satan; and the character of false prophets is clear to Christ's disciples. What they teach and how they live shows what kind of people they are.

8:2 "Leper" – see note at Leviticus chapter 13. In the Old Testament certain diseases were pictures or symbols of sin, and their healing was a picture of spiritual healing. See note at Lev 13:1-44. Under the law some infections made a person "unclean" and he remained unclean until healed. See Lev 13:45,46. A request to be made clean was a request for healing.

8:3 Jesus touching him was a demonstration of compassion and love. The holy King from heaven stretches out His hand to an unclean man to make him clean and whole. This is a picture of Christ's work in the spiritual realm also (John 15:3; Eph 5:25-27; Heb 9:13,14; 1 John 1:7). Observe His words, "I am willing." We never read in the Bible that the Lord Jesus ever turned away anyone who came to Him for help. He was always both willing and able to do what people asked of Him.

8:4 Jesus never sought publicity or popularity – in fact, just the opposite (v 18; 9:30; 12:16; John 6:15). The man was sent to the priests so they could certify that his healing was real. Only then would they pronounce him "clean" and let him return to his home.

"That Moses commanded" – God gave

8 The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy for you to come under my roof, but just speak the word and my servant will be healed.

9 For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this man, 'Go', and he goes; and to another, 'Come', and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this', and he does it."

10 When Jesus heard this, he marvelled and said to those who were following, "Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel. 11 And I tell you that many will come from the east and west, and will sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. 12 But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into outer darkness. There will be weeping the command through Moses. See Lev 14:1-32.

8:5 A centurion was an officer over one hundred soldiers in the Roman army.

8:7 Again we see Christ's willingness to go anywhere and help anyone.

8:8 Those who think they are most worthy of receiving something from the Lord are the least worthy; those who think they are least worthy are actually the most worthy. In God's sight humility and worthiness go hand in hand. Compare 5:3.

8:9 The centurion had a wonderful faith in the power of the Lord Jesus, because he understood the nature of authority and was sure that God had given Jesus authority over diseases.

8:10 Jesus was not surprised at the man's faith. But he counted that faith very remarkable, He admired it. In the account of Jesus' life on earth only two things made Jesus marvel – strong faith where naturally it would not be expected and unbelief where there should have been faith (Mark 6:6). People in Israel were the ones who should have had the great faith, not this foreigner. The Old Testament with its examples of God's love and power, and its promises concerning the Messiah, had been given to Israel (Rom 9:4,5).

8:11 By "east and west" He meant peoples of all the earth. For the first time in the Gospel of Matthew Jesus indicates that His gospel and God's kingdom are for all the world, and not for one nation. Compare 28:19,20; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:46,47; Acts 1:8. The centurion was the first fruit of a great multitude who would later enter the kingdom of Christ. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were the first ancestors and the patriarchs of the nation of Israel. Their stories are found in Genesis chapters 12-50.

8:12 "Sons of the kingdom" – a way of saying the subjects of the kingdom. These "sons of the kingdom" were those to whom the kingdom at first belonged, the nation Israel. The King (2:2) came to them, preached God's kingdom, described something of its character and demanded repentance and faith in Him. But they refused to submit to the King. The results and gnashing of teeth."

13 And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way, and it will be done for you just as you have believed." And his servant was healed at that very hour.

14 And when Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying sick with a fever. 15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and served them.

16 When evening came, they brought many who were possessed by demons to him. And he drove the spirits out with his word, and healed all who were sick, 17 that what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, who said, "He took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses."

18 Now when Jesus saw great crowds around him, he gave an order to go away to the other side of the lake. 19 And a certain scribe came and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

20 And Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head."

21 And another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, first permit me to go and bury my father."

22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead."

23 And when he got into a boat, his disciples followed him, 24 and, suddenly, a great tempest arose on the lake, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But he was asleep. 25 And his disciples came to him and woke him up, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

26 And he said to them, "Why are you afraid, you of little faith?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the lake. And there was a great calm.

27 But the men were amazed, saying, "What kind of a man is this that even the winds and the lake obey him!"

28 And when he arrived at the other side in the country of the Gergesenes, two demon-possessed men, coming out of the tombs, met him. They were so very fierce, that no one could pass by that way.

could only be disastrous for them. Compare 21:42-44. This is a warning Jesus often repeated - 13:42-50; 22:13; 24:51; 25:30; Luke 13:28.

"Darkness", "weeping" and "gnashing of teeth" indicate something of the misery of hell. See also 5:29,30; 13:42,50; 22:13; 24:51; 25:30; Mark 9:47-49; Luke 13:28; 16:19-31; 2 Pet 2:14,17; Jude 13. Eternal darkness will be the punishment of those who hate the light Christ brings (John 3:19,20). Gnashing of teeth may speak of both pain and rage against God's justice. Compare Ps 112:10.

8:13 Men always receive what they trust God for. If we come to Christ with a large measure of faith we will receive a large blessing. Compare 9:2,22,29; 15:28; 17:20; 21:21; Mark 5:34; 10:52; 11:22-24. In this case the healing performed by Jesus was instantaneous, complete, and permanent.

8:14 Peter was a married man, as, it seems, were all the original apostles of Christ. See 1 Cor 9:5.

8:15 Christ's kindness towards us should produce a desire in us to serve Him.

8:16 Christ's word had almighty power and authority behind it. Note on demon possession at 4:24.

8:17 See Isaiah 53:4. That prophecy was fulfilled in Christ's healing ministry, not in His death on the cross. It speaks of His compassion, His identifying Himself with suffering people, and His power displayed in banishing their diseases.

8:18 The lake is Galilee. The "other" side is the east side, away from His headquarters in Capernaum.

8:19-22 "Scribe" - note at 2:4. The Lord Jesus never made His way appear to be easy, and He never tried to attract followers by lowering God's standards. Compare Luke 14:25-35. The man in v 9 was too hasty in his decision. He had not counted the cost of being a disciple of Jesus. The man in v 21 was too slow in his decision. Both types of persons are still with us.

8:20 The Lord Jesus used the name "Son of man" to refer to Himself about 80 times in the Gospels. It is a title taken from Daniel 7:13,14 and signifies the Messiah. It also signifies the real human nature of Christ the Son of God.

8:22 In other words let those who have no spiritual life bury those who have died physically. The man meant he wished to stay at home until his father died. If his father had already died he would have been at home preparing to bury him. When Christ calls men to a special ministry they must be willing to obey Him without letting earthly ties and responsibilities interfere. Compare 10:37-39. See also Luke 9:61,62.

8:26 Jesus' first task was to deal with the disciples - a harder task than stilling the storm. In dangerous or crisis situations little faith means much fear. Perfect faith means no fear. See also 6:30,34. Christ's disciples should not fear - all the forces of nature are in His control. Compare this verse with Ps 89:8,9 - there it is the LORD (Jehovah), the one true God, who stills the waves of the sea. Here it is the Lord Jesus. Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah (Ex 3:14,15; John 1:1,14; 8:24,58; 10:11; Phil 2:6,10,11; Heb 1:10-12; and notes at Luke 2:11).

8:27 Here is a question all should ask. The answer is given in the Bible. We can learn spiritual lessons from this literal miracle (as we may from all Christ's miracles). Life too has its storms which bring us into great danger. But if our trust is in Christ we need not fear - Ps 46:1-3; 93:3,4.

8:28-34 For a fuller account of this see Mark 5:1-20. There attention is focused on one

29 And now they cried out, saying, "What have we to do with you, Jesus, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the set time?"

30 And some distance away a large herd of pigs was feeding. 31 So the demons begged him, saying, "If you drive us out, let us go into the herd of pigs."

32 And he said to them, "Go." And when they came out, they went into the herd of pigs, and now the whole herd of pigs rushed down a steep place into the lake and died in the water. 33 And those who had been feeding them ran away and went into the city and told everything, and what had happened to those who had been demon-possessed. 34 And now the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they begged him to go away from their region.

9 And he got into a boat, and crossed over and came to his own town. 2 And just then they man of these two who were demon possessed. The region of the Gadarenes was an area southeast of the sea of Galilee. Note on demons at 4:24.

8:29 Though men did not know who Jesus was, demons did know (Mark 1:24; 5:7), and were afraid. The "time" is the time God has appointed for their punishment. Compare 2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6. God permits demons to act on earth for a time. He has not revealed to us the reason for this, but we can be sure that the all-wise God has a good purpose in it all. See 1 Chron 21:1.

8:31 Apparently demons are anxious to inhabit bodies – any kind of bodies. Compare 12:43. Why did Jesus permit these demons to destroy a herd of someone's pigs? Under the law of Moses the pig was an "unclean" animal, and Jews were to have nothing to do with it (see Lev 11:7 and note on that chapter). If the owner of these pigs was a Jew, or if Jews were buying them for meat this would account for Jesus' behavior here.

8:34 Evidently the fact that a great miracle had been performed and that two human beings had been wonderfully delivered meant little to them. The whole town wanted to get rid of Jesus. They thought of Him as a source of trouble and loss. So in every generation since then mankind has been divided into two camps. Those who welcome Jesus and those who want to get rid of Him. 9:1 Here Capernaum is called His "own town" because it was the headquarters for His ministry in Galilee.

9:2 Notice it says "their" faith, not "his" faith only. Here is an example of how faith can work in bringing others to Christ. The man wanted physical healing. He received far more than that.

9:3 They knew that God alone can forgive sins (Isa 43:25; 44:22). No prophet ever had this power. They did not know that Jesus was God incarnate, so they considered His brought to him a paralyzed man, lying on a cot. And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, take courage! Your sins are forgiven you."

3 And now some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming."

4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why are you thinking evil in your hearts? 5 For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you', or to say, 'Get up and walk?' 6 But so that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins," he then said to the paralytic, "Get up. Pick up your cot and go to your house."

7 And he got up and left for his house. 8 But when the crowds saw this, they were amazed and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

9 And as Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him.

10 And now it happened, as Jesus was sitting words blasphemy. Blasphemy is speaking against God, using His name in vain, attributing evil to Him, or trying to claim for self what belongs to God alone (such as His nature, authority, rights, and power). See Lev 24:14-16.

9:4 Jesus being God in the flesh knew the thoughts of men. Compare 12:25; Luke 6:8; 9:47; John 2:25; Ps 94:11; Heb 4:12,13; Rev 2:23; 1 Sam 16:7; 1 Kings 8:39; 1 Chron 28:9; 2 Chron 6:30; Jer 17:10; Ezek 11:5; Prov 15:11; Acts 1:24.

9:5-7 Jesus proved He had God's authority to forgive sin by a display of God's power to heal. This miracle of healing is a picture of spiritual healing. Here we see that forgiveness was immediate, and all of grace – a gift of God to a helpless man (compare Acts 13:38,39; Rom 4:7,8; Eph 1:7; Col 1:14; 2:13; Heb 8:12; 1 John 1:9). Men may forgive offenses done against them (6:14, 15), but only God can forgive sins done against Himself, and in a very real sense all sin is against God (Ps 51:4).

Complete forgiveness of sin comes only when there is repentance and faith in the heart, and only God can see whether they are there. Jesus could see men's inner condition and could therefore pronounce forgiveness. The very purpose for which He came was to make God's forgiveness possible (Luke 24:46,47; Acts 13:38,39). Anytime, anywhere a person turns to Him in faith, he will find forgiveness of all his sins (12:31). If people sought for forgiveness with the same earnestness as they do for healing and for other things, the world would be far different than it is now.

9:8 "Men" – the crowd did not understand that Jesus was more than a mere man.

9:9 Compare 4:18-22. See also Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27,28 where Matthew is called Levi. He had a job the Jews despised, serving the ruling Roman government (5:46). But he became a great apostle and author of

at the table in the house, that many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said to them, "The ones who need a physician are not those who are well, but those who are sick. 13 But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

14 Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees often fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

15 And Jesus said to them, "Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then they will fast. 16 No man puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch will pull away from the garment, and the tear will become worse. 17 And men do not put new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wineskins will burst, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

18 While he was speaking these things to them, suddenly a certain ruler came and worshipped him, saying, "Just now my daughter has died, but come and put your hand on her, and she will live." 19 And Jesus got up and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 And, suddenly, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak. 21 For she said to herself, "If I can just touch his cloak, I will get well."

22 But Jesus turned around, and when he saw her, he said, "Daughter, take courage. Your faith has made you well." And the woman became well from that time.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players and the people making a commotion, 24 he said to them, "Go away, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." And they laughed at him. 25 But when the people had been put out, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got this Gospel which bears his name. Such is the grace of God.

9:11 "Pharisees" – 3:7. Here once again they showed that they thought themselves better than other men. They could not begin to understand why a holy person would want to associate with "sinners". Nor did they realize that in their unbelief and self-righteousness they were far more objectionable to Jesus than those they called sinners.

9:12 What a beautiful answer! He means that all sinners are spiritually sick and that He has come to heal such. And as a doctor needs to be with his patients to help them, so He needed to be with sinners to heal them. It was not that He took pleasure in their company while they remained sinners or that He wanted to behave as they did.

9:13 Jesus refers to Hos 6:6. God wants people to be merciful to others, as He is merciful. This is far more important than any ritual of religion could ever be. See also Matt 5:7. The righteous here means those who think they are righteous and holier than other people. Actually all are sinners (Rom 3:23), but not everyone understands this as they should. And Jesus has come to call sinners to forgiveness and salvation (Luke 19:10; John 3:17; 1 Tim 1:15).

9:14 "Disciples of John" – 3:1; John 3:23-25.

9:15 "Sons of the bridechamber" – the friends or attendants of the bridegroom. See what name the Lord Jesus gives Himself here – "bridegroom." Compare John 3:28-30; Rom 7:4; 2 Cor 11:2; Eph 5:25-33. He is the spiritual bridegroom of the true Church and of the individual believer. See notes on Song of Songs. Compare psalm 45. Jesus does not deny the usefulness of fasting (6:16). His disciples would fast after His departure (Luke 24:51).

9:16,17 The Lord Jesus had come to do a new thing on earth, to provide a new garment of righteousness, a new wine of joy. The old Jewish religious forms and ways were not suitable for His new work. They could not contain the new truth and life Jesus brought. Truth is of more importance than antiquity.

9:18 This ruler was a leader of a synagogue and his name was Jairus (Mark 5:22-43; Luke 8:41-56).

9:20,21 This disease made its sufferer "unclean." See note at Lev 15:25-27. In Old Testament days it was one of the pictures or symbols of sin.

9:22 See the power of faith. Faith is the belief that God will act according to His Word and His nature as revealed in the Bible. It is confidence in Him as a person. See Heb 11:1,6. Faith saves by bringing us into the presence of the One who saves and opens the way for Him to work.

"Courage" – a more accurate translation of the Greek word than "comfort."

9:23 These players were musicians hired to play at funerals.

9:24 "Sleeping" – if the ruler was right when he said the girl had just died, then Jesus meant that she was not permanently dead. Sleep is a word often used for the physical death of God's people in both Old and New Testaments (notes at John 11:11-14). It suggests that they will awake and rise again from the temporary state of death – 1 Thess 4:13-18.

9:25 The laughing crowd will not see the glory of His working. Scoffers will not experience his power. This is one of the three recorded occasions of Jesus' raising the dead. The up. 26 And the news of this spread throughout that whole region.

27 And when Jesus left there, two blind men followed him, crying out and saying, "Son of David, have mercy on us."

28 And when he went into the house, the blind men came to him. And Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord."

29 Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you." 30 And their eyes were opened. And Jesus gave them a strict order, saying, "See that no one finds out." 31 But when they left they spread the news about him throughout that whole country.

32 As they went out, suddenly, they brought to him a man unable to speak and demon-possessed. 33 And when the demon had been driven out, the others are in Luke 7:15; John 11:43,44. But it is probable there were other cases (11:4,5).

9:27 "Son of David" – see 1:1. This was a name for the Messiah of Israel. These blind men were expressing their faith that Jesus was the Anointed One.

9:28 See again the importance of faith. Contrast Mark 6:5,6.

9:29 Here is a principle the Lord follows in His work among men (v 22; Mark 11:22-24; Heb 11:6; 1 John 5:14,15).

9:30 Again we see that Jesus did not seek fame (8:4), or indeed any benefit of any kind from His miracles. See also what He taught others in 6:1-4.

9:31 It is true of so many that they will do what they want rather than what the Lord Jesus wants.

9:32 Demon possession affects different people in different ways. Compare 8:28-32; 12:22. This does not mean that every mute or blind person, or epileptic is possessed by a demon. There are also other causes of such things.

9:33 "Nothing like this was ever seen" – this was true of Israel and of all countries and all times. The miraculous healing ministry of the Lord Jesus and His apostles was unique in the history of the world.

9:34 These Pharisees thus showed incredible hardness of heart and unbelief, and were taking themselves beyond forgiveness. See 12:24-32. The prince of demons is Satan.

9:35 Here in a nutshell is the whole of Jesus' ministry (4:23,24).

9:36 The reason why Jesus did what He did is here – compassion, love, pity for helpless men in their need (14:14; 15:32; 20:34; Mark 1:41;6:34; Luke 7:13; Heb 4:15). There were religious leaders in Israel who should have been shepherds to God's people, but they were like thieves and robbers (John 10:1,7,11-13). This is often true today also among people other than Jews.

9:37 Compare John 4:35-38. There are great dumb man spoke. And the crowds were amazed and said, "Nothing like this was ever seen in Israel."

34 But the Pharisees said, "He drives out demons through the prince of the demons."

35 And Jesus went around all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 But when he saw the crowds, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were feeble and dejected, like sheep which have no shepherd. 37 Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the labourers are few. 38 Therefore, ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest."

10 And when he had called his twelve disciples to him, he gave them authority over and eternal rewards for those who serve God, but comparatively few people volunteer for the work.

9:38 Here we can see something of the mysterious power of prayer. Why did Jesus tell them (and us) to pray like this? Will not God (the Lord of the harvest) send laborers into His harvest field whether His people pray or not? This is a question that may naturally come to mind, but it is not one we should ask. It is our business to do what the Lord says and leave the mystery of it to Him. God has appointed prayer as one of the ways His people can share with Him in His work. Let us make use of this means. It is enough to know that in answer to our prayers the Lord of the harvest will send laborers into His harvest fields.

10:1 "Disciples" – this is a translation of the Greek word meaning learners, those under training. Learners were expected to put into practice the instructions of their teachers. Compare John 8:31. The original twelve disciples of Christ were those whom Christ chose to receive instruction and training as He went about in His ministry.

"Disciples" is the usual word in the Book of Acts for believers in Christ (Acts 6:11; 9:1; 11:26; etc). There it is used 26 times (the word "Christians" appears in Acts just twice, and "believers" 11 times). There is no way anyone can be a believer in Christ, a real Christian, without learning from Christ and being taught by God (see Isa 54:13; John 6:45; Eph 4:20-24; 1 Thess 4:9; Titus 2:11,12; 1 John 2:27. Compare the invitation of Jesus in Matt 11:28-30).

So in some measure all believers are disciples. They have turned to Christ to learn from Him and to obey His teachings, and the seed, at least, of discipleship is in their hearts. Of course, none of us is a perfect disciple, and the seed of discipleship planted in us when we first trust in the Lord Jesus needs to grow and develop. But this does not change the fact that all believers are disciples, and are called disciples in the Bible.

unclean spirits to drive them out, and to heal every kind of sickness and disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, his brother Andrew, James the son of Zebedee, his brother John, 3 Philip, Bartholomew, Thomas, Matthew the tax collector, James the son of Alphaeus, Lebbaeus, who was named Thaddaeus, 4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent out, and commanded them, saying, "Do not go on any road of the Gentiles, and do not enter any Samaritan

It is important to keep this in mind when we study the teachings of Lord Jesus about discipleship.

What the Lord Jesus wants above all is to have followers who have chosen Him above everyone else, love Him above all, are constantly learning from Him and putting into practice what He teaches them. Nothing less than this can satisfy Him. See Luke 14:25-35.

10:2-4 "Apostles" - the Greek word translated "apostle" means "a delegate," "messenger," "one sent forth with orders." Here for the first time the twelve original apostles of Jesus are listed. Observe that they were first disciples (learners) before they were apostles. What is the use of going to teach others if one has not been taught by Christ? Observe too that they received their authority directly from Christ and in His presence. He gave them authority to do just what He had been doing. He was preparing them to be the future leaders of the Church of the New Testament.

Christ chose His apostles to be His special representatives on earth, and to be able (along with all the writers of the New Testament) to give infallible teaching. In that sense of the word, there have not been any other true apostles after they passed away, and there are none now. They had a unique work to do and they completely finished it. See notes also at 16:19; Acts 8:15-17; 2 Cor 12:12.

10:3 "Bartholomew" - probably the same as Nathaniel (John 1:45-51).

"Matthew" - he does not present himself as someone special but modestly refers to his old despised job of tax collector. The apostles were not concerned with man's honors. They were not like some Christian leaders today who love to be called "doctor" (even if the degree is unearned and undeserved), and parade their degrees and attainments. See the Pharisees in 23:6,7.

"Thaddaeus" - also called Judas (Luke 6:16; Acts 1:13)

10:4 "Simon the Canaanite" - the same as Simon the Zealot (Luke 6:16). The name "Zealot" probably means that Simon had formerly been a member of a party in Israel called the Zealots. They fought against Roman rule over the Jews. But it is possible, though not likely, that it means he was city. 6 Instead, go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And as you go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' 8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, drive out demons. Freely you have received, freely give.

9 Provide no gold or silver or copper for your money belts, 10 or a bag for your journey, or two coats or sandals or staffs. For the workman is worthy of his food.

11 "And whatever city or town you enter, enquire who is worthy in it, and stay there with them until you go away. 12 And when you go into a household, greet it. 13 And if the household is zealous in religion or in something else.

"Judas Iscariot" - elsewhere is called a thief and a "demon" (John 6:70,71; 12:6). His heart was never with Christ. He was concerned with himself and what material advantages he could obtain. Still the Lord Jesus called him to be with the other apostles and gave him authority to cast out devils and heal the sick. Compare 7:22,23.

10:5 The Gentiles were non-Jewish peoples. The Samaritans were people of mixed blood whose origins are seen in 2 Kings chapter 17. They lived in Samaria, an area between Galilee on the north and Judea on the south. The Jews for the most part hated the Samaritans and avoided them (John 4:9). But this is not the reason why Jesus forbade His disciples to preach to them. The time for preaching the gospel to them had not yet come (it did come later - John 4:1-42; Acts 8:5-25). The Jews were the people of God from the days of Abraham (Genesis chapter 12), and God made special covenants with them (compare Rom 9:4,5). So it was fitting at that time that the good news of God's kingdom should first be preached to them.

10:6 See 9:36; 15:24.

10:7 See 3:2; 4:17.

10:8 These miracles were to be evidence that the kingdom of God was near. They were not to try to make money from the authority and power freely given them, but to freely use them for the good of others. Compare Acts 20:33-35; 1 Cor 10:33; 2 Cor 12:14,15. A simple life-style and self-denial were to be the marks of Christ's disciples. Notes at 3:4; Luke 9:23; etc.

10:9,10 They were to give freely and accept what was freely given to them. Kindness would receive the reward of kindness. God's workers are worthy of the support of people who receive God's blessings through them (1 Cor 9:7-14; 1 Tim 5:17,18). If their shirt or sandals wore out they were to trust God to provide them with others.

10:11 They were to be careful where they lodged and not accept every offer of hospitality which came to them. They were to seek out the worthy, not the wealthy. They were to have no money for inns and hotels. See also Luke 22:36.

10:12,13 The customary greeting among Jews was "peace be to you." Peace would worthy, let your peace come on it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And whoever does not receive you or listen to your words, when you leave that house or city, shake the dust off your feet. 15 Truly I say to you, in the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that city.

16 "Look, I send you forth like sheep among wolves. So be as wise as serpents, and as harmless as doves. 17 But beware of men! For they will hand you over to the Councils, and they will beat you with whips in their synagogues, 18 and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, to give testimony to them and to the Gentiles. 19 But when they hand you over, do not worry about how you will speak, or what. For at that very hour what you should say will be given to you. 20 For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

be the result in any home that received them and their message. Peace could not be with those who rejected their message, and the apostles were not to create the impression that it could.

10:14 This was to indicate that there was no fellowship, no common ground between them and those who rejected Christ's message. It was a warning that the rejecters would be utterly left to themselves. Compare 23:38.

10:15 "Day of judgment" - 11:22,24; 12:36; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:2,16; 14:10; 2 Pet 2:9; Rev 14:7; 20:11-15.

"Sodom and Gomorrah" - Gen 19:23-29; 2 Pet 2:6; Jude 7. The punishment of those places which reject Christ will be greater than Sodom's because their opportunities are greater, the truth preached to them greater, and the evidence for the truth greater. Greater privileges and opportunities mean greater punishment if rejected. Compare 11:20-24; Heb 2:1-4.

10:16 "Wolves" - 7:15; Luke 10:3; John 10:12; Acts 20:29. The disciples needed to exercise discernment. Compare 7:6,20. And they must never behave in a way that their enemies might justly accuse or attack them. Compare 1 Pet 3:13-17; 4:12-16. From v 17 to the end of the chapter it seems Jesus looks beyond the comparatively brief Galilean ministry to their continuing ministry in later days. At that time there is no record of their arrest or of being brought before kings (vs 18,19). And the language of vs 21-23 hardly fits the brief ministry in Galilee. But these things all happened in the later ministry of Christ's apostles, as the book of Acts makes clear. Verse 23 may point to the very end of this age. The language suggests Christ's second coming.

10:17 Christ's disciples must realize that there will always be opposition to His message, and that haters of the true God will hate them too - vs 21,23.

10:19 This refers only to these special

21 "And brother will hand over brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rebel against parents, and cause them to be put to death. 22 And you will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved. 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For truly I say to you, you will not have gone over the cities of Israel before the Son of man comes.

25 "It is enough for the disciple that he is like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the owner of the house Beelzebub, how much more those in his household.

26 "Therefore, do not be afraid of them. For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. 27 What I tell you in darkness speak in the light, and what you hear in occasions and does not mean that in the ordinary course of their ministry they were not to think and prepare what they should say. In these days preachers who have time to properly prepare their sermons and do not do so, are usually not much worth listening to.

10:20 See Acts 4:8,13. If God's Spirit speaks through them, the poor and uneducated can confound the great and the wise.

10:21,22 Such is the nature of man. The preaching of the truth will arouse bitter hatred and persecution, even of blood relatives. The most natural ties of love will be snapped by religious intolerance and bigotry - v 36; John 15:18-21. God's servants must endure much opposition. They will not be saved because they endure, but enduring to the end will be a proof that their faith is real, and so they are saved (Matt 24:13; Heb 10:39; 1 Pet 1:5).

10:23 Disciples must not try to force their message on others. If they are rejected let them go to other places where they might be received.

10:24,25 "Beelzebub" - 2 Kings 1:2 - this name comes from the name Baal-Zebul, a god of the Philistines, which means "Baal the prince" or "Baal, the exalted one." Apparently the Jews mockingly changed the name to Baal-Zebub (which has come into English as Beelzebub), which means "Lord of the flies." The Pharisees gave this name to Satan. They said that Jesus got His power from him - 12:24; Luke 11:15; John 8:48. What can the followers of Jesus expect from the world that called Him demon possessed and killed Him? Let us be prepared (and be content) to endure dishonor, slander, and persecution for His sake. Notice that Jesus calls Himself here the head of a house and His disciples members of it. Compare Eph 2:19; Heb 3:1-6.

10:26 The reason disciples should not fear is that their guru is the Lord of heaven and earth who will eventually bring the truth of the ear preach on the housetops. 28 And do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Instead be afraid of him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. 30 But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 So do not be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.

32 "Therefore whoever confesses me before men, I will also confess him before my Father who is in heaven. 33 But whoever denies me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in heaven.

34 "Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. 35 For I have come to set a man against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

everything to light. Compare Psalm 37:6. See Luke 12:2,3.

10:28 Heb 13:6. For believers in Christ the only proper object of fear is God Himself. They have eternal life with God, and nothing that men can do to them can have an eternal result. See notes on the fear of God at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

10:29,30 Since God observes the smallest details of His Creation, disciples should trust Him to look after everything that concerns them. Believers in Christ are to live a life free of worry, anxiety and fear – 6:25-34; 8:26; John 14:1; Phil 4:6,7; 1 Pet 5:7.

10:32,33 Believers in Christ must openly stand for Him and confess Him as their Lord and Saviour (compare Rom 10:9,10). Not doing so is like disowning and denying Him. Silence indicates that faith is not real. Those who wish to be secret believers, and never speak of their faith in Jesus, are running a terrible risk. How can they be sure their faith is genuine? Far better to confess Him openly, even if it means suffering and death, than to go on in silence and at last stand before God disowned by Jesus.

10:34 Jesus came to bring peace to those who receive and believe Him, and to make peace between them and God. But He did not come to bring peace to all on earth. For there can be no peace to those who reject Him (Isa 48:22), and there will be conflict between them and those who receive Him.

10:35,36 See v 21. Truth divides those who believe it from those who do not. The fact they may be members of the same family has nothing to do with it.

10:37 Compare Luke 14:26 where this is put even more strongly. If Jesus were not God He would have no right to speak so. Christ demands first place in our hearts, and we must be willing to choose Him instead of relatives (8:21,22). Truth is more important than family ties. Those who put family first, or self, or sin, or money, or anything else, 36 And a man's foes will be those of his own household.

37 "Anyone who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and anyone who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And anyone who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. 39 Anyone who finds his life will lose it, and anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.

40 "Anyone who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. 41 Anyone who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and anyone who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And if anyone gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

cannot be His true follower (Luke 14:33). On Christ's deity see Phil 2:6.

10:38 See notes at 16:24; Luke 9:23. The cross is a symbol of death. It was the Roman means of execution. Figuratively, to take up one's cross means to willingly go forward to the place of death to self and its desires, aims, and plans (compare 2 Cor 4:10-12; Gal 5:24). It means a mind to undergo whatever is painful or humiliating or mortifying to follow Christ. It is an attitude toward Christ and one's self which is at the basis of the true Christian life.

The believer is told to maintain this attitude daily (Luke 9:23). To try to carry one's cross without following Jesus is a hard and bitter thing. And renunciation of desire and the world, austerities, penance, etc, come to nothing good if we do not follow Him. But to carry our cross and follow Jesus because we trust and love Him is freedom and joy, for those who do so will find that Jesus is with them all the way.

10:39 This means that those who live for self and their place in this world will lose eternal life, and those who choose Christ instead and die to self will find eternal life with God. We see what a powerful thing faith is – it can enable us to choose Christ over ourselves and others and everything in the world. See also Mark 11:24; Heb 10:39; 11:1,4,6; etc.

10:40-42 They who receive Christ receive God the Father who sent Him, because He was one with the Father (John 10:30). They who receive Christ's disciples receive Christ because they are representatives of Christ, and He is one with them (Acts 9:1-5). His disciples are "little ones" – v 42; 18:2,3; John 13:33; 1 John 2:1. The world looks down on them. They are often lacking in wealth or learning or position or worldly qualification (1 Cor 1:26-29). To show kindness to them is to show kindness to Christ, and there will be a reward for even the smallest act of kindness. See also 5:12.

11 And it came about when Jesus had finished commanding his twelve disciples, that he left there to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John in prison heard about the deeds of Christ, he sent two of his disciples. 3 And they said to him, "Are you the one who was to come, or do we look for another?"

4 Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: 5 The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. 6 And blessed is anyone who does not stumble because of me."

7 And as they were going away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 8 But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Look, those who wear fine clothes are in kings' houses. 9 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 10 For this is the one about whom it is written,

Look, I send my messenger before your face.

He will prepare your way before you.

11 "Truly I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist. But he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has been subject to violence, and the violent are taking it by force. 13 For all the prophets and the Law prophesied until John. 14 And if you will receive it, this is Elijah, who was to come. 15 He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

16 "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and

If we really believe this we will not be reluctant to help others who are Christ's disciples. 11:2 John the Baptist had been put in prison by Herod, the ruler of Galilee and Perea (4:12; 14:3-5).

11:3 "The one who was to come" was the Messiah (1:1) expected by the Jews. John's faith was sure and strong (John 1:26-34; 3:27-36). But he had been in prison for months, and Jesus had not behaved as most of the people thought the Messiah would behave. Jesus had not taken the throne of Israel, put the Romans to flight, and brought freedom, peace and prosperity to the nation. It was the common expectation among the Jews that the Messiah would accomplish such things. Compare Isa 9:6,7; 11:1-16, etc. And see John's own words in 3:11-15. It seems that John needed reassurance and encouragement, and the Lord Jesus gave them in the words which follow.

11:4-6 Jesus is saying that He was performing the works of the promised Messiah (compare Isa 29:18; 35:5,6; 61:1), and that John should not doubt Him because things were not going forward as John had expected. John would have known and understood these words.

11:6 Here is another "blessed" to add to the ones in 5:3-11. See also 13:16; 16:17; 24:46; 25:34; Luke 1:45; 11:28; John 20:29; Rev 1:3; 14:13; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7,14. For Old Testament notes on "blessed" and "blessing" see Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1; 119:1.

11:10 Mal 3:1. See also Isa 40:3.

11:11 John, great as He was, belonged to the old order of things under the law. The Lord Jesus brought in a new order of things, the spiritual kingdom of God. The least person who is in this kingdom is greater in position and privileges than John, but not greater in character or deeds. Compare John 3:28-30. There John speaks of the Bridegroom (Christ), the bride (those in the kingdom of God), and the friend of the bridegroom (himself). In the life of the bridegroom the bride obviously has a higher position and greater privileges than the friend.

11:12 John the Baptist, by his life and preaching, was a great force in God's hands to stir up the people to repentance and earnest striving to enter God's kingdom. Only those who were determined to enter it at any cost were able to do so. Is it any different now? The careless, those content with mere forms of religion, those lacking in the kind of forceful determination that God gives, will not enter God's kingdom. When God brings people into His kingdom He makes them want it very much.

11:13 The "Prophets and the Law" mean the whole Old Testament. John was the last in a long line of such prophets, and God's messenger of a new age.

11:14 John was not Elijah (John 1:19-21), but he came in the spirit and power of Elijah (Luke 1:17). Notice carefully the wording of this verse. Only if they would "receive it" could it be said that John was the Elijah who was to come (Mal 4:5). But the people as a whole were not willing to accept it, as Jesus clearly states in vs 16-19. So John was not the Elijah who was to come. If he had actually been Elijah, he would have been Elijah whether the people received it or not. In 16:11 Jesus indicates that Elijah is still to come and "restore all things." John was unable to "restore all things" because of the unwillingness of the people and their leaders.

11:15 See 13:9.

11:16-19 People of that day (Jesus probably was referring to the Pharisees and Sadducees) were like willful children playing the games of "wedding" and "funeral." They complained that John wouldn't dance to their tune, and that Jesus wouldn't weep on demand. They would not receive God's messengers and God's message through calling to their companions, 17 And saying, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance. We wailed for you, and you did not mourn.' 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' 19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a heavy drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.' But wisdom is justified by her children."

20 Then he began to denounce the cities where most of his miracles had been done, because they did not repent: 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I say to you, In the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon them. They rejected everything. There was no pleasing them. Such people "play" at religion. They are fundamentally insincere. If God's man eats, that doesn't please them. If he does not eat, that doesn't please them either. And see the things they said about the one Jesus called the greatest of men and about the Lord Himself.

11:18 Later they said the same thing about the Lord Jesus (John 8:48).

11:19 See 9:11-13; Rom 5:8. If the Lord Jesus had not loved men who were lost in sin, there would be no hope for anyone. Their accusation rightly understood is actually a high recommendation of Jesus as the Saviour of sinners. The wisdom of God in sending John and the Lord Jesus, and their wisdom in their ministry, was demonstrated by the results they achieved. No complaints from a foolish people could change that.

11:20 Repentance was a main emphasis of Jesus' preaching, the result He wanted to see - 4:17. See notes at 3:2; Luke 13:1-5. Without it His miracles and teaching would have no lasting effect on the people. It is good to be healed of some dread disease, but it is far better to repent at Christ's feet. It is good to see displays of God's glorious power, but it is far better to turn from sin and obtain His salvation.

11:21 Korazin and Bethsaida were two towns in Galilee near Capernaum. Tyre and Sidon were two ancient and famous cities on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, north of Israel. They were cities of the Gentiles, given to idolatry and greed, and God sent judgment on them. See Isa 23:1-5; Ezek 26:1-21; Amos 1:9,10.

"Sackcloth and ashes" indicate that they would have repented with deep sorrow. The cities of idolatrous Gentiles would have received Him better than cities of His own people Israel. Compare John 1:11.

11:22 Note at 10:15.

11:23 "Capernaum" - 4:13. They had great privileges - the Son of God Himself lived there.

"Hell" - in Greek "Hades" - the unseen realm of the dead, similar to the Hebrew "Sheol" (note at Gen 37:35).

than for you. 23 And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to hell. For if the miracles which have been done in you, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. 24 But I say to you that in the day of judgment it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom than for you."

25 At that time Jesus responded and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and revealed them to babes. 26 Even so, Father, for it was good in your sight.

27 "All things have been handed over to me by my Father. And no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son, and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

"Sodom" - 10:15. For the most part the people of the cities where Jesus ministered were harder of heart than those of the worst cities of ancient times, cities notorious for wickedness.

11:25 Though rejected by men, the Lord Jesus found much to praise God for. Here He praises Him for His wise dealing with men. God passes over those who are regarded (and who regard themselves) as people of wisdom and learning (such as the Pharisees and the teachers of the law), and chooses the humble, childlike nobodies of earth and reveals His truth to them. Compare 18:3; 1 Cor 1:19-29; Jam 2:5. A humble, teachable child can understand more of this truth than any intellectual proud of his intellect and unwilling to submit to God. If we are to know the truth, God must enlighten us and shine into our hearts, and give us a mind to learn from Him. Compare Luke 24:45; John 16:13; 2 Cor 4:6; Eph 1:17,18.

11:26 Here is the best possible reason for anything. Compare Rom 11:36; 12:2; Eph 1:9,11.

11:27 No mere man, no mere prophet could ever truthfully say these things. Here is the clearest evidence that Jesus thought Himself to be God in human form. See other references concerning this at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

"All things have been handed over to me" - 28:18; John 3:35; 5:19-27.

"The Son" - 3:16,17; John 3:16; 5:18-23.

"Knows" - observe carefully what Jesus says about the knowledge of God here. Only God the Father completely knows the Lord Jesus, is fully acquainted with all His ways, His nature and attributes. No man can fully understand Him. Only the Lord Jesus knows the Father, knows the infinite and eternal God absolutely and fully. This is because they have shared from eternity the same nature (1 John 1:1,14; 10:30; 14:9; 17:5; Phil 2:6; Heb 1:3).

And the Lord Jesus is the only one who can reveal God to men, and men can come to a measure of that knowledge only through Him (John 14:6; 17:2,3; 1 John 5:20). Jesus is speaking of true enlightenment of 28 "Come to me, all you who labour and are heavily laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke on you, and learn from me. For I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

12 At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields, and his disciples were hungry and began to pick the heads of grain and to eat. 2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, "Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath."

3 But he said to them, "Have you not read what David did, when he and those with him were hungry? 4 How he went into the house of God, and ate the Showbread, which was not lawful for him, or for those with him, to eat, but only for the priests? 5 Or have you not read in the Law, how that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless? 6 But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here. 7 But if you had known what these words mean, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the innocent. 8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath."

9 And when he left there, he went into their synagogue. 10 And now a man was there who had a withered hand. And they asked him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbaths?" so that they might accuse him.

11 And he said to them, "Among you what if a man has one sheep, and it falls into a pit on the

the mind and heart (v 25), the direct knowledge of God. This knowledge of God is dependent on the Lord Jesus. All the above statements are either true, or else arrogant absurdity or terrible self-delusion. All the evidence says that Jesus spoke the truth. There is hardly a verse in the Bible that indicates the full deity of the Lord Jesus more plainly than this one.

Is it necessary to say that the knowledge of God He speaks of has nothing to do with Advaita Vedanta? In fact, it is fully opposed to it (see notes at John 10:30; 14:16,17; 15:21; Rom 8:16; 1 Cor 1:20,21).

11:28,29 Now Jesus speaks of how He reveals the Father and to whom. He reveals the Father to those who feel their burden (especially the weight of their sins) and come to Him, to those who are willing to be united to Him, to those who will humbly, meekly learn what He has to teach. Such people, and only such, will come to the knowledge of the one true God. And see what He promises – rest, a rest from self-effort, vain seeking, and the burdens of an empty sinful life without hope. This is not rest from troubles, but rest in troubles. Compare John 16:33.

"Labour and are heavy laden" – or "weary and burdened" – a translation perhaps closer to the Greek.

11:30 Compare 1 John 5:3. Trust, obedience and love, and His presence with us are what make His yoke easy and His burden light. Compare Acts 15:10 which speaks of the rules and regulations of the law. Yoked to Christ we find freedom and liberation and peace. His yoke is grace, not law. It is His strength and power, not self-effort on our part. Meekly learning from Him we come to more and more knowledge of God. Christ is both teacher and lesson. To be yoked to Christ is to be joined to one of perfect understanding and kindness and grace and love. How can it be burdensome?

12:1 This was not stealing grain. The people of Israel, when passing through the fields of others, were permitted to eat what they needed. This was according to the law God gave them (see Deut 23:24,25).

"Grain fields" – "corn" (KJV) was not grown in that part of the world at that time.

12:2 Note on Sabbath at Ex 20:8-11. The Pharisees interpreted the law very strictly, and had a great many rules as to what could and could not be done on the Sabbath. To them gathering of food was work, and work was forbidden on the Sabbath. Healing also was work and forbidden (v 10).

12:3,4 See 1 Sam 21:1-6. The meaning is that people and their needs are more important than rules, and that the hungry have a right to eat, even if the exact letter of the rules is ignored.

"Showbread" – the bread kept in the tabernacle or temple in the holy place – Ex 25:30.

12:5 The priests worked when preparing and offering the Sabbath sacrifices. See Num 28:9,10. The Pharisees were readers of the Old Testament, but had little spiritual understanding of it. We see this again and again in their encounters with the Lord Jesus.

12:6 Christ here calls Himself greater than God's temple. And His meaning here is that if the priests could break the rules of the Sabbath for the sake of the work of the temple, the disciples could ignore the rules for the sake of Christ's work, and at His direction. The disciples were on a mission with Christ when this event occurred.

12:7 Note at 9:13.

12:8 Jesus means Himself. See note on the Son of Man at 8:20. Again we see that Jesus was conscious of His divinity. Could a mere man or prophet, no matter how great, truthfully say that He was Lord of the Sabbath? The Sabbath and the laws relating to it were appointed by God Himself (Ex 20:1,8), and only God had the right to change the laws, or permit men to ignore them, or regulate the observance of the Sabbath in any way. Notes on Lord at Luke 2:11; Rom 10:9,10; Phil 2:10,11.

12:10 The Pharisees thought it was not lawful to heal anyone on the Sabbath, unless his life was in danger.

12:11,12 These words were an unanswerable

Sabbath. Will he not take hold of it and lift it out? 12 How much more important is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbaths."

13 Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored to normal, as sound as the other. 14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a meeting against him, discussing how they could destroy him.

15 But Jesus, knowing this, withdrew from there. And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all, 16 and told them that they should not make him known, 17 so that there might be a fulfilment of what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

18 See my servant, whom I have chosen, my beloved, in whom my soul delights.
I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He will not quarrel or cry out; neither will any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 He will not break a bruised reed, and he will not quench smoking flax, until he sends out judgment to victory.

21 And in his name the Gentiles will trust.

22 Then one who was demon-possessed, blind, and unable to speak, was brought to him, and he healed him, so that the blind and mute both spoke and saw. 23 And all the people were amazed, and said, "Is not this the son of David?"

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This fellow does not drive out demons except by Beelzebul the prince of demons."

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. 26 And if Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? 27 And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. 28 But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

29 "Or else how can someone enter a strong man's house, and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.

30 "He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters. 31 Therefore I say to you, Every kind of sin and blasphemy argument which the Pharisees made no attempt to answer.

12:13 Jesus' authority and power were also unanswerable.

12:14 See 26:4; 27:1; Mark 3:6; Luke 6:1; John 5:18; 7:10; 11:53. They preferred to try to destroy the truth rather than accept it. Their only answer to perfect reason and perfect goodness was murder. Such is the heart of man, even religious man. See Jer 15:19; 17:9.

12:16 See 8:4; 9:30.

12:17-21 See Isa 42:1-4. The Lord Jesus came to fulfill the law and the prophets (5:17). The ministry of Jesus was not loud and noisy. He preferred to work quietly, peaceably and without public clamor, contention, and show. Instead of calling for battle, He withdrew from His enemies. He knew that the important battles were spiritual ones, and that He would win the greatest battle of all on the cross, seemingly weak and defeated. And all this was in accordance with the words of God's prophet spoken several hundreds of years before.

12:18 The Lord Jesus was the servant of God as well as the incarnation of God. See 20:28; Rom 15:8; Acts 3:25,26; Phil 2:6,7.

12:20 He would continue in His meek and gentle ways until righteousness triumphed. Jesus did not behave as the Jews expected their Messiah to behave (as a mighty conqueror of their enemies). Yet the final victory would be His.

12:21 This looks far beyond His ministry to the Jews. Other peoples would believe and receive Him.

12:22 Note at 9:32.

12:23 Note on Son of David at 1:1.

12:24 Note on Beelzebul at 10:25.

12:25 See 9:4.

12:27 Some followers of the Pharisees also drove out demons, or at least professed to do so. See Acts 19:13-16. They well knew that the prince of demons did not give power to drive out demons, and they could well judge the slander of the Pharisees.

12:28 Note on kingdom of God at 4:17. The kingdom of God had come because the King had come, and one proof of this was His authority over demons.

12:29 In this brief parable the strong man represents Satan; the one who carries off his possessions is the Lord Jesus; the possessions are people under Satan's control. The fact that Jesus was rescuing men from Satan's dominion was evidence, not that He was in league with Satan as the Pharisees said, but that He had bound Satan. Is Jesus then a robber? No, He takes back only what Satan first stole from God. He carries away lost and fallen men from Satan's kingdom and places them in His own glorious kingdom (Acts 26:18).

12:30 Mark 9:40; Luke 11:23. This applies equally well to Satan and his demons or to men. In regard to Christ there is no neutral ground. He says the very attitude of not being for Him is proof of opposition.

will be forgiven to men, but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven to men. 32 And whoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this world or in the world to come.

33 "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad. For a tree is known by its fruit. 34 Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For the mouth speaks out of the overflow of the heart. 35 A good man brings out good things from the good treasure of the heart, and an evil man brings out evil things from the evil treasure. 36 But I tell you that in the day of judgment men will give an account for every idle word that they speak. 37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees

"Will be forgiven to men" means, of course, forgiveness will come to those who repent and trust in Christ. Then God will forgive the worst crimes, the most vile acts of which men are capable (Luke 24:47; Acts 13:38,39; Eph 1:7; 1 John 1:9). Notes on forgiveness at 6:12,14,15; 9:5-7.

"Blasphemy" - note at 9:3. From the context it appears that this one unforgivable sin, the blaspheming against God's Holy Spirit, is this: saying that the works of the Holy Spirit done by Christ are works of Satan. This involves a conscious, determined, willful rejection of Christ. It reveals a heart so hardened as to have no desire for repentance and to be incapable of it. And without repentance there can be no forgiveness - 3:2. Compare Heb 6:4-6; 1 Tim 4:2; 1 John 5:16. See the warning against hardness of heart in Heb 3:7-13.

12:32 It is God who enables men to repent (Acts 5:31; 11:18; 2 Tim 2:25). It is the Holy Spirit of God working in men's hearts who leads them to repentance. When men harden themselves against Him and refuse to repent even when faced with the truth, and blaspheme Him, He will not do this work in them. And so such men will never repent, and so can never be forgiven.

12:33 See 7:16. If the works of Christ were good, the Pharisees should understand that His character and nature are good. They should believe Him for His work's sake (John 5:36; 10:37,38).

12:34,35 See 3:7; 23:33. They were the kind of people who commit the unforgivable sin against the Holy Spirit. Their hatred of truth and of light and of Christ hardened them against the work of God's Spirit and made them what they were. What is in a man's heart will eventually come out and show what sort of man he is. Compare Prov 4:23. Even the most silent of men will sometimes betray by words what he thinks and what he is.

12:36 Careless words can reveal what is in a person better than careful, deliberate answered, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a miraculous sign from you."

39 But he answered and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a miraculous sign. And no such sign will be given to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah. 40 For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The men of Nineveh will rise up in judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah. And, look, a greater than Jonah is here. 42 The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it. For she came from the farthest parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And, look, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, it walks through dry places, looking for rest words. The tongue is a very powerful instrument and words have eternal results. Compare Prov 18:21; Jam 3:5,6.

12:37 Our words are being recorded, and on the day of judgment they will be "played back." Our words (and notice v 36 - "every careless word") will be the basis of our judgment because they will reveal exactly what we are.

12:38 Compare Mark 8:11; Luke 11:29-32. To humble and believing hearts Christ's miracles were evidence that He was the Messiah (8:1). Willful and determined unbelievers could not be convinced by the most spectacular of signs. Compare Luke 16:31.

12:39 An adulterous generation is one spiritually unfaithful to God. See notes at Jer 2:2; Ezek 23:2,3; Hos 1:2. Such a generation was not prepared to trust God, His Word, and His Son.

12:40 The Jews counted parts of days as full days. The Bible says that Jesus rose on the third day after His crucifixion (16:21; 27:64; Luke 24:7,21; Acts 10:40; 1 Cor 15:4). His resurrection is the greatest possible sign that He is the Messiah and Son of God. See notes at 28:6. The history of a brief part of Jonah's life is found in the Old Testament book of Jonah.

"Great fish" - there is no need to translate the Greek word as "whale." It means any kind of sea monster or huge fish.

12:41 Here the Lord Jesus calls Himself greater than Jonah. Jonah showed no miraculous signs, yet Nineveh repented. That Gentile city responded to God, but God's own people Israel hardened themselves against Him in spite of many mighty works. On Nineveh see Jonah 1:2.

12:42 1 Kings 10:1. Sheba is a long way south of Israel. Solomon was the wisest man who ever lived (1 Kings 3:10-12; 4:29-34), but his wisdom is as nothing compared to the wisdom of the Lord Jesus, God's Son.

12:43 "Unclean spirit" - note at 4:24. Demons want to "rest" in some body or and finding none. 44 Then it says, 'I will return to my house that I came out of.' And when it has come, it finds it empty, swept, and put in order. 45 Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the last state of that man is worse than the first. This is how it will be with this wicked generation."

46 While he was still talking to the people, suddenly his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak with him. 47 Then someone said to him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, asking to speak with you."

48 But he answered and said to the one who told him, "Who is my mother? And who are my brothers?" 49 And he stretched out his hand toward his disciples and said, "See my mother and my brothers! 50 For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, that one is my brother, and sister, and mother."

13 The same day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the lake. 2 And great crowds other. See 8:31.

12:44 "My house" refers to the man he left. "Swept and put in order" speaks of reformation of life without God. The house is "empty." The Lord Jesus is not within, God's Spirit does not live there.

12:45 Reformation, and religion, and a clean moral life do not make men safe. If God's Spirit does not dwell within them, Satan can make them worse than they were before they reformed themselves. Christ in us is the only hope of salvation and safety (Col 1:27; Rom 8:9; Rev 3:20). Jesus applies this truth to that generation of Israel (23:35,36). As a whole it was the worst of all their generations. The people were very religious, and they no longer practiced idolatry as their fathers had done. But they had a devilish hatred of the Son of God and rejected and crucified Him. This was because God was not in them, and Satan had opportunity to occupy their "house", which he did and brought many demons with him.

12:46 It seems that their object was to turn Him from His work and take Him to their home. See Mark 3:21,31,32 and 6:3. At that time His brothers had not yet come to believe He was the Messiah (John 7:5). Here it appears that even His mother Mary may have doubted Him temporarily.

12:49,50 His meaning is that spiritual relationships are more dear, more important than family relationships. He said this had to be true of His followers (see 10:37), and it was fully true in His own life. If we are those who do His will, Christ counts us also as His mother, or sister, or brother. His disciples are His family. See Heb 2:11,12. 13:3 The Greek word translated "parable" means a comparison of one thing with another. Jesus used parables to compare gathered together to him, so he went into a boat, and sat down, and the whole crowd stood on the shore. 3 And he told them many things in parables, saying, "Now a sower went out to sow. 4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell by the path, and the birds came and ate them up. 5 Some fell on stony places, where they had not much soil. And immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of soil. 6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched, and withered away, because they had no root. 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up, and choked them. 8 But others fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. 9 Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."

10 And the disciples came, and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

11 He answered and said to them, "Because it is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have an abundance. But whoever does not have, from him will be taken away even what he has.

the spiritual things of God's kingdom with natural, physical things. Parables are "earthly illustrations of heavenly truth." The Lord here compares Himself to someone who sows seed (see v 37). The seed He sows is the truth God has revealed (Luke 8:11. Compare 1 Cor 3:6; 9:11; 1 Pet 1:23). See His own explanation of this parable in vs 18-23.

13:5 Here "stony places" is not good soil with some rocks scattered on top. It is rock beneath with a little soil on top. The seed did not get down into the good earth. The warmth of the sun germinated this seed quickly.

13:7 Farmers generally will not sow seed among thorns or on a footpath or on rocky places. But those who sow the seed of God's Word will sow it in all the earth (Mark 16:15), and some will surely fall in minds and hearts not well prepared to receive it.

13:8 Some soil is better and more productive than others.

13:9 See 11:15; 13:43; Mark 4:9; Luke 8:8; 14:35; Rev 2:7,11,17,29; 3:6,13,22; 13:9. This emphasizes the importance of what has been spoken.

13:11,12 Jesus gives two reasons for His use of parables - one reason was to reveal the truth, the other was to conceal the truth. There are secret truths, mysteries about the kingdom of God which could be received only by those who had repented and believed in the Lord Jesus and entered the kingdom. Those, like the Pharisees and Sadducees, who had hardened their hearts against the truth and willfully rejected Christ, could not understand what He meant. Christ's way of speaking was in judgment on a rebellious and unbelieving nation (vs 12-15).

"Mysteries" - in the New Testament a

13 Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

14 "And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah which says,

Hearing you will hear and will not understand, and seeing you will see and will not perceive.

15 For this people's heart has become fat, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have closed their eyes, so that they would not at any time see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and be converted, and be healed by me.

16 "But blessed are your eyes, for they see;

"mystery" is a truth which God reveals and which we could not know if He did not reveal it.

"Kingdom of heaven" - 4:17. Verse 12 does not speak of material things but the ability to understand spiritual truth. They who refuse the light that Christ brings will lose whatever light they may have had before. They who receive the light will become more and more enlightened. Jews who "did not have" did not have because they did not want to have, and refused to have (compare John 3:19,20; 9:39).

13:14,15 Isa 6:9,10. The people deliberately and willfully prevented themselves from turning to God. Refusing spiritual light inevitably leads to judgment. 13:16 Compare 16:17; 2 Cor 4:6; Eph 1:17,18. The ability to hear and understand spiritual truth is one of God's great gifts. Let us ask Him for it.

13:17 Those men of God who lived before Christ came longed to see the Messiah and hear His words (compare 1 Pet 1:10-12).

13:18-23 This is the first of His parables that Jesus Himself explained. It gives us hints as to how to understand all His parables. Parables have one or more principal points or purposes, often only one. In every parable we should try to lay hold of the principal point or points. The details of Christ's parables also may have meanings. We see that here in His explanation of the parable of the sower. It is even more plain in vs 37-43 where Jesus explains the parable of the wheat and weeds.

But we should not put such emphasis on the details that we lose sight of the main point or points. And we should never try to show our cleverness in trying to interpret the details. Compare note at Ex 25:9. Our interpretation should be simple and natural.

We should not try to get our doctrines from the parables. The plain teachings of Christ and the apostles give us doctrine. But we should understand that the parables and your ears, for they hear. 17 For truly I say to you, many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

18 "Therefore listen to the parable of the sower. 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the wicked one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the one who received seed by the path. 20 But the one who received seed in stony places, is he who hears the Word, and immediately receives it with joy, 21 but he has no root in him, so lasts only for a while. For when pressure or persecution comes because of the Word, he immediately stumbles. 22 And the one who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the Word, and the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the Word, and it becomes unfruitful. 23 But the one who received seed in the good cannot be contrary to sound doctrine. We should look for Christ in the parables (as in all the Bible. Compare Luke 24:27,44). We should pay attention to the way Jesus introduced each parable, and the application at the end (if there is an application given).

We should apply the parables, as far as possible, to ourselves and our situation now. In them are spiritual lessons and moral principles for us all. We will not profit from the parables if we do not follow the truth we find in them.

In the parable of the sower the principal lesson concerns the different condition of men's hearts. In no case is there a change in the sower or the seed.

13:19 Notice the words "does not understand." Compare v 23. Because of spiritual blindness and ignorance this kind of person is careless and unconcerned about God's truth. The evil one is Satan. He is eager to destroy God's Word from men's hearts. Satan's purpose appears in Luke 8:12.

13:20,21 The picture here is shallowness and superficiality in regard to God's Word. This kind of man is religious only as long as it makes him happy. Trouble destroys his happiness and therefore his religion. There is no deep determination to go on to the end regardless of what might happen. There is no depth of discipleship, no persistent effort to learn the things of Christ and apply them.

13:22 Worldly worries and concerns for wealth are like choking, destroying thorns (Mark 4:19 adds the words "desires for other things" and Luke 8:14 adds the word "pleasures"). This is one reason why Christ and His apostles taught that disciples should trust God for their needs and not worry, that they should set their hearts on spiritual, heavenly things, not on things of this world. See 6:19-34; Col 3:1-3; 1 Tim 6:9,10.

13:23 The key word here is "understands." Compare v 19. It is not said that any of the others understood what they heard. But this ground is he who hears the Word, and understands it. He indeed bears fruit. Some produce a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

24 He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. 25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade sprang up, and began to produce a crop, the tares also appeared.

27 "So the servants of the owner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Then where have these tares come from?'

28 "He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Do you want us to go kind of person has been taught by God and has his spiritual eyes opened - Luke 24:45; etc. This makes all the difference. We can produce spiritual fruit only as we understand the teachings of the Bible, God's Word. What we do not understand we will not apply to our lives, and may quickly forget. God wants us to study and understand His truth. See Deut 6:6,7; Josh 1:8; Ps 1:1,2; 119:1; Prov 2:1-8; Acts 8:30-35; 1 Cor 2:12-16; Eph 1:17,18; 4:13,14; Col 1:9; 2:2.

"Fruit" - spiritual fruit is the only evidence of God's working in men's hearts. If there is no fruit there must be doubt whether anything real, valuable, and permanent is taking place. See John 15:1-6; Heb 6:7-12. But we should despair of no one. The poor conditions of heart described in this parable do not need to be permanent. Hard hearts can be broken, thorns can be uprooted. In this parable there is great encouragement for all who sow the Word of God in obedience to the Lord Jesus. There is good ground out there prepared by God, and eventually there will be a harvest. Compare 9:37; Ps 126:5,6; John 4:35.

The parable also contains a warning. We should be careful about the conditions of our hearts. We are responsible for their condition - whether they are unprepared or shallow and hard, and thorny. Compare Hos 10:12; Jer 4:3; Ezek 18:31; Joel 2:13; Prov 4:23.

13:24-30 The Lord Himself explained this parable in vs 37-43. The "field" represents conditions on earth. The world belongs to God, and His purpose is to have His kingdom rule over all and every part of it. The good "seed" is not the Word of God as in the parable of the sower, but God's children, born of His Spirit into His kingdom (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8).

At present in the world and in the church there is a mixture of good and bad. The Greek word here translated "tares" means a kind of weed almost identical to wheat in appearance in its early stages (compare 2 Cor 11:13-15). They represent the children of Satan (v 38; see John 8:44; 1 John 3:8). God's enemy is Satan who "sows" evil men in the world. Generally and gather them up?'

29 "But he said, 'No. While you are gathering up the tares you may also root up the wheat along with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will say to the reapers, 'First gather the tares together and tie them in bundles to burn them. But gather the wheat into my barn.'"

31 He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. 32 It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown, it is the largest of the garden plants, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

speaking there are only two kinds of people on earth - those who are God's children and in His kingdom and those who are not.

13:29 There can be no way for God's servants to rid the world of evil men, without at the same time destroying some good men. One reason is that it may not always be easy to distinguish between "weeds" and "wheat" in their early stages. In any case, who will do the separating and destroying? Apart from God Himself who has the wisdom or power? And we should always remember that "children" of Satan may in time become children of God (Rom 3:9; Eph 2:1-4; Titus 3:3-7).

13:30 At the great harvest at the end of this age God will separate all His children from all Satan's children. Compare 25:31-46. Observe that Satan's children are gathered first. The final issue of the harvest will be the same as described in Matt 3:12.

13:31,32 The main point of this parable is plain - though the kingdom of God had a very small beginning, it was to grow very large. It began its work in this age with Christ and a few disciples. Now it has spread throughout the earth. Christ is the one who planted the seed, His "field" is the whole earth, as in the parable of the weeds and wheat. The mustard seed was the smallest of all seeds planted by farmers (this is Jesus' meaning here - see Mark 4:31). The kind of mustard plant referred to here can grow as high as three meters.

In the Old Testament a tree was sometimes used as a symbol of a great kingdom (Ezek 31:6; Dan 4:20-22). Eventually, in the age to come, Christ's kingdom will fill the earth and replace all others (see notes on Dan 2:44,45).

In the OT birds sometimes symbolize nations and peoples (Isa 46:11; Jer 12:9; Ezek 17:22-24; see Ezek 31:3-6; etc). It seems likely that here they represent nations and peoples who become "Christianized" - greatly influenced by Christianity without becoming truly Christian - the birds are not branches of the tree. However it should be noted that in the parable of the sower birds stand for Satan and evil spirits (vs 4,19), and some think

33 He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour until the whole was leavened."

34 Jesus said all these things to the crowd in parables, and without a parable he did not say anything to them, 35 so that there might be a fulfilment of what was spoken by the prophet, saying,

I will open my mouth in parables.
I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the crowd away and went in the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, "Explain the parable of the tares of the field to us."

37 He answered and said to them, "He who sows the good seed is the Son of man. 38 The field is the world. The good seed are the children of the

that here also they mean Satan's attempts to injure and destroy God's kingdom. 13:33 There is large disagreement among scholars about the meaning of this brief parable. Some say it is a picture of the spread of God's kingdom in the world. Some say it symbolizes the inner working of God's Word in the individual and in the church as a whole. Others say it signifies the secret working of evil in the church, and link it with verses like 2 Thess 2:7. They point out that yeast (leaven) is often used in the Bible as a symbol of evil (see 16:12; Ex 12:8; 1 Cor 5:6-8; Gal 5:9), and that "woman" in theological matters may also symbolize evil teaching or apostasy (see Rev 2:20; 17:3; Jer 51:2,3,7).

Of course the kingdom of heaven is not evil in itself, but this may describe a certain aspect of the kingdom in this present age, and the apostasy that will permeate the visible church on earth. Jesus warned His disciples to beware of the "yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees" (see notes at 16:6,12). Perhaps this parable is a prophecy that the church would grow careless and that ritualism, traditionalism, hypocrisy, denial of Bible truth, carnal reasoning and unbelief (the Pharisees and Sadducees were guilty of all of these) would spread throughout all branches of Christianity.

13:34 But at this particular time and occasion He used only parables. At other times, of course, He used the ordinary forms of speech.

13:35 Ps 78:2. These hidden things were the secret truths of God's kingdom.

13:37-43 Notice again that when the Lord Jesus explained a parable He gave significance to the details.

13:38 Here "children of the kingdom" signify believers in Christ, those born again by God's Spirit (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8).

13:41 God means for His kingdom to completely fill the earth (Isa 11:1-9; Dan kingdom, but the tares are the children of the wicked one. 39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. 40 Therefore just as the tares are gathered up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age. 41 The Son of man will send forth his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom everything that causes stumbling, and those who do evil, 42 and will throw them into a furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine out like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear.

44 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field that a man finds and hides again, and for joy over it goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. 46 When he found one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that

2:35,44,45; 7:27; Rev 11:15; 19:15,16). 13:42 Notes at 3:10; 5:22.

13:43 Prov 4:18; Dan 12:3; 1 Cor 15:40-44. We cannot yet imagine what glory this indicates - 1 John 3:1-3.

13:44-46 Some think that in these two parables the "treasure" and the "pearl" signify the Church and the one who "found" them signifies Christ. This interpretation is most unlikely. It is much more probable that these parables signify two different kinds of men who find the kingdom of God. It seems that one of the points of the first parable is that the treasure was found unexpectedly. The man "found" it, evidently not knowing previously that it was there. And notice the words "hides again." Evidently the finder was afraid that someone else would get the treasure before he could secure it. How can all this refer to Christ?

The interpretation of this first parable also rests on the meaning of the word "field." If the field is the world as in v 38, then obviously a person does not buy the world to get the kingdom of God. But look carefully at the wording of vs 24 and 44 - v 24 has "his" (Christ's) field, but v 44 has "a" field. In v 38 "his field" is said to be the world. But is there any reason to think that "a" field is also the world? A field here seems to indicate any field, and possibly has no special meaning at all. At least we can say that it did not belong to the person who found the treasure, because he went and bought it. So the person can hardly refer to Christ who owns the world and does not need to buy it - in v 24 it is said to be His world already.

The seeker in the second parable was seeking after many pearls. He was in the business of buying and selling. Not so with Christ. He knew exactly what He wanted when He came to earth, and He was after one great thing all the time - the Church.

The wording of these parables suits

he had and bought it.

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the lake and caught every kind of fish. 48 When it was full, they pulled it to shore, sat down, and gathered the good into containers, but threw the bad away. 49 It will be just like this at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from among the righteous, 50 and throw them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

51 Jesus said to them, "Have you understood all these things?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord."

52 Then he said to them, "Therefore every scribe instructed about the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is the owner of a house who brings out of his treasure things new and old."

53 And it happened that when Jesus had better the interpretation that we have here two brief pictures of individuals finding the kingdom of God. The first one finds it without deliberately seeking for it. Compare Rom 10:20 (Isa 65:1); 9:30,31. The kingdom of God is in this world but not obviously so. It is hidden from the great mass of men. But God directs the steps of individuals in ways they do not know, and suddenly they come upon this great treasure. The seeker after pearls represents a different kind of person. He is a thinker and has some knowledge of quality things. God has made him a searcher for truth, justice, beauty, wisdom, salvation. When he learns of the kingdom of God, when he sees it with enlightened spiritual eyes, he knows there is nothing to be compared with it.

Observe that the men in both parables sold everything to buy what they had discovered. But can the kingdom of God be bought? No (Acts 8:20; Rom 6:23; Eph 2:8,9). But it is still described as something to buy (Isa 55:1,2; Rev 3:18). In other words, there is a cost to the one who wants it, and that cost is everything one has (compare 10:37-39; Luke 14:26,27,33; Mark 10:28). To anyone who has seen its value and its beauty, the cost does not seem too high (Phil 3:7,8).

13:47-50 This parable is similar to that of the tares and the wheat, but there are differences also. That one speaks of the gradual development of how things will be in this age. This one speaks of those caught in the gospel net, those who are somehow drawn into Christianity hardly knowing how.

Again we see that during this age, separation of the good and bad is not fully possible for men. Leaders in the church and believers may (and should) try to keep their local churches pure and unmixed with ungodly men (1 Cor 5:1,2,11-13; 2 Tim 3:1-5). But this will prove on the whole to be impossible to perfectly accomplish. There was a Judas among the twelve apostles, unsuspected by them, and the apostles later warned that evil men would get into the church (Acts 20:23-30; 2 Tim 4:3,4; 2 Pet 2:1,2). The final finished these parables, he left there. 54 And when he came to his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, "Where does this man get this wisdom, and these miracles? 55 Is this not the carpenter's son? Isn't his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? 56 And his sisters, aren't they all with us? Then where does this man get all these things?"

57 And they were offended at him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour, except in his own country and in his own house."

58 And he did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus, 2 and said to his and complete separation of the good from the bad (true from false Christians) will be at the end of this age. Compare vs 40-43.

13:47 The Greek word for "net" signifies not a small hand net, but a great dragnet which could draw in a very large number of fish.

13:51 They understood because He both opened the eyes of their understanding and explained His parables to them. So they could say "yes." See Mark 4:34. If they had not understood, would they not have asked for further explanations, as they did concerning the parable of the weeds and the wheat (v 36)?

13:52 The Lord Jesus here indicates that His disciples must be teachers. Out of the vast storehouse of the Word of God they would present to people the old treasures of the Old Testament and the new treasures of the New Testament, as Jesus Himself was then doing.

13:54 "His own country" - Nazareth and its environs. The parables had been spoken at the Sea of Galilee near Capernaum. In Nazareth Jesus was greeted with skepticism and scorn.

13:55,56 These verses indicate that after Jesus was born, Joseph and Mary had other children.

13:57 Compare Luke 4:24-30. They could not believe that a person of (seemingly) so ordinary a background, and low in the social order, could amount to much. People still frequently make such a mistake.

13:58 See Mark 6:4,5. Their lack of faith in Him made it impossible for Him to do them the good He otherwise would have done. This is always the case. See the note at Ps 78:41.

14:1 This Herod was a son of the Herod of 2:1. He ruled over Galilee and Perea and is called "king" in Mark 6:14. Here he is called "tetrarch" (which means a ruler of a fourth part). After the death of the first king Herod the area he had ruled was divided among his sons.

14:2 Herod was an evil man. Here is evidence that his conscience was bothering him for what he did to John. He was afraid but, like so many others, he did not let his servants, "This is John the Baptist. He has risen from the dead, and so miraculous powers are at work in him."

3 For Herod had seized John, bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. 4 For John said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 And though he wanted to put him to death, he was afraid of the people, because they counted him a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod. 7 So he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. 8 And she, having been previously instructed by her mother, said, "Give me here John the Baptist's head in a dish." 9 And the king was sorry. Nevertheless because of his oath and those who were sitting at the table with him, he commanded that it be given to her. 10 And he sent men and had John beheaded in the prison. 11 And his head was brought in a dish and given to the girl, and she took it to her mother. 12 And his disciples came, took away the body, buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 When Jesus heard this, he left there by boat to a deserted place alone. And when the people heard about it, they followed him on foot from the cities. 14 And Jesus went out and saw a great crowd, and was moved with compassion for them, and he healed their sick.

15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, "This is a deserted place, and the time is late. Send the crowd away, so that they can go to the villages and buy themselves food."

16 But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."

17 And they said to him, "We have here only five loaves, and two fish."

18 He said, "Bring them here to me." 19 And he commanded the crowd to sit down on the grass, and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and, looking up to heaven, he blessed them, broke them, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowd. 20 And they all ate and were satisfied. And they picked up twelve basketfuls of the pieces that were left over. 21 And the number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 And immediately Jesus had his disciples get into a boat and go before him to the other side, while he sent the crowds away. 23 And after fear turn him to God. Observe his belief in the resurrection of the dead. See notes on the resurrection at John 5:28,29.

14:3 Herod had persuaded Herodias to leave Philip and live with himself. This was contrary to God's law (Lev 18:16).

14:4 John was a courageous man who did not withhold God's message even from depraved rulers. See also 10:18; Acts 26:1,2.

14:5 He wanted to kill John only because Herodias wanted him dead, but for some time protected him from her vengeful demands. He knew John was a righteous man, and he was afraid of both John and the people (see Mark 6:19,20).

14:9 Note at v 5. One may be distressed at the actual act of killing a person, even though the wish had been in the heart.

14:10,11 Here is the end of the man whom Jesus called one of the greatest of all men. Yet neither God in heaven nor the Lord Jesus on earth lifted a finger to prevent it. God does all things well and rules over all, but often His ways are mysterious (Isa 55:8,9; Acts 12:1-4; Rom 11:33). As for John, he had done his part in preparing the way for Christ (3:1-3; John 3:27-30), and his ministry was completed. So God gave him the great privilege of suffering and dying for Christ.

14:13 Verse 23.

14:14 See 9:35,36.

14:15-21 This is the only miracle Jesus performed which is recorded in all four Gospels (except His resurrection from the dead). See Mark 6:35-44; Luke 9:12-17; John 6:1-13. As with His other miracles this one too was for the good of others, and showed not only His supernatural power but His compassion. This miracle was important also because of the truth it signified. Jesus based some teaching on it in John 6:26-59. 14:17 It is always true that what His disciples have will not be enough in itself for the multitude, but He will accept it and use it in marvelous ways.

14:18 This is what He says to us now about all we have.

14:19 He first acknowledged publicly where His power came from. See 3:16; John 5:19-23. In expressing thanks to God the Father He is an example to us all - Eph 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18; Lev 12:13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12. See the work of the disciples here - they could not provide all that was needed, but they could give it out when the Lord provided it. This is true also in the work of His disciples in spiritual matters. There is enough food in Christ's gospel to feed the whole world! God wants distributors.

14:20 It was the job of the disciples to serve the people. Then the Lord provided for the disciples. This will always be true. Compare 6:33; Luke 6:38; 2 Cor 9:8-10; Phil 4:19. Observe also that as they distributed to others the supply increased.

14:21 Matthew alone records that there were women and children present. There may not have been very many, since the place was "remote" (v 15), but we cannot be sure about this.

14:22 Mark 6:45.

14:23 "To pray" - 19:13; 26:36; Luke 5:16; Heb 5:7; 7:25.

sending the crowds away, he went up into a mountain by himself to pray. And when evening came, he was there alone. 24 But the boat was now in the middle of the lake, tossed by waves, for the wind was against it.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the lake. 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were alarmed, saying, "It is a spirit." And they cried out in fear.

27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid."

28 And Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it is you, tell me to come to you on the water."

29 And he said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. 30 But when he saw the strong wind, he was afraid. And beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me."

31 And immediately Jesus stretched out his hand, and caught him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"

32 And when they got into the boat, the wind stopped. 33 Then those who were in the boat came and worshipped him, saying, "You truly are the Son of God."

34 And when they crossed over, they arrived at the land of Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place recognized him, they sent word out into all the surrounding countryside, and people brought to him all who were sick, 36 and begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak. And all who touched it became perfectly well.

15 Then scribes and Pharisees from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, 2 "Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

3 But he answered and said to them, "And why do you break the commandment of God by following your tradition? 4 For God commanded, saying, 'Honour your father and mother,' and, 'He who curses father or mother must be put to death.' 5 But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or his mother, 'Whatever of mine might have been useful to you is an offering to God,' 6 and does not honour his father or his mother, it is all right. In this way, by your tradition, you have made the commandment of God to be no longer in effect. 7 You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about 14:24 Sudden storms on the Sea of Galilee could be very dangerous to those out in boats. In this case, it was just another opportunity for Jesus to show His loving care for them, and His divine power.

14:25 Here is another marvelous example of the miracles of Jesus – one that cannot be imitated by magicians and so-called godmen. One can either walk on water or one cannot. And doing so reveals supernatural power. See notes at 8:1; John 2:11. The fourth "watch" was 3 to 6 AM.

14:26 They could not believe that flesh and blood could walk on water, and so thought Jesus must be some spirit or ghost. Compare Luke 24:36-39.

14:28 Here we see something of Peter's character – impulsive and daring. Evidently he thought that if Jesus could walk on water He could make him also walk on it.

14:29 This walking on water was not by Peter's power. Jesus can enable men to do many things they cannot do themselves. Compare 2 Cor 3:5.

14:30 There is a lesson here in spiritual matters – as long as we keep our eyes on the Lord Jesus and trust Him only, we will be able to do the things He says, even things impossible to us otherwise. If doubts overwhelm us – if we take our eyes away from Him and become occupied with difficulties and dangers – we will fail and sink.

14:31 Peter's faith was small and yet he walked on water! Learn that even a person of small faith can do impossible things as long as he trusts in the Lord Jesus to enable him. See 17:20. But doubt is ruinous. When his faith failed his feet failed.

14:33 See 2:11; 3:17; 11:27; Luke 1:32,35; John 1:18; 3:16; 5:17,18; 10:36; 20:28. Observe that the Lord Jesus accepted their worship – a thing He would do only if He knew Himself to be the one proper object of worship (God). See 4:10. See also Luke 2:11; Phil 2:6.

14:36 It was not a cloak which healed them, but Christ's power released in response to their faith – 9:20-22.

15:2 The traditions of the elders were interpretations of the law of Moses and rules governing daily life drawn up by Jewish teachers. They had been passed on generation after generation. These religious leaders considered that people became ceremonially defiled by the common activities of daily life and needed to wash to remove this defilement. They were not concerned with any physical dirtiness of the disciples. They made washing a religious ceremony (Mark 7:2-4).

15:3 Jesus was not concerned with the traditions of the elders. The commands of God were the important thing to Him. These religious leaders devised ways to get around God's plain commands, while insisting on their own traditions. Observe that Jesus is teaching the divine inspiration of the law. The commands which came through Moses were God's commands.

15:4 Ex 20:16; 21:17.

15:5,6 In other words, in the name of God, and pretending it was for God's sake, they broke God's commands. This is another example of man's fallen deceitful nature perverting God's ways.

15:7 "Hypocrites" – 6:2; 7:5; 23:13.

you, saying,

- 8 This people draw near me with their mouth, and honour me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
 9 But they worship me in vain, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men."

10 And he called the crowd and said to them, "Listen and understand. 11 What defiles a man is not what goes into the mouth. But what comes out of the mouth, this is what defiles a man."

12 Then his disciples came and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this statement?"

13 But he answered and said, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted, will be rooted up. 14 Let them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into the ditch."

15 Then answered Peter and said to him, "Explain this parable to us."

16 And Jesus said, "Are you also still without understanding? 17 Do you still not understand that whatever goes in the mouth goes into the stomach and is eliminated? 18 But the things which come out of the mouth come from the heart. And they defile the man. 19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual immorality, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. 20 These are the things which defile a man. But eating with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

21 Then Jesus left there and went into the region of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And, suddenly, out came a Canaanite woman from that region and cried out to him, saying, "O Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me. My daughter is terribly demon-possessed."

23 But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying out after us."

24 But he answered and said, "I was not sent to anyone except the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25 Then she came and worshipped him, saying, "Lord, help me."

26 But he answered and said, "It is not right to take the children's bread, and throw it to the dogs."

27 And she said, "True, Lord! Yet the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."

15:8,9 Isa 29:13. Most men prefer to follow men's rules rather than obey God's Word, but many of them would like to be considered on God's side. There is a great deal of such "vain" worship on earth.

15:11 His meaning is that real "uncleanness" is not physical but moral. It is not related to foods and washings, but to the heart and mind and spirit (vs 17-20). What use is it if we try to be "ceremonially" clean by washing the outside, and leave the inner person, the heart, full of wickedness? See 23:25-28. We need to be clean on the inside. See 5:8; Heb 9:14; 1 Pet 1:22; 1 John 1:9.

15:13 God both plants and uproots plants. See 13:24-30; Isa 60:21; 61:3; Jer 1:9,10. Who besides God does any planting? - see 13:39.

15:14 "Blind leaders" - 23:16,24; Rom 2:19. Many there are who are totally lacking in spiritual understanding who still think they are enlightened, and who try to guide others. And many people all over the world have fallen into religious "ditches" by following them.

15:16 See 16:9; Luke 24:25.

15:19 Jesus here reveals what man's heart is by nature. Every human being is born with a sinful nature which eventually reveals itself in one or more of the sins listed here. Since the streams are so bad what must the fountain be like! See Gen 8:21; Ps 51:5; Isa 64:6; Jer 17:9.

15:21 See 11:21.

15:22 She was descended from the original inhabitants of Canaan. See Gen 10:18; 15:20. Note on Son of David at 1:1. Note on demon possession at 4:24.

15:23 Jesus was not lacking in love and compassion for people other than Jews. That is not why He remained silent here. Compare His own words at 28:19; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:46,47; John 3:16. But before He was ready to send His gospel throughout the world He had a work to do in Israel, and God sent Him specifically to do that work (v 24). Compare 10:5,6. As for this woman, it appears that He was testing her faith to bring out its strength and beauty, and from the beginning He planned to help her (it is likely that He went there with that very purpose in mind). The disciples were more concerned with themselves than with the need of this woman.

15:26 "Children" here means the children of Israel, God's chosen people. The Greek word for dogs used here does not mean the scavengers of the streets, belonging to no one and sometimes used in the Bible as a symbol of wicked men (Ps 22:16; Phil 3:2; 2 Pet 2:22; Rev 22:15). The word here means little dogs - pet dogs kept at the house. Jesus was not showing scorn or insulting this woman. He was testing her and showing, perhaps, that the basis of prayer is not our merit. The tone of voice and the look on the face can be as important as words spoken, and there was something in Jesus' manner which encouraged her rather than discouraged her.

15:27 The woman understood in some measure that the Jews were God's chosen nation, and that she was an outsider without any covenant relationship with God or claim on His mercy (compare Eph 2:12).

28 Then Jesus answered and said to her, "Woman, your faith is great! It will be to you just as you wish." And from that hour her daughter was healed.

29 And Jesus left there, came near the lake of Galilee, and went up into a mountain, and sat down there. 30 And great crowds came to him. With them were the lame, blind, mute, crippled, and many others. And they put them down at Jesus' feet, and he healed them, 31 so that the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Then Jesus called his disciples and said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have stayed with me now for three days, and have nothing to eat. I am not willing to send them away without eating, for they may faint on the way."

33 And his disciples said to him, "Where would we get enough bread in this wilderness to satisfy such a large crowd?"

34 And Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

35 And he commanded the crowd to sit on the ground. 36 And he took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to

And wisely and humbly she used this for her advantage. And she knew that a crumb from the Lord Jesus would be greater than a whole loaf from anyone else.

15:28 She showed the greatness of her faith by her persistence. She would not be stopped by silence (v 23), rejection by the disciples (v 23), teaching that seemed to exclude her (v 24), or any temptation to pride (v 26). She fully believed that Jesus could and would help her, and she determined to go on asking until He did. Compare Luke 11:5-10; 18:1-8. Let us observe how important faith is to Jesus, how He commends it and rewards it (8:10; 9:22,29; 17:20; 21:21,22. See Heb 11:6).

15:30 See 4:23,24; 9:35,36.

15:31 See 9:8. The God of Israel is the only God there is (Deut 6:4; Isa 43:10,11; 44:6,8; 45:5,18). And one great purpose for Christ's activity was to bring praise to Him (compare Rom 15:8,9).

15:32 See 9:36; 14:14. Observe that Jesus thought of their needs before they said anything about them. Compare 6:8.

15:33 They speak as though the event of 14:15-21 had never happened. Did they think that was an event never to be repeated? Sometimes the dullness and smallness of faith in the disciples seems amazing - until we become aware of our own.

15:36 See 14:19.

15:37 When we give what we have to the Lord Jesus, our seven "loaves" may feed a his disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowd. 37 And they all ate and were satisfied. And they picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. 38 And those eating were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39 And he sent the crowd away, and got into the boat, and came to the region of Magdala.

16 The Pharisees and the Sadducees came, and testing him asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said to them, "When evening comes, you say, 'We'll have fine weather, for the sky is red.' 3 And in the morning, 'Today we'll have a storm, for the sky is red and overcast.' You hypocrites! You can discern the appearance of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times! 4 A wicked and adulterous generation looks for a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah." And he left them and went away.

5 And when his disciples went to the other side, they forgot to take bread. 6 Then Jesus said to them, "Watch out and be on your guard about the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we did not bring any bread."

8 Knowing this, Jesus said to them, "O you of multitude and mean seven times more coming back to us than we gave. See Luke 6:38. 15:38 Magadan was a town on the west shore of the lake of Galilee.

16:1 Pharisees and Sadducees were divided in many things, but they joined together in one thing - opposition to Jesus. An evil cause can unite people as much as a good cause. See Luke 23:12. Note on Sadducees at 3:7.

16:2,3 There were already many signs, but they had no heart to accept them. The prophecies of the Old Testament, the ministries of John the Baptist and the Lord Jesus revealed that the days of the Messiah were with them. And the many miracles Jesus had performed revealed His supernatural power - 8:1. Those unbelievers deserved no special signs, and He would not give them any. They had not responded to the truth God had already given them.

16:6-12 Here we have yeast (leaven) used as a symbol of something evil. See 13:33; Ex 12:8; 1 Cor 5:6-8; Gal 5:9. This occasion once again revealed dullness in the disciples. The Lord Jesus used a figure of speech which they should have understood. It seems that their minds were too much on literal bread. Occupation with physical needs and desires may make all of us dull hearers of God's Word.

16:8 See 6:30; 8:26; 14:31. In the next two verses Jesus points out that they had no cause to be anxious or unbelieving about little faith, why do you reason among yourselves because you did not bring any bread? 9 Do you not yet understand, or remember the five loaves for the five thousand and how many basketfuls you picked up? 10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many basketfuls you picked up? 11 How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you about bread, but that you should be on your guard about the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees?"

12 Then they understood that he told them to be on their guard, not about the yeast in bread, but about the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

food, even though they had forgotten to bring any. He had twice miraculously provided food for great multitudes. Do we fall into the same anxiety and unbelief as theirs? Even after years of Christian experience, do we not sometimes need to be rebuked for lack of faith and understanding?

16:12 By "yeast" Jesus meant false religious teaching. Just as yeast permeates all the dough where it has been put, false teaching can spread through a whole group of people, can corrupt an entire religious organization, can influence even a nation. Both Pharisees and Sadducees claimed to be followers of the true religion revealed by God, but they did not partake of its reality and spiritual life. Every church still needs to beware of such "yeast" wherever it may be found (see Rom 16:17,18; 1 Tim 4:1,2; 2 Tim 4:3,4; 2 Pet 2:1-3). Compare 13:33.

We see something of the false teaching of the Pharisees and the results of it at 3:7-9; 5:20; 9:11; 12:2,24,28; 15:1,2; 23:2-36. They said they believed the Bible was the Word of God and that there was one true God, but they emphasized ceremonies, traditions, mere outward observance of God's law and man-made rules. It all tended to self-righteousness and hypocrisy - Luke 12:1; 18:10-12. The Sadducees denied truth plainly revealed in the Word of God (Acts 23:8). Their ways resulted in worldly, carnal reasoning. Both of these groups were sunk in unbelief and hypocrisy. The same kinds of people, under different names, are still with us today.

16:13 Caesarea Philippi was a town about 40 kilometers north of the lake of Galilee, near the highest mountain in the region - Mt Hermon. Note on Son of man at 8:20.

16:14 When the Jews of Christ's day suggested He might be John or one of the prophets who had died, they were not expressing a belief in reincarnation but in resurrection - 14:1,2. On reincarnation see notes at Job 11:12; John 9:2,3.

16:15 This is a question that still comes to us all. The answer we give to it is of the utmost importance.

16:16 Note on Christ at 1:1; on Son of God at 3:16,17; John 3:16; 5:18-23. God is called "the living God" in contrast to dead idols, and

13 When Jesus arrived in the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, "Who do men say that I, the Son of man, am?"

14 And they said, "Some say that you are John the Baptist. Some say, 'Elijah.' And others say, 'Jeremiah or one of the prophets.'"

15 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

17 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. 18 And also I tell you that you are Peter, to the "gods" who exist only in peoples' imaginations. Notes at Ps 115:3-8; etc.

16:17 "Blessed" - references are at 11:6. Here Jesus pronounces Peter blessed because God had enlightened him to understand the great truth concerning Jesus - that He was the Messiah and the (not "a") Son of God. He did not arrive at the truth by logical reasoning or by human teachers. It was no head theory. He had a direct revelation of truth from God. Compare 11:27; etc. Blessedness comes to all who are similarly enlightened to know the truth about the Lord Jesus. Compare 1 John 2:23; 5:1,5.

16:18 The name Peter in Greek (Petros) means a small rock, a stone. The word for the "rock" on which Christ builds His Church (petra) means a large rock. So Christ is not saying He would build the Church on Peter. Such a magnificent structure requires more than such a weak and puny foundation. A comparison with other references to this subject makes this even more clear. See 1 Cor 3:11; Eph 2:19-21. Peter, together with all the apostles and prophets, was a part of the Church's foundation, but Christ Himself is by far the most important "rock."

"Rock" as used here in Matthew may mean the confession of Peter that Jesus was the Christ, the only Son of God. That is a foundation truth for anyone entering the fellowship of God's people.

In this verse the word "church" appears for the first time in the New Testament. The Greek word is "ecclesia" and comes from a verb which means "called out from." In the NT it is the word commonly used for an assembly of God's people. They are called out from the world to be a separate holy people - 1 Pet 2:9; 2 Cor 6:17,18; Rom 8:30; John 17:6.

"Hell" - in Greek "Hades." See note at Luke 16:23. In the Old Testament "gate" often signified the place where the leaders and rulers and judges met to decide matters relating to their town (Gen 34:20). Gates of Hades probably means here the counsels and plots and plans of all the leading powers and beings related to the realm of death, especially Satan who has the power of death (Heb 2:14). They will not be able to win their fight against Christ and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell will not overcome it. 19 And I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

20 Then he ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was Jesus the Christ. 21 From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

22 Then Peter took him aside and began to and His Church.

16:19 Jesus gave the keys to Peter as the leader of the twelve apostles. He was chosen for the special task of opening the kingdom of God to others. We see his use of these keys in his ministry to Jews (Acts 2:14-41), Samaritans (Acts 8:14-17), and Gentiles (Acts 10:1-48) – these were the only three groups of people that existed.

Let us learn the following: the doors to God's kingdom are now wide open, and anyone who will may enter. Once a door is opened keys are no longer needed to open it. The keys were given to Peter, not to his successors. Peter alone could do what he did. God used Peter as His instrument to open the door of His kingdom to all. And he did it once for all time. Now if there is any closing or opening of doors to do, the Lord Jesus Himself will do it. See Rev 1:8; 3:7.

Peter had more to do than opening the gate of God's kingdom. There were things to "bind" and "loose." That is, the affairs of the kingdom had to be administered and decisions must be made concerning things to be allowed or forbidden. It is important to see that in this work the other disciples had the same authority as Peter. See 18:18; John 20:23. Verse 19 could (and perhaps should) be translated "whatever you bind on earth will [already] have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven." This would mean that Peter and the other disciples would be agents to carry out decisions already made in heaven.

16:20 The time had not yet come to announce what Peter had learned. It would have caused more obstacles to Christ's ministry, more opposition from His enemies, and bring about a crisis before the proper time (see John 7:30).

16:21 For the first time Jesus taught His disciples what His principal work was to be. His chief reason for coming into the world was not to gather huge crowds, declare His divinity, become popular, and ascend a human throne. He came to die for sinners and rise again (20:28; Luke 24:46,47; John 1:29; 3:14; 10:11; 1 Cor 15:1-4). Note on resurrection of the dead at John 5:28,29.

16:22 This shows how little the disciples at that time understood Christ's mission to the world. They thought He would be a mighty rebuke him, saying, "Be it far from you, Lord! This shall not happen to you."

23 But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! To me you are a stumbling block, because you are not thinking of the things of God, but of the things of men."

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me. 25 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. 26 For what profit is it to a man, if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for conqueror of their enemies, not a suffering saviour. Poor Peter! He thought he would be Christ's advisor! He rebuked Jesus, the one he had called the Messiah, the Son of God! Such was Peter, ascending one moment to the heights, falling to the depths the next moment. Did he imagine he knew better than Christ Himself what Christ should do? He was not the last person to fall into this error. There are still many who complain against God's ways as if they knew better than God how things should be done (see note at Ps 47:2).

16:23 See 4:10. "Satan" – note at 1 Chron 21:1. The name means "opponent" or "adversary." Here Peter was opposing Christ in trying to keep Him from the cross. So Jesus justly rebuked him. He never used harsher language in speaking to any disciple. Peter was thinking in merely human ways. Men want ease, comfort, safety, prosperity for themselves and for those they love. They do not understand God's ways and plans. To mind the things of men may put us in opposition to the things of God. See Isa 55:8,9; Rom 8:5-8; 11:33,34; Phil 3:19; Col 3:1-3; Jam 4:4; 1 John 2:16,17. Let us learn from God rather than try to teach Him what He should do. If Christ had listened to Peter there would have been no sacrifice for sin, no resurrection, no gospel, no hope for anyone.

16:24 Note at 10:38; Mark 8:34; Luke 9:23. The denial of self is an essential part of true Christianity. This is contrary to all philosophies which teach the exaltation of self or assertion of self. According to the Bible self is fallen and sinful and worthy only of death (15:19; Ps 51:5; Jer 17:9; Rom 8:7,8,12,13; Gal 5:17,24; Eph 4:22; Col 3:5).

"Himself" does not mean just the body, but the whole person as he is by nature – all that he thinks, desires, and does. The person who lives for self cannot live for God, and living for God is the chief duty and privilege of men (1 Cor 10:31; 2 Cor 5:15).

16:25 Note at 10:39. We must give up self for Christ. People may lose themselves in other things and for other reasons. Only when we give our life to Christ will we find true and abundant life.

16:26 The world is a passing show (1 John 2:16,17), and we are here only for a little while (Ps 90:10; Heb 9:27). Even if we could gain his soul? 27 For the Son of man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will reward each one according to his deeds. 28 Truly I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste of death until they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom."

17 And after six days Jesus took Peter James, and John his brother, and led them up into a high mountain by themselves, 2 and was transfigured in their presence. And his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. 3 And suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with him.

4 Then Peter, responding, said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you are willing, let us make here three tabernacles, one for you, one for it all, it would be the height of foolishness to chose that when we can have something far better and enjoy it forever – inheritance with Christ (Rom 8:17; 1 Cor 3:21-23; 1 Pet 1:4; Rev 21:7). Yet many there are who throw away eternal life for a plot of land or a few pleasures. Even one of the original apostles chose a bag of money rather than eternal life (26:14-16; John 12:6. See also Gen 25:29-34; Heb 12:16,17).

16:27 Here are two events in the future which are absolutely certain to occur – the return of Christ (19:28; 24:27,30; John 14:3; Acts 1:11; 1 Thess 4:16; Heb 9:28), and His judgment of men (25:31,32; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:16; 2 Cor 5:10; Rev 22:12). All of our choices and activities should be in the light of these two facts.

16:28 Note on Son of man at 8:20. "Coming in his kingdom" here does not mean His second coming to rule over the earth. The best explanation seems to be that Christ is speaking of the establishment of His kingdom through His death, resurrection, and ascension to heaven, His sending the Holy Spirit at Pentecost and the spread of His kingdom as recorded in Acts. This verse also seems to be related to His transfiguration which is recorded in the next chapter. Compare 2 Pet 1:16-18.

17:1 This high mountain was probably Mt Hermon.

17:2 The disciples were given a brief sight of Christ's glory (Mark 9:23; Luke 9:28,29; John 1:14; 1 Pet 1:16-18. Compare Rev 1:14-16). This was evidence that Christ would fulfill the promise of 16:27. The word "transfigured" means a change in the outer form or appearance that comes from within. Compare Rom 12:2; 2 Cor 3:18 where the same word is used.

17:3 Moses represented the law, the old covenant with its types and pictures of salvation. Elijah represented the prophets with their visions and promises of the kingdom of God. Moses died about 1400 years before this event. Elijah ascended to heaven nearly 900 years before it. Their appearance here demonstrates the Bible's teaching that people survive after Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud covered them in shadow, and then a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were very frightened. 7 And Jesus came and touched them and said, "Get up and do not be frightened."

8 And when they had raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus alone. 9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus gave them an order, saying, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of man has risen from the dead."

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must first come?"

11 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Elijah death. We know from Luke 9:31 what Moses and Elijah talked about with Jesus – His death. 17:4 Probably Peter's idea was to prolong the blessed experience on the mountain, to spend as much time as possible there in glory, away from the work, the strains, the problems of life on the plain. But see Mark 9:6. Once again he was minding the things of men (16:23). If Jesus had stayed on the mountain there would have been no salvation for men.

17:5 See references to "cloud" at Acts 1:9. Here God the Father magnifies the Lord Jesus above Moses and Elijah, and so above all the great men of the Old Testament or any who ever lived. Jesus was the unique Son of God. See 3:17; etc. The eternal living God, the Creator of the universe, tells us to pay the utmost attention to the words spoken by Jesus and recorded in the Bible. Of all who ever spoke Jesus is most worthy of these words – "Listen to Him." Compare John 7:16,17; 12:49,50; Heb 1:1,2. The quality of our life on earth and our whole eternity is dependent on whether we listen to Him – John 10:3,16,27; Acts 3:23. Sad it is that many men listen to other men but refuse to hear the voice of God's only Son. 17:6 Compare Ex 3:6; Isa 6:5; Ezek 1:28; Dan 10:7-9; Rev 1:17.

17:7 See 8:3,15; 9:29; 20:34; Dan 10:10; Rev 1:17. One touch by the Lord Jesus brings more blessedness than the whole world can give.

17:8 What here happened to them literally should happen to us spiritually. When the sun rises the stars fade from view. One glimpse of Him and anyone else who ever lived must take a lesser place.

17:9 The time to declare all the truth about the Lord Jesus had not yet come, but it would come later.

17:10 "Elijah must first come" – this means appear before the Messiah, the Saviour. This teaching was based on Mal 4:5,6. The disciples believed that Jesus was the Messiah, but they did not understand why Elijah had not come to prepare His way.

17:11 This seems to be an assertion that Mal 4:5,6 will be fulfilled in the future, that indeed comes first and restores all things. 12 But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wished. In the same way the Son of man also will suffer at their hands."

13 Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

14 And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him, knelt down to him and said, 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son. For he is a lunatic, and suffers miserably. For he often falls in the fire, and often in the water. 16 And I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him."

17 Then Jesus answered and said, "Faithless and perverse generation! How long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to me."

18 And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it went out of him. And the child was cured from that very time.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, "Why could we not drive it out?"

20 And Jesus said to them, "Because of your Elijah will come before the day of the Lord – a day which has not come even yet. Note at 1 Thess 5:2; 2 Pet 3:10.

17:12 Note at 11:14.

17:13 "John" – at 3:1-12; 11:2-15; 14:1-12.

17:15 "Lunatic" – or "moon-struck." It was a common idea in those days that the moon could cause some people to act in a crazy manner. Actually this boy's seizures were caused by a demon (v 18), but similar things, such as epileptic seizures, may occur also apart from demonic activity.

17:17 That "faithless and perverse" generation was one of the worst in Israel's long history – 12:39; 23:33-36; Acts 2:40. This verse gives an indication that all the time Jesus spent on earth He suffered from the unbelief and disobedience of people. It was pain that brought to His lips the words "how long." Do we continue to give Him pain for the same reason?

17:18 See 4:24; 8:29-34; 9:32,33.

17:19-21 Verse 17; 6:30; 8:26; 14:31. Jesus had given them authority to drive out demons (10:1). Now, perhaps, for the first time they had tried and failed. It seems the reason was this: they did not have the same faith in Christ and His words as they had on former occasions. Perhaps this time they depended on a mere formula, or even on themselves (after God has enabled us to do something it is possible for us to begin thinking that we can do it without Him). Not all demons are alike. It seems some are stronger and more determined than others, and casting such out requires a stronger faith than is usually the case. Prayer and fasting can be aids to faith.

This illustration of the mountain shows the great power of faith. Actually it is not literal mountains that need to be moved, unbelief. For truly I say to you, if you have faith as much as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there', and it will move, and nothing will be impossible to you. 21 However this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting."

22 And while they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of man will be betrayed into the hands of men, 23 and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised." And they were plunged into deep sadness.

24 And when they came to Capernaum, those who collected the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Doesn't your teacher pay the temple tax?"

25 He said, "Yes." And when he had come into the house, Jesus was the first to speak, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes? From their own children, or from foreigners?"

26 Peter said to him, "From foreigners." Jesus said to him, "Then the children are exempt. 27 But so we will not be a stumbling block to them, go to the lake, put in a hook, and take the first fish that but obstacles and difficulties which are like mountains. And these will all yield when faith is strong enough. See also Mark 11:24; Rom 4:19-21; Hebrews chapter 11.

"Unbelief" (v 20) – some ancient manuscripts have here "little faith". Their unbelief on this occasion did not indicate a complete lack of faith in the Lord Jesus in everything, but a small faith mixed with unbelief, with the unbelief predominating at this time and in this matter.

17:22,23 See 16:21. They did not understand His words, but realized that something terrible was going to happen. They did not know what His resurrection from the dead would mean (Mark 9:10,32; Luke 18:34). God's people sometimes grieve about something they could rejoice in if their understanding was better. See at Gen 50:20 an illustration of rejoicing instead of grieving.

17:24 Ex 30:13; 2 Chron 24:9. This tax was for the upkeep and ministry of the temple.

17:25 Collecting taxes from conquered peoples was the practice in the Roman Empire. Roman citizens did not have to pay.

17:26 Christ was the Son of God and greater than the temple (12:6). There was no obligation for Him (or for His followers) to pay the temple tax. The children of God are free, and their giving to religious institutions should be voluntary. See 2 Cor 9:7. They are not to be in bondage to the law of Moses or to man-made rules (Gal 5:1,13). Of course these verses have nothing to do with the obligation of Christians to pay taxes to their government. See Rom 13:5-7.

17:27 Here is another important principle for the children of God. They must not use their freedom in such a careless way that others are unnecessarily offended comes up. And when you have opened its mouth, you will find a piece of money. Take that and give it to them for me and you.”

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

2 And Jesus called a little child to him, and set him among them, 3 and said, “Truly I say to you, unless you are converted, and become as little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. 4 Therefore whoever humbles himself like this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me. 6 But whoever is a cause of stumbling to one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for him that a millstone were hanged around his neck and that (Rom 14:13,15,19-21). It would seem from this verse that neither Jesus nor Peter had the money on hand for this tax. The total for both was the equivalent of about four days wages for a laborer. The Lord Jesus voluntarily lived His life in poverty (8:20).

In this event see how God can control everything to meet His peoples’ needs. Someone had once dropped a coin into the lake (or, for all we know, God created one at this moment). God caused the fish to get the coin in its mouth and come to the very place where Peter would throw out his line (compare Jonah 1:17; 2:10).

To meet the needs of His people God can use many ways, including miraculous ones. See also 1 Kings 17:4,9. The whole world is at His disposal (Ps 24:1; 50:10,11). Let us trust Him and be free from anxiety (6:25-34).

18:1 This question revealed a big error in the thinking of the disciples – one still very common today. See 20:20,21; Mark 10:35-37. Compare Jer 45:5. It is exceedingly important that those who are tempted to desire great things for themselves learn the lesson Jesus taught here.

18:2 Here was a living object lesson – a child simple, trusting, humble. Little children do not seek to be great.

18:3 Mark it down as absolutely certain – those who are ruled by pride and those who seek for their own greatness will never enter God’s kingdom, let alone be great in it (unless they repent and humble themselves). Compare 5:3,4; 20:25-28; Isa 57:15; 66:2; Prov 3:34; Luke 9:23; 18:13,14. The first condition for entering God’s kingdom is the denial of self – see 16:24-26. All this is the exact opposite of the way men generally think by nature.

18:4 See also 20:25-27. We can rise in God’s eyes only by abasing ourselves and being willing to accept a low place, not by grand aims to promote ourselves and struggles for high positions. If we promote ourselves we may be able to achieve success in men’s he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 “Woe to the world because of stumbling blocks! For of necessity there will be stumbling blocks, but woe to that man through whom the stumbling block comes! 8 Therefore if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It is better for you to go into life lame or crippled, than having two hands or two feet to be thrown into everlasting fire. 9 And if your eye causes you to stumble, pull it out and throw it away from you. It is better for you to go into life with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 “Watch out that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. 11 For the Son of man has come to save that which was lost.

12 “What do you think? If a man has a hundred eyes, but not in God’s eyes. This does not mean we should humble ourselves with the purpose of attaining greatness. This would be no humbling of self at all.

18:5 Compare 10:40-42; 25:31-46.

18:6 “A cause of stumbling” – the Greek here means to put an obstacle in the way of someone to cause him to fall. The translation of the NIV here “causes. . .to sin” seems misleading, by being too general. To teach another to sin is, of course, a terrible thing (the Jews regarded it as the worst of all sins), but to deal with a child (or anyone) in such a way that he (or she) is stumbled about the way of Christ is a very terrible sin indeed (compare 23:13; Acts 13:8). And the punishment for those who do so will also be terrible – unless they repent and find forgiveness through Christ (12:31). The Greek work translated “millstone” means a very large millstone, the kind pulled round and round by a donkey. Greeks and Romans actually inflicted this kind of punishment on the worst criminals.

18:7 In this fallen world it is certain that temptations to sin will come to everyone. But this does not mean that men are not responsible when they tempt others. See what the real source of woe to the world is.

18:8,9 See notes at 5:29,30. Jesus repeated important truths to impress them on His hearers. There are two words here about the punishment of hell not found in 5:29,30 – “everlasting” and “fire” (see also 3:10,12; 5:22; 7:19; 13:40,42,50; 25:41). The purpose of dealing with oneself drastically is to “enter life” – this means to receive eternal life now and to live in God’s presence forever.

18:10 It is all too easy to scorn and look down on the humble and weak. But God appoints His angels for special work in relation to people on earth, and one of them is to watch over God’s little ones. See also Ps 34:7; 91:11; Heb 1:14.

18:11 See Luke 19:10.

18:12-14 A parable repeated in Luke 15:4-7 with certain changes in wording. See notes sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go into the mountains, and look for the one that has gone astray? 13 And if it so happens that he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine which did not go astray. 14 Just so, it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.

15 "Moreover, if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, alone, between you and him. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. 16 But if he will not listen, take with you one or two more, so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. 17 And if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses to listen to the church, let him be to you like a heathen and a tax collector.

18 "Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and there. We are not to vainly imagine we are better than those who leave the way and fall into sin and look down on them (v 10). There are two possible views about these sheep – they could represent unsaved men (compare Isa 53:6), or else believers in Christ who wander away (Ps 119:176).

Notice the following facts: the sheep here are all owned – they signify God's special property. That is, they are either saved people already, or those whom God has chosen to be saved (John 6:37; 10:16; 17:6; Eph 1:4). The wandering sheep will not be left to wander forever. Christ goes after them. Wandering "sheep" cause great activity in heaven. God's great heart cannot rest as long as there is a single one of His still wandering away. Those brought back are a cause of great joy to God. For other references to sheep and their shepherd see Ps 23; Isa 40:11; Jer 31:10; Ezek 34:11-16; John 10:1-29.

18:15 "Between you and him" means not to tell others until it is clear that reconciliation is impossible. Gossip is not the way to bring peace. The object is to win the brother back to fellowship, not to show everyone how bad he is.

18:16 Deut 19:15. This means keep trying to get him to accept the truth.

18:17 "Church" here means the local group of believers. "Heathen" means one who does not worship the one true God, and "tax collector" here signifies one working for the enemies of his people (5:46). This verse means that if a member of a local church will not repent of wrong doing, he should be put out of the fellowship. The idea is to bring him to repentance by losing that which should be of great value to him – the fellowship of God's people. Compare 1 Cor 5:1-5; 6:1-7; 2 Cor 2:6,7.

18:18 Here we see that all the disciples possessed the same authority to bind and loose as Peter was given in 16:19.

18:19 This promise is in the context of church whatever you loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven.

19 "Again, I tell you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I among them."

21 Then Peter came to him and said, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?"

22 Jesus said to him, "I do not tell you, 'up to seven times,' but up to seventy times seven.

23 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. 24 And when he began to settle them, someone was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. 25 But since he had no means to pay off the debt, his master commanded that he, his wife and children, and all discipline, and gives a word about the kind of prayer made by an assembly that God will answer. There must be oneness of mind, purpose, motive, and trust – a thing often difficult to achieve.

18:20 The subject is still the local church. A church does not need to be large to have Christ there. Observe that Jesus promises He will be in many places at one time. Throughout the world a great many local churches meet in His name at the same time, and Jesus is with them all. Compare 28:20. This can be true only of God who alone can be in all places at once. Jesus was conscious that He shares God's nature. See Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

18:21 Verse 15. Peter thought that seven times to forgive a brother was surely all that God could require.

18:22 This is the same as saying there is really no limit to the number of times God requires us to forgive others. The following parable gives a good reason for this: no matter how often God's children forgive others it is nothing compared to the number of times God has forgiven them.

18:23-35 Here is one of the great passages on forgiveness in the Bible. We can learn some very important lessons from it.

18:23 Note on kingdom of heaven at 4:17. God too keeps accounts concerning people and will settle those accounts. He does so because it is just and right to do so.

18:24 "Talent" – originally meant a balance, then a measure of weight, and finally a sum of money in gold or silver equal to that weight. Our sin against God is compared to an enormous debt (see 6:12). The debt for this one man was the equivalent of some millions of dollars or a few crores of rupees.

18:25 The amount the servant owed his master would be utterly impossible for him to pay, either in money or in services. In the same way, it is completely impossible for any of us to pay our debt to God. Shall we try to pay with good works? They are that he had, be sold and payment made.

26 "Therefore the servant fell down and worshipped him, saying, 'Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' 27 Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, and let him go, and forgave him the debt.

28 "But that same servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred silver coins. And he seized him and grabbed him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe.' 29 And his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' 30 And he was not willing, but went and threw him into prison until he paid the debt.

31 "So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sad, and came and told their master all that had been done. 32 Then his master, after calling him, said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you asked. 33 Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?' 34 And his master was angry and handed him over to the torturers until he paid all that was owed to him.

like filthy rags (Isa 64:6). What men regard as works of merit are worse than worthless in the eyes of the true God. A lifetime of good deeds would not blot out a single sin. Shall we give Him our money? One soul is worth more than the whole world (16:26). Silver and gold cannot purchase our forgiveness (Ps 49:7,8; 1 Pet 1:18).

We have absolutely nothing with which to pay our debt to God – nothing. The selling of people to pay debts was a way of the ancient world. See Lev 25:39; 2 Kings 4:1. But no selling of ourselves, or all who belong to us, could ever purchase forgiveness from God.

18:26 In his desperation he was promising an impossible thing. And men will give God many such promises when they want something from Him – promises which they can never keep.

18:27 There was only one way for such a debt to be erased. That was the way of free grace. In His compassion God completely forgives and cancels the repentant and believing sinner's debt toward Him. See Luke 24:46,47; Acts 13:38,39; Rom 3:23-26; Col 2:13; Titus 3:3-7.

18:28-30 A hundred silver coins (denarii) was the equivalent of a hundred days' wages for a laborer, a very small amount compared to the other debt in this parable. This contrast between the two debts is meant to teach us that our sin against God, our "debt", is far worse than anyone's sin against us. This servant showed himself to be hard and ruthless. Grace shown him had not changed his heart.

18:31 A Christian treating fellow Christians in such an unmerciful manner shocks and

35 "My heavenly Father will also deal with you in the same way, if each one of you, from your hearts, does not forgive his brother his trespasses."

19 And it happened that when Jesus had finished saying these words he left Galilee, and came into the region of Judea beyond Jordan. 2 And great crowds followed him, and he healed them there. 3 The Pharisees also came to him, testing him, and saying to him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for every cause?"

4 And he answered and said to them, "Have you not read that he who made them at the beginning made them male and female, 5 and said, For this cause a man will leave father and mother, and be united to his wife, and the two will be one flesh? 6 So they are no more two, but one flesh. Therefore let not man separate what God has joined together."

7 They said to him, "Then why did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce and send her away?"

8 He said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, permitted you to divorce your wives. But from the beginning it was not so.

pains God's people.

18:32 "Wicked" – 25:26; Jam 2:14; etc. 18:33-35 God requires His children to be forgiving as He is forgiving – 5:7; 6:14,15; Eph 4:32; etc. This is a rule of the kingdom of God. If it is not obeyed there will be severe penalties to suffer somewhere, sometime. Perhaps this is the principal lesson the Lord taught here (v 35). Observe that forgiveness must be "from your heart", and not merely saying words.

God will punish an unforgiving person. The "tormentors" may refer to the sufferings and troubles of this life that will come to God's children if, perchance, they do not forgive others. Or, if the wicked servant is regarded as an unsaved man, they may refer to the pains of hell in the hereafter. The parable cannot mean that a saved person may lose his salvation if he does not forgive others. Saved people learn to forgive others (6:14,15), and they will not be lost (John 6:39,40; 10:28; Rom 5:9; Phil 1:6). 19:2 See 4:23; 9:3.

19:3 "Pharisees" – note at 3:7. They often tried to trap Jesus – 22:15,18.

19:4 Gen 1:27.

19:5 Gen 2:24.

19:6 Eph 5:28-33.

19:7 Deut 24:1-4. The Pharisees were trying to show that Jesus disagreed with the law of Moses and so condemn Him. But they misinterpreted Moses. Moses did not "command" divorce.

19:8 Because their hearts were hard they did not want God's best, and they were permitted to behave in ways less than the best. Sometimes God gives men their desire when they insist on it, even though it

9 And I tell you, Whoever divorces his wife, except for the cause of sexual immorality, and marries another, is committing adultery. And whoever marries her who is divorced is committing adultery."

10 His disciples said to him, "If this is the case between a man and a wife, it is not good to marry."

11 But he said to them, "All men cannot receive this statement, only those to whom it has been given. 12 For there are some eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb, and there are some eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven. He who is able to receive this, let him receive it."

13 Then little children were brought to him, so that he would put his hands on them and pray. And the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, "Permit little children to come is not good for them (Ps 106:14,15).

19:9 See notes on divorce at 5:31,32.

19:10 Apparently they thought that the provision for easy divorce was the only thing that made marriage tolerable! Their low view of marriage needed correcting.

19:11 Those who are not Christ's disciples cannot be expected to behave in this matter as if they were. Christ's principles are the best and they are only for His people. Others will suffer the consequences of not being His disciples.

19:12 "Made themselves eunuchs" – surely very few have literally done this, but if it is taken in the sense of abstaining from marriage, then no small number have done so.

"For the kingdom of heaven" does not mean abstaining from marriage in order to gain the kingdom, but to serve without hindrance in the kingdom (1 Cor 7:7,8,26,32-35). But this abstinence from marriage must be voluntary – not forced on anyone by any authority. Compare 1 Tim 4:1-3.

19:13 In spite of 18:2-6 the disciples may not yet have realized how much He loved children and wanted to bless them.

19:14,15 See 18:2-4. Jesus always had time for the weak and lowly. Children are welcome to come into His presence at any time and He delights to have them there. He laid hands on them and blessed them, but He did not baptize them. This passage does not teach infant baptism. Indeed, it has nothing whatever to do with baptism.

19:16-29 Compare Mark 10:17-31; Luke 18:18-30. Matthew says this man was young (v 22); Luke says he was a ruler (Luke 18:18); all three Gospels say he was very rich. He had everything that many people desire – youth, position, authority, and wealth. But he was dissatisfied. Compare Eccl 2:1-11,17.

19:16 This man had mistaken views about the way of salvation. He thought one could earn it by doing good deeds, or perhaps by to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

15 And he laid his hands on them, and went away from there.

16 And, suddenly, someone came and said to him, "Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do, so that I may get eternal life?"

17 And he said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but one, that is God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

18 He said to him, "Which?" Jesus said, "You shall not murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not give false witness, 19 Honour your father and mother, and, You shall love your neighbour as yourself."

20 The young man said to him, "All these I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack?"

21 Jesus said to him, "If you want to be one exceptionally good deed. Note on eternal life at John 3:16.

19:17 Jesus was not denying His own goodness. He was saying that if the man regarded Him as a mere human teacher he should not call Him good. All men are sinners (Rom 3:23), and Jesus called even His own disciples "evil" (7:11). This youth's understanding needed to be enlightened to realize that God alone is good, and that Jesus is good only because He is God incarnate and not a mere man (John 1:1,14,18). In other words, if Jesus is truly good He is God, and the youth needed to see this.

Then Jesus pointed him to God's commandments as a way to life. See Lev 18:5. Notes at Lev 18:5; Gal 3:12. Jesus is not teaching salvation by works. This would contradict His own and the Bible's plain teaching in other places (John 3:16; 5:24; 6:47; 14:6; Gal 3:10-12; Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:3-7). He knew that neither this youth nor any man ever fully kept God's commandments. He has already said that none is good, and if men are not good they will be unable to keep God's good commandments. The young man much needed to understand this. One purpose of the law was to teach men their sinfulness (notes at Ex 19:21-25; Rom 3:20; 7:7; Gal 3:24). Jesus now shows this man that he had not really kept God's commandments, even though he said he had (v 20).

19:18,19 Ex 20:13-16; Lev 19:18. This last commandment should have opened the man's eyes to his sin, but it did not.

19:20 He had no doubt lived a moral life and kept the outward forms of the ten commandments. He is an example of an ethical man not corrupted by the more gross sins. But he had not loved his neighbor as himself.

19:21 The man said he had always loved his neighbor as himself. Yet he had kept his great wealth for his own use. Jesus is saying, "If you have love for your neighbor perfect, go, sell what you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me."

22 But when the young man heard this word, he went away sad, for he had great possessions.

23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I say to you, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. 24 And I tell you again, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, "Who then can be saved?"

26 But Jesus looked at them and said to them, you must prove it by your actions. Words are not enough." Does Jesus here demand that we all sell all we have and give it away? The answer is "yes", if a love of money and possessions is the sin that keeps us from following Him. And He demands that all disciples renounce all things in their hearts and give their hearts to Him (Luke 14:33).

There is another commandment which men should fulfill (22:37; Deut 6:5). This man failed to keep that one too. If he had loved God as he should have, he would gladly have given away everything for His sake. But the truth is, he did not truly love either God or his neighbor. He loved himself and his possessions.

"Poor" - see the concern of Jesus for the poor. Compare 11:5; Luke 4:18; 6:20; 11:41; 14:13. Note on "treasure in heaven" at 6:20,21.

19:22 He was sad because he had failed the test and knew that he had failed. He wanted both eternal life and all he could selfishly enjoy in this life too, and found that Jesus would not accept this principle. Jesus will not permit selfishness to be the reigning principle in the lives of His disciples. They cannot serve both God and money (6:24). And we will all be tested on this point. In fact, we are continually being tested about what we will do with the money and possessions God has given us, whether they be much or little.

We should understand the answer of Jesus to this man who came to him asking for eternal life. Why did he not say to him "Believe in me and you will have eternal life?" (John 3:16; etc). In a way He was saying just that. He was showing that true faith in Him is a powerful force that breaks people free from the things of this world and causes them to value Jesus far above everything else and to receive Him as the Lord of their lives. See note at Acts 22:10. And He was showing that men need to repent of their lack of love for God and man and their clinging to other things. See notes at Matt 3:2; 4:17. If we are not willing to give all we have for Christ and eternal life, we show that we value what we have more than Him and that. And why should God give us something we value less than the pathetic

"With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

27 Then answered Peter and said to him, "Look, we have given up everything and followed you. Therefore what will we have?"

28 And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, you who have followed me, in the renewal when the Son of man sits on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And everyone who has given up houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit everlasting life. 30 But many who are first will be and passing riches of this world?

19:23,24 The difficulty lies in man's sinful nature which selfishly clings to wealth and possessions and puts them above God.

19:25 They knew that the desire for riches and possessions was almost universal. And they doubtless knew that in the Old Testament wealth was often a sign of God's blessing (compare Gen 24:35; Job 42:10).

19:26 Here is a general principle which covers not just the case of the rich, but all men. Salvation is not merely difficult to men, it is utterly impossible to achieve by anything they can do (John 3:3-8; 6:44; Acts 13:38,39; Rom 5:6; 8:3; Jer 13:23). But God can do what men cannot do. And He saves men by grace alone (Rom 6:23; Eph 2:8,9).

19:27 See 4:18-22. The question seems to mean "If worldly wealth is ruled out what remains as a reward?" Could he not imagine anything better than riches? The question does not show a spiritual mind, and Jesus in the parable of 20:1-16 rebukes it.

19:28 "Renewal" - see Acts 3:21; Rom 8:19-22; Isaiah chapter 11.

"Throne" - 25:31; Luke 1:32,33; Dan 7:14; Isa 9:6,7; Ps 2:6-9. Twelve thrones speak of their authority with Him - Luke 22:28-30; Rev 3:21; 20:4. Does not the word "Israel" in this verse mean the literal nation of Israel? Compare Acts 1:6,7; Rom 11:25-29; Rev 7:4.

19:29 Heartily following Christ is to move in a new spiritual realm. To disciples many people become like mothers and fathers, sisters and brothers and children. Many homes and fields are opened to them. Disciples enter into privileges and spiritual relationships a hundred times more blessed, more meaningful than they could ever have apart from Christ (compare 12:48,49; John 17:20-23; 1 Cor 3:21-23; 12:12-27). And their inheritance will be an even higher kind of life - eternal life (v 16).

19:30 20:16; Mark 10:31; Luke 13:30. Many who hold high positions and are highly regarded in this world (and even in Christian circles) will find in the next world that they are at the very bottom, and those scorned and put down will be exalted to the highest place. This is a word of comfort to the lowly last, and the last will be first.

20 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a silver coin for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about nine in the morning, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, 4 and said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will give you whatever is right.' And they went.

5 'He went out again about noon and about three in the afternoon, and did the same. 6 And about five in the afternoon he went out and found others standing idle, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day long?' 7 They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and you will get what is right.'

8 "So when evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the labourers and give them their wages, beginning with the last and those who lightly regard themselves, and a warning to lovers of power and position.

20:1,2 Note on the kingdom of heaven at 4:17. This teaching is connected with the thoughts in the preceding chapter. See 19:27 – where Peter appears almost as a laborer trying to bargain for wages. In 19:30 Jesus teaches that a wrong attitude can cause the first to be last. In this parable He shows what should be the attitude of disciples ward God in the matter of service and rewards. The landowner signifies God. The vineyard signifies His work in the world. God is always looking for workers for His vineyard. Compare 9:36-38; 21:28. The word "agreed" suggests bargaining on their part.

"Silver coin" – in Greek "denarius" – this was the usual daily wage paid to laborers in those days.

20:3 The third hour was 9 AM. It is a sad fact that even though there is much work in God's kingdom to do, many are doing nothing.

20:4 There was no bargaining; they made no demands. They trusted the landowner and went to work. This is the attitude all Christ's disciples should have.

20:6 The eleventh hour was 5 PM. There was only an hour before the day's work would be over.

20:7 They were willing to work but had lacked opportunity. There are some laborers for God whom He calls late in their lives and who are able to work only a brief time.

20:8 God will reward those who labor for Him – 5:12; 10:41,42; 16:27; 1 Cor 3:8,14; 2 John 8; Rev 11:18; 22:12.

20:9 They worked only an hour but received a full day's wage. This revealed the kindness of the landowner. They had not earned a full day's wage but just as those who worked all day, they needed one. Such group up to the first.'

9 "And when those who were hired about five o'clock came, each of them received a silver coin. 10 But when the first group came, they supposed that they would receive more, but each of them too received a silver coin. 11 And when they received it, they complained against the landowner, 12 saying, 'This last group worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and heat of the day.'

13 "But he answered one of them and said, 'Friend, I am not doing you any wrong. Didn't you agree with me for a silver coin? 14 Take yours and go your way. I choose to give to this last group the same as I gave you. 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I choose with what I have? Is your eye evil, because I am good?'

16 "So the last will be first, and the first last, for many are called, but few chosen."

17 And going up to Jerusalem Jesus took the twelve disciples aside on the way and said to them, 18 "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the is God's grace. He will give a full reward for faithful work done for even a little while.

20:10 On the basis of justice they had no right to expect more. They had agreed to one denarius (v 2). This parable does not teach that God always gives the same reward to all of His servants. That would be contrary to His teaching in places like 1 Cor 3:10-15. But when it pleases Him He may give equal rewards for service well done, whether it be for a long time or a brief time. But for a full reward work must be done in the right way and from a right motive.

20:11,12 They showed the bad spirit that Jesus is teaching His disciples not to have. They grumbled against an act of kindness and goodness. The landlord was guilty of no injustice.

20:13,14 The Lord will not be happy with complaining disciples who are envious of His goodness to others.

20:15 This is a principal point of the parable. What God has is God's, and He may do with it as He pleases. He is perfectly free to show grace and kindness to whom He will. Those who trust Him, and are willing to labor for Him according to the word "I will give you whatever is right" (v 4), will find that God's heart is full of grace and goodness. They who have a bargaining spirit with God, or a grasping spirit, or a selfish, envious spirit, will find that they cannot change God's mind.

"Is your eye evil" – probably means "are you envious?"

20:16 Those who entered the vineyard last became, first in the landowner's favor and esteem, and vice versa. Let us never forget that no matter how we work for God we are still "unprofitable servants" (Luke 17:10), and really deserve nothing.

20:17-19 Verse 28; 16:21; 17:23; Mark 10:32-34; Luke 18:31-33. Once again Jesus speaks of the chief reason He came to earth.

Son of man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes. And they will condemn him to death, 19 and hand him over to the Gentiles to mock and to beat with a whip and to crucify. And the third day he will rise again."

20 Then the mother of Zebedee's children came with her sons to him, worshipping him, and asking him for something. 21 And he said to her, "What do you want?"

She said to him, "Grant that these, my two sons, may sit in your kingdom, the one at your right hand, and the other at the left."

22 But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am going to drink, and be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We are able."

23 And he said to them, "Indeed you will drink my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with. But to sit at my right hand and at my left, is not mine to give, but it will be given to those for whom it is prepared by my Father."

24 And when the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers. 25 But Jesus called them and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them. 26 But it shall not be so among you. But whoever wants to be great among you, must be your servant, 27 and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave, 28 just as the Son of man came to serve, not to be served, and to give his life a ransom for many."

29 And as they were leaving Jericho, a great crowd followed him. 30 And, suddenly, two blind men sitting by the way side, hearing that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, son of David."

31 And the crowd rebuked them so that they would keep quiet, but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, son of David."

32 And Jesus stood still and called them and said, "What do you want me to do for you?"

33 They said to him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened."

34 So Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes, and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

21 And when they drew near Jerusalem, and arrived at Bethphage, at the mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied up and a colt with it.

20:19 For the first time He foretells that it would be the Gentiles who would actually put Him to death and that the method would be crucifixion. On crucifixion see 27:22.

20:20,21 Zebedee's sons - James and John - joined their mother in this request. See Mark 10:35-37. None of them had yet learned the lesson Jesus taught in 18:4; 20:16; etc. Nor, it seems, had they realized that Jesus was not then going to establish a visible kingdom on earth.

20:22 See 26:39,42. Drinking His cup means to share in His rejection and sufferings. They said they could drink His cup, but little did they then realize what they were saying.

20:23 Later they drank from His cup. James was imprisoned and put to death by Herod (Acts 12:1,2). Still later John was punished by banishment to Patmos (Rev 1:9). Indeed all the apostles suffered for their witness for Christ (Acts 5:18,40,41; etc). God's way is suffering then glory (Rom 8:17; etc).

20:24 Did not they themselves want the chief places in the kingdom? Compare Rom 2:1.

20:25-27 Verse 16; 18:4. Some lessons need to be taught again and again, even to the best of men. It is not those who selfishly strive for greatness whom God counts great, but the humble, the lowly servant of all. See Jer 45:5. There are two kinds of mentality. The "master" outlook and the "service" outlook. We must reject the one and cultivate the other, and write on our hearts this lesson Jesus taught. The disciples at that time were all for self-promotion. Jesus was for self-sacrifice. We know who was greatest.

20:28 "Came to serve" - for other reasons why Jesus came to earth see note at 5:17. The Son of man (Jesus) was a willing, glad servant to God and to men - Isa 42:1; Luke 12:37; 22:27; John 13:13-16; Rom 15:8; 2 Cor 8:9; Phil 2:7.

"Ransom" - the noun means that which is given to buy back from bondage. The verb means to pay a price to deliver something or someone. It is similar in meaning to the word "redeem." Compare Ex 21:30; Lev 25:50; Prov 13:8; Job 33:24; Hos 13:14. Men are in bondage to sin and Satan (John 8:34,44; Acts 26:18; Rom 6:16-18; Eph 2:1-3). The price to buy them back was the life of the Son of God. This is the great work He came to do (Rom 3:23-25; 1 Cor 6:20; Gal 3:13; Eph 1:7; 1 Pet 1:19). What do the words a ransom "for many" mean? He died for all (1 Tim 2:6), but only those who believe and receive Him are actually delivered from bondage.

20:29 "Jericho" - a town in the Jordan valley just north of the Dead Sea.

20:30 Note on Son of David at 1:1.

20:32 Cries for mercy from the poor and helpless always reach the ears of the Lord Jesus (8:3; Ps 34:6; Rom 10:12,13). This verse indicates His desire to serve and to help those who call to Him.

20:34 See 9:36; 14:14.

21:1 The mount of Olives is to the east of Jerusalem. From its top one can look down on the city.

21:2,3 Here is an example of Christ's knowledge of what was going on in another

Untie them, and bring them to me. 3 And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord needs them,' and he will send them at once."

4 All this was done so that there might be a fulfillment of what was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell the daughter of Zion,
Look! Your King is coming to you, meek, and sitting on a donkey and a colt the foal of a donkey.

6 And the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them, 7 and brought the donkey and the colt, and put their cloaks on them, and had him sit on them. 8 And a very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road. Others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9 And the crowds that went ahead and that followed, cried out, saying, "Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"

10 And when he came into Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and saying, "Who is this?"

11 And the crowd said, "This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee."

place (see also John 1:47-50).

21:4,5 Zech 9:9. The King rides into His royal city. This was an entrance suitable to the meek and lowly one (11:29), but not what men in general would count suitable. "Daughter of Zion" means Jerusalem. Note on "daughter" at Isa 1:8; 23:12.

21:6,7 Christians have the privilege of serving a king who knows all that is going on and who gives them the clearest instructions. All they need to do is obey.

21:8 Compare 2 Kings 9:13.

21:9 Hosanna comes from Hebrew and was a prayer meaning "save." But it became a way of expressing praise, indicating that the one who could save was present. Note on Son of David at 1:1. Some were willing to accept Jesus as Messiah, God's appointed king (Ps 118:25,26).

21:10,11 Jesus had spent very little time in Jerusalem and had little public ministry there. The leaders knew Him but many of the people did not.

21:12 Mark 11:11,15-18; Luke 19:45-47; John 2:12-16. Jesus was gentle and humble in heart (11:29), but bold as a lion when God's honor was involved and mighty in strength to fight evil (Rev 5:5). Mark's Gospel makes it clear that this event occurred the day after Jesus entered Jerusalem.

21:13 "Thieves" - Isa 56:7; Jer 7:11. Evidently in the very compound devoted to the worship of the one true and holy God, they were cheating the people who came to worship. Their greed and crookedness aroused the anger of God's holy Son. What makes a person angry is an indication of his character. Compare v 15. They were not the last of those who try to enrich themselves

12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and drove out all those who sold and bought in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those who sold doves, 13 and said to them, "It is written, My house will be called a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves."

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. 15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying out in the temple, and saying, "Hosanna to the son of David!" they were very displeased, 16 and said to him, "Do you hear what they are saying?"

And Jesus said to them, "Yes. Have you never read, Out of the mouth of little children and nursing infants you have provided praise?"

17 And he left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there. 18 Now in the morning as he returned to the city, he was hungry. 19 And when he saw a fig tree along the way, he went to it, and found nothing on it except leaves, and said to it, "May no more fruit grow on you forever." And immediately the fig tree withered away.

under the cloak of religion (compare John 12:4-6; 1 Tim 6:5; Jude 11). And Christ is as angry about this now as He was then.

21:15 Note on priests at Ex 28:1. They were not indignant because of the evil going on in the temple compound, but when great good was done there, and great glory to God resulted from it, they were angry. Such is man's fallen nature. Of course the thing that provoked them was others calling Jesus the Son of David - the Messiah of Israel. They did not want to accept this or hear it.

21:16 "Have you never read?" - 12:3,5; 19:4; 21:42; 22:31. They claimed to be experts in interpreting the Old Testament, but were ignorant of many important matters. Such people are still with us. Jesus here quoted Ps 8:2.

21:17 Bethany was a small town over the crest of the Mount of Olives to the east, about 3 kilometers from Jerusalem.

21:18 See 4:2. Jesus had both a human nature and divine nature.

21:19 It was the nature of fig trees that fruit appeared with full leaf, and sometimes before full leaf. If it had leaves it should have had fruit, even though it was early in the year for fig trees to have either leaves or fruit (Mark 11:13). The time was April, the full leaf and fruit bearing season was June. This tree was deceiving. It promised what it did not have. In some ways it was a picture of the nation of Israel or of the city of Jerusalem. Compare Luke 13:6-9. It is also a picture of any person, any church which professes much but produces little or nothing. What is the use of great foliage if there is no fruit?

Sometimes in the Bible trees symbolize

20 And when the disciples saw this, they were amazed and said, "How quickly the fig tree withered away!"

21 Jesus answered and said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith, and do not doubt, you will do not only what was done to the fig tree, but also if you say to this mountain, 'Be moved, and thrown into the sea', it will be done. 22 And everything that you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

23 And when he came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him while he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things? And who gave you this authority?"

24 And Jesus answered and said to them, "I will also ask you one thing. If you tell me this, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?"

And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven', he will say to us, 'Then why did you not believe him?' 26 But if we say, 'From men', we are afraid of the people, for everyone holds John to be a prophet." 27 And they answered Jesus and said, "We cannot tell."

And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. 28 But what do you think? A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.' 29 He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterwards he repented and went. 30 And he came to the second son and said the same thing.

nations or individuals (3:10; 7:16-20; Ps 1:3; 37:35; 52:8; 92:12; Jer 11:16,17; Ezek 17:22-24). It is not stated here in Matthew that this fig tree represents Israel, but it may be so. Israel certainly had plenty of "leaves" but little or no "fruit." Compare v 43; Isa 5:1-4.

21:21,22 Observe that the lesson Jesus taught His disciples from this incident of the fig tree was not a lesson about judgment on Israel, but of the power of faith. Prayer without faith may lack power, but believing prayer will accomplish wonders – 17:20; Mark 11:23,24; Luke 17:6; Jam 1:6; 5:16.

21:23 They meant that Jesus' activities were not authorized by the religious leaders of the nation and that therefore He had no right to do as He was doing.

21:24-27 Jesus knew these men were cowardly and dishonest. They did not want the truth, but were determined to oppose and defeat Him. So He put them on the horns of a dilemma. And He had nothing more to say to them when they revealed their character by their answer.

21:28-32 This little parable was spoken to the Jewish religious leaders and its meaning is clear. It also is a help in understanding the incident of the fig tree in vs 18,19. The

And he answered and said, 'I will go, sir,' but he did not go. 31 Which of these two did the will of his father?"

They said to him, "The first."

Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came to you with the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes believed him. And when you saw this, you did not repent afterwards, so that you might believe him.

33 "Hear another parable: There was a certain landowner who planted a vineyard, and put a hedge around it, dug a place for a winepress in it, built a tower, rented it out to vine growers, and went to a far country. 34 And when fruit season drew near, he sent his servants to the vine growers to get his share of the fruit. 35 And the vine growers took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another.

36 "Again, he sent other servants, more than the first time. And they did the same thing to them.

37 "But last of all he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

38 "But when the vine growers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and take over his inheritance.' 39 And they caught him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

40 "Therefore when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine growers?"

first son signifies the "tax collectors and prostitutes" of v 32. They made no pretense of being God's servants, but openly disobeyed Him and did as they pleased, but later they repented and did God's will. The second son signifies the religious leaders. They made great claims of obedience to God, but actually were not obedient, and did not repent of their inner disobedience and hypocrisy.

21:33-40 This parable was also addressed to the Jewish religious leaders, and is very clear in meaning. Jesus was speaking of God's kingdom (v 43). The landowner (v 33) signifies God. The vineyard is the nation of Israel. See Ps 80:8-11; Isa 5:1-4; Jer 12:10. "Hedge" suggests separation from other nations (see Ex 19:4-6; Lev 20:24; 1 Kings 8:53). "Tower" (or "watchtower") suggests the earnest desire to protect the nation against enemies. "Winepress" signifies the intention to have a crop. "Vine growers" means the leaders of the nation.

"Went to a far country" – after planting Israel in Canaan by miraculous activity God seemed to withdraw to some extent behind the scenes. Those sent to enquire about fruit (v 34) were the prophets (Jer 7:25; 25:4; 26:5). In vs 35,36 we have a brief

41 They said to him, "He will bring those evil men to a bad end, and will rent out his vineyard to other vine growers who will give him the fruit in its season."

42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? 43 Therefore I tell you, The kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation producing its fruit. 44 And whoever falls on this stone will be broken, but the one on whom it falls, it will grind him to powder."

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees heard his parables, they saw that he spoke about them. 46 But when they looked for a way to seize him, they were afraid of the crowd, because they took him for a prophet.

22 And answering Jesus again spoke to them in parables, and said, 2 "The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a history of the way Israel treated the prophets God sent to them. See also 5:12; 23:30-37; Acts 7:52; Heb 11:36-38. The "son" of v 37 signifies the Lord Jesus. Verses 38,39 give a prediction of what the Jewish leaders would do to the Lord Jesus. Jesus wanted these leaders to apply the parable (v 40), to condemn themselves by their own words.

21:41 Little did they know they were foretelling their own punishment.

21:42-44 The Lord Jesus here brings out the spiritual application of the parable. He is the rejected "stone" of Ps 118:22,23. God would remove His vineyard (the kingdom of God) from the control of the Jewish nation which rejected His son (John 1:11), and give it to others. These were peoples of other nations who would receive Christ. They soon became the vast majority of all those in the churches (which is, of course, true to this day). Verse 44 reveals the doom of those who will not receive the Lord Jesus as Messiah and Lord and Saviour. Compare Acts 4:11; Rom 9:32,33; 1 Pet 2:6-8. "Scriptures" (v 42) - the Old Testament (John 2:22; 10:35; 2 Tim 3:16).

21:46 They did not look for a way to repent and be saved from the threatened punishment revealed in this parable. They looked only for a way to silence the one who revealed their sin and unbelief. Learn from this what the fallen heart of man is like, and beware of falling into the same error.

22:1 "Them" - 21:23,45.

22:2 Note on kingdom of heaven at 4:17. Compare the following parable with Luke 14:15-24. This parable also is very clear in its teachings. The "king" is God the Father. The "son" is the Lord Jesus. The "wedding" suggests the great truth that the true Church is the bride of Christ (9:15; John 3:27-29; Rom 7:4; 2 Cor 11:2; Eph 5:25-32).

marriage for his son. 3 And he sent out his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding, but they would not come.

4 "Again, he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited: Now I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened animals have been killed, and everything is ready. Come to the marriage.'

5 "But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his business. 6 And the rest took his servants, mistreated them and killed them."

7 "But when the king heard of it, he was angry, and he sent out his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. 8 Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. 9 Therefore go into the highways, and invite everyone you find to the marriage.'

10 "So those servants went out into the highways and gathered together everyone they found, both bad and good. And the wedding hall

22:3 The "invited" signify the Jewish nation. They were God's chosen people and received the first invitation (10:5,6; 15:24). They refused to accept God's message (23:37-39; John 1:11; 5:40). In Old Testament times God continually sent His servants (Jer 7:25; 25:4; 26:5). In New Testament times He did likewise - 23:34; Luke 24:47; Acts 1:8.

See the message God's servants have to deliver - everything was "prepared" and "ready." God's kingdom, the salvation He wants men to receive and enjoy, is altogether the work of God. It is prepared and ready in Christ. Men need not prepare anything but should come just as they are - 11:28; Isa 55:1-3; John 6:37; Rev 22:17. 22:5 This was the reaction of many in Israel in those days (it is the same all over the world today). God invited them to an eternal feast of good things in Christ. They ignored God's invitation and occupied themselves with the things of this world.

22:6 Others in Israel (as in many places in the world today) were more violent in their reaction - see 21:35,36; Acts 4:3; 5:18,40; 7:58; 8:3; 12:1-3; 14:5,19; 17:5; 21:30; 23:2. This showed a hatred for the King, His Son, and His servants (John 15:18-24).

22:7 God's anger will surely come on all those who mistreat and persecute His servants and reject His invitations (compare 2 Thess 1:6-8). It came on Israel, and these words were fulfilled in 70 AD. Compare Luke 19:41-44; 21:20-24. The army was the Roman army, but it was God's army too because He used it for His purposes. Compare Isa 10:5,6; etc.

22:8,9 God will not have an empty house. If some refuse His invitation He will find others who will come. Here the Gentile nations are meant (8:10-12; etc).

22:10 "Both bad and good" means people of good reputation and bad, those morally was filled with guests. 11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who was not wearing a wedding garment. 12 And he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?' And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the servants, 'Tie him up hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

14 "For many are called, but few are chosen."

15 Then the Pharisees went away and plotted how they could trap him in his talk. 16 And they sent to him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are true and teach the way of God in truth. And you do not show favoritism to anyone, for you do not regard a man's appearance. 17 So tell us what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites?

good and bad, keepers of the law and breakers of the law. Of course, in God's eyes none are good (19:17). All are sinners (7:11; Rom 3:23), but some are worse sinners than others. However, all are invited to come to Christ and receive salvation.

22:11 The people who were there had come in directly from the streets. In the banquet hall they could not have had special wedding clothes on unless they had been provided by the king himself (compare 2 Kings 10:22). Therefore it seems clear that the man without wedding clothes had refused to accept the ones that the king had there for this purpose. These wedding clothes speak of the righteousness of Christ which God freely gives to all who receive Him as Lord and Saviour (compare Isa 61:10; Zech 3:1-5; Rom 1:17; 3:21-24; 10:10; 2 Cor 5:21; Phil 3:7-9).

22:12 This man is a picture of those who seem to accept God's invitation, but refuse His provision for righteousness. They ignorantly suppose their own righteousness is sufficient. There are many like this in the churches. When the king examined him he could not say a single word in his defense. He should have had on the proper garment and knew it. When such people stand before God they will be condemned, guilty and speechless.

22:13 To refuse or neglect God's provision is a serious matter indeed, and will have terrible penalties. Compare Heb 2:3. On "gnashing of teeth" see 8:12; 13:42,50; 24:51; 25:30. What contrast here between this and the delights and rejoicing of the wedding feast.

22:14 The Gospel invitation goes out to a great many, but only a comparatively few show themselves to be actually the chosen of God, the elect (Mark 13:20; John 6:37; 15:19; 17:6; Eph 1:4; 2 Thess 2:13).

22:15-46 These verses record a series of questions. The first three were asked by 19 Show me the tax money." And they brought a silver coin to him. 20 And he said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?"

21 They said to him, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Therefore give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."

22 When they heard these words, they were amazed and left him and went away.

23 The same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him, 24 saying, "Teacher, Moses said, If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and have offspring for his brother. 25 Now there were seven brothers with us. And the first, after marrying a wife, died, and having no children, he left his wife to his brother. 26 Likewise the second also, and the third, up to the seventh. 27 And last of all the woman also died. 28 Therefore in the resurrection, of these seven whose wife will she be? For they all had her."

Jesus' enemies to try to trap Him. The last question was asked by Jesus and silenced His enemies. The questions asked by His enemies reveal the character and interests of the three kinds of people who asked them.

22:15 See Luke 20:20.

22:16 Herodians were a worldly, politically-minded group who supported the rights of the family of Herod to rule Israel. The Pharisees were usually opposed to them, but now sought their help to trap Jesus if possible (compare Luke 23:12). The words of the Herodians here reek with hypocrisy and flattery.

22:17 The Romans with Caesar as their emperor ruled Israel and demanded taxes from them. If Jesus said they should not pay taxes He could be charged with treason. If He said they should pay taxes He would be charged with being on the side of Rome against the people of Israel.

22:18 Jesus knew what was in men - 9:4; 12:25; Luke 6:8; 9:47; 11:17; John 2:24,25; 6:61,64; 13:11.

22:19 "Silver coin" - in Greek "denarius", a Roman coin. On one side was the emperor's portrait, on the other was his name.

22:21 If Caesar was ruling and minting the money in use, it was right to pay taxes to him for government administration. Compare Rom 13:1,6,7. People have duties to the state. But they should give to God their hearts, their worship, their offerings, their lives. The state has some claims on its citizens, God has far more. Both must be acknowledged.

22:22 The very wise answer of Jesus amazed His enemies. But since they did not want the truth they went away to plot further things against Him.

22:23 Note on Sadducees at 3:7. With their question they naively hoped to show that the doctrine of the resurrection was absurd, and that Jesus was foolish to believe it. Notes on resurrection at John 5:28,29.

22:24 See Deut 25:5,6.

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "You blunder, not knowing the Scriptures, or the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they do not marry, and are not given in marriage, but are like the angels of God in heaven. 31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

33 And when the crowd heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.

34 But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. 35 Then one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him, saying, 36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?"

37 Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbour as yourself. 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, "What do you think of Christ? Whose son is he?"

They said to him, "The son of David."

43 He said to them, "How then does David by the Spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool? 45 If David called him Lord, how then is he his son?"

46 And no one was able to answer him a word. And from that day on no one dared to ask him any more questions.

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowd and to his disciples, 2 saying, "The scribes and the 22:29 The two errors of the Sadducees are still very common, even among Christian leaders and ministers – ignorance of the teachings of the Bible and of the power of God. Anyone ignorant of these two things will certainly fall into serious error in their thinking, even though they may be highly intelligent and well educated in other matters.

22:30 Here Jesus affirms the truth of the resurrection. See also Luke 14:14; John 5:29; 11:25. But He says there will be a new order of things, a new kind of life for those who are raised from the dead. For them marriage will have no part. In this one matter they will be like the angels in heaven. This does not at all mean that in all other respects they become angels or like angels.

22:31,32 "God of Jacob" – Ex 3:6. Jesus could have used other Old Testament references which speak of the resurrection (Job 19:25,26; Ps 16:10,11; Dan 12:2; etc). But He quotes from the books of Moses because the Sadducees regarded them as having the greatest authority of any in the Bible. And He shows they had not even understood that portion of Scripture. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob had all passed away. A person who is dead – body, soul, and spirit – can have no God, and God cannot be their God.

Jesus means that their spirits still live and await the resurrection, and that resurrection is needed if men are to be called fully living. And a person whose spirit has been separated from his body in death is not the full person God created and intended. This implies that God will unite an individual's spirit and body in the resurrection, and continue to be the God of the full person. God is not the God of decayed corpses.

22:33 Verse 22; 7:28; etc.

22:35 "Lawyer" – an expert in the law of Moses.

22:36 This was a question sometimes debated by Jewish scholars of that day, and they were divided into various camps. This lawyer (expert in the law of Moses) wanted to test Jesus' grasp of the law to see if He would commit Himself to one of these camps. 22:37-40 Jesus passed the test. He went right to the very heart of the law and showed that the basis of all the commands God gave was love. Verse 37 is from Deut 6:5 and verse 39 is Lev 19:18. See also Rom 13:8-10.

22:41-45 His opponents had asked Him questions. Now He would ask them some. The prevailing idea about the Messiah was that he would be a mere man who would ascend the throne of David and reign powerfully and gloriously over Israel. These questions of Jesus show that this idea was wrong. The Messiah was not to be a mere human descendant of David, but the Lord of David (the Hebrew word for Lord "Adonai" was often used in the Old Testament for God Himself). Here it means Jesus. See also Luke 1:43; 2:11; Acts 2:36; Phil 2:10,11; 1 Cor 8:6; Eph 4:5.

22:42 "Christ" means the Messiah promised in the OT. See notes on Son of David at Matt 1:1.

22:43 Notice the words "by the Spirit." Jesus here confirms the divine inspiration of psalm 110, as He did the whole Old Testament at other times (4:4; 5:18; 15:3,4; John 10:35).

22:44 See note at Ps 110:1. The Jews recognized that this psalm was about the Messiah.

22:45 They well knew that fathers do not call their sons "Lord." But they could not explain why David did so.

22:46 It was becoming obvious to everyone that He could answer all their questions, but they could answer none of His. They had tried to trap Him but were trapped themselves (compare Ps 57:6).

23:1 The following denunciation of the religious leaders of that day was spoken somewhere openly in the temple compound. See 24:1.

23:2 "Pharisees" – 3:7. "Sit in Moses seat" means they were regarded as the successors

Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. 3 Therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe it and do it, but do not do according to their works, for they say, but do not do. 4 For they tie up heavy burdens, hard to carry, and lay them on men's shoulders. but they are not willing to lift one of their fingers to move them.

5 "But they do all their deeds to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad, and enlarge the borders of their cloaks, and love the places of honour at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 and greetings in the market-places, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.'

8 "But you must not be called Rabbi, for one is your Teacher, the Christ, and you are all brothers. 9 And do not call any man on the earth your 'father,' for one is your Father, who is in heaven. 10 And do not be called teachers, for one is your Teacher, the Christ.

11 "But he that is greatest among you shall be of Moses as teachers of God's law.

23:3 Insofar as they truly taught the law of God given through Moses the people of Israel were obligated to obey them, even though they did not themselves obey the law. Compare 2:17-24. Practicing what one preaches must be the constant aim of every Christian leader (1 Tim 4:12; 1 Pet 5:3).

23:4 For sinful men (and all men are sinful) the law of Moses was a burden hard to be carried. See Acts 15:10; Gal 5:1. Israel's religious leaders made it even harder to bear by interpreting it very strictly and adding a great number of rules and regulations. How different is the way of the Lord Jesus - 11:28-30!

23:5 See 6:1-5,16. "Phylacteries" - these were tiny boxes in which they kept verses of Scripture. They wore them on their forehead or arm (compare Ex 13:9; Deut 6:8).

"Enlarge the borders" - or "tassels" or "fringes" (Num 15:38,39; Deut 22:12). These hypocrites thought that if they made these more conspicuous men would regard them as more pious. They missed the real purpose of phylacteries and tassels. God ordered their use as an aid to remembering to obey God's Word, not so that men could impress others.

23:6,7 Here is another common error among religious leaders in general (including Christian leaders). Many love to be regarded highly, to have the places of honor, and to be called "reverend" or "doctor" or "bishop" or "father" or "master." Let us all beware of this. Let us remember the teaching of the Lord Jesus in vs 11,12; 18:4; 20:25-28; etc. Denying self, not exalting self, must be our practice (16:24; Luke 9:23).

23:8 Rabbi means a respected religious teacher. The one teacher all Christians have is Christ (v 10). He appoints human teachers to teach His people (1 Cor 12:28; Eph 4:11; 1 Tim 2:7; Heb 5:12), but they should recognize that their authority and your servant. 12 And whoever exalts himself will be abased, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men. For you neither go in yourselves, nor allow those who are entering to go in.

14 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers. Therefore you will receive the greater condemnation.

15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around sea and land to make one convert, and when he has become one, you make him twice as much a child of hell as yourselves.

16 "Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath.' 17 You fools and blind! For teaching come from Christ alone, and not exalt themselves.

23:9 Jesus is not speaking of ordinary family relationships. We all have fathers and may call them such. But He is speaking of religious matters and is warning against the error of allowing a human being to usurp the place only God should have. There is always a tendency among people, even religious people, to make too much of men, too little of God.

23:12 1 Sam 2:8; Ps 18:27; Prov 3:34; Isa 57:15; Ezek 21:26; Luke 1:52; 14:11; Jam 4:6.

23:13 "Woe" indicates terrible punishment when God brings them to account before His throne. The Lord pronounced this first woe against them because they tried to keep people from believing in Him, and He knew He was the only way into God's kingdom (Luke 11:52; John 9:22; 12:42. Compare Acts 13:8-11). This terrible sin is still common today. It will cause those guilty of it to sink to the lowest depths of hell.

See a very similar saying of Jesus at Mark 12:40 and Luke 20:47. Their sin was cheating the helpless and then trying to cover up their crimes with religious activities. Compare Isa 1:10-17.

23:14 "For a show" - this is the whole purpose of some people's religion, and all it amounts to.

23:15 They did not try to turn men to God, but to themselves, and to make converts to their own group. This is an empty and foolish thing which men do for their own glory. It has no part in true Christianity. Compare Acts 20:30; 2 Cor 4:5. The Pharisees had great zeal, but it was misdirected and its results were disastrous. Their "converts" became worse than themselves. See what Jesus calls both teachers and converts - sons of hell. Compare John 8:44.

23:16 "Blind" - on spiritual blindness see which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold? 18 And, you say, whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing, but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is bound by his oath.¹⁹ You fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift? 20 Therefore whoever swears by the altar, swears by it and by all things on it. 21 And whoever swears by the temple, swears by it and by him who dwells in it. 22 And he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it.

23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay tithes of mint and anise and cummin, but you have neglected the weightier matters of the Law: justice, mercy, and faith. These you should have practiced, without neglecting the other. 24 Blind guides! You strain out a gnat and swallow a camel!

25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of robbery and self-indulgence. 26 Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, so that the outside of vs 17,19,24; 15:14; John 12:40; 2 Cor 3:14; 4:4; 2 Pet 1:9; 1 John 2:11.

"Swears" – see 5:33-35. Here in vs 16-22 Jesus shows how the Pharisees in their spiritual blindness turned everything upside down and made much of the small, and little of the great.

23:23 "Tithes" – Gen 28:22; Lev 27:30; Num 18:21; Deut 14:22; Mal 3:8. Again we see the Pharisees emphasis on very small matters and their utter neglect of the really important matters – Isa 1:17; Micah 6:8; etc.

23:24 The gnat was the smallest of the animals regarded by the Jews as "unclean", the camel was one of the largest. See Lev 11:4,20-25. Pharisees strained their drinking water through a cloth to keep from swallowing a tiny "unclean" animal. In spiritual matters they paid much attention to tiny details but gulped down huge errors. In all this they were typical of many religious people.

23:25,26 Here is another example of how the Pharisees were careful about small things and neglected the great. They emphasized the ceremonial and formal matters of religion (the outside of the "cup" and "dish"), and neglected the vastly more important inner state of the mind and heart. Evidently they could not see that before God the outer things of religion are of no use whatever to the person who is corrupt in his heart. Greed, self-indulgence, and inner uncleanness cannot be erased by ceremonial washings or observances of religious rules and regulations. Compare Isa 1:11-18; etc.

23:27,28 Again Jesus points out the terrible error of emphasizing the outer things and neglecting the inner. He also revealed their purpose – they wanted to appear righteous them also may be clean.

27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. 28 Just so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous, 30 and say, 'If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets. 31 Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that you are the children of those who killed the prophets. 32 Fill up, then, the measure of the guilt of your fathers. 33 You snakes, you brood of vipers, how can you escape the damnation of hell?

34 "Therefore, now I am sending prophets, and wise men, and scribes to you, and some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will beat with whips in your synagogues and persecute to men (v 5), but they did not care what God saw in their hearts. All their religious activity was to impress men and gain their greedy ends. The result was that those men who were so anxious to avoid any "uncleanness" from without, were full of uncleanness within. And they made others unclean. See note at Luke 11:44. May God give us all the good sense to recognize this evil and avoid it.

23:29-32 Hypocrites and those who are ignorant of themselves may think they are better than others and that they are not the sinners their ancestors were. It is always a large error for anyone to think he or she is better than others (Luke 18:9; Rom 2:1; 3:9,23). The Pharisees should have known from the Old Testament that all are sinners and that people of one generation are likely to do as their fathers did. Each generation adds to the sins of previous ones, and the mass of guilt in any nation continually increases. At last one generation "fills up the measure" of sin, and God will not permit them to go any further, and judgment falls (Gen 15:16; 2 Kings 17:7-23; 2 Chron 36:15-19).

So it was with the Jews of Christ's day. They condemned their ancestors for murdering the prophets, but they themselves were plotting to murder the greatest prophet of all, the Son of God Himself.

23:33 See 3:7; 12:34; Ps 140:3; Rom 3:13. 23:34 Jesus means the apostles, evangelists, and teachers He would send to preach and teach His gospel. Compare Luke 11:49. The Jewish leaders would treat them as their ancestors had treated the prophets of the Old Testament (10:17,23; 24:9; John 15:20,21; Acts 5:17,18,33,40; 7:57-60; 14:19).

from city to city, 35 so that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berachiah, whom you killed between the temple and the altar. 36 Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets, and stone those who are sent to you, how often I would have gathered your children together, just as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you would not have it! 38 Now your house is left to you desolate. 39 For I tell you, you will not see me from now on until you say, 23:35,36 Abel was the first man ever murdered (Gen 4:8; Heb 11:4). There is no record of the murder of the Zechariah of Zech 1:1. Still he may be the one Jesus referred to here. Or Jesus may have referred to Zechariah the son of Jehoiada whose murder is recorded in 2 Chron 24:21,22. It is possible that this Zechariah also had an ancestor named Berachiah.

"Son of" may mean descendent of (1:1). The murder of Zechariah occurred some centuries before the Pharisees lived. Yet Jesus charged them with it. In other words, they were one with their ancestors in those acts of wickedness. Their hearts and thoughts and attitudes were no better. They were the last generation of many which had persecuted God's servants, and they were the worst of all. And they would pay the penalty for it (Luke 13:34,35; 19:41; 21:20-24. See note at Ps 79:8).

23:37 "How often" – it was Jehovah, the God revealed in the Old Testament, who had longed to protect and bless and nourish the people of Jerusalem (Ps 102:12,13; 126:1; 132:13-17; Isa 37:32; 40:9-11; 49:14-16). Here Jesus says it was He Himself who had longed to do it. In other words, He knew He was the incarnation of Jehovah. He did not desire the punishment of Jerusalem. He was willing and, indeed, he was longing for Jerusalem's salvation. The lack of willingness was on their part. Compare John 5:40.

23:38 These words were spoken just before Jesus left the temple (24:1), and "house" probably means the temple. As happened once before, God was abandoning the Jews of Jerusalem to themselves (Ezek 10:4, 18,19; 11:22,23). Once again they had rejected Him and once again would have to suffer the consequences. As far as we know Jesus did not enter the temple again.

23:39 Ps 118:26. When Jesus entered Jerusalem a crowd of His followers said these very words (21:9). But the majority, including the leaders of the nation, refused to say them and rejected their Messiah. Jesus here speaks of His second coming. Then Israel will receive Him. See Zech 12:10-14; Rom 11:26-29.

Note on hypocrisy

Matthew chapter 23 reveals very clearly the nature of religious hypocrisy. Let us

'blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

24 And Jesus went outside, and was going away from the temple, and his disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down."

3 And while he was sitting on the mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of your coming, and of the measure ourselves by the following:

Hypocrites like to tell others what to do, but will not do those things themselves (vs 2,3).

They do not care how heavy the burdens they put on others – they lack compassion (v 4).

In religion their sole object is to get a reputation among men (v 5) – pleasing God is not in their thoughts.

They like any outward display that causes others to think they are pious (v 5).

They love for others to honor them (vs 6,7).

The purpose of their religious activities is to make converts for themselves, and they hope to make a name for themselves for zeal and success in the ministry (vs 14,15).

They are spiritually blind, but think they are quite capable of teaching others (five times Jesus called them blind – vs 16, 17, 19, 24, 26).

They substitute small things for great, and think highly of themselves for zealously following the small (vs 16-24).

They care little for justice and mercy for others, or being faithful themselves (v 23).

Their emphasis is on outer things, not the inner things of the heart, and if they appear all right to men, they do not care how filthy they are inside and in secret (vs 25-28).

They are ignorant of their own nature and boast in a goodness they think they have but do not have (vs 29-32).

Hypocrisy is not a small, insignificant or laughable sin. It is cruel and murderous, totally opposed to God and the true people of God (vs 33,34). The fate of hypocrites is clearly revealed in vs 32, 36, 38. Let us flee from any temptation to hypocrisy as we would from a deadly danger – which it is.

24:2 Mark 13:2; Luke 21:6. This prophecy was fulfilled in 70 AD. The Roman general Titus and his army utterly destroyed Jerusalem and the temple.

24:3 Observe that the disciples asked three questions. In the words which follow the Lord Jesus answered all three. In Luke 21:7 questions about Christ's second coming and the end of the age are omitted (Mark 13:4 also omits them). In Luke 21:8-28 Jesus answered the question about the destruction of Jerusalem and said little about the end of this age. But in Matthew (it seems to this writer) we have His answers to the questions about the end of the age and His second end of the world?"

4 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Watch out that no one deceives you. 5 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. 6 And you will hear of wars and rumours of wars. See that you are not troubled, for all these things must take place, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and plagues and earthquakes in various places. 8 All these are the beginning of birth pains.

9 "Then they will hand you over to suffering, and will kill you. And you will be hated by all nations coming. In some respects the events of 70 AD are a picture of the situation as it will be at the end of this age.

24:4 If Christians had heeded this warning there would not have been so many led astray throughout this age. Jesus knew how easily even the best of men can be deceived and how carefully they need to guard against it. Compare 7:10; Rom 16:18; 1 Cor 6:9; Gal 3:1; Eph 5:6; Col 2:4; 2 Thess 2:3; Jam 1:22; 1 John 1:8; Rev 12:9; 20:8. It was more important for the disciples (and for us) that they be not deceived than that they should know what would happen at the end of this age.

24:5 This was true before the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD, and throughout this age. It will be true especially before Christ's second coming (vs 23-25).

"Christ" - or "Messiah" (also v 23).

24:6-8 This was true before Jerusalem fell, and true ever since. Perhaps Jesus meant that there would be more of such things as the age came near its end. Christ's disciples should not be alarmed when such things happen, as though they were to be unexpected and strange.

24:8 Notice the phrase "the beginning of birth pains." The new age to come will be ushered in by many pains and sorrows in this present age (compare Rom 8:22). And wars, famines, and earthquakes will be only the beginning of those pains that will come at the age's end.

24:9 See 10:17,22; 23:34; John 15:18-21; 16:2,33. The Lord Jesus never promised His disciples that they would have an easy time in life. Nor did His disciples promise this to other believers (Acts 14:22; 1 Thess 3:3; 1 Pet 4:12). The world which crucified Christ will not love those who live as He did and teach what He taught.

24:10 Trouble, better than anything else, reveals what people are. It strengthens and purifies those who have faith. It reveals that others who merely profess to have faith really do not. If they ever really love God they will not start hating God's true people, no matter what trouble comes.

24:11 Acts 20:30; Rom 16:17,18; 2 Cor 11:13-15; 1 Tim 4:1; 2 Tim 4:3; 2 Pet 2:1; 1 John 2:18; 4:1. There will be dangers from without, even greater danger from within the church.

for my name's sake. 10 And then many will be offended, and will betray one another and hate one another. 11 And many false prophets will arise and will deceive many. 12 And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. 13 But he who endures to the end will be saved.

14 "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a testimony to all nations. And then the end will come.

15 "Therefore when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place (whoever reads, let him understand), 16 then let those who are in Judea

24:12 Wickedness both outside the church and within it will have a chilling effect on Christians. At the end few will still be zealous in their love for God and man, most will go the way of the churches of Ephesus and Laodicea (Rev 2:4; 3:15). We must always remember that when love is gone all is gone (1 Cor 13:1-3).

24:13 See 10:22. This does not say "because" some endure to the end they will be saved. Salvation is not earned, is not a reward for enduring. Those who endure do so because God's salvation is at work in them; and those whom He has made new creations in Christ (2 Cor 5:17) He will enable to hold on to their faith to the end. See John 10:28; 17:11-15; Rom 5:3-5,9,10; 8:29,30; Phil 1:6; Heb 10:35-39.

24:14 Note on God's kingdom at 4:17. Jesus preached the "good news" of the kingdom (4:23; 9:35). It is good news because it sets forth the reign of God among men and calls people to willingly submit to God and enter His kingdom. The preaching and teaching of the kingdom was prominent throughout the ministry of the apostles (Acts 8:12; 20:25; 28:23,31; Rom 14:17; 1 Cor 4:20; 6:9; Gal 5:21; Eph 5:5; Col 1:12,13; 4:11; 1 Thess 2:12; 2 Thess 1:5; 2 Tim 4:1; Jam 2:5; 2 Pet 1:11; Rev 1:6,9).

This work is not yet finished but is going on throughout the earth. There are still some places, some tribes where the gospel has not gone. When every "nation" has heard it, the end of the age will come. In the Bible the words translated "nations" usually means simply non-Jewish peoples whoever and wherever they may be.

24:15 When Christ spoke these words to His disciples the "holy place" could mean only the temple in Jerusalem. On "abomination of desolation" see Dan 9:27; 11:31; 12:11. Some think this was completely fulfilled in 70 AD when the Romans destroyed the temple. However, the abomination of desolation Jesus speaks of here is connected with the end of this age and His second coming. A comparison of v 14 with vs 29-31 makes this clear. The abominable desolation at the hands of the Romans was only a picture, a shadow of what is yet to happen at the end. Compare 2 Thess 2:3-12.

24:16-21 In 70 AD Christians fled from flee to the mountains. 17 Let him who is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house, 18 and let him who is in the field not return to take his clothes. 19 And woe to those who are with child, and to those who nurse infants in those days! 20 But pray that your flight will not be in the winter, or on the Sabbath.

21 "For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be afterwards. 22 And unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would be saved. But for the sake of the chosen those days will be shortened.

23 "Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ,' or, 'There,' do not believe it. 24 For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, so that, if it were possible, they would deceive even the chosen. 25 Now I have told you beforehand. 26 Therefore Jerusalem and escaped into the mountains across the Jordan river. But the tribulation to come at the end of this age will be greater and more terrible than that one, great as that was (Dan 12:1; Rev 7:14; 13:15-17). Verses 17,18 suggest the suddenness of the coming trouble. In 70 AD Titus besieged Jerusalem for many months. The reference to the "Sabbath" in v 20 is another indication that the land of Israel will be the focal point of the coming great tribulation. The distance Jewish leaders allowed people to travel on the Sabbath was less than a kilometer. In that future time in Israel all transportation may possibly be shut down on Sabbaths.

24:21 This time of tribulation is still to come, as vs 29-31 make perfectly clear. We should not confuse it with the distresses and tribulations believers throughout this age have had to face (John 16:33; Acts 14:22; 1 Thess 3:3,4), though it will be similar in nature.

"Tribulation" - the Greek word means "affliction," "distress," "pressure." It is suffering due to the pressure of circumstances.

24:22 Satan and evil men will not have time to do all they would like to do. Observe that God can regulate times and activities on earth for the sake of His special people, the "chosen."

24:24 2 Thess 2:9-11; Rev 13:13; 16:14; 19:20. Signs and miracles alone do not prove that those who do them are sent by God. If they do not preach the truth in accordance with the Bible there is no truth in them, and their signs and wonders are deceiving (7:22,23; Acts 8:9-11; 13:6). The "chosen" are enlightened to see the truth of Christ (notes on enlightenment at 11:27; 2 Cor 4:6; Eph 1:18). They will not be deceived by false Christs.

24:26,27 On Christ's second coming see 25:31; 26:64; Luke 12:40; John 14:3; Acts 1:11; 1 Thess 4:16 - 5:4; 2 Thess 1:6-10; Heb 9:28; Rev 1:7; 19:11-16.

24:28 This comes after His warning about if they say to you, 'Look! He is in the desert,' do not go out; or, 'Look! He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it.

27 "For just as the lightning comes from the east, and shines as far as the west, so the coming of the Son of man will also be. 28 For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

29 "Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 30 And then the sign of the Son of man will appear in the sky. And then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. 31 And he will send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather his chosen from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

false prophets and false Christs (vs 24-26). So it could signify that they are like scavengers who fall on a nation, or a society, or a church, at its death. Or it could indicate the nations of earth, sent by God in judgment, falling on another nation. Compare Isa 46:11; Ezek 39:4. Or it might mean the destruction of earth's armies at the return of Christ (Rev 19:17,18).

24:29 The following verses prove that the "great tribulation" Jesus spoke of in v 21 was not that of 70 AD, but one coming at the end of this age. These signs will occur immediately after the tribulation but before the great and terrible "day of the Lord" - that time when God arises to punish the earth for its wickedness.

It is a mistake to confuse the great tribulation (which is caused by Satan and evil men) with the time when God pours out His wrath on the world. In our interpretation of prophecy it is important to understand this. Compare this verse with Acts 2:19,20 and Rev 6:12-14. See note on the "day of the Lord" at 1 Thess 5:2; etc. Something very striking is going to happen to the sun, moon, and stars before Christ's second coming. It will happen after the great tribulation and before the day of the Lord.

24:30 Rev 1:7; Zech 12:10-14.

"Clouds" - 26:64; Dan 7:13; 1 Thess 4:17; Rev 1:7. Christ's second coming will be quite unlike His first coming. Then He laid aside His glory and came in meekness and seeming helplessness - Phil 2:5-8.

24:31 Compare Matt 13:30,41-43.

"Angels" - Gen 16:7.

"Trumpet" - 1 Cor 15:52; 1 Thess 4:16; Rev 11:15. Paul taught that the catching up of Christ's church to meet Christ in the air will be at the "last" trumpet.

"Chosen" - John 6:37; 17:2,6; Rom 8:33; Eph 1:4; Col 3:13; 2 Tim 2:10; Titus 1:1; 1 Pet 1:2. "Chosen" or "elect" is a name for believers now in this Church age (in the Old Testament the whole nation of Israel was 32 "Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch is still tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 33 So in the same way, when you see all these things, know that he is near, right at the doors.

34 "Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things are fulfilled. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

36 "But as for that day and hour, no man knows, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. 37 But just as it was in the days of Noah, so the coming of the Son of man will also be. 38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah went into the ark, 39 and did not know what would happen until the flood came, and took them all away, so the coming of the Son of man will also be.

"elect", chosen of God - Isa 45:4; 65:9).

Observe that Jesus mentions "winds" and "heavens" in this gathering of the elect, but says nothing of "earth." Does this suggest that these elect are somewhere above the earth? Not necessarily - compare Nehemiah 1:9; Deut 30:4; Isa 13:5. It seems this was not an uncommon way of speaking then when referring to an event on earth. And compare Mark 13:27, where the word "earth" is used. On "the four winds" see Dan 7:2; 8:8; 11:4.

24:32,33 "All these things" - a fig tree may sometimes symbolize Israel (Jeremiah chapter 24; Joel 1:6,7; Hos 9:10. See also 21:19; Luke 13:6). But here the fig tree does not signify one thing or one event. It refers to "all these things" which Jesus foretold in this chapter.

"At the doors" - see Luke 21:28,31.

24:34 The Greek word here translated "generation" may also be translated "race", and (it seems to the author of these notes) might well be so translated here. If so, it would mean that the race of Israel, the Jewish people, would not be destroyed. The generation living when Jesus spoke these words did pass away before all these things came to pass. No such things as described in vs 27-29 happened in the generation of the apostles. But some think that "generation" here means the generation living when the signs at the end of the age begin to take place. And this interpretation is certainly not impossible.

24:35 Compare with 5:18. Jesus knew that both the law God gave, and His own words were the very words of God and would endure for all time.

24:36 The general time just before Christ's coming can be known by the events Jesus foretold, the signs He tells us to watch for (v 33; Luke 21:28,31). But the exact time of His coming no one can predict. If Jesus is God (who knows everything) how could it be that He would not know the day and hour

40 "Then two will be in the field. The one will be taken away, and the other left behind. 41 Two people will be grinding at the mill. The one will be taken, and the other left. 42 So watch, for you do not know what hour your Lord comes.

43 "But understand this: If the owner of the house had known what time of the night the thief would come, he would have watched and would not have let his house be broken into. 44 Therefore, you also be ready, for the Son of man is coming at an hour that you do not expect.

45 "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has made ruler over his household, to give them food at the proper time? 46 When his master comes, blessed is that servant whom he finds doing so. 47 Truly I say to you, he will make him ruler over all his goods.

48 "But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master is putting off his coming,' 49 and begins to of His coming? Rather we should say, since Jesus is God incarnate (John 1:1,14), He could choose not to know something if He wished. (In the same way, though He was all-powerful He could choose not to do things by His own power.) In any case, is it wise to insist that the Son of God is not free to limit His knowledge of a particular thing if He chooses to do so? Compare Gen 18:20,21. 24:37 "Noah" - Genesis chapter 6.

24:38,39 Jesus here emphasizes the suddenness of the disaster that overtook the people of Noah's day, and the ignorance of the people then. They were abandoned to their own way of life, did not know what God was going to do, and did not want to know (compare 2 Pet 2:5). 24:40,41 Verse 31.

24:42 Verse 36; 25:13; Mark 13:37; Phil 3:20; 1 Thess 5:1-6; Titus 2:13; Heb 9:28; 2 Pet 3:12,13; Rev 3:3.

24:44 In verse 42 Jesus says "watch." Here he says "be ready." These are two duties of His disciples regarding His coming. Actually they are more or less the same. See note at 25:13. "Watching" does not mean to be like spectators at some public event. We cannot know the exact time, so we are to be on the lookout and keep ourselves spiritually prepared at all times - 25:10; 1 Thess 5:6-8; 1 John 2:28.

24:45 See 25:21,23. Jesus refers to pastors and teachers in the churches. They are to give spiritual food to God's people (John 21:15-17). This is far more important than trying to figure out the times and dates God has set (Acts 1:7). To feed God's people well much wisdom and faithfulness are required - 1 Cor 4:2; 2 Tim 2:2; Jam 1:5,6.

24:47 See 25:21,23; Luke 19:17,19; Rom 8:17; 1 Cor 3:21-23; Rev 21:7. This will take place at Christ's second coming.

24:48-51 There are those who profess to be servants of God, who are pastors and teachers in churches, yet who are "wicked" and like hypocrites. Their doom is certain beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with drunkards, 50 the master of that servant will come in a day when he is not looking for him, and at an hour he is not aware of, 51 and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with hypocrites. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 "Then the kingdom of heaven will resemble ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3 The foolish ones took their lamps, but did not take any oil with them. 4 But the wise took oil in their containers with their lamps. 5 While the bridegroom delayed, they all got drowsy and fell asleep.

6 "And at midnight there was a cry: 'Look, the

(2 Pet 2:1-3; Jude 4,12-15).

"Gnashing of teeth" - 8:12.

25:1 "Then" - at the end of this age, as chapter 24 shows. Note on kingdom of heaven at 4:17. The picture here is true to the customs of that day. The ten virgins were waiting for the bridegroom to come to the bride's house to conduct her to the wedding feast in the bridegroom's house. The bridegroom signifies the Lord Jesus. The bride, of course, is the true church made up of a great many individuals (see 9:15; Rev 19:6-8).

Who, then, are these ten virgins? Perhaps they are leaders in the church who are responsible for preparing the bride for the Bridegroom (the "servants" of 24:45-49. Compare Paul's statement in 2 Cor 11:2). Or perhaps these "virgins" may represent individuals in the outward professing church who think they are members of the true church and have hopes of sharing in Christ's kingdom. In this case, the wise and foolish would be a contrast between true and false Christians, those born again by God's Spirit (John 3:3-8), and those who are Christians in name only. In the Bible the word "virgin" used figuratively does not always signify the true people of God. See Isa 23:12; 47:1; Jer 46:11.

25:2 What is meant by wise and foolish can be seen in 7:24-27. See also the contrasts between the wise and the foolish in Proverbs (1:7; 10:8,14; 12:15; 13:16; 14:1, 8,16; 16:22).

25:3,4 It seems from this that those foolish ones never had oil. In the Bible oil can signify the Holy Spirit (note at Ex 27:20). Among those who say they are Christians the wise have the Holy Spirit, the foolish do not. In many ways the ten were very similar - all are called "virgins," all had lamps, all knew something of the truth, all thought they would be ready to meet the bridegroom, all went out to meet him. But the foolish ones were without the one essential thing - oil. Compare Rom 8:9; Jude 19. There are many who are outwardly Christian, inwardly not. They are like trees without fruit, clouds without rain.

25:5 Observe that they all "fell asleep" - even the wise have not always been as alert bridegroom is coming! Go out to meet him.' 7 Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps.

8 "And the foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'

9 "But the wise answered, saying, 'No, or there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil, and buy for yourselves.'

10 "And while they were going away to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage. And the door was shut. 11 Afterwards the other virgins also came, saying, 'Lord, Lord! Open to us.'

12 "But he answered and said, 'Truly I say to you, I don't know you.'

13 "Watch therefore, for you do not know either the day or the hour when the Son of man as they should have been. In church history there have certainly been some very "drowsy" times.

25:6 At the time of the end there will be warnings and signs of Christ's near coming, and those will alert the church.

25:8 They tried to light their lamps. Apparently the dry wick caught a flame but could not hold it. Without God's Spirit no one will have the inward grace and the light on his pathway that the genuine believer and true child of God has. Outward profession can never make up for inward lack.

25:9 No person ever has too much of the Spirit of God. And no one can lend God's Spirit to others, or the experience of the light the Spirit gives on the way. It is a personal experience which must come from God. Each person must go to God and "buy" (compare Isa 55:1-3; Prov 23:23; Luke 11:13; Rev 3:18). This is figurative language. The Spirit of God is not for sale. No money can purchase an interest in Him (compare Acts 8:18-21). The purchase of this "oil" does not cost money - it costs ourselves (10:39; 16:24-26; Luke 9:23; 14:26,33). This is one reason why comparatively few people do this "buying."

25:10 Christ will arrive just as He said He would. Then there will be a great "feast" for His believers - Rev 19:9. But the door of opportunity will be shut for those who heard the truth but did not act on it. Compare Luke 13:24,25; Gen 7:13,16; 2 Cor 6:1,2; Heb 3:7-11.

25:11 Compare Prov 1:28-32.

25:12 "I don't know you" - this is evidence that the foolish virgins represent unsaved people in the church. Compare 7:23. Contrast John 10:14; 1 Cor 8:3; 2 Tim 2:19.

25:13 See 24:42,44. This is the one great application Christ makes of this parable - which does not mean there are not other lessons to be learned from it. "Watch" means to be spiritually prepared. In the parable all ten virgins went to sleep and were unconscious for a while, but five of them were still prepared for the announcement of the bridegroom's coming. It is God's Spirit in the heart who makes Christians prepared. Without Him all following of any religion, and comes.

14 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a man planning on a journey to a far country who called his own servants, and entrusted his goods to them. 15 And he gave five talents to one, two to another, and one to another, to each one according to his own ability. And immediately he went on his journey.

16 "Then the one who received the five talents went and traded with them and made another five talents. 17 And in the same way the one who received two, also gained another two. 18 But the one who received one went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money.

19 "After a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. 20 And so the one who received five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, 'Master, you entrusted five talents to me. Look, besides those I have gained five more talents.'

21 "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.'

22 "Also the one who received two talents came and said, 'Master, you entrusted two talents to me. Look, besides those I have gained another two talents.'

23 "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.'

24 "Then the one who received the one talent came and said, 'Master, I knew you, that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter. 25 And I was afraid and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, you have yours.'

26 "His master answered and said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed and gather where I have not scattered? 27 Therefore you should have put my money with the bankers, and then when I returned I would have received my own with all effort to be good, and all trying to meet Christ the Bridegroom will be in vain. It is foolish in the extreme to try to make a Christian life without the one absolute essential for the Christian life - Christ's Spirit. Notes on the Holy Spirit at 3:11,16; John 14:16,17; etc.

25:14 The "man" signifies Christ. His journey was to heaven. The "property" He entrusts to His servants are the things of His kingdom (21:43), His work on earth and the resources to accomplish that work.

25:15 "Talents" - see note on the meaning of talent at 18:24. Here talents signify abilities, spiritual gifts and resources. Some of God's people have more of these than others (Rom 12:3-8; 1 Cor 12:4-11). But one main point of the parable is that equal faithfulness, even though abilities differ, will bring equal rewards. A talent was first a unit of weight (about 34 kilograms). Afterwards it became a unit of value amounting to 34 kilos of gold or silver - worth a great deal of money in any age.

25:16-18 There are vast differences in the ways men use what God gives them. Compare Luke 19:13-21. In the case of these servants it was all a question of obedience or disobedience, faithfulness or unfaithfulness.

25:19 "After a long time" - by such words was Christ not suggesting that His coming would not be in the immediate future? However that may be, He will return as certainly as the man in the parable returned.

"Accounts" - Rom 14:12; 2 Cor 5:10; Heb 4:13.

25:20 What will we be able to say when we stand before the Lord?

25:21 The manner of our service on earth for God will have results that will reach into the ages to come. Notice again the emphasis on faithfulness - 24:45; Luke 16:10; 1 Cor 4:2. The reward for it will be great indeed - positions of trust and responsibility and honor in the future manifestation of God's kingdom, and a share in the joy of the Lord Jesus.

25:23 Compare v 21. The whole basis of the master's approval was faithfulness in what was given, regardless of the amount given. It is not the business of those with little ability or resources or opportunities to envy those with much. They must serve the Lord heartily with what they have.

25:24 He thought he knew the master, but surely he did not. In these words he actually slandered him to his face. People may think they know God, yet have all sorts of false ideas about Him.

25:25 "I was afraid" - if he had truly been afraid of his master he would have been afraid of offending him by disobedience, afraid of wasting time and opportunities. Notes on the fear of the Lord at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7. The Christian who does nothing is not afraid of the Lord; more than likely he is afraid of work.

25:26 The master calls him "wicked" because he did not obey his master (disobedience is wickedness), and "lazy" because he did not work for him. He had a sinful, slothful spirit and did not overcome it. See note on this at Prov 6:6-11; 15:19; 22:13; 24:30-34. Here the master was not saying that he was like this servant thought him to be. He was saying "Was this your estimate of my character? Did you really think I am like that? Then you should have been careful to act accordingly."

25:27 If the man honestly thought he was incapable of doing anything profitable with the money, he should have put it in the hands of those who were capable.

interest.'

28 "Therefore take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents. 29 For to every one who has will be given, and he will have an abundance, but from him who does not have will be taken away even what he has. 30 And throw the unprofitable servant into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

31 "When the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory, 32 and all nations will be gathered in his presence. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates his sheep from the goats. 33 And he will put the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left.

34 "Then the King will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you blessed of my Father, inherit the 25:28 Faithfulness was further rewarded. The "ten-talent" man had proved he knew how to behave when something was entrusted to him.

25:29 Compare 13:12.

25:30 The wicked, lazy servant is here called "unprofitable." Compare Luke 13:6,7; John 15:1-6; Heb 6:7,8. If we are worthless in the Lord's work, wicked and lazy, we should not vainly imagine that He will accept us and reward us. He will never say "well done" to those who have not done well. See the doom of the "unprofitable." Compare 3:10,12; 8:12; etc.

25:31 "Son of man" – 8:20.

"Glory" – 16:27; 19:28; 24:30; John 1:14; 12:41; 17:5; Rev 1:16.

"Throne" – 19:28; Luke 1:32. It seems there is a difference between what Jesus here calls "His throne" and the throne of God the Father where Jesus now sits – Rev 3:21.

25:32 "All nations" – this phrase, if taken literally, will include both Israel and the other nations of the world. This separation must mean separating individuals from one other. No nation as a whole has fulfilled the picture Christ gives in vs 34-36. Some individuals in every nation have done so, but not any people in general. Not all individuals in any country, at any time, have been Christ's "sheep" (see John 10:1-16,27,28). This is the only place in the New Testament where goats are a symbol of unbelievers.

25:34 "Blessed" – notes at Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1; 119:1; Matt 5:3-10; etc.

"Inherit" – 5:5; Acts 20:32; 26:18; Rom 8:17; 1 Cor 6:9,10; 15:50; Gal 5:21; Eph 1:11,14; Heb 6:12; Rev 21:7. Notes on God's kingdom at 4:17. How was the kingdom prepared before the foundation of the world? Since it is for men, and men were not in existence before the foundation of the world, the preparation was in the mind, purpose, and plan of God.

25:35,36 We might expect the Lord to say "Inherit the kingdom because you believed in Me," for salvation is by grace through faith, and not by works (Eph 2:8-10; Titus kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35 For I was hungry, and you gave me food. I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger, and you took me in. 36 I was naked, and you clothed me. I was sick, and you visited me. I was in prison, and you came to me.'

37 "Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and fed you? Or thirsty, and gave you something to drink? 38 When did we see you as a stranger, and took you in? Or naked, and clothed you? 39 Or when did we see you sick, or in prison, and came to you?'

40 "And the King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, anything you did for one of the least of these my brethren, you did for me.'

41 "And then he will say to those at the left

3:3-7). True, but God's judgment of men is always said to be about works (16:27; Rom 2:6; 2 Cor 5:10; Rev 22:12). He will judge us at last not merely by what we have said, or intended, or taught to others, but by what we have actually done or not done. Works prove the reality of faith, and faith without works is dead (Jam 2:14-19,26). The good works of God's children are not the cause of their being saved, but they are the evidence that they are saved.

Six works are here listed, but they only represent good works in general and do not exhaust all the possibilities. Compare this list with what some think are wonderful works in 7:22. The works Christ here approves are not striking or glamorous, or much noticed by men. This passage follows directly the parable of the talents and shows something of what Jesus meant by using the talents.

25:37-39 "The righteous" – those who are righteous by faith and give evidence of it by works (5:6,20; Rom 2:7-11; 3:21-24; 5:1; 8:1-4). They know they have performed acts of kindness to others, but they do not have a high view of their own works. They well know they could have done much more and could have done better the things they did do. And they are not much conscious that every act they did for others was actually done for Christ, thinking they only did what they ought to do for fellow men. They were not trying to pile up merit, but helped simply because they had God's love in their hearts. Their helping others was not disguised selfishness (see 1 John 3:17,18).

25:40 Who are these "brethren"? Evidently Jesus was referring to the "sheep" of v 32. See also Rom 8:29; Heb 2:11,12. We are told to do good to all men but especially to believers in Christ (Gal 6:10). What we do to them is what we do to Christ, for He and they are united (John 17:20-23; Acts 9:1-5). If we really believed this, would we be slow to perform acts of kindness and helpfulness to others?

25:41 "Depart" – from the source of all blessedness and joy. Compare 7:23;

hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. 42 For I was hungry, and you did not give me food. I was thirsty, and you did not give me anything to drink. 43 I was a stranger, and you did not take me in. I was naked, and you did not clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit me.'

44 "Then they too will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you?'

45 "Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly I say to you, since you did not do it for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.'

46 "And these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal."

26 And it happened that when Jesus had finished speaking all these words, he said to his disciples, 2 "You know that after two

2 Thess 1:9. The "cursed" are those who do not believe in Christ, and prove they do not by failing to do good works for His people (Gal 3:10-13; Heb 6:8; 2 Pet 2:14). God's curse will be on them forever.

"Fire" - 3:10,12; etc. Hell was not prepared for men but for Satan and his angels. But if men insist on following Satan and refusing God's truth and God's way, they will share the punishment of Satan. And they will deserve to share it - otherwise God would not send them to that place. Since sinners deserve such punishment, we should understand that sin is a much more terrible thing than men usually think it is. Note on the devil at 4:1.

25:42,43 The emphasis in their judgment is not on the evil works they did (though those too will be judged - Rom 2:6,8,9), but on the good works they did not do. In other words, they reveal their lack of faith and salvation by what they neglect to do. The things they leave out of their lives show they have no love for Christ or His people. God's work of salvation in the heart of a any person impels him or her to do good works. Sins of omission are just as revealing as sins of commission, and just as worthy of judgment and punishment. Compare Num 32:23; Judges 5:23.

25:44,45 In vain men will try to defend themselves. Their professed ignorance will not be acceptable as an excuse. The one relevant fact is this: needy, suffering people of Christ were in their neighborhood and they did not lift a finger to help them. And Christ takes this as neglect of Himself. From this we see again how Christ loved the poor, the weak, the needy. Compare 11:5; 19:21; Luke 4:18; 6:20; 12:33. When His people who are poor suffer, He suffers with them - Acts 9:5; Isa 63:9.

25:46 There will be no altering of one's state after the judgment. Compare Luke 16:26; 2 Thess 1:9. Both the punishment of unbelievers and the life of believers with days the feast of the Passover arrives, and the Son of man is to be handed over to be crucified."

3 Then the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, 4 and plotted together to seize Jesus by trickery, and kill him. 5 But they said, "Not on the feast day, or there may be a riot among the people."

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very valuable fragrant oil and poured it on his head, as he sat at the table. 8 But when his disciples saw it, they were indignant and said, "Why this waste? 9 For this oil might have been sold for a large sum, and the money given to the poor."

10 But aware of this, Jesus said to them, "Why trouble the woman? For she has done a good deed

God are eternal. On eternal life see John 3:16,36; 5:24; 6:47; etc.

26:2 "Passover" - a very important feast of the Jews - Lev 23:5; Exodus chapter 12. God chose the time of the Passover for the death of His Son for sinners. And the time was very appropriate to signify the meaning of His death. The Passover lamb was a sacrifice to protect the children of Israel from judgment in Egypt. Jesus was the lamb of God, a sacrifice which takes away the sins of the world and so provides a way of escape from God's judgment against sin (John 1:29; 1 Cor 5:7).

26:3,4 They behaved like this because of their ignorance of God, their hatred of the truth, because the Lord Jesus exposed their sinfulness, and because the wicked will always be opposed to the righteous (Ps 37:12; John 3:19,20; 7:7; 8:40; 15:18-21; 1 John 3:12). 26:5 At the time of the Passover great crowds flocked to Jerusalem from all over Israel. Jesus' enemies knew that many of those people admired Jesus. They feared trouble if they killed Him at that time.

26:6 Simon was probably a man healed at some time by Jesus. Notice where Jesus the King from heaven (2:2; 27:11) spent time when He came to Jerusalem, the city of the great King (5:35). He chose the home of a humble man who had been an outcast, not some mansion, palace or fine hotel. Would that all who profess to be His followers were of the same mind (Phil 2:5-7).

26:7 See John 12:2.

26:8,9 It seems that the source of such a remark was the traitor Judas Iscariot (John 12:4-6). Apparently other disciples agreed with him. The perfume was very costly. Mark 14:5 says (in Greek) that it was worth 300 Denarii. One Denarius was the accepted daily wage of a laborer (Matt 20:2).

26:10 The act of this woman was "good," because it was a pure expression of love. Those who have a fervent love for God are to me. 11 For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. 12 For when she poured this oil on my body, she did it for my burial. 13 Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in remembrance of her."

14 Then one of the Twelve, named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, 15 and said, "What will you give me? I myself will hand him over to you." And they agreed with him for thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he looked for an opportunity to betray him.

17 Now on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

18 And he said, "Go into the city to a certain man and say to him, 'The Teacher says, My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'"

19 And the disciples did as Jesus ordered them, willing to pour out all they have at His feet. They do not worry about what it costs them or what others may say about it.

26:11,12 If the disciples wanted to show their love and concern for the poor, there would always be opportunity. But the Lord Jesus was soon going to die, and it seems the woman knew that. It was the custom in those days to anoint the dead with spices and perfumes before burial (Luke 23:55 - 24:1; John 19:39,40).

26:13 Her act is recorded for all time in God's word. So much the Lord delights in the love shown by His people.

26:14,15 Only one motive for this act of base treachery is recorded in the Bible. Judas wanted money. John 12:6 reveals one thing he was willing to do to get it. His love of money, which he did not conquer, and perhaps did not even resist, in spite of the teaching of Jesus about it (6:19-21,24; Luke 6:20; 12:15-21; 14:33), completely ruined his character, helped to make him like a demon (John 6:70,71), and at last moved him to sell the Son of God. So see 1 Tim 6:8-10. Thirty silver coins was the usual value of a slave. See Ex 21:32; Zech 11:12.

26:16 Judas was not overcome by a sudden temptation. He was deliberate and calculating in his betrayal of Jesus.

26:17 Note at Lev 23:5,6. The Passover was considered the first day of the seven day observance of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

26:18 All the time Jesus knew just when and how and why He would die (16:21; 20:28; John 7:30; 10:17,18; 12:23).

26:21 From the beginning Jesus knew this also (John 6:64).

26:22 Each of them knew something of his own sinfulness and weakness, but probably none (except Judas) thought he could betray Christ and so commit the worst of sins. Compare vs 33-35. They were sad at and prepared the Passover.

20 Now when evening came, he sat down with the Twelve. 21 And as they ate, he said, "Truly I say to you, one of you will betray me."

22 And they became exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to him, "Lord, is it I?"

23 And he answered and said, "The one who is dipping his hand with me in the bowl, he will betray me. 24 The Son of man is going just as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

25 Then Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, "Teacher, is it I?" He said to him, "You have said it."

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."

27 And he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28 For this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed the very thought that anyone called a disciple would or could do such a thing.

26:24 Judas in betraying Jesus was fulfilling the Scriptures (John 13:18; Ps 41:9). But Judas was free and responsible for his acts. God's foreknowledge did not interfere with His freedom to act. It is true of all who permanently refuse, reject or betray Christ that it would be better if they had not been born.

26:25 It does not say that Judas was sorrowful (as the other disciples were - v 22). To keep up the pretense that he was like them, he asked the same question they asked even though he knew the answer.

26:26 "My body" - Jesus did not mean that the bread became His body. This was quite impossible since He was there before them in His body. He meant that the bread was a symbol of His body. See notes at John 6:53-58. His body was soon to be crucified. The result of this event was eternal life and spiritual food to all who receive Him as Lord and Saviour. A literal eating of His flesh could not give spiritual life and food to anyone. The Bible is full of symbolism and figurative language, and we must recognize this or fall into many errors. See 16:6-12; John 6:35,53-58; etc.

26:27,28 "Gave thanks" - 14:19. The wine in the cup symbolized the blood of the Lord Jesus soon to be shed on the cross. This shedding of His blood meant agony and sorrow to Him, but He gave thanks because He knew it was the way God the Father had appointed to save men and glorify Him.

The wine did not become His literal blood when they drank it. His literal blood still flowed in His veins and drinking it could bring no good to anyone. For salvation from sin men do not need anything physical. What they need is spiritual life in the inner person (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8). This comes by trusting in the Lord Jesus and believing for many for the forgiveness of sins. 29 But I say to you, from now on I will not drink of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's kingdom."

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the mount of Olives.

31 Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will stumble because of me this night. For it is written,
I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.

32 "But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you to Galilee."

33 Peter answered and said to him, "Even though everyone stumbles because of you, I will never stumble."

34 Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times."

His blood was shed to take away our sins (John 3:16,36; 6:47,63; Rom 3:22-25; Eph 1:7; 1 Pet 1:18,19; 1 John 1:7).

"New covenant" - by His blood the Lord Jesus established this covenant. It is "new" in contrast to the old one God made at Sinai with Israel. See notes at Ex 19:5,6. On the new covenant see Hebrews chapter 8; Jer 31:31-34; 2 Cor 3:6-18. The old covenant was one of law and works. The new covenant is a one of grace. In it God promises forgiveness to all who trust in the Lord Jesus (Luke 24:46,47; Acts 13:38,39).

"Many" - this means the many who receive the Lord Jesus as Lord and Savior. He died for all, but only those who trust in Him receive the benefits of His death.

"Forgiveness of sins" - see 6:12; 9:5-7; 12:31; 18:23-35; Eph 1:7.

26:29 "Kingdom" - 4:17.

26:30 Psalm 118 was often sung at the time of the Passover in Israel.

26:31 Verse 56; Zech 13:7.

26:32 See 16:21; John 10:17,18. Before His death He said He would rise from the dead. After His death He rose. This is the greatest possible evidence that He is the Son of God - Rom 1:4.

26:33,34 Here is boastful self-confidence, or possibly the thought that he loved Jesus enough to overcome any temptation to deny Him, or ignorance still of the depths of his sinfulness and weakness, or perhaps all of these. Compare 1 Cor 10:12. Ignorance of ourselves, trusting in our own nature and strength can mean many a grievous fall.

26:35 Peter was not alone in his self-confidence. They all still had much to experience before they were able to depend on God's strength and renounce their own. Observe Peter's unbelief of Jesus words, his flat denial that Jesus knew what He was talking about. This is another glimpse of the unbelieving folly which Christ's disciples sometimes displayed. When will we learn that not one word of the Lord Jesus will fall to the 35 Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, yet I will not deny you." And all the disciples said the same.

36 Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the disciples, "Sit here, while I go over there and pray."

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy-hearted. 38 Then he said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Wait here and watch with me."

39 And he went a little farther, and prostrated himself and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me. Nevertheless not as I will, but as you will!"

40 And he came to the disciples, and found them asleep, and said to Peter, "What, could you not watch with me for one hour? 41 Watch and pray, so that you do not enter into temptation.

ground unfulfilled? And when will we see that our own opinions are completely worthless in matters He has already revealed?

26:36 Gethsemane was a garden a short distance outside the walls of Jerusalem at the foot of the mount of Olives.

26:37 The two sons of Zebedee were James and John (4:21).

26:38 Here was a burden of sorrow so great it was pressing the life out of Him. What was the reason for such sorrow? He, the utterly Holy One, was about to bear the sin of the world on the cross, and to experience the punishment of that sin, and be forsaken by God the Father (27:46; John 1:29; 2 Cor 5:21). He wanted these disciples to watch with Him. Did His human nature long for companionship in this hour of suffering? Certainly He wanted witnesses of this event.

26:39 Prostrating Himself indicated great agitation, a sense of crisis, an agonizing desire for help. Compare Heb 5:7. The "cup" was a symbol of the terrible experiences which lay before Him. He was about to "become sin" (v 38), to drink the cup of God's wrath against human sin. This He had come to do (John 12:27; 18:11). But now that the moment had come the prospect was so dreadful, so appalling that His holy nature shrank from it. And He prayed that He might not have to drink that cup, if God could find another way to accomplish His purposes for men. But it was not possible, and even with His soul in agony (Luke 22:44) Jesus accepted the will of God the Father.

He here utters a prayer that all men should learn to pray. God's way, God's will is always best, and those who best accept it will be the most blessed, even though for a time it may mean suffering and loss.

26:40 Verse 38. The Lord Jesus was fighting the greatest battle of His life, and, as usual, found no help from men. Compare Ps 22:11.

26:41 The disciples were about to enter into a time of great trial. Sleeping was not the way to prepare for it. The flesh will always

The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, “My Father, if this cup may not pass from me, unless I drink it, your will be done.”

43 And he came again and found them asleep, for their eyes were heavy. 44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then he came to his disciples, and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking rest? Look, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Get up, let us go. Look, the one who is betraying me is near.”

47 And while he was still speaking, suddenly Judas, one of the Twelve, came. And with him was a large crowd with swords and clubs, coming from the chief priests and elders of the people. 48 Now he who betrayed him had given them a signal, saying, “The one I kiss, he is the one. Seize him.” 49 And immediately he came up to Jesus, and said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said to him, “Friend, why have you come?” Then they came, put their hands on Jesus, and held him. 51 And, suddenly, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out a hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

52 Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back in its place. For all those who take up the sword will perish by the sword. 53 Do you think that now I cannot pray to my Father and he will immediately give me more than twelve legions of angels? 54 But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, that say it must happen like this?”

55 At that same time Jesus said to the crowd, “Have you come out as against a thief with swords and clubs to take me? Daily I sat with you teaching in the temple, and you did not seize me. 56 But all this has happened, so that the Scriptures of the Prophets might be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted him, and ran away.

57 And those who seized Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. 58 But Peter followed him, at a distance, to the courtyard of the high priest, went in and sat with the servants, to see the outcome.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and the whole Council, were looking for false testimony against Jesus, to put him to death, 60 but did not fail us in time of temptation. It is like a traitor in our own bosom. For our spirits to win the battle against temptation we need these two things very much – watchfulness and prayer (Eph 6:10,11,18).

26:42-44 Verse 39. Three times Jesus prayed the same thing and then stopped. Compare 2 Cor 12:7,8. It is not wise for us to go on requesting God for something He denies three times.

26:45,46 Jesus was fully prepared to face any pain or suffering that might come to Him, ready to die in the place of sinners. And this preparation was a knowledge and acceptance of God’s will. So He made no attempt to escape from danger, or to satisfy the natural longing of His human nature to avoid pain and suffering and death. Knowledge and acceptance of God’s will are the greatest preparation for anything anyone ever has to face. And how is God’s will known? By studying His Word and by giving ourselves completely to Him as the Lord Jesus did (Rom 12:1,2; Col 3:16).

26:47-49 The Jewish leaders were afraid of the people, and did not want to try to take Jesus in daylight surrounded by the crowds who eagerly heard Him. So they bribed Judas and hired mercenaries that they might capture Him in secret and at night. The mercenaries would not have known where Jesus might be, and might not have been able to recognize Him in the dark. So Judas, who knew Jesus’ habits, led them and gave them a sign. No sign could have been more hypocritical, none could have shown more clearly Judas’ fundamental depravity, insincerity, and amorality.

“Rabbi” is a Hebrew word meaning “My teacher.” But Judas had never learned to behave like that from Jesus. In fact, it seems he learned very little of anything from Him. This is because he did not have a spiritual mind, one receptive to the truth.

26:50 Notice the word “friend” (Ps 41:9). Some men hated Jesus, but He hated no one.

26:51 John 18:10.

26:52 See 5:9,10,39.

26:53 A Roman legion was between three and six thousand men. All the armies of heaven would have come to the defense of Jesus if He had so prayed – not that He needed angels (John 10:17,18; 18:6).

26:54 “Scriptures” – the Old Testament (John 2:22; 10:35; 2 Tim 3:16). He was referring to those which set forth His suffering and death. For example, see Isaiah chapter 53.

26:56 See 5:17; Luke 24:25,26,44-46.

“The disciples. . . ran away” – vs 31,35.

26:57 “Priest” – Ex 28:1. The Romans ruled Israel, and the Jews had no king of their own, so the leader and judge of the people was the high priest.

26:58 It was probably fear which kept him at a distance.

26:59 “Council” – the Jewish court, the Sanhedrin – 5:22. This shows the depraved character of the leaders of Israel. They wanted to achieve their own ends and cared nothing for truth and justice. See the command of the law they professed to love and uphold – Ex 20:16; 23:1,7. Compare 1 Kings 21:1-16. The leaders of Israel were guilty of the same sin as one of the greatest enemies of Israel.

26:60 This shows the perfection of Jesus’ find any; even though many false witnesses came forward, they did not find any. Finally two false witnesses came forward, 61 and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and build it in three days.'"

62 And the high priest got up and said to him, "Do you give no answer? What is this that they testify against you?"

63 But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest responded and said to him, "I put you under oath by the living God: Tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God."

64 Jesus said to him, "You have said it. Moreover, I tell you that hereafter you will see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of authority, and coming in the clouds of heaven."

65 Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! What need do we have of any more witnesses? See, now you have heard his blasphemy. 66 What do you think?" They answered and said, "He is worthy of death."

67 Then they spit in his face, and beat him with fists. And others slapped him, 68 saying, "Prophecy to us, Christ. Who is the one who hit you?"

69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant girl came up to him, saying, life. Even His bitter enemies could find nothing with which to accuse Him. See also 27:19; Luke 23:4; John 19:6; 2 Cor 5:21; Heb 4:15; 7:26; 1 Pet 2:22.

26:63 Isa 53:7; 1 Pet 2:23. What was going on was plain to everyone, and there was no need for Jesus to say anything. He here set an example of how we should behave when falsely accused (5:11; 1 Pet 2:21). The high priest was not looking for the truth. He thought that Jesus was a mere man, and that if He said He was the Son of God they could have grounds to accuse Him. "Christ"—or "Messiah." See note at 1:1.

"Son of God" — 3:16,17; 11:27; John 3:16; 5:18-23.

26:64 "You have said it" — in the idiom of those days this was a definite "yes." He would not defend Himself against false charges, but gave a clear answer to a question about His nature and office. He then connected His name for Himself ("Son of man" — 8:20) with a passage in the Old Testament about the Messiah, the anointed of God (Dan 7:13,14. See notes there).

26:65 The high priest knew exactly what Jesus meant. Tearing his clothes was a sign of the alarm he felt — or pretended to feel. In spite of all the evidence of Jesus' life, teachings, and miracles, he refused to believe He was more than a mere man. So in his eyes, when Jesus said He was the Son of God, He was guilty of blasphemy. See also John 5:17,18; 8:58; 10:31-33.

26:66 According to the law of Moses there were many offenses that deserved death. See note at Ex 21:36. Jesus was guilty of "You were also with Jesus of Galilee."

70 But he denied it in front of them all, saying, "I don't know what you're saying."

71 And when he had gone out on the porch, another servant girl saw him, and said to those who were there, "This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth."

72 And again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man."

73 And after a while, those who were standing near by came up to him and said to Peter, "You also are certainly one of them, for your accent gives you away."

74 Then he began to curse and swear, saying, "I do not know the man." And immediately the rooster crowed. 75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 When morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people consulted together against Jesus to put him to death. 2 And when they had bound him, they led him away and handed him over to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw none of them. They were basing their judgment on their interpretation of Lev 24:16.

26:67 See here the hate of fallen human nature against the holy God (John 3:19; 7:7; 15:18,24; Rom 1:30). It is the hate of error against truth, evil against goodness, unrighteousness against justice, sin against holiness. And we should not think that by nature we are better than they (Rom 3:9,19; Eph 2:3). Their spitting on Him fulfilled Isa 50:6.

26:68 They said this after they had blindfolded Him (Mark 14:65). The people regarded Him as a prophet (21:11,46). The leaders were mocking the idea.

26:69-75 These verses are a fulfillment of Jesus' words in v 34. The Bible reveals people as they were and does not hide the sins and failures of God's servants. See Gen 9:21; 12:13; 27:18-26; Ex 32:2-4; Num 20:12; 2 Sam 11:1.

26:73 Peter was a Galilean, and their way of speaking was different from that of people of Jerusalem.

26:75 His own behavior cut Peter to the heart and overwhelmed him with a sense of failure and grief, which led to repentance. Compare 27:3-5; 2 Cor 7:10.

27:1 See 26:66.

27:2 Israel was ruled by Rome, the most powerful empire of that day. Pilate was the Roman governor of Judea where Jerusalem was situated. They took Jesus to Pilate because they did not have the authority to put anyone to death (John 18:31).

27:3 1 Tim 6:10. Judas did not repent and trust in God's mercy, as v 5 makes clear. He that Jesus was condemned, felt remorse and brought the thirty pieces of silver back to the chief priests and elders, 4 saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." And they said, "What is that to us? You see to that."

5 And throwing down the pieces of silver in the temple, he left, went away and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests picked up the silver pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them in the treasury, because it is the price of blood."

7 And they consulted together, and bought the potter's field with them, to bury foreigners in. 8 So that field has been called, "The field of blood" to this day. 9 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of the one whose value was estimated,

whose price was set by the children of Israel,

10 And gave them for the potter's field,
as the Lord ordered me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor, and added one more sin to his many other sins. His sorrow was only the worldly kind of sorrow, the kind that works death - 2 Cor 7:10. 27:4 Judas knew, as everyone else knew, that Jesus was innocent of any wrong doing (26:60). In the Bible there are other examples of wicked men who confessed they had sinned - see Ex 9:27; 1 Sam 26:21. Confession without forsaking sin is useless (Prov 28:13). Here the Jewish leaders showed themselves more hardened, merciless, and depraved than even Judas himself.

27:5 Suicide is self murder, and the Jews rightly regarded it as a terrible sin. People have no more right to kill themselves than to kill others.

27:6 They called it blood money because they paid it so they could take Jesus and put Him to death. They knew this was no fit offering for God. See how they were concerned to keep up outward forms even at the time they were determined to murder God's holy Son. Compare 23:23,24. Now if we reject Him what good are all our religious beliefs, customs and rituals?

27:7-10 This was in fulfillment of Jer 32:6-9 and Zech 11:12,13. Jeremiah wrote of buying a field, Zechariah wrote of thirty pieces of silver and a potter (perhaps the words he spoke were originally spoken by Jeremiah but not recorded in his prophecy). Compare Acts 20:35 (a saying not recorded in the Gospels), and Jude 14 (not recorded in Genesis). But see how God works even in the minds and actions of ungodly, unbelieving men to fulfill His word. Compare John 11:49-53; Acts 2:22,23.

27:11 Another accusation the Jewish leaders brought against Jesus was that He was trying to set Himself up as a literal King the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

And Jesus said to him, "You say it."

12 And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he gave no answer. 13 Then Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear how many things they testify against you?"

14 And he did not answer him a word, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

15 Now at that feast the governor used to release to the people a prisoner, chosen by them. 16 And at that time they had a notorious prisoner named Barabbas. 17 Therefore when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas? Or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18 For he knew that they had handed him over out of envy.

19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent a message to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for today I have suffered greatly in a dream because of him."

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. 21 The governor responded and in Israel in opposition to Rome. See Luke 23:2,14; John 19:12.

"You say it" - in the idiom of the language this meant a definite "yes." But though Jesus answered "yes," He did not mean He had been trying for political power on earth - John 18:36,37.

27:12-14 See 26:63; 1 Pet 2:23. Pilate had tried many cases, but probably had seen few, if any, accused persons who did not deny the charges against them, or at least make some sort of excuse.

27:15 He did this each year at the time of the Passover.

27:16 Barabbas was guilty of rebellion and murder (Mark 15:7; Luke 23:19).

27:17 Pilate said this hoping they would ask for the release of Jesus. He knew how to weigh evidence and he soon realized that Jesus was innocent and wished to have Him off his hands (Luke 23:4,7,16,22; John 19:12).

27:18 See how deadly a sin envy is. Compare Acts 7:9; 13:45; 17:5. Let us beware of envy. It could lead us into opposition to God, and cause us to commit even terrible crimes (Prov 14:30; 27:4; Rom 13:13; 1 Cor 3:3; 2 Cor 12:20; Gal 5:26; Jam 3:14,16).

27:19 Once again the innocence of Jesus is stated - this time from an unexpected source. But it did not prevent Pilate from having Jesus crucified.

27:20 Crowds are often easily swayed by strong and unscrupulous leaders. God warns us about being swept along in a crowd to do evil ((Ex 23:2). When the crowd is bent on doing wrong, it requires great strength of character to stand against it and do what is right.

27:21 They preferred a murderer to the holy Son of God (Acts 3:13,14). Let us not think said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, "Barabbas!"

22 Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said to him, "Let him be crucified!"

23 And the governor said, "Why? What evil has he done?" But they cried out all the more, saying, "Let him be crucified!"

24 When Pilate saw that he was gaining nothing, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it."

25 Then all the people answered and said, "His blood be on us, and on our children."

26 Then he released Barabbas to them, and when he had Jesus beaten with a whip, he handed him over to be crucified. 27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's palace, and gathered the whole company of soldiers around him. 28 And they stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him. 29 And when they had woven a crown of thorns, they put it on his head, and put a we are better by nature than those people. Instead let us learn what our fallen nature is like (Jer 17:9; Rom 3:9,19,23).

27:22 Pilate's question is one all should ponder. What we do with Christ will determine our eternal destiny. If we receive Him, believe Him and love Him we will live with Him in heaven forever. If we do not, our portion will be in the lake of fire (25:41,46). To reject Him is to take the side of His enemies who crucified Him.

Crucifixion was a Roman form of execution. A horizontal beam of wood was fastened to a vertical beam. Then the feet of a person sentenced to death were nailed to the vertical beam, his hands to the horizontal beam, and the cross was lifted up and placed in the ground. It was a very cruel and barbarous form of execution. Jesus' worst enemies could not state a single evil act He had done (see also 26:59,60). All they could do was rage and shout against Him.

27:24 This attempt to escape responsibility was useless. Pilate was there to administer justice. But in his sinful weakness he was willing to abandon a just man to a cruel death to pacify the Jews. In doing so he shared their guilt. There is never a way that we can wash our hands of the responsibility God puts on us. And sin and guilt can be washed away only in the blood of the One Pilate gave up to crucifixion (26:28).

27:25 "Blood" means the responsibility for His death. They were willing to be guilty of the murder of Jesus and to make their descendants guilty as well. So great was their unreasonable hatred of Him. Men abandoned to sin would kill God if they could – indeed they did when He, incarnated in the Lord Jesus, put Himself in their hands.

27:26 Pilate violated the laws of his country, reed in his right hand. And they knelt in front of him, and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30 And they spit on him, and took the reed and beat him on the head. 31 And after mocking him, they removed the robe from him, put his own clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon, and made him carry Jesus' cross. 33 And when they came to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, Place of a Skull, 34 they gave him wine vinegar mixed with gall to drink. And when he had tasted it, he refused to drink it. 35 And they crucified him, and divided his garments, casting lots, so that there might be a fulfillment of what was spoken by the prophet,

They divided my garments among them, and cast lots for my clothing.

36 And sitting down they watched him there. 37 And they placed over his head this written accusation against him, the law of God, and his own conscience. The flogging alone was sometimes enough to kill a man. In his depraved weakness Pilate gave Jesus up both to that and to crucifixion. 27:27-31 Pilate was also responsible for this. They were his soldiers. One accusation against Jesus was that He was making Himself a king (v 11). The mocking of the soldiers was related to this. The scarlet (or purple) robe was the color of royalty. The reed was a mocking symbol of a king's scepter. And kings have crowns, so they gave Jesus one. Jesus is the King of heaven, the King of kings and Lord of lords (Rev 19:16). Man's fallen nature would try to deny Him that and make a cruel mockery of it all. Let us learn what Rom 8:7 means. 27:30 See 26:67.

THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27:32 At first Jesus bore His cross (John 19:17). Was He unable to continue because of physical weakness caused by the beating He endured?

27:33 Golgotha is the Hebrew name for Calvary and means the same ("a skull"). The place was outside the walls of Jerusalem.

27:34 Ps 69:21. The idea was to stupefy those about to be executed and relieve their pains to some extent. Jesus chose to face the full force of sufferings for the sins of mankind.

27:35 Verse 28. This fulfilled the prophecy of Ps 22:18. "They" means the Roman soldiers.

27:36 Their job was to see that He died and that no one rescued Him before then.

27:37 This was Pilate's work (John 19:19). He was mocking the Jews who had rejected Jesus as their king, but he wrote more truth than he believed or imagined. It was the custom when crucifying people to put the accusations against them on a board over

38 At that time two thieves were crucified with him, one at the right hand, and another at the left. 39 And those who passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 and saying, "You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

41 In the same way the chief priests also, with the scribes and elders, mocking him said, 42 "He saved others. Himself he cannot save. If he is the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 "He trusted in God. Let him deliver him now, if he wants him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'"

44 Also the thieves who were crucified with him, in the same way heaped insults on him.

45 Now from noon there was darkness over all the land up to three in the afternoon.

46 And about three Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" That is to say, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, "This man is calling for Elijah." 48 And immediately one of them ran, took a sponge, filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink. 49 The rest said, "Let him alone. Let's see whether Elijah will come to save him."

50 Jesus, when he had cried out again with a loud voice, gave up his spirit.

51 And immediately the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. And the earth shook, and the rocks split, 52 and the tombs opened up, and the bodies of many of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised, 53 and came out of the tombs after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared to many.

54 Now the centurion and those who were with him guarding Jesus, seeing the earthquake and the things that happened, were very frightened and said, "This really was the Son of God."

55 And many women were there, watching at a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, performing service for him. 56 Among them was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 When it was evening there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. 58 He went to their heads.

27:38 Isa 53:12.

27:39-43 Ps 22:6-18 reveals the inner experience of the Lord Jesus at this time.

27:40 Again they twist His words (26:61).

27:42 The Lord Jesus could not save Himself, only because He would not. Compare 26:53. His very purpose in coming to earth was to give Himself to suffering and death as a sacrifice for the sins of the world (20:28). If He had listened to the taunt of the Jews and come down from the cross, no one would ever have been saved from sin, no one would have been able to enter God's holy heaven.

27:43 Jesus' trusting in God did not mean deliverance from the cross. It meant something much greater – deliverance from the tomb and the bonds of death (28:6; Acts 3:15).

27:44 One of these robbers later changed his mind (Luke 23:39-43).

27:45 "From noon. . . to three" – this was a striking sign from God. It signified the realm of spiritual darkness Jesus entered as a just suffering for sinners. See Matt 8:12; 22:13; 25:30; Luke 22:53; Eph 5:8; Col 1:13; 2 Pet 2:4,17; Jude 13. Only Jesus knows what it cost Him, the Light of the world (John 8:12), to be plunged into darkness.

27:46 "Forsaken me" – Ps 22:1. See note there. In this also Jesus was bearing the punishment sinners deserve (7:23; 25:41; 2 Thess 1:9). God the Father forsook Him. The light of God's face, the joy of His presence were gone. It was the Lord's will to crush Him (Isa 53:10), and He, made sin for us (2 Cor 5:21), experienced God's anger against sin.

27:47 They did not understand His words.

"Elijah" – 1 Kings 17:1.

27:48 Ps 69:21.

27:50 John 19:30 tells us what He said. The Lord Jesus voluntarily gave up His spirit – no one was able to take it from Him (John 10:17,18).

27:51 Another marvelous sign from God. For the significance of this veil see the note at Ex 26:31-33. Can we doubt that God Himself tore this veil in two pieces? The tearing of the veil meant that the way into God's presence was opened by the sacrifice of Christ – Heb 9:3,8; 10:19-22. About this time of day a priest would have been burning incense in the holy place in the temple.

27:52,53 This is the only reference to this event in the New Testament. We do not know what happened to these saints after this. Fallen asleep (v 52) is a way of speaking of death often used in the Bible (notes at John 11:11,14; Acts 7:60).

"Holy city" – Jerusalem.

27:54 The Roman soldiers confessed this, but the Jewish religious leaders denied it even after these events. Thus they showed themselves more hardened, more determined in their opposition to God's truth than the rough soldiers of a foreign power.

27:56 See 10:2; Mark 15:40; Luke 8:2.

27:57-61 "Arimathea" – a village about 30 kilometers from Jerusalem. Joseph is an example of a rich man who did enter the Kingdom of God. Compare 19:22-24. Joseph openly and boldly made known his connection with the Lord Jesus at a time when Jesus' closest disciples were confused

Pilate, and requested the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be handed over to him. 59 And taking the body Joseph wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and put it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out of the rock. And he rolled a large stone across the entrance to the tomb and went away. 61 And Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

62 Now the next day, the one following the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together to Pilate, 63 saying, "Sir, we remember that when he was still alive that deceiver said, "After three days I will rise again. 64 Therefore, give an order that the tomb be made secure until the third day, or his disciples may come at night and steal him away and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last error will be worse than the first."

65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go make it as secure as you can."

66 So they went and made the tomb secure, putting a seal on the stone and posting a guard.

28 After the Sabbath, as dawn was breaking on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. 2 And, suddenly, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door and sat on it. 3 His appearance was like lightning, and his garment as white as snow. 4 And from fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men.

5 And the angel responded and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. 6 He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the and fearful (John 20:19). Jesus' burial in a rich man's tomb fulfilled Isa 53:9.

27:62 This was the Preparation Day for the Passover.

27:63-66 These religious leaders brazenly called Jesus a "deceiver," though they had no evidence whatever for that, and much evidence to the contrary. Hate blinds men to the truth, and drives them to oppose it. In this case their hate was used by God to make the evidence of Christ's resurrection more clear and certain. For, because of them, the tomb where He lay was sealed and guarded. God is able to turn all the malice of men and the tricks of Satan to His own good purpose and to the blessing of His own people. See note at Gen 50:20. It is a striking fact that the enemies of Jesus remembered Jesus' words that He would rise again, but His own disciples did not!

28:1 This was the third day after Jesus was crucified (Acts 10:40; 1 Cor 15:4).

"Sabbath" - Ex 20:8-11.

"The other Mary" - the mother of James and Joseph (27:56).

28:2 "An angel of the Lord" - note at 1:20. The angel rolled the stone away from the door of the tomb, not so Jesus could get out, but so Jesus' disciples could get in and see that it was empty (v 6). Note on angels at Gen 16:7.

28:3 Ezek 1:13,14; Dan 10:6; Rev 15:6; 18:1.

28:4 Dan 8:17; Luke 1:12; 2:9. If men are so alarmed in the presence of an angel, what will they do when they stand before God Himself (Rev 20:11,12)?

28:5 The greatest day in human history had dawned. It was a time for joy, not fear. But he did not tell the guards not to fear, only the women who were seeking for Jesus. Christ's disciples need not fear many things that other men fear. And what is a source of great joy to them may be a cause of dread to others (16:21; 27:23; 20:19; John 10:17,18).

28:6 The Lord Jesus said He would rise from the dead, and He did so in spite of the attempts of His enemies to prevent it. Even for a person to predict that he will rise from the dead is an extraordinary thing, unheard of in the literature of the world. Actually rising again is a marvel without compare. Observe carefully the words of the angel. The total person of the Lord Jesus rose and came out of the tomb - His body, soul and spirit. The body which had died and been placed in the tomb was no longer there, and the women could see this for themselves.

By rising from the dead the Lord Jesus proved that He was the Son of God from heaven (Rom 1:4), and that He was no deceiver (27:63). He proved Himself the conqueror of death and the giver of eternal life as He had said He was (John 5:21-29; 11:25,26). For some other truth that can be learned from Christ's resurrection see 1 Corinthians chapter 15. Do we have any evidence that should cause us to doubt this word of God's angel "He has risen?" None whatever. All the evidence points to the fact that He did rise from the dead.

First, and most importantly, we have His own word for it (16:21; 17:23; 20:19; John 10:17,18; Luke 24:45).

Second, a large number of people saw Him after His resurrection, and these eye witnesses were willing to suffer and die for saying He had risen (as the book of Acts makes very clear. See also 2 Cor 11:23-27). The eleven original apostles were with the Lord Jesus for forty days. They saw Him, had conversations with Him, and heard Him teach. There was no possibility of being deceived in this matter. They knew beyond any shadow of doubt that Jesus who had been crucified, who had suffered death and been buried in the tomb, was risen and alive and with them.

Third, God worked with them in great power establishing the truth they proclaimed (Heb 2:3,4. See Acts 5:12-16; 9:40,41; place where the Lord lay. 7 And go quickly and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead, and now he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him. See, I have told you."

8 And they hurried away from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to take word to his disciples. 9 And as they were going to tell his disciples, suddenly Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings." And they came to him and clasped his feet and worshipped him.

10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brethren that they should go to Galilee, and that they will see me there."

11 While the women were going, some of the guard appeared, coming into the city. And they

20:9,10; 28:7-10; etc).

Fourth, millions of individuals in the world today have had their lives changed by the Lord Jesus, and testify that He is real and true and living.

For a fuller account of Jesus' appearances to these eye witnesses than we have in Matthew see Luke chapter 24, John chapters 20 and 21, and Acts 1:3-9.

28:7 Verses 10,16. The order of events after Christ's resurrection is not clear. No Gospel records all of them, and each writer gives the account in the way God led him. It seems that the Lord Jesus appeared on at least eleven different occasions between His resurrection and ascension to heaven.

The order was probably like this: He appeared to Mary Magdalene (Mark 16:9; John 20:14); then to women returning from the tomb without Mary Magdalene (Matt 28:9,10); then to Peter (Luke 24:34); then to two disciples on the way to Emmaus (Luke 24:34); then to a group of disciples in Jerusalem when Thomas was absent (John 20:19); then to the same disciples again when Thomas was present (John 20:26-29); then to seven disciples at the lake of Galilee (John 21:1); then to a group of disciples on a mountain in Galilee (Matt 28:16); then to more than five hundred at one time (1 Cor 15:6); then to James (1 Cor 15:7); finally to the eleven apostles on the mount of Olives (Luke 24:50,51; Acts 1:9-12).

Other unrecorded appearances there must have been, for He appeared to the apostles over a period of forty days (Acts 1:3), but these appearances are not recorded.

28:8 Ps 2:11. The resurrection of the Lord Jesus is a source of joy forever to those who really believe it (Luke 24:52; John 20:20).

28:9 John 20:17.

28:10 The blessed truth of the resurrection should remove our fear and send us out to speak of it. "My brethren" means the disciples (12:48,49; Heb 2:11,12). They did not immediately set out for Galilee (they were very slow to believe in Christ's resurrection - Mark 16:11,13,14). So He appeared to them in Jerusalem (John 20:19-29).

reported to the chief priests everything that had happened. 12 And when they had met with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13 saying, "Say that his disciples came at night, and stole him away while we were sleeping. 14 And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will satisfy him, and make your situation safe."

15 So they took the money, and did as they were instructed. And this story has been spreading among the Jews to this very day.

16 Then the eleven disciples went away to Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had appointed for them. 17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. 18 And Jesus

28:11-15 Here is another example of hatred toward the truth leading men further away from truth. That the story invented by these Jews was utterly false soon became clear to those in Jerusalem and to people around the world. And the behavior of the disciples afterwards was not that of deceivers who stole the body of Jesus and hid it somewhere - they willingly suffered and died for their teaching that Jesus had risen from the dead.

28:13 What strange instructions! If they were asleep how could they know what happened to the body of Jesus? Surely no law court in the world would accept such testimony.

28:16 Verse 10.

28:17 "Worshipped Him" - see 2:11; 4:10; 14:33.

"Doubted" - it does not say what they doubted, but it is clear from the Gospels of Luke and John that the appearance of Jesus after His resurrection was not altogether the same as before, and sometimes He was not immediately recognizable (Luke 24:16,31,36-43; John 20:15; 21:5). Jesus removed their doubts by coming near and speaking to them. But even to mention these doubts shows the honesty of the Gospel writers. If Jesus had not risen, but they were trying to convince people He had, would they have spoken of doubts and inability to recognize Him?

28:18 "All power" - the Greek word also means authority. See John 3:35; 17:2; 5:22,23; Acts 2:32,33,36; Phil 2:9-11. The Lord Jesus is the King of kings and Lord of lords (Rev 19:16). Blessed are all those who receive Him as such and trust in Him (Ps 2:6-12). He is directing events on earth and fulfilling His purposes. This authority was "given" to Him. By whom? By God the Father who has a higher place in the administration of the universe than the Son (John 10:29; 14:28; 1 Cor 15:22-28).

Notice the all-inclusive words Jesus used in the last three verses of this Gospel - "all power" (v 18), "all nations" (v 19), "all things" (v 20), "always" (v 20). His disciples can go to all people groups, make disciples everywhere, and teach everything He commanded them because He has all came and spoke to them, saying,

"All power is given to me in heaven and on earth. 19 Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of power and authority both in heaven and earth and will be with them always and everywhere, empowering them and using His authority and power on their behalf.

28:19 Mark 16:15; Luke 24:47-49; John 20:21; Acts 1:8. In verses 19 and 20 Jesus commanded the apostles to do three things: Make disciples, baptize, and teach those who become disciples to do as they themselves had been commanded.

"Make disciples" – this is the meaning of the Greek word. The word translated "teaching" in v 20 is a different word altogether. To make disciples means his followers are to make disciples for Christ, not for themselves (as some preachers like to do). Because Jesus has authority over all people (John 17:2), His servants would be able to do what He here commands. Making disciples for Christ means to preach the gospel and proclaim the truth of God's Word (and live) in such a way that people trust in Jesus, begin to love Him above everything and everyone, and become willing to die to self and follow Him whatever the cost. If those in the ministry are not doing this they are not doing what Jesus ordered us to do. See notes on discipleship at Matt 10:1 and Luke 14:25-35.

"All nations" – this is the great missionary commission and task for every generation of Christians, and to be obedient to Christ believers must place this very high indeed in their list of priorities.

"Baptizing them in" – the word "them" refers only to the disciples that are made. Jesus did not tell His servants to baptize anyone else. The Greek word translated "in" may also be translated "into". See note on baptism at 3:6. Discipleship speaks of death to self and a new life in which Christ is the center and the chief object of love (Matt 10:37-39; Luke 9:23; 14:26,27; the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe everything that I have commanded you. And see, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

etc). Baptism also speaks of these two things. Compare Rom 6:3-6.

Since Jesus here declared that He wants disciples to be baptized, any believer today who wants to please Him should be baptized.

"Name" – the Lord Jesus now gives the final revelation of the name of God. "Name" is singular not plural, because Father, Son and Holy Spirit are not three gods but one God perfectly united in nature and attributes. To reveal God's name is to reveal what God is like – John 17:6; Ex 34:5-7. God is a Trinity. See also 3:16,17; 11:27; John 1:1,14,18; 5:30; 10:30; 14:16,17; 2 Cor 13:14; Eph 4:4-6.

28:20 "Teaching them" – those who become disciples in every generation need to be taught to obey all that the Lord Jesus taught and commanded. By becoming disciples they have started on the path of obedience. But they will need to understand more truth and become fully obedient to it. Faith, discipleship, and obedience are all closely linked together and no one should try to separate them (see Matt 7:21; 1 John 2:3-6; note at Acts 22:10; etc). The apostles took the command of Jesus very seriously and worked mightily to do just what He told them to do. This is clear from the book of Acts and the letters they wrote.

"I am with you" – this means not only with the apostles who were present then, but with their successors throughout this age, as is plain from the concluding words. Each generation needs faithful men to carry on the work of love that the apostles began. And Christ Himself will be with all of them always. In the first chapter of Matthew we have the announcement of the coming of Emmanuel – God with us (1:23). Here in the last verse is the promise that Emmanuel will be with His people to the end of the age. See also 18:20.

The Gospel According to MARK

Author:

Mark was a cousin of Barnabas and served Christ with Barnabas, Paul, and, according to tradition, especially with the apostle Peter. Compare 1 Peter 5:13. It is very probable that he learned many of the facts he records in this Gospel from Peter. Mark's other name was John (Acts 12:12).

Date:

Some years after the death and resurrection of Christ. Some scholars believe that this Gospel was the first to be written, and it may be so, but we have no real proof for this.

Theme:

Mark presents Christ as the Son of God (1:1) who became the Servant of God and man, and did mighty works among men (compare Acts 10:38; Rom 15:8,9). Twice He said that true greatness is in service to others (9:35; 10:42-45), and demonstrated this in His own life and ministry. Mark emphasized the deeds of Christ more than His teachings. For example, he wrote of 18 miracles of Jesus, but records only 4 of His parables (Matthew records 14 parables, and Luke has 15), and he includes no long discourses such as the Sermon on the Mount.

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God; 2 as it is written in the Prophets,

See, I send my messenger before
your face,
who will prepare your way before you.

3 The voice of one crying out in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.'

4 John came baptizing in the wilderness, and preaching the baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. 5 And the whole land of Judea and the people of Jerusalem went out to him, and were all baptized by him in the Jordan river, confessing their sins. 6 And John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. And he ate locusts and wild honey.

7 And he preached, saying, "After me one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen the strap of his sandals. 8 I indeed have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

9 And it took place in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan. 10 And coming up out of the water, immediately he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him. 11 And a voice came from heaven, saying, "You are my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

12 And immediately the Spirit sent him out into the wilderness. 13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts. And the angels ministered to him.

14 Now after John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe the gospel."

16 Now as he walked by the lake of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. 17 And Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

18 And immediately they left their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone on a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; and they were in the boat mending their nets. 20 And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired workers, and went after him.

21 And they went to Capernaum. And immediately on the Sabbath he entered the synagogue and taught. 22 And they were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them like one having authority, and not like the scribes. 23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 saying, "Let us alone! What do we have to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you. You are the Holy One of God."

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him."

26 And when the unclean spirit had thrown him into convulsions and cried out in a loud voice, he came out of him. 27 And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? What new teaching is this? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him."

28 And immediately his fame spread all around through the region of Galilee. 29 And as soon as they had come out of the synagogue, with James and John they entered the house of Simon and Andrew. 30 But Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. 31 And he came and took her by the hand and

1:1 The word "Gospel" is a translation of a Greek word which means "good news." The disciples of the Lord Jesus and Jesus Himself called it good news because it was God's message showing the way of salvation for men. On the meaning of the names "Jesus" and "Christ" see Matt 1:1. "The Son of God" - Matt 1:18; 3:16,17; John 1:18; 3:16; 5:18-23.

1:2,3 Mal 3:2; Isa 40:3; Matt 3:3; 11:10.

1:4 Matt 3:1-6; 9:5-7.

1:5-11 Matt 3:4-17.

1:12,13 See Matt 4:1-11; Luke 4:1-13. In this very brief account of Jesus' temptation Mark mentions one fact none of the other gospels does - the presence of wild animals. This suggests Jesus was in a solitary and dangerous place.

1:14 Matt 14:3.

1:15 Matt 3:2; 4:17.

1:16-20 Matt 4:18-22.

1:21 "Capernaum" - Matt 4:13.

1:22 Matt 7:28,29.

1:23 "Unclean spirit" - Matt 4:24.

1:24 The demons knew that Jesus was absolutely unique in His person and His power.

"Holy one of God" is used in the New Testament only here, at Luke 4:34 and John 6:69. But the perfect holiness of the Lord Jesus is emphasized everywhere. See Luke 1:35; John 8:46; 2 Cor 5:21; Heb 4:15; 1 Peter 2:21-24.

1:25 Jesus had (and still has) complete power over all evil spirits (5:1-10; Luke 10:17).

1:27 What amazed the people was not the fact of a new teaching, but the fact that Jesus backed it up with the mighty works of God. See note at Matt 8:1.

1:29-34 Matt 8:14-17.

raised her up, and immediately the fever left her, and she served them.

32 And in the evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons. 33 And the whole city was gathered together at the door. 34 And he healed many who were sick with various diseases, and drove out many demons. And he did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, a great while before daylight, he got up, went outside and left for a solitary place. And there he prayed. 36 And Simon and those who were with him followed him. 37 And when they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is looking for you."

38 And he said to them, "Let us go to the next towns, so that I may preach there also; because I have come for this."

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout Galilee, and drove out demons.

40 And a leper came to him and begged him, kneeling before him and saying to him, "If you are willing, you can make me clean."

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put out his hand and touched him, and said to him, "I am willing. Be clean."

42 And as soon as he spoke, immediately, the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. 43 And he gave him a strict warning and immediately sent him away, 44 saying to him, "See that you tell no one, but go show yourself to the priest, and as a testimony to them, offer for your cleansing those things which Moses commanded."

45 But he went out and began to talk about it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a city openly, but was outside in deserted places. And they came to him from every quarter.

2 And after some days he again went into Capernaum, and it was heard that he was in the house. 2 And immediately many gathered together, so that there was no room to receive them, no, not even near the door. And he preached the Word to them. 3 And they came to him, bringing a paralytic carried by four men. 4 And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they took off that part of the roof where he was, and when they had broken through, they let down the cot on which the paralytic was lying.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

6 But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 "Why is this man speaking blasphemies like this? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

8 And when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they were reasoning like this among themselves, immediately he said to them, "Why are you reasoning about these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up, pick up your cot, and walk?' 10 But that you may know that the Son of man has power on earth to forgive sins: (he said to the paralytic) 11 I say to you, Get up, pick up your cot, and go to your house."

12 And immediately he got up, picked up the cot, and went out in the presence of them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this."

13 And he went out again along the shore of the lake, and all the people came to him, and he taught them. 14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him.

15 And it happened, as Jesus sat at the table in his house, that many tax collectors and sinners also sat with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and they followed him. 16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eating with tax collectors and sinners, they said to his disciples,

1:34 Verse 25; 3:12; 5:43; Matt 8:4; 9:30; 12:16.

1:35 Jesus often prayed (Matt 14:23; 19:13; 26:36,39; Luke 5:16; 6:12; 9:29; 22:32; John chapter 17; Heb 5:7). Sometimes He sought a solitary place to pray. He prayed both as a man to God and as God's unique Son. In other words both His divine and human natures were involved in His praying. Compare John chapter 17.

1:38 See Isa 61:1. This is one of several reasons why He came from heaven to earth. For other reasons see references at Matt 5:17.

1:39 Matt 4:23.

1:40-43 Matt 8:1-4.

1:45 Instead of obeying Jesus in gratitude for his healing, he did the opposite of what Jesus said. He was not the last person to behave so. The crowds were getting so large, the opposition from religious leaders was getting so strong, that Jesus withdrew. He did not wish to bring on a crisis at this time. See John 7:30.

2:1-12 See notes at Matt 9:1-8. Mark shows how the faith of the paralytic's friends revealed itself in great determination to overcome all obstacles. In this they are an example to us all. On persistence of faith see Matt 7:7,8; Luke 11:5-10; 18:1-8.

2:13,14 See Matt 9:9 where Levi is called Matthew. Levi was probably his original name and Matthew his new name as an apostle. Matthew is the Greek version of a Hebrew name meaning "Gift of the LORD" (Jehovah).

2:15-17 Matt 9:10-13.

"How is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

17 When Jesus heard this, he said to them, "It is not those who are well who need a doctor, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."

18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast. And they came and said to him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

19 And Jesus said to them, "Can the sons of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. 20 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then, in those days, they will fast. 21 Also no one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; otherwise, the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and the tear is made worse. 22 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the new wine will burst the wineskins, the wine will be spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined. But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

23 And it came about that he went through the grain fields on the Sabbath, and as they went, his disciples began to pick some heads of grain.

24 And the Pharisees said to him, "Look! Why are they doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?"

25 And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did, when he was in need, and was hungry, he and those who were with him? 26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the Showbread, which is not lawful to eat, except by the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?"

27 And he said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. 28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath."

3 And again he went into the synagogue. And a man was there who had a withered hand. 2 And they watched him to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse him.

3 And he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Stand up in the middle."

4 And he said to them, "Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath, or to do evil? To save life, or to kill?" But they kept silent.

5 And when he had looked around at them in anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored whole like the other.

6 And the Pharisees went out, and immediately plotted with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him. 7 But Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the lake, and a great crowd from Galilee and from Judea 8 and from Jerusalem and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan followed him. And when they heard what great things he did, a great crowd of those from around Tyre and Sidon came to him.

9 And he told his disciples that a small boat should be ready for him, because of the crowd, so that they would not press against him. 10 For he had healed many, so that as many as had afflictions crowded around him to touch him. 11 And when the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him, and cried out, saying, "You are the Son of God." 12 And he strictly charged them that they must not make him known.

13 And he went up into a mountain, and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him. 14 And he ordained twelve that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach, 15 and to have authority to heal diseases and to cast out demons.

16 And to Simon he gave the name Peter. 17 And there were James the son of Zebedee and

2:18-22 Matt 9:14-17.

2:23-28 Matt 12:1-8.

2:27 "Sabbath" - Ex 20:8-11. The Sabbath was given so that men might have one special day each week to rest from their labors, and to worship their Creator and Redeemer. Many of the religious leaders of Jesus' day made their rules about the Sabbath more important than the needs of people. Jesus emphasized that human beings are more important than days and regulations. Compare Col 2:16.

2:28 "Son of man" - Matt 8:20. "Lord" - Matt 12:8.

3:1-6 Matt 12:9-14.

3:5 He was angry and grieved at those who were willing to trample people in the dust to uphold man-made rules; who in the hardness of their hearts would forbid healing and saving of life on the Sabbath, but would plot to kill on the same Sabbath. Anger and grief are often what Jesus must feel at the attitudes and actions of many religious people today also. Observe that godly anger against sin and injustice is right. It is to share in God's anger against such things (Num 25:3). Compare Ex 32:19,20; Eph 4:26.

3:6 Matt 12:14. "Herodians" - Matt 22:16.

3:8 Idumea was an area southwest of Judea.

"Tyre and Sidon" - Matt 11:21.

3:9 Matt 13:2.

3:11,12 See 1:24,25,34.

3:13-19 Notes at Matt 10:1-4.

3:17 "Thunder" - it seems their disposition

John the brother of James (to them he gave the name Boanerges, that is, The Sons of Thunder), 18 and Andrew and Philip and Bartholomew and Matthew and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus and Simon the Canaanite 19 and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

And they went into a house. 20 And the crowd gathered again, so that they could not even eat bread. 21 And when his friends heard of it, they went to take charge of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebub," and, "By the ruler of the demons he drives out demons."

23 And he called them over, and spoke to them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan? 24 And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. 26 And if Satan rises up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. 27 No man can go into a strong man's house, and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man, and then he will plunder his house.

28 "Truly I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may impiously utter, 29 but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation."

30 He said this because they said, "He has an unclean spirit."

31 Then his brothers and his mother came, and, standing outside, sent word to him, calling him. 32 And the crowd sat around him, and they said to him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are outside, looking for you."

33 And he answered them, saying, "Who is my mother, or my brothers?"

34 And he looked around in a circle at those sitting about him, and said, "See my mother and my brothers. 35 For whoever does the will of God, that one is my brother and my sister and mother."

tended to be a bit stormy. Compare Luke 9:54. 3:20 See 6:31.

3:21 "Friends" – the Greek word used here means "those beside him," that is, those belonging to him. It could also indicate family or relatives.

"Out of his mind" – compare John 10:20. His zeal for God was so great, His desire to teach and help people so strong, that He sometimes seemed abnormal to ordinary people who had never experienced such things themselves. Compare John 2:13-17. For similar reasons some of His followers also in every century have been regarded as foolish or crazy. See Acts 26:24.

3:22 The Jewish religious leaders had another explanation of Jesus' teaching and

4 And again he began to teach by the lakeside, and a huge crowd gathered before him, so that he went into a boat, and sat out on the lake, and the whole crowd was on land by the lake. 2 And he taught them many things in parables, and in his teaching said to them,

3 "Listen! Look, a sower went out to sow. 4 And as he was sowing it happened that some seed fell by the wayside, and the birds of the air came and ate it up. 5 And some fell on stony ground, where it did not have much soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil. 6 But when the sun came up, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away. 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no crop. 8 And other seed fell on good ground, and springing up and growing it yielded a crop. Some seed produced thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundredfold."

9 And he said to them, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

10 And when he was alone, those around him together with the Twelve asked him about the parable.

11 And he said to them, "To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those outside all these things come in parables, 12 so that seeing they may see and not perceive, and hearing they may hear and not understand; that they might not be converted and their sins be forgiven them."

13 And he said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? But how then will you understand all parables? 14 The sower sows the Word. 15 And these are the ones by the wayside, where the Word is sown. But when they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the Word that was sown in their hearts. 16 And in the same way these are the ones who are sown on stony ground. When they hear the Word, they immediately receive it with joy. 17 But they have no root in themselves, and so last only for a time.

behavior. They said He was under the control of Satan.

"Beelzebub" – note at Matt 10:25. Everyone should decide what to believe about Jesus. Jesus was either mad or demon-possessed or a deliberate deceiver, or else He came from God and spoke the truth and did the works of God. All the evidence says He came from God.

3:22-29 Matt 12:25-32.

3:30 Verse 22; John 7:20; 8:48,52; 10:20.

3:31-35 Matt 12:46-50.

4:1-20 Matt 13:1-23. Mark records slightly different words than Matthew to convey the same truth. In v 11 he uses the phrase "The kingdom of God" while Matthew has Afterwards, when trouble or persecution comes because of the Word, immediately they fall. 18 And these are the ones who are sown among thorns; they hear the Word, 19 and the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things coming in, choke the Word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 And these are the ones who are sown on good ground; they hear the Word and receive it and bring forth fruit, some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundredfold."

21 And he said to them, "Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket, or under a bed, and not to be put on the lampstand? 22 For there is nothing hidden which will not be revealed; nor has anything been kept secret that will not come to light. 23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."

24 And he said to them, "Carefully consider what you hear. Whatever measure you use will be the one used for you; and to you who hear more will be given. 25 For to the one who has more will be given, and from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away."

26 And he said, "The kingdom of God is as if a man scatters seed in the ground, 27 and night and day he sleeps and rises, and the seed sprouts and grows; how, he does not know. 28 For the earth produces crops by itself; first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head. 29 But when the grain shows itself ready, he immediately puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

30 And he said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we illustrate it? 31 It is like mustard seed, which, when sown in the ground, is smaller than all the seeds that are in the ground. 32 But when it is sown, it grows up and becomes the largest of all garden plants, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade."

33 And with many such parables he spoke the Word to them, as much as they were able to understand. 34 But he did not speak to them without a parable. But when they were alone, he explained everything to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side."

36 And when they had sent the crowd away, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat. And there were also other boats with him. 37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already becoming full of water. 38 And he was in the back part of the boat, asleep on a cushion. And they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, don't you care that we are perishing?"

39 And he got up and rebuked the wind, and

"The kingdom of heaven." Evidently the two phrases often have the same meaning. On this kingdom see note at Matt 4:17. Mark adds the words "otherwise they might turn and be forgiven" to Matthew's account in Matt 13:13 but omits verses 14,15. And Mark 4:13 is not found in Matthew. In v 19 Mark has words not found in Matt 13:22 - "The desires for other things." Desires for the things of this earth, good or bad, may be just as powerful in choking the influences of God's word in our lives as worry and wealth. Compare 1 John 2:16; Col 3:1,2. Luke gives other variations in his account of this parable (see Luke 8:4-15).

When there are differences in wording which of these three writers has given the accurate account? The answer is, all three. Jesus probably spoke more fully than any of them record, saying all that they have written down and even more. God's Spirit led each of the three to choose words and phrases in keeping with the overall emphasis and purpose of his Gospel. This is true of all the variations in language used by the writers of the Gospels in reporting the words and works of Jesus.

4:21,22 These verses do not appear in Matthew chapter 13, but similar words are found in other places in that Gospel. See Matt 5:15; 10:26.

4:23 Matt 13:9.

4:24 Matt 7:2.

4:25 Matt 13:12; 25:29.

4:26-29 This parable is found only in Mark.

On a literal level, when good seed is planted in good soil there will be inevitable sprouting and growth. The fact that the sower does not understand the process does not affect it. Growth may be slow, but it is spontaneous, automatic. This is true also of the Kingdom of God working either in individual lives or in its working in the whole earth from beginning to the harvest. God's Word is the living powerful seed sown in men's minds and hearts. It will sprout and grow and produce a crop, though men may not understand how or be able to see it or control it. Compare 1 Cor 3:6,7; 1 Pet 1:23-25.

This is strong encouragement to preachers of the gospel, to teachers of God's truth. They should have great confidence in the power of the Word and working of God. But the fact that there is spontaneous growth does not relieve those who hear God's Word from responsibility - see vs 23,24.

"Harvest" - compare Matt 3:12; 13:30; Rev 14:14-16.

4:30-32 Matt 13:31,32.

4:33 Some things the disciples could not grasp. Compare John 16:12. Jesus used comparisons and illustrations to illuminate all His teachings. It is likely that He used many which are not recorded in the Bible. Compare John 20:30; 21:25.

4:34 Verses 13-20 is one example of the explanations Jesus gave. Matt 13:36-43 is another.

4:35-41 Matt 8:23-27.

said to the lake, "Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 And he said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?"

41 And they were very afraid, and said to one another, "What kind of a man is this, that even the wind and the lake obey him?"

5 And they came over to the other side of the lake, into the country of the Gadarenes. 2 And when he came out of the boat, immediately, out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit met him. 3 The man had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, not even with chains. 4 Because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been pulled apart, and the shackles broken in pieces by him. And no one could tame him. 5 And night and day, he was always in the mountains and in the tombs crying out and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus at a distance, he ran and worshipped him, 7 and cried out with a loud voice, and said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I plead with you by God not to torment me."

8 For he had said to him, "Come out of the man, unclean spirit."

9 And he asked him, "What is your name?" And he answered, saying, "My name is Legion, for we are many."

10 And he begged him at length that he would not send them away out of the country. 11 Now a large herd of pigs was there feeding near the mountains.

12 And all the demons begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, so that we can go into them."

13 And immediately Jesus gave them

5:1-20 This is a fuller account of the event recorded in Matt 8:28-34. Matthew says there were two demon-possessed men. Mark singles out one of them for special notice, and so does not mention the other one.

5:2 Notes on demon possession at Matt 4:24.

5:3-5 This is a very vivid description of what demons can do to a person under their control. This man's violent behavior and strength may be attributed to the fact that he was possessed by a great many demons (v 9).

5:7 It seems that demons always knew who Jesus was - 1:24,34.

5:9 A legion in the Roman army was between three and six thousand men. Yet in vs 2 and 8 it seems there was only one spirit. This is probably because there was one who was the leader, the "commanding officer" of the legion of demons in the man, and Jesus dealt principally with that one.

5:10 Compare Luke 8:31.

5:15 They realized that Jesus had displayed some wonderful power, but they did not understand who He was and what His permission. And the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down a steep place into the lake (there were about two thousand of them), and were drowned in the lake. 14 And those who had been feeding the pigs ran off, and told this in the city and countryside. And they went out to see what had happened. 15 And they came to Jesus and saw the one who had been demon-possessed, the one who had the legion, sitting there clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.

16 And those who had seen it told them what had happened to the demon-possessed man, and also about the pigs. 17 And they began to plead with Jesus to leave their region.

18 And when he got into the boat, the one who had been demon-possessed begged him that he might be with him. 19 However Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, "Go home to your own family, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how he has had compassion on you." 20 And he left and began to proclaim in Decapolis what great things Jesus had done for him. And everyone was amazed.

21 And when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, many people gathered to him. And he was near the lake. 22 And, suddenly, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came to him, and seeing him, fell at his feet 23 and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. Please come and place your hands on her, so that she may be healed and live."

24 And Jesus went with him, and many people were following him and crowding him. 25 And a certain woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, 26 and had suffered many things from purpose was - and the sad fact is they did not want to understand (v 17).

5:19 "Tell them" - compare these instructions of Jesus with some others (1:44; 3:12). But circumstances in the region of the Gadarenes (v 1) were quite different from that in the land of Israel. The Gadarenes were not Jews, had no expectation of a Messiah, and Jesus was rarely there. There was no danger there of crowds hindering Him from accomplishing His mission. Now these words Jesus spoke to this man apply to all who have experienced the Lord's working in their lives.

5:20 Decapolis is a Greek name meaning ten cities. The region of the Gadarenes was a part of the area called the Decapolis.

5:21 He returned to the western side of the lake of Galilee.

5:22-43 Here is a much expanded account of events found briefly in Matt 9:18-25.

5:25 Verse 42. She had been suffering all the lifetime of Jairus' daughter.

5:26 Her disease was beyond the ability of many physicians, and had spent all that she had without getting any better, but got worse instead, 27 when she heard about Jesus, came in the crowd behind him and touched his cloak. 28 For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will get well." 29 And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of that affliction.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that power had gone out of him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?"

31 And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowds pressing around you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

32 And he looked around to see the one who had done this thing. 33 But the woman afraid and trembling, knowing what had happened inside her, came and fell down before him and told him all the truth.

34 And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed from your affliction."

35 While he was still speaking, they came from the house of the ruler of the synagogue and said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?"

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid, only believe."

37 And he allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. 38 And he came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw the commotion and those who were loudly weeping and wailing. 39 And when he had come in, he said to them, "Why are you making this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead, but asleep."

40 And they laughed at him. But when he had put them all out, he took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying. 41 And he took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cumi," that is, by translation, "Little girl, I say to you, get up."

42 And immediately the child got up and walked, for she was twelve years of age. They were astonished, and their astonishment was great. 43 And he gave them strict orders that no one should know this, and said that something should be given her to eat.

6 And he left there and came into his native place, and his disciples followed him. 2 And when the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and hearing him many were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things? And what is this wisdom that has been given him, that even such mighty works are performed at his hands? 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, Joses, Judah, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour, except in his native place and among his own relatives and in his own house."

5 And he could do no mighty work there, except that he placed his hands on a few sick folk and healed them. 6 And he marvelled at their unbelief. And he went around the villages teaching.

7 And he called the Twelve and began to send them forth two by two, and gave them power over unclean spirits. 8 And he ordered them not to take anything for the journey, except a staff, no bag, no bread, no money in their belt, 9 but to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.

10 And he said to them, "When you enter a the doctors and medicines of that day. But her faith brought her to one greater than all doctors and human remedies. Compare Ex 15:26; Ps 103:3.

5:30 Luke 8:46. The power of God flows through the Lord Jesus to meet the needs of men who have faith in Him. He did not want the woman to hide her faith, but wished to openly commend her for it and pronounce a blessing on her (v 34).

5:34 Matt 9:22. One reason Jesus came into the world was to bring peace to troubled hearts - Luke 2:14; John 14:1,27; 20:19.

5:35 These men were willing to abandon hope and tried to get Jairus to do the same. They did not realize that death did not take a person beyond the reach of the Lord Jesus. It was as easy for Him to raise the dead as to heal the sick and dying.

5:36 Here are words for believers to write across all the experiences of life. Fear unresisted can weaken or almost destroy faith; faith exercised can remove fear.

5:39,40 Matt 9:24.

5:41 Jesus spoke in Aramaic, a language similar to Hebrew commonly spoken in that area at that time.

5:43 See 1:44; 7:36; Matt 8:4.

6:1-5 Matt 13:54-58. Jesus' home town was Nazareth.

6:5 Men's unbelief makes it impossible for the Lord Jesus to do all the good to them that He desires to do. The lack is not in Him but in them. God has appointed the way of faith to receive His special blessings (9:23; Matt 9:22,29; 21:21,22; John 11:40). See note at Ps 78:41.

6:6 "Marvelled" - compare Matt 8:10 - the only other time when Jesus is said to have marvelled.

6:7-11 Matt 10:1,9-14.

house anywhere, stay there until you leave the place. 11 And whoever will not receive you, or listen to you, when you leave there, shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them. Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city."

12 And they went out and preached that men should repent. 13 And they drove out many demons, and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

14 And king Herod heard about him, for his name had become well-known. And he said, "John the Baptist has risen from the dead. Therefore these mighty powers are at work in him."

15 Others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old."

16 But when Herod heard this, he said, "It is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead."

17 For Herod himself had sent out men and seized John, and chained him up in prison, because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; because he had married her. 18 For John had said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."

19 Therefore Herodias held it against him, and wanted to kill him, but she could not, 20 because Herod was afraid of John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he kept him safe. And when he heard him, he did many things. And he was glad to hear him.

21 And a day of opportunity came, when Herod gave a feast on his birthday for his nobles, military commanders and the leading citizens of Galilee. 22 And when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who were sitting with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want, and I will give it to you."

23 And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask from me I will give to you, up to half of my kingdom."

24 And she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist."

25 And immediately she hurried in to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a dish."

26 And the king was very sorry. But because of his oath, and because of those who were sitting with him, he did not want to refuse her. 27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded that his head be brought. And the man went, beheaded him in the prison, 28 brought his head on a dish, and gave it to the girl. And the girl gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard about it, they came and took his corpse, and placed it in a tomb. 30 And the apostles gathered around Jesus and told him everything, both what they had done and what they had taught.

31 And he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place, and rest a while." For many people were coming and going, and they did not have time even to eat.

32 And they went away alone by boat to a deserted place. 33 And the people saw them leaving, and many recognized him, and ran there on foot from all the towns, and got there ahead of them, and gathered around him. 34 And when Jesus came out of the boat, he saw many people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was almost over, his disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and already the hour is late. 36 Send them away, so they can go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy bread for themselves, for they have nothing to eat."

37 He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said to him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred silver coins' worth of bread and give it to them to eat?"

38 He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see." And when they found out they said, "Five, and two fish."

39 And he ordered them to have everyone sit down in groups on the green grass. 40 And they sat down in rows of hundreds and fifties. 41 And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed the loaves and broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. 42 And they all ate, and were full.

43 And they picked up twelve full baskets of pieces of bread and fish. 44 And it was about five thousand men who ate the loaves.

45 And immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go ahead to the other side to Bethsaida, while he sent the people away. 46 And when he had sent them away, he went off into a mountain to pray.

47 And when evening came, the boat was out in the middle of the lake, and he alone on the land. 48 And he saw them straining hard at the oars, for the wind was against them. And about the fourth watch of the night he approached them, walking on the lake, and would have passed by them. 49 But when they saw him walking on the lake, they thought it was a ghost, and cried out, 50 for they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he spoke to them, and said to them, "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

51 And he got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped. And in their hearts they were utterly amazed, beyond measure, and wondered. 52 For they did not consider the miracle of the loaves, for their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret, and drew up to the shore. 54 And when they came out of the boat, the people immediately recognized him, 55 ran throughout that whole surrounding region, and began to carry the sick on cots to wherever they heard he was. 56 And wherever he went, into villages, or cities, or countryside, they placed the sick in the marketplaces and begged him to let them touch even the hem of his cloak. And as many as touched him were made well.

7 Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him. 2 And when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with "defiled," that is, unwashed hands, they found fault. 3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they wash their hands in a certain way, holding to the tradition of the elders. 4 And when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And many other things there be, which they have received to keep, such as the washing of cups, pots, bronze vessels, and tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not behave according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?"

6 He answered and said to them, "Well has Isaiah prophesied about you hypocrites, as it is written:

This people honour me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 But they worship me in vain, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.

8 "For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold to the tradition of men, such as the washing of pots and cups. And you do many other such things."

9 And he said to them, "You are good at setting aside the commandment of God, so that you can keep your own tradition. 10 For Moses said, 'Honour your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever curses father or mother, must be put to death.' 11 But you say that if a man tells his father or mother, 'Anything of mine that might have been useful to you is Corban' (that is, an offering to God), it is all right.' 12 And you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother, 13 thus making the word of God without effect through your tradition, which you have handed down. And you do many such things."

14 And calling the whole crowd, he said to them, "Everyone listen to me and understand. 15 There is nothing that enters the man from outside that can defile him; but the things that defile the man are those that come from within him. 16 If any one has ears to hear, let him hear."

17 And when he came away from the people into the house, his disciples asked him about the parable.

18 And he said to them, "Are you also so lacking in understanding? Do you not see that whatever enters into a man from outside cannot defile him, 19 because it does not come into his heart, but into the stomach, and is eliminated?" (By saying this he declared all foods clean.)

20 And he said, "That which comes from within the man, that defiles the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, come evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 thefts, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustfulness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. 23 All these evil things come from within and defile the man."

24 And he got up from there and travelled to the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and went into a house, but did not want anyone to know it. But he could not escape notice. 25 For a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him and came and fell at his feet. 26 The woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician by race. And she begged him to drive the demon out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said to her, "First, let the children be filled. For it is not proper to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

28 And she answered and said to him, "Yes, Lord. Yet the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

29 And he said to her, "Because of this statement go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter."

30 And when she arrived at her house, she found that the demon had left, and her daughter was lying on the bed.

31 And leaving the region of Tyre and Sidon, he came again to the lake of Galilee, through the middle of the region of Decapolis. 32 And they brought to him a person who was deaf and who had a speech impediment, and they begged him to put his hand on him. 33 And he took him apart from the crowd, and putting his fingers into his ears, he spit and touched his tongue. 34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." 35 And immediately his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke clearly. 36 And he ordered them not to tell anyone, but the more firmly he ordered them, the more extensively they publicized it.

37 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak."

8 In those days the crowd being very large, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples and said to them, 2 "I have compassion for the crowd, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat. 3 If I send them away fasting to their own homes, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come from a distance."

4 And his disciples answered him, "Where can anyone get enough bread here in the wilderness to satisfy these people?"

5 And he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven."

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks and broke them, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people. And they set them before the crowd. 7 And they had a few small fish. And he blessed them, and gave a command to distribute these to them. 8 So they ate and were satisfied. And they picked up seven basketfuls of the pieces of food that were left. 9 And about four thousand men had eaten. And he sent them away.

10 And immediately he got into a boat with his disciples, and went to the region of Dalmanutha. 11 And the Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking a sign from heaven from him, testing him. 12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek for a sign? Truly I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation."

13 And he left them, got in the boat again and went away to the other side. 14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take along bread, and they did not have more than one loaf in the boat with them. 15 And he warned them, saying, "Be careful! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread."

17 And Jesus, knowing this, said to them, "Why are you reasoning because you have no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Is your heart still hardened? 18 You have eyes. Do you not see? And you have ears. Do you not hear? And do you not remember? 19 When I broke the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you pick up?" They said to him, "Twelve." 20 And when I broke the seven loaves among four thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you pick up?" And they said, "Seven."

21 And he said to them, "How is it that you do not understand?"

22 And he arrived at Bethsaida. And they brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him. 23 And he took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when he had spit on his eyes and put his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything. 24 And he looked up

27 And Jesus and his disciples went away to the towns of Caesarea Philippi, and on the road he questioned his disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?"

28 And they answered, "John the Baptist. But some say, 'Elijah', and others, 'One of the prophets.'"

29 And he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" And Peter answered and said to him, "You are the Christ."

30 And he ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

31 And he began to teach them that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 And he spoke this word openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

33 But turning around and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are not thinking of the things of God, but of the things of men."

34 And when he had called the people, along with his disciples, he said to them, "Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 35 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and for the gospel, will save it. 36 For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? 37 Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? 38 Therefore, whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man will also be ashamed of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

blindness, nor was it necessary for Jesus to touch the man to heal him (Matt 8:8,13). Perhaps by such actions (also in 7:33) Jesus was encouraging faith.

8:24,25 At first he could not see clearly. This is the only recorded time that Jesus healed anyone in stages. The reason for it is not given. Perhaps the man's faith was deficient at first and grew by this method Jesus used. Perhaps He wanted others in need of healing who would read about this, or hear of it, not to be discouraged if they are not healed in a moment. Jesus may choose to heal them by degrees. In the spiritual realm also men often are given slowly developing spiritual sight.

2 And after six days Jesus took Peter, James and John and led them up into a high mountain alone by themselves. And he was transfigured in front of them. 3 And his clothing became shining, as exceedingly white as snow, as no one on earth bleaching them could whiten them. 4 And Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter responded and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. And let us make three tabernacles, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 6 For he did not know what to say, for they were very frightened.

7 And a cloud came and covered them with shadow. And a voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

8 And suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone, but only Jesus with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen, until the Son of man had risen from the dead. 10 And they kept this word to themselves, questioning one another what rising from the dead meant.

11 And they asked him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must first come?"

12 And he answered and told them, "Elijah indeed comes first and restores all things. And yet how is it written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be treated with contempt? 13 But I tell you that Elijah has also come, and they did to him whatever they wished, just as it is written about him."

14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great crowd around them, and the scribes questioning them. 15 And immediately, when they the approval of others may make men ashamed of Christ and His Gospel.

9:1 Matt 16-28.

9:2-13 Matt 17:1-13.

9:6 Luke 9:33. When we don't know what to say, it is usually better to say nothing. Yet from Peter's unwise remark we learn that the disciples recognized Moses and Elijah (who had both died many centuries before).

9:12 The Lord points them to the Old Testament. See Isaiah chapter 53 and psalm 22.

9:14-32 This is a fuller account of Matt 17:14-23. Matthew does not mention this argument. Since these disciples were unable to heal the demon-possessed boy, the argument probably had to do with that, and possibly had to do with the power of Jesus to perform miracles (compare 3:22).

9:15 "Amazed" - possibly they were much saw him, all the people were greatly amazed, and running to him, greeted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, "What are you asking them?"

17 And one of the crowd answered and said, "Teacher, I brought my son to you. He has a mute spirit. 18 And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down. And he foams at the mouth and gnashes with his teeth. And he is wasting away. And I spoke to your disciples, so that they would drive it out, but they could not."

19 He answered him and said, "O unbelieving generation, how long will I be with you? How long must I endure you? Bring him to me."

20 And they brought him to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it threw him into convulsions. And he fell on the ground, and rolled around foaming at the mouth.

21 And he asked his father, "How long has it been since this came to him?" And he said, "From childhood. 22 And often it has tried to destroy him by throwing him into the fire, and into the waters. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

23 Jesus said to him, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes."

24 And immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief."

25 When Jesus saw that the people were running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, "Mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and do not go into him again."

26 And the spirit cried out, threw him into severe convulsions, and came out of him. And he was like someone dead, so that many said, "He is dead." 27 But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him to his feet. And so he got up.

28 And when Jesus came into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we drive him out?"

29 And he said to them, "This kind can go out by nothing except prayer and fasting."

30 And they left there and passed through Galilee. And he did not want anyone to know it. 31 For he was teaching his disciples, and said to them, "The Son of man is going to be delivered up into the hands of men, and they will kill him. And after he has been killed, he will rise the third day."

32 But they did not understand this statement, and were afraid to ask him.

33 And he came to Capernaum. And in the house he asked them, "What was it you were disputing about among yourselves on the way?"

34 But they kept silent, for on the way they had been disputing among themselves about who was the greatest.

35 And he sat down and called the Twelve and said to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be the last of all, and servant of all."

36 And he took a child and placed him among them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them, 37 "Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives not me but him who sent me."

38 And John answered him, saying, "Teacher, surprised at His sudden appearance.

9:16 Jesus was not ignorant of the cause of the argument (Matt 9:4; John 1:47-49; 12:24,25; 21:17), but was encouraging the father of the boy to speak up.

9:17,18 Observe here some of the symptoms of some cases of demon possession. See also vs 20,22,26.

9:22 The man doubted the power of Jesus. Perhaps he thought that if Jesus' representatives (the disciples) could not do anything neither could Jesus do anything. Men may falsely judge the power and authority of Christ by seeing the weakness of Christians.

9:23 Again we see the teaching of the Bible that faith opens the way for God to work, and unbelief hinders Him from working (6:5). Faith makes a channel for God's power. It is a hand that grasps omnipotence.

9:24 The man was conscious of the weakness of his faith, of a mixture of belief and unbelief in his heart. And he cries to the Lord Jesus for help in this too (v 21). Jesus answered both his prayers. Do not all believers have the same struggle with unbelief this man had? Help will come from the same one who helped him (Heb 12:2).

9:25 This evil spirit was a demon which robbed the boy of his ability to hear and speak. This is the only time it is recorded that Jesus forbade an evil spirit to re-enter a person, though, for all we know, He may have done so at other times. That evil spirits sometime may do so seems clear from Matt 12:43-45.

9:29 It seems that some demons are more determined than others and that more earnest and persistent effort is required to drive them out.

9:30,31 This teaching was not yet for the whole world, but only for His disciples. Now it is at the heart of the message His disciples declare to all the world (Luke 24:45; 1 Cor 15:3,4).

9:32 Verse 10; 8:31-33. Though they were disciples they were still dull in spiritual matters – as many of Jesus' disciples today are. Compare Paul's wonderful prayer in Eph 1:17-19.

9:34 Luke 22:24. See Jer 45:5.

9:35 Matt 18:4; 20:26-28.

9:37 Matt 18:5; 10:40.

9:38 Among the disciples of Jesus there is always the danger of the spirit of narrowness and exclusiveness, the danger of

we saw someone who does not follow us driving out demons in your name, and we told him to stop, because he does not follow us."

39 But Jesus said, "Do not tell him to stop, for no one who does a miracle in my name, can soon say something bad about me. 40 For he who is not against us is for us. 41 For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you belong to Christ, truly I say to you, he will not lose his reward. 42 And whoever is a cause of stumbling to one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for him if a millstone were hanged around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea.

43 "And if your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that will never be quenched, 44 where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched. 45 And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, than having two feet to be thrown into hell, into the fire that will never be quenched, 46 where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched. 47 And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be thrown into hell fire, 48 where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched. 49 For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt.

50 "Salt is good. But if the salt loses its saltiness, what will you season it with? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

some thinking their group is the only true one and that only they have the right to do the work of God. This attitude that excludes others and counts them as unworthy is itself completely unworthy to be in any believer's heart. Compare Num 11:25-29; 1 Cor 1:10-13.

9:40 This is the other side of Matt 12:30.

9:41 Matt 10:40-42.

9:42-47 Matt 18:6-9; 5:29,30.

9:48 This is a quotation from Isa 66:24. Hell can be compared to a vast and terrible rubbish heap where fires continually burn and where worms living in the rubbish gnaw on the dead. There was such a rubbish heap outside the walls of Jerusalem in the valley of Gehenna. Gehenna is the very word translated "hell" in 12 places of the New Testament, all in Matthew and Mark, except once in Luke and once in James. Jesus gave an awful picture of the doom which awaits sinful human beings, and ignoring it is extremely foolish. See also Matt 5:22; Luke 16:23,24; Rev 20:14,15. All those who choose the rubbish and garbage of this world (Phil 3:8) and reject salvation through Christ, all those who make themselves vile and worthless will go to the rubbish heap of

10 And then he got up and went into the region of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. and the people gathered around him again. And, as his custom was, he taught them again. 2 And the Pharisees came to him and asked him, testing him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

3 And he answered and said to them, "What did Moses command you?"

4 And they said, "Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her."

5 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. 6 But from the beginning of the creation 'God made them male and female.' 7 'For this cause a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, 8 and the two will become one flesh.' So then they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore what God has joined together, let man not divide."

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again about the same matter.

11 And he said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, is committing adultery against her. 12 And if a woman divorces her husband and gets married to another, she is committing adultery."

13 And they brought young children to him, so that he might touch them, and the disciples rebuked those who brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was very displeased, and said to them, "Permit the little children to come unto me, and do not stop them, the universe. This will be perfect divine justice at work.

How earnestly, then, should every human being "cut off" his sins and those influences which lead him to sin!

9:49 It is difficult to discern the meaning of this verse and its connection with the verses before and after it. Salt and fire are joined together to describe something of what men will undergo. Salt preserves, fire consumes. Some scholars think the meaning is that the eternal fires of hell will always be consuming those who will always be preserved from being completely consumed. If "everyone" means literally all men the verse could mean that the lost will be salted with fire in hell, the saved will be purified with fire now (Ps 66:12; Mal 3:2; 1 Pet 1:7).

9:50 Matt 5:13. Salt is here used as a symbol of discipleship to the Lord Jesus. Compare Luke 14:34 with its context. Peace is to be a mark of true disciples. Compare Matt 5:9.

10:1-16 See Matt 19:1-15.

10:1 See 2:13; 4:2; 6:6,34; Matt 4:23; Ps 24:4,5. The Lord Jesus still delights to teach people the truth.

for to such as these the kingdom of God belongs. 15 Truly I say to you, whoever will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child, will not enter it."

16 And he took them up in his arms, placed his hands on them and blessed them.

17 And when he was going out on the road, one came running and knelt in front of him and asked him, "Good teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

18 And Jesus said to him, "Why are you calling me good? God alone is good, no one else. 19 You know the commandments, do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honour your father and mother."

20 And he answered and said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these from my boyhood."

21 Then Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross and follow me."

22 And he was sad at these words, and went away grieving, for he had great wealth.

23 And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!"

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying among themselves, "Who then can be saved?"

27 And Jesus, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God. For with God all things are possible."

28 Then Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and have followed you."

29 And Jesus answered and said, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, 30 who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the world to come, eternal life. 31 But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

32 And they were on the road going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going in front of them. And they were amazed, and those who followed were afraid. And again he took the Twelve aside, and began to tell them what was going to happen to him,

33 "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be handed over to the chief priests, and to the scribes. And they will condemn him to death, and will hand him over to the Gentiles. 34 And they will mock him and whip him and spit on him and kill him. And the third day he will rise again."

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask."

36 And he said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

37 They said to him, "Grant us that in your glory we may sit one at your right hand and the other at your left hand."

38 But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink of the cup that I drink of? And be submerged in the baptism that I am submerged in?"

39 And they said to him, "We can." And Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink of the cup that I drink of, and be submerged in the baptism that I am submerged in. 40 But to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but will be

10:15 Matt 18:3.

10:17-31 See the notes at Matthew 19:16-30.

10:17 He came eagerly and reverently, but still went away sad (v 22).

10:21 Jesus now put a very severe test to this young man, but He did so because His divine love flooded His heart and He desired the man's highest good. We may be sure that when the Lord asks us to do something hard and painful to us, it is because He loves us, and because we very much need to do that thing.

10:22 It is clear that this man put a higher value on what he had than on Christ and eternal life. Why should God give to anyone something they value so little? Compare Prov 4:7; Luke 14:33.

10:24 "Children" - Jesus called them children because in a spiritual sense His disciples, though full-grown men, were like little children to Him. See Matt 10:42.

10:30 Persecutions too will follow those who follow Christ - Matt 24:9; Luke 11:29; 21:12; John 15:20; Acts 7:52; 1 Thess 3:4; 2 Tim 3:12. But they are not worthy to be compared to the glory they will receive - Rom 8:18; 2 Cor 4:17.

10:32-45 Matt 20:17-28.

10:32 There was something in His manner and His face which filled His disciples with alarm.

10:34 Compare Luke 9:51; Isa 50:7.

10:35 Their mother was with them, and both she and they made this request (Matt 20:20,21).

10:38 Like the word "cup," baptism here is used figuratively, as a symbol. Jesus is not referring to water baptism, but being immersed in trials and sufferings. Compare Luke 12:50.

given to those for whom it has been prepared.”

41 And when the remaining ten disciples heard this, they began to be very displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that those who are counted as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 43 But it must not be so among you, but whoever wants to be great among you, shall be your servant, 44 and whoever of you wants to be first must be the slave of all. 45 For even the Son of man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

46 And they came to Jericho. And as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, “Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me.”

48 And many rebuked him so that he would keep silent, but he cried out even more, “Son of David, have mercy on me.”

49 And Jesus stood still and ordered him to be called. And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart! Get up. He is calling you.” 50 And he, throwing aside his cloak, got up and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “Rabbi, I want to receive my sight.”

52 And Jesus said to him, “Go, your faith has healed you.” And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus on the road.

11 And when they came near Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives he sent off two of his disciples, 2 and said to them, “Go into the village opposite you. And as soon as you get into it, you will find a colt tied up, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it. 3 And if any one says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say that the Lord needs it. And immediately he will send it here.”

4 And they went their way and found the colt tied by a door outside in the street and untied him. 5 And some of those who stood there said to them,

“What are you doing, untying the colt?” 6 And they told them just as Jesus had commanded, and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and threw their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. 8 And many spread their cloaks in the road. And others cut branches off the trees, and spread them in the road. 9 And those who went in front, and those who followed, cried out, saying, “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! 10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”

11 And Jesus came into Jerusalem and into the temple. And when he had looked around at everything, since the hour was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

12 And the next day, after they had left Bethany, he became hungry. 13 And seeing at a distance a fig tree that had leaves, he went to find out if there was anything on it. And when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not yet the season for figs.

14 And Jesus responded and said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples were listening.

15 And they came to Jerusalem, and Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who were selling and buying in the temple. And he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. 16 And he would not let anyone carry utensils through the temple.

17 And he taught them, saying, “Is it not written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations?’ But you have made it a den of thieves.”

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard this and began looking for a way to destroy him, for they were afraid of him, because all the people were astonished at his teaching.

19 And when evening came, he went out of the city. 20 And in the morning, as they went along, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter, remembering, said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away.”

22 And Jesus in answer said to them, “Have faith in God. 23 For truly I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be removed, and thrown 10:46-52 Matt 20:29-34. Matthew says two blind men were healed at this time. Mark singles out one of them for special notice (compare 5:1,2).

into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will take place, he will have whatever he says. 24 Therefore I say to you, whatever you ask for when you pray, believe that you will receive it, and you will have it.

25 "And when you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive, so that your Father who is in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses. 26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses."

27 And they returned to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him, 28 and said to him, "By what authority are you doing these things? And who gave you the authority to do these things?"

29 And Jesus answered and said to them, "I will also ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me."

31 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32 But if we say, 'From men?'" They were afraid of the people, for everyone held that John was, in fact, a prophet.

33 And they answered and said to Jesus, "We cannot tell." And Jesus, answering, said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

12 And he began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard, set a hedge around it, dug out a place for a wine press, and built a tower. Then he rented it out to vine growers, and went to a far country. 2 And at harvest season he sent a servant to the vine growers so that he might receive his share of the produce of the vineyard from the vine growers. 3 And they seized him and beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

4 "And, again, he sent another servant to them. And they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away, shamefully treated. 5 And then he sent another servant. And him they killed. And so they dealt with many others, beating some, and killing some.

6 "So still having one son, his beloved one, last of all he sent him also to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

7 "But those vine growers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 And they took him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

9 "Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy those vine growers and give the vineyard to others. 10 And have you not read this Scripture? 'The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. 11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?'"

12 And they looked for a way to seize him, but were afraid of the people. For they knew that he had spoken the parable against them. And they left him, and went away. 13 And they sent to him some of the Pharisees and some of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they came, they said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and do not care about anyone's opinion, because you don't look at anyone's outward appearance, but teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? 15 Should we pay, or should we not pay?" But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why are you testing me? Bring me a silver coin so I can see it."

16 And they brought it, and he said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" And they said to him, "Caesar's."

17 And Jesus, answering, said to them, "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God." And they were amazed at him.

18 Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him, and asked him, saying, 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote this for us: If a man's brother dies and leaves behind a wife, but leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. 20 Now there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and dying left no children. 21 And the second took 11:24 Again the Lord Jesus emphasizes the power of faith (2:5; 5:34; 6:5; 10:52; Matt 9:22). If we really believe that God has answered our prayer He will infallibly give what we asked. How is this faith possible? Not by trying to talk ourselves into thinking God has heard us when we believe He has not. True faith is our response to the Word of God, and a result of the Holy Spirit working in our heart. Compare Rom 8:26; 1 John 5:14,15. See Matt 9:22.

11:25 Notice the words "stand praying." The Bible does not say that one posture in prayer is better than another.

her as his wife, and died, and he also left no children. And the third also. 22 And the seven had her as a wife, and left no children. Last of all the woman also died. 23 Therefore in the resurrection, when they rise, among them whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."

24 And Jesus, answering, said to them, "The reason you are in error is because you do not know either the Scriptures or the power of God. 25 For when they rise from the dead, they will not marry or be given in marriage, but will be like the angels who are in heaven. 26 And concerning the fact that the dead rise, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?' 27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. So you are greatly deceived."

28 And one of the scribes came, and hearing them debating and seeing that Jesus answered them well, he asked him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"

29 And Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is, 'Hear, O Israel, The Lord our God is one Lord, 30 and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment. 31 And the second is like it, namely this, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

32 And the scribe said to him, "Excellent! Teacher, you have spoken the truth. There is one God, and there is no one else besides him. 33 And to love him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the soul and with all the strength one has, and to love one's neighbour as oneself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And after that no one dared to ask him any question.

35 And Jesus, while he was teaching in the temple, responded to them and said, "How is it the scribes say that Christ is the son of David? 36 For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, 'The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool.' 37 Therefore, David himself calls him Lord. So how is he his son?" And the common people heard him gladly.

38 And in his teaching he said to them, "Beware of the scribes! They like going around in long robes, and greetings in the marketplaces, 39 and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts. 40 But they devour widows' houses, and in pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

41 And Jesus sat opposite the treasury, and watched how the people put money into the treasury. And many who were rich cast in large sums. 42 And a poor widow came and put in two copper coins, which amounted to a penny.

43 And he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who put money in the treasury. 44 For all of them put in out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in everything, all she had to live on."

13 And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Teacher, see what kind of stones and what buildings are here!"

2 And Jesus in answering said to him, "You see these great buildings? There will not be one stone 12:29 Deut 6:4. "Lord" - here refers to Jehovah - God's name in the Old Testament.

12:33 See 1 Sam 15:22; Hos 6:6; Micah 6:6-8.

12:34 This man showed some spiritual understanding and some humility in confessing that the Lord Jesus had answered correctly. He was near God's kingdom, but not yet in it. No doubt there are many in every generation in a similar state. Note on God's kingdom at Matt 4:17.

12:35 "Son of David" - note at Matt 1:1.

12:38,39 Compare Matt 23:5-7.

12:40 They were outwardly pious, but secretly greedy and merciless, preying on the weak and helpless. Compare Matt 23:25-28. (The whole of Matthew chapter 23 is a fearless exposure of the mind and ways of religious hypocrites.)

12:41 The treasury was in an outer court of the temple.

12:42 The Greek word for coins here signifies the smallest coins in use in the country. She gave two coins, not even keeping one for herself. She did not consider even a half of what she had a sufficient offering to God.

12:41-44 The Lord Jesus here teaches us some much needed lessons about giving to God. Now also He watches what we offer. Compare Heb 4:12,13. He is not impressed by the large offerings of the rich who keep far more for themselves than they give to God. In His eyes, the smallest possible gift to God may be far greater than large amounts. He regards the motive of the giver, and the cost and sacrifice involved in the giving. He sees not merely how much a person gives, but how much he keeps for himself. We may see here also that the Lord Jesus delights in the offerings given by poor believers. Compare 2 Cor 8:1-5,12. Notes and references on giving at 2 Cor 9:15.

13:1-37 Matt 24:1-51.

13:1,2 Even disciples of Jesus may too much admire the works of men and think they are left on another, that will not be thrown down.”

3 And while he was sitting on the mount of Olives across from the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew questioned him privately, 4 “Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign when all these things are about to be fulfilled?”

5 And answering them Jesus began to say, “Watch out that no one deceives you, 6 for many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am Christ, and will deceive many. 7 And when you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be troubled, for these things must take place, but that is not yet the end. 8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and disturbances. These are the beginnings of birthpangs.

9 “But be on your guard, for they will hand you over to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. And you will be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, as a testimony to them.

10 “And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations.

11 “But when they lead you away and hand you over, do not be anxious beforehand about what you will say, or meditate about it. But whatever is given you at that time, speak that, for it will not be you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

12 “And brother will betray brother to death, and father his son. And children will revolt against parents, and will cause them to be put to death. 13 And you will be hated by all men for my name’s sake. But whoever endures to the end, he will be saved.

14 “But when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it should not (let him who reads understand), then those who are in Judea should flee to the mountains. 15 And the one who is on the housetop should not go down to the house, or enter it to take anything out of his house. 16 And the one who is in the field should not turn back to pick up his cloak. 17 But woe to those who are pregnant, and to those who are nursing infants in those days! 18 And pray that your flight will not be in winter.

19 “For in those days there will be tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, and never will be again. 20 And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved, but for the sake of the elect, whom he has chosen, he has shortened those days.

21 “And then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is Christ’ or, ‘look, he is there,’ do not believe it. 22 For false Christs and false prophets will arise, and will show signs and miracles, to deceive even the chosen, if that were possible. 23 But watch out! See, I have told you everything beforehand.

24 “But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light, 25 and the stars of heaven will be falling, and the powers that are in heaven will be shaken.

26 “And then they will see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. 27 And then he will send his angels and gather his chosen ones from the four winds, from the farthest part of the earth to the farthest part of heaven.

28 “Now learn a parable from the fig tree. As soon as its branch becomes tender and produces leaves, you know that summer is near. 29 So in the same way, when you see these things take place, know that he is near, even at the doors.

30 “Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away, until all these things have taken place. 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 32 But no one knows of that day and that hour, no, not even the angels who are in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

33 “Watch out, be alert and pray, for you do not know when the set time is. 34 For the Son of man is like a man in a far country who has left his house and has given authority to his servants and to each one his work, and has commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch.

35 “Therefore keep watch, for you do not know when the owner of the house will come, whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning, 36 so that coming suddenly he will not find you sleeping. 37 And what I say to you I say to everyone, Keep watch.”

14 The Feast of the Passover and Unleavened Bread was two days away, and the chief priests and the scribes looked for a way valuable because of their beauty. In the end all of man’s grand works will come tumbling down. See Isa 2:6-22; Rev 18:9-24.

13:30 “This generation” – or “this race.”

to seize him by deceit and put him to death. 2 But they said, "Not on the feast day, or there may be a riot among the people."

3 And while he was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, sitting at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of fragrant oil of spikenard. It was very valuable, but she broke the jar and poured it on his head. 4 And among them some were indignant, and said, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted? 5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred silver pieces and given to the poor." And they complained against her.

6 And Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good deed to me. 7 For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want you can do good to them. But you will not always have me. 8 She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint my body for burial. 9 Truly I say to you, in the whole world wherever this gospel is preached, what she has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to betray him to them. 11 And when they heard this, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he looked for a way to betray him at an opportune time.

12 And on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened bread, when they killed the Passover, his disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

13 And he sent off two of his disciples, saying to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. 14 And say to the owner of the house where he enters, 'The Teacher says, 'Where is the guest room where I will eat the Passover with my disciples?' 15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared. Make preparations for us there."

16 And his disciples went off, entered the city, and found things just as he had told them. And they prepared the Passover. 17 And in the evening he came with the Twelve.

18 And while they were sitting and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, one of you who is eating with me will betray me."

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?"

20 And he answered and said to them, "It is one of the Twelve, one who is dipping with me in the bowl. 21 The Son of man indeed is going just as it is written about him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It would be good for that man if he had never been born."

22 And while they ate, Jesus took bread and blessed it. Then he broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

24 And he said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many. 25 Truly I say to you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."

26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus said to them, "This night all of you will stumble because of me. For it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.' 28 But after I have risen, I will go before you to Galilee."

29 But Peter said to him, "Even though all stumble, still I will not."

30 And Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, this day, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."

31 But he spoke even more strongly, "Even if I have to die with you, I will not at all deny you." And they all said the same.

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane. Then he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

33 And he took Peter and James and John with him, and began to be very troubled and heavy-hearted. 34 And he said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and keep watch."

35 And he went a little farther, and prostrated himself on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. 36 And he said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to you.

14:4 It was the disciples as a whole who said this (Matt 26:8), and Judas was the foremost in doing so (see also John 12:4,5. This may have been on a different occasion. See note at John 12:2).

14:5 "Three hundred silver pieces" – the Greek here has "three hundred denarii," which was the equivalent of 300 days labor.

14:11 Base betrayal and an opportunity to kill the holiest and best person who ever lived delighted them. Could any word better reveal the total depravity of their character? To do evil reluctantly is one thing, to delight in it is another and far worse thing.

14:13-15 Another example of Christ's ability to see events in their detail which had not yet happened.

14:24 Matthew 26:28 gives the reason for this shedding of Christ's blood.

14:27 Zech 13:7.

14:36 "Abba" is a word in the Aramaic

Take this cup away from me. Nevertheless, not what I will, but what you will."

37 And he came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not keep watch one hour? 38 Watch and pray, so that you will not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is ready, but the flesh is weak." 39 And again he went off and prayed, and spoke the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them sleeping again (for their eyes were heavy), and they did not know what to answer him. 41 And he came the third time, and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough. The hour has come. Look, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Get up. Let us go. See, the one who betrays me is at hand."

43 And immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, came. And with him was a large crowd with swords and clubs, coming from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44 And the one who betrayed him had arranged a signal with them, saying, "Whoever I kiss, he is the one. Grab him and lead him away under guard."

45 And as soon as he came, he went up to him immediately and said, "Rabbi, rabbi!" and kissed him.

46 And they put their hands on him, and seized him. 47 And one of those standing near by drew a sword and struck a servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

48 And Jesus responded and said to them, "Have you come out as against a thief, with swords and clubs to seize me? 49 I was with you daily, teaching in the temple, and you did not seize me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."

50 Then all his disciples deserted him and ran away.

51 And a certain young man wearing a linen cloth over his naked body, followed him. And the young men seized him. 52 And he ran away from them naked, leaving the linen cloth behind.

53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes were assembled with him. 54 And Peter followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest, and he sat down with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests and all the council looked for some testimony against Jesus to put him to death, but did not find any. 56 For many gave false testimony against him, but their testimony did not agree. 57 Then some men got up and gave false testimony against him, saying, 58 "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made by hands, and in three days I will build another without hands.'"

59 But not even then did their testimony agree.

60 And the high priest stood up among them and asked Jesus, saying, "Will you give no answer? What is it that these men testify against you?"

61 But he kept silent and gave no answer. Again the high priest asked him, saying to him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"

62 And Jesus said, "I am. And you will see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven."

63 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "What need do we have of any further witnesses? 64 You have heard this blasphemy. What do you think?" And they all condemned him declaring him to be worthy of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face and beat him with fists, and to say to him, "Prophecy." And the officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

66 And while Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came by, 67 and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "And you were also with Jesus of Nazareth."

68 But he denied it, saying, "I don't know what you are saying. I don't understand it." And he went out on the porch. And the rooster crowed.

69 And the servant girl, seeing him again, began to say to those who were standing near by, "This is one of them."

70 And he denied it again. And after a little while, those who were standing by said to Peter again, "You certainly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your way of speaking is like that."

71 But he began to curse and swear, saying, "I don't know this man you are speaking about."

72 And the second time the rooster crowed. And Peter remembered the word that Jesus said to language meaning "father." It was possible for God the Father to save Christ from suffering and death, but it was not His will. To rescue Christ would be to forsake the plan of salvation He had devised for men and to abandon them to their doom.

14:51,52 Only Mark records this. It is likely that the young man was Mark himself. Otherwise it is very difficult to understand why he mentioned this event.

14:54 Matt 26:58 tells why Peter went into the courtyard.

14:55 "Council" - the Sanhedrin - Matt 5:22.

14:58 This is a twisting of Jesus' words found in John 2:19. Jesus did not say He would destroy the man-made temple.

14:69 The whole group in the courtyard became suspicious of Peter, and several of them questioned him or spoke to others there about him - the servant girl (twice), another girl (Matt 26:71), a man (Luke him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." And thinking of it, he wept.

15 And in the morning the chief priests immediately held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and they bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. 2 And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And answering he said to him, "It is as you say."

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things, but he gave no answer.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, "Will you give no answer? See how many things they testify against you."

5 But Jesus still gave no answer, so that Pilate was amazed.

6 Now at that feast he used to release to them any one prisoner whom they requested. 7 And there was one named Barabbas. He was imprisoned with those who had rebelled with him, and who had committed murder in the rebellion. 8 And the crowd began to cry out and ask Pilate to do as he had always done for them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release the King of the Jews to you?"

10 For he knew that the chief priests had handed him over out of envy.

11 But the chief priests stirred up the people, so that he would release Barabbas to them instead.

12 And Pilate answered and said again to them, "What do you want me to do to the one whom you call the King of the Jews?"

13 And they cried out again, "Crucify him!"

14 Then Pilate said to them, "Why? What evil has he done?" And they cried out all the more, "Crucify him!"

15 And so Pilate, wanting to satisfy the people, released Barabbas to them. And after he had Jesus whipped, he handed him over to be crucified. 16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall called the Praetorium. And they called together the whole Roman garrison. 17 And they dressed him in a purple robe, and wove a crown out of thorns, and put it around his head, 18 and began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 19 And they beat him on the head with a stick, and spit on him, and bowing their knees, they worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they removed the purple robe from him, put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compelled a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. He was passing by, coming from the countryside.

22 And they brought him to the place called Golgotha, which is, being translated, The Place of a Skull. 23 And they gave him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he did not take it.

24 And when they had crucified him, they divided his clothes, casting lots for them to determine what each one should take. 25 And it was nine in the morning when they crucified him. 26 And the inscription of the accusation against him was written like this:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And they crucified two thieves with him, the one at his right hand, and the other at his left. 28 And the Scripture which says, "And he was numbered with the transgressors" was fulfilled.

29 And those who passed by hurled abuse at him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Aha, you who destroy the temple and build it in three days, 30 save yourself and come down from the cross."

31 In the same way the chief priests also, together with the scribes, mocking him, said among themselves, "He saved others; he cannot save himself. 32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come down from the cross, so that we may see and believe." And those who were crucified with him insulted him.

33 And when it was twelve noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

34 And at three o'clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" This is, being translated, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

35 And some of those who stood near by, hearing this, said, "Look, he is calling Elijah." 36 And one of them ran and filled a sponge with wine vinegar, put it on a stick, and offered it to him to drink, saying, "Leave him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes to take him down."

22:58), some who had been around the fire and especially a kinsman of the servant of the high priest (John 18:25,26). All of the Gospel writers mention some of them, none of the writers mention all of them. See note on 4:1-20.

15:1 Matt 27:1,2. Matthew records the suicide of Judas, but Mark ignores it.

15:2-47 Matt 27:11-61.

15:14 See in Matt 27:25 the terrible thing the Jews now said.

15:21 Evidently Alexander and Rufus were two individuals known to many of the readers of this Gospel in that day. We know nothing of them. A Rufus (possibly the same one) is mentioned in Rom 16:13.

15:25 The third hour was nine - in Greek the third hour, that is, the third hour after sunrise.

15:27 "Numbered with the transgressors" - Isa 53:12. The holy, spotless Son of God was regarded as a sinner.

37 And Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and expired.

38 And the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom.

39 And when the centurion who was standing opposite him, saw that he cried out like this, and breathed his last, he said, "This man really was the Son of God."

40 There were also women watching at a distance. Among them was Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome 41 (when he was in Galilee, they also followed him, and performed service for him), and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

42 And now when evening came, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathaea, an honoured member of the Council, who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, arrived and went boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate was surprised that he was already dead. And calling the centurion, he asked him if he had been dead for some time. 45 And when he found this out from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And Joseph bought fine linen, took Jesus down and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he had been put.

16 And when the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought sweet-smelling spices, so that they could come and anoint him. 2 And very early in the morning on the first day of the week, they arrived at the tomb just as the sun was rising. 3 And they said among themselves, "Who will roll the stone away from the door of the tomb for us?"

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled away. 5 And going into the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a long white robe sitting on the right side, and they were frightened.

6 And he said to them, "Do not be afraid. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen. He is not here. See the place where they put him. 7 But go your way. Tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there, just as he said to you."

8 And they went out quickly and ran from the tomb, for they were gripped by trembling and amazement. They did not say anything to anyone, because they were afraid.

9 Now after Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he first appeared to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons. 10 And she went and told those who had been with him, 15:37 "Expired" – a good translation of the Greek here. The expression "gave up the spirit" used by Matthew is different in Greek. 15:38 Matthew 27:51.

15:42 At sunset the Jewish sabbath began and continued until sunset on the following day. During this period no work could be done (see Ex 20:8-11). Therefore Joseph wanted to get the body of Jesus down from the cross and bury it before sunset. The Sabbath mentioned here may have been the special Sabbath which began the seven day feast of Unleavened Bread, and not the regular Sabbath that came on Saturday. Some scholars suggest that Jesus died on Wednesday. Others have suggested Thursday. Others say the day was Friday. It is not a matter of the greatest importance, and we should not be dogmatic about it.

15:43 "Council" means the Sanhedrin – note at Matt 5:22. Joseph had not sided with those members who demanded the death of Jesus (Luke 23:51).

"Kingdom of God" – Matt 4:17.

15:45 Jesus died six hours after being crucified. Often those crucified remained alive on the cross for two or three days. So before giving Jesus' body for burial he made absolutely certain that Jesus was dead. The Jewish leaders were also sure he was dead

– see Matt 27:62-66.

16:1-8 Matt 28:1-8.

16:1 This was a custom in preparing a body for burial. Evidently these women did not believe Jesus would rise from the dead.

16:5 This was an angel who appeared as a man (Matt 28:2). On angels see Gen 16:7.

16:7 The Lord Jesus had a special message for Peter who had denied Him. He did not want him to despair or think he was no longer regarded as a disciple. The Lord is sometimes most loving and considerate to those who have sinned the worst.

16:8 This means they did not speak to anyone along the way until they came to the disciples (Matt 28:8; Luke 24:9,19).

16:9-20 Some scholars say that these verses were not an original part of Mark's Gospel but were added later by someone else. It is true that some ancient copies of manuscripts do not contain these verses. However, others do have them, and there is no proof that the original Gospel did not have them. The author of these notes believes that whether Mark wrote these concluding verses, or someone else wrote them, God's Spirit inspired them and they are to be counted as a part of His Word.

16:9 John 20:11-18; Luke 8:2.

while they were mourning and weeping. 11 And when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they did not believe it.

12 After that he appeared in another form to two of them as they walked along, going out into the countryside. 13 And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

14 Afterwards he appeared to the Eleven as they sat at the table, and rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen him after he had risen.

15 And he said to them, "Go into all the world, and preach the gospel to all creation. 16 He who believes and is baptized will be saved, but he who does not believe will be condemned. 17 And these signs will follow those who believe: They will drive out demons in my name; they will speak with new tongues; 18 they will pick up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will not harm them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

19 So then, after the Lord had spoken to them, he was received up into heaven, and sat at the right hand of God. 20 And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the Word with the signs following them. Amen.

16:11 They should have believed in Christ's resurrection even without this witness. Christ Himself had told them He would rise from the dead (9:31; Matt 16:21; 17:22,23). But they persisted in their unbelief even after other witnesses spoke to them (v 12,13. See Luke 24:13-32). This is evidence that they were not credulous, superstitious people willing to believe anything without evidence.

16:14 The "Eleven" were the 12 chief disciples minus Judas Iscariot (Matt 27:5). Observe that these disciples were flesh and blood, as we are, and had their faults and proneness to unbelief, as we all have. And they deserved the Lord's rebuke, just as we.

16:15 This gospel is described in 1 Cor 15:1-8. Christ commands His disciples (then and now) to preach it to everyone on earth - Matt 28:18-20; Luke 24:47,48; John 20:21; Acts 1:8. Since Jesus died for all (2 Cor 5:14,15; 1 Tim 2:6; 1 John 2:2) He wants all to hear that He did. Every believer must do what lies in his or her power to see that all the world hears the gospel.

16:16 Note on baptism at Matt 3:6. Salvation is by faith (John 3:16; 5:24; 6:47; Acts 16:31; Rom 1:17; 3:22,25; Gal 2:16; Eph 2:8,9), plus nothing. Baptism is not essential for salvation, but those who trust Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour should be baptized and publicly acknowledge their faith. If a person says he believes Christ, and yet refuses to be baptized we have reason to doubt the genuineness of his faith. Notice Jesus does not say "whoever is not baptized" will be condemned, but "whoever does not believe." Compare John 3:17,18. "Condemned" here must mean condemned to hell.

16:17,18 This does not mean that every one of these signs will accompany every single believer throughout this whole age of grace. It is a matter of plain fact that many genuine believers have not experienced a single one of these, and this passage speaks of "those who believe", not of those who have exceptional faith or are more spiritual than other believers. It seems that these verses mean this: These signs would accompany the body of believers as a whole. Or it may mean these signs would be seen in the ministry of the apostles to whom Jesus spoke.

On driving out demons see Acts 5:16; 8:7; 16:18; 19:13-16.

On tongues see Acts 2:4; 10:46; 19:6; 1 Cor 12:10,28,30; 13:1; 14:2-39.

On snakes see Luke 10:19; Acts 28:3-5 (this is not to say that anyone should deliberately pick up serpents to show what faith they have. Compare Matt 4:6,7).

There is no record in the New Testament of anyone being poisoned. This does not mean there were no cases in those days which remained unrecorded.

On healing of the sick see Acts 28:8,9; Jam 5:14,15.

We must understand that these signs were not given that men might show off their power or impress others with their godliness. We should understand also that these signs are in God's hands, and He may grant them or withhold them any time, any place He chooses. Some of these signs listed here in Mark are not found in the lists of spiritual gifts in Rom 12:6-8 and 1 Corinthians chapter 12. See notes in those places.

16:19 Luke 24:50,57; Acts 1:9-11; Ps 110:1. The right hand was the place of honor and authority. Compare Matt 28:18; Phil 2:9.

16:20 Verses 17,18; Heb 2:4.

The Gospel According to LUKE

Author:

Luke was a doctor, a close friend and colleague of the apostle Paul, and often traveled with him on his missionary journeys. See Col 4:14; 2 Tim 4:11; Philemon 24; Acts 16:10-12; 20:5,6; 27:1.

Date:

Luke wrote in the first century of this era some years after the death and resurrection of Christ, and before the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D.

Theme:

Jesus Christ is the Saviour whom God has appointed to provide salvation for the human race. Some of the key words in this Gospel are salvation (1:69,77; 2:30; 3:6; 19:9), and preaching the gospel (4:18,19,43; 7:22; 8:1; 9:2,6,60; 20:1). He began His ministry with the words from Isaiah 61:1,2, and revealed His work as seeking and saving the lost (19:10). Luke presents Christ as the Son of man. He writes more fully about some of the details of Christ's birth and life, and speaks of His true human nature more clearly, than the other Gospel writers.

1 Since many have undertaken to put together a narrative of those things which are most surely believed among us, 2 just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the Word handed them down to us, 3 it seemed good to me also, having had a perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write for you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilus, 4 so that you might know the certainty of those things in which you have been instructed.

5 In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah. His wife also was of the descendants of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. 6 And they were both righteous in the eyes of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. 7 And they had no child, because Elisabeth was barren, and by then they were both well advanced in years.

8 And it happened that while he was serving as priest in the presence of God in the order of his division, 9 according to the custom of the priesthood, the lot fell to him to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. 10 And all the assembled people were praying outside at the time of incense.

11 And an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And when Zacharias saw him, he became agitated and was seized by fear.

13 But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard and your wife Elisabeth will bear you a son. And you shall call his name John. 14 And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. 15 For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and will drink neither wine nor strong drink. And he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 16 And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. 17 And he will go on before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

18 And Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I know this? For I am an old man and my wife is well advanced in years."

19 And the angel answering said to him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I am sent to speak to you and to bring you this good

1:1 "Many" – others besides Matthew, Mark, Luke and John wrote accounts of the life of Christ. God did not choose to include these in the Bible.

1:2 "Eyewitnesses" – he means the original disciples of Jesus. Compare John 15:27; Heb 2:3,4; 2 Pet 1:16; 1 John 1:1; Acts 4:20.

"The Word" – the Word of God. The disciples became servants of the Word by obeying it and proclaiming it. In John 1:1,14 Christ too is called "The Word."

1:3 Luke did not write down unchecked stories, fables or old wives' tales. He lived during the time the events took place and carefully investigated everything. We know nothing about Theophilus. His name means "one who loves God."

1:4 "Know the certainty" – this was Luke's purpose in writing, and God's purpose in having him write. The facts of Christ's life, death and resurrection, His works and words are given to us with complete accuracy by a careful, honest historian inspired by God. God does not want people to remain in unbelief or uncertainty about those matters. Compare John 20:31; 21:24; 2 Peter 1:16.

1:5 "Herod" – Matt 2:1.

"Priestly division" – a thousand years before Zacharias, David, king of Israel, had organized the priests into 24 divisions. Abijah was in charge of one of these (1 Chron 24:10; Neh 12:12). Aaron was the first high priest of Israel (Ex 28:1-3). Zacharias is another spelling of Zechariah.

1:6 "Blamelessly" – this means sincerely, faithfully. It does not mean they were without a sinful nature (see note at Matt 7:11).

1:7 Verse 25; Gen 16:2; 25:21; 30:23; 1 Sam 1:2,5.

1:8,9 Not all the priests were on duty at all times, but spent periods of time in their homes looking after their own affairs.

"Burn incense" – Ex 30:1,34-36.

1:11 "Angel of the Lord" – notes at Matt 1:20; Gen 16:7.

1:12 Compare Jud 6:22,23; 13:22; etc.

1:13 "Afraid" – the righteous have nothing to fear, the wicked should fear everything. The name "John" comes from Hebrew and means "Jehovah is gracious."

1:15 On John's greatness see Matt 11:7-14. The fact that he was not to touch wine, etc suggests John may have been a lifelong Nazirite. See Num 6:1-4. John is the only man in the Bible of whom it is said that he was filled with God's spirit from birth. God had a special work for John and was preparing him from birth to accomplish it. On the fullness of the Holy Spirit see notes at Acts 2:4; Eph 5:18.

1:16 See 3:4-6; Matt 3:1-6.

1:17 "Elijah" – Matt 11:14; 17:10-13. See Mal 4:5,6.

1:18 These words indicated unbelief (v 20). This is another example revealing the truth that even the best and most righteous of people sometimes struggle with doubts and unbelief. See Gen 17:17,18; 18:9-12; Num 20:12; 1 Sam 27:1; Matt 14:31; 17:17; John 20:25. When God says something, when He sends a message to men, it will be absolutely true and men have no business to doubt it.

1:19 Zacharias would have known the name "Gabriel" – Dan 8:16; 9:21.

news. 20 And now you will be silent, unable to speak until the day that these things are accomplished, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and were surprised that he stayed so long in the temple. 22 And when he came out, he could not speak to them. And they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he was making signs to them, and remained speechless.

23 And it happened that as soon as the days of his service were completed that he went to his own house, 24 and after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived. And she hid herself five months, saying, 25 "This is the way the Lord has dealt with me, in these days in which he has looked on me with favour, to take away my dishonour among men."

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. And the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in to her, and said, "Be joyful, you who are highly favoured, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women."

29 And when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at his statement and wondered what kind of greeting this could be.

30 And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favour with God. 31 And, see, you will be with child, and bear a son, and shall call his name JESUS. 32 He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, 33 and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and his kingdom will never end."

34 Then said Mary to the angel, "How will this be, since I do not know a man?"

35 And the angel answered and said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, also, that holy one who will be born will be called the Son of God. 36 And now your cousin Elisabeth has also conceived a son in her old age. And this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. 37 For with God nothing can be impossible."

38 And Mary said, "See the maidservant of the Lord. Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose at that time, and hurried to a town of Judah in the hill country, 40 and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elisabeth.

41 And it happened that when Elisabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and

1:20 This was both a punishment for unbelief and a sign that Gabriel had spoken the truth (which would encourage faith).

1:21 The offering of incense usually took only a brief time. Afterwards the priest would come out and bless the people (Num 6:24-26).

1:25 Barrenness was considered a disgrace in Israel - Gen 30:23; Isa 4:1. And Elizabeth had been barren (v 7). But the will of God for a woman can never be a disgrace. And some of the best of women have been barren - Gen 16:2; 25:21; 30:23; 1 Sam 1:2,5.

1:26 "The sixth month" - from the beginning of Elizabeth's pregnancy.

1:27 The following verses set forth the fact that the Lord Jesus was born of a virgin. This was in fulfillment of Isa 7:14. See notes there and at Matt 1:18-23.

"House of David" - Matt 1:1.

1:28 God chose Mary for the high honor of being the mother of the Messiah, the Saviour of the world - this was a great sign of God's favor. Compare Gen 6:8; Acts 7:46.

"Be joyful" - the meaning of the Greek here. It was used as a greeting, so the KJV translated it "Hail." But this way of greeting is now no longer in use.

1:29 Mary could not understand what all this might mean and what God would require of her. God's people are sometimes troubled when they should rejoice at God's wonderful working.

1:31 Matt 1:1,31.

1:32 "The Most High" is a name of the one true God that frequently appears in the Old Testament - Gen 14:19; 2 Sam 22:14; Ps 7:10; etc.

"Son of the Most High" - Matt 1:18; 3:17; John 3:16; 5:18-23.

"Throne of . . . David" - 2 Sam 7:11-16; Ps 89:3,4; Matt 1:1.

1:33 Ps 45:6; 89:3,4; Isa 9:6,7; Jer 33:14-18; Dan 2:44; 7:14,27; Micah 4:7.

"House of Jacob" - the nation descended from Jacob - Israel (Genesis chapters 25-50).

1:34 "Know" - the Jews sometimes used this word to indicate an intimate relationship. Mary was saying that she was a virgin.

1:35 Note at Matt 1:18. This was no "marriage" between a god and a mortal woman (a thing that is found in the myths and legends of many countries). The unseen Spirit of God created in her the body and human nature of her son.

1:37 It is not difficult for God to enable either an elderly barren woman (v 7) or a virgin to conceive and bear children. What men call miracles are to God as easy and natural as anything else He does (Gen 18:14; Job 42:2; Isa 40:29; 50:2; 51:9; Jer 32:17,27; Matt 19:26; Rom 4:21).

1:38 Mary completely accepted God's will for her, confident that it could be only good. In this she is an example to us - compare Rom 12:1,2.

1:41 See how God's Holy Spirit was so closely involved in all these events (vs 15, 35, 67).

Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, 42 and spoke with a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. 43 And why is this given to me, that the mother of my Lord would come to me? 44 For, now, as soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy. 45 And blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfilment of those things which were told her from the Lord."

46 And Mary said, "My soul exalts the Lord, 47 And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Saviour. 48 For he has had regard for the lowly state of his maidservant. For, see, from now on all generations will call me blessed. 49 For the Mighty One has done great things for me, and his name is holy. 50 And generation after generation his mercy is on those who fear him. 51 He has shown strength with his arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. 52 He has put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted the lowly. 53 He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. 54 He has helped his servant Israel, remembering his mercy, 55 as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his descendants forever."

56 And Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now the time had come for Elisabeth to have her child, and she gave birth to a son. 58 And her neighbours and relatives heard how the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. 59 And it happened that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they would have named him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother responded and said, "No, he shall be called John."

61 And they said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."

62 And they made signs to his father to know what he would have him called. 63 And he asked for a writing tablet and wrote this: His name is John. And they were all amazed. 64 And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue was loosed, and he spoke and praised God. 65 And awe came on everyone who lived around them. And all these things that had been said were discussed throughout all the hill country of Judea. 66 And all those who heard them kept them in their hearts, saying, "What kind of child will this be!" And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying, 68 "Blessed be

The events and the words spoken about them were signs that God was about to do something mysterious, wonderful and blessed in the earth.

1:42 Verse 28. Only one woman in history could be chosen to be the mother of Christ, and Mary was that one. See also 11:27,28 and notes on "blessed" at Gen 12:3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1; etc. God would now bring to Abraham's descendants, and to all the world, that which He had promised through Abraham.

1:43 "Mother" – Mary was the mother of the Son of God only in the sense that she bore his physical body. Of course God in His eternal being, the uncreated Creator of all things, can have no mother. So to call Mary the "mother of God" is not a suitable use of language.

"My Lord" – only by the Holy Spirit could Elizabeth say this of the yet unborn Jesus. Compare Ps 2:11; 110:1; Matt 22:41-45; Acts 2:36; Phil 2:10,11.

1:45 Verses 38,42.

1:46-55 Mary's words, in beautiful poetic language, reveal a knowledge and love of God and a grasp of spiritual truth that made her a proper mother for the Messiah. Compare her words with Hannah's words in 1 Sam 2:1-10.

1:46 There are more references to praise and prayer in Luke than in any of the other Gospels. Note on praise at Ps 33:1-3.

1:47 Observe that Mary calls God her "Savior." Although she had the special honor of being the mother of the Messiah, she realized that she needed a Saviour just as all other human beings do. This is the first use of the word "Saviour" in the New Testament. The word means "deliverer and preserver" – one who delivers people from their sins and keeps them safe.

1:48 Verses 28,30,42.

1:49 Ps 71:19, etc. On God's holiness see Lev 20:7; Isa 6:3; etc.

1:50 Notes on the fear of God at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

1:51 Ps 98:1; Isa 40:10; etc. God is a spirit (John 4:24) and does not have a physical arm. This is poetic language describing God's power. See how God puts down the proud – Ex 18:11; 2 Sam 22:28; Ps 31:23; 94:2; 138:6; Prov 16:5; Isa 2:12-18; Jer 13:9; 49:16; Jam 4:6.

1:52 1 Sam 2:7,8; Matt 23:12.

1:53 1 Sam 2:5; Ps 107:9; 81:10,16; Matt 5:6.

1:55 What fellowship in conversation, prayer, and study of God's Word they must have had together!

1:59 Notes on circumcision at Gen 17:9-14.

1:60 Verse 13.

1:64 Faith and obedience opened the mouth that unbelief had sealed (v 20).

1:66 Verse 51; Gen 39:2; Acts 11:21.

1:67 Verses 15,35,41. There are as many references to the Holy Spirit in Luke as in Matthew and Mark together. Inspired by God's Spirit Zecharias speaks of the future and foretells truth that had not yet been accomplished. See notes on prophesying at Gen 20:7; Num 11:25.

1:68 "Redeemed" – notes at Matt 20:28;

the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people, 69 and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, 70 just as he said by the mouth of his holy prophets, who prophesied through the ages, 71 that we would be saved from our enemies and from the hands of all who hate us, 72 to perform the acts of mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant, 73 the oath which he swore to our father Abraham, 74 that he would grant us that we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear, 75 in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 "And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways, 77 to give the knowledge of salvation to his people through the forgiveness of their sins, 78 because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the sunrise from on high has visited us, 79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

80 And the child grew, and became strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his appearance to Israel.

2 And it came about in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus, saying that all the world should be registered. 2 (This census was first taken when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) 3 And everyone went to be registered, each one to his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the town of Nazareth, to Judea, to the town of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and line of David, 5 to be registered with Mary his espoused wife, who was with child.

6 And while they were there, it happened that the days were completed for her to give birth. 7 And she brought forth her firstborn, a son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a

Ps 78:35. See also Rom 9:24; 1 Cor 1:30; Gal 4:5; Eph 1:7; Col 1:14; Titus 2:14; Heb 9:12; 1 Pet 1:18; Rev 5:9.

1:69 Note on horn at 1 Sam 2:1; on house of David at v 32; Matt 1:1.

"Salvation" – 19:9; Acts 4:12; Rom 1:16.

1:70 For example, Isa 9:6,7; Jer 23:5.

1:71 This is similar to Old Testament language. See notes on enemies at Ps 3:7. God's people have far greater enemies than other human beings could ever be. See Eph 6:10-12; 1 Peter 5:8. From all such the Lord Jesus saves His people.

1:72 Gen 22:16-18; Ps 105:8,9; 106:45; Ezek 16:60; Micah 7:20.

1:74,75 This is always God's purpose in redemption. He wants a holy people who willingly, lovingly serve Him all their days. And He has provided in Christ all that we need to do so. Compare 2 Peter 1:3,4.

1:76 Compare the word "prophet" with what is spoken of Christ in v 32. See what John's ministry was – vs 14-17; Matt 3:1-6.

1:77 Without the forgiveness of sins there is no salvation and no true knowledge of salvation. Notes and references on forgiveness of sins at Matt 6:12; 9:5-7; 12:31; 18:23-25.

1:78 Forgiveness of sins can never be deserved, or earned by men. It comes only by God's grace, because of His mercy. Here the Lord Jesus is compared to a sun from heaven. Elsewhere He is compared to a star or a light – Num 24:17; Isa 9:2; 60:1-3; Mal 4:2; John 8:12; 2 Peter 1:19; Rev 22:16. The Lord Jesus came from heaven to save men (John 3:13; 6:38; 8:23).

1:79 Isa 9:2; 59:9,10; Matt 4:16. When men had no light, no hope, no escape from darkness and death, Jesus came and brought light and peace. Peace is one of the sweet notes of the music of the Gospel

– 2:14; John 14:27; 16:33; Acts 10:36; Rom 5:1; 14:17; 15:13,33; Eph 2:14. By the inspiration of God's Spirit Zecharias sets forth two wonderful results of the life and work of Christ – spiritual light and peace.

1:80 Until about the age of 30 John was a solitary man who did not live as ordinary men do (Matt 3:4). None was ever greater than he (Matt 11:11). But just as he was strong in spirit so can all believers be (Eph 3:16).

2:1 Augustus was the emperor of the most powerful empire of that time – the Roman Empire. In those days it was usual to call that "the whole world."

"Registered" – from a Greek word which means to enrol or register as in a census.

2:4 See Matt 3:1-6. The Messiah of Israel had to be born in Bethlehem (Micah 5:2). God used the decree of the Roman emperor to bring Joseph and Mary to Bethlehem where Jesus was born. God can (and does) use all the circumstances of life to accomplish His purposes.

"Bethlehem" is a Hebrew name and means "house of bread." From there came the one who is the "Bread of life" (John 6:35). Notice the emphasis on David – 1:27,32,69; 2:4,11. Note at Matt 1:1.

2:5 See 1:27,35; Matt 1:18.

2:7 Such was the first resting place of the Son of God, heaven's great King. It was His own choice, and that of God the Father. See His character revealed in Matt 11:29; Phil 2:5-8 (He is our example, and we should have the same attitude that He had). Bethlehem was a small town. There would have been few places to stay, and, because of the census, many visitors. But throughout Jesus' life there was often no room for Him anywhere – Luke 4:29; Matt 2:13; 8:20; John 1:11; 19:15.

8 And there were in the same area shepherds staying in the fields, keeping watch over their flock at night. 9 And suddenly an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were very afraid.

10 And the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for, see, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be for all people. 11 For to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord. 12 And this will be a sign to you: You will find the baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger."

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a great number of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 14 "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

15 And it so happened that when the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us."

16 And they hurried away, and found Mary, Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger. 17 And when they had seen him, they made known the word they had been told concerning this child. 18 And all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them. 19 But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen; it was just as it had been told to them.

21 And when eight days were completed, at 2:8 God, when He made announcement of the birth of His Son on earth (the greatest event in the history of the world up to that hour), passed over the religious leaders of the day, and ignored all those who were powerful, educated, or rich, and chose to reveal this world-changing event to poor and humble shepherds. Compare 1 Cor 1:26-29; Isa 57:15; 66:2. God's ways are not like ours (Isa 55:8,9), and we should be very glad they are not. We must learn from Him and try to follow His example. Jesus was born to be the great shepherd of the sheep (John 10:11; Heb 13:20). It seems fitting that His birth should be announced first to shepherds.

2:9 "An angel of the Lord" - note at Matt 1:20.

"Glory" - God's glory was soon to appear in Christ (who is God's glory - Heb 1:3; John 1:14), and be revealed in the glorious Gospel of His grace (1 Tim 1:11). For the announcement of His birth how could the glory of the Lord not appear? A bright and shining event must be properly proclaimed.

2:10 "Good tidings" - the angel brought the best news the world has ever had. After thousands of years of sin and suffering and longing and waiting, the Saviour of mankind was born. The way to great joy, the source of all true and holy joy, all everlasting joy appeared at last. Believers in Him know something of this joy now and will partake of it fully in all the vast ages of eternity (John 15:11; 17:13; Rom 14:17; 15:13; Phil 4:4; 1 Pet 1:8).

2:11 Matt 1:21; Acts 4:12; 1 John 4:14. Jesus is called Saviour 16 times in the New Testament (see 1:47). See note on Christ at Matt 1:1.

"Lord" - observe what the angel calls Jesus. See also 1:43; Matt 22:41-45; Acts 2:36; 1 Cor 8:6; Phil 2:10,11; Eph 4:5. In Greek the word is "Kurios." This is the word used in the New Testament to translate the word Jehovah, the most common name for God in the Old Testament. See the note at Ex 3:14,15. In the NT Jesus is called Lord (Kurios) some hundreds of times. He is the Lord of all lords (Rev 19:16), and the whole Bible ends with a blessing in His Name (Rev 22:21).

The following references reveal that Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah God: Matt 3:3; 23:37; John 8:24,25,58; 10:11; 12:41; Acts 2:21; Rom 10:9,10,13; 1 Cor 1:31; 2:8; 10:4; Eph 4:10; Phil 2:10,11; Titus 2:13; Heb 1:10-12; Jude 5; Rev 19:16.

Other references that reveal that Jesus is God are at Phil 2:6. In the Old Testament see notes at Gen 16:7; Ex 3:14; Ps 23:1; 24:7-10; 96:10-13; Isa 6:1; 9:6; Zech 12:10.

2:13 An event so full of interest to heaven, should surely awaken our interest, and our praise.

2:14 The glory of God is the highest possible purpose for anything (Ps 19:1; 29:1,2; Isa 42:8; 43:7; 1 Cor 10:31; Rev 4:11), and the purpose for which Jesus came (John 17:4). We should recognize that the birth of Jesus brought great glory to God. Notice the order here - God first, then men. Jesus brought glory to God by bringing peace to men.

"Good will toward men" - the Greek phrase here has been translated in various ways, such as peace "among men with whom he is pleased" (NASB), "to men on whom his favor rests" (NIV). However it is translated, it is clear everywhere in the New Testament that peace comes only to those who receive God's Son as Lord and Saviour and so receive God's favor and salvation (1:79).

2:17 The first to proclaim the good news of Christ's birth was an angel, the next to do so were lowly shepherds.

2:20 This Gospel according to Luke is full of praise to God - 1:46,64; 2:13,28; 5:25,26; 7:16; 13:13; 17:15,18; 18:43; 19:37; 23:47; 24:53. See note on praise at Ps 33:1-3. See one reason why the shepherds praised God. We may be sure that all that God tells us will turn out just as He has said (Ps 31:5; Titus 1:2).

2:21 "Circumcision" - see Gen 17:9-14. The the circumcision of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord 23 (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26 And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit, that he would not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him according to the custom of the Law, 28 he took him up in his arms and praised God, and said,

29 "Lord, now let your servant depart in peace, according to your word, 30 for my eyes have seen your salvation, 31 which you have prepared before the face of all people, 32 a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of your people Israel." 33 And Joseph and his mother wondered at those things which were spoken by him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, "Look, this child is destined for the fall and rising again of many in Israel, and for a sign which shall be spoken against 35 (yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul also), so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

36 And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old, and had lived with a husband seven years from her marriage. 37 She was a widow of about eighty-four years, who did not leave the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. 38 And she, coming in at that instant, gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who looked for the redemption of Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. 40 And the Lord Jesus was born of an Israelite mother, a descendant of Abraham, and so He was circumcised as all male children in Israel were.

2:22 Lev 12:2-8.

2:23 Ex 13:2,12,15; Num 3:13.

2:24 This sacrifice was offered not for Jesus, but for Mary. And it revealed that she and Joseph were poor and unable to offer a more costly sacrifice. See Lev 12:8.

2:25 He was looking forward to the coming of the promised Messiah. Compare Isa 40:1,2.

"Holy Spirit" - vs 26,27; 1:15,35,41,67. Notice all these activities of God's Spirit even before He came and filled the whole body of believers at Pentecost.

2:27 Verses 22-24.

2:29 Verse 26.

2:30 He recognized that Jesus was the Messiah, the Saviour promised in the Old Testament who would bring salvation to His people.

2:32 Simeon knew that Christ had come to enlighten all the nations of the world as well as Israel. See Isa 42:6; 49:6.

2:33 Jesus was born of a virgin by the power of God (1:34,35). Joseph had no part in that, but he was counted the legal father of Jesus (3:23).

2:34 Simeon here uttered a prophecy later perfectly fulfilled. Christ was always a stumblingblock to proud, hypocritical and unbelieving men (Matt 21:42-44; Rom 9:32,33; 1 Pet 2:7,8). They fell and what a fall it was - they put to death the Son of God, and God's wrath came on them (1 Thess 2:14-16). But Christ took humble, sincere, and believing people and raised them to great spiritual heights, and to heaven itself.

Now too the eternal destiny of people in every nation depends on how they respond to the Lord Jesus. But when He was on earth He was much "spoken against" - Matt 9:3,11,34; 12:24; 13:54-57; 26:65,66; 27:63; John 8:48.

2:35 The way people behaved toward Jesus, the things His words and deeds stirred them to do and say, revealed their innermost thoughts. It was revealed to Simeon that Jesus would have to suffer and that this would mean suffering to Mary as well. She would see her son rejected, condemned and crucified as a criminal.

2:36 For other women who prophesied see Ex 15:20; Judges 4:4; 2 Kings 22:14; Acts 21:9.

2:37 Here is an example for aged women (and men too for that matter). To serve God it is not necessary to be strong and vigorous or able to be on the move preaching the gospel everywhere.

"Fastings" - Matt 6:16.

2:38 Anna was an example to us all in these two matters as well.

"Thanks" - notes at Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; Eph 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18.

"Redemption of Jerusalem" - Isa 40:2; 52:9; 59:20,21.

2:39 Verses 22-24. Luke does not mention the journey to Egypt (Matt 2:13-23). The writers of the four Gospels did not include all the facts they knew to be true (see the note on Mark 4:1-20). It is possible that they took Jesus to Nazareth and returned with Jesus to Bethlehem before they went to Egypt.

2:40 Verse 52. The Lord Jesus grew to manhood in the normal way of all human child grew, and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, according to the custom of the feast. 43 And when they had spent the full number of days, as they were returning, the child Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, and Joseph and his mother did not know it. 44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey, and then they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances. 45 And when they did not find him, they turned back again to Jerusalem to look for him.

46 And it happened that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. 47 And all who heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. 48 And when they saw him, they were amazed, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been anxiously looking for you."

49 And he said to them, "How is it that you have been looking for me? Did you not know that I must be about my Father's business?"

50 And they did not understand the statement which he made to them. 51 And he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was in subjection to them, but his mother treasured all beings, except that He never sinned in any way (Heb 4:15; 1 Pet 2:22), and He had exceptional wisdom – a truth made clear in vs 46,47. The grace of God upon Him did not make Him rich, it made Him strong in goodness and holiness and kept Him from harm and evil – a far more blessed and important thing than the material things desired by most people.

2:41 "Passover" – Ex 23:14-17; Lev 23:4.

2:42 Deut 16:16.

2:46 Teachers here means religious teachers, gurus.

2:47 Amazement was what people often experienced at the words and works of the Lord Jesus – Matt 8:28; 12:23; Mark 1:27; 2:12; 9:15; 10:32.

2:48 By "Your father" Mary meant Joseph the legal father of Jesus (v 33).

2:49 Jesus meant God the Father. Though He was only twelve He knew of His unique relationship as the Son of God to the Father. His reply to Mary suggests she should have known this and that there was no need to search for Him – that if He was anywhere in Jerusalem it would be in the temple.

2:50 It seems that Mary was sometimes puzzled at things Jesus did and said and she thought deeply about what others said concerning Him (vs 19,33,51).

2:51 Jesus perfectly fulfilled the law of God in all the relationships of life. He never these things in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene, 2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. 3 And he came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, 4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The voice of one crying out in the wilderness,

'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

- 5 Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be brought low, and the crooked will be made straight, and the rough ways will be made smooth, 6 And all flesh will see the salvation of God.'

7 Then he said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers, who has rebelled against their parental authority or did anything to dishonor them (Ex 20:12).

2:52 Verse 40; 1 Sam 2:26. Though He was God's Son He grew up as a man and increased in wisdom as He grew. His growing in favor with God suggests that God was more and more pleased with Him, delighted in Him more and more – as earthly parents may be with maturing children.

3:1 Tiberius was the emperor of the Roman Empire. At this time both John and Jesus were about 30 years old (v 23).

3:2 Caiaphas was the son-in-law of Annas. The Romans appointed him high priest of the Jews. The Jews continued to recognize Annas as high priest along with Caiaphas. Ordinarily there would have been only one high priest.

"The word of God came" is language often used in the Old Testament. Compare Jer 1:2; Ezek 1:3; Hos 1:1.

3:3-18 Matt 3:1-12.

3:3 This does not mean that baptism brought either repentance or forgiveness of sins. They repented and confessed their sins and received forgiveness before they were baptized (Matt 3:6,11). For the forgiveness of sins repentance and faith are necessary (Matt 3:6; Mark 16:15,16). John's baptism signified this.

3:5,6 Isa 40:4,5.

warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Therefore, produce fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father,' for I tell you that God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. 9 And even now the axe is put to the root of the trees, so every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

10 And the people asked him, saying, "What shall we do then?"

11 He answered and said to them, "He who has two coats should give to him who has none, and he who has food should do the same."

12 Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?"

13 And he said to them, "Collect no more than what has been appointed for you."

14 Likewise the soldiers asked him, saying, "And what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Do not extort from anyone, or accuse anyone falsely, and be content with your wages."

15 And the people were in a state of expectancy, and everyone was wondering in their hearts about John, whether he were the Christ, or not.

16 John responded, saying to them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but one more powerful than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. 17 His winnowing fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clean out his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

18 And with many other exhortations he preached to the people.

19 But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by John concerning Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 added this to them all: he shut John up in prison.

21 Now when all the people were being baptized, it happened that Jesus also was baptized. And as he prayed, heaven was opened, 22 and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came from heaven, which said, "You are my beloved Son. With you I am well pleased."

23 Now Jesus himself began his ministry at about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, the son of Heli, 24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Janna, the son of Joseph, 25 the son of Mattathiah, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, 26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathiah, the son of Semei, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah, 27 the son of Joannas, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, 28 the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er, 29 the son of Jose, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 30 the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim, 31 the son of Melea, the son of Menan, the son of Mattathah, the son of Nathan, the son of David, 32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, 33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, 34 the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, 35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, 36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, 37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Cainan, 38 the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

3:10-14 Here is a description of some of the "fruit worthy of repentance" (v 8) – compassion, love, honesty, truthfulness, contentment, a lack of greed. These are some of the things God demands in those who would repent and live in fellowship with Him – things often ignored by many who profess to be servants of God.

3:15 John 1:19,20. "The Christ" – Matt 1:1.

3:18 For example, see John 1:29-35.

3:19,20 Matt 3:13-17; Mark 1:11.

3:21 "As he prayed" – 5:16; 11:1.

3:23 "As was supposed" – 2:23; 1:34,35. Luke makes it clear again that Joseph was only Jesus' legal father.

3:23-38 This genealogy from David to Jesus differs from the version in Matthew 1:1-17. Why? A great many Bible scholars believe that Matthew gives the genealogy of Joseph, and Luke the genealogy of Mary. In this case Joseph would have been the son-in-law of Heli. But the word "son" in the Bible can indicate several relationships (see notes on genealogies and relationships in them at Matt 1:1,8; Gen 5:5-32), and this seems the most probable interpretation.

Notice that Matthew gives Jesus' genealogy only from Abraham. Luke traces it all the way back to Adam. Matthew's purpose was to show that Jesus was the king of Israel. Luke shows His relationship with the whole of mankind.

3:38 Adam, the first human being, could, of course, have no human father. He was a direct creation of God, and in this sense God was his father. See Gen 1:26,27; 2:7. Adam was not the unique Son of God as Jesus is (1:35; John 1:1,14; 3:16; 17:5).

In vs 23-38 the words "which was" (KJV) are not in the Greek.

4 Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, 2 and was tempted forty days by the devil. And in those days he ate nothing, and afterwards, when they were ended, he became hungry.

3 And the devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, "It is written: Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God."

5 And the devil, having taken him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6 And the devil said to him, "All this authority I will give you, and their glory; for that has been handed over to me, and I give it to anyone I wish. 7 Therefore if you will worship me, all will be yours."

8 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Go away, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve only him."

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here. 10 For it is written, He will give his angels charge concerning you to guard you, 11 and in their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not at any time strike your foot against a stone."

12 And Jesus answering said to him, "It is said, You shall not test the Lord your God."

13 And when the devil had ended every temptation, he went away from him for a time. 14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and his fame spread throughout the whole surrounding region. 15 And he taught in their synagogues, being honoured by all.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. 17 And he was handed the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the scroll, he found the place where it was written,

18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, 19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. And the eyes of all those who were in the synagogue were fastened on him. 21 And he began to say to them, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

22 And all testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which came from his mouth. And they said, "Is not this Joseph's son?"

23 And he said to them, "You will surely tell me this proverb: 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard was done in Capernaum, do also here in your native place.'"

24 And he said, "Truly I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. 25 But I tell you the truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when heaven was shut up for three years and six months, when there was a great famine throughout the whole land. 26 But Elijah

4:1-13 Matt 4:1-11.

4:2 Luke states that Jesus was tempted by the devil throughout the 40 days. Matthew wrote of only the three temptations that came at the end of the 40 days.

4:6 Was Satan speaking the truth here? Jesus did not dispute it, and other verses in the Bible indicate it is true (John 12:31; 14:30; 1 John 5:19; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 6:12). How did Satan receive the authority and glory of the world? See note at Matt 4:9.

4:13 Satan did not admit defeat, but hoped for another time and better results. So now he will run from believers when they resist him (Jam 4:7), but he will return again and again.

4:14 Jesus had been somewhere in the wilderness of Judea. He now returns to Galilee fully equipped by God's Spirit for the work that lay before Him.

4:15 Matt 4:23--25.

"Synagogues" - Matt 4:23.

4:16 "Sabbath day" - Ex 20:8-11; etc. See Christ's custom. Compare Heb 10:25. He read from the Old Testament - religious teachers visiting Jewish meeting places were often asked to read or speak.

4:17 "Scroll" - pieces of writing material sown end to end and rolled up. This is the way the Jews wrote down the words of the Old Testament and kept them in their synagogues.

4:18,19 See Isa 61:1,2 and notes there. The Jews regarded these verses as referring to the coming Messiah. Observe here the beautiful work which Jesus came to do.

4:21 Jesus here clearly states that He is the promised Messiah of Israel. Note on Messiah at Matt 1:1.

4:22 They were amazed but did not believe Him, as the following verses make clear. See also Matt 13:53-58.

4:23 Jesus had made the town of Capernaum the headquarters of His ministry in Galilee and performed some striking miracles there - Matt 4:13,24,25; 8:1-17.

4:24 Matt 13:57; John 4:44.

was not sent to any of them, but to Zarephath, a city of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. 27 And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, but none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian."

28 And all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with rage, 29 and rose up, and pulled him out of the city, and brought him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, so that they might throw him down over the cliff. 30 But he, walking right through the middle of them, went on his way.

31 Then he went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on Sabbath days. 32 And they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with power.

33 And in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 saying, "Let us alone! What do we have to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God."

35 And Jesus rebuked it, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him." And when the demon had thrown him down among them, he came out of him, without hurting him.

36 And they were all amazed, and talked among themselves, saying, "What a message this is! For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out." 37 And his fame went out to every place in the surrounding region.

38 And he arose and left the synagogue, and entered Simon's house. And Simon's mother-in-law was sick with a high fever, and they made a request to him on her behalf. 39 And he stood over her and rebuked the fever; and it left her, and immediately she got up and served them.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all those who had anyone sick with any of various diseases brought them to him, and he laid his hands on each of them and healed them. 41 And also demons came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are Christ the Son of God." And he rebuked them and did not allow them to speak, for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when day came, he departed and went into a desert place. And the people looked for him, and came to him, and tried to keep him from leaving them. 43 And he said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, for I was sent for this purpose." 44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

5 And it happened that while the people were pressing around him to hear the Word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, 2 and saw two boats lying at the edge of the lake. The fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. 3 And he entered one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from land. And he sat down, and taught the people from the boat.

4 Now when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down your nets for a catch."

5 And Simon answering said to him, "Master, we have worked hard all night, and have caught nothing. Nevertheless at your word I will let down the net."

6 And when they had done this, they netted a great number of fish, and their net broke. 7 And they signaled to their partners, who were in the other boat, to come and help them. And they came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at 4:27 See 2 Kings 5:1-14. These two prophets, Elijah and Elisha, often suffered great trouble at the hands of the people of Israel, but God used them in great blessing to outsiders. In their days Israel forsook God and behaved worse than the idolatrous peoples around them. Jesus knew that the Jews would continue to be rebellious and unbelieving in His day and that His gospel would spread among non-Jewish peoples.

4:28 These Jews looked down on all other people and were angry because Jesus was pointing out their faults as seen in history, and seemed to be putting other people above them.

4:29 This was the first attempt (but not the last) the Jews made to murder the Son of God. The reason? He told them the truth, and through Him the light of God's holiness shone on their sinful hearts. See John 3:19; 7:7; 8:40.

4:30 His time to die had not come and no one could take His life until He chose. See John 7:30; 10:17,18.

4:38-41 Matt 8:14-17. "Simon" – Peter.

4:41 Matt 8:4; 9:30; 12:16; Mark 1:34.

4:42-44 Mark 1:35-39.

4:43 "Kingdom of God" – Matt 4:17.

5:1 Gennesaret was another name for Galilee. Here the words of the Lord Jesus are called the Word of God. See John 7:16,17; 12:49,50; 14:24; 17:8.

5:4 The Lord Jesus knew where the fish were in the water, just as He knew everything else. See also John 21:4-7. Both these examples are object lessons teaching an important truth – in His kingdom, activity directed by Jesus is fruitful, but directed by self is fruitless.

5:5 "Master" – the Greek word indicates one with authority.

5:8 Peter realized that Jesus was no mere man, and he felt unworthy even to be in His

Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord."

9 For he was astonished, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish they had taken, 10 as also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners.

And Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will catch men." 11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

12 And when he was in a certain city it happened that suddenly a man covered with leprosy, seeing Jesus, prostrated himself and implored him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

13 And he put out his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be cleansed." And immediately the leprosy left him.

14 And he ordered him not to tell anyone, "But go and show yourself to the priest, and as a testimony to them, make an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded."

15 But the word about him spread even more, and great crowds came together to hear him, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. 16 And he withdrew into the wilderness and prayed.

17 And as he was teaching, it happened that there were Pharisees and teachers of the Law sitting nearby, who had come from every town of Galilee and Judea, and from Jerusalem, and the power of the Lord was present to heal them. 18 And, suddenly, some men brought on a cot a man who was paralyzed. And they tried to bring him in and place him before him. 19 And when they could not find any way to bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the housetop, and let him down on his cot through the tiles into their midst in front of Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, except God alone?"

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, answering he said to them, "What are you reasoning in your hearts? 23 Which is easier, to say 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' 24 But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins (he said to the paralyzed man), "I say to you, get up, pick up your cot, and go to your house."

25 And immediately he got up in front of them, picked up what he had been lying on, and went to his own house, glorifying God. 26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

27 And after these things he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, "Follow me." 28 And he left everything, got up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made a great feast for him in his own house, and there was a large group of tax collectors and others who sat down with them. 30 But their scribes and the Pharisees grumbled against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

31 And Jesus answering said to them, "Those who need a physician are not those who are well, but those who are sick. 32 I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."

33 And they said to him, "Why do the disciples of John often fast and pray, and the disciples of the Pharisees also, but yours eat and drink?"

34 And he said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days."

36 And he also told them a parable: "No one rips a piece from a new garment to sew on an old one; otherwise, both the new tears and the piece that was taken from the new does not match the old. 37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled, and the wineskins will be destroyed. 38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins, and so both are preserved. 39 Also no one presence. Compare Isa 6:5; Job 40:4; 42:6; Rev 1:17. In the light of Christ's holiness men see their own sinfulness. Peter followed Christ after this and did not really want Christ to leave him.

5:9 Fishing was their business (Matt 4:18), but this one who had grown up in a carpenter's house in land-locked Nazareth had showed them where the fish were.

5:10 Peter realized something of his sinfulness and unworthiness, but he was not to fear because of that. Actually this realization better equipped him to be a fisher of men. On "fishers of men" see Matt 4:19.

5:33-39 Matt 9:14-17.

5:39 How slow some people are to try the drinking old wine will want the new immediately, for he says, "The old is better:"

6 And this happened on the second of the first Sabbaths after Passover: He was going through the grain fields, and his disciples picked some grain and ate it, rubbing it in their hands.

2 And some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why are you doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?"

3 And Jesus answering them said, "Have you not even read what David did, when he was hungry along with those who were with him, 4 how he went into the house of God, and took and ate the consecrated bread, and gave some also to those who were with him, which thing is not lawful to eat except by the priests alone?"

5 And he said to them, "The Son of man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

6 And this also happened on another Sabbath: He went into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand had withered. 7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find a reason to accuse him. 8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Get up, and stand there in the middle." And he got up and stood there.

9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do evil? To save life, or to destroy it?"

10 And looking around at them all, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with rage and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it happened in those days that he went out on a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. 13 And when day came, he called his disciples, and chose twelve of them, and called them apostles:

14 Simon (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also became a traitor.

17 And he came down with them and stood on the plain, along with his group of disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases, 18 along with those who were troubled by unclean spirits; and they were healed. 19 And the whole crowd tried to touch him, for power was going out of him and healing them all. 20 And he raised his eyes to his disciples, and said,

"Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 "Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled.

"Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

22 "Blessed are you when men hate you, and new wine of the gospel of Christ that brings forgiveness of sins, peace with God, joy, salvation, and eternal life. Their prejudices, intolerance of anything new, pride in the old ways, etc, make them scorn something they have never tried. It is wiser to do as David said in Ps 34:8.

6:12-16 Matt 10:2-4.

6:12 The Lord Jesus was very careful in His choice of the apostles. Above all He wanted the choice to be in accordance with the will of God the Father in heaven.

6:15 "Zelotes" - "Zealot" - note at Matt 10:4.

6:16 Jesus chose Judas Iscariot after a night of prayer and in full knowledge of his character (John 6:64,70).

"The brother of James" - the words "the brother" are in italics, indicating that they are not in the Greek. "Judas of James" is a literal translation of the Greek. This probably means that Judas was the son of James. But whether this James was the brother of Judas or his father, we do not know.

6:17-19 Compare Matt 4:23-25.

6:19 See 5:17; 8:46.

6:20-49 This has been called the Sermon on the Plain because apparently Jesus preached it on a plain (v 17). It contains some of the same truth found in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew chapters 5-7), but usually clothed in different words. Also it contains truth He taught at other times, other places. The Lord Jesus taught some of the same truth more than once and in more places than one. Compare 11:2-4 with Matt 6:9-13 and 11:9-13 with Matt 7:7-11 and 12:22-31 with Matt 6:25-33.

6:20 The words were spoken only to His disciples who had left everything to follow Him (5:11,28; 14:33; 18:28), not to all poor people whether or not they believe in Christ. Their gain (the kingdom of God) was far greater than any supposed loss. Compare Matt 19:27-30; Phil 3:7-9; 1 Tim 6:6-10; Prov 19:22.

6:21-23 These verses indicate that the life of discipleship was very difficult and sometimes meant hunger, sorrow and fierce opposition from sinful men. But true and eternal blessedness was theirs. Compare Matt 5:6,10-12.

"Son of Man" - Matt 8:20.

when they exclude you, and insult you, and reject your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. 23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for, see, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers treated the prophets in the same way.

24 "But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your comfort.

25 "Woe to you who are full! For you will get hungry. Woe to you who laugh now! For you will mourn and weep.

26 "Woe to you, when all men speak well of you! For their fathers did like this to the false prophets.

27 "But I say to you who are listening, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you. 29 And to him who strikes you on one cheek offer the other also, and do not stop him who takes away your cloak from taking your coat also.

30 "Give to everyone who asks from you, and whoever takes away your goods do not ask him for them again. 31 And just as you want men to treat you, you treat them in the same way. 32 For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For sinners also love those who love them. 33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. 34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? For sinners also lend to sinners, in order to receive as much in return. 35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the unthankful and the evil. 36 Therefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

37 "Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

38 "Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, men will pour into your lap. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you."

39 And he told them a parable, "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch?"

40 "The disciple is not above his teacher, but every one who is perfectly trained will be like his teacher.

41 "And why do you look at the speck that is in your brother's eye, but pay no attention to the plank that is in your own eye? 42 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,' while you yourself pay no attention to the plank that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck that is in your brother's eye.

43 "For a good tree does not bear bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. 44 For every tree is known by its own fruit. For men do not gather figs from thorn bushes, nor do they gather grapes from a briar. 45 A good man brings out what is good from the storehouse of good in his heart, and an evil man brings out what is evil from the storehouse of evil in his heart. For his mouth speaks out of the abundance of his heart.

46 "And why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do the things which I say? 47 I will show you what he is like who comes to me, hears my words, and does according to them: 48 He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on a rock. And when the flood rose, the torrent burst against that house, but could not shake it, for it was founded on a rock.

49 "But he who hears, and does not do accordingly, is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The torrent burst against it, and immediately it fell. And great was the ruin of that house!"

6:24-26 These verses are not found in the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel. These woes signifies pain, loss, and suffering to those who would not give up anything for Christ and who wanted the praises of men rather than the praise that comes from God. See John 5:44; 12:43; 1 Tim 6:9,10; Jam 5:1-4. Compare the woes in Isa 5:8-25.

6:38 Observe very carefully the way Jesus appointed for us to receive an abundance - it is not asking others for it, but giving to others. In some measure at least God will see to it that people give to us as He sees we deserve by our giving. Here is a great promise to believers who give liberally from what they have. See also 2 Cor 9:6-8; Ps 18:25,26; Prov 11:24,25; 22:29; Eccl 11:1. But surely Jesus was speaking of more than giving money or things. Believers can give their time, their labor, their counsel, their loving service to others. And if they do they will have a full reward in some way or other, at some time or other. 6:39 Matt 15:14.

7 Now when he had finished his whole discourse in the hearing of the people, he went to Capernaum. 2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was highly regarded by him, was sick and about to die. 3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent Jewish elders to him, begging him to come and heal his servant. 4 And when they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, saying that the one for whom he should do this was worthy, 5 "For he loves our nation, and he has built us a synagogue."

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy that you should come under my roof. 7 So I did not even think myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed. 8 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9 When Jesus heard these things, he looked at him with admiration, and turned around and said to the people who were following him, "I tell you, I have not found faith so great, not even in Israel."

10 And those who had been sent, returning to the house, found the servant who had been sick, in good health.

11 And a day later this happened: He went to a city called Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a large crowd. 12 Now when he was approaching the gate of the city, suddenly there was a dead man being carried out. He was the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Do not weep."

14 And he came and touched the coffin, and those who were carrying him stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, get up."

15 And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And he handed him over to his mother. 16 And everyone was seized by reverential awe, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us," and, "God has visited his people." 17 And this report about him spread through all Judea, and through all the surrounding region.

18 And the disciples of John informed him of all these things. 19 And John, having called two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you the one who is to come? Or should we look for another?"

20 When the men came to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you the one who is to come? Or should we look for another?'"

21 And at that very time he cured many people of diseases, afflictions, and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind.

22 Then Jesus answering said to them, "Go your way and tell John what things you have seen and heard, how the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the gospel preached to them. 23 And blessed is he who does not stumble because of me."

24 And when the messengers from John had gone, he began to speak to the people concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 25 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Look, those who are splendidly dressed and live in luxury, are in royal palaces. 26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is the one about whom it is written,

See, I send my messenger before your face,
who will prepare your way before you.

28 "For I tell you, Among those born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist. But he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 And all the people who heard this, and the tax collectors, declared God righteous, having been baptized with the baptism of John. 30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the purpose of God

7:1-10 Matt 8:5-13.

7:3 Judging from Matthew's account, the centurion himself came later.

7:4 Compare this with what the man thought of himself (vs 6,7). It was surely a rare thing for the Jews to speak so well of a Roman, or anyone of another nation.

7:5 "Synagogue" – Matt 4:23.

7:11 Nain was a town about ten kilometers from Nazareth.

7:13 See 19:41; Matt 9:36; 14:14; 15:32; John 11:35,38; Heb 4:15.

7:15 Thrice it is recorded that Jesus raised the dead to life – here, at 8:53-55, and at John 11:43,44. See note on Jesus' miracles at Matt 8:3.

7:16 See 1:64,65; 2:13,20,28; 5:25; 13:13; 17:15; 18:43; 23:47; 24:53. This is a characteristic note in Luke's Gospel. Note on praise at Ps 31:1-3. They called Jesus a prophet (Matt 16:13,14; 21:11). They did not understand He was much more than a prophet (Matt 16:15-17).

7:18-35 Matt 11:2-19. At that time John was in prison because of his preaching.

7:29,30 These verses are not found in Matthew. Many of the common people had repented and gone to John to be baptized.

for themselves, not having been baptized by John.

31 And the Lord said, "To what, then, shall I compare the men of this generation? And what are they like? 32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace, calling to one another, and saying, 'We have played the flute to you, and you have not danced; we have wailed for you, and you have not wept.' 33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34 The Son of man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' 35 But wisdom is justified by all her children."

36 And one of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down at the table. 37 And just then a woman in the city, who was a sinner, knowing that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of fragrant oil, 38 and stood behind him at his feet weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and wipe them with the hairs of her head, and she kissed his feet, and anointed them with the oil.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, "If this man were a prophet he would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him; for she is a sinner!"

40 And Jesus responded and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he said, "Teacher, say it."

41 "There was a certain moneylender who had two debtors. The one owed five hundred silver pieces, and the other fifty. 42 And when they had nothing to pay with, he freely forgave them both. So tell me, which of them will love him most?"

43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave most." And he said to him, "You have rightly judged."

44 And he turned to the woman, and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You gave me no water for my feet, but she washed my feet with tears and wiped them with the hairs of her head. 45 You gave me no kiss, but this woman since the time I came in has not stopped kissing my feet. 46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but this woman anointed my feet with fragrant oil. 47 Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But the one who has been forgiven little, loves little."

48 And he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

49 And those who sat at the table with him began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

50 And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

8 And after this it happened that he went through every city and village, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with him, 2 and also certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary called Magdalene, out of whom seven demons had gone, 3 and Joanna the wife of

See Matt 3:5,6. But the religious leaders had rejected John's message – Matt 3:7-10. In doing so they had rejected God's good purpose for them.

"Lawyers" – note at Matt 22:35.

7:36-50 Only Luke relates this incident. Matthew, Mark and John record another time when Jesus was anointed (Matt 26:6-13; Mark 14:3-9; John 12:1-8).

7:36 "Pharisees" – Matt 3:7.

7:37 "Sinner" – this probably means she had been either an adulteress or a prostitute. But it is plain that she had heard Jesus' teaching, had repented and believed in Him (v 50).

7:38 In this way she showed her repentance and faith and pure love for the Lord of glory (v 47).

7:39 Probably the Pharisee never once considered that Jesus was more than a prophet. The way he regarded this woman was the usual way many Pharisees looked down on others. See 18:9-12.

7:41 A "silver piece" – "denarius" – was a day's wage for a laborer (Matt 20:2).

7:44-46 The Pharisee had not shown the hospitality usually shown to guests. Jesus was not complaining for His own sake, but was trying to teach this Pharisee a very important lesson that had to do with much more than mere hospitality. But we should understand that the Lord Jesus well observes our attitude and behavior toward Him.

7:47 She was not forgiven because of her love for God; she loved God because she was forgiven. This is the meaning of vs 41-43. By her behavior toward Christ she showed both that she was forgiven and loved God. Compare Matt 25:32-46. Notes on forgiveness at Matt 6:12; 9:5-7; 12:31; 18:23-25; etc.

7:48,49 Compare Matt 9:2-6.

7:50 It was not her love for God which saved her and brought peace, nor was it her weeping on Christ's feet. It was her faith that saved her. Saved here means receiving forgiveness, deliverance from her sinful life, and being made right with God. See Rom 3:22-24; 5:1; Gal 2:16; 3:26; Eph 2:8,9.

8:1 "Kingdom of God" – Matt 4:17.

8:2 She was called Magdalene because she was from Magdala, a town on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee.

8:3 Jesus had nothing of this world's goods (Matt 8:20), and His disciples had left all they had to follow Him (5:11,28; 18:28). They did not perform miracles to feed themselves, and we never read that they took Chuza, Herod's steward, Susanna, and many others. These contributed to them from their possessions.

4 And when many people had gathered, coming to him from every town, he spoke using a parable:

5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and it was trampled on, and the birds of the air devoured it. 6 And some fell on rock; and as soon as it had sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. 7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. 8 And other seed fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bore fruit a hundredfold."

And when he had said these things, he cried out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, "What does this parable mean?"

10 And he said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to others I give parables, so that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. 12 Those by the wayside are those who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, so that they might not believe and be saved. 13 Those on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it the with joy. But these have no root. They believe for a while, and in time of temptation fall away. 14 And that which fell among thorns means those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with the cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to maturity. 15 But that seed which fell on the good ground means those who, having heard the word with a suitable and good heart, keep it, and patiently bear fruit.

16 "No one, having lit a candle, covers it with a utensil, or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a candle holder, so that those who come in may see the light. 17 For nothing is secret that will not be revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come out. 18 Therefore take care how you listen, for whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever does not have, from him will be taken even what he seems to have."

19 Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but could not reach him because of the crowd. 20 And it was told him by someone who said, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you."

21 And he answered and said to them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

22 Now it happened on a certain day that he went into a boat with his disciples. And he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake."

And they set out. 23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and their boat was filling with water, and they were in danger. 24 And they came to him and woke him up, saying, "Master, master, we are going to die!" Then he got up and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they stopped and there was a calm.

25 And he said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they were fearful and amazed, saying to one another, "What kind of man is this! For he commands even the winds and water, and they obey him."

26 And they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes, which is on the other side of Galilee. 27 And when he stepped out on the land, he was met by a certain man from the city, who had been possessed by demons for a long time. He wore no clothes, and did not stay in any house, but among the tombs.

up a collection, or asked for money. They received their support from those who wanted to give to them - 10:4-7; Matt 10:9-11. Compare 1 Cor 9:6-14; Lev 7:14. 8:4-15 Matt 13:2-23. This parable in Luke was told in somewhat different words and at a different time than the same one in Matthew chapter 13.

8:5 "It was trampled on" is a phrase not found in Matt 13:4. It suggests a carelessness, even a contempt for the good seed of God's Word.

8:6 In Matt 13:6 the emphasis is on shallowness of soil. Shallow soil cannot retain moisture, nor can shallow hearts retain spiritual showers that come from God.

8:14 "Pleasures" is a word not seen in Matt 13:22. In the matter of choking God's Word sown in the mind, pleasures are just as successful as worries and riches.

8:15 Here is more emphasis on the qualities of the person who produces a harvest for God. By nature men do not have such a heart (see Matt 15:18-20; Jer 17:9). If anyone has a suitable and good heart it is because God has worked deeply in his heart, given him a new nature and made him a new person. See 2 Cor 5:17; Eph 2:1-10. Observe here that a harvest for God comes by keeping His word in the heart and persevering in His work. See 1 Cor 15:58. 8:16 Matt 5:14,15. Jesus is speaking of His disciples.

8:18 Matt 13:12.

8:19-21 Matt 12:46-50.

8:21 See 6:47; 11:28; John 14:21. The Lord Jesus always put the emphasis where it belongs - on obedience to God's Word, actually doing what God says.

8:22-25 Matt 8:23-27.

8:26-37 Matt 8:28-34; Mark 5:1-20.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out and prostrated himself before him, and said with a loud voice, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me!"

29 For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had often seized him; and he was kept under guard, bound with chains and fetters. And he had broken the shackles, and had been driven by the demon into the wilderness. 30 And Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him.

31 And they begged him not to command them to go into the Abyss. 32 And a large herd of pigs was there, feeding on the mountain. And the demons begged him to allow them to enter them. And he allowed them. 33 Then the demons went out of the man and entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down a steep place into the lake and were drowned.

34 When those who tended them saw what had happened, they ran away and told it in the city and in the countryside. 35 Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. 36 And those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed by the demons had been healed. 37 Then all the people from the surrounding region of the Gadarenes begged him to leave them, because they were seized by great fear. And he got into the boat and returned.

38 Now the man out of whom the demons had gone had begged him that he might stay with him. But Jesus had sent him away, saying, 39 "Go back home, and tell what great things God has done for you." And he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

40 And it happened that when Jesus returned, the people gladly received him, for they had all been waiting for him. 41 And just then a man named Jairus came. He was a ruler of the synagogue, and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged him to come to his house; 42 for he had only one daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went the people were almost crushing him.

43 And a woman having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her resources on doctors and could not be healed by any, 44 came up behind him and touched the hem of his garment.

And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

45 And Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When everyone denied it, Peter and those who were with him said, "Master, the people are crowding you and pressing around you, and are you saying, 'Who touched me?'"

46 And Jesus said, "Somebody touched me, for I perceive that power has gone out of me."

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and prostrating herself before him, she told him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said to her, "Daughter, take courage. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

49 While he was still speaking, someone from the house of the ruler of the synagogue came saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Master."

50 But when Jesus heard this, he answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid, only believe, and she will get well."

51 And when he came into the house, he permitted no one to go inside except Peter, James and John, and the father and the mother of the girl. 52 And everyone was weeping and mourning for her, but he said, "Do not weep. She is not dead, but is sleeping."

53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all outside, and took her by the hand and called out, saying, "Get up, child."

55 And her spirit returned, and she immediately got up. And he told them to give her food. 56 And her parents were astonished, but he ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

9 Then he called his twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. 2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said to them, "Take nothing for your journey, neither staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have two coats each. 4 And whatever house you enter, stay there and leave from there. 5 And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that town, shake the very dust off your feet as a testimony against them."

6 And they departed and traveled through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him, and he was perplexed, because it was being said by some that John had risen from the dead, 8 and by some, that Elijah had appeared, and by others, that one of the prophets of old had appeared again.

9 And Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he tried to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they returned, told Jesus all that they had done. And he took them along and withdrew privately to a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. 11 And the people, finding out about it, followed him; and he received them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

12 And when daylight began to decline, the twelve came and said to him, "Send the crowd away so they can go to the towns and surrounding countryside and get food and lodging, for we are here in a deserted place.

13 But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fishes, unless we go and buy food for all this people."

14 For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down, fifty to a group." 15 And they did so, and had them all sit down. 16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. 17 And they all ate and were filled, and they gathered up twelve baskets full of pieces left over.

18 And it happened when he was praying alone that his disciples came to be with him, and he asked them, saying, "Who do the people say I am?"

19 They answering said, "John the Baptist. But some say, Elijah, and others say that one of the prophets of old has appeared again."

20 He said to them, "But who do you say I am?" Peter, answering, said, "The Christ of God."

21 And he strictly warned and commanded them not to tell this to anyone, 22 saying, "The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day."

23 And he said to them all, "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. 24 For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake, he will save it. 25 For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses himself, or is ruined? 26 For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, the Son of man will be ashamed of him, when he comes in his glory, and in the glory of his Father and of the holy angels.

27 "But I tell you the truth, there are some standing here who will not taste of death until they see the kingdom of God."

28 And it happened about eight day after these words that he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. 29 And as he prayed, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became bright and radiant. 30 And suddenly two men were talking with him. They were Moses and Elijah, 31 who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure which he would accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 But Peter and those who were with him were weighed down with sleep: and when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him.

9:22 Note on Son of Man at Matt 8:20.

9:23 "Cross" – the cross signifies death (see notes at Matt 10:38; 16:24). The word "daily" is important. The proper attitude toward self and Christ must be constantly renewed morning by morning. If we try to do it once for all and then move away from it, or forget about it, we will go astray. And the proper attitude is this: self deserves death, Christ deserves our entire allegiance and service.

There is nothing here (or anywhere in the New Testament that the author of these notes can find) encouraging self-esteem, good thoughts about oneself, etc. Quite the opposite. We must esteem Christ, not ourselves; have good thoughts about Him, not about self. This is contrary to much we hear from modern psychology, and, very often, from pulpits in our churches.

9:24 Is any truth Jesus spoke more often recorded than this one? Matt 10:38,39; 16:24,25; Mark 8:34,35; Luke 14:26,27; 17:33; John 12:25. The repetition indicates its great importance.

9:26 Matt 10:33; Mark 8:38.

9:28-36 Matt 17:1-8.

9:28 Luke says this happened eight days afterwards; both Matthew and Mark have six days. Evidently they counted only the days between the events of vs 18-27 and the transfiguration, while Luke included both those days.

9:31 Luke alone mentions the shining appearance of Moses and Elijah and what they spoke about at that time – Christ's death in Jerusalem.

9:32 Luke alone reveals the sleepiness of the disciples. Compare Matt 26:40,43. How dull the disciples could be at some of the most significant moments in human history! And none of us should think himself better

33 And it happened, as they were leaving him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tabernacles; one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he was saying.

34 As he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. 35 And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

36 And when the voice had stopped speaking, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent, and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

37 And it happened the next day, when they came down from the hill, that many people met him. 38 And suddenly a man in the crowd cried out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you, look at my son, for he is my only child. 39 And, see, a spirit seizes him and he suddenly cries out. And it throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth, and it batters him and scarcely leaves him. 40 And I begged your disciples to drive him out, and they could not."

41 And Jesus answered and said, "O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long will I be with you, and put up you? Bring your son here."

42 And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down in convulsions. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the child, and handed him back to his father. 43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while everyone was wondering at all the things that Jesus did, he said to his disciples,

44 "Let these words sink down into your ears; for the Son of man will be given into the hands of men."

45 But they did not understand this statement, and it was hidden from them, so that they did not grasp it. And they were afraid to ask him about the statement. 46 Then a dispute arose among them about which of them would be the greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child and set him near him, 48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me; for he who is the least among you all, he will be great."

49 And John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow along with us."

50 And Jesus said to him, "Do not try to stop him, for he who is not against us is for us."

51 And this happened when the time was approaching for him to be taken up to heaven: he set his face resolutely to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before his face. And they went and entered a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. 53 And they did not receive him, because his face was set to go to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just like Elijah did?"

55 But he turned and rebuked them, and said, "You do not know what kind of spirit you are of. 56 For the Son of man has not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them." And they went to another village.

57 And it happened as they were going along the road, that a certain man said to him, "Lord, I will follow you wherever you go."

58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head."

59 And he said to another, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

60 Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

61 And still another said, "Lord, I will follow you, but first let me go say good-bye to those who are at my house."

62 And Jesus said to him, "No one, when he has

9:56 "The Son of Man has not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them" - Luke 19:10; John 3:17.

9:57-62 See Matt 8:19-22 (vs 61,62 are not in Matthew).

"But first" (v 61) - like the man in v 59 this one had something else to do first. It would seem from this, and from what Jesus put his hand to the plough, and looks back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

10 After these things the Lord appointed seventy others also, and sent them two by two before his face into every city and place where he himself was about to go.

2 Therefore he said to them, "The harvest truly is great, but the workers are few. So pray the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth workers into his harvest. 3 Go your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. 4 Carry neither purse, nor bag, nor sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road. 5 And whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' 6 And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on it; if not, it will return to you. 7 And stay in the same house, eating and drinking such things as they give, for the worker is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house.

8 "And whatever city you enter, and are received, eat such things as are set before you. 9 And heal the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' 10 But whatever city you enter, and are not received, go out into its streets and say, 11 'The very dust of your city which sticks to us, we wipe off against you. But be sure of this, the kingdom of God has come near you.' 12 But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, said to him, that he did not have his priorities right. Does the answer of Jesus seem unreasonable? Nothing Jesus says seems unreasonable to those who trust Him and are eager to serve Him; everything may seem unreasonable to those without a heart for Him. It appears that the Lord Jesus discerned in this man a disposition to keep looking back. This is a ruinous habit, whether trying to plow a furrow, or doing God's work. Compare Phil 3:13,14; Heb 12:1,2. We must keep our eyes on the goal.

10:1 Only Luke records this sending out of disciples other than the twelve chief disciples. The instructions Jesus gave them is similar to words He spoke in other places.

Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented a long time ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment, than for you.

15 "And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to hell!

16 "He who listens to you listens to me, and he who rejects you rejects me, and he who rejects me rejects him who sent me."

17 And the seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons submit to us through your name."

18 And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. 19 See, I give you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing at all will harm you. 20 However, do not rejoice because the spirits submit to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and educated, and have revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for so it seemed good in your eyes. 22 All things have been entrusted to me by my Father. And no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

23 And he turned around to his disciples and

10:17 See something of the power of Jesus' name – Matt 10:1; Mark 16:17; Acts 5:16; 8:7; 16:18.

10:18 The casting out of demons signified that the kingdom of God was near and that Satan's eventual defeat was assured. Compare Matt 12:22-29; John 12:31. Notes on Satan at Matt 4:1-11; 1 Chron 21:1.

10:19 Jesus gave them authority over both literal snakes and scorpions and snake-like and scorpion-like demons. The chief enemy was Satan himself. See Mark 16:17,18; Ps 91:13; Eph 6:12; Jam 4:7; 1 Pet 5:8,9; Rev 12:10,11.

10:20 The fact that they were saved and had eternal life was to be their reason for rejoicing, not the fact that they were able to display some authority or power.

said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see. 24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see them, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear them."

25 And suddenly a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

26 He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?"

27 And he answered and said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself."

28 And he said to him, "You have answered rightly. Do this, and you will live."

29 But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?"

30 And Jesus answered and said, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among robbers, who stripped him of his clothes, wounded him, and went away, leaving him half dead. 31 And by chance a certain priest came down that way. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 And so too a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked at him and passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 and went to him, and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, and set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. 35 And the next day when he was leaving, he took out two silver coins, gave them to the innkeeper and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend extra, I will repay you when I come again.'

36 "Now which of these three, do you think,

10:25 "Lawyer" – an expert in the law of Moses recorded in the Old Testament. His question was like the one in Matt 19:16. It is an exceedingly important question indeed, but not everyone who asks it is willing to accept the answer Christ gives.

10:26 Jesus did not ask this because He wanted information, but to cause the man to speak out what he thought.

10:27 This is an excellent reply. See Matt 22:36-40. The verses he quoted are from Deut 6:5 and Lev 19:18.

10:28 Merely knowing or quoting the truth of God does not bring eternal life to anyone. Compare Rom 2:13; Jam 1:22-25. The man had not practiced the truth he knew. We know this because he tried to justify himself (v 29), and because, as other men, he had sinned (Rom 3:23). If men did practice perfectly the two chief commands of the law, they would live, but they do not. Not a single person (except Jesus) has all of his life loved God with all his strength, etc, or his neighbor as himself.

10:29 "Justify himself" – this is the grave error of a vast number of men. See 16:15; 18:9-12. They want to be thought be better than they are, and they do not wish to confess they are sinners, helpless to keep God's law. There is no hope for anyone until he stops justifying himself and acknowledges his guilt before God (Rom 3:19,20).

10:30-37 Only Luke records this parable. On the surface it shows what is meant by "neighbor" and "love", and answers the second question of the law expert (v 29). But there may be a deeper spiritual application which answers the first question (v 25). If the answer to that question is not suggested by this parable then Jesus did not really give an answer to it to this man at all, which would seem surprising. But in making spiritual application it may be unwise to press the details too strongly. See notes at Matt 13:18-23.

10:30 Jerusalem was about 800 meters above sea level and Jericho was about 27 kilometers away and about 250 meters below sea level. Jerusalem was the city of God the great King (Matt 5:35). Jericho was the city under a curse (Josh 6:26). The steep and rocky road to Jericho provided good places for robbers to lurk. This world is a very rocky place, and Satan and his servants are out to take away all that men have (John 8:44; 1 Pet 5:8). They have stripped man of the righteousness God originally gave him, wounded him grievously and left him half-dead – possessing physical life but dead spiritually (Gen 2:17; 3:1-5; Eph 2:1-3).

10:31,32 Notes on priests at Ex 28:1. On Levites see Num 1:47-50. Neither of these two loved his neighbor as himself. On another level we may say that priests and Levites (representing the Old Testament system of law and sacrifices) cannot really help a sinner robbed and wounded to death by Satan. See Acts 13:38,39; Rom 8:3; Gal 2:16; Heb 8:7,8; 9:9,10; 10:1-4,11.

10:33-35 Notes on Samaritans at John 4:4-9. The Jews looked down on them and refused to have anything to do with them. This one showed what love means, what it means to be a neighbor. Evidently Jesus means that a neighbor is anyone we might meet, even a stranger, whether or not of another race, nation, color or religion.

The spiritual application of these verses answers the question in v 25. The man in the parable was dying and could not do anything to preserve his life or give himself new life. He was completely helpless. Compare Rom 5:6; 8:7; Eph 2:4,5. The Samaritan may speak to us of Christ who was despised and rejected of men (Isa 53:3), and was even called a Samaritan (John 8:48,49). The Lord Jesus does for helpless sinful men what they could never do for themselves – save them and give them eternal life (19:10; John 3:16,17; 10:27,28).

10:36,37 In our attempts to find deeper was a neighbour to him who fell among the robbers?"

37 And he said, "The one who showed mercy to him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go, and do the same."

38 Now it happened, as they were traveling along, that he entered a certain village, and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at Jesus' feet and listened to his words. 40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and came to him and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to serve alone? So tell her to help me."

41 And Jesus answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. 42 But one thing is necessary, and Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."

11 And it happened that as he was praying in a certain place, when he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

2 And he said to them, "When you pray, say,

Our Father who is in heaven,

Hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

Your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

spiritual truth in this story let us not forget the application Jesus made to this expert in the law. This application is very practical. God demands that we actually show love to all. We must be ready to help those in need, regardless of who they are, and not just discuss the meaning of Christ's parables (Matt 5:43-48; John 13:34; Rom 13:8-10; Gal 6:10; 1 John 3:16-18).

10:38 This village was Bethany, about 3 kilometers from Jerusalem. See Matt 21:17; John 11:1.

10:40 Mark 4:38. She was rebuking the Lord Jesus, little knowing that He had a heart that cared for the whole world and desired the highest good of everyone. She was thinking only of physical work and her involvement in it. Her words mean "Pity me. I am working so hard, and you are keeping others from helping."

10:41,42 Jesus did not mean that physical work, the preparation of a meal, etc, was useless and unnecessary. He was simply putting the emphasis where it belonged - He was to be with them for only a short time and had much truth to teach them. Mary seized the opportunity, Martha let other matters keep her from it.

11:1 Praying was a continual practice of Jesus, mentioned more often by Luke than any other Gospel author (references at 5:16). The request of the disciples indicates they realized how little they knew about prayer. This realization probably came by observing Jesus' life of prayer. Now also disciples will be aware of their need to learn to pray. Compare Rom 8:26. If we learn to pray we will be learning the most spiritual, the greatest and most blessed activity that human beings can do.

5 And he said to them, "Which of you will have a friend, and will go to him at midnight, and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, 6 for a friend of mine on his journey has come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?' 7 And from inside he will answer and say, 'Don't trouble me. The door is now locked, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give you bread.' 8 I say to you, Though he will not get up and give him the loaves, because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will get up and give him as many as he needs.

11:2-4 Notes at Matt 6:9-13.

"Everyone who is indebted to us" - that is, everyone who has not behaved toward us as they should have, everyone who has sinned against us.

11:5-8 This story teaches the need of prayer and one essential element in successful praying - persistence. In ourselves we are as those who "have nothing" - nothing of spiritual value that can help others. And we come to Him who has everything. God is not reluctant to help those who come to Him (as the friend in this parable was), but He will test the genuineness of our faith (Matt 15:21-28; 1 Pet 1:7,8; Heb 11:6; Jer 29:13). He wants us to earnestly seek Him. And through our seeking Him and our persistent praying He will be better preparing us for the proper use of the things we ask of Him.

11:8 "He will. . .give him as many as he needs" - God will do the same, as verses 9-13 make abundantly clear. See also Matt 7:7-11; Rom 8:32; Phil 4:19.

scorpion? 13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

14 And he was driving out a demon, and it was mute. And it came about that when the demon had gone out, the mute person spoke. And the people were amazed.

15 But some of them said, "He drives out demons through Beelzebub the ruler of the demons."

16 And others, testing him, demanded from him a miraculous sign from heaven.

17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is ruined, and a house divided against a house falls. 18 Now if Satan is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? I say this because you say I drive out demons through Beelzebub. 19 But if I drive out demons through Beelzebub, through whom do your sons drive them out? Therefore they will be your judges. 20 But if I drive out demons with the finger of God, without doubt the kingdom of God has come to you. 21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his possessions are secure, 22 But when someone stronger than he comes upon him and overpowers him, he takes from him all that armour in which he trusted, and divides up the spoils. 23 He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.

24 "When an unclean spirit has gone out of a man, it goes through dry places, looking for rest, and finding none, it says, 'I will return to my house which I left.' 25 And when it comes, it finds it swept and put in order. 26 Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first."

27 And as he spoke these things, it happened that a certain woman in the crowd raised her voice, and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you."

28 But he said, "Instead, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it."

29 And when even more people had gathered together, he began speaking, "This is an evil generation. They are looking for a miraculous sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. 30 For just as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of man will be to this generation. 31 The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and now a greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now a greater than Jonah is here.

33 "No one lights a lamp and puts it in a secret place, or under a basket, but on a lampstand, so that those who come in may see the light. 34 The light of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is full of light; but when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness. 35 So watch out that the light that is in you is not darkness. 36 Therefore, if your whole body is full of light, with no part dark, the whole will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

37 And as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked

11:13 Matt 7:11 has "good gifts" instead of "the Holy Spirit." Jesus here is more specific and promises the greatest of all gifts – God gives the Holy Spirit to those who do not have Him. We should remember that Jesus gave this promise before the Holy Spirit was given to all believers as He is now – John 7:39. Now all who belong to Christ, all believers in Him, have the Holy Spirit – see Rom 8:9. But if anyone is struggling with doubts about whether he has the Holy Spirit living in him, let him look at these words of Jesus and see how willing God is to give His Spirit.

It seems to the author of these notes that this promise may also be used in seeking the fullness of the Holy Spirit, for it reveals God's heart, His gracious character that delights to give what we need. Surely God is just as willing to give the Spirit's fullness as He is to give His Spirit (for notes on the Spirit's fullness see John 7:37-39; Acts 1:5; Eph 5:18). This is one of the very greatest of God's "good gifts." This fullness is received by going in child-like faith to the Heavenly Father and asking and receiving directly from Him (1 John 5:14,15).

11:14-23 Matt 12:22-30.

11:16 Verse 29; Matt 12:28.

11:24-26 Matt 12:43-45.

11:27,28 Observe here the teaching of the Lord Jesus on what makes people blessed. It is not any possible physical or family relationship. Blessedness comes only by a personal relationship to God, by obedience to His Word.

"Blessed" – Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Deut 28:3-14; Ps 1:1; 119:1; Matt 5:3-10; Acts 3:26; Gal 3:14; Eph 1:3.

11:29-32 Matt 12:38-42.

11:34-36 Matt 5:15; 6:22,23.

11:35 Jesus puts responsibility on men where it belongs. Light here stands for truth, for spiritual understanding. God gives light to all, but men can love darkness rather than light, and they can back away from the light they have and turn into darkness the light that has shined on their minds (John 1:9; 3:19-21; 8:12; 12:46. Compare Rom 1:18-23,25).

11:37 7:36; 14:1. The Pharisees as a group were opposed to Jesus, but individually him to eat with him. And he went in and sat down to eat. 38 And when the Pharisee saw this, he was surprised that he had not first washed before dinner

39 And the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but your inner part is full of greed and wickedness. 40 You fools! Did not he who made the outside also make the inside? 41 But give away what is inside as charity, and then all things are clean to you.

42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you give titles of mint and rue and every kind of herb, and pass by justice and the love of God. These you should have practiced without leaving the other undone.

43 "Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the seats of honour in the synagogues, and greetings in the marketplaces.

44 "Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like unmarked graves, which men walk over unaware."

45 Then answered one of the lawyers and said to him, "Teacher, by saying this you are insulting us too."

46 And he said, "Woe to you also, you lawyers! For you load men down with burdens hard to carry, but you yourselves do not touch those burdens with one of your fingers.

47 "Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 In fact, you are giving testimony that you approve of the deeds of your fathers. For indeed they killed them, and you build their tombs. 49 Therefore, the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and some persecute, 50 so that the blood of all the prophets that has been shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation, 51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Truly I say to you, it will be required of this generation.

52 "Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You yourselves did not enter, and you hindered those who were entering."

53 And as he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose him fiercely, and to ply him with questions about more things, 54 setting a trap for him and seeking to catch words from his mouth, so they could accuse him.

12 In the meantime, when multiplied thousands of people had gathered together, so that they trampled on one another, he began speaking first of all to his disciples,

"Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 For there is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be known. 3 Therefore, whatever you have spoken in darkness will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 "And I say to you, my friends, Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will warn you whom you should fear: Fear him who, after he has killed, has power to throw into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him.

14 And he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?"

15 And he said to them, "Watch out, and beware of greed, for a man's life does not consist in the abundance of the things which he possesses."

16 And he spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man was very productive. 17 And he thought to himself, saying, 'What will I do, because I have no room to store my crops?' 18 And he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and there store all my crops and goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.' 20 But God said to him, 'You fool, this very night your soul will be demanded from you. Then who will have those things which you have provided?'

21 "This is what he is like who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

22 And he said to his disciples, "Therefore, I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about the body, what you will wear. 23 Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap. They have neither a storehouse nor a barn. And God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than the birds!

25 "And which of you by worrying can add a single cubit to his height? 26 If you, then, are not able to do what is least, why worry about the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow. They do not work, they do not spin; and yet I tell you that even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these. 28 Now if God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more he will clothe you, O you of little faith! 29 And do not be searching your mind for what you will eat, or what you will drink, and do not have an anxious mind. 30 For all these things the people of the world seek after, and your Father knows that you have need of these things. 31 But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things will also come to you.

32 "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell what you have, and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves which do not get old, an unfailing treasure in the heavens, where no thief comes near, no moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

12:8,9 See 9:26; Matt 10:33; Mark 8:38; Rom 10:9,10. Men are not saved because they confess Christ, but by grace through faith (Eph 2:8,9). But those who are saved will confess Christ; it is one of the evidences that they have trusted and received Him.

12:10 Matt 12:31,32.

12:11,12 Matt 10:17,19.

12:14 "Judge" - He did not come for that purpose-John 3:17; 12:47. When He comes again He will judge the world - Acts 10:42; 17:31; 2 Tim 4:1.

12:15 This warning against greed is as much needed today as ever - 6:20; Matt 19:23,24; 1 Cor 6:10; Eph 5:3,5; Col 3:5; 1 Tim 6:9-11.

12:16 "Parable" - Matt 13:3,18-23. This one is found only in Luke. The truth taught here is found throughout the Bible.

12:17-19 This man's character is revealed by his words. There is no word here of thanks to God or of giving to God's work, no word about helping those in need. The man was self-centered, selfish and thought only of his own pleasure.

12:20 The man thought he was wise - God thought him a fool (Isa 55:8,9). God considers detestable what sinful men esteem highly (Luke 16:15). Selfishness is foolishness, leaving God out of one's thoughts and plans is foolishness, assuming that we may live for many years and live as we please is foolishness (Jam 4:13-17). It is wise to do as Jesus said in Matt 6:19-21. Our lives are in God's hands and He can take them when He pleases.

12:21 This is the only place in the Bible this striking phrase "Rich toward God" is used. Compare vs 33,34; Prov 19:17. "Rich toward God" is the exact opposite of rich toward self (vs 17-19).

12:22-31 Matt 6:25-33.

12:29 Believers' hearts should be set only on God and His kingdom. See Col 3:1,2. Compare Phil 3:19,20.

12:31 See Matt 6:33.

12:32 This means "Do not be afraid to be poor, to have nothing, to be cast on God's grace for the necessities of life. God will not fail His people. He has given them places in His kingdom. He will surely give everything else they need" (Rom 8:32; Phil 4:19).

12:33 See 3:11; 6:30; 11:41; 14:33; 18:22, 28. Treasures in heaven will last forever.

12:34 Matt 6:19-21.

35 "Let your waist be belted, and your lamps burning, 36 and you yourselves be like men who wait for their master to return from the wedding, so that when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open the door to him. 37 When the master comes, blessed are those servants whom he will find watching. Truly I say to you, he will fasten his belt, have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them. 38 And if he comes in the second watch, or in the third watch, and finds them like that, blessed are those servants. 39 And understand this: If the house owner had known what time the thief would come, he would have watched and not let his house be broken into.

40 "Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of man will come at a time that you do not expect."

41 Then Peter said to him, "Lord, are you speaking this parable for us, or for everyone?"

42 And the Lord said, "Who, then, is that faithful and wise manager, whom his master places over his household, to give them their food allowance at the proper time? 43 When his master comes, blessed is that servant whom he will find doing so. 44 I tell you the truth, he will make him ruler over all that he has. 45 But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is postponing his coming,' and begins to beat the men servants and maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, 46 the lord of that servant will come in a day when he is not looking for him, and at an hour he is not aware of, and will cut him in two, and will appoint him to a place with unbelievers.

12:35 See the parable at Matt 25:1-13.

12:37 Matt 24:42,46; 25:13.

12:38 This refers to a time after Christ's second coming. Imagine the King of kings and Lord of lords, after He appears in glory, waiting on tables where His disciples sit! But, then, the Lord Jesus always delighted in humble service - 22:27; Matt 20:28; John 13:4,5,12-16, and appearing in glory will not change Him. Alas, that so many who claim to be His followers should be so different.

12:39-46 Matt 24:43-51.

12:47,48 In the day of judgment God will take into account the varying degrees of knowledge and opportunity that people have had.

12:49 Fire is often used symbolically in the Bible - Ex 3:2; 13:21; 19:18; Deut 32:32; Ps 18:8; Matt 3:11. Here it may signify the persecutions and troubles that would accompany the spread of His gospel in the world. "Fire" may signify such things - Ps 66:12; Isa 43:2; Lam 1:13. But why would the Lord Jesus want such fire to come? Because He knew it was bound up with the advancement of His kingdom and the spread of His truth.

12:50 By "baptism" here He meant the sufferings and death He was soon to be immersed in.

"Pressed" - Jesus experienced the 47 "And that servant who knew his master's will, and did not prepare himself, and did not do according to his will, shall be beaten with many blows. 48 But he who did not know, and did things deserving a beating, will be beaten with few blows. For whoever has been given much, much will be demanded from him; and to whom much is entrusted, they will ask much more from him.

49 "I am come to send fire on the earth; and how I wish it were already kindled! 50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how pressed I am until it is accomplished!

51 "Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? I tell you, no, division instead. 52 For from now on, in one house, five will be divided, three against two and two against three. 53 The father will be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

54 And he also said to the people, "When you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming'; and so it is. 55 And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'It will be hot'; and it is. 56 You hypocrites! You can discern the appearance of the sky and the earth, but how is it that you do not discern the present time? 57 Yes, why don't you judge by yourselves what is right?"

58 "When you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, while on the road, make an effort compulsion of divine love which was determined that salvation should come to the human race. It pressed Him ever onward to face any suffering, even the death of the cross as a substitute for sinners.

12:51-53 Matt 10:34-36.

12:54 "The west" meant a cloud from the Mediterranean Sea bringing moisture.

12:55 The south wind blew from the desert.

12:56 The Lord Jesus was saying that the signs of a change in the spiritual climate were as plain as any sign indicating a change in physical climate. See 7:18-23.

12:57 The people (v 54) should not permit others to tell them what to think and believe. The evidence that Jesus was the Messiah, the Son of God, was clear and they should recognize it and act on it. It is a sad fact that many today also will not think for themselves about the evidence Jesus gives, but allow themselves to be led astray by some guru or other.

12:58,59 The meaning of these verses may be quite different from the similar ones in Matt 5:25,26. The context here (vs 49-57) leads us to think so. The meaning may be as follows - the "magistrate" signifies God the judge of all men; the "adversary" signifies God's law which condemns men (compare Eph 2:13-17; Col 2:13,14) - or to be delivered from him so he will not drag you off to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you in to jail. 59 I tell you that you will not leave there until you have paid the very last coin."

13 At that same time some were present who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus in answer said to them, "Do you think that those Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered this way? 3 I tell you, No. But unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did. 4 Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower in Siloam fell on them, do you think they were worse sinners than everyone else who lived in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, No. But unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did."

6 He also spoke this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and looked for fruit on it, and found none. 7 Then he said to the man taking care of his vineyard, 'Look, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and haven't found any. Cut it possibly the one the Jews continually disputed with and regarded as an adversary – the Lord Jesus. The "prison" signifies hell (compare 2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6). The spiritual lesson is – be reconciled to God, His law and His Son while there is opportunity (2 Cor 5:18-21). 13:1 "Pilate" – 3:1; Matt 27:2. This incident is not recorded anywhere else. It gives us some insight into Pilate's character. He had people put to death while they were worshiping at the temple. The reason is not given.

13:2,3 When great disasters come on people, we may be tempted to think they deserve those disasters because they were worse than others. See notes at Job 4:7-9; 8:3. This may actually be so in some cases (2 Peter 2:5-7). But this was not so in the case of these Galileans and often may not be so. The Lord Jesus wants us to learn a lesson from disasters – the need to repent and not to think we are better than those who suffer. Disasters could as justly come on us as on them. Note on repentance at Matt 3:2.

13:4 Siloam was in Jerusalem (Neh 3:15; John 9:7). This incident is also not recorded anywhere else.

13:6-9 This parable, found only in Luke, connects with the verses above and speaks of God overseeing the affairs of men and in His wisdom bringing judgment on them. He may use men like Pilate to do this, or falling towers, or any other means. See Lev 26:14-33; Deut 28:20-29; Jud 2:14,15; Isa 10:5,6; Jer 14:11,12.

13:6 In speaking of the fig tree here the Lord Jesus may have had both individuals and the nation Israel in mind. See Matt 21:18-22 and notes. The man who had the

fig tree signifies God. The man who takes care of the vineyard signifies His servants or perhaps the Lord Jesus Himself. We may be sure that God is always observing what men do and do not do, and is always removing some from earth and patiently waiting for a limited time in the case of others. Every life without good fruit is in danger – Matt 3:10; 7:19; Isa 51:1-7; John 15:2,6. 13:7 Men who do not bear fruit for God are simply taking up space on His earth to no purpose. Should He permit them to remain indefinitely?

down. Why should it use up the ground?' 8 And he answered and said to him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also until I dig around it and fertilize it. 9 And if it bears fruit, good; and if not, then after that you can cut it down.'"

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. 11 And, suddenly, a woman was there who had had a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years, and she was bent over and could not straighten up at all.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her and said to her, "Woman, you are set free from your infirmity." 13 And he laid hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. 14 And the ruler of the synagogue responded with indignation because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, and said to the people, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come and be healed on those days, and not on the Sabbath day."

15 Then the Lord answered him and said, "Hypocrite! Does not each one of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead him off to water? 16 And should not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom

fig tree signifies God. The man who takes care of the vineyard signifies His servants or perhaps the Lord Jesus Himself. We may be sure that God is always observing what men do and do not do, and is always removing some from earth and patiently waiting for a limited time in the case of others. Every life without good fruit is in danger – Matt 3:10; 7:19; Isa 51:1-7; John 15:2,6. 13:7 Men who do not bear fruit for God are simply taking up space on His earth to no purpose. Should He permit them to remain indefinitely?

13:8,9 The man who took care of the vineyard by interceding for the fig tree delayed judgment at least for a while and, if the fig tree began to bear fruit, turned judgment away altogether. Compare Gen 18:22-33; Ex 32:7-14,31,32; Ezek 22:30,31. Where would any of us "fig trees" be, if the Lord Jesus didn't pray for us incessantly? (Rom 8:34; Heb 7:25).

13:10 "Synagogues" – Matt 4:23. "Sabbath" – Ex 20:8-11.

13:11 An evil spirit (demon) can cause various physical infirmities – Matt 9:32,33; 12:22; Mark 9:25. But this does not give us the right to think that every illness of every kind is the work of a demon.

13:13 Matt 19:13; Mark 5:23; 6:5; 7:32; 8:23; 16:18.

13:14 Matt 12:2,9-14.

13:15 He called them hypocrites here because they had two standards, one for themselves, another for others. And they cared more for the welfare of their animals than for human beings whom they were commanded in the law to love – Lev 19:18.

13:16 She was a descendant of Abraham

Satan has bound now for eighteen years, be set free from this bond on the Sabbath day?"

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame. And all the people rejoiced because of all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then he said, "What is the kingdom of God like? What shall I compare it to? 19 It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and threw into his garden, and it grew and became a large tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches."

20 And again he said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until the whole was leavened."

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and travelling toward Jerusalem. 23 Then someone said to him, "Lord, are only a few saved?" And he said to them,

24 "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I say to you, will try to enter and will not be able. 25 When once the master of the house has gotten up and shut the door, and outside you begin to stand and knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us,' he will answer and say to you, 'I do not know where you are from.' 26 Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' 27 But he will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers.'

28 "There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrown out. 29 And they will come from the east and the west, and from the north and the south, and will sit down in the kingdom of God. 30 And indeed there are those who are last who will be first, and there are those who are first who will be last."

31 That same day some of the Pharisees came, saying to him, "Get out and leave here, for Herod wants to kill you."

32 And he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Look, I drive out demons, and I perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I will reach the goal.' 33 Nevertheless I must go on today, and tomorrow, and the following day, for it cannot be that a prophet should perish out of Jerusalem.

34 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to you, how often I would have gathered your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under its wings, and you were not willing! 35 Now your house is left to you desolate; and truly I say to you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

14 And it happened when he went into the house of one of the leading Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched him closely. 2 And there in front of him was a certain the forefather of the Jewish nation.

"Satan" – 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44; 12:31.

13:17 "Put to shame" – Ps 25:3; 44:7; 78:66; 83:16; 132:18.

13:18-21 Matt 13:31-33.

13:23 Few will be saved in any one time compared with the whole population (Matt 7:14), but there will be many when the saved of all times and places are added together. Compare Rev 7:9.

13:24 Jesus is saying that an individual should not speculate about the number of people God may save, but make sure he or she is among them.

"Strive zealously" – this is one word in the Greek. Everyone should attempt with great zeal and earnestness to enter God's spiritual kingdom. This does not mean that a person can gain entrance into it by hard work, or piling up merit, or some such thing. Rather, it indicates that there will be difficulties and obstacles in the way of those who would go through the narrow door into it, there will be opposing forces. Also it suggests that there is great danger for those who have not entered. It indicates also that there is something very great and wonderful to be received and experienced by those who enter, something worth all the struggle. See notes at Matt 7:13,14; 11:12.

Compare Matt 5:29,30.

13:25 The door of opportunity will not remain open forever – Matt 25:10,11; Prov 1:20-33.

13:26 They should have understood that the opportunities they had to hear His Word only increased their guilt, since they did not obey it.

13:27 Matt 7:23; 25:12.

13:28-30 Matt 8:11,12; 19:30.

13:31 Matt 14:1. Did they vainly imagine they could get rid of the Lord Jesus by frightening Him?

13:32 A fox has a reputation of being a sly animal. But Jesus had no fear of Herod or anyone else as He went toward the goal set before Him. The Lord Jesus knew what He was going to do and what would happen to Him and how and when He would finish His course on earth – v 33; Matt 16:21; 17:22,23; John 7:30.

13:33 This was spoken ironically. Many prophets had been killed in Jerusalem and Jesus knew He would die there, and not at the hands of Herod in some other place.

13:34,35 Matt 23:37,38.

14:1 "Pharisees" – Matt 3:7. They watched Jesus because of 13:10-17.

"Sabbath" – Ex 20:8-11.

14:2 Dropsy is a disease that causes swelling of the limbs.

man who had dropsy. 3 And Jesus responded and spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" 4 And they kept quiet. And he took him, healed him, and let him go, 5 and responded to them, saying, "Which of you who has a donkey or an ox fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?" 6 And they could not give him an answer to these things.

7 And he told a parable to those who had been invited, when he observed how they chose the places of honour, saying to them,

8 "When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit in the place of honour, for perhaps a man more distinguished than you has been invited by him, 9 and the one who invited you and him will come and say to you, 'Give this man your place,' and you, humiliated, have to take the lowest place. 10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will have honour in the presence of those who sit to eat with you. 11 For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

12 Then he said to the one who invited him, "When you give a dinner or supper, don't invite your friends, or your brothers, or your relatives or rich neighbours, for they may invite you in return, and so you will be repaid. 13 But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, 14 and you will be blessed, for, because they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

15 And when one of those who were sitting with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!"

16 Then he said to him, "A certain man gave a great supper, and invited many. 17 And he sent his servant at supper time to say to those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.'

18 "And they all with one mind began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of land, and I need to go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.' 19 And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.' 20 And another said, 'I have married a wife, and so I can't come.'

21 "So that servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house was angry and said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.'

14:3 Jesus knew the answer – 13:15,16; Matt 12:11,12. He was trying to make them think sensibly.

"Lawyers" – note at 10:25.

14:7 Matt 23:6,7.

14:11 Jesus here makes a spiritual application of the above. God is the one who will humble or exalt men, and He will do it taking into consideration their character and attitude – 11:43; 18:14; 20:46; Prov 3:34; 25:6,7; Matt 18:4; 23:12; Jam 4:10; 1 Peter 5:6.

14:12-14 Jesus here gives a good principle to follow, but how many have ever followed it? It is one that the vast majority of people would rather hear than practice.

14:14 "Repaid" – God will do this – Prov 19:17; 14:21; Matt 10:42.

"Resurrection of the righteous" – John 5:28,29; 1 Cor 15:22,23,51,52; 1 Thess 4:16; Rev 20:4-6.

14:15 "Eat bread" – means to partake of a meal or feast. Compare Isa 25:6; Matt 8:11; 25:1-10; 26:29; Rev 19:9.

"Kingdom of God" – Matt 4:17. Blessed indeed are they who will feast in it. But in the following parable the Lord Jesus points out that many people do not understand this and reject every invitation to come to that feast. Compare Matt 22:1-14.

14:16 "A certain man" signifies God Himself. At first He sent His invitation to the Jews to whom Christ came – Matt 10:6; 15:24; Rom 1:16. Now He sends invitations to people all over the world – Matt 28:18-20;

Mark 16:15; Luke 24:46,47.

14:17 Everything having to do with salvation and God's kingdom has been prepared by God Himself. Jesus is the feast God prepared. Compare John 6:27,33,35,53-58. All that people need to do is accept God's invitation and come to Him in faith.

14:18 Here is an amazing thing! Who does not like to attend a great feast? These people behaved as if they had been invited to a very unpleasant occasion that had to be avoided at any cost. The reason for their behavior is found in verses like John 3:19,20; 7:7; 15:18; Rom 8:6,7; 2 Cor 4:3,4; Eph 4:18.

The excuses men make to keep from receiving Christ as their Lord and Saviour are as foolish as these recorded here. What sensible man buys a field without ever seeing it? Or buys oxen without seeing and testing them (v 19)? What sensible man would not think that perhaps his wife would like to go with him to a feast (v 20)? The truth is they simply did not want to go to the feast, and no excuse could conceal this fact.

14:21 The man was sure to be angry. By refusing his invitation the invited ones were giving a terrible insult. And those who refuse God's invitation to salvation and blessedness and heaven are insulting Him. And will He not be angry? But in the end He will have His house full of guests, even though they may be poor and disabled in themselves. See 1 Cor 1:26-29.

22 And the servant said, 'Master, it has been done as you commanded, and still there is room.'

23 And the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedgerows, and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full. 24 For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.'

25 And great crowds were going along with him. And he turned around and said to them, 26 "If anyone comes to me, and does not hate his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. 27 And whoever does not carry his cross and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 "For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first, and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it? 29 Otherwise, after he has laid the foundation and is not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will begin to make fun of him, 30 saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.'

31 "Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to meet the one who is coming against him with twenty thousand? 32 Otherwise, while the other is still a long way off, he will send a delegation and ask for terms of peace.

33 "So, in the same way, any of you who does not give up all that he has, he cannot be my disciple.

14:23 This shows how God longs for the salvation of men. It is not enough for Him to prepare it all in Christ, and send out His invitations everywhere through Christ's servants. He uses every means to overcome people's reluctance to be saved. The great Creator pleads with His creatures to come for blessings which, if they displayed the slightest spiritual understanding, they should be rushing eagerly to obtain (Isa 55:1-3; Ezek 18:30-32; 2 Cor 5:18-21). 14:24 This was a warning to the Jewish nation which was rejecting Him (compare Matt 21:43), but also to any individual who keeps refusing God's invitation to come to Christ. 14:25 He knew that many in such crowds were not true followers. And many, doubtless, would misinterpret stories such as vs 16-23 and think that the requirements for discipleship were not very demanding. Now the Lord sets out to correct any possible misunderstanding. He gives three absolutely necessary requirements for those who would follow Him and learn from Him. These are:

The disciple's attitude toward others must be right (v 26)

His attitude toward himself must be right (vs 26,27)

And his attitude toward things must be right (v 33).

These requirements are inward attitudes of the heart, and they reveal the work of God there. They are not in any of us by nature, but are produced by the operation of the Holy Spirit when He brings people to true faith in Christ. Observe that the qualifications Christ demands for discipleship have nothing to do with intellect, education, position in society, nationality, or other matters men make much of.

14:26 The Lord Jesus demands first place in His disciple's heart. See Matt 10:37. The order is Christ first, others second, self last (or indeed not at all - v 27). In many professing Christians, alas, this order is reversed - self first, others second, Christ last (or not at all).

"Hate" - we should compare this with Matt 10:37. Here it seems that "hate" means "love less." Disciples should not literally hate anyone (Matt 5:43-48; 22:37,38). But our love for family members must sometimes seem like hate compared to our love for Christ. Love for Him will cause us to leave them, if necessary, to follow Him, to give our life to Him rather than to them.

"Hate. . . even his own life" - the disciple must not live for self. His love for Christ must be such that his love for himself seems like hate, and causes him to try to put all his selfishness to death. Compare Luke 9:23; etc.

"Disciple" - see note at Matt 10:1. To be a true believer is to be a disciple. How can we think that people become believers in Christ without being taught by Him (disciple means pupil, someone under instruction)? Those who want to be believers without being disciples are showing that they do not really love the Lord Jesus or His teaching. And if they do not love Him or His teaching is it not vain to regard themselves as believers? See 1 Cor 16:22.

14:27 Matt 10:38; Luke 9:23.

14:28,29 Discipleship is about building a life - a spiritual life for God (Matt 7:24). The person who does not meet the requirements will not be able to build and finish. Many seem to begin well who do not go on. This is because from the beginning their inner attitudes were not right.

14:31,32 Discipleship is about a battle - a spiritual warfare (Eph 6:10-18). Those who do not meet Christ's requirements will not be able to win. The only way to defeat Satan is to love Christ above all. Compare Rev 12:11. Those who want to be disciples of Jesus should in advance consider carefully what is required to finish and to win (vs 28,31).

14:33 The disciple's attitude toward things must be right (6:20:24; 12:15; Matt 6:19; 1 Tim 6:6-11). God will not give us the resources we need to finish the spiritual building, or win the war unless we are willing to give up all of our own resources for Christ. Compare Phil 3:7,8. This is an infallible principle - those who renounce will receive, those who greedily grasp will lose (Compare 9:24; 17:33; Matt 10:39; John 12:25).

34 "Salt is good. But if salt loses its taste, what will it be seasoned with? 35 It is not fit for the soil or for the manure pile. Men throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

15 Then all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to hear him. 2 And the Pharisees and scribes grumbled, saying, "This man receives sinners, and eats with them."

3 And he spoke this parable to them, saying, 4 "What man among you who has a hundred sheep and has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the pasture and go after the lost one until he finds it? 5 And when he finds it, he puts it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he comes home, he calls his friends and neighbours together and says to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.'

7 "I tell you that in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who have no need of repentance.

Here is another – if we are not willing to give up all we have for Christ, this shows that we value what we have more than Him and His blessings. And why should God give us something that we value so little? Compare Prov 4:7; Mark 10:21,22.

14:34,35 Matt 5:13; Mark 9:50. To profess to be Christ's followers and to be lacking in the requirements for discipleship is to be like salt that has no saltiness. It is fit for nothing, and its end is to be thrown out (compare Matt 25:30). Christianity without discipleship, without sacrifice is not only useless, it is surely a source of amusement to the devil.

Every person who reads this should ask "Am I really a disciple of Christ? In the light of these requirements, do I even want to be a disciple of His?" The answer we give to such questions is exceedingly important and has eternal consequences.

15:1 Note on tax collectors at Matt 5:46. "Sinners" were those who did not, like the Pharisees, pretend to be righteous and holy.

15:2 See Matt 9:11-13. They complained when Christ did the very thing they should have done – Ezek 34:2-4; Zech 11:16.

"Pharisees" – Matt 3:7.

15:3 Note on parables at Matt 13:1,18-23. 15:4-7 Notes at Matt 18:12-14.

15:7 Note on repentance at Matt 3:2. See also Matt 9:13. The religious leaders complained about Jesus going after lost sheep (sinners – v 2). What brought grumbling and criticism from them brought joy to the whole of heaven.

"Who have no need of repentance" – are there any such? Yes, all those who are in heaven. On earth too there are many who have already repented of their wanderings and have come to Christ. And there are many who, like the Pharisees (18:9), think

8 "Or what woman who has ten pieces of silver and loses one piece, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? 9 And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbours together, and says, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece that I lost.'

10 "I tell you, in the same way there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

11 And he said, "A certain man had two sons. 12 And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share in the estate coming to me.' And he divided his property between them.

13 "And not many days later the younger son gathered everything together, and went off to a far country. There he wasted his resources in wild living. 14 And when he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in need. 15 And he went and attached himself to a citizen of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. 16 And he longed to fill his they do not need to repent when actually it is the thing they need most.

15:8-10 The sheep was lost in the wilderness away from the fold (v 4). This coin was lost in the house of the woman. The sheep was lost because its foolish nature is to wander. The coin was lost due to the carelessness of the woman. The woman can hardly signify Christ (who is never careless), but she may well signify Christ's church. Both the lost sheep and lost coin represent the lost sinner, or possibly the backsliding Christian. And the result of the finding is the same – joy.

15:11-32 The sheep was lost because of its foolish wandering, and the coin because of carelessness. The son made a deliberate choice to forsake his father's house and do his own thing. Compare Isa 53:6.

15:12 This son represents those who have no thoughts for eternity, who want whatever they think is coming to them in this world, and want it now.

15:13 He did not want his father around to restrain him in anything he wished to do. He is like those who want to act as they please without any restraining influence from God. His wild living speaks of what every person who forsakes God does in spiritual matters (though such may actually pile up material wealth) – their strength, time, power of thought, talents, etc, are all thrown away on vain and empty pursuits instead of used for God (Isa 55:1,2; Eccl 2:4-11).

15:15 To Jews pigs were useless and unclean animals (Lev 11:7). This man fell to a very low place indeed. So has the sinner – he occupies himself with useless, unclean things (compare Isa 64:6; Matt 15:18-20; 23:27; Rom 1:24; 6:19; Eph 4:17-19; 1 Pet 1:18).

15:16 What sinners get in this world is stomach with the husks that the pigs ate, and no one gave him anything.

17 "And when he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have more than enough bread and I am dying from hunger! 18 I will get up and go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and against you, 19 and am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired men.'

20 "And he got up and went to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him, was moved with compassion and ran and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 "And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and against you, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 "But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him. And put a ring on his hand, and sandals on his feet. 23 And bring the fattened calf and kill it. And let us eat and celebrate, 24 for this son of mine was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.' And they began to celebrate.

25 "Now his older son was in the field, and when he came and drew near the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. 27 And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.'

28 "And he was angry and would not go in. So his father came out, and begged him. 29 And in answer he said to his father: 'Look, all these years I have slaved for you, and never disobeyed an order of yours. And yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. 30 But as soon as this son of yours comes, who has consumed your possessions with prostitutes, for him you killed the fattened calf!'

31 "And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. 32 It was right for us to celebrate and be glad, for this brother of yours was dead, and is alive again, and was lost, and is found.'"

really nothing better than pig's food. See what Paul thought – Phil 3:8. And in the way that is most important, there is no one in the world who will help them or who can help them. Sin brings spiritual poverty and utter destitution, beyond the help of any except God – Rom 5:6; 7:18.

15:17 People who forsake God and do their own thing are spiritually insane (Eccl 9:3), and need to come to their senses. Remembering his father's house helped this man to make some good decisions.

15:18,19 This is the language of repentance – Matt 3:6; 1 John 1:9. And this is what Jesus has been speaking of from the beginning of this chapter – vs 1,2,7.

15:20 See what God is like and how He treats sinners who come to Him. He gives no rebuke, no complaint, no punishment, but only a loving welcome.

"Kissed" – he received kisses rather than the kicks or the curses he deserved (compare Isa 55:7; John 3:16; 6:37; Eph 2:4,5; Titus 3:4,5; Jam 4:8).

15:21 This is true of every one of us in our behavior toward God. We have all proved ourselves unworthy to be God's children (Ps 51:4,5; Isa 64:6; Rom 3:9-19). We need to recognize and humbly confess this.

15:22 God gives the repenting sinner the best robe that even He has – Isa 61:10; Zech 3:4; Rom 3:21-24. The ring signifies acceptance and exaltation to a high place (see Gen 41:42; Est 3:10,12. Compare Eph 1:13,14; 2:4-7). God gives the repenting sinner signs that he has been accepted. The sandals may speak of the truth of Eph 6:15.

15:23 The Jews were non-vegetarians and to them the calf was a symbol of the best thing available for a feast. Jesus used a phrase that would best convey to them a special occasion for rejoicing. If we were telling the parable now, perhaps some of us in India would use different terminology to teach the same truth.

15:24 The father says the boy was "dead." Compare Gen 2:17; Eph 2:1,5; Col 2:13; 1 Tim 5:6. Our spiritual death in sin is the reason why the new birth is absolutely necessary (John 3:3,5,7). This whole chapter teaches the joy and celebration in heaven over repenting sinners – vs 7,10; see Zeph 3:17. Every time a sinner turns to God is a special occasion to Him.

15:28 This brother signifies the religious leaders of Israel who grumbled when Jesus brought sinners to God (v 2). And Jesus spoke all the parables in this chapter to them (vs 3,8,11). Such people have not disappeared from earth. In vs 28-30 we see some of the sins of this kind of people – anger when mercy was shown, self-esteem, envy when another was blessed, and what looks very much like hatred (he didn't even call the younger son "brother" – v 30, and he refused to go in to the feast. Compare 14:18; Matt 23:13. In God's eyes these sins are as bad as (or even worse than) the sins of the younger brother.

15:31 Israel was God's special nation (Deut 7:6). The kingdom of God was in the hands of the Jews – Matt 21:43. See also Rom 3:1,2; 9:3,5. This elder son represents their leaders in Jesus's day. See what is said of believers now in 1 Cor 3:21-23. All that God has is theirs.

15:32 Verse 24.

16 And he also said to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager, and an accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his property. 2 And he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, for you can no longer be manager.'

3 "Then the manager said to himself, 'What shall I do? For my master is taking away from me this position of manager. I cannot dig. I am ashamed to beg. 4 I know what to do, so that when I am dismissed from the position of manager people will receive me into their homes.' 5 So he called each one of his master's debtors, and said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

6 "And he said, 'A hundred measures of oil.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write fifty.' 7 Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' And he said, 'A hundred measures of wheat.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

16:1 The accusation was of mismanagement which had resulted in loss to the rich man.

"Wasting" - in Greek the same word used in 15:13,30 about the prodigal son.

16:4 He determined to make friends who would help him in the future after he lost his job.

16:8 The master was not praising the manager's dishonesty - he would have hated that. But he could not help seeing how cleverly the manager provided for the future. The Lord Jesus then makes a comment on this.

"Children of this world" - an idiomatic way of saying "people of this world" - those tied to this fallen world, those who do not know God. The "children of light" are people joined to the light of the world, the Lord Jesus - Matt 5:14; John 12:36; Eph 5:8; 1 Thess 5:5. Worldly people act more shrewdly in worldly matters than God's people in heavenly matters. They think of their future on earth and many of them, as the manager in this parable, use wealth to make friends.

16:9 Here Jesus gives the one lesson He wants us to learn from the parable. The people of light should use what they have of this world's goods in a wise and spiritual way to help people. Later such people will welcome them in heaven. This does not mean that salvation and heaven can be gained by helping people financially (see Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:5,6). It does mean that we can lay up treasure in heaven and meet people there whom we have helped on earth (compare Matt 6:19-21; 25:34-40; Ps 112:5,6,9; Heb 6:10).

"Money, that unrighteous thing" - the Greek literally has "unrighteous wealth." But here this does not mean wealth gained in a crooked or unrighteous way. It means wealth that is gained in this unrighteous

8 "And the master commended the unrighteous manager, because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this world are more shrewd among their people than the children of light.

9 "And I say to you, Make friends for yourselves through money, that unrighteous thing, so that when it fails, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. 10 He who is trustworthy in very little is trustworthy also in much, and he who is unrighteous in very little is unrighteous also in much. 11 Therefore if you have not been trustworthy in the matter of money, the unrighteous thing who will entrust the true riches to you? 12 And if you have not been trustworthy in what belongs to another, who will give you what could be your own?

13 "No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

14 And the Pharisees also, who were lovers of world. And all that is connected with this unrighteous world is tainted to some extent with the world's unrighteousness.

16:10 Lest anyone should think He was commending dishonesty in the above parable the Lord Jesus sets forth this exceedingly important principle. A person's character is revealed in small things as well as in large. See how the Lord applies this in 19:11-26; Matt 25:21-23. And all of us are being tested and revealed by what we do with money. Some Christians seem to think that if they believe the right doctrines it is all right for them to cheat, lie and swindle others. This is totally false and dangerous thinking. If dishonesty rules a person's life, can we really think that person knows and loves the Lord Jesus who is the Truth (John 14:6)? Loving Jesus surely means loving truth also. The Lord demands absolute honesty and faithfulness in whatever He puts in our hands (1 Cor 4:1,2). The believer's whole future position in God's kingdom depends now on this factor. Very terrible will be the future loss of those who are dishonest and unfaithful in money matters now.

16:11 True riches are spiritual riches, eternal riches, riches of God's kingdom. The one who entrusts, or does not entrust, them to us is God.

16:12 "What belongs to another" means earthly things entrusted to us. "Your own" means heavenly things which can become one's own in Christ (1 Cor 3:21-23; Col 1:12; 3:23-25).

16:13 Notes at Matt 6:24. Here in Luke the subject is a wise use of worldly goods and faithfulness. There is only one way to be faithful and wise and that is to make God the master of one's life and to reject money as the master.

16:14 These Pharisees, like many men today, instead of learning from the Son of money, heard all these things, and they scoffed at him.

15 And he said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly prized among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 "The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. From that time the kingdom of God is proclaimed, and everyone is forcibly pressing into it. 17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one pen stroke of the Law to fail.

18 "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and whoever marries her that who is divorced from her husband commits adultery.

19 "There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and delighted in luxury every day. 20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus who was laid at his gate, covered with sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 "And it happened that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. 23 And in hell he raised his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And he cried out and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in this flame.'

25 "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, just as Lazarus received bad things. But now he is comforted, and you are in agony. 26 And besides all this, between us and you a great gulf has been

God, sneered at Him. Money was their master, and they were deceived into thinking it was a good one. Money is a good servant but a bad master. The love of it leads to destruction and ruin – 1 Tim 6:6-10. 16:15 See 10:29; 18:9; Matt 6:1,2,5,16. It is surprising that men think they can do anything and think anything they like, and God will not know it (Ps 10:11; 64:5; 73:11; 94:7-11). In the last words of this verse we have another principle which will be true as long as the world is occupied by sinful men. God despises what they think is great. Here the subject is the love of money – an attitude that God hates – but the principle applies to many other things highly regarded by men in general.

16:16 Matt 11:12,13.

16:18 Matt 5:31,32. Jesus gives an example of the continuing force of God's law. It is very likely that many of the Pharisees had put away wives and married others. That may be the reason Jesus spoke these words here.

16:19 In the following verses the Lord Jesus gives a powerful illustration to emphasize the truth He had already taught. It sums up much of Christ's teaching on the rich and poor. "A certain rich man" represents those who have not been faithful in using what God has given them (v 13), have loved money (v 14), and have highly valued what is detestable in God's sight (v 15). This rich man was guilty "every day" of using for himself the wealth that God had enabled him to have. This was misusing it. And he had no desire to help the poor (v 21).

16:20 This is not, of course, the Lazarus of John 11:1-44.

16:21 Lazarus was utterly destitute, but the rich man did not lift a finger to help him. In this way he showed his selfishness, hardness of heart, and contempt for God's Word which speaks everywhere of helping the poor (Lev 19:10; Deut 15:7,8; Ps 41:1; 82:3; 112:9; Prov 19:17; Mark 10:21).

16:22 "Angels" – Gen 16:7.

"Abraham" – Genesis chapters 12-25. Abraham is called the father of all who trust in God – Rom 4:11,12. Going to "Abraham's bosom" indicates that the beggar was a believer as Abraham was. The words signify the place where God's people went after death. It is called "paradise" in 23:43. Not all poor people go to the place of blessedness – only the poor who trust in Christ, who have the faith Abraham had (Rom 4:16; 5:1).

16:23 "Hell" – the Greek has "Hades." "Hades" is used 11 times in the Greek New Testament (Matt 11:23; 16:18; Luke 10:15; 16:23; Acts 2:27,31; 1 Cor 15:55; Rev 1:18; 6:8; 20:13,14). It is similar in meaning to the Hebrew word "Sheol" – see notes at Gen 37:35. For those who die in their sins it is a place of torment (v 25). Not all rich men go there. Abraham himself had been rich (Gen 13:2). But it is not easy for rich men to be saved – 18:24,25. This rich man went into a place of punishment because he was an unbeliever who showed his unbelief by the way he lived (vs 19,21). He was like the man in 12:16-21, and like those in Jam 5:1-5. He illustrates Matt 25:41-46 and 1 Tim 6:9,10. Observe that this rich man was "far off" from Abraham. Paradise and Hades were separated by a great chasm or void or abyss, but were close enough for those in one place to see into the other, and to hear one another.

16:24 He who showed no pity now asked for pity. But he did not receive any mercy (Matt 5:7; 7:2; Ps 18:25,26; Gal 6:7). Observe that after death the rich man (as well as Lazarus and Abraham) was conscious. The soul does not sleep at death, only the body.

"Flame" – Matt 3:10; 5:22; 7:19; 13:40,42; 18:8; 25:41; Mark 8:43-39; Rev 20:15; 21:8.

16:25 There is going to be a great reversal of things after death and after God judges the world.

16:26 The state after death is irreversible, fixed, so that those who would cross over from here to you cannot, nor can those who are there cross over to us.'

27 "Then he said, 'Then I beg you, father, to send him to my father's house, 28 (for I have five brothers) so that he can testify to them, so that they too will not come to this place of torment.'

29 "Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the Prophets. Let them hear them.'

30 "And he said, 'No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

31 "And he said to him, 'If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.'"

17 Then he said to the disciples, "It is impossible for causes of stumbling not to come. But woe to him through whom they come! 2 It would be better for him to be thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around his neck than for him to cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Watch yourselves! If your brother sins against you, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.

and there will be no getting out of the place of punishment. Compare Matt 25:46. Observe that Jesus' teaching in this story is contrary to the idea of reincarnation. See also Job 11:12; John 3:3; 9:3; Heb 9:27. After people go to the realm of the dead, they are never again reborn on earth – their spirits remain there until the resurrection of their bodies (John 5:28,29).

16:27,28 Those in Hades may desire the salvation of relatives on earth, but their requests for them will not be answered.

16:29 "Moses and the prophets" – this refers to that part of the Word of God we now call the Old Testament. Men alive on the earth must believe the truth God has revealed, and turn to God in repentance and faith.

16:30 This is a vain hope, as Abraham says in the next verse. People's sinful hearts and unbelief are not so easily overcome.

16:31 People who had refused to believe God's word were not convinced even when the Lord Jesus Himself rose from the dead (Matt 28:11-15). It is not signs and miracles that men need, but hearts made humble and believing and obedient (Matt 5:3-8).

17:1,2 Matt 18:6,7.

17:3 Matt 18:15.

17:4 Compare Matt 18:21,22. Notice here the words "I repent."

17:5 "Apostles" – Matt 10:2.

"Increase our faith" – at four different times Jesus had spoken to one or all of them of their "little" faith (Matt 6:30; 8:26; 14:31; 16:8. Some old manuscripts have the phrase "little faith" at 17:20 also). Recognizing the importance of faith, and the smallness of their own faith, and no doubt the need of more faith to be able to 4 And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day comes back to you, saying, 'I repent', you must forgive him."

5 And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."

6 And the Lord said, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

7 "But which of you who has a servant plowing or tending the sheep will say to him as soon as he comes from the field, 'Go and sit down to eat'? 8 But will he not rather say to him, 'Get things ready for me to eat, put your belt on, and serve me while I eat and drink. And afterwards you may eat and drink?' 9 Does he thank that servant because he did what he was ordered? I think not.

10 "So you also, when you have done all that you are commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done only what it was our duty to do.'"

11 And as he was going to Jerusalem, it came about that he travelled between Samaria and Galilee. 12 And as he entered a certain village, ten practice all the sublime teachings Jesus had given them, they make this request.

17:6 Compare Matt 17:20.

17:7-10 In these verses Jesus seems to be changing the subject, but actually He is showing how faith may be increased. The way is not to think of ourselves as great ones, or to aim at self-esteem and self-confidence, or to try to feel good about ourselves as if God should be grateful to us because of our service. The way to greater faith is to think lowly of ourselves, as we ought to think (compare 1 Cor 3:6,7; 2 Cor 3:5; Eph 3:8. See notes on Rom 7:14-25 and 2 Cor 12:7-10). The way is to recognize not only that we are unworthy but that the Lord Jesus has the right to tell us what to do, and that we are to put His work first in our lives and obey Him without question.

When we renounce ourselves and make Christ the center of our lives and humbly submit always to His authority, we will find a steadily increasing faith in Him and in His ability to do things. Basically, it is not the believer's faith which works wonders, it is the One whom he or she believes and serves who works the wonders.

"Unprofitable" – the Greek word used here is used only once more in the New Testament, at Matt 25:30. It may also be translated "unworthy" or "worthless" or "useless." When believers have the proper attitude towards themselves their faith in the Lord Jesus can grow. Is it necessary to say that faith also grows by the study of the Bible with an obedient heart? See Rom 10:17.

17:11 See 9:51.

17:12 "Lepers" – see note at Lev 13:1. The reason they stood at a distance is in Lev 13:45,46.

men who were lepers met him. They stood at a distance, 13 and raised their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us."

14 And when he saw them, he told them, "Go show yourselves to the priests." And it came about as they went, that they were cleansed. 15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 and fell down on his face at his feet and gave him thanks. And he was a Samaritan.

17 And in response Jesus said, "Were not ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18 No one is found returning to give glory to God, except this foreigner." 19 And he said to him, "Get up. Go on your way. Your faith has made you well."

20 And when he was asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come while being watched for. 21 Nor will they say, 'Look here!' or, 'Look there!', for, see, the kingdom of God is among you."

22 And he said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will want to see one of the days of the Son of man, and you will not see it. 23 And they will say to you, 'Look here!' Or, 'Look there!' Do not go out, or follow them. 24 For just as the lightning that flashes from one part of the sky shines to the other part of the sky, so also the Son of man will be in his day. 25 But first he must suffer many things, and be rejected by this generation.

17:13 Who ever spoke such words in vain to the Lord Jesus? Compare Matt 8:2,3.

17:14 Matt 8:4.

17:16 "Samaritan" – Matt 10:5; John 4:9.

17:17,18 Ingratitude is a grave sin and greatly displeases the Lord Jesus. See also Rom 1:21; etc. Notes on thanksgiving at Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 1 Thess 5:18.

17:19 See 7:50; 8:48; Matt 9:22; 15:28.

17:20,21 "Pharisees" – Matt 3:7.

"Kingdom of God" – Matt 4:17. The Pharisees were thinking of some outward manifestation of God's kingdom such as is described in Isaiah chapter 11. Jesus' answer indicates that the kingdom of God had already come, but not in the way they expected. Compare Matt 3:2; 4:17; 5:3; 11:12; 12:28. He is speaking here of that aspect of God's kingdom which is spiritual and in men's hearts.

"Among" – some versions translate the Greek word used here "within." However, the kingdom of God was not within those Pharisees, not in their hearts. It was among them because the King was among them with some of His people who had received Him and His kingdom. In emphasizing here the unseen spiritual aspect of God's kingdom, Jesus was not denying that sometime in the future God's kingdom would come visibly (vs 24,30).

26 "And just as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of man. 27 They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark. And the flood came and destroyed them all. 28 It will be the same as it was in the days of Lot also. They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built. 29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, fire and sulphur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all. 30 It will be just like this in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 "In that day, he who is on the housetop, and his goods inside the house, should not go down to take them away; and he who is in the field also should not return.

32 "Remember Lot's wife.

33 "Whoever strives to preserve his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.

34 "I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. One will be taken, and the other will be left. 35 Two people will be grinding together. One will be taken, and the other left. 36 Two people will be in the field. One will be taken, and the other left."

37 And they answered and said to him, "Where, Lord?" And he said to them, "Where the dead body is, there the vultures will gather together."

18 And he spoke a parable to them to show that men should always pray, and not lose heart, 2 saying, "In a certain city there was a judge who did not fear God and did not respect man. 3 And there was a widow in that city, and she came to him, saying, 'Get me justice against my enemy.' 4 And he would not for a while. But afterwards he said to himself, 'Even though I do not fear God, or respect man, 5 yet because this widow is troubling me, I will get her justice, or she will wear me out by her continual coming.'"

17:34,35 Compare Matt 24:40,41.

18:1 "Always pray and not lose heart" – see 11:3,5-10; 1 Thess 5:17; Eph 6:18. When we do not get quick answers to our prayers, or when they are not answered as we think they should be, we may be tempted to stop praying. If these temptations do not come out of our own minds and hearts, the devil will try to implant them there. Let us not give in to such temptations. Ceasing to pray results in defeat in life, and unfruitfulness in the service of God.

6 And the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said. 7 And will not God obtain justice for his chosen ones, who cry out day and night to him, also bearing patiently with them? 8 I tell you that he will bring about justice for them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

9 And he spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10 "Two men went up to the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed with himself like this: 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men: robbers, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all I get.'

13 "And the tax collector, standing at a distance, would not even raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God be merciful to me a sinner.'

14 "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified instead of the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

15 And they also brought infants to him so that he would touch them, but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them near and said, "Let little children come to me and do not forbid them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 17 Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will not enter it at all."

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good

We must not give up no matter what may be our disappointments, no matter what remembrance of failure, no matter what guilt we feel about past sins, no matter what consciousness we have of our present sinful nature, no matter what thoughts which tell us that it is no use to pray, no matter that God seems far away, no matter that we seem to get no answers to our prayers, no matter what temptations to unbelief, no matter what our circumstances or mental condition or spiritual struggles. Giving up prayer is sin (compare 1 Sam 12:23), and leads to further sin. It is the way to despair and ruin in the spiritual life. So whatever we do or do not do, can or cannot do, let us continue to pray to the one true God, the God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ.

18:2 Psalm 82.

18:7 The Lord Jesus is not at all saying that God is like this unjust judge. His meaning is that if even an unjust judge will give in to repeated requests for justice, how much more will the just and righteous Judge of the world bring about justice for His people who pray persistently, continually (and remember that this just Judge is also a loving and compassionate Father). Of course this does not mean that His people can demand anything they want, whether good for them or not, and get it if they keep on asking. But if they ask for good and right and just things, or anything according to His will they will get it. Compare 1 John 5:14,15.

18:8 "Son of man" – Matt 8:20. On His second coming see Matt 16:27. The time preceding Christ's second coming will be a time of great trial and tribulation, when few will exercise much faith (Matt 24:9-12; 2 Thess 2:3; 1 Tim 4:1; 2 Tim 4:3,4).

18:9 See 16:15; 7:39; 5:30; Prov 30:12,13; Isa 65:5; Jer 2:35. Such people both then and now remain ignorant of the truth of Isa 64:6; Jer 17:9; etc. This ignorance is revealed in the Pharisee's prayer in vs 10-12. The enlightenment men need is to see themselves as they really are and God as He really is – holy and infinitely above all men.

18:10 "Tax collector" – Matt 5:46.

18:12 "Fast" – Matt 6:16.

"Tithes" – giving a tenth of what one received was taught in the Old Testament – Gen 28:22; Lev 27:30; Num 18:21. The Pharisees did such things (Matt 6:16; 23:23), but neglected far more important matters like justice, mercy and faithfulness and the two greatest commandment in the law (Matt 22:37-40).

18:13 Here is a brief prayer indeed, but it went from the heart of this sinner to the heart of God. It reveals the kind of knowledge people need – to know their sin and to know that God is merciful. Let us learn that a feeling of our sinfulness and unworthiness does not disqualify us in prayer. In fact, just the opposite. It shows the work of the Holy Spirit in us and is pleasing to God. See Ps 51:17; Isa 6:5; 57:15; 66:2; Matt 5:3; 6:12. On God's mercy see Ps 51:1; Eph 2:4; Titus 3:5; 1 Peter 1:3.

18:14 This means that God counted the tax collector righteous and the Pharisee a sinner, though the Pharisee thought he was righteous and the tax collector knew he was a sinner.

"Justified" – means to count as righteous. See Rom 1:17; 3:21-28; 4:7,8. The man who mourned and confessed his sin went home without any sins whatever on his record. Jesus' words reveal God's way with men and we had better learn it (14:11; Matt 23:12; Jam 4:6).

18:15-17 Matt 19:13-15; Matt 18:3.

18:18-30 See notes on this incident at Matt 19:16-29; Mark 10:17-30.

Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

19 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? God alone is good, no one else. 20 You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honour your father and your mother."

21 And he said, "All these I have kept from my youth."

22 Now when Jesus heard this, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."

23 And when he heard this, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he had become very sad, he said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! 25 For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 And those who heard this said, "Who then can be saved?"

27 And he said, "Things that are impossible with men are possible with God."

28 Then Peter said, "See, we have left everything and followed you."

29 And he said to them, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, 30 who will not receive many times as much in this present time, and in the world to come, everlasting life."

31 Then he brought the twelve near and said to them, "Now we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man will be fulfilled. 32 For he will be handed over to the Gentiles, and will be mocked, insulted, and spit on. 33 And they will beat him with a whip and put him to death; and on the third day he will rise again."

34 And they understood none of these things, and this statement was hidden from them, and they did not know what was being said.

35 And this happened when he had come near to Jericho: a certain blind man sat by the wayside begging. 36 And when he heard the crowd passing by, he asked what it meant. 37 And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. 38 And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me."

39 And those who were going in the front rebuked him, telling him to keep quiet. But he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me."

40 And Jesus stood still and ordered him to be brought to him; and when he had come near, he asked him, 41 saying, "What do you want me to do for you?" And he said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight."

42 And Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you."

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. And when all the people saw this, they gave praise to God.

19 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. 2 And a man named Zacchaeus was there, a chief tax collector. And he was rich. 3 And he tried to see who Jesus was, and could not because of the crowd, for he was short of stature. 4 And he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, since he was coming that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house." 6 And he hurried and came down, and 18:31-33 Matt 20:17-19; Mark 10:32-34. 18:31 Jesus was referring to the prophets whose writings are recorded in the Old Testament. For example see psalm 22; Isaiah chapter 53; Zech 13:7.

18:32 "Gentiles" – people other than Jews. 18:34 See 9:45; Mark 9:32; Matt 16:22.

18:35-43 Matt 20:29-34; Mark 10:46-52. 18:35 Matthew and Mark say this happened while Jesus was leaving Jericho. Is there then a contradiction in this? No. The old city of Jericho was there though few people lived in it. Just south of it a new city of Jericho had been built. Matthew and Mark speak of Jesus leaving the old city of Jericho, Luke speaks of Him approaching the new one. See note at Mark 4:1.

18:38 "Son of David" – Matt 1:1. 18:42 Again we see the power of faith in Jesus (Matt 9:22; Mark 10:52).

18:43 Praise to God is a constant theme of Luke's Gospel – 1:64; 2:13,20; 18:43; 19:37; 24:53.

19:1 See 18:35. This was the new Jericho.

19:2 "Tax collector" – Matt 5:46.

19:4 Many would think this was no proper and dignified behavior for a rich man, but it shows how anxious he was to see the Lord Jesus and how little He cared for the opinion of those who might laugh or sneer at him.

19:5 The Lord had never met Zacchaeus but He knew where he was and everything about him. (Compare John 1:48-50; 2:24,25; etc.) He knew that Zacchaeus was lost in sin but open to the truth, and He knew what His own ministry was (v 10). Jesus had an inner compulsion to go to his house. It was the compulsion of divine love. See John 4:4. Compare 2 Cor 5:14.

19:6 This is something the religious leaders of Israel and most of the people would not do (John 1:11).

7 And when they saw this, they all grumbled, saying, "He has gone to be the guest of a sinful man."

8 And Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, half of my goods I am going to give to the poor. And if I have taken anything from anyone by fraud, I am going to give him back four times as much."

9 And Jesus said to him, "This day salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of man has come to seek

19:7 Compare 18:9; 15:1,2; Matt 9:10-13; 11:19.

19:8 Zacchaeus chose a new master that day and called Him "Lord." Up until then, his master had been money (16:13). He is one of the few rich men who enter God's kingdom (18:24,25), and he is in great contrast to the rich fool in 12:16, the rich man in 16:19, and the rich young ruler of 18:23. But he did not get into God's kingdom simply by saying Lord to Jesus (Matt 7:21). He revealed that he had a true faith in Him by what he did. Zacchaeus was willing to do what many were not willing to do (16:14; Matt 19:21-24). This showed the work of God in his heart.

"I am going to give him back four times as much" – see Lev 6:1-5; Num 5:5-7. Zacchaeus was willing to give back more than the law demanded. In this he was bringing forth fruits of repentance (note at Matt 3:8). Repentance is a radical change of attitude about things.

There are those in the church who obtain money or property by unjust means and crooked ways. When found out they want to be forgiven and accepted without making any attempt to pay back what they have taken. They want to be regarded as servants of God and at the same time enjoy the material benefits that came by their crookedness! This attitude does not show true repentance, and it will not be accepted by God, whatever others may decide about it. It is very important that believers try to make amends for any harm they have done to others.

19:9 Observe that a great change in a person, bringing him from a state of sin to salvation and from death to life, happens very suddenly (John 5:24). Notes on salvation at Acts 4:12; Rom 1:16. By saying Zacchaeus was a "son of Abraham" Jesus meant Zacchaeus was not merely descended of Abraham, but a true son of Abraham who is the "father" of all who believe in Christ (Gen 15:6; Rom 4:11,16). And Zacchaeus, by the results of repentance that appeared in his life, proved that he had believed. We may well question whether anyone has believed in Christ if these results are lacking.

19:10 "Son of man" – note at Matt 8:20. Here He gives one of the chief reasons why He came to earth (compare John 3:16,17). See also references at Matt 5:17.

and to save that which was lost."

11 And while they were listening to these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and because they thought that the kingdom of God would immediately appear.

12 Therefore he said, "A certain nobleman went to a far country to receive a kingdom for himself and to return. 13 And he called his ten servants, and gave them ten pounds, and said to them, 'Do business until I return.'

14 "But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, 'We do not want

"Lost" – 15:4-10,32; John 3:16. Lost means away from God, on the broad way that leads to destruction (Isa 53:6; Matt 7:13; Eph 4:18). If Jesus does not seek for lost human beings it is certain they will never be saved. They will never seek the true God on their own (Rom 3:11).

19:11-27 This parable is similar in some ways to the one in Matt 25:14-30, but different in other ways. They were spoken at different times and places.

19:11 "Kingdom of God" – Matt 4:17. People thought the Lord Jesus would openly declare Himself the Messiah, the King of Israel, then throw off the yoke of the Roman government, and bring power and glory back to Israel. Jesus is saying that such a thing would not then happen. He would go away (v 12), and Israel would refuse to have Him as King (v 14). But He would return (v 15). In the meantime His servants had work to do (v 13).

19:12 The Lord Jesus had noble birth indeed! See 1:35; Matt 1:1. The way the man was appointed king was the manner of things in Judea in those times. The Herods went to Rome and received their authority there. The authority of the Lord Jesus did not come from Rome but from heaven (Matt 28:18; John 17:2; Acts 2:33-36; Phil 2:9-11; 1 Pet 3:22). He is yet to return, but will do so at the proper time (Matt 16:27; Acts 1:22).

19:13 "Servants" – signify all who are called Christ's servants (Rom 6:16-22), all who profess to believe in Him. The "nobleman" gave each of them money worth one "pound." In Greek the word is "mina." It was equal to about three months' wages for a laborer. In the parable in Matt 25:14-30, the servants were given much more and each a different amount. There are some matters in which all the servants of God are different, some matters in which they all are the same. Their faithfulness is tested in all matters – 16:10; 1 Cor 4:2.

"Business" – "Occupy" (KJV) – this means occupy yourselves in my business.

19:14 This had actually happened thirty years before in the case of a man named Archlaous. But the parable refers to the Lord Jesus – the Jews declared to the Romans that they did not want Him to be their King (John 19:13-16), and they did not (for the most part) change their minds afterward this man to reign over us.'

15 "And it happened that when he returned, after receiving the kingdom, he ordered that those servants, to whom he had given the money, be called to him, that he might know how much each man had earned through his business activity.

16 "Then the first came, saying, 'Lord, your pound has earned ten pounds.'

17 "And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in a very little thing, have authority over ten cities.'

18 "And the second came, saying, 'Lord, your pound has earned five pounds.'

19 "And he said to him in the same way, 'Be over five cities.'

20 "And another came, saying, 'Lord, look, here is your pound, which I have kept laid away in a napkin. 21 For I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh man. You take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow.'

22 "And he said to him, 'I will judge you out of your own mouth, you wicked servant. Did you know that I was a harsh man, taking up what I did not lay down, and reaping what I did not sow? 23 Then why did you not put my money in the bank, so that when I came I might have collected it with interest?'

24 "And he said to those who stood by, 'Take the pound from him and give it to the one who has ten pounds.'

25 "And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten pounds!'

26 "And he said, 'For I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. 27 But bring here those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, and execute them in front of me.'"

28 And when he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. 29 And it came about when he had come near Bethphage and Bethany that at the mount that is called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 saying, "Go to the village opposite. When you enter it you will find there a colt tied up, on which no one has yet sat. Untie it and bring it here. 31 And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' tell him this: 'Because the Lord needs it.'"

32 And those who were sent went off and found it just as he had told them. 33 And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34 And they said, "The Lord needs it."

35 And they brought it to Jesus, and they threw their cloaks on the colt, and they put Jesus on it. 36 And while he was going, they spread their cloaks in the way.

37 And now, as he was approaching the

(1 Thess 2:14-16).

19:15 The Lord Jesus will openly be declared King, and He will return in glory, and no power in the universe will prevent it (Rev 11:15; 19:11-16). Then Christ will judge His servants - 1 Cor 3:12-15; 2 Cor 5:10; Rev 11:18.

19:16 He humbly attributed his success to the "pound" and not to himself. Compare 17:10.

19:17 See 16:10. He had proved himself in a very small matter. The reward he received is out of all proportion to the small matter he dealt with. When God rewards His faithful servants they will receive great rewards indeed, even for seemingly small works (compare Matt 10:42). "Cities" suggests the reward will be a place of honor and authority in God's kingdom when it is manifested on earth. Compare 22:30; Matt 19:28; Rev 3:21; 20:6.

19:18 Each servant received the same amount, which suggests that in the matter they were being tested about everything was equal. Why then the difference between the results achieved by this man and the first servant? It is very likely the first simply worked harder. Compare 1 Cor 15:10; Col 1:29; 3:23; 4:13. See the list of believers in Rom 16:3-12 - some worked, some worked hard, some worked very hard.

19:19 His efforts and accomplishments were not as great as the first servant's, so his reward was not so great (see Rev 22:12). Still it was a very great reward for such a small work.

19:20-26 Matt 25:24-30.

19:22 Matt 25:26 says that the servant there was lazy as well as wicked, and the same is probably true here. This servant was either lazy, and so disobeyed the one command his master gave him (v 13), or else he was willing to work but only for himself. God has called all believers to serve Him. But there are many called Christians who do all their work for themselves and none for the Lord Jesus (Phil 2:21). Lazy indifference to the Lord's commands, and giving oneself entirely to one's own affairs - both are disobedience. And disobedience is wickedness (1 Sam 15:22,23). Notice that this man was judged not merely for what he did but for what he did not do. Compare Matt 25:41-46.

19:27 These men showed they were his enemies by rejecting him as king. So it is now. By rejecting the Lord Jesus as Saviour and King of their lives men reveal their hostility toward Him (John 1:11; 3:19,20; 15:18; Rom 8:7). It will not go well with such people in the day of judgment, as the closing words of this verse indicate. Compare 2 Thess 1:7-10; Rev 19:11-16.

descent from the mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, 38 saying, "Blessed be the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

39 And some of the Pharisees out of the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."

40 And he answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these were to keep quiet the stones would immediately cry out."

41 And when he came near the city, he looked at it, and wept over it, 42 saying, "If you had known, even you, especially in this day of yours, the things that would give you peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. 43 For the days will come upon you in which your enemies will build an embankment around you, and surround you, and hem you in on every side. 44 And they will level you, and your children in you, to the ground. And they will not leave in you one stone on another, because you did not know the time of your visitation."

45 And he went into the temple, and began to drive out those buying and selling in it, 46 saying to them, "It is written, 'My house is a house of prayer,' but you have made it a den of thieves."

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the leaders of the people looked for a way to destroy him, 48 but did not see what they could do, for all the people were hanging on his words, listening to him.

20 And it happened on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, that the chief priests and the scribes with the elders came up, 2 and spoke to him, saying, "Tell us, by what authority are you doing these things? Or who is the one who gave you this authority?"

3 And he answered and said to them, "I will also ask you one thing, and you answer me: 4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?"

5 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Then why did you not believe him?' 6 But if we say, 'Of men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet."

7 And they answered that they could not tell where it was from.

8 And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

9 Then he began to tell the people this parable: "A certain man planted a vineyard, let it out to vine growers, and went into a far country for a long time. 10 And at harvest time he sent a servant to the vine growers so they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the vine growers beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. 11 And he sent another servant. And they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. 12 And he sent a third, and they wounded him also, and threw him out.

13 "Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my dear son. Perhaps they will respect him when they see him.'

14 "But when the vine growers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, so that the inheritance may become ours.'

15 "So they threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and destroy these vine growers and will give the vineyard to others." And when they heard this, they said, "God forbid!"

17 And he looked at them and said, "Then what is this that is written?

19:39 Compare Matt 21:15,16.

19:40 The occasion was so great that God would see to it that joyful sounds of praise would come from some source.

19:41 Crucifixion and suffering awaited Him there, but He did not weep for Himself. He was called a "Man of sorrows" (Isa 53:3), but His sorrows were for the sad condition of others.

19:42 Peace would have come by repentance and receiving Jesus as their Messiah and Saviour, but God was punishing them for their wickedness, and part of the punishment was to let them remain in ignorance. Compare Matt 11:25; 13:11-16; John 9:41.

19:43,44 See 24:2; 21:6,20,24; Matt 24:2. This took place in 70 AD. The Roman army came and destroyed Jerusalem. The Lord Jesus was God incarnate but the people of Jerusalem treated Him like the worst of criminals. God's judgment on them was inevitable.

but on whomever it falls, it will crush him to powder."

19 And at that time the chief priests and the scribes were anxious to seize him, but they feared the people; for they understood that he had spoken this parable against them. 20 And they watched him, and sent out spies passing themselves off as righteous men, so that they might seize on his words, with the aim of handing him over to the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they questioned him, saying, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and do not accept a person to show him favoritism, but truly teach the way of God. 22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why are you testing me? 24 Show me a silver coin. Whose likeness and inscription does it have?" They answered and said, "Caesar's."

25 And he said to them, "So give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

26 And they could not seize on his words in the presence of the people, and were amazed at his answer, and became quiet.

27 Then some of the Sadducees, who deny there is a resurrection, came to him, and questioned him, 28 saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if any man's brother who has a wife dies, passing away without children, that his brother should take his wife in marriage and raise up children for his brother. 29 Now there were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and died without children. 30 And the second took her as his wife, and died childless. 31 And the third took her; and in the same way all the seven died and left no children. 32 Last of all the woman also died. 33 So, in the resurrection, among these whose wife will she be? For seven had her for a wife."

34 And Jesus in answer said to them, "The sons of this world marry, and are given in marriage. 35 But those who will be considered worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from among the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage. 36 Nor can they die any more, for they are like the angels, and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. 37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. 38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living; for to him all are alive."

39 Then some of the scribes answering said, "Teacher, you have spoken well."

40 And after that they did not dare ask him any question at all.

41 And he said to them, "How can they say that Christ is David's son? 42 And David himself said in the book of Psalms,

The Lord said to my Lord,
Sit at my right hand,

43 until I make your enemies your footstool.

44 "So David called him Lord. How then is he his son?"

45 Then in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples, 46 "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, and the seats of honour in the synagogues, and the chief places at feasts. 47 They devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

21 And he looked up, and saw the rich men putting their gifts into the temple treasury. 2 And he also saw a certain poor widow putting in it two small copper coins.

3 And he said, "I tell you the truth: This poor widow has put in more than all of them. 4 For all these have put money into God's offerings out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on."

20:27-40 Matt 22:23-33.

20:35 "That world" - or "that age" - the age to come.

"Resurrection from among the dead" - this may be a better translation than simply "resurrection from the dead." "From among" better indicates that when this resurrection takes place, some who have died do not rise at that time (they will rise later - Rev 20:5). See also Luke 14:14; Phil 3:11.

20:36 God's children (John 1:12,13; 1 John 3:1,2) will never die - John 5:24,29; 6:50,51; 11:25,26; Rev 20:6.

20:37 Ex 3:2,6.

20:39 Pharisees would have said this because they believed in the resurrection and opposed the Sadducees. See Acts 23:6-9. 20:40 Matt 22:46.

21:5-36 See Matt 24:1-44; Mark 13:1-27. In all three Gospels (Matthew chapter 24; Mark chapter 13; Luke chapter 21) the Lord Jesus foretold events concerning Jerusalem in answer to His disciples' questions. It should be noted that in Matt 24:3 there is a three-fold question, but in Mark 13:4 and Luke 21:7 the question has to do only with the destruction of Jerusalem. It seems that in Luke especially we have more spoken of

5 And as some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and donations, he said, 6 "As for these things you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left on another. They will all be thrown down."

7 And they asked him, saying, "Teacher, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things are about to take place?"

8 And he said, "Watch out that you are not deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am Christ' and, 'The time draws near.' Therefore, do not go after them. 9 But when you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified; for these things must first take place, but the end is not to come immediately."

10 Then said he to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, 11 and there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines, and plagues. And there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

12 "But before all these things, they will seize you and persecute you, handing you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and bringing you before kings and rulers for my name's sake. 13 And this will turn out to you as an opportunity to give testimony. 14 Therefore, settle it in your hearts not to imagine beforehand what answer you will give. 15 For I will give you a mouth to speak and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to contradict or resist.

16 "And you will be betrayed even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. And they will put some of you to death, 17 and you will be hated by all men for my name's sake. 18 But not a hair of your head will perish. 19 In your patient endurance possess your souls.

20 "And when you see Jerusalem surrounded with armies, then know that its desolation is near. 21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city go out, and let those who are in the country not enter it. 22 For those are the days of vengeance, so that all things which have been written might be fulfilled. 23 But woe to those with child and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 "And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led away as captives to all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

25 "And there will be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth distress among nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring, 26 men's hearts fainting in fear and in expectation of what is coming on the earth. For the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

27 "And then they will see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 And when these things begin to take place, then look up and raise your heads, for your redemption is drawing near."

29 And he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. 30 As soon as they put that event which took place in 70 AD, and in Matthew we have more concerning the second coming of Christ and the end of this age.

21:8 They will claim that they are Christ and that the end of this age is at hand.

21:12-15 Matt 10:17-20; Acts 6:9,10.

21:16-19 Matt 10:21,22,30,31.

21:20-24 Matt 24:15-21 is similar. But in Matthew the events begin with "the abomination of desolation", and issue in the "great tribulation" (v 21). And immediately after that Christ returns to earth (Matt 24:29,30). But here in Luke the events begin with armies surrounding Jerusalem and issue in the captivity of the Jews and the "times of the Gentiles." In other words, Matthew records events that will take place at the end of this age, but Luke wrote of those connected with the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD (see 19:41-44). The one is a small picture of the other.

21:22 "Written" – means written in the Old Testament.

21:24 In Old Testament days from Abraham onward, and during Christ's lifetime on earth, Israel was God's special nation, the channel of His word, the center of His spiritual dealings, teaching and revelation on earth. After Israel rejected Christ God turned to the other nations of earth (the Gentiles) – Matt 21:43; 28:18-20; Acts 28:28; Rom 11:11-14. The "times of the Gentiles" is the same as this whole age (now more than 1900 years). They will end with Christ's second coming. At the present time (1999) Jerusalem is in the hands of Israel, but once again Gentile power will take control of it and trample it underfoot – Rev 11:2; Zech 14:2-4.

21:25 With this verse the whole of the "times of the Gentiles" is passed over and the end of this age is brought before us. This is clear from the words of v 27 which connects those events with Christ's coming in glory. Notes at Matt 24:29.

21:26 Rev 6:15-17.

21:27 Matt 24:30.

21:28 Matt 24:33. Believers living at the very end of the age will be able to recognize that the end is near.

"Redemption" – see note at Matt 20:28. Here it means the final redemption which Paul speaks of in Rom 8:23 and Phil 3:20,21.

21:29-33 Matt 24:32-35.

forth leaves, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near. 31 In the same way, when you see these things take place, know that the kingdom of God is near.

32 "Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away, until everything is fulfilled. 33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

34 "So watch yourselves, so that your hearts will not be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the cares of life, and that day come on you unexpectedly. 35 For it will come like a trap on all those who live on the face of the whole earth. 36 Therefore watch, and pray always, so that you may be counted worthy to escape all those things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of man."

37 And in the daytime he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out and stayed on the mount that is called the Mount of Olives. 38 And early in the morning all the people came to him in the temple to hear him.

22 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called the Passover. 2 And the chief priests and scribes were looking for a way to kill him, for they were afraid of the people.

3 Then Satan entered into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, who was numbered among the Twelve. 4 And he went his way, and discussed with the chief priests and captains of the temple guard, how he might betray him to them. 5 And they were glad, and agreed to give him money. 6 And he promised, and looked for an opportunity to betray him to them when the crowd was absent.

7 Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover had to be sacrificed. 8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare for us to eat the Passover."

9 And they said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare it?"

10 And he said to them, "When you enter the city, look for a man to meet you, carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him into the house that he enters, 11 and say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room where I will eat the Passover with my disciples?' 12 And he will show you a large furnished upper room. Make preparations there."

13 And they went and found it just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover. 14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles sat with him.

15 And he said to them, "With great longing I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. 16 For I tell you I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves. 18 For I tell you I will not drink of the fruit of the 21:31 "Kingdom of God" – Matt 4:17. Here it means the outward manifestation of God's kingdom, the return of the King in glory.

21:32 "Generation" – see note at Matt 24:34.

21:34-36 These instructions are suited both to those living before the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD, and to those living at the end of this age. But since He mentions the "whole earth" (v 35) He probably refers to the end of this age. In Matthew He compares the end time with the days of Noah (Matt 24:37-39).

21:36 These words also seem to fit both the time of the destruction of Jerusalem and the time of God's wrath coming on the earth at the end of this age (Revelation chapters 15, 16). Those who escape will not be those who are ignorant and careless and prayerless. If we wish to stand before Him without shame and condemnation we must abide in Him (1 John 2:28).

21:37,38 This is how the Lord Jesus spent the final few days of His life on earth.

22:1 Ex 12:1-20; Lev 23:4-8.

22:2 "Priests" – Ex 28:1.

22:3 John 13:27. There are many cases of demon possession recorded in the New Testament, but it is said only of Judas Iscariot that Satan himself, the chief of demons, entered him. It means that Satan completely possessed Judas to use him for his own purposes. It is true, however, that Satan works to some extent in everyone who refuse to receive the Lord Jesus. See Eph 2:2 where Satan is called the ruler "of the power of the air." Notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44; 12:31. 22:4-6 Matt 26:14-16; Mark 14:10,11; Zech 11:12.

22:7 "Day of Unleavened Bread" – the first day of a period of eight days which began with the Passover.

22:8-13 Mark 14:12-16; Matt 26:17-19.

22:15 The Passover lamb signified their redemption and salvation. Because of Christ's coming sacrifice they were the people of God, and He delighted to eat with them at this time which spoke of that, even though it meant that He would have to suffer and die very shortly. Only His great love for them could bring Him delight at such an hour. Compare Heb 12:2.

22:16 The sacrifice of Jesus the "Lamb of God" was the spiritual fulfillment of the Passover (1 Cor 5:7). It made possible the kingdom of God in men and with men. Now His unseen presence is among those who rightly observe the "Lord's supper" (1 Cor 11:23-26). The manifested presence of Jesus with His people will come when this age ends (Revelation chapter 19).

vine, until the kingdom of God comes."

19 And he took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

20 After supper, he did the same with the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 "But, see, the hand of the one who betrays me is with mine on the table. 22 And indeed the Son of man is going just as it has been determined. But woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!"

23 And they began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.

24 And a quarrel started among them as to which of them should be considered the greatest.

25 And he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors.' 26 But you must not be like that. Instead, the greatest among you must be like the youngest, and the leader like the one who serves. 27 For who is greater, the one who is seated at the table, or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is seated at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. 28 You are the ones who have stood by me in my trials. 29 And I give you a kingdom, just as my Father gave it to me, 30 so that you

22:21 From this it seems certain that Judas was still there when the Lord Jesus instituted the Lord's supper, and that he partook of it.

22:22 Matt 26:24.

22:23 Judas was so skillful a hypocrite that they never suspected him (John 13:26-29).

22:24 This was not a new dispute for them (see 9:46; Matt 18:1; Mark 9:33,34). Still it is a shocking revelation of their unspirituality and immaturity that they should renew the dispute on the very eve of Christ's crucifixion (but can we think that we are better than they?).

22:25,26 Compare Matt 20:25-27.

22:27 See Matt 20:28; John 13:3-5; Phil 2:5-7.

22:28,29 Compare Rom 8:17; 2 Tim 2:12; 1 Peter 4:13.

22:30 Matt 19:28.

22:31 Simon was another name for Peter. Satan's object was to shake and confuse and destroy Peter and the other disciples (the use of the plural in Greek for "you" indicates that the other disciples were included. When addressing a single disciple Jesus used the singular of the pronoun). But Peter was a special object of Satan's attack.

22:32 Praying is something the Lord Jesus now does for all believers (John 17:9,15; Heb 7:25; 1 John 2:1). That is the reason why they will be kept in the faith to the end. This is a great encouragement to all who understand its meaning. Compare John may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

31 And the Lord said, "Simon, Simon, now Satan has asked to have you, so that he can sift you like wheat. 32 But I have prayed for you, that your faith will not fail. And when you have turned back again, strengthen your brethren."

33 And he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you, both to prison and to death."

34 And he said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow this day, before you will deny three times that you know me."

35 And he said to them, "When I sent you without purse, bag, and sandals, did you lack anything?" And they said, "Nothing."

36 Then he said to them, "But now he who has a purse, let him take it, and also a bag; and he who does not have a sword, let him sell his cloak and buy one. 37 For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me:

And he was numbered among the transgressors, for the things concerning me are going to be finished."

38 And they said, "Lord, look, here are two swords." And he said to them, "It is enough."

39 And coming out, he went, as was his

6:39,40; 10:28; Phil 1:6; Heb 10:39; 1 Peter 1:5. Notice Jesus said "when" you have turned back, not "if you turn back." Christ knew that His prayers for Peter would be answered. Doubtless His prayers for all His believers will also be answered - John 11:41,42. This is one very good reason why they will never perish.

22:35 See 9:3; 10:4; Matt 10:9,10.

22:36 By saying this Jesus indicated that times were changing, and that the disciples should expect more opposition and persecution and should be prepared to pay their own way (in contrast to Matt 10:11-14). By mentioning a sword Jesus was not suggesting the disciples abandon His previous instructions (Matt 5:11,12,38-41), and go on the warpath. He doubtless used "sword" in a figurative sense here, to indicate that great trouble lay ahead. To face this they should be mentally prepared (not with a literal sword). The Christian's armor is not physical but spiritual - Eph 6:10-18; 1 Pet 4:1. See Christ's condemnation of violence in Matt 26:51,52.

22:37 Isa 53:12; Matt 5:17; Luke 24:44,45.

22:38 They took Jesus' words literally (compare Matt 16:5-12; John 6:52; etc). Jesus, seeing their dullness, said nothing more at the time. The matter became clear to them later.

22:39-46 Matt 26:36-46.

22:39 They went to Gethsemane which was on the western slope of the Mount of Olives.

custom, to the mount of Olives and his disciples also followed him. 40 And when he reached the place, he said to them, "Pray that you will not get into temptation."

41 And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw away, and knelt down, and prayed, 42 saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."

43 And an angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him.

44 And being in a agony he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like great drops of blood falling to the ground.

45 And when he got up from prayer, and came to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 and said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Rise and pray so that you will not get into temptation."

47 And while he was still speaking, suddenly a crowd appeared, and the one called Judas, one of the Twelve, was coming ahead of them. And he approached Jesus to kiss him. 48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of man with a kiss?"

49 When those who were surrounding Jesus saw what was about to happen, they said to him, "Lord, should we strike with the sword?"

50 And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus in response to this said, "Permit even this." And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests and captains of the temple guard and the elders, who had come to him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, as if against a thief? 53 When I was daily with you in the temple, you did not stretch out a hand against me. But this hour belongs to you, and the power of darkness."

54 Then they took him, led him away, and brought him to the high priest's house. And Peter followed at a distance. 55 And when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat down among them. 56 But a certain maid saw him as he sat by the fire, looked intently at him and said, "This man was also with him."

57 And he denied him, saying, "Woman, I don't know him."

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, "You are also one of them. And Peter said, "Man, I am not."

59 And about an hour later another strongly insisted, saying, "It's the truth, this fellow was also with him, for he is a Galilean."

60 And Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about." And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed. 61 And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, that he had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." 62 And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

63 And the men who were holding Jesus mocked him, and beat him. 64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, "Prophecy, who is it that struck you?"

65 And they spoke against him many other blasphemous things.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their Council, and said, 67 "Are you the Christ? Tell us."

And he said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe it. 68 And also if I ask you, you will not answer me, or let me go. 69 From now on the Son of man will be sitting at the right hand of the power of God."

70 Then they all said, "Then are you the Son of God?"

And he said to them, "You rightly say that I am."

71 And they said, "What need do we have of any more testimony? For we ourselves have heard it from his own mouth."

22:43 Only Luke records this. Jesus was passing through an experience so dreadful, a trial so great, that His human nature, body and soul, were weakened by the strain. And He needed strength for the terrible events that still lay ahead.

"Angels" – Gen 16:7.

22:44 "Agony" – an agonizing inner struggle that affected Him physically. Only Luke records this. How vividly it indicates the intensity of Christ's suffering and sorrow. The "cup" He had to drink was a very terrible one indeed. Compare Matt 26:38,39; John 18:11.

22:45 Only Luke mentions the reason for this sleep of the disciples. Their sight of Christ's great sorrow brought sorrow to their own hearts, and they escaped it by sleeping.

22:47-53 Matt 26:47-56.

22:48 Only Luke records this question, and the question in v 49.

22:49 Jesus certainly did not answer "Yes" – note at v 36. See Matt 26:52,53.

22:54 Matt 26:57,58.

22:55-62 Matt 26:69-75; Mark 14:69.

22:61 Only Luke records this. Indeed one look from Jesus was enough to break Peter's heart.

22:63-65 Matt 26:67,68. Jesus was also mocked by Herod and his soldiers (23:11), and later by many others when He was on the cross (23:35,36).

22:66-71 Matt 26:63-66.

22:69 Ps 110:1; Acts 2:33,34; Rom 8:34; Eph 1:20; Heb 1:3,13; 8:1.

23 And their whole assembly got up and led him away to Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this fellow leading the nation astray and forbidding people to pay taxes to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ, a King."

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him and said, "You say it."

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and the people, "I find no fault in this man."

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching among all the Jews, beginning with Galilee, to this place."

6 When Pilate heard "Galilee," he asked if the man was a Galilean. 7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also at Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, having heard many things about him; and he had been hoping to see some miracle performed by him. 9 Then he questioned him with many words, but he gave him no answer.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him. 11 And Herod, together with his soldiers, treated him with contempt, mocked him, dressed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him back to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod became friends with one another. Before that there had been enmity between them.

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, 14 said to them, "You have brought this man to me, as one who leads the people astray, and, look, having examined him in your presence, I have found no fault in this man concerning those things with which you accuse him. 15 Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him and, as you see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. 16 Therefore I will punish him and release him." 17 For it was necessary for him to release someone to them at the Feast.

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, "Away with this man, and release Barabbas to us." 19 (He had been thrown into prison for some revolt in the city and for murder.)

20 Therefore Pilate, wishing to release Jesus, spoke to them again.

21 But they cried out, saying, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

22 And he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no cause deserving of death. So I will punish him, and let him go."

23 And with loud voices they insistently demanded that he be crucified. And their voices and those of the chief priests prevailed. 24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they demanded. 25 And he released to them the one who had been thrown into prison for revolt and murder, whom they had asked for. But he handed Jesus over to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold of someone named Simon, a Cyrenian, coming in from the country, and they laid the cross on him, so that he might carry it after Jesus. 27 And a great crowd of people followed him, including women also who mourned and lamented him.

23:1 Matt 27:1,2.

23:2 Verse 14. This first accusation was false. The real rebel was Barabbas whose release these Jews asked for (v 19). The second accusation was also false. See 20:22-25. The third accusation, in the way they made it, was also false. It was true that He said He was the Messiah (22:67-70; Matt 26:63,64). But these Jews hoped they could get Pilate to misunderstand what this meant. The Lord Jesus was able to satisfy Pilate that He had not come to end Rome's rule over Israel (John 18:33-37).

23:3 Matt 27:11.

23:4 Verses 14,15,22; Matt 27:23; Mark 15:14; John 18:38; 19:6.

23:7 Herod was ruler of Galilee. See 3:1.

23:8 9:9. Herod was merely curious. He had no desire to learn God's truth or practice it. That is why the Lord Jesus said nothing to him (v 9). We see Herod's character in Matt 14:1-11.

23:10 They were determined that someone in authority put Jesus to death; they didn't care who it was. See John 18:31.

23:11 22:63,64. Herod was superstitious and cowardly like Pilate, and wanted to escape from the responsibility of condemning Jesus to die.

23:12 They had both been caught in difficult circumstances, being urged to condemn someone who they knew was innocent, and both showed insensitivity and brutality, and acted against their own laws, and the laws of God. Their weakness and wickedness drew their hearts together. See Acts 4:23-30.

23:13-25 Matt 27:15-26.

23:16 Pilate himself had repeatedly said that Jesus was innocent. For what reason would he punish Him? Punishment meant a terrible whipping that sometimes resulted in death (Matt 27:26).

23:18 Matt 27:15,16.

23:23 Wicked shouts prevailed over law and reason and conscience and humanity, as often happens.

23:26-49 Matt 27:32-56; Mark 15:21-41.

28 But Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. 29 For, look, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' 30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' 31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what will be done in the dry?"

32 And others also, two criminals, were led out with him to be put to death.

33 And when they had come to the place that is called Calvary, they crucified him and the criminals there, one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." And they divided up his clothing, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood watching. And even the rulers with them scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ, the chosen of God."

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 and saying, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself."

38 And above him there was an inscription, written in Greek, Latin, and Hebrew letters:

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one of the criminals who had been hanged reviled him, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us."

40 But the other in response rebuked him, saying, "Don't you fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve, but this man has done nothing wrong."

42 And he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

43 And Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

44 And it was about noon, and darkness covered all the earth until three in the afternoon.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the 23:29 Only Luke records the facts of vs 27-31. The words mean that it would be better not to have children than to have them suffer what was to come on Jerusalem (19:41-44).

23:30 They would think sudden destruction better than prolonged suffering. Compare Rev 6:16.

23:31 Jesus was referring in vs 29,30 to things that would happen when Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 AD. While He was still there in Israel things were spiritually "green" – there was still life and hope. After His departure the nation of Israel which rejected Him would become "dry" indeed – without any spiritual life.

23:32 Matt 27:38.

23:33 Matt 27:33-35. Note on crucifixion at Matt 27:22.

23:34 The Lord Jesus was here practicing the truth He taught His disciples. See Matt 5:44. He never told others to do something He was not willing to do Himself (except to ask for forgiveness of sins – He never sinned and so could not do this). He came to bring forgiveness to others (24:46,47), and His first words after His crucifixion concerned forgiveness. This prayer was for the Roman soldiers who were the ones who actually crucified Jesus. They ignorantly supposed Jesus was another criminal. His prayer perhaps included the crowd of people who were there and hardly knew what was going on, yet sided with the priests in calling for His death. The prayer was that God would forgive them the act of crucifixion, not all the sins they had ever committed. For complete forgiveness, repentance is required (24:47; Matt 3:2).

23:36 Ps 69:21; Matt 27:48.

23:38 Matt 27:37.

23:39 At first both criminals insulted the Lord Jesus (Matt 27:44). But one changed his mind about Him.

23:40,41 This is evidence that repentance was at work in his heart. He did not defend himself, but confessed that his sins deserved crucifixion. And he could see that the Lord Jesus was innocent and different from themselves.

23:42 Faith in the Lord Jesus was born in the heart of this criminal, and a remarkable faith it was. He saw that this condemned and crucified man was the Messiah of Israel with a kingdom God had given Him. He knew that Christ's death would not be the end, but that He would come into His kingdom. And he believed, guilty criminal that he was, that Jesus could and would show him mercy.

23:43 "Paradise" – note at 16:22. The word points to a place of eternal joy and blessedness. In the case of this criminal we see all the basic requirements for any individual to be saved. He was saved without baptism, without any sacrament or ordinance of the church, and without any good works of any kind. He was saved immediately and went to Paradise on the day of his death – there was no waiting, no purgatory. If he had lived, doubtless he would have been baptized and done good works. But his salvation without them shows that they are not essential for salvation. It was all of God's grace through repentance and faith. See Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:3-7. Christ Himself and Christ alone is the channel of God's grace, and the only hope for anyone.

23:45 This was a supernatural darkness caused by God, and not merely clouds obscuring the face of the sun. On the tearing of the curtain see Matt 27:51.

temple was torn in two.

46 And Jesus crying out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." And having said thus, he expired.

47 Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man."

48 And all the people who had assembled for that sight, seeing what had happened, beat their breasts, and returned. 49 And all those who knew him, and the women who followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

50 Now there was a man named Joseph, a Council member. And he was a good man and a righteous one. 51 (He had not consented to their decision and deed.) He was from Arimathea, a Jewish town, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God. 52 This man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen cloth, and placed it in a tomb cut in the rock, where no one had ever been placed before.

54 And that day was the Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was drawing near. 55 And the women also, who came with him from Galilee, followed him, and saw the tomb and how his body was placed. 56 And they returned and prepared spices and fragrant oils, and rested on the Sabbath day according to the commandment.

24 Now on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices that they had prepared. And some other women were with them. 2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 And they went in, but did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

23:46 Note at Ps 31:5; John 10:17,18.

23:47 See Matt 27:54. Here we see another person in this Gospel praising God – 1:46,64; 2:13; etc. This Roman military officer recognized that Jesus was dying in peace, and that God had vindicated Him by signs from heaven. It is possible that God granted him on the spot a true faith in Christ. 23:48 See 18:13.

23:49 Matt 27:55,56; Mark 15:40,41.

23:50-56 Matt 27:57-61; Mark 15:42-47.

23:51 Luke 2:25-38. "Kingdom of God – Matt 4:17.

23:56 Note at Mark 16:1. "Sabbath. . . commandment" – Ex 12:16; 20:10.

24:1-10 Matt 28:1-8; Mark 16:1-10.

24:4 Angels sometimes appeared in the form of men. Matthew speaks of only one angel, and Mark of a young man in white. This is not strange because sometimes only the spokesman is noted and the one with him is not mentioned. See note at Mark 4:1.

24:7 "Again" – Matt 16:21; 17:22,23; Luke

4 And as they were greatly perplexed about this, it happened that suddenly two men in shining clothing stood near them. 5 And as they were afraid and bowed their faces toward the ground, the men said to them,

"Why are you looking for the living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he spoke to you while he was still in Galilee, 7 saying, 'The Son of man must be given into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.'"

8 And they remembered his words, 9 and returned from the tomb and told all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women who were with them, who told these things to the apostles. 11 And their words seemed to them like idle talk, and they did not believe them.

12 Then Peter got up and ran to the tomb, and, stooping down, he saw the linen clothes placed by themselves, and left, wondering to himself at what had happened.

13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, which was about twelve kilometers from Jerusalem. 14 And they were talking together about everything that had taken place. 15 And it happened that as they talked and discussed this, Jesus himself drew near and went with them. 16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

17 And he said to them, "What kind of discussion is this you are having as you sadly walk along?"

18 And one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said to him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem? And don't you know the things that have been happening there in these days?"

9:22. He had said this to His disciples more than once while they were still in Galilee, and evidently at least once when these women were present.

24:9 Mark 16:14.

24:11 Mark 16:11.

24:12 Perhaps Peter admitted to himself the possibility that Jesus had risen. John went with Peter and believed Jesus had risen when he saw the condition of things at the tomb. See John 20:3-9.

24:13-35 Mark briefly mentions this (Mark 16:12,13), but only Luke records it in detail.

24:16 God kept them from recognizing Jesus, but also it seems that His appearance was such after the resurrection that some could not easily recognize Him (vs 31,36,37; Matt 28:17; John 20:14-16,19).

24:17 Jesus sometimes asked such questions – not because He did not know the answer, but because He wanted them to speak their thoughts.

19 And he said to them, "What things?" And they said to him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word in the presence of God and all the people, 20 And how the chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be condemned to death, and crucified him. 21 But we hoped that he was the one who would redeem Israel. And besides all this, today is the third day since these things were done. 22 Yes, and also some women of our group astonished us. Early they were at the tomb, 23 and when they did not find his body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. 24 And some of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it just as the women had said. But they did not see him."

25 Then he said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. 26 Was not the Christ bound to suffer these things, and to enter his glory?"

27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he explained to them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures. 28 And they drew near to the village where they were going, and he made as if he was going further. 29 But they pressed him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening, and the day is far spent." And he went in to stay with them.

30 And when he had sat down at the table with them, it came about that he took bread, blessed 24:19 Is this all they believed – that Jesus was a prophet?

24:21 Notice the past tense of the verb "hoped." With the death of the Lord Jesus it seems their hopes had been destroyed.

24:24 Reports of an empty tomb were not enough to convince these disciples that Jesus was alive. Like Thomas they wanted to see Him (John 20:25).

24:25,26 They knew the writings of the Old Testament prophets, they thought they believed them, but they were foolish and slow in believing that those writings referred to the Lord Jesus. OT prophets wrote of both the suffering of the coming Messiah and His glory (Ps 22; Isaiah chapter 53; 9:6,7; 11:1-16; etc). The Jews of that day expected the glory without the suffering. 24:27 Verse 44. Jesus now corrects their deficiency in understanding. Observe that the Old Testament is full of the Lord Jesus, from Moses (the first books of the Bible) onward. And the Lord Jesus will explain the OT to us too, if we are believing and obedient. He will do this by the Holy Spirit (John 14:26; 15:26; 16:13-15).

24:28 He wanted them to invite Him into their home; He would not enter otherwise (compare Rev 3:20). And they invited Him in, not yet knowing who He was (compare Matt 25:34-40; Heb 13:2).

24:30 See 9:16; 22:19.

24:31 After His resurrection Jesus could and broke it, and gave it to them. 31 And their eyes were opened and they knew him; and he vanished from their sight.

32 And they said to one another, "Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way and while he opened the Scriptures to us?"

33 And they got up the same hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the Eleven and those who were with them gathered together, 34 saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon."

35 And they told what had occurred on the road, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread. 36 And as they said this, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

37 But they were startled and frightened, thinking that they were seeing a spirit.

38 And he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? 39 See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see me have."

40 And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 And while they still did not believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have here any food?"

42 And they gave him a piece of broiled fish, and a piece of honeycomb. 43 And he took them, and ate in front of them.

44 And he said to them, "These are the words suddenly appear and disappear, even through locked doors (v 36; John 20:19). His body was the same body that suffered and died (vs 38-43), but wonderfully changed. Compare 1 Cor 15:35-44; Phil 3:21.

24:32 The Lord Jesus still has power to set hearts aflame.

24:33 Verse 9.

24:34 Simon was Peter's original name. He was also called Cephas (1 Cor 15:5). This appearance of Jesus to Peter is not described in any of the Gospels.

24:36 John 20:19. The door was locked.

24:37 Compare Mark 6:49,50. They probably thought that only a ghost or spirit could come through a locked door.

24:39 There were marks of the wounds that had been made in His feet and hands when He was crucified. These words of Jesus prove that His literal body had risen from the tomb. His resurrection was not some sort of spiritual resurrection (whatever that means). The same body which had been crucified and buried was now alive. It could be seen and touched and could assimilate food (vs 42,43).

24:41 Verse 25. The disciples were men just like ourselves. They found it hard to believe something that seemed too good to be true.

24:43 John 21:12-15.

24:44 The Jews sometimes divided the Old Testament into two sections – the Law and which I spoke to you, while I was still with you: that all things concerning me which were written in the law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled."

45 Then he opened their understanding, so that they could understand the Scriptures, 46 and said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day; 47 also that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48 And you are witnesses of these things.

the Prophets (v 27; Matt 5:17); sometimes into three sections – the Law, the Prophets and the Psalms. And they arranged the books differently than the present OT. The book of Psalms was the first book of the third section. Christians now usually divide the OT into 4 sections – the books of Moses, called the Pentateuch (meaning five books – Genesis through Deuteronomy), the Historical Books (Joshua – Esther), the Poetical Books (Job – Song of Songs), and the Prophetical Books (Isaiah – Malachi). Predictions about Christ, and types and pictures of Christ, are found in all sections of the Old Testament. He made all this clear to His disciples – not in an instant, but over a period of 40 days (Acts 1:3).

24:45 He still opens men's minds to understand the Scriptures. Compare Isa 54:13; John 16:13; Eph 1:17,18; John 2:20.

24:46,47 "Repentance" – 13:3-5; Matt 3:2,8; Acts 17:30.

"Forgiveness" – Matt 6:12; 9:5-7; 12:31; 18:23-35; Eph 1:7; 1 John 1:9. There is no complete forgiveness of sins without repentance. See also Acts 5:31; 26:26:18. Christ suffering and dying as a sacrifice for sins, and rising from the dead, is the basis of forgiveness, and there is no other. This truth must be preached in all the world (Matt 28:18-20; Mark 16:15), but was to be preached first to the Jews who had demanded His death – Acts 1:8; 3:26.

24:48 John 15:27; Acts 1:8. The disciples

49 "And, look, I am going to send the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."

50 And he led them out as far as Bethany, and he lifted up his hands and blessed them. 51 And while he was blessing them it came about that he parted from them, and was carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. 53 And they were continually in the temple, praising and extolling God. Amen.

as witnesses for Christ demonstrated their truthfulness and sincerity by willingly suffering and dying for their witness (Acts 5:40-42; 7:57-60; 12:1-4; 14:19,20; 2 Cor 11:23-26).

24:49 See Acts 1:4. What God the Father had promised was the Holy Spirit (Isa 44:3; Joel 2:28; John 7:37-39; 14:16,17). Christ's servants were not to vainly imagine they could do God's work without God's power. The book of Acts shows what they could do with God's power. The Holy Spirit gives spiritual energy, strength, and influence which no man has by nature.

24:50 Bethany was on the Mount of Olives east of Jerusalem.

"Blessed them" – Gen 12:1-3; Lev 9:22-24; Num 6:22-27; etc.

24:51 Acts 1:9.

24:52 Their minds were opened to understand the Scriptures, and the Lord Jesus risen from the dead was before them. They knew beyond doubt that He was the incarnation of God and worthy of worship. Compare Matt 28:17; John 20:28,29. Notice the connection between their knowledge of who Jesus is, their worship of Him and their joy. They did not become joyful by seeking joy but by believing in the Lord Jesus (compare 1 Pet 1:8).

24:53 Luke concludes on the theme he emphasizes everywhere in this Gospel – praising God (1:46,64; 2:13; etc). Let us join them all in praising Him for the wonderful things He has done in and through the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel According to JOHN

Author:

John was one of the original disciples of Christ. See Matthew 4:21,22. He does not mention himself by name in this Gospel, but calls himself "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (see notes at 21:20,24).

Sometime in the first century A.D., probably toward the end of that century.

Theme:

John himself gives the reason for writing this Gospel. See 20:31. He presents those words and deeds of Christ which most clearly prove who He is – God incarnate and the one anointed by God the Father to be the giver of eternal life to all who believe in Him. He records some events in Christ's life, some miracles of His, and a number of His teachings not found in any of the other Gospels. Some key words are: Father, Son, believe, eternal life, love, light.

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 This same One was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him not one thing was made that was made.

4 In him was life, and that life was the light of men. 5 And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not comprehended it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness to testify about the Light, that all men through him might believe. 8 He was not that Light, but was sent to testify about that Light.

9 That was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own, and his own did not receive him.

12 But as many as received him, to those who believed in his name, to them he gave the right to

1:1,2 "Beginning" - 17:5; Gen 1:1; 1 John 1:1,2. When God made the universe the "Word" was already in existence. The universe had a beginning but the Word was eternal, one with the Creator of all things. The verses which follow, especially v 14, make it clear that the Word is the Lord Jesus Christ. "Word" suggests communication, speech. The Lord Jesus is the full expression of the mind of God, the completion revelation of God's heart, God's nature (v 18; 10:30; 14:9; Heb 1:3).

"God" in these verses (except for the phrase "the word was God") evidently means God the Father (note at Matt 5:16).

"With" - to say the Word was with God means that He was not the same as the Father. Two distinct persons are in view here.

"Was God" means He fully shared the nature of God. See other references about this truth in notes at Phil 2:6 and Luke 2:11. Verse 1 does not say that "the Word was a god," or "the Word was in some measure divine." Any such translation is false to the language of the original. The Greek plainly states that the Word (the Lord Jesus) was God. Father and Son are distinct persons, but (together with the Holy Spirit) are perfectly united in one Godhead, sharing the same divine nature (see notes on the Trinity at 5:30; Matt 3:16,17; 28:19; 2 Cor 13:14).

1:3 Genesis chapter 1; 1 Cor 8:6; Col 1:16; Heb 1:2. The Father worked through the Son in bringing the universe into existence. The world is not the work of some inferior god, but the creation of the only Supreme Power there is.

1:4 The "Word" was not a mere idea in the mind of God, not some principle of God's action. The Word was a living person through whom all life in the universe came into being. See 5:26; 6:57; 1 Cor 8:6; Col 1:15,16. And it is through Him now that men can receive new spiritual, eternal life - vs 12,13; 3:16; 5:24; 17:2; 20:31. Life is a constant theme of John's gospel, used 36 times. Light is another word often found in John. Here "light" means truth, spiritual reality. The Lord Jesus is the one who brings God's light to men (8:12; 9:5; 12:36,46). He enables us to see the truth about God, about ourselves, about salvation, about all the important things relating to spiritual life.

1:5 God's light continually shines. The reason why men do not understand it is given in 3:19; Rom 1:18-21; 2 Cor 4:4. 1:6 This John was not the author of this gospel, but John the Baptist. See notes at Matt 3:1; 11:1-15.

1:7,8 Verses 15-36; 5:33.

1:9 Verse 4 - the Lord Jesus was the "true" light in contrast to false lights - those who claimed to be the light or whom others regarded to be the light and who were not. Jesus is the true light because He enables men to see the truth about God, about salvation, etc. He sheds His light on all, to the whole world (8:12), though all will not receive it.

1:10 "In the world" refers to His birth and life on earth. Men did not recognize their Creator. Sin had dulled their minds, killed their spiritual understanding, separated them from God and His ways. Compare Isa 1:2,3; Eph 4:18; Col 1:21.

1:11 His "own" means Israel, the Jewish people. Not only did the world fail to recognize Him, His own nation, for the most part, refused to acknowledge Him (5:18,40; 7:47; 8:59; 19:6-15). But some of them did, as the next verse makes clear.

1:12 Here is one of the great promises of the whole Bible. It includes certain very important truths. Men are not the children of God by nature - they must "become" His children. Compare 3:6; 8:44; Eph 2:1,2; etc. By nature they are created beings who, by their own choice, are in rebellion against their Creator and separated from God (Jer 17:9; Gen 8:21; Isa 24:5; 59:1,2; Rom 3:9-19). They can become God's children only by receiving the Lord Jesus who is the Word and who is the Light God has sent to men, the Lord through whom the worlds were made (which is the emphasis in the preceding verses), and the Saviour He has appointed (Matt 1:21; Acts 4:12). Receiving Him means believing Him.

"Believe" is one of the most important words of this Gospel (as it is of the whole Bible). In its various tenses it is used nearly 100 times, more than in any other book of the Bible. We receive Him by faith and become God's children by faith (3:15,16,36; 5:24; 6:47; Acts 16:31; Rom 10:9; Gal 3:26). Believing in His name is believing in Him - in what He is and who He is, and in what He has done, as revealed in the Bible.

"He gave the right" - salvation from beginning to end is God's gift. See 4:10; Rom 3:24; 4:4,5; 6:23; Eph 2:8.

become the sons of God, 13 who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh, and lived among us, and we saw His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

15 John testified about him, and cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me is superior to me, for he was before me.'"

1:13 "Born" – this means receiving a new spiritual life from God. It does not refer to their birth into the world in the past, or to another physical birth in the future. If we receive Jesus Christ as our Lord and Saviour, here and now we experience this new spiritual birth and become God's children. See John 3:3; 5:21,24; Eph 2:1-5; Jam 1:18; 1 Pet 1:23; 2:2; 1 John 3:9.

This does not come because of natural descent. No one is a child of God because his parents or ancestors were children of God (3:6). Each individual must personally receive Christ as Lord and Saviour and receive new life from God (compare Matt 3:9). Spiritual life cannot be passed on by physical means. And no person's will can in any way make another a child of God. Only God can do that and He does it only as men receive the Lord Jesus (v 12). God alone can produce spiritual children, and the whole of mankind is divided into two groups – those who are born of God and those who are not.

1:14 "Word" – v 1. "Flesh" – God became a man and had flesh and blood, real human nature. Coming into the world He took the name Jesus. See Matt 1:18-23; Luke 1:26-35; Gal 4:4; Heb 2:14,17. The two natures of Christ are perfectly united in one person. The person of Christ (one person, two natures, the God-man) is a great mystery revealed by God, and so one we should receive by faith even though we cannot understand much about it.

"Lived" – or "tabernacled", as it could be translated.

"Glory" – this probably refers to both the transfiguration (2 Peter 1:16,17; Matt 17:1,2), and His life and ministry which they saw for three years and which was full of grace and truth and glorious activity from beginning to end (compare 2:11).

"Grace" – note at Rom 1:7. This is one of the great words of the New Testament. In it the grace of God is referred to more than 100 times. Some important references: v 17; Acts 15:11; 18:27; 20:24; Rom 1:7; 3:24; 5:2,20,21; 6:1,14; 2 Cor 8:9; Gal 1:6; Eph 1:6; 2:5-10; 2 Thess 2:16; Titus 2:11; 3:7; Heb 2:9; 4:16; Jam 4:6; 2 Pet 3:18. Grace is the kindness of God in action. Grace is God giving salvation freely to undeserving sinners. He gives all they need to be saved and live for Him in this world and the next. Grace was God giving His Son to die for us and His Spirit to live in us. God's grace is revealed very clearly and wonderfully in Christ. See 2 Cor 8:9.

16 And from his fulness we all have received, and grace upon grace. 17 For the Law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

18 No man has seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, has revealed him.

19 And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to "Truth" – the revelation of truth is at the very heart of Christ's incarnation. John's Gospel alone uses the word 25 times (see 4:24; 8:31,32; 14:6,17; 16:13; 18:37). In the Old Testament also God is the "God of Truth" – Ps 31:5. Jesus is His incarnation.

"Only begotten" – in Greek this expression does not mean that Christ had a beginning. It is an emphatic way of saying that Christ was unique. He was one of a kind. It could be translated "one and only." God had only one Son who shared His nature and essence as God.

In this Gospel God is referred to as "Father" 122 times, much more often than in the other Gospels. Note on God the Father at Matt 5:16.

1:15 Verses 6, 30. John was born before Jesus and his ministry came before that of Jesus. John is here speaking of the existence of Jesus before He came to earth.

1:16 The Greek of this verse indicates grace continually flowing, one act of grace following another like the waves of the sea. And the one and only channel of this grace of God is the Lord Jesus.

1:17 Law refers to the old covenant given at Sinai through Moses. It is the foundation of nearly all of the Old Testament. See notes at Exodus chapter 19. John does not mean there was no revelation of God's grace and truth in the writings of Moses. He means that in Moses' writings there is an emphasis on law, and in Christ we have the embodiment of grace and truth, the full blaze of spiritual light, the perfect display of grace. He is contrasting two ways – the law of Moses and the gospel of Christ. The law could not save men and it did not reveal all the truth men needed.

1:18 Individuals sometimes saw a manifestation of God's glory, or His appearance in human form (Ex 24:9-11; 33:22,23; Isa 6:1). But no one ever saw God as He is in spirit, in His overwhelmingly glorious and holy essence (1 Tim 6:16).

"In the bosom of the Father" – this indicates the closeness, the love existing between the Father and the Son. Observe too that they are two distinct persons. Men cannot see God, but in the life and acts and words of the Lord Jesus we have a complete revelation of God's character. One of the great purposes He had in coming to earth was to reveal just what God the Father is like (compare 8:19; 10:30; 14:9; 17:6).

1:19 John was becoming very famous and the religious leaders of Israel wanted to know ask him, "Who are you?"

20 And he declared, and did not refuse to say, but declared, "I am not the Christ."

21 And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" And he said, "I am not." "Are you that prophet?" And he answered, "No."

22 Then they said to him, "Who are you? So that we can give an answer to those who sent us, what do you say about yourself?"

23 He said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: Make straight the way for the Lord, as the prophet Isaiah said."

24 And they who were sent were of the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, saying, "Why do you baptize then, if you are not the Christ, or Elijah, or that prophet?"

26 John answered them, saying, "I baptize with water, but one is standing among you whom you do not know. 27 He it is, who coming after me, is superior to me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to loosen."

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. 29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "See the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. 30 This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who is superior to me; for he was before me.' 31 And I did not know him, but I have come baptizing with water so that he might be revealed to Israel."

32 And John testified, saying, "I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and remain on him. 33 And I did not know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' 34 And I saw, and testify that this is the Son of God."

35 Again the next day after this John was standing with two of his disciples, 36 and looking at Jesus as he walked by, he said, "See the Lamb of God!"

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned and saw them following and said to them, "What are you seeking?" They said to him, "Rabbi (which means, being translated, Teacher), where do you live?"

39 He said to them, "Come and see." They what was happening. Note on priests at Ex 28:1.

"Levites" – Num 1:47-50.

1:20 Note on "Christ" at Matt 1:1. John knew he was not that person and he did not try to claim such an honor for himself (unlike some today who try to make out they are great ones and accept men's honor as so-called godmen and whatnot).

1:21 The Jews believed that Elijah would come again before Christ appeared (Mal 4:5). See notes at Matt 11:14; 17:10-12.

"The prophet" – the Jews based this question on Deut 18:15-19.

1:23 Isa 40:3; Matt 3:3. John's aim was not to call attention to himself or make any claims of greatness. He was willing to be a mere voice which prepared the way for the Lord Jesus. He was glad to be nothing if Jesus could be everything to men (v 27; 3:30). In this he was an example to us all. It is humility God wants to see in us and not a desire to be famous or great or a craving to receive honor from fellow men.

1:24 Note on Pharisees at Matt 3:7.

1:25 Note on baptism at Matt 3:6.

1:26 He meant the Lord Jesus. As yet no one had recognized Him as the Messiah, the Son of God. Compare vs 10,11.

1:27 See Matt 3:11.

1:29 The word "lamb" brings to mind the sacrifices described in the Old Testament. See Lev 1:2,10-14; 3:6-8; 14:12,21,24; Ex 12:3-13; Gen 22:7-14. John meant that God the Father would make the Lord Jesus a sacrifice to take away sin. Compare Rom 3:25; 1 Cor 5:7; Eph 5:2; Heb 9:26; 10:12; 1 Peter 1:19. This sacrifice would not be merely for individuals in Israel or for the whole nation, as some of the sacrifices of the Old Testament were. It would be for the whole of mankind. The Lord Jesus took away the sin of man, all the burden of debt that man owed God. This does not mean that all men are saved. It means that the way of salvation and perfect forgiveness has been opened to all men.

1:30 Verse 15.

1:31 John did not recognize Jesus as the Messiah until God revealed it to him. But he knew what his work was – v 23.

1:32 Matt 3:16. Notes on God's Spirit at 14:16,17.

1:33 The one who sent John was God.

"Baptizes with the Holy Spirit" – Matt 3:11; Acts 1:5. This is an immensely important part of the activity of the Lord Jesus.

1:34 Note on Son of God at 3:16; 5:18-23; Matt 3:16,17; 11:27.

1:35-37 John did not want to make disciples for himself. He wanted men to be Jesus' disciples. See 3:26-30. In this too he is an example for us to follow. The word translated "disciples" means "learners." See note at Matt 10:1.

1:38 The Lord Jesus does not want anyone to follow Him without good reason. Idle curiosity is not enough to make a disciple. Compare Luke 9:57-62; 14:25-27.

"Rabbi" – the usual term the disciples used of a guru. It means "my teacher." These two men indicated by their words that they wanted to be with Him and learn of Him – a desire all men should have but which comparatively few actually do have.

1:39 This gracious invitation to those two men is now given to everyone in different words (7:37; Matt 11:28; Rev 22:17). By went and saw where he lived, and stayed with him that day, for it was about four in the afternoon.

40 One of the two who heard John speaking, and followed Jesus, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means, being translated, the Christ).

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus saw him, he said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You will be called Cephas" (which by translation means, A stone).

43 The following day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee, and found Philip and said to him, "Follow me."

44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the town of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found the one about whom Moses in the Law, and the Prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

46 And Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."

accepting His invitation we will see that His eternal home is by the side of the Father (v 18), and we shall live there with Him forever.

1:40 Matt 16:17,18.

1:41 The way the truth still spreads on earth is by one telling it to another from person to person. Compare v 45; 4:28-30; 15:27. Note on "Messiah" at Matt 1:1.

1:42 "Cephas" is a word in the Aramaic language (a sister language to Hebrew, and spoken by the Jews in Israel in those days). Peter (Petros) means the same in Greek.

1:43 Compare Matt 4:19-22; 9:9.

1:44 Bethsaida was a town north of the Sea of Galilee.

1:45 This showed some good knowledge of the Old Testament. Compare Luke 24:27, 44. He calls Joseph the father of Jesus. God was His real Father (5:17,18; Luke 1:35); Joseph was His legal father while He was on earth.

1:46 Nathaniel's question reveals that the town of Nazareth was a place of no reputation, and completely insignificant.

"See" - a good word to all who are doubtful about Christ. Let them come, let them taste and they will understand His greatness and goodness (Ps 34:8).

1:47 An Israelite indeed was one who was what a man of Israel should be in heart and life - without insincerity and hypocrisy. Compare Rom 2:28,29; Matt 3:9,10.

1:48,49 Apparently the fig tree was far enough away that Jesus could not have seen Nathaniel or heard his words except by supernatural means. Nathaniel immediately understood this and called Jesus God's Son. "King of Israel" - notes at Matt 1:1; Ps 2:6; Isa 9:6,7.

1:50 Observe that the Lord Jesus accepts these words of Nathaniel as true and says

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, "See an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"

48 Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

49 Nathanael answered and said to him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God. You are the King of Israel."

50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Do you believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these."

51 And he said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, hereafter you will see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of man."

2 And on the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there, 2 and both Jesus and his disciples were invited to the wedding.

3 And when the wine was gone, the mother of that He will give much greater evidence of their truth. Compare 20:28,29.

1:51 Jesus used this expression "truly, truly" 25 times in John's Gospel. In Greek the words are "amen, amen." Amen is a Hebrew word sometimes used by the writers of the New Testament. It comes from a verb meaning to sustain, to support, to be firm, stable, to be faithful, trustworthy, true, sure, certain, to be something one can lean on. Amen, if used as an adjective, means "firm, faithful." As an adverb it means truly. Doubled is emphatic - indicating something absolutely true, beyond doubting. Only in John's Gospel is the word found doubled. It is a very solemn and emphatic way of speaking. It seems Jesus used it when He uttered truth that might seem to people strange and difficult to believe.

Here Jesus is referring to Jacob's dream recorded in Gen 29:12. In the dream there was a ladder between heaven and earth. Jesus is saying He Himself is that ladder. He is the way God's communication and God's blessings come down to men, the way men can rise to God's presence. Nathaniel (and all of Christ's disciples) would see this in due course. Note on angels at Gen 16:7. Note on Son of man at Matt 8:20.

2:1 Cana was a small town about 15 kilometers north of Nazareth. It seems from what follows that Mary the mother of Jesus was helping the host at the feast.

2:2 The Lord Jesus approved the institution of marriage and honored it with its presence (compare Matt 19:4-6; Heb 13:4).

2:3 In the midst of a formal and joyous occasion, this would have been very humiliating to the host. Mary expresses her concern and implies that Jesus might do something about it. Up to this event Jesus had performed no miracles, at least in Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

4 Jesus said to her, "Woman, what have I to do with you? My time has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

6 And six stone waterpots were placed there, according to the custom of Jewish purification, containing eighty or a hundred and twenty liters each.

7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the waterpots with water." And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the master of the feast." And they took it.

9 And when the master of the feast tasted the water that had been made wine, and not knowing where it came from (but the servants who drew the water knew) the master of the feast called the bridegroom, 10 and said to him, "Everyone at first sets out the good wine, and the inferior wine after men are intoxicated. But you have kept the good public (v 11). But Mary knew He was no ordinary person (Luke 1:35).

2:4 "Woman, what have I to do with you?" – using the word "woman" in this way was unusual, but not in any way disrespectful. Compare 19:26 (it is interesting that in the Gospels Jesus never once called Mary His mother). Here the meaning of Jesus' remark seems to be this: The Lord Jesus was beginning His ministry as the Son of God and as the Messiah of Israel. The old relationship He had with Mary in their Nazareth home was to be no longer in force, so He does not use the word "mother" when addressing her. She could have no influence on His decisions, and must not attempt to direct His activities in any way; He would get His directions from God the Father alone (compare Matt 12:46-50; John 4:34; 5:36; 8:28,29; 17:4).

As the servant of God He was behaving as He later called on His disciples to behave – Luke 14:25,26; Matt 10:37-39. For Christ the only important thing in life was putting God the Father first in everything, was knowing and lovingly doing the will of God, at whatever cost to Himself. And He would not permit any human ties, any personal aims or interests to influence Him in the slightest. He is our example.

2:5 Jesus' manner of speaking evidently indicated to Mary that He was going to do something. Her word to the servants was appropriate to them then and, in a higher, fuller sense, to all men always. We can never go wrong by doing what the Lord Jesus tells us. We will certainly go wrong if we do not.

2:6 Mark 7:1-5.

2:9 There is no description of the miracle itself. All we are told is that water went into the jars and wine came out. The wording in no way suggests that it differed from the wine drunk before, except that it was better. Wine is fermented grape juice. The Greek word for wine ("oinos") is used 33 times in the New Testament, including here, and is seen to be intoxicating when drunk to excess. This is clear from v 10, Eph 5:18, and Matt 9:17 (wineskins would not burst if there were no continuing fermentation).

Is it possible that what Jesus made was unfermented grape juice which miraculously tasted like real wine and completely deceived the master of the feast? There is no hint whatever in the Bible itself that this is what happened. In fact John 4:46 clearly states that Jesus "made the water into wine (oinos)." In any case, can we think that Jesus who is the Truth (John 14:6) and who hates all forms of lying and deception, would use deception in this the first of his miracles?

In those days the drinking of wine at meals was a common practice, and it was not regarded as harmful. Usually it was mixed with water – one part wine to three parts water. Some commentators have suggested that wine used in this way acted as a water purifier in that time when there were no filters, chlorination of water, etc. Of course, drinking wine in excess (or any other alcoholic drink) is everywhere condemned in the Bible. See notes at Gen 9:21; Prov 23:29-35; Eph 5:18; 1 Tim 3:8; Titus 2:3.

The word "wine" is sometimes used in the Bible as a symbol of something good (Prov 9:1,2,5; Isa 55:1; Matt 26:37-39). In Matt 9:17 the Lord Jesus used "wine" as a symbol of the gospel. His gospel was new "wine" in contrast to the old covenant of the law. Here He makes wine from water that came out of jars the Jews used for washings related to their religion. This may be a little picture of what Jesus came to do: He came to establish His Kingdom of grace and joy which would replace the old covenant.

As for the drinking of wine now (or any kind of alcoholic beverage) Christians should follow certain principles clearly laid down for us in the New Testament. We should all study and practice Romans 14:1-4,10,13,19-23; 15:1-3; 1 Cor 8:9; 9:19-23; 10:23,24. In these days some Christians may be stumbled if they see or hear of other Christians drinking even a little wine. Therefore it is better to abstain completely than to indulge oneself and be a cause of stumbling to any of God's people. Loving one's brothers and sisters in Christ and trying to encourage their faith is the important thing, not eating and drinking (Rom 14:17). And giving our money to help those in need, or for the progress of the Gospel, is far better than using it for self-indulgence or self-pleasing.

2:10 The man was making a statement about feasts in general. He is not saying that people at this wedding feast were getting drunk. The Lord Jesus would not have participated in a feast where the guests got stupefied by drink, nor would He have provided more wine for such.

wine until now.”

11 This, the first of his miraculous signs, Jesus did in Cana of Galilee and revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, his mother, his brothers, and his disciples, but they did not stay there many days.

13 And the Jewish Passover was at hand. And Jesus went up to Jerusalem, 14 and found in the temple compound those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers sitting there. 15 And when he had made a whip out of cords, he drove them all out of the temple, together with the sheep and the oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned the tables, 16 and said to those who sold doves, “Take these things out of here. Do not make my Father’s house a house of trade.”

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written,

Zeal for your house has consumed me.

18 Then the Jews responded and said to him,

2:11 “Signs” – in Greek there is only one word here, which can mean either signs or miracles or both – miracles that are signs. Eleven times in the Gospel of John the miracles of the Lord Jesus are called “signs.” This is because they are full of meaning; they point to spiritual truth. They are evidence that God was working through the Lord Jesus, that He was the Messiah of Israel, the Son of God, the King from heaven. They made known His power, grace and love. Their object was to lead people to faith in Christ. See v 23; 3:2; 20:30,31. They are parables, not in words, but in action. They were one way the Lord Jesus made God the Father known (1:17,18). See note on miracles at Matt 8:1.

“Glory” – 1:14. His disciples had already begun to believe. Because of this sign their faith increased and was confirmed.

2:12 Capernaum was a town on the lake of Galilee. It became Christ’s headquarters in Galilee (Matt 9:1). Jesus’ brothers are mentioned in 7:3; Matt 12:46; 13:55.

2:13 Notes on the Passover at Exodus chapter 12; Lev 23:4-8.

2:14-16 Matthew, Mark and Luke all record an event similar to this which occurred shortly before Christ’s crucifixion. See notes at Matt 21:12,13. John refers to a time toward the beginning of Christ’s ministry. It appears that Jesus twice cleared the temple of things which didn’t belong there.

2:16 They had perverted the proper use of the temple and thought only of the profits they could make through it. Compare 1 Tim 6:5.

2:17 Ps 69:9.

2:18 Verse 11.

2:19-22 These words of Jesus were later

“What miraculous sign do you show to us, since you are doing these things?”

19 Jesus answered and said to them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

20 Then the Jews said, “It took forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?”

21 But he spoke of the temple of his body. 22 So when he had risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this to them, and they believed the Scripture, and the words Jesus had spoken.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, on the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miraculous signs which he did. 24 But Jesus did not commit himself to them, because he knew all men, 25 and did not need anyone to testify about man, for he knew what was in man.

3 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. 2 This man came to Jesus at night and said to him, “Rabbi, we twisted and used against Him at His trial (Matt 26:61). Jesus here very early in His ministry speaks of His death and resurrection. His body was a temple – the dwelling place of God (compare 1 Cor 6:19,20). They would put it to death but He would raise it. The Jews misunderstood Him and mocked. Even the disciples did not grasp His meaning until after His resurrection. See Matt 16:21,22; Luke 18:31-34.

2:22 See 14:26. As used in the New Testament the word “Scriptures” means the Old Testament. “Scripture” in the singular may refer to a single verse or promise such as Ps 16:10.

2:23 Verse 12. Believing in His name means to believe in Him, to receive Him (1:12).

2:24,25 Some put their trust in His name but He did not put His trust in them. Jesus was God in the flesh (1:14) and had God’s knowledge of human nature – 1 Kings 8:39; Jer 17:9,10. There are several examples in this Gospel of His supernatural knowledge (1:48,49; 4:17,18; 5:42; 6:26; etc). He knew that all men have a sinful nature and that even believers are sometimes fickle, superficial in their faith, and unreliable. Even His closest and best disciples were often spiritually dull, did not always follow His ways, and were no help in the time of His greatest crisis (Matt 26:36-56).

3:1 See note on the Pharisees at Matt 3:7. Nicodemus was a good representative of the religion of the Jews with its law-keeping, ceremonies and religious activities. In the conversation which follows, the Lord Jesus shows that all of that put together was not enough to make anyone a child of God.

3:2 We do not know why Nicodemus came at night, but we do know that Jesus received know that you are a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miraculous signs that you are doing, unless God is with him."

3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

5 Jesus answered, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless a man is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not be surprised that I said to you, 'You must be born again.' 8 The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but him just as he was (compare John 6:37), and taught him some great truth - truth at the very heart of God's revelation in the New Testament. On "Rabbi" see 1:38. Evidently he regarded Jesus only as a teacher from God and not as the Messiah and Son of God. But he could see that the miracles Jesus did proved His connection with God. See notes at 2:11; Matt 8:1.

3:3 The reply of Jesus is very abrupt. It is as though He was saying, "Do you really believe that? Then I will teach you what you need to know". Do we now say that Jesus is a teacher come from God? Then we too should let Him teach us, and examine very carefully every word of His in the Bible. On the phrase "truly, truly" see 1:51. On "born again" see note at 1:13.

"Again" - the Greek word means "anew" or "from above." The new birth does not mean reincarnation. The teaching that men are born again and again into this world in a physical way is contrary to Biblical teaching (notes at 9:1-3; Job 11:12; Luke 16:26). Even if repeated births were possible it could never result in new spiritual life. All men are sinners and repeated births would mean repeated lives of sin and greatly increased guilt.

By the new birth Jesus means a creative act of God here and now. This glorious work of God makes people new creations, spiritually alive and wonderfully changed in heart; it is like passing from death to life (5:24; 2 Cor 5:17,18; Eph 2:1-5). Without this no one can have any part in the kingdom of God. Jesus was saying to Nicodemus that without the new birth being born a Jew and keeping the law and observing ceremonies and being religious came to nothing. On the kingdom of God see note at Matt 4:17.

3:4 Nicodemus either did not understand what Jesus was saying, or else he was questioning the possibility of it and was asking, "Can old men be radically changed?" There are still many religious leaders who are in the same condition as Nicodemus. The answer to such a question is that any person, young or old, can experience the new birth by trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ.

3:5-8 In these verses the Lord Jesus reveals how the new birth is brought about. It is produced in the individual by the Spirit of God. The expression "born of the Spirit", is here thrice (vs 5, 6, 8). The words "born of water" in v 5 have been interpreted in several different ways.

Some say "water" here stands for purification as it often does in the Old Testament. See Ex 30:17-21; Num 19:9; 31:23; Ps 51:7-10; Isa 44:3; Jer 4:14; Ezek 37:25. Compare Ezek 36:25,26 with the words "born of water and the Spirit." Observe in Ezekiel that the "sprinkling of water" is something God does, not man. So it refers to the cleansing of the heart from sin, not to water baptism. Compare Titus 3:5 - there the new birth itself is called a "washing." It cleanses the heart as water cleanses the body. Water baptism is not there in the picture at all. Others say that "born of water" means born of the Word of God. They take water here to be a symbol of God's Word. As a basis for this they point to such verses as 15:3; Eph 5:26; Jam 1:18; 1 Peter 1:23.

Others say that "water" here is a symbol of God's Spirit, as in 7:37-39. They think that "born of water and the Spirit" is two ways of saying the same thing and saying it very emphatically.

Others think "water" here indicates physical birth into the world. As though Jesus was saying "Man's first birth was not enough; birth by God's Spirit is also necessary for entrance into God's Kingdom."

Others say that "water" here refers to the repentance and confession which are symbolized by water baptism (see notes at Matt 3:6).

Still others say "water" here means water baptism and insist that this is necessary for the new birth, that God's Spirit works with this ceremony to produce new life in people.

The author of these notes thinks there is something to be said for any of the above interpretations except the last one. Certainly the Lord Jesus never taught anywhere else that baptism is necessary for the new birth. The new birth occurs when individuals receive the Lord Jesus by faith (1:12,13), not when they participate in the ceremony of baptism. Baptism should follow the new birth; it does not produce it. Only God can perform the miracle of the new birth and He does so as people repent and trust in the Lord Jesus. And this is what is absolutely necessary for salvation and entrance into God's Kingdom.

3:6 "Flesh" here means what man is by nature (see notes at Rom 7:5,18). Man can produce children like himself but can never produce new spiritual life (1:13). All his attempts to do so will come to nothing. Only God's Spirit can produce spiritual life (notice that the word "water" is now dropped).

3:8 "Wind blows" - or "Spirit breathes." The work of God's Spirit and the inner life of those cannot tell where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

9 Nicodemus answered and said to him, "How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered and said to him, "You are a teacher of Israel, and do you not know these things?"

11 Truly, truly I say to you, we speak what we know, and testify to what we have seen. And you do not receive our testimony. 12 I have told you earthly things, and if you do not believe them, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?"

born by the Spirit are both mysterious. They are like the wind which is unseen and unpredictable in its movements, and which is known to ordinary men only by its effects.

3:9 Nicodemus is still puzzled. We should be glad for his question because in answering it the Lord Jesus gave him some very beautiful and important truth.

3:10 As a teacher in Israel, familiar with the Old Testament, he should not have been so puzzled. He should have known the sinfulness of men and the need for a radical change in heart and life taught in many places there (for example, Gen 8:21; Ps 51:5; Jer 13:23; 17:9). And he surely knew such verses as Jer 31:31-33 and Ezek 11:19; 18:31; 36:26. Today there are still many who have not learned the most vital truth themselves but who still try to teach others. Gross spiritual ignorance may be in the most educated and famous of men.

3:11 When the Lord Jesus taught, He was not merely expressing opinions on religious subjects. He knew exactly what He was talking about, and spoke with divine authority (7:16,17; 8:38; 12:49,50; Matt 7:28,29). If we refuse to listen to Him the great loss will be ours.

3:12 He had spoken to Nicodemus of water and wind and the new birth which takes place on earth and in men of the earth. Heavenly things are things more directly related to heaven. These He speaks of in the verses which follow - His own eternal dwelling place in heaven (v 13), His coming down to take away man's sin by the sacrifice of Himself (v 14), eternal life (v 15), and the love of the God of heaven and what it caused Him to do (v 16).

3:13 In this verse He reveals how He can speak with such authority, and how He could speak of heavenly things. He is the only person born into the world who ever lived in the immediate presence of God in God's own home, in the highest heaven. And He came down from there with God's revelation for men. Compare v 31; 1:1,14; 6:38; 8:23.

"The Son of man who is in heaven" - compare 1:18. He came down from heaven and was a man among men. But at the same time He was in heaven. This could be true only of someone who is God, for only God can be in more than one place at the same time. Note on Son of man at Matt 8:20.

3:14,15 See notes at Num 21:4-9. Moses

13 And no man has gone up to heaven except he who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of man who is in heaven.

14 "And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up, 15 so that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 "For God did not send his Son into the world lifted up the serpent, and people who were dying physically lived. For people dead in sin (Eph 2:1) to live spiritually it was necessary that Jesus be lifted up. This lifting up was on the cross (compare 12:32,33). In these verses the Lord Jesus links His sacrifice for the sins of men with the new birth. People can be born again and receive eternal life only because Christ was the Lamb of God bearing away the sins of the world (1:29). Sin destroys people and condemns them to eternal punishment. But when anyone repents and believes in Christ and His sacrifice for them, God's Spirit creates new life in them (v 5). And this holy spiritual life goes on forever.

3:16 Here in one verse is the heart of John's Gospel, indeed, the heart of the Bible. God had pity and compassion for men lost and perishing in their sins. He does not love men because they are good or worthy of His love (if they were good and worthy they would not be perishing). He loves because it is His nature to love (see Ex 34:6,7; 1 John 4:8). And His love was not merely in words but in deeds. He proved His love once and forever by giving His only Son (Rom 5:8; Titus 3:3-5; 1 John 3:16; 4:9,10). And God's love was not for one nation only (as many Jews thought), but for the whole of mankind (2 Cor 5:19; 1 John 2:2; 1 Tim 2:3,4).

"His only begotten Son" - on "only begotten" see the note at 1:18. Christ is absolutely unique, fully sharing the very nature of God (1:18; Matt 3:17; Phil 2:6). God the Father did not give one Son among many to die for the world. He gave the only Son He had. Here was a gift indescribable in its greatness and value (2 Cor 9:15).

God's purpose in sending the Lord Jesus is here clearly revealed. Men were perishing in sin, and He wanted them to have eternal life. This life speaks of a quality of life and not just one that goes on forever. Eternal life is holy, spiritual life in fellowship with God, untouched by sin and death. The Lord Jesus here states again very plainly that there is only one way to obtain this life. It is by believing in Him (see also v 36; 1:12; 5:24; 6:47; 8:24). Faith in Christ makes all the difference between perishing forever in hell, or living eternally with God.

3:17 See 12:47. God is the just Judge of the universe. The time will come when every person must stand before Him for judgment (Gen 18:25; Deut 32:36; 1 Sam 2:10; to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He who believes in him is not condemned, but he who does not believe is already condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the condemnation: Light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come to the light, so that his deeds will not be exposed. 21 But he who practices truth comes to the light so that it may be revealed that his deeds have been done through God."

22 After these things Jesus and his disciples came to the land of Judea, and there he spent time

Ps 7:8; 9:8; 82:8; 96:13; Acts 17:30,31; 2 Cor 5:10; Rev 20:11-13). But He sent Christ into the world for another purpose altogether – that is, to save men from just condemnation for their sins. Christ accomplished God's purpose by bearing their sins and condemnation Himself (1:29; 3:15; 2 Cor 5:21; 1 Peter 2:24).

Forty (40!) times in John's Gospel Jesus indicated that God had sent Him.

3:18 Rom 8:1. Believers are fully forgiven, their sins are taken away in the sacrificial death of Christ, and they are counted as innocent and righteous (Rom 3:24,25; 5:1; Eph 1:7; Col 2:13; 1 John 2:12). So there is no condemnation for them. The case of unbelievers is entirely different. They are rejecting God's one and only remedy for their sins. They are even adding to their sins by refusing God's greatest gift, and calling God a liar by their unbelief (1 John 5:10). If such people do not repent and believe the Gospel, there can be nothing but condemnation for them. Observe once again the importance given to faith in the teaching of the Bible.

3:19,20 The world as a whole already stands guilty and condemned before God (compare Rom 1:18-20; 3:9,19). Unbelievers do not have to wait until God's great judgment day for God's general verdict on their behavior. It is given in these two verses. They show by their actions what kind of people they are and how worthy they are of condemnation and punishment. In the person of Christ light has come into the world (compare 1:4-9; 8:12). He brought wonderful revelations of truth about God and men and salvation. But men in general did not love Him or the truth He brought. They loved something else – darkness.

Darkness signifies concealment, deception, ignorance, untruth, evil. Those who love such darkness will not love light. Light exposes them for what they are – sinners worthy of hell who can be saved only by Christ. And light makes it impossible for them to indulge in all the evil they desire to do. So they hate the light – that is, they hate Christ and His truth (this is no exaggeration, but the solemn truth which with them, and baptized. 23 And John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there. And people came and were baptized. 24 For John had not yet been thrown into prison.

25 Then an argument began between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purification. 26 And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, about whom you testified, the same man is baptizing, and everyone is coming to him."

27 John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing unless it is given to him from heaven. 28 You yourselves can testify for me that I said, 'I am not the Christ, but I was sent before him.'

Jesus later repeated – 7:7; 15:18,23-25).

We should understand from this that the unbelief of men is not because they have valid reasons for unbelief, or because they are intellectually unable to believe, but because of the sin and darkness in them. The fault is not with their minds, but with their hearts and wills. Belief in Christ is a moral choice for goodness, holiness and truth, and most men are not willing to make this choice. They prefer sin to holiness, darkness to light, and self rather than Christ. 3:21 But there are some who want the truth and try to practice the truth. They have responded to God's Word and God has been at work in their hearts. They do not fear the light but come to it. They are those who believe the gospel and receive Christ. We see examples of such in the disciples and others in the four Gospels. And there are many such people today throughout the world.

3:22 See 4:1,2.

3:23 The exact location of Salim is unknown. The reason given for John's baptizing there is another indication that John baptized by immersion (Matt 3:6).

3:24 See Matt 14:1-12.

3:25 Mark 7:1-4.

3:26 "Rabbi" – 1:38. Did they think John would be jealous or angry? If so, they were greatly mistaken. God sent John to bear witness to Christ (1:6-8). In the verses which follow we see him doing so in a marvelous manner. Far from being jealous of Christ he rejoiced in His success. He saw in it the fulfillment of his own ministry. His purpose was never to attract people to himself but to point them to the Lord Jesus. In this he is an example to us all.

3:27 John well knew that God has for each of His people a position and a ministry, and that one should not strive for another's place or envy another, but be satisfied with God's appointment. Compare Num 11:26-29; Ps 75:6,7; Jer 45:5; Rom 12:3-8; 1 Cor 12:12-20.

3:28,29 John knew his place and rejoiced in it. In 1:19-27 he had stated his ministry exactly. Here he describes Christ as a bridegroom and Christ's people as the bride. He saw himself only as the friend of the bridegroom. At a wedding the bridegroom and the bride are the important persons, not the friend. John was familiar with the Old Testament Scriptures that speak of the nation of Israel being the bride of Jehovah God (Isa 54:5; 62:4,5; Jer 2:2; 3:20; Ezek 16:8; Hos 2:19,20). In the New Testament Christ calls Himself the "bridegroom" (Mark 2:19), and His Church is compared to a bride (2 Cor 11:2; Eph 5:32; Rev 19:7).

29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom. But the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and listens to him, greatly rejoices because of the bridegroom's voice. So this joy of mine is complete. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease. 31 He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth is earthly, and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. 32 And he testifies to what he has seen and heard, and no man receives his testimony. 33 He who has received his testimony has certified that God is true. 34 For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit to him by measure.

3:30 Here is an example of that love for Christ and that humility and denial of self which are so precious to God (Matt 3:11; 10:37-39; 18:4; 20:25-28).

3:31 The one from "above" is the Lord Jesus - v 13; 8:23; 1 Cor 15:47. The one from the "earth" is John himself. This is one difference between the Lord Jesus and every other person.

3:32 Verses 11-13.

3:33 If we believe Christ's words we are saying that God is truthful. If we do not believe, it is the same as calling God a liar (1 John 5:10).

3:34 Compare 7:16,17; 8:38; 12:49,50. "Spirit" here means the Holy Spirit - 1:32; Matt 3:16; Isa 11:1,2; 61:1. Notes on God's Spirit at 14:16,17.

3:35 The mutual love of God the Father and God the Son, of one divine person for the other, is seen in all the Gospels, but is revealed more fully in John than in the others (Matt 3:17; Mark 1:11; Luke 3:22; John 5:20; 10:17; 14:31; 15:9,10; 17:23, 24,26). The Father gave all power and authority to the Son. See 5:22-27; 17:2,6; Matt 28:18; Acts 2:36; Heb 1:2; Ps 2:6-12.

3:36 This naturally follows from the preceding verses. God has ordained that Christ should give eternal life to those who believe in Him. He is the only one who can give it and this is the only way it can be obtained. See note on eternal life at v 16.

"Refuses to believe" - this translation brings out the meaning of the Greek, which could also be translated "does not obey," or "is rebellious against." It is a different word than the word translated "believes" earlier in the verse. The translation of the KJV here "believeth not" is also possible, but does not bring out the idea of disobedience or rebelliousness that is in the Greek word.

35 "The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. 36 Whoever believes in the Son has everlasting life, and whoever refuses to believe the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

4 Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John 2 (though Jesus himself was not the one who baptized, but his disciples), 3 he left Judea and went back again to Galilee. 4 And he had to go through Samaria. 5 Then he came to a city of Samaria called Sychar,

The translation "refuses to believe" suggests this attitude of disobedience, of wilful, stubborn unbelief. Believing in Christ involves submitting to Him, refusing to believe is continuing in rebellion and disobedience. See notes at Rom 1:5; Acts 22:10; etc.

"Wrath" - to reject Christ, to be disobedient to Him, is to choose sin. And the anger of God will always remain on all sin and all sinners (Matt 3:7; Rom 1:18; Eph 5:6; 1 Thess 1:10; Rev 6:16,17; 19:15. See notes at Num 25:3; Deut 4:25; Ps 90:7-11). His anger comes because of His holy, righteous nature which hates all evil. Every person will have either eternal life, or else God's anger remaining on him. There is no middle ground.

4:1 "Pharisees" - Matt 3:7. Here John uses the word "Lord" for Jesus. In the New Testament Jesus is called Lord some hundreds of times, and many of these times the word means the one and only Lord of men, the great Lord of the universe (1 Cor 8:6; Rev 19:16). See the note at Luke 2:11.

4:2 In the Gospels, Pharisees are nearly always seen as hostile to the Lord Jesus, and they eventually plotted to kill Him (7:32; 11:57; 18:3). Jesus knew their hearts (2:24,25), and He knew that the time for His death for sinners in Jerusalem had not yet come. He had no fear of them, but to avoid useless confrontations with them He left Judea.

4:4 Samaria was the area between Judea and Galilee. It was inhabited by a people despised by most Jews (v 9. Note on Samaritans at 2 Kings 17:24; Matt 10:5). The route through Samaria was the shortest one between Judea and Galilee, but many Jews took the long route around the area to avoid contact with Samaritans. John says Jesus "had to go through Samaria." He had to go that way only if He were in a great hurry to reach Galilee, or if He had a work He must accomplish there. In the rest of the chapter we see He did have a work to do there, and a wonderful work it was! We see also He was not in a hurry (v 40). Another possible reason why He went through Samaria was to show that He did not share the Jewish prejudice against its people.

4:5 Gen 33:19; 48:22; Josh 24:32.

near the plot of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Therefore, tired from his journey, Jesus sat on the well. It was about noon.

7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink" 8 (for his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food).

9 Then the woman of Samaria said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, are asking a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

11 The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do you get that living water? 12 Are you greater than our father Jacob who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his children, and his livestock?"

13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, 14 but whoever drinks of the water that I give him will never thirst, but the water that I give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up to everlasting life."

15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I will not thirst, nor come here to draw."

16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband and come here."

17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You have rightly said, 'I have no husband,' 18 for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. In that you spoke the truth."

19 The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshipped on this mountain. And you say that the place where men ought to worship is Jerusalem."

21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain, nor at Jerusalem. 22 You

4:6 Jesus' tiredness here indicates His true human nature. As God He could not be tired (Isa 40:28). As a man a long journey on foot wearied Him as it would any man. On His two natures see 1:14; Heb 2:14-17. The sixth hour was noon.

4:7 Again the Lord's human nature is indicated. Thirst is an experience of men, not of God.

4:9 At first, to this woman, Jesus was simply a thirsty Jew. But as the story unfolds we see her developing understanding of who He is – someone who makes great promises (vs 10-15), then a prophet (v 19), and finally the Messiah (vs 25,26,29). Increasing understanding of who Christ is – this is a common experience of all believers (though, of course, not necessarily following the steps that woman took).

4:10 Christ's purpose was to win this woman for God's kingdom. See how He captured her interest.

"Living water" means the new life He brings. It includes the new birth (3:5), eternal life (3:16), and God's Spirit to live in the hearts of believers (7:37-39). Observe that it is a gift (Rev 22:17), and can be had by asking the Lord Jesus for it. In fact only He can give it. In the Old Testament also water is used as a symbol of spiritual life – Isa 55:1; Jer 2:13; 17:13.

4:11,12 Apparently, the woman completely misunderstood Jesus' words. This happened often then and happens often now. She took His words literally. The term "living water" in common usage meant "water that flowed," as in a river or brook. It seems she did not realize that Jesus was speaking of spiritual matters.

4:13,14 Jesus now tried to show her that He is speaking of spiritual things, not material water. There is no literal water which can take away thirst permanently or spring up to eternal life.

"Never thirst" – this does not mean that believers do not desire a fuller experience of God or no more long for truth or righteousness (see Ps 40:1,2; 119:131; Matt 5:6). It means that having experienced the new birth and life through God's Spirit they need not thirst for those things again. They will have in their inner being a fountain which can satisfy their deepest longings. The life Jesus gives is like flowing water, vigorously springing up in the believer's heart. It is abundant life (10:10). How does one drink this water? Coming in faith to Christ, receiving Him as Lord and Savior in our hearts is what this drinking means. See 7:37,38. See also Jer 2:13 and 17:13 where the Lord says that He Himself is the spring of living water.

4:15 Did the woman understand that Jesus was speaking of spiritual matters? If so, she did not reveal it. But perhaps a longing for spiritual life was rising in her heart.

4:16 This remark does not seem to have anything to do with the previous conversation. But we can be sure it does. Jesus now leads her to see He is no ordinary man, and He brings to her remembrance her sinful life, which she must be willing to forsake if she would receive "living water."

4:19 Note on prophet at Gen 20:7. She knew that sometimes God revealed to His prophets facts about others (see also Luke 7:39).

4:20 She did not want to speak about the several men in her life. So she changed the subject.

"You say" – she meant the Jews in general.

4:21-24 Her change of subject gave Jesus the opportunity to reveal to her some profound truth about worship: God may be do not know what you worship. We know what we worship. For salvation is of the Jews. 23 But the time is coming, and now is, when true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth, for the Father seeks such persons to worship him. 24 God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

25 The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming, who is called Christ. When he comes, he will tell us all things."

26 Jesus said to her, "I who am speaking to you am he."

27 And then his disciples came and were surprised that he was talking with the woman, but no one said, "What are you seeking?" or, "Why are you talking with her?"

28 The woman then left her waterpot, went her way into the city, and said to the men, 29 "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Is not this the Christ?" 30 Then they went out of the city and came to him.

31 In the meantime his disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32 But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about."

33 Therefore the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

34 Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to finish his work. 35 Do you not say, 'There are still four months before the harvest comes?' I say to you, Lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest. 36 And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. 37 And in this that saying is true, 'One sows, and worshiped anywhere (v 21), the place now has no significance (though once it did to some extent. See Deut 12:5; 2 Chron 6:6,7). God will be worshiped as the Father (vs 21,23; note at Matt 5:16). The Samaritans (and by implication other peoples and nations) did not really know what they worshiped (v 22). Compare Acts 17:23; Rom 1:21-23. They were not worshiping in accordance with the revelation God had given of Himself, as believing Jews were.

"Salvation is from the Jews" – the Jewish nation was the channel God chose to bring His revelation and His salvation to the world. The Lord Jesus was born a Jew. The worship God desires has no essential link with material objects, temples, so-called "holy" places, etc (vs 23,24; Acts 17:24,25).

True worship is in spirit. It must come from within the heart of those born again by God's spirit (3:5). No one else will know what the true worship of God is). God is Spirit and material things can never truly represent Him. Only in spirit can the One Eternal Spirit be really worshiped (this is one good reason He gave the command in Ex 20:4 and other places).

This worship must be in truth. It must be in accordance with the truth God has revealed about Himself and it must be sincere, and real, without hypocrisy. God seeks such worshippers. This is because God is love (1 John 4:8). He loves people and seeks their love. He desires their highest good and this can only come when they become true worshippers of the true God. God sees enough empty formal worship in the world and He desires something much better. Compare Ps 50:8-15; Isa 1:11-17.

4:25 "Messiah", "Christ" – Matt 1:1. The Samaritans (as the Jews) looked for the coming of the Messiah. It seems the woman is beginning to wonder if Jesus might be that Messiah. At least she is greatly impressed with His words (v 29).

4:26 Jesus plainly states that He is the expected Messiah. See also 1:49,50;

9:37; 10:24,25; Matt 26:63,64.

4:27 In those days usually a Jewish rabbi would not carry on a conversation with a woman or risk being seen alone with one. The Lord Jesus did not look down on women. He treated all human beings alike in their need, and did not worry about what others might say about Him. The disciples did not question Him. They were learning that He had good reasons for what He did.

4:29 Verse 25.

4:30 Her testimony stirred up great interest in the town. This is still a method God uses to bring people to Christ.

4:32,33 Jesus meant spiritual food, but they took His words literally. Literal-minded people will have difficulty with many things Jesus said (for example see 6:52-58).

4:34 Jesus found His highest satisfaction in doing God's work according to God's will (compare 5:30; 6:38; 8:29; 9:4; 14:31; 15:10; 17:4). There is more joy in obedience to God, heartily doing His work, and leading others to faith in Christ, than in feasting on all the good things of the world.

4:35 In Israel there was a period of about four months between the end of the sowing season and the beginning of harvest. Jesus is saying that they need not wait so long. At that time and in that place a "harvest" was there for the reaping. He was referring to the readiness of some of the Samaritans (and others) to believe in Him when they heard the truth. In our times too there is always a harvest ready somewhere, always people prepared by God to receive the Lord Jesus. God's servants should seek for them with zeal and confidence in God. The 2000 years from Christ's day to ours has been a time of continual spiritual harvest on earth.

4:36-38 The Lord here gives some general truths about God's service. The reapers (those who lead many people to Christ) will have wages (v 36). We are not told what they are, but since they begin immediately ("even now") they speak of the satisfaction and joy and deep bonds of love and another reaps.' 38 I sent you to reap what you did not work for. Other men laboured, and you have entered into their labours."

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, "He told me everything that I ever did." 40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days. 41 And many more believed because of his own word, 42 and said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your word, for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world."

43 Now after two days he left there, and went to Galilee. 44 For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honour in his own country. 45 Then when he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast. For they also went to the feast.

46 So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. And there fellowship which result from winning souls for Christ (see Phil 4:1). But their wages will appear in eternity as well (see Dan 12:3; 1 Thess 2:19,20; 1 Pet 5:4; Rev 22:12).

The "fruit" (people who come to faith in Christ by the efforts of the reapers) is not merely for this little time on earth but forever (v 36). If there is to be a harvest it is necessary that someone first sow the good seed of the Word of God. It may be the same person who reaps, but often it is someone else (vs 37,38; 1 Cor 3:5-9). The sower should not be jealous of the reaper but both rejoice together (v 36). In heaven they will both forever share Christ's joy in the harvest. In the light of all this let us be wise (Prov 11:30), and labor earnestly while we have opportunity (9:4).

4:39 See the results of one woman's testimony! Let us be always ready to speak for Christ and see what God will do. All of God's servants are to be witnesses (compare Acts 1:8)

4:42 While the Jews as a whole refused to believe that Christ was the Saviour (1:11), these Samaritans whom the Jews despised came into the knowledge of the truth. Note on "Saviour" at Luke 1:47. Jesus is the Saviour of all who trust in Him, no matter their race or country (1 Tim 2:3-6; Rom 1:16,17; Acts 4:12; Mark 16:15,16).

4:44 Matt 13:57; Mark 6:4; Luke 4:24.

4:45 They welcomed him because of the miracles He did, but they did not honor Him as the Messiah, the Son of God and Saviour of the world.

4:46 See 2:1-11.

4:47,48 Evidently this official thought of Jesus as a prophet, but did not believe in Him as the Son of God or as the Saviour of the world. The words of Jesus to him were a rebuke. Compare Matt 12:38,39; 16:4; was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went to him, and begged him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

48 Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you see miraculous signs and wonders, you will not believe."

49 The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

50 Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son is living." And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, "Your son is living." 52 Then he asked them the hour when he got better. And they said to him, "Yesterday at one in the afternoon the fever left him." 53 So the father knew that it was at the same time when Jesus said to him, "Your son is living." And he himself believed, and his whole household.

54 This is the second miraculous sign that Jesus did after he had come from Judea to Galilee.

1 Cor 1:22. True faith trusts Christ's character and words without needing signs and miracles to support it. Compare v 41.

4:49 The official did not defend himself, but simply appealed to Christ's compassion. Even when faith was weak such appeals never failed with the Lord Jesus during His ministry on earth. Can we think they will fail now?

4:50 The official learned from Christ's rebuke in v 48, and was willing to believe Him without any sign.

4:51,52 The word of Jesus was just as powerful as His presence. Compare Ps 107:20. The official at first thought Jesus had to go where the sick child was, but Jesus had no more difficulty healing at a distance than near at hand. Now He can heal from heaven as easily as if He were on earth in the flesh. If He does not always do so, it may be a lack of faith on the part of those who ask Him, or there may be wise purposes in each case which He does not choose to reveal.

4:53 "Believed" probably means he believed that Jesus was the Messiah. Observe the progress of this man's faith. When he came to Jesus he had some faith in His ability to heal, based on Jesus' miracles. His faith rose higher and he was able to believe the word of Jesus without a sign. Then his faith was confirmed and increased and influenced his whole family. Christ healed the physical fever in the boy, and the spiritual fever of a weak faith in the official.

4:54 "Sign" - notes at 2:11; Matt 8:1. Jesus was the incarnation of Jehovah God who heals diseases and preserves life (Ps 103:1-4; Luke 2:11), the creator of firm and living faith in the hearts of His people (Heb 12:2).

5 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, which in the Hebrew tongue is called Bethesda. It has five porticos. 3 In these lay a great multitude of infirm people, of blind, lame, and paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water. 4 For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool, and stirred the water. Then, after the stirring of the water, whoever first stepped in was healed of whatever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there who had an infirmity for thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had now been a long time in that condition, he said to him, "Do you want to be healed?"

7 The helpless man answered him, "Sir, when the water is stirred I have no one to put me in the pool. While I am moving, someone else steps down before me."

8 Jesus said to him, "Get up. Pick up your cot and walk."

5:1 "Feast" – Leviticus chapter 23.

5:2 "Bethesda" – probably means "house of mercy."

5:4 "For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred the water. Then, after the stirring of the water, whoever first stepped in was healed of whatever disease he had" – some manuscripts and some translations omit these words. However, it seems that these words are necessary to explain v 7, and the author of these notes does not think it is wise for translators to omit them. It is possible that by sending an angel to stir the water God reminded the people of Israel that healing came from heaven and that He was still the "Lord who heals" (Ex 15:26:26). For other instances of the Lord's use of water in healing see 9:7; 2 Kings 5:13,14.

5:5 Judging from v 7 the man had some form of paralysis or lameness.

5:6 The Lord Jesus often took the initiative when He was about to perform a miracle, but not always. Here it seems His purpose in asking this question was to awaken hope in this man. After 38 years and many disappointments his hope must have been dim.

In spiritual matters also Christ would ask us all the same question – "Do you really want to be healed from your sins? Do you have the desire to be saved?" It is those who hunger and thirst for God's salvation who will receive it. He causes us to desire what He wants to give us. See Matt 11:12 and note.

5:7 Here is the picture of the helplessness of many who are poor, sick, and friendless. It also shows the selfishness of human nature. Each person was concerned with getting into the pool before anyone else could get there. The Lord Jesus, the God of 9 And immediately the man was healed, picked up his cot and walked. And that same day was the Sabbath.

10 Therefore the Jews said to the one who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry a cot."

11 He answered them, "The same man who healed me said to me, 'Pick up your cot and walk.'"

12 Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Pick up your cot and walk?'"

13 And the healed man did not know who it was, for a crowd was in that place and Jesus had slipped away secretly. 14 Afterwards Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, "See, you are healed. Do not sin anymore, or a worse thing may come on you."

15 The man left and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. 16 And so the Jews persecuted Jesus and tried to kill him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath.

17 But Jesus responded to them, "My Father has been working until now, and I have been working."

the Bible, is a friend to the friendless, a helper to the helpless (Ps 10:14; 54:4; 72:12,13; 113:5-7; Isa 40:29; 41:17). Many of His miracles were acts of mercy toward the poor and needy.

5:8,9 Observe that the power to heal was in the word of Jesus. See Matt 8:8. A helpless man could not pick up his cot and walk. But when Jesus commanded him to do so He enabled him to do so. In the very act of obedience healing came. And obedience was attempted because of faith in Jesus' word. Compare Mark 3:5; Luke 17:14.

5:10 The Jews had many such rules. See Matt 12:2; 15:2.

5:13 The Lord Jesus had no desire for publicity or for arguments with those unbelieving Jews (4:3).

5:14 The Lord Jesus followed up the work He began. He does the same in the matter of salvation (see Phil 1:6). He cared about the man's spiritual condition and looked for him (compare Luke 19:10). In the words He spoke to him there is the suggestion that the man's disability was a result of his sin, and that there was danger he would continue in his sin. It was far more important for him (and for anyone) to be saved from his sins than to be healed of his infirmity.

5:15 This man behaved unwisely. Did he not know that telling this to the Jews could bring trouble to the Lord Jesus?

5:16 Jesus was not breaking the Sabbath, only their man-invented rules for the Sabbath. See notes at Matt 12:1-3. They did not care how many remained ill and helpless or continued in sin just as long as others kept their rules. Their character is often in Matthew chapter 23.

5:17 God the Father is never idle, even on the Sabbath. And Jesus the Son of God

18 Therefore the Jews tried even more to kill him, because not only had he broken the Sabbath, but also said that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 In response Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, the Son can do nothing by himself, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever he does, the Son also does the same things. 20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he does. And he will show him greater works than these, that you may be amazed.

21 "For just as the Father raises the dead and gives life to them, just so the Son gives life to whom he will. 22 For the Father judges no one, but has committed all judgment to the Son, 23 so that all men should honour the Son just as they honour the Father. He who does not honour the Son does not honour the Father who sent him.

24 "Truly, truly I say to you, he who hears my word and believes in him who sent me, has everlasting life and will not come into condemnation, but has passed from death to life.

25 "Truly, truly I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of

was the Lord of the Sabbath (Matt 12:8), and would not be bound by man's rules. He was saying God was His Father in a special sense that was not true of anyone else. Compare 10:30-33. They accused Him of blasphemy because they didn't believe He actually was the Son of God, and they knew that for ordinary men to claim to be God is the worst sort of blasphemy and worthy of death (see Matt 26:65).

5:19-47 In this long passage the Lord Jesus sets forth His claim to be the Son of God (vs 19,20), speaks of some of the things He can and will do (vs 21-30), gives some of the evidence for His claim, and reveals why these Jews did not believe Him (vs 38-47). We have here very profound, very important truth.

5:19 "Truly, truly I say" – see 1:51. Here Jesus teaches us that He is so united with the Father in nature and will and purpose that it is impossible that He should act independently. We can say, He can do nothing by Himself because He will not. It is unthinkable that he should. But He does all God the Father does. This means Jesus the Son also has all power, all wisdom, and the ability to be present and working everywhere at the same time. If He did not have this ability, He could not do all the Father does. And this shows that Jesus fully shares God's nature, that He is the incarnation of God (see references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11). Whatever is done in the universe the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit unitedly do it. Notes on Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; 28:19; 2 Cor 13:14.

5:20 See 3:35; 17:24. The mutual love of the Father and Son is seen often in the New Testament. It existed before the world was made and continues forever. The eyes of the Son are ever on the Father as He runs the universe and rules the world, and the Father hides nothing from Him. By "greater things" he meant greater than the miracles He had already performed.

5:21 This may refer to the raising of individuals from the dead such as Lazarus (11:43,44) and others (Mark 5:35-43; Luke 7:11-15). But it is equally true that He is the Giver of eternal, spiritual life, raising people from their death in sin (v 24).

5:22 The judgment of all men will be in the hands of the Lord Jesus, but this does not mean that the Father will not participate in it (Acts 17:31). In everything they work together.

5:23 See the Father's purpose in giving judgment into the hands of the Lord Jesus. Men must honor Jesus just as they would honor God the Father. Neither the Father nor the Son could ever desire this if the Son did not fully share the essence, the nature of God. Men should never give to any created being the honor that belongs to God alone. Observe what Jesus says here – if men are not honoring the Son of God they are not honoring God at all. Of course, they may say they are honoring Him and may even think they are.

5:24 This is one of the greatest promises ever made to men. And it is preceded by words of solemn assurance – "Truly, truly I say to you." See notes on eternal life at 3:16,36. Observe that eternal life is the present immediate possession of the believer. 3:36 says this life comes to those who believe in the "Son." Here it says that it comes to those who believe in the Father who sent Him. Again we see the unity of Father and Son – to believe the one is to believe the other.

"Will not be condemned" – God condemns men because of their sins. The sins of believers are all forgiven. Christ has borne their condemnation, so they will not be condemned. See 3:18; Rom 4:8; 8:1. This surely indicates permanent safety. But it does not mean believers shall not face judgment about the deeds they have done after becoming believers. See 2 Cor 5:10. However, that judgment is concerned only with the giving or withholding of rewards (1 Cor 3:10-15), and not with deciding whether any of them must go to hell.

"From death to life" – because of their sins all men are in a state of spiritual death (Gen 2:17; Eph 2:1-3). When people believe in Christ, God makes them spiritually alive (1:12,13; Eph 2:5). They immediately pass from death to life. Notice the past tense of the verb. In this one verse we see that receiving eternal life, justification and the new birth, are all through faith alone – through faith in the Father who sent the Son to be man's Redeemer and Saviour.

5:25 The "dead" here probably means the spiritually dead as in v 24. They hear Christ's the Son of God, and those who hear will live. 26 For just as the Father has life in himself, even so he has given to the Son to have life in himself, 27 and also has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of man.

28 "Do not be surprised at this, for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear his voice, 29 and will come out. Those who have done good will come out for the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, for the resurrection of condemnation.

voice speaking to their inmost souls. They hearken to that voice, believe and obey that voice (compare 10:3,4,16,27). Only such will live spiritually. Jesus used this title "Son of God" of Himself three times in John – here, in 10:36 and in 11:4.

5:26 "Life in Himself" means that God is self-existent. He calls Himself "I am" (note at Ex 3:14,15). He is the living one from all eternity who gives life to all created beings. Men are a different matter. Their life comes from a source outside themselves. Jesus is not a mere man, possessing only a human nature. He is God's Son who has life in Himself just as God the Father has. And Jesus is the source of life to others (v 21). This is another way of saying He shares the nature of God.

5:27 "Son of man" – Matt 8:20. Because Jesus humbled Himself and became a man and lived among men and thoroughly knows all men He is the best qualified to be the judge of men. And God has exalted Him to be this judge (compare Acts 17:31).

5:28,29 Here the Lord Jesus declares that God will raise all men from the dead. Notice the word "graves" in v 28. He is not here speaking of the giving of spiritual life as in v 24. Raised from the dead here means that the spirits of those who have died will be reunited with their dead bodies and those bodies will rise. See also Dan 12:2; Acts 24:15; 1 Cor 15:20-22; Rev 20:4-6,11-15.

Jesus says there will be two kinds of resurrection for two very different kinds of people. We might think He would say the two kinds of people are those who believe in Him and those who do not. This is certainly true, but because He put it in another way here we can learn an important truth. That is, doing good is a mark of the believer, doing evil is a mark of the unbeliever. Believers have been born again (1:13) and made entirely different from what they were before, and from unbelievers in general (2 Cor 5:18). The evidence that this is so is their doing good (Matt 7:17,18; 25:31-46; Rom 2:6-11; James 2:14-26).

Unbelievers may sometimes do what they consider good works. But their motives are wrong even in that, and they are constantly guilty of doing the evil of rejecting God's Son, disobeying God's Word, and living 30 "I can do nothing by myself. As I hear, I judge. And my judgment is just, because I do not seek my own will, but the will of the Father who has sent me.

31 "If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true. 32 There is another who testifies about me. And I know that the testimony which he gives about me is true.

33 "You sent to John, and he testified to the truth. 34 But I do not receive testimony from man. I say these things that you might be saved. 35 He according to their fallen sinful nature. They shall rise from the dead only to face condemnation and punishment. Believers will rise to enjoy eternal life.

Jesus does not say that the resurrection of both the good and evil will take place at the exact same time, only that the resurrection of both will certainly take place sometime in the future. Rev 20:4,5 indicates that there will be an interval between the two resurrections. 1 Thess 4:13-17 and 1 Cor 15:51-53 speak only of the resurrection of believers, probably because only that sort of resurrection takes place at the time Paul refers to there.

5:30 Observe in vs 19-30 that God the Father sent the Son, He shows the Son what He does (v 20), and He gives authority to the Son (vs 22,27). The three persons (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) in the Godhead share the same nature and are equally God, but there is an order in their activities. In authority the Father is greater than the Son (10:29; 14:28); the Son and the Father sent the Holy Spirit (14:26; 15:26; 16:7), possibly indicating that in the Godhead they are in a higher position than He. But in nature and essence and mind and love and purpose the Three are absolutely one God. If the question arises how can these things be? We can only answer that they are revealed to be so in the Bible, and so we believe them even though we cannot fully understand them.

5:31 In Jewish law a man's own testimony was not accepted in court. Others had to bear witness about him. Two or three witnesses were required either to condemn him or clear him (see 8:17; Deut 19:15). Jesus is saying that if there is no evidence for His claims except His own word the Jews should not believe Him. He then speaks of other witnesses for Him. He points this out for their sake, not for His (v 34). He well knew who and what He was.

There are four witnesses – John the Baptist (v 33), the works Jesus did (v 36; 8:18), God the Father (v 37), and the writings of the Old Testament (vs 39,46).

5:32 He probably meant God the Father (v 37), though some think He meant John the Baptist (v 33).

5:33 See 1:19-34.

5:35 "Light" – compare Matt 5:14-16. John did just that.

was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing for a time to rejoice in his light.

36 "But I have a greater testimony than John's. For the deeds which the Father has given me to finish, the very deeds that I am doing, testify about me that the Father has sent me.

37 "And the Father himself, who has sent me, has testified about me. You have not heard his voice at any time, or seen his form. 38 And you do not have his word dwelling in you. For you do not believe the one whom he has sent.

39 "You search the Scriptures, for by them you think you have eternal life. And these are they which testify about me, 40 and you are not willing to come to me that you might have life.

41 "I do not receive honour from men. 42 But I know you, that you do not have God's love in you.

43 "I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him.

44 "How can you believe, you who receive honour from one another, and do not seek the honour that comes from the only God?

45 "Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is someone who accuses you, the same Moses in whom you trust. 46 For if you had believed Moses, you would have believed me, for he wrote of me. 47 But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

6 After these things Jesus went over the lake of Galilee (which is the lake of Tiberias),

5:36 Men are known by what they do (Matt 7:15-20). The works Jesus did testified to who and what He was (see 2:11; 3:2; 10:25,37,38; Matt 8:1; 11:4-6).

5:37 See 8:18; 1 John 5:9. The Father bore witness to the Son through the prophecies of the Old Testament (see note in the Topical Concordance in the back of this Bible under the heading "Jesus Christ, O.T. prophecies concerning"). Also before Jesus' birth the Father bore witness through an angel (Matt 1:20-23; Luke 1:26-35), at His baptism and transfiguration by direct voice (Matt 3:17; 17:5), and all through His life by working with Him in His mighty works (14:10; Acts 10:38).

5:38 They had God's word (the Old Testament) and they diligently studied it (v 39), so it was in their minds. But it was not in their hearts. It did not live in them and make them alive (compare Ps 119:11).

5:39 "Scriptures" (or "Scripture") is a word often found in the New Testament (53 times). It means "writings" and usually signifies the books of the Old Testament (but see 2 Pet 3:16). The Old Testament is full of prophecies, pictures and types of the Lord Jesus. See v 46; Luke 24:27,45,46.

5:40 They thought they had eternal life but they did not, and they would not come in faith to the only one who could give them spiritual life (v 21; 3:36). So many people today are like them.

5:41 Unlike so many religious leaders (v 44), the honor and glory that men might give meant nothing to Him. He never tried to please men that they might praise Him. His whole aim is seen in 8:29. And He is our example in this as in all things.

5:42 Jesus knew what was in men - 2:24,25. And He knew that if they had loved God they would have loved Christ (8:42). Their hatred of Him revealed their hatred of God (15:24). Though, if asked, would they not have said they loved God? And actually they might have thought they did. Jer 17:9 is always true.

5:43 "In my Father's name" - this means that Jesus came on the authority of God the Father and fully represented Him. To come in one's own name means to come on one's own authority and to represent one's self (though such people may say they represent God or Christ). Many there are who do so. See Matt 24:24. The chief of all such will be the antichrist (2 Thess 2:3,4).

5:44 The character of those described here makes it impossible for them to believe in Christ. They themselves are the center of their existence, and their hope is that men will praise them, that they will be honored by fellow human beings in the field of religion or education or whatever their special interest is. God really does not have the slightest place in their hearts. See the opposite of this in Gal 1:10.

5:45 Jesus did not come to "accuse" or judge (3:17). Moses was their accuser. He meant that the God-inspired writings of Moses (the first five books of the Bible) condemned them. This was because they did not really believe what he wrote (though they may have thought they did) and did not practice the truth he recorded.

5:46 Compare 1:17; 7:19; Luke 24:27,45,46. Here is a very clear statement that Moses wrote down what we have in the books of Moses and that he wrote of Christ (v 39). See Ex 17:14; 24:4; 34:27; Num 33:2; Deut 31:9.

5:47 This is a question neither they nor anyone else could ever answer. Let us learn from the above verses that there is great and wonderful evidence for the claims of Christ to be God's Son. Indeed there is no evidence like it for anyone else in the whole history of mankind. Let us all go where the evidence leads, and trust the Lord Jesus as our Lord and Saviour. If we do not the great loss will be ours.

6:1-15 This is the only miracle the Lord Jesus did which is recorded in all four of the Gospels (not counting His resurrection from the dead). This indicates its great significance and importance. See notes at Matt 14:13-21. But John alone speaks of the nearness of the Passover (v 4), and calls this miracle a "sign" (v 14). Christ's words

2 And a great crowd followed him, because they saw the miraculous signs which he performed on the sick.

3 And Jesus went up to a mountain, and sat there with his disciples. 4 And the Passover, a Jewish feast, was near.

5 When Jesus raised his eyes and saw a great crowd coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where will we buy bread for them to eat?" 6 And this he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, "Two hundred silver coins' worth of bread would not be sufficient for each of them to have a little."

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 9 "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two small fishes. But what are they among so many?"

10 And Jesus said, "Have the men sit down." Now there was plenty of grass in the place, so the men, about five thousand in number, sat down.

11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them along with the fish to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down, as much as they wanted.

12 When they were full, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the pieces that are left, so that nothing is wasted."

13 Therefore they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.

14 Then the people, seeing the miraculous sign Jesus did, said, "Truly this is the prophet who should come into the world."

15 So Jesus, knowing that they would come and take him by force to make him king, again went into a mountain by himself.

16 And when evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, 17 and entered a boat and were crossing the lake toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. 18 And the lake was stirred up because of a great wind that blew. 19 So when they had rowed about five or six kilometers, they saw Jesus walking on the lake, and drawing near the boat, and they were afraid.

20 But he said to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid."

21 Then they willingly received him into the boat. And immediately the ship was at the land where they were going.

22 The day following, when the people who stood on the other side of the lake saw that there had been no other boat there, except the one his disciples had entered, and that Jesus did not go with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples had gone away alone 23 (however other boats now came from Tiberias near to the place where they ate, after the Lord had given thanks), 24 so when the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they also got into the boats and came to Capernaum, looking for Jesus. 25 And when they had found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"

26 Jesus answered them and said, "Truly, truly I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw the miraculous signs, but because you ate the later in the chapter show us the reason for this.

6:2 Matt 9:35.

6:4 "Passover" - Exodus chapter 12; Lev 23:4-8.

6:6 For us also the Lord always has in mind what to do, but He will test our faith, love, and obedience. Compare Gen 22:1; Ps 66:10-12; 1 Pet 1:6,7.

6:7 Mark 6:37. If Philip had an answer to the problem he didn't state it. Apparently he did not yet grasp the fact that nothing was impossible to the Lord Jesus.

"Two hundred silver coins' worth" - in Greek "200 denarii." One denarius was a laborer's daily wage.

6:11 "Thanks" - see Matt 14:19.

6:14 "Sign" - 2:11. What was this miracle a sign of? People thought it signified that the great prophet written of in Deut 18:15-18 was in their midst. This was true, for Jesus was that prophet, but the miracle signified the Lord Jesus as one come down from heaven (v 33), the bread of life (v 35), and the "Passover" for His people (vs 53-56).

6:15 They had no understanding of His purpose and mission, no faith in Him as the Son of God. They were thinking only of a worldly kingdom which would replace Roman rule in their land and bring peace and prosperity. Jesus would have none of that. He was not interested in establishing a political system, a worldly kingdom. His aim was far higher than that. He had come to die for the sins of the world, to bring forgiveness and spiritual life to fallen men.

6:16-21 This miracle is found also in Matthew and Mark. Notes at Matt 14:22-33.

6:21 This sign pointed to one who is not bound by the forces of nature but has absolute control over them. Compare Ps 107:23-30; Matt 8:23-27.

6:22 The crowd did not understand how Jesus had been able to cross the lake (v 25).

6:24 They did not search for Jesus because they knew who He was, or for spiritual reasons of any kind. See v 26.

6:25 "Rabbi" - 1:38.

6:26 The Lord Jesus knew their hearts (see 2:24,25) and was not happy about their motives for seeking Him. They had no spiritual understanding or concern, but were only anxious to get something for their physical needs. They are examples of so many today who try to be Christians for the wrong reasons.

loaves, and were filled. 27 Do not labour for the food which perishes, but for that food which lasts to everlasting life, which the Son of man will give to you, for on him God the Father has set his seal."

28 Then they said to him, "What shall we do, that we might perform the works of God?"

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

30 Therefore they said to him, "Then what miraculous sign will you show that we can see, and believe you? What deed will you perform? 31 Our fathers ate manna in the desert. As it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat."

32 Then Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, Moses did not give you that bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33 For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

34 Then they said to him, "Lord, always give us this bread."

35 And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never hunger, and he who believes in me will never thirst. 36 But I told you that you have seen me and do not believe.

37 "All that the Father gives me will come to me, and the one who comes to me I will not at all send away.

6:27 The Lord tells them what should be their most vital concern. It is not for the things of this brief life, but for eternity, not for the body but for the soul. See also Matt 6:31-33; 16:26; Isa 55:1,2.

"Everlasting life" - 3:16. Observe that the Son of man (note at Matt 8:20) gives this good "food", but that they should "labour" for it. This does not mean salvation is by works (Eph 2:8,9). It means that men should make every effort to seek from Christ what He gives and make every effort to see that they truly believe Christ and receive this gift (v 29). Compare Matt 11:12; Heb 4:11; 2 Pet 1:10.

6:28 It seems they misunderstood Christ's word about "labour." Lacking spiritual understanding they thought salvation and eternal life must be earned by good works. But see 4:10; Rom 6:23; Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:5.

6:29 The Lord corrects their false view. God requires that men trust in Christ for salvation (1:12; 3:15,16,36; 5:24). And trusting in Christ is very reasonable and right, for God sent Him into the world. Forty times in John's Gospel alone the Lord Jesus said God sent Him. How many times does He have to say something before men will believe Him?

6:30,31 Matt 16:1-4; 1 Cor 1:22. Jesus had already given signs which pointed to the truth about Himself, but these people had not believed Him. In v 31 they refer to the manna in the desert (Ex 16:11-18,35). It seems they were comparing what Jesus did with that. Jesus had fed the five thousand one meal. In Moses' time God fed a whole nation for 40 years. Jesus used ordinary bread. God in Moses' time sent manna from the sky. The Jews believed that when Messiah came He would again supply manna from heaven, but Jesus had not done that.

6:32 It was God who caused the manna to fall. And Moses could not give them a bread from heaven that would produce eternal life. Only God could do that, and He has done so by sending His own Son. The manna was only a picture of the spiritual bread God gives, which is the true bread for spiritual life.

6:33 Observe that the bread of God is a person, a person who came from heaven and gives spiritual life to mankind (v 35).

6:34 Compare 4:15. They had no spiritual understanding of what He was saying and did not believe Him (v 36).

6:35 Jesus makes it clear that He has not been speaking of some substance like manna which they can gather and eat. He has been speaking of Himself (vs 48,51). In this Gospel on a number of occasions Jesus used the words "I am" in connection with some truth or other about Himself or His ministry (6:35; 8:12; 10:7,9,11,14; 11:25; 14:6; 15:1,5). Also He used the words by themselves (8:24,58. See notes there). Here when He compares Himself to bread He signifies that He is to men's minds, hearts, and spirits what literal food is to the body.

6:36 Verse 64; 5:38; 8:45; 10:25.

6:37 Another very great promise. It shows that we partake of the bread of life by coming to the Lord Jesus. This is the one and only way to obtain spiritual life (3:36; 5:40; 14:6; Rev 22:17). Coming to Him does not mean traveling anywhere physically but means trusting in Him, coming in faith, and not coming in unbelief with wrong motives as they had done (vs 24,26). It means a movement of our hearts toward Him, a turning to Him in spirit.

Those who come He will never send away. The words are very emphatic. No matter who or what or where a person is, if he or she comes to Christ, Christ will receive Him. No one should worry about the first part of this verse and think Christ may not receive him if God has not chosen him. His very coming to Christ is proof that God has chosen him. It is true that God has given some individuals to Christ out of the masses of mankind (10:29; 17:6).

Before a person comes to Christ no one can know whether he or she is one of these. But all God's chosen will come in faith to Christ, and by coming will prove that God the Father has given them to Christ. See notes at Rom 1:6; 8:29,30. The sinner wanting salvation should not be concerned with God's secret purposes, but simply come to Christ (Matt 11:28). Whoever wants to 38 "For I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. 39 And this is the will of the Father who has sent me, that of all whom he has given me I should lose none, but should raise them up again at the last day. 40 And this is the will of him who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him, will have everlasting life. And I will raise him up at the last day."

41 Then the Jews grumbled about him because he said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven."

42 And they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? Then how is it that he says, 'I came down from heaven?'"

43 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Do not grumble among yourselves. 44 No man can come to Him may do so, the way is open to all (Rev 22:17).

"Send away" – this is one meaning of the Greek word which also means "cast out", "drive away", "turn away", etc. We may be absolutely certain that Christ will never do any of these to the person who comes to Him.

6:38 Note at 4:34. Five times in this chapter the Lord Jesus says He came down from heaven (vs 33, 38, 50, 51, 58). Let us believe Him. If we truly believe Him we will not stumble at anything He ever said. For other reasons why Jesus came to earth see note at Matt 5:17.

6:39 "The last day" here means the time of the resurrection of believers at the end of this age (note at 5:28,29). Jesus teaches that believers are a gift to Him from His Father and that He will take care of this gift and lose no part of it. In vs 40,44 Christ states definitely without qualifications that He will raise up all believers. This means He will complete the work of salvation He has begun and not fail in a single case. Here is absolute security and safety for believers. It is based on the power and love of the Son of God, and the will of the Father. Compare 10:28-30; Rom 5:9,10; 8:29,30; Phil 1:6; Heb 7:25.

6:40 "Sees the Son" – besides meaning seeing with one's eyes, the Greek word may suggest mental perception. Now we cannot see Jesus with our physical eyes as He was then, but we can have spiritual enlightenment that enables us to view Him with the eyes of our spirits. Compare Heb 11:27; Matt 11:27. Note on eternal life at 3:16.

6:41 Jesus gave them marvelous teaching, wonderful promises, such as had never been heard on earth before. And all they could do was grumble and object. Such is the sinful, unbelieving heart of man.

6:42 See also Matt 13:55; Mark 6:3. They were ignorant of the nature of Christ's birth (Matt 1:18-23; Luke 1:26-35). And they did not know, and did not want to know, how Jesus came from heaven.

6:43 Grumbling is not the way to arrive at come to me unless the Father who has sent me draws him. And I will raise him up at the last day. 45 It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by God.' Therefore, everyone who has heard and learned from the Father, comes to me. 46 Not that any man has seen the Father, except he who is from God, he has seen the Father.

47 "Truly, truly I say to you, he who believes in me has everlasting life. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and are dead. 50 This is the bread which comes down from heaven which a man may eat and not die. 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

52 Therefore the Jews argued among the truth. It only adds to men's sins.

6:44 See v 37. Sinful man without God's help is not able to understand Christ's words or believe in Christ or come to Christ. But unbelievers are still responsible, guilty, and condemned (3:18-20). He says four times that He will raise all believers on the last day (vs 39, 40, 54). He speaks emphatically to indicate the certainty of this fact.

6:45 Isa 54:13; Jer 31:34. See notes on God as teacher at Ps 25:4,5. Everyone who learns from God will come to Christ, everyone. It is in vain for a person to claim God is his teacher if he does not trust in Christ as his Saviour and Lord.

6:46 See 1:18. Observe again the distinction between these two persons in the Godhead – one has seen, the other has been seen.

6:47 A statement Jesus repeated several times (v 40; 3:15,16; 5:24). Believe Him and rejoice.

6:48 Verse 35.

6:49-51 The unbelieving Jews thought Moses was superior to Jesus (vs 30-32). Here Christ shows the opposite is true. The manna Israel ate did not give them spiritual life, or even keep them living physically very long (v 49). But Christ as the "bread" from heaven gives spiritual life which goes on forever. And the manna was only for one people, but what Christ gives is for the whole world (v 51).

In v 50 He says that if a person eats this bread from heaven he will not die. See also 11:26. But do not believers in Christ die physically? Yes, but they will never die spiritually. They have already passed from death to life (5:24). Even their physical death is usually not called death in the New Testament, but a "sleep." See Acts 7:60; 1 Cor 15:6; 1 Thess 4:13. See note on death at Gen 2:17.

6:51 The Lord Jesus meant that His body would be a sacrifice to take away the sins of the world (see 1:29; 3:15), and that through believing in Him men would obtain spiritual life.

6:52 As usual these unbelievers did not themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

53 Then Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. 56 He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood, lives in me, and I in him. 57 Just as the living Father has sent me, and I live because of the grasp what He was saying. They had no spiritual understanding and took His words literally. Compare 3:4; 4:15. Jesus often used figures of speech which must not be taken in a literal manner (v 35; 4:10; 8:12; 10:7; 15:1; etc). This is true in the verses which follow.

6:53-58 In this section Jesus speaks of His flesh and blood four times and says that men must eat His flesh and drink His blood; that they are "real" food; that He is "bread" and that people must "eat" Him. Obviously He did not mean for people to take His words literally. See verse 63. He was standing before them and it was not possible for them to eat Him without being guilty of murder and cannibalism – neither of which Jesus ever dreamed of teaching. We are not to think we should literally eat His flesh or drink His blood, just as we are not to think He was literal bread. He was using figures of speech to teach spiritual truth. He did not mean He must be literally eaten any more than He meant He was a literal door (10:7), or a literal vine (15:1). The Old Testament absolutely forbids literally partaking of blood (Gen 9:4; Lev 17:10-14; 19:26).

What spiritual truth was Jesus teaching? The same as in v 51 with an additional reference to His blood. By "blood" He meant His blood which was to be shed on the cross, His life given as a sacrifice for men's sins (see Matt 26:27,28; Rom 3:25). What does it mean to eat His flesh and drink His blood? It means to believe that His sacrifice really was for us and takes away our sins (Rom 3:25; Eph 1:7; Heb 9:12-14; 1 John 1:7); it means to receive His Spirit into our hearts by faith. It is a spiritual eating and drinking, and it brings us spiritual life.

Some people have taught that this whole passage refers to the Lord's Supper or Communion (Matt 26:26-29; 1 Cor 11:23-32). There are serious objections to this. These verses may give the spiritual meaning of Communion, but the New Testament nowhere teaches that men must take part in that ordinance in order to obtain spiritual life. If it did, what would be the fate of the thief who believed on the cross (Luke 20:40-43), or of other believers throughout history who may not have partaken of the Lord's Supper, or children who have not? And Jesus states very definitely in v 53 that those who do not "eat" His flesh and "drink" His blood have "no life in them." And how Father, even so he who eats me will live because of me. 58 This is the bread that came down from heaven; not as your fathers ate manna, and are dead. He who eats of this bread will live forever."

59 He said these things in the synagogue, while he was teaching in Capernaum. 60 Then many of his disciples, hearing this, said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can understand it?"

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, he said to them, "Does this offend you? 62 What, then, if you see the can we even dream that spiritual life comes by taking something into the mouth?

Very obviously Jesus is referring to spiritual realities. And we should understand that it is very possible to partake of the Lord's Supper and yet not spiritually by faith "eat" His flesh or "drink" His blood. And it is possible by faith to "eat" His flesh and "drink" His blood without partaking of the Lord's Supper.

6:53 By using the word "unless" Jesus shows He is speaking of something absolutely essential for salvation. See also 3:3; Matt 18:3; Luke 13:3. These are all things without which no person will have spiritual life, be saved, enter God's Kingdom, or go to heaven. Concerning this we have the most solemn words of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself.

6:56 The believer is in Christ (Rom 6:11; 8:1; 1 Cor 1:2; Eph 1:1-4); and Christ is in the believer (2 Cor 13:5; Col 1:27; 3:11; Rev 3:20). Each lives in the other – 17:20-23. Their lives are forever bound up together.

6:57 It is just as certain that believers are spiritually alive through Christ as it is that He is alive because of God the Father. The living Father, the living Son, and living believers are all linked together.

6:60 This was said by some of Christ's own disciples, not by His Jewish enemies. This does not refer to His twelve closest disciples, but to those who sometimes followed Him to hear His teaching. Some of those who said this did not really believe in Him (v 64), and by leaving Him showed they did not believe (v 66. Compare 1 John 2:19).

What Jesus taught in vs 53-58 is wonderful to those who have spiritual understanding and believe Him. But it is indeed a "hard teaching" to unbelievers. They certainly do not like to be told that the only way of salvation is Christ's sacrifice for them and that they must "eat" Him or be lost forever. When they said it was a "hard teaching" they meant hard for them to accept. For the true believer nothing Jesus ever said is hard to accept, though some of it may be hard to understand. Christ's teaching here separated His true disciples from the false (except for Judas Iscariot who was not separated until later).

6:61 Compare v 41.

6:62 Mark 16:19; Luke 24:51; Acts 1:9.

Son of man ascend where he was before? 63 It is the Spirit who gives life. The flesh is of no use. The words that I speak to you are spirit and they are life. 64 But some of you do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who did not believe, and who would betray him.

65 And he said, "Therefore I told you that no one can come to me unless it is given to him by my Father."

66 From that time many of his disciples went away and did not walk anymore with him.

67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, "Will you also go away?"

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. 69 And we believe and are sure that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

70 Jesus answered them, "Have I not chosen you twelve, and one of you is a demon?"

71 He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. For it was he, who was one of the twelve, who would betray him.

7 After these things Jesus went about in Galilee, for he did not want to go about in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. 2 Now the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was at hand.

3 So his brothers said to him, "Leave here and go to Judea, so your disciples can also see the deeds you are doing. 4 For no man does things secretly while he seeks to be known publicly. If you are doing these things, reveal yourself to the

The question seems to mean, if they were to see Christ's ascension into heaven would they then be more offended or would they believe Him? "Where he was before" means with God the Father in heaven (v 38; 1:1; 3:13).

6:63 "Spirit" – God's Spirit, the Spirit of Christ, the Holy Spirit. Only He can give spiritual life (3:5-8; 2 Cor 3:6). Here Christ indicates that a literal eating of His flesh could do no possible good. Spiritual life does not enter a person through the mouth. It is given directly to man's spirit.

"The flesh does not help at all" is a very general statement, and may also mean no flesh of anyone and no physical efforts by anyone can produce spiritual life. Nothing connected with human nature can do it (1:13).

"The words that I speak" refer to the words above, but they apply also to all the words of Christ. How can words be "spirit" and "life"? In the sense that God's Spirit uses them to give spiritual life. The Spirit enables people to understand Christ's words, believe them, and act on them, and so obtain life. Through Christ's words He awakens people to their need, causes them to hope in Christ's promises, and opens their hearts to receive His life.

6:64 See 2:24,25. Before Jesus chose Judas Iscariot as one of His disciples He knew that Judas would betray Him (vs 70,71). Then why choose him? To fulfill the Scriptures and the plan of God. See Matt 26:24.

6:65 The Lord Jesus had performed a great miracle and spoken marvelous words, but many continued in their unbelief. Now the Lord repeats the reason for this (v 44). Here is the reverse side of v 37. All that the Father has not given Him will not come to Him.

6:66 How quickly some men can move from the attitude of v 15 to this! They wanted a Jesus whom they could control, who would do what they planned, and give them what they thought best. They could not accept

His "hard teaching" (v 60), and Jesus had exposed their unbelief. So off they went to their own ways. We must follow Jesus for the right reason, or sooner or later we too will leave Him.

6:67 Jesus knew the twelve disciples would not leave. He wanted them to say what was in their minds. Doubtless this was a time of testing for them.

6:68 Peter was the spokesman for the group (Matt 16:15,16; 17:4; etc). Here he expressed what was in the minds of them all (except Judas). He gives the right reason for following Christ. They had believed Christ's words; they were convinced He was what He said He was; they could not leave Him. For the true believer there is never any place to go, anyone to go to, away from Christ.

6:69 "The Christ, the Son of the living God" – the disciples had come to a considerable understanding of who Jesus is.

6:70,71 Judas was not a literal demon, but he allowed Satan to influence his life so much that he behaved like one. See also 12:4-6; 13:2,26,27. The nature of Judas is described in Ps 109:2-19 (in Acts 1:20 Peter applies v 8 of this psalm to Judas).

7:1 Verse 32; 5:16,18; 8:37,40; 10:31. The Lord Jesus was not afraid to die. Indeed He came for that very purpose (3:15; 10:17,18; 12:27; 18:11; Matt 20:28). But His time for that had not yet come (v 30).

7:2 Notes at Lev 23:33-43. This feast took place annually in Jerusalem.

7:3 See 2:12.

7:3-5 They knew He could do miracles, but they did not yet believe He was the Son of God or the Messiah. So they vainly imagined they could give Him advice. The advice was that He should go to the center of Jewish life (Jerusalem in Judea) and openly try to assume the leadership of the Jews. At this time they completely misunderstood His purpose and work. Later on at least two of them, James and Jude (Judas – Matt 13:55) became His true followers (Acts 1:14; James 1:1; Jude 1).

world." 5 For not even his brothers believed in him.

6 Then Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but for you the time is always right. 7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its deeds are evil. 8 You go on up to the feast. I am not going just yet to this feast, for my time has not yet fully come."

9 After he said these words to them, he stayed in Galilee. 10 But after his brothers had gone, then he also went up to the feast, not openly, but secretly.

11 Then the Jews looked for him at the feast, and said, "Where is he?"

12 And there was much grumbling among the people concerning him, for some said, "He is a good man"; others said, "No, on the contrary, he deceives the people." 13 However no one spoke openly about him for fear of the Jews.

14 Now about halfway through the feast Jesus went up to the temple and taught. 15 And the Jews were astonished, saying, "How does this man understand the writings, never having studied?"

16 Jesus answering them, said, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. 17 If anyone chooses to do his will, he shall know whether the teaching is from God, or whether I speak on my own. 18 He who speaks on his own is seeking his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of the one who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. 19 Did not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you keep

7:6 This means that it was all right for them to go to the feast any time they wished, but it was better for Him to wait a while (v 8).

7:7 For the first time Jesus plainly stated that the world (unbelieving men in general) hates Him (see also 15:18,23,24), though He had implied it in 3:20. And He gives the reason for the hatred – men do not like to be told their actions are evil. They hate to be exposed for what they are. The world could not hate His brothers because at that time they still belonged to the world, and so could not stand against it.

The word "world" is used more than 70 times in John's Gospel, more than in any other book of the Bible. Christ revealed that the world is lost (3:16), in darkness (3:19), hates God (7:7; 15:18,23), is ruled by Satan (8:44; 12:31), is unable to receive God's Spirit (14:17), and is sinful and unbelieving (16:8-11). In two verses of his first letter John described the world (1 John 2:16; 5:19). See also notes at Rom 12:2; Jam 4:4; 1 John 2:16.

7:10 Jesus always knew just when to do something and how it should be done.

7:11 Christ's enemies expected Him to come and were puzzled at His absence.

7:12 Here are two totally differing opinions about Jesus. If He was good He would not deceive people; if He deceived people He was not good. If He was good and therefore did not deceive people then His teachings are true. His enemies said He was a deceiver (Matt 27:63). But they could not offer any evidence whatever for that statement. There is massive evidence to show He was good and no deceiver (compare 5:31-40).

7:13 Others (even Christ's disciples) sometimes showed this same fear (9:22; 12:42; 19:38; 20:19). Such fear is bondage. Compare Prov 29:25.

7:14 He openly began to teach when He knew it was the right time to do so.

7:15 Matt 7:28,29; Luke 2:47.

"The writings" or "letters" – Most likely they were referring to the Old Testament. They meant He had not studied under a rabbi in their schools. They considered Him

(the Son of God, the "Word", and Creator of the universe), an uneducated person! Compare Acts 4:13. See Col 2:3.

7:16 Jesus did not invent His teaching and it did not come from other men. It came from God the Father who sent Him. See also 12:49; 17:8. Since Jesus was honest we should believe Him about this and accept His teaching as the very words of God. Forty times in this Gospel Jesus insisted that He had come into the world from God the Father (3:16,17; 4:34; 5:24,37; 6:39,44,57; etc).

7:17 Here Jesus gives a way whereby any person can find out whether He spoke the truth of God. Sincere commitment to do the will of God, the Creator of the universe, is the only way to obtain true spiritual knowledge. And anyone, anywhere who does so will come to know that Jesus taught the very truth of God. People sometimes express doubts about the possibility of knowing the truth because there are so many different religions, sects, and teachings in the world. But in this verse Jesus gives us an infallible way to find the truth. Compare Matt 6:22.

The problem with men is not what they call intellectual difficulties, but with their will, their purposes. It is because they do not wish to do God's will that they remain in spiritual ignorance (3:19,20). Do we really want to do God's will no matter what it is, or where it leads us? If our answer is "no" we should not be surprised if the truth continues to elude us. If our answer is "yes" we will learn the truth and the truth will set us free.

7:18 Jesus is speaking about two different kinds of religious teachers. They who seek honor for themselves will not be concerned about the truth of their teaching. They will teach man-invented doctrines if that pleases people and causes people to honor them. But other teachers will seek the honor of the God of truth (Ps 31:5). Their whole concern is to teach God's truth whether people like it or not. The Lord Jesus knew that He was the second kind of teacher (8:49,50).

7:19 These Jews prided themselves that they the Law? Why do you seek to kill me?"

20 The people answered and said, "You have a demon. Who is seeking to kill you?"

21 Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one deed, and you are all amazed. 22 Therefore consider this: Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. 23 If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry at me because I have made a man completely well on the Sabbath? 24 Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."

25 Then some of the people of Jerusalem said, "Is not this the one whom they are seeking to kill? 26 But, look, he is speaking openly, and they say nothing to him. Do the rulers really know that he is the Christ? 27 However we know where this man is from. But when Christ comes, no man will know where he is from."

28 Then Jesus cried out in the temple as he was teaching and said, "You both know me, and you know where I am from. And I have not come on my own. But he who sent me is true. Him you do not know. 29 But I know him, for I am from him, and he sent me."

30 Then they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his time was not yet come. 31 And many of the people believed in him, and said, "When Christ comes, will he do more miraculous signs than the ones this man has done?"

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to seize him.

33 Then Jesus said to them, "I will be with you only a little while, and then I will go to him who sent me. 34 You will look for me, and will not find me, and you will not be able to come where I am."

35 Then the Jews said among themselves, "Where does he intend to go, that we will not find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? 36 What kind of statement is this he has spoken, 'You will look for me, and will not find me, and you will not be able to come where I am?'"

37 In the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If any man is kept the law of Moses, but not one of them actually did. They showed their utter failure to do so by plotting to kill the Lord Jesus. This was breaking one of the chief commands of the law (Ex 20:13). Jesus is saying that the reason they did not receive the truth He taught was that they were not willing to do God's will even in the most basic matters.

7:20 Here they were guilty of lying. They well knew they were trying to kill Him (v 32; 5:18). And they were guilty of the worst possible slander against the Son of God (see also 8:48; 10:20). See notes at Matt 12:24,31,32.

7:21-23 The Lord here refers to the miracle recorded in 5:1-9. These Jews complained bitterly against Jesus because He had healed a man on the Sabbath (5:10,16. See also Matt 12:9-14). Yet they themselves practiced circumcision on the Sabbath if it fell on the eighth day after the birth of a boy (see Gen 17:9-14; Lev 12:3). They thought it all right to wound on the Sabbath but not to heal.

7:24 They were quick to condemn because they were faulty in judgment.

7:25-27 These ordinary people were uncertain about the Lord Jesus. It seems His teaching had made a good impression on them and they wondered whether the Jewish leaders had abandoned their plan to kill Him and were about to accept Him as the Messiah of Israel. But they themselves could not accept this because they knew Jesus had come down to Jerusalem from Galilee and they thought that no one would know where the Messiah would come from. But in this they were mistaken (see Micah

5:2; Matt 2:1-6).

7:28,29 Jesus took this opportunity to tell them the truth about where He came from. They would have said Galilee or Nazareth. He insisted once more that He came from God. If they had known God they would have recognized this, but they did not.

7:30 Jesus came from heaven to die, to give Himself as a sacrifice for man's sins. Not only so, the very time that He should do so was fixed, and that time had not yet come.

7:31 "Signs" – 2:11. Some believed the evidence and so believed in the Lord Jesus.

7:32 "Pharisees" – Matt 3:7.

7:33 Verse 16.

7:34 In other words, their day of opportunity would come to an end. Compare Prov 1:24-28; Hos 5:6,15; Amos 8:11,12. He meant He would be in heaven and they could not go there.

7:35,36 As usual the unbelievers did not understand His words. They could think only of things related to this world.

"Dispersion. . .Greeks – not Gentiles, but Jews who had gone from their own land and settled among Greek-speaking people.

7:37,38 Compare 4:10,13,14. This wonderful promise is to all, and it was spoken loudly and emphatically. Here by comparing v 37 with v 38 we see that "drinking" is believing in Christ (apply this to 6:53-56). The Scripture mentioned in v 38 does not mean a single verse, but a truth implied by several verses – Isa 44:3; 55:1,2; 58:11. In Jer 2:13 and 17:13 the Lord says that He Himself is "the spring of living water." We see the streams of living water flowing from within the apostles and servants of Christ in the book of Acts. We thirsty, let him come to me and drink. 38 He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, out of his innermost being streams of living water will flow." 39 (But he spoke this about the Spirit, whom those who believe in him would receive; for the Holy Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.)

40 Therefore, many of the people, when they heard this statement, said, "Surely this is the Prophet." 41 Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Will Christ come from Galilee? 42 Has not the Scripture said that Christ will come from the seed of David, and from the town of Bethlehem, where David was?"

43 So there was a division among the people because of him. 44 And some of them wanted to seize him, but no one laid hands on him. 45 Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why haven't you brought him?"

46 The officers answered, "No one ever spoke like this man."

47 Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived? 48 Have any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in him? 49 But this people who do not know the Law are accursed."

50 Nicodemus (he who came to Jesus at night, being one of them) said to them, 51 "Does our Law judge any man before it hears him and knows what he is doing?"

52 They answered and said to him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and see, for no prophet arises out of Galilee."

53 And every man went to his own house.

8 Jesus went to the mount of Olives. 2 And early in the morning he returned to the temple. And all the people came to him, and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought to him a woman caught in adultery. And when they had made her stand in the center, 4 they said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now Moses in the Law commanded can read of these streams in the history of the Church. And we can experience them ourselves if we "drink" of Christ. See Luke 11:13; Acts 5:32; Eph 5:18.

7:39 Notes on the Holy Spirit at 14:16,17; etc. He is the flow of spiritual life from believing hearts. The Holy Spirit was active in Old Testament days and in the days of Christ on earth (Gen 1:2; Ex 31:3; Num 11:25; 24:2; Jud 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 1 Sam 16:13; 2 Sam 23:2). But the Father and the Son sent Him in full measure after the death, resurrection and ascension of Christ (14:16,17,26; Acts 1:4,5; 2:1-4). One name we might give to this era since Christ is "The era of the Holy Spirit."

"Glorified" – this verb is found 23 times in this Gospel – far more than in any other New Testament book. It always refers to the Lord Jesus, or God the Father. Jesus did not send the Holy Spirit until after His death and resurrection. There could be no Pentecost without Calvary. The life-giving streams of God's Spirit could flow only because of the cross.

7:40 Deut 18:15-18.

7:41 "Christ" – Matt 1:1.

7:42 They were correct (Micah 5:2), but they were ignorant of the fact that the Lord Jesus had been born there (Matt 2:1; Luke 2:4-7).

7:43 The Lord Jesus is still the cause of division among people everywhere. Those who trust Him will be divided from those who do not. Compare Matt 10:34-36.

7:45,46 Verse 32 records the sending of these guards. They were unable to obey the Pharisees' orders because they were overwhelmed by the power of Christ's teaching. Compare Matt 7:28,29.

7:47 Verse 12.

7:48 These hardened unbelievers actually thought that their unbelief was evidence that Jesus was a deceiver! That Jesus could not be speaking the truth because they had not put their stamp of approval on Him!

7:49 They thought that only people ignorant of the law of Moses could possibly believe in Jesus! Little did they know that the law and the whole Old Testament pointed to Jesus (5:39,46; 1:45; Luke 24:27,45,46), indeed that it was He who gave the law to Moses and caused the whole Old Testament to be inspired. They were the ignorant ones.

7:50 They thought no Pharisee or Jewish leader had believed in Jesus, but they were wrong in this also. Here was one – see 19:39-42 (also 12:42). The other Pharisees did not know this because Nicodemus had not been a bold witness.

7:51 The question was reasonable and in harmony with the law itself. Though he did not stand very boldly yet he did stand and was willing to stand alone. However, it only provoked the ignorant scorn of these arrogant unbelievers (v 52).

7:53 They saw they could do nothing at the time against Jesus and so dispersed.

8:1-11 The author of these notes believes these verses were a part of the original Greek manuscript, though some scholars dispute this.

8:3 "Pharisees" – Matt 3:7. We are not told how the woman was caught. It is possible they deliberately trapped her in order to lay a trap for Jesus (v 6).

8:4 They called Him "Teacher," but they would not accept anything He taught. Compare Luke 6:46.

8:5 The law does say this, but it says also that the man must be killed (Deut 22:22-24; Lev 20:10). It seems significant that they did not bring the guilty man. Could he have been one of their own? It is likely us to stone such women, but what do you say?"

6 They said this, testing him, that they might have some reason to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with his finger, as though he did not hear them.

7 So when they kept on asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her." 8 And again he stooped down and wrote on the ground.

9 And those who heard that, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one after the other, beginning with the oldest and on to the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the center. 10 When Jesus straightened up and they were sure that Jesus would try to save this woman from the law's judgment. If He did, they thought this would be setting Himself against the law of God.

8:6 This is not the only time they tried to trap Him. See Matt 22:15. It is useless to speculate about what Jesus wrote or why. No man knows. There is enough in the Bible that is clear and spiritually profitable. Let us emphasize those things.

8:7 This wonderful answer turned the situation completely around. Those on the attack against the woman and against Jesus were defeated, and had to leave the field of battle. They had dug a pit for Him but fell into it themselves. Compare Ps 7:14,15; 57:6; Prov 26:27.

8:9 Though many of the Pharisees were self-righteous and thought themselves better than others (Luke 18:9-12), not one of them could claim to be sinless. They knew the Old Testament (Gen 8:21; Ps 51:5; Jer 17:9), and though they had stifled their consciences many times, that inner voice was not completely dead and silent.

8:10 Those who had accused her had departed, and there was no one to bring evidence against her. So even according to the law it was proper to let her go free. See Deut 17:6,7; 19:15.

8:11 See 3:17. If Jesus had come to condemn sinners, then all - this woman, the Pharisees, the people in general, and His own disciples would have been condemned, for all were sinners (Rom 3:9,19,23; Matt 7:11). But Jesus came to seek and save the lost, not to condemn and punish them (Luke 19:10). Was Jesus then saying that sinning does not matter? Absolutely not. He knew that sin is an awful thing and that He had come to suffer and die as a sacrifice to take sin away (1:29; 3:14; 6:53-58; 10:11). See what He says to this woman - Leave your life of sin. See also 5:14; Matt 4:17; Luke 13:2,3. Does this sound as if sin does not matter? If the Lord Jesus forgives our sin it is not that we might go on sinning, but that we might stop sinning. See Matt 1:21; Ps 130:4; Rom 6:14; 1 John 2:1.

saw no one except the woman, he said to her, "Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?"

11 She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and sin no more."

12 Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

13 Then the Pharisees said to him, "You testify for yourself. Your testimony is not valid."

14 Jesus answered and said to them, "Though I testify for myself, my testimony is still valid, because I know where I have come from and where I am going. But you cannot tell where I have come

8:12 "I am" - v 24; 6:35.

"Light" - 1:4; 3:19,20; 12:35,36; Matt 4:16; Luke 1:79; 2 Cor 4:6; 1 John 1:5; 2:8. Jesus is the light God has given for the whole world. What the sun is to the physical earth that Jesus is to the world of men. His life, His deeds, and His words reveal the truth about God and men and salvation and what God does and what men should do. This light reveals the difference between the real and the unreal, the true and the false. It shows the way to heaven.

But this light will be effective only for those who follow Christ (the Greek word indicates continuous following). Following means trusting and obeying. If we shrink back from Him we will remain in darkness and ignorance about the most important things of life. The followers of Jesus are in the light now and will see many truths they could not see otherwise, and they know where they are going. Unbelievers are in the dark now (and so all they can do is deny the light and speculate about spiritual things), and, if they do not repent and turn to the light, will go into eternal darkness (Matt 8:12; 22:13; 2 Pet 2:17; Jude 13).

The phrase "light of life" may mean light which is life (or alive), or which gives life, or which comes from life, or which shines on life, or perhaps all of them. Here is a question of great importance: Do we really want the light that Christ gives, or are we content with our darkness?

8:13 Were they trying to use Jesus' own words against Him (5:31)? Notice that they had nothing to say about light. They were content with their darkness. In hostility and unbelief they were demanding that Jesus give proof that He was the light. Actually, in the nature of things, light does not need to give proof of its existence. All it needs to do is shine. Shining is itself proof of light. Darkness may deny that light exists, but that denial is not evidence there is no light but only that there is darkness.

8:14-18 In 5:31 Jesus said that if He gave witness concerning Himself apart from other witnesses, His witness alone would not be enough. No court of law would accept such from and where I am going. 15 You judge according to the flesh. I am judging no one. 16 And yet if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me judge together. 17 It is also written in your Law that the testimony of two men is valid. 18 I am one who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me gives testimony about me."

19 Then they said to him, "Where is your father?" Jesus answered, "You do not know me, or my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also."

20 Jesus spoke these words near the treasury, as he was teaching in the temple. And no one laid a hand on him, for his time had not yet come.

21 Then Jesus said to them again, "I am going my way, and you will look for me and will die in your sins. You cannot come where I am going."

22 Then the Jews said, "Will he kill himself? For he says, 'You cannot come where I am going.'"

23 And he said to them, "You are from below; I witness. Here He says His witness is true because of two things – He knows where He came from and where He is going, and God the Father is a witness on His behalf. See also 5:36,37.

8:15,16 See 7:24; 3:17.

8:17 Deut 19:15. The testimony of two men was accepted under the law. Should we not accept the testimony of God the Father and His Son?

8:19 Compare 10:30 and 14:9. The Son of God and God the Father were so united in nature, essence, character, mind, and purpose that to know the one was to know the other. See also 1:18; Heb 1:3. See other references on Christ's deity at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11. These Pharisees did not know Christ. Though they saw and heard Him their prejudice and unbelief made it impossible for them to understand who He really is.

8:20 See 7:30.

8:21 See 7:33,34. Here Jesus adds the fearful words "You will die in your sin." This is fearful because to die in sin is to be lost forever. The Bible does not teach that there will be opportunities to be saved after death. And men are not born on earth again and again. See Heb 9:27. Individuals live but once on earth and die but once. See notes at 9:3; Job 11:12; Luke 16:19-31; Heb 9:27.

8:22 See 7:35,36. Could they really imagine that Jesus would commit suicide? This question reveals how ignorant they were of Him and His Father (v 19).

8:23 Here the Lord Jesus gives the difference between Himself and everyone else. We are of the earth; He is from heaven (3:13; 6:33,38,50,51). See also 1 Cor 15:45-47.

8:24 Here Jesus plainly says that the only way to avoid dying in one's sins and being lost is to believe Him. Compare 3:36.

"I am" – the word "he" is not in Greek, am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. 24 Therefore I told you that you will die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."

25 Then they said to him, "Who are you?" And Jesus said to them, "Just who I have been telling you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to say, and to judge concerning you. But he who sent me is faithful, and I speak to the world those things which I have heard from him."

27 They did not understand that he was speaking to them about the Father.

28 Then Jesus said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of man, then you will know that I am He, and that I do nothing on my own, but I speak these things just as my Father has taught me. 29 And he who sent me is with me. The Father has not left me alone, for I always do those things that please him."

30 As he spoke these words, many believed in him.

but is added to make a proper English sentence. The Greek has simply "I am." "I am" is the way God spoke in the Old Testament – Ex 3:14; Isa 43:10, and it seems clear that here Jesus is saying He is God, revealed as Jehovah in the Old Testament. It is even clearer in v 58. And He says that if men will not believe this they will die in their sins. For other references that show Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah see the note at Luke 2:11.

8:25 The Lord Jesus had repeatedly said that God was His Father (2:16; 3:16,18; 5:19-23,26; 6:40). And they understood this to mean that He was claiming to be God – naturally enough, since a son shares the same nature as his father.

8:26 He did not come to judge the world, that is, pass final judgment on it, condemn it to punishment (3:17). But He saw what the conduct of others was like and had the authority to speak the truth about them.

8:27 Again we see the blindness of unbelief.

8:28 "Son of man" – Matt 8:20.

"Lifted up" – He was referring to the cross (3:14), but the words can also mean "exalted", and may include the idea of His resurrection and ascension. Only after these events did many of the Jews and even some of the Jewish leaders come to know who He was and followed Him (Acts 2:41; 4:4; 6:7; 21:20). Many others no doubt knew they should follow Him but would not. Of course the unbelieving Jewish nation did not willingly and knowingly exalt Him, but exaltation was a result of what they did to Him.

"Taught me" – 7:16; 12:49,50. All that Jesus taught came directly from God the Father.

8:29 The chief purpose of His whole life was to please God the Father, and He perfectly fulfilled it (note at 4:34).

8:30 From the verses which follow we can

31 Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed in him, "If you continue in my word, then you are my disciples indeed, 32 and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

33 They answered him, "We are Abraham's descendants, and were never in bondage to anyone. How can you say, 'You will become free?'"

34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly I say to you, whoever sins is a slave of sin. 35 And the slave does not remain in the house forever, but the Son remains forever. 36 So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. 37 I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but you are seeking to kill me, because my word has no place in you. 38 I speak what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have seen with your father."

39 They answered and said to him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the deeds of Abraham. 40 But now you are seeking to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I have heard from God. Abraham did not do this. 41 You are doing the deeds of your father."

Then they said to him, "We were not born of fornication. We have one Father, God Himself."

42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your see that their faith was very shallow. See also 2:23-25; 12:42,43. They believed certain facts about Jesus but this belief did not reach their hearts and change their lives.

8:31 Disciples are those who choose the Lord Jesus as their teacher, who learn from Him in order to obey, who follow where He leads. Here He says only those who continue to do this are true disciples. The proof of discipleship is in perseverance. Some appear to begin well, but soon leave Christ's teachings and go their own way. See John 6:66. Such were never true disciples, not "disciples indeed." Compare 1 John 2:19.

8:32 Christ came to set men free (Luke 4:18). What is this freedom? Not political freedom, not freedom from physical slavery, but freedom from the bondage of sin (v 34). Along with that He gives freedom from guilt and punishment (Rom 6:18,22; Titus 2:14; Heb 9:15,26), from the condemnation of God's holy law (Rom 8:1,2; Gal 3:13; 5:1), from fear of death (Heb 2:14,15; Ps 49:15; 1 Cor 15:56,57), from the chains of the world and its empty way of living (Gal 1:4; 1 Pet 1:17,18), from the bonds of possessions (Phil 4:11-13; 1 Tim 6:6-8; Heb 13:5), from any tie that would prevent us from fully following Christ and serving God (Luke 14:26-33). It is spiritual freedom He gives. And it is a "glorious liberty" (Rom 8:21) which is possible only in the way of Christ.

How does Christ give this freedom? Through the knowledge of the truth. A true disciple comes to know Christ who is the Truth (1:17; 14:6), and the truth about Christ - who He is and why He came to earth and what He accomplished here. He will also learn the truth about himself and about salvation and the meaning of other great teachings Christ has given. This knowledge of the truth is the only way to liberation.

Men are held in bondage by the lies of Satan and other men (especially lies in the area of religion), by sin, by unbelief and by ignorance of the truth of Christ. Note at 15:21; etc. The truth that sets men free is Christ's truth alone.

8:33 See Matt 3:9. This was pride of race. Because Abraham, the forefather of the Jewish nation, was great they vainly imagined this made them great. But vs 39,40 shows that spiritually they were not Abraham's descendants. Family pride or racial pride will get us nowhere with God.

"Free" - as usual they misunderstood the Lord Jesus. They thought He was speaking of freedom from physical slavery.

8:34 Jesus now speaks so plainly no one can fail to understand. How many there are who think that by casting off the restraints of God's Word and going their own way that they are obtaining freedom! But by trying to be free to do as they please, to enjoy their pleasures to their hearts' content, they are making their own chains and becoming enslaved to a very cruel master indeed - sin.

8:35 This is true of any family, including God's family. Those who are still slaves of sin have no real part in God's family, as a son has.

8:36 Slaves cannot liberate themselves. If they could they would not be slaves. Slaves need someone apart from themselves, someone who is not a slave, to set them free. This Christ did and continues to do (Matt 1:21; Acts 26:17,18; Rom 6:16-18,22; 8:2,21; Gal 5:1).

8:37 By descendants He meant physical descendants. Jesus knew all about their plots to kill Him - 5:18.

8:38 Christ was always in God's presence - v 28; 1:1; 5:19,20.

"Your father" - Satan (vs 41,44).

8:39,40 They insisted that Abraham was their "father", and probably meant that this was true in a spiritual sense as well as physical. Jesus says their behavior shows this could not be true. The Bible (in Genesis chapters 12-24) reveals what Abraham was like, and these Jews were certainly not like him.

8:41 It is not clear why these Jews said this. Perhaps they meant only that they were direct descendants of Abraham both physically and spiritually and were worshippers of the true God (in the Old Testament the worship of other gods is said to be like fornication and adultery). Notes at Jer 2:1; Ezek 16:31-34; 23:2,3; Hos 1:2. They knew that God was the Father of the nation of Israel (Isa 64:8; Mal 2:10). Here they claim the same for themselves as individuals. But saying it is so does not make it so.

8:42 Many say and like to think they are

Father, you would love me, for I set out and came from God. I did not come on my own, but he sent me. 43 Why do you not understand my speech? Because you cannot hear my word. 44 You are of your father the devil, and you want to fulfill the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not remain in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he tells a lie, he speaks from his own nature, for he is a liar, and the father of lies. 45 And because I tell you the truth, you do not believe me.

46 "Which of you convicts me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? 47 He who belongs to God hears God's words. So you do not hear them, because you do not belong to God."

48 Then the Jews answered and said to him, "Do we not rightly say that you are a Samaritan

God's children. But do they love the Lord Jesus? If they do not they are not the children of God, whatever they may think. And what is it to love the Lord Jesus? See 14:15,23,24. It is impossible to love God and not love the Lord Jesus whom God sent into the world.

8:43 Why were they unable to hear? Because spiritually speaking they were deaf, blind, and dead. They loved darkness (3:19), and God's judgment was on them (Matt 13:11-15).

8:44 Verses 38,41. Physically they were the children of Abraham, but in spiritual matters the children of Satan (Matt 13:38. Notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-11; 2 Cor 11:14). Satan was at work in them (Eph 2:2). They obeyed Satan, in many ways were like him, and belonged to him. They revealed this by their behavior toward the Lord Jesus. Let us learn from this that men may have a wonderful ancestry, be very religious (as these men were), say they are the children of God, and yet be sons of Satan. Such is the deceitfulness of the human heart and its desperate wickedness (Jer 17:9). Jesus here reveals two things about Satan - he is a murderer and an utter liar.

"A murderer from the beginning" may refer to the way he tried to destroy Adam and Eve (Gen 2:17; 3:1-4), or to the murder of Abel, which Satan doubtless inspired Cain to commit (Gen 4:8). It is not exaggeration to say Satan is the murderer of the human race. Because of the sin he tempted Adam and Eve to commit death came to them and to all their descendants (Rom 5:12).

Satan is also a liar, and he leads the whole world astray with his lies (Rev 12:9). He lies about God, about Christ, about men, about salvation, about religion, about anything that he thinks will enable him to trap and ruin men. He works especially in the field of religion. The sad fact is that far more people believe Satan's lies than the

and have a demon?"

49 Jesus answered, "I have no demon, but I honour my Father, and you dishonour me. 50 And I do not seek my own glory. There is one who seeks it, and judges. 51 Truly, truly I say to you, if a man keeps my word, he will never see death."

52 Then the Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham is dead, and the prophets also, and you say, If a man keeps my word, he will never taste death. 53 Are you greater than our father Abraham who is dead? And the prophets are dead. What are you making yourself out to be?"

54 Jesus answered, "If I honour myself, my honour is nothing. It is my Father who honours me, concerning whom you say that he is your God. 55 And you have not known him. But I know him, truth Christ taught. And many worship Satan either knowingly or unknowingly (Matt 4:8,9; Lev 17:7; Deut 32:17; Ps 106:37; 1 Cor 10:20; Rev 9:20).

"Father of lies" - all liars are taking Satan's side and are opposing the God of truth (Ps 31:5). And they will pay the penalty for this deadly sin - Rev 21:8.

8:45 Notice the word "because." If Jesus had told them lies they would have believed Him! But they had already believed Satan's lies and hated the truth and would not, could not, believe it. See 5:44 also.

8:46 Neither they nor anyone else was ever able to prove that Jesus sinned (Matt 27:23; Luke 23:4; 2 Cor 5:21; Heb 4:15; 7:26; 1 Pet 2:22-24). In the next verse He gives the reason why they did not believe Him.

8:48 Defeated in argument they rage and use slander. This is a usual way with the ungodly. Four times they said Jesus was demon possessed (7:20; 8:48,52; 10:20). See also Matt 12:24. They called Him a Samaritan because they despised the Samaritans (4:9) and considered them heretics. They thought it was a big insult to call a person a Samaritan.

8:49 Jesus, though He was a Jew, evidently did not consider being called a Samaritan an insult and didn't bother to deny it. He did not look down on any people.

8:50 He was not concerned that men give Him the honors He deserved. His whole aim was to glorify God the Father (5:41; 7:18; 12:28; 17:4).

8:51 Note at 6:49-51. He was not speaking of what men call physical death. He did not want to close the discussion without another great promise for anyone willing to receive it. It is similar to 5:24; 6:50; 11:25,26. To keep His word means to receive it, trust it, obey it.

8:52,53 As usual they misunderstood Him. 8:54 Verse 50; 17:5; Acts 3:13; Phil 2:9-11.

8:55 Verse 19; 15:21; 16:3. This was their whole problem. Because of this lack and if I should say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you. But I know him and keep his word. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. And he saw it, and was glad."

57 Then the Jews said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?"

58 Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, before Abraham was, I am."

59 Then they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and left the temple, passing of knowledge they were arguing in the dark. 8:56 He shows again how different they were from their great ancestor. Abraham rejoiced at Christ's day; they tried to kill Christ. Abraham looked forward with joy to the coming of the Messiah. It is possible that God gave him a special vision of that coming day. If so, it is not recorded in the Bible.

8:57 Actually, Jesus was only about 33. They meant that Jesus had not even reached a full age. Abraham lived about 2000 years before this event.

8:58 The words "truly, truly" mean that Jesus was about to make another very solemn and important statement.

"I am" - notes at v 24; Ex 3:14. The Lord Jesus is declaring the same truth that begins this Gospel (1:1), that He is God, Jehovah God. See also Luke 2:11; Phil 2:6,10,11.

8:59 See 5:18. They thought Jesus was guilty of blasphemy and making false claims. See Matt 26:63-66. Actually He merely spoke the truth, but they in their darkness refused to believe it. Jesus left them, not because He was afraid, but because He knew His time had not yet come (7:30).

9:1 In the four Gospels Jesus healed blindness more than any other malady (Matt 9:27-31; 12:22; 15:30; 21:14; Mark 8:22-26; 10:46-52; Luke 7:21). In the Old Testament we see that it is God who makes men blind or gives them sight (Ex 4:11; Ps 146:8). We see there also that healing of the blind would be associated with the coming of the Messiah (Isa 29:18; 35:5; 42:7). One of John's purposes in writing this Gospel was to show that Jesus is the Christ (the Messiah), the Son of God (20:31). This chapter contributes to this purpose.

The miracle recorded here is also a "sign" (v 16; 2:11). The spiritual truths it signifies are these: men are born into the world spiritually blind. By nature they cannot "see" the truth about themselves or about God or about salvation. And it is the Lord Jesus who gives spiritual sight to people (v 39). This is the true enlightenment every person needs. See v 39; 8:12; Ps 36:9; Acts 26:15-18; 2 Cor 4:4,6; Eph 1:17,18; 5:14; 1 Pet 2:9.

9:2 Among the Jews it was a common idea that a person's own sins were the cause of any sickness or disability that might come to him. This attitude appears also among through among them, and so went out.

9 And as Jesus was passing by, he saw a man who had been blind from birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, "Teacher, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3 Jesus answered, "Not because either this man or his parents sinned, but that the work of God might be revealed in him. 4 While it is day, I

Job's friends (notes at Job 4:7-9; 8:3; 18:5-21). The disciples were trying to understand if this applied to a person born with some defect. Was the man's blindness a punishment that came because of his parents' sin? or did the man somehow sin himself before he was born? The Jewish rabbis of the time speculated about the possibility of an unborn baby sinning while still in its mother's womb.

Also there may have been speculation in those days about the idea of reincarnation - that every person experiences multiple births and that his sins (or righteous acts) in a previous life affect his condition in this present life. There is no reason to think the disciples believed either of these speculations (compare Job 11:12; Heb 9:27). But they were curious as to why this man was born blind. Observe that they were not suggesting some way to help him. They were not showing compassion. He was to them just an object for theological discussion.

9:3 The Lord Jesus denied the speculations of the disciples. He is not denying that the parents or the son were sinners as all men are sinners (Rom 3:23). He is saying that the cause of the man's blindness was not connected with their sins.

The teachings of the Lord Jesus are contrary to the doctrine of reincarnation. If He had believed that doctrine, or thought it had any significance at all in explaining man's life on earth, this was the perfect opportunity to say so. Instead, He denied the very basis of the doctrine - that a person's own sins in any supposed previous life affect what he will be in this life. What the Lord taught in Luke 16:19-31 also is opposed to this doctrine. See also the note at John 3:3.

Jesus says that the man was born blind for a much higher purpose that the disciples imagined. A mighty work of God was about to take place in the man, and glory and honor would come to God through it. God may have the same purpose in any sickness, disability or defect that brings suffering to us. It may be that a similar work of God will be revealed in us. Or a different work which will also glorify Him - a work in the heart that will make us humbly, faithfully, joyously endure any kind of suffering for Him (16:33; Acts 5:41; Rom 5:3; 2 Cor 4:16-18; 12:9,10; Col 1:24; 1 Pet 4:13).

9:4,5 See 8:12. While Christ was on earth must do the works of him who sent me. The night is coming, when no one can work. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

6 When he had said this, he spit on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, 7 and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which, being translated, means Sent). So he went away, washed, and came seeing.

8 Therefore the neighbours and those who previously had seen that he was blind, said, "Is not this the one who sat and begged?"

9 Some said, "This is he"; others said, "He is like him". But he said, "I am the man."

10 Therefore they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered and said, "A man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.' And I went and washed, and I got my sight."

12 Then they said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I don't know."

13 They brought the one who had previously been blind to the Pharisees. 14 And it was the Sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.

15 Then once more the Pharisees asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and can see."

16 Therefore some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he does not keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such miraculous signs?" And there was a division among them.

17 They said to the blind man again, "What do you say about the one who opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight. 19 And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son who you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?"

20 His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind. 21 But we do not know by what means he now sees, and we do not know who opened his eyes. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself."

22 His parents spoke these words because they feared the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed that if any man confessed that he was Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

24 Then once more they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give God the praise. We know that this man is a sinner."

25 He answered and said, "I do not know whether he is a sinner or not. One thing I know: I was blind, now I see."

His presence made the darkness like day (Matt 4:16; Luke 1:78,79). But He had only a short time to finish His work. The night was coming (Luke 22:53). It would remain until He comes the second time (compare Rom 13:12; 2 Pet 1:19).

9:6,7 Sometimes Jesus healed at a distance (4:50), sometimes by a touch (Matt 8:3,15). Here He did something different and used a substance (see note at Mark 8:23). He will do what He will do, and we cannot predict how He will work or tell Him He must work in one way or another.

9:13 "Pharisees" – Matt 3:7.

9:16 "Sabbath" – Matt 12:9-14. These Pharisees did not let themselves marvel at the power and compassion of the Lord Jesus. They only wanted to find fault with Him. Their view was this: Jesus had broken one of their rules for the Sabbath so He must be a wicked man! A few of them could not agree with that view. They knew that the power of God had been displayed in this healing.

9:17 He believed that Jesus was sent by God and represented God. Later he came to understand that Jesus was much more than a prophet (vs 35-38).

9:18 The enemies of Jesus did not want to believe this miracle took place and so they tried to ignore all the great evidence for it. Very often what people believe has nothing to do with facts and evidence, but comes out of their desires and prejudices.

9:20-23 They knew it was Jesus who had given sight to their son but they were not bold and honest like him. Fear of others keeps people from standing for the truth (12:42,43). Verse 22 reveals how those who reject the Lord Jesus may persecute believers when they have power to do so. They often use unjust pressure, fear, and threats to turn people from the truth (Acts 4:18,21; 5:17,18,40; 7:57,58; 8:3; etc). Don't we see this happening very often in this country?

"Synagogue" – Matt 4:23. Being put out of the synagogue meant to become a social and religious outcast.

"Christ" – Matt 1:1.

9:24 These Pharisees were determined to discredit the Lord Jesus. Their words "Give glory to God" does not mean that they were concerned for God's glory. They were either charging this man to tell what they thought was the truth, or else saying "do not give any honor to Jesus." They told this poor man the horrible lie that Jesus was a sinner. However they had no evidence for this at all (8:46). But haters of the truth and malicious men act as if they think evidence is unnecessary.

9:25 He had definite opinions about whether Jesus was a sinner (vs 30-33), but before speaking of that he wanted to establish one fact once and forever: he had been blind

26 Then they said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?"

28 Then they insulted him, and said, "You are his disciple, but we are the disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God spoke to Moses. As for this fellow, we don't know where he is from."

30 The man answered and said to them, "Why here is a marvellous thing! You don't know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes. 31 Now we know that God does not hear sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God and does his will, he hears him. 32 Since the world began it has not been heard that any man opened the eyes of one who was born blind. 33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

and Jesus had given him sight. This was a fact he could not doubt. The same is true when men receive spiritual sight from the Lord Jesus. They know it has happened. Millions of believers in Christ through the centuries and throughout the world can say "I was spiritually blind and the Lord Jesus gave me sight."

9:26 They were baffled and frustrated but would not give up.

9:27 His question is pure sarcasm.

9:28 They display the usual method of proud men whose reasoning is opposed and defeated (7:48). But insults and abuse do not answer a single good argument or do away with a scrap of evidence. They meant they were followers of the law Moses wrote down, but actually they were not. See 5:45-47; Matt 23:1-3. They proudly proclaimed themselves as Moses' disciples and yet were plotting to kill the One about whom Moses wrote (1:45; 5:46; Luke 24:27,44). This is another illustration of Jer 17:9.

9:29 They could have known where Christ was from, but refused to believe Him when He told them (6:41,42; 8:23-25).

9:30 This answer of a poor illiterate man has more wisdom in it than that displayed by all these very religious and highly educated Pharisees put together. Often the sound sense of simple men of faith puts to shame the reasoning of so-called experts. The reason for this may be seen in Matt 11:25,26; Ps 8:2; 119:99; Isa 54:13; Jer 31:34; 1 Cor 2:12; 1 John 2:20,27.

9:31 The Pharisees knew the teaching of the Old Testament on this. See Ps 66:18; Prov 15:29; Isa 1:15. But in this case they were not willing to go where this truth led.

9:32 There is no case recorded in the whole Old Testament.

9:33 They wanted to talk theology. So he gave them his well-reasoned theological conclusion.

9:34 These men of much learning were not able to overturn this simple man's 34 They answered and said to him, "You were utterly born in sins, and do you teach us?" And they drove him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

36 He answered and said, "Who is he, Lord, that I might believe in him?"

37 And Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him and it is he who is talking with you."

38 And he said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshipped him.

39 And Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world, that those who do not see might see, and that those who see might be made blind."

40 And some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these words and said to him, "Are we also blind?"

41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you conclusion. So again they abuse him (v 28). 9:35 Note at 5:14. He will seek and find all His own and will draw near those who have been cast out by men because of their faith.

9:36 He was prepared to believe the truth when revealed, unlike most of the Pharisees then. So God prepares individuals everywhere to receive the Lord Jesus (6:37,44).

9:37 See 4:26. The Lord delights to reveal the truth about Himself to the humble and childlike (Matt 11:25-27).

9:38 The Lord Jesus often accepted the worship of men (Matt 8:2; 9:18; 14:33; 15:25; 28:9,17). He knew that only God should be worshiped (Matt 4:10), so in accepting worship He was showing that He knew He was the incarnation of God.

9:39 He did not come to sit as judge and condemn men to punishment. But His very coming as the light of the world resulted in judgment (3:17-21). It divided people into two groups - those who came to the light and those who did not, those who were given sight and those who were blinded. In this verse Jesus is obviously speaking of spiritual blindness and sight. When He says those who "see will become blind", He means those who have light, who think they see and even pride themselves on seeing, will be made completely blind (compare Matt 13:14-16). This was a judgment they brought on themselves by refusing the light of Christ. For other reasons why Jesus came to earth see note at Matt 5:17.

9:40 They thought they were the only ones who could see. It never struck them that they could possibly be blind. Understand man's heart (Jer 17:9), sin's deceitfulness (Heb 3:13), and Satan's power (2 Cor 4:4).

9:41 Men are responsible for what they do with the light God gives them. Compare 12:35,36; Matt 6:22,23; Luke 11:35. These Jews had the light of the Old Testament, the "light of the world" was in their midst, and they had the light God gives to all men everywhere - 1:9; Rom 1:18-20.

would have no sin, but now you say, 'We see,' so your sin remains.

10 "Truly, truly I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, he is a thief and a robber. 2 But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice. And he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4 And when he brings

If they had been totally blind and had never had a ray of light they would not have been responsible, nor guilty of rejecting light. But they were proud of their knowledge and not willing to admit their need. And they willfully rejected the light they had. So God could not overlook their guilt.

In spiritual matters it is better to have no knowledge and light at all than to have it and not put it to proper use (compare 2 Pet 2:21). Those who are called Christians who have much truth but do not practice it are more worthy of condemnation than those who never heard of Christ. The more light we have the greater our sin if we do not follow it.

10:1 There is no change of scene from the last verses of chapter 9, and the Jews and the blind man are mentioned in vs 19-21, so we may assume that in vs 1-18 Jesus was speaking to the Pharisees. They considered themselves teachers and shepherds of the people of Israel (Matt 23:2,3; Rom 2:17-21). In this chapter Jesus teaches that He is the true shepherd of God's people and the Pharisees were like thieves and robbers and wolves – bent on using the sheep for their own gain or else destroying them. In other words, the Pharisees were false and selfish shepherds. In some Old Testament passages God Himself says He is the shepherd of His people and describes false shepherds in very severe language. See Ps 80:1; Isa 40:10,11; 56:9-12; Jer 23:1-4; 25:32-38; Ezekiel chapter 34; Zech 11:4-17.

Here in 10:1-18 Jesus was using an illustration to teach spiritual truth. The sheep, of course, are Christ's own people, those who believe and obey His voice (vs 15-29). Christ Himself is both the gate and the true shepherd of His people (vs 7,11). Thieves, robbers, and the wolf all represent people who want to prey on the sheep for their own benefit, either secretly or openly.

10:2 The true shepherd of God's people will enter in the proper way. God will appoint him and bring him into the ministry of shepherding.

10:3 Verse 27; 18:37. Believers in Christ can know when He speaks to them, and they can distinguish His teaching from that of any other teacher. And they desire to obey His voice. What is meant by leading them out? Out to streams of water and pasture land. See Ps 23:1,2.

10:4 A good shepherd does not drive his sheep but leads them to the place they should go. Christ leads His people from earth to heaven and He knows each step of the way they should go, and has gone before them through everything that can happen to them (compare 1 Pet 2:21-25; Heb 12:1-3).

10:5 "Stranger" – here signifies a false teacher. Followers of the Lord Jesus have the ability to discern between the false and the true. They can know that any teaching contrary to the teachings of Jesus must be false and dangerous. They see in it the voice of a stranger trying to lead them astray (Rom 16:17,18; Heb 13:9). The more they know and understand Jesus' teachings the more they will be able to discern the voice of strangers. If anyone professing to be a sheep departs from Christ to follow false teaching it is an example of 1 John 2:19.

10:6 Often in this Gospel we see the Jews failing to understand Jesus' words (6:41,42,52; 7:35; 8:22,27). They were not His sheep (v 26) and so lacked spiritual understanding.

10:7 "I am the door" – this figure of speech is based on the method of shepherds and their sheep in those days. A shepherd would bring back his sheep to the pen and inspect each one as it passed through the opening into the pen. When all were inside he would lie down across this opening. Nothing and no one could come or go without passing over his body. He was the "door" or gate. Jesus is the one "door" of salvation (this is what He is speaking of – v 9). No one can get into the "sheepfold" of God's people except through Him. See 14:6. Compare Matt 7:13,14.

10:8 "All who came before me" – the Lord Jesus did not mean His prophets in Old Testament days. Men like Moses, Samuel, and David were very good undershepherds serving God the Chief Shepherd (Ps 78:70-72). God Himself raised up such leaders for His people. Here Jesus meant those who came without being sent by God who yet claimed to be true shepherds (some of whom may have claimed to be "gates" for people to come to God). Many came on their own for their own purposes and professed to be prophets, etc (see Jer 23:21). Such was the situation in Israel in Christ's day. In the matter of religion there were plenty of "thieves" and "robbers" about (as there are now also), but apart from Himself there was no shepherd worthy of the name (Matt 9:36).

10:9 "He will be saved" – this is what Jesus

should go. Christ leads His people from earth to heaven and He knows each step of the way they should go, and has gone before them through everything that can happen to them (compare 1 Pet 2:21-25; Heb 12:1-3).

10:5 "Stranger" – here signifies a false teacher. Followers of the Lord Jesus have the ability to discern between the false and the true. They can know that any teaching contrary to the teachings of Jesus must be false and dangerous. They see in it the voice of a stranger trying to lead them astray (Rom 16:17,18; Heb 13:9). The more they know and understand Jesus' teachings the more they will be able to discern the voice of strangers. If anyone professing to be a sheep departs from Christ to follow false teaching it is an example of 1 John 2:19.

10:6 Often in this Gospel we see the Jews failing to understand Jesus' words (6:41,42,52; 7:35; 8:22,27). They were not His sheep (v 26) and so lacked spiritual understanding.

10:7 "I am the door" – this figure of speech is based on the method of shepherds and their sheep in those days. Nothing and no one could come or go without passing over his body. He was the "door" or gate. Jesus is the one "door" of salvation (this is what He is speaking of – v 9). No one can get into the "sheepfold" of God's people except through Him. See 14:6. Compare Matt 7:13,14.

10:8 "All who came before me" – the Lord Jesus did not mean His prophets in Old Testament days. Men like Moses, Samuel, and David were very good undershepherds serving God the Chief Shepherd (Ps 78:70-72). God Himself raised up such leaders for His people. Here Jesus meant those who came without being sent by God who yet claimed to be true shepherds (some of whom may have claimed to be "gates" for people to come to God). In the matter of religion there were plenty of "thieves" and "robbers" about (as there are now also), but apart from Himself there was no shepherd worthy of the name (Matt 9:36).

10:9 "He will be saved" – this is what Jesus

If anyone enters through me, he will be saved and go in and out and find pasture. 10 The thief does not come except to steal, to kill and to destroy. I have come that they might have life, and that they might have it in great abundance.

11 "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep. 12 But the hired man who is not the shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away. And the wolf catches the sheep and scatters them. 13 The hired man runs away, because he is a hired man and does not care for the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd and know my sheep, and my sheep know me. 15 Just as the Father knows me, even so I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 "And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must also bring them. And they will hear my voice, and there will be one fold and one shepherd. 17 This is why my Father loves me: because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. 18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down and I have power to take it again. This command I have received from my Father."

19 So there was a division again among the Jews because of these statements. 20 And many of them said, "He has a demon and is mad. Why do is talking about in this illustration of sheep and shepherd – salvation in all its varied aspects (Rom 1:16). Pasture speaks of the nourishment which Christ gives to His people. Their coming and going suggests freedom and safety in all the matters of life. The sheep pen, the pasture, and all else is owned and ruled by the good Shepherd. The best comment on this verse is the whole of Psalm 23.

10:10 "Thief" – false teachers and unsaved selfish shepherds "steal," "kill," and "destroy." They try to steal the glory that belongs only to God (7:18; Matt 23:5-12), and try to take God's word from men (Matt 15:6-9; Jer 36:23-25; Gal 1:6,7). In this way they try to destroy men (Matt 23:13-15). And such people have often been guilty of actual killing (Matt 23:34-37; etc). Quite different is the purpose and work of the Lord Jesus. He wants men to have eternal life, spiritual life. This is why He came from heaven to earth. Everywhere in this Gospel is this emphasis on life (1:4; 3:16,36; 4:14; 5:24; 6:35,47,51; 11:25; 14:6). For other reasons why Jesus came to earth see note at Matt 5:17.

10:11 In the Old Testament Jehovah God was the Shepherd (Ps 23:1; Isa 40:10,11). In this verse the Lord Jesus says He is the Shepherd. This is more evidence that He knew Himself to be the incarnation of Jehovah God. See also 8:24,58; 12:41; Luke 2:11. "Gives his life" means His death on the cross.

10:12 "Hired" – these are people who minister to God's people only for money or personal benefits. They have no love for the sheep (v 13).

"Wolf" – false prophets. See Matt 7:15,16; Acts 20:29-36.

10:13,14 Between Christ and the "sheep" there is mutual knowledge as real as that between the Father and the Son in the Trinity. Christ's people know Him because of the direct spiritual revelation He gives of Himself to them (see Matt 11:27). They do not receive a full knowledge of Him in a moment, however. It is an ever-increasing knowledge that comes as they trust and obey and follow Him (see also Eph 1:17; Phil 3:10; 2 Pet 3:18). But the teaching of Jesus here is simply the fact that all of His "sheep" actually do know Him. This is far more than having knowledge about Him. It indicates an initial meeting with Him and continuing fellowship with Him (1 John 1:3). Of course, this is a spiritual meeting and fellowship.

10:16 He is referring to individuals from other nations and peoples who would later come to believe in Him. Though they had not yet heard the gospel or believed it, He knew they would in the future. He says He will bring them into the company of His people. This He is doing through His servants throughout this whole age of grace.

"One shepherd" – the one flock in this era is the Church of the Lord Jesus. Not just Jews but people of all nations are in it, and He alone is the true Head of the church (see Eph 2:11-22).

10:17 For the third time Jesus speaks of laying down His life (vs 11,15). It is the most important thing He did for His sheep, the greatest possible display of love (15:13; Rom 5:6-8; 1 John 4:10). God the Father loved the Son from all eternity (5:20; 17:24). But Christ's giving Himself to death for His people was a special reason why the Father loved Him. For this reason He highly exalted Him (Phil 2:8,9).

10:18 Jesus speaks of His rising from the dead (Matt 16:21; 28:6). No one was able to take His life unless He permitted it (19:10,11; Matt 26:53). And no one could prevent Him from rising from the dead. Both these events were God's will for Him and Jesus had authority over His own death and resurrection.

10:19 See 7:12,43; 9:16.

10:20 7:20; 8:48,52; Matt 4:24. They thought Him mad because they did not believe He was who He said He was. And it is perfectly true that no fully sane and honest person could say the things Jesus said about Himself unless they were true. He either spoke the truth or He was indeed crazy. Every person has to decide what he will believe. By calling Jesus demon-possessed and mad they did not have to account for the evidence He presented (v 25; 5:31-47). This is the easy way of trying to get rid of the arguments of an opponent.

you listen to him?" 21 Others said, "These are not the words of one who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

22 Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter. 23 And Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's portico.

24 Then the Jews surrounded him and said to him, "How long will you make us doubt? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you did not believe. The deeds that I do in my Father's name testify about me. 26 But you do not believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you.

27 "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. 28 And I give to them eternal life, and they will never perish, neither will anyone

10:21 Some had better sense than the others. But even these were not willing to follow the Lord Jesus. Speaking a few words in His favor is not at all the faith and commitment He requires.

10:22 This dedication festival looked back to 165 B.C. to the re-dedication of the temple after it had fallen into enemy hands.

10:24 Note on "Christ" at Matt 1:1. They wanted Him to speak plainly, not so they could believe Him, but so they could accuse Him of making what they considered false claims.

10:25 Jesus had not used the words "I am the Christ, the Messiah of Israel," but some of His words plainly meant this. No one but the Messiah could have honestly said such things as 5:16-47; 6:32-58; 8:12,23-29; 10:7-18. And His miracles were part of the evidence He presented - v 38; 5:36.

10:26 See 8:44.

10:27 These truths He had already given (vs 3,14,16). Christ's sheep are those people who have been born again (3:3-8). They have a new spiritual nature and so they can hear Christ's voice and follow Him. To follow Him means to trust and obey Him. Faith and obedience are the twin marks of His people, and without them men cannot be real Christians at all.

10:28 "Eternal life" - this is the present possession of believers (3:36; 5:24). They do not earn eternal life by following Christ. They follow Him because they already have eternal life in them.

"Never perish" - Christ here makes a plain statement that all of His sheep are safe and secure forever, that their salvation is eternal. See also 6:39,40,54,56; 17:11,15; Rom 5:9,10; 8:30-39; Phil 1:6; Heb 7:25; 1 Pet 1:3-5. This doctrine is also sometimes called "the perseverance of the saints." Observe carefully the wording of vs 27,28. It does not read like this: "If my sheep listen to my voice and if they keep on following me, I will give them eternal life and they will never perish." There is no "if" in Christ's words. The safety of the sheep is not based on any condition other than that they be sheep. And it is the mark of sheep that they listen to the Shepherd's voice and follow Him. If they do not they are not sheep. And the real sheep are safe and secure simply because they are in the good Shepherd's care. Their eternal safety does not depend on what they do, but on what He does.

But is it not possible for believers to stop believing and permanently forsake Christ?

If they did they would perish, but Christ says they will never perish. This implies what is plainly taught elsewhere - that God who gave them faith at the start (Phil 1:29; Eph 2:8; Heb 12:2) will keep them believing to the end. See Luke 22:31,32; Rom 5:9,10; 8:37; Phil 1:6; 1 Pet 1:5. Compare Jer 32:40.

But do not sheep sometimes wander away? And if one does, will not that one be finally lost? Temporarily a true sheep may wander away, but the Lord Jesus revealed what He does in such a case: He goes out and brings the sheep back (see Matt 18:12-14; Luke 15:3-7). Actually if even one true sheep can be lost, what security is there for any of us? If it is possible for one to wander away and be lost, then it is possible that any of us who believe in Christ may finally be lost.

We should not think that by nature we are better than others, and so assume that we will be safe even if other sheep perish (compare Matt 7:11; Rom 7:14-25; 1 Tim 1:15; James 3:2; 1 John 1:8-10). If our salvation depended in any way on us then those of us who know ourselves best would have most reason to fear the eventual loss of it, indeed, would have most reason for complete despair. In many ways we are all weak, foolish, sinful, and failing sheep. If the keeping of our salvation were to depend on us, how could any of us finally be saved?

This matter of the eternal salvation and security of the sheep comes down to one very important question: Is their security altogether dependent on the Shepherd, or in some measure on themselves as well? Is it not plain that Jesus is teaching here that it depends altogether on Himself? And is it not reasonable to think that Jesus chose to call believers "sheep" because literal sheep are among the most helpless of animals and incapable of guarding themselves against the attack of enemies? How grateful we should be that our salvation depends on our Good Shepherd and that we are safe forever in His hands.

But does not this teaching of security promote sin? Won't the sheep, thinking they are safe forever, start doing what they please? That way of thinking is not the attitude of true sheep. They are already doing what they please - they want to follow Christ, and they do so, and are sad only that they do not follow Him better than they do. If they do not want to follow Him, they are not sheep. The knowledge that snatch them out of my hand. 29 My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than all. And no one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand. 30 I and my Father are one."

31 Then again the Jews took up stones to stone him.

32 Jesus responded to them, "I have shown you many good deeds from my Father. For which of these deeds do you stone me?"

33 The Jews answered him, saying, "We do not stone you for a good deed, but for blasphemy, because you, being a man, make yourself God."

34 Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your Law, 'I said, you are gods'? 35 If he called those to whom the Word of God came, 'gods,' and the Scripture cannot be broken, 36 do you say about him whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? 37 If I do not do the deeds of my Father, do not believe me. 38 But if I do, though you do not believe me, believe the deeds, so that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him."

39 Therefore once more they tried to seize him, but he escaped out of their hand, 40 and went away again beyond Jordan to the place where John first baptized, and he remained there.

41 And many came to him and said, "John did no miracle, but everything John said about this man is true." 42 And many believed in him there.

they are safe promotes holiness in the sheep – the holiness that is not based on the fear of being lost, but on love for the good Shepherd and confidence in His love and power.

"My hand" – to get Christ's sheep away from Him requires a stronger arm than His. No evil men, not Satan himself can steal Christ's sheep from Him. Christ is the good Shepherd. For any shepherd to keep his sheep two things are necessary – an earnest desire to do so, and the ability to do so. Christ has this desire and this ability in the fullest measure. The sheep are safe because of who and what He is. Christ's people are a special gift of love from His Father (6:37; 17:6). He will do all in His power to keep this gift – and His power is limitless. It is unthinkable that He would lose any of them.

10:29 Two almighty hands enclose Christ's sheep. Here is double security. See Col 3:2 – the life of believers is hidden in the depths of God Himself. And who can remove it from there?

"Greater than all" – see 14:28.

10:30 This does not say and does not mean that the Son and the Father are one and the same person. The word "one" is neuter gender in Greek and indicates the truth that the two are united in one essence, that they share the same nature – 1:1. Other references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11. On the Trinity see 5:30; Matt 3:16,17; 28:19; 2 Cor 13:14; Eph 4:6.

Jesus' teaching here is not at all the same as the teaching of Advaita Vedanta. Advaita teaches that all men are one with God, that man's spirit and God's Spirit are one and the same. Jesus is not saying this and does not mean this. He is saying that He, the only Son of God, is one with the Father. He taught repeatedly that He was unique and not as other men – 3:15; 8:23,24; etc. 10:31 See 5:18.

10:32 His miracles were signs pointing to the truth He spoke in v 30. These hardened unbelievers denied all He said about Himself, denied all the evidence He presented, and insisted that He was a mere man. But they were right in two things – in the law the penalty for blasphemy was death, and for a mere man to claim to be God is blasphemy, a fearful sin worthy of death (Lev 24:16; Num 15:30). It will be the very sin of the coming "man of sin" (2 Thess 2:3,4). In the Bible the true God presents Himself as the Creator of men and far above them in every way (Gen 2:7; Num 23:19; Ps 9:19,20; Isa 40:22-26). But these Jews were terribly wrong in thinking Jesus was a mere man.

10:34 Ps 82:6. See notes on that psalm.

10:35 "Whom" – he states who the "gods" of Ps 82:6 were. Here the Lord Jesus upholds the full inspiration and authority of the Old Testament ("Scripture"). See also Matt 4:4,7,10; 5:17,18; 15:3; 22:43; Mark 12:36; Luke 24:44. He referred to the Old Testament as the "Word of God."

10:36 His answer to them is plain and compelling. God Himself called mere men "gods" and "sons of the Most High" in Ps 82:6. This was not blasphemy. Then how could it be blasphemy for the unique Son of God Himself to say that He was that Son? In psalm 82 God was honoring those leaders of Israel by giving them titles in accordance with their high position. But He honored Christ by setting Him apart as His very own and sending Him into the world (see also 3:13-17; 5:37; 6:57; 8:29).

10:37,38 The Lord Jesus not only said He was God's Son and one with Him, He demonstrated it. His miracles backed up His words (2:11; 5:36; Matt 8:1; 11:4,5). He is saying if the Jews would believe the evidence of His miracles they would come to faith in Him. The phrase "the Father is in me and I in the Father," is the same in meaning as v 30 – the Father and the Son are perfectly united in the same nature. They are not two distinct Gods but two persons in the one Godhead.

10:39 Nothing Jesus could say would convince these hardened, prejudiced and unreasonable men.

10:40 See 1:28. This was east of the Jordan river.

10:41 "John said" – 1:26,27,29-34.

10:42 People away from the hardened core

11 Now a certain man was sick. He was Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. 2 It was this Mary who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.

3 Therefore his sisters sent word to him, saying, "Lord, look, he whom you love is sick."

4 When Jesus heard this, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that through it the Son of God might be glorified."

5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. 6 So when he heard that he was sick, he remained two days more in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that he said to his disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

8 His disciples said to him, "Teacher, lately the Jews tried to stone you, and will you go there again?"

9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in a day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because there is no light around him."

11 He said these things, and afterwards he said to them, "Our friend Lazarus is asleep. But I will go to awaken him from sleep."

12 Then his disciples said, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better."

13 However, Jesus spoke of his death. But they thought that he spoke of resting in sleep.

14 Then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

16 Then Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

17 When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus of the Jewish religion at Jerusalem were more open to Christ's teaching and more prepared to believe.

11:1 The name Lazarus is a form of Eleazar and means "God has helped." Bethany was a village on the Mount of Olives just east of Jerusalem.

11:2 See 12:3. There are several women named Mary in the Gospels - 19:25; Matt 1:18; 27:56.

11:3 This is what all believers should do in time of trouble. Evidently Jesus knew the members of this family well and had shown special affection for them. The sisters did not even need to give Lazarus's name.

11:4 Observe that even one whom Jesus especially loved fell sick. The Lord did not prevent it or heal him, though He had healed multitudes of others. See also Job 2:4-8; 2 Cor 12:7-10; 1 Tim 5:23; 2 Cor 4:20.

"Glorified" - compare 9:3. Observe that when God's Son is glorified God is glorified. The death of Lazarus was another opportunity for the Lord Jesus to demonstrate His grace and power. The mighty miracle of raising him from the dead was another "sign" (2:11) that He was the Messiah the Son of God.

11:6 Though the Lord Jesus loved them He did not rush to their home to help and comfort them. He had something better in mind and wanted it to occur at a better time. They who leave their case in His hands and await His time will always receive His best for them. Delays are not denials. For what He knows are good reasons He sometimes permits us to suffer (2 Cor 4:17; 12:7-10; Rev 2:10; note at Job 3:20). His waiting like this in the case of Lazarus may have been intended as a trial of faith for the sisters and His disciples. Compare 1 Pet 1:6,7.

11:7 Judea was the province of which Jerusalem was the capital.

11:8 "Rabbi" - 1:38.

11:9,10 Compare 9:4; 12:35. Jesus is saying that God appoints a time to finish a work, and those who walk in the light God gives have nothing to fear. He knew what He was doing, and they should move ahead with Him in the light.

11:11 "Friend" - see 15:14,15. "Asleep" here means dead (v 14). The death of the body is spoken of in this way in both Old and New Testaments (6:50; Deut 31:16; Dan 12:2; Matt 27:52; Acts 7:60; 13:36; 1 Cor 7:39; 11:30; 15:6-18; 1 Thess 4:13,14). The expression suggests life after death and resurrection from the dead - those asleep in the night awake in the morning (Dan 12:2). This does not imply that the dead are not conscious - see Luke 16:22-26; Rev 6:9,10. It is not the soul which sleeps but the body. "Wake him up" means raise him from the dead. Compare 5:21.

11:12,13 As so often Jesus' words were taken too literally and therefore misunderstood.

11:14 Compare 3:4; 4:11,15,32; 6:52; Matt 16:6. Here is another example of Christ's supernatural knowledge. The message that came to Him said only that Lazarus was sick. See also 1:48-50; 2:24,25.

11:15 The Lord Jesus was going to perform a mighty miracle which would result in an increase of faith in the disciples. This was the cause of rejoicing, not the fact that Lazarus was dead.

11:16 "Thomas" - Matt 10:3. Both Didymus and Thomas mean "twin." He was one of the original apostles (Matt 10:3). It seems he was sure that if Jesus returned to Judea He would be killed and they with Him. He was prone to look on the dark side of things and to doubt when he should have believed (14:5; 20:24-27), but he was willing to die with Christ or for Him.

11:17 Lazarus must have died shortly after the sisters sent their message (v 3). The message must have taken a day to reach had already been in the tomb four days. 18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about three kilometers away. 19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary to comfort them concerning their brother. 20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him, but Mary still sat in the house.

21 Then Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22 But I know that even now whatever you ask of God, God will give it to you."

23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, even though he dies, yet he will live. 26 And whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who should come into the world."

28 And when she had said this, she went away and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, "The Teacher has come and is calling for you."

29 As soon as she heard this, she quickly got up and went to him. 30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in the place where Martha had met him. 31 Then the Jews who had been with her in the house comforting her, when they saw Mary getting up quickly and going out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."

32 Then when Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she fell prostrate at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

33 So when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he groaned in spirit and was troubled, 34 and said, "Where

Him; He waited two days before starting His journey and it took another day for Him to reach Bethany.

11:19 Evidently this family was well-known and highly regarded.

11:20 Martha was the more active of the sisters, Mary the quiet one (Luke 10:38-42).

11:21 She meant that Jesus would have healed Lazarus if He had been there. But can we think He would have? We can see (as Martha could not at the time) that He had something greater in mind. And we know that He does not always choose to heal people. The Lord has always been with His believers (Matt 28:20), indeed, He has been in them (17:23; 2 Cor 13:5; Col 1:27), yet through the centuries they have all died and many have suffered much sickness and pain.

11:22 She knew the Lord could do marvelous things, but it is very doubtful that she thought Jesus would raise Lazarus to life then. See v 39. She believed Lazarus would rise on the day of resurrection (v 24), but that is a different matter. See note at 5:28,29. Perhaps the thought that Jesus might possibly raise Lazarus then was trying to find root in her mind and she was struggling to believe it. It seems that Jesus' words to her in vs 23,25,26 were to encourage her to believe it.

11:25 See 5:21-29. The Lord Jesus has God's own life in Him and He is the life of believers (Col 3:3,4). It is in Him and in Him alone that men can obtain eternal life (3:16,36; 6:53,54; 14:6). He is also the resurrection. He is saying He had the power and authority to raise anyone at any time He chose, including Himself (5:21; 10:17,18). Believers in Christ will live forever in God's presence (14:3; 1 Thess 4:17). Death is not the end of life for them but only the beginning of a far better life

(2 Cor 5:6-8; Phil 1:21-23).

11:26 See 5:24; 6:50,51. Believers die physically but live eternally. Spiritual death (Eph 2:1) can never touch them. Observe again the emphasis Jesus puts on believing in Him. See 3:15,16,18; 6:40; 8:24; 10:37,38.

11:27 "Christ" – Matt 1:1.

"Son of God" – 1:34,49; 6:68; 20:31; Matt 3:17; 16:16. Here we see that Martha's faith was very true and firm.

11:30 It seems that the Lord waited there so that He could see Mary alone to comfort her and encourage her faith. But the Jews followed her and gave little time for that.

11:32 Verse 21. Both Martha and Mary spoke as if Christ's bodily presence was necessary for healing to take place. But see 4:47-53; Matt 8:5-13.

11:33 Why was He so moved, so troubled? Perhaps because He entered fully into the sorrow of His friends who were suffering (compare Isa 63:9). Perhaps He sorrowed for Lazarus who must be brought back from a state of peace only to die again at some future time. Perhaps Jesus was thinking of death in general, how it entered the world because of sin and as an enemy crushed and enslaved the whole human race (Rom 5:12,21; Heb 2:14,15). Perhaps He was thinking of the price He would very shortly have to pay to defeat this enemy, death – His own dying in agony on the cross for the sins of the world. Perhaps He was thinking of so many who would die in sin and be lost forever in spite of His sacrifice. Perhaps it was at this moment that He made His earnest prayer for the raising of Lazarus (v 41), and His prayers were not cold and unfeeling (compare Heb 5:7. Compare too the prayers of Christ's Spirit for believers – Rom 8:27).

11:34 Asking this question does not mean that Jesus did not know. See v 14, which is have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"

37 And some of them said, "Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?"

38 Then Jesus, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it.

39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be a bad smell, for he has been dead four days."

40 Jesus said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you would believe, you would see the glory of God?"

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was lying. And Jesus raised his eyes, and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 And I know that you always hear me, but because of the people standing here I said this, that they may believe that you have sent me."

43 And when he had said this, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

44 And he who had died came out, bound hand and foot with grave clothes, and with his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Free him, and let him go."

45 Then many of the Jews who had come to Mary, and had seen the things Jesus did, believed in him. 46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. 47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees assembled the council, and said, "What shall we just one example of His supernatural knowledge. Compare God's question to Adam in Gen 3:9.

11:35 This is the shortest verse in the Bible, but one of the longest in meaning. The Creator of the universe, the Savior of men is no cold, unfeeling, impersonal deity. He loves, He cares, He weeps for men in their misery (Luke 21:41-44; Jer 48:31,32; Ex 2:24,25).

11:37 Verses 21,32. They were all correct. Jesus could have kept Lazarus from dying, but He had another purpose in mind (v 4) which they did not yet understand.

11:38 Verse 33.

11:39 He who raised Lazarus could have caused the stone to roll away of itself. But He gave them a small part in the work of raising the dead. And they could testify later that their hands had taken away the stone and that inside the tomb the dead body of Lazarus lay. Obviously Martha did not understand what Jesus was about to do, and could see no sense in removing the stone. All she knew was that Lazarus was undoubtedly dead and not merely in a coma. The body had started to decompose.

11:40 Verse 4. In the conversation between Christ and Martha these exact words do not appear, but we cannot assume that everything He said is written down. He may, however, have been referring to the words of vs 25,26. Observe in this verse that faith comes first, then seeing. Men want to reverse this - 4:48.

11:41 "Looked upward" - 17:1. Posture in prayer is not the important thing. It is the state of the heart that matters.

"I thank you" - Matt 14:19; Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; Eph 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18.

"You have heard me" - evidently He had prayed specifically that Lazarus might be raised from the dead.

11:42 He knew God the Father always answered His prayers because He always prayed in the will of the Father (compare 1 John 5:14,15). He gave thanks publicly to the Father for hearing His prayer because He wanted the Jews there to know an important truth - He was not raising Lazarus on His own initiative; the miracle was evidence that God had sent Him.

11:43 He called in a loud voice not so Lazarus could hear but so all the people could hear. Here was no magic, no mantra, no muttered spells. Jesus simply gave a clear word of command to a dead man. And, as He said in 5:21-27, the dead lived again.

11:44 Here is a mighty miracle done publicly in the presence of many people and in broad daylight. It reveals that the Lord Jesus has authority over life and death. In 5:21-27 He said He had this authority. Here He proved it. He has power in the physical realm - He raised a body dead four days and decomposing. He has power in the spiritual realm - He called back the spirit of the dead man where it rested and reunited it with his body.

"Free him" - another example of His giving others a part in the work. In this way they could come in close contact with Lazarus, see and remove the very grave clothes wound about him, touch the flesh that had been decomposing now made whole and new. They could know that what they saw was no fake miracle, no hallucination.

11:45 They believed in Jesus because of the evidence. They could not escape the facts. He had shown forth the power of God and they knew it.

11:46 Apparently these people refused to accept Jesus as the Messiah in spite of this miracle, and they wanted to see what the Pharisees would do. Even so mighty a miracle did not overcome the hostility, prejudice, and unbelief of those hardened in their sins (see Luke 16:31). This is seen clearly in the verses which follow.

11:47 "Council" - the Jewish High Court called the Sanhedrin - Matt 5:22. They admitted the fact that Jesus was performing these signs and miracles. The evidence was so strong and clear that they could not deny it do? For this man is performing many miraculous signs. 48 If we let him alone like this, everyone will believe in him. Then the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation."

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, 50 and do not consider that it is expedient for us, that one man die for the people, and not that the whole nation perish."

51 And this he did not say on his own, but being the high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for that nation, 52 and not only for that nation, but also that he would gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad. 53 Then, from that day on, they plotted to put him to death.

54 Therefore Jesus no more went about openly among the Jews, but went from there to a region near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and remained there with his disciples.

55 And the Jewish Passover was near, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. 56 Then they looked for Jesus, and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, "What do you think? Will he not come to the feast?"

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it so that they could seize him.

12 Then six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus, who had died and whom he raised from the dead, was living. 2 There they made a supper for him, and Martha was serving, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. 3 Then Mary took a pound of fragrant oil of spikenard, very costly, and anointed

(compare Acts 4:15-17). But they were not willing to go where the evidence led them. Indeed they could not, for it was not the truth they wanted but what they thought was personal benefit (see also 5:44). No amount of evidence will convince those who are determined not to believe in Christ.

11:48 See what an excuse they made for their rejection of Christ! They were afraid that if the mass of people believed in Christ they would make Him their leader and rebel against the Roman Empire which was ruling their country then. Then, they thought, the Romans would come in great force and bring disaster on Jerusalem, the temple, and the whole nation. They were afraid of men but had no fear of God (Rom 3:18).

And this fear of the Romans was not justified. The Lord Jesus had already refused to be a political leader (6:15). His kingdom was not of this world (18:36). His purpose was to establish a spiritual kingdom in people's hearts, not to lead a political rebellion against Rome. But see the hypocrisy and wickedness of these people. They suggested that they were the ones to save the nation, and at the same time were hoping to kill God's Son. Eventually the very thing they feared came on Jerusalem, not because the nation accepted the Lord Jesus but because it rejected Him. See Matt 23:37-39; 24:1,2; Luke 19:41-44.

11:49 Caiaphas meant that they did not understand what the situation required. In the next verse he plainly stated what he thought they needed to do.

11:50 Here he boldly gives his solution – "one man die", and he meant that Jesus was a troublemaker who would stir up the Romans to take action against the Jewish nation, and so He had to die. He was no more interested in truth and justice than the Pharisees or Pontius Pilate (18:38).

11:51,52 Here is a very remarkable thing. An unbeliever, an unsaved man, a rejecter of Christ, uttered a prophecy of spiritual things – the formation of Christ's church. It is plain that he did not know that God was using him to utter a prophecy. He spoke out of the unbelief and wickedness of his heart, but his words meant far more than he could imagine. He spoke as the high priest of God's nation Israel, and God used him in that office to give counsel concerning His Son that had very great consequences. For other examples of bad men prophesying see notes at Numbers chapters 23,24 and 1 Sam 11:9-11. God can use any instrument He chooses to accomplish His purposes.

11:53 Previously they had attempted to kill the Lord Jesus (5:18; 8:59), but then they were acting on the impulse of the moment. Now they began to plot the best way to do it.

11:54 Jesus did not act in fear. He knew that His time to die had not yet come (7:30), and He had things to accomplish before it did come.

11:56 This is an indication of the fame of Jesus at this time. He was the great object of conversation among those who had come from all over Israel to the feast.

12:1 Notes on the Passover at Exodus chapter 12; Lev 23:4-8. Here we begin the record of the last week of Christ before His crucifixion. The time had come for Him to die for the sins of the world. God had chosen both the time (at this Passover), and the place (Jerusalem), and the Lord Jesus was fully prepared to do the Father's will.

12:2,3 Compare Matt 26:6-13; Mark 14:1-9. Some scholars are sure that John described a different event than that found in Matthew and Mark.

"The fragrance" – compare Phil 4:18; Lev 1:9; etc. Though now our gifts of love to Christ may not have the literal fragrance of perfume, they are a fragrant smell, a pleasing aroma to God.

the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

4 Then one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray him, said, 5 "Why wasn't this oil sold for three hundred silver coins, and given to the poor?"

6 He said this, not because he was concerned for the poor, but because he was a thief and had the money bag, and he used to take what was put in it.

7 Then Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial. 8 For you always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me."

9 Now a great many Jews found out that he was there, and they came, not only because of Jesus, but that they might also see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests made a plot to put Lazarus also to death, 11 for because of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

12 The next day, many people who had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took palm tree branches and went out to meet him, crying out, "Hosanna! Blessed is the King of Israel, coming in the name of the Lord!"

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written, 15 Do not fear, daughter of Zion.

See, your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt.

16 His disciples did not understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him. 17 Therefore the crowds that were with him when he called Lazarus out of his tomb, raising him from the dead, were giving testimony about it. 18 For this reason the people also came to meet him, for they heard that he had performed this miraculous sign.

19 Therefore the Pharisees said among themselves, "Don't you see that you are accomplishing 12:4 Matthew and Mark do not mention it was Judas who said this.

12:5 "Three hundred silver coins" – in Greek "300 denarii." A denarius was the usual day's wage for a laborer (Matt 20:2). Observe that acts of unselfish love for Christ can be misunderstood and criticized by others. Judas could understand hoarding money or using it for selfish purposes, but could not understand how Mary could pour out so much wealth at Christ's feet out of mere love, hoping for nothing in return.

12:6 What a contrast there is in these verses – Mary poured out the best she had because she loved Christ; Judas wanted only to get more money for himself because he loved that. There are still these two types of people in the world. As for Judas, he was not the sort who was once tempted, stole something but repented later and fought his weakness. No. Money which God's people gave for the work of God he willfully, habitually took for himself. He loved money more than honor, decency, truth, or Christ. Money was his motive in betraying Christ (Matt 26:14-16). His love of money was one of the traits which made him like a demon (John 6:70,71).

Judas is a terrible example of what can happen to those who give themselves to this lust (see 1 Tim 6:5,9-10). And he was but one of many people, both out of the Church and in it, who have ruined their lives, dishonored God, and lost their souls for money. Alas, how many there are even in Christian work who cannot be trusted with money, who will only prove themselves, like Judas, to be thieves! But see how the other disciples regarded Judas – they trusted him and let him be the treasurer of their group.

Notice also in this verse the hypocrisy of Judas – he cared nothing for the poor but he pretended that he did. His idea was that money for the poor would come through his hands and he could take some of it for himself. At the smell of money the Son of God, His wonderful teaching and miracles, and His offer of eternal life, became as nothing to Judas – nothing but a way of making more money. He completely ignored the teachings of the Lord Jesus on this subject (Matt 6:19-21, 24; Luke 6:20,24; 12:20,21,33). If we ignore them we may become like Judas. It is always better to be poor than to lie, cheat, or steal – Prov 19:22.

12:7,8 Note at Matt 26:10-13.

12:10,11 Here is another glimpse into the nature of these unbelievers (and unbelievers in general). They could not deny that Jesus had raised Lazarus. The evidence was too clear, too powerful. But rather than move in the direction the evidence pointed they preferred to destroy the evidence. Compare Jer 36:1-26.

12:12-15 Matt 21:4-9; Mark 11:9,10; Luke 19:37,38. Each of the four Gospels records somewhat different words spoken by the crowd. Which is correct? All are correct. No Gospel has all the words spoken, but each has some of the words actually spoken. Compare 19:19. Note at Mark 4:1-20.

12:14 Matt 21:1-3.

12:16 "Glorified" – this refers to His death and resurrection from the dead. After that the disciples understood a great deal that they had not understood before. Compare Luke 24:45.

12:18 "Sign" – 2:11.

12:19 This incident seemed to confirm their nothing? Look, the world has gone after him.”

20 And among those who came up to worship at the feast were some Greeks. 21 So they came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, “Sir, we want to see Jesus.”

22 Philip came and told Andrew, and Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, “The time has come for the Son of man to be glorified. 24 Truly, truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it brings forth much fruit. 25 He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it to life eternal. 26 If anyone serves me, he must follow me, and where I am, there my servant will also be. If anyone serves me, my Father will honour him. 27 Now my is soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour? But for this reason I have come to this hour. 28 Father, glorify your name.”

Then a voice came from heaven, saying, “I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

29 Therefore the people who stood there and heard it said that it thundered. Others said, “An angel spoke to him.”

30 Jesus responded and said, “This voice did worst fears (11:47,48).

12:20 The Passover was a Jewish festival. Greeks (and those of other nations) would not have been allowed to take part in any way in Jewish festivals unless they became converts to Judaism. That there were such among the Greeks we know from verses like Acts 17:4.

12:21 These were the first of a great many Greeks and people of every nation who would want the same thing in years to come. And if they believe in Christ they will have their request granted (Rev 7:9; 22:4).

12:22 Philip thought such a request needed consultation with a fellow disciple. We are not told whether the request of these Greeks was granted or not. But Jesus used the occasion to speak of His death – an event He knew must take place before Greeks or anyone else could have a place in heaven or see God.

12:23 Verse 16; see 17:1,5.

12:24 “Truly, truly” – 1:51.

“If it dies. . .much fruit” – this is true of literal grain, true of God’s way with His people on earth, and true of the Lord Jesus Himself. And certainly He is speaking of His own death and the results that would come from it. If He had refused to die for men, there would never have been eternal life for anyone. The Lord Jesus would have remained alone – there would not have been “many brethren” made in His image (Rom 8:29; Heb 2:10-15). But this is a principle that applies also to any of God’s servants in the world – real fruitfulness and spiritual life to others comes out of death to self. Compare 2 Cor 4:8-12.

12:25 The Lord gave this same truth in slightly different words on a number of occasions. Evidently it is one of His most important sayings, and we ignore it to our great peril. See Matt 10:39; 16:25; Mark 8:35; Luke 9:24; 17:33. Here in John He makes it even more emphatic by using the word “hate.” Compare Luke 14:26. And by using the words “eternal life” He makes it abundantly clear that the real choice is between this present brief life and life with God in eternity. We must decide what we will value, what we will live for – this world or the next.

12:26 See 10:27. No one is serving Christ who does his own thing in his own way. Those who follow Christ will be where He is in this world, for He is their Shepherd who leads them where they should go. And if this means trials, dangers, sufferings and a martyr’s death, He will be with them and they with Him in all of that. His followers will be with Him in the next world too and throughout eternity. This is what He prayed for them (17:24) and this is what they will have.

Christ’s servants may meet with much injustice, persecution, humiliation and dishonor in this world. They may be despised and rejected of men as their Master was. Their honors are still to come. The eternal God Himself will exalt, praise, honor and reward Christ’s servants (5:44; Matt 25:21; Rom 2:6-10; 8:18; Heb 6:10; 1 Pet 5:1,4; Rev 22:12). Any loss they face here He will more than make up then. So we must choose what honors to pursue, whose praises we desire – those that come from men or those that come from God.

12:27 “Hour” – the coming hour of His sufferings and death. The thought of being a sacrifice for the world’s sin, bearing man’s guilt and facing God’s anger against it, caused anguish to Christ. Compare Matt 26:37,38; Luke 22:42-44. But He would not pray to be delivered from it unless it was God’s will. And He knew it was not.

12:28 As in His prayer later in Gethsemane His concern is for the glory of God the Father, not His own glory; the Father’s will not His own will. He was willing to endure the cross so that the Father might be glorified. All His followers must learn to pray like this. See Matt 6:9,10. This is the third time in the Gospels that God spoke from above (Matt 3:17; 17:5). God had glorified His name all through the events described in the Old Testament, all through the life and ministry of the Lord Jesus. Now He would glorify it through the death and resurrection of Christ.

12:29 Ex 19:16-19; Ps 29:3.

“Angels” – Gen 16:7. It seems that some distinguished the words, others did not. But all knew something very unusual had happened.

12:30 Christ did not need to be told what He already knew so well. But men need to not come because of me, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgment of this world. Now the ruler of this world will be thrown out. 32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to me."

33 He said this to indicate what death he would die.

34 The people answered him, "We have heard from the Law that Christ will remain forever. How can you say, 'The Son of man must be lifted up?' Who is this Son of man?"

35 Then Jesus said to them, "The light will be with you only a for a little while. Walk while you have the light, so darkness does not overtake you. For he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going. 36 While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may be children of the light." Jesus spoke these things and went away and hid himself from them.

37 But though he had performed so many miraculous signs in front of them, still they did not believe in him, 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet which he spoke might be fulfilled,

"Lord, who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again,

40 He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, so that they would not see with their eyes,
or understand with their heart,
and be converted, and be healed by me.

41 These things Isaiah said when he saw his glory and spoke of him.

42 Nevertheless even among the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they be told it very emphatically.

12:31 Christ was about to die in the place of guilty men, as the Lamb of God bearing the sins of the world (1:29). This means that it was the whole world of mankind that deserved to die. The cross was like a pronouncement of judgment about this. It is as though God were saying to the world, "Because of your sins you are guilty and worthy of death. By the death of my Son in your place I declare this verdict. And you will condemn yourself by crucifying my Son, thus proving my verdict is right" (3:18,19).

"Ruler of this world" – Satan. See 14:30; 16:11; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 2:2; 6:12. For most readers today "ruler" probably brings out the meaning of the Greek word better than "prince." Satan is ruling in the darkness which men love (3:19), in the hearts of sinful men who do not know the one true God. Notes on Satan at 8:44; 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10. By "thrown out" the Lord Jesus did not mean thrown out of the world, for Satan is still very much in it (1 Pet 5:8), and he will not be thrown out of it until Christ comes again (Rev 20:1-3).

The meaning seems to be this: by the cross He would accomplish redemption for men, and this would mean Satan's eventual overthrow. In every land men formerly ruled by Satan would turn to God, and eventually the whole world would submit to God's rule and reflect God's glory (Isaiah chapter 11; etc). The cross is the basis of all this. The cross which seemed at the time to be Satan's victory meant his utter defeat.

12:32 Compare 3:14; 8:28.

"Lifted up" – refers to the cross. By drawing all men to Himself He does not mean that all men will be saved (see 8:24; Matt 7:13,14; 25:46; Rev 21:8). He means that He will draw men from all nations, peoples, tribes to Himself and not just those of the Jewish nation (compare Rev 7:9).

12:33 He knew from the beginning that He would die on a cross.

12:34 They were probably referring to verses such as Ps 89:36; 110:4; Isa 9:7; Dan 7:14. They knew Jesus often called Himself "the Son of man", and wondered what He meant by the name, and whether the Son of man was the same as the Messiah promised in the Old Testament. Note on "Son of man" at Matt 8:20.

12:35 By "light" He meant Himself (v 46; 8:12; 9:5). The sad condition of very large numbers of people everywhere is revealed here – they do not know where they are going.

12:36 This means to trust Christ and so become children of God who is "Light" (1 John 1:5). It is only by receiving Christ the light and believing in His name that anyone can become a child of God (1:12,13). The phrase "sons of light" also suggests those who have the quality of light, who have come to the light and love the light, who are light-bearers themselves. Compare Matt 5:14-16; Eph 5:8; 1 Thess 5:5.

12:37-40 All through this Gospel we see the unbelief of many of the Jews. No evidence Christ gave could convince them. Their unbelief was unreasonable and strange. But here is an explanation for it. They were fulfilling Old Testament prophecy – Isa 53:1 and 6:10. And their unbelief was a judgment of God on them for their sins. The nation had long chosen the way of unbelief; now God abandons them to it. See note at Matt 13:14,15.

12:41 In Isa 6:1-3 Isaiah wrote that he saw the LORD (Jehovah in Hebrew) and that the whole earth was full of the LORD's (Jehovah's) glory. Here John says that Isaiah saw the glory of Jesus. In other words, Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah. See also 8:24,58; 10:11; Luke 2:11.

12:42,43 Was the faith of these men real?

did not confess him, so they would not be put out of the synagogue. 43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 Jesus cried out and said, "He who believes in me, does not believe in me, but in him who sent me. 45 And he who sees me sees him who sent me. 46 I have come, a light, into the world, that whoever believes in me would not remain in darkness. 47 And if anyone hears my words, and does not believe, I do not judge him, for I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 He who rejects me and does not receive my words, has one that judges him. The word that I have spoken, it will judge him in the last day. 49 For I have not spoken on my own, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say, and what to speak. 50 And I know that his command is everlasting life. Therefore whatever I speak, I speak just as the Father has said to me."

13 Now before the Passover Feast, Jesus, knowing that the time when he should go

Perhaps there was a seed of true faith which later sprouted and grew and made them braver. But we can hardly help being doubtful of those who say they believe and yet who are ruled by fear and the desire for the praises of men. See Matt 10:33; Rom 10:10.

12:44,45 Could Jesus have expressed His oneness with God the Father more clearly? Compare 10:30; 14:9. To believe Jesus is to believe God, to see Him is to see God. 12:46 Verses 35,36; 8:12; 9:5. On why Christ came to earth see note at Matt 5:17. 12:47 See 3:17.

12:48 The "last day" is the day of judgment God has appointed. See references at Matt 10:15. One of the books that will be opened at that time (Rev 20:12), it seems, will contain the words of Christ. These words we have in the four Gospels. If we do not act on what they say we bring condemnation on ourselves. Compare 7:21-23.

12:49 Compare 5:19; 4:34. The teachings of the Lord Jesus are in the exact words, and doubtless in the forms of speech and expression that God appointed. Anyone who quarrels with them is quarreling with the one true God who gave them.

12:50 "Everlasting life" - a constant theme of this Gospel (1:4; 3:16,36; 4:14; 5:24; 6:47; 10:10). Christ was very careful to speak the very words God the Father gave Him. The issues involved were very important. These are the last words of Christ's public ministry, and they put the stamp of God's authority on all that He had ever said. He is the Word of God (1:1) and He spoke only God's words.

13:1 "Passover" - Exodus chapter 12; Lev 23:4-8. At last the time of Christ's departure had come. See 7:30.

"Loved" - His whole life and ministry were from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

2 And supper being ended, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, 3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and went to God, 4 got up from supper, took off his outer garments, took a towel, and wrapped it around himself.

5 After that he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel which had been wrapped around him.

6 Then he came to Simon Peter, and Peter said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you will not understand now, but afterwards you will understand."

8 Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with me."

9 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not only my a demonstration of His love. Now He was about to show His people the height and depth and length and width of it (Eph 3:18).

"His own" - means His followers, those whom God the Father had given Him (John 6:37; 17:6).

13:2 "Devil" - Matt 4:1. "Judas" - 6:70,71; 12:6; Matt 26:14-16.

13:3 "Into his hands" - compare 3:35; 10:18; 17:2; Matt 28:18.

13:4,5 He knew He was God the Son, had come from God the Father, and was returning to Him. Yet He here performed the work of the lowliest servant. This shows His humility and desire to serve rather than be served. See Matt 11:29; 20:25-28; Phil 2:6-8. How different was He from many now who profess to be His servants and disciples!

13:6-8 To Peter it did not seem fitting that one he knew to be the Christ the Son of the living God (Matt 16:16) should perform the task of a menial servant. Even though Jesus told him this act had a meaning which he would later understand Peter flatly refused to allow it. Peter's words on the surface may seem to indicate humility, but they reveal a certain arrogance as well. Did he think he knew better than the Lord Jesus what should be done? (See also Matt 16:22; Isa 40:13,14).

Who is any mere man to refuse to accept what the Son of God would do for him? There may be many of His ways with us we do not understand now, but we must humbly allow Him to minister to us as He wishes (Rom 11:33,34). Some day we will understand the meaning of all He does with us, in us, to us, for us. There is a spiritual meaning behind His words "no part with me." He is saying that it is necessary to cleanse His disciples from sin if they are to have feet, but also my hands and my head!"

10 Jesus said to him, "He who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet. He is completely clean. And you are clean, but not all of you."

11 For he knew who would betray him, so he said, "You are not all clean."

12 So after he had washed their feet, taken his garments, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? 13 You call me Teacher and Lord. And you say rightly so, for I am that. 14 If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you an example that you should do as I have done to you.

16 "Truly, truly I say to you, the servant is not greater than his lord, nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him. 17 If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. 18 I do not speak about all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture might be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.'

fellowship with Him. See 1 John 1:7-9.

13:10 These believers in Christ had complete cleansing from sin when they first trusted in Christ. This is called the "washing of new birth" – Titus 3:5; John 3:5. Those who have this do not need to have it again and again. In fact, they cannot have it again and again. Birth is a once and for all thing, and the Bible nowhere speaks of new spiritual birth being received by an individual more than once.

But in their Christian walk in this sinful world their spiritual "feet" may get dirty – sin may cling to them and need washing away (see Luke 11:4; Ps 51:4; Rom 7:18,19; Jam 3:2). This Christ does as often as needed (compare Eph 5:25,26). By saying not everyone of them was "clean" Jesus meant that Judas had never experienced the washing of the new birth (Titus 3:5). He was still filthy in heart, mind and soul.

13:11 See 2:24,25.

13:12 He washed the feet of all including those of Judas the traitor – an illustration of how to deal with enemies. Compare Matt 5:43,44; Rom 12:17-21. The question the Lord asked has to do with the spiritual meaning of what He had done. He did not need to ask if they understood the physical act.

13:13 "I am that" – Luke 2:11. Since He is both Teacher and Lord no one should try, like Peter, to instruct Him or tell Him what to do.

13:14 The author of these notes does not believe that the Lord Jesus was appointing another ordinance to the Church such as baptism and communion. He was speaking of the humble service each believer should be willing to perform for any other in the ordinary matters of life, whether washing of feet or any other service. He may mean also that believers are to try to help other 19 Now I tell you before it happens, so that when it happens, you will believe that I am he.

20 "Truly, truly I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me."

21 When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in spirit and testified, saying, "Truly, truly I say to you, one of you will betray me."

22 Then the disciples looked at one another, in doubt about whom he spoke. 23 Now one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was leaning against Jesus' chest. 24 So Simon Peter gestured to him, that he should ask who it was he was talking about.

25 Then he, leaning back against Jesus' chest, said to him, "Lord, who is it?"

26 Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I give a piece of bread, when I have dipped it in the dish." And when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the piece of bread, Satan went into him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you are believers find cleansing from any sin that may cling to them in their Christian walk. This they might do by speaking God's Word to them (15:3), and leading them to find cleansing through the Lord Jesus (1 John 1:9).

13:15 In this, as in everything, Christ is our example – 1 Pet 2:21-23; 1 John 2:6.

13:16 See Matt 10:24,25.

13:17 There is a blessing of God which comes only by doing what Christ says – Luke 11:28. Mere hearing is not enough (Jam 1:22,23). Notes on blessing at Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1; 119:1; Matt 5:3-12.

13:18 See 6:70,71. See Ps 41:9.

13:19 See 8:24,28,58. When Christ's disciples later understood that He knew the future and was not a mere victim of treachery but the complete master of the situation, their faith was confirmed, strengthened and enlarged.

13:20 Matt 10:40; Mark 9:37; Luke 9:48; 10:16. Those whom Christ sends are His ambassadors, His representatives (2 Cor 5:20). To accept them is the same as accepting the Father and the Son who sends them. But when people present themselves as Christ's servants we must make very sure that God has sent them. Satan has his own servants and ambassadors whom he sends into the world and into the churches (2 Cor 11:13-15; Acts 20:29).

13:21 See 11:33; 12:27. Knowing what was going to happen did not make Jesus cold and stoical.

13:22 They were all (except Judas) utterly amazed. None of them, it seems, had suspected Judas for a moment.

13:23 This person was probably the apostle John. See also 19:26; 20:2; 21:7,20.

13:27 Luke 22:3. Before this, Satan had put the idea of betrayal in the mind of going to do, do quickly.”

28 Now no one at the table knew the reason why he said this to him. 29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the money bag, that Jesus had said to him, “Buy the things that we need for the feast,” or that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then, having received the piece of bread, immediately went out. And it was night.

31 Therefore, when he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of man is glorified, and God is glorified in him. 32 If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and will immediately glorify him. 33 Little children, I will be with you only for a little while. You will look for me, and, as I said to the Jews, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’ Now I say this to you.

34 A new commandment I give to you, That you love one another. As I have loved you, you must also love one another. 35 By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

36 Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus answered him, “Now you cannot follow me where I am going, but you will follow me later.”

37 Peter said to him, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for your sake.”

Judas (v 2), and Judas had long been following the ways of Satan (6:70; 12:6). Now Satan possessed him completely – a terrible fact which brought Judas to a terrible end (Matt 27:3-5). Jesus’ words to Judas show that His time had come and He was prepared to endure the act of betrayal; let Judas not waste time about it (7:30; 12:1).

13:29 See 12:6. The dullness of the disciples is sometimes surprising.

13:30 Judas knew what Jesus meant even though the others did not. It was then literally night outside, spiritually night in Judas, the beginning of the hour of darkness on earth (Luke 22:53). It would seem that Judas went out after the events of Matt 26:26-29. See Luke 22:20,21.

13:31 “Son of man” – Matt 8:20. The time had come for the Lord Jesus to endure a terrible death on the cross. His betrayer has gone out to do his betraying, and the next day Jesus would die. How does He regard this? As glory. How can it be glory? It reveals those qualities of His which will bring Him the greatest honor – His undying love for God and for mankind, His humility, His purity, and His other excellent virtues. Jesus is nowhere more glorified than in His death on the cross (and, of course, in His resurrection afterwards), for it was there that His character was most clearly revealed. And God the Father was glorified in Him because the Father and the Son were completely united in nature and character and in all that happened.

13:32 This refers to the resurrection of Christ from the dead. Because Jesus willingly endured the death of the cross God raised Him up and highly exalted Him at His own right hand in heaven (Acts 2:32,33; 3:13-15; Phil 2:6-11).

13:33 This is the only time Jesus called His disciples “little children.” It indicates His tender love for them. Compare 1 John 2:1,12,13,18,28; 3:7,18; 4:4; 5:21. See also Matt 18:2,3.

13:34 On the night before He died one of the things uppermost in His mind was the need of all His disciples to love one another. And He did not merely request or advise them to do so – He issued a command.

This command He gave three times (15:12,17). See also Rom 13:8; Gal 5:13,14; Eph 5:2; Phil 2:2; Col 2:2; 1 Thess 3:12; 4:9; Heb 13:1; Jam 2:8; 1 Pet 1:22; 2:17; 3:8; 1 John 3:11,18,23; 4:7.

“New” – the commandment to love one’s neighbor as oneself is one of the two greatest commandments in the whole law of God (see Matt 22:35-40). Why, then, does Jesus call His commandment “new”? He is commanding something higher and better than the law. He has created a new group of redeemed people later known as the Church. The love each member is to have for every other is something special, something beyond the love and kindness one should show to neighbors. It is a love based on Christ’s love to them. Christians are not merely to love fellow believers as they love themselves but as Christ loved them. And how did Christ love? To the uttermost, willingly giving His life for them. See 1 John 3:16. His was completely holy and pure love, unselfish love, unending love, divine love. See the note at 1 Cor 13:1. This is the kind of love believers in Christ are to receive from God and show to others

13:35 If Christians love one another, this will be evidence to people outside the Church (and to themselves – 1 John 3:14) that they are true Christians, real followers of Christ. People will not be convinced of this if Christians bite and devour one another (Gal 5:15), cheat and deceive each other (1 Cor 6:8), etc, as so often happens.

13:36 The disciples were very dull in understanding spiritual matters before the event described in Luke 24:45. He had told them more than once of His approaching death (Matt 16:21; etc). Notice here that Peter passed completely over Christ’s command about love and questions Jesus about a thing He said before. Now many Christians would rather speculate about what Christ does than earnestly strive to do what they should do. Of course Christ was speaking of His ascension into heaven.

13:37 It seems Peter still did not understand Christ’s meaning. And he did not understand his own nature. See Matt 26:31-35. We can learn from this that there may 38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for my sake? Truly, truly I say to you, the rooster will not crow until you have denied me three times.

14 "Do not let your heart be troubled. You believe in God, believe also in me.

2 "In my Father's house are many dwellings. If this were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself, that where I am, there you may be also.

be much ignorance of one's own heart in even the most prominent disciples of Christ. How many of us are aware that the seeds of every sin are planted deeply in our fallen nature? How many are self-confident and boastful when they should bow humbly in the dust? See Jer 17:9; 1 Cor 10:12; Prov 16:18.

13:38 Though men themselves may not know what is in them, Christ knows - 2:24,25.

14:1 There were several matters that could cause them to be troubled. Their master was going away. Peter was soon to deny that he knew Him. None of them knew what was going on, only that something strange and difficult was about to happen (this they could judge from the words of the Lord recorded in Matt 26:26-35). But He tells them not to be troubled, and gives in this chapter a number of reasons why they should not be (vs 1,2,3,13-14,16,27). The first is that He is trustworthy. This is the way whereby His people can always overcome the temptation to be troubled, worried and agitated about events - trust in God and trust in Christ. They could not be in control of circumstances, but He was, and in that they could find rest of heart. Compare Matt 6:25-27; Phil 4:6,7; 1 Pet 5:7.

14:2 Here is another reason why they should not be troubled. They had a glorious, eternal future in heaven. With such a prospect they should not allow the things of time and the world to weigh too heavily in their thoughts. Peter had asked where He was going. Here Jesus gives a direct, clear answer. There was work in heaven which He would do for them.

14:3 See 17:24; 1 Thess 4:17. Here is another reason why they should not allow themselves to be troubled. Though He was going away He was also coming back. See Matt 24:26,27; 25:31; 26:64; Acts 1:11; 1 Thess 4:16 - 5:4; Rev 1:7; 19:11-16; 22:12.

14:4 They did not think they knew the way (v 5), but actually they did know it because they knew Jesus Himself who is the way. And they had already taken the way that leads to heaven - faith in Him (1:12,13; 3:16,36; 5:24; 6:47).

14:5 This disciple is often called "doubting Thomas" because of 20:24,25. But he was

4 And you know where I am going, and you know the way."

5 Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going, and how can we know the way?"

6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father except through me. 7 If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. And from now on you know him, and have seen him."

8 Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it will be sufficient for us."

also honest, open, without hypocrisy. He would not pretend to know something or to believe something he did not know or believe.

14:6 Here is one of the best known and most important sayings of the Lord Jesus.

"The way" - He is not one way among many, but the only way there is. It was not His disciples but He Himself who insisted He was the only way to God's presence. To be true to Him His disciples must teach the same thing that He taught (compare 3:36; Acts 4:12; 1 Tim 2:5). Many people do not like this teaching of Jesus, but not liking it will not change it. Far better it is to decide to like it, because Jesus is the Truth and does not lie. He Himself said that He is the only Son of God (3:16), the one they must receive to have spiritual life (6:53), the one men must believe or else be lost forever (8:24), the only "door" for God's people and the only Shepherd (10:7-11). Let us believe Him because of who He is and because of the evidence He has shown.

"Truth" - the Lord Jesus is the embodiment of God's truth, the incarnation of the God of truth (Ps 31:5). There is not the slightest hint of deception, guile, or darkness in Him. And it is He who said that He is the Truth who said that He is the Way.

"Life" - 11:25. This does not mean, of course, physical existence, and He is not at all saying that in some way He is the life of all men and all creatures. He is saying that He shares the life of the one true God (5:26), and He is the one who gives eternal life to men (5:21; 17:2), and this life is in Him alone (1 John 5:11,12). By receiving the Lord Jesus into our hearts and lives by faith, all that He is becomes ours and we are in the Way, believe the Truth, and have the Life. If we reject Him we will never be in the way to God, or believe the truth, or have eternal spiritual life, or arrive in peace in the presence of God in heaven. We may be certain of this because we have the word of the Son of God Himself.

14:7 Jesus meant that if they had really understood who and what He is they would have known God the Father also. See 1:14,18; Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11. But up to that time their faith and spiritual understanding were weak.

14:8 Perhaps Philip's desire was something

9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been such a long time with you, and you have not yet known me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. Then how can you say, 'Show us the Father?' 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own, but the Father who lives in me is doing these things. 11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me; or else believe me because of the deeds themselves.

12 "Truly, truly I say to you, he who believes in me, he also will do the deeds that I am doing; and he will do greater deeds than these, because I am going to my Father. 13 And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father will be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask anything in my name, I will do it. 15 If you love me, keep my commandments.

16 "And I will ask the Father, and he will give you like that of Moses in Ex 33:18 – a vision of God Himself.

14:9 "Seen the Father" – compare 10:30; 12:44,45; 1:18; Heb 1:3. To see Jesus is to see what God the Father is like. They share the same nature. They are members of the same Godhead. Jesus is the only person on earth who has ever been able to say this truthfully.

14:10 These words signify a complete and perfect union of Father and Son in the one Godhead. And this is something Philip should have believed because of truth Jesus had already taught. The words and works of Jesus were the words and works of God (7:16; 12:49).

14:11 If Philip was not willing to take Christ's word for it, he should look at the evidence Christ gave and then believe. Christ once spoke to the Jewish leaders in the same way – 10:37,38.

14:12 What things could possibly be greater than the things Christ had done? He could not be speaking of miracles because the miracles they later did were in no way greater than His. Only one work of theirs was in any way "greater" than those He had done. This was the work of preaching that resulted in the conversion of multitudes of both Jews and Gentiles, of going into all the world and proclaiming the gospel to all creation (Mark 16:15) and making disciples of all nations (Matt 28:19). When He was on earth He confined His ministry to a very small area, and saw comparatively few people come to a true faith in Himself. Having gone to the Father He sent the Holy Spirit to enable His disciples to do "greater" works and spread His gospel to the ends of the earth.

14:13,14 Here is another reason why His disciples should not be troubled (v 1). This is a very wide promise with very clear restrictions. Effective prayer must be in Christ's name. No other name, no other mediator, is needed. Since He Himself will answer any prayer we make in His name, then it is plain we need no help from anyone else in heaven or on earth to get answers to our prayers. See also the note at 16:27.

"Name" here signifies all He is and stands for, His nature, His character, His will, His authority. His will (and all else we know of Him) is revealed in His teachings, so prayer should be made according to them. Many requests made to Him are not granted because they fall short in this. The Lord Jesus answers prayer with a grand purpose in mind – the glory of God the Father. We should want answers to our prayers on the same high basis. Compare Matt 6:9,10. If our motives are right we may ask for big things in His will and get big answers. See also 15:7; 1 John 5:14,15. Compare Jer 33:3; Luke 11:5-13; 18:1-8; Eph 6:18; Heb 4:16; Jam 5:16.

14:15 This is three times repeated – vs 21,23. This verse is surely closely connected with the promise given above. If we ignore or disobey His commandments how can we pray in His name? And how can we say we love Him? Deeds, not words, are the proofs of love. Obedience is the evidence, not tears, fine feelings, or knowledge of love. The way to find out if we really love Christ is to go through His commandments and see whether we are actually obeying them – commands such as 13:13-17,34; Matt 5:16,23,24,34,39-42,44; 6:1-6,19,20,25; 7:1; 9:38; 16:24; 18:15,21,22; 19:4-6; 20:25-27; 24:42,44; 28:19. To "keep" them means to put them into practice. Let us examine our lives to see whether we really love Christ. Love must be at the heart of the believer's relationship with Him.

14:16 Here is another reason His disciples should not be troubled (v 1) – Christ's prayers for them and the coming of the Holy Spirit to be in them. On Christ's prayers for His people see Rom 8:34; Heb 7:25.

"Comforter" – the Greek word has a broad meaning. It means "someone called alongside to help." It often indicated a helper in legal matters, someone to speak in another's defense, possibly a mediator or intercessor. In the New Testament the word seems to suggest a Friend who advises believers in all matters relating to righteousness and sin, a counselor, one who helps and comforts them and represents them before God. The Lord Jesus is speaking of the Holy Spirit, as is clear from vs 17,26. He calls Him "another" Comforter. Up until then He Himself had been their Comforter (in Greek this very word is used of Jesus in 1 John 2:1. There it is translated "Advocate." See also Isa 9:6, where the He is called Counselor). Now He promises to send another like Himself, but who is a different person (this is indicated by the word in Greek translated "another"). See also 7:39; Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4,5,8; 2:1-4.

Observe that this Comforter, this divine Friend of believers will be with them "forever." He will never leave them or another Comforter, that he may stay with you forever. 17 He is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see him, and does not know him. But you know him, for he dwells with you, and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you without comfort. I will come to you. 19 After a little while, the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. 20 On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you.

21 "He who has my commandments and keeps forsake them.

14:17 God is the God of truth – Ps 31:5; Titus 1:2. The Lord Jesus is Himself the Truth (1:17; 14:6). The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth (15:26; 16:13). Truth is at the core of His being. He loves truth, speaks only the truth and leads believers into all truth (16:13). By "world" Jesus means the world in its sin and darkness, the world that refuses to receive Him as Lord and Saviour. The world may use expressions like "the divine spirit," "the spirit of life," "the spirit over all," etc, but the world does not know the Holy Spirit of the one true God and cannot receive Him.

The disciples of Jesus did know the Spirit. They were born of the Spirit (1:12,13), and knew the Spirit's working in the ministry of Jesus and in their own service (Matt 10:1,19,20; 12:28). He had been with them. The time was near when He would be in them – would live in their physical bodies (1 Cor 6:19). This is not true of all men, but only of believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. See Rom 8:16; Gal 3:2; Eph 4:18; Jude 19.

The spirit which every individual has from birth is not God's Spirit. It is a spirit God created, and each individual has a different spirit separate from all others. God's Spirit is eternal, uncreated, and comes to live only in those who receive the Lord Jesus as their Lord and Saviour – Gal 3:1-5,14. The world has a spirit, but it is not the Spirit of God. See Eph 2:2.

Observe in this verse how Jesus uses the personal pronoun ("He" and "Him") when speaking of God's Spirit. The Holy Spirit is not a mere influence emanating from God. He is a divine person just like the Father and the Son, and is one with them in nature and attributes. Just as we should not refer to Jesus as "it", so we should not refer to God's Spirit as "it."

14:18 Jesus came to them after He rose from the dead (chapters 20,21). In a sense He came at Pentecost when the Spirit of God came to them (in Rom 8:9 He is called the "Spirit of Christ"). But here He may be referring to His second coming (v 3).

14:19 His disciples saw Him after His resurrection (20:20,29; 1 Cor 15:5-8). This is strong evidence indeed that Jesus is who He said He is and that all His teachings are true. Note at Matt 28:6.

"You also will live" – compare Rom them is the one who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him."

22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, how is it that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23 Jesus answered and said to him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him. 24 He who does not love me will not keep my teachings. And the word that you are

5:9,10; Col 3:3,4. The hope of life for His disciples was bound up with His resurrection – 5:21,26; 6:47,54; 11:25,26.

14:20 "That day" – the period of time just after His resurrection. Then they would understand what unity He was bringing them into – v 10; 17:21-23. Christ in believers and they in Him is a constant theme of the letters of the apostle Paul (Rom 6:3-8; 8:9-11; 2 Cor 13:5; Gal 2:20; Eph 1:1).

14:21 Verse 15. The Lord Jesus is emphasizing the relationship between His believers and Himself and God the Father. It is a relationship of love expressed on their part by obedience, and on His part by some clear revelation of Himself. Only those who experience it will know what it is. God has a special love for His obedient loving children. He loves them infinitely, completely, totally, eternally. All His thoughts toward us are thoughts of love. All His actions toward us are done in perfect love. This is a family relationship of love, a delight in loving. God so loved the world that He sent His Son, and He has great compassion and pity on those lost in sin, but He cannot give full expression of His love to those who remain in rebellion against Him as He does toward His believing obedient people.

14:22 Luke 6:16; Acts 1:13. He and the other disciples hoped that Jesus, as the Messiah of Israel, would gloriously manifest Himself to the nation and to the world, take the reins of power in His hands and reign. See Luke 24:25,26.

14:23 Again He puts the emphasis on obedience – vs 15,21. The importance the Lord placed on this truth is indicated by the fact that He uttered it three times in so brief a time. The promise He gives here is one of the greatest in the whole Bible. It reveals the desire of God to live with His people, to fully express His love toward them in action. See note and references at Exodus 25:8. And He promises He will do this now with those who love the Lord Jesus. Observe how the Lord says both He and His Father will come to live with each one who loves Him. Being in many places at the same time is possible only to God, and if Jesus were not God He could not do this. Jesus is one with the Father in nature, but He again clearly distinguishes Himself from the Father as a person. See other references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

14:24 By this we know the true condition of hearing is not mine, but the Father's who sent me. 25 These things I have spoken to you, being still present with you. 26 But the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things, and will cause you to remember everything I have said to you.

27 "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled, do not let it be afraid. 28 You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and will come again to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice, because I said, 'I go to the Father.' For my Father is greater than I. 29 And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it takes place, you might believe. 30 I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in me. 31 But that the world may know that I love the Father, I do just as the Father commanded me. Arise, let us leave here.

15 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. 2 Every branch in me that bears no fruit he takes away, and he prunes every those who only read the Bible or listen to Bible messages and profess to be Christian, yet who do not do what the Bible says. 14:26 This was a special promise to His original disciples. See also 16:13. The Holy Spirit would enable them to teach what Jesus taught (and to write it down – though this is not specifically stated). To get the truth to the world Jesus did not depend on the ability of His disciples to remember what He had said. His Spirit would teach them all they needed to know and bring to their remembrance "everything" Jesus said. It is true also that the Spirit of God teaches all believers (1 Cor 2:10-13; 1 John 2:27). On God as teacher see note at Ps 25:4,5; etc.

Notice carefully the name given to God's Spirit here. He is the "Holy" Spirit, absolutely pure, separate from sin, one with the God of holiness. Note on "holy" at 17:17-19; Lev 20:7. Notice too that the Spirit is not the same person as the Father or the Son. The Father "sends" Him (v 16), in Christ's name. Note on the Trinity at Matt 3:16; etc. 14:27 Here is another reason why His disciples should not be troubled (v 1). Jesus is the Prince of peace (Isa 9:6). He came to make peace between God and men (2 Cor 5:19,20; Col 1:20,22). But here He speaks of the peace of mind and heart He gives believers (16:33; Phil 4:6,7; Col 3:15; 2 Thess 3:16). What so many people long for and cannot find Jesus freely gives to His disciples and removes all reason for fear.

14:28 They loved Him, but if their love had been what it should have been they would not have been thinking of themselves. Their thoughts would have been of Him and the finishing of the work He came to do, and the blessed state that awaited Him in the Father's presence. See how Jesus here distinguishes Himself from God the Father. The Father is not greater than the Son in nature or attributes, for Father and Son share these (v 9; 8:24,58; 1:1; 10:30). But the Father is greater in position and authority. See 5:19-27; 12:49. The Father does the showing, giving, sending and the commanding. The Son does the seeing, the receiving, the coming in subjection to the Father and the obeying.

14:29 See 13:19.

14:30 "Ruler" – Satan – note at 12:31. The Lord Jesus was sinless, had never yielded to any suggestion or temptation of Satan. There was nothing in Jesus that Satan could claim as his own; there was no way he could influence the way He lived His life.

14:31 It would soon seem as if Satan had some hold on Christ. The hour of darkness (Luke 22:53) had arrived. Jesus would be accused of blasphemy and be executed as if He were a criminal. But the explanation for all that is not in any seeming hold of Satan on Him, but in Jesus' obedience to the Father's will (10:17,18). Jesus had told His disciples that obedience was the proof of love (vs 15,21,23). Here He gives that proof in His own life. He was not as many teachers who teach one thing and practice another.

15:1 In the Old Testament the nation Israel is compared to a vine. See Ps 80:8-17; Isa 5:1-7; Jer 2:21; Ezek 15:1-8; 19:10-14; Hos 10:1,2. But it turned out to be a corrupt, wild vine, not producing the fruit God wanted. It behaved as a false or unreal vine. By saying He is the true vine, Jesus teaches that He, and not the corrupt nation, is the source of true spiritual life and fruitfulness. The one who "planted" Him on earth and takes care of the "branches," is God the Father.

15:2 The subject of this illustration is the fruitfulness of believers, not their salvation (vs 4,5,8). Jesus does not here define the kind of fruit God wants, but it is seen in other places in the Bible (Matt 3:8; Rom 6:22; Gal 5:22,23; Eph 5:9; Phil 1:11; Heb 6:7-10; Prov 11:30). Many professing Christian workers who point to what they call success in the ministry are proud, unholy, dishonest, unkind, and unspiritual. Jesus does not call their seeming success "fruit." The fruit God wants to see is believers becoming like Christ, and serving like Christ.

"Takes away" – Jesus was not teaching that true believers will lose their salvation if they fail at some time to bear fruit. Compare 5:24; 6:37-40,54,56; 10:27-29. We should never take language in a parable or allegory Jesus told and try to overthrow His plain statements in other places. Here He does not define what He means by "takes away," nor does He say when or how it takes place. He is merely emphasizing by very strong language the desire of God branch that bears fruit, that it might bear more fruit.

3 "Now you are clean through the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Remain in me, and I will remain in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so you also cannot, unless you remain in me. 5 I am the vine, you are the branches. He who remains in the Father for fruit. Should we not think God sees to it that every believer bears some fruit and works in us that it might increase.

Perhaps Judas Iscariot is an example of a branch taken away. And he was no true believer (6:70,71; 13:10). Perhaps those believers mentioned in 1 Cor 11:30, and the man in 1 Cor 5:4,5 are examples of this "taking away."

This whole picture of vine and branches may possibly refer to the visible church made up of all who profess to be Christians, both true and false. A reason for thinking so is this: in the Old Testament the "vine" Israel was the whole nation made up of believers and unbelievers, the good and the bad. And often in their history most of them were bad, and were eventually "taken away." See Isa 5:1-7; Jer 2:21,22; Hosea 10:1,2. Compare Romans 11:17-21 which speaks of being "broken off." If anyone professes to be a Christian and does not bear fruit for God, but "bad" fruit, we have strong reason for suspecting his claims are false. Compare Matt 7:16-20.

"He prunes" or "trims" - how does God do this? What is His "knife"? This pruning means chastisements, difficulties, afflictions, troubles of various sorts. He works in our hearts, minds, circumstances and experiences to trim away what is useless and make us more what we should be. See 2 Cor 12:7-12; Heb 12:4-11; Ps 66:10-12. See note on afflictions and troubles at Job 3:20.

15:3 See 13:10; 17:17; Eph 5:26; 1 Pet 1:22; Ps 119:9,11. The Word of God properly applied to minds, hearts, wills and consciences will produce a cleansing.

15:4 Compare vs 9,10. The word "remain" (or "abide") means to stay in one place. It is used ten times in vs 4-10. This is some indication of its importance in this context. The one place believers are to stay in is Christ. Stay in Him as plants in the ground of His love (Eph 3:17), as members of His body (1 Cor 12:12,13), as stones in His temple (Eph 2:20-22), as members of His household (Heb 3:6), and as branches in Him the Vine. He tells believers to stay in Him. Does this imply that they may not or that some will not? Not necessarily. It implies that God will enable them to do so - otherwise He would not command it. It implies also that He wants them to know their freedom. Remaining in Christ is something believers do consciously, willingly. They are not puppets or robots. God wants them to apply their minds and wills to the me, and I in him, he will bear much fruit. For without me you can do nothing. 6 If a man does not remain in me, he is thrown away like a branch and withers. And men gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 "If you remain in me and my words remain in you, you will ask what you want, and it will be done for you. 8 My Father is glorified in this, that you business of being Christians.

The spiritual life is not automatic but dynamic. It is not a life of mutual compulsion between Christ and His people but one of mutual love. Believers are in Christ and remain in Him because they want to do so. He chose them and they choose to follow Him. They love Him. Their freedom does not cause them to leave Christ but to remain in Him. Compare 6:67,68. Christ's true disciples, in a sense, were free to go away from Him just as the others did, but they would not. And it was God's work in them that produced this determination not to go away. See Phil 1:6; 2:12,13. And what God did in them He does in all believers. 1 John 2:24 reveals the way we can be sure of remaining in Christ - we must let His truth remain in us and continue to believe what He revealed.

15:5 "Much fruit" - this will result because the life and power of Christ will flow through them. Any attempt to serve Him without truly abiding in Him will come to nothing in God's eyes, though there may be much activity and seeming success. "Nothing" here means nothing truly spiritual, nothing of the kind of fruit God wants. There is much activity in the churches (not to speak of the religious world in general) which comes to nothing good because it is not done in Christ and does not have the flow of His life in it.

15:6 He is speaking of what happens to literal branches cut from a vine. He does not say that some believers may not remain in Him and that if they do not they will be burned in the fires of hell. That will be the fate of unbelievers, like Judas Iscariot, but not of believers. See Matt 3:10,12; Rev 21:8. If any believer fears it might happen to him let him be sure to take hold of all the truth Christ taught and remain in Him. Then he will certainly not fall away.

15:7 "What you want" - 14:13,14; compare Ps 37:4. Jesus is not giving a method by which believers can be a success in the world's eyes, get rich, or have all the pleasures and comforts to be found on earth. He is giving the way of spiritual success and effective prayer. If Christ's words rule the heart of a believer his desires will be under the control of the Holy Spirit, and he will want what Christ wants him to have. And believers ruled by Christ's words will pray as Christ taught (for example, Matt 6:9-13). Compare Col 3:16,17; 1 John 5:14,15.

15:8 Fruit bearing is not for the honor of the one who bears the fruit, but for the glory of God. In other words, God is glorified by bear much fruit; so you will be my disciples. 9 As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you. Remain in my love. 10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love.

11 "These things I have said to you that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. 12 This is my command, that you love one another, as I have loved you. 13 No man has love greater than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. 14 You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you. 15 From now on, I will not call you servants, because the servant does not know what his lord is doing. But I have called you friends, for everything that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

16 "You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. 17 These things I command you, that you love one another. 18 If the world hates you, you know that it hated me before it hated you. 19 If you belonged to the world, the

His work in believers. Compare Matt 5:16; 1 Cor 1:31; 4:7; 10:31; Phil 1:11. The person who seeks honor from men because of what he thinks is fruit bearing is not yet bearing the kind of fruit God wants.

15:9 See 5:20. Since Christ's love for His people is like the Father's love for Him, we may be sure it is deep, true, everlasting, and indescribably wonderful.

"Remain in my love" - Jude 21. This obviously implies conscious, determined effort, a willing obedience to His commands. It means for believers to behave in such a way that He can justly demonstrate His love to them in their daily lives.

15:10 See 14:15,21,23. Those who love Christ will obey His commands, and those who obey His commands will remain in His love. Here is a circle of love very meaningful to those inside it, but incomprehensible to those without. Believers are to settle down in this new dwelling place of God's love and get better and better acquainted with the Master of the house by doing what He says. Observe that Christ Himself remained in the Father's love by obedience. And believers will remain in His love in the same way. No doubt some believers are more obedient than others. Perhaps none are always completely obedient (Jam 3:2), and none completely disobedient. The extent to which they are obedient will affect how much they will consciously experience and enjoy His love.

15:11 Jesus was the "man of sorrows" (Isa 53:3). In the Gospels it is written that He wept (11:35; Luke 11:41), but never that He laughed. Did He have joy? Certainly - a deep inner joy that had nothing to do with outward circumstances (17:13; Luke 10:21). It was a joy that came from perfect obedience to God's will (compare 4:34). This joy He wants all of His people to experience. And obedience is the only way to experience it. What joy can there be if our consciences are always condemning us for disobedience?

15:12 See 13:34. Repeated for emphasis.

15:13 He is speaking of what He Himself was about to do. See 10:11,17,18. He died also for His enemies (Rom 5:6-10), but that is not the point here. He is speaking to His friends and saying that the greatest proof of His love to them is the laying down of His life. See also 1 John 3:16.

15:14 God incarnate looks for friends. Here He defines what true friendship with Himself means - obedience. In other words, this friendship is not among equals - one is the Lord from heaven, the others are mere men called to follow Him. Rebellion, disobedience and refusal to obey are not marks of friendship but of enmity against God. In the kind of friendship Jesus speaks of there must be oneness of mind, heart, and purpose.

15:15 Christ's disciples are not like ignorant slaves who must obey, but knowledgeable friends who want to obey. See here that Christ again states that His teachings were a direct revelation from God the Father - 7:16,17; 12:49; 17:6-8.

15:16 "I have chosen" - see Mark 1:16-20; 2:14; 3:13,14. Compare Eph 1:4. But the disciples showed their willingness to be chosen.

"Your fruit should remain" - this is what all true servants of God want. Compare Ps 90:17. Fruit produced under Christ's direction and in Christ will last forever.

"My name" - 14:13,14.

15:17 Verse 12; 13:34. Repeated again for further emphasis.

15:18,19 "World" - this is the unbelieving world which does not obey the true God. See 1 John 2:16; 5:19. That world is in darkness and wishes to remain there.

"Hates you" - Christ's disciples carry Christ's light which the world strongly objects to (see 3:19,20; Matt 5:14). They belong to God, not to the world. Sin at its heart is hatred of the one true and holy God, and all those connected with Him. So it is not surprising that the world will be unfriendly and antagonistic to Christ's disciples. It would be surprising if it were not so. Compare Ps 37:12; Prov 29:27; Amos 5:10; 1 John 3:12. A world that hates God and His Son will not love God's own people. If we say we are Christ's followers and the world loves us we should be alarmed, for this is evidence that we do not really belong to Christ but to the world. But if we are hated by the world because we belong to Christ we should count it an honor (1 Pet 4:14-16). And we should know that the very reason the world hates world would love its own. But you do not belong to the world. I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.

20 "Remember the word I spoke to you, 'The servant is not greater than his lord.' If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they have kept my word, they will keep yours also. 21 But they will do all these things to you for my name's sake, because they do not know him who sent me. 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin. 23 He who hates me hates my Father also. 24 If I had not done among them deeds which no other man did, they would not have sin. But now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. 25 But this happens that the word that is written in their Law might be fulfilled, 'They hated me without a cause.'

26 "But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes out from the Father, he will testify about me. 27 And you also will testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16 "I have said these things to you so that you will not stumble. 2 They will put you us is the reason God especially loves us.

15:20 See 13:16. Christ's servants have no right to expect better treatment than Christ had to endure (1 Pet 4:1). The world will sometimes show its hatred by persecuting God's people. But some individuals in the world will receive Christ's teaching. We see both of these truths fully illustrated in the book of Acts.

15:21 The world has gods and lords in abundance, but does not know the one true God (8:19,55; 16:3; Acts 17:22,23; 1 Cor 1:21; Eph 4:18). This ignorance is not the same as the ignorance spoken of by Advaita Vedanta. That teaches that man's spirit and God's Spirit are one and the same, and that ignorance of this keeps men in bondage, and knowledge of it liberates them. This whole idea is completely opposed to the teaching of the Bible. See also 10:30; etc.

15:22 "They would not have sin" – whether Christ had come or not men would have been sinners (Rom 3:9-19,23; 5:12). And certainly the Jews who rejected Him were full of sin (8:24,40,44; Matt 23:3,13-15,25,28,32-36). The meaning seems to be this: such sins as the Jews were guilty of, God in mercy could have passed over (Rom 3:25), if they had not committed the sin of rejecting His Son. To reject Christ is to reject the only way of forgiveness. He is speaking here of the Jewish nation which was God's special people (Deut 7:6). God had appointed sacrifices by which He could pass over their sin and forgive them (Leviticus chapters 1-7). But the sin He could not pass over was the willful rejection of Himself (Lev 26:18,21,23, etc; Num 15:30,31; Deut 30:15-20). Christ's coming to them revealed their character as nothing else could have done. Their love of darkness and their hatred of God were made very clear (3:19,20). Their cloak of religion could not conceal their evil. They could not offer the excuse that they didn't know what they were doing. Let us learn that rejecting light is a very dangerous thing. Compare Prov 1:24-31; Luke 12:47,48.

15:23 Again He speaks of the absolute oneness of God the Father and the only Son of God – 10:30; 13:20; 14:9,10. The person who loves and serves the one, loves and serves the other. The person who rejects and hates the one, rejects and hates the other. 15:24 Moses and the prophets of the Old Testament did mighty miracles but none had done what Jesus did – giving sight to the blind, feeding great multitudes with a handful of food, raising a man who had been dead four days, etc. The Jews rejected Him in the face of great evidence that He was the Son of God from heaven (5:31-40). This was the one sin that made it impossible for God to forgive the rest of their sins. The hatred of God, that often lies unrevealed in the sinful heart of men (Rom 8:7), in their case was brought out into the open.

15:25 Ps 35:19; 69:4. He did nothing to injure them. His mission was to save men and bring them into God's eternal blessing. Who ever has good reason to reject and hate the Lord Jesus Christ?

15:26 "Comforter" – 14:16,17.

"I will send" – this is further evidence that Christ is God. Who but God could send the Spirit of God? Observe the Trinity in this verse. Compare 14:26. Notes at Matt 3:16; etc.

"Testify" – 16:14; Rom 8:16; 1 John 5:6. The Spirit testifies silently in the minds, hearts, and consciences of people. Also He works with and in human witnesses who speak aloud and He makes their testimony effective (see Matt 10:20; 1 Pet 1:12).

15:27 "You also will testify" – this is one of the chief reasons why Christ chose His disciples and left them in the world. See the fulfillment in the book of Acts (Acts 1:8; 2:32; 3:15; 5:32; 10:39,41; 13:31). They were not to be afraid of the hatred and persecution He spoke of here in vs 18-21. From the beginning they saw all that He did and heard all that He said. They were completely qualified witnesses. Compare Acts 1:21,22; 2 Pet 1:16-18. Here in this chapter we see the privilege and responsibility of Christ's disciples in three different relationships – they were to remain in Christ (v 4), love one another (v 12), and witness to the world (v 27).

16:1 He told them what to expect so that they would not be surprised and stumble in their faith when trouble came. Compare v 33; Acts 14:22; 2 Tim 3:12; 1 Pet 4:1. These warnings are for us as well.

16:2 See 9:22; 12:42. "Synagogue" – Matt out of the synagogues. Yes, the time is coming when whoever kills you will think that he is doing God a service. 3 And they will do these things to you because they have not known the Father or me. 4 But I have told you these things so that when the time comes, you can remember that I told you about them. And I did not tell you these things at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 "But now I am going away to him who sent me, and none of you ask me, 'Where are you going?'" 6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. 7 Nevertheless

4:32. Is it possible for religious people to consider murder of Christ's servants a service to God? Can it be that people's thoughts become so twisted? Yes, indeed. And the Jewish leaders did just what Jesus said they would do. See Matt 23:34; Acts 7:54-60; 8:3 with 26:9-11; 14:19. Have not other people also done the same thing many times since then? They have, and are still doing it.

16:3 Here is the root cause of many crimes committed in the name of religion - ignorance of the one true God. See 8:19,41-44; 15:21. Many people think they know God though they do not, and some will defend their views of God even to the extent of killing those who tell them the truth and oppose their false views. In this way they think they are serving God! See Jer 17:9; Matt 15:19; Titus 1:16.

16:4 While He was with them, men directed their anger and hatred against Him. After He returned to heaven that anger and hatred would come against His disciples.

16:5 Peter had used the words "where are you going?" (13:36), but he was only expressing surprise that Jesus was going anywhere at all. His question was not a serious inquiry about where Jesus was going; he (like the others) was only upset at the thought of parting from Jesus (v 6).

16:7 Could anything be better than to have the physical presence of Christ with us? His disciples would have said "No!" but He says "Yes!" The reason? If Christ had not died, risen again, and ascended into heaven, the Holy Spirit (the Comforter - 14:26) would not have come to live in them and to anoint them with power for the work they had to do. Compare 7:39. Christ's Spirit in them was better than His physical presence with them. Why He could not grant them the Spirit in that way before He went away He does not say. Enough for us to know that this was God's plan and appointment. It seems likely that He wanted it to be clear to all that the giving of the Spirit was based on His death, resurrection and exaltation.

16:8 Jesus gives this as a further reason why it was better for Him to go away. The Spirit would come and do a work of convincing men throughout the world, and not merely in the little corner of the world

I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. For if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you. But if I go away, I will send him to you.

8 "And when he has come, he will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment; 9 of sin, because they do not believe in me; 10 of righteousness, because I go to my Father and you see me no more; 11 of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

12 "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. 13 However when he, where Jesus in the body had His ministry. He would teach them the truth about sin and righteousness and judgment, and rebuke them for their false views of these matters. And He would convince the world that the views of the Jews about Jesus were totally false and that Christ and His work were very different from what they thought. A result of the Spirit's convicting work is seen in Acts 2:37.

16:9 The Holy Spirit would convince men everywhere that those who in unbelief rejected and crucified Christ had committed a huge sin. Further, He convinces individuals that for anyone anywhere to willfully refuse to believe Him has its roots in sin and is of the essence of sin. In the Bible unbelief is everywhere shown to be worthy of condemnation and punishment (3:18,36; 8:24; Mark 16:14,16; 2 Thess 1:8; 2:12; Heb 3:12,18; 4:11; 11:31; Jude 5; Rev 21:8). But only the Holy Spirit can convince men of this.

16:10 The meaning seems to be this: after Christ ascended into heaven the Holy Spirit would convince men that Christ was no deceiver, no blasphemer (as the Jews charged), but an absolutely righteous person. Compare Acts 3:14,15. Further, He would convince men of their own need of righteousness, and that through the cross God had provided a way to make men righteous (see Rom 3:21-26).

16:11 "Ruler of this world" - Satan - note at 12:31. The cross of Christ was a judgment on sin, a condemnation of it wherever it is found. Sin is so terrible that it required the death of the Son of God to free men from it. Satan (the ruler of this world) is the embodiment of sin. He promotes it and rules men through it. With the judgment of sin on the cross Satan and all he stands for was openly condemned. This shows that God will judge all who remain in sin, who side with Satan against Him. On judgment see Matt 10:15; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:2,16; 14:10; 2 Pet 2:9; Rev 14:7; 20:11-15.

16:12 Christ leads His people step by step into the deep truth of God. He does not tell them all the truth at once because they cannot take it all in. The disciples often revealed their inability to grasp all that Christ told them when He was on earth.

16:13 See 14:17,26. The Holy Spirit taught the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak on his own, but will speak only what he hears. And he will show you things to come. 14 He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine and show it to you. 15 All things that the Father has are mine. Therefore I say that he will take from what is mine and make it known to you. 16 In a little while you will not see me, and then, in a little while you will see me, because I am going to the Father."

17 Then some of his disciples said among themselves, "What is this that he is saying to us, 'In a little while you will not see me, and then, in a little while you will see me,' and, 'Because I am going to the Father'?" 18 So they said, "What is this that he is saying, 'In a little while'? We don't know what he is saying."

19 Now Jesus, knowing that they wanted to ask him, said to them, "Are you asking among yourselves about what I said, 'In a little while you will not see me, and then, in a little while you will see me'? 20 Truly, truly, I say to you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice, and you will be pained, but your pain will be turned to joy. 21 A woman when she is giving birth has pain, because her time has come. But when she has brought forth the child, she no longer remembers the suffering, for joy that a man has been born into the world. 22 And so you now have pain. But I will see you again and your heart will rejoice, and no man will take your joy from you.

23 "And in that day you will ask me nothing. Truly, truly I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name, he will give it to you. 24 Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full. 25 I have said these things to you in figurative language. But the time is coming when I will no the disciples all the truth of God and His kingdom that God wanted His people to know. The New Testament is the revelation of this truth. Now the Spirit uses the Word of God and teaches individual believers the truth that has been once and for all revealed. He lives in them and enlightens their minds (1 John 2:27; Eph 1:17,18). With a promise like this every believer should seek the enlightenment which God's Spirit gives, and depend on the Spirit to teach him. On God as teacher see notes at Ps 25:3,4; etc.

"Things to come" – the Holy Spirit knows the future and revealed to them those things in the future which God wanted His people to know. And they wrote them down for us in their letters and in the book of the Revelation.

16:14 See 15:26. Any teaching which does not glorify the Lord Jesus is not of God. This is one way we can judge any religious teaching. The Spirit will make the things of Christ real to Christ's disciples. Compare 1 Cor 2:9-16.

16:15 The Lord Jesus did not mean that the Spirit would not reveal anything about God the Father. To speak of the things which belong to Him is the same as speaking about the things which belong to the Father – they are the same things. See 17:10. Observe the Trinity in this verse. See Matt 3:16,17.

16:16 There seem to be two possible meanings here. The Lord Jesus would die and be concealed from them in the tomb. On the third day He would rise and appear to them again. This was certainly true. But perhaps He was referring to His ascension into heaven after which His disciples would see Him no more until His second coming when they would see Him again. The words in v 10 seem evidence for this second view. It is probable that in the verses which follow Jesus meant both things. He had a message here for the disciples before His death on the cross, and a message for all believers now awaiting His coming.

16:17 Verse 10.

16:18 What became clear after Christ's death and resurrection was obscure and perplexing before.

16:20 The death of Christ was a deep grief to His friends, but a joy to His enemies.

16:21,22 The days following the death of Christ were like the birth of a new age. The disciples would see it and see Him and be glad. They would have the joy He gave them and have it permanently (15:11; 20:20; Luke 24:52; Rom 14:17). There is a sense in which this applies to believers now as they wait for the return of Christ from heaven. His second coming too will be like the birth of a new age. See Matt 24:8; Rom 8:19-22. Compared to the joy that believers will know then their time here on earth, while the Lord is in heaven, is like sorrow. See Matt 9:15; Rom 8:18,23; 2 Cor 4:17; 6:10; 1 Pet 1:6; Ps 42:1-3.

16:23 Jesus taught them many truths after His resurrection and enabled them to understand the Old Testament (Luke 24:44, 45; Acts 1:3). If there is a message here for believers now it is that when Christ comes again everything that has troubled and perplexed them will be made clear. Compare 1 Cor 13:12.

"In my name" – note at 14:14.

16:24 See 14:13,14. Up until then the disciples had asked Christ directly or else prayed directly to God without using Christ's authority or without considering Him as a mediator. Now through Christ believers have the great joy that comes because God answers their prayers. It is one of the ways they experience His reality and know His grace and love.

16:25 He meant that after His resurrection He would teach them about God the Father. This is a work that was a delight to Him then and still is, one great work He came to do longer speak to you in figurative language but will tell you clearly about the Father. 26 At that time you will ask in my name, and I do not tell you that I will ask the Father for you, 27 for the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. 28 I came from the Father and entered the world. Now I am leaving the world and going to the Father."

29 His disciples said to him, "See, now you are speaking clearly and not speaking in figurative language. 30 Now we are sure that you know all things and do not need any man to ask you anything. Because of this we believe that you came from God."

31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe? 32 Look, the time is coming, yes, has already come, that you will be scattered, each to his own, and will leave me all alone. And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 "These things I have told you so that in me you might have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take courage; I have overcome the world."

17 Jesus spoke these words, raised his eyes to heaven, and said, "Father, the hour has

(1:18; Matt 11:27).

16:26 The meaning seems to be this: it would not be necessary for Him to repeat their requests to God the Father. Praying directly to the Father in His name would be sufficient for them. Of course He was not denying that He would make intercession for them about other matters. See Rom 8:34; Heb 7:25.

16:27 "The Father himself loves you because you have loved me" - this refers to the special "family" love that God has for His people (14:21). Through their faith in Christ believers become the children of God (1:12,13). Jesus is saying here that such may go directly to God and know that God will hear them. Compare Heb 10:19-22. Since believers do not need even Christ Himself to present their requests to God, it is absolutely certain that they need no one else. God is a loving Father to them and gladly gives them all they need when they come directly to Him (Matt 7:11; 2 Cor 9:8; Phil 4:19). No saint, no person of any kind living or dead is needed to persuade God the Father to be kind to His people or to hear their prayers. See also 14:13 and note.

16:28-30 The Lord Jesus had said before this that the Father had sent Him, that He was going to the Father, and that He was not of this world (5:36; 6:38; 8:23; 14:28). For some reason His disciples did not fully understand what He had said, though they believed Jesus had come from God (v 27). Here the truth strikes their minds with more power.

16:31,32 "Will leave me" - Jesus well knew that their faith was still feeble and that they were weak. That same night they fulfilled His words (Matt 26:31,56; Mark 14:50). But though they forsook Him He did not forsake them. As always He went on loving them and praying for them. Compare Matt 12:20; Luke 22:31,32. Afterwards He restored them and went on teaching them and helping them to grow. He was most clearly the good Shepherd (10:11) when they most clearly showed themselves to be bad sheep. His love and care for His people now will be no less.

16:33 "These things" - all that He has been saying from 14:1 onwards.

"Peace" - 14:27. Observe where peace is found. He said "in me." Nowhere else is permanent peace obtainable.

"Tribulation" - He tells them plainly that the life of discipleship is not one of ease and pleasure and success in this world. Christ never promised any of His believers that they would escape tribulation or distress. He warned them of persecution and death for His sake. See 15:18-21; 16:1-4. His faithful servants must follow Him in this and preach the same truth as He did. Compare Acts 14:22; 1 Thess 3:3,4.

"Take courage" - they were to be encouraged, confident, and fearless because of two things: in the midst of trouble they could have peace, and they could know that the final victory belonged to Christ and to them in Christ. Trouble in the world would give way to eternal glory (2 Cor 4:17).

"The world" - He knew that the very next day He would be condemned to death and crucified. Yet He makes a statement like this. It is plainly the word of one who knew He had come from heaven and was going to heaven, and that His death for sinners was not defeat but the foundation for His victory over the world of darkness and evil. Compare Phil 2:8-11; Col 2:15.

17:1 Here we see God the Son on earth as a man (1:14) praying to God the Father in heaven. But v 5 makes it clear that He is speaking as the eternal Son of God. He is a person distinct from the Father, as this whole prayer makes abundantly clear. See also Matt 3:16,17 and Phil 2:6. This prayer is one of the very great and profound chapters in the Bible, perhaps the most remarkable and blessed of all. Jesus prayed as the God-man, as the one Mediator between God and man (1 Tim 2:5), as the great High Priest of His people (Heb 4:14-16; 7:24,25). In this prayer He makes request only for Himself (vs 1, 5), and for believers in Him, not for others (vs 9, 20). He asks only one thing for Himself. For believers He asks for everything they need to insure their salvation and eternal blessedness.

First, He prays that God the Father will keep them (vs 11-16).

Second, He prays that the Father will sanctify them (vs 17-19).

Third, He prays that they might be come. Glorify your Son so that your Son may also glorify you, 2 as you have given him authority over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to all whom you have given him. 3 And this is eternal life, that they might know you the only true God and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

perfectly united with Himself and with each other (vs 21-23).

Fourth, He prays that they might all be brought to heaven at last to see His glory (v 24).

Christ prays only in accordance with God's will, and so God the Father grants all these requests of His Son (see 11:24; 1 John 5:14,15). He prayed that believers might understand that the things He requested for them are theirs and be filled with joy (v 13).

This is the only recorded prayer of any length we have of His in the New Testament. Here we see the matters which are closest to His heart. In this way He teaches us something of what we might pray for when we think of the people of God (though, of course, being mere human beings none of us can use all the language of this prayer). The things He desired for them we should desire.

"The hour has come" – 7:30; 12:23.

"Glorify" – the only thing He asks for Himself. In v 5 He reveals more of what He meant by it. He wished to enter again into the glory that was His before the universe was created, the honor and position and state He laid aside when He came to earth (see Phil 2:5-7; 2 Cor 8:9). He was asking God to raise Him after His death and exalt Him to God's right hand in the glory of heaven. Or we could interpret this in another way: To glorify means to exalt, honor, make one known as great. So Jesus requested the Father to make people on earth aware of His true nature – that He was God incarnate, the Saviour of the world. This was not a selfish grasping after glory and honor (see again Phil 2:5-7). There were very important reasons why Christ asked the Father to glorify Him.

First, the time for it had come. The next day He was to die. It was God's appointed plan that He should leave His glory in heaven and after suffering and dying for sinners should re-enter His glory (Luke 24:26).

Second, He wanted the Father to glorify Him that He might glorify the Father. He was not thinking of His own glory for His own sake. In fact, He would never have considered any glory for Himself whatever if it did not bring glory to the Father (7:18; 8:50). But it would bring no honor to the Father if the enemies of the Son triumphed and death held Him in the grave.

Third, He needed to be glorified to exercise the authority God had given Him and to accomplish His work – v 2.

This He could not do unless He was raised from death to God's right hand. So He wanted to be glorified not merely for the 4 "I have glorified you on the earth. I have finished the work that you gave me to do. 5 And now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory which I had with you before the world was.

6 "I have revealed your name to the men whom Father's sake, but for the sake of all believers. These three things are closely tied together – God's glory, Christ's glory, and the good of God's people.

17:2 "Authority" – or "power" – 3:35; Matt 28:18. See the purpose of His authority (to give eternal life to believers – 3:16; 5:21; 6:40). See what immense authority the Lord Jesus has in this world. He can so arrange circumstances in and among the nations of the world, and so work in the minds and hearts of people that the result will be that all the Father has given Him will infallibly receive eternal life.

17:3 "Eternal life" – 3:16. This is the only time He defined it. It is to know the only true God.

This knowledge of God no one has by nature (see notes at 15:21; 16:3; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 4:17,18). In giving people the gift of eternal life the Lord Jesus enables them to know both God the Father and Himself (compare Matt 11:27. See John 8:19 where He links knowing God with knowing Himself). Eternal life is much more than merely living forever. It means a quality of life – a life in communion with God, knowing God, trusting Him, obeying Him, honoring Him, loving Him, serving Him forever (compare Rev 21:3; 22:3-5). This knowledge of God is direct, a knowledge of enlightenment and experience (2 Cor 4:6).

"Only true God" – Jesus is not excluding Himself and the Holy Spirit; He is excluding all false gods, all idols made by men (see Ps 115:3-8; Isa 44:6,8; 45:18). In fact, He includes Himself when He says that eternal life is knowing Him just the same as knowing God (see 8:19; 14:8,9). Eternal life is in Jesus (1 John 5:11) – indeed, it is Jesus (11:25; 14:6; 1 John 5:20). And we must know Him to have this life. Spiritual knowledge lies at the heart of true Christianity – Eph 4:17,18; 2 Pet 1:3; 3:18. This knowledge Jesus speaks of is nothing like the so-called knowledge that Advaita Vedanta speaks of. See note at 15:21; etc. Those who really know the one true God know themselves to be but men, creations of God, infinitely below God in every way.

17:4 His purpose was always to glorify God the Father, and this purpose He fulfilled (4:34; 7:18; 8:29).

17:5 Here is a clear declaration by Jesus Himself that He lived before the universe came into being, and a plain statement that He is a person distinct from the Father. See also 1:1-3; Micah 5:2. God answered this prayer of His Son. See Acts 2:32,33; 3:13-15; Phil 2:9-11.

17:6 In vs 6-10 He says eight things about His people and adds three more in vs 14,18.

you gave me out of the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me. And they have kept your word. 7 Now they have come to know that all things which you have given me are from you. 8 For I have given to them the words which you gave me, and they have received them and have known with certainty that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me.

9 "I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. 10 And all mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. 11 And now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep through your own name those whom you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are.

All these things are good and all are true of all believers. He does not speak of their sin and failure, the smallness of their faith, their only partial obedience. He does not accuse His people to His Father, He defends them (Rom 8:33,34; 1 John 2:1). He takes the highest possible view of them and presents them to His Father in the best possible light.

"I have revealed your name" - 1:18; Matt 11:27. "Name" indicates nature and attributes. See Ex 34:6,7. Jesus revealed what God is, not merely by words, but in His life and actions.

"Whom you gave me" - He is speaking of those who had believed in Him. God chose them out of the world. Believers are not better by nature than others. They are all from the fallen race of humanity. There was nothing holy or good about them that caused God to choose them (see Rom 3:9,19; Eph 2:1-3). But God called them to leave the world and to follow Christ to the world above (Gal 1:3). They are no longer "of the world" (v 14; Phil 3:20). At first they belonged to God the Father. In a sense all people belong to God for He created them (compare Ezek 18:4). But believers belong to God in a special sense - Acts 18:10; Eph 1:4; 1 Pet 1:2 (compare Ex 19:4-6; Deut 7:6). He chose them before the world came into existence. God gave all of them to the Lord Jesus. Believers are God's gift of love to His Son, a special treasure He gave Him to keep and delight in. Will He not then keep every one of them until all are safe in heaven? The Bible indicates that He will - see vs 11,12; 10:28; etc.

He says believers "obeyed" God's word. They listened to Christ's words which were the very words of God, and they obeyed them. They were not perfect and did not perfectly keep God's word. But the desire and tendency of their lives was to keep it, and Christ, overlooking their failures, says they did keep it. This is true of all believers. What about those who say they are believers yet who do not obey His word? They are not true believers (see 8:31,47; 10:26,27; Matt 7:21; 1 John 2:3,4).

17:7,8 These two verses give us more facts about all believers - they know certain truth, receive it and believe it. They know that God has sent Jesus and was behind all that Jesus did and said. And they gladly accepted the words Christ gave them from the Father. They knew that Jesus Christ is the absolute authority for all they believed. Observe the plural - "words" - in v 8. See also 12:49,50.

Compare Matt 4:4.

17:9 Here is a seventh truth about believers - Christ makes them a very special matter of prayer. He did not (and, in the very nature of the case, He cannot) pray for the world of unbelievers as He prays for them.

17:10 Here is an eighth truth about believers - Christ is glorified through them. His love and mercy are glorified in dying for them. His power and grace are glorified in saving and changing them. His patience is glorified in bearing with them. His name is glorified by their witness in the world, etc. They are weak and sinful but still Christ is glorified through them. This is one great purpose God had in choosing them - Eph 1:5,6,12. Through believers glory comes to both the Father and the Son. We should be conscious of this truth and gladly set out to promote their glory in everything (1 Cor 10:31).

17:11 God gave His own "name" to Jesus (compare 5:26,27). God granted that the nature, power, and authority of God should dwell in His human body (Col 2:9). In this verse we have the first request Jesus made for believers. It is repeated in different words in v 15. He asks God to protect them, to keep them from evil, so that they be not lost as Judas Iscariot was (v 12).

One reason why God needs to keep believers is seen here - they are still "in the world". God chose them "out of" the world (v 6), and they are not "of" the world (v 14), but they are still "in" it, and the world still hates them (v 14). The world is full of temptations, deceiving spirits, and dangers (1 Pet 5:8). It is opposed to truth, faith, love of God and all else precious to believers. See 1 John 5:19. Spiritually speaking it is a dark and dirty place and it is easy to get defiled in it and lose one's way. And believers themselves are often weak and foolish, and struggle with their own sinful natures (Rom 7:18; Gal 5:17; 1 John 1:8) - there is something in them which would betray them to the world and the devil. How, then, can believers be safe?

There is perfect safety because God in answer to the prayers of His Son keeps them - see Luke 22:31; Rom 5:10; Heb 7:25. His almighty power is at work for them - 1 Pet 1:4,5; Prov 18:10. He has begun a good work in them, and will finish it - Phil 1:6. Jesus the Son works with the Father in keeping believers, and it is the absolute will of God that the Lord Jesus keep them (6:39). Will He fail to do God's will in this? Compare 4:34. Believers are sheep put in 12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. I have kept those whom you gave me, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 "And now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world, so that they might have my joy in them to the full. 14 I have given them your word, and the world has hated them,

His care. Will He not preserve them? See 10:28. He prays for them continually. Will His prayers not be heard? See 11:42. The answer to the prayers of Christ are not based on the good behavior of believers, or on their continuing in faith. The opposite of this is true – their good behavior and continuing in faith are dependent on His prayers.

17:12 While on earth the Lord Jesus kept all His believers. He did not keep them from weakness, foolishness, temptations and trials, nor even from all sin (see 18:10,11; 19:25; Luke 22:24,31,32; 24:25; Matt 16:22,23; 26:69-75). But even when they were grievously failing, Jesus was keeping them. He kept them in a state of salvation in spite of their sin. He kept them believing in Him in spite of their weak faith and occasional unbelief. Now Jesus asks God the Father to keep them as He Himself had kept them. Did Jesus fail to keep Judas Iscariot "the son of perdition"? Was there an exception in His keeping of believers? No. Jesus is not saying that God had saved Judas and given Judas to Him and He had lost him.

To make clearer the meaning here perhaps we could translate this last sentence like this: "None of them has been lost. But the son of perdition has been lost so that the Scripture might be fulfilled." Not one of those God gave to Jesus was lost. But one who was among them and counted as one of them was lost. See vs 6-10 for a description of true believers, the kind of people God gave to Jesus. Judas does not fit that description. From the beginning Judas' character made him worthy of destruction. See 6:64,70 where it is clear that Judas was not a believer.

"Son of perdition" – the Greek word translated "perdition" means "destruction" or "utter ruin" or "lostness." "Son of" was the way the Jews spoke to indicate the character of a person, or the destiny of a person. A son of destruction is a man whose character is destructive, a man tied to destruction, and prepared for it (compare Rom 9:22,23). A "son" of destruction is surely not a "son" of God. Judas was not saved and then lost, was not a true believer who became an evil man and betrayer of Jesus. There is no proof that he was ever a true believer – all the evidence points to the opposite of this. And Jesus does not keep all who say they are believers or seem to be believers, but only those who really are believers.

"Fulfilled" – see 13:18; Ps 41:9; 109:4-because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

15 "I am not praying that you should take them out of the world, but that you should keep them from the evil one. 16 They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. 17 Sanctify them through your truth. Your word is truth. 18 As you sent me into the world, even so

13; Zech 11:12,13.

17:13 "Joy" – 15:11; Luke 10:21. This prayer of Jesus rightly understood brings great joy to the hearts of believers. We should have the same joy and confidence Paul revealed in 2 Tim 1:12; 4:18.

17:14 See 15:18,19. Both the Lord Jesus and His believers belong to the kingdom of God, to the world above, to heaven, not to this world (Phil 3:20).

17:15 Why does He want believers to be left in the world? See v 18; 15:27; 2 Cor 4:17; 1 Pet 1:7; 2:9.

"Keep" – v 11.

17:17-19 Here is the second request the Lord Jesus makes for believers. The Greek word here translated "sanctify" has a very wide meaning. Basically it means "to set apart," usually for a good purpose or religious use. It means the same as the Hebrew word translated "sanctify" or "make holy" in the Old Testament (see note at Lev 20:7). It came to mean also "dedicate" or "consecrate", and then "to purify", "to make holy". In what sense did the Lord Jesus use the word here? He may have meant all these, but probably the principal meaning of this prayer for believers is that God would dedicate or consecrate them, set them apart for Himself and His work on earth. This meaning is clearly the one in v 19 (see also 10:36). Jesus did not need to be purified and made holy, but He consecrated Himself to do God's will on earth. And He prayed that God would consecrate believers in this same way. See the words of 15:3 – the disciples were already "clean" before Jesus prayed this prayer for them.

It is true that if believers are to be equipped to do the will of God they need to be purified in their thoughts and motives. So it may be that Jesus was asking for that too for them. But it seems the principal meaning here is this: Christ was praying that His Church as a whole, the body of believers of which He is the Head (Eph 1:22; 4:15; 5:23; Col 1:18) be consecrated by God to be His holy people (1 Pet 2:9). Here in vs 17-19 we can learn seven things about this sanctification.

First, it is something God does in answer to the prayer of Christ. So He infallibly does it (11:42). The answer can be seen later in verses like Jude 1 and 1 Cor 1:2.

Second, it is something God does for all His children (v 20), not for just a select few. If God hears Christ's prayer for some believers He hears it for all of them. If He answers and sanctifies some, then He

I have also sent them into the world. 19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 "I am praying not only for these, but also for those who will believe in me through their words, sanctifies all.

Third, the sanctification of believers is a result of Christ sanctifying Himself (v 19). Christ consecrated Himself to be the sacrifice to take away sin (1:29). Because of that believers are sanctified, set apart, consecrated to God. See Heb 10:10; 13:12. For an Old Testament illustration see Lev 8:10-15,30.

Fourth, the sanctification of believers is something like the sanctification of Christ (v 19). When did Jesus sanctify Himself? See 10:36-38; Heb 10:5-7. When are believers sanctified? When they are united to Christ by faith to become God's temple on earth (Eph 2:21; 1 Cor 3:16).

Fifth, the sanctification of believers has to do with the mission of the church to the world (v 18; 20:21). They are called out of the world (v 6) and are not of the world (v 14), but God sanctifies them to send them back into the world.

Sixth, sanctification is a work God does "by" or "in" (the Greek can mean either) the truth. Notice here what truth is. It is God's Word. And where is God's Word to be found? Only in the Bible. Truth is the means God uses to sanctify believers and it is the sphere in which they live. For references and notes on the inner purity and holiness Christ desires for us see Matt 5:8; Rom 6:11-14; 8:12,13; 2 Cor 7:1; Eph 4:22-24; 5:1-7; Heb 12:14; 1 Pet 1:14-16,22; 1 John 3:3.

Seventh, the sanctification which Christ requested for believers is absolutely essential. If it were not, Christ would not have prayed as He did. He prayed only for those things God wills for believers.

17:20 The Lord Jesus prayed in advance for all believers in all generations. He desired the same things for us now as for His disciples then.

17:21-23 Verse 11. Here is the third request He made for all true believers – oneness. In vs 20-23 we learn the following things about it.

First, it is a oneness that God gives in answer to Christ's prayer (11:42). It is not something men create or that church leaders can establish, and Christ has not asked them to do so.

Second, it is a oneness of a certain kind of people only – true believers, those described in vs 6-10. So it is not an organizational unity that men create and which includes multitudes of nominal Christians to be found in churches in every country.

Third, it is a oneness of all believers without exception, whatever generation they may live in, whatever church they may belong to, whatever their country or race (v 21 – "all").

21 so that they all may be one; as you, Father, are in me and I am in you, that they also may be one in us, so that the world may believe that you sent me.

22 "And the glory which you gave me I have Fourth, this oneness in some ways is like the oneness of God the Father and the Son (v 21). That is, it is a perfect union, a oneness of life.

Fifth, this oneness is actually in the Father and the Son. Obviously this is something far different from organizational unity, and far superior to it. As God was in Christ and Christ in God, so all believers are in them (v 21. See 1 Thess 1:1; Rom 6:5). This is the only kind of oneness Christ prayed for here.

Sixth, this oneness comes about only because Christ is in them (v 23). Believers are joined eternally with Him and with each other. If He is not in them there is nothing men can do to produce the oneness He prayed for. If He is in them there is nothing they need to do to bring it about.

Seventh, this oneness is perfect (v 23).

Eighth, this oneness is connected with the glory Christ has given them (v 22). He does not define this glory, but it may mean the glory of being God's children and His representatives on earth. Or it may mean the glory that is theirs because they are in Christ the glorified One (v 1,5. See also Eph 2:5,6; Col 3:3,4). The fact that Christ has chosen believers for glory in Him makes them one. For God's answer to this prayer see 1 Cor 12:12,13 (see also 1 Cor 6:15,17; Rom 12:5; Eph 1:22; 4:15,16; 5:29-32). The Holy Spirit came and baptized all believers into the spiritual body of Christ and made them one with Him and with each other. Each time an individual believes, Christ's prayer is answered again – the Holy Spirit still unites every believer to Christ and His spiritual body, the true Church of the living God. This oneness is a fact which men can recognize but cannot create, improve on, or destroy.

Ninth, this oneness produces certain results (vs 21,23). "That the world may believe. . . that the world may know" – many people think this has not been the result of the oneness God has created for believers and demand another kind of unity – a unity of all Christians in one Church organization with one earthly head. But there has been a progressive fulfillment of Christ's prayer and desire. When He uttered these words the world outside Israel had heard almost nothing about Him. In one generation His disciples spread the good news all over the Roman Empire and to other places in the world, and multitudes had believed. The process is still going on today wherever Christ's believers stand together to preach the truth. And the end is not yet. At His coming all that He wants the world to know will be fully revealed. It is certain that if the union of all believers in the spiritual body given them, so that they may be one, just as we are one; 23 I in them and you in me, so that they may be made perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me, and have loved them just as you have loved me.

24 "Father, I desire that those whom you have given me, also be with me where I am, so that they may see my glory which you gave me. For you loved me before the foundation of the world.

25 "Righteous Father, the world has not known you, but I have known you, and these have come to know that you sent me. 26 And I have made our name known to them, and will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went away with his disciples over the Kidron valley. A garden was there, which he and his disciples entered. 2 And Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often went there with his disciples. 3 Judas then, taking a group of men, and officers from of Christ has not produced the result He wanted, no union of believers and unbelievers in one super church organization will accomplish it.

Tenth, believers should recognize this oneness they possess and manifest it. This truth is only implied here but taught elsewhere. See Eph 4:1-6.

17:23 God loves believers as much as He loves Christ, the Son of God! Compare Rom 5:8; Eph 2:4; 1 John 3:1,16.

17:24 Here is the fourth request Christ makes for believers. He asks God to make sure that all believers get safely into His presence, to have the vision of His glory. This prayer will certainly be answered as all of Christ's other prayers are answered. Christ's prayers were not mere expressions of hope which may or may not be realized. "Glory" is the final step in the process of their salvation, and because He prayed for it, and because they are united to Him who is glorified, God counts it as already accomplished. Compare Rom 8:29,30; Eph 2:6. See in this verse that God the Father loved Christ the Son before the creation of the world. Again we see a distinction between Father and Son, and the eternal love between them.

17:25 Christ here utters two truths found everywhere in the Bible - God is absolutely righteous, and men in general do not know Him (1:10; 8:19,55; 15:21; 16:3).

17:26 The fact of Christ's living in believers is linked with the revelation He gives them of God the Father. Without the one there will not be the other. On this revelation see v 6; Matt 11:27. Observe also that God's love for Christ is in believers (Rom 5:5; 2 Cor 5:14; 1 John 2:5; 4:12,16).

the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches and weapons.

4 Therefore Jesus, knowing everything that would come upon him, went out and said to them, "For whom are you looking?"

5 They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am." And Judas, who betrayed him, also stood with them.

6 Then as soon as he said to them, "I am," they drew back and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them again, "Who are you looking for?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these go their way," 9 so that these words he spoke might be fulfilled: I have lost none of those whom you gave me.

10 Then Simon Peter drew the sword he had, struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword in the scabbard. Shall I not drink the cup which my Father has given me?"

12 Then the group of men, the commander,

18:1 The Kidron is a valley between the city of Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives to the east of the city. The "garden" was the garden of Gethsemane (Matt 26:36). For other events which took place there see Matt 26:36-46.

18:3 Matt 26:47. The event described in Matt 26:48,49 happened either at this time or after Jesus' words in v 8.

18:4 "Happen to him" - 3:14; 6:64; 13:1,3,11,18; Matt 16:21.

18:5,6 He made no attempt to escape, but boldly confronted His enemies. He knew that His time had come (7:30; 17:1). And He was voluntarily laying down His life (10:17,18).

"I am" - see 8:24,58. Jesus is the great and eternal "I am" revealed in the Old Testament. See Exodus 3:14. Soldiers would not have fallen to the ground unless the power of God was present and caused them to do so. Jesus here demonstrated that He could easily have overcome His enemies and escaped if that had been His desire. Compare Matt 26:53 where He speaks of 12 legions of angels.

18:8 In the time of His great trial His thoughts were for His disciples (compare 13:1).

18:9 See 6:39; 17:12. There the meaning is to preserve them spiritually, to keep them from being lost. Here the meaning is that He kept them from physical danger and trial. But there is no contradiction. In the process of keeping His people from being spiritually lost He keeps them from facing trials and temptations too great for them to bear (compare 1 Cor 10:13).

18:10 Matt 26:51-54.

18:11 Matt 26:39,42.

18:12,13 Only John records the fact that and the Jewish officers seized Jesus, bound him, 13 and led him away first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was the high priest that year. 14 Now Caiaphas was the one who counselled the Jews that it would be good for one man to die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known to the high priest, and he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. 16 But Peter stood outside at the door. Then that other disciple, the one known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the girl on duty at the door, and brought Peter inside.

17 Then the girl on duty at the door said to Peter, "Aren't you also one of this man's disciples?" He said, "I am not."

18 And the servants and officers stood there, having made a charcoal fire, for it was cold and they were warming themselves. And Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching.

20 Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, where the Jews always come, and I have said nothing in secret. 21 Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard me what I said to them. Look, they know what I said."

22 And when he said this, one of the officers who stood nearby slapped Jesus and said, "Do you answer the high priest like that?"

23 Jesus answered him, "If I spoke wrongly, testify about what is wrong, but if I spoke rightly, why do you strike me?"

24 Now Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. Then they said to him, "Aren't you also one of his disciples?" He denied it, and said, "I am not."

26 One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the one whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"

27 Peter then denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

28 Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the palace of the Roman governor, and it was early morning. They themselves did not go into the palace, to keep from being defiled, so that they could eat the Passover.

29 Then Pilate went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

30 They answered and said to him, "If he were not an evildoer, we would not have handed him over to you."

31 Then Pilate said to them, "You take him and judge him according to your Law." Then the Jews said to him, "We are not allowed to put anyone to death."

32 So that the word of Jesus, which he spoke they brought Jesus to Annas before taking Him on to Caiaphas (v 24). Annas had also been high priest (Luke 3:2; Acts 4:6).

18:14 See 11:49-52.

18:15 The Bible does not tell us who this other disciple was, but many Bible scholars believe he was John. See 20:2,3,4,8.

18:17 See 13:38; Matt 26:69-75.

18:19 He was trying to find something with which to accuse Jesus. The high priest was not conducting this enquiry according to Jewish law. According to that law witnesses for the defense of the accused should have been called first, then witnesses for the prosecution.

18:20,21 Jesus meant that they should have proceeded according to the law and called witnesses. He had taught in public and many had heard Him. Even the things He said to His disciples privately were not secret things contrary to His public teaching.

18:22 This too was illegal.

18:23 The Lord Jesus is saying again that they (who claimed to uphold the law) should conduct the investigation according to the law.

18:24 It is almost certain that Caiaphas was in another part of the same building. The building was the palace of the high priest (v 15).

18:25-27 Matt 26:71-75.

18:28 Matt 27:1,2.

"So they could eat the Passover" - Exodus chapter 12. See the hypocrisy of these Jews. They had plotted to kill the Son of God, and had acted contrary to their own law in an attempt to condemn Him. But here they were worried about ceremonially defiling themselves by entering the house of someone who was not a Jew (the Jews regarded Romans and all non-Jews and their houses "unclean." Compare Acts 10:28). This was more important in their eyes than the awful uncleanness that comes from sin in the heart (compare Matt 15:1,2,16-20; 23:25-28). There are many religious people today very much like them - zealous for ceremonies but careless about ethics and morals. See also Isa 1:11-17.

18:29 "What accusation" - a reasonable question since they brought Jesus to Pilate for judgment.

18:30 This was an unreasonable answer. See what these hypocrites called the Lord Jesus without the slightest evidence for it - "evildoer."

18:31 The Romans, who ruled the country, permitted the Jews to judge certain kinds of cases, but not to crucify offenders. And these Jews wanted Jesus to die on a cross, condemned by the Romans.

18:32 See 3:14; 8:28; 12:32,33.

to indicate what death he would die, might be fulfilled. 33 Then Pilate went back into the palace, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

34 Jesus answered him, "Are you saying this on your own, or did others tell you about me?"

35 Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?"

36 Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, so that I would not be delivered up to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here."

37 So Pilate said to him, "Are you a king, then?" Jesus answered, "You rightly say that I am a king. For this reason I was born, and for this reason I came into the world, that I might testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth pays attention to my voice."

38 Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" And when he had said this, he went back out to the Jews and said to them, "I find no fault at all in him. 39 But you have a custom that I should release to you one prisoner at the Passover. So do you want me to 18:33 The Jews accused Jesus of trying to set Himself up as a king and of rebelling against the Roman rule in Judea (see Luke 23:1,2). So this question.

18:34 Jesus wanted Pilate to be more clear and specific in his question. Was Pilate asking whether Jesus was trying to be a worldly king with the purpose of overthrowing Roman rule, or some other kind of king?

18:35 Pilate is saying he knows nothing except what the Jews have said to him. He does not want to accept their accusations without evidence and so questions Jesus.

18:36 "My kingdom" – Jesus is saying that His kingdom is heavenly and spiritual and not political and military (note at Matt 4:17). As evidence He says that His followers did not prevent the Jews from arresting Him; and how could he be a political ruler of the Jews when it was the Jews who arrested Him?

"Now. . .not from here" – does not the word "now" suggest that things will be different at some time in the future? Compare Rev 19:11-16.

18:37 As the king in God's spiritual kingdom Jesus sends forth the truth, not armies. He wants to conquer men's hearts and minds with spiritual power, not their lands with physical force. Everywhere in this Gospel there is this emphasis on truth (1:14,18; 3:21; 4:24; 8:32; 14:6,17; 16:13; 17:17). See what the Lord says here – everyone who wants the truth, loves the truth, and practices the truth, will listen to Christ and do what He says. Everyone. The opposite is, of course, true – they who do not want the truth will not listen to Him. Compare 8:47; 2 Thess 2:10.

18:38 Pilate did not wait for an answer. And release to you the King of the Jews?"

40 Then they all cried out again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas." Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 So then Pilate took Jesus and had him whipped. 2 And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on his head. And they put on him a purple robe, 3 and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they struck him with their hands.

4 Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you, so that you may know that I find no fault in him."

5 Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, "See the man!"

6 So when the chief priests and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "You take him and crucify him, for I find no fault in him."

7 The Jews answered him, "We have a Law, and by our Law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

8 Therefore, when Pilate heard that statement, there is no reason to think that he wanted an answer, or cared about the truth. That is the real tragedy of Pilate (and of many today also). Pilate knew very well there was no evidence that Jesus had committed any crime (19:4,6; Matt 27:18,23; Luke 23:4,13,14).

18:39,40 See Matt 27:15-21; Luke 23:19.

19:1 We see how much Pilate cared for truth – he ordered punishment for a person he knew was completely innocent.

19:2,3 Matt 27:27-30.

19:5 Pilate's purpose was to show how absurd it was to accuse Jesus of leading a rebellion against Rome. And so he tries to display Him as weak and helpless, more deserving of pity than condemnation and crucifixion.

19:6 Nothing would move the hearts of these hardened sinners to show compassion or to seek justice. When Pilate told them to crucify Jesus he must have been speaking with anger and sarcasm. Both he and they knew that they had no authority to crucify anyone (18:31).

19:7 This too showed their utter disregard for truth. They were twisting the law they referred to here (Lev 24:16). It is true that if Jesus (or anyone else) was not really God's Son and yet said He was God's Son, or God, He was a blasphemer and worthy of death. But all the evidence pointed to the truth that He really is God's Son, and since that is true there was no law forbidding Him to say so. See also 5:18; 10:31-36; Matt 26:63-66.

19:8 The Romans on the whole were a superstitious people and believed in a great many gods. They believed also that the gods sometimes came down as men, and that in he was even more afraid, 9 and went back into the palace and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then Pilate said to him, "You are not speaking to me? Don't you know that I have power to crucify you and power to release you?"

11 Jesus answered, "You could have no power at all against me unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who handed me over to you has the greater sin."

12 And from then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend. Whoever makes himself a king is denying Caesar."

13 Therefore, when Pilate heard that statement, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 And it was the day of The Preparation of the Passover, and about six o'clock. And he said to the Jews, "See your King!"

15 But they cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

16 So then he handed him over to them to be such cases it was not easy to recognize them. It is likely that Pilate began to fear that the innocent, dignified, patient Jesus was some kind of "god."

19:9 Jesus had already told Pilate where He was from and why He had come (18:36,37). He had no more to say about this to a person who did not want the truth.

19:10 It seems that Pilate's pride was offended. The rulers of this world often like to think they are great and powerful and can do as they please.

19:11 Jesus is not silent about Pilate's mistaken view of things. "From above" means from heaven, from God. God is the great king over all the earth and Pilate could do nothing if God did not permit it. Compare psalm 2; 47:1,2; Isa 40:21-23; Dan 4:34,35. Pilate sinned grievously in all this, but the one who handed Jesus over to Pilate (Caiaphas the high priest - 18:28) sinned even more. In committing sin there can be various degrees of guilt. Compare Luke 12:47,48.

19:12 It seems Pilate became convinced that Jesus was at the very least a man of God, and he worried about putting Him to death. Caesar was the emperor of the Roman Empire, the person who had appointed Pilate as governor of Judea. If Caesar thought Pilate was opposing him and promoting some kind of rebellion, it would be the end of Pilate, and Pilate well knew it.

19:15 "No king but Caesar" - again the hypocrisy and sinfulness of these Jewish leaders is revealed. They hated the rule of Rome over their country. And they knew crucified. And they took Jesus and led him away. 17 And he, bearing his cross, went out to a place called The Place of a Skull, which is called Golgotha in Hebrew.

18 There they crucified him, and two others with him, one on each side and Jesus in the middle.

19 And Pilate wrote an inscription and had it put on the cross. And this is what was written:

JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 Then many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

21 Then the Jewish chief priests said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'He said, I am the King of the Jews.'"

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his clothes and divided them into four parts, a part to each soldier, and also his tunic. Now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. 24 So they said among themselves, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it, to determine whose it shall be," so that the Scripture might be that according to their own Scriptures God was king over Israel (Ex 19:3-6; Deut 33:5; 1 Sam 8:7; Ps 10:16; 149:2). To get the Lord Jesus crucified they were willing to say anything no matter how outrageous. But in saying those words they were unconsciously uttering a truth - they had completely rejected the rule of God in their lives, and God was not king in their hearts.

19:16 Pilate knew Jesus was innocent and he was afraid he was making a grave mistake. It was his duty to judge justly. But his knowledge, fears, and duties were as nothing before another fear he had - the fear of offending Caesar and losing his position. Being gripped by that fear, truth and justice had no chance with him (compare Prov 29:25). Pilate did not have the fear of the Lord which would have kept him from condemning the innocent. Anyone who fears men more than God, or loves his position more than truth is in terrible spiritual peril and in grave danger of God's judgment.

19:17-22 Matt 27:31-38. John says Jesus carried His own cross. He started out with it, but along the way the soldiers compelled someone else to carry it. Only John mentions that the "accusation" against Jesus was written in three languages, and that the Jews protested to Pilate about the wording of it. God used Pilate to write a truth Pilate himself did not understand, for Jesus was indeed the Messiah of Israel, the great King promised in the Old Testament (note at Matt 1:1).

19:23,24 "Cast lots" - Ps 22:18.

fulfilled, which says,

They divided my clothing among them,
and cast lots for my garment.

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

25 Now near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Woman, see your son."

27 Then he said to the disciple, "See your mother." And from that time that disciple took her to his own home.

28 After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst."

29 Now a jar full of sour wine was standing there, and they soaked a sponge in the sour wine, put it on a hyssop stick, and put it to his mouth.

30 So when Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, "It is finished," and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

31 Then, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was an important day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. 32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other who had been crucified with him. 33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs, 34 but one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out.

35 And he who saw this has given testimony,

19:25 This sister was probably the Salome mentioned in Mark 15:40, the mother of Zebedee's sons, mentioned in Matt 27:56. If so, she was John's own mother.

"Magdalene" – 20:10-18; Luke 8:2; Matt 28:1. The word indicates that this Mary was from the town of Magdala.

19:26,27 "The disciple whom he loved" – 13:23. Even in that hour when Jesus was suffering and dying for the sins of the world, He thought of the needs of someone else. When He said to this disciple "Here is your mother" He was not saying that Mary was the "mother" or patroness of all God's people (such an idea is utterly without basis in the Bible). It means simply that He knew Mary's need of a home and put her in the care of a trusted disciple. From this it seems that by then Mary's husband Joseph was dead.

19:28,29 See Ps 69:21. Many prophecies of the Old Testament were fulfilled in the sufferings and death of Christ. Nothing happened by accident, everything had some purpose of God. Remember that Jesus was suffering in the place of sinners, bearing their punishment (references at v 30). His thirst on the cross was a part of that. Compare Luke 16:22-24. Jesus thirsted that believers might have the water of life (4:14; 7:37,38; Rev 22:17), and not thirst in eternity (Rev 7:16,17).

19:30 What was finished? Surely He meant that the whole purpose which brought Him into the world was accomplished (4:34). This purpose He Himself expressed in different words at different times. See 3:14-17; 6:51; 10:10,11,15,17; 12:23,24,31-33; 17:4; 18:11 (Matt 26:39); Matt 20:28. John the Baptist put it like this: "The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (1:29). Other writers of the New Testament put it in other words. See Rom 3:25; 5:8; 1 Cor 15:3; 2 Cor 5:15,19; Gal 1:4; Eph 5:2; Phil 2:8; Col 1:20-22; 1 Tim 1:15; Heb 1:3; 2:14,17; 9:12,14,15; 10:10,14; 13:12; 1 Pet 2:24; 3:18; 1 John 4:9,10; Rev 1:5,6.

"It is finished" means His sacrifice and sufferings for sinners were finished. He had taken away the sin of the world. He had redeemed His people with His blood. He had made salvation and liberation from sin possible for everyone. This work is finished. All that is left for sinners to do to gain salvation is to repent and truly believe the gospel (Mark 16:15,16; Luke 24:46,47). Since the work He came to do was finished, there was no need for Him to remain any longer suffering on the cross. So He voluntarily released His spirit. Compare 10:17,18; Luke 23:46.

19:31 Verse 14; Deut 21:22,23. They did not want the land defiled by a dead body left overnight on the cross. They were not concerned that they themselves were horribly defiled by their murder of God's Son. Compare 18:28; Matt 23:24. Usually Romans left the bodies of crucified criminals on their crosses as a warning to others.

"That they might be taken away" – breaking the legs brought death more quickly to those who were crucified. It caused their bodies to sag, and their chests to constrict. This made breathing much more difficult and brought on death by suffocation. The Jews wanted to make sure Jesus was dead before evening.

19:33 The Lord Jesus died earlier than anyone expected. See Mark 15:44,45.

19:34 It seems the soldiers thought there might possibly have been a spark of life left in Jesus and wanted to make sure of His death. This spear thrust alone would have killed Him if He had not died earlier. Any flow of blood and water from a body, as described here, is unusual. This event can remind us of the water of life Jesus gives (4:34; 7:37,38), and that His shed blood alone makes it available to us. Also we should note that in the Old Testament blood was for atonement (Lev 17:11), water was for cleansing (Ex 29:4; 30:18-20). Compare also 1 John 5:6-8.

19:35 It seems the writer of this Gospel is and his testimony is true, and he knows that he speaks the truth, so that you might believe. 36 For these things were done that this Scripture might be fulfilled:

Not one of his bones will be broken.

37 And again another Scripture says,
They will look on him whom they pierced.

38 And after this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took the body of Jesus.

39 And Nicodemus came also (the man who at first came to Jesus by night), and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a forty-five kilograms in weight. 40 Then they took the body of Jesus, and wrapped it in strips of linen, with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is in burying.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had ever been placed. 42 So they placed Jesus there because of the Jewish Preparation Day, for the tomb was nearby.

speaking of himself. As one who actually saw what happened he declares that Jesus was dead and that this unusual event occurred.

19:36 See Ex 12:46; Num 9:12; Ps 34:20. 19:37 Zech 12:10.

19:38-42 See Matt 27:57-60; Mark 15:42-46; Luke 23:50-54. Only John says that Joseph had kept his faith secret while Jesus lived.

"Nicodemus" – 3:1,2; 7:50,51. Christ's closest disciples were nowhere to be seen at this time (compare v 19), but these two who had tried to hide their faith now come out into the open. It is probable that the things they saw and heard at the crucifixion strengthened their faith in Jesus. The large amount of spices (v 39) would have been very expensive, and is an indication of the love and high regard Nicodemus had for the Lord Jesus.

20:1 The authors of all four Gospels record the great fact of the resurrection of Christ. However, they do not use the same words or write all the same details or refer to all the same individuals who appear in one or another of the Gospels. For example, here John speaks of Mary Magdalene coming to the tomb, but Matthew says that another Mary came with her. Mark says Salome also came along, and Luke wrote of several women and names Joanna. Which of these accounts is correct? All of them. Saying that one of them came to the tomb is not the same as saying that the others did not. (See the note at Mark 4:1-20.)

20 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. 2 Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord away from the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him."

3 Therefore Peter and that other disciple set out, going to the tomb. 4 So they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and arrived at the tomb first. 5 And stooping down and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying there, but he did not go in. 6 Then Simon Peter, following him, arrived and went into the tomb, and saw the strips of linen lying there. 7 And he saw the cloth that had been around his head, not lying with the strips of linen, but rolled together in a place by itself. 8 Then that other disciple, who had first reached the tomb, also went in, and he saw and believed.

9 For they still did not understand the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. 10 Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

11 But Mary stood outside at the tomb, weeping. And as she wept, she stooped down 20:2 "We – she is including the other women who had come with her. They did not understand that the Lord Jesus would rise from the dead and supposed that His enemies had removed His body. Indeed, none of His disciples had understood His words or the Old Testament Scriptures about His resurrection.

20:3 They knew that the disciples had not removed His body and they wanted to find out what had happened. We should be as eager as they to know the true facts about it. They are given to us in the New Testament.

20:6-8 Joseph and Nicodemus had wrapped these strips of linen around the body of Jesus (19:40). If men had come to steal the body it is not at all likely they would have neatly removed these strips and folded the burial cloth that had been around His head. They would have been in a hurry and would either have taken the body wrapped up as it was, or would have torn the linen strips and the cloth off and let them fall anywhere. John immediately understood this and believed that Jesus had risen from the dead.

20:9 See Ps 16:10; Isa 53:10-12; 1 Cor 15:4.

20:11 This was Mary Magdalene (v 18). She followed the disciples back to the tomb and became the first to see the Lord Jesus after He rose from the dead. It is interesting that His first appearance was to her and not to His mother or to any of the apostles. He had compassion on a woman whose knowledge was little and whose faith was weak, and looked into the tomb, 12 and saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and the other at the foot.

13 And they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have put him."

14 And when she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and did not know that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She, thinking he was the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him off, tell me where you have put him, and I will take him away."

16 Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned around and said to him, "Rabboni!" (which is to say, Teacher).

but whose love was strong.

20:12 The other women who had come at first with Mary had seen only one angel. That one was outside the tomb seated on a stone (Matt 28:1-7). The two Mary saw were inside the tomb and had not been there when Peter and the other disciple went in. They probably had the appearance of men. Note on angels at Gen 16:7.

20:13 The Jewish people placed much emphasis on the proper burial of the dead. Mary was grieved, thinking that grave robbers had been at work and had shown disrespect to the dead body of Jesus.

20:14 See also 21:4; Matt 28:17; Luke 24:16,37. It seems that after His resurrection Jesus did not look exactly the same as He did before it, so Mary did not immediately recognize Him. And of course she was not expecting to see Him at all. It is also possible that her head was bent as she wept and she did not look at His face.

20:15 Jesus well knew the answer to this. Compare 6:5,6; 11:34. Was there a gentle rebuke in this question? Compare Luke 24:5. (Sometimes in their ignorance of what God is doing Christ's disciples weep when they should rejoice.)

"Gardener" – the tomb was in a garden (19:41) and Mary might have expected a gardener to be about the place.

20:16 She had not recognized Him but she knew His voice, and realized also that no strange man could call her by name. Perhaps the moment of recognition came when she turned again and looked more closely at Him.

20:17 "Do not cling to me" – Mary probably fell on the ground and grasped His feet. Compare Matt 28:9. Jesus' reply seems to mean this: "You do not need to hold on to me. I am not going away immediately. You will have an opportunity to see me again." Or it may possibly mean – "Do not try to keep me here on earth. I must ascend to heaven to completely fulfill God's plan for the salvation of men."

17 Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to my Father. But go to my brethren and tell them that I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her.

19 Then on the evening of the same day, it being the first day of the week, while the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

20 And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then Jesus said to them again, "Peace be to you. As my Father has sent me, even so I send "Brothers" – this almost certainly refers to His disciples, not His brothers according to the flesh (2:12; 7:3,5,10). Compare Matt 12:47-50; Heb 2:10-12.

"I am ascending" – 14:28; Mark 16:14; Luke 24:51; Acts 1:9-11.

"My Father. . .your God" – Jesus did not say "Our Father and our God." God is the Father of Jesus in a different way than He is the Father of believers. Jesus is the eternal Son of God (1:1,14,18); believers are frail human beings, made children of God only by God's grace shown in the new birth (1:12,13).

20:18 Mary Magdalene became the first to bear witness to others of the resurrection of Jesus.

20:19 "Fear" – a short time before they had seen Jesus crucified by their enemies, and they did not know what was going on concerning Him. Remember too that they were not yet filled with the Holy Spirit – an event which removes fear and gives great boldness.

"Jesus came" – Christ's body risen from the dead could go through locked doors. That body was the same body as before (vs 20,27), but greatly changed. Evidently He could appear and disappear as He pleased (Luke 24:31,36,37). See 1 Cor 15:42-44; Phil 3:21.

"Peace" – a word in accordance with His purpose for coming to earth (Luke 2:13,14; 14:27).

20:20 Verse 27. He was proving to them that He was indeed their Lord Jesus and that His crucified body had risen from the dead. Compare Luke 24:36-43. Their rejoicing when they saw Him fulfilled His word to them in 16:20-22. All their joy and hopes had died when He died (Luke 24:21). Now they spring to life again at His resurrection. Compare 1 Pet 1:3.

20:21 "I send you" – see 17:18; Matt 28:18-20; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:46-48. He would send His disciples forth with authority to represent Him as He represented God you.”

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 The sins of everyone you forgive are forgiven them; the sins of anyone you do not forgive are held unforgiven.”

24 But Thomas called Didymos, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 So the other disciples said to him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the print of the nails in his hands, and put my finger into the nail prints, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.”

the Father. They would go with the same gospel He preached. And like Him they would go with God’s Spirit (v 22).

20:22 This symbolic action signified that He was the source of life, power, and the Holy Spirit. He was sending them forth and He would spiritually qualify them for the work they had to do. It is interesting to compare this verse with Gen 2:7. It would seem that in some sense they now received the Holy Spirit. This does not mean that they had not had the Spirit with them before. Even in Old Testament times believers knew something of the presence and work of God’s Spirit (Ex 31:3; Jud 3:10; 1 Sam 10:6; 16:13; 2 Sam 23:2; Ps 51:11; etc). But now the Lord Jesus was giving God’s Spirit in a new way. It is likely that at this time they were given special wisdom and understanding in the Scriptures. Compare Luke 24:45. He may have been giving the Spirit as an indwelling presence (7:39; 14:17). And it is clear that He was giving them authority to minister as His representatives. Later He would grant them the Spirit in an even greater measure (Acts 1:4,5; 2:1-4).

20:23 Compare Matt 16:19; 18:15-18. The Lord Jesus was speaking to the representatives and human founders of His church. This means that the Church on earth (made up of all true believers in Christ), having received God’s Spirit, will be able to proclaim what sort of men are forgiven and what sort are not forgiven. The Greek here could be translated something like this: “Those whose sins you forgive have already been forgiven; those whose sins you let remain unforgiven have not been forgiven.” The meaning is: It is God in heaven who forgives sin or not (note at Mark 2:7. See also Ps 103:3; 130:4). And it is God who determines what sort of people shall be forgiven and what sort will not be. And He has already determined this – Luke 24:46,47; Acts 10:43; 13:38,39; Eph 1:7; 1 John 1:9. God forgives those who repent and trust in Christ. Forgiveness is a gift of His grace. It is the work of the Church to proclaim this truth.

Compare 2 Sam 12:13 for something similar in the Old Testament. God said of prophets in the Old Testament that they would do things when the meaning plainly 26 And after eight days his disciples were again inside, and Thomas was with them. The doors were locked but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, “Peace be to you.”

27 Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and reach your hand here and put it into my side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing.”

28 And Thomas answered and said to him, “My Lord and my God.”

29 Jesus said to him, “Thomas, because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

is that they would declare them (see Jer 25:15-26). And this is true in the case of the apostles. By preaching Christ’s gospel they opened the door of forgiveness to all who would believe, they shut the door to all those who would not believe. They pointed individuals to God who forgives sins. In Matt 6:12; Luke 11:4 the Lord Jesus taught us whom we should ask for forgiveness of sins. The Church or any member of it can say to anyone on earth “If you repent and believe in the Lord Jesus all your sins are forgiven; if you do not repent and believe they are not forgiven.” And they can say to all believers “If you confess your sins to God He will forgive you and cleanse you from all unrighteousness.” Christ did not appoint from among Christians any special group of people as priests who alone could pronounce such truth. All believers in Christ are priests, all can speak the truth of forgiveness (see 1 Pet 2:5,9).

20:25 This is why he is sometimes called “Doubting Thomas.” He should have been willing to believe the testimony of the other disciples. But the desire for certainty is not to be condemned.

20:26 Verse 19.

20:27 See how loving and compassionate the Lord is even to weak and doubting disciples. He was showing him (and all of them) a real body with the unmistakable marks of crucifixion still on it. And Jesus insisted that Thomas accept the evidence for His resurrection. “Do not be unbelieving but believing” is a word that comes to all of us today.

20:28 God turns His people’s failures to some good. Because of the doubts of Thomas, and Christ’s revealing Himself to him, we have this great expression of faith. Thomas, as a Jew instructed in the Old Testament, and taught by Jesus Himself for three years, knew very well that there was only one God and that to have any other god was the worst of sins (Matt 4:10; Ex 20:1-4; Deut 6:4,5; Isa 43:11; 44:6; 45:5). When he called Jesus “Lord” and “God” he was expressing his conviction that Jesus was the incarnation of the one true God, the Jehovah of the Old Testament. See also 1:1,14,18; 5:17,18; 8:24,58; 10:30-33; other references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

20:29 See how the Lord Jesus accepts his

30 And indeed Jesus performed many other miraculous signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. 31 But these are written that you might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that, believing, you might have life through his name.

21 After these things Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the lake of Tiberias, and he revealed himself in this way: 2 Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples of Jesus were together.

3 Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing." They said to him, "We will also go with you." They went out and immediately got into a boat. And that night they caught nothing. 4 But when morning came, Jesus was standing on the shore, but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus said to them, "Children, do you have any food?" They answered him, "No."

6 And he said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." So they cast it there, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the large number of fish.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had removed it), and threw himself into the lake. 8 And the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about a hundred meters), dragging the net with fish.

9 As soon as they reached land, they saw a charcoal fire there, and fish laid on it, and bread.

10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught."

11 Simon Peter went up to the boat, and dragged the net full of large fish to land. They totaled a hundred and fifty-three, but though there were so many, the net was not broken.

12 Jesus said to them, "Come and eat." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are words. In other words, He agrees with Thomas that He is Lord and God. If Jesus did not know He is Lord and God it is inconceivable that He would have done this. Mere men, if they are good men, do not accept divine honors (compare Acts 14:13-15).

"Blessed" – this blessing comes on all of us today who believe as Thomas did – that Jesus rose from the dead and that He is Lord and true God and that He is that to us. Compare Rom 10:9,10. (On "blessed" and "blessing" see notes at Gen 12:3; Num 6:23-27; Ps 1:1-3; 119:1; Matt 5:3-10; etc.) The opposite is also true – God cannot pronounce His blessing on those who do not believe this. See 3:18,36; 8:24.

20:30 "Many other" – 21:25. Some of these signs are recorded in the other Gospels. John made a special selection of Jesus' miraculous signs for a special purpose.

"Signs" – 2:11.

20:31 Here are three very important truths.

First, there is something wonderful to believe – that Jesus is the one anointed by God as the Messiah of Israel, the Saviour of the world, and that He is God's Son sharing God's very nature (notes at Matt 1:1; etc).

Second, there are very good reasons for believing this – the miraculous signs Jesus gave, including His resurrection from the dead.

Third, there is the result of believing this – life, true spiritual life, eternal life in His name (3:16,36; 5:24; 6:47). In this way John sums up several of the most important truths of this Gospel.

21:1 "Tiberias" – another name for the Sea of Galilee. He had told His disciples to go to Galilee (Matt 28:7,10). After His resurrection Jesus spent forty days with His disciples in various places (Acts 1:3).

21:2 The sons of Zebedee were James and John (Matt 10:2).

21:3 The bodily presence of the Lord Jesus was not always with them in those days. The disciples were poor men who had always worked for a living (Matt 4:18-22; Acts 3:6). Peter's purpose may have been to earn some money for their expenses while they waited for the Lord to appear. There is no indication in these verses that any of them intended to abandon the Lord's work. And there is nothing wrong with those who preach the gospel while having another job to earn a living (Acts 18:3; 20:34,35; 2 Thess 3:7-10).

21:4 See 20:15; Luke 24:17.

21:5 "Children" – 13:33.

21:6 For a similar miracle see Luke 5:4-10. The Lord Jesus knows the place of every fish in the sea and every star in the sky (Isa 40:26). There is a lesson here for "fishers of men" (Matt 4:19). If Christ does not direct and bless their efforts their labor is without result. He knows where all future believers are and how to reach them.

21:7 Peter's attitude at this miracle was quite different than it was at the other (Luke 5:8). He had learned many things since then, both about himself and about the Lord Jesus.

21:9 The Lord from heaven was cooking breakfast for His disciples. Compare 13:3-5; Matt 20:28. See also Luke 12:35-37. His heart, His love, His desire to help them were not changed.

21:11 The disciples would have been able to sell these fish and have money for expenses. And the Lord even kept the net from being torn. Many times since then, in all generations and in miraculous ways, the Lord has provided for His servants. Matt 6:31-33 and Phil 4:19 give truth for all time.

21:12 Compare Rev 3:20. Here the you?" knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then came, took the bread and gave it to them, and also the fish.

14 This was now the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead.

15 So when they had eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord. You know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs."

disciples were surely filled with awe and wonder in the presence of the risen Son of God, and hardly knew what to say.

21:13 Not only did He cook the food, He served them as well. His resurrection did not remove His humility and His desire to serve men (Heb 13:8).

21:14 "Third time" – this means His appearances to a group of His original disciples. There were other appearances to the women and to others – 20:19,26.

21:15-17 Peter had denied the Lord three times (18:17,25,27). How terribly he felt about it is indicated in Matt 26:75. Now three times the Lord questions him about his love. This must have brought to Peter's mind his denials and his self-confidence which led to them. And it was good for him to face himself and recognize his weakness and folly and sin. It was especially Peter whom Satan "sifted" (Luke 22:31). So now it was especially Peter whom the Lord dealt with. But in dealing with Peter He was teaching the other disciples (and us) very important truth. Though the Lord did reawaken Peter's grief, that was not His chief purpose – which was to restore and confirm his commission.

"These" – in the Greek here, as in the English, it is not possible to know whether Jesus meant "these men" or "these things." So this phrase could be interpreted in three different ways – "Do you love me more than these disciples love me?", or, "Do you love me more than you do these disciples?" or, "Do you love me more than fish and fishing?"

The first of these interpretations seems most likely. Peter had been very outspoken in his affection for Christ (13:37), and compared himself very favorably with the other disciples (Matt 26:33). Jesus' question seems to mean "Now, after your bitter experience, after learning something of your weakness, will you be inclined to say you love me more than these others do?" The second of the possible interpretations is not likely, but compare Matt 10:37,38. It is also possible to love human friends more than we love the Lord from heaven.

If we take the third interpretation given above, the meaning would be something like this: "Do you prefer the old life and its ways to me and my ways? Are you willing to reconfirm the decision you made when you became my disciple?" (v 19; Matt 4:18-20; 19:27).

16 Again he said to him the second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord. You know that I love you." He said to him, "Take care of my sheep."

17 He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know all things. You know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. 18 Truly, truly I say to you,

Whatever meaning we take, one thing is perfectly clear. In the relationship of a disciple with the Lord Jesus one matter is of supreme importance – love for Him. Compare 1 Cor 13:1-3; 16:22. In proportion to the love we have for Him we will be able to serve Him acceptably.

There are a number of motives that cause people in Christian work to do what they do. The motive may be simply to have a job, a career; or simply to make money; or a sense of duty; or a desire to do some good in the world. But the only motive that can satisfy Christ is the one He speaks of here – love for Him. Motive is extremely important in Christian work. Without the proper one, on the day of judgment no doubt it will be seen that all religious activities have been nothing but "wood, hay and straw" (1 Cor 3:12,13), or even worse than these.

"Feed my lambs" – this means that Peter was to nourish new and inexperienced believers with the Word of God (see 1 Pet 2:2). Notice the order here – first love, then service. Love must be expressed in action. See 14:15,23. If we love Christ we will love His people (1 John 4:20). Service without love is terribly defective (1 Cor 13:1-3).

21:16 "Take care of" – this means more than simply to feed. It means to be a loving shepherd to Christ's people, to look after their welfare in every way, especially in spiritual matters. In saying this was Jesus elevating Peter above the other disciples? Not at all. They too, and many others besides, were to be teachers, shepherds, and feeders of God's flock – see Eph 4:11-13; 1 Pet 5:1-4. And Christ alone is the Chief Shepherd.

21:17 "Third time" – perhaps he was grieved because he remembered his three denials of the Lord, or because he felt the Lord was doubting that he loved Him.

"You know all things" – compare 2:24,25; Heb 4:13. Peter's saying this indicates his belief that Jesus was God incarnate. Who else knows all things? And Jesus accepted these words as He did the words of Thomas in 20:28.

"Sheep" – this probably means mature believers. Compare v 15. No believer ever gets so mature that spiritual food is no longer needed, or that he cannot still get such food from other servants of God.

21:18,19 Here the Lord indicated that Peter when you were young, you fastened your belt around you and went wherever you wanted to go. But when you get old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten your belt and take you where you will not want to go."

19 He said this, indicating the kind of death by which he would glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he said to him, "Follow me."

20 Then Peter, turning around, saw coming behind them the disciple whom Jesus loved, who also had leaned against his chest at supper and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays you?"

21 Peter, seeing him, said to Jesus, "Lord, and what will this man do?"

would grow old and die. It is not easy to reconcile this with the teaching that Christ could have come back any moment during the lifetime of the apostles. After uttering this prophecy could the Lord have returned before Peter grew old and died?

"Glorify God" – earlier Peter denied Christ, but he would be steadfast in death and at last fulfill his own word (13:37). According to tradition Peter died by crucifixion. Christ's last word to Peter here was like His first words to him (Matt 4:18,19), and confirmed His original call to be a disciple.

21:20 See 13:23. The disciple whom Jesus loved was one of the seven who went fishing (vs 2,3). We know he was not Peter, and it is unlikely he was any of the others, except John himself.

21:21 The meaning seems to be – "What is his future? Will he also grow old and be led where he does not want to go? If I am to die by violence, will my brother John go the same way?"

21:22 There is a rebuke here that is a warning to every servant of God. The Lord reminded Peter that his chief concern should be his own present responsibility toward the Lord, not the future of someone else. Jesus is not teaching here that we should not have a loving concern for fellow believers (compare 13:34; 1 Cor 12:25,26; Gal 6:2). But one may have an improper curiosity about Christ's plans for others. And it is all

22 Jesus said to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me."

23 Then this statement went around among the brethren, that that disciple would not die. But Jesus did not tell him that he would not die, but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple who testifies of these things, and wrote these things. And we know that his testimony is true. 25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did. If every one of them would be written down, I suppose even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. Amen.

too possible to be taken up with what others may do and neglect one's own duty simply to follow the Lord.

21:23 "To you" – how careful we should be in trying to interpret the words of the Lord Jesus! Here is an illustration of how a simple statement of Jesus can be misunderstood and twisted in meaning by adding a thought to it which is not there at all. See how John places emphasis on the exact words Jesus spoke. Compare Prov 30:5,6.

21:24 Here we learn the identity of the disciple whom Jesus loved (v 20). He was the author of this Gospel. There is evidence that this was the apostle John, and no evidence that it was any of the other disciples.

"We" – it is not clear why we have a change to the plural here. If another disciple added this sentence to what John wrote we do not know who it was.

21:25 "Other things" – 20:30; Matt 8:16; 9:35; etc.

"Books" – precious as such books would be, God knew they were not necessary for us. We have what He wanted us to have. And what He has given is quite sufficient for the purpose God had in mind. We will do well to give thanks for what He has given, and to make it a chief part of our study throughout our lives, and to make every effort by His grace to put it into practice.

THE ACTS of the Apostles

Author:

Luke. See the introduction to Luke’s Gospel and compare Acts 1:1 with Luke 1:1.

Date:

Probably sometime between 60 and 63 AD.

Themes:

The early history of Christ’s Church, the spread of the Gospel of Christ in the first thirty years after His death and resurrection from the dead, Christ’s continuing work on earth after His ascension into heaven. A key verse is 1:8. The name “Acts of the Apostles” was not given by Luke to this book. This name was given to it later on by others. A title that would have been more descriptive of the reality is “The Acts of God’s Spirit through the Apostles” or “The Continuing Acts of Christ through His Apostles.”

1 O Theophilus, I produced the former account about all that Jesus began both to do and teach, 2 until the day in which he was taken up, after he had given commandments through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. 3 To them also he showed himself alive after his suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

4 And, having met with them, he commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise from the Father, "which, he said, "you have heard from me. 5 For John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

1:1 "Theophilus" – Luke 1:3. The acts and teaching of Jesus recorded in the Gospels were only the beginning of His ministry. After His death, resurrection and ascension He continued His work through His servants. We have a record of some of these things in Acts – 2:33; 3:6,16,26; 4:10,30; 5:31; 7:56; 9:3-16; 18:9,10; 26:15-18. Compare Matt 28:20; Mark 16:20.

1:2 Verses 9-11; Mark 16:19; Luke 24:51. Notes on the Holy Spirit at Matt 3:16; John 7:39; 14:16,17,26; 20:22. Also see the references at Gen 1:2. The word "apostles" means "those who are sent forth with orders."

"Whom he had chosen" – Matt 10:2; Mark 3:13-19; 6:12-16.

1:3 "Showed himself alive" – see note at Matt 28:6.

"His suffering" – His crucifixion and death. Compare 2:24; 17:3; 26:23.

"Many infallible proofs" – Jesus not only said in advance that He would rise from the dead (Matt 16:21; 17:23; John 10:17,18; etc), He actually rose from the dead and proved many times over that He had done so (Matt 28:16-18; Mark 16:12-14; Luke 24:36-43; John 20:19-29; 21:1; 1 Cor 15:5-8). And this proof was so convincing that the apostles were happy to suffer and die preaching this truth. It became one of the central themes of all their teaching. They proclaimed this truth everywhere (2:24,32; 3:15; 5:30-32; 10:40; 13:30,31; 17:31), and large numbers of people in Jerusalem, where these events took place, who knew what had happened, believed them.

"Forty days" – this verse is the only place in the Bible that gives us the length of time between Christ's resurrection and ascension into heaven. In Luke 24:44-47 we have some of the things Jesus taught during this time.

"The kingdom of God" – Matt 4:17. See also Acts 1:6; 8:12; 14:22; 19:8; 20:25; 28:23,31.

1:4,5 The apostles of Christ would not be qualified for Christ's service until they received the power of the Holy Spirit. Their knowledge of the facts about Christ and their understanding of the Old Testament alone would not make them ready for the task before them.

"The promise from the Father" – see Luke 11:13; 24:49; John 14:16,17,26. The promise is that they would be baptized with the Holy Spirit. See Matt 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16. According to the apostle Paul believers receive this promise of the Father by faith in Christ and by no other way. See Gal 3:2,14.

"Baptized with the Holy Spirit" – four different expressions are used to describe what the disciples received on the day of Pentecost – here: "baptized with the Holy Spirit"

v 8: "when the Holy Spirit comes on you"
2:4: "filled with the Holy Spirit"
10:47: "received the Holy Spirit."

All four references speak of the same event described in 2:1-4. It is important to see this.

On that day Christ gave them God's Spirit in a new way. This was like immersing them in the Spirit, or pouring the Spirit on them (2:33; 10:45), and the result was that their whole inner being was filled with the Spirit, and they received power to live the Christian life and to witness and serve God as they ought. They began to live and move in God's Spirit, to be inspired, motivated, and controlled by God's Spirit. From that time to this, individuals receive God's Spirit when they believe in the Lord Jesus (see John 7:37-39; Gal 3:2; Eph 1:13). If they have not received Christ's Spirit, who is the Spirit of God, they do not belong to Christ; that is, they have not really believed in Him or been born from above (see Rom 8:9).

According to 1 Cor 12:12,13 every believer has been baptized with God's Spirit into the Body of Christ (or baptized "by" or "in" God's Spirit – the Greek word can mean any of these, and the same word is used there that is used here in Acts). This too happens when they receive the Lord Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. They no longer have to wait for this as the original apostles had to wait for God's appointed time for the coming of the Spirit. God had chosen that day of Pentecost to begin this era of the Spirit, this age of grace, this new work in the earth. Now, since it has begun and has been going on for these many centuries waiting is no longer necessary.

After receiving the Holy Spirit by receiving Christ, and, at that same time, being baptized by the Spirit into Christ's Body, every believer should earnestly seek to be constantly filled with the Holy Spirit (Eph 5:18). There is only one baptism of the Holy Spirit, but believers may be filled again and again. And recognizing that we have the Spirit living in us, that we have been baptized with the Spirit, if we have reason to think that we are not filled with Him, we should seek the fullness of the Spirit with all our heart, soul, mind and strength.

There are only a few references in the 6 So when they met together they questioned him, saying, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

7 And he said to them, "It is not for you to know the times or the dates which the Father has put under his own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and you will be witnesses for me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and in Samaria and to the uttermost part of the earth."

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they were looking, he was taken up and a cloud received him from their sight.

10 And while they looked steadily toward heaven as he went up, suddenly two men stood by them in white clothing. 11 And they said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same manner as you have seen him go into heaven."

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is a Sabbath day's walk from Jerusalem. 13 And when they arrived, they ascended to the upper room where they were staying. Peter, James, John, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James Bible which use the words "baptism with [or in, or by] the Holy Spirit." The words of John the Baptist are recorded in the four gospels (see Matt 3:11). Then we have Jesus' words here. Peter quotes these words in Acts 11:16. Then we have Paul's words in 1 Cor 12:13. That is all.

1:6 The Lord Jesus had been teaching them for forty days about God's kingdom (v 3), and He had opened their minds to understand the Old Testament (Luke 24:45). They asked this question on the day Christ ascended into heaven - v 9). So they did not ask this question in ignorance, but understanding what God's plan for the nation of Israel is. They knew that God had taken the kingdom from them (Matt 21:43). But from what Jesus had taught they did not doubt that God would some day turn the nation back to Himself and exalt it to a place of prominence and power in the world. (See 3:19-21; Isa 2:2-4; 14:1-2; Zech 14:16-21.) But the disciples did not know when God would do this. Observe that they did not ask "will you restore the kingdom to Israel?" but "are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

1:7 The Lord did not correct their view that He would restore the kingdom to Israel. Since He had been teaching them for forty days about the kingdom, it is evident that He wanted them to understand all the facts thoroughly. They were going to be His representatives on earth, the teachers of His Church. If they had been wrong in their belief that He would restore the kingdom to Israel, can we doubt that He would have told them so? Can we think He was willing to leave them with a mistaken opinion about a basic matter? But all He did was to inform them that it was not their business to know times and dates. In this way He sanctioned their view about Israel and God's kingdom.

1:8 Verse 5. Power here means supernatural energy and ability. To be God's witnesses in a hostile world, to live and speak and serve as they ought, they needed more power than they possessed by nature, and more than they had received as a result of the new birth (John 1:12,13; 3:3,5,8). The same is true today. They needed and we need the Spirit's fullness.

"Witnesses" see Luke 24:48; John

15:27; Acts 2:32; 3:15; 5:32; 10:39; 13:31; 22:15; etc. A witness is someone who tells others what he has seen or heard or knows by experience. Apostles proclaimed the facts of Jesus' life, death, resurrection and ascension - facts they themselves had seen with their own eyes. And they taught what they themselves had heard Him teach. Taking this verse we can divide the book of Acts into three parts - witness in Jerusalem (chapters 1-7), witness in Judea and Samaria (chapters 8-12), witness to other parts of the world (chapters 13-28). This witness to the truth still continues.

Now God's servants everywhere in the world proclaim the truth they have learned from the testimony of the original apostles who saw and heard the Lord Jesus. They can testify also to a personal experience with Christ.

1:9 See 2:33; Mark 16:19; Luke 24:51; Phil 2:9-11. Only here is a cloud mentioned in connection with Jesus' ascension. In the Bible a cloud sometimes symbolizes the presence and glory of God (Ex 13:21; 16:10; 19:9,16; 24:15; 34:5; 40:34,35; Lev 16:2; 1 Kings 8:10,11; Isa 4:5; 19:1; Matt 17:5; Rev 10:1; 14:14). The Lord Jesus had vanished. From now on His disciples had to live by faith, not by sight. Where did Jesus go? Into heaven to the right hand of God (2:33; 3:21). How far away is heaven? Probably very near (see 7:55,56). It is a spiritual realm unseen by the eyes of human beings on earth, but it may exist alongside this material world.

1:10 Compare Mark 16:5; Luke 24:4; John 20:12.

1:11 These words seem to mean something like this: Jesus was going into heaven and would remain there for a time. He would not immediately come back so there was no reason for them to stand there looking for Him. In the meantime there were things they should be doing. On Christ's second coming see Matt 24:30; 26:64; Mark 13:26; Luke 21:27; John 14:3; etc.

1:12 The Mount of Olives is about one kilometer east of Jerusalem. Jewish teachers had determined the limits of how far Jews could walk on their rest day.

1:13 This was probably the same room we see in John 20:19,26.

the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the brother of James, 14 these all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

15 And in those days Peter stood up among the disciples (altogether the number of names was about a hundred and twenty), and said, 16 "Men and brethren, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke in the past through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was the guide for those who took Jesus. 17 For he was numbered with us, and was allotted a part in this ministry."

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of his wickedness, and there, falling headlong, the middle of his body burst open and all his entrails spilled out. 19 And this became known to all who lived in Jerusalem, so that field was called in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.

20 "For it is written in the book of Psalms,

Let his dwelling be deserted, and let no one live in it.

1:14 Doubtless they were praying for what Jesus had promised them – vs 4,5,8; Luke 11:13; 24:49. A number of women had also believed in Christ – Luke 23:49,55; 24:1,10. Mary the mother of Jesus was now staying with John (John 19:26,27). This is the last mention of her in the Bible. She completely fades from view, and her Son fills the vision of the Church. Jesus' brothers (Matt 13:55) at first did not believe Jesus was the Son of God, the Messiah of Israel (John 7:5). After His resurrection, they believed and joined His disciples. These all waited ten days for the coming of God's Spirit. Now that His Spirit has come there is no need to wait for Him to come. But now, too, waiting on God and seeking His face prepare the heart for the Spirit's fullness.

1:15 "Disciples" – see notes at Matt 10:1. Though Jesus had taught wonderful things in Jerusalem, and performed amazing miracles, only 120 people joined themselves to the apostles to form the first group of believers there. There were doubtless other believers who for one reason or another did not yet join this group. Five hundred believers are mentioned in 1 Cor 15:6, but probably most of them were in Galilee. In contrast to this, 3000 repented and believed the gospel on the day of Pentecost (2:41. Compare John 14:12; 16:7,8).

1:16 Peter had the same high view of the Old Testament that the Lord Jesus had. He believed it was inspired by the Holy Spirit of God and had to be fulfilled. Compare 4:25,26; Matt 4:4; 5:17,18; 15:3,6; Luke 24:44-46; John 10:35.

1:17 Matt 10:1-4.

1:18,19 Matt 27:3-8. The chief priests bought the field, but evidently did so in the name of Judas. Judas "purchased" it in the sense that it was the money he received for

And,

Let another take his position of overseer.

21 "Therefore, of these men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 beginning with the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us, one must be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection."

23 And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabas whose surname was Justus, and Matthias. 24 And they prayed, and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which of these two you have chosen 25 to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell by his transgression to go to his own place." 26 And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

2 And when the day of Pentecost had fully come they were all with one accord in one place.

betraying Christ that was used for the purchase. He hanged himself but, it would seem, either the rope or the limb of the tree broke, and he fell to the ground with the result described here.

1:20 Ps 69:25; 109:8.

1:21,22 See the emphasis on their actually seeing what Jesus did and hearing what He taught. Compare John 15:27.

1:23-26 Did they behave wisely in all this or did they make a mistake? Matthias appears no more in the New Testament. Observe that "they" proposed two men. The drawing of lots had to indicate one of them, whether the Lord chose him or not. It is not written that they prayed before they proposed the two names, only afterwards. And would not their choice between only two men limit the Lord in His choice? It seems to the author of these notes that the Lord later appointed Paul as one of the twelve apostles (Rom 1:1,5; 1 Cor 9:1; 15:8-10; 2 Cor 12:12; Gal 1:1), and he cannot imagine that the name of Matthias will appear on the foundations of God's city (Rev 21:14) and Paul's name be absent. On casting of lots see Lev 16:8; Josh 18:6,8,10; 1 Sam 14:42; Neh 10:34.

1:26 "Apostles" – note at Matt 10:2.

2:1 "Pentecost" means "fiftieth." It was one of the festivals of Israel and was called also the Feast of Weeks (see notes on Lev 23:15-21). It came fifty days after the feast of the Passover. It was a harvest festival. It was very fitting that the Holy Spirit should come on that day and begin the great harvest of bringing people to repentance and faith in Christ (v 41).

This particular day of Pentecost when the Spirit of God came upon the waiting disciples was one of the greatest days in the whole of human history. It was a new beginning

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven like a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared to them divided tongues like fire, and sat on each of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them ability to speak.

5 And there were living at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. 6 Now when this sound was heard, a crowd came together, and was bewildered because everyone heard them speak in his own language. 7 And they were all amazed and marvelled and said to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans? 8 Then how does each of us hear in our own language in which we were born? 9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia, 10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, Egypt, and the parts of Libya near Cyrene, and strangers from Rome, Jews and converts to Judaism, 11 Cretans and Arabians, we hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God." 12 And they were all amazed and perplexed, and said to one another, on earth in God's work among men. A new age – the age of grace, the age of God's Spirit – was inaugurated. The time when Christ's gospel should go to the ends of the earth began that day. It is not surprising that God granted very striking signs indicating that that time had begun. Compare the beginning of the age of Law in Exodus 19:16-19.

2:2 In Greek, as in Hebrew, the same word means both wind (or breath) and Spirit. So it was natural for wind to become a symbol of God's Spirit (John 3:8; Ezek 37:9-14), and fitting that the coming of the Spirit was announced by the sound of a powerful wind.

2:3 The Jews for centuries had recognized fire as a symbol of God's presence (notes at Ex 3:2). The fire was a sign to each disciple that God's Spirit was present with all the others. "Tongues" of fire was an indication of what their principal work was to be. They were God's spokesmen (1:8, etc), and their power for speaking was God's Spirit. The coming of the Spirit was a fulfillment of the word of the Lord Jesus (1:4,5; Luke 24:49; John 14:16,17,26; 16:6).

2:4 "Filled with the Holy Spirit" – the baptism with the Holy Spirit, which Jesus had promised them in 1:5, and which they now received, produced this result. See notes at 1:5; see also Eph 5:18. Being filled with God's Spirit is of great importance for believers. The signs which accompanied the filling on the day of Pentecost are not the important things. God may give signs or withhold them as He pleases, but He will infallibly give the Holy Spirit and His fullness to those who seek Him in faith (v 39; Luke 11:13). God nowhere in the Bible instructs us to seek for the signs that appeared then (compare Matt 12:38,39), and nowhere in the Bible does He command us to be baptized with the Spirit or to seek for that (it is important to see this), but He does command us to be filled with His Spirit.

Can a person know he is filled with the Holy Spirit if there are no accompanying signs? Certainly. He can know by faith (1 John 5:14,15), faith based on God's promises. And his experience afterwards will confirm that he is filled with the Spirit – he will have power for holy living and for witness and service (see also Eph 5:19-21).

See v 11 on the meaning of "to speak in other tongues" as the disciples did that day. The Greek word here translated "tongues" means both physical tongues and languages. The phrase could be translated "began to speak in other languages."

2:5-13 These God-fearing Jews were natives of Judea (v 9), or had lived abroad and had returned to Jerusalem – some to live there and others on a visit probably for the feasts of Passover and Pentecost. Fifteen different lands are mentioned, from what is now called Iran on the east to Rome on the west. There were two different sorts of people gathered there that day. Some were "bewildered" (v 6), "amazed" (v 7), and "perplexed" (v 12). They knew something strange and wonderful was occurring and could offer no explanation for it. Others were sure they knew all about it (v 13). They were the sort of people who reject or laugh at anything that is new or strange and think they have the answer to everything. One of the greatest days of human history had dawned, but all they could do was mock. In any generation those who are filled with God's Spirit will meet both kinds of people.

2:7 The Jews of Galilee spoke with an accent which identified them to other Jews (Mark 14:70).

2:11 This is thrice repeated (vs 6,8). God gave those disciples the instant ability to speak foreign languages which they had never learned. Their words were clearly understood by those who heard them (whether the disciples themselves understood what they were saying is not revealed). Some people teach that speaking in tongues is the essential sign that always accompanies the baptism of God's Spirit. We see here that when the apostles spoke in "tongues" they were speaking known languages which people there understood.

If this is the sign that always accompanies Spirit baptism, then we would have to say that this experience must be extremely rare indeed in our day and very uncommon in the whole history of the Church. But we know that a great many people have been baptized with the Holy Spirit and filled with the Holy Spirit without speaking in "tongues" (languages unknown to them). On "signs" see notes on v 4.

For other references to "tongues" see 10:46; 1 Cor 12:10,28,30; 13:1,8;

"What does this mean?"

13 Others, mocking, said, "These men are full of new wine."

14 But Peter, standing up with the Eleven, raised his voice and said to them, "You men of Judea, and all you who are staying in Jerusalem, let this be known to you: listen to my words, 15 for these are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only nine in the morning. 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 And it will happen in the last days,
 God says,
 I will pour out of my Spirit on all flesh,
 and your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
 and your young men will see visions,
 and your old men will dream dreams.
 18 And in those days I will pour out of my Spirit on my servants and my maidservants, and they will prophesy.

19 And I will show wonders in heaven above,
 and signs in the earth below,
 blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.

20 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood,
 before that great and renowned day of the Lord comes.

21 And it will be that whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

22 "You men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth was a man proved true by God to you through miracles and wonders and signs which God did through him among you, as you yourselves also know. 23 He was delivered up by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God, and you took 14:5,6,18,21,22,23,39.

2:13 This accusation that the disciples were drunk is very meaningful. "Drunk" means to be under the influence or control of alcohol. The disciples were under the influence and control of God's Spirit. The crowd could see that their behavior was not what people regarded as normal and usual. Compare Eph 5:18. The filling with God's Spirit lifts people far above what men regard as ordinary.

2:14 As he often was when Jesus was on earth Peter here is the spokesman for the twelve apostles. And here begins the first sermon of this new era. Its themes are the Holy Spirit, and the death, resurrection and exaltation of the Lord Jesus Christ.

2:15 God-fearing Jews did not drink wine in the morning. They drank wine only with meat and ate meat only in the evenings.

2:16 Verses 17-21 are taken from Joel 2:28-32 (the last part of v 32 is omitted). "This is what was spoken" means that on that day of Pentecost God fulfilled His promise to send His Spirit.

2:17 The phrase "in the last days, God says" is not in the Hebrew of Joel 2:28, which has only the words meaning "And afterward." Sometimes in the New Testament the expression "the last days" or "last times" refers to a time beginning with Christ's first coming and extending to His second coming - Heb 1:3; James 5:2; 1 Peter 1:20; 2 Peter 3:3; 1 John 2:18 ("the last hour"); Jude 18. God promised to pour out His Spirit on "all people." Pentecost was only a partial fulfillment of this, for only Jews and Jewish converts received the Spirit then. We see a further fulfillment at Acts 8:17; 10:44,45; 19:6. As the gospel of Christ spread around the world people from more and more countries received God's Spirit, and this process will go on until the end of this age (v 20). "Sons" and "daughters", "young" and "old" without distinction will receive God's Spirit.

Notes on prophesy at Num 11:25. On visions and dreams see 18:9,10; Gen 15:1; Num 12:6.

2:18 "My servants" - God does not give His Spirit to the world in general, but to those who trust Him and so become His servants. See John 14:17.

2:19,20 The day of the Lord begins at the end of this age and includes Christ's second coming. See notes at Isa 13:6-13; Joel 1:15; 1 Thess 5:2; 2 Thess 2:2; 2 Pet 3:10. The signs in the sun and moon are associated with that day in other places (Isa 13:9,10; Matt 24:29,30; Rev 6:12-17). The signs mentioned in v 19 can be seen in Rev 8:7,8,10; 9:2,17,18; 16:3,4,8. From the context here in Acts we may judge that the work of God's Spirit described in vs 17,18 will continue until the day of the Lord begins.

2:21 See Isa 55:6,7; Rom 10:12,13; 1 Cor 1:2. To call on the name of the Lord means here to ask Him for salvation, to turn to Him in repentance and faith. Peter soon reveals who he means by Lord. In Joel the word in Hebrew is Jehovah. Peter means the Lord Jesus (v 38). This is just one indication among many in the New Testament that Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah. See other references at Luke 2:11.

2:22 Verses 14-21 was a word of explanation about the questions raised in vs 12,13. Here Peter comes to the heart of His message. Christ appointed him as a witness (1:8) and the Holy Spirit empowered him for this work (2:4). Now he testifies, and his words are full of Christ. He begins with Him and ends with Him. Jesus of Nazareth was "approved" by God the Father (see John 5:36; 10:37,38. Notes on signs and miracles at John 2:11; Matt 8:1).

2:23 God sent the Lord Jesus into the world with the very purpose that He should die on the cross as a sacrifice for the sins of men (Matt 20:28; 26:27,28; John 1:29; 3:14-16; 6:51; 10:11). But wicked men did him and by wicked hands crucified and killed him.

24 God raised him up, setting him free from the anguish of death, because it was not possible that he would be held by it. 25 For David speaks concerning him,

I saw the Lord always before my face,
for he is at my right hand,
so that I might not be shaken.
26 Therefore my heart rejoiced and my tongue was glad.
Moreover, my flesh will rest in hope,
27 Because you will not leave my soul
in the realm of the dead, nor will you allow your Holy One to see corruption.
28 You have made known to me the ways of life.
You will fill me with joy by your countenance.

29 "Men, brethren, let me speak freely to you about the patriarch David. He is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of his descendants according to the flesh, he would raise Christ up to sit on his throne, 31 he, seeing this in advance, spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in the realm of the dead, nor did his flesh see corruption.

32 "This Jesus God has raised up, and we are all witnesses of this. 33 Therefore, being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit, he has poured out what you now see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself said,

The Lord said to my Lord,
Sit at my right hand,
35 Until I make your enemies your
footstool.

36 "Therefore let all the house of Israel know for certain that God has made that same Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, "Men, brethren, what shall we do?"

38 Then Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus the crucifying and were guilty because of it. 2:24 Matt 28:6. It was impossible that death should hold the Lord Jesus because it was God's plan that it should not. God had given Him authority over death (John 10:17,18). 2:25-29 Now Peter shows that Christ's resurrection was in fulfillment of Ps 16:8-11 (see notes there). If Christ had not risen, the Scriptures would have been broken, and this too is impossible (John 10:35; Matt 5:17,18).

2:27 "The realm of the dead" – in Greek "Hades," in Hebrew "Sheol" – see note at Gen 37:35.

2:29 Peter shows that Ps 16:8-11 was not fulfilled in David's case (1 Kings 2:10-12). David did not rise from the dead.

2:30 2 Sam 7:8-16; Ps 89:3,4,20-37. David was a very great prophet and in his psalms by the inspiration of God's Spirit foretold many things concerning Christ (Luke 24:44). Notes on "prophet" at Gen 20:7.

2:31 "Christ" – Matt 1:1.

"Realm of the dead" – in Greek "Hades."
2:32 "Witnesses" – 1:8.

2:33 Eph 1:19-21; Phil 2:9-11. The "right hand" is the place of honor.

"Holy Spirit" – John 14:16,17,26. The Lord Jesus still "pours out" the Holy Spirit where and when He wills. He has full authority (Matt 28:18; John 17:2).

2:34,35 This is a quotation from another great psalm concerning Christ – Ps 110:1. This is the third quotation in Peter's brief message. Christ had opened His disciples' understanding and taught them the Scriptures (Luke 24:44,45).

2:36 The Old Testament Scriptures Peter quoted show that Jesus is Christ, the Messiah of Israel, the "Lord" in the sense of "master" or "owner" (this is the meaning in Ps 110:1). God appointed His own Son who shares His very nature (John 1:1) to be Messiah and Lord. This was the startling news Peter brought to the nation who had rejected and crucified Christ (John 1:11; 19:6).

2:37 See 16:29,30. The Holy Spirit working in the minds and consciences of these Jews produced this result. He still works in a similar way today, and only He can do so. Compare John 16:7-11. Their words indicate repentance.

2:38 Notes on repentance and baptism at Matt 3:2,6; Mark 16:16; Luke 13:3. Unlike John's baptism Christian baptism is associated with the name of Jesus and the gift of the Holy Spirit. See also 19:5. Peter is not teaching that baptism is essential for the forgiveness of sins. He well knew that forgiveness was not dependent on any work or ceremony that men can do. It comes by God's grace and is received through faith. See notes on forgiveness at Matt 16:12; 9:5-7; 12:31; 18:23-35; Eph 1:7; 1 John 1:9; Isa 55:7.

"For the forgiveness of sins" – the translation of this phrase made by some – "so that your sins may be forgiven" (NIV, 1978 edition) – was not a good translation. That wording suggests that baptism comes before the forgiveness of sins and that those repenting Jews would receive forgiveness by receiving it. But this is not the teaching of the New Testament. For any sinner repenting, forgiveness comes first, then baptism.

Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are far off, to as many as the Lord our God will call."

40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted, saying, "Save yourselves from this perverse generation." 41 Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. And the same day there were added to them about three thousand souls.

42 And they persevered in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43 And fear came on every soul. And many wonders and miraculous signs were done

The Greek word translated "for" is "eis." It has a wide range of meaning - "for", "in", "into", "unto", "concerning", "about", etc (but "so that" seems a strange translation of this word). Here it should be translated in accordance with the general teaching of the New Testament on the subjects of forgiveness of sins, baptism, and salvation. So a good translation would be "concerning the forgiveness of sins." In 2:25 the same Greek word (eis) is translated "concerning" ("about" in the NIV). Forgiveness and baptism are related to each other, but baptism is not needed to bring the forgiveness of sins.

Peter's meaning here seems very clear - "Change your mind about who Jesus is, turn from your wicked rejection of Him as the Lord from heaven, the Messiah of Israel and Son of God. In accordance with His nature, office, and authority ("name") be baptized as an open declaration of your faith in Him, and as a sign of the forgiveness of sins which He freely gives to those who believe in Him."

Baptized for the forgiveness of sins does not mean to be baptized in order to obtain forgiveness of sins. Compare this verse with Matt 3:11. There the same Greek word is used (eis) and is translated "for." It is very clear that John did not baptize people so that they would repent, but because they had already repented (v 6). Now also baptism should be given only to those who have already repented and received the forgiveness of sins. See Acts 10:44-48 - Cornelius and those with him received the Holy Spirit (and so, of course, forgiveness of their sins) before they received baptism.

Baptism "in the name of Jesus Christ" means on His authority as Lord and Christ (v 36). Peter was not giving a formula that has to be spoken as people receive baptism. Compare Matt 28:19.

Observe that God gives the Holy Spirit as a "gift." Compare John 7:37-39; 14:16,17; Gal 3:2. Notice also in this verse that Peter does not present Jesus as Saviour but as Lord and Christ (v 36), and demands that they repent of their rejection of Him as such. See the note at 22:10.

2:39 The promise of God's Spirit was made first to the Jews, but is for all people everywhere. On God's call see Matt 9:13; Rom 1:6; 8:28-30; 1 Cor 1:9,24,26; Gal 5:13; Eph 4:1,4; Col 3:15; 2 Thess 2:14; 1 Tim 6:12; Heb 9:15; 1 Pet 2:9,21; 2 Pet 1:38.

2:40 Observe here the work of a faithful, Spirit-filled minister of God's Word. Peter was not content to lay out the facts concerning Christ. He warned people about the dangers of rejecting Him and pleaded with them to receive Him. Every generation is a "perverse generation" (though that one was probably worse than many - Matt 23:33-36; Phil 2:15), and the need to warn and plead with people is always there.

2:41 Accepting Peter's message means they believed in the Lord Jesus and received Him as Lord and Christ, and Saviour from sin (vs 36,38). Having believed and so received forgiveness and eternal life (John 3:16,36; 5:24; 6:47) they were baptized as a sign and public declaration that they had believed. The 3000 who did so were in Jerusalem among leaders who had rejected and crucified Christ. The evidence for Christ's resurrection was so complete, the witness of the apostles in the Holy Spirit was so powerful, that they believed in spite of all dangers and possible future troubles.

2:42 "Persevered" - the Greek word means "to be strong towards," and so to "steadfastly continue." This was the evidence that their faith was genuine. See notes at Matt 7:17-27; John 15:1-8; 1 Cor 15:1,2; Col 1:23; Heb 3:6,14.

Observe the four things these believers devoted themselves to. They were not content to merely hear the gospel, say they believed it, and go their own ways. And the apostles were not content to have them do so. Jesus told them to make disciples and to teach them (Matt 28:18-20). Here we see them doing that. They were forming these believers into a local church and giving them every opportunity to grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus (2 Pet 3:18). The "apostles' teaching" is what Christ had told them to teach. The whole New Testament is a record of it. Fellowship is also very important for Christian growth and service - fellowship with Christ and His people (1 Cor 1:9; Phil 2:1; 3:10; 1 John 1:3,6,7). It means opening the heart and mind to others and sharing in service, struggles, troubles, joys (Rom 12:15,16). It means loving one another as Christ loved (John 13:34). It means to speak to one another of the things of Christ (Eph 5:19).

"Breaking of bread" probably refers to the Lord's Supper when believers also ate together (v 46; 1 Cor 11:17-26). Hardly anything is more important than prayer for maintaining a spiritual life (see Luke 18:1; Eph 6:18; Phil 4:6,7; 1 Thess 5:17,18; Jude 20).

2:43 "Every soul" may include those outside this new fellowship of believers. God was present with His people in a wonderful by the apostles. 44 And all who believed were together, and had everything in common. 45 And they sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to everyone, as each one had need.

46 And they continued daily with one accord in the temple, and broke bread from house to house, and ate their food with gladness and sincerity of heart, 47 praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the Church daily those who were being saved.

3 Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the hour of prayer, three in the afternoon. 2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was being carried to beg from those entering the temple (daily they laid him at the temple gate which is called Beautiful). 3 He saw Peter and John about to go into the temple and asked for money. 4 And Peter, together with John, fixed his eyes on him and said, "Look at us." 5 And he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them.

manner, and this often brings a sense of fear and awe to people. God gave the wonders and signs to confirm the truth the apostles had been preaching (Heb 2:3,4). They signified that the same Lord Jesus who had done such things in His time on earth was still present and active with His apostles (1:1,2). See notes on miracles and signs at Matt 8:1; John 2:11.

2:44,45 This was a voluntary expression of love (4:32-35). No one commanded it. Compare 5:1-4. Of course, it has nothing to do with political communism (which has been something imposed on the masses of people by a few leaders, often without the desire or consent of the people). These believers in Christ were showing their oneness which had been created by God's Spirit (John 17:20-23; 1 Cor 12:12,13).

2:46 They had no church building and met where they could. A meeting once a week was not enough for these fervent believers. They loved to hear more of God's Word, to pray, and have fellowship together. All that came out of an inner state of heart – glad and sincere.

2:47 Because of the condition of their hearts, praising God was as natural as breathing. Note on praise at Ps 33:1-3. People outside the Church could see their sincerity and love, and viewed them with favor, though the religious leaders of Israel did not (4:1-3). Is it any wonder that every day some believed in the Lord Jesus and joined them in the fellowship? Would not the same thing happen in our day if we were like these early Christians?

3:1 Three in the afternoon was the time when the Jewish priests in the temple began their evening prayers and offerings.

3:4 They were trying to prepare the man for something exceptional.

6 Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I have I give you: in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk." 7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. 8 And he leaped up and stood, and walked, and went with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God. 10 And they knew that it was he who sat begging at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

11 And while the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico that is called Solomon's, greatly astonished. 12 And when Peter saw this he responded to the people, "You men of Israel, why are you surprised at this? Or why do you look so intently at us, as though by our own power or holiness we caused this man to walk? 13 The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our

3:6 We see here the material poverty of the apostles of Jesus Christ. Compare Matt 4:18-22; 19:27; Luke 6:20. In this they were like their Master – Matt 8:20. But they were rich in spiritual power. Often, it seems, that as the possessions and wealth of believers increase their spiritual power decreases. The Lord gave perfect instructions in Matt 6:19-21. "In the name of" means by Christ's authority and power. Peter was acting as Christ's representative – John 14:13,14; 20:21.

3:7 Peter's action worked together with his words to produce faith and healing in this man.

3:8 The early disciples healed many people (5:15,16; 8:7; 14:8-10; 19:11,12; 28:8,9). But we nowhere read that they had special meetings for healing. They sometimes healed those they met in their work, or those who came to them while they were engaged in their ministry of preaching and teaching. Notice here that this lame man did not praise Peter, but God. He knew it was God who had done the healing, not Peter.

3:10 See 2:7,12; 10:45; 12:16; 13:12; Matt 8:27; 9:8,33; 12:23. Are people ever amazed at anything we do or say, seeing the power of God's Spirit at work in us?

3:11 Solomon's portico or colonnade was on the east side of the outer court of the temple.

3:12 Peter seized this opportunity to preach the truth of God. He did not point men to himself or try to increase his fame by this event. He knew that God had enabled him to perform the miracle and wanted only God to be honored. See also 14:8-15.

3:13 The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob was a common name in Israel for the one true God (Ex 3:6). The reason can be seen in Genesis chapters 12-50. God glorified Jesus in His resurrection and ascension.

fathers, has glorified his Son Jesus whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. 14 But you denied the Holy One and the Just, and asked for a murderer to be given to you, 15 and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead. Of this we are witnesses. 16 And his name, through faith in his name, has made this man strong, this man whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is granted through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 "And now, brethren, I know that you acted in ignorance, as your rulers also did. 18 But those things which God foretold through the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ would suffer, he has fulfilled in this way. 19 Repent, therefore, and be converted, so that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing might come from the presence of the Lord, 20 and that he might send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you previously. 21 Him heaven must receive until the times of the restoration of all things, which God has spoken through the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. 22 For Moses truly said to the fathers, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brethren. You must listen to him in everything he says to you. 23 And it will be that every soul who will not listen to that prophet will be destroyed from among the people.'

24 "Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed him, all who spoke, likewise foretold these days. 25 You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed.' 26 God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him first to you to bless you, by turning each one of you away from his sins."

4 And as they were speaking to the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to them. 2 They were upset that they taught the people and preached

"You delivered up and denied" – Peter is only reminding them of something they well knew, with the purpose of bringing them to repentance.

3:14 "The Holy One and the Just" – a title of the Messiah (7:52; 22:14; 4:27,30; Mark 1:24; Jam 5:6; 1 John 2:20). It also indicates Christ's deity (Rev 15:3,4. Only God is innately holy). Jesus was both the servant of God and God incarnate (references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11). See whom the Jews preferred to Him (Mark 15:6-15). 3:15 "Prince" – the Greek word here signifies an originator, a founder, an author, as well as prince or leader. Jesus is the "author of life." This also indicates Christ's deity. See John 5:19-27.

"Witnesses" – observe again what the apostles called themselves and what they testified about (1:8; 2:32).

3:16 All their emphasis was on Jesus – His name and His power. Let us follow their example.

3:17 John 15:21; 1 Cor 2:7,8; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 4:18.

3:18 Luke 24:25-27,44-47.

3:19 "Repent" – 2:38; Matt 3:2; Luke 13:3-5; Acts 17:30. This is essential for anyone who would have his sins "blotted out" – erased from the record.

3:20 This verse with the preceding one states that God has appointed Christ as the Messiah of Israel (2:36), and seems to indicate that Christ will not return to be their king until Israel is willing to repent and receive Him.

3:21 God has set a time for everything, and nothing will take place until His time comes (1:7).

"Restoration of all things" – 1:6; Matt 19:28; Rom 8:18-23; Isa 11:1-16; Ezek

37:1-28; etc.

3:22,23 Deut 18:15,18,19. Peter means that this promised prophet is the Lord Jesus. Come to pass (KJV) is not in Greek.

3:24 Peter (as Christ Himself did) emphasized that Christ's coming was according to God's promises in the Old Testament (Matt 5:17; Luke 24:25-27,44-47; John 5:39).

3:25 By "you" Peter meant the Jews. Compare Rom 9:4,5. They were the physical descendants of Abraham to whom God gave the promises of blessing (Gen 12:3).

3:26 "His Son Jesus" – Peter affirms that the blessing promised through Abraham has been brought to men by the Lord Jesus. See also Gal 3:6-9,14. God demonstrated this by raising Him from the dead. Then He sent Him first to Israel His chosen people (13:46; Rom 1:16). The way He sent Him was by sending His Spirit to speak through His apostles.

"To bless you" – this is what God loves to do and why He sent His Son into the world. Observe here what is meant by God's blessing – being turned from all sin and evil. Compare Matt 1:21; Gal 1:3,4; Titus 2:13,14; 1 Pet 2:24. This is the greatest of all God's blessings and without it there is no permanent blessing at all. Notes on blessing and blessed at Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Deut 28:3-14; Ps 1:1; 119:1; Matt 5:3-12; Luke 11:28; Gal 3:9,14; Eph 1:3.

4:1 When Jesus was on earth the priests of the temple were among His worst enemies (Matt 16:21; 20:18; 21:15,23,59; 27:1,12,41,62). The apostles also had to face their enmity.

"Sadducees" – Matt 3:7.

4:2 The Sadducees did not believe there was such a thing as a resurrection from the through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they seized them and put them in custody to the next day; for it was now evening. 4 However, many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 And it happened on the next day that their rulers, elders and scribes, 6 and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all the relatives of the high priest, gathered together in Jerusalem. 7 And when they had placed Peter and John among them, they asked, "By what power, or by what name, have you done this?"

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, 9 if we this day are being examined about the good deed done to a helpless man, and how he was healed, 10 be it known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified and whom God raised from the dead, by him this man stands here before you whole.

11 "This is the stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the cornerstone. 12 And there is no salvation through any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unedu-ated and untrained men, they were amazed and understood that they had been with Jesus. 14 And seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go out of the council meeting, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, "What shall we do to these men? For that indeed a notable miracle has been done by them is evident to everyone living in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. 17 But so that it spreads no further among the people, let us strictly warn them not to speak from now on to anyone in this name."

18 And they called them and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John answered and said to them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge. 20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard."

21 So when they had threatened them some more, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people. For everyone glorified God for what was done. 22 For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was over forty years old.

23 And being let go, they went to their own group, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. 24 And when they heard dead (23:8).

4:3 This speaks of the kind of nation Israel was then – men were jailed and faced death for delivering the best news the world ever had (5:17,18; 12:1-4). It is still happening today in some nations of the world.
4:4 See 2:41.
4:6 Matt 26:3,57; Luke 3:2; John 18:13,24.
4:7 They doubtless knew the answer to their question, but were looking for ways to accuse them.
4:8 Peter took this question as an opportunity to preach Christ. Compare Matt 10:16-20.
4:9 See how he points out their character to them – they were the sort who would accuse people for showing kindness to cripples!
4:10 See 3:6,12. These leaders had hoped they were rid of Jesus once and for all (Matt 27:65-67; 27:22,23,62-64).
4:11 Ps 118:22; Matt 21:42-44.
4:12 The apostles taught this to others because Jesus had taught it to them. See John 14:6; 10:7,8; 3:16-19,36. Salvation is one of the great words of the New Testament. It includes the forgiveness of sins (Luke 24:47), the new birth (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8), liberation from the bondage of sin (John 8:32-36), being counted righteous by God (Rom 1:16; 3:21-28; 4:7,8), and eternal life (John 3:16) in the presence of God forever (John 14:3; etc).
4:13 Their courage was a result of the knowledge of Christ's resurrection and the filling of the Holy Spirit. Nothing else is a sufficient explanation. Just after Christ's death they were far from courageous (John 20:19). Once Peter could not face up to a servant girl (Matt 26:69,70). Now he can face with great boldness the wrath of Israel's wicked leaders and death itself (v 29; 5:29-33,41,42). This is what Christ can do and does do with ordinary people. And these leaders recognized the source of their teaching and boldness – the Lord Jesus.

4:16 See the hardness of heart of these men. They knew the miracle had taken place, but refused to believe in Christ who had performed it through the disciples. Compare John 15:24.
4:17 "This name" – they meant Jesus, but they did not want to utter His name.
4:18 How futile this command to Spirit-filled disciples! Can the wind be stopped by holding up a hand?
4:19 See 5:29. Christians should obey their rulers in all things except when their commands are contrary to God's Word (Rom 13:1,2). In such case they must obey God and take the consequences.
4:20 A Spirit-filled disciple of the Lord Jesus can no more refrain from speaking for Him than breathing. Compare 2 Cor 5:14; Jer 20:9.
4:21,22 The same event caused some to make threats, others to praise God.
4:23 "Their own group" was the group of believers in Christ.
4:24 Their prayer was to the Creator of the universe (Genesis chapter 1; John 1:1-3; that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord and said, "Lord, you are God who has made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that is in them, 25 who through the mouth of your servant David has said,

Why did the nations rage, and the people plot vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 "For truly against your holy son Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, gathered together, 28 to do whatever your hand and your purpose determined beforehand should be done. 29 And now, Lord, see their threatenings, and grant to your servants that with all boldness they may speak your word, 30 by stretching forth your hand to heal, and giving power that miraculous signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy son Jesus."

31 And when they had prayed, the place where they had met together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

Heb 1:1,2), the only God there is.

4:25,26 Observe their conviction that it was God's Spirit who spoke through David. They had this teaching from the Lord Jesus (Matt 15:3,6; 22:43; John 10:35; Luke 24:45). The quotation is from Ps 2:1,2. See notes there.

4:27 Luke 23:6-13.

4:28 See 2:23. "Determined beforehand" in Greek is the same word translated "pre-destinated" in Rom 8:29,30 and Eph 1:5,11, and "ordained" in 1 Cor 2:7 - the only other times in Greek the word is found in the New Testament.

4:29 Verse 13.

4:30 Though it meant much trouble for them, they prayed that God would continue to do through them what He had been doing. All this is strong evidence that they knew Jesus had risen from the dead, and that they themselves had nothing to do with the removal of His body from the tomb (Matt 27:64; 28:6; etc).

4:31 See 2:2-4. They were filled again. The filling of God's Spirit is not a once for all thing that cannot be repeated.

4:32-35 See 2:44,45. They did this, notice, because they were "of one heart and one soul." They had the same thoughts and purposes about Christ and His work and loved fellow believers as themselves.

4:33 So much for the threats of Israel's religious leaders. Observe again that the preaching of Christ's resurrection was at the heart of their message - 1:22; 2:24,32; 3:15,26; 4:2,10; 5:30; 10:40; 13:30;

32 And the large number of those who believed were all of one heart and one soul. None of them said that any of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. 33 And with great power the apostles gave testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all. 34 Nor was there any among them who was in need, for all who had lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds from the things that were sold, 35 and laid them at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each one as he had need.

36 And Joses, whom the apostles named Barnabas (that is, being translated, Son of Encouragement), a Levite from the country of Cyprus, 37 had land but sold it and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 and kept back part of the money, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the money for the land? 4 While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was the

17:18,31; 23:6.

4:36 See 9:27; 11:22-25,30; 12:25; 13:1,2.

"Levite" means of the tribe of Levi, a tribe of Israel set apart by God for the service of the temple (Num 3:5-10). Cyprus is an island in the Mediterranean Sea west of Lebanon.

5:1,2 God's church was holy in conduct, filled with His Spirit and witnessing. Nothing could stop its work, its increase - nothing but sin. Here was an attempt by Satan to introduce sinful ways into the church. Evidently, Ananias and his wife told the apostles that they were giving the full amount they had received (v 8). They wanted the reputation for being generous without actually being generous. They wanted others to think they were more spiritual than they actually were. This is hypocrisy. Compare Matt 6:2-4; 23:5-7.

5:3,4 There was no requirement for them to sell their property and give any of the amount to the Church (2:44,45). Observe that the lie Ananias told came from Satan. See John 8:44. Satan suggested it and Ananias gave in to the suggestion. Notice too that to lie to God's people is the same as lying to God. In fact, all we do to them is as if we did it to Him. See 9:4,5; Matt 25:34-46; Mark 9:37. On lying see notes and references at Ex 20:16; Ps 5:6; 15:2; 51:6; Prov 6:16-19; 12:22; Eph 4:15,25; Col 3:9; Rev 21:8,27; 22:15. Let everyone who is tempted to lie take into account the above facts. Lying is a very foolish and wicked and dangerous thing.

money not in your control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God."

5 And Ananias, hearing these words, fell down, and breathed his last. And great fear came on all those who heard these things. 6 And the young men arose, wrapped him up, carried him outside, and buried him.

7 And it was about three hours later that his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 And Peter responded to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much?"

And she said, "Yes, for so much."

9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and will carry you out."

10 Then she fell down immediately at his feet, and breathed her last. And the young men came in, found her dead, and carried her out and buried her beside her husband. 11 And great fear came on the whole church, and on everyone who heard these things.

12 And many miraculous signs and wonders were performed at the hands of the apostles among the people. And they were all together with one accord in Solomon's Portico. 13 And among the rest no man dared to join them, but the people regarded them highly. 14 And more and more believers were added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. 15 So then they brought the sick out into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the very least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them. 16 Also crowds came from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits. And every one of them was healed.

17 Then the high priest and all those who were with him (who were of the sect of the Sadducees) rose up, filled with indignation, 18 and seized the apostles, and put them in the public prison. 19 But at night the angel of the Lord opened the prison doors, brought them out, and said, 20 "Go, stand in the temple and speak

5:5 The death of Ananias was God's judgment on him, not a result of anything Peter did. Lying and hypocrisy are like a deadly poison. Ananias's sin was a serious threat to the life of the church, and the situation demanded a severe remedy.

"Fear" – fear of offending God and of the punishment hypocrisy and lying deserve, is a very healthy thing. See notes on the fear of God at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

5:9 God revealed to Peter that His judgment was going to fall on her also. Peter gave her an opportunity to change her story and repent, but she lied to his face. Observe that their sin was testing the Spirit of God. See Deut 6:16; Matt 4:7; Ex 17:7; Ps 95:7-11.

5:11 When Christians are afraid to sin the church will be holy and surge forward in its work. In the very beginning of this era of grace and the Holy Spirit, God was revealing that grace does not mean that sin is something that should be overlooked and go unpunished. He has given here once for all an example indicating what He thinks of hypocrisy, deceit and lying in the church – in God's eyes they are worthy of death. This does not mean that God put to death every person in the church who was guilty of these. One example was enough to put fear into the whole group of believers. It should be enough for us also. What else should be required for us to learn that God hates all lying and deceitfulness, and that anyone who practices such things is in grave danger?

At the beginning of the old dispensation of law also God set forth an example of what He thought of disobedience to it. See Num 15:32-36. At the beginning of the conquest of Canaan also God set forth an example.

See Joshua chapter 7. Sin tolerated in a local church is the greatest danger to that church. It is like cancer which can eventually kill the whole body.

The word "church" in this verse means the group of believers called out from the surrounding people to be the people of Christ. Note at Matt 16:18.

5:12 See 2:43; 3:11.

5:13 Verse 11.

5:14 A holy, witnessing church will see sinners converted to Christ. After the judgment on Ananias and his wife the church moved forward again to new victories. Compare Joshua chapter 8.

5:15 Neither Peter nor his shadow had any power to heal (3:12). God chose this way to honor the apostles in the eyes of the people and to establish the truth of their teaching. Now their teaching has long since been established and the New Testament given to us. There is no longer any need to establish the truth again through someone else, or to give signs and wonders and miracles to do it.

5:16 Here the gospel of Christ begins to spread beyond Jerusalem.

"Unclean spirits" – note at Matt 4:24.

5:17 "Sadducees" – Matt 3:7. Note on jealousy and envy at Matt 27:18; Prov 27:4; Gal 5:26.

5:18 See 4:3.

5:19 "Angel of the Lord" – notes at Matt 1:20; Gen 16:7. God sends angels to minister to His people (Heb 1:14). Here is just one example of what they can do. But they do not always deliver believers from trouble (12:1,2; 24:27; 2 Cor 11:23-27).

5:20 They were not delivered so that they could retreat in fear to their homes and keep to the people all the words of this life."

21 And when they heard that, they went into the temple early in the morning and taught.

But the high priest, and those who were with him, came and called together the Council and all the elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. 22 But when the officers came and did not find them in the prison, they returned and reported, 23 saying, "Indeed we found the prison shut securely, and the keepers were standing outside at the doors, but when we opened them, we did not find anyone inside." 24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple guard, and the chief priests heard these things, they wondered where this would lead.

25 Then someone came and told them: "Look, the men you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." 26 Then the captain with the officers went and brought them without using force; for they were afraid of the people, that they might throw stones at them.

27 And when they had brought them, they placed them before the council, and the high priest asked them, 28 saying, "Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? And, look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."

29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, "We ought to obey God rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. 31 God exalted him to his right hand as Prince and Saviour to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. 32 And we are his witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

33 When they heard that, they were enraged and plotted to kill them. 34 Then a man stood up in the council meeting, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, respected by all the people, and gave an order that the apostles be put outside for a little while. 35 Then he said to them, "You men of Israel, take care to yourselves what you intend to do about these men. 36 For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was killed, and all those who followed him were scattered, and it came to nothing. 37 After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all those who obeyed him were scattered. 38 And now I say to you, withdraw from these men, and let them alone. For if their purpose or work is of men, it will come to nothing. 39 But if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it, and perhaps you will be found even to fight against God."

quiet. Here the gospel is called "This life" – it brings new life to people (John 3:16; 5:24), and causes them to live in a new way (2 Cor 5:17).

5:21 Obedience was the mark of their faith – obedience at any cost.

"Council" – the Sanhedrin – Matt 5:22.

5:26 Matt 21:46; Luke 22:2. These religious leaders still cared nothing for justice. They tried to rule but were ruled themselves by envy, hatred and fear.

5:28 "This name", "this man" – Jesus. Note at 4:17. How foolishly and unreasonably they accused the apostles. They themselves were already fully guilty. See Matt 27:24,25.

5:29 See 4:19. Here is a principle that should govern every believer in Christ when there is a conflict between God's commands and men's. Obedience meant for them persecution, imprisonment and, at last, death, but they held firm to this principle.

5:30 See 2:23; 4:10. Peter uses "tree" for the cross (see also 10:39; Gal 3:13; 3:29; 1 Pet 2:24). Compare Deut 21:22.

5:31 See 2:33-36. "Prince" here means "Leader" or "Head." Observe again that repentance and forgiveness go together, and both are a gift Christ gives (2:38; Luke 24:47; 2 Tim 2:25).

5:32 See 1:8; 2:32; 3:15; 4:33. The Holy Spirit witnessed by doing miracles through the apostles, by giving the apostles authority and power in their witness, and by speaking to the hearts of those who heard it.

Observe the connection between obedience and receiving God's Spirit. In other places we are told the Spirit comes by asking (Luke 11:13), and by faith (Gal 3:14). Peter is speaking of the obedience of faith in the Lord Jesus. See John 6:29; Rom 1:5. To believe in Christ is to obey God's will. Faith is not possible except when there is a decision to submit to Christ and a willingness to obey Him. Faith does not arise in a rebellious heart that will not yield to God. God gives His Spirit to those who are willing to obey Him, and in order that they might obey Him. See also Matt 7:21; Rom 10:9,10.

5:33 This is the unreasonable reaction of men who loved darkness rather than light (John 3:19,20; 10:31; 12:10,11; 15:18-20).

5:34 "Pharisee" – Matt 3:7. Gamaliel was the guru of Saul of Tarsus before Saul became Paul the apostle (22:3).

5:36,37 These are events not recorded in the Bible.

5:38,39 God used this advice to cool the anger of the Jewish leaders and to free the apostles from death at that time. But actually Gamaliel was not right in his first statement. Many systems of human thought and religion, and many works of Satan go on for centuries, and seem to succeed and increase. But Gamaliel was right from the standpoint of eternity. Everything that has its source in mere man will eventually come to nothing (compare Isa 2:10-22).

40 And they agreed with him. And when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded them not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 And they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. 42 And daily in the temple and in every house, they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

6 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a complaint among the Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. 2 Then the twelve called the whole group of the disciples together, and said, "It is not agreeable to reason that we leave the word of God, and serve at tables. 3 Therefore, brethren, look among yourselves for seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint to this duty. 4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

5 And these words pleased the whole group, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas a convert from Antioch. 6 These they set before the apostles. And when the apostles had prayed, they laid hands on them.

7 And the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly, and a large group of the priests was obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people. 9 Then there arose certain men belonging to the synagogue that is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, and Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those of Cilicia and Asia, and disputed with Stephen.

Gamaliel's words in v 39 are always true, and he aptly described what many did then (and still do) - "fighting against God."

5:40 This was a severe punishment. They gave them 39 lashes with a whip on their backs (Matt 27:26; 2 Cor 11:24).

5:41 What a difference it makes to be right with God and to love the Lord Jesus Christ! Such people can count shame and disgrace as joy (John 16:33; Matt 5:11,12; Jam 1:2; 1 Peter 4:12-16). Here these apostles were beyond humiliation and the pride that brings the feeling of humiliation.

5:42 Threats of death, severe punishment, imprisonment - none of these can stop the Spirit-filled servant of the Lord Jesus (4:20; 8:1,4; 14:19,20; 16:22-31).

6:1 Observe that those in the early church were called disciples. See notes at Matt 10:1; 28:19. We should not imagine that they were perfect people. Here we see them divided into two camps. The Grecian Jews here were Christians who spoke Greek instead of Aramaic (or Hebrew) and who had probably been born, or lived at one time, in other countries. Aramaic was the common spoken language in Jerusalem. It was similar to Hebrew. Those Christians who spoke it were discriminating against those of Grecian background. Some believers were forgetting the unity once enjoyed (2:44-47), and following their fallen nature (compare 1 Cor 3:1-4).

Discrimination against other Christians because of language, color, race, nation, social or financial position, or any other thing is wrong. It comes out of the sinful nature of man. In Christ none of those things has any importance (1 Cor 12:13; Gal 3:28; Col 3:11). If they cause us to discriminate against fellow believers and form little cliques with those of our own background, we are sinning against Christ who abolished these distinctions and commanded love and unity to us all (John 13:34; Eph 4:3).

6:2 "Twelve" - the eleven original apostles and Matthias (1:26). They knew that if they distributed the food themselves they would be just and fair to all, but God had given them a different ministry and they dared not leave it (compare Rom 12:3-8).

6:3 Observe that those in the church were to choose these men; the apostles did not appoint them on their own. But is it necessary to be "full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom" to "serve at tables"? Yes, if it is to be done as God wants it done. To do any service for God as it ought to be done requires wisdom and His Spirit's fullness. No one can live an hour as God wants him to live without these. So Eph 5:18; Jam 1:5.

6:4 Prayer and the Word of God are the two chief things for all whom God has called to preach. Either one without the other will result in a maimed ministry.

6:5 "Convert" - this means that he was first a convert to Judaism then to Christianity.

6:6 The apostles showed their approval of the choice of the people in this way and set them apart for the work.

6:7 If Jewish priests wanted to become followers of Christ they had to renounce their former views of Him and forsake the views of the high priest who still opposed Him. That they did so indicates how powerful the evidence was for the resurrection of Christ and for the coming of God's Spirit.

6:8 The man chosen to "serve at tables" soon discovered other gifts in himself. God may use a person in marvelous ways who is faithful in some ordinary task, and there is no telling what may eventually be the ministry of a man filled with God's Spirit.

6:9 These were Jews who had once lived in those foreign parts.

"Freedmen" - this is a better translation for today than "Libertines" (KJV). The Greek word means people set free from slavery. The usual meaning of the word "libertine" today is someone who is sexually immoral and promiscuous, who acts without restraint.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit with which he spoke.

11 Then they privately instigated men to say: "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God."

12 And they stirred up the people and the elders and the teachers of the Law, and they came up and seized him, and brought him to the Council. 13 Then they produced false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place, and the Law. 14 For we heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and change the customs which Moses delivered to us."

15 And everyone who sat in the council, looking steadily at him, saw his face as if it were the face of an angel.

7 Then the high priest said, "Are these things so?" 2 And he said, "Men, brethren, and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, 3 and said to him, 'Go away from your country, and from your people, and come to the land that I will show you.'

4 "Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans, and lived in Haran. From there, when his father died, God caused him to move to this land where you now live. 5 And he gave him no inheritance in it, no, not enough to set his foot on. But he promised that he would give it as a possession to him and to his descendants after him, when Abraham still had no child. 6 And God spoke in this way, that his descendants would be strangers in a foreign land, and that they would enslave them and mistreat them for four hundred years. 7 And I will judge the nation to which they are enslaved, God said, 'and afterwards they will come out and serve me in this place.' 8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. And Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

9 "And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt. But God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his troubles, and gave him favour and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh king of Egypt, so he made him ruler over Egypt and all his house.

11 "Now a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great trouble. And our fathers found no food. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time. 13 And during the second time Joseph became known to his brothers and Joseph's people became known to Pharaoh. 14 Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob and all his family to Egypt, seventy-five people. 15 So Jacob went down to Egypt and there died, he and our fathers, 16 and were carried over to Shechem, and placed in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem.

17 "But when the time drew near to fulfil the promise that God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and increased in number in Egypt, 18 until another king arose who did not know Joseph. 19 He dealt treacherously with our people and mistreated our fathers, making them throw

6:11 Being defeated in argument they used the tricks evil men often use (Matt 26:59; John 8:48,59; etc).

6:12 "Council" – the Sanhedrin – Matt 5:22.

6:14 Compare Matt 26:61.

6:15 It was plain to them all that Stephen was innocent, sincere and powerful. But these haters of truth were concerned only in getting rid of him. Note on angels at Gen 16:7.

7:1 In the speech which follows Stephen does not refer directly to their accusations. Instead he gives a brief account of Israel's history beginning with the father of the nation, Abraham, and gives special emphasis to Moses through whom God gave His law. In this way he answers the charges that he had spoken against God, Moses, the law and the temple (6:11,13,14) – he shows that his teaching was in accordance with the Old Testament. All along he has one end in view – to show that the nation was always rebellious against its God-appointed leaders, and that this rebellious spirit was displayed to the full in their murder of the Lord Jesus. Stephen showed very great courage in speaking like this before the religious court of the Jews which had condemned Jesus to death. The explanation of his boldness is found in 6:5.

7:2 "God of glory" – a name found in Ps 29:3. The story of Abraham is found in Genesis chapters 11-25.

7:14 Compare Gen 46:26. There the number in Jacob's family in Canaan is given as sixty-six, apart from his son's wives. Counting the nine wives of Jacob's sons still living in Canaan the figure comes to seventy-five. (Judah's wife was dead – Gen 38:12, and, according to tradition, Simeon's wife also).

out their infants so they would not live.

20 "At that time Moses was born. He was a very fine child, and nurtured in his father's house for three months. 21 And when he was placed outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and brought him up as her own son. 22 And Moses was trained in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was powerful in words and in deeds.

23 "And when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck down the Egyptian. 25 For he supposed his brethren would understand that God would deliver them by his hand, but they did not understand. 26 And the next day he appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and tried to make peace between them, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why do you harm one another?'

27 "But the one who was harming his neighbour shoved him away and said, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Will you kill me, as you did the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 At this word Moses fled, and was a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

30 "And when forty years had passed, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. And as he drew near to look at it, the voice of the Lord came to him, 32 saying, 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' Then Moses trembled, and did not dare to look.

33 "Then the Lord said to him, 'Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. 34 I have seen, yes, I have seen the oppression of my people in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you to Egypt.'

7:20-22 Ex 2:1-10.

7:23-29 Ex 2:11-15,21,22; 18:3.

7:25 This is a theme Stephen now begins to emphasize – the people of Israel revealed in their history that they were often ignorant of God's plans and rejected the leaders God appointed for them.

7:30-34 Ex 3:1-10.

7:35 Notes on this angel at Gen 16:7; Ex 3:2.

7:36 This verse covers Exodus chapters 7 to 17 and parts of Numbers chapters 14 to 21.

7:37 Deut 18:15 – this prophet was the Lord Jesus.

7:38 Far from speaking against Moses (6:11), Stephen honored him. And he calls the law "living oracles" – compare John 6:63; Lev 18:5.

35 "This is that Moses whom they rejected, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' He is the one God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 He brought them out, after showing wonders and miraculous signs in the land of Egypt and at the Red Sea and in the wilderness for forty years.

37 "This is that Moses who said to the children of Israel, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brethren. You must listen to him.' 38 This is he who was in the church in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, the one who received the living oracles to give to us.

39 "Him our fathers would not obey, but rejected, and in their hearts turned back again to Egypt, 40 saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods to go before us. For as for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' 41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice to the idol, and were happy with the works of their own hands. 42 Then God turned away and gave them up to worship the starry host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the Prophets,

O house of Israel,
did you offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness?

43 You even took the tabernacle of Moloch,
and the star of your god Remphan,
images which you made to worship.
So I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, as God had appointed, telling Moses to make it according to the pattern that he had seen. 45 Having received it in turn, our fathers brought it with Joshua to the land of 7:39 See notes on vs 1,25. Stephen will show that as Israel dealt with the prophet Moses so also they dealt with the great prophet Moses foretold (v 37). Though the people of Israel left Egypt their thoughts and desires were still there (Ex 16:1-3; Num 14:1-4).

7:40,41 Ex 32:1-6.

7:42,43 Stephen is referring to the Greek translation of the Hebrew of Amos 5:25-27, but does not give an exact quotation. His purpose was simply to show that God gave up Israel to false worship because of their disobedience and rebelliousness. See notes on the worship of stars at Deut 4:19; 17:3-5; Ezek 8:16-18; Gen 1:14-18.

the Gentiles, whom God drove out from the presence of our fathers until the days of David. 46 He found favour with God, and wanted to see to the building of a dwelling place for the God of Jacob. 47 But it was Solomon who built him a house.

48 "However, the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands; as the prophet says,

49 'Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool.
What house will you build me?
says the Lord,
Or what is the place of my rest?
50 Has not my hand made all these things?'

51 "You stiffnecked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. You are just like your fathers. 52 Which of the prophets did you just like your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of the Just One, whom you have now betrayed and murdered. 53 You have received the Law administered by angels, and have not kept it."

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed their teeth at him. 55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadily into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, 56 and said, "Look, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God."

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at him all together, 58 and dragged him out of the city, and pelted him with stones. And the witnesses laid their clothes at the feet of a young man whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen as he was calling on God and saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60 And he knelt down and cried out with a loud

7:46 2 Sam 7:1-5. Note on "God of Jacob" at Ps 146:5.

7:47 1 Kings chapter 6.

7:48-50 The Jews attached great importance to the temple in Jerusalem. One of the charges they made against Stephen was that he spoke against it (6:13,14). Evidently, he had been speaking in a way that indicated his conviction that the temple itself was not the important thing but the God whose name was there, and that lives of holiness and obedience were greater than ritual and ceremonies (compare Isa 1:12-20). He here quotes from Isa 66:1,2 to show that his views were in accordance with the Old Testament. Those verses conclude with the words "But to this man I will look: to him who is lowly and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word." Stephen does not quote these words but they may well have been in his mind. Did he not see the huge contrast between the kind of person described in those words and the Jewish leaders before Him? It seems that this (and the inspiration of God's Spirit in his heart) accounts for the sudden outburst against them beginning in the next verse.

7:51 Stephen resolved to speak the truth as the Lord Jesus had done, regardless of the consequences. Stiffnecked means stubborn and rebellious.

"Uncircumcised in heart and ears" - see Lev 26:41; Deut 10:16; Jer 4:4. Their hearts were not made new, so they were unable to hear the Word of God and obey it (Jer 6:10; Matt 13:14,15). To say they were like their fathers (ancestors) was to condemn them utterly (vs 39-43; Matt 23:32). Charging them with resisting God's Spirit brings to mind Ps 106:33. This was always the great sin of Israel and these Jewish leaders knew that - but they did not want to apply this truth to themselves.

7:52 Matt 23:33-39. The Just One is Christ (3:14).

7:53 They accused him of speaking against the law (6:13), but they, professing to honor the law, had broken it repeatedly and, as it were, trampled it under their feet (Matt 23:1-3; 15:3-9; Rom 2:17-24).

7:54 He may have had more to say but they didn't wait to hear it. Compare 5:33; Ps 35:16; John 3:20. Those who gnash their teeth at God's messengers will one day gnash them for another reason (Matt 8:12; 13:42).

7:55 The fullness of God's Spirit is what made Stephen the fearless man of God he was and caused him to speak as he did (6:5,8,10). God gave him a special vision at the time of his persecution and death.

7:56 "Look" - did he think others could see what he did (it being real to him)? It would seem that heaven is so near that men could look right into it if God gave them the ability (1:9).

"Son of man" - Matt 8:20. Compare these words of Stephen with Jesus' own words before the same Council (Matt 26:64).

7:57 Learned, religious men when faced with unwanted truth can behave as violently, recklessly and unjustly as anyone else. These men could not stand to hear words that honored Jesus whom they hated (John 15:18-25). So they refused to hear the very thing they needed to hear and believe.

7:58 They had no right under Roman rule to put anyone to death (John 18:31), but in their rage they ignored this. They thought (or professed to think) that Stephen was a blasphemer and that it was their duty to put him to death (John 16:2; Lev 24:13-16). The "witnesses" were those who had heard and accused him. Here we see Saul in their camp, but soon he would be proclaiming the truth that then he wanted to overthrow.

7:59 Luke 23:46. He evidently believed in the deity of the Lord Jesus. Who but God could receive his spirit (Ps 31:5; Eccl 12:7).

7:60 Luke 23:34. The fullness of God's Spirit voice, "Lord, do not put this sin to their account." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

8 And Saul consented to his death. And at that time a great persecution arose against the church which was at Jerusalem, and except for the apostles, they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria. 2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial and made great lamentation over him. 3 As for Saul, he raised havoc in the church. Going into every house and dragging off men and women, he committed them to prison.

4 Therefore those who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word. 5 Then Philip went down to a city of Samaria, and preached Christ to them. 6 And the people with one mind gave attention to the things Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. 7 For unclean made him like the Lord Jesus in this also. He fulfilled the law of love Jesus taught in Matt 5:43-48. It should be an encouragement to all of us that Stephen in a very short time became like the Lord Jesus in so many ways. He is a striking example of the truth of 2 Cor 3:18. "Sleep" is sometimes used for death in the Bible - the body sleeps, the spirit goes to God (John 11:11,14; 1 Cor 15:51; 1 Thess 4:14).

8:1 Evidently the Jewish leaders turned against the advice of Gamaliel (5:38,39), and decided that force was the only way to stop the spread of Christ's Gospel. And Saul, who had been a student of Gamaliel (22:3), was one of the chief instruments of the persecution which followed (v 3; 9:1,2). Saul's "consent" to the murder of Stephen does not mean necessarily that he was a member of the Sanhedrin, the highest Jewish council. It may mean nothing more than the fact that in his heart he was in full agreement with it. It is interesting that the apostles remained in Jerusalem. Perhaps Christ's enemies, though eager to destroy Christ's lambs, were afraid to fall on the shepherds He had appointed for them.

8:3 "Into every house" - compare 20:20,21.

8:4 Did the leaders think that the wind of trouble would blow out the fire in the church? Instead, it scattered the fire, and flames began to leap up in many parts of the land. The history of the church reveals that persecution does not stop Christ's witnesses but actually can aid in the spread of the gospel. Persecution endured joyfully reveals the sincerity of believers, the reality of their faith and life in Christ (5:40-42).

8:5 This Philip was one of those chosen with Stephen to "serve at tables" (6:1-6), not the apostle Philip. The note on Stephen at 6:8 applies also to him. Notes on Samaria at Matt 10:5; John 4:4; 2 Kings 17:24. The Samaritans had been prepared for this by the visit there of the Lord Jesus Himself (John 4:4-42). This was a big step in the spread of the gospel - for the first time (as spirits, crying with loud voices, came out of many that had been possessed by them, and many were healed who had been paralyzed and was lame. 8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 And there was a certain man named Simon who had been practicing sorcery in that city, amazing the people of Samaria, and claiming that he was someone great. 10 They all, from the least to the greatest, gave him their attention, saying, "This man is the great power of God." 11 And they held him in high regard, because for a long time he had amazed them with magic arts. 12 But when they believed Philip as he preached the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. 13 Then Simon himself also believed. And when he was baptized, he stayed close to Philip, and was astonished, seeing the miracles and signs far as we know) Christ's disciples preached outside the Jewish community. Thus they began to fulfill Acts 1:8.

8:6 Note on "signs" at John 2:11. They had the result in Samaria that God intended - they made people eager to hear the preaching of the gospel.

8:7 Note on unclean spirits at Matt 4:24.

8:9-11 Simon was a person, it seems, very like some of the so-called godmen of India. Consider the following. He practiced magical arts and did (or pretended to do) wonders and miracles (compare Matt 24:24; Ex 7:22; 8:7). He put himself forward as some great one. He accepted honors that should be given only to God. And he was able to impress and amaze everyone including men in high positions.

There were great differences between him and Philip. He proclaimed himself, Philip proclaimed Christ (vs 3,12). He preached his own thoughts, Philip preached the Word of God (v 14). He wanted to be "great." Philip sought no greatness for himself but only for Christ (see Matt 20:25-28; Jer 45:5). Another difference was that the things Simon performed were not real miracles but only magician's tricks, and were doubtless for the purpose of amazing others. Philip performed real miracles which displayed the power of God, and he had the purpose of helping others in their illness and misery (v 7). Simon himself could see this difference (v 13).

8:12 Observe that this says "they believed Philip," not "they believed in Christ." They believed that Philip was a man of God and that he was teaching the truth, and they were willing to join the followers of Christ. But whether they came to a living faith in the Lord Jesus at that time is not clearly revealed. But we know they did not yet receive the Holy Spirit (v 16).

8:13 It is not said of Simon either that he believed "in Christ." It seems clear from vs 20-23 that he did not. He was only greatly impressed by the power of God that Philip which were done.

14 Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, 15 who, when they arrived, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit 16 (for as yet he had not come down on any of them. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) 17 Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18 And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, "Give me also this power, so that everyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

20 But Peter said to him, "Your money perish with you, because you thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. 21 You have neither part nor share in this matter, for your heart is not right in the sight of God. 22 Therefore, repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to God. Perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. 23 For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness, and the bondage of sin."

24 Then Simon answered and said, "Pray to the Lord for me, that none of these things which you have spoken come upon me."

25 And when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go southward to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza, which is in the desert." 27 And he arose and went, and there saw a man from Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasure. He had come displayed. Not everyone who takes baptism is a true believer in Jesus. Being baptized by a man of God does not make a person a man of God or even a believer.

8:14 The apostles, of course, wanted to know what the real state of things was in Samaria and put their stamp of approval on any work truly of God.

8:15-17 It seems that here is an instance of Peter using the "keys" of the kingdom of heaven and once and for all opening the door to the Samaritans as he did to the Jews on the day of Pentecost, and to the Gentiles in chapter 10. See note on Matt 16:19. It was very important to establish the authority of the original apostles of Christ as the bearers of the true Gospel. This is one way God chose to do this - by giving the Holy Spirit by the laying on of their hands (the giving of signs, miracles and wonders was another way - Heb 2:4).

Now the authority of the apostles has long been established, the gospel has been fully revealed and written down for everyone in all eras, and the kingdom of God is opened once and for all to every kind of people. The apostles exercised their authority, founded the New Testament Church and gave us God's Word for the Church. They alone were God's chosen instruments for this, and God worked with them in special ways to demonstrate this. They had their work and they finished it. It does not need to be done again, and it cannot be done again. See also notes at 2 Cor 12:12.

There are now no authoritative and inspired apostles, and there is no need for one to lay hands on anyone to receive God's Spirit. God's Spirit is now received directly from God when a person receives the Lord Jesus by faith (1 Cor 12:12,13; Eph 1:13; Gal 3:14). If anyone is afraid he does not have God's Spirit he should go directly to God about this matter (Luke 11:13). All believers have full access to God even as the apostles had then (Rom 5:1,2).

8:18,19 Since Simon offered money it is likely that he thought he could make money if he had this ability. At least he would gain more power over people and more fame. There is a word now in English that comes from this man and his request. The word is "simony" and means the buying or selling of high positions in the church, the object being to gain influence or power or to make money. It is similar to what now goes on in some Christian circles - men giving bribes to others to vote them into places of leadership in the church. This is a totally corrupt practice which can never have the blessing of God.

8:20-23 These harsh words indicate how terrible Simon's sinful desire was. They also show that he had not yet repented, trusted in Christ and been made right with God. True believers will not perish with their money (John 10:28), and new believers are not like Simon in the other ways Peter describes him.

8:24 This does not say Simon repented. He was fearful of punishment, but this is not the same thing as repentance (Matt 3:2,8).

8:25 Compare Matt 10:5. A new day had dawned.

8:26 "Angel" - 5:19; Matt 10:20; Luke 1:11,26. Gaza is on the Mediterranean coast southwest of Jerusalem.

8:27 Notice that Philip was willing to leave a flourishing work of God in Samaria and go anywhere else God told him to go. The people called Ethiopians then occupied an area somewhat north of the present one. It included a part of southern Egypt and northern Sudan. In those days nations used eunuchs as court officials. This one knew of the true God and His temple in Jerusalem and had come a long way to worship Him (compare Matt 2:1,2). Though he was a Gentile by race, it is very likely that he was a convert to the Jews' religion. There were such people in many parts of the world who had abandoned their gods and idols, turned to the God of Israel, and had become to Jerusalem to worship, 28 and was returning, sitting in his chariot and reading Isaiah the prophet. 29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and meet this chariot."

30 And Philip ran there to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, "How can I, unless some man guides me?" And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 The place in the Scripture which he read was this:

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb silent before his shearer,
so he did not open his mouth.

33 In his humiliation his justice was taken away.

And who will declare his generation?
For his life was taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch responded to Philip, and said, "I ask you, who is the prophet speaking this about? About himself, or about some other man?"

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning at the same Scripture, preached Jesus to him.

36 And as they went down the road, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "See, here is water. What prevents me from being baptized?"

37 And Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and he baptized him. 39 And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so the eunuch did not see him again. And he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip appeared at Azotus, and passing through that area he preached in all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

9 And Saul, still breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, 2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And as he traveled he came near Damascus. And suddenly there shone around him a light from heaven. 4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

5 And he said, "Who are you, Lord?"

converts to Judaism (compare 2:11). If this eunuch had not been such a person why would he have wanted to make that long journey to Jerusalem? There is another reason for thinking he was a Jewish convert – the "keys" to open the kingdom of God to the Gentiles were not given to Philip but to Peter who used them as recorded in chapter 10.

8:28 Worship alone did not satisfy the desires of this man for truth.

8:29 The Spirit here is the Holy Spirit. His speaking is an indication of His personality. See notes at John 14:16,17. See how clearly he can direct those who are yielded and obedient to Him.

8:31 The man was a foreigner with little knowledge of the teaching of the Old Testament and of the coming of Christ. Men still need someone to explain the word of God to them.

8:32,33 Notes at Isa 53:7,8. Surely we see the hand of God in this too. The man was reading in the very place in all the Old Testament which most clearly states the reason for the coming of the Lord Jesus.

8:34,35 Philip, being full of the Holy Spirit (6:3-5), and taught by the apostles (2:42), well knew whom Isaiah spoke of. Compare Luke 24:26,27,45,46.

8:36-38 Notes on baptism at 2:38; Matt 3:6; 28:19; Mark 16:16.

8:39 Compare this action of God's Spirit with 1 Kings 18:21; 2 Kings 2:16; Ezek 3:14; 8:3. Observe in this whole account of Philip and the Ethiopian how different God's ways are from man's (Isa 55:8-9). The Ethiopian had just come from Jerusalem where some of the apostles and many believers lived. Yet God directed none of them to teach him. Instead he brought Philip all the way from Samaria to do so, and then took him away again very suddenly. But whether here or there, whether by using a Philip or another, God will surely see to it that any person who wants the truth will have it.

9:1 See 8:1,3; 22:9-11; Phil 3:6.

9:2 "Way" – the way of Christ (John 14:6). Damascus, the capital of Syria, was an ancient city about 200 kilometers northeast of Jerusalem. Evidently the gospel of Christ had already spread there (compare 2:5). Saul determined to destroy Christ's church wherever it was found.

9:3 The hour had come for God to change the greatest enemy of the church into the greatest teacher of the church. This was a marvelous display of God's grace, mercy and love. See 1 Tim 1:12-16; 2 Tim 1:9. Paul's whole life was changed in a single incandescent moment.

9:4 To persecute Christ's believers is to persecute Him. In fact, whatever we do either against them or for them we do against Him or for Him. They are the body of which He is the Head (1 Cor 12:12,13; Eph 1:22,23; Col 1:18). It is not possible to persecute the "body" or any member of it without persecuting the "Head" at the same time. Compare Matt 10:40; 18:5; 25:34-46; Luke 9:48; John 17:20-23.

9:5 "Who are you, Lord?" – Paul is aware

And the Lord said, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. It is hard for you to kick against the goads."

6 And he, trembling and astonished, said, "Lord, what will you have me to do?" And the Lord said to him, "Arise, and go into the city, and it will be told you what you must do."

7 And the men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no one. 8 And Saul rose up from the ground. And when his eyes were opened he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him to Damascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank anything.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias."

And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

11 And the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for a person called Saul of Tarsus. For see, he is praying, 12 and has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight."

that whoever it is speaking with him has authority to tell him what to do. See the note at 22:10. How the answer to his question must have struck Paul – Jesus! How it must have turned all his thoughts upside down in a single moment!

9:6 Paul had just asked a question which he tells us about in 22:10 (see note there). The question indicated Paul's submission to the Lord, and willingness to obey. In 26:16-18 Paul reveals that the Lord told him something of what he would do.

9:7 See 22:9.

9:8 The brilliant light blinded him physically; a greater light had shined into his heart and given him spiritual sight – 2 Cor 4:6.

9:10 Ananias means "Jehovah is gracious" (in Hebrew, "Hananiah"). He was a Jew who had believed in Christ – 22:12. Note on visions at Gen 15:1.

9:11 Tarsus was a town in the area that is now called Turkey. It was Saul's home town (9:30; 11:25; 21:39; 22:3). We see in this verse what Saul had been doing since the Lord appeared to him – praying. What he began then he continued for the rest of his life and became an example to all of us in how to pray and what to pray for (16:25; 20:36; 22:17; Eph 1:15-23; 3:14-21; Phil 1:3-11; Col 1:9-12).

9:12 It is interesting that the Lord Jesus chose to appear to Saul near Damascus rather than near Jerusalem where the apostles were, and that He used an unknown believer rather than one of them. See Isa 55:8,9.

9:13 "Saints" – as used here this means "holy ones", those whom God has separated for Himself from the rest of mankind. It is another name for believers – Rom 1:7; etc.

13 Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem. 14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to put in chains everyone who calls on your name."

15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen vessel for me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. 16 For I will show him what great things he must suffer for my name's sake."

17 And Ananias went and entered the house, and, putting his hands on him, said, "Brother Saul, the Lord, that is, Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming, has sent me that you might receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he received his sight at once, and got up, and was baptized. 19 And when he had taken food, he was strengthened. Then Saul stayed some days with the disciples who were at Damascus.

20 And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. 21 But all who heard him were amazed, and said, "Is not this

9:15,16 In these two verses the Lord gives the essence of Paul's life and work described in chapters 13-28. He was a "chosen vessel." See 26:16-18; Gal 1:15; Eph 3:2,7,8; Col 1:25; 1 Tim 1:12; 2 Tim 1:11. Suffering for Christ was an integral part of all his ministry and he learned to rejoice in it – 2 Tim 1:12; 1 Thess 3:3,4; Col 1:24; 2 Cor 7:4; 4:16-18; Rom 5:3. He realized that in God's present kingdom on earth being permitted to suffer for the King's sake is a mark of His great favor – Matt 5:10-12; Rom 8:17; Phil 1:29.

9:17 It seems from this that Saul received the Holy Spirit by the laying on of Ananias's hands (though the language does not make this absolutely certain). Acts records different ways in which men received the fullness of God's Spirit – directly from God (2:1-4; 10:44,45), by the laying on of the hands of the apostles (8:17; 19:6), and, in this one case here, probably by the laying on of hands of an ordinary disciple. Sometimes this happened before water baptism, sometimes after. God's Spirit worked as He pleased, and no one could predict His manner of working.

We should observe that the Lord clearly and specifically commanded Ananias to do as he did. No one without such direct instructions from the Lord should presume to do such a thing. Notice he called Saul "brother", thus accepting him into the fellowship of believers.

9:18 "Baptized" – see 2:38; Matt 3:6; Mark 16:16.

9:20-22 Because of the vision he saw of the Lord, because of the filling of the Holy Spirit, Paul came into an understanding of the Old Testament which he had never the one who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and came here for that same purpose, that he might take them in chains to the chief priests?" 22 But Saul increased all the more in power, and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus, proving that this Jesus is the Christ.

23 And after many days had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him, 24 but their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. 25 Then the disciples took him at night and let him down through an opening in the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul came to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and told them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them in Jerusalem, coming in and going out. 29 And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and debated with the Grecian Jews, but they tried to kill him. 30 When the brethren came to know this, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him away to Tarsus.

31 Then the churches throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were edified, and walking in the fear of the Lord and in the encouragement of the Holy Spirit increased in number.

32 And it came about as Peter passed through all areas of the country, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. 33 And there he saw a certain man named Aeneas who had kept to his bed for eight years and was paralyzed. 34 And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up, and make your bed." And immediately he got up. 35 And all who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and deeds of charity which she did. 37 And it came to pass in those days that she became sick and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. 38 And since Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, asking him to come to them without delay.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he arrived, they brought him to the upper room. And all the widows stood next to him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all out, and knelt down and prayed, and, turning toward the body, said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her to them alive. 42 And this became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. 43 And it came about that he stayed many days in Joppa with a tanner named Simon.

gained by all his studies with Gamaliel (22:3; Gal 1:14).

"This name" - see 4:17; 5:28.

9:23-25 See 2 Cor 11:33. This was only the first of many attempts the Jews made to stop Saul (v 29; 13:45; 14:5,19; 17:5,13; 18:6; 21:27-31). The sufferings which were to be a part of his life (v 16) had begun.

9:26 Gal 1:15-19. They had not seen Saul for about three years, and had only heard rumors of him. Their fear was natural.

9:27 Barnabas lived up to the meaning of his name (4:36. See also 11:22-24). At the time, it seems, in Jerusalem there were only two who were called apostles (Gal 1:18,19 - but it is possible Paul was speaking of a different time in Galatians).

9:28 Boldness is a mark of those filled with God's Spirit (4:13,31).

9:29 Verse 23.

9:30 Verse 11.

9:31 The Jewish leaders had discovered that persecution would not destroy the church or stop its witness, and they must have been astonished when the chief persecutor himself became a disciple of Jesus. Notes on the fear of the Lord at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

9:32 Lydda was a town about 40 kilometers northwest of Jerusalem near Joppa.

9:34 He did not say "Simon Peter heals you." See 3:6,12.

9:35 Miracles alone cannot produce faith (Luke 16:31), but God may use them to convince people that He is near and active. Notes on miracles at Matt 8:1; John 2:11.

9:36 Joppa was a port on the Mediterranean Sea about 55 kilometers from Jerusalem. Tabitha is Aramaic, Dorcas is Greek. They both mean "gazelle." She was an example of what every Christian should be in service to the poor. Unfortunately few follow her example. On helping the poor see Gal 2:10; Matt 19:21; 2 Cor 9:9.

9:38 It seems they had hope that Peter could restore Dorcas to life.

9:40,41 Compare Mark 5:21-24; 35-43; John 14:12,13. This is one of only two cases in the book of Acts of the raising of the dead. For the other see 20:7-12. Though the Lord rarely performed this miracle it was no more difficult for Him than any other.

9:42 They recognized that it was the Lord Jesus who had raised the dead, not Peter. See 3:12.

9:43 Jewish teachers considered tanning an unclean trade, but this did not bother Peter in the least.

10 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment. 2 He was a devout man, and one who feared God together with all his household. He gave charitably to poor people, and prayed to God constantly. 3 About three in the afternoon, he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius."

4 And when he looked at him, he was afraid, and said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your charitable deeds have come up as a memorial in God's presence. 5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is called Peter. 6 He is a guest of Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea. He will tell you what you should do."

7 And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius had left, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier from among those who were in constant attendance on him. 8 And when he had told them all these things, he sent them to Joppa.

9 The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near to the city, about twelve noon, Peter went up on the housetop to pray. 10 And he became very hungry and wanted to eat, but while they were preparing the food, he fell into a trance, 11 and saw heaven opened, and an object like a large sheet bound by its four corners being let down to the earth and descending toward him. 12 In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, and wild beasts and creeping things and birds of the air. 13 And a voice came to him: "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat."

14 But Peter said, "Not so, Lord. For I have never eaten anything that is unholy or unclean."

15 And the voice spoke to him a second time, "What God has cleansed, do not call unholy." 16 This was done three times, and the object was taken up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was wondering what the meaning was of this vision he had seen, the men who were sent by Cornelius asked for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, 18 and called, and asked if Simon who was called Peter was staying there.

19 While Peter was thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Look, three men are looking for you. 20 So get up and go down. Go with them without doubting at all, for I have sent them."

21 Then Peter went down to the men who were

10:1 Luke records the raising of Dorcas in seven verses. He gives far more space to the story of Cornelius and his family - 10:1 - 11:18 (sixty-six verses). This shows its importance. This is the first time any of the apostles had taken the gospel to the Gentiles (v 45. Samaritans were considered half-breeds and a different class of people). And it was Peter who used the "keys of the kingdom of heaven" for the third time (Matt 16:19). Caesarea was a port on the Mediterranean Sea, a little more than 100 kilometers northwest of Jerusalem. It was named after Augustus Caesar, emperor of Rome (Luke 2:1). Cornelius was a Roman non-commissioned officer in the army in charge of one hundred soldiers.

10:2 Evidently he did not worship the many gods of Rome. From some source or other he had learned of the one true God and sought Him. He was a deeply religious man who demonstrated his sincerity by good works. But he had not yet received salvation (11:13,14). In this story God would teach us again that salvation is not by religion, or sincerity, or good works, or prayers, but by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ (16:31; John 1:12; 3:16,36; Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:4-7).

10:3 Notes on visions and angels at Gen 15:1; 16:7.

10:4-6 God had been at work in Cornelius, preparing him to hear and believe the gospel. His prayers and deeds were a "remembrance" to God of his sincerity, but also of his need of more truth. So God gives specific instructions so that he might receive the truth he lacked. When people follow the light God gives them God observes it and gives them more light until they receive the full truth of Christ. Those who refuse the light will go into deeper darkness - John 3:19-21; 8:12; 9:39.

10:9-16 God had prepared Cornelius to hear the truth. Now He prepares His messenger to deliver the truth to him. These two things have a central place in God's unceasing work in the world. Happy are those who have a part in it.

10:13,14 Peter as a Jew had always followed the instructions of the Old Testament about "clean" and "unclean." See Leviticus chapter 11. He could not understand or accept immediately a command to disobey those instructions. He was now an experienced apostle who had been filled with the Holy Spirit, but see how he still says "no" to the Lord. Compare Matt 16:22; John 13:8.

10:15 See Matt 15:11; Mark 7:18,19 and notes; Rom 6:14; 7:4; 1 Tim 4:3-5. For this New Testament era God lifted the ban on certain foods that were "unclean" in Old Testament days.

10:16 "Three times" - compare John 13:38; 21:15-17.

10:17,18 God's timing of events is always perfect.

10:19 On God's Spirit speaking see 8:29.

10:20 The Spirit knew how reluctant Peter would be to go with them because they were Gentiles, so he specifically instructed Peter not to hesitate to go. The Jews regarded Gentiles as "unclean" just as they regarded certain foods as "unclean" (Lev 11:1). The spiritual meaning of the vision Peter saw was that this attitude too must pass away (v 28). God's Spirit in the Church does not tolerate prejudice against people because sent to him by Cornelius, and said, "See, I am the one you are looking for. For what reason have you come?"

22 And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a righteous man who fears God, and who has a good reputation among all the Jewish people, was instructed by God through a holy angel to send for you to his house, and to hear your words." 23 Then he invited them in, and showed them hospitality. And the next day Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the next day after that they entered Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, and he had called together his relatives and close friends. 25 And as Peter was coming in Cornelius met him, and prostrated himself at his feet, showing reverence. 26 But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up! I too am just a man."

27 And talking with him, he went in, and found that many had gathered together. 28 And he said to them, "You know how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to associate with someone of another race or to visit him. But God has shown me that I should not call anyone unholy or unclean. 29 Therefore I came without objecting, as soon as I was sent for. So my question is, what is your reason for sending for me?"

30 And Cornelius said, "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour. And at three o'clock I was praying in my house, and, lo and behold, a man stood before me in shining clothes, 31 and said, of their race or country of origin (see note at 6:1).

10:23 This shows that Peter had learned the lesson God was teaching him. The Jews considered that they became unclean by contact with Gentiles (v 28; 11:2,3). But the men needed to rest from the fifty kilometers journey from Caesarea, and Peter received them.

10:24 He realized Peter would speak matters of great importance and wanted all those he loved to hear his message (v 33).

10:25,26 "Peter raised him up" – Cornelius did not know that showing such reverence to a man was not right, but Peter did know, and emphatically refused it – as all God's servants should. None of us should ever prostrate ourselves at the feet of another human being, no matter how famous and exalted he may be. And none of us should ever let another human being prostrate themselves to us. Only God is worthy of such reverence. Compare Rev 22:8,9.

10:28,29 Verses 15,20. The old order of things was passing away. The Jews who had become followers of Christ must no longer think they should have nothing to do with those of other races.

10:34,35 "God shows no favoritism" – see Rom 2:11; Eph 6:9; Col 3:25; Jam 2:1; 1 Pet 1:17.

"Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your charitable deeds are remembered in the presence of God. 32 Send, therefore, to Joppa and call Simon, who is called Peter. He is a guest in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea. When he comes, he will speak with you." 33 So immediately I sent for you. And it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here in the presence of God to hear everything that God has commanded you to say."

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, "In truth I see that God shows no favoritism, 35 but in every nation he accepts those who fear him and practice righteousness. 36 The word which God sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, 37 that message, you know. It was proclaimed throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee after the baptism that John preached: 38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how he went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

39 "And we are witnesses of everything he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a tree. 40 God raised him up on the third day, and showed him openly, 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, that is, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that he is the one who was ordained "Practice righteousness" – Peter was not teaching salvation by works. He well knew as all the apostles did that God saves men by grace through faith (see what he says in 15:11). He also knew that God accepts anyone anywhere who responds to the truth given to them and tries to follow it, and that He will lead them on to more truth (vs 4-6). When a person takes one step toward God, he will find that God also steps nearer (compare Luke 15:17-20; Jam 4:8. He will also find out later that it was God who enabled him to take that one step toward Himself).

10:36 "Peace" – see Luke 1:79; 2:14; John 14:27; 16:33; 2 Cor 5:18-21.

"Lord of all" – the Lord Jesus Christ is Lord over every human being – though few recognize this and receive Him as such (2:36; Rom 10:9; 1 Cor 8:6; Eph 1:20-23; Phil 2:9-11).

10:37 Matt 3:1-6.

10:38 Matt 3:16,17; 4:23,24; 9:35; Luke 4:16-21.

10:39 Acts 1:8. Peter uses "tree" for the cross (5:30).

10:40 See 2:32; 3:15.

10:41 John 15:27; 20:19,20; 21:9-14; 1 Cor 15:5-8.

"Ate" – Luke 24:42,43.

10:42 Matt 28:18-20; Mark 16:15.

by God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. 43 All the prophets testify about him that through his name whoever believes in him will receive the forgiveness of sins."

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came on all those who heard the Word. 45 And all those believers who came with Peter, who were circumcised, were astonished, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out on the Gentiles also. 46 For they heard them speak in tongues and praise God.

Then Peter responded, 47 "Can anyone forbid water to prevent baptism to these who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" 48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they begged him to stay for some days.

11 And the apostles and brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. 2 And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those believers who were circumcised opposed him, 3 saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them."

4 But Peter started from the beginning and explained the matter to them in an orderly way, saying, 5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. A certain object like a "Judge" - 17:31; John 5:22,23,27; Matt 25:31-33.

10:43 Luke 24:26,27,45-48. "Forgiveness of sins" - Matt 6:12; 9:5-7; 12:31; 18:23-25; Eph 1:7; 1 John 1:9; Isa 55:7.

10:44 This is an ideal way to have one's sermons interrupted. Compare the words "came on all" with 1:5,8; 2:4.

10:45 "Circumcised believers" - here means Jews who had become Christians.

"Gift. . . Holy Spirit" - 2:38; 5:32; 15:8. 10:46 "Speak in tongues" - or "languages." Because of this the Jewish believers recognized that the Holy Spirit had been given to these Gentiles. This immediate outward evidence was necessary to convince them that God had indeed poured out His Spirit on people other than Jews - a thing that had never happened before. The circumstances were very unusual, and so God gave them an immediate sign that it had happened, for God wanted these Gentile believers to be accepted by the Jewish believers.

Speaking in tongues here must mean the same as it did in 2:4-11 - that is, speaking in foreign languages they had not learned. There is no indication whatever that this in any way differed from what the apostles did on the day of Pentecost. Cornelius and his relatives were Romans and their native tongue was Latin. They may have known a few words of Aramaic, Hebrew, or Greek, but suppose that with great fluency they large sheet descended, let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came to me. 6 As I looked intently into it, I saw four-footed animals of the earth, and wild beasts and creeping things and birds of the air. 7 And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.'

8 "But I said, 'Not so, Lord, for nothing unholly or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'

9 "But the voice from heaven responded to me again, 'What God has cleansed, do not call unholly.' 10 And this was done three times, and everything was taken up again to heaven.

11 "And see, at that moment three men arrived at the house where I was, sent to me from Caesarea. 12 And the Spirit told me to go with them, without doubting at all. Also these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. 13 And he told us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, 'Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is called Peter. 14 He will tell you words by which you and all your household will be saved.'

15 "And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on them as he had on us at the beginning. 16 Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' 17 Since, then, God gave them the same gift as he did to us, suddenly began to speak one of these languages, or perhaps some other language the Jewish believers were familiar with - this would have been the kind of convincing evidence they needed. They must have spoken in a language that the Jewish believers could recognize as a real language, or these believers would not have identified this speaking in tongues with the same ability exercised by the apostles (see note on 2:11). Some rush of sounds from their mouths which could not be recognized as a human language would not have been the kind of evidence they needed.

10:47 Observe carefully that these people received the Holy Spirit before they were baptized and without anyone laying hands on them. See note at 9:17.

10:48 Notes on baptism in Christ's name at 2:38; 19:5.

11:2 Circumcised believers were Jews who had become Christians.

11:3 See 10:23,28. Instead of rejoicing in the coming of Gentiles to Christ, these men criticized God's instrument in the Gentiles' conversion. Complaining about God's servants instead of rejoicing in their ministry is too often the way of many Christians. Compare Paul's attitude in Phil 1:15-18.

11:14 Note at 10:2. In spite of their piety and prayerfulness they needed salvation - Rom 3:23.

11:15 See 10:44; 2:4.

11:16 See 1:5.

11:17 See 10:45; 2:38,39.

who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could withstand God?"

18 When they heard these things, they fell silent, and then glorified God, saying "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance unto life."

19 Now those who were scattered by the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, preaching the word to no one except the Jews. 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed, and turned to the Lord.

22 Then news of these things came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem. And they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. 23 When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad and encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should stay close to the Lord. 24 For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and many people were added to the Lord.

25 Then Barnabas departed to Tarsus to seek for Saul. 26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came about that for a whole year they met together with the church, and taught many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

27 And in those days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 And one of them, named Agabus, stood up and indicated by the Spirit that there would be a great famine throughout the whole world. This came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. 29 Then the disciples, each one according to his ability, decided to send relief to the brethren who lived in Judea. 30 This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

11:18 Understanding the reasons for the behavior of others of God's servants sometimes brings the proper attitude of mind and heart. It did in this case.

"Life" – here means spiritual life, eternal life – John 3:16. Notice it is God who gives repentance – 5:31; 2 Tim 2:25.

11:19 See 8:1,4. Phoenicia was the land north of Israel along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea containing the cities of Tyre and Sidon. Cyprus is a large island in the Mediterranean northwest of Tyre and Sidon. Antioch was a large city in Syria nearly 25 kilometers from the coast (actually it was the third largest city in the Roman Empire after Rome and Alexandria). It became a very important center of Christianity in the first century. The reason these believers told the message only to Jews is because they did not yet understand that God had opened the door of salvation to other people also.

11:20 It does not say when this happened or why these men decided to preach to the Greeks. It seems very likely that it was after they heard of the events of chapter 10. 11:21 This is what preachers need – the hand of the Lord with them, working in their behalf.

11:22 "Barnabas" – 4:36; 9:27.

11:23 What does it mean "saw the grace of God"? He saw what the grace of God had produced, spiritual fruit. See John 15:1-6. Barnabas had the gift of being able to encourage others (compare Rom 12:6-8). See what Barnabas encouraged them to do. If we are not close to the Lord in our hearts we are not close to Him at all.

11:24 Here is a description of what every preacher and teacher of God's Word (and every believer) should be. Barnabas is one of only two men the New Testament calls "good" (the other is in Luke 23:50). This does not mean that no one else was good. See Matt 5:45; 7:17,18; 12:35; Luke 8:15; Rom 15:14; 1 Pet 2:18. The goodness of God's people is not theirs by nature (see Matt 7:11; Rom 7:18). God alone is innately good (Matt 19:17), and He alone can make them good (Gal 5:22; Eph 5:9). On the fullness of God's Spirit see 1:5; 2:4; Eph 5:18. The fullness of God's Spirit will lead to fullness of faith, and the results of that will be spiritual success and victory in God's work.

11:25 9:30.

11:26 Notes on the "Church" at 5:11; Matt 16:18. It was outsiders who first called the followers of Christ "Christians." It was natural for them to do so. They thought "Christ" was a proper name (instead of the title it is – see Matt 1:1), and added the Latin suffix to it making it "Christianous," meaning those who were connected in some way to Christ. In Acts Christ's people are called "disciples" (6:1), or "saints" (note at 9:13), or "brothers" (9:30), or "believers" (10:45). In fact, in the whole Bible except for this one place, only Agrippa (26:28) and Peter use the word "Christian" (1 Pet 4:16. Perhaps Peter used the word because others called them that and not because it was his custom).

11:27 Notes and references on prophets at Gen 20:7; etc.

11:28 God's Spirit revealed the future to Agabus. See also 21:10,11. Claudius was the Roman emperor 41-54 AD.

11:29 It is a great thing when Christians are "disciples" and not Christians in name only. Compare their good work with 2 Cor 8:1-5.

11:30 They did more than pass a resolution. They acted on it. Compare 2 Cor 8:10,11; Jam 2:15; 1 John 3:17,18; Matt 25:34-46.

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretched out his hands to trouble some in the church. 2 And he had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword. 3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. That was during the Days of Unleavened Bread. 4 And when he had arrested him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four groups of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him before the people after Passover.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but prayer to God for him was made without ceasing by the church. 6 And when Herod was about to bring him out, that same night, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. And the guards at the door were watching the prison. 7 And suddenly the angel of the Lord stood over him, and a light shone in the prison. And he tapped Peter on the side, and got him up, saying, "Get up quickly." And his chains fell off his hands.

8 And the angel said to him, "Fasten your belt, and tie on your sandals." And so he did. And he said to him, "Put your cloak around you and follow me."

9 And he went out and followed him, and did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. 10 When they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city. It opened to them by itself, and they went out and on down one street, and suddenly the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter came to himself he said, "Now I know for sure that the Lord has sent his angel and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the Jewish people."

12 And when he had considered the matter, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, who was called Mark. There many were gathered together praying. 13 And when Peter knocked at the door of the entryway, a girl named Rhoda came to answer. 14 And when she recognized Peter's voice, for joy she ran in without opening the gate, and reported that Peter was standing at the gate.

15 And they said to her, "You are out of your mind." But she kept on stating that it was so. Then they said, "It is his angel."

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. 17 But he, gesturing to them with his hand to keep quiet, told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go tell these things to James and to the brethren." And he departed and went to another place.

18 Now as soon as it was daylight, there was no small stir among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. 19 And when Herod had a search made for him and did not find him, he examined the guards, and gave orders that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.

20 And Herod was greatly displeased with the people of Tyre and Sidon, but they all came to him with one accord, and having made a friend of Blastus, a personal servant of the king, they asked for peace, because their country was supplied with food by the king's country.

12:1 This Herod was the grandson of the one in Matt 2:1. He was godless, as all the Herods were.

12:2,3 James was one of the original apostles (Matt 10:2). No reason is given for the difference in Herod's treatment of these two apostles. The meaning of it all is hidden in the secret counsels of God who rules over all. Herod was an Edomite (a descendent of Esau - Gen 25:29,30). He tried to please the Jews because he wanted a successful reign over them. In general the Jewish people disliked all the Herods. Note on Feast of Unleavened Bread at Lev 23:4-8.

12:4 Probably he planned to try Peter on some invented charge of blasphemy.

12:5 As appears from vs 15,16 their prayers were more earnest than believing. Still, weak as their faith seems to have been, God answered. This should be an encouragement to all who pray to the true God. Prayers with little faith are far better than no prayers at all.

12:6 Herod was determined that Peter should not escape.

12:7-11 Compare 5:18-24. An angel could just as easily have saved James from the sword as Peter from prison.

12:12 Verse 5. Mark became the author of the Gospel which bears his name. Other references to him are v 25; 13:5-13; 15:37-39; Col 4:10; Philemon 24; 2 Tim 4:11; 1 Pet 5:13.

12:13,14 She, at least, believed God had answered their prayers.

12:15,16 Their thinking that the girl was out of her mind for believing God had answered their prayer, and their subsequent astonishment are indications of their unbelief or weak faith.

"His angel" - compare Matt 18:10. Evidently they thought an angel could represent a person, take on his appearance, and be mistaken for him. There is no basis in the Bible for this belief.

12:17 The James in this verse was a half-brother of the Lord Jesus (1:14; Matt 13:55). He had become the leader of the church in Jerusalem.

12:19 According to Roman law if a person escaped, his guards had to suffer the punishment that would have come to him.

12:20 Tyre and Sidon were cities on the Mediterranean coast north of Israel.

21 And on a set day Herod, dressed in royal apparel, sat on his throne and gave a speech to them. 22 And the people shouted out: "It is the voice of a god, and not of a man!" 23 And immediately the angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give God the glory. And he was eaten by worms, and breathed his last.

24 But the word of God grew and increased.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had finished their ministry, and took with them John who was called Mark.

13 Now in the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, and Simeon who was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 As they were engaged in ministry for the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work I have called them to do." 3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went to Seleucia, and from there sailed to Cyprus.

12:22,23 Herod knew very well the Old Testament teaching about the one true God, and was aware that no man has the right to accept divine honors (Ex 20:1-6). He paid the penalty for his pride. Compare his behavior with that of Paul and Barnabas in 14:11-18, and Peter in 3:12-16 and 10:26. We must have right views of God and of ourselves. Otherwise we may fall into the error of Herod and be judged as he was.

12:24 The Herods of this world, and all opponents of the truth, come and go. The Word of God goes on doing its work and will stand forever – Matt 5:18; 24:35; Ps 37:35,36; Isa 40:6-8.

12:25 Verse 12; 11:29,30. They returned to Antioch.

13:1 The gifts of prophesying and teaching were two of the greatest gifts God gave the church – Rom 12:6,7; 1 Cor 12:28; 14:1; Eph 4:11-13.

"Herod the tetrarch" – Matt 14:1.

13:2 Notes on fasting at Matt 9:14,15; etc. Observe here again the personality of the Holy Spirit. See 8:29; 10:19; John 14:16,17. He calls men for specific work in God's kingdom. In Antioch those He called for missionary service were the two most qualified men in the whole church for preaching and teaching. Happy are those who know what the Holy Spirit has appointed them to do. Notice that the church was to cooperate with the Spirit by recognizing His choice of individuals and setting them apart for the work.

13:3 Laying on of hands here indicated their recognition and approval of the call that came to these two, and their identification with them.

13:4 For the church to send men for service

5 And when they arrived in Salamis, they preached the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. And they had John as their assistant.

6 And when they had gone through the island to Paphos, they met a certain sorcerer and false prophet who was a Jew named Bar-Jesus. 7 He was with the proconsul of the country, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man who called for Barnabas and Saul and wanted to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for this is his name by translation) opposed them, trying to turn the proconsul away from the faith. 9 Then Saul (who is also called Paul), filled with the Holy Spirit, fixed his eyes on him, 10 and said, "You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery, you child of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness! Will you not stop perverting the right ways of the Lord? 11 And now, look, the hand of the Lord is against you, and you will be blind, not seeing sunlight for a time." And immediately a mist and darkness fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

12 When the proconsul saw what had been done, he believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

is useless if the Holy Spirit does not send them.

"Cyprus" – 11:19.

13:5 Salamis was the chief city of the island. They went first to the Jews as was their custom – v 46; Rom 1:16. John was Mark's other name – 12:12.

"Synagogues" – Matt 4:23.

13:6 Paphos was the capital city of the island. The name Bar-Jesus means "son of Joshua" (Jesus is the Greek form of the Hebrew name Joshua). This Bar-Jesus was an apostate Jew – he had turned away from the teachings of the true God. God forbade the Jews to have anything to do with sorcery. See notes at Deut 18:10-13.

13:7 "Proconsul" here means the Roman governor on the island. All intelligent men should want to hear the Word of God as he did.

13:8 Trying to keep others from believing in the Lord Jesus is one of the worst of sins. See Matt 23:13. "Elymas" was another name for "Bar-Jesus."

13:9 Here is the first use of Saul's other name, Paul, the name by which he was always known thereafter.

"Filled with the Holy Spirit" – 2:4; 4:31; 6:3,5; 11:24.

13:10 Sometimes God's Spirit will enable His servants to see clearly a person's character and to speak harsh truth in a bold way.

"Child of the devil" – see Matt 13:38; John 8:44. Elymas had long been perverting the Lord's ways by his practice of sorcery.

13:11 If God is against us who can be for us? See the reverse of this at Rom 8:31.

13:12 See 2:43; 5:12-14; 8:6,13; 9:34,35,41,42.

13 Now when Paul and his companions sailed from Paphos they went on to Perga in Pamphylia. And John left them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 And when they left Perga they came to Antioch in Pisidia. There they went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down. 15 And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent word to them which said: "Men, brethren, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, speak."

16 Then Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand, said, "Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. 17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they lived as foreigners in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm brought them out of it. 18 And for about forty years he endured their behaviour in the wilderness. 19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he distributed their land to them through the casting of lots.

20 "And after that he gave them judges for about four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. 21 And afterwards they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin. He ruled for forty years. 22 And when he removed him, he raised up for them David as their king. He also gave testimony about him, saying, 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my own heart, who will do all I want.'

23 "From this man's descendants God, according to his promise, has raised up for Israel a Saviour, Jesus. 24 Before his coming, John first preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And when John was finishing his course, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I am not the one. But, see, someone is coming after me and I am not worthy to take the sandals off his feet.'

26 "Men, brethren, children of the family of Abraham, and whoever fears God among you, to you this message of salvation has been sent. 27 For those who live in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they did not recognize him or even the voices of the prophets who are read every Sabbath day, have fulfilled them by condemning him. 28 And though they found in him no cause for death, still they asked Pilate to have him killed. 29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written about him, they took him down from the tree and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God raised him from the dead. 31 And he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are his witnesses to the people.

32 "And we declare to you the glad tidings that the promise which was made to the fathers, 33 God has fulfilled for us their children by raising up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm,

You are my Son,
this day I have begotten you.

34 And concerning the fact that he raised him

13:13 Perga was about 20 kilometers inland from the southern coast of what is now called Turkey. No reason is given why John Mark left them, but Paul did not think he had any good reason at all (15:38,39). By deserting them Mark missed some great things on this first of Paul's missionary journeys, and was rejected for his next journey. 13:14 This Antioch was an important city about 160 kms north of Perga.

"Synagogue" – Matt 4:23. This indicates there was a colony of Jews in Antioch.

13:15 See Luke 4:16,17; 14:1. It was not unusual for Jews who were strangers to be asked to give messages in the synagogues. 13:16 "You who fear God" – probably means Gentile converts.

13:17-19 In three verses Paul covers 450 years of Jewish history recorded in six Old Testament books (Genesis – Joshua).

13:20 Samuel was the last of the judges and the first man after Moses called a prophet.

"Judges" – see the introduction to the book of Judges.

13:21 See 1 Sam 8:5; 9:1,2; 10:1.

13:22 See 1 Sam 16:1,13; 2 Sam 2:4; 5:1-5. Note on "according to my own heart" at 1 Sam 13:14.

13:23 Paul's purpose in referring to Israel's history was to show his orthodox belief in the revelation God had given, and to bring his hearers to consider the Lord Jesus. Here he states in so many words that Jesus was the long-awaited Messiah of Israel. God's promises concerning Him begin at Genesis 3:15 and go on to Malachi 3:1.

13:24,25 Matt 3:1-6; John 1:19-27.

13:26 Abraham was the forefather of the nation and all Jews were descended from him.

13:27 See 2:23; 3:17,18. Most Jews in that day did not understand what they read in the prophetic books of the Old Testament. But God used even the sinful ignorance of the Jewish leaders to fulfill His Word. Compare Gen 50:20.

13:28 Matt 27:1,2,11-26.

13:29 Luke 23:53; 24:26,27,46.

13:30 Matt 28:6.

13:31 See 1:3-8; 1 Cor 15:3-8.

13:32-35 Paul presented Jesus as the fulfiller of Old Testament promises (compare Matt 5:17). He refers to three OT verses – see these verses and the notes on them: Ps 2:7; Isa 55:3; Ps 16:10.

"Sure mercies of David" – mercies God promised to David, one of which was that a descendant of his whom God calls his son would inherit his throne, and that this throne would last forever (see 2 Sam 7:14). Paul's argument is that if Israel's Messiah (Christ) from the dead, never to return to corruption, he spoke like this:

I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Therefore he said also in another psalm,

You will not allow your Holy One to see corruption.

36 "For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, was buried near his fathers, and saw corruption. 37 But he whom God raised up, saw no corruption.

38 "Therefore, be it known to you, men and brethren, that through this man is preached to you the forgiveness of sins, 39 and in him all who believe are justified from all things from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware, therefore, that this which is spoken about in the Prophets does not come on you:

41 Look, you despisers, and wonder, and perish, for I do a work in your days, a work that you will not at all believe, though a man declares it to you."

42 And when the Jews had gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these things might be preached to them the next Sabbath. 43 Now when the congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas who spoke with them had not risen from the dead, He could not have received these blessings promised to David.

13:36,37 See 2:25-32. "Fell asleep" – John 11:11-13.

13:38 See 2:38; 26:18; Luke 24:47. "Forgiveness of sins" – see references at 10:43.

13:39 Being justified is the other side of being forgiven. It means that God counts people righteous and innocent of all sin. This is one of the wonderful truths Paul later developed in Romans and Galatians (Rom 3:20,24,28; 5:1,9; 8:30; Gal 2:16; 3:11,24). Everywhere he insists that justification comes only by faith in the Lord Jesus. The law of Moses cannot justify but only condemn – Ex 19:21-25; Rom 3:19,20; Gal 3:10.

13:40,41 The gospel is "good news" only for those who believe it. So Paul gives a severe warning. Compare 2:40. Paul warns them to be careful that their attitude be not the same as in the days of Hab 1:5.

13:43 "The grace of God" – grace is another word Paul much emphasized – 20:24,32; Rom 1:7; 3:24; 5:1,2,15,20,21; 6:14; Eph 3:1; Titus 2:11-15; 3:7.

13:44 This means the Gentiles were the large majority of the crowd.

and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God. 45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with envy and, contradicting and blaspheming, opposed the things Paul was saying.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas became bold and said, "It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. But seeing that you reject it and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, see, we turn to the Gentiles. 47 For thus the Lord commanded us:

I have set you as a light to the Gentiles, that you would be the source of salvation to the ends of the earth."

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord; and all who were appointed to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord spread throughout all that region. 50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their borders. 51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and went to Iconium. 52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14 And in Iconium it happened that they went together into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks believed. 2 But the unbelieving

13:45 Compare 5:17; 7:9; Matt 27:18; Prov 27:4. None of them had ever been able to draw such a crowd, or to capture the interest of people so powerfully, so they envied Paul and Barnabas – a thing not unknown in our day.

13:46 See 3:26; Rom 1:16. Note on "everlasting life" at John 3:16.

13:47 Isa 49:6. "You" refers to Christ.

13:48 God's appointment to eternal life is through faith. These Gentiles showed by their believing in Christ that God had chosen them. Compare John 6:37,44; 17:2; Eph 1:4.

13:50 "Devout" – religious or pious people who do not know the Lord Jesus can be stirred up by evil and unscrupulous men to persecute God's true servants. See John 16:2,3.

13:51 Compare Matt 10:14. The important town of Iconium was about 130 kilometres to the southeast.

13:52 The gospel of Christ when truly believed always results in joy (8:8; 16:34; Luke 2:10; 24:52; Rom 14:17; 15:13; 1 Pet 1:8), and opens the way to experience the fullness of God's Spirit (2:4; Eph 5:18).

14:1 See 13:14,15.

14:2 Rom 8:7; 1 Thess 2:14-16.

"Brethren" – in the New Testament this is

Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and poisoned their minds against the brethren. 3 Therefore, for a long time they stayed there, speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony to the word of his grace by granting miraculous signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided and part of them sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles. 5 And when there was a violent attempt made by both some of the Gentiles and some of the Jews with their rulers, to treat them outrageously and stone them, 6 they were aware of it, and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the region that lies around them. 7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 And at Lystra there sat a certain man disabled in his feet, who was a cripple from his mother's womb, and had never walked. 9 This man heard Paul speak. Paul looked intently at him and, perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 10 said with a loud voice, "Stand up on your feet." And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men." 12 And they called Barnabas, Zeus; and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. 13 Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and with the people wanted to offer a sacrifice to them.

14 When the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of this, they tore their clothes, and rushed in among the people, crying out 15 and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We too are men, with the same nature as you, and we proclaim to you that you should turn from these useless things to the living God who made heaven and earth and the sea, and everything that is in them. 16 In times past he let all nations walk in their own ways. 17 Nevertheless, he did not leave himself without testimony, for he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness." 18 And with these words they could hardly restrain the people from offering a sacrifice to them.

19 Then Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there and won over the people, and they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. 20 However, as the disciples stood around him, he rose up and came into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

a common term for those who had become Christians. It suggests the close relationship that exists in the family of God. Believers in Christ are all members of one family and have the same Father.

14:3 They stayed no doubt to strengthen the believers for the persecution they knew would come.

"Signs and wonders" – 2:43; 5:12; 8:6; John 2:11; Heb 2:4.

14:4 Matt 10:34-46; John 7:43; 9:16; 10:19.

14:5-7 They stayed as long as they could and left when it was wise. Their death would not have benefited anyone – though they did not fear death (Phil 1:21-24; Heb 2:14,15). Lystra was a Greek town about 30 kilometers south and slightly west of Iconium.

14:9,10 Sometimes the Holy Spirit enables His servants to recognize faith at work in others.

14:11,12 These people believed in many gods, as Greeks in general did. Zeus was the name Greeks gave to the one considered the chief god. Hermes they considered the messenger of the gods. The KJV here (but not the Greek) has Jupiter and Mercury. These were the names the Romans gave those gods.

14:13,14 Compare 12:21-23. They saw that an awful thing (the worship of men) was about to be done and did all they could to stop it. Tearing of their clothes was to show their dismay to the crowd (2 Sam 13:31; Job 1:20; Matt 26:65). How different were these true servants of God from those in every era who like to think they are gods or even God Himself.

14:15 See 3:12; Rev 22:8,9; Matt 4:10. Here are important words. They made a clear distinction between God and gods. God is "living"; He is the Creator of the universe. The gods and sacrifices to them are "useless things" that men should turn from (compare Ps 115:2-8; Isa 40:18-26; 44:9-20). And this was a part of the gospel they brought to people.

14:16 See 17:30. "In times past" God was working with the nation of Israel and was giving to them the revelation of His will. For that time He permitted other nations to go their own way, not because that way was good (compare Rom 1:18-32), but because the time had not then come to send His servants to preach to them (though there were exceptions like Jonah).

14:17 Even when the nations were without God's revelation in the Bible, they had the revelation of God's goodness in nature. See Ps 19:1-4; Rom 1:19,20.

14:18,19 See the fickleness, the changeableness, the ignorance of people. Whom they would worship one day they stoned the next! See Jer 17:5,9. But there were permanent results from this visit to Lystra – 16:1.

14:20 See the courage and determination of those filled with God's Spirit. Paul went right back to the place where men tried to kill him in a very painful way (also v 21). Compare 4:13; Prov 28:1. Derbe was a town nearly 80 kilometers southeast of Iconium.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, and encouraging them to continue in the faith, and teaching: "We must enter the kingdom of God through much trouble." 23 And when they had ordained elders for them in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they committed them to the Lord in whom they believed. 24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

26 And from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had now finished. 27 And when they arrived and gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. 28 And there they stayed a long time with the disciples.

15 And certain men who came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." 2 Therefore, after Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they decided that Paul and 14:22 Both the Lord Jesus and His apostles taught that believers would face troubles in this world (John 16:33; 1 Thess 3:3,4; 1 Pet 4:12), and revealed the attitude they should have toward them (Matt 5:10-12; 1 Pet 4:13). When we face troubles or persecutions or tribulation we as believers should not ask "why"? Rather if such things do not come we should ask "why not"? Paul speaks here as if God's kingdom were in the future - he means the kingdom when it comes openly and in glory. Notes at Matt 4:17; etc.

14:23 See 13:2,3. "Elders" here means those who would have the leadership and oversight of the church (1 Pet 5:1-3). Surely their appointment was in consultation with the group of believers, as in 6:5,6.

14:24,25 See 13:13. Attalia was the chief port of the province of Pamphylia.

14:26 See 13:1-3.

14:27 They emphasized that it was God who moved on the hearts of the Gentile peoples and brought them to faith - it was not their own doing.

15:1 These men were Jews who professed to be followers of Christ but were in error about a very basic and important matter. They thought that the Church was to be confined to the Jewish community, and that to receive Christ's salvation other peoples had to become Jews by conversion - that is, they had to be both Christians and Jews. This meant to them circumcision and keeping the law of Moses (v 5). See note

Barnabas and some others among them should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. 3 And so, being sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, telling of the conversion of the Gentiles, and thus they produced great joy in all the brethren. 4 And when they arrived in Jerusalem, they were received by the church and by the apostles and elders, and they reported everything that God had done with them.

5 But some belonging to the sect of the Pharisees who believed got up and said this: "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

6 And the apostles and elders met together to consider this matter. 7 And after there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Men, brethren, you know that some time ago God made a choice among us that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. 8 And God, who knows the heart, gave testimony to them by giving to them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us, 9 and made no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. 10 Now then, why do you test God by trying to put a yoke on the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But we believe that through the grace of the on circumcision at Gen 17:9-14.

15:2 Paul and Barnabas saw a great danger in this teaching and strongly opposed it. They well knew that salvation was by God's grace through faith in Christ, and was not based on ceremonies and law keeping. Paul dealt with this matter very thoroughly in the letters to the Romans and Galatians (see Rom 3:27-4:25; Gal 1:6-9; 2:1 - 6:15).

15:4 See 14:27.

15:5 Verse 1. These Pharisees professed to be Christ's followers and were in the church.

"Pharisees" - note at Matt 3:7.

15:7 Chapter 10.

15:8 See 10:44-47. Compare Gal 3:2-5.

15:9 In other words, God did not say to the Gentiles, "I will not save you, and will not give you my Spirit unless you get circumcised and keep the law of Moses."

"Purifying their hearts by faith" - God gave them faith and used that faith as an instrument to make their hearts pure. They had needed nothing more to make them acceptable to God. See note on purity of heart at Matt 5:8.

15:10 Peter means that when God had revealed His will by His clear leading, resisting His will and complaining about His ways of doing things is to test Him. See also Matt 4:7; Ex 17:7. In Gal 5:1 Paul called the law a "yoke of bondage." Both of these apostles knew that Christ's "yoke" was enough (Matt 11:29,30), and that His yoke is the opposite of bondage.

15:11 Peter was in full agreement with Paul

Lord Jesus Christ we will be saved, just as they.”

12 Then the whole assembly kept silent, and gave their attention to Barnabas and Paul, who told what miracles and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them. 13 And after they became silent, James responded by saying, “Men, brethren, listen to me. 14 Simon has declared how God for the first time visited the Gentiles to take out from among them a people for his name. 15 And to this agree the words of the prophets, as it is written,

- 16 After this I will return, and rebuild the tabernacle of David,
which has fallen down.
And I will rebuild its ruins and I will set it up,
17 So that the remainder of men may seek the Lord, and all the Gentiles, who are called by
my name,
says the Lord, who does all these things.

18 “From the beginning of the world all of God’s works are known to him.

19 “Therefore, in my judgment, we should not trouble those who are turning to God from among the Gentiles, 20 but that we write to them that they should abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from things strangled, and from blood. 21 For Moses for a long time has had those who preach him in every city, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath day.”

22 Then it pleased the apostles and elders, along with the whole church, to send men chosen from among themselves to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas, called Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brethren. 23 And they wrote these things by them:

“The apostles and elders and brethren send greetings to the Gentile brethren in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia. 24 Since we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with their words, disturbing your souls, saying, ‘Be circumcised and keep the Law’ (we gave no such instruction to them), 25 it seemed good to us meeting together with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our dear brothers Barnabas and Paul, 26 men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, who will also tell you the same things by mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things: 29 That you abstain from foods offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality. You will do well if you keep yourselves away from these things. Farewell.”

30 So when they were sent away, they came to Antioch. And when they had gathered the large number of believers together, they handed over in this most vital matter (11:43; 13:38,39; Rom 3:21-24; Gal 2:16; Eph 2:8,9).

15:12 Their aim was to convince all these Jewish Christians that God was at work among the Gentiles just as He was among them, and quite apart from the law of Moses.

15:13 See 12:17; 21:18; Gal 1:19. This James was the half-brother of Jesus and a leader of the Jerusalem church.

15:14 “Simon” was Peter’s other name.

“To take out from among them a people for his name” – this is a work God is still doing. See the meaning of “Church” at Matt 16:18.

15:15-18 James said that the prophets of the Old Testament also spoke of the conversion of the Gentiles. He then refers to Amos 9:11,12 (see notes there). It does not seem that his purpose in this was to state that that Scripture was completely fulfilled in the conversion of some Gentiles in his day, but simply to show that the conversion of Gentiles was no strange thing, was not contrary to God’s Word.

15:19 He agreed with Peter (v 10). There was no point in loading the whole law onto Gentile believers.

15:20,21 The things James mentions were very common practices among the Greeks and Romans, but forbidden in the Old Testament. There were synagogues here and there in the lands of the Gentiles where the gospel had gone (13:14; 14:1). James and all Jews would know of the prohibitions of the Old Testament. His meaning seems to be that Gentile Christians should not needlessly offend Jews by doing things they hated.

This is a principle for all times for all Christians to follow in relation to the various kinds of people they live among. Compare 1 Cor 9:19-23; 10:32; 2 Cor 6:3. The prohibition against eating flesh with blood in it goes back before the law of Moses (Gen 9:4). Sexual immorality is condemned everywhere in the Bible, and certainly should never have any place in any believer’s life (Ex 20:14; Matt 5:27,28; Gal 5:19-21; Eph 5:3). On foods offered to idols see 1 Cor 8:1,4,10; 10:19,28; Rev 2:14,20. 15:22 Other references to Silas – v 40; 2 Cor 1:19; 1 Thess 1:1,2; 2 Thess 1:1; 1 Pet 5:12.

15:23 Antioch was the chief city of the provinces of Syria and Cilicia, and the place where this dispute about the law began.

15:24 They assured the Gentile believers that the apostles had not been behind the false teaching they had heard.

15:28 They were sure that the Holy Spirit had led them in their united decision.

15:29 Observe that there is nothing here about the Gentile churches keeping the Sabbath. Even these Jewish believers did the letter. 31 When they read it, they rejoiced for the encouragement in it. 32 And Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged and strengthened the brethren with many words. 33 And after they had stayed there a while, they were sent back by the brethren in peace to the apostles. 34 However, it pleased Silas to remain there. 35 Paul and Barnabas also stayed on in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And some days afterwards Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing." 37 And Barnabas was determined to take John, who was called Mark, with them. 38 But Paul did not think it was good to take him with them, the one who left them at Pamphylia, and did not go with them to the work. 39 And the dispute was so sharp between them, that they parted from one another. So Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus, 40 and not consider this was important for Gentile believers.

15:31 It was encouraging that the teaching that had troubled them (vs 1,5) was not true.

15:32 Note on prophets at Gen 20:7.

15:35 For the moment at least, in that place false teaching had been defeated. But the same teaching infected the churches in Galatia and something similar has troubled some Christians from time to time ever since then.

15:36 It was not enough for Paul to preach the gospel, win men to Christ and then leave them forever. He had a shepherd's heart (2 Cor 11:28,29), and is an example to every servant of Christ.

15:37,38 See 13:13. Mark was a relative of Barnabas (Col 4:10). This may have influenced him in his insistence that they take him along with them. Sometimes even among the people of God family relationships are given too much importance, and those who have failed in the work are kept on, often to the detriment of the work. Paul stood on the principle that an unreliable person should not be taken for so important a task.

For all we know Paul's decision here was one of the factors that caused Mark to determine to be more faithful in God's work, and made him a very useful servant of God later in his life (Philemon 24; 2 Tim 4:11). Surely rejection by a man of God like Paul would have had a strong impact on Mark and may have stirred him up to search his own heart and ways.

15:39 Even godly men may have sharp disagreements. This is not to say that such disagreements are good. A man like Paul once he saw the right course to take was not to be turned from it. This is the last mention of Barnabas in Acts.

15:40 It seems from this that the church in Antioch agreed with Paul in the dispute with Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brethren to the grace of God. 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16 Then he came to Derbe and Lystra, and saw a disciple who was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who believed. But his father was a Greek. 2 Timothy was well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium. 3 Paul wanted him to go with him, and took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those regions, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the regulations to keep that had been decided on by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. 5 And so the churches were established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and had been forbidden

Barnabas. They commended Paul and Silas, but there is nothing here about commending Barnabas and Mark, and surely this omission is significant. Also we should keep in mind that God set forth Paul, not Barnabas, as an example of what a Christian worker should be - Phil 3:17; 1 Cor 4:16; 11:1; 2 Thess 3:8,9.

15:41 Plain and relevant teaching of the Word of God strengthens churches as nothing else can.

16:1 See 14:6. It was not usual for Jews and Greeks to intermarry. Timothy's mother was a believer in Christ (2 Tim 1:5). Timothy became a very important person in Paul's ministry - 17:14,15; 18:5; 19:22; 20:4; Rom 16:21; 2 Cor 1:1; 4:17; Phil 1:1; Col 1:1; 1 Thess 1:1; 2 Thess 1:1; 1 Tim 1:2; 2 Tim 1:2. Paul found him in the town where he had been stoned and almost killed - 14:19.

16:3 Timothy had not been circumcised possibly because of his Greek father's objection. But he had been taught the Old Testament (2 Tim 3:15), and was counted a Jew because of his mother. By circumcising him Paul was not following the error seen in 15:1,5. His aim was to make Timothy more acceptable to the Jews as he went about serving Christ. Compare 1 Cor 9:19-22. See Paul's desire for the conversion of Jews in Rom 9:1-4. He always made his views on circumcision very clear - Gal 6:15.

16:4 See 15:23-29.

16:5 The agreement in Jerusalem (chapter 15) resulted in much good to the churches.

16:6 Asia was the name of the province of which Ephesus was the capital city. Asia was in the much larger area called Asia Minor (now called Turkey) which is a small part of the continent of Asia. Paul later had a very fruitful ministry there (19:1-22). But now God's Spirit prevented him from entering it. God has a specific time for any of His works by the Holy Spirit to preach the Word in the province of Asia, 7 after they had come to Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit did not permit them to do so. 8 And they, passing by Mysia, came down to Troas. 9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: A man of Macedonia standing and asking him, "Come over to Macedonia, and help us."

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we tried to go to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

11 Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day to Neapolis, 12 and from there to Philippi, which is the principal city of that part of Macedonia, and a Roman colony. And we stayed in that city for some days.

13 And on the Sabbath we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was usually made, and we sat down and spoke to the women who assembled there. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira, who was a worshipper of God, heard us. The Lord opened her heart so that she seized on what was spoken by Paul. 15 And when she and her household were baptized, she made a request to us, saying, "If you consider me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house, and stay there." And she persuaded us.

16 And it came about as we were going to prayer that we were met by a certain slave girl possessed by a spirit of fortune-telling, who brought her masters much profit by predicting the future. 17 This girl followed Paul and us and cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the most high God, who make known to us the way of salvation." 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out that very moment.

19 And when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them to the marketplace to the

and He knows where every servant of His should be at any given time. They should simply find his leading and obey it.

16:7 Bithynia was to the northeast of the province of Asia. The fact that Paul tried to go there, but could not, can teach us some important truths. Paul was on the move, obedient to his calling to preach the gospel everywhere. He did not always know where God wanted him to go, but he did not for that reason sit at home. God guided him as he went forward in his work and made known His will as Paul practiced obedience to God's calling for him. Notice that He who is called the Holy Spirit in v 6 is here called the Spirit of Jesus. Compare John 14:16,26; 16:7; Rom 8:9.

16:8 Troas was an important port city on the Aegean Sea facing Greece and Macedonia.

16:9,10 "Vision" – references at 18:9,10. They had been waiting for God's guidance, and God chose this way of giving it. Their obedience was immediate – the only sort of obedience God can fully approve. For the first time (as far as we know) one of Christ's apostles was taking the gospel to Europe. Christianity began in the continent of Asia and the first churches were in western Asia. Notice the word "we" in v 10 – Luke is now including himself in the group. Evidently Luke joined Paul at Troas.

16:11 Samothrace was an island in the Aegean. Neapolis was the port of the city of Philippi in Macedonia. Philippi was a Roman city – the Romans ruled Macedonia at that time.

16:13 They knew there was no synagogue in the city, so they looked for a likely meeting place for Jews (and those influenced by the Jews) to worship the one true God.

16:14 Thyatira was in the province of Asia which God had kept Paul from entering – v 6.

"Worshipped God" – this means that she was a worshiper of the God of the Bible, the one true God. She probably learned about Him through the Jews of Thyatira. Now the Lord opened her heart to receive the message about Christ (compare Luke 24:45). The Lord does this for everyone who comes to faith in Himself. If He does not do this, it will not be done. And His opening of people's hearts is as great a miracle as opening prison doors (v 26; 5:19). But this does not relieve people of the responsibility of opening the door to Him – Rev 3:20. 16:15 Notes on baptism at 2:38; Matt 3:6; Mark 16:16. She showed her faith by her works (Jam 2:14-19).

16:16 The "spirit" was an evil spirit, a demon (note at Matt 4:24). Good spirits do not engage in the work this one did. See Deut 18:9-13. How accurate the predictions of this slave girl were we cannot say. She must have been right enough times to keep people believing in her.

16:17,18 See the shouts of other demons – Matt 8:29; Mark 1:24; 3:11,12; 5:7; Luke 4:33,41; 8:28. Neither Jesus nor His disciples needed or wanted the testimony of demons on their behalf. It was not a good thing for people to think that this demon-possessed girl was on the side of the gospel of Christ. If Satan seems to cooperate with Christ's servants, his ultimate purpose is to destroy the truth. Paul was not looking for trouble, but he could endure the situation no longer. On casting out demons see Matt 4:24; 10:1; etc.

16:19-21 Money was their god, and they (like all whose god is money) cared nothing for the health of a poor girl, or for truth and justice. Compare John 12:6. These men were appealing to anti-Jewish prejudice in a Roman city. Satan could not defeat Christ's authorities, 20 and brought them to the magistrates and said, "These men are Jews and are greatly troubling our city, 21 teaching customs which are not lawful for us Romans to receive or observe."

22 And the crowd all together rose up against them, and the magistrates tore off their clothes and gave a command to beat them. 23 And when they had given them many lashes, they threw them into prison, and commanded the jailer to keep them safely. 24 Having received such a command, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises to God, and the prisoners heard them. 26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors opened, and everyone's chains became loose. 27 And the jailer, awaking out of his sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had run away. 28 But Paul cried out with a loud voice and said, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here."

servants by seeming to agree with them, so he tried a different method through these men.

16:23 5:40; Matt 27:26; 2 Cor 11: 23-25.
16:24 "Stocks" - wooden frames with holes for legs, or for both legs and arms, to keep prisoners immobile.

16:25 See how true Christians can face their troubles and persecutions - prayer instead of curses, songs instead of resentment and complaining, divine comfort instead of confusion and depression, joy instead of thirst for revenge. Compare 5:41; Matt 5:10-12; Rom 5:3; 2 Cor 1:5; 1 Pet 4:13. They knew God had led them there (v 10), that they were in their Shepherd's care and that the Lord of the universe had a good purpose in it all.

16:26 So much for Satan's attempt to crush Paul and Silas. God chose this way to vindicate His servants and to cause His gospel to spread in that place. He does not always use such methods (7:57,58; 12:1-7), but whatever methods He uses we may be sure that they are wise and good.

16:27 See 12:19.

16:28 Paul desired the good of the jailer who had treated him cruelly (v 24). See Matt 5:44; Rom 12:19-21.

16:29,30 He realized that Paul and Silas were true messengers of God who taught the way of salvation. The Holy Spirit had convicted him of his spiritual need, and he asked the most important question any person can ask. If more people sincerely asked it of God's servants, more people would come into a knowledge of the truth. Not asking it, and not wanting to know the answer, keeps people in darkness and ignorance.

29 Then the jailer called for a light and ran in, and trembling fell down before Paul and Silas. 30 And he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31 And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32 And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. 33 And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds, and immediately was baptized, he and all his family. 34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his household.

35 And when it was daylight, the magistrates sent officers to say, "Let those men go." 36 And the jailer reported these words to Paul: "The magistrates have sent orders to let you go. So now leave, and go in peace."

37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly without trial, Roman citizens that we are, and have thrown us into prison. And now will they send us off secretly? Absolutely not! Let them come themselves and lead us out."

38 And the officers reported these words to 16:31 Here is the answer to anyone anywhere who wants to know the way of salvation. It is the answer the Lord Jesus Himself and all His messengers gave again and again - 13:39; John 1:12; 3:16,36; 5:24; 6:47; Rom 5:1; Gal 2:16; Eph 2:8,9; etc. Repentance is where true faith begins. Paul does not mention repentance here because it was clear that the man was already repenting. When people needed to repent, God's servants did not fail to tell them so - 2:38; 17:30; Matt 3:2; etc. To those who are repenting the word is "believe"; to those not yet repentant the word is "repent." Paul speaks of the man's family as well. God delights to save whole households when there is faith - 11:14; Gen 7:1; Josh 2:11-13; 6:22,23; Heb 11:7.

16:32 They did more than give the man a verse or two of Scripture - they explained the gospel.

16:33,34 He was producing fruit worthy of repentance (Matt 3:8), and showing his faith and the change in his heart by what he did (Jam 2:14-19). Observe the relationship between faith and joy, and the difference between v 34 and vs 27-29. This is what Christ can and does do in the lives of individuals - 2 Cor 5:17.

16:35 It seems they thought the punishment given to Paul and Silas sufficient for what they considered disturbing the peace of the city.

16:37 Paul was not seeking revenge, or standing on his rights. But the magistrates had committed a public act of injustice, and Paul insisted that they should admit it in public. It was not his good he was thinking of, but theirs and the gospel's.

16:38 It was against the law to beat Roman the magistrates, and when they heard that they were Roman citizens they were afraid. 39 And they came and pled with them, and led them out and asked them to leave the city. 40 And they went out of the prison and entered the house of Lydia, and when they had seen the brethren, they encouraged them and left.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. 2 And Paul, as his habit was, went in to them and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them out of the Scriptures, 3 explaining and demonstrating that Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I preach to you, is the Christ." 4 And some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, and with them a large number of devout Greeks and not a few of the leading women.

5 But the Jews who were not persuaded, moved with envy, took some wicked idlers from the marketplace, collected a crowd, and set all the city in an uproar, and rushed to the house of Jason and sought to bring them out to the people. 6 And when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brethren to the rulers of the city, crying out, "These men who have turned the world citizens - 22:25-29. They had not known that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, but they could have inquired and found this out before they ordered the beating, if they had cared for the law.

17:1 Thessalonica was an important town about 150 kilometers west of Philippi.

"Synagogue" - Matt 4:23.

17:2 See 13:5,14; 14:1.

17:3 Luke 24:25-27,45-47.

17:4 See 10:2; 13:50.

17:5 See 5:17; 13:45.

17:6,7 See 16:20,21; John 19:12-16. Those who preach the truth are often regarded as troublemakers. Actually they are peacemakers - preaching peace between God and men (Matt 5:9; 10:34-36; 2 Cor 5:18-20). The world does not want what it needs most and hates those who would give it.

17:10 Berea was nearly 100 kilometers west of Thessalonica.

17:11,12 The Greek word translated "noble" originally meant of exalted birth, birth into an aristocratic family. Later it came to mean those of excellent qualities - generous in outlook toward others, free from base prejudices, open to truth and reason. These people in Berea showed their noble qualities in these ways: by eagerly hearing Christ's servants, by searching the Bible to see if what they said was true, and by believing the truth when it became clear. Let all of us abandon prejudice, narrowness of mind, fear upside down have come here also, 7 and Jason has shown them hospitality. And all of them are acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one called Jesus." 8 And they stirred up the people and the rulers of the city when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken bail from Jason, and from the others, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away at night to Berea, who, on their arrival, went into the Jewish synagogue. 11 These Jews were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, for they received the Word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily to see if those things Paul taught were so. 12 Therefore many of them believed, and also some prominent Greek women and not a few of the men.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God was being preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the people. 14 And so immediately the brethren sent Paul away to go as far as the sea coast, but Silas and Timothy still remained there. 15 And those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens, and receiving instructions from Paul for Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they left.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, of others and fear of the truth, and follow the example of these Bereans. It will open up a great future for us.

17:13 See 14:19; Matt 23:13. What evil deeds men do because of jealousy and prejudice.

17:14 Paul was the leader of the group and the chief spokesman, and so was in the greatest danger. He did not leave because of fear (14:6,19,20), but because he saw it was wise.

17:15 Athens was about 300 kilometers south of Thessalonica. It was one of the most famous cities on earth, the birthplace of democracy, the home of art, language, literature, science and philosophy. It had been the native place of Socrates and Plato and the adopted city of Aristotle, Epicurus and Zeno. In Paul's day it was ruled by Rome and its glories were in the past, but it was still a cultural and intellectual center.

17:16 Paul saw among the human glories of Athens a sinful people, abandoned to false religion. It was the sight of idols which so greatly "agitated" him (this Greek word could also be translated "was greatly provoked" or "stirred to anger" or "distressed." It indicates strong emotion). This was because he knew God's revelation concerning idolatry and because he loved Christ and the glory of God and the people who were so bound by their idols (Ex 20:1-6; Ps 115:2-8; Isa 40:18-26; 44:6-11; 2 Cor 5:13,14).

his spirit within him was greatly agitated, when he saw that the city was full of idolatry. 17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout Greeks; and also in the marketplace daily with those who came near him.

18 Then some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him and some of them said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be proclaiming foreign gods." This was because he was preaching to them the good news of Jesus and the resurrection. 19 And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are talking about? 20 For you are bringing some strange things to our ears, and so we want to know what these things mean." 21 (For all the Athenians, and the foreigners who were there, spent their time in nothing else but telling or hearing some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of the

In Rom 1:18-25 Paul revealed the dark truth which lies behind many shining forms of glory and beauty. In Athens he was greatly agitated at the evidence of the mixture of so much spiritual blindness with so much brains and ability – a thing we see today on every hand.

17:17 What he saw was a compelling motive for speaking out the truth wherever he had the opportunity. Compare 4:20; Jer 20:9.

17:18 The philosophy of Epicurus (who lived 341–270 BC) emphasized pleasure as the chief end of life. In his view the best pleasure was not bodily pleasure, but the pleasure of the mind, a serene life free from pain, disturbing desires, fears, and anxiety about death. He believed there were many gods but that they took no interest in the lives of men. In Paul's day the Epicureans had to some extent perverted the teachings of Epicurus and pursued bodily pleasure and actually glorified lust.

The Stoic philosophy was founded by Zeno (who lived 340–265 BC). He taught that men should live in harmony with nature, and that reason or design was the highest thing in nature. In theology he was a pantheist (thinking that God and the universe were joined, neither existing without the other). He thought of God as the soul of the world. He emphasized man's ability to reason and his self-sufficiency.

Some of the followers of these two philosophers looked on Paul with arrogance and cynicism, calling him a "babblers." Little did they know the difference between philosophy and what Paul preached. Philosophy is the speculation of men about the nature of reality, but Christ's gospel is God's revelation of reality and what men should do in the light of it (see notes on 1 Cor 1:17-25; Col 2:8).

17:19 The Areopagus was the highest court of Athens and had jurisdiction over all Areopagus, and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in every way you are very religious. 23 For as I passed by and looked at the objects of your worship, I found an altar with this inscription:

TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

"Therefore, I am going to make known to you the one whom you worship without knowing. 24 God, who made the world and everything in it, since he is the Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands, 25 nor is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, since he gives to everyone life, and breath, and everything else. 26 And he has made from one blood every nation of man to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined the times set for them, and the boundaries of the regions where they live, 27 so that they would seek the Lord, and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each of us; 28 for in him religious matters. It had power either to forbid Paul to teach in the city or to give him liberty to do so.

17:21 Most of them were not seeking the truth but only novelties.

17:22 This was quite true, but their religion was not according to reality and truth.

"Religious" – the Greek word literally means "having fear or reverence for the gods."

17:23 People erected such altars in other places in the Roman world. They did not want to leave out some god or God who might have power either to help or hurt them. The philosophers suggested Paul was advocating "foreign gods" (v 18). "No", Paul says, "I proclaim the God whose altar is in this city – the God unknown to you but the only true and living God."

17:24 Paul says the true God is the Creator of the universe, and not some sort of pantheistic deity or soul of the world. He bases this assertion on God's revelation of Himself in the Bible – Gen 1:1; Ex 20:11; Ps 8:3; 19:1; Isa 40:28; 42:5; 45:12,18. And the true God does not live in temples men have made – 1 Kings 8:27; Isa 66:1,2.

17:25 Paul emphasized the difference between the true God and idols. Idols must be taken care of by men. God has no needs (Ps 50:9-15) – He supplies to all people what they have (14:15-17; 1 Tim 6:17).

17:26 The one man was Adam (Gen 1:26-28). God has already determined the rise and fall of nations, the times of their opportunities to find Him, and the boundaries wherein they should live.

17:27 God had this good purpose in all His dealings with the nations of earth. "Reach out" could be translated "grope" as in darkness (Isa 60:2; John 12:46). But God gave men enough light that they could seek Him if they wanted to (John 1:9; Rom 1:19,20; Ps 19:1-4).

17:28 Paul here quotes from two poets of we live, and move, and have our being. As some of your own poets also have said, we are also his offspring.

29 "Since then we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that God's nature is like gold or silver or stone, a thing carved by man's art and design. 30 The times of such ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, 31 because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom he has ordained. He has given proof to all by raising him from the dead."

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, and others said, "We want to hear you again about this matter." 33 So Paul went away from them. 34 However some men joined him and believed, among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, and also a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

former times whose writings should have been familiar to his hearers. Paul certainly would not have endorsed all those poets wrote, but he extracted truth from their writings and used it to appeal to his hearers. Truth is truth wherever it may be found. God is not far from any person but surrounds us all. We need go on no pilgrimages to find Him. The Creator of the universe will always be found when men lift up their thoughts to Him and seek Him sincerely with their whole hearts. Compare Jer 29:13.

17:29 Gen 1:27; Ex 20:4; Isa 40:19,25. 17:30 Observe that he calls idolatry "ignorance." Compare Rom 1:21-23; Isa 44:9,18,20. Athens had temples magnificent in architecture, and images highly prized as works of art. To Paul and to Paul's Lord it was all evidence of the lack of wisdom in the Athenians. And all their philosophy, failing as it did to come to the knowledge of God, was nothing but brilliant ignorance (compare 1 Cor 1:19-25). Such words could not have pleased his hearers, but now Paul has reached the point he has aimed at from the beginning - their repentance. Notes on repentance at Matt 3:2,8; Luke 13:1-5.

God commands all people to repent - all philosophers, all religionists, all idolaters, all men of learning and science, all in positions of authority, all ordinary people, everyone, everywhere. He does so because all are sinners (Rom 3:23), all need to be saved from sin, and He wants to save all (John 3:16; 1 Tim 2:4,5; 2 Pet 3:9).

17:31 On God's judgment see Matt 10:15; 11:22,24; 12:36; Rom 2:2; 14:10; 2 Pet 2:9; Rev 14:7; 20:11-15. On Christ's resurrection see v 18; 2:24; 3:15; 4:10; 13:30; Matt 28:6. Observe that Christ's resurrection is proof that God will judge the world. 17:32 Those who sneered only revealed their ignorance and lack of desire for the truth.

17:34 The gospel did not bear as much fruit in Athens as in some other places. There

18 After these things Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. 2 And there he found a Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus and lately come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all Jews to leave Rome. And he went to them, 3 and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and worked. For by occupation they were tent makers. 4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timothy had come down from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. 6 But when they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothes and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads. I am pure from guilt. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

7 And he left there and entered the house of a certain man named Justus, who was a worshipper was little mind for serious enquiry there, and too much pride of intellect (vs 18,21,32). But Paul was able to win over a member of the highest court in the city.

18:1 Corinth was the fourth largest city in the Roman Empire after Rome, Alexandria and Antioch. It was situated about 75 kilometers west of Athens. It was the capital and commercial center of Achaia (Greece), and notorious for immorality. 1 Cor 2:1-5 reveals Paul's state of mind when he arrived in Corinth. Perhaps he felt he had failed in Athens and feared that the Corinthians, too, for the most part, might reject the gospel. It seems he changed his manner of preaching from what it was in Athens. Paul was able to adjust his style of speaking to meet any situation, yet without compromising the truth.

18:2 Aquila means "eagle." Pontus was in the northern part of Asia Minor (now called Turkey). Italy was the land to the west with Rome as its capital.

"Claudius" - 11:28.

18:3 Though he was a great apostle Paul did not think it was humiliating or demeaning to work with his hands and earn a living. And in this he was an example to us all - see 20:34; 1 Thess 2:9; 2 Thess 3:7,8; 1 Cor 9:1-15.

18:4 See 13:14; 14:1; 17:2.

18:5 Perhaps Silas and Timothy brought supplies from Macedonia so that Paul could stop his physical labor for a time. Note on "the Christ" at Matt 1:1; Acts 2:36. Here "Messiah" may be a better translation.

18:6 See 13:45,46; 14:19; 17:5; 28:28; Matt 8:11; 21:43; Rom 1:16. Paul well knew his responsibility - 20:26,27. If he had not proclaimed the gospel to them he would have considered himself guilty of their "blood" (of not giving them a chance to receive God's salvation). Compare Ezek 33:1-9. Shaking out his clothes was similar to shaking dust off the feet (13:51; Matt 10:14).

of God. His house was right next to the synagogue. 8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord together with all his household, and many of the Corinthians, hearing the message, believed and were baptized.

9 Then the Lord spoke to Paul at night through a vision: "Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not keep silent. 10 For I am with you, and no man will attack you to do you harm, for I have many people in this city." 11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him to the place of judgment, 13 saying, "This fellow persuades men to worship God in a manner contrary to the Law."

14 And now when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or wicked reckless deeds, O Jews, there would be reason for me to bear with you. 15 But if it is a question of words and names and your law, you see to it, for I will not be a judge of such matters." 16 And he ejected them from the place of judgment. 17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the place of judgment. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 After this Paul remained there for a good while, and then took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, along with Priscilla and Aquila, 18:8 No opposition can keep those whom God has chosen from coming to Christ (13:48; John 6:37,44).

18:9,10 "Vision" – 9:10; 10:3; 16:9; Gen 15:1; Num 12:6; Ps 89:19; Jer 14:14; 23:16; Dan 2:19; Luke 1:22. It was natural for Paul to dread physical suffering. The memory of what he had already endured was no doubt fresh in his mind (14:19; 16:22-24). But God knows how to comfort and encourage His servants (2 Cor 1:3-7).

18:11 For Paul this was a comparatively long time to stay in one place.

18:12 They attacked Paul but did not harm him. We know from history that Gallio was an educated and witty man, a brother of the philosopher Seneca. But apparently he had little interest either in Judaism or Christianity or in the true and living God.

18:13 See 16:20,21; 17:6,7.

18:15 Some of those who do not understand the gospel of Christ may think that in the matter of religion one word or one name is as good as another. Gallio with all his education and wit was ignorant of the truth of 4:12.

18:18 "Vow" – 21:23,24. See Num 6:1-21. Cutting off all the hair came at the end of the vow. Evidently Paul as a Jewish Christian (23:6; 2 Cor 11:22) thought it proper to make an Old Testament vow. He having had his hair cut off in Cenchrea because he had taken a vow. 19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there, but he himself entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. 20 When they asked him to stay a longer time with them, he did not consent, 21 but took leave of them, saying, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem. But I will return to you, God willing." And he sailed from Ephesus. 22 And after he had landed at Caesarea and gone up and greeted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he left and went over the region of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. 24 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born in Alexandria, an eloquent man and powerful in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord and was fervent in spirit, so he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, but knew only the baptism of John. 26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him and expounded to him the way of God more precisely.

27 And when he wanted to cross over to Achaia, the brethren wrote, urging the disciples to receive him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed. 28 For he forcefully refuted the Jews, and did it publicly, showing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

may have done so with fellow Jews in mind (1 Cor 9:19-23).

18:19-21 Ephesus was the capital city of the province of Asia and the largest city in Asia Minor. Once God had kept Paul from going there (16:6). Now he is led to go.

18:23 See 15:36,41; 2 Cor 11:28.

18:24 See 19:1; 1 Cor 3:4-6,22; 4:6; 16:12; Titus 3:13. The city of Alexandria was in Egypt. It was founded by Alexander the Great and became a great center of learning. Apollos had been a member of the large Jewish community there.

18:25 "Baptism of John" – Matt 3:1-6. Probably it was followers of John the Baptist who had instructed Apollos about Christ.

18:26 Apollos, great as he was in learning and oratory, was humble enough to learn from two members of the congregation. And those two performed a very valuable ministry to the church and are an example for all time.

18:27 Corinth was the capital of Achaia (v 1). "Brethren" and "disciples" were both names for the followers of Christ. Notice the phrase "who by grace had believed." Compare 13:48; John 6:37,44; Eph 2:8,9; Phil 1:29. No one apart from God's gracious working in his heart would come to experience a true and living faith in Christ.

18:28 Verse 5; 9:22; 17:2,3.

19 And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having traveled through the upper regions, came to Ephesus. And finding some disciples, 2 he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they said to him, "We have not so much as heard whether there is a Holy Spirit."

3 And he said to them, "Then into what were you baptized?"

And they said, "Into John's baptism."

4 Then Paul said, "John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people that they should believe on him who was to come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus." 5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with tongues and prophesied. 7 Altogether there were about twelve men.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and speaking persuasively about the kingdom of God. 9 But when some became hardened and refused to believe, but spoke evil of the Way before the crowds, he left them, and separated the disciples, and spoke daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10 And this continued for two years, so that everyone who lived in the province of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Lord Jesus.

11 And God performed special miracles by the hands of Paul, 12 so that from his body handkerchiefs or aprons were taken to the sick, and the diseases left them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 Then some traveling Jews, exorcists, undertook to call out the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "We command you by Jesus whom Paul preaches." 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, who did so. 15 And the evil spirit answered and said, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?" 16 And the man who had the evil spirit leaped on them and overpowered them and showed his strength against them, so that they ran out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus, and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 And many who believed came, and confessed and made known their evil deeds. 19 Also many of those who practiced magic arts brought their books together, and burned them before everyone. And they counted up the value of them and found it

19:1 See 18:19. Priscilla and Aquila had not been able to instruct all the disciples in Ephesus as they had Apollos (18:26). These men, twelve in number (v 7), had either been baptized by John the Baptist in Judea, or by a disciple of John who had baptized them somewhere else (v 3). If they had been to Judea they must have left there before the death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus, before the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. They had not gone on to these great truths.

19:2 Evidently their manner of living and their conversation made Paul wonder about their spiritual condition and knowledge of the things of Christ. His question indicates his conviction that if they had really believed in Christ they would have received the Holy Spirit (Eph 1:13; Gal 3:14; Rom 8:9). Their reply revealed how little they knew of events after John's death.

19:4 Matt 3:6; John 3:27-36.

19:5 See 2:38; Matt 28:19. This is the only case of re-baptism mentioned in the Bible.

"In the name" – could also be translated "into the name." The Greek word (eis) means both. It was used by Greeks in business dealings – some property or money was put "into" the account of someone. So it became his. A person receiving baptism in or into Christ's name is declaring that he now belongs to Him.

19:6 "Laid hands" – notes at 8:15-17; 9:17; 10:47.

"Tongues" – or "languages." See notes at 2:4,11 and 10:46. There is no good reason to think "tongues" means one thing in 2:4-11 and another thing here. The author of Acts (Luke) has given no indication whatever that this was different from that. On prophesying see notes at Gen 20:7; Num 11:25; 1 Cor 12:10.

19:8 See 13:14; 14:1; 17:2.

19:9 See 13:45,46; 14:19; 17:5,13; 18:5,6. In those days sometimes the way of Christ was called simply "the Way."

19:10 In all his journeys Paul never stayed so long in any other city (20:31). And this was in a place which God had once kept him from entering (16:6; 18:19).

19:11,12 God used this way to convince everyone that Paul was His apostle (2 Cor 12:11,12). See notes at 5:15; 8:15,17 also. Paul did not attempt to do these miracles himself and he made no gain from them.

19:13-16 Notes on demons and driving out demons at Matt 4:24; 10:1. Here we see that merely using the name of Jesus is not sufficient to drive them out. Christ's authority, and God's Spirit are required for that.

19:17 The failure of the sons of Sceva to drive out demons had a good result. It was in sharp contrast with the power of God displayed through Paul (vs 11,12). God can use all such things, if He wills, for the advancement of the gospel.

19:18 Matt 3:5,6.

19:19 They had seen the power of the true God at work and realized the evil of sorcery and how little power it had in comparison with God's power. On sorcery see Deut 18:9-11. This is the third mention of it in was fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 So mightily the Word of God grew and showed its power.

21 After these things were over, Paul purposed in the Spirit to go to Jerusalem, when he had traveled through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, I must see Rome also." 22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who assisted him, Timothy and Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a time.

23 And at that same time there arose no small disturbance about the Way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Diana, was bringing in no small profit to the craftsmen. 25 He called them together, along with the workmen of similar occupations, and said, "Men, you know that we have our income from this work. 26 Moreover you see and hear that not only in Ephesus, but almost throughout all of Asia, this Paul has persuaded and taken away many people, saying that gods which are made with hands are not gods at all. 27 So that not only is this craft of ours in danger of falling into contempt, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised, and her magnificence may be destroyed, she whom all Asia and the world worships."

28 And when they heard this, they were filled with anger and cried out, saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" 29 And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's traveling companions, they rushed into the theatre with one accord. 30 And when Paul wanted to go inside to the people, the disciples would not let him. 31 And some of the officials of Asia, who were his friends, sent word to him begging him not to venture into the theatre.

32 So some cried out one thing, and some another, for the assembly was confused, and the majority did not know why they had come together. 33 And they drew Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews having pushed him forward. And Alexander gestured with his hand, and wanted to make his defense before the people. 34 But when they found out that he was a Jew, all cried out with one voice for about two hours: "Great is Diana of the Ephesians."

35 And when the town clerk had quieted the people, he said, "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana and of the image which fell down from heaven? 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet, and do nothing rashly. 37 For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples, nor blasphemers of your goddess. 38 Therefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another. 39 But if you enquire about any other matter, it must be decided in a lawful assembly. 40 For we are in danger of being called to answer for this day's uproar, there being no reason we may give to account for this riot." 41 And when he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts (8:9-11; 13:8-10). Their "books" were writings containing magical spells. Fifty thousand pieces of silver was a huge sum. One piece of silver was a day's wage for a laborer. 50,000 was enough for one's wages for 140 years! Notice they did not sell these books and use the money. They saw the evil of sorcery and wanted the books utterly destroyed. See their great zeal for God's truth once they learned it.

19:21 One reason for the visit to Jerusalem was to take a contribution from the churches to the poor believers there (see 1 Cor 16:1-4; 2 Cor 8:1 - 9:15). He had long had a desire to visit Rome (Rom 1:15; 15:23-28). Here he says he "must" do so. Does this not indicate that he was conscious of God's will in this (20:22)?

19:24 Verse 9. "Diana" - in Greek here "Artemis." Diana was the Roman name for the same goddess. The people of Ephesus and of Asia Minor in general regarded Artemis as the mother goddess. They believed her image at Ephesus had fallen from the sky. Her temple there was called one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, and was four times as large as the famous Parthenon in Athens. Much of the income of the city was related to her worship. The reason for the great disturbance (v 23) was mainly financial. So many people were turning to Christ and renouncing idolatry that a part of the economy of Ephesus was beginning to suffer (vs 25,26). Since Demetrius and his friends loved money instead of truth, there was certain to be trouble.

19:26 See 17:29,30; 1 Cor 8:4-6.

19:28 Love of money and fanaticism for false religion are a dangerous combination.

19:34 They knew that the views of the Jews on idolatry were the same as that of the Christians (Ex 20:1-5; Ps 115:2-8). They shouted for two hours about the greatness of Diana but does anyone worship her today? Her huge temple at Ephesus is now buried in a swamp.

19:35-44 "Heaven" - Jupiter (KJV) is not in Greek here.

Ephesus was ruled by Rome. "Proconsuls" (v 38) were Roman governors. The people had no right to take the law into their own hands and they could have been in trouble with the authorities if they had tried to do so. Therefore the city clerk coolly quietened the crowd and sent them away.

20 And after the uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples to him, embraced them and left to go to Macedonia. 2 And when he had gone over those areas and had given them much encouragement, he came to Greece, 3 and stayed there three months. And when the Jews made a plot against him as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia. 4 And Sopater of Berea accompanied him to Asia, also the Thessalonians Aristarchus and Secundus, Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. 5 These men, going ahead, waited for us at Troas. 6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the Days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days joined them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

7 And on the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul, being ready to leave the next day, preached to them and continued his talk until midnight. 8 And there were many lamps in the upper room where they were gathered together. 9 And in a window there sat a certain young man named Eutychus, who was falling into a deep sleep. And as Paul continued to speak for a long time, he collapsed with sleep and fell down from the third story and was lifted up dead. 10 And Paul went down, prostrated himself on him, and put his arms around him and said, "Don't trouble yourselves, for his life is in him." 11 So when he had come up again and broken bread and eaten, and had talked a long time, even until daybreak, he departed.

12 And they led the young man away alive, and were not a little comforted. 13 And we went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, there intending to take Paul aboard. This is what he had arranged, planning to go on foot himself. 14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and came to Mitylene. 15 And we sailed from there and came the next day opposite Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after that we came to Miletus. 16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, because he did not want to spend time in Asia, for he was hurrying on to be in Jerusalem by the day of Pentecost, if possible.

17 And from Miletus he sent word to Ephesus and called the elders of the church. 18 And when they had come to him, he said to them, "You know the manner of my life the whole time I was with you from the first day I came to Asia, 19 how I served the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and trials which came to me because of the plotting of the Jews, 20 and how I kept back nothing that was helpful to you, but made it known to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, 21 solemnly declaring both to the Jews and to the Greeks the need of repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 "And, see, now I go bound in the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, 23 except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and sufferings await me. 24 But none of these things moves me, nor do I count my life dear to myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

20:1,2 The churches started by Paul's ministry described in 16:10 - 18:18 were all in Macedonia and Greece.

20:3 See 13:45; 14:2,5,19.

20:4 "Derbe" - 16:20,21.

20:5 "Us" - 16:10.

20:6 "Days of Unleavened Bread" - Ex 12:17-20; Lev 23:4-8.

20:7 They met together on Sunday to observe the Lord's Supper, instead of on the old Jewish Sabbath (see also 1 Cor 16:2). This was fitting because it was the day the Lord Jesus rose from the dead, and brought the dawn of a new age.

20:10 See 9:40,41; Luke 6:11-15; 8:49-55; John 11:43,44; 1 Kings 17:21; 2 Kings 4:34,35.

20:15 Miletus was a port about 50 kilometers south of Ephesus.

20:16 "Pentecost" - 2:1-4; Lev 23:15-21.

20:17 "Elders" - 14:23.

20:18-36 Paul was an example of what a servant of Christ should be, and was set forth by God Himself for our instruction (Phil 3:17; 1 Cor 4:16; 11:1; 2 Thess 3:8,9; 1 Tim 1:16). He did not speak these words to the elders to show his own greatness, but to try to show what they as elders should be. He well knew what he was, and that he had nothing to boast about in himself (Rom 7:18; 1 Cor 3:7; 2 Cor 2:5,6; 1 Tim 1:15). 20:19 Is it possible for a humble man to know that he is humble? Evidently. At least he may know that he has behaved in a humble way.

"With many tears" - v 31; 2 Cor 2:4; 11:28,29; Ps 126:5,6; Luke 19:41.

20:20,21 At whatever cost to himself he was determined that every person would have a chance to hear Christ's gospel. If they did not come to public meetings he went to them. He preached always the two essentials for salvation - repentance and faith in Christ (which is really but one essential - true faith is linked inseparably with repentance). On repentance see 2:38; 17:30; Matt 3:2; 4:17; Luke 13:1-5; 24:47.

20:22,23 See 21:1,10,11.

20:24 Here we see one of the secrets of the great success of this man of God. He practiced Matt 10:38; Luke 9:23; 14:26,27. And he had one great goal in life - to finish what God had given him to do and to win the prize at the end - 1 Cor 9:24-27; Phil

25 "And now, look, I know that all of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. 26 Therefore I call you as witnesses this day, that I am innocent of the blood of all men. 27 For I have not hesitated to declare to you the whole counsel of God. 28 Therefore take care about yourselves, and about all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers to shepherd the church of God, which he purchased with his own blood. 29 For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. 30 Also from among yourselves men will arise and speak distorted things, to draw away disciples after them. 31 Therefore watch, and remember that for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.

32 "And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. 33 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or clothing. 34 Yes, you yourselves know that these hands provided for my necessities, and for those who were with me. 35 I showed you in every way how that by labouring like this you ought to support the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

36 And when he had said this, he knelt down and prayed with them all. 37 And they all wept many tears, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38 sorrowing most of all for the words which he

3:12-14; 2 Tim 4:7,8. His work was to proclaim and explain the grace of God to everyone he could reach (Eph 3:2,7; 2 Tim 1:9-11). Comforts, conveniences, ease, pleasures, the things that people in general hold dear, even life itself, were as nothing to him as he pursued his goal. His power for all this is seen in Col 1:29.

20:25 He felt his work in that part of the world was completed, and he planned to go elsewhere (19:21; Rom 15:23,24). Observe that "preaching the kingdom" is the same ministry as "testifying to the gospel of God's grace" (v 24).

20:26,27 See 18:6; Ezek 33:7-9. Paul was a great evangelist, but he was not satisfied to preach the bare facts of the gospel and move on. And he did not hold back any truth because of the fear of men or desire for their approval (v 20; Gal 1:10).

20:28 The leaders of the church there (Greek "episkopous") were made such by the Holy Spirit. These are the only leaders in any church who deserve the name, and only such can successfully fill the office - which is to be true shepherds of Christ's sheep (John 21:16; Eph 4:11; 1 Pet 5:2-4). If churches choose their own leaders without the guidance of the Holy Spirit they will have to suffer the consequences - and the consequences will not be good.

"Church" - notes at Matt 16:18. In this verse Jesus is called God - God bought the Church with "His own blood" - the blood of Jesus (1 Cor 6:19,20; Eph 1:7; 1 Pet 1:18,19). Other references to Christ's deity are at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

20:29 "Wolves" - Matt 7:15; John 10:12. Paul means false teachers who will try to tear the church to pieces (Rom 16:17,18; 1 Tim 4:1; 2 Pet 2:1).

20:30 It is not enough for church leaders to watch for false teachers coming from outside. Inside churches, too, there will be men who want followers for themselves, not for Christ. To get followers they are willing to pervert the truth of God, because their own ego is more important to them than truth.

20:31 Verse 19. Faithful servants of Christ love the truth, and must warn God's people about teachers who would distort it. Jesus and His apostles did this repeatedly (Matt 7:15; 24:4,5; 2 Cor 11:13-15; 1 John 2:18,19; Jude 3,4).

20:32 The "word of grace" is what we have in the gospel of Christ.

"Build you up" - Eph 4:11-13,16,29; 2 Tim 3:16,17; 1 Pet 2:1,2; 2 Pet 2:18; Jude 20.

"Inheritance" - 26:18; Rom 8:16,17; 1 Cor 6:9; Eph 1:11,14; 5:5; Col 1:12; 3:24; Heb 1:14; 1 Pet 1:4; Rev 21:7.

"Sanctified" - John 17:17-19; Rom 8:15,16; 1 Cor 1:2,30; 6:11; Eph 5:26.

20:33 He well knew the dangers he wrote of in 1 Tim 6:6-10. Compare Phil 4:10-13.

20:34 See 18:3.

20:35 These words of Jesus are not in any of the Gospels, but He always showed this principle in His life and ministry (Jesus did many things and said many things that are not written down - John 21:25). See His attitude toward the poor and helpless in Matt 9:36; 11:5; 19:21; Luke 4:18; 6:20; 11:41; 14:13; John 5:6-8 (most of His miracles were performed on the poor). He gave all that He was and all that He had with no desire to receive anything from those He helped. Compare Matt 20:28; John 10:11.

Paul followed His example - 1 Cor 9:12-17; 2 Cor 12:15. He was not like many today who think "godliness" is a means to financial gain (1 Tim 6:5), and only want what they think is the blessing of piling up money or possessions for themselves (compare John 12:6). Such people have never understood that Christianity in action is not seeing how much we can get for ourselves, but how much we can give to others. Have we learned even this most basic principle given by the Lord Jesus Himself? See notes and references on giving at 2 Cor 9:15.

20:37 They knew that there was no exaggeration in his words, that he had given his time, his strength, his money, his talents, and himself for them. Their tears now testify to their love.

spoke, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 And it came about after we had left them and sailed away, that we came on a straight course to Coos, and the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara, 2 and finding a ship sailing across to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set out. 3 Now when we saw Cyprus, we left it on the left hand and sailed to Syria and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her freight. 4 And finding disciples, we stayed there seven days. They said to Paul, through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. 5 And when we had completed those days, we departed and went on our way. And they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, until we were out of the city. And we knelt down on the shore and prayed. 6 And when we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and greeted the brethren and stayed with them one day. 8 And the next day we who were accompanying Paul left and came to in Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. 9 And this man had four daughters, virgins, who prophesied.

10 And as we stayed on there many days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. 11 And when he had come to us, he took 21:4 God's Spirit gave them great concern for Paul and probably revealed to them the persecution he would face there. But Paul was compelled by the same Spirit to go to Jerusalem (20:22).

21:5 See 20:36.

21:8 "Philip," "seven" – 6:5; 8:5-40. He is called the "evangelist" to distinguish him from Philip the apostle (1:13).

21:9 Other women in the Bible experienced the gift of prophecy – Ex 15:20; Jud 4:4; 2 Kings 22:14; Neh 6:14; Isa 8:3; Luke 2:36. Four in one family was surely an unusual thing, and testified to the good influence Philip (and no doubt his wife) had on them.

21:10 See 11:27.

21:11 He did not tell Paul that the Holy Spirit was commanding him not to go to Jerusalem. The Holy Spirit does not contradict Himself (20:22). The Spirit through Agabus told Paul exactly what was going to happen, so that Paul might be prepared for it.

21:12 Verse 4.

21:13 See 20:24.

21:16 "Cyprus" – 13:4-12.

21:17 At this time they brought the gifts of money from other churches (Rom 15:25-27; 1 Cor 16:1-4).

21:18 Jam 15:13.

21:19 See 15:4. Jews called all other people

Paul's belt, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

12 And when we heard these things, both we and those from that place, begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered, "What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready, not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." 14 And when he would not be persuaded, we kept quiet, saying, "The will of the Lord be done."

15 And after those days we took our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. 16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, whose guests we would be.

17 And when we arrived in Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. 18 And the following day Paul went with us to James, and all the elders were present. 19 And when he had greeted them, he declared in detail what things God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

20 And when they heard it they glorified the Lord, and said to Paul, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe. And they are all zealous for the Law. 21 And they have been told about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them that they ought not to circumcise their children, or walk according to the customs. 22 What (except Samaritans) "Gentiles."

21:20 These were Jews who had received Christ as the Messiah of Israel, been baptized into His name, and had become Christians. But they still loved the law of Moses revealed in the Old Testament and tried to follow it even in the observances of rituals, "clean" and "unclean" foods, feast days, etc. They had not yet understood that these things were mere shadows, types and pictures of spiritual realities in Christ – Matt 5:17; Col 2:17; Heb 10:1. (One purpose of the letter to the Hebrews was to show this and to teach that the whole old covenant was no longer in force. But this letter had not been written at this time.)

21:21 This accusation was false. Paul did not forbid Jewish Christians to circumcise their children or to follow the law. He did tell them and everyone else that salvation cannot come by the law (13:39; Rom 3:28; Gal 2:15,16). And he did teach Gentile Christians that they did not need to follow the customs and rituals of the Jews (Gal 5:1; 5:15; Col 2:16,17). But the most important aspects of the law – its ethics, morality, and righteousness – he taught should be fulfilled in every believer whether Jew or Gentile (Rom 8:4).

21:22-24 They suggested a way in which Paul could show that he was not in will be the consequences? The crowds will certainly come together, for they will hear that you have come. 23 Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. 24 Take them and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads. And everyone will know that those things which they were told about you are nothing, but that you yourself walk in an orderly way and keep the Law. 25 Concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written, and decided, that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled animals, and from sexual immorality."

26 Then Paul took the men and, the next day, purified himself with them and entered the temple to make known the completion of the days of purification, when an offering would be made for each of them. 27 And when the seven days were almost over, the Jews from the province of Asia saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people and took hold of him, 28 crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the Law, and this place. And furthermore he has also brought Greeks into the temple and polluted this holy place." 29 For previously they had seen with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed Paul had brought into the temple.

30 And the whole city was agitated, and the people ran together. And they took Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut. 31 And as they set about to kill him, news came to the commander of the Roman troops that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

opposition to these Jewish believers. The "vow" was probably the same that Paul himself had previously made – the Nazirite vow. See 18:18.

21:25 See 15:20,29. They were not informing Paul of something he did not know; they were assuring him that they would not demand that Gentile believers keep the law of Moses.

21:26 This purification would involve reporting to the priests at the temple and having holy water sprinkled on him. The offering for each of the four men is given in Num 6:14,15. Paul himself was not now making a vow. All the offerings and sacrifices of the Old Testament spoke of Christ. He was the reality of which they were the pictures (see note at Lev 1:2). Since these four men were Christians they must have known that it was by the sacrifice of Christ alone that their sins were taken away. If they did not, can we doubt that Paul told them so very clearly? In all this affair Paul was acting according to his own words in 1 Cor 9:19-23. He was 32 He immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

33 Then the commander approached and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains, and asked who he was and what he had done. 34 And some in the crowd cried out one thing, some another, and when he could not find out the truth because of the uproar, he commanded him to be carried into the barracks. 35 And when he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the people. 36 For the crowds of people kept following, crying out, "Away with him!"

37 And as Paul was about to be taken into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?"

He said, "Can you speak Greek? 38 Are you not that Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a revolt and led four thousand cutthroats out into the wilderness?"

39 But Paul said, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. And I ask you to let me speak to the people."

40 And when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs, and gestured with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

22 "Men, brethren and fathers, hear my defense which I now make to you."

2 And when they heard him speaking to them in the Hebrew tongue, they kept even more silent. And he said, 3 "I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the exact showing love and humility to those he hoped to win to higher and better truth.

21:27 "Asia" – 18:19; 19:1,8,9; 20:19. 21:29 Of course Paul had not brought the Gentile Trophimus into the temple. He would not thus offend the Jews he was trying to win.

21:31 Jerusalem was then ruled by the Romans.

21:36 See 22:22; Luke 23:18; John 15:18-21.

21:39 "No insignificant city" – Tarsus was the capital city of the province of Cilicia in southern Asia Minor. It was a commercial center with an enthusiasm for education and philosophy which surpassed that of Athens (according to a historian in ancient times).

21:40 "Hebrew dialect" – possibly Aramaic, a language similar to Biblical Hebrew and spoken by the Jews in Palestine in those days. Sometimes it was called "Hebrew" because the Hebrews spoke it.

22:3 "Gamaliel" – 5:34-40. "Zealous" – manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as all of you are this day. 4 And I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering up to prisons both men and women; 5 as also the high priest and the whole council of elders can testify for me. From them I received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring those who were there bound to Jerusalem, to be punished.

6 "And it came about that as I travelled, and had come near to Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light around me. 7 And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying

22:10 "What shall I do, Lord?" – this question is not recorded in chapter 9. It speaks of Paul's submission to the Lordship of Jesus, something that began on the day of his conversion and was seen in him throughout his life. He never tried to receive Christ as Saviour and not as Lord. Today it seems that there are many who are trying to do this, but the author of these notes believes that such a thought would have been far from Paul's mind or the minds of the original apostles and disciples.

Jesus is one magnificent person – the Christ, the son of man, the Son of God, the incarnation of Jehovah God, Saviour, and Lord. When a repenting sinner comes to Him, he (or she) may have had only a little instruction about any of these facts about Him, and one or another of them may be uppermost in his mind (to be saved it is not necessary to know much theology), but he cannot deliberately reject any of them and hope to have a true faith in Christ. To receive this wonderful person surely means to receive Him as He is, and all that He is – though we may know little enough who He is when we receive Him, and will spend the rest of our lives trying to understand all that He is and what it means to fully obey and follow Him.

In this verse we see that Paul recognized Jesus as Lord, and so he recognized also that Jesus had the right to tell him what to do, and he waited for orders. This is the only way to a true Christian life. Consider the following references:

Matt 4:17. One of the things that every sinner needs to repent of is his or her rebellion against the Lordship of Christ. And how can anyone enter His kingdom without submitting to the King? Likewise He is the Head and Lord of the Church which is His body. How can anyone be baptized by the Holy Spirit into this body – 1 Cor 12:12,13 – while rejecting the Lordship of Christ in his heart?

Matt 7:21. The will of the Father surely involves our submitting to Jesus as Lord – Phil 2:9-11.

Matt 16:24-26. Surely denying oneself and to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' 8 "And I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?'

"And he said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.'

9 "And those who were with me certainly saw the light and were afraid, but they did not hear the voice of him who spoke to me. 10 And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Arise, and go into Damascus. There it will be told you about all the things which you are appointed to do.' 11 And when I could not see because of the glory of that light, I came into Damascus, led by the hand by those who were with me.

taking up the cross to follow Jesus involves denying one's lordship over self and submitting to Him as Lord.

Mark 10:17-27. To the young man who came to Him asking about eternal life Jesus indicated that he had to submit to His authority and set out to obey Him, that real faith would not let anything stand in the way of his following Christ. And Jesus was speaking about entering the kingdom of God – v 23, and being saved – v 26,27.

Luke 6:46 and Matt 7:24. Can we think they are saved people who are foolish enough to ignore or reject Jesus' teachings and build on sand – Matt 7:26?

Luke 14:26,27,33. If we are not His disciples, can we dare to think we know Him as Saviour?

John 1:10-12. Verses 10,11 present Jesus as the Creator and Lord of the world, and v 12 speaks of receiving Him as such. This fact is often neglected when using v 12.

John 8:24. Jesus is saying He is the incarnation of Jehovah, the Lord of the universe, and that to be saved the Jews had to receive Him as such.

John 10:4,14,27. Jesus says that His sheep recognize Him as their shepherd – that is, their Lord and Owner – and they follow Him. If they do not they are not His sheep.

John 14:15. If we do not love Jesus, can we vainly imagine that we are saved people – 1 Cor 16:22? And if we do love Him we will obey Him – that is, submit to His Lordship over us.

Acts 2:36-38. Peter tells the Jews that they must repent of their rejection of Jesus as Lord and Christ and receive Him as such. Baptism was – and surely still is – an indication of this. It indicates death to the old life and being raised to a new life under the Lordship of Christ. People should not be baptized without understanding this.

Acts 5:32. Can we think we will be saved without the Holy Spirit, or that we can receive the Holy Spirit without submitting to God's Son – Rom 8:9?

Acts 16:31. The jailer was not told to believe in the Saviour Jesus Christ but in the Lord Jesus Christ, and can we think that real faith in Him can be born in the heart that will not submit to Him? And is not

12 "And a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the Law, having a good testimony among all the Jews who lived there, 13 came to me, and believing in Him and receiving Him the same thing, so that they who believe in the Lord receive the Lord - John 1:12?

Rom 1:5. Observe that once again obedience and faith are linked together. Indeed we cannot have one without the other. Compare 2 Thess 1:8; Rom 6:17. The Holy Spirit gives an obedient heart to those He gives faith to. We are not saved by obedience, we are saved by faith - the kind of faith that begins to make us obedient. Any other kind of faith is dead. Compare James 2:14-26.

Rom 6:16-23. Paul is saying that every person is a slave to what he obeys. If we submit to sin we are sin's servants; if we submit to God we are His servants. The one way leads to death; the other way leads to righteousness and life. Does not obeying the teaching the apostles gave plainly involve the Lordship of Jesus Christ over us? How can we be slaves of God and not recognize Christ as our Lord?

Rom 8:14. Does not God's Spirit always lead us to submit to the Lordship of Christ? To ask the question is to answer it. And is Paul not saying that only those who are led by God's Spirit are saved people?

Rom 10:9. Can we think of confessing Jesus as Lord and rejecting in our hearts His Lordship over us? Can we imagine that this is the way of salvation? Is it not an act of hypocrisy instead? And observe that Paul is speaking of the basic matter of salvation.

Rom 14:9. To be Lord is the reason He died. Will He not begin to fulfill this purpose in everyone who comes to Him in faith?

Eph 2:10 and Phil 1:6. Surely a part of the good work God has started in believers is to give them a heart to submit to the Lordship of Christ and to do the good works He has appointed to us.

Phil 2:10,11. Surely God causes this to happen in all those whom He calls to Himself to be His people.

Col 2:6. The Colossians received Jesus as Lord. This is the faith that was taught them and which they received. Surely all true believers follow their steps.

1 Thess 1:9,10. Here is an example showing what real conversion is. And can we think that any kind of true service to God is possible without receiving Jesus as Lord?

Heb 5:9. Here we are plainly told that eternal salvation comes to those who obey Christ; by which it may be judged that saving faith and obedience to Christ go together. When God grants faith to anyone He gives at the same time an obedient heart. See Heb 8:10; Ezek 36:26,27; etc.

1 Peter 1:2. Observe that the purpose in God's choice of people, and the purpose of the work of the Holy Spirit in bringing them to Christ, is that they might obey Jesus Christ. Notice too that here obedience is stood there, and said to me, Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And that same moment I saw him.

14 "And he said, 'The God of our fathers has put before "sprinkling by His blood."

1 Peter 4:17 - Peter points out that the "gospel of God" is something to be obeyed and that there is a fearful judgment coming on those who do not obey it.

1 John 2:4-6. In the light of this, can we think that true and saving knowledge of Jesus is possible without having a heart to obey Him?

Rev 3:20. Observe in v 14 that He does not present Himself to this church as the Saviour, but as the "Ruler of God's creation" - v 14. This fact too is often neglected when using v 20. It is as Lord and King that He stands outside the door and knocks. And it is as such that He must be received. When He comes in all that He is - Lord, Saviour, King, etc - comes in at the same time. We cannot consciously receive Him as Saviour and reject Him as Lord and King. And the more conscious we are of receiving the whole wonderful person and all that He is, the better it will be for our spiritual life.

Are any other Scriptures necessary to show that repenting and coming in faith to Jesus Christ involves receiving Him as both Saviour and Lord?

I am not saying that everyone who comes to Him is well instructed in this or is fully conscious of it. Nor am I saying that after believing we all obey Him perfectly in everything, or that we never rebel against Him. We all fail in many ways, including this way (James 3:2). But I am saying that when individuals really turn in faith to Him, God does a wonderful work in their minds and hearts (the new birth), immediately He gives the Holy Spirit - the very Spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ - to live in them, and this enables them to see who Jesus is and to receive Him as Saviour and submit to Him as Lord.

The person who wants to do the one without doing the other is on very dangerous ground. It is the enemies of Jesus, not His friends, who say "We don't want this man to reign over us" (Luke 19:14).

Those who are spiritually the children of Abraham (Rom 4:16) will do as Abraham did - "By faith Abraham. . . obeyed" (Hebrews 11:8. See also James 2:14,17,20-24).

The New Testament everywhere teaches that salvation is by grace through faith alone. It also teaches that God saves us to make us the sheep of His pasture and obedient to Him, and that any so-called faith which refuses to submit to Jesus as Lord is not true faith at all. It is presumption. True faith, the faith that is a gift of God, is not a passive thing that merely receives; it is a powerful force that always produces action, the action of obedience to Christ. I believe that the weakness of preaching about this matter is partly responsible for the weakness and superficiality we see in many churches.

22:14-16 These words are not recorded in chosen you, that you might know his will, and see that Just One, and hear the voice of his mouth. 15 For you will be his witness to all men of what you have seen and heard. 16 And now why do you delay? Get up and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.'

17 "And it came about that when I had come again to Jerusalem, as I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance, 18 and saw him saying to me, 'Hurry, and get out of Jerusalem quickly, for they will not receive your testimony concerning me.'

19 "And I said, 'Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you. 20 And when the blood of your martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, consenting to his death, and watched the clothing of those who killed him.'

21 "And he said to me, 'Go, for I will send you far from here to the Gentiles.'"

22 And they listened to him until this word, and then raised their voices and said, "Away with such a fellow from the earth, for it is not right that he should live."

23 And as they cried out and threw off their clothes, and flung dust into the air, 24 the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, and said that he must be investigated by whipping that he might know why they cried out so against him. 25 And as they bound him with leather straps, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to whip a man who is a Roman citizen, and not condemned?"

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, "Take care what you do, for this man is a Roman citizen."

27 Then the commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" He said, "Yes." 28 And the commander answered, "With a large sum I obtained this freedom."

And Paul said, "But I was born free."

29 Then immediately those who were going to investigate him left him, and the commander also was afraid, after he found out that he was a Roman citizen, and because he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because he wanted to know for certain why he was accused by the Jews, he loosed him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down and placed him before them.

23 And Paul, looking intently at the council, said, "Men, brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." 2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall, for do you sit to judge me according to the Law, and command me to be struck contrary to the Law?"

chapter 9. The "Righteous One" is a very fitting name for Jesus - 3:14.

22:15 See 1:8.

22:16 Notes on baptism at 2:38; Matt 3:2; Mark 16:16. In Ananias' words we can see that it is the visible symbol of inner cleansing from sin. This inner cleansing is by the blood of Christ - Heb 9:14.

22:17-21 This event is not recorded in chapter 9. It probably occurred sometime during his visit there shortly after his conversion (9:26-30).

22:20 See 7:57 - 8:1. In the Christian meaning of the word a martyr is a person who is put to death because of his (or her) witness for the truth.

22:21 Gal 2:7,8.

22:22 See 19:36. Here is another example of the Jewish prejudice against other peoples which was common in those times. They considered themselves superior to other peoples and did not want the "Gentiles" to be considered on an equality with themselves. Injustice, violence, threats and even murder were tools to maintain their prejudice.

22:24 See 5:40; 16:22,23; Matt 27:26.

22:25-28 See 16:37,38. Paul saw no reason why he should endure another unjust beating.

22:28 At this time in Rome's history there was this strange custom of selling citizenship (with all its advantages) to those who could afford it.

22:30 "Council" - the Sanhedrin - Matt 5:22.

23:1 "Conscience" - this is a word Paul used altogether 23 times in his speeches and letters recorded in the New Testament. It is used only nine times in other parts of the New Testament. Some important references are Rom 2:15; 1 Tim 1:5,19; 3:9; 4:2; 2 Tim 1:3; Titus 1:15; Heb 9:9,14; 10:22; 1 Pet 3:16.

Conscience is an inner faculty which judges what is right and wrong. It is an inner voice which can speak in alarm when an individual does something contrary to its judgments, or be calm and clear when it judges behavior to be correct. Paul insisted on the importance of having a "good" conscience (1 Tim 1:19). In 24:16 and 2 Cor 1:12 he gives one of the principles he always followed. Even when he was persecuting the church he maintained a good conscience (26:9; Phil 3:6). He thought that what he was doing was right (26:9. Compare John 16:2).

This shows that conscience is not infallible and can make serious errors. It needs to be instructed by the Word of God. See also the note at Heb 9:14.

23:2 This Ananias, an evil and greedy man, became the Jewish high priest about 48 AD. Paul's denial of any wrong doing enraged him.

23:3 "Whitewashed wall" - compare Matt 23:27; Ezek 13:10-12. Ananias was murdered some year after this. Striking Paul

4 And those who stood by said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"

5 Then Paul said, "I did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest. For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people.'"

6 But when Paul perceived that some were Sadducees, and the others Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men, brethren! I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. I am being judged concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead." 7 And when he had said this, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, and no angel or spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledge both.

9 And there arose a loud outcry, and the scribes who were on the Pharisees' side got up and disputed, saying, "We find no evil in this man. And if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God." 10 And when a great dissension arose, the commander, fearing that Paul might be pulled in pieces by them, ordered the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the barracks.

11 And the following night the Lord stood by him and said, "Take courage, Paul. For as you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must be a witness at Rome also."

12 And when daylight came, some of the Jews formed a gang and bound themselves by an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. 13 And those who made this conspiracy were more than forty in number. 14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves by a great oath that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 So now you, together with the council, indicate to the commander that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you would enquire more accurately concerning him. And we are ready to kill him before he comes near here."

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions to him, and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him."

18 So he took him and brought him to the commander, and said, "Paul, the prisoner, called me and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you."

19 Then the commander took him by the hand, withdrew with him privately, and asked him, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

20 And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they would enquire more accurately about him. 21 But do not be persuaded by them, because more than forty of them are waiting in ambush for him. They have bound themselves by an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink until they have killed him. And they are now ready, looking for a message from you."

22 So the commander let the young man leave, and ordered him, "Do not tell anyone that you have told me these things."

23 And he called two centurions and said, "Get ready two hundred soldiers and seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea tonight at nine o'clock. 24 And provide animals to set Paul on, and take him safely to Felix the governor."

25 And he wrote a letter like this:

26 Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings.

27 This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them. Then I came with a troop and rescued him, since I understood that he was contrary to the law of God because the law did not permit punishment before guilt was proved.

23:5 It would seem from this either that Paul's eyes were bad, or that Ananias was not wearing his robes of office, or that he was not presiding over the meeting in the usual place (the meeting had been hastily called - 22:30). Paul quotes Ex 22:28.

23:6 Here Paul used the wisdom God gave him to cause a division in the ranks of his enemies. He had been raised a Pharisee (Phil 3:5. Note at Matt 3:7), and the high priest and some other members of the Sanhedrin were Sadducees.

23:7 Sometimes religious disputes are the most violent of all.

23:11 "The Lord stood by him" - any trouble is a blessing in disguise if it brings the Lord Jesus near.

"Take courage" - 18:9,10.

"Rome" - 19:21.

23:12-35 From the time of his conversion the Jews had been plotting to kill Paul (9:23-25,28-30; 14:19; 17:5). They never did succeed in doing so. God knows how to protect His servants until it is time for them to go to be with Himself. No enemy can take the life of any of them as long as God has something for them to do on earth. For Paul's safety God used his nephew (v 16). This is the only reference in the New Testament to him or to Paul's sister). God used also the Roman centurion (v 17), the Roman commander (v 18), 200 ordinary soldiers, 70 horsemen, 200 other soldiers with spears (v 23), and the Roman governor of Judea (v 34). If there had been need He would have sent an army of angels from heaven. 23:26 Felix became the Roman governor of Judea in 52 AD. He was a wicked, cruel and lustful man.

is a Roman citizen. 28 And when I wanted to find out the reason why they accused him, I brought him to their council. 29 I saw that he was accused concerning questions about their law, but there was no charge against him deserving of death or bonds. 30 And when I was told that the Jews were waiting in ambush for the man, immediately I sent him to you, and also ordered his accusers to tell in your presence what they have against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul at night and brought him to Antipatris. 32 On the next day they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the barracks. 33 When the horsemen arrived in Caesarea they delivered the letter to the governor and also placed Paul before him. 34 And when the governor read the letter, he asked what province he was from. And when he found out that he was from Cilicia, 35 he said, "I will hear you when your accusers also have come." And he commanded that he be kept in Herod's government quarters.

24 And five days later Ananias the high priest came down with the elders, and with a certain advocate named Tertullus. They informed the governor of the charges against Paul. 2 And when Paul was called in, Tertullus began the accusation, saying, "Seeing that because of you we enjoy much peace, and under your providential care very worthy deeds are done for this nation, 3 we everywhere and always receive this with complete gratitude, most noble Felix. 4 But so that I might not be more tedious to you, I request you in your kindness to listen to a few words from us.

5 "For we have found this man a plague, and one who stirs up rebellion among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. 6 Also he has gone about to desecrate the temple. We seized him, and would have judged him according to our law, 7 but the commander Lysias came and very forcibly took him out of our hands, 8 commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him yourself you can understand all these things of which we

24:1 See 23:2. "Advocate" - or "orator"
24:5 "Plague" - 16:20; 17:6. Once again a peacemaker is accused of being a source of trouble. In fact it was Paul's opponents who caused the trouble.

"Sect of the Nazarenes" - 2:22; Matt 2:23. He meant that Paul and people of like mind had rejected the truth of the Jews' religion to follow Jesus, whom they considered a blasphemer and a heretic.

24:14 "The Way" - 9:2; 22:4. The Law and the Prophets meant the whole Old Testament (Matt 5:17; Luke 24:27). Observe that Paul says he believed all of it. This is a accuse him."

9 And the Jews also gave assent, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after the governor had gestured to him to speak, answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge to this nation for many years, I answer for myself the more cheerfully, 11 because you can find out that no more than twelve days have passed since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. 12 And they did not find me in the temple disputing with anyone, or stirring up the people, either in the synagogues or in the city. 13 Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. 14 But this I confess to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and in the Prophets. 15 And I have the hope toward God, which they themselves also accept, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the righteous and unrighteous. 16 And I take pains in this: Always to have a clear conscience toward God and men.

17 "Now, after many years, I came to my nation to bring a donation for the poor, and offerings. 18 At which time some Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, with neither a mob, nor an uproar. 19 They ought to have been here before you to object, if they had anything against me. 20 Or else let these who are here say if they have found any wrongdoing in me when I stood before the council, 21 unless it was for this one statement that I cried out, standing among them: 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day.'"

22 And when Felix heard these things, having a very accurate knowledge of the Way, he postponed things, and said, "When Lysias the commander comes down, I will determine your case more exactly." 23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul under guard, and to let him have some freedom, and that he should not prevent any of his friends from performing service for him or visiting him.

24 And after some days, Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, and he sent for very significant statement. If we are wise we will do likewise. "Sect" - or "heresy".

24:15 "Resurrection" - Dan 12:2; John 5:28,29. Some of the men (vs 1,9) must have been Pharisees if they believed in the resurrection of the dead (23:8).

24:16 Note at 23:1.

24:18,19 See 21:26-29.

24:20,21 See 22:30 - 23:10.

24:22 Verse 14; 21:31; 23:23-26.

24:24 Drusilla was a Jewess and the third wife of Felix. Though Felix was the most powerful man in the country and was going

Paul, and listened to him speaking about faith in Christ. 25 And as Paul reasoned concerning righteousness, self-control, and judgment to come, Felix trembled and answered, "Go your way for now. When I have a convenient time, I will call for you." 26 He hoped also that Paul would give him money to release him. Therefore he sent for him the more often, and talked with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came in the place of Felix, and Felix, wanting to do the Jews a favour, left Paul imprisoned.

25 Now three days after Festus came to the province, he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. 2 Then the high priest and the leaders of the Jews informed him against Paul, and pleaded with him, 3 asking the favour against Paul, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, while they waited in ambush along the way to kill him. 4 But Festus replied that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would go there soon. 5 "Therefore," he said, "let those among you who are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there is any wickedness in him."

6 And when he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he had come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around, and brought many serious charges against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 And he answered for himself, "I have not in any way offended against the law of the Jews, or against the temple, or against Caesar."

9 But Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favour, to decide Paul's case, Paul did not hesitate to tell him about the Lord Jesus Christ. Compare 20:24; Matt 10:18.

24:25 Felix completely lacked righteousness and self-control (23:26). Notes on righteousness at Matt 5:6,20), and he was facing God's judgment (17:31). Paul the prisoner dared to go right to the heart of this ruler's sin and need. Felix was like so many in every era - he wanted to put off the day of decision. Does a "convenient" time ever come for such people who want to remain in rebellion against God?

24:26 Treasure in heaven was offered to him, but he, like so many in authority, was only after what he could get on earth. On bribes see Ex 23:8; 1 Sam 8:3; 12:3; Ps 15:5; 26:10; Isa 33:15. How often in this way people throw away something of eternal value for passing trifles.

24:27 Does it not seem strange that God permitted the greatest of the apostles to be confined for two years? Compare 12:2-7. We may be sure Paul's stay in prison was not wasted. He had much time for prayer, for witnessing to fellow prisoners, answered Paul and said, "Will you go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged about these things before me?"

10 Then said Paul, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you very well know. 11 For if I am doing wrong, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not ask to avoid death. But if there is nothing to any of these accusations they bring against me, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar."

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "Have you appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you will go."

13 And after some days king Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus. 14 And after they had been there many days, Festus set Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a certain man left imprisoned by Felix, 15 about whom the chief priests and the Jewish elders informed me when I was in Jerusalem, asking me to make a judgment against him.

16 "I replied to them that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand anyone over to death before the one accused has seen his accusers face to face, and had opportunity to answer for himself concerning the crime charged against him. 17 Therefore, when they had come here, without any delay, the next day I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in. 18 When the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation against him about such things as I had supposed, 19 but had some questions against him about their own religion, and about a certain Jesus, who had died, who, Paul declares, is alive. 20 And because and for writing letters.

25:1 We know little about Festus apart from what is here in Acts. He became governor sometime about 60 AD and died less than two years later.

25:3 See 23:12,21.

25:7 See 24:13.

25:10 Caesar was the Roman emperor. Rome ruled Judea and the Roman governor was the judge in criminal cases.

25:11 At any stage in the trial of a Roman citizen he had the right to demand that his case be heard before the emperor in Rome, and that the emperor himself should give the verdict (v 21). Paul now did this because he saw that there was little chance of a just decision. Felix wanted to please the Jews. Also Paul knew that the Lord was sending him to Rome (23:11).

25:13 This Agrippa was the son of the Herod Agrippa of 12:1. He was king over some areas to the north of Judea. Bernice was his younger sister.

25:19 Festus had no understanding of the gospel, was ignorant of the most important issues facing mankind.

I was in doubt about such questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem and be judged there about these matters. 21 But when Paul appealed to be kept for the decision of Augustus, I ordered him to be kept here until I could send him to Caesar."

22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would also like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow", Festus said, "You will hear him."

23 And the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp and entered the place for hearing the case, along with the commanders and leading men of the city, Paul was brought in at the order of Festus. 24 And Festus said, "King Agrippa, and everyone here present with us, you see this man about whom all the Jewish people have entreated me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying out that he ought not to live any longer. 25 But when I found that he himself had done nothing worthy of death, and that he had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him there. 26 But I have nothing certain about him to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this investigation takes place I might have something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner, and not indicate the charges against him."

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out a hand and answered for himself: 2 "I count myself happy, King Agrippa, because I will answer for myself this day before you concerning everything I am accused of by the Jews, 3 especially because I know you are an expert in all the customs and questions existing among the Jews. Therefore I ask you to hear me patiently.

4 "All the Jews know my manner of life from my youth, which in the beginning was spent in my own nation at Jerusalem. 5 They knew me from the beginning, if they were willing to testify, that according to the most strict sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand and am being judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers. 7 To this promise our twelve tribes, earnestly worshipping day and night, hope to come. For the sake of this hope, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews.

8 "Why should you think it an incredible thing that God would raise the dead?

9 "I indeed thought myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth, 10 which I also did in Jerusalem. And I imprisoned many of the saints, having received authority from the chief priests. And when they were put to death, I gave my vote against them. 11 And often I punished them in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities. 12 On this work, while I travelled to Damascus with authority and a commission from the chief priests, 13 at midday, O king, while on the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who were travelling with me. 14 And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15 "And I said, 'Who are you, Lord?'

"And he said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. 16 But rise and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for the purpose of making you a servant and a witness both of these things which you have seen and of those things I will yet reveal to you, 17 delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles to whom I now send you, 18 to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and an inheritance among those who are sanctified

25:24 See 21:36; 22:22.

26:4-6 See 22:2,3; 23:6.

26:7 The hope he refers to is the hope of the resurrection of the righteous - Dan 12:2; John 5:28,29.

26:8 God who made the worlds and put man on the earth can experience no difficulty in raising the dead. Observe again how the teaching of the resurrection was always at the heart of the gospel of Christ as His apostles preached it (1:3).

26:9 See 22:3-5; 1 Tim 1:13. When he was persecuting the church Paul actually thought he was doing the right thing and defending the true faith. Compare John 16:2.

26:10 See 8:1-3; 9:1,2; 22:4.

26:11 Note on blasphemy at Matt 9:3. This is the only place where Paul is said to have tried to make Christians blaspheme. He does not say he was successful.

26:12-15 See 9:3-5; 22:5-8.

26:14 In the three brief accounts of Paul's conversion to Christ here (and here only) is there the mention of kicking "against the goads." In his persecution of the Christians Paul had been like a strong rebellious ox which feels the sharp point of its master's goad trying to control it. In other words, there must have been some unease in Paul's mind, some pain in his heart, at what he was doing to Christian men.

26:16-18 See 9:6,15; 22:14,15,21. Here Paul gives more fully the words with which the Lord appointed him as His servant.

26:18 Paul's work as an evangelist is clearly seen here. He was Christ's instrument to bring true enlightenment to people; to bring them out of bondage to Satan (compare by faith in me.'

19 "Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but declared first to those in Damascus, and in Jerusalem, and throughout all the area of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and do deeds appropriate to repentance. 21 For these causes the Jews seized me in the temple, and attempted to kill me. 22 Therefore, having obtained help from God, I continue to this day, witnessing to both small and great, saying nothing but the things that the prophets and Moses said would come, 23 that Christ would suffer, and that he would be the first who would rise from the dead, and would give light to the people, and to the Gentiles."

24 And as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are out of your mind. Much learning is driving you insane!"

25 But he said, "I am not insane, most noble Festus, but speak words of truth and sanity. 26 For the king knows of these things, before whom I also speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him, because this thing was not done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "Almost you

John 8:33-35,44; Eph 2:1,2; 2 Tim 2:26. Note on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; and to bring forgiveness of sins (Matt 26:28; Luke 24:47) and an inheritance among God's people (20:32; Eph 1:11; Col 1:12; 1 Pet 1:4). This is the work also of every true evangelist. Notice that sanctification comes by faith in Christ – that is, God sets believers in Christ apart from all others to be His own people.

26:19 Paul is emphasizing (as he always did) the fact that his conversion was not due to a process of reasoning or by the persuasive teaching of men, but because of a revelation from heaven (Gal 1:11,12). His whole Christian life was in obedience to that revelation.

26:20 See 9:20-22,28. See again the emphasis on repentance, the kind of repentance that was proved by a change in life-style. See notes at Matt 3:2,8; 4:17; Luke 13:2-5. Any preacher who neglects the subject of repentance is not preaching the true gospel of Christ, and there is no lack of such preachers. And are there not many professing Christians in the churches who have never repented and who live lives little different from the people of the world?

26:22 "Small" or "great" made no difference to Paul. He didn't cut the demands of the gospel when speaking to any kind of person.

26:23 Luke 24:25-27,46,47. "Light" – Luke 1:78,79; 2:32; John 8:12.

26:24 Festus was a Roman, and the Romans in general believed in many gods persuade me to become a Christian."

29 And Paul said, "I would to God that not only you, but also all who are listening to me this day, were both almost and altogether such as I am, except for these bonds."

30 And when he had said this, the king and the governor and Bernice and those who were seated with them, got up, 31 and when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, "This man is doing nothing worthy of death or imprisonment." 32 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free, if he had not appealed to Caesar."

27 And when it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they handed Paul and some other prisoners over to a man named Julius, a centurion of the Regiment of Augustus. 2 And entering a ship of Adramyttium, we put out to sea, intending to sail along the coasts of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us.

3 And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius treated Paul courteously, and permitted him to go to his friends to refresh himself. 4 And when we had put out to sea from there, we sailed close by Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed across the sea of Cilicia and strange superstitions. Yet Festus thought Paul was crazy for believing in the sober truth of the resurrection of Christ (compare Mark 3:20,21). But he recognized that Paul was a very learned man. Compare 4:13.

26:25 What seems crazy to those in spiritual darkness is both true and reasonable to those whom God has brought into the light. The really crazy ones are those who go their own way in this world and do not seek for the true God, or carefully consider God's revelation of truth in Christ. See Eccl 9:3.

26:26 Paul, seeing that Festus had no desire to believe, turned to king Agrippa in hope of winning him for Christ.

26:28 We do not know how sincere Agrippa was. In any case, saying "almost" was not enough for him (or for anyone) to enter God's kingdom. Almost persuaded is to be still lost in sin.

26:29 See the heart of this prisoner before the authorities and all others present – he wants them all to become believers in Christ as he was. The truth of 2 Cor 5:13-15 was powerfully at work in him.

27:1 Italy was the country where Rome, the capital city of the Roman Empire, was located.

"We" – Luke is with Paul.

"Centurion" – a Roman military man in charge of one hundred soldiers.

27:2 "Aristarchus" – 19:29; 20:4; Col 4:10; Philemon 24.

and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing to Italy, and he put us in it. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and had hardly come opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us to go quickly, we sailed close by Crete, opposite Salmone, 8 and, hardly getting by it, came to a place called The Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time had been spent and sailing had become dangerous (because the Fast was already over), Paul advised them, 10 and said to them, "Men, I perceive that this voyage is going to result in disaster and great damage, not only to the cargo and ship, but also to our lives." 11 Nevertheless the centurion was persuaded more by the sailing master, and the owner of the ship, than by those things Paul said. 12 And because the harbour was not suitable to stay during winter, the majority advised departure from there also, if by any means they might get to Phoenix, and spend the winter there. This is a harbour of Crete, and faces toward the southwest and northwest.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had achieved their purpose, raising anchor, they sailed close by Crete. 14 But not long afterwards a violent wind, called Euroclydon, arose against the ship. 15 And when the ship was caught and could not face into the wind, we let it be driven. 16 And running close to an island called Claudia, we had much work to control the lifeboat. 17 When they had taken it up, they used help and bound the ship together. And being afraid that they might fall onto the sandbanks, they lowered the sail, and so were driven by the wind. 18 And since we were violently tossed by the tempest, the next day they lightened the ship, 19 and the third day we threw out with our own hands the equipment of the ship. 20 And when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest lay over us, all hope that we would be saved was then taken away.

21 But after a long abstinence from food Paul stood up in their midst and said, "Men, you should 27:9 The "Fast" here refers to the Day of Atonement. See notes at Leviticus chapter 16; 23:16-32. It came between the last part of September and the first part of October. Sailors in the Mediterranean Sea considered that a dangerous time of the year for sailing, because of the possibility of bad weather. After the middle of November they considered sailing practically impossible.

27:10 Paul was a prophet and God had revealed this to him.

27:22-24 In other moments of crisis God encouraged Paul by some revelation or other (18:9,10; 22:17,18; 23:11).

27:25 Paul could say this not only about that particular revelation but about all that have listened to me, and not set sail from Crete and incurred this harm and loss. 22 But now I urge you to take courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23 For tonight there stood by me an angel of God, to whom I belong and whom I serve, 24 saying, "Do not be afraid, Paul. You must be brought before Caesar. And see, God has given you all those who are sailing with you." 25 Therefore, men, have courage, for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me. 26 However, we must run aground on a certain island."

27 And when the fourteenth night had come, as we were being driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the sailors thought that they were drawing near some land. 28 And they took soundings and found the depth was twenty fathoms. And when they had gone a little further, they again took soundings, and found the depth fifteen fathoms. 29 Then fearing that we might fall on rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. 30 And as the sailors were about to escape from the ship, having let down the lifeboat into the sea, pretending that they were dropping anchors from the prow of the ship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless they stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." 32 Then the soldiers cut the ropes of the boat and let it fall.

33 And while day was dawning, Paul urged them all to take food, saying, "This is the fourteenth day that you have waited and continued to fast and have taken nothing. 34 So I beg you to take some food for the sake of your health, for not a hair from the head of any of you will fall." 35 And when he had said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all. And when he had broken it, he began to eat. 36 Then all of them gained courage and they also took some food. 37 And altogether in the ship we were two hundred and seventy-six persons. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw the grain out into the sea.

God had revealed in the Bible. This is how he was able to endure triumphantly all the storms that came into his life. Compare 24:14; Rom 4:20,21; 2 Cor 4:13,14; 2 Tim 1:12; 4:18.

27:27 "Adria" – the Adriatic Sea, which was between Italy, Malta, Crete, and Greece.

27:28 "Fathoms" – a word used by sailors in measuring the depth of the sea. One fathom is slightly less than two meters.

27:35 Blessed are those believers who can show the same trust and confidence in all the experiences of life and so be an example to others.

"Gave thanks" – Matt 14:19; Eph 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18; Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17;

39 And when daylight had come, they did not recognize the land, but observed a cove with a beach, into which they resolved, if possible, to drive the ship. 40 And when they had removed the anchors, letting them go into the sea, they loosened the fastenings of the rudder, raised the mainsail to the wind, and made for the beach. 41 And happening onto a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground. And the front part stuck fast and remained firm, but the stern was broken up by the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers wanted to kill the prisoners so that none of them would swim out and escape. 43 But the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and ordered that those who could swim should first throw themselves into the sea and get to land, 44 and the rest should follow, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And it came about that they all escaped safely to the land.

28 And when they had escaped, they then learned that the island was called Melita. 2 And those non-Grecian people showed us no little kindness. For they kindled a fire, and gave a welcome to all of us, because of the rain that was falling and the cold. 3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper, escaping from the heat, fastened on his hand. 4 And when those people saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said among themselves, "No doubt this man is a murderer. Even though he has escaped the sea, justice does not permit him to live."

5 And he shook the creature off into the fire, and experienced no harm. 6 And they expected that he would swell up or suddenly fall dead, but

50:14,15; 56:12.

27:42 The soldiers were afraid they would have to endure the punishment due to any prisoners who escaped (12:19; 16:27).

27:43 Once again God had His way of preserving the life of His servant (note at 23:12-35).

27:44 Verses 22-25.

28:1 "Melita" - the small island now called Malta. It lies nearly 100 kilometers south of the much larger island of Sicily.

"Non-Grecian people" - see note at Rom 1:14. The inhabitants of Melita were not barbarians.

28:4 Compare Rom 2:14,15. God has placed the idea of justice in the hearts of people everywhere. These islanders believed in exact divine retribution.

"People" - literally, "barbarians", a name the Greeks called other people even though those people might have been civilized in every way.

28:5 Mark 16:18. This is the only case of after they had watched for a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

7 In the same area there were fields belonging to the leading man of the island, whose name was Publius. He received us and kindly welcomed us as guests for three days. 8 And it so happened that the father of Publius lay sick with a fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him and prayed, laid his hands on him, and healed him. 9 So when this happened, others in the island also who had diseases came and were healed. 10 And they showed us much respect, and when we left they loaded us down with things that were needed.

11 And after three months we sailed in a ship of Alexandria which had spent the winter at the island. Its emblem was Castor and Pollux. 12 And landing at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days. 13 And from there we circled around and came to Rhegium, and a day later the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli. 14 There we found some brethren and were asked to stay with them for seven days. And so we proceeded toward Rome. 15 And when the brethren heard about us, from there they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage. 16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the commander of the guard, but Paul was allowed to live by himself with a soldier who kept him under guard.

17 And three days later it came about that Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. And when they had assembled, he said to them, "Men and brethren, even though I have done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, from Jerusalem I was given over as a prisoner into the 28:6 To them Paul seemed to have some supernatural power and in their ignorance and superstition they thought only the "gods" could exercise such powers. Compare 14:11-18.

28:8 Mark 16:18.

28:12 Syracuse was the chief port of the island of Sicily.

28:13 Rhegium was on the southernmost coast of Italy. Puteoli was the chief port of southern Italy. It was near present-day Naples.

28:14,15 "Brethren" is one of the names used in the New Testament for believers in Christ. The welcome Paul received from them near Rome cheered his heart after a long, weary and dangerous journey.

28:16 Paul was given considerable liberty (v 30) because there were no charges against him (25:25-27; 26:31,32) and he was a Roman citizen.

28:17 Paul wasted no time but right away hands of the Romans. 18 When they examined me, they would have let me go, because there was no reason found in me for the death penalty. 19 But when the Jews spoke against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar; not that I had any accusation to bring against my nation. 20 Therefore, for this reason I have sent for you to see you and to speak with you, because for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

21 And they said to him, "We have received no letters from Judea concerning you, and none of the brethren who have come reported or said anything bad about you. 22 But we want to hear from you what you think, for as for this sect we know that everywhere it is spoken against."

23 And when they had fixed a day for him, many came to him in his lodging. He explained, and testified about, the kingdom of God, speaking convincingly to them about Jesus, both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning to evening. 24 And some assented to the things that were said, and some would not believe. 25 And when they disagreed among themselves, they left, after Paul had spoken one word: "Well spoke the Holy Spirit by Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, 26 saying,

Go to this people, and say,
Hearing you will hear, and will not understand,
and seeing you will see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people has become fat, and their ears are dull of hearing, and they have closed their eyes
so that they might not see with their eyes, and hear with their ears,
and understand with their heart,
and be converted, and be healed by me.

28 "So be it known to you that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and that they will hear it."

29 And when he had spoken these words, the Jews left and had a great argument among themselves.

30 And Paul lived two full years in his own rented house, receiving all who came to him, 31 and preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with complete confidence, no one hindering him.

tried to reach the Jewish community in Rome with the gospel. See Rom 9:1-3.

28:19 See 25:11.

28:20 "Hope" - 23:6; 24:15; 26:6.

28:22 "Sect" - they considered Christianity a rather disreputable sect of Judaism.

28:23 "Kingdom of God" - 1:3; 8:12; 14:22; 19:8; 20:25; Matt 4:17.

"The Law. . .the Prophets" was their way of saying the whole Old Testament. See Paul's method of proclaiming the truth. He explained God's revelation, and he reasoned with them from the Scriptures. He knew that his message was both true and reasonable (27:35), and solidly based in God's Word.

28:24 Compare Matt 10:34; John 7:12,13; 10:19-21.

28:25-27 Isa 6:9,10; Matt 13:13-15; Rom 11:8. Notice the words "spoke the Holy Spirit." Paul believed in the full divine inspiration of the Old Testament (2 Tim 3:16). In this also he was a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ (Matt 5:17,18; John 10:35). The Jews' rejection of the gospel was in accordance with a prophecy in their own Scriptures.

28:28 See 14:46-48; 18:6; 22:18,21; Rom 1:16.

28:31 Verse 23. Again we see that with the apostles the preaching of God's kingdom and the teaching about Christ were intimately connected. Note on God's kingdom at Matt 4:17. Luke closed this brief history of the early Church with Paul in Rome. One of his aims was to show how the words of Christ in 1:8 were fulfilled. He had done what he set out to do, and his work was completed. He wrote, no doubt, before Paul stood before the Emperor to be judged.

We do not know with certainty what happened to Paul at the end of this time in Rome. We do not need to know. Tradition says that eventually he was beheaded there. However that may be, before long Paul and all the apostles passed away and went to be with Christ. But the work of Christ, not being dependent on any one man, or group of men, goes on to this day. What Christ "began" (1:1) He still continues to do and He will complete it in due time. Happy are those who have a part in it all.

The Letter of the Apostle Paul to the ROMANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

About 58 AD.

Theme:

The gospel of Christ. Paul gives the theme in 1:16,17 and in the rest of the letter fully describes the gospel – what it is, what it does for those who believe it, and how it relates to the nation Israel. Some key words are sin, redemption, salvation, justified, righteousness, grace, faith.

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God 2 (which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures, 3 concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was born of the seed of David, according to the flesh, 4 and declared with power to be the Son of God, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. 5 Through him we have received grace and apostleship, to bring about

1:1 "Paul" – Acts 7:38; 8:13; 9:119; 13:9.

"Servant" – the Greek word could also be translated "slave", one who belongs completely to another person. All believers in this sense are servants or slaves of Christ – He has purchased all of them from the slavery of sin to become His property, His people (6:16-18,22; Matt 20:28; 1 Cor 6:19,20). Paul accepted this relationship with Christ gladly and willingly, as all believers should. See note at 8:14.

"Apostle" – 1 Cor 1:1; Gal 1:1. The word means someone who is sent on some work or some mission by another person. See Matt 10:2.

"Set apart" – God had a special work for Paul – proclaiming, explaining and defending the gospel of Christ. Observe that this gospel is "of God." The one true God conceived it, planned it, prepared the way for it, accomplished it, and now offers it to people everywhere.

1:2 Christ's gospel was not something altogether new. In the Old Testament ("the Holy Scriptures") there were promises, prophecies, types and pictures of the gospel. See Luke 24:25,27,46,47; Matt 5:17; Heb 8:5; 10:1.

1:3 Christ was one person with two natures – divine nature and real human nature. He was both the Son of David, and the Son of God (Matt 1:1; 3:17; Heb 2:14,17).

1:4 "The Spirit of holiness" is the Holy Spirit (John 14:16,17,26). Notes on holiness at Lev 20:7; John 17:17,19. The final proof that Christ was the Son of God was His resurrection. See Matt 28:6. He did not appear, make great claims about Himself, then die and remain in the grave. He backed up what He said with what He did. For other evidence that He was God's Son see John 5:31-47.

1:5 Paul well understood that his salvation and his opportunity of serving Christ were altogether God's gift (Eph 2:3,8; 3:7,8; 1 Tim 1:13-17; 2 Tim 1:9; Titus 3:3-8). God appointed him to serve primarily among the Gentiles (peoples other than Jews). But of course he preached to Jews also – Acts 13:45-47; 22:31; 26:17,18; Gal 1:16; 2:7,8.

"Obedience of faith" – the KJV has "obedience to the faith", but the words "to the" were added. They are not in the Greek. The phrase "the faith" is used in the Bible to indicate the body of truth and doctrine taught by Christ and His apostles (see, for the obedience of faith among all nations, for his name's sake, 6 among whom you too are called by Jesus Christ):

7 To all who are in Rome, dearly loved by God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel example, 1 Tim 4:1; Jude 3). But faith (without "the") is the experience of believing.

The intimate connection between faith and obedience appears in many places in the New Testament. See 6:16-23; 8:14; Matt 7:21,24; Acts 5:32; 22:10 (where many references are given); 2 Thess 1:8; Heb 5:9; 1 Pet 1:2; 4:7; 1 John 2:46, and notes in those places. Salvation is altogether by grace through faith (as we shall see very clearly in the rest of Romans), but in saving us God produces a profound change in us which causes us to bow at the feet of Jesus Christ and acknowledge Him as Lord (10:9,10). Believing in Christ and submitting to Him go together.

1:6 "Called" – see also 8:28-30. In Paul's usage this means more than merely invited. All believers are God's gift to His Son and become His. See John 6:37; 17:6. God knows who they are before they believe, and He calls them through the preaching of the gospel to come to Christ, and they come and believe in Him, and receive Him as Lord and Saviour.

1:7 All believers are "dearly loved by God" with a special love (John 13:1; 14:21,23; 1 John 3:1; Jer 31:3).

"Saints" literally means "holy ones", and all believers in Christ are such. See John 17:17-19. According to the Bible "saints" are not some exceptionally holy or dedicated or successful believers, but all believers without exception. They are to live holy lives because they are holy people and belong to Jesus Christ the Holy One.

"Grace" and "peace" are two of the great words of the gospel of Christ. Paul uses these words in the salutation of every letter of his in the New Testament. Grace saves believers and keeps them and supplies freely all they need for a life of holiness, usefulness and godliness. See note at John 1:14. We can never deserve God's grace. Grace means God's favor to those who are not worthy of it, who can never earn it. Peace here means the rest of heart, the peace of mind that Christ gives (Matt 11:28-30; John 14:27; 16:33). It is a result of being rightly related to God. Observe that the Lord Jesus is the source of grace and peace just as God the Father is. This is true because He shares God's nature. See references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

1:8,9 Paul often expressed his thankfulness to God for believers – 1 Cor 1:4; Phil 1:3; of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 asking that by some means at last by the will of God I might have a good opportunity to come to you. 11 For I long to see you that I may impart to you some spiritual gift so you can be strengthened; 12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you by our mutual faith. 13 Now I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that often I planned to come to you (but was hindered until now) so that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

Col 1:3; 1 Thess 2:13; 2 Tim 1:3. And he prayed earnestly and faithfully for them wherever they might be – Eph 1:16; 3:16; Phil 1:4,9; Col 1:3,9; 2:1; 1 Thess 1:2; 3:10; 5:23; 2 Tim 1:3. He felt the burden of all the churches (2 Cor 11:28,29), and he knew the importance of prayer and its power (compare Luke 18:1; Jam 5:16).

“With my spirit” – compare John 4:24. There is such a thing as trying to serve God merely in the flesh or only with the mind. 1:10 “Come to you” – 15:23,24; Acts 19:21. 1:11 “Spiritual gift” – 12:6-8; 1 Cor 12:4-11. 1:12 He was a great apostle but he did not proudly imagine that he could not be encouraged and edified by ordinary believers.

1:13 “Fruit” – Matt 9:37,38; John 4:35-38. For some good results of Paul’s work in other places see Acts 13:43; 14:21-23; 16:40; 17:4,12,34; 18:8; 19:17-20.

“Gentiles” – peoples other than Jews.

1:14 He considered himself a debtor to all kinds of men – he knew he owed them the opportunity to hear the gospel. See Acts 20:26,27. Christ had placed this responsibility on him (Acts 26:16-18; 1 Cor 9:16,17), as He did on all the disciples and on the whole Church (Matt 28:18-20; Mark 16:15).

“Other peoples” – literally “barbarians.” The Greeks considered themselves the most enlightened and cultured of all nations. They used the term “barbarians” to indicate other peoples in general whose native tongue was not Greek, and not simply the most barbaric. So “other peoples” here gives the correct meaning of the Greek.

1:15 He not only felt keenly his responsibility to all men, he was eager to fulfill it. No sufferings, no troubles, no threats of death could deter him (Acts 20:24; 21:13).

1:16 The reason for his eagerness to preach the gospel appears here. He was not ashamed of it as if it were a weak and useless thing. He knew it was the only way of salvation, the one power of God that was effective in forgiving and changing men and bringing them at last to heaven. In this letter more than in any other he wrote Paul shows what salvation means. It includes justification (3:24), peace with God (5:1), a new holy life (chapters 6-8), and glorification (being made eventually like the Lord Jesus – 8:29,30). The only power to accomplish

14 I am debtor both to Greeks and to other peoples, both to the wise and to the unwise. 15 So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are at Rome also. 16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, first to the Jew, and also to the Greek. 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith. As it is written,

“The righteous will live by faith.”

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven all this is the gospel of Christ (see also Acts 4:12).

Paul insists here as he always did (and as the other apostles and the Lord Jesus Himself always did), that salvation is by faith – 3:22,25,28; 4:5; 5:1; 10:9,10; Gal 2:16; Eph 2:8,9; John 1:12; 3:16,36.

“First to the Jew” – Matt 10:5,6; 15:24; Luke 24:47; Acts 1:8; 3:26; 13:46.

1:17 “Righteousness” is a key word in Romans, used 39 times. Here Paul means that in the gospel God reveals how people can become righteous in His sight, how He counts them righteous, makes them right with Himself. It is altogether by faith. See 3:28; 4:3-5; etc.

When Paul says salvation is through faith he is not excluding repentance. Repentance is a part of true faith in Christ (see 2:4,5; Matt 3:2; Mark 1:15; Luke 13:3-5; Acts 17:30). True faith is impossible without repentance. And so God’s goodness leads men to repentance (2:4) and so to faith. Repentance precedes faith, but is so closely bound up with it that it might be called the first step of faith. It is part of the “obedience of faith” (1:5). Can we imagine that faith is worthy of the name if it lacks this first step?

“Revealed” – apart from God’s revelation men could not know the truth about this righteousness.

“As it is written” – Paul is showing that his teaching about righteousness and faith is in harmony with the Old Testament. The verse he refers to is Habakkuk 2:4. That verse is quoted three times in the New Testament – here, Gal 3:11 and Heb 10:38.

1:18 “Wrath” – here is another revelation from God. See notes on God’s anger at Num 25:3; Deut 4:25; Ps 90:7-11; Matt 3:7; John 3:36; Eph 5:6.

“Revealed from heaven” – men did not invent this teaching. It is as much a revelation from God as His love (5:8). In fact, God’s anger comes because of His love. He loves mankind and therefore is angry with the evil which ruins people. He loves righteousness and so is angry with all that opposes righteousness.

“Suppress” – or “hold back”, “restrain”, “hinder” – this is what sinful people do, because they do not want the truth of God. They suppress any true view of God and of themselves which might lead them to God against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, 19 because what may be known about God is evident among them, for God has showed it to them. 20 For since the creation of the world his invisible attributes are clearly seen, that is, his eternal power and divine nature, being understood by the things that are made, so that they are without excuse.

21 Because, when they knew God, they did not glorify him as God, and were not thankful, but became futile in their reasonings, and their foolish heart was darkened. 22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools, 23 and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, and birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping animals.

24 Therefore God gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts to dishonour their bodies between themselves. 25 They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served created things rather than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this reason God gave them up to vile passions. Even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature. 27 Likewise also the men, leaving the natural and repentance. They prefer themselves and their false views to God and His truth, and love darkness rather than light. This is their great sin and their great danger (compare John 3:18-21; 2 Thess 2:10-12).

From this verse to 3:20 Paul emphasizes one very important subject – the universal sinfulness of people and their great need of Christ's gospel. All are sinners, all have suppressed the truth that interfered with their sinning, all deserve God's anger – 3:9,19,23. Compare Eph 2:3.

1:19,20 People do not sin altogether in ignorance. Creation reveals that there is a wonderful Being who has made it. Compare Ps 19:1-4; Isa 40:21-26; Acts 14:15-17. But people close their eyes to this truth (and even deny it – Ps 14:1), and sin deliberately. This is why they are without excuse. Even if God had given no other revelation, even if there were no Bible, even if Christ had not come, people would still be without excuse for their sin. By creation alone the fact of God and His power are "clearly seen", and people should seek the Creator and worship and serve Him (Acts 17:26,27). But they do not do this because they will not. They love their sins and after them they will go. They love their own ways and so refuse to consider the God who points them to higher, better, holier ways.

1:21-23 Paul here speaks of mankind's history and shows how idolatry came about. People in the beginning knew the one true God, the Creator of the universe. But they were not grateful for this greatest of privileges (v 28). And they did not fulfill the chief purpose of their creation – to bring glory and honor to God (Isa 43:7; 1 Cor 10:31; Rev 4:11). On thankfulness see Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; 1 Thess 5:18; etc.

Instead of being thankful for the knowledge of God they had, they began to speculate and to invent philosophies and religious systems. This all led to darkness of heart (Eph 4:18), arrogance and idolatry. Verses 23 and 25 show us what idolatry is. See also Ex 20:4-6; Ps 115:2-8; Isa 40:18-26; 44:12-20. (God's own nation Israel – the nation above all others which had the clearest revelation of God – was guilty of this just as every other nation in the world – see Jer 2:11,12.)

1:22 All man's talk of wisdom is empty and vain in God's eyes. See 1 Cor 1:18-25; 2:7,8. The so-called way of wisdom which some people think leads to salvation is altogether foolishness in the sight of the Creator of the universe.

1:23 Compare Jer 2:11-13; Hos 4:7,8.

1:24 Verses 26,28. One way in which God punished mankind for its sin was to give it up to further sin and to the judgment that comes upon all sin. Abandoning men to the sins which they insist on doing is one of the worst of punishments and a perfectly just one. Compare Deut 32:19-22; Jud 2:10-15.

1:25 The knowledge of the true God was a hindrance to their sinning. Therefore they rejected it and adopted lying thoughts and false teachings as their guide. Some of the worst of these is the lie that God is like the creation He had made, or like the idols men make, and the lie that to worship God's creation (sun, moon, stars, animals, etc), or to worship idols or the "gods" is the same as worshipping God. The true God will never accept such worship – Ex 20:3-6; 1 Kings 18:21; 2 Kings 17:14-18; Ps 78:56-59; Prov 1:29-31; Jer 2:11-13; Matt 4:10; Rev 9:20,21; 21:8.

1:26,27 Sodomy is a sin that God condemns everywhere in His Word. See Gen 19:4,5; Lev 18:22; 20:13; 1 Cor 6:9; 1 Tim 1:10; June 7. Here in Romans Paul says it came about because God punished mankind for its sin of rejecting Him by abandoning them to the basest lusts of their fallen hearts. In these days, in some parts of the world, such sinful behavior is being accepted as a legitimate lifestyle and there men live openly with other men and women with women in a sexual relationship. But man's view of things and God's view are very different. Sodomy and lesbianism are not acceptable to God, and He will punish these sins as He does all other sin (Rev 21:8) – unless the sinner repents, turns to Him in faith, forsaking the old sinful way of living. Of course, Paul does not mean that these practices are the worst of all sins, only that they reveal how deeply mankind has fallen from its original condition. They are representative of a great many sins that are hate-use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men committing shameful acts with other men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

28 And since they did not regard it as worthwhile to keep God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a depraved mind to do improper things.

29 They are filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, greed, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, depravity. They are slanderers, 30 backbiters, haters of God, insolent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful. 32 Knowing the judgment of God, that those who commit such things are worthy of death, they not only do them, but take pleasure in those who do them.

ful to God (such as the ones listed in verses 29-32 and other places in the Bible).

1:28 Observe carefully these terrible (but true) words. The knowledge of God is the greatest treasure God gave people, worth far more than the whole world (compare Ps 19:10; 119:72; Prov 2:1-5; Jer 9:23,24). Mankind has treated this treasure as if it were rubbish. And they have paid the penalty for it. God gave them up to the depravity which they chose and loved.

1:29-32 Now Paul speaks of the present condition of mankind. Let no one think this description of the sinfulness of people is exaggerated. Of course, not every single person is guilty of every sin listed here, but the seeds of every sin are in us all and people in general are as these words state. See 3:9-19; Gen 8:21; Ps 51:5; Jer 17:9; Matt 7:11; 15:19,20; Eph 2:1-3; 4:17-19. 1:30 "Haters of God" - in no way an exaggeration. See also 8:7; John 7:7; 15:18,24.

1:32 This is the greatest evidence of the depravity of people. Even when they still have some knowledge of right and wrong, and know that God has appointed death as the just punishment for sin (5:12; Gen 2:17; Ex 21:36; Heb 2:15), this does not keep them from sinning. They not only go on in their own sins but delight in the depravity of others. Are we better by nature than others who do this? No. See 3:9; Eph 2:3. Can the gospel do anything for such people? Yes, wonderful things. See v 16.

2:1 By judging others people show they still have some knowledge of right and wrong. And who does not do this? But if a thing is wrong in others it is wrong in ourselves, and by condemning them we condemn ourselves. 2:2 From here to verse 16 Paul sets forth seven principles of God's judgment -

It will be based on the actual state of things, not on what people think about it all (v 2).

It will be righteous judgment - based on principles of absolute justice (v 5).

It will be according to what men have

2 Therefore, you have no excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge, for in whatever you judge another you condemn yourself, for you who judge do the same things. 2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who commit such things. 3 And do you think, O man who judges those who do such things and does the same things, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you despise the riches of his goodness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?

5 But in accordance with your hardness and unrepentant heart you heap up for yourself wrath for the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God, 6 who will give to each person according to his deeds. 7 To those who by patient continuance in doing good seek for glory actually done (v 6).

It will be without favoritism - it will not matter whether a man is a Jew or a Gentile, white or dark, rich or poor (v 11).

It will be as revealed in the gospel Paul proclaimed (v 16).

It will deal also with the secret acts of men (v 16).

It will be through Jesus Christ (v 16).

2:3 In judging others people may think that they are better than those they judge, and that they are worthy to pass judgment on them. This idea is false and dangerous. All will have to stand before the just Judge of the world - Acts 17:31; 2 Cor 5:10; Rev 20:11,12.

2:4 How do men show contempt for God's kindness? By continuing in disobedience and sin, by refusing His gospel and His Son. Compare Matt 22:1-6; Luke 14:16-24; Heb 2:3. See here the purpose of God's kindness. Note on God's character at Ex 34:6,7.

"Repentance" - Matt 3:2,8; Luke 13:1-5.

2:5 "Wrath" - 1:18. See what people who refuse the gospel of Christ are doing. Every sin they do is adding to the amount of God's anger against them. That anger will be poured out on the day God has appointed. 2:6 Ps 62:12; Prov 24:12; Gal 6:7,8; Rev 22:12.

2:7 Paul is not teaching salvation by works. He never does. See 3:28; 4:5; Gal 2:16; Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:5. He is not setting forth the way of salvation here but a principle of God's judgment. God will judge what all men have actually done (or have not done). See Matt 25:31-46 (note at vs 35,36). Those whom God saves by His grace He changes by His power. They become new creations of God, the children of God (2 Cor 5:17; John 3:3-8). Because this is so, they do good and seek for the glory and honor and immortality God gives.

God will bring such people into the full experience of eternal life with Himself - a life which began when they first trusted Christ and honour and immortality he will give eternal life. 8 But to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but yield to unrighteousness, he will show anger and wrath. 9 Tribulation and anguish will come on every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; 10 but glory, honour, and peace to everyone who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile. 11 For there is no favoritism with God.

12 For all who have sinned without the Law will also perish without the Law, and all who have sinned under the Law will be judged by the Law. 13 (For not those who hear the Law are righteous in God's sight, but those who obey the Law will be declared righteous. 14 For when the Gentiles, who do not have the Law, do by nature the things contained in the Law, they are a law for themselves, though they do not have the Law. 15 They show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts sometimes accusing or else defending them.) 16 Thus it will be on the day when God judges the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

17 Look, you are called a Jew, and rely on the Law, and make your boast in God, 18 and know his

(John 3:36; 5:24). This is not a reward for doing good and seeking God. It is a result of the work God has done in them. Those who say they have believed in Christ but do not do what this verse says are self-deceived, and have not experienced God's salvation. See notes at Matt 5:1; 7:24-27; Jam 2:14-19,26.

2:8 "Self-seeking" - there are two and only two classes of people: those who follow the truth and seek what the true God alone can give (Matt 6:33), and those who refuse the truth and whose seeking is all selfishness - for what self desires, for family, for name, for money, for power, for popularity, etc. This second class of people will suffer God's anger - v 18; John 3:36; Eph 5:6; 2 Thess 1:5-10.

2:9,10 This is true "first for the Jew" because the Jews first had God's Word and Christ's gospel - 1:16.

2:11 God will not spare a person because he is a Jew or a Christian and says he is one of God's people. In fact, such a person has had more opportunity to know the truth, and his judgment will be worse if he does not obey it.

2:12 By the "law" he means the law God gave through Moses. See Exodus chapter 20. Why should people perish if they did not have God's revelation in the law? Because they are willful sinners, and they have God's revelation in nature, and reject the light God gave them - 1:18-20,28.

2:13 It is not enough for a person to hear what God's law says - he must live according to it completely, if he is to be counted righteous by his works. And except the Lord will, and approve the things that are superior because you are instructed out of the Law. 19 And you are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, 20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, who have the form of knowledge and of the truth in the Law. 21 You, therefore, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that a man should not steal, do you steal? 22 You who say that a man should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? 23 You who make your boast in the Law, through breaking the Law do you dishonour God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision indeed has its value, if you keep the Law. But if you are a breaker of the Law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. 26 Therefore if one who is uncircumcised follows the righteousness of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? 27 And will not one who is uncircumcised by nature, if he fulfils the Law, judge you who with the written Law and circumcision transgress the Law?

28 For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly,

Jesus no person has ever done so - 3:9,19,23; Jam 2:10; Ex 19:21-25.

2:14,15 Even those who never heard of God's law given by Moses have knowledge of right and wrong. It is something God has placed in their inner being.

"Conscience" - note at Acts 23:1.

2:16 Acts 17:31.

2:17 The religious and self-righteous Jew was a prime example of those who judged others - v 1; Luke 18:9-12. They thought they could be saved by keeping the law of Moses (John 5:39,45), and boasted they alone were the people of God - John 8:41.

2:18-23 Because they had God's law the Jews thought they were the ones to teach others the truth. However, while teaching others they neglected to teach themselves and broke the very law they taught. The same can be said of many Christians today who have the teachings of the Lord Jesus and give them to others but do not obey them themselves. Observe that all sin ("breaking the law") dishonors God. Compare Ps 51:4.

2:24 Paul proves his accusation by referring to the Old Testament which reveals the failure of the Jews - Isa 52:5; Ezek 36:22. Far better not to profess to know God (or Christ) than to call oneself one of His people and bring dishonor on His name by living an evil life.

2:25-29 Circumcision was the seal of God's covenant with the Jews. See note at Gen 17:9-14. Many Jews thought they were God's people merely because of this physical mark, even if they disobeyed the law. Paul is saying that keeping the law, and the inward nor is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; 29 but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, and not by the written Law; his praise is not from men, but from God.

3 What advantage, then, has the Jew? Or what value is there in circumcision? 2 Much every way. Chiefly, because to them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief make God's faithfulness without effect? 4 Absolutely not! For let God be true, but every man a liar. As it is written,

"That you might be justified in your words, and might overcome when you are judged."

5 But if our unrighteousness proves the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust in bringing wrath on men (I speak as a man)? 6 Absolutely not! For then how would God judge the world? 7 For if through my lie the truth of God is enhanced for his glory, why am I still judged as a sinner? 8 And why not rather say (as we are being slanderously reported as saying, and as some affirm that we say) "Let us do evil that good may come"? Their condemnation is just.

9 What then? Are we better than they? No, not at all. For we have previously made the accusation that both Jews and Gentiles are all under sin. 10 As it is written,

- There is none righteous, no, not one.
 11 There is none who understands,
 there is none who seeks for God.
 12 They have all turned out of the way.
 They are together become worthless.
 There is none who does good, no, not one.
 13 Their throat is an open grave.
 With their tongues they have practiced deceit.
 The poison of vipers is under their lips.
 14 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.
 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood.
 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways,
 17 and the way of peace they have not known.
 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

state of a person, are far more important than an outward mark on the body. Compare Matt 3:9; 23:25-28; John 8:33-41. Paul's words about circumcision can apply equally well to baptism or any other ceremony that men perform on others.

2:29 "Circumcision is of the heart" – Jer 4:4. Also a person is a true Christian only if he is one inwardly, and baptism is only a sign of the work of God's Spirit in the heart – Matt 3:6; Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38. Without this inner change it has no value at all. And those who are God's people inwardly will want God's approval, not man's. Compare John 5:44; 12:43.

3:1 This question arises because Paul has said that the Jew is no better than other people, that he is not saved by his religion and ceremonies, and that God condemns him for his sin just as He does sinners who are not Jews. What use then was there in God separating the Jews from all other people and giving them special laws and ceremonies?

3:2 See also 9:4,5. More than any other people in those times the Jews had wonderful opportunities to hear God's truth and to believe and serve the one true God. That was the greatest value in being a Jew.

3:3 It was not God's fault if the Jews did not seize the opportunities they had and remained disobedient and unbelieving. He remained faithful (2 Tim 2:13). And He will yet fulfill all His promises to Israel as a nation (chapter 11).

3:4 Ps 51:4.

3:5-7 Some of them even dared to say that their unbelief and evil ways made God's faithfulness and righteousness appear more glorious. So, they seemed to say, they were doing God a favor and He should not condemn them!

3:8 Some even slandered Paul by saying the above idea was a part of his teaching! But they were only trying to lessen their guilt and escape Paul's words about judgment. Paul says God is perfectly just in sending such people to hell.

3:9 Paul means this: Are Jews with all their advantages and opportunities and God-given laws and ceremonies any better than those peoples who did not have them? The answer is obvious – no. Now we might ask, "are we Christians by nature better than others?" and the answer is the same – absolutely not. All are sinners – Jews and Gentiles, whatever religion or nation or caste they may belong to. Rich and poor, educated and uneducated, the wise and the foolish, those who practice their religion and those who do not, all, all have sinned.

There are, alas, many people who consider themselves better than others (see Isa 65:5; Luke 18:9), and in their hearts would give the answer "yes" to Paul's question. Such people have not yet received the enlightenment God gives about what they are and what they need.

3:10-18 Now Paul proves that his teaching is in harmony with God's revelation in the Old Testament. See how he begins – "It is written". This is what should concern us more than anything else – what does God say in the Bible? – 4:3.

3:10-12 See Ps 14:1-3; 53:1-3; Eccl 7:20.

3:13 Ps 5:9; 140:3.

3:14 Ps 10:7.

3:15-17 Isa 59:7,8.

3:18 Ps 36:1. "Fear of God" – see notes at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14;

19 Now we know that whatever the Law says, it says to those who are under the Law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. 20 Therefore by the deeds of the Law no flesh will be justified in his sight, for by the Law is the knowledge of sin.

86:11; 111:10; Prov 1:7; 1 Pet 1:17; 2:17; Rev 15:4; 19:5. This is one of the root causes of all the other evil behavior listed above. Without the fear of God men will not depart from evil. Paul is not saying that every person practices every sin in this list, only that mankind in general does so, and that every individual has a sinful nature and lacks the one thing needed more than anything else – righteousness.

3:19 "Law" here means the whole Old Testament from which he has quoted the above verses, particularly the law God revealed to Moses at Mount Sinai. Those "under the law" were the Jews. Now Paul has done what he set out to do at 1:18 – he has shown that every person in the world is a sinner, guilty before God, and needs the gospel of Christ. Creation (1:18-20), man's history (1:21-28), mankind's present condition (1:29-32), conscience (2:15), and the truth God gave in the Old Testament (3:10-18) all declare that every person on earth is a sinner. All are utterly guilty, responsible for their sins, and deserve God's anger. And no one should try to make any excuse before God, or think that he is better than other people.

Happy are those who know this, who lay their hands on their mouth and stand before God without defense, without trying to hide anything – such people are near salvation. God has some wonderful things to say to them. The parable Jesus told in Luke 18:9-14 is a small commentary on the truth Paul presents here. Those who think they are better than others need to understand what they are in God's sight. Those who understand what they are can move ahead into the blessed truths of salvation. 3:20 "Law" here means the whole system of commandments and ceremonies God gave to Israel through Moses. No one can be saved by trying to keep this law because no one can fully keep it. People with a sinful nature cannot really practice holy principles. And to break one is to be guilty of breaking the whole law (Jam 2:10).

"Justified" – this means declared innocent, counted as righteous. This is a very important teaching of Romans. Indeed it is at the very heart of Christ's gospel. In the next few verses Paul explains what it means. 3:21-26 "But" (v 21) – compare Eph 2:4; Titus 3:4. This word indicates a great turning point. Having shown the failure and sin of all people, Paul now shows the way of escape from the punishment they deserve. What men need is righteousness, and here is God's revelation of the way to obtain it.

Righteousness in this letter means the sum total of all that men need to stand in peace before the holy and righteous God of 21 But now the righteousness of God apart from Law is revealed, being testified to by the Law and the Prophets, 22 even the righteousness of God, which is through faith in Jesus Christ, to all and on all those who believe. For there is no difference: 23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory the universe. It is the kind of righteousness which has no flaw whatever in it, which God Himself approves and accepts. It is the kind of righteousness which the Lord Jesus manifested on earth and which caused God to say the words of Matt 3:17. Paul here reveals the following facts about this righteousness.

It is a righteousness which no human being has by nature (v 23).

It is a righteousness which comes from God (v 21) – so, of course, it will be flawless and perfect.

It is "apart from law" (v 21) – that is, trying to keep God's commands in His law is not the way it is obtained. This is the way that many try to obtain it (see 10:1-5), but this is not merely difficult, it is impossible.

It is a righteousness which the law and the prophets (the Old Testament) speak about (v 21) – it is not some strange, new thing (Gen 15:6; Hab 2:4).

It is a gift of God's grace to undeserving sinners – God freely gives this righteousness to anyone who will receive it (vs 22,24).

It is obtained by faith alone (vs 22,25; 1:16,17) – therefore we should not try to earn it by our own works but instead turn to God and trust Him for it.

Actually this righteousness is Christ Himself the perfectly righteous One (1 Cor 1:29; 2 Cor 5:21; Jer 23:6). Those who have Christ have this righteousness which comes from God, and those who do not have Christ do not have it. And we can receive Christ only by faith (John 1:12; 3:16,36). Righteousness in the Bible is sometimes compared to a clean garment which God gives people. See Isa 61:10; Zech 3:3-5; Matt 22:11,12. Isa 64:6 reveals how greatly we need it. When we trust in Christ God clothes us with Christ's own flawless righteousness.

This way of counting people righteous is based on the death of the Lord Jesus (vs 24,25). God, the righteous Judge, cannot count sinners righteous unless their sins are taken away. God's own law condemns us and demands punishment, and God cannot act contrary to His law. How then can He forgive us, allow us to escape punishment, and count us righteous people? He can do so because the Lord Jesus has taken our place and suffered the punishment we deserve. He was a blood sacrifice for the sins of the whole world (v 25; John 1:29; Matt 26:27,28; 1 John 2:2; Isa 53:5,6,10). He turned away God's anger from those who trust Him by taking away their sins (v 25). Having the righteousness of Christ by faith is the one and only way to get to heaven and live in God's presence in joy and peace forever.

3:23 God has done such marvelous and costly of God, 24 and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. 25 Him God has set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance God passed over the sins done in the past. 26 To demonstrate, I say, at this time his righteousness, so that he might be just, and the justifier of him who believes in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith. 28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith apart from the deeds of the Law. 29 Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, 30 since things to provide righteousness for all people because all are in great need of it. Some may be worse sinners than others, but all are sinners, all fall short of God's requirements, and so God says there is "no difference" (vs 9, 22). One person may be in a pit, another on top of a hill, but neither can reach up and touch the stars.

3:24 "Are justified" – this means that justification is available to all who have sinned, not that all who have sinned are justified.

"Redemption" – Matt 20:28; Eph 1:7; 1 Pet 1:18,19; Ps 78:35; etc.

3:25,26 These are key verses in Romans and, indeed, in the whole Bible. Before Christ came and took away sin by the sacrifice of Himself, God forgave those who repented and trusted in Him. He did not condemn them to hell, because He knew what He would later do through Christ. But at the time it did not seem that He, the righteous Judge of the universe, was just and righteous in forgiving people instead of punishing them – His law condemned them, yet He let them escape. Now by sending His own Son to be a sacrifice for sin He has fully demonstrated His justice.

But was it just and righteous to cause Christ to suffer the punishment others deserved? Yes, because Christ is God (1:4; 9:5; John 1:1,14; Phil 2:6), and He suffered and died voluntarily (John 10:17,18). In Christ God Himself was taking people's sins on Himself and suffering for them. See the note at Heb 10:4.

"Propitiation" (v 25) – here this means a sacrifice that turns away God's anger, by taking away sin. Sin is what brings God's anger (1:18). When sin is taken away by the sacrifice of Christ, God's anger is propitiated, turned away, and He can justly forgive any sinner who turns to Him in faith.

3:27 Eph 2:8-10. If people could achieve salvation by works, heaven would be filled with boasters singing their own praises (compare 2:17; Luke 18:11,12). But as it is they who are there will praise God alone (1 Cor 1:29-31; Eph 1:6,12; Rev 7:9,10).

3:28 See 1:16,17; 5:1; 10:10; Gal 2:16; 3:24; 5:4.

3:29,30 There is only one true God, so the

it is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. 31 Do we then, through faith, put an end to the Law? Absolutely not! Rather, we uphold the Law.

4 What then shall we say that Abraham our father has found, as pertaining to the flesh? 2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about; but not in the presence of God. 3 For what does the Scripture say?

Abraham believed God, and it was put to his account as righteousness.

4 Now to him who works his wage is not reckoned as grace, but as something owed. 5 But to him who does not work but believes in him who Jews should not expect that He will save them in one way and Gentiles in some other way. God has only one way of saving anyone and that way is through faith in Christ.

"Absolutely not" – the KJV has "God forbid", but here in the Greek there is no word for either "God" or "forbid", but simply a strong negative, which means literally "may it not be."

3:31 Compare Matt 5:17,18. To say that keeping the law cannot save anyone from their sins is not to do away with the law. It is to put the law in its rightful place as that which reveals sin and condemns it.

4:1 "We" – Paul speaks as one who was a Jew by birth, descended from Abraham as all Jews were (Genesis chapters 12 to 25). The Jews were proud of this relationship and many thought they were children of God merely because they were physically descended from Abraham (Matt 3:9; John 8:33,39). And many of them thought that salvation depended on keeping the commands and ceremonies of the law, and opposed Paul wherever he went (Acts 9:23; 13:45; 14:5,19; 15:1; 17:5; 21:11; 2 Cor 11:24; 1 Thess 2:14-16).

Why does Paul bring up the matter of Abraham here? To prove that his teaching about justification by faith was in agreement with what the Old Testament says about Abraham the father of the nation.

4:2 See 3:27.

4:3 Gen 15:6. See note there. By this one reference Paul proves his point. "What does the Scripture [the Bible] say?" is the important question when we want the truth.

4:4 If God saved men because of their religious works, this would mean they earned salvation, and they would be able to boast.

4:5 "Does not work" means does not work to earn salvation. The only way to obtain salvation and the righteousness God gives, is to take them as a gift from God's hand by faith (3:21-28; 6:23; 11:6). Of course this is the exact opposite of what men think by nature. People like to think they are righteous because of what they do and that they can earn salvation by what they call works of merit. For salvation people say we must "work." God says do "not work" for it.

justifies the ungodly, that faith is put to his account as righteousness. 6 Even as David also describes the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

7 Blessed are those whose transgressions are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will not count against him.

9 Does this blessedness come only on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was put to Abraham's account as righteousness. 10 How was it put to his account? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised. 11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith he had while he was still Observe who it is that God justifies – “the wicked.” There is no one who is not wicked in God’s eyes – 3:9-19; Matt 7:11. But none is so bad but what God will save and count him righteous, if he will repent and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Think of Paul himself (Acts 8:3; 9:1-5), and the thief on the cross (Luke 23:39-43). See also Isa 55:7; 1 Cor 6:9-11.

4:6-8 David, Israel’s greatest king, agreed with what was said about Abraham. See Ps 32:1,2. God forgives people because He is gracious, and He wants to give them that gift, not because they are good and have earned it (Ps 86:5; Micah 7:18,19; Matt 9:5-7; 12:31; Acts 13:38; Eph 1:7; etc).

See here what justification means – from then on God will not count the sins of the justified against them (8:33,34). This is because even their future sins have been taken away by the sacrifice of Christ on the cross, and they are united to Him forever. They have Christ’s perfect righteousness imputed to them, so that theirs and His is exactly the same righteousness. There is no blot or stain on His righteousness and there never can be. So there can be no blot or stain on the righteousness they have in Him, not now, not ever. As long as the Head (Eph 1:22,23) remains righteous, so will His body, made up of all true believers.

Notice the words “will not count against him.” The Greek translated “not” could also be translated “never.” This is the wonderful position believers are in before God. For there them can be no condemnation to eternal death (the wages of sin) and hell. (Of course, as their Father He will deal with them when they do wrong and chastise and discipline them – Heb 12:5:11.) But if God does not count the believer’s sins against him, will this not encourage him to sin? No. It encourages him to love God and to live for God. See notes on chapter 6 where Paul takes up this subject and shows some of the results of God’s grace shown to believing sinners.

4:9 “Circumcised” – he means the Jews, the physical descendants of Abraham.

“Uncircumcised” – the Gentiles – people uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all those who believe, even though they are not circumcised, that righteousness might be put to their account also; 12 and the father of the circumcised, that is, of those who are not only the circumcised, but who also walk in the footsteps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had when he was still uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he would be the heir of the world, did not come to Abraham, or to his offspring, through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if those who are of the Law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of no effect, 15 because the Law produces wrath. For where there is no Law, there is no transgression.

other than Jews.

4:10-12 Here was a good Scriptural blow at Jewish pride. God counted Abraham righteous before he was circumcised – that is, while he was still a Gentile! God justified Abraham in Genesis chapter 15. But Abraham received circumcision in chapter 17, some time after he was justified. God arranged things in this way to show that the ceremony of circumcision had nothing to do with Abraham’s salvation. Abraham was justified by faith alone, and all who follow Abraham, whether Jew or Gentile, must be justified in the same way.

He is the “father” of all who trust in the one true God. This means that in him God first showed how He gives righteousness to people. Circumcision was only a sign and seal of something Abraham already had. (The same may be said for baptism today. It is only a sign and is worthless to anyone who does not have the righteousness and salvation God gives through faith.)

4:13-15 Paul shows further that God counted Abraham righteous apart from the law He gave through Moses (and which the Jews taught people had to keep to be saved). God did not give the law until hundreds of years after He justified Abraham (Gal 3:16-18).

4:13 God promised Abraham the land of Canaan (Gen 15:7,18). This was because Abraham believed God. The promise was given long before God gave the law. He promised also that all the world would be blessed through Abraham – Gen 12:1-3. This blessing was to come through a descendant of Abraham called the Messiah (Christ. See psalm 2; 72:5-11; Matt 1:1). The Messiah (and with Him all who believe in Him) is the heir of the whole world (8:17; Heb 1:2).

4:14 If people can become God’s heirs by keeping God’s law, then faith in God’s promises and the promises themselves are completely unnecessary. And so this whole idea of salvation by works is absurd.

4:15 Those who try to be righteous by keeping God’s law bring more of God’s anger on themselves. Because instead of 16 Therefore, it is by faith that it might be by grace, so that the promise would be certain to all of Abraham's offspring, not only to those who are of the Law but to those also who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all 17 (as it is written, I have made you a father of many nations), in the sight of him whom he believed, that is, God, who makes the dead alive, and calls things which are not as though they were.

18 Abraham, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, in accordance with what was said to him, "So shall your offspring be." 19 And he was not weak in faith; he did not consider his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, nor keeping the law they break it, and this transgression of the law adds to their guilt (compare 5:20; 7:7-11; Gal 3:10). If it was necessary to keep the law of Moses to be saved, then no one would ever be saved. The Jews did not keep the law, and the Gentiles did not even have it.

4:16 Since the promise of salvation (and the inheritance that goes with it) has nothing to do with trying to keep God's law, but only requires faith, it is for all peoples, Jews and Gentiles alike. Observe in this verse the reason why God has appointed faith as the way of salvation - He had determined to give salvation as a gift and not as a payment for work.

4:17 Gen 17:5. Abraham is the spiritual "father" of all who believe (v 11). In the last part of this verse Paul begins to show the nature of Abraham's faith. His faith was in the all-powerful and all-knowing Creator of the universe - the God who can do anything and who can reveal in advance what He will do.

"Brings the dead to life" - see Heb 11:19,35.

4:18-21 What was Abraham's faith like? He believed God when, humanly speaking, there was no hope of the fulfillment of God's promise (v 18; Gen 15:4,5). He believed God even though God had promised what seemed an impossible thing (v 19). Abraham's age was nearly a hundred years and Sarah's was about ninety when God said she would bear Abraham a son - Gen 17:1,15,16. He believed God and not his own ability. He believed God simply because God had made the promise, and he was sure that God could do and would do what He said. God gave Abraham no proof, no evidence that He would do what He said, just His bare word. And Abraham believed it (vs 20,21) because He really believed in God and that God was a God of truth. This was the nature of Abraham's faith and of all true faith.

4:22 Verse 3.

4:23,24 To obtain salvation and become an heir of the world (v 13), our faith must be like Abraham's. It is not enough to believe in just any God or god that people yet the deadness of Sarah's womb. 20 He did not stagger at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God, 21 and was fully persuaded that what he had promised he was able also to perform. 22 And therefore it was put to his account as righteousness. 23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was put to his account, 24 but also for us, to whose account it shall be put, if we believe in him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead. 25 He was delivered up for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification.

5 Therefore having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus think exists. We must believe in the God who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead (v 24; 10:9), for He is the only God there is. And it is not enough to believe there is this one God and that He is powerful (see Jam 2:19). We must believe His promises to us, we must put our trust in Him and His Word (Heb 11:6. Consider some of the promises He has given through His Son - John 3:16; 4:14; 5:24; 6:37; 7:38; 11:25,26; Rev 3:20; Matt 11:28). When we believe Him He counts us righteous, just as He did Abraham.

4:25 The salvation of believers rests on this one foundation - the death and resurrection of Christ (1 Cor 15:1-4). Christ was in the place of sinners, dying the death they deserved to die because of their sins. His resurrection is proof that God accepted Christ's sacrifice, that our sins are gone, forgiven, blotted out forever. We believers can see and should see that we are made right with God, counted righteous and free of sin, because Christ has risen from the dead. He is our justification before God - 1 Cor 1:30,31.

5:1-21 Paul has shown that all are sinners and that the way of salvation is through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. In this chapter he tells us further things about those whom God has counted righteous. His theme is the certainty of salvation for believers. They have all entered into a new state, and Paul says the following things of them.

They have peace with God (v 1)

They have continual access into God's presence (v 2)

They have hope (v 2)

They have an ability to rejoice in sufferings (v 3)

They can know that sufferings increase hope (v 4)

They have the gift of the Holy Spirit (v 5)

They have a knowledge of God's love (vs 5-8)

They have absolute security (vs 9,10)

They have joy in God (v 11)

They have eternal life in a new relationship with God (vs 12-21), having entered into the realm of unconquerable grace.

5:1 Because God counts believers righteous

Christ, 2 by whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only so, but we rejoice in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation produces patient endurance; 4 and patient endurance, approved character; and approved character, hope; 5 and hope brings no disappointment, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who is given to us.

6 For when we were still without strength, in they are in a state of peace with Him. Compare Col 1:20; Eph 2:14-17; 2 Cor 5:18-21; Isa 32:17; 53:5. Peace here means reconciliation between God and those who believe in the Lord Jesus.

5:2 "Access" - believers can come into God's presence at any time (Eph 2:18; 3:12; Heb 10:19-22). Notice carefully that this access into God's presence is through the Lord Jesus (see also 1 Tim 2:5; John 14:6,13,14).

"Grace" - 1:7; 4:16; John 1:14,16; 2 Cor 8:9; Heb 4:16; Matt 7:9-11.

"Hope" - because God has counted believers righteous by faith they can rejoice in the confidence that they will eventually live in glory with Him forever (John 17:24; 1 Thess 2:12; Rev 21:2-4; 22:3-5).

"Glory" here points to the final salvation of believers (8:17-22,30). On the word "hope" see the note at 8:24,25.

5:3,4 The question arises: Will sufferings and troubles be able to take away the peace believers have with God and destroy their hope of heaven? Paul very emphatically says, "no." Suffering actually increases the hope of believers. So they can rejoice knowing that troubles are doing them good. The gradual process of transforming suffering into hope is something believers learn by experience. It comes step by step in the life of faith.

Suffering produces patient endurance and perseverance. Believers learn that God enables them to endure troubles and tribulations, that they can face sufferings and not draw back into unbelief (Heb 10:35-39). They learn that God is with them through the worst that can happen and keeps them in the faith (8:35-37; John 10:27,28; 1 Pet 1:5-7).

Perseverance produces character. Enduring trials and troubles makes believers better, stronger people, more able to face such things in the future. And by this process the hope they had when they first believed increases and becomes even stronger.

"Patient endurance" - this is one word in Greek, with both of these meanings.

5:5-11 These verses show that the hope of believers is based on God's love. And this is a very strong foundation indeed. The theme is the certainty of final salvation. Paul's argument is this: God revealed His great love to us when we were His enemies. Now that we have become His friends will that same love not keep us to the end?

due time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely will someone die for a righteous man, though perhaps for a good man some might even dare to die. 8 But God demonstrates His love toward us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, now having been justified by His blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through Him. 10 For if when we were His enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we will be saved

Compare 8:35-39.

5:5 God has not given believers hope of final salvation so that He can disappoint them at last. Believers can know that God will give them what He has caused them to hope for. This confidence is rooted in the knowledge of God's love which the Holy Spirit pours into their hearts.

"Poured" suggests a great abundance. This knowledge of God's love causes believers to love Him (1 John 4:9,10,19). And the Holy Spirit imparts God's love to believers and enables them to love God and one another. And God gives the Holy Spirit to those whom He counts righteous (Gal 3:1-3,14).

5:6-8 See the words Paul uses here to describe us before we became believers - "without strength", "ungodly", and "sinners." He adds one more in v 10 - "enemies." In other words, by nature we were bad (3:23; Gen 8:21; Jer 17:9; Matt 7:11). We did not have the one true God and did not really want Him, because we preferred our sin to Him. Because of this we were His enemies, for all sin is against Him (Ps 51:5). To be on the side of that which is opposed to God is to be His enemy (compare Jam 4:4). And we were powerless to make ourselves good, stop sinning, and become God's friends. These things were not merely difficult for us, but totally impossible.

We see from this the impossibility of the popular ways of salvation men sometimes teach - the way of jnana or karma or bhakti (knowledge and wisdom, the practice of one's religion and good deeds or worship). But what we could not do God did. Christ came and died in our place and took away our sin. Then, when we believed, He counted us righteous because of Christ's shed blood (v 9). He made us His friends (v 10). He changed our whole experience and outlook (vs 1-4). He made us new people with His own Spirit in us (v 5).

5:9,10 These words are based on the demonstration of God's love at the cross of Christ and teach us this: Christ died for believers when they were unbelieving and His enemies, and counted them righteous when they believed and made them His friends. This is very certain, but it is even more certain that He will keep them saved and finish the work He began when He died for them.

"God's wrath" refers to the holy anger of God that will come on all who remain in their sins (2:5,8; Eph 5:5,6; Col 3:6; Rev by his life. 11 And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin, and so death came on all men, because all sinned – 13 for until the Law sin was in the world, but sin is not put into the account when there is no Law. 14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a type of him who was to come.

6:16,17). The Lord Jesus will save believers from it (1 Thess 1:10; 5:9). They will be saved "by his life" (v 10. See John 11:25; 14:19). Believers are united to His life (John 17:21,23; Col 3:3,4). And He ever lives to make intercession for them (8:34; Heb 7:25). If they sin, He stands to defend them (1 John 2:1). And so they will be safe to the end.

But the question comes, "What if their faith fails? Will they not then be lost in spite of what Christ has done for them and is doing for them?" The answer is that God who gave them faith will keep them believing. See Luke 22:31,32; Phil 1:6,29; Heb 10:39. Is it reasonable or Scriptural to think that God, who does everything else to guard and keep believers, will fail in this most vital point?

5:11 All this is a cause of rejoicing to those who understand it. This brings us back to v 2.

"Reconciliation" – see 2 Cor 5:18.

5:12-21 Here is a contrast between Adam, the forefather and the representative of the human race, and Christ, the head and representative of those whom God has counted righteous. Through Adam sin and death came to the human race. Through Christ righteousness and life have come. Paul's purpose here is to show that life through Christ is even more certain than death through Adam, and to reveal more of the greatness of what God has done in Christ to overcome the effects of Adam's fall into sin and death.

5:12 All human beings are sinners because the one man Adam sinned and became a sinner – Gen 2:17; 3:1-19. He produced children in his likeness (Gen 4:1) and they in their likeness, and so sinfulness like a dread disease was passed on from generation to generation (Gen 8:21; Ps 51:5; 58:3; Jer 17:9). And this disease of sin inevitably brings death – 6:23. All men became sinners because of Adam. Not only so, we may even say that all men sinned in Adam, for the whole of mankind was in him when he sinned (compare Heb 7:9,10). What he did they all did in him. He was at the time the whole of mankind, being the only man on earth.

5:13,14 "Law" as used here means the commandments God gave through Moses. Paul's

15 But the free gift is not like the offense. For if through the offense of one man many have died, much more the grace of God and the gift by grace, through one man, Jesus Christ, has overflowed to many. 16 And the gift is not like the result of the one who sinned. For the judgment came through one man bringing condemnation, but the free gift which followed many offenses was for justification. 17 For if through one man's offense death reigned through that one, much more will those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life meaning seems to be this: people sinned before God gave the law, but they did not break any specific commands as Adam did (Gen 2:17). They died, but their death was not because of their own sin. Even babies, who committed no sin themselves, died. Why this reign of death from Adam to Moses? Because of Adam's sin. Adam is called "a type of him who was to come." This one is Christ (Christ is called "the last Adam" in 1 Cor 15:45).

How was Adam a type or pattern of Christ? Not in his sin, for Christ never sinned at all (2 Cor 5:21; Heb 4:15; 7:26; 1 Pet 2:22). Here Adam was a type or pattern or picture in only one matter – just as his act of disobedience affected many many millions of people, so Christ's act of obedience affected many many millions; those in Adam all die because of him (v 15), but those "in" Christ all live because of Him (vs 18,19).

5:15 "Gift" – v 17; 6:23; Eph 2:8,9.

"Many" – here means all the descendants of Adam. They all die because of Adam's sin in the garden of Eden. That is certain. But even more certainly God's grace flows to all of mankind because of what Christ has done. This does not mean that all are saved, only that God's grace is offered to all and all will be saved if they believe in Christ.

5:16 The "judgment" was God's judgment which said "you will surely die" (Gen 2:17), and this condemnation came on all men because of the one sin of their forefather Adam. God's gift, on the other hand, provides the way of escape, not merely from the one sin of Adam, but from the vast number of sins committed throughout history. Adam's sin brought condemnation to people, but God's grace takes away condemnation and makes them righteous when they believe (3:22-24).

5:17 "Death reigned" – vs 14,21. All men were subject to death. This cruel master took all away. Compare Heb 2:15. But God has provided through Christ a way of escape from death. And those who are in this way "reign in life." Instead of being subjects of king death they receive eternal life and become kings themselves in Christ (John 5:24; 11:25,26; Eph 2:6; Rev 3:21; 22:5). In Him the conquered become the conquerors (compare 8:37).

through one, Jesus Christ.

18 Therefore, just as through the offense of one man judgment came to all men, resulting in condemnation, so also through the righteous act of one the free gift which results in justification of life came to all men. 19 For just as through one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one many will be made righteous.

20 Moreover the Law came in so that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace abounded much more abundantly, 21 so

5:18 "Condemnation" - v 16.

"The righteous act of one" - here this seems to mean Christ's righteous consecration of Himself to be the sacrifice for sinners.

"All men" - God has made eternal life available to all people, but only those who receive Christ receive life (1 John 5:11,12; John 3:36; 7:37,38). Observe the close connection between justification and eternal life. We cannot have the one without the other.

5:19 "Disobedience" - Gen 3:6.

"Obedience" - Phil 2:8. The contrast in vs 12-19 is very plain. Adam and Christ are the two sources or channels of what people receive. Adam is the source of sin, death, and condemnation; Christ is the source of righteousness, life, and grace which takes away condemnation and makes believers acceptable to God.

5:20 "Law" - vs 13,14. Because there are commands to break trespasses increase. When there are no commands there can be no breaking of commands (4:15). Paul in 7:7-12 shows how God's commandments actually increase sin. God's purpose in giving the law was not that He wanted sin to flourish (sin flourished without it - Gen 6:5,11; 8:21), but that men would see their need of grace, and that His grace might appear in all its glory and power.

5:21 "Sin reigned in death" - vs 14,17. Death reigned only because of sin. Sin is a great tyrant that always pays death to those who serve it (6:23; John 8:34). God's grace is more powerful than sin and death. It destroys sin, makes men righteous and leads them into eternal life (6:23; Titus 3:3-7).

Through the Lord Jesus Christ grace reigns (Heb 4:16)! It forgives all the sins of those who trust Him, frees them from the tyranny of sin and death and completely removes their condemnation (6:14; 8:1). Here are two masters - sin that came through Adam (v 12), and grace that came through Christ (v 17; John 1:16,17). We must all choose which master we will serve.

6:1 Paul has said that where sin increased grace increased even more (5:20). Some sinful persons, not understanding Paul's teaching, might ask the question of this verse and say, "It seems that sinning produces a very good result - it actually that as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin so that grace may abound? 2 Absolutely not! How shall we who died to sin, live any longer in it? 3 Do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we are buried with him through baptism into death so that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so causes God's grace to increase. So let's sin as much as we like and expect grace to forgive it all."

In this chapter Paul shows how ignorant, how absurd such a question and suggestion are to a believer who understands Christ's gospel. He twice uses the phrase "Do you not know?" (vs 3,16), and the words know and knowing twice more (vs 6,9). Paul well knew that God counts believers righteous so that they might live holy lives. Or in his words "so we also might walk in newness of life" (v 4). He continues this theme to the end of chapter 8. Note on sanctification at John 17:17-19.

6:2 "Absolutely not" - 3:30. For a believer this is the only possible answer to the question in v 1. Why? Because believers "died to sin." When and how did this death come about? Verses 6,8 give the answer - "crucified with Him", "died with Christ." Believers are united to Christ (v 5). In His death and resurrection Christ was the representative and head of the whole body of believers. God counts what happened to Him as though it happened to them. He was their substitute, their representative. In God's eyes, what believers were in their sinful selves is crucified and dead.

6:3,4 What "baptism" is Paul speaking of here? "Baptism" is a word taken from Greek. If we translate the Greek word here instead of using the words "baptized" and "baptism" these verses could read - "all of us who were immersed [or submerged or brought] into Christ Jesus were immersed [or submerged or brought] into His death. We were therefore buried with Him through this immersion into death." "Immersion" would thus mean immersion into Christ, not in water. It would indicate union with Christ, entering into a special relationship with Him, being made members of His body by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor 12:12,13; John 17:21,23).

The Greek words for baptized and baptism are used in a figurative sense in other places in the New Testament. See Luke 12:50; 1 Cor 10:2. Water baptism can be only a symbol of the spiritual realities Paul speaks of here. Going into the water speaks of death and burial with Christ. Coming out of the water speaks of resurrection with Christ. See notes on water baptism at Matt 3:6; 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; on Spirit baptism see notes at we also might walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been united in the likeness of his death, we will be united also in the likeness of his resurrection. 6 We know that our old human nature was crucified with him, so that the body of sin might be deprived of force, that from now on we should not serve sin. 7 For he who has died with Christ has been freed from sin.

8 Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him, 9 knowing that Christ being raised from the dead will not die again. Death no longer has dominion over him. 10 For the death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives for God.

Acts 1:5; etc. The purpose of all God did for us in Christ is that we "might walk in newness of life", resurrection life, a life freed from the bondage of sin and death. See 2 Cor 5:17; Titus 2:11-14.

6:5 "United" is the key word here. Believers are "in" Christ (8:1; John 15:4; Eph 1:3,4; Phil 1:1; Col 1:2), and "one" with Christ (12:5; 1 Cor 6:15,17; 12:13). Notes at John 17:21-23). Just as His death is their death, so His resurrection is theirs (Eph 2:6; Col 2:12; 3:1).

6:6 "Our old human nature" - literally "our old man." The expression means all that we were before we became believers and new people in Christ. "Crucified" is not something we do to ourselves. When Christ was crucified about 30 AD we believers were crucified "with Him" (v 2; Gal 2:20).

"Body of sin" is the sinful nature in the bodies of believers (7:18). It was not literally destroyed when Christ died in our place, just as our literal bodies were not destroyed. But Christ's death makes it possible for God to deliver us from the power of it (vs 14,22; 5:21). By God's grace we need not live in bondage to it (8:4; Gal 5:16-25; Eph 4:22-24; Col 3:5-10).

6:7 In God's reckoning we believers sinned in Adam and died in Christ (2 Cor 5:14; Col 3:3). Condemnation came on us from the source of Adam's sin (5:16,18). Freedom from it came through the death of Christ. Dying with Him we are "freed" (or acquitted) from sin, the relationship with sin is broken, and God no longer counts our sins against us (4:7,8). Our sins are all paid for by Christ's sufferings and death. All of the above things are facts which are true of every believer, not of a few superior ones only.

6:8 Verse 4. Believers live now with Christ the new spiritual life God has given them (John 5:24; 14:23), and they will live forever with Him (1 Thess 4:17).

6:9,10 Death is the result of sin (5:12; 6:23). Christ died in the place of believers to pay the penalty for their sins (3:25; John 1:29; 1 Cor 15:3). This He did once for all time (Heb 10:10,14; John 19:30). Now He lives forever (Rev 1:18). He lives for God, to please God the Father and to do His will

11 Likewise you also must count yourselves as dead indeed to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord. 12 Therefore, do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey its cravings. 13 And do not present your body's members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as those who are alive from the dead, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness. 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under the Law, but under grace.

15 What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the Law, but under grace? Absolutely not! 16 Do you not know that to whom you present (John 8:29), not for self and not for sin.

6:11 In the above matter believers are to be like Christ and live for God as He does. Like Him "death no longer has any power" over them (John 11:25,26). They are to count things as God does - that they died when Christ died and have risen to new life in Him.

6:12 Paul does not say that sin is no longer in the "mortal body" of believers (he knew that it is - 7:18,25; Gal 5:17; Eph 4:22; 1 John 1:8). He says that they must not let sin "reign" there (5:21). Sin is no longer to be the master of believers (v 14; John 8:31-36).

6:13 God has brought believers "from death to life" (John 5:24). Now they must not turn again to their old master, sin, and offer their hands and feet and eyes and ears and mouth to it. They have a new Master, the one true and living God, and they are to give to Him themselves and all they are and have (12:1). Neither sin nor themselves are to be their master, but God only. If believers fail here they will find sin ready to pounce on them and master them again.

6:14 Here is the sweetest truth possible to believers troubled and harassed by sin. Let us not think we will overcome sin by any efforts to keep God's law or to be "good." Only God's grace can enable us to throw off the tyranny of sin - grace that brings to us forgiveness and eternal life, the Holy Spirit, and power and strength to conquer in the fight against sin.

"Not under the law" - compare 7:1-4.

"Under grace" - 5:21 - a sweet and powerful master indeed!

6:15 Verse 1. This question arises because men in general think that sin can be restrained only by making and enforcing laws. Such people, if they do not understand Paul's teaching about grace, may say that he is giving believers a license to sin. This is a total misconception. Actually Paul is showing the way to keep from sinning. The gospel is the power of God for salvation (1:16). It makes people true servants of God.

6:16 People may think they are "free" to sin. Actually their continuing in sin reveals they have no freedom and are slaves to sin yourselves as slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether slaves of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? 17 But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, you have obeyed from the heart that form of teaching to which you were delivered. 18 So having been freed from sin, you became the slaves of righteousness.

19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you have presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and to evil leading to further evil, even so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to holiness. 20 For when you were the slaves of sin, you were not controlled by righteousness. 21 What (John 8:34; 2 Pet 2:19). When they yield to sin, sin gets power over them, grips and holds them and compels them to sin again and again. And this way ends in death. There is only one other way possible to us. This is the way of obedience to God, which means renouncing sin and counting oneself dead to it. This way leads to righteousness. There is no middle ground between these two ways. Compare Matt 7:13,14.

"Slaves" – the KJV has "servants." This is a valid translation of the Greek word which means either servants or slaves, but slaves seems a better translation here and closer to the original meaning of the Greek.

6:17,18 See how freedom comes to believers. On their part it means obedience to the gospel and teachings of Christ. Notice the word "obeyed from the heart." They were not forced to leave their sins and become God's servants. With all their hearts they wanted to do so.

"Slaves to righteousness" – this is not forced bondage but willing, glad surrender to a gracious Master to do His will.

6:19 Verse 13. "Slaves" – believers are bound to this new master (v 18). But they must willingly live in accordance with this truth. In their thoughts, motives and actions they must not try to escape from righteousness. This "slavery" brings them into the happiest condition possible on earth, the freedom to serve God, and to enjoy great blessings from the God they serve (compare Matt 5:6,10; 6:33). Such people do not need the law to force them to be good. With their whole heart they want to be good. This is what a true belief in Christ produces. This is not to say that believers are never tempted to sin or never fall (notice the word "weakness" in this verse. Compare 7:18; etc). It means that the whole tendency of their lives is to be controlled by righteousness.

"Present" – or "offer" – v 13; 12:1,2. The result of this is holiness of life.

6:20 A person cannot have two masters, both sin and righteousness (compare Matt 6:24). Paul is not saying that slaves of sin never do what men call righteous acts, or that they cannot be religious (they may be fruit did you have then in those things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. 22 But now, having been freed from sin and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end is everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

7 Do you not know, brethren (for I am speaking to those who know the Law), that the Law has authority over a man as long as he lives? 2 For the woman who has a husband is bound to her husband, by the Law, as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is freed from the law regarding the husband. 3 So then, if she marries very religious indeed). He is speaking of what is master in the life as a whole. In the eyes of God, even the "righteous" acts of sinners are stained with sin (Isa 64:6), and they are actually done in the service of sin.

6:21 The believers at Rome had truly repented and submitted to God, so they were ashamed of their former way of life. If a person says he is a believer in Christ and yet is not ashamed of his former sins there is something very much wrong, and he may rush back into those same sins (2 Pet 2:22). And the end of a life of sin for anyone, regardless of what he says he is, is death. 6:22 The only way to holiness and eternal life is to become "slaves" to God, to be God's own redeemed property, willing to obey God's voice. This is the way also to spiritual freedom (Gal 5:1,13; John 8:36), a freedom to serve God willingly and joyously.

6:23 The contrast, as in vs 16-22, is still between slavery to sin and slavery to God. Sin pays "wages" to its slaves – death. This death is eternal separation from God (Rev 21:8; 2 Thess 1:8,9; Matt 25:41). Slaves of sin get exactly what they deserve and earn by their behavior. But what God gives His "slaves" is not wages but a gift – eternal life. This is not what they deserve, and they could never earn it (see 4:4,5; 5:17; Luke 17:10; Eph 2:8,9; John 3:16; 4:14). How does one become a "slave" to God? Only by repenting of sin and trusting in Christ. All believers are God's purchased possession and have a heart to serve Him. They do not serve Him in order to obtain eternal life, but because they have eternal life.

7:1 The law God gave through Moses has no authority over those who have died. And Paul has said that believers have died in Christ (6:6-8). For this reason they are no longer under the law (6:14), and the law cannot condemn them, and they are safe.

7:2 Gen 2:24; Matt 19:3-9. The law of Moses gave no permission to a wife to divorce her husband.

7:3,4 The death of a woman's first husband gives her freedom to marry another. In Paul's spiritual application who is the first husband? Some commentators say he is another man while her husband is still living, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband is dead, she is freed from that law, so that even though she gets married to another man, she is not an adulteress.

4 Therefore, my brethren, you also have died to the Law through the body of Christ, so that you might be married to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bear fruit to God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions aroused by the Law were at work in our members to bear fruit to death. 6 But now we have been delivered from the Law, having died to what held us, so that we might serve in newness of spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sin?

Christ under the law before His death (Gal 4:4). A greater number, however, say the husband is the law that God gave through Moses and that this law died in relation to believers when Christ died.

But whether the first husband is the law, or Christ under the law, the chief point Paul makes is the same – believers died when Christ died (6:6-8). And being dead they are free from the authority of the law, free to have a spiritual “husband”, free to have a new relationship with God. By receiving Christ as their Lord and Savior they become His “bride.” See Matt 22:2; John 3:29; 2 Cor 11:2; Eph 5:25-33; Rev 19:7. See the purpose of this union of Christ and believers – spiritual “fruit to God.” See John 15:1-8.

7:5 The law “aroused” sinful desires. See vs 7-9; 3:20; 4:15; 5:20. Being commanded not to do something makes the sinful nature want to do it. Forbidden fruits seem sweet. But the result of all that is death (6:16,21,23).

“Flesh” – the way Paul uses this Greek word here (sarki, from sarx) it means what people are by nature – fallen and sinful and under the control of their desires. It includes all that fallen man is in mind, soul, and body. Compare 1:18-32; 3:9-19; Gen 8:21; Jer 17:9; Matt 7:11; 15:19; Eph 2:1-3; 4:17-19; Titus 3:3.

7:6 That which “held us” was the law of Moses. In this verse Paul contrasts serving under the authority of the law and under the grace and freedom of God’s Spirit (see also 2 Cor 3:6,17). In chapter 8 Paul makes much of service in the new way of God’s Spirit. He calls it a new way because after the resurrection of Christ God gave His Spirit in a new way (John 7:38; 14:16,17; Acts 1:4; 2:4).

7:7 This question arises because Paul said that the law aroused sinful desires (v 5). If it does so, is it not sinful itself? No. The law is holy, righteous, and good (v 12), but people by nature are unholy, unrighteous and bad (3:9-19). And the law reveals this. It is not the fault of the law that people want to break it. It is altogether the fault of Absolutely not! Indeed, I would not have known sin except through the Law, for I would not have known what it means to covet unless the Law had said, “You shall not covet.” 8 But sin, taking the opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of craving. For apart from the Law sin was dead. 9 For once I was alive apart from the Law. But when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. 10 And the commandment, which was to lead to life, I found to lead to death. 11 For sin, taking the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me. 12 Therefore, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy, and just, and good.

13 Then, did that which is good become death to me? Absolutely not! But sin, so that it might people. In this and the following verses Paul shows how this worked out in his own experience.

The commandment which destroyed his good views of himself was the one against desiring. See Ex 20:17. Paul could keep from outwardly breaking the law of God, but he found his inward desires were beyond his control. In fact, the very command not to desire seemed to arouse his desires and make them stronger. The heart of human beings is filled with sinful desires and God’s law says “absolutely no” to them all. But this only causes these desires to become even more determined. Rebelliousness against God’s law is an inherent part of the “flesh” (8:7).

7:8 Until he more clearly and fully understood that the law was commanding him not to desire, Paul did not recognize sin in himself. It was as though sin was completely inactive. He thought his heart was good, but soon found that it was a nest of poisonous snakes.

7:9 Paul was a Jew born under the old covenant, and there was never a time when he was not under the law until he trusted in Christ. He means here that there was a time when he thought he was spiritually alive because he had not yet understood the spiritual meaning of the law and how it condemned his inner desires. When he truly understood the command not to desire he realized his sin, and that he was dead in sin and not spiritually alive as he had thought. “I died” speaks of an inner experience that was like death.

7:10 One reason God gave the law was to promote a good, just, and moral life among His people. To Paul it brought death. That is, he realized his sin by the law, and he knew that the result of sin is death.

7:11 See the deceiving nature of sin. Compare Heb 3:13. It promised Paul life through the law, but brought death instead. 7:12 Verse 7.

7:13 There is no fault in the law. The whole problem with man is the sinful nature in him. God uses the law to show what sin is. Fallen human nature will not obey the law, cannot appear as sin, was producing death in me through that which is good, so that sin, through the commandment, might become exceedingly sinful.

14 For we know that the Law is spiritual. But obey it, and God's broken holy commandments reveal the utter sinfulness of sin.

7:14 In describing his past experiences in vs 7-13 Paul used the past tense. In vs 14-25 he changed to the present tense. Surely this change is significant. It seems clear to the author of these notes that in these verses Paul is describing what he was in himself even after his new birth in Christ. He uses the words "I", "me", "my", "myself" nearly forty times in these twelve verses and refers to Christ only once at the end, and makes no mention of God's Spirit at all. And having used the present tense all through, in v 25 he gives thanks to God through Jesus Christ, and then sums up how things are with him. This is surely an indication that in the preceding verses he is describing what he was experiencing as a believer.

Here in v 14 when he says he is "fleshly", and "sold under sin", he is indicating what he is like by nature, not what Christ has made him. The spiritual law of God has shown him what he is in his personal sinfulness. Who but an enlightened man could say what Paul says of himself in this verse? Those who do not know Christ may feel regret over foolish actions or the fact that they were caught in some misdeed, but unless we are awakened by the Spirit of God we will not have this deep consciousness of sinfulness and will not grieve about sin as Paul does here in vs 14-25. The man in these verses reveals that he is poor in spirit and mourns about sin, and so the kingdom of heaven is his. See Matt 5:3,4. This could not have been true before Paul met Christ on the road to Damascus.

The great battle in these verses against the sinful nature is not seen in unsaved people. It is true that even unbelievers may struggle against one or another quality in themselves they are not pleased with. And they may want to gain control over all of their desires and not be in bondage to any. But this is merely one aspect of their sinful nature fighting against another aspect of it. And their motive is not to live a spiritual life in Christ or glorify God, but to glorify themselves, or to satisfy themselves in some way, or to gain something else that self wants very badly. Their struggle is not the spiritual struggle Paul reveals here.

7:15-24 Believers who like Paul have been awakened to the power of their sinful natures, will have the same complaint he had (certainly the writer of these notes has it) – they want to be good and do only good, but find something bad in them. They have holy desires, but find unholiness in their nature which hinders their efforts to act according to these holy desires.

Paul found that sin lurked in him like a

I am fleshly, sold under sin. 15 For I do not understand what I do; for I do not do what I intend to do, but do what I hate. 16 If, then, I do what I do not intend to do, I agree with the Law, that it is good. 17 So then it is no longer I who do it, but cruel tyrant determined to keep him in bondage to itself. He could not be all that he wanted to be, or do all that he wanted to do, and some things he did he did not want to do at all. He found that the word of Jesus to His disciples is really true: "you are evil" (see Matt 7:11), and he did not try to explain it away by using other terms for it.

7:15 "Do what I hate" – we should not imagine that Paul was indulging in vile sins such as the ones he lists in 1 Cor 6:9,10 and other places. Those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God, as he himself plainly stated. In this verse Paul does not tell us exactly what it was he struggled against, but the thing he emphasized earlier in this chapter was desire – desire which the law stirred up and which revealed the depravity of his old nature – vs 7,8. Persistent desires for wrong things rising up out of his nature was in itself enough to show Paul what that nature was like, and to cause him to utter the groan of v 24.

God's standards (and so God's apostle Paul's standards) were perfect in holiness and righteousness for both the outer behavior and the inner thoughts and motives and desires (2 Cor 7:1; Matt 6:48). Anything less than this perfection was hateful to Paul and so, when he came short in any way, he had to say that "what I hate I do."

We should understand that whatever inner struggles Paul experienced he always lived in such a way that his conscience would be clear before God and man – see Acts 24:16; 2 Cor 1:12. That is, he did not willingly, consciously practice any sin.

7:17 Paul is facing the terrible reality that an enemy lives in him, and that this enemy, sin, is stronger than he is.

"No longer I. . .but sin that lives in me" (also v 20). Observe how he distinguishes between himself and his sinful nature. Before he obtained a new nature in Christ he was his old nature, and nothing more than that (this is true of all of us). But the words "no longer" suggest a radical change, the change he speaks of in v 4. When Christ died for him, in God's eyes it was the same as Paul dying, and so the death of all that Paul had been (6:3-7; Gal 5:24; Col 3:3), and he learned to regard it as God did. He (and this is true of all believers) no longer had any connection with his sinful nature, for it was "dead" through the death of Christ, and he, the new man, was alive in Christ (compare Col 2:11,12). And so he refused any longer to regard his sinful nature, or any part of it, as himself – "no longer I."

Sin lived on in him (as we see in these verses, in 1 John 1:8, and other places in the Bible), but now only as an alien which sin that lives in me. 18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) no good thing lives. For the ability to choose is present with me, but I do not see how to perform what is good. 19 For I do not do the good that I choose to do, but the evil that I do not choose, that I do. 20 Now if I do what I do not choose, it is no longer I who does it, but sin that lives in me.

Paul detested and opposed. This unwelcome evil power (not some demon or demonic power, but simply his old nature), which was no longer himself, produced bad desires, bad motives, and even bad acts. But Paul, the new man in Christ, the man dead to the law and crucified with Christ, the man born again by the Spirit of God, did not purpose to do those things and did not do them. It was the old man of sin who did them, the old man who refused to accept his proper place of death and raged on, always trying to subdue Paul and bend him to his will.

Since it was not "I" who did the evil, "I" (the new man in Christ) could not be charged with doing it (see and understand 4:8). That is why there is "no condemnation" to death and hell for those in Christ (8:1), and no losing of salvation because of what the old fallen man within does. That "old man" is already condemned, crucified, and, in God's eyes, counted as dead forever.

Paul was a holy man of God and was not trying to make an excuse for bad behavior – he is writing by the inspiration of God's Spirit for our instruction, and stating things as God sees them, and as he himself came to understand them. He did not side with his sinful nature, but rejected it with abhorrence, and longed to be completely free from its influences and its presence. And he was not at all denying his responsibility for his actions. He knew very well the truth he wrote in another place – "We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due him for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad" (2 Cor 5:10).

7:18 Here is the truth God taught Paul about man's "flesh" ("sarx" – v 5). This is the nature everyone has received from Adam. Compare 1:29-32; 3:9-19; 8:5-8; 13:14; Gen 5:3; 8:21; Jer 17:9; Matt 7:11; 15:19; Gal 5:16,17; Eph 2:1-3; 1 Tim 1:15. See notes at those places.

Here Paul says there is no spiritually good thing in this nature received from Adam (though there are some things in it which people call good qualities – but people dominated by their sinful nature are not reliable judges of what is spiritual or good in God's eyes. Compare Luke 16:15). Here Paul exposes what "self" really is.

What he writes is in agreement with the words of Jesus. Jesus said that "self" must be completely renounced – it is worthy only of death (Matt 10:38; Luke 9:23 – in this verse notice the word "daily". Death to self must be an attitude believers renew daily,

21 I find, then, a law: When I choose to do good, evil is present with me. 22 For I delight in the Law of God in the person I am inwardly. 23 But I see another law in my bodily members, making war against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. 24 O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of or the self, the flesh, will assert itself and try to rule us).

Observe in Paul's case the contrast between his good desire and the poor results. Isn't there reason enough for all believers to confess this? It is clear that in the fight against his sinful nature Paul could find absolutely nothing in himself that would give him the victory. To subdue and conquer his sinful nature he had to look for resources not found in himself.

7:19,20 By restating, in slightly different words, what he declared in vs 15,17, he emphasizes the truth of it.

7:21 "Law" – the fact he has stated is as powerful as a law of nature. Paul found that it was not something that happened only occasionally, and was gradually weakening and fading away out of his life. Always he wanted to do good and only good (this is what the believer's new nature in Christ is like), but always in trying to do the good he wanted to do, he found the evil alien within opposing him and trying to turn him in its direction.

7:22 Is it even remotely possible that any unsaved person, any unbeliever, could ever truly say this? The Bible reveals what the heart (the inner being) of unsaved people is like, and it certainly does not delight in God's law – Gen 8:21; Jer 17:9; Matt 15:19; etc. People dead in trespasses and sins (Eph 2:1-3) do not inwardly delight in anything really holy as the law of God is. Here Paul surely means that in his new inner nature received in the new birth, in what he really was in Christ, he delighted in all the truth of God, including God's law which was holy, righteous and good. He could say with the psalmist "Your law is my delight" and "Oh, how I love your law!" (Ps 119:77,97).

7:23 "Another law" – he means another law than the law of God which he refers to in v 22. This "another law" is the law seen in v 21. Observe what strong language he uses. This law is "making war" against him and actually takes him prisoner. In other words, Paul, fighting with all that he has in himself, with all his strength of mind and will, cannot win the victory over his old nature, his flesh. He loses again and again, and so has to utter the cry of the next verse.

7:24 This knowledge of evil within, and this unsuccessful struggle with himself to be good, brought a deep groan from Paul's heart. This is the cry of a man face to face with the basic, total, incorrigible depravity of his fallen nature, which he himself can do nothing at all to change.

"Body of death" – see 6:12 where he uses death? 25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the Law of God, but with the flesh serve the law of sin.

the similar expression "mortal body." Compare 6:6 – "body of sin." It is a body of death because sin lives in it (v 17; 8:10). Paul has been writing about this body of death, this body so bound up with the sinful nature, all through the preceding verses. (In other words, sarx, the sinful nature, lives in the soma, the Greek word for body).

Observe carefully that Paul views this deliverance from the body of death as something still future to the time of his writing these words. Compare 8:23; 1 Cor 15:53,54; Phil 3:21. He never said it was to be gained in this lifetime. But he is not at all denying that believers can gain the victory over the body and the sin living in the body. In the following chapter he shows clearly that we can do so. The same person who wrote v 18-21 also wrote 8:37 and 2 Cor 2:14. Which of these things is true? Both of them are true and at the same time. 7:25 At the same time Paul thanks God through the Lord Jesus for the coming deliverance from his body of death (which he could only do as a believer in Christ), he admits he has a sinful nature that brings bondage. If we ignore his statement here we will not be able to interpret the preceding verses correctly (and several other passages in the New Testament). See also 13:14; Gal 5:16,17; 1 John 1:8.

But the question comes, is there no deliverance now from the power of the sinful nature in believers? Can they not serve God with freedom and joy? Is there no victory over the enemy within? In chapter 6 Paul has already said that there is, and pointed the way. In chapter 8 he makes this even clearer. But here in chapter 7 he reveals that there is no hope of victory by trying to keep God's law, or by struggling against sin with one's own strength. Sin is far stronger than the strongest, most determined person on earth. Like Pharaoh of old it says "I do not know the Lord and I will not let His people go" (Ex 5:2).

But Paul does not teach this truth so that believers should despair and give in to the power of sin in them, but that they might know themselves and seek and find victory in God's way.

8:1 The word "therefore" ties this verse with the preceding verses and seems another sure indication that in 7:14-25 Paul is describing himself as a person "in Christ Jesus." His connection with sin was completely broken (7:17), his inner being was changed so that he delighted in the law of God (7:22), and he could thank God through Jesus Christ the Lord for deliverance from the body of death (7:25). By these statements he shows that he was in Christ and therefore there was no condemnation for him. And there is none for anyone in a similar position.

Because of their struggles with sin

8 There is, therefore, now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not behave according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ believers may often think to condemn themselves, but God does not condemn them. Compare 4:7,8 – how can believers be condemned for sins which God does not count against them?

"In Christ" means united to Him, members of His spiritual body – 6:3; 1 Cor 12:12,13. "No condemnation" is the same as being counted righteous or justified (3:24; 4:78; 5:1). See also John 5:24. Just as there is no condemnation for Christ, so is there none for those united to Him. Christ has already died for them and taken away their condemnation and sin forever. He and they with Him have risen to a new life beyond condemnation.

Another reason why there is no condemnation for them is that this way of faith in Christ leads to freedom from the law of sin and death (v 2). Christ both saves His people from their sins and gives victory over their sinfulness. Whom He justifies He also sanctifies. Being counted righteous through faith is the way (and the only way) that leads to victory over the flesh, the world and the devil.

"Who do not behave according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit" – many scholars believe that this phrase has been copied by mistake from v 4, and that it was not in the original Greek here in v 1. Others do not agree with this view. The author of these notes believes that the phrase is a brief definition of those who are "in Christ Jesus," and that Paul shows the truth of this in the rest of the chapter. This becomes clearer if we take it like this: "Therefore there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. They do not behave according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus", etc. (The original Greek did not have our modern punctuation marks.)

8:2 This whole chapter is in great contrast with 7:14-25. The reason is this: those verses describe what a believer is in himself faced with the awful reality of his sinfulness, but this chapter describes what we are "in Christ." Here we have a higher and better law than the law of sin and death seen in chapter 7. This is a law that gives believers power against that law. This law has to do with the "Spirit of life" – the Holy Spirit of God living in believers and enabling them to do what they could never do by their own efforts. In chapter 8 Paul refers to Christ and God's Spirit nearly thirty times (see note on 7:14). Here Paul emphasizes the wonderful truth that God has given His Spirit to live in the bodies of believers.

The Holy Spirit alone is their power for victory (vs 4,13)

He gives life and peace (v 6)

He leads them (v 14)

He causes them to know they are God's

Jesus has set me free from the Law of sin and death. 3 For what the Law could not do because it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as a sacrifice for sin, and so condemned sin in the flesh, 4 so that the righteous requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us who do not behave according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

5 For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those children (vs 15,16)

And He is in them praying for them (vs 26,27)

See notes on the Holy Spirit at John 14:16,17; etc

8:3 "Law" – Paul means the law God gave through Moses. It was powerless to save people or to help them overcome their sin and sinfulness (3:19,20; 4:15; 7:5,7,14).

"Flesh" (also vs 4, 5, 8, 9, 12, 13) – see note at 7:5. To give a way of escape for sinful people God had to send His own Son (John 3:14-16). Jesus the Son did not come as a sinful man with a sinful nature (2 Cor 5:21; Heb 4:15; 7:26; 1 Pet 2:22). He came in the "likeness" of sinful man. That is, when He was on earth His outward appearance was like all other men. He came "as a sacrifice for sin" (the words "as a sacrifice" are not in the Greek but are implied there). He came to deal with the whole human problem of sin. He condemned it and died for it (3:24,25).

8:4 God's grand purpose in all this was to free people from the guilt, condemnation and power of sin, and make them a holy people for Himself, a people able to be spiritual and fulfill the righteousness in the law which is holy and spiritual (7:12,14). See also Heb 8:10. Believers are not under the law (6:14; 7:4). They need not observe its days, ceremonies, instructions about foods, etc. But God wants the moral and ethical requirement of the law to be fulfilled in them. This requirement is summed up in two commandments – see 13:8-10; Matt 22:37-40. To fulfill these, one thing is of the utmost importance – behaving "according to the Spirit." Here, and throughout this chapter, the Spirit means God's Spirit. See also Gal 5:16-18.

Living "according to the Spirit" means this: To recognize that He lives in us (vs 9, 15)

To offer ourselves to Him (6:13)

To obey Him (v 14; Gal 5:25)

To trust Him for His strength and power and use them (v 13)

8:5-8 "Flesh" (7:5; Gal 5:17). Paul here describes two kinds of people, the only two kinds on earth. One type thinks along certain lines, the other in a radically different way. The sinful nature brings its desires to the minds of unbelievers, and, in general, they will go after those things. God's Spirit brings His desires to the minds of believers. And if their minds are filled with the things who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. 6 The mind occupied with the flesh is death, but the mind occupied with the Spirit is life and peace. 7 Because the mind occupied with the flesh is hostile to God, for it is not subject to the Law of God, nor indeed can it be. 8 So then those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. Now if anyone

He desires for them they will go after those things. The way a person thinks has a very great influence on how he lives (so the importance of 2 Cor 10:5; Phil 4:8; Col 3:16; Ps 1:2).

The things of the sinful nature are not always things which appear sinful to people. They may be religious, or intellectual things too. But they are things which are not of God (Matt 16:23). They are not heavenly things (Col 3:2), but earthly things (Phil 3:19), things which seem natural to people without God's Spirit.

"Death" in v 6 means spiritual death, separation from God (Isa 59:2; Eph 2:1; 4:18). The natural mind of every person out of Christ is set on what pleases himself, and these things have nothing to do with the one true God and are opposed to Him (v 7). Such a person may think he is on God's side and may even say he loves Him. But this is a delusion. And the mind of a sinful person will never change itself and obey God. It is impossible to it.

If a person is to start obeying God a radical change must take place in him. God's Spirit must enter him, give him new life and change his thinking. Without this no one can please God. He may be very religious, moral, educated, may try to keep God's law, but without God's Spirit it is all sin and death and can never be acceptable to God. Compare John 3:3-8. Because a person's sinful nature is clothed with religion and morality does not make it any more pleasing to God. He sees beneath the outer things of religion to the heart (Heb 4:12,13). He knows that the religious ideas and feelings of fallen man are stained by sin, just as everything else about him is stained by sin. Compare Isa 1:11-17; Prov 14:12.

8:9 "In" – the two kinds of persons Paul describes in vs 5-8 live in two different realms or spheres. Those without God's Spirit belong to their sinful nature, and they live in it and according to it. Those who have God's Spirit have renounced sin and their sinful nature. They belong to God's Spirit and He lives and works in them, and they live in Him.

In this verse the Spirit of God is called the Spirit of Christ. What is this but to say that Christ is God? See other references at Phil 2:6 and Luke 2:11. Without Christ's Spirit no one belongs to Christ or to God the Father, no one is saved or counted righteous. Such people may be called does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to him. 10 And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies by his Spirit who lives in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. 13 For if you live according to the flesh, you will die. But if through the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are sons of God. 15 For you did not receive again the spirit of bondage to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we call out, "Abba, Father." 16 The Spirit himself Christians and may think they are Christians, but they are not Christ's people. How does one receive Christ's Spirit? Only by faith in Christ. God gives Him as a gift to individuals when they believe (5:5).

8:10 In v 9 Paul says the Spirit of God lives in believers. Here he says Christ Himself lives in them (see also John 17:23; 2 Cor 13:5; Col 1:27; Rev 3:20). He is in them by His Spirit. These verses show the unity of God and Christ and the Spirit (this does not mean that Christ and the Holy Spirit and the Father are the same person. Notes at Matt 3:16; John 17:1; 2 John 3; etc).

Notice that the "body" of a believer is "dead." Compare 6:12; 7:24. The process of death is at work in Christ's own people as in everyone else, and if Christ does not return in our lifetime we will all die. This is because of sin. But the Spirit of life (v 2) lives in believers, and their spirits are alive because of Him.

"The Spirit gives" - or, possibly, "The spirit has" (there is no verb in the Greek here).

8:11 Two truths are here - the resurrection of Christ from the dead (1:4; Matt 28:6), and the future resurrection of believers (v 23; John 6:39; 1 Cor 15:52; 1 Thess 4:16). In the gospel of Christ the body is not merely a temporary house for the believer's spirit which will be discarded forever at death. Our bodies are important as the instruments through which our spirits express themselves, and they will be raised and glorified like Christ's body (Phil 3:21).

8:12,13 What should be the response of believers to all this glorious truth God has revealed? What is their responsibility in the light of God's marvelous grace? Paul wrote something of this in 6:11-13,19. They must deny self, renounce their own sinful natures, and use the power and strength of God's Spirit to "put to death the deeds of the body" (see Col 3:5-10. Compare Matt 5:29,30; Gal 5:24). This is something that needs to be done continuously. This means to renounce every evil action and work with God's Spirit to put it to death - the power to kill sin in our lives is His power, not ours. But we must cooperate with Him, and use the power He gives us (compare Phil 2:12,13). Believers should no more allow sinful acts and practices and desires to remain in their lives than allow poisonous snakes to be in their houses.

The true believer has repented of his sins and he fights against sins in his life and learns to use the Spirit's power against them. He makes the decision to do this when he comes to Christ, and the decision is immediate and sudden, but the work of actually doing it may be slow and painful. Perhaps few are always and completely successful in this. But the tendency of the lives of all believers is to do so. If anyone called a "brother" does not put to death the deeds of the body, he shows he does not have the Spirit of life at work in him (compare 1 John 3:6,9). Constantly living "in accordance with the flesh" is proof that the Spirit is absent, and such living is death and leads to death (v 6; 6:16,23).

8:14 This is a word showing what it means to be a child of God. The sons of God are those born of His Spirit (John 1:12,13). More than that - they follow His Spirit's leading (compare John 10:27). And God's Spirit leads them to "put to death the deeds of the body." God's Spirit will always lead away from self and sin. A person lacking this experience lacks genuine repentance and faith, and is not saved (see 1 John 2:4-6; 3:3,7-10; John 14:23,24).

Paul calls believers "sons" of God. In 6:16-22 he calls them "slaves." There is no contradiction. In speaking of "slavery" he does not mean enforced bondage, but willing and glad service to God. Believers prove themselves God's "sons" by willingly becoming His "slaves." If they are not willing to be God's slaves they show themselves unworthy to be His sons, and, in fact, are not His sons.

8:15 Believers are voluntary slaves to God, not unwilling slaves to fear (compare Heb 2:14,15). And by God's Spirit living in them they spontaneously think of God as their Father and they call Him that and cry out to Him as their Father.

"Adoption" - see v 23.

"Abba" is the word for father in the Aramaic language (compare Mark 14:36; Gal 4:6).

8:16 Notice carefully the distinction between God's Spirit and the spirits of believers. They are not one and the same spirit as Advaita Vedanta teaches in parenthesis. See also John 14:16,17.

In the hearts of believers, as they follow the leading of God's Spirit and put to death the misdeeds of the body (vs 13,14), there is a happy agreement between their spirits and God's Spirit. God's Spirit leads them to an assurance that they are God's children (compare 1 John 3:24; 4:13). Paul does not define how God's Spirit gives this witness within their hearts. But it is clear that it is an inward personal experience. And we testifies with our spirit, that we are the children of God; 17 and if children, then heirs, heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with him, so that we may also be glorified together.

18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that will be revealed in us. 19 For the earnest expectation of the creation is waiting for the revealing of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope, 21 because the creation itself shall also be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers birth pangs together until now. 23 And not only creation, but we ourselves who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, we also groan in ourselves, waiting for the adoption, that is, the redemption of our body. 24 For we are saved in this hope. But hope that is seen is not hope, for why does a man still hope for what he sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, then we wait patiently for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses; for we do not know what we should pray and death came to this good creation. This same creation now groaning in bondage will be released and share in the coming glory. Compare Isa 11:6-9; 25:6-8; 35:1-10; 49:8-13. Now creation is not what it was originally, and it is not what it shall be after Christ returns. Just as it shared in the results of man's fall into sin, so it will eventually share in the results of Christ's redeeming men from sin.

can be sure that the inner witness of the Spirit and the outer witness of the Bible will perfectly agree. God's Spirit will never tell us something is true which God's Word indicates is not true. The Spirit will make God's Word personal and real and living in the hearts of believers.

On the knowledge and assurance believers can have see 5:5; 1 John 5:10,20; 1 Cor 2:9-12; John 16:13-15. If the believer sins he is in danger of "quenching" the Spirit and the Spirit's assuring voice (Eph 4:30).

8:17 "Heirs" - Christ is the heir of all things (Heb 1:2). So to be heirs with Him means to inherit all things. See 4:13; 1 Cor 3:21-23; Eph 1:14; Col 1:12; Rev 21:7; Matt 5:5. "Suffer with him" - sufferings then glory was the way God led His Son Jesus (Luke 24:26); and it is the way He leads His children now (John 16:33; Acts 14:22; 1 Pet 4:1,12). Sharing Christ's sufferings is not enduring the difficulties, sorrows and pains which come to all people whether they are Christ's believers or not. It means to suffer for the very reason that we belong to Him and because we live in a world that rejects and hates Him (John 15:18-21), because we are tempted and tried as believers, because we fight against sin in ourselves and elsewhere and stand for truth and justice. All such will face persecution (2 Tim 3:12).

If we are not willing to suffer with Him now, we have no right to think we shall share His glory and inheritance hereafter. When we suffer with Him we should not ask why we are suffering. Rather, if we never suffer with Him we should ask why we do not.

"Glorified" - 5:2; 9:23; John 17:22,24; Col 1:27; 3:4; 1 Thess 2:12; Heb 2:10; 1 Pet 4:13,14; 5:10.

8:18 Paul suffered much (2 Cor 11:23-29). But he regarded his sufferings as trivial in the light of eternal glory - 2 Cor 4:17. It was his assurance that he would share in that glory which enabled him to endure his sufferings with patience and even joy (5:3).

8:19 "The revealing of the sons of God" - v 23; Col 3:4; 1 Pet 1:5; 1 John 3:1,2.

8:20-23 The whole earth suffered from the fall of the first man into sin - Gen 3:14-19. All that God made in the beginning was good (Gen 1:31), but because of sin destruction and death came to this good creation. This same creation now groaning in bondage will be released and share in the coming glory. Compare Isa 11:6-9; 25:6-8; 35:1-10; 49:8-13. Now creation is not what it was originally, and it is not what it shall be after Christ returns. Just as it shared in the results of man's fall into sin, so it will eventually share in the results of Christ's redeeming men from sin.

8:23 See 7:24; 2 Cor 5:4. Believers earnestly desire and groan for the final step in their salvation - their resurrection and glorification (v 30). Here this is called the "redemption" of their bodies. See 1 Cor 15:51-54; Phil 3:21. See also John 5:28,29.

"Adoption" here means that believers, redeemed fully and eternally and transformed into Christ's likeness in body, soul and spirit, will take their place as God's children in a redeemed and transformed creation.

8:24,25 "Hope" - 5:2. The Greek word for hope as Paul and other writers of the New Testament used it, has a much stronger meaning than the English word hope commonly has. It means a confident expectation that what God has revealed as coming in the future, will come, that his promises will be fulfilled. It is the other side of faith. See also Titus 1:2; 1 Pet 1:21; etc.

8:26 This chapter is full of wonderful revelations of the spiritual life of believers and of their final salvation. But in the heart of the chapter there are three groans - here, v 22 and v 23. Creation, believers, and God's Spirit are all groaning at the same time. Why does God's Spirit groan in us who are believers? He is greatly concerned for our spiritual welfare. He longs for our growth in holiness and wisdom, our conformity to the Lord Jesus. With unutterable desires He works to keep us from the pit of sin and the influence of Satan. He strives to make us strong and fruitful children of God. Compare the Spirit-inspired prayer of Paul in Col 1:9-12.

"What" - the Spirit's help and intercession are greatly needed, for believers in themselves are utter weakness (7:14-25), and know neither how to pray or what to pray for as they ought. We can say that God's Spirit works in us to turn our weak-for as we ought. But the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans which cannot be expressed in words. 27 And he who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because he intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to his purpose. 29 For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. 30 Moreover, whom he predestined, those he also called; and whom he called, those he also justified; and whom he justified, those he also glorified.

ness into strength (2 Cor 12:9,10). Because of Him when we are weak, we are strong.

8:27 Believers have two all-wise intercessors praying for them (v 34). And they have One who is all-powerful who listens to the prayers of these two intercessors. They always pray in the will of God, so the Father always answers the prayers of the Son and the Spirit (compare 1 John 5:14,15). The whole Trinity is at work to help believers in their weakness and to enable them to overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil.

8:28 Here is one of those great verses of the Bible which many people quote to others, and few seem able to apply to their own circumstances. To those who do believe these words, and apply them, they are like the cool shadow of a great rock in a hot and weary land. This verse is true even when it seems impossible that it could be true (see in vs 35-39 some of the experiences that can come to believers). Happy are those who can apply this truth to all the events which overtake them in their life on earth.

See what Paul says – “we know” – not “we have some faint hope” or “we guess it might be true.” We can know it is true because God has revealed it and has given evidence of its truthfulness in many parts of the Bible (see, for example, Gen 50:20).

“Those who love Him” and “those who are called” are just two phrases which here mean all true believers. All of them love God, and He has called all of them for His purpose (v 30; 1:5,6; 1 Cor 16:22; 1 John 4:8,16). God brings good out of every circumstance that He brings believers into. Through all such things He means for them to grow spiritually and become more like Christ. Believers may not always be able to see what possible good has come to them from some things which have happened, but we are not required to understand, only to believe.

Some versions have the following translation of the first part of this verse: “And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him.” This does not change the meaning. If all things work together for good, it is God who causes them to do so.

8:29 God’s purpose spoken of in v 28 is this: to make believers like Christ (see also Heb 2:10,11; 1 John 3:1,2). There can be no higher purpose, no greater goal than this. Paul here points to five steps in the fulfillment of this purpose of God. Two of them are in the past before the world began, two in the beginning of the believer’s life in Christ, one still to come. Each of these steps is tied to all the others and all are as certain as God Himself can make them.

“Foreknew” – God’s predestining believers to be like Christ was based on His foreknowledge of them. See also 1 Pet 1:2. Paul does not explain what this foreknowledge is, or what relationship it has to predestination. See note on this subject at the end of this letter.

“Predestined” – this word is found only six times in the Greek New Testament (here, v 30; Acts 4:28; 1 Cor 2:7; Eph 1:5,11). It has nothing to do either with blind fate or with karma. It means God, who knows beforehand what should be done, ordains that it should be done. And we can be sure that what God, the all-wise and all-powerful One, predestines to be done will certainly be done. Apart from Acts 4:28, which speaks of an event, the New Testament speaks of God’s predestination only in regard to believers. It never says God predestined anyone to eternal punishment.

The New Testament teaching of predestination should give great comfort, great hope to believers. It should lead no one to despair, wondering whether God has predestined him to salvation. See notes at John 6:37,44. Anyone who will may come to Christ (Rev 22:17) and the very act of coming and believing in Him is proof that God has chosen the person coming.

8:30 “Called” – v 28; 1:6. This means called to Christ so that they come and believe in Him. For an understanding of what God’s call means study the following references – 11:29; Gal 1:6; 2 Thess 2:14; 1 Cor 1:9,24; Gal 5:13; Col 3:15; 1 Tim 6:12; 1 Pet 2:9,20,21; 3:9; Jude 1; 2 Tim 1:9; Heb 3:1. All believers should make sure God has called them – 2 Pet 1:10,11. Believers can know that God has chosen them, called them, and justified them, and they should know these things.

“Justified” – those God calls, in the sense Paul uses the word, all come to God and believe in the Lord Jesus. Immediately God forgives them every sin and counts them perfectly righteous. See 1:16,17; 3:21-28; 4:5,6-8; 5:1; 10:10.

“Glorified” – vs 17,18,23. This last step in the salvation of God’s own people is put in the past tense as the other steps are. In other words, it is as certain in God’s eyes as His original foreknowledge and predestination, as certain as if it were already done (compare 4:17). The same “those” who are predestined, called and justified will be glorified.

One hesitates to say here “will be

31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? 33 Who shall bring any charge against God's chosen? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is he who condemns? Christ is the one who died, and beyond that, who was raised again and who is at the right hand of God, who also is glorified", though the final act of the glorification of believers awaits Christ's second coming. For Christ has already been glorified and they are united to Him, are "in" Him, and so in a very real sense they have already been glorified – see John 17:22; Eph 2:6; Col 3:3,4. This all speaks of the certainty of the final salvation of all those whom God has called to believe in His Son. Jesus Himself expressed the same truth in John 6:37-40; 10:27-29.

8:31 What shall we say? Let all of our words regarding what God plans and accomplishes toward His own people be words of faith and praise and much assurance. Let none of our words express doubt that any of it can be true. God is for us who believe Him. He is with us, in us. No enemy either within or without can defeat God's purpose for us (v 37; Heb 13:6; John 10:29; Rom 5:20).

8:32 God loves to give because He is love (1 John 4:8; 2 Pet 1:3; 2 Cor 9:15; Acts 14:17; Matt 5:45; 7:10; Ps 145:9). He is the "God of all grace" (1 Pet 5:10). His throne is a "throne of grace" (Heb 4:16). In a special sense grace reigns over His people (Rom 5:21), and grace will triumph over all their weakness and sinfulness. God gave His Son, the greatest of all gifts. Can He possibly withhold anything needed for the final salvation of believers?

8:33 Because God counts believers righteous He will not accept any accusations against them. Believers are united to Christ, are in Christ, and share Christ's perfect righteousness. Just as God will not accept any accusations against His Son, so He will not accept any accusations against those united to Him. See 4:6-8 and notes there. Sin is the only thing that could possibly rob them of their salvation, and God will not count their sins against them. Does this give them a license to sin? Absolutely not – 6:1,15; 8:4,12-14.

8:34 Who can condemn a single believer so that God will accept the condemnation? No one. Not Satan, not other men, not the believer himself. Christ has died as a sacrifice to take away all of their sins forever (Heb 10:10,14). Not only so, He is at God's right hand for His people. There He answers every accusation or attempt at condemnation. His life and intercessions keep them safe now and forever (5:9,10; Heb 7:25; 1 John 2:1).

8:35-39 The "love of Christ" here means His love for believers, not their love for Him.

interceding for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 As it is written,

"For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are considered as sheep for the slaughter."

37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels,

But if Christ's love for believers should fail because of their sin, what then? His love never will fail. It is everlasting (Jer 31:3). It began before they came into existence on the earth and will go on as long as they live in it and forever after. He knew in advance all their sinfulness and all their sin, and set His love on them anyway. Christ's love "surpasses knowledge" (Eph 3:19). It will overcome all obstacles and bring all His people safely into His loving presence at last (compare Song of Songs 8:6,7).

Why does Paul here speak of troubles and dangers? Because they are the common lot of God's people (John 16:33; Acts 14:22; etc); because Satan tries to use them to get the victory over believers; because they may sometimes cause believers to wonder if Christ still loves them; and because they may even become an occasion for them to sin and fall temporarily into unbelief. If this happens will Christ forsake them? Will He withdraw His love? Never. He will bring them all safely through all possible experiences of life.

8:36 Ps 44:22.

8:37 Judging from the context of this chapter we can say that Christ makes all believers "more than conquerors", not merely the exceptional ones like Paul – notice the "we", a word that included all believers at Rome (and, by extension, all believers now). Who can be "more" than a conqueror? One who not merely wins but one whom it is impossible to finally defeat by any means whatever.

And Paul says "we are", not "we may be" or "we can be." Sin and Satan, the world, the flesh and the devil, may wound believers and temporarily cause them to fall, may hard press them, perplex them, persecute them, and strike them down (2 Cor 4:8,9). But they cannot get the final victory over them. It is not possible to conquer those who are more than conquerors. God who gave them faith will keep them believing to the end. He who brought them to Christ will keep them in Christ and give them final, eternal triumph.

Believers are more than conquerors for one reason only – they are united to Christ who is the supreme conqueror of sin, of the world, of Satan, of death, and of everything that raises its head against God, and they all share in His victory.

8:38,39 How could Paul say more emphatically that believers are safe in the loving care of the Lord Jesus Christ? Life with its nor rulers, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also is bearing witness for me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart; 3 for I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh, 4 who are Israelites. To them belongs the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, temptations and trials cannot separate them from Him. Neither can the future with all its possibilities. Nor can death at the end of life, no matter what death they die. No evil power can do so, no good power would do so if it could.

But, someone may say, sin is not mentioned here. However, it is implied in the words "life" and "future" with all the possibilities these words signify. And as for a believer's sins we have seen what God says about them in vs 33,34 and in 4:8. Grace reigns (5:21)! Since Paul was "convinced" of the above truth, so should we be, and always rejoice in it.

Paul has presented what the gospel of Christ is, and shown how it is the power of God for salvation. He has taken us step by step from man's terrible sinful condition, under the wrath of God, to the marvelous state of believers in Christ, forgiven, justified, sanctified, glorified, loved and safe forever. We can see why he was "not ashamed" of the gospel (1:16). The gospel of Christ is glorious beyond compare, and powerful beyond man's poor ability to describe. It is exactly suited to man's need and to God's glory. Let us believe the gospel, and learn it thoroughly, and rejoice in it, and live it, and speak of it, and present it to others all the days of our lives.

9:1-3 Paul has concluded his presentation of the salvation God has provided for mankind. Now in chapters 9, 10, 11 he takes up the question of why God's nation Israel rejected Christ and His gospel, and what the future of that nation will be.

"Conscience" - Acts 23:1; 24:16; 1 Cor 4:4; 8:7; 2 Cor 1:12; 1 Tim 5:19; 3:9. Paul speaks so strongly, so emphatically in these verses because many Jews thought he was their enemy (Acts 21:21,28; 24:5). The truth is he loved them and longed for their salvation so much that he was willing to be lost himself (if that were possible) if they could be saved. Compare Ex 32:32 and Gal 3:13. So powerfully was the Messiah of Israel, the Lord Jesus Christ at work in his heart.

9:4,5 Here Paul more fully answers the question in 3:1. As a nation, he says, Israel still has certain advantages. These advantages have not been lost because and the giving of the Law, and the service of God, and the promises. 5 Theirs are the fathers, and from them, as concerning the body, came Christ, who is over all, God, forever blessed. Amen.

6 It is not as though the Word of God had failed. For they are not all Israel who are descended from Israel. 7 Nor are they all the children of Abraham because they are the offspring of Abraham; but, "through Isaac your offspring will be called." 8 That is, those who are the children of the flesh are not the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. 9 For this is the word of promise: "At Israel rejected Christ. In these verses Paul indicates that the things he mentions still belong to that nation.

"Adoption" - here means that God chose the nation of Israel to be His people (Deut 7:6; 14:1,2). They alone of all peoples of earth had the visible glory of God in their place of worship and the promise of that glory for the future (Ex 40:34,35; 1 Kings 8:11; Ezek 43:2-5; 44:4). Theirs are the covenants God made with them (Gen 15:18; Ex 24:8; 2 Sam 7:16; 23:5; Jer 31:31-33; 32:40). God gave His law only to them (Ex 20:1,2; Deut 4:8). They alone of all people in history had a way of worship given by God Himself (Exodus chapters 25-40; 1 Kings chapter 6). Theirs too are many promises scattered here and there throughout the Old Testament - promises of great blessing in the future. Theirs are the "fathers" - those whom God Himself chose to be the founders and leaders of the people - Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (11:28; Gen 12:1-3; Ex 3:6). And Jesus was born an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham and David.

"Christ, who is over all, God, forever blessed" - here is a plain declaration that Jesus Christ is God. Some versions have different translations of the Greek words here, but the translation above is in agreement with the Greek, and with other places in the Bible which show that Christ is God. See references at Phil 2:6 and Luke 2:11.

9:6 Israel as a people with all its advantages failed to receive Christ and His gospel. And God's kingdom was taken from them and given to others (John 1:11; Matt 21:42,43). Does this mean that God's Word had failed and His promises were broken? Paul says no. He then draws a distinction between two different kinds of Jews - those who were natural descendants of Israel and those individuals from among them God chose and called to Himself. The latter are the true Israel. See also 2:28,29; Matt 3:9; John 8:39-41.

9:7-9 See Gen 21:12. Abraham had other children (Gen 16:15; 25:1,2). But God chose only Isaac to be Abraham's heir and spiritual descendant. He was the child of "promise" - 4:18-21; Gen 15:4; 17:15,16; 18:10; 21:1-3. In other words, the covenant and promises God made with this time I will come, and Sarah will have a son."

10 And not only this, but also when Rebecca had conceived by one man, by our father Isaac 11 (the children being not yet born, never having done any good or evil, so that the purpose of God according to his choice might stand, not by works, but by him who calls), 12 it was said to her, "The older will serve the younger." 13 As it is written, "Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."

14 What, then, shall we say? Is there injustice with God? Absolutely not! 15 For he says to Moses,

"I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy,

Abraham did not include all his natural descendants, but only the ones God chose. 9:10-13 The same truth applied to Isaac's descendants. God chose only one of them, Jacob, to be the heir of Isaac and the leader of His people, the one in Abraham's line to inherit God's promises. The reason God chose Jacob and rejected Esau had nothing to do with the works they might do later. In His wisdom and grace God chose one and not the other, and God's Word was fulfilled in the one He chose.

Observe that God did not say "the older will go to hell, the younger to heaven", but "the older will serve the younger". The subject of chapters 9-11 is not individual salvation, but God's dealings with peoples and nations.

9:12 Gen 25:23.

9:13 Mal 1:2,3. On God's hatred see notes at Ps 5:5; Mal 1:3; Luke 14:26. God had a special love for Jacob which He showed in history. The history of Esau's descendants shows God did not have that same love for them. Paul quotes Malachi to prove the fulfillment of v 12 in history.

9:14-24 The rejection of the bulk of the nation of Israel in this age is perfectly just. The question of God's justice was bound to come up (v 14). The answer is that God is absolutely sovereign and may do as He pleases with men. All are sinners (3:9,23), and God could justly reject all. Instead of that He has chosen some to be His people. And this is perfectly just. No one has any right to reply against God and accuse Him of injustice (vs 20,21). God is God. He is the great King over the universe (Ps 47:1-3; Isa 40:22,23; Dan 4:34,35; Mal 1:14), and can do and does do according to His will.

God's choosing some and not all people has nothing to do with the doctrine of karma, with the idea of reincarnation, of previous births. (These have no reality. See notes at Job 11:12; John 9:3.)

It also has nothing to do with the arbitrary will of a tyrant or dictator. God is sovereign and can do as He wills in all matters. But we should understand that He is also love (1 John 4:9). And He always acts in accordance with His nature. He delights to show mercy when it is right to do so (10:12; 11:32; Ex 34:6,7; Micah 7:18).

and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion."

16 So then mercy is not of him who wills it, or of him who runs for it, but of God who shows mercy. 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very same purpose I have raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name might be declared through all the earth." 18 Therefore he has mercy on whom he chooses to have mercy, and hardens whom he chooses to harden.

19 You will, then, say to me, "Why does he still

And when it is not right to do so, because of the unrepentant determination of men to go on in their sins, and because His justice demands that such people be punished, His loving heart is grieved (see notes on Jer 48:30-39; Luke 19:41).

We should understand that these verses in Romans do not stand alone, and we must interpret them in the light of the whole Bible. Whatever may be the mysteries of God's sovereignty, foreknowledge and predestination, of one thing we may be sure - they will never cause Him to act contrary to the revelation He has given of Himself in His Word. God can do no wrong. All He does is based on absolute justice and absolute love. On that mighty rock our hearts can rest.

9:14 Gen 18:25; etc.

9:15 Ex 33:19.

9:16 God alone knows to whom He should show mercy and whom He should punish. And His mercy is free - He is not obligated to show it to anyone. Men cannot earn it by their efforts or force God to show it because they desire it. We should not get the idea from this that God is hardhearted and reluctant to show mercy. It is certain that if anyone will forsake his sins and turn to God He will have mercy on him (11:32; Isa 55:7). God does not have a severe will which is contrary to His merciful, compassionate, loving will. He shows mercy when He can, punishes when He must (see such notes and references at 10:20,21; Gen 6:7; Jer 48:30-39; Ezek 18:30-32; Luke 19:41-44). We can be sure that God's sovereignty will never work against His love, or cause Him to do a single unjust act toward anyone.

9:17 Ex 9:16; 7:17. God can act toward evil men in a way which will promote His own glory and increase the knowledge of Himself in the earth. And this is a great benefit, and a great mercy to the world.

9:18 See note on the hardening of Pharaoh at Ex 4:21. Pharaoh wanted God to be merciful and remove the plagues He sent on the country, but he did not want to repent and serve God. God punished his sin by abandoning him to further sin and hardness of heart. Compare 1:21-26,28. We can be sure that God will harden no one who does not fully deserve such punishment. And God is free to act as He thinks best in all cases.

9:19-21 Paul knew that men will try to blame find fault? For who has resisted his will?" 20 But who are you, O man, that you reply against God? Shall the thing formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?" 21 Does not the potter have power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel for honour, and another for dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to show his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction? 23 And did so that he might make known the riches of his glory to the vessels of mercy, whom he had already prepared for glory, 24 even us, whom he has called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? 25 As he says also in Hosea,

"I will call them my people, who were not my people;
and call her 'loved one' who was not loved".

26 And it will happen that in the place where

God for their sinful condition and hardness of heart, though actually they are the ones who are responsible for them. Compare Gen 3:12,13. Paul also knew that man the creature has no right to say anything against God the Creator. Even among men a potter can make the kind of pots he wants, and the pots have no say in the matter, and should have no say. Compare Isa 29:16; 45:9; 64:8; Jer 18:4-6.

We know from the account of creation in Genesis that God as a divine Potter made no bad vessels (Gen 1:31). A good, wise, and loving potter will not make ugly, depraved pots, and God is a good, wise, and loving Potter. If any pots are bad we can trace the source of their badness to man and to Satan, not to God.

Man's place is in the dust before God, confessing his own guilt and inability, and realizing that God is God and that He alone can make us what we ought to be. Instead of speaking against God or trying to blame Him for our condition, we should put ourselves willingly and believingly in His hands. He will then make us vessels for noble and glorious purposes.

"Same lump" (v 21) – all human beings have the same fallen, sinful nature (3:9,23; Eph 2:3). They have made themselves like bad clay, and do not deserve to be made into anything good. There is not among men some who are like good and noble clay and some like base and depraved clay. We are all of the "same lump" of humanity, all descended from the one man Adam and are all sinful (3:19; 5:12; 7:18).

9:22-24 God has a good purpose in all His dealings with mankind. It was beneficial to the whole world that people understand that God has great anger against sin and that He is a God who can do anything. He chose to display His wrath and power against Pharaoh and the Egyptians (v 17), and others in the history of mankind.

it was said to them,
"You are not my people", there they will be called the children of the living God.

27 Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel:

Though the number of the children of Israel be like the sand by the sea, only a remnant will be saved;

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness;
because the Lord will make a short work on the earth.

29 And as Isaiah said before, Unless the LORD of hosts had left us offspring, we would have been like Sodom, and become like Gomorrah.

30 What, then, shall we say? That the Gentiles, who did not follow after righteousness, have laid Here Paul distinguishes two groups "the vessels of wrath. . . prepared for destruction", and "the vessels of mercy whom he prepared for glory." In other words, believers and unbelievers, those whom God has chosen for salvation and those He has not chosen. Concerning believers Paul says God has prepared them for glory (compare 8:17,18). Concerning unbelievers he says only that they are prepared for destruction, but he does not say who prepared them. Since he does not say God did so, it is possible to assume that someone else prepared them, or else that they prepared themselves for that punishment.

On the basis of verses like 1:18-32; 2:4-11; Prov 1:24-33; Ezek 18:30-32; Matt 23:37; 1 Tim 2:3,4 we can believe that people prepare themselves for destruction. See also Matt 13:38,39; etc. See notes on God's wrath at 1:18; Num 25:3; Deut 4:25; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36. 9:24 "Gentiles" – 1:5,16. Paul means from the above that God has a perfect right to choose only a few from the nation Israel and reject the rest, and to be merciful to the Gentiles. In vs 25-29 he shows that all this is in accordance with the Old Testament. The word of God had not failed (v 6).

9:25 Hos 2:23. "Not my people" here means those people who were not of God's people Israel.

9:26 Hos 1:10.

9:27,28 Isa 10:22,23.

9:29 Isa 1:9. The nation had become so corrupt that if God had not chosen a few from among them the whole nation would have been utterly destroyed (Gen 19:23-25).

"LORD of hosts" – the meaning of "LORD of Sabaoth" (KJV). Note at 1 Sam 1:3.

9:30-32 The Jews worked at their religion. They had God's law and set about to become acceptable to God by trying to keep that law. But their attempts to be hold of righteousness, the very righteousness which is by faith. 31 But Israel, who followed after the law of righteousness, has not reached the law of righteousness. 32 Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as if it were by the works of the Law. For they stumbled at that stumbling stone. 33 As it is written,

Look, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and rock of offense, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved. 2 For I testify concerning them that they have a zeal for God. But it is not according to knowledge. 3 For they are ignorant of God's righteousness, righteous by their works ended in utter failure (3:9,19,20). The Gentiles did not have God's law and were not much concerned with righteousness. But when they heard the gospel of Christ they believed and "obtained" righteousness. God counted them righteous by faith (3:22,26,28; 5:1). The Jews, on the other hand, rejected the "stone" God put in Jerusalem, the Lord Jesus Christ (John 1:11; Matt 21:42; Acts 4:11; 1 Pet 2:6-8). Notice that Paul does not say the Jews failed because God predestined them to failure, but because of their own ways.

9:33 Isa 8:14; 28:16. "Zion" is Jerusalem. 10:1 See 9:1-3.

10:2,3 On the whole, the Jews were not atheists, or careless sinners (2:17-20). Paul saw their zeal and was moved with compassion for them. He could well remember his own religious zeal which had not been based on spiritual knowledge and understanding, and which had led him astray (Acts 8:1-3; 9:1,2; 22:3,4; 26:9-11; Phil 3:6). They were zealous in religion but lost. Zeal for God does not mean that those who have it know the God they are zealous about, or that they are pleasing to Him.

The Jews, like people in general, did not understand that God gives righteousness as a gift to those who believe Him (3:24; 4:4,5,13), and supposed they had to earn it by their religious works. They had not learned the truth God had revealed to them in their own Scriptures. And so they would not submit to God's way of righteousness – faith in Christ. They did what all men do by nature, if they have any religion at all – they tried to establish their own righteousness, to justify themselves, to earn salvation by their own efforts.

10:4 "Law" – 3:20,31; 4:15; 5:20; 6:14; 7:4,7,12,14; 8:3,4; Gal 3:19,23-25. Christ has severed the connection between the believer and the law of Moses.

10:5 Lev 18:5.

10:6-8 Deut 30:12-14. Was it right for Paul to apply the words of Moses (about 1400 and go about to establish their own righteousness, and so have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

5 For Moses describes the righteousness which is by the Law like this: "The man who does those things will live by them." 6 But the righteousness which is by faith speaks in this manner: Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above). 7 Or, Who will descend into the Abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the word of faith which we preach: 9 That if you will confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For with the heart man believes

B.C.) to the gospel of Christ? Of course it was right. God's Spirit enabled Paul to see the true spiritual meaning of the words of Moses.

10:7 "Abyss" – Rev 9:1,2,11; 11:7; 17:8; 20:1,3. The word here means the realm of the dead.

10:9,10 This is the "word of faith" Paul preached (v 8). Christ has already come down from heaven and God has already brought Christ up from the dead (1:3,4; 4:24,25; 8:32,34). Now if people want to receive the gift of God's righteousness, all that remains for them to do is to turn from sin and self-effort and believe in Christ. Observe that a belief in the physical resurrection of the Lord Jesus is essential to salvation. See 4:24,25; 1 Cor 15:1-8. It is a basic fact of the gospel. See the emphasis on this in the book of Acts – 1:3; 2:24; etc. If we do not believe this fact we show we do not believe the record God has caused to be written concerning His Son. To believe in Christ is to believe in Him risen from the dead.

Also the belief that Jesus is Lord is necessary. See John 8:24; Acts 2:36; 1 Cor 8:6; 12:3; Eph 4:5. Jesus is not a Lord, only one among many. He is the only divine Lord there is. Paul means that Jesus is the one who has absolute authority, the master and owner of all, the incarnation of the Lord (Jehovah) of the Old Testament (v 13; Luke 2:11; John 8:24,58. Notes at Ex 3:14,15).

Confession that Jesus is Lord is not a work of merit that causes God to have mercy on us and save us. It is not something else added to faith which men must do to be saved. It is evidence that faith is real. Faith working in the heart will cause the mouth to speak and confess Christ. See also Matt 10:32,33. We must always be doubtful about the faith of those who are ashamed or afraid to confess Christ. Faith without confession is defective, confession without faith is useless.

For a believer heartily to say "Jesus is for obtaining righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made for salvation. 11 For the Scripture says: "Whoever believes on him will not be put to shame." 12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich toward all who call out to him. 13 For whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

14 How, then, will they call out to him in whom they have not believed? And how will they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher? 15 And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

16 But not all of them have obeyed the gospel.

Lord" surely indicates that believer's willingness to receive Jesus as the Lord of his life and obey Him (see 14:9; Matt 7:21; John 3:36; Acts 5:32; Heb 5:9; 1 John 2:3,4). See the note at Acts 22:10. How could a believer even dream of saying or thinking "Jesus is Lord, but not my Lord. He may tell others what to do, but not me"? One of the things people need to repent of when they come to Christ is the sin of trying to be the master of their own life and refusing the Lordship of Christ.

Verse 10 brings to a close much of Paul's teaching in Romans on righteousness. By the inspiration of God's Spirit he has shown the following things:

God is absolutely, perfectly righteous

People have no righteousness of their own (1:18 - 3:19)

They are ignorant of God's way of giving righteousness (v 2)

Because they are ignorant of God's way they try to establish their own righteousness (v 3)

This is utterly impossible (3:20,28; 8:3)

The only way to be righteous before God is to have Christ's righteousness (3:22-26)

Christ's righteousness is obtained only by faith in Him (1:16,17; 4:5; 5:1)

Those whom God counts righteous will begin to live righteous lives (6:17,18; 8:4,13,14).

10:11 Isa 28:16. Compare Rom 1:16; 5:5.

10:12 "No difference" - 3:22,23,29,30. There is only one Lord - the Lord Jesus - and see here what His character is like. He delights in blessing people who come to Him. He wants them all to be rich in spiritual things. Compare 5:21; 2 Cor 8:9; 1 Tim 1:13,14.

10:13 Here Paul is quoting Joel 2:32 where the word translated LORD is Jehovah in Hebrew. Paul is here speaking of the Lord Jesus Christ (v 9). To call on the name of the Lord is to call on Jehovah. This is one more indication that Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah. See other references to this at Luke 2:11. In this context calling on His name is the same as believing in Him (v 14). See in this verse how God's offer of

For Isaiah says:

"Lord, who has believed our report?"

17 So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing through the word of God. 18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes indeed:

Their voice went into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did Israel not know? First, Moses says,

I will make you jealous by those who are not a nation, and I will make you angry by a foolish nation.

20 But Isaiah is very bold and says,

I was found by those who did not mercy and salvation is open to all. Note on salvation at 1:16.

10:14 Paul has concluded his presentation of the gospel which saves people and makes them righteous. It is good news indeed, but what good is good news if people do not hear it and believe it? So he emphasizes the necessity of preaching the good news, and of God's sending His servants to do so. See also Acts 1:8; John 20:21; Luke 24:46,47; Mark 16:15; Matt 28:18-20.

10:15 Isa 52:7. Those feet may be rough, cracked, bruised, and ugly from the many weary miles they have gone preaching the good news. But in God's eyes they are the most beautiful feet on earth because they are going on the most wonderful and important work.

10:16-21 Here Paul shows clearly that Israel's rejection of Christ and God's rejection of them was their own fault. They could not blame their rejection on some secret decrees of God.

10:16 This was their great sin and the cause of their rejection. When Christ came they would not receive Him (John 1:11). This was in accordance with their own Scripture - Isa 53:1.

10:17 Verse 14. See how faith comes to people.

10:18 Can God excuse the sin of the Jews because they did not hear the gospel? Not at all. They did hear it. Ps 19:4 speaks of the witness of creation. Paul's meaning seems to be that in the years between the death and resurrection of Christ and the time he was writing this letter the gospel had gone forth to the Jews everywhere, as the witness of creation did. See Acts 1:8; 2:36; 13:14-16; 17:1,2,10; 18:5; 19:8.

10:19-21 Can God ignore the sin of the Jews in rejecting the gospel because they did not understand it? Not at all. Paul quotes three verses from the Old Testament to show that they understood far more than the Gentiles who received the gospel.

10:19 Deut 32:21. The contrast is between a "foolish" nation (Gentiles) with the Jews who at least had some understanding.

10:20,21 Isa 65:1,2. The Gentiles did not seek me;

I was revealed to those who did not ask for me.

- 21 But to Israel he says,
All day long I have stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contradicting people.

11 I say then, Has God cast away his people? Absolutely not! For I myself am an Israelite, of the descendants of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God has not cast away his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah? This is how he pleads with God against Israel and says,

- 3 Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life.

- 4 But what does the answer of God say to him?
I have reserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal.

- 5 So also at this present time there is a even have enough understanding to seek the true God. Israel did have, yet did not find God. And the cause of this was Israel's stubborn disobedience. The picture here is of God standing before the people holding out loving hands, offering them great things, patient, compassionate, longing for their salvation. Compare Matt 23:37; Jud 2:10-19; Hos 11:8. Can we think that such a God will predestinate people to hell before they are born, because He is sovereign and can do so if He wants to?

11:1-10 Chapters 9, 10, and 11 form a unit. The subject is the fall of the nation Israel. Paul shows in chapter 10 that their fall was their own fault, not God's. In chapter 11 he shows that in spite of their unbelief and hardness of heart, God still has a gracious purpose toward them and will eventually bring the nation back to Himself.

This whole chapter is an answer to the question asked in this first verse – "has God cast away his people?" Paul says "no." He, a Jew, was evidence that God had not. He might have said also that all the original apostles and those who made up the first church in Jerusalem were Jews. And many other churches throughout the Roman Empire had believing Jews as members, even though the nation as a whole was hardened and disobedient. There were some who believed and obeyed God. The situation was similar to that in Elijah's day (more than 850 years before Christ). See 1 Kings 19:14-18.

11:5 On the basis of grace alone God chose those who believed from the whole nation. His choice had nothing to do with their merit and worthiness or the lack of them – 3:24.

remnant according to the choice of grace. 6 And if by grace, then it is no longer by works. Otherwise grace would no longer be grace. But if it is by works, then it is no longer by grace. Otherwise work would no longer be work.

7 What then? Israel did not obtain what it sought, but the chosen ones obtained it. And the rest were blinded. 8 As it is written,

God has given them a spirit of apathy, eyes so that they would not see, and ears so that that would not, to this day.

- 9 And David says,
Let their table become a snare and a trap and a stumbling block and a retribution to them.
- 10 Let their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and permanently bend down their backs.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled so that they should utterly fall? Absolutely not! Rather, through their failure salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. 12 Now if their failure means riches for the world, and their

11:6 See 4:5.

11:7 See 9:30-32. Many in Israel were "blinded." First, they refused the light God gave. Then God punished them by making it so that they would not see the light. See Isa 6:9,10.

11:8 Deut 29:4; Isa 29:10. Compare Isa 6:9,10 and Matt 13:13-15.

11:9,10 Ps 69:22,23.

11:11 From here to v 32 Paul speaks of the large part of the nation Israel which was hardened and stumbled and fell (9:32,33). Has the nation fallen forever with no hope of recovery? Will it rise no more? Is God finished with Israel as a people now that He is working in and with the Church of the New Testament? Paul answers clearly – God is not finished with the nation Israel. He still has purposes regarding it and will bring it back to Himself (compare Acts 1:6,7). He begins by saying that God had a good purpose even in their fall. They were disobedient and hardened and so they rejected and crucified God's Son. But this all resulted in good for the world as a whole (Acts 2:22-24). God worked through their evil actions to provide the gospel to everyone. And when they later rejected the gospel God turned to other nations, here called "Gentiles" (compare 1:16; Acts 13:46; Matt 21:42,43).

11:12 Paul's logic is plain. Through their sin the riches of the Gospel have come to the whole world, so their "fullness" will surely mean greater riches. Paul does not say "if" they receive fullness it will mean greater riches. He simply states the fact of their future fullness. Their "fullness" means that they as a nation will fully turn to God and God will fully fulfill His promises to them (Isa 2:1-5; 11:1-9; Jer 23:5-8; loss means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches their fulness will bring!

13 For I am speaking to you Gentiles. Since I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I honour my ministry, 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are of my flesh and blood, and save some of them. 15 For if their rejection means reconciliation for the world, what will their reception mean but life from the dead? 16 For if what is offered as firstfruits is holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches have been broken off, and you, being from a wild olive tree, have been grafted in among the branches, and share with them in the root and fatness of the olive tree, 18 do not boast against the branches. But if you boast remember that you do not support the root, but the root supports you. 19 You will say then, The branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. 20 Well yes, but because of Ezek 37:21-28; Zech 14:9,16,21).

On "riches" see 2:4; 10:12; 2 Cor 8,9; Eph 1:7,18; 2:7; 3:8,16; Phil 4:19; Col 1:27. 11:13 Gal 2:7.

11:14 Verse 11; 10:1,19. "People" – literally "flesh", as we would say "flesh and blood."

11:15 Verse 12. Paul speaks of the time when God will accept the nation as a whole. That will be "life from the dead". Some scholars think this refers to the literal resurrection of the dead (John 5:28,29). Others think it means that the conversion of Israel will result in a time of wonderful spiritual life and blessing to the whole world (see 8:20-23; Acts 3:21; Matt 19:28). Perhaps it means both.

11:16 "Firstfruit" – Num 15:17-21. Here "firstfruit" means either God's chosen few among the Jews who had accepted Christ (v 5), or the very first of the nation – Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, or even Christ Himself (though this is not so likely). The point Paul makes is the same in either case – namely, the whole nation of Israel even in their fallen, unbelieving condition is still "holy." Holy here means set apart for God's good purpose. See note at Lev 20:7,8.

The "root" seems more definitely to refer to Abraham, Israel and Jacob, or perhaps to Abraham alone (4:1). The nation sprung from them was God's special people and holy nation (Deut 7:6; 14:2). Paul says it has not ceased to be so (v 29).

11:17-24 The "olive tree" before the Jews rejected Christ was the nation Israel, grown out of the "root" Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. "Some" branches of the nation (in fact, most of the nation) were broken off because of unbelief (vs 17,20). In their place Gentile Christians have been "grafted in" (v 17,19; Matt 21:43). Gentiles were like a "wild" olive tree (v 24). By nature they had no connection with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob or with the "olive tree" that sprung from unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but have fear. 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, he may not spare you either.

22 See, therefore, the goodness and severity of God; severity on those who failed, but goodness toward you, if you continue in his goodness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off. 23 And they, if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in also. For God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut from an olive tree which is wild by nature, and, contrary to nature, were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more easily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brethren, so that you may not be wise in your own opinion: Partial blindness has happened to Israel until the fulness of the Gentiles comes in. 26 And so all Israel will be saved. As it is written, them. Now through Christ they have been brought into a relationship with Abraham (grafted into the "cultivated" tree – v 24).

Paul gives a warning to these Gentile Christians (v 13). They must not boast against fallen Israel (v 18), must fear rather than be arrogant (v 20). If God broke off Israelite branches and grafted in Gentile ones, He can also break of Gentile ones and graft in Israelite ones.

Does this "breaking off" suggest that saved individuals may lose their salvation? No. That is not Paul's subject at all. The "olive tree" is not the spiritual body of Christ. In the Old Testament and in Christ's days on earth the olive tree was the whole nation of Israel including both believers and unbelievers. Only unbelievers were broken off, and the bulk of the nation remains to this day in that condition. God has laid them aside for this age, grafted Gentiles into His tree and works through them to fulfill His purposes in the earth. But Gentile churches may fall into arrogance and unbelief just as the Jews did. Paul says they should be "afraid", for if they follow the way of fallen Israel God will treat them as He did fallen Israel (vs 21,22). And if Israel turns in faith to Christ they will be grafted back into their own olive tree (v 24. See note at Acts 1:6).

11:25 Paul did not want Gentile Christians to be ignorant or conceited. He knew they could become so if they persuaded themselves that God is finished with Israel and that all His promises made to Israel now belong to the Church of the New Testament. Paul tries to prevent this by making some very clear statements about Israel. He calls this teaching a "mystery" – something men cannot know unless God reveals it to them. Israel is "blinded" only "until the fulness (of full number) of Gentiles has come in." Paul implies that then this blindness of heart and mind will be taken away.

11:26,27 "All Israel" – it seems clear that

The Deliverer will come out of Zion, and will turn ungodliness away from Jacob.

27 For this is my covenant with them, when I take away their sins.

28 Concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes, but concerning the choice of God, they are loved for the sake of the fathers. 29 For the gifts and calling of God are not to be withdrawn. 30 For just as you in time past were not obedient to God, yet now have obtained mercy because of their disobedience, 31 even so now these also have been disobedient, so that through the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy. 32 For

Paul means the nation as a whole in existence when the full number of the Gentiles has come in. (This time has still not come.) For proof of this statement Paul points to Isa 59:20,21; 27:9. "Zion" means Jerusalem. "Jacob" means the people of Israel. "Covenant" means the new covenant God promised He would make with Israel - Jer 31:31-34.

11:28 "Enemies" - unbelieving Jews did all they could to fight the preaching of the gospel and prevent Gentiles coming to Christ (1 Thess 2:14-16).

"They are loved" - in spite of its unbelief and evil behavior God still loves the nation Israel. This is because of the "fathers" (Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob).

11:29 Compare Mal 3:6. Though God has laid aside Israel during this age, He has not changed His mind about that people. He still counts them His nation. Some of His gifts to them are seen in 9:4,5.

11:30,31 The Gentile believers were once unbelieving and lost, just as unbelieving Jews are now. But as God had mercy on the Gentiles so will He have mercy on His own fallen nation.

11:32 Compare Gal 3:23,24. God in just judgment gave the Gentiles up to the wickedness of their own hearts (1:24-32). And God punished the Jews by hardening them, and they in their disobedient condition crucified His Son (11:7,8). All were locked up in sin and disobedience. In this way He revealed that His mercy was the only hope for anyone, Jew or Gentile. And we see in this verse that all of God's mysterious dealings with the nation was with a loving, gracious purpose in mind - to show mercy to all. He is not the kind of God who delights to harden and punish men. Mercy is His delight (Micah 7:18,19; Lam 3:31-33; etc).

But we should not misunderstand this verse. The Bible does not teach that all individuals will finally be saved. Those who reject Christ and die in their sins will be lost forever (2:5,6; 6:23; John 3:36; Rev 21:8). "Mercy on all" here may mean all nations whether Jew or Gentile. In showing mercy God does not distinguish between them, and the salvation of both Gentiles and Jews is intimately connected in the plan of God.

11:33-36 Paul has concluded his

God has confined them all in disobedience, so that he might have mercy on all.

33 Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! 34 For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counsellor? 35 Or who has first given to him, that it should be repaid to the giver? 36 For of him and through him and to him are all things; to whom be glory forever. Amen.

12 Therefore, brethren, because of the mercies of God, I plead with you to present presentation of the meaning of the gospel and God's dealings with the Jews and the Gentiles. He well knows he has not explained everything. There are mysteries beyond his understanding, and depths in God's wisdom no human mind can fathom. So now he lets God be God, and praises Him.

11:33 The more we learn God's Word and understand the revelation of Himself He has given, the more we will see that He is infinitely above us in wisdom as in everything else. He knows all that He is doing in the world. We can know only the little He has revealed. Instead of criticizing His ways and complaining about His dealings with us and others (as many do), we must learn to trust and praise Him and to submit our puny minds to His eternal wisdom. Compare Job 40:3-5; 42:1-6.

11:34 Isa 40:13. See the context of this quotation (Isa 40:12-26). It gives us a beautiful picture of the greatness of God. In creation and in the administration of the world God has not needed the advice of any man.

11:35 Job 41:11. God is not a debtor to men. He does not owe salvation or anything else to anyone. His dealings with men are all on the basis of grace and mercy. Because all are disobedient to Him He could justly withhold all the necessities of life from all men and send them into hell.

11:36 "Of Him" - God is the Creator.

"Through Him" - God sustains and rules the world.

"To Him" - all things in the world serve God's purposes. They exist for Him, not for themselves. Let us all learn with Paul to ascribe all glory to Him, for He alone is worthy of any.

12:1 Paul has concluded the doctrinal part of this letter. He has shown that all are sinners and deserve nothing but God's anger, and he has revealed something of the greatness of God's mercy. From here on to the end of this letter he writes of the practical daily life that believers should live because God has been merciful to them. What good is all the wonderful truth revealed in chapters 1-11 to those who read it but remain unchanged and disobedient to it?

The first thing we must all do, of course, is to give ourselves completely to God. In Old Testament days priests in Israel offered animal sacrifices which were slain. Now believers - the priests of the New your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God. 3 For by the grace given to me, I say to everyone who is among you, one should not think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but should think soberly, according to the measure of faith God has distributed to each one.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same function, 5 so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and each one a member belonging to every other. 6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, if the gift is prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; 7 or if it is serving, let him be active in serving; or he who teaches, let him be active in teaching; 8 or he who exhorts, let him exhort; he who gives, let him do it generously; he who leads, let him do it with diligence; he who shows mercy, let him do it cheerfully.

9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. 10 Be devoted to one another in brotherly love, in the matter of honour put others above yourself. 11 Do not be backward in zeal, but be fervent in spirit, serving the Lord, 12 rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, persevering in prayer, 13 distributing to the needs Testament (Rev 1:6; 1 Pet 2:5,9; Heb 13:15,16) – must offer a living sacrifice, their own bodies for God to use for His glory (6:13,19; 1 Cor 6:13,19,20). This is the sort of worship God wants, not mere words. This kind of sacrifice is “holy” and “acceptable” to Him.

12:2 “World” – the New Testament has much to say about the world of men.

The world does not know God (John 1:10)
It loves spiritual darkness (John 3:19)

It hates Christ and His followers (John 7:7; 15:19)

Its “ruler” and “god” is Satan (John 12:31; 2 Cor 4:4)

It cannot receive God’s Spirit (John 14:17)

Its wisdom is like foolishness (1 Cor 1:20; 3:19)

It is only temporary (1 Cor 7:31; 2 Cor 4:18)

It is without God and without hope (Eph 2:12)

Its friendship is enmity with God (James 4:4)

It is corrupt (1 Pet 1:4)

It is filled with pride and lust (1 John 2:15-17)

It is in wickedness (1 John 5:19)

No wonder Paul tells believers not to be “conformed” to it. There are powerful forces in the world that mold its people and cause them to behave in evil ways.

Believers are to be “transformed” into the likeness of Christ. Transformation is an inner work of God’s Spirit. Believers are to do more than outwardly avoid the ways of the world – their inner life also is to be altogether different. This takes place by the “renewing” of their minds (Eph 4:22,23). Thoughts are extremely important. To a very large extent they will govern how believers behave.

The only way to live a transformed life is to keep our thoughts under control and have our minds filled with God’s truth (8:5,6; 2 Cor 10:5; Col 3:16; Ps 1:1-3; Phil 2:5; 4:8; Heb 8:10). We are to love God with all our mind (Matt 22:37). This is the “renewal” we need. Those who will not give themselves to God, and who do not cooperate with God’s Spirit in the work of inner transformation, will not be able to find out what God’s will is for them. If we wish to know and follow that perfect will, we must do what He tells us here.

12:3 2 Cor 10:12; Gal 6:3. Paul begins here to speak of the transformed lives believers should live. Notice that he begins with their minds, specifically with their thoughts about themselves. Observe, too, that God may give more faith to some than to others (1 Cor 12:9).

12:4-8 Believers are united by God’s Spirit to form one spiritual “body.” See John 17:21-23; 1 Cor 12:12,13; Eph 4:15,16; 5:23. In this spiritual body each believer belongs to all the others (v 5), and God has given each person one or more talents (“gifts”) or abilities so that he or she can be of use to others in the body. Each person should find out what his ability is and use it for God’s glory and for the good of others. See 1 Cor 12:7-11,27-31; Eph 4:11-13.

12:6 “Prophecy” – notes at Num 11:25; 1 Cor 12:10,28.

12:9-21 Here is a beautiful picture of the transformed life believers should live. It means showing love toward fellow believers (vs 9,10,13,15,16), toward Christ (vs 11,12), and toward enemies (vs 14,19-21).

12:9 “Hypocrisy” – it is all too possible to pretend to love others because of some supposed benefit. Believers must not act so.

“Hate” – if we love God as we should, we will learn to hate all that is opposed to God – Ps 97:10. We should love people as Christ did, but hate the evil in them (and in ourselves).

12:10 John 13:34; 15:12,17.

12:11 1 Cor 15:58; Titus 2:14. If we love God as we ought we will be zealous in His service. In fact, our love for Him will be revealed by what we do for His sake, not by what we say. Compare John 2:17.

12:12 See 5:2-5; Luke 18:1; Eph 6:18; 1 Thess 5:17.

12:13 Love must be practical, and sometimes it will be costly – 1 John 3:16-18; Matt 25:34-40.

“Distributing” – sharing with others what one has, not merely distributing what others may give. See note and references on giving at 2 Cor 9:15.

“Hospitality” – how few show such of the saints, eager to show hospitality.

14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. 16 Be harmonious in your thoughts toward one another. Do not think highly of yourself, but associate with men in low positions. Do not think you are a wise one.

17 Do not pay back to anyone evil for evil. Take thought for what is excellent in the sight of all men. 18 If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with everyone. 19 Dear friends, do not take revenge, but leave room for God's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the Lord." 20 Therefore, "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. For in doing this you will heap coals of fire on his head."

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 Every person should be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no eagerness!

12:14 Matt 5:43-48; 1 Pet 2:21-23.

12:15 1 Cor 12:25-27; Gal 6:2. Believers are not to be hard, cold and selfish but must share in the joys and sorrows of others.

12:16 Acts 4:32; Eph 4:2,3. Pride, conceit, and exalting oneself over others disturb the harmony and unity of believers. In Christ those in low positions and in high places are all one and should act like it – Acts 6:1; 1 Cor 12:13; Gal 3:28. Pride and disunity because of caste, or resulting from pride of positions in society or in the church are abominable to God.

12:17,18 Verse 21; Matt 5:38-41. Believers represent Christ on earth. Good behavior will bring honor to Him, bad behavior will cause Him to be dishonored. Compare 2:24; 1 Pet 2:9; Heb 12:14.

12:19 Deut 32:35. The desire for revenge is a source of great trouble for individuals, families and nations. It must have no place in the hearts of Christ's people. Notes at Matt 5:38-44; 2 Thess 1:6-9; Ps 94:1; Num 31:1-3; Nahum 1:2,7.

12:20 Prov 25:21,22; Luke 6:27,28; 1 Pet 2:21-23. To hurt those who hurt us is to try to overcome evil with evil. It is allowing the evil acts of others to cause us to disobey God's plain orders and act in an evil way.

13:1-7 Believers in Christ have been brought into God's kingdom. They owe their primary loyalty to the King of kings Jesus Christ. But they are still in the world and in one or another of man's kingdoms. These verses show how they are to behave toward government authorities.

13:1 This does not mean that all rulers and government officials are good men who obey God. (When Paul wrote these words one of the worst emperors the Romans – or any nation – ever had, Nero, was in power.) But authority except from God; the authorities that exist have been determined by God.

2 Therefore, whoever resists the authority is resisting what God has arranged, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves. 3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Do you want to be without fear of the authority? Do what is good, and you will receive praise from him. 4 For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who does evil. 5 Therefore you need to be subject to the authorities, not only because of wrath, but also because of conscience.

6 For this reason you also pay taxes; for they are God's ministers, attending continually to this very thing. 7 Therefore, give to all their due; tax to whom tax is due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

8 Do not owe anyone anything, except to love one another. For he who loves others has fulfilled in spite of their errors, sins, failures, and corruption, governments are appointed by God (Ps 75:2-7; Dan 4:34-35). Sometimes God will permit evil rulers to gain power as a punishment to a people for their sins. But even a bad government is better than no government at all. Anarchy – a complete breakdown of government – is the worst state a country can come to, for then there is no governing power to restrain any evil.

It is the duty of Christians to obey their government because God has appointed it (vs 2,5,7). There is one exception to this rule – if the laws of a country or the commands of certain officials are contrary to the Word of God, believers should disobey men and obey God. See Acts 4:18-20; 5:28,29.

13:4 "God's minister" – this does not mean that rulers are consciously or willingly doing service to God (though some of course may do so). They are simply instruments in God's hands in His rule over the earth.

13:6,7 Matt 22:21; 1 Pet 2:17. If a believer is dishonest in the matter of paying taxes, etc, he is sinning against God.

13:8 Debt is something to be avoided. It is a trap that catches the careless. It can bring much bondage and misery. The custom of going into debt for special occasions like marriages, etc, or to buy unnecessary things, is surely wrong for believers. The rule of life for believers should be contentment with what they have (Phil 4:12; 1 Tim 6:6-8; Heb 13:5), and faith that God will supply all they need (Matt 6:33; Phil 4:19). People who will not pay their debts, when they are able to pay, are no better than thieves – they take and use what does not belong to them. But there is one debt all believers have and which they must make continued efforts to pay – the duty of loving one another (12:9,10; John 13:34).

the Law. 9 For the commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, You shall not covet, and any other commandment there may be, are summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." 10 Love does no harm to a neighbour, so love is the fulfilling of the Law.

11 And do that, knowing the present time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. 12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Let us, therefore, cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. 13 Let us walk decently, as in the daylight, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and unbridled lust, not in strife and envy. 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its cravings.

14 Receive the one who is weak in the faith, but not to dispute about doubtful matters.

13:9 Exodus chapter 20; Lev 19:18.

13:11-14 Spiritually speaking, the world is a dark place (John 3:19,20), but believers are children of the light (Matt 5:14; John 12:36; Eph 5:8). Here is how God wants them to behave.

13:11,12 Neither Paul, nor any other apostle, knew the day of Christ's second coming. He was eagerly looking forward to it and he wanted all believers to have the same expectant attitude he had. The Holy Spirit inspired him to use language suitable for every generation of believers. Compare Matt 24:36,42,44.

"Salvation" (v 11) here means the completion of the salvation believers already have. Compare 8:23; 1 Pet 1:9.

"Armour of light" - this means that truth when applied to the lives of believers acts as a protection against sin and Satan. Compare Eph 6:11-17. To put it on is to understand it and make use of it as Christ Himself did in Matt 4:1-11.

13:13 1 Cor 6:9-11; Eph 5:3-6; Col 3:5-8.

13:14 The Lord Jesus is in believers (8:9; 2 Cor 13:5).

"Put on" here speaks of the outward life. It means that the behavior of believers should be in accordance with the ways of Christ who is in them. Compare Eph 4:22-24. We must apply His truth to our behavior. Observe that Paul recognizes that the sinful nature with its desires is still in believers. Compare 7:18; 8:13; Gal 5:16,17. See the importance of the thoughts in getting victory over the sinful nature. See 8:5; 12:2.

14:1 Here is the general principle Paul teaches. In vs 2-6 he gives two examples of matters which believers may disagree about. His purpose is to show that Christians are to be helpers of each other, not judges (Matt 7:1-5). Each believer should

2 For one believes that he may eat everything; another, who is weak in the faith, eats only vegetables. 3 The one who eats everything should not look down on him who does not eat, and the one who does not eat should not judge the one who eats, for God has received him. 4 Who are you who judges another person's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he will surely be caused to stand, for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man thinks one day is above another, someone else thinks every day is the same. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He who regards a day as special, regards it so to the Lord, and he who does not regard a day as special, does not regard it so to the Lord. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, does not eat to the Lord, and gives God thanks. 7 For none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself. 8 For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

accept all other believers who are trying to live for Christ (but see also 1 Cor 5:9-13; 2 Thess 3:6).

Believers must judge evil behavior, but not condemn fellow believers who disagree with them about comparatively unimportant matters. Separation from other believers over such matters is utterly wrong (12:16; Eph 4:3). Of course there are fundamental truths of the faith which must be preached and defended even at the cost of separation from other Christians who reject them. But Paul is not speaking of these matters here in this chapter.

14:2 Believers in this age of grace may eat anything. They are not under any kind of dietary laws (v 14; Mark 7:18,19; Acts 10:9-16; 1 Tim 4:3-5). But some believers have not yet understood this, and think they must not eat certain foods. They may base this opinion on the dietary laws of the Old Testament (Leviticus chapter 11) which are no longer in force.

14:3,4 Here is an important principle. Believers must accept and love one another. Those who have more understanding must not think they are superior to others, and those whose personal rules are being broken should not condemn those who break them. All are servants of the Lord Jesus, and only He has the right to judge them. Believers must not reject any of those whom God has accepted.

14:5,6 Some Jewish believers thought they should continue to keep the Sabbaths and other special days God appointed in the Old Testament for the nation of Israel. Other believers realized that such rules were not binding on Christians. The principle of vs 3,4 applies to this also.

"Thanks" - see Matt 14:19.

14:7-12 Each believer is a servant of God and is answerable to God alone. He belongs

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living. 10 But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you put your brother down? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. 11 For it is written,

As I live, says the Lord,
every knee will bow to me,
and every tongue will confess to God.

12 So then every one of us will give an account of himself to God.

13 Therefore, let us no longer judge one another, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an obstacle in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that no food is unclean in itself. But to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 But if your brother is grieved by the food you eat, then you are not behaving in a loving way. With your food do not ruin one for whom Christ died. 16 Let not then your good be spoken of as evil. 17 For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God, and to the Lord (vs 7,8; 1 Cor 6:19,20). Each one must walk in the light he has here on earth and each must stand before the judge in heaven (vs 10,12; 2 Cor 5:10; Rev 22:12). No one else has any right to control the lives of believers or condemn them.

14:9 See 10:9; Acts 2:32-36; Phil 2:8-11. Notes on "Lord" at 10:9,10,13; Matt 22:41-45; Luke 2:11.

14:11 Isa 49:18; 45:23.

14:13-21 These verses give another very important principle. Each believer must learn to live for the good of others and not to please himself. See 15:1-3; 1 Cor 10:24,33; 9:19-23; 8:9-12. Eating this thing or that, or refusing to eat it, is a small matter in itself. But if it grieves or offends someone else it is no longer a small matter. We must not insist on doing what we want regardless of the effect it has on other believers. Christ died for those believers. Don't we care enough about them to change any habit which strikes a blow at their faith?

The important thing in God's kingdom is not being able to eat or drink what one wants, or having personal freedom in all matters of dispute (v 1). It is to act in a way that promotes the basic elements of God's kingdom – righteousness, peace and joy (v 17). Doing as we please will promote none of these. See Paul's attitude in 1 Cor 8:13. A good rule to follow is 1 Cor 10:31.

In Romans this is the only time Paul uses the words "kingdom of God." Note on this kingdom at Matt 4:17.

14:15 Note at 1 Cor 8:11.

14:22,23 Keeping the conscience clear and approved by men.

19 Therefore, let us follow after the things that make for peace, and things with which we can build one another up. 20 For food do not demolish the work of God. All food is indeed clean, but it is evil for that man who eats giving offense. 21 It is good not to eat flesh, or to drink wine, or to do anything that causes your brother to stumble or be offended or be made weak.

22 Do you have a belief about something? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves.

23 And he who eats with doubt is condemned if he eats, because he does not eat from faith. For whatever is not of faith is sin.

15 We then who are strong ought to bear with the scruples of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to build him up. 3 For even Christ did not please himself, but, as it is written, The insults of those who insulted you fell on me.

4 For whatever things were written previously were written for our instruction, so that we, through patient endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures, might have hope.

free from accusations of guilt is very important. If we permit ourselves to do something against the warnings of conscience, we sin and make ourselves unclean. If we cannot do something with the assurance that it is all right we must not do it. Compare 1 Tim 1:19. Note on conscience at Acts 23:1.

To sum up this chapter: we must live for the Lord and receive His judgments on our actions (vs 8,10,12). Therefore our great aim should be to please Him. We must live on earth with our brothers and sisters in Christ. Therefore our chief purpose toward them all must be to build them up in the faith and to do nothing that might unnecessarily offend any of them (vs 15,19,21). And we must live with ourselves. Therefore let us keep ourselves from being condemned by our own hearts and consciences.

15:1,2 See 14:1,19-21; 1 Cor 12:25; Gal 6:1,2. Compare Luke 9:23. Christ did not call us to please and pamper self, but to put self to death.

15:3 Ps 69:9; John 8:29. Because Christ represented God the Father on earth He had to endure all the world's rejection, insults, and scorn. If He had tried to please Himself He could have avoided all that. But His one aim in life was to please God no matter what happened. He is our example.

15:4 There are many fine examples in the Old Testament ("the Scriptures") of people who did not please themselves but lived for God and others. We must learn from them. Observe that "everything" in the OT is for our instruction. If we neglect any part of it we are keeping ourselves in ignorance of

5 Now the God of patience and encouragement grant you to be of the same mind toward one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, 6 that you may, with one mind and one mouth, glorify God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. 7 Therefore receive one another, just as Christ received us, to the glory of God. 8 Now I say that Jesus Christ became a servant to the circumcised for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers, 9 and to cause the Gentiles to glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,

For this cause I will confess you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name.

10 And again he says,
Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again,
Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; and laud him, all you people.

12 And again, Isaiah says,
There will be a root of Jesse, important truth. And we will miss things which will encourage us and help us to endure all we as believers have to face in this world. See also 2 Tim 3:16,17.

"Encouragement" – the Greek word here also means "comfort."

15:5,6 "Of the same mind" – 12:16; 14:19; Eph 4:3.

"Glorify" – this should be the one great aim of every believer in everything they do (1 Cor 10:31).

15:7 See 14:1,3.

15:8 "Servant" – see Matt 15:24; 20:28; Luke 22:27; Phil 2:7; Isa 42:1. Christ as a servant for the Jews did not abolish the promises God made to them in the Old Testament. He confirmed them. See 9:4,5; 11:26,27. To confirm them means to make their fulfillment sure. By His death and resurrection Christ laid the foundation for the fulfillment of all God's promises.

15:9 But all along Christ had the Gentiles also in mind. Paul shows this by referring to verses in the Old Testament. This first one is Ps 18:49. The picture is Christ praising God among Gentile peoples.

15:10 Deut 32:43. Gentiles join in happy fellowship with Jews ("His people").

15:11 Ps 117:1.

15:12 Isa 11:10.

15:13 The "God of hope" means the God who inspires hope in His people and fulfills it. The hope is of final salvation (5:2-5; 8:23-25). It is produced by the Holy Spirit in the hearts of believers. Peace and joy are also produced by God's Spirit (Gal 5:22). They are natural elements of God's kingdom (14:17). They were both promised by Christ to His obedient disciples (John 14:27; 15:11). God wants believers to be filled with them. Only then will they behave towards others as they and he who will rise to reign over the Gentiles.

In him the Gentiles will trust.

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may overflow with hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

14 And I myself am persuaded about you, my brethren, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another. 15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written very boldly to you on some points, as a reminder to you, because of the grace that is given to me by God, 16 that I should be a servant of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 Therefore I have reason to glory in Jesus Christ in the things of God. 18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ has not done through me to make the Gentiles obedient. But by word and deed, 19 through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, I ought, and praise God and live for His glory as they ought. Believers should learn to reject anything which robs them of their peace and joy or dims their hope.

15:14 Goodness is another fruit of God's Spirit (Gal 5:22). Ability to instruct each other is what all believers should have (Heb 5:11-14; 1 Thess 5:14).

15:15 See 1:8. Compare 2 Pet 1:12; 3:1; Jude 5; 2 Tim 2:14. It is very easy for spiritual truth to slip away and be forgotten. We all need constant reminders.

15:16 Acts 22:21; Gal 2:7; Eph 3:8. Paul's great task was proclaiming the gospel (1:1).

"Offering up" – this was a duty of priests. Paul was not suggesting that he was a priest in contrast to ordinary believers (all believers are priests – see 1 Pet 2:5,9; Rev 1:6; 5:10; 20:6; Heb 10:19-22). Paul did not offer any sacrifices or offerings for the Gentiles. The Gentiles themselves were the "offering." Those who believed the gospel became an acceptable offering to God because they were sanctified by the Holy Spirit (compare 12:1). This means they were set apart by Him to be among the people of God. Notes on sanctification at John 17:17-19.

15:17,18 Paul did not glory (boast) in himself. His service was in Christ and his rejoicing was in Christ. He did not think it was by his ability or power that his work was accomplished. He used different language when speaking about himself – 7:18; Eph 3:8; 1 Tim 1:15.

15:19 Acts 14:8,9; 16:18,25,26; 19:11,12; 2 Cor 12:11,12. From Jerusalem to Illyricum (an area northwest of Greece and Macedonia) was a very large region, including Syria, central and western Turkey, Greece and Macedonia.

have fully preached the gospel of Christ from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum. 20 And I have made it my ambition to preach the gospel where Christ was not named, so that I would not be building upon another man's foundation, 21 but as it is written,

To whom he was not spoken of,
they will see,
and those who have not heard will understand.

22 For this reason also I have been much hindered from coming to you. 23 But now, having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you, 24 when I take my journey to Spain, I will come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be sent on my way there by you, if first I can enjoy your company for a while.

25 But now I am going to Jerusalem to minister to the saints. 26 For it has pleased those of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints who are at 15:20,21 Here was the principle which guided Paul in his service. The quotation is from Isa 52:15. Paul was usually traveling, wanting to reach the unreached, desiring to give all men in his generation an opportunity to hear Christ's gospel. In this he is an example to all of us. Compare Matt 28:18-20; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:46,47; Acts 1:8. 15:22,23 See 1:10-13. He wanted to finish his work in that large region before moving on to new areas.

15:24 Spain is a country across the sea to the west of Italy. Here and v 28 are the only places the Bible refers to it by name. Paul must now have been nearing 60 years of age, but he was looking for new fields of service. The assistance Paul mentions in this verse was not financial. Asking for money for himself and his work was not his way. He was referring to the custom of sending one or more brothers at least part way on a journey with someone traveling. See Acts 15:3; 20:38; 21:5; 1 Cor 16:6,11; 2 Cor 1:16.

15:25-27 2 Cor 8:1-5. This principle applies now as well. It is always the duty of those who have received spiritual benefits to share their material things with those who were the channels of those spiritual benefits. See 1 Cor 9:7-14.

15:28 "Fruit" - here means financial assistance. Neither the Bible nor history tells us whether Paul ever got to Spain.

15:29 Paul did get to Rome - as a prisoner of the Roman government (Acts 28:16). But his faith here was fulfilled. The full measure of the blessing of Christ to him did not mean ease, luxury, abundance of possessions, or a full purse. It meant peace and joy in the heart and God's power to serve and proclaim the gospel. Outward circumstances meant little to that man of God.

Jerusalem. 27 It has pleased them indeed, and they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things. 28 Therefore when I have accomplished this, and have made certain that they get this fruit, I will go to Spain by way of you. 29 And I am sure that when I come to you, I will come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I plead with you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, 31 so that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be accepted by the saints, 32 that I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

16 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church in Cenchræa, See Phil 4:11-13; 2 Cor 12:9,10. He is an example to us all.

15:30 Paul well knew the value of the prayers of believers for him - 2 Cor 1:11; Eph 6:19,20; Phil 1:19; 1 Thess 5:25; 2 Thess 3:1; Philemon 22. "Love of the Spirit" probably means the love the Holy Spirit has for believers. This is an indication of His personality (note at John 14:16,17).

"Strive" - 1 Cor 9:25,26; Eph 6:12; Col 1:29. Everyone who would serve Christ and live a holy life will know something of this struggle.

15:31,32 From Acts 21:27 to the end of Acts we have the story of how Paul was delivered from unbelievers in Judea and how he arrived in Rome with joy. Did not the prayers of these believers in Rome have something to do with it? Compare Jam 5:16.

15:33 "God of peace" - 16:20; Phil 4:9; 1 Thess 5:23; Heb 13:20. Compare Rom 15:13. God is the author of peace, the giver of peace.

16:1-16 All parts of the Bible were given by inspiration of God, and there are good lessons to be learned in every part of it. In these verses we see Paul's love and concern (and so the Lord's love and concern) for the believers in Rome. We see things he (and the Lord) approved in them, and so have good examples for our own life and service. Seeing this record we can also remember the greater and more complete record written down in heaven about us all (Heb 12:23; Mal 3:16; Rev 20:12; Dan 7:10; Luke 10:20; Phil 4:3).

16:1,2 "Sister" here refers to spiritual relationship, not blood relationship.

"Servant" - this Greek word could be translated "deaconess." Phoebe held some position of responsibility in the church. Cenchræa was a seaport about seven miles

2 that you receive her in the Lord, as is worthy of saints, and that you assist her in whatever business she has need of you. For she has been a helper of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus, 4 who have risked their necks for my life. Not only I give thanks to them, but also all the Gentile churches.

5 Likewise greet the church that meets in their house. Greet my dear Epäenetüs, who is the firstfruits of Achaia to Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who laboured much for us.

7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives, and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who were also in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias, who is dear to me in the Lord.

9 Greet Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys who is dear to me.

10 Greet Apelles, approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.

11 Greet Herodion, my relative. Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

12 Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Greet dear Persis, who has laboured much in the Lord.

13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his from Corinth. It is probable that she took Paul's letter with her to Rome.

16:3 Acts 18:2,18,26; 1 Cor 16:19; 2 Tim 4:19.

16:4 See 5:7; 1 John 3:16. They did not merely teach God's Word, they practiced it.

16:5 In those early days meetings for fellowship and teaching were often held in homes.

16:6 Mary was a very common name then as now. We know nothing about this Mary.

16:7 Paul was several times in prison (2 Cor 11:23). We do not know which time he refers to here.

"Apostles" – the word means those sent on a mission. These two servants of God were not among the twelve chief apostles of Christ, but were evidently important leaders of the church.

16:10 "Approved in Christ" – here is a great commendation for any believer, any servant of God. Compare 1 Cor 9:27; 2 Tim 2:15.

16:12 Some believers laboured for the Lord; others "laboured much" (v 6). Paul stated things as they were. And this will be true in the day we stand before God. He will not say anything about us that is not true or reward us for what we have not done – 2:6; 1 Cor 3:12-15. See also Luke 19:12-26.

16:13 "Mother" – Mark 10:29,30.

16:16 In those days a kiss on the cheek was a common way of greeting, of showing respect (Luke 7:45). A "holy" kiss means there was to be no suggestion of impurity about it, only a recognition and honoring of fellow believers in Christ.

16:17 Paul warned believers about false mother and mine.

14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren who are with them.

15 Greet Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ greet you.

17 Now I plead with you, brethren, look out for those who cause divisions and hindrances contrary to the teaching you have learned, and avoid them.

18 For such people do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own stomach, and by flattery and fine speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obedience has become known to everyone. So I am happy about you, but I want you to be wise concerning what is good, and simple concerning evil.

20 And the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 Timotheus, my fellow worker, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my relatives, greet you.

22 I Tertius, who wrote down this epistle, greet you in the Lord.

23 Gaius, my host, and the host of the whole teachers in many of his letters (2 Cor 11:13-15; Gal 1:6-8; Col 2:8,18; 1 Tim 4:1-3; 2 Tim 3:1-8; 4:2-4). See also Matt 7:15,16; 24:4,5,24; Acts 20:29-31; 2 Pet 2:1,2; 1 John 2:18,19; Jude 4. Truth is God's instrument to save people and to establish and build up believers. Falsehood is Satan's way of trying to destroy people (John 8:44). Satan uses false teachers to introduce false doctrines into churches. We can recognize false teachers by the results of their teaching (Matt 7:20). One result will be "divisions." Another will be that obstacles in the way of following the truth will be created, and these obstacles will be contrary to God's revealed truth.

When anyone tries to bring false teaching into the church believers must do one thing only – "avoid them." They must not accept them, have fellowship with them, or permit them to teach.

16:18 If they are teaching contrary to God's Word, it is plain they cannot be true servants of Christ. So they are serving their own desires (and Satan who stands behind them – 2 Cor 11:14,15). See Phil 3:18,19; Jude 13,14. Inwardly they are like demons, but outwardly are full of smooth talk and flattery.

16:19 See 1:8; 6:17; 15:14.

16:20 "God of peace" – 15:33. Notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44; etc. The mention of Satan here indicates that he was behind the false teachers of vs 17,18.

16:22 Tertius wrote down the words Paul dictated to him.

16:23 "Gaius" – 1 Cor 1:14.

church, greets you. Erastus, the city manager, greets you, and Quartus, a brother, does too.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now to him who is able to establish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, in accordance with the revelation of the mystery that was hidden since the world began, 26 but is now revealed, and through the writings of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith, 27 to God, who alone is wise, be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

16:25 "My" gospel does not mean Paul invented it. It means the gospel Paul preached and taught and which is the great theme of this letter (1:16). "Mystery" means spiritual truth of God which He must reveal if men are to know it. They can never find it out in any other way. The mystery of the gospel in all its aspects was not fully revealed in Old Testament days (Eph 3:5).

16:26 By "writings of the prophets" Paul may be referring to the writings of the apostles. They were prophets like the Old Testament prophets, but with a fuller revelation of God's truth. Compare 1 Cor 2:6-13. Or Paul may mean that the writings of the OT (which had prophecies and pictures of the gospel) have now been made clear by the apostles. Compare 3:21; Luke 24:25-27,45-47; 1 Pet 1:10-12. In either case God's purpose is the same. He wants all nations to believe and obey Him - 1:5; 11:32; 15:9-12.

16:27 The one true God alone is absolutely wise. He alone knows what can be known and what to reveal to men and when to reveal it. And only He is worthy of glory (11:33-36; Rev 4:1; Isa 48:11). And all glory should go to Him "through Jesus Christ" - 1 Pet 4:11; Jude 25.

Note on Foreknowledge

There is not full agreement on the meaning of God's foreknowledge as it is revealed in the Bible. Some scholars think it means the following: Before God created the world He knew which individuals He would choose for salvation and determined that they should eventually become like His Son. He did not choose them because He foresaw that they would believe in Christ, or submit their will to His. His choice was based on His grace and wisdom alone. At the same time He rejected everyone else. He could have chosen and saved all men but did not. He did not choose anyone because of any goodness or merit He foresaw in them, for they had none. And He did not reject anyone because He foresaw they would be worse than those He chose. It was all a matter of His grace and sovereignty.

An objection to this interpretation may be worded like this: God declares that He wants all men to be saved (11:32; 1 Tim 2:3-6; 4:10; 2 Pet 3:9; Ezek 18:30-32; 33:11). His very essence is love (1 John 4:8,16), and He says He loves the whole world (John 3:16) and that He has compassion on all (Ps 145:8,9). In the Bible He repeatedly shows what His heart is like (Jer 48:31-39; Matt 23:37; Luke 19:41; Rev 22:17). Now if He loves all men and wants all to be saved, and could save them if He had decided to choose them, the question naturally arises, why did He not choose them? Arbitrarily to choose some and reject others may be a fine display of His sovereignty, but what happens to His love and desire to save all?

Because of weighty questions like these do arise in connection with this interpretation, other scholars reject it. They believe foreknowledge means the following:

Before He created the first man God knew those individuals in the human race who would yield to the work of His Holy Spirit and choose to believe Him. God ordained that these people should be saved and eventually become like Christ. It is not that God foreknew that some people were better than others and chose them, or that some would acquire merit and become worthy of salvation. Absolutely not. See 3:9-20,24; Eph 2:1-10; Titus 3:3-7. Men cannot even believe in Christ unless the Holy Spirit enables them to do so (John 6:29,44; Acts 13:48; Phil 1:29). But when the Spirit of God works in the hearts of people He enables them to decide whether to believe or not. Their wills are confronted with God's will, and they have enough freedom to say "yes" or "no" to God, to choose Him or reject Him. Being enabled to say "yes", some persons do, and others will not. God in His sovereignty decided to create human beings with this power of choice, and the choice has eternal consequences.

Since no one unaided by God's Spirit could even choose to believe, saying "yes" to God is not a work of merit which God rewards with salvation. How can accepting a gift of God be a work of merit, especially since He even gives the ability to accept the gift? A gift does not become any less a gift because someone takes it. God knew beforehand who would choose Him and accept His gift, and He predestined them to become like Christ.

In this view, God's sovereignty is not regarded as something less than in the first view. In fact, to say that God cannot give this power to man's will is to limit Him. It is saying that the sovereign God cannot do this thing if He wishes to do it.

The author of these notes does not think that the second view on foreknowledge presented above has been completely proved from the Bible (any more than the first view has been proved), but believes it is in harmony with the character of the God of love as revealed there. It is hard to think that those who are finally lost are lost just because God did not choose to save them even though He might have done so, that He passed them over and chose for salvation others who were sinners just like them, without any other consideration than His own sovereign choice. The question will always be troublesome — would the God of sovereign love and compassion do that?

But the working of the will of both God and men is a very difficult and mysterious matter, and perhaps it is not wise to be very dogmatic about this subject. In this matter

(as in some other difficult matters of theology) follow the apostle Paul. By the inspiration of the Spirit of God, after writing some very deep truths, in chapter 11 he cried out,

“Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out! For who has known the mind of the LORD? Or who has become His counselor? Or who has first given to Him and it shall be repaid to him? For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, to whom be glory forever. Amen.”

The First Letter of the Apostle Paul to the CORINTHIANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

About 56 AD.

Themes:

God had used Paul to found the church at Corinth (Acts 18:1-18), but after his departure teachings and practices contrary to the gospel of Christ had found a place among the Christians there. Individuals were guilty of various errors and sins and the church as a whole was being damaged by factions. Paul wrote this letter to correct the faults there. He pointed out to them the holy, humble way believers should live, worship, and serve God. Above everything else he emphasized the way of love (chapter 13).

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, 2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

3 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I always thank my God for you, for the grace of God which is given to you by Jesus Christ, 5 so that in everything you are enriched by him, in all kinds of speaking and complete knowledge, 6 since the testimony of Christ was established among you, 7 so that you are not inferior in any gift, as you wait for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 8 He will establish you to the end, so that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, by whom you were called

1:1 Rom 1:1; Gal 1:1. "Will of God" - whatever any believer is he should be that by the will of God and know it is God's will for him to be that. It seems that Sosthenes wrote down this letter as Paul dictated it to him. Compare Rom 16:22.

1:2 Paul speaks of what all believers in Christ are. They form a called out assembly (note on Church at Matt 16:18). They belong to God (16:19,20; John 17:9,10). They are set apart ("sanctified" - John 17:17-19). They are "in" Christ (Eph 1:1,4). God has called them to be holy (to be a special people belonging to a holy God. Note at Lev 20:7). They have one Lord (8:5,6; Rom 10:9).

1:3 Rom 1:7.

1:4 Rom 1:8; Phil 1:3; Col 1:3; 1 Thess 1:2; 2 Tim 1:3.

1:5-7 "Enriched" - Rom 10:12; 2 Cor 8:9; Matt 7:11. God had given them every spiritual ability to serve Him - 12:4-11,28-31; Rom 12:6-8. Paul is not speaking merely about the leaders, preachers and teachers in the Church, but about all believers there. The spiritual life in the Corinthian believers was good evidence that the gospel he preached to them was true (v 6). And it caused them to look forward eagerly for the second coming of Christ (v 7; Matt 24:30; 2 Thess 1:7; 1 Pet 1:7,13; 4:13).

"Gift" - talent, ability given by God.

"Coming" (v 7) - here Paul uses the Greek word meaning "revelation" (apokalupsis). He says nothing about a hidden coming of Christ, a secret rapture. He says that the Corinthian believers were looking for Christ to be openly revealed. Compare Titus 2:13.

1:8 "To the end" - Phil 1:6; Rom 5:9,10; 8:29,30; John 10:28,29; Heb 7:25; 1 Pet 1:5.

"Blameless" - Eph 1:4. The blameless are those against whom no accusation can be brought. Compare Rom 4:8; 8:33,34. The "day" of Christ is the time of His second into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I plead with you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak in agreement, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in the same mind and in the same purpose. 11 For it has been told me about you, my brethren, by those who are of the household of Chloe, that there are quarrels among you. 12 Now I say that all of you are speaking like this: "I am of Paul", and another "I am of Apollos", and another "I am of Cephas", and another "I am of Christ".

13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius, 15 so that no one should say that I had baptized in my own name. 16 And also I baptized the household of Stephanas. Besides these, I do not know whether I baptized anyone coming (v 7).

1:9 "Faithful" - God will fulfill all His promises to believers and keep them to the end (v 8; 1 Thess 5:24; Titus 1:2; 2 Tim 2:13).

"Fellowship" - 1 John 1:3; John 14:23.

1:10 See 12:25; Rom 12:16; Eph 4:3. Is it possible for all believers to be "perfectly united in . . . mind and . . . purpose"? Evidently. See also 2:16; 2 Cor 13:11; Eph 4:13; Phil 1:27; 2:2; Acts 4:32. Of course Paul is speaking of the teachings of Christ and his apostles. It is possible for all believers to agree on these teachings, but very difficult. It requires a thorough knowledge of God's word, a firm belief in it, and a determination to apply it in every situation. 1:11,12 This was a mark of their immaturity and lack of spirituality - 3:1-4. They knew much and spoke well (v 5), but practiced little of the truth they knew - a common fault everywhere and always. They made far too much of men - another common fault in all times (3:5-8).

"Apollos" - Acts 18:24-28. "Cephas" is another name for Peter. Both names mean "rock."

"Of Christ" - those who said they followed Christ alone where no more mature and spiritual than the others, if they made this a reason for division in the church and looked down on others. Observe that Paul was not pleased with the fact that there was a group there saying that they were "of Paul." He did not want such things. He always pointed people to Christ, not to himself.

1:13 Neither Christ nor His Body can be divided (12:12,13). Believers are to recognize this fact, accept one another, and live in the unity they have in Christ (Eph 4:2). Paul is saying in this verse, "who is any person compared to Christ? Do not exalt any man to too high a place."

1:14-17 Notes on baptism at Matt 3:6; 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38. Paul knew that as far as salvation is concerned repentance and faith were the vital things else. 17 For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ be made of no effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. 19 For it is written,

I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the intelligent.

(Acts 17:30; 20:21; Rom 10:9,10). If baptism had been essential for salvation (as some today confidently assert) could Paul possibly have taken this attitude toward it? It is evident that the duty of all believers to live in harmony with each other was more important to Paul than questions about baptism.

1:17-25 In v 17 Paul is not denying that Christ told His disciples to baptize (Matt 28:19), or that all believers should be baptized. He is speaking about the essence of his ministry, the one overwhelmingly important thing – preaching the gospel.

Observe here what Paul avoided in his preaching – human wisdom. He knew that such wisdom was really foolishness (v 20), and that by it no one can come to a true knowledge of God (v 21). And he knew that God had appointed the clear preaching of the gospel as the way to bring men to salvation (vs 21,23; 15:1,2; Rom 1:16). Preaching with human wisdom is the same as trying to empty the cross of Christ of its power. And we may be sure that anything which does that is not of God, and is of no use in the salvation of men.

Verse 18 speaks of two classes of people – the “perishing” and those “being saved.” The attitude of people toward Christ’s cross reveals which group they are in. In these verses the “perishing” (see John 3:16; Luke 19:10) are of two kinds (v 22) – the religious law-keeping Jews and the idolatrous Greeks with their love of philosophy. The cross is foolishness to both kinds of people. Why? They do not understand it (2 Cor 4:4), and they do not believe it is necessary (the gospel is not man’s way of thinking, but God’s – Rom 8:5-7). Moreover, they do not want it (they are self-confident and proud and the cross would humble them in the dust).

There are many such people today. They do not think it is foolishness to lie, cheat, steal, live for temporary pleasures, or bow down to images made by men. To them only the cross (which is the wisdom of God – v 24) is foolishness!

But some people are “being saved” (salvation begins with the new birth – John 1:12,13; 3:3-8, and goes on to the resurrection and glorification of believers – Rom 8:23,30). To them the cross is the power of God (vs 18,24; Rom 1:16). They

20 Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this world? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? 21 For since in the wisdom of God the world by its wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the “foolishness” of what was preached to save those who believe. 22 For the Jews require a miraculous sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom, 23 but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to the Jews, and foolishness to the Greeks, 24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ have experienced its power. It has completely changed their lives (2 Cor 5:17). To them it is also the wisdom of God (v 24). They see far more of God’s wisdom in any aspect of the cross than in all the works of all the world’s wise men and philosophers who do not believe and know Christ.

1:19 Isa 29:14.

1:20 True wisdom begins with the fear of the one true God, and this the wise men, scholars and philosophers who belong to this world (and not to Christ) do not have (see Job 28:28; Ps 111:10; Prov 1:7). So they do not have even the barest beginning of wisdom. But the point here is that God made all their so-called wisdom as foolishness by the cross. The cross is God’s one way of saving men, and it is a way none of the wisest of men ever once thought about. The way of wisdom cannot bring salvation to anyone. It is not God’s way. See also Col 2:8.

1:21 There are three important truths here.

First, men with all their philosophy, intellectual activity or mystic knowledge did not come to the knowledge of God. Actually quite the opposite happened – they lost the knowledge of God that mankind once had (see Rom 1:21-23).

Second, God saves people through what seems foolishness to so-called wise men – the preaching of the cross (v 18). “The ‘foolishness’ of what was preached” – this seems a more accurate translation of the Greek than “the foolishness of preaching.” Compare verses 23 and 25. The Gospel message is certainly the very opposite of foolishness, but it seems like foolishness to those who are wise in their own eyes. And that is Paul’s meaning here.

Third, salvation comes only to those who believe this preaching (Rom 1:16,17).

1:22 Mark 8:11; John 6:30; Matt 12:39,40.

“Sign”, “Wisdom” – they sought for what they thought was a rational basis for everything. They were not content to believe something simply because God said it was true.

1:23 “Stumbling block” – a crucified Messiah was not according to their expectations or desires.

“Foolishness” – they reasoned that only criminals were crucified, and how could a crucified criminal have anything to do with anyone’s salvation or display any of the wisdom they sought.

1:24 “Called” – Rom 1:6; 8:30. The “called” the power of God, and the wisdom of God. 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For you see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. 27 But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty, 28 and lowly things of the world, and things which are despised, God has chosen, yes, and things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are, 29 so that no flesh should glory in his presence. 30 But by him you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 so that, according to what is written, he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you declaring to you the testimony of God, I did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, 2 for I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. 3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5 so that your faith would not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 However, we speak wisdom among those who of v 24 are those "being saved" of v 18.

1:25 See how different God's wisdom is from man's, and how far above it. Compare Isa 55:8,9; Rom 11:33-36.

1:26 This was true then and true now. In India from among the intellectuals, or the high castes God has called some but not many. It has pleased Him to call many from among the poor and uneducated, the lower castes or no castes. Compare Christ's words in Matt 11:25,26. Caste pride is not something He looks on with favour.

1:27-29 Here is God's good purpose in choosing the lowly and despised to be His people. He loathes men's pride, and cannot stand those who boast in their strength and influence. See Jer 9:23; Prov 6:16,17; 16:5; Isa 1:31; 2:12-18; 13:11; Jer 17:5; Matt 18:3,4; Jam 4:6. He has arranged matters so that all that men take pride in will come to nothing and that no human being will be able to boast in His presence - Rom 3:27; Eph 2:9.

1:30 Believers are in Christ (Eph 1:1,4). They are there because God the Father has chosen them. And Christ is to them all they need for salvation, for time and for eternity. Christ is a far higher wisdom than anything the world knows or can know (Col 2:2,3,8,9). And even the most uneducated and lowliest believer in Christ has more true wisdom than any wise man or philosopher without Christ.

"Righteousness" - notes at Matt 5:6; Rom 1:17; 3:21-26; 10:9,10; Phil 3:9.

"Sanctification" or "holiness" - notes at John 17:17-19; Rom 1:7.

"Redemption" - notes at Matt 20:28; Ps 78:35. Believers in themselves have none of these things, but only in Christ (Eph 1:1,4).

1:31 Jer 9:24. Compare Ps 34:2; 44:8.

"LORD" in the Hebrew of Jer 9:24 is Jehovah; here in 1 Corinthians it refers to Christ. Christ is the incarnation of Jehovah. See other references that teach this at Luke 2:11.

2:1 "Wisdom" that is, what men regard as wisdom.

2:2 Paul came to Corinth directly from Athens which prided itself on being the world's center of philosophy and wisdom (Acts 17:15; 18:1). He realized afresh how important it was to keep to the heart of the gospel. And the heart of the gospel is Christ, Christ crucified for the sins of men. If any preacher gets away from this he is moving away from the very center of God's revelation, and he is in danger of having a weak and ineffective ministry (though it may be successful in the eyes of men).

2:3 He was not afraid of what men might do to him. Rather he feared that the people in Corinth might be as indifferent to the gospel as the "wise" men of Athens, and that his preaching might fail because of a lack in him. Weakness and trembling in any preacher are better by far than self-confidence, dependence on intellect, or a careless attitude. Compare 2 Cor 12:9,10.

2:4 See 1:17. Paul was capable of using wise and persuasive words if he thought the occasion required them (Acts 17:22-31). But he knew the two most important elements in preaching were to have the right message and the power of God's Spirit to deliver it. It is quite possible for preachers even with the right message to try to talk people into God's kingdom and fail to achieve this because of a lack of God's power. So see Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8; Eph 5:18. People are not saved and established in the faith by being impressed with the wisdom or eloquence of the preacher, but by trusting Christ.

2:5 True faith must be created in people's hearts by the power of God's Spirit. If they base their faith on the wisdom or eloquence of a preacher or merely on his convincing arguments, it will be superficial and fall short of the faith which brings salvation. The Christian faith is reasonable, but arguments for it directed to the reason alone will not bring new life to the heart of anyone. Christ's servants must proclaim Christ and His cross with the power of God sent down from heaven.

2:6,7 Paul does not want his readers to think he is praising ignorance, or that when it comes to wisdom believers in Christ are nowhere.

are mature, but not the wisdom of this age, or of the rulers of this age, that comes to nothing. 7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom, which God ordained for our glory before the world began, 8 which none of the rulers of this world knew. For if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But as it is written,

Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered the heart of man,
the things which God has prepared for those who love him.

10 But God has revealed them to us by his Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. 11 For what man knows the things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? Even so the things of God no one knows except the Spirit of God. 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is of God, so that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God. 13 These things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 14 But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually evaluated. 15 But he who is spiritual properly evaluates all these things, yet he himself is not properly evaluated by any man.

16 For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

They have available to them God's secret wisdom, unknown to the wise and powerful of this world (1:30; Col 2:2,3). On "wisdom" see also Ps 51:6; 90:12; 111:10; Prov 1:7,20; 2:1-6; 3:13; 8:1-36; 9:10; Eph 1:17; Jam 1:5. Before the creation of the universe God foreknew and chose His people (Rom 8:29,30), and He ordained that they should have the highest of all wisdom – the knowledge of God and of Christ.

2:8 "Lord of glory" – Paul gives to Jesus a title that can refer only to God. Compare Ps 24:10 where Jehovah God is the "King of glory." See also Acts 7:2; Jam 2:1. Other references that show Jesus is Jehovah are at Luke 2:11. The fact that men crucified a divine person reveals they did not know God or have God's wisdom.

2:9 Isa 64:4 has similar but not these exact words.

2:10 The wisdom Paul speaks of cannot be found out by man's intellect or philosophical reasoning, or by searching into religion or mysticism or the occult. God reveals it by His Spirit. There is no other way to receive it. Compare John 16:13-15. And the only way to receive God's Spirit is by believing in Jesus Christ.

2:11 No one can know what God is thinking unless He reveals it, but the Holy Spirit can know it because He is God. This verse teaches that God's Spirit is not some impersonal influence or power. He is a person who has knowledge and can reveal it (v 10).

2:12 The world (mankind in general in its fallen sinful condition) does not have God's Spirit and cannot receive Him (John 14:16,17). Believers in Christ have received God's Spirit (Acts 2:38; 5:32; Gal 3:14; Eph 1:13), and can know what others cannot possibly know (v 14).

2:13 Observe Paul's emphasis on "words." God's Spirit had given the apostles the very words that expressed God's truth, and not merely general ideas in the mind. Compare Matt 4:4; 5:18; 2 Tim 3:16.

"Comparing spiritual things with spiritual" – this expression in Greek can be translated in different ways, though the above translation seems as good as any to the author of these notes. Literally it is "comparing (or explaining or combining – the Greek word means all three) spiritual with spiritual." The word "things" is implied and is needed to make a proper English sentence.

2:14 See 1:18,23; Rom 8:5-8. If we would accept and understand God's truth it is absolutely essential that God's Spirit teach us. So Eph 1:15-19. "Natural" = unsaved. 2:15 1 John 2:20,27; John 3:8. Only believers in Christ made spiritual by God's Spirit can see the true state of things and people. But those without the Spirit will not understand Christ's people and so will be unable to rightly evaluate them. Proper judgment must be based on spiritual understanding, and this no one has by nature.

"Evaluates", "evaluated" – in Greek the same word used in v 14. Here it means to determine the worth or truth of a person or thing.

2:16 Isa 40:13. This is given as evidence of the above truths. Natural men (those without God's Spirit) cannot know God's mind and so they cannot understand the mind of believers. This is because believers no longer think like people of the world. They share in God's mind through Christ. This does not mean that believers know all that Christ knows. It does mean that because Christ is in them, and they have His Spirit, they are at the source of God's truth, and He can enable them to understand it.

Is this true only of apostles and great and wise Christian leaders? No, it is true of all spiritual believers (1:26-28). Education, great intellectual ability, and human wisdom have nothing to do with it. God's Spirit giving understanding to man's spirit – this is the great essential. Observe that all through this passage of Scripture God's Spirit is seen to be different from man's spirit. This is the teaching of God's Word everywhere. See notes at John 14:17; Rom 8:9,16; Gal 3:2; Eph 4:18; Jude 19.

3 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people, but as to carnal, as to infants in Christ. 2 I fed you with milk, and not with solid food, for until now you were not able to receive it, and you still are not able. 3 For you are still carnal. For while there are envy, and strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal, and behaving like unbelieving men? 4 For while one says, "I am of Paul", and another, "I am of Apollos", are you not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each man? 6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. 7 So then

3:1,2 "Spiritual people" – compared to those who do not have God's Spirit all believers are spiritual (2:14-16; Rom 8:5-9). But among believers themselves some are much more spiritual than others. And some, unfortunately, behave all too much like people of the world who follow their sinful nature. On the whole the Corinthian believers were like this. Spiritually speaking, they were still babies, and Paul could not teach them the deep things of God (compare 2:6; Heb 5:11-14).

"Carnal" – or "fleshy" – all too often falling prey to the old fallen nature. In 2:14 and 3:1 Paul speaks of three kinds of people.

"Natural" are those who do not have God's Spirit.

"Spiritual" are those who have God's Spirit and who walk in accordance with the Spirit. And "carnal" are those who have God's Spirit but in some ways behave as if they do not.

3:3 Here was the evidence that they were "carnal." For jealousy and quarreling among believers do not come from God's Spirit, but from the fallen nature in people (Gal 5:19,20; Jam 3:14-18). Believers in Christ have no right to behave like unbelieving men. They are God's holy people, having God's Spirit, and are called to a higher way of living.

3:4 See 1:11,12. Still today many believers show their worldliness and carnality by their factions, by their pride in their sect or church or denomination, and by their giving glory to men.

3:5-9 Believers should see that the Lord alone is the important one and that all who preach and teach His Word are mere servants, and in themselves nothing (v 7). The Lord is the one who assigns different tasks to different servants (v 5), and it is God who prospers the work, not men (v 7). God alone is the source of truth and spiritual life and blessing. The true servants of God, such as Paul and Apollos, have one purpose (v 8), and believers should recognize this and with one heart and mind accept them all (1:10), but should not make too much of any of them.

3:7 "Anything" – here is the proper view any servant of God should have toward himself. Compare 15:9; 2 Cor 3:5; Eph 3:8; 1 Tim neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. 8 Now he who plants and he who waters are one. And each man will receive his own reward according to his own labour. 9 For we are workers together with God. You are God's field, you are God's building.

10 In accordance with the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master builder, I laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let everyone take care how he builds on it. 11 For no one can lay any other foundation than the one that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 Now if anyone builds on this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble, 13 every 1:15. See also Ex 3:11; Jud 6:15; Jer 1:6. This is surely one reason for Paul's great fruitfulness. He was not concerned with man's praise or blame, honor or contempt. His whole purpose was to serve God in humility of spirit.

3:8 Verse 14.

3:9 "Workers together with God" – God's servants are joined to the Lord Jesus Christ, have God's Holy Spirit living in them, and are doing the Father's work. Can any work be as noble, as splendid, as rewarding as this?

"God's field" – Matt 13:24.

"God's building" – v 16; Eph 2:19-22; 1 Pet 2:5.

3:10 In v 7 Paul says he is not anything. Here he says that all he has done as a servant of Christ was by the grace of God. God freely gave him all his abilities and opportunities. See also 2 Cor 3:5,6.

"I laid the foundation" – Paul began the work in Corinth (Acts 18:1). Others were building on the foundation he laid.

3:11 Isa 28:16; Acts 4:11; Eph 2:20; 1 Pet 2:6. Paul laid the foundation in Corinth by preaching and teaching the truth about Christ, and by the power of God's Spirit working in him bringing people to put their faith in Christ for salvation. Paul then left Corinth, and other builders were at work.

3:12 If builders are spiritual and practice and teach the treasures of God's Word, it is as though they were using precious metals and gems. But if builders are worldly and behave like unbelieving men (v 3) and build with their own ideas of how to build, it is like using wood, hay, or straw. All that comes out of self in believers, from the "flesh", will come to nothing on the day of judgment, even if it is work related to the church, and said to be done in Christ's name. (And is there not a great deal of such effort in the churches?) But all work that comes from God's Spirit in them will stand the test on that day.

3:13-15 "Day" – Paul speaks of the day when God will judge the work of all His servants. Verse 13 says it will be a revealing judgment, a fiery judgment, and a testing judgment. The amount of a person's work will not be the important thing in that day, but the quality of it. The chief thing will not man's work will be made clear, for the day will make it known, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test everyone's work as to what sort it is. 14 If anyone's work which he has built on the foundation remains, he will receive a reward. 15 If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss. He himself will be saved, but as if through fire.

16 Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God lives in you? 17 If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him, for the temple of God is holy. And you are that temple.

18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this world, let him become foolish so that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. For it is written, be that which seems to be good work before God's fire tests it, but what remains afterwards. With what care and reverent fear and trembling (2:3) should God's servants go about their work.

3:14 Matt 16:27; 2 Cor 5:10; Rev 22:12.
3:15 "Will suffer loss" - means the loss of the rewards he might have had. Compare 2 John 8.

"Fire" - compare 1 Pet 4:17,18.

3:16 Both individually and as a whole Christ's believers are God's temple. A temple is where worship goes on and offerings are given to God (Rom 12:1,2; Heb 13:15,16; 1 Pet 2:5). It is where God's presence is (Ps 11:4; John 17:23; Acts 2:4; Rom 8:9). Christ's believers are now the only temple God has on earth. Those who reject Him or them may go to man-made temples, but God is not there (Acts 17:24).

3:17 "Destroy, destroy" - the same Greek word is used twice. It has other meanings - corrupt, injure, ruin, or mar. Paul may be referring to the false teachers who troubled the Corinthian church and so many other churches - Rom 16:17,18. Believers do not destroy God's temple - they are God's temple and others are trying to ruin them. At Corinth it seems clear that false teachers were preaching worldly wisdom, ignoring Christ's cross, and perverting the gospel. See 2 Cor 11:4,13-15,18. Such teaching as theirs is what injures God's temple. And we may be sure that God will deal very harshly with people who try to ruin His holy work.
3:18 "Let no one deceive himself" - 6:9; 15:33.

"Wise" - men become truly wise in God's eyes, not by going after worldly wisdom, but by rejecting it and believing Christ's gospel. Such people are fools in the eyes of the world (1:18).

3:19 See 1:20; Job 5:13.

3:20 Ps 94:11. Since our own wisdom is futile and foolish we should reject it.

3:21 Verse 4; 1:12,29,31. Men are instruments in God's hands. All praise should go to God who made the instruments

He catches the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again,

The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are useless.

21 Therefore let no one boast about men. For all things are yours, 22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours. 23 And you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

4 So men should regard us as the servants of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Moreover it is required of stewards that a man be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by any human judgment. Indeed, I do not judge myself. 4 For I and uses them, and not to the instruments themselves.

3:22 God has appointed His servants for the benefit of believers (v 5; Eph 4:11-13). The whole earth is the field where believers are planted, watered and caused to grow. All the events of this present life work for their good (Rom 8:28). Death too is theirs - it is a gift which frees them from the mortal body and from the presence of all sin and all troubles. For the believer in Christ death is a door which opens into a higher, better life with God. All things in the future are also theirs - they are God's heirs, joint heirs with Christ (Rom 8:17; Matt 5:5; Eph 1:14; Rev 21:7). Then why this boasting in men, this exalting one over another?

3:23 Believers do not belong to men, but to Christ (John 6:37,39; 17:6). They must boast in Him alone (1:31).

"Christ belongs to God" - 11:3; 15:28; Matt 3:17; John 3:16; 14:28.

4:1 See 2:7; 3:5,10; Rom 16:25; Gal 1:11,12; Eph 3:2,3. Paul and the other apostles of Christ did not invent their teaching. God had revealed them and placed them in their care. Paul wanted everyone to understand the importance of this fact.

4:2 Faithfulness is the one absolute essential for all servants of Christ. See Matt 24:45; 25:21,23; Luke 16:10; 19:17.

4:3,4 Paul was not much concerned about the judgment of the Corinthians on his faithfulness. He was Christ's servant, not theirs. Christ had sent him and told him what to teach, not they. He was responsible to Christ, not to them. Compare Rom 14:10-12. He did not judge himself because that was not his work, and he knew that no one is capable of judging himself properly, let alone others. Only God can do that, for only He knows for certain what He has given an individual to do and what may be that individual's motives, struggles, temptations, difficulties, inner failures and successes.

Paul's conscience was clear - see Acts 23:1; 24:16. This lack of worry about the judgment of others gives freedom to serve know nothing against myself, yet I am not counted righteous by that. The one who judges me is the Lord. 5 Therefore do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord comes. He will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make known the purposes of the heart. And then everyone will have praise from God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have applied as an example to myself and Apollos for your benefit, that you might learn in our case not to think beyond what is written, so that none of you becomes puffed up for one against another. 7 For who makes you to differ from others? And what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you received it, why do you boast, as if you had not received it?

8 Already you are full! Already you are rich! You have reigned as kings without us! How I wish you really were reigning, that we also might reign with you. 9 For it seems to me that God has displayed us, the apostles, last in the procession, God as He directs.

4:5 He means judge nothing about the faithfulness of others or their motives. Later on he told them to judge the outward behavior of people (5:12; 6:1-6). Christ can and will judge the hidden things of the heart. This no man should try to do.

"Praise from God" - Matt 25:21,23; Rom 2:29; 2 Cor 10:18; Gal 1:10.

4:6 The problem with the believers in Corinth was that they were not viewing God's servants in a Biblical way ("what is written"). Paul used the illustration of himself and Apollos to show them this. They were judging men, exalting or condemning as they pleased, and they needed to learn not to do this.

4:7 Some were boasting in their abilities or position or the fact that they were followers of one teacher rather than another. They had fallen into the absurd sin of considering themselves superior to other believers there (this is the exact opposite of what their views should have been. See Phil 2:3. Compare Luke 18:9). Paul reminds them that whatever they had that was worth having was a gift from God, so that if they boasted they should boast in the Giver and not in themselves (15:10).

4:8-13 In these verses Paul uses irony or sarcasm to strike a blow at their boasting. He does so for the benefit of their spiritual life.

4:8 Paul seems to be saying, "Evidently, you think you have risen very high in the Christian life; that you have reached the goal of perfection; that you have begun to reign with Christ in glory!"

4:9 Paul is referring to the persecutions and hardships the apostles endured (Acts 5:17,18,40; 12:1-4; 14:19; 16:22-24; 2 Cor 11:23-27). In those days the authorities sometimes made criminals parade before the people before executing them. Paul says his position in the world like those condemned to death. For we have been made a spectacle to the world, and to angels and to men. 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honoured, but we are despised. 11 Even to this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are poorly clothed, and are beaten, and homeless. 12 And we labour, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we bear it; 13 being slandered, we plead. To this day, we have become like the filth of the world, and like the scum of all things.

14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my dear children I warn you. 15 For though you may have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers. For in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 16 Therefore I beg you, imitate me. 17 For this reason I have sent Timothy to you. He is my dear son, and faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my ways seemed like that. But he does not believe this is because of blind chance or fate. He knows that God has done this for a good and wise purpose.

4:10 "Fools for Christ's sake" - this means that they were willing to reject the wisdom of the world and preach what the world called foolishness (1:18,23). The Corinthian Christians were not actually very wise - they only thought they were.

"Weak" - 2:3; 2 Cor 12:9,10.

4:11 2 Cor 11:27. Such is the way the world treats the best and most spiritual of all people. Compare Heb 11:36-38; John 15:18-21; 16:33.

4:12,13 "Working with our own hands" - Acts 18:3; 20:34,35.

"Bless" - Matt 5:44; Luke 6:27,28; Rom 12:14; 1 Peter 2:21-23.

"Scum" - that is, the world treated the apostles of Christ as if they were the lowest, basest and worst of all people.

4:14 Paul's purpose in writing these things was not to move them to pity him or to make them ashamed. He saw their poor spiritual condition and in love for them ("my dear children") was trying to warn them about it.

4:15 They had experienced spiritual birth into God's kingdom (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8), and this was through the ministry of Paul. Compare Gal 4:19.

4:16 Phil 3:17; 1 Thess 1:6. Paul was not at all trying to draw men after himself (3:1-7). But he knew that God had made him an example of how men should live and had revealed to him the gospel he preached. He was an imitator of Christ, so it was safe for believers to imitate him - 11:1. He was not like many who preach one thing and practice something else (Matt 23:3; Rom 2:21-24). It was not safe to follow the false teachers who had come to trouble them.

4:17 Paul was not Timothy's natural father but his spiritual father (Acts 16:1; 1 Tim in Christ, which I teach everywhere in every church.

18 Now some of you are puffed up, as though I would not come to you. 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord wills, and will know, not the talk, but the power of those who are puffed up. 20 For the kingdom of God is not in talk, but in power. 21 What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that a man has his father's wife. 2 And you are

1:2). He could tell the Corinthians that Paul's way of living agreed with his teaching.

4:18 These people were of one of the factions there opposed to Paul. With their worldly wisdom and sinful pride they thought themselves quite superior to him. And they thought he would not return to Corinth.

4:19 "If the Lord wills" – this was always a governing thought in Paul's life. Compare Jam 4:13-16.

4:20 Paul's opponents in Corinth could make good speeches but could they live good lives? Christ's true gospel is the power of God to salvation (Rom 1:16). It makes men new (2 Cor 5:17). If a person is not changed, if he has no power to live a humble, obedient, holy life, his talk and teaching are in vain. Compare Rom 14:17.

4:21 "Rod" – he was Christ's apostle and their spiritual father (v 15). He had the right to discipline, rebuke and chastise then if their condition required it. See 2 Cor 13:10. Of course he preferred to have loving fellowship with them without the need of harsh discipline. The choice was theirs. See 2 Cor 1:23,24.

5:1 The way Paul put this – "father's wife" instead of "mother" – indicates that he meant stepmother. The man was guilty of a sin that unbelievers condemned (it was also condemned in the law of Moses – Lev 18:8; 22:30; 27:20).

5:2 "Puffed up" – or "proud." Were they proud of their worldly wisdom in this matter? Or of their tolerant attitude? Did they think that the gospel of Christ gave Christians a license to do anything they pleased? Paul now reveals how any local church should behave toward a sinning member. There should be grief – grief that dishonor has come to Christ, that a fellow Christian has fallen so low, that the church is in danger of God's judgment. And it is their responsibility to put out of their fellowship the Christian, even if he is a leader – or especially if he is a leader – who will not repent of his sin. A church not willing to exercise such discipline is headed for God's judgment – 11:30-32.

5:3 Is it the business of Christian leaders or the church as a whole to judge individual Christians? Yes. It is their duty to keep the church pure, to rebuke sin and judge behavior contrary to the holy way of life Christ taught. See vs 12,13; Matt 18:15-17;

puffed up. You did not mourn greatly, so that the one who did this deed might be put away from among you. 3 For indeed I, though absent in body but present in spirit, have already reached a decision (as though I were present) about the one who has done this deed. 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, along with my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 I have decided to hand this one over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know

Acts 5:1-11. This is not the same thing as one individual judging another (this we should not do – 4:3,5; Matt 7:1-5; Rom 14:4,13). This is a church matter, a matter of who is worthy to be in its fellowship, of what standards a church should have.

5:4,5 Discipline must be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus, in His presence, by His power. He is the great purifier of the Church and its Head and Lord. Local churches should act on His authority. Handing the sinning Christian over to Satan means to put him out of the church and to have nothing more to do with him until he repents – vs 11,13. And, it seems, it means to give Satan a chance to afflict him. Outside the Church is the world which is Satan's realm (John 14:30; Eph 2:2; Col 1:13; 1 John 5:19). Satan has the ability to afflict men's bodies (Job 2:4-7), and he has the power of death (Heb 2:14). Notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; etc).

Handing over to Satan is a terrible and painful discipline indeed. But here Paul reveals a good purpose for it. He wanted the man's flesh to be destroyed and his spirit saved.

"For the destruction of the flesh" – here the Greek word (sarx) is used, a word that has several meanings. It may mean literal flesh, or the body, or the sinful nature in man, among other things. It appears that Paul is speaking of the death of the man, or at least the wasting away of his literal flesh. Certainly it does not mean the destruction of his sinful nature. The sinful nature in a believer is not destroyed in this life (see notes on Romans chapter 7, etc), and in any case, Satan is not in the business of destroying men's sinful nature except by destroying their bodies where their sinful nature resides – that is, by killing them.

"That the spirit may be saved" – God always has a good purpose in disciplining His people (11:32; Heb 12:7-11). Is it possible that the only way to save some people is to take them away by death before they go further into sin? These verses create this impression. See also 11:30. If this is necessary, we can believe that God will do it rather than have one of His people lost forever (John 6:49,50).

5:6 Verse 2. He means that sin may have small beginnings in a church but spread all that a little yeast permeates the whole lump? 7 Therefore, purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, since you really are without yeast. For truly Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us. 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, nor with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the yeastless bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote to you in a letter not to associate with sexually immoral people, 10 but not at all meaning with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the greedy, or extortioners, or with idolaters. For in that case you would have to leave the world. 11 But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother if he is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or a reviler or a drunkard or an extortioner, and not to eat with such a person.

12 For what business do I have judging outsiders also? Do you not judge those who are through it. This is one reason why it is so important to deal with it immediately and firmly. If the church does not do so, people in it may get the idea that sin is unimportant, and that they can get away with anything they wish to do.

5:7 "Old yeast" means old corrupt habits. The church is like a "new lump" of dough and the things of the old life are to have no place in it. Compare Eph 5:25-27; Col 3:5-12. The Passover Feast was eaten with bread made without yeast, yeast being a type or picture of evil – see Ex 12:14,15; Lev 23:5,6. Christ's death on the cross was the spiritual fulfillment of the Passover (Matt 26:26-28; John 1:29; 6:53-58).

5:8 Of course, keeping the "Feast" does not mean literally observing the old Jewish feast of the Passover. Christians were never taught to do this. The Festival of believers is a continuous "feasting" on the truths concerning Christ their Passover. It is fellowship with Him in a new life. Pride, factions and quarreling, immorality, dishonesty, etc, are to have no place in this "Feast."

5:9-11 Believers must not treat fellow Christians who sin as they treat people of the world. Believers live in the world and cannot avoid its sinful people. But someone sinning "who is called a brother" is a different matter altogether. Here is a plain command that we are not to associate or eat with such a person. See also 1 Thess 3:6.

5:12,13 Verse 3; 6:1-5; 11:31. Though individuals do not have the right to judge and condemn other individuals, the church has the right to judge who can be in its fellowship. And they must exercise this right. When wicked men are expelled, the church can grow in purity and power. When they are not expelled, disaster waits at the door. If adulterers and adulteresses, thieves and dishonest persons, etc are permitted inside? 13 But God judges those who are outside. Therefore put away that wicked person from among yourselves.

6 When anyone of you has something against someone else, dare he go for judgment to the unrighteous, and not before the saints? 2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And since the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3 Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more things that pertain to this life! 4 If then you have matters requiring judgment about things pertaining to this life, appoint as judges even those who are least esteemed in the church. 5 I speak to your shame. Can it be that there is not a wise man among you? Not even one who would be able to judge a dispute between his brethren? 6 But instead, brother goes to law against brother, and that in front of unbelievers!

to remain in fellowship, then God, in large measure, will withdraw His blessing. There may be many spiritual gifts in such a church and seeming success in the ministry, but the rottenness there will rob it of true spiritual life.

6:1-8 Some Christians still seem to think it is all right to bring lawsuits against one another in secular courts. Even whole churches and denominations sometimes engage in this. Here the words of the apostle (which are inspired by God) utterly condemn any such thing. It is "shameful" (v 5), it shows an utter lack of wisdom in the church (v 5), and it means that the church is defeated in its Christian life and walk (v 7).

6:1 "Unrighteous" here means those outside the Church, people of the world. Eph 2:12. "Saints" are believers, not some exceptionally holy believers (note at Rom 1:7). Notice the word "dare." To Paul Christians contending with each other in court was absolutely wrong and shocking. See Matt 5:23-26. The church should decide all disputes between Christians.

6:2 This refers to the judgment that will take place when Christ comes again. Christ's people will reign with Him (2 Tim 2:12; Rev 3:21; 20:4). That is, they will administer God's kingdom with Him, and this will include judging. Compare Matt 19:28; Luke 22:30; Rev 2:26,27.

6:3 Ruling and judging with Christ will mean ruling and judging over all creation and created beings, even the highest. Cannot believers, then, judge the lowly matters of earth?

6:4 He may be speaking with irony or sarcasm. Or he could mean – "it is better to appoint the least qualified believer than to go to worldly judges.

6:5 "Wise" – some of them thought they were very wise indeed. Paul is saying their behavior casts doubt on whether there was

7 Now, therefore, there is utter failure for you, because you go to law against one another. Why do you not rather accept wrong? Why do you not rather let yourselves be cheated? 8 Instead, you do wrong, and cheat, and do this to your brethren!

9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor men who practice sodomy, 10 nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God. 11 And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful for me, but all things are even one wise man there.

6:7 Christians engaging in lawsuits with fellow Christians is not merely failure, it is "utter" failure. They are overcome by the spirit of this world, by greed, or malice, or desire for revenge, or determination to get what they think are their rights, regardless of what happens to their Christian testimony and the reputation of Christ. Their love, their humility, their obedience to God have fallen by the wayside (if indeed they ever had these qualities). It is better to suffer wrong and be cheated than to fight with other Christians for one's so-called rights in a secular court. Compare Matt 5:38-41; Luke 9:23; 14:33.

6:8 It is sad that such words then and now apply to any who profess to belong to Christ.

6:9 "Do you not know" – vs 2,3,19; 3:16. Evidently Paul wondered whether some of these Christians had even the most basic understanding of what it means to be a believer. Did they think that because they called themselves believers they could live as they pleased? Paul now corrects any such mistaken view. Compare 3:18; 15:33; Gal 6:7; Eph 5:6; 1 John 3:7. In a world like this, being deceived is all too easy (Jer 17:9; Heb 3:13; Rev 12:9). And people like to think that no matter how they live they can have a place in God's kingdom and God's heaven. They are mistaken. God's kingdom is not for the wicked, but for those who repent, for the poor in spirit, for those who love righteousness enough to accept persecution for it (Matt 3:2; 4:17; 5:3,10), for those who prove their faith by their good works (Matt 25:34-36; Jam 2:14-26). Let every person who names the name of Christ take this to heart and depart from evil (2 Tim 2:19).

6:10 Eph 5:5; Col 3:5,6; Rev 21:8.

6:11 "And such were some" – true believers were once sinners like everyone else (Eph 2:3; Titus 3:3). But they no longer live as they once did.

"Washed" – John 13:10; 15:3; Titus 3:5.

"Sanctified" – John 17:17-19.

not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of anything. 13 Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. 14 And God has both raised up the Lord, and will raise us up by his own power. 15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a prostitute? Absolutely not! 16 What? Do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body with her? For two, he says, "will be one flesh." 17 But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. 18 Flee from sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who is sexually immoral sins against his own body.

"Justified" – Rom 3:24. They were new creations in Christ (2 Cor 5:17), and this was a result of the work of God's Spirit.

6:12-20 Now Paul speaks of the freedom that believers have in Christ. Writing to other churches Paul had said that believers are not under the law (Rom 6:14), that Christ had given them liberty (Gal 5:1), that in the matter of food and the observance of days there is no restriction whatever (Rom 14:1-6,14). It seems some Christians in Corinth were twisting Paul's teaching and saying that any believer was free to practice whatever he pleased, including sexual sins. Paul here fights this false teaching. He shows that believers have not been set free from the law so that they might sin, but that they might not sin. Verse 12 gives two restrictions on the liberty believers have (10:23,24,31 adds two more). They must do only those things which are beneficial and must not become enslaved to any desire or habit (compare Rom 6:16-18; John 8:34).

Verse 13 was aimed at those who thought they were free to commit sexual sins just as they were free to eat anything they wanted. But the two things are entirely different. No kind of food is contrary to God's purpose for man's stomach, but sexual sins are against God's purposes for the human body. God will raise the bodies of believers from the dead to live an eternal life in glory and holiness (v 14). Believers now must recognize this and use their bodies for God's high purpose.

6:15 See 12:27; Rom 12:4,5; Eph 1:22,23. A believer should never even consider doing what Christ Himself would not do.

6:16 Gen 2:24.

6:17 John 17:21-23.

6:18 "Flee" – Gen 39:11,12; 1 Tim 6:11; 2 Tim 2:22. And where should we run? See Prov 18:10. Believers must not even permit themselves the thought of sexual immorality (Matt 5:28; Eph 5:3). We should not try to see how close we can get without sinning, but stay as far away from it as possible.

19 What? Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have received from God, and you are not your own? 20 For you were bought at a price. Therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

7 Now concerning the things you wrote to me about: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2 Nevertheless, to avoid sexual immorality, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband give to the wife the affection due to her, and likewise also the wife to the husband. 4 The wife does not have authority over her own body; the husband does. Likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. 5 Do not deprive one another, unless it is with mutual consent for a time in order to give yourselves to fasting and prayer. Then come

6:19,20 See 3:16. The temple does not belong to itself but to God. It is set apart for His worship and praise. A believer has no right to use his body as if it were his own. Here is the clearest restriction on the freedom believers have in Christ. They must do only those things which please and honor God's Spirit who lives in them.

"Not your own" - John 6:37; 17:6.

"Price" - Matt 20:28; 1 Pet 1:18,19.

7:1-40 Certain facts may help us to understand Paul's teaching on marriage in this chapter. Paul believed in the full inspiration of the Bible (2 Tim 3:16), and would never have dreamed of contradicting anything that God had revealed in it. God Himself ordained marriage for the good of mankind (Gen 2:20-24; Matt 19:4-6). Paul himself elsewhere described the marriage relationship in beautiful and meaningful language (Eph 5:25-33). He did not forbid marriage to believers and knew that anyone who did so was deceived (1 Tim 4:1-3). He emphasized the freedom believers had either to marry or not to marry. He did not teach that being single was a holier state than marriage.

He was writing to Christians at Corinth who had written him a letter of enquiry. He was writing them in view of a "present crisis" (v 26), and the "time was short" (v 29). At such a time in his opinion it was better for those who were single to remain so, if they could (vs 8,9). Certain things Paul said here are general truths good for all time, others had to do with the particular circumstances in Corinth at that time.

7:1 Paul taught elsewhere that it is also good for people to marry (1 Tim 5:14). He certainly would have agreed with Heb 13:4.

7:2 The single life at Corinth at that time was good, but only if single believers could abstain from sexual immorality (6:13-18).

7:3-5 Any marriage is headed for trouble together again, so that Satan does not tempt you because of a lack of self-control. 6 But I say this as a concession and not as a command. 7 For I wish that all men were even as I myself. But each man has his own gift from God, one in this manner, and another in that.

8 Therefore, I say to the unmarried and widows: It is good for them if they remain just as I am. 9 But if they cannot control themselves, let them marry, for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

10 And to the married I give this command, yet not I, but the Lord: The wife must not separate from her husband; 11 but if she separates, she must remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband. And the husband must not divorce his wife.

12 But to the rest I say this (I; the Lord did not): If any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her. 13 And the woman who has when either husband or wife will not follow this principle.

7:5 If they stay apart for a long time they may be giving Satan an opportunity to tempt them to sin with others.

7:6 He is probably referring here to v 2. He neither commanded believers not to marry nor to marry.

7:7 "As I myself" - single (vs 8).

"Gift" - God gives the gift of marriage to some, the gift of the single life to others. And we may be sure that all of God's gifts are good. By His grace some have the desire for marriage and the opportunity to marry other believers. Others by God's grace have the desire and ability to live without marriage and without immorality. See Matt 19:11,12. This was true then, and is true now.

7:9 Being aflame with desire, being always distracted with struggles against sexual temptations, is harmful to the spiritual life. And God wants His people to be spiritual and victorious whether they are married or unmarried.

7:10,11 What he has said before was not a command (v 6). Believers are free either to marry or not to marry. But having married they are not free to divorce each other. So he gives a command based on the teaching of Christ Himself - Matt 5:32; 19:3-9; Luke 16:18. Marriage between believers is a binding relationship as long as husband and wife live.

"But if" - there may be cases when one of the partners finds the marriage intolerable and leaves. Such a person must not marry again as long as the other partner is still alive.

7:12-16 "The Lord did not" - Paul does not mean that the Lord Jesus had not taught him about the following circumstances. He means that when Jesus was on earth He did not say anything about them. Paul taught that believers should marry only believers a husband who is an unbeliever, if he is willing to live with her, she must not leave him. 14 For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified through the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified through the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy.

15 But if the unbeliever leaves, let him leave. In such cases a brother or a sister is not bound. But God has called us to peace. 16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, O man, whether you will save your wife?

17 But as God has allotted to each one, as the Lord has called each one, so let him live. And so I appoint in all churches. 18 Is any man called being circumcised? He should not become uncircumcised. Is anyone called being uncircumcised? He should not become circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing. But keeping the commandments of God is the important thing. 20 Everyone should remain in the same situation in which he was called. 21 Were you called while you

(v 39; 2 Cor 6:14,15; etc). But either a husband or wife may become a believer after marriage and the other not. Paul here gives clear directions about such a case.

7:14 Observe the way Paul uses the words "sanctified" and "holy" here. He uses it in the sense of being set apart. He is not saying that an unbeliever is cleansed from sin and becomes morally pure because of marriage to a believer. He means that such an unbeliever is set apart from unbelievers who are not married to believers – presumably God will deal with that unbeliever and with the children of such a marriage in a special way. Paul does not explain what he means by this, but we may reasonably think that the difference in treatment will be real and meaningful. On "holy" and "sanctification" see notes at Lev 20:7; John 17:17-19.

7:15 "Peace" – a believer must live in peace with an unbelieving husband or wife if that is possible, and must be at peace if the unbeliever decides to leave. There should be no bondage, no attempt at compulsion in such a case.

7:16 "Save" – a believing husband or wife, by a holy life, by a good testimony to Christ, by prayer and patience may bring the unbelieving spouse to Christ and salvation in Him.

7:17-24 In these verses Paul is speaking of marriage as well as the other conditions of life he uses as illustrations. God has "called" each one to a certain condition, and He has "assigned" each a certain place. The important thing for every believer is to know what God's will for him or her is and remain obedient to it. There should be no grumbling and complaining about one's lot in life, but a recognition that God's will is best and a humble acceptance of it.

7:17 We should not think Paul is speaking were a slave? Do not be concerned about it. But if you can become free, then use the opportunity. 22 For the one who is called by the Lord while a slave, is the Lord's free man. Likewise the one who is called while free, is Christ's slave. 23 You are bought at a price. Do not become the slaves of men. 24 Brethren, everyone should remain with God in the situation in which he was called.

25 Now concerning virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I give judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be faithful. 26 Therefore I think this is good in the present distress: that it is good for a man to remain as he is. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you not bound to a wife? Do not seek a wife. 28 But even if you marry, you have not sinned by doing so, and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless, such people will have trouble in the flesh, and I would spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short. So that from now on those who have wives should be as though they had none, 30 and those who weep, only about the situation in Corinth.

7:18 Jews who became believers in Christ should not try to destroy the marks of their Jewishness, and Gentile believers should not think they must be circumcised (as some false teachers taught – Acts 15:1).

7:19 In this Church era a mark in the body, or the absence of it, has no importance in God's sight. Doing God's will is the important thing. See Gal 6:15; Rom 2:25-29.

7:21,22 Slavery was very common in those days in the Roman empire, and many slaves believed in Christ. What should they do about their enslaved condition? Accept it with peace, gain freedom if possible (but not, of course, with violence), and recognize that Christ has made them free – free from bondage to sin, death and the law of Moses. Compare John 8:36; Gal 5:1. On the other hand those who are not physically slaves to men should recognize they are Christ's "slaves" (Rom 6:16-22). In other words, believers in every condition of life should recognize that their relationship to Christ is the important thing and serve and glorify Him.

7:23 See 6:20.

7:24 The fact that this is the third time he has said this indicates its importance (vs 17,20).

"With God" – whatever situation we as believers are in we should live as in God's presence, recognizing His nearness to us.

7:25 Verses 10,12.

7:26 "Distress" – the same Greek word is used in Luke 21:23; 2 Cor 6:4; 1 Thess 3:7. His point is that in certain times and conditions it is better for believers not to marry. It is also true that in all times it is better for some (possibly few) believers not to marry (compare Jer 16:1,2).

7:29-35 "The time is short" (v 29). It is not clear what Paul meant by this. It is likely he as though they did not weep, and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice, and those who buy, as though they possessed nothing, 31 and those who use this world, as not misusing it. For this world's present form is passing away.

32 But I want you to be without anxiety. He who is unmarried cares for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord, 33 but he who is married cares for the things of the world, how he may please his wife. 34 There is a difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own benefit, not that I may put you under restraint, but to point out an excellent way so that you may be devoted to the Lord without distractions.

36 But if any man thinks he is not behaving properly toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of youth, and if it need be so, let him do what he wants, let them marry. He does not sin in this. 37 Nevertheless, he who stands firm in his heart, not being under compulsion, but having power over his own will, and having so determined in his heart foresaw that even greater trouble would soon come on the Church. Some think he was expressing his conviction that the Lord Jesus might come very shortly (compare Rom 13:11,12. Neither he nor any other apostle knew the time of Christ's coming). However that might be, he expected tremendous changes would soon take place (v 31), and he wanted believers to be occupied with only the most important thing on earth – their love and service for the Lord (v 35).

7:36-38 Paul wants it to be clear that he is not forbidding marriage to anyone. Even in those changing and difficult times he says believers had freedom to do what seemed good to them as they walked with God.

7:39 Verse 10; Rom 7:2. Paul insists that believers should marry only believers. This is what he meant by "in the Lord."

7:40 "Happier" – can those who do not marry be as happy as those who do? Yes, even happier, if the single state is God's gift to them (v 7).

"Spirit of God" – Paul knew he had the Spirit of God. He means here that he thought God's Spirit was inspiring him to write as he just did.

8:1-13 This was another matter of disagreement among Christians in those days – some said it was all right to eat food that had been offered to idols, others said it was wrong. All of them knew certain facts that had a bearing on this question. But Paul raised the discussion to a higher level. Christian love, he says, is more important than knowledge; and knowledge without that that he will keep his virgin unmarried, does well. 38 So then he who gives her in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.

39 The wife is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband has died, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, but only in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she remains as she is, in my judgment. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now concerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2 And if anyone thinks he knows something, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know it. 3 But if anyone loves God, that one is known by God.

4 So concerning the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice to idols: We know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is but one God, and no other. 5 For though there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many called gods and lords), 6 yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and through whom we live.

love can be a harmful thing. He gives the highest possible principles of action for believers – love fellow believers, try to build them up, and abstain from anything that might harm them.

8:1 Knowledge can produce pride and arrogance in oneself. Acting in love causes others to grow in their Christian lives.

8:2 No one ever knows all there is to know about any subject. To be proud of one's little knowledge is a foolish thing. It is wisdom to humbly acknowledge how little we know.

8:3 Love for God is better than all knowledge. In itself it is the highest kind of knowledge (13:2; 1 John 4:7,8). God knows those who love Him – He recognizes them as belonging to Him, He approves of them (compare 2 Tim 2:19; Gal 4:9).

8:4 Deut 6:4; Ps 115:2-8; Isa 44:6-9.

8:5 He means that idolaters think there are many gods and lords both in heaven and on earth, but believers in Christ know there is only one true God, one true Lord. See in 10:20 what he says about the many gods and lords some people worship. See also Acts 14:15.

8:6 Verse 4. To say there is one Lord, Jesus Christ, is not to say the Father is not Lord. Jesus Himself called Him Lord – Matt 11:25. In the same way, to say that there is one God, the Father, is not to say that Jesus Christ is not God. God the Father inspired the writers of the Bible to call Him God (Isa 9:6; John 1:1; Acts 20:28; Rom 9:5; Phil 2:6; Col 2:9; Titus 2:13; Heb 1:3,8;

7 However everyone does not have this understanding. For some, being conscious of the idol, to this hour eat such food as something offered to an idol, and because their conscience is weak it is defiled. 8 But food does not commend us to God. For if we eat, we are not the better, or if we do not eat we are not the worse.

9 But watch out that somehow this liberty of yours does not become a stumbling block to those who are weak. 10 For if anyone sees you who have understanding sit at food in the temple of an idol, will not his weak conscience encourage him to eat those things which are offered to idols? 11 And because of your knowledge shall the weak brother, for whom Christ died, be ruined? 12 But when you sin against the brethren like this, and wound their weak conscience, you are sinning against Christ. 13 Therefore, if such food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, lest I cause my brother to stumble.

9 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? 2 Even if I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you, for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

3 This is my defense to those who judge me: 4 Have we not the right to eat and to drink? 5 Have we not the right to take along a wife, a sister in the Lord just as the other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? 6 Or have only I and Barnabas not the right to refrain from

1 John 5:20).

Paul says that through Him all things came into existence – these same words are used of God in Rom 11:36. Actually, to say that Jesus is Lord is to say He is God. See notes at Luke 2:11; Phil 6,10,11. Are there, then, two Gods? Absolutely not. There is one God, three persons in the one Godhead. Notes on the Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; etc. Observe that Paul defines the one true God as the Creator of all things (Gen 1:1; Isa 40:25-28). He is the One we should seek, the one we should worship, and no other.

8:7 He means not everyone knows that an idol is nothing, and that food offered to an idol is still just food and does not become unclean. They thought it was wrong to eat such food even in their own homes, and if they ate it their consciences accused them. A “weak” conscience is one which thinks something is sinful though it actually is not, or one which is not able to decide whether it is sinful or not.

8:8 This is what some at Corinth would have said. Paul agreed with it, but says in the following verses that there is a higher principle than this.

8:9-13 Compare 10:23-33; Rom 14:14-23. Believers have freedom to eat or not to eat this or that food. But there are other matters which should concern them more than this freedom. Fellow believers should mean more to them than pleasing themselves.

8:10 “Temple of an idol” – Paul later said that no believer should eat in such a place (10:19-21), and he certainly is not suggesting here that it is all right to do so.

8:11 Christ loved those weak brothers enough to die for them. Should not strong believers love them enough to abstain from behaving in a way that might harm them?

“Ruined” – or “destroyed” – Rom 14:15. This means injured in their spiritual life. It does not speak of final destruction from the presence of the Lord as in 2 Thess 1:9 (see John 6:37-40; 10:27-29; Rom 5:9,10; 8:28-39).

8:12 Anyone who is the cause of a believer sinning is sinning himself both against that believer and against Christ (compare Acts 9:4; Ps 51:4).

8:13 This is a principle Paul always followed, not just in the matter of food. And so must we (10:24,32,33). It is the principle of love. Those who love as they ought are always willing to deny self for the good of others.

9:1-27 The principle Paul taught in chapter 8 was self-denial for the good of other believers. In this chapter he sets before believers his own example. He did not preach one thing and practice its opposite. Several times in this chapter he refers to his freedom and his rights – vs 1,4,5,12,19. But he did not use his freedom and rights to please himself, but thought only of how he could help others come to Christ and be built up in faith. He concludes by saying that self-denial is the only way any servant of Christ can win the rewards God promises His faithful servants.

9:1 “Free” – he speaks of spiritual liberty, freedom from any law regarding foods, etc.

“Apostle” – he means that an apostle should have as much freedom and as many rights as other believers.

“Seen. . . our Lord” – 15:8; Acts 9:3-5.

9:2 Some were denying that Paul was an apostle. But the believers at Corinth should not be so foolish. It was through him that they believed in Christ – 4:15.

9:3 His defense against those who denied he was an apostle is in vs 1,2.

9:4-14 In this portion he speaks of the “rights” of the apostles (or, for that matter, any others Christ sends into His work). These “rights” were to eat and drink whatever they wanted (v 4), to marry and take along their wives on their journeys (v 5), and to receive their full support from those they ministered to (vs 6-14).

9:4 Rom 14:14.

9:5 “Brothers of the Lord” – Acts 1:14.

“Cephas” – Peter (John 1:42). He was married (Matt 8:14), and apparently his wife went with him on his travels.

9:6 Acts 18:3; 20:34.

working for a living ?

7 Who ever goes to war at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? Or who tends a flock, and does not drink of the milk from the flock? 8 Do I say these things on my own as a man? Does not the Law also say the same thing? 9 For it is written in the law of Moses,

You shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treads out the corn.

Is it for oxen that God is concerned? 10 Or does he say this altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written, so that the one who plows might plow in hope, and the one who threshes in hope might share in his hope. 11 If we have sown spiritual seed in you, is it a great thing if we reap your material things? 12 If others are taking part in this privilege among you, should we not even more? Nevertheless we have not used this privilege, but endure all things, so we would not hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do you not know that those who work among the holy things of the temple eat of the offerings of the temple? And those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar? 14 Even so

9:7 He uses these illustrations to show how natural it is that churches should support those who work for Christ in them.

9:8,9 Deut 25:4; 1 Tim 5:17,18.

9:11 Here is the application of the illustrations.

"Spiritual seed" – apostles, evangelists, pastors and teachers sow the Word of God (Luke 8:11).

"Reap material things" – that which was needed for their support.

9:12 See the principle which worked in Paul's heart. For the sake of Christ's gospel he was willing to renounce any rights, abstain from any action that might offend others, put up with anything. See 2 Tim 2:10. He is an example to us all (4:16; 11:1).

9:13 See Lev 7:6,8-10,14,28-36.

9:14 Verse 11; Matt 10:9,10; Luke 10:7,8. It is the solemn duty of all assemblies or groups of Christians to support to the best of their ability the servants of Christ who labor among them. Any group which will not do so is being disobedient to the Lord Himself.

9:15-18 Paul was entrusted with the secret truths of God (4:1,2), and Christ had sent him to proclaim them (Acts 20:24; Gal 2:7; Eph 3:8). Whether he wanted to do so or not, he still had to do it. If he did not, it meant "woe" (v 16. This indicates some sort of loss or punishment). So preaching the gospel was no reason for boasting. But he had a ground for boasting. It was this: he preached without pay. In this way he proved that his motives were good, that he was preaching "willingly", that he was not like a hired man. He was like a soldier who the Lord has ordained that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things. Nor have I written these things that it should be done to me like this. For I consider it better to die than have anyone make this boast of mine void. 16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast about, for necessity presses on me. Yes, woe is me, if I do not preach the gospel! 17 Now if I do this willingly, I have a reward, but if against my will, still a stewardship of the gospel has been entrusted to me. 18 What is my reward then? That when I preach the gospel, I may set forth the gospel of Christ without charge, that I do not misuse my privilege in the gospel.

19 For though I am free from bondage to all, yet I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more of them. 20 And to the Jews I became like a Jew, that I might win the Jews; to those who are under the Law, like one under the Law, that I might win those who are under the Law; 21 to those without the Law, like one without the Law (not being without law toward God, but under Christ's law) that I might win those who are without the Law. 22 To the weak I became like one served at his own expense (v 7), happy to serve so good a master as the Lord Jesus. In v 18 he speaks of his pay. His pay was to serve without pay and so prove his integrity and love.

9:19 Chapters 8 and 9 are about the proper use of Christian liberty, of spiritual freedom. Here Paul says he is willing to give it up altogether if it enabled him to bring others to Christ. In other words, he loved people more than his own freedom. His personal likes and dislikes were as nothing to him compared with his desire to do good to others. He wanted to win them more than he wanted to do what pleased him. In the next verses he shows what he meant by saying he made himself a "servant" (or "slave" – the Greek word means either) to all. He speaks of three kinds of people – the Jews, the Gentiles, and those weak in conscience and faith.

9:20 He did things that would make his teaching more acceptable to the Jews – if those things were not contrary to the Christian faith and way of life. Examples of this are recorded at Acts 16:3; 18:18; 21:20-26.

9:21 "Without the law" – Rom 2:12. Working among people who were not Jews he ignored Jewish laws and ceremonies. This does not mean he ignored the moral requirements of the law (see Rom 8:4). He knew he still must obey God and follow the spiritual laws Christ taught.

9:22 "Weak" – 8:7; Rom 14:1. He was careful not to offend or grieve them. He gave up his freedom and his rights so that he might win them to more spiritual views. Not the pleasing of self, but the good of weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. 23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might share in it with you.

24 Do you not know that those who run in a race all run but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may get the prize. 25 And everyone who competes for the prize uses self-control in all things. Now they do it to get a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one. 26 Therefore I run accordingly, not uncertainly; I others was his aim among all kinds of people. See Rom 15:1-3.

9:23 The gospel was the important thing to Paul, not his preferences, his appetites, or his "rights." "Share" means partake with others in the blessings of the gospel and not simply to have them himself.

9:24-27 Do we wish to win the rewards God gives for faithful service? There is only one way, the way Paul took. It is the way of self-denial and discipline for the sake of the gospel. See Matt 10:38; 16:24; Luke 9:23.

9:24 Is service for Christ then, like running a race? In some respects, yes. See Acts 20:24; 2 Tim 4:7; Heb 12:1. And not everyone who runs gets a prize. The prize Paul speaks of is not salvation (this is a gift and all believers have it, not just one among many - Eph 2:8,9). The prize is some reward for service to Christ.

9:25 "Crown" - note at 2 Tim 4:8. The New Testament speaks of several crowns which Christ's servants may win - 1 Thess 2:19; 2 Tim 4:8; Jam 1:12; 1 Pet 5:4. Athletes take great pains and undergo rigid training and discipline to win the temporary rewards they get on earth. Should not Christ's servants be at least as wise and as dedicated as they? The rewards we can win are eternal.

9:26 Paul ran with a goal in mind - Phil 3:13,14. He did not make a pretense of fighting. He actually fought, and he fought to win - 2 Tim 4:7.

9:27 "Roughly discipline" - this is from a Greek word meaning literally "to strike under the eye" and is used figuratively as in the above translation. It has also been translated "buffet" or "bruise", but we should not think that he physically afflicted his body. He is speaking of self-control. He did not pamper his body, but forced it to obey him. It seems, then, he regarded his body as a possible danger, as something that could get the upper hand over him, as a strong fighter which had to be subdued (compare Rom 7:24). And he refused to be a slave to his body, but by discipline and self-denial he aimed to make his body his slave. He wanted that future eternal prize of God's approval. For that he was willing to renounce the present ease and pleasures of the body.

Evidently, Paul knew no easy way to live a holy, spiritual, fruitful Christian life. For him the way involved real struggle and determination to subdue the flesh by God's Spirit.

fight accordingly, and not like someone who beats the air, 27 but I roughly discipline my body, and treat it like a slave, lest possibly, after I have preached to others, I myself will not be approved for the prize.

10 And, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, 2 and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, 3 and all ate the same spiritual food, 4 and all

"Not be approved" - this is a more accurate translation than "be a castaway" (which is actually misleading). Several versions of the Bible have "be disqualified." He is not saying here that he feared he might lose his salvation, but his rewards (compare 3:12-15; 2 Tim 2:5). The body is the home of the sinful nature in men. It wants nothing but the satisfaction of its desires and cravings. A body not kept under control will bring a person under its control. This can lead to gluttony, drunkenness, immorality, and other sins of the flesh.

10:1-11 "And" - in the closing verses of chapter 9 Paul speaks of the necessity of self-denial and discipline, and gives himself as an example of one who practiced them. Now he gives examples (vs 6,11) from the history of Israel of those who did not practice them, and he shows the terrible consequences of giving in to evil desires.

10:1 "Cloud" - Ex 13:21,22. "Sea" - Ex 14:21,22,29. Paul is saying they all - the whole nation of Israel - came out of Egypt and started the journey for Canaan.

10:2 "Baptized" - their passage through the sea was like a baptism. It was a picture of a complete break with the old life they had lived in Egypt. There were baptized "into Moses." The Greek word translated "into" (eis) also means "into", "for", "in", "on", "to-ward", "concerning." The meaning is they were brought under the leadership of Moses. He was to be the head of a united people on their journey to Canaan. Christian baptism has a similar meaning. It signifies a new life lived under the Lordship of Christ, united to Him as the Head of the Church.

10:3 This food was manna. See Ex 16:14,15.

10:4 See Ex 17:5,6. The manna and water are called "spiritual" because they were given miraculously by God's Spirit. The rock from which the water came was a type or picture of Christ who gives the "living water" (John 4:10,14; 7:38,39; 19:34). The Old Testament nowhere says that the literal rock went rolling through the desert with the Israelites as they journeyed (though it should not be thought impossible that water from the rock made a channel and followed them - Ps 105:41). But Christ Himself went with them and provided all they needed. Paul says the rock which accompanied them and provided for them was Christ.

In the Old Testament "Rock" is a symbol of the one true God, Jehovah (note at Deut drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ. 5 But with most of them God was not pleased; their bodies were scattered in the desert.

6 Now these things happened as examples for us, so that we would not crave evil things, as they craved them. 7 And do not become idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. 8 And let us not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell dead.

9 And let us not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. 10 And do not complain, as some of them

32:4). In this way Paul is saying that Christ is Jehovah. (See also v 9; Gen 16:7; Ex 3:2; 32:34; John 8:24,58; 12:41; other references at Luke 2:11.)

10:5 In spite of all they experienced of God's grace, in spite of all their great privileges as the people of God, the vast majority of them never reached Canaan. They were "not approved for the prize" (9:27). God's punishment came upon them and they wandered aimlessly in the desert until they died. 10:6-10 Here are the reasons why they failed and fell in the desert. Paul speaks of five sins they were guilty of – setting their hearts on evil things, idolatry, immorality, testing God, and grumbling. These are all examples of common sins which all Christians must avoid. If we do not avoid them, have we any right to expect that our end will be better than theirs?

10:6 Setting the heart on evil things instead of on the Lord alone is a root cause of all other sin. Paul elsewhere tells believers to put all evil desires to death (Col 3:5). If we permit them to remain in our hearts we will find that eventually they will bite like poisonous snakes.

10:7 Ex 32:6. Afterwards Israel fell into idolatry again and again. In His Word God everywhere condemns idolatry (v 14; Ex 20:3,4; etc).

10:8 Num 25:1-9. Numbers tells us that 24,000 died in the plague God sent. Paul says 23,000 died "in one day." Evidently the other 1,000 died later. God detests adultery and forbids it in the clearest terms (Ex 20:14; etc).

10:9 Num 21:4-9. This is another very serious sin which is all too common among Christians.

10:10 Num 14:1-4,37; 16:41-49. The destroying angel brought the plague which killed them. Grumbling about one's lot may be the most common of all sins among Christians. God views it very seriously.

10:11 "Examples" – God wants us to see that what He hated among His people then He hates now, and that punishment will follow sin as surely as day follows night.

complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened to them as examples. And they are written as a warning to us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. 12 Therefore let him who thinks he stands watch out that he does not fall.

13 No temptation has taken hold of you but such as is common to man. But God is faithful. He will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able to bear; but with the temptation will also make a way to escape, so that you may be able to bear it.

14 Therefore, my dearly loved ones, flee from idolatry. 15 I speak as to wise men. Judge for yourselves what I say. 16 The cup of blessing for which we give thanks, is it not the communion of "Ends of the ages" – Heb 9:26. The first coming of Christ brought to an end all previous ages and began a new one. We should learn the lessons God taught in previous ages.

10:12 In other words, self-confidence can be disastrous. No matter how great our privileges and how favorable our circumstances, no matter how much we know and have experienced, we may still fall into terrible sin. We must always recognize our weakness and find our strength in the Lord. And we must follow Paul's example in 9:27.

10:13 Temptations will "take hold of" believers as they do everyone else. But believers have a promise that others do not have, and a very great promise it is. God will never let any temptation be so powerful, so attractive that a believer cannot resist it. He will always provide a way out of it. He is absolutely faithful. Of course, we must want that way and look for it. Otherwise we may not see it. If we want to be overcome because the sin we are tempted to do is pleasing to us, then we are in grave danger of falling. If we fall into sin we should never try to accuse God of allowing a temptation we could not resist. See also Matt 6:13.

10:14-22 Paul speaks of the Lord's Supper and also a feast before idols. Those who take part in the first must keep themselves far from the second. To attend a feast before an idol or in an idol temple is an act of idolatry; it is to get involved with demons.

10:14 Verse 7; 1 John 5:21. From some things believers should simply run and keep as far away as possible. Compare 6:18.

10:16 We must interpret this verse in the light of Matt 26:26-28. Compare also John 6:53-58,63. "Communion" does not mean a literal eating of the body and blood of Christ. It means spiritual participation, a partaking together. We take the literal bread and wine but partake in the Spirit with Christ. The bread and wine of the Lord's Supper are symbols of the relationship believers have with the Lord (compare v 18). They are reminders of His death for them which they participate in by faith. The Lord's the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 17 For though we are many we are one bread, one body, for we all partake of that one bread.

18 Look at Israel according to the flesh. Do not those who eat of the sacrifices partake of the altar? 19 What am I saying then? That an idol is anything, or what is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything? 20 No, but I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons. 21 You cannot drink both the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons. You cannot take part in the Lord's table, and in the table of demons. 22 Are we provoking the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but not all things are beneficial. All things are lawful for me, but not all things build up. 24 No one should seek his own benefit, but each one the benefit of others.

25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no questions, for conscience sake. 26 "For the earth and its fullness belongs to the Lord."

27 If any of those who are unbelievers ask you to a feast, and you have a mind to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no question, for conscience' sake. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This was offered in sacrifice to idols", do not eat it, for the sake of the one who pointed this out, and for conscience' sake; for the earth and its fullness belongs to the Lord. 29 "Conscience", I say, not meaning your own, but that of the other person. For why should my liberty be judged by another man's conscience? 30 For if I partake with thanksgiving, why am I slanderously accused for something I give thanks for?

31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all for the glory of God.

Supper is a ceremony of fellowship with Christ who died for us, a thanksgiving service to Him because He has redeemed us. 10:17 One loaf of bread was used in the usual observance of the Lord's Supper. When believers partake of the bread they show they are united as one body (12:12,13).

10:18 Lev 7:15; 8:31; Deut 12:18. To eat of the sacrifices is to "partake of the altar." These words give light on what is meant to partake in the blood and body of Christ (v 16). Partaking of the altar obviously did not mean a literal eating of the altar. It signified a close relationship with the altar and its sacrifices. It signified a fellowship with all others who partook of it and in all the altar stood for.

10:19-21 This is the point Paul was aiming at when he gave the two illustrations in vs 16-18. Participating in Christ signifies fellowship with all others who do so, and acceptance of all that the sacrifice of Christ means. In the same way, participating in a feast before an idol or in an idol temple is to become a part of that whole system of false worship. It is to take part with demons. 10:19 See 8:4.

10:20 Idols themselves are nothing. But behind the idols are demons (they are the "gods" and "lords" of 8:5). They who worship them may (or may not) think they are giving offerings to God, but they are not actually doing so. This is a very important statement concerning the worship of many people in the world. See also Deut 32:17. To share food offered to idols is like participating with the demons behind them. It is to show a measure of agreement with the worship offered them.

10:21 "The Lord's table" signifies the feast of the Lord's Supper. There He is the host, and believers who partake of it are guests. "The table of demons" means an idol feast. There demons are the hosts and those who partake are their guests. By using this language Paul shows how impossible it is for believers to join these two things, or to think that taking part in an idol feast means nothing.

10:22 See Ex 20:5; Deut 32:21; Ps 78:58. Dare we think we are strong to do what He forbids or stand when His anger is aroused?

10:23 See 6:12.

10:24 He returns to this important principle - 6:9,13; 8:1; Rom 14:19; 15:1-3. See John 13:34.

10:25 Much of the meat sold in the market had previously been offered to idols. But being in the market it may be bought and eaten at home.

10:26 Ps 24:1. Meat in the market even though offered to an idol, by creation actually belongs to God, and His people may eat it.

10:27 This refers to a meal in a house, not a feast in a temple. Paul has already said Christ's believers must not partake of a feast in a temple (vs 20,21).

10:28 In such a case as this the believer who eats may give the impression that idolatry is unimportant, and this he should never do. And he is troubling the conscience of any other believer present who thinks that it is wrong to eat any meat anywhere that has been offered to an idol (8:7).

10:29,30 The believer who thinks it is wrong in any circumstance or in any place to eat meat offered to an idol may condemn the believer who is sure he has the freedom to eat it. Paul says it is better not to use this freedom if this is going to be the result.

10:31 Now Paul gives a great principle that should govern every act of a believer. Here is the highest motive possible to anyone. If all believers live according to this there will be no divisions and factions in the church and no immorality, no condemning of other believers, no actions which thoughtlessly offend others. If every action in our daily lives must pass under the scrutiny of this verse many things thought harmless or 32 Give offense to no one, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God, 33 just as I please everyone in everything, not seeking my own benefit, but the benefit of many, that they may be saved.

11 Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ. 2 Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things, and obey the instructions just as I gave them to you.

3 But I want you to know that the head of indifferent will have to go.

10:32 See 8:9,13; Rom 14:13,20,21. If we live according to v 31 we will fulfill this also. "Church" – note at Matt 16:18.

10:33 See 9:19-23; 2 Tim 2:10. He did not set before them a way of life that he himself was not willing to follow. Selfish and self-centered people think such a way totally undesirable. But it is the highest kind of life and leads to peace of heart and joy in God and eternal reward.

11:1 See 4:16; Phil 3:17; 1 Thess 1:6. Paul gives here the reason why it is good to follow his example – God had enabled him to live as Christ had lived. In fact, it was Christ in him doing the living (Gal 2:20). And that is the only way they or anyone would have the power to follow Paul's example.

11:2 "Instructions" – or "traditions." These were the teachings concerning the Christian faith which all the apostles had taught. Now Paul turns to the subject of public worship and shows how believers ought to behave at such times. He continues with this subject to the end of chapter 14.

11:3 "Head" here means the one in authority. A man is to be in subjection to Christ. The woman is to be subject to her husband (Eph 5:24; 1 Tim 2:11,12; 1 Pet 3:1,5,6). Any attempt by a wife to rule her husband by any means whatever is an attempt to overthrow God's order, and it will certainly have unhappy consequences. Paul does not state here how a husband should use his authority, but he does in Eph 5:25,28,33. When Paul says the authority over Christ is God, he is not saying Christ does not share God's nature (a woman subject to her husband still shares human nature with him. So Christ, though subject to the Father, shares God's nature). Paul is only saying what Christ Himself taught. See John 14:28; 5:19-23.

11:4-10 Paul is speaking of public worship. At such times all things should be done "properly and in order." Paul makes a distinction between what is proper for men and what is proper for women. He based this distinction not on the customs of the times, but on the basic relationship between men and women which God Himself has revealed (vs 3,7-9).

11:4 Some think the second use of "head" in this verse refers to Christ (v 3). This would mean that Paul used the word in two different senses in this verse. This seems every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or prophesying with his head covered dishonours his head. 5 But every woman who prays or prophesies with uncovered head dishonours her head, for that is just like having her head shaved. 6 For if the woman's head is not covered, let her hair be cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut off or shaved, let her head be covered. 7 For a man indeed should not cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God. But unlikely. To dishonor his head probably means to dishonor himself.

11:5,6 Is it fitting for women to pray or prophesy in public meetings when both men and women are present? Paul does not take up that question here. In 14:34 he says "women should remain silent in the churches." The subject there is prophesying, not praying. He never says specifically that a woman should not pray aloud in public meetings for worship. In the New Testament we see that some women also had the gift of prophesying – Acts 2:18; 21:9. It seems that Paul taught they should not use this gift in public meetings of both men and women, but that they might do so at other times (14:34,35; 1 Tim 2:11,12).

Here in v 5 Paul seems to be saying that if a woman prays (in public, when men are present) or prophesies (at any other time) she should cover her head. A shaven head for a woman was a mark of dishonor. So is praying or prophesying without covering her head, Paul says. He does not say that covering the head is necessary even when not praying aloud or prophesying.

Some people may say that coverings for the head (or long or short hair – vs 14,15) are only symbols and not important. It is true that they are symbols, but symbols God has appointed have their importance, and those who are ready to get rid of the symbols may be showing also their readiness to get rid of that which the symbols signify. But, someone may say, isn't all this a comparatively small matter? What if it is? Believers are not to please themselves even in those things they think are small matters (10:29,33; 11:1). But don't Christians have freedom? They have freedom, but they should use their freedom to do what is fitting, and not to act contrary to what is fitting.

11:7-10 He does not base his views of what is honorable or dishonorable on local customs, but on God's purpose in creating men and women. He is speaking of the creation of the first man and woman (Genesis chapters 1 and 2).

11:7 Here is the reason a man should not cover his head in public worship. An uncovered head is a sign of authority and God gave to man authority over all other created things on earth, including woman. In this way a man reflects the glory of God who is the supreme Ruler over all. Women should the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man. 9 Nor was man created for woman, but woman for man. 10 For this reason a woman should have a symbol of man's authority on her head, because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, in the Lord, man is not independent of woman, and woman is not independent of man. 12 For as woman is from man, even so man is through woman; but all things are from God. 13 Judge for yourselves. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? 14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him? 15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her. For her hair is given to her as a covering. 16 But if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do the churches of God.

17 In what I have to tell you now I do not praise you: your meeting together does not cover their heads, Paul says, because it is a sign of submission to the God-given authority men have over them. By submitting to man's authority a woman is reflecting man's glory.

11:8,9 See Gen 2:20-23. He is saying that God put man first in creation to show woman's subordination (woman was "for man", not the reverse of this).

11:10 Here is another reason why women should cover their heads when praying or prophesying, and this reason too had nothing to do with customs at Corinth. Angels are watching the gatherings of believers and they know what is fitting and what is not fitting. Christian women should not behave in a way which is offensive to these messengers whom God has sent forth to serve believers (Heb 1:14).

11:11,12 Paul did not want his readers to think he is exalting men and putting women far below them in everything. In the matter of authority man is the head, but in everything else there is a mutual dependence. God has appointed it that a man and his wife form a unit.

11:13 Paul thinks the matter is so plain that believers should be able to see the truth without any instruction from him.

11:14,15 Paul says long hair is a disgrace to a man but a glory to a woman, and that they should know this without him saying it. What would he say in these days when many women (especially in western countries) cut off their "glory", and many men seem proud of their "disgrace"? Paul does not define "long", but plainly means that women should have longer hair than men. "Covering" in v 15 is not the same covering he speaks of in vs 5,6.

11:16 Paul was aware that some will want to dispute what he says. He will not argue. It is enough that he has presented the truth – truth followed by all the churches in his day.

11:17 Verses 22,34.

produce the better, but the worse. 18 First of all, I hear that when you meet together as a church, that there are divisions among you; and in part I believe it. 19 For there must also be dissensions among you, so that those who are approved by God may be revealed among you.

20 Therefore, when you meet together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's supper, 21 for in eating, everyone begins his own supper ahead of others, and someone is hungry, and another is drunk. 22 What? Do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise the church of God, and shame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? I will not praise you.

23 For I have received from the Lord that which I also passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread, 24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it and 11:18 See 1:10-12; 3:3,4. It seems they did not keep their divisions and quarrels private but brought them to church with them.

11:19 "Dissensions" – even the disputes and factions there were serving a purpose, strange as it may seem.

"Approved" – the Greek word suggests being approved after a test or trial of some kind or other. Evidently God permits divisions, sects, heresies, differences between Christians to occur for a good reason. Such things are a test. They help to reveal which ones are worthy of God's approval. They show who is spiritual, faithful to God's ways, and willing to put into practice the principles Paul has already given in this letter. Without a test there is no passing of a test and no clear revealing who would pass it if there were one.

11:20-22 They said they were observing the Lord's Supper. But they abused the occasion so badly that Paul says it should not even be considered the Lord's Supper. Some churches in those times had a common meal in connection with the Lord's Supper. Because the object of it was to show their love for one another it was called a "love-feast" (Jude 12). But at Corinth it could not rightly be called that, for the Christians there were not thinking of one another but only of themselves or their factions. Their behavior in the church was as if they despised the church (v 22). They forgot that the Lord's Supper spoke of union with Christ and with one another (10:16,17).

11:23 He now begins to reveal again what the Lord's Supper means and how it should be observed. He had once passed this truth on to them but they had gotten away from it. What he had passed on he had received from the Lord Jesus. It agrees with the accounts given in the Gospels. See Matt 26:26-28; Mark 14:22-24; Luke 22:19-22.

11:24 "My body" – the bread (v 28) in the Lord's Supper is a symbol of the body of said, "Take, eat. This is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me." 25 In the same manner also he took the cup after he had eaten, and said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death, until he comes.

27 Therefore whoever eats this bread and drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. 28 But a man should examine himself, and then eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. 29 For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner, not discerning the Lord's body, eats and drinks judgment on himself. 30 For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many have fallen asleep. 31 For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, so that we will not be condemned with the world.

33 Therefore, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. 34 And if anyone is hungry let him eat at home, so that your Christ. On the use of symbols in the New Testament see notes on John 6:53-58,63.

"For you" – this means Christ gave His body to death on the cross as a sacrifice for believers.

"Do this" – this is a solemn command of the Lord Jesus Himself. So any believer who wishes to be obedient must partake of the Lord's Supper.

"In remembrance" – at the time of the Lord's Supper we are to look up and look back (and look within – v 28). Our thoughts should be on Christ above and what He did for us in His death on earth long ago.

11:25 The cup contained wine which, according to Matt 26:28, was a symbol of Christ's blood. It was shed to establish the new covenant (see notes there). Notice the wording here: "this cup is the new covenant." It is obvious that the cup was not literally the new covenant. The cup was simply a cup, but it was a symbol of the new covenant in Christ's blood. We should understand in the same way v 24 which speaks of the bread being Christ's body. It is not His literal body, but a symbol of it. Observe that Paul is teaching them to drink from the cup as well as eat the bread. A proper observance of the Lord's Supper requires both.

11:26 "Proclaim" – in the New Testament this word is usually used of preaching the gospel. Believers' keeping the Lord's Supper is like a gospel sermon, not in words but in action. The subject of this sermon is the death of Christ for sinners. God's purpose is that this proclamation should go on in this way until the second coming of Christ.

"As often" – Paul nowhere says how often believers should observe the Lord's Supper.

11:27 To whom is Paul giving this very serious warning? What is meant by "an unworthy manner"? It is not to think oneself unworthy of participating. It is not partaking with a sense of sinfulness or even a knowledge that one has sinned (if that sin has been confessed and forsaken before partaking of the Supper). Verses 18-22 reveal one unworthy manner. Taking part in the Lord's Supper carelessly, without reverence, without remembering its meaning and applying it to oneself, is to partake in an unworthy manner.

Participating while living in sin, of course, is also in an unworthy manner. And participating in an unworthy manner is to sin (be guilty) concerning the body and blood of Christ. That is, it shows disrespect for the symbols of His body and blood, and this is all the same as showing disrespect for His body and blood. And this is no small sin.

11:28 Taking part in a worthy manner requires preparation of heart and mind. So believers should look at their outward lives and their inner condition before partaking. All sin, all irreverence, all thoughtlessness should be renounced and forsaken. And each one should make sure he or she understands the meaning of the Lord's Supper and the reason for taking part in it.

11:29 "Judgment" here does not mean God's eternal condemnation. It means God's displeasure and His chastening hand, as v 30 makes clear.

"Not discerning the Lord's body" – has two possible meanings. It may mean not recognizing the meaning of the Lord's Supper, failing to realize it is not a meal like any other (the Corinthians were failing in this). Or it may mean not recognizing that all real believers form the body of Christ (10:17; 12:12,13). The Corinthians with their factions and quarrels were failing in this also).

11:30 This is the judgment they were bringing on themselves. This is some of the harm their meetings were causing (v 17). God requires that His people behave in a fitting and orderly way (14:40). If they do not, what God intended to be a blessing to them will result in judgment and punishment.

"Fallen asleep" – see also 5:5 and note. Here "fallen asleep" means departed from this life (note at John 11:11-14).

11:31 Verse 28. We must examine ourselves, judge what is wrong in us or in our behavior and turn from it. Then God will bless us instead of punishing us.

11:32 Heb 12:5-13. We should welcome anything God does to keep us from being condemned with the fallen, sinful world. Notes on world at John 15:18,19; Rom 12:2; Jam 4:4; 1 John 2:16.

11:33,34 These verses help us to understand what Paul meant in v 29. There must be a proper recognition of the purpose of the Lord's Supper and the unity of the Church.

meetings together do not lead to judgment. And when I come I will set the remaining matters in order.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant. 2 You know that you were Gentiles, carried away to dumb idols, being led somehow. 3 Therefore I give you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed, and that no one can say

12:1 Here begins three chapters on the same subject – “spiritual gifts.” These gifts are abilities to do things believers could not do otherwise. We should understand that possessing spiritual gifts does not in itself make believers spiritual. Believers at Corinth had spiritual gifts but they were behaving like unspiritual people and acting like people of the world (3:1-4). What an empty thing it is to boast of having some spiritual gift or gifts while living in a carnal, worldly way! In chapters 12-14 Paul teaches the following eleven things about these gifts.

God’s Spirit gives them (12:4,7,11).

They are given and should be used under the Lordship of Christ (12:3,5).

Each believer has some gift or other (12:7,11).

No particular gift is possessed by all believers (12:29,30).

All the gifts are for the good of all, not for personal benefit (12:7; 14:3-12,19; 10:33 - 11:1).

God gives the gifts to promote unity, not to divide believers (12:25).

God’s love working in believers is greater than any gift or all of them together (13:1-13).

Believers should desire spiritual gifts (12:31; 14:1).

Prophecy is the greatest of the gifts (14:1).

No one should think himself superior to others because he has some gift or other (4:7; 13:4; 12:21,25).

In using the gifts believers must behave in a fitting and orderly way (14:40).

If every believer had always taken all these truths to heart, there would not have been all the quarreling and divisions over spiritual gifts that have afflicted the churches.

12:2 Before they became Christians they went after idols in a blind, unreasoning way. They themselves hardly knew what they were doing, or why. There were influences and powers at work they did not know or resist.

“Dumb idols” – Ps 115:4-7; Hab 2:18,19.

12:3 “Accursed” – some Jews did this. They said Jesus was a blasphemer whose crucifixion was a proper punishment. Paul says such people cannot have God’s Spirit. Saying Jesus is “Lord” is saying He is the incarnation of Jehovah God. See Luke 2:11; Phil 2:10,11. No one can say this with faith that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit.

4 Now there are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are various kinds of ministries, but the same Lord. 6 And there are various kinds of working, but it is the same God who works all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the benefit of all. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge through the same except by the working of God’s Spirit in him. Others will be able to say the words without meaning them.

12:4-6 Paul emphasizes the one source of all that believers have and can do in God’s work (compare Eph 4:3-7). The three persons of the Trinity are here (notes on the Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; etc).

12:7-11 Observe that any spiritual gift (and not just one, such as miraculous powers or tongues) is proof that God’s Spirit is working in a person.

12:7 The common good of all believers is a constant theme of Paul (10:24,33; 14:5,26; Rom 14:19; 2 Cor 8:13,14). “Manifestation” means that the Holy Spirit who is in the bodies of believers (6:19) reveals His presence through spiritual gifts.

12:8-10 Not all spiritual gifts are in this list. Paul mentions some others in v 28 and Rom 12:6-8.

12:8 “Word of wisdom” – this means the ability to speak to others in a wise and helpful way. We should understand the words “wisdom” and “knowledge” by Paul’s use of them in other places, especially other places in this Corinthian letter. Wisdom is not human wisdom, but Christ and His cross (1:17-24). It is God’s revelation of the gospel and the deep truths connected to it (2:6). God’s Spirit gives some people (the apostles had it in full measure) a special ability to understand this wisdom and communicate it to others.

“Knowledge” is similar, but not exactly the same. Here it may include the ability to understand people and circumstances and speak fitting words to lead others to a fuller knowledge of Christ and His truth. Doubtless there is such a gift, but whether it is this that is here called “the message of knowledge” is not certain. Certainly we should not think this is an ability (that some people these days claim to have) to get a revelation from God regarding what other people should do in their personal lives. In the matter of decisions that need to be taken in life, each believer should try to understand the principles given in the Word of God, depend on the Lord alone for guidance, and go directly to the Lord for that guidance (after listening to the advice of wise friends, if he wants).

On “knowledge” see 1:5; 13:2,8; 14:6; 2 Cor 4:6; Eph 4:13; Phil 1:9; 3:8; Col 1:9,10; 2:3; 3:10; 2 Pet 3:18.

Spirit; 9 to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; 10 to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another various kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. 11 But one and the same Spirit works all of these, distributing to each one individually as he wills.

12 For as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of that one body, 12:9 The faith that any believer has is a gift of God (Eph 2:8,9; Phil 1:29). But the Holy Spirit gives special faith, or a larger measure of faith to some believers (compare Rom 12:3). This enables them to serve in ways not possible to those without it.

"Gifts of healing" are abilities to heal people by God's power. Notice the plural - "gifts." It would seem that not all diseases can be healed by using the same "gift."

12:10 "Working of miracles" must mean an ability to do miracles other than healing the sick, for these powers are given to "another." Paul does not explain what miracles they may be. But we may be sure they were for the common good of all believers (v 7), not for the fame of the individual who had this gift.

"Prophecy" is the ability to receive a message from God and deliver it by the Holy Spirit. The message may or may not have to do with the future. The gift of discerning spirits is the ability to know whether someone speaking or prophesying is doing so by God's help or not. Not everyone who seems inspired by God really is. He or she may be inspired by an evil spirit or by his or her own aroused spirit. See 14:29; 1 John 4:1; 1 Thess 5:20,21; Jer 14:14.

"Tongues" - or "languages" the Greek word (glossai) appears 50 times in the Greek NT (21 times here in chapters 12-14). Eighteen times it refers to the physical tongue. The other times it means some language or other. In Acts chapter 2 when the apostles spoke in tongues they spoke ordinary human languages which they did not know themselves but which their hearers did know (Acts 2:4,6,8,11. See also the note at Acts 10:46). Is Paul using the word "tongues" here in chapters 12-14 with a different meaning? Some think so and some think not. The matter has not been proved either way to the satisfaction of all believers (there are obscure expressions in Paul's language in chapter 14 which have tended to keep the matter in doubt). But would it not be strange for the word "tongues" to be used in one way everywhere else in the Bible and in a different sense only here in these chapters of 1 Corinthians?

But whatever Paul means by the gift of tongues, here he clearly teaches that not all believers have it any more than they all have gifts of healing or miraculous powers or any of the other gifts. The words "to another" indicates this. See also v 28. This gift is not the sign that a believer has been baptized being many, are one body, so also is Christ. 13 For with one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether slave or free, and have all been given to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not the hand, I do not belong to the body", does it therefore not belong to the body? 16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not the eye, I do not belong to or filled with God's Spirit, and it is not more a manifestation of the Spirit in a person than any other spiritual gift. The "interpretation of tongues" is the ability given by God to understand the meaning of what is said in "tongues" and put it in words understood by the hearers.

12:11 Verse 7. God's Spirit fully knows each person and what spiritual gift or gifts each should have. He gives these gifts (or withholds them) according to His own wise and loving will. We cannot force Him to give any particular gift to us. We may try to do so, and even persuade ourselves that He has given it. But this does not mean we actually have it. We should earnestly desire the best gifts (v 31), but accept without complaint what He decides to give us.

12:12,13 John 17:21-23; Eph 1:22,23; 4:4; 5:28-30. Here Paul speaks of the true church made up of all believers wherever or whatever they may be, and whatever spiritual gift they may or may not have. "We" in v 13 means believers in Christ, born of God's Spirit (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8).

"With one Spirit we were all baptized" - the Greek word translated "with" here (en) is the same word used in Matt 3:11 and Acts 1:5. It is important to recognize this. The word means "in", "with", or "by." Without this Spirit baptism, which, Paul says, every believer has, people may have water baptism and call themselves Christians and be members of local churches, but they are not in Christ's one true Church, His Body. Paul is not speaking of an organization, but about a living body in which God's Spirit lives and works. And the only way to get into it is by God's Spirit.

Everyone who by faith has received Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour can say and should say "I have been baptized with (in, by) the Holy Spirit." And the aim of each one should be to have the fullness of the Spirit continually (Eph 5:18). See also Luke 11:13.

"Spirit to drink" - see John 7:37-39; 4:10,13,14. Not only does God's Spirit bring believers into Christ's body, He comes into them and lives in them (6:19). He is in them as "living water" springing up to eternal life.

12:14-26 Paul uses this illustration of a literal human body to teach two principal lessons to those at Corinth. We today need very much to learn these same lessons.

First, just as there is much variety and diversity in the human body so there is also in Christ's body the Church (vs 14-20). Not the body", does it therefore not belong to the body? 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now God has set each member in the body as it pleased him. 19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be? 20 But now they are many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; again, the head cannot say to the feet, "I have no need of you." 22 Not at all. Those members of the body which seem to be weaker are much more necessary, 23 And those members of the body which we think are less honourable, to them we give more honour, and our unrepresentable parts have greater modesty. 24 For our presentable parts have no need of it. But God has joined the body together, giving the greater honour to that part which lacked it, 25 so all parts are the same and God never intended they should be. Remember Paul is speaking about spiritual gifts (v 1). He has said that not everyone has the same gift or gifts (vs 7-11). He emphasizes this truth by this illustration of the body. If some in Christ's body cannot prophesy are they then not a part of the body? If they cannot do miracles or speak in tongues are they not a part of the body? Paul is saying that no one should think they are not. Neither the tongue, nor any other body part, is the whole body.

Second, just as the human body is one body in spite of the variety in its many parts, so is Christ's body one body. There is a dependence of each part on the others (vs 21-26).

12:18 Here is a truth applicable both to the human body and to Christ's body the Church. Let each believer be content in the place God put him or her and in being the "part" God wanted him or her to be. If he is an "eye" let him function as an eye; if a "tongue" as a tongue; if a "foot" as a foot.

12:21 He is speaking of believers with different spiritual gifts. No one should try to exclude another believer from fellowship in the body. No one should exalt himself over others. No one should be arrogant and conceited enough to think others are not needed in Christ's body.

12:25 "No division. . . same care" - words that should be written on the hearts of all believers (1:10,13; John 13:34; Acts 4:32; Rom 12:10; 14:19; 15:1-3; Eph 4:2,3). The results of failure here are sad indeed, and appear everywhere today.

12:27-30 Paul now applies the illustration of vs 14-26 to the matter of spiritual gifts.

12:28 "God has placed" - v 18. It is not the business of anyone in the Church to quarrel with God's appointments, or to try for the place of another, or to insist that God give him or anyone else a particular spiritual gift. The use in this verse of the words "first", "second", "third", and "then" suggests Paul was making a list in the order of importance.

that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another, 26 and if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it, or if one member is honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are the body of Christ, individual members of it. 28 And God has placed these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, administrations, different kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? 30 Have all the gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? 31 But earnestly desire the best gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I have become sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

It cannot mean the order in which they were given in time. The apostles were given the ability to heal and work miracles at the same time they were called to be apostles (Matt 10:1,2).

Apostles were the infallible teachers and guardians of the gospel of Christ, those who laid the foundation of the Church.

Prophets were inspired communicators (v 10).

"Helps" - every believer should try to help others but some have a special spiritual ability to do so - 16:15.

12:29,30 It is perfectly clear that the answer to each of these questions is "no." All he has said in this chapter demands this answer. God will give spiritual gifts to His people, or not give them, as He pleases, and when He pleases, and it is wrong for anyone to insist that every believer have any one of these particular gifts or any other particular gift or manifestation of God's Spirit. If anyone insists that everyone who has received Spirit baptism must receive any one particular gift he is going contrary to the teaching of the Word of God and is being divisive.

12:31 See 14:1. Why should a believer want spiritual gifts? Not for his personal satisfaction, not so others will accept him, not to make a name for himself, but to fulfill the words of 14:12. Each believer should be thinking of the good of others, not his own (10:24). What are the greater gifts? Those that enable us to do the most good to others (14:3,5,12).

"Earnestly desire the best gifts" - 14:1. It seems clear that some Christians are desiring gifts which Paul placed low in his list in v 28, rather than the greater ones.

"Excellent way" - now Paul turns to something far more important than any spiritual gift we may have - love, love like God's love, the greatest gift of all. Without this all our other gifts are as nothing.

13:1 "Love" is the translation of a Greek

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing.
3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor; and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profits me nothing.

4 Love is patient and is kind. Love does not envy. Love does not promote itself, is not puffed up, 5 does not behave rudely, is not word (agape) not in common use before the writing of the New Testament. It indicates a higher kind of love than any other Greek word, and a higher kind than most Greek speakers (or almost anyone else in the world) ever considered. The noun "agape" is used 116 times in the Greek NT. The verb related to it is used about 137 times. The words are used of God's love and of the love believers should have for one another and for God. It is unselfish love, love that always seeks the good of others. It has nothing to do with lust, selfish desire or love between the sexes. These references give something of the meaning of the word as found in the NT – Matt 5:44; 22:37; John 3:16; 13:1,34; 14:15; 17:24,26; Rom 5:5-8; Eph 5:25; 1 Pet 1:22; 1 John 3:16-18; 4:8,9. Agape is divine love.

In this great chapter Paul speaks of the necessity of love (vs 1-3), love's nature (vs 4-7), and love's permanence (vs 8-13). He begins by saying that love is superior to any language on earth or in heaven. Without love the gift of tongues, or any speaking a person might do is nothing but noise. The tongues of angels are the languages angels speak. So the tongues of men are the languages men speak.

In this verse Paul is not stating that he spoke in any language of angels any more than he is stating that he does not have love. The obvious meaning is this: Even supposing that he did speak in a language of angels, it would do no good to anyone, if he did not have love. There is no example in the whole Bible of anyone speaking in any language of angels. When angels came to earth they spoke in the languages of men. They wanted to be understood.

13:2 Paul now speaks of greater gifts than that of tongues, the greater gifts he told believers to desire (12:31). But without love all of them together do not make a person anything of real worth. Love (and not some spiritual gift or other) is the greatest evidence that we are God's people, and that we have been baptized in the Holy Spirit. Love is the one manifestation of the Spirit that should appear in every believer's life.

13:3 Is it possible without love to give away all one possesses or sacrifice oneself? Yes. One may do it thinking to gain merit with God, or from fear of hell, or from dedication to one's religion or ideals. Many are deceived about all this. They think that by what they call good works or works of merit they can earn salvation. But it is all quite useless. In God's eyes so-called good works done without divine love, without this unselfish love for God and man, are not good works at all, and may even be called, in one sense, bad works, because of bad motives.

13:4-7 What Paul gives us in words about the nature of love we can see perfectly lived out in the life of the Lord Jesus Christ. God is love (1 John 4:8), and Christ is God incarnate and therefore love incarnate. In His life of love He is the great example for all believers.

13:4 "Patient" – the Greek word here means longsuffering. It indicates the ability, the mind, to endure injuries, wrongs, and harsh words and actions from others without resentment or striking back. This was seen throughout Christ's life and most clearly at the time of His trial and execution – Isa 53:7; Matt 27:14; Luke 23:34; 1 Pet 2:21-23. This is a quality His followers should have – compare Matt 18:22; Gal 5:22; Eph 4:2; Col 1:11; 3:12.

"Kind" – this means active helpfulness to others, even to those who do not deserve it. This quality compels us to a life of usefulness and service. It is a virtue very prominent in Christ's life – Matt 4:23,24; 20:28; Acts 10:38. And it is a virtue Christ demands in His followers – Matt 25:31-40; Luke 6:35; Eph 4:32; Col 3:12.

"Envy" – on this deadly sin see Prov 14:30; 27:4; Matt 27:18; Acts 7:9; 13:45; 17:5. Envy is to experience pain or resentment at the success or popularity or possessions of others. This feeling is completely foreign to love and Christ was never guilty of it. Christ's followers must endeavor to keep themselves from it – Rom 13:13; Jam 3:14-16.

"Not promote itself" – or "boast." Love much prefers to promote others or to boast about others.

"Puffed up" – or "proud" – love never seeks for applause from others. It is not conceited, but humble and modest. This humble love is seen to perfection in Christ's life. His believers must follow Him in this also (Matt 11:29). Love practices self-denial, not self-assertion (Matt 10:38,39; Luke 9:23).

13:5 "Does not behave rudely" – or "improperly" or "disgracefully." Love will never act in a way that brings disgrace or dishonor to anyone; will never behave in a way it could ever be ashamed of.

"Self-seeking" – love is not after anything the world values highly, not money, or possessions, or fame, or power, or applause. It is not greedy. It seeks only the good of others. We see this in Christ; we should see it also in His followers (10:24; Rom 15:1,2).

"Not easily provoked" means not swift to take offense, is not quick-tempered. This does not mean that love is inconsistent with deep and terrible anger against sin (God, who is love, is continually angry with the wickedness of men – Rom 1:18; John 3:36; Ps 7:11). See also Mark 3:5. But that is a different matter and a different word is used self-seeking, is not easily provoked, does not impute evil, 6 does not rejoice in wickedness, but rejoices in the truth, 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

8 Love never fails. But if there are prophecies, they will fail; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will vanish away. 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. 10 But when that which is perfect has come, then in Greek.

"Not impute evil" – love covers wrongs, forgives them, and does not plot revenge (see Matt 5:38-48; Luke 23:34; Acts 7:59,60; 1 Pet 4:8). It does not naturally think others are acting from bad motives; it prefers not to impute sin to them. Christians who love as they ought, prefer to think others are better than themselves (Phil 2:3), and will not wish to judge and condemn anyone (Rom 14:4,10,13).

13:6 Love, divine love, is not weak, wishy-washy, or sentimental about wrongdoing. It does not compromise with evil. It cannot smile when wickedness appears. "Does not rejoice" suggests the opposite – love grieves at all wrongdoing. It's greatest joy comes when truth triumphs. Love and truth are great companions. Here truth is put as the opposite of evil. Evil has to do with darkness, lies, deceit, and suppression of God's truth (John 3:19,20; Rom 1:18; 2 Thess 10,12). The truth Paul here speaks of has to do with light, with reality, with God. It is the truth of which Christ is the embodiment (John 14:6). If we do not rejoice in this truth we should not vainly imagine that we have the sort of love Paul describes. And without it what are we?

13:7 "Bears" – the Greek word also means to "protect" or to "preserve by covering." Love bears anything that might come; it is a shield to cover and protect.

"Believes" – love does not believe every lie and tall story men tell. It does not believe the heresies of false teachers. It does not believe what the devil says. This is not the meaning. Love rejoices in the truth (v 6), so can recognize truth. It is not senseless, naive, or blind. But by nature it is not suspicious and cynical but trusting. It is ready to give the benefit of the doubt to people.

"Hopes" – love is not easily discouraged. Failure does not crush it. It can hope when there seems no ground for hope. It believes the grace of God can reach any person, transform any situation.

"Endures" – or "perseveres" – the Greek word comes from a military use. It means to endure every attack of the enemy (compare Eph 6:10-17; 2 Tim 2:10). "Agape", the unselfish love for God and man, goes on in the face of all difficulties, persecutions, sufferings and attacks of Satan and men. It makes believers more than conquerors.

13:8-12 The meaning is that love, "agape", that which is in part will be ended. 11 When I was a child I spoke like a child, I understood like a child, I thought like a child. But when I became a man, I put away childish things. 12 For now we see through a glass, darkly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know even as also I am known.

13 And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

will go on forever. God is love and only those who love will be with Him in eternity. Some other things which were good and useful as Paul wrote will pass away. By tongues, prophecies and knowledge he seems to be referring to the spiritual gifts seen in 12:8-10, but his meaning may possibly be wider.

Some scholars think he means those gifts will pass away at the completion of the New Testament ("that which is perfect") – until then the gifts (the imperfect) were needed because the Church did not have God's full revelation of truth. Afterwards the gifts were not needed and so passed away. They think the gifts were useful only during the childhood of the Church (v 11), but not now during the times of its maturity.

This interpretation seems unlikely to the author of these notes. Verse 12 seems to put the time of "what is perfect" at the end of this age, or when believers are face to face with Christ in heaven, and not at the completion of the New Testament. The time of "perfection" is a time when they shall "know" even as Christ now knows them. This did not take place at the completion of the New Testament.

13:8 "Knowledge. . . shall vanish away" – judging from the context, Paul's meaning may be that the ability to give a word of knowledge (12:8) will pass away. Or knowledge may mean imperfect knowledge, or even knowledge in general which is acquired by the process of reasoning and investigation. All that will be unnecessary, for perfect knowledge will come (v 12).

13:11 Perhaps he means the whole life of believers on earth is like a childhood. Only after Christ's return will they be fully mature. But there seems to be at least a hint that even now we should not act childishly in the matter of love and spiritual gifts – see 14:20.

13:12 "Darkly" – most mirrors in those days were of poor quality and the reflection seen in them would have been distorted. This is the way things are at present in the matter of our knowledge.

13:13 These three are pre-eminent in the life of the Church and the individual believer – far more important than any spiritual gift. Is it surprising that Paul says love is greater than faith or hope? Faith is necessary for our very salvation (John 3:36). Hope is the expectation that God will fulfill His promises and it is a vital part of the Christian life (Rom 8:24,25).

How is love greater than these? Faith

14 Follow after love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2 For he who speaks in an unknown tongue does not speak to men, but to God, for no man understands him. However in the spirit he speaks mysteries. 3 But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, and encouragement, and comfort. 4 He who speaks in an unknown tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. 5 I wish you all spoke with tongues, but would prefer that you prophesied. For he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church takes, love gives, and it is more blessed to give than to receive (Acts 20:35). Faith is like a hand that receives, love is the great thing it receives. Hope is similar to faith and expects good for oneself, love seeks the good of others. Faith and hope are means to an end, love is the end. That which does most for the common good is the greatest and best, and love does this (8:1). Love and love alone causes believers to do what Paul said they should do in 10:24 and 10:31.

After studying this chapter one important question remains – how do we get this “agape”, this unselfish love for God and people? See the answer in Gal 5:22; 1 John 4:7,19; Rom 5:5. Though this love comes from God, believers must yield to it, obey it, and put it into practice (14:1).

14:1 “Follow after love” – Paul wrote the great words of chapter 13 that we might follow the way of love, not that we might marvel at the nature of love, or admire his skill in writing.

“Desire” – 12:31.

“Prophecy” – 12:10. It seems from this that Paul regarded this gift the greatest of the spiritual gifts that the Corinthian believers could receive. Much of this chapter shows how prophecy is greater than the gift of tongues (except when someone is bringing a message from God in a language unknown to those present and there is interpretation along with it; except, that is, when he is actually exercising the gift of prophecy in a different way – v 5).

14:2 This seems to some people to be fully convincing evidence that speaking in tongues as practiced in Corinth was not exactly the same as the spiritual ability seen in Acts 2:4-11. At Pentecost the apostles spoke in languages they had not learned and did not know, and the people present understood them without translation. At Corinth people did not understand those who spoke in a tongue unless there was interpretation (vs 5, 13). But what reason is there for thinking that “tongue” does not mean some language spoken on earth?

“Unknown tongue” – the word “unknown” is not in the Greek here. Adding it seems justified because of the words “no one understands him” and because of the necessity for translation if the church is to may be edified.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking in tongues, what benefit will I be to you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or knowledge, or prophesying, or doctrine? 7 Even lifeless things making a sound, whether a flute or a harp, unless they give out a distinction in the notes how will it be known what is being played on either flute or harp? 8 And if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for the battle? 9 Just so with you. Unless you speak easily understandable words with your tongue, how shall it be known what is spoken? For you will be speaking be edified (v 5, etc). But “unknown” does not necessarily mean a language that no one on earth knows and uses, only a language that is not known to people where it is being spoken.

“But to God” – this means that no one there in the meeting understood the language but God and (probably) the person who was speaking it (vs 4, 28).

“Mysteries” – 4:1; Matt 13:11; Rom 16:25.

14:3,4 This is why “prophecy” was greater than “tongues” – it was for the benefit of others. See 10:24,33.

“Edifies himself” – to edify means to build up. Here it means spiritual strengthening. See also 8:1; 10:23; 1 Thess 5:11. Can speaking in a language which the speaker himself does not understand edify him? It seems unlikely. Does Paul mean the speaker is edified because he understands what he is saying even if others do not? Very probably. Usually we think that being edified is a result of hearing and understanding the truth – see the next verse.

14:5 Paul is not at all belittling the gift of tongues. He himself taught that it was a manifestation of God’s Spirit for the good of the Church (12:7,10). But Paul is speaking against the misuse of this gift. He says they should not use the gift unless there was translation (vs 13,27,28).

“Unless he interprets” – this suggests that “tongues” were meaningful languages which the speakers might be able to translate into other languages, and that what was said in an unknown language, if explained, would edify the church. Paul emphasizes that edification comes by knowing what is said.

14:6 See 12:8-10. “Benefit” – again we see that Paul always thought of the good he could do others and wanted all believers to have the same purpose (vs 12,19,26).

“Revelation” – v 26. Here this means a message that God reveals to someone to deliver to others in the assembly. This is very like the gift of prophecy, and a revelation might come suddenly to one sitting in a meeting (vs 29-31).

14:7-11 His whole point here is that speaking an unknown language without translation is useless for those who hear it.

into the air. 10 If there are many kinds of languages to be met with in the world, not even one of them is without meaning. 11 Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking will be a foreigner to me. 12 Just so with you. Since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek to excel in gifts that will edify the church.

13 Therefore the one who speaks in an unknown tongue should pray that he may interpret what he says. 14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 What is the way then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. 16 Otherwise when you praise with the spirit, how will he who has his place among the uninstructed say "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you are saying? 17 For you indeed give thanks well, but the other person is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak in tongues more than all of you. 19 Yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, so that I might teach others, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, do not be children in understanding. In regard to evil be children, but in understanding be mature. 21 In the Law it is written,

With men of other tongues and other lips I will speak to this people; and yet for all that they will not listen to me, says the Lord.

22 Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to believers, but to unbelievers. But prophesying is not for unbelievers, but for believers. 23 Therefore if the whole church has met together in one place, and all speak in unknown tongues, and some who are uninstructed or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are insane? 24 But if everyone prophesies, and an unbeliever or uninstructed person comes in, he is going to be convicted by everything, he is going to be judged by everything, 25 and so the secrets of his heart are going to be laid bare. And so, prostrating himself, he will worship God, and declare that God is really in you.

26 How is it then, brethren? When you meet together, each one of you has a psalm, or has a teaching, or has a tongue, or has a revelation, or Verses 10,11 seem to indicate that the tongues Paul refers to were nothing else than ordinary foreign languages.

14:12 Verses 3,4,6,19,26,31; 10:24.

14:13 Only with translation would it edify others.

14:14,15 Observe the importance Paul gives here to the mind and understanding. What does Paul mean by the difficult phrase "my mind is unfruitful"? Possibly it means that if someone prays in a language he does not himself understand, his inner being may be praying but his mind is not a part of it. He himself does not understand what he is saying and so there is not even the fullest edification to himself that there would be if he understood. Or it may possibly mean that though he himself understands what he is saying, this understanding, this mental activity, bears no fruit in others because he is not communicating to them. In any case, it is clear from v 15 that Paul wanted his worship to be understood. He wanted his mind as well as his spirit to be engaged in it.

14:17 "Edified" - notice again this constant theme of Paul (vs 3, 4, 19, 26).

14:18 "Tongues" - or "languages". Paul was not writing as he did because he did not have this gift. He had it and thanked God for it.

14:19 "Teach others" - Paul (our example) was always thinking of others and how to edify them, instruct them, encourage, strengthen and comfort them.

14:20 See 13:11.

14:21,22 Isa 28:11,12. The people of Israel had fallen into unbelief and would not listen to their prophets who spoke in a language they could understand. So in judgment God would send them people speaking a language they could not understand. Paul draws a lesson from this for Christians. He says tongues are a "sign" - they pointed to the presence of God's Spirit (12:7). He says this "sign" is not to convince believers, or the person speaking in a tongue that God's Spirit is in him (there is far greater and more necessary evidence than that). Tongues are a sign to unbelievers (compare Acts 2:4-13). Prophecy, however, was given for the edification of believers (vs 3,4).

We should notice that in v 21 "tongues" surely refer to languages spoken in foreign countries. Can it be otherwise in v 22?

14:23 In v 22 Paul speaks of the gift of tongues properly used. Here he speaks of it being improperly used - everyone speaking in tongues and no translation.

14:24,25 "Uninstructed person" (v 24) - here means someone who does not yet understand the message of the gospel and teachings of Christ. He will be able to understand the words of the prophecies being spoken. And they may well convince him of his sin and make him a believer in Christ.

"Convicted" - compare John 16:8-11.

14:26-40 Paul here speaks of the proper use of spiritual gifts in the meetings of believers. His emphasis is on orderliness (vs 26,31,33,40).

14:26 "Revelation" - v 6. "Edify" - vs 3,4, 12,31. The Greek word translated "edify" literally means "to build a house." Figuratively, it means to build up, to promote spiritual growth.

has an interpretation. All things should be done to edify. 27 If anyone speaks in an unknown tongue, it should be done by two, or, at the most, by three, and that by turn, and someone should interpret. 28 But if there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church, and speak to himself and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak, two or three of them, and let the others judge what is said. 30 If anything is revealed to someone else sitting there, the first speaker should be silent. 31 For you may all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn, and all may be encouraged. 32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. 33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

14:27 "By turn" – it seems that several were trying to speak at the same time and creating confusion.

14:27 "Interpret" – vs 5,13.

14:28 "To himself" – v 2. This may mean that those who had the gift of tongues could understand the tongue they spoke and could exercise the gift without speaking aloud.

14:29 "Judge" – 1 Thess 5:20,21. They must weigh what was said because of the possibility of false prophets and false prophecies. What should they weigh those spoken "prophecies" against? God's truth as revealed in the Old Testament Scriptures and through Christ and His apostles. Anything not in agreement with this truth was false and dangerous.

14:30 Verses 6, 26.

14:31 See how often in this chapter Paul says everything must be done for the good of everybody.

14:32,33 Using spiritual gifts did not mean losing control of oneself. There was no sweeping away of the will and mind of the individual in whom they were at work. Those who had the gift of prophecy and tongues (and doubtless any other spiritual gift) could keep silent if they chose (vs 28,30). Otherwise there would have been disorder, and disorder and confusion are contrary to God's very nature.

14:34 The subject of this chapter is using certain spiritual gifts in public meetings of the church – gifts which involve speaking. Paul says women must not do this. They may have these gifts but they must be used at other times. Note at 11:5,6; 1 Tim 2:11-14. Some think that Paul is forbidding women even to pray in public meetings, but this is very doubtful indeed. The context is prophesying and speaking in tongues and translating tongues (vs 26-31). The Greek word translated "speak" in these verses is the same as in vs 5,6,9,19, etc.

"Submission" – 11:3,8,9; Eph 5:24; 1 Tim 2:11,12; 1 Pet 3:1,5,6.

14:35 "Ask their husbands" – this means, of course, that they can ask them if their husbands are believers in Christ. If not,

34 Your women should keep silence in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but are to be in submission, as the law also says. 35 And if they wish to learn something, they should ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for women to speak in the church.

36 What? Did the word of God come from you? Or did it reach only you? 37 If any man thinks he is a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. 38 But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Therefore, brethren, have an earnest desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. 40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

(though Paul does not think it necessary to say so) they could ask the pastors and teachers in the church, or other women with more knowledge than themselves.

"Shameful" – 11:6. The Greek word means "base", "shameful", "contrary to modesty or purity", "opposed to what is fitting". It seems that Christians in Corinth thought they could do as they pleased regardless of what other churches did or what the apostles taught.

14:37 Some Christians there thought they were spiritually very able people. If this was really the case they should have been able to discern a command of the Lord Jesus Himself given through Paul.

14:38 This seems to mean that if any such person ignores the Lord's command he is not worthy of being heard himself.

14:39 "Tongues" – or unknown languages.

14:40 Verse 33. In chapters 12-14 Paul has written of a number of spiritual gifts believers had during the early days of the Church. Have these gifts passed away? Certainly we should not think there are now any apostles of Christ like the original apostles – those who saw the Lord Jesus and heard Him, those whose inspired teachings are infallible. It is a huge mistake to say that any man now has the same authority and infallibility that Christ's apostles had. The Bible was completed in the first century and it contains all the inspired, infallible writings and teachings God wanted men to have. The Bible alone must be the final authority for all of us, and it is the only infallible teaching we need or have or should want to have.

But some of the other gifts spoken of in these chapters (for example, helps and teaching) have certainly not passed away. Have any of the others passed away? The author of these notes does not believe the Bible anywhere indicates that they would either pass away or not pass away in this present age of the Church.

We should understand that God has freedom to do what He wants to do. And if it is His good pleasure to give those gifts to 15 Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received, and in which you stand. 2 By it also you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you; unless you believed in vain.

3 For I passed on to you first of all that which I also received: That Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4 and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, 5 and that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. 6 After that, he was seen by more than five hundred brethren at once, of whom the majority remains to this present day, but some have fallen asleep. 7 After anyone today, or to withhold them from anyone, He will do so (12:11).

Another thought that comes to many believers is this: if these gifts passed away in the first century it seems strange that the Holy Spirit would include Paul's instructions about them in this portion of the Word of God which is surely for all churches throughout this whole age.

15:1 "The gospel" – 1:17; 4:15; 9:16,17; Rom 1:1,9,15,16; 16:25; 2 Cor 4:3,4; Gal 1:6-9; Eph 6:19; Phil 1:17,27; 1 Tim 1:11; 2 Tim 1:10.

15:2 "By which you are saved" – this is why God gave the gospel of Christ (Mark 1:10,16; Rom 1:16). Receiving it in faith means salvation, disobedience to it means eternal punishment (2 Thess 1:8,9). Knowing its vast importance Paul wanted those at Corinth (and everyone else) to understand and believe it.

"If" – Col 1:23; Heb 3:6; 6:6; 10:38. Perseverance in the faith of the gospel is the proof that faith is genuine. See Col 1:23; Heb 3:5,6; 10:39. Some at Corinth were denying that God raises the dead (v 12). But the resurrection of Christ is a vital part of the gospel. Those who denied it were revealing a very defective faith (vs 14,17).

"Believed in vain" may mean believed without knowing what they believed or without understanding the proper basis of belief. Or it could mean that anything that seems to be faith but which does not go on to the end is a vain, worthless thing which cannot save.

15:3-8 Four important things are associated with the gospel – Christ's death, His burial, His rising from the dead, and His appearances to His disciples. Christ's death was "for our sins" – Matt 26:28; John 1:29; Rom 3:24,25; 4:25; 2 Cor 5:21; Gal 1:4; Heb 1:3; 9:28; 10:12; 1 Pet 2:24; 3:18; Rev 1:5. Anyone who denies that Christ really died is denying the one sacrifice for sins God has provided for mankind, and rejects the one way God has appointed for men to be saved from their sins. Christ's burial was also of great importance. It was the final and needed proof that He was dead (Matt 27:57-66; Mark 15:42-46; John 19:38-40). Christ's that, he was seen by James; then by all the apostles. 8 And last of all he was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, and am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace which was granted to me was not in vain, for I laboured far more than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Therefore, whether I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he rose from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection (His spirit entering again His dead body and making it alive again and enabling it to leave the tomb) is also of the utmost importance (vs 13,14,17,18; Rom 4:25; Matt 28:6).

Both the death and resurrection of Christ were "according to the Scriptures" (the Old Testament). See Matt 5:17; Luke 24:25-27,45,46. Christ's appearances to His disciples were also of "first importance." They were the proof that He had risen from the dead. Paul does not list all of His appearances. On Christ's appearances after His resurrection see note at Matt 28:6.

15:3 "Received" – Gal 1:11,12.

15:6 "Five hundred" – the law says that facts can be established by two or three witnesses (Deut 17:6; Matt 18:16). Those who saw Christ after His resurrection were in excess of 500, and among them some of the best people the world ever had. There is far more evidence for the death, burial and resurrection of Christ than for any event in the secular histories of the world that deal with olden times.

"Fallen asleep" – departed this life (John 11:11-14).

15:7 "James" here probably means the Lord's brother (Acts 1:13,14), not either of the apostles of that name.

15:8 "Seen by me" – Acts 9:3-7.

"One born out of due time" – Paul means he was not one of the original apostles or disciples, that he was still in sin when Christ rose from the dead, and that he became an apostle later on, in an extraordinary way. 15:9 Acts 8:3; 9:1,2; Eph 3:9; 1 Tim 1:12-15. Paul was happy to do what he told others to do in Phil 2:3.

15:10 Paul understood that for him to be a servant of God, an apostle, was sheer mercy, indescribable grace (Eph 3:7,8; 2 Tim 1:9; Titus 3:3,4). When he says he worked harder than all, he is exalting the grace of God working in him, not himself.

15:11 The gospel Paul preached was the same gospel the other apostles preached. There is only one way to salvation. They all knew and preached this one way.

15:12-19 Some in the church at Corinth (just like the Sadducees – Acts 23:8) were saying that there was no such thing as dead resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not risen. 14 And if Christ has not risen, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith is also in vain. 15 Yes, and we are found to be false witnesses about God, because we testified about God that he raised Christ up, whom he did not raise up, if so be that the dead do not rise. 16 For if the dead do not rise, then Christ has not been raised. 17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is in vain, you are still in your sins. 18 Then, also, those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied. 20 But now Christ has risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of those who slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man also came the resurrection of the dead. 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all will be made alive. 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the bodies coming to life again. Paul points out that if there is no such thing then there are some very sad results – Christ could not have risen (vs 13,16); the preaching of the apostles would be both “useless” and false (vs 15); the faith of Christians would also be useless (vs 14,17); and they would still be in their sins and lost forever (vs 17,18); and all of them would be in a state to be pitied (v 19). In this way Paul shows the absolute necessity of the bodily resurrection of Christ for the salvation of men. It is at the very heart of the gospel. To deny it is to pervert the gospel. It is an attempt to rob the gospel of its truthfulness and power. 15:14 “Preaching” here means the message they preached, not the act of preaching. Without the resurrection of Christ Christians would have no message and their faith would be worthless and without a valid foundation.

15:17,18 If Christ did not rise from the dead it would mean that He sank condemned under our sins, that His sacrifice was not acceptable to God, and that no one is justified or forgiven (Rom 4:24,25). And if no one is counted righteous or forgiven, everyone is lost forever.

15:19 The Christian’s hope must reach far beyond this present life. See Rom 5:2-5; 8:23-25. If there is no resurrection any such hope would be in vain. In such case Christians would be deluded and should be objects of pity. And all their hardships, trials, and persecutions (John 15:18-20; Acts 14:22; 2 Tim 3:12) would be for nothing.

15:20 But Christ’s believers are not to be pitied. Why? Because Christ’s resurrection is a fact. There was not the slightest doubt about it.

“Firstfruits” – He was the first of a great many in the future.

15:21,22 Compare Rom 5:12-21. On the resurrection of the dead see John 5:28,29; etc.

15:23 “Those who belong to Christ” – see John 6:37-40; 17:6,10. Paul here says firstfruits, afterward, at his coming, those who belong to Christ. 24 After that comes the end, when he will have handed over the kingdom to God the Father, when he will have put down all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign until he has put all enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. 27 For he has put all things under his feet. But when he says that all things are put under him, it is evident that he who put all things under him is not included. 28 And when all things have been made subject to him, then the Son himself will also be subject to him who put all things under him, so that God may be all in all.

29 Otherwise, what will they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why, then, are they baptized for the dead? 30 And why do we stand in danger every hour? 31 I declare by the boasting I have about you in nothing about the resurrection of unbelievers at the return of Christ. In fact, he never teaches there will be a general resurrection of all men at the same time. See Rev 20:5. 15:24 “Then” – the Greek word thus translated does not necessarily mean “immediately.” It can mean and here (in the view of the author of these notes) surely does mean “at some time after”, the amount of time not being specified.

“The end” – judging from v 25 this means the end of Christ’s reign. Some teach that this means Christ’s reign in heaven at this present time. The author of these notes believes it means Christ’s reign on earth for a thousand years (see Rev 20:1-6). Certainly Christ has not yet “destroyed all dominion, authority and power.” In fact, He will not do so until His second coming. See Rev 19:11-16. Now, and until the end of this age, human kingdoms and authorities and powers will continue. Christ will destroy them at His coming and during the millennium and then hand over to God the Father the kingdom He has ruled.

15:25 “All enemies” means all human enemies, Satan and all evil spirits, and death itself. It means all that can hurt His people, resist God’s rule, or be opposed to His kingdom.

15:26 “The last enemy. . . death” – 2 Tim 1:10; Rev 20:14; Luke 20:36.

15:27 Ps 8:6; Heb 2:8,9.

15:28 Note on “Son” at Matt 3:17; John 3:16; 5:18-23.

“Subject” – compare John 14:28. See also notes at John 5:19-23.

“All in all” – Rom 11:36.

15:29 “Baptized for the dead” – no one now knows what this meant then or why people did it. There is no mention of it in any other place in the Bible. Paul does not say that he did it himself, or that the Corinthians did it, and he does not say he approved of it.

15:30-32 Verse 19. If there is no hope of a better future after death, it may seem to Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. 32 If, in the manner of men, I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what does it benefit me, if the dead do not rise? In that case let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.

33 Do not be deceived: Bad company ruins good character. 34 Awake to righteousness, and do not sin. For some do not have the knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

35 But someone will say, How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come? 36 Foolish one, what you sow is not made alive, unless it dies. 37 And what you sow is only seed; you do not sow the body that will be, but perhaps seeds of wheat or of some other grain. 38 But God gives it a body as it pleases him, and to every seed its own body. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh for men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. 40 There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. 43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 45 And so it is written: "The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a life-giving spirit." 46 However, that which is spiritual did not come first, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. 47 The first man was of the earth, earthly; the second man is the Lord from heaven. 48 As was the earthly man, so also are those who are earthly; and as the heavenly man is, so also are those who are heavenly. 49 And as we have borne the likeness of the earthly, so we will also bear the likeness of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does make some kind of sense to enjoy this life as much as one can. It was because Paul was sure of the resurrection that he was willing to face danger and death every day for the sake of the gospel. 2 Cor 11:23-27 gives a list of some of those dangers. "I die daily" probably means here that every day he was facing persecutions or dangers which could result in his death.

15:32 "With beasts" – Paul could have meant this either literally or figuratively. There is no record of this literally happening to him but he faced other dangers at Ephesus. See 2 Cor 1:8. He probably means wicked persecutors who seemed like wild beasts (compare Ps 22:12,13; Luke 13:32; Acts 20:29).

15:33 There is great danger in believers having the wrong kind of people for friends. Here "bad company" means the company of those who deny the resurrection. But is it necessary to say that other kinds of friends also can be bad company?

15:34 False teaching leads to a false way of living and to sin. The denial of the resurrection produced this result among the Christians in Corinth.

15:35-49 Paul here answers questions some Christians were asking. It seems they were asking in unbelief and possibly even ridiculing the idea of resurrection, for he says to those who would ask such questions, "Foolish one" (v 36). He says the human body (he is speaking here only of the bodies of believers) is like a seed. After it dies it will be changed into something quite different from what it appears to be now. There are different kinds of bodies and different kinds of glory, and God can take the physical elements and make of them what He pleases. So can He do with the bodies of believers. And so He will do.

15:42-44 Believers after the resurrection will have bodies of glory and power which can never die. They will be perfectly fitted for a spiritual existence. In short, they will be like Christ's resurrected body (v 49; Phil 3:21; Rom 8:29; 1 John 3:2. See Luke 24:31,36,51; John 20:19,26).

15:45 Gen 2:7. "The last Adam" means Christ the Head, the Representative and the Progenitor of a new kind of people. Adam had life. Christ gives life (John 5:21-29; 11:25,26; 14:6). "Life-giving spirit" does not mean Christ did not have a real body (see Heb 2:14). But He was spirit before He became a man (John 4:24).

15:46 He means only that the first Adam came first in time.

15:47 Gen 2:7; 3:19; Luke 2:11; John 1:14; 3:13; 6:38,51; Phil 2:6,7.

15:48 What men receive from Adam are bodies which die and return to dust. What those who are "heavenly" will receive from Christ is something far superior. Observe that believers in Christ are "heavenly" or "of heaven" – their life is there (Eph 2:6; Col 3:1-3), their hope is there (Heb 6:19,20), their Head is there (Eph 1:22), their inheritance is there (1 Pet 1:4), their home is there (John 14:2), their citizenship is there (Phil 3:20).

15:49 In vs 47-49 thrice Christ is called the man from heaven. This does not mean He was a man in heaven before He came to earth, but that He was in heaven before He became a man on earth.

"Likeness" – vs 42-44.

15:50 Believers now are in the kingdom of God (Col 1:13). But Paul here speaks of "inheriting" it. See Rom 8:17-23; Eph corruption inherit the incorruptible. 51 See, I show you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on the incorruptible, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 So when this corruptible has put on the incorruptible, and this mortal has put on immortality, then will take place the word that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is your sting?
O grave, where is your victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my dear brethren, be firm, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for you know that your labour is not in vain in

1:14; 1 Pet 1:4. We cannot inherit it with these bodies of death.

15:51,52 1 Thess 4:13-18; John 14:3. Not all believers will "sleep" (die). Some will be alive when Christ returns and will be instantly changed.

"Mystery" – means a revelation from God which men could not know in any other way.

"Last trumpet" – see Matt 24:30,31 (the only trumpet Jesus mentioned) and Rev 11:15 (the last trumpet in the book of Revelation) – it is hard to see how the resurrection of believers could take place before the events of these verses in Matthew and Revelation, and still be at the "last" trumpet. We should take seriously Paul's placing of the rapture of the saints (1 Thess 4:16,17) at this time – it is the only place he plainly tells us when it will occur. (The Greek words signifying trumpet – noun and verb – are used 23 times in the NT – 1 Cor 14:8; twice here in 15:52; Matt 6:2; 24:31; 1 Thess 4:16; Heb 12:19; Rev 1:10; 4:1; 8:2; twice in 8:6; 8:7,8,10,12; twice in 8:13; 9:1,13,14; 10:7; 11:15.)

15:53 Verses 42-44,49.

15:54 Isa 25:8.

15:55 Hos 13:14.

15:56 Death has no sting itself. Its sting is sin (Rom 5:12; 6:23), and to die in sin is to be lost forever. Christ has removed this sting for believers by removing their sins, and so death to them is only a door to life with Christ (Phil 1:21-23).

"The law" – this means God's law revealed through Moses. The law condemns us all (Rom 3:19,20), makes transgression possible (Rom 4:15), and causes our sinful nature to rebel against it and so sin even more (Rom 7:5-11).

15:57 "Victory" – the victory He gives is over sin and death and everything else that could bring eternal harm to us (Rom 8:37; 2 Cor 2:14; 1 John 5:4). Death and sin will not the Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, just as I gave instructions to the churches of Galatia, so you should do also. 2 On the first day of the week each one of you should put some money aside, as God has prospered him, so that there will be no collections when I come. 3 And when I come, I will send whomever you approve by your letters, to take your gift to Jerusalem. 4 And if it is suitable that I go also, they will go with me.

5 Now I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia; for I will pass through Macedonia. 6 And it may be that I will stay, yes, and spend the winter with you, that you may send me on my journey, wherever I go. 7 For I do not want to see you now on the way, but I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits. 8 But I will remain at Ephesus until Pentecost. 9 For a great door and an have the victory over believers. This is because Christ gained the victory over death and sin and because He shares that victory with them. It is Christ's resurrection which is the proof of all this.

15:58 "Therefore" – Paul taught great doctrines and revelations of truth from God. And he always wanted people to apply those truths to their lives, and to be better people because of them. Compare Rom 12:1; 2 Cor 7:1; Gal 5:1; Eph 4:1; Col 3:5. "Be firm, unmovable" – v 1; 16:13; Rom 5:2; 2 Cor 1:24; Gal 5:1; Eph 6:11,13,14; Ps 15:5; 16:8.

"Abounding in the work" – v 10; Matt 21:28; 24:45,46; Luke 19:11,24; John 4:34-36; 2 Cor 9:8; Col 1:10; Heb 6:10; 13:21; Rev 22:12; Eccl 9:10. Because the dead will rise, our labor is not in vain. Then every person shall receive the proper reward for his or her labors. But observe what sort of work is not in vain – work "of the Lord" and "in the Lord." We must do the Lord's work in the strength of the Lord, under the Lord's direction.

16:1-4 Rom 15:26; 2 Corinthians chapters 8 and 9; Acts 24:17. Evidently believers living in Jerusalem were poor and in need. So Paul arranged for other churches to help them financially.

16:2 "First day" – Sunday. See also Acts 20:7; Rev 1:10. It seems that very soon after Christ's resurrection believers began to meet on Sunday for worship rather than on Saturday the Jewish Sabbath.

16:3 Observe the great care Paul was taking about this money. He wanted there to be no possibility of any kind of wrong use of it, or any suspicion of wrong use – 2 Cor 8:20,21.

16:5 "Macedonia" – Acts 19:21; 20:1,2.

16:6 "Send me on my journey" – compare Rom 15:24.

16:9 "Door" – Acts 14:27; 2 Cor 2:12; Col 4:3; Rev 3:7,8. When the Lord opens a effective one has opened to me, and there are many opponents.

10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he can be with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11 Therefore no one should look down on him. But send him on his journey in peace, so he can come to me. For I am expecting him with the brethren.

12 Concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brethren, but he was not at all willing to come at this time. But he will come when he has a convenient time. 13 Watch, stand firm in the faith, be courageous, be strong. 14 All you do should be done with love.

15 I urge you, brethren (you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry of the saints), 16 to submit yourselves to such persons, and to everyone who works and labours with us. 17 I am glad about the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, for they have supplied what was lacking on your part. 18 For they have refreshed my spirit, and yours. Therefore acknowledge such men.

19 The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you warmly in the Lord, together with the church that is in their house. 20 All the brethren greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

21 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand.

22 If any man does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. Come, O Lord.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

door of service for us He means for us to enter it. But the enemies of the gospel will try to see that we do not.

16:10,11 "Timothy" – Acts 16:1; 1 Tim 1:2; 2 Tim 2:2.

"Without fear" – 1 Tim 4:12. Timothy was young, and probably timid, and the Corinthians were not always as helpful as they might have been (4:1,8-13).

16:12 "Apollos" – 1:12; 3:4-9; Acts 18:24-28.

16:13 "Watch" – Acts 20:28; Rom 16:17; Col 4:2; 1 Thess 5:6; 2 Tim 4:5.

"Firm" – 15:58. "Strong" – Eph 6:10; 2 Tim 2:3; Isa 40:31.

16:14 "Love" – 10:24; 13:1-13; John 13:34.

16:15 Achaia was the region in which Corinth lay.

"Devoted themselves to the ministry of the saints" – here was a spiritual gift they continually and wholeheartedly used (12:28) – helping fellow believers. Such people are an example to all others who may not have any of the more public or well-known gifts.

16:16 This means to accept their leadership in their work of serving believers and assist them.

16:17 "Lacking on your part" – he is not reminding them that they had not helped him financially (see 9:12-18). He means that he misses them and their fellowship and news about them.

16:18 It is good to be the kind of people whose presence refreshes others.

16:19 Paul was writing from Ephesus the chief city in the Province of Asia.

"Aquila and Priscilla" – Acts 18:1-3,26; Rom 16:3,4.

"In their house" – Rom 16:5.

16:20 "Kiss" – Rom 16:16.

16:21 Paul sometimes dictated his letters and they were written down by someone else (Rom 16:22). But he always added a greeting in his own hand (2 Thess 3:17).

16:22 Love for the Lord Jesus Christ is the evidence of spiritual life (1 John 3:14; 4:7,8,16). Absence of love for Him is proof of spiritual death. If we cannot, or do not, love Christ, we show ourselves depraved, still in our sins, and worthy of a curse from God. Nothing is more important than the state of our hearts in regard to the Lord Jesus.

"Come, O Lord" – Rev 22:20. In the Aramaic language the expression is "Marana tha".

16:23 See 1:3; Rom 1:7; 16:20.

16:24 Paul had opponents at Corinth, and others there were carnal, proud, divisive, abused spiritual gifts, and complained against him. He had to say some rather harsh things in this letter to correct them. But he sent love to them all. Compare what he wrote in 13:4-7 – Paul was happy to practice what he taught to others.

The Second Letter of the Apostle Paul to the CORINTHIANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

About 57 AD.

Themes:

Another serious problem had arisen among the Corinthian Christians besides the ones Paul dealt with in his first letter to them. Some false teachers had come there saying that Paul was not a true apostle of Christ and that his teachings were not to be trusted. And they had convinced some Christians that this slander was true, and had brought the whole church into danger. For if they rejected Paul's apostleship they would begin to question the truth of the gospel of Christ which he preached, the only true gospel there is. So for the sake of believers there, and for the sake of the truth of Christ, it became necessary for Paul to set forth his authority as an apostle whom Christ had appointed, and to show that his words and deeds were in accordance with his apostleship. Therefore, more than in any other of his New Testament letters, he writes of his personal life and his service for Christ. He speaks in moving terms of his experiences, his motives, his labors, and his sufferings. In doing so he shows once and for all what true service for Christ is and involves, and what those who call themselves the servants of Christ should be and how they should behave.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia: 2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all encouragement, 4 who encourages us in all our trouble, that we may be able to encourage those who are in any trouble, with the encouragement we ourselves have from God. 5 For just as the sufferings of Christ are in us in abundance, so our encouragement is also in abundance through Christ. 6 And if we are afflicted, it is for your encouragement and salvation, which is effective in

1:1 "Apostle" – Rom 1:1; 1 Cor 1:1; Matt 10:2.

"By the will of God" – he emphasizes the truth of his apostleship here and throughout this letter, because some of the people at Corinth were attacking him at this very point.

"Timothy" – v 19; Acts 16:1-3; 1 Tim 1:2.

"Achaia" – the region (Greece) where Corinth was located.

1:2 Rom 1:7.

1:3-11 Here are two important themes of this letter – "encouragement" (or "comfort") and "trouble." The Greek word translated "encourage" or "encouragement" (noun and verb) occurs 17 times. The Greek words behind the translations "afflicted", "sufferings", etc occur about the same number of times. Paul is not complaining about his troubles – just the opposite (6:10; 7:4; 12:10; Rom 5:3). He found that his troubles and sufferings were working good for him. Let us consider well what he has to say about them.

Through sufferings and troubles he came into a deeper knowledge of God as the encourager and comforter of His people (vs 3,4).

He experienced such sweet comfort in Christ that it made his sufferings seem worthwhile (v 5).

Because of them he was better able to comfort others (vs 4,6).

He learned to rely more on God (v 9).

He came to understand better that troubles in believers' lives were actually producing greater glory in eternity (4:17).

And he learned that God's strength in him became the greater as his troubles (and resulting weakness) increased (12:9,10). See also note at Job 3:20.

1:3 Here is truth about God's nature that Paul learned more deeply because of trouble and suffering.

"Compassion" – Ex 34:6; Ps 86:15; 103:13; 111:4; 145:8; Lam 3:22; Micah 7:19; Matt 9:36.

"Encouragement" – or "comfort" (the Greek word means either of these) – God continually encourages and comforts His patiently enduring the same sufferings that we also suffer. Or if we are encouraged, it is for your encouragement and salvation. 7 And our hope for you is firm, knowing that just as you are sharers in the sufferings, so you will also share in the encouragement.

8 For, brethren, we do not want you to be ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia. We experienced pressure beyond measure, above strength, so that we even despaired of life. 9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead. 10 He delivered us from so great a death, and continues to deliver, and we trust that he will deliver us, 11 you also helping together people through His Word and through His presence – Ps 23:4; 119:50; Isa 40:1; 61:2; 66:13; Rom 15:4,5; 2 Thess 2:16,17; Heb 6:18. One name for God's Spirit, "The Comforter" comes from the same Greek root. See note at John 14:16.

1:4 "All our trouble" – the God of "all" encouragement (v 3) has encouragement for every kind of trouble. But believers can fail to obtain it, if they refuse to be comforted (see Matt 2:18). Observe that God encouraged Paul, not merely for his own sake, but that he might give encouragement to others in trouble (v 6).

1:5 "Sufferings of Christ" – Rom 8:17; Phil 1:29; 3:10; Col 1:24. Christ suffered for the sake of others and is still suffering for their sake in His people (Acts 9:4,5). Those who willingly suffer with Him for others will know His comfort and encouragement (John 16:33).

1:6 Paul was all for others, and both his troubles and his encouragements were for their sake (1 Cor 9:19-23; 10:24,33; 2 Tim 2:10). Only those who follow his example have any right to expect the same great encouragement he received from God. The result of suffering is "patient endurance" – Rom 5:3-5; Jam 1:2-4; 5:11.

1:7 Believers in Corinth also shared Christ's sufferings. They, too, were objects of persecution, though not to the extent Paul was. But to be willing to share with Christ and His people in suffering is to be able to share in Christ's comfort and joy.

1:8 "Asia" – Acts 16:6; 18:19. Ephesus was the chief city of the province of Asia.

"Pressure" – compare v 10; 4:8,9; 6:9; 11:23-29. The dangers and difficulties which faced him were beyond his ability to escape or overcome by himself.

1:9 "Death" – it seemed to him that his time to die had come. But this too was for his good (Rom 8:28). His reliance on God became greater than before. He realized that if God could raise the dead He could keep him safe in the most deadly peril.

1:10 This must have been some miraculous and unexpected deliverance. It gave Paul much assurance for the future. Compare 2 Tim 4:18. See also 1 Sam 17:34-37.

1:11 Paul had to rebuke believers in Corinth by prayer for us, so that many people will give thanks on our behalf for the gift of grace granted to us through the prayers of many.

12 For this is what we boast about: the testimony of our conscience that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our behaviour in the world, and more abundantly toward you. 13 For we are writing nothing to you except what you read or understand. And I trust you will understand, even to the end, 14 as also you have understood us in part, that we are going to be your reason for boasting, just as you are going to be our reason for boasting, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I intended to come to you first, that you might benefit a second time, about the poor quality of their Christian lives – 1 Cor 3:1-4; 5:1,2; 6:1; etc. But he still valued their prayers and was sure they would be a help (compare Phil 1:19; Philemon 22). From this let us learn that the prayers of even weak and frequently failing believers are not without power with God. Observe also that Paul wanted thanksgiving to God to abound (4:15; 9:11-13). 1:12-14 Some at Corinth were questioning Paul's truthfulness and sincerity (13:3). So he writes these words. It was important for them to trust him, not for his sake, but for theirs. His "boasting" was really a defense, not of himself, but of the gospel he preached and of his apostleship. All through this letter the false teachers of 11:13 are in view. They brought a false gospel, and in order to defend it they had to attack Paul. In order to defend the true gospel Paul had to defend himself against their attacks. As far as the Corinthians were concerned the gospel stood or fell with Paul. What he wrote them about himself was for their benefit (12:19). At that time they had no New Testament to appeal to, and possibly not even a single written Gospel.

1:12 "Boast" – this is another important theme in this letter. He uses the word in its various noun and verb forms 31 times. For example, see 10:8,13; 11:16. The same Greek word is translated "rejoice" in Rom 5:2,3 and Phil 3:3. The kind of "boasting" Paul does in this letter is like a holy joy in God. It is not at all the sort of boasting sinful unbelieving men do. They boast about their own strength, brains, ability, etc. Paul boasted in God and how God worked in him. He knew that any good thing in him was "from God" and "according to God's grace". Compare Rom 7:18; 1 Cor 1:29,31.

1:14 "Day" – the day when Christ returns. He was sure they could be a source of rejoicing to him then. Compare Phil 4:1; 1 Thess 2:19,20.

1:15-24 These verses give the reason why some of the Corinthians were doubting Paul's truthfulness and sincerity. And here Paul gives his answer to their doubts. Paul

16 and to come to you on the way to Macedonia, and to come again from Macedonia to you, and to be sent by you on my way to Judea. 17 So when I planned this, did I do so lightly? or in making plans do I plan according to the flesh, so that with me there will be "yes, yes" and "no, no"?

18 But as surely as God is faithful, our word to you was not "yes" and "no." 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not "yes" and "no", but in him was "yes." 20 For all the promises of God in him are "yes", and in him "Amen", for the glory of God through us. 21 Now he who establishes us together with you in Christ, and has anointed us, is God, 22 who has also sealed us, and given the Spirit as a pledge in our hearts.

had made plans to revisit Corinth, had told them so, then for good reasons changed his plans. His opponents said Paul could not be relied on, that this was evidence that even the gospel he preached should be doubted, and that Paul might change his mind about the gospel also. Paul was far more concerned with the reputation of the gospel than his own reputation, but they were bound up together. And so he wanted his reputation to be clear for the sake of Christ's gospel.

In this he is an example to all servants of Christ. We must all realize how Christ's reputation and ours are tied together.

1:15-17 This was his original plan which he had to change (compare 1 Cor 16:5-7). It seemed to them that he kept changing his mind for no good reason, and that he planned in a worldly way, as unsaved men do. They were tempted to think that he was fickle, and didn't give proper thought to what he said.

1:18-20 For the sake of the gospel Paul is alarmed that they should believe any such thing about him as is in v 17. And so he solemnly assures them it is not so. His message and his preaching had always been sure and certain and affirmative. There had been no wavering, no change of mind about those vital matters. And he can assure them that there is never any wavering or change in the Christ whom he preached. Every promise God has made He will fulfill in Christ. Silvanus in v 19 is the same person as Silas. 1:21 Paul well knew that in the matter of God's gospel and God's truth, all believers should be unwavering and steadfast (1 Cor 15:58; 16:13). Only God can make them so (Rom 16:25; 1 Peter 5:10).

"Anointed" – Paul did not say anointed "me" but "us." God anoints all believers – 1 John 2:20,27. He anoints them with His Spirit and sets them apart from the rest of mankind to be a kingdom of priests (Rev 1:6. Note on anointing at Matt 1:1. Compare Luke 4:18; Acts 10:38).

1:22 "Sealed" – compare Eph 1:13; 4:30; 2 Thess 2:19. The seal is God's Spirit, and His presence in believers marks them as 23 Moreover I call God as a witness for my soul, that to spare you I did not come again to Corinth. 24 Not that we have power over your faith, but we are working with you for your joy, for by faith you stand.

2 But I determined this with myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. 2 For if I make you sorrowful, who is he then who makes me glad, but the same one who is made sorrowful by me? 3 And I wrote this same thing to you, so that, when I came, I would not have sorrow over those from whom I ought to have joy; having confidence in all of you, that my joy is the joy of all of you. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which God's special possession (1 Cor 6:19,20; Rom 8:9; John 17:6,10).

"Pledge" – see 5:5; Eph 1:14 and notes there. God's giving His Spirit to believers is a guarantee to them that He will give also the inheritance He has promised (Rom 8:17,23; Eph 1:13,14; 1 Pet 1:4). It is a God-given pledge of their final salvation. As certain as God's Spirit is in us, so certain it is that we shall never be lost. See also John 6:37-40; 10:27-29; 17:11,12; Rom 5:9,10; 8:28-39.

1:23 See how solemnly he speaks. The reputation of Christ's gospel was his chief concern. Now he gives the reason why he changed his mind. It was not that he did not care about his word, it was that he cared so much about them. See also 2:1-4. He means that the condition of the church in Corinth was so poor that his coming would mean pain and grief to both them and himself. And this he did not want for them. See 1 Cor 4:21.

1:24 He did not want them to misunderstand. He was not a tyrant who could dictate to them. It was their own faith which caused them to stand, not any authority over them he could exercise (13:10). Compare 1 Pet 5:3.

2:1-4 See 1:23. Some scholars think the letter Paul refers to in vs 3,4 is 1 Corinthians. It is much more likely that it was another letter, now lost, which God's Spirit did not choose to make a part of the New Testament.

2:5-10 If 1 Corinthians is the letter Paul refers to in vs 3,4, the man he refers to in these verses would be the one in 1 Cor 5:1-5. But it is probable that Paul is referring to someone else altogether – someone who had in some way sinned against Paul personally. The language here indicates this. But in either case the lessons are the same. When a person who has sinned accepts church discipline and repents he should be forgiven and restored to fellowship.

2:6 By "punishment" he means church discipline – excommunication or stopping fellowship with the man, or something

I have so abundantly for you.

5 But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but to some extent, not to be too severe, all of you. 6 Sufficient for such a man is the punishment which was inflicted by many of you. 7 So that, on the contrary, you ought rather to forgive him, and encourage him, or perhaps such a one would be swallowed up with too much sorrow. 8 Therefore I plead with you to reaffirm your love toward him. 9 For to this end also I wrote, that I might see if you would stand the test and be obedient in all things. 10 Now whom you forgive anything, I also forgive. For if I forgave anyone anything, it was for your sakes that I forgave it in the presence of Christ, 11 so that Satan might not take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

similar (compare 1 Cor 5:13; 2 Thess 3:17).

2:7,8 The purpose of church discipline is not simply to punish but to bring the sinning Christian to repentance. These verses indicate that the man had repented and was grieving because of his sin. Believers, Paul says, should see this and know when to stop disciplining and start forgiving and comforting. He does not say they should forgive and comfort before discipline and repentance. When Christians sin, church leaders should be neither too soft and easy with them, nor too harsh and hard. There should be discipline and there should be love as well.

2:9 "Be obedient" – he does not mean obedient to himself (1:24), but obedient to the Lord's instructions through him. There is a big difference between these two things. Some Christian leaders emphasize obedience to themselves, Paul was concerned about obedience to the Lord Jesus.

2:10 Paul had already forgiven the man the wrong he had done to him personally. Now the man had repented and Paul was willing to consider his sin as a small matter. This would be impossible if he was referring to the sin of the man in 1 Cor 5:1-5 – that was no small matter, and Paul would never have counted it as such. But Paul was glad to forgive any wrong done against him personally. On this kind of forgiveness see Matt 6:12,14,15; 18:21-35; Eph 4:32; Col 3:13. Paul knew the eyes of Christ were upon him, and that Christ had forgiven him far more than he had forgiven others.

2:11 Satan's purpose is to ruin the lives of believers, wreck churches and bring dishonor to Christ. He has schemes (plural) to accomplish this. He will try to make Christians sin, then try to arrange matters so that they will live in despair of forgiveness. Or he may try to get the church to accept them even without their repentance. He will try to destroy peace and harmony in the church through one or more of its members. He will try to make church leaders either too easy with sin or too harsh

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened to me by the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother. But taking leave of them, I went on from there to Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and spreads everywhere the aroma of his knowledge through us. 15 For we are to God a fragrance of Christ among those who are saved, and among those who perish. 16 To the one we are the aroma of death leading to death, and to the other the aroma of life leading to life.

with those who fall. See notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1; John 8:44.

2:12 "Door" - Acts 14:27; 1 Cor 16:9; Col 4:3; Rev 3:8.

2:13 "Titus" - Paul had sent Titus to Corinth (7:6,7), and evidently arranged to meet him in Troas. When Titus did not come there Paul remained uneasy in mind about the situation in Corinth. His love for them was very great (v 4), and he longed for them to respond in the right way to his letters.

"Macedonia" - 1:16.

2:14 In spite of problems in the churches and persecution in the world, God leads His servants on from victory to victory. Compare Rom 8:37. Notice the words "always" and "in Christ" - our efforts apart from Him will not be victorious, not ever. Though they may meet with what some people consider success, that will be only a worldly kind of success, which God can not reward.

"Aroma" - the knowledge of Christ to the heart is like precious perfume to the sense of smell. Paul and his co-workers spread this knowledge "everywhere" they went. Do we?

2:15 "Fragrance" - Christ's servants spread the knowledge about Christ to saved and unsaved, believers and unbelievers alike. In this way they became a "sweet smell" to God. A person with perfume on his (or her) body or clothing will give off that fragrance wherever he goes. A person who has Christ living in him, who speaks of Christ, and presents Christ's gospel will give out the fragrance of Christ. Believers should not, and need not, ever smell of sin or of the world.

2:16 The gospel when preached by Christ's servants brings life to those who believe it, death to those who reject it. Compare John 3:36. So to those who refuse to believe in Christ the gospel is like a deadly, killing odor, but to those who believe it is the fragrance of eternal life.

"Who is sufficient" - no man in himself is competent for the work of spreading the knowledge of Christ. But see 3:5,6. There is One who can make us competent.

2:17 "Adulterating" - Paul knew that there were men who said they were Christ's servants who watered down the message of Christ for personal gain. The Greek word translated "adulterating" may also mean "peddling" or include both ideas. Dishonest

And who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not like many, adulterating the word of God. But as sincere men, but as men belonging to God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

3 Do we begin to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some people, letters of recommendation to you, or recommendation from you? 2 You are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by all men. 3 For you are clearly seen to be a letter of Christ, a result of our ministry, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living merchants or traders often adulterate their product to make more profit. Some so-called Christian workers are like this, only what they "adulterate" is the message concerning Christ, and their "service" is only for what they can get out of it - compare 1 Tim 6:5; John 12:4-6; 2 Pet 2:15.

"Sincere" - 1:12,18,19.

"In the sight of God" - Paul knew that the eyes of God were always on him, and sought to live and serve accordingly. This knowledge will make a tremendous difference in anyone's life.

3:1 The answers to both these questions is "no." Paul is not saying letters of recommendation have no place. He himself sometimes recommended others (8:16-24; Rom 16:1,2; 1 Cor 16:3,10,11). But here he is saying he needs no such thing for himself.

3:2,3 The believers at Corinth were themselves like a letter of recommendation for Paul. Comparing them to a letter the following things are said about them. They were written on the hearts of Paul and his co-workers (that is, Paul and others were conscious of the work of God done in them and they loved them dearly - 7:3). They were no secret letter hidden in Paul's heart, but a letter anyone could read (anyone could see the change in them produced by Paul's ministry). The letter was "of" Christ (it was His plan, His message that produced the change in them).

They were also the letter of Paul and his associates (Christ had used them in this work). They were produced by God's Spirit (compare John 3:5-8). The "writing" was done in their hearts (the change in them was not merely outward but inward - 5:17). Paul puts all this in contrast to God's writing the law on tablets of stone. See Ex 31:18; 32:15,16. Compare Jer 31:33,34; Heb 8:10-12.

Now too God's servants are working with God to produce "letters" - people profoundly and eternally changed by Christ's gospel. Is there any higher privilege on earth than this work?

3:3-11 In these verses Paul contrasts the new covenant with the old.

The old was a ministry which brought death (vs 6,7), but the new brought life (v 6).

The old was written on stone (Ex 31:18),

God, not on tablets of stone, but on tablets of flesh, of the heart.

4 And we have such trust through Christ toward God. 5 Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to think anything as coming from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, 6 who indeed has made us able ministers of the new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

7 But if the ministry of death, written and engraved on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses, because of the glory on his countenance, which was passing away, 8 how will the ministry of the Spirit not be even more glorious? 9 For if the ministry of condemnation is glorious, much more glorious is the ministry of righteousness. 10 For even what was made glorious has no glory in this respect: the fact of the glory that excels it. 11 For but the new is written on people's hearts (v 3).

The old was a ministry which condemned men, but the new removes condemnation and makes men righteous (v 9; Rom 3:19-24).

The old was "fading away" (v 11; Heb 8:24), but the new is permanent (v 11).

In short, the old covenant was in laws and commandments which could never change people's hearts (note at Ex 19:5,6), but the new brings the ministry of God's Spirit which makes men new (vs 3,6,8).

So though the old had some glory, the new has far more glory (vs 8-11).

It seems likely that some people had been troubling the Christians in Corinth by telling them they needed to keep the law of Moses. Compare Acts 15:1,2. So Paul shows them how much greater was the gospel he preached than the law they preached.

3:4 He was quite sure that God was using him in the work described above. Christ Himself gave him this assurance.

3:5 See 2:16. The above work is impossibly difficult for anyone who is not called and equipped by God. Paul's confidence in the work was not self-confidence in his own abilities. He knew that God alone made him able to do what he did (1 Cor 15:10; Col 1:29. See John 15:5).

3:6 Everyone whom God sends on His work can and should have this confidence that God will make him able to do that work. On the new covenant see notes at Matt 26:28; Jer 31:31-34; Heb 8:6-13. The Greek word translated "letter" here is not the same as in vs 2,3, and its meaning is completely different. By "letter" here Paul is referring to the old covenant with its laws, rules, and regulations. It brought death because no one ever fully kept it, and so it justly condemned people to death (Rom 7:9-11; Gal 3:10. See also Rom 3:19,20; 4:15; 5:20; 8:3; etc.). But the new covenant brings life by God's Spirit (Rom 7:6; 8:2-4,11; John 3:5-8).

if what was passing away was glorious, what lasts is much more glorious.

12 Therefore, since we have such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, 13 unlike Moses, who put a veil over his face, so that the children of Israel could not steadily look on to the finish of what was passing away. 14 But their minds were blinded, for to this day the same veil remains in place when the old covenant is read, for this veil is taken away only in Christ. 15 But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is on their heart. 16 However when one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled faces, seeing, as in a mirror, the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same likeness from glory to glory, altogether by the Spirit of the Lord.

3:7 "Face of Moses" – see Ex 34:29-35.

3:12 "Hope" – Rom 5:2-5; 8:23-25. This hope, this expectation of glorious things in the future made Paul very bold in the present.

3:13 Ex 34:29-35. The sight of glory made the Israelites afraid. The new covenant does not bring fear but hope and boldness and joy.

3:14-16 He now draws spiritual lessons from the veil Moses put on his face. In v 14 he is speaking of those who were still under the old covenant – Jews and converts to the Jewish religion. Their minds are dull, a veil is on their hearts (v 15). That is, they do not have a proper understanding of what they read in the Old Testament. See 4:3,4. Compare Jesus' words to the Jews in John 5:39,40,46,47; etc. Only Christ can take away the "veil" of darkness and misunderstanding and cause men to know the truth and to know God (v 14,16; Matt 11:27; John 8:12,31,32; 14:6).

3:17 The Lord Jesus and God's Spirit are one in the same sense that the Father and the Son are one (John 10:30; 14:9). God's Spirit is called the Spirit of Christ in Rom 8:9. Notes on the Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; etc.

"Liberty" – God's Spirit gives many kinds of freedom: from the law (Rom 7:4,6; Gal 5:18), from fear (Rom 8:15), from sin (Rom 6:14,18). Compare John 8:36.

3:18 "Seeing" – all believers now see something of God's glory in Christ (4:6). That is, they have some spiritual understanding of it, an enlightenment of the mind regarding it. But it is all like seeing in a poor mirror. Compare 1 Cor 13:12. Only a reflection appears, not the whole reality which we believers will see when face to face with Christ. But now all believers are being changed. The Greek word translated "transformed" appears only four times in the New Testament – here, Matt 17:2, Mark 9:2, and Rom 12:2. It suggests an inward

4 Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, since we have received mercy, we do not lose heart. 2 But we have renounced hidden, shameful ways, not behaving with craftiness, or handling the word of God deceitfully, but by making the truth clear we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God. 3 But if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are lost. 4 In their case, the god of this present world has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, would not shine into them. 5 For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. 6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, change that appears outwardly. In the case of Christ it meant a change in outward appearance that was in accordance with what He was inwardly. In the case of believers this is both an inner and an outward change, first inner, then outer.

And it is a gradual process - "from glory to glory." Compare Ps 84:7; Prov 4:18. Here and now God is making them more and more like Christ. Finally, at His coming, they shall become completely like Him (Rom 8:29; 1 John 3:1,2). The process may be so slow now that the believer himself may have difficulty in believing it is taking place at all. But it is, in every true child of God.

4:1 God's servants under the new covenant have received a ministry full of glory, greater than the ministry of Moses (3:9). They are not ministers of the law which condemns, but of God's grace which saves. They have received this ministry through God's mercy, not through personal merit (1 Cor 15:10; 1 Tim 1:13,14). So, Paul says, he refuses to be discouraged and give up in spite of all the problems, dangers, and difficulties he faced (v 16. Compare 1 Cor 15:58; Luke 18:1).

4:2 See 1:12; 2:17. Paul kept insisting on his integrity because some at Corinth denied it, and he knew great harm could come to the church if they lost faith in his apostleship.

4:3 See 3:14-16. Here Paul speaks not only of unbelieving Jews but of unbelievers of every nation.

4:4 "The god of this world" means Satan. Compare John 12:31; 16:11. He is called "god" because he wants worship and receives it, and because he rules in the realm of this world's darkness (Eph 6:12). Notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44.

"Blinded the minds" means Satan makes people unable to understand God's truth and he keeps them from having spiritual sight. Of course, this is with their willing cooperation (John 3:19,20; 2 Thess 2:10,11).

"The glorious gospel of Christ" - the gospel reveals the glory of God and of His anointed one the Lord Jesus (John 12:23).

"The image of God" - Heb 1:3; Phil 2:6; Col 1:15; 2:9; John 1:14,18; 12:45; 14:9. He is in visible form what the unseen God is.

"Would not shine on them" - or it could be translated "would not be seen by them."

4:5 In this letter Paul had to defend his apostleship against attacks and he speaks much about himself. But all that was for their sake not his (notes on 1:12-24). He did not preach himself as a way of salvation. He had not invented the gospel. He did not think he was some great one, only a servant of others for Christ's sake (1 Cor 3:5-7; 9:19-23). He had someone far greater than himself to preach about - Christ. And he declared Him to be the one Lord of heaven and earth. Compare Luke 2:11; Rom 10:9; 1 Cor 8:6; 12:3; Acts 2:36; Phil 2:10,11.

4:6 Paul compares the creation of physical light in the beginning (see Gen 1:1-3) with the spiritual light God makes to shine into the hearts of believers in Christ. God opens the eyes of their understanding so they can receive the knowledge of the truth. Before this their minds, like the minds of everyone else, were in darkness and chaos. Compare Eph 1:18; Acts 26:18; John 8:12; Matt 6:22,23; 11:27; 16:17; 1 Cor 2:11-16.

See what this enlightenment is which God gives. It has nothing to do with the wrong teaching that men can "know" they are God. That teaching is a terrible delusion created by Satan. Men are not God, cannot become God, and have fallen into a very grave error if they think they are God. In true enlightenment God enables individuals to understand that the glory of God is in Christ (Heb 1:3), not in them. Paul had his enlightening experience on the road to Damascus (Acts 9:3-9). Most of us do not have experiences so dramatic and so sudden. But every believer has received spiritual sight and light and is a child of the light (John 12:36; Eph 5:8; 1 Thess 5:5).

"In the face" - compare 3:13. The glory of the old covenant, symbolized by the light in Moses' face, was fading away. The glory on the face of Christ, the founder of the new covenant, will never fade away.

4:7 "Treasure" - this knowledge of God's glory in Christ is the greatest of treasures. Compare Ps 19:10; 119:72,127; Prov 2:1-5. By "treasure" Paul may also mean the ministry of the gospel entrusted to him. In his eyes this too was a glorious matter (Eph 3:8).

"Earthen vessels" - he means frail human nature, the body, soul, heart, and mind of individuals. All this is like a jar made of clay. The treasure is extremely great, but the containers it is in are very weak and unattractive by comparison. This shows that the power to give out this treasure to others, to be able ministers of so that the exceedingly great power may be of God, and not of us. 8 We are hard pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; 9 persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed. 10 We are always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus also might be revealed in our body. 11 For we who live are always being handed over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also might be revealed in our mortal body. 12 So then death is working in us, but life in you.

13 Since we have the same spirit of faith as what is written, "I believed, and therefore I have spoken", we also believe and therefore speak, 14 knowing that he who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus, and set us with you in the new covenant (3:6), is altogether God's power. Compare Acts 1:4,5,8.

4:8-12 In these verses Paul shows the weakness of the "earthen vessels" - "hard pressed", "perplexed", "persecuted", "struck down", "death." But he shows also God's power at work in them - "not crushed", "not in despair", etc. If God's power was not at work in these "earthen vessels", these clay jars, they would not be able to accomplish anything and would surely be quickly destroyed.

4:10-12 "Death" - see 1:8,9. The Lord Jesus faced the same hardships and persecutions Paul faced. What Paul faced was for 'Jesus' sake' (v 11) - indeed, it was the "dying of the Lord Jesus" in him. This meant for Paul constant dangers and troubles (11:23-27), death to self (compare Matt 10:38,39; Luke 9:23), and living for Christ alone (Gal 2:20). Personal plans and ambitions, his own likes and dislikes, comforts, pleasures - these had no place in his heart, just as they had no place in his Master's heart.

Paul found that this was the way of life, spiritual life, the life of Jesus working in him (v 11). It also meant that spiritual life could come to others like the believers at Corinth (v 12). Here is a true principle - those who would be a channel of spiritual life to others must be willing to experience their own dying. See John 12:24-26. Those who are not willing for this may have what they call success, but it will not be success in God's eyes.

4:13,14 Ps 116:10. What enabled Paul to go on in Christ's service in the face of all hardships and dangers? He believed God and so could not remain silent. And he was sure of a blessed future. The future resurrection of believers was the great hope that kept him going (Rom 8:23-25; 1 Cor 15:49-58).

4:15 All Paul's sufferings and experiences were for the good of others. And this is just what he desired - Col 1:24; 1 Cor 10:33; 2 Tim 2:10. What a help this attitude is to any servant of God who has it! And what a blessing to others! See again Paul's concern that thanksgiving abound to God (not to himself) - 1:11; 9:11-13.

4:16 A summing up of some of the themes his presence. 15 For everything is for your sake, so that the grace that is spreading to many might overflow to the glory of God through the thanksgiving of many.

16 For this reason we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is wasting away, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. 17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is producing for us an eternal weight of glory that far exceeds it, 18 while we look, not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from of this chapter.

"Do not lose heart" - v 1.

"Wasting away" - vs 7-12.

"Renewed" - vs 10,11. He faced death daily (1 Cor 15:31), but God also gave him life daily.

4:17 "Affliction" - look at his troubles and difficulties - vs 8-10; 1:8; 11:23-27. Paul calls them "light"! He means they are insignificant compared with his future reward. What shall we say then of our little troubles? Shall we pity ourselves and complain? Not if we have the same understanding of this matter that Paul had.

"For a moment" - Paul's troubles began shortly after his conversion and went on until his death, a great many years. But in Paul's view all of that was only like a moment compared to eternity. This is the view we too should have.

"Producing for us" - troubles for Christ's sake actually are working for the eternal good of those who suffer them. They help produce the glory which believers will receive. Compare Rom 8:17,18,28.

4:18 This was the reason why Paul could endure all that came to him, why all hardships were light and momentary in his eyes. But how can we fix our eyes on what is unseen? It is by the spiritual understanding God gives (v 6), and it is by faith that the unseen, eternal things of God are real (Heb 11:1). In 5:7 he expresses the same thing in different words. With our physical eyes we see the world and our troubles and difficulties. With the eyes of our faith and our spiritual understanding we can look into the face of Christ (4:6) and into eternity. And living our lives with our eyes fixed on unseen things, on eternal things, will have a profound effect on how we live.

5:1-10 Paul now speaks of some of those eternal unseen things he mentions in 4:18 - an eternal house (vs 1-4), being home with the Lord (v 8), and final judgment and rewards (v 10). On these he "fixed his eyes."

5:1 "We know" - what Paul speaks of is not speculation. It is knowledge based on God's revelation of truth. By "earthly house" he means our physical bodies (v 4). They will

God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For in this one we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our dwelling which is from heaven, 3 since, then being clothed, we will not be found naked. 4 For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened; not that we want to be unclothed, but clothed; so that mortality may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now he who has made us for this very thing is God, who has also given us the Spirit as a pledge.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. 7 For we walk by faith, not by sight. 8 We are confident, I say, and prefer to be absent from the body and present with the Lord.

die – if death comes before the return of Christ (1 Cor 15:51,52).

But what does he mean by a “building from God”, “an eternal house”? There is disagreement about his meaning. He may be referring to “the Father’s house” of John 14:2. See also Heb 11:10; 13:14; Rev 21:10-27; Luke 16:9. Or Paul may mean the resurrection bodies which believers will receive at Christ’s coming (1 Cor 15:35-53). If “tent” is our present body, “house” would seem to mean a future body, and one not temporary as a tent is.

5:2 “Groan” – see Rom 8:23. There the groaning is for the “redemption of our bodies.” So it may be his meaning here. “Clothed” also suggests something to be put on over the individual person or spirit of the person, and not a city which is like an eternal dwelling place in heaven.

5:3 Here “naked” seems to indicate a spirit without a body.

5:4 This seems to mean that believers do not groan to be rid of the present body, but to have a new body. The words “clothed” and “mortality may be swallowed up by life” are very similar to Paul’s language when speaking of the resurrection of our bodies in 1 Cor 15:54.

5:5 Believers are God’s workmanship, a new creation (v 17; Eph 2:10). And He made us for the very purpose of clothing us with a heavenly “dwelling” (v 2) – a dwelling place suited to heaven. See John 6:39,40.

“Pledge” – or “deposit” or “guarantee.” Originally it meant earnest-money – money given as a down payment, the rest of the money for the purchase to be given later. See also 1:22 and Eph 1:14. This is a pledge God gives to every believer signifying that He will fulfill all His promises to them and bring them into their future inheritance. We have no reason to think God ever changes His mind and takes back this pledge. Having given His own Spirit to us He will not withhold the future blessings He has promised.

5:6-8 Paul’s confidence and knowledge resulted from God’s revelation, and all believers may have them. Compare 1 Cor 2:9-16. In these verses he does not mean

9 Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be pleasing to him. 10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that everyone may receive according to the things he has done in the body, whether good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men. But we are clearly known to God, and, I trust, are also clearly known to your consciences. 12 For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to be proud of us, so that you may have some answer for those who take pride in appearances, and not in things of the heart. 13 For if we are out of our mind, it is for God. If we are of sound mind, it is for you. 14 For the love of Christ constrains us, that the Lord is not with us now while we are in the body on earth. We know He is with all believers – 13:5; Matt 28:20; John 17:20-23. But believers are not yet with the Lord – in His immediate presence in heaven. Paul says that when they die they go into His presence. See also Phil 1:23,24. Compare Luke 23:43; John 17:24.

5:7 See 4:18.

5:9 Since believers are going to enter the presence of Christ, and be with Christ forever, it should have a profound effect on the way they live. Paul says it did have this effect on his own way of life. Whether alive or dead he wanted above everything else to please Christ. Those who please Christ will not have the goal of pleasing themselves, but will live for Christ’s glory and the good of others. Compare v 15; 1 Cor 9:19-23; 10:31. Those who do not wish to please Christ are not true servants of God.

5:10 Rom 14:10-12; 2:6; 1 Cor 3:13-15. Believers will receive rewards for deeds worthy of rewards, and denied rewards because of deeds unworthy of Christ.

5:11 “Fear of the Lord” – Paul means reverence and awe. See Rom 3:18; Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7. Thoughts of the coming judgment brought it to his mind. It was one powerful motive for his ministry.

5:12 1:12-14; 3:1-3. In this verse he refers again to his opponents at Corinth (11:13-15). He wanted believers there to take pride in him – that is, to be assured that he was a true apostle and teacher of God’s truth. Then they could answer the false teachers who took pride in mere outward things.

5:13 Did his opponents say he was mad? Did believers there think he acted sometimes in an abnormal manner? (Compare Mark 3:21; Acts 26:24; 1 Cor 4:10.) He wants them to know that whatever he was, however his behavior seemed to them, it was for God and for them, not for himself. Compare John 2:17.

5:14 Here is a motive for his ministry greater than the one in v 11. How is it he could do everything for God’s sake and for the good of others? The knowledge of Christ’s love, the experience of it in his heart (Rom 5:5) because we judge that if one died for all, then all died, 15 and he died for all, so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for him who died for them, and rose again.

16 Therefore, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh. Indeed, though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer so regard him. 17 Therefore, if anyone was a compelling force which drove him on in God's work. (Compare Luke 12:50 where, in Greek, the same word is used.) Christ was in him, as in all believers, and so Christ's love was in him. Because he was fully yielded to Christ he was fully yielded to Christ's love. Christ's love here does not mean his own love for Christ, but Christ's love for all men. Compare 1 John 4:10,19. See Gal 2:20.

"Constrains" – the Greek word means "hold together", "sustain", "close together", "press hard", "seize", "urge on", "impel." No doubt the love of Christ can do all of that but probably the meaning here is "press hard" or "urge on" and "impel."

"One died for all" – Christ died for all men. They all deserved to die because of their sin. He died in their place (v 19; John 1:29; 3:16; 1 Tim 2:6; Heb 2:9; 1 Pet 3:18; 1 John 2:2). So in God's reckoning "all died" – died when Christ died. What happened to mankind's substitute and representative is as though it happened to mankind. This does not mean that all people are saved. People are not saved simply because Christ died for them – they must be reconciled to God (v 20). They must repent and believe in Christ (Luke 13:3; John 3:36; 8:24; Acts 17:30). They must be "baptized" into His death (Rom 6:3). Otherwise there is no salvation for anyone.

The death of Christ makes it possible for God to forgive all men, but only those who turn to Him for forgiveness through Christ receive salvation. Another possible interpretation of the words "died for all" is that Christ died for all whom God has given to Him, the elect (John 6:37; 17:6). This interpretation is favored by many scholars (but not by the author of these notes). Whichever interpretation we take one thing is very clear – the eternal benefits of Christ's death come only to those who believe in Him, not to all men.

5:15 Here was one great purpose of Christ's death – to break people loose from their self-centered and selfish way of living and make them Christ-centered. See also Rom 14:9. We see this was the result in Paul's case (v 9). Has it had the same effect in us? If not, do we know Him? Is our faith genuine? Being baptized into His death means to be baptized into His resurrection also. It means an altogether new way of life (v 17; Rom 6:4-7). Living for self is the ultimate disaster. Living for Christ is the ultimate blessing. See Matt 10:37-39; Luke 9:23; 14:26.

5:16 Before he became one of Christ's is in Christ, that person is a new creation. Old things have passed away. See, all things have become new! 18 And all these things are of God, who has reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 namely, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them. And he has committed believers Paul, being without spiritual understanding, regarded others, including Christ, by outward things. Compare John 8:15. But knowing the meaning of Christ's death changed his superficial way of judging. It caused him to view everyone in their relationship to Christ.

5:17 The word "therefore" links this with the previous verses. A person in Christ is a new creation. So naturally his view of Christ and of others and of himself will not be the same as it was before.

"In Christ" – see John 17:20,21; Rom 6:3,5; 8:1; 1 Cor 1:1; 12:12,13; Eph 1:1,4. "A new creation" speaks of spiritual birth (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8; Titus 3:5; 1 Pet 1:23). Those who have experienced this can never be the same again. The old way of living for self and judging others and Christ from a worldly point of view goes. Old ideas and motives and principles go. New truth, new power to live according to it, and new desires and new motives enter the heart. Let us note carefully that this is true not merely of men like Paul but of "anyone" in Christ.

5:18 "Of God" – see John 1:13; Eph 2:10; 4:24; Jam 1:18. People may turn over a new leaf but they cannot create new life in themselves. This is not merely difficult, it is impossible. They are no more able to do it than to make the first creation (Gen 1:1).

"Reconciliation" means to make friends out of enemies, and to remove the cause of separation and enmity. Sin had made people God's enemies (Rom 5:10; Col 1:21). God's anger was on them because of their sins (Rom 1:18. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; etc). In order to reconcile people to Himself God had to deal with that which made Him angry and separated them from Him. This He did by sending His Son to be a sacrifice for the sins of the world (references at v 14). God has reconciled people "through Christ" – Eph 2:16; Col 1:20,22. Having done so He sends His servants everywhere to proclaim this good news. This is the meaning of "given to us the ministry of reconciliation."

5:19 Here is the message of reconciliation God gives His servants to declare. In v 18 Paul says God reconciled "us." Now he speaks of God's reconciling "the world." This is in the past tense. Through the death of Christ God laid the foundation of eternal friendship between Himself and any human being on earth who wants it. He did not count men's sins against them. He took to us the message of reconciliation. 20 Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us. We beg people on Christ's behalf to be reconciled to God. 21 For he made him who knew no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

6 We then, as workers together with him, plead with you also not to receive the grace of God in vain. 2 For he says,

I have heard you in an acceptable time, and in the day of salvation
I have helped you.

their sins and laid them on Christ (v 21; John 1:29; Isa 53:5,6). This does not mean that everyone is saved. It means that the way is open for everyone to be saved. To receive salvation people must receive what God has done for them and put their trust in Christ. If they will not they will perish (John 3:16,36).

5:20 God's part in the work of reconciliation is twofold – He sent His Son to die for our sins, and He sends His servants everywhere to preach this truth. But people also have their part – “be reconciled to God.” This means to receive the reconciliation God has already made in Christ. It means the same as repenting and believing the gospel of Christ. Paul (and anyone else whom God sends to preach the gospel) was Christ's “ambassador.”

An ambassador is one who goes to a place to represent another or others. He does not speak or act on his own authority. He speaks what he is told to say by the one who sent him. Christ is in heaven, but His ambassadors are on earth speaking in His name and giving His message. Through them Christ is appealing to people, begging them (the word for “you” is not in the Greek of this verse. Believers in Corinth to whom Paul was writing had already been reconciled). See how God begs people to be saved. Compare Ezek 18:30-32.

5:21 Here are four great truths.

One, Christ was sinless (John 8:46; Heb 4:15; 7:26; 1 Pet 2:22; 1 John 3:5).

Two, God made Him to be sin – that is, God laid the sin of the world on Him and Christ bore the guilt and penalty of it. God counted Him as if He were sin. Every sin of man, all that is brutal and perverted and vile and corrupt and every other kind of sin was put to the account of the Holy Son of God (think of it!).

Third, this was “for us” (v 14; 1 Pet 3:18; 1 John 4:10). God put our sins to Christ's account so that He might not have to leave them in our account.

Fourth, God's purpose in this was that believers might become the righteousness of God in Christ. This speaks of justification (note at Rom 3:21-26), and of union with Christ (John 17:20-23; Rom 6:3-8; Eph

Look, now is the acceptable time, now is the day of salvation.

3 We are giving no offense in anything, so that our ministry will not be not blamed, 4 but in everything we show ourselves to be servants of God: in much patient endurance, in troubles, in hardships, in distresses, 5 in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in hard work, in sleeplessness, in fastings, 6 by pureness, by understanding, by patience, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love, 7 by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 by honour and dishonour, by evil report

1:1,4). Christ Himself is the righteousness of God (1 Cor 1:30; Rom 3:21-24; Acts 3:14). Believers are united to Him and so become righteous in Him, and, in God's reckoning, what Christ is before God believers also are.

6:1,2 “Workers together” – 5:20; 1 Cor 3:9. The grace of God means the grace described in 5:21. Receiving it “in vain” would be to hear and know of it and do nothing about it. It means to receive it only in such a way that it has no effect on the life and does not result in salvation. To emphasize this point he refers to Isa 49:8. The day of salvation is now – this whole era of God's grace revealed in Christ.

6:3-10 Paul continues to defend his ministry. See 1:12-14. His emphasis on this shows his fear that some, or even many, in the church at Corinth might reject him as Christ's ambassador, and accept the false teachers with their perverted gospel. So he sets before them his character and experiences. They reveal that he was a true servant of God.

6:3 Some people there were determined to discredit Paul's ministry. He was determined that he himself should not discredit it.

6:4,5 Compare 1:8; 4:8,9; 11:23-29; 1 Cor 4:9-13. It was in patiently enduring such things that they showed themselves to be true servants of Christ. What a contrast this must have been with the lives of the false teachers being accepted in Corinth, and this is something the Christians there should have seen with their own eyes.

6:6,7 Now he speaks of the qualities and power he revealed in his service for God. These are things every servant of Christ should have and cultivate. He is saying that such spiritual fruit in his life was proof that he was God's servant and not a false prophet. Compare Matt 7:16-20.

6:7 “Armour” – or it could be translated “weapons” – 10:4; Eph 6:11-17. His weapons were not cunning and deceit, not harshness and brutality, but weapons of righteousness. They were given by the God of righteousness and Paul used them in a righteous way (1:12).

6:8-10 He went on serving God regardless of what people said about him, regardless and good report, regarded as deceivers, and yet true, 9 regarded as unknown, and yet well-known; as dying, and, see, we live; as punished, and yet not killed; 10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O you Corinthians, our mouth is open to you, our heart has been made wide. 12 You are not restricted by us, you are restricted in your own inner being. 13 Now in return for this (I speak as to my children) you open wide to us.

14 Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion has light with darkness? 15 And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has the one who believes with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said,

I will dwell in them, and walk in them,
and I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

17 Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and do not touch what is unclean, and I will receive you, 18 and will be a of his sufferings, regardless of his feelings, regardless of his poverty. In all circumstances he was proving that 5:14 was true of him.

6:10 "Sorrowful" - 2:4; 5:4; Rom 9:2,3; 7:24. There is surely enough reason for sadness in the world, in the church, and in themselves to make all of Christ's servants sorrowful. But though sad, Paul experienced a spring of joy always rising up in his heart - 2:3; 7:4; Rom 5:11; 14:17; Gal 5:22.

"Poor" - compare Acts 3:6; Luke 6:20; 1 Tim 6:6-9. Paul had great spiritual gifts and abilities, and could have made much money had he chosen to do so. He preferred to follow the Lord Jesus who had no place to lay His head (Matt 8:20). So he was able to make many "rich" - rich not in money and possessions but in eternal blessings. Compare 8:9.

"Nothing", "all things" - compare Phil 3:8; Matt 19:27; 1 Cor 3:21,22.

6:11-13 Opening wide the heart means making room in them. It indicates love and concern - 7:2,3. Often the hearts of Christians are cramped and narrow. They have room only for the things which concern themselves. Compare Phil 2:4,21.

6:14-18 Paul now sets forth this very important truth - believers in Christ are the special people of God and they should behave accordingly. Compare Deut 7:3-6; 1 Pet 2:9-12; John 17:6-10,17-19. Verse 14 gives a principle which applies to all believers in all times and in all places. They must not form any close alliances with unbelievers.

"Yoked" indicates being joined very closely together in a common aim and work. See Deut 22:10. Believers are yoked with Christ (Matt 11:28,29), so they must not yoke themselves with those who reject Christ. This certainly forbids marriage between believers and unbelievers (see also 1 Cor 7:39; Ezra 9:1,2; Neh 13:23-27; Mal 2:12). It also forbids fellowship with false teachers who preach a perverted gospel or who deny some of the basic truths of the Bible.

Of course, Paul is not forbidding believers to work in a place where unbelievers work, or to hire unbelievers to work for them. And it does not mean that they should cut themselves off from all contact with unbelievers (1 Cor 5:9,10). Paul himself associated with unbelievers in order to win them to Christ (1 Cor 9:19-23. Compare Matt 11:19). But here he forbids close fellowship and common goals with unbelievers, any relationship which would lead to a compromise of Bible principles, or endanger the fellowship of believers with Christ. Any believer who acts against this principle is inviting trouble.

In vs 14-16 Paul asks five questions to show how foolish and wrong it is for believers to join themselves to unbelievers. Things and persons which have nothing in common should not be treated as if they did have. Separation from all evil and all evil persons is God's command for His people (v 17).

6:14 "Light" - believers are in the light, love the light, and are children of the light (Matt 5:14; John 3:21; 8:12; Eph 5:8; 1 Thess 5:5). The situation of unbelievers is just the opposite of all this (John 3:19; Eph 6:12; 1 John 2:9,11). Then should they willingly engage in joint ventures?

6:15 "Belial" - this name comes from a Hebrew word meaning worthless and wicked. Paul uses it here as a name for Satan. Believers are joined to Christ, unbelievers are joined to Satan (Eph 2:2; John 8:44). How then can believers even dream of joining themselves to unbelievers?

6:16 Believers are the temple of God (1 Cor 3:16; 6:19; Eph 2:21,22). Unbelievers are either worshipers of literal idols or idols in the mind (Eph 5:5), or make themselves like idols. So what agreement can there be between these two vastly different sorts of people? Paul refers to some Old Testament verses to show something of the meaning of being the temple of God - Lev 26:11,12; Jer 32:38; Ezek 37:27.

6:17,18 Paul refers to OT Scriptures to give a fitting conclusion to this section. He does not give an exact quotation of any one verse, but probably had in mind such verses as Isa 52:11,12; 2 Sam 7:14; Jer 31:9; Isa 43:6. See the great thing he sets before those who are willing to be a distinct separate holy people. They lose the fellowship and pleasures of the world, but they gain the fellowship of Almighty God. Many people would like to have both, but this is not possible (Jam 4:4).

Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

7 Therefore, since we have these promises, dearly loved ones, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Welcome us in your hearts. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have cheated no one. 3 I do not speak this to condemn you; for I have said before that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is the pride I take in you. I am filled with encouragement, I am exceedingly joyful in all our trouble.

5 For when we had come to Macedonia, our body had no rest, but we were troubled on every side. Outside were conflicts, inside were fears. 6 But God, who encourages those who are cast down, encouraged us by the coming of Titus, 7 and not by his coming only, but by the encouragement which he received with you. When he told us of your earnest longing, your mourning,

7:1 Hearing God's great promises should not leave us as we were before we heard them. God gives us His Word and shows us His grace so that we might obey Him and become the holy, separated, happy people He wants us to be. Compare Rom 12:1,2; 1 Cor 15:58; Eph 4:1; Col 3:1; Titus 2:11-14. Here Christ's ambassador tells us we are to aim at perfection in holiness (see also 13:9,11. On "perfection" see note at Matt 5:48). Certainly he would not tell us to be half or three-quarters or nine-tenths holy - that would be the same as encouraging us to be one half, or one quarter or one tenth unholy. Our goal should be to live as holy a life as Christ lived on earth.

Of course, aiming at perfection is not the same as achieving it. The world, spiritually speaking, is a filthy place and believers can easily be defiled by living in it. See John 13:10. Also believers have a sinful nature which can easily be a snare to them. See Rom 7:18; Gal 5:16,17; 1 John 1:8; etc.

The word "perfecting" indicates a continuing process. The work of perfection going on now will not be done in a moment. See in this verse that this work of perfecting holiness is something believers do themselves - it is not some experience that they passively receive. Compare 1 Cor 9:27; Col 3:5; 1 John 3:3. Of course, such work cannot be done in our own strength - Rom 8:13; Gal 5:16. See notes on sanctification at John 17:17-19; on "holy" at Lev 20:7.

"Fear of God" - see 5:11; 1 Pet 1:17. The fear of God is essential in the work of perfecting holiness in ourselves (Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14).

7:2,3 See 6:11-13.

7:4 "Joyful" - his joy in this case was the knowledge that the Christians in Corinth were and your zeal regarding me, I rejoiced even more.

8 For though I made you sad with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it, seeing that the same letter made you sad, but only for a little while. 9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sad, but because your sorrow resulted in repentance. For you were made sad in a godly way, that you might not be injured by us in anything. 10 For godly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation about which there will be no regrets. But the sorrow of the world produces death. 11 For observe this very thing: You grieved in a godly way. What earnestness it produced in you, what clearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what vehement desire, what zeal, what demands for justice! In everything you have shown yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did not do it on account of the one who had done the wrong, or on account of the one who suffered the wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you. 13 Therefore, we were encouraged by your encouragement. And we standing fast in the faith and trying to obey the Word of God.

7:5 Paul, great apostle that he was, was not immune from fears, restlessness and struggles (2:13).

7:6 See 1:3,4. Titus had visited Corinth and came to Paul somewhere in Macedonia.

7:8 See 2:3,4. Because he saw that they were in spiritual danger he wrote them a very strong letter, a letter that hurt them. This was because he loved them and wanted to see them firmly grounded in God's truth. Love is not weak and sentimental. Love does not let others ruin themselves without a word.

7:9 Their hurt and sorrow caused by Paul's letter produced a very good result - repentance. They renounced certain evils, drew back from false paths and turned to God more wholeheartedly than ever.

7:10 "Godly" sorrow is sorrow that God produces, a sorrow that one has brought sorrow to God's Spirit (Eph 4:30). Such sorrow causes those who have it to turn to God from all that grieves and offends Him.

"Worldly" sorrow is not related to God, but to one's self. It is due to loss or disappointment, or failure to get one's own way, or pain, or being caught in some sin that one wants to continue doing, etc. It sometimes brings remorse, but never true repentance (compare Matt 27:3-5). People with worldly sorrow go right ahead sinning. It leads to death as everything else "worldly" leads to death - spiritual death.

7:11 See how godly sorrow and repentance work together. "This very thing" refers to 2:5-7.

7:12 See 2:9. "Devoted to us" meant devoted also to the truth of God. And this was the really important thing to Paul.

7:13-16 These verses are an illustration of rejoiced far more because of the joy of Titus, for his spirit was refreshed by all of you. 14 For if in anything I boasted to him about you, I am not ashamed. But just as everything we spoke to you was truth, even so the boast I made to Titus is found to be true. 15 And his deep affection for you is more abundant when he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16 Therefore I rejoice that I have confidence in you in everything.

8 Now, brethren, we inform you of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia, 2 so that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty overflowed in the riches of their generosity. 3 For I bear them witness that according to their ability, indeed, even beyond their ability, on their own they were willing to give, 4 pleading with us earnestly that we would accept their gift and participation in the ministry to how believers can refresh one another, find encouragement and joy from one another. They show too the delight in the heart of a soul winner when converts walk in the truth - 3 John 3:4.

8:1 This chapter and the next are concerning a collection for believers in Jerusalem who were poor and in great need. See 1 Cor 16:1-4. But in writing of that local matter Paul gives us all some beautiful principles concerning giving in general.

"We inform you of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia" - the KJV has "we do you to wit", an expression which was clear to readers 400 years ago, but not to people now who are not familiar with the English of that day. There are a number of verses in 2 Corinthians in the KJV very hard for the general reader to understand. We hope the revised text we have produced will help to some extent to make the meaning clear.

8:1-5 The churches in Macedonia (which included those in Philippi and Thessalonica) wonderfully displayed the grace of giving - this is the "grace" that God had given those churches (v 1). Believers there were very poor and faced severe persecution. But in spite of all that, they gave a contribution. They gave because of "the abundance of their joy," Paul had not urged them to give. They earnestly pleaded with him to be allowed to give. They knew that giving to Christ and to Christ's people was a "privilege" and not a painful duty.

When all the churches and believers in this country and in the world come to understand this truth and act according to it what a blessing there will be in the churches and in the land and in the world.

8:5 They had far exceeded Paul's expectations. They not only gave money but, more importantly, gave themselves completely to the Lord and for any work that the Lord's servants might ask them to do.

the saints. 5 And this they did, not as we expected, but first gave themselves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God. 6 So we urged Titus, that since he had already made a beginning, so he should also bring to completion this same act of grace among you. 7 Therefore, just as you have an abundance in everything, in faith, and speaking, and knowledge, and in complete diligence, and in your love for us, see that you have an abundance of this grace also. 8 I am speaking, not by way of commandment, but because of the earnestness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich.

10 And in this regard I give my advice. This is best for you: You were the first to prepare to do this service and also to have the desire, and this was a year ago; 11 now, therefore, carry out the

They were glad to give to God all they were and all they had. Compare Rom 12:1,2.

8:6 Titus had been to Corinth (7:6). Now Paul plans to send him again (vs 16-18).

"Bring to completion" - it seems that the Corinthians had not yet given the full amount they had promised, or the amount which they could easily give (9:5).

8:7 1 Cor 1:5-7.

8:8 "Not by way of commandment" - he knew that the desire to give must come spontaneously from the heart. God does not want forced and unwilling giving (9:7). Love is the basis of the giving that pleases Him. Giving is a test of the sincerity of one's love for Christ. This is always true. The person who will not give to Christ does not love Christ, regardless of what he thinks or says. Paul, instead of giving commands about giving, set before them the example of the Macedonians. In v 9 he speaks of a far greater example.

8:9 The Lord Jesus had the grace of giving in full measure. In love He gave all He had. And He is an example to all believers.

"He was rich" - John 1:1-3; 17:5; Col 1:16; Heb 1:2.

"He became poor" - Luke 2:7; Matt 8:20; 17:27; 27:46; Phil 2:6-8; Isa 53:2-6.

This was "for your sakes", for the sake of all believers. Christ loved us and gave Himself for us - John 10:11-18; Gal 2:20. He wanted us to "become rich" - not money in the bank now, but the riches seen in Matt 19:28,29; John 14:2,3; Rom 8:17; 1 Cor 3:21-23; Eph 1:3,7,8; 1 Pet 1:4; Rev 21:7. This was possible only "through His poverty" - that is, if Christ had not given up everything to die in the place of sinners no one would ever have received the riches of salvation. In the matter of love and the grace of giving, the apostles followed the Lord's example - 6:10; Acts 3:6; Matt 19:27. Do we?

8:11,12 Giving should be in proportion to doing of it, so that as there was a readiness to desire, so there may be a completion also, out of what you have. 12 For if there is first a willing mind, the gift is acceptable according to what a man has, and not according to what he does not have.

13 For I do not mean that others should be relieved and you burdened, 14 but that there might be an equality, that now at this time your abundance may supply what they need, so that some day their abundance may also supply what you need, that there may be equality. 15 As it is written, He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest care for you in the heart of Titus. 17 For he not only accepted our exhortation, but being very earnest, he is going to you of his own accord. 18 And we are sending with him the brother who is praised throughout all the churches for his service in the gospel. 19 And not only this, but he was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this gracious gift, which we administer for the glory of the Lord himself, and to show your eagerness to help. 20 We are arranging things so that no one will blame us for the way this large gift is administered by us, 21 preparing matters with what one has (1 Cor 16:2). The poor cannot give much, the rich should not give little.

"Acceptable" (v 12) – see Mark 12:41-44.
8:13-15 The key word here is "equality." There should be mutual love between believers, an eagerness to share when some are in need. Compare Acts 2:44,45; 4:32-35. See also 1 John 3:16-18. Again the Lord Jesus is the greatest example of this. He shares all He has with believers. Why should not believers share all they have with Him and with one another? Since they are all one in Christ why should some of them be exceedingly rich and others be exceedingly poor? Why should some of them almost throw their money away on needless luxuries while others of them are destitute?

When the people of Israel were in the desert God arranged things so there would be equality (v 15; Ex 16:18). God now gives good things to believers so that all might have enough – not that some might enjoy all the good (and all the expensive) things of life while others starve. But there is no command in these matters. It is a matter of love. Giving should not be forced. A man's property is his own, and he can give it or keep as much as he likes. But if he keeps most and gives little, there will be great loss to himself and suffering to others whom he might have helped if he were more generous.

8:18 "Brother" – we don't know who this brother and the brother in v 22 were.

8:19 1 Cor 16:3,4.

8:20,21 See 12:16-18; 1 Cor 16:3. Here integrity, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we are sending with them our brother, whose diligence we have often proved in many things, but now much more diligent because of the great confidence I have in you. 23 If anyone enquires about Titus: He is my partner and fellow worker for you. Or if anyone asks about our brethren: They are the messengers of the churches, and an honour to Christ. 24 Therefore show them, in the presence of the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting about you.

9 For concerning this service to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you. 2 For I know your readiness of mind, about which I speak with pride concerning you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was ready a year ago. And your zeal has inspired most of them. 3 Yet I have sent the brethren, so that our speaking proudly about you would not be in vain in this regard, but that, as I said, you may be ready, 4 thinking that if the Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to say, you) would be ashamed about this confident boasting. 5 Therefore I thought it necessary to urge the brethren to go in advance to you, and prepare is a very wise example of how funds given for God's work should be handled. Christians now should take the same pains as Paul to do what is right and to let others see that it is so. They should remember too that whether or not men see what they do, the Lord sees – Heb 4:13.

8:23 "An honour to Christ" – compare John 17:10. When the majority of human beings continually dishonor Christ can we say anything greater about any person than that he is an honor to Him?

8:24 "The proof of your love" – v 8. Compare 1 John 3:17. If we are not giving to Christ and His work, what proof is there that we know Him and love Him? If we truly love Him we will love His work and His people also and try to help them.

"Our pride in you" – 7:14. See what love and concern Paul had for those whom he sent to the churches, as well as for the churches themselves (11:28).

9:1,2 See 8:6,7,10,11.

9:3,4 See 8:13,22-24. The Christians at Corinth earlier had shown eagerness to give a generous offering, but it seems that later on they had become careless in actually getting the collection ready (8:10,11). Unfortunately, many Christians are like this. In the beginning they show enthusiasm for a work, but with the passage of time their enthusiasm cools and they do not bring the work to completion. This is a mark of immaturity and instability.

9:5 Verse 7. When it comes to giving, believers should not want to keep as much your generous gift, which you previously promised, that it might be ready, as a matter of generosity and not as a grudging duty.

6 But this I say, he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows abundantly will also reap abundantly. 7 Everyone should give as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or from compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. 8 And God is able to make all grace flow to you in abundance, so that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may have an abundance for every good work. 9 As it is written,

He has dispersed abroad;
he has given to the poor;
his righteousness remains for ever.

as they possibly can for themselves, should not give merely because it is expected of them and they see no way to escape from giving.

9:6 Compare Prov 11:24,25; 19:17; 22:8,9; Luke 6:38; Gal 6:7. Mark this principle down as sure. Some people are poor and will remain poor both in material and spiritual matters because they have no heart to give to God and others.

9:7 Verse 5; 8:8. If our giving is to please God it must come willingly from the heart, must be an act of love for God and for His people, must be a happy thing, not something done with a sad face. If we have love, giving is as natural as breathing to us.

9:8 Those who give generously and cheerfully to others will not be the losers. Just the opposite is often true - Prov 11:24,25. God loves to give to those who love to give. God is the ruler of the universe. Men's plans and projects, lands, weather conditions, the state of an economy, and all the many factors which can make or break a person financially, are all in His hands. He can make all circumstances to work for the good of those He delights in. He can even work miracles for them if He pleases - 1 Kings 17:10-16; 2 Kings 4:1-7.

But usually He blesses them in more ordinary ways, using men and circumstances to increase their prosperity, and protecting them from disasters which could bring poverty. He knows how to pour out His grace in such a way that they will always prosper both spiritually and materially (if material prosperity is in His plan for them).

Observe that the reason He does so is that those whom He blesses "may have an abundance for every good work." If they do not behave like this when God blesses them, they should remember that He can just as easily withdraw His blessing as give it.

9:9-14 Paul gives some results to believers of generous and cheerful giving. The results are both in this life and in the life to come (v 9). The results are as follows.

10 Now may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, multiply the seed you have sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness, 11 while you are richly furnished in everything for complete generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplies the needs of the saints, but also overflows in much thanksgiving to God, 13 while, because of what this service proves, they glorify God for your obedience which accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generous sharing with them, and with everyone. 14 And in their prayers for you, they will feel strong affection for you because of the overflowing grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift.

God will never forget what they have done (v 9. Compare Heb 6:10).

God will bless them materially (vs 10,11). The needs of God's people will be met through them (v 12).

They will be giving proof of their obedience to Christ's gospel (v 13).

Others will remember them warmly and lovingly in their prayers (v 14).

And because of them thanksgiving and praise will be given to God (vs 11,12,13).

This last result, thrice repeated, was of the highest importance to Paul. See also 1:11; 4:15. The glory of God was his chief concern in everything (1 Cor 10:31), and God is glorified when His people behave as they should and when they thank and praise Him as they should.

9:10,11 Verse 8 says God can do such things. Now Paul tells them that God will bless them if they are cheerful and generous givers. Of course, this is not a sweeping promise that God will make everyone rich who gives generously. There are many poor people who are cheerful givers who remain poor (but probably not as poor as they would have been otherwise).

In any case, we should never seek to be rich, or to have material prosperity for our own sake (see 1 Tim 6:6-8). If we want prosperity it should be only because it will enable us to do more for God and His work and His people. To give only because of the hope of getting back more than we gave is not the kind of giving God delights in. In fact, it is only selfishness in disguise. It is a big mistake to think of it as merit which will make us worthy of God's grace. And we should always remember that Jesus pronounced a blessing on believers who were poor, and He warned against riches (Luke 6:20,24).

9:13 Their generous giving proved their love and obedience. Lack of giving will, of course, prove the opposite of this.

9:15 God's gifts to men are many and great (Ps 68:35; 127:2,3; 146:7; Ps 2:6;

10 Now I myself, Paul, plead with you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who in person am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2 But I plead with you that when I am present I may not have to be bold with that confidence with which I intend to be bold against some people, who regard us as if we live

Matt 7:11; John 14:27; Acts 5:31; 14:17; 15:8; 17:25; Rom 5:17; 6:23; 1 Cor 7:7; 12:7-11; Eph 2:8; Phil 1:29; 2 Tim 3:16; Jam 1:5,17). But no doubt Paul has in mind here the greatest and most indescribable gift of all – John 3:16; Rom 8:32; Isa 9:6. And he refers to this gift so that believers might better understand what giving is all about and learn to give as God gives. Here is a brief summary concerning the truth about the giving of believers.

Being able to give is a gift of God, God's grace working in their hearts and lives (8:1; Rom 12:6-8).

Giving is a privilege believers should seek (8:4).

Giving is a test of the sincerity of our love and obedience – no giving indicates no love, little giving, little love, much giving, much love (8:8).

Giving is the nature of God (8:9).

Even very small gifts are acceptable to God, if the heart is right (8:12; Mark 12:41-44).

Giving helps to bridge the gap between those who have plenty and those who are in need (8:13).

Giving is service to God's people (9:1).

Giving should be with freedom and cheerfulness (9:5,7).

Giving will bring its reward (9:6,8-11,14).

Giving is a source of thanksgiving and praise to God (9:11-13).

Here are some other references on giving to God and to others – Ex 35:5-9; Lev 7:12,13; 27:30; Num 18:21,24; Deut 14:28,29; 15:10; 2 Sam 24:24; 1 Chron 29:3,5,9,14; Ps 37:26; Prov 11:24,25; 19:17; 22:9; Ecc 11:1,2; Mal 1:7,8,14; 3:8-10; Matt 6:1,2,19,20; 19:21; Luke 6:38; Acts 20:35; Rom 12:13; 1 Tim 6:18,19; Heb 6:10; Jam 2:15,16; 1 John 3:17.

10:1 See 11:10. In chapters 10-13 Paul turns his attention to the false teachers in Corinth and to those who were listening to them. These false teachers taught a perverted gospel (11:4). They were servants of Satan whom Satan had sent to Corinth to lead believers astray (11:13,14). They boasted that they were true apostles (11:5,12), and attacked Paul and the gospel he preached. So Paul defends the truth that he was an apostle. This was not for his sake but for the sake of the church in Corinth (12:19). He was worried about their spiritual condition (11:3; 12:20,21), and he realized that it would become far worse if they rejected him and refused to believe that God spoke through him as a chosen apostle.

10:1 "Gentleness of Christ" – Matt 11:29;

according to the flesh. 3 For though we live in the body, we do not fight according to the body. 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not of the body, but mighty through God to the destruction of strongholds, 5 demolishing reasonings and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and leading away captive every thought to 12:20; Isa 40:11. Paul would behave as the Lord Jesus did, not exercising his authority as an apostle (13:10), but appealing to them in love.

"Bold" – some in Corinth were accusing Paul of being cowardly when he was there and able to use bold language only when he wrote to them.

10:2 Paul was able to be bold and use severe methods in Corinth, but hoped they would not force him to do so.

"According to the flesh" – this is another false accusation some people brought against Paul.

10:3-5 Paul now refers to the war between truth and error, that is, between the truth God has revealed and the errors of men. The world's purpose is to destroy the truth of Christ. The purpose of God's true servants is to destroy error and bring men's thoughts into obedience to Christ.

The weapons of Christ's servants are different from the weapons of the world. Believers are in the world, but they are not to use the world's weapons in their fight for truth. The world's weapons are violence, force, trickery, charm, propaganda, human reasoning and any method that comes out of man's fallen nature. Believers also have weapons (6:7; Eph 6:17), but they are spiritual weapons. Paul relied on the power of God working with truth and righteousness. The fullness of God's Spirit, honesty, sincerity, speaking the truth in love were the weapons of that great soldier of God.

And such weapons have divine power. By them he was able to demolish "strongholds" – forts of Satan, of evil, of unbelief, forts of false religion and philosophy, of arguments against God's truth, of pretended wisdom and power. That soldier for God took "captives" also.

The great battle going on in the world is between truth and error. Paul took hold of every philosophy of man, every religious idea, everything which passes for wisdom, every thought, and brought it to the feet of Christ for His judgment on it. Paul wanted not only his own mind and thinking to be subject to the Son of God and in accordance with the truth He taught, but the minds and the thinking of all men.

We may be sure that only minds willing to obey Christ, and only thoughts which He can approve, are what they should be. By nature, the minds of men, like their desires and actions, are fallen and sinful (Rom 8:6,7; Eph 4:18). People need new minds which think as God originally intended them to think – Rom 12:2; Eph 4:23; Phil 2:5.

be obedient to Christ; 6 and we are ready to punish all disobedience, when your obedience is complete.

7 Do you look on things according to their outward appearance? If anyone has persuaded himself that he belongs to Christ, let him again take into account that, just as he belongs to Christ, even so we belong to Christ. 8 For even if I were to boast somewhat more about our authority, which the Lord has given us for building you up, rather than pulling you down, I should not be ashamed of it. 9 I do not want to seem as if I would frighten you by letters. 10 "For his letters", they say, "are weighty and powerful, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is of no account." 11 Let such a person realize that just as we are in word by letters when we are absent, so we will be in deed also when we are present.

12 For we dare not count ourselves among those who commend themselves, or compare ourselves with them. But they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are not wise. 13 But we will not boast beyond measure, but according to the boundaries of the sphere which God has appointed to us, a sphere which reaches even to you. 14 For we are not extending ourselves beyond our boundaries, as though they did not reach to you. For in preaching the gospel of Christ we came as far as you also. 15 We will not boast of things beyond our boundaries, that is, of other men's labours, but have hope, as your faith increases, that the boundaries of our sphere will be enlarged by you, 16 so we can preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's area of accomplishment. 17 But he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord. 18 For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

11 Would to God you would bear with me a little in my folly. And indeed you are bearing with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy, for I have betrothed you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 3 But I am afraid that by some means, as the serpent deceived Eve through his cunning, so your minds might be corrupted from the integrity that is in Christ. 4 For if the one coming to you preaches another Jesus, whom we have not

See also Paul's comparison of man's wisdom with God's wisdom in 1 Cor 1:17-2:16; 3:18-20; Col 2:8.

10:6 Paul wanted to give them every opportunity to respond to the truth and be obedient. Eventually they would find that he had authority to punish disobedience. Compare 13:10; 1 Cor 4:21; 5:3-5.

10:7 Verse 12; 5:12.

10:8 "Boast" - note at 1:12.

10:10 Verse 1. Evidently some thought Paul, in his preaching, lacked eloquence and human wisdom (11:6) and was too gentle and meek in presenting the truth. At least they spoke the truth when they said his letters were "weighty and powerful."

10:12 If men compare themselves only with some of their fellow men (such comparisons will no doubt be prejudiced in their own favor), they might find something to praise themselves for. But Paul refused to play this game. He knew there was a much higher standard for comparison than other men. Christ is the great example, and no one in his senses can think highly of himself if he compare himself with Him.

10:13,14 "Boast" - 1:12.

"Sphere" - Paul means his work as an apostle, evangelist and teacher. His sphere of service reached to Corinth. It was he who first went there with the gospel and founded the church (1 Cor 4:14,15; 9:2).

10:15 The false apostles (v 13) who came to Corinth were trying to take over the church and claim the work as their own. This is the usual way with false teachers. Paul was not doing that in "boasting" about his work in Corinth.

10:16 Paul hoped the church there would become more firmly established in the truth so that he could use his time and strength to go to other places. Compare Rom 15:20-22.

10:17 Jer 9:24; 1 Cor 1:31.

10:18 Verse 12. The false teachers commended themselves and sought the commendation of men (3:1). Compare John 5:44. Paul wanted the approval that comes from God only (1 Cor 4:3-5; Gal 1:10; 1 Thess 2:4).

11:2 "Jealous" - he is speaking about spiritual matters. Some in Corinth were listening to false teachers and he feared they would forsake the truth he had taught them. The word "jealous" indicates his love for them. But observe that he was not trying to keep those Christians for himself or for his own praise and glory. It was their relationship to Christ which concerned him. "Husband" - Matt 22:1,2; John 3:29; Rom 7:1-4; Eph 5:24-33; Rev 19:6-9. Compare Ps 45:9-15; Isa 54:5; Jer 3:14,20; Hos 2:16,19.

11:3 Gen 3:1-7. It is fitting for Paul to speak of Eve rather than Adam because Eve was the bride of the first Adam and the Church is the bride of the last Adam (1 Cor 15:45), and because Eve was deceived, not Adam (1 Tim 2:14). And what believers were facing in Corinth was Satanic deception (vs 13-15).

11:4,5 Paul gives the reason why he was afraid for some Christians there - they seemed to be lacking in love for the truth and an ability to recognize error. At least they were unwilling to take a stand against false teachers. They were so tolerant that preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another gospel, which you have not accepted, you put up with that well enough! 5 But I do not think that I am at all inferior to those "super" apostles. 6 Even though I am untrained in speech, I am not untrained in knowledge. What we are has been made completely evident to you in all matters.

7 Did I commit a sin in lowering myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of God freely? 8 I robbed other churches by receiving support from them to do you service. 9 And when I was present with you, and in need, I was a burden to no one. For what I lacked the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I have kept myself from being a burden to you, and I will continue to keep myself

Paul was alarmed. He well knew that tolerance of false teaching reveals a lack of love for the truth. Observe that not every religious teacher who has some spirit or other, or some power or other, has God's Spirit and His power. And not everyone who seems to be preaching the gospel is preaching the true gospel of Christ (see Gal 1:6-9; 1 John 4:1). He calls those so-called apostles "super" apostles in sarcasm, because of the great claims they made for themselves.

11:6 "In speech" – 10:10; 1 Cor 2:1-5.

"In knowledge" – 1 Cor 2:6-16; Gal 1:11,12.

11:7-12 See 1 Cor 9:4-15. Perhaps his enemies said that Paul did not take any support from the church there because he knew he was not a real apostle and was not worthy of it, and that his working with his own hands to earn his living (Acts 18:3) was beneath the dignity of a true apostle. But, Paul says, his motive was his love for them (v 11), his desire to "elevate" them, to have them rise spiritually (v 7).

11:8 "I robbed" – of course Paul is speaking figuratively. He did not ask other churches for financial help but he accepted it when they offered it, and sometimes those who gave were poor themselves. He felt it almost like robbery to accept help from them while serving the more wealthy Corinthians (8:14).

11:9 Paul sometimes did accept material help from believers. But it seems he did not do so from a church during the time he was present and ministering to it.

11:10 1 Cor 9:15-18.

11:12 Doubtless the false apostles at Corinth took money from the Christians there for their preaching (2:17). They liked to think they were Paul's equal, but Paul shows they were not his equal in preaching the gospel free of charge. And he determined to continue showing this.

11:13-15 Now Paul by the inspiration of God's Spirit fully exposes the character of the false religious teachers at Corinth, and of all such teachers who come in the name of Christ, in all generations and in all places.

so. 10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no one in the regions of Achaia will stop me from this boasting.

11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do. 12 But I will continue to do what I am doing, so that I may cut off the opportunity from those who desire opportunity to be regarded as we are in the things they boast about.

13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, outwardly changing themselves into the apostles of Christ. 14 And no wonder, for even Satan outwardly changes himself into an angel of light. 15 So it is no big thing if his servants also outwardly change themselves into servants of righteousness. Their end will be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no one think me a fool; if otherwise, then receive me as you would a fool, so

He says six things about them.

They are "false" – they say God has sent them but He has not (compare Rev 2:2; Jer 23:21).

They are "deceitful workers" – both their methods and their message are deceitful and their purpose is to deceive others (Matt 24:11,24; Rom 16:18; 2 Thess 2:9,10).

They outwardly change themselves, masquerade, put on a disguise so that others will think that Christ has sent them, but their evil hearts have not been changed.

They are Satan's servants (v 15; John 8:44; 2 Thess 2:9; 1 Tim 4:1,2).

They pretend to be servants of righteousness – they speak of righteousness but they are really servants of sin (2 Pet 2:18,19). The whole of 2 Peter chapter 2 and the letter of Jude reveal what many false religious teachers are like).

God will judge them according to their works (2 Thess 2:8; 2 Pet 2:3,9; Jude 13; Matt 7:22,23).

Some of the Corinthian Christians were listening to such men, were giving them money, were being tolerant of their teaching. Can we not understand Paul's alarm? Can people welcome Satan's servants and not be harmed in their lives? Won't there be reason for doubting the spiritual condition of those who do so?

11:14 Satan does not come revealing himself as Satan, and he does not make sin and evil seem sinful and evil. He can make himself shining, brilliant, attractive. He comes as a god. He can make denial of God's Word seem sweetly reasonable. He can make sin seem like righteousness. He tries to turn the whole world upside down, and make truth seem like error and error seem like truth, and darkness seem like light and light seem like darkness. And among men he has many willing helpers. God pronounces judgment on such in Isa 5:20. Notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1; John 8:44; etc.

11:16-21 Paul nowhere praises himself. He well knew what he was apart from God's that I may boast of myself a little. 17 What I am saying in this confident boasting, I am not saying according to the Lord, but as if in foolishness. 18 Seeing that many boast according to the flesh, I will boast also. 19 For you gladly bear with fools, since you yourselves are wise! 20 For you bear it, if someone brings you into bondage, if a man devours you, if a man takes from you, if a man exalts himself, if a man hits you in the face. 21 To my shame, I say we were too weak for that! But in whatever matter anyone else dares to boast (I speak foolishly), I too dare.

22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the offspring of Abraham? So am I. 23 Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more, in more abundant labours, in beatings above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often. 24 From the Jews five times I received forty lashes with a whip, minus one. 25 Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was pelted with stones, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have been in the sea, 26 in frequent travels, in perils from waters, in perils from robbers, in perils from my own countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, 27 in weariness and hardship, in frequent seven times.

"Death" - 1:8,9; 2:11,12.
11:24 Forty lashes with a whip was the maximum number of strokes the law permitted - Deut 25:1-3. Usually the Jews gave only 39 - they were afraid that if they gave 40 they might miscount and actually give 41 and thus be guilty of breaking the law. These beatings were very severe and sometimes people died under them. A person's love for Christ is measured also by what he is willing to suffer for Him.

11:25 "Pelted with stones" - Acts 14:19,20.
"Shipwrecked" - only one shipwreck is recorded (Acts 27:27-44). Many sufferings and dangers Paul endured are not recorded in the New Testament, and we know of them only because he mentions them here.

11:26 "In perils" - a person's love for Christ may also be measured by what he is willing to face for Christ. The false teachers could sit in Corinth and boast they were great ones. But what had they suffered? What dangers were they willing to face for Christ?

11:27 "Sleepless" - often he had no proper place to sleep. And often the burdens and pressures of the work would have kept him awake. Let those who never in their lives missed a comfortable night's sleep for Christ's sake, criticize him if they will (he implies).

"Hunger", "thirst", "nakedness" - Paul was not writing high-sounding theory in Rom 8:28,35-37. He had proved it in experience. And he had proved his apostleship by the things he had done and suffered. Could he not have made his life more comfortable, more easy, more financially secure? Of course he could have, if he had been willing to ask individuals or churches for help, if he had taken money along for the best available accommodations, inns and food, if he had gone only where it was easy to go and where things were well arranged for his coming.

But he was not interested in all that (Acts 20:24). He wanted to reach people in places where those things were not even possible, and He considered suffering for Christ a privilege and a glory, not something to be avoided at all costs - 4:17; Rom 8:17; Phil 1:29; 3:10; Col 1:24.

11:21-21 In order to shame them he speaks sarcastically. They had put up with the boasting of false teachers so they should be able to endure a few boasts from Christ's true apostle. Verse 20 describes what the false teachers there had been doing.

"Into bondage" - this probably means they were trying to bring the Christians there under the law of Moses (compare Acts 15:1; Gal 2:4), but being under any kind of false teaching is a kind of slavery.

11:21 "Boast" - note at 1:12.

11:22 This, too, is evidence that the false teachers there were Jews who professed to follow Christ yet who insisted that keeping the law of Moses was necessary for salvation. They boasted about their descent from Abraham, and the fact that they were of the conservative community, able to read the Scriptures in the original Hebrew (see note at Acts 6:1). But Paul points that he, too, was all of these things (Rom 11:1; Phil 3:5).

11:23-29 They said they were servants of Christ (v 23). Paul has already denied they were (vs 13-15) and so does not repeat what he had said before. Instead he shows there was far more evidence that he was a servant of Christ than those teachers could bring forth. The evidence was of three kinds - his great labor for Christ (vs 23,26,27), his great sufferings for Christ (vs 23-27), and his great care for Christ's people (vs 28,29).

11:23 "In more abundant labours" - Rom 15:19; 1 Cor 4:12; Col 1:29. Paul puts this first in his list. He knew the real test of anyone saying he as a servant of Christ is not in talk but in action, and that one way to measure a person's love for Christ is to see how hard he is willing to work for Him.

"Prisons" - there is a tradition that comes from the first century that Paul was in prison sleepless vigils, in hunger and thirst, in frequent fastings, in cold and nakedness. 28 Beside those outward things, there is that which presses on me daily: concern for all the churches. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is offended, and I do not burn with indignation?

30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things which relate to my weaknesses. 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. 32 In Damascus the governor under king Aretas kept the city of the Damascenes under a military guard, wanting to capture me. 33 But I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

12 Without doubt, boasting is useless to me. I will come to visions and revelations of the Far different was this man of God from those teachers and preachers who sat boasting in Corinth – and from so many today who seem to think it is unjust treatment or hardship if they have to face a simple insult for Christ's sake or miss a single meal.

11:28 "All the churches" – not the one in Corinth only, not merely those others he had founded in various places, but even churches he had never seen (Col 2:1). All the churches were linked with Christ and Christ's reputation on earth, and so in Paul's mind they were all linked with himself. The concerns of one church is sometimes enough to crush a pastor. Paul's heart went out to all the churches.

11:29 It was not merely churches in general that weighed on him, it was individuals in the churches.

"Weak" – Rom 14:1; 15:1; 1 Cor 9:22.

"Burn" – he was filled with indignation when others caused individual Christians to stumble in their faith. He fulfilled his own words in Rom 12:15 and Gal 6:2. He felt what they felt, took on himself their cares, problems and troubles. Of course it was Christ who taught him and enabled him to do so.

11:30 "Weaknesses" – 12:5,9,10.

11:31 The list of Paul's troubles, hardships and sufferings might have seemed unbelievable to some people in Corinth. So he solemnly assures them in God's name that he was telling the truth.

11:32,33 Acts 9:22-25. This humiliating experience is but one example of the "weaknesses" he boasted about. He wanted them to understand that all along he has been boasting not in his strength to endure sufferings and dangers, but in God who enabled him to endure in spite of his weaknesses (3:5; 4:7).

12:1 Paul saw no value to himself in going on boasting about his "weaknesses," but he had no choice – vs 11, 19. And he thinks the same about speaking of his visions and revelations. But if the false teachers in

Lord. 2 I know a man in Christ who, more than fourteen years ago, was caught up to the third heaven, whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell; God knows. 3 And I know that this man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell; God knows) 4 was caught up to paradise, and heard inexpressible matters which are not lawful for a man to utter. 5 Of such a one I will boast, but of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. 6 For even if I might choose to boast, I would not be a fool, for I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so that no one will think of me above what he sees me to be, or what he hears of me.

7 And so that I would not be highly lifted up with pride because of the greatness of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to beat me, so that I would

Corinth had been boasting of visions and revelations (which seems very likely), for the sake of the Christians there he felt he should show he did not fall short of them in this matter either. Note on visions at Gen 15:1; Num 12:6.

12:2-5 Was Paul speaking of himself here? Yes; see v 7. Why, then, does he speak of a "man," as if it were someone other than himself? Possibly because this had nothing to do with his "weaknesses" and he wished to boast only in that; possibly because it was something that happened to him in such a strange way he hardly understood what was going on and was almost like a spectator, or possibly for some other reason that has not occurred to the author of these notes.

12:4 "Paradise" – evidently this is the same as the "third heaven" (v 2). Some Jews taught there were seven heavens, but this idea has no place in God's revelation of truth in the Bible. By "the third heaven" Paul evidently meant the highest heaven, the spiritual heaven, the dwelling place of God, Paradise. The word "Paradise" appears only three times in the New Testament – here, Luke 23:43 and Rev 2:7. Paul heard these things he was "not permitted to tell." Compare Deut 29:29; Rev 10:3,4.

12:6 He wanted people to form their opinions about him and his apostleship from what they were able to see and hear, not from his spiritual experiences which they could not verify.

12:7 This proves he has been speaking about himself in vs 2-5. People have become proud and conceited because they saw, or thought they saw, visions and revelations far less great than Paul saw. God knew there was danger that Paul would become proud because of what God had shown him. And God has His ways of keeping an apostle, or any of His people, from falling into the pride which He hates. What was Paul's "thorn in the flesh"? All we know about it is what he here tells us. And the language is obscure and difficult.

not become highly lifted up with pride. 8 Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it might depart from me. 9 And he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast more gladly about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest on me. 10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in "Flesh" could mean his physical body. In this case the "thorn" could have been some physical disorder or disease.

"Flesh" could also mean his fallen nature which he speaks of in Rom 7:14-25; etc. The Greek word used here (sarki, from sarx) also means that (see Rom 7:5,18). In this case the "thorn" had something to do with his fallen, sinful nature (what he was in himself apart from Christ) – possibly a strong temptation, and evil suggestion Satan kept putting into his mind, or some such thing, which was a constant reminder to Paul of his sinfulness and weakness, a deeper understanding of what he was by nature (as seen in Rom 7:14-25). It seems to the writer of these notes that this would be more likely to keep him from being puffed up with pride than some physical ailment or other. For example, it is not easy to see how some disease of the eyes (some scholars have thought this was his "thorn") could keep him from being proud and conceited concerning his heavenly visions.

However, we do not know for certain what the "thorn" was, and we do not need to know. But we do know some things about it. It was "given" to him. He means God arranged matters so that he would experience it. But it was a "messenger of Satan." The Greek word here translated "messenger" is the same as that translated "angel" in many places of the New Testament. This could possibly mean that the thing which so troubled Paul, whether physical or spiritual in nature, was merely produced by Satan. Or (and does this not seem more likely?) it could mean that a literal messenger of Satan – a demon – was the source of his trouble, an evil spirit which hounded his footsteps and oppressed and opposed him at every turn, or which prodded at some weak point in his old fallen nature, or tried to lure him into some evil which he hated.

In any case, the "thorn" resulted in a great deal of pain to Paul. Whether physical or mental or spiritual pain, or some combination of these, he does not say. Perhaps he does not say so that all believers who experience various kinds of "thorns" might have the same great promise that was given to Paul in v 9. Compare Paul's experiences with Job 1:6 - 3:26.

12:8 So great was his pain that he begged God to take the "thorn" away.

"Three times" – compare Matt 26:44; John 13:38; 21:17; Acts 10:16. Observe that not even the prayers of this great apostle were always answered in the way he persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake, for when I am weak, then I am strong.

11 I have become a fool in boasting. You have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you, because in nothing am I inferior to those "super" apostles, though I am nothing. 12 Truly the miraculous signs of an apostle were performed by me among you with all patient had hoped.

12:9 The Lord did not give Paul what he asked for. He gave him something far better – an explanation and a great promise. The explanation was this: if Paul wanted to be spiritually strong through Christ he needed to be weak in himself and to know his weakness. The promise was that Christ would enable him to endure his "thorn" and obtain spiritual benefit from it. We can be sure that God will not call on us to face any pain, or difficulty or danger, or to do any work or bear any burden, without giving us strength to do so. His grace will always be sufficient for all His people in all situations in all generations.

"Therefore" – Paul learned this important lesson about Christ's spiritual power perfected in human weakness. And since one great desire he had was that Christ's power rest on him (Phil 3:10), he was happy to endure anything that taught him his weakness.

12:10 Observe the words "for Christ's sake" – his whole life and ministry were for Christ's sake, and he wanted Christ's power to rest on him for Christ's sake, not for his own sake. He gladly faced suffering for the same reason.

"Take pleasure in" – or it could be translated "delight in" – many Christians seem to think it is enough to grimly endure weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and difficulties, if they can manage to do even that. But when a person knows the great spiritual benefit which can come from such things, he can delight in them. In the light of this knowledge of God's ways, pain can produce pleasure (compare Matt 5:11,12; Acts 5:40,41; 16:22-25; 1 Pet 5:12-14).

Paul here is speaking of spiritual power, the power to make him an able servant of Christ. Why was Paul strong when he was weak? Because recognizing his weaknesses he did not try to rely on himself, his strength, his intellect, his ability, but on God alone. See 1:8,9; 1 Cor 2:1-5. And the way to obtain God's power is to renounce one's own and trust Him. Compare Isa 40:28-31. Of course, this is the exact opposite of the way men in general think.

12:11 "Fool" – 11:1,16,21.

"Commended by you" – 3:1-3.

"I am nothing" – 3:5; 1 Cor 3:7; Eph 3:8.

12:12 God gave "signs" through Christ and His apostles to teach spiritual truth (note at John 2:11). "Wonders" means deeds which cause amazement (Matt 12:22,23; 15:31;

He is not weak toward you, but is mighty in you. 4 For though he was crucified in weakness, yet he lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God which is active toward you.

5 Examine yourselves and see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves that Jesus Christ is in you? Unless you fail the test. 6 But I trust that you will know that we have not failed the test. 7 Now I pray to God that you will do no evil, not that it might appear that we have stood the test, but that you would do what is honourable, even though it might seem we have failed the test. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the were offended at his seeming weakness (10:10; 1 Cor 2:3). They would find out the power of Christ. Christ, too, seemed to be weak ("crucified in weakness"), but He lived among them in resurrection power. Paul would display this same power in dealing with them - if they did not repent.

13:5,6 "Examine yourselves" - they had been trying to examine Paul and looked for proof that Christ was speaking through him (v 3). Paul says they would do well to examine themselves. If they passed the test and were sure that Christ was in them, they should realize that he (their spiritual father - 1 Cor 4:15) also passed the test.

What is this test? And why should Christians examine themselves and how do they do it? The purpose of self-examination is to see whether we are "in the faith" - that is, whether we have accepted God's truth, believed it, and follow it, whether we are true Christians or Christians in name only.

How do we test ourselves? Not by trying to look in our own hearts to see what is there (if we do that we may see only something like Rom 7:18,21), and not by examining our feelings (our feelings fluctuate and can be very poor evidence of our spiritual condition). We must test ourselves by what we are actually doing, and by the Word of God, and by our obedience or disobedience to it.

We know what a tree is like by its fruit (Matt 7:16-20; Heb 6:9,10). If we have had no experience with Christ and are not obedient to Him, if our way of living and thinking and acting are contrary to God's Word, what evidence do we have that we belong to Christ? But if we know that we have had some experience with Christ and that we are earnestly trying to obey His Word (weak and failing though our attempts sometimes may be), and that we have done what the Bible says we must do to receive His salvation, we can know that Christ is in us. Compare 1 John 5:9-13; 2:4; 3:10,14,24. We should do all we can to make sure we are in the faith - Heb 6:11; 2 Pet 1:10. And if we do not pass the test, we should not despair. Rather, we should repent of our sins and turn to Christ with truth. 9 For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. And we want this also: your perfection. 10 Therefore I write these things when I am absent, for fear that, being present, I would use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord has given me for building up, and not for demolishing.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

13 All the saints greet you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

all our hearts and souls.

"Jesus Christ is in you" - John 17:23; Rom 8:9,10; Col 1:27; Rev 3:10.

13:7-9 Again he puts them first in his thinking - his desire is that they be right with God, even if they think he is not. He was willing to be trampled on if they would be true to God. In any case he could act only for the sake of the truth (1 Cor 9:23; 2 Tim 2:10).

13:9 See 4:12; 1 Cor 4:9-13.

"Perfection" - 7:1; Matt 5:48. Do we ever ask God to make believers perfect?

13:10 Verse 2; 1 Cor 4:21.

13:11 "Be perfect" - v 9; 7:1; note at Matt 5:48. Our aim for others and for ourselves should be nothing less than full spiritual maturity.

"God of love and peace" - Heb 13:20; 1 John 4:8.

13:12 "Kiss" - Rom 16:16.

13:14 Here is a verse full of rich truth. Jesus is in this verse. He is both Lord and Christ (Acts 2:36. Notes on "Lord" at Luke 2:11; Phil 2:10,11; on "Christ" at Matt 1:1). It is His grace that saves sinners and blesses believers (8:9; John 1:14-17; Gal 1:6). To say that Christ is the source of grace to men is to say He is God. See references at Phil 2:6.

God the Father is also in this verse. He sent the Lord Jesus Christ (John 3:16; Rom 5:8; 1 John 4:10). Verse 11 speaks of the God of love. Here it is the love of God - His love in action. The grace of Christ and the love of God work together. Because of God's love Christ came and manifested His grace, and because of His grace God's love can be with believers.

The Holy Spirit also is here. See notes at John 14:16,17; etc. His personality is indicated. We can have fellowship only with persons, not with unconscious powers or influences. It is through the Holy Spirit that God lives in us believers, and it is through Him that we have fellowship with God the Father and the Lord Jesus (1 John 1:3).

So the Trinity is in this verse. Each of them has His part in the salvation, sanctification, and blessing of believers. See notes on "Trinity" at Matt 3:16,17.

The Letter of the Apostle Paul to the GALATIANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime between 49 and 58 AD.

Themes:

At least some of the churches in the province of Galatia (an area in what is now the country of Turkey) were a direct result of Paul's labors (4:13-15. See Acts chapter 14. Iconium, Lystra and Derbe were towns in what was known as Lacaonia, but sometimes called "Southern Galatia"). Later on some Jewish Christians who professed to be servants of Christ came there and tried to pervert the gospel of Christ. They taught that for salvation faith in Christ and the grace of God were not sufficient, but that all Christians, whether Jews or not, must keep the law of Moses. Paul had taught the Galatian Christians what he taught everywhere: Salvation comes only by the grace of God through faith (compare Eph 2:8,9). In this letter, using the illustration of Abraham the father of the Jewish nation, and setting forth other evidence, Paul proves this truth once and for all. He also emphasized that spiritual completeness and a holy life can be realized only by the same means – by grace through faith. Some key words in this letter are "faith", "justified", "grace", "freedom", "flesh", "Spirit", "cross." Some key verses are 2:16-21.

1 Paul, an apostle (not sent from men or by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead), 2 and all the brethren who are with me, to the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of our God and Father, 5 to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I am amazed that you are turning away so

1:1 "Apostle" – Matt 10:2; Rom 1:1.

"From the dead" – Matt 28:6. Observe the distinction Paul makes between Jesus Christ and God the Father. Both are in the one Godhead, but are distinct persons. See notes at Matt 3:16,17; John 17:1; etc.

1:2 Galatia was a large area in the land now called Turkey. Iconium, Lystra and Derbe (Acts 14:1-20) were in that province.

1:3 Rom 1:7. "Grace" is a key word of this letter – 1:3,6,15; 2:9,21; 3:18; 5:4; 6:18. Paul clearly sets forth what the gospel of grace means.

1:4 "For our sins" – Isa 53:6,8,10; Matt 26:28; John 1:29; Rom 3:24,25; 1 Cor 15:3; 2 Cor 5:21; Heb 9:28; 1 Pet 2:24; 3:18.

"Deliver us" – here is one very important reason why Christ died. It was God's appointed way to rescue people from the power of evil in the world, from the chains which bind men. A title given to Christ in Rom 11:26 is "the Deliverer." Compare Matt 1:21; Luke 4:18; Col 1:13; Titus 2:14; Heb 2:15. He liberates people from everything that could keep them from God – 5:1; John 8:36; Rom 6:17,18.

"Evil world" – or "evil age." The desires, aims, ideals, and works of this age (as all former ages) are bad. See John 3:19; 7:17; Rom 3:19,23; 12:2; 1 John 2:16; 5:19. Our rescue is accomplished like this: Christ died to take away our sins and to deliver us from condemnation (Rom 8:1). When we repent and trust in Him He forgives us and God's Spirit comes to live in us. We then have power and strength to renounce the world and live for God, and Christ begins the process of purifying us from all that would bind us to the evil in the world. Eventually He will return and separate us altogether from evil. The foundation for all of this is His death in the place of sinners. Without that there could be no rescue, no deliverance.

1:5 "To whom be glory" – Rom 11:36; 16:27; Eph 1:6,12,14; 2:8,9; 3:21.

1:6 "Are turning away" – they had begun to move away from the truth of God (the one who called them) because they were being deceived by evil men, but they had not fully turned away yet.

"Called you" – notes at Rom 1:6; 8:30.

"Different gospel" – this was the teaching that salvation comes by keeping the law of Moses (3:1-5; 4:9-11,21; 5:2-4. See soon from him who called you by the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, 7 which is not another. But there are some who are troubling you, and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. 8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than the one we have preached to you, let him be under a curse. 9 As we already said, so now I say again: If anyone preaches any other gospel to you than the one you received, let him be under a curse.

10 For do I now try to gain men's favor, or Acts 15:1,5). Paul had taught them the true gospel of Christ – that salvation is a free gift of God and received by faith (2:16; 3:6-9,26; 5:5,6. Compare Rom 4:5; 6:23; Eph 2:8,9). False teachers preaching a false gospel came and told them that faith in Christ was not sufficient, that they also needed to obey the law of Moses, that self-effort had an important part in salvation. And these Galatian Christians were turning toward that false teaching.

1:7 "Not another" – the word gospel means "good news", and the teaching that Christians were under the law and had to obey it was certainly not good news (3:10; Acts 15:10). Today also there are many so-called gospels in the world, but any teaching that salvation can come by some way other than by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is no gospel at all. And any teaching that tries to add something (some religious ceremony, some good work, some self-effort) to faith for salvation is a perversion of Christ's true gospel.

"Some who are troubling you" – 4:17; 5:10,12; 6:12,13.

"Pervert" – comparatively few people on earth are willing to accept Christ's gospel as it is and not try to change it to suit themselves.

1:8 "Under a curse" – he uses this strong language to show the great importance of the gospel he preached and the terrible sin of people who try to pervert it. He knew that Christ Himself had revealed the gospel to him (vs 11,12), and that it alone was the power of God for salvation (Rom 1:16). Anyone trying to change it was, knowingly or unknowingly, trying to take away from men the only way of salvation. See Matt 23:13; Luke 11:52. This is a great crime against mankind and against God, and no language is too strong to condemn it. And those guilty of it will pay for their great crime, unless they repent of their folly and wickedness.

1:9 He repeats this for emphasis. He wants no one to be in doubt about the wickedness of tampering with God's revealed truth. Compare Rev 22:18,19. Other references to false teachers: Matt 7:15; 24:11; Acts 20:29,30; Rom 16:17,18; 2 Cor 11:13-15; 1 Tim 4:1,2; 2 Tim 4:3,4; 2 Pet 2:1; Jude 4.

1:10 Did Paul's enemies accuse him of preaching only what he thought men wanted to hear? Verses 6-9 should show them that God's? Or am I seeking to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I tell you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not of man. 12 For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but learned it by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For you have heard of my former conduct in the Jews' religion, how I persecuted the church of God beyond measure, and tried to destroy it.

14 And I advanced in the Jews' religion more than many of my contemporaries in my own nation, far surpassing them in zeal for the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it pleased God, who set me apart from my mother's womb and called me by his grace, 16 to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles the opposite was true. Paul always preached the truth God had revealed and held none of it back for fear he might offend someone (Acts 20:20,26,27). As far as his message was concerned he did not try to please anyone but Christ. He knew that no one can be a true servant of Christ if he is not willing to preach the whole message of Christ whether men like it or not. But in other matters he was willing to please men in order to win them to Christ or help them grow in Christ. See Rom 15:1-3; 1 Cor 9:19-23; 10:33. We should follow him in both these ways.

1:11 See 2 Pet 1:16; Heb 2:3,4; Acts 1:1-3,8; 2:32; John 7:16,17; 12:49,50; Luke 24:45-48.

1:12 Eph 3:2-5; Rom 16:25-27; 1 Cor 15:3; Acts 22:14,15; 26:15,16. This is of the utmost importance. Paul insisted on this because the false teachers who had gone to Galatia denied it. He knew he was not guessing about the truth. He was not passing on something he heard from men and which he might have misunderstood. Christ Himself had revealed the truth to him, and so he could speak with complete authority. He did not have to compare the gospel he preached with any other so-called gospel to see if it was true. (But we need to compare the gospel we preach with Paul's. If ours is not the same as his, it is not the true gospel.) See also 2 Cor 1:12-14.

1:13,14 Acts 7:58; 8:1-3; 9:1,2; Phil 3:4-6; 1 Tim 1:13.

1:15 "From my mother's womb" - compare Jer 1:5; John 15:16.

"Called . . . by his grace" - v 6. God gave this call many years after Paul's birth and began to fulfill the purpose for which He had set him apart at birth.

1:16 Christ was revealed to Paul (Acts 9:3,4; 1 Cor 9:1). But here he speaks of God's purpose to reveal Christ in him. Paul understood that Christ was living and working in him and that he was to show forth Christ to others (2:20; 2 Cor 4:10,11; Col 1:29).

before me, but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

18 Then, after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days. 19 But I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. 20 Now about these things I am writing to you, look, in the presence of God, I am not lying. 21 Afterwards I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia, 22 but my face was not known to the churches of Judea that are in Christ. 23 They had only heard that "He who formerly persecuted us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy." 24 And they glorified God in me.

2 Then fourteen years later I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took along Titus also. 2 And I went up in accordance with a revelation, and set before them the gospel that I

This is God's purpose for all believers.

"Gentiles" - 2:7; Acts 22:21; 26:17,18; Eph 3:8. In the New Testament the word "Gentiles" means people who are not Jews.

1:17 This is the only place the New Testament speaks of this trip into Arabia. It took place sometime during the events described in Acts 9:19-22. Paul does not tell us why he went there, but seems to imply that it was for the purpose of prayer, fellowship with Christ, and thought and meditation. He did not consult any man (v 16); he wanted to consult God.

1:18,19 Acts 9:26-30. The other apostles were probably not in Jerusalem at that time. If Peter and James welcomed him it is reasonable to think the others would have done so had they been there.

1:20 He solemnly states this matter because their acceptance of the true gospel was at stake. If they did not believe him they might continue to do what they began to do (v 6).

1:21 Acts 9:30; 11:25,26. Tarsus was in Cilicia (a part of what is now called Turkey). Antioch was in Syria.

1:22 Paul's work was in other areas and he spent only a very brief time in Jerusalem. So most of the Christians in Judea had no personal acquaintance with him.

1:23,24 They knew of the change in Paul but they didn't praise Paul for it. They praised God who changed Paul. And this was just what Paul desired above all (1 Cor 3:4-7; Eph 1:6,12,14; Phil 1:11).

2:1-10 Paul continues the subject he introduced in chapter 1. There he says God called him to be an apostle and revealed the gospel to him. Here he says the other apostles accepted him as an apostle and recognized that the gospel he preached was the same as the gospel they preached.

2:1 "Barnabas" - Acts 4:36; 9:27; 11:25,30; 12:25; 13:2; 15:2.

"Titus" - 2 Cor 2:13; 7:6; 2 Tim 4:10; Titus 1:4.

2:2 "A revelation" - a revelation from God. "Privately" - Paul did not want to get preach among the Gentiles, but I did this privately to those of reputation, lest by any means I was running, or had run my race, in vain. 3 Yet not even Titus, who was with me and who was a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. 4 And this came up because of false brethren brought in secretly. They came sneaking in to spy on our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might bring us into bondage. 5 We did not yield submission to them, no, not for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you.

6 But from those who seemed to be something (it makes no difference to me what they were – God shows favoritism to no man), for those who seemed to be something in conference added nothing to me. 7 On the contrary, when they saw that involved in any possible argument in public with the leaders of the church in Jerusalem about the gospel. He hoped that privately they would fully agree with him about what the gospel was, and then this agreement could be made public. And this is what happened.

"Lest. . . in vain" – Paul was not afraid that he did not have the true gospel. He knew very well he had (1:12). But he was afraid if the other apostles opposed him and denounced the gospel he preached that it would destroy his work among the Gentiles. 2:3 Circumcision was one of the important issues of the day – v 12; 5:2,3,6,11; 6:12-15; Acts 15:1-5; Rom 4:9-16. The question was, did Gentile Christians have to become converts to the Jewish religion, accept circumcision and keep the law of Moses? The answer Paul and all the apostles gave was "no." Titus was a test case. He was a Gentile believer, and the apostles in Jerusalem accepted him as a true follower of Christ even though he was not circumcised.

2:4 These "false brethren" were Jews whom the believers in Jerusalem regarded as fellow believers. The aim of these Jews was to bring all Christians, Jew or Gentile, under the bondage of the law of Moses. Paul knew that one reason Christ came was to set people free from this law. The real question was, how do people obtain salvation – by obeying the law, or by the grace of God? The answer is very plain – 5:1-4; Acts 13:38,39; 15:10,11; Rom 3:24-28; 6:14; 7:4.

2:5 Paul knew that yielding to false teachers even for a moment could result in great loss for the churches of Galatia. And in all he did he kept in mind the effect it might have on other people.

2:6-9 Paul was not one to exalt men, either himself or others – 1 Cor 3:5,22,23. In this case, the important thing to him was not what people seemed to be, or the great privileges they had, or the high position they occupied, or their reputation with others. His one concern was whether they accepted as true the gospel Christ had revealed to him. And he could inform the Galatian churches the gospel for the uncircumcised had been entrusted to me, just as the gospel for the circumcised had been to Peter 8 (for he who was working effectively in Peter in the position of apostle for the circumcised, the same one was working effectively in me for the Gentiles), 9 and when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that had been given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, agreeing that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised. 10 But they wanted us to remember the poor. I too was eager to do the same thing.

11 But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was to be blamed. 12 For before certain men came from James, he that Peter, James and John, the leaders of the Jerusalem church, were in agreement with him about the meaning of the gospel (v 9).

In verses 7,8, and 9 the words "uncircumcised" and "circumcised" signify Gentiles and Jews. In those days people often spoke of these two groups of people in this way.

2:10 When Paul took the gospel to the Gentiles, the other apostles did not want him to forget the physical needs of the Jewish Christians in Judea. Paul himself was eager to help meet the needs of the poor there – Acts 24:17; Rom 15:25-28; 1 Cor 16:1-4; 2 Corinthians chapters 8,9. In the middle of a profound theological discussion this word about helping the poor shows the importance they all attached to such service. See also Ex 23:11; Deut 15:7,8; Ps 41:1; Prov 14:31; 19:17; 21:13; 29:7; 31:9; Matt 19:21; 2 Cor 9:9.

2:11-21 In this section Paul continues to defend his authority as an apostle. He was absolutely sure that Christ had revealed the gospel to him (1:12). So he was willing to stand publicly against anyone who spoke or did anything to bring the truth into doubt. Peter was a leader among the original apostles of Christ. He was a good man and one whom God had greatly used (Acts chapters 2-11). But he was not perfect, and there came this time when Paul, for the sake of the gospel, had to rebuke him to his face. 2:11 We do not know when Peter came to Antioch or the specific purpose of his visit. At that time Antioch was the largest city in that part of Asia and the center of Gentile Christianity (Acts 11:19-26; 13:1-3).

2:12 "From James" does not mean necessarily that James sent these men; it may mean simply that they went out from the church in Jerusalem where James was a leader. Compare Acts 15:13,20,24. James along with Peter and John had already given the right hand of fellowship to Paul, showing that they agreed with the gospel he preached (v 9).

Paul here calls the men who came to Antioch "of the circumcision." They were Jewish Christians who taught that Jews who ate with the Gentiles, but when they arrived, he drew back and separated himself for fear of those who were of the circumcision. 13 And the other Jews also played the hypocrite with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they were not behaving in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter in front of them all, "If you, being a Jew, live the way the Gentiles do, and not like the Jews, why do you compel the Gentiles to live like the Jews?"

15 "We who are Jews by nature, and not Gentile sinners, 16 know that a man is not justified by the works of the Law, but by faith in Jesus believed in Christ should continue to keep the rules and ceremonies of the law of Moses. They did not think it was right for Jewish Christians to eat with Gentile Christians unless the Gentiles were willing to follow Jewish rules and ceremonies. Peter had learned that this attitude was wrong (Acts 10:27-29; 11:2-17). So he ate with the Gentile believers in Antioch. But when the "circumcision" group came there he stopped doing this.

Peter was very bold when he was filled with God's Spirit (Acts 2:4,14,36; 4:18-20,31; 5:29-33,41,42), but when he was not, he could easily give in to fear (compare Matt 26:69-75). And how true are the words of Prov 29:25!

2:13 "Played the hypocrite" is Paul's name for Peter's behavior. This is because Peter believed one thing (that it was all right to eat with Gentile believers), but acted as if he believed another thing (that it was wrong to eat with them). In this way fear of others or a desire for their approval can make even great men of God fall into hypocrisy. The Jewish Christians native to Antioch and even Barnabas, good man that he was (Acts 11:24), fell into the same sin – and sin it certainly was.

2:14 Paul saw that the situation was very serious. Peter knew the truth very well, but he was not acting according to the truth he knew. His actions were casting doubt on the real meaning of the gospel, just as the words of others had done (Acts 15:1,5).

"Live the way Gentiles do" – Paul meant that Peter himself was no longer following Jewish ceremonies and rules.

"Compel" – Peter was not forcing the Gentiles by words, but bringing pressure on them by his actions. So Paul had to rebuke him for the sake of the truth. He then set forth in vs 15-21 the meaning of the gospel. All the rest of this letter is based on the foundation of the truth in these verses.

2:15 Paul also was a Jew by birth and speaks from that point of view now.

2:16 He says that the Jewish Christian leaders had learned a very basic and important truth – salvation cannot come by trying to keep the law God gave through Moses. Sinners, whether Jewish or Gentile, can be Christ, and we too have believed in Jesus Christ that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the Law. For by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified.

17 "But while we seek to be justified by Christ, if we ourselves also are found to be sinners, is Christ therefore a servant of sin? Absolutely not! 18 For if I rebuild the things I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. 19 For I through the Law am dead to the Law, that I might live for God. 20 I have been crucified with Christ. Nevertheless I live – yet not I, but Christ lives in me. And the life I now live in the body I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

justified only by faith in Christ (compare Acts 13:38,39; Rom 3:24-26,28,30; 5:1). Any pressure brought on Christians to make them think they had to follow the rules and regulations of the law struck at the heart of the gospel. It still does. Any teaching that keeping any religious law whatever leads to salvation or contributes an iota to salvation is false. Any teaching that self-effort, and good works, and human merit can lead to salvation is equally false.

2:17 For the sake of some who might not have had a full understanding of the truth, Paul begins to answer a possible objection against the gospel. The language here is quite obscure, but it is very probable that this objection is the same he speaks of in Rom 6:1,15. He admits that all who are justified, including himself, are sinners. But does this mean that believing in Christ actually encourages sinning? The answer is, "absolutely not" (see note on this expression at Rom 3:30). See Romans chapter 6 and notes.

2:18 The meaning seems to be: "After denying that the law God gave through Moses is a way of salvation, if I (or anyone) turn back to it as if it is a way of salvation, I become guilty of sin, and the law itself will condemn me." Compare Heb 2:1-4; 6:4-6; 10:26-29; 12:25.

2:19 "Am dead" – see Rom 7:1-4. Rejecting the law as a way of salvation does not promote sin. It enables believers in Christ to "live for God". And the law, instead of giving life, was an instrument of death (Rom 7:9-11; 2 Cor 3:6).

2:20 "Crucified with Christ" – this is true of all believers, not just of Paul. See Rom 6:3-8. Christ died in their place and God counts His death their death. This is the way to a new kind of life. Believers are not the source of this spiritual life. Christ is. And the power to live this new life does not come from the physical or mental life of believers but from Christ living in them. Compare Rom 8:1-10. The new life can be lived only by faith in Christ the Son of God. The true Christian life begins by trusting in Him and continues in the same way (2 Cor 5:7; Col 2:6,7). Paul here is doing what he instructed others to do in Rom 6:11.

21 I do not set aside the grace of God. For if righteousness comes by the Law, then Christ died in vain."

3 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth? Before your eyes Jesus Christ has been clearly portrayed among you as crucified. 2 This one thing I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the Law, or by hearing with faith? 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now going to be made perfect by the flesh? 4 Have you suffered so many things in vain? If indeed it is in vain. 5 The One who grants the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does he do it by your works according to the Law, or by your hearing with faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness. 7 Understand, therefore, that those who believe, they are the ones who are the children of Abraham. 8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles through faith, announced the gospel in advance to Abraham, saying, "In you all nations will be blessed." 9 So those who have faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the Law are under the curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the book of the Law." 11 But it is clear that no one is justified by the Law in the sight of God, for, "The righteous will live by faith." 12 And "Gave himself for me"-1:4; Rom 5:6-8. 2:21 The teaching that men can be saved by keeping God's law makes the death of Christ meaningless and useless. So Paul has no hesitation in rejecting it. Why would Christ come and die for people to make them right with God if they could make themselves right with God by what they do? The choice is plain - salvation by grace or no salvation at all. 3:1 It is foolish to believe that Christ died for no reason. But false teachers were trying to lead these Christians into just such a foolish position. They would never have said that Christ died for nothing. But by teaching the necessity of law-keeping along with Christ's death they were indirectly teaching that His death was unnecessary. And such teaching was completely contrary to the truth Paul had "clearly portrayed" among them when he preached to them the gospel.

3:2 He appeals to their own experience as evidence that he taught the truth. When they believed the gospel he preached, they received God's Spirit (compare 4:6; Eph 1:13; Acts 10:44; Rom 8:15). God gave His Spirit to live in them not because of their efforts to keep God's law, but when they trusted in Christ. No one yet ever received God's Spirit by observing religious rites, rules and regulations. Observe that people do not have God's Spirit by nature. That Spirit must be received by faith in Christ. See John 14:17. 3:3 When they believed in Christ they experienced what God did by grace. Was it not foolish to think now that self-effort or rules and ceremonies of the law could carry them forward? Would it not be equally foolish for us to think so?

3:4 He is doubtful about them. Will the false teachers succeed in their efforts? Will the Christians there accept a perverted gospel? Will they lose the rewards their sufferings might have brought them? Their behavior makes him wonder and doubt (4:11,20).

3:5 He repeats the question of v 2 in a different form. To resist the false teaching they had heard he wants them to think and use the knowledge of the truth they had.

3:6 "Abraham" - Paul's purpose is to give Scriptural proof that God justifies men by faith apart from the works of the law.

"Righteousness" - Gen 15:6; Rom 4:3.

3:7 Rom 4:11,12,16,17. "Children" here means, of course, spiritual descendants.

3:8 Gen 12:3; 18:18; 22:18.

"Scripture" - Rom 3:10; 4:3.

"In you. . .blessed" - see Gen 12:3; 18:18; 22:18.

3:9 People everywhere think that God's blessing can be earned by keeping the rules and ceremonies of religion, by attempts to obey the laws they think God has given. The Jews were confident they could gain God's blessing by observing the law God gave through Moses. Paul shows that God's blessing comes by faith, not by self-effort. Notes on "blessing" at Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:23-27; Deut 28:3-14; Ps 1:1; 119:1; Matt 5:3-12; Acts 3:26; Eph 1:3.

3:10 See Deut 27:26. By trying to keep God's law people do not gain the blessing they hoped for. Instead God's condemnation comes on them. How can this be? Because the law demands full, perfect, constant obedience to everything in it, and no person is capable of this obedience. See notes at Ex 19:5,6,8,21-25. Paul said in Phil 3:6 that his "legalistic righteousness" was faultless. But even he came under the curse the law pronounces on lawbreakers because he could not keep the tenth commandment (Rom 7:7-14). And if a person ever breaks one command of the law of God he is guilty of breaking the whole law (Jam 2:10,11). So condemnation has come on every person who has tried to be right with God by trying to keep God's law.

3:11 This is one of three places Hab 2:4 is quoted in the New Testament (Rom 1:17; Heb 10:38). It is by faith in God, not by efforts to keep His law, that a person can be right with God.

3:12 Lev 18:5. Law and faith are totally different principles. Faith trusts God and receives salvation and eternal life as a gift. The law promises life only to the person who "does them" (the commands of the law), not to the person who merely tries to do the Law is not of faith; but, "The man who does them will live through them." 13 Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us (for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"), 14 so that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak of man's ways: no one annuls or adds to a human covenant once it has been confirmed. 16 Now the promises were made to Abraham and his offspring. It does not say, "And to offsprings", meaning many; but, "And to your offspring", meaning one person, who is Christ. 17 And this I say, that the Law, which came four them or says he does them. And since no one perfectly, constantly does them, the law brings death and condemnation (v 10; Rom 3:19,20).

3:13 See what the Lord Jesus was willing to do for sinful men! He took our place and let the curse of the broken law fall on Him. He paid the penalty for our crimes against it. Compare Rom 5:6-8; 2 Cor 5:21; 1 Pet 3:18. See notes on redemption at Ps 78:35; Matt 20:28.

"Tree" - Deut 21:22,23. In ancient times the authorities in Israel hung condemned and executed criminals on trees. This was a public display of their condemnation and disgrace. So Jesus died for crimes which we have done, and bearing our condemnation and disgrace hung on the cross (called "tree" in Acts 5:30; 10:39; 13:29; 1 Pet 2:24). We are the ones who deserve to be there.

3:14 In His suffering He thought of our blessing. His desire for our good was greater than His desire to avoid the condemnation and death of the cross. Now all believers in Christ are redeemed from the curse of the law (Rom 8:1). And they are heirs of the blessing God promised through Abraham (see vs 8,9).

"The promise of the Spirit" - Luke 24:49; John 14:16,17; Acts 1:4,5; 2:39. Notice carefully the teaching here. The blessings of God come only to those who have received God's Spirit. We receive God's Spirit "by faith" (vs 2,5; Luke 11:13; Eph 1:13). And all this is through "Christ Jesus", not through anyone or anything else. And it is clear from this verse that before believing in Christ we do not have God's Spirit.

3:15-17 This is generally true of human contracts and agreements - events which take place after they have been made do not affect them. Paul's point is that this is certainly true of God's covenant with Abraham. The law of Moses, coming centuries after it, could have no effect on it.

3:16 See Gen 12:7; 13:15; 24:7. Paul means that Christ is the heir of the promises God gave to Abraham. He is the "offspring" of Abraham (Matt 1:1). Believers in Christ are Abraham's heirs only because they are linked with Christ and are joint heirs hundred and thirty years later, cannot set aside the covenant previously confirmed by God in Christ, and so make the promise void. 18 For if the inheritance comes by the Law, it is no longer by promise. But God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 What purpose then does the Law serve? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring, to whom the promise was made, had come. And it was ordained through angels by the agency of a mediator. 20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one party only; but God is one.

21 Is the Law then against the promises of God? Certainly not. For if a law had been granted that could have given life, then surely righteousness would have been by the Law. 22 But the with Christ (vs 14,29; Rom 4:13; 8:17). 3:18 Just as the law and faith are different principles (v 12), so the law and God's promise to Abraham are totally different. God's promise to bless people through Abraham had nothing whatever to do with the law. When God gives a promise men should simply believe it and rejoice, not try to get God to fulfill it by keeping rules and ceremonies.

"Inheritance" - Rom 4:13,14; 1 Cor 3:22; Matt 5:5; Heb 11:8-10; 1 Pet 1:4. Believers in Christ will inherit the earth and heaven too. All that Christ will have they will share, and Christ will have everything (Heb 1:2).

"Gave" (1:6) - Paul speaks of grace as he does of "faith" and "promise," as the opposite of "law." A gift of God cannot be earned by self-effort (Rom 4:4,5; Eph 2:8,9). It should simply be accepted with gratitude.

3:19 The law brought a curse to those under it. Then why did God, who wants to bless men, give the law? See Rom 3:20; 4:15; 5:20; 7:7. God used the law to bring sin out into the open, to reveal its nature and power. By this method He was teaching people their need of Christ. And to learn of one's need of Christ and to receive Him is the greatest of all possible blessings.

"Until" - God had set a time for the reign of Old Testament law. It was only until the "Offspring" (Christ) should come and provide salvation for people.

"Angels" - see Heb 2:2; Acts 7:38,53. The mediator through whom the law came was Moses.

3:20,21 Paul deals with a possible objection - since God is "one" (there are many so-called "gods", but not many Gods) why did He give His promises to Abraham and then give the law which was opposed to His promises? Paul says this is a misunderstanding. The law is not opposed to God's promises of blessing. But God's promises cannot be fulfilled as long as people depend on the law for salvation, because the law is unable to give spiritual life or make men righteous (see Rom 7:14; 8:3).

3:22,23 Compare Rom 3:19-24. The law

Scripture has included everyone under sin, so that the promise which comes through faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the Law, confined for the faith that would later be revealed. 24 Therefore the Law was a tutor in charge of us to bring us to Christ that we might be justified by faith. 25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under this tutor.

26 For you are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female – in Christ Jesus you are all one. 29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, and heirs according to the promise.

can only condemn and lock men up in the prison they have chosen for themselves – the prison of sin. Before Christ came and provided salvation and taught the way of faith, the law was like a jailer. Even the best of men apart from Christ were in this jail. In God's eyes those who break His law are condemned criminals who are held for punishment. They have no spiritual freedom and no hope of release apart from the Lord Jesus Christ.

No one can escape from this prison by self-effort, good works, law-keeping, religious rules and ceremonies, or anything else they can do. Salvation, liberation, spiritual freedom, and God's eternal blessings come only by the means He has appointed – faith in the Lord Jesus Christ (vs 9,14,26; 2:16; Rom 1:16,17; 3:22,28; John 3:16,36; 5:24; Eph 2:8,9). 3:24 The law could not save people, but God used it to discipline them until the way of salvation in Christ was revealed. See in Rom 7:7-14 how the Law was a "tutor" to Paul.

"Justified by faith" – 2:16.

3:25 Since Christ revealed the way of faith in Himself, and after people put their trust in Him for salvation, the law of Moses has no more authority over them (Rom 6:14).

3:26 Men are not sons of God by nature. Though God is the creator of all men He is not the spiritual father of all men (compare John 8:44). Only by faith in Christ do people become children of God – John 1:12,13.

3:27 "Baptized into Christ" – see notes at Rom 6:3. It is faith that makes us children of God (v 26), not water baptism, which is only an outward sign of an inner spiritual change. Baptism into Christ is only by God's Spirit – 1 Cor 12:13.

"Put on Christ" – clothed themselves with Christ – this means that believers stand before God in Christ, covered by His righteousness, as acceptable to God as Christ Himself is.

3:28 "You are all one" – 1 Cor 12:13; John 17:20-23; Col 3:11. God makes no distinction between human beings in Christ.

4 Now I am saying that an heir, as long as he is a child, though he owns it all, does not differ at all from a slave, 2 but is under guardians and managers until the time appointed by the father. 3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the rudimentary things of the world. 4 But when the fulness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, 5 to redeem those who were under the Law, so that we might be adopted as sons. 6 And because you are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, calling out, "Abba, Father." 7 Therefore you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 But at the time when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those who by nature are not gods. 9 But now after you have known God, or

With Him background, origins, social position, caste, race, etc, mean absolutely nothing. What men would count the poorest and lowliest believer in Christ is as acceptable to Him as any other.

3:29 Verses 7,14,18.

4:1-7 Paul refers to customs of those days, and uses them as illustrations of spiritual truth. Male children were heirs and would eventually possess all their fathers had. But if they could afford to do so, fathers kept guardians to look after their children until they reached a certain age. When that age was reached the children were regarded as mature "sons" and no longer as children.

Paul is saying that people under the law were in a state similar to childhood, a condition of immaturity, not all that God wanted them to be. But with the coming of Christ, God's time had come to give to believers the rights of sons. Before Christ came they were under the "rudimentary things of the world" (v 3), or under the law (v 5). Now they are freed from all such "guardians and trustees." They have full freedom and all the privileges of the sons of God.

4:4 The "time" was about 2000 years ago; God's Son was Jesus. He was born "of a woman" (Matt 1:18-21; Luke 1:26-38). He had true human nature (John 1:14; Heb 2:14). And He was born a Jew under the law of Moses (as all Jews were).

4:5 "Redeem" – 3:13,14. As long as men were under the law they could not have the full rights that God's sons now have.

4:6 See 3:2,14; Rom 8:15. "Abba" is the word for father in the Aramaic language (a language closely related to Hebrew).

4:7 Believers in Christ are not like slaves who have to labor under a whip. They are God's children who have been freely given everything God has (1 Cor 3:21-23).

4:8,9 These Gentile believers were formerly in bondage to false religion and false gods, but they had gained freedom by a knowledge of the true God. Now they were considering putting themselves under the law of Moses. This was to exchange freedom rather are known of God, how is it that you turn again to those weak and beggarly rudimentary things to which you desire again to be in bondage? 10 You are observing days, and months, and times, and years. 11 I am afraid for you, that perhaps I have labored for you in vain.

12 Brethren, I appeal to you, become like me, for I became like you. You have not harmed me at all. 13 You know that because of bodily infirmity I preached the gospel to you at first. 14 And you did not despise or scorn my trial which was in my flesh, but received me as if I was an angel of God, even as if I were Christ Jesus. 15 Where, then, is that blessedness you spoke about? For I testify about you that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me.

for a new bondage after escaping from old bondage into freedom.

4:10 Paul is speaking of the law of Moses. By "days" he means Sabbath days; "months" - celebration of the new moon festival; "times" - Jewish feasts; "years" - Sabbath and Jubilee years (Ex 20:8; 23:10,11,14-17; Leviticus chapter 23; 25:8-12). To keep these religiously was to turn to what he calls "weak and miserable principles" (v 9). Those days, etc, were only pictures, types, or shadows of spiritual truth, and believers in Christ have no obligation whatever to observe any of them. Compare Heb 8:5; 10:1. Paul well knew (and we should know) that keeping or not keeping certain days can not make us either better or worse. But the teaching that believers must keep them brings them into bondage and injures their spiritual life.

4:11 "I am afraid for you" - their observance of Jewish holy days, etc, alarmed Paul. To him it was an indication that they were turning to the perverted gospel of false teachers (1:6,7). It must have made him wonder if they had really understood the true gospel.

4:12-20 Paul has been speaking of very important doctrinal matters. Now he speaks of the personal relationship that existed between him and the Galatians. Here his pastor's heart is revealed. They are his "little children". He loves them and is deeply concerned about them.

4:12 "Become like me" - Paul was freed from any bondage to the law and rejoiced in the grace of God alone. He wanted them to follow him in this.

"I became like you" - they were Gentiles and so when he went there to preach the gospel he became like a Gentile, like one who had never been a Jew. Compare 1 Cor 9:20-23. He says he has not been speaking to them as he has because they have wronged him personally. On the contrary, he shows in the following verses that there was much love between them.

4:13 "Infirmity" - or "illness." We do not know what he is referring to. Was it an eye disease (v 15)? Was it the "thorn" of 2 Cor

16 Have I now become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously pursue you, but not for a good purpose. Yes, they want to separate you from us so that you might zealously go after them. 18 But it is good to be zealous in a good thing, always, and not just when I am present with you. 19 My little children, for whom I feel again the pains of birth until Christ is formed in you, 20 I desire to be in your presence now, and to change my tone, because I am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the Law, do you not understand the Law? 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, the one by a slave woman, the other by a free woman. 23 But the one from the slave woman was born according to 12:7? Was it a result of the mistreatment he suffered (Acts 14:19)? We cannot be sure.

4:14 "My trial" - they may have been tempted to think his infirmity was a punishment from God, and so to reject him as a messenger of God. But they did not give in to such a temptation, but welcomed him with great respect.

4:15 The teaching of false teachers that was bringing them into bondage to the law of Moses was killing their joy and their love for Paul. The doctrine of self-effort for salvation will always be a joy-killer.

4:16 Telling people God's truth is the greatest thing we can do for them, but all too often people reject and hate us because we do it.

4:17,18 "They" - he means the false teachers who preached a perverted gospel (1:6,7). Such people always want to be leaders of sects and factions and to have people zealously on their side. Compare Rom 16:17,18. Paul (and he is an example to us all) wanted people to be zealous for God. Compare 1 Cor 3:4-9,21.

4:19 The believers in Galatia were Paul's spiritual children (compare 1 Cor 4:15). They were born again (John 3:3-8) because of his efforts among them, efforts as painful to him as childbirth to a woman. Now he is in pain for them again. What they needed was not to have another spiritual rebirth (there is nothing in the New Testament that even suggests the possibility of such a thing. Indeed, how could an individual be born by God's Spirit again and again?)

What they needed was for Christ to be formed in them. That is, for Christ who was already in them (3:2,26-29) to live His life in them as He did in Paul (2:20). They needed to be transformed in their thinking and acting (Rom 12:2; 13:14; 2 Cor 3:18; Eph 4:13-15).

4:20 "Perplexed" - v 11; 1:6; 3:1. He hardly knew how he should speak to them by letter.

4:21 "Desire to be under the law" - this was the great error of some of them, and Paul knew it was because of their ignorance of what the law meant.

4:22,23 See Gen 16:1-4; 17:15,16;

the flesh, but the one from the free woman was born as a result of promise.

24 These things are symbolic, for these are the two covenants. The one is from mount Sinai, which produces bondage. This is Hagar. 25 For this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the present Jerusalem that is in bondage with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and is the mother of us all. 27 For it is written,

"Rejoice, barren one,
you who do not bear children.
 Break forth and cry out, you who have no labor pains;
 for the desolate one has far more

21:1-5; Rom 4:18-21.

4:24-31 Paul draws spiritual lessons from the Old Testament stories of Abraham, Abraham's wife Sarah, and the slave girl Hagar. He knew they were real people in history. But he saw them also as types or pictures of spiritual things. Some scholars have objected to his method here, but Paul was inspired by God's Spirit and was not making a mistake. The tabernacle and the whole law were shadows of spiritual things (Heb 8:5; 10:1).

We may even say the whole Old Testament is a type, figure, picture, or shadow of the spiritual realities of the new covenant established by Christ. Of course, we should be very careful in our interpretations of the events and details of the Old Testament. God gave Paul special inspiration by His Spirit, and made him infallible in his teaching. This is not true of us. And in our days sometimes some very wild interpretations and spiritualizing of literal OT passages are heard in the churches.

4:24,25 Hagar represents the old covenant God made through Moses at Mount Sinai (Exodus chapter 19). Sarah represents the new covenant of Christ announced in Matt 26:28. Hagar was a slave girl and her offspring was not to be regarded as the free-born son of Abraham (see Rom 9:7,8). Hagar is a symbol of the law of Moses, of Mount Sinai where that covenant was given, and of the city of Jerusalem which was the center of the practice of the old covenant. And the old covenant, Paul says, means spiritual bondage or slavery (vs 1,9; 3:10,23).

4:26 Sarah is a symbol of the new covenant and of the heavenly Jerusalem which is the center of the spiritual realities of the new covenant (Heb 12:22). There is no bondage, no slavery there. And believers now are related to the new Jerusalem, not to the old.

4:27 See Isa 54:1. Isaiah spoke of the glorious future of Israel when it would come under the blessings of the Messiah and the new age He would establish. Fruitless before, it would become fruitful by God's grace and power.

4:28 Abraham believed God's promise, and God gave him Isaac. Isaac came into children than she who has a husband."

28 Now we, brethren, like Isaac, are children of promise. 29 But then just as he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, just so it is now. 30 Nevertheless what does the Scripture say? Send away the slave woman and her son; for the son of the slave woman will not be an heir with the son of the free woman. 31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free.

5 Therefore stand firm in the liberty for which Christ has set us free, and do not allow yourselves to be tied again to the yoke of existence because of the life-giving, miracle-working Word of God. This is the same way believers now receive new life and become the spiritual descendants of Abraham (Jam 1:18; 1 Pet 1:23). "Promise" here is put in contrast to the law of Moses.

4:29 See Gen 21:8,9. Ishmael was born "according to the flesh," in the usual way that people are born. There was nothing supernatural about his birth. Isaac was born "according to the Spirit." That is, God's Spirit enabled Abraham and Sarah to have him when, humanly speaking, it was impossible (Heb 11:11,12; Rom 4:18-21). As Ishmael persecuted Isaac so did those under the old covenant (Jews) persecute those under the new covenant (followers of Christ). See Acts 5:40; 7:54-58; 13:49,50; 14:19; etc. And so will unspiritual people in every era persecute spiritual people.

4:30 "Scripture" – Gen 21:10. The spiritual meaning is that those who are trying to be saved by their efforts to keep the law are in bondage and have no place with those who receive salvation and freedom by God's grace. These two totally different ways do not mix. The old covenant and the new covenant cannot somehow be joined and made into a third thing. Any such attempt produces only a perverted gospel (1:7).

4:31 This means that believers in Christ have no connection with the law of Moses, with the old covenant, with Judaism. They are children of the new covenant alone. They are born again by the power of God through the promises of the gospel of Christ. For two other comparisons of the old and new covenants see 2 Cor 3:6-18; Heb 8:6 - 10:18; 12:18-24.

5:1 All teaching that promotes self-effort and observance of laws and rules and rites and ceremonies as a way of salvation is like a yoke of slavery (4:3-9). Especially, Paul has in mind the law of Moses (compare Acts 15:10,11). Christ has set believers free from any such yoke. This means He has set us free from all forms of religious bondage whether it goes under the name of Judaism or of any other religion or of a perverted kind of Christianity. Free means free. Believers in Christ should recognize bondage.

2 Look, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will be of no benefit to you at all. 3 For once again I solemnly declare to every man who receives circumcision, that he is duty bound to keep the whole Law. 4 Christ has been put at a distance from you, you who are trying to be justified by the Law. You have fallen away from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness which is by faith. 6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision nor their freedom and value it and not give it up. They are yoked to Christ (Matt 11:28-30). This is the only yoke they need. And this yoke brings freedom.

5:2-12 Here Paul in plain language sets forth the impossibility of mixing the two ways of law and grace. Men must choose one or the other. They cannot have both. Men cannot be saved both by God's grace and by their own efforts, both through faith and through ceremonies and rules and law keeping.

5:2 "I, Paul" – he speaks with absolute authority as an apostle of Christ (1:1), as one who had the revelation of the gospel from Christ Himself (1:12).

"Circumcision" – note at Gen 17:11-14; Lev 12:3. The physical act of circumcision is nothing in itself. But Paul is speaking about the situation they were in. If the Galatians agreed with those false teachers and accepted the religious ceremony of circumcision at their hands, and so took themselves under the law of Moses, they could not have the benefits of the new covenant. They had to choose either Christ as the way of salvation or the law of Moses which could never save.

5:3 He means that circumcision in that situation would make them like Jewish converts and as such they would be obligated to keep the whole law of Moses. And, as he had pointed out already, this would not result in blessing but in a curse (3:10-12).

5:4 "Christ has been put at a distance from you" – this means that such people remove themselves from the effectual working of Christ in their lives. They are turning their backs on the realm of grace where He is active.

"Fallen away from grace" – Paul is not saying believers will do this. In fact, he was confident that even the Galatian Christians, weak and vulnerable as they were, would not (v 10). But he is emphasizing this principle: law and grace do not mix. The way of faith and the way of self-effort have nothing in common. To go to the law, to depend on rules and ceremonies is to forsake the way of grace. Paul is not teaching here (or anywhere) that believers will lose their salvation by falling into sin (compare Rom 5:9,10; 8:29-39; 1 John 1:9; 2:1).

By "fallen away from grace" he does not mean fallen into the usual temptations that beset us all. He means fallen away from the teaching that it is by God's grace alone uncircumcision can accomplish anything, but only faith that works through love.

7 You ran well. Who hindered you that you should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion does not come from the One who calls you. 9 A little yeast permeates the whole lump. 10 I have confidence in you in the Lord, that you will have no other mind. But the one who is troubling you will bear his judgment, whoever he is. 11 And as for me, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why do I still suffer persecution? For then the offense of that men are saved. It may be possible for those who are not well grounded in the truth of the Gospel to be temporarily deceived by false teachers, but to permanently abandon the Gospel of grace altogether – this is something else. Those who do it show that they do not really belong to Christ (1 John 2:19). Christ will keep His sheep and they will not permanently fall away and be lost (John 10:27,28; 17:11,12).

5:5 "We" – we true believers in Christ, who reject the way of law and self-effort. The law brings bondage and death. Faith inspires eager hope for the final fulfillment of God's promises (3:18,29). Compare Rom 8:23-25.

"Righteousness" here does not mean the righteousness God has already counted to the believer (2:16; Rom 3:21-24; 5:1), but being actually made perfectly righteous in every way (Rom 8:29; 1 John 3:2). And this awaits the future and is a glorious hope inspired by God's Spirit.

5:6 See 6:15; 1 Cor 7:19; Rom 2:28,29; 4:9-12. The same is true of any outward ceremony. There is none which can make a person acceptable to God. God counts men righteous and saves them through faith alone, and after He saves them they are to walk by faith and obey Christ's command to love one another (John 13:34; 15:12). What possible good could it do us to observe any number of rules or ceremonies if we do not trust and love Christ? A faith that results in love is not one important thing among many. It is the only thing that counts.

5:7 "You ran well" – 1 Cor 9:24; Heb 12:1. "Who hindered you" – 1:7.

5:8 The one who called them was God (1:6). He certainly was not the one who kept them from obeying the truth.

5:9 See 1 Cor 5:6-8. Even a little false teaching can eventually affect a whole church, a whole denomination.

5:10 After warning them about falling away from the way of grace (v 4), he expresses his confidence that they will not. The Lord Himself had made him sure that they would agree with the truth he has written to them. Compare Heb 6:9 after 6:4-8 and Heb 10:39 after 10:26-31. As for the false teacher (or teachers) who was leading them astray he was sure that God's judgment would come on him in due course. Compare 2 Pet 2:1-3.

5:11 Had anyone there said that Paul taught circumcision was necessary for salvation? If the cross has ceased. 12 I wish those who trouble you would amputate themselves!

13 For, brethren, you have been called to liberty. But do not use liberty as an opportunity for the flesh. Instead, with love serve one another. 14 For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." 15 But if you bite and devour one another, watch so, it was a slander.

"Persecution" – the Jews persecuted Paul because he taught that the law of Moses was not a way of salvation and that circumcision in itself had no spiritual importance to Christians.

"Offense of the cross" – compare 1 Cor 1:23. What is this offense? How does the offense cease by turning back to the law of Moses? The offense is that the cross of Christ proclaims man's complete ruin in sin. It declares that people are so bad and so weak that they can never be saved by self-effort, religion, rules and ceremonies; that their only hope is in the death of the Son of God in their place.

This strikes at people's pride and self-esteem and brings them into the dust at Christ's feet, and so is offensive to them. There is no offense of the cross in the teaching that keeping religious rules and ceremonies is sufficient for salvation. This is what many religious people like to hear. They like to think they can pile up merit with God and save themselves by what they do. Such teaching is very agreeable indeed to their proud blind hearts.

5:12 "Those who trouble you" – the false teachers were stirring the Galatians to rebellion against God's truth. Paul suggests they were no better than some fanatical priests in idol temples who castrated themselves.

5:13 Paul now turns to the practical application of the truth he has written up to this point. This is his usual method – he lays a foundation of truth and then pleads with believers to live in accordance with it. Compare Rom 12:1,2; Eph 4:1.

"Liberty" – v 1. Christ does not make us free so that we can live a life of sin (sinning is not freedom, but the worst kind of bondage – John 8:34; Rom 6:16). Christ frees us so we can become the willing servants of God and of one another. See Rom 6:15-23.

"For the flesh" – in Greek "sarx", the word Paul used to indicate what we all are by nature. See Rom 7:5,18; 8:3,5,8. Christians do not become free from the law so that they can indulge their sinful natures – quite the opposite (see Romans chapter 6).

5:14 Did they want to be under the law (4:21)? Paul says forget the rules and ceremonies of the law and fulfill the whole essence of the law – love (Lev 19:18; Matt 22:39; Rom 13:8-10; Jam 2:8). Actually the essence of the law can be fulfilled only in those who believe in Christ and have His Spirit (Rom 8:4).

5:15 The false teachers there had brought out that you are not consumed by each other.

16 So I say, walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfil the desires of the flesh. 17 For the flesh desires what is against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. These are opposed to one another, so that you cannot do what you want. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law.

strife and divisions. This is always one result of their activities (Rom 16:17). God wants His people united in love and truth – not in love without truth nor in truth without love. Error and strife destroy churches. Truth and love keep them spiritually alive and growing.

5:16 "Walk" – or "behave" or "live" or "go forward." This is Paul's theme from here up to 6:10. By "Spirit" he means God's Spirit. He is the one who gives believers the power to live a spiritual life in Christ. Compare Rom 8:4-14. Paul does not deny that the sinful nature (the "flesh" – v 13) and its desires are in believers. He very plainly indicates that they are. This is even clearer in the next verse. See also Rom 7:14-25; 13:14; 1 John 1:8. The flesh and its desires are in us all, but we can subdue and conquer them by God's Spirit.

5:17 God's Spirit and the flesh (man's fallen, sinful nature) have absolutely nothing in common. They have different desires, different thoughts, different aims (Rom 8:5-8). They will be at war with one another until the end of our earthly lives. The flesh – what we are by the nature we received from our parents – will never give up, will never stop desiring the wrong things, will never become good and holy. In fact, with the passing of time it gets worse (Eph 4:22). And God's Spirit will resist the flesh every step of the way, and will never give in to a single one of its demands.

What does Paul mean by "you cannot do what you want"? It may mean that believers do not do all the good they want to do because their sinful natures hinder them (see Rom 7:15,18,20). Or it may possibly mean they do not fulfill the desires of their sinful nature because the Holy Spirit in them opposes those desires. To some extent both of these things are true, and both show that the sinful nature is still in believers.

And observe carefully that Paul is not teaching the Galatians that the way of victory is to have their sinful nature eradicated here on earth. He does not hold out this hope in any of his letters (and it is not found anywhere else in the Bible). In fact, he teaches something else altogether. The way to victory, Paul says, is living by God's Spirit (v 16).

5:18 "Led by the Spirit" – see Rom 8:14. God's Spirit has led believers out of religious bondage, away from the principle of self-effort for salvation. He does not lead them back into such things.

"Not under the law" – Rom 6:14. People

19 Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are these: adultery, fornication, impurity, lewdness, 20 idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, discord, jealousies, rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, heresies, 21 envy, murders, drunkenness, carousing, and the like. Concerning these I tell you in advance, just as I have told you generally think that the only way to subdue the desires and works of the flesh is by laws and regulations. Paul knew that such things can actually promote sinful desires and sin (see Rom 7:5,7-13). He knew that living by God's Spirit is the only possible way for us to conquer the flesh.

5:19-21 Observe that he puts idolatry alongside immorality, and selfishness and strife alongside drunkenness and debauchery. To spiritual people it is "evident" that these things come out of the sinful nature, out of the fallen heart of man. Compare Matt 15:19; Mark 7:21-23; Rom 1:29-32; 3:9-18. Paul does not list here all the acts of the sinful nature. These are only examples. Some of these acts are directly against God, some against other men, some against the person who does them. They are all destructive and worthy of God's anger and judgment.

"Idolatry" - Ex 20:3-6; etc.

"Witchcraft" - Deut 18:9-12; etc.

"Dissensions", "heresies" - 1:6,7; 1 Cor 3:3,4.

"Envy" - Prov 14:30; 27:4; Matt 27:18; Acts 17:5; Jam 3:14,16.

5:21 "Do" - practice.

"Will not inherit the kingdom of God" - see 6:7,8; 1 Cor 6:9,10; Eph 5:5,6; Rev 21:8. In spite of such words there are always some so-called Christians who persuade themselves they can sin as they please and get away with it. Avoid such people. They have deceived themselves and will try to deceive us. Note on "kingdom of God" at Matt 4:17.

5:22,23 These things are not fruit of the believer's spirit but produced by the Spirit of God in the believer. They are not the result of self-effort. But this does not mean that the believer should be passive and do nothing. He must live in the Spirit and follow the Spirit's leading. Otherwise his fruit will not appear in his life. The word "fruit" suggests a process of growth. Compare Matt 13:23.

For fruit to appear in the realm of nature there must be first the seed, then the growth of the plant or tree, then the bud and the flower, and then the fruit. So it is with spiritual fruit. When we first believe in Christ there is often a rush of love, joy and peace to the heart. But these need to be developed and perfected, and other spiritual virtues added. Things like patience, faithfulness and self-control develop over a period of time. Compare 2 Pet 1:5-8.

God wants everyone of His children to have all the qualities in this list, and by the working of His Spirit we can have them. Paul in time past, that those who go on doing such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patient endurance, kindness, goodness, faith, 23 meekness, self-control. Against such there is no law. 24 And those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

puts love first. He knew it was the greatest of all qualities (vs 6,14; 1 Cor 13:13).

"Joy" - John 15:11; 16:20-22; 17:13; Rom 5:11; 14:17; 15:13. The happiness that people in the world may sometimes feel is based on outward circumstances. The joy of believers is based on eternal realities.

"Peace" - Luke 2:14; John 14:27; 16:33; Rom 1:7; 14:17; 15:13.

"Patient endurance" - one word in Greek, having both meanings. Rom 5:3; Col 1:11; Heb 6:12; 10:36; 12:1; Jam 1:3,4.

"Kindness" - (a better translation of the Greek word than "gentleness") 2 Cor 6:6; Eph 2:7; Titus 3:4.

"Goodness" - Rom 15:14; Eph 5:9.

"Faith" or "faithfulness" - Matt 24:45; 25:21; 1 Cor 4:2; 7:25; Rev 2:10; 17:14.

"Meekness" or "gentleness" - Matt 11:29; 2 Cor 10:1; 1 Thess 2:7.

"Self-control" - 2 Tim 1:7; 1 Cor 9:25,27; 2 Pet 1:6.

All these qualities are given by God's Spirit so that we should exercise them and live them out in our daily lives. We can either hinder or encourage their growth in us.

5:24 This is true of all real believers, all who belong to Christ, and not of just a few exceptional saints. In 2:20 Paul speaks of the believer's crucifixion with Christ. Here he speaks of what the believer himself has done. He does not say believers should do this, but that they have done it. Believers did this when they first repented and trusted in Christ.

Repentance signifies a complete break with the old way of living which was under the power of the sinful nature. Faith in Christ accepts His death in the believer's place. In other words, by their action in repenting and believing in Christ they are saying (though in the very beginning they may not have a good understanding of this), "I am the one who should have been crucified, not Christ." They are confessing that the proper place for their sinful nature is on a cross. They agree with God's verdict about it.

And they deny themselves and take up their cross and follow Christ (Matt 10:38,39; 16:24-26. See notes there). If people are not willing to do this there is no good reason to think they are true Christians. Paul is here defining what true believers are. If they have not "crucified" their sinful nature they do not belong to Christ.

However, this whole passage from v 16 does not lead us to think that believers will have no more trouble with their sinful nature. Paul shows very plainly that the opposite will be true. Believers, in the 25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. 26 Let us not desire empty glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

6 Brethren, if anyone is taken in a sin, you who are spiritual restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering yourself, so that you also are not tempted. 2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. 3 For if a man thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let everyone test and prove his own work, and then he will have reason to rejoice in himself alone, and not in someone else. 5 For everyone should bear his own burden.

6 Let the one who is being taught the Word attitude they take toward God and sin, have crucified the sinful nature, and they are united with Christ who was crucified in their place (Rom 6:4-7). But the sinful nature is not dead and buried in believers. And it continually tries to get its own way again in their lives (v 17). So Christ tells us we must take up our cross "daily" - Luke 9:23.

"Crucified the flesh" speaks of the attitude of believers toward their sinful nature and toward the cross of Christ.

5:25 God's Spirit has given spiritual life to all believers (John 3:3-8). Since this is true they should follow where the Spirit leads and go step by step with Him. This is the only way of victory over the sinful nature, the only way to keep it where it belongs - on a cross.

5:26 Paul begins to speak of keeping in step with God's Spirit in some very practical matters. The Spirit hates conceit, strife, and envy, and so should we who want to walk with Him. They are works of the flesh.

6:1 "Spirit of meekness" - 5:23; 2 Tim 2:24,25. Harsh, unloving condemnation of someone fallen into sin is not the way to bring him to repentance. Compare Luke 22:60-62; Mark 16:7; John 21:15.

"Tempted" - even those who are spiritual should not think they are beyond temptation and sin (1 Cor 10:12).

6:2 Believers are not under the law of Moses (3:25; 5:1), but they are under the law of Christ. This is the law of love (John 13:34). If we love fellow believers we will want to help them in everything that makes life difficult and burdensome for them.

6:3 One of the great obstacles to fulfilling v 2 is conceit (5:26). We must have a right attitude toward ourselves if we are to be really helpful to others. This right attitude is seen in Luke 17:10; Rom 12:16; 1 Cor 3:5-7; Phil 2:3.

6:4 See 2 Cor 10:12-18. If we think we are better than other believers, or that our ministry is superior to theirs, this will promote pride and will be an obstacle to the fulfilment of verse 2.

6:5 Every individual has his own duties and he is responsible to God only for them, not for someone else's (John 21:21,22; Rom 14:12).

share all good things with the one who is doing the teaching.

7 Do not be deceived; God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows, that is what he will reap. 8 For he who sows to his flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; but he who sows to the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap life everlasting. 9 And let us not be weary in doing good, for in due time we will reap, if we do not give up. 10 Therefore as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

11 You see with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a good showing in

6:6 Compare 1 Cor 9:9-14; Rom 15:26,27; 1 Tim 5:17,18.

6:7 This is a truth that appears throughout the Bible - Lev 26:3-17; Deut 30:15-18; Hos 8:7; 10:12; Prov 22:8; Ps 18:25-27; Job 4:8; 2 Cor 9:6.

6:8 There are only two possible ways to live: pleasing self ("flesh"), or pleasing God's Spirit. The one way ends in destruction as it should. The other way ends in eternal life (5:19-21; Rom 2:5-11; 8:5,6,12-14). Paul has already said that believers have crucified the flesh (5:24). So anyone whose life is taken up in pleasing his sinful nature is no true believer in Christ (though it is possible for every true believer to fall sometimes into that error).

But is eternal life something to be reaped? Paul knew it is a gift (Rom 6:23), but he is showing here that it is an inheritance that is entered after a certain kind of life (compare Rom 2:7-10). He is not teaching salvation by works, but transformation of life by God's Spirit. Believers are not like anyone else in the world. They alone of all people actually sow to the Spirit.

6:9 "Doing good" is one way believers sow to please the Spirit of God. And it is an evidence that God's Spirit is in them (5:22). Believers will receive a reward for the good they have done - Matt 5:12; 10:42; 25:21; 1 Cor 3:14; 15:58; Rev 22:12. Those who want to do good in a world like this will find many opportunities, but will meet with many discouragements also and will sometimes be tempted to give up. Paul encourages us all with thoughts of the future reward.

6:10 "All" means all - even our enemies (Matt 5:43-48; Luke 6:35; Rom 12:20,21).

6:11 "Large letters" - did Paul write large letters because his eyes were bad? Or because he wanted to make this concluding portion stand out? Or because he was emphasizing what follows? We do not know.

6:12 The false teachers there tried to please men. They wanted to impress the Jews with their ability and zeal. And they did not want to bear the "offense of the cross" (5:11). Some so-called servants of Christ will do the flesh, are trying to compel you to be circumcised, only so that they can avoid suffering persecution for the cross of Christ. 13 For not even those who are circumcised keep the Law. But they want to have you circumcised so they can boast about your flesh. 14 But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the anything to avoid persecution and be popular. Compare 1:10.

6:13 "Keep" - Rom 2:17-24. Not one of the false teachers fully kept the law of Moses.

"Boast" - the boasting would be that they had made converts to their views.

6:14 "The cross" - this is the believer's true ground for glory and pride. It is not in himself or in what he has done, but in the death of Christ for sinners. Compare Rom 3:27; 1 Cor 29-31; Eph 2:9. We should learn to be careful of those who do not follow Paul in this but boast in themselves and what they have done. What a man boasts about is a good indication of his character.

"Crucified" - 2:20; 5:24. By the "world" Paul means "this present evil world" (1:4). He means the sinful world - all that men want and seek and boast in. See John 7:7; 17:14; Rom 12:2; 1 John 2:15-17. Paul wanted nothing from the sinful world. It was a dead thing as far as he was concerned. And he was crucified to the world. The world regarded him as a fool, and wanted nothing from him. Between the world and him there was a great gulf caused by Christ's death. The world crucified Christ - what part would Paul want with Christ's murderer?

See in Galatians how Paul uses the word "crucified" in relationship to the believer - crucified with Christ (2:20), crucified the flesh (5:24), crucified to the world (6:14).

6:15 "A new creation" - 2 Cor 5:17. The important thing is transformation of the inner person, new spiritual life, not rites, ceremonies and religious laws like the Jews world. 15 For in Christ Jesus what avails is neither circumcision nor lack of circumcision, but a new creation. 16 Peace and mercy be on all those who live according to this rule, and on the Israel of God.

17 From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear on my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

practiced. If we have not been born again, those outward things cannot have the slightest real value. If we have been born again we should see that they do not.

6:16 "This rule" - the principle he has laid down in vs 14,15.

"And on the Israel of God" - the NIV (1978 edition) has this translation: "even to the Israel of God." This is unnecessary and could be misleading. The Greek word is "kai", usually translated "and" in the New Testament. (In the KJV the word is translated "and" 8,182 times, "also" 515 times, and "even" only 108 times.) By "Israel" Paul means only those Jews who had rejected the way of self-effort and believed in Christ. They were the true Israelites. Compare Rom 2:28,29; 9:6; 11:1-7. In the New Testament the Church made up of believing Jews and Gentiles is never called "the Israel of God." (The NIV does not even have a note stating that the Greek word usually means something other than "even.") 6:17 Paul appeals to the Christians there to accept his teaching, reject false teachers, and no longer be a source of trouble to him.

"Marks of the Lord Jesus" - he is probably referring to the scars received in the service of Jesus - 2 Cor 1:5; 11:23-25; Col 1:24.

6:18 Paul ends the letter as he began it with "grace" (1:6). This was a reminder to them that every blessing they had, especially every spiritual blessing, was by the grace of Christ.

The Letter of the Apostle Paul to the EPHESIANS

Author:

Paul an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Date:

Sometime about 60 AD.

Themes:

There are several very important themes in this letter: God's eternal purpose of bringing glory to His grace in the salvation of believers, the high position believers in Christ have by God's grace, the great truth of the Body of Christ, the life worthy of this high position and this truth, and the spiritual warfare of believers and how they can win it.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints who are in Ephesus and faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in the heavenly places in Christ, 4 even

1:1 "Apostle" – Rom 1:1; 1 Cor 1:1; Gal 1:1.

"Saints" – Rom 1:7.

"Ephesus" – Acts 18:19; 19:1-41.

"Faithful" – here means those who were continuing to live by faith in Christ.

"In Christ" or "in Him" is a key phrase in this letter – vs 3,4,7,12,13; 2:6,7,10,13; 3:6,11,21; 4:32; 6:10. It signifies our spiritual union with Christ. See John 17:20-23; Rom 6:3-8. Every spiritual blessing believers have is theirs because they are "in Christ". Apart from Him they have nothing and are nothing.

1:2 Rom 1:7.

1:3 "God and Father" – having become a man on earth Jesus called God the Father His God – Matt 27:46; John 20:17. In doing so He was not suggesting He was not God Himself. Compare John 8:24,58; 20:28,29; Matt 11:27. See other references at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11.

"Blessed us" – the verb is in the past tense. God has already given to believers every possible spiritual blessing. These blessings are in Christ and believers are in Christ where the blessings are. Notes on blessed or blessing at Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Deut 28:3-14; Ps 1:1; 119:1; Matt 5:3-12; Acts 3:26; Gal 3:9,14. "Us" means all believers in Christ, not just a few exceptional ones.

"Heavenly places" is another key expression in Ephesians – 1:20; 2:6; 3:10; 6:12. In Greek it is one plural word – "heavenlies." It plainly includes God's dwelling place in heaven – (1:20), but it includes more than that (6:12). It seems to mean the unseen world of spirits where God reigns but where Satan opposes God's reign. God is there in the highest heaven. Satan and demons are there in the lowest regions of the spiritual world warring against believers. In God's eyes, believers on earth are at the same time in the highest place of the heavenly realm (2:6), because their Head and Representative is there (1:22) and they are "in Him." In the body of course they are still on earth fighting evil beings in the unseen realm of spirits.

"All spiritual blessings" – these are blessings of the spiritual world, blessings of God's grace which saves us, makes us spiritual, enables us to live for Christ, and raises us to heaven at last to live with Him forever. Paul is not suggesting that God does not bless believers in other ways – physically, mentally, financially, etc. But his emphasis here is not on these things. In the course of this letter he refers to some of the spiritual blessings God has given believers – as he has chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love 5 he predestined us to the adoption as children to himself, by Jesus Christ, in accordance with the good pleasure of his will, 6 to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he has made us accepted in the Beloved. 7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the vs 5,7,13,14,17-19; 2:5,6,10,13-19,22; 3:16,17,20; 4:7,13,24; 5:8,18,25-27; 6:10,13.

1:4-6 "Chosen" – Mark 13:20; John 15:16,19; Rom 8:33; 2 Thess 2:13; 1 Pet 2:9. Compare John 6:37; 17:6. Before believers were born, before the world was made, God looked forward into time and saw each one, chose each one in Christ and predestined each one to a high place. See Rom 8:29,30 and notes there and at the end of Romans. Here, in vs 4-6, Paul speaks of three reasons for God's choosing and predestining believers.

First, God wanted us to be "holy and blameless before him" – v 4; 5:22-27; John 17:17-19; Phil 2:15; Titus 2:14. The words "in love" may be joined either with the phrase before it or the phrase after it. The Greek has no punctuation.

Second, God wanted us to be His children (v 5). Compare John 1:12,13; Rom 8:15; 2 Cor 6:17,18; 1 John 3:1,2. On "adoption" see Rom 8:23 and notes. Believers are God's children by spiritual birth (John 3:3-8). They will be adopted as His children at their resurrection from the dead. That is, He will in that way openly declare them to be His children.

Third, God wanted praise to come to His grace – 2:8,9; 1 Cor 1:29-31; Gal 6:14. If men could save themselves by what they do, then praise for their salvation would be due to them. In the way God chose to save people He eliminated any such possibility of boasting. The glorious grace of God alone saves believers, and so all praise goes to that, and not to believers. Grace is something freely given, not something that can be earned by our efforts or so-called works of merit (Rom 4:4,5; 6:23; 11:5,6). Other notes on grace at John 1:14,16; Rom 1:7. Observe the word "love" at the end of v 4. This was behind God's choosing and predestining believers – 2:4; Jer 31:3; Rom 5:8; 8:39; John 3:1,16; 4:8.

"Predestinated" – see note at Rom 8:29, and the note on foreknowledge at the end of the notes on Romans.

"Made us accepted" – no doubt this is a truth, and a wonderful one. But many scholars and translators think the Greek word here means "freely given" (NIV) or "freely bestowed" (NASB) and not "made accepted."

"The Beloved" (v 6) is Christ – Matt 3:17; John 17:24. Believers are "in Christ" and so are objects of God's love and grace in the fullest possible measure.

1:7 "Redemption" – Luke 2:38; Rom 3:24; 1 Cor 1:30; Gal 3:13; Col 1:14; Heb forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace 8 which he has lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding. 9 He has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in himself, 10 that in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might bring everything together in Christ, both things in heaven and on earth, in him.

11 In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of 9:12,15. Notes at Ps 78:35; Matt 20:28. Redemption includes the forgiveness of sins because it was sin which held us in bondage. Christ gave His blood, poured out His life to free us.

"Forgiveness" - 4:32; Matt 6:12; 9:6; 12:31; Mark 2:7; Luke 24:47; Acts 13:38; 26:18; Rom 4:7; Col 2:13; 1 John 1:9. Forgiveness of sins cannot be earned by good behavior. It is a free gift of God to believers in Christ. Observe the phrase "riches of his grace" - compare 2:4,7; Rom 2:4; 10:12. These are the true riches in the universe and they make believers rich - v 3; 2 Cor 8:9; 1 Cor 3:21-23.

1:8 See the word "lavished." God is not reluctant or miserly in giving blessings to men. We need not try to force Him to give us of these riches. We need no saints in heaven to intercede on our behalf in order to obtain them. God sent His own Son to die for us so that He could pour His grace on us. Compare Rom 8:32. God can no more stop giving than He can stop being God. He will continue throughout eternity to lavish on believers the riches of His grace - 2:7.

Redemption, forgiveness, and all other such blessings God gives with "all wisdom and understanding." This could possibly mean that in all His gracious dealings with us God acted in perfected wisdom. This is certainly true. But Paul probably means that in Christ God has made available to believers complete spiritual wisdom and discernment. Compare Col 1:9; 2:2,3; 1 Cor 2:7-10.

1:9,10 "Mystery" - 3:3,4,9; 5:32; 6:19. Notes at Matt 13:11; Rom 16:25,26. The secret truth God revealed and which Paul speaks of here is this: sometime in the future when the time is ripe God will establish a new order and will make the Lord Jesus Christ the supreme authority over it. Compare Rom 8:21; Matt 19:28; 1 Cor 15:25; Phil 2:9-11; Rev 20:4-6.

1:11,12 "Obtained an inheritance" - this also is in the past tense. We have obtained it, but we have not yet fully entered into it - v 14; 1 Peter 1:4.

"Predestinated" - v 5.

"Purpose" - events in the world often appear to take place in a haphazard or chaotic manner. There seems to be no rhyme or reason in much that happens. But this is because of our limited view of things. God has a perfect plan and He is working it out perfectly. Compare Rom 8:28;

him who works all things according to the counsel of his own will, 12 so that we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. 13 You also trusted in him, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and upon believing you received a seal in him, the Holy Spirit of promise, 14 who is the pledge guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.

15 Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith

11:33-36; Isa 46:10. God's plan has to do particularly with believers and the destiny He has marked out for them. They are for "the praise of His glory" - v 14; 3:21; Rom 16:27; Gal 1:5; Phil 1:11; Heb 13:21; 1 Pet 2:9; Rev 4:11; 1 Cor 10:31.

1:13 "You also" - he means believers other than Jews. In v 12 Paul spoke of those who were first to hope in Christ. That means Jewish believers. In the Old Testament the Jews enjoyed blessings in which other nations had no part. Now believers of other nations are included in Christ just as Jewish believers. This is one theme of this letter - 2:11-22; 3:6. The gospel of Christ is called "the word of truth." See also Col 1:5; 2 Tim 2:15; Jam 1:18. It was revealed by the God of truth and is true from beginning to end - John 17:17; 12:49,50; 8:40; 7:16,17. It is the gospel of "salvation" (note at Rom 1:16). The Ephesian Christians did not merely hear the word of truth, they believed it. Hearing alone produces no good result. Compare Matt 13:14,15. Believing it brings the sealing of the Holy Spirit.

"Seal" - the Spirit Himself is this seal - 4:30. A seal indicates ownership - v 14; 2 Tim 2:19; Rom 8:9. God gives the Holy Spirit to those who belong to Him. The possession of His Spirit marks them out as His as nothing else could possibly do. God's Spirit comes to live in all believers when they first put their trust in Christ - Gal 3:2,5,14. Notes on the Holy Spirit at 5:18; Matt 3:16,17; 28:19; John 14:16,17; Acts 1:4.

"Of promise" - Luke 24:48; Acts 1:4,5.

1:14 God the Father gives His Spirit to believers as a "pledge" or "deposit" or "guarantee of purchase" (as some other translations have it). Compare 2 Cor 5:5. This means He guarantees that He will complete the work He has begun in us (Phil 1:6), that He will give us the inheritance He has promised (Rom 8:17; Col 1:12; Heb 6:12; 9:15; 1 Pet 1:4), and that He will keep us as His possession until He redeems our bodies (Rom 8:23), and forever (John 14:16). Believers are God's possession (1 Cor 6:19,20). So it follows that He will guard them with great care and lose none of them. Compare John 6:39,40; 10:27,28; 17:11,12. The knowledge that we have received His Spirit should give us the assurance that all this is true.

"Praise of His glory" - vs 6,12.

1:15,16 "Faith," "love" - Col 1:4; Gal 5:6;

in the Lord Jesus and love for all the saints, 16 do not cease to give thanks for you, mentioning you in my prayers. 17 I ask that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him, 18 the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, so that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, in accordance with the working of his mighty power 20 which he exerted in Christ when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all sovereignty, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come, 22 and put all things under his feet, and gave him as the head

1 Thess 1:3. These two qualities are always found together in true believers. Anything called faith that does not result in love for fellow believers is not true faith – 1 John 3:14; 1 Cor 13:2.

"Thanks" – Paul made a practice of this (Rom 1:8; 1 Cor 1:4; Phil 1:3; Col 1:3; 1 Thess 1:2; 2 Thess 1:3). Whether he knew believers personally or not, whether they came to Christ through his ministry or someone else's ministry, he was glad and thankful for them. Believers are a glory to God and to His grace (vs 6,12,14), and what Paul desired above all was to see God glorified in the salvation and holy lives of men and women.

"Prayers" – Rom 1:9; 1 Thess 1:2; 2 Tim 1:3.

1:17 "Asking" – the prayer of Paul which follows was inspired by God's Spirit. It reveals some things God wants all believers everywhere to have. It shows what we may safely pray for.

"God" and "Father" – v 3.

"Spirit" – it is not likely that here Paul meant the Holy Spirit. He had just said that they had already received the Holy Spirit (v 13). So why should he pray that they might receive Him? He is praying that the Holy Spirit who was in them might give them a spirit of wisdom – that is, might make their spirits wise and give them a mind that could understand the deep truths of God's Word. He prayed this because he wanted them to know God better.

The personal knowledge of God is one of the great treasures of believers. Their spiritual life begins with it and progresses with it – John 17:3; 2 Cor 4:6; Eph 4:13; Phil 3:8,10; Col 1:10; 2 Pet 3:18. Paul was aware that knowing God personally and getting to know Him better is a matter of "revelation." God must reveal Himself to us or we can never know Him. See Matt 11:27; 1 Cor 2:10,11.

1:18,19 God wants us not only to know Him but to know the things He has prepared for us as believers.

"Eyes" – there are two kind of eyes – physical, which can see material objects, and spiritual, which can "see" unseen spiritual things (2 Cor 4:18; Heb 11:13; John 4:35). The eyes of the inner being of unbelievers are closed and blind – Matt 13:15; 2 Cor 4:4; 1 John 2:11; Rev 3:18. God has opened the spiritual eyes of believers – Acts 26:18; John 9:39; 2 Cor 4:6. When this happens they begin to
