20:29 16:31.

20:30 A hearty welcome to all blows that produce such good results! See Ps 141:5; 66:10-12.

21:1 16:1; 19:21; 20:24. Kings are no more difficult for God to direct than anyone else. Bible history shows that He often worked in the hearts of kings to fulfill His purposes (kings of Egypt - Gen 41:1; 14,15,41; Ex 7:3-5; 9:16; kings of Babylon - 2 Chron 36:17; Dan 2:1,25,26,48; kings of Persia - 2 Chron 36:22; Isa 45:1-3. See also 1 Kings 11:14,23; 1 Chron 5:26; 2 Chron 21:16; Rev 17:12,17). God does the same thing now.

21:3 1 Sam 15:22; Isa 1:11-17; Hos 6:6; Micah 6:6-8; Matt 9:13.

21:6 10:2; 19:22; Ps 37:16; 39:6; 49:5-9. Many there are who lie and deceive to gain money. In the end will such wealth be worth what they will have to pay for it?

21:8 2:15. They use crooked ways to gain their object, and then must use other crooked ways to cover up these first crooked ways. Like this they are caught in a downward spiral.

21:12 10:25; 12:7; 14:11; Matt 7:26,27.

21:13 See Ex 1:14; 2:23 with its results in Ex 11:6; 12:30. Note at Ps 41:1; Prov 1:25-28; 14:21; 28:27.

21:14 Notes at 15:27; 17:8.

21:15 There is going to be great joy for some, great terror for others, for justice is exactly what is going to be done to the world and to every individual (Ps 89:14; 98:9; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:2,5-11; 2 Thess 1:6,7; Rev 15:3,4; 16:5-7; 20:11,12; 22:12).

21:16 2:18; 5:23; 8:36; 9:18; Deut 30:15,19; Ezek 18:30:30-32.

21:18 See Isa 43:3-6. Persia showed kindness to the people of Israel and let them return to their own land (Ezra 1:1-4). In return God enabled Persia to conquer Egypt, Cush, and Seba. Perhaps there is an important principle here in God's dealings with nations.

21:21 15:9; Matt 5:6; 6:33; John 12:26; Rom 2:7,10.

21:22 This is true in the spiritual realm also. God's wisdom enables His servants to demolish the refuge of false philosophies and religious ideas that others trust in. See 2 Cor 10:4.

- 23 Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
- 24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who acts with arrogant pride.
- 25 The desire of the lazy kills him, for his hands refuse to work.
- 26 He greedily covets all day long, but the righteous gives unsparingly.
- 27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination; how much more when he brings it with a wicked mind?
- 28 A false witness will perish, but the man who listens speaks to the end.
- 29 A wicked man puts on a bold face, but as for the upright, he directs his way.
- 30 There is no wisdom or understanding or counsel against the LORD.
- 31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle, but safety is from the LORD.

22 A good name is more to be desired than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

- 2 The rich and poor have this in common: the LORD is the maker of them all.
- 3 An understanding man foresees disaster and hides himself, but the simple pass on, and are punished.
- 4 By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches and honour and life.
- 5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse; he who guards his soul will be far from them.

- 6 Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it.
- 7 The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is a servant to the lender.
- 8 He who sows wickedness will reap trouble, and the rod of his anger will fail.
- 9 He who is generous will be blessed, for he gives of his food to the poor.
- 10 Drive out the scorner, and contention will go out, yes, strife and insult will cease.
- 11 He who loves purity of heart and whose speech is gracious, will have the king as his friend.
- 12 The eyes of the LORD see that knowledge is preserved, and he overturns the words of the transgressor.
- 13 The lazy person says, "There is a lion outside; I will be killed in the streets."
- 14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit; he who is abhorred by the LORD will fall into it.
- 15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child, but the rod of correction will drive it far from him.
- 16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches, and he who gives to the rich, will surely come to poverty.
- 17 Turn your ear and listen to the words

21:23 10:19; 12:13; 13:3; 18:21; Ps 39:1; 141:3; Matt 12:37.

21:24 1:22. Scorning God's word is the result of pride and ignorance (Matt 27:27-29,41; 2 Pet 3:3-5; Jude 10).

21:25 6:6; 13:4.

21:26 Lev 25:35; Deut 15:8; Ps 37:21,26; 112:9; Luke 6:35; 2 Cor 9:7.

21:27 Note at 15:8.

21:28 References at 19:5. The Hebrew of the second phrase is difficult and this is only one of possible translations. It may mean "but the words of an obedient man [one who listens] will live on." Or "the obedient man will always speak the truth" (the words "the truth" being added).

22:5 Verse 8; Ps 9:16; 69:22. Thorns and snares here signify evils and difficulties which will hurt them and capture them.

22:6 A great encouragement in the training of children. But parents themselves must know the right way (Gen 18:19; Deut 4:9,10; 6:7; Josh 24:15; Eph 6:4).

22:7 Debt is a great burden and difficulty in a person's life. Therefore Rom 13:8.

22:11 The King of heaven will also be his friend - Ps 24:3,4; Matt 5:8.

22:12 19:21; 21:30.

22:13 6:6-11. The lazy man will seek any excuse not to work.

22:14 5:3-5; 23:27.

22:15 Alas, we all come into the world with a nature that is bent toward sin and foolishness (note at Ps 51:5). And every child needs much discipline and correction. 3:11,12; 13:24; 19:18. Compare 1 Kings 1:6.

22:16 The oppression of the poor is everywhere condemned in the Bible (v 22; 14:31; 17:5; Deut 24:14; Ps 10:2,8,9; 12:5; 35:10; 37:14; 109:16; Isa 3:14).

22:17-21 These verses are an introduction

- of the wise,
and apply your heart to my knowledge.
- 18 For it will be pleasant if you keep them within you so that they are ready for your lips.
- 19 So that your trust may be in the LORD, I have taught you today, even you.
- 20 Have I not written to you excellent things, words of counsel and knowledge,
- 21 So that I might cause you to know the certainty of the words of truth, that you might give truthful words in answer to those who send to you?
- 22 Do not rob the poor because he is poor, nor oppress the afflicted in the gate,
- 23 For the LORD will plead their cause, and plunder the soul of those who plunder them.
- 24 Make no friendship with an angry man, and do not go with a hot-tempered man,
- 25 So that you do not learn his ways, and get a snare to your soul.
- 26 Do not be one of those who strike hands in pledge, or who put up security for debts.
- 27 If you have nothing with which to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you?
- 28 Do not remove the ancient boundary stone which your fathers have set.
- 29 Do you see a man diligent in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before obscure men.

23 When you sit down to eat with a ruler, carefully consider what is before you,
2 And put a knife to your throat,

- if you are a man given to appetite.
- 3 Do not desire his delicacies, for it is deceptive food.
- 4 Do not wear yourself out to get rich. Cease from your own wisdom.
- 5 Will you set your eyes on it? It is no longer there, for surely riches make wings for themselves; they fly away like an eagle in the sky.
- 6 Do not eat the food of him whose eye is evil, or desire his delicacies.
- 7 For as he thinks in his heart, so is he. "Eat and drink", he says to you, but his heart is not with you.
- 8 The morsel you have eaten you will vomit up, and waste your compliments.
- 9 Do not speak in the ears of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.
- 10 Do not remove the ancient boundary stone and encroach on the fields of the fatherless,
- 11 For their redeemer is mighty. He will plead their cause with you.
- 12 Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge.
- 13 Do not withhold correction from the child; for if you beat him with the rod, he will not die.
- 14 You beat him with the rod, and rescue his soul from hell.
- 15 My son, if your heart is wise, my own heart too will rejoice.
- 16 Yes, my inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak right things.
- 17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, to a new section of the book which ends at 24:22. This section can be divided into thirty sayings – six of them are of one verse; eighteen are of two verses; four are of 3 verses; one is of 4 verses; and one is of 7 verses. These sayings were probably collected by Solomon. Their purpose is to encourage trust in God (v 19), and to equip us with wise words and ready answers (vs 18,21). The New Testament also speaks of being ready to give answers to others (Col 4:6; 1 Pet 3:15).

22:22,23 Verse 16. The God of the Bible, the only God there is, is always on the side of the oppressed poor, and He will pay back oppressors in their own coin.

22:24,25 1 Cor 15:33.
22:26,27 6:1-5; 11:15; 17:18.

22:28 Deut 19:14; 27:17.

22:29 See examples of this in Gen 39:3,4; 1 Sam 16:21-23; 1 Kings 7:14; 11:28. God the King also looks for those who will do their work well.

23:1-3 He means, perhaps, that if a ruler asks us to dine with him he may be planning to use us for his own purposes and those purposes may be deceptive and evil. "What" – or "who."

23:4,5 28:20; 1 Tim 6:9,10,17; Heb 13:5. "Fly away" – Jer 17:11; Luke 12:20,21.

23:6-8 Seeing insincerity and hypocrisy makes an honest man sick.

23:7 The first phrase might possibly be translated "for as he puts on a feast, so he is."

23:10,11 22:23,28. Redeemer here is a translation of the Hebrew word "goel." See notes at Ruth 2:20; Ps 78:35.

23:13,14 3:12; 13:24; 19:18; 22:18; 2 Sam 7:14.

23:15,16 Verse 24; 27:11; 29:3. So God the Father rejoices in His children if they are wise and honest – Ps 15:1,2; 147:11; 149:4; Zeph 3:17.

23:17,18 "Envy" – 24:1,19; Ps 37:1; 73:3.

- but be in the fear of the LORD all day long.
- 18 For surely there is a future,
and your hope will not be cut off.
- 19 Listen, my son, and be wise,
and guide your heart in the way.
- 20 Do not be with those who drink too much wine,
with those who are gluttons in eating meat,
- 21 For the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty,
and drowsiness will clothe a person with rags.
- 22 Listen to your father who begot you,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.
- 23 Buy the truth and do not sell it,
also wisdom and instruction and understanding.
- 24 The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice, and he who begets a wise child will have joy in him.
- 25 Your father and your mother will be glad,
and she who gave you birth will rejoice.
- 26 My son, give me your heart,
and keep your eyes on my ways.
- 27 For a prostitute is a deep ditch,
and an adulteress is a narrow pit.
- 28 She also lies in wait like a robber,
and increases the transgressors among men.
- 29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has babbling?
Who has wounds without cause?
Who has redness of eyes?
- 30 Those who linger long at the wine,
those who go in search of mixed wine.
- 31 Do not look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly.
- 32 At last it will bite like a serpent,

- and sting like a viper.
- 33 Your eyes will see strange things and your mind will utter perverse things.
- 34 Yes, you will be like one lying down
in the middle of the sea, or like one who lies down on the top of a mast.
- 35 "They hit me", you will say,
"but I am not hurt! They have beaten me,
but I didn't feel it!
When will I wake up?
I will look for another drink."

- 24 Do not be envious of evil men, or desire to be with them.
- 2 For their heart plots violence,
and their lips talk of trouble.
- 3 Through wisdom a house is built,
and by understanding it is established,
- 4 And by knowledge its rooms will be filled with all precious and pleasant treasures.
- 5 A wise man is strong; yes, a man of knowledge increases strength.
- 6 For by wise counsel you should wage war,
and in many counsellors there is safety.
- 7 Wisdom is too high for a fool.
He does not open his mouth in the gate.
- 8 He who plots to do evil will be called a schemer.
- 9 The thought of foolishness is sin,
and the scorner is an abomination to men.
- 10 If you faint in the day of adversity,
your strength is small.
- 11 If you refrain from rescuing those who are being led away to death and those who are about to be killed,
- 12 If you say, "Look, we didn't know it," does not he who weighs the heart

"Fear" – note at 1:7.
23:19-21 Wisdom should guide us in what we eat and drink and how much. Drunkenness and gluttony are condemned in the Bible and will face God's anger and punishment – 23:2; 28:7; Rom 13:13,14; 1 Cor 6:10; Gal 5:21.
23:22-25 Verse 15,16; 4:5,7; Ezek 35:15; Obadiah 1:12.
23:26-28 "Give me your heart" – what any real father desires from his son. But he should be worthy of such a gift. This is what God the Father desires from His children. He will be satisfied with nothing less. And He is wonderfully worthy of this gift. A heart not given where it should be given will go after the attractions of the world and may fall prey to sexual immorality.
23:29-35 A striking warning against drunkenness. Strong drink may seem pleasant at first (v 31), but it is poison (v 32), and has very bitter fruits. One of these is that the drunkard when he recovers a little wants to indulge again and again in the same thing that is ruining his life.

24:1,2 Verses 19,20; 23:17,18; Ps 37:1; 73:3.
24:3,4 9:1; 14:1. To establish a family as God wants it established requires wisdom which God alone can give.
24:5,6 21:22; 20:18; 11:14; Luke 14:31.
24:7 Judges and city officials met for business at the main gates of cities (Gen 19:1; 23:10; Deut 22:15; Josh 20:4; Ruth 4:11).
24:8,9 In Proverbs foolishness is not lack of sense, it is lack of moral sense; everything that flows from it is sinful.
24:10 Jer 12:5; Isa 40:31.
24:11,12 Ps 82:4; Isa 58:6,7. For men to profess ignorance of injustice and oppression will not work with God. Nor is it enough merely to feel compassion for those

- consider it?
 And he who keeps your soul,
 does he not know it?
 And will he not repay every man in accordance with his deeds?
- 13 My son, eat honey, because it is good,
 and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste;
- 14 So will the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul.
 When you have found it, then there will be a reward,
 and your hope will not be cut off.
- 15 Do not lie in wait, O wicked man,
 at the house of the righteous;
 do not plunder his resting place;
- 16 For a righteous person falls seven times and rises again,
 but the wicked will fall into trouble.
- 17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do let not your heart be glad when he stumbles,
- 18 Or the LORD will see it, and it will displease him,
 and he will turn his wrath away from him.
- 19 Do not fret because of evil people or be envious of the wicked,
- 20 For there will be no future for the evil person;
 the lamp of the wicked will be put out.
- 21 My son, fear the LORD and the king, and do not associate with those who are changeable,
- 22 For their calamity will rise suddenly;
 and who knows the ruin of both of them?
- 23 These also are sayings of the wise:
It is not good to show partiality in judgment.

- 24 He who says to the wicked,
 "You are righteous", him the people will curse, him nations will abhor;
- 25 But to those who rebuke him will be delight,
 and a good blessing will come on them.
- 26 Giving a right answer is like a kiss on the lips.
- 27 Prepare your outside work, and make it ready for yourself in the field, and after that build your house.
- 28 Do not be a witness against your neighbour without cause,
 and do not deceive with your lips.
- 29 Do not say, "I will do the same to him
 as he has done to me.
 I will repay the man in accordance with his deed."
- 30 I went by the field of the lazy,
 and by the vineyard of the man lacking understanding,
- 31 And, look, it was all overgrown with thorns,
and nettles had covered its surface,
 and its stone wall was broken down.
- 32 Then I gazed and considered it well;
 I looked at it and received instruction:
- 33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
 a little folding of the hands to sleep,
- 34 Just so your poverty will come like
 a highway robber,
 and your scarcity like an armed man.

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, copied by the men of Hezekiah,
 king of Judah:

- 2 It is the glory of God to conceal a matter,
 but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.
- 3 The heavens for height, and the earth

in trouble, the poor, the needy, or the innocent falsely condemned. God will judge us, not according to what we feel, but according to what we actually do or do not do (Matt 25:31-46; Rom 2:6; Jam 4:17). 24:13,14 16:24; Ps 119:103. The sweetness of honey remains in the mouth but a moment, but the sweetness of true wisdom will remain in the mind forever. 24:15,16 Though a righteous person may fall seven times, God enables him to rise again (see notes at Ps 34:19; 37:24; Rom 8:37). The case of the wicked is quite different - 6:15; 11:3,5. 24:17,18 17:5 (note); Ezek 35:15; Obadiah 1:12. 24:19,20 Verses 1,2. This is often repeated in the Bible because envy is a great danger to the spiritual life (Ps 73:2,3). In any case, how foolish to envy those who have no future hope! 24:21,22 Eccl 8:2-5; Rom 13:1-5; 1 Pet 2:17. 24:23-34 An addition of five sayings to the thirty sayings in the previous section. There is no reason to think Solomon did not collect these. 24:23-25 17:15; 18:5; 28:21; 31:8,9; Lev 19:15; Ps 72:2. 24:26 16:13. To speak the truth to people is to show them love. Lips which flatter and deceive are hateful. 24:27 In other words, put first things first and plan carefully. 24:28,29 3:30; 6:19; 20:22; Matt 5:38-41; Rom 12:17. It is not our business to seek revenge on others for what they have done. God will see to that in His own time and way. 24:30-34 Note at 6:6-11. Laziness or carelessness in spiritual things too has disastrous consequences (Matt 25:14,15,24-26,30). 25:1 1:1; 10:1. King Hezekiah reigned more than two hundred years after Solomon and brought a revival of true religion to Judah (see 2 Chronicles chapters 29-31). 25:2 2:4; Deut 29:29; Isa 55:8,9; Rom 11:33-36; Matt 13:44. Men get honor from discovering the truth. 25:3 This is true to some extent of all men. We are mysteries to ourselves and to

- for depth;
and the heart of kings is unsearchable.
- 4 Take away the dross from the silver,
and out comes a vessel from the silversmith.
- 5 Take away the wicked from the king's presence,
and his throne will be established in righteousness.
- 6 Do not put yourself forward in the presence of the king,
and do not stand in the place of great men;
- 7 For it is better that it be said to you,
"Come up here",
than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince whom your eyes have seen.
- 8 Do not go out hastily to argue,
or you may not know what to do in the end,
when your neighbor puts you to shame.
- 9 Debate your case with your neighbor himself,
and do not reveal the secret of another,
- 10 Or he who hears it may put you to shame,
and your bad reputation not pass away.
- 11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.
- 12 Like an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold,
is a wise reprover to an obedient ear.
- 13 Like the cold of snow in the time of harvest,
is a faithful messenger to those who send him,
for he refreshes the soul of his masters.
- 14 Whoever boasts of his gifts falsely is like clouds and wind without rain.
- 15 Through patience a ruler is persuaded,
and a soft tongue breaks the bone.
- 16 Have you found honey?
Eat only what is sufficient for you,
lest you be filled with it, and vomit it.
- 17 Let not your foot be too often in

- your neighbour's house, or he may tire of you and hate you.
- 18 A man who bears false witness against his neighbour is a club and a sword and a sharp arrow.
- 19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a sprained foot.
- 20 Like one who takes away a garment in cold weather,
and like vinegar on soda, is one who sings songs to a sad heart.
- 21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat,
and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;
- 22 For you will be heaping coals of fire on his head,
and the LORD will reward you.
- 23 The north wind drives away rain;
so does an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.
- 24 It is better to live in the corner of the housetop,
than share a house with a quarrelsome woman.
- 25 As cold water to a thirsty soul,
so is good news from a far country.
- 26 A righteous man giving way to the wicked is like a muddied spring, and a polluted well.
- 27 It is not good to eat too much honey;
so for people to look out for their own glory is not glory.
- 28 He who does not rule his own spirit is like a city that is broken down and without walls.

26 Like snow in summer and like rain in harvest,
so honour is not fitting for a fool.

- 2 Like the flitting bird, like the flying swallow, others (20:24). But God searches and knows all things (Jer 17:9,10; John 2:24,25; Heb 4:13).

25:4,5 This truth was at the heart of David's resolutions in Ps 101. God is always at work refining His people (Ps 66:10-12) and the King of heaven, when He comes again, will do a complete work of establishing a righteous reign (Isa 11:1-5).

25:6,7 Luke 14:7-11.

25:8-10 Better to end a dispute before it gets to court (Matt 5:25,26).

25:11 15:23. See what wisdom says in 8:19.

25:12 15:31; Ps 141:5.

25:13 10:26; 13:17.

25:14 In other words, big words, no action.

25:15 Patience and gentleness often can accomplish far more than haste and roughness.

25:16,17 That is, honey and visits from neighbors have one thing in common – too much is too much.

25:18 12:18; Ps 5:9.

25:21,22 Matt 5:44; Rom 12:20.

25:25 15:30.

25:26 Evil can taint all the springs of action and pollute that which should be clean, clear, and life-giving.

25:27 27:2; Matt 23:12.

25:28 Into a city with broken down walls may easily enter any unclean animal, any cruel beast, any evil man, any invading army. So the evils of the world, the influences of Satan enter the unguarded, undisciplined, unwatchful human heart.

26:2 If we live righteously and honestly before God we need fear no curse or anything that men may say or do against us.

- so the curse does not come without cause.
- 3 A whip for the horse,
a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the fool's back.
 - 4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
lest you also become like him.
 - 5 Answer a fool according to his folly,
lest he be wise in his own eyes.
 - 6 He who sends a message by the hand of a fool is cutting off the feet,
and drinking damage.
 - 7 The legs of the lame are not equal,
like a proverb in the mouth of fools.
 - 8 Like one who ties up a stone in a sling,
is he who gives honour to a fool.
 - 9 Like a thorn piercing the hand of a drunkard,
is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
 - 10 The great God who formed all things
both pays the fool,
and gives transgressors their wages.
 - 11 As a dog returns to his vomit,
so a fool returns to his folly.
 - 12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
 - 13 The lazy person says,
" There is a lion in the road!
A lion is in the streets!"
 - 14 As the door turns on its hinges,
so the lazy one turns on his bed.
 - 15 The lazy person buries his hand in the dish;
it is a weariness to him to bring it back to his mouth.
 - 16 The lazy person is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can give a reason.
 - 17 He who is passing by and meddles with

- strife that does not pertain to him, is like one who takes a dog by the ears.
- 18 Like a madman who hurls fire brands,
arrows, and death,
 - 19 Is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "I was just joking!"
 - 20 Where there is no wood, the fire goes out;
so where there is no talebearer,
the strife ceases.
 - 21 As charcoal is to burning embers and wood to fire,
so is a quarrelsome man to kindle strife.
 - 22 The words of a talebearer are like wounds,
and they go down into the inmost parts of the body.
 - 23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like an earthen pot covered with silver dross.
 - 24 He who hates, disguises this with his lips,
and stores up deceit within him;
 - 25 When he speaks graciously, do not believe him;
for there are seven abominations in his heart.
 - 26 The wickedness of the one whose hatred is covered by deceit will be revealed before the whole congregation.
 - 27 Whoever digs a pit will fall in it,
and the one who rolls a stone,
it will come back on him.
 - 28 A lying tongue hates those it harms,
and a flattering mouth works ruin.
- 27 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth.
- 2 Let another man praise you and not your own mouth,
a stranger and not your own lips.

26:3-12 These proverbs are all concerned with fools – that is, with those who are moral delinquents lacking the wisdom that comes from God (see note at 1:7).

26:4,5 Sometimes it is better not to try to answer fools at all. Sometimes they must be answered to reveal their foolishness, but this must be done wisely and carefully.

26:10 The Hebrew of this sentence is very difficult and obscure and many translations have been offered. Literally it is, "The Great One [the word 'God' is not here in Hebrew] who has brought forth everything hires the fool and hires the transgressor." The possible meaning is, God uses them for his own purposes.

26:11 2 Pet 2:22; Ps 85:8. The fool returns to folly because it is more appealing to him than wisdom and righteousness. A sinful nature is attracted to sinful things.

26:12 Verse 5. Being wise in one's own eyes is to be in a worse condition than a fool. It is the error that the lazy man (v 5) and the rich (28:11) have in common. We are warned against it in 3:7 because such a conceit shuts out the fear of the Lord which is the only way to wisdom.

26:20 One of the evils of gossip. See also 11:13; 18:8; 20:19; Lev 19:16.

26:23-26 Ps 28:3; 55:21; Jer 9:8; Matt 26:47-49. The hypocrite has a full number of abominations in his heart (6:16-19). See the abominations in the hearts of the hypocrites living when Jesus was on earth (Matthew chapter 23).

26:27 Ps 7:15; 35:7,8; 141:10. Attempts to harm others will eventually bring harm to oneself. This is a law of God strikingly displayed in the case of Haman (Esther 3:5,6; 5:14; 7:9,10).

27:1 16:9; Jam 4:13-16.

27:2 25:27.

- 3 A stone is heavy and the sand weighty,
but a fool's wrath is heavier than both of them.
- 4 Wrath is cruel and anger is overwhelming,
but who is able to stand before envy?
- 5 Open rebuke is better than love concealed.
- 6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend,
but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.
- 7 The full soul loathes a honeycomb,
but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.
- 8 As a bird that wanders from her nest,
so is a man who wanders from his place.
- 9 Oil and perfume rejoice the heart;
so does the sweetness of a man's friend through hearty counsel.
- 10 Do not forsake your own friend and your father's friend, or go into your brother's house on the day of your calamity.
For better is a neighbour who is near than a brother far off.
- 11 My son, be wise and make my heart glad,
that I may answer him who insults me.
- 12 A prudent man sees disaster coming
and hides himself,
but the simple go on and pay the penalty.
- 13 Take the garment of the one who puts up security for a stranger, and take a pledge from him for a strange woman.
- 14 He who blesses his friend with a loud voice,
early in the morning,
it will be regarded as a curse to him.
- 15 A continual dripping on a very rainy day and a quarrelsome woman are alike.
- 16 Whoever restrains her can restrain the wind and grasp oil with his right hand!
- 17 Iron sharpens iron;
so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.
- 18 Whoever keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit;
so he who waits on his master will be honoured.
- 19 As in water face reflects face,
so the heart of man reflects man.
- 20 Hell and destruction are never full,
so the eyes of man are never satisfied.
- 21 The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold;
so is a man tested by the praise he receives.
- 22 Though you pound a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with wheat, still his foolishness will not leave him.
- 23 Be careful to know the state of your flocks,
and look after your herds well.
- 24 For riches are not forever, and the crown does not last to every generation.
- 25 The hay appears, and the tender grass shows itself,
and herbs of the mountains are gathered in.
- 26 The lambs are for your clothing,
and the goats are the price for the field.
- 27 And you will have goats' milk enough
for your food,
for the food of your household,
and for the maintenance of your maidens.

- 28 The wicked flee when no man pursues,
but the righteous are bold as a lion.
- 2 Because of the transgression of a land,
it has many rulers,
but by a man of understanding and knowledge it will endure.
- 3 A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no food.
- 4 They who forsake the law praise the wicked,
but those who keep the law oppose them.

27:4 Matt 27:18. Envy is one of the worst and most destructive passions that can possess men.

27:5,6 Let us, like David (Ps 141:5), understand the value of rebukes. Far better to be pierced by a friend than petted by a foe.

27:11 10:1; 23:15,16.

27:15,16 12:4; 18:22; 19:13,14; 21:9,19.

27:17 Our contacts with others, especially with those who are close to us, can help shape our character and make us better instruments in God's service.

27:18 Matt 25:21; Luke 12:42-44; John 12:26.

27:19 A man is what he is inwardly, not what he seems to be outwardly.

27:20 1 John 2:16. It is the nature of fallen man always to want more than he has, never to be satisfied.

"Death and Destruction" - in Hebrew "Sheol and Abaddon."

27:21 Praise tests whether a man is proud, or hungry for praise, or foolish enough to accept flattery, or humble, or desirous of seeing only God praised.

27:23-27 Jesus' instruction not to worry about the future (Matt 6:25-34) does not mean that care and thought should not be taken to provide for one's household.

28:1 Lev 26:7,8,14,17,36; Deut 32:30; Ps 3:6; 18:33-40; 138:3; Acts 4:13,31.

28:3 14:21,31.

28:4 Will anyone praise the wicked? See Rom 1:32. Such is the fallen world we live in. Those who follow the teachings of the God of holiness and truth must stand against evil. Examples - Ex 32:26-29; Ps 101;

- 5 Evil men do not understand justice,
but they who seek the LORD understand all things.
- 6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity,
than he who is rich but perverse in his ways.
- 7 Whoever keeps the law is a wise son,
but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.
- 8 He who increases his possessions by usury and dishonest gain will gather it for him who has pity on the poor.
- 9 As for the one who turns his ear away
from hearing the law,
even his prayer will be an abomination.
- 10 Whoever causes the righteous to go astray in an evil way will himself fall into his own pit,
but the upright will have a good inheritance.
- 11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes,
but the poor who has understanding sees through him.
- 12 When righteous people rejoice,
there is great honour,
but when the wicked rise up,
a man hides himself.
- 13 He who covers his sins will not prosper,
but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.
- 14 Happy is the man who always fears
the LORD,

- but he who hardens his heart will fall into trouble.
- 15 Like a roaring lion and a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people.
- 16 The ruler who lacks understanding is also a great oppressor, but he who hates covetousness will prolong his days.
- 17 A man who does violence to the blood of any person is fleeing to the pit.
Let no one support him.
- 18 Whoever walks uprightly will be rescued, but he who is perverse in his ways will fall at once.
- 19 He who tills his land will have plenty of food, but he who follows vain persons will have poverty enough.
- 20 A faithful man will have abundant blessings,
but he who makes haste to be rich will not be innocent.
- 21 To show favoritism is not good,
because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.
- 22 He whose eye is evil hastens to be rich,
and does not consider that poverty will come on him.
- 23 He who rebukes a man will find more favour afterwards than he who flatters with the tongue.
- 24 Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It is not wrong," that person is a companion of one who destroys.

Eph 5:11; 6:11; etc.
28:5 God's justice is one of the very great themes of the Bible (Deut 32:4; Ps 89:14; 97:2; Rom 3:25,26; Rev 15:3). It is understood and appreciated only by those who seek God, fear God, and so receive the wisdom that comes from God (2:9; Ps 14:2; 82:5; 92:6; 119:97-104; Dan 12:10; Hos 14:9).
28:6 See 15:16; 16:8; 19:1,22; Ps 37:16.
28:7 Verse 4; 23:19-21; 1 Cor 15:33.
28:8 "Usury" - Ex 22:25; Lev 25:35-37; Deut 23:19,20.
 "For him" - 13:22; Job 27:13,16,17.
28:9 15:8; 21:27; Ps 66:18; 109:7; Isa 1:13-17; 59:1,2. A wicked man will not listen to God, so all his religion, his worship, and all he does is hateful to God.
28:10 26:27.
28:11 26:5; 26:16; Luke 12:16-21.
28:12 Verse 28; 11:10; 29:2; 1 Kings 18:13; 2 Kings 11:2,3,20.
28:13 Gen 3:8; Josh 7:11,12,20,21,25,26; Ps 32:1-5; Isa 55:6,7; Hos 14:1,2; 1 John 1:9. All of men's sins will eventually be revealed (Ps 90:8; Matt 10:26; 1 Cor 4:5; 2 Cor 5:10; Heb 4:12,13; Rev 20:12). It is impossible to hide them from God. How foolish to try, when by confessing and forsaking them they can be forgiven and blotted out forever. Observe that forsaking one's sins is as important as confessing them. Compare Ex 9:27.

28:14 "Happy" - note at Ps 1:1,2.
 "Fears" - 1:7; 9:10; 15:33; 23:17; Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 112:1.
 "Hardens" - Ex 7:13; Ps 95:8; Rom 2:5; Heb 3:13,15.
28:15 Some rulers have been (and some still are) as bad as cruel, ravenous beasts. The final world ruler will be the most awful example of this (Rev 13:1-8).
28:17 Gen 4:14.
28:18 10:9; 11:5. There is no real, no permanent security except in the true God Himself.
28:19 27:23-27.
28:20 "Blessings" - Ps 1:1-3.
 "Rich" - v 22; 20:21; 23:4; 1 Tim 6:9,10; Jam 5:1-5.
28:21 It is better to die of starvation than to do wrong.
28:23 27:5,6.
28:24 19:26; Ex 20:12; Matt 15:4-6.

- 25 He who has a proud heart stirs up strife,
but he who puts his trust in the LORD
will prosper.
- 26 He who trusts in his own heart is a fool,
but whoever walks wisely will be rescued.
- 27 He who gives to the poor will not lack,
but he who hides his eyes from them
will have many a curse.
- 28 When the wicked rise up,
men hide themselves,
but when they perish, the righteous increase.

29 He who shows himself stubborn after many rebukes will suddenly be destroyed,
and that without remedy.

- 2 When the righteous are in authority
the people rejoice,
but when the wicked rule,
the people mourn.
- 3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father,
but he who associates with prostitutes squanders his wealth.
- 4 The king gives stability to the land by justice,
but he who accepts bribes overthrows it.
- 5 A man who flatters his neighbour is spreading a net for his feet.
- 6 In the transgression of an evil man
there is a snare,
but the righteous sing and rejoice.
- 7 The righteous are concerned with the

- cause of the poor,
but the wicked do not consider it.
- 8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare,
but wise men turn away wrath.
- 9 If a wise man argues with a foolish man,
whether he rages or laughs,
there is no rest.
- 10 The bloodthirsty hate the upright,
but the righteous seek to make his soul secure.
- 11 A fool utters everything in his mind,
but a wise person holds it back until later.
- 12 If a ruler listens to lies,
all his servants become wicked.
- 13 The poor and the oppressor have this in common:
the LORD gives light to the eyes of both.
- 14 As for the king who judges the poor
with truth,
his throne will be established forever.
- 15 The rod and correction give wisdom, but a child left to himself brings his mother to shame.
- 16 When the wicked are multiplied,
transgression increases,
but the righteous will see their fall.
- 17 Correct your son and he will give you comfort,
yes, he will give delight to your soul.
- 18 Where there is no vision,
the people perish,
but he who keeps the law, happy is he.

28:25 29:25; Ps 2:12; 37:40; 40:4; 125:1.

28:26 These two verses (25,26) reveal a choice that will have profound results in all aspects of our life on earth and into eternity. The wise man trusts in God, the fool trusts himself, his own opinions, his intellect, his reasoning power, etc.

28:27 14:21; 22:9; Deut 24:19; Ps 41:1; Matt 25:42. Again the importance of helping the poor is emphasized. God sees the poor and He sees what we do or do not do to help them.

29:1 6:15; 24:22; Lev 26:14-17,23-25; Deut 28:15,20; 2 Chron 36:15-17; Ps 64:7; Isa 47:11; Jer 19:15; 36:31; 1 Thess 5:3; Heb 2:2,3; 12:25.

29:3 10:1; 23:15,16.

29:4 15:27 (note); 16:12.

29:5 26:28; Ps 55:21. A person who flatters another is out to accomplish some selfish purpose of his own.

29:6 "A snare" - 1:18; 5:22; 22:5; 26:27; Gen 4:7; Num 32:23; John 8:34.

"Rejoice" - Ps 4:7; 32:11; 64:10; 97:11; Isa 35:10.

29:7 28:27; 31:8,9; Ps 41:1; 82:2-4.

29:8 16:14; Jam 3:17,18; Num 16:46-48; 25:3,7,10-13. Jesus who is the wisdom of God, sacrificed Himself and turned away the holy anger of God from sinful men who put their trust in Him.

29:10 Verse 27; Gen 4:8; 1 Sam 18:10; Est 3:8,9; Ps 11:2; 57:4; 64:2-4; Dan 3:19,20; John 15:18,19; 1 John 3:12. The world is a battlefield where the righteous and the wicked are involved in a very important conflict. It has been such from the days of Cain and Abel, and will be to the end of this age. The righteous God and His righteous people are at war with wickedness, and the wicked are at war with righteousness. In this struggle there is no such thing as non-alignment or neutrality. See Judges 5:23. 29:11 16:32.

29:12 If a leader does not want the truth he will surround himself with wicked people who tell him pleasant lies (see 1 Kings 22:1-8).

29:14 See 16:12; 28:27; Ps 72:1-5; Isa 9:7.

29:15 See 13:24 (note).

29:16 10:25; 14:11; 21:12. The righteous will eventually see the downfall of the whole evil world system and all its wickedness. This will be the final result of the struggle mentioned in vs 10,27. See Ps 1:6.

29:17 Discipline will help to form character and train children in the way they should go. This is the reason God Himself disciplines His children - Heb 12:6-11.

29:18 Vision here means revelations from

- 19 A servant will not be corrected by mere words, for though he understands he will not respond.
- 20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- 21 He who pampers his servant from childhood at length will have him become his son.
- 22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a furious man commits many transgressions.
- 23 A man's pride will bring him low, but the humble in spirit will obtain honour.
- 24 Whoever is partner with a thief hates his own soul; he hears the oath but tells nothing.
- 25 The fear of man brings a snare, but whoever puts his trust in the LORD will be safe.
- 26 Many seek the ruler's favour, but a man's justice comes from the LORD.
- 27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just, and he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the oracle.

- The man spoke to Ithiel, yes, to Ithiel and Ucal:
- 2 Surely I am more stupid than any man, and do not have the understanding of a man.
- 3 I have not learned wisdom,

- nor do I have the knowledge of the holy.
- 4 Who has ascended into heaven, or descended? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you can tell?
- 5 Every word of God is pure. He is a shield to those who put their trust in him.
- 6 Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you, and you are found to be a liar.
- 7 Two things I have asked of you, LORD; do not refuse them to me before I die:
- 8 Keep falsehood and lies far from me; give me neither poverty nor riches, but feed me with my allotted portion of food,
- 9 Or I may become full, and deny you, and say, "Who is the LORD?," or if I am poor I may steal and bring dishonour to the name of my God.
- 10 Do not accuse a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.
- 11 There is a generation that curses its father, and does not bless its mother.
- 12 There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes,

God given in visions, which was one way God revealed His truth in those times (note at Gen 15:1). Without God's revelation of truth people will do as they please (Jud 21:25; 1 Sam 3:1; Lam 2:9).

"Perish" – the literal meaning of the Hebrew word is "unrestrained", "wild."

"Happy" or "blessed" – 8:32; 28:14; Deut 28:1,2; Ps 1:1,2; 119:1,2.

29:20 26:12; Jam 1:19.

29:22 15:18; Ps 4:4; Eph 4:26.

29:23 15:33; 16:18; 18:12.

29:24 Lev 5:1.

29:25 "Fear of man" – 1 Sam 15:24; Isa 5:12,13; John 12:42,43. Fear of man may keep people from doing what they know is right to do. Such fear need have no place in those who trust in the Lord. They are safe forever (Ps 23:4; 27:1; 34:7; 49:5; 56:4; Matt 10:26,28).

29:26 If we get any justice in this world it will be God who causes it to happen.

29:27 Verse 10; Ps 97:10; 119:104; 139:21,22 (note).

30:1 We know nothing of Agur or Ithiel or Ucal except what we have in this chapter. They are not mentioned anywhere else in the Bible. The word "oracle" usually denotes a revelation given through a prophet

30:2,3 The way to wisdom is to know one's ignorance. God does not reveal His wisdom to those proud of their knowledge (1 Kings 4:7; Jer 1:6; 1 Cor 1:19-21; 8:2; Jam 4:6). What wisdom Agur had was not his own; it was given from heaven – an oracle.

30:4 Agur here uses questions such as God asked Job (Job chapter 38) to show man's ignorance. We now know from the revelation in the New Testament who has gone up to heaven and come down and who the "son" is (John 3:13; Eph 4:7-10; Rom 1:2-4; Rev 19:12,16).

30:5 Ps 12:6; 18:30; Gen 15:1.

30:6 Deut 4:2; 12:32; Rev 22:18,19.

30:7-9 See the importance Agur gives to honesty and integrity. All those whom God used to write the Bible had the same view. Here is a searching question – if we had only two requests to make to God what would they be? Compare 2 Chron 1:7-12; Ps 27:4. No wise man would ask for wealth or power or position in this world, unless his only motive was to serve God with them.

- and yet is not washed from its filthiness.
- 13 There is a generation – oh, how haughty are their eyes!
And their eyelids are raised in disdain.
- 14 There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
and whose jaw teeth are like knives,
to devour the poor from the earth,
and the needy from among men.
- 15 The leech has two daughters, crying, “Give, give.”
There are three things that are never satisfied,
yes, four things never say, “Enough”:
- 16 The grave, and the barren womb,
the earth that is not filled with water,
and the fire that does not say, “Enough.”
- 17 The eye of him who mocks at his father,
and scorns obedience to his mother, will be plucked out by the ravens of the valley,
and the young eagles will eat it.
- 18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me, yes, four which I do not understand:
- 19 The way of an eagle in the air,
the way of a serpent on a rock,
the way of a ship in the middle of the sea,
and the way of a man with a maiden.
- 20 This is the way of an adulterous woman:
she eats, and wipes her mouth,
and says, “I have done nothing wrong!”
- 21 Under three things the earth shakes,

- and under these four it cannot hold up:
- 22 Under a servant when he reigns,
and a fool when he is filled with food,
- 23 Under an unloved woman when she is married,
and a maidservant who supplants her mistress.
- 24 There are four things which are little on the earth,
but they are exceedingly wise:
- 25 The ants are not a strong folk,
yet they prepare their food in summer;
- 26 The conies, are only a feeble folk,
yet they make their houses in the rocks;
- 27 The locusts have no king,
yet they all go out in ranks;
- 28 The spider takes hold with its hands,
and is in kings’ palaces.
- 29 There are three things which go at a stately pace,
yes, four are stately when they move:
- 30 A lion which is mighty among beasts
and does not turn aside for anything;
- 31 A strutting rooster; also a he-goat;
and a king, against whom there is no rebellion.
- 32 If you have done foolishly in exalting yourself,
or if you have plotted evil,
lay your hand on your mouth.
- 33 Surely the churning of milk produces butter,
and the wringing of the nose brings out blood;
so the churning of wrath produces strife.

30:24-28 Practical lessons can be learned and spiritual applications can be made from observing animals. Here are four lessons gained from four weak and insignificant creatures – providing for the future (6:6-8; 27:23-27; Matt 6:19,20), finding refuge (Ps 2:12; 7:1; 11:1; Heb 6:18), united effort (Acts 4:32; 1 Cor 1:10; Eph 4:3), and finding a home in the king’s palace (John 14:2-6; Rev 3:12).

“Conies” – probably the creatures known as rock badgers.

30:31 The last sentence of this verse could also be translated “and a king secure against revolt.”

30:32 “Mouth” – Job 40:4; Rom 3:19. If we have sinned let us repent and not make any effort to defend ourselves.

30:33 6:14; 15:1; 29:22.

31:1 Lemuel was never king in Israel, so he was of some other nation or city. He is not referred to anywhere else in the Bible. His name means belonging to God or devoted to God.

“Oracle” – note at 30:1.

“Mother” – who can estimate the value of a godly mother who dedicates her children to God and teaches them the truth of God? See Deut 6:6,7; 1 Sam 1:21-28; 2 Tim 1:5; 3:15.

and strengthens her arms.

for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
- 22 She makes for herself coverings of tapestry;
her clothing is silk and purple.
- 23 Her husband is known in the gates,
when he sits among the elders of the land.
- 24 She makes fine linen and sells it,
and delivers sashes to the merchant.
- 25 Strength and honour are her clothing,
and she rejoices in the future.
- 26 She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
- 27 She looks well to the ways of her household,
and does not eat the bread of idleness.
- 28 Her children rise up and call her blessed;

"Who are facing destruction" - literally,
"sons of destruction."

31:10 In other words, such women, though rare, are well worth searching for. Her good qualities are far more valuable than any dowry that could be offered. They will be great blessings in both practical and spiritual ways to their husbands and children.
Such a woman is what she is because she fears the Lord (v 30). Without the fear of the Lord there is no truly noble character, no real spirituality, no wisdom worthy of the name.

"Virtuous" - the Hebrew word literally means "strong" or "able" or "efficient."

31:11,12 12:4.

31:13-27 She is hard-working (vs 13,15, 17,27),

Shows good business sense (vs 16,18, 24),
Has compassion on the poor (v 20),

Plans for the changing seasons
(v 21,22,25),

Is an honor to her husband (v 23),
Has strength of character (v 25),
Has the wisdom to instruct her children and to advise others (v 26),

And can well manage the affairs of her household (v 27).

If it is God's will for you to marry, search for such an one! Do not consider lesser things. If one like this is found, all your efforts will be well rewarded. How sad it is that when looking for a wife so many people (including many Christians) think mainly of how much the (illegal) dowry will be, or what her caste is, or what her job qualifications or degrees, or some other such consideration which means nothing in God's eyes and should mean nothing in ours.

31:28 Such a wife is blessed by God and a source of blessing to others.

31:29 Women who have big careers, who accomplish much in society or government or some field of science or art may gain praise and fame, but in God's eyes such are not the equal of this kind of woman, unless they have her qualities. Let us learn to look at matters as God sees them.

"Virtuously" - see v 10.

31:30 1 Pet 3:3-5. If only young women but the woman who fears the LORD,

she will be praised.

31 Give her the product of her hands,
and let her own works praise her in the gates.

would give up vain pursuits and seek the really important things, the noble character described in the preceding verses could become theirs. Proverbs closes as it opens with emphasis on the fear of the LORD

31:31 She has earned the reward of respect and praise. They who fear the Lord should be honored by men, and will certainly be honored by God.

ECCLESIASTES

Author :

The book itself does not give us the name of the author, but most of the indications point to King Solomon. See 1:1,12,16; 2:4-9; 12:9.

Solomon reigned 970-930 BC. He wrote this book probably toward the end of his life.

Theme :

What is good in this world? Is it possible to make life meaningful? What is the purpose of this life we must live? These are the kinds of questions that stirred Solomon to search for the truth about life. God decided to show that the total of what is known to men is very little. He wanted to make known to them how empty and meaningless life is for those who are at a distance from Himself. He determined to have this truth written down and included in the Bible. He chose the individual who should reveal this truth through his own researches and experiences and write it down. He made that individual wiser than any other man who ever lived, wiser than Socrates or Buddha or Confucius or anyone else who ever gained a reputation for wisdom (except, of course, the Lord Jesus Christ who is more than a mere man and is Himself the "wisdom of God" (1 Cor 1:24,30; Col 2:2,3,9). Also God made that individual richer than any other person on earth. He gave him the opportunities and the abilities to experience everything than men can experience. Also God gave him an intellect that wanted to inquire into everything, the kind of mind that could thoroughly examine evidence and weigh it carefully, and a powerful desire to discover the meaning of life. The man God chose is Solomon. One of the results of God's choice is this little book of Ecclesiastes. We can learn from it that man's wisdom, thoughts and efforts are not enough to discover the truth about life and its meaning. For that we need the Word of God. In that alone we can find a foundation for a satisfying and meaningful life, and a happy eternity.

- 1 The words of the teacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.
- 2 Vanity of vanities, says the teacher, vanity of vanities. All is vanity.
- 3 What profit does a man have from all his labour which he undertakes under the sun?
- 4 One generation passes away and another generation comes, but the earth remains forever.
- 5 The sun also rises, and the sun goes down and hurries to its place where it rose.
- 6 The wind goes toward the south and turns around to the north; it swirls about continually, and the wind returns again on its circuits.
- 7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full. To the place from which the rivers come, there they return again.
- 8 All things are wearisome; man cannot utter it. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, or the ear filled with hearing.
- 9 The thing that has been, is what will be; and what has been done is what will be done; and there is no new thing under the sun.
- 10 Is there anything of which it may be said, "See, this is new?" It has already been in olden

1:1 We see in 12:9,10 what Solomon did as a "teacher" – he searched for knowledge, tried to find the best words to express it, and taught the people with righteous and true words. The Hebrew word here translated "teacher" could also be translated "preacher" or "guru." In Solomon's case much of his teaching was done, it seems, by writing rather than speaking. Ecclesiastes, Song of songs, and most of Proverbs are from his pen (and from God who inspired him to write).

1:2,3 Solomon did not mean that the fear of God, and obedience to God's Word are vain (see 12:1,13). See too Paul's words in 1 Cor 15:58). He meant that all of man's activities "under the sun" – that is, on his own and apart from God – are vain. This key phrase "under the sun" occurs 29 times in this book. A similar phrase "under heaven" occurs 3 times. The word "vanity" occurs 35 times. This is very remarkable in so small a book. At the end Solomon indicates that man can be what he ought to be, can escape from the vanity of life under the sun, only by having a right relationship to God and those things which are above the sun.

"Vanity" – the Hebrew word literally means a breath, or a breeze, a vapour or mist or darkness. From that it came to mean something that was empty or futile.

1:4-11 Solomon now begins to give his reasons for saying all is vanity under the sun. Though the earth permanently remains, all men must die and leave it (v 4). In Ecclesiastes death is a dark shadow cast over all of life (2:16,18,21; 3:2,18-20; 5:15,16; 6:12; 7:2; 8:8; 9:2-6,12; 12:5-8). A brief existence that is taken up only with the things of earth must be meaningless. If this life is all there is for the individual, times, which were before us.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; nor will there be any remembrance of things that are to come by those who will come afterwards.

12 I, the teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom everything that is done under heaven; this unhappy task God has given to the sons of man to be occupied with.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, look, all is emptiness and chasing the wind.

15 What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be counted.

16 I spoke in my own heart, saying, "Look, I have amassed and acquired more wisdom than all those who have been before me in Jerusalem; yes, my heart has had great experience in wisdom and knowledge."

17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly; I have come to see that this also is striving for wind.

18 For in much wisdom is much grief; and he then life is a tiresome burden and not worth living. There can never be any permanent satisfaction in studying the ceaseless cycles of nature which do not change (vs 5-8); there can be no hope that something really new will come along that can give men ultimate satisfaction in this world (vs 9,10); achievements that bring name and fame are also vain, even if people remember them, and they won't remember them for long (v 11).

1:12-14 Solomon did not reach his conclusion about the vanity of life on earth through ignorance or superficial examination. He made the most thorough search of this subject that was possible to him, perhaps the most thorough search any man ever made.

1:14 "Chasing the wind" – this phrase occurs 9 times. It signifies completely useless, fruitless effort.

"Chasing" – or "grasping for." The Hebrew word does not mean "vexation." "wind" – or breath or spirit.

1:15 He gives here two further reasons for the uselessness of human effort – much is crooked and wrong in man's existence on earth, but man cannot make it right; and there are so many things lacking for a fully satisfying life that man cannot even know all of them, let alone supply the lack.

1:16 Who but Solomon could truly say this? (1 Kings 3:12; 4:29-31).

1:17,18 "Madness and folly" – is this a partial explanation of 1 Kings 11:1-8? Solomon did not leave any stone unturned in his search for meaning in life. He investigated matters it is better for men in general to leave alone. In his explorations he went into realms of foolishness and darkness (2:3,8,10,12; 7:25). He wanted to experience whatever it was possible to who gains more knowledge gains more sorrow.

2 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure; so enjoy pleasant things; and, look, this also was emptiness.

2 I said of laughter, "It is madness!", and of pleasure, "What does it accomplish?"

3 I sought in my heart to give myself to wine, while my heart was still guiding me with wisdom, and to lay hold on folly, until I could see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their life.

4 I undertook great works. I built houses for myself. I planted vineyards for myself.

5 I made gardens and orchards for myself, and in them I planted trees bearing all kinds of fruit.

6 I made pools of water for myself, with which to water a forest of growing trees.

7 I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves born in my house. I also had great possessions of large and small cattle, more than all who were in Jerusalem before me.

8 I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I obtained male and female singers for myself and things delightful to the sons of men, musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. Also my wisdom remained with me.

experience to see if there was any sense to any of it. He is not an example to us in this. We need not enter those depths where he went. His experiences and conclusions are set forth by God in this His Word to teach us important lessons so that we might avoid the way he went. Solomon came back from the realms of foolishness and darkness and declares to us that there is nothing there but useless, fruitless, vain activity. Even the pursuit of human wisdom apart from God is an empty thing and in the end brings only sadness.

2:1-10 In his search for meaning in life Solomon turns to pleasures, even mad and foolish pleasures. He declares his purpose in v 3. He is tormented by the supreme question every man should ask. In our brief life on earth what should we be doing? Is there anything really worthwhile? Is there some good that men should pursue? Observe that he does not here go to the one place men should go for the answers to such questions - the Word of God. As the source of information he puts his own thoughts and experimentations. Notice 1:16; 2:1,15; 3:18; etc - "I said in my heart."

2:4 Some of Solomon's great projects are recorded in 1 Kings chapters 6-10.

2:9 These words could have been spoken truly only by King Solomon (1 Kings 10:7,23; 1 Chron 29:25; 2 Chron 1:1,12.)

10 And I did not refuse my eyes whatever they desired. I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, for my heart was pleased in all my labour, and this was my reward for all my labour.

11 Then I looked at all the works that my hands had done, and at the labour that I had undertaken to do, and, see, all was emptiness and chasing the wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned to look at wisdom, and madness, and folly; for what can the man do who succeeds the king? Only what has already been done.

13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as much as light excels darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. And I saw also that one event happens to them all.

15 Then I said in my heart, "It will happen to me just as it happens to the fool, and why was I then more wise?" Then I said in my heart that this also is emptiness.

16 For there is no more permanent remembrance of the wise than of the fool, since what now is will be forgotten in days to come. And how does the wise man die? Like the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun brings sadness to me; for all is emptiness and chasing the wind.

18 Yes, I hated all the results of my labour which I had done under the sun, because I would

2:10 He was in a condition where he could have anything he wanted and he denied himself nothing. He indulged himself in every pleasure of the flesh, the senses, and the mind (compare this with the words of the Lord Jesus in Luke 9:23,24).

2:11 Solomon experienced some satisfaction in his work for a little while, but when it was all over this was his conclusion - nothing was worth doing. He had not found the secret of a meaningful life. He found no joy in wealth and pleasure.

2:12-17 So he takes up again thoughts of wisdom and folly. For man's brief stay on earth he concludes that wisdom is far superior to folly. But since all must die even this superiority comes at last to nothing. Since death destroys all these distinctions he thinks that life is meaningless.

2:17 Life without meaning is painful, hateful, intolerable. Let us understand from this what God wants us to understand, namely, that without God, without heavenly purpose, without life eternal that comes through the Lord Jesus, life is empty and futile.

2:18-23 Solomon sees that there is no permanent value in all the great works he has accomplished, in the vast possessions he has acquired. He knows that he must die and leave all of it behind (see also Ps 39:6; 49:10; Luke 12:20,21,33; 1 Tim 6:6-10).

leave it to the man who succeeds me.

19 And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have the control of all the results of my labour for which I have worked, and in which I have displayed my wisdom under the sun. This is also emptiness.

20 Therefore I utterly despaired in my heart of all the labour which I had done under the sun.

21 When there is a man who has laboured with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with skill, still he will leave his portion to a man who has not worked for it. This also is emptiness and a great wrong.

22 For what does a man have for all his labour, and for his hearty striving, with which he has laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are painful and grievous; yes, his heart cannot rest at night. This is also emptiness.

24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that his soul should find pleasure in his work. I also saw that this is from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten to it, more than I?

26 For to a man who is pleasing in his sight God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy, but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and collecting, so that he may give it to the one who is pleasing in God's presence. This also is emptiness and chasing the wind.

3 To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:

2A time to be born and a time to die;
a time to plant and a time to uproot
what is planted.

3A time to kill and a time to heal;
a time to break down and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn and a time to dance;

5 A time to throw stones away,
and a time to gather stones;
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to get and a time to lose;
a time to search and a time to give up;

7 A time to tear and a time to sew;
a time to keep silent and a time to speak;

8 A time to love and a time to hate;
a time of war and a time of peace.

9 What profit does the worker have from that in which he labours?

10 I have seen the task which God has given to the sons of men to be exercised with.

11 He has made everything beautiful in its time; also he has set eternity in their heart, yet no man can find out the work that God has done from beginning to end.

12 I know that there is nothing better for them than for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life,

13 And also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good results of all his labour; it is the gift of God.

14 I know that whatever God does, it will be forever; nothing can be added to it, and nothing taken away from it; and God does it so that men will fear in his presence.

15 That which has been, still is, and that which is to be has already been; and God requires what is past.

16 And, moreover, under the sun I saw the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for there is a time there for

2:24-26 Solomon thinks that all anyone can do is to make the best of a bad situation and try to find some little happiness in this brief life by submitting to God. Verse 25 is very obscure in Hebrew and so there is a variety of translations.

3:1-9 Solomon turns from thoughts of his own works and experiments to the world outside. Is there anything there to give life meaning? No. There is only a meaningless cycle of activities. What is done in one time is undone in another. He is not saying each man should do or will do all the things in this list; only that this is the general course of life on earth. And in all of it put together he cannot see anything of permanent value (v 9).

3:10-15 Any satisfaction in life he can get now comes from thoughts of God. God's works are beautiful and beyond man's understanding (v 11), perfect and permanent (v 14). But man cannot understand what

God has done and is doing, so it is better, he says, to stop being concerned about it and try to find some happiness in his own works (vs 12,13. Also v 22 and 1:24).

In v 11 there is this significant phrase – "He has set eternity in their heart." This is one reason why the things of time, all that is passing and impermanent fail to satisfy our heart.

3:14 The fear of the Lord is a theme he often wrote about (5:7; 7:18; 8:12,13; 12:13; Prov 1:7; 9:10; 15:33). To produce it in men is one basic reason for God's actions in the world. It is of supreme importance in a life pleasing to God (notes at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; 130:3,4). In Solomon's eyes it is one thing that is not meaningless, for it has to do with Him who is above the sun.

3:15 "God requires what is past" – or it might also be translated "God calls back the past."

3:16,17 Injustice in the world is a fact that every purpose and for every work.”

18 I said in my heart concerning the matter of the sons of men, that God tests them that they might see that they are like beasts.

19 For what happens to the sons of men happens to beasts; the same thing happens to them. The one dies just as the other dies; yes, they all have the same breath, so that a man has no advantage over a beast; for all is emptiness.

20 All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all return to dust again.

21 Who knows the spirit of man which goes upward, and the spirit of the beast which goes downward to the earth?

22 Therefore I saw that there is nothing better than that a man rejoice in his own works; for that is his lot. For who will bring him to see what will be after him?

4 So again I considered all the acts of oppression that are done under the sun, and saw the tears of those being oppressed; and they had no comfortor, and the power was on the side of their oppressors; but they had no comfortor.

2 Therefore I praised the dead who have already died more than the living who are still alive.

3 Yes, better off than both of them is the one who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 Again I considered all labour and all successful achievement, that it comes from man's envy of his neighbour. This is also emptiness and chasing the troubled the minds of many thoughtful persons in the Bible (Job 24:1-12; Ps 10:1-12; 13:1,2; 73:2-12; Hab 1:2-11). Solomon knew that the only answer for man's injustice is God's just judgments overturning the false judgments of men. But he did not know when or how this will take place. (Christians now know – Matt 16:27; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:2-11.)

3:18-21 Observe carefully his words in v 18 (also 2:1,15) – “I said in my heart.” These verses (and some others in this book) are not a revelation God gave him but how things appeared to him with his human wisdom. We must not get our doctrine from what Solomon thought, but from what God has revealed through His Son the Lord Jesus Christ. Solomon himself learned the truth of his question in v 21 and stated it in 12:7. But man with his unaided reasoning can never find the answer to what happens after death. God must reveal it. We have this revelation in the Bible, to some extent in the Old Testament, fully in the New Testament (see Job 10:21,22; Ps 16:9-11; 49:15; Isa 26:19; Dan 12:2,3; 2 Tim 1:10).

4:1 Solomon looks about the world again and finds it hard to practice the principle he lays down for others in 1:24; 2:24; 3:12,13,22. He is utterly depressed by what he sees – the senseless cruelty (vs 1-3), wind.

5 The fool folds his hands together, and consumes his own flesh.

6 Better is a handful with quietness, than both hands full with labour and chasing the wind.

7 Then again I looked at emptiness under the sun.

8 There is someone without another; also, he has neither child nor brother; yet there is no end to all his labour, nor is his eye satisfied with riches, nor does he say, “For whom do I labour, and deprive my soul of good things?” This is also emptiness; yes, it is a sorry business.

9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he has no one else to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie down together, then they have warmth; but how can one be warm alone?

12 And while one can overpower him who is alone, two can withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor and a wise youth than an old and foolish king who will no longer accept advice.

14 For he may come out of prison to reign, even though he may have been born poor in his kingdom.

15 I saw that all the living under the sun side with the second youth who takes his place.

16 There is no end to all these people, to all who were before them; also those who come later achievement produced by envy (v 4), foolishness (vs 5,6), lonely and dissatisfied toil (vs 7-12), and the meaninglessness of high position and popularity (vs 13-16). It is all a vain and empty show. All of man's activities are pointless and fruitless. There is nothing in any of them to admire, nothing that points to the good thing that a man should do all the days of his life.

Solomon saw something at least of what John put so clearly in his first letter:

“For all that is in the world – the desire of the flesh and the desire of the eyes and the pride of life is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passes away, and its desires with it; but whoever does the will of God lives forever” (see 1 John 2:15-17).

Solomon concludes that life in this kind of world is so bad that death is better, and not being born at all is the best of all (vs 2,3. See notes at Job 3:1,20-22).

How thankful we should be for the revelations of the New Testament! There we see the eternal value and meaning of human activity performed for Christ's glory (Matt 10:42; John 12:26; 1 Cor 15:58). A true Christian need never despair because of what he experiences or sees in this world. God has a wonderful purpose and will fulfill it (Rom 8:18-30).

will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is emptiness and chasing the wind.

5 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God, and draw near to listen rather than to give the sacrifice of fools; for they do not know they are doing evil.

2 Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart be hasty to speak anything in God's presence; for God is in heaven, and you on earth, so let your words be few.

3 For a dream comes through the abundance of business, and a fool's voice is known through the abundance of words.

4 When you make a vow to God, do not be slow in paying it, for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you have vowed.

5 It is better for you not to vow than that you vow and not pay.

6 Do not let your mouth cause your body to sin, nor say before the temple messenger that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your words, and destroy the work of your hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there is also emptiness; but your must fear God.

8 If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violation of judgment and justice in a province, do not be surprised at the matter; for one official has a higher one watching over him; and there are higher ones than they.

9 Moreover the produce of the earth is for all; the king himself is served by the fields.

10 He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver, nor he who loves wealth with his income. This also is emptiness.

11 When goods increase, those who eat them increase; and what benefit is there to their owners, except to fix his eyes on them?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet,

5:1-7 Solomon now turns to the matter of religion. It is the one thing he does not think is vain, the thing that men should have above everything (note on 3:14). But he sees very little of it that seems real to him. Most people dream of prosperity and success and are willing to make even foolish vows, and speak many empty words to God. In other words, what passes for religion with most people is a vain, empty, worthless thing. See notes at Ps 50:7-21; Isa 1:11-17. Compare Matt 15:8,9; 23:2-32. 5:8-17 Society is full of corruption and self-seeking. Men struggle for wealth which is meaningless. In v 8 Solomon tells us not to be surprised at what happens. He has learned that corruption in society comes from greed and injustice in men's hearts. Corrupt human beings cannot produce satisfactory societies (7:20; 9:3).

5:10-12 Instead of bringing satisfaction, more and more wealth produces more and whether he eats little or much, but the wealth of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches being hoarded by their owners to their hurt.

14 But those riches are lost through a bad venture, and when he becomes the father of a son there is nothing in his hand.

15 As he came naked out of his mother's womb, so he will depart as he came, and take nothing from his labour which he can carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a grievous evil, that he will go just as he came; and what profit does he have who has laboured for the wind?

17 Also all his days he eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow and wrath and sickness.

18 See what I have seen: it is good and proper for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; for this is his lot.

19 Also concerning every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to partake of it, and to accept his lot and to rejoice in his labour, this is the gift of God.

20 For he will not reflect much on the days of his life, because God keeps him occupied with the gladness in his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 There is a man to whom God has given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he lacks nothing of all his soul desires, but God has not given him power to partake of it, and a stranger consumes it. This is emptiness, and it is a grievous affliction.

3 If a man becomes the father of a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, and his soul is not filled with more worry. These words were written, not by a poor man who envied the rich, but by one of the richest persons who ever lived.

5:13-16 Riches are not lasting even in this world, and nothing can be taken out of the world when a man dies (2:18-23). The only riches we can keep forever are those we give away. See Matt 6:19,20; Luke 12:33; 18:22). Selfishness will end in self-destruction and the loss of everything the selfish man pursues for himself.

5:17 This is the result of a life lived for the things of this world. God has made us for Himself, not for anything less. If we live for those lesser things our lives will end in misery.

5:18-20 Solomon returns to the thoughts expressed in 2:24-26 and 3:12-14. If there is any happiness for man on earth it is the gift of God.

6:1-6 Solomon has said it is good for men to find satisfaction and happiness in their work. But he well knows that many are never good, and also he does not have a proper burial, I say that a still-born child is better off than he.

4 For it comes in with emptiness, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness.

5 Moreover it has not seen the sun, or known anything. This one has more rest than the other;

6 Yea, even though he lives twice a thousand years, but has seen no good. Do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not satisfied.

8 For what has the wise more than the fool? What benefit does the poor have who knows how to walk before the living?

9 Better is what the eyes see than the wandering of the desire. This is also emptiness and chasing the wind.

10 What has been is already named, and it is known what man is; no one can contend with him who is mightier than he.

11 Since there are many things that increase emptiness, what is man the better?

12 For who knows what is good for man in this life, all the days of his futile life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will come after him under the sun?

7 A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, for that is the end of all men; and the living should take it to his heart.

3 Sorrow is better than laughter, for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure.

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For the laughter of fools is like the crackling of thorns under a pot. This also is emptiness.

7 Surely oppression makes a wise man foolish, and a bribe destroys the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than its beginning, and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit to anger, for anger rests in the bosom of fools.

10 Do not say, "Why is it that former days were better than these?" For you are not asking wisely concerning this.

11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance, and those who see the sun will have benefit from it.

12 For wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense, but the excellence of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who have it.

13 Consider the work of God; for who can straighten what he has made crooked?

14 Be happy in the day of prosperity, but in the day of adversity consider. God has made the one as well as the other, so that man should not discover what comes after him.

15 I have seen everything in the days of my futility. There is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who able to do this. The meaninglessness of life finds them out. Again he says that it is better for such people if they had never been born (4:2,3).

6:6 "One place" – he here means the grave, not what may happen beyond the grave.

6:7-9 Man continually tries to find satisfaction in the world, but never can. Both the rich and the poor, the wise and the foolish are victims of their desires.

6:10,11 God knows all about man and everything else. He is the Almighty and no one can win an argument with Him. The more one multiplies words in his argument the more he says what is meaningless (compare Job 9:1-4; 38:1,2; 40:1-5; 42:1-6). 6:12 Solomon admits failure to find in the world what he set out to find (2:3). The wisest man who ever lived (1 Kings 3:12) confesses his ignorance. See also 7:23,24; 8:17.

7:1-6 Solomon is convinced of the meaninglessness of his own life (v 15). Still he is sure that wisdom is better than folly and that there is a wise way of looking at things, and a wise way of living this brief life. He now sets out to describe what he thinks is the way of wisdom. He continues this theme to the end of the book.

7:1 4:2,3; 6:3.

7:2 The wise man will not reject the thought of death but will face it and learn much needed lessons from it.

7:3-6 It is far more important for the heart to become wise than for men to go into empty pleasures which, for a time, bring laughter to the face. Sorrow can teach important lessons nothing else can teach.

7:5 Ps 141:5; Prov 13:18; 15:31,32.

7:7 Ex 23:8; Lev 19:15; Deut 10:17; Ps 26:10; Prov 6:35; 15:27; 17:8.

7:8 Prov 14:29; Jam 1:4.

7:9 Prov 16:32; 17:14; 1 Cor 13:4,5.

7:11-14 1:15. What God does man cannot undo. And what God may do no one can tell (3:11; 8:17; Rom 11:33). God creates either good times or bad according to His perfect knowledge of what is just, right, and fitting for a people and a place. God wants men to consider their ways, turn to Him, recognize Him as the giver of all good things, and come to revere, trust, and love Him alone.

7:15-18 Verse 15 gives a truth that Job knew and Job's friends refused to consider (Job prolongs his life in his wickedness.

16 Do not be too righteous; neither be overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself?

17 Do not be too wicked; neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time?

18 It is good for you to grasp the one, and not to let your hand go from the other; for he who fears God will depart from all extremes.

19 Wisdom strengthens the wise more than ten mighty men who are in the city.

20 For there is not a just man on earth who does good and who does not sin.

21 Also do not take heed to every word that is spoken, or you may hear your servant curse you;

22 For also your own heart knows that you yourself have often cursed others.

23 All this I have tested by wisdom. I said, "I will be wise", but it was far from me.

24 Who can discover what is far off and exceeding deep?

25 I applied my heart to know and to search and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, and of foolishness and madness;

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands like chains. Whoever pleases God will escape from her, but the sinner will be taken by her.

27 Look, I have discovered this, says the 21:4-34). The wise man Solomon knew very well that sometimes the good die young and the wicked live on to a ripe old age. He probably means that some righteous people perish at the hands of the wicked.

7:16-18 It is not easy to see exactly what Solomon meant by his words in v 16. Possibly he was warning against self-righteousness and pride of wisdom. Perhaps he is making a false conclusion from his own worldly wisdom. Remember, this book gives Solomon's thoughts about what is best for men, not what God may think. All he says must be tested by the revelation God has given through Christ and His apostles.

Possibly Solomon means this: In a meaningless and wicked world for a man to try to push righteousness too far is to make himself an object of hatred and may cost him his life (compare Isa 59:15). If men do not desire righteousness it is useless and dangerous to force it on them. See Matt 7:6. We must be as righteous in our personal lives as it is possible to be, but we are not to be the accusers, prosecutors and judges of others who care nothing for our righteous principles. Of course great wickedness and foolishness are even more dangerous (v 17). It may bring the wrath of God as well as the wrath of men. The man who truly fears God will be able to discern the right course to follow (v 18).

teacher, adding one thing to another, to find out the explanation 28 which my soul is still seeking, but have not found: I have found one good man in a thousand, but I have not found a woman among all those.

29 Look, I have found only this: God has made man upright, but they have sought out many devices.

8 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the sternness of his face will be changed.

2 I counsel you to keep the king's command, because of the oath before God.

3 Do not be in a hurry to go out of his sight. Do not stand up for an evil thing, for he will do whatever pleases him.

4 Since the word of a king has power, who may say to him, "What are you doing?"

5 Whoever keeps the king's command will experience no harm; and a wise man's heart will discern both the proper time and procedure.

6 Because for every matter there is a time and procedure, though the misery of man is heavy on him.

7 For he does not know what will be, so who can tell him when it will be?

8 There is no man that has power over the spirit

Ecc 9:3; Rom 3:23. A truth known by every truly wise man.

7:23 1:17. Since he could not attain wisdom some of his conclusions were less than wise. See also 6:12; 8:17.

7:24 Job 28:12-28; 1 Cor 1:19-25; 2:4-8.

7:25 1:17.

7:26 Prov 2:16-19; 5:1-6.

7:27 This was the great search of his life.

7:28 A word that came out of much experience (1 Kings 11:1-4). But Solomon, it seems, went after the wrong sort of women and it is not surprising that what he found was poor quality. We should not think this is a divine revelation concerning all women.

7:29 Gen 1:26,27,31; 3:1-7. Since man's fall into sin all men seek how to get satisfaction in their own way without God.

8:1 In this chapter Solomon continues to give out some matters his wisdom has taught him.

8:2-5 See Rom 13:1-7; Titus 3:1; 1 Pet 2:13,14. A wise man knows that disobedience to the rulers God has appointed will bring even more misery to men. Of course, men's supreme obedience must be to God the heavenly King. If earthly rulers command things contrary to God's commands we are at liberty to disobey them (Acts 4:18-20; 5:29).

8:7 Jam 4:13-16.

8:8 "Over the spirit to retain the spirit" - to retain the spirit; neither has anyone power over the day of his death. And there is no discharge in war; nor will wickedness deliver those who practice it.

9 All this I have seen, and have applied my mind to every deed that is done under the sun. There is a time when one man rules another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, those who had gone in and out of the holy place, and they were forgotten in the city where they had done so. This also is emptiness.

11 Because sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men among them is fully set on doing evil.

12 Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and his days are prolonged, yet I know definitely that it will be well with those who fear God, who fear in his presence,

13 But it will not be well with the wicked, nor will he prolong his days, which are like a shadow; because he does not fear in God's presence.

14 There is an empty thing which is done on earth; there are righteous people to whom things happen in accordance with the deeds of the wicked, and there are wicked people to whom things happen in accordance with the work of the righteous. I said that this also is emptiness.

15 Then I commended pleasure, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat and to drink and to be merry, for this will remain with him in his labour during the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (and one's eyes may not see sleep day or night),

17 Then I saw all the work of God, and that a man cannot discover the work that is done under the sun. Because though a man labours to search it out, yet he will not find it; yes and though a wise man may think he knows, yet he will not be able to discover the truth about it.

9 For I considered all this in my heart to declare all of this: the righteous and the wise, and their deeds, are in the hand of God. No man knows whether there will be love or hatred in all that awaits him.

2 All things come alike to all. The same event comes to the righteous and to the wicked, to the good and to the clean and to the unclean, to him who offers sacrifice and to him who does not offer sacrifice; as it is to the good, so to the sinner, and to him who takes an oath as to him who fears to take an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is the same event to all.

this could also be translated "over the wind to retain the wind" (the same Hebrew word means both wind and spirit).

"Nor will wickedness deliver those who practice it" – sin is more powerful than the strongest person and brings people into bondage (John 8:34; Rom 6:16; 7:18). Those who begin to practice sin and then try to get free of it will find out how powerful it is. There is a war going on continually on earth. It is between evil and good, and evil will never willingly let go its captives as long as this war is going on. Only Jesus can free the captives – Luke 4:18; John 8:36.

8:9 "One man rules another" – this may bring harm both to those who do it and to those who have to suffer it (compare 1 Pet 5:1-3; Matt 20:25-27).

8:11 When there is no punishment for wrong doing people may think they can get away with anything. So God has appointed those who bear the sword (Rom 12:3,4).

8:12,13 He knew what all truly wise men know. But he did not know how and when it would go better with God-fearing men. The New Testament reveals it fully (e.g. Matt 25:31-46; John 5:28,29).

8:14 This shows that what Solomon said in vs 12,13 was a matter of faith, not of observation.

8:15 He returns to a previous conclusion (2:24; 3:12,13; 5:18,19). But there is a better way for men to live. That is to deny themselves for the sake of others and find their joy in Christ. See Luke 9:23; 14:27,33.

8:16,17 This wisest of men again confesses his ignorance (7:23,24. See Deut 29:29).

9:1 Solomon admitted that no one can understand what is going on in the world (8:17), but this did not keep him from considering matters and reaching some conclusions. Notice again that what follows gives his thoughts, not God's teaching. God revealed to us what Solomon thought but He did not put His stamp of approval on all of Solomon's thoughts.

9:2-6 He means that all die, all go to the grave. He does not know what may happen after death but he thinks the dead remain in silence and ignorance. Compare Job 10:20-22. Apart from God's revelation men may come to this conclusion, but the teaching of the New Testament is different (2 Cor 5:6-8; Phil 1:22,23; Heb 12:22-24; Rev 6:9-11; 7:9,10,13-17). It is far, far better to be a dead Christian believer than a living unbeliever.

9:3 7:20; Mark 7:20-23; Rom 1:29-32. A sinful life is like insanity. Men live as they please without God and without hope, violating God's laws and their own consciences, seemingly not caring about God's judgment and the punishment that awaits them. They are like men recklessly playing foolish games in a building burning and ready to collapse on their heads. In the light of the truth of the Bible, to run after the empty things of the world, to be filled with illusions

Moreover, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and afterwards they go to the dead.

4 For to him who is joined to all the living there is hope; for a live dog is better off than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they will die, but the dead do not know anything, nor do they any longer have a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love and their hatred and their envy have now perished; nor do they have any more share forever in anything that is done under the sun.

7 Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works.

8 Let your garments be always white, and do not let your head lack oil.

9 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love, all the days of the life of your futility which he has given you under the sun, all the days of your futility; for that is your lot in this life, and in your labour which you toil at under the sun.

10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or device or knowledge or wisdom in the grave where you are going.

11 Again, I saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong; nor is bread to the wise or riches to men of understanding or favour to men of skill, but time and chance happens to them all.

12 Also man does not know when his time will come; like fish caught in a harmful net and like birds caught in a snare, so the sons of men are ensnared in a bad time, when it suddenly falls on them.

13 Also I have seen this wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me:

14 There was a little town and few men in it; and there came a great king against it and besieged it, and built great siege works against it.

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and delusions of their worth, to chase after the wind and live for vanity is madness. Literal insanity means to be out of touch with reality. Spiritual insanity is to be out of touch with spiritual reality. The spiritually insane are deluded and regard their fantasies about the spiritual world as reality and reality as fantasy.

9:7-10 Here are more conclusions of the natural mind of Solomon unaided by divine revelation. He thinks that since death ends men's brief and meaningless life and they lie down in silence and ignorance, the best he can do is to work hard and enjoy life if he can. Solomon returns to this view again and again for he cannot see anything more worthwhile (2:24; 3:12,13; 5:18,19; 8:15).

and by his wisdom he delivered the city. But no one remembered that poor man.

16 Then I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom was despised, and his words were not heeded.

17 The words of wise men in quiet are to be heard more than the shout of the one who rules over fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

10 Dead flies cause the ointment of the perfumer to stink; so does a little folly him who has a reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart moves toward his right, but a fool's heart toward his left.

3 And even when the one who is a fool walks in the way, his wisdom fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for submission pacifies great offenses.

5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, like an error that proceeds from the ruler:

6 Folly is given a very high place, and the rich sit in a low place.

7 I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the ground.

8 He who digs a pit will fall into it, and whoever breaks through a hedge, will be bitten by a serpent.

9 Whoever quarries stones will be hurt with them, and he who splits wood will be endangered by it.

10 If the iron axe is dull, and he does not sharpen the edge, then he must exert more strength. And wisdom has the advantage of success.

11 If the serpent bites before being charmed, there is no advantage to the charmer.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious, but the lips of a fool consume him.

"Grave" (v 10) – in Hebrew "Sheol" – note at Gen 37:35.

9:11,12 He thinks man is a victim of chance and circumstance and has no control over his destiny.

9:13-18 He still considers wisdom a desirable thing, but he has no hope that the world will remember and reward the wise man.

10:1-20 Solomon thinks that even in a meaningless existence wisdom is superior to folly, and in this chapter he gives some proverbs to illustrate this truth.

10:8 When people try to do evil to others they themselves may be harmed the most (7:14-16; 9:16; Ps 57:6; Prov 5:22).

10:11 Ps 58:4,5.

10:12,13 Prov 10:6,32; 14:3; 5:2; 18:7.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness, and the end of his talk is wicked madness.

14 A fool is also full of words. A man cannot tell what will happen, and who can tell him what will happen after him?

15 The labour of the fool wearies him; he does not even know how to go to the city.

16 Woe to you, O land, when your king is a youth, and your princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat at the proper time, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By much laziness the building sags, and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes life merry, but money has the answer for everything.

20 Do not curse the king, not even in your thoughts; and do not curse the rich in your bedroom; for a bird of the air will carry the voice, and that which has wings will tell the matter.

11 Cast your bread on the waters, for you will find it after many days.

2 Give a portion to seven and also to eight, for you do not know what disaster will come on the earth.

3 If the clouds are full of rain they empty themselves on the earth, and if the tree falls toward the south or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will be.

10:16 "Youth" – or "child."

10:18 4:5; Prov 20:4; 24:30-34.

11:1 This truth appears in other places in the Bible – Ps 41:1,2; Prov 11:24; 14:21; 19:17; 22:9; Luke 6:35,38; 2 Cor 9:6-9; Gal 6:9,10; Heb 6:10. Cast your bread upon the waters means to give of what you have to help others. It may seem like a complete loss to you, even a foolish use of what you have (like literally casting bread on the waters). But God will see to it that you are rewarded.

"After many days" – it may be that our reward will not come to us until the second coming of Christ (Luke 14:14; Rev 22:12). Note and references on giving at 2 Cor 9:15.

11:2 In other words, if you help others when you can, they may help you later when you are in need, or God will see to it that someone helps you.

11:3 If God has filled our lives with good things we should pour them out to others. Once the tree of our life falls there will be no change in its direction, in its place.

11:4-6 Solomon is saying that we should get on with our work and leave with God things beyond our control and the

4 He who observes the wind will not sow, and he who considers the clouds will not reap.

5 Just as you do not know the path of the spirit, or how the bones grow in the womb of the pregnant woman, even so you do not know the works of God who makes everything.

6 In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not let your hand be idle, for you do not know whether this or that will prosper, or whether they will both alike be good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and it is a pleasant thing for the eyes to see the sun,

8 But if a man lives many years, and rejoices in them all, still he should remember the days of darkness; for they will be many. All that comes is emptiness.

9 Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart give you joy in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart and in the sight of your eyes. But know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

10 Therefore expel sorrow from your heart, and put away trouble from your body, for childhood and youth are emptiness.

12 Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them";

2 Before the sun or the light or the moon or the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain;

3 In the day when the keepers of the house unanswered questions. "Spirit" – or "wind".

11:7-10 He says that in spite of the meaninglessness of life there is some joy to be found especially for the young. But dark clouds rise over the horizon (last part of v 8), and God's judgment is coming (v 9). This is the last of the five times Solomon advises us to enjoy life (2:24; 3:12,13; 5:18,19; 8:15). But the grounds he gives for the enjoyment of life are feeble. He never says in this book that we should find our joy in God alone, not in the things He gives. He never says that our happiness should be to serve God and even to suffer for His sake. Probably at this point in his life, and with the knowledge he had, he could not say such things.

12:1-7 A moving appeal to the young in beautiful poetic language to turn to God the Creator before inevitable deterioration, old age, and death bring them down to the dust. Eyesight, nerves, strength, hearing, courage and vitality will all fail (vs 2-5). The cord that binds soul to body will snap, the bowl of our earthly existence will shatter, the vessel of our life will spill its water on the ground, and there will be no chance of drawing more from the well (v 6). Observe tremble, and the strong men bow, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows grow dim,

4 And the doors are shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and one rises up at the sound of the bird, and all the daughters of music are brought low;

5 And when they are afraid of high places, and fears are in the way, and the almond tree blossoms, and the grasshopper is burdensome, and desire fails; because man goes to his everlasting home and the mourners go around in the streets.

6 Remember him before the silver cord is loosened, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is shattered at the spring, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 Then the dust will return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

8 "Vanity of vanities", says the teacher, "all is vanity."

9 And moreover, because the teacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The teacher searched to find acceptable words; and what was written down was upright, and words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are like goads, and like nails hammered in by the masters of collected proverbs, which are given by one Shepherd.

12 And further, my son, be warned by these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness to the body.

13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God will bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it is good or evil.

that he believed the spirit of man returns to God (v 7). He had stated his ignorance of this in 3:18-21.

12:8 He ends as he began (1:2). All his study, all his learning, all his wisdom, all his deep research into the meaning of life has come to this. He thinks there is no meaning in life that the fact of inevitable death does not destroy.

12:9 See 1:1; 1 Kings 4:32.

12:10 Solomon is sure that he has written with complete sincerity. He has bared his soul. He has hidden nothing. He declared things as he thought they are.

12:11 By "Shepherd" here he probably means God Himself. God-inspired words of the wise are to give stability to thought (firmly embedded nails) and also to prod us on to truths which lie ahead (goads). This is one main purpose of Ecclesiastes. It gives us the fixed truth of the utter emptiness of life and all its activities "under the sun," apart from God. And it is meant by God to prod us forward to find the meaning of life, and a higher kind of life, somewhere else (in the Lord Jesus Christ). In this way this book (like the whole law and the whole Old Testament) is meant to lead us to Christ (Gal 3:24). Just as Old Testament hopes of salvation lead to Christ, so the quest for life's meaning finds its fulfillment only in Christ. Christ alone redeems His people from a vain and meaningless life (1 Pet 1:18).

12:13,14 Solomon's conclusion is as far as he could go as a man under the law, without further revelation from God. If there is to be meaning in life it must be found in reverence and obedience to God. These two things are everywhere emphasized in the Old Testament:

"Fear" - Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; 130:3,4; Prov 1:7.

"Keep" - on obedience see Ex 19:5; 20:6; Deut 30:15-18; 32:45-47; 1 Sam 15:22; Ps 119:1,2; Isa 1:19.

Without these two things there is no wisdom, no meaning, no hope, either for the present or for the future. These two are the heart of what man ought to be. Solomon did not say how man (whom he describes in 7:20 and 9:3) can be what he ought to be, but he knew that man is responsible for his acts and must face God's judgment. On judgment see 3:17; 8:12,13; 11:9; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:16; 2 Cor 5:9,10; Rev 20:11,12. How man can be what he ought to be is clearly revealed in the New Testament - John 1:12,13; 3:3-8; Rom 6:11-18; 8:4; Eph 4:22-24; etc.

SONG OF SONGS

Title:

This name suggests that this is the most excellent of all songs.

Author:

Judging from 1:1 the author was Solomon, but it should be noted that the Hebrew here could also mean "concerning Solomon."

Date:

If Solomon wrote it, which seems likely, then it was written sometime during his reign – 970-930 BC. However, many scholars believe that it was written sometime after the exile of Judah in Babylon, in the 5th century BC.

Theme:

Commentators on this book do not agree about the theme, or even about the principal characters in the story. Some teach that the book is a mere poetic description of the love between King Solomon and his bride. Some modern commentators teach that it is the story of the love between an unknown shepherd and his bride and that King Solomon is the villain in the story who tries to take the shepherd's bride for himself (this interpretation is unlikely. If we take the Song as an allegory which speaks of the heavenly King and His people, the allegory would be most meaningful if the literal bridegroom in the Song were a king himself). Some commentators teach that this story is not an allegory about the love that exists between God and believers, but others teach that this is the main theme of the book. The author of these notes believes that the principal characters in this story of love are King Solomon and his bride, but that the story is full of symbolic, spiritual meanings, is an allegory depicting the love that exists between Jesus Christ the King of kings and His redeemed people, or individual believers. The reasons for this belief are as follows:

1 Its title, given in the first verse, is as much a part of the inspired Scriptures as any other. And if the writer by the inspiration of the Spirit of God calls this the chief, the best, the greatest of all songs (and this is the meaning of "song of songs") there must be good reasons for it. If it were merely a love story about Solomon and his bride how could it be called the best of all songs? In such case would it be greater than some of the marvelous songs of David the sweet singer of Israel? Would it be greater than psalm 22 or 45 or 69 or 119? How could it be the greatest of all songs if Christ is not in it? If Christ is absent from this song, the title is an empty boast.

2 We have the analogy of other Scriptures such as psalm 45; Isa 54:5; Jer 3:14; 31:32; Ezekiel chapters 16 and 23; Hosea 2:7,16, etc; Matt 22:1,2; Rom 7:4; 2 Cor 11:2; Eph 5:25-32; Rev 19:6-9. Since God is called the "husband" of the nation Israel, and since the church is called the "bride" of Christ, it is no surprising thing that a book of the Bible would set forth in the human language of love the love that ought to exist, and does exist, between Christ and His people. The above Scriptures should be read in connection with the study of this book. They set forth one of the great themes of the Bible.

3 We have the example of other subjects in Scripture where there are spiritual meanings beyond the physical. See notes on the tabernacle, priests, sacrifices, and other matters in Exodus and Leviticus. Those things were real and literal but they were much more than that – they were types, shadows, pictures of spiritual realities. And see Paul, by the inspiration of the God's Spirit, calling the story of Sarah and Hagar an allegory (Gal 4:21-27)! Surely there is as much reason to find an allegory in this Song of songs as in the history of Sarah and Hagar. We do not deny that this song refers to a literal bride and bridegroom any more than we would deny the literal existence in history of Sarah and Hagar. King Solomon and a woman called the Shulamite are here. But it seems clear that here is also a parable of heavenly love full of spiritual meaning for those who have eyes to see it. See also the example of Hosea and his wife in the book of Hosea. They were literal people, but we see in their story the love God had for his fallen people Israel.

4 We have the statements of Scripture like Luke 24:27 and 2 Tim 3:16,17. Can we say that Christ is everywhere in the Old Testament Scriptures except in this one book? Should we try to see Him everywhere else and then try not to see Him in this song? How would this song help make the man or woman of God thoroughly equipped for every good work, if there is no Christ in it and no lessons of a spiritual, heavenly character?

5 There are expressions and scenes in this book which seem to require an allegorical or spiritual meaning. It is hard to imagine that the literal bride of king Solomon wandered alone at night about the streets looking for him (3:2-4), or that while doing so on a second occasion the watchmen beat her and took away her cloak (5:6,7). Or that she literally came up from the desert leaning on Solomon (8:5).

6 We have the interpretation of many spiritual commentators for many centuries both before and after Christ. The Jews thought it set forth the relationship between Jehovah and Israel, and Christians found in it Christ and His Church. This interpretation is not our invention or a recent novelty.

If these reasons do not seem adequate to the reader, he is at liberty to reject them and try to understand this song on the mere level of human love. Our views and interpretations of Scripture are not infallible. But we are convinced that by studying this book by the aid of the Holy Spirit we can get a vivid impression of how Christ loves believers and how they should love Him. And we believe that experience will be the best teacher of this book. Only those who know Christ's love can understand what is here.

Love is what this book is all about, and we see the arrangement of it something like this:

|---------------------------------------|-----------|
| Love affirmed | 1:2-4 |
| Love's anxiety | 1:5-7 |
| Love in fellowship | 1:9 - 2:7 |
| Love longed for and invited | 2:8 - 3:1 |
| Love tested and proved | 3:1-5 |
| Love conveyed in splendor | 3:6-11 |
| Love's delight in the loved one | 4:1-16 |
| Love's satisfaction | 5:1 |
| Love weak, failing and reviving | 5:2-8 |
| Love confident | 6:1-3 |
| Love praises the loved one | 6:4-13 |
| Love conversing | 7:1 - 8:4 |
| Love's strength | 8:6,7 |
| Love's concern | 8:8-12 |
| Love's longing | 8:13,14 |

1

- 1 The song of songs, which is Solomon's.
- 2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth:
for your love is better than wine.
- 3 The fragrance of your oil is pleasing;
your name is like oil poured out,
therefore the virgins love you.
- 4 Draw me after you. We will run!
The king has brought me into his chambers.

Friends

We will be glad and rejoice in you;
we will remember your love more than wine.
The upright love you.

Bride

- 5 I am black but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar,
like the curtains of Solomon.
- 6 Do not stare at me because I am black,
because the sun has looked on me.
My mother's children were angry with me.
They made me watch over the vineyards,
but my own vineyard I have not watched.
- 7 Tell me, O you whom my soul loves,
where you graze your sheep,
where you make your flock rest at noon;
for why should I be like someone who turns aside by the flocks of your companions?

1:1 The expression "song of songs" means the greatest of all songs, just as King of kings means the greatest of all kings and Lord of lords means the greatest of all lords. How could this be the greatest of all songs in the Bible (or out of it) if Christ is not in it? That song will be the greatest which has the greatest theme for its subject and which expresses that theme in high and holy language. There is no greater theme in the Bible or out of it than Christ's love for His people. This is a far more excellent theme than the love of a man and his wife – which is all that some think they see in this song.

1:2 In the Hebrew there are no headings (Bridegroom, Friends, Bride). They have been inserted to make clear to the reader who is speaking in each case. The use of "Bride," and "Bridegroom" in these headings is determined primarily on the basis of the gender of the pronouns in the Hebrew text. The words of others are marked "Friends." In some cases the divisions and headings are open to debate.

In this verse the speaker represents all of Christ's own people. She speaks out their deepest longings – to enjoy the nearness of Christ, the manifestation of Christ's love. His love is more stimulating, more delightful to the mind and spirit than wine (or any other physical stimulant) could ever be to the body.

1:3 In the Bible "name" often indicates the character and attributes of a person. The name of the LORD (Jehovah) in the Old Testament and of Jesus in the New Testament is a perfume poured forth from heaven to earth and filling the whole world with fragrance. Compare Ex 30:22-38; Ps 45:8; Matt 26:6-13. The spiritually pure (here signified by "virgins") will love God above all and everything.

1:4 If the heavenly King Himself does not come to us and draw us into secret communion with Himself we will never arrive there (John 6:44). The work is all His. But on our part there must be a willingness that is ready and eager to enter into His loving fellowship.

"Me", "we" – sometimes believers are regarded as a unit – the bride; sometimes as a group of individuals. Compare Ps 45:14,15; Rev 19:6-9.

"You" – the Hebrew is the masculine single form of the pronoun.

"Love you" – no more fitting thing can be imagined than for believers to love the King of heaven.

1:5 The daughters of Jerusalem are probably the "virgins" of v 3 and the "friends" who speak in v 4, but we cannot be dogmatic about this.

"Black" – Kedar is mentioned in Gen 25:12,13. Their tents were woven of black goat's hair. Believers in Christ are both sinners and saints. God made man in His own image (Gen 1:26), and so with spiritual beauty. Believers know that they came into the world with a nature corrupted by sin, that any spiritual beauty they now possess is because of their union with Christ. All their beauty is a gift of God (Isa 61:10; 1 Cor 1:30; 2 Cor 5:21; Eph 4:22-24). In the words of the bride here is there an element of anxiety? She will learn that perfect love casts out fear (1 John 4:18).

1:6 "Black" – life "under the sun" (Eccl 1:3,14, etc.) has made our natures dark (Gen 8:21; Jer 17:9; Rom 3:9-19). Believers, knowing this, do not feel there is anything in them worthy to be gazed at or admired. The beauty they have is not their own but Christ's reflected beauty.

"Angry" – Isa 66:5; John 15:17; etc.

"Vineyard" – here signifies the believer's personal life. It is possible to be so taken up with other work that our communion with God is neglected and our spiritual lives become like an untended garden.

1:7 Believers wish to experience always Christ's nearness and love. He never leaves them or forsakes them (Heb 13:5; John 14:16-18; Matt 28:20). But their experience of His nearness and love ebbs and flows and sometimes He seems to be gone altogether. This is especially the case if we

Bridegroom

- 8 If you do not know,
O you most beautiful of women,
follow the tracks of the flock, and pasture your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.
- 9 I compare you, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.
- 10 Your cheeks are lovely with rows of jewels,
your neck with chains of gold.
- 11 We will make ornaments of gold for you with studs of silver.

Bride

- 12 While the king sits at his table,
my spikenard sends out its aroma.
- 13 My beloved is to me like a bundle of myrrh which lies all night between my breasts.
- 14 My beloved is to me like a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of Gedi.

Bridegroom

- 15 How beautiful you are, my love!

How beautiful you are!
You have doves' eyes.

Bride

- 16 How handsome you are, my beloved!
Yes, delightful. And our bed is green.

Bridegroom

- 17 The beams of our house are cedar,
and our rafters of fir.

Bride

- 1 I am the rose of Sharon,
and the lily of the valleys.

Bridegroom

- 2 Like the lily among thorns,
so is my love among the daughters.

Bride

- 3 Like the apple tree among the trees
of the woods,
so is my beloved among the sons.

neglect to keep our own "vineyard." When such is the case we should seek Him with our whole heart (Hos 10:12; Jer 29:13).

1:8 If we search we can see where Christ has led His flock and can follow in the footsteps of the saints. In the fellowship of the church's pastors and under shepherds, appointed by Christ, and in feeding Christ's sheep we will find Him anew (John 21:15-17; 14:21). The bride is called the "fairest among women" (see also 1:15; 2:14; 4:1,7; 6:4; 7:1,6; Ps 45:11). Christ's church is the most beautiful thing in the world to Him. He sees her with the eyes of love; He sees what she will yet be by His grace (Eph 5:26,27). He sees the beauty God has given her. Believers are in Christ, united to Him, and all He has they have.

1:9-11 Egypt's horses were the best, the most beautiful, the most expertly trained of all. They were imported to other countries (1 Kings 10:28,29). The king of Egypt would have the best of the best and the most beautifully decorated. Compare Prov 1:19; Isa 61:1-3; Ezek 16:9-14; 1 Tim 2:9,10; 1 Pet 3:3,4.

1:12 Believers sit at the table of the heavenly King (Rev 3:20; 1 Cor 10:16,17). Believers in communion with Christ are a sweet fragrance to Him.

1:13,14 But much more Christ is a sweet fragrance to believers. What the best perfumes on earth are to the body, that His presence is to the spirit.

1:15 "Beautiful" – v 8. "My love" – v 9; 2:2; 4:1,7; 7:6. The language of love, the endearing terms in this song suggest Christ's great love for the church and for each believer (John 13:1; 14:21; 15:9; chapter 17; Rom 5:8; Gal 2:20; Eph

5:1,2,25; 1 John 3:16; 4:16). The whole relationship of the believer and Christ is one of mutual love and self-giving and delight in the other.

"Dove's eyes" – the dove is a symbol of the Holy Spirit of God (Matt 3:16). The symbol speaks of holiness, heavenliness, innocence, and spiritual beauty. The Holy Spirit should shine through the eyes of believers. This is the only way they can really have "dove's eyes."

1:16 Believers surely have more reason to see beauty in Christ than He in them (Ps 45:2).

"Green" – Ps 23:2; Isa 51:3.

1:17 There is shelter for believers from all that could harm them (Ps 121:5,6). And in that shelter the eternal God's delight is to dwell with them (note at Ex 25:8).

2:1 It is unclear from the Hebrew whether the speaker here is the bride or the bridegroom. Since in the next verse the bridegroom says to the bride, "you are a lily" it seems likely that the speaker in this verse is the bride. Believers in themselves are as fragile, as prone to wither and fade as flowers (Isa 40:6-8; 1 Pet 1:24). They are lowly like the flowers of plains and valleys, but they have a beauty and a fragrance to God that He has given them.

2:2 "My love" – among men the only thing of beauty and fragrance to the Son of God is His Church. All others on earth are like thorns and briars – painful, ugly, harmful (Num 33:55; Jud 2:3; 2 Sam 23:6; Isa 27:4,5; 33:12; Matt 7:16; Luke 8:14; Heb 6:8; Rom 8:7,8).

2:3 "Tree" – Christ is no mere flower to wither and fade. He is a fruitful tree who grew up on earth from the root of Jesse

- I sat down under his shade with great delight,
and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
- 4 He brought me to the banqueting house,
and his banner over me was love.
- 5 Sustain me with raisins, refresh me
with apples,
for I am sick with love.
- 6 His left hand is under my head,
and his right hand embraces me.
- 7 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and by the deer of the field,
not to arouse or awaken my love,
till he pleases.
- 8 The voice of my beloved! Look!
He comes leaping on the mountains,
skipping on the hills.
- 9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
See, he stands behind our wall,
he looks out the windows,
peering through the lattice.
- 10 My beloved spoke and said to me,
"Rise up, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away.
- 11 For, see, the winter is past,
the rain is over and gone,

- 12 The flowers appear on the earth,
the time of the singing of birds has come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
- 13 The fig tree puts forth its green figs,
and the vines with the tender grapes give a good smell.
Arise, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away."
- Bridegroom
- 14 O my dove in the clefts of the rock,
in the secret places of the steep ledges, let me see your face, let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet and your face
is lovely.
- 15 Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes,
that spoil the vines;
for our vines have tender grapes.
- Bride
- 16 My beloved is mine, and I am his.
He grazes his flock among the lilies.
- 17 Until the day breaks and the shadows
flee away, turn, my beloved,
and be like a gazelle or a young stag
on the mountains of Bether.

(Isa 11:1,10; 53:2; Rom 15:12). For His people He is the "shade" (Ps 91:1; 121:5; Isa 25:4; 32:2). He is the tree of life and His "fruit" is eternal salvation, joy and satisfaction forever. Has our desires been so corrupted by the evil fruits of the world that His fruit is not sweet to our taste?

2:4 "Banqueting house" – Ps 23:5; Rev 3:20. Imagine, if you can, the sort of feast the Son of God is able to prepare.

"Banner over me was love" – banner speaks of something proudly displayed, clearly manifested (compare Rom 5:8; Gal 2:20). Love is written large over all Christ's dealings with His people.

2:5-7 The full experience of Christ's love can be too much for human nature to bear. Such experiences cannot be produced by the efforts of others (daughters of Jerusalem). They can come only in Christ's time and way.

2:8,9 This is the experience of the bride. The divine lover is present, then He is gone off to the mountains, but comes rushing back. No reason here is given for this, but if our communion with Christ is broken we should look for the fault in ourselves, not in Him (Isa 59:1,2; Hos 5:6), if indeed there is any fault at all (it may be that He is testing us). Believers do not always enjoy His nearness as they would desire. One glimpse of Him fills them with expectation and longing.

2:10-13 Jer 31:3; Deut 4:37. The bridegroom uses the language of love and poetry to woo His bride away from everything else that might attract her, and He calls her into beauty, into songs of joy, into the deepest fellowship with Himself. At last He will call her to enjoy eternal dwellings in His presence (John 14:2,3; 17:24; 1 Thess 4:16-18).

2:14 Christ's church is like a dove, born of the Holy Spirit, hiding in Christ the Rock of ages (Ex 33:21,22; Deut 32:4). Believers are so dear to Him He longs to see their face, to hear their voice. Is not this one reason behind all those divinely inspired Scriptures which urge us to pray and praise?

2:15 1:6. Believers must guard against everything that would spoil their life in Christ and their fellowship with Him, against all sins of either commission or omission. They may be considered "small" sins, but can that be called small which works so much damage?

"Vineyard" – Ps 80:15; Isa 5:1-5; Jer 12:10; Luke 20:9-16 (so terribly may a vineyard be ruined).

2:16 6:3; 7:10. Believers can and should have the sweet assurance that they belong to Christ and Christ to them forever (John 17:6; Rom 7:4; 8:38,39; 1 Cor 3:21-23). They are not to spend their lives wondering whether it is so.

2:17 If Christ seems to depart again and again to some far off hills, the believer longs for Him and prays for His return. What else can satisfy him once he has tasted of the sweetness of Christ's love?

"The mountains of Bether" – or "The rugged mountains." Bether means rugged. It is difficult to know whether a proper name is meant here.

- 1 At night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loves.
I sought him, but I did not find him.
- 2 I will arise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves.
I sought him but I did not find him.
- 3 The watchmen who go around the city found me. I said to them :
“Have you seen him whom my soul loves?”
- 4 Scarcely had I passed on from them when I found him whom my soul loves.
I held him and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother’s house, and into the chamber of her who conceived me.
- 5 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles and by the deer of the field, not to arouse or awake my love, till he pleases.
- 6 Who is this coming from the desert like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the powdered spices of the merchant?

3:1-3 When God seems to be at a distance, when Christ’s fellowship is withdrawn, the believer is tested. What will he do? He should seek Christ again (Job 23:3; Ps 6:1-4; 13:1-3; 28:1,2; 38:21,22; 42:1-3; 63:1; 77:1-9; 105:4; 143:6,7; Hos 5:6,15; Amos 5:4,8). Sometimes Christian experience is similar to wandering in dark and lonely streets. But God has placed watchmen – faithful ministers to point the way to Christ. 3:4 “Found” – Ps 9:10; 22:26; 69:32; 70:4; 105:3; Jer 29:13; Isa 45:19; Matt 7:7,8. “Not let him go” – Gen 32:26; Ps 27:9; Luke 24:28,29. 3:5 2:7.

3:6-11 The speaker here is either the “bride” or the “friends.” The words bring us back to the literal Solomon and his bride who signify the heavenly truths of this book. It seems in these verses that Solomon has come in royal magnificence to bear his bride a way (compare 8:5) and this is surely not without spiritual significance to believers.

We should notice that a striking feature of this book is the sudden shift of scenes. The bride is looking for the bridegroom in the shepherds’ fields (1:7,8); the bridegroom is near (1:9-11); afterwards they are together in the house of the king (1:12-17); suddenly the bridegroom is away in the hills but comes quickly to the house and calls his bride away (2:8-15); again he

- 7 See, it is Solomon’s palanquin!
Sixty valiant men, of the valiant of Israel, surround it.
- 8 They all hold swords, being expert in war. Every man has his sword at his side, because of fear in the night.
- 9 King Solomon made the carriage for himself from the wood of Lebanon.
- 10 He made its posts of silver,
its bottom of gold, its covering of purple, its interior being lovingly fitted by the daughters of Jerusalem.
- 11 Go out, O daughters of Zion, and see King Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, and on the day of the gladness of his heart.

Bridegroom

- 1 How beautiful you are, my love!
How beautiful you are !
You have doves’ eyes behind your veil.
Your hair is like a flock of goats that appears from mount Gilead.
- 2 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep just shorn, is on the hills and she is left alone (2:16-3:3); they are together in her mother’s house (3:4,5); now he comes from the desert in beauty and splendor. The book continues in similar fashion.

In other words, the book does not give a regular story with a beginning, a middle, and an end. Instead we have various and brief pictures that set forth the relationship of bride and bridegroom. The spiritual purpose is to show various experiences through which believers may go in their life in Christ, and to reveal something of His beauty, magnificence, and tender love for His Church.

In these verses we see something of His glory and might (compare Ps 45:3-5). Believers (whether or not they are aware of it) are riding through the world in a heavenly carriage with the King of glory at their side. Though there is still danger at night (v 8), there is full protection for the bride in this journey with the King (John 10:28).

4:1 “Beautiful” – 1:5,8,9-11,15 – this whole chapter (except for the last verse) is spoken by the bridegroom to show His delight in the bride. Everything about her pleases Him because He looks with the eyes of love. “Doves” – 1:15.

4:2 Her teeth – white, sparkling, perfectly

- which come up from the washing,
each of which bears twins,
and none of them is barren.
- 3 Your lips are like a strip of scarlet,
and your mouth is lovely.
Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.
- 4 Your neck is like the tower of David built as an armoury,
where hang a thousand shields,
all shields of mighty men.
- 5 Your two breasts are like two fawns
that are twins,
which feed among the lilies.
- 6 Until the day breaks and the shadows
flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh,
and to the hill of frankincense.
- 7 You are altogether beautiful, my love.
There is no blemish in you.
- 8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
from the top of Shenir and Hermon,
from the lions' dens,

- from the mountains of the leopards.
- 9 You have ravished my heart, my sister,
my bride.
You have ravished my heart with one glance of your eyes,
with one strand of your necklace.
- 10 How beautiful is your love, my sister,
my bride!
How much better is your love than wine!
And the fragrance of your oils than all spices!
- 11 Your lips, O my bride, drip like the honeycomb.
Honey and milk are under your tongue,
and the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.
- 12 A garden locked up is my sister, my bride;
a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.
- 13 Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with choice fruits, henna with spikenard,
- 14 Spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon,
with all the trees of frankincense,
myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices.
- 15 You are a garden fountain, a well of matched.

4:4 In other words, her neck is straight and ornamented with necklaces – 1:10.

4:7 "No blemish" – a wonderful thing to say! In itself the church is full of flaws, and individual believers have to make the same confession as Paul (Rom 7:18), and James (3:2), and John (1 John 1:8). Yet even now the righteousness which God puts to the believer's account is perfect and flawless (Isa 61:10; Jer 33:16; Rom 3:21-24; 1 Cor 1:30; 2 Cor 5:21; Phil 3:9); the beauty they have is God's perfect beauty (Ps 45:13,14; Ezek 16:14); and the result of God's work in the church and in the believer will result eventually in a perfection only God can produce (Rom 8:29; Eph 5:25-27; Heb 10:14; 1 John 3:2).

4:8 The bridegroom says he will go to the mountain of myrrh and incense (v 6). The bride should be with him. But suddenly the bride seems to be somewhere among the mountain peaks on the northern borders of Israel, a place of rugged beauty and danger. He calls her away. The spiritual application is not difficult to make. There are high places in the world that have their beauties and attractions but are dangerous to believers. Christ calls us away from them to Himself.

4:9 6:5. Does Christ love His church so much? Does one glance of love from her move His heart like this? Yes, He has proved once and for all the intensity of His infinite love by laying down His life for the church. His love passes knowledge (Eph 3:19).

"Sister" – the Lord Jesus is the bridegroom, the Lord, the Head of the Church. But He is also called the "brother" of believers (Heb 2:11,12). He is their Kinsman-Redeemer (note at Ruth 2:20).

4:10 The Lord delights in His people (Ps 147:11; 149:4; Zeph 3:17).

4:11 The words of love we speak to the Lord from loving hearts are very sweet to Him. Our fellowship to Him is like the fragrance of flowers and green forests. He wants always to be with us. When we come to Him in prayer we must not think He is reluctant to receive us.

4:12-14 In Ps 1:3 believers are compared to a fruitful tree. In Ps 80:8 they are compared to a vine. Here they are called a whole garden (see also Isa 58:11; Jer 31:12). The true church is Christ's garden of Eden where He comes to walk and talk with men and delight in their fellowship (Gen 3:8). Only from believers will Christ get any fragrance or fruit. Apart from His church the whole world is like a desert to Him.

Notice that this garden is enclosed or "locked up." In other words, believers are Christ's garden alone. No one else is to walk there. They are His possession (Rom 14:7,8; 1 Cor 6:19,20); they are for His delight. He puts a wall about them to keep out enemies and to prevent the world from trampling them underfoot. They are to be separate, holy, completely dedicated to Him (John chapter 17; Rom 12:1,2; 2 Cor 6:14-18). And they are to bear the fruits which please Him (John 15:8,16; Rom 7:4; Gal 5:22,23; Eph 5:9; Col 1:6,10).

4:15 The true church is also like a "fountain" and "well" and water flowing from living waters,

and streams from Lebanon.
16 Awake, O north wind, and come,
you south wind! Blow on my garden
so that the fragrance of its spices may spread out.

Bride

Let my beloved come into his garden,
and eat his choice fruits.

Bridegroom

1 I have come into my garden, my sister,
my bride.
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey.
I have drunk my wine with my milk.
Eat, O friends!
Drink, yes, drink abundantly, O beloved!

Bride

2 I sleep, but my heart is awake.
It is the voice of my beloved who knocks, saying,
"Open to me, my sister, my love,

my dove, my undefiled,
for my head is drenched with dew,
and my locks with the moisture of the night."

- 3 I have taken off my robe.
How can I put it back on?
I have washed my feet.
How can I soil them again?
- 4 My beloved put his hand in through the hole in the door,
and my inmost being was moved for him.
- 5 I got up to open to my beloved,
and my hands dripped with myrrh,
and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, on the handles of the lock.
- 6 I opened to my beloved;
but my beloved had turned away
and gone.
My soul had gone out when he spoke.
I looked for him, but I could not find him.
I called to him, but he gave me no answer.
- 7 The watchmen who went around the city found me.
They struck me; they wounded me.
The guards of the walls took my veil away from me.
- 8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,

mountain heights – a source of great satisfaction to Christ. This fountain is sealed – that is, kept for Him alone (2 Cor 11:2). The true church is not like a tank or pond in which the water may stagnate or dry up altogether. The church which is Christ's body has the deep fountains of the Holy Spirit in it, springing up eternally (John 4:14; 7:37-39).

4:16 This is the bridegroom still speaking for he says "my" garden. Wind makes a fine symbol of the Holy Spirit (John 3:8 – the words for wind, breath, and spirit in both Hebrew and Greek are identical). Only if God's Spirit is blowing through the church will its fragrance spread.

"My beloved" – the bride speaks and welcomes Him with a loving heart – the only proper response.

5:1 Isa 65:24. And what sweetness and satisfaction He finds in her fellowship! The Lord Jesus comes to commune with those who want Him and who are prepared for Him (John 14:23). And He wants others whom He here calls "friends" and "beloved ones" to share with Him in the church.

5:2-6 Another scene, another time. She is somewhere alone at night and the bridegroom comes and calls to her. He has come from a distance, or else has been standing outside for some time, for his head is wet with dew. In either case his love is clear. She is excited at his coming but reluctant to get up and open the door (v 3). She delays. When she does get up at last she is more occupied with herself than with him (v 5) – a fault seen in her before (1:5,12; 2:1). Her delay and evident lack of eagerness for his presence grieves him and he departs (v 6).

Christ will not give His fellowship where He is not wanted. In the believer's spiritual life with the Lord Jesus, if fellowship is broken it will not be His fault. He will come far for it; He will patiently wait for some time. But carelessness and reluctance to open to Him (which show a loss of first love) will grieve Him. And occupation with self rather than with Him will make it impossible to enjoy His fellowship. The Lord Jesus in His love does not call us to slothfulness and self-admiration. God's grace, God's gifts to us are not so we might look at self and applaud self. Those who want more of His fellowship and show that they want it will have it. Any lover wants the beloved to love as he loves (8:6,7; Matt 22:37). The most important thing to us should be not our own convenience or pleasure but to love Him so much we want to please only Him.

5:7,8 The watchmen now act differently toward her than they did in 3:3. Perhaps the scene in chapter 3 suggests a test of the genuineness of her love. Here she is at fault and must suffer for it. The words of God's faithful watchmen can be like blows to the one who has lost fellowship with Christ by one's own fault. Their words strip the sinning believer of his veil – thus exposing her true countenance and enabling her to

if you find my beloved, will you not tell him that I am sick with love?

Friends

- 9 What is your beloved more than another beloved,
O you most beautiful of women?
What is your beloved more than another beloved, that you charge us so?

Bride

- 10 My beloved is radiant and ruddy,
the chief among ten thousand.
11 His head is like the most fine gold.
The locks of his hair are bushy,
black as a raven.
12 His eyes are like the eyes of doves by the streams of water, washed with milk and fitly set.
13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices,
like sweet flowers.
His lips like lilies, dripping sweet smelling myrrh.
14 His hands are like gold rods set with beryl.
His waist is like bright ivory
inlaid with sapphires.
15 His legs are like pillars of marble, set on sockets of fine gold.
His face is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
16 His mouth is very sweet.
Yes, he is altogether delightful.
This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem.

Friends

- 1 Where has your beloved gone,
O most beautiful of women?
Which way did your beloved turn?
Tell us so that we may seek him with you.

Bride

- 2 My beloved has gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to graze his flock in the gardens,
and to gather lilies.
3 I am my beloved's,
and my beloved is mine.
He feeds his flock among the lilies.

Bridegroom

- 4 You are as beautiful, O my love,
as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners.
5 Turn your eyes away from me,
for they have overcome me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats that appears from Gilead.
6 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep which goes up from the washing,
each one of which bears twins,
and there is not one barren among them.
7 Like a piece of a pomegranate are your temples behind your veil.
8 There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines,
and virgins without number.
9 My dove, my undefiled is unique.

"Sick with love" – 2:5; Ps 84:2; 119:81.
5:10-16 Now the bride is fully occupied with the lover! Her experiences recorded in vs 2-8 have taught her something. This is the only place in this book where she attempts to describe him. The spiritual beauty of the Lord Jesus can only be hinted at by human descriptions, not revealed. It is interesting that in the Gospels there is nothing said about what the Lord Jesus looked like – as if it were entirely unimportant, as indeed it is. All the emphasis is on His character, His acts, His motives, His attributes.
5:16 We cannot even begin to describe all of Christ's beauty, but we know that He is the altogether beautiful and perfect one.
"Friend" – see John 15:15.

6:1 Our longings for Christ's fellowship, our praise of His qualities, will stir others up to seek Him.

6:2 She suddenly realizes where her lover will be, and ceases her fruitless wanderings about the city's streets.

6:3 See 2:16; 7:10.

6:4-9 Throughout the Song of songs we see that he is far more taken up with her than she is with him. She gets distracted by other things but he does not. Christ's love for His church in this world is far more fervent and real than the church's love for Christ. His love is the example of what ours should be.

6:4 "Tirzah" – the word means "pleasure," "beauty." The town was later chosen as the first capital of the northern kingdom of Israel (1 Kings 14:17; 15:21,33; 16:6,23). Evidently it was a place famous for beauty.
"Jerusalem" – Ps 48:2; 50:2.

"Army" – the church is also a mighty spiritual army.

6:5-7 Similar to 4:1-3. Her look of love stirs up such love in Him that He can hardly bear it (v 5. Also 4:9).

6:8,9 "Unique", "blessed" – Israel in the Old Testament and Christ's church in the New Testament are absolutely unique in the whole history of man (Ex 19:5,6; Deut 7:6; Ps 135:4; John 17:6,9; Titus 2:14; 1 Pet 2:9,10). Though there be thousands of tribes, peoples, societies, organizations in the world, the church is the only bride of Christ. Blessed indeed!

She is the only one of her mother,
 the favorite of the one who bore her.
 The daughters saw her, and called her blessed;
 yes, the queens and the concubines,
 and they praised her.

10 Who is she who appears like the dawn,
 fair as the moon, bright as the sun,
 and awesome as an army with banners?

Bride

11 I went down into the garden of nut trees to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished,
 and the pomegranates budded.

12 Before I was aware, my soul set me among the chariots of Amminadab.

Friends

13 Come back, come back, O Shulamite!
 Come back, come back, that we may gaze at you.

Bridegroom

What do you see in the Shulamite?
 As it were the the dance of two camps.

1 How beautiful are your sandaled feet,
 O prince's daughter!
 The curve of your thighs are like jewels,
 the work of the hands of a skillful craftsman.

2 Your navel is like a round goblet,
 not lacking mixed wine.
 Your waist is like a heap of wheat encircled with lilies.

3 Your two breasts are like two young gazelles that are twins.

4 Your neck is like a tower of ivory.
 Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon,
 by the gate of Bath-Rabbim.
 Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

5 Your head crowns you like Carmel,
 and the hair of your head is like purple;
 the king is held captive by its tresses.

6 How beautiful and how pleasing you are, O love, with your charms!

7 Your stature is like a palm tree,
 and your breasts like clusters of grapes.

8 I said, "I will go up to the palm tree,
 I will take hold of its boughs."
 Now may your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
 and the fragrance of your breath like apples,

9 And the roof of your mouth is like the best wine for my beloved, that flows gently over the lips of those who are asleep.

Bride

10 I am my beloved's,
 and his desire is for me.

6:10 The true church is as beautiful and majestic in Christ's eyes as the most beautiful things in creation. The grace and glory of God rest on her.

6:11,12 Who is speaking? Judging from v 13 it is the bride whom the friends call back. The Hebrew of v 12 is obscure, so both the literal meaning and the spiritual application are equally so. Verse 11 shows her concern that her garden grow and produce fruit (compare 1:6). If we do not care about our garden, which really belongs to Christ, we show that we do not care much about Christ whose garden we are.

6:12 "Among the chariots of Amminadab", or "among the royal chariots of my people" or "among the chariots of my willing people." Amminadab may or may not be a proper name here.

6:13 We cannot be certain why the bride is called "Shulamite" here. The name was possibly derived from the Solomon's name in Hebrew – Shlomo. Shulamite could be the feminine form of that name and may indicate one who belonged to Solomon. Or it may possibly be derived from a town called Shulam (or, possibly, Shunem). The first part of this verse evidently is spoken by the friends or virgins who long to gaze on the grace and beauty of the bride. The second part of the verse is spoken by the bridegroom. It is in the form of a question but he knows very well her beauty and why others would gaze on her.

"Dance of two camps" – or "company of two armies". The language here suggests a sacred dance of joy. Compare Ex 15:20; 2 Sam 6:14,15; Ps 30:11; 149:3; 150:4; Jer 31:13. The Hebrew word for two camps or armies is Mahanaim. See Gen 32:1,2. It may suggest here the nearness of heavenly hosts.

7:1-9 4:1-15; 6:4-9. The true church is a "prince's daughter", perfectly formed (1 Cor 12:14-27; Eph 4:15,16). Every part (person) is placed carefully by God in the Body to contribute to the beauty and usefulness of the whole. He loves to gaze on her and to describe her loveliness in His eyes. The relationship between husband and wife is the most intimate in the world, and this is the relationship that the Holy Spirit has used a number of times in the Bible as a symbol of that loving, intimate, spiritual relationship between God and His own special people. There is no deeper love, no more intimate fellowship, no greater delight than in this relationship between God who is Spirit with His spiritual people. This is suggested by the language of this passage. 7:10 See 2:16. In the closing words of v 9 and in this verse she expresses her full 11 Come, my beloved, let us go out into the field.

Let us spend the night in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards. Let us see if the vine flourishes, whether the tender grape appears, and the pomegranates bud.

There I will give you my love.

13 The mandrakes give a fragrance, and at our gates are all kinds of choice fruits, new and old, which I have stored up for you, O my beloved.

1 O that you were like a brother to me, who nursed at the breasts of my mother! When I found you outside,

I would kiss you.

Yes, I would not be despised.

2 I would lead you, and bring you into my mother's house, who instructed me.

I would have you drink spiced wine from the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand would be under my head, and his right hand would embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, not to arouse or awaken my love, until he pleases.

Friends

5 Who is this who comes up from the desert, leaning on her beloved?

Bride

I awakened you under the apple tree. There your mother brought you forth. There she who bore you brought you forth.

6 Set me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm. For love is strong as death; Jealousy is severe as the grave; its coals are coals of fire, with a very fierce flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, not can the floods drown it. If a man were to give all the wealth of his house for love, it would be utterly despised.

Friends

8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister in assurance that the wine of her love is acceptable to him, that they are one in heart. 7:11,12 In 2:1-13 He calls her into the fields. Here she invites him. If the fields and villages speak of God's work in the world we can learn from these two references that Christ first calls us to this work, then His love in our hearts moves us to desire it and to pray that He go with us.

7:13 When there is love there is a desire to give gifts and to give oneself to the loved one. This is what love between two persons is all about – mutual self-giving. Our love for Christ, or lack of it, will be measured by what we give Him or what we withhold from Him. Believers are not to store up for themselves but for Christ. What they would keep for themselves they will lose. What they store up for Christ they will keep and enjoy with Him forever. Out fruit should be all for Him (John 15:1,2; Rom 7:4).

8:1 In this fallen world those who love Christ and are loved by Him often become an object of scorn and hatred to godless men (John 15:18-21; 16:33; 1 Pet 4:12-16). The bride here wishes that circumstances were different. But has she forgotten the bridegroom's words in 4:9,10,12; 5:1,2 – where he calls her "sister" five times?

8:2 7:13. A heart that wants to give is the surest mark of love.

8:3,4 2:6,7.

8:5 "Desert" – 3:6. Israel came from Egypt through the desert and into the land of Canaan leaning on the strong arm of Jehovah. The church moves from the desert of this world toward the heavenly Jerusalem leaning on Christ.

8:6 "Seal" – this may refer to a jewel having the name of the loved one engraved on it. Compare Ex 28:9-12,17-21; Isa 49:16. The spiritual meaning may be this: the loved one wants herself (or himself) permanently impressed on the affections of the one who loves as a seal leaves an impression on wax.

"Death" – death, man's enemy, is very powerful and holds its victims fast. God's love, man's greatest friend, is no less powerful. God's love will never let His own go (Rom 8:38,39).

"Jealousy" – or "ardor" or "zeal" – Ex 20:5; 34:14; Deut 4:24. The greater the love the greater the jealousy concerning all that might turn the loved one away.

"Grave" – in Hebrew "Sheol" – note at Gen 37:35.

8:7 God's love is such a fire that the mightiest floods can not quench the tiniest spark of it. There is nothing on earth that remotely approaches it in value. It is also supreme among all spiritual graces and virtues (1 Corinthians chapter 13).

8:8,9 The speakers here may be the "friends," the daughters of Jerusalem, or the "brothers" mentioned in 1:6. The spiritual meaning would be the same in any case. Some commentators think the little sister indicates the New Testament church. Some think she represents any persons who are the day when she is spoken for?

- 9 If she is a wall, we will build a palace of silver on her, and if she is a door, we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

Bride

- 10 I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers.

Then I was in his eyes like one who found peace.

- 11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-Hamon. He let out the vineyard to caretakers. For its fruit each one was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

- 12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me. The thousand shekels are for you, O Solomon, and two hundred for Those who watch over its fruit.

Bridegroom

- 13 O you who dwell in the gardens, companions listen to your voice. Cause me to hear it.

Bride

- 14 Hurry, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

not yet converted to Christ but who will be. A wall is for the purpose of keeping out that which should be outside. A door is to let in those who are prepared to come inside.

8:10-12 She already is what her little sister may become – mature and able to enter into the marriage relationship. She is no longer under the control of her brothers (1:6). The language of verses 11,12 bring to mind the parables of the Lord Jesus about vineyards (Matt 20:1-16; 21:33-40), and speaks to us of the responsibility of Christians as tenants in God's vineyard. "Thousand shekels" – about 11:5 kilograms.

8:13 This is the last request of the bridegroom in this book.

8:14 Here is the last request of the bride. It is similar to the last prayer of the Bible – Rev 22:20. It brings us back to an early chapter – 2:17. Our longings for Christ should not diminish with the passage of time and we should always endeavor to keep His coming as the object of our hope.

ISAIAH

Author:

Isaiah the prophet. His name means "Jehovah is salvation" or "Jehovah saves." Isaiah was a member of an influential family in Judah. It seems that he was a well-educated man. Apparently he lived in or near Jerusalem (6:1-4; 37:2; 38:4). He was married to a woman called a "prophetess," by whom he had at least two sons (7:3; 8:3). According to tradition, during the reign of King Manasseh he was killed by being sawn in two. Some modern critics teach that this book was not written by one man named Isaiah, but by two or more men writing at different times. The author of these notes has seen no satisfactory evidence for this theory. The Bible itself speaks of one and only one Isaiah.

Date:

Isaiah prophesied during the reigns of kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (1:1), that is, 740 - 700 BC. He lived on until at least 681 BC, for the event he wrote about in 37:38 happened then.

Themes:

God's judgments on human wickedness; God's grace toward those who turn to him in faith; God's salvation given freely through the Lord Jesus Christ. More than any other prophet, Isaiah gives us a detailed picture of the then future coming and deeds of the Lord Jesus – His birth, His sufferings and death, and His still future glorious reign over the earth. Isaiah begins with the corrupt nation of Israel (1:2-17) and moves steadily on to the new heavens and earth where there will be no more corruption ever (65:17; 66:22-24). Some very wonderful verses and chapters in this book are 1:18; 2:1-5; 6:1-8; 7:14; 9:6,7; 11:1-9; 25:4-9; 32:1-5; 35:1-10; 40:1-31; 41:17-20; 43:1,2,25; 45:22-25; 49:6; 52:13-15; 53:1-12; 55:1-13; 57:15; 61:1-3; 64:1-12; 65:17; 66:2. Of course, this is far from being an exhaustive list. The whole book of Isaiah (indeed, the whole Bible) is very wonderful, being inspired by God Himself.

- 1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.
- 2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth, for the LORD has spoken:
“I have reared and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.
- 3 The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's crib; but Israel does not know, my people do not consider.”
- 4 Alas, sinful nation, a people weighed down with wickedness, a brood of evildoers, children who are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger, they have gone away backward.
- 5 Why should you be struck again? You revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart is faint.
- 6 From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it, but wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores. They have not been closed, or bound up, or soothed with ointment.
- 7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire. Strangers devour your land in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.
- 8 And the daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a garden of cucumbers, like a besieged city.
- 9 Unless the LORD of hosts had left to us a very small remnant, we would have become like Sodom,

1:1 Vision here means a revelation from God. Note at Gen 15:1. This revelation came on different occasions over a long period of time and refers to the whole book of Isaiah. We know nothing about Isaiah's father Amoz. He is not, of course, the prophet Amos.

1:2 “Hear” – Deut 4:26; 30:19; 31:28; 32:1. Isaiah is sure that God's revelation to him is of the greatest importance. He wants all the earth, all the universe to hear what God speaks, and to be witness of His charges against His people. The message is that the special people of the Creator of the universe turned their backs on Him and ignorantly and wickedly went their own way. Compare Ps 95:10; Isa 53:6; Jer 8:5-6. The children referred to here are the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (Ex 4:22; Deut 32:6; 2 Sam 7:24; Isa 64:8; etc).

1:3 Men in rebellion against their Creator, the God of the universe, can be more senseless than ignorant beasts. And the nations of Israel and Judah were no better or wiser than any other (Deut 32:28; Jer 4:22; 8:7). The ox and the donkey are not the most clever of animals but in a very important matter they were wiser than the people of Israel. Those people had a Master but they tried to remove themselves from His love and care.

1:4 This one verse exposes the terrible moral and spiritual condition of Judah and Jerusalem. This was God's evaluation, not man's. And it is a picture not merely of Judah but of the world (Ps 14:2,3; Rom 3:9-18).

“Holy One of Israel” appears 26 times in Isaiah and only 6 times in the rest of the Old Testament. The book of Isaiah lays special emphasis on God's holiness. It is in the light of God's holiness that man's behavior appears so exceedingly sinful. Note on holiness at Lev 20:7.

1:5-9 Here are some of the results of their rebellion against God. (The Bible continually points out that sin has fearful consequences – Gen 2:17; Lev 26:14-22; Num 32:23; Ezek 18:20; Rom 1:18; 6:23; Heb 2:2). The prophet (and God is speaking through the prophet) asks the nation why they wish to continue in their sins when the results are so painful. As a body experiences the harmful effects of a disease, so the entire nation has experienced the destructive effects of their rebellion against God. This destruction came about by invasions of foreign armies. Compare 2 Chron 28:5-8; 16:21; 32:1,2,9. God often uses the armies of one country to punish another country for their wickedness. See 7:20; 10:5,6; Jer 50:15,23; 51:1,20-23; Hab 1:6; Rev 17:16,17.

1:8 Daughter of Zion means the city and people of Jerusalem. It stood alone in the midst of hostile nations.

1:9 Rom 9:29. If God had not been merciful to that rebellious people the city and nation would have been entirely obliterated from the earth as Sodom and Gomorrah had been (Gen 19:23-25).

“LORD of hosts” – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

and we would have been like Gomorrah.

- 10 Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom!
Give ear to the law of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!
- 11 "To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to me?" says the LORD.
"I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed cattle;
and I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs, or of male goats.
- 12 "When you come to appear before me,
who has required this at your hand,
this trampling of my courts?
- 13 Bring no more meaningless offerings!
Your incense is an abomination to me.
The New Moon festivals and Sabbaths,
the calling of assemblies,
I cannot endure.

- Even the solemn meeting is wickedness.
- 14 Your New Moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates;
they are a burden to me;
I am weary of bearing them.
- 15 And when you spread out your hands,
I will hide my eyes from you;
yes, even though you utter many prayers,
I will not hear.
Your hands are full of blood.
- 16 "Wash yourselves!
Make yourselves clean!
Put away the evil of your actions from before my eyes!
Cease to do evil!
17 Learn to do good!
Seek justice, relieve the oppressed!
Show justice to the fatherless, plead for the widow!

1:10 Isaiah speaks to the rulers and people of Judah and Jerusalem as if they were the rulers of Sodom and Gomorrah. He considers Jerusalem and Judah as corrupt and worthy of destruction as those destroyed cities.

1:11-17 This is a very important passage on worship, showing what is acceptable to God and what is not. See also Ps 50:7-23; Jer 7:1-11; John 4:21-24; Jam 1:26,27. If there is no humility, no obedience to God, no sincerity, no right motives, no purity of heart, no ongoing spiritual life, then worship is an empty and vain thing and God will not accept it.

1:11 Ps 40:6; 50:9; Jer 6:20; 1 Sam 15:22.

1:12 True religion is of the heart. Without inner love and reverence for God, going to places of worship is useless and unacceptable to Him.

1:13,14 Not only is such worship unacceptable to God it is positively hateful to Him. Men with their vain and hypocritical worship may think they are pleasing God but instead they are provoking Him to disgust and anger. Compare Luke 16:15. Observe in v 13 that the meeting of God's people for worship may be, in His eyes, evil assemblies.

1:15 God will not answer the prayers of those living in sin and rebellion against Him. Such people may have the forms of worship and make many prayers, but God turns away from such (59:1,2; Ps 66:18; John 9:31; Jam 4:3). We should not expect God to answer our prayers if we do not love Him, obey Him, and serve Him, and if we want answers only for selfish reasons.

"Blood" – they were guilty of bloodshed and the murder of the helpless (v 21; 59:3; Ps 106:38; Jer 2:34). Yet they wanted God to answer their prayers! Such is man's ignorant depravity.

1:16-19 In spite of their detestable spiritual and moral condition there was hope for forgiveness and blessings – if they would repent. This hope is held out everywhere in the Bible (55:7; 2 Chron 7:14; Ezek 18:27,28,32; Luke 24:45-47; Acts 2:38,39).

1:16 "Wash. . .make. . .clean" – compare Jam 4:8; 2 Cor 7:1. David prayed that God would wash him (Ps 51:2). Men wash themselves from their uncleanness when they turn to God in repentance, confession, and faith, and use His power to conquer the sins in their lives. Since this is also God's work in their hearts this process is God washing them, as well as their washing themselves. But we should not expect God to wash us if we are not willing to wash ourselves from all evil.

"Cease" – a simple command that, if obeyed, will result in great good. But if we do not rely on God's power to do this we will find it impossible to do (Jer 13:23). So a command to stop doing wrong is, in a way, an instruction to seek our strength in God (40:31; Ps 29:11; 105:4; 138:3; Eph 6:10).

1:17 "Good" – Ps 34:14; 37:27. Men do not need to learn to do wrong. It is as natural to them as breathing (see Gen 6:5; 8:21; Ps 51:5; 58:3; Jer 17:9; Matt 15:19,20). They need to learn to do right. This can be accomplished only by turning to the one true God and by studying and obeying God's Word. Without God's Word men frequently will not even have an idea of what is right (compare 5:20). The more we know God's Word the more we know what the right is. Learning to do right is a process that never ceases in the lives of God's people as long as they are on earth.

"Justice. . .widow" – learning to do right will result in our standing for righteousness, and in helping the poor and helpless (Ex 22:22-24; Deut 10:18; 14:29; 24:19-21; 26:12,13; 27:19; Ps 68:5; 82:1-4; Micah 6:8; Jam 1:27).

- 18 "Come now, and let us reason together,
says the LORD.
Though your sins are like scarlet,
they will be as white as snow;
though they are as red as crimson,
they will be like wool.
- 19 If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good of the land.
- 20 But if you refuse and rebel,
you will be devoured by the sword;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."
- 21 How the faithful city has become a prostitute!
It was full of justice; righteousness
once lodged in it, but now murderers!
- 22 Your silver has become dross,
your wine mixed with water.
- 23 Your rulers are rebellious,
and companions of thieves.
Each one loves bribes, and chases after rewards.
They do not show justice to the fatherless.
The cause of the widow does not come before them.
- 24 Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
the mighty One of Israel, says,
"Ah, I will get relief from my adversaries, and avenge myself on my enemies.

1:18 See 43:26; Lam 3:40; Hag 1:5,7. God is a God of reason and He has made man with a mind and ability to reason. He wants men to stop and think about Him, about themselves, about their course in life, especially about any argument that is going on between themselves and Him. God's desire is for peace and harmony. He wants the dispute that is brought on by sin to be settled. He longs to forgive, restore and bless a repenting people (Ezek 18:30-32).

1:19,20 The contrast in these verses is seen everywhere in the Bible – Lev 26:3-35; Deut 28:1-68; 30:15-20; Isa 66:24. Obedience to God's word brings great blessing. Continual rebellion brings death, destruction and eternal condemnation.

1:21 "Prostitute" – Jerusalem had become unfaithful to God (v 4) and worshiped other gods (2:8). In the Bible this is compared to adultery and prostitution (Lev 20:5; Jer 2:20; 3:1,6,8,9; 13:27; Ezek 16:17,28; 23:5,8,19; Hos 2:5; 4:15; 5:3,4).
"Murderers" – v 15.

1:22 Because the hearts of the people had become corrupted everything else had become corrupted.

1:23 "Rulers" – compare Jer 1:18,19; 2:8; Ezek 34:1-6. For the kind of leaders God wanted see v 26, psalm 101, etc.
"Bribes" – note and references at Ps 26:10.
"Widow" – v 17.

1:24 Leaders and people who behave as those described in the preceding verses are

- 25 And I will turn my hand against you,
and thoroughly purge away your dross,
and take away all your alloy.
- 26 And I will restore your judges as at the first,
and your counsellors as at the beginning.
Afterward you will be called,
The City of Righteousness,
The Faithful City.
- 27 "Zion will be redeemed with justice,
and her repentant ones with righteousness.
- 28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners will be together,
and those who forsake the LORD will be consumed.
- 29 For you will be ashamed of the sacred oaks which you have desired, and you will be disgraced because of the gardens that you have chosen.
- 30 For you will be like an oak whose leaf fades away,
and like a garden that has no water.
- 31 And the strong will be like tinder,
and his handiwork like a spark;
and they will both burn together,
and no one will quench them."

2 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

God's enemies and He knows how to deal with them (Deut 32:40,41; etc).

1:25-31 All these verses are spoken concerning the city of Jerusalem. In spite of the corruption of its inhabitants God continued to have a high and holy purpose toward the city. He was determined to purge it and to restore justice and righteousness to it. This would mean suffering to the city and destruction to the rebellious.

1:25 "Purge" – 4:4; Ps 66:10-12; Mal 3:3.

1:26 He means judges who would guide and lead as Samuel, for example, did.
"Faithful City" – v 21; Zech 8:3.

1:27 "Repentant" – only those who turn heartily to God will be spared and partake of God's blessings to Zion.

1:28 Ps 9:5; Isa 66:24; Jer 16:4; 2 Thess 1:8-9.

1:29 This refers to places of idolatry and, possibly, sexual immorality (65:3).

1:30 Contrast with 5:7; Ps 1:3; Song of Songs 4:12.

1:31 9:8,19; 10:17; 24:6; 26:11; 33:27,33; 66:15,16; Mal 3:2; 4:1; Matt 25:41; 2 Thess 1:7; Heb 12:29; Rev 21:8.

2:1-4 There are several other passages in Isaiah that speak of this same period of time (9:7; 11:1-16; 12:1-6; 24:21-23; 32:1-5; 40:1-11; 54:1-17; 60:1-22; 62:1-12; 65:8-10,17-25; 66:7-13,19-21). All of these, together with this one here in chapter 2, have been interpreted in the following ways –

(1) There has been no fulfillment of them

- 2 And it will come about in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house will be established on the top of the mountains,
 and will be raised above the hills,
 and all nations will stream to it.
- 3 And many people will go and say,
 "Come and let us go up to the mountain
 of the LORD,
 to the house of the God of Jacob;
 and he will teach us his ways,

and there never will be.

(2) They have been fulfilled in Israel's past.

(3) They are being, at least partially, fulfilled now in this Church age, and their fulfillment will be completed in the eternal ages.

(4) They will be fulfilled only in the eternal ages after the end of the world.

(5) They will be fulfilled, at least for the most part, in a literal reign of Christ on earth (the thousand year reign of Rev 20:4-6).

(6) There has been a partial spiritual fulfillment of some of these things in this Church age, but they will have a more literal fulfillment in the millennium and an eternal fulfillment in the ages to come after that (see note on 60:1-22).

Because Isaiah was writing the truth of God by the inspiration of God's Spirit, the first interpretation is totally impossible – God does not say things will happen which will never happen (Matt 5:17,18). The second interpretation is impossible to maintain unless we ignore the plain meaning of words – they simply have never been fulfilled in the history of the nation Israel. The third view is favored by a large number of scholars. However, it seems to the author of these notes that this view is possible to maintain only if we ignore many of the details of these prophecies – a thing he believes should not be done. The fourth interpretation also has its great difficulties – we can hardly think that some of the things prophesied here will exist when time is swallowed up in eternity.

The last two interpretations seem far more likely to the author of these notes. Some of the things prophesied will scarcely fit anywhere else than in a literal reign of Christ on earth. See the notes on all the passages in Isaiah listed above.

Isaiah "saw" what follows because God revealed it to him as in 1:1; 6:1. Very often in the prophets we read of God showing dreams and visions and speaking words of explanation (compare Jer 1:11-16; 24:1-10; Ezek 1:1; 10:1; Dan 7:1; 8:1; Zech 1:8; 3:1; 5:1). In the verses that follow here we have only the words of prophecy God revealed. The words announce a very important theme in Isaiah - the complete establishment of God's kingdom. In verses 2-4 we see its establishment, in verses 6-21 the events that lead up to it. Observe that the following and we will walk in his paths."

 For out of Zion the law will go forth,
 and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

- 4 And he will judge among the nations and rebuke many people.
 And they will beat their swords into plowshares,
 and their spears into pruning hooks.
 Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
 nor will they learn war any more.
- 5 O house of Jacob, come and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

prophecy concerns the land of Judah and the city of Jerusalem, and that there is no hint that these words should not be taken in their literal sense.

2:2 Verses 2-4 with only minor changes are found in Micah 4:1-3.

"The last days" – this phrase is indefinite in meaning. It may mean simply sometime in the more or less distant future. In the Bible the phrase sometimes means this present era of the Church (Acts 2:17; Heb 1:2. Compare 1 Pet 1:20; 1 John 2:18). In this use of the phrase it means that this era is the last before the return of the Lord Jesus from heaven. The last days could include the actual return of Christ and the results that flow from that. His return will occur at the last days of the last days. The phrase here in Isaiah could be translated "at the end of the days."

"Mountain" – Mount Zion (11:9; 27:13; 56:7; 57:13; 65:25; 66:20). It signifies the city of Jerusalem (v 3).

"Raised above the hills" – if we take this prophecy at what it plainly seems to suggest we will think that Jerusalem and the nation Israel will have political supremacy in the world while the prophecy is being fulfilled. See also Zech 14:10, which indicates a physical raising of Jerusalem.

"All nations" – Ps 102:15; 117:1; Jer 3:17; 16:19; Zech 14:16; Rev 21:26. The reason for this is in the next verse.

2:3 At last the nations of earth will learn that the God of Israel is the true and only God and will want to learn His ways. On God as teacher see Ps 25:4; 71:17; 94:10,12; 119:102; Isa 54:13; Matt 5:2; Mark 6:34; John 6:45; 14:26. Note on God of Jacob at Ps 146:5.

2:4 "Judge" – Ps 96:13; 98:9. When God Himself acts as judge to the nations of earth, perfect justice will prevail. And the effect of perfect justice will be universal peace (32:17).

"War any more" – the whole course of this age of the Church has been quite different from this. There have been, and still are, many wars going on somewhere in the world, and at present the huge armament industries of the nations are not turning out plowshares. Contrast this verse with Joel 3:10; Matt 24:6,7. Since this prophecy of Isaiah has not yet taken place we look for a future fulfillment.

2:5 "Light" – Ps 43:3; 89:15; 118:27;

- 6 For you have forsaken your people the house of Jacob, because they are filled with eastern ways, and they are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they are pleased with the children of foreigners.
- 7 Their land is also full of silver and gold, and there is no end of their treasures. Their land is also full of horses, and there is no end of their chariots.
- 8 Their land also is full of idols. They worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made;
- 9 And the common man bows down, and the great man abases himself. Therefore do not forgive them.
- 10 Go into the rocks, and hide yourself in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.
- 11 The lofty looks of man will be humbled, and the haughtiness of men will be brought low, and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.
- 12 For the day of the LORD of hosts will come on everyone who is proud and lofty, and on everyone who is lifted up; and he will be brought low; and on all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and on all the oaks of Bashan, and on all the high mountains, and on all the hills that are lifted up, and on every high tower, and on every fortified wall, and on all the ships of Tarshish, and on all beautiful vessels.
- 17 And the loftiness of man will be brought down, and the haughtiness of men will be made low, and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.
- 18 And the idols he will utterly abolish.
- 19 And they will go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD and for the glory of his majesty, when he arises to shake terribly the earth.
- 20 In that day a man will throw his silver idols and his gold idols, which each of them made for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats,

John 1:4,9; 8:12; 12:35; Eph 5:8; 1 John 1:5,7; Rev 22:5. Isaiah makes an appeal based on the wonderful truth revealed in the preceding verses. The nations who knew not God will come and learn of Him who is in a special sense the God of Jacob. Should not, then, the house of Jacob itself cease from rebellion and walk in His light?

2:6 Isaiah returns to a description of the pathetic state of the people of Israel. They were guilty of three evils which caused God to reject them. Instead of trusting the word of the true and living God they believed the superstitions of other nations, especially those from the east. Here this probably means Syria and Babylonia. They also practiced sorcery which God had clearly forbidden in His Word (Deut 18:9-13). And they refused to keep themselves a separate and holy people as God instructed them to be (Ex 19:5,6; Lev 20:7,8; Deut 7:6; 14:2). They preferred the ways of other nations with their false gods and religions, and sinful practices. In all this there is instruction and warning for Christians today. Superstitions, sorcery, and the powerful influences of people who do not know God are everywhere in the world. Believers must not yield to such things but be careful to obey such verses as 2 Cor 6:14-18.

2:7 They had wealth but what was the use of it? God's anger was soon to come on them. (Compare Ps 49:10; 73:12,18,19; Luke 12:16-21; Jam 5:1-3.)

2:8 They willfully refused to obey God's Word which forbids all idolatry (Ex 20:1-6,22,23; Deut 13:6-18; 29:17,18).

2:9 Idolatry is intolerable to the one true God, and because of it men will be brought low and perish in their sins (vs 20,21; 13:11; 45:16; Lev 26:30; Jer 7:5,6; Ezek 6:4; 1 Cor 6:9; Rev 21:8; 22:15).

2:10-21 These verses all refer to a time in the future called in v 12 "the day of the LORD." This means a time Jehovah has appointed. This time is referred to in many places in the Bible. For example, see 13:6-13; Joel 1:15; 1 Thess 5:2; Rev 6:15-17.

2:10 Verses 19,21; Rev 6:15-17. No refuge will be sufficient for sinful men when God arises in majesty to judge the world.

2:11-17 Haughtiness and other words indicating pride and arrogance are used eight times in these few verses. Man's arrogance is hateful to God (Prov 6:16,17; 21:4; Ps 18:27; 101:5; Jam 4:6), and He is determined to eradicate it from the face of the earth. The Day of the LORD will be especially against proud men and all they take pride in.

2:12 "LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

2:16 "Every ship of Tarshish" – Tarshish was famous in that day for merchant ships and trade by sea.

2:18 Idols are a result of man's proud defiance of the one true God and His words. When man's pride is broken and destroyed, idols will disappear.

2:19 At the end of this age God will shake the whole earth (24:19,20; Heb 12:26-29; Rev 6:14; 16:17-20).

2:20 At last men will see how useless their idols are. They will learn what believers in the true God have always known –

- 21 To go into the crevices of the rocks, and into the crags of the ragged rocks,
for fear of the LORD and for the glory of his majesty,
when he arises to shake terribly the earth.
- 22 Cease from man, whose breath is in his nostrils;
for of what account is he?

- 3 For, look, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, is taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah
the supply and the support,
the whole supply of bread,
and the whole supply of water,
- 2 The mighty man, and the warrior,
the judge, and the prophet,
and the diviner, and the elder,
- 3 The captain of fifty,
and the honourable man,
and the counsellor, and the skillful craftsman,
and the eloquent orator.
- 4 And I will make children their princes,
and babes will rule over them.
- 5 And the people will be oppressed, each one by another, and each one
by his neighbour.
The child will be insolent against the elder,
and the base against the honourable.
- 6 When a man takes hold of his brother from the house of his father, saying, "You have clothing;
you be our ruler, and let these ruins
be in your charge",

- 7 In that day he will protest, saying,
"I am no healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing.
Do not make me a ruler of the people."
- 8 For Jerusalem is ruined,
and Judah has fallen,
because their tongue and their actions
are against the LORD, provoking the eyes of his glory.
- 9 The look on their face testifies against them,
and they declare their sin like Sodom;
they do not hide it.
Woe to their soul!
For they have brought evil on themselves.
- 10 Tell the righteous that it will be well with him, for they will partake of the fruit of their actions.
- 11 Woe to the wicked!
It will go badly with him,
for he will be paid back for what his hands have done.
- 12 As for my people, children are their oppressors,
and women rule over them.
O my people, those who lead you cause you to go astray and destroy the way of your paths.
- 13 The LORD stands up to plead,
and stands up to judge the people.
- 14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the elders of his people and its rulers;
for you have eaten up the vineyard.

Ps 115:2-8.

2:21 The time is coming when the proud and arrogant will no longer defy God, but will run from His anger and crawl to hiding places.

2:22 In the light of the above truth, however trustworthy individual men may be, it is foolish to trust in man in general (Ps 118:8; 146:3; Jer 17:5). Isaiah chapter 1 and 2:6-9 show what mankind is like. Chapter 2:10-21 shows what will happen to mankind. In the light of this is mankind to be trusted? Absolutely not.

3:1 "Judah" – the revelation in this chapter does not have to do with the future "Day of the Lord", but with Isaiah's own time, and it refers only to Judah and Jerusalem. God was about to bring punishment on that land and city. It would be a time of famine (v 1), defeat (vs 2,3), destruction (v 6), and despair (v 7).

3:4 Verse 12. No strong leaders would be left in the country.

3:5 The result would be anarchy and chaos, with everyone trying to get the best of everyone else.

3:6,7 Usually, alas, men are all too eager to rule others. But in the day of Jerusalem's destruction they would avoid responsibility.

3:8-17 God gives the reasons why He had to so severely punish His people. Justice demanded that they reap what they sowed (vs 9,11. See Ps 18:25-26; Gal 6:7,8).

3:8 Because of this rebellion against God they were at the point of utter collapse.

3:9 "Sodom" – 1:9,10. They did many shameful things, but had no shame because of them. So God would put them to shame.

3:10,11 In the middle of prophecies of disaster here is a wonderful encouragement for God's true servants. Let us take it to heart when we find ourselves in the midst of evil men. Everywhere in the Bible we see that the rewards of a righteous life and the results of a wicked life are vastly different. Psalm 37 is a beautiful revelation of all this.

3:12 "Cause you to go astray" – 9:16; Jer 50:6. It is an awesome responsibility to lead people, and all leaders will have to answer to God for how they have led them (vs 14,15).

3:13 Ps 82:1.

3:14,15 Besides leading the people astray, the leaders wrecked God's work and oppressed and plundered the poor. God Almighty is concerned for the poor. He sees what happens to them, and He will avenge them (Ps 12:5; 35:10; 37:14,15; 72:12-14).

- The plunder from the poor is in your houses.
- 15 "What do you mean by crushing my people and grinding the faces of the poor?" says the Lord God of hosts.
- 16 Moreover the LORD says,
"Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched out necks and wanton eyes,
walking and mincing as they go,
and making a tinkling sound with their feet,
- 17 Therefore the Lord will bring scabs on the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion,
and the LORD will uncover their secret parts."
- 18 In that day the Lord will take away their finery,
their tinkling anklets, and their headbands,
and their crescent ornaments,
- 19 The pendants, and the bracelets,
and the veils,
- 20 The headdresses, and the leg ornaments,
and the scarves, and the perfume bottles,
and the charms,
- 21 The rings, and nose jewels,
- 22 The fine apparel, and the capes,
and the cloaks, and the purses,
- 23 The mirrors, and the fine linen,
and the turbans, and the veils.
- 24 And it will be like this:
Instead of a sweet smell there will be a stink;
and instead of a sash, a rope;
and instead of well-set hair, baldness;
and instead of fine clothing,
a wearing of sackcloth;
and instead of beauty, branding.
- 25 Your men will fall by the sword,

- and your mighty in the war.
- 26 And her gates will lament and mourn,
and she will sit on the ground desolate.

- 4 And in that day seven women will seize one man, saying,
"We will eat our own food, and wear
our own clothes;
only let us be called by your name,
to take away our disgrace."
- 2 In that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth will be the pride and splendour for those of Israel who have escaped.
- 3 And it will be that those left in Zion
and those who remain in Jerusalem, will be called holy, everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem,
- 4 When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and has purged the blood of Jerusalem from its midst by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.
- 5 Then the LORD will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and above her assemblies,
a cloud and smoke by day,
and the shining of a flaming fire by night.
Over all the glory will be a canopy.
- 6 And there will be a tent for shade in the daytime from the heat,
and for a place of refuge,
and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

- 5 Now I will sing to my loved one a song of my beloved concerning

3:16 We see from 2:11-17 what God thinks of pride, arrogance and haughtiness. Here we see that the women were as guilty of this as the men.

3:17-24 God will crush haughtiness whenever it is found. It is especially hateful to Him when it appears among His own people, and among those (the women) who should be known for their submission, gentleness, and humility. Compare this passage with 1 Tim 2:9,10 and 1 Pet 3:1-6.

3:25 See 1:20; 3:2,3.

3:26 "Mourn" – Ps 137:1; Isa 29:2; Jer 14:2; Lam 1:1-4.

4:1 "Man" – many of the men would be killed (3:25), and many women left without possibility of marriage.

"Disgrace" – women of that day thought it a disgrace to remain unmarried and childless (Gen 30:23; Isa 54:4; Luke 1:25).

4:2-4 "Branch" – this is probably a prophecy of the Messiah. Compare 11:1; 53:2; Jer 23:5; Zech 4:12. However some scholars think that branch here may refer to God's people. In either case, these verses speak of a revival of spiritual life in Israel and Judah.

4:4 See 1:25; 48:10,11.

4:5,6 See Ex 13:21,22; 40:38. If these verses are to have a literal fulfillment (and who can say it is impossible?), perhaps it will be in connection with Isa 30:26. Some scholars think this is simply a poetic way of indicating God's protection over His people. It may be so, but when God did something similar in a literal way in the past (Ex 13:21,22), it would not be wise to rule out the possibility of some kind of literal fulfillment of these verses in the future.

5:1-6 Here is a parable regarding the nation of Israel as a whole and the tribe of Judah in particular. Those who thought of themselves as God's people are called a vineyard. Compare Ps 80:8-19; Isa 3:14; 27:2; Jer 2:21; 12:10; Ezek 17:6-8; 19:10-14; Hos 10:1; 14:7; Micah 7:1; Matt 20:1-16; 21:33-44; John 15:1-5.

5:1 The prophet speaks of God and His

- his vineyard.
My loved one has a vineyard in a very fruitful hill;
- 2 And he dug it up, and cleared away its stones, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the middle of it, and also made a winepress in it. Then he looked for it to produce grapes, and it produced wild grapes.
- 3 "And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard.
- 4 What more could have been done to my vineyard that I have not done in it? Why then, when I looked for it to produce grapes, did it produce wild grapes?
- 5 Come now, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard. I will take away its hedge, and it will be devoured. And I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down.
- 6 And I will make it a desolation. It will not be pruned, or dug, but briars and thorns will come up. I will also command the clouds to rain no rain on it."
- 7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
- and the men of Judah are his pleasant plant. And he looked for justice, but saw oppression; for righteousness, but heard a cry of distress.
- 8 Woe to those who add house to house, who join field to field, until there is no space left, so that they may live alone in the midst of the land!
- 9 In my ears the LORD of hosts said: "Certainly many great and beautiful houses will be desolate, without inhabitant.
- 10 Yes, ten acres of vineyard will yield only one bath, and a homer of seed will yield only an ephah."
- 11 Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may go after strong drink, and who continue until night, till wine inflames them!
- 12 And the harp, and the lyre, the tambourine, and flute, and wine, are in their feasts. But they do not regard the work of the LORD, nor consider the work of his hands.
- 13 Therefore my people go into captivity, because they have no knowledge, and their honourable men are famished, and their masses are dried up from thirst.
- 14 Therefore hell has enlarged itself, people Israel. "Sing" here means merely to utter in poetic form. The "fruitful hill" is the land of Israel.

5:2-4 God did all He could possibly do to make the vineyard good, fruitful, and safe. But all he got for His work was bad fruit. In v 3 God Himself begins to speak through Isaiah. Why was it that only bad fruit was produced from such careful effort? Was it the fault of the owner of the vineyard, or the fault of the people who were the vineyard? The answer is so obvious that God calls upon the people of the vineyard themselves to give the answer.

5:5,6 God does not say He will simply depart and abandon His vineyard. He says He will work actively for its destruction. This is because the vineyard is a nation which deserved punishment and which needed drastic correction. God used invading armies to accomplish His purposes.

5:7 The prophet put the matter beyond doubt by explaining the parable. From here to v 25 he points out what is meant by the bad fruit of verses 2 and 4. The good fruit God looked for is stated in two words in v 7 – justice and righteousness. The bad fruits were many. This verse gives two – murder and unjust oppression of the people that made them cry out in pain.

5:8-23 He pronounces a number of "woes"

on the people for their sins (v 8, 11, 18, 20, 21, 22). These "woes" mean God is denouncing them and will punish them.

5:8-10 The sin here is greed for property. A common and very foolish sin which God hates and forbids (Ex 20:17; Luke 12:15; 1 Tim 6:6-10. For an illustration of greed that was terribly punished see 1 Kings 21:1-19). God punished these greedy people by making their fields unfruitful and by carrying them off from their fine houses.

5:10 "Ten acres" – in Hebrew "ten-yoke" – that is, the land that 10 yoke of oxen could plow in one day.

"Bath" – probably about 22 liters.

"Homer" – probably about 6 bushels (220 dry liters).

"Ephah" – probably about one half bushel (22 liters dry measure).

5:11-17 The sin here is drunkenness and revelry. Those engaging in it did not "consider the work of his hands" (v 12). They thought only of their own pleasures and lusts. The punishment would be exile to a foreign land where, instead of enjoying wine and rich foods, they would die of hunger and thirst (vs 13,14). Observe in this chapter how fitting each punishment is to the crime.

5:14 "Hell" – in Hebrew "Sheol" – note at Gen 37:35.

- and opened its mouth without limit;
and their glory, and their masses,
and their pomp, and he who rejoices,
will descend into it.
- 15 And the common man will be brought down,
and the mighty man will be abased,
and the eyes of the arrogant will be brought low.
- 16 But the LORD of hosts will be exalted in judgment,
and the holy God will be hallowed in
righteousness.
- 17 Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture,
and strangers will eat in the waste places of the rich.
- 18 Woe to those who drag wickedness along with cords of falsehood,
and sin as if with a cart rope.
- 19 They say, "Let him hurry, and hasten his work,
so that we can see it;
and let the plan of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
so that we can know it."
- 20 Woe to those who call evil good,
and good evil;
who put darkness for light,
and light for darkness;
who put bitter for sweet,
and sweet for bitter.
- 21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,
and prudent in their own sight.
- 22 Woe to those who are heroes in

- drinking wine
and champions in mixing strong drink;
- 23 Who declare the wicked innocent for a bribe,
and take away the justice of the righteous from him,
- 24 Therefore as the fire devours the stubble,
and the flame consumes the chaff,
so their root will become rotten,
and their blossom will go up like dust;
because they have cast away the law
of the LORD of hosts,
and despised the word of the Holy One
of Israel.
- 25 Therefore the anger of the LORD burns against his people,
and he has stretched out his hand against them and struck them;
and the hills trembled,
and their corpses were torn in the middle of the streets.
- For all this his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.
- 26 And he will lift up a banner to the nations from afar,
and will whistle to them from the end
of the earth;
and, look, they come speedily, swiftly!
- 27 None of them will be weary or stumble.
No one will slumber or sleep;
nor will the belt around their waist
be loosened,
nor the strap of their sandals be broken.

5:15 See 2:11-18. Again God reveals His hatred of man's arrogance.

5:16 Observe that God is glorified in His just punishment of sinners and in the display of His righteousness which results in their destruction.

5:17 This speaks of desolation and enemy occupation of land.

5:18-23 Here is a list of sins with threatened "woes." The punishment for all of these sins is described in vs 24-30.

5:18 So much of man's sin has to do with deceit – deceiving others, and often themselves, and trying to deceive God as well. The mention of cords and ropes suggests labor. These people worked hard at their sins.

5:19 These sinners spoke these words in sarcasm. As so many others they did not believe God's threatened judgments would come on them.

5:20 This shows the depths of their depravity. By sin and hardness of heart they had lost the desire, and perhaps even the ability, to distinguish between right and wrong. Compare Rom 1:21; Eph 4:18,19; Heb 5:14.

5:21 Prov 3:7; Isa 47:10; 1 Cor 1:18-21; 3:18-20. To be wise in one's own eyes is to cut oneself off from God's wisdom and to commit the sin of arrogance.

5:22,23 In verses 11,12, the prophet denounces this sin in general. Here he denounces it in the judges and leaders. In Hebrew these two verses are clearly linked. The judges were "heroes", that is, very capable people, at drinking. But they were corrupt in administration and incapable of just verdicts. On bribery see Ex 23:8; 1 Sam 8:3; Ps 26:10; Prov 15:27; 17:23; Amos 5:12.

5:24,25 None of the classes of sinners described in the preceding verses will escape God's punishment. Observe that the root cause of their evil behavior was the rejection of God's Word as a ruling power in their lives.

5:25 "Stretched out still" – 9:12,17,21; 10:4. He would go on punishing them until the demands of justice were fully met.

5:26-30 These verses speak of invasions by foreign armies. God calls them to come against His own people for their chastisement. In 722 and 701 B.C. Assyria invaded Israel and Judah. Beginning in 605 B.C. Babylon invaded Judah more than once. See 2 Kings 17:1-20; 24:1-25; Jeremiah chapter 52.

- 28 Their arrows are sharp,
and all their bows are bent.
Their horses' hooves will seem like flint,
and their wheels like a whirlwind.
- 29 Their roaring will be like a lion.
They will roar like young lions.
Yes, they will roar, and take hold of the prey,
and will carry it away safely,
and no one will rescue it.
- 30 And in that day they will roar against them like the roaring of the sea.
And if one looks toward the land, darkness and sorrow appear,
and the light is darkened by its clouds.

6 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple. 2 Above it stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings.

6:1 "Died" – 1:1. We are not told whether the vision Isaiah saw was before or after Uzziah's death, only that it occurred in that year (740 B.C. Uzziah was also called Azariah. A description of his reign is in 2 Kings 15:1-7 and 2 Chron 26:1-23).

"Saw" – God's spiritual essence cannot be seen by men (Ex 34:20; 1 Tim 6:16; John 1:18; 6:46), but men can see a revelation of His glory, or His manifestation in human form, if He chooses to give one (Gen 16:13; 18:22,23; Deut 34:10; Ezek 1:26). Isaiah saw the glory of the Son of God – see John 12:41. Observe in v 5 that Isaiah calls Him "the LORD [Jehovah] of hosts." In other words, Jesus the Son of God is Jehovah. See also Gen 16:7; Ex 3:14; Ps 23:1; 24:7-10; 96:10-13; Zech 12:10; note at Luke 2:11. The hem of His garment reached the temple in Jerusalem.

6:2 "Seraphim" – the plural of seraph, a word that comes from the Hebrew verb "to burn." It may mean something like "flaming" or "fiery" spirits. See Heb 1:7. They are similar to the "living beings" seen by Ezekiel and John (Ezek 1:5; 10:15; Rev 4:8), but each description varies somewhat from the others. Very little is revealed in the Bible about these mysterious spirit beings.

6:3 The seraphs are overwhelmed by one aspect of God's being – His holiness (see also Rev 4:8). This is in line with the book of Isaiah, and, indeed, the whole Bible which reveals from beginning to end God's glorious holiness. Note at Lev 20:7.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

"Glory" – Num 14:21; Ps 72:19. God's glory is revealed in His creation and in His acts. His glory is everywhere on earth but many people are ignorant of it. The time will come when all men will know it (11:9).

6:4 Shaking and the appearance of smoke are often connected with God's presence (64:1; Ex 19:18; Ps 18:7,8; 68:8; 104:32; Rev 15:8). They speak of His glory and power and His fiery holiness (Heb 12:29).

With two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. 3 And one cried to another, and said,

"Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts! The whole earth is full of his glory."

4 And the posts of the door were shaken at the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 Then I said, "Woe to me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts."

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from the altar, 7 And he touched my mouth with it, and said, "See, this has touched your lips, and your guilt is taken away, and your sin is purged."

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"

6:5 "Undone" – the Hebrew word could also be translated "ruined" or "cut off."

"King" – human beings die, the King of heaven rules forever. Isaiah had to take his eyes (and his hopes) away from the kings of his people and place them on God the King. The effect of the vision is what we might expect if we know something of God's holiness and the sinfulness of even the best of men. Probably Isaiah expected to die on the spot. Compare Ex 3:6; 33:20; Jud 13:22; Job 13:11; Ezek 1:28; Dan 8:17,18,27; 10:7-9; Acts 9:3,4; Rev 1:17. In God's presence he became very conscious of his own uncleanness and the uncleanness of the people. It is God's holy presence that awakens men to their sin, guilt and depravity. In His light, we see what we really are like (Luke 5:8; John 16:8; Ps 32:1-5; Eph 5:13; 1 John 1:5-7).

The lips are a door through which the depravity of men's hearts is revealed (Matt 12:34; 15:11; Rom 3:13). How often those who want to please and serve God are convicted of their inner sinful nature by their inability to control their tongues (Ps 39:1-13; Jam 3:2,6,8).

6:6,7 Isaiah is seeing a vision, and this is a symbolic act. It was given to assure Isaiah that his sins were forgiven. God commanded the priests of Israel to keep fire burning permanently on the brazen altar of sacrifice (Lev 6:12,13). A coal of fire from there would speak of atoning sacrifice. Note on atonement at Ex 29:33. Every servant of God before he enters the ministry should have the assurance that his sins are forgiven, his guilt atoned for. It is a very basic part of the foundation of a ministry successful and pleasing in God's eyes. In Isaiah's case the coal of fire touched his lips – that part of him which made him most conscious of his sin and depravity.

6:8 God has His work on earth and he wants willing servants to do it. This willingness of men should arise out of God's mercy

- Then I said, "Here am I. Send me." 9 And he said, "Go, and tell this people,
 'You listen and listen,
 but you do not understand;
 and you look and look,
 but you do not perceive.'
 10 Make the heart of this people dull,
 and make their ears heavy,
 and shut their eyes;
 lest they see with their eyes,
 and hear with their ears,
 and understand with their heart,
 and turn to me and be healed."
 11 Then I said, "Lord, how long?"
 And he answered,
 "Until the cities are made a wasteland without inhabitant,
 and the houses without man,
 and the land is utterly desolate, 12 And the LORD has removed men far away, and the forsaken places in the midst of the land are many.
 13 But yet a tenth part will be in it, and it will return and be for consuming, like a terebinth tree or an oak.

toward them in making atonement for their sins and blotting out their guilt. Compare Ps 51:1,13,14; Rom 12:1,2.

"Us" – note at Gen 1:26.

"Here am I" – Gen 22:1; Ex 3:4; 1 Sam 3:4,6,8; Acts 22:10.

6:9,10 Isaiah's ministry in part was to pronounce God's judgment on his nation, to be God's instrument in making them ripe for destruction. The very truth he preached would harden the people because they would not repent and receive it into their hearts. But why would God want the hearts of His people (or any people) hardened? Because the time had come to punish them for their sin and rebellion. God does not delight in punishing, but justice demands it. On hardening see note at Ex 4:21. The Lord Jesus quoted these verses from Isaiah in Matt 13:14,15, and Paul in Acts 28:26,27. He probably referred to them also in Rom 11:25.

"Ears" – those who will not willingly hear God's Word will be deprived of the ability.

"Eyes" – those who love darkness will be deprived of the ability to see spiritual light and truth. Isaiah must have been dismayed at such a commission. He naturally wondered how long he would have to do such disagreeable work and whether there would be some more appealing ministry eventually. God did not promise him a happier work. But he has given His servants in these New Testament days a more glorious ministry (Matt 28:18-20; 2 Cor 3:6-11). Isaiah too was later a prophet to foretell

Its stump remains to it when it is cut down.
 So the holy seed will be its stump."

7 And it came about in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to make war against it, but they could not conquer it. 2 And the house of David was told, saying, "Syria has become an ally of Ephraim." And his heart, and the heart of his people, was shaken like the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind.

3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-Jashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool on the road to the Fuller's Field, 4 and say to him, 'Be careful, and be calm. Do not be afraid or faint-hearted because of these two stubs of smouldering firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah, 5 because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have made an evil plot against you, saying, 6 "Let us go up against Judah, and trouble it, and let us make a break in its wall for ourselves, and set the son of Tabeal as king over it." 7 Thus says the Lord God, 'It will not stand, nor will it come to pass. 8 For the

the glorious gospel of Christ, though he was not given a promise here that he would be.

These two verses read as follows in the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Hebrew Old Testament made by Jewish scholars before Christ was born): "'You will be ever hearing, but never understanding; you will be ever seeing, but never perceiving.' This people's heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes."

6:13 Even in the work of hardening and destruction God would preserve a remnant of the people for Himself. This is always God's way.

"Stump" – 11:1.

7:1 2 Kings 16:5-18; 2 Chron 28:16-21. This happened probably about 735 B.C.

7:2 The kings of Judah were all descended from the royal house of David. At this time Ahaz was on the throne. Ephraim was the leading tribe of the northern kingdom of Israel, and that whole kingdom is meant here.

7:3 Shear-Jashub means "a remnant will return."

7:4-9 Though Ahaz was a bad king (2 Kings 16:1-4), God sent him a good message. God would deliver the southern kingdom of Judah from these attacks from the north. The two attacking powers were only smoking firebrands, soon to be put out. In 732 B.C. the Assyrians captured Damascus, Syria's capital, and then defeated Israel.

7:7 "LORD God" – see note at Gen 15:2.

7:8 "Sixty-five years" – this was literally fulfilled. See 2 Kings 17:5,6,24.

head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim will be broken, no longer to be a people. 9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you will not be established."

10 Moreover, the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying, 11 "Ask the LORD your God for a sign for yourself. Ask it to be either in the deep, or in the height above."

12 But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, nor will I put the LORD to the test."

13 And he said, "Listen now, O house of David! Is it so small a thing for you to weary men, that you will weary my God also? 14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, a virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and will call his name Immanuel. 15 He will eat curds and honey, when he knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

7:9 "Remaliah's son" – this was Pekah, a usurper of the throne of Israel.

"Established" – the kingdom of Israel fell because they did not believe and put into practice God's word (2 Kings 17:7-18). Here the Lord warns the nation of Judah and the house of David that unbelief will be their ruin also.

7:10,11 God is willing to give signs to encourage weak faith in His promises (Ex 3:12; 4:1-9; Jud 6:16-22,36-40). Here God tells Ahaz to ask for a sign. But in Matt 12:38,39 the Lord Jesus said that a wicked and adulterous generation asks for a sign. Sometimes asking for signs may be good, sometimes bad. It depends on the circumstances, or the persons, or the motive.

7:12 Perhaps Ahaz wanted to put on a self-righteous front before Isaiah. As if to say, "I am not the kind of a man who needs any signs or who commits the sin of tempting God" (compare Deut 6:16). But the truth is, Ahaz was a wicked man who did not want any dealings with Jehovah the true God of the universe.

7:13 God Himself had told him to ask for a sign, so Ahaz was trying God's patience by disobedience and hypocritical self-righteousness.

7:14 This verse is a clear prophecy concerning the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ. We know this because the Holy Spirit inspired the apostle Matthew to say so. See Matt 1:18-25. The name Immanuel, which means "God with us" can apply fully only to the Lord Jesus. He alone is the incarnation of God (Isa 9:6,7; John 1:1,14; etc.). This verse is a wonderful prophecy of a supernatural, miraculous event which took place more than 700 years after it was uttered. This birth of a child to a virgin is called a "sign." A sign from God must be something very striking and remarkable. For a young woman, even an unmarried young woman, to have a child is no striking or remarkable thing. But for one who had never been with a man to have a child would

16 For before the child will know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be deserted. 17 The LORD will bring the king of Assyria on you, and on your people, and on your father's house, days that have not come from the day that Ephraim broke away from Judah."

18 And it will happen in that day, that the LORD will whistle for the fly that is in the furthest part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. 19 And they will come and all of them will settle on the desolate valleys, and in the crevices of the rocks, and on all the thorn bushes, and on all the pastures. 20 In the same day the Lord will shave the head and the hair of the legs with a hired razor, with those beyond the River, with the king of Assyria, and will also remove the beard. 21 And it will happen in that day, that a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep. 22 And be a divine miracle. This sign was to be for the whole house of David, not to Ahaz alone (v 13 – in v 14 the plural for "you" is used).

Some commentators believe that this verse must have somehow a twofold fulfillment. This is because they argue that the verses which follow deal with the historical situation of Isaiah's day and the virgin's son seemingly was to be a sign to the people then living. It may be so, is probably so, but the Holy Spirit has not revealed how it was fulfilled through the birth of any child in the time of Isaiah. And we are not told that any child was then called Immanuel. But in prophecy sometimes there does seem to be both a near and far fulfillment. Isa 8:18 may be an example of this.

7:15 The meaning of eating curds and honey is given in verses 22 in the context of verses 20-25. There would be an invasion of the Assyrian army and destruction and desolation in the land. More common food would not be available.

7:16 "Two kings" – v 1. Their lands were laid waste by the king of Assyria in 732 B.C., about 3 years after God inspired these words.

7:17 "Ephraim" – the northern kingdom of Israel – had broken away from Judah almost 200 years before (Kings 12:19,20). Ahaz was worried about the invasion of the kings of Israel and Syria. God says a far worse invasion would come on Judah in the future (see 8:7,8; 36:1).

7:18 "Fly", "bee" – means the soldiers of those countries. They would come like harmful and tormenting insects.

7:19 The land of Judah would be overrun by foreigners from these countries.

7:20 For others to forcibly shave off one's beard (and no doubt the hair of the body) was considered a disgrace (2 Sam 10:4,5). It indicated utter defeat. The "River" here means the Euphrates.

7:21,22 Signifies a time of trouble, when the produce of the fields would not be

it will happen, because of the abundance of milk they give, that he will eat curds; for everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey. 23 And it will happen in that day, that in every place where there had been a thousand vines worth a thousand silver shekels, there will be only briars and thorns. 24 Men will come there with arrows and with bows, because all the land will become briars and thorns. 25 And as for all the hills that were dug with a mattock, you will not go there for fear of briars and thorns; but it will become a place for sending out oxen, and for the sheep walk on.

8 Moreover the LORD said to me, "Take a large scroll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hashbaz. 2 And I will take for myself faithful witnesses to record it, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."

3 And I went to the prophetess; and she conceived, and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Call his name Maher-shalal-hashbaz. 4 For before the child has the knowledge to cry out, 'My father', and 'my mother', the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be taken away in front of the king of Assyria."

5 The LORD also spoke to me again, saying,
6 "Because these people refuse the waters of Shiloah that go softly, available.

"Everyone left in the land" – this phrase speaks of a time when many would be exiled from the land.

7:23-25 This will be the result of the exile of the people to other lands.

"A thousand. . . shekels" (v 23) – about 11.5 kilograms.

8:1,2 Maher-shalal-hash-baz is Hebrew for "swift to the plunder, quick to the spoil." The phrase is a prophecy of defeat of the northern kingdom of Israel and the kingdom of Syria by Assyria (v 4; 5:26,30; 7:16). It was given in this striking way to capture the attention of leaders and people. The prophecy was attested by two leading men in Judah before the event.

8:3 Isaiah named his son Maher-shalal-hash-baz to further impress on the people what God had revealed to him. Isaiah's wife is referred to as the prophetess. Some scholars believe this event is at least a partial fulfillment of 7:14. However, there is no proof for this.

8:4 "Assyria" – note at 2 Kings 15:19.

8:6 "This people" – the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

"Shiloah" – probably refers to the most important spring of water in Jerusalem. It is here a symbol of God's peaceful providence. Judah, when faced with their two enemies Israel and Syria, had rejected confidence in God and had looked to Assyria to protect them (2 Kings 16:7-9).

- and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son,
7 Now therefore, look, the Lord will bring on them the waters of the River, strong and mighty, the king of Assyria and all his glory; and he will come up over all his channels, and come up over all his banks,
8 And he will pass through Judah. He will overflow and pass over. He will reach up to the neck, and his wings will spread out to fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel."
9 Associate yourselves, O you people, but you will be broken in pieces. And give ear, all you of far countries. Arm yourselves, but you will be broken in pieces; arm yourselves, but you will be broken in pieces.
10 Take counsel together, but it will come to nothing. State the matter, but it will not stand; for God is with us.
11 For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,
12 "Do not say 'a conspiracy'; about all that this people call a conspiracy;

8:7 God determined to punish Judah for its unbelief and wickedness by the very nation Judah had trusted to save them. The Assyrian armies would come like a flood on the land.

"River" – the Euphrates.

8:8 "Neck" – the flood of Assyrians would not completely drown Jerusalem and Judah. The "waters" would come only to the neck, not over the head. The Assyrians besieged Jerusalem but departed in panic (chapter 37).

"Immanuel" – 7:16. Immanuel here means the coming Messiah, the Son of God, "God with us." Judah was His land.

8:9,10 These words are spoken to the enemies of Judah and Jerusalem. "God is with us" in Hebrew is just the one and same word used in 7:14 and 8:8 – Immanuel. If God is with us, if the Messiah is on our side, what can our enemies do? See Ps 56:9; 118:6; Jer 20:11; Rom 8:31-34; Heb 13:6.

8:11 "Strong hand" – suggests God's presence, control, support, inspiration to one He has appointed – Ezek 1:3; 3:14,22; 37:1; 40:1.

"Not walk in" – it is always easier to move with the crowd than to stand against it. Isaiah needed God's strong hand on him to maintain his stand against an evil and unbelieving generation.

8:12,13 They who fear God need not fear men. Notes on fear of God at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

- do not fear what they fear, or be afraid.
- 13 The LORD of hosts is the one you are to regard as holy; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.
- 14 And he will be as a sanctuary; but as a stone of stumbling and as a rock of staggering to both the houses of Israel, as a trap and as a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 15 And many among them will stumble and fall and be broken, and be snared and captured."
- 16 Bind up the testimony, seal up the law among my disciples.
- 17 And I will wait on the LORD, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

18 Look, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion.

19 And when they say to you, "Seek those who are mediums and wizards", who whisper and mutter,

8:14,15 The Lord is a safe sanctuary to those who fear and trust Him. To those who will not He will be a cause of falling and capture. Part of this verse is quoted in the New Testament. See Rom 9:33; 1 Pet 2:8. 8:16-22 Who is speaking in this passage? It is not easy to determine. The LORD (Jehovah) has been speaking up to v 16. In v 17 the speaker says he will wait for the LORD (Jehovah). Is it then Isaiah speaking about himself? The last word in v 17 and first word in v 18 are applied to the Lord Jesus in Heb 2:13. Then are all these verses spoken by the Messiah using Isaiah as a mouthpiece? Or do these verses have a double fulfillment in both Isaiah's day and Christ's? Very often there is this mystery about prophecies uttered by God's servants in the Old Testament. Their words sometimes seem to refer to themselves, but the Spirit of Christ who inspired them meant the words to apply to Christ. For example, see psalms 16, 40, 41, 69, 72, etc.

8:16 There are three views as to the speaker of these words – some say God the Father, some say the pre-incarnate Christ, some say Isaiah. In any case the meaning is the same. God's revelation through Isaiah was to be preserved for believers.

8:17 "Hides his face" – signifies anger and disfavor (1:17; Ps 13:1; 27:9; 30:7; 69:17).

8:18 These words are true of both Isaiah and Christ, but the primary reference is to Christ, as we know from Heb 2:13. That they may also refer to Isaiah is indicated by 8:3,4 and 7:3. The names of both his sons signified future events.

8:19,20 A striking contrast between the should not a people seek their God? Why consult the dead in behalf of the living? 20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. 21 And they will pass through the land, hard-pressed and hungry. And when they are hungry it will happen that they will get in a frenzy, and curse their king and their God, and look upward. 22 And they will look toward the earth, and see trouble and darkness, gloom and anguish; and they will be driven into darkness.

9 Nevertheless the gloom will not be on her who was distressed, as when he first humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterwards more grievously afflicted her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

Those who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light shined.

3 Have you multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy?

whisperings and mutterings of men who try to consult the spirits of dead people, and the pure revelations of the Word of God. On the subject of mediums and wizards see Deut 18:9-15. Any person who speaks contrary to God's word in the Bible has little or no spiritual enlightenment or understanding.

8:21,22 God's judgments were coming on the land in Isaiah's day, are coming on the world in the future. Those who do not believe and obey God's revelation will fall into the terrible condition described here.

"Curse" – compare Rev 16:9,11,21.

"Darkness" – Matt 22:13; 25:30; 2 Pet 2:17; Jude 13. Again we are shown that those who refuse the light of God's word will be punished with utter darkness (Matt 8:12; 22:13; 25:30; 2 Pet 2:4; Jude 13).

9:1 This looks forward to the time of Christ. See Matt 4:12-16.

"First" – the land of these tribes in the northern kingdom of Israel greatly suffered at the hands of the Assyrian army in 734 and 732 BC, and the whole northern kingdom was destroyed in 722 BC.

9:2 "Darkness" – spiritual darkness.

"A great light" – means the person and teachings and work of the Lord Jesus (Luke 1:78,79; 2:32; John 8:12; 1 John 1:5; Ps 27:1; 36:9).

"Shadow of death" – indicates very intense spiritual darkness and danger.

9:3 The Lord Jesus came to greatly enlarge the number of those who would come to the light and become His people. And He came to bring true heavenly joy (61:3; John 15:18; 16:20-24; 17:13; Rom 14:17; 1 Pet 1:8; 1 John 1:4).

- The joy they have in your presence is like the joy in harvest, like the joy men have when they divide the plunder.
- 4 For you have broken the yoke of his burden,
and the bar across his shoulders,
the rod of his oppressor,
as in the day of Midian.
- 5 Because every warrior's boot from the noisy battle,
and garments rolled in blood, will be for burning and fuel for the fire.

9:4 "You have broken" – in 701 BC the Assyrian army was destroyed. Isaiah foretells this clearly in 10:24-27. If we think of a spiritual fulfillment of this verse we can find it in the work of the Lord Jesus in rescuing His people from the bondage of sin and misery (61:1; Luke 4:18; John 8:34-36; Rom 6:19-22; Gal 5:1).

"The day of Midian" – Judges chapter 7 gives the record of the Lord's victory over the Midianites through Gideon.

9:5 The work of God will bring peace to individuals now, and eventually universal peace to the whole world. See 2:4.

9:6 "Is born" – this took place hundreds of years after Isaiah wrote. God's prophet looked into the future and spoke as if the event had already happened. This verse reveals the one through whom the yoke of bondage would be lifted, the one who brings true peace, the great Light who appears in Galilee. Both the humanity and deity of the Lord Jesus are seen here. He is the mighty God, yet is born as a child. Compare 7:14. And the child grows to be the king of the Jews, the king of the whole world (Jer 23:5; Matt 2:2; 27:11; 28:18; Rev 19:16).

"Wonderful" – some scholars have translated the Hebrew word here as an adjective and joined it with the following word Counselor. It seems better to the author of these notes to regard it as a noun and a separate name, and place a comma between "Wonderful", and "Counselor", as it is in the KJV. Jesus is wonderful in His nature, His qualities, His virgin birth, His spotless life on earth, His death for sinners, His resurrection from the dead, His ascension to heaven, His work as mediator for His people, His saving grace, in all He is and does.

"Counselor" – 11:2; 28:29; Prov 8:14. The Lord Jesus can counsel us in everything we need to know, say, or do. When He was on earth He always gave perfectly wise answers to those who came to Him for anything. His counsel now is no less wise, for in Him "are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge" (Col 2:3). Is it not sad that people go with their problems and questions to everyone under the sun, except to Him, the One who knows all questions and all answers? Let us make a practice of consulting this One who is perfect in wisdom and perfect in counsel, and using His Word (the Bible) which He has given to us as a

- 6 For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given.
And the government will be on his shoulder;
and his name will be called Wonderful,
Counselor, The Mighty God,
The Father of Eternity,
The Prince of Peace.
- 7 Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end,
on the throne of David,
and over his kingdom,
to order it and establish it with book of counsel.

"The Mighty God" – this is the clearest possible declaration that the Messiah of Israel, the Lord Jesus, is the incarnation of God. Notes at Phil 2:6; Luke 2:11; etc.

"The Father of eternity" – a literal translation of the Hebrew, which probably indicates one who is the source of eternity or who possesses eternity, an eternal being. See Micah 5:2.

God is a Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (notes at Matt 3:16,17; 2 Cor 13:14; etc). The Father is not the Son, the Son is not the Father, the Spirit is neither the Father nor the Son. The translation "The Everlasting Father" in Isa 9:6 (KJV and many other versions) can lead to confusion. The literal translation "The Father of eternity" does not mean that He is the person in the Trinity called the "Father." In this same verse it is said of Him that "a son is given." In the New Testament Jesus, the Son of God, is often distinguished from the Father who sent Him (John 1:1,2; 3:35; 17:1,5; 2 John 3; etc).

We should try to understand the Hebrew idiom used here in Isaiah. The Hebrew translated "The Father of eternity" is Abi-ad. "Ab" means father, and "Ad" can indicate eternity, but when these two words are joined together they may well give a different meaning than "Everlasting Father."

There are a number of individuals in the Old Testament whose names have Abi joined with another word. Consider these:

Abi-Albon (2 Sam 23:31) literally is "Father of strength," but its likely meaning is "One who is strong," or "Powerful one."

Abi-Asaph (Ex 6:24) literally is "Father of gathering", but its meaning is "One who gathers" or, possibly, "Father is gathering."

Abigail (1 Chron 2:16) literally is "Father of exultation", but means "One who exults." This is a woman's name, and shows that often (and maybe always) when these names combine Abi with another word, it may not be wise to translate Abi literally as "father" (unless, of course, the word refers to the father of the person who has it).

"Peace" – the Lord Jesus is the great peacemaker between God and man, and the one who gives peace of mind and heart (Luke 1:79; 2:14; John 14:27; Acts 10:36; Rom 5:1; Eph 2:14,17; Col 1:20). 9:7 Christ will reign forever. In regard to His human nature He was a descendant of

- justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.
- 8 The Lord sent a message against Jacob, and it has fallen on Israel.
- 9 And all the people will know it, Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria,
who say in pride and arrogance of heart,
- 10 "The bricks have fallen down,

the sycamores are cut down,
but we will replace them with cedars."
- 11 Therefore the LORD will set up the adversaries of Rezin against him,
and spur his enemies on,
- 12 The Syrians in front,
and the Philistines behind;
and they will devour Israel with open mouth.
Yet for all this his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.
- 13 For the people do not turn to him who strikes them, nor do they seek the LORD of hosts.
- 14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and reed, in one day.
- 15 The ancient and honourable,
he is the head;
and the prophet who teaches lies,
he is the tail.
- 16 For the leaders of this people cause them to go astray,
and those who are led by them are destroyed.
- 17 Therefore the Lord will have no joy
in their young men,
nor have mercy on their fatherless and widows;
for everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer,
and every mouth speaks folly.
Yet for all this his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.
- 18 For wickedness burns like fire;
it will devour the briars and thorns,
and will set the thickets of the forest on fire,
and they will mount upward like the rising of smoke.
- 19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land is darkened,
and the people will be like fuel for the fire.
No man will spare his brother.
- 20 And he will cut down on the right hand,
but be hungry;
and he will devour on the left hand,
but will not be satisfied.
Each one of them will eat the flesh of his own arm.
- 21 Manasseh will devour Ephraim,
and Ephraim, Manasseh;
and they will both be against Judah.
Yet for all this his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.

King David and inherited David's kingdom. See 2 Sam 7:11-16; 23:1-5; Luke 1:32,33; Rom 1:3; Rev 22:16.

"Justice and righteousness" – 11:4; 16:5; 32:1,16; 33:5; 42:1; Ps 72:2; Jer 23:5; 33:4,15; Rev 19:11.

"Zeal" – God's zeal, not man's, will accomplish all the above from beginning to end. Compare 26:11; 37:32; 42:13; 59:17; 2 Kings 19:31; Ps 69:9; John 2:17. God is not a passive being who lets things take their own course. He has a plan of action to establish Christ as earth's king and He will zealously fulfill His plan, in spite of the opposition of His enemies (Ps 2:1-12).

The author of these notes believes that the reign of Christ will be in three phases:

He reigns now over His Church and over the affairs of the world invisibly;

He will reign openly over Israel and the nations during the future thousand year reign referred to in Rev 20:4-6;

and He will reign with God the Father eternally in a new heaven and new earth (Rev 21:1-4).

But the author also believes it is far more important now for God's people to be holy and spiritual and serve God wholeheartedly, and to love God and all their brethren in Christ, than to be able to interpret all prophecy and know how God will fulfill it.

9:8 Isaiah turns again to the subject of the Lord's anger on Israel. He continues on this subject up to 10:5.

9:9 "Ephraim" – represents the whole northern kingdom of Israel (7:2). Samaria was the capital of Israel.

"Pride" – 2:11-18.

9:10-14 Israel would have no opportunity to rebuild their towns. God's hot anger against their pride and wickedness was not cooled by the destruction wrought by minor enemies. The Lord struck them but they did not turn to Him in repentance. He would strike them again through the Assyrians.

9:15 "Prophet" – note at Gen 20:7.

"Lies" – Jer 2:8; 5:31; etc.

9:16 See 3:12.

9:17 "Everyone" – young and old, leaders and people, men and women all abandoned to depravity as in Gen 6:5,12.

9:18,19 Wickedness in itself is destructive like fire. Also it brings on those who practice it the fire of God's anger.

9:20 God had warned them that famine would result from their wickedness (Lev 26:18-20; Deut 28:38-42,53-57). Notes on God's anger at Num 35:3; Ps 90:7-11; etc.

9:21 Their wickedness would be expressed

- 10 Woe to those who enact unjust laws,
and who write oppressive decisions which they have prescribed
- 2 To deprive the needy of justice, and take away the rights of the poor
of my people,
so that widows may be their prey,
and that they may rob the fatherless!
- 3 And what will you do in the day of punishment, and in the desolation which will come from afar?
To whom will you flee for help?
And where will you leave your glory?
- 4 Without me they will bow down among the prisoners,
and they will fall under the slain.
Yet for all this his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is stretched out still.
- 5 "Woe to the Assyrian,
the rod of my anger,
and the staff in whose hand is my indignation!
- 6 I will send him against an ungodly nation, and I will give him a charge against the people of my wrath,
to take the plunder,
and to take the prey,
and to trample them down like the mire of the streets.
- 7 But he does not intend this,
nor does his heart think so;
but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off many nations.
- 8 For he says, 'Are not my princes all kings?
9 Is not Calno like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad?
Is not Samaria like Damascus?
10 As my hand has reached the kingdoms of the idols,
whose carved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria, 11 Shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols as I have done to Samaria and her idols?"
- 12 Therefore it will come about, when the Lord has completed his whole work on mount Zion and on Jerusalem, that he will say,
"I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks." 13 For he says, "I have done it by the strength of my hand and by my wisdom;
for I have understanding.
And I have removed the boundaries of the people,
and have robbed their treasures,
and like a mighty man I have put down their inhabitants:
- 14 And like finding a nest my hand has reached the riches of the people.
I have gathered the whole earth like one gathers eggs that are left,
and there was none that moved the wing,
or opened the mouth, or peeped."

in hatred and strife among themselves. Oh, what will men not do when they abandon the God of holiness and love! But still worse was to come.

10:1,2 See 5:8,11,18,20,21,22. How God hates the greed of men that causes them to trample the poor and defenseless – a thing often seen in Bible times and today in the world around us.

10:3,4 God will see to it that such people pay to the full for their unjust and oppressive behavior. All their ill-gotten riches will be left to their enemies.

10:5-19 God had said He would use the kings of Assyria to punish His people Israel (7:20; 8:4). Now He says He will punish the king of Assyria.

10:5,6 Armies marched, battles were fought, towns were destroyed, lands were taken, many were slain, many others greatly suffered. Was this just evil men acting according to their nature, expressing their greed for power and plunder? It was that, of course, but there was more to it than that. The God of the universe was working His purposes out. The King of Assyria was a club in His hand. He sent him to punish Israel. See 7:20. Compare Jer 50:23; 51:20; Hab 1:6; Rev 17:16,17. On God's anger see Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

10:7,8 The king of Assyria had no idea at all that he was fulfilling God's purpose, that he was only like a stick in God's hand.

10:9 Calno, Carchemish, Hamath, and Arpad – all places north of Damascus in Syria, and were taken by Assyria in 717 B.C.

10:10,11 No gods of any people had helped them to withstand the Assyrian army. Would Jerusalem be any different? Isaiah chapter 36, 2 Kings chapter 18, and 2 Chronicles chapter 32 have descriptions of the Assyrian siege of Jerusalem. Compare the words of v 11 with Isa 36:18-20.

10:12-14 God purposed to chastise Jerusalem for its many sins. After that He would deal with the arrogance of the Assyrian king. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.

10:15 An ax, a saw, a club are mere instruments in the hands of a person and would be unable to do a single thing without the hand that moves them. And so they have nothing to boast about. The king of

- As if the rod could wield those who lift it up,

- 16 Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
will send leanness among his fat ones, and under his glory he shall kindle a fire like a burning flame.
- 17 And the light of Israel will become a fire,
and his Holy One a flame,
and it will burn and devour his thorns
and his briars in one day,
- 18 And will consume the glory of his forest,
and of his fruitful field,
both soul and body;
and they will be as when a sick man

- 19 And the rest of the trees of his forest will be so few that a child may write them down.
- 20 And it shall come to pass in that day,
that the remnant of Israel,
and those of the house of Jacob who escape, will not again depend on him who defeated them,
but will in fact depend on the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.
- 21 The remnant, the remnant of Jacob,
will return to the mighty God.
- 22 For though your people Israel be like
the sand of the sea,
yet only a remnant of them will return.
Destruction has been decreed;
it will overflow with righteousness.
- 23 For the Lord God of hosts will carry out the decreed destruction throughout the whole land.
- 24 Therefore thus says the Lord God of hosts:
"O my people who live in Zion,
- do not be afraid of the Assyrian who will strike you with a rod,
and lift up his staff against you,
like Egypt did,
- 25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation I have against you will cease, and my anger will be directed to their destruction."
- 26 And the LORD of hosts will stir up a scourge for him.
It will be like the slaughter of Midian
at the rock of Oreb.
And his rod will be over the sea;
he will lift it up like he did in Egypt.
- 27 And it will happen in that day,
that his burden will be taken from your shoulders,
and his yoke from your neck,
and the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing.

he has passed on to Migron;
at Michmash he has stored his baggage

Gibeah of Saul has fled.
- 30 Raise your voice, O daughter of Gallim.
Cause it to be heard at Laish.
O poor Anathoth!
- 31 Madmenah has run away.
The inhabitants of Gebim flee for cover.
- 32 This day he will still stop at Nob.
He will shake his fist at the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.
- 33 See, the Lord, the LORD of hosts,

Assyria was a mere instrument in the hand of God, but was ignorant of this fact.

10:16-19 God would teach the Assyrians that apart from Him they were nothing and could do nothing. This is a description in poetic language of the crushing defeat of the Assyrian armies at the walls of Jerusalem (37:36-38). The "light" is God Himself. The "thorns and briars" are Assyrian troops. "One day" is all it took to crush the whole army. Verse 19 may refer to the fall of the Assyrian empire at the hands of the Babylonians a little more than a century later. "Sick man" – or "stand and bearer."

10:20-23 The Assyrians conquered the northern kingdom of Israel and took most of its people into exile. But among that conquered and shattered people there would be a remnant that would no longer trust in Assyria, but in the living God. Verse 22 is referred to in Rom 9:27. Observe in v 22 that the destruction God sent on Israel was a righteous destruction, one fully deserved, one that justice demanded. We may be sure that all of God's chastisements and judgments on people are so.

10:24 In v 5 the Assyrians were a club in God's hands to crush Israel. God did not have this purpose against Jerusalem. The club the Assyrians lifted against Jerusalem was their own club. This is why, doubtless, it came to nothing.

10:25 See 5:25; 10:4.

10:26 Jud 7:25; Ex 14:26-28.

10:27 See 9:4.

10:28-32 A description of the approach of the Assyrian army to Jerusalem from Aiath, about 16 kilometers north of the city.

10:32 "Daughter of Zion" – see 1:8.

10:33,34 The commander of the army of Assyria, the leaders of the nation, the masses of troops, will fall by God's mighty hand (37:36-38).

will lop off the bough producing terror;
and the lofty ones will be cut down,
and the haughty will be brought low.
34 And he will cut down the forest thickets with an iron tool;
Lebanon will fall before a mighty one.

11 And there will come forth a Shoot from the stock of Jesse,
and a Branch will grow out of his roots;
2 And the Spirit of the LORD will rest on him,
the Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
the Spirit of counsel and might,
the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear
of the LORD;
3 And he will delight in the fear of the LORD.
And he will not judge by what he sees
with his eyes,
or make decisions by what he hears
with his ears,
4 But with righteousness he will judge the poor,
and make fair decisions for the meek
of the earth.
And he will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth,
and with the breath of his lips he will

slay the wicked.
5 And righteousness will be the belt for his loins,
and faithfulness the belt around his waist.
6 "And the wolf will dwell with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down by the young goat,
and the calf and the young lion and the fat cattle together.
And a little child will lead them.
7 And the cow and the bear will graze;
their young ones will lie down together.
And the lion will eat straw like the ox.
8 And the nursing child will play on the hole of the cobra,
and the weaned child will put his hand
in the viper's den.
9 They will neither hurt nor destroy on all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD,
as the waters cover the sea.
10 "And in that day there will be a Root of Jesse,
who will stand as a banner for the people.
Him will the Gentiles seek,

11:1 In 10:33,34 the prophet spoke of the leaders of Assyria as "lofty trees" which God will bring down. Here he speaks of a small "shoot", a mere "branch." But this "shoot", this "branch" is none other than the Messiah, the child and the Son of 7:14 and 9:6,7, the incarnation of the mighty God, the future ruler of the whole world. Jesse was David's father. The "Branch" is from David's royal house.

"Stock" – see 6:13. David's kingdom was all but destroyed by Assyrians, Babylonians and Romans – the tree gone, but the roots remaining.

"Branch" – 4:2; Jer 23:5; 33:15; Zech 3:8; 6:12.

11:2 The Son of God coming as a man was anointed by the Spirit of God – 61:1; Matt 3:16; Luke 4:16-21; Acts 10:37,38. God's Spirit gives to all of God's servants in some measure the helps and powers listed in this verse. He gave them all to Christ in the fullest possible measure (John 3:34). Observe the emphasis in this verse and the first words of the next verse on the fear of the LORD. See notes Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7. Jesus had this kind of fear (reverential awe) in full measure (and no other kind of fear at all). See John 5:30; 8:29; Heb 5:7; Mark 14:36. At the heart of all Jesus said and did was the desire to please and honor God, a reverence for God's name and person, a fear of displeasing Him. So should it be with all who name the name of God.

11:3 John 2:25; 7:24.

11:4-16 These verses look beyond Christ's first coming to a reign of righteousness over the whole earth. Nothing like the description in these verses has yet taken place, so fulfillment still awaits the future. For the belief of the author of these notes concerning Christ's reign on earth see note on 2:2-4; 9:7; Rev 20:4-6.

11:4 Again we see God's concern for the needy and poor.

"Rod" – Ps 2:9; Rev 19:15.

"Breath" – 2 Thess 2:8; 4:9; Isa 30:28,33; 40:24.

11:5 Rev 19:11.

11:6-8 Will such descriptions be literally fulfilled? Or are they mere poetic expressions signifying a time of peace and safety on earth? Many of us are sure they will be literally fulfilled during a future literal reign of Christ on earth, and who can prove it will not be so? A similar description is found in 65:25 in the midst of a description of a new heaven and earth God will create (65:17).

11:9 Waters cover the sea completely, utterly. There has not been a time since Isaiah when the earth was covered like that with the knowledge of the Lord. But there will be in the future (2:2-4).

11:10 "In that day" – at the time of the appearance and reign of the Messiah, the Lord Jesus. He is here called the "Root" of Jesse. Compare v 1. Christ is both the Son of David and his Lord, both the root and offspring of David (Matt 22:41-41; Rev 22:16).

"Him will the Gentiles seek" – some think

- and his place of rest will be glorious.
- 11 And this will happen in that day:
the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people who are left,
from Assyria, and from Egypt,
and from Pathros, and from Cush,
and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.
- 12 And he will set up a banner for the nations,
and will assemble those driven out of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.
- 13 And the envy of Ephraim will depart,
and the adversaries of Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will not envy Judah,
and Judah will not trouble Ephraim.
- 14 But they will swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines toward the west.
Together they will plunder those of the east;
they will lay their hands on Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will obey them.
- 15 And the LORD will utterly destroy the

- tongue of the Egyptian sea, and with his mighty wind he will wave
his hand over the Euphrates River,
and will split it into seven streams,
and cause men to go over dry-shod.
- 16 And there will be a highway for the remnant of his people who are left from Assyria,
as there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

- 12 And in that day you will say,
"O LORD, I will praise you.
Though you were angry with me,
your anger is turned away,
and you comfort me.
- 2 See, God is my salvation.
I will trust and not be afraid,
for Yah, the LORD, is my strength and my song.
He has also become my salvation."
- 3 Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation.
- 4 And in that day you will say,
"Praise the LORD, call on his name, declare his deeds among the people,

this signifies the conversion of many people throughout the world to the Lord Jesus now in this age. But more likely it refers to the age to come (Rev 21:22-26).

11:11,12 "In that day" means the time of the appearance and reign of the Messiah. Therefore this regathering of the people of Israel and Judah can hardly refer to their return from Babylon and Assyria beginning in 538 B.C. The language of v 11 indicates a world-wide dispersion of Israel and Judah and the regathering will be from all over the world. These verses probably refer to the same regathering foretold by the prophet Amos (Amos 9:14,15). The Lord said through Amos that the people would never again be uprooted after that regathering. This was not true after the return from Babylon beginning in 538 B.C. The people were uprooted again by the Romans in 70 A.D., and scattered into many countries. Jesus foretold this in Matt 24:2; Luke 19:41-44. So after that another regathering of Israel is required to fulfill these verses in Isaiah.

"Shinar" – Babylonia.

11:13,14 Though by now Ephraim's jealousy may have vanished, Judah's enemies have still not been cut off. The future domination of Israel and Judah over their neighbors is foretold also in 14:2; 49:23; etc.

"Adversaries" – or, possibly, "hostility."

11:15,16 These geographical changes have not yet appeared. For something similar see Rev 16:12.

11:16 "Highway" – 57:14; 62:10. It is clear that this chapter has not been completely fulfilled in this Church age, and it seems unlikely that the eternal ages are in view. Verses 6-16 speak of vast changes in the animal kingdom and in nature. Will the eternal ages have cobras and vipers? Will there be any need of reclaiming the remnant of His people (v 11)? Surely there will be no plundering of others going on in eternity (v 14). And what need will there be for changes like those in vs 15,16? We can hardly put this passage in Israel's past, the Church's present or eternity future. This leaves the millennium (Rev 20:4-6) as by far the most likely time of its fulfillment. Some scholars may like to ignore the details of this chapter and say this is only a poetic description of a happy condition. But do we have the right to do this with solemn words of prophecy?

12:1 "In that day" – the phrase that follows seems to refer to the future salvation of all Israel (Rom 11:25-32). But the same language of rejoicing can be used now by any saved individual or by the Church as a whole.

"Anger" – 9:12,17,21. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

12:2 "Salvation" – salvation is one of the major themes of Isaiah – 17:10; 25:9; 33:6; 45:17; 51:5,6; 54:8; 59:16; 61:10; 62:11. Trust is the remedy for fear – 26:3; Ps 112:7. "Yah" is the shortened form of Yahweh (Jehovah).

12:3 Ps 36:9; Jer 2:13; 17:13; John 4:10; 7:37-39.

12:4 See 24:15; 25:1; 26:8,13; Ps 80:18; 105:1; Jer 10:7; Zeph 2:11.

- declare that his name is exalted.
- 5 Sing to the LORD,
for he has done excellent things.
This is known in all the earth.
- 6 Cry out and shout, O inhabitant of Zion,
for great is the Holy One of Israel among you."

- 13 The burden concerning Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.
- 2 "Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
raise the voice to them,
beckon with the hand,
so that they may enter the gates of the nobles.
- 3 I have commanded my sanctified ones,
I have also called my mighty ones,
those who rejoice in my exaltation,
to execute my anger."
- 4 The noise of a multitude on the mountains,
like that of a great people!
An uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathered together!
The LORD of hosts musters the army
for the battle.
- 5 They come from a far country,
from the end of heaven,
the LORD and the weapons of his indignation,
to destroy the whole land.
- 6 Wail, for the day of the LORD is at hand!

12:5 Ex 15:1; Ps 98:1.

12:6 God delights to be among His redeemed people. Note at Ex 25:8. And they should rejoice in Him and they will (24:14; 48:20; 52:8; Ps 98:4; Jer 31:7-9; Zech 2:10).

13:1 See 1:1; 2:1. "Burden" – or "oracle" – 14:28; 15:1; 21:1; Nah 1:1; Hab 1:1; Zech 9:1; 12:1; Mal 1:1. Note at Num 23:7. Perhaps these messages from God were called burdens because they weighed heavily on the heart of the prophet who had to utter them, or because they were "heavy" with judgment.

"Babylon" – for other prophesies against Babylon see 21:1-9; 46:1,2; 47:1-15; Jeremiah chapters 50, 51. At the time Isaiah wrote Babylonia was a part of the Assyrian empire and the city of Babylon was one of its two chief cities. So this prophecy against Babylon, which goes on to v 28 of chapter 14 was against a part of Assyria and so against Assyria too. The kings of Assyria sometimes called themselves "king of Babylon."

13:2-5 God will prepare armies to destroy Babylon. God's wrath which was on Judah will fall on their enemies. These armies were from the Medo-Persian empire (v 17; 45:1; Dan 5:30,31).

13:3 "My sanctified ones" – here means

It will come as a destruction from the Almighty.

- 7 Therefore all hands will be limp,
and every man's heart will melt,
8 And they will be afraid.
Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them.
They will be in pain like a woman in childbirth.
They will be amazed at each other.
Their faces will be like flames.
- 9 Look, the day of the LORD comes,
cruel with both wrath and fierce anger,
to lay the land desolate;
and he will destroy its sinners out of it.
- 10 For the stars of heaven and its constellations will not give their light.
The sun will be darkened in its rising,
and the moon will not shed its light.
- 11 "And I will punish the world for its evil,
and the wicked for their iniquity, and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease,
and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.
- 12 I will make a man scarcer than fine gold,
a man rarer than the golden wedge of Ophir.
- 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth will move out of its place at the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.
- 14 And it will be like the hunted gazelle, either angelic forces that would work under God's direction to bring armies against Babylon, or the armies of the Medes and Persians themselves. If the latter the word would merely mean those whom God would set apart to accomplish His purposes. One basic meaning of the Hebrew word sanctify is to set apart for some purpose of God.

13:4 "LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3. 13:6-13 In this section the phrase "day of the LORD" is used or referred to four times. According to the New Testament the Day of the Lord is still a future event (1 Thess 5:1-3). The language of v 10 is echoed in Matt 24:19, Acts 2:20, and Rev 6:12,13. Verse 13 suggests the time of Heb 12:26,27, and Rev 16:17-21. Verse 11 speaks of the world, not merely of Babylon. For these reasons it can hardly be said that these verses were completely fulfilled at the destruction of Babylon by the Medes and Persians. That event was only a small picture of a much greater event to take place at the end of this age. It is not unusual in the prophets to have a far-off event suddenly thrust into a prophecy of nearer events.

13:6 "At hand" – see notes at Joel 1:15; Rev 1:3.

"Almighty" – in Hebrew "Shaddai" – note at Gen 17:1.

13:14-18 These verses seem to apply to

- and like a sheep that no man takes up,
Each man will return to his own people,
and each one will flee to his own land.
- 15 Everyone who is found will be pierced through,
and everyone who is captured will fall
by the sword.
- 16 Their children also will be dashed to pieces before their eyes.
Their houses shall be plundered,
and their wives ravished.
- 17 "See, I will stir up against them the Medes,
who will have no regard for silver,
and will have no delight in gold.
- 18 And their bows will mow down the young men,
and they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb.
Their eyes will not spare children.
- 19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
the beauty of the Chaldeans' excellence, will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
- 20 It will never be inhabited,
nor will it be lived in from generation
to generation.
The Arabian will not pitch tent there,
nor will the shepherds make their fold there.
- 21 But wild beasts of the desert will lie there,
and their houses will be full of howling creatures,
and unclean birds will dwell there,
and wild goats will leap about there.
- 22 And hyenas will cry in their strongholds, and howling creatures in their luxurious palaces.
And her time is coming near,
and her days will not be prolonged.

- 14 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob,
and once again will choose Israel,
and set them in their own land;
and strangers will be joined with them,
and they will cling to the house of Jacob.
- 2 And peoples will take them and bring them to their place.
And the house of Israel will possess them as servants and maids in the land of the LORD, and they will take as captives those whose captives they were,
and will rule over their oppressors.
- 3 And it will come about in the day that the LORD gives you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear, and from the hard bondage in which you were made to serve,
- 4 That you will take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say,
"How the oppressor has come to an end,
the golden city ceased!
- 5 The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
and the sceptre of the rulers.
- 6 The one who struck the people in wrath with a continual stroke,
the one who ruled the nations in anger,
is persecuted, and no one hinders.
- 7 The whole earth is at rest and is calm;
they break forth into singing.
- 8 Yes, the fir trees rejoice at you,
and the cedars of Lebanon, saying,
'Since you were laid low,
no woodsman comes up against us.'
- 9 "Hell below is stirred up about you to meet you at your coming.
It rouses the dead for you,

the destruction of Babylon by the Medes and Persians.

13:16 Verse 18; Ps 137:8,9.

13:17 The Medes were located in a part of what is now called Iran.

13:19-22 The city of Babylon is in view here. It was a beautiful city and a source of great pride to its most powerful ruler. See Dan 4:28-30.

"Chaldeans" – Chaldea was the southern part of Babylonia. Babylon became like Sodom and Gomorrah, not in the method God used to destroy it, but in its final condition. See Jer 51:29,37-43,62. To this day Babylon is a heap of ruins. It is not certain what birds or animals are meant by the Hebrew words in these verses.

14:1,2 Every jot and tittle of not only the law but of the prophets must be fulfilled. It is clear that these verses (especially v 2) were not completely fulfilled when the Jews returned from Babylon to their own land. No such power or reign of Israel over their captors and oppressors has been seen to this day. So we judge the complete fulfillment is some time in the future. Notice the words in v 1 – "once again will chose Israel" – as if for a time He had rejected them. See Matt 21:43 and compare it with Matt 19:28; Acts 1:6,7; Rom 11:11,12,15,23-29; Rev 7:1-8.

14:3 There are two Babylons described in Scripture – the literal Babylon on the Euphrates river and figurative Babylon of Revelation chapters 17 and 18. The literal one came to an end 2500 years ago. The destruction of the other one is in the future. It does not seem impossible that the verses which follow fit both times of destruction.

14:5,6 "Staff" – 10:5,24.

14:7 "The whole earth" – if this was true at the fall of the literal Babylon it was true for only a very short time.

14:9 "Hell" – the Hebrew has "Sheol" – the unseen realm of the dead. Also verse 15.

- all the chief ones of the earth.
 It makes all who were kings of the nations rise from their thrones.
 10 All of them will speak and say to you,
 'Have you also become as weak as we?
 Have you become like us?'
 11 "Your pomp is brought down to the grave,
 and the sound of your harps.
 The maggot is spread out under you,
 and the worms cover you.
 12 "How you are fallen from heaven,
 O Lucifer, son of the dawn!
 How you, who weakened the nations,
 are cut down to the ground!
 13 For you said in your heart,
 'I will ascend to heaven.
 I will exalt my throne above the stars of God,
 and I will sit on the Mount of the Congregation,
 in the far recesses of the north.
 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds.
 I will be like the Most High.'
 15 Yet you shall be brought down to hell,
 to the lowest depths of the pit.
 16 Those who see you will stare at you,
 and consider you, saying,
 'Is this the man who caused the earth
 to tremble, who shook kingdoms, 17 Who made the world like a wilderness

- and destroyed its cities,
who did not allow his prisoners to go home?' 18 "All the kings of the nations,
 all of them, lie in honour,
 each one in his own place.
 19 But you are cast out of your grave like a rejected branch,
 and like the clothing of those who have been killed, pierced with a sword, who go down to the stones of the pit
 like a corpse trampled underfoot.
 20 You will not be joined with them in burial,
 because you have destroyed your land,
 and killed your people.
 The offspring of evildoers will never be mentioned again.
 21 Prepare slaughter for his children because of the wickedness of their fathers, so that they do not rise up and possess
 the land,
 or fill the surface of the earth with cities." 22 "For I will rise up against them",
 says the LORD of hosts,
 "and cut off from Babylon its name and survivors, and offspring and posterity," says the LORD.
 23 "Also I will make it a possession of hedgehogs, and watery swamps,

14:10,11 This is the end of all man's and glory and beauty apart from God. God's saved people will inherit forever with Christ all the glory and beauty of heaven.
14:12-15 Some scholars are convinced that these words are spoken only to the king of Babylon. Others are equally sure that they are spoken to the one behind the king of Babylon – Satan himself. (A similar passage is Ezek 28:12-17.) It seems quite possible that both are being addressed (compare Matt 16:23). Behind the king of Babylon's awful arrogance and defiance of heaven was the king of demons.
14:12 Luke 10:18; Rev 12:7-9. This verse may refer to the very end of this age.
 "Lucifer" – or "Daystar." Satan was, no doubt, once a bright and shining being in heaven, and the king of Babylon was a bright "star" among the rulers of earth. But only Christ Himself is the bright Morning Star (Rev 22:16). Perhaps Satan is called a star here (if indeed Satan is being directly addressed – which seems very likely) ironically because he wanted to usurp the place of the Son of God.
14:13,14 All Satan (or the king of Babylon) desired was self-exaltation, glory, and power over everyone else. Compare Christ's character as revealed in Phil 2:5-11 and Matt 11:29. Leaders in general may be divided into two groups – those who have the desire and outlook of Satan and those who have the desire and outlook of Christ.

 "Mount of the Congregation" – some scholars say this refers to the heavenly mount Zion (as in Heb 12:22. See also Ps 89:5; 1 Kings 22:19; Job 1:6). Others say that it refers to the earthly mount Zion where God reigned in the temple over Israel (Ps 48:1,2; 80:1; 99:1). Still others give another explanation. The first view does not seem unlikely.
 "I will make myself like the Most High" – Satan and some among men who are his followers, want to be regarded as God Himself. This is the ultimate blasphemy, the extreme limits of wickedness. Compare Matt 4:8,9; 2 Thess 2:3,4; Daniel 11:36,37.
14:15 Such will be the end of all self-exalting beings, whether men, or Satan and his hosts.
14:16-20 The king of Babylon is again plainly addressed. These words have to do with the earth, not the realm of the dead as in v 9-11. Between 605 BC and 538 BC the Babylonian king was the most powerful man on earth. He held God's people captive until he was overthrown by the Medes.
14:19 For a king not to have a proper burial was a thing of great dishonor to him.
14:21-23 Both the sons of Babylon's king and his kingdom and people would be destroyed.

- and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says the LORD of hosts.
- 24 The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying,
"Surely as I have planned,
so it will happen;
and as I have purposed,
so it will stand.
- 25 I will break the Assyrian in my land,
and trample him underfoot on my mountains.
Then his yoke will depart from them,
and his burden depart from their shoulders.
- 26 "This is the plan that is purposed for the whole earth,
and this is the hand that is stretched out on all the nations.
- 27 For the LORD of hosts has formed a purpose,
and who can cancel it?
And his hand is stretched out,
and who can turn it back?"
- 28 In the year that king Ahaz died this was the burden:
- 29 "Do not rejoice, all you of Philistia, because the rod of the one who struck you is broken;
for out of the serpent's root will come a viper,
and its offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.
- 30 And the firstborn of the poor will feed,
and the needy will lie down in safety,
but I will kill your root with famine,
and it will kill your remnant."
- 31 Wail, O gate! Cry out, O city!
All you of Philistia, melt away!
For a smoke will come from the north,
and there will be no deserter from its ranks.
- 32 What, then, will one answer the messengers of the nation?
That the LORD has founded Zion, and the poor of his people will find refuge in it.

- 15 The burden concerning Moab:
"Because in the night Ar of Moab has been laid waste and brought to silence, because in the night Kir of Moab has been laid waste and brought to silence,
- 2 He has gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon,
the high places, to weep.
Moab will wail over Nebo, and over Medeba.
Baldness will be on all their heads,
and every beard will be cut off.
- 3 In their streets they will wrap themselves with sackcloth.
On the tops of their houses, and in their streets,
everyone will wail, weeping bitterly.
- 4 And Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out.
Their voice will be heard as far as Jahaz;
therefore the armed soldiers of Moab will cry out.
His life will be burdensome to him.
- 5 "My heart will cry out for Moab.
His fugitives will flee to Zoar like a heifer three years old;
for by the ascent of Luhith they will go up with weeping;
for on the road to Horonaim they will raise a cry of destruction.
- 6 For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate,
for the hay has withered away,
the grass fails;
there is no green thing.
- 7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten,
and what they have stored away, they will carry away to the brook of the willows.
- 8 For the cry is gone all around the borders of Moab, its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer-Elim.
- 9 For the waters of Dimon will be full of blood,
for I will bring more on Dimon,
lions on him who escapes from Moab,

14:24 This is true of everything God plans (v 27), but He is here speaking of the destruction of the Assyrians, as the following verse makes clear.

14:25 "My land. . . my mountains" – at least partially fulfilled in 701 BC (37:36,37).
"Yoke" – 9:40.

14:26 In chapters 13-24 God is speaking of a number of nations which represent the known world of Isaiah's day.

14:27 Verse 24.

14:28-32 For other prophecies against the Philistines see Jeremiah chapter 47; Ezekel 25:15-17; Amos 1:6-8; Zeph 2:4-7.

14:28 "Ahaz died" – about 715 BC.

14:29 "Broken" – the rod that struck them was Assyria (20:1. Ashdod was a Philistine city).

"Do not rejoice" – their relief was temporary. Destruction would come to them (vs 30,31).

14:32 The Assyrians were not able to conquer Jerusalem.

15:1 For note on Moab see Gen 19:37. For other prophecies about Moab see Jeremiah chapter 48; Ezekel 25:8-11; Amos 2:1-3; Zeph 2:8-11. The locations of many of the places in Moab in this chapter are unknown to us.

15:2 "Baldness", "cut off" – shaving the head and cutting off the beard were indications of mourning (vs 3,4; Jer 48:37).

15:5 See Jer 48:31 – God's grief for Moab.

15:9 "Lions" – 5:29; Jer 50:17.

and on the remnant of the land.

- 16 "Send the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion.
- 2 For it will happen that the daughters of Moab will be at the fords of the Arnon, like a wandering bird thrown out of the nest.
- 3 "Take counsel, execute judgment, make your shadow like night in the middle of the day.
Hide those driven out.
Do not betray the fugitive.
- 4 Let my outcasts stay with you, O Moab. Be a shelter to them from the presence of the destroyer.
For the extortioner will come to an end, Destruction will cease.
The oppressors will vanish from the land.
- 5 And in mercy the throne will be established; and one will sit on it in truth, in the tabernacle of David,
judging and seeking justice,
and quickly bringing righteousness."
- 6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, of his great pride,
of his haughtiness and his pride and his wrath;
but his boasts are false.
- 7 Therefore Moab will wail for Moab, everyone will wail.
You will mourn for the foundations of Kir-Hareseth;
surely they are struck down.
- 8 For the fields of Heshbon, and the vine of Sibmah, languish.
The rulers of the nations have broken down its choice plants, which reached as far as Jazer, and wandered through the desert.

16:1 Moab did this in former years (2 Sam 7:2; 2 Kings 3:4,5). This is probably advice spoken by the Moabites among themselves.

16:2-4 The reason for the exhortation in v 1 is the hope of finding refuge from an invading army.

16:5 The last part of v 4 and this verse speak of better times for both Judah and Moab (see Jer 48:47). God's grace will be displayed in the raising up of a king from David's royal house. The language of this verse suggests the Messiah (compare 9:7; 11:4,5). When He rules Moab will share in the blessings of Zion.

16:6 Jer 48:29,30. Pride does not need good reasons for its existence – it can create its own reasons. Compare Jer 48:29.

16:7 "Therefore" – what follows is punishment for Moab's pride. See Jer 48:26,42.

Her branches were spread out;
they have gone over the sea.

- 9 Therefore, with the weeping of Jazer I will weep for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh; for the shouting over your summer fruits and for your harvest has failed.
- 10 And gladness and joy have been taken away from the plentiful field.
And in the vineyards there will be no singing, nor will there be shouting.
Those who tread out wine will have none to tread in their presses.
I have put a stop to their shouting.
- 11 Therefore my inner being intones like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts lament for Kir-Haresh.
- 12 And this will happen:
when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place,
he will come to his sanctuary to pray;
but he will not prevail.
- 13 This is the word that the LORD has spoken previously concerning Moab.
- 14 But now the LORD has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as a hired man counts the years, the glory of Moab will be despised with all that great multitude;
and those who remain will be very few and feeble."

- 17 The burden concerning Damascus.
See, Damascus will cease from being a city,
and will become a heap of ruins.
- 2 The cities of Aroer will be forsaken.
They will be for flocks, which will lie down, without anyone making

16:8 "Sea" – the Dead sea.

16:9-11 Jer 48:31,36; see notes at Jer 48:31-39. Here it is either the prophet who grieves over Moab or the LORD (see the last line of v 10). In Jer 48:36 it is certainly God Himself.

16:12 The worship and prayer of the people were useless. Just judgment must fall on them because of their pride and wickedness.

16:13,14 A further message added later (we cannot say when) to the oracle of 15:1 - 16:12.

17:1 For other prophecies about Damascus see Jer 49:23-27; Amos 1:3-5. Damascus was the capital of Syria, a country that was frequently at war with Israel (2 Sam 8:5; 1 Kings 20:1-3; 2 Kings 6:24). The prophecy of this verse has not yet been fulfilled. Damascus is still there, still the capital of Syria. So this prophecy looks to the end of this age.

them afraid.

- 3 Also the fortress will cease from Ephraim,
and the kingdom from Damascus,
and the remnant of Syria.
They will be like the glory of the children of Israel,
says the LORD of hosts.
- 4 And this will happen in that day:
the glory of Jacob will wane,
and the fatness of his flesh will become lean.
- 5 And it will be as when the harvester gathers the grain,
and reaps the heads with his hand;
it will be like one gathering grain in the Valley of Rephaim.
- 6 Yet some gleanings will be left in it,
like when an olive tree is shaken,
two or three olives at the top of the uppermost bough,
four or five in its most fruitful branches,
says the LORD God of Israel.
- 7 At that day a man will look to his Maker, and his eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.
- 8 And he will not look to the altars,
the work of his hands,
nor will he show respect for what his fingers have made,
nor the idolatrous groves, nor the images.
- 9 In that day his strong cities will be like a forsaken bough,
and an uppermost branch,
which they left because of the children
of Israel;
and there will be desolation.
- 10 Because you have forgotten the God
of your salvation,

- and have not remembered the Rock of your strength,
therefore you plant pleasant plants,
and set out foreign seedlings.
- 11 In the day you cause your plant to grow, and in the morning you cause your seed to flourish;
but the harvest will be a heap of ruins
in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.
- 12 Alas for the uproar of many people, who make a noise like the noise of the seas!
And alas for the rushing of nations, which make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!
- 13 The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters,
but God will rebuke them,
and they will flee far away,
and be chased like chaff on the mountains before the wind,
and like a thing that rolls before the whirlwind.
- 14 And, look, at evening trouble!
Before morning he is no more!
This is the portion of those who plunder us,
and the lot of those who rob us.

- 18 Woe to the land of whirring wings,
which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,
2 That sends ambassadors by sea,
in vessels of bulrushes on the water,
saying, "Go, you swift messengers,
to a nation tall and smooth-skinned,
to a people dreaded from their beginning to now,
a nation powerful and oppressive,
whose land is divided by rivers.
3 All you inhabitants of the world,

17:3-6 When Isaiah wrote this the northern kingdom of Israel (here called Ephraim) and Syria were allies against Judah (7:1,2). The glory of Israel passed completely away when Assyria came and conquered it and took the people into exile.

17:5 "Rephaim" – 1 Chron 11:15 – a place west of Jerusalem.

17:6 A remnant of Israel would remain.

17:7,8 Whatever causes men to turn to God is good, even if it is disaster on a country.

17:8 "Altars" – to false gods.

"Idolatrous groves" – or "Asherah" – note at Jud 3:7.

17:9 The Israelites drove the Canaanites out of many of their cities in the days of Joshua, and occupied them. Those same cities would now be deserted because Israel would go into exile to Assyria.

17:10 "Forgotten" – one of Israel's worst sins (Jer 2:32; 3:21). And God was sure to punish it (Deut 8:19,20; Ps 50:22; Jer

17:12-14 See 10:28-34. This probably refers to the invasion of Judah by Assyria's army, and their sudden defeat at Jerusalem (2 Chron 32:1,20,21).

17:14 How quickly God may deal with the enemies of His people when they trust Him. 18:1,2 The language of this chapter is very obscure and so interpretation is difficult.

"Whirring wings" – may mean a land of many insects or may suggest armies ready to fly at the enemy (7:18,19).

"Ethiopia" – in Hebrew "Cush," a land south of Egypt, including part of present-day Ethiopia. During the time of Isaiah, in 715 BC, Cush and Egypt became united under the leadership of a Cushite. This is perhaps suggested by the words of v 2. In Isaiah's day the two great powers were Egypt (with Cush) on the southwest and Assyria on the northeast.

18:3 Banners and trumpets indicate war

- and dwellers on the earth, look when he lifts up a banner on the
 mountains;
 and listen when he blows a trumpet.
- 4 For so the LORD said to me,
 "I will take my rest, and I will look on from my dwelling place,
 like bright heat in the sunshine,
 and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."
- 5 For before the harvest, when the bud
 is perfect,
 and the sour grape is ripening in the flower,
 he will both cut off the shoots with pruning hooks,
 and remove and cut away the branches.
- 6 They will be left together for the birds of the mountains,
 and for the beasts of the earth;
 and the birds will spend their summers in them,
 and all the beasts of the earth will winter in them.
- 7 At that time a present will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth-skinned,
 and from a people dreaded from their beginning up to now,
 a nation powerful and oppressive,
 whose land is divided by rivers,
 to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, Mount Zion.

19 The burden concerning Egypt:
 See, the LORD rides on a swift cloud and comes to Egypt;
 and the idols of Egypt will shake at his
 presence,

- and the heart of Egypt will melt within it.
- 2 "And I will set Egyptians against Egyptians, and each of them will fight against his brother,
 and each against his neighbour;
 city will fight against city,
 and kingdom against kingdom.
- 3 And the spirit of Egypt will fail within it.
 And I will destroy its counsel,
 and they will resort to idols,
 and to enchanters, and to mediums and spiritists.
- 4 And I will hand over the Egyptians to a cruel ruler,
 and a fierce king will rule over them",
 says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.
- 5 And the waters will fail from the sea,
 and the river will become parched and dry.
- 6 And the streams will turn foul,
 and the brooks of defense will become empty and dried up;
 the reeds and rushes will wither.
- 7 The plants by the river, by the mouth of the river,
 and everything planted by the river,
 will wither, be driven away,
 and be no more.
- 8 The fishermen also will mourn, and all those who cast hooks into the river will lament,
 and those who spread nets on the water will pine away.
- 9 Moreover, those who work with fine flax,
 and those who weave linen, will be disappointed.
- 10 And its foundations will be broken;

(5:26-29; 13:2,3; 31:9; Josh 6:20; Judges 3:27). A great movement of armies is suggested by this verse.

18:4 "My dwelling place" – Jerusalem (Ps 48:1-3). The Lord will be in absolute control of events and can look calmly on at what is happening.

18:5,6 Depicts a sudden destruction of an army. Compare 17:12-14.

18:7 "A present" – sometimes brought by people of other nations to Jerusalem after a victory by Judah, or in recognition of the pre-eminence of the God of Israel (16:1; 2 Chron 32:23). Compare Ps 72:8-11; etc.
 "A people" – v 2.

19:1 For other prophecies about Egypt see Jeremiah chapter 46; Ezekiel chapters 29-32.

"Cloud" – Ps 18:9,10; 68:4; 104:3;

Matt 26:64; Acts 1:9; Rev 1:7.

"Idols" – God had judged the gods and idols of Egypt in the days of Moses (Ex 12:12), and had shown that He was the only true God. But the Egyptians still clung to their idols. Learn from this the stubborn depravity of the human heart, its love of idolatry even when idols prove to be useless.

19:2 Indicates struggles for power in Egypt and among its allies.

19:3 When plans of nations and peoples come to nothing, be sure that it is God which brings them to nothing.

"Spiritists" – Deut 18:9-14. Men in general are willing to try anything and consult anything except the true and living God.

19:4 "A fierce king" – possibly the king of Assyria (20:4); possibly the Babylonian king who later conquered Egypt (Jer 43:10-13).

19:5-10 The whole economy of Egypt was dependent on the Nile river. Drying up of the river would be a terrible disaster. There is no event in history that literally fulfills these verses. Therefore they either refer to the future, or more likely, use figurative, poetical language to suggest the complete downfall of Egypt.

"All the wage earners will be troubled in heart" (v 10) – this probably best brings out the meaning of the Hebrew though it

- all the wage earners will be troubled in heart.
- 11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools,
the counsel of Pharaoh's wise counsellors has become stupid.
How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I am the son of the wise,
the descendant of ancient kings?"
- 12 Where are they?
Where are your wise men?
Let them tell you now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts has planned against Egypt.
- 13 The princes of Zoan have become fools,
the princes of Noph are deceived, and those who are the mainstay of its tribes have led Egypt astray.
- 14 The LORD has mingled a perverse spirit in its midst, and they have caused Egypt to err in all of its actions,
like a drunken man staggers in his vomit.
- 15 Nor will there be any work for Egypt,
which the head or tail,
branch or rush, can do.
- 16 In that day Egypt will be like women; and it will be afraid and in dread because of the moving of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he moves over it. 17 And the land of Judah will be a terror to Egypt, everyone who makes mention of it will be afraid in himself, because of the purpose of the LORD of hosts, which he has determined to fulfill against it. 18 In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one will be called, The City of Destruction. 19 In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border. 20 And it will be as a sign and as a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry out to the LORD because of oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he will deliver them.

21 And the LORD will become known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day, and will make sacrifice and offering; yes, they will make a vow to the LORD, and perform it. 22 And the LORD will strike Egypt; he will strike and heal it;
and they will return to the LORD, and he will hear their plea and heal them.

23 In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt, and the Egyptian will travel to Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.
24 In that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the middle of the region, 25 whom the LORD of hosts will bless, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

differs from the KJV. See not at Ps 14:7.
19:11 "Zoan" – an important city of Egypt well-known to the Jews (Num 13:22; Ps 78:12,43). It was the capital of northern Egypt for some time.
"Counsel" – v 3. Counselors who do not know the true God will not always give good advice.
19:12 See 1 Cor 1:20. There is no wisdom or counsel against the Lord.
19:13 "Noph" – another name for Memphis.
This city had been a previous capital of northern Egypt and was still an important city.
"Mainstay" – leaders, prophets, and priests who held the nation together. When such people are fools and wicked, the nation is in deep trouble (9:15,16; Jer 2:8; etc).
19:14 "The LORD has mingled" – one way
God has of judging and punishing a wicked nation is to give them up to their folly and to see that they fall victim to empty counsel and wrong plans (6:9-13; Jer 25:15-26).
"Staggers" – sometimes the nations of earth behave as if they were drunk.
19:15 See 9:14,15.
19:16-25 This is an obscure and difficult passage and at present not all the details can be satisfactorily interpreted. The passage begins with the words "in that day", and the same words appear in vs 18, 19, 23, 24. The expression is indefinite but may look forward to the Day of the LORD already referred to by Isaiah (2:20; etc.

Notes on the Day of the LORD at 13:6-13;
Joel 1:15; 1 Thess 5:2; 2 Pet 3:10).

"In that day" (v 16) can hardly mean in the days when the Assyrians or Babylonians invaded the land in the times of the prophets of Israel. Certainly not all of the matters predicted in these verses happened then. What is foretold here is nothing less than the conversion of Egypt to the true God, and complete peace and harmony between Egypt, Israel and Assyria (vs 23,24. These nations fought each other for centuries). But before that happens God will strike Egypt (vs 16,22), and that people will know that God has done it and be terrified of both God and the people of God (Judah – vs 16,17). This will be a means of turning Egypt to God and of making that land a blessing on earth (v 24), and will bring forth from God's lips the wonderful words of v 25.
It is hard to see how all this can have any possible fulfillment except at the return of Christ and His reign over the earth in universal peace (2:2-4; 9:7; 11:1-16).

19:18 "City of Destruction" – or, possibly,
"City of the Sun."

20:1-6 Ashdod was near the border of Judah. Judah and Jerusalem were endangered by Assyria's armies. Some in Judah brought pressure on the king to make an alliance with Egypt (v 5; 30:1,2; 31:1).
God made Isaiah a sign to the people that the allied peoples of Egypt and Cush would

20 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him) and fought against Ashdod, and took it, 2 at that same time the LORD spoke through Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go and remove the sackcloth from your waist, and take off your sandals from your feet." And he did so, walking about naked and barefoot.

3 And the LORD said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked about naked and barefoot three years as a sign and wonder against Egypt and against Ethiopia, 4 so the king of Assyria will lead the Egyptians away prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. 5 And they will be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their hope, and of Egypt their glory. 6 And the inhabitant of this territory will say in that day, 'See, such is our hope, where we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And how will we escape?'"

21 The burden concerning the desert by the sea:

- As whirlwinds pass through the south,
so this comes from the desert,
from a terrible land.
- 2 A grievous vision has been declared to me:
the treacherous dealer deals treacherously,
and the plunderer plunders.
Go up, O Elam! Lay siege, O Media!
I have brought to an end all the groaning it has caused.
- 3 Therefore my loins are filled with pain;
pangs have taken hold of me,
like the pangs of a woman in labour.

themselves be put to shame and led away captive. Victorious armies in those days sometimes stripped conquered enemies and led them away.

20:1 "Assyria" – note at 2 Kings 15:19.
20:2 "Remove" – everywhere in the Bible nakedness is a mark of shame (v 4; 32:11; Ezek 16:39; 23:26; Hos 2:3).

"Sackcloth" – usually a sign of mourning (Gen 37:34; Est 4:1; Ps 69:11). Sometimes, as here, the clothing of a prophet (compare garment of hair in 2 Kings 1:8; Zech 13:4; Matt 3:4; 11:8,9). Sackcloth was made of hair – Rev 6:12.

20:5 This would include the Philistines who looked to Egypt for help.

21:1,2 "Desert by the sea" – Babylon (v 9). This city and kingdom were conquered by the Medes and Persians (Elam was a part of the Medo-Persian empire). A part of Babylonia lay by the Persian gulf, the sea of v 1. Though once very fertile it was to become like a desert (13:19-21; Jer 50:10,12; 51:41-43). In v 2 Elam and Media are called on to attack Babylon

I writhe at the hearing of it;

I am dismayed by seeing it.

- 4 My heart pounds, terror makes me afraid,
the twilight I desired he has turned into fear for me.
- 5 Prepare the table!
Be on the lookout in the watchtower!
Eat, drink! Arise, you princes, and anoint the shield!
- 6 For thus the Lord has said to me,
"Go, set a watchman.
Have him declare what he sees."
- 7 And he saw a chariot with a pair of horsemen, a chariot of donkeys,
and a chariot of camels;
and he listened alertly with great care.
- 8 And he cried out like a lion,
"My lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime,
and I have sat at my post whole nights;
9 And, look, here comes a chariot of men,
with a pair of horsemen."
And he answered and said,
"Babylon has fallen, has fallen!
And all the carved images of her gods
he has broken to the ground."
- 10 O my threshing, and the grain of my floor!
I have declared to you what I have heard from the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel.
- 11 The burden concerning Dumah:
He calls out to me from Seir,
"Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?"

because of the groaning she (Babylon) caused to other peoples.

21:3,4 The prophets were sometimes overcome by the visions they saw and the messages they delivered. Thoughts of the destruction, the pains, the miseries they announced caused them deep grief (16:9-11; Jer 4:19-26; Dan 8:27; 10:15-17).

21:5 Isaiah sees in vision the careless revelry of Babylon's leaders when the enemy was at their gates. Compare Dan 5:1-4,30,31.

21:6-9 In vision Isaiah looks forward to a time long after his own day and hears the report of messengers or refugees from Babylon telling of the complete destruction of that city.

21:9 See 13:19; Rev 14:8; 18:2.

21:10 "What I have heard" – this is what God's prophets always did. They proclaimed no messages, speculations or theories of their own.

21:11 "Dumah" – is a Hebrew word meaning "silence." It was also a tribe descended from Ishmael (Gen 25:14; Josh 15:52; 1 Chron 1:30). Here it is probably the name

12 The watchman said,
 "The morning comes, and also the night.
 If you will inquire, inquire. Return, come."

13 The burden against Arabia:
 In the forest in Arabia you will lodge,
 O you caravans of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him who was thirsty, with their bread they met him who fled.

15 For they fled from the sword,
 from the drawn sword,
 and from the bent bow,
 and from the stress of battle.

16 For thus the Lord has said to me, "Within a year, as a hired man counts the years, all the glory of Kedar will fail, 17 and the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, will be diminished; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken it."

22 The burden concerning the Valley of Vision:
 What troubles you now,
 that you have all gone up to the housetops?

2 You that are full of uproar,
 a city full of tumult, a joyous city,
 your slain men are not killed by the sword,
 or dead in battle.

3 All your rulers have fled together,
 they are captured by the archers.

of a place in the land of Edom (Seir was a mountain in Edom). For other prophecies about Edom see 34:5-15; Jer 49:7-22; Ezek 25:12-14; Amos 1:11,12, Obadiah. The enquiry about the time of night indicates anxiety and danger.

21:12 "Morning" – probably means that a time of relief from enemies is coming, to be followed by more danger (night).

"Inquire" – if the Edomites want to know more about their future they are free to ask the prophets of the true God in Judah.

21:13 "Arabia" – for another prophecy about Arabia see Jer 49:28-33.

"Dedanim" – an Arabian tribe (Ezek 27:20; 38:13).

21:14 "Tema" – an oasis in northern Arabia mentioned in Job 6:19; Jer 25:23.

21:15 Both the Assyrians and Babylonians attacked the Arabs at different times.

21:16 "Kedar" – an important place for the tribes in the Arabian desert. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked Kedar (Jer 49:28,29). The God of Israel is the God of the whole earth, the only true and living God, and He is concerned about every tribe and people and nation in the world.

22:1 Jerusalem was built on hills and there were hills all around and valleys between them. The Valley of Vision was one of these, but which one we cannot say. This prophecy is about Jerusalem. This can be seen by all who are found in you,

who have fled from afar,
 are captured together.

4 Therefore I said, "Look away from me.
 I will weep bitterly.

Do not attempt to comfort me, because of the plundering of the daughter of my people."

5 For it is a day of trouble,
 and of trampling down,
 and of perplexity from the Lord God of hosts in the Valley of Vision,
 a breaking down of the walls,
 and of crying out to the mountains.

6 And Elam took up the quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen,
 and Kir uncovered the shield.

7 And it will happen that your choicest valleys will be full of chariots, and the horsemen will set themselves
 in array at the gate.

8 And he removes the covering of Judah.
 And you looked in that day to the armour of The House of the Forest.

9 You have also seen the breaches in the wall of the city of David,
 that they are many.

And you collected the water of the lower pool.

10 And you numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and broke down the houses to fortify

the mention in v 8 of Judah, of the "House of the Forest" (built by king Solomon – 1 Kings 7:2-6; 10:17,21), of the city of David in v 9 (see 2 Sam 5:6,7,9), and of Jerusalem in v 10.

Isaiah sees a vision of a future enemy siege. Jerusalem has been besieged many times. The two most significant in the days of the prophets were the one by the Assyrians (701 BC – 2 Chron 32:1,2,9,10), and the one by the Babylonians (588 - 586 BC – 2 Kings 25:1-3). In the future lay the siege of the Romans (70 AD). And it seems clear that there will be a siege of Jerusalem at the end of this age (Zech 12:2,3; 14:2). It is not revealed what siege is meant in this chapter.

22:2 "Uproar", "joyous" – v 13; 5:11,12; 32:13. Though some were dying because of disease or famine, many were careless and continued to seek pleasure.

22:3 Perhaps this was fulfilled in 2 Kings 25:4-6.

22:4 See 15:5; 21:3,4; Jer 9:1.

22:5 "Mountains" – 2:19; Hos 10:18; Luke 23:30; Rev 6:16.

22:6 "Kir" – 2 Kings 16:9; Amos 1:5 – a place somewhere in the regions of Assyria, and probably near Elam (see 21:2). Soldiers from these places may have fought in the armies of both Assyria and Babylon.

22:9 "Water" – 2 Kings 20:20.

- 11 You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool; but you did not look to its Maker, or have respect for the one who formed it long ago.
- 12 And in that day the Lord God of hosts called for weeping and for mourning, and for shaving the head, and for wearing sackcloth,
- 13 And, look, joy and gladness, slaughtering oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine, and saying "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."
- 14 And it was revealed in my hearing by the LORD of hosts, "Surely this wickedness will not be purged from you until you die, says the Lord God of hosts."
- 15 Thus says the Lord God of hosts, "Go, get yourselves to this steward, to Shebna, who is over the house, and say,
- 16 'What do you have here? And whom do you have here, that you have cut out a tomb for yourself here, like one cutting out a tomb on high for himself, and carving for yourself a resting place in a rock?
- 17 See, the LORD will hurl you down, you mighty man, and will surely seize you.

22:11 This applies to the majority of the people then, but there were, doubtless, always a few who did look to God, as king Hezekiah did at the time of the Assyrian siege (37:1,2,14-20).

22:12-14 At a time of national disaster when God is commanding repentance and mourning for sin, to be careless and make merry is a great evil in God's eyes.

22:15-24 Shebna was the highest official in the palace of Judah's King at one time. Evidently he used his position for his own ends. Only three things about him are recorded. He hewed out a tomb from the rock for himself (v 16). 2 Chron 16:13,14; Matt 27:57-60), he obtained splendid chariots (both of which indicate wealth), and he was a disgrace to the king (v 18). This suggests that his life style was extremely objectionable. Shebna is an example of a man who misused his office. He served himself rather than the king and people. God had two punishments for him. He would lose his position to Eliakim (vs 19-21) and he would die in exile far from his grand tomb (v 18).

22:19 "I will drive" – God puts down one and promotes another as He pleases (1 Sam 2:7; Ps 75:7).

"State" – according to 36:3, at the time of the Assyrian siege in the days of king Hezekiah, Shebna was no longer the chief

- 18 He will certainly turn violently and toss you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be the shame of your lord's house.'

- 19 And I will drive you from your position, and pull you down from your state.

20 "And this will happen on that day: I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, 21 and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt, and I will commit your authority into his hands. And he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. 22 And I will lay the key of the house of David on his shoulder; so he will open, and no one will shut, and he will shut, and no one will open. 23 And I will fasten him as a peg in a sure place; and he will be as a glorious throne to his father's house. 24 And they will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the cups to all the jars.

25 "In that day, says the LORD of hosts, the peg that is fastened in the sure place will be removed, and be cut off, and fall; and the load that was on it will be cut off; for the LORD has spoken."

23 The burden concerning Tyre. Wail, you ships of Tarshish, for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no harbour.

official in the palace; Eliakim was.

22:20 Eliakim means "God will establish."

22:21 Eliakim would be a faithful and compassionate administrator in contrast to the self-seeking Shebna.

22:22 Eliakim would be a powerful palace administrator. He would also be a small picture of the Lord Jesus who would be given the throne of David and have absolute authority, not over a palace, but over the world (Rev 3:7; Matt 28:18; John 17:2).

22:23,24 What "hangs" on the Lord Jesus who now has the keys of David? The fate of nations and peoples in the whole earth, the eternal destiny of every individual, and the honor of His Father the God of the universe.

22:25 "That day" – day of future judgment.

"Fall" – Eliakim too would lose his position, unlike the Lord Jesus who is king forever and will never fail either His Father or His people.

23:1 Other prophecies concerning Tyre are in Ezek 26:1-28:19; Amos 1:9,10. In those days Tyre was a famous city and very important seaport (v 3) on the Mediterranean coast. Part of the city was built on the mainland. This was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in 572 BC. Part of the city was built on two rocky islands about 800 meters from shore. This part was destroyed by Alexander the Great in 332 BC.

- From the land of Cyprus it is revealed to them.
- 2 Be still, you inhabitants of the coastland, you whom the merchants of Sidon who cross the sea, have filled.
- 3 And on great waters the grain of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a marketplace for the nations.
- 4 Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the strength of the sea, saying, "I am not in labour, nor do I bring forth children, nor do I rear young men or bring up virgins."
- 5 When word comes to Egypt, they will be in great pain at the report about Tyre.
- 6 Cross over to Tarshish. Wail, you inhabitants of the coastland!
- 7 Is this your joyous city, city of antiquity, of ancient days? Her own feet have carried her far away to sojourn.
- 8 Who has taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are the honourable of the earth?
- 9 The LORD of hosts has planned it to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all those honoured in the earth.
- 10 Overflow through your land like a river,

- O daughter of Tarshish; there is no more strength.
- 11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms. The LORD has given a command against the merchant city, to destroy its strongholds.
- 12 And he said, "You will no longer rejoice, O you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, cross over to Cyprus. There also you will have no rest."
- 13 See the land of the Chaldeans. This people did not exist until the Assyrian founded it for those who dwell in the desert. They set up its towers, they erected its palaces. And he brought it to ruin.
- 14 Wail, you ships of Tarshish! For your stronghold is destroyed.

15 And it will come about in that day, that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, in accordance with the days of one king. At the end of seventy years Tyre will sing like a prostitute.

- 16 Take a harp, go about the city, you prostitute who has been forgotten. Make sweet melody, sing many songs, so that you may be remembered.

17 And it will happen at the end of seventy years that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she will return to

"Tarshish" – a city far to the west of Israel, probably in present-day Spain. It was famous for sailing vessels and trade by sea (2:16; 2 Chron 9:21; Ezek 27:12).

"Cyprus" – literally "Kittim", the Hebrew name for Cyprus.

23:2 "Sidon" – another important seaport about 40 kilometers north of Tyre. Both Tyre and Sidon were in the country of the Phoenicians.

23:4 "The strength of the sea" – probably a reference to Tyre. The part of the city built on the rocky islands, being completely surrounded by water, was considered safe from attack. Tyre thought that she was unique and stood alone in the world.

23:5 Egypt would grieve at the loss of a great trading and commercial partner. The river in v 3 speaks of Egypt's River Nile.

23:6 "Cross over" – to escape the destruction of their city.

23:7 "Ancient" – even in Isaiah's day Tyre was at least 1300 years old.

"Far away" – the people of Tyre had founded cities in other parts of the world – for example, Carthage in North Africa.

23:8,9 Who planned it? Nebuchadnezzar? Alexander? Yes, but behind them, working out His purposes, God Himself did the planning. His purpose? The same as we see in 2:11-18.

23:10 "Daughter of Tarshish" – the city of Tarshish.

23:12 "Virgin daughter of Sidon" – the city of Sidon. Compare 47:1. The phrase does not mean that Sidon was pure, only that it too was a "daughter" of the human race.

"Cyprus" – literally "Kittim", the Hebrew name for Cyprus.

23:13 Before the Babylonians became a powerful kingdom the Assyrians destroyed Babylon (689 BC). Isaiah says the same thing would happen to Sidon.

23:14 Verse 1.

23:15-17 Tyre would be restored to its place as a city of trade and commerce. This happened between the destruction of the city by Nebuchadnezzar and the more complete destruction by Alexander the Great.

23:17 "Prostitute" – in the Bible this word is sometimes used of the people of a city or nation in two different senses. A people that turned from the true God and worshiped other gods or idols is called a prostitute and an adulteress (note and references at Lev 20:5). A great commercial city such as Tyre also is called a prostitute. This is no doubt because its people spent their lives for selfish gain and forgot God for the sake of profit (compare Rev 17:1,5; 18:1-19).

her hire, and act the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world, on the face of the earth. 18 But her profit and her pay will be set apart for the LORD. It will not be stored up or hoarded. For her profit will be for those who dwell before the LORD, for an abundance to eat, and for fine clothing.

24 See, the LORD makes the earth empty, and lays it waste, and turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants around.

- 2 And it will be like this:
as with the people, so with the priest;
as with the servant, so with his master;
as with the maid, so with her mistress;
as with the buyer, so with the seller;
as with the lender, so with the borrower;
as with the creditor, so with the debtor.
- 3 The land will be completely emptied,
and utterly plundered;
for the LORD has spoken this word.
- 4 The earth mourns and fades away;
the world languishes and fades away,
the haughty people of the earth languish.
- 5 The earth is also defiled under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the

- laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.
- 6 Therefore the curse has devoured the earth,
and those who live on it are desolate;
therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men are left.
- 7 The new wine fails,
the vine languishes,
all the merry-hearted sigh.
- 8 The mirth of tambourines ceases,
the noise of the revelers comes to an end,
the joy of the harp ceases.
- 9 They will not drink wine with a song;
strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it.
- 10 The city of confusion is broken down.
Every house is shut up,
so that no one comes in.
- 11 In the streets there is a crying out for wine.
All joy becomes gloom,
the mirth of the land is gone.
- 12 In the city desolation is left,
and the gate is smashed to ruins.
- 13 When it becomes like this inside the land among the people,
it will be like the shaking of an olive tree,
and like the gleanings when grape

23:18 The Lord commanded that money made by a harlot should not be given to Him (Deut 23:18). However, the wealth of a city doomed to destruction could come into the treasury of the Lord (Josh 6:17,19). The promise here is that the wealth of Tyre would benefit the servants of God. But we are not told how this wealth would come to them. Compare (60:5-11; 61:6).

24:1 From the beginning of chapter 13 God spoke of the punishment He would inflict on various nations. Now He joins them all together with all other nations and speaks of the destruction He will send on the whole world. This chapter deals with the end of this age, "the day of the Lord", the time when God pours out His anger on a godless world. The wording of 24:4,6,13,16,19,20,23; 25:6-8; 26:19-21 seems sufficient evidence for thinking this. Those verses speak of events which the New Testament reveals will occur at the end of this age and the beginning of the next. Chapters 25-27 are linked with this chapter and refer to the same events. These chapters are also tied together by the expression "in that day" – 24:21; 25:9; 26:1; 27:1,2,12.

"Makes the earth empty, and lays it waste", etc – 34:1-4; 2 Pet 3:10-12; Revelation chapters 15 and 16.

24:2 When God punishes the world for its sins He will observe no social distinctions (Rev 6:15-17).

24:4 The tense of the verbs changes to present and continues so, for the most part, up to v 21. It is as though Isaiah were caught forward and saw what was happening with his own eyes – as indeed he probably did in vision.

24:5 Here is the reason for the destruction described in the previous verses. The earth is a part of God's holy creation. Men have defiled it. God gave good and holy laws and covenants for the good of mankind. Mankind despised and violated them. This is the history of the world as God sees it. Compare Gen 6:5,12; Ps 14:2; Rom 1:18-32.

24:6 "Therefore" – if a people or a land, or the whole world, was unworthy of punishment God certainly would not send it. He sends it because He must to be true to justice and to promote the good of the universe as a whole.

"Curse" – Gen 3:17; 4:11; Deut 11:26; 27:15-26; Prov 3:33; Gal 3:10,13; Rev 22:3.

"Few" – compare the great loss of human life in Rev 6:4,8; 8:11; 9:15,18; 13:15; 19:17,18,21.

24:7-13 A picture of conditions before the final destruction of earth.

24:10 "City of confusion" – the city's name is not given. Possibly the destruction of a city such as Jerusalem (or Tyre – 23:1, or Damascus – 17:1) is given as a picture of what will happen to the whole earth. Or possibly the meaning is the city that represents fallen mankind at the end of this age – Babylon (Revelation chapters 17 and 18).

24:13 Verse 6 – comparatively few of earth's

- harvest is ended.
- 14 They will raise their voice;
they will sing;
because of the majesty of the LORD
they will cry out aloud from the sea.
- 15 Therefore glorify the LORD in the fires,
the name of the LORD God of Israel
in the coastlands of the sea.
- 16 From the ends of the earth we have heard songs,
"Glory to the Righteous One."
But I said, "My leanness, my leanness!
Woe to me! The treacherous deal treacherously;
yes, the treacherous deal very treacherously."
- 17 Terror and the pit and the snare await you, O inhabitant of the earth.
- 18 And it will happen that the one who flees from the sound of terror,
will fall into the pit;
and the one who comes up from inside
the pit will be caught in the snare.
For the windows above are open,
and the foundations of the earth shake.
- 19 The earth is violently broken up,
the earth is splintered,
the earth is shaken violently.

- 20 The earth will reel to and fro like a drunkard,
and will sway like a cottage;
and its transgression will be heavy on it,
and it will fall, and not rise again.
- 21 And it will come about in that day,
that the LORD will punish the host of exalted ones on high,
and the kings of the earth on the earth.
- 22 And they will be gathered together,
as prisoners are gathered in the pit,
and will be shut up in the prison;
and after many days they will be punished.
- 23 Then the moon will be abashed and the sun ashamed, for the LORD of hosts will reign in Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his elders gloriously.

- 25 O LORD, you are my God.
I will exalt you, I will praise your name,
for you have done wonderful things.
Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.
- 2 For you have made a city a heap of rubble,
a fortified city a ruin,
a citadel of foreigners to be a city no more;
it will never be rebuilt.

people will remain after the event of v 1.
24:14-16 The few who remain after God's judgment will sing for joy to the God of Israel, the only God there is. They will know that it is He who has preserved and saved them from destruction. See Rev 7:1-8.

"Fires" (v 15) – the Hebrew word here probably means "east."

24:16-18 "But I said" – Isaiah, thinking of the future conditions of earth, is pained to his heart (see 15:5; 16:9,11; Jer 9:1; 4:19-26). He thinks particularly of treachery, one of the worst of sins (21:2; 33:1. See also Luke 21:16; John 6:70; 2 Tim 3:4. 24:17 Luke 21:34,35.

24:18 Compare Amos 5:19.

"Windows above are open" – Gen 7:11. But the earth will never again be destroyed by a flood (Gen 9:11). Fire will be God's instrument of destruction next time (v 6; 2 Pet 3:7).

24:19,20 Haggai 2:6,7; Rev 16:17-20; Ps 46:2; Heb 12:27,28.

24:21 "That day" – the day of the Lord. Notes at 13:6-13; Joel 1:15; 1 Thess 5:1-3; etc.

"Host of exalted ones on high" – Satan and spirit beings who follow him (Eph 6:11,12; Rev 12:7-9). Their day of punishment is coming. And with them the leaders of earth who oppose the living God (Rev 19:19-21).

24:22 "Pit" – Rev 20:1-3.

"Punished" – or "visited." Consider the phrase "after many days" – observe that there is a period of time between being shut up in prison and being (fully) punished. During this period the Lord Himself will reign in Jerusalem (v 23). Compare Rev 20:7,11-15.

24:23 Again the reign of God Himself over a judged and purged earth is brought before us (see 2:2-4; 7:6,7; 11:1-10). In the glory of God and His reign the glory of the sun and moon will be as nothing. It is remarkable how similar this chapter is to chapters 14 to 21 of the book of the Revelation. What we have there in some detail is given in this chapter in great brevity. Here as there we see God's anger coming on all the people of the earth, their utter sinfulness and depravity, the destruction of all they delight in, a remnant of true believers, a terrible shaking of the earth, the punishment of Satan and evil men followed by the reign of God and His Christ.

25:1 Following the catastrophe described in chapter 24 there are two chapters of praise to God. When God in anger strikes a city, a country, or the earth as a whole, is this a reason for praise? Those in fellowship with God will grieve for the misery that comes to men (24:16-18), but may praise God that He is working His purposes out, faithfully and justly, judging wickedness, and saving and protecting His people in the midst of disaster (4:5. Compare Rev 18:20; 19:1-5). This is what we have here.

"Wonderful things" – the things described in the previous chapter.

"Of old" – 14:24,26,27; 23:8,9.

25:2 "City" – 24:10-12; Rev 18:21.

- 3 Therefore the strong people will glorify you,
the city of the terrible nations will fear you.
- 4 For you have been a strength to the poor,
a strength to the needy in his distress,
a refuge from the storm,
a shade from the heat,
when the blast of the terrible ones was like a storm against the wall.
- 5 You will subdue the noise of foreigners,
which is like heat in a dry place;
like heat by the shadow of a cloud,
the song of the terrible ones will be suppressed.
- 6 And in this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all people a feast of choice things,
a banquet of aged wines,
of choice pieces full of marrow,
of refined aged wines.
- 7 And in this mountain he will remove the presence of the covering enveloping all people,
and the veil that is spread over all nations.
- 8 He will swallow up death in victory;
and the Lord God will wipe away tears
from all faces;

- and he will take away the rebuke of his people from the whole earth;
for the LORD has spoken it.
- 9 And it will be said in that day,
"See, this is our God.
We have waited for him,
and he will save us.
This is the LORD.
We have waited for him;
we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation."
- 10 For in this mountain the hand of the LORD will rest,
and Moab will be trampled down under him,
like straw is trampled down for the refuse heap.
- 11 And he will spread out his hands among them,
as the swimmer spreads out his arms to swim.
And he will bring down their pride together with the plunder of their hands.
- 12 And he will bring down the fortification of the high fort of your walls,
lay it low,
and bring it to the ground,
to the very dust.

26 In that day this song will be sung
in the land of Judah:

25:3 See 19:19,20,23,24; Ps 72:5-11;
Rev 15:3,4; 21:24.

25:4 God protects His own people in time of disaster, sometimes physically, always spiritually, sometimes both.

"Refuge" – 4:5,6. Note and references at Ps 7:1,2. The phrase "poor and needy" is used often in Psalms to indicate the righteous, God-fearing poor.

25:5 13:11; Jer 51:55.

25:6-8 God has greater purpose for earth than the destruction of wickedness. He is a God of love and grace. In these verses are revealed the wonderful things He prepares for redeemed mankind.

25:6 "In this mountain" – a mountain in Jerusalem or Jerusalem itself. In Jerusalem, on a hill called Calvary, God, by the death of His Son, laid the foundation for all future blessings to the earth and its people (chapter 53).

"Feast", "banquet" – a symbol of rejoicing and fellowship with God and spiritual blessings (55:1,2; Matt 22:1,2; Luke 14:15,16). In the context the "marriage supper of the Lamb" is suggested (Rev 19:6,7).

25:7 The "covering", and "veil" that covers all nations probably indicate spiritual ignorance and death. Compare 2 Cor 3:14-16; Eph 4:18. God will destroy the veil and fully enlighten "all people" on this mountain (v 6; 2:14; 11:9).

25:8 "Death" – 1 Cor 15:54; Heb 2:14;
Rev 20:14; 21:4. Death will have no place in the final conditions of earth because sin which brings death (Rom 5:12; 6:23) will have no place then.

"Victory" – the Hebrew word here means splendour, glory, sincerity, truth, faith, confidence, forever, perfection, completeness.

"Tears" – Rev 7:7; 21:4. God is a loving Father whose own hand will wipe away the tears of His people and eternally remove from them all cause of tears.

"Rebuke" – or "disgrace" – Ps 119:22,39;
Matt 5:11; 1 Pet 4:14.

25:9 "Our God" – v 1. Those who do not have this one true God as their God will not partake of the above blessings.

"Waited for him" – everywhere in the Bible the relationship between trust and salvation is revealed (12:2; 26:4; Ps 2:12; John 5:24; Acts 16:31).

"Rejoice" – 9:3; 35:10; 41:16; 51:3; 66:14; Ps 9:2; Rev 19:7.

25:10 "Moab" – in the context of chapters 24,25 Moab probably represents all the enemies of God's people. Compare 30:31 and 34:5.

25:11 "Pride" – 2:11-18; 16:6.

25:12 Verse 2; 24:10,12.

26:1 "That day" – 24:21-23; 25:9.

"A strong city" – 14:32. Jerusalem and perhaps the new one of Revelation chapter 21. In some places in Scripture "city" seems to be used as a symbol of the social life of a whole people, or of mankind. From one point of view there are really only two cities
– the city of man and the city of God. City here is put in contrast to the city of 24:10,12; 25:2; 26:5.

- We have a strong city.
God will appoint salvation for walls and bulwarks.
- 2 Open the gates, so that the righteous nation which keeps the truth may come in.
- 3 You will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind rests on you, because he trusts in you.
- 4 Trust in the LORD forever; for in Yah, the LORD, is eternal strength.
- 5 For he brings down those who dwell on high. He lays low the lofty city, he lays it low, to the ground, he brings it to the very dust.
- 6 The foot will trample it down, the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.
- 7 The way of the just is uprightness. O most upright One, you make the path of the just level.
- 8 Yes, following the way of your judgments, O LORD, we have waited for you. The desire of our soul is for your name, and for the remembrance of you.
- 9 With my soul I have desired you in the night; yes, with my spirit in me I will seek you early. For when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

"Salvation" – 32:18; 60:18; Zech 2:5; 9:8; 118:19,20; Isa 60:11.
26:2 "Open" – 60:11; Ps 24:7; 118:19,20; Rev 21:25.
 "Righteous" – Ps 51:1-5; 24:3-6; Rev 21:27; 22:14,15.
26:3 In any age this is the way to peace of mind – Phil 4:6,7; Ps 37:3-8; 112:6-9.
26:4 "Eternal" – everything else a person may trust is temporary, passing away in weakness. "Yah" = Yahweh (Jehovah).
26:5 See 2:11-18; 24:10,12; 25:2; Rev 18:21.
26:6 Cruel oppressors will not have the upper hand forever.
26:7 "Level" – or "smooth." 42:16; Ps 26:12; 27:11; 143:10.
26:8 The second part of this verse can be true of us only if the first part is also true of us.
26:9-11 In v 9 Isaiah speaks for himself.
26:9 "In the night" – Ps 42:8; 63:6; 77:2; 119:55,62.
 "Early" – Ps 42:1-3; 63:1.
 "Learn righteousness" – Rev 15:4. Judgments and punishments are severe teachers, but it is far better to learn by them than not to learn at all (compare Ps 119:71).
26:10 This has been true of all nations from the beginning (Rom 1:20-25), and was true of Israel. God's grace has been shown to men in many ways (Ps 100:1-5; 145:9;

- 10 If grace is shown to the wicked, still he will not learn righteousness. He will deal unjustly in an upright land, and will not perceive the majesty of the LORD.
- 11 LORD, when your hand is lifted up, they will not see; but they will see your zeal for the people, and be put to shame; yes, the fire reserved for your enemies will consume them.
- 12 LORD, you will establish peace for us, for you have also done all our works in us.
- 13 O LORD our God, other lords beside you have had dominion over us, but through you alone we will make mention of your name.
- 14 They are dead, they will not live. They are deceased, they will not stand up, for you have punished and destroyed them, and have wiped out all memory of them.
- 15 You have increased the nation, O LORD, you have increased the nation. You are glorified. You have extended all the borders of the land.
- 16 LORD, in trouble they sought you. They poured out a prayer when your correction was on them.
- 17 As a woman with child who draws near the time for her delivery is in pain, Matt 5:45; Acts 14:17; Rom 2:4).

26:11 "Hand" – 9:12,17,21; Ps 89:13. The wicked do not wish to see God at work and so do not, until God Himself causes them to see.
 "Zeal" – 9:7; 37:32; Joel 2:18; Zech 1:14; John 2:17.
 "Fire. . . will consume them" – 2 Thess 2:8; Rev 20:15; 21:8.
26:12-19 Isaiah speaks for the Jews of that future time referred to in v 1.
 "You have also done all our works in us" – 1 Cor 3:6,7; 12:6; Gal 2:8; Phil 2:13; Col 1:29; Heb 13:21. This does not mean that God's people are mere puppets without will. They work with God and God works with and in them.
26:13 "Lords" – foreign rulers at various times in their history, possibly together with their gods and idols. Here is a determination that it shall no longer be so. See 1 Cor 8:5,6.
26:14 God will rid the earth of all evil rulers, human or supernatural, and will Himself reign over His people.
26:15 "Increased" – 9:3; 14:2; 54:2,3.
26:16-18 A confession of their weakness and failure. Their prayers were like a mere whisper. They produced nothing by their pains and efforts. They failed in the supreme task God gave them (v 18). Israel was to be the channel of blessing and

and cries out in her pains,
so we have been in your sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child,
we have been in pain, we have,
as it were, given birth to wind.
We have not produced any deliverance
on the earth;
nor have the inhabitants of the world
been born through us.

19 Your dead will live.
Together with my dead body they will rise.
Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust!
For your dew is like the dew of the morning,
and the earth will cause the dead to fall out.

20 Come, my people, enter your rooms,
and shut your doors behind you.
Hide yourselves as if for a little while,
until the indignation is past.

21 For, see, the LORD comes out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity.
The earth will also disclose its blood,
and will no longer conceal her slain.

salvation to the world (John 4:22; Rom 3:1,2; 9:4,5). The Lord Jesus of Israel made up for the failure of the people of Israel. "Been born" (v 18) – or "fallen". 26:19 In the Old Testament there is little teaching about the resurrection of the dead. But here is a clear promise from God to Israel. See also Ps 16:10; Dan 12:2.

"Dew of the morning" – newness and freshness of life after the night (death).

26:20,21 See 2:10-21; 24:21,22; 66:15, 16. In the Day of the Lord the nation Israel will be preserved (see chapter 27; Rev 7:1-8; 12:13,14).

26:20 "Enter your rooms", "hide" – where? how? Their "rooms" must mean God Himself. He is the only safety (27:5). No rooms of wood or stone could preserve from God's anger. It is true that some commentators believe that much of chapters 24-26 relates to a time in Israel's history – the Assyrian or Babylonian invasion. The author of these notes believes the final days of this age are meant and that any invasions by Assyrians or Babylonians were only a small picture of the final invasion.

27:1 See 24:21; 25:9; 26:1.

"That day" – the end of this age. See 24:1.
"Sword" – Deut 32:41; 31:8; 34:6; 66:16; Deut 32:41; Ezek 21:3; Rev 19:15.

"Leviathan" – here evidently means some great and wicked kingdom, some oppressive power. Each time the word is used in the Bible it seems to refer to something different. In Job 3:8 it is some sort of sea monster. In Job 41:1 it may mean a huge salt water crocodile. In Ps 74:14 it may refer to Egypt. Here also the meaning may be different. Ancient empires

27 In that day the LORD, with his fierce and great and strong sword will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent, Leviathan that twisted serpent,
and he will kill the sea dragon.

2 In that day sing to her,
a vineyard producing red wine.

3 "I, the LORD, keep it.
I water it every moment.
I keep it night and day so that no one will harm it.

4 Fury is no longer in me.
Who would set the briars and thorns against me in battle?
I would go through them;
I would burn them up together.

5 Or let him take hold of my strength,
so that he may make peace with me;
and he will make peace with me."

6 In the coming time he will cause Jacob to take root.
Israel will blossom and bud,
and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 Has he struck him, as he struck those like Egypt or Babylon may have been like Leviathan. But if this chapter refers to the end of this age neither of them can be meant. Who will be the great oppressive power "in that day" (v 1)? The answer is, antichrist and his kingdom. This is said to come out of the "sea" (Rev 13:1). It is true that this "beast" is not described as a serpent in Revelation chapter 13, but his nature is like one, and the "dragon" will give the beast his power. Indeed the real ruler behind the throne of antichrist will be the serpent the devil (Rev 12:7-9; 13:2,4).

27:2-6 This is in complete contrast to 5:1-7. The nation of Israel (v 6 – Jacob) at the end of this age and beginning of a new one will be completely changed. Everything that could hinder fruitfulness (briars and thorns) will be removed.

27:5 "Him" – He seems to be referring to the enemies of Israel who are like briars and thorns (v 4). God would rather have all such reconciled to Himself than destroyed. Compare 2 Cor 5:19,20.

27:6 Indicates a complete change for Israel (Rom 11:26). True fruitfulness in place of the sad condition described in 5:2 and 26:18.

"Fruit" – 37:31.

27:7-11 At times throughout Israel's history God had to "strike" the nation because of its sins (see 10:5,6; Jud 2:10-19; 2 Kings 17:5-20; Jer 52:1-9; Luke 19:41-44; 21:20-24). But He did not completely destroy Israel as He did some other nations. Israel exists to this day. Israel will have to endure God's appointed punishment. The evidence that the nation was right with God would be an abandonment of all idolatry and who struck him?

Or is he killed in accordance with the slaughter of those who are killed by him?

8 In measure, you contended with him by exiling him.

With his rough wind he drove him out, on the day of the east wind.

9 Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be purged, and this is the full fruit of taking away his sin: when he makes all the stones of the altar like chalk stones that are crushed in pieces, the groves and images will not stand.

10 For the fortified city will be desolate, a settlement forsaken and left like a wilderness.

There the calf will feed, and there lie down and consume its branches.

11 When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off.

The women come and set them on fire.

For it is a people of no understanding; therefore he who made them will not have mercy on them, and he who formed them will show them no favour.

12 And it will happen in that day, that the LORD will thresh from the channel of the River Euphrates to the Brook of Egypt, and you will be gathered one by one, O children of Israel. 13 And it will happen in that day, that the great trumpet will be false worship (v 9). Part of Israel's punishment was to be the loss of Jerusalem and exile (v 10).

27:11 "People of no understanding" – 1:3; 6:9,10; Deut 32:38. The ignorance of Israel was a blameworthy ignorance. They could have had the enlightenment and wisdom God gives if they had wanted them (compare Prov 1:7,22-33).

27:12,13 "That day" – 24:1; 25:9; 26:1; 27:1; (21:10). God will thresh those enemies.

"Thresh" – Israel's enemies threshed Israel.

"Trumpet" – compare Matt 24:31. Here is a regathering of Israel that would go beyond the return of the exiles from Babylon in Ezra's day. See 11:10-12 (notice in v 11 the words "in that day"); Amos 9:14,15.

28:1 Chapters 28-35 form another unit. In this section we have descriptions of conditions and events in Isaiah's day and not long afterwards. But here and there, as in earlier chapters (as indeed everywhere in Isaiah) are prophecies of far-off events – of the times of both Christ's first and second comings. Chapters 28-33 have a series of six "woes" – 28:1; 29:1; 29:15; 30:1; 31:1; 33:1 (compare 5:11-23).

"Crown" – Samaria the beautiful capital blown, and those who were about to perish in the land of Assyria, and the exiles in the land of Egypt, will come and worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which is at the head of the lush valleys of those who are overcome with wine!

2 See, the LORD has someone mighty and strong; like a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, like a flood of mighty overflowing waters, with the hand he will bring them down to the earth.

3 The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trampled underfoot,

4 And the glorious beauty at the head of the lush valley will be a fading flower, and like the first ripe fruit before the summer, which someone looks at and sees; while it is still in his hand he eats it up.

5 In that day the LORD of hosts will be as a crown of glory, and as a diadem of beauty, to the remainder of his people,

6 And as a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and as strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

7 But they also have erred through wine, city of Israel. It was built on a hill as a crown fits on a head.

"Ephraim" – a name sometimes used for the whole northern kingdom of Israel.

"Drunkards" – Amos 6:4-7 was also directed against Samaria. Drunkenness evidently was a common sin in both Israel and Judah (5:11-13). Even their priests and prophets were guilty of it (vs 7,8). Notes on drunkenness at Gen 9:21; Prov 23:29-35. 28:2-4 "Someone mighty" – the king of Assyria – 8:7,8. This foretells his capture of Samaria in 722 B.C.

28:4 "Fading flower" – all man's glory and pride is only for a little while (40:6,7; 1 Pet 1:24). Is it not foolish to spend one's life for them when we can live for things that last forever? Matt 6:19,20; John 6:27; etc. 28:5 "In that day" – can hardly mean the time of Samaria's capture. See 24:1.

"The LORD of hosts" – men can make their own crowns and take pride in their own glory (v 1). But believers (here called the "remainder") will have the one true God as their crown and glory.

28:6 "Justice" – 11:2-4.

"Strength" – this verse speaks of victory, not defeat.

28:7,8 When priest and prophets are

- and through strong drink are out of the way.
The priest and the prophet have erred
through strong drink,
they are swallowed up by wine.
They are out of the way through strong drink.
They err in vision, they stumble in judgment.
- 8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness,
so that no place is clean.
- 9 "Whom will he teach knowledge?
And whom will he cause to understand doctrine?
Those who are weaned from the milk and drawn from the breasts.
- 10 For precept must be on precept,
precept on precept;
line on line, line on line;
here a little, and there a little."
- 11 For with stammering lips and a foreign tongue he will speak to this people,
- 12 To whom he said,
"This is the rest with which you may cause the weary to rest, and this is the refreshing."
But they would not listen.
- 13 So the word of the LORD was to them
precept on precept, precept on precept;
line on line, line on line;
here a little, and there a little,
so that they might go and fall backward,
and be broken, and snared, and captured.
- 14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD,
you scornful men who rule this drunkards they are certain to lead the people astray.

"They also" – at v 7 Isaiah, it seems, begins to speak of conditions in Jerusalem too (v 14).

28:9,10 Those drunkard priests and prophets speak sarcastically of Isaiah (see v 14).

28:11-13 Isaiah answers them. They would not welcome God's message through him. (If they had it would have meant rest to them.) So God would speak to them through foreigners who would destroy them. He probably meant the Assyrians and Babylonians who would teach them a lesson never to be forgotten. The essence of v 11 is quoted in 1 Cor 14:21.

28:15 Can we think they actually spoke such words? Possibly Isaiah here reveals what the meaning of their actions was. It seems that they were trusting in sorcery and spiritism (see 8:19). Alas, how many there be today also who trust in Satan's lies and have a false sense of security because of sorcery and idolatry.

"Hell" (also v 18) – in Hebrew "Sheol," the realm of the dead – Gen 37:35.

"Falsehood" – in Hebrew this may sometimes indicate "false gods."

28:16 This "stone" is the Lord Jesus people who are in Jerusalem.

15 Because you have said,

"We have made a covenant with death,
and with hell we are in agreement.

When the overflowing scourge passes
through,

it will not come to us,

for we have made lies our refuge,
and have hidden ourselves under falsehood."

16 Therefore thus says the Lord God:

"Look! I lay in Zion a foundation stone,
a tested stone, a precious cornerstone,
a sure foundation.

He who believes will not be hasty.

17 And I will make justice the measuring line,

and righteousness the plumb line;

and the hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,
and the waters will overflow the hiding place.

18 And your covenant with death will be annulled, and your agreement with hell will not stand.

When the overflowing scourge passes through,
then you will be trampled down by it.

19 As often as it goes out it will take you;

for morning by morning it will pass over,
by day and by night;

and understanding the report will bring terror."

20 For the bed is so short that a man cannot stretch himself on it, and the cover is so narrow that he cannot wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD will rise up as in Mount Perazim.

He will be angry as in the Valley of Gibeon,

(1 Cor 3:11; Eph 2:20; 1 Pet 2:6). This verse indicates that God would make a new beginning, build a new structure. One does not lay a cornerstone or a foundation to a building already in existence. Is the New Testament Church, then, a completely new thing? Perhaps not entirely. It is built on the foundation of the apostles, but also of the prophets (they too are in the foundation – Eph 2:20). To be in the foundation is to be a vital part of the building. But though the Church may not be an entirely new thing, its structure in this age is different from what we see in Israel in the Old Testament. See note on Church at Matt 16:18.

28:17 "Justice" – v 6; 11:4.

"Hail" – v 2. God's judgments will reveal the uselessness of the lies and false refuges men trust in (compare 2 Kings 24:1,2,10,12,20; 25:1).

28:18 "Overflowing scourge" – v 2; 8:7.

28:19 God's judgments and foreign invasions came repeatedly.

"Terror" – many things in God's word would bring terror to men's hearts if truly understood and believed.

28:20 Speaks of lack of preparation and absence of any possibility of trust and rest.

28:21 "Mount Perazim" – 2 Sam 5:20.

- that he may do his work,
his strange work,
and accomplish his act, his unusual act.
- 22 Now, therefore, do not be mockers, so your shackles will not become stronger;
for I have heard of a destruction from the Lord God of hosts, determined against the whole earth.
- 23 Give ear and hear my voice;
listen, and hear my words.
- 24 Does the plowman plow all day to sow?
Does he turn up and break the clods of his ground?
- 25 When he has made the surface level,
does he not sow the caraway, and scatter the cummin, and plant wheat
in rows,
and the barley in its appointed place
and the rye in its plot?
- 26 For his God instructs him and teaches him the right way.
- 27 For the caraway is not threshed with a threshing instrument,
nor is a cart wheel rolled over the cummin;
but the caraway is beaten out with a stick, and the cummin with a rod.
- 28 Bread grain is ground, so he does not continually thresh it or smash it with his cart wheel or crush it by his horsemen.
- 29 This also comes from the LORD of hosts, who is wonderful in counsel,
and excellent in working.

- 29 Woe to Ariel, to Ariel,
the city where David lived!
Add year to year;
let the feasts come around.
- 2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there will be heaviness and sorrow,
and it will be like an ariel to me.
- 3 And I will camp against you all around,
and will lay siege against you with a mound,
and I will raise siege works against you.
- 4 And you will be brought down,
and will speak from the ground,
and your speech will be low out of the dust,
and your voice shall be like a medium's voice,
out of the ground,
and your speech will whisper from the dust.
- 5 Moreover your many enemies will become like small dust, and the horde of ruthless ones will become like chaff that passes away;
yes, it will happen suddenly, in an instant.
- 6 You will be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder,
and with earthquake, and great noise,
with storm and tempest and the flame of devouring fire.
- 7 And the hordes of all the nations that fight against Ariel, all that fight against her and her fortress and distress her,
will be like a dream of a night vision.
- 8 It will be as when a hungry man dreams,
and, see, he eats; but he wakes up,
and he is empty.

"Gibeon" – Josh 10:10-12.
"Strange work" – sending enemies to destroy His own city, temple, and nation.
28:22 "Mockers" – v 14; 2 Chron 36:15,16.
"Determined" – 10:22,23.
28:23-29 The meaning of this parable is that in the judgments God sends on Israel
He has a good purpose toward them.
Farmers know how to make a field produce crops. Threshers of grain know what instruments to use and how long to use them. God, from whom all wisdom comes, knows how to go about making His people fruitful. He will not plow them or thresh them too long, too harshly.
28:29 See 9:6; Ps 40:5; 92:5; 139:17;
Rom 11:33,34.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.
29:1 "Ariel" is Jerusalem. The word sounds like the Hebrew for "lion of God."
"Feasts" – or "sacrifices be killed".
29:2 The word Ariel is also similar to the Hebrew word for hearth or stove or fire-pit.
The fire of God's anger would burn there.
See 31:9. The "I" of verses 2 and 3 is of course God, not Isaiah.

29:3 The surrounding of Jerusalem by enemies is here said to be God's work.
29:4 Jerusalem will be weakened and humbled to the dust.
29:5-8 The enemies that come against Jerusalem are many (v 5), of "all the nations" (vs 7,8). These words indicate that the picture in these verses was not fulfilled at the Assyrian invasion in 701 BC, or in the Babylonian invasion more than a century later. The language suggests the events foretold in Zech 12:2-9; 14:2-5, which, it appears from the context, will take place at the end of this age. There, too, we read of "all nations" coming against Jerusalem, of its distress and humbling, and of the Lord's sudden appearance to fight against these enemies. Compare also v 2 with Zech 12:6.
29:6 See 28:2; Jud 5:4,5; Ps 18:7-15;
83:13-15; Isa 31:27; Hab 3:3-7; 2 Thess
1:7.
"Visited" – or "punished" – the Hebrew word means both.

Or as when a thirsty man dreams,
and, see, he drinks;
but he wakes up, and, see, he is faint,
and he still wants water.
Thus will it be with the hordes of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion.

9 Stay and be astonished!
Blind yourselves and be blind!
They are drunk, but not with wine;
they stagger, but not from strong drink.

10 For the LORD has poured out on you
the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets;
and covered your heads, the seers.

11 And the whole vision has become to you like the words of a sealed book which men deliver to one who can read, saying, "Please read this"; and he says, "I cannot, for it is sealed." 12 And the book is delivered to one who cannot read, saying,
"Please read this"; and he says, "I cannot read."

13 Therefore the Lord said,
"Since this people draw near me with their mouth,
and honour me with their lips,
but have removed their heart far from me,
and their fear toward me is merely
rules taught by men;

14 Therefore, see, once more I will do a marvellous work among this people,
a marvellous work and a wonder;
for the wisdom of their wise men will perish,
and the understanding of their intelligent men will be hidden."

29:9-12 God now speaks to the people of Jerusalem. Verses 9,10 indicate their spiritual stupor and blindness. God Himself had brought about this condition as a punishment for their unbelief, unfaithfulness and wickedness (see 6:9,10). So they could not understand the prophecies God gave through Isaiah – vs 11,12.

29:13 The Lord Jesus referred to this verse in Matt 15:8,9 while denouncing the hypocrisy of the Pharisees. They were typical of many people in every age. There are many people in the world who wish to be considered religious and God-honoring, but whose spiritual condition often denies all their lips say (58:1,2; Jer 12:1,2; Ezek 33:3-32).
29:14 "A wonder" – vs 17-24.

"Perish" – 1 Cor 1:19. The wonder above all wonders, and that which causes the wisdom of the wise to vanish, is the cross of Christ (1 Cor 1:20-24).

29:15 "Hide" – 28:15; Gen 3:8; Ps 10:11;
94:7; Isa 47:10; 57:12; Heb 4:13.

29:16 Here are three errors in the thinking of sinful and perverse men – thinking God is like themselves (see Ps 50:21), denying there is a God at all in spite of evidence everywhere of the work of His hands (see 15 Woe to those who seek to hide their counsel deeply from the LORD, and whose works are in the dark,

and who say,
"Who sees us? And who knows us?"

16 Surely you have turned things upside down, regarding the potter
as the clay.
For shall the thing made say of him who made it, "He did not make me."
Or shall the thing formed say of him who formed it,
"He had no understanding?"

17 Is it not just a very little time before Lebanon is to be turned into a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field regarded like a forest?

18 And in that day the deaf will hear the words of the book,
and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

19 The meek also will increase their joy
in the LORD,
and the poor among men will rejoice
in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the terrible one will be brought to nothing,
and the scornful one will be finished,
and all who look to do evil will be cut off;

21 Those who, by a word, cause a man to be regarded as an offender, and lay a snare for him who rebukes
in the gate,
and turn aside the upright for no

Ps 14:1), or accusing God of poor or ignorant workmanship when it comes to the human race – not considering that the evil state men are in is a result of their own doing.
God pronounces "woe" to all such people.

29:17-24 Here are other wonders (v 14) God will perform. Verse 17 suggests a great change will occur. See 2:12-17. Compare 32:15. The change in Lebanon is symbolical of the change in conditions among men.
The will occur in "a short time" – short in God's eyes (Heb 10:37; 2 Pet 3:8), not necessarily in man's.

29:18 "In that day" – 24:2; 25:9; 26:1; 27:1,2,12.

"Deaf", "blind" – 32:2; 35:5; 42:7. The beginning of the fulfillment of this was in the days of Christ on earth. He opened both physical and spiritual eyes, and caused both the physically and spiritually deaf to hear.
As for Jerusalem and the nation Israel (the subject of this chapter) their blindness will not be removed till the end of this age.

29:19-21 Indicates a complete reversal of conditions prevailing in Isaiah's day (and, alas, in ours). The humble and the poor will be exalted; cruelty, scorn, evil, and injustice will vanish (11:1-5; 26:5,6; etc).

- proper reason.
- 22 Therefore thus says the LORD,
who redeemed Abraham,
concerning the house of Jacob,
"Jacob will not now be ashamed,
nor will his face now become pale.
- 23 But when he sees his children
in his midst, the work of my hands, they will regard my name as holy,
and regard as holy the Holy One
of Jacob,
and fear the God of Israel;
- 24 And those who err in spirit will come to understanding,
and those who complain will learn doctrine."

- 30 "Woe to the rebellious children,"
says the LORD.
"They take counsel, but not from me;
and they carry out plans,
but not by my Spirit,
so that they may add sin to sin.
- 2 They travel down to Egypt,
and have not asked my advice; they strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and trust in the shadow of Egypt.
- 3 Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be to your shame,
and trust in the shadow of Egypt your humiliation.
- 4 For his princes are at Zoan,
and his ambassadors come to Hanes.
- 5 They will all be ashamed of a people who cannot benefit them,

"In the gate" (v 21) – where city or village heads met for discussions and decisions.

29:22 "Redeemed" – note on redemption at Ps 78:35. God redeemed Abraham from an idolatrous society and vain way of life, separated him unto Himself, and brought him into the land of Canaan (Gen 12:1). Now the God who did that promises that something similar will happen to Jacob (the Jewish nation). They will come to the knowledge of God and His holiness (Jer 31:33,34; Rom 11:25-27).

30:1,2 "Children" – 1:2.

"Take counsel" – to go to Egypt – 31:1. In Isaiah's day, Judah's leaders, faced with the threat from Assyria's superior military strength, looked to Egypt for help. God did not lead them to do this. They did not even consult God about it. So God pronounces "woe" to those who were guilty of it. God's people in every age must be careful about the alliances and friendships they form (2 Cor 6:14-18).

30:3-7 Judah's alliance with Egypt would prove to be disastrous. Egypt would be

- or be a help or profit, but only a shame and disgrace."
- 6 The burden concerning the beasts of the south:
"They will carry their wealth on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels into the land of trouble and anguish, from which come the young and old lion,
the viper and fiery flying serpent,
to a people who will not benefit them."
- 7 For the Egyptians will help in vain,
and to no purpose.
Therefore I have said about her,
Rahab sits still.
- 8 Now go, write this on a tablet in their presence,
and inscribe it on a scroll,
that it may be for the time to come,
forever and ever:
- 9 This is a rebellious people,
lying children,
children who will not listen to the law
of the LORD;
- 10 Who say to the seers, 'Do not see,'
and to the prophets, 'Do not prophesy to us right things.
Speak to us smooth things,
prophesy deceitful visions.
- 11 Get out of the way.
Turn aside from the path.
Cause the Holy One of Israel no longer to be in our presence."
- 12 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:
"Because you despise this word,

totally incapable of giving help.

30:6 "The south" – the desert-like region in the southern part of Canaan, called the Negev.

30:7 "Rahab" – here means Egypt (51:9; Ps 87:4; 89:10). The second sentence of this verse, though different from the KJV, seems to bring out the meaning of the Hebrew well.

30:8-11 Here we see the condition of Judah's people that caused them to go to Egypt for help without consulting the Lord.

30:9 Verse 1; 1:2; Ps 78:8,40; Jer 5:23; etc.

"Will not listen" – this was the fault that was mother of so many other faults.

30:10,11 As men in general, they did not want to hear the plain truth. It upset them. Preaching the holy way and the Holy One made them unhappy. They wanted to continue in their own sinful ways. They preferred pleasant lies to unpleasant truth (compare 1 Kings 22:8; Jer 5:30,31; 2 Thess 2:10,11).

30:12-17 "Therefore" – they would have to take the consequences for their foolish and wicked behavior.

- and trust in oppression and perversity,
and rely on them,
13 Therefore this evil will be to you like a breach ready to collapse, bulging out in a high wall,
which will break suddenly,
in an instant.
14 And he will break it like breaking a potter's jar that is broken in pieces.
He will not spare,
and so among its pieces there will not be found a fragment to take fire from the hearth,
or to take water from the cistern."
15 For thus says the Lord God,
the Holy One of Israel:
"In returning and rest you will be saved.
In quietness and in confidence you will have strength;
and you were not willing.
16 But you said,
'No, for we will flee on horses.'
Therefore you will flee.
And you said, 'We will ride on swift animals.'
Therefore those who pursue you will be swift.
17 One thousand will flee at the threat of one;
at the threat of five you will flee until you are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain,
and like a banner on a hill."
18 And therefore the LORD will wait, that he may be gracious to you,

and therefore he will be exalted,
that he may have mercy on you.
For the LORD is a God of justice.
Blessed are all those who wait for him.

19 For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem.
You will weep no more. He will be very gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When he hears it, he will answer you. 20 And though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet your teachers will not be moved into a corner
any more, but your eyes will see your teachers, 21 and your ears will hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it," whenever you turn to the right or whenever you turn to the left.
22 You will also defile your silver-plated carved images, and your moulded gold-plated idols. You will throw them away like a menstrual cloth. You will say to them, "Away with you!"

23 Then he will give rain for your seed, so that you can sow in the ground, and the food, and the produce of the land, will be rich and plentiful. In that day your cattle will graze in large pastures.
24 Likewise the oxen and the young donkeys that work the ground will eat clean fodder, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.
25 And on the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall, on every high mountain and on every high hill there will be rivers and streams of waters. 26 Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times its usual brightness, like the light of seven days, on the day that the LORD binds up the

"Holy One" – note at 1:4.
30:13 "This evil" – their acts of oppression and deceit.
"High wall" – they thought their behavior made them safe.
30:15 A principle good for all situations, all times. Turning to God and resting, trusting in Him is the way to salvation, strength and security. Observe that repentance comes first and then rest and trust (examples: 2 Chron 13:18; 14:11,12; 20:12,15-17,20). If people refuse the way of faith, as the people of Judah did, they will experience defeat and disaster, as Judah did.
30:16 Ps 33:16-19.
30:17 The opposite of Lev 26:7,8. This would show that God had given them up to their enemies (Deut 32:30).
30:18 God punishes when justice demands it. But punishing is grievous to Him (Jer 48:31-39). He loves to show mercy whenever possible (Ex 34:6,7; Ps 33:5; 145:8). But if He shows compassion, that, too, must not violate justice (5:16).
"Blessed" – notes at Ps 1:1; 119:1.
"Wait for him" – 25:9; 40:31; 64:4; Ps 27:14.
30:19-26 A description of some of the ways God will show compassion on, and be gracious to, the people of Judah.

30:19 "Weep no more" – 25:8; 60:20; 61:3. God will remove all cause of weeping.
"Answer" – 65:24; Ps 50:15; 86:7; Jer 29:12-14; Zech 13:9.
30:20-22 God would bring trouble on them outwardly, but do an inner work in them that would cause them to listen to the teachers He would send, and to obey His voice telling them the way. They will show obedience by casting away all their idols, whether physical or mental ones.
30:23,24 He will send the blessings promised to an obedient Israel (Deut 28:1, 11,12).
30:25 "Slaughter" – 24:1,5,13; 34:2-4.
"Towers" – 2:12-15.
"Streams" – v 23; 41:18; Joel 3:18; Zech 14:8.
30:26 "Moon", "sun" – if this is to be fulfilled literally, we may judge from the context (v 25), and the nature of the wonder itself, that it will be at the end of this age. Then there will be strange things happening in the heavenly bodies. Sunlight seven times brighter than normal would be a fearful thing (compare Rev 16:8,9). Would this not injure the Jewish remnant? God would protect them (compare 4:5,6).

fracture of his people and heals the wound from the blow.

- 27 See, the name of the LORD comes from afar, burning with his anger,
and its burden is heavy.
His lips are full of indignation,
and his tongue is like a devouring fire,
28 And his breath is like an overflowing stream reaching up to the neck.
He comes to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction.
And there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to go astray.
- 29 You will have a song, as in the night when a holy festival is kept,
and gladness of heart,
as when one walks with a flute to go to the mountain of the LORD,
to the Mighty One of Israel.
- 30 And the LORD will cause his glorious voice to be heard,
and make them see his arm descending,
with raging anger and with the flame of a devouring fire,
with cloudburst, and storm, and hailstones.
- 31 For through the voice of the LORD the Assyrian, who struck with a rod, will be beaten down.
- 32 And each place where the rod of punishment passes,
which the LORD lays on him,
will resound with tambourines and harps;

and in battles, brandishing his weapons,
he will fight against it.

- 33 For Tophet has long been ready;
yes, it is prepared for the king.
He has made it deep and large,
a pyre of fire and much wood.
The breath of the LORD,
like a stream of sulfur, causes it to burn.

- 31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses,
and trust in chariots,
because they are many, and in horsemen,
because they are very strong,
but who do not look to the Holy One of Israel, or seek the LORD!
- 2 Yet he too is wise, and will bring disaster,
and will not call back his words,
but will arise against the house of evildoers,
and against those who help the workers of iniquity.
- 3 Now the Egyptians are men,
and not God;
and their horses are flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD stretches out his hand,
both he who helps will stumble,
and he who is helped will fall,
and they will all perish together.
- 4 For the LORD has spoken to me thus:
"As the lion and the young lion roaring over his prey when a multitude of shepherds is called out against him,
will not be afraid of their voices,
or disturbed by their noise,

"Binds up", "heals" – 1:5,6; Deut 32:39; Ps 107:20; 147:3; Jer 33:6.

30:27-33 Description of a terrible time for "all nations" (v 28), a time when God's wrath will be poured out in a very striking manner. The words "fire" and "anger" appear several times.
30:27 "Name of the LORD comes" – a manifestation of God Himself. At this event the attribute of God most clearly revealed is His burning holiness, His flaming anger against sin (Heb 12:29).

30:28 "Breath" – 11:4; Ex 15:9,10; 2 Sam 22:16; 2 Thess 2:8.

"Sieve of destruction" – suggests something will remain of the nations.

30:29 "You" – Israel.

"Have a song" – because of deliverance and the just punishment of wickedness (Rev 19:1-4).

30:30 "Voice" – Ps 29:3,4; 68:32,33. Voice could here be connected with Rev 19:15 – the sharp sword coming out of Christ's mouth is the word of God He speaks.

"Fire" – 2 Thess 1:7.

"Hailstones" – Rev 16:17-21.

30:31 Here Assyria probably represents all of God's (and Israel's) enemies, as Moab seems to do in 25:10, and Edom in 34:5.

30:32 Verse 29. "Tambourines and harps" – compare Ex 15:20,21; 1 Sam 18:6.

30:33 "Tophet" – note at Jer 7:31. Here it probably symbolizes the lake of fire (Rev 19:20).

"The king" – probably refers to the worldwide ruler at the end-time, the antichrist, the "beast" of Revelation chapter 13.

"Breath of the LORD" – this speaks of God's holy wrath. Hell is a place where the fiery anger of God burns against those He judges deserving of it.

31:1 Note at 30:1,2; Jer 17:5.

31:2 See what some leaders in Judah thought about God's wisdom in 29:15,16.

"His words" – Num 23:19.

31:3 30:3,5,7. "His hand" – 5:25; 9:12,17,21; 10:4.

31:4,5 37:35,36 (in the past); Zech 14:2-4 (in the future).

"Like birds" – compare Matt 23:37.

"Passing overhead" – similar words were used concerning Israel in Egypt (Ex 12:13,23).

- so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight for Mount Zion, and for its hill.
- 5 Like birds flying, so the LORD of hosts will defend Jerusalem,
and defending it will also deliver it,
and passing overhead will preserve it.
- 6 "Turn to the One from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. 7 For in that day every man will throw away his silver idols and his gold idols which your own hands have made for yourselves, as a sin.
- 8 "Then the Assyrian will fall by a sword
not of man,
and a sword not of mortal man will devour him;
but he will flee from the sword,
and his young men will become forced labourers.
- 9 And from fear he will cross over to his stronghold,
and his princes will be afraid of the banner," says the LORD,
whose fire is in Zion,
and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

32 See, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule with justice.

2 And a man will be like a hiding place from the wind,
and a shelter from the storm,
like rivers of water in a dry place,

- like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.
- 3 And the eyes of those who see will not be dim,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.
- 4 And the heart of the rash will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.
- 5 The fool will no longer be called noble,
or the villain said to be generous.
- 6 For the fool speaks foolishness, and his heart is at work on evil to practice ungodliness,
and to speak error against the LORD,
to keep the hungry unsatisfied,
and to withhold water from the thirsty.
- 7 The villain's methods also are evil.
He devises wicked schemes to destroy the poor with lying words,
even when the needy speaks what is right.
- 8 But the noble man devises noble things,
and by noble things he will stand.
- 9 Rise up, you women who are at ease!
Hear my voice, you careless daughters.
Give ear to my words.
- 10 You will be troubled many days and years,
you careless women;
for the grape harvest will fail,
the gathering will not come at.
- 11 Tremble, you women who are at ease!

31:6 "Turn" – Jer 3:12,14; Ezek 33:11; Hos 14:1,2.
"Revolted" – 1:2,5; etc.

31:7 See 2:20; 30:22. This did not happen when God saved Jerusalem from the Assyrian army. So this event must refer to some time after that.
"In that day" – see 2:11; 24:1; etc.

31:8 See 37:36. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.

31:9 "Stronghold" – their great city Nineveh was destroyed in 612 BC, about a hundred years after this prophecy.
"Furnace" – Jerusalem was the center of God's activities against the nations, the place from which His holy anger blazed forth.

32:1-5 Suddenly again Christ's kingdom on earth is in view (2:1-4; 4:2-6; 9:7; 11:1-16; 24:23).

32:2 "A man" – probably refers to the king of v 1 and very likely both words signify the only true God-man, Christ Jesus. The use of "man" here suggests His incarnation (7:14; 9:6,7; John 14:1,14).
"Shelter" – 25:4. Could any but Christ be shelter, refuge and shadow to His people? (Ps 2:12; 91:2; Heb 6:18). Or like streams of water? (John 4:13,14; 7:37,39).

32:3 See 29:18; 35:5,6. Compare 6:9,10.

32:4 In that day a great change will appear in people both in body and mind.

"Understand" – 11:9; 29:24; 41:20; 60:16; Jer 31:33,34.

32:5 In the Bible "fool" often refers to those who lack moral and spiritual sense, not necessarily to those who are unintelligent. Note at Ps 14:1; Prov 1:7. In those days many such "fools" and "villains" were highly regarded by others. Nor is it any different now. In Christ's coming kingdom this lack of discernment, this high regard for "fools" will vanish.

32:6 As good a description of the "fool" as any in the Bible. He speaks foolishly (see 29:15,16; Ps 14:1). He thinks foolishly. He acts foolishly, and is foolish also in what he does not do (compare Matt 25:31-33,41-46).

32:7 The scoundrel is even more foolish, if possible, than the fool. He vainly imagines he can behave as he does in God's world and escape God's judgment.

32:8 Just as the fool and scoundrel, the noble man is revealed by his plans and actions (Matt 7:16-20; etc).
"Stand" – Ps 15:5; 16:8; 55:22.

32:9 See 3:16-26.

32:10 This probably refers to the invasion of the armies of Assyria in 701 B.C. For a time they controlled the countryside around Jerusalem and took or destroyed what they wanted.

32:11-13 A warning that there would be

- Be troubled, you careless ones!
Strip yourselves, and make yourselves bare,
and tie sackcloth on your waists!
- 12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine!
- 13 On the land of my people thorns and
briars will come up;
yes, on all the happy homes in the city of joy.
- 14 Because the palaces will be forsaken,
the populous city abandoned.
The forts and towers will become permanent dens,
the delight of wild donkeys,
a pasture for flocks,
- 15 Until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field is counted as a forest.
- 16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness,
and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.
- 17 And the work of righteousness will be peace,
and the effect of righteousness
quietness and assurance forever.
- 18 And my people will live in a peaceful dwelling place, and in secure houses,
and in quiet resting places;
- 19 Though hail comes down on the forest,
and the city be laid completely low.
- 20 Blessed are you who sow beside all waters,
who send out freely the feet of the ox
and the donkey.
- 33 Woe to you who plunder,
though you were not plundered,
and who deal treacherously,
though they did not deal
treacherously with you!
- When you stop plundering,
you will be plundered,
and when you finish dealing treacherously,
they will deal treacherously with you.
- 2 O LORD, be gracious to us.
We have waited for you.
Be their arm every morning,
and our salvation in the time of trouble.
- 3 At the noise of the tumult the people flee.
When you rise up the nations scatter.
- 4 And your plunder will be gathered like caterpillars gather;
men will rush onto it like locusts rushing about.
- 5 The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high.
He has filled Zion with justice and
righteousness.
- 6 And wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times,
and the strength of salvation;
the fear of the LORD is his treasure.
- 7 See, their valiant ones will cry outside;
the ambassadors of peace will weep bitterly.
- 8 The highways are deserted, men have stopped travelling.
He has broken the covenant;
he has despised the cities,
he regards no man.
- 9 The earth mourns and languishes.
Lebanon is ashamed and withers.
Sharon is like a wilderness,
and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.
- 10 "Now I will rise", says the LORD,

great cause for mourning and weeping.
32:13 "City of joy" – 5:11,12,22; 22:12,13.
32:14-20 This seems to look far beyond anything that happened at the time of the Assyrian invasion. None of the events described here occurred then.
32:14 The Assyrian invasion was a warning of what would one day happen.
32:15 "The Spirit" – 44:3; Ezek 37:9-14; Joel 2:28-32.
32:16 Verse 1; 9:7; 11:4.
32:17 Ps 85:10; 119:165; Rom 5:1; etc. Peace on earth, peace of mind, and in the heart quietness and confidence toward God – these things do not, and cannot, result from man's schemes and efforts.
32:18 Hardly true of Israel from that day to this. But it will be fulfilled eventually (vs 1,2).
32:19,20 Compare Ps 46:1-30.
"City" – 24:10,12; 25:2; 26:5.
"Blessed" – notes at Ps 1:1-3; 119:1.
Here prosperity, security and enjoyment are in view. "Sow" – Ps 126:5,6.
33:1 This verse probably refers to Assyria (10:5-7). But the words of this verse would be suitable for many other treacherous, destroying powers (see 21:1,2; 24:16,17; Dan 8:23-25).

"They will deal treacherously with you" – another example of reaping what is sown (see Jer 30:16; etc).
33:2 A general prayer suitable for the people then, or for any now facing troubles and distress.
"Arm" – God Himself is the strength of His people (Ps 18:1; 19:14; 27:1).
"Salvation" – God Himself is the salvation of His people 12:2; Ex 15:2; Ps 35:3; 62:2).
33:3,4 See 30:30,31; Num 10:35; Ps 46:6; 68:1,32,33.
"Nations" – more than the Assyrians seem in view here.
33:5 "Righteousness" – 1:21; 32:1,16.
33:6 Observe here what God considers riches – the fear of the Lord. See notes at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:1-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.
33:7-9 Describes conditions during an enemy invasion, possibly the one by the Assyrians, possibly the Babylonian one.
33:10-14 God rises in judgment against the

- "Now I will be exalted.
Now I will lift up myself.
11 You will conceive chaff,
you will give birth to straw.
Your breath will devour you like fire.
12 And the people will be burned to lime.
They will be burned in fire like thorns cut up.
13 You who are far off, hear what I have done;
and you who are near, acknowledge my might."
14 The sinners in Zion are afraid.
Fear has gripped the ungodly.
Who among us can dwell with the devouring fire?
Who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings?
15 He who conducts himself righteously and speaks uprightly,
he who despises the gain of extortion,
who shakes out his hands,
refusing to take bribes,
who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed,
and shuts his eyes from seeing evil,
16 He will dwell on high.
His place of defense will be the fortress of the rocks.
Food will be given him.
His water will be sure.
17 Your eyes will see the King in his beauty;

- they will see the land of far distances.
18 Your heart will ponder on the former terror:
"Where is the scribe?
Where is the receiver?
Where is the one who counted the towers?"
19 You will not see a fierce people,
a people of obscure speech,
unintelligible,
of a stammering tongue that you can not understand.
20 Look at Zion,
the city of our festivals.
Your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a quiet habitation,
a tent that will not be taken down.
Not one of its stakes will ever be removed,
nor will any of its ropes be broken.
21 But there the majestic LORD will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams,
in which no galley with oars will move,
no mighty ship will pass.
22 For the LORD is our judge;
the LORD is our lawgiver;
the LORD is our King. He will save us.
23 Your rigging is loosened;
they could not strengthen their mast,
they could not spread the sail.
Then the prey of great plunder is

"sinners in Zion." In the Assyrian invasion Jerusalem was saved, so this probably refers to another time, possibly to the destruction of the city at the hands of the Babylonians. Or perhaps to the end of this age (Zech 14:2,3).

33:12 "Burned" – 1:31; 9:18,19; 30:27.
33:13 See 1:2; 34:1.

33:14 "Sinners" – 1:27,28; 3:8-11; 5:18,19.

"Everlasting burnings" – those sinners seeing some of God's flaming judgments against themselves and probably hearing some of Isaiah's words (see v 12), say this. In the light of Heb 12:29 it is a question all may well ask.

33:15,16 This seems to be the answer to the questions of v 14. Only those who are righteous before God can dwell with the God of fiery holiness who hates all unrighteousness. Compare Ps 15:1-5; 24:3-6. God fits all true believers to dwell in His holy presence (Eph 1:3-6; 5:25-27; etc.).

33:17-24 Looks forward to the kingdom of Christ. Certainly it is practically impossible to see in the past the fulfillment of some of the expressions in this passage – for example, v 20. Jerusalem has rarely known peace from Isaiah's day to ours, and has been pulled down more than once. Verse 24 will not be fulfilled as long as conditions in this world continue as they have since Adam fell into sin.

33:17 "The king in his beauty" – what king could this be other than the great King from heaven seen in other places in Isaiah (6:5; 9:6,7; 11:1-9; 24:23; 32:1)?

"Land of far distances" – or it could be translated "the distant land" – 9:3; 14:2; 26:15; 54:2,3.

33:18,19 The leaders of the invading armies.

"Tongue" – 28:11.

33:20 "Not be taken down", etc – if we let this verse have its full meaning, we will not think these prophecies have already been fulfilled.

33:22 Here we see four things the Lord is to His people:

Judge – 2:4; 11:4; John 5:22,23; Acts 10:42

Lawgiver – 2:3; 51:4; Jam 4:12

King – v 17; 9:7; 24:23; 32:1

Saviour – 19:20; 25:9; 45:22.

33:23 "Your" – probably refers to enemy forces which are compared to a ship unable to conquer Jerusalem. In the previous verse Jerusalem's people expressed confidence that God would save them. He does so by defeating the enemy's "ship."

"Plunder" – verse 4; Ezek 39:9,10. When God defeats the enemy coming against Jerusalem, plunder will be so abundant and so easily obtained that even the divided; the lame take the prey.

24 And the inhabitant will not say,
"I am sick."

The people who live there will be forgiven their iniquity.

34 Come near, you nations, to hear;
and listen, you people.

Let the earth hear,
and all that is in it,
the world, and all things that come out of it.

2 For the anger of the LORD is upon all nations,
and his fury upon all their armies.

He has utterly destroyed them,
he has delivered them to the slaughter.

3 And their slain will be thrown out,
and their stench will rise from their corpses,
and the mountains will be drenched with their blood.

4 And all the starry host of heaven will be dissolved,
and the heavens will be rolled up like a scroll,
and all their host will fall,
as the leaf falls from the vine,
and as a falling fruit from the fig tree.

5 "For my sword will be drenched in the heavens.
See, it will come down on Edom for judgment, and on the people whom I have put under a curse."

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is covered with fat, and with the blood of lambs and goats,
with the fat of the kidneys of rams;
for the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

7 And the wild oxen will fall with them, and the young bulls with the strong bulls;
and their land will be soaked with blood,
and their dust saturated with fat.

8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of retribution for the cause of Zion.

9 And its streams will be turned into pitch,
and its dust into sulfur,
and its land will become burning pitch.

10 It will not be quenched night or day;
its smoke will go up forever.
From generation to generation it will lie waste.
No one will pass through it forever and ever.

11 But the cormorant and the bittern will possess it,
and the owl and the raven will dwell in it.
And he will stretch out over it the measuring line of chaos and the plumb line of emptiness.

12 They will call its nobles to the kingdom,
but no one will be there,
and all its princes will be nothing.

13 And thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and brambles in its fortresses,
and it will be a habitation of jackals,
and a home for owls.

14 And desert animals will meet with the hyenas,
and the wild goat will bleat to its companion.
The screech owl also will rest there,
and find for itself a place of rest.

15 There the great owl will make its nest,
and lay eggs, and hatch them,
and gather its young in its shadow.
There the vultures will also be gathered, each one with its mate.

16 "Search the book of the LORD, and read.
Not one of these will fail,
not one will lack its mate;
for my mouth has commanded it,
and his Spirit will gather them.

17 And he has cast the lot for them,

lame will be able to get a portion without difficulty.

33:24 "Sick" – this looks to the time of verses 17,20,21; 11:1-9; 65:20-25.

"Forgiven" – 43:25; 53:5,6; Jer 31:34; 33:8; Micah 7:18-20; Rom 11:26,27.

34:1 See 1:2; 33:13; Ps 49:1.

34:2 "All nations" – this looks beyond any invasion of Judah by Assyrians or Babylonians. The words of v 4 indicate the "Day of the LORD", the time of the outpouring of God's wrath on the whole world at the end of this age. Compare Matt 24:29,30; Rev 6:12-16. Note on day of the Lord at 26:20,21; 30:27-30; 66:14-16; etc.

"Fury" – Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

34:3 See 63:3-6; Ezek 38:22; 39:11,12;
Rev 14:17-20; 19:17-21.

34:4 See 13:10,13; Joel 2:31; Matt
24:29,30; Rev 6:12-14.

34:5 "Edom" – Jer 49:7-22; Ezek 25:12-14;

35:1-15; Amos 1:11,12; Obadiah. Here Edom is named as one of the "all nations" of v 2. Perhaps much of the slaughter of that future great battle will take place in the territory once known as Edom. See 63:1-6.
34:6 "Sword of the Lord" – Deut 32:41,42;
Jer 12:12; 47:6; Ezek 21:5.

"Bozrah" – a city in Edom (Idumea).

34:8 "Vengeance" – 1:24; 35:4; 47:3;
61:2; 63:4; Deut 32:3; Jer 51:56;
Rom 12:9; Rev 16:5,6; 19:2.

34:9-15 For similar descriptions about other places see 13:20-22; Jer 50:39,40; 51:37.
"Cormorant . . . bittern" – it is not clear what birds are indicated by the Hebrew words.

34:16 "Book" – the written record of the prophecies just given.

"These" – the animals and birds of vs 13-15.

34:17 There is no promise concerning the restoration of Edom as there is about Moab and his hand has divided it for them by a measuring line.

They will possess it forever,
from generation to generation they will dwell in it."

35 The wilderness and the dry lands will be glad for them, and the desert will rejoice and blossom
like the rose.

2 It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice with gladness and singing.

The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendour of Carmel and Sharon.

They will see the glory of the LORD,
and the splendour of our God.

3 Strengthen the weak hands,
and make the feeble knees firm.

4 Say to those who are of a fearful heart,
"Be strong. Do not fear.
See, your God will come with vengeance, and Ammon in the same general area (Jer 48:47; 49:6).

35:1-10 Compare this chapter with similar passages in Isaiah such as 11:6-9; 32:15,16; 49:8-11; 51:3. There is a strong difference of opinion about how this chapter should be interpreted. Some think it is a description of spiritual conditions in the land of Judah after the Babylonian exile. Some think it describes New Testament times.
Some think it describes this whole age of grace. Some think it refers to the immediate aftermath of Christ's second coming, the beginning of a thousand-year reign on earth. Some think it refers to conditions in the new heaven and earth. Some seem sure that this chapter has nothing to do with the literal land and people of Israel. Others are convinced it has to do with them alone.

The author of these notes believes that this chapter describes events after the second coming of Christ, probably refers to the Millennium, and that Israel is concerned in it. This belief is based on the evidence available. I also believe that some of the figurative expressions here may suggest, to some extent, what happens anytime in any era, in human hearts when Christ does
His work of salvation in them.

I believe also that, though it is important to interpret prophecy correctly, it is more important to live holy lives of love to God and man (1 Cor 13:2), and that it does not make us better people if we choose to believe a particular one of the above interpretations, or worse people if we reject it and believe another one. While trying to understand the meaning of the prophet's words about the future let us try to learn also spiritual, practical lessons that will help us in the present to live as God wants us to live.

35:1 "Wilderness", "desert" – the language of this chapter seems to indicate the land

God with retribution.

He will come and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.

6 Then the lame man will leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the dumb will sing;
for water will gush out in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert.

7 And the parched ground will become a pool,
and the thirsty land springs of water.

In the habitat of jackals, where each lay,
there will be grass with reeds and rushes.

8 And a highway will be there, and a road,
and it will be called The Way of Holiness.

The unclean will not pass over it;
but it will be for those who travel on it.

Fools will not wander onto it.

9 No lion will be there, nor will any ravenous beast go up on it;
it will not be found there.

But the redeemed will walk there, of Israel. What will happen there is in complete contrast to what will happen in Edom as seen in the preceding chapter.

"Blossom" – 27:6; 51:3.

35:2 "Glory", "splendour" – 4:5; 6:3; 59:19
(to be seen when v 1 is fulfilled).

35:3,4 Heb 12:12 – the meaning is, endure what must be endured, be strong and courageous in times of trouble and danger.
"God will come" – could refer to the coming of Christ, the incarnation of God.

"Vengeance" – notes at Num 31:2; Ps 94:1. If the coming of Christ is meant it must be His second coming, not His first.
At His first coming He came to save men's lives, not destroy them, and He took vengeance on no one. At His second coming
He will take vengeance (2 Thess 1:5-10).

35:5 "Eyes", "ears" – 29:18; 32:3; 33:24;
42:7.

35:6,7 "Tongue" – 32:4.

"Streams" – 30:25; 41:18; 43:19.

35:8 "Highway" – 11:16; 19:23; 40:3; 49:11; 57:14; 62:10.

"There" – the land of Judah.

"Way of Holiness" – this "highway" will be only for the holy, only for the redeemed (v 9). This seems to indicate that the time spoken of is that time when the nation of Israel will be turned back to God and enter the narrow way that leads to life (Matt 7:14; Rom 11:26,27). The people will be holy and walk in holiness. See 4:3; 62:12; Zech 14:20,21. This is in great contrast to Israel's spiritual condition in the days Isaiah wrote this (1:2-4), and the present condition of that people.

"Fools will not wander onto it" – only the foolishness of wickedness will keep anyone from that way, not lack of intelligence. This phrase could also be translated "the foolish will not go astray on it."

35:9 "Beast" – 11:6-9; 65:25.

10 And the ransomed of the LORD will return,
and come to Zion with songs,
and everlasting joy on their heads.
They will obtain joy and gladness,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

36 Now it happened in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. 2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool by the highway to the Fuller's Field. 3 Then Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder, came out to him.

4 And Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What is this hope you are trusting in? 5 I say that you speak of having counsel and strength for war, but they are only empty words. Now in whom are you trusting, that you rebel against me? 6 Look, you are trusting in the staff of that broken reed, on Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand, and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. 7 But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God', is he not the one whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar?' 8 Now therefore I urge you to give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you be able on your part to put riders on them! 9 How then can you turn away the face of one of the least of the captains of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? 10 And have I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'"

11 Then Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in the Syrian language, for we understand it, and do not speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

12 But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own urine with you?"

13 Then Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, "Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. 14 Thus says the king, Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you. 15 And do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, 'The LORD will surely rescue us. This city will not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria.'

16 "Do not listen to Hezekiah. For thus says the king of Assyria, Make peace with me by a present, and come out to me, and every one of you eat from his vine, and each from his fig tree, and everyone drink the water from his own cistern, 17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 "Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, 'The LORD will deliver us.' Has any of the gods of the nations rescued his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And have they rescued Samaria from my hand? 20 Among all the gods of these lands, which are those who have rescued their land from my hand, that the LORD should rescue Jerusalem from my hand?"

21 But they kept silent and did not answer him a word, for the king's command said "Do not answer him."

22 Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37 And it came about, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. 2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders among the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. 3 And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy; for the children have come to the point of birth, and there is not strength to deliver them. 4 It may be the LORD your God will hear the words of 35:10 "Will flee away" – it is always and ever true that the way to joy and singing in God's presence is the way of holiness and redemption (25:8; Ps 126:1-3; Rev 7:17; 14:1-5; 21:4).

36:1 Chapters 36-39 are about the invasion of Judah by the armies of Assyria in the days of King Hezekiah. Except for 38:9-20 all of this material is found in 2 Kings chapters 18-20, usually in the very same words Isaiah used. See notes there on these important historical events. The growing power of Assyria, its invasion of Judah and its destruction are themes often seen in Isaiah (7:17,18; 8:4-8; 10:5-12; 14:24,25; 30:31; 31:8). Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.

36:2-22 2 Kings 18:17-37.

37:1-38 Notes at 2 Kings 19:1-37.

Rabshakeh, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to insult the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left."

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. 6 And Isaiah said to them, "You must say this to your master: Thus says the LORD, 'Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. 7 See, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear a rumour and return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

8 So Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard someone say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to make war with you." And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10 "You must tell Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Do not let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.'" 11 Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, completely destroying them. And will you be rescued? 12 Have the gods of the nations rescued those which my fathers have destroyed, like Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?"

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it. And Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it out before the LORD. 15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying, 16 "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubim, you are God of all the kingdoms of the earth, you alone. You have made heaven and earth. 17 Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear. Open your eyes, O LORD, and see. And hear all the words of Sennacherib, who has sent messengers to insult the living God.

18 "It is a truth, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, 19 and have thrown their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them. 20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are the LORD, you only."

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, 22 this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

The virgin daughter of Zion despises you, and laughs you to scorn.

The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.

23 Whom have you insulted and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice, and raised your eyes on high?

Against the Holy One of Israel.

24 Through your servants you have insulted the Lord, and have said, 'By my many chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and I will cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir trees.

And I will enter the height of its border, and the forest of its Carmel.

25 I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I have dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.'

26 "Have you not heard?

Long ago I made it.

From ancient times, I formed this plan.

Now I have brought it to pass, that you should be for causing the crash of fortified cities into heaps of ruins.

27 Therefore their inhabitants had little power.

They were dismayed and put to shame.

They were like the grass of the field and the green plant, like the grass on housetops and vegetation scorched before it has grown up.

28 But I know your dwelling place, and your going out,

and your coming in,

and your rage against me.

29 Because your rage against me and your uproar have come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose,

and my bridle in your lips,

and I will turn you back the way by which you came.

30 "And this will be a sign to you, Hezekiah:

You will eat this year what grows by itself;

and the second year what springs up from it;

and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

31 And the remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward,

and bear fruit upward.

32 For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out,
and those who escape from mount Zion.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

33 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

He will not come into this city,
nor shoot an arrow there,
nor come before it with shields,
nor cast up a siege mound against it.

34 He will return by the way that he came,
and will not come into this city,
says the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it for my own sake,
and for the sake of my servant David."

36 Then the angel of the LORD went out, and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. And when people arose early in the morning, see, there were all the dead bodies. 37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria withdrew and went away. And he returned and lived at Nineveh. 38 And it so happened that as he was worshipping in the house of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And his son Esarhaddon reigned in his place.

38 In those days Hezekiah was sick to the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said to him,
"Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live."

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, 3 and said, "Remember now, O LORD, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done what is good in your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

38:1-8 Notes at 2 Kings 20:1-11.

38:9 The only writing we have of good King Hezekiah. It is similar to some of the psalms. The psalms were known to Hezekiah (2 Chron 29:30). He may have begun this writing while he was ill and completed it after his recovery.

38:10 At the time of his illness Hezekiah was only 39 years old. He may have compared this brief span of life with the usual span mentioned in Ps 90:10.

"Grave" (also v 18) – in Hebrew "Sheol"
– note at Gen 37:35.

38:11 He believed he was going to die and had no hope of recovery.

38:12 "Tent" – compare 2 Cor 5:1,4.

"Loom" – he regards his life as a cloth or garment made by a weaver, the weaver being himself. He thinks God is cutting him

4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying, 5 "Go and tell Hezekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of your father David: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. Now I will add fifteen years to your days. 6 And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. 7 And this will be a sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has spoken: 8 See, I will bring back the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward." So the sun went back ten degrees that it had gone down on the sundial.

9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he became sick and recovered from his sickness:

10 "I said, In the prime of my life
I will go to the gates of the grave;
I am deprived of the remainder of my years.

11 I said, I will not see the LORD,
the LORD in the land of the living.
I will no longer see man among the inhabitants of the world.

12 My dwelling is gone, removed from me
like a shepherd's tent.
I have rolled up my life like a weaver.
He will cut me off from the loom.
From day to night you make an end of me.

13 I considered this until morning.
Like a lion, he will break all my bones.
From day to night you make an end of me.

14 I chatter like a crane or a swallow;
I mourn like a dove.
My eyes fail from looking upward.
O LORD, I am oppressed.

Undertake for me.
15 What will I say?
He has both spoken to me, and he himself has done it.

I will walk carefully all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

from the loom before he has had a full span of years to finish the work.

"Day to night" – may mean very suddenly, in the space of a single day.

38:13 "Lion" – compare Job 10:16; Lam
3:10,11; Hos 13:7.

"Bones" – Job 16:12; Ps 6:2; 32:3; 51:8; Lam 3:4.

38:14,15 All he can do is make mournful sounds, look upward and cry to God. But this was enough. God heard him. God saw his tears. God answered him (v 5). See
Ex 2:23,24; Ps 34:4,6,18; 103:13,14;
147:3. His mourning is turned to praise
(v 15). He wonders how he can best express his great gratitude to God.

"Carefully" – or softly, quietly or humbly.
He resolved not to be as he was before this experience. Yet see 2 Chron 32:24-26.

- 16 O Lord, by these things men live,
and in all these things is the life of my spirit.
So you restore me, and cause me to live.
- 17 See, for peace I had great bitterness;
but in love for my soul you have delivered it from the pit of corruption, for you have cast all my sins behind your back.
- 18 For the grave cannot thank you,
death cannot praise you.
Those who go down into the pit cannot hope for your truth.
- 19 The living, the living praise you,
as I do this day.
The father will make known your truth
to the children.
- 20 The LORD was willing to save me.
Therefore we will sing my songs for stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.”
- 21 For Isaiah had said, “Let them take a lump of figs and apply it as a poultice on the boil, and he will recover.”
- 22 And Hezekiah had said, “What is the sign that I will go up to the house of the LORD?”

39 At that time Merodach-Baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered. 2 And Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them his treasure house, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and the whole of his armory, and all that was found among his treasures. There was 38:16 Man’s life is entirely dependent on God’s will and merciful activity (Deut 32:39;

1 Sam 2:6; Job 12:10; Dan 5:23; Acts
17:28). And so Ps 103:1-5.

38:17 “Pit” – Ps 28:1; 30:3; 40:2; 55:23; 69:15; 86:13; Prov 1:12. Here probably means the grave or the unseen realm of the dead.

“Back” – Hezekiah was aware of his sins, probably thought his disease and near death were a punishment for them. But he came to know that God had put them out of His sight. Compare 43:25; Ps 103:12; Mic
7:18-19; 1 John 1:9.

38:18,19 Ps 6:5; 30:9; 88:10,11;
115:17,18. In Hezekiah’s time little was known about the state of men after death.

“To the children” – Deut 6:7; 11:18,19;
Ps 78:2-4; 145:4; Jer 32:19.

38:20 Ps 33:1-3; 51:14,15; 63:3,4;
116:12-14.

38:21,22 Note at 2 Kings 20:7,8.

39:1-8 Note at 2 Kings 20:12-19.

39:8 This concludes the first part of Isaiah.
Chapters 1-35 were spoken and written before the Assyrian invasion of Judah, and much of what is in those chapters was written with that event in view. Chapters 36

nothing in his house or in his whole realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and said to him, “What did these men say? And where did they come from to you?”

And Hezekiah said, “They came to me from a far country, from Babylon.”

4 Then he said, “What did they see in your house?”

And Hezekiah answered, “They saw everything that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them.”

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: 6 ‘See, the days are coming when all that is in your house and what your fathers stored up until this day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD.
7 And they will take away some of your sons who will issue from you, whom you will beget, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’”

8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” He also said, “For there will be peace and truth in my days.”

40 “Comfort, comfort my people”, says your God.

- 2 “Speak compassionately to Jerusalem and cry out to her,
that her warfare is ended,
that her wickedness is pardoned;
for she has received from the LORD’s hand double for all her sins.”

and 37 record the crushing defeat suffered by the Assyrians at Jerusalem. In chapter 39 a new threat appears – the invasion of Judah by the Babylonians. They would not fail as the Assyrians had, but would capture Jerusalem and take the people into exile.
Chapters 40-66 were written with that in view.
Isaiah prophesies of the fall of Babylon, of the return of the people from there, and of the future glory of Jerusalem. And he brings before us very clearly the one on whom the eternal salvation of Jews and other peoples depends – the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ.

40:1,2 In 12:1-3 there is a picture of comfort received “in that day”, after the appearance of the “Branch” (the Messiah – 11:1) to reign. The picture here is similar.
The reason there and here for comfort is salvation experienced and God’s anger turned away. True comfort from God is connected with forgiveness, and the experience of His presence. Jerusalem – the literal city, the capital of Israel, here represents that nation. For the eventual restoration of Jerusalem see also 1:26; 2:1-4; etc.

“Double” – Jerusalem’s troubles and punishments are often set before us in

- 3 The voice of one who cries out in the wilderness:
 "Prepare the way of the LORD;
 make straight in the desert a highway
 for our God.
- 4 Every valley will be exalted,
 and every mountain and hill will be made low,
 and the crooked places will be made straight,
 and the rough places a plain;
- 5 And the glory of the LORD will be revealed,
 and all flesh will see it together;
 for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."
- 6 The voice said, "Cry out!"
 And he said, "What shall I cry out?"
 "All flesh is grass, and all its beauty is like the flower of the field.
- 7 The grass withers, the flower fades,

- because the Spirit of the LORD blows on it.
 Surely the people are grass.
- 8 The grass withers, the flower fades,
 but the word of our God will stand forever."
- 9 O Zion, you who bring good tidings, go up onto the high mountain!
 O Jerusalem, you who bring good tidings,
 lift up your voice with strength!
 Lift it up; do not be afraid.
 Say to the cities of Judah,
 "See your God!"
- 10 See, the Lord God will come with strong hand,
 and his arm will rule for him.
 See, his reward is with him,
 and his wage accompanies him.
- 11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd.
 He will gather the lambs with his arm,

Isaiah. See 3:1-26; 5:3-6,25-30; 7:18-25; 8:5-8; 22:1-13; 29:1-4. No city in the world has experienced the repeated disasters, troubles, and destruction that Jerusalem has. There was more to come when Isaiah wrote. And there is still more to come at the end of this age – Zech 12:2,3; 14:2; Matt 24:15-22. But the day is coming when its troubles will be over. 40:3 "The voice of one who cries out in the wilderness: Prepare" – or it could be translated "The voice of one who cries out: 'in the wilderness prepare.'" This depends on where we put the punctuation (in Hebrew there were no punctuation marks). This voice is the first of three mentioned in this chapter (vs 3,6,9). This one is the voice of John the Baptist (Matt 3:3; Mark 1:3; Luke 3:4; John 1:23) who came 700 years after Isaiah wrote. John announced the one through whom alone true and lasting comfort could come to Jerusalem, or to us (Mark 1:7,8; John 1:29). Observe that when John prepared the way for the Lord Jesus he was preparing the way for God Himself.

"Prepare" – it was common in that day (as it is in our day in many countries) to repair the highway when a ruler visited a city. John was preparing the way for the King from heaven.

40:4 See 26:7; 49:11. The meaning seems to be that all hindrances to the coming of the King should be removed, and full preparation made for welcoming Him.

"Crooked" – or "rugged."

"Straight" – or "smooth."

40:5 The glory of the LORD was seen by some people in some measure in the Old Testament (Ex 33:18-23; 40:34; Deut 5:24). Here there is promise of a further revelation of God's glory, and all people will see it. To some extent this was fulfilled at Christ's first coming (John 1:1,14; 11:40; 2 Cor 4:6; Heb 1:3). There will be a further display of God's glory in Christ at His second coming (Matt 16:27; 24:30; 25:31; Rev 1:7). Then indeed every eye will see it.

Verse 3 looks forward to Christ's first coming. This verse looks to the end of this age for its complete fulfillment.

40:6-8 "Cry out" – cause men to know the truth which follows. There is a contrast in these verses with both the preceding and following verses. God's great glory is mentioned in v 5. Man's glory is a frail, temporary thing, hardly worthy of the name of glory. And man is weak and withering as grass, totally incapable of bringing salvation and comfort to Jerusalem (or to anyone). So God must come to do what man cannot.

"Grass" – 37:27; 51:12; Jam 1:10; 1 Pet 1:24,25.

40:7 "Blows" – Ps 103:15,16.

40:8 "Withers. . .fades" – the whole of mankind's history and all its pride, pomp, and glory are in these words. But as generations come and go there is something that never will pass away – God's Word (Ps 119:89; Matt 5:18; 24:35; Luke 16:17; 1 Pet 1:25). The truth of the Bible is the only permanent thing in all the world for a person to hold on to.

40:9-11 "Good tidings" – in the context this good news includes verses 2,5,8 and the verses of this section (9-11).

40:9 "Mountain" – this is a symbolic way of saying that God wants all the land to hear. Voices could be better heard from the tops of hills.

"Do not be afraid" – do not hesitate because of the fear of man, or the grandness and solemnity of the message.

"See your God" – 25:9. Compare the question of Ps 42:3,10. The coming of Christ means the coming of God.

40:10 These words indicate that the manifestation of God in v 9 is at the second coming of Christ (62:11; Matt 16:27; 25:19-21,31-34; Rev 22:12).

40:11 "Shepherd" – true of God's people in every age, at all times (Gen 48:15; Ps 23:1; 28:9; 78:52; 80:1; Jer 31:10; Ezek 34:12-16,23,31; John 10:11-16).

- and carry them in his bosom,
and will gently lead those who have young.
- 12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand,
and marked off the heavens with the span,
and calculated the dust of the earth
in a measuring basket,
and weighed the mountains in scales,
and the hills in a balance?
- 13 Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,
or as his counsellor has taught him?
- 14 With whom did he take counsel,
and who instructed him,
and taught him in the path of judgment,
and taught him knowledge,
and showed him the way of understanding?
- 15 Look, the nations are like a drop in a bucket,
and are regarded like fine dust on the balance.
See, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing.
- 16 And Lebanon is not sufficient for burning,
nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering.
- 17 All nations before him are as nothing, and they are regarded by him as less than nothing, and emptiness.
- 18 To whom then will you liken God?
Or with what likeness will you compare him?
- 19 As for an idol, the craftsman puts it in a mold,
and the goldsmith overlays it with gold,
and molds silver chains.
- 20 He who is too poor for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot.
He seeks for himself a skillful craftsman to prepare a carved image that will not totter.
- 21 Have you not known? Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
- 22 He it is who sits above the circle of the earth,
and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers.
He stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.
- 23 He brings the princes to nothing.
He makes the judges of the earth worthless.
- 24 Even as they are planted,
even as they are sown,
even as their stock takes root in the ground,
he merely blows on them, and they wither,
and the whirlwind takes them away
like stubble.
- 25 "To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal?"
says the Holy One.
- 26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these things,
who brings out their starry host by number.
He calls them all by name, by the greatness of his might.

"Arm", "bosom" – indicates their weakness, His tenderness and love. How dear believers are to Him! The context here suggests that this will be true of the nation Israel at the second coming of Christ.

40:12-31 A description of the greatness of the God whose coming is seen in verses 3,9 and 10. It is exceedingly important for us to know the one true God and to have right views of His character and attributes, His power and glory. This chapter is of great value when used for this purpose.

40:12 Job 28:25,26; 38:3-5,8-11,18; Prov 30:4.

40:13 Rom 11:34-36; 1 Cor 2:16.

40:14 Job 12:13; 21:22; 36:22; Col 2:3; Isa 55:9.

40:15 See 2:22; Ps 62:9. As a tiny speck of dust is to a giant, as an atom is to a scientist, so is the whole physical earth to God. It is so light in God's hand that it seems to have no weight at all.

40:16 Lebanon had large forests of cedar trees. If one made a fire of them all and placed all its animals together on the fire as a sacrifice to God it would not show God's worth or greatness. Compare 1 Kings 8:27; Ps 50:8-15; Acts 17:24,25.

40:17 God has no difficulty whatever in controlling nations, peoples and events. For there is nothing on earth that has the power to overturn His plans. All through Isaiah we see God using the nations for His purpose, and destroying them according to His plans, as if they had no strength or size at all – vs 23,24.

40:18-20 In the light of this supreme greatness of God we see the folly of trying to make an image to represent Him. God has His own image to represent Him – see 2 Cor 4:4; Heb 1:3.

40:21 Verse 28; Ps 19:1; Acts 14:15-17; Rom 1:18-23.

40:22 "Circle" – Job 22:14; Prov 8:27. "Stretches out" – 42:5; 44:24; 51:13; Ps 104:2.

40:23,24 Verse 6-8,17; 34:12; 41:2; 43:13; Prov 21:1; Dan 4:35.

40:25 Verse 18.

40:26 God wants men to look thoughtfully at His creation and let it speak to them. This could change their whole outlook on life and start them on the road to God. Ps 19:1-4. God is saying to all of us, Look at the stars! Think!

"By number" – scientists estimate that there are at least 10,000 crores (100 billions) of stars in our own galaxy, though only a very few thousands are visible to the naked eye. And there are a great many crores of galaxies. God made them all, knows them all, sustains them all.

- Because he is strong in power not one fails.
- 27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the LORD, and my just claim is passed over by my God?"
- 28 Have you not known, have you not heard that the everlasting God, the LORD,
the Creator of the ends of the earth,
neither grows faint nor becomes weary?
There is no searching of his understanding.
- 29 He gives power to the faint, and he increases the strength of those who have no might.
- 30 Even the youths will grow faint and
be weary,
and the young men will utterly fall,
- 31 But those who wait on the LORD will renew their strength.
They will rise up with wings like eagles.
They will run and not be weary,
and they will walk and not faint.
- 41 "Keep silence before me, O coastlands,
and let the people renew their strength.
Let them come near, then let them speak.
Let us come near together for judgment.
- 2 Who raised up one from the east,
and in righteousness called him to his feet?
Who gave the nations to him,
and made him rule over kings?
He made them like dust with his sword,
and like driven stubble with his bow.
- 3 He pursued them and moved on safely by a way that he had not gone with his feet.
- 4 Who has done this and accomplished it,
calling the generations from the beginning?
I, the LORD, the first and with the last. I am he.
- 5 The coastlands saw it, and feared;
the ends of the earth were afraid,
drew near and arrived.
- 6 Each of them helped his neighbour;
and each one said to his brother,
"Be courageous!"
- 7 So the craftsman encouraged the goldsmith, and he who smooths with the hammer urges on him who struck the anvil, saying, 'It is ready for soldering.'
And he fastened it with nails,
so that it would not totter.
- 8 "But you, Israel, are my servant,

40:27 This verse brings us back to the condition of the Jews in Isaiah's time. Some thought they could do as they pleased without God taking notice (29:15), others were skeptical and unbelieving about God's concern for them (49:14).

40:28 "The LORD [Jehovah]" – if no one else knew this the Jews should have. Jehovah, the God of Israel, is the only God that exists (43:10; 44:8; 45:5; Ps 18:31). "Weary" – He who is capable of what is described in v 26 will not be worn out in accomplishing His work in the earth and in His people.

"No searching of his understanding" – 55:8,9; Ps 147:5; Rom 11:33.

40:29 "Strength" – Ex 15:2; Ps 18:1,32-36; 68:35; 73:26; 119:28; 2 Cor 12:9,10; Eph 1:18,19; 3:16.

40:30 The young also come under the description of verses 6-8. Also of Gen 8:21. And in spiritual matters youth will not have strength for the long race, the hard battle of life, unless they find it in God.

40:31 For a holy walk in a fallen world, for strength to finish our earthly course with joy, for ability to serve God acceptably, we need a strength not our own. We must learn to exchange our poor and frail strength for the strength God gives (v 28,29). See in Eph 1:18-21 what great strength is available to believers in Christ). This can be done only by looking to Him in faith. We must learn to trust God to do for us and in us what we cannot do for and in ourselves. Another word to the weary, young or old, is Matt 11:28-30.

41:1 Jehovah speaks here. The meaning seems to be, let other peoples, wherever they are with their many idols, many gods, consider what God says in chapter 40; let them get their strength as they can and come and dispute with God, if they will.

"Coastlands" – or "islands."

41:2 "East" – east of Israel. The person from the east is Cyrus, king of the Medes and Persians (v 25; 44:28; 45:1,13; 46:11). The above translation, though differing from the KJV here, seems better to express the meaning of the Hebrew.

"To his feet" – God can and does use the rulers of the earth for His righteous purpose, whether those rulers are righteous or not, or whether they are aware of it or not. God's purpose, according to this verse, was to make Cyrus the ruler of many nations. God used Cyrus also to send His people back to Israel from the Babylonian exile (Ezra 1:1-4; 6:3-5). The second phrase may also be translated "whom victory meets at every step."

41:3 In 546 BC Cyrus conquered all the lands from Persia to the west coast of present-day Turkey.

41:4 Behind the victories of Cyrus stood the one who controls events on earth.

41:5-7 At the approach of Cyrus and his armies the nations in his path would be greatly agitated. They would try to encourage one another. They would turn to their gods and idols for help. But all their efforts would come to nothing.

41:8 "My servant" – the nation of Israel is contrasted with all other nations. Individuals in

- Jacob whom I have chosen,
the offspring of my friend Abraham.
- 9 I have taken you from the ends of the earth,
and called you from its farthest parts,
and said to you, You are my servant.
I have chosen you,
and not rejected you.
- 10 Do not fear, for I am with you.
Do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you;
yes, I will help you;
yes, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
- 11 See, all those who raged against you will be put to shame and disgraced.
They will be as nothing;
and those who strive with you will perish.
- 12 You will seek those who fought with you,
and will not find them;
those who wage war against you will be as nothing,
and as a non-existent thing.
- 13 For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you,
Do not fear; I will help you.
- 14 Do not fear, you worm Jacob,
you men of Israel.
I will help you, says the LORD,
and your redeemer,
the Holy One of Israel.

- 15 See, I will make you a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth.
You will thresh the mountains,
and beat them small,
and will make the hills like chaff.
- 16 You will winnow them,
and the wind will carry them away,
and the whirlwind will scatter them;
and you will rejoice in the LORD,
and glory in the Holy One of Israel.
- 17 When the poor and needy seek water,
and there is none,
and their tongue fails for thirst,
I the LORD will hear them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
- 18 I will open rivers in high places,
and fountains in the middle of the valleys.
I will make the desert a pool of water,
and the dry land springs of water.
- 19 In the wilderness I will plant the cedar,
the acacia tree, and the myrtle,
and the olive tree.
In the desert I will set the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together,
- 20 That they may see, and know,
and consider, and understand together,
that the hand of the LORD has done this,
and the Holy One of Israel has created it.
- 21 Present your case, says the LORD.

other nations might be servants of God, but only one nation was God's servant, His chosen one (42:19; 43:10; 44:1,21; 45:4; Ps 135:4; 136:22; Deut 4:20; 7:7,8; 14:1,2).
"My friend Abraham" – 2 Chron 20:7; Jam 2:23.

41:9 "Not rejected you" – this would be a great comfort (40:1) to them when they would be exiled in Babylon (39:5-7) and when Cyrus was beginning his conquests.

41:10 "Do not fear" – this command was not given to the wicked and unbelieving in Israel, but to the true Israel in the midst of a rebellious nation (compare Rom 2:28,29; 9:6). God never tells the wicked and unbelieving not to fear. Believers are not to fear because they belong to God. In the not distant future the Babylonians would come and destroy Jerusalem and the temple and take the people into exile because of the sin of the nation. But God would be with them to preserve them. Of course, there is truth here that all who trust God may apply to themselves.

"With you" – 43:2; Josh 1:9; Ps 27:1; 56:4; Matt 1:23; Rom 8:31; Heb 13:5,6.
"Strengthen you" – 40:29-31.

41:11,12 No people, no nation will be able to destroy Israel. All who try will be destroyed themselves (17:14; 29:5-8; 60:12; etc.). Compare Matt 16:18.

41:13 Verse 10.

41:14 "Worm" – God did not chose that people because they were beautiful and strong and noble and worthy. They were the opposite of all those things, as indeed we all are.

"Redeemer" – notes at Ps 78:35; Matt 20:28.

41:15,16 See what God can do with a "worm." This is more than God merely protecting His people. In His hand (vs 10,13) they will become a powerful instrument to crush their enemies. This is an example of the weak finding their strength in God (40:31). And Israel will acknowledge this and glory in God, not in themselves. As for the time of fulfillment compare 11:12-14; 14:2; 49:23. As far as the record shows, this has not been fulfilled up to the present.

41:17,18 See 30:19; 35:7; 43:20; 44:3; Ps 42:1,2; John 7:37-39.

41:19 See 32:15,16; 35:1,2; 51:3; 55:13. God literally transforms good land to deserts and deserts to good land (Ps 107:33-35). And He may again do so in Judah. But sometimes in Scripture descriptions of physical changes suggest spiritual changes also.

41:20 God's work in Israel (whether in the land or in the people or both) will instruct other peoples of the world.

41:21-23 These verses look back to v 1. The Lord says that if the nations think their

- Bring forth your strong arguments, says the King of Jacob.
- 22 Let them bring them forth,
and show us what will happen.
Let them tell what the former things were,
that we may consider them, and know their outcome,
or declare to us things to come.
- 23 Tell the things that are coming hereafter,
that we may know that you are gods.
Yes, do good or do evil, that we may be dismayed and see it together.
- 24 Look, you are nothing,
and your work is nothing.
He who chooses you chooses an abomination.
- 25 "I have raised up one from the north,
and he will come.
From the rising of the sun he will call on my name.
And he will come against princes as against mortar,
and as the potter tramples the clay.
- 26 Who has declared from the beginning,
that we may know?
And beforehand, that we may say,
He is righteous?
Certainly there is no one who tells;

idols are useful and can explain the past or predict the future let them come forward and prove it (see also 43:9). God knows they will be unable to do so. In 42:9 and 46:10 God says He does what idols cannot do. Here in vs 23,24 it seems God is speaking directly to the people's idols.

41:24 "Nothing" – v 29; 37:19; 1 Sam 12:21; Ps 115:3-8; Jer 10:5,8,14; 1 Cor 8:4.

"Abomination" – Jer 16:18; Ezek 7:20; Mal 2:11.

41:25 Verse 2. Cyrus was from the east of Israel, but conquered much territory to the north. It was the God of Israel who stirred him up to come, and the idols of the nations in his path could neither do such a thing, nor predict it, nor prevent it.

"Call on my name" – Cyrus used Jehovah's name (in Ezra 1:1-4) and prayed to Him, but he, at least at first, had no experiential knowledge of Him (45:4,5).

41:26,27 Who foretold the rise of Cyrus to power? None of the idols of the nations. Only the true God, the God of Israel.

"Good tidings" – Cyrus was the messenger of good tidings (Ezra 1:1-4).

41:28,29 "Them" – the idolaters of verses 21-23.

42:1-9 "Servant" (v 1) – He is the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. See also 49:1-7; 50:4-10; 52:13-15. In 41:8 the nation Israel is called God's servant. But Israel was a poor servant, weak, sinful, and rebellious, and could not fulfill God's plan for themselves and for the earth

- certainly there is no one who declares;
certainly there is no one who hears your words.
- 27 I was the first to say to Zion,
'Look, see them!'
And I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good tidings.
- 28 For I looked among them,
and there was no man,
and there was no counsellor who,
when I asked them, could answer a word.
- 29 See they are all worthless.
Their works are nothing.
Their cast metal images are wind and confusion.

- 42 "See my servant, whom I uphold;
my chosen one, in whom my soul delights.
I have put my Spirit on him.
He will bring justice to the Gentiles.
- 2 He will not shout or raise his voice or cause it to be heard in the street.
- 3 A bruised reed he will not break,
and a smouldering wick he will not put out.
He will faithfully bring forth justice.
- 4 He will not fail or be discouraged until he has established justice on the earth;
and the islands will wait for his law.

(vs 18-25). So God speaks of another servant who is of Israel and who would be strong, holy, and obedient, and who would completely fulfill God's plans. This servant is Christ. The Lord Jesus is called a servant in Acts 3:26; Rom 15:8. He said that He had come to serve, not to be served (Matt 20:28; Luke 22:27). Verses 1-4 are applied to Christ in Matt 12:18-21.

42:1 "Delights" – Matt 3:17.

"My Spirit" – 11:2; 61:1; Mark 1:9,10; John 1:32-34; 3:34.

"Justice" – 9:7; 11:4; 16:5; 32:1,16; 33:5.

"Gentiles" – non-Jewish peoples.

42:2 When He comes He will not fulfill God's purpose by noisy endeavor, but quietly and gently.

42:3 "Bruised reed" signifies weakness from some sort of blow or crushing. A smoldering wick speaks of a spark which could be fanned to a flame. The meaning is that the coming Messiah would deal mildly, compassionately with people in fulfilling God's purpose. Christ's way is not the way of hardness and violence. He came to save men not destroy them – John 10:10.

42:4 Nothing will turn Him from doing God's work and finishing it. This work has to do with the whole earth (v 1) and not with the one small nation of Israel. Establishing justice on earth indicates removal of injustice, a just and righteous kingdom that will take in the whole world (v 1; 11:3-5). This is something God's people long to see, have never seen, but will one day see.

- 5 Thus says God the LORD, he who created the heavens and stretched them out,
he who spread out the earth and what comes out of it,
he who gives breath to the people on it,
and spirit to those who walk on it:
- 6 I the LORD have called you in righteousness, and I will take your hand and keep you,
and give you as a covenant for the people,
as a light for the Gentiles,
- 7 To open blind eyes, to bring prisoners
out of prison,
and those who sit in darkness out of the dungeon.
- 8 I am the LORD.
That is my name, and I will not give my glory to another,
nor my praise to carved images.
- 9 "See, the former things have taken place,
and I declare new things.
Before they spring forth I tell you about them."
- 10 Sing to the LORD a new song,
and his praise from the end of the earth,
you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
the islands and their inhabitants.
- 11 Let the wilderness and its cities,
the villages where Kedar lives,

- raise their voice;
let the inhabitants of the rock sing,
let them shout from the top of the mountains.
- 12 Let them give glory to the LORD,
and declare his praise in the islands.
- 13 The LORD will go forth like a mighty man,
he will stir up his zeal like a warrior.
He will cry out, yes, roar a battle cry.
He will prevail against his enemies.
- 14 "I have kept silent for a long time.
I have been still and restrained myself.
Now I will cry out like a woman in childbirth;
I will both gasp and pant.
- 15 I will lay waste mountains and hills,
and dry up all their plants,
and I will make the rivers islands,
and dry up the pools.
- 16 And I will bring the blind by a way
they did not know.
I will lead them in paths they have not known.
I will make darkness light before them,
and crooked places straight.
These things I will do for them,
and not forsake them.
- 17 Those who trust in carved images will be turned back,
they will be put to great shame,
those who say to cast metal images,
'You are our gods.'

"Islands" – or "coastlands."
"Wait for his law" – 2:2-4.
42:5 Gen 1:1; 2:7; Ps 102:25; Isa 40:22; Acts 17:24.
42:6 "You" – the Messiah of vs 1-4.
"As a covenant" (49:8) – in other words, he will be one who makes a covenant, one who mediates between God and man on the basis of a covenant, one who embodies a covenant (Jer 31:31-34; Matt 26:27,28; 1 Tim 2:5; Heb 8:6; 9:15).
"Light" – 49:6; Luke 2:32; John 8:12.
42:7 29:18; 32:3; 35:5; 49:9; 61:1.
42:8 See 48:11. "The LORD" (Jehovah) – note at Ex 3:14,15. Fallen men continually refuse to give God the glory due to Him, and instead would put something else in God's place and praise it (compare Rom 1:22,23). And they may like to think that when praising idols or other gods that they are praising God. But the true God will have no part in it. He will not share anything with dumb idols. Men must choose either Him or them. They cannot have both (2:6-9; Ps 78:58,59; 106:36-41; Jer 7:9-11; 8:19; Ezek 5:11; 6:6; 14:7,8. Note also at 1 Kings 18:21).
42:9 God, who knows the future as well as He does the past has no difficulty declaring things to come (46:10). Much of what we have in Isaiah and the other prophets is just that (2 Pet 1:21). This is part of the glory

He will not share with idols (41:21-23).
42:10 "To the LORD" – not to idols who could never do anything like what we read of in vs 1-7.
"A new song" – indicates a new revelation of His character or a new truth or work or a new understanding (33:3; 40:3; Ps 96:1; 98:1; 144:9; 149:1; Rev 5:9; 14:3). Here all parts of the world are urged to sing because God's work through His servant in verses 1-7 will affect all of them (v 4).
42:11 "Kedar", "the rock [in Hebrew 'Sela']" – 21:16; 16:1. Places in Edom and Arabia.
42:13 "Warrior" – Ex 14:14; 15:3; Ps 18:34,35; 144:1; Eph 6:10-13.
"Enemies" – 66:14; Deut 32:40-41. All who oppose God. There are many such both in the unseen world of spirits and among men on earth.
42:14 God speaks in the language of men to convey something to men He could not otherwise convey. The picture is of anger suppressed for a long time until at last it painfully bursts forth (compare 63:3,4).
42:15 As punishment on His enemies (compare 24:1,4).
42:16 "Blind" – in v 9 God tells us who they are. He means the nation of Israel.
"Light" – 9:2.
"Not forsake them" – 41:9; 49:14-16; 54:8.
42:17 Ps 97:7; Jer 10:14-16.

- 18 Hear, you deaf; and look, you blind,
that you may see.
- 19 Who is blind, but my servant?
or deaf, as my messenger whom I sent?
Who is blind as he who is at peace,
and blind as the LORD's servant?
- 20 You see many things,
but you do not observe them;
his ears are open, but he does not hear."
- 21 The LORD was well pleased for his righteousness' sake to make the law great and honourable.
- 22 But this is a people robbed and plundered.
All of them are snared in holes,
and hidden in prisons.
They are for prey, and no one rescues them;
for plunder, and no one says, "Restore."
- 23 Who among you will give ear to this?
Who will hear and pay attention for the time to come?
- 24 Who gave Jacob as plunder,
and Israel to the robbers?
Was it not the LORD, the one against whom we have sinned?
For they would not walk in his ways,
nor were they obedient to his law.
- 25 Therefore he has poured on him the fury of his anger,
and the strength of battle;
and it has set him on fire all around,

but he did not understand;
and it burned him, yet he did not lay
it to heart.

- 43 But now thus says the LORD who created you, O Jacob,
and he who formed you, O Israel:
"Fear not, for I have redeemed you,
I have called you by your name;
you are mine.
- 2 When you pass through the waters,
I will be with you;
and through the rivers, they will not flow over you.
When you walk through the fire,
you will not be scorched,
nor will the flame burn you.
- 3 For I am the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour.
I gave Egypt as your ransom,
Ethiopia and Seba for you.
- 4 Since you were precious in my sight,
you have been honoured,
and I have loved you.
Therefore I will give men for you,
and people for your life.
- 5 Fear not, for I am with you.
I will bring your descendants from the east,
and gather you from the west.
- 6 I will say to the north, 'Give them up', and to the south, 'Do not restrain them.'

42:18,19 Israel was the blind servant (6:10; 29:9,10; 41:8,9; 43:8). The time will come when the nation will have its eyes opened (29:18; 35:5).

42:20 See 43:8; Jer 5:21; 6:10.

42:21 "Law" – the Hebrew word also means teaching or instruction (Ps 138:2; 2 Cor 3:7).

42:22 The Assyrians had taken the northern kingdom into exile, and plundered Judah (8:7,8; 10:5,6). The Babylonians later took Judah into captivity (39:5-7).

42:23 "Give ear to this" – not just the preceding verse, but all God's message to them in these chapters.

42:24 See 47:5,6; Jer 1:14-16.

42:25 See 5:25; 9:12,17,21; 51:17; 2 Kings 22:13.

"Did not understand" – 1:3-9; 6:10-12. If God chastises us for our sins let us try to understand what He is doing and why He is doing it (Lam 3:39,40).

43:1 This chapter states God's relationship to the people of Israel. He is their Creator (v 1), their Redeemer (v 1,14), their Saviour (v 3), their King (v 15), and Protector (v 2), one who loves them (v 4), and who will restore them (vs 5,6), and forgive them (v 25). Israel failed to do what they should have done (vs 22-24), and God had to punish them for it (v 28), but He would not fail (v 25). The people of Israel on their side of the relationship were to be witnesses (vs 10,12) and glorifiers of God (v 21). There is sweet truth in this chapter for all who trust the God of Israel as their God and Savior.

"Formed you" – the nation of Israel was a special creation of God for a special purpose (vs 7,21).

"Fear not" – note at 41:10.

"Redeemed you" – note at Ps 78:35.

43:2 This truth was sometimes fulfilled literally in the times of God's people (Ex 14:21,22; Josh 3:14-17; Dan 3:19-27), but was more often fulfilled in spiritual trials and rescue from spiritual dangers (Ps 66:10-12). If God is with us nothing can ever really harm us (though in our lack of understanding we may think some things do).

43:3,4 When love is deep and strong it is willing to give up any thing for the sake of the loved one. God's love is like that. We are not told in what sense He gave Egypt and the other nations and peoples for Israel. Some commentators have suggested that it was in allowing Persia to conquer them in return for that nation's kindness to Israel (Ezra 1:1-4).

43:5-7 "Fear not" – captivity and exile were certain (39:5-7), but release and return were equally certain (11:11,12; 27:12,13; 49:22; 56:8).

- Bring my sons from afar,
and my daughters from the ends of the earth, 7 Each one who is called by my name;
for I have created him for my glory;
I have formed him, yes, I have made him.”
- 8 Bring out the blind people who have eyes,
and the deaf who have ears.
- 9 Let all the nations be gathered together,
and let the people be assembled.
Who among them can declare this,
and tell us former things?
Let them bring forth their witnesses,
that they may be vindicated;
or let them listen, and say,
“It is the truth.”
- 10 “You are my witnesses, says the LORD,
and my servant whom I have chosen,
that you may know and believe me,
and understand that I am he.
Before me there was no God formed,
nor will there be after me.
- 11 I, yes, I am the LORD, and besides me
there is no saviour.
- 12 I have declared, and have saved,
and I have proclaimed,
when there was no foreign god among you.
Therefore you are my witnesses,
says the LORD, that I am God.
- 13 Yes, from the first day I am he,
and there is no one who can deliver out of my hand.
I will work, and who can reverse it?”
- 14 Thus says the LORD, your redeemer,
the Holy One of Israel:
“For your sake I will send to Babylon, and bring down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose shout is in the ships.
- 15 I am the LORD, your Holy One,
the Creator of Israel, your King.
- 16 Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea,
and a path in the mighty waters, 17 Who brings out the chariot and horse,
the army and the power.
They will lie down together,
they will not rise.
They are extinguished,
quenched like a wick.
- 18 “Do not remember the former things,
or consider the things of old.
- 19 See, I will do a new thing.
Now it will spring forth. Do you not know it?
I will even make a way in the wilderness,
and rivers in the desert.
- 20 The beast of the field will honour me,
the jackals and the owls,
because I give water in the wilderness,
and rivers in the desert,
for my people, my chosen, to drink.
- 21 This people I have formed for myself.
They will show forth my praise.
- 22 “But you have not called on me, O Jacob,
and you have been weary of me, O Israel.

43:8 See 42:16,18,19.

43:9-13 God speaks here as if the earth were a courtroom and truth were on trial. Compare 41:1,21-23. The point of dispute is this question: Who has shown proof that He is the true God by foretelling the future and controlling events? Idolatrous nations are asked to bring forth their witness (v 9). God's witness was His people Israel (v 10,12). It was through them that God wanted the truth established, the truth that He alone is God and that there can be no other. In the same way Christ's people in this New Testament age are to be His witnesses (Luke 24:48; Acts 1:8; 2:32; 4:20; 5:32; 13:31).

43:10,11 See 44:6,8; 45:5,6,18,21,22; 46:9. Since Jehovah the God of Israel is the one true God, those who worship other gods are not worshipping God at all (42:8). And those who hope for salvation from some other god will hope in vain, for Jehovah is the only salvation (compare Acts 4:12).

43:12 “Among you” – the most grievous sin of Israel, the one above all others that marred their witness to the true God, was idolatry (Deut 32:15-17).

43:13 See 14:27; Deut 32:39; Job 9:12;

4:35.

43:14 “For your sake” – another example of the truth of vs 3,4. The Chaldeans (Babylonians) who had made exiles of God's people would themselves flee from their enemies. In this way God freed His people from Babylon.

43:15 “Holy One” – see 1:4.

“King” – 6:5; 41:21; 44:6; Deut 33:5; 1 Sam 8:7; Ps 2:4-6; 44:4.

43:16,17 Ex 14:21-28.

43:18-20 God is saying here that His power was not confined to past events, and His people need not dwell on the past as if God no longer could or would act on behalf of His people. Compare Phil 3:13,14.

43:19 “A new thing” – 42:9; Jer 16:14,15; 23:7,8; Rev 21:5.

“Desert” – 30:25; 35:7; 41:18.

43:21 A reason (similar to the one in v 10) why God created Israel as a nation. When Israel at its best (as in David's time) fulfilled this purpose it produced the book of Psalms. Now in this age declaring the praise of God is one of the chief responsibilities of the Church (1 Pet 2:9).

43:22-24 On the whole, Israel was a failure both as a witness and declarer of God's

- 23 You have not brought me the sheep for your burnt offerings,
nor have you honoured me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with offerings,
or wearied you with incense.
- 24 You have bought me no sweet cane
with money,
nor have you satisfied me with the fat
of your sacrifices;
but you have burdened me with your sins,
you have wearied me with your evil deeds.
- 25 I, yes, I am the one who blots out your transgressions for my own sake,
and will not remember your sins.
- 26 "Remind me –
let us argue the case together.
State your position, so that you may be vindicated.
- 27 Your first father sinned,
and your teachers have transgressed against me.
- 28 Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary,
and give Jacob to the curse,
and Israel to insults.

44 "Yet listen now, O Jacob my servant,
and Israel, whom I have chosen.

2 Thus says the LORD who made you and formed you from the womb,
who will help you:

praise. They did not pray as they ought;
their worship was half-hearted and displayed
no love for God, no sense of the greatness and wonder of His calling them. In their history they either brought no offerings at all or sometimes brought their poorest things in an unacceptable way (1:11-17; 29:13; Amos 5:25,26; Mal 1:6-13).

43:24 "Burdened", "wearied" – oh, what a burden, what a weariness Israel's sins (and ours) have been to God (Jer 44:22).
Compare 53:5; Gen 6:5,6; Eph 4:30; John 1:29. Men's sins may be a pleasure to them, but to God they are pain and grief.
43:25 "Blots out" – 40:2; 44:22; Jer 50:20.

"My own sake" – God's love, God's glory are tied up with His people Israel. He cannot, will not let them be eternally destroyed because of their sins. They will yet completely fulfill v 21.

"Not remember your sins" – Jer 31:34;
Heb 10:17.

43:26 In vs 9-12 the world is like a courtroom for the nations. Here Israel is called to the courtroom, not as a witness but as a defendant. Compare 1:18.

43:27 Both the father of the human race
(Adam), and the father of the nation Israel (Abraham – 51:2) were sinners. Adam – Gen 3:6; Rom 5:12; Abraham – Gen

- Do not fear, O Jacob, my servant,
and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
- 3 For I will pour water on him who is thirsty,
and floods on the dry ground.
I will pour my Spirit on your descendants,
and my blessing on your offspring;
- 4 And they will spring up among the grass,
like willows by the water courses.
- 5 One will say, 'I am the LORD's,' and another will call himself by the name of Jacob,
and another will write on his hand,
'The LORD's',
and name himself by the name of Israel.
- 6 "Thus says the LORD the King of Israel and his redeemer, the LORD of hosts:
I am the first, and I am the last,
and besides me there is no God.
- 7 Then who is like me?
Let him speak and declare it,
and set it out in order before me,
from the time I appointed the ancient people.
And let them tell them the things that are coming, and will come.
- 8 Do not fear or be afraid.
Have I not told you from that time
and declared it?
You are my witnesses.
Is there a God besides me?
Indeed, there is no other God.
I do not know any.

12:10-19; 20:1-6,9. See also Rom 3:9,23.
"Spokesmen" – or mediators or representatives – the leaders of the people.

43:28 The truth of v 25 did not change God's mind about the necessity of chastising Israel for its sins. Forgiveness does not mean that the guilty will not have to endure
some of the consequences of their sins.
Note at Num 14:20-23.

44:1 Verse 21; 41:8,9.

44:2 See 41:10,13,14; 43:1,5.

"Jeshurun" – a symbolic name for Israel.
It means "Upright one."

44:3 "Water" – 30:25; 32:2; 35:6,7.

"Spirit" – it seems there will be an outpouring of God's Spirit on Israel at the end of this age, at the time of the day of the Lord (32:15,16; Joel 2:28-3:2; Ezek 39:29; Zech 12:10-14). There was a partial fulfillment of this at Pentecost (Acts 2:16-21). Any individual in this age may receive the fullness of God's Spirit by going to Christ in faith (John 7:37-39).

44:4,5 Here are some of the results in Israel of the outpouring of the Spirit.

44:6 "King", "redeemer" – 41:21; 43:1,15.
"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

"Last" – 41:4; Rev 1:8,17; 2:8; 22:13.

44:7 See 41:22,23,26; 43:9.

44:8 "Witnesses" – 43:10,12.

- 9 All of those who make a carved image
are nothing,
 and their precious things will not profit;
 and they are their own witnesses.
 They do not see or know, to their shame.
- 10 Who has formed a god, or cast a carved image that is useful for nothing?
- 11 See, all his companions will be put to shame.
 The workmen are mere men.
 Let them all be gathered together, let them stand up;
 yet they will be afraid and together will be put to shame.
- 12 The blacksmith works with the tongs
 in the coals,
 and shapes it with hammers and works
 it with the strength of his arms.
 Yes, he becomes hungry,
 and his strength fails;
 he does not drink water and becomes faint.
- 13 The craftsman stretches out his measuring line;
 he sketches one with a marker;
 he shapes it with planes, marks it out with a compass,
 and makes it like the figure of a man,
 according to the beauty of a man,
 that it may remain in a house.
- 14 He cuts down cedars for himself,
 and takes the cypress or the oak,
 which he secures for himself among the trees of the forest.
 He plants a pine and the rain makes it grow.
- 15 Then it will be for a man to burn;
 for he will take part of it and warm himself.
 Yes, he burns it and bakes bread;
 then he makes a god and worships it.
 He makes a carved image from it,
 and prostrates himself before it.
- 16 He burns part of it in the fire;
 with part of it he eats meat;
 he roasts meat, and is satisfied.
 Yes, he warms himself, and says,
 'Ah, I am warm, I have seen the fire.'
- 17 And with the rest of it he makes a god,
 his carved image.
 He falls down before it and worships it
 and prays to it, and says,
 'Deliver me, for you are my god.'
- 18 They have not known or understood,
 for he has shut their eyes,
 that they cannot see,
and their hearts,
 that they cannot understand.
- 19 And no one considers in his heart, nor is there knowledge or understanding to say,
 'I have burned part of it in the fire,
 and I have baked bread on its coals.
 I have roasted meat and eaten it ;
 and will I make an abomination from the rest of it?
 Will I fall prostrate before a block of wood?'
- 20 He feeds on ashes.
 A deceived heart has turned him aside,
 so that he cannot rescue his soul,
 or say, 'Is this in my right hand not a lie?'
- 21 "Remember these things,
 O Jacob and Israel,
 for you are my servant.
 I have formed you; you are my servant.
 O Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.
- 22 I have blotted out your transgressions
 like a thick cloud,
 and your sins like a cloud.

44:9-20 The folly of idolatry. See also 40:18-20.

44:9 "Nothing" – 37:19; Ps 115:3-8; 1 Cor 8:4.

"They do not see or know" – many otherwise intelligent and educated men defend idolatry. This is God's estimate of such men.

44:10,11 The makers of idols and gods are men, so what they make cannot be God, cannot in a true way represent God – v 20.

44:12 A piece of metal, no matter how well a craftsman may shape it, cannot represent the true God.

44:13-20 A tree made by God cannot be made into God.

44:15 "Worships it" – vs 15,17,19. We must worship God Himself, not the things God has made or that man can make (see Rom 1:21-25; John 4:24).

44:17 "Deliver me" – can that which a person has made from a block of wood hear him? See Ps 135:17. Even if it could hear him could it save him? See Isa 45:20; 46:7; 47:15.

44:18-20 No one who worships idols has any spiritual wisdom. They become like their idols (Ps 115:8; 135:18).

44:19 "Abomination" – see again that idolatry is detestable to the true God.

44:20 "Ashes" – the idolater is devoted to something that is the opposite of spiritually nourishing.

"Deceived heart" – Jer 17:9.

"Lie" – 10:14; 51:17; Rom 1:25. An idol is a lie because it cannot do what its creators say it can do. Also because it completely misrepresents what the true God is like.

44:21 The people of Israel were to be a witness to the true God. It was absolutely essential that they understand and remember the above truth.

"Forgotten" – 49:15,16; Jer 31:20.

44:22 See 40:2; 43:25 – these verses seem to look forward to the cross of Christ. It was

- Return to me, for I have redeemed you."
- 23 Sing, O heavens!
For the LORD has done it.
Shout, you lower parts of the earth!
Break out into singing, you mountains,
you forest and every tree in it!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
and glorified himself in Israel.
- 24 Thus says the LORD, your redeemer,
the one who formed you from the womb:
"I am the LORD who made all things,
who alone stretched out the heavens,
who spread out the earth by myself,
- 25 Who frustrates the omens of the liars,
and makes fools of diviners, who turns wise men backward and makes their knowledge foolishness,
- 26 Who confirms the word of his servant,
and carries out the purpose of his messengers,
who says to Jerusalem, 'You will be inhabited';
and to the cities of Judah, 'You will be built';
and I will raise up its ruined places';
- 27 Who says to the deep, 'Be dry!'
and 'I will dry up your rivers';
- 28 who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd and will accomplish all my pleasure';
and saying to Jerusalem, 'You will be built';
and to the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'

45 "Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have

- grasped,
to subdue nations before him (and I will loosen the armour of kings, to open the double doors before him;
and the gates will not be shut):
- 2 I will go before you,
and make the rough places level.
I will break the gates of bronze in pieces,
and cut the bars of iron in two.
- 3 And I will give you the treasures of darkness,
and hidden riches of secret places,
that you may know that I, the LORD,
who call you by your name,
am the God of Israel.
- 4 For the sake of my servant Jacob and Israel my chosen,
I have also called you by your name.
I have named you, even though you have not known me.
- 5 I am the LORD, and there is no other.
There is no God besides me.
I girded you with armour, even though you have not known me,
- 6 So that from the rising of the sun and from the west they may know that there is no one besides me.
I am the LORD, and there is no other.
- 7 "I form the light, and create darkness.
I make peace, and create disaster.
I the LORD do all these things."
- 8 Rain down, you heavens, from above,
and let the skies pour down righteousness.
Let the earth open up, and let them there alone that God did away with the sins of all His people and made forgiveness possible.

"Redeemed" – note at Ps 78:35.

44:23 The forgiveness, the redemption of Israel brings great joy to God's heart. He wants all nature to share this joy. And it will.
See 35:1,2; 49:13; 55:12,13; Rom
8:19-21; 11:12.

"Glorified" – 4:2; 40:5; 46:13; 49:3; 55:5; 60:9,21; 61:3.

44:24 "Stretched out" – 40:22; 51:13.

44:25 "Liars" – false prophets or anyone who says he gets messages from God by other means than God has appointed. See Deut 13:1-4; 18:10-14,21,22; Jer 14:14.
There will be many who like to think of themselves as prophets, and whom others regard as prophets, who are false. They may give signs that deceive many people (Matt 24:11,24). But God will show in His time and way who is true and who is false.

"Wise men" – note at 29:14. So much of what the world regards as wisdom is only ignorance in disguise. In good time God will fully reveal this also.

44:26-28 "Servant", "messengers" – the prophets of the Bible. God shows they are true prophets by fulfilling their words. God here gives predictions through Isaiah. By fulfilling them He showed Isaiah was a true prophet. These verses look beyond the destruction of Judah and Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

44:27 Ex 14:21,22; Jer 50:38; 51:36.

44:28 "Cyrus" – Ezra 1:1-4; 6:3-5. The return of Judah's exiles and the rebuilding of the temple meant that Jerusalem would be rebuilt and Judah occupied again.

"Shepherd" – God used Cyrus to help His people return to their land. Cyrus, called God's servant and a shepherd, here seems, in this one regard, to be a picture or type of the Lord Jesus. Cyrus destroyed Babylon's power and restored Israel to its homeland.
45:1-7 A prophecy that God would enable Cyrus to conquer and plunder many lands, and cities.
Through him God would bring disaster to some countries (such as Babylon), prosperity to others (Medes and Persians) – v 7. In doing this God had three purposes. He wanted Cyrus to know that the God of Israel was the one who was behind his victories (v 3); He wanted to raise up a helper for Israel (v 4); and He wanted men everywhere to know that He was the one true God (v 6).

45:8 "Righteousness" – v 13; 41:2. Cyrus

- bring out salvation,
and let righteousness spring up with it.
I the LORD have created it.
- 9 Woe to him who quarrels with his Maker!
Let a piece of pottery quarrel with earth's pieces of pottery.
Will the clay say to the one who forms it, 'What are you making?'
Or your handiwork say,
'He has no hands?'
- 10 Woe to him who says to his father,
'What have you begotten?'
Or to the woman,
'What have you given birth to?'
- 11 Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel and his Maker:
"Do you question me about things to come concerning my sons?
And will you command me concerning
the work of my hands?"
- 12 I have made the earth,
and created man on it.
I, with my own hands,
have stretched out the heavens, and I have given commands to all their starry host.
- 13 I have raised Cyrus up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways.
He will build my city, and he will let my captives go, not for price or reward,
says the LORD of hosts."
- 14 Thus says the LORD:
"The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature,

will come over to you,
and they will be yours.
They will walk behind you.
They will come over in chains,
and they will fall down before you.
They will plead with you, saying,
'Surely God is in you, and no one else;
there is no other God.'

15 Truly you are a God who hides yourself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. 16 They will be put to shame and disgraced, all of them; those who are makers of idols will go away in disgrace together.
17 But Israel will be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation. You will not be put to shame or disgraced world without end. 18 For thus says
the LORD who created the heavens, God himself who formed the earth and made it, who established it, who did not create it in vain, who formed
it to be inhabited:

- "I am the LORD, and there is no other.
19 I have not spoken in secret,
in a dark place of the earth.
I did not say to the offspring of Jacob,
'Seek me in vain.'
I, the LORD, speak righteousness;
I declare things that are right.
- 20 Assemble yourselves and come;
draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations.
Those who set up the wood of their carved image,
and pray to a god which cannot save,
have no knowledge.
- 21 Speak and bring forward your case.
Yes, let them take counsel together.

was an instrument in God's hand to fulfill
His righteous purposes toward Israel.
Through Cyrus He released Israel from captivity in Babylon.

45:9-13 There are always men who will quarrel with God's ways. In those days some might have said, "Why should God use a godless nation like Babylon to punish Israel, and then use another godless nation like Persia to set Israel free?" Here is God's answer to man's impious and ignorant questioning. He is the maker of mankind and of Israel (vs 9,11). He is perfectly holy (v 11). He is the Creator of the starry universe (v 12). Obviously, He knows better than man (who is like a broken piece of pottery - v 9) what should be done and how to do it. See 29:16; Jer 18:5-9; Rom 9:20,21.

45:11 "And will you command me. . .?" - the KJV has "command ye me", but in the context (and in the light of the whole Bible) this meaning seems unlikely. Also the Hebrew verb here for "command" is not in the form of the verb used to express a command (the imperative mood). It seems better to put this sentence (and the preceding one) in the form of a question.

45:13 "Cyrus" - in Hebrew "him."

45:14 See 11:14-16; 14:1,2; 49:23;
54:3; 60:11-14; Zech 14:16-19.

45:15 God is always at work in the earth fulfilling His purposes, but it is all obscure and mysterious to men (55:8,9; Ps 139:6; 145:3; Eccl 8:17; Rom 11:33). Especially He hides Himself from the sinful, disobedient and unbelieving - 1:15;
57:17; 59:2; Deut 31:17; Hos 5:6,7.

45:16 See 42:17; 44:9-11.

45:17 "Saved" - Jer 23:6; Rom 11:26.

"Everlasting" - 54:8; Jer 33:16-26.

45:18 See 40:21,22; Ps 19:1-4.

45:19 God openly proclaimed His truth through His servants - 48:16; John 18:19-21. Truth has nothing to hide.

"I did not say. . . Seek me in vain" - Deut
4:29; 2 Chron 15:2; Jer 29:12-14.

45:20,21 "Nations" - 41:1,21,22; 43:9-13.

Who has declared this from ancient time?
Who has been declaring it from that time?
Have not I, the LORD?
 And there is no other God besides me.
 I am a just God and Saviour.
There is no one besides me.

- 22 Look to me and be saved, all you ends
 of the earth;
 for I am God, and there is no other.
 23 I have sworn by myself;
 this word has gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and will not return:
 To me every knee will bow,
by me every tongue will swear;
 24 He will say, "surely they will say,
 'In the LORD alone I have righteousness and strength.
 To him men will come; and all who have raged against him will be ashamed.
 25 In the LORD all the descendants of Israel will be justified, and will glory."

- 46 "Bel bows down, Nebo stoops.
 Their idols are loaded on beasts,
 and on cattle;
 your carriages are loaded heavily;
they are a burden to the weary beast.
 2 They stoop, they bow down together.
 They could not deliver the burden,
 but have gone into captivity themselves.
 3 "Listen to me, O house of Jacob,

- and all the remnant of the house of Israel,
 who are borne by me from birth,
 who are carried from the womb:
 4 Even to your old age, I am he,
 and even to gray hairs I will carry you.
 I have made you, and I will bear you;
 I will carry you, and will rescue you.
 5 To whom will you liken me,
 and make me equal, and compare me,
 so that we may be alike?
 6 They pour gold out of the bag,
 and weigh silver in the balance,
 and hire a goldsmith;
 and he makes it into a god.
 They prostrate themselves,
 yes, they worship.
 7 They bear it on the shoulder;
 they carry it and set it in its place,
 and it stands.
 It will not move from its place;
 yes, someone will cry out to it,
 but it cannot answer,
 or save him out of his trouble.
 8 Remember this, and show yourselves men.
 Recall it to mind again,
 O you transgressors.
 9 Remember the former things, things of old.
 For I am God, and there is no other.
 I am God, and there is no one like me,
 10 Declaring the end from the beginning,
 and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying,

"Cannot save" – 44:17-19; Jer 2:28.
45:22 God will save Israel (vs 17,25). But His salvation is for all the nations of earth. Their gods and idols can't save them (v 20). Their only hope is in Jehovah the God of Israel, the only God there is. The words of verse 22 are more than an invitation, they are a prophecy (2:2-4; etc).
45:23 "Sworn" – Heb 6:13. A very solemn way of speaking which indicates the importance of what follows.
 "Every knee will bow" – Rom 14:11; Phil 2:10,11.
45:24 Men will acknowledge that of all that they have called God the only one who is completely righteous and powerful is Jehovah.
45:25 "All" – Rom 11:26.
 "Will be justified" – they will be declared righteous in Christ (Jer 23:6; Acts 13:38,39; 1 Cor 1:30; Phil 3:9).
 "Glory" – Rom 5:1,2; Gal 6:14.
46:1 Bel and Nebo were gods of Babylon. "Bel" means "lord." This god was similar to the god Baal worshiped by the nations around Israel and sometimes by Israel itself.
46:2 Another way of saying that the Babylonians will go into captivity. Their gods would not be able to save them.

46:3 "Listen" – God speaks.
 "Carried" – as a father carries a small child.
46:4 They should not fear God would forsake them, that He would be as weak and useless as the gods of Babylon.
46:5-7 God is not like the gods made by men (40:18-20; 44:9-20).
46:7 "It will not move" – Ps 115:7.
 "It cannot answer" – 1 Kings 18:26; Ps 115:5.
 "Or save" – 44:17; 45:20.
46:8 "Transgressors" – or "rebels" – 1:2,20,23; 30:1; 57:4. Israel rebelled against God and ran after the gods of the nations around them. That is one reason why in chapters 40-46 God repeatedly condemns idolatry and declares the uselessness of gods.
46:9 "Former things" – God means things like His judgments on the gods of Egypt and His power displayed in the salvation of His people at that time (Ex 12:12; 14:13,14).
 "No other" – 43:10,11; Deut 4:35.
46:10 "Things that are not yet done" – 41:22; 42:9; 43:9,18; 48:3.
 "Stand" – it will stand toward Babylon (Jer 51:12,29), and in everything (Ps 33:11;

- My counsel will stand, and I will do all that I please, 11 Calling a bird of prey from the east,
the man from a far country who carries out my purpose.
Yes, I have spoken it ;
I will also cause it to happen.
I have purposed it, I will also do it.
- 12 "Listen to me, you stubborn in heart,
who are far from righteousness.
13 I am bringing my righteousness near.
It will not be far away, and my salvation will not be delayed.
And I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

- 47 "Come down and sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of Babylon.
Sit on the ground. There is no throne,
O daughter of the Chaldeans.
For you will no longer be called tender and delicate.
- 2 Take the millstones, and grind flour.
Remove your veil; tie up the skirt;
uncover the leg, cross the rivers.
3 Your nakedness will be uncovered;
yes, your shame will be seen.
I will take vengeance, and I will not meet you as a man would . "
- 4 As for our redeemer,
the LORD of hosts is his name,
the Holy One of Israel.

115:3; Dan 4:35; Eph 1:11; Heb 6:17).
46:11 This refers to Cyrus – 41:2; 45:1.
He would come swiftly on Babylon and other lands to take plunder.

46:12 "Righteousness" – v 8; 1:4,15;
29:13; 64:6,7.

46:13 "Near" – 41:2; 45:8.

"Israel my glory" – or possibly "my glory to Israel" – 35:2; 40:5; 44:23; 49:3.
Probably looks forward to the defeat of Babylon, and the return of the Jews to Israel.

47:1-15 Other prophecies concerning Babylon at 13:1-14:23; 21:1-9; Jer 50:1
– 51:64. Here Babylon is pictured as a daughter of the human family. Because of Babylon's wickedness she will lose her kingdom (v 1), be put to shame (vs 2,3), no longer be queen (v 5), see her people destroyed (v 8), and be utterly disappointed in her sorcerers, astrologers and wise men (vs 10-15).

47:1 "In the dust" – 3:26; 29:4; Job 2:13.
"Chaldeans" – Babylonians.

47:2 "Grind" – not the usual work for a queen!
47:3 Nah 3:5. She will be unable to defend herself.

"Vengeance" – 13:17-19. Shows how God

- 5 "Sit silently, and go into darkness,
O daughter of the Chaldeans;
for you will no longer be called,
'The Lady of kingdoms.'
6 I was angry with my people.
I have profaned my inheritance,
and given them into your hands.
You showed them no mercy.
On the elderly you have laid your very heavy yoke.
7 And you said, 'I will be a lady forever'
so that you did not lay these things
to your heart,
or remember their coming end.
8 Therefore now hear this, you who are given to pleasures,
who live carelessly,
who say in your heart,
'I am, and there is no other besides me;
I will not sit like a widow,
nor will I know the loss of children.'
9 But these two things will come to you in a moment, in one day:
the loss of children, and widowhood.
They will fully come on you because of your many sorceries and because of the great abundance of your magic spells.
10 For you have trusted in your wickedness.
You have said, 'No one sees me.'
Your wisdom and your knowledge have perverted you,
and you have said in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one else besides me.'

would take vengeance on Babylon. The reason for God's vengeance is clear from the rest of the chapter. God's vengeance is always righteous judgment. Note at Num 31:2.
47:4 "Redeemer" – note at Ps 78:35.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

"Holy One of Israel" – note at 1:4.

47:5 Babylon was a beautiful and a powerful
city.

47:6 "My people" – 42:23-25; 2 Chron
36:15-17. This verse speaks of a future event as if it had already happened. This is not uncommon in prophecy. Now God's anger would come on Israel's oppressors.
Note at Jer 50:33,34.

47:7,8 Reveals the arrogance and ignorance of Babylon (Jer 50:31). Compare Ps 49:11.
See Rev 18:7.

47:9 "In one day" – indicates the suddenness of Babylon's capture (v 11).

"Many sorceries" – v 12. Babylon was a center of idolatry, sorcery, and astrology in the ancient world. They learned that none of these could help when God rose in anger to punish them.

47:10 "No one sees me" – 29:15; Heb 4:13.
"Wisdom" – Babylon was noted for its wise men, but their so-called wisdom contributed

- 11 Therefore disaster will come on you.
You will not know from where it rises.
And calamity will fall on you.
You will not be able to avert it;
and desolation will come on you suddenly, which you will not understand.
- 12 Stand now with your spells,
and with your many sorceries,
in which you have laboured from your youth.
See if you will be able to profit,
if you may succeed.
- 13 You are wearied by your many counsels.
Now let the astrologers,
the stargazers who make monthly predictions, stand up and save you from these things that will come on you.
- 14 See, they will be like stubble;
the fire will burn them;
they will not rescue themselves from the power of the flame.
There will not be a coal to warm oneself at, or a fire to sit before!
- 15 Those with whom you have laboured from your youth, your merchants, will be like this to you.
Each one of them will wander to his quarter.
No one will save you.
- 48 "Hear this, O house of Jacob,
you who are called by the name of Israel,
who have come from the waters of Judah,
who swear by the name of the LORD,
and invoke the God of Israel,
but not in truth or in righteousness.
- 2 For they call themselves after the holy city,
and lean on the God of Israel;
the LORD of hosts is his name.
- 3 I have declared the former things long ago;
and they went out of my mouth,
and I declared them.
Suddenly I acted, and they took place.
- 4 Because I knew that you are obstinate,
and your neck is an iron sinew,
and your brow bronze,
- 5 I declared it to you long ago.
Before it happened I declared it to you,
so that you could not say,
'My idol has done them, and my carved image and my cast metal image has commanded them.'
- 6 You have heard; look at all this.
And will you not declare it?
From this time I tell you new things,
hidden things that you have not known.
- 7 They are created now, and not long ago;
and before this day you have not heard them, so that you cannot say,
'See, I knew them.'
- 8 You certainly did not hear;
you certainly did not know;
from that time your ear certainly was not opened;
for I knew that you would deal very treacherously,
and that you were called a transgressor
from the womb.
- 9 "For my name's sake I will delay my anger,
and for my praise I will restrain it from you,
so that I do not cut you off.
- 10 See, I have refined you,
but not as silver;
I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.
- 11 For my own sake, yes, for my own sake,
I will do it;
for why should my name be profaned?
And I will not give my glory to another.

to their destruction.

47:12,13 Spoken ironically. There was no possibility that their sorcerers would bring success.

"Astrologers" – were common in Babylon (Dan 2:2,10). But they would fail as Babylon's crisis hour approached, as they always fail. For it is impossible to predict accurately the future of a people or an individual by the stars. Astrology is an ancient superstition without the slightest basis in reality. See note on Gen 25:24.

47:14,15 The sorcerers and astrologers would not be able to save either Babylon or themselves. For an account of their helplessness and ignorance on the very night of Babylon's capture see Daniel chapter 5. On astrology see notes at Gen 25:24; Dan 2:2. 48:1 Even when they ran after idols (v 5), even when their spiritual condition was as described in 1:2-17, they liked to continue with the forms of their religion.

"Not in truth" – 29:13. Compare John 4:24. 48:2 "Holy city" – Jerusalem (52:1).

48:3-6 God can do what sorcerers and astrologers and idolaters cannot do. This is one of the leading themes of chapters 41-48 (41:21-29; 42:8,9; 43:9-13; 44:6-9; 45:19-21; 46:8-10; 47:13).

48:3 Ex 32:9; Jer 6:28; Ezek 3:7; Acts 7:51.

48:8 "Did not know" – 1:3; 6:9,10.

48:9 See 1 Sam 12:22; Ps 78:38; Isa 37:35. If God did not restrain His anger who would not be cut off? Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18. 48:10 Jer 9:7; Ezek 22:17-22; Ps 66:10-12. Many of God's people through the centuries have been tested in this furnace (1 Pet 1:6,7; 4:1,12).

48:11 Verse 9. If God completely destroyed the nation Israel, if He did not continue to work in them to bring them back to Himself and make them what they ought to be, if He did not keep His promises toward them,

- 12 Listen to me, O Jacob and Israel,
my called people;
 I am he; I am the first,
 I am also the last.
- 13 And my hand has laid the foundation
 of the earth,
 and my right hand has spanned the heavens.
When I call to them, they stand up together.
- 14 All of you, assemble yourselves and listen.
 Who among them has declared these things?
 The LORD loves him; he will carry out his pleasure on Babylon,
 and his arm will be against the Chaldeans.
- 15 I, I myself, have spoken;
 yes, I have called him.
 I have brought him, and he will make his way successful.
- 16 Come near to me; listen to this.
 From the first I have not spoken in secret.
 From the time that it happened,
 I am there.
 And now the Lord God, with his spirit,
 has sent me.
- 17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
 the Holy One of Israel:
 I am the LORD your God who teaches
 you to your benefit,

- who leads you in the way that you should go.
- 18 "O that you had listened to my commandments!
 Then your peace would have been like a river,
 and your righteousness like the waves
 of the sea,
- 19 And your descendants would have been like the sand,
 and the offspring of your body like its grains;
 his name would not have been cut off or destroyed from my presence."
- 20 Go out of Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans.
 With a voice of singing declare, tell this, send it out to the ends of the earth, saying, "The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob."
- 21 And they did not thirst when he led them through the deserts.
 He caused water to flow out of the rock
 for them.
 He also split the rock,
 and water gushed out.
- 22 "There is no peace", says the LORD,
 "for the wicked."

49 Listen to me, O islands,
 and pay attention, you peoples far away!
 The LORD called me from the womb;

His name would be dishonored. Compare Ex 32:9-14; etc.

48:12 "First. . .last" – 44:6.

48:13 "Heavens" – 40:21,22; 42:5; 51:13.

"Together" – all creation obeys God. Only men together with Satan and his demons disobey.

48:14,15 "Who. . .has declared" – see note at vs 3-6.

"These things" – probably refers to Cyrus' conquest of Babylon (41:2; 45:1-3,13).

"Chaldeans" – Babylonians (also v 20).

48:16 See 45:19. In the last words of the verse the speaker is probably Isaiah. He refers to his appointment and empowering as a prophet (6:9; 2 Pet 1:21).

48:17 "Redeemer" – Ps 78:35.

"Holy One" – 1:4.

"Who teaches" – notes at Ps 25:4,5. How great a teacher God is! How great the sinful, stubborn, and willful ignorance of people who cannot learn from so great a teacher!

48:18 "Peace. . .righteousness" – two words which sum up much of what God desires for His people (Rom 14:17). They result from obedience to God (Ps 119:9,165) just as restlessness and evil result from disobedience.

"Waves" – both rivers and waves move on without ceasing.

48:19 "Like the sand" – Gen 15:5; Deut 1:10. If Israel had been obedient they would have been far more numerous than they were. God's judgment had cut off many of them and was about to take away more.

48:20 God speaks to the remnant as though they were already in Babylon and as if Babylon were destroyed. He who knows the end from the beginning may (and does) speak so (46:10). This foretells Israel's release from captivity and the joy they would experience because of it.

48:21 A reminder of what God did once before in desert regions (Ex 17:6; Num 20:11; Deut 8:15; Ps 78:15,16). The reminder was to assure Israel of God's care and provision for them during the return from Babylon. See also 32:2; 35:6; 43:19; 49:10. Of course, there is spiritual truth here for believers now too as they journey through the desert of this world to the heavenly Mount Zion.

48:22 See 3:11; 57:20,21. The wicked in Israel would not share in the redemption and joy of v 20. How can there be peace for the wicked when God has set His face against all wickedness and will take vengeance on it? But even the wicked may have what seems to be peace – temporarily (Ps 73:3-12,16-20; Rom 2:4-6).

49:1-7 In this section God tells the world that He chose the nation Israel for special purposes (v 2,3). They failed in these purposes (v 4) and went away from God (v 5). But One would rise out of Israel who would bring Israel back to God and be a source of salvation to the whole world (vs 5,6). This is the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ.

49:1 "Listen" – 1:1; 41:1.

"From the womb" – if an individual is meant it would be Jacob who here repre-

- from the body of my mother he made mention of my name.
- 2 And he has made my mouth like a sharp sword.
He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand,
and made me a polished arrow.
He has hidden me in his quiver,
- 3 And said to me, "You are my servant,
O Israel; in you I will be glorified."
- 4 Then I said, "I have laboured in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing, in vain.
Yet surely justice for me is with the LORD,
and my reward is with my God."
- 5 "And now the LORD who formed me from the womb to be his servant to bring Jacob back to him says (even though Israel is not gathered, yet I will be honoured in the eyes of the LORD, and my God will be my strength),
- 6 Yes, he says, 'It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob,
and to restore the preserved ones of Israel.
I will also give you as a light to the Gentiles, that you may be my salvation to the ends of the earth.'
- 7 Thus says the LORD,
the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel,
to him whom man despises,
to him whom the nation abhors,
to a servant of rulers,
"Kings will see and arise;
- princes also will worship,
because of the LORD who is faithful,
and the Holy One of Israel,
and he will choose you."
- 8 Thus says the LORD,
"In an acceptable time I have heard you,
and in the day of salvation I have helped you.
And I will keep you, and give you as a covenant for the people,
to restore the earth,
to assign the desolate inheritances,
- 9 That you may say to the prisoners, 'Go out!
to those who are in darkness,
'Show yourselves!
They will feed along the paths,
and their pastures will be in all the high places.
- 10 They will not hunger or thirst,
nor will the heat or sun strike them,
for he who has mercy on them will lead them,
and will guide them by the springs of water.
- 11 And I will make a road of all my mountains,
and my highways will be raised up.
- 12 See, these will come from afar, and,
lo and behold, these from the north and from the west,
and these from the land of Sinim."
- 13 Sing, O heavens! Be joyful, O earth!
Break out into singing, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted his people,
and will have mercy on his afflicted.
- 14 But Zion has said,

sents the whole nation – Gen 25:21-26.
However, birth here may mean the birth of the nation as in 44:1,2, and not the birth of an individual.

49:2 "Sword" – Israel was given the word of God, and its prophets spoke the word of God which is a sword (Eph 6:17; Heb 4:12;
Rev 2:12,16; 19:15).

"Shadow" – this indicates protection.

"Arrow" – Israel was an instrument of judgment in God's hand on wicked nations.
49:3 "Servant" – 41:8,9. The whole nation was to serve God on earth and do His will.

"In you I will be glorified" – the highest purpose for which God called Israel. God will fulfill this purpose. See also 43:21. The glory of His character and attributes and works will yet be displayed in that nation.

49:4 The nation admits their efforts to fulfill God's purposes came to nothing. But in hope they leave their future in God's hands.

49:5 "Servant" – note at 42:1-9. The future hope of Israel, the purposes for which God called them, will be fulfilled. Here an individual – the Messiah – comes into view who represents Israel and who will do what the nation failed to do.

"Honoured. . . strength" – all the honor and strength of the Lord Jesus came from God the Father (John 5:19,30; 8:50,54;

17:1,5).

49:6 "Jacob" – the Lord Jesus will do this (Zech 12:9-14; Rom 11:25-29; Rev 17:1-8).

"The ends of the earth" – God's purposes of grace are both for Israel as a nation and for all the world (Luke 2:30-32; Acts 3:19-21; Rom 15:8-10).

49:7 "Despises" – 53:3. The nation as a whole despised the only one who could turn them back to God (53:3; Matt 27:22; John 15:24; Acts 7:52).

"Servant" – the Lord Jesus was a servant to all (Matt 20:28; Rom 15:8). The time is coming when all kings will bow the knee before Him (Ps 72:8-11).

49:8 "The day of salvation" – this looks forward to this New Testament age (2 Cor 6:2).

"Covenant" – note at 42:6.

"Earth" – 44:26. This looks to the end of this New Testament age. Because a prophecy is partly fulfilled now does not mean it is completely fulfilled now.

49:9 See 42:7; 61:1.

49:10 See 48:21; Ps 121:6; Rev 7:16.

49:11 See 11:16; 26:7; 35:8; 62:10.

49:12 See 11:11; 43:5,6; 60:4.

"Sinim" – or "Syene." This indicates Aswan, located in the south of Egypt.

49:13 Note at 44:23; 54:7-10.

49:14 An example of the depression that

- "The LORD has forsaken me, and my Lord has forgotten me."
- 15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child,
so that she does not have compassion
on the son of her womb?
Yes, they may forget, but I will not forget you.
- 16 See, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands.
Your walls are continually before me.
- 17 Your children will make haste;
your destroyers and those who laid you waste will go away from you.
- 18 Lift up your eyes and look all around;
all these assemble together and come to you.
As I live, says the LORD, you will surely put them all on as an ornament, and fasten them on you, as a bride does.
- 19 For your waste and desolate places,
and your destroyed land,
will now be too small for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away.
- 20 The children whom you will have,
after you have lost the others,
will say again in your ears,
'This place is too small for me.
Give me a place where I can live.'
- 21 Then you will say in your heart,
'Who has begotten these for me,
since I have lost my children,
and been desolate, a captive,
and going here and there?
And who brought these up?
See, I was left alone.
As for these, where have they been?'"

- 22 Thus says the Lord God:
"See, I will lift up my hand to the Gentiles, and set up my banner for the peoples;
and they will bring your sons in their arms,
and your daughters will be carried on
their shoulders.
- 23 And kings will be your foster fathers,
and their queens your nursing mothers.
They will bow down to you with their face toward the ground,
and lick up the dust of your feet.
And you will know that I am the LORD;
for those who wait for me will not
be put to shame."
- 24 Will the prey be taken from the mighty,
or the lawful captive delivered?
- 25 But thus says the LORD:
"Even the captives of the mighty will be taken away,
and the prey of the terrible will be rescued.
For I will contend with him that contends with you,
and I will save your children.
- 26 And I will cause those who oppress
you to eat their own flesh, and they will be drunk with their own blood as with sweet wine.
And all flesh will know that I, the LORD,
am your Saviour and your Redeemer,
the mighty One of Jacob."

50 Thus says the LORD,
"Where is the certificate of your mother's divorce with which I sent her away?
Or to which of my creditors have I sold you?"

sometimes comes when God chastises His people (Ps 13:1; 44:24; Lam 5:22; Heb 12:12).

49:15,16 From this verse to the end of the chapter God speaks to the city of Jerusalem. How can we ever imagine that God will not fulfill His word to the nation of Israel? That the literal Zion is here meant is clear from the context (v 5,6,19,22). Of course the spiritual truth is applicable to all believers in every age.

"Engraved you on the palms of my hands" – compare Ex 28:9-12. Who can blot out names engraved on the hands of God?

"Before me" – compare Deut 11:12.

49:17,18 "Your children" – the exiles from Jerusalem shall return there.

"Ornament" – indicates the joy and pride Zion will feel at the return of her exiles.

49:19,20 This was not fulfilled when the exiles returned from Babylon. A comparatively small number returned then. See Ezra 2:64.

49:21,22 Jerusalem itself will be astonished at the number of her sons who return. That literal Jews are meant seems clear from v 22 where Zion's sons are distinguished from Gentiles. In 14:2; 43:6; 60:9 other nations are said to bring Israel back.

49:23 Jerusalem will become the beloved city, the favorite of the nations – 2:2-4.

"You will know" – v 26; 60:16; Ezek 12:20; 13:9; 36:38.

"Not be put to shame" – 29:22; Rom 10:11.

49:25 God will restore the captives of Israel, and their plunder – 14:2; etc.

"Contend" – 51:22; Jer 50:34; Gen 12:3; Num 23:8,11; Zech 2:8.

49:26 God will make Israel's enemies as Israel's enemies made them (Lam 4:10).

"Jacob" – God's dealing with Israel, especially at the end of this age, will cause all mankind to know that He has not abandoned that nation and that city, but saved them.

50:1-3 In 49:15-26 God spoke to Zion as if that city were a mother. See too vs 17,18,20; 51:17,18. He spoke of her "sons" and "children." Now God speaks to the sons and children, the people of Israel. The words

See, you have sold yourselves for your wicked deeds, and your mother was sent away for your transgressions.

2 Why was there no man when I came?
When I called, why was there no one to answer?

Is my hand shortened at all so that it cannot redeem?
Or have I no power to rescue?

See, at my rebuke I dry up the sea,
I make the rivers a desert;
because there is no water their fish stink and die from thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering."

4 "The Lord God has given me the tongue of the learned, so that I would know how to speak a word in season to the weary.

He awakens me morning by morning;
he awakens my ear to hear as the learned.

5 The Lord God has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,

nor did I turn back.

6 I gave my back to those who struck me,
and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair.

I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

7 For the Lord God will help me;
therefore I will not be disgraced.
Therefore I have set my face like a flint,
and I know that I will not be put to shame.

8 The one who vindicates me is near;
who will contend with me?

Let us stand up together.
Who is my adversary?

Let him come near me.

9 Look, the Lord God will help me;
who is the one who condemns me?
See, they will all become old like a garment;
the moth will eat them up."

10 Who among you fears the LORD, who obeys the voice of his servant,
who walks in darkness,
and has no light?

Let him trust in the name of the LORD, look beyond Isaiah's day to the time of exile. God says that the exile of the people of Jerusalem and Judah was their fault, not His. He had not "divorced" Zion, the mother (compare 49:15,16). But there was a temporary separation because of Israel's many sins.

"When I came" (v 2) – God came again and again to the people but no one paid any attention (64:7. See Jer 7:13,25; 25:3,4).

"To rescue" – God could have saved them from the Babylonians, but He determined that the nation must be punished for its evil.

"A desert" – 43:16,17; Ex 14:29. The God who did that was not lacking in strength to rescue His people.

50:3 See 13:10; Joel 2:10,31; Rev 6:12,13. Sackcloth in the Bible is a sign of mourning (Gen 37:34; Est 4:1; Ps 35:13).

50:4-9 The servant of the Lord (Christ) now speaks (v 10; 42:1-4; 49:5-7). He is of Israel, represents Israel, and will bring Israel back to God (49:5).

50:4 "Tongue of the learned" – true of Christ (Ps 45:2; Luke 4:22; John 7:16,17; 12:49,50; 14:24). God instructs men's mouths too – 51:16; Ex 4:12; Jer 1:9; Matt 10:19,20; Mark 13:10; Gal 1:1,11,12.

"To the weary" – 40:29; 42:3; Matt 11:28-30. God has compassion on the weary. The servant of the Lord would know what to say to the weary because morning after morning he would get his instructions from God.

50:5 As a servant the Messiah would not be like Israel (42:19,20), or like Jonah (Jonah 1:1-3).

50:6 Bringing Israel back to God (49:5), making Zion a place of holiness and glory

(4:2-6; 52:1; 60:1-3), would be no easy matter. It would mean extreme dishonor and suffering for the Messiah, the servant of the Lord (Ps 22:6-18; Matt 27:26,30,67; Mark 14:65; 15:19; Luke 22:63; John 19:1).

50:7 The Lord Jesus courageously faced everything that came to Him (Luke 9:51; 22:42; John 18:10,11). He knew He would not fail or be disappointed in His work of providing salvation to the world (49:6; Heb 12:2,3).

50:8,9 The Lord Jesus was charged with blasphemy and executed as a criminal with criminals (Matt 26:65,66; 27:35-40). How did God vindicate Him? This passage in Isaiah does not say, but we know from the New Testament that it was by raising Him from the dead and exalting Him to His right hand (Acts 13:28-31; Rom 1:4; Phil 2:9). Will anyone still accuse the Lord Jesus? Will any say He is a madman or a liar or possessed by Satan (as some people did when He was on earth)? Let them come forward! They will find they are fighting against God, and will be destroyed like old clothes that moths devour.

50:10 Isaiah now speaks by God's Spirit about the Servant of the Lord who has spoken in vs 4-9.

"Fears the LORD" – notes at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

"Fears", "obeys", "trust" – these three are essential to the full enjoyment of the salvation the Messiah provides. Days of darkness may come to God's people, days when they do not know what God is doing or what they should do. If they show awe, reverence, and obedience to God and to the Lord Jesus Christ all else they need to do is and rely on his God.

- 11 Look, all you who kindle a fire,
who surround yourselves with sparks, walk in the light of your fire and of the sparks you have kindled.
This is what you will have from my hand:
you will lie down in torment.

- 51 "Listen to me,
you who follow righteousness,
you who seek the LORD.
Look to the rock from which you are cut,
and to the quarry where you were dug out.
- 2 Look to Abraham your father,
and to Sarah who bore you.
For I called him alone, and blessed him and increased him."
- 3 For the LORD will comfort Zion.
He will comfort all her waste places,
and he will make her wilderness like Eden,
and her desert like the garden of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found in it, thanksgiving and the sound of melody.
- 4 "Listen to me, my people,
and give ear to me, O my nation.
For a law will proceed from me, and I will make my justice rest as a light for the people.
- 5 My righteousness is near.
My salvation has gone forth,
and my arms will judge the peoples;
the islands will wait for me,
and they will trust in my arm.

- 6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
and look on the earth below;
for the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
and the earth will become old like a garment,
and those who dwell in it will die in like manner.
But my salvation will be forever,
and my righteousness will not be abolished.
- 7 Listen to me, you who know righteousness,
the people in whose heart is my law.
Do not fear the reproach of men,
or be afraid of their insults.
- 8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment,
and the worm will eat them like wool.
But my righteousness will be forever,
and my salvation from generation
to generation."
- 9 Awake! Awake!
Put on strength, O arm of the LORD!
Awake, as in days long ago,
in the generations of old.
Are you not the arm which cut Rahab,
and pierced the serpent?
- 10 Are you not the arm which dried the sea, the waters of the great deep,
that made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to cross over?
- 11 Therefore the redeemed of the LORD will return,
and come to Zion with singing;
and everlasting joy will be on their heads.
They will obtain gladness and joy,
and sorrow and mourning will flee away.
- 12 "I, I myself, am the one who comforts you.

simply to trust, to lean on God.

50:11 "Who kindle a fire" – this could mean one of two things. It could signify those who engage in wicked practices which burn like fire (9:18). Or it could signify those who refuse the light the Lord Jesus will give (42:6), and try to create their own light. Many people try to do this, and God will leave them to it. The end in either case will be torment in the fire that is never quenched – Matt 25:41; Mark 9:43; Luke 16:24; Rev 20:15. 51:1-3 This passage looks forward to the time of the Babylonian captivity. God addresses those who would seek God (v 1) and return to Jerusalem (compare Jer 29:10-14). They would be few in number but God tells them to think of the father of their nation. When God called him he had no children at all, but later Israel became a great people (Gen 22:7; Ex 1:7). God promises to make Zion a paradise where, presumably, a great many will have cause for rejoicing.

51:4,5 God has in mind more than the blessing of Jerusalem (2:2-4; 9:7; 42:1,4).

"Is near" (v 5) – 50:8; 2 Pet 3:8,9; Rev 1:3.

"Arms" – power – 40:10; 50:2; 52:10; 59:16; 63:5; Ps 98:1.

"Islands" – 11:11; 24:15; 41:1,5; 42:4,10,12; 49:1; 59:18; 60:9; 66:19. 51:6 See 34:4; 24:4; Heb 1:10-12; 12:25-29.

"Salvation. . . forever" – v 8; 45:17; Titus 1:2. What then should we choose – a temporary world or an eternal heaven?

51:7 "Righteousness" – v 1.

"Heart" – Deut 6:6; Ps 119:11; Jer 31:33.

"Reproach" – if they despise and insult the master (49:7; 50:6;) the servants will hardly escape (Matt 10:25; John 15:18-20). But instead of fear believers can have joy (v 12; Rom 5:3; 2 Cor 12:10; 1 Pet 4:12-16).

51:8 See 50:9; Mark 9:48.

51:9,10 Isaiah inspired by God's Spirit now speaks for the righteous. God has promised great things. He prays for their fulfillment. Let God act again for His people as He did at the Red Sea (Ex 14:21-31).

"Rahab" – Egypt (Job 9:13; etc).

51:11 Note at 35:10.

51:12 Again God begins to speak.

"Comforts" – v 3; 40:1; 49:13.

- Who are you, that you should be afraid of a man who will die, and of the son of a man who will be made like grass?
- 13 And you forget the LORD your maker,
who has stretched out the heavens,
and laid the foundations of the earth,
and you have been afraid continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor,
when he seemed ready to destroy.
And where is the fury of the oppressor?
- 14 The captive exile will soon be set free,
and will not die in the dungeon,
nor will his food fail.
- 15 For I am the LORD your God who divided the sea, whose waves roared.
The LORD of hosts is his name.
- 16 And I have put my words in your mouth, and I have covered you with the shadow of my hand, that I may establish the heavens,
and lay the foundations of the earth,
and say to Zion: "You are my people."
- 17 Awake! Awake! Stand up,
O Jerusalem,
you who have drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury.
You have drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling, and drained it.
- 18 There is no one to guide her among all the sons whom she has brought forth.
Nor among all the sons she has brought up is there any who take her by the hand.
- 19 These two disasters have come to you;

- who will mourn for you?
Desolation and destruction,
and famine and sword;
by whom will I comfort you?
- 20 Your sons have fainted.
They lie at the head of every street,
like an antelope in a net.
They are full of the fury of the LORD,
the rebuke of your God.
- 21 Therefore, now listen to this,
you afflicted, and drunk,
but not with wine:
- 22 Thus says your Lord,
the LORD and your God who pleads the cause of his people:
"See, I have taken out of your hand
the cup of trembling, the dregs of the cup of my fury.
You will not drink it again.
- 23 But I will put it into the hands of those who afflict you,
who have said to your soul,
'Lie down, so that we may walk over you.'
And you made your backs like the ground, and like the street, to those who walked over you."

- 52 Awake! Awake!
Put on your strength, O Zion!
Put on your beautiful garments,
O Jerusalem, the holy city!
For from now on the uncircumcised and the unclean will no longer come into you.
- 2 Shake yourself from the dust.
Arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem.
Loose yourself from the shackles on your neck,

"A man who will die" – v 7; Matt 10:26-28.
"Grass" – 40:6.

51:13 Fear of men can make even God's people forget His comfort and power.

51:15 "Sea" – Job 26:12; Ps 107:24,25; Jer 31:35. Can, then, the Babylonians or any other enemy of God's people stand against Him?

51:16 "In your mouth" – v 7; Ex 4:11,12;
Jer 1:9.

"Hand" – 49:2; Ps 91:1,2. Surely there is safety there!

"My people" – 41:8-10; 43:1,15;
44:1,2,21.

51:17-23 These verses look beyond Isaiah's own day. Jerusalem had to drink the cup of God's wrath because of its wickedness. This cup meant "desolation, destruction, famine, sword" (v 19). The enemy armies would be the cause of these. When God determined that Jerusalem had been punished enough
He would comfort her and make her enemies drink the cup of punishment. On "cup" see Jer 25:15-29; Ezek 23:32-34; Zech 12:2;

John 18:11; Rev 14:10.

51:18 "No one" – 64:7; Jer 5:1; Ezek 22:30.

51:21 "You afflicted" – Jerusalem.

51:22 "Pleads the cause of his people" –
49:24; Zech 14:3.

"You will not drink it again" – this is evidence that this whole passage looks beyond the capture of Jerusalem by the Babylonians. For after that Jerusalem once again had to drink of the cup of God's wrath (Luke 19:41-44; 1 Thess 2:16). And it will yet be a cup in the Lord's hands that its enemies must drink (Zech 12:2).

52:1,2 Jerusalem captured and enslaved and lying prostrate in the dust will be set free, will rise again. Compare 2:2; 49:14,22,23.

"Beautiful garments" – 61:10

"The uncircumcised and the unclean" –
those not in covenant relationship with Jehovah (Gen 17:9-14), those who remain in their sins. The literal meaning is that no foreign armies will invade the city again. A spiritual application may also be drawn from

- O captive daughter of Zion.
- 3 For thus says the LORD:
"You have sold yourselves for nothing,
and you will be redeemed without money."
- 4 For thus says the Lord God:
"My people went down at first into Egypt to live there.
Afterwards the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.
- 5 Now therefore, what have I here",
says the LORD,
"that my people are taken away for nothing?
Those who rule over them make them
wail," says the LORD,
"and my name continually every day is blasphemed.
- 6 Therefore my people will know my name;
therefore in that day they will know that I am the one who speaks.
See, it is I."
- 7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the one who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace, who brings good tidings of good things,
who proclaims salvation,
who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!"
- 8 Your watchmen will raise their voices;
with their voices they will sing together,
- for when the LORD restores Zion they will see it with their own eyes.
- 9 Break forth into joy, sing together,
you waste places of Jerusalem!
For the LORD has comforted his people,
he has redeemed Jerusalem.
- 10 The LORD has bared his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations;
and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.
- 11 Depart! Depart! Go out from there!
Do not touch any unclean thing!
Go out of the midst of her!
Be clean, you who carry the vessels
of the LORD.
- 12 For you will not go out with haste,
or leave like fugitives,
for the LORD will go in front of you,
and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.
- 13 "See, my servant will act wisely.
He will be exalted and lifted up and be very high.
- 14 Just as many were astonished at you,
so his appearance was disfigured
more than any man,
and his form more than the sons of men.
- 15 So he will sprinkle many nations.
Kings will shut their mouths at him,

these words – 35:8; Ps 15:1-5; Ps 24:3-5; Rev 21:27; 22:15.

52:3 The Lord received nothing by bringing enemies to capture His city – nothing but grief and pain. It would cost Him no money to free the people and bring them back to Jerusalem. But what it cost God to free His people from sin and bring them back to Himself is seen in the next chapter. See also 1 Pet 1:18,19.

52:4 "Egypt" – Gen 46:6; Ex 1:1-14.
"Assyrian" – 8:5-8; 10:5,6.

52:5 "Now" – the Lord may be referring to the Babylonian captivity or to a literal captivity long after that.

"Blasphemed" – Rom 2:24. Israel's enemies, because they defeated and crushed them, would think the God of Israel was a weak God unable to help them (compare 37:23,24. See also Ezek 36:20-23). Let us learn that anyone who professes to be a worshiper of the true God and lives a wicked life is bringing dishonor to God's name.

52:6 "Will know my name" – to know God's name here means to know His nature and attributes, to know God Himself. Israel shall enter into this knowledge.

52:7 "Good tidings" – 40:9. Here the good news is that God reveals His sovereignty and power in releasing Zion from captivity to her enemies and reigns in their midst (9:7; 32:1; 33:17). Spiritual application – Rom 10:5; Eph 6:15. The good news is a proclamation of three things – peace with God, salvation, and God's kingdom among men.

52:9 See 40:1; 44:23; 48:20; 49:13.

52:10 "His holy arm" – 51:5.

"Ends of the earth" – 40:5.

52:11,12 Meaning for Israel in captivity in Babylon – leave Babylon, bearing the vessels for the temple (Ezra 1:7-11), and taking nothing from that accursed city, such as idols, that would be unclean. There is also a meaning in this for those who are in the figurative "Babylon" at the end of this age (Rev 18:4), and always a spiritual application to the Church of the New Testament (2 Cor 6:14-18).

52:12 Verse 7.

52:13 "Will act wisely" – or, possibly, "will prosper."

52:13-15 The servant of God, the Lord Jesus, is brought into view again (see 42:1-4; 49:5-7; 50:4-9). It is through Him alone that the glorious events of this chapter have their fulfillment. Verse 14 describes what would happen to Him at the hands of men (compare 50:6; Ps 22:6-18). Verse 13 describes His behavior and how God exalted Him (see Acts 2:32,33; 3:13; Eph 1:20-23; Phil 2:9-11). Verse 15 states what He would do after God exalted Him.

"Sprinkle" (v 15) – Moses, the mediator of the old covenant, sprinkled others to confirm the covenant with them (Ex 24:7,8).

for they will see what they had not been told,
and consider what they had not heard.”

53 Who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD
been revealed?

2 For he will grow up before him like a tender plant,
and like a root out of dry ground.
He has no striking form or majesty,
and when we see him,
there is no beauty that we should desire him.

Sprinkling signified also consecration and purification (Ex 29:21; Lev 8:30; Num 8:5-7). Three elements were used in sprinkling – blood, oil and water. They speak of atonement, cleansing from sin, and the giving of the Holy Spirit and water of life. Moses sprinkled individuals or one nation – Israel. Jesus sprinkles many nations, signifying that they will receive the forgiveness of sins and the Holy Spirit.

“Shut their mouths” – in astonishment, or as in Job 40:4,5; Rom 3:19. The last part of v 15 is quoted in Rom 15:21. The work of sprinkling is now going on. But it is far from being finished yet.

53:1 Here is one of the most wonderful chapters in the Bible. It sets forth the sufferings and death of Christ for sinners 700 years before He came into the world. Compare psalm 22. This verse speaks of the unbelief of Israel concerning the message of the Messiah (John 12:38; Rom 10:16). This message in part appears in the last 3 verses of chapter 52.

“Arm of the LORD” – the arm of Jehovah mightily at work was revealed in the birth, life, death, and resurrection of the Lord Jesus, but among the Jews only a few acknowledged that it was the arm of the Lord at work (see Matt 12:24; John 8:48).

“Revealed” – most of the verbs in this chapter are in the past tense, but from the point of view of Isaiah’s day the chapter describes events far in the future. It is as though Isaiah were transported forward in time to see these events as history. See note at 55:10,11. God knows the end from the beginning and can reveal events in the future as though they had already happened – so certain is the fulfillment of all that He reveals.

53:2 “Plant”, “root” – 11:1. Several times in the prophets the Messiah is called a Branch, etc. Observe that He grew up in God’s presence. His life from beginning to end was totally God-oriented. Dry ground probably signifies the barren spiritual condition of the people of Israel.

“No beauty” – the Lord Jesus came as a poor man, as a servant, as a person of no reputation (Mark 6:3; Luke 9:58; John 9:28,29; Phil 2:7). He did not come with the pomp and splendor of a royal house.

3 He is despised and rejected by men,
a man of sorrows,
and acquainted with grief.
And we hid, as it were, our faces from him.
He was despised, and we did not esteem him.
4 Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows.
Yet we considered him stricken,
smitten by God, and afflicted.
5 But he was wounded for our transgressions,
he was bruised for our wicked deeds;
the chastisement for our peace was on him,
and by his wounds we are healed.

He had no appearance of a king. Here Isaiah experiences the feelings that most Jews in Christ’s day would have about Christ. They were expecting in the Messiah a mighty conqueror who would deliver them from the yoke of Rome. See Luke 9:11. But Jesus came not like Solomon in his glory, but like Jeremiah in tears. Men are not attracted by poverty, and sorrow. They prefer pomp and outward show.

53:3 “Despised” – 49:7; Ps 22:6; John 15:24.

“Rejected” – Matt 26:66; 27:21,22; John 1:11; 19:15,16; Acts 3:13,14.

“Sorrows”, “Grief” – Ps 69:7-12,19-21; Luke 12:50; 19:41; John 11:35. We read in the Gospels that Jesus wept, but never that He laughed. Being despised, insulted and rejected by those you are trying to help and save does not produce laughter. Besides this the Lord Jesus felt the awful weight of people’s guilt and misery.

“Hid” – many treated Him as if He were an awful sight they could not bear to look at.

“Did not esteem him” – while He lived on earth the leaders, the people, and usually even His disciples failed to see His true greatness, His divine qualities. See references at v 2.

53:4 “Griefs” – the Hebrew also means “infirmities.”

“Carried” – in Matt 8:17 this is said to mean His ministry of healing. But why then does this not say that He healed our infirmities? Possibly to indicate that He did more than heal them – He experienced them like a burden, He was one with sufferers in their pain. See Matt 9:36. Compassion means to “suffer with.” Let us understand too that all of Jesus’ sufferings were as our substitute, our representative. He was in our place. (See 63:9. Compare Paul’s words in 2 Cor 11:28,29).

“Smitten by God” – when Jesus was on earth many in Israel thought that prosperity was a sign of God’s favor. Judging from this verse, they assumed that the poverty, sorrows, and sufferings of Christ were God’s punishment on Him.

53:5 “Wounded” – Ps 22:16; John 19:18,34; Zech 12:10. The Hebrew word indicates wounded to death by sharp instru-

- 6 All we like sheep have gone astray;
each one of us has turned to his own way;
and the LORD has laid on him the wickedness of us all.
- 7 He was oppressed and he was afflicted,
but he did not open his mouth.
He was brought like a lamb to the slaughter,
and as a sheep before her shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
- 8 He was taken from prison and from judgment;
and who will declare his generation?
For he was cut off from the land of the living.

- For the transgression of my people he was struck.
- 9 And he made his grave with the wicked,
and with the rich at his death,
though he had done no violence,
and no deceit was in his mouth.
- 10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him.
He put him to grief.
When you make his soul an offering for sin,
he will see his offspring,
he will prolong his days,
and the pleasure of the LORD will ments, so it could be translated "pierced." Again it is emphasized that all Jesus' sufferings were as our substitute, in our place. He endured what we deserve to endure. Our sins were the reason He had to be pierced and crushed. The word "bruised" suggests the weight of the sins of the whole world that were laid on Him (John 1:29; 2 Cor 5:21; 1 Pet 2:24). The Hebrew word also means "crushed" and "broken."

"Chastisement" – or "punishment." Punishment that brings us peace means that punishment which pays for our sins, which makes it possible for us to be reconciled to God. There can be no peace with God, no peace of God for sinners until sin is removed. The Lord Jesus endured the punishment that our sins deserve. God punished Him in our place. This was to reconcile us to God and bring us peace (2 Cor 5:18-21; Eph 2:13-18; 1 Pet 3:18).

"Healed" – this includes forgiveness but is more than forgiveness. It means also to die to sins and live for righteousness, to come to the Good Shepherd and live under His guidance (1 Pet 2:24,25). It will eventually mean being made sinless, and perfect like the Lord Jesus (Rom 8:29; 1 Cor 15:49; 2 Cor 3:18; Phil 3:21; 1 John 3:2). The wounding to death of the Lord Jesus have made all this possible.

53:6 Going astray from God and turning to one's own way is the sin that is the root of all other sins, and all men since Adam have been guilty of it – Gen 3:6 (Rom 5:12); Ps 58:3; 95:10; 119:67,176; Jer 2:13; Rom 3:12; 1 Pet 2:25. Going astray is described as iniquity in the next sentence. All of our iniquities, including going astray, were caused to fall on Christ (compare Lev 16:20-22).

53:7 Verses 3-6 describe Christ's sufferings. This verse speaks of how patiently He endured them. He did not murmur or complain or defend Himself (Matt 27:12-14; Mark 14:60,61; 15:5; Luke 23:8,9; John 19:8-10; 1 Pet 2:21-23).

"Like a lamb" – Ex 12:3-7; Lev 1:10-13; John 1:29,36; Rev 5:6,12.

53:8 "Prison" or "arrest" – after He was arrested and judgment was passed on Him He was taken away to the cross.

"And who will declare his generation?" – in some translations this sentence is linked with the following words like this: "And as for His generation, who considered that He was cut off out of the land of the living for the transgression of my people to whom the stroke was due?" (NASB). This translation is as possible as the one in the text above.

"Struck" – see all the words in this chapter which describe the sufferings and death of Christ – "struck", "stricken", "bruised", "wounded", "oppressed", "afflicted", "slaughter", "cut off."

53:9 "Made his grave" – His enemies no doubt intended that the dead body of Christ should be treated as the corpses of crucified criminals were treated – cast into a common grave. But another decision was made which resulted in His burial in a rich man's tomb (see Matt 27:57-60).

"No violence and no deceit" – an indication of the pure, meek, and sinless character of the Lord Jesus. Apart from Him there has been at least some deceit found in the mouth of every person born into the world (Ps 12:2; Jer 9:7,8; 17:9; Rom 3:13; etc). 53:10 From this verse we see that those who afflicted and killed the Lord Jesus were instruments in God's hands. Men made Him suffer and put Him to death, but God was behind them working out His will. See Acts 2:23; 4:27,28; etc. God was thus working through the actions of wicked men in order to make Christ a guilt offering for the sins of men (see Lev 5:14,15; Rom 3:25; 8:3; 2 Cor 5:21; Heb 9:12-14; 10:14; 1 John 2:2,4,10). This "pleased" Him, not, of course, in the sense of being happy at Christ's sufferings, but because it was the one way to save human beings. And in all this Christ was not an unwilling victim, but put His Father's will above all else (Matt 26:39; John 10:17,18; Heb 10:5-7).

"Prolong his days" – how can it be said He would prolong His days just after it is said that He was put to death and buried? The answer is in His resurrection from the dead. He thus prolongs His days forever (Rev 1:18; 9:7; Ps 45:6; 72:5; Heb 1:10-12; 13:8). This explains how He can "see His offspring" – His spiritual children born by His Spirit. He can have these "offspring" only because He was made a guilt offering.

"Will prosper in his hand" – He fully accomplished God's will while He was on earth (John 17:4). He will continue to fully accomplish it now that He is in heaven prosper in his hand.

11 He will see the travail of his soul,
and will be satisfied.

By his knowledge my righteous servant
will justify many,
for he will bear their wicked deeds.

12 Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great,
and he will divide the plunder with the strong,
because he poured out his soul to death,
and he was numbered with the transgressors,

and he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

54 "Sing, O barren one,
you who have not borne a child!
Break forth into singing,
and shout aloud,
you who have not travailed with child!
For the children of the desolate one are more than the children of the married woman," says the LORD.

(Eph 1:9,10; Isa 42:1-4; Acts 1:1,2; 2:33; Matt 28:18; John 17:2; Col 1:29). The accomplishing of the will of God could not be in better hands. He will successfully complete all that God has given Him to do just as He did in His life and death on earth.

53:11 In this verse and the next Jehovah Himself is speaking about the Messiah. "He will see of the travail of His soul, and will be satisfied" – there will be great results from Christ's suffering, enough to fill even His large expectations. These results are the glory of God and a multitude of people forever saved and rejoicing (as appears from the rest of the verse).

"His knowledge" – this may mean the knowledge that people will have of Him as in John 17:3. This knowledge involves learning of Him, trusting Him, experiencing Him. Or it may mean the knowledge that the Messiah has of the true God and of people and of the meaning of His sacrifice for them.

"Servant" – 42:1-7; etc. His righteousness is emphasized here for it is only because He is righteous and righteously bore men's sins and paid the full penalty for them that He is able to give righteousness to others.

"Justify" – notes at Rom 3:24,26,28; 4:25; 5:1; 10:10; 1 Cor 6:11; Gal 2:16; Titus 3:7.

"Many" – not every human being; only those who believe in Him. Still there will be an innumerable multitude of those from every nation on earth (Rev 7:9,10; etc).

53:12 Dividing spoils among the great and with the strong suggests a battle and victory and plunder from the battle. This verse indicates that the preceding verses describe warfare. In His suffering and death the Messiah was fighting for His people against their enemies (Satan and his followers). Compare Col 2:15; Heb 2:14,15; etc. The "great" and the "strong" are those called His offspring in v 10, the justified in v 11, many nations in 52:15. On "strong" compare Matt 11:12. They will be great and strong because He makes them so.

"Divide" – see Rom 8:17.

"Plunder" – what is this plunder? All that is taken away from Satan's control – earth redeemed, restored, made new, and everything in it.

"Death" – this is the reason and the only reason why there is "plunder" to share and why He and others will share in it.

"Numbered with the transgressors" – Mark

15:28. This probably means that He was regarded as one of them.

"Bore the sins of many" – repeated in different words in vs 5,6,8,10,11.

"Intercession for the transgressors" – one of Christ's works before the cross (John chapter 17), on the cross (Luke 23:34), and throughout this age (Rom 8:34; Heb 7:25; 1 John 2:1). By intercession He makes sure that His people will share His plunder with Him. But here the intercession may refer primarily to the event on the cross.

54:1 This verse raises some questions that need to be answered if we wish to interpret this chapter correctly. Who is the "barren one," the "desolate one"? Who is she who has a husband? What was Paul trying to show by quoting this verse in Gal 4:27? The answers to these questions are a bit complicated.

First, the barren and desolate one is Jerusalem or Mount Zion as representing the nation of Israel. We judge this by the context of chapters 49-52 (see 49:14,19-21; 51:17; 52:1) and by vs 6-8 of this chapter. This prophecy of the "barren" one looks far into the future from Isaiah's day (as do most of the prophecies of chapters 40-66).

Second, she "who has a husband" is also Jerusalem representing the nation Israel. The husband was none other than Jehovah God Himself (v 5; 50:1; Jer 3:14). This means that sometime after the giving of this prophecy, Israel, after being forsaken for a while, will be redeemed and made new and will become far more fruitful than the old Israel.

Third, in quoting this verse Paul was showing the difference between law and grace. The nation Israel under the law speaks of bondage and rejection. Israel under grace will mean freedom, acceptance, and fruitfulness. The difference is between the two covenants – the old given through Moses, the new given through Christ. The writer of these notes does not believe that Paul is teaching in Galatians (or anywhere) that the Church of the New Testament is the new Israel. He is teaching that now whether we are Jews or Gentiles we must be saved in the same way, the way of grace, and that the Jerusalem in heaven, God's holy city, is the mother of all believers. In this chapter and in Isaiah as a whole we see that eventually the nation Israel, the Jewish people, will be brought back to God, brought

- 2 "Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch out the curtains
of your dwelling places.
Do not spare. Lengthen your ropes, and strengthen your stakes.
- 3 For you will spread out to the right and to the left,
and your offspring will inherit the Gentiles, and cause the desolate cities to be inhabited.
- 4 Do not fear, for you will not be put to shame, nor be disgraced, for you will not be humiliated.
For you will forget the shame of your youth, and will no longer remember the reproach of your widowhood.
- 5 For your Maker is your husband.
The LORD of hosts is his name.
And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
He will be called the God of the whole earth.
- 6 For the LORD has called you,
a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit,

- and a youthful wife when you were rejected, says your God.
- 7 For a brief moment I have forsaken you,
but with great mercies I will gather you.
- 8 With a little wrath I hid my face
from you for a moment, but with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you,
says the LORD your Redeemer.
- 9 For this is like the waters of Noah to me;
for as I swore that the waters of Noah would not again flood the earth, so I have sworn that I would not be angry with you again, or rebuke you.
- 10 For the mountains will depart,
and the hills be removed,
but my kindness will not depart from you,
nor will my covenant of peace be removed,
says the LORD who has mercy on you.
- 11 "O you afflicted, tossed with a tempest,
and not comforted,

into all the blessings of the new covenant; that she will be like a wife restored, and will become far more fruitful than she was during the long ages of the Old Testament.

"Break forth into singing" – the word is given as a prophecy to that future new Israel who had not brought forth a child in Isaiah's day because she did not yet exist as the new Israel. It is no coincidence that this instruction to Israel to sing comes immediately after chapter 53. In what Christ did on the cross there is the foundation not only for the salvation of individual believers now, but for the making of that future new Israel.

54:2,3 Here is a prophecy that the future new Israel will have more territory and more power than ever before. See 26:1,15; 33:20-24. Compare 2:1-3; etc. Is there no spiritual application to the New Testament Church? We may well think so. It is similar to Matt 28:19,20; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:45-48; Acts 1:8.

"Gentiles" – non-Jewish peoples.

54:4-8 For an understanding of these verses an understanding of Rom 7:1-6 and Rom 11:11-29 is necessary. See those portions with their notes.

54:4 "Shame of your youth" – in those days barrenness (v 1) was considered shameful, a lack of God's blessing.

"Widowhood" – the nation for centuries has been like a woman whose husband is dead. But all that will change.

54:5,6 Jehovah was husband to Israel under the law, but because of her sin, He rejected her as a nation. The husband was as though dead to her. Israel in the future will be "remarried" to Jehovah (see Hosea chapter 2; 3:5). Eventually God will restore the nation to Himself, not as Lawgiver, but as Maker and Redeemer. It is very difficult to see how verses like these can possibly refer to the Church of the New Testament which is Christ's body. But as elsewhere in Isaiah, after making the proper interpretation of these verses, we can see spiritual truth that may apply to believers now. Since God Himself is our "husband", how fruitful we should be in proclaiming the Gospel and bringing others to experience the new birth! "God of the whole earth" – compare Ps 47:2.

54:7 "Moment" – brief compared with the eternal salvation Israel will enjoy. Compare v 8; Rom 8:18; 2 Cor 4:17; 2 Pet 3:8. Observe that the same nation that was God's chosen people and abandoned by God, will be brought back to God. Can this possibly refer to any nation or people other than Israel?

"Great mercies" – v 8,10; 14:1; 49:10. This is an attribute of God He loves to display (Ex 34:5-7; etc).

54:8 "Wrath" – 9:12,17,21; 60:10; 2 Chron 36:15,16; John 3:36. Notes on God's wrath at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7,11; etc.

"Redeemer" – note at Ps 78:35.

54:9 The same nation that was an object of His anger will no longer (after He restores them in the future) taste of it again.

"Noah" – Gen 9:8-11. In this there is a spiritual application for believers now – Rom 5:9; 1 Thess 1:10; 5:9. True believers in Christ, born of God's Spirit, are forever delivered from God's condemning wrath.

54:10 "Covenant of peace" – 53:5; 55:3; Jer 31:31-37; 33:20,21; Eph 2:17,18. The new covenant was actually made with representatives of the nation Israel, and now people of other nations participate in it because they are brought into the olive tree which is Israel (Matt 26:28; Heb 8:7,8; Rom 11:16-24).

54:11,12 These gems indicate something of the future glory of Jerusalem.

- see, I will lay your stones with fair colours, and lay your foundations with sapphires.
- 12 And I will make your battlements of rubies, and your gates of crystal, and all your walls of precious stones.
- 13 And all your children will be taught by
the LORD,
and great will be the peace of your children.
- 14 In righteousness you will be established.
You will be far from oppression,
and you will not fear;
and far from terror, for it will not come near you.
- 15 See, they will surely attack,
but it will not be from me;
and whosoever attacks you will fall for your sake.
- 16 See, I have created the blacksmith who blows the coals in the fire,
and who brings out an instrument for his work;
and I have created the destroyer to produce ruin.
- 17 No weapon that is formed against you
will prosper;
and you will condemn every tongue

that rises against you in judgment.
This is the heritage of the servants of
the LORD,
and their righteousness is from me,"
says the LORD.

- 55 "Ho, everyone who is thirsty,
come to the waters;
and he who has no money, come,
buy and eat;
yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.
- 2 Why do you spend money for what is not bread?
and your labour for what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me,
and eat what is good,
and let your soul delight itself in abundance.
- 3 Turn your ear and come to me.
Hear, and your soul will live,
and I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
the sure mercies of David.
- 4 See, I have given him as a witness to the people,

54:13 "Taught by the LORD" – 30:19-21;
Jer 31:34. This is something all of us need to experience now. See Psalm 25:4,5.

"Peace" – 9:7; 66:12.
54:14 "Righteousness" – 1:26; 4:3; 26:2;
58:8; 62:2.

"Oppression", "terror" – 9:4; 14:34;
33:17-19; Zeph 3:15; Zech 9:8.

54:15-17 Jerusalem (and the nation it represents) will be absolutely secure and victorious. After their final restoration God will never again send enemies against them
as He did before.

54:16 "I have" – 10:15; Jer 51:1,11,20;
Rev 17:16,17.

54:17 Whether we think the people addressed in this chapter (and similar chapters) in Isaiah means a future new nation of Israel or the present Church of the New Testament has no bearing on the spiritual lessons and practical applications of truth we can learn from them. We may certainly apply a verse like this to ourselves now as believers.

"No weapon. . . will prosper" – Matt 16:18;
Rom 8:37; 1 Cor 15:57; Heb 13:6.

"Their righteousness is from me" – 53:11; Acts 13:38,39; Rom 8:33; 1 Cor
1:30; 2 Cor 5:21.

55:1-13 Here is a great chapter full of grace and sweet promises to all who will trust in Christ, whether now or in some future time, whether Jews or Gentiles.

55:1 "Thirsty" – 44:3; Ps 107:9; John
7:37; Rev 21:6; 22:17.

"Come to the waters" – these waters signifies Christ and the Holy Spirit (John 7:38,39. See Jer 2:13 and 17:13 where the Lord says that He Himself is the "spring of living water"). What is required to obtain the water of eternal life is simply to come to Christ and drink.

"Buy" – not with money, not with offerings, not with good deeds – we cannot buy the benefits of the gospel of Christ with things like these. We "buy" from Him by coming to Him in faith and giving Him our hearts. Compare Rev 3:18.

"Wine and milk" – these signify other abundant blessings of the Gospel.

"Cost" – the blessing of the Gospel are freely given by God's grace (Rom 3:24; 6:23; Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:3-7). The cost of it all was paid by Christ (chapter 53).

55:2 "Why?" – men continually spend money and labor for that which cannot permanently satisfy. Compare Eccl 1:2; 2:11; Jer 2:13. The world with its pleasures, works, and religions leave men at last empty and lost (1 John 2:16,17).

"Listen" – God wants us to enjoy something fully satisfying. The Gospel of Christ is like a feast of good things, the richest of fare (25:6; Ps 22:26; Matt 22:2; Luke 14:15,16; John 6:27).

55:3 "Your soul will live" – the Gospel brings new, spiritual life to those who hear and come (John 5:24; 20:31).

"Everlasting covenant" – God promised
David a royal line that would go on forever (2 Sam 7:14-16). This will be fulfilled by God's faithful love in the Lord Jesus. In Isaiah we often see Him in prophecy as king (9:6,7; 11:1-9; 32:1-5; 33:17). See also Ps 2:6-9;
45:6; 72:5-11; 89:28,29,35-37; Acts 13:34.

55:4 "I have given him" – the "him" refers

- a leader and commander to the people.
- 5 See, you will call a nation that you do not know, and nations that did not know you will run to you because of the LORD your God, and the Holy One of Israel; for he has glorified you."
- 6 Seek the LORD while he may be found, call to him while he is near.
- 7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return to the LORD, and he will have mercy on him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
- 8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not my ways," says the LORD.
- 9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- 10 For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and does not return there,

- but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater,
- 11 So will my word be that goes out from my mouth; it will not return to me void, but it will accomplish what I please, and it will succeed in the thing I send it to do.
- 12 For you will go out with joy, and be led forth with peace. The mountains and the hills will break out in front of you into singing, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.
- 13 Instead of the thorn the fir tree will come up, and instead of the briar the myrtle will come up; and it will be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that will not be cut off."

56 Thus says the LORD, "Preserve justice, and do the right; to David, mentioned in the preceding verse. He may here represent the Son of David, the Lord Jesus. Compare Ezek 37:24,25; Hos 3:5.

55:5 "You will call" – who is meant here? Possibly the Messiah, but more likely the nation Israel, redeemed, restored, made new; or possibly Israel together with the Messiah their king (2:2,3; 44:23; 60:2,3; 66:18-21; Jer 3:17; Zech 14:16).

55:6 "Seek" – Deut 4:29; Jer 29:13,14; Hos 3:5; Amos 5:8; Matt 7:7,8.

"While he may be found" – Ps 32:6; 49:8. "Call" – Ps 50:15; Isa 65:24; Jer 33:3; Rom 10:12,13.

55:7 2 Chron 7:14; Prov 28:13; Ezek 18:27,28. A striking example of this is in 2 Chron 33:1-20.

"Thoughts" – the wicked must forsake evil inwardly as well as outwardly. Men's inner thoughts are the source of their evil actions (Gen 6:5; 8:21; Matt 5:28; 15:19; 2 Cor 10:5). We must repent of our thoughts as well as our deeds.

"Pardon" – 43:25; 44:22; 53:5; Mic 7:18,19; Eph 1:7; 1 John 1:9.

55:8 It is not like fallen men to pardon those who sin against them. Their thoughts do not delight in showing mercy to others.

55:9 Ps 145:3; Rom 11:33-36. Our thoughts can't even begin to understand all God has made, let alone the depths in God Himself. It is not surprising that books like this prophecy of Isaiah, inspired by God and surging with His thoughts and plans, should in places seem to us mysterious and hard to understand.

55:10,11 Just as surely as the rain and snow

fulfill God's purposes for which they were designed so will God's Word. God's Word came from His mouth into the mouths of His prophets and from there out into the world working God's will (compare 44:26; 46:10; Jer 1:9,10; 25:15-17; Ezek 37:9,10; Matt 4:4; John 6:63). God saying something makes it absolutely certain (for an example of this see Genesis chapter 1). This is why prophecies of the future in God's word may use past tenses of the verbs. When they were uttered it was as if they were fulfilled, though their actual fulfillment might have been many hundreds of years later.

55:12,13 This is one of the purposes God will accomplish. It is as good as done because God has said it. The picture is Israel redeemed and the land blessed and fruitful – 35:1,2,10; 41:18-20; 44:23; 52:9. Compare Ps 96:11-13; 98:7-9. Joy, peace and song are natural elements of the kingdom of God in all ages (Rom 14:7).

"For a name" – see Jer 33:4-9. The redemption and restoration of Israel will bring eternal glory to God. It will be a marvelous display of grace, love, and faithfulness to His Word.

56:1 God here speaks in general terms of some great event that was coming. What the event means specifically and when it would take place are not at all clear. Some think this revelation of God's salvation and righteousness refers to His righteous rescue of Israel from Babylon in 538 BC (compare 41:2; 44:28; 45:1-7). Others think it refers to the first coming of the Lord Jesus when salvation and righteousness were

- for my salvation is about to come, and my righteousness is ready to be revealed.
- 2 Blessed is the man who does this,
and the son of a man who lays hold of it,
who keeps the Sabbath from polluting it,
and keeps his hand from doing any evil.
- 3 Do not let the son of a foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying,
'The LORD has utterly separated me
from his people';
nor let the eunuch say,
'Here I am, a dry tree.'
- 4 For thus says the LORD to the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths,
and choose the things that please me,
and take hold of my covenant:
- 5 To them I will give a place in my house
and within my walls,
and a name better than that of sons
and of daughters.
I will give them an everlasting name
that will not be cut off.
- 6 And as for the sons of a foreigner, who join themselves to the LORD to serve him,
and to love the name of the LORD,
to be his servants,
- every one who keeps the Sabbath
from polluting it,
and takes hold of my covenant,
7 Them I will bring to my holy mountain,
and make them joyful in my house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar;
for my house will be called a house of prayer for all people."
- 8 The Lord God who gathers the exiles of Israel says:
"I will gather still others to him,
besides those who are gathered to him."
- 9 All you beasts of the field, come to devour,
all you beasts in the forest.
- 10 His watchmen are blind.
They are all ignorant;
they are all dumb dogs;
they cannot bark, sleeping, lying down,
loving to slumber.
- 11 Yes, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough,
and they are shepherds who cannot understand.
They all look to their own way,
every one for his gain, from his own border.
- 12 "Come," they say, "I will bring wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink.

revealed in a marvelous way. Still others think it may refer to the second coming of Christ when salvation and righteousness will be revealed and established in all the earth (11:3-9; 32:1-5). In any case the event is used as a basis of appeal to the people in Isaiah's day to live righteous lives. Compare 2 Pet 3:11-14.

56:2 "Sabbath" – Jer 17:19-27. The Sabbath was a sign of the old covenant God made with Israel (Ex 31:12-18). It was a part of the law of Moses. Here it represents the whole law that Israel was to keep. Believers now under the new covenant are not under the law and there is no command from God anywhere in the New Testament that Christians should keep the Sabbath. It is, in fact, the only one of the ten commandments not repeated to Christians as a principle of behavior. But the principle of one day (whatever the day may be) set apart for rest and worship is certainly of great benefit when practiced. Christians usually set apart Sunday for this purpose when it is possible to do so. See Acts 20:7; 1 Cor 16:2; Rev 1:10.

56:3 No non-Jew would ever dream of saying such a thing now under the new covenant. But in those days, because of verses like Deut 23:3,7,8 and because of the teaching that Israel was a special people, separate from all others, some foreigners might well have thought like this.

"Eunuch" – Deut 23:1. Here they probably represent all who had some physical defect (see Lev 21:16-23).

56:4-7 A promise which means that God will not exclude anyone from His temple and His fellowship if they bind themselves to Him and keep His covenant. The mention of the Sabbath in verse 6 indicates that the old covenant is meant. The foreigners would be Jewish proselytes (like Cornelius – Acts chapter 10). "Burnt offerings" and sacrifices (v 7) also suggest the old covenant. They are unnecessary under the new covenant. The Lord Jesus quoted the last part of v 7 (Mark 11:17).

56:8 "Gathers" – 11:10-16.

"Others" – many more "foreigners" would be gathered to Israel than the comparatively few proselytes of the past (2:2,3; 49:5,6; 55:5; 60:3; Zech 8:2; John 10:16; Rom 11:11-18).

56:9-12 Verse 9 indicates a coming danger to Israel. Sometimes in the Bible wicked nations are called beasts – lion in Jer 4:7; beasts in Daniel chapters 7 and 8. The leaders, priests and prophets of Israel were all blind and corrupt. Even a dog knows to bark at danger, but these watchmen could bark only for more food for themselves (v 11).

"Shepherds who cannot understand" – Jer 23:1; Ezek 34:1-6.

"Own way" – 53:6.

"His gain" – 57:17; Jer 8:10; 22:17; Ezek 13:19; Mic 3:11; Eph 5:5; 1 Tim 6:9,10.

And tomorrow will be like today,
and even more so."

- 57 The righteous perishes, and no man takes it to heart;
and merciful men are taken away,
no one understanding that the righteous is taken away from evil.
- 2 He will enter into peace.
They will rest in their beds,
each one having walked in his uprightness.
- 3 "But come here, you sons of the sorceress, the offspring of the adulterer and the prostitute.
- 4 At whom do you mock?
At whom do you make a wide mouth,
and stick out the tongue?
Are you not children of transgression,
descendants of falsehood,
- 5 Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree,
slaying the children in the valleys,
under the clefts of the rocks?
- 6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion.
They, they are your lot.
To them you have poured out a drink offering,
you have offered a grain offering.
Should I relent concerning these things?
- 7 On a lofty and high mountain you have made your bed;
there you went up to offer sacrifice.

- 8 Also behind the doors and the door posts you have set up your signs.
Away from me you have uncovered yourself, and have gone up;
you have made your bed wide,
and made a covenant with those idols ;
you loved their bed where you saw it.
- 9 And you went to the king with ointment,
and increased your perfumes,
and sent your messengers far away,
and debased yourself even to hell.
- 10 You were wearied by the length of your road,
but you did not say, 'There is no hope'.
You found your strength revived,
therefore you were not grieved.
- 11 And of whom have you been afraid
or feared,
that you have lied and have not remembered me,
or taken it to your heart?
Is it because I have kept silent that you did not fear me?
- 12 I will declare your righteousness,
and your works;
but they will not profit you.
- 13 When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you!
But the wind will carry them all away.
A breath will take them away.
But the one who puts his trust in me
will possess the land,
and will inherit my holy mountain.

57:1,2 God in mercy took away some of the righteous by death before a time of wrath and judgment. But the wicked who remained did not understand what was happening. They may even have thought that their death was God's judgment on them.

"Peace" – see v 21.

"Rest" – Dan 12:13; Rev 14:13.

57:3,4 "You sons of the sorceress" – this means the wicked who made up most of the nation as described in 1:2-4,10-17. No doubt they thought they were God's children. Compare Matt 3:7-9; 12:34; 23:33.

"The adulterer" – from what follows it is probable that spiritual adultery is in view (see Jer 2:2; 3:14; 31:32; Ezekiel chapters 16 and 23).

"You mock" – 28:9,14. The wicked in Israel mocked and sneered at all the true prophets of God.

57:5 "Every green tree" – where idols were placed.

"Slaying the children" – Lev 18:21; Deut 18:10; Ps 106:37,38; Ezek 16:20.

57:6 "Should I relent" – Jer 5:7-9,29; 9:9.

57:7 "Your bed" – suggests spiritual adultery (v 3).

"Offer sacrifice" – at shrines on the mountains and hills (Jer 3:6; Ezek 16:16; 22:9).

57:8 "Signs" – some symbols to remind them of the gods they went after.

"Loved" – worldly allies with their gods, and idols of other nations is what they loved (Jer 3:2; Ezek 16:26; 23:7).

57:9 "To the king" – this could be translated "to Molech." Molech means king, but he was also a false god. See Lev 18:21; 1 Kings 11:7; Jer 32:35. But probably this verse indicates the alliances with foreign powers Israel frequently tried to make.

"Hell" – in Hebrew "Sheol", world of the dead. Compare 28:15.

57:10 They thought that foreign alliances had brought them strength. They were hopelessly wrong.

57:11 They feared foreign powers, and mere men (51:12,13).

"Silent" – 42:14; Eccl 8:11.

"Fear me" – notes at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

57:12 "Righteousness" – 58:2,3; 64:6.

57:13 44:17; Jud 10:13,14. This is the nature of man. He will do what he pleases without God, and when trouble comes cry to God for help.

"Land" – 49:8; Ps 25:12,13; 37:9,22.

57:14-19 Again God speaks through the prophet about the future.

- 14 And it will be said:
 'Raise it up, raise it up!
 Prepare the way!
 Take away the stumbling block from my people's path.'
- 15 "For thus says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:
 I dwell in the high and holy place,
 and with him who is contrite
 and humble in spirit,
 to revive the spirit of the humble,
 and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.
- 16 For I will not contend forever,
 and I will not always be angry;
 for the spirit would grow faint before me,
 and the souls which I have made.
- 17 For the sin of his covetousness
 I was angry, and struck him.
 I hid myself, and was angry, and he went on turning back in the way of his heart.
- 18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him.
 I will also lead him, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners.
- 19 I create the fruit of the lips:
 Peace, peace to the one who is far away,
 and to the one who is near,

- says the Lord;
 and I will heal him.
- 20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt."
- 21 "There is no peace", says my God,
 "for the wicked."

- 58 "Shout aloud! Do not spare!
 Lift up your voice like a trumpet, and declare to my people their transgression,
 and to the house of Jacob their sins.
- 2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways,
 as if it were a nation that acts in
 righteousness,
 and has not forsaken the ordinance of their God.
 They ask me for just decisions.
 They take delight in approaching God.
- 3 'Why have we fasted,' they say,
 'And you have not seen it?'
Why have we afflicted our soul,
 and you have paid no attention?'
 Look, on your day of fasting you find pleasure, and exploit all your labourers.
- 4 Look, you fast for strife and debate,
 and to strike with the fist of wickedness.

57:14 "Way" – the way for their unimpeded return (11:16; 35:8-10; 62:10).

57:15 "High and lofty One" – 6:1; 52:13. "Holy" – note at Lev 20:7.

"Contrite" – or "crushed" – "humble" – the most high God loves the most lowly of men. He lives in the highest heaven and in the humblest heart, the heart that turns from sin and feels crushed because of its sin and trembles at His Word (66:2; Ps 51:17; Matt 5:3,4). Note on God's dwelling with men at Ex 25:8. He resists those who think they are high and mighty – 2:10-18; 1 Pet 5:5,6. "Revive" – Ps 85:6; 38:7; Hab 3:2. New spiritual life will come to those who humble themselves before God and accept His rule in their lives.

57:16 He disputes with men now (3:13,14; Ps 50:21; etc), and is angry with their sin – John 3:36; Rom 1:18; Eph 5:6; Rev 19:15. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18; etc. He will not be angry with every single individual forever. If He were to be, no one could ever have strength to stand before Him (54:9; Ps 103:9-14; Jer 3:12).

57:17-19 These verses look forward to the future restoration of the nation Israel. The nation is viewed as an individual ("his", "him", "he"). Compare 41:8-16; 42:19-22; 44:1,2; 48:4-11. In spite of experiencing God's punishments the nation kept on its own sinful way. The root of Israel's sin is referred to in v 17. In spite of Israel's apostasy God says "I will heal him" (see also Deut 32:39; 2 Chron 7:14; Isa 30:26; 32:3-5; 35:5-10).

"Lead" – 30:21; 42:16; 48:17.

"Comforts to him" – 40:1; 49:13. This will be all of grace. Israel deserved and deserves nothing but eternal condemnation.

"Far" and "near" – probably means the whole nation wherever they may be, but it may mean both Jew and Gentile (2:4; 26:3,12; 32:17; Eph 2:17). Healing to the whole earth will come when Israel is healed (Rom 11:12,15).

57:20,21 48:22. Even if all Israel and all the world had peace the wicked would never enjoy peace themselves. Their inward nature makes peace impossible. It seethes with evil thoughts, desires and ambitions (Gen 6:5; 8:21). To have peace men must repent and be changed by God's power.

58:1 When God's people sin God's prophets in every era must boldly and openly point those sins out to them.

58:2,3 See again what can go along with a life of sin and rebellion – much religious activity and prayer, inner deception, and a conviction that God is not treating them as fairly and graciously as they desire. Jer 17:9 gives the inner cause of such madness of men.

"Exploit" – 3:14,15; 10:2.

58:4-7 Their fasting was not from good motives, nor from an understanding of what God wanted. Fasting (and all religious

- You do not fast as you do today to make your voice heard on high.
- 5 Is this the kind of fast I have chosen?
Merely a day for a man to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush,
and to spread sackcloth and ashes
under him?
Will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?
- 6 “Is not this the fast that I have chosen:
to loose the bands of wickedness,
to undo the heavy burdens,
and to let the oppressed go free,
and to break every yoke?
7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and to bring to your house the poor
who have been thrown out?
When you see the naked, to cover him,
and not to hide yourself from those of your own flesh?
- 8 Then your light will break forth like the dawn,
and your healing will spring forth speedily,
and your righteousness will go before you,
and the glory of the LORD will be your rear guard.
- 9 Then you will call, and the LORD will answer;
you will cry out, and he will say, ‘Here I am’.
If you take away the yoke from among you,
the pointing the finger, and speaking evil,
- 10 And if you draw out your soul to the hungry,
and satisfy the afflicted soul,
then your light will rise in darkness,
and your dusk will be like noonday,
- 11 And the LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought,
and make your bones fat;

- and you will be like a watered garden,
and like a spring of water,
whose waters do not fail.
- 12 And from among you there will be those who build up the old waste places.
You will raise up the foundations of many generations,
and you will be called,
‘The Repairer of the Breach’,
‘The Restorer of Streets to Dwell in’.
- 13 “If you turn away your foot from trampling on the Sabbath,
from doing your pleasure on my holy day,
and call the Sabbath a delight,
the holy day of the LORD honourable,
and will honour him,
not acting according to your own ways,
or finding your own pleasure,
or speaking your own words,
- 14 Then you will delight yourself in the LORD;
and I will cause you to ride on the high places of the earth,
and feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.”

- 59 See, the LORD’s hand is not so short that it cannot save,
and his ear is not so dull that it cannot hear,
- 2 But your iniquities have separated you from your God,
and your sins have hidden his face
from you, so that he will not hear.
- 3 For your hands are defiled with blood,
and your fingers with wickedness.
Your lips have spoken lies,
your tongue has muttered unjust things.

activities) with them (and with a great many people since then) was only another means of gaining what they thought was merit and of displaying what they considered their own righteousness – Matt 6:16; Luke 18:10-12.

58:6,7 God intended fasting to be associated with repentance, with a desire to live justly, with a determination to keep God’s instructions, especially as regards the poor and weak and helpless (1:17; Ezek 18:5-9; Matt 25:35,36). This is what God wants to see, not men boasting in their righteousness because they observe a day of fasting. If our religion is not compassionate, does not cause us to help others, it is a vain and useless thing (Jam 1:27).

58:8-12 If Israel repented, sought God as they ought, and put into practice God’s word there would be marvelous results. Believers now also – in the measure they obey God’s Word – will enjoy the blessings listed in these verses: light, healing, righteousness marching before them, God’s glory guarding them, answered prayer, guidance, satisfaction, strength, fruitfulness, power to build and restore.

58:13 “Sabbath” – see 56:2-8.

“Call the Sabbath a delight” – for them this would be the same as delighting in the Lord and His law (Ps 1:2; 37:4; 84:2,10). 58:14 “Delight yourself in the LORD” – Ps 37:4.

“High places” – Deut 32:13; 33:29; Ps 18:33; Isa 33:16.

“Heritage” – the land of Israel (Ps 105:10,11).

59:1,2 God is neither helpless nor deaf (50:2; Ps 65:2). If He does not hear His people and work on their behalf the fault is not His but theirs. Sin separates us from God’s fellowship and is the reason for much unanswered prayer (1:15; Ps 66:18).

59:3-8 A summary of the evil ways of the people of Israel that had been denounced before.

- 4 No one calls for justice,
no one pleads for truth.
They trust in emptiness, and speak lies.
They conceive mischief,
and bring forth evil.
- 5 They hatch the viper's eggs,
and spin the spider's web.
He who eats any of their eggs dies,
and from one that is crushed
a viper breaks out.
- 6 Their webs will not become garments, nor will they cover themselves with their works.
Their works are works of iniquity,
and the act of violence is in their hands.
- 7 Their feet run to evil,
and they hurry to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are thoughts of wickedness.
Wasting and destruction are in their paths.
- 8 The way of peace they do not know,
and there is no justice in their ways.
They have made crooked paths for themselves.
Whoever goes in them will not know peace.
- 9 Therefore justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not overtake us.
We wait for light, but see darkness;
for brightness,
but we walk in the dark.
- 10 We grope for the wall like the blind;

- yes, we grope as if we had no eyes.
We stumble at noonday as in the night.
We are like dead men in desolate places.
- 11 We all roar like bears,
and mourn bitterly like doves.
We look for justice, but there is none;
for salvation, but it is far away from us.
- 12 For our transgressions are multiplied
before you,
and our sins testify against us.
For our transgressions are with us,
and as for our evil deeds,
we know them:
- 13 Transgressing and lying against the LORD,
and departing from our God,
speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
- 14 And justice is turned back,
and righteousness stands at a distance;
for truth has fallen in the street,
and integrity cannot enter.
- 15 Yes, truth is missing, and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.
And the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice.
- 16 And he saw that there was no just man,
and wondered that there was no

59:5 Their plans are pure poison to others, useless to themselves (1:2,4,15-17,21-23; 5:7,23).

59:7,8 See Rom 3:15-17 where Paul uses these verses in his general description of the human race as a whole. Verses 1-6 apply equally well to fallen man. As for Israel though this describes the bulk of the people as God saw them, they still thought that God should answer their prayers (58:2,3)!

"Run" – Prov 1:16. This indicates the eagerness with which men commit sin.

"Thoughts" – Gen 6:5; 8:21.

"In their paths" – 53:6; Acts 13:10; Gal 1:7.

"Way of peace" – 57:20,21.

59:9-15 The prophet Isaiah identifies himself with his people Israel in this confession of the nation's sinful condition. Compare 64:5-7; Ezra 9:6,7; Jer 3:22-25; Dan 9:4-19; Rom 3:9. The prophets and saints of the Bible did not set themselves up as some superior beings, more holy and righteous than others.

59:9,10 "In the dark" – sin separates men from God who is light (1 John 1:5). In Him there is no darkness at all. In Israel, at the time of these words, there was no light at all. This fulfilled Deut 28:15,28,29. See too Isa 6:9-12. The people of Israel did not see what they were or where they were going or how this darkness of mind and heart and spirit was a punishment for their sin. They had not wanted God's light and truth. This was the result.

59:11 "Like doves" – 38:14; Ezek 7:16; Nah 2:7.

59:12-15 Isaiah makes it very clear why the nation is in darkness. He confesses the nation's sins, first generally, then more specifically. In verses 13-15 it seems almost as if he were speaking of conditions so common in our day.

59:13 "Transgressing" – or "rebelling" – 1:2; 46:8; 48:8.

"Departing" – 1:4; 2 Chron 29:6; Jer 2:27.

"Oppression" – 3:14,15; 5:7; 30:12.

"Falsehood" – in this chapter notice the emphasis on the sin of lying (vs 3, 4, 13, 14, 15). Men often think lightly of this, one of the worst of sins. Notes on lying at Prov 6:16-19; etc.

59:14 All through Isaiah there is emphasis on justice and righteousness. The words are used nearly sixty times.

59:15 Those who stand for righteousness and holiness should be honored, but in a corrupt society they are often opposed, persecuted, and sometimes destroyed. And will the one true God who loves justice, honesty and truth be pleased with that kind of society? Compare Gen 6:5,6.

59:16 "No just man" – 63:5; 64:6; 2 Kings 14:26; Jer 5:1; Ezek 22:30.

"Wondered" – or "was desolate" – 63:4.

intercessor.

Therefore his arm brought victory to him,
and his righteousness sustained him.

- 17 For he put on righteousness like a breastplate,
and a helmet of salvation on his head;
and he put on the garments of vengeance as clothing,
and was clothed with zeal like a cloak.
- 18 According to their deeds,
so he will repay:
fury to his adversaries,
retribution to his enemies;
to the islands he will mete out retribution.
- 19 So they will fear the name of the LORD from the west,
and his glory from the rising of the sun.
When the enemy comes in like a flood,
the Spirit of the LORD will lift up a banner against him.
- 20 "And the Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from transgression in Jacob",
says the LORD.

21 "As for me, this is my covenant with them," says the LORD: "My Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, will not depart from your mouth, or from the mouth of your offspring, or from the mouth of your offspring's offspring," says the LORD, "from now on and forever."

60 "Arise, shine! For your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen
on you.

- 2 For, see, the darkness will cover the earth,
and deep darkness the people,
but the LORD will rise upon you,
and his glory will be seen over you.
- 3 And the Gentiles will come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your rising.
- 4 "Lift up your eyes all around and look.
They all assemble, they come to you.
Your sons will come from afar,
and your daughters will be nursed
at your side.
- 5 Then you will see, and be radiant, and your heart will thrill and

"His arm" – 51:9; 52:10.

"His righteousness" – there was no righteousness whatever in Israel that could be a foundation for His work.

59:17 "Breastplate" and "helmet" – see Eph
6:14,17.

"Vengeance" – v 18; 1:24; 34:2,8; 35:4; 47:3; 61:2; 63:4.

"Zeal" – 9:7; 26:11; 37:32; 42:13.

59:18 See 65:6,7; 66:6; Rom 2:6; Rev
22:12.

59:19 All nations will realize that Jehovah is the one true God and will learn to fear Him – 2:2,3; 11:10; 40:5; 45:6; 52:10. "He" in verse 18 refers to the Redeemer seen in verse 20, the Lord Jesus. The last sentence of this verse may also be translated "When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD will put him to flight."

59:20 This is a key verse in the interpretation of Isaiah. Paul applies this verse to the literal Israel in Rom 11:25,26.
And since all Israel will be saved after the fullness of the Gentiles comes in, the time points to the time of Christ's second coming.
It is when Israel is redeemed and restored that the nations of the earth will turn to God as in v 19 (Rom 11:12,15). To Paul Zion meant Jerusalem as representing the literal nation of Israel.

59:21 "Covenant" – 42:6; 55:3; Jer
31:31-34.

"You" – the nation spoken to as if an individual.

"My words. . . in your mouth" – 51:16. It indicates a complete change in the nation that had cast God's words behind its back.
Word in the mouth here indicates word in the heart also. Compare Matt 12:34.

"Forever" – after Israel's restoration at Christ's second coming there will be succeeding generations of offspring, so that for the fulfillment of this a literal millennium is needed.

60:1-22 "Your light" – means Jerusalem as the representative of the nation Israel – vs 10,14,15,18,21. Some scholars teach that the nation of Israel has no future and that this chapter and similar prophecies refer exclusively to the Church of the New Testament. The author of these notes does not deny that spiritual application of these passages can be made to the New Testament Church, but he does deny that they will have no fulfillment in the literal nation of Israel. It may well be that Old Testament prophecies of God's kingdom can have a fourfold reference – to the historical circumstances of the prophets themselves;
to a spiritual or typical fulfillment in the Church; to a literal fulfillment in the millennium; and to some sort of eternal fulfillment in the new heavens and earth.

60:1 "Light", "glory" – 4:56; 9:2; 58:8.

60:2 Darkness speaks of the spiritual blindness that results from sin – 9:2; 59:9;
Eph 4:17,18.

"The LORD will rise upon you" – the Lord Himself is the light that dispels spiritual darkness (Mal 4:2; John 8:12; 2 Cor 4:3-6).

60:3 Verses 5,10-12; 2:2-4; etc. It is repeated again and again in Isaiah that the salvation and restoration of Israel will mean marvelous blessing for the whole earth (Gen 12:3). The Gentiles mean non-Jewish peoples.

60:4 See 49:18,22.

60:5 "Radiant" – Ps 34:5.

swell with joy.

- For the abundance of the sea will be turned to you,
the riches of the Gentiles will come to you.
- 6 A multitude of camels will cover your land,
the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah,
all those from Sheba will come.
They will bring gold and incense,
and they will declare the praises of the LORD.
- 7 All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you,
the rams of Nebaioth will serve you.
They will come up on my altar and be accepted,
and I will glorify the house of my glory.
- 8 Who are these who fly like a cloud,
and like doves to their windows?
- 9 Surely the islands will wait for me;
and at first will come the ships of Tarshish bringing your sons from afar, their silver and their gold with them,
to the name of the LORD your God,
and to the Holy One of Israel,
because he has glorified you.
- 10 "And the sons of strangers will build up your walls,

and their kings will minister to you.
For in my anger I struck you,
but in my favour I have had mercy on you.

- 11 Therefore your gates will be open continually;
they will not be shut day or night,
so that people may bring to you the riches of the Gentiles, and their kings led in procession.
- 12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you will perish;
yes, those nations will be utterly ruined.
- 13 "The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the fir tree, the pine tree,
and the box tree together,
to beautify the place of my sanctuary;
and I will make the place of my feet glorious.
- 14 The sons of those who afflicted you will also come bending down to you, and all those who despised you will bow down at the soles of your feet;
and they will call you,
'The City of the LORD',
'The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.'
- 15 "Although you have been forsaken and hated,
so that no man went through you,
I will make you an eternal excellence,
a joy for many generations.

"Joy" – 35:2,10; 66:14.
"Riches" – v 11; 18:7; 23:18; 45:14; 61:6; 66:12.
60:6 "Midian" – Gen 37:28; Num 31:2,3; Jud 6:2; Ps 83:9. Ephah was a son of Midian.
"Sheba" – located in the southern Arabian peninsula.
"Praises" – indicates a complete change in the nation. Notice the word "all."
60:7 "Kedar" – note at 21:16.
"Nebaioth" – son of Ishmael.
"Flocks" and "rams" and "altar" suggest offerings. See also 56:6,7. But will there be animal sacrifices in the future millennium? This is a difficult question. See note at Ezek 40:38-43. If God then has Israel offer such sacrifices there will be a perfectly good reason for it. And if God reveals, in such verses as this, that there will be such sacrifices, believers now have no business denying it.
60:9 The answer to the question of v 8. See 11:11,12. The day is coming when all nations will honor the true God. See Rev 21:24,26.
"Tarshish" – 2:16; 23:1; 2 Chron 9:21; Ps 48:7; 72:10.
60:10 It is true that believers of many nations now are builders of some sort in the New Testament Church (1 Cor 3:10-13), and that the Church is now being built (Eph 2:22). And even kings have had their part in it. But the words which follow obviously refer to Jerusalem representing the nation of Israel.

"I struck you" – Lev 26:27-33; Deut 28:22; Lam 1:12; Isa 1:5; 5:25; Luke 19:41-44; 20:14-18; 1 Thess 2:16.
"Mercy" – 54:7,8.
60:11 The language is very similar to Rev 21:24-26. This does not mean there can be no fulfillment for the literal city of Jerusalem. The city of Rev 21:9-27 was never struck and abandoned by God, as the literal city of Jerusalem was (54:7). Nor was the true Church ever abandoned by God.
60:12 Does this not speak again of the political supremacy of the nation Israel in the future? See 14:2; 49:23; Zech 14:16-19.
60:13 "Lebanon" – 35:2; famous for its magnificent trees used in constructing Solomon's temple (1 Kings 5;10,18). During Solomon's reign Israel reached the pinnacle of its glory and political power in Old Testament times. The glory and power will return in greater measure than before.
60:14 Verses 10,12; 49:7,23.
"City of the LORD" – one of several names the future Jerusalem will have – 1:26; 62:4; Ezek 48:35; Zech 8:3. It will be an earthly picture of the heavenly city of God (Heb 12:22).
60:15 "No man went through you" – true enough of the literal Jerusalem and Israel (6:11,12; 62:4; Jer 30:17; Ps 106:40; Lev 26:14-39; Deut 28:15-68).
"Eternal excellence" – Jerusalem will be

- 16 You will also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and be nursed at the breast of kings.
And you will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer,
the mighty One of Jacob.
- 17 Instead of bronze I will bring gold,
and instead of iron I will bring silver,
and instead of wood bronze,
and instead of stones iron.
I will also make peace your officials,
and righteousness your lords.
- 18 Violence will be heard in your land no more,
nor ruin or destruction within your borders;
but you will call your walls 'Salvation',
and your gates 'Praise.'
- 19 By day the sun will be your light no more,
and the brightness of the moon will not give light to you;
but the LORD will be an everlasting light for you,
and your God your glory.
- 20 Your sun will go down no more,
and your moon will not withdraw itself;
for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will be ended.

- 21 And all your people will be righteous.
They will inherit the land forever,
the branch of my planting,
the work of my hands,
that I may be glorified.
- 22 A little one will become a thousand,
and a small one a strong nation.
I the LORD will hasten it in its time."

- 61 "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the meek.
He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound,
- 2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,
and the day of vengeance of our God,
to comfort all who mourn,
- 3 To transform those who mourn in Zion,
to give them beauty in place of ashes,
the oil of joy in place of mourning,
the garment of praise in place of the spirit of heaviness,
so that they might be called
'Trees of Righteousness',

the brightest and best spot on earth, the center of truth and spirituality.

60:16 "Breast" – vs 5,11.

"You will know" – 49:26 says all mankind will know. Israel will fully enter into an experiential knowledge of it.

60:17 "Gold" – another suggestion of Solomon's reign (1 Kings 10:21,27).

"Peace", "righteousness" – 9:7; 32:17; 48:18; 54:13,14.

60:18 "Violence" – 14:4; 49:19; 54:14. "Salvation", "praise" (26:1) – complete security and praise to the God who accomplished it.

60:19,20 See 4:5,6; conditions in the millennium. Compare Rev 21:23; 22:5 which gives conditions throughout the eternal ages.

"Mourning will be ended" – 25:8; 35:10; 40:1; 51:11; 65:19; Rev 21:4.

60:21 "Righteous" – 4:3; 35:8; Rev 21:27.

"Land" – signifies the land of Israel promised by God to them. The promise was repeatedly confirmed (Gen 12:6,7; 15:18,19; 17:8; 28:13; Ps 37:11,22; Isa 49:8; 61:7).

"Branch" – this branch is the nation Israel (5:1,2,7; Ex 15:17; Ps 44:2; 80:8-11). They will be planted again – Amos 9:15.

"Glorified" – 49:3; 61:3. What a glory it will be to God when He takes that stiff-necked, rebellious, unbelieving, sinful nation that rejected and crucified His Son and makes it humble, holy and splendid.

60:22 "Thousand" – 51:2; 54:3 – speaks of great increase in numbers.

"Hasten it" – once God starts the work of restoring Israel it will not take long.

61:1 Old Testament prophets, priests and kings were those who were anointed. Here the ministry of prophet is in view. In Luke 4:16-21 the Lord Jesus applied these verses to Himself. He is the great prophet foretold in Deut 18:17-19. The Spirit of God had anointed Him for His ministry before that (Luke 3:21,22; Acts 10:38). Jesus, speaking in Nazareth, meant that the fulfillment of Isaiah's words was in progress that day.

"Good news" – Matt 11:4-6; this was part of Jesus's ministry. The good news is defined in the rest of the verse. Fallen men are captives of Satan and servants of sin (John 8:34,44; Rom 6:20; Eph 2:1,2; 2 Tim 2:26). Jesus came and proclaimed the way of release. The last sentence in this verse probably refers to spiritual blindness. The word translated "opening" usually in Isaiah means opening of eyes or ears. And the Septuagint has "the blind" instead of "the prison." So a possible translation is "recovery of sight for the blind."

61:2,3 After reading the first sentence of verse 2, Jesus stopped reading (Luke 4:18,19). The year of the Lord's favor is not a literal year but the whole time of His favor (2 Cor 6:2). The day of vengeance had not come (34:2,8; 35:4; 63:4), nor had the time to comfort all who mourn in Zion (40:1,2; 49:13), nor to transform those who grieve in Zion. The things mentioned in v 3 – beauty, gladness, praise – signify the complete redemption and restoration of the nation Israel (12:1-6; 26:1-4; 35:1-10; 51:3; etc.). Is there no spiritual application

- 'The Planting of the LORD', that he might be glorified.
- 4 "And they will build up the old ruins;
they will raise up the former desolations,
and they will repair the ruined cities,
the desolations of many generations.
- 5 And foreigners will stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of aliens will be your plowmen and your vine dressers.
- 6 But you will be named
'The Priests of the LORD';
people will call you
'The Ministers of our God.'
You will eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory you will boast.
- 7 Instead of your shame you will have a double amount,
and instead of disgrace they will rejoice in their portion.
So in their land they will possess a double amount.
They will have everlasting joy.
- 8 "For I, the LORD, love justice.
I hate robbery in the burnt offering;
and I will direct their work in truth,
and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
- 9 And their descendants will be known

among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the peoples.
All who see them will acknowledge them,
that they are the offspring whom the LORD has blessed."

- 10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD.
My soul will be joyful in my God,
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
he has covered me with the robe of
righteousness,
as a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
- 11 For as the earth brings forth its sprouts,
and as the garden causes what is sown
in it to spring up,
so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

- 62 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until its righteousness goes forth like brightness,
and its salvation like a burning lamp.
- 2 And the Gentiles will see your righteousness,
and all the kings your glory;
and you will be called by a new name, of these things in this age of grace? Of course there is. The Lord Jesus now gives them to those who turn to Him in trust and obedience. But this does not exhaust the meaning of the passage (note on 60:1-22).

"Trees of Righteousness" – 1:26; 4:3; 26:2; 35:8; 60:21.
"Glorified" – 44:23; 46:13; 49:3; 52:1; 55:5; 60:9,21.
61:4 "Build up" – 49:8; 54:3; 58:12.
61:5 "Foreigners" – 14:1,2; 60:10,11. Israel will be the chief of the nations.
61:6 "Priests" – in the present age all believers are priests. See notes at Ex 28:1; 1 Peter 2:5,9. At the end of this present age believers will be caught up to be with Christ. After that, in the millennium, it seems there will be a priesthood in the hands of Israel, redeemed and restored to be God's representative on earth (66:21; Jer 33:17,18; Ezek 40:44-46). It is not clear just how the outworking of this will be, but not understanding it should not be a reason for denying it.
"Riches" – 60:5,11.
61:7 Zech 9:12. Israel was like God's "firstborn" (Ex 4:22; Jer 31:9). The firstborn among Israelites received a double portion (Gen 25:31; Deut 21:17).
61:8 "Truth," "covenant" – this is the reason why there is a future for Israel as a nation. God made many promises to them and He will keep them. On "covenant" see 55:3; 59:21; Jer 31:35-37; 32:40.

61:9 "Gentiles" – non-Jewish peoples.
"Offspring" – 43:5; 48:19; 59:21.
"Blessed" – 32:20; 44:3; 65:23. Notes on God's blessings at Gen 12:3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1; 119:1.
61:10 "Rejoice" – 25:9; 35:10; here either Jerusalem, representing the future redeemed people of Israel, or Isaiah is speaking.
"Garments" – v 3; 52:1; Rom 13:14.
"Robe of righteousness" – this is a righteousness God gives, the opposite of man's own (64:6; note at Gen 3:21; Rom 3:21; 1 Cor 1:30; Phil 3:9). It can be put on only by faith. The words "bridegroom" and "bride" indicate the beginning of something new in the relationship between God and Israel, or the consummation of a progressive relationship. Compare Hos 2:19,20.
61:11 Righteousness and praise will spring out of the earth – 45:8; 55:10,11. This means that God's righteousness will eventually produce righteous people, righteous nations and a righteous world.
62:1-5 "I" – who is speaking? Some think it is Isaiah representing succeeding generations of believers. Others think the speaker is the Messiah as in 61:1, and this seems more likely. The truth revealed is the same in either case. Jerusalem will be filled with righteousness and eternally saved – 4:3,4; 26:1,2; 46:13; 59:20,21; 60:18; Jer 23:5,6.
62:2 "Gentiles" – 2:2; 52:10; 60:3.
"New name" – vs 4,12; 1:26.

- which the mouth of the LORD will name.
- 3 You will also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
- 4 You will no longer be called "Forsaken", nor will your land any longer be called "Desolate", but you will be called "Hephzibah" and your land "Beulah," for the LORD delights in you, and your land will be married.
- 5 For as a young man marries a virgin, so your sons will marry you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so your God will rejoice over you.
- 6 I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem, who will never keep silent, day or night. You who make mention of the LORD, do not keep silent,
- 7 And give him no rest, until he establishes Jerusalem, and until he makes it a praise in the earth.
- 8 The LORD has sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, "Certainly I will no longer give your grain to be food for your enemies, and the sons of foreigners will not drink your wine, for which you laboured;
- 9 But those who have gathered it will eat it, and praise the LORD, and those who have brought it together will drink it in my holy courts.
- 10 Go through, go through the gates! Prepare the way for the people!

- Build up, build up the highway!
Take away the stones!
Lift up a banner for the people!
- 11 See, the LORD has proclaimed to the ends of the earth:
"Tell the daughter of Zion:
Look, your salvation is coming;
look, his reward is with him,
and his wages accompany him."
- 12 And they will call them,
"The Holy People,"
"The Redeemed of the LORD",
and you will be called,
"Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken."
- 63 Who is this who comes from Edom,
from Bozrah,
with garments stained red?
This One who is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength?
"I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."
- 2 Why is your clothing red,
and your garments like one who treads the winepress?
- 3 "I have trodden the winepress alone,
and none of the people was with me;
for I have trod on them in my anger,
and trampled them in my fury,
and their blood was sprinkled on my garments,
and I have stained all my clothing.
- 4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart,
and the year of my redeemed has come.

62:3 Compare 28:5; Zech 9:16. Crown speaks of authority and political power.

62:4 "Desolate" – Lev 26:43; Isa 5:5,6; 6:12; 54:6,7; 60:15; Jer 30:17. Hephzibah means "my delight is in her." Beulah means "married." Observe that it is the same city and the same land which were deserted and desolate which will experience the wonderful change. What else but a literal Jerusalem and a literal land of Israel could be meant?

62:5 This means that the people of Israel will again possess the land, and God will again regard Israel as a wife.

62:6,7 The speaker is either the Messiah the Son of God, or the Father. The truth revealed is the same in either case. For watchman see 52:8; 56:10; Jer 6:17; 31:6; Ezek 3:17; 33:7. They should pray unceasingly for the restoration of Jerusalem. For "a praise in the earth" see Jer 33:9; Zeph 3:19,20.

62:8,9 The word "sworn" indicates a very solemn and emphatic way of making a promise. The promise is that after Jerusalem's restoration, oppression from enemies will cease forever.

"My holy courts" – compare Lev 23:39,40; Deut 14:22-26.

62:10 See 11:10,16; 57:14; 48:20; 60:11.

62:11 "Your salvation is coming" – since the next words speak of the giving of rewards, this coming is doubtless the second coming of Christ – 40:10; Matt 25:14-19; Rev 11:18; 22:12.

62:12 "Holy people" – 4:3; 26:2; 45:25; 52:1; 60:21.

"Redeemed" – 35:9; 44:23; 51:11. Only after the second coming of Christ will this verse have its fulfillment.

63:1 See 34:6. 34:1-8 gives a picture very similar to the first six verses of this chapter. This can refer only to the Messiah. He is pictured as coming to deliver Israel.

63:2,3 Rev 14:17-20; 19:15.

63:4 See 34:2,8; 35:4; 61:2. The time of vengeance on God's enemies will be the time of redemption for His people.

- 5 And I looked, and there was no one to help;
and I wondered that there was no one to give support;
therefore my own arm brought salvation
for me, and my fury gave me support.
- 6 And I trampled the peoples in my anger,
and made them drunk with my fury,
and I brought their strength down to the ground."
- 7 I will mention the acts of loving kindness
of the LORD,
and the praises of the LORD,
according to all that the LORD has granted to us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel which he has granted to them,
according to his mercies and according to the multitude of his acts of loving kindness.
- 8 For he said, "Surely they are my people, children who will not lie."
So he was their Saviour.
- 9 In all their affliction he was afflicted,
and the angel of his presence saved them.
In his love and in his pity he redeemed them,
and he bore them and carried them all the days of old.
- 10 But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit.
Therefore he turned to become their enemy,
and he fought against them.
- 11 Then they remembered the days

- of old, Moses, and his people, saying, "Where is the one who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock?
Where is the one who put his Holy Spirit within him,
- 12 Who led them with his glorious arm,
by the right hand of Moses,
dividing the water before them,
to make himself an everlasting name,
- 13 Who led them through the deep,
like a horse in the wilderness,
so that they would not stumble?"
- 14 The Spirit of the LORD caused them to rest,
like cattle going down into the valley;
so you led your people,
to make yourself a glorious name.
- 15 Look down from heaven and see from your holy and glorious dwelling place.
Where is your zeal and your strength, the stirring of your heart and of your mercies toward me?
Are they restrained?
- 16 Doubtless you are our father,
though Abraham was ignorant of us,
and Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, O LORD, are our father, our redeemer;
your name is from everlasting.
- 17 O LORD, why have you caused us to stray from your ways,
and hardened our heart from your fear?
Return for the sake of your servants,
the tribes of your inheritance.

63:5 See 59:16 and note there.

63:6 "Drunk" – compare Jer 25:15-31.

63:7-14 A brief look at God's great goodness toward Israel in the past, similar in tone to psalms 105, 106.

63:8 "Children who will not lie" – the Hebrew here should probably be translated "sons who must not be false to me." God knew in advance that they would be sinful and rebellious.

63:9 This is the nature of God as revealed in the Bible. He is not distant, uncaring, hard and cold. He feels what His people suffer. He endures it with them, in them. The word "compassion" means to suffer with. The Hebrew expression here is equally strong. In the New Testament see Matt 25:35-40; Acts 9:4.

"Angel" – Ex 14:19; 23:20-23; 33:12,14,15; Num 20:16; note at Gen 16:7.

"Carried" – Deut 1:31; 32:10-12.

63:10 "Rebelled" – Num 20:10; Deut 9:24; Ps 78:40; 106:40.

"Grieved" – Ps 106:33; Eph 4:30.

"Enemy" – Lev 26:17; Jer 21:5; Ezek 15:7.

63:11 "Then they remembered" – or it could be translated "he remembered."

63:11-14 The people, remembering the past, ask what has become of the God of such mighty works. Ex 14:22,30.

"Holy Spirit" – vs 10,14; Gen 1:2; Num 11:17,25; Ps 51:11; John 14:17.

63:12 See 51:9; 52:10; 53:1; Ex 15:16.

63:14 "Name" – Ex 9:16.

63:15 Here begins a prayer of Isaiah. He represents the people of Israel. The people felt that God had completely withdrawn from earth to heaven, and is no longer active among them.

"Zeal" – 9:7; 26:11; 42:13.

63:16 See 64:8; Ex 4:22; Deut 32:6; Jer 3:4; John 8:41. In Israel God was regarded as the Father of the nation. But the people of Israel had fallen so low, were so rebellious against God's will, that if Abraham and his grandson Israel were there they would not be able to recognize them as their descendants.

63:17 This prayer probably has reference to 6:9,10. Whatever God did to them in this way was a perfectly just punishment for their sins. Note on hardening at Ex 4:21.

"Inheritance" – Ex 6:7; 34:9; Deut 4:20; 7:6; 32:9.

- 18 Your holy people have possessed it only a little while.
Our adversaries have trampled down your sanctuary.
- 19 We are yours.
You have never ruled over them;
they have not been called by your name.

- 64 Oh, that you would rend the heavens!
That you would come down!
That the mountains might tremble at your presence,
- 2 As fire makes the brushwood burn,
as fire causes water to boil,
to make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence!
- 3 When you did awesome things which we did not look for, you came down, the mountains trembled at your presence.
- 4 For since the beginning of the world people have not heard or perceived with the ear, nor has the eye seen a God besides

- you who acts on behalf of the one who waits for him.
- 5 You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness,
those who remember you in your ways.
See, you have been angry,
for we have sinned.
We have long continued in them.
And we need to be saved.
- 6 But we are all like an unclean thing,
and all our righteous deeds are like filthy rags,
and we all fade like a leaf,
and our iniquities, like the wind,
have taken us away.
- 7 And there is no one who calls on your name,
who stirs himself up to take hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us,
and have consumed us because of our iniquities.
- 8 But now, O LORD, you are our father;
we are the clay, and you are our potter,

63:18 See 64:10,11. This had not happened in Isaiah's day. Therefore we may judge that he is looking forward to a future time and making this prayer for a future generation.

63:19 Here the contrast is between God's people Israel and the enemies mentioned in v 18. This verse may possibly be translated "We are like those you have never ruled, like those never called by your name."

64:1-12 He continues his prayer which begins at 63:15, a marvelous prayer of confession of sin and of pleading that God might come again in mighty power, and forgive and restore his people.

64:1,2 He prays that God will come suddenly, powerfully, shaking the earth and the nations, blazing like fire against His enemies. This prayer will yet be fully answered (24:18-20; 30:27,28; 2 Thess 1:7; Heb 12:26-29; Rev 19:11,12).

"Tremble" – closer to the meaning of the Hebrew word than "flow down."

"Name" – 30:27; 59:19.

64:3 Deut 7:21; 10:21.

"Awesome" – Ps 65:5; 66:3-6; 106:21,22; 145:6.

64:4 This prayer is directed to the only God who can perform great and awesome deeds – Jehovah. And He is still at work for those who wait confidently for Him – 25:9; 30:18; Ps 27:14; Jer 33:3. Let us continue to look to Him!

64:5 "Works righteousness" – mere waiting for God to act is not sufficient. If we expect God to work for us we must willingly work for Him.

"We have sinned" – Isaiah well knows why God has ceased to perform wonderful deeds for them (59:1,2). Continuing in sin is what all men do until they are changed by God's power. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18. When men anger the only God who can help them, the only God there is, it is a hard matter to gain assurance of salvation. There is a recognition here that they had deserved all God's anger, all that had come upon them.

64:6 "All like an unclean thing" – if the best works men can do are like filthy rags, what must their worst be like? And what right do men have to present their filthy rags of so-called merit to God and expect salvation in exchange for them? Happy are those who understand what this verse means and go to Christ for His righteousness (Phil 3:9).

"Leaf" – sin blights and kills as disease destroys a leaf.

"Away" – away from truth, away from righteousness, away from God.

64:7 Men call on their many gods, but none by nature call on the name of the true God. If we call on Him it is because He has stirred us up to do so.

"Consumed us" – or "made us waste away." Isaiah is speaking of Israel, but there is truth here for all. We sin, God hides His face, we fail to pray, and waste away. And our lack of prayer is blameworthy and the cause of more sin.

64:8-12 Reasons why God should hear this prayer.

64:8 "Father" – 63:16. The prayer is to one who is intimately concerned with their condition.

"Potter" – 29:16; 45:9; Jer 18:1-6. With such a wise and skillful potter at work with them there is still hope for the nation. Compare Ps 138:8.

"Work of your hands" – compare

- and we all are the work of your hands.
- 9 Do not be very angry, O LORD,
or remember iniquity forever.
Look and see, we beg you,
we are all your people.
- 10 Your holy cities are a wilderness,
Zion is a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.
- 11 Our holy and our beautiful house,
where our fathers praised you,
is burned up with fire,
and all our pleasant things are laid waste.
- 12 Will you restrain yourself for these things, O LORD?
Will you keep silent, and afflict us
very severely?

65 "I am sought by those who did not ask for me;

I am found by those who did not seek me.
I said, 'See me, see me',
to a nation that was not called by my name.

- 2 I have spread out my hands all day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good,
after their own thoughts,

- 3 A people who provoke me to anger continually to my face,
who sacrifice in gardens,
and burn incense on brick altars,
- 4 Who sit among the graves,
and spend the night among the tombs,
who eat swine's flesh,
and in whose pots is the broth of abominable things,
- 5 Who say, 'Keep to yourself;
do not come near me,
for I am holier than you.'
These are smoke in my nostrils,
a fire that burns all day.
- 6 See, it is written before me:
'I will not keep silent,
but will repay, repay into their bosom
- 7 Your evil deeds, and the evil deeds of your fathers together, says the LORD, you who have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills.
Therefore I will measure into their bosom repayment for their former deeds."
- 8 Thus says the LORD:
"As the new wine is found in the

Eph 2:10; Phil 1:6.

64:9 These requests are based on what God had revealed – as our requests must always be, if we want our prayer answered.

"Angry" – 54:7,8.

"Iniquity" – 40:1,2; 43:25.

"Your people" – 63:17-19. This was reminding God of their covenant relationship with Him (Gen 17:7; Lev 26:40-45; Deut 7:6).

64:10 Notice "Your" holy cities – an appeal to God to look with concern on His own property as well as on His own people (v 8,9).

"Holy cities" – 48:2. Zion and Jerusalem here are regarded as twin cities. The original Zion was a part of the larger city that was called Jerusalem. But often in the Old Testament Zion refers to the entire city.

64:11 Isaiah was a prophet looking into the future and describing things that had not yet happened as though they had. Note at 55:10,11. The temple was not destroyed for another hundred years. Another temple erected in its place was not destroyed for some hundreds of years after Isaiah's day.

64:12 "Will you keep silent?" – 62:1,6,7.

"Very severely" – Ezra 9:13; Ps 103:10.

65:1,2 God begins to speak in answer to the prayer of 63:15 - 64:12. Paul quotes these two verses in Rom 10:20,21. See note there. God is speaking in v 1 of other nations who did not know the God of Israel. In pure grace He would turn to them (49:6; Matt 28:19; Acts 13:46; 28:28).

65:2-16 God reveals what He will do to the nation Israel. He begins by describing their character and behavior.

65:2 "Rebellious" – 1:2-4; 30:1,9.

"Own thoughts" – 59:7; Gen 6:5; 8:21. Anyone who follows his own imaginations will certainly walk in ways not good.

65:3 Idolatry provokes God to anger as much as anything men can do (Lev 26:30; Deut 4:25; Jud 2:12,13).

65:4 "Graves" – 8:19; 57:9; Deut 18:11.

"Swine's flesh" – Lev 11:7,8. Note at Lev 11:2-23. They had contempt for God's very specific instruction to them.

65:5 These rebels, idolaters, sorcerers, eaters of forbidden food, thought they were very superior people. They were self-righteous hypocrites. Compare Matt 9:11; Luke 7:39; 18:9-12.

65:6,7 "Silent" – 42:14; 57:11; Ps 50:21; Hab 1:13.

"Hills" – they had their shrines to other gods on high places.

"Repayment" – 59:18; Deut 32:40,41; 2 Chron 6:23; Rom 12:19.

65:8-10 God will not completely destroy the nation but will preserve a remnant who will seek Him – 1:9; 10:20,21,22; 11:11,16; 46:3. Jacob (v 9) probably signifies the northern kingdom that had gone into captivity to Assyria.

"My mountains" – represent the whole land of Israel. God promised it to Israel forever (Gen 17:8; etc). Sharon (v 10) is along the Mediterranean Sea, Achor near the Jordan river. Those who possess the

- cluster of grapes, and someone says,
 'Do not destroy it, for a blessing is in it,'
 so I will act for the sake of my servants, that I may not destroy them all.
- 9 And I will bring forth offspring from Jacob,
 and from Judah an heir of my mountains.
 And my chosen ones will inherit it,
 and my servants will live there.
- 10 And Sharon will be a pasture for flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in,
 for my people who have sought me.
- 11 But you are those who forsake the LORD,
 who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune,
 and who furnish a drink offering for Destiny.
- 12 Therefore I will destine you for the sword,
 and you will all bow down to the slaughter;
 because when I called,
 you did not answer;
 when I spoke, you did not listen,
 but did evil before my eyes, and chose what I had no delight in."
- 13 Therefore thus says the Lord God:
 "See, my servants will eat,
 but you will be hungry.
 See, my servants will drink,
 but you will be thirsty.
 See, my servants will rejoice,
 but you will be put to shame.
- 14 See, my servants will sing for joy of heart,

- but you will cry for sorrow of heart,
 and will wail for grief of spirit.
- 15 And you will leave your name as a curse for my chosen, for the Lord God will slay you, and call his servants by another name,
- 16 That he who is blessed on the earth will be blessed in the God of truth;
 and he who takes an oath on the earth will swear by the God of truth;
 because the former troubles will be forgotten,
 and because they will be hidden from my eyes.
- 17 "For, see, I will create new heavens and a new earth;
 and the former will not be remembered,
 nor come to mind.
- 18 But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create,
 for, see, I will create Jerusalem a rejoicing,
 and her people a joy.
- 19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
 and joy in my people;
 and the voice of weeping no longer
 will be heard in her,
 nor the voice of crying.
- 20 "No longer will there be an infant who lives only a few days, or an old man who has not completed
 his days;
 for the child will die a hundred years old;
 but the sinner being a hundred years land will be those who seek God (v 10; 51:1. Compare Jer 29:12-14).

65:11-16 The happy future belongs to those in Israel (or in any nation) who seek God. The wicked and rebellious should not think they have any part in it.

65:11 "Fortune" and "Destiny" – the Hebrew words may refer to certain gods of "good fortune" and "good luck." Some Jews mistakenly thought they could combine the worship of those with the worship of Jehovah. Compare Matt 6:24. See 1 Kings 18:21.

65:12 See 41:28; 50:2; Prov 1:24-32; Jer 7:27.

65:13,14 The wicked will justly receive the exact opposite of the righteous. Compare Ps 102:8.

65:15 "Curse" – Jer 29:22.

"Another name" – See 1:26; 60:14; 62:2,4,12; Rev 2:17.

65:16 After the final restoration of Israel (Amos 9:15) no one there will ever again swear by any false god (such as Baal – see Jer 12:16).

"God of truth" – the literal translation of the Hebrew here is "God of Amen." It means the God who is absolutely faithful to His Word. Note on God of truth at Ps 31:5.

"Will be forgotten" – v 17.

65:17 "New earth" – Rev 21:1-4.

65:18-25 These verses can hardly apply to conditions as they will be in the new heaven and earth for they speak of birth and death (death is the result of sin – Gen 2:17; Rom 5:12; 6:23, and will have no place in the new heaven and earth where sin will not exist). Yet it will be a time of great blessing for Israel, a time of striking differences from the present. Evidently these verses describe the same time Isaiah wrote about in 2:2-5; 4:2-6; 9:7; 11:1-16; 25:6-9; 26:1-4; 32:1-5; 35:1-10; 40:1,2; 49:8-23; 51:3; 52:1,2; 54:1-17; 60:1-22; 61:3-7; 62:1-12. The New Testament speaks of this future time in Rev 20:4-6.

65:18 See 54:11-13.

65:19 See 62:4,5.

65:20 This speaks of a great change from the present in the length of time people live. Compare Genesis chapter 5.

"The sinner being a hundred years old will be accursed" – in Hebrew this sentence is obscure and difficult. It could be translated "the sinner who reaches a hundred will be considered accursed." The sentence may mean that if someone fails to live at least one hundred years people will think him accursed. Or possibly it means God may permit even the worst of sinners to live to be a hundred.

old will be accursed.

- 21 And they will build houses and live in them, and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
- 22 Others will not live in what they build; others will not eat what they plant; for the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, and my chosen ones will long enjoy the work of their hands.
- 23 They will not labour in vain, or bear children for trouble; for they will be the descendants of those blessed by the LORD, and their offspring with them.
- 24 And it will come about that before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear.
- 25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion will eat straw like a bull, and dust will be the serpent's food. They will not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain," says the LORD.

- 66 Thus says the LORD:
 "Heaven is my throne,
 and the earth is my footstool;
 where is the house that you will build for me?
 And where is the place of my rest?
 2 For my hand has made all those things, and so all those things came to be,"
 says the LORD,

65:21 See 62:8,9.

65:22 "Like the days of a tree" – some trees live for many hundreds of years. Compare with v 20.

65:23 See 61:9. Notes on blessing and blessed at Gen 12:2,3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1; 119:1; etc.

65:24 See 30:19; 58:9; Zech 10:6. Compare 1:15; etc.

65:25 See 11:6-9.

66:1-24 God continues to speak through Isaiah. Here He emphasizes what kind of people He wants His people to be, and what the results will be when Israel becomes that kind of people. He reveals also what the end will be for those who refuse Him and His Word.

66:1,2 40:21,22; 1 Kings 8:27; Ps 2:4; Matt 5:34,35; Acts 7:48-50; 17:24,25. The God of Israel is the mighty Creator of the universe – 40:26; Gen 1:1. And the whole universe is not big enough for Him. God does not need a material temple. He much prefers a spiritual one – the humble hearts and bodies of a believing people (57:15; 1 Cor 6:19; Eph 2:21,22). "contrite" – or "wounded."

The Hebrew word translated "look" is used in Gen 4:4,5; Ex 2:25; Num 16:15; Jud 6:14; Ps 25:16. It implies both approval

"But to this person I will look, to the one who is lowly and of a contrite spirit, and trembles at my word.

- 3 "He who kills a bull is as if he killed a man; he who sacrifices a lamb is as if he cut off a dog's neck; he who makes an offering is as if he offered swine's blood; he who burns incense is as if he blessed an idol.
 Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations.
- 4 So I will choose their hardships, and will bring on them what they fear, because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they did not listen, but did evil before my very eyes, and chose what I did not delight in.
- 5 Hear the word of the LORD,
 you who tremble at his word.
 Your brethren who hated you,
 who threw you out for my name's sake,
 said, 'Let the LORD be glorified.'
 But he will appear to your joy,
 and they will be put to shame."
- 6 A sound of noise from the city!
 A voice from the temple!
 The voice of the LORD who repays his enemies:
- 7 "Before she was in labour, she gave birth.
 Before her pain came, and affection. For "lowly and contrite" see 57:15; Ps 51:17; Matt 5:3,4; Luke 18:13,14; Jam 4:6. Trembling at God's word means a sense of unworthiness combined with reverence and fear to offend its Giver, and in haste to obey it – Ezra 9:4; Hos 3:5. Compare Ps 2:11; 99:1; 114:7; Jer 5:22.

66:3 Compare 1:11-14. No offering of the wicked is acceptable to God – Prov 15:8; 21:27.

"Their own ways" – 53:6; 57:17. Men are very far gone into depravity when they "delight" in their abominations. Compare Phil 3:18,19.

66:4 See 65:7,12; Ps 18:25,26.

66:5 In this world those who tremble in humility at God's word will sometimes be hated even by those who should love them (59:15; Ps 38:20; Micah 7:6; Matt 10:36).

66:6 "City", "temple" – 64:10,11; Jer 52:12-14. The Lord often uses human instruments to take vengeance or repay His enemies (10:5,6; etc).

66:7-11 This speaks of the fruitfulness of Zion representing the nation of Israel. Compare 49:14-20; 54:1-8. The "male child" of v 7 is the country, the nation of v 8. So great will be the change in Israel that it will be as though the country and the people were made completely new.

- she delivered a male child.
- 8 Who has heard such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Will the earth be made to give birth in one day?
Or will a nation be born at once?
For as soon as Zion was in labour,
she gave birth to her children.
- 9 Will I bring to the point of birth, and not give delivery?" says the LORD.
"Will I bring to birth,
and shut the womb?" says your God.
- 10 Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her,
all you who love her.
Rejoice and be happy with her,
all you who mourn for her,
- 11 That you may nurse and be satisfied with her comforting breasts, that you may drink deeply,
and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.
- 12 For thus says the LORD,
"See, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream.
Then you will nurse, you will be carried on her hips and dandled on her knees.
- 13 I will comfort you like one whom his mother comforts;
and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.
- 14 And when you see this, your heart will rejoice,

- and your bones will flourish like grass;
and the hand of the LORD will be known to his servants,
and his indignation to his enemies.
- 15 For, see, the LORD will come with fire
and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury,
and his rebuke with flames of fire.
- 16 For the LORD will execute judgment by fire and by his sword on all flesh;
and the slain of the LORD will be many.
- 17 "Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following one in the middle of those who eat the meat of pigs and the abomination and the mouse, will be consumed together,"
says the LORD.
- 18 "For I know their deeds and their thoughts.
The time will come when I gather all nations and tongues, and they will come, and see my glory.
- 19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those of them who escape to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud (who draw the bow), to Tubal and Javan, to the islands far away, who have not heard my fame or seen my glory; and they will declare my glory among the Gentiles.
- 20 And they will bring all your brethren as an offering to the LORD out of all nations on horses and in chariots and on litters and on mules and on swift animals, to my holy mountain Jerusalem," says the LORD, "just as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.
- 21 And I will also take some of them as priests and as Levites",

Compare 4:2-6; 11:6-16; 27:6; 35:1-10. The change in Israel will take place very suddenly without the travail of birth. See Zech 12:10-13:2; Rom 11:26,27; Rev 1:7. 66:10 See 65:18; Ps 122:6; 137:6. 66:11 Verse 12; 49:23; 60:16. Jerusalem in the millennium will be like a mother. It will at last be a true reflection of the Jerusalem which is above, who is the mother of all who believe (Gal 4:26). 66:12 See 48:18; 60:5. 66:13 God has the tender compassion that a mother has and He will comfort those concerned with the future of Jerusalem (40:1,2; 49:13-16; 54:7,8). 66:14 "Grass" – not as 40:6-8, but as 44:4. "Hand of the LORD" – 53:1; Ezra 7:9; 8:31. Here this means God's power at work to bless His people. 66:15,16 See 2:11,17,20; 26:20,21; 30:27,28; 34:2; 42:25; 2 Thess 1:1,7-10; Rev 19:11-16. 66:17 Is it surprising to see in this grand finishing chapter of the great book of Isaiah any sort of emphasis on eating food forbidden by the law of Moses? See also 65:4. Does this not indicate that literal Israel is in view? The wicked among them are thus shown as those who have contempt for God's commands. Of all the instructions of the law probably the easiest to keep were the ones about clean and unclean animals. Those who will not keep those will hardly be of a mind to keep any other laws. For notes on meaning of prohibition of certain foods see Leviticus chapter 11. 66:18 "Their thoughts" – 65:2. "All nations" – Joel 3:2; Zeph 3:8; Zech 14:2-5. They will see God's glory in the rescue of His people and the destruction of their foes, as the Egyptians did at the Red Sea (Exodus chapter 14). 66:19-21 Judging from the context, and from other prophecies in Isaiah (and other books of the Bible) these verses probably describe some events in the future millennium. Some of the words here fit the activities of the Church of the New Testament, but others do not. 66:19 "Them" – the Jews. "Pul" – the Septuagint has "Put" which probably signifies Libya. 66:20 See 11:11,12; 49:22; 60:4. 66:21 Note at 61:6. In this New Testament era all believers are priests, not some only (1 Pet 2:5,9). And they are not serving as

says the LORD.

22 "For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, will remain before me," says the LORD, "so your offspring and your name will remain. 23 And it will happen from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, that all mankind will come to worship before me," says the LORD. 24 "And they will go out, and look at the corpses of the men who have transgressed against me; for their worm will not die, and their fire will not be quenched; and they will be loathsome to all mankind."

Levites.

66:22 See 65:17. "Remain" – 60:20,21; Jer 33:19-26.

66:23 Notice again the emphasis on "all mankind."

66:24 Rebellion is a theme found often in Isaiah (1:2,23; 30:1,9; 60:10; 65:2). The picture here is of those in the city of Jerusalem going and looking into the valley of Hinnom or Tophet (30:33; Jer 7:31-33; 19:6). This verse gives the destiny of those who rebel against God. In the New Testament Tophet or Hinnom became a symbol for hell, and part of this verse is quoted in Mark 9:48. The only escape from the punishment revealed in this verse is through the suffering servant depicted so clearly in the 53rd chapter of this book.

JEREMIAH

Author:

Jeremiah was a priest from the village of Anathoth. He began his public ministry at the age of 20, during the 13th year of the reign of king Josiah (626 BC), and his service continued for more than 40 years. By nature he was gentle and had a tender heart, but he was very courageous when God asked him to preach harsh messages and warn of coming judgment on the people. So, though loved by God, he became unpopular with men. The whole nation rejected both him and God's message through him. It is no wonder that he is known as "the weeping prophet." Sometimes he found his responsibility as God's prophet very hard to bear, and longed to escape from it (20:9). But in the face of much persecution and sorrow he continued in this ministry, and by the grace of God stood as an "iron pillar" and like "bronze walls" (1:18).

Date:

Sometime about 580 BC.

Themes :

In the year 586 before Christ the armies of Babylon came, captured Jerusalem, and took many of its people into exile in Babylon. Up to then Jeremiah, with compassion and tears, had warned the people and pled with them to turn to God in repentance. When they refused to listen, he made God's message known to them: They would be in Babylonia for seventy years and then return to Jerusalem and Judah. He also revealed to them the new covenant that God would make with Israel, and the just judgments that would fall on Babylon and certain other nations. There are many lessons in this book for God's servants today. In many ways Jeremiah was an ideal person to show what a true servant of God should be like. The following verses speak of the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ: 23:5; 30:4-11; 31:31-34; 33:15-18.

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiyah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. 2 The word of the LORD came to him in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, up to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until Jerusalem was carried away into exile in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

5 "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you, and before you were born I sanctified you, and I ordained you a prophet to the nations."

6 Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Look, I cannot

1:1 speak, for I am a child."

7 But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am a child,' for you will go to all to whom I send you, and you will speak whatever I command you. 8 Do not be afraid of their faces, for I am with you to defend you," said the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put out his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said to me, "Look, I have put my words in your mouth. 10 See, today I have set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant."

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

And I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

12 Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well; for I will watch over my word to fulfil it."

13 And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?" And I

1:1 Anathoth was a town about 5 kilometers north of Jerusalem. It was set apart for the priests of Israel (Josh 21:18; 1 Kings 2:26).

1:2 "The word of the LORD came" – this phrase is very common in the prophets of the Bible (Ezek 1:3; Jonah 1:1; Haggai 1:1; Zech 1:1; etc). It indicates a revelation from God. The prophets spoke and wrote the very words God gave them – v 9.

1:3 The time period covered by vs 2 and 3 was 40 years, between 626 and 586 BC. Afterwards Jeremiah continued to prophesy a few more years. Of the kings mentioned here only Josiah was a good one. A brief history of those years is found in 2 Kings chapters 22-25 and 2 Chronicles chapters 34-36.

1:5 "Formed" – Ps 139:13; 119:73; Isa 44:24; 49:5.

"Knew" – Ps 139:16; Rom 8:29; 11:2; 1 Pet 1:2. The same Hebrew word translated "knew" in this verse is translated "chosen" in Gen 18:19 and Amos 3:2, and may mean that here also.

"Sanctified" – this means that Jeremiah was set apart in God's plan to be a servant of God even before his birth. Compare Isa 49:1,5; Luke 1:13-15; Gal 1:15; Eph 1:4.

"I ordained you" – God has a place and a work for each of His people (Rom 12:3-8; 1 Cor 12:27-31). What we do we should do because we know it is God's appointment for us. Note on prophet at Gen 20:7. Jeremiah had a very high place in God's plans. He was a prophet not simply to Israel but to the nations of earth – v 10; 25:15-26; chapters 46-51.

1:6 Jeremiah's response was like that of Moses (Ex 4:10), unlike that of Isaiah (Isa 6:8). He did not think he was capable of being God's spokesman and would gladly have escaped the responsibility.

"LORD God" – see the note at Gen 15:2. 1:7 When God appoints a man for a task He will accept no excuses he may make to escape from it. Compare Ex 3:10-13;

4:1,10-17.

1:8 "Afraid" – Gen 15:11; 26:24; Deut 31:6; Josh 1:6-9; 8:1; etc.

"With you" – Gen 26:3; Josh 1:5; Jer 15:20.

"Deliver" – v 19; 15:21; 26:24; 36:26; 42:11.

1:9 Ex 4:12; Num 22:38; 23:5,12,16; Deut 18:18; Isa 51:16. So the prophets who wrote the Bible could, and did, speak the very words of God without error of any kind. They spoke God's words by the inspiration of God's Spirit (2 Tim 3:16; 2 Pet 1:21).

1:10 It was the Word of God sent by God through Jeremiah that would accomplish these things among the nations. See Isa 55:10,11. Jeremiah's utterances by God's Spirit were to have two effects – one destructive, one constructive. God's word will always have these two results depending on the condition and response of those who hear it. Sometimes for the good to flourish it is necessary to destroy the bad.

1:11,12 God sometimes used object lessons to bring His message to the prophets (v 13; Amos 7:8; 8:2; Zech 4:2; 5:2). The two He gave in the next few verses are basic to the teaching of the book of Jeremiah. In Hebrew the word for "almond tree" and the word for "watch over" are very similar (sha'ked and sho'ked). Aaron's rod that budded was from the almond tree. See Num 17:1-13.

1:12 God will fulfill His word, in spite of unbelieving Israel and a world of nations and peoples who do not know Him, and Jeremiah was not to fear that He would not (compare Isa 55:11; Matt 5:17,18). This is God's very first message to Jeremiah after His appointment as prophet. It is one of the first things God wants all of His servants in any time or place to be sure about.

1:13-16 The second message concerns destruction on Israel. Nations would come from the north, hot and agitated as boiling water, and overflow the land (4:6; 6:1).

said, "I see a boiling pot, and its face is toward the north."

14 Then the LORD said to me, "Out of the north a disaster will burst out on all the inhabitants of the land. 15 For, see, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD,

"And they will come, and each of them will set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its surrounding walls, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 "Therefore make yourself ready, and arise and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be afraid of their faces, so that I do not make you fear before them. 18 For, see, today I have made you a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. 19 And they will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you, says the LORD, to deliver you."

2 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Go and cry out in the ears of

As far as Jeremiah's lifetime is concerned this happened when Babylon and its allies invaded and conquered Judah. See chapter 39; 2 Kings chapters 24,25; 2 Chronicles chapter 36. Perhaps a more complete fulfillment will come at the end of this age (see Ezekiel chapters 38, 39 and Zechariah chapter 12).

1:16 The reason for God's judgment is plain. They habitually broke the most important commandment of the law and forsook the Creator to worship things they had made. See Ex 20:1-6; Lev 26:14-39; Deut 27:14-26.

1:17 This is always the principal responsibility of God's spokesman – to speak His word just as it is, without fear of men. This can be done when there is the fullness of the Holy Spirit (Acts 4:31). The choice is always between fearing men or fearing God (Matt 10:28; Isa 8:12,13).

1:18,19 Verse 8. Everyone would be against Jeremiah – rulers and people and religious leaders (the very ones who should have stood with him). He was to be alone against the world, but he was to know the truth later recorded in Rom 8:31. See also Ps 118:6; Heb 13:6.

2:2 "Bridal days" – the nation Israel was the special people of Jehovah, the nation having a special intimate spiritual relationship with Him (the meaning of the

Jerusalem, saying, Thus says the LORD:

"I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your bridal days, when you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness to the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase. All who devoured him were guilty; disaster came on them, says the LORD."

4 Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

5 Thus says the LORD: "What evil did your fathers find in me, that they went away far from me, and walked after emptiness, and became empty?

6 And they did not say, 'Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and pits, through a land of drought and the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no one lived?'

7 And I brought you into a land of plenty, reference to a bride here). This chapter (and the next few chapters) pictures that nation as having become unfaithful and adulterous. In connection with this theme read Isa 54:5; Jer 3:14; 31:32; Ezekiel chapters 16 and 23; Hos 2:7,16; John 3:29; Rom 7:4; 2 Cor 11:2; Eph 5:25-27; Rev 19:7-8.

"Wilderness" – refers to events recorded in Exodus and Numbers.

2:3 "Holiness" – Ex 19:6; 7:6; Note at Lev 20:7.

"Disaster" – refers to the defeat of Israel's enemies recorded in Exodus and Numbers. 2:4 The great king of the universe surely has the right to demand that His people listen to Him (Isa 1:2,10; Ezek 13:2; Hos 4:1; Amos 7:16; Heb 12:25).

2:5 God asks this as a faithful husband would ask an unfaithful wife who runs after other men. Israel ran after other gods and thus showed their lack of love for the true God and a contempt for His word (Ex 20:2-6). God's jealousy was aroused just as He said it would be.

"Emptiness" – probably a reference to false gods and idols. Notes at Ps 115:4-8; 135:15-18.

2:6 They forgot God, something God repeatedly warned them about. See note at Deut 8:1-5.

2:7 "Land of plenty" – as recorded in Joshua.

- to eat its fruit and its goodness.
 But when you entered, you defiled my land,
 and made an abomination of my inheritance.
- 8 The priests did not say,
 ‘Where is the LORD?’
 And those who dealt with the law did not know me.
 The leaders also transgressed against me,
 and the prophets prophesied by Baal,
 and followed after worthless things.
- 9 Therefore I will bring charges against you again”, says the LORD, “and I will bring charges against your children’s children.
- 10 For cross over the coasts of Kittim and see;
 and send to Kedar, and consider carefully,
 and see if there is such a thing as this.
- 11 Has a nation changed its gods,
 which are not gods?
 But my people have exchanged their glory for what is worthless.
- 12 Be astonished, O heavens, at this,
 and be horribly afraid;
 be very desolate,” says the LORD.
- 13 “For my people have committed two evils;
 they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters,
 and dug out cisterns for themselves,
 broken cisterns that can hold no water.
- 14 “Is Israel a servant?
Is he a homeborn slave?
 Why is he plundered?
- 15 The young lions roared over him,
 and growled, and they laid his land waste.
 His cities are burned, without inhabitant.
- 16 Also the people of Noph and Tahpanes have broken the crown of your head.
- 17 Have you not brought this on yourself,
 by your forsaking the LORD your God,
 when he led you in the way?
- 18 And now why should you go on the way to Egypt to drink the waters of Sihor?
 Or why should you go on the way to Assyria to drink the waters of the Euphrates River?
- 19 Your own wickedness will chasten you,
 and your backslidings will rebuke you.
 Therefore know and see that it is an evil and bitter thing,
 that you have forsaken the LORD your God,
 and that my fear is not in you,”
 says the Lord God of hosts.
- 20 “For long ago I broke your yoke,
 and tore off your bands;
 and you said, ‘I will not transgress,’ when on every high hill and under every green tree you wandered, acting like a prostitute.

“Fruit” – Ex 3:8; Num 13:27; Deut 8:7-9; 11:10-12.

“Defiled” – 3:9; 7:39; 16:18; Ps 106:34-39; Ezek 11:21; 36:17. In fact, all the world belongs to God, and they who sin are defiling His world (Isa 24:5).

2:8 There was complete failure by all the leaders of Israel – priests, rulers, prophets. Those who knew God’s law did not know God. Those who were raised up to rule for God rebelled against Him. Those who should have prophesied for God spoke for the false god Baal. Note on Baal at Jud 2:11.

2:9 25:31; Hos 4:1; 12:2; Mic 6:2. If God Himself brings a case against us how can we stand?

2:10,11 Israel acted in a more perverted and strange way than any nation to the east (Kedar was the home of nomadic tribes in the Syro-Arabian desert), or to the west (Kittim is Cyprus in the Mediterranean Sea). Though the gods of those peoples were false and worthless they remained faithful to them.

“Exchanged” – Ps 106:20; Rom 1:23. This is the choice the Bible often speaks of – whether to serve the God of eternal glory or to have gods which are not gods at all (Ps 115:4; Isa 37:19; Jer 16:20; Gal 4:8).

2:12 Israel’s sin was so great that the heavens themselves should feel the horror of it (compare Deut 4:26; 30:19; 31:28; Isa 1:2).

2:13 This two-fold sin is the sin of all humanity. Only God has the eternally satisfying water of spiritual life – in fact, He Himself is the “spring” of it (17:13; Ps 36:9; John 4:13,14; 7:37,38; Rev 22:17). To turn from Him and try to create some other source of satisfaction is wickedness, folly, madness.

2:14-17 The nation Israel was like a son to God, not a slave (31:9; Ex 4:22); like a wife, not a servant. Then why did disasters come on them? Why were their enemies able to destroy them? Why had Egypt (Memphis, Tahpanhes) been able to humiliate them? The answer is in v 17. They brought all their trouble on themselves by forsaking God (4:18).

2:18 They will find there is no satisfaction, no safety, no enjoyment anywhere apart from God (2:36).

“Assyria” – note at 2 Kings 15:19.

2:19 Wickedness itself will be a rod on the sinner’s back, a knife in his heart, and his own backsliding will be a terrible teacher. God has arranged matters that sin will be shown to be an evil and bitter thing (4:18). Observe here the importance of the fear of God (notes at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; 130:3,4).

“Lord God of hosts” – note at 1 Sam 1:3. 2:20 5:5; Hos 4:16. They behaved like the peoples in Ps 2:3 which did not know God.

- 21 Yet I had planted you a choice vine, a fully right seed.
How then have you turned against me into the degenerate plant of a strange vine to me?
- 22 For though you wash yourself with lye,
and use much soap,
yet your iniquity is marked before me,"
says the Lord God.
- 23 "How can you say, 'I am not defiled,
I have not gone after the Baals?'
See your way in the valley, know what you have done.
You are a swift she-camel rushing here
and there,
- 24 A wild donkey used to the wilderness,
that sniffs at the wind in her desire;
in her heat who can turn her away?
Those pursuing her will not tire themselves out;
in her month they will find her.
- 25 "Keep your foot from being unshod,
and your throat from thirst.
But you say, 'There is no hope;
no, for I have loved foreigners,
and after them I will go.'
- 26 As the thief is disgraced when he is found out,
so is the house of Israel disgraced,
they, their kings, their princes,
and their priests, and their prophets,
- 27 Saying to a piece of wood,
'You are my father,' and to a stone,
'You have given me birth';
for they have turned their backs on me,
and not their face.
But in the time of their trouble they will say, 'Arise, and save us.'
- 28 But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves?
Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble;
for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah.
- 29 "Why do you bring charges against me?
You have all transgressed against me,
says the LORD.
- 30 In vain have I struck your children;
they received no correction.
Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.
- 31 O you of this generation, see the word
of the LORD.
Have I been a wilderness to Israel?
A land of darkness?
Why do my people say, 'We are lords;
we will not come to you any more'?
- 32 Can a maiden forget her jewels,
or a bride her attire?
Yet my people have forgotten me days without number.
- 33 How gladly you prepare your way to seek love!
Therefore you have taught even the wicked women your ways.
- 34 Also on your skirts is found the lifeblood of the poor innocents.
I have not found it by secret search,
but on all these.
- 35 Yet you say, 'Because I am innocent, surely his anger will turn from me.'
See, I will bring charges against you because you say, 'I have not sinned.'
- 36 Why do you go around so much to change your way?
You will also be ashamed of Egypt,
as you were ashamed of Assyria.
- 37 Yes, you will go away from him with

"Prostitute" – those hills and trees were spots where idols of false gods were placed. Forsaking God to go after them was behaving like a prostitute – Ex 34:15; Lev 17:7; 2 Chron 21:11.

2:21 Ps 80:8-16; Isa 5:1-7; Ezek 17:1-10; Hos 10:1,2; John 15:1-8.

2:22 No effort of sinners to cleanse themselves will be successful. But God can do what man cannot – Ps 51:2; Zech 13:1; Heb 9:14; 1 John 1:9.

2:23-25 Israel denied that she had fallen as God said she had (see Prov 16:2; 30:12). But she passionately ran after other gods like an animal in heat.

2:27,28 People of each town turned their backs on the God who made them, and they made their own favorite gods from wood or stone. But in times of trouble they wanted

God's help. Compare Judges 2:10-19. Such is the sad nature of man. People want God to rescue them from danger, but then forget God and do all that God hates after the danger is removed.

2:29 As all other people the people of Israel, instead of confessing their great wickedness, wanted to argue with God (v 35).

2:30 Isa 1:4-9; Lev 26:18-35. God's punishments were sent in love to correct the people. And all God's words here are in the language of pleading love.

2:31 What fault did they find in God that they decided to wander away from Him?

2:32-35 Four of the grievous sins of Israel – forgetting God, spiritual adultery, cruelty to the poor, and self-righteousness. They were utterly corrupted by their sins and yet thought and said they were innocent. Such is the spiritual blindness of men in general (Prov your hands on your head,

for the LORD has rejected those you trust,
and you will not prosper by them.

- 3 “They say, ‘If a man divorces his wife, and she goes away from him and becomes another man’s,
may he return to her again?
Would not the land be greatly polluted?
But you have been the prostitute with many lovers;
yet return to me again,” says the LORD.
- 2 “Lift up your eyes to the barren high places and look.
Where have you not been ravished?
By the roads you sat for them, like an Arabian in the desert, and you have polluted the land with your prostitution and your wickedness.
- 3 Therefore the showers have been withheld,
and there has been no latter rain,
for you had a prostitute’s forehead,
you refused to be ashamed.
- 4 Even at this time did you not cry out to me, ‘My father, you are the guide of my youth?’
- 5 Will he remain angry forever?
Will he maintain it to the end?
See, you have said this, and done what evil you could.”

6 The LORD also said to me in the days of Josiah the king, “Have you seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has behaved like a prostitute. 7 And after she had done all these things, I said, Return to me. But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. 8 And when, for all the causes backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a certificate of divorce, I saw that her treacherous sister Judah had no fear, but also went and behaved like a prostitute. 9 And it happened through her thoughtless prostitution, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and wood. 10 And in spite of all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to me with her whole heart, but in pretense, says the LORD.”

11 And the LORD said to me, “Backsliding Israel is less unrighteous than treacherous Judah. 12 Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say:

- “Return, backsliding Israel,
says the LORD,
and I will not cause my anger to fall on you;
for I am merciful, says the LORD,
and I will not remain angry forever.
- 13 Only acknowledge your guilt, that you have transgressed against the LORD your God,
and have scattered your favours to foreigners under every green tree,
and have not obeyed my voice,
says the LORD.

14 “Return, O backsliding children, says the LORD, for I am married to you. And I will take you, one from a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion. 15 And I will give you shepherds after my heart, who will feed you with knowledge and 30:12; Luke 18:9-12; Isa 65:5; Rev 3:17).

3:1,2 “Divorces” – 24:1-4.

“Polluted” – Lev 18:25-28.
“Prostitute” – 2:20. God showed incredible grace and love toward this fallen people.
3:3 God punished them by causing drought in the land, but this did not produce the desired result.

3:4,5 Their prayers were mere empty words. Their hearts were set on evil. They called God “Father” but lived as if Satan were their father. So their prayers went unanswered (Isa 1:15-17; Prov 28:9; Jam 4:3,4).

3:6-9 About 930 BC, long before the days of King Josiah, the people of Israel had divided into two kingdoms (1 Kings chapter 12). From the beginning the northern kingdom (called Israel) went into spiritual adultery and apostasy and refused to repent. Jehovah God “divorced” Israel and sent her into captivity in 721 BC. The history of all this is recorded in the books of Kings and Chronicles. The southern kingdom (Judah) saw all this but did not learn its lesson.

“Stones and wood” (v 9) – idols made of these.

3:10 There was a revival of religion in King Josiah’s day, but it evidently did not go very deep into the lives of the people. There was much pretense and hypocrisy.

3:11 Judah had the example of God’s dealings with Israel to learn a lesson. It also had more teaching of the truth, God’s temple, and better kings on the whole than Israel. So by comparison they were worse than Israel. Greater opportunities to know God’s truth means greater responsibilities to practice it.

3:12 “North” – Israel had been taken captive by Assyria which was to the north. Though God had severely punished His people He had not abandoned them forever.

“I am merciful” – Ex 34:6,7.

3:13 If they desire forgiveness they must understand, confess, and forsake their sin (Prov 28:13).

3:14 “I am married to you” – 2:2.

“One”, “two” – only a small percentage of the people would be able to return to Jerusalem.

3:15 Shepherds after God’s heart instead of the kind they had before (compare 2:8).

understanding. 16 And it will come about in those days, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, says the LORD, they will no longer say, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD', nor will it come to mind, nor will they remember it, nor will they visit it, nor will it be made again. 17 At that time they will call Jerusalem 'The Throne of the LORD', and all the nations will be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem; neither will they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart. 18 In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given as an inheritance to your fathers.

- 19 "But I said, How can I put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful inheritance of nations? and I said, You will call me, 'My father' and will not turn away from me.
- 20 Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so have you dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, says the LORD."
- 21 A voice was heard on the high places, the weeping and pleading of the children of Israel; for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.
- 22 "Return, you backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings."

3:16-18 Jehovah God speaks here of a time far in the future. A time not yet come, for some of the predictions here remain unfulfilled.

3:16 This is the last mention in the Old Testament of the ark of the covenant (note at Ex 25:10-16).

"No longer say" – the ark symbolized Christ. When Christ appears there is no further need of that symbol.

3:17 Does this not still await fulfillment? See note at Isa 2:2-4. Certainly Israel to this day follows the stubbornness of their evil hearts.

"All the nations" – Ps 102:15; Isa 2:2,3; Mic 4:1.

3:18 30:3; Isa 11:12; Ezek 37:19-23; Hos 1:11.

3:19,20 As "sons" Israel had been disobedient; as a "wife" she had been unfaithful to God.

3:21 Suggests the beginning of repentance.

3:22 Here is a wonderful promise for backsliders. God promised not merely to receive them but to heal them – Deut 32:19; Ps 41:4; Isa 57:18; Jer 30:17; 33:6; Hos 6:1; 14:1,4. Healing of the sickness of sin is the greatest of all healing. From the middle of this verse to the end of v 25 we have words that express the future confession and

See, we come to you, for you are the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the many mountains.

Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For the thing of shame has devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our disgrace covers us, for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth up to this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

4 "If you will return, O Israel," says the LORD, "return to me. And if you will put your abominations out of my sight, then you will not be moved.

2 And you will swear in truth, in justice, in righteousness, 'The LORD lives'; and the nations will bless themselves in him, and in him they will glory."

3 For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

"Break up your fallow ground,

repentance of Israel. Neither Israel nor Judah spoke such words in Jeremiah's day. Words like these spoken sincerely are the beginning of the healing God promises.

3:24 "Thing of shame" – possibly a reference to the false god Baal, or idol worship in general. Israel would finally see what terrible things that had done to them, and what it had cost them. See Lev 26:1,14-35; Deut 27:15; 28:15-68.

3:25 True enlightenment and the work of God in our hearts will bring us also to this sort of confession. And this is the way to peace with God (see psalms 32 and 51).

4:1,2 Here we have the response of the LORD (Jehovah) to the confession of Israel in 3:22-25. The meaning is that words alone are not enough. There must be deep and genuine repentance, strong and resolute action. When they obey His word great blessing will result, not merely to Israel, but to all nations. A principle is here for us all – our obedience to God brings blessing to many others (Gen 12:1-3; 22:15-18; Rom 5:18).

4:3 Hos 10:12; Mark 4:18,19; Heb 6:8. Much of the "ground" of their hearts and lives lay fallow, unused for God's service, producing thorns, briars and weeds which would choke the word of God. It needed breaking up.

- and do not sow among thorns.
- 4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD; circumcise your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that my fury does not come out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of your evil deeds.
- 5 Declare in Judah, and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say, 'Blow the trumpet in the land! Cry out, gather together, and say, 'Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the fortified cities'.
- 6 Set up the signal toward Zion. Take refuge! Do not delay! For I will bring disaster from the north, and a great destruction.
- 7 The lion has come out of his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way. He has come out of his place to make your land desolate; and your cities will be laid waste, without an inhabitant."
- 8 Because of this, tie on sackcloth! Lament and wail! For the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us.
- 9 "And it will happen in that day", says the LORD, "that the heart of the king will fail, and the heart of the princes; and the priests will be astonished, and the prophets will wonder."

10 Then said I, "Ah, Lord God! Surely you have caused this people and Jerusalem to go utterly astray, saying, 'You will have peace', while the sword reaches for the heart."

11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A dry wind from the high places in the desert blows toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, or to cleanse, 12 a wind too strong for these will come at my command; now also I will pronounce judgment against them."

13 See, he will come up like clouds, and his chariots will be like a whirlwind. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! for we are plundered.

14 O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long will your evil thoughts lodge within you?

15 For a voice declares from Dan, and proclaims affliction from Mount Ephraim:

16 "Make mention to the nations, see, proclaim against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 Like keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me," says the LORD.

18 "Your way and your deeds have brought these things on you. This is your wickedness. How bitter it is! How it reaches to your heart!."

19 My soul, my soul! I am pained to my very heart. My heart makes a noise in me. I cannot keep silent, because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

4:4 Lev 26:41; Deut 10:16; 30:6; Jer 6:10; 9:25,26; Ezek 44:7,9; Acts 7:51. People cannot, of course, literally circumcise their hearts to make them new and obedient. The meaning is that Judah should turn their hearts to God who could make them new. Circumcision was a symbol of faith and obedience to God's covenant (see Gen 17:10).

"Fury" – 21:12; 2 Thess 1:7-9; Heb 12:29. Notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11. 4:5-8 "From the north" – note at 1:13-16. The lion was a symbol of Babylon (Dan 7:4). Concerning Babylon's destructive power see Habakkuk 1:5-11. Observe what God says – "I will bring disaster." The cause of the destruction to come on Judah was "the fierce anger of the LORD" (vs 4,8).

4:9 Rulers, priests and prophets will get what they deserved (2:8).

4:10 How boldly Jeremiah accused God of leading the people astray (the Hebrew word also means "to deceive")! But it was not God who led them astray by promising peace, but false prophets speaking in God's name. See 6:14; 14:13,14; 23:16,17.

4:11,12 God's coming wind of judgment would be only for the purpose of destruction, not for correcting or refining the people. 4:13-17 The Babylonians (Hab 1:5-8).

4:14 This was the only hope for the people of Jerusalem to escape disaster (compare Isa 1:16; Jam 4:8). They could cleanse their hearts by coming to Him who alone can do so, and by obeying His word (John 15:3; Ps 119:9). Otherwise, "evil thoughts" would control them.

4:19 "Soul" – literally, "bowels".

4:19-26 8:21; Lam 2:11. In a vision Jeremiah sees the Babylonian destruction of Israel as though it had actually happened (see note at Isa 55:10,11). And he expresses his terrible grief. Can we not say he expresses God's grief as well? (See 48:36-39; Gen 6:6,7; 2 Sam 24:16; Luke

20 Destruction on destruction is announced, for the whole land is ruined.

Suddenly my tents are ruined,
and my curtains in an instant.

21 How long will I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 "For my people are foolish;
they have not known me;
they are senseless children,
and they have no understanding.
They are clever in doing evil,
but to do good they have no knowledge."

23 I looked at the earth, and saw that it was formless and empty,
and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 I looked at the mountains, and saw that they trembled,
and all the hills moved back and forth.

25 I looked, and saw that there was no man,
and all the birds of the heavens had fled.

26 I looked, and saw that the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of the LORD,
and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus says the LORD,
"The whole land will be desolate;
yet I will not make a full end.

28 For this the earth will mourn,
and the heavens above be black,
because I have spoken it,
I have purposed it,
and will not repent,
nor will I turn back from it.

29 "The whole city will flee from the noise of the horsemen and archers.

They will go into thickets,
and climb up on the rocks.

Every city will be forsaken, and not a man will live in them.

30 And when you are ruined,
what will you do?

Though you clothe yourself with crimson,
though you deck yourself with gold ornaments,
though you enlarge your eyes with paint,
you will make yourself beautiful in vain;
your lovers will despise you,
they will seek your life.

31 For I have heard a voice like a woman
in labour pains, and like the anguish of one who gives birth to her first child,

the voice of the daughter of Zion, crying out for herself, spreading
her hands and saying,

'Ah, now woe to me! For my soul is worn out because of murderers.'

5 "Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem,

and look now and understand,
and seek in its wide squares;

if you can find a man, if there is anyone who acts with justice and seeks the truth, I will pardon it.

2 For though they say, 'As the LORD lives,' they certainly swear falsely."

3 O LORD, are not your eyes on the truth?

You have struck them, but they have not grieved;

you have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction.

They have made their faces harder

19:41-44). God does not punish His people gladly. He is afflicted when they are afflicted (Isa 63:9). In this passage Jeremiah's heart and God's heart are united in suffering.

4:22 God speaks here (5:21; 10:8). The Hebrew word translated "foolish" means lacking moral sense. See Ps 14:1 and Prov 1:7.

"Have not known me" – Isa 1:3; Hos 4:1.
When those who are called God's people do not know God, they are ignorant of the one thing above all they should know and are headed for terrible trouble. Such people will not know how to do good but will develop great skill in doing evil. This is the story of mankind. This is what the human heart is like without God (17:9; Gen 8:21; Rom
1:18-23; Eph 4:17-19).

4:23 Jeremiah's vision seems to go beyond the destruction of Israel by the Babylonians.
4:27-29 God would not change His mind unless His people repented, and He knew they would not. Nothing else could avert the coming disaster.

4:30 The nation of Judah may behave like Jezebel (2 Kings 9:30), but will not escape any more than she did.

"Your lovers" – Judah sought the help of foreign countries and lusted after their gods.

4:31 6:24; 13:21; 22:23; 30:6; Mic 4:10;
1 Thess 5:3.

5:1 In chapter 4 God speaks of the fearful punishment to come on Judah. In this chapter He continues to set forth the reasons why He must send such punishments. The first reason He gives is that there is no honesty, no love of truth whatever in the whole of Jerusalem. Such corrupt conditions whether in Jerusalem or anywhere cry out for God's punishment.

5:2 4:2; Lev 19:12.

5:3-6 Jeremiah, from his experience with both the people and their leaders, is compelled to agree with God's judgment.

5:3 2:30; Lev 26:23. Their faces reflected the state of their hearts (Ezek 36:26; Zech 7:12).

than a rock;
they have refused to return.
4 Therefore I said,
"These are only the poor.
They are foolish, for they do not know
the way of the LORD, or the justice of their God.
5 I will go to the great men, and will speak to them;
for they have known the way of the LORD,
and the justice of their God."
But they had completely broken the yoke and torn off the bonds.
6 Therefore a lion out of the forest will slay them, and a wolf from the desert will ruin them,
a leopard will watch over their cities.
Everyone who goes out will be torn in pieces,
because their transgressions are many,
and their backslidings have increased.
7 "How will I pardon you for this?
Your children have forsaken me,
and sworn by gods who are not gods.
When I fed them to the full, then they committed adultery, and trooped to the houses of the prostitutes.
8 They were like well-fed lusty stallions;
each one neighed after his neighbour's wife.
9 Will I not give punishment for these things? says the LORD.
And will I not avenge myself on such a nation as this?
10 "Go up on her walls, and destroy.
But do not make a full end.
Take away her branches, for they are not the LORD's.
11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me," says the LORD.
12 "They have lied about the LORD and said: 'He is saying nothing.

No disaster will come on us,
and we will not see sword or famine.
13 And the prophets are but wind,
and the word is not in them.
Thus it will be done to them."
14 Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts:
"Because you have spoken this word, see, I will make my words in your mouth a fire, and this people wood,
and it will consume them.
15 See, I will bring a nation against you from afar, O house of Israel,"
says the LORD.
"It is a mighty nation,
it is an ancient nation,
a nation whose language you do not know,
and whose speech you do not understand.
16 Their quiver is like an open grave;
they are all mighty men.
17 And they will eat up your harvest,
and your bread,
which your sons and your daughters
should eat.
They will eat up your flocks and your herds.
They will eat up your vines and your fig trees.
With the sword they will destroy your fortified cities in which you trust.
18 "Nevertheless, in those days," says the LORD, "I will not make a complete end of you.
19 And it will come about that when you say, 'Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?'
then you will answer them, 'Just as you have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so you will serve foreigners in a land that is not yours.' 20 "Declare this to the house of Jacob,
and publish it in Judah, saying, 21 Now hear this, O foolish and senseless people, who have eyes,

5:5 2:8,20.
5:6 Lev 26:22. Here these animals may signify hostile invading nations.
5:7,8 Again God speaks.
"How will I pardon you?" – the people did not give God any reason at all for forgiving them. There was not the slightest stirring of repentance.
"Gods who are not gods" – 2:11; 16:20; Gal 4:8.
"Adultery" – their adultery in spiritual matters resulted in physical adultery and the trampling underfoot of God's laws. When men depart from God they are capable of any evil act.
5:9 5:29; 9:9. Could anyone find any reason at all why God should not punish them?
5:10 Signifies permission to Israel's enemies to partially destroy her.

5:12,13 They lied by denying God's predictions in their own scriptures (Lev 26:14-39; Deut 28:15-68) and God's warnings through the prophets. To them Isaiah, Jeremiah, etc were windbags! They foolishly imagined that denying the truth of God's Word would do away with that Word.
5:14 Ex 24:17; Deut 4:24; 9:3; Heb 12:29.
5:15 "Ancient nation" – by then Babylon had already existed for many hundreds of years (Gen 10:10).
5:18 Mercy and faithfulness in the midst of anger – 4:27; 5:10; Lev 26:44,45.
5:19 Their asking this question reveals their spiritual blindness and ignorance of God's Word.
5:20-31 In this part the Lord fully answers the question of v 19.
5:21 If they had not been so senseless they would have known the answer (Deut 29:4;

- but do not see,
 who have ears, but do not hear:
 22 Do you not fear me? says the LORD.
 Will you not tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand as a boundary of the sea by a permanent decree,
 so that it cannot cross it?
 And though its waves toss themselves,
 yet they cannot prevail;
 though they roar, yet they cannot cross over it.
- 23 "But this people have a stubborn and rebellious heart.
 They have revolted and gone.
 24 Nor do they say in their heart,
 'Let us now fear the LORD our God who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season, who reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest.'
- 25 Your evil deeds have turned away these things,
 and your sins have withheld good things
 from you.
- 26 For among my people are found wicked men.
 They lie in wait like one who sets snares;
 they set a trap, they catch men.
- 27 As a cage is full of birds, so their houses are full of deceit.
 Therefore they have become great and grown rich.
- 28 They have grown fat; they are sleek.
 Yes, they surpass the deeds of the wicked.
 They do not plead the cause,
 the cause of the fatherless; yet they prosper; and they do not cause the needy to get justice.
- 29 Will I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.

- "Will I not avenge myself on such a nation as this?"
- 30 "A shocking and horrible thing is happening in the land:
 31 The prophets prophesy falsely,
 and the priests rule on their own authority,
 and my people love to have it so.
 But what will you do in the end?"

- 6 "O children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem,
 and blow the trumpet in Tekoa,
 and set up a signal-fire in Beth-Hakkerem;
 for disaster appears out of the north,
 and great destruction.
- 2 I have compared the daughter of Zion
 to a beautiful and delicate woman.
 3 The shepherds with their flocks will come to her;
 they will pitch their tents against her
 all around;
 each of them will pasture in his place."
- 4 "Prepare war against her!
 Arise, and let us go up at noon.
 Woe to us! for the day passes away,
 for the shadows of the evening are lengthened.
- 5 Arise, and let us go by night,
 and let us destroy her palaces."
- 6 For thus the LORD of hosts has said:
 "Cut down trees, and throw up a siege
 mound against Jerusalem.
 This is the city to be punished;
 she is full of oppression to the center.
- 7 As a fountain pours out its waters,
 so she pours out her wickedness.
 Violence and plundering are heard in her.
 Grief and wounds are continually before me.
- 8 Be instructed, O Jerusalem,

Isa 6:9; 42:20; Ezek 12:2; Matt 13:15).
5:22 People fear all sorts of things but refuse to fear God who holds their life and eternal fate in His hands. This is evidence of a kind of madness in the hearts of people, the madness Solomon spoke about in Eccl 9:3. Notes on the fear of God at Gen 20:11; Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10;
 130:3,4.

5:23 Everything in the universe follows the laws God has appointed except human beings, Satan and demons.

5:25 Ps 84:11. God cannot justly bless people as He would like to do if they refuse
 His voice and trample underfoot His laws
 (Ps 78:41).

5:26 9:8; Ps 10:8; Mic 7:2.

5:27 "Deceit" – they became rich by deceiving others.

5:28 "Fatherless", "the needy" – Ex
 22:21-24; Ps 82:3; Isa 1:23.

5:29 Verse 9.

5:30,31 6:13; 2:8. When God Himself says something is horrible and fearful we may be quite sure it is. Prophets telling lies in God's name and priests ruling arrogantly is bad enough, but it is even worse when God's people love to have it so. To be satisfied with lies brings any people into terrible danger (2 Thess 2:10).

6:1 "North" – though Babylon lay to the east of Judah, invasion routes were not from the east across the desert, but the easier route from the north.

6:3 "Shepherds" – rulers with their armies.

6:4,5 This is the voice of the enemy invaders.

6:6 Signifies God's permission to the enemy to attack Jerusalem.

6:7 Outwardly Jerusalem may be "beautiful" and "delicate" (v 2), but in God's eyes she was filthy and sick to the point of death.

6:8 Ignoring repeated warnings from God

- so that I do not depart from you,
so that I do not make you desolate, a land not inhabited.”
- 9 Thus says the LORD of hosts:
“They will thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine.
Put your hand back into the branches
like a grape gatherer.”
- 10 To whom will I speak, and give warning, that they may hear?
See, their ear is not circumcised, and they cannot listen.
See, the word of the LORD is an object
of scorn to them;
they have no delight in it.
- 11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD;
I am weary of holding it in.
“Pour it out on the children outside,
and on the young men gathered together;
for even the husband will be taken with the wife,
the aged with him who is full of days.
- 12 And their houses will be turned over to others, together with their fields and wives;
for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land,” says the LORD.
- 13 “For from the least of them to the greatest of them everyone is greedy for gain;
and from the prophet to the priest
everyone deals falsely.
- 14 They lightly heal the hurt of the daughter of my people, saying, ‘Peace, peace’, when there is no peace.
- 15 Were they ashamed when they had
- committed abomination?
No, they were not at all ashamed,
nor could they blush.
Therefore they will fall among those who fall.
At the time that I punish them they will be thrown down,” says the LORD.
- 16 Thus says the LORD, “Stand by the roads and see,
and ask for the old paths,
where the good way is, and walk in it,
and you will find rest for your souls.
But they said, ‘We will not walk in it.’
- 17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, ‘Listen for the sound of the trumpet.’
But they said, ‘We will not listen.’
- 18 Therefore hear, you nations, and know,
O congregation, what is among them.
- 19 Hear, O earth!
See, I will bring disaster on this people,
the fruit of their plans,
because they have not listened to my words, or to my law, but rejected it.
- 20 To what purpose does incense come to me from Sheba,
and sweet cane from a far country?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable,
nor your sacrifices sweet to me.”
- 21 Therefore thus says the LORD, “See, I will lay stumbling blocks
before this people, and the fathers and the sons will fall
on them together.
The neighbour and his friend will perish.”
- 22 Thus says the LORD,
“See, a people is coming from the north will bring disaster (19:15; 36:31; Prov 29:1).

6:9 That is, few of the people would be left.

6:10 Jeremiah speaks and reveals the sadness of his heart (and of the hearts of all of Christ’s true spokesmen when people will not obey the word of God).

“Their ear is uncircumcised” – that is, they did not listen to God as those in covenant relationship with God should have done.

6:11 15:17; 20:9. In the first part of the verse Jeremiah still speaks. He is experiencing God’s anger against the people and he is filled with an overflowing zeal for God’s name. Then God tells him not to try to hold it in but to speak it out and so pave the way for God’s judgments to follow (v 12).

6:13 2:8; 5:27,31.

6:14 Isa 30:10; 48:22; 57:20,21. Many so-called preachers in order to fill their pockets will tell the people what they want to hear.

6:15 Their conduct is extremely abominable because they keep people in ignorance and make them ripe for God’s judgment.

6:16 “Old paths” – 18:15; Deut 32:17. The true worship of God the Creator set forth in the Bible is the most ancient of all ways. It goes clear back to Adam and Eve the first man and woman and the ancestors of us all. It is the “good” way, the way of rest (Matt 11:29), the way without idols, the way of faith and holiness.

6:17-19 What could God have done to save His people when they repeatedly refused to listen to Him? There remained only just judgment.

6:20 In spite of their wicked rebellion against God the people kept up some form of religion. But God will not accept such. See 1 Sam 15:22,23; Ps 50:7-23; Isa 1:10-17; Ps 51:17; Mic 6:8. Worship without obedience to His Word, and religion added on to a sinful life are detestable to God.

6:22 1:15; 4:6; 6:1.

- country,
and a great nation is being raised up
from the ends of the earth.
- 23 They will take hold of bow and spear;
they are cruel and have no mercy.
Their voice roars like the sea,
and they ride on horses,
as men of war set in array against you,
O daughter of Zion."
- 24 We have heard of its fame.
Our hands have become feeble.
Anguish and pain have seized us,
like a woman in labour.
- 25 Do not go out into the field,
or walk by the road;
for the sword of the enemy and fear
are on every side.
- 26 O daughter of my people, tie sackcloth
on yourselves, and roll in ashes.
Mourn in most bitter lamentation,
as for an only son,
for the despoiler will suddenly come on us.
- 27 "I have appointed you as a tower and a fortress among my people,
so that you may know and test their way.
- 28 They are all stubborn rebels,
going about with slanders.
They are brass and iron.
They are all corrupters.
- 29 The bellows blow fiercely;
the lead is consumed by the fire;
the smelter refines in vain,
because the wicked are not purged out."

30 People will call them rejected silver, because the LORD has rejected them.

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word and say: 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. 3 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Amend your ways and your deeds, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. 4 Do not trust in lying words, and say, "This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD!" 5 For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your deeds, if you truly make justice prevail between a man and his neighbour, 6 if you do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, and do not walk after other gods to your harm, 7 then I will cause you to live in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, forever and ever.

8 "See, you trust in lying words that cannot profit. 9 Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know, 10 and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, "We are delivered" to do all these abominations? 11 Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? See, I have been watching, says the LORD.

12 "But now go to my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at first, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel.

6:23 4:13; 8:16; Hab 1:6-11.

6:24 4:31. Words of Judah facing the Babylonians.

6:26 4:8; 25:34; Ezek 27:30; Job 2:8.

6:27-30 Here God speaks to Jeremiah. The word of God which Jeremiah spoke was that which tested the people. That word was like a fire – 5:14; 20:9; 23:29. Unfortunately, in this refining process, no true gold, no true silver appeared. The wicked would not repent, the hardened rebels would not melt. The Lord rejected them as something worthless.

7:2 Observe that the people still came to "worship" the Lord, though they would not obey Him and lived in wickedness. See 6:20.

7:3-8 Another appeal to the people to repent. See how reluctant God is to punish.

7:4 The deceptive words were spoken by false prophets and backslidden priests (5:31). They told the people that as long as they continued their forms of worship all would be well, that God was not angry, that He would not punish them.

7:5,6 5:28. How important these matters are to God! "To your harm" – v 19; 25:7; Ps 16:4. According to the Bible the worship of all idols and all gods other than the one true and living God will bring great harm to anyone who engages in it. It stirs up the anger of God who has forbidden it (Ex 20:1-6). It helps to keep those who do it in bondage. It contributes to spiritual blindness (as long as men think God is like their idols they will never understand what God is really like). And at last it brings great punishment from God (Rev 21:8).

7:7 Gen 17:8; Josh 1:6.

7:8 This is true of the great bulk of mankind in every age and every place. Men in general prefer deceptive words that will let them do as they please. See John 3:19,20; 2 Thess 2:10-12.

7:9,10 "Baal" – note at Jud 2:11. In v 9 we see that the people willfully and continually broke five of the ten commandments (Ex 20:1-17), and yet thought God didn't care and would keep them safe from their enemies.

7:11 See Matt 21:13. To them God's temple was like a cave to hide in. Did they think that God was blind?! (16:17; 23:24; 29:23; Ps 33:13-15; Prov 5:21; Heb 4:13).

7:12-15 Shiloh was the place where the

13 And now, because you have done all these deeds, says the LORD, and because I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you would not listen; and I called you, but you would not answer; 14 therefore I will do to this house, which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. 15 And I will hurl you out of my sight, as I have hurled out all your brethren, all the offspring of Ephraim.'

16 "Therefore do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them, or make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. 17 Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough to make cakes for the 'queen of heaven,' and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, provoking me to anger. 19 Do they provoke me to anger? says the LORD. Do they not provoke themselves to the shame of their own faces?

20 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: See, my anger and my fury will be poured out on this place, on man and on beast and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground. And it will burn, and will not be quenched."

21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat meat. 22 For in the day that I brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak to them or give commands to them concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices, 23 but this is what I commanded them, saying, 'Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you will be my people; and walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, so that it may be well with you.' 24 But they did not listen or turn their ear to me, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. 25 From the day that your fathers came up out of the land of Egypt to this day I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them. 26 Yet they did not listen to me, or turn their ear to me, but hardened their neck. They did worse than their fathers.

27 "Therefore you shall speak all these words to them. But they will not listen to you. You shall also call to them. But they will not answer you. 28 But you shall say to them, 'This is a nation that does not obey the voice of the LORD their God, or receive correction. Truth has perished and has been cut off from their mouth. 29 Cut off your hair, O Jerusalem, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.'

30 "For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, says the LORD. They have set their abominations in the house which is called by my tabernacle was set up in the land of Canaan (Josh 18:1). It was the place where people went to worship (1 Sam 1:3). It was about 30 kilometers north of Jerusalem in the area of Ephraim. From there the ark of God's covenant was taken by the Philistines. Never again was it placed there (1 Sam 4:17; Ps 78:59-61). Shiloh fell into ruins, and Ephraim and the whole northern kingdom went into captivity (2 Kings 17:1-6). God here says that Judah and Jerusalem should learn their lesson from Shiloh.

7:14 Notice here that the people were not trusting in God but in the temple.

7:16 God speaks to Jeremiah. People can go so far in sin and rebellion that God will no longer even hear prayer for them (15:1; 1 John 5:16).

7:17-19 "Queen of heaven" – 44:17-19. This was a goddess worshiped in many countries in that time under different names. The people of Tyre and Sidon called her Ashtoreth, the Babylonians called her Ishtar, the Greeks named her Astarte. She was the goddess of both fertility and war, their so-called "mother" goddess.

7:20 Verse 29. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

7:21 Burnt offerings were not to be eaten (Lev 1:9). Here God is saying the ones the people were offering were not acceptable to him so the people should eat them.

7:22,23 God first emphasized obedience to Himself and gave the ten commandments (Ex 19:5; 20:1-7). Later God gave commands about sacrifice (Leviticus chapters 1 through 7).

7:24 Since they did not obey God their sacrifices were worthless.

"Evil heart" – 3:17; 9:14; 11:8; 13:10; 16:12; 18:12. In the writings of Jeremiah there is much about the human heart. It is exposed in all its stubbornness, foolishness and wickedness. A key verse for the whole book is 17:9. But not only is the evil heart of man exposed, God's way of dealing with it is also revealed – see 24:7; 31:33.

7:25,26 Some people followed their evil hearts because they knew no better way. Israel and Judah did know the true way, so their sin was worse than that of any other people. Sin without the truth is bad; sin against truth is far worse.

7:27 God knew there had been no change in the people.

7:28,29 Cutting off the hair in the Bible was a sign of grief and mourning (Job 1:20; Micah 1:16). See Lev 21:5.

7:30 4:1; 32:34. How more fully could they have shown their contempt for God and His laws? "Their abominations" – their detestable idols. Though the word "idols" is not in the original, the Hebrew word which means something abominable, a detested name, defiling it. 31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire. I did not command this, and it did not come into my heart. 32 Therefore, see, the days are coming, says the LORD, that it will no longer be called Tophet, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter; for they will bury in Tophet until there is no room left. 33 And the dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the sky and for the beasts of the earth; and no one will frighten them away. 34 Then I will put a stop to the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem; for the land will be desolate.

8 “At that time,” says the LORD, “they will bring the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves, 2 and they will spread them out before the sun and the moon and all the starry host of heaven, which they have loved, and which they have served, and which they have followed, and which they have sought, and which they have worshipped. They will not be gathered, or buried. They will be like refuse on the surface of the earth. 3 And death will be chosen rather than life by the remnant, all those who remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of hosts.

4 “Moreover you shall say to them,
‘Thus says the LORD: Will they fall and not rise?
Will he turn away, and not return?’

thing, here implies idols, as it does also in 4:1; 32:34; Deut 29:17; etc.

7:31 “Tophet” – 19:6,11-14. The Ammonites sometimes offered their children in the fire to their god Molech (Lev 18:21; 20:1-5; 1 Kings 11:7; 2 Kings 16:2,3; 21:1,6). The people of Judah and Jerusalem adopted this abominable practice and built a place for it just outside the walls of Jerusalem. “Valley of Hinnom” in Hebrew is ge-hinnom. It became Geenna in Greek (Gehenna in English) and was used in the New Testament to indicate hell with its eternal fire (Matt 18:9; Mark 9:47,48).

7:32-34 19:6. Speaks of the slaughter of the people when the Babylonians invade the country.

8:1 The contempt which they deserve will be shown even to their bones.

8:2 They committed the senseless and terrible sin of worshiping and serving creation rather than the Creator (2 Kings 23:5; Jer 19:13; Acts 7:42; Rom 1:25).

8:3 Compare Rev 9:6.

5 Why then has this people of Jerusalem slidden back in a perpetual backsliding? They hold firmly to deceit; they refuse to return.

6 I listened and heard,
but they did not speak rightly.
No man repented of his wickedness, saying, “What have I done?”
Everyone turned to his own course,
like a horse rushing into the battle.

7 Yes, the stork in the sky knows its appointed times, and the turtle dove and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming.
But my people do not know the judgment of the LORD.

8 “How do you say, “We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us?”
See, the lying pen of the scribes has made it into a lie.

9 The wise men are put to shame, they are dismayed and caught.
See, they have rejected the word of the LORD, so what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who will inherit them, for everyone from the least to the greatest is greedy for gain,
from the prophet to the priest everyone deals falsely.

11 For they have lightly healed the hurt of the daughter of my people, saying,
“Peace, peace”, when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

8:4 Prov 24:16; Mic 7:8; Jer 31:19.

8:5 “Deceit” – they refused to abandon the thing that was destroying them. This is common among the people of the world.

8:6 Isa 53:6; 56:11; 57:17; 7:13.

8:7 4:22; Deut 32:28; Isa 1:2,3; 5:13; 27:11. Their ignorance was willful and therefore blameworthy. God holds us responsible for not knowing the truth if we could know it and will not bother to do so.

8:8 Their religious teachers misinterpreted the law of God to the people. Compare Matt 15:3-9. Many Jewish commentators on the law, instead of making it clear, twisted and perverted its meaning.

8:9 There is no true wisdom in those who disobey God’s Word. This includes educators, scientists, philosophers, writers and anyone else who ignores the Bible. Men can have much knowledge of various things without having wisdom. Notes on wisdom at Job 28:28; Ps 111:10; Prov 1:7; 1 Cor 1:20,21; 2:6,7; Col 2:3.

8:10-12 6:12-15.

- No, they were not at all ashamed,
and they could not blush.
Therefore they will fall among those who fall.
In the time of their punishment they will be thrown down, says the LORD.
- 13 I will surely consume them, says the LORD.
There will be no grapes on the vine,
no figs on the fig tree,
and the leaf will fade;
and the things that I have given them will pass away from them."
- 14 Why do we sit still?
Come together, and let us enter the fortified cities,
and let us be silent there;
for the LORD our God has put us to silence,
and given us bitter water to drink,
because we have sinned against the LORD.
- 15 We looked for peace, but no good came,
and for a time of health,
and see trouble!
- 16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan.
The whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones;
for they have come and devoured the land,
and all that is in it,
the city, and those who dwell in it.
- 17 "For, see, I will send serpents among you,
vipers which will not be charmed,
and they will bite you," says the LORD.
- 18 When I would comfort myself in sorrow,
my heart is faint in me.
- 19 Mark the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people because of

- those who dwell in a far country:
"Is the LORD not in Zion?
Is her king not in her?"
"Why have they provoked me to anger with their carved images, and with foreign idols?"
- 20 The harvest is past,
the summer has ended,
and we are not saved.
- 21 Because of the wound of the daughter of my people I am wounded;
I mourn; horror has seized me.
- 22 Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why then has the health of the daughter of my people not recovered?
- 9 Oh, that my head were waters,
and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!
- 2 Oh, that I had in the wilderness a lodging place for travellers,
so that I might leave my people,
and go away from them!
For they are all adulterers,
an assemblage of treacherous men.
- 3 "And like their bow they bend their tongues for lies;
but they are not valiant for truth on the earth,
for they proceed from evil to evil,
and they do not know me,"
says the Lord.
- 4 "Each one should be careful about his
neighbour,

8:13 What God gives He can justly take away. The meaning of the Hebrew for the last sentence of this verse is unclear.
8:14-16 Looks forward to the invasion of the land by the Babylonians. Jeremiah speaks for the people.
8:14 Even if the people did not yet know the reason for their punishment Jeremiah did.
8:17 The Lord says He will do again what He had once done in their history (Num 21:6. See Deut 32:24).
8:18 Jeremiah cries to the Lord when he thinks of the coming destruction.
8:19 In the first part of the verse Jeremiah speaks of the people of Judah as though they were already in exile in Babylon. In the second part the Lord speaks and again gives one of the reasons why He punished His people. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; etc.
8:20 The people in exile speak of their despair.
8:21,22 4:19,20; Lam 2:11. He speaks again and reveals the agony of his heart for his nation. He completely identified with the people even though they rejected and persecuted him and tried to kill him. Compare Luke 19:41-44; Rom 9:1-3; Ex 32:32; Dan 9:5; etc. "Mourn" – or "am ashen."

9:1 Verse 10; 8:21; 13:17; 14:17; Ps 119:136. For good reason Jeremiah is called "the weeping prophet".
9:2 He wept for them, but their behavior was so ungodly that he could no longer bear to be around them.
9:3 "Bow" – v 8; Ps 7:13; 58:7; 64:3. "Do not know me" – v 6; Jud 2:10; 1 Sam 2:12; Isa 1:3; Hos 4:1; John 16:3. They knew about Jehovah, they called themselves His people, but they did not know Him personally. There are many Christians today in the same sad condition. They have heard many things about Christ, they know something of the Bible, but they have not met Christ in their experience, they do not know Him as one person knows another. And they show they do not know Him by the way they behave.
9:4 Ps 12:2; Micah 7:5,6; Matt 10:35,36.

- and not trust in any brother;
for every brother acts deceitfully, and every neighbour goes around as a slanderer.
- 5 And each one of them deceives his neighbour,
and does not speak the truth.
They have taught their tongue to speak lies,
and wear themselves out doing evil.
- 6 Your dwelling place is in the midst of deceit.
Through deceit they refuse to know me,
says the LORD."
- 7 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts,
"See, I will refine them, and test them;
for what will I do for the daughter of
my people?"
- 8 Their tongue is like a deadly arrow
shot out; it speaks deceit.
One speaks peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth,
but in his heart he lies in wait.
- 9 Will I not punish them for these things?
says the LORD.
Will I not avenge myself on such a
nation as this?"
- 10 I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains and a lamentation for the dwelling places in the wilderness,
because they are burned up,
so that no one can pass through them;
and people cannot hear the sound of cattle.
Both the birds of the heavens and the beasts have fled; they are gone.
- 11 "And I will make Jerusalem heaps,
and a den for jackals,
and I will make the cities of Judah

desolate, without an inhabitant."

12 Who is the wise man who can understand this? And who is the one to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, so that he might declare it? Why does the land perish, burned like a desert, so that no one passes through?

13 And the LORD says, "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them and have not obeyed my voice, or walked in the law, 14 but have walked according to the imagination of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them, 15 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: See, I will feed them, this people, with bitterness, and give them bitter water to drink. 16 I will also scatter them among the nations whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them."

17 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Consider, and call for the mourning women,
that they may come.
And send for skillful women, that they may come.

18 And let them hurry and take up a wailing for us,
that our eyes may run down with tears,
and our eyelids pour out water.

19 For a sound of wailing is heard from Zion, 'How we are ruined!
We are greatly disgraced, because we have forsaken the land,
because our dwellings have cast us out.'"

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD,
O women,
and let your ears receive the word of his mouth,

When everyone tells lies, when deceit is rampant, suspicion displaces trust, bonds between friends and relatives strain to the breaking point, God's anger is upon all, and the man of truth suffers.

9:7 6:27-30. "I will refine" – God did this by sending the Babylonians to bring punishment, affliction, and destruction on the people.

9:8 Verse 3; 5:26; Ps 55:21; Prov 29:5. 9:9 5:9,29.

9:10 Verse 1; 4:23-26. Jeremiah speaks as though he was already in that future time of destruction.

9:11 10:22; 26:18; Ps 44:19; Lam 5:18.

"Jackals" – there is much question about the meaning of the Hebrew word translated "jackals". The KJV has "dragons" here, a very unlikely translation. It was formerly thought that the word meant "sea monster" or "serpent" or even "crocodile", but many present-day scholars think it probably means "jackals" or, possibly, "wolves."

9:12 Again Jehovah speaks. Why should

God destroy His own land and people? Who can understand it?

9:13-16 The answer to the question in v 12 is very clear. God had to send judgments on His people because of their sins. To allow them to escape would be to pervert justice.

9:14 "Baals" – note at Jud 2:11.

9:17-19 In that time there were mourners for hire for sad occasions such as funerals. God is saying here that there is going to be plenty to wail about. In the Bible God often tells people to wail, to cry out, or to weep – 4:8; 25:34; 48:20; 49:3; Isa 14:31; 16:7; 23:1,6,14; Zeph 1:11; Zech 11:2; Jam 4:9; 5:1.

He tells others to rejoice – Ps 33:1; 97:12; Zech 2:10; 9:9; Matt 5:12; Luke 6:23; Phil 4:4; 1 Thess 5:16; Jam 1:9; 1 Pet 4:13; Rev 12:12; 18:20. We should note who should wail, who should rejoice and the reasons for both wailing and rejoicing.

9:20-22 Jeremiah says there will be such

- and teach wailing to your daughters, and each one teach lamentation to her
neighbour.
- 21 For death has come up into our windows,
and has entered our palaces,
to cut off the children from the streets,
and the young men from the squares.
- 22 Say, "Thus says the LORD:
Even the corpses of men will fall like refuse on the open field,
and like cut stalks after the harvester, and no one will gather them."
- 23 Thus says the LORD:
"Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, nor let the mighty man glory in his might;
let not the rich man glory in his riches;
- 24 But let him who glories glory in this:
that he understands, and knows me, that I am the LORD who acts with loving kindness, justice,
and righteousness in the earth;
for in these things I delight,
says the LORD.
- 25 See, the days are coming,
says the LORD,
when I will punish all those who are circumcised with the uncircumcised,
- 26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all who are in the farthest corners,
who live in the wilderness.
For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."

10 Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel. 2 Thus says the LORD:

- "Do not learn the way of the nations, and do not be dismayed at the signs
in the heavens,
though the nations are dismayed at them.
- 3 For the customs of the peoples are worthless;
for one cuts a tree from the forest with an axe,
the work of the hands of a craftsman.
- 4 They adorn it with silver and gold;
they fasten it with nails and with hammers,
so that it does not totter.
- 5 They are upright like the palm tree,
but do not speak.
They must be carried, because they cannot walk.
Do not be afraid of them, for they cannot do evil,
and it is not in them to do good."
- 6 For there is no one like you, O LORD.
You are great, and your name is great in power.
- 7 Who would not fear you,
O King of nations?
For this is your due.
For among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms,
there is no one like you.
- 8 But they are altogether senseless and foolish;
their worthless teaching is about wooden idols.
- 9 Silver hammered into plates is brought cause for wailing that all should learn how best to do it. Death like an enemy soldier will get in through the windows of their homes and palaces, and pass through all their streets. There will be much opportunity for mourning but not for burying the dead.

9:23,24 What do men in general boast about? Some about how clever they are.
Others about their caste or color or religion or skill or looks or strength. What should God's people boast about? None of the above or anything that relates merely to self, but in the knowledge of God. This is the most important matter there can be in a person's life. For causes of boasting see Ps 34:2; 44:8; Rom 5:3; 15:17; 2 Cor 10:17; 12:9; Gal 6:14. See in v 24 the things about Himself that God emphasizes
– compare Ps 11:7; 33:5; 89:14; 99:4;
103:6,8; 106:1; 145:9; Ex 34:6,7.

9:25,26 In His anger against sin, in His judgments on sinners God will make no distinction between peoples. Their religion, their rites and ceremonies cannot help them.
True religion must be of the heart – 4:4;
Rom 2:12,25-29; John 4:24.

10:2 "The way of the nations" – a way without the true God, the way of many religions, many gods, and many superstitions.

"Signs in the heavens" – the nations made much of the movements of planets, stars, comets, meteors, etc., and all the superstitions of astrology. God shows in His word the vanity and worthlessness of all that (Isa 47:13-15; Dan 2:1-11; 4:18).

10:3-5 Notes at Ps 115:3-7; 135:15-17;
Isa 44:9.

10:6-10 Jeremiah speaks as all the writers of the Bible do on the subject of God and idols.

10:6 Ex 8:10; Ps 86:8; Isa 43:10,11; 44:6,7.

10:7 "King" – Ps 47:8,9; 96:10. Jehovah is no mere tribal deity (Ps 22:28; 47:1-9; 95:3).

10:8 Ps 115:8; 135:18; Isa 44:18-20;
Rom 1:21-23.

"Altogether" – the Bible teaches that no one who worships an idol has any spiritual understanding, no matter how brilliant he may be in other matters.

10:9-16 This is the difference between God and gods. The gods are made by men. God made the heavens and the earth. The gods are useless. God is the eternal King of the

- from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the craftsman, and of the hands of the goldsmith.
Their clothing is of blue and purple;
they are all the work of skillful men.
- 10 But the LORD is the true God;
he is the living God,
and everlasting king.
At his wrath the earth trembles, and the nations cannot stand before his indignation.
- 11 "Thus shall you say to them:
The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth,
and from under these heavens."
- 12 He has made the earth by his power,
he has established the world by his wisdom,
and has stretched out the heavens by
his understanding.
- 13 When he utters his voice, there is a roar of waters in the heavens,
and he causes the vapours to ascend
from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning flashes with rain,
and brings the wind out of his treasuries.
- 14 Every man is senseless and without knowledge.
Every goldsmith is put to shame by carved images,
for his cast metal image is a lie,
and there is no breath in them.
- 15 They are worthless, and the product of error.
In the time of their punishment they will perish.
- 16 The Portion of Jacob is not like them;
for he is the maker of all things,
and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance.
The LORD of hosts is his name.
- 17 Gather up your goods to go out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress.
- 18 For thus says the LORD,
"See, at this time I will throw out the inhabitants of the land, and will distress them, that they may find this true."
- 19 Woe is me for my injury!
My wound is grievous.
But I said, "Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it."
- 20 My tent is ruined, and all my ropes are broken.
My children have gone away from me,
and are no more.
There is no longer anyone to stretch out my tent, and to set up my curtains.
- 21 For the shepherds have become senseless,
and have not sought the LORD;
therefore they will not prosper,
and all their flocks will be scattered.
- 22 See, the sound of the report has come,
and a great commotion out of the north country,
to make the cities of Judah desolate
and a den of jackals.
- 23 O LORD, I know that the way of man
is not in himself;
it is not in man who walks to direct his steps.
- 24 O LORD, correct me, but with justice;
not in your anger, or you will bring me to nothing.
- 25 Pour out your fury on the nations that do not know you,
and on the families that do not call
on your name,
for they have eaten up Jacob,
and devoured him, and consumed him,
and have made his dwelling place desolate.

universe. They are dead and will perish from the world. He is the Immortal One.

10:10 "Wrath" – Ps 18:7; 76:7; Rev 6:16,17.

10:11 This is what Jeremiah was commanded to tell the nations which worshiped idols. This verse is not in Hebrew but Aramaic, a language which was more likely to be understood by some of those nations than Hebrew.

10:12,13 Genesis chapter 1; Ps 104:1-13.

10:14,15 Verse 8.

10:16 Deut 4:20; 7:6; 32:9; Ps.74:2; 146:5.

"Portion of Jacob" – the portion of other nations was the false gods of the world, but Jacob had the true God, the Creator of the universe.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

10:19,20 Jeremiah laments for the people of Judah and Jerusalem as if the destruction had already come. He himself had neither wife nor children (16:2).

10:21 22:22; 23:1; 25:34; 50:6.

"Shepherds" – leaders of the people (the flock). They brought great trouble on the people because of their senseless behavior (vs 8,14). One way they show their lack of good sense was by refusing to pray to the true and living God.

10:22 1:14; 4:6; 6:22,23; 8:16.

10:23-25 Jeremiah prays that God will deal justly both with himself and ruined Judah and the nations that have destroyed the country.

10:23 Ps 37:23; Prov 3:5,6; 16:9; 20:24. A person cannot determine what is going to happen to him, and he should not try to direct his own life without God.

10:24 Ps 6:1; 38:1; 39:10,11.

10:25 See Ps 79:6,7. Notes on such prayers at Ps 35:8.

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: 2 "Listen to the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 3 and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Cursed be the man who does not obey the words of this covenant 4 which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do according to all which I command you; so you will be my people, and I will be your God, 5 so that I may fulfil the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day.'"

Then I answered and said, "So be it, O LORD."

6 Then the LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying: 'Listen to the words of this covenant, and do them. 7 For I have earnestly warned your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt to this day, rising early and giving warnings, saying, Obey my voice. 8 But they did not obey and did not incline their ear, but each one walked in the imagination of his evil heart. Therefore I will bring on them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do, for they did not do them.'"

9 And the LORD said to me, "A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 They have turned back to the evil deeds of their forefathers who refused to hear my words, who went after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. 11 Therefore thus says the LORD: See, I will bring disaster on them which they will not be able to escape; and though they cry out to me, I will not listen to them. 12 Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they offer incense; but they will not at all save them in the time of their trouble. 13 For the number of your gods is as many as your cities, O Judah; and as many as the streets of Jerusalem is the number of the altars you have set up to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.

14 "Therefore do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not listen to them when they cry out to me in their trouble.

15 "What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has performed vile acts with many; and can the consecrated flesh avert disaster from you?

When you do evil, then you rejoice.

16 The LORD called your name, 'A green olive tree, beautiful, and with good fruit'; with the noise of a great tumult he has set it on fire, and its branches are broken.

17 "For the LORD of hosts who planted you, has proclaimed disaster against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves, provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal."

11:2 This covenant was the one God made with the people of Israel at Mount Sinai, first described in Exodus chapters 19 to 24. It was the basis of their whole existence as a nation, the most important thing to remind them of.

11:3 "Cursed" – see Deut 11:26-28; 27:15-26; 28:15-20; Gal 3:10.

11:4 Ex 19:5,6; Deut 6:3; Jer 7:23.

11:5 Gen 15:18; 17:7,8; Ex 3:8.

11:6-8 They did not do what God told them to do, so He brought on them the punishment for their sins that He said He would bring on them.

11:8 Compare with Ex 19:8; Deut 27:26.

11:9,10 They had agreed together not to follow the reforms brought in by good king Josiah (2 Kings chapter 23). They determined to worship other gods and thus continued to break God's covenant with them.

11:11 Their deliberate choice for evil was bound to bring God's just judgment on them. It was now too late for them to escape it. Their cry for mercy would not be heard (14:12; Ezek 8:18).

11:12 2:28; Deut 32:38; Jud 10:14; 1 Kings 18:25-29; Isa 44:17,18; 57:13. If we chose the wrong source for help in trouble let us not be surprised if we receive no help. We should all understand that the failure of idols and gods does not mean the failure of the one true God.

11:13 "gods" – 2:28. When the one true God is not enough for people, there may be no limit to the number of gods they choose to worship. Baal is here called the shameful god. Sexual rites and sins were common in connection with his worship. Note at Jud 2:11.

11:14 God speaks to Jeremiah. Compare 7:16; 15:1; 1 John 5:16.

11:15 "Beloved" – the people of Judah, God's chosen people. Though they were terribly fallen, sinful and disobedient He still calls them "my beloved" (see also 3:1,14; 12:7; Song of songs 8:6,7). But see how the beloved behaved! Temple worship by such people could not avert God's judgment.

11:16,17 In the Bible individuals are compared to trees (Ps 1:3; 52:8; 128:3). Here the whole nation is called an olive tree, and God warns them that its branches will be broken. However much this might have been fulfilled by the Babylonian invasion the more complete fulfillment came after the Jews rejected Christ when He was on earth. See Rom 11:7-21.

18 And the LORD has given me knowledge of it, and I know it, for you showed me their deeds.
19 But I was like a gentle lamb that is brought to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised schemes against me, saying,

"Let us destroy the tree with its fruit;
and let us cut him off from the land of the living,
that his name may no longer be remembered."

20 But, O LORD of hosts,
you who judge righteously,
you who test the inner being and the heart,
let me see your vengeance on them;
for to you I have committed my cause.

21 Therefore thus says the LORD: "About the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, 'Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, so that you do not die by our hand,' 22 thus says the LORD of hosts, See, I will punish them. The young men will die by the sword; their sons and their daughters will die by famine, 23 and none of them will remain, for I will bring disaster on the men of Anathoth, the year of their punishment."

12 You are righteous, O LORD, when I plead with you.
Yet let me talk with you of your judgments.
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why are all those who act very treacherously at ease?
2 You have planted them;
yes, they have taken root, they grow;

yes, they produce fruit.
You are near on their lips,
and far from their inner being.

- 3 But you, O LORD, know me.
You have seen me, and tested my heart toward you.
Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,
and prepare them for the day of slaughter.
- 4 How long will the land mourn,
and the plants of every field wither because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it?
The beasts and the birds are consumed,
because they said,
"He does not see the end we reach."
- 5 The LORD said, "If you have run with men on foot,
and they have worn you out,
then how can you compete with horses?
And if they wore you out in the land of peace, in which you trusted, then what will you do in the flooding of Jordan?"
- 6 For even your brothers and the household of your father have dealt
treacherously with you;
yes, they have called on many to go
after you.
Do not believe them, though they speak smooth words to you.
- 7 "I have forsaken my house,
I have left my inheritance,
I have given my dearly beloved into the hand of her enemies.
- 8 My inheritance is to me like a lion

11:18-23 The men of Anathoth, Jeremiah's home town, plotted to kill him. They wanted to stop the preaching of the truth. Death was their reward.

11:19 "Lamb" – Ps 44:22; Rom 8:36.
"Remembered" – it is they who are not remembered.

11:20 Ps 7:9,11. "Vengeance" – Jeremiah did not take vengeance himself but left it to God. For notes on such prayers see Ps 35:8; 58:6-8; 69:22-28.

11:23 God has His time for everything He does.

12:1,2 Gen 18:25; Ps 9:8; 67:4; 75:2; 96:13; 98:9; John 17:25. Jeremiah knows God is just in all His actions, but he is troubled about the prosperity of the wicked. He asks the question that has troubled believers through the ages (Job 21:7-15; Ps 73:3-12; Eccl 7:15; Hab 1:13; Mal 3:15).

12:2 "Lips", "inner being" – 3:10; Isa 29:13; Mark 7:6. The religion of hypocrites is in word, not deed.

12:3 Jeremiah knows he is not a hypocrite.
"Slaughter" – 11:19,20. They wanted to slaughter him like a sheep, so he appeals for God's exact justice to be at work toward them. Note at Ps 18:25,26; 35:8.

12:4 "How long?" – Ps 6:3; 13:2; 35:17; 74:10; 89:46; 94:3.

"Wither" – suggests a drought. God sent droughts during those days of wickedness in Judah (3:3).

12:5 God does not answer Jeremiah's question, but warns him that even greater difficulties await him in the future. God tells us all we need to know, not necessarily all we want to know.

12:6 It seems from this that at least some of Jeremiah's relatives participated in the plot to kill him (11:18,19).

12:7-13 God speaks of "my" house, "my" inheritance, "my" vineyard, "my" field. He means, of course, His temple, His people, His land. But He will give it all into the hands of destroyers. Notice that God calls Israel "my beloved" in v 7 and yet in v 8 speaks of hating. He loved Israel but her ways were so detestable He could not bear them any longer and turned her over to her enemies in the forest; it roars against me;

therefore I have hated it.

9 My inheritance is to me like a speckled bird;
the birds all around are against it.

Come, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard,
they have trampled my portion underfoot,
they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate,
and being desolate it mourns to me.
The whole land has been made desolate,
because no one takes it to heart.

12 The despoilers have come over all the desolate heights in the wilderness;
for the sword of the LORD will devour from one end of the land to the other end of the land.

No one will have peace.

13 They have sown wheat, but will reap thorns.
They have taken pains, but will not profit.
And they will be disappointed about
the harvest,
because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 "Thus says the LORD against all my evil neighbours who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: See, I will uproot them from their land, and uproot the house of Judah from among them. 15 And it will happen after I have uprooted them that I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them back, each man to his inheritance, and each man to his land. 16 And it will come about, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name,
'The LORD lives'; as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be established among my people. 17 But if they will not obey, I will fully for punishment.

12:9 Some birds will attack a strange bird not of their kind.

12:10 Shepherds here refer to rulers.

12:11 "No one takes it to heart" – 5:1; Isa
64:7; Ex 22:30.

12:12 "The sword of the Lord" – Ezek 21:1-10; Isa 27:1; Deut 32:40-43. Israel's enemies would be like a sword in God's hand to punish His people.

12:13 Lev 26:20; Deut 28:38-42.

"Anger" – notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

12:14-17 God will punish the neighboring nations that seize any of Israel's land.
See 2 Kings 24:2. Observe the word of hope in these verses. God is compassionate – Ps 78:38; 86:15; 111:4; 145:8. But just as Israel had learned evil ways from the surrounding nations, so later on the nations

uproot and destroy that nation, says the LORD."

13 Thus the LORD said to me, "Go and get yourself a linen sash and put it around your waist, but do not put it in water." 2 So I got a sash according to the word of the LORD, and put it around my waist.

3 And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying: 4 "Take the sash that you bought, which is around your waist, and get up and go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole in the rock." 5 So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And after many days it came about that the LORD said to me, "Get up; go to the Euphrates, and take from there the sash which I commanded you to hide there." 7 Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the sash from the place where I had hidden it, and saw that the sash was ruined; it was not useful for anything.

8 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9 "Thus says the LORD: In this way I will ruin the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. 10 This evil people who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the imagination of their heart,
and follow other gods to serve and to worship them,
will be like this sash which is good for nothing.
11 For as the sash clings to a man's waist, so I caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to me, says the LORD, so that they might be my people for a name, and for praise, and for glory; but they would not listen.

12 "Therefore you shall speak to them this word:
'Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle will be filled with wine.' And they will say to you, 'Do we not know for a certainty that every bottle will be filled with wine?' 13 Then you shall say to them,
'Thus says the LORD: See, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, the kings who sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all must learn good ways from Israel, or else face annihilation.

13:1-11 Another object lesson to illustrate a truth (1:11-14; 18:1-6; 24:1-10). The people of Israel would be as useless to God as a ruined and useless belt (v 10).

13:4 The Hebrew word here (Pereth – just PRH in the original) may indicate either the Euphrates River or a town three miles from Anathoth called Parah. The River Euphrates is 400 kilometers from Jerusalem. It is unlikely (but certainly not impossible) that Jeremiah went there.

13:9 Lev 26:19; Prov 6:16,17; Isa 25:11;
Amos 6:8; Zeph 3:11.

13:11 See here the reason God chose Israel
(or any people or any individual) – Isa
43:21; Eph 1:4-6,12,14; 1 Pet 2:9.

13:12,13 25:15-19; Ps 60:3; Isa 51:17-

the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.
 14 And I will dash them against one another, the fathers and the sons together, says the LORD. I will not take pity, or spare, or have mercy, but will destroy them."

15 Listen, and give ear.

Do not be proud, for the LORD has spoken.

16 Give glory to the LORD your God before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and while you look for light he turns it into the shadow of death and makes it dense darkness.

17 But if you will not hear this, my soul will weep in secret places because of your pride, and my eyes will weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock will be carried away captive.

18 Say to the king and to the queen: "Humble yourselves, sit lower down, for your rule will come down, your glorious crown."

19 The cities of the south will be closed up, and no one will open them. All of Judah will be carried away captive; it will be completely carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north.
 Where is the flock that was given to you, your beautiful flock?

21 What will you say when he punishes you? For you have taught them to be leaders and heads over you.
 Will not sorrows seize you like a woman in labour?

22 And if you say in your heart, "Why have these things come on me?" Because of the greatness of your iniquity your skirts will be removed, and your heels made bare.

23 "Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then you also may do good, you who are accustomed to doing evil.

24 Therefore I will scatter them like the straw that vanishes by the wind from the desert.

25 This is your lot, your measured portion from me," says the LORD, "because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore I will strip off your skirts over your face, so that your shame may appear.

27 I have seen your adulteries, and your neighings, the vileness of your prostitution, and your abominations on the hills, in the fields.

Woe to you, O Jerusalem!
 Will you not be made clean?
 When will it ever be?"

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

2 "Judah mourns, and its gates languish; they mourn from the ground, and the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.
 3 And their nobles have sent their servants for water; they came to the cisterns and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty;

20; Ezek 23:32-34; Rev 14:9,10.

13:14 God will not remove all pity and compassion from His heart. He will not, cannot change His nature. But He will not let these tender feelings keep Him from the necessary work of just judgment.

13:15 When men speak God's message there is always the danger of arrogant rejection on the part of those who hear.

13:16 Repentance is the only thing that can avert the coming darkness (1 Sam 2:9; Isa 8:22; 59:9; Matt 8:12; Jude 13).

13:17 9:1; 14:17. Arrogance is always a reason for tears.

13:18 This probably refers to king Jehoiachin and his mother Nehushta (2 Kings 24:8-12 – fulfilled in 597 BC).

13:19 20:4.

13:20 "North" – 1:14; 4:6; 6:22.

"Flock" – the people of Judah.

13:21 "Woman" – 4:31; 6:24.

13:22 Verse 25; 2:17; 4:18; 5:8,9,19;

6:19; 2:35.

13:23 A man is unable to change even an outward thing in his nature such as the color of his skin. How much more impossible for him to change his inner nature and his whole course of life (17:9; Ps 51; Rom 7:14,18,21). But what a man cannot do for himself God can do for him (Rom 8:1-4). This is the only hope for any person on earth.

13:24,25 Ps 1:4; Lev 26:33.

13:26,27 The people of Jerusalem had behaved like a harlot (2:2,5,20). Now they would be publicly disgraced and punished.

13:27 "Will you not be made clean?" – the people could not cleanse themselves but they could turn to God and cry for cleansing (Ps 51:2,7).

14:1-6 3:3; 12:4; 23:10. This was a punishment for their sins (Lev 26:19,20). They could escape from this trouble only by repentance and turning to the true and living God.

- they were ashamed and dismayed,
and covered their heads,
4 because the ground was parched,
for there was no rain on the earth.
The plowmen were disappointed;
they covered their heads.
5 Yes, the deer also gave birth in the field,
and left it,
because there was no grass.
6 And the wild donkeys stood on the
high places;
they sniffed the wind like jackals;
their eyes failed,
because there was no grass.”
7 O LORD, though our evil deeds testify against us, act for your name's sake;
for our backslidings are many.
We have sinned against you.
8 O the hope of Israel,
its saviour in time of trouble,
why should you be like a stranger in the land,
and like a traveller who turns aside to stay for a night?
9 Why should you be like a man astonished,
like a mighty man who cannot save?
For you, O LORD, are in our midst,
and we are called by your name.
Do not leave us.

14:7-9 Jeremiah speaks on behalf of the people. He knows very well the reason for the trouble they were in.

14:8 “Like a stranger” – a sad thing indeed that the true God should be like a stranger in His own land, among His own people (2:8; 4:22; 8:7; 9:3. Compare John 1:10,11). A sad thing too that He should be a stranger to the large majority of the human race. Most people neither know Him nor wish to know Him.

14:9 Jeremiah felt that God was still among them but inactive. He was not behaving like their “Saviour in times of trouble” – v 8.

14:10 Again and again God had to give the reason for the punishment He sent on the people. He was not lacking in ability to save them, but in His justice determined that He should not.

14:11 Evidently Jeremiah forgot God's instruction to him in 7:16 when he made the prayer of vs 7-9.

14:12 We see again that God will not accept some kinds of worship (6:20; 7:21). Compare John 4:23,24. The three words “sword”, “famine”, and “plague” are repeated over and over in Jeremiah. They were the three chief instruments God used in the destruction of Israel (and often no doubt other peoples when He decides to destroy them). See Lev 26:25,26; Deut 28:20-26.

14:13 Jeremiah tries to find some excuse for the people. Does he wish to remove from them some of the responsibility for their behavior? But see 5:31.

- 10 Thus says the LORD to this people:
“Thus they have loved to wander.
They have not restrained their feet;
therefore the LORD does not accept them.
He will now remember their wickedness,
and punish their sins.”

11 Then the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for this people for their good. 12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they sacrifice burnt offerings and offerings, I will not accept them, but I will consume them by sword and by famine and by plague.”

13 Then I said, “Ah, Lord God! See, the prophets say to them, ‘You will not see the sword, nor will you have famine, but I will give you lasting peace in this place.’”

14 Then the LORD said to me, “The prophets prophesy lies in my name. I did not send them, and I have not given commands to them or spoken to them. They prophesy to you a false vision and divination, and a worthless thing, and the deceit of their heart. 15 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name though I did not send them and who say, ‘There will be no sword and famine in this land’; by sword and famine those prophets will come to an end. 16 And the people to whom they prophesy will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the 14:14 23:16,25; 27:14; Ezek 13:2; Matt 7:15; 24:11,24; 2 Pet 2:1; 1 John 4:1. Notes on prophets at 28:1-17.

“I did not send them” – 23:21,32; 29:31; Ezek 13:6. Oh, how eager some are to have the name of prophet and how they run and deceive themselves and others! True prophets are often much more reluctant to go and speak (1:6; Ex 4:13). This verse gives three ways in which false prophets get their false messages.

“False vision” – since God does not give any false vision it is safe to say that sometimes such things come from demons or Satan himself. Sometimes they come in the form of dreams (23:25).

“Divination and a worthless thing” – or “worthless divination” (Deut 18:10-14). False prophets think they get some supernatural message through signs and omens, sometimes by consulting idols or spirits.

“Deceit of their own heart” – false prophets in their proud hearts may accept their own thoughts and ideas as divinely inspired. Or this may mean that because their hearts are deceitful they knowingly prophesy false things. Through these three ways – false vision, worthless divination, and prophecies from deceitful hearts – much that is false in religion has gone out into the world, and still goes out.

14:15 False prophets will get what they deserve, will experience the exact outworking of justice.

14:16 People who willingly, gladly listen to famine and the sword, and will have no one to bury them, neither them, nor their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters; for I will pour their wickedness on them.

- 17 "Therefore you shall speak this word to them: 'Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease, for the virgin daughter of my people has been broken with a great stroke, with a very grievous blow.
- 18 If I go out into the field, then, see, those slain by the sword!
And if I enter the city, then, see, those who are sick from the famine!
Yes, both the prophet and the priest go away into a land that they do not know."
- 19 Have you utterly rejected Judah?
Has your soul loathed Zion?
Why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us?
We looked for peace, but no good has come; and for the time of healing, but see trouble.
- 20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the guilt of our fathers, for we have sinned against you.
- 21 Do not abhor us, for your name's sake do not disgrace your glorious throne.
Remember, do not break your covenant with us.
- 22 Are there any among the worthless idols of the Gentiles that can cause rain?
Or can the skies give showers?
Are you not the one, O LORD our God?
Therefore we will wait for you, for you have made all these things.

false prophets (5:31) are also guilty and will be punished. Their punishment too will fit their crime.

14:17,18 8:21; 9:1; 13:17. God told Jeremiah to speak these words because they express the pain in His own heart as well as that of Jeremiah's (note on 4:19-26).

"A land that they do not know" – Babylonia.

14:19-22 God had twice told Jeremiah not to pray for the people. But they are in his heart and he cannot refrain from praying. How different from some people who will not pray no matter how much the Word of God urges them to do so!

14:20 Jeremiah is speaking for the people, but they themselves had not yet come to this place of confession.

14:21 Notice "your" name, "your" throne, "your" covenant. Jeremiah is concerned with God's honor. Compare Ex 32:11-13.

14:22 Jeremiah was aware of two errors in people's thinking regarding rain – one, gods

15 Then the LORD said to me, "Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be favourable toward this people. Throw them out of my sight, and let them go. 2 And it shall be, if they say to you, 'Where will we go?' that you must tell them, 'Thus says the LORD, Those who are for death, to death, and those who are for the sword, to the sword, and those who are for the famine, to the famine, and those who are for captivity, to captivity.'

3 "And I will appoint over them four kinds of destruction, says the LORD: the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. 4 And I will make them objects of horror to all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

5 "For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?
Or who will mourn for you?
Or who will turn aside to ask how you are doing?

6 You have forsaken me, says the LORD.
You have gone backward.

Therefore I will stretch out my hand against you, and destroy you.
I am tired of relenting.

7 And I will winnow them with a winnowing fan at the gates of the land.
I will bereave them of children,
I will destroy my people,
since they do not turn from their ways.

8 Their widows will increase before me more than the sand of the seas.
At midday I will bring a destroyer on them, against the mothers of the young men.
I will cause anguish and terror to fall

other than Jehovah God can send it; or two, rain comes by mere natural causes apart from God. And he knew the truth – Lev 26:4; Deut 11:11,14; Job 5:10; 38:28,37; Ps 68:9; 135:7; 147:8.

15:1 Moses and Samuel were probably the greatest intercessors for Israel in the whole Old Testament (Ex 32:11-14,30-34; Num 14:13-23; Deut 9:18-20; 1 Sam 7:5-9; 12:19-25). See Ps 99:6. But the people had become so wicked and rebellious that even the prayers of such men would not save them from destruction and exile.

15:2 God knows whom to appoint for what punishment.

15:4 "All kingdoms" – Deut 28:25; Jer 24:9; 29:18; 34:17. "

"Manasseh" – the most wicked of all Judah's kings until he repented (2 Kings 21:1-16; 23:26,27; 24:3,4).

15:5-9 The people refused to repent (v 7). God would no longer have pity on them (v 6; 13:14). Destruction was certain.

- suddenly on the city.
- 9 She who has given birth to seven will languish.
She will breathe her last.
Her sun will go down while it is still day.
She will be put to shame and dismay;
and I will deliver the rest of them to the sword before their enemies,
says the LORD."
- 10 Woe to me, my mother, that you have given birth to me,
a man of strife and contention to the whole land!
I have not lent money on usury,
nor have men lent to me on usury;
yet every one of them curses me.
- 11 The LORD said, "It will certainly be well with your remnant.
I will certainly cause the enemy to treat you well at the time of disaster and in the time of affliction.
- 12 Can anyone break iron,
the northern iron and the bronze?
- 13 I will give your wealth and your treasures to plunder without cost,
because of all your sins,
throughout your territories.
- 14 And I will make you go with your enemies into a land which you do not know, for a fire is kindled in my anger which will burn against you."
- 15 O LORD, you understand.
Remember me, and look after me,
and avenge me on my persecutors.

- Because of your patience do not take me away.
Know that for your sake I have suffered rebuke.
- 16 Your words were found, and I ate them;
and your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart,
for I am called by your name,
O LORD God of hosts.
- 17 I did not sit in the gathering of the mockers,
or rejoice with them.
I sat alone because of your hand,
for you filled me with indignation.
- 18 Why is my pain without end,
and my wound incurable?
It refuses to be healed.
Will you be to me like a deceptive stream whose waters fail?
- 19 Therefore thus says the LORD,
"If you return, then I will restore you,
and you will stand before me;
and if you take out the precious from the vile, you will be as my mouth.
Let them return to you,
but do not return to them.
- 20 And I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall;
and they will fight against you,
but they will not prevail against you,
for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says the LORD.
- 21 And I will deliver you out of the hand
of the wicked,
and I will redeem you from the hand of the violent."

15:10 "Birth" – Job 3:1; 10:18,19; Jer 20:14,15.

"Contention to the whole land" – Jeremiah should have expected this and refused to be cast down by it (1:18,19). But he had a sensitive, melancholy nature.

15:11 "I will certainly cause" – v 20; 1:8,19. God knew Jeremiah needed encouragement (Ps 103:13,14) and so repeated His promise and added another.

"To treat you well" – see 39:11-14.

15:12-14 God now speaks to the people of Judah through Jeremiah.

15:13 "Sins" – 4:18; 5:9; 6:19; 17:3.

15:14 Deut 32:22. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; etc.

15:15 Comforting indeed it is to have a God of tender mercy and patience, who understands completely and loves eternally.

15:16 "Ate" – 1:9; Ezek 2:8; 3:3; Rev 10:9,10.

"Joy and rejoicing" – Ps 1:2; 19:10; 119:72,103.

"Name" – God's spokesmen belong to Him and bear His name before the world.

15:17 The true man of God may be called to a lonely life, the whole world seemingly against him and he alone against the world. Jeremiah did not marry and had few friends. He was filled with anger at the sins of the people and the way they had rebelled against the true and living God.

15:18 "Pain", "wound" – his ministry of warning and denouncing brought him no joy. He could feel in his own heart the sword that threatened the people of Judah. Yet it was the work God gave him to do and he bowed in obedience to God's will.

"Waters fail" – compare Job 6:15-20.

15:19-21 Did Jeremiah need to repent or turn to God anew? Evidently so. He had a tendency to complain against God's dealings with him, to sink into depression instead of going ahead in living faith. Jeremiah, as all God's servants, as all of Adam's descendants, had a sinful nature. The truth of 17:9 applied to him as much as to anyone else. See also Gen 9:21; 12:13; Ex 32:2-4; Num 20:9-12; 2 Samuel chapter 11; Matt 26:69-75; Jam 3:2.

16 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "You must not marry, or have sons or daughters in this place. 3 For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who gave them birth, and concerning their fathers who begot them in this land: 4 They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be lamented, and they will not be buried, but will be like refuse on the surface of the ground. They will be consumed by sword and famine, and their corpses will be food for the birds of the sky, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 "For thus says the LORD: Do not enter the house of mourning, or go to lament or mourn them; for I have taken away my peace, loving kindness and mercy from this people, says the LORD. 6 Both the great and the small will die in this land. They will not be buried, and people will not lament for them, or cut themselves, or shave their heads for them, 7 And people will not break bread in mourning for them, to comfort them for the dead, and people will not give them a comforting cup to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 "You also must not go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. 9 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: See, in your sight and in your days I will put a stop to the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 "And it will come about, when you tell this people all these words, and they say to you, 'Why has the LORD proclaimed all this great disaster against us?' Or, 'What is our iniquity, or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?' 11 Then you shall say to them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me, says the LORD, and have followed other gods and served them and worshipped them, and have forsaken me and have not kept my law; 12 and you have done worse than your fathers, for, see, every one of you follows the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not listen to me. 13 Therefore I will throw you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers. And there you will serve other gods day and night. There I will not show you favour.

14 "Therefore, see, the days are coming, says the LORD, when it will no longer be said, 'The LORD lives, who brought the children of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,' 15 But, 'The LORD lives, who brought the children of Israel up from the land of the north, and from all the lands where he had driven them.' And I will bring them back into their land that I gave to their fathers.

16 "See, I will send for many fishermen, says the LORD, and they will fish for them; and afterwards I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. 17 For my eyes are on all their ways. They are not hidden from my face, and their wickedness is not hidden from my eyes. 18 And first I will repay them double for their wickedness and their sin, because they have defiled my land, they have filled my inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable idols."

19 O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles will come to you from the 16:1,2 It is not God's will for all to marry (1 Cor 7:1,7,8). It was not good for the man Adam to be alone (Gen 2:18), but it was good for Jeremiah – good because it was God's will for him.

16:5 Ezek 24:16,17,22,23. God would not enter into the common events of the life of His rebellious people anymore, and would not permit Jeremiah to do so (vs 6-9). They deserved only punishment and destruction and that is what He appointed for them.

16:10 Apart from the full enlightenment of God's Spirit it is impossible for a people or an individual to see sin as God sees it (5:19; Mal 1:6,7; 2:17; 3:7,8). Judah's people sunk so low in wickedness, unbelief, and rebellion, wondered what God had against them to punish them so greatly. This is the spiritual blindness of fallen mankind. People usually tend to think they are far better than they really are.

16:11-13 A full answer to the people's question. Their ancestors were bad enough. They were worse.

16:12 "Evil heart" – 3:17; 7:24; 9:14; 11:8; 13:10; 18:12; Acts 7:51; Rom 2:5. An evil heart is what we all have by nature. Compare 17:9; Matt 7:11; Rom 3:9; 7:18; Eph 2:3.

16:13 They rejected the true God and chose the gods of other nations, so God would see to it that they got their fill of that.

16:14,15 Suddenly in denunciation and words concerning punishment and destruction there comes this sweet promise for the future. How like God to do this!

16:16 The promise of v 15 would not be fulfilled for more than 70 years. Now Judah's people must face God's anger.

16:17 32:19; Eccl 12:14; Heb 4:13.

16:18 Let us learn once and for all what the true God thinks of idolatry.

16:19,20 Jeremiah speaks.

"Refuge" – Ps 7:1; 18:2; 46:1.

"Gentiles" – non-Jewish nations – 3:17; Ps 45:17; 117:1-3; Isa 2:2,3. The nations will learn at last that the true and living God is Jehovah and that their gods are not God, nor a part of God, nor related to God in any way.

ends of the earth, and will say,
 "Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and profitless things."
 20 Will a man make gods for himself?
 But they are not gods.
 21 "Therefore, see, this time I will cause them to know;
 I will cause them to know my hand and my might,
 and they will know that my name is the LORD.

17 "The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron,
 and with the point of a diamond.
 It is engraved on the tablet of their heart,
 and on the horns of your altars, 2 While their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees on the high hills.
 3 O my mountain in the land,
 I will give your wealth and all your treasures to plunder, together with your high places because of sin throughout all your territory.
 4 And you, you yourself, will let go of your inheritance that I gave you.
 And I will cause you to serve your enemies in a land which you do not know.

 For you have kindled a fire in my anger,
 which will burn forever."

5 Thus says the LORD:
 "Cursed is the man who trusts in man
 and makes flesh his arm,
 and whose heart departs from the LORD.
 6 For he will be like a bush in the desert,
 and will not see when good comes,
 but will live in the parched places of the desert,
 in an uninhabited salt land.
 7 "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD,
 and who has the LORD as his hope.
 8 For he will be like a tree planted by the waters, which spreads out its roots by the river and does not see when heat comes.
 Its leaf will be green, and it will not be anxious in the year of drought, and it will not cease yielding fruit.
 9 "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked. Who can know it?
 10 I, the LORD. I search the heart, I test the inner being, to give to each one according to his ways,
 and according to the fruit of his deeds.

16:21 "Cause them to know"— God is a great Teacher. See Ps 25: 4,5,8; 119:12,26; John 14:26; 16:13. He will teach us His power and might and His true name (Jehovah) and His nature.

17:1 This speaks of a permanent record. It would not be effaced from their hearts as long as they lived. Their altars to false gods revealed their sins for all to see.

17:2 Their sin was also in their children's hearts.

"Groves" – or "Asherah poles" – symbols of the goddess Asherah, sometimes worshiped by Israel and Judah.

17:3,4 15:13,14.

17:4 "You have kindled a fire" – all that men lose of God's good gifts, all the punishment that comes on them is altogether their own fault; all good things they receive is altogether God's grace.

17:5-8 The great contrast between those who trust men and those who trust in Jehovah God.

17:5,6 2 Chron 32:7,8; Ps 108:12; 118:8; 146:3; Isa 10:3; 30:5; 31:3; Jer 2:36; 2 Cor 1:9. The tendency of men is to forget the living God and look to other men for help, strength, and deliverance from trouble. God here pronounces a curse on such.

17:7 Here is a key verse about blessedness. Every blessing promised in the Bible comes only in this way. Everywhere in His Word God emphasizes the importance of trusting Him – Ps 32:10; 34:8; 37:4,5; 40:4; Prov 3:5; 16:20; 29:25; Hebrews chapter 11. Notes on "blessed" at Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22;

Deut 28:2-14; Ps 1:1-3; 119:1,2; etc.

17:8 Ps 1:3; 92:12-15.

17:9 Here is the word of God Himself concerning man's heart. See also 5:23; 7:24; 16:12; 18:12. If we have any true wisdom at all we will believe what God reveals about us. Everywhere in the Bible He tells us what we are really like – Gen 6:5; 8:21; Ps 51:5; Eccl 9:3; Matt 15:19; Rom 1:21; 3:9; 7:18; Eph 2:1-3; 4:22.

"Wicked" – or "incurably sick". Every human being has a sinful nature, a heart prone to follow evil, a nature spiritually sick. No man fully understands its moral sickness, its deceitfulness, its depravity. Peoples' hearts deceive them into thinking they are not nearly as bad as the above verses declare, and that they can manage to go to heaven without repenting, without asking the God of heaven to forgive and save them. They can think well of themselves even after breaking the most important commands in the Word of God or after committing the worst kind of crimes (see John 16:2,3). How few there are who view things as they really are, as Paul stated it in Rom 3:9. Many people, if they read that verse, in their hearts will want to answer "yes" to the question he asks there, feeling that they are better than a great many others. Such people lack the true enlightenment that comes from God to know what they are and what they need.

17:10 God examines the heart and mind and knows all about the inner thoughts, desires and motives of men (1 Sam 16:7;

- 11 As the partridge sits on eggs,
but does not hatch them,
so the one who unjustly gets riches will leave them in the middle of his days, and at his end will be shown to be a fool.”
- 12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.
- 13 O LORD, the hope of Israel,
all who forsake you will be put to shame.
“And those who depart from me will be written in the earth,
because they have forsaken the LORD,
the fountain of living waters.”
- 14 Heal me, O LORD, and I will be healed.
Save me, and I will be saved,
for you are my praise.
- 15 Behold, they say to me,
“Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come now.”
- 16 As for me, I have not hurried away from being a shepherd following you, and I have not desired the day of disaster. You know.
What came out of my lips was right before you.
- 17 Be not a terror to me.
You are my hope in the day of disaster.
- 18 Let those who persecute me be put to shame,
but do not let me be put to shame.
Let them be dismayed,
but do not let me be dismayed.
Bring on them the day of disaster,
and destroy them with double destruction.
- 19 Thus the LORD said to me: “Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, where the kings of Judah come in, and where they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem, 20 and say to them, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter in by these gates, 21 thus the LORD said: Take heed to yourselves, and carry no load on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in through the gates of Jerusalem, 22 nor carry a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers. 23 But they did not obey or incline their ear, but made their necks stiff, so that they might not hear or receive instruction. 24 And it will come about, if you carefully listen to me, says the LORD, to bring no burden in through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy, doing no work in it, 25 then through the gates of this city will enter kings and princes who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city will remain forever. 26 And they will come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices and grain offerings and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, to the house of the LORD. 27 But if you will not listen to me to keep the Sabbath day holy, and not to carry a load, entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it will not be quenched.”

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: 2 “Arise and go down to the potter’s house, and there I will cause you to hear my words.” 3 Then I went down to the potter’s house, and saw that he doing a work on the wheel.

2 Chron 6:30; Ps 7:9; 17:3; 94:11; 139:23,24; Prov 17:3; Jer 11:20; Ezek 11:5; Matt 9:4; John 2:24,25). Let us listen to Him as He tells us the true state of things.

17:11 Jeremiah applies the truth of v 10. See Prov 23:5. “Fool” means without moral, ethical sense (Ps 14:1; Prov 1:7).

17:12 Ps 80:1; 99:1. God was said to sit enthroned over the mercy seat over the ark between the cherubim in the temple in Jerusalem.

17:13 There was no hope for Israel apart from Jehovah God. To forsake Him was to forsake any possibility of a blessed future. As writing in dust is soon blotted out so would they be. They who forsake God the source of life, should not vainly imagine they are permanently recorded in the book of life (Ps 69:28; Rev 3:6).

“Fountain of living waters” – 2:13; John 4:14; 7:38; Rev 22:17.

17:14 15:18; Ps 6:2.

17:15 “Where”– spoken sarcastically. At this time the people did not regard Jeremiah as a true prophet.

17:16 Though the people rejected him Jeremiah knew that God had appointed him, and he did not try to escape from his responsibility to be a shepherd to them.

17:17 Job 6:4; 9:34; 13:21; Ps 88:15,16.

17:18 Notes on such prayers at Ps 35:8.

17:19-22 Ex 20:8,10; Deut 5:12,14-16.

17:23 7:26; 19:15; Acts 7:51. One of the worst of all their many sins.

17:24-27 God’s commands about the Sabbath would be a test for the people. If they began to obey God in this it would be a sign of their repentance and God would be merciful to them (Isa 58:13,14). If they refused obedience in this, obedience could not be expected in anything, and the judgment of God would come on Jerusalem.

17:26 “Sacrifices of praise” – or “thank offerings” – note at Lev 7:12,13.

18:1-10 Another object lesson – 1:11-14;

4 And the pot that he was making of clay was marred in the hand of the potter. So he remade it into another pot, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 6 "O house of Israel, cannot I do with you like this potter? says the LORD. See, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. 7 At any moment I may speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck it up, and to pull it down, and to destroy it. 8 If that nation, against whom I have proclaimed this, turns from their evil, I will relent concerning the disaster that I thought to do to them. 9 And at any moment I may speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build it and to plant it. 10 If it does evil in my sight, not obeying my voice, then I will relent concerning the good with which I said I would bless them.

11 "Now therefore go, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: See, I am preparing disaster against you, and devising a plan against you. Each one of you now turn from his evil way, and make your ways and your deeds good.'" 12 And they said, "There is no hope; but we will follow our own plans, and each one of us will act according to the imagination of his evil heart."

13 Therefore thus says the LORD:
"Ask now among the nations,

13:1-11. If a clay vessel is marred in a potter's hands the fault may be either in the clay or in the potter. If nations or individuals are marred in God's hands the fault can only be in them (7:13,26; 17:23; Matt 23:37). But though individuals or nations have wills and can resist God's work, yet He retains control over them and can continue His work either to bring blessing or disaster on them. But here is good hope for anyone who has marred his (or her) life and cannot make it as he thinks it should be. Let us put our poor clay in the hands of the master Potter and let Him make a good vessel for His use.

18:7-10 In some measure God's working will be according to the obedience or disobedience of individuals or nations to His word (26:13; 36:3; Ex 32:1,4; Ezek 18:30; Jonah 3:1-10). Observe that God as the sovereign of the universe is active in the world uprooting or planting kingdoms, destroying them or building them up.

18:11 The Lord orders that Judah and its capital city apply the above truth to themselves. They should not blame the Potter for what is about to happen to them. But He knew what the people would say and tells Jeremiah in the next verse.

18:12 This is one of the most terrible things a people or an individual could say. Here is complete, willful, conscious abandonment of who has heard such things?

The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.

14 Will the snow of Lebanon leave the rocky fields?

Or will the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to empty idols, and have made themselves stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in pathways, not on a way built up, 16 making their land desolate, and an object of perpetual hissing.

Everyone who passes by it will be astonished and shake his head.

17 I will scatter them before the enemy as with an east wind.

I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity."

18 Then they said, "Come, and let us devise plans against Jeremiah; for the law will not perish from the priest, or counsel from the wise, or the word from the prophet. Come, and let us attack him with the tongue, and let us not pay attention to any of his words."

19 Listen to me, O LORD, and hear the voice of those who themselves to their evil natures, contrary to light, reason and the pleadings of God Himself. Here is human depravity approaching the utmost limits of unbelief, disobedience and despair. It is not a rare thing. Satan would, if he could, gladly bring us all to such a condition. And everyone of us has the tendency in us to go that way and that far. God's grace alone can preserve us from it. 18:13 5:30,31. What could be more horrible than the actions and words of God's own nation (here called "virgin")? Even the wicked city Nineveh did not behave so (Jonah 3:6-9). 18:14,15 Snow and cool waters always remain in the high mountains, but thoughts of God and the water of life He gives did not remain in the people's minds.

"Ancient paths" – 6:16.

"Pathways" – the worship of idols, of other gods is a by-path taking people out of God's ancient way of worship in spirit and truth (John 4:24).

18:16,17 4:11,12; 25:9,10.

18:18 Jeremiah's enemies thought nothing would be lost if Jeremiah were to be silenced. They did not realize that for those particular days Jeremiah was God's true spokesman in Jerusalem.

18:19-23 This portion sounds like some of the Psalms – Ps 35:12; 57:6; 63:10; 141:8-10; 142:3. Notes on such prayers at Ps 35:8; 58:6-8; 69:22-28.

contend with me.

20 Will evil be repaid for good?

For they have dug a pit for my soul.
Remember that I stood before you to speak good for them,
and to turn away your wrath from them.

21 Therefore deliver their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the power of the sword,
and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and become widows,
and let their men be put to death,
and let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses,
when you bring a troop suddenly on them.
For they have dug a pit to capture me,
and hidden snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, you know their whole plot against me to kill me.
Do not forgive their iniquity,
or blot out their sin from your sight,
but let them be overthrown before you.
Deal thus with them in the time of your anger.

19 Thus says the LORD: "Go and get a potter's earthenware jar, and take some of the elders of the people, and some of the elders of the priests, 2 and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is at the entrance of the Gate of the Potsherd, and there proclaim the words that I will tell you, 3 and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: See, I will bring disaster on this place; the ears of whoever hears of it will tingle, 4 because they have forsaken me, and have made this a foreign place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents. 5 They have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire as burnt offerings to Baal. I did not command this, or speak of it, nor did it enter my mind. 6 Therefore, see, the days are coming, says the LORD, that this place will no longer be called Tophet, or The Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but The Valley of Slaughter.

7 "And I will make void the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of those who seek their lives, and I will give their corpses as food for the birds of the sky, and for the beasts of the earth. 8 And I will make this city desolate, and an object of hissing. Everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. 9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and every one of them will eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress, with which their enemies and those who seek their lives, will distress them.'

10 "Then you shall break the jar in the sight of the men who go with you, 11 and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: Like this I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's jar that cannot be made whole again; and they will bury them in Tophet, until there is no room to bury. 12 I will do so to this place, says the LORD, and to its inhabitants, and even make this city like Tophet. 13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, will be defiled like the place of Tophet, because of all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the starry host of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to other gods.'"

14 Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people, 15 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'See, I will bring on this city and on all her towns all the disaster that I have proclaimed against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.'"

20 Now Pashur the son of Immer, the priest, who was also the chief official in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these 19:1 Another object lesson – 18:1,2; etc.

19:2 "Gate of the Potsherd" – it would seem from this that the gate got its name from some broken piece of pottery found there (or perhaps many broken pieces). The KJV has "East gate", but the Hebrew word does not mean east, and the valley of Hinnom was not at the eastern side of Jerusalem.
19:2-9 Notes on 7:30-34.
19:9 Lev 26:29; Deut 28:49-57; Lam 2:20; 4:10 – cannibalism actually occurred during the Babylonian siege of Jerusalem.
19:10,11 God has no more difficulty in smashing a nation than Jeremiah in smashing a clay pot.

19:12,13 Topheth was defiled by death, and by the action of King Josiah (2 Kings 23:10). Josiah probably leveled the shrines there to the ground. So would God do to Jerusalem.

"Starry host" – another command of God the people ignored to their own great harm (Deut 4:14; 2 Kings 17:16; Jer 8:2; Acts 7:42; Rom 1:25).

19:14,15 Jeremiah was determined, at whatever danger to himself (18:23), to declare God's message to all the people. Compare Acts 20:24; 21:13.

"Hardened" – see Prov 29:1.

20:1,2 The first of Jeremiah's enemies things. 2 Then Pashur had Jeremiah the prophet beaten, and put him in the stocks that were at the Upper Gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD. 3 And it came about the next day that Pashur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD has not called your name Pashur, but Magor-Missabib. 4 For thus says the LORD: 'See, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they will fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes will see it. And I will give all Judah into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them captive into Babylon, and will kill them with the sword. 5 Moreover, I will deliver up all the wealth of this city, and all its products, and all its costly things; and all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hands of their enemies, who will plunder them, and capture them and carry them to Babylon. 6 And you, Pashur, and all who live in your house will go into captivity. And you will come to Babylon, and there you will die and there be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied lies.'"

- 7 O LORD, you persuaded me, and I was persuaded.
You are stronger than I, and have prevailed.
I am ridiculed daily,
everyone mocks me.
- 8 For when I speak, I cry out,
proclaiming violence and plunder, because the word of the LORD has resulted in reproach and ridicule to me, daily.

- 9 Then I said, "I will not make mention of him, or speak any more in his name."
But his word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary of holding it in,
and I was not able to do so.
- 10 For I heard the whispering of many:
"Fear on every side!" "Report,"
they said, "and we will report it."
All my acquaintances watched for my stumbling, saying,
"Perhaps he will be enticed, and we will prevail against him,
and take our revenge on him."
- 11 But the LORD is with me like a mighty,
awe-inspiring one;
therefore my persecutors will stumble,
and will not prevail.
They will be greatly ashamed, for they will not prosper.
Their everlasting disgrace will never be forgotten.
- 12 But, O LORD of hosts, who tests the righteous, and sees the inner being and the heart,
let me see your vengeance on them,
for to you I have presented my cause.
- 13 Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD!
For he has delivered the soul of the whose name is given. He was a false prophet (v 6). He was second to the high priest in authority. His job was to keep order in the temple and to expel or punish troublemakers. He evidently considered Jeremiah one such (see 38:4 and 1 Kings 18:16,17). The truth is troubling to those who do not want it, and those who proclaim it are often regarded as troublemakers (Luke 23:4,5; Acts 16:19-24; 17:5-7; 21:28; 24:5). 20:3-6 Unjust punishment did not keep God's prophets from speaking (v 9; Acts 4:3,18-20; 7:52; Heb 11:32-38). Magor-Missabib means "terror on every side". 20:7-18 Jeremiah's prayer and complaint. God's spokesmen may be bold as lions when speaking to the people, but know their own fears, weakness, and depression when in secret with God. Jeremiah lays bare his soul before the Lord. He did not try to hide anything. Compare Job 10:1,2; Ps 62:8. He did not want to be a prophet (1:6). God compelled him, and Jeremiah is not happy with the result.

"Persuaded" (v 7) – the KJV has "deceived" here. The Hebrew word means both things, but surely we should not translate this "deceived" when there is an alternative which is also accurate. Can we really think that Jeremiah accused God of deceiving him? He probably meant "I was a simple young man and so you were able to persuade me or entice me to be a prophet."

20:8 6:10; 15:10,15; 2 Pet 3:3,4.

20:9 Sometimes speaking for God seemed to him too much to bear. He was tempted to give up such ministry. It brought him nothing but sorrow. But God had put in his heart a fire, an inner compulsion that would not let him escape. Compare Acts 4:20; 1 Cor 9:16; 2 Cor 5:14; 2 Pet 1:21. God's compulsion, God's fire in the heart make His spokesmen willing to face any insult, any persecution, any danger. They must ease themselves of the Word of God forcing its way out of their hearts.

20:10 His enemies were mocking him for the name he gave Pashhur (v 3). His friends were friends in name only, for he had offended them with his message of God's judgment. Compare Gal 4:16. Betrayal by friends is harder to bear than oppression by enemies.

20:11 "The LORD is with me" – here was his confidence. This is how he could keep going in his very unpopular ministry.

20:12 11:20. "LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

20:13 The weeping prophet does not experience much joy in his own heart, but knows God's deliverance and knows, too, that God should be praised for it.

- poor from the hands of evildoers.
 14 Cursed be the day on which I was born.
 Do not let the day on which my mother gave me birth be blessed.
 15 Cursed be the man who brought news
 to my father, saying,
 "A male child is born to you,"
 making him very glad.
 16 And let that man be like the cities
 which the LORD overthrew, without relenting;
 and let him hear the cry in the morning,
 and the shouting at noon, 17 Because he did not kill me from the womb that my mother might have been my grave,
 and her womb have been always enlarged with me.
 18 Why did I come out of the womb to see labour and sorrow,
 that my days should be consumed with shame?

21 This word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to him saying, 2 "Please consult the LORD for us, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps the LORD will deal with us in accordance with all his wonderful deeds, so that he may depart from us."

3 Then Jeremiah said to them, "This is what you shall say to Zedekiah: 4 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: See, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and against the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the walls, and I will gather them in the middle of this city. 5 And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, in anger and in fury and in great wrath. 6 And I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast. They will die from a great plague. 7 And afterwards, says the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah and his servants and the people and those who are left in this city from the plague, from the sword and from the famine, into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hands of their enemies, and into the hands of those who seek their life. And he will strike them with the edge of the sword. He will not spare them, or have pity, or have mercy.'

8 "And you shall say to this people, 'Thus says the LORD: See, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death. 9 He who stays in this city will die by the sword and by the famine and by the plague, but he who goes out and defects to the Chaldeans who are besieging you, will live, and will be to him like plunder. 10 For I have set my face against this city for disaster and not for good, says the LORD. It will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.'

11 "And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, 'Hear the word of the LORD. 12 O house of David, thus says the LORD:

"Administer justice every morning, and rescue the one who is plundered out of the hands of the oppressor, so that my fury does not go out like fire and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your deeds.

20:14-18 Jeremiah gives in to feelings of pain, sorrow, and despair as Job once did (Job chapter 3; Eccl 4:1-3). But he does not abandon his faith in God or his responsibility as a prophet. It is a great thing to go on trusting and serving God even when one's thoughts bring torture like this.

21:1 Zedekiah refused to obey the Word of God spoken through Jeremiah. The Pashur in this verse is not the one in 20:1 and the Zephaniah here is not the prophet of that name. The event described here took place when the Babylonian armies had already besieged Jerusalem.

21:2 King Zedekiah wanted information from the Lord through Jeremiah, but he did not want instruction in righteousness or messages of repentance. Though he did not have the good character and faith of king Hezekiah he was hoping for a miraculous deliverance such as the one that took place in the time of Hezekiah (2 Kings 19:32-36). 21:3-7 Jeremiah was no man-pleaser, no king-pleaser, nor should we be (Gal 1:10). He, being a true prophet, spoke God's message just as it came to him (see also 1 Kings 22:13,14).

21:4 Chaldea made up the southern part of the land of Babylon.

21:5 God says that not only the Babylonians but He Himself would be against them. Many times He had fought for Israel; now He would fight against them (6:12; Lev 26:17,23-25,27,28. Compare Rev 2:16). The Babylonian armies would be a weapon in His hand to bring them down. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; etc.

21:6 14:12.

21:7 Nebuchadnezzar was the most famous and powerful ruler of the Babylonian empire. He reigned 605-562 BC. He showed no pity to the inhabitants of Jerusalem or to king Zedekiah (see 52:8-16,24-27).

21:8 Deut 30:15.

21:9,10 27:12,13; 38:2,3,17,18.

21:11,12 Zedekiah had not asked for a word on repentance and righteousness, but that is what he most needed and what God sent him. To us also God sends what we need, not necessarily what we ask for.

- 13 See, I am against you,
 O inhabitant of the valley and rocky plain,
 says the LORD, you who say,
 "Who will come down against us?
 Or who will enter our dwelling places?"
- 14 But I will punish you according to the results of your deeds, says the LORD;
 and I will kindle a fire in its forest,
 and it will devour everything around it."

22 Thus says the LORD: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word 2 and say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David, you and your servants and your people who enter by these gates. 3 Thus says the LORD: Administer justice and righteousness, and deliver those plundered out of the hands of the oppressor; and do no wrong, no violence to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow, and shed no innocent blood in this place. 4 For if you really do this, then kings who sit on the throne of David will enter by the gates of this house, riding in chariots and on horses, each one with his servants and his people. 5 But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house will become a desolation."

6 For thus says the LORD to the house of the king of Judah:

"You are like Gilead to me and the summit of Lebanon.

But I will certainly make you a wilderness, and uninhabited cities.

- 7 And I will prepare destroyers against you,
 every one with his weapons;
 and they will cut down your choice

cedars and throw them into the fire.

8 "And many nations will pass by this city, and each man will say to his neighbour, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this great city?' 9 Then they will answer, 'Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.'

10 "Do not weep for the dead,
 or mourn him,
 but weep bitterly for the one who goes away;
 for he will not return again or see his native country."

11 For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, who reigned in the place of his father Josiah, who has gone out of this place: "He will not return here again, 12 but will die in the place where they have led him away captive, and will see this land no more.

13 "Woe to him who builds his house through unrighteousness,
 and his rooms through wrong,
 who uses his neighbour's service
 without wages,
 and gives him nothing for his work,

14 Who says, 'I will build a spacious house and large rooms for myself,' and cuts out windows for it,
 and panels it with cedar,
 and paints it with vermilion.

15 Will you reign, because you enclose yourself with cedar?
 When your father ate and drank
 and administered justice and righteousness, was it not well with him?

21:13,14 Lam 4:12. On three sides of Jerusalem there were valleys, and the city was easy to defend. So the inhabitants thought they were safe. But there can be no safety if God arises in anger.

22:1,2 13:18; 34:2; Matt 10:18. This king was probably Zedekiah (21:1). But this is not certain because the chapters of Jeremiah are not always arranged in chronological order.

22:3 21:12. On the just administration of God's kingdom in accordance with God's law see Ps 72:1-4,12-14; 110:1-7; Isa 9:7; 11:4,5; Jer 23:5,6.

"Fatherless", "widow" – see note and references at Ex 22:22-24.

22:4,5 God will not forever permit wicked rulers who have contempt for His laws to rule over His people and His earth.

22:6,7 Gilead and Lebanon were elevated areas of beautiful forests. The cedar beams for the king's palace came from one or the other of these places.

22:8,9 Deut 29:24-26; 1 Kings 9:8,9;

Jer 16:10,11.

22:10-12 The one who had died was King Josiah (2 Chron 35:23-25). He was a good king and died on the battlefield. His son Shallum, also called Jehoahaz, reigned only 3 months. He was captured by the king of Egypt and taken to that country (2 Chron 36:1-4). He never returned to Israel. The meaning of v 10 is this: Do not weep for the honored dead but for those being punished for their sins.

22:13-19 These verses are concerning Jehoiakim (v 18). He was the brother of Jehoahaz, who became king after the exile of Jehoahaz (2 Chron 36:4-8). Apparently he built a new palace for himself and refused to pay the laborers (see Deut 24:14,15). Actually the king should have been seeking God and trying to create a just administration, and not building a palace. Leaders should do what is just and right and not try to outdo one another in erecting splendid buildings for themselves (v 15). In verses 15 and 16 observe what it means

- 16 He justly judged the cause of the poor and needy;
then it was well with him.
Is this not what it means to know me?
says the LORD.
- 17 But your eyes and your heart are for nothing except your greed for gain, and for shedding innocent blood, and for perpetrating oppression and violence.
- 18 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah:
"They will not lament for him, saying, 'Alas my brother!' or, 'Alas sister!'
They will not lament for him, saying, 'Alas master!' or, 'Alas his glory!'
- 19 He will be buried with a donkey's burial, dragged away and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.
- 20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry out, and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry out from the mountain passages; for all your lovers are destroyed.
- 21 I spoke to you in your prosperity, but you said, 'I will not listen.'
This has been your way from your youth, not obeying my voice.
- 22 The wind will consume all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into captivity. Surely then you will be ashamed and dismayed for all your wickedness.
- 23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how you will be pitied when pangs come on you, pain like a woman in labour!
- 24 "As I live, says the LORD, though Coniah

the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet ring on my right hand, yet I would uproot you from there. 25 And I will give you into the hands of those who seek your life, and into the hands of those whose face you fear, into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hands of the Chaldeans. 26 And I will throw you out, and your mother who gave you birth, into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. 27 And they will not return to the land to which they will desire to return.

- 28 "Is this man Coniah like a despised broken idol?
Is he an unwanted vessel?
Why are they thrown out,
he and his offspring,
thrown into a land which they do not know?
- 29 O earth, earth, earth,
hear the word of the LORD!
- 30 Thus says the LORD:
Write you this man childless,
a man who will not prosper in his days;
for none of his offspring will prosper, sitting on the throne of David,
and ruling any more in Judah.

23 "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD. 2 Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the shepherds who tend my people: You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them. See, I will punish you for your evil deeds, says the LORD. 3 And I will gather the remainder of my flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and will bring them back to their folds. And they will be fruitful and increase.

to know God (Jam 1:27; Deut 10:12,13; Hos 6:6; Mic 6:8). The true knowledge of God will result in lives of justice and honesty and mercy and obedience. If we say we know God and do not practice these things we are deceived (1 John 2:3,4; 3:6).

22:19 Jehoiakim was treated as he had treated others (2 Chron 36:5,6. The king of Babylon bound him to take him to Babylon, but it seems he changed his mind and killed him near Jerusalem).

22:20-23 It is very difficult to determine whether these verses were spoken to king Jehoiakim, or to some other king, or to the people of Israel. In any case, from the language of v 20, we can judge that God wanted the message to be heard widely. And the message was clear (4:31).

22:24-30 Now God speaks to another king of Judah, the next to the last one before the final destruction of Jerusalem by the armies of Babylon. His full name was Jehoiachin but he was also called Jeconiah or simply Coniah (as it is here). See 24:1

and 29:1,2 for the fulfillment of these verses. It seems from v 28 he had children (see also 1 Chron 3:17-19), but God treated him as if he had none. No descendants of Jehoiachin ever became king over Judah. His grandson Zerubbabel later on was governor, not king.

22:29 How strongly God emphasizes the obedient hearing of His Word! – Deut 11:27,28; 13:4; 27:26; Matt 7:24-27; Heb 12:25.

23:1,2 The sheep were the people of Judah, the shepherds were their wicked leaders and rulers. God would repay them in full for what they had done to Judah.

"Punish" – or "visit." The Hebrew word means both.

23:3,4 The prophets often spoke of the return of Israel from exile – Isa 11:10-12; Jer 27:22; 29:10,11; 34:11-16; Ezek 37:20-28; Amos 9:15. Some of their prophecies were fulfilled in the days following the fall of the Babylonian empire (2 Chron 36:20-23; Ezra 1:1-5; etc.). But a more complete

4 And I will raise up shepherds over them who will tend them; and they will no longer fear or be dismayed; and not one of them will be missing, says the LORD.

5 "See, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and a King will reign and prosper, and will administer judgment and justice in the earth.

6 In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell safely. And this is his name, the one by which he will be called, The LORD Our Righteousness.

7 "Therefore, see, the days are coming, says the LORD, when they will no longer say, 'The LORD lives, who brought the children of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,' 8 But, 'The LORD lives, who brought up and led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the north country,' and from all countries where I had driven them. And they will live in their own land."

9 My heart within me is broken because of the prophets. All my bones tremble. I am like a drunken man, and like a man overcome by wine, because of the LORD, and because of his holy words.

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns.

The pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, for their course is evil, and their might is not right.

11 "For both prophet and priest are profane. Yes, in my house I have found their wickedness, says the LORD.

12 Therefore their way will be to them like slippery paths in the darkness. They will be driven on, and fall in them; for I will bring disaster on them, the year of their punishment, says the LORD.

13 And I saw folly in the prophets of Samaria. They prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to go astray.

14 I have also seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem. They commit adultery and walk in lies, and they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns from his wickedness. All of them are like Sodom to me, and its inhabitants like Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: See, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink bitter water. For from the prophets of Jerusalem godlessness has gone out into the whole land.

16 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Do not listen to the words of the restoration than that seems required to fulfill the language of the prophets.

23:5 "Branch" – a name for the Messiah (33:15; Isa 11:1; Zech 3:8; 6:12). As man He was a branch of the royal house of David (Luke 1:30-33; Rom 1:3). His future reign as king is briefly described in several Old Testament Scriptures (Ps 2:6-9; 45:1-7; 72:5-17; Isa 9:6,7; 11:1-9; 32:1-3; Zech 14:9-21; etc). See note at Isa 2:2-4. 23:6 This did not occur at Christ's first coming.

"The LORD Our Righteousness" – 33:16; see Gen 15:6; 1 Cor 1:30; Phil 3:8,9. All men are sinners and have no true righteousness of their own (Isa 64:6). God in His great mercy provides the perfect righteousness of Christ to those who turn to Him. This is to be received by faith. When we trust in Him the Lord Himself becomes our righteousness, and so in God's eyes our righteousness becomes as perfect as His. This is the way God has provided for fallen man to gain righteousness and enter God's holy heaven (Rom 3:21-26).

23:7,8 16:14,15.

23:9,10 Jeremiah again speaks of his inner pain that came because of what was then taking place in his land, and the message of destruction the Lord had given.

23:11 Beginning here and going on to the end of this chapter God speaks of the false prophets who were such a plague in Jeremiah's day. Neither they nor the priests tried to conceal their wickedness, even in the temple. They were openly contemptuous of both man and God.

23:12 Deut 32:35. "Year" – 11:23.

23:13 Samaria was the capital of the northern kingdom. God is reminding Judah of the sins of Samaria which brought its destruction (2 Kings 17:7-20).

"Baal" – note at Jud 2:11.

23:14,15 This is the most severe condemnation imaginable of Jerusalem's prophets. They said they were God's spokesmen, but lived for Satan. They were wicked themselves and encouraged wickedness in others. They were no better than the people of Sodom and had no right to expect a better fate (Gen 13:13; 19:24,25; Isa 1:9,10; 2 Pet 2:6). Alas, such people are still with us propagating lies and promoting wickedness in the churches (2 Tim 3:1-7; 2 Pet 2:1).

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

23:16,17 "Vain hopes" – this is one of the

- prophets who prophesy to you.
They give you vain hopes.
They speak a vision of their own heart,
and not from the mouth of the LORD.
- 17 They still say to those who despise me,
'The LORD has said, You will have peace,'
and they say to everyone who follows
the imagination of his own heart,
'No harm will come on you.'
- 18 For who has stood in the council of the LORD,
and has seen and heard his word?
Who has paid attention to his word,
and heard it ?
- 19 See, a whirlwind from the LORD has gone forth in fury,
a violent whirlwind.
It will fall violently on the head
of the wicked.
- 20 The anger of the LORD will not return, until he has carried out the thoughts of his heart and until he has performed them.
In the last days you will understand it perfectly.
- 21 "I have not sent these prophets,
yet they ran.
I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.
- 22 But if they had stood in my council,
and had caused my people to hear
my words,
then they would have turned them from their evil way,
and from their evil deeds.

23 Am I a God at hand, says the LORD,
and not a God afar off?

24 Can anyone hide himself in secret places so that I will not see him?
says the LORD.
Do I not fill heaven and earth?
says the LORD.

25 "I have heard what the prophets said, those prophesying lies in my name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed.' 26 How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies?
Yes, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart, 27 who think they can make my people forget my name by their dreams which each one of them tells to his neighbour, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal. 28 The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? says the LORD. 29 Is not my word like a fire? says the LORD, and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?

30 "Therefore, see, I am against the prophets each of whom steals my words from his neighbour, says the LORD. 31 See, the LORD says, I am against the prophets who use their tongues and say, 'He says.' 32 See, the LORD says, I am against those who prophesy false dreams, and tell them, and make my people go astray by their lies, and by their recklessness, yet I did not send them or command them. Therefore they will not profit this people at all, says the LORD.

33 "And when this people, or a prophet, or a priest, asks you, saying, 'What is the oracle of the LORD?' you shall then say to them, 'What oracle? I terrible things about the teaching of lies. People believe them and acquire false hopes of salvation.

"Own heart" – 14:14. Their lies in v 17 are lies common in the world today. Those who know the Bible know that it will not be well with those who do not love the true God, and that there is no peace to the wicked (Ps 11:7-16; 32:10; Isa 3:10,11; 48:22; Matt 23:33; Rom 2:5-11; 1 Cor 16:22; Heb 2:1-3; Rev 21:8).

23:18-21 The false prophets were ignorant of God's plans. They were saying that no harm would come to a sinful people. God declared that great harm was on the way. Verses 19,20 are repeated in 30:23,24.

23:22 This is the work of true prophets of God. It can be accomplished only by those who spend time in God's presence and get God's message.

23:23,24 Did not the false prophets know how impossible it was to conceal anything from the omnipresent God? (Gen 3:8; Ps 139:7-12; Amos 9:2-4; Heb 4:13).

23:25-27 Having dreams was one of the ways the false prophets claimed to receive messages from God. For other ways see 14:14. The falsity of their so-called revelations from God is seen in their results (v 27. See Deut 13:1-5; 18:22).

23:28,29 God did not use force to keep false prophets from speaking their lies ("chaff"). He only encouraged His true spokesmen to speak the truth of His word ("wheat"). God knew that in spite of lying prophets His powerful word would accomplish what His wisdom planned (1:12; Isa 55:11).

23:30 False prophets were taking from each other false interpretations of God's words, or words that they wrongly supposed came from God.

23:31 This is not uncommon in our own day. Then and now there are those who are called prophets or God's spokesmen who falsely declare that the words which come out of their own minds are revelations from God.

23:32 "Recklessness" – the Hebrew word seems to include the idea also of "boasting." False prophets exalt themselves, pass themselves off as great ones and so draw people after them (see Acts 8:9; 2 Pet 2:10,12).

23:33-40 Terrible punishment awaits those who declare that their own words are will forsake you, says the LORD.' 34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who say, 'The oracle of the LORD,' I will punish that man and his household. 35 Thus every one of you will say to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, 'What has the LORD answered?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?' 36 And you will not mention the oracle of the LORD any more; for every man's word will be his oracle; for you have perverted the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God. 37 Thus you shall say to the prophet, 'What has the LORD answered you?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?' 38 But since you say, 'The oracle of the LORD,' therefore thus says the LORD: Because you say this word, 'The oracle of the LORD,' and I have sent word to you, saying, 'You must not say, The oracle of the LORD,' 39 Therefore, see, I, I myself, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and drive you from my presence. 40 And I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which will not be forgotten."

24 The LORD caused me to see two baskets of figs set in front of the temple of the LORD. This occurred after Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. 2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe, and the other basket had very bad figs, which were so bad they could not be eaten.

3 Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

And I said, "Figs. The good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, so bad that they cannot be eaten."

messages revealed by God. Observe carefully in v 36 how widespread this practice was in Jeremiah's day and what the result of it was.

"Oracle" – Num 23:7.

"Perverted the words of the living God" (v 36) – Gal 1:7,8; 2 Pet 3:16. Actually the people then did not really want God's messages spoken by God's true prophet. They preferred to hear the pleasant lies of the false prophets and to think themselves spiritual because they seemed to be inquiring about God's message.

24:1-3 Other object lessons at 1:11-14; 13:1-11; 18:1-4.

"Jeconiah" – another name for Jehoiachin.

"Carried away" – 2 Kings 24:10-16.

24:4-10 The exiles who went to Babylon are likened to good figs because they accepted God's dealings with them and submitted to the king of Babylon (21:8,9; 38:2,17,18).

4 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 5 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will regard as good those who are carried away captive from Judah, whom I have sent from this place into the land of the Chaldeans. 6 For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them back to this land; and I will build them up and not pull them down, and I will plant them, and not uproot them. 7 And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD. And they will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me with their whole heart.

8 "And like the bad figs, which are so bad they cannot be eaten," the LORD definitely says this, "so I will deal with Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the rest of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who live in the land of Egypt; 9 and I will deliver them up to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for misery, to be an object of scorn and a proverb, of a taunt and a curse, in all the places where I drive them. 10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the plague among them, until they are consumed from the land that I gave to them and to their fathers."

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; 2 Jeremiah the prophet spoke this to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 3 "From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, to this day, which is the twenty-third year, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking; but you have not listened.

4 "And the LORD has sent to you all his servants

God had a good purpose in sending them away. He would keep them as good fruit should be kept and bring them back.

24:7 A mind to know God is one of His great and glorious gifts (Jer 31:33,34; John 17:3; 2 Cor 4:6; Heb 8:11).

"My people" – Ex 19:5; Lev 26:12; 2 Cor 6:16-18; Heb 8:10.

24:8-10 God sorted the people as a man would sort fruit. After sending the good fruit to Babylon, He saw to it that the rebels who were left behind would perish in one way or another.

25:1-3 Jeremiah had twenty-three years of very difficult and apparently fruitless ministry. Actually he was a success – all through those years he faithfully stood for God and delivered God's messages just as God gave them to him. Success is doing what God tells us to do, not in appearing to be great before men. If the people did not listen it was not Jeremiah's fault.

25:4-6 He is referring to the prophets who

the prophets, rising early and sending them; but you have not listened, or turned your ear to hear. 5 They said, 'Now every one of you turn back from his evil way, and from your evil deeds, and live in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers forever and ever, 6 and do not go after other gods to serve them and to worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no harm.'

7 "Yet you have not listened to me, says the LORD, provoking me to anger with the works of your hands to your own harm. 8 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Because you have not heard my words, 9 see, I will send and take all the clans of the north, says the LORD, and my servant Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these surrounding nations, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an object of astonishment and of hissing, and a perpetual desolation. 10 Moreover, I will take away from them the sound of joy, and the sound of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle. 11 And this whole land will be a desolation, and an object of astonishment. And these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 "And it will come about when seventy years are completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their sin, says the LORD, and will make it a perpetual desolation. 13 And I will bring on that land all I have spoken and proclaimed against it, all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. 14 For many nations and great kings will enslave them also; and I will repay them in accordance with their deeds, and in accordance with the works of their own hands.'

15 "For thus said the LORD God of Israel to me: 'Take this wine cup of fury from my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. 16 And they will drink, and be shaken, and go mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.'"

17 Then I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and caused all the nations to whom the LORD sent me to drink it: 18 namely Jerusalem and the cities of Judah and its kings and its princes, to make them a desolation, an object of astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is today; 19 Pharaoh king of Egypt and his servants and his princes and all his people, 20 and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the rest of Ashdod, 21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon, 22 and all the came before him (7:25,26).

25:7 "Not listened to me" – since it was God who sent the prophets, refusing to hear them was the same as refusing to hear Him.

"Works of your hands" – idols.

"Your own harm" – note at 7:6.

25:8-11 "Therefore" – there are always unpleasant consequences of disobedience. 25:9 "North" – includes the allies of Babylon.

"My servant" – 27:6. Nebuchadnezzar at that time did not know the true God, but God used him as His instrument to punish Judah and in this sense called him His servant. See also Isa 41:2; 44:28. People may unknowingly be used by God to accomplish His purposes.

25:11 "Desolation" – Lev 26:31,32; Jer 4:26,27; 12:11,12.

"These nations" – vs 17-26.

"Seventy years" – this was not an arbitrary figure. God commanded Israel in Lev 25:1-6 to let their lands rest every seventh year. They were to plant no crops at all on those years but to live on the abundance God would give every 6th year (Lev 25:20-22). Eventually Israel disobeyed this command as they did the other commands of God. God knew they would disobey and warned them of the consequences in Lev 26:33-35. The captivity of Judah in Babylon fulfilled both this word and the prophecy of Jeremiah (2 Chron 36:21). Evidently God's command about rest for the land had been disobeyed 70 times during the stay of God's people in Canaan. For every year of disobedience they had to spend a year in exile. In this way God again showed them (and us) the importance of obedience to His word. 25:12 50:18. God used Babylon to punish Judah and Jerusalem, but this does not mean Babylon was a righteous nation. In fact, they were a very wicked nation, and God, after using them against Judah, punished them too. Observe that Jehovah, the God of the Bible, is the God over all nations and exercises authority over all (27:5). This is a truth the king of Babylon himself learned (Dan 4:34,35).

25:13 Chapters 50 and 51.

25:14 "Nations" – the Medes and their allies and successors (51:11,28; and 5:30,31).

"Repay" – Deut 32:41; Rom 12:19.

25:15,16 The cup of wrath here signifies God's proclamations of judgments against the nations named in verses 18 to 26.

25:17 See 1:10. Jeremiah's making the nations drink from the cup signifies his proclamation of God's revelation against them. He did not need to go to the nations named, and of course would not have taken a literal cup even if he had gone. He merely declared and wrote God's revelation and thus it became effective (1:12; Isa 55:11). The very speaking of God's words by the prophet made this fulfillment certain. Whenever God spoke through His prophets He purposed to do what He said He would do.

25:20 Job 1:1.

kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastlands which are across the sea, 23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who are in the farthest corners, 24 and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people who live in the desert, 25 and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, 26 and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with the other, and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the surface of the earth; and after them, the king of Sheshach will drink.

27 "Therefore you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Drink, and be drunk, and vomit, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.' 28 And it will be, if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, that you must say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: You will certainly drink. 29 For, see, I begin to bring disaster on the city which is called by my name, and should you be completely unpunished? You will not be unpunished, for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD of hosts.'

30 "Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and say to them,

"The LORD will roar from on high,
and utter his voice from his holy dwelling place.

He will roar mightily against his habitation;
he will give a shout, like those who trample grapes,
against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise will come to the ends of the earth, for the LORD has a controversy with
the nations,

he will plead his case with all flesh.
He will give those who are wicked to the sword," says the LORD.

32 Thus says the LORD of hosts:
"See, disaster will spread from nation to nation,
and a great whirlwind will be raised up from the ends of the earth.

33 And on that day those slain by the LORD will be from one end of the earth even to the other end
of the earth.

They will not be lamented, or gathered,
or buried.

They will be refuse on the ground."

34 Wail, you shepherds, and cry, and roll yourselves in the ashes,
you leader of the flock, for the time for your slaughter and for your dispersion has come,
and you will fall like a choice vessel.

35 And the shepherds will have no way to flee,
or the leader of the flock to escape.

36 A sound of the cry of the shepherds, and a wailing of the leader of the flock, will be heard ;

for the LORD has ruined their pasture.

37 And the peaceful folds are cut down
because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He has left his lair, like the lion;
for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim
the son of Josiah king of Judah this word

25:26 Verses 18 to 25 list places and peoples not too far distant from Israel. Here the word of God through the prophet reaches out to the ends of the earth. God will punish every country in the world for their sins.

"Sheshach" – 51:41; indicates Babylon.

25:27 "Drink" – means they will experience the disasters God has revealed against them.

25:28 No doubt the nations would like to reject God's cup of wrath but none can escape.

25:29 "City which is called by my name" – Jerusalem. If God punishes His own special people will He let other nations escape? The answer is obvious. Compare 1 Pet 4:17,18.

25:30-38 The Babylonian conquest of western Asia and Judah, the fall of Babylon a few decades later, and the rise of the Medo-Persian empire ushered in a time of great upheaval among the nations. Invasions, fierce battles with great slaughter, destruction and misery everywhere – these are the themes of these verses. In v 31

the reason for it all is given (and the reason for similar times throughout human history). It was a time of God's judgment on wicked peoples. The tumult of battle is the Lord's roar from heaven, His shout is like those treading grapes (v 30; Isa 63:3; Joel 3:13; Rev 14:19,20). Those slain in battle are "slain by the LORD" (v 33). The destruction brought by armies is His work of destruction (v 36). All is a result of His fierce anger (vs 37,38).

These verses are a small picture of what will happen at the end of this age when God arises in wrath against all the nations of earth (Isa 24:1-6; 26:20,21; Matthew chapter 24; Heb 12:26; Revelation chapters 8-9, 15-19).

26:1-6 This message was given several years before the Babylonians captured Judah and Jerusalem. At that time God offered the people a way of escape. God would much rather save people than destroy them (Ezek 18:32; 33:11). He will forgive when He sees repentance (18:7,8). He will watch for it and delay His punishments as came from the LORD, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD's house, and speak to all the people of the cities of Judah who come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not omit a word. 3 Perhaps they will listen, and each one turn from his evil way, so that I may relent concerning the disaster which I have planned to do to them because of their evil deeds. 4 And you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, 5 to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent to you, both rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened), 6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city an object of cursing to all the nations of the earth.'"

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. 8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, "You shall surely die. 9 Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house will be like Shiloh, and this city will be desolate without an inhabitant?'" And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the officials of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD, and sat down at the entrance of the new gate of the LORD's house. 11 Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the officials and to all the people, saying, "This man deserves to die, for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and to all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. 13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will relent concerning the disaster that he has proclaimed against you. 14 As for me, see, I am in your hands. Do with me as seems good and right to you. 15 But know for certain, that if you put me to death, you will surely bring innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and on its inhabitants. For truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

16 Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets, "This man does not deserve to die, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

17 Then some of the elders of the land got up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 "Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying,

'Thus says the LORD of hosts:
Zion will be plowed like a field,
and Jerusalem will become heaps,
and the mountain of the house like the high places of a forest.'

19 "Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah ever put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and seek the LORD? And the LORD relented concerning the disaster which he had proclaimed against them. Thus we might we bring a great disaster against our souls."

20 And there was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah long as possible. But if there is no repentance, no obedience there can be no escape (compare Luke 13:1-5; Rom 2:5). 26:2 "All the words" – no word God speaks can lack importance. Every one of them will be fulfilled, and He wants men to know everything He says (Deut 4:2; 6:6-9; Ps 12:6; Prov 30:5,6; Matt 5:18; 2 Tim 3:16,17; Rev 22:18,19).

26:6 "Shiloh" – note at 7:12-15.

26:8 Jeremiah was completely faithful to God's instructions in v 2. But see how men would reward him for it. Jeremiah was not the first of God's servants nor the last to be treated like that (Acts 7:52; Heb 11:35-38).

26:10 These officials came to judge the dispute.

26:11 The priests and false prophets make their case before the officials. They did not seem at all interested to find out whether Jeremiah spoke the truth. Here is full-grown prejudice and intolerance, and willful ignorance. Compare Matt 26:62-66. Such things are met with in our day also.

26:12-15 This is Jeremiah's defense. He was interested only in the truth. The matter of living or dying was a much smaller thing in his eyes. This is what God wants in every generation – people who love truth more than life itself. Compare Ps 51:6; Acts 20:24; etc.

26:16 In this matter at least the officials and people had more regard for truth and justice than the priests and prophets who should have been their greatest defenders.

26:17-19 Micah's prophecy, uttered about one hundred years previously, was still known in Judah (Micah 3:12). Hezekiah's repentance is mentioned in 2 Chron 32:25,26. The wisdom of these elders reminds us of that exercised by Gamaliel (Acts 5:33-39).

26:20-23 This material is inserted like a parenthesis in the narrative. It reveals the difference between King Hezekiah and King of Kirjath-Jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land, just like all the words of Jeremiah. 21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the officials, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But when Urijah heard it, he was afraid and fled, and went to Egypt. 22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and some men who went with him to Egypt. 23 And they brought Urijah out of Egypt, and took him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and threw his dead body into the burial place of the common people.

24 But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that he was not given into the hands of the people to be put to death.

27 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah this word came from the LORD, speaking to Jeremiah. 2 Thus the LORD said to me: "Make bonds and yokes, and put them on your neck, 3 and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; 4 and command them to say to their masters, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; thus you must tell your masters: 5 I have made the earth, the men and the beasts that are on the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and I give it to whomever I please. 6 And now I have given all these lands into the hands of my servant Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon; and I have also given him the beasts of the field to serve him. 7 And all nations will serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time for his land comes; and then many nations and great kings will make him their servant.

8 "And this will happen: the nation and kingdom which will not serve this Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and which will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish with the sword and with the famine and with the plague until I have consumed them by their hand, says the LORD. 9 Therefore do not listen to your prophets, or to your diviners, or to your dreamers, or to your magicians, or to your sorcerers, who speak to you, telling you that you will not serve the king of Babylon, 10 for they prophesy a lie to you, resulting in your removal far from your land; and I will drive you out, and you will perish. 11 But the nations which bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, those I will still let remain in their own land, says the LORD; and they will till it, and live in it."

12 I also spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah in accordance with all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people, and live. 13 Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? 14 Therefore do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they prophesy a lie to you. 15 'For I have not sent them,' says the LORD, 'yet they prophesy a lie in my name, resulting in my driving you out and your perishing, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you.'"

16 Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, "See, the articles in the LORD's house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon," for they prophesy a lie to you. 17 Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city be laid waste?' 18 But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD

Jehoiakim. It shows, too, the mortal danger Jeremiah was in. What prevented Jehoiakim doing to Jeremiah as he did to Uriah? See 1:8,19. This Uriah is not mentioned anywhere else in the Bible.

26:24 Ahikam served good king Josiah and was the father of Gedaliah who later governed Judah for a time (2 Kings 22:12; 25:22). God here used Ahikam to help save Jeremiah's life. To fulfill His will God uses human means when He chooses to do so (another example – Acts 23:12-24).

27:1-11 Jeremiah was a prophet to the nations (1:5,10). Here he sends God's message to some of them. Putting on a yoke was a striking way of calling attention to the message. The message is the same as that which he gave to Judah. Speaking to them Jehovah God emphasizes that He is the great Creator and Governor of the universe (v 5. Note at Ps 47:2). And He warns them against false and harmful messages from other sources (vs 9,10. Compare Deut 18:9-12). In this way God showed His concern for the nations on the borders of Israel, some of which were ancient enemies of His people. 27:12-15 21:8-10; 38:2,3,17,18. 27:15 14:14; 23:21.

27:16 An example of the lies told by the false prophets (28:1-4). Several years before this (in 605 BC) the Babylonians carried off some articles from the temple. 27:17 Resistance to the king of Babylon would stir up his wrath and cause him to destroy Jerusalem.

27:18 The mark of a true prophet of God is not the telling of lies but the ability to plead with God.

of hosts, that the articles which are left in the house of the LORD and in the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem, do not go to Babylon. 19 For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the stands, and concerning the rest of the articles that remain in this city, 20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the officials of Judah and Jerusalem from Jerusalem to Babylon; 21 yes, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the articles that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem: 22 'They will be carried to Babylon, and they will be there until the day that I visit them, says the LORD. Then I will bring them up, and restore them to this place.'

28 And it happened the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that the prophet Hananiah the son of Azur, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying, 2 "Thus the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has spoken, saying, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3 Within two full years I will bring back to this place all the articles of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon. 4 And I will bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah who went to Babylon, says the LORD, for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'

27:19-22 These articles were taken to Babylon in 586 BC (52:12-19; 2 Kings 25:13-17).

"Jeconiah" (vs 20; 28:4; 29:2) – a variant of Jehoiachin.

27:22 "I will bring them" – fulfilled in 538 BC (Ezra 1:7-11).

28:1 Hananiah is the second false prophet to be named in Jeremiah (Pashhur was the first – 20:1-6; see also 29:21,31,32). In the Bible people are exposed for what they are, and prophets and apostles informed God's people about false prophets and teachers, or those who opposed God's work, sometimes naming them (Acts 8:18-23; 13:6-11; 2 Tim 2:17; 4:14; 3 John 9). 28:2 Hananiah claimed to be in touch with God and to speak with the same authority as the great prophets of the Bible. He may have been consciously trying to deceive, or may have been totally deceived himself and was persuaded he was really speaking for God.

28:4 Hananiah flatly contradicted the word of God that came through Jeremiah in 22:24-27. This is one way that false prophets can be known – they will inevitably deny some part or other of the Word of God (2 Pet 2:1). 28:5-9 Such an event as Hananiah foretold was something Jeremiah wished could happen. But he knew very well it would not. 28:9 False prophets spoke of peace because they thought that was what people wanted to hear. Many so-called Bible teachers suit their message to what people like rather than to what God has revealed (Rom 16:18; Col 2:4; 2 Tim 4:3). "Comes true" – see Deut 18:22. This is the final test of anyone who is called a prophet. And it is a test Biblical prophets gloriously pass, thus proving the truth of 2 Pet 1:21. 28:10-17 Here is clearly given the contrast between a false prophet and a true one. Outwardly they may not seem greatly different, but in the heart of the true prophet there is truth, in the heart of the false prophet there is deceit. The one saves men

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, 6 and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so. May the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the articles of the LORD's house, and all who were carried away captive, from Babylon to this place. 7 But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing, and in the hearing of all the people: 8 The prophets who were before me and you long ago prophesied both against many countries and against great kingdoms, about war and disaster, and plague. 9 The prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of the prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has really sent that prophet."

10 Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke from the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. 11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Just so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years.'" And the prophet Jeremiah went his way. 12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 "Go and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: You have broken the wooden yokes, but you shall make iron yokes for them. 14 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put an iron yoke on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they will serve him. And I have given him the beasts of the field also.'"

15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, "Listen now, Hananiah. The LORD has not sent you, but you make this people trust in a lie. 16 Therefore thus says the LORD: 'See, I will hurl you from the surface of the earth. This year you will die, because you have taught rebellion against the LORD.'"

17 So the prophet Hananiah died the same year in the seventh month.

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders who had been carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon. 2 This occurred after Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, had gone from Jerusalem. 3 He sent it by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiyah (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying,

4 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all who have been carried away as captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon: 5 "Build houses for yourselves and live in them, and plant gardens, and eat their produce. 6 Marry, and have sons and daughters. And find wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters, so that you may increase there, and not decrease. 7 And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away as captives, and pray to the LORD for it. For in its peace you will have peace."

8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Do not let your prophets and your diviners, who are among you, deceive you, and do not listen to your dreams which you have them dream. 9 For they prophesy falsely to you in my name. I have not sent them," says the LORD.

10 For thus says the LORD: "After seventy years are completed at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, causing you to return to this place. 11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you," says the LORD, "thoughts of peace, and not of disaster, to give you a future and a hope. 12 Then you will call to me, and you will go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. 13 And you will seek me, and find me, when you search for me with all your heart. 14 And I will be found by you," says the LORD. "And I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you," says the LORD, "and I will bring you back to the place where I caused you to be carried away as captives."

15 I write because you have said, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon." 16 Know that the LORD has said this concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who live in this city, and concerning your brethren who have not gone away with you into captivity: 17 Thus says the LORD of hosts: "See, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the plague, and I will make them like rotten figs, that are so bad they cannot be eaten. 18 And I will pursue them with the sword, with the famine, and with the plague, and will hand them over to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of cursing and of astonishment and of hissing and of scorn among all the nations where I drive them, 19 because they have not listened to my words," says the LORD, "which I sent to them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and by turning them to God and His truth; the other destroys men by getting them to trust in lies (v 15). The end of the true prophet is to have honor with God (John 12:26); the end of the false prophet is dishonor and destruction (2 Cor 11:15; 2 Pet 2:1). See also 14:14,15.

29:1-14 God had a message to the exiles in Babylon who had been taken there in 597 BC. False prophets had arisen there (vs 21,31) and were confusing them. So God chose Jeremiah to write His message to the exiles. By then many of them, seeing the fulfillment of some of his prophecies, must have regarded him as a true prophet and man of God. The message reveals God's loving concern for His people and gives them practical instruction. The exiles must be prepared to stay in Babylon until the period of 70 years is complete (v 10). They should try to live normal lives and work and pray for the prosperity of the country of their exile (vs 5-7). They must reject the lies of the false prophets among them (vs 8,9). Verses 10-14 enlarge on the promise that had been given in Judah (16:14,15; 24:4-7).

God promises to bring them back to the land of Israel but He tells them that they will seek Him for this (Dan 9:1-3). This is the relationship between God's promises and men's requests. God means His promises to be claimed and turned into believing prayer.

29:13 Here is a truth for all men. God can be found, can be known. He hears prayer and answers those who seek with the whole heart (Deut 4:29; Hos 10:12; Matt 7:7,8; Luke 11:5-10; 18:1).

29:14 "Will bring you back from captivity" – or "will restore your well-being." The Hebrew can mean either one. See note at Ps 14:7.

29:15 That is, they may see no need of Jeremiah or his letter. They did not understand that their prophets were liars.

sending them. But you would not listen, says the LORD.

20 "So hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon. 21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: See, I will deliver them into the hands of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he will kill them before your eyes. 22 And because of them a curse will be taken up by all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, 'The LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire.' 23 Because they have done vile things in Israel, have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them. I know, and am a witness, says the LORD."

24 Tell this to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, 25 "Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, 26 that the LORD has made you priest in place of Jehoiada the priest, that you should be the overseer of the house of the LORD, over every madman who makes himself a prophet, to put him in prison, and in the stocks. 27 Now therefore why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you? 28 For he sent word to us in Babylon, saying, 'This captivity is long. Build houses for yourself and live in them, and plant gardens, and eat their produce.'

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet. 30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 31 "Send word to all those of the captivity, saying, 'Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and he caused you to trust in a lie, 32 therefore thus says the LORD: See, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his offspring. He will not have a man to live among this people; nor will he see the good that I will do for my people, says the LORD, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.'"

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. 3 For, see, the days are coming, says the LORD, that I will bring back my people Israel and Judah from captivity, says the LORD, and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they will possess it."

4 And these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. 5 "For thus says the LORD:

We have heard a voice of trembling,
of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask now and see whether a man ever bears a child?

Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins, like a woman in labour, and all faces turned pale?

7 Alas! For that day is great,
so that none is like it.

So it is the time of Jacob's trouble,

29:20-32 Three false prophets and their end. God has His eye on all the false prophets of the world and will deal with them in His time and in His way.

30:1 The four chapters 30-33 form a unit. In them God gives repeated promises that He will restore both Israel and Judah to the land of Canaan. In contrast to many other parts of Jeremiah's writing this whole section abounds with words of comfort and hope for the future.

30:2 We now have the privilege of studying the things Jeremiah wrote down nearly 2,600 years ago. This "book" was in the form of a scroll. See 36:2.

30:3,4 16:14,15; 23:3-8; 24:4-7; 29:14. Israel means the northern kingdom taken into captivity by Assyria in 721 BC; Judah means the southern kingdom destroyed finally in 586 BC. What follows concerns people from both kingdoms.

"I will bring back my people Israel and Judah from captivity" – or "I will restore the well-being of my people Israel and Judah."

30:5-11 From some expressions in this section we may judge that the return of the exiles of Judah from Babylon in 537-538 BC was only a partial fulfilment of Jeremiah's prophecies (if even that).

30:7 The time (the meaning of "day" here) referred to in verses 5 and 6 will be so terrible that there will never be one like it again. The Lord Jesus also spoke of a time of trouble unequalled in the whole history of the world (Matt 24:21). Since there cannot be two distinct times both of which are unequalled, it is reasonable to think that both Jeremiah and the Lord Jesus refer to the same period of time. The Scriptures sometimes speak of a time of terrible trouble at the end of this age followed by the outpouring of God's wrath. Notes on the great tribulation at Matt 24:21,29; Rev 6:9-17; 7:14. Notes on the Day of the LORD at Joel 1:15; etc.

Though that future time will mean great trouble for Jacob (the Jewish people), this does not mean that others also will not experience this trouble. Verses 9 and 14 of Revelation chapter 7, chapter 16, 19:11-21 and other Scriptures reveal that both the great tribulation and the Day of the Lord will

- but he will be saved out of it.
- 8 "For it will happen in that day,
says the LORD of hosts,
that I will break his yoke off your neck,
and will tear off your bonds,
and foreigners will no longer make him their servant.
- 9 But they will serve the LORD their God,
and David their king,
whom I will raise up for them.
- 10 "Therefore do not be afraid, O Jacob,
my servant, says the LORD,
nor be dismayed, O Israel.
For, see, I will save you from afar,
and your offspring from the land
of their captivity;
and Jacob will return, and will be at rest, and be quiet,
and no one will make him afraid.
- 11 For I am with you, says the LORD,
to save you.
Though I make a full end of all nations
where I have scattered you,
yet I will not make a full end of you;
but I will correct you in measure,
and will not leave you altogether unpunished.
- 12 For thus says the LORD:
Your injury is incurable,
and your wound is grievous.
- 13 There is no one to plead your case,
so that you may be bandaged.
You have no healing medicines.
- 14 All your lovers have forgotten you.

affect every nation. As for the people of Israel they will not be completely destroyed in that future time but "will be saved out of it."

30:8 A prophecy of permanent freedom for the people of Israel. Notice the words "foreigners will no longer make him their servant." This certainly was not true of the Jews through the centuries following their return from Babylon. At times during those centuries they endured some of the very worst treatment in their long history. So the words still await the future for their complete fulfillment.

30:9 "David their king" – here is another indication that this passage did not have a complete fulfillment at the return of the Jews from Babylon. David, of course, had been dead for centuries by then, and God did not raise him from the dead to be king of Israel again. Since it is said they will "serve" God and "David" it is very probable that "David" here means "the Son of David", the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. Him has God raised up for them. But as a nation they have rejected Him and do not serve Him – yet.

30:10 46:27-28. The promise of "rest" and "quiet", and the words "no one will make

- They are not looking for you.
For I have wounded you with the wound
of an enemy,
with the discipline of a cruel one,
for your many evil deeds,
because your sins had increased.
- 15 Why do you cry for yourself in your affliction?
Your sorrow is incurable.
Because of your many iniquities,
because your sins had increased,
I did these things to you.
- 16 Therefore all those who devour you will be devoured;
and all your adversaries,
every one of them,
will go into captivity;
and those who plunder you will be a plunder;
and all who prey on you I will give as a prey.
- 17 For I will restore health to you,
and I will heal you of your wounds,
says the LORD,
because they called you an outcast,
saying, 'This is Zion, whom no one seeks.'
- 18 "Thus says the LORD: See, I will bring back Jacob's tents from captivity, and have mercy on his dwelling places;
and the city will be built on its own ruins,
and the palace will stand in its proper place.
- 19 And out of them will issue thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry.
And I will increase their number,
and they will not be few.

him afraid" were not completely fulfilled after the return from Babylon. There were almost constant troubles from that time till the Romans destroyed Jerusalem in AD 70 and scattered the Jews, and since then there has been trouble wherever they have gone.

30:11 God will destroy wicked peoples, He disciplines His own people (Prov 3:11,12; Heb 12:5,6).

30:12-15 The Lord describes the wounds He has had to inflict on His people.

30:12,13 8:22; 10:19; Isa 1:5-9; Hos 5:13. There was no human remedy for their wounds.

30:14 "Lovers" – 22:20; Lam 1:2.
"I have wounded" – 4:6; 11:11; 18:11;
etc.

30:15 2:35; 4:18; 5:9; 6:19.

30:16 3:24; 5:17; 8:16; 10:25;
25:26,29.

30:17 God can heal the wounds that are beyond the help of man (v 12). And He will heal Israel because of the scorn of other nations.

30:18-22 16:14,15; 24:4-7; 29:10-14.
30:18 Nehemiah records the beginnings of this work of rebuilding (see 2:1-9).

30:19 "Thanksgiving" – Ps 7:17; 50:14,15;

- I will also glorify them, and they will not be insignificant.
- 20 Their children also will be as before, and their congregation will be established before me, and I will punish all who oppress them.
- 21 And their nobles will be from among them, and their governor will come from among them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he will approach me.
- For who else would venture to approach me? says the LORD.
- 22 And you will be my people, and I will be your God."
- 23 See, the whirlwind of the LORD goes out with fury, a sweeping whirlwind. It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.
- 24 The fierce anger of the LORD will not go back until he has done it, and until he has carried out the purposes of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it.

31 "At that time," says the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people."

2 Thus says the LORD:

56:12; Lev 7:12,13; 1 Thess 5:18.

30:21 "I will cause him to draw near" – a principle that applies to all who ever truly come to God (John 6:44).

30:22 7:23; Ex 6:7; Lev 26:12; 2 Cor 6:16.

30:23,24 23:19,20. God doesn't say when Israel will understand what He has done, only that they will understand eventually. But other references in the Bible make it clear that men can understand God's words, actions, and ways only when their spiritual eyes are opened and they are taught by the Holy Spirit (see notes at Eph 1:17,18).

31:1 "Families" – here means the ten tribes of the northern kingdom called Israel and the two tribes of the southern kingdom called Judah. Both kingdoms are in view in this chapter. Verses 4-22 speak of the northern kingdom; verses 23-26 speak of the southern kingdom; verses 27-40 speak of the two kingdoms together.

31:2 This may refer to the coming of God's people Israel out of Egypt recorded in Exodus. Or it may be a prophecy of the future using the past tenses of verbs – as though the prophecy were already fulfilled.

31:3 This gives the essence of Deut 4:37; 7:7,8; 10:15; Hos 11:4. Believers now have verses such as Eph 1:4-6; 1 Thess 1:4; 2 Thess 2:13. The salvation of all who will ever be saved has its source in the eternal love of God.

"The LORD appeared to me in the past"

"The people who survived the sword, Israel, found grace in the wilderness, when I went to give him rest."

- 3 The LORD has appeared to me in the past, saying, "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore with loving kindness I have drawn you.
- 4 I will build you again, and you will be built, O virgin of Israel. You will again be adorned with your tambourines, and will go out in the dances of those who make merry.
- 5 You will yet plant vines on the mountains of Samaria. The planters will plant, and will eat them like common things.
- 6 For there will be a day when the watchmen on Mount Ephraim will cry out, 'Arise, and let us go up to Zion to the LORD our God!'"
- 7 For thus says the LORD: "Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations. Proclaim! Praise! And say, 'O LORD, save your people, the remnant of Israel.'
- 8 See, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the ends of the earth,

– or it could be translated "The LORD appeared to me from afar."

31:4-22 It is clear that the ten northern tribes are in view here because of the use of the words Samaria (v 5) and Ephraim (vs 6,9,18, 20). Samaria, the heart of the northern kingdom, was captured in 721 BC. From that time on until our day the people of Israel have not returned to God and possessed Samaria. In our day Israel has occupied Samaria, but as a nation is still in unbelief, rejecting their Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. Since there has been no complete fulfilment of these prophecies in the past we may assume there will be a future fulfilment. Compare Isaiah chapter 53 with its use of the past tense. See note at Isa 55:10,11.

31:6 The people of the northern kingdom, when they broke away from Judah, for the most part stopped coming to Jerusalem to worship (1 Kings 12:25-33). But in the future this will be changed (v 12).

31:7 "Chief" – this could refer to Israel or to large nations where they had been scattered. If God is speaking here of Israel as the chief of the nations, it is not because of its size or strength, but because of its importance as a channel for His Word and for the coming of Christ.

31:8 "Great throng" – this surely indicates a number far in excess of the few from the northern kingdom probably included in the 42,360 (mostly exiles from the southern kingdom) who

- and* with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child together with the one in labour with child.
A great throng will return there.
- 9 They will come with weeping, and as they are making supplications
I will lead them.
I will cause them to walk by the rivers
of water in a straight way,
in which they will not stumble.
For I am a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my firstborn."
- 10 Hear the word of the LORD,
O you nations,
and declare it in the islands far away, and say,
"He who scattered Israel will gather him,
and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock."
- 11 For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
and ransomed him from the hand of one who was stronger than he.
- 12 Therefore they will come and sing on the heights of Zion, and will stream together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat and for wine and for oil and for the young of the flock and of the herd.
And their soul will be like a watered garden,
and they will not grieve any more at all.
- 13 "Then will the virgin rejoice in the dance,
and the young men and the old together.
For I will turn their mourning into joy,
and will comfort them,
and give them joy in place of their sorrow.
- 14 And I will satisfy the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people will be satisfied with my goodness," says the LORD.
- 15 Thus says the LORD:
"A voice was heard in Ramah,
lamentation and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were no more."
- 16 Thus says the LORD:
"Restrain your voice from weeping,
and your eyes from tears,
for your work will be rewarded,
says the LORD,
and they will come back from the land of the enemy.
- 17 And there is hope in your future,
says the LORD,
that your children will come back into their own borders.
- 18 I have surely heard Ephraim mourning,
'You have disciplined me,
and I have been disciplined,
like an ox unaccustomed to the yoke.
Turn me, and I will be turned;
for you are the LORD my God.
- 19 Surely after I had turned away, I repented,
and after I was instructed, I slapped my thigh.
I was ashamed, yes, humiliated,
because I bore the disgrace of my youth.'
- 20 Is Ephraim my dear son?
Is he a delightful child?
For though I have spoken against him,
I earnestly remember him still.
Therefore my inmost being yearns for him.
I will certainly have mercy on him,"
says the LORD.
- 21 "Set up road signs, make guideposts, returned from Babylon (see Ezra 2:64).

31:9 Weeping and praying suggest repentance and turning to God, and the following verses speak of the joy of salvation and restoration (vs 10-14).

"Ephraim" – here stands for the whole northern kingdom.

31:12 "Not grieve any more at all" – indicates the permanence of their restoration.

31:15 Ramah was about 8 kilometers north of Jerusalem in the territory of Benjamin. Rachel was the mother of Benjamin, the grandmother of Ephraim, Joseph's son. Judging from the context and the verses which follow this verse refers primarily to the continuing sorrow concerning the captivity and destruction of Israel. In Matt 2:18 it is applied to the killing of infants in Bethlehem and vicinity after the birth of the Lord Jesus. Old Testament prophecies sometimes seem to have more than one fulfillment, more than one application.

31:16,17 Weeping will continue only until the final restoration of Israel.

31:18 Israel will at last respond to God's discipline and fully turn to Him. As with Israel so with every one of us – we will turn to God only when He turns us (John 6:44).

31:19 A picture of full repentance.

31:20 Ephraim means here the people of Israel. In other places Israel is compared to the bride and the wife of Jehovah (2:2; 4:14; etc.). Here the people are likened to a dearly loved son. No one human relationship can suggest all that God's people mean to Him. When Jeremiah recorded these words Ephraim had been in captivity for about 130 years. Before the final fulfilment of the prophecies in this chapter many more centuries would elapse. But Israel was still in the heart of God, loved and longed for.

31:21,22 Israel is not only like a rebellious son, but also like a daughter gone astray. But she will return to her land and God will use her in an altogether new way, which He set your heart toward the highway,

the way which you went.

Turn back, O virgin of Israel,
turn back to these cities of yours.

22 How long will you gad about,
O backsliding daughter?

For the LORD has created a new thing
in the earth:

A woman surrounding a man."

23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "They will once more use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I bring them back from captivity, 'The LORD bless you, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.' 24 And in Judah itself, and in all its cities, there will live farmers, and those who go out with flocks. 25 For I will satisfy the weary soul, and refresh every sorrowful soul."

26 At this I awoke, and looked around. And my sleep had been sweet to me.

27 "See, the days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the offspring of man, and with the offspring of beast. 28 And it will come about, that does not clearly describe.

"A woman surrounding" – or it could be translated "a woman protecting."

31:23,24 God will restore Judah too. All that is said of Israel in the above verses may fittingly be said of the people of the southern kingdom also.

"Bring them back from captivity" – or "restore their well-being."

"Justice", "holiness" – Ps 48:1,2; Isa 1:21,26.

31:25 Isa 40:29-31.

31:26 It appears from this that this revelation (from 30:1) was given to Jeremiah in a dream. See also Gen 15:12-21; Dan 10:9; Zech 4:1.

31:27 From here to the end of the chapter both Israel and Judah are in view. God uprooted both from the land and sent them into captivity. He will plant them again in the land and prosper them.

31:29 Ezek 18:2. This was a misunderstanding of God's word and God's ways.

31:30 Deut 24:16; Ezek 18:3,20; 33:7-18.

31:31-34 Here is the great prophecy of the new covenant which gives its name to the second part of the Bible. For other references see Isa 61:8; Jer 32:40; 50:5; Matt 26:28; Luke 22:20; 1 Cor 11:25; 2 Cor 3:6; Heb 8:8; 9:15; 12:24; 13:20. It is called "new" in contrast to the covenant made with Israel through Moses at Mt Sinai (notes at Ex 19:5,6).

That old covenant commanded obedience to God's law. Since man is sinful and disobedient by nature, and since God's law cannot make him holy and obedient, the old covenant was certain to fail (see Rom 7:5-25; 8:3; Heb 10:1-4). That it did fail just as I watched over them to uproot them, and to break and throw them down, and to ruin and afflict them, so I will watch over them, to build and plant them, says the LORD.

29 "In those days they will no longer say, 'The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth have been set on edge.' 30 But everyone will die for his own guilt; the teeth of each one who eats a sour grape will be set on edge.

31 "See, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah, 32 Not like the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

This covenant of mine they broke, although I was a husband to them, says the LORD.

33 But this will be the covenant that I make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD:

I will put my law in their inward parts, is clear from the whole history of Israel (Jer 11:6-8; 7:25,26; 16:11; 22:9). No one could be saved by the laws or regulations of the old covenant. Indeed, the law brought a curse (Gal 3:10-12). So God promises a new covenant which is not based on man's obedience to law. It is based on what God does. Notice the words "I will" in verses 33,34 repeated five times. This is a covenant of grace which has its foundation, not in man's frail and fallen nature, but in God alone.

31:31 "With the house of Israel", "Judah" – it is not said anywhere in the Bible that this new covenant is made directly with Christ's New Testament Church or with Gentiles or Gentile Christians. These share in the new covenant because they are grafted into the "olive tree" whose root was Abraham and whose branches in the Old Testament were the tribes of Israel (see Rom 11:13-21). The apostles of Christ to whom He gave the new covenant were all Israelites, and for several years all members of the New Testament Church were either Jews or Jewish proselytes. Later more and more Gentiles came into the Church and before long became the vast majority of Christians and began to dominate the Church. However, this does not change the fact that the covenant was made with Israel or that in the future God will fulfil the covenant with that nation as a whole.

31:32 Ex 19:5; 24:8. "A husband" – 2:2; 3:14.

31:33 "Inward parts", "hearts" – under the old covenant God's laws were written on tablets of stone (Ex 31:8; 34:1; 2 Cor 3:7). Under the new covenant God's laws

- and write it in their hearts;
and I will be their God,
and they will be my people.
- 34 And no longer will everyone teach his neighbour, and everyone his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD'; for they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the LORD, For I will forgive their wickedness, and I will remember their sin no more.
- 35 "Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun as a light by day, and the fixed order of the moon and of the stars as a light by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar, the LORD of hosts is his name:
- 36 If this fixed order departs from before me, says the LORD, then the offspring of Israel will also cease from being a nation before me forever.
- 37 Thus says the LORD: If the heavens above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out below, I will also cast off all the offspring of Israel for all that they have done, says the LORD.
- 38 "See, the days are coming, says the LORD, when the city will be built for the LORD from the Tower of Hananeel to the Corner Gate. 39 And the measuring line will yet go out opposite it on the hill Gareb, and will go around to Goath. 40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the fields to the Kidron valley, to the corner of Horse Gate on the east, will be holy to the LORD. It will not be uprooted or thrown down any more forever."

32 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was imprisoned in the courtyard of the prison, which was at the palace of the king of Judah.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying, "Why do you prophesy, and say, 'Thus says the LORD, See, I will give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will take it, 4 and Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape out of the hands of the Chaldeans, but will certainly be delivered into the hands of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes will see his eyes, 5 and he will lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he will be until I visit him, says the LORD. Though you fight with the Chaldeans, you will not prosper:'"

6 And Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD

are written in the mind and heart (2 Cor 3:3). This indicates a new nature which wants to obey God, a new birth, a new creation (2 Cor 5:17; Eph 2:4,5; etc). It means an inner disposition to have the righteousness of the law fulfilled in them. Without all this there is no evidence that an individual is a partaker of the new covenant.

"I will be their God", etc – Lev 26:12; Ezek 37:27; 2 Cor 6:16; Rev 21:3.

31:34 The eternal forgiveness of sins and the personal knowledge of God – these are two of the supreme blessings of the new covenant. Only God can give these and they are altogether a gift of His grace.

"Know" – 9:23,24; 1 Sam 3:7; Hos 2:20; John 17:3; Eph 4:13; Phil 1:3.

"Forgive" – Lev 4:20; Ps 32:1; 85:2; 86:5; 130:4; Luke 24:45-47; Eph 1:7; 1 John 1:9.

The word "all" in this verse speaks of a complete national salvation of Israel sometime in the future (compare Rom 11:26).

31:35-37 God speaks of the absolute faithfulness of His promises to Israel. Israel's continuing existence as a nation is as certain as the laws of nature which God has established. It is as impossible for His purposes toward that people to fail as it is for someone to measure stellar space or penetrate to the core of the earth.

"LORD of hosts" (v 35) – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

31:38-40 To show that He means the literal nation of Israel God speaks of its city of Jerusalem. Certain specific areas in the city will be rebuilt. The most defiled area will become holy. Thereafter the city will remain permanently. Compare Zech 14:9-11,20,21. Because Jerusalem was completely destroyed by the Romans in 70 AD this prophecy looks to a time after that. And since Jerusalem is still in unbelief rejecting their Messiah, the Lord Jesus, the city is still not holy to the Lord as described in Jeremiah and Zechariah. Compare Matt 23:37-39. So we may judge that this prophecy will be fulfilled sometime in the future.

32:1 This was the year before the Babylonians captured Jerusalem.

32:2 King Zedekiah had arrested Jeremiah (37:21).

32:3-5 The answer to Zedekiah's question "why" was obvious. Jeremiah spoke what God told him to say. But this weak and evil king was not interested in the truth. These words of Jeremiah were fulfilled to the letter (52:7-14).

"Chaldeans" – Babylonians.

32:6-15 God had used object lessons with Jeremiah before (1:11-14; etc). Now He uses Jeremiah himself as an object lesson to the

came to me, saying, 7 See, Hanameel the son of your uncle Shallum will come to you, saying, 'Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.'

8 "So Hanameel, my uncle's son, came to me in the courtyard of the prison in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the region of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours. Buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. 9 And I bought the field of Hanameel, my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver. 10 And I signed and sealed the deed, took witnesses, and weighed out the money to him in the balances. 11 So I took the deed of purchase, both the one that was sealed in accordance with the law and custom, and the one which was open, 12 and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel, my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that signed the deed of purchase, before all the Jews who were sitting in the courtyard of the prison.

13 "And I charged Baruch before them, saying, 14 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this deed of purchase, both the sealed one, and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, so that they may last a long time.' 15 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Houses and fields and vineyards will be possessed again in this land.'

16 "Now when I had delivered the deed of people. God had spoken of the return of Israel from exile (23:3,4; 29:14; 30:10). Now with the armies of Babylon at the gates He orders His prophet to buy a field in Israel. Jeremiah thus demonstrated that he himself believed and obeyed God. All of God's servants must show by their actions that they believe God. If they do not, how can they expect to convince others that they should believe God?

32:7 "Right of redemption" – see Lev 25:25; Ruth 2:20; 4:3.

32:9 "Seventeen shekels" – about 200 grams.

32:11 One reason God gave this record of a kinsman with the right to redeem (buy back) a field, and a sealed scroll containing the deed with its terms and conditions may be this: to help us understand the meaning of the sealed scroll in Rev 5:1-10. The Lord Jesus is man's kinsman-redeemer (see notes at Lev 25:24-31; Ruth 2:20). The title deed of the earth is His to open, the earth is His to claim – which He does in Revelation chapters 6-20.

32:12 Baruch was Jeremiah's closest friend. See 36:4-32.

32:15 Normal life would resume in Israel

purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying, 17 'Ah Lord God! See, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm, and there is nothing too hard for you. 18 You show loving kindness to thousands, and repay the guilt of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them. The Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name, 19 great in counsel, and mighty in work. For your eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give every one according to his ways, and according to the result of his deeds. 20 You set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt to this day, and in Israel, and among other men, and have made a name for yourself, as at this day. 21 And you brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror, 22 and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey. 23 And they came in and possessed it. But they did not obey your voice, or walk in your law. Of all that you commanded them to do they have done nothing. Therefore you have caused all this disaster to come on them.

24 "'See the siege mounds. They have come to the city to take it, and the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it, because of the sword and the famine and the plague. And what you have spoken has happened; and now you see it. 25 And you have said to me, O Lord God, Buy the field for money, and take after the Babylonian captivity.

32:16 Jeremiah was a man of prayer, an example to us all (8:18,19; 12:1-4; 14:7-9,19-22; 15:15-18; 16:19,20; 17:12-18; 18:19-23; 20:7-18).

32:17 "Arm" – 27:5; 2 Kings 19:15; Ps 102:25.

"Nothing too hard" – v 27; Gen 18:14.

32:18 Ex 20:5,6; 34:7.

32:19 "Great in counsel. . . in work" – Ps 66:5; Isa 28:29; Rom 11:33-36.

32:20 Ex 3:20; 7:3; Ps 78:4,12. God continued to do signs and wonders not simply among Israel but among all peoples.

32:25,26 Jeremiah wonders why God asked him to buy the field. He knew the captivity in Babylon would last for 70 years (25:11,12), and he was already an old man who would not live to see the return of Israel. What good, then, would the land be to him? Moreover, he had no children who could inherit it (16:1,2). Evidently he did not clearly understand that what he did was a witnesses, though the city is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.”

26 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 27 “See, I am the LORD, the God of all those living. Is there anything too hard for me? 28 Therefore thus says the LORD: See, I will give this city into the hands of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will take it. 29 And the Chaldeans who are fighting against this city, will come and set fire to this city, and burn it with the houses, on the roofs of which they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, provoking me to anger.

30 “For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only evil in my sight from their youth, for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD. 31 For this city has been to me a cause for my anger and my fury from the day that they built it even to this day, so that I must remove it from in front of my face, 32 because of all the evil of the children of Israel and the children of Judah which they have done, provoking me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 And they have turned their backs to me, and not their faces. Though I taught them, rising early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. 34 But they placed their abominations in the house which is called by my name, defiling it. 35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to make their sons and their daughters pass through the fire to Molech, though I did not symbolic action to teach a lesson to Israel (vs 42-44).

32:27 “All” – Num 16:22; 27:16; Job 12:10; Ezek 18:14; Acts 17:28.

32:29 “Baal” – note at Judges 2:11.

“Other gods” – 7:9,10.

32:30 22:21.

32:31 Before David captured Jerusalem and made it his capital it was in the hands of the idolatrous Jebusites (2 Sam 5:6-9). David’s son Solomon polluted the city with idols (1 Kings 11:7,8), and many kings after him did likewise. God’s wrath against all that was continually increasing until He could justly restrain it no longer. Notes on God’s anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; etc.

command them, and it did not come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 “And now, therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, about which you say, ‘It will be delivered into the hands of the king of Babylon by the sword and by the famine and by the plague’: 37 See, I will gather them out of all countries where I have driven them in my anger, and in my fury and great wrath, and I will bring them back to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely. 38 And they will be my people, and I will be their God. 39 And I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and the good of their children after them. 40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from doing good to them, but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they will not depart from me. 41 Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will assuredly plant them in this land with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 “For thus says the LORD: Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them. 43 And fields will be bought in this land, about which you say, ‘It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.’ 44 Men will buy fields for money, and sign deeds and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south. For I will cause them to return from captivity, says the LORD.”

“Fear” – notes at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; etc.

“Forever” – since this is not true of Israel today the complete fulfilment awaits the final turning of Israel to God at the end of this age.

32:40 The new covenant of 31:31-34 will never be broken, will never fail in its purposes. It is eternal in contrast with the covenant made through Moses (Isa 55:3; Ezek 16:60; 37:26; Heb 8:7,8,13).

“Not depart from me” – another indication that this has not yet been fulfilled toward Israel as a nation. In vs 37 to 42 only one people is in view – the nation Israel, not the Church of the New Testament. 32:41 See how God loves to do good! It delights Him! He will always do all the good He justly can to everyone (note at Ps 78:41). He hates to do harm to anyone; it grieves him to punish and destroy anyone. When He does it, it is because He must do so according to the demands of justice.

32:42-44 This is an expansion of v 15.

“Cause them to return from captivity” – or “will restore their well-being” (v 44).

33 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, when he was still shut up in the courtyard of the prison, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD the maker of the earth, the LORD who formed it to establish it; the LORD is his name: 3 Call to me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know. 4 For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah which have been torn down to use against the siege mounds and the sword, 5 as they come to fight with the Chaldeans: it is only to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I will slay in my anger and in my fury, since I have hidden my face from this city because of all their wickedness.

6 "See, I will bring health and healing to it, and I will heal them, and will reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth. 7 And I will cause the captives of Judah and the captives of Israel to return, and will build them up, as at the first. 8 And I will cleanse them from all their wickedness, in which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, in which they have sinned and in which they have transgressed against me. 9 And it will be for me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which will hear of all the good that I do for them; and they will fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I provide for it.

10 "Thus says the LORD: Again there will be heard in this place, which you say will be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast, 11 the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who will say, 'Praise the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his mercy continues on forever; and the voice of those who will bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will restore the captive land, as at the first, says the LORD.

12 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all its cities, there will be dwelling places of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. 13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, once more the flocks will pass under the hands of the one counting them, says the LORD.

14 "See, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will perform that good thing which I have promised to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 "In those days, and at that time,
I will cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up for David;
and he will administer justice and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days Judah will be saved,
and Jerusalem will dwell safely.
And this is the name by which it will be called:
The LORD Our Righteousness.

17 "For thus says the LORD: David will never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, 18 and the priests the Levites will not lack a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn grain offerings, and to offer continual sacrifices."

19 And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah,

33:2 10:12; 32:17; 51:15.

33:3 When we pray to Jehovah the God of the Bible, we are praying to the mighty Creator of the universe. Prayer from a believing and upright heart (such as Jeremiah had) will reach His ears, will bring wonderful answers (Gen 18:32; Ps 3:4; 4:3; 18:6; 27:7; 28:1,2; 30:8; 55:17; Matt 7:7; Jam 5:16). Some of the great and unsearchable things God speaks of here are recorded in the rest of the chapter.

33:11 Ps 136:1. Notes on thanksgiving at Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; etc.

33:14 We may be sure that God always fulfils His promises (1 Kings 8:56; Titus 1:2; Heb 6:18).

33:15,16 These verses speak of the Lord

Jesus Christ. Notes at 23:5,6. God's promises to Israel and Judah were not completely fulfilled at the time of the return from Babylon.

"It" (v 16) – or "He."

33:17 2 Sam 7:13; 2 Chron 7:18; Ps 89:29-37; Luke 1:31-33.

33:18 The Lord Jesus as a man was descended from David and so could inherit his throne. It is more difficult to see how Jesus can fulfil the word here, for He was not descended from Levi, and His priesthood is not a continuation of the priesthood of Aaron. Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedek (Heb 7:11-22). All believers in the New Testament are called priests (1 Pet 2:5,9; Rev 1:6), but they have no connection with Levi. The words of this verse may be fulfilled in ways at present unknown to us (compare Ezek 40:44-46).

"Offerings", "sacrifices" – see notes on Ezek 40:38-43.

saying, 20 "Thus says the LORD: If you can break my covenant with the day, and my covenant with the night, so that day and night do not exist in their fixed times, 21 then my covenant with David my servant may also be broken, so that he will not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. 22 As the starry host of the heavens cannot be numbered, nor the sand of the sea measured, so I will increase the descendants of my servant David, and the Levites who minister to me."

23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 24 "Have you not considered what this people have spoken, saying, 'The LORD has rejected the two families which he chose?' So they have despised my people; they are no longer a nation, in their sight. 25 Thus says the LORD: If my covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth, 26 then I will reject the offspring of Jacob, and my servant David, so that I do not take any of his offspring as rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; for I will cause them to return from captivity, and have mercy on them."

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth in his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all its cities, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel. Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him the LORD says this: See, I will give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire, 3 and you will not escape from his hands, but will certainly be captured and delivered into his hands. And your eyes will see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he will speak with you mouth to mouth, and you will go to Babylon.

4 "Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah

king of Judah. The LORD says this about you: You will not die by the sword, 5 but you will die peacefully; and as in the burning ceremonies for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will burn spices for you, and will lament for you, saying, 'Alas, master!' for I have proclaimed the word, says the LORD."

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7 when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah (for these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah).

8 A word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them, 9 so that every man should let his male or female servant who was a Hebrew man or woman, go free, that no one should keep any of them, that is, his brother Jew, in bondage. 10 Now when all the princes and all the people who had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his male or female servant go free, that no one should keep them in bondage any longer, they obeyed and let them go. 11 But afterwards they turned right around and caused the servants and the maid servants, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into bondage as servants and as maidservants.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 13 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying, 14 At the end of each seven years every one of you must release his Hebrew brother who has been sold to you; and when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you. But your fathers did not listen or turn their ear to me. 15 And recently you changed and

33:23-26 31:35-37; 33:19-22.

33:24 "Two families" – if this looks back to v 22, it means Judah and Levi. Some commentators think it means the two kingdoms of Judah and Israel.

33:26 The words "offspring of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob" suggest their physical descendants. So does the reference to "the two families" in v 24. In the New Testament Gentile believers are the spiritual children of Abraham (Rom 4:11,16,17; Gal 3:7,29), but they are not called the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. And the vast majority of Christians now were never a part of either of the two families mentioned in v 24.

"Cause them to return from captivity" – or "restore their well-being."

34:1-5 This is similar to the warning in 21:3-10. Here Zedekiah is promised that he will not die in the capture of Jerusalem but will end his days quietly in Babylon and not without some honor from the people. So God shows mercy even to the wicked.

34:5 2 Chron 16:14.

34:8-10 This was based on instructions in the law (Ex 21:2; Lev 25:10,39-43; Deut 15:12-15).

34:11 Here is another indication of the sad and evil condition of the people in Jerusalem. They very quickly broke their solemn promise to the king, and disobeyed the commands of God's word. The Babylonians temporarily departed from the siege of Jerusalem, and the people thought they were safe again to do as they pleased (34:21).

34:12-16 Could the people imagine that God did not observe their behavior?

did right in my sight, each one proclaiming liberty to his neighbour; and you made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name. 16 But you turned right around and profaned my name, each one causing his servant or his maid servant, whom he had set at liberty at their wish, to return, and brought them into bondage, to be servants and maidservants for you.

17 "Therefore thus says the LORD: You have not listened to me. Each man has not proclaimed liberty to his brother and to his neighbour. See, I am proclaiming a 'liberty' for you, says the LORD, to the sword, to the plague, and to the famine, and I will cause you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. 18 And I will give the men who have broken my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts, 19 the princes of Judah and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf, 20 I will give them into the hands of their enemies and into the hands of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky, and for the beasts of the earth.

21 "And I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes into the hands of their enemies and into the hands of those who seek their life and into the hands of the army of the king of Babylon, which has gone away from you. 22 See, I will give a command, says the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they will fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire. And I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant."

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, 2 "Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink."

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniyah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites, 4 and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the room of the princes, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the doorkeeper. 5 And I set jars full of wine and cups in front of the sons of the house of the Rechabites, and I said to them, "Drink wine."

6 But they said, "We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, 'You shall never drink wine, neither you nor your sons. 7 And you shall not build houses, or sow seed, or plant a vineyard, or have any of these; but all your days you shall live in tents, so that you may live a long time in the land where you are staying.' 8 So we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters, 9 and to build no houses for us to live in; and we have no vineyard, or field, or seed. 10 But we have lived in tents and been obedient, acting in accordance with all that Jonadab our father commanded us. 11 But it so happened, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, 'Come and let us go to Jerusalem,' for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and for fear of the army of the Syrians. So we are living in Jerusalem."

12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 13 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 'Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?' says the LORD. 14 'The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, commanding his sons not to drink wine, are being performed. For to this day they drink none, but obey their father's command. However I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you have not listened to me. 15 I have also sent all my servants the prophets to you, rising up early and sending them, saying, Each of you turn now from his evil way, and amend your actions, not following other gods to serve them, and you will live in the 34:17 God would show them what He thought of their broken promise and disobedience to His commands. He would proclaim a "liberty" for them – a release from life itself. This is in accordance with the principle laid down in various places in the Word of God – men shall reap what they sow (Deut 19:21; Ps 18:25,26; Prov 22:8; Gal 6:7).

34:18-20 In ancient times when making a solemn covenant sometimes an animal was killed and divided into two parts, and those making the covenant walked between the parts. Compare Gen 15:9-19.

34:22 The armies of Babylon were under the control of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel. Indeed, all armies, all human beings are under His control (Ps 135:6; Dan 4:34,35).

35:2 The Recabites did not belong to any of the tribes of Israel. They were related to the Kenites (1 Chron 2:55). Moses' father-in-law was a Kenite (Jud 1:16). In this chapter God has Jeremiah test them to reveal their faithfulness to their forefather's instructions (vs 6-10). He then contrasts the Recabites with the unfaithful people of Israel. It is a sad thing that people are much more likely to obey the instructions of men, and to follow traditions, than to obey the commands of God Himself (v 14;

land which I have given to you and to your fathers. But you have not turned your ear to me or listened. 16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have done according to the command of their father, which he commanded them, but this people have not listened to me, 17 thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: See, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have proclaimed against them, because I have spoken to them, and they have not listened, and I have called to them, and they have not answered.”

18 And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Because you have obeyed the command of your father Jonadab, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he has commanded you, 19 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab will not lack a man to stand before me forever.’”

36 And it came about in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 “Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I first spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, to this day. 3 It could be that the house of Judah, hearing of all the disaster which I intend to bring on them, will turn, each one of them, from his evil way, so that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.”

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and from the mouth of Jeremiah Baruch wrote down on a scroll all the words of the LORD which he had spoken to him. 5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, “I am locked up. I cannot go into the house of the LORD. 6 Therefore you go and read the words of the LORD from the scroll which you have written from my mouth, in the hearing of the people in the LORD’s house on a day of fasting. And you shall also read them in the hearing of all Judah who come out of their cities. 7 It could be that they will present their supplication before the LORD, and that each one will turn from his evil way; for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has proclaimed against this people.”

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did everything that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading the words of the LORD in the book, in the LORD’s house. 9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast in the presence of the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. 10 Then Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the book, in the house of the LORD, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court, at the entrance of the new gate of the LORD’s house, in the hearing of all the people.

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard from the book all the words of the LORD, 12 he went down to the king’s house, into the scribe’s chamber, and there sat all the leaders, Elishama the scribe and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah and Elnathan the son of Achbor and Gemariah the son of Shaphan and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the other leaders. 13 Then Michaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard as Baruch was reading the book in the hearing of the people. 14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cush, to Baruch, saying, “Take in your hand the scroll from which you read in the hearing of the people, and come.” So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. 15 And they said to him, “Sit down now and read it in our hearing.” So Baruch read it in their hearing.

Matt 15:3-9). Shall we not learn the lesson God was teaching through this example (v 13)? If we do not, will not God mark it and take action against us (v 17)?

35:18,19 Since that family knew what faithfulness was, God would chose some from among them to show that same faithfulness toward Himself. Because of the terrible unfaithfulness of Israel, God is emphasizing here how highly He regards faithfulness (on faithfulness see Matt 24:45; 25:21-23; Luke 16:10-12; 1 Cor 4:2; 1 Tim 1:12; 3:11; 2 Tim 2:2; Heb 3:2). 36:2 1:1-3.

36:3 18:8; 26:3. God is swift to forgive when He can, slow to punish when He must.

36:4 “Baruch” – 32:12; 43:3,6; 45:1.

36:5 The ungodly will often try to restrict the activities of God’s spokesmen.

Jeremiah’s messages spoken in the temple were very unpopular with the priests and prophets there (20:1,2). They could not endure the truth so they tried to keep it away. Compare Acts 4:1-3,18; 5:17,18,27,28.

36:6-8 The word of God which He sends cannot be stopped (1:12; Isa 55:11). If men try to shut it up one way it will come in another. If one spokesmen is silenced God will chose another. Wicked men would gladly keep the truth shut out of the world altogether, and they will try to bind God’s servants, but God’s word cannot be bound (2 Tim 2:9).

36:9 Verse 6. This was many months after God’s command in v 1. It seems Baruch had to wait this long for a good opportunity. The fast was probably called because of the 16 Now it came about, when they heard all these words, they turned to one another in fear, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." 17 And they asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write down all these words from his mouth?"

18 Then Baruch answered them, "He dictated all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book."

19 Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah, and do not let anyone know where you are."

20 And they went in to the king in the courtyard; but they stored the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the hearing of the king. 21 So the king sent Jehudi to bring the scroll, and he brought it from the room of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king, and in the hearing of all the officials who stood beside the king. 22 Now the king was sitting in the winter house, it being the ninth month; and there was a fire burning on the hearth in front of him. 23 And it came about when Jehudi had read three or four columns, that he cut it off with a scribe's knife and threw it into the fire that was on the hearth, until the whole scroll was burned up in the fire on the hearth. 24 Yet they were not afraid, and they did not tear their garments, neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words. 25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had begged the king not to burn the scroll, but he would not listen to them. 26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but the LORD hid them.

27 Then, after the king had burned the scroll and the words from the mouth of Jeremiah which

Baruch wrote down, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 28 "Take again another scroll, and write on it all the former words, that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned up. 29 And you shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus says the LORD: You have burned that scroll, saying, 'Why have you written in it saying that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will bring to an end both man and beast here?' 30 Therefore thus says the LORD about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David. And his dead body will be thrown out to the heat of the day and to the frost of the night. 31 And I will punish him and his offspring and his servants for their wickedness, and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the disaster that I have proclaimed against them, for they did not listen."

32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah. He wrote on it, from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and to them were added many similar words.

37 And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned in the place of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. 2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of the LORD, which he spoke through the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Now pray to the LORD our God for us."

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among danger from the Babylonian armies.

36:16 They were afraid that Jeremiah had spoken the truth of God. All his messages written down together made an impact on at least some of the authorities.

36:18 Baruch was faithful to put down on paper exactly what Jeremiah dictated. All the writers of the Bible faithfully and carefully put down exactly what God revealed to them and inspired them to write (Jer 30:2; Ex 24:4; 34:47; 2 Sam 23:2; 2 Tim 3:16; 2 Pet 1:21).

36:19 These authorities knew that in those days to speak the truth was to be in danger (compare 26:20-23).

36:23-26 There are still those who try to destroy those parts of the Bible they don't like. Do they vainly imagine that by destroying or denying the words written on paper that they can destroy God's truth? Those who attack the truth of God's word will only harm themselves (v 30; 22:18,19).

36:26 See v 19. God did a better job of hiding them than they could have done.

36:27-31 Words of truth written on paper may be cut to pieces and burned in the fire, but the truth itself lives on and will prevail and be fulfilled to the letter (Ps 119:89; Matt 5:18; 24:35; 1 Pet 1:25).

36:32 God has always looked after His Word. If some men try to destroy it, God will use other men to preserve it.

37:1 "Coniah" – a variant of Jehoiachin.

37:2 2 Kings 24:18-20.

37:3 If people refuse to hear and obey God's word what does their request for prayer amount to? or even answered prayer for them? – Ex 8:8,28; 9:28; 10:17; 21:7; 1 Sam 12:19; 1 Kings 13:6; Acts 8:24. Very often people ask for prayer without a desire for repentance or a new heart because they want God to rescue them from danger or trouble. This is trifling with God.

37:4-11 No request for prayer by the people, for they had not yet put him in prison. 5 Then Pharaoh's army came up out of Egypt, and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 7 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: This is what you shall say to the king of Judah who sent you to me to inquire of me: 'See, Pharaoh's army, which has come out to help you, will return to Egypt to their own land. 8 And the Chaldeans will come back and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 "Thus says the LORD: Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely depart from us," for they will not depart. 10 For even though you had struck down the whole army of the Chaldeans that fights against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, every man of them would still rise up in his tent, and burn this city with fire."

11 And it came about when the army of the Chaldeans had withdrawn from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 that Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin, to take possession of his assigned portion there among the people. 13 And when he was at the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah. He was the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah. And he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are defecting to the Chaldeans."

14 Then Jeremiah said, "That is false. I am not defecting to the Chaldeans." But he did not listen to him. So Irijah took Jeremiah and brought him to the officials. 15 Therefore the officials were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and imprisoned him in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 So Jeremiah went into the dungeon and into a vaulted cell, and Jeremiah remained there many days. 17 Then Zedekiah the king sent and brought him out, and the king questioned him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the

And Jeremiah said, "There is. He said, 'For you will be delivered into the hands of the king of Babylon.'"

18 Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, "How have I offended against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? 19 Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you, or against this land?' 20 Therefore please listen now, O my master the king. Please let my plea be acceptable to you, so that you do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."

21 Then king Zedekiah gave a command that they should commit Jeremiah into the courtyard of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread from the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the prison.

38 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD: 'He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague; but he who goes out to the Chaldeans will live; for his life will be like plunder to him, and he will live.' 3 Thus says the LORD: 'This city will certainly be given into the hands of the army of the king of Babylon, which will take it.'"

4 Therefore the officials said to the king, "We beg you, let this man be put to death, for in this way he is weakening the hands of warriors who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man is not seeking the welfare of this people, but their harm."

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, "See, he is in your hands; for the king cannot do anything against you."

6 Then they took Jeremiah and threw him into the pit of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was unrepentant, disobedient people can cause God to change what He has purposed to do.

37:12 Jeremiah's town, Anathoth, was located in the territory of Benjamin.

37:15,16 Another example of the mistreatment God's servants often encounter in this world (Gen 39:20; Acts 4:4; 12:1-4; 16:22-24; Heb 11:36-38).

37:17 Evidently King Zedekiah was a weak man, afraid of His own officials. Jeremiah, as usual, told him the plain truth (21:3-7). He would not soften God's message to escape from trouble or danger.

37:18 1 Sam 26:18. It is not wrong to appeal to rulers against unjust treatment.

37:19 14:13,14.

37:21 A better place than the jail he had been in (v 16).

38:4 Often in the eyes of ungodly men those who faithfully proclaim God's truth are worthy of death. They misunderstand the ministry and the motives of God's servants (Acts 22:22). Jeremiah's faithfulness to God's word made him seem like a traitor to his nation.

38:5 Verses 24-26; 37:17.

38:6 Jeremiah sought the good of the people with his whole heart (8:21 - 9:1; 13:17).

in the courtyard of the prison. And they let Jeremiah down with ropes. And there was no water in the pit, only mud. So Jeremiah sank down in the mud.

7 Now Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the pit. When the king was sitting in the Gate of Benjamin, 8 Ebed-Melech went out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, 9 "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have thrown into the pit. And he is likely to die from hunger in the place where he is, for there is no more bread in the city."

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take with you thirty men from here, and take Jeremiah the prophet up out of the pit, before he dies."

11 So Ebed-Melech took the men with him, and went into the king's house under the treasury, and took from there old rags and old worn-out clothes, and let them down by ropes into the pit to Jeremiah. 12 And Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Now put these old rags and worn-out clothes under the ropes under your armpits." And Jeremiah did so. 13 So they pulled Jeremiah up with ropes, and took him out of the pit. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the prison.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent men and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance of the house of the LORD; and the king said to Jeremiah, "I am going to ask you something. Do not hide anything from me."

15 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I tell it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, who made these souls of ours, I will not put you to death, and I will not give you into the hands of these men who seek your life."

17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you will definitely go out to the officials of the king of Babylon, then your soul will live, and this city will not be burned with fire; and you and your household will live. 18 But if you will not go out to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be given into the hands of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire, and you will not escape from their hands."

19 And king Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have defected to the Chaldeans, that they may deliver me into their hands, and they will mock me."

20 But Jeremiah said, "They will not deliver you up. I beg you, obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you. Then it will be well with you, and your soul will live. 21 But if you refuse to go out, this is the word that the LORD has revealed to me: 22 'Now, see, all the women who are left in the house of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon, and those women will say, "Your friends have misled you, and have prevailed against you. Your feet have sunk in the mud, and they have turned away." 23 So they will bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans; and you will not escape from their hands, but will be seized by the hands of the king of Babylon; and you will cause this city to be burned with fire."

24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Do not let anyone know of these words, and you will not die. 25 But if the officials hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, 'Tell us now what you said to the king. Do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death. Tell us also what the king said to you'; 26 then you shall say to them, 'I presented my plea before the king, that he would not make me return to Jonathan's house, to die there.'"

27 Then all the officials came to Jeremiah, and questioned him; and he spoke to them in accordance with all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, since that conversation had not been overheard.

28 So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken, and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

This was his reward in this world (compare John 15:18,19; Heb 11:35-38).

38:7-13 When there was none among the people of Israel to help Jeremiah, God chose an outsider, an Ethiopian, and put compassion in his heart for the prophet. God can send help to His suffering people from the most unlikely sources. Ebed-melech acted as he did because he had faith in the true and living God (39:18).

38:14-18 If Zedekiah was expecting Jeremiah to change God's message he was disappointed. God's prophets could not and did not pervert the truth to please the rulers of this world.

38:19 Verse 5; 37:17. If he had feared God as he ought he would not have feared men. If he had ruled justly and well he would not have feared the Jews who had defected to Babylon.

38:24-26 Jeremiah's words did not remove Zedekiah's fear of men. Zedekiah's life is an example of the truth of Prov 29:25. We must never let the fear of others prevent us from doing what God tells us to do. What a contrast there is between the king on his throne and the imprisoned prophet! The king was bound by fear wherever he turned;

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and besieged it. 2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken into. 3 And all the officials of the king of Babylon, Nergal-Sharezzer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezzer, Rabmag, with all the rest of the officials of the king of Babylon, came in and sat at the Middle Gate. 4 And it came about when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the warriors saw them, that they fled and went out of the city at night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls; and he went out on the road to the Jordan valley.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued them, and caught up to Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and when they seized him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment on him. 6 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes. The king of Babylon also killed all the officials of Judah. 7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him off to Babylon.

8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. 9 Then Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, carried away captive into Babylon the rest of the people who remained in the city, and those who had defected, who defected to him, with the rest of the people who remained. 10 But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left some of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and at the same time gave them vineyards and fields.

11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave a command concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, saying, 12 "Take him and look after him well, and do him no harm, but do for him just as he tells you." 13 So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, and Nebu-Shasban, Rabsaris, and Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the officials of the king of Babylon, 14 sent and took Jeremiah out of the courtyard of the prison, and entrusted him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he lived among the people.

15 Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah when he was shut up in the courtyard of the prison, saying, 16 "Go and speak to Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: See, I will bring to pass my words on this city for disaster, and not for good; and on that day they will be fulfilled in front of you. 17 But I will deliver you in that day, says the LORD, and you will not be given into the hands of the men whom you fear. 18 For I will certainly deliver you, and you will not fall by the sword, but your life will be like plunder for you, because you have put your trust in me, says the LORD.'"

40 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard let him go from Ramah, where he had taken him bound in chains among all those of Jerusalem and Judah being carried away captive, who were being exiled to Babylon. 2 And the commander of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, "The LORD your God proclaimed this disaster on this place. 3 Now the LORD has brought it about, and done just as he said. This thing has come on you because you sinned against the LORD, and did not obey his voice. 4 And now, see, I am loosing you today from the chains which are on your hands. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come; and I will look after you well. But if it does not seem good to you to come with me to Babylon, then don't come. See, the whole land is before you. Go wherever it seems good and convenient for you to go." 5 Then before he left, he said, "Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and live with him among the people; or go wherever it seems convenient to you to go." So the commander of the guard gave him provisions and a present, and let him go.

the prophet was free in spirit to serve God.

39:1-10 2 Kings 25:1-21; 2 Chron 36:15-20. This was the sad penalty for Jerusalem's disobedience to God's word. This was also a vindication of Jeremiah as a prophet of God.

39:11-14 The cruel conquerors showed far more mercy to Jeremiah than his own people had. How far Israel had fallen from God's standards of justice, mercy, fair-dealing, compassion, ethics and morality! Their shame and disgrace at the hands of their enemies was all deserved.

39:15-18 God was ruling in the affairs of men, controlling the activities of Babylon's armies, bringing destruction on His own people and city. Yet He did not overlook a single individual who trusted Him, did not forget that one deed of kindness to His prophet. This is a part of the greatness and goodness of God (Heb 6:10; Matt 10:42).

40:2-6 This officer from a far place and another religion had more understanding of what had been happening than the priests, prophets, and rulers of God's people in Jerusalem! And he treated God's true prophet with far greater kindness than they had (39:11-14).

6 Then Jeremiah went to Mizpah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

7 Now when all the officers of the army who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, and children, and some of the poor of the land, among those who had not been carried away captive to Babylon, 8 then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah. They were Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite. They and their men came. 9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore to them and to their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you. 10 As for me, look, I will live at Mizpah to serve the Chaldeans, who will come to us. But as for you, you gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your storage vessels, and live in your cities that you have taken over."

11 Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan over them, 12 all the Jews returned from all the places where they had been driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered an abundance of wine and summer fruits.

13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the officers of the army who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, 14 and said to him, "Are you well aware that Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to kill you?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he kill you, causing all the Jews who are gathered around you to be scattered, and the remnant in Judah to perish?"

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing, for you are speaking falsely about Ishmael."

41 Now it came about in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and of the officials of the king, came with ten men to Mizpah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, and there in Mizpah they ate bread together. 2 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and with the sword struck and killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. 3 Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him at Mizpah, that is, with Gedaliah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the soldiers.

4 And it so happened on the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, without anyone knowing it, 5 that some eighty men from Shechem, from Shiloh and from Samaria, with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, having made cuts on themselves, came with offerings and incense in their hands, to bring them to the house of the LORD. 6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along; and it came about when he met them that he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam." 7 And it happened when they came into the middle of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the men who were with him, killed them and threw them down into the pit. 8 But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have hidden stores of wheat and barley and oil and honey in a field." So he refrained and did not kill them with their brethren. 9 Now the cistern where Ishmael had thrown all the dead bodies of the men he had killed because of Gedaliah, was the one which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel; and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who had been killed.

10 Then Ishmael took away captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah took them captive and left to go over to the Ammonites.

40:7 Ahikam had served good king Josiah and had shown kindness to Jeremiah (26:24). Gedaliah followed in his father's footsteps.

40:16 Gedaliah, as so many leaders in every generation, lacked discernment. He rudely rejected the word of the man who was telling the truth and trusted the man who was plotting to kill him. This cost him his life (41:2). The ability to discern the character and truthfulness of those we deal with is a gift of God – one we all need to seek. See 1 Kings 3:9-12. Without it we may ignorantly bring much harm to ourselves and to God's work.

41:1-15 In chapter 24 God revealed to Jeremiah that those left behind by the Babylonians would be like bad figs (24:8). For the most part they were without spiritual life or the fear of God. These verses record

11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the officers of the army who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 they took all the men and went out to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great pool in Gibeon. 13 Now it happened when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah and all the officers of the army who were with him, that they were glad. 14 So all the people whom Ishmael had taken away captive from Mizpah turned around, came back and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. 15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the officers of the army who were with him took all the rest of the people from Mizpah whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, after he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the mighty warriors and the women and the children and the eunuchs whom he had brought back from Gibeon, 17 and they departed and stayed at the dwelling place of Kimham, which is near Bethlehem, going on the way to Egypt, 18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

42 Then all the officers of the army, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, came near 2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our plea be acceptable to you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, and for this whole remnant (for we remain only a few out of many, as you can see), 3 that the LORD your God will show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do."

what we might expect from such people.

41:16-18 Running away from trouble is all some people can think of. God did not tell them to go to Egypt. But in any case, as the next chapter reveals, they did not have a mind to do what God said.

42:1 This whole chapter and the first three verses of the next chapter give an illustration of self-deception in praying for God's will. All the people together with their leaders were involved in this sad affair. They thought they wanted God's will (v 2), they asked for prayer that they might know it (v 3), and evidently they were convinced of their willingness to obey it (v 6). But when God revealed His will they refused to do a single thing He told them. Obviously they hoped that God would tell them to do only what they wanted to do anyway.

42:4 "I will declare. . . I will keep nothing

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. See, I will pray to the LORD your God in accordance with your words; and it will be that whatever answer the LORD gives you, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you."

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not act in accordance with everything which the LORD your God sends us by you, 6 whether it is good or bad, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send you, so that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

7 And ten days later it came about that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. 8 Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the officers of the army who were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest, 9 and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your request before him: 10 If you will still remain in this land, then I will build you up, and not tear you down, and I will plant you, and not uproot you, for I relent concerning the disaster that I have brought on you. 11 Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Do not be afraid of him, says the LORD, for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. 12 And I will show mercy on you, so that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 "But if you say, 'We will not live in this land,' disobeying the voice of the LORD your God, 14 saying, 'No! But we will go to the land of Egypt, where we will not see any war or hear the sound of the trumpet, or be hungry for bread; and we will live there,' 15 Then in that case hear the word of the LORD, your remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: If you definitely set your faces to go into Egypt, and do go to settle back" – 1:17; Ps 40:10; Acts 20:20,27. This is what the true servant of God must do. If he hides the truth from others because of fear, or the desire for popularity, he will be harming both them and himself. 42:5,6 These words sound very humble, very submissive. But let us compare them with Ex 19:8; 24:3,7, and let us remember Jer 17:9 and apply the lesson of this chapter to ourselves.

42:7 Jeremiah would not speak until He got God's message, and it took ten days to receive an answer from God. Years may pass before God answers some prayers.

42:8-18 Nothing could be more plain, more solemn than this message.

42:12 1 Kings 8:50. When God has compassion on us He can and will cause men to show compassion toward us, and the compassion they show should cause us to

there, 16 then it will happen that the sword, which you fear, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, which you fear, will follow you closely there in Egypt; and there you will die. 17 So it will be with all the men who set their faces to go to Egypt to settle there. They will die by the sword, by famine, and by the plague, and none of them will remain or escape from the disaster that I will bring on them. 18 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Just as my anger and my fury were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will my fury be poured out on you when you enter Egypt; and you will become an oath, and an object of astonishment and cursing and scorn; and you will see this place no more.

19 "The LORD has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Do not go to Egypt. Know for a certainty that I have warned you this day. 20 For you dissembled in your hearts when you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God. Declare to us all that the LORD our God says and we will act accordingly.' 21 And now today I have declared it to you, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, or anything which he has sent to you by me. 22 Now therefore know for a certainty that you will die by the sword, by famine, and by the plague, in the place where you desire to go and settle."

43 And it so happened when Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, which the LORD their God had sent to them by him, all these words, 2 that Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, spoke up, saying to Jeremiah, "You are telling a lie. The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to settle there,' 3 but Baruch the son of Neriah is setting you against us, to deliver us into the hands of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, or carry us away as captives to Babylon."

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the officers of the army, and all the people, disobeyed the voice of the LORD telling them to live in the land of Judah. 5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the officers of the army, took the whole remnant of Judah that had returned from all the nations where they had been driven to live in the land of Judah, 6 men, women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah, 7 and they went to the land of Egypt; for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. So they came to Tahpanhes.

8 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, 9 "Take large stones in your hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick kiln which is at the entrance of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah, 10 and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: See, I will send and get Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden; and he will spread his royal canopy above them. 11 And when he comes, he will defeat the land of Egypt and deliver those who are for death to death, and those who are for captivity to captivity, and those who are for the sword to the sword. 12 And I will kindle a fire in the temples of the gods of Egypt; and he will burn them, and carry them away as captives. And he will wrap Egypt around himself as a shepherd wraps his garment recognize God's compassion to us.

42:19-22 Jeremiah adds his personal loving exhortation to the people. But God has enabled him to discern the true state of their hearts (v 20). All the time they were waiting for God's will to be revealed to Jeremiah they were (possibly unconsciously) determined to have their own way. This is just one more example among a great many in the Bible of what fallen human beings are like. We may think we want to know and do God's will when actually we only want God to tell us to do what we want to do.

43:1,2 What is in the heart will eventually come out. Men under the control of their sinful nature will usually do what they please regardless of God's promises or warnings, or the pleadings of God's servants.

43:2 "Proud" – how hard it is for proud people to submit in simple faith to God's word! Pride and a sinful heart are the real reasons for the attacks of critics on the Bible. It is the cause of much unbelief among men with its resulting disobedience. This is why the Lord Jesus spoke as He did in Mark 10:15.

"You are telling a lie" – they had no evidence for this. The simple fact of the matter is God's word to them was against what they wanted to do, and so they denied that God had spoken. The sinful heart will always try to find a way to deny that God has forbidden what it craves.

43:3 Perhaps they thought it safer to blame Baruch than Jeremiah.

43:4-7 They acted on their own just as if God had never spoken.

43:7 Tahpanhes was probably in the north-east region of Egypt.

43:8-13 God was revealing to the people that there would be no safety for them in Egypt. In their unbelief and disobedience they were fleeing from one disaster into another. There was no nation on earth at that time able to successfully resist the Babylonian armies.

43:12 "Wrap Egypt around himself" – this around himself; and he will depart from there in peace. 13 He will also break the idols of Beth-Shemesh that are in the land of Egypt, and burn the temples of the gods of the Egyptians with fire.”

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in the land of Egypt, living at Migdol and at Tahpanhes and at Noph and in the country of Pathros, saying, 2 “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen the whole disaster that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and, see, today they are a desolation, and no one lives in them, 3 because of their evil which they did, provoking me to anger by going to burn incense, and to serve other gods, which they did not know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. 4 However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, ‘Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!’ 5 But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, and to burn no incense to other gods. 6 Therefore my fury and my anger were poured out, and burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they became ruined and desolate, as at this day.

7 “Therefore now thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you do this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant from Judah, to leave you no one remaining? 8 You are provoking me to wrath by the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to live, causing you to be cut off and to become an object of cursing and scorn probably means that Egypt will be completely in his control to do with as he pleases.

44:1 “Noph” – another name for Memphis.

“Pathros” – a name for what is called “Upper Egypt”, the southern part of the country.

44:2 “You have seen” – God wants people to learn lessons from what they see taking place in the world (3:7,10; Deut 3:21,22; Josh 23:3; Luke 21:28).

44:3 1:16; 11:17; 19:4; 32:32. Idolatry was the chief cause of God’s anger against them.

44:4 “Abominable thing” – idolatry (see Deut 7:25,26; 27:15; Isa 44:19). The true and holy God of the Bible hates it utterly, fiercely, eternally. Again and again He pleaded with His people not to engage in it.

44:5 7:26; 25:4; 35:15.

44:6 7:20. Notes on God’s anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:11-14.

44:7-10 They saw with their own eyes what had happened. Would they not learn their lesson, repent, and turn to God? The evil in human nature is not so easily overcome. See Rom 1:32.

44:8 “Egypt” – this suggests either that they

among all the nations of the earth. 9 Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10 They are not humbled even to this day, and they have not been afraid, nor walked in my law or in my statutes that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 “Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: See, I will set my face against you for disaster, and to cut off all Judah. 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah that set their faces to go to the land of Egypt to settle there, and they will all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they will be consumed by the sword and by famine. They will die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine, and they will become an oath, and an object of astonishment and cursing and scorn. 13 For I will punish those who live in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by the plague, 14 so that none of the remnant of Judah, who has gone into the land of Egypt to settle there, will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, where they desire to return to live; for no one will return except a few refugees.”

15 Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great crowd, all the people who were living in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, 16 “As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you. 17 But we will certainly do whatever comes out of our own mouth, had been in Egypt for some time before this message came to Jeremiah, or that there were already some Jews living in Egypt who had been engaging in the worship of the gods there.

“Causing you to be cut off” – according to the Bible the worship of idols brings destruction on those who practice it (Ex 22:20; Deut 17:2-5; Hos 13:2,9; Rev 21:8). In the case of the Jews living in Egypt God reveals to them in vs 11-14 just how He will cause this to happen. He had given the same warning in the land of Judah (42:17,18).

44:15-18 The people leave no doubt that they intend to do just what they please. They loved their idols and after them they would go, regardless of what anyone, including God, said. This reveals again the desperate wickedness of the human heart. Compare Rev 9:20,21 – when the whole world is being punished and is heading for disaster at the end of this age mankind will still not give up its beloved idols.

44:17,18 They give their reasons for burning incense to the queen of heaven, and pouring out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our officials, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of provisions, and were well off, and did not see any disaster. 18 But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything, and have been consumed by the sword and by famine."

19 And the women added, "When we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our men?"

20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people who had given him that answer, saying, 21 "The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you, and your fathers, your kings, and your officials, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and did it not come into his mind? 22 So the LORD could no longer bear it, because of your evil deeds and because of the abominations which you committed. Therefore your land is a desolation, and an object of astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant; as it is to this day. 23 Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD or walked in his law, in his statutes, or in his testimonies, this disaster has happened to you; as it is to this day."

24 Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, clinging to idol-worship. It is a reason men everywhere will give. They thought their goddess was giving them prosperity and guarding them from harm. Their worship was rooted in selfishness. They cared nothing for God or for what God said in His word; they were not concerned with truth or the ethics of the matter. And they praised the goddess for what the true and living God Jehovah had done. Little did they realize that it was their worship of her, and not the renouncing of her worship, that would bring death and destruction to them. This story has been repeated again and again even in our days.

44:19 According to the Bible the husband was to be the head of the house and to be responsible for what took place there. These men knew of the false worship of their wives and did nothing. So they shared their guilt.

44:20-23 Jeremiah tries to use the facts of their recent history to appeal to their reason. But when people are determined to do as they please facts and reason are as nothing to them.

all you of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. 25 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You and your wives have spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, 'We will surely perform the vows that we have vowed to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her: You will surely fulfil your vows, and surely perform your vows. 26 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who live in the land of Egypt. See, I have sworn by my great name, says the LORD, that my name shall no more be invoked in the mouth of anyone of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, 'The Lord God lives.' 27 See, I will watch over them for disaster, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end of them. 28 Yet a small number who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, and the whole remnant of Judah, that has gone into the land of Egypt to settle there, will know whose words will stand, mine, or theirs.

29 "And this will be a sign to you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words will surely stand against you for disaster: 30 Thus says the LORD, See, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hands of his enemies, and into the hands of those who seek his life, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life."

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words from the mouth of Jeremiah in 44:24,25 Their abominable idolatry was not enough for them. They actually made solemn vows to continue it.

44:26 Those who reject the truth of God and run after idols have no business swearing by His name.

44:27 Let us learn from this that God, seeing the behavior of individuals or groups or peoples or even nations, will sometimes determine to do them harm rather than good. This fact alone should bring men to their knees seeking God's mercy.

44:28,29 "Whose words will stand" – in the world today there is the Bible, the Word of God, and there are innumerable books of men which contain their thoughts, hopes and predictions in opposition to God's word. By fulfilling His word to the letter (Matt 5:18) God will show which will stand – His word or theirs.

44:30 This was fulfilled in 570 BC. Hophra was killed by rivals for the throne.

45:1 The smallest chapter in Jeremiah but containing a great lesson for all of us.

"When he had written" – 36:1-4.

a book, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: 3 You said, 'Woe to me now! For the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.'

4 "You shall say this to him: 'Thus says the LORD: See, I will break down what I have built, and I will uproot what I have planted, this whole land. 5 And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them. For, see, I will bring disaster on all flesh, says the LORD. But I will give your life to you like plunder every place you go.'"

46 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles, 2 against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah:

- 3 "Set in array the large shield and the small shield, and draw near to battle.
4 Harness the horses; and get up, you horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets.

Polish the spears, and put on the armour.

- 5 Why have I seen them dismayed and turning back?

And their mighty ones are beaten down, and are rapidly fleeing, and not looking back, because fear was all around, says the LORD.

- 6 Do not let the swift run away, or the mighty man escape; they will stumble and fall toward the north at the River Euphrates.

- 7 "Who is this coming up like a flood, like rivers of surging water?

- 8 Egypt rises up like a flood, and like rivers of surging water.

And he says, 'I will go up and cover the earth. I will destroy the city and its inhabitants.'

- 9 Come up, you horses, and drive madly, you chariots, and let the mighty men come out, the Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield, and the Lydians who handle and bend the bow.

45:2,3 Baruch's association with Jeremiah in the ministry brought him much trouble and sorrow. God has never promised an easy, trouble-free life to His prophets and servants – in fact, quite the contrary (Jer 1:19; Matt 10:17; John 15:18-21; 16:33; Acts 9:15,16; 14:22). In this service for God they all learn sooner or later what sorrow, groaning and difficulties are. Judging from v 5 Baruch was tempted to escape from his trouble by seeking a position that would bring him some personal honor and peace. Baruch's brother Seraiah was later an officer in the time of king Zedekiah (51:59), and for all we know, occupied some important position before that. So perhaps Baruch was tempted to quit God's service with Jeremiah and seek some high place through his brother's influence.

45:4,5 God's just judgments were about to be fulfilled, disaster was coming on the people. It was no time for any of God's servants to be seeking great things for themselves. Actually God's servants should never seek great things for themselves – especially perhaps in our day when there is reason to believe that the end of this age is near, and that God's wrath is soon to bring disaster on the world. God's people selfishly seeking position, money, power, and man's honors is madness. Would it not be madness to be hanging a record of one's honors and greatness on the walls of a house when the house is on fire and the roof is about to collapse? But, alas, it is a madness one sees everywhere. Compare Phil 2:21.

Let us see that God's command to Baruch is for us too, and learn always to be God-seekers, not self-seekers. Let us seek great things for Christ and not for ourselves. And let us learn and apply the truth of Matt 10:38,39. We have reason to think Baruch listened to God's word. He remained Jeremiah's faithful assistant (32:1,12,13; 43:3,6 – both of these events took place many years after the event in chapter 45). 46:1 See 1:10; 25:17; 27:3. In chapters 46-51 Jeremiah is engaged in his ministry as prophet to the nations. He records God's revelation concerning ten places and nations. They were all in a large area from Egypt, southwest of Israel, to Elam east of Israel beyond the Euphrates and Tigris rivers. In these chapters God shows again that He is sovereign over all nations, the great king of the universe (note at Ps 47:2). Throughout history He has been actively working to put down or raise up nation after nation. He still does so.

46:2 "Egypt" – except for the closing two verses the rest of this chapter is concerning Egypt.

"Carchemish" – in 605 BC at this place the armies of Babylon defeated Egypt's armies. It was one of the most important battles of the ancient world. It broke the power of Egypt in western Asia and made possible the full rise of the Babylonian empire.

46:3-12 This poetical section in vivid symbolic language sets forth Egypt's crushing defeat.

46:9 Soldiers from these regions were in

- 10 For this day belongs to the Lord God of hosts;
it is a day of vengeance,
 that he may avenge himself on his adversaries.
 And the sword will devour, and it will be sated and made drunk with their blood.
 For the Lord God of hosts has a sacrifice in the north country by the River Euphrates.
- 11 "Go up into Gilead and get balm,
 O virgin, the daughter of Egypt.
 In vain you will use many medicines,
 for you will not be cured.
- 12 The nations have heard of your shame,
 and your cry has filled the land,
 for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty,
 and both of them have fallen together."
- 13 The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon would come and attack the land of Egypt:
- 14 "Declare it in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol, and proclaim it in Noph
 and in Tahpanhes; say,
 'Stand fast, and prepare yourselves,'
 for the sword will devour all around you.
- 15 Why are your brave men swept away?
 They did not stand, because the LORD drove them away.
- 16 He made many fall;
 yes, one fell on another.
 And they said, 'Arise, and let us go back to our own people,
 and to the land of our birth,
 from the oppressing sword.'
- 17 They cried out there.
 Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a noise.
 He has passed by the appointed time.
- 18 As I live, says the King,
 whose name is the LORD of hosts,
 as surely as Tabor is among the mountains,
 and as Carmel is by the sea,
 so he will come.
- 19 O daughter living in Egypt, prepare yourself to go into captivity, for Noph will become a waste and desolate without an inhabitant.
- 20 "Egypt is like a beautiful heifer,
 but destruction is coming.
 It is coming out of the north.
- 21 And her mercenaries in her midst are like fattened bulls, but they also have turned back and
 fled away together.
 They did not stand, because the day of their calamity had come on them, and the time of their punishment.
- 22 Its sound will move along like a serpent;
 for they will march with an army,
 and come against her with axes,
 like woodcutters.
- 23 They will cut down her forest, says the LORD, unsearchable though it may be,
 for they are more than grasshoppers;
 they are innumerable.
- 24 The daughter of Egypt will be put to shame.
 She will be delivered into the hands of the northern people."
- 25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says:
 "See, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods and their kings, Pharaoh, and all those who trust in him. 26 And I will deliver them into the hands of those who seek their lives, and into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hands of his servants. And afterwards it will be inhabited, as in the days of old, says the LORD.
- 27 "But do not be afraid, O Jacob,
 my servant,
 and do not be dismayed, O Israel;
 for, see, I will save you from a distant place,
 and your offspring from the land of their captivity;
 and Jacob will return, and be at rest
 and at ease,

Egypt's armies.

46:10 Was the battle at Carchemish merely a matter between Egypt and Babylon? Not at all. Jehovah God, the Lord of hosts, was there working out His purposes. He was punishing Egypt for its sins. See also note on 25:30-38.

46:13-26 This took place in 568-567 BC, many years after the battle of Carchemish.

46:14 "Noph" – another name for Memphis.

46:16 "Own people" – the speakers are hired soldiers from other regions (vs 9, 21).

46:18 See what God calls Himself here – He is the King. He is the King of the universe, the real King over all nations. See Ps 47:2. Tabor and Carmel are two mountains in Israel.

46:22 "Serpent" – see Ex 4:3.

46:25 "Multitude" – or "Amon." Amon was the chief god not only of the city of Thebes (No), but of the whole of Egypt during some of its history. God was about to "punish" Amon and all the other gods of Egypt, that is, put them to shame, reveal their powerlessness and nothingness. Compare Ex 12:12.

46:26 God did not plan the complete destruction of Egypt.

46:27,28 30:10,11.

and no one will make him afraid.
 28 Do not be afraid, O Jacob, my servant,
 says the LORD, for I am with you.
 For I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you,
 but I will not make a full end of you,
 but will correct you in measure;
 for I will not leave you wholly unpunished."

47 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza.

- 2 "Thus says the LORD:
 See, waters are rising up out of the north,
 and will become an overflowing flood,
 and they will overflow the land and all that is in it,
 the city and those who live in it.
 Then the men will cry out,
 and all the inhabitants of the land will wail.
 3 At the noise of the stamping hooves of his strong horses,
 at the rushing of his chariots,
 and at the rumbling of his wheels,
 the fathers will not look back for their children because their hands will be feeble, 4 because of the day that is coming to destroy all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyre and Sidon
 every helper who remains.
 For the LORD will destroy the Philistines,
 the remainder of the country of Caphtor.
 5 A shaven head has come on Gaza;
 Ashkelon is cut off with the rest of their valley.
 How long will you cut yourself?
 6 O sword of the LORD,
 how long will it be before you are quiet?
 Put yourself away in your scabbard;

rest, and be still.
 7 How can it be quiet, since the LORD has given it a command against Ashkelon, and against the seashore?
 There he has appointed it to work."

48 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says
 this against Moab:

- "Woe to Nebo! For it is destroyed.
 Kiriathaim has been disgraced and captured.
 Misgab has been disgraced and shattered.
 2 There will be no more praise for Moab.
 In Heshbon they have plotted disaster for it:
 'Come, and let us cut it off from being a nation.'
 You also will be cut down, O Madmen;
 the sword will pursue you.
 3 A sound of crying will be heard from Horonaim,
 plundering and great destruction.
 4 Moab is destroyed.
 Her little ones have caused their cry to be heard.
 5 For in the ascent to Luhith continual weeping will rise up, for in the descent to Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.
 6 Flee! Save your lives,
 and be like a bush in the desert.
 7 For because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures,
 you will also be captured,
 and Chemosh will go into captivity together with his priests and his officials.
 8 And the destroyer will come on every city, and no city will escape.
 The valley too will perish,
 and the plain will be destroyed,
 as the LORD has spoken.

47:1-7 The Philistines lived along the coast of the land of Canaan and were enemies of Israel throughout much of their history up to the time of the Babylonian invasion. For other messages concerning them see Isa 14:28-32; Ezek 25:15-17; Amos 1:6-8; Zeph 2:4-7; Zech 9:5-7. God decided to completely obliterate these people from the land of Canaan. They have passed out of existence. There is no mention of them in the New Testament.

47:4 Caphtor is probably the island in the Mediterranean Sea called Crete today. Tyre and Sidon were important cities on the coast
 north of the Philistines.

47:5 Gaza and Ashkelon were two of the most important Philistine cities.

48:1 This whole chapter predicts in poetic language the destruction of the land of Moab. In it we can learn much about God's reign over the earth. Moab was located due east of Judah and the Dead Sea. Its people were descended from Abraham's nephew Lot (Gen 19:36,37). The destruction predicted here occurred probably during the reign of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

"Nebo", "Kiriathaim" – both these towns at one time belonged to Israel (Num 32:3,37,38; Josh 13:19). Moab had claimed them for itself.

"Misgab" – the word means "stronghold."
48:2 "Madmen" – the name of a town in Moab. It sounds like the Hebrew word that means "be silenced."

48:2-6 Heshbon also had once belonged to Israel (Num 32:37; Josh 13:17). The locations of these other towns are not known.

48:7 Any individual, any people, anywhere, anytime, who trust in their own works and wealth will come to a sad, hopeless end (Ps 52:5-7; Luke 12:15-21).

"Chemosh" – the national god of Moab,

- 9 Give wings to Moab, that it may flee
and get away;
for its cities will be desolate,
without anyone to live in them.
- 10 "Cursed be he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he who keeps his sword
back from blood.
- 11 "Moab has been at ease from his youth,
and he has settled like wine on his dregs,
and not been emptied from vessel to vessel;
nor has he gone into captivity.
Therefore his flavour remains in him,
and his aroma has not changed.
- 12 Therefore, see, the days are coming,
says the LORD,
when I will send to him those who tilt bottles,
and they will tilt him over and empty
his jars and break his bottles.
- 13 And Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh,
as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence.
- 14 "How can you say,
'We are mighty and strong men for the war?'
- 15 Moab is destroyed, and has gone up out of her cities,
and his chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter, says the King,
whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 16 The calamity of Moab is coming soon,
and his affliction comes quickly.
- 17 All of you around him, mourn for him,
and all of you who know his name say,
'How the strong staff is broken,
the beautiful rod!'
- 18 "You, daughter, who live in Dibon,
- come down from your glory,
and sit on the thirsty ground ;
for the destroyer of Moab will come on you and will destroy your strongholds.
- 19 O inhabitant of Aroer,
stand by the way, and see!
Question him who is fleeing and her
who is escaping, and say,
'What has happened?'
- 20 Moab is put to shame,
for it is shattered. Wail and cry.
Tell in Arnon that Moab is ruined,
- 21 And judgment has come on the land of the plain, on Holon, and on Jahazah, and on Mephaath,
- 22 And on Dibon, and on Nebo,
and on Beth-Diblathaim,
- 23 And on Kiriathaim, and on Beth-Gamul,
and on Beth-Meon,
- 24 And on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.
- 25 Moab's horn is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the LORD.
- 26 Make him drunk, for he exalted himself against the LORD.
Moab will also wallow in his vomit,
and become an object of derision.
- 27 For was not Israel an object of derision to you?
Was he found among thieves, for you to shake your head when you speak of him?
- 28 O you who live in Moab,
leave the cities,
and live among the rocks,
and be like the dove that makes her nest in the sides of a cave's mouth.
- 29 "We have heard of the pride of Moab pronounced Key-mosh. In 1 Kings 11:7,33 and 2 Kings 23:13 he is called a detestable, vile god. He was very like Molech, the god of the Ammonites (note at Jer 7:31). In the destruction of Moab he was no more able to save himself or the people than they were.

48:10 "Deceitfully" – or "laxly" or "carelessly". How important it is for every Christian worker to keep this warning in mind whatever his work.

"Blood" – this word refers, of course, only to the destruction of Moab and its people at that time. But always when God uses others as an instrument for punishing individuals or peoples He wants the work done thoroughly. Compare Ex 32:25-29.

48:11 Moab as a nation had had a comparatively easy time.

48:13 Verse 7. They will be ashamed because Chemosh will be proved to be a helpless, useless, dead god. The northern kingdom of Israel experienced the same shame regarding their idol at Bethel (1 Kings 12:28-33; Hos 10:15; Amos 5:5,6). The worship of Israel there did not keep them from destruction and exile.

48:15 "The King" – 46:18.

48:18 "Dibon" – a town once in Israel's possession, then in Moab's hands.

48:19,20 Aroer was a town on the banks of the Arnon river.

48:21 The plateau of Moab is about 3000 feet above sea level.

48:25 Horn and arm signify authority, power, strength.

48:26,27 Here are two further reasons why Moab would be destroyed. It defied God and it ridiculed God's people. Moab will be treated as it treated others (Zeph 2:8-10). This is a principle seen in many places in God's Word. The cup of God's anger will make them senseless and fainting (see 25:15-17,21).

48:29 A further reason for Moab's destruction (Prov 6:16,17; 11:2; 16:18; 18:12;

- (he is exceedingly proud),
 his self-exaltation and his arrogance
 and his pride,
 and the haughtiness of his heart.
- 30 I know his excessive rage,
 says the LORD, but it is useless;
 his lying boasts will not accomplish anything.
- 31 Therefore I will wail for Moab,
 and I will cry out for all of Moab.
My heart will mourn for the men of Kir-Heres.
- 32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for you like the weeping for Jazer.
 Your branches have gone over the sea,
 they reach even to the sea of Jazer.
 The destroyer has fallen on your summer fruits and on your vintage.
- 33 And joy and gladness has been taken from the fruitful field,
 and from the land of Moab;
 and I have caused the wine to fail
 from the winepresses.
 No one will trample the grapes with shouting.
Their shouting will not be shouts of joy.
- 34 "From the cry of Heshbon to Elealeh and to Jahaz they have made their voice heard, from Zoar to Horonaim, like a three-year old heifer, for the waters of Nimrim also will become desolate.
- 35 Moreover I will put a stop in Moab,
 says the LORD,
 to him who offers on the high places,
 and to him who burns incense to his gods.
- 36 Therefore my heart will sound for Moab
 like flutes,
 and my heart will sound like flutes for the men of Kir-Heres,
- because the riches that he has gotten have perished.
- 37 For every head will be shaved bald,
 and every beard cut off.
 There will be cuts on every hand,
 and sackcloth around the waist.
- 38 There will be lamentation everywhere,
 on all the housetops of Moab,
 and in its streets,
 for I have broken Moab like a jar that I have no pleasure in, says the LORD.
- 39 They will wail, saying,
 'How it is broken down!
 How Moab has turned his back with shame!
 So Moab will be an object of derision and dismay to all those around him.
- 40 "For thus says the LORD:
 See, he will fly like an eagle,
 and will spread his wings over Moab.
- 41 Kerioth will be taken,
 and the strongholds will be surprised,
 and in that day the hearts of the mighty men in Moab will be like the heart of a woman in labour.
- 42 And Moab will be destroyed as a people, because he has exalted himself against
 the LORD.
- 43 Fear and the pit and the snare will be on you, O inhabitant of Moab,
 says the LORD.
- 44 He who flees from the fear will fall into the pit, and he who gets out of the pit will be captured in the snare;
 for I will bring on it, on Moab,
 the year of their punishment,
 says the LORD.
- 45 "Those who fled stand under the 29:23; Jam 4:6). Moab's pride was well known (Isa 25:10,11; Zeph 2:8,10). But what reasons for pride did Moab have? The founder of their nation was the offspring of an incestuous relationship (Gen 19:36,37). Their god was vile and they sometimes sacrificed their children in the fire to him; they were never a large or strong or wise or righteous nation. Let us learn from this that human pride does not need any outward circumstances to feed on. People who have least reason to be proud sometimes have more pride than anyone else. And pride, a dark and destructive force, lurks in the hearts of all men until it is dealt with in the presence of God.

48:30-39 In this remarkable section God, who was bringing justly deserved destruction on Moab, expresses His great sorrow over them. This was a people other than His people Israel, who were often enemies of Israel. Still God could not see their destruction without pain in His heart. To punish men for their many sins and great evils God justly causes armies to march on earth and through them brings much bloodshed, destruction, and misery. But He groans when He has to do it (v 31), His compassionate heart makes mournful noises like the sad notes of a flute (v 36 – flutes were often played by mourners at funerals). Compare Luke 19:41-44.

48:35 This is the fifth reason why God determined to destroy Moab (the other reasons are in vs 7,26,27,29). They had other gods besides Chemosh. Idolaters do not usually stop at one god.

48:37 Signs of mourning (16:6).

48:38 Notice the Lord's words "I have broken Moab." He both broke and groaned and lamented at the breaking.

48:40 Deut 28:49; Ezek 17:3,12. Nebuchadnezzar and his army.

shadow of Heshbon without strength;
 but a fire will come out of Heshbon,
 and a flame from inside Sihon,
 and will devour the forehead of Moab, and the crown of the head of the riotous ones.

46 Woe to you, O Moab!
 The people of Chemosh perish;
 for your sons are taken as captives,
 and your daughters as captives.

47 "Yet I will bring back the captives of Moab in the latter days, says the LORD."
 Thus far the judgment on Moab.

49 Concerning the Ammonites thus says the LORD:

"Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir?
 Why then does their king inherit Gad,
 and his people live in his cities?

2 Therefore, see, the days are coming,
 says the LORD,
 when I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites;
 and it will become a desolate heap,
 and its daughters will be burned with fire.
 Then Israel will be the heir of those who were his heirs, says the LORD.

3 Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is ruined.
 Cry out, you daughters of Rabbah!
 Tie on sackcloth!
 Lament, and run to and fro by the walls!
 For their king will go into captivity,
 together with his priests and his officials.

4 Why do you glory in the valleys,
 your flowing valley,
 O backsliding daughter?
 You who trusted in your treasures, saying, 'Who will come to me?'

5 See, I will bring fear on you,
 says the Lord God of hosts,
 from all those who are around you;
 and every one of you will be driven out headlong,
 and no one will gather the fugitives.

6 But afterwards I will bring back the captives of the children of Ammon,
 says the LORD."

7 Concerning Edom thus says the LORD of hosts:
 "Is wisdom no longer in Teman?
 Has counsel perished from the prudent?
 Has their wisdom vanished?

8 Flee! Turn back!
 Live in the deep places,
 O inhabitants of Dedan;
 for I will bring on Esau the calamity due to him,
 the time when I will punish him.

9 If grape pickers came to you,
 would they not leave some gleaning grapes?
 If thieves came at night,
 they would destroy only until they have enough.

10 But I have made Esau bare.
 I have uncovered his secret places,
 and he will not be able to hide himself.
 His offspring and his brethren and his 48:47 Moab was destroyed as a nation (v 42). But some of its people survived. The time of the restoration of Moab is not given. This word may be fulfilled during Christ's future reign on earth.

49:1-6 Other messages concerning the Ammonites are Ezek 25:1-7; Amos 1:13-15; Zeph 2:8-11. The land of Ammon was north of Moab, east of the Jordan river. The Ammonites were related to the Moabites, being descended, as they were, from Abraham's nephew Lot (Gen 19:36-38).

49:1 "Their king" – or "Malcom", another name for Molech god of Ammon. The Hebrew word means "king", but here it may be taken as a name of a false god, sometimes written "Molech", sometimes "Malcom", sometimes "Milcom." Note at Jer 7:31.

"Gad" – the territory of the Israelite tribe of Gad east of the Jordan river (Josh 13:24-28). After the fall of the northern kingdom of Israel the Ammonites took possession of Gad's territory.

49:2 Rabbah was the chief city of the Ammonites. Today the capital of the kingdom of Jordan is located in the same place.

49:3 "Heshbon" – 48:45.

"Ai" – not the city in Joshua chapter 8.
 "King" – or "Molech." This god would prove as worthless and powerless as Chemosh of Moab (48:7).

49:4 God here calls a people other than Israel "daughter". He uses this same phrase concerning Judah in 31:22.

"Treasures" – 48:7.

49:6 "Bring back the captives" – or "restore the well-being."

49:7-22 Other messages concerning Edom are Isa 21:11,12; Ezek 25:12-14; Amos 1:11,12; Obad 1-16; Mal 1:3-5. Edom was located south of Moab, south of the Dead sea. Edom's people were descended from Esau, Jacob's brother (Gen 36:1,9).

49:7 "Wisdom" – Edomites were famous for worldly wisdom.

"Teman" – one of Edom's important towns. One of Job's friends, Eliphaz, was from there (Job 2:11).

49:10 "No more" – God determined to leave no survivors whatever among the Edomites, unlike His purpose for the Moabites and Ammonites (Obad 18). For the reason for this severe judgment of God see Ezek 25:12-14; Obad 10-14).

neighbours are ruined, and he is no more.
 11 Leave your fatherless children;
 I will keep them alive.
 And let your widows trust in me.

12 "For thus says the LORD: See, those who were not sentenced to drink from the cup have assuredly drunk; and are you the one who is to go altogether unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but you will surely drink it. 13 For I have sworn by myself, says the LORD, that Bozrah will become a desolation, a reproach, a wasteland, and a curse, and all its cities will be wastelands forever."

14 I have heard a message from the LORD, and an ambassador has been sent to
 the nations:

"Gather together and come against her,
 and rise up for the battle.

15 For, see, I will make you small among the nations, and despised among men.

16 The terror you inspire and the pride of your heart have deceived you,
 O you who live in the clefts of the rock,
 who hold the height of the hill.

Though you make your nest as high as the eagle,

I will bring you down from there,
 says the LORD.

17 And Edom will become a desolation.
 Everyone who goes by it will be astonished,
 and will hiss at all its plagues.

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring cities,
 says the LORD, no one will remain there,
 and no son of man will live in it.

19 See, he will come up like a lion from the flooding of the Jordan against the dwelling place of the strong;

but I will make him suddenly run away from her.

And who is the chosen man whom I
 may appoint over her?

For who is like me?

And who will appoint me the time?

And who is that shepherd who will stand before me?

20 Therefore hear the plan of the LORD
 that he has devised against Edom,
 and his purposes that he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman.
 Surely they will draw away the least of the flock;
 surely he will make their pastures
 desolate by them.

21 The earth is shaken at the noise of their fall, the noise of their cry is heard at the Red Sea.

22 See, he will come up and fly like an eagle,
 and spread his wings over Bozrah;
 and on that day the heart of the mighty men of Edom will be like the heart of a woman in labour."

23 Concerning Damascus:

"Hamath and Arpad are put to shame, for they have heard bad news and they are disheartened.

There is trouble on the sea;
 it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus has become feeble,
and has turned around to flee,
 and fear has seized her.

Anguish and pain have seized her,
 like a woman in labour.

25 Why has the praised city not been deserted, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore in that day her young men will fall in her streets,
 and all the men of war will be cut off,
 says the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it will consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad."

28 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked:

"Thus says the LORD:

Arise, go up to Kedar,
 and despoil the men of the east.

49:12 25:28,29.

49:13 This Bozrah is not the Bozrah of 48:24, which was in Moab.

49:14-16 See Obadiah 1-4. Like Moab Edom had much pride with little reason for it.

49:18 "Sodom" – Gen 19:24,25.

49:19 God states that He Himself is the one behind the destruction of Edom. The proud rulers of that people would learn that there is no success in resisting the God of Israel,
 the King of the universe.

49:22 "Eagle" – 48:40.

49:23 Damascus was and is the capital city of Syria. Hamath and Arpad were cities north of Damascus. For other messages concerning

Damascus see Isa 17:1-3 and Amos 1:3-5.
49:25 Damascus even then was an old city
 (Gen 14:15), famous for beauty.

49:26 "That day" – we cannot be sure exactly what time is referred to here. Isa 17:1 speaks of a complete destruction of Damascus that has not yet taken place.

49:27 God Himself will see to the punishment of Damascus.

"Ben-Hadad" – the king of Damascus in the days of Asa, King of Judah (1 Kings 15:18).

49:28 Kedar was the home of wandering tribes in the Arabian desert (Isa 21:13-15).
 A son of Ishmael named Kedar probably

- 29 They will take away their tents and their flocks;
they will take their tent curtains,
and all their goods,
and their camels for themselves;
and they will cry out to them,
'Fear is on every side.'
30 Flee! Go far away!
Live in the deep places,
O inhabitants of Hazor, says the LORD, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has made a plot against you,
and has conceived of a plan against you.
31 Arise, go up to the wealthy nation,
which lives without care, says the LORD,
which has neither gates nor bars,
which lives alone.
32 And their camels will become booty,
and their many cattle plunder;
and I will scatter to all the winds
those who are in the farthest corners, and I will bring their calamity from every side of it, says the LORD.
33 And Hazor will become a den for jackals,
and a desolation forever.
No man will remain there,
and no son of man will live in it."
34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,
35 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:
See, I will break the bow of Elam,
the chief of their might.
36 And I will bring the four winds from

- the four quarters of heaven on it,
and will scatter them toward all those winds;
and there is no nation where those thrown out of Elam will not go.
37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed
before their enemies,
and before those who seek their life,
and I will bring disaster on them,
my fierce anger, says the LORD;
and I will send the sword after them,
until I have consumed them;
38 And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there the king and the princes, says the LORD.
39 But it will come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring back the captives
of Elam, says the LORD."

50 The word that the LORD spoke against Babylon, against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

- 2 "Declare it among the nations,
and proclaim it, and set up a banner.
Proclaim it, and do not conceal it.
Say, 'Babylon is taken,
Bel has been put to shame,
Merodach is broken in pieces.
Her idols have been put to shame,
her images are broken in pieces.'
3 For from the north a nation comes up against her,
which will make her land desolate,
and no one will live in it.
They will move, they will depart, gave his name to this tribe and area (Gen 25:13). This Hazor is not the city of the same name north of the sea of Galilee (Josh 11:1), but an area in the Arabian desert near Kedar.

49:31 The language suggests the people were nomads with no settled towns. There is no promise concerning these people such as we see in 46:26; 48:47; 49:6.

49:33 "Jackals" – see the note at 9:11.

49:34 Elam was the name of a region east of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers in what is today the country of Iran.

49:36 This indicates trouble from every direction. "The four winds" signify forces of destruction sent by God in judgment.

49:38 "Set my throne" – means He will manifest His power and authority over that people. Compare 1:15.

49:39 46:26; 48:47; 49:6; Acts 2:9.

"Bring back the captives" – or "restore the well-being."

50:1 Babylonia was the dominant political and military power during much of Jeremiah's ministry. He had seen the rise of Babylon and had spoken God's word concerning its victories (20:4-6; 27:3-7; 46:24). In this chapter and the next he prophesies its defeat and fall. See also 25:12-14,26; Isaiah chapter 13; 21:1-9.

"Chaldeans" (also in vs 8,25,35,45) – Babylonians.

50:2 "Proclaim" – all the nations should know what God is going to do to Babylon. Jeremiah sent the contents of these two chapters to Babylon itself (51:59-64).

"Bel" means Lord. He was the same as Marduk, the chief god of Babylon. Bel was similar to the god Baal worshiped by several nations around Israel and by Israel too at times in their history (7:9; 11:13; 19:5; 23:27). The true God says Bel will be proved as worthless and powerless as the gods of the nations Babylon conquered (48:7; 49:3). Babylon possibly above all nations at that time was a land of many gods and idols (v 38). But all of them put together would be helpless when Jehovah God arose to punish Babylon.

50:3 "From the north a nation" – in Jeremiah this sometimes means the alliance of the Medes and Persians. This nation captured

- both man and beast.
- 4 In those days, and at that time,
says the LORD,
the children of Israel will come,
they and the children of Judah together,
walking along and weeping;
they will come and seek the LORD their God.
- 5 They will ask the way to Zion with their faces toward it, saying,
'Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a permanent covenant that will not be forgotten.'
- 6 "My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have caused them to go astray.
They have turned away on the mountains.
They have gone from mountain to hill.
They have forgotten their resting place.
- 7 All who found them devoured them,
and their adversaries said,
'We are not to blame, because they have sinned against the LORD,
the habitation of justice,
the LORD, the hope of their fathers.'
- 8 Move out of the midst of Babylon,
and go out of the land of the Chaldeans,
and be like the male goats in front of the flocks.
- 9 For, see, I will raise up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the land of the north,
and cause them to come;
and they will set themselves in array
against her.
From there she will be taken.
Their arrows will be like those of a skillful warrior;
none will return in vain.
- 10 And Chaldea will become plunder.
All who plunder her will be satisfied,
says the LORD.
- 11 Because you were glad,
because you rejoiced,
- O you destroyers of my inheritance, because you have grown fat like a heifer threshing grain,
and you bellow like bulls,
- 12 Your mother will be greatly disgraced;
she who gave you birth will be ashamed.
See, she will become the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land,
and a desert.
- 13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it will not be inhabited,
but will be completely desolate.
Everyone who goes by Babylon will be astonished,
and hiss at all her plagues.
- 14 "Put yourselves in array against Babylon all around.
All you who bend the bow, shoot at her,
spare no arrows,
for she has sinned against the LORD.
- 15 Shout against her all around.
She has given her hand in surrender;
her foundations have fallen,
her walls have been torn down;
for it is the vengeance of the LORD.
Take vengeance on her.
Do to her as she has done.
- 16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one who handles the sickle
in the time of harvest.
Every one of them will turn away to his people for fear of the oppressing sword, and everyone will flee to his own land.
- 17 Israel is like scattered sheep.
The lions have driven him away.
First the king of Assyria devoured him,
and at last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones.
- 18 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel:
See, I will punish the king of Babylon
and his land,
as I have punished the king of Assyria.

her. Babylon was being repaid in her own coin – Ps 137:8; Jer 25:14; Rev 18:6.

50:17 Verse 6.

50:18 The capital of Assyria, Nineveh, fell

- 19 And I will bring Israel back to his dwelling place, and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul will be satisfied on mount Ephraim and Gilead.
- 20 In those days, and at that time,
says the LORD,
the wickedness of Israel will be sought for,
and none will be there,
and the sins of Judah, and they will not be found,
for I will pardon those whom I keep.
- 21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, against it and against the inhabitants of Pekod.
Lay waste and utterly destroy after them,
says the LORD,
and act in accordance with all that I have commanded you.
- 22 A sound of battle and of great destruction is in the land.
- 23 How the hammer of the whole earth is cut in two and broken!
How Babylon has become a desolation
among the nations!
- 24 I have laid a snare for you,
and you were also caught, O Babylon,
and you were not aware of it.
You were found, and also captured,
because you have fought against the LORD.
- 25 The LORD has opened his armoury, and has brought out the weapons of his indignation;
for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts
in the land of the Chaldeans.
- 26 Come against her from the farthest border.
Open her storehouses.
Pile her up like heaps of grain,
and completely destroy her.
Let nothing of her be left.
- 27 Slay all her bulls;
let them go down to the slaughter.
- Woe to them! For their day has come,
the time of their punishment.
- 28 The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon declares in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
the vengeance concerning his temple.
- 29 "Call together the archers against Babylon.
All you who bend the bow, camp against it all around.
Let no one belonging to it escape.
Repay her according to her deeds, do to her in accordance with all that she has done;
for she has been proud against the LORD,
against the Holy One of Israel.
- 30 Therefore her young men will fall in the streets,
and all her warriors will be cut off
in that day, says the LORD.
- 31 See, I am against you, O most proud,
says the Lord God of hosts,
and your day has come,
the time when I will punish you.
- 32 And the most proud one will stumble and fall,
and no one will raise him up;
and I will kindle a fire in his cities,
and it will devour all around him."
- 33 Thus says the LORD of hosts:
"The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together, and all who took them captives
held them fast;
they refused to let them go.
- 34 Their Redeemer is strong.
The LORD of hosts is his name.
He will thoroughly plead their case,
that he may give rest to the land,
but unrest to the inhabitants of Babylon.
- 35 A sword is over the Chaldeans,
says the LORD,
and over the inhabitants of Babylon,

in 612 BC. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.
50:20 This is what God's forgiveness means.
It makes the guilty as if they had not sinned at all. See notes on forgiveness and justification at Gen 15:6; Ps 32:1,2; Matt
6:12; Rom 3:21-26; etc.

50:21 Merathaim means "double rebellion."
Because of its rebellion against Him (vs 24,29), God may be calling Babylon by this name. Pekod means "punishment" in Hebrew. In Babylonia it was an area just beyond the Tigris River (Ezek 23:23).

50:23 "Hammer" – Babylon was an instrument in God's hands to shatter the nations. Now it would be shattered.
Compare Isa 10:5; Jer 51:20-23.

50:24 The Medes and Persians captured
Babylon in a surprise attack.

50:25 "Weapons" – other nations (Isa 13:5).

50:27 Bulls may mean here the soldiers of Babylon.

50:28 "Those who flee" – Jews who escaped from Babylon and returned to Judah.

"Vengeance concerning his temple" –
2 Kings 24:13; Jer 51:11; 52:13.

50:29-32 Pride was one of the great sins of Babylon also (48:29; 49:16). An example of it is seen in Dan 4:29,30.

50:33 Compare Ex 5:2; 7:14; 8:32.

50:34 Jehovah God was not defeated when Israel was defeated. He was not weak because they had to weakly submit to their enemies (as those enemies might have thought). The time to show His strength on their behalf was coming.

- and over her princes,
and over her wise men.
- 36 A sword is over the false prophets and they will behave like fools.
A sword is over her mighty men,
and they will be dismayed.
- 37 A sword is over their horses and over their chariots and over all the mixed people who are in her midst,
and they will become like women.
A sword is over her treasures,
and they will be robbed.
- 38 A drought is on her waters,
and they will be dried up.
For it is the land of carved images,
and they are crazy about their idols.
- 39 "Therefore the wild beasts of the desert together with jackals will live there, and the owls will live in it;
and it will no longer be inhabited, forever;
it will not be lived in from generation
to generation.
- 40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring cities,
says the LORD,
so no one will remain there,
and no son of man will live in it.
- 41 "See, a people will come from the north, and a great nation and many kings will be raised up from the ends of the earth.
- 42 They will hold the bow and the lance.
They are cruel, and will not show mercy.
Their voice will roar like the sea,
and they will ride on horses, everyone set in array like men for battle, against you,
O daughter of Babylon.
- 43 The king of Babylon has heard the report about them,
and his hands have become weak.
Anguish has seized him, and pangs like a woman in labour.
- 44 See, he will come up like a lion from the flooding of the Jordan to the dwelling place of the strong;
but I will make them suddenly run away from her.
And who is the chosen man whom I
may appoint over her?
For who is like me?
And who will appoint me the time?
And who is that shepherd who can stand against me?"
- 45 Therefore hear the plan of the LORD,
that he has devised against Babylon,
and his purposes, that he has formed against the land of the Chaldeans:
Surely the least of the flock will drag
them away;
surely he will make their dwelling place desolate by them.
- 46 At the sound of the capture of Babylon
the earth will shake,
and the cry will be heard among the nations.

- 51 Thus says the LORD:
"See, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who live in the midst of those who rise up against me,
a destroying wind,
2 And will send winnowers to Babylon who will winnow her and empty her land;
for in the day of trouble they will be against her all around.
3 Against him who bends a bow let the archer bend his bow,
and against him who lifts himself up
in his armour;

"Redeemer" – note at Ps 78:35.

50:38 No land that gives itself to idolatry as Babylon did can finally prosper. The idolatry that she delighted in was one of the main causes of her downfall.

"Crazy about their idols" – or "glory in their idols" or "boast about their idols" or "foolish about their idols." However it is translated it reveals the madness in the hearts of those people who prefer a dumb idol to the living God.

50:39,40 Verse 13; 51:37,62; Isa 13:19-22. This did not happen immediately after their defeat by the Medes and Persians. The city gradually decayed, completely lost its importance, and was at last utterly abandoned. Only heaps of ruins remain today. Its place became as barren and devoid of human life as Sodom and Gomorrah. Some Bible teachers think that Babylon will be rebuilt at the end of this age and will become the Babylon of Revelation chapters 17 and 18. The language of Jeremiah and Isaiah seems to make impossible the rebuilding of a literal great city of Babylon.

50:41-43 See 6:22-24 where Babylon itself is meant. Here the same words refer to the armies coming against Babylon.

50:44-46 See 49:19-21 where the words are spoken against Edom. Here the same words refer to Babylon's fall.

51:1 "I will raise up" – v 11; 1 Chron 5:26; 2 Chron 21:16; Isa 13:17; Ezek 23:22; Amos 6:14; Hab 1:6. To fulfill His purposes in the earth God can and sometimes does stir up one nation against another.

"Those who rise up against me" – here refers to Babylonia.

- and do not spare her young men.
Completely destroy all her army.
- 4 Thus the slain will fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
and those who are pierced in her streets.
- 5 For neither Israel nor Judah has been forsaken by his God,
by the LORD of hosts,
even though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.”
- 6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon,
and everyone rescue his soul.
Do not be cut off in her wickedness.
For this is the time of the LORD’s vengeance; he will repay her.
- 7 Babylon has been a golden cup in the LORD’s hand,
that has made the whole earth drunk.
The nations have drunk of her wine,
therefore the nations have gone mad.
- 8 Babylon has suddenly fallen and been destroyed. Wail for her.
Take balm for her pain;
perhaps she may be healed.
- 9 “We would have healed Babylon,
but she is not healed.
Forsake her, and let each of us go to his own country,
for her judgment reaches to heaven,
and is lifted up to the skies.
- 10 The LORD has revealed our righteousness.
Come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.
- 11 Make the arrows bright!
Gather the shields!
The LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes,
for his plan against Babylon is to destroy it;
because it is the vengeance of the LORD,
- the vengeance concerning his temple.
12 Set up the banner on the walls of Babylon!
Make the guard strong!
Station the watchmen!
Prepare the ambushes!
For the LORD has both planned and done what he spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.
- 13 O you who live on many waters, abundant in treasures,
your end has come,
and the measure of your covetousness.
- 14 The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself, saying, “Surely I will fill you with men,
as with locusts;
and they will raise a shout against you.”
- 15 He has made the earth by his power,
has established the world by his wisdom,
and has stretched out the heavens by
his understanding.
- 16 When he utters his voice,
there is a roar of waters in the heavens,
and he causes the vapours to ascend
from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning with rain,
and brings the wind out of his treasuries.
- 17 Every man is stupid, without knowledge.
Every metal worker is put to shame by the carved image,
for his cast metal image is a lie,
and there is no breath in them.
- 18 They are worthless, the work of error.
In the time of their punishment they will perish.
- 19 The Portion of Jacob is not like them;
for he is the Maker of all things,
and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance.
The LORD of hosts is his name.
- 20 “You are my war club,
my weapons for battle;

51:5 When God acts as He does among the nations He always has His people in His heart and mind (Zech 2:8).

51:6 “Flee” – this looks forward many years from the time of writing. Rev 18:4 has a similar call to come out of figurative Babylon at the end of this age.

“Vengeance” – 50:15; Rev 18:5-8.

51:7 “In the LORD’s hand” – the Lord used Babylon to punish other nations, to make them senseless and staggering, to make them suddenly fall.

51:8,9 Jewish (and other) exiles in Babylon had lived there long enough to try to heal her, to pity her when she fell. In the book of Daniel we see something of the witness for the true God given in Babylon (2:27; 3:16-18; 4:24,25; 5:18-23).

51:10 This is a prophecy that looks forward many years. The exiles from Judah and Jerusalem speak. They have learned many lessons in Babylon, have repented, sought and found God (29:10-14). Now God brings their righteousness to the light (Ps 37:6).

51:11 “Medes” – v 28; Isa 13:17; Dan 5:28,31.

51:13 “Waters” – the great river Euphrates, with the river Tigris not far distant, and a very extensive system of canals.

51:15-19 See 10:12-16. Many peoples of that day made the mistake of thinking that Jehovah, the God of Israel, was only one deity among a great many (just as many people today mistakenly think the God of Christians is only one of many). Here God proclaims to the Babylonians who He really is, and how worthless is all worship other than the worship of the true God.

51:20-23 “My war club” – in 50:23 Babylon

- for with you I will break the nations in pieces, and with you I will destroy kingdoms,
- 21 And with you I will break the horse
and its rider in pieces,
and with you I will break the chariot
and its rider in pieces,
- 22 With you I will also break man and woman in pieces,
and with you I will break old and young
in pieces,
and with you I will break the young man
and the maiden in pieces;
- 23 With you I will also break the shepherd
and his flock in pieces, and with you I will break the farmer and his yoke of oxen in pieces, and with you I will break captains and rulers in pieces.
- 24 And I will repay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says the LORD.
- 25 "See, I am against you,
O destroying mountain, who destroys the whole earth,
says the LORD,
and I will stretch out my hand over you,
and roll you down from the rocks,
and will make you a burnt mountain.
- 26 And they will not take a stone for a corner from you,
or a stone for foundations;
but you will be desolate forever,
says the LORD.
- 27 "Set up a banner in the land.
Blow the trumpet among the nations.
Prepare the nations against her.
Call together the kingdoms of Ararat,
Minni, and Ashkenaz against her.
Appoint a commander against her.
Cause the horses to come up like the bristling locusts.
- 28 Prepare the nations against her,
with the kings of the Medes,
its commanders, and all its rulers,
- and the whole land of his dominion.
- 29 And the land will tremble and writhe, for every purpose of the LORD will be accomplished against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.
- 30 The mighty men of Babylon have stopped fighting.
They remain in their strongholds.
Their might has failed.
They have become like women.
They have burned her dwelling places.
The bars of her gates are broken.
- 31 One courier runs to meet another,
and one messenger to meet another,
to tell the king of Babylon that his city has been captured from end to end,
- 32 And that the river fords are blocked,
that they have burned the reeds with fire,
that the warriors are terrified.
- 33 "For thus says the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel:
The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor;
it is time to thresh her.
Yet a little while, and the time of her harvest will come."
- 34 "Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon,
has devoured me.
He has crushed me.
He has made me an empty jar.
He has swallowed me up like a monster.
He has filled his stomach with my delicacies.
He has thrown me out.
- 35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon," says the inhabitant of Zion.
"And my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea," says Jerusalem.
- 36 Therefore thus says the LORD:
"See, I will plead your case, and take vengeance for you;
and I will dry up her sea, is compared to a hammer in 50:23 and to a gold cup in 51:7. Now it is called a war club (though some think this means the Medes and Persians). But see whose hand holds this "war club". Though Babylon shattered nations and peoples it was only an instrument which God used.

51:24 Nations will be judged according to their behavior to God's people. See Deut 32:10; Zech 2:8; compare Matt 25:31-46. 51:25 God used Babylon to destroy others but will in turn destroy it, make it like an extinct volcano (mountain here signifies a kingdom. Compare Dan 2:35,44,45). 51:27 Verse 11. Other kingdoms were allied to the Medes and Persians. These three were located north of Babylon and the land of the Medes. They had come under the power of the Medes (v 28).

51:33 "Daughter" – 4:31; 43:11,24; 49:4; 50:42.

51:34,35 The exiles from Jerusalem speak. For notes on such prayers against enemies see Ps 35:8.

51:36-40 "Therefore" – God will act according to their cries to Him.

- and make her springs dry.
 37 And Babylon will become ruins,
 a dwelling place for jackals,
 an object of astonishment and hissing,
 without an inhabitant.
 38 They will roar together like lions;
 they will growl like lion cubs.
 39 In their feverish activity I will make feasts for them, and I will make them drunk,
 so that they may rejoice,
 and sleep a permanent sleep,
 and not wake up, says the LORD.
 40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.
 41 How Sheshach is captured!
 And how the praise of the whole earth is surprised!
 How Babylon has become an object of astonishment among the nations!
 42 The sea has come up on Babylon.
 She is covered with its many waves.
 43 Her cities are a desolation,
 a dry land, and a wilderness,
 a land where no one lives,
 where no son of man passes by.
 44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring out of his mouth
 what he has swallowed up.
 And the nations will no longer go streaming to him;
 yes, the wall of Babylon will fall.
 45 "My people, go out of her midst, and each one of you rescue his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.
 46 Then do not let your heart faint, or fear for the rumour that will be heard in the land.
 A rumour will come one year,
 and after that, in another year,
 a rumour will come,
 and violence will be in the land,
 ruler against ruler.
 47 Therefore, see, the days come, when I will bring judgment on the carved images of Babylon,
 and her whole land will be put to shame,
 and all her slain will fall in her midst.
 48 Then the heavens and the earth,
 and all that is in them,
 will shout for joy over Babylon;
 for the destroyers will come to her from the north, says the LORD.
 49 "As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall,
 so at Babylon will fall the slain of all the earth.
 50 You who have escaped the sword, go away.
 Do not stand still.
 Remember the LORD from afar,
 and let Jerusalem come into your mind." 51 "We are ashamed because we have heard reproach.
 Shame has covered our faces, for foreigners have come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house." 52 "Therefore, see, the days are coming,
 says the LORD,
 when I will judge her carved images;
 and through all her land the wounded
 will groan.
 53 Even though Babylon mounts up to heaven,
 and though she fortifies her high stronghold, yet destroyers will come from me to her, says the LORD."
 54 A sound of a cry comes from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans;
 55 Because the LORD has destroyed Babylon,
 and silenced her loud voice,
 when her waves roared like great waters,
 and the noise of their voice sounded out, 56 Because the destroyer has come on her,
 on Babylon,
 and her mighty men are captured.
 Every one of their bows is broken.
 For the LORD God of retribution will certainly repay.
 57 "And I will make her princes and her wise men drunk,
 also her captains and her rulers,
 and her mighty men;
 and they will sleep a permanent sleep,
 and not wake up, says the King,

51:37 "Jackals" – see note at 9:11.

51:41 "Sheshach" – 25:26. Indicates Babylon.

51:42 "Sea" – probably used here symbolically for enemy armies (v 55; compare 46:7,8; Isa 17:12).

51:44 "Bel" – note at 50:2.

51:47 "Judgment" – v 52. Compare Ex 12:12.

51:48 Compare Rev 19:1-3. The fall of a cruel, blood-stained, God-defying system will be a cause of great joy.

51:49 Verses 5, 10, 24; Zech 2:8.

51:50 "Remember" – 29:10-14; Ps 137:6.

51:51 The exiles of Judah and Jerusalem speak. Nebuchadnezzar's army had defiled the temple in Jerusalem.

51:56 "God of retribution" – Deut 32:35,40-43; Ps 54:5; Rom 12:19.

51:57 "Drunk" – v 39; 25:15,16,26.

whose name is the LORD of hosts.”

58 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

“The broad walls of Babylon will be utterly broken down,
and her high gates will be burned with fire;
and the people will labour in vain,
and the nation, because of the fire;
and they will be faint.”

59 This is the word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet officer. 60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book the whole disaster that would come on Babylon, all these words that are written against Babylon. 61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “When you arrive in Babylon, and see it, and read all these words, 62 then you shall say, ‘O LORD, you have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that nothing remains in it, whether man or beast. It will be desolate forever.’ 63 And it shall be, when you have finished reading this book, that you will tie a stone to it, and hurl it into the middle of the Euphrates; 64 and you shall say, ‘Babylon will sink like this, and will not rise from the disaster that I will bring on her; and they will be faint.’”

Thus far the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Hamutal, who was the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 2 And he did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD, in accordance with all that Jehoiakim had done. 3 For through the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out of his presence.

And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 And it came about in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem and encamped against it and built siege works against it all around. 5 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken in, and all the warriors fled, and went out of the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king’s garden, though the Chaldeans were surrounding the city, and went away on the road to the plain. 8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and led him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath. There he gave judgment on him. 10 And the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in front of his eyes. Also at Riblah he killed all the officials of Judah. 11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah. And the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and took him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, commander of the guard, serving the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem, 13 and burned the house of the LORD, and the king’s house. And he burned with fire all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men. 14 And all the army of the Chaldeans that was with the commander of the guard, broke down all the surrounding walls of Jerusalem. 15 Then Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard took away captive some of the poor people and the rest of the people who remained in the city, and those who had defected, who had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen. 16 But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vineyard workers and farmers.

17 Also the Chaldeans broke up the bronze pillars that were at the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were at the house of the LORD, and carried away all their bronze to Babylon. 18 They also took away the pots and the shovels and the snuffers and the bowls and the spoons, and all the bronze articles with which the priests ministered. 19 And the commander of the guard took away the basins and the firepans and the bowls and the pots and the lampstands and the spoons and the cups, what had been made of gold as gold, and what had been made of silver as silver, 20 and the two pillars, one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the stands, which 51:58 “Burned with fire” – how often this is true of the great works of men, and even of the effort of some servants of Christ (1 Cor 3:12-15).

51:59 Seraiah was the brother of Baruch, Jeremiah’s colleague.

51:61 Compare 36:5,6.

51:63,64 Rev 18:21.

“Thus far the words of Jeremiah” – it seems, then, that chapter 52 was added by another servant of God.

52:1-27 This is found almost word for word in 2 Kings 24:18-25:21. See notes there. The Jeremiah in verse 1 here is not, of king Solomon had made at the house of the LORD. The bronze of all these articles was beyond weighing. 21 And concerning the pillars: the height of each pillar was eighteen cubits, and its circumference was twelve cubits, and its thickness was four fingers; it was hollow. 22 And a capital of bronze was on it, and the height of one capital was five cubits, with a network and pomegranates all around the capitals, all of bronze. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like these. 23 And there were ninety-six pomegranates on each side; and all the pomegranates all around on the network were a hundred.

24 And the commander of the guard took away Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. 25 He also took away from the city an officer in charge of the warriors, and seven of the king's advisors who were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city. 26 So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 27 And the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath.

Thus Judah was carried away captive from his own land.

28 These are the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand and twenty-three Jews; 29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive eight hundred and thirty-two persons from Jerusalem; 30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried away captive seven hundred and forty-five of the Jews; altogether these people were four thousand six hundred.

31 And it happened in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him out of prison, 32 and spoke kindly to him, and appointed his throne above the thrones of the kings who were with him in Babylon, 33 and changed his prison garments; and Jehoiachin ate food regularly in his presence all the days of his life. 34 And as for his provisions, there was a permanent ration given him by the king of Babylon, a portion each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

course, Jeremiah the prophet.

52:21 "Cubits" – a cubit is about 18 inches.
52:31-34 This is found almost word for word

in 2 Kings 25:27-30.

"Evil-Merodach" – he was also called "Amel-Marduk."

LAMENTATIONS

Author:

Jeremiah.

Date:

Sometime after 586 BC.

Themes:

A lament about the fall of Jerusalem in poetic language; the reason for it; Jeremiah's mental anguish; the spiritual lessons he declares; his prayer for the people of Israel. In the midst of the mournful lament we have the beautiful and meaningful words of 3:21-27.

- 1 How lonely the city sits,
she that was full of people!
How she has become like a widow,
she that was great among the nations!
And the princess among the provinces,
how she has become a forced labourer!
- 2 She weeps bitterly in the night,
 and her tears are on her cheeks.
 Among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her.
 All her friends have dealt treacherously with her,
 they have become her enemies.
- 3 Judah has gone into captivity under affliction and under great servitude.
 She lives among the nations;
 she finds no rest.
 All her persecutors have caught up with her in her distress.
- 4 The roads of Zion mourn, because no one comes to the solemn feasts.
 All her gates are desolate.
 Her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.
- 5 Her adversaries have become the masters,
 her enemies prosper.
 For the LORD has afflicted her because of her many transgressions.
 Her children have gone into captivity in the presence of the enemy.
- 6 And all her beauty has departed from the daughter of Zion.
 Her princes have become like deer

- that* find no pasture,
 and they have gone without strength
 before the pursuer.
- 7 In the days of her affliction and her miseries, when her people fell into the hands of the enemy,
 Jerusalem remembered all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old,
 but no one helped her.
Her adversaries saw her,
 and mocked at her Sabbaths.
- 8 Jerusalem has grievously sinned;
 therefore she has been removed.
 All who honoured her despise her,
 because they have seen her nakedness.
 Yes, she sighs and turns back.
- 9 Her filthiness is in her skirts.
 She did not consider her future,
 therefore her fall was amazing.
 She had no comforter.
 O LORD, see my affliction, for the enemy has exalted himself.
- 10 The adversary has spread out his hands on all her precious things, for she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary, those whom you had forbidden to enter your congregation.
- 11 All her people sigh; they seek bread;
 they have given their precious things
 for food to renew life.
 See, O LORD, and consider, for I am despised.
- 12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
 Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which has been brought on me,

1:1 The prophet expresses his deep grief that Jerusalem, the city of the King of heaven, had fallen into her enemies' hands and was crushed and deserted.

"Princess" – 1 Kings 4:21; Ps 48:2; 87:1-3.

1:2 "Lovers", "friends" – these speak of those peoples or nations for whom she had forsaken God, those whom she thought would help her against the Babylonians (Jer 2:36,37; 3:12; 4:30).

1:3 "Captivity" – 2 Chron 36:15-20.

"No rest" – this happened just as Moses had foretold many centuries before (Deut 28:65. See also Ps 137:1-4).

1:4 "Feasts" – Ex 23:14-17; Levi 23:1-44. "Bitterness" – Jer 9:17-22.

1:5 "Her many transgressions" – 2 Chron 36:14-16; Jer 2:8,9; 4:18; 6:19; 13:22,25. Jerusalem deserved all the destruction which came on her. And notice that it was "the LORD" who brought this destruction. He did so in perfect justice, after appealing to her many times to repent.

1:6 "Daughter" – compare Ps 9:14; 45:12; 137:8; Isa 1:8; Jer 6:2.

1:7 "No one helped her" – Jer 2:36,37; 37:7,8.

"Mocked" – v 21; Jer 48:26; Ezek 25:2-7; Obadiah 12; Zeph 2:8.

1:8 Verse 5.

1:9 "Future" – Deut 32:28,29. Compare Isa 47:7. Men close their eyes to the future and go on sinning without restraint. They do not think of the punishment God is going to send on them either in this world or the next.

"See my affliction" – the prophet writes as though Jerusalem were speaking.

1:10 "Precious things" – Jer 52:12-19.

1:11 "Seek bread" – a famine attended the destruction of Jerusalem – 2:20; Jer 14:12; 15:2; 16:4.

1:12 From this verse to the end of the chapter it is as though Jerusalem herself were speaking as an individual. The prophet who is speaking for her has been enabled by God's Spirit to understand the deep grief that was in the mind of the people and to

- which the LORD has inflicted on me in the day of his fierce anger.
- 13 He has sent fire from above into my bones,
and it has prevailed.
He has spread a net for my feet;
he has turned me back;
he has made me desolate and faint all day long.
- 14 The yoke of my transgressions was bound,
woven by his hands.
They have come onto my neck.
He has made my strength fall.
The Lord delivered me into the hands of those whom I was not able to withstand.
- 15 The Lord has trampled underfoot all my mighty men in my midst.
He called an assembly against me to crush my young men.
The Lord has trampled the virgin,
the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.
- 16 For these things I weep.
My eye, my eye flows with water, because the comforter who could relieve my soul is far from me.
My children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.
- 17 Zion spreads out her hands,
but there is no one to comfort her.
Concerning Jacob the LORD has commanded that his adversaries should surround him.
Jerusalem has become an unclean thing
among them.
- 18 The LORD is righteous;
for I have rebelled against his commandment.
Please listen, all you people, and see experience it with them (see Jer 4:19,20; 6:24,25; 9:1,10).

"Fierce anger" – Jer 4:8,26; 12:13; 25:37,38; 30:24. See notes on God's anger at Numbers 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

1:13 "Fire" – Jer 52:12,13.

"Net" – this refers to falling into the hands of the Babylonians.

1:14 "Yoke" – Deut 28:48; Isa 47:6; Jer
27:1-11.

1:15 "Daughter" – v 6.

"Winepress" – a symbol of God's judgment (Isa 63:2,3; Joel 3:13; Rev 14:19,20; 19:15).

1:16 Jer 9:1,10,18. Sin and its consequences (punishment and grief) are closely bound together and follow each other.

1:17 "The LORD has commanded" – all that happened to Jerusalem, including the enmity shown by neighboring peoples, was a result of God's action (Levi 26:16,18,23-25; Jer 25:8-11).

1:18 "Righteous" – God will never punish the innocent. And He will never punish my sorrow.

My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

- 19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me.
My priests and my elders expired in the city, while they sought their food to renew their lives.

- 20 Look, O LORD, for I am in distress.

My inner being is troubled.
My heart turns over inside me;
for I have grievously rebelled.
Outside, the sword bereaves;
at home it is like death.

- 21 They have heard that I sigh.

There is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
they are glad that you have done it.
You will bring the day that you have announced,
and they will become like me.

- 22 Let all their wickedness come before you,

and do to them as you have done to me for all my transgressions;
for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

- 1 How the LORD has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger!
And he has thrown down the beauty of Israel from heaven to the earth, and has not remembered his footstool
in the day of his anger.
- 2 The LORD has swallowed up all the dwelling places of Jacob,
and has not shown pity.

anyone more than they deserve. All of His decrees and ways are just and good (Rev 15:3; 16:5-7).

"Rebelled" – Jer 2:8,20; 5:23; 6:19; 7:25,26. It is men's rebellion against the true and living God that brings punishment on them.

1:19 Verse 7.

1:20 Jer 2:19; 9:21,22.

1:21 "They are glad" – v 7.

"The day that you have announced" –
Jer 25:15-28.

1:22 Ps 109:14,15; 35:8.

2:1 In this whole chapter up to verse 20 the prophet himself is speaking of Jerusalem.

"Daughter" – 1:6.

"Anger" – see notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; etc. This sentence can also be translated "How the Lord in His anger has treated the Daughter of Zion with contempt."

"His footstool" – Ps 99:5,9; 1 Chron 28:2.
2:2 "Not shown pity" – v 17; Jer 13:14; Ezek
5:11; 7:4,9; 8:18; 9:5. God knows when to

- In his wrath he has thrown down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah. He has brought them down to the ground; he has dishonoured the kingdom and its princes.
- 3 In his fierce anger he has cut off all the horn of Israel. He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and burned against Jacob like a flaming fire which devours all around.
- 4 He has bent his bow like an enemy. He stood with his right hand like an adversary, and has slain all who were pleasant to the eye. In the tent of the daughter of Zion, he has poured out his fury like fire.
- 5 The Lord was like an enemy; he has swallowed up Israel, he has swallowed up all her palaces. He has destroyed its strongholds, and has multiplied mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Judah.
- 6 And he has done violence to his tabernacle like a garden. He has destroyed his place of assembly. The LORD has caused the appointed feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and in the indignation of his anger has despised the king and the priest.
- 7 The Lord has rejected his altar; he has abhorred his sanctuary; he has given up the walls of her palaces into the hands of the enemy. They have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of an appointed feast.
- 8 The LORD purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion. He stretched out a measuring line. He did not withdraw his hand from destroying; therefore he caused the rampart and the wall to lament. They languish together.
- 9 Her gates are sunk into the ground. He has destroyed and broken her bars. Her king and her princes are among the Gentiles. The law is no more, and her prophets find no vision from the LORD.
- 10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground, and keep silent. They have thrown dust on their heads. They have tied sackcloth around themselves. The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.
- 11 My eyes fail with tears, my inner being is troubled, my heart is poured out on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the children and the infants faint in the streets of the city.
- 12 They say to their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?" as they faint like the wounded in the streets of the city, as their life pours out into their mothers' bosom.
- 13 What thing shall I take to testify for you? To what can I liken you, O daughter of Jerusalem? To what can I compare you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For your fracture is as vast as the sea. Who can heal you?
- 14 The things your prophets saw for you were empty and foolish visions. And they did not expose your guilt, to turn you away from captivity, but their visions for you were false oracles, leading you astray.
- 15 All who pass by clap their hands at you. They hiss and wag their heads at the show mercy and when not to show mercy. 2:3 "Horn" – here indicates strength. 2:4 "Bow" – Deut 32:42; Ps 7:12,13. 2:5 God was their true friend, but was an enemy of their sins and rebellion and wickedness. 2:6 "His tabernacle", "His place" – the temple in Jerusalem (Ps 27:4,5; 74:4). 2:7 Ezek 10:4,18,19; 11:23; Jer 52:13. 2:8 1:17. 2:9 Ps 74:9; Amos 8:11; Micah 3:6,7. 2:10 Job 2:12,13; Ps 35:13,14. 2:11 Compare 1:20; Jer 9:1; Luke 19:41-44. The Spirit of Christ was in the prophet. The grief of the prophet indicated beforehand the grief of Christ.

"Heart" – the Hebrew has the word for "liver," but it is symbolic here of the inner person, or, as we say, heart. 2:12 1:11. 2:13 Jer 14:17; 30:12-15. 2:14 See Jer 5:12,13; 6:13-15; 8:10-12; 14:13-15; 23:9-40; 27:9-28:17. Perhaps if those called prophets had exposed and rebuked the sins of the people the people might have repented and this calamity might not have come on them. But those prophets preferred to speak lies. And the people wanted to hear and believe lies (Jer 5:31). The results of all this are seen here in this book of Lamentations. Compare 2 Thess 2:9-12. 2:15 "Hiss" – Jer 19:8; Deut 28:37.

- daughter of Jerusalem, saying,
 "Is this the city that men called
 The Perfection of Beauty,
 The Joy of the Whole Earth?"
- 16 All your enemies have opened their mouth against you.
 They hiss and gnash the teeth.
 They say, "We have swallowed her up!
 Certainly this is the day that we looked for.
 We have found it, we have seen it."
- 17 The LORD has done what he planned.
 He has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old.
 He has thrown down, and has not shown pity.
 And he has caused your enemy to rejoice over you.
 He has set up the horn of your adversaries.
- 18 Their hearts cried to the Lord.
 O wall of the daughter of Zion, let your tears run down like a river day and night.
 Give yourself no rest.
 Do not let your eyes get relief.
- 19 Arise, cry out in the night!
 In the beginning of the watches pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.
 Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.
- 20 See, O Lord, and consider whom you have treated like this.
 Should the women eat their offspring,

- children a span long?
 Should the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?
- 21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets.
 My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword.
 You have slain them in the day of your anger.
 You have killed, and not pitied.
- 22 You summoned my terrors all around as to a feast day, so that in the day of the LORD's anger no one escaped or remained.
 My enemy has consumed those whom I nursed and reared.

3

- "Joy" – Ps 48:2.
2:16 3:46; Jer 51:34; Ps 35:25; Ezek
 36:3; Micah 4:11.
2:17 "Fulfilled His Word" – Lev 26:23-39;
 Deut 28:15-68.
 "Not shown pity" – v 2.
 "Horn" – power and authority.
2:18 Jer 14:17. Here the word "daughter" signifies all that remained in the city.
2:20-22 Here once again it seems that Jeremiah is presenting Jerusalem herself as speaking. Speaking of himself he could hardly have used words like "my virgins and my young men" (v 21), "those whom I nursed and reared" (v 22). See Jer 16:1,2.
2:20 "Eat their offspring" – Levi 26:29; Deut 28:53-57; Jer 19:9. This is one of the punishments that God Himself said would come on them if they rejected Him and disobeyed His Word.
2:21 Jer 9:21,22.
2:22 "Anger" – v 1.
3:1 In this chapter the prophet again is speaking. Here and there he uses the word
 "we" – vs 22,40-47. Even when he is speaking of his own experiences the people

- 1 I am the man who has seen affliction
 by the rod of his wrath.
 2 He has led me and brought me into darkness, but not into light.
 3 Surely he has turned against me;
 he turns his hand against me all day long.
 4 He has made my flesh and my skin grow old.
 He has broken my bones.
 5 He has built siege works against me,
 and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
 6 He has set me in dark places,
 like the dead of long ago.
 7 He has hedged me in, so that I cannot get out.
 He has made my chain heavy.

are never far from his thoughts and feelings.
 This chapter is the heart of this little book.
 In it we see deep sorrow, the beginning of hope as he thinks of God's goodness, the willingness to quietly accept the will of God, to learn the lessons God was teaching through chastisement, and the prayer that justice would prevail. When the people suffered calamities it was as though Jeremiah suffered them. Their inner experiences were his inner experiences.

- "Rod of His wrath" – the Babylonian army (compare Isa 10:5. See Jer 51:20). Job also spoke of the rod of God's anger punishing him (Job 9:34). Many words of the first 18 verses of this chapter are quite similar to words in the book of Job and in other poetical books of the Old Testament.
3:2 Job 12:25; 19:8.
3:3 Job 19:21; Ps 38:2.
3:4 Job 13:28; 16:8; 30:30; Ps 51:8;
 Isa 38:13.
3:5 This may refer to the siege of the Babylonian armies.
3:6 Ps 143:3; 88:5,6; Isa 59:10; 50:10.
3:7 Job 3:23; 19:8; Ps 88:8.

- 8 Also when I cry and shout, he shuts out my prayer.
- 9 He has blocked up my ways with cut stones.
He has made my paths crooked.
- 10 He was like a bear lying in wait for me,
and like a lion in secret places.
- 11 He has turned aside my ways,
and pulled me in pieces.
He has made me desolate.
- 12 He has bent his bow, and set me as a target for the arrow.
- 13 He has caused the arrows of his quiver to enter my inner being.
- 14 I was an object of derision to all my people,
and their mocking song all day long.
- 15 He has filled me with bitterness.
He has made me drunk with wormwood.
- 16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel.
He has covered me with ashes.
- 17 And you have moved my soul far from peace.
I have forgotten prosperity.
- 18 And I said, "My strength, and my hope

- from the LORD have perished.
- 19 I remember my affliction and my misery,
the wormwood and the bitterness,
- 20 My soul still remembers them,
and sinks down within me.
- 21 This I recall to my mind,
therefore I have hope:
- 22 Because of the LORD's mercies we are not consumed,
for his compassions do not fail.
- 23 They are new every morning.
Great is your faithfulness.
- 24 The LORD is my portion, says my soul,
therefore I will hope in him.
- 25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul who seeks him.
- 26 It is good to hope and wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.
- 27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke
in his youth.
- 28 Let him sit alone and keep silent,
because he has laid it on him.

3:8 Verse 44. Job 30:20; Ps 22:2; 28:1.
3:9 Verse 7; Isa 63:17; Hosea 2:6. If God apparently does not hear the prayers of a person and does not help him, if God brings darkness on him, it will seem to him that his ways have been made crooked.
Compare Ps 5:8.

3:10,11 Job 10:16; Jer 4:7; 5:6; 49:19; 50:44; Hosea 6:1; 13:7,8. Men acted like wild animals toward them and toward Jerusalem, but it was God who appointed it.

3:12,13 2:4; Job 6:4; 7:20; 16:12-14; Ps 38:2.
3:14 Job 17:2; 30:9; Ps 22:6,7; 69:12;
Jer 20:7.

3:15 Verse 19; Job 9:18; Jer 9:15.

3:16 Since God had appointed all this the prophet is attributing all of it to God.

3:17 Job 3:26; Ps 77:2-4.

"Prosperity" – the Hebrew word also means "happiness", "good", etc.

3:18 Job 7:6; 17:15. The prophet here draws near to the borders of despair.

3:19-21 The prophet cannot forget the fearful things which he has experienced. But by thinking again of the wonderful truths found in the following verses (up to v 39), he is able to stand in faith instead of falling into despair. By doing so he shows the way for anyone to endure discouragement, mental distress, and inner pain and to come out safely on the other side.

"I remember" – Deut 8:2-5; 32:7; Ps
42:4,5; 63:6; 77:1-12.

3:22,23 The prophet remembers what God is like, and by contemplating God's loving and gracious qualities finds peace for his troubled heart. He knows very well that both himself and Jerusalem have deserved even worse punishment than has actually come on them (compare Ps 103:10). He realizes afresh that only one thing kept them from complete destruction and gave them hope for the future, and that one thing was the grace of God. God loves those whom He has chosen with an eternal love (Jer 31:3; Rom 8:37-39). So His love remains on them forever (Ps 78:38; 103:13,14). Every morning believers can make new beginnings. They can receive fresh encouragement every day by understanding that their sins are blotted out, and that God's love and mercy will surround them in the future. They can go on from the failures and mistakes of the past to higher, better things in the future, knowing that God will always be faithful to His covenant and promises (Ex 34:6; Ps 89:1,2; 108:4; 115:1; etc).

3:24 Ps 73:26; 119:57; 142:5; Num 18:20. The truths he has been looking at have strengthened his faith and brought peace of mind, and rest of heart. No despair can stand against these powerful truths when they are understood and believed.

3:25 Ps 25:3; 34:8; 86:5; Jer 29:14;
Matt 7:7-11. In spite of the experiences recorded in vs 1-18 he knows that God is good and does good. This is the victory faith achieves over every circumstance that seems against faith.

3:26 Ps 37:7; 40:1; Isa 26:3; 30:15.

3:27 "Yoke" – in other words it is good for a person to fully obey God and heartily accept the discipline, chastisement, training, and the pains that go with such things, and he should learn to do this when he is young.
The older he is when he begins this the harder it will be for him. The word "yoke" brings to mind the words of the Lord Jesus in Matt 11:29.

3:28 If God has put certain things on us to bear we should not try to escape from them
by fellowship with other people, but face up

- 29 Let him put his mouth in the dust;
perhaps there is hope.
- 30 Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him.
Let him be filled with disgrace.
- 31 For the Lord will not reject forever.
- 32 For though he causes grief, he will have compassion in accordance with the abundance of his mercies.
- 33 For he does not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men.
- 34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,
- 35 To turn aside a man's rights before the face of the Most High,
- 36 To defraud a man in his case,
the Lord does not approve of such things.
- 37 Who is he who speaks, and it comes to pass, when the Lord has not commanded it?
- 38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that disaster and good things come?
- 39 Why should a living man complain,
a man undergoing punishment for his sins?
- 40 Let us search and examine our ways,
and turn back to the LORD.
- 41 Let us lift up our heart together with our hands to God in the heavens.
- 42 We have transgressed and have rebelled;
you have not pardoned.
- 43 You have covered us with anger,
and pursued us.
You have slain us; you have not shown pity.
- 44 You have covered yourself with a cloud,
so that our prayer cannot pass through.
- 45 You have made us like scrapings and trash in the midst of the people.
- 46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.
- 47 Fear and a snare have come upon us,
desolation and destruction.
- 48 My eye runs down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter
of my people.
- 49 My eye will flow without interruption,
and will not stop,
- 50 Until the LORD looks down, and sees from heaven.
- 51 My eye affects my heart because of all the daughters of my city.
- 52 My enemies hunted me down like a bird,
without cause.
- 53 They cut off my life in the dungeon,
and hurled a stone on me;
- 54 Waters flowed over my head.
Then I said, "I am cut off."
- 55 I called on your name, O LORD,

to them in God's presence. Compare Jer 15:17.

3:29 "Dust" – indicates a sincere and humble acceptance of those things God has caused to happen and obedience to His will.

3:30 Compare Isa 50:6; Matt 5:39.

3:31,32 Ps 30:5; 66:10-12; 94:14; Isa 54:7,8; Heb 13:5. The prophet encourages himself by the thought that the troubles and griefs that God causes His people to undergo are only for a comparatively short time. See 2 Cor 4:17,18.

3:33 Ps 103:13,14; Jer 48:36-38; Isa 63:9; Ezek 18:23,32; Hosea 11:8; Heb 12:10,11. God, in accordance with His absolute justice, brings troubles and distress on people because of their sins. But this gives him no pleasure at all. In all that He does He has good motives and grand purposes.

3:34-36 God sees the cruel and unjust acts of men such as those displayed by the leaders of Judah and the armies of Babylon, but He does not approve of them – quite the opposite.

3:37-39 If God had not decreed the disaster that came on Jerusalem and its people then it would not have happened (1:17; Amos 3:6; Isa 14:26,27). But all left alive in Jerusalem (and all men everywhere) should understand that any punishment from God comes because of their sins. Micah 7:9 perfectly describes the kind of attitude we should have when God causes troubles to come to us.

"Why. . .complain" – see Ex 14:11,12; 15:24; 16:2; Num 11:1; 14:2,3; 16:11; 17:5.

3:40 There will be good results from the troubles and griefs which come to us if we are able to do this (Ps 119:59; 139:23,24; 1 Cor 11:28; 2 Cor 13:5).

3:41,42 This was the way for the people of Jerusalem to obtain forgiveness and restoration, and the only way. Compare Ps 32:3-5; Prov 28:13; 1 John 1:9.

3:43-47 This happened just as God foretold in Leviticus chapter 26 and Deuteronomy chapter 28.

3:48-51 The prophet has humbly submitted to what God has done to him and to Jerusalem and is looking with hope to the future. But this has not removed the grief he feels for his people. He determines that he will go on lamenting until God shows mercy and compassion on them. Having peace in our personal relationship with God does not mean that we will not feel sorrow at the troubles and pains of others. Compare Luke 19:41; Rom 9:1-3; Ps 126:5.

3:52-63 These words bring before us Jeremiah's personal experiences. Compare v 53 with Jer 37:16 and 38:6, v 58 with Jer 38:7-13, v 59 with 18:19,20, v 60 and 61 with 11:18-21; 12:6; 18:18.

- out of the deep dungeon.
- 56 You heard my voice:
"Do not hide your ear at my breathing,
at my cry."
- 57 You drew near in the day that I called to you.
You said, "Do not fear."
- 58 O Lord, you have pleaded the case for my soul.
You have redeemed my life.
- 59 O LORD, you have seen the wrong done to me. Judge my case.
- 60 You have seen all their vengeance and all their plots against me.
- 61 You have heard their insults, O LORD,
and all their plots against me,
- 62 The words of those who rose up against me,
and their whispering
against me all day long.
- 63 Look at their sitting down, and their rising up.
I am their mocking song.
- 64 Repay them, O LORD, in accordance with the work of their hands.
- 65 Give them sorrow of heart.
Your curse be on them!
- 66 In anger pursue and destroy them from under the LORD's heavens!

4

- 1 How the gold has become dim!
How the most fine gold has changed!
The stones of the sanctuary are scattered at the head of every street.
- 2 The precious sons of Zion, worth their weight in fine gold,
how they are regarded like earthenware pitchers, the work of the potter's hands!
- 3 Even jackals offer the breast,
they give suck to their young ones,
but the daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the desert.

- 4 The tongue of the sucking child clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst.
The young children ask for bread,
and no one breaks it for them.
- 5 Those who ate delicacies are desolate
in the streets.
Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace ash heaps.
- 6 For the punishment of the wickedness of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom that was overthrown
in a moment,
with no hand turned to help her.
- 7 Her Nazirites were purer than snow;
they were whiter than milk;
their bodies were more ruddy than rubies;
their appearance was like sapphire.
- 8 Now their faces are blacker than coal;
they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin clings to their bones;
it is withered;
it has become like a stick.
- 9 Those slain by the sword are better off than those slain by hunger;
for these pine away, stricken by the lack of the fruits of the field.
- 10 The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children;
they were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- 11 The LORD has brought his fury to bear;
he has poured out his fierce anger,
and has kindled a fire in Zion;
and it has devoured its foundations.
- 12 The kings of the earth,
and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem.

3:62 "Words" – in Hebrew "lips."

3:64-66 This is a prayer that justice might prevail. See the note on such prayers at Ps 35:8.

3:65 Compare Isa 6:9,10.

3:66 "Pursue. . . them" – v 43; Ps 35:6.

4:2 The people of Judah and Jerusalem were God's special treasure – Ex 19:5. But all their beauty and splendor had vanished.

4:3 The people had become harsher than animals toward their children (2:20).

"Ostriches" – Job 39:13-17.

4:4 Verse 10; 2:11,12.

4:5 Neither wealthy people or those of the royal family were able to escape (scarlet here probably indicates royalty).

4:6 Sodom was destroyed immediately by fire from heaven, but Jerusalem had to endure a siege of a year and a half, and then fell into the hands of savage enemies who destroyed her.

4:7 Verse 5.

4:8 This was the result of the famine that came to them.

4:10 Verse 4; Lev 26:29; Deut 28:53-57. Terrible indeed is the curse that sin brings on people.

4:11 Sin not confessed and forsaken brings God's anger, and that anger brings terrible punishment.

4:12 Jer 21:13. Before this event Jerusalem had sometimes fallen into the hands of its enemies. But afterwards the kings of Judah had greatly strengthened the walls and defensive fortifications of the city (2 Chron 26:9; 33:14). Jerusalem withstood

- 13 Because of the sins of her prophets, and the evil deeds of her priests who shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,
- 14 They have wandered like blind men
 in the streets;
 they have polluted themselves with blood,
 so that men could not touch their garments.
- 15 They cried out to them,
 "Go away, unclean! Go away, go away!
 Do not touch!"
 When they ran away and wandered,
people among the nations said,
 "They will not settle there again."
- 16 The anger of the LORD has scattered them; he no longer regards them.
 They did not respect the person of the priests;
 they did not show favour to the elders.
- 17 As for us, our eyes failed, vainly
looking for our help.
 In our watching we looked for a nation that could not save us.
- 18 They hunt our steps, so that we cannot go into our streets.
 Our end is near; our days are finished,
 for our end has come.
- 19 Our pursuers are swifter than the eagles of the sky.
 They pursued us on the mountains.
 They lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
- 20 The breath of our nostrils,
 the anointed of the LORD,
 was caught in their pits;
 we had said of him,
 "Under his shadow we will live among
 the nations."

- 21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom,
you who live in the land of Uz;
 but the cup will also pass to you.
 You will get drunk, and make yourself naked.
- 22 The punishment of your guilt is completed,
 O daughter of Zion.
 He will no longer lead you away into captivity.
 He will punish your guilt,
 O daughter of Edom;
 he will expose your sins.

- 1 Remember, O LORD, what has come upon us.
 Consider, and look at our disgrace.
- 2 Our inheritance has been turned over to foreigners, our houses to aliens.
- 3 We are orphans and fatherless;
 our mothers are widows.
- 4 We have to lay out money for our drinking water.
 Our wood is sold to us.
- 5 Our necks are being pursued.
 We labour, and have no rest.
- 6 We have given our hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
- 7 Our fathers sinned, and are no more,
 and we have borne their evil deeds.
- 8 Servants rule over us.
There is no one to rescue us out of their hands.
- 9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives,
 because of the sword in the wilderness.
- 10 Our skin is black as an oven because of the terrible famine.

even a siege of one and a half years at the hands of the mighty Babylonian army. Perhaps the kings and peoples of the earth remembered how the armies of Sennacherib had perished outside Jerusalem's walls (Isa 36:1,2; 37:36,37), and thought the same thing might happen to the Babylonians.

4:13 Jer 2:8; 5:31; 6:13. Even a city thought to be impossible to conquer may be destroyed because of its sins. Sin is the great destroyer of cities and people.

4:14 Deut 28:28,29; Isa 29:9.

4:15 The priests had changed their holy consecration and the glory of their priesthood into something abominable and evil.

4:16 Deut 28:49,50.

4:17 Jer 2:18,36; Ezek 29:16.

4:20 This refers to king Zedekiah – Jer 39:4,5.

4:21 Esau's descendants rejoiced when they saw the fall of Judah and Jerusalem (Ezek 35:15; Obadiah 12). But the time of their destruction was near (Jer 25:15,21).

"Uz" – Job 1:1.

5:1 See 3:49,50.

5:2 "Inheritance" – their country.

5:4 "Money for our drinking water" – compare Deut 8:7. Sin can ruin the good gifts God has given.

5:5 Isa 57:20,21.

5:6 The leaders of Judah thought that Egypt or Assyria would come to their help in the fight against Babylon (Jer 2:18,36; Ezek 29:16).

5:7 Since that generation bore the punishment of their ancestors we may be sure that they deserved it (v 16; Jer 14:20; 16:11,12; 31:29,30).

5:8-12 Let us learn this lesson well – sin was the one and only thing that brought cruel enemies to rule over them, that brought danger to life and limb, that brought them into a destitute state, that robbed them of all peace and happiness. The only cause of their pains, troubles, griefs and destruction was sin.

- 11 They have ravished the women in Zion,
and the maidens in the cities of Judah.
- 12 Princes have been hanged up by their hands.
 The faces of elders have not been honoured.
- 13 They took the young men to grind,
 and the children fell under the loads of wood.
- 14 The elders have gone from the gate,
 the young men from their music.
- 15 The joy of our heart has ceased.
 Our dancing has turned to mourning.
- 16 The crown has fallen from our head.
 Woe to us, for we have sinned!

- 17 Because of this our heart is faint.
 Because of these things our eyes are dim;
- 18 Because of Mount Zion, which is desolate.
 The foxes walk on it.
- 19 You, O LORD, remain forever,
 your throne from generation to generation.
- 20 Why do you forget us permanently, and forsake us for such a long time?
- 21 Turn us back to you, O LORD,
 and we will turn back.
 Renew our days as of old,
- 22 unless you have utterly rejected us,
and are very angry with us.

5:15 Jer 7:34; 16:9; 25:10. Compare Ps 30:11; Isa 61:3.

5:19-22 The prophet leaves all these matters where they belong – in the hands of the eternal God who is the creator and ruler of the universe. Verse 19 is similar to Ps 102:12. In fact the language of that whole psalm is something like this book of Lamentations.

5:20 Ps 6:3; 13:1; 89:46.

5:21,22 Jer 31:18,19; Ps 80:3. Jeremiah knows that if God does not turn the people back to Himself then they will not turn to Him. It is God who enables men to repent and seek Himself (Acts 5:31; 11:18; Rom 2:4; 2 Tim 2:25).

EZEKIEL

Author:

The prophet Ezekiel. His name means "God strengthens." Ezekiel was from a priestly family. His father was an official of high rank. Nebuchadnezzar took Ezekiel along with other captives in Babylon in 597 BC.

Date:

God called Ezekiel to be a prophet in 593 BC, when Ezekiel was 30 years of age. The events in this book cover a period of 22 years. He wrote either during those years or shortly afterwards.

Themes:

God's glory; in prophetic vision the departure of God's glory from His temple in Jerusalem, and in a future time the return of that glory to a new temple. Between these two events the prophet writes of the corrupt condition of the people of Israel, God's judgment on them and on other nations, the change that will come to Israel at the end of this age, the destruction of armies invading from the north. Everywhere in this book we see that the LORD (Jehovah) God is the sovereign ruler of the world. We also see His determination that through His deeds and actions men should know that He alone is God. The phrase "then they will know that I am the LORD" is found a great many times. Another common phrase is "the word of the LORD came." Ezekiel did not devise the messages he delivered. They came directly from God. See 1 Peter 1:20,21.

1 Now this happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, when I was among the captives by the Kebar River: the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 On the fifth day of the month, which was in the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, 3 the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Kebar River; and there the hand of the LORD was on him.

4 And I looked and saw a whirlwind coming out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself. And a brightness was around it, and radiating from its center something like the colour of amber, from inside the fire. 5 Also from its center came the likeness of four living beings. And this was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. 6 And each one had four faces, and each one had four wings. 7 And their legs were straight legs, and the soles of their feet were like the soles of a calf's foot; and they gleamed like the colour of burnished bronze. 8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were joined to one another. The beings did not turn as they went; each one went straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, each of the four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side; and each of the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and each of the four also had the face of an eagle. 11 Thus were their faces. And their wings were stretched upward. Two wings of each one were joined to one another, and two covered their bodies. 12 And each one went straight forward. Wherever the spirit would go, they went; and they did not turn as they went. 13 As for the likeness of the living beings, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of torches. The fire went up and down among the living beings, and the fire was bright, and out of the fire came lightning. 14 And the living beings sped back and forth like the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I was watching the living beings, one wheel appeared on the earth by each of the living beings, with their four faces. 16 The appearance of the wheels and their workmanship

1:1,2 "Thirtieth year" – probably means the 30th year of Ezekiel's life – 593 BC.

"Captives" – those taken by the Babylonians to Babylonia in 597 BC, before the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC.

"River" – the Hebrew word can mean a stream of any sort. Kebar was actually a canal from the river Euphrates south of the city of Babylon.

"Heavens were opened" – the doors of God's unseen dwelling place opened. Compare Rev 4:1.

1:3 "Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi" – or it could be translated "Ezekiel son of Buzi the priest." Three statements indicate that God's revelation came to Ezekiel – "visions of God" (v 1. Note on vision at Gen 15:1); "the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel" (v 3. Jer 1:2); "the hand of the LORD was upon him" (3:14,22; 8:1; 33:22; 37:1; 40:1). Ezekiel gives us a sure revelation from God, not the mere writings of a man.

"Chaldeans" – Babylonians.

1:4 Here are three symbols of God's presence – whirlwind or storm (Ex 19:16; Job 38:1; 40:6; Ps 18:9-13); fire (note at Ex 3:2); brightness or light (Ps 104:2; 1 Tim 6:16; 1 John 1:5).

1:5-28 This vision can be divided into three sections – living beings (vs 5-14), wheels (vs 15-21), expanse (vs 22-28). The vision as a whole reveals God's glory in His sovereign rule over all the earth.

1:5-14 The living beings are cherubim (10:15), not human beings. Notes on cherubim at Gen 3:24; Ex 25:18-20. Here we should note the following:

There were four cherubim (v 5). This number may indicate the whole earth with its "4 corners."

The cherubim had four faces (vs 6,10). Their faces represent the whole of earth's creatures – lion "king" of wild beasts, eagle "king of birds", ox symbolizing cattle in general, the most important species of domesticated animals, and man "king" of all other of earth's creatures (Gen 1:28; Ps 8:6-8).

The form of the cherubim was like a man's form (v 5). God's glory has more to do with mankind than with the rest of earth's creatures.

The cherubim were in the fire which symbolizes God's presence and glory (v 5). They were very bright and fiery themselves (v 13).

They went straight ahead without turning. God's ways are straight ways not like man's crooked ways (Ps 125:5; Prov 2:12-15; Isa 40:3,4; 42:16; 59:8; Mark 1:3).

They went as the Spirit directed (v 12). Spirit here means God's Spirit in relation to the sovereignty of earth.

They moved like flashes of lightning. This may indicate the speed with which they executed the will of God. With them there is no reluctance, no hesitation, no delay.

In 10:12 it is said they were "full of eyes" (compare Rev 4:6,8). This suggests God's ability to see everything everywhere.

Their movement was like the voice of God (v 24. Compare Rev 1:15).

1:15-21 "Wheels" – we should note the following:

Wheels obviously speak of motion, of a vehicle of some sort. Here the wheels with was like the colour of beryl. And the four had the same likeness; and their appearance and their workmanship was like a wheel inside another wheel. 17 When they went, they went in the direction of one of their four sides, and they did not turn as they went. 18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were awesome; and their rims were full of eyes all around the four of them.

19 And when the living beings went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living beings were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. 20 Wherever the spirit would go, they went, for there the spirit went. And the wheels were lifted up close beside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. 21 When those went, these went; and when those stood still, these stood still; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up close beside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the expanse above the heads of the living creature was like the colour of an awesome crystal; it was above, stretched out the cherubim seem to carry above them a platform and a throne (vs 22,26). It is interesting that the ark of the covenant, with the cherubim above it and God's glory above them, is compared to a chariot in 1 Chron 28:18. See also Dan 7:9. Note on this ark at Ex 25:10-16.

These wheels were like wheels within wheels or like intersecting wheels, but their structure is not described. Perhaps they speak of the mysterious and complicated nature of the activity of God's glorious presence on earth (Isa 55:8,9; Rom 11:33). Remember these verses present a picture of God's glory and it is a part of God's glory to conceal certain matters (Prov 25:2).

The wheels did not act independently of the cherubim and the Spirit (vs 17,19, 20,21). God's ways on earth are intimately connected with the activities of heavenly beings. And everything works together in perfect harmony as a vehicle of God's glory.

The rims, like the cherubim, were full of eyes. The movement of God's glorious activity in the world and in history is not blind. God is fully aware of every direction or change of direction that needs to be taken. The chariot of the true Lord of the universe does not recklessly, ruthlessly roll on and crush individuals or peoples or nations. He who sits on the throne is love (1 John 4:8), His throne is a throne of grace (Heb 4:16). When He acts in judgment He does so because He is the just judge of the universe and must put down evil. This too is done because He sees it needs to be done for the good of the world as a whole.

1:22-28 The expanse and the throne – vs 22 and 26 suggest some sort of beautiful platform on which God's throne rested. Let over their heads. 23 And under the expanse their wings were straight, toward one another. Each one had two which covered this side, and each one had two which covered that side of their bodies. 24 And when they went, I heard the sound of their wings, like the sound of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, the sound of speech, like the sound of an army. When they stood still, they let down their wings.

25 And there came a voice from the expanse that was above their heads, when they stood and let down their wings. 26 And above the expanse that was above their heads was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like a sapphire stone. And high above, on the likeness of the throne was the likeness of the appearance of a man. 27 And I saw something like the colour of amber, like the appearance of fire all around inside it; from the appearance of his waist upward, and from the appearance of his waist downward, I saw what appeared to be fire, and it had brightness all around. 28 The appearance of this surrounding brightness was like the appearance of the rainbow that is in us observe the following:

The throne with its occupant is the important thing, not the expanse. Evidently, from there the voice was heard (vs 25,26). The throne here speaks of God's sovereignty over all creation. His voice, His word determine the direction of His activity on earth. The cherubim and the wheels give instant and full obedience.

The one sitting on the throne was in figure like a man (v 26). No one has seen God at any time (John 1:18; 1 Tim 6:16). But God at times has come in the form of man to speak with men (Gen 18:1,2; etc). The Lord Jesus was the supreme example of this (John 1:1,14; Phil 2:5-7). Doubtless He is the one on the throne in this vision, as He was in Isaiah's vision (Isa 6:1; John 12:41).

1:24 "The Almighty" – in Hebrew "Shaddai" – note at Gen 17:1.

1:27 Compare Rev 1:13-16.

1:28 "Rainbow" – Rev 4:3; 10:1.

"Glory" – he does not say He saw God. He does not say even that he saw God's glory, only the "appearance" of the "likeness" of it. He knows it is all symbolic and gives only a picture of something that cannot be conveyed fully in a picture. No doubt Ezekiel associated the glory of God with the temple in Jerusalem. It was the temple which had the ark and God's presence over it and the cherubim. To the people of Israel, the center of God's activity on earth was there (1 Kings 8:11; Ps 26:8; 63:2; 96:6; 102:16). Ezekiel could never have expected to see God's glory coming to the plains of Babylon, but later he came to understand that for that time God was forsaking Jerusalem and coming to His people in captivity (10:4,15,18,19; 11:22-24). The glory of the cloud on a day of rain.

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I prostrated myself, and I heard a voice of one who spoke.

2 And he said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak to you." 2 And when he spoke to me the Spirit came into me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

3 And he said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me to this very day. 4 For they are obstinate and stubborn progeny. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God.' 5 And whether they listen, or refuse to listen (for they are a rebellious house), they will still know that there has been a prophet among them. 6 And, son of man, do not be afraid of them, or be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns surround you, and you live among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words, or be dismayed by their looks, though they are a rebellious house. 7 And you shall speak my words to them, whether they listen or refuse to listen; for they are very rebellious. 8 But, son of man, listen to what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth, and eat what I give you."

9 And when I looked, a hand appeared, stretched out to me, and in it a scroll appeared. 10 And he spread it out before me; and it was written inside and outside; and lamentations and mourning and woe were written on it.

3 Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, eat what you are encountering; eat this scroll, and go speak to the house of Israel." 2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that scroll.

3 And he said to me, "Son of man, feed your stomach, and fill your belly with this scroll that I am giving you." Then I ate it; and in my mouth it was like honey in sweetness.

4 And he said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak to them with my words. 5 For you are not sent to a people of obscure speech and difficult language, but to the house of Israel; 6 not to many people of obscure speech and difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I had sent you to them, they

God was still bound up with Israel – not principally with those Jews who remained in the land of Israel but with those in Babylon (Jeremiah chapter 24). Let us understand that where we as God's people go, God goes with us (Heb 13:5).

Compare Ezekiel's reaction to the appearance of God's glory with Dan 8:17,18; 10:7-10; Rev 1:17. The vision as a whole, even if we don't understand all the details of it, should strike us to some extent as it did Ezekiel. There is in it a mysterious, powerful, indescribable sense of the glory of God. God's purpose in giving the vision to Ezekiel was not to confuse him with details but to give him, before he entered into his ministry, a view of the greatness, glory and holiness of God. He wanted him (and us) to serve God with reverence and awe and godly fear.

2:1 "Son of man" – an emphatic way for God to say that Ezekiel was a mere man. The Lord Jesus when He called Himself "the son of man" was referring to Dan 7:13 and 8:17 where the phrase is a title of the Messiah. This phrase is not used like that here in Ezekiel.

"Stand" – Ezekiel could not forever lie on his face in God's presence. There was work to do, messages to deliver for God. Compare Acts 26:16. Worship is to lead to work. 2:2 The same Spirit in the cherubim and wheels (1:12,19,20) now comes into Ezekiel to empower him to do God's will and to live for God's glory. All the true prophets of God stood in God's presence, heard God speak, and spoke as they were moved by God's Spirit (2 Pet 1:21).

2:3-8 Compare Isa 6:9-13; Jer 1:4-10.

2:3 "Rebellious" – Isa 1:2-4; Jer 5:23. Rebellion was a characteristic of the nation from the very beginning (Deut 9:24).

2:4,5 "Say" – verse 7. God's prophets are to speak whether people will listen or not.

"Lord God" – see the note at Gen 15:2.

2:6 "Do not be afraid" – 1:8; Josh 1:9; 2 Tim 1:7; Heb 13:6.

"Scorpions", "rebellious house" – from this description of Israel in Babylon we would not guess that these people were the good fruit of Jer 24:5-7, the remnant of Isa 46:3,4 through whom God would restore the nation. 2:8 Ezekiel by nature was a sinner too and had to be on guard against the rebelliousness of his fallen nature (notes at Gen 9:21; 12:13; Num 20:11; 2 Sam 11:1).

2:9,10 Ezekiel's message at the beginning was loaded with God's condemnation of the people's behavior and His judgments which were very grievous. Later in his ministry Ezekiel was given a message full of hope. Observe that his message was not of his own invention. It was handed to him by God. It was not his business to add anything to it or take anything away. See 2 Tim 3:16; Rev 22:18,19.

3:1-3 Compare Jer 1:9; 15:16; Rev 10:9,10. God's word must be received and digested by God's servants. It must become a part of their lives.

"Sweetness" – this contact with God, this taste of His message was sweet even though it contained words of lamentation and woe. But in Ezekiel's inner man, as later in John's, it became bitter (vs 12-14).

3:4-6 2:3-5. Compare Matt 11:20-24.

would have listened to you. 7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you, for they will not listen to me; for the whole house of Israel is obstinate and hard-hearted. 8 See, I have made your face strong against their faces, and your forehead strong against their foreheads. 9 I have made your forehead like adamant, harder than flint. Do not fear them, or be dismayed by their looks, though they are a rebellious house."

10 Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, hear with your ears and receive in your heart all my words that I speak to you. 11 And go to those of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord God,' whether they listen or refuse to listen."

12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a voice sounding like a great rushing, saying, "Blessed be the glory of the LORD in his place." 13 Also I heard the sound of the wings of the living beings that touched one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them, and a sound of a great rushing. 14 So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong on me. 15 Then I came to those of the captivity at Tel-Abib, who lived by the Kebar River, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And at the end of seven days it happened that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warning from me. 18 When I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' and you do not give him warning or speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way to save his life, that wicked man will die in his guilt, but I will require his blood at your hand. 19 But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, or from his wicked way, he will die in his guilt, but you will have delivered your soul.

20 "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and does evil, and I put a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you did not warn him, he will die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done will not be remembered; but I will require his blood at your hand. 21 But if you warn the righteous man that the righteous are not to sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live, because he was warned; also you have delivered your soul."

22 And the hand of the LORD was on me there; and he said to me, "Arise, go out to the plain, and there I will talk with you." 23 Then I arose, and went out to the plain; and the glory of the LORD appeared standing there, like the glory which I saw

3:7 Jer 7:27. But God has His good purpose in sending His messages even if the people they go to won't listen.

3:8,9 Ezekiel means "God is strong" or "God strengthens" or "God makes hard." To face the kind of people he faced Ezekiel needed to be a tough, strong, determined man and only God could make him so. Compare Isa 50:7; Jer 1:17-19. God will make all His servants suited to the task to which He calls them (2 Cor 3:5,6).

3:10 The messenger of God himself must be very careful to respond to the Word of God. He is not to be like a mere talking parrot or a myna bird, untouched by the Word he delivers.

3:11 The exiles were troubled by false prophets who predicted an early end to their exile. They did not believe Jerusalem would be destroyed and that they would be in Babylon for many decades. See Jeremiah's letter to these same exiles in Jeremiah chapter 29.

3:12-14 From 2:1 to 3:11 the cherubim, the wheels, and the glory of God have been there. Now Ezekiel must leave all that and begin a ministry to a stubborn people who will reject what he says. The word of God with its messages of sadness and woe is burning in his heart (2:10). It is no wonder he went in bitterness and anger of spirit. God was already beginning to work in him to make him the kind of person who could deliver His message as He wanted it delivered (vs 8,9). Observe that God's Spirit compelled him to go.

3:15,16 Dan 8:27; 10:2. It is not surprising that he was overwhelmed for seven days. Truly, after all he had experienced he could never be the same again.

3:17 "Watchman" – Isa 52:8; 56:10; 62:6; Jer 6:17; 31:6; Ezek 33:7-9. God's watchmen were to watch for God's Word and the behavior of the people, and speak for God, especially warning of coming danger.

3:18-21 See the awesome responsibility of God's prophets. They had to give an account to God for their ministry and for the people to whom they were sent. It is not clear what God would do to Ezekiel if he failed to warn those God sent him to, but the words "I will require his blood at your hand" (vs 18,20) are very severe and no doubt went deep into the mind and heart of Ezekiel.

3:20 "Die" – this does not necessarily speak of the loss of eternal life but of physical death. See 18:1-32. Compare John 5:24; 11:25,26.

3:22 "Hand of the LORD" – 1:3.

"Go out" – to be alone with God. Ezekiel was already overwhelmed (v 15); perhaps the message of vs 16-21 overwhelmed him even more. In any case God wanted him to see the glory again. Alone he communed with God. Compare Moses alone (Ex 3:1,2;), Elijah alone (1 Kings 19:9-13), John the Baptist alone (Luke 1:80), Jesus alone (Luke 4:42; 6:12), John alone (Rev 1:9,10).

3:23 God's glorious presence awaited His

by the Kebar River; and I prostrated myself.

24 Then the Spirit came into me, and set me on my feet, and spoke to me, and said to me, "Go, shut yourself up inside your house. 25 But, son of man, see, they are going to put ropes on you and tie you up with them; and you will not go out among them. 26 And I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you will be mute, and will not be one who rebukes them; for they are a rebellious house. 27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: He who will listen, let him listen; and he who refuses to listen, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

4 "Also you, son of man, take a clay tablet, and place it in front of you, and draw the city of Jerusalem on it; 2 and lay siege to it, and build siege works against it, and heap up a mound against it. Also set up camps against it, and place battering rams against it all around. 3 Moreover take for yourself an iron pan, and set it up as an iron wall between you and the city, and set your face against it. And it will be under siege, and you will be laying siege to it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 "Also, lie down on your left side, and lay the guilt of the house of Israel on it. You shall bear their obedient servant – as always.

3:24-27 New instructions that would further prepare Ezekiel for what he had to face.

3:26,27 Apparently Ezekiel for some time was unable to speak except when God enabled him. At times there are firm restraints on God's servants; they may not have the same freedom that others enjoy. During this time Ezekiel's ministry was in his house and only to those who came there. But through them his words and news of his doings would surely spread among all the exiles. Compare Paul bound (Phil 1:12-14; 2 Tim 2:9).

4:1-3 In this chapter and the first 4 verses of chapter 5 is the record of how God made Ezekiel an object lesson to the people. Ezekiel acted out what would happen to Jerusalem. The people had refused to believe that the city would be destroyed (3:11). Ezekiel's actions worked impressively with God's message which begins from 5:5. For other examples of object lessons see 1 Kings 11:29-31; 2 Kings 13:14-19; Isa 8:3,4,18; Jer 13:1-7.

4:3 The iron pan with Ezekiel behind it facing Jerusalem probably conveyed the following idea to the people – iron would speak of strength and fixed purpose; Ezekiel the prophet represented God as being opposed to the city and bringing a siege against it.

4:4-8 Israel means here the northern kingdom that separated from Judah after king Solomon's death (1 Kings chapter 12). Judah means the southern kingdom. From the beginning of the northern kingdom Israel was guilt for the number of the days that you lie on your side. 5 For I have laid on you a number of days in accordance with the years of their guilt, three hundred and ninety days. So you shall bear the guilt of the house of Israel.

6 "And when you have completed them, lie down again, on your right side; and you will bear the guilt of the house of Judah forty days. I have appointed to you a day for each year. 7 Therefore you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and your arm shall be bare, and you shall prophesy against it. 8 And, see, I will put ropes on you, and you will not be able to turn yourself from one side to the other, until you have finished the days of your siege.

9 "And take for yourself wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in a container, and make bread with them. You shall eat it for as many days as you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days. 10 And your food which you will eat is to be by weight, twenty shekels a day; you shall eat it from time to time. 11 You shall also drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin. You shall drink it from time to time. 12 And you shall eat it like barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with human dung for fuel."

in rebellion against God and worshiped idols (1 Kings 12:28-30). So the time of their sin is put at 390 years – probably from Jeroboam's time to Ezekiel's. The sin of the house of Judah was put at 40 years, possibly because for a long time they did not completely fall away from God. They had some good kings, some times of revival, and maintained at least the outward forms of worship of the true God in His temple.

4:4 "Bear their guilt" – this does not mean to make atonement for them or take their sins away. Ezekiel was merely representing the two kingdoms and showing by his actions the times of their most grievous sin against God.

4:7 "Arm shall be bare" – symbolized that God was ready to take action. Compare Isa 52:10. "Prophesy against it" – see the prophecy given in 5:5-17. Ezekiel's remarkable actions and words would have been spoken of throughout the community of exiles and many must have come to watch and hear him. Indeed, who would have kept away?

4:9-11 Ezekiel's food was to be only that which could be stored for a long time in containers, no fresh vegetables, no meat, and no dairy products. Both his daily food and water were to be taken in rationed, very limited quantities. All this symbolized siege conditions (vs 16,17).

"Twenty shekels a day" (v 10) – a little more than 200 grams.

"Hin" – about 0.6 liter.

4:12,13 Speaks of very severe conditions when normal fuels would not be available.

13 And the LORD said, "In this way the children of Israel will eat their defiled food among the Gentiles, where I will drive them."

14 Then I said, "Ah Lord God! See, my soul has never been defiled; for from my youth up until now I have not eaten anything which died of itself, or was torn in pieces, and no unclean meat has come into my mouth."

15 Then he said to me, "See, I grant you cow's dung in place of human dung, and you can prepare your bread over that."

16 Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, see, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem; and they will eat bread by weight, and with care; and they will drink water by measure, and with astonishment, 17 because they will lack bread and water, and be astonished at one another, and consume away because of their guilt.

5 "And, son of man, take a sharp knife; take and use it as a barber's razor on your head and on your beard. Then take scales for weighing, and divide the hair: 2 You shall burn a third of it with fire inside the city, when the days of the siege are ended. And you shall take a third of it, and strike it with the knife all around the city, and you shall scatter a third in the wind. For I will draw out a sword after them. 3 You shall also take a few hairs from it, and tie them in your garment. 4 Again, take some of them and throw them into the middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire. For from there a fire will spread to the whole house of Israel.

4:14 Compare Acts 10:14. Ezekiel was a priest (1:3), and carefully observed the dietary instructions given in the law of Moses (Leviticus chapter 11).

4:15 Ps 103:13,14.

4:16,17 Lev 26:26; Deut 28:47,48; Lam 1:11.

"Guilt" – Lev 26:39; Ezek 24:23; 33:10. 5:1 See Isa 7:20; 15:2; 2 Sam 10:4,5. This signified falling into the hands of enemies and the humiliation that would result. Shaving the head was also a sign of mourning (Job 1:20; Jer 7:29; 16:6; Ezek 27:31).

5:2 Indicated that most of the people of Jerusalem would perish in or around the city (v 12). The hair represented the people, Jerusalem represented the head. Notice God says "I will draw out a sword after them." In other words God would use Jerusalem's enemies for its punishment. Compare Isa 10:5; Jer 51:20.

5:3,4 Some of the people would escape, but some of those who escaped would also perish. Try to imagine what an effect Ezekiel's strange behavior would have on those who saw it.

5:5 From this verse to the end of chapter 7 we have God's message through Ezekiel explaining his symbolic actions.

"In the midst" – or "in the center" – 38:12; God has placed all peoples in the 5 "Thus says the Lord God: This is Jerusalem. I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that surround her. 6 And she has rebelled against my ordinances more wickedly than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected my ordinances and my statutes. They have not walked in them.

7 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: Because you have multiplied rebellion more than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, or kept my ordinances, or even acted according to the ordinances of the nations around you,

8 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: See, I, I myself, am against you and will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations. 9 And, because of all your abominations, I will do in you what I have not done, and the like of which I will not do again. 10 Therefore the fathers will eat the sons in your midst, and the sons will eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in you, and I will scatter all the rest of you to all the winds. 11 Therefore, as I live, says the Lord God, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore surely I will also withdraw and my eye will have no pity, and I will not spare. 12 A third of you will die from the plague, and will be consumed by famine in your midst; and a third part will fall by the sword around you; and I will scatter a third part to all the winds, and draw out a sword after them.

parts of the world where He wanted them to be (Acts 17:26). Jerusalem was to be a channel of truth and blessing to all nations. God so arranged matters that Jerusalem would be in an ideal place at the center of all, at the crossroads of many peoples. Jerusalem was the center of God's activities on earth, not merely geographically but spiritually.

5:6-8 Jerusalem utterly failed in what she should have been. Because that city had far more of God's light and truth than other nations its wickedness was even greater than others because it turned away from light and truth. Because it had been given much, much was required of it. Compare Matt 11:20-24; Luke 12:48. So God would make that city an object lesson to all the world. See the terrible words of v 8 – "I am against you". If God is against us who can be for us?

5:9 Verse 11. Idolatry was one of the chief reasons for God's terrible anger against Jerusalem (6:3-10).

5:10 Deut 28:53; Jer 19:9; Lam 2:20; 4:10; Zech 11:9.

5:11 "No pity" – this word came from the God who is love (1 John 4:8), and who delights to show compassion (Ex 34:6; Ps 103:8). We can understand from this how terrible was Jerusalem's wickedness.

5:12 Verse 2.

13 "Thus my anger will be spent, and I will cause my fury to rest on them, and I will be appeased; and when my fury against them is spent, they will know that I, the LORD, have spoken it in my zeal.

14 "Moreover I will make you a wasteland, and an object of reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all who pass by. 15 So it will be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and an object of astonishment to the nations that are around you, when I execute judgments in you in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken it. 16 When I send on them the disastrous arrows of famine, which will destroy them, I will send them to destroy you (then I will increase the famine among you, and will break your staff of bread). 17 So I will send on you famine and evil beasts, and they will bereave you; and plague and bloodshed will pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you. I, the LORD, have spoken it."

6 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, 3 and say, 'You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God: Thus says the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys: See, I, I myself, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. 4 And your altars will be desolate, and your images will be broken. And I will throw your slain people down in front of your idols. 5 And I will lay the dead bodies

5:13 6:12; 7:8; 13:15; 20:8,21. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18.

"They will know that I, the LORD, have spoken" – these words or similar words are found 65 times in Ezekiel. It was very important for the people of Israel to know that God was speaking to them. Hearing and obeying God's message was the only way back to God for them.

5:14,15 Lev 26:32; Deut 28:30,46; Ps 74:3-10; 79:1-4; Jer 18:16; 19:8; 22:8,9. 5:16,17 Here are the four means of destruction God sometimes used when He rose against evil cities and lands – famine, wild beasts, plague, and sword (Jer 15:2,3; 24:10). For something similar in the future see Rev 6:8. Observe that in times of judgment "arrows of famine" are sent by God Himself.

6:1 In 5:5-17 God speaks of punishment coming on Jerusalem. In this chapter He speaks of judgments about to fall on the whole land of Israel.

6:3 "High places" – the Israelites, contrary to God's commands about worship, followed the practice of other nations and erected shrines and idols in the open air, usually on hills (v 13).

6:4-14 God would personally see to it that their false worship would be ended. Observe of the children of Israel in front of their idols, and I will scatter your bones around your altars. 6 In all the places you live, the cities will be laid waste, and the high places will be desolate, so that your altars will be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols will be broken and come to an end, and your images will be cut down, and your works will be abolished. 7 And the slain will fall in your midst, and you will know that I am the LORD.

8 "Yet I will leave a remnant, so that you may have some who will escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered through the countries. 9 And those of you who escape will remember me among the nations where they are led away as captives, because I am heartbroken over their adulterous heart which departed from me, and over their eyes which go after their idols, prostituting themselves. And they will loathe themselves because of the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. 10 And they will know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would bring this disaster on them.

11 "Thus says the Lord God: Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, 'Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel!' For they will fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague. 12 He who is far off will die from the plague, and he who is near will fall by the sword, and he who remains and is besieged will die from the famine. Thus I will spend my fury on them. 13 Then you will know that I am the LORD, when

"I will throw" (v 4), "my hand" (v 14). Then is God heartless and cruel? Not at all (Lam 3:22,32,33). He has infinite love and compassion. But this will not mean that the guilty will be spared (Ex 34:6,7). There would be great destruction and misery, but out of it all would come great good – the people who escaped would learn an invaluable lesson (vs 7,10,13,14). Israel's need to recognize Jehovah and His deeds is a central theme in the whole book of Ezekiel, mentioned more than 50 times.

6:8-10 God often spoke through Isaiah concerning a remnant (Isa 1:9; 10:20-22; 11:11,16; 37:31,32; 46:3). In this way one of God's purposes in bringing disaster on Judah would be fulfilled – the exiles would remember God (Jer 29:11-14). They would understand in some measure how they had grieved Him by their idolatry and adulterous behavior. And they would loathe themselves – an attitude that accompanies deep conviction of sin and true repentance (Job 42:6).

6:11 Ezekiel's actions could make a deeper impression on the people than mere words could do.

6:12 "My fury" – 5:13; 7:8; 13:15; 20:8,21. 6:13 Throughout the Bible the one true God reveals His utter hatred of false worship and idolatry (Ex 20:4-6; etc).

their slain people are among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on the tops of all the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols. 14 So I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate, yes, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in every place they live; and they will know that I am the LORD."

7 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Also, son of man, thus says the Lord God to the land of Israel: An end! The end is coming on the four corners of the land. 3 Now the end is coming on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways, and will repay you for all your abominations. 4 And my eye will not spare you, nor will I have pity, but on you I will repay you for your ways, and for your abominations which are among you; and you will know that I am the LORD.

5 "Thus says the Lord God: A disaster, a unique disaster! See, it has come. 6 An end has come! The end has come! It is aroused for you. See, it has come! 7 Doom has come to you, O you who live in the land. The time has come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounds of joy again on the mountains. 8 Now I will shortly pour out my fury on you, and spend my anger on you, and judge you according to your ways, and repay you for all your abominations. 9 And my eye will not spare, and I will not have pity; I will repay you for your ways and your abominations that are among you; and you will know that I, the LORD, give the blows.

10 "See the day! See, it has come. Doom has set out. The rod has blossomed, pride has budded. 11 Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness.

6:14 "My hand" – 14:9,13; 16:27; 35:3. Compare Isa 5:25; 9:12,17,21; 10:4.
7:1,2 This whole chapter, like chapter 6, is taken up with judgments against the whole land of Israel. The language of verses 2, 6, 7, 10, 12 indicates how near and how certain was the threatened disaster.
7:3 "Judge you" – as the just judge of the universe this is what God must do and does do (Ps 7:8; 9:8; 50:6; 89:14; 94:2; 98:9). We may be sure that no individual, no city, no land, no people anywhere will ever receive more punishment than they deserve. But this should be no consolation to those who live in sin.
7:4 5:11; Jer 13:14.
7:8 "Pour out my fury" – 9:8; 14:19; 20:8,13,21; 22:31; 30:15; 36:18. This phrase is similar to the expression "spend my wrath" in 6:12. The words "wrath" and "anger" and "fury" are used many times in Ezekiel.
7:9 "I, the LORD, give the blows" – 2 Chron 21:14; Ps 39:10; Isa 9:13; Jer 5:3; Lam

None of them will remain, none of their crowd, nothing they have; and there will be no wailing for them. 12 The time has come! The day has drawn near! Do not let the buyer rejoice, or the seller grieve; for wrath is on its whole multitude. 13 For the seller will not return to what was sold, as long as they are alive; for the vision concerns its whole multitude, which will not return, and no one will strengthen his life by his iniquity. 14 They have blown the trumpet to prepare everyone, but no one goes to the battle; for my wrath is on its whole multitude.

15 "The sword is outside, and the plague and famine inside. He who is in the field will die by the sword, and famine and plague will devour the one who is in the city. 16 But those among the ones who escape will escape and be on the mountains, all of them mourning like doves of the valleys, each one for his guilt. 17 All hands will be feeble, and all knees will be as weak as water. 18 They will also tie sackcloth around themselves, and horror will cover them, and shame will be on every face, and every head will be shaved. 19 They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be abhorred. Their silver and their gold will not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD; they will not satisfy their souls, or fill their stomach, because it has been their stumbling block of wickedness. 20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things out of it, so I will make it abhorrent to them. 21 And I will give it into the hands of foreigners as prey, and to the wicked of the earth as plunder, and they will defile it. 22 I will also turn my face from them, and they will defile my secret place; for robbers will enter it, and defile it.

3:1; Ezek 24:16; Hos 6:1. The people would trace their calamities back to their source and understand why they had come on them.
7:10-13 These verses point out other reasons for God's anger. The people were proud (vs 20,24), violent (v 23), greedy (v 19), and totally occupied with their own affairs. This will be the condition of many at the end of this age – Matt 24:37,38; 2 Tim 3:1-5.
7:14 They would not be able to resist the coming armies of Babylon.
7:16 "For his guilt" – God repeats this again and again so that none might think they were innocent sufferers.
7:18 5:1-4.
7:19 Too late they would learn what little value their wealth had. Compare Ps 49:5-10; Luke 12:14-21.
7:20 Isa 3:16,18-22; Jer 10:3,4; Ezek 16:11-17.
7:21 What we do not use in a proper way for God's glory may be taken from us at any moment.
7:22 "Turn my face" – compare the expression

23 "Make a chain. For the land is full of crimes of bloodshed, and the city is full of violence. 24 Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they will possess their houses. I will also put a stop to the pomp of the strong, and their holy places will be defiled. 25 Destruction is coming! And they will seek peace, and there will be none. 26 Disaster will follow disaster, and rumour will follow rumour. Then they will seek a vision from the prophet; but the law will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. 27 The king will mourn, and the prince will be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will do to them as their ways deserve, and judge them according to their own standards, and they will know that I am the Lord."

8 And it came about in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, with the elders of Judah sitting in front of me, that the hand of the Lord God suddenly came on me there. 2 Then I looked, and saw a figure like the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his waist downward, fire; and from his waist upward, like the appearance of brightness, like the colour of amber. 3 And he stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by the hair of my head, and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looks toward the north, where the seat of the idol of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy, was. 4 And, see, the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 Then he said to me, "Son of man, now raise your eyes toward the north." So I raised my eyes toward the north, and saw in the north, at the gate of the altar, this idol of jealousy at the entrance.

6 And he said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing? The great abominations that the house of Israel is committing here, to drive me far away from my sanctuary? But now turn, and you will see greater abominations."

7 And he brought me to the door of the courtyard: and when I looked I saw a hole in the wall. 8 Then he said to me, "Son of man, now dig in the wall." And when I had dug in the wall, a door appeared.

9 And he said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they are doing here." 10 So I went in and looked, and saw every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed all around on the wall. 11 And before them stood seventy of the elders of the house of Israel, and among them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. And each man had his censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense was rising up.

12 Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, each man in the room of his idol? For they say, 'The LORD does not see us. The LORD has forsaken the land.'" 13 He also to me, "Turn yourself again, and you will see greater abominations that they are doing."

to hide the face (Ps 13:1; 30:7; 69:17; 143:7).

"My secret place" – God's temple in Jerusalem.

7:23 "Chain" – signifies that some who remained in Jerusalem would go into captivity.

7:24 "The worst of the nations" – Babylon. See Isa 14:3-6; Jer 50:29-33,38; 51:6,7,34,35; Hab 1:6-11.

7:25 13:10,16; Jer 6:14; 8:11; Isa 48:22; 57:21.

7:26 When God withdraws His guidance it is a calamity worse than mere physical ones. 7:27 "As their ways deserve" – Ps 18:25,26.

"According to their own standards" – Israel knew what just judgment was, and was quick enough to judge other nations. Compare Rom 2:14,15. Now they would experience judgment themselves. Compare Matt 7:12; Rom 2:1-3.

8:1 This begins a series of visions which is concluded at the end of chapter 11. This section records things Ezekiel saw and heard in vision as though he were in Jerusalem. The time was September 592 BC, about 14 months after the first visions he saw (1:2).

"Elders" – by now it seems they recognized Ezekiel as a prophet who could give them God's message.

"Hand" – 1:3.

8:2 The same figure that appeared on the throne in 1:26,27.

8:3 This was an experience similar to Paul's recorded in 2 Cor 12:2. Possibly Ezekiel did not know whether he was in the body or out of it.

"Jealousy" – v 5; Ex 20:4-6; 34:14; Deut 4:23,24.

8:4 1:4-27.

8:6 "Abominations" – it was arrogant and daring wickedness to put idols to a false god or goddess in Jehovah's own temple compound.

"Drive me far away" – 10:4,18,19; 11:23. The unbelief and sin of the people had reached such a degree that God could no longer endure it.

8:10 Observe even in God's special people Israel this strange and wicked tendency to forsake the true and living God, the Creator, and to worship animals. See Rom 1:21-23. The Jews in Ezekiel's day even worshiped animals they regarded as unclean (Lev 11:26,27,41-45).

8:11,12 It was not merely the common people (who may not have known better)

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north, and there appeared women sitting, weeping for Tammuz. 15 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Turn yourself again, and you will see greater abominations than these."

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and about twenty-five men appeared at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the portico and the altar, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east.

17 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they are committing here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have repeatedly provoked me to anger. And, see, they are putting the branch to their nose. 18 Therefore I will also deal in fury. My eye will not spare, and I will not have pity. And though they cry out in my ears with a loud voice, I will still not listen to them."

9 He also cried out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who have charge of the city to draw near, each once with his destroying weapon in his hand." 2 And six men who engaged in this detestable worship of creatures, it was the leaders of the people. Observe what they said (9:9; Ps 10:11; Isa 29:15; etc).

8:14 Tammuz was the Babylonian god of fertility, connected with the cycles of nature. He was regarded as dying each year when vegetation died, and as coming to life when new vegetation sprang up. Each year women mourned the death of Tammuz. They were forsaking the God of Israel, who gave them all they had, for one of the false gods of their conquerors, the cruel and ruthless Babylonians. This was very detestable to the true God.

8:15,16 The most detestable thing of all was false worship at the very altar of God by priests or Levites (no one else could approach the altar). They were facing the wrong way – not toward the Most Holy Place where God was, but toward the east. They had forsaken the God who made the sun (Gen 1:16), and worshiped the sun He had made – a thing forbidden in God's law on pain of death – Deut 17:2-5.

8:17 "Putting the branch to their nose" – the only place in the Bible where this is mentioned. It may have been connected with their false worship.

8:18 5:11; 9:10; 24:14; Jer 11:11; 13:14; Isa 1:15; 59:2.

9:1,2 These ones who had "charge of the city" were angels who appeared to Ezekiel in the form of men as angels sometimes did then and, for all we know, may do now appeared coming from the way of the Upper Gate, which faces north, and each one had a weapon of slaughter in his hand. And one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writing case at his side. And they went in, and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherub, on which it had been, to the threshold of the temple. And he called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writing case at his side, 4 and the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry for all the abominations that are done in the midst of it."

5 And he said to the others in my hearing, "You go after him through the city, and strike. Do not let your eye spare, do not have pity. 6 Slaughter old and young, both maidens and little children and women, but do not go near anyone on whom is the mark. And begin at my sanctuary." Then they began with the elders who were before the house.

7 And he said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth." And they went forth, and killed people in the city. 8 And it came about, as they were killing them, and I was left alone, that I prostrated myself, and cried out, saying, "Alas, Lord God! Will you destroy all the

"Writing case" – pens, ink, writing material. 9:3 The glory of God moved away from its place in the Most Holy Place above the cherubim over the mercy seat. The true God will have nothing to do with idolatry. Compare 2 Cor 6:14-16.

9:4 Even in those days of wickedness and unbelief there were some in Jerusalem who remained true to God and His word. They showed they were in tune with God by their attitude to the sins of the city. The angel was to mark them out for protection. Remember that this happened in a vision. There was no literal marking of physical foreheads. Compare Rev 7:1-4.

9:5,6 This was to signify to Ezekiel what would happen when the Babylonians captured and destroyed the city.

"Begin at my sanctuary" – they began with those who were responsible to lead the people in the ways of God. Because they did not do so, these leaders were the most guilty of all the people (8:11,12; compare 1 Pet 4:17).

9:7 "Defile" – dead bodies were defiling under the law (Lev 21:1,11; Num 19:11-16). God commanded the angels to defile His own holy temple. It had become an idol shrine and He was abandoning it.

9:8 11:13. Compare Ezekiel's love for the people with other men of God – Ex 32:30-32; Num 14:5,6,10-19; Josh 7:6,7; Jer 8:21; 9:1; Rom 9:1-3. What a contrast with the elders described in 8:10,11!

rest of Israel in your pouring out of your fury on Jerusalem?"

9 Then he said to me, "The wickedness of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity; for they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land,' and 'The LORD does not see.' 10 And as for me also, my eye will not spare, and I will not have pity, but I will repay their way on their head."

11 And the man clothed in linen, who had the writing case at his side, appeared, and reported the matter, saying, "I have done as you commanded me."

10 Then I looked and saw in the expanse that was above the heads of the cherubim an appearance above them of something like a sapphire stone, like the appearance of the likeness of a throne. 2 And he spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, "Go in between the wheels, under the cherub, and fill your hand with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." And in my sight he went in.

3 Now the cherubim stood at the right side of the temple when the man went in, and the cloud was filling the inner courtyard. 4 Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood above the threshold of the temple, and the temple was filled with the cloud, and the courtyard was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. 5 And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer courtyard, like the voice of the Almighty God when he speaks.

6 And it came about, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubim," that he went in, and stood beside the wheels. 7 And one cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took some of it, and put it into the hands of the one who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. 8 And there appeared among the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings.

10:12 This is a fact not stated in the

9 And when I looked, I saw the four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like the colour of a beryl stone. 10 And as for their appearances, the four of them had the same likeness, as if one wheel was inside another wheel. 11 When they went, they went in the direction of one of their four sides. They did not turn as they went, but followed to the place where the head was looking. They did not turn as they went. 12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. 13 As for the wheels, in my hearing they were called "The Whirling Wheels." 14 And each one had four faces. The first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubim rose up. This is the living being that I saw by the Kebar River. 16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went with them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise up from the earth, the wheels also did not turn from beside them. 17 When they stood, these stood, and when they went up, these went up with them; for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from the threshold of the temple, and stood above the cherubim. 19 And the cherubim raised their wings, and rose from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and each one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house. And the glory of the God of Israel was up above them.

20 This is the living being that I saw under the God of Israel by the Kebar River; and I knew that they were the cherubim. 21 Each one had four faces, and each one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. 22 And the likeness of their faces was the same as the faces whose appearance I had seen by the Kebar River. Each one went straight forward.

description of the cherubim in 1:5-14. Full of eyes signifies great intelligence and great watchfulness.

10:13 A fact about the wheels not given in chapter 1.

10:15 Verse 20. Ezekiel did not call them cherubim in chapter 1. Perhaps he did not then recognize them to be such.

10:16,17 1:19-21.

10:18,19 Signifies the slow, reluctant departure of God from His temple, His home, His people.

11 And the spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of the LORD's house, which looks eastward. And at the door of the gate twenty-five men appeared. Among them I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. 2 Then he said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plot evil, and give wicked counsel in this city, 3 who say, 'It is not near the time for us to build houses. This city is the cooking pot and we are the meat.' 4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man."

5 And the Spirit of the LORD suddenly came on me, and said to me, "Say, Thus says the LORD: You have spoken this, O house of Israel; for the things which come into your mind, I know them all. 6 You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain.

7 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: Your slain whom you have caused to lie in the midst of it, they are the meat, and this city is the cooking pot, but I will bring you out of the midst of it. 8 You have feared the sword, and I will bring a sword on you, says the Lord God. 9 And I will bring you out of the midst of the city, and hand you over to foreigners, and will execute judgments among you. 10 You will fall by the sword. I will judge you at the border of Israel, and you will know that I am the LORD. 11 This city will not be your cooking pot, and you will not be the meat inside it, but I will judge you on the border of Israel, 12 and you will know that I am the LORD. For you have not walked in my statutes, or executed my judgments, but have acted in the ways of the nations that are around you."

13 And it happened, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I went down on my face, and cried out with a loud voice, and said, "Alas, Lord God! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

14 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 15 "Son of man, your brethren, even your brethren, your relatives and kindred, and the whole house of Israel, are the ones to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Go far from the LORD. This land has been given to us to possess.'

16 "Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord God: Although I have put them far off among the nations, and although I have scattered them in the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone.'

17 "Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord God: I will gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.'

18 "And they will come here, and they will take away from here all its detestable things and all its abominations. 19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you, and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh, 20 so that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them. And they will be my people, and I will be their God. 21 But as for those whose heart follows their detestable things and their abominations, I will

11:1 This Jaazaniah is different from the one in 8:11.

11:3 They refused to believe God's message through Jeremiah that the Babylonians would destroy the city (Jer 14:12-16; 21:3-10). They thought they were safe, that the walls of Jerusalem would be like brass walls around them to protect them. They boasted that they were the "meat", the choicest part of the nation. Compare vs 7-11; see Jeremiah chapter 24.

11:5 "The things which come into your mind, I know them all" – Ps 26:2; Jer 17:10; Heb 4:12.

11:6 7:23; Isa 1:15; etc.

11:7 God says the choicest part of the nation was those murdered by these men. Those dead were true prophets and godly men. Compare Matt 23:27-31; Acts 7:52. 11:10,11 2 Kings 25:18-21.

11:12 2 Chron 36:14.

11:15 The people of Jerusalem were referring to those who had gone into exile with Ezekiel. They thought God's wrath was on them and imagined that God's blessing was on those who remained in Jerusalem. This was the exact opposite of the truth as verses 16-21 show. See also Jeremiah chapter 24. It is the way of sinful men to misinterpret what God does and turn the truth upside down.

11:16 "I have been a sanctuary for them" – God's presence was forsaking Jerusalem to be with His people in exile. This is the significance of the vision of the glory of God leaving the temple in Jerusalem and appearing to Ezekiel in Babylon.

11:17 The future of the nation of Israel lay with the exiles, not with those who remained in Judah.

11:18 The exiles after their return from Babylon, having learned their lesson, were opposed to all idolatry.

11:19 36:26. "One heart" – Ps 86:11; 1 Cor 7:35; Jam 1:6,7.

"Stony heart" – this is what they had before the exile. Their hearts were so hard that the word of God made no impression on them. A heart of flesh is a heart that is tender and obedient toward God, a heart on which His word can be written – v 20; Prov 3:3; 7:3; Jer 31:33; 2 Cor 3:3.

11:20 "I will be their God" – the promise that runs like a golden thread through the Bible – Gen 17:7; Ex 6:7; Lev 26:12; Deut 7:6; 26:19; Jer 11:4; 31:33; Ezek 36:28; Hos 1:9,10; 2:23.

repay their way on their own heads, says the Lord God."

22 Then the cherubim raised their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was up above them. 23 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. 24 Afterwards the Spirit took me up, and in a vision brought me by the Spirit of God to Chaldea, to those of the captivity.

So the vision that I had seen went up from me. 25 Then I told those of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me.

12 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, you live in the midst of a rebellious house. They have eyes to see, but do not see. They have ears to hear, but do not hear. For they are a rebellious house.

3 "Therefore, son of man, pack up your things for exile, and in the daylight go into exile in their sight, going into exile from your place to another place in their sight. Perhaps they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. 4 Then you are to bring out your things in the daylight in their sight, like things for exile, and in the evening set out in their sight, like those going away into captivity. 5 Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry the things out through it. 6 In their sight you carry them on your shoulders, and bring them out at twilight. You are to cover your face, so that you will not see the ground. For I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."

7 And I did as I was commanded. I brought out my things in daylight, like things for captivity, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought them out at twilight, and carried them on my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9 "Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?'

10 "Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: This burden is concerning the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel who are among them.'

11:22,23 The mountain east of Jerusalem is the mount of Olives. From its summit, much later in history, God's glory in Christ, after pausing there, ascended into heaven. To the same mount He will return at the end of this age (Zech 14:4).

11:24 8:3. "Chaldea – the southern part of the country of Babylon, but sometimes the whole country was called by this name.

12:2 Isa 1:2-4; 6:9,10.

12:3-16 Neither the exiles in Babylon nor those who remained in Jerusalem believed that Jerusalem would be destroyed and all the people exiled. To convince them of the 11 Say, 'I am your sign. It will be done to them just as I have done. They will be exiled and go into captivity.'

12 "And the prince who is among them will carry his things on his shoulders at twilight, and go out. They will dig through the wall to carry their things out through it. He will cover his face, so that he will not see the ground with his eyes. 13 And I will spread my net over him, and he will be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans. But he will not see it, though he will die there. 14 And I will scatter all his helpers who are around him and all his troops to all the winds, and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 "And they will know that I am the LORD, when I scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries. 16 But I will spare a few of their men from the sword, from famine, and from the plague, so that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they go; and they will know that I am the LORD."

17 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, eat your food with shuddering, and drink your water with trembling and with anxiety, 19 and say to the people of the land, 'Thus says the Lord God concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and concerning the land of Israel: They will eat their food with anxiety, and drink their water with astonishment, for their land will be emptied of everything that is in it, because of the violence of all those who live there. 20 And the cities that are inhabited will be laid waste, and the land will be desolate; and you will know that I am the Lord.'"

21 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 22 "Son of man, what is that proverb you have in the land of Israel, saying, 'The days go on, and every vision fails'? 23 Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord God: I will put a stop to this proverb, and they will no longer use it as a proverb in Israel.' And say to them, 'The days are at hand, and the fulfilment of every vision. 24 For there will no longer be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel. 25 For I am the LORD. I will speak, and the word that I speak will come to truth God once again makes Ezekiel an object lesson to them (v 11).

12:12-14 This prince was king Zedekiah. He was brought to Babylon but did not see it because his eyes had been put out (Jer 52:6-11).

12:15,16 "They will know" – 6:8-10.

12:17-20 Another object lesson showing the hopelessness of the situation of the people in Jerusalem (7:27).

12:21,22 This "proverb" showed the unbelief of the people. Compare 2 Pet 3:4.

12:23 Verses 25,28.

pass. It will no longer be delayed; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word, and will fulfil it, says the Lord God.”

26 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 27 “Son of man, see, those of the house of Israel say, ‘The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies about times far off.’

28 “Therefore say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord God: None of my words will be delayed any longer, but the word which I have spoken will be done, says the Lord God.’”

13 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are prophesying, and say to those who prophesy out of their own hearts, ‘Hear the word of the LORD. 3 Thus says the Lord God: Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! 4 O Israel, your prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. 5 You have not gone up into the gaps, or made a wall for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. 6 They see a false thing and lying divination, saying, “The LORD says,” and the LORD has not sent them; and they have made others hope that they would confirm the word. 7 Have you not seen a false vision, and have you not spoken a lying divination when you say, “The LORD says it”, although I have not spoken?

8 “Therefore thus says the Lord God: Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, and Jer 14:14.

12:27 Since the Lord through the prophets kept giving the same message again and again the people finally admitted that it might be fulfilled – but only far in the future. They tried to escape the plain meaning of God’s word by saying it did not apply to their own time. They were not the last to do so.

13:2,3 “Own hearts” – Jer 14:14. Other notes on false prophets at Gen 20:7; Deut 18:20-22; 1 Kings 18:19-29; Jer 23:32; Matt 24:11,24.

“Foolish prophets” – or it could be translated “wicked” or “vile” prophets. The Hebrew word signifies someone who is foolish because he is lacking in moral character, one who has no wisdom because he has no fear of the Lord (Prov 1:7). In other respects such “foolish” shepherds might be very clever and knowledgeable.

13:4,5 They were destructive not constructive. They sought a comfortable place for themselves in ruins left by others, but could do nothing to rebuild those ruins.

13:6 Not everyone who imagines he is a prophet is one. The world has always been troubled and deceived by those who vainly thought they were prophets or whom others considered prophets.

therefore, see, I am against you, says the Lord God. 9 And my hand will be on the prophets who see false things, and lying divinations. They will not be in the assembly of my people, nor will they be written in the records of the house of Israel, and they will not enter the land of Israel; and you will know that I am the Lord God.

10 “Because, yes, because they have seduced my people, saying, “Peace,” when there was no peace, and one builds a wall, and, see, others daub it with whitewash, 11 say to those who daub it with whitewash, that it will fall. There will be a torrential rain, and you, O great hailstones, will fall, and a stormy wind will tear it down. 12 Look, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, “Where is the whitewash with which you daubed it?”

13 “Therefore thus says the Lord God: In my fury I will tear it down with a stormy wind, and in my anger there will be a torrential rain, and in my fury great hailstones to destroy it. 14 So I will break down the wall that you have daubed with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered, and it will fall, and you will be destroyed in it; and you will know that I am the LORD. 15 Thus I will spend my wrath on the wall, and on those who have daubed it with whitewash, and will say to you, The wall is gone, and those who daubed it, 16 that is, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace, says the Lord God.’

17 “Likewise, son of man, set your face against

13:8,9 Those who falsely speak for God will find eventually that God is against them. These particular ones were among the exiles in Babylon. See Jer 29:15,32.

13:10 This is the great damage false prophets do to their fellow men. They lead them astray, away from truth, away from God. To those who have the anger of God resting on them because of their sins and unbelief they promise peace. They whitewash the wall which unbelieving people try to build against disaster. Whitewash means to make it look finished and attractive. Thus they contribute to their hardness of heart and eventual punishment (vs 19,22).

13:11 This storm symbolizes the anger of God that would demolish all that people thought was their protection and safety (vs 13-16).

13:12 The false prophets will be found out for what they really are.

13:17-23 There were true prophetesses in Israel – Miriam (Ex 15:20), Deborah (Jud 4:4), Hulda (2 Kings 22:14). There were also false ones who engaged in black magic. The practice of magic, divination, sorcery, etc is severely condemned in the Bible (Ex 22:18; Deut 18:10; Acts 8:11; Rev 9:21; 21:8; 22:15). Those who engage in them will have God against them. They who practice such the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart, and prophesy against them, 18 and say, Thus says the Lord God: Woe to the women who sew magic charms on all wrists, and make veils on the heads of every height to hunt for souls! Will you hunt for the souls of my people, and will you save alive the souls who come to you? 19 And will you profane me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save alive the souls that should not live, by your lying to my people who hear your lies?

20 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: See, I am against your charms, with which you there hunt souls like birds, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, the souls that you hunt like birds. 21 I will also tear off your veils, and rescue my people out of your hands, and they will no longer be in your hands to be hunted; and you will know that I am the LORD. 22 Because with your lies you have saddened the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad, and you have strengthened the hands of the wicked by promising him life, so that he would not turn back from his wicked way. 23 Therefore you will no longer see false visions, or practice divinations, for I will deliver my people out of your hands; and you will know that I am the LORD."

14 Then some of the elders of Israel came to me, and sat in front of me. 2 And the word things do so for their personal benefit. These things lead to bondage. They are based on lies, and appeal to those who are ignorant of the truth of God or who refuse that truth. They destroy those who persist in them.

13:19 What they did was from a desire for gain. Compare Jer 6:13; 8:10; Micah 3:5,11. For the sake of money there are always some people who will teach and preach what people want to hear, without any regard for the truth (Titus 1:11). They do not seem to care even though those deceived by them are destroyed in time and eternity. Notice the words "who hear your lies" – false prophets and prophetesses would have no place in the world if people were not willing to believe their lies. God will judge very severely those who prefer lies to truth (2 Thess 2:10-12).

13:20 False prophets and prophetesses ensnare people by lies and satanic power. They operate in the realm of the darkness and spiritual ignorance of the human heart. They use the same method Satan uses to destroy men – lies (John 8:44). Those who do not know the Bible or believe God's truth revealed in it are in grave danger from such. God will deal with them all as they deserve in His time and way.

13:21 They have a kind of power only God of the LORD came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumbling block of their wickedness before their face. Should I be consulted by them at all? 4 Therefore speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Lord God: When anyone of the house of Israel sets up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet, I, the LORD, will answer the one who comes, in accordance with his many idols, 5 so that I may take hold of the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: Repent, and turn away from your idols, and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 "When anyone of the house of Israel, or of the foreigners who have settled in Israel, separates himself from me, and sets up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to a prophet to consult him concerning me, I, the LORD, will answer him by myself, 8 and I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from among my people; and you will know that I am the LORD.

9 "And if a prophet is induced to speak a thing, I, the LORD have induced that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him can save people from (v 23).

13:22 Verses 13,19.

14:1 These elders recognized Ezekiel as a prophet and came to enquire what God had to say through him.

14:3 They did not receive the kind of message they expected. They were not fit to enquire of God and were plainly told so. They were breaking God's first commandment and were worthy of death (Ex 20:3-5; Deut 13:6-18). Did they vainly imagine that God would give them His blessing? Two sins are mentioned here. Idols in the heart are mentioned three times (vs 3,4,7). Idolatry in the heart is the source of all kinds of idolatry and is just as sinful and dangerous as the worship of outward idols. Many a person who is religious and seemingly pious may have something in his heart which replaces the true God and to which he gives his affections and service. Compare Col 3:5. So we are told in God's Word to guard our hearts above all things (Prov 4:23).

14:4 God will give such people what they deserve – v 8.

14:5 Even in severe judgments God has good purposes.

14:6 God delights to show mercy, not to punish – 18:30; 33:11; etc.

14:9 Here is a truth (punishment, judgment from God) that should make us tremble. If from among my people Israel. 10 And they will bear the punishment for their wickedness. The punishment of the prophet will be the same as the punishment of the one who seeks him out, 11 so that the house of Israel may no longer go astray from me, or be polluted any more with all their transgressions, but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, says the Lord God."

12 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 13 "Son of man, when the land sins against me by unfaithfulness, then I will stretch out my hand on it, and will break the staff of its bread and send famine on it, and cut off man and beast from it. 14 Even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would rescue only their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord God.

15 "If I cause wild beasts to pass through the land, and they depopulate it, so that it becomes desolate, no man passing through it because of the beasts, 16 even if these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord God, they would rescue neither sons nor daughters; only they would be rescued, and the land would become desolate.

17 "Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, 'Sword, go through the land,' so that I cut off man and beast from it, 18 even if these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord God, they would rescue neither sons nor daughters, but only they themselves would be rescued.

people insist on hearing lies and false doctrine, in judgment God will see to it that they get them. Then He will punish both the prophet who spoke them and the people who loved to hear them (Deut 13:1-5; 1 Kings 22:1-28; 2 Thess 2:9-12).

14:10 They who refuse God's truth and love to hear lies (Jer 5:30,31) and prophets who tell them what they want to hear are all following their fallen sinful natures.

14:11 Verse 5.

14:13,14 God here means Jerusalem and Judah in particular. It seems some of the exiles thought that as long as there were righteous men such as Jeremiah and Ezekiel to pray for the people God would not destroy Jerusalem. The three mentioned in v 14 were the most righteous people in their generations – Noah (Gen 6:9; 7:1); Job (Job 1:8); Daniel (his righteousness and purity appear throughout the book of Daniel). But even if they were in Jerusalem to intercede for it they would not be able to preserve anyone but themselves by their righteousness. God reveals more about this truth in chapter 18. In all history there is only one person able to save others by His righteousness – the Lord Jesus (Rom 5:18,19).

"Daniel" – some scholars think that the Hebrew spelling of this name here may indicate some person other than Daniel the prophet (also v 20). However, it would be strange if there were a person so outstanding 19 "Or if I send a plague into that land, and pour out my fury on it through bloodshed, to cut off from it man and beast, 20 even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, says the Lord God, they would rescue neither son nor daughter; they would rescue only their own souls by their righteousness.

21 "For thus says the Lord God: How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the wild beast, and the plague, to cut off from it man and beast? 22 Yet there will be left in it a remnant who will be brought out, both sons and daughters. See, they will come out to you, and you will see their way and their deeds, and you will be comforted concerning the disaster that I have brought on Jerusalem, concerning all that I have brought on it. 23 And they will comfort you, when you see their ways and their deeds; and you will know that I have not done all that I have done in it without reason, says the Lord God."

15 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, how is the vine tree better than any wood of a branch which is among the trees of the forest? 3 Will wood be taken from it to do any work? Or will men make a peg from it to hang any utensil on? 4 See, it is thrown into the fire as fuel. The fire devours both ends of it, and for his righteousness but totally unknown down through the centuries, whose name could be joined with such famous names as Noah and Job.

14:21 "Four severe judgments" – these four are the usual instruments of punishment (5:17; 33:27; Jer 14:12; 15:3; 24:10; 27:8; Rev 6:8).

14:22 12:16. They will be preserved from destruction, not because of the righteousness of others, but because of their own righteous conduct – 9:4-6. Seeing this the exiles in Babylon would have some comfort.

14:23 Did they doubt that God always has a good reason for what He does?

15:1-8 The nation Israel is compared to a vine also in Ps 80:8-13; Isa 5:1-7. Here the remnant of those remaining in Jerusalem is described as completely useless. They have been like wood put in the fire already and who had escaped to some extent. This was in 597 BC when Nebuchadnezzar conquered Jerusalem and took away captives. Jerusalem would be in the fire again and conquered completely. This happened in 586 BC. Ezekiel has warned about it already (5:2,4; 10:2,7). But why should the nation represented by Jerusalem be compared to wood from a vine? The purpose of a vine is to bear fruit. Israel had not done this. It was fit only for the fire. Compare Matt 3:10.

the middle of it is burned. Is it fit for any work? 5 See, when it was whole, it was not fit for any work; how much less will it be fit for any work, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned?

6 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: Like the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given as fuel for the fire, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 7 And I will set my face against them. They will go out of one fire, and another fire will devour them; and you will know that I am the Lord, when I set my face against them. 8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have been unfaithful, says the Lord God."

16 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, 3 and say, Thus says the Lord God to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth are of the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother a Hittite. 4 And as for your birth, in the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, and you were not washed in water to cleanse you; you were not rubbed with salt or even wrapped in cloths. 5 No eye pitied you to do any of these for you, to have compassion on you, but you were thrown out into the open field, for you were abhorred on the day that you were born.

6 "And when I passed by you, and saw you defiled in your own blood, I said to you while you were in your blood, 'Live!' Yes, I said to you while you were in your blood, 'Live!' 7 I caused you to grow like a plant of the field, and you increased and became great, and you reached the age of wearing beautiful ornaments. Your breasts were formed, and your hair grew, but you were naked and bare.

8 "When I passed by you, and looked at you, I saw your time was the time of love, and I spread my cloak over you and covered your nakedness; yes, I gave my oath to you, and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord God, and you became mine.

9 "Then I washed you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. 10 I also clothed you with embroidered work, and gave you sandals of badger skin, and I clothed you with fine linen and covered you with silk. 11 I also adorned you with ornaments, and put bracelets on your arms, and a necklace around your neck. 12 And I put a jewel on your forehead, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. 13 Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen and silk and embroidered work. You ate food made with fine flour and honey and oil. And you were exceedingly beautiful, and you rose to a position of royalty. 14 And your fame went out among the nations for your beauty, for it was perfect through my splendour, which I had put upon you, says the Lord God.

15 "But you trusted in your own beauty, and acted like a prostitute because of your fame, and poured out your acts of adultery on everyone who passed by who would have it. 16 And you took some of your garments and adorned your high

16:1-63 This whole chapter is an elaborate parable or allegory about Jerusalem. It may be divided into 5 parts – God's chosen city (vs 1-14), the city and apostasy (vs 15-34), the city and judgment (vs 35-43), the city compared with her sisters (vs 44-52), and the restoration of the city and her sisters (vs 53-63).

16:3 The people of Israel did not build Jerusalem. Before they arrived in Canaan it had already been built by the people of the land. Note on Amorites and Hittites at Gen 15:16; Josh 1:4.

16:4,5 When first built Jerusalem was not a holy city, not beautiful, not loved by anyone. In fact it was treated as an unwanted female infant and abandoned to die.

16:6-8 God looked at Jerusalem and chose it as His city on earth. But He did not immediately take possession of her. He waited until the proper time. Then He entered into a marriage relationship with her (here, as in Mal 2:14, called a covenant). Verse 8 probably points to the time when God's servant David took the city from the Jebusites (2 Sam 5:6-9). From here on in this chapter Jerusalem is the capital city of the people of Israel and represents them.

16:9-14 God inspired His people (especially David and Solomon) to build and beautify the city. But surely more than buildings is meant here. Jerusalem was beautiful also because it was the center of true religion and spirituality. The "crown" of v 12 probably means God's temple situated on one of the hills of Jerusalem.

16:13 "Gold and silver" – Solomon's day (1 Kings 10:21).

"Royalty" – because from there David and Solomon ruled all Israel, and other nations, and because it was the city of the great king, God Himself (Ps 48:2; Matt 5:35).

16:14 "Fame" – 1 Kings 10:23,24.

"Beauty" – Ps 48:1,2; Lam 2:15.

16:15-34 The city is not mere buildings, but its people. In these verses Jerusalem, representing Israel, is pictured as going away from the one true God to worship other gods. This began to happen toward the end of Solomon's reign and continued with some breaks until Ezekiel's own day (1 Kings 11:4-8; Ezek 8:5-16). In the Bible unfaithfulness to God in spiritual matters is compared to adultery and prostitution. See chapter 23; Jeremiah chapter 3; Hosea chapter 2.

16:15 "Everyone" – Israel ran after the gods places with various colours, and acted like a prostitute on them; such things should not happen or ever be. 17 You also took your beautiful jewels made from my gold and my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and committed prostitution with them, 18 and took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. 19 Also my food which I gave you, fine flour and oil and honey, with which I fed you, you set before them as a fragrant aroma. This is the way it was, says the Lord God.

20 "Moreover you took your sons and your daughters, whom you bore to me, and you sacrificed them to the idols to be devoured. Were your acts of prostitution a small matter, 21 that you slaughtered my children, and offered them up to pass through the fire for the idols? 22 And in all your abominations and your acts of prostitution you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and defiled in your blood.

23 "And it came about after all your wickedness (woe, woe to you! says the Lord God), 24 that you also built for yourself a shrine, and made a high place in each street for yourself. 25 You built your high places at the head of every road, and made your beauty abhorrent, and offered yourself to every one who passed by, and multiplied your acts of prostitution. 26 You also committed adultery with your neighbors the Egyptians, great of flesh, and increased your acts of prostitution, provoking me to anger. 27 See, therefore, that I stretched out my hand over you, and reduced your rations, and delivered you up to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd way. 28 You also acted like a prostitute with the Assyrians, because you were unsatiable; yes, you acted like a prostitute with them, and yet could not be satisfied. 29 And you of all the nations around them.

16:17 "Images of men" – part of the idolatry of Israel's neighbors, and at times of Israel herself, had to do with phallic symbols.

16:18,19 All that the people possessed had been the gift of God. They offered their gifts to idols which God hated.

16:22 Deut 4:9; 6:12; Ps 78:11,42; 106:13.

16:23-25 Places of idolatry which had been on the hills and in the towns around Jerusalem were built afterwards in Jerusalem itself.

16:27 After the death of Solomon the kingdom was divided, and Judah and Jerusalem lost much territory and were greatly weakened. They lost more territory in 701 BC when the king of Assyria gave some of it to the Philistines.

16:28,29 Whatever nation became the great multiplied your acts of adultery with the land of merchants, Chaldea; and yet you were not satisfied with that.

"30 How weak is your heart, says the Lord God, since you do all these things, the work of a bold-faced prostitute! 31 When you build your shrine at the head of every road, and make your high place in each street, you have not been like a prostitute, because you scorned payment, 32 but like a wife who commits adultery, who takes strangers instead of her husband! 33 They give payments to all prostitutes, but you give your payments to all your lovers, and hire them, so that they will come to you from every side for your prostitution. 34 And in your prostitution you are different from other women, because no one comes after you to commit adultery, and because you give payment, and no payment is given to you; therefore you are different.

35 "Therefore, O prostitute, hear the word of the LORD. 36 Thus says the Lord God: Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers and with all of your abominable idols, and through the blood of your children, which you gave to them, 37 see, therefore, I will gather all your lovers, those with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those whom you have loved, with all whom you have hated, I will gather them around against you, and will uncover your nakedness to them, so that they may see all your nakedness. 38 And I will judge you, as women who commit adultery and shed blood are judged, and I will bring blood on you in fury and jealousy. 39 And I will also give you into their hands, and they will tear down your shrines, and break down your high places. Also they will strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels, and leave you naked and bare. 40 They will also bring up a mob against you, and they will hurl stones on you, and pierce you with power in western Asia Israel ran after it and its gods.

16:31-34 Jerusalem, unlike prostitutes, got nothing for giving herself to other gods. Her behavior was worse than that of a common prostitute. So God calls her in v 32 an adulterous wife who refuses her own husband and fully abandons herself to strangers.

16:35-43 Now God sets forth what Jerusalem will have to suffer because of her unfaithfulness.

16:37 Jerusalem's enemies would destroy her and strip her and leave her as she was in the beginning (vs 4,5).

16:38 The penalty of murder and adultery was death (Gen 9:5,6; Ex 21:12-14; Lev 20:10).

their swords. 41 And they will burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to stop acting like a prostitute, and also you will no longer hire lovers. 42 So I will cause my fury toward you to subside, and my jealousy will depart from you, and I will be quiet, and no longer be angry.

43 "Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have provoked me in all these things, see, I will also bring repayment of your way on your head, says the Lord God; and you will not commit this lewdness on top of all your other abominations.

44 "See, everyone who uses proverbs will use this proverb against you, saying, 'As the mother, so her daughter.' 45 You are the daughter of your mother who loathed her husband and her children, and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. 46 And your elder sister was Samaria, who lived to the north of you, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who lived to the south of you, was Sodom and her daughters. 47 Yet you have not followed their ways or acted according to their abominations, but, as if that were too little, you became more corrupt in your ways than all of them. 48 As I live, says the Lord God, neither Sodom your sister nor her daughters did as you have done, you and your daughters.

49 "See, this was the wickedness of your sister Sodom: Pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, and she did not strengthen the hands of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination in front of me; therefore I took them away as I saw good. 51 Neither did Samaria commit half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have made your sisters seem righteous in comparison with all the abominations which you have done. 52 And you, who have judged your sisters, must bear your own shame, for the sins that you have committed are more abominable than theirs. They are more righteous than you. Yes, and be disgraced, and bear your shame, for you have made your sisters seem righteous.

53 "When I reverse their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then along with them I will bring back the captives of your captivity, 54 that you may bear your own shame and be disgraced by all that you have done by being a source of comfort to them. 55 When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters return to their former state, then you and your daughters will return to your former state. 56 For in the day of your pride your lips did not even mention your sister Sodom, 57 before your wickedness was uncovered. So at this time you are reproached by the daughters of Syria, and all who are around her, and the daughters of the Philistines. Everyone around you despises you. 58 You have brought it on you by your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD.

59 "For thus says the Lord God: I will deal with you as you have done, you who have despised 16:41 After the destruction of Jerusalem and Judah's captivity in Babylon the people renounced idolatry.

16:42 Isa 40:1,2; 54:9; Jer 29:10-14; Ezek 5:13; 39:29.

16:43 Jerusalem had sunk so low morally and spiritually that she could not escape. Her punishment was certain to come.

16:44-52 Jerusalem is now compared to Samaria the capital of the northern kingdom of Israel, and Sodom the ancient wicked city destroyed by God (Gen 19:24-29).

16:45 "Mother" – v 3. Jerusalem before Israel took it under David was unfaithful and idolatrous.

16:46-48 "Daughters" – towns and cities in the territory ruled from Samaria.

"Sodom" – except for a small number of people Jerusalem became more wicked than Sodom had been. See Isa 1:9,10.

16:49,50 Sodom's sins were both sins of commission and of omission – they did what they should not have done, and did not do what they should have done. Both kinds of sins are equally bad. On sins of omission see Num 32:23; 1 Sam 12:23; Matt 25:31-46.

16:51,52 No words could better show how vile Jerusalem had become. Samaria's people were so evil God sent them into exile. Sodom was the most notoriously wicked city of ancient times and was completely destroyed for its many sins. If Samaria and Sodom appeared righteous compared to Jerusalem what must Jerusalem have been? And did she vainly imagine she could escape God's judgment?

16:53-63 Here begins a message of hope – the first such message about Jerusalem in Ezekiel. Jerusalem would be restored to her former glory (v 55). But only after she had been punished for her sins (vs 58,59). Along with Jerusalem Samaria and Sodom and the towns associated with them would also be restored. This is the only place in the Bible that speaks of the restoration of Sodom. It surely speaks of a time when the whole land of Canaan including the area where Sodom was located would blossom like a rose (Isa 35:1,2).

16:53 "Bring. . .from captivity" – or "Restore their well-being" – the Hebrew phrase means either thing.

the oath in breaking the covenant. 60 Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you made in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. 61 Then you will remember your ways, and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, your elder and your younger; and I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant. 62 And I will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD, 63 so that you may remember, and be ashamed, and never again open your mouth because of your shame, when I am propitiated toward you for all that you have done, says the Lord God."

17 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel, 3 and say, 'Thus says the Lord God: A great eagle with large wings, long pinions, full of feathers of various colours, came to Lebanon and took the highest branch of the cedar. 4 He plucked off the topmost of its new twigs, and carried it into a land of traders and set it down in a city of merchants.

5 "He also took some of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fertile field. He placed it by great waters, and planted it like a willow tree. 6 And it grew, and became a low spreading vine, whose branches turned toward him, and whose roots were under it. So it became a vine, and produced branches, and put out sprigs.

7 "And there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers; and, see, this vine bent its roots toward him, and put out its branches toward him from the garden where it had been planted, so that he might water it. 8 It had been planted in good soil beside abundant waters, that it might put out branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might become a splendid vine.'

9 "Say, 'Thus says the Lord God: Will it prosper? Will he not pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, so that it withers? All of its spring leaves will wither. No great power or many people will be required to pull it up by its roots. 10 Yes, see, though planted, will it prosper? Will it not completely wither, when the east wind touches it? It will wither in the garden where it grew."

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12 "Now say to the rebellious house, 'Do you not know what these things mean?' Tell them, 'See, the king of Babylon went to Jerusalem, and took its king and its princes, and brought them with him to Babylon. 13 And he took one of the royal family, made a covenant with him, and took an oath from him. He also took away the mighty of the land, 14 so that the kingdom might be lowly, that it might not lift itself up, but might stand by keeping his covenant. 15 But he rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will the one who does such things escape? Or can he break the covenant and be saved?

16 "'As I live, says the Lord God, he will certainly die in the place where the king lives who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, with him in Babylon. 17 Nor will Pharaoh with his mighty army and great horde do anything for him in the war, by erecting siege mounds and building fortifications, to cut off many people, 18 since he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, see, he had given his hand, then did all these things. He will not escape.

19 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: As I live, I will certainly bring repayment on his own head for my oath that he despised, and my covenant that he broke. 20 And I will spread my net over him, and he will be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will try him there for his unfaithfulness shown against me. 21 And all his fugitives with all his troops will fall by the sword, and those who remain will be scattered to all the winds. And you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken it.

22 "'Thus says the Lord God: I will also take a

16:60 "Everlasting covenant" – 37:26-28; Isa 54:10; 55:3; Jer 31:31-34.

16:61 At that time Samaria and Sodom will not be separate kingdoms but will be associated and subsidiary to Jerusalem.

16:63 Jerusalem's forgiveness and restoration and God's covenant with them will be based on the atonement He will make for them. Can this refer to anything other than the cross of Christ?

"Propitiated" – Christ's sacrifice will remove God's anger from them (this is the meaning of propitiation), and make it possible for God to completely forgive them. 17:1 This chapter contains a parable (vs 3-10) and its explanation (vs 11-21). In the parable the eagle (v 3) is Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon (v 12; 48:40; Jer 49:22; Dan 7:4). Lebanon is Jerusalem. Cedar is the royal family of David. The topmost twig (v 4) is King Jehoiachin deported to Babylon, a "city of merchants" (v 4). The "seed" (v 5) is Zedekiah who remained in the land of Judah and was appointed ruler by Nebuchadnezzar. In v 6 the seed becomes a vine (chapter 15). The "cedar" grew in Babylon until Judah was restored. The eagle of v 7 is Pharaoh king of Egypt. Zedekiah appealed to him for help, but God reveals that it will come to nothing (vs 9,10,17).

17:13 "One of the royal family" – this person was Zedekiah.

"Oath" – 2 Chron 36:13.

"Mighty of the land" – 2 Kings 24:15-17.

twig of the topmost branch of the tall cedar, and will set it out. I will pluck from the top of its young twigs a tender one, and will plant it on a high and lofty mountain; 23 I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel, and it will produce branches and bear fruit, and be a splendid cedar; and under it birds of every kind will live; they will live in the shadow of its branches. 24 And all the trees of the field will know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree, exalted the low tree, dried up the green tree, and made the dry tree flourish; that I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it."

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 2 "What do you mean when you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge'?

3 "As I live, says the Lord God, you will no longer have occasion to use this proverb in Israel. 4 See, all souls are mine. As the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine. The soul that sins, it will die.

- 5 "But if a man is righteous,
and does what is lawful and right, 6 And does not eat at the shrines on the
mountains,
or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,
or defile his neighbour's wife,
or go near a menstruous woman, 7 And does not oppress anyone,
but restores the debtor's pledge to him,
does not commit robbery,
gives his bread to the hungry,
and covers the naked with a garment, 8 if he does not lend at usury,
or take increase,

withdraws his hand from evil, administers true justice between man
and man,

9 walks in my statutes and keeps my judgments, to behave faithfully,
he is righteous;
he will surely live, says the Lord God.

- 10 "If he begets a son who is a robber,
a shedder of blood,
or who does any of these things, 11 or who does not do any of those duties,
but eats on the mountains,
and defiles his neighbour's wife, 12 oppresses the poor and needy,
commits robbery,
does not restore the pledge,
and lifts up his eyes to the idols,
commits abomination, 13 lends at usury and takes increase,
then will this son live?
He will not live.
He does all these abominations;
he will surely die.
His blood will be on him.

- 14 Now, see, if he begets a son who sees all his father's sins which he has done,
and considers, and does not do likewise, 15 does not eat on the mountains,
or lift up his eyes to the idols of the
house of Israel,
does not defile his neighbour's wife, 16 or oppress anyone,
does not withhold the pledge,
does not commit robbery,
but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment,

18:2 Jer 31:29. The exiles evidently thought that the disasters that had come on them were not because of their own sins but because of the sins of their fathers. The tendency of human nature is always to try to shift the responsibility for one's guilt to other people or to blame one's fate or circumstances. Compare Gen 3:12,13.

18:4 Here is a great principle of God's word. God deals with each person individually. All belong to Him and the great issues of life and death are in His just hands. It is true that children are affected by the sins of their fathers and suffer for them (Ex 34:6,7). This is because in some way, in some measure, they share the guilt of their fathers (Rom 5:12-19). But individually they do not suffer the judgment of being suddenly cut off and going to hell because of what their fathers did. In judging people God always takes into account what the individual himself has or has not done (v 30).

18:5-29 Illustrations of the truth that God deals with the individual and does not cut him off for what another person has done. 18:6-9 Under the law God in grace accepted the righteous acts of individuals because such acts revealed their faith in God, the true desire of their hearts to be right with God, and a proper attitude toward God and His word. Here the righteous life is seen to be both in what a man does not do and in what he does do.

18:6 "Shrines" – high places where unlawful sacrifices were made.

18:7 Ex 20:15; 22:21,26; Deut 15:7-11; 24:12,13. Compare Matt 25:31-46.

18:8 Ps 15:5. "Usury" – or simply "interest" (also verses 13,17).

18:9 20:11; Lev 18:5; 19:37; Deut 4:1.

18:10-13 A son does not inherit the righteousness of his father. If he lives in sin he will personally be guilty and will die for it.

18:14-20 The third generation is now

17 withdraws his hand from the poor, does not receive usury or increase,
 administers my justice,
 and walks in my statutes,
 he will not die for the guilt of his father; he will surely live.

18 "As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed others, robbed his brother, and did what is not good among his people, see, he will die in his guilt.

19 "Yet you say, 'Why does the son not bear the guilt of the father?' When the son does what is lawful and right, and keeps all my statutes and does them, he will surely live. 20 The soul that sins, it will die. The son will not bear the guilt of the father, and the father will not bear the guilt of the son. The righteousness of the righteous will be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked will be on him.

21 "But if the wicked turns from all the sins that he has committed, and keeps all my statutes, and does what is lawful and right, he will surely live; he will not die. 22 None of the transgressions that he has committed will be remembered against him. Because of his righteous acts, which he has done, he will live. 23 Do I have any pleasure at all in the death of the wicked, says the Lord God, and not rather that he should turn from his ways, and live?

24 "But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and does evil, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, will he live? All the righteous acts that he has considered. Compare Ex 20:5; 34:7. Children to the third and fourth generation will be punished as their fathers, only if they commit the same sins as their father. If they do not, they will escape God's judgment (v 20).

18:17 "From the poor" – this means he does not injure or oppress or rob the poor.

18:21,22 Verses 14-20 teach that the evils of one generation may be overcome in the next generation. These verses teach that the evils of one generation may be overcome by the same generation. In either case, a person's so-called karma has nothing to do with it. Verse 21 speaks of full repentance. Compare Isa 55:7. Verse 22 speaks of forgiveness, the complete blotting out of one's sins. See Ps 103:12; Isa 44:22; Mic 7:18,19; 1 John 1:7-9.

18:23 Verse 32; 33:11. God is love. He is not keen to punish, but to forgive (Joel 2:13; 2 Pet 3:9). He does not heartlessly, arbitrarily decree the death or the eternal punishment of anyone. Does anything make Him happier than seeing men turn to Him in repentance (Luke 15:7,10)? He delights in those who turn to Him, who are redeemed and forgiven (Zeph 3:17; Ps 147:11).

18:24 The meaning here is not that a child

done will not be remembered. Because of the trespass that he has committed, and because of the sin that he has done, because of them, he will die.

25 "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' Hear now, O house of Israel, Is not my way just? Are not your ways unjust? 26 When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and does evil, and dies in it, he will die for the evil that he has done. 27 Again, when the wicked man turns away from the wickedness that he has committed, and does what is lawful and right, he will keep himself alive. 28 Because he considers and turns away from all the transgressions that he has committed, he will surely live. He will not die. 29 Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' O house of Israel, are my ways not just? Are not your ways unjust?

30 "Therefore I will judge each one of you, O house of Israel, according to his ways, says the Lord God. Repent, and turn away from all your transgressions. Then wickedness will not be your ruin. 31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, through which you have transgressed, and make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why will you die, O house of Israel? 32 For I have no pleasure in the death of the one who dies, says the Lord God; therefore turn to me, and live.

19 "Moreover take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, 2 and say,

"What is your mother? A lioness.
 She lay down among lions, of God, saved by God's grace and given eternal life, can lose eternal life and be lost. That would contradict a verse like John 10:28 and a number of other such verses. Eternal life and eternal death are not in view here in Ezekiel (and rarely in any place in the whole Old Testament). The context is God's judgment on Israel, the destruction of Jerusalem and many of its people and the exile of others. In those circumstances physical death is viewed as God's judgment, living means enjoying His favor.

18:25 Jer 2:29. This shows a tendency in fallen human beings. Unjust themselves they dare to accuse God of injustice.

18:26-29 Verses 21-25; 33:12-20.

18:30-32 A strong and moving appeal to Israel and every individual in the nation to repent. Compare Isa 1:16-19; 19:22; Jer 8:1; 35:15; Hos 12:6-14; Joel 2:12; Matt 3:2; Acts 17:30.

18:30 "Your ruin" – Hos 5:5; 13:9; 14:1. 18:31 A new heart and new spirit can be gotten only by repentance and coming to God who alone can give them (36:26; Ps 51:10).

18:32 Verse 23. A great theme of Ezekiel and of the whole Bible.

19:2 "Mother" – the people of Israel with

- she nourished her cubs among young lions.
- 3 And she raised one of her cubs. It became a young lion, and it learned to catch prey; it devoured men.
- 4 The nations also heard of him. He was captured in their pit, and they brought him with chains to the land of Egypt.
- 5 "Now she waited and saw that her hope was gone. Then she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion,
- 6 And he prowled among the lions. He became a young lion, and learned to catch prey, and he devoured men.
- 7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land with its abundance became desolate through the sound of his roaring.
- 8 Then the nations from the provinces beset him on every side, and spread their net over him. He was captured in their pit.
- 9 And with hooks they put him in a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon. They brought him into nets, so that his voice would no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.
- 10 "Your mother is like a vine in your bloodline, planted by the waters. She was fruitful and full of branches because of the many waters.
- 11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of those who ruled, and she towered in height among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with her many branches.

- 12 But she was rooted up in fury. She was hurled to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit. Her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.
- 13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.
- 14 And fire has gone out of a rod of her branches; it has consumed her fruit, so that she has no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lament, and is to be for a lament."

20 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, Thus says the Lord God: Have you come to inquire of me? As I live, says the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you.

4 "Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers, 5 and say to them, Thus says the Lord God: In the day that I chose Israel, and lifted up my hand to swear to the offspring of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up my hand to swear to them, saying, I am the LORD your God, 6 in the day that I lifted up my hand to swear to them to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. 7 Then I said to them, 'Throw away, each of you, the abominations that attract his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.'

8 "But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me. They did not all throw away the abominations that attracted their eyes, nor did their capital in Jerusalem.

19:3,4 "One of her cubs" – king Jehoahaz who was defeated by Pharaoh Neco and taken to Egypt (2 Kings 23:31-34; Jer 22:10-13).

19:5-9 Both king Jehoiachin and king Zedekiah were taken to Babylon but the description in verses 6-9 seems to fit Zedekiah better, although the time of his exile had not yet come.

19:10 "Vine" – 15:2; 17:7,8; Isa 5:1,7.

19:12 The armies of Babylon which destroyed Judah and Jerusalem were from an eastern country.

19:13 "Wilderness" – Babylon seemed like a spiritual wilderness to the exiles.

19:14 Fire here means sinful rebellion that brought destruction on Jerusalem.

"No rod" – after Zedekiah's exile there was no king left in Jerusalem.

20:1 This was five years before the capture of king Zedekiah and the burning of Jerusalem.

20:2,3 14:1-4.

20:4-29 A recounting of Israel's sinful history. Compare 16:1-52; 23:1-49; Ps 78:8-64; 106:7-48.

20:5,6 Ex 3:6-17; 4:29-31; 6:1-8. Lifting up the hand was a solemn way of making a promise.

20:7-9 This description of events in Egypt is not given anywhere else in the Bible. While in Egypt Israel began to worship the gods they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, 'I will pour out my fury on them, to spend my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.'

 9 But I acted for my name's sake, so that it would not be profaned before the nations among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them to bring them out of the land of Egypt.
 10 Therefore I caused them to go out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness,
 11 and I gave them my statutes and showed them my judgments, by which a man will live, if he does them.
 12 And I also gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

13 "But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not walk in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, by which a man will live, if he does them. And they greatly profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my fury on them in the wilderness, to consume them.
 14 But I acted for my name's sake, so that it would not be profaned before the nations, in whose sight I brought them out.
 15 But I also lifted up my hand to swear to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands, 16 because they had despised my judgments, and did not walk in my statutes, but profaned my Sabbaths. For their heart went after their idols.
 17 Nevertheless my eye spared them instead of destroying them, and I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.
 18 But I said to their children in the wilderness, "Do not walk according to the statutes of your fathers, or observe their judgments, or defile yourselves with their idols.
 19 I am the LORD your God. Walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them, 20 and hallow my Sabbaths, for they are a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God."

21 "However, the children rebelled against me. They did not walk according to my statutes, or keep my judgments to do them, by which a man will live, if he does them. They profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my fury on them, to spend my anger against them in the wilderness.

 22 But I withdrew my hand, and acted for my name's sake, so that it would not be profaned in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.
 23 I also lifted up my hand to swear to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries,
 24 because they had not put my judgments into effect, but had despised my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and because their eyes went after their fathers' idols.
 25 Therefore I also gave them statutes that were not good, and judgments they could not live by,
 26 and I let them pollute themselves by their own gifts, letting them cause the firstborn to pass through the fire to their idols, so that I might make them desolate, so that they might know that I am the LORD.'

27 "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: Also in this your fathers blasphemed me, by being unfaithful to me.
 28 For when I had brought them into the land, concerning which I lifted up my hand swearing to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and there they offered their sacrifices, and there they made offerings that provoked me. There too they offered their fragrant incense and there poured out their drink offerings.
 29 Then I said to them, "What is this high place you go to?" And its name is called Bamah to this day.

30 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: Will you defile yourselves like your fathers? And act like a prostitute with their abominations?
 31 For to this very day when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you.

of Egypt (Josh 24:14). Even though God promised them deliverance from slavery and freedom in their own land, the love of idolatry remained in them. Later this bore evil fruit in the shameful acts of Ex 32:1-6. On God's anger see Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

 20:26 Verse 31; 16:20. If only they would see the evil of their horrible acts and come to a knowledge of God their abandonment to evil would serve a good purpose.
 20:27-29 Israel in the land was no better than it had been in Egypt or in the desert (Ps 78:55-58; 106:34-39).
 "Bamah" (v 29) – means "high place".
 20:30,31 Israel in Ezekiel's day was no better than any previous generation.

32 "And what comes into your mind will never happen, your saying 'We will be like the nations, like the tribes of other countries, worshipping wood and stone.' 33 As I live, says the Lord God, I will certainly rule you with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. 34 And I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will plead my case with you face to face, 36 as I pleaded it with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will plead it with you, says the Lord God. 37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant, 38 and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who transgress against me. I will bring them out of the country where they live, but they will not enter the land of Israel; and you will know that I am the LORD.

39 "As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord God: Hereafter, if you will not listen to me, go, each of you serve his idols, but do not profane my holy name any longer with your gifts, and with your idols. 40 For in my holy mountain, on the high mountain of Israel, says the Lord God, all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, will serve me. There I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your sacrifices, with all your holy things. 41 I will accept you with your fragrant incense, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered. And I

20:32 This attitude was one of the foundation stones of their sinful, rebellious way of life. Compare 1 Sam 8:5. They did not wish to be what God called them to be – a distinct, separate, holy people (Ex 19:5,6; Deut 7:6). They wanted to conform to the world's standards and not be regarded as different. Do we not see the same attitude in many Christians today?

20:33-44 As for Israel, God here declares that He will never let them be like other peoples of earth. What they wanted would never happen. He would not deal with them as He dealt with other nations. He had a purpose toward them and He was determined to fulfill it. This is true also of individual believers (see Ps 73:12-14; etc).

20:33,34 Compare Deut 4:34; 5:15; 7:19; 11:2; 26:8.

will show myself holy among you before the nations. 42 And you will know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country concerning which I lifted up my hand to swear to give it to your fathers. 43 And there you will remember your ways, and all your deeds, in which you have been defiled, and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for all the evils that you have committed. 44 And you will know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways or according to your corrupt deeds, O house of Israel, says the Lord God."

45 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 46 "Son of man, set your face toward the south, and utter your words toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the southland, 47 and say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the Lord God: See, I will kindle a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree and every dry tree in you. The blazing fire will not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north will be scorched by it. 48 And all flesh will see that I, the LORD, have kindled it. It will not be quenched."

49 Then I said, "Ah Lord God! They say of me, 'Is he not just speaking parables?'"

21 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and utter your words toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel, 3 and say to the land of Israel, Thus says the Lord: See, I am against you, and will draw my

20:39 The first part of this verse is what Israel determined to do; the second part what God was determined to work in them.

20:40-44 A gracious promise of restoration to their land. Not only so, but a promise that as a nation they would be freed from idolatry to serve God and be enabled to offer acceptable sacrifices. Above all they would come into a fuller knowledge of both themselves (v 43) and God (vs 42,44).

20:43 They will see themselves (in some measure) as God sees them and will repent – 6:9; 16:63; 36:31.

20:45-48 A prophecy of the complete destruction of that part of the kingdom which remained in the land. It is compared to a forest. The kingdom was the southern kingdom in relation to Israel, the northern kingdom. Also it was south of the armies of Babylon which always invaded from the north.

"Fire" – God's judgment in sending enemies to destroy them (Isa 10:16-19; Jer 15:14; 17:27; 21:14).

20:49 Ezekiel evidently thought that speaking in parables would give unbelievers more opportunity to reject and mock him.

21:3 "Sword" – Isa 31:8; 34:6; 66:16.

sword out of its scabbard, and will cut off the righteous and the wicked from you. 4 Since, then, I will cut off the righteous and the wicked from you, therefore my sword will come out of its scabbard against all flesh from the south to the north, 5 so that all flesh may know that I, the Lord, have drawn my sword out of its scabbard. It will not return again.

6 "Therefore, son of man, groan with a breaking heart, and with bitterness. Groan before their eyes. 7 And when they say to you, 'Why are you groaning?' then you are to answer, 'Because of the news. It is coming; and every heart will melt, and all hands will be feeble, and every spirit will faint, and all knees will be as weak as water. See, it comes, and will happen, says the Lord God.'"

8 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

9 "Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the LORD. Say:

"A sword, a sword is sharpened,
and also polished!

10 It is sharpened to make a terrible slaughter;
it is polished to flash like lightning.
Should we then be merry?

It despises the rod, my son,
and all wood.

11 And he has given it to be polished,
that it may be handled.

This sword is sharpened, and it is polished,
to give it into the hand of the slayer.'

12 Cry and wail, son of man!
For it will come on my people,
it will come on all the princes of Israel.
Because of the sword terrors will be on
my people.

Therefore strike your thigh.

13 Because it is for testing.
And what if the sword despises even the rod?

God calls invading armies His "sword," used to execute judgments. Here the armies of Babylon are meant (v 19).

21:5 Men will know it because God repeatedly foretold it through His prophets. 21:6 God wants His servants to be in tune with Him, to think and feel about things as He thinks and feels, and to reveal to people what He thinks and feels. Compare v 12; Isa 22:4; Jer 8:21 - 9:1; 48:36; Lam 1:16; Ezek 18:23; Luke 19:41.

21:7 Lev 26:36; 30:6; Jer 4:31; etc.

21:8-17 This is a sword song. In poetic language God's "sword" is described. It was all ready to descend in judgment on God's own people (v 12). Though that nation was like a son to God (v 10) it could not escape the punishment God was sending by means of Babylon's armies. Babylon's soldiers, swords in hand, would surround them, would

It will no longer be, says the Lord God.

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy,
and strike your hands together,
and let the sword do double the third time,

the sword for the slaughter,
the sword for the slaughter of great men,
that enters their private rooms.

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates,
that their heart may faint,
and their ruins be multiplied.

Ah! it is made bright,
it is grasped for slaughter.

16 Go one way or another, either to the right or to the left,
wherever your face is set.

17 I will also strike my hands together,
and I will cause my fury to rest.
I, the LORD, have said it."

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 19 "Also, son of man, mark out two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come. Both of them are to come out of the same land. And make a sign and put it at the head of the road to the city. 20 Mark out a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah, to fortified Jerusalem. 21 For the king of Babylon stands at the fork in the road, at the head of the two roads, to use divination. He shakes his arrows, he consults images, he looks in the liver. 22 In his right hand is the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth for the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to raise a siege mound, and to build fortifications. 23 And in the eyes of those who have sworn oaths it will seem like a false divination, but he will remind them of wrongdoing, that they may be captured.

24 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: Because stand at every gate to slaughter the people (vs 14-16). God will thus spend His anger on them as He had declared He would (v 17; 5:12,13).

21:18-22 Ezekiel in exile in Babylon was to enact before the people the approach of King Nebuchadnezzar to Jerusalem. Compare 4:1-3. Verse 21 predicts that Nebuchadnezzar would be indecisive whether to first attack Jerusalem, or Rabbah the capital city of Ammon. He would seek for signs and omens to make a decision and then decide to come on to Jerusalem.

"Liver" (v 21) – examining the liver of an animal was one way those people then sought an omen. They did not have a living God to get guidance from.

21:23,24 "Sworn oaths" – the rulers of Jerusalem on oath agreed to submit to the king of Babylon, but were now in rebellion you have caused your wrongdoing to be remembered, because your transgressions are uncovered, so that your sins appear in all your deeds; because, I say, that you have come to remembrance, you will be captured by hand.

25 "And to you, O profane, wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, when wrongdoing will come to an end, 26 thus says the Lord God: Remove the turban and take off the crown. Things will not be the same. Exalt him who is lowly, and abase him who is high up. 27 I will overturn it, overturn, overturn, and it will be no more until he comes whose right it is; and I will give it to him.'

28 "And you, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord God concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach. Say:

The sword, the sword is drawn.

It is polished for the slaughter to consume, to flash like lightning,

29 While they see vain visions for you, while they divine a lie for you, to bring you on the necks of those whose day has come,

and whose wrongdoing will have an end.

30 Shall I cause it to return to its scabbard?

I will judge you in the place where you were created,

in the land of your birth.

31 And I will pour out my indignation on you.

I will blow against you in the fire of my wrath, and deliver you into the hands of savage men, skillful in destruction.

32 You will be fuel for the fire.

Your blood will be in the midst of the land.

You will no longer be remembered;

for I, the LORD, have spoken it."

22 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Now, you son of man, will you judge, will you judge the city of bloodshed? Yes, you must show her all her abominations. 3 Then say, Thus says the Lord God: The city sheds blood in the midst of it, bringing her time near, and makes idols against herself to defile herself. 4 You have become guilty because of the blood you have shed, and have defiled yourself with the idols which you have made, and you have caused your days of punishment to draw near, and have come to the end of your years. Therefore I have made you an object of scorn to the nations, and an object of mockery to all countries. 5 Those near and those far from you will mock you, you who are infamous and full of turmoil.

6 "See, each one of the princes of Israel, used their power to shed blood in you. 7 In you they have made light of father and mother; in the midst of you they have oppressed the foreigner; in you they have troubled the fatherless and the widow. 8 You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. 9 In you are men who slander to cause bloodshed, and in you they eat at the shrines in the mountains; in the midst of you they commit lewd acts. 10 In you they have uncovered their fathers' nakedness, in you they have violated her who was set apart in her impurity. 11 And one has committed abomination with his neighbour's wife, and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law, and another in you has violated his sister, his father's daughter. 12 In you they have taken bribes to shed blood. You have taken usury and increase, and you have made gain from your neighbours by extortion, and have forgotten me, says the Lord God. 13 See, therefore that I have struck with my fist at the dishonest gain which you have made, and at your bloodshed which has been in the midst of you. 14 Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken it, and will do it. 15 And I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you in the countries, and will rid you of your filthiness. 16 And this inheritance of yours will 22:5 "Mock" – Deut 28:37; 2 Chron 7:20; Jer 18:16; 44:8.

22:6-12 Here is a list of sins against specific commands of God's law (Ex 20:12,13; 22:21,22; 20:3,8,16; Lev 18:7; 12:2; 18:8,15,19; 19:13; Deut 27:25). One of the root causes of such behavior is seen in the last phrase of v 12 – they forgot God (Ps 106:21; Isa 71:10; 57:11. See Ps 50:22). Forgetting God is a great evil and leads to other great evil.

22:9 "Mountains" – note at 18:6.

22:12 "Usury" – or simply "interest".

22:14 Ps 76:7; Joel 2:11; Nah 1:6; Mal 3:2; Rev 6:17.

22:15 Lev 26:33; Deut 4:27.

22:16 It is exceedingly important that men be allotted to you in the sight of the heathen, and you will know that I am the Lord."

17 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. They are all bronze and tin and iron and lead, inside the furnace. They are the dross of silver. 19 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Because you have all become dross, so see that I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. 20 As they gather silver and bronze and iron and lead and tin into the furnace, to blow fire on it to melt it, so I will gather you in my anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there and melt you. 21 Yes, I will gather you and blow on you in the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted inside it. 22 You will be melted inside it, as silver is melted inside the furnace, and you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my fury on you."

23 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, say to her, 'You are the land that is not cleansed, or rained on in the day of indignation.' 25 There is a conspiracy by her prophets inside it, like a roaring lion tearing the prey. They have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst. 26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned my holy things. They have shown no difference between the holy learn the ways of the one true God even if they have to learn them the hard way.

22:17-22 Jerusalem is compared to a furnace, and God's wrath is compared to fire. The meaning is this: the best of the nation (the silver) had already gone into exile. Those who were left were the worst (dross). The Babylonians would invade Judah again, many from Judah would flee to Jerusalem, and Jerusalem would become a place where most of them would be destroyed.

22:23-29 Verses 6-12. Here is what God means by "dross." He condemns the sinful condition of Jerusalem with special emphasis on its rulers (vs 25,27), priests (v 26) and prophets (v 28). Each group of people was the exact opposite of what it should have been. It was the work of rulers to rule with justice, of priests to know the difference between holy and unholy and to teach the holy, of prophets to get God's messages and speak only the truth. It is no wonder that the people followed the evil example of their leaders and became dross too (v 29).

22:28 "Whitewash" – 13:10.

"Vain visions" – see Jer 14:14. Of all the prophets in Jerusalem at that time only Jeremiah spoke the truth, and rulers, priests, prophets, and people all refused to listen to him.

22:30 Isa 51:18; 59:16; 63:5. God meant someone in an official position in Jerusalem who would stand for Him and turn the people back to God, to truth and holiness. Jeremiah was His man in Jerusalem but he and profane, nor have they shown a difference between the unclean and the clean. And they have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. 27 Her princes inside her are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. 28 And her prophets have daubed them with whitewash, seeing vain visions, and divining lies for them, saying, 'Thus says the Lord God,' when the LORD had not spoken. 29 The people of the land have used oppression, and committed robbery, and have troubled the poor and needy; yes, they have unjustly oppressed the foreigner.

30 "And I sought for a man among them who would build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, so that I would not destroy it, but I found none. 31 Therefore I have poured out my indignation on them. I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath. I have repaid their own way on their heads, says the Lord God."

23 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother, 3 and they committed acts of prostitution in Egypt. They committed acts of prostitution in their youth. There their breasts were pressed, and there their virgin bosoms were embraced. 4 And their names were

was an outsider, without an official position and rejected by all the leaders. Observe from this verse how reluctant God was to pour out His wrath on Jerusalem and how much leaders might have done to avert that wrath. Compare Ex 32:9-14; 34:8,9; Ps 106:23; Num 16:42-50.

22:31 Though reluctant to punish when there is the slightest reason for mercy, the situation had become so bad that God could no longer delay. On wrath see Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; etc.

23:1 This whole chapter is about the unfaithfulness of the two divisions of the people of Israel. It may be compared with chapter 16 and Jeremiah chapter 3.

23:2,3 Even before the people of Israel left Egypt for Canaan they became "prostitutes" – that is, they became unfaithful to God, and set their love on the things of Egypt (20:7,8; Num 11:5; 14:2-4; 16:13; 21:5). In the Bible spiritual unfaithfulness is frequently compared to adultery and prostitution (16:15; Ex 34:15; Lev 17:7; Deut 31:16; Jud 2:17; Jer 2:20; 3:6,9).

In this chapter the emphasis is on unfaithfulness to God in the matter of seeking allies, but idolatry is also in view (vs 7,30,37,49). Both kingdoms in Israel all too often sought help, not from God, but from powerful and ungodly nations. They admired their strength and wanted to follow their ways. And they were prone to adopt the gods and idols of the nations they went after.

23:4 Aholah means "her own tent"; Aholibah

Aholah, the older one, and Aholibah, her sister. And they were mine and bore sons and daughters. And their names: Aholah is Samaria, and Aholibah is Jerusalem.

5 "And Aholah acted like a prostitute when she was mine; and she lusted after her lovers, her neighbours the Assyrians, 6 who were clothed in blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. 7 So she committed her acts of prostitution with them, with all those who were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all whom she lusted after; she defiled herself with all their idols. 8 And she did not abandon her prostitution carried on from Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they embraced her virgin bosom, and poured their immorality on her.

9 "Therefore I have delivered her into the hands of her lovers, into the hands of the Assyrians, whom she lusted after. 10 These uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters, and killed her with the sword. And she became notorious among women, for they had executed judgment on her.

11 "And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she became more corrupt in her lust than she, and in her prostitution worse than her sister in her prostitution. 12 She lusted after her neighbors the Assyrians, captains and rulers dressed very splendidly, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. 13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that both of them had taken the same way, 14 and that she increased her acts of prostitution. For she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed in red, 15 with sashes tied around their waists, and flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like princes, in the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their birth.

16 "And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she lusted after them, and sent messengers to Chaldea to them. 17 And the Babylonians came to her in the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution. And she was defiled by them, and her mind was alienated from them. 18 So she uncovered her prostitution and uncovered her nakedness. Then my mind was alienated from her, just as my mind was alienated from her sister. 19 Yet she multiplied her acts of prostitution, calling to remembrance the days of her youth, where she had acted like a prostitute in the land of Egypt. 20 For she lusted after her lovers, whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. 21 Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness of your youth, when the Egyptians embraced your bosom because of your youthful breasts.

22 "Therefore, O Aholibah, thus says the Lord God: See, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your mind is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side, 23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding on horses. 24 And they will come against you with weapons, chariots and wagons, and with a horde of people, who will set large shields and small shields and helmets against you all around. And I will delegate judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their judgments. 25 And I will set my jealousy against you, and they will deal furiously with you. They will remove your nose and your ears, and the rest of you will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and your daughters, means "my tent is in her." The northern kingdom with its capital in Samaria forsook God's dwelling place in Jerusalem and made her own places of worship (1 Kings 12:16-33). This is probably what is signified by the name Aholah. God's dwelling place remained in the southern kingdom, in Jerusalem, until the time of Ezekiel chapter 10. This is probably what is signified by the name Aholibah.

23:5 "Assyrians" – 2 Kings 15:19,20.

23:8 In some hundreds of years there was no real change in the people.

23:9,10 The Assyrians conquered Israel and took the people into captivity in 721 BC (2 Kings 17:1-18).

23:11 Though the southern kingdom of Judah knew all that had happened to Samaria she did not change her ways. Indeed she became worse than the northern kingdom (16:51; Jer 3:7-11).

23:12,13 2 Kings 16:7-15.

23:14-16 The beginning of this is indicated in 2 Kings 20:12,13; 2 Chron 32:31.

23:17 Love of the world and friendship with ungodly people will defile God's people. So we have the New Testament admonitions of 2 Cor 6:14-18 and 1 John 2:15,16.

23:18 Jer 6:8; etc.

23:19-21 Instead of turning back to God for help from enemies Judah turned to any country that seemed to offer assistance. Compare Jer 27:3. And she longed for the time when she was controlled by Egypt and God had not yet brought her out of bondage.

23:22-35 Sin will always have its consequences. In this case those nations Judah considered allies would become her enemies and destroy her. Behind the marching of their armies God stood directing them and punishing His people (vs 22,24,25).

23:24 "Weapons" – the meaning of the Hebrew word here is uncertain.

and the remainder of you will be devoured by fire. 26 They will also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. 27 Thus I will put a stop to your lewdness, and your prostitution carried on from the land of Egypt, so that you will not lift up your eyes to them, or remember Egypt any more.

28 "For thus says the Lord God: See, I will deliver you into the hands of those you hate, into the hands of those from whom your mind is alienated. 29 And they will deal with you hatefully, and take away all that your labour produced, and will leave you naked and bare, and the nakedness of your prostitution will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your acts of prostitution. 30 I will do these things to you, because you have gone like a prostitute after the nations, and because you are defiled with their idols. 31 You have walked in the way of your sister, therefore I will give her cup into your hand.

32 "Thus says the Lord God:

You will drink from the deep and large cup of your sister. You will be laughed to scorn and derided. It contains much.

33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria.

34 You will drink it and drain it, and you will break it to shards, and tear your own breasts; for I have spoken it, says the Lord God.

35 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: Because you have forgotten me, and thrust me behind your back, therefore you will also bear your lewdness and your prostitution."

36 The LORD also said to me: "Son of man, will you judge Aholah and Aholibah? Yes, declare to them their abominations. 37 Tell them that they have committed adultery, and that blood is in their hands, and that they have committed adultery with their idols, and have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire, for them to devour. 38 Moreover they have done this to me: on the same day they have defiled my sanctuary and profaned my Sabbaths. 39 For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, they then came the same day into my sanctuary to defile it; and, see, this they have done inside my house.

40 "And furthermore, you sent for men to come from afar, to whom a messenger was sent; and, see, they came. You washed yourself for them, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments, 41 and sat on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, on which you placed my incense and my oil.

42 "And a sound of a carefree crowd was with her; and Sabeans were brought from the wilderness, with men of the common sort, who put bracelets on their hands, and beautiful crowns on their heads. 43 Then I said about this one grown old in adulteries, 'Will they now commit acts of prostitution with her, and she with them?' 44 And they went in to her, as they go in to a woman who acts like a prostitute; so they went in to Aholah and to Aholibah, the lewd women. 45 And the righteous men will judge them as adulteresses, and as women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 "For thus says the Lord God: I will bring a crowd against them, and will hand them over to be terrorized and plundered. 47 And the crowd will stone them with stones, and execute them with their swords. They will kill their sons and their daughters, and burn their houses with fire.

48 "Thus I will put a stop to lewdness in the land, so that all women may be taught not to act according to your lewdness. 49 And they will repay your lewdness on you, and you will bear the sins of your idolatry; and you will know that I am the Lord God."

24 Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man,

23:27 Here is God's good purpose in all this. He was determined to break them loose from their idols, and from their love of the ways of ungodly nations. See also 16:41,42. 23:30 The reasons for their destruction are clearly set before them.

23:31 "Cup" – Isa 51:17,22; Jer 25:15-29. 23:35 "Forgotten" – one of the root causes of all their sinful behavior (22:12; Ps 50:22). "Bear" – 16:52; Rom 2:8,9.

23:36 God wants those who are suffering His punishment to understand exactly why. 23:37 "Blood" – 22:3,4,6. "Sons" – 16:20. 23:38,39 8:1-18; 22:8. How more plainly could they have shown their contempt for God, His temple, and His laws?

23:40-44 God now speaks to both the southern and northern kingdoms in Israel and describes their behavior.

"Sabeans" (v 42) – or "drunkards."

23:45-47 The penalty for adultery and murder under the law was death (Ex 21:12-14; Lev 20:10). Righteous people will see that what happened to Samaria and Jerusalem was a perfectly just punishment.

23:48 Verse 27.

23:49 The penalty for idolatry was also death (Ex 22:20; etc).

24:1,2 January 15, 588 BC. This was the beginning of the siege that resulted in the write down the name of the day, this very day. The king of Babylon lay siege against Jerusalem this very day. 3 And utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, Thus says the Lord God:

- “Put on a pot; put it on, and also pour water into it.
- 4 Gather the pieces of meat into it, every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choicest bones.
- 5 Take the best of the flock, and under the pot burn wood for the bones, and make it boil well, and let them cook its bones in it.
- 6 For thus says the Lord God: Woe to the city of bloodshed, to the pot whose scum is in it, and whose scum has not gone out of it! Bring it out piece by piece, without drawing lots.
- 7 For her blood is in the midst of her. She placed it on the top of a rock; she did not pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust.
- 8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance, I have placed her blood on the top of a rock, so that it would not be covered.
- 9 “Therefore thus says the Lord God: Woe to the city of bloodshed! I will make the pile for the fire great.
- 10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, cook the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.
- 11 Then place it empty on the coals there, that its bronze may become hot and burn, and that its filthiness may be melted in it, that its scum may be consumed.
- 12 She has worn herself out with lies, and her great scum has not gone out of her. Her scum will be in the fire.

13 “In your filthiness is lewdness. Because I have cleansed you, and you were not cleansed, you will not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my fury to rest on you.

14 “I, the LORD, have spoken it. It will come to pass, and I will do it. I will not turn back, and I will not spare, and I will not repent. They will judge you according to your ways and according to your deeds, says the Lord God.”

15 Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 16 “Son of man, see, I am going to take away from you the delight of your eyes with one blow. Yet you must not mourn or weep, your tears must not run down. 17 Do not cry out, do not make any mourning for the dead. Bind your turban on your head, and put your shoes on your feet. And do not cover your lips, and do not eat the bread of men.”

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And in the morning I did as I had been commanded.

19 And the people said to me, “Will you not tell us what these things you are doing have to do with us?”

20 Then I answered them, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 Speak to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: See, I am going to profane my sanctuary, the pride of your strength, the delight of your eyes, and your soul’s desire; and your sons and your daughters, whom you left behind will fall by the sword. 22 And you will do as I have done. You will not cover your lips, or eat the bread of men. 23 And your turbans will be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet. You will not wail or weep, but you will pine away for your evil deeds, and groan for one another. 24 Thus Ezekiel is a sign to you. You will do everything just as he has done. And when this takes place, you will know destruction of Jerusalem and the temple (Jeremiah chapter 52).

24:3-14 The cooking pot is Jerusalem, the people there are the meat and bones. Compare 11:3-12. In 11:3 the leaders thought that the cooking pot would be like a wall to protect them. Here God says it will be the place where that people will be destroyed.

24:4 The people who had been left in Jerusalem when others went into exile in 597 BC thought they were spared because they were the best of all. See Jer 17:9.

24:6 “City of bloodshed” – 7:23; 11:6; 22:3.

24:7 “Cover it” – Jerusalem did not even try to conceal its crimes, was brazen and open about them (Isa 3:9). Now the blood it had shed cried from the ground for vengeance. Compare Gen 4:10.

24:8 God would listen to the cry for vengeance coming from the innocent blood that had been shed.

24:11 After many had been slaughtered and some removed from the city to go into exile, Jerusalem was to be destroyed by fire (Jer 52:12-14).

24:12 Fire was all that was left for Jerusalem. No other attempt at purification had been effective.

24:14 5:11; 8:18; 9:10; 18:30; 36:19.

24:15-27 Once again Ezekiel’s behavior was an object lesson to the people (vs 24,27). Compare 12:11; etc.

“Delight of your eyes” in v 16 was Ezekiel’s wife (v 18). The death of his wife whom he dearly loved was a picture of the death (destruction) of Jerusalem dearly loved by the people there (v 25). They would that I am the Lord God.

25 "Also, son of man, will it not be on the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes, and what they have set their minds on, their sons and their daughters, 26 that he who escapes on that day will come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? 27 On that day your mouth will be opened to him who escapes, and you will speak, and be mute no longer. And you will be a sign to them; and they will know that I am the LORD."

25 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them, 3 and say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God. Thus says the Lord God: Because you said, 'Aha!' against my sanctuary, when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity, 4 so, look, I will hand you over to the men of the east as a possession, and they will set up their camps among you, and make their dwellings among you. They will eat your fruit, and drink your milk. 5 And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the land of the Ammonites a resting place for flocks; and you will know that I am the LORD. 6 For thus says the Lord God: Because you clapped your hands, and stamped with your feet, and rejoiced in heart with all your scorn against the land of Israel, 7 so, look, I will stretch out my hand over you, and will hand you over as plunder to the nations. And I will cut you off from the peoples, and will obliterate you from the countries. I will destroy you; and you will know that I am the LORD."

8 Thus says the Lord God: "Because Moab and Seir say, 'See, the house of Judah is like all the

have to keep their turbans and sandals on, they would not be able to cover the lower part of their faces or eat the food of mourners because they would be captives of Babylon's army and on the move into exile. 24:27 After the exiles arrived in Babylon their mouths would be open and there would be time for lamentation, tears and mourning. 25:2 For other prophecies about the Ammonites see Jer 49:1-6; Amos 1:13-15; Zeph 2:8-11.

25:3-7 Rejoicing in the ruin of others, especially the ruin of God's people, reveals a malicious nature worthy of severe punishment.

25:5 "Rabbah" – the capital of Ammon.

25:8-11 "Moab" – for other prophecies about Moab see Isaiah chapters 15 and 16; Jeremiah chapter 48; Amos 2:1-3; Zeph 2:8-11. Moab (and Edom) thought Judah's defeat by the Babylonians showed that Judah's God was weak and had failed His nations; 9 therefore, look, I will strip bare the sides of Moab, from the cities, from its frontier cities, the glory of the country, Beth-Jeshimoth, Baal-Meon, and Kiriathaim, together with the Ammonites, 10 by the men of the east, and will give them possession of it, so that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. 11 And I will execute judgments on Moab; and they will know that I am the Lord."

12 "Thus says the Lord God: Because Edom has acted against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and avenged itself on them, 13 therefore thus says the Lord God: I will also stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it. And I will make it desolate from Teman; and those of Dedan will fall by the sword. 14 And I will take my vengeance on Edom by the hands of my people Israel, and they will deal with Edom in accordance with my anger and my fury. And they will know my vengeance, says the Lord God."

15 Thus says the Lord God: "Because the Philistines have acted out of revenge, and have taken vengeance with a scornful heart, to destroy it out of their old hatred, 16 therefore thus says the Lord God: See, I will stretch out my hand over the Philistines, and I will cut off the Kerethites, and destroy the rest of the sea coast. 17 And I will execute great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; and they will know that I am the LORD, when I take my vengeance on them."

26 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, 'Aha! She who was the gateway of the peoples is broken. She has opened to me. I will be filled, now people (v 8). God would let them know otherwise.

25:12-14 "Edom" – for other prophecies about Edom see Isa 21:11,12; 34:5-15; Jer 49:7-22; Amos 1:11,12; Obadiah 1:16. Because they took vengeance on Judah, God would take vengeance on them. This is another illustration of the truth expressed in Ps 18:25,26; Prov 3:34; etc. Note on vengeance at Num 31:2.

25:15-17 "Philistines" – for other prophecies about them see Isa 14:29-31; Jer 47:1-7; Amos 1:6-8; Zeph 2:4-7. They sought to destroy God's people, so they themselves would be destroyed.

26:2 "Tyre" – a city on the Mediterranean coast, north of Israel. For other prophecies concerning this city see Isaiah chapter 23; Jer 25:22; 47:4; Joel 3:4,5; Amos 1:9,10; Zech 9:2-4.

"Aha" – 25:3.

"Gateway of the peoples" – Jerusalem

that she is laid waste.' 3 Therefore thus says the Lord God: See, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. 4 And they will destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock. 5 It will be a place for spreading nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, says the Lord God. And it will become plunder for the nations. 6 And her daughters who are in the field will be killed by the sword; and they will know that I am the LORD.

7 "For thus says the Lord God: See, on Tyre I am going to bring Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and troops, and many people. 8 He will kill your daughters in the field with the sword, and he will make fortifications against you, and build up a siege mound against you, and raise the shield against you. 9 And he will set up battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers. 10 Because of his many horses their dust will cover you. Your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he enters your gates, like men enter a city where the wall is broken in. 11 He will trample all your streets with the hooves of his horses. He will kill your people with the sword, and your strong garrisons will go down to the ground. 12 And they will plunder your riches, and take your merchandise as prey, and will break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses, and will hurl your stones and your timber and your dust into the water. 13 And I will put a stop to the sound of your songs, and the sound of your harps will no longer be heard. 14 And I will make you like the top of a rock. You will be a place to spread nets on. You will not be built again; for I, the LORD, have spoken it, says the Lord God."

15 "Thus says the Lord God to Tyrus: Will not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter occurs in the midst of you? 16 Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and take off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling. They will sit on the ground and tremble at every moment, and be astonished at you. 17 And they will take up a lament for you, and say to you,

"How you are destroyed!

You who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city,

who was powerful on the sea!

She and her inhabitants imposed their terror on all who live around her.

18 Now the islands will tremble on the day of your fall;

yes, the islands of the sea will be alarmed at your passing.'

19 "For thus says the Lord God: When I make you a desolate city, like cities that are not inhabited; when I bring up the deep over you and great waters cover you; 20 When I bring you down with those who descend into the pit, with the people of olden times, and place you in the lower parts of the earth, like ancient ruined places, with those who go down to the pit, so that you may not be inhabited, then I will grant glory in the land of the living. 21 I will make you an object of terror, and you will be no more. Though you will be sought for, you will never be found again, says the Lord God."

27 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Now, son of man, take up a was at the center of the nations (5:5), near the main trade routes between countries on the north and east, and Egypt on the southwest. Tyre selfishly rejoiced in Jerusalem's destruction because it thought it would gain more trade for itself.

26:5 The riches Tyre laid up would fall into the hands of others. How much better it is to lay up treasure in heaven (Matt 6:19-21).

26:7 "From the north" – Jer 1:13.

26:8,9 "Your daughters in the field" – part of the strong and prosperous city of Tyre was built on the mainland, the other part on a rocky island in the bay. Nebuchadnezzar besieged Tyre for nearly 15 years.

26:10-12 Nebuchadnezzar was able to capture the mainland part, but the island stronghold held out against him. It was finally captured by Alexander the great in 332 BC.

26:13,14 Tyre continued as a city until the end of the 13th century AD. But God's word against it was finally fulfilled, and the condition of the island city of Tyre today is as described in these verses. It is a heap of ruins. A long time may pass before the fulfillment of some prophecies of God's word, but we may be sure they will be fulfilled.

26:15-18 The fall of Tyre would cause great fear and alarm to neighboring cities along the coast. If Tyre could not stand how could they?

26:19-21 Describes in metaphorical language the death of the city. The ocean depths of v 19 probably refers to v 3. The death of Tyre should speak to us of the fate of all cities of men, products of man's greed and pride. Happy are those who seek for an eternal city (Heb 11:10,16).

27:2 "Lament" – laments were funeral dirges usually concerned with individuals, but in the prophets sometimes they were concerned with the death of cities or nations.

lament for Tyre, 3 and say to Tyre,

"O you who are situated at the entrance to the sea, who are a merchant of the peoples on many islands,

Thus says the Lord God:
O Tyre, you have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.'

4 Your frontiers are in the heart of the seas, your builders have perfected your beauty.

5 They made all your planks from fir trees of Senir.
They brought cedars from Lebanon to make masts for you.

6 They made your oars from the oaks of Bashan.
the company of the Ashurites inlaid your deck with ivory, brought from the coasts of Kittim.

7 Fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was what you spread as your sail. Blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was what covered you.

8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen.
Your wise men, O Tyre, were in you; they were your pilots.

9 The elders of Gebal and its wise men were in you to repair your seams.
All the ships of the sea with their sailors were in you to trade for your merchandise.

10 "Men from Persia and Lud and Phut were in your army, your warriors.
They hung up shield and helmet in you; they brought you glory.

11 The men of Arvad with your army were all around on your walls, and the Gammadites were in your towers.
They hung their shields all around on your walls;

they have made your beauty perfect.

12 "Tarshish was your customer because of the great wealth of goods; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your merchandise.

13 "Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your customers. They bartered human lives and bronze articles in your market.

14 "Those of the house of Togarmah traded for your goods with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 "The men of Dedan were your customers. Many islands took the merchandise from your hand. In payment they brought you ivory tusks and ebony.

16 "Syria was your customer because of the many goods you made. They traded for your merchandise with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

17 "Judah and the land of Israel were your customers. For your goods they exchanged wheat from Minnith, and pastries, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 "Damascus was your customer because of your many products and the wealth of your goods, the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 "Dan also and Javan travelling back and forth traded for your goods. Wrought iron, cassia, and calamus were among your merchandise.

20 "Dedan was your customer trading saddle cloths for riding.

21 "Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar traded with you in lambs, and rams, and goats; in these they were your customers.

22 "The merchants of Sheba and Raamah were your customers. They traded for your goods with the choicest of all spices, and with all kinds of precious stones, and gold.

27:3 28:2. Pride will lead to shipwreck.
27:5-9 The city of Tyre is compared to a sailing ship.

27:5 Senir was another name for Mount Hermon which was famous for cedar trees.
27:6 "Bashan" – Num 21:33; Deut 4:33; Josh 12:4,5.

"Kittim" – the island of Cyprus.

27:7 "Elishah" – a city of Cyprus.

27:8 "Sidon" – a city 40 Kilometers north of Tyre.

"Arvad" – a inland city north of Sidon.

27:9 "Gebal" – a city between Sidon and Arvad.

"All the ships of the sea" – Tyre was a very important center for sea trade.

27:10 The city was wealthy enough to hire soldiers from distant places. Lydia was in the land that is today called Turkey. Put is Libya west of Egypt in north Africa.

27:11 "Gammad" – exact location unknown.
27:12-25 This portion speaks of cities and regions on every side of Tyre, some quite distant. The description shows how important Tyre was as a center for commerce.

27:12 "Tarshish" – note at 2 Chron 9:21; Isa 2:16.

27:13 "Javan" – Greece.

"Tubal", "Meshech" – note at 38:2.

27:14 "Togarmah" – probably in the region now called Armenia, a land south of Russia.

27:17 "Minnith" – a town in Ammon.

"Pastries" – the meaning of the Hebrew word here is uncertain.

27:18 "Damascus" – the capital of Syria.

"Helbon" – a town in Syria.

your customers. 24 They traded with you in all sorts of things: in blue cloth, and embroidered work, and in carpets of many colours, with knotted cords, which were among your merchandise.

25 "The ships of Tarshish were carriers of your merchandise.

And you were filled, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

26 Your oarsmen have taken you to great waters.

The east wind will break you in the midst of the seas.

27 Your riches, and your goods, your merchandise, your sailors, and your pilots, your caulkers, and the traders in your merchandise, and all your warriors who are in you and in all your company which is in your midst, will fall into the midst of the seas on the day of your ruin.

28 The shores will shake at the sound of the cry of your pilots.

29 And all who handle the oar, the sailors, and all the pilots of the sea, will come down from their ships.

They will stand on the land,

30 And make their voice heard over you, and cry bitterly, and throw dust on their heads.

They will wallow in the ashes,

31 And shave their heads because of you, and tie sackcloth around them, and weep for you with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they will take up a lament for you, and mourn over you, saying,

'What city is like Tyre,

like this one destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When your wares went out on the seas, you filled many people, you enriched the kings of the earth with your many riches and goods.'

34 At the time when you are broken by the seas in the depths of the waters your merchandise and all your company in your midst will fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the islands will be astonished at you, and their kings will be terrified, and their faces will be troubled.

36 The merchants among the peoples will hiss at you.

You will be an object of terror, and will be no more forever."

28 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord God:

"Because your heart is lifted up with pride you have said,

'I am a god; I sit on the seat of gods in the midst of the seas.'

But you are a man, and not a god, though you set your heart like the heart of a god.

3 See, you are wiser than Daniel! There is no secret they can hide from you!

4 With your wisdom and with your understanding you have gotten riches for yourself, and amassed gold and silver in your treasuries.

5 By your great wisdom and by your trade you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches.

6 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: Because you have set your heart like

27:26-28 Tyre is compared to a ship again. It was built of the finest materials and sailed by the best sailors. But it will be wrecked in the sea and vanish from sight.

27:29-36 Those who traded with Tyre will lament at her destruction (26:15-18). Their lament over Tyre will be really a selfish lament over their own loss, and will be mixed with fear of what is coming on them.

28:2 "I am a god; I sit on the seat of gods" – or it could be translated "I am God; I sit on God's seat (or throne)." There have been (and still are) men who like to think of themselves as God or a god, and exalt themselves above others. The coming antichrist will be the chief representative of such (2 Thess 2:4). They will all die like men and face the fearful judgment of the one true God the Creator of the universe.

28:3-5 The king of Tyre thought he was very wise indeed. And in a worldly sense he was, and this was proved by his accomplishments. But in a spiritual sense he did not have even the beginning of wisdom (Job 28:28; 111:10; Prov 1:7). No mere man who is spiritually wise will ever say "I am a god," or "I am God." True wisdom shudders at the very thought of such statements.

28:3 "Daniel" – see the note on 14:14.
28:5 "Lifted up" – notice the connection between pride and wealth.

28:6-10 When we see pride in anyone in the Bible we can know that disaster will follow (Prov 3:34; 11:2; 16:18; Isa 2:11-18; etc.).

the heart of a god,
 7 see that I am going to bring strangers
 against you,
 the most terrible of the nations,
 and they will draw their swords
 against the beauty of your wisdom,
 and they will defile your splendour.
 8 They will bring you down to the pit, and you will die the death of those who are slain in the midst of the seas.
 9 Will you still say in front of the one who is killing you, 'I am a god'?
 But you will be a man, and not a god,
 in the hands of the one killing you.
 10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised
 at the hands of strangers;
 for I have spoken it,
 says the Lord God."
 11 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12 "Son of man, take up a lament for the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Lord God:

"You had the seal of perfection,
 full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.
 13 You were in Eden, the garden of God.
 Every precious stone was your covering,
 the sardius, topaz, and diamond,

beryl, onyx, and jasper, sapphire,
 emerald, and carbuncle, and gold.
 The workmanship of your tambourines and flutes was prepared for you on the day you were created.
 14 You were the anointed covering cherub;
 and I placed you as such.
 You were on the holy mountain of God.
 You walked up and down among the stones of fire.
 15 You were perfect in your ways from
 the day you were created,
 until wickedness was found in you.
 16 Because of the abundance of your commerce inside you became filled with violence, and you sinned.
 Therefore I threw you out of the mountain of God as a profane thing,
 and I made you disappear,
 O covering cherub,
 from among the stones of fire.
 17 Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty.
 You corrupted your wisdom because of your splendour.
 I hurled you to the ground,
 I placed you before kings,
 so that they could see you.

28:11-19 This is a strange and difficult portion of Scripture. In some respects it is similar to Isa 14:12-15. The following interpretations have been made by scholars.

(a) God is speaking ironically. The king of Tyre said he was a god (v 2). God now speaks to him as if it were so, and then goes on to show how great would be his fall and the fall of his city with him.

(b) The passage has as its foundation a mythological account of the story of the garden of Eden which was known in Tyre. The language is highly metaphorical and is meant only to depict the splendor and wealth and power of Tyre and its king.

(c) The passage is to be taken more literally and points to a king of Tyre in the unseen realm – probably Satan himself. Behind the proud rulers of earth's cities and lands stand invisible spirit beings who are the rulers of the fallen world (compare Daniel 10:13 where a fallen spirit being is called the prince of Persia, and Eph 6:12).

(d) There is a double application – one to the human king of Tyre or to his city, and one to the spirit being behind him. Some of the language refers to the one, and some to the other.

This last interpretation seems the best way to understand these verses. Some of the language here, if taken at all in its natural literal meaning, cannot possibly fit the human ruler of the city of Tyre, and seem plainly to indicate a spirit being behind him. Other expressions can hardly fit either Satan or the human ruler of Tyre, but fit the city of Tyre.

28:12 Could this possibly be said of any earthly king?

28:13 "Eden" – Gen 3:1. Certainly the literal king of Tyre was not in the garden of Eden.

28:14 "Covering cherub" – this could mean guardian or protecting cherub.

"Cherub" – it is hard to see how this word could ever be used concerning any human being. See note at Gen 3:24.

We should note that if the one now called Satan was in the garden of Eden as an anointed guardian cherub, this would mean that the fall of this being into sin came after the creation of Adam and Eve. And he (though we should not be dogmatic about this) may have been appointed to protect Adam and Eve from any possible danger, not to tempt them to sin.

28:15 "Perfect" – can we think that the literal king of Tyre, the ruler of an idolatrous and wicked people, was ever perfect? But Satan before he became the enemy of God and man, before his fall, as an angel created by God would have been blameless.

"Until iniquity was found in you" – God never created an evil being or made him evil after creating him. Satan's wickedness was a result of Satan's decision to oppose God and exalt himself. Compare Isa 14:12-14.

18 You have defiled your sanctuaries
by the abundance of your evil deeds,
by the evil of your trade, therefore I brought a fire out from the midst of you.

It consumed you, and I reduced you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who saw you.

19 All those among the peoples who knew
you are astonished at you.
You have become an object of terror,
and will be no more forever."

20 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, set your face against Sidon, and prophesy against it, 22 and say, Thus
says the Lord God:

"See, I am against you, O Sidon, and I will be glorified in your midst.
And they will know that I am the LORD,
when I execute judgments on her,
and am revealed as holy through her.

23 For I will send the plague into her,
and blood into her streets.
And the wounded will be judged in her midst by the sword against her on every side;
and they will know that I am the LORD.

24 "And among all those who are around the house of Israel, who scorn them, there will no longer be for them a pricking briar or any painful thorn;
and they will know that I am the Lord God.

25 "Thus says the Lord God: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am revealed as holy through them in the sight of the nations, then they will live in their land, which I gave to my servant Jacob.
26 And they will live safely in it, and will build houses,
and plant vineyards; yes, they will live securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who are around them who scorn them; and they will know that I am the LORD their God."

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt.
3 Speak and say,

Thus says the Lord God:
See, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt,
the great monster that lies among its rivers, who has said,
'My river is my own, and I made it
for myself.'

4 But I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales, and I will bring you up from among your rivers, and all the fish of your rivers will stick to your scales.

5 And I will leave you in the wilderness,
you and all the fish of your rivers.
You will fall on the open field.
You will not be picked up or gathered.
I have given you as food to the beasts of the field and to the birds of the sky.

6 "And all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. 7 When they took hold of you with the hand, you broke, and tore their whole shoulder; and when they leaned on you,
you broke, and made all their lower back to shake.

8 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: See, I will bring a sword on you, and cut off man and beast from you. 9 And the land of Egypt will be desolate and ruined, because he said, 'The river is mine, and I made it'; and they will know that I am the LORD.
10 Therefore, see, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly 28:18,19 These verses seem to be speaking of the city of Tyre.

28:21 "Sidon" – 27:8. This city was to be punished, but nothing is said about its complete destruction. To this day it still exists in the country of Lebanon. The reason for its punishment is suggested in v 24.

28:22 "Glorified" – God is glorified when men know of His just judgments.

28:25,26 "Gather" – 11:17; 20:34,41,42; 29:13; 34:13; 36:24; 37:21; 38:8; 39:27; Isa 11:11,12; Jer 33:7.

29:1 January 587 BC.

29:2 For other prophecies concerning Egypt see Isaiah chapters 19 and 20 and Jeremiah chapter 46.

29:3 "Monster" – 4:3; Job 41:1; Isa 27:1.

"Who has said" – here again is the arrogant self-exalting attitude that God hates so much. The kings of Egypt regarded themselves in some sense as divine. This particular one even deluded himself into thinking that he was the creator of Egypt's great river.

29:4 "Hooks" – God has no difficulty in taking and disposing of any human ruler and his kingdom.

29:7 Egypt was a useless ally to Israel against the Babylonians.

29:8 "Sword" – the armies of Babylon.

29:9 Pharaoh would find out who the true Creator is.

29:10 "Syene to the border of Ethiopia" – north to south, the whole country, as we might ruined and desolate, from the tower of Syene to the border of Ethiopia. 11 No human foot will pass through it, no foot of beast will pass through it; and it will not be inhabited for forty years. 12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate among the countries that are desolate, and among the cities that are ruined her cities will be desolate for forty years. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 "Yet thus says the Lord God: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the people where they are scattered, 14 and I will bring Egypt back from captivity, and will cause them to return to the land of Pathros, to the land they came from, and there they will be a lowly kingdom. 15 It will be the lowliest of the kingdoms. No longer will it exalt itself above the nations; for I will make them small, so that they will no longer rule over the nations. 16 And it will no longer be the confidence of the house of Israel, but it will bring to remembrance their guilt in looking to them; and they will know that I am the Lord God."

17 And it came about in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to work hard against Tyre. Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was rubbed bare. Yet neither he nor his army received any wages for Tyre, for the work he did against it. 19 Therefore thus says the Lord God: See, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon. And he will take away her wealth, and capture her plunder, and take her prey, and this will be the wages for his army. 20 I have given him the land of Egypt for the work that he did against it, because they were working for me, says the Lord God.

21 "In that day I will cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth among them; and they will know that I am the LORD."

30 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy and say,

Thus says the Lord God:
Wail! Woe for the day!

3 For the day is near,
the day of the LORD is near,
a day of clouds.

It will be the time of the nations.

4 And the sword will come on Egypt, and there will be great anguish in Ethiopia,
when the slain fall in Egypt,
and they take away her wealth,
and her foundations are broken down.

5 "Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mixed peoples, and Khub, and the men of the land which is allied, will fall by the sword with them.

6 "Thus says the LORD:
Those who support Egypt will also fall.
And the pride of her power will come down.
They will fall in it by the sword,
from the tower of Syene,
says the Lord God.

7 And they will be desolate among the countries that are desolate, and her cities will be among the ruined cities.

8 And they will know that I am the LORD,
when I set a fire in Egypt,
and when all her helpers are destroyed.

9 "In that day messengers will go out from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great anguish will come on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, see, it is coming.

10 Thus says the Lord God:

"I will also make an end of the hordes of Egypt at the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him,
the most terrible of the nations,
will be brought to destroy the land,
and they will draw their swords

say in India "from Kashmir to Cape Comorin."
29:15 Egypt has never regained the power it had under the ancient Pharaohs.

29:16 "Their iniquity in looking to them" – this same sin is condemned in Isa 31:1; Jer 17:5. God wants His people to look to Him, not to worldly powers.

29:18 Nebuchadrezzar = Nebuchadnezzar. He besieged Tyre for nearly 15 years but was unable to capture the city's main part which was on an island in the bay (26:7,8).

29:19 God is the great Sovereign over all nations (Isa 40:15,17; Dan 4:34,35).

29:20 "They were working for me" – God was using the armies of Babylon to fulfil His purposes, though they were not aware of it. We may also say that if He so chooses, God may use everything and everyone on earth to accomplish what he wants done.

29:21 Horn signifies power, strength, or authority.

30:3 Notes on the Day of the LORD at Joel 1:15; etc. In the midst of prophecies about Egypt, some of which were fulfilled long ago, God speaks of a time of judgment at the end of this age and punishment on all nations.

30:11 "Most terrible" – 28:7; 31:12; 32:12; Hab 1:6. 2 Kings 25:7 gives an example of their cruelty.

against Egypt

and fill the land with the slain.

- 12 And I will dry up the rivers, and sell the land into the hands of the wicked,
and I will lay waste the land and everything in it at the hand of strangers.
I, the LORD, have spoken.

- 13 "Thus says the Lord God:
I will also destroy the idols,
and put an end to the images of Noph.
And there will no longer be a prince of the land of Egypt;
and I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

- 14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and set fire to Zoan,
and execute judgments in No.

- 15 And I will pour my fury on Sin,
the strength of Egypt,
and I will cut off the populace of No.

- 16 And I will set fire to Egypt.
Sin will have great anguish,
and No will be torn in two,
and Noph will have daily distress.

- 17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth will fall by the sword, and these cities will go into captivity.

- 18 At Tahpanhes also the day will be dark,
when I break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pomp of her strength will cease in her.

As for her, a cloud will cover her,
and her daughters will go into captivity.

- 19 Thus I will execute judgments in Egypt,
and they will know that I am the LORD."

20 And it came about in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and, see, it will not be bandaged for healing, and a splint will not be put on to bind it to make it strong enough to hold a sword.
22 Therefore thus says the Lord God: See, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong one, and the one that was broken,

30:13 "Idols" – Jer 43:12.

"Noph" – another name for Memphis. It was a former capital of Egypt. In the next few verses the important cities of ancient Egypt are mentioned. God's anger would come on all of them.

30:14 "No" – another name for Thebes.

30:15 "Sin" – another name for a place also called Pelusium.

30:21 "Arm" – part of Pharaoh's power had gone because of a defeat in battle the previous year.

30:22 God would completely break Pharaoh's and I will cause the sword to fall from his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand; but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he will groan before him with the groanings of a man with a deadly wound. 25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh will fall;
and they will know that I am the Lord, when I put my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon, and he stretches it out over the land of Egypt. 26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they will know that I am the LORD."

31 And it came about in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to that multitude of his,

"Who are you like in your greatness?

- 3 See, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and cast a shadow over the forest.

It was very tall;

Its top was among the thick boughs.

- 4 The waters made it grow,
the deep water made it tall,
its rivers flowed all around the place
it was planted,

and sent out its streams to all the trees of the field.

- 5 Therefore it became higher than all the
trees of the field,
and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long because of the abundant water,
as it spread out.

- 6 All the birds of heaven made their nests
in its boughs,
and all the beasts of the field gave birth to their young under its branches.

And under its shadow lived all the great nations.

power and make it impossible for him to go to war.

30:24 "My sword" – 21:3; 29:20.

31:2 "Who are you like?" – the rest of this chapter to v 18 describes the famous and powerful kingdom of Assyria that flourished from 885 to about 609 BC. This comparison is in the form of an allegory, and metaphorical language is used to describe something of Assyria's splendor.

31:3 "Cedar" – compare chapter 17.

31:5 "Higher" – Assyria became the most powerful kingdom of its day.

- 7 So it was beautiful in its greatness,
in the length of its branches,
for its root was by great waters.
- 8 The cedars in the garden of God could not eclipse it;
the fir trees were not like its boughs,
and the plane trees were not like its branches,
and no tree in the garden of God was like it in its beauty.
- 9 I made it beautiful in the abundance of its branches,
so that all the trees of Eden,
that were in the garden of God, envied it.

10 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: Because you towered so high, and lifted its top among the thick boughs, and its heart was puffed up because of its height, 11 I handed it over to the mighty one of the nations, for him to deal with it. He certainly dealt with it; I drove it out for its wickedness. 12 And foreigners, the most terrible of the nations, cut it off and left it. Its branches fell on the mountains and in all the valleys, and its boughs were broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth departed from its shadow, and left it. 13 On its ruin all the birds of heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field are on its branches. 14 Therefore not one of all the trees by the waters should exalt themselves for their height, or raise their top among the thick boughs, nor should their well-watered trees stand proudly in their height, for they have all been delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among the children of men who go down to the pit.

15 "Thus says the Lord God: In the day when it went down to the grave I caused mourning. I covered the deep for it, and I held back its floods, and the great waters were stopped. And I caused Lebanon to mourn for it, and all the trees of the field wilted because of it. 16 I made the nations shake at the sound of its fall, when I hurled it down to hell with those who descend into the pit. Then all the trees of Eden, the choicest and best of Lebanon, all the well-watered ones, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. 17 They also went down into hell with it to those slain with the sword, with those who were its arm, who lived under its shadow among the nations.

18 "Among the trees of Eden which was like you in glory and in greatness? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth. You will lie among the uncircumcised with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his hordes, says the Lord God."

32 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, take up a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him,

"You are like a young lion among the nations,
and you are like a monster in the seas.
And you burst out of your rivers,
and stirred up the waters with your feet, and dirtied their rivers.

3 Thus says the Lord God:
Therefore I will spread my net over you with a gathering of many peoples, and they will bring you up in my net.

4 Then I will leave you on the land;
I will hurl you out onto the open field,
and will cause all the birds of heaven to remain on you, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with you.

5 And I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your remains.

6 I will also drench with your blood the land where you swim,
up to the mountains,
and the rivers will be full of you.

31:8 It had more worldly splendor than any other kingdom God had planted in the world up to that time.

31:9,10 God was the one who gave power and splendor to Assyria. Instead of giving honor to God it committed the sin of pride which God will not tolerate for long (Jam 4:6).

31:11 "Mighty one of the nations" – the king of Babylon.

31:12 The Assyrian armies were crushed by the Babylonians at the battle of Carchemish in 609 BC. After that Assyria never regained its power, and disappeared into history.

31:14 All man's kingdoms together with their splendor and pride will end up as Assyria did.

31:15-17 At the fall of Assyria there was a great tumult among the nations, and great gloom to its allies.

"Grave" (vs 15,16,17) – in Hebrew "Sheol" – note at Gen 37:35.

31:18 "You" – the king of Egypt. His fate and the fate of his kingdom with him would be the same as Assyria.

32:2 "Lament" – it is always a sad thing that kingdoms and kings must fall because of their pride and wickedness.

"Lion" – 19:1-9; etc. Lion is a symbol of power and majesty.

"Monster" – 29:3.

32:3-6 God did this but His instrument was the king of Babylon with his armies.

- 7 And when I extinguish you,
I will cover the heavens,
and make its stars dark.
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will not give its light.
- 8 I will make all the bright lights of heaven dark over you,
and set darkness on your land,
says the Lord God.
- 9 I will also trouble the hearts of many people, when I bring about your destruction among the nations,
in countries which you have not known.
- 10 Yes, I will make many peoples amazed
at you,
and their kings will be horribly afraid
because of you,
when I brandish my sword before them,
and they will tremble at every moment,
each man for his own life,
in the day of your fall.
- 11 "For thus says the Lord God:
The sword of the king of Babylon will come on you.
- 12 I will cause your hordes to fall by the swords of the mighty,
the most terrible of all the nations,
and they will plunder the pride of Egypt,
and all its hordes will be destroyed.
- 13 I will also destroy all its cattle from beside the great waters.
The foot of man will not muddy them any more,
nor will the hooves of cattle muddy them.
- 14 Then I will make their waters settle,
and cause their rivers to run like oil,
says the Lord God.
- 15 When I make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country destitute of what it had
in abundance,
when I strike all who live in it,
then they will know that I am the LORD.

16 "This is the lament with which they will mourn for her. The daughters of the nations will lament for her; they will lament for her, for Egypt and for all her many people, says the Lord God."

17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, wait for the multitudes of Egypt, and send them down, her and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit, saying, 19 Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down, and be placed among the uncircumcised. 20 They will fall among those slain by the sword, she is handed over to the sword. Draw her and all her multitudes away.
21 From the midst of hell the strongest of the mighty will say of him and of those who helped him, 'They have come down, they lie among the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

22 "Asshur is there and all her horde. Her graves are all around her, all of them slain, fallen by the sword. 23 Their graves are set in the depths of the pit, and her horde is around her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who had caused terror in the land of the living.

24 "There is Elam and all her hordes around her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword. Those who caused their terror in the land of the living have gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth. Now they bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. 25 They have placed a bed for her among the slain, with all her hordes, with her graves all around it, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword. Though they caused terror in the land of the living, yet they bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. They are put among those slain.

26 "There are Meshech, Tubal, and all her hordes. Their graves are all around it, all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living. 27 And they do not lie among the mighty who have fallen of the uncircumcised, who have gone down to hell

32:7,8 These are signs usually associated with the "day of the LORD" (see Isa 13:10; Joel 2:31; etc). Egypt's destruction at the hands of Nebuchadnezzar may be a picture of what will happen to Egypt at the end of this age.

32:9,10 Whenever war is loosed on the world and a great kingdom falls the result is fear and upheaval among the nations. Especially at the end of this age conditions will become so terrible that every ruler of every country will have reason to tremble every moment for his life.

32:12 "Pride" – 31:10. When will men and rulers learn not to exalt themselves against the God of heaven?

32:19 "Go down" – individuals and nations like to think themselves superior to others.
This will be the end result of all such arrogance and pride.

"Uncircumcised" – here used as a term of contempt for people who were not in covenant relationship with God, who did not know God and did not have any desire to know Him.

32:21 "Hell" (also v 27) – the Hebrew is "Sheol". It means the realm of the dead.
This and the following verses describe in poetic language the fall of armies, the death of peoples, the destruction of kingdoms.

32:24 "Elam" – Isa 11:11; 21:2; Jer
25:25; 49:34; Dan 8:2.

32:26 "Meshech, Tubal" – 38:2.

with their weapons of war. They have laid their swords under their heads, but the punishment of their evil deeds is on their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 "Yes, you will be broken among the uncircumcised, and will lie down among those slain with the sword.

29 "There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, who, despite their might, are placed beside those slain by the sword. They lie among the uncircumcised, and among those who go down to the pit.

30 "There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain. They are put to shame despite the terror caused by their might; and they lie uncircumcised with those slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

31 "Pharaoh will see them, and will be comforted over all his hordes, Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says the Lord God. 32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living, and he will be placed among the uncircumcised with those slain with the sword, Pharaoh and all his hordes, says the Lord God."

33 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say to them, When I bring the sword on a land, if the people of the land take one of their countrymen and make him their watchman, 3 if he blows the trumpet when he sees the sword come on the land, and warns the people, 4 then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and does not take warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. 5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and did not take warning. The responsibility for his blood will be on him. But he who takes warning will save his life. 6 But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, if the sword comes, and takes a person from among them, he is taken away in his guilt; but I will require his blood at the watchman's hand.

7 "So, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. Therefore you shall hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me. 8 When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' if you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man will die in his guilt, but I will require his blood at your hand. 9 But if you warn the wicked about his way to turn him from it, if he does not turn from his way, he will die in his guilt, but you will have saved your life.

10 "Therefore, son of man, say to the house of Israel, This is what you are saying, 'If our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them, how then can we live?' 11 Say to them, 'As I live, says the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turns from his way and lives. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! For why will you die, O house of Israel?'

12 "Therefore, son of man, say to the children of your people, The righteousness of the righteous will not deliver him in the day of his transgression. As for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not fall because of it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; nor will the righteous be able to live because of his righteousness in the day that he sins. 13 When I say of the righteous that he will surely live, if he trusts in his own righteousness, and does evil, none of his acts of righteousness will be remembered, and he will die for the evil which he has committed. 14 Again, when I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' if he turns from his sin, and does what is lawful and right, 15 if the wicked restores the pledge, gives back what he has stolen, walks in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity, he will surely live; he will not die. 16 None of the sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done what is lawful and right; he will surely live.

17 "Yet the children of your people say, 'The 32:29 "Edom" – Isa 11:14; Jer 25:21; 49:7-22.

32:30 "Sidonians" – 28:21.

32:32 "I" – God used Egypt and its king as He uses all nations, to work out His purposes among the people of the world.

33:1-20 This section, like chapter 18, emphasizes individual responsibility. God gives a general example in vs 2-6 and applies it to Ezekiel in vs 7-9. In vs 10-20 we have the words Ezekiel was to speak as a watchman to Israel.

33:4 "Blood" – he will be responsible for his own death.

33:7 "Watchman" – Ezekiel was not a watchman on the walls of a literal city. He was a spiritual watchman for the people of Israel to point out those sins that brought them into danger and to call them to repentance. See also 3:1.

33:8 "Die in his iniquity" – or "die for his iniquity" (also v 9).

33:10 At last the people are beginning to confess their sins and to see that their sufferings are a result of them.

33:11 "Live" – 18:23,32.

"Turn" – life and repentance were joined together and could not be separated – 14:6; 18:30. It was not enough to acknowledge their sins. They had to turn heartily from them to God.

33:12-20 18:21-30.

33:15 Observe that repentance means also making amends for sin, restoring what one way of the Lord is not just.' But it is their way which is not just. 18 When the righteous turns from his righteousness and does evil, he will die because of it. 19 But if the wicked turns from his wickedness and does what is lawful and right, he will live because of it. 20 Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' O house of Israel, I will judge each one of you in accordance with his ways."

21 And it came about in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, that someone who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city has been taken." 22 Now before the arrival of the one who had escaped, the hand of the LORD was on me in the evening, and had opened my mouth. So when he came to me in the morning, my mouth had been opened, and I was no longer mute.

23 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, those who living in those ruins of the land of Israel speak and say, 'Abraham was one man, and he inherited the land. But we are many; the land has been given to us as an inheritance.' 25 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord God: You eat meat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood, and will you possess the land? 26 You depend on your sword, you commit abominations, and each one of you defiles his neighbour's wife; and will you possess the land?"

27 "Say this to them, Thus says the Lord God: As I live, surely those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword, and I will give those in the open field to the beasts as food, and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the plague. 28 For I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end, and the mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that no one will pass through. 29 Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the abominations which they have committed.

30 "Also, son of man, the children of your people are still talking against you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, speaking to one another, each one to his brother, saying, 'Please come and hear whatever word comes from the LORD.' 31 And they come to you as people will come, and they sit before you like my people, and they hear your words, but they will not do them. For with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their selfish profit. 32 And, see, to them you are like a very lovely song of someone who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them.

33 "And when this comes to pass (see, it will happen), then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

34 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord God to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed only themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? 3 You eat the fat, and you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fat ones, but you do not feed the flock. 4 You have not strengthened the weak, nor have you healed the sick, nor have you bound up what was broken, nor have you brought back what was driven away, nor have you sought what was lost, but you have ruled the sheep with force and with cruelty. 5 And they were scattered, has unjustly taken. See Ex 22:1; Lev 6:4,5. 33:21 "Day" – January 8, 585 BC (according to the calendar generally in use). The city fell and the temple was burned August 14, 586 BC. It took nearly five months for this man to reach Ezekiel in Babylon. It then became clear to the exiles that Ezekiel's prophecies were fulfilled.

33:24 The people who remained in the land of Israel after the final collapse of Jerusalem still did not understand what God was doing and they did not turn from their sins. 33:25 "Blood" – Gen 9:4; Lev 17:10; Deut 12:16.

"Idols" – their idols had completely failed them, but still they would not give them up. 33:26 It was not people like this that God wanted in possession of His land – or wants now in His Church.

33:27-29 These spiritually blind and unrepentant sinners would get just what they desired.

33:30 The people in exile now recognized more clearly than before that Ezekiel was God's prophet.

33:31,32 How like many Christians today who willingly hear godly preachers deliver sermons, but will not put into practice what they say. They are like the second son of Matt 21:28-32 and the man of Jam 1:22-24. Blessing comes by obeying God's word, not simply by hearing it.

34:2 "Shepherds" – leaders of the people whether political or religious. For other revelations about shepherds see Ps 78:70-72; Isa 56:10,11; Jer 23:1-4; 25:34-38; 50:6,7. Compare 1 Pet 5:2-4.

"Feed only themselves" – Isa 50:11; Jer 6:13. This was the great sin of the shepherds of Israel, and all too often the sin of leaders in the church today. Selfishness is rooted deeply in man's nature and only the Spirit of Christ can enable us to overcome it.

34:3,4 This is always the behavior of leaders who look out only for themselves and not for the people in their care.

34:5 "No shepherd" – there was none worthy of the name. It was the same when Jesus was on earth (Matt 9:36).

because there was no shepherd. And when they were scattered, they became food for all the beasts of the field. 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill. Yes, my flock was scattered over the surface of the whole earth, and no one searched for them or sought them.

7 "Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: 8 As I live, says the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd and my shepherds did not search for my flock, because the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed my flock, 9 therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. 10 Thus says the Lord God: See, I am against the shepherds, and I will require my flock at their hand, and put a stop to their feeding the flock. And the shepherds will not feed themselves any more, for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, so that they will not be food for them.

11 "For thus says the Lord God: See, I, I myself, will search for my sheep, and seek them out. 12 I will seek out my sheep as a shepherd seeks out his flock on the day that he is among his scattered sheep, and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. 13 And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them on the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and their fold will be on the high mountains of Israel. There they will lie in a good fold, and will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. 15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord God. 16 I will seek what was lost, and bring back what was driven away, and I will bind up what was broken, and will strengthen what was weak. But I will destroy the fat and the strong ones. I will feed them with judgment."

34:7-10 God will hold leaders responsible for their behavior if they care only for themselves, and they should not expect to escape the judgment of God.

34:11-16 Here we see God Himself as shepherd. He will do what human leaders have failed to do. For other references to the Lord as shepherd see Ps 23:4-6; 80:1; Isa 40:11; Jer 23:3,4; John 10:1-16.

34:13 11:17; 20:34,41,42; 28:25. This is a common theme in the prophets.

34:16 "Seek" – Luke 15:1-7.

"Fat and the strong" – they became so by selfishly looking out only for themselves, as we see in vs 17-22. Compare Luke 16:19-21.

34:17 Compare Matt 25:32,33.

34:23 There have been three suggested interpretations of the word "David" here –

17 "And as for you, O my flock, thus says the Lord God: See, I will judge between sheep and sheep, between the rams and the male goats. 18 Does it seem such a small thing to you to have eaten up the good pasture, that you must trample down the rest of the pastures with your feet? And to have drunk of the deep waters, that you must muddy the rest with your feet? 19 And as for my flock, they eat what you have trampled down with your feet, and they drink what you have muddied with your feet.

20 "Therefore thus says the Lord God to them: See, I, I myself, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. 21 Because you have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the weak ones with your horns until you scattered them away, 22 therefore I will save my flock, and they will no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23 And I will set over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will feed them. He will feed them, and he will be their shepherd. 24 And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them. I, the LORD, have spoken it.

25 "And I will make a covenant of peace with them, and will cause the evil beasts to cease from the land. And they will live safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. 26 And I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to fall in its season. There will be showers of blessing. 27 And the tree of the field will yield its fruit, and the earth will yield its crops. And they will be safe in their land, and will know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those who made them their servants. 28 And they will no longer be a prey to the heathen, nor will the beasts of the land devour them, but they will live safely, and no one will make them afraid. 29 And I will establish for them a famous ground for planting, and they will no longer be consumed with some say the prince will be David risen from the dead. Others say he will be some descendant from David's royal house. Still others say he will be the Messiah the son of David. If "David" here is identical with the prince of 44:3 and 45:22, he cannot be the Messiah. See those verses.

34:25 "Covenant of peace" – 16:62; 37:26; Jer 31:31-34.

34:26 "My hill" – Mount Zion.

"Blessing" – notes on Gen 12:3; Num 6:22-27; Ps 1:1; 119:1. What Israel needed, what the church needs, what the whole world needs, is the blessings of God falling as monsoon rains everywhere. But for such rains to do good the "soil" of men's hearts must be prepared (Hos 10:12).

34:27-29 A promise of a complete reversal hunger in the land, or bear the insults of the nations any more. 30 Thus they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord God. 31 And you, my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord God."

35 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, 3 and say to it, Thus says the Lord God: See, O mount Seir, I am against you, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolate waste. 4 I will lay your cities waste, and you will be desolate, and you will know that I am the LORD.

5 "Because you have had an ancient hatred, and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, at the end, at the time of the punishment of their wickedness, 6 therefore, as I live, says the Lord God, I will prepare you for blood, and blood will pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, blood will pursue you! 7 Thus I will make mount Seir a desolate waste, and cut off from it the one who leaves and the one who returns. 8 And I will fill its mountains with its slain men: those who are slain by the sword will fall on your hills, and in your valleys, and in all your rivers. 9 I will make you a permanent desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited; and you will know that I am the LORD.

10 "Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries will be mine, and we will possess them,' even though the LORD was there, 11 therefore, as I live, says the Lord God, I will act in accordance with your anger, and in accordance with your envy which you showed out of your hatred for them, and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged you. 12 And you will know that I am the LORD, and that of their present circumstances.

34:30 11:20; 14:11; 37:27.

35:2 "Seir" – the territory of the people of Edom, descendants of Esau, Jacob's brother. For other prophecies concerning them see Isa 21:11,12; Jer 49:7-22; Amos 1:11,12; Obadiah 1-16.

35:3 "Against you" – 5:8; etc.

35:5 "Hatred" – Gen 27:41; Num 20:14-21; 2 Sam 8:13,14; 1 Kings 9:26-28.

"Calamity" – Obad 11-14.

35:6 Gen 9:6. If we do not renounce something wrong we may become the victims of it.

35:9 "Permanent" – in contrast to Israel, Egypt and other lands.

35:10 "Two nations" – the northern and southern kingdoms of Israel and Judah.

35:11 Another example of God's dealing with men as they deal with others. See Matt 7:2;

I have heard all your blasphemies, which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are laid desolate, they are given to us to devour.' 13 Thus with your mouth you have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me. I have heard them. 14 Thus says the Lord God: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. 15 As you rejoiced about the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it. And they will know that I am the LORD.

36 "Also, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

2 Thus says the Lord God: Because the enemy has said against you, 'Aha! Even the ancient high places are ours to possess.' 3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord God: Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, so that you might be possessed by the rest of the nations, and because you are taken up by the lips of talkers, and are slandered by the peoples, 4 therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God. Thus says the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and an object of derision to the rest of the surrounding nations: 5 Therefore thus says the Lord God: Surely in the fire of my jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who have claimed my land for themselves as a possession, with whole-hearted joy, with spiteful minds, plundering its countryside. 6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord God: See, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury,

Ps 18:25,26.

35:13 "Against me" – to speak against God's people is to speak against Him, to act against them is to act against Him (Matt 25:34-45; Acts 9:4).

35:15 "Rejoiced" – 36:5; Obadiah v 12. This showed great hatred and malice toward God's people, great hardness and depravity of heart.

36:1-38 A prophecy in four parts – vengeance against the nations that ruined Israel (vs 1-7), restoration of the land itself (vs 8-15), the reason for Israel's ejection from the land (vs 16-23), the return of the people of Israel to the land (vs 24-38).

36:3 Israel had to endure such things through much of their history.

36:6 "In my jealousy" – see 8:5; Ex 20:5,6; Song 8:6.

because you have had to bear the scorn of the nations. 7 Therefore thus says the Lord God: I have lifted up my hand to swear, Surely the nations which are around you will have to bear their scorn.

8 "But you, O mountains of Israel, will put out your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are about to come. 9 For, see, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you will be tilled and sown. 10 And I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, all of it. And the cities will be inhabited, and the waste places will be built up. 11 And I will multiply man and beast in you, and they will increase and bear fruit. And I will settle people on you as in the past, and will do more good to you than at your beginnings; and you will know that I am the LORD. 12 Yes, I will cause men, my people Israel, to walk on you, and they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and from then on you will no longer bereave them of men.

13 "Thus says the Lord God: Because they say to you, 'You, O land, devour men, and bereave your nation.' 14 Therefore you will devour men no longer, nor bereave your nation any more, says the Lord God. 15 Nor will I any longer cause people to hear in you the insults of the nations, nor will you bear the reproach of the peoples any longer, nor will you cause your nation to fall any more, says the Lord God."

16 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their deeds. To me their way was like the uncleanness of a woman in her monthly impurity. 18 Wherefore I poured my fury on them, because of the blood that they had shed on the land, and because of their idols, with which they had defiled it. 19 And I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries. I judged them in accordance with their way and their deeds. 20 And when they went among the nations, wherever they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, 'These are the people of the LORD, and have left his land.' 21 But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went.

22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: I do not do this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for my holy name's sake, which you have profaned among the nations where you went. 23 And I will show that my great name is holy, which name was profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them. And the nations will know that I am the LORD, says the Lord God, when I am shown to be holy through you before their eyes.

24 "For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. 25 Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your filthiness, and from all your idols. 26 Also I will give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you, and I will take 36:7 God will deal with those nations as they dealt with Israel (35:11).

36:8-15 A prophecy that the land of Israel would be restored. Observe the words "no longer" in v 12 and "any more" and "any longer" in vs 14,15. This was not fulfilled at the return of the Jews from Babylon, for after that return the land was again deprived of its children (in 70 AD when the Romans destroyed Jerusalem and scattered the Jews). Two comings of Christ are foretold in the Old Testament, and there is no indication that many centuries would elapse between them. So it is with two restorations of Israel.

36:16-23 The reasons for Israel's ejection from the land.

36:17 "Defiled" – the penalty for defiling the land was to be ejected from it – Lev 18:28; 20:22.

36:18 Two main ways in which Israel defiled God's land – murder and false religion. The one meant the death of people, the other meant the death of truth there. Both were done in defiance of God's laws (Exodus chapter 20).

36:19 "In accordance with" – 7:8; 24:14; 39:24.

36:20 "Profaned" – the nations would not have known the real reasons why Israel was defeated and scattered among them. They would have thought it was because Israel's God was too weak to defend them, and beneath their own gods.

36:22 God would act for the sake of His holy name. That is, He would bring Israel back to the land and make them a holy people in a restored land (vs 24-35), though they did not in any way deserve God's favor. Compare God's way with believers described in Eph 1:3-14 which results in praise of His glorious grace. Observe here in Ezekiel that God's reputation is bound up with His people. By observing them others will be influenced in their views of God.

36:23 In His dealings with Israel God would show His true holy character to the nations of the world. Compare Lev 20:7; Matt 6:9.

36:24 34:13; Isa 43:5,6; Jer 23:3.

36:25-27 This speaks of a complete change in the people similar to that described in Jer 31:31-34 and Isa 1:25; 4:3,4; etc. God promises to give this fallen people exactly what they needed – cleansing, a new heart, His own spirit and an inner strength to obey His word. All these He will give now also to the repenting sinner. Compare Ps 51:7-12.

36:25 "Sprinkle" – Lev 14:51; Num 19:18.

away the stony heart out of your flesh, and will give you a heart of flesh. 27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes; and you will keep my judgments, and do them. 28 And you will live in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you will be my people, and I will be your God. 29 I will also save you from all your uncleanness. And I will call for the grain and increase it, and put no famine on you. 30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the crops of the field, that you will no longer receive reproach about famine among the nations. 31 Then you will remember your own evil ways, and your deeds that were not good, and will loathe yourselves in your own sight for your wicked deeds and for your abominations. 32 Let it be known to you that I do not do this for your sakes, says the Lord God. Be ashamed and feel disgraced for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 "Thus says the Lord God: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to live in the cities, and the ruins will be built up. 34 And the desolate land will be tilled, instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who passed by. 35 And they will say, 'This land, which was desolate, has become like the garden of Eden; and the wasted and desolate and ruined cities are fortified, and are inhabited.' 36 Then the nations that are left around you will know that I, the Lord, build the ruined places, and plant what was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

37 "Thus says the Lord God: I will also let the house of Israel inquire of me for this, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock, 38 like the holy flock, like the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts. So the ruined cities will be filled with flocks of men; and they will know that I am the LORD."

37 The hand of the LORD was on me, and carried me away in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the middle of the valley. It was full of bones, 2 and he caused me to go all around among them, and I saw that there were very many in the open valley, and that they were very dry. 3 And he said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?"

And I answered, "O Lord God, you know."

4 Again he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. 5 Thus says the Lord God to these bones: See, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you will live. 6 And I will put sinews on you, and will bring flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you will live; and you will know that I am the LORD."

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a noise, and then a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8 And when I looked I saw the sinews and the flesh coming on them, and the skin covering them, but there was no breath in them.

9 Then he said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, son of man, and say to the breath, Thus says the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live." 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

11 Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. See, they are 36:27 Heb 8:10.

36:29 37:23; Heb 9:14; 10:22.

36:31 This is certain to happen when God grants true repentance to sinful men – 6:9; 16:63; 20:43; Ps 51:3-5; Luke 18:13.

36:36 This will be done in such a way that the nations will know it is God's work, not Israel's.

36:37 God would once more hear His people (compare 14:3; 20:3,31), and what He would do would be in answer to their prayer.

37:1 1:3; 8:3; 11:1,24 – indicates a vision. "Carried me away" – may indicate that the valley of the bones was somewhere other than the place of his exile. Perhaps it signifies all the nations of 36:24 and 37:20.

"Bones" – v 11 reveals what these bones symbolize. This chapter is a very important prophecy of the restoration of the nation Israel and their permanent blessing under the rule of God.

37:2 "Very dry" – suggests a very long time out of the land and in a hopeless condition.

37:3 Sometimes God asks us questions we cannot answer to provoke us to think, and to prepare us to participate in His work.

37:4 Is there any use in preaching to dead bones? Yes, if God tells us to do it. Is there any use in preaching to those who are dead in trespasses and sins? Yes, it is a part of God's work in raising them to life.

37:5,6 The bones were all separate from one another (v 2). This indicates that at the beginning of the time the vision points to, Israel would not be one nation, not a united kingdom.

"Breath" (v 5) – or "wind" or "spirit."

37:7,8 Does this possibly suggest that Israel will become a united people, a nation, before the Spirit of God gives them new life?

37:9 The Hebrew word translated "breath" also means wind and spirit. Here it is a symbol of God's Spirit (v 14).

37:10 "An exceedingly great army" – surely indicates a greater number than the number of Jews who returned from Babylon in the 5th century BC (Ezra 2:64).

37:11 "Cut off" – the KJV adds the words "for our parts", but there is no Hebrew word for parts here.

saying, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost. We ourselves are cut off.' 12 Therefore prophesy and say to them, Thus says the Lord God: See, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up from your graves, and I bring you into the land of Israel. 13 And you will know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up from your graves. 14 And I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken it, and have done it, says the LORD."

15 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 16 "Moreover, son of man, take a stick and write on it, 'For Judah and for his associates among the children of Israel.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all his associates among the house of Israel.' 17 And join them to each other as one stick; and they will become one in your hand.

18 "And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, 'Will you not tell us what you mean by these?' 19 Say to them, Thus says the Lord God: See, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and his associates among the tribes of Israel, and will put them with him, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will become one in my hand. 20 And the sticks which you write on will be in your hand before their eyes. 21 And say to them, Thus says the Lord God: See, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations where they have gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land. 22 And I will make them one nation in the land on the mountains of Israel. And one king will be king for all of them, and they will no longer be two nations, nor will they ever again be divided into two kingdoms. 23 Nor will they any longer defile themselves with their idols, or with their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions; but I will save them from all the dwelling places where they have sinned, and will cleanse them. So they will be my people, and I will be their God.

24 "And my servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them. 25 And they will live in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, where your fathers lived; and they will live in it, they and their children, and their children's children forever; and my servant David will be their prince forever. 26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them, and I will place them, and multiply them, and will establish my sanctuary in their midst forever. 27 And my tabernacle will be with them. Yes, I will be their God, and they will be my people. 28 And the nations will know that I, the LORD, sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary is in their midst forever."

38 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Son of man, set your face against Gog of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

37:12 "Graves" – the places among the nations of the world where their hopes, their national life was buried. God is speaking of the resurrection of a nation, not of the literal dead. Verse 14 makes this clear.

37:14 36:27. The work of God's Spirit would be needed in the formation of Israel as a nation again. When it takes place the people of Israel would know that God has done it in fulfillment of His Word.

37:15-23 The people had been divided into two kingdoms since the days of Rehoboam and Jeroboam in 930 BC. This passage foretells the reuniting of all the Jews as one nation, as they had been in the days of David and Solomon. And they will be delivered from all the sins that caused God to scatter them throughout the world.

37:24-28 The same people are in view here – the Jews who had divided into two kingdoms, had been later scattered in the world, and had become like dead, dry bones.

37:24 34:23; 44:3; 45:22; Hos 3:5.

37:25 "Land that I have given to Jacob" – the emphasis here is on the literal land of Israel with the literal descendants of Jacob living in it. It is difficult to see how this verse can in any way refer to the Church of the New Testament.

"Forever" – this word is used four times in vs 25-28. This was not fulfilled when the Jews returned to the land of Israel after the Babylonian captivity. They were again uprooted and scattered by the Romans in 70 AD. Verses 25-28 speak of a time when they will be permanently settled in their land never again to be uprooted (see Amos 9:15).

37:26 "Covenant" – 34:25.

"Sanctuary" – there is much about the sanctuary in chapters 40-48.

37:27 "My tabernacle" or "my dwelling place" – note at Ex 25:8.

38:1 Chapters 38 and 39 deal with one subject – an invasion of Israel by powerful northern nations. The invasion takes place "after many days," after the regathering of Israel to their land (38:8). Presumably this is after the regathering described in chapter 37. It is not easy to determine exactly what nations are meant here or the time of the invasion. The author of these notes can only suggest possibilities.

38:2 "Gog" – evidently is a leader of this alliance of nations. In Rev 20:8 this name together with Magog seems to refer to

3 and say, Thus says the Lord God: See, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal, 4 and I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in all sorts of armour, a great horde with large shields and small shields, all of them handling swords, 5 together with Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya, all of them with shield and helmet, 6 Gomer, and all its troops, the house of Togarmah from the far north, and all its troops, and many people with you.

7 "Be prepared, and get yourself ready, you, and all the horde assembled around you, and be a guard for them. 8 After many days you will be mustered. In the latter years you will come into the land restored from the sword, gathered out of many peoples, against the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate, but its people will have rebellious nations throughout the world, but here this does not seem to be so.

"Magog" – here refers to the land of which Gog is the leader. In Gen 10:2 Magog is linked with Meshech and Tubal. All these peoples were descendants of Japheth and settled to the far north of the land of Canaan. Nearly 2000 years ago Josephus identified Magog with the Scythians, a barbarous people who lived north of the Black sea in areas close to present-day Russia.

"Prince of Rosh" – the KJV has "chief prince" (also v 3). The Hebrew word "rosh" may mean "head" or "chief," or it may indicate a place. Many scholars hold that the most natural meaning of the Hebrew phrase here is "prince of Rosh." This would mean that Rosh is a land or people (not mentioned by name anywhere else in the Bible). Its similarity in sound to Russia is obvious. There is no absolute proof that Russia is meant, but it seems very likely.

"Meshech and Tubal" – Gen 10:2. These were tribes which lived at one time in the eastern part of what is present-day Turkey but which may have moved northward beyond the Black Sea.

38:3 "Against you" – their behavior is against God and His people, so He is against them. He is opposed to their character and their purposes.

38:4 "Hooks" – v 16; 39:2. This shows God's absolute sovereignty over these nations. Compare Dan 4:35.

38:5 Persia is present-day Iran. In the Bible two lands of Cush are mentioned – an ancient land in the area of present-day Iraq, and the land usually identified with Ethiopia (or, more accurately, with parts of Sudan and parts of Ethiopia). There were also, it seems, two Puts – one present-day Libya, the other near the ancient Asian Cush.

38:6 "Gomer" – Gen 10:3. A people who lived north of the Black Sea.

"House of Togarmah" – usually identified with present-day Armenia.

been brought out of the nations, and will be living in safety, all of them. 9 You will go up and come like a storm. You will be like a cloud covering the land, you, and all your troops, and many people with you.

10 "Thus says the Lord God: It will happen on that day that thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil scheme, 11 and you will say, 'I will go up to a land of unwalled villages. I will go to those who are at rest, who are living in safety, all of them living in towns without walls, and having neither bars nor gates.' 12 You will go to take plunder and to take booty, to stretch out your hand against the desolate places which will then be inhabited, and against the people gathered out of the nations, who will have cattle and goods, who will be living in the center of the land. 13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all its young lions, will say to you, 'Have you come to

"Far north" – 38:15; 39:2. This means far north of Israel. In Ezekiel's day, if God had wanted to indicate an alliance of peoples headed up by Russia, using the names of peoples known in that day, how better could He have done so?

38:7 Addressed to Gog, the leader of this large alliance of peoples.

38:8 "After many days" – how far off the event may be is not clear. Up till now there has never been an invasion of Israel by the peoples of verses 3,5 and 6. It will take place either toward the end of this age or at the end of the millennium (Rev 20:8). The author of these notes believes that a time toward the end of this age is indicated. See 39:12,13.

38:10 "Mind" – the thoughts that come into Gog's mind will be the "hooks" God uses to draw him into Israel (v 4). Compare Prov 21:1.

38:11 This verse, with verses 8 and 14, indicates more of a time of safety and peace than Israel has enjoyed for most of its existence in the twentieth century.

38:12,13 Israel is not a rich country, and there is not much there that would attract the greed of great nations. The richest resources in Israel are in the Dead Sea which contains potential great wealth in minerals and salts. Of course Israel is at present a strategic land in the area of the world that contains so much of the world's oil reserves. Perhaps the plunder mentioned in these verses uses the language of Ezekiel's day to symbolize a different kind of benefit to be gained by seizing Israel.

"Center of the land" (v 12) – or it could be translated "middle of the earth."

38:13 Gog will not come into Israel with no one to question him. Sheba and Dedan were both in the Arabian peninsula.

"Tarshish" – a place probably located on the southern coast of Spain. It was the most western place mentioned in the Bible.

"All its young lions" – could possibly take plunder? Have you gathered your horde to take booty, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great booty?"

14 "Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, Thus says the Lord God: On that day, when my people Israel are living in safety, will you not know it? 15 And you will come from your place out of the far north, you, and many people with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, and a mighty army. 16 And you will come up against my people Israel, like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the latter days. And I will bring you against my land so that the nations may know me, when I reveal myself as holy through you, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 "Thus says the Lord God: You are the one whom I spoke about in former days through my servants the prophets of Israel. They prophesied for years during that time that I would bring you against them.

18 "And it will come about at that time, when Gog comes against the land of Israel, says the Lord God, that my fury will come up into my face. 19 For I have spoken in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath: Surely on that day there will be a great shaking in the land of Israel, 20 so that the fish of the sea and the birds of the sky and the beasts of the field and all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth, will tremble at my presence, and the mountains will be thrown down, and the cliffs will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground. 21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, says the Lord God. Every man's sword will be against his brother. 22 And I will signify other nations allied with Tarshish. Together they may indicate western nations in general, although there is no proof in the context for this suggestion.

38:14 "Know it" – Gog will think he sees a good chance to conquer Israel.

38:16 Observe again that it is God who brings Gog into Israel.

38:17 Gog is not mentioned by name in any of the prophets in the Bible up to Ezekiel's day. Perhaps he is symbolized by some other person (such as the "Assyrian", or the "king of the north"), but there is no certainty about it. Or this verse may possibly refer to prophecies not recorded in the Bible but which Ezekiel knew about.

38:18 "My fury" – notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

38:19-23 The destruction of the armies of Gog will be partly by God's supernatural intervention and partly by sword and bloodshed (vs 21,22). Summoning a sword probably indicates bringing opposing armies. Compare Isa 34:5,6; Jer 9:16; 12:12; 25:29.

38:23 Here is one of God's good purposes

execute judgment against him with the plague and with blood, and I will pour down a flooding rain on him and on his troops and on the many people who are with him, a flooding rain, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. 23 Thus I will exalt myself, and show myself holy, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they will know that I am the LORD.

39 "Therefore, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Lord God: See, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal, 2 and I will turn you around, and lead you along, and cause you to come up from the far north, and will bring you onto the mountains of Israel. 3 And I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall from your right hand. 4 You will fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your troops, and the people who are with you. I will give you to birds of prey of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. 5 You will fall on the open field; for I have spoken it, says the Lord God. 6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among those who live in safety in the coastlands; and they will know that I am the LORD.

7 "So I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will not let them profane my holy name any more; and the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. 8 See, it is coming, and it will be done, says the Lord God; this is the day of which I have spoken. 9 And those who live in the cities of Israel will go out, and set the weapons on fire and burn them, both the small shields and the large shields, the

in that terrible destruction. See 39:7; etc. 39:1,2 38:1-9. "Prince of Rosh" – or "chief prince."

39:3 If these chapters foretell an event at the end of this age why speak of bows and arrows? or swords and shields (38:4)? or lances and spears (39:9)? Guns and tanks and bombs and planes had not yet been invented and the Hebrew language had no words for them. But the weapons mentioned in these chapters may signify the more destructive weapons that nations have today. The prophets had only the language of their day to speak of things far in the future.

39:4 Verses 17-20. Compare Rev 19:17, 18,21.

39:6 This speaks of the land of Gog. Sending fire suggests some terrible destructive force. God may, of course, use other nations to send the fire on Magog.

39:8 "Day" – possibly a reference to the general time called "the day of the LORD." Notes at Joel 1:15; etc.

39:9 "For seven years" – indicates an immense amount of arms left by the destroyed armies.

bows and the arrows, and the lances and the spears, and they will be burning them in the fire for seven years, 10 so that they will not take wood from the field, or cut down any from the forests; for they will be burning the weapons in the fire. And they will plunder those who plundered them, and loot those who looted them, says the Lord God.

11 "And it will happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of travellers east of the Sea; and it will block the way of travellers. And there they will bury Gog and all his hordes, and they will call it The Valley of Hamon-Gog.

12 "And the house of Israel will be burying them for seven months, to cleanse the land. 13 Yes, all the people of the land will be burying them; and it will mean fame for them on the day that I am glorified, says the Lord God.

14 "And they will set apart men continually employed to go throughout the land to bury those who had been coming through, who remain on the surface of the ground, to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will make a search. 15 And as those going throughout the land go along, if anyone sees the bone of a man, he will put up a sign beside it, until those doing the burying have buried it in The Valley of Hamon-Gog. 16 And the name of the city will also be Hamonah. Thus they will cleanse the land.

17 "And, son of man, thus says the Lord God: Speak to every feathered bird, and to every beast of the field: 'Assemble and come. Gather together from every side to my sacrifice, which I sacrifice for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat meat and drink blood. 18 You will eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

19 And in the sacrifice I sacrifice for you, you will eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk. 20 Thus you will be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all the warriors, says the Lord God.'

21 "And I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see my judgment that I execute, and my hand that I lay on them. 22 So the house of Israel will know from that day on that I am the LORD their God. 23 And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they were unfaithful to me. Therefore I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies, so that they all fell by the sword. 24 I acted toward them in accordance with their uncleanness and their transgressions, and hid my face from them.

25 "Therefore thus says the Lord God: So I will bring Jacob back from captivity, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name, 26 after they have borne their shame, and all their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to me, when they were living in safety in their land, and no one was making them afraid. 27 When I bring them back from the peoples, and gather them out of the lands of their enemies, and show myself holy among them in the sight of many nations, 28 then they will know that I am the LORD their God, who caused them to be led away into captivity among the nations, but have gathered them to their own land, and have left none of them there any longer. 29 And I will not hide my face any more from them; for I will have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel, says the Lord God."

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the 39:11 "Sea" – the Dead Sea. Hamon-Gog means "multitude of Gog".

39:12, 13 "Cleanse the land" – dead bodies were considered defiling (Lev 5:2; 21:1,11; Num 5:2; 6:6; 19:16; 31:19).

"Glorified" – 38:23; 39:21. God will be glorified in revealing His holiness in the destruction of evil and in rescuing His people from their enemies. These two verses seem clearly to point to a time before the new heavens and new earth, before the resurrection of the unsaved dead and eternal judgment (Rev 20:5,14,15; 21:1).

39:16 "Hamonah" – this means "horde."

39:17-19 The destruction of these godless armies will be like a feast God provides for the animal creation.

39:21 Verse 13; 38:23.

39:22 This deliverance from their enemies will have a permanent effect on Israel.

39:24 Jer 2:17,19; 4:18; Ezek 7:22.

39:25 Isa 11:12; 37:12,21; 38:8.

"Bring Jacob back from captivity" – or "restore the well-being of Jacob". See note at Ps 14:7.

39:26 "Shame" – 6:9; 20:43; 36:31.

39:27 36:23. God has determined to show the nations of the world an aspect of His character they are very prone to forget – His holiness. One instrument He will use to do this is the nation Israel.

39:28 "Have left none of them there any longer" – at present there are far more Jews living outside Israel in other countries than those living in Israel, and this has been true for a great many centuries, so this prophecy has not yet been completely fulfilled.

39:29 "Face" – v 24.

"Spirit" – 36:26,27; 37:14.

40:1 Chapters 40-48 form a unit. All the material in them came in one vision in the year 573 BC. Some of the people of Judah city had been destroyed, on that very day the hand of the LORD was on me, and took me there. 2 In the visions of God he took me to the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain. On it, to the south, there was what appeared to be the structure of a city. 3 And he took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a cord of flax and a measuring rod in his hand; and he stood at the gate. 4 And the man said to me,

“Son of man, see with your eyes and hear with your ears and set your mind on all that I am going to show you. You have been brought here for the purpose of my showing them to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel.”

5 And I saw a wall all around on the outside of the temple, and in the man's hand a measuring rod of six long cubits, each a cubit and a handbreadth. So he measured the width of the wall, one rod; and the height, one rod.

6 Then he came to the gate which faced east, and went up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one rod wide; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one rod wide. 7 And each alcove was one rod long, and one rod wide, and there was a space of five cubits between the alcoves. And the threshold of the gate by the portico of the gate facing inward was one rod.

8 He also measured the portico of the gate facing inward, one rod. 9 Then he measured the portico of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits. And the portico of the gate faced inward.

10 And there were three alcoves of the gate facing east on one side and three on the other side. The three were of one size, and the posts were the same size on this side and on the other side. 11 And he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. 12 And the space in front of the alcoves on one side was one cubit, and the space on the other side was one cubit; and the alcoves were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. 13 He then measured the gate from had been in exile for 25 years. The temple at Jerusalem had been destroyed for 13 years. Now in vision Ezekiel sees a new temple. These chapters have perplexed commentators, both Jewish and Christian, all through the centuries, and they have set forth various interpretations to explain them.

(a) Some scholars have taught that these chapters are altogether symbolic of the Church of the New Testament and give only spiritual lessons.

(b) Some have taught that these chapters describe how the temple and city were to be built by Israel when they were restored to their land, but that they never actually did it.

(c) Some have taught that these chapters speak of the future reign of Christ on earth and speak of a temple and city to be built after He returns and sets up His kingdom.

(d) Some have taught that these chapters speak of the future kingdom of God, after the return of Christ, using expressions of worship, etc. familiar then to the Jews, which will be fulfilled in ways impossible for us to state at present.

Each of these interpretations has its difficulties when the details of the prophecy are examined. It is the opinion of the author of these notes that these chapters describe something that will literally take place in the future. But we should remember that a “literal” fulfillment does not exclude spiritual meanings. Compare the description of the tabernacle in Exodus chapters 25-30. A literal tabernacle was built, but in all its parts it spoke of Christ and spiritual matters. We should not think it impossible that there will be something similar in the coming reign of Christ over the earth.

40:1 “Hand of the LORD” – 1:3; 3:14,22; 8:1; 33:22; 37:1.

“Took me there” – 3:14; 8:3; 11:24.

40:2 “Visions” – 1:1; 8:3. Note on vision at Gen 15:1.

“Very high mountain” – Mount Zion in Jerusalem (17:22; Isa 2:2; Micah 4:1; Zech 14:10). Zion is not a high mountain in the physical sense. But it is extremely high in regard to God's dealings with the earth. And in the future its physical altitude may be much greater than it is now.

40:3 “Bronze” – may possibly indicate that the word “man” is not to be taken literally. Angels in the Bible sometimes appeared in the form of men (Gen 19:1). A cord was used for long measurements, a rod for short measurements.

40:4 “Declare” – these closing chapters of Ezekiel were a special message for the Jews. The nation was shattered and scattered, the temple and the city were in ruins, the land was rapidly becoming a waste. These chapters speak of a complete restoration of people, land, city, and temple.

40:5-7 Quite a bit of these chapters is taken up with measurements of walls, gateways, courts, buildings, etc. At present we cannot see any spiritual significance in this (which is not to say that it has none). It may have been much more meaningful to the Jews of that day than to us. It is difficult to keep from thinking that these measurements were given to indicate something physically real and solid.

40:5 “Wall” – walls are built to keep out those who should not come in.

“Cubit” – slightly less than one half meter.

“Handbreadth” – about ten centimeters.

40:7 “Portico” – the Hebrew word translated portico is obscure in meaning and could mean something like a porch.

the roof of one alcove to the roof of another. The width from door to door was twenty-five cubits. 14 He also measured the pillars, sixty cubits to the pillar of the courtyard around the gate. 15 And it was fifty cubits from the front of the entrance gate to the front of the portico of the inner gate. 16 And there were narrow windows in the alcoves, and all around inside the gate to their posts, and also in the archways; and there were windows all around inside; and there were figures of palm trees around on each post.

17 Then he brought me into the outer court, and I saw that rooms were there, and pavement made all around for the courtyard. Thirty rooms were along the pavement. 18 And the pavement was by the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates. This was the lower pavement. 19 Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the front of the outside of the inner courtyard, a hundred cubits toward the east and the north.

20 And he measured the length and the width of the gate of the outer courtyard that faced the north. 21 And its alcoves were three in number on this side and three on that side, and its posts and its archways had the same measurement as the first gate. Its length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 22 And their windows, and their archways, and their palm trees, had the same measurement as the gate that faced east. And its ascent was by seven steps; and its archways were in front of them. 23 And the gate of the inner court was opposite the gate facing north and the gate facing east. And he measured from gate to gate, a hundred cubits.

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and I saw a gate facing south. And he measured its posts and its archways with these same measurements. 25 And there were windows in it and in its archways all around, like those windows. The length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 26 And there were seven steps going up to it, and its archways were in front of them; and it had the figures of palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. 27 And there was a gate in the inner court facing south. And he measured from this gate to the gate facing south, a hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner courtyard at the south gate; and he measured the south gate, with these same measurements, 29 and its alcoves, and its posts, and its arches, with these same measurements. And there were windows in it and in its archways all around. It was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. 30 And the archways all around were twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide. 31 And its archways faced the outer court, and figures of palm trees were on its posts, and its ascent had eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner courtyard facing east, and measured the gate with these same measurements. 33 And its alcoves, and its posts, and its archways, had these same measurements. And there were windows in it and in its archways all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. 34 And its arches faced the outer court; and there were figures of palm trees on its posts, on this side, and on that side; and its ascent had eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it with these same measurements, 36 its alcoves, its posts, its archways, and its windows all around. The length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. 37 And its posts faced the outer court, and there were figures of palm trees on its posts, on this side, and on that side; and its ascent had eight steps.

38 And its rooms and its entrances were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering. 39 And in the portico of the gate there were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, for slaughtering the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering. 40 And on the outer side, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, were two tables, and on the other side, which was at the portico of the gate, were two tables. 41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate, eight tables in all, on which they killed their sacrifices. 42 And for the burnt offering the four 40:14 "Pillars" – the meaning of the Hebrew of this verse is uncertain.

40:15 "Cubit" – the common cubit was slightly less than one half meter.

40:17 "Outer court" – inside the outer walls, but outside the temple compound with its altar, etc.

40:38-43 Three types of offering are mentioned – burnt, sin and trespass. Peace offerings and grain offerings are included in later references such as 43:27; 45:17; 46:2,12. For the meanings of these offerings see notes on Leviticus chapters 1-7.

The mention of offerings here has puzzled commentators. It points to a time when they will still be offered. If the picture in Ezekiel chapters 40-48 is of the time of the millennium, does this mean that such offerings of animals will be made then? Or should we take these references to offerings as altogether symbolic of Christ's one offering? If the offerings are altogether symbolic does this mean that all the other details of this vision – temple, city, priests, etc – are altogether symbolic and will never have a physical reality? Or is there a tables were of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit high. On it they also put the instruments for slaughtering the burnt offering and the sacrifice. 43 And inside were hooks, a handbreadth wide, fastened all around. And on the tables was put the flesh of the offering.

44 And outside the inner gate were the rooms for the singers in the inner court. One was by the north gate facing toward the south, one by the east gate facing toward the north. 45 And he said to me,

"This room which faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple. 46 And the room which faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, who approach the LORD to minister to him."

47 So he measured the courtyard, a square a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide, and the altar in front of the temple.

48 And he brought me to the portico of the temple, and measured each post of the portico, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side; and the width of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. 49 The length of the portico was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits. And he brought me by the steps which went up to it; and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 Afterwards he brought me to the sanctuary, and measured the doorposts, six cubits wide on one side, and six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tabernacle. 2 And the width of the entrance was ten cubits, and the side walls of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side. And he measured its length, forty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits.

3 Then he went inside and measured the doorpost, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits high; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits.

4 So he measured its length, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, beyond the sanctuary.

And he said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

5 Afterwards he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits thick; and the width of every side room, four cubits, all around the temple on every side. 6 And the side rooms had three stories, one over another, with thirty on each level. And they extended to the wall of the temple which was the wall for the side rooms all around, so that they might be supported, but they were not fastened into the wall of the temple. 7 And all around the side rooms became wider at each successive story, for the structure all around the temple went up by stages. Therefore the width of this temple structure increased going up from the lowest room to the highest through the middle one.

8 I also saw that the temple had a raised base all around, the foundation for the side rooms. It was a full rod of six large cubits. 9 The thickness of the outside wall of the side rooms, was five cubits; and also the terrace of the side rooms inside the house. 10 And beyond the rooms was an open area twenty cubits wide all around on every side of the temple. 11 And the doors of the side rooms faced the terrace, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south. And the width of the terrace was five cubits all around.

12 And the building facing the separated area at its western end was seventy cubits wide, and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all mixture of symbolic and literal language here (as in many other places in the prophets), and should we expect a literal fulfillment in general without all the details being literally fulfilled? Such questions are easy to ask, but perhaps impossible for us to answer in our present state of knowledge.

One thing is certain – if animal sacrifices are to be offered in the millennium they will be memorials pointing to the one sacrifice of the Lord Jesus already made, as the Lord's Supper is now. They will not be for the purpose of taking away sin, for Christ by His one offering has taken away the sins of His people forever (Heb 10:5-14). Regarding a future temple and offerings – other prophets seem to foretell that there will be such. See Isa 19:21 (vs 22-25 puts the context in the future); Isa 60:7 (in context); Isa 66:20-23; Jer 33:14-18; Hag 2:6-9; Zech 14:16-21; Mal 3:2-4. See also Matt 24:15; 2 Thess 2:4; Rev 11:1,2. 40:44-46 44:15-31. This mention of a group of priests, especially said to be descendants of Zadok (2 Sam 8:17), who are distinguished from other Levites and from the people in general, indicates a time other than this Christian era. Now all believers are priests and may draw near to the Lord to minister to Him (Rom 5:1,2; Heb 10:19-22; 1 Pet 2:5,9).

40:47 "The altar" – 43:13-17.

40:48 "Portico" – the first main compartment of the temple. Compare 1 Kings 6:3.

41:1 "Sanctuary" – the second main compartment of the temple and the largest. Compare 1 Kings 6:3-5,17. It corresponds to the Holy Place in the tabernacle.

"Cubits" – a cubit was slightly less than one half meter.

"Tabernacle" – or it could be translated "dwelling place" (for God).

41:3 "Inside" – the Most Holy Place. The angel could enter there, but not Ezekiel. Among men only the high priest could enter that place, and only once a year – Leviticus around, and its length was ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long, and the separated area, and the building with its walls, a hundred cubits long, 14 and the width of the eastern face of the temple and of the separated area, a hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building opposite the separated area behind it, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porticoes of the courtyard. 16 Their thresholds and the narrow windows and the galleries all around on their three stories, opposite the threshold, were paneled with wood all around, from the ground up to the windows (the windows being covered) 17 to the space above the door, to the inner house, and outside, and every wall all around, inside and outside, by measure. 18 And it was made with figures of cherubim and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces, 19 so that the face of a man was facing the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion faced the palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around the whole temple. 20 From the floor to the space above the door cherubim and palm trees were carved, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The doorposts of the temple were square, also the one at the front of the sanctuary. The appearance of the one was the same as the appearance of the other. 22 The wooden altar was three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood.

And he said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had double doors. 24 The doors each had two leaves, two folding leaves; two leaves for one door, and two leaves for the other. 25 And on them, on the doors of the temple, were carved cherubim and palm trees, like the ones carved on the walls; and there was a wooden projection over the front of the outside portico. 26 And on the sides of the portico there were narrow windows and palm trees, on one side and on the other side, and on the side rooms of the house, and on the wooden projection.

42 Then he brought me out into the outer courtyard, the way facing north; and he brought me into the room that was opposite the separated area, and which was in front of the building facing north. 2 Facing the length, which was a hundred cubits, and the width which was fifty cubits, was the north door. 3 Opposite the inner court of twenty cubits, and opposite the pavement of the outer court, was gallery facing gallery in three stories. 4 And in front of the rooms on the inner side was a walkway ten cubits wide, one cubit away; and their doors faced north. 5 Now the upper rooms were shorter, for the galleries took more space from them than the lower and middle ones of the building. 6 For they were in three stories, and did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts, therefore the building was narrower at the top than at the lower and middle levels from the ground up. 7 And the length of the outside wall that was opposite the rooms facing the outer courtyard at the front of the rooms was fifty cubits. 8 For the length of the rooms that were in the outer courtyard was fifty cubits, but, see, that facing the temple was a hundred cubits. 9 And the eastern entrance was at these rooms, as one goes into them from the outer court.

10 There were rooms in the thickness of the wall of the courtyard facing east, opposite the separated area, and opposite the building, 11 with a walkway in front of them. In appearance they were like the rooms which faced north, as long as those, and as wide as those; and all their exits were like their designs, and like their doors. 12 And corresponding to the doors of the rooms facing south was a door at the head of the walkway, the walkway directly in front of the wall to the east, as one goes into them.

13 Then he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are in front of the separated area, are holy rooms, where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy things. There they will put the most holy things, and the grain offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter it, they will not go out of the holy place into the outer courtyard, but put there the garments in which they minister, for they are holy. And they will put on other garments, and approach the places which are for the people."

15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner temple, he brought me out to the gate which faced toward the east, and measured it all around. 16 He measured the east side with the measuring chapter 16; Heb 9:7.

41:18 "Cherubim" – note at Gen 3:24; Ex 25:18-20. Compare 1 Kings 6:29-35.

"Two faces" – compare 10:14.

41:22 "The altar" – a table probably for the bread that was to be kept in the Holy Place

(Ex 25:30; 1 Kings 6:20).

42:13,14 Notice again the emphasis on a special priesthood distinguished from the rest of the people. They have special rooms, special food, special clothing. It is not easy to see how this could be spiritually fulfilled rod, five hundred rods, all around with the measuring rod. 17 He measured all around the north side with the measuring rod, five hundred rods. 18 He measured the south side with the measuring rod, five hundred rods. 19 He came around to the west side, and measured five hundred rods with the measuring rod. 20 He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall all around, five hundred rods long, and five hundred wide, to separate the holy from the common.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate facing toward the east, 2 and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the direction of the east; and his voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with his glory. 3 And it was like the appearance of the vision which I had seen before, like the vision that I saw when I came for the destruction of the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the Kebar River; and I went down on my face. 4 And the glory of the LORD came into the temple by the gate facing toward the east. 5 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and took me into the inner court, and I saw the glory of the LORD fill the temple.

6 And I heard him speaking to me from the temple; and the man stood beside me. 7 And he said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no longer defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution or by the corpses of their kings on their high places. 8 When they placed their threshold by my threshold, and their post by my post, with a wall between me and them, they defiled my holy either in the Church of this New Testament age, or in the eternal ages when God will dwell in the midst of believers.

43:1-5 This remarkable passage reveals the return of the glory which departed earlier. See 11:22,23. Because of the sin of His people God left His temple and His land. Here He is seen returning. Observe that the coming of this glory in the vision is after the people are in the land, after the temple is built.

43:3 See chapters 9 and 10.

43:5 Compare Ex 40:34,35; 1 Kings 8:11.

43:6 "Him" – God Himself, as is clear from the next verse.

43:7 "This is the place of my throne" – compare Jer 3:17; 17:12. In the old temple God was said to be enthroned over the ark (1 Sam 4:4; 2 Sam 6:2; Ps 80:1; 99:1). "Where I will dwell" – note at Ex 25:8. "Children of Israel" – we believe literal Jews are meant because the history of literal Jews with their idolatry, high places and sins is referred to. Also in the New Testament the Church is never called "Israel."

"Forever" – v 9; 37:26-28. These name by their abominations which they committed. Therefore I consumed them in mine anger. 9 Now let them put away their prostitution, and the corpses of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell among them forever.

10 "Son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their evil deeds; and let them take the measurements of the pattern. 11 And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, reveal to them the design of the temple, and its arrangement, and its exits, and its entrances, and its complete design, and all its ordinances, and all its forms and all its laws. And write it down in their sight, so that they may keep its whole design, and all of its ordinances, and do them.

12 "This is the law of the temple: All its surrounding area on the top of the mountain will be most holy. See, this is the law of the temple.

13 "And these are the measurements of the altar in cubits (this cubit is to be a cubit and a handbreadth): the base shall be a cubit, and the width a cubit, and its rim all around the edge shall be a span. And this shall be the height of the altar: 14 From the base on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit; and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge shall be four cubits, and the width one cubit. 15 So the altar shall be four cubits. And from the altar rising upward shall be four horns. 16 And the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long, twelve wide, square at its four corners. 17 And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen wide at its four corners; and the rim around it shall be half a cubit, and its base shall be a cubit all around. And its steps shall face east."

18 And he said to me, "Son of man, thus says chapters speak of a permanent arrangement. This was not fulfilled in any temple the Jews ever had until this day.

"Prostitution" – adultery, or unfaithfulness to God in spiritual matters. See notes at 16:15-34; Ex 34:15; Lev 17:7; 2 Chron 21:11; Jer 2:20.

43:8 "In my anger" – 5:11; 18:10-12; 22:1-15.

43:11 This is one main purpose of this revelation – indeed of all revelation from God. God means for it to promote repentance and obedience.

"If" – perhaps all these chapters remain unfulfilled to this very day because this "if" has not been fulfilled.

"That they may keep" – it would seem from this that there is more in these chapters than mere symbols. They were being given definite regulations to follow.

43:12 A special area distinguished from other areas was to be most holy.

43:13-17 40:47 – the altar of burnt offerings. See Ex 27:1-8. "A handbreadth" (v 13) here means about 22 centimeters.

43:18-27 Note at 40:38-43. Observe how the Lord God: These are to be the ordinances of the altar at the time they make it, to offer burnt offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it. 19 And you shall give a young bull as a sin offering to the priests, the Levites, who are the descendants of Zadok, who approach me to minister to me, says the Lord God. 20 And you shall take some of its blood, and put it on the four horns of the altar and on the four corners of the ledge, and all around on the rim. Thus you shall cleanse and make atonement for it. 21 Also you shall take the bull of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the temple, outside the sanctuary.

22 "And on the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish as a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. 23 When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram without blemish from the flock. 24 And you shall offer them before the LORD, and the priests will throw salt on them, and offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.

25 "Each day for seven days you shall prepare a goat as a sin offering. They shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram from the flock, without blemish. 26 Seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. 27 And when these days have expired, on the eighth day and onward, it shall be that the priests will make your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar, and I will accept you, says the Lord God."

44 Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces east; and it was shut. 2 Then the LORD said to me, "This gate specific and detailed these instructions are. And they were meant to be followed (v 11). These verses speak of the sprinkling of blood and atonement being made for the altar (see Ex 29:16,37). So the fulfillment of these chapters looks forward to a time when men can defile the altar by their touch – a time, that is, when the people of God would still be in the flesh and have a sinful nature. It cannot, therefore, be speaking of spiritual worship in the ages of eternity.

43:19 Zadok – 40:46.

43:21 Ex 29:14; Lev 4:12,21.

43:27 "Peace offerings" – notes at Leviticus chapter 3.

"Accept you" – they will show their faith by their obedience to these regulations and so God will accept them. Compare 18:6-9. 44:1,2 The shut eastern gate would be a constant reminder to the people that the glory of God had entered by it. It should also remind them of God's promise not to leave again (43:7,9), as He had once done by the east gate of the old temple (10:19; 11:22).

shall be kept shut. It shall not be opened, and no man shall enter through it, because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it; therefore it shall be kept shut. 3 As for the prince: The prince shall sit by it to eat bread before the LORD. He shall enter through the portico of the gate, and shall go out by the same way."

4 Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. And I looked and saw that the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD, and I prostrated myself.

5 And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, pay close attention, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the temple of the LORD, and all its laws; and pay close attention to the entrance of the temple, and all the exits of the sanctuary.

6 "And you shall say to the rebellious ones, that is, to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord God: O house of Israel, let all your abominations be enough for you. 7 For you brought foreigners into my sanctuary, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, defiling it, my house, when you offered my food, the fat and the blood, and because of all your abominations, they made my covenant void. 8 And you did not keep charge of my holy things; you put keepers in charge of my sanctuary instead of yourselves. 9 Thus says the Lord God: No foreigner, of all the foreigners among the children of Israel, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, will enter my sanctuary.

10 "And as for the Levites who went far away from me, when Israel went astray, who strayed from me after their idols, they will bear their guilt. 11 Yet they will be servants in my sanctuary, having charge of the gates of the temple, and ministering

44:3 "The prince" – 34:24; 37:25. The prince in these chapters cannot be the Messiah, because he needs to offer sin offerings for himself (45:22).

44:5 God was impressing Ezekiel with the importance of the details of His revelation.

44:6 "Abominations" – 5:11; 7:20; 11:18,21; 37:23; Jer 16:18.

44:7 "Uncircumcised in heart" – Jer 9:26; Acts 7:51. Here this means spiritually unprepared and not in covenant relationship with God.

44:8 If we try to put off on others what God has given us to do we prove ourselves unworthy of His service.

44:9 This indicates that at the time of the fulfillment of this vision there will be such people living in the midst of Israel. There is a lesson here for our times as well. Those who are not cleansed by the blood of Christ, not in living relationship with God, should have no place in the Church.

44:10-14 "The Levites who went far away from me" – 16:18-21; 22:26; Jer 2:8; 5:31; 8:1,2; 26:7,8; 32:32.

in the temple. They will slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and stand before them to minister to them. 12 But because they ministered for them in front of their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into wickedness, I have lifted up my hand with an oath against them, says the Lord God, and they will bear the consequences of their wickedness. 13 And they shall not come near me to serve me as priests, or to approach any of my holy things in the Most Holy Place, but they will bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. 14 But I will have them keep charge of the temple, for all its service, and for everything done in it.

15 "But the priests, the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, shall approach me to serve me, and shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Lord God. 16 They shall enter my sanctuary, and approach my table to serve me, and they shall keep my charge.

17 "And it shall be like this: When they enter the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool is to come on them, while they minister at the gates of the inner court and inside. 18 They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and linen undergarments on their loins. They shall not dress themselves with anything that makes them sweat. 19 And when they go to the outer court, to the people in the outer court, they shall take off the garments in which they ministered, and put them in the holy rooms, and put on other garments, and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 "Nor shall they shave their heads, or allow their hair to grow long. They shall keep the hair of their heads trimmed. 21 Nor shall any priest drink wine when they enter the inner court. 22 Nor shall they take a widow or a divorced woman as a wife, but shall take virgins of the descendants of the house of Israel, or widows of priests. 23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 "And in a dispute they shall take their stand as judges, and judge it in accordance with my judgments. And they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my assemblies. And they shall keep my Sabbaths holy.

25 "And they shall not approach any dead person, so defiling themselves; except that they may defile themselves for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for a sister who has had no husband. 26 And after he has been cleansed, they shall count off seven days for him. 27 And on the day that he goes into the sanctuary, to the inner court, to serve in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord God.

28 "And as for the inheritance they are to have, I am their inheritance. And you shall give them no possession in Israel. I am their possession. 29 They shall eat the grain offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs. 30 And the best of all the firstfruits of everything, and every offering of every kind from all of your offerings, shall belong to the priest. You shall also give to the priest the first part of your dough, so that he may cause the blessing to rest on your house. 31 The priests shall not eat anything that dies of itself, or has been torn by animals, whether it is bird or beast.

45 "Moreover, when you divide the land by lot for inheritance, you shall present a portion to the LORD, a holy district of the land. Its length shall be twenty-five thousands cubits, and its width ten thousand. This will be holy all around within its boundaries. 2 Of this, for the sanctuary there shall be a place five hundred cubits long and

"Bear" – let us never forget that sin will bring sad consequences – see 2 Sam 12:10-14. We will not be able to avoid God's law of sowing and reaping. In the case of the Levites it will mean the shame of being in a lower place than they might have had.

44:15,16 Only the descendants of one man, Zadok, remained faithful. They would be rewarded. On Zadok see 2 Sam 8:17; 15:24-29; 20:25. As believers our service in this life will have eternal reward – or lack of it (1 Cor 3:12-14).

44:17-31 These instructions for the priests are similar to instructions in the law of Moses (Ex 39:27-29; Lev 6:10; 10:9; 15:31; 21:1-5,7; Deut 17:8,9; Leviticus chapter 23; 21:1-3; Num 18:20,23,24). Observe that the vision speaks of a time when there will still be a distinction between holy and common, clean and unclean (v 23), a time when disputes and death will still be in the world (vs 24,25,31). It cannot, therefore, refer to the redeemed in eternity, when there will be no such things.

44:28 See Num 18:20,23,24; Deut 10:9; Josh 13:14,33; 18:7.

45:1 "Divide. . . by lot" – 47:13 - 48:29. Compare Num 34:1-15; Josh 14:1-5. Here we have a new allotment of the land of Israel, entirely different from the old one recorded in the book of Joshua.

"Holy district" – together with the 5,000 cubits width for the city (v 6) the whole area is a perfect square 25,000 cubits on each side (about 12.5 kilometers). If the long cubit is used (a cubit and a span) it would come to about 14 kilometers on each side. (The rod of 40:3,5 was equal to 6 long cubits.)

five hundred wide, completely square, with fifty cubits all around for its open space. 3 And in this area you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand cubits, and a width of ten thousand. The sanctuary and the Most Holy Place will be in it. 4 It will be the holy portion of the land for the priests, the servants of the sanctuary, who approach to serve the LORD. It will be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. 5 And an area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide will be for the Levites, the servants of the temple, for a possession of twenty rooms.

6 "And you shall appoint as the property of the city an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, bordering the portion for the holy district. It shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 "And the prince will have a portion on the one side and on the other side of the portion for the holy district, and of the property for the city, bordering the portion for the holy district, and bordering the property for the city, extending to the west from the west side, and to the east from the east side, running lengthwise along one of the tribal portions, from the western border to the eastern border. 8 This land will be his possession in Israel; and my princes will no longer oppress my people. And the rest of the land they will give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 "Thus says the Lord God: Let it be enough for you, O princes of Israel! Remove violence and plundering, and administer judgment and justice. Stop dispossessing my people, says the Lord God.

45:3 "25,000 cubits" – about 12.5 kilometers. "10,000 cubits" – about 5 kilometers.

45:4,5 Priests and Levites were to have places to live, not to own (44:28).

45:6 This city does not contain the temple, but lies next to the temple area. The area allotted for the city contains pasture lands, etc. The city itself is much smaller than this (48:16).

45:7 The prince is given two portions, one east and one west of the temple and city area.

45:8 Here the word prince is put in the plural. And they will not behave as former rulers in Israel's history had behaved (vs 9-12).

45:10,11 An ephah and a homer were dry measures, and a bath was a liquid measure.

45:12 A shekel weighed about 11.5 grams. A mina usually was 50 shekels, the one described here was 60 shekels.

45:13-17 The system described is different from that in the law of Moses. According to that system the people gave their offerings directly to the priests. Here they give them to the prince who will then place the offerings in the hands of the priests. Observe that the purpose of these offerings is "to make reconciliation for the people." The Hebrew word here is usually translated "make atonement." But it is possible to translate it "make reconciliation," or "cover over," "pacify." The vision

10 You shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath. 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, so that the bath contains the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer; their measure shall be according to the homer. 12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels, shall be your mina.

13 "This is the offering that you shall offer: a sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat, and you shall give a sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley. 14 The rule concerning oil, a bath of oil: you shall offer a tenth of a bath from a cor, which is a homer of ten baths; for ten baths equal one homer. 15 And take one lamb out of a flock of two hundred, from the rich pastures of Israel, as a food offering and as a burnt offering and as peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, says the Lord God. 16 All the people of the land shall give this offering for the prince in Israel. 17 And it will be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, and at the new moon festivals, and on the sabbaths, at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He will provide the sin offering, and the grain offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 "Thus says the Lord God: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish, and purify the sanctuary; 19 and the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the then points to a time when atonement will need to be made, and so it cannot refer to the redeemed in the new heaven and earth.

Many scholars think the time refers to the millennium (Revelation chapter 20). But in the millennium will animal sacrifices and other offerings be needed to make atonement? This is a hard question for those who see a completely literal fulfillment of this vision in the millennium. But, then, these chapters pose hard questions for any system of interpretation. And if we refuse an interpretation because there are difficulties involved in it, we can have no interpretation of these chapters at all. Actually, even under the law of Moses, sacrifices could not make full atonement – they could only symbolize the atonement which Christ would make when He came. Perhaps the same thing may be said about the sacrifices mentioned here in Ezekiel. They may symbolize the atonement Christ has already made at His first coming. "Peace offerings" (vs 15,17) – notes at Leviticus chapter 3.

45:18 From this verse to verse 16 of chapter 46 we have instructions regarding the offerings of the people. There are many changes from the law of Moses, and the significance of these changes is very difficult to determine.

doorposts of the temple, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the inner court. 20 And you shall do the same on the seventh day of the month for each one who has gone astray unintentionally or in ignorance. Thus you shall make atonement for the temple.

21 "In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days. Unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22 And on that day the prince shall provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land. 23 And for the seven days of the feast he shall provide a burnt offering for the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams, without blemish, each day of the seven days, and each day a young male goat as a sin offering. 24 And he shall provide a grain offering of an ephah for each bull, and an ephah for each ram, and a hin of oil for each ephah.

25 "In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, he shall do the same for the seven days of the feast, for the sin offering, for the burnt offering, and for the grain offering, and for the oil.

46 "Thus says the Lord God: The gate of the inner court that faces east will be shut the six working days, but on the Sabbath it will be opened, and on the day of the new moon it will be opened. 2 And the prince shall enter by way of the portico of the gate from outside, and shall stand by the gatepost. And the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. 3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship before the LORD at the door of this gate on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. 4 And the burnt offering that the prince offers to the LORD on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish. 5 And the grain offering shall be an ephah for each ram, and the grain offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil for each ephah. 6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram. They shall be without blemish. 7 And he shall provide a grain offering, an ephah for each bull, and an ephah for each ram, and for the lambs as much as he is able to get, and a hin of oil for each ephah. 8 And when the prince enters, he shall go in by way of the portico of the gate, and he shall go out by the same way.

9 "But when the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, he who enters by way of the north gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate, and he who enters by way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate; he shall not return by way of the gate that he came in, but shall go out opposite it. 10 And the prince among them will go in when they go in, and will go out when they go out.

11 "And at the festivals and appointed feasts the grain offerings shall be an ephah for each bull, and an ephah for each ram, and as much as he is able to give with the lambs, and a hin of oil for each ephah. 12 Now when the prince provides a freewill burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily for the LORD, then someone shall open the gate that faces east for him, and he shall provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out someone shall shut the gate.

13 "Daily you shall prepare a burnt offering for the LORD, a lamb of the first year without blemish. You shall prepare it each morning. 14 And with it you shall prepare a grain offering each morning, a sixth of an ephah, and a third of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour. This is to be a regular grain offering to the LORD by a permanent ordinance. 15 Thus they shall prepare the lamb, and the grain offering, and the oil, each morning as a continual burnt offering.

16 "Thus says the Lord God: If the prince gives a gift from his inheritance to any of his sons, it shall belong to his sons. It shall be their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall belong to him until the year of liberty. Afterwards it shall revert to the prince; but his inheritance shall belong to his sons. It shall be theirs. 18 Moreover,

45:21 "Passover" – note at Lev 23:5.

45:22 This verse is evidence that the prince cannot be the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord Jesus was sinless and needed to offer no sin offering for himself.

45:24 "Hin" – probably about 4 liters.

45:25 This feast is called the Feast of Ingathering in Ex 23:16 and 34:22, and the feast of Tabernacles in Lev 23:34 and Deut 16:16.

46:1 There were two east gates – one for the outer court which was to be permanently closed (44:2), one for the inner court which was sometimes to be opened.

"New moon" – 1 Sam 20:5; Isa 1:13.

46:2 "Prince" – 45:22.

46:9 Great numbers of people would be coming and going. To avoid disorder straight columns should move in only one direction through the temple courts.

46:12 "Freewill" – Lev 22:18; 23:38; Num 15:3; Deut 12:6.

46:13-15 In Numbers 28:3-8 the instruction was to offer a lamb in the morning and one in the evening.

46:17 "Liberty" – see Lev 25:8-15. Properties which had been sold were to revert to their original owners every 50th year.

46:18 "His property" – compare Micah's

the prince shall not seize any of the people's inheritance by oppression, by evicting them from their property; but he shall give an inheritance to his sons from his own property, so that none of my people will be scattered from his property."

19 Afterwards he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms of the priests, which faced north; and I saw there a place at the far western end. 20 Then said he to me, "This is the place where the priests will cook the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they will bake the grain offering, so that they do not carry them out into the outer court, and so sanctify the people."

21 Then he brought me out to the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and I saw in each corner of the court another court. 22 In the four corners of the court there were enclosed courts forty cubits long and thirty wide. These four corner courts had the same measurements. 23 And there was a row of stones all around them, surrounding each of the four, and all around under these rows cooking hearths had been made. 24 Then he said to me, "These are places for those who will do the cooking, where the servants of the temple will boil the sacrifice of the people."

47 Afterward he brought me back to the door of the temple, and I saw water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east; for the front of the temple faced the east, and the water was flowing from under the right side of the temple, at the south side of the altar. picture of God's coming kingdom (Micah 4:4).

46:19-24 Again detailed descriptions are given and their spiritual significance, if they have any, is almost impossible to discover. They seem to point only to physical activity. 47:1-12 There are three possible views about this river:

(a) It is a literal river showing the great physical changes there will be in the land of Israel in the millennium.

(b) It is altogether a symbolic picture teaching spiritual lessons and will never have any kind of literal fulfillment.

(c) The description contains a mixture of literal and symbolical meanings which speak of some sort of literal stream in the future, but which teach spiritual lessons.

The author of these notes thinks the third view most likely.

47:1 "He" – 40:3. "Temple" – indicating that the source of blessing, whether physical or spiritual, is God Himself who will reside in the temple (43:7).

47:2 The water flows from under the gate through which the glory of God entered (43:4). Where God comes in, from there

2 Then he brought me out by way of the gate on the north, and led me around on the outside to the outer gate that faced east; and I saw water running out on the right side.

3 And when the man who had the line in his hand went out toward the east, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the water. The water was up to the ankles. 4 Again he measured a thousand cubits, and brought me through the water. The water was up to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through. The water was up to the waist. 5 He measured another thousand; and it was a river that I could not cross, for the water had risen, water to swim in, a river that could not be crossed.

6 And he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he led me and had me return to the bank of the river. 7 Now when I returned I saw that there were many trees on the bank of the river, on the one side and on the other. 8 Then he said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region, and goes down into the desert, and into the Sea. When it enters the Sea, the water there will be made healthful. 9 And this will happen: Wherever the river flows every moving living creature will live, and there will be a great many fish, because this water will go there, and the water there will be made healthful, and where the river goes everything will live. 10 And it will be that fishermen will stand by it from Engedi to En-Eglaim. There will be places for spreading nets. Their fish will be of the same kinds as the fish of the Great Sea, a great many. 11 But its swamps and marshes will not be made healthful. They will be given for blessings inevitably flow out.

47:3 A thousand cubits equals about 450 meters.

47:4-6 The river begins as a spring in the temple. In less than two kilometers it becomes deep and wide. The picture forbids thinking of other streams joining it. So this is a miraculous river. Its flow is not increased in the natural way of rivers in our world today. The angel's question in v 6 was probably meant to emphasize this.

47:7 Compare Gen 2:9; Isa 35:1,2; 51:3. Water brings life.

47:8 "Sea" – the Dead Sea.

47:9,10 At present there are no fish, no living creatures at all in the Dead Sea. Its heavy concentration of salts and minerals makes it impossible for such life to exist there. Spiritual lessons have been drawn from this – the Holy Spirit like living streams of water (John 7:39) flow through the world, and people dead in trespasses and sins are made alive. But such spiritual applications should not blind us to the possibility of a transformation of the literal Dead Sea in the future.

47:10 "Great Sea" – the Mediterranean Sea (also vs 15,19,20).

47:11 Salt will still be needed.

salt. 12 And by the river, on its bank, on this side and on that side, all kinds of trees will grow for food. Their leaf will not wither, their fruit will not come to an end. They will bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the sanctuary. And their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for medicine."

13 Thus says the Lord God: "These are the boundary lines, by which you will inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph will have two portions. 14 And you will inherit it with one another equally, for I lifted up my hand and swore to give it to your fathers, and this land will fall to you as your inheritance.

15 "And this will be the border of the land on the north: from the Great Sea, the road to Hethlon, as men go to Zedad, 16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath, Hazar-Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. 17 And the border from the Sea will be to Hazarenan, the border of Damascus northward, with the border of Hamath on the north. This is on the north side.

18 "And on the east you shall mark out from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and the Jordan river by the land of Israel, from the northern border to the eastern sea. And this is the east side.

19 "And the south side will be from Tamar southward to the waters of Meribah in Kadesh, along the river of Egypt to the Great Sea. And this is the south side on the south.

20 "And the west side will be the Great Sea from the southern border to a point opposite Hamath. This is the west side.

21 "So you shall divide this land for yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. 22 And it will be like this: You will divide it by lot as your inheritance, and for the foreigners who live among you, who will beget children among you; and they shall be to 47:12 "By the river" – for a spiritual lesson suggested by this see Ps 1:3. For other significant mentions of streams in the Bible see Gen 2:10; 36:8,9; Ps 46:4; Isa 33:21; Zech 14:8; John 7:37-39; Rev 22:1,2.

47:13 From this verse to verse 29 of chapter 48 we have instructions concerning the division of the land of Israel. See also 45:1-8. Here is a detailed description of the borders of the land and the portions for all the tribes of Israel. If no kind of literal fulfillment of this vision is to be expected the language here seems strange indeed.

"Joseph" – Levi would live in a special, holy area in the land and would have no inheritance like the other tribes, so there is no portion for Levi, so both Manasseh and Ephraim are allotted portions.

47:14 "Fathers" – the land spoken of in these chapters is not some "glory land" out you as those born in the country among the children of Israel. They are to have an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. 23 And it shall be that whatever tribe the foreigner lives among, there you shall give him his inheritance, says the Lord God.

48 "Now these are the names of the tribes: From the northern border along the road to Hethlon, as one goes to Hamath, Hazarenan, the northern border of Damascus, to the boundary with Hamath; these are his sides east and west, a portion for Dan.

2 "And along the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Asher.

3 "And along the border of Asher, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

4 "And along the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

5 "And along the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 "And along the border of Ephraim, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Reuben.

7 "And along the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Judah.

8 "And along the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, will be the district you will set apart as a gift, twenty-five thousand rods wide, and as long as any of the other portions from the east side to the west side; and the sanctuary will be in the middle of it.

9 "The district you set apart as a gift to the LORD will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width. 10 And this holy portion will be for the priests. It will be twenty-five thousand cubits long on the north, and ten thousand wide on the west, and ten thousand wide on the east, twenty-five thousand long on the south; and the sanctuary of the LORD will be in the center of it. 11 It will be for the priests who are set of this world. It is the very land promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (Gen 15:9-21; 17:18,21; 28:13) and which is in view throughout the Old Testament.

47:15-17 The northern border is approximately where it was in the days of David and Solomon.

47:18 The area east of the Jordan river, once the home of the tribes of Reuben and Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh (Deut 3:12-17), is not included.

"Eastern sea" – Dead Sea.

47:19 "Kadesh", "river of Egypt" – Solomon's kingdom extended this far. The "river of Egypt" does not mean the Nile but a river on the border of Egypt.

"Great Sea" – Mediterranean.

47:22,23 This is a new instruction, not found in the law of Moses.

48:8-22 45:1-8 is here given in more detail.

apart from the sons of Zadok, who have kept my charge, who did not go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. 12 And this portion of the land that is offered as a gift for them will be a most holy place along the border of the Levites.

13 "And opposite the border of the priests the Levites will have a portion twenty-five thousand cubits long, and ten thousand wide. The entire length will be twenty-five thousand, and the width ten thousand. 14 And they shall not sell or exchange any of it, or make this best part of the land over to others, for it is holy to the LORD.

15 "And the five thousand cubits in width that are left along the twenty-five thousand, will be for the common use of the city, for dwellings and open land; and the city will be in the center of it. 16 And these are its measurements: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, and the south side four thousand five hundred, and the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand five hundred. 17 And the open land of the city will be two hundred and fifty cubits on the north, and two hundred and fifty on the south, and two hundred and fifty on the east, and two hundred and fifty on the west. 18 And the rest of the length along the holy portion set apart as a gift will be ten thousand on the east, and ten thousand on the west; and it will be alongside the holy portion set apart as a gift. And its crops will be for food for those who serve the city. 19 And those who serve the city, from all the tribes of Israel, will cultivate it. 20 The complete portion set apart as a gift will be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand cubits. You shall set apart this holy portion, along with the property of the city.

21 "And the rest of it will be for the prince; this area on the one side and on the other of the holy portion, and of the property of the city, from the twenty-five thousand cubits of the contributed portion to the eastern border, and on the west from the twenty-five thousand to the western border, along the tribal portions will be for the prince. It will be the holy portion; and the sanctuary of the temple will be in the center of it. 22 Moreover,

48:14 Indeed God's priests must not sell or barter anything that belongs to God Himself.

48:15,16 45:6. The city, like the one in Rev 21:16, is square. But its size is very much smaller than that one, being little more than two kilometers each way.

48:21,22 45:7,8.

48:25-27 Under Joshua the tribes of Issachar and Zebulun were allotted territories in the northern part of Israel, and Gad was east of the Jordan river.

apart from the property of the Levites, and apart from the property of the city, which is in the center of that which belongs to the prince, the land between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, will be for the prince.

23 "As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin will have one portion.

24 "And along the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon will have one portion.

25 "And along the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar one portion.

26 "And along the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun one portion.

27 "And along the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad one portion.

28 "And along the southern border of Gad, the border will go toward the south from Tamar to the waters of Meribah in Kadesh, and to the river of Egypt to the great sea.

29 "This is the land which you will divide by lot to the tribes of Israel as their inheritance, and these are their portions, says the Lord God.

30 "And these will be the exits of the city: from the north side, which measures four thousand five hundred cubits, 31 the gates of the city will be named after the tribes of Israel. There will be three gates on the north; one gate named for Reuben, one gate for Judah, one gate for Levi.

"32 And on the eastern side, measuring four thousand five hundred cubits, will be three gates; one gate named for Joseph, one gate for Benjamin, one gate for Dan.

33 "And on the southern side, measuring four thousand five hundred cubits, will be three gates; one gate named for Simeon, one gate for Issachar, one gate for Zebulun.

34 "On the western side, four thousand five hundred cubits, with their three gates; one gate named for Gad, one gate for Asher, one gate for Naphtali.

35 "The total distance around will be eighteen thousand cubits.

"And the name of the city from that day will be, The LORD is There."

of these names is quite different from the arrangement of the tribes surrounding the tabernacle in the wilderness (Num 2:3-31). Levi is included in the names here (v 31), so to keep the number at twelve Joseph has one gate representing the tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim.

48:35 Jerusalem in the future will have other names (see Isa 1:26; 60:14; 62:2-4,12; Jer 3:17; 33:16; Zech 8:3). But no name can be superior to Jehovah-Shammah, "The LORD is there." God will be where He delights to be – in the midst of His people. See note at Ex 25:8.

DANIEL

Author:

Some modern critics of the Bible have denied that Daniel wrote this book, but see 8:1,15,27; 9:2-4,20; 10:2,7; 12:5,8. These verses indicate that Daniel was the author. Further evidence for this is in Matt 24:15 where the Lord Jesus stated that the prophecy concerning "the abomination of desolation" (Dan 9:27) was spoken through "Daniel the prophet."

Date:

Babylon was captured by the Medes and Persians in 539 BC. Daniel must have written this book a short time after that.

Themes:

Two themes appear together throughout the book – the experiences of Daniel (and sometimes his Hebrew friends) in the city of Babylon, and the prophetic visions which came to Daniel. Over both themes we see the sovereign God fulfilling His purposes. In the prophetic visions we can see the rise and fall of empires, the very powerful empire that will rule the world in the last days of this present age, the coming of antichrist, the destruction of man's kingdoms and the establishment of Christ's eternal kingdom.

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem, and besieged it. 2 And the LORD gave Jehoiakim, king of Judah, into his hands, and some of the articles belonging to the house of God, which he carried away to the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the articles into the treasure house of his god.

3 And the king ordered Ashpenaz the chief of his eunuchs to bring some of the children of Israel, and of the royal family, and of the nobles, 4 young men without blemish, but handsome, with training in every branch of wisdom, well informed, and understanding science and who had the ability to serve in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the literature and language of the Chaldeans. 5 And the king appointed for them a daily provision of the king's food and of the wine which he drank, and three years training for them, so that at the end of that time they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were Daniel, Hananiah,

Mishael, and Azariah of the children of Judah. 7 The chief of the eunuchs gave them names. He gave to Daniel the name Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, Shadrach; and to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

8 But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not defile himself with any portion of the king's food or with the wine which he drank. Therefore he requested the chief of the eunuchs that he might not to defile himself. 9 Now God had brought Daniel into the favour and tender affection of the chief of the eunuchs. 10 And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink. For why should he see your faces looking worse than the young men who are of your age? Then you would make me endanger my head to the king."

11 Then Daniel said to Melzar whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 "Please test your

1:1 "Third year" – Jer 25:1 indicates that this was the fourth year of Jehoiakim's reign. The difference can be accounted for like this – in Babylon the years of a king's reign were counted from the first new year's day after he became king, but in Israel the year he became king also was included in the reckoning. Jehoiakim began his reign in 608 BC. He ruled part of that year, the years 607 and 606, and part of the year referred to in this verse which was 605 BC. Daniel, writing in Babylon, used the Babylonian system of reckoning and so did not count the year Jehoiakim ascended the throne.

1:2 2 Chron 36:5-7. Daniel was taken to Babylon in that same year, Ezekiel eight years later.

"Shinar" – another name for Babylonia.

1:3,4 Only those regarded as the brightest and best were chosen. We should be glad that this is not God's way of choosing – 1 Cor 1:26-29. Yet God's good purpose was in the king's command. God had determined to raise Daniel to the highest place in Babylon, next to the king.

"Eunuchs" – or "court officials." It seems that officials in the king's court were sometimes called "eunuchs" even though they may not have been literal eunuchs.

"Understanding science" – or "quick to understand."

"Chaldeans" – Chaldaea was the southern part of Babylonia but sometimes the name was used to indicate the whole country.

1:5 "The king's food" – a sign of the king's favor. So God does for believers – Ps 23:5; Isa 25:6; Luke 14:16; John 6:48-51; Rev 19:7.

1:6,7 The name Daniel means "My judge is God", Hananiah means "Jehovah is gracious" (Hebrew "Yah" = Jehovah, the LORD), and Mishael means "Who is what God is?", and Azariah means "Jehovah helps". The new names given to them were all connected with various gods of Babylon. Belteshazzar probably means "May Bel protect his life". Bel meant Lord in the Babylonian language and signified the god Marduk (Jer 50:2). Shadrach could mean either "the inspiration of Rach (the sun god)" or "the command of Aku (their moon god)". Meshach could mean either "devotee of Shach (their word for the planet Venus)" or "who is like Aku?". Abednego means "servant of Nego" (Nego = Nebo – another of the many gods of Babylon – Isa 46:1).

Why did the chief official give them these names? Possibly he considered the gods of Babylon more powerful and important than Jehovah the God of Israel, or perhaps he wanted these Hebrew youths to fit into the society of that country and thought that Babylonian names would help them in this.

1:8 Daniel would consider this food and wine defiling because portions of both would have been offered to false gods. Also the meat would not have been prepared according to the law God gave Israel (Lev 11:4-20; Deut 12,23,24). Daniel was a young man, far from his homeland and faced with the choice of offending God or offending the king. With great courage he chose to risk the latter. Holiness was more important to him than physical comfort or safety. Christians sometimes sin because they are afraid of offending others, or because of fear for their own safety or position. This is because the fear of God is not the controlling factor in their lives (Job 28:28; Ps 34:11-14).

1:9 "God" – God will work on behalf of those who take their stand for Him. This is seen all through the book of Daniel. See also the case of Joseph (Gen 39:2-4; 20-23; etc). 1:10 Daniel feared God, the official feared the king. This made a big difference in their behavior.

1:11-14 Daniel began to show the wisdom

servants for ten days; let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. 13 Then let our appearance be inspected in your presence, along with the appearance of the young men who eat of the appointed portion of the king's food. Then deal with your servants according to what you see." 14 So he gave his consent to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days, in appearance they looked better and fatter than all the young men who ate the portion of the king's food. 16 So Melzar took away the portion of their food and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

17 As for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and skill in all branches of literature and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all kinds of visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days which the king had specified for bringing them in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in to the presence of Nebuchadnezzar. 19 And the king talked with them, and among them all no one was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore they served in the king's presence. 20 And in all the matters of wisdom and understanding that the king asked them about, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in his whole realm.

for which he was later famous.

1:15 This was God's doing.

1:16 God caused the guard to cooperate. So the temptation to eat of the king's food and the danger of not doing so were overcome. Compare 1 Cor 10:13.

1:17 "God gave" – Job 32:8; Jam 1:5; 2 Pet 3:15. The ability to understand visions and dreams was a special gift of God over and above the other understanding God gave Daniel.

1:19 "They served" – God had been preparing them for His own service as well.

1:20 This was God's doing and not merely a matter of their own intellect and study.

1:21 539 BC. This means that Daniel was still living when Cyrus made his proclamation that the Jews could return to Israel (2 Chron 36:22,23).

2:1 "Second year" – 603 BC. See note on the time of a king's reign at 1:1. Daniel and his friends were trained for "three years" (1:5,18). This was probably a round figure including parts of years. Their first year (or part of a year) of training was the year Nebuchadnezzar ascended the throne, their second was his first full year as king, their third was in his second full year as king.

"Dreams" – God used this means to raise Daniel to a high position in Babylon and to reveal important truth through the interpretation of the dream.

2:2 See Deut 18:10-12. Babylon was 21 And Daniel remained there until the first year of king Cyrus.

2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams, which made his spirit so troubled that his sleep left him. 2 Then the king gave orders to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. 3 And the king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to know the dream."

4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Syriac, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will tell the interpretation."

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The thing has gone from me. If you do not make known the dream to me, along with its interpretation, you will be cut in pieces, and your houses will be made heaps of rubbish. 6 But if you tell the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honour. Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered again and said, "May the king tell his servants the dream; then we will tell the interpretation of it."

8 The king answered and said, "I know for certain that you would gain time, because you see the thing has gone from me. 9 But if you do not overrun with such people as are listed here. It was in some ways probably much like India is today (western countries are certainly not free of them either). All through the book of Daniel these magicians, enchanters, sorcerers and astrologers are shown to be completely unable to find out the mind and will of the one true God. And this is as true of such people now as it was then.

"Astrologers" – the Hebrew word here signifies conjurers or enchanters.

"Chaldeans" (also vs 4,5,10) – Chaldea, the southern section of Babylonia, was noted for its astrologers and wise men – so much so that in some contexts, such as the one here, Chaldeans actually meant astrologers or wise men. Astrology is as empty a superstition now as it was proved to be in Daniel's day. The so-called "fate" of men, or what happens to them day by day, has nothing to do with the position of the stars at their birth or at any other time. Their future is determined by the true and living God, and while they live on this earth the important thing is their relationship to Him and whether they trust and obey and serve Him, or not. See note at Gen 25:24.

2:4 The text from this verse to the end of chapter 7 is in the Aramaic language – the language of Aram (Syria). This language was very similar to Hebrew.

2:5-13 No doubt the astrologers and other such people pretended to have supernatural make known to me the dream, there is but one decree for you. For you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak to me, until the time has changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can tell me its interpretation."

10 The Chaldeans answered the king, and said, "There is not a man on earth who can tell the king's matter. So no king, lord, or ruler has ever asked such things of any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. 11 It is a difficult thing that the king requires, and there is no one who can tell it to the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

12 Because of this the king was angry, indeed very furious, and gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 When the decree went out that the wise men should be slain, they sought Daniel and his companions to kill them.

14 Then Daniel with good advice and wisdom answered Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon.

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree from the king so urgent?" Then Arioch revealed the matter to Daniel. 16 Then Daniel went in and asked the king to give him some time, so that he could tell the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the matter known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, 18 so that they would ask mercy from the God of heaven concerning this secret, that Daniel and his companions would not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven. 20 Daniel responded and said,

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, insights. Now they are put to the test and their ignorance exposed. The true God arranged this to show the folly of looking for answers to such people, and to show Himself mighty in behalf of Daniel.

2:12,13 Anger often leads men to speak and act unjustly.

2:18 Daniel acted very wisely (vs 14-16), but he depended on God, not on his wisdom. 2:19 "Secret" – 2:27-30,47; 4:9.

"Vision" – in Bible days God often revealed truth in dreams and visions. Notes at Gen 15:1; Num 12:6.

"God of heaven" – the name is used 22 times in the Old Testament. Of these 17 are in Ezra, Nehemiah, and Daniel. The true God, the God of Israel, is transcendent, far higher than sun, moon, and stars, and all the so-called gods of the world.

2:20 Daniel was as ready to praise as he was to pray. And he did not praise himself for having learned the interpretation of the for wisdom and might are his.

21 And he changes the times and the seasons.

He removes kings, and sets up kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise,
and knowledge to those who have understanding.

22 He reveals deep and secret things.

He knows what is in the darkness,
and the light dwells with him.

23 I thank you and praise you,

O God of my fathers.

You have given me wisdom and power,
and have made known to me now
what we asked from you;

for you have now made known to us
the king's matter."

24 Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said this to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me into the king's presence, and I will tell the king the interpretation."

25 Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel into the king's presence, and said this to him: "I have found a man among the captives of Judah who will make known to the king the interpretation."

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I saw, and its interpretation?"

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, and the soothsayers cannot tell the king, 28 but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and makes known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the latter days. Your dream and the visions of your head on your bed, were these:

king's dream. He praised God who gave it.

"Wisdom and might" – these are the twin themes of this prayer. In this way the true God is distinguished from the gods of Babylon, and all other gods.

2:21 The course of history and its political changes are in God's hands (4:17; 1 Sam 2:6-8; Jer 27:5; Rom 13:1).

2:22 Job 12:22; Ps 139:11,12; Jer 23:24; Heb 4:13; Jam 1:17; 1 John 1:5.

2:23 "I thank" – notes on thanksgiving at Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12.

"Wisdom and power" – Daniel is not boasting but recognizing God's good gifts and thanking God for them.

2:27,28 First of all, Daniel gives glory to God. And he indicates that Babylon's astrologers, magicians, etc were not in touch with the true God. By all the means at their disposal they could not tell the king his dream. But God can reveal anything to His servants.

29 "As for you, O king, on your bed you had thoughts of what will happen hereafter. And the one who reveals secrets makes known to you what is going to happen. 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me because of any wisdom that I have more than any living person, but for the sake of those who make known the interpretation to the king, and that you might know the thoughts of your heart.

31 "You, O king, looked and saw a great image. This great image, of exceptional splendour, stood before you, and its form was awe-inspiring. 32 The head of this image was of fine gold, its chest and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. 34 You watched until a stone was cut out without hands. It struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces. 35 Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, were broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors, and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them. And the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 "This is the dream. And we will tell its interpretation in the king's presence. 37 You, O king, are a king of kings, for the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. 38 And wherever the children of men live, he has given the beasts of the field and the birds of the sky into your hands, and has made you ruler over them all. You are this head of gold.

39 "And after you another kingdom will arise, inferior to yours; then another, a third kingdom of bronze, which will rule the whole earth. 40 And the fourth kingdom will be as strong as iron; for just as iron breaks in pieces and crushes all things, and

2:29 Notice this name for God – "the one who reveals secrets". Let us always look to Him to interpret to us the mysteries of Himself and His Word. Compare Rom 16:25; 1 Cor 2:9-12; Eph 1:9,17-19; 3:3,9; Col 1:26,27; 2:2.

2:30 He put the emphasis where it belonged. God was revealing needed truth, not giving Daniel a reason for boasting. There are some who pride themselves in being able to interpret the Bible and tend to forget to praise the One who gives all such ability.

2:31 Evidently Daniel saw in vision (v 19) exactly what the king had seen in his dream, and so could describe it in detail.

2:32-45 The statue represents four kingdoms of the world. It seems clear both from the Bible and from history which kingdoms are meant. The head is king Nebuchadnezzar and his Babylonian empire (vs 37,38). The chest and arms represent the empire which succeeded Babylon (v 39; 5:28) – the empire of the Medes and Persians established by Cyrus. The belly and thighs represent the empire which succeeded Medo-Persia (v 39; 8:21) – the empire of Greece and Macedonia under Alexander the Great. The legs and feet represent the kingdom which replaced all the others (v 40) – the Roman empire. (In Luke 2:1 we are told that Caesar Augustus, the Roman emperor, controlled the "world" – that is, the world of the Old and New Testaments.) The rock that struck the image is God's eternal kingdom (vs 44,45).

There have been other great empires since Rome's power waned. Why are they not mentioned here? Probably because they are not related to Bible times and are not of central importance in Bible prophecy.

2:34 "Stone" – or "rock". In the Bible "stone" and "rock" sometimes symbolize Christ (Ps 118:22; Isa 28:16; Zech 4:7; 10:4; Eph 2:20; 1 Pet 2:7. For the destructive power of this "stone" see Matt 21:42-44). Here the rock is God's kingdom (vs 44,45), in which, of course, Christ is the King of kingdoms. The stone is cut out, but not by human hands. In other words it is established not by men, but by God Himself.

2:35 The rock striking the statue brings to an end, all at the same time, all the kingdoms mentioned. This indicates either that the first three kingdoms will be parts of the 4th at the time of its destruction, or that with the destruction of the 4th kingdom all the kingdoms of men (symbolized by the other three) will come to an end; or it may indicate both of these things. This verse surely speaks of sudden, overwhelming destruction. Not a trace of those kingdoms will remain after the rock has smashed them. The times of the Gentiles with their worldly kingdoms will have an utter end. God's kingdom which will completely replace man's kingdoms is compared to a mountain that "filled the whole earth". Compare Isa 2:23; 11:9; Micah 4:1.

2:37,38 Jer 27:6,7. Daniel says King Nebuchadnezzar is the head of gold. This is because the king represented the kingdom (v 39).

2:40-44 More detail is given concerning the fourth kingdom than the other three. The same is true in chapter 7 where these same four kingdoms appear again.

2:40 Iron was a fit symbol of the Roman Empire – hard, strong, able to crush others. It is possible that the two legs of the statue symbolize the division of the Roman Empire into two parts in 394 AD (as the chest with its two arms may speak of the two "arms" of the empire of the Medes and Persians, and the belly and two thighs may speak of Greece and Macedonia in Alexander's empire), but this is not certain. As for the toes, the number is not given but two feet certainly mean ten toes. And the toes surely must have the same interpretation as the ten horns of 7:7,24 and Rev 13:1; 17:3,12-14, since the same kingdom is in view in each of these visions. See notes on those chapters. The author of as iron shatters, it will break in pieces and shatter all these others. 41 And just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of potter's clay, and partly of iron, the kingdom will be divided. But there will be in it the strength of iron, just as you saw the iron mixed with common clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron, and partly of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong, and partly brittle. 43 And just as you saw the iron mixed with common clay, they will be a combination of the offspring of men, and will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with clay.

44 "And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed. And the kingdom will not be left to other people, but it will break in pieces and bring to an end all those kingdoms; and it will stand forever, 45 just as you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain, without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold.

"The great God has made known to the king what will happen hereafter; and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

these notes believes that the final form of the Roman Empire is still in the future and that its sudden destruction will occur at the second coming of Christ (Rev 19:11-16).

2:41-43 We are not told what the clay may signify, only that there will be an inherent weakness and lack of true unity in this kingdom. The picture may suggest a very strong central government forcing diverse elements together for a time. Certainly the final world kingdom of man will be like this (Revelation chapter 13).

2:44 "Kings" – the context indicates feet with its toes, not kings. The word "kings" coming here is evidence that the toes signify kings. God will set up His kingdom "in the days of these kings". "These kings" cannot refer to the rulers of the kingdoms mentioned in the preceding verses (Nebuchadnezzar, Cyrus, Alexander), for God did not set up His kingdom in those days. In v 34 we are told that the rock strikes the statue on the feet – which must signify the final form of the Roman empire. In any case, for the following reasons it seems clear the fulfillment of these things did not take place at the first coming of Christ but awaits the end of this age:

The Roman Empire and the kingdoms which preceded it were not suddenly smashed to pieces at the first coming of Christ, nor did they then disappear with "no place found for them." And the whole earth is not yet filled with the kingdom of God (vs 34,35). Moreover, the kings symbolized by the ten horns of chapter 7 and Revelation chapter 17 (and no doubt by the toes of this chapter) were not in existence at Christ's first coming (see Rev 17:12 – this is a very important fact which should keep us from

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar prostrated himself and paid homage to Daniel, and gave orders that they should present an offering and incense to him. 47 The king answered Daniel, and said, "Truly your God is God of gods, and Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret."

48 Then the king gave Daniel a high position, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 Then Daniel made a request of the king, and he placed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold. Its height was sixty cubits, and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent men to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the thinking that the stone crushing the image in the way Daniel describes it means Christ at His first coming setting up this kingdom).

But has not the kingdom of God already come? Did not Christ set it up at His first coming? In a hidden and spiritual sense, yes, and all believers are in it. But it has not yet come openly, in its manifest form, in its outward glory and splendour, and believers are to look forward to its coming (Matt 6:10; 19:28; Luke 19:11,12; 21:31; Acts 1:6; Rev 11:15). Notes on God's kingdom at Matt 4:17; etc.

2:46 "Prostrated" – an amazing sight. The most powerful king on earth on his face before a mere youth who was an exile from a foreign land. The king was acknowledging the superiority of Daniel's God and the supernatural revelation that had come to Daniel.

"Offering" – we are not told Daniel permitted this actually to happen. It is very doubtful that he did. Compare Acts 14:13. 2:48,49 Compare Gen 41:41-43. Perhaps this is one reason why the Babylonian empire is compared to gold (vs 32,38).

3:1 "Image" – in the interpretation of the dream Nebuchadnezzar had been called the "head of gold". Now he has an image made which is gold from head to foot (at least, gold-plated – Isa 40:19). He was a proud man with visions of grandeur (4:30). By making this image was he not showing what was in his heart? It seems he wanted the whole image of chapter 2 to be gold, to be his kingdom alone, with no kingdom ever succeeding his.

3:2-6 The king had started on the road to a knowledge of the true God (2:47). This matter of the image shows he had not come dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, and counsellors, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up, and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then a herald proclaimed loudly, "This is the command given to you, O people of all nations and languages: 5 When you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up. 6 Whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown that same hour into the middle of a blazing fiery furnace."

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and all kinds of music, all the people of all the nations and languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Therefore at that time some Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews. 9 They spoke up and said to king Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever! 10 You, O king, made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, must fall down and worship the golden image, 11 and whoever does not fall down and worship must be thrown into the middle of a blazing fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, have paid no attention to you. They do not serve your gods, or worship the golden image which you have set up."

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury gave a command to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods, or worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, to fall down and worship the image which I have made, good. But if you do not worship, in that same hour you will be thrown into the middle of a blazing fiery furnace. And what God will deliver you out of my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the blazing fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hands, O king. 18 But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, or worship the golden image which you have set up."

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with fury, and the expression on his face changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Therefore very far. At this time the true God to him was merely one of the gods and he was not about to abandon the ones he had always served (v 14). This is often the way with men – many are willing to add another god to their list, if it does not mean leaving the gods they have. But God will have no part in this. See note at 1 Kings 18:21; etc.

3:7 Fallen man will do almost anything to save his skin. Only a few, comparatively, will not (see note at Job 2:4,5). This will be demonstrated to the full at the end of this age when the antichrist rules the world (Rev 13:15-17).

3:8-12 "Chaldeans" – these astrologers (note on 2:2) had been saved from death by the Jews (1:12-24). This is how they tried to reward them (compare Ps 35:12-18). Daniel is not mentioned in this chapter. There are three possible reasons for this. He may have been away from the city of Babylon on official business; or if he was in the city he may not have been required, for some reason or other, to attend the dedication of the image; or if he was present at the dedication and joined with his friends in refusing to worship the image (as he certainly would have done had he been there), at that time the astrologers may have been afraid to accuse him because of his high position (2:48).

3:13 "Rage" – 2:12.

3:15 Those who have false views of God and religion sometimes resort to persecution and threats of torture or death to get their way (Acts 8:1; 9:1).

3:16-18 Like Daniel in 1:8 they courageously resolved to risk their lives rather than displease God by disobedience to His Word. They well knew what God thought of the worship of anyone or anything other than Himself. See Ex 20:2-6; etc. They were also aware no doubt, that one of the chief reasons for the exile of the Jews to Babylon was idolatry (Lev 26:14-39; Deut 27:14-26; Jer 1:16; 9:13,14).

3:16 "We have no need" – this is what the Hebrew here literally means. The KJV translation here is surprising.

3:18 "If not" – they accepted God's will no matter what it might prove to be, and they were ready for anything – certainly ready to escape fiery persecution and death, but equally ready to endure them if necessary. Their attitude is an example to all believers facing trouble now, and to all God's people at the end of this age when the great tribulation (Matt 24:21) looms on the horizon.

3:19 Verse 13; Prov 19:12,19.

he spoke and commanded that the furnace should be heated seven times more than it was usually heated. 20 And he commanded some of the strongest men in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to throw them into the blazing fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their trousers, their turbans, and their other clothing, and were thrown into the middle of the blazing fiery furnace. 22 Therefore, because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flames from the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the middle of the blazing fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king became astonished, and rose up hurriedly, and spoke, saying to his counsellors, "Did we not throw three bound men into the middle of the fire?"

They answered and said to the king, "True, O king."

25 He answered and said, "Look, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are not hurt, and the form of the fourth is like a Son of God."

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar approached the mouth of the blazing fiery furnace, and spoke and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came out of the middle of the fire. 27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men on whose bodies the fire had no power. Not a hair of their head was singed, nor were their clothes affected, nor was the smell of fire on them.

3:25 "A son of God" – this could be translated also "a son of the gods" (the Hebrew word "Elohim" here can mean either God or gods. The word for 'the' is absent). Nebuchadnezzar meant some sort of supernatural being (v 28). He served many gods and knew nothing about the one Son of the true God. But in the light of the rest of the Bible we can say that this one who came to be with his servants was the "messenger" of Jehovah (note at Gen 16:7). This fiery trial brought the Son of God to their side. Welcome all trials and tribulations that bring a deeper experience of His nearness! Compare Isa 43:1,2.

3:26,27 "Most High God" – 4:2,34; 5:18,21; 7:18.

"Come out" – see Ps 66:8-12. They had passed this test of faith, had glorified God in the fire. Now they are brought out to a place of abundance. God does not always deliver His servants in a miraculous way; He calls on some of them to lay down their lives for Him (Heb 11:35-38). And whatever He decides in individual cases

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who sent his angel, and rescued his servants who trusted in him, and frustrated the king's command and gave up their bodies rather than serve or worship any god, except their own God. 29 Therefore I make a decree that the people of any nation or language who speak anything improper against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, will be cut in pieces, and their houses will be made a pile of rubbish. Because there is no other God who can rescue in this way."

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

4 "Nebuchadnezzar the king to all peoples and nations of all languages who live in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.

2 "I thought it good to tell of the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me.

3 "How great are his signs!
And how mighty are his wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation
to generation.

4 "I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. 5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and on my bed my thoughts and the visions of my head troubled me. 6 Therefore I gave an order to bring all the wise men of Babylon into my presence, so that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. 7 Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came, and I told the dream to them, but they did not reveal its interpretation to me.

3:28-30 The king takes another step forward in the knowledge of the true God (2:47). Pharaoh in Egypt did not react like this when he saw God's wonders (Ex 8:15,32; 9:34). In Babylon God was being gracious not only to His servants but to the king.

3:29 "No other God who can rescue" – a true and powerful testimony from an idolatrous king. He well knew that none of the gods of Babylon had ever done anything like this. In 6:27 we have a similar testimony.

4:1-37 This chapter gives the record of how God brought the king to a deeper knowledge of Himself. The king himself wrote it down and, presumably, published it far and wide (vs 1, 2).

4:3 2:44.

4:5 2:1.

4:6,7 Compare 2:5-9. This time the king was making it much easier for these "wise" men. But they failed once more, as they always must and will wherever they may be.

"Astrologers. . .Chaldeans" – see 2:2.

8 But finally Daniel came into my presence. His name is Belteshazzar, after the name of my god. The Spirit of the holy gods is in him; and I told the dream to him, saying,

9 "O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I saw, and its interpretation.

10 These are the visions of my head on my bed: I looked and saw a tree in the middle of the earth, and its height was great. 11 The tree grew, and became strong, and its height reached to the sky, and it could be seen to the ends of the whole earth. 12 Its leaves were beautiful, and its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. The beasts of the field had shade under it, and the birds of the heavens lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

13 "On my bed I looked in the visions of my head, and saw a watcher, a holy one coming down from heaven. 14 He cried out loudly, and said this: 'Chop down the tree, and cut off its branches. Shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the beasts get away from under it, and the birds from its branches. 15 But leave the stump from its roots in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let it become wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth. 16 Let his heart be changed from that of a man, and let a beast's heart be given to him, and let seven times pass over him. 17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the decision by the word of the holy ones, so that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets over it the lowliest of men.'

18 "This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, O Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, since none of the wise men of my kingdom are able to make known to me the interpretation. But you are able, for the Spirit of the holy gods is in you.

19 "Then Daniel, whose name is Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke and said, Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation trouble you.

"Belteshazzar answered and said, 'My master, may the dream be for those who hate you, and its interpretation for your enemies. 20 The tree that you saw, which grew and became strong, its height reaching to the sky, and its appearance to the whole earth, 21 with its beautiful leaves, and its abundant fruit, and on which was food for all, and under which the beasts of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their dwelling place, 22 this tree is you, O king, who have grown and become strong. For your greatness has increased and reaches to the heavens, and your dominion to the ends of the earth.

23 "And as for the king seeing a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, "Chop down the tree, and destroy it, but leave the stump from its roots in the ground with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, until seven times pass over him."

24 "This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come against my master the king: 25 They will drive you from men, and your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field, and they will make you eat grass like oxen, and they will wet you with the dew of sky. And seven times will pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. 26 And as for their command to leave the stump from the tree roots, your kingdom will be assured to you, after you learn that heaven rules. 27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by practicing righteousness, and your evil deeds by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps

4:8 1:7. "Holy gods" – or, possibly "holy God."

4:9 He had not yet understood that Daniel was not a magician at all, that the source of Daniel's wisdom was not any kind of magic, but the true God alone.

4:13 "Watcher" (also in vs 17,23) – are there not, then, some angels appointed especially by God to keep watch over the earth?

"Holy one" – an angel.

4:16 "Seven times" – also verses 23, 25, 32. This almost certainly means seven years. See also 7:25.

4:17 In spite of the truth the king had heard in 2:36-45 he had not yet understood this fact (v 25).

4:19 Sometimes God's servants must speak unwelcome truth.

4:22 "Tree" – in the Bible individuals and nations are sometimes compared to trees (Ps 1:3; 37:35; 52:8; 92:12; Isa 17:6; Jer 11:16; Ezek 17:22-24; Rom 11:17).

4:26 "Heaven rules" – that is, the God of heaven rules. This is a fact clearly revealed in the Bible – Ps 10:16; 47:2 (note); 93:1; 96:10; 97:1; Isa 52:7; Rev 19:6. But how slow, how reluctant people are to acknowledge it! Much of man's history is the story of rebellion against heaven's authority.

4:27 Again we see Daniel's boldness and faithfulness in dealing with those in high places.

"To the poor" – God demands that those in positions of authority show justice and your tranquility will long continue.”

28 All this came on King Nebuchadnezzar. 29 At the end of twelve months he was walking in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon, 30 and the king spoke and said, “Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for a royal residence by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?”

31 While the word was still in the king’s mouth, a voice fell from heaven, saying, “O King Nebuchadnezzar, this is spoken to you: The kingdom has departed from you. 32 And they will drive you from men, and your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field. They will make you eat grass like oxen, and seven times will pass over you, until you learn that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.”

33 That same hour this word was fulfilled in Nebuchadnezzar; and he was driven from men, and ate grass like oxen, and his body became wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair had grown like eagles’ feathers, and his nails like birds’ claws.

34 “And at the end of these days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I extolled the Most High, and I praised and honoured him who lives forever, “Whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and whose kingdom is from generation kindness.

4:30 The king had a whole year to think over the truth God had given through Daniel. But pride is a great enemy of truth and hardens the heart against it (5:20. God’s attitude toward pride is seen in His Word – Prov 6:16,17; 8:13; Isa 2:10-18; 23:9; Jer 13:9; Jam 4:6.

4:31 “A voice fell from heaven” – another instance of God’s remarkable dealings with this king.

4:33 God will always do as He has said (Prov 19:21; Isa 14:24; 44:26; 46:10; Matt 5:18).

4:34 “Lifted up my eyes” – an indication that reason and sanity were returning to the king. Men who will not look to God for help, who will not acknowledge God’s greatness and authority, are spiritually insane, and behave like the greatest of fools (Ps 14:1; Eccl 9:3; etc). Here the king does what God said he must do. See the word “until” in vs 25,32.

4:35 “Nothing” – Isa 40:15-17.
“According to his will” – Ps 115:3; 135:6; Rom 11:33-36.

“What are you doing” – Deut 32:39; Job 9:4; Isa 45:9; Rom 9:20. The king learned what all men should learn. The one true God has absolute, eternal authority over the earth and the universe. If we rebel and live as we please without reference to Him, we will pay the price for such folly and sin.

4:36 This was altogether of God’s grace. The 35 And all the inhabitants of the earth count for nothing;

and he does according to his will in the army of heaven,
and among the inhabitants of the earth,
and no one can hold back his hand,
or say to him, ‘What are you doing?’

36 “At the same time my reason returned to me, and my honour and splendour returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. And my counsellors and my nobles sought me out, and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me. 37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, whose works are all in truth, and whose ways are just; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.”

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his nobles, and drank wine in the presence of the thousand. 2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, gave orders to bring the gold and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple which was in Jerusalem, so that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink from them. 3 Then they brought the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple, the house of God which had been in Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank from them. 4 They drank

King of heaven is a God of love, mercy and kindness.

4:37 It is a great thing and shows a great work of God in the heart when a man stops praising himself and what he has done, and starts praising God.

“Just” – Deut 32:4; Ps 33:4,5; etc.

“Abase” – Ps 18:27; Prov 3:34; 16:18; Jam 4:10.

5:1 Belshazzar means “May Bel protect the king”. But Bel (the Babylonian god Marduk) could not and did not do that – vs 30,31. In vs 2,11,18 Nebuchadnezzar is called Belshazzar’s father. As often in the Old Testament the word father here simply means ancestor. Nebuchadnezzar died in 562 BC and was succeeded by his son Evil-Merodach (2 Kings 25:27; Jer 52:31). Belshazzar came to power in Babylon many years later and after a brief reign was slain in 539 BC.

5:2 “Wine” – Prov 20:1; Isa 5:12; 21:5 (about Babylon); Jer 51:57.

“Father” – or “ancestor”, or “predecessor” (also in verses 11,13,18. See note on Gen 5:6-32).

“Jerusalem” – 2 Kings 24:13; Jer 52:19.

5:3,4 They were not acting in ignorance of previous events (vs 22,23). They were showing their utter contempt for Jehovah, the God of Israel, the God of heaven, the only God there is. Having rejected the true God the only gods left to praise were those wine, and praised the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

5 In the same hour the fingers of a man's hand appeared and wrote opposite the candlestick on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace. And the king saw the part of the hand that was writing. 6 Then the king's expression changed, and his thoughts so alarmed him that the joints of his hips became slack and his knees knocked together.

7 The king loudly called out orders to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and tells me its interpretation, will be clothed in scarlet, and have a chain of gold placed around his neck, and will become the third ruler in the kingdom."

8 So in came all the king's wise men, but they could not read the writing, or reveal its interpretation to the king. 9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly alarmed, and the expression on his face changed, and his nobles were astonished.

10 Now the queen, because of the words of the king and his nobles, came into the banquet hall, and the queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts alarm you, or let your expression change. 11 There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him. King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, your father the king, made him the head over the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers, 12 because an excellent spirit and knowledge and understanding, the ability to interpret dreams and explain riddles and solve difficult problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will reveal the interpretation."

13 Then Daniel was brought into the presence of the king. And the king spoke and said to Daniel, made by men – Ps 115:3-8; etc.

5:5 "In the same hour" – God had had enough. His patience with these ungodly men was at an end. Compare Gen 6:3; Prov 29:1; etc. 5:6 No doubt Belshazzar had seen the tricks and seeming wonders of his magicians. This was his first encounter with a true sign from heaven.

"Expression" – the Hebrew word (translated "countenance" in the KJV) literally means "brightness" or "bright appearance." 5:7-9 In spite of their repeated failures (2:10-13; 4:7) such people retained their hold on Babylon. But neither threats of death, nor promises of power could get any wisdom out of them, any true interpretation of dreams or events. Such men are as useless today as they were then.

5:10 "Queen" – the wives of Belshazzar were already present (v 3). This one who came

"Are you that Daniel who is one of those captives from Judah, whom the king my father brought from Judah? 14 I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. 15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought into my presence that they might read this writing, and reveal its interpretation to me, but they could not tell the interpretation of the thing. 16 And I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations and solve difficult problems. Now if you can read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you will be clothed in scarlet, and have a chain of gold around your neck, and will become the third ruler in the kingdom."

17 Then Daniel answered and said in the king's presence, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another. Yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 "O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour. 19 And because of the majesty that he gave him, all peoples, nations, and men of all languages, trembled and were afraid in his presence. He killed whomever he wished, and kept alive whomever he wished, and he elevated whomever he wished, and put down whomever he wished. 20 But when his heart was lifted up and his mind hardened with pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him, 21 and he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like that of the beasts, and his dwelling place was with the wild donkeys. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until he learned that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he appoints over it whomever he will.

22 "And you, his son, O Belshazzar, have not in later was probably either the mother or grandmother of Belshazzar, and so, in this case, queen means "queen mother."

5:11-13 Evidently Daniel had been shoved aside from the high position he held in the days of Nebuchadnezzar (2:48), and almost forgotten.

5:16 Did Belshazzar think that only promises of great reward would move Daniel to declare the truth? How mistaken he was appears in the next verse. God's true servants never need to be bribed or paid to declare God's Word, and they do not do so for money or men's rewards.

5:17 This prophet was not for hire – unlike Balaam and many others since (2 Pet 2:15; 1 Tim 6:5).

5:20 4:29,30.

5:22 "Son" – here means "descendant", or "successor" (see note on Gen 5:6-32).

humbled your heart, though you knew all this, 23 but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of his temple to you, and you, and your nobles, your wives, and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or know anything; and the God in whose hands your breath is, and all your ways, you have not glorified. 24 So the part of the hand was sent from him, and this inscription was written.

25 "And this is the inscription that was written:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN

26 "This is the interpretation of the words:

MENE: God has numbered your kingdom, and put an end to it.

27 TEKEL: You have been weighed in the balances and found wanting.

28 PERES: Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

29 Then Belshazzar gave orders, and they clothed Daniel in scarlet, and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he would be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 In that night Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans was slain. 31 And Darius the Mede took the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, who would be over the whole kingdom, 2 and over these, three presidents, of whom Daniel was one, so that the satraps might be accountable to them, and the king might not suffer loss. 3 Then this Daniel distinguished himself among the presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king considered setting him over the whole realm. 4 Then the presidents and satraps sought to find a matter for an accusation against Daniel concerning the kingdom. but they could find no such matter or fault, because he was faithful, and no error or corruption was found in him. 5 Then these men said, "We will not find any matter against this Daniel, unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

6 Then these presidents and satraps came together to the king, and said this to him, "King Darius, live forever! 7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors and the satraps, the counsellors and

"Knew" – this made Belshazzar's action in vs 1-4 so much more worthy of condemnation. Compare Heb 10:26,27; 2 Pet 2:21; etc.

5:23 "Lifted up yourself" – Jer 47:10; 50:29. "In whose hands your breath is" – see Job 12:10. How insane it is to refuse to honor God who has absolute authority over our lives now and over our eternal destinies.

5:25 These words were in Aramaic, a language of same family as Hebrew. Only consonants in the words would have been written (as with Hebrew). They were written in such a way that the wise men of Babylon could not be sure what words were meant (v 8). Of course they could have no idea what the interpretation of them might be.

"Upharsin" – the "u" at the beginning of this word means "and" in Aramaic, and is omitted in some versions. Pharsin or Parsin is a plural form (the "in" ending of the word indicates the plural). The consonants which appeared on the wall were the Aramaic for MN, MN, TKL, PRSN. Vowels were not written in the original. The vowels now found in the Hebrew Old Testament Scriptures were not put there until many centuries had passed after the words were first written down.

5:26 Daniel revealed what the words were and what God meant by them. MN, signifying "mene," means "numbered," and the interpretation is that God had counted up the full time He would permit Babylon to be ruled by Belshazzar and the time was over.

5:27 TKL, signifying "tekel," means "weighed", but it was not some commodity or unit of money being weighed, but Belshazzar himself. Compare Job 31:6; Ps

62:9; Prov 16:2.

5:28 Daniel gives a double meaning to the three consonants PRS. "Peres" meant "divided", "Paras" meant "Persia". Divided here would mean broken up, ended. The end of the Babylonian empire was at hand, and the Persians would take it over.

5:29 Though the interpretation brought bad news to Belshazzar he did as he said he would in v 16. Daniel accepted the position probably with a view to the influence he might bring to bear on the new rulers of Babylon for the good of the Jews.

5:30 Babylon was a large city with very high and thick walls, and strongly fortified. But it fell to the Medes and Persians just as God said it would (2:39; Isa 13:1,17,18; Jer 50:1,2).

5:31 "Darius the Mede" – Cyrus was the chief ruler of the Medo-Persian Empire (1:21; 6:28; 10:1; Ezra 1:1-4; Isa 45:1-4). Darius must have been appointed by Cyrus to rule over Babylon.

6:2 No doubt Daniel came to his notice because of the position he already occupied (5:29).

"Daniel was one" – when used in a series (first, second, etc) the Hebrew word means "first", otherwise it means "one".

6:4 Envy lifted its poisonous head. See Prov 14:30; 27:4; Matt 27:18; Acts 7:9; 13:45; 17:5; Rom 1:29; 13:13; 1 Cor 3:3; Gal 5:26; Jam 3:14,16.

"No error or corruption" – the inability of enemies to find anything wrong in a person's life is a great testimony for him. See also Mark 14:55; John 18:38; 19:4,6; 1 Pet 3:13-16; 4:14-16.

6:7 "All" – a lie. Daniel had not agreed to the commanders, have consulted together about establishing a royal law and making a firm decree, that whoever makes a prayer to any God or man for thirty days, except to you, O king, will be thrown into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the document, so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which is unalterable." 9 Therefore king Darius signed the document containing the decree.

10 Now when Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he went into his house, and the windows in his room being open toward Jerusalem, he got down on his knees three times a day, and prayed and gave thanks in the presence of his God, just as he did before. 11 Then these men came together, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they approached the king and spoke concerning the king's decree: "Did you not sign a decree stating that every man who requests anything from any God or man for thirty days, except from you, O king, will be cast into the den of lions?"

The king answered and said, "The statement is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which is unalterable."

13 Then they answered and said to the king, "That Daniel, who is one of those captives from Judah, shows no regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you signed, but makes his prayer three times a day." 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was deeply distressed, and set his heart on Daniel to rescue him; and he made efforts until sunset to rescue him.

15 Then these men came together to the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is this: no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

16 Then the king gave an order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you serve continually, will rescue you."

17 And a stone was brought, and laid on the den's mouth, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring, and with the signet rings of his nobles, so that the purpose concerning Daniel might not be changed. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and spent the night fasting; nor were instruments of music brought before him; and his sleep left him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and hurried to the den of lions. 20 And when he came to the den, he cried out with an anguished voice to Daniel. And the king spoke and said to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?"

21 Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever! 22 My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, so that they have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his presence. And also I have done no wrong before you, O king."

23 Then the king was exceedingly glad for him, and gave orders to take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no injury at all was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

24 And the king gave orders, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel and threw them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives. And the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they got to the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and those of all languages who live on the whole earth: "Peace be multiplied to you. 26 I issue a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom men must tremble and fear before the God of Daniel.

their plan, and they knew he never would agree to elevate any man to the place of God.

6:10 Daniel did not close the windows and resort to secret prayer. In his faithfulness to God and courage in the face of danger he was an example not only to those of his own day but to all succeeding generations. If he considered something right to do, he did it regardless of consequences.

"Thanks" – notes on thanksgiving at Lev 7:12,13; Ps 7:17; 50:14,15; 56:12; Eph 5:20; etc.

6:14 "Distressed" – v 18; Mark 6:26. Rulers often bring grief to themselves and others by foolish decisions.

6:16 Verse 20. Another testimony to Daniel's character (v 4).

6:20 "The living God" – a remarkable phrase from the lips of an idolater who had issued the decree of v 7. Was faith in the true

God beginning to awaken in his heart?

6:22 Ps 37:3-6.

6:23 "Because he had trusted" – 1 Chron 5:20; Ps 22:13,21; 91:1,2,9,10,13-15; Heb 11:33.

6:24 Ps 37:34; 91:8; 7:15,16; Prov 26:27.

6:25-27 Because of Daniel, some of the mightiest monarchs in ancient times wrote down professions of faith in the greatness of the God of Israel, and sent them everywhere. This is an example of what one man can do who boldly and openly stands for God in all circumstances. King Darius meant well in making this decree (v 26). He was trying to turn his whole kingdom to thoughts of the God of Daniel. It seems he little realized that fear and reverence for God cannot be a matter of a proclamation of a king no matter how powerful. These things must come from the heart made new by God's Spirit.

"For he is the living God,
and continues on forever,
and his kingdom will not be destroyed,
and his dominion will be to the end.

27 He delivers and rescues, and he performs signs and wonders
in heaven and on earth, he who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions."

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar, king of Babylon, Daniel, on his bed, had a dream and visions came to his mind. Then he wrote down the dream, relating the substance of the words.

2 Daniel spoke and said, "I saw in my vision at night, and there appeared the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea. 3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, different from one another.

4 "The first was like a lion, and had eagle's

6:28 "In the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus" – this could possibly be translated "In the reign of Darius, that is, the reign of Cyrus." See note on 5:31.

7:1 "First year" – before the events of chapter 5. Giving dreams and visions was one way God revealed His truth to the prophets (Gen 15:1; Num 12:6).

7:2 The great sea here may indicate the Mediterranean, but it could indicate the nations and people of the world (compare v 17 – "out of the earth", and Isa 17:12,13;
Rev 13:1; 17:1,15).

"Four winds" – north, south, east and west
– here may possibly symbolize the forces in the whole world that God uses to produce in the world the four kingdoms of this chapter.

7:3-7 The four beasts symbolize four kingdoms (v 17). They seem to be the same four kingdoms King Nebuchadnezzar saw in the form of a statue (chapter 2). In this vision God caused them to appear as wild beasts. By this symbolism something of their true nature is revealed. The following interpretation of the identity of these kingdoms is the one taught by most commentators who believe the book of Daniel.
It seems more likely to be the right one than any other interpretation. For a possible reason why God gave different dreams about the same kingdoms see Gen 41:32.

7:4 The first beast symbolizes Nebuchadnezzar's Babylonian empire. The prophets spoke of Nebuchadnezzar as both a lion and an eagle (Jer 4:7; 48:40; 49:22; 50:17; Ezek 17:3,12).

"Like a man" – with Nebuchadnezzar's experience recorded in chapter 4 and his acknowledgment of the true God, Babylon lost something of its beastly character.

7:5 The bear symbolizes the empire of the Medes and Persians. The bear was raised wings. I watched until its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on its feet like a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 "And then appeared another beast, a second, like a bear; and it raised itself up on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth.
And this was said to it: 'Arise, devour much flesh!'

6 "After this I looked, and another beast appeared, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. Also the beast had four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 "After this I was watching in the night visions, and then a fourth beast appeared, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong, and it had great iron teeth. It was devouring and crushing, and trampling what remained with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that preceded it; and it had ten horns.

8 "I considered the horns, and then another horn, a little one, appeared, which came up among them. Before it three of the first horns were up on one side – that is, Persia was the more dominant power in this alliance. The three ribs may symbolize the three principal kingdoms conquered by the Medes and Persians – Lydia, Egypt, and Babylon.

7:6 The leopard symbolizes Alexander's Greco-Macedonian empire. The leopard is a swifter beast than the others mentioned and the four wings add to the suggestion of very rapid movement. Alexander's swift conquests were a marvel in the ancient world.

"Four heads" – after Alexander's death what remained of his empire was divided into four parts.

7:7 This beast symbolizes the Roman Empire, the same kingdom symbolized by the legs and feet of the image of chapter 2.
Just as in chapter 2 it is the fourth kingdom to arise beginning with Babylon. Other features of its description also suggest its identity with the fourth kingdom of chapter 2.

"Iron" – 2:33,40; "crushing" – 2:40;
"ten" – 2:42,44; 7:24. These ten horns together with the description of the "little horn" and the judgment of God in the following verses indicate the Roman Empire in its final form at the end of this age (2:40,44). Revelation chapter 17 makes it clear that this beast is associated with the city of Rome (17:3,9,18), and 17:12 states that the ten kings had not yet arisen in John's day.

7:8 The ten horns are kings (v 24), so it is safe to assume that this "little horn" symbolizes a king. Though he is called "little"
he is "more imposing" than the others (v 20).
The Hebrew means "in sight greater"), and evidently he soon becomes the dominant figure (v 21). "Little" may indicate lowly beginnings or the comparative insignificance of the kingdom from which he comes. The eyes of a man suggest intelligence or cunning.

uprooted. And eyes appeared in this horn like a man's eyes, and a mouth speaking big things.

9 "I watched until thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days sat down. His garment was as white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool. His throne was like a fiery flame, and its wheels like blazing fire.

10 A stream of fire came out, issuing from his presence. Thousands upon thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The court of judgment was seated, and the books were opened.

11 "I watched then because of the sound of the great words which the horn spoke. I watched until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed and given to the blazing flame. 12 As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

13 "I watched in the night visions, and then one like the Son of man appeared, coming with the

The mouth that speaks boastfully suggests the person described in 2 Thess 2:4 and Rev 13:5,6, the antichrist who will arise at the end of this age and be the ruler of the Roman Empire in its final form.

7:9-14 Here is a picture of judgment. With the brutal and boastful form of the fourth beast man's kingdoms will come to an end. These verses refer to the same time period as 2:34,44,45.

7:9 "Thrones" – a possible connection with the thrones of Rev 4:4.

"Set in place" – or "cast down." Strange as it may seem, the Hebrew can mean either (see the note at Ps 14:7). If "cast down" is taken as the meaning, it refers to the thrones of earth's kings.

"Ancient of Days" – the Hebrew means "one advanced in days" and would, except for the context, mean simply an old person. Here it means God Himself sitting in judgment.

"Wheels" – here are connected with the throne. Compare Ezek 1:15-21,26,27.

7:10 "Fire" – Ps 50:3; 97:3; Isa 29:6; 30:27,28,33; 2 Thess 1:7,8; Heb 12:29.

"Thousands" – Rev 5:11; Jude 14,15.

"Books" – 12:1; Ex 32:32; Ps 69:28; Mal 3:16; Rev 20:12-15.

7:11 God's judgment will result in the total destruction of the fourth beast and the fiery punishment of the little horn who will head it up (Rev 19:20).

7:12 Before the death of the fourth beast the first three beasts (vs 4-6) lost their power one by one, but the nations they symbolized were not immediately destroyed.

7:13 "Son of man" – Rev 1:13. This name the Lord Jesus often applied to Himself (Matt 16:13-15; 24:27,30; Luke 19:10. The clouds of heaven; and he came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought him near before him. 14 And dominion, and glory, and a kingdom were given to him, so that all peoples, nations, and those of all languages, would serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which will not pass away, and his kingdom one which will not be destroyed.

15 "I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit within me, and the visions coming to my mind troubled me. 16 I approached one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth about all this. So he told me, and made known to me the interpretation of these things:

17 "These great beasts, which are four, are four kings who arise out of the earth. 18 But the saints of the Most High will take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever.'

19 "Then I wanted to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and whose nails were of bronze, which devoured, crushed, and trampled what remained with its feet; 20 and of the ten horns which were on its head, and of the other horn which came up, name appears more than 80 times in the Gospels). The title indicates the Son of God's true humanity.

"Clouds" – in the Old Testament signified the presence of God (Deut 33:26; Ps 97:2; 104:3; Isa 19:1. In the New Testament see Matt 24:30; 26:64; Mark 13:26; Rev 1:7). The picture here is of the one true God-man, the Lord Jesus Christ, coming into the presence of God the Father. The next verse speaks of all people "serving [or worshiping – the Hebrew word means both]" the Son of man. This is a further indication of His true deity.

7:14 This receiving of sovereign power seems to be at the time of the destruction of the 4th beast at the end of this age. It corresponds with the events described in 2:34,35,44. Revelation chapter 5 seems connected with these same events. It is true that the Lord Jesus has already received authority (Matt 28:18) and His kingdom is established in the hearts of His people. But the time to come to earth and reign openly as king has not yet come. He still waits until His enemies are made a footstool for His feet (Acts 2:35; Heb 10:13). When the time comes for man's kingdoms to be judged and destroyed He will come and openly set up His own kingdom (2:45; Rev 19:11-16). 7:15 "Within me" – the meaning of the Hebrew word translated "body" here in the KJV is doubtful, but may mean "sheath" or "scabbard."

7:16 "One of those" – an angel.

7:17 "Kings" – they represent the four kingdoms (v 23).

7:18 "Saints" – vs 22,27; Matt 5:5; 19:28,29; 25:34; Luke 22:29,30; Rom 4:13; Rev 2:26,27; 3:21; 20:4-6.

and before whom three fell, that horn which had eyes and a mouth that spoke big things, whose appearance was more imposing than his associates. 21 As I watched, the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them, 22 until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.

23 "He said this: "The fourth beast will be the fourth kingdom on earth. It will be different from all the kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and crush it. 24 And the ten horns are ten kings who will arise from this kingdom, and another will arise after them; and he will be different from the earlier ones, and he will subdue three kings. 25 And he will speak words against the Most High, and will wear out the saints of the Most High, and plan to change times and laws. And they will be given into his hands until a time and times and half a time.

26 "But the court of judgment will sit, and they will take away his dominion to consume and to destroy it forever. 27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heavens, will be given to the saints, the people of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; and all dominions will serve and obey him.'

28 "This is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me, and the expression on my face changed, but I kept the matter in my heart."

7:21 Verse 25; Matt 24:21; Rev 13:7,15.
7:22 The antichrist will persecute and slay God's saints until the second coming of Christ. The "horn" can defeat the saints, but not their Lord.

7:23 Verse 7.

7:24 "Ten kings" – judging from 2:44 and Rev 17:12 these kings all live at the same time just before the return of Christ. So this vision of the fourth beast cannot refer to the Roman Empire as it was at the first coming of Christ.

7:25 "Speak" – v 8.

"Saints" – Rev 13:7.

"Given into his hands" – a time of great testing for God's people. See note on testing at Ps 66:10-12.

"Time and times and half a time" – 4:16. In Nebuchadnezzar's case seven times was a limited brief period, almost certainly seven years. Three and a half times obviously means only half of that. This same time period is referred to as 1260 days and 42 months in Rev 11:2,3; 12:6; 13:5. There is no good reason to think these figures are not to be taken literally. If not taken literally no man can know how long or how short this time period will be.

7:26 Rev 19:19-21.

7:27 The kingdoms of the world are not said

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, to me, Daniel, after the one which appeared to me the first time. 2 And while I was looking in a vision it came about as I watched that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw that in the vision I was by the river Ulai. 3 Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and a ram appeared there, standing beside the river. It had two horns, and the two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up last. 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward, so that no beast could withstand him, nor was there any that could rescue from his hands, but he did as he pleased and became great.

5 And as I was considering this, a male goat appeared, coming from the west across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground. And the goat had a notable horn between its eyes. 6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him in his powerful anger. 7 And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with rage against him, and struck the ram and broke off his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to withstand him, so he threw him down to the ground, and trampled him. And there was no one who could deliver the ram from his hands. 8 Therefore the male goat became very great. But when he was strong, the great horn was broken, and in its place four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven.

to be destroyed, but handed over to the saints. They will reign with Christ (references at v 18).

"Serve" – the Hebrew word also means "worship" – Ps 22:27; 72:11; 86:9; Zech 14:16-19; Rev 21:24.

8:1 551 BC.

8:2 "Shushan" – (sometimes written Susa) was the chief city of Elam and became the principal capital of the Persian empire.

"Palace" – or it might be translated "citadel."

"Elam" – a mountainous region east of Babylon in what is now western Iran.

8:3 Verse 20 tells us what this ram symbolizes – the Medo-Persian kingdom. The larger horn represents Persia which was the dominant power in the alliance.

8:4 Medo-Persia became the most powerful kingdom in the world of its day.

8:5 According to v 21 this goat symbolizes Greece. The prominent horn was Alexander the Great, the first king of the Greco-Macedonian Empire.

8:6,7 Alexander crushed the Medo-Persian Empire in the years 334-330 BC, more than 200 years after this prophetic vision.

8:8 "Broken" – refers to the death of Alexander in 323 BC.

"Four" – these represent the four divisions

9 And out of one of them a little horn came out, which grew exceedingly great, toward the south and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. 10 And it grew up to the host of heaven. And it threw some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and trampled on them. 11 Yes, it set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host, and it took away the daily sacrifice from him, and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down. 12 And an army was given to it against the daily sacrifice, because of transgression, and it threw the truth down to the ground; and it was active and prospered.

13 Then I heard one holy one speaking, and another holy one said to that holy one who had spoken, "How long is the time in the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression that causes desolation, causing both the sanctuary and the army to be trampled under foot?"

14 And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred days. Then the sanctuary will be cleansed."

15 And it came about when I, Daniel, had seen the vision, and was seeking for the meaning, then someone appeared who looked like a man, standing before me. 16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called out of his empire that came about after Alexander's death (7:6).

8:9 "Little horn" – there is a difference of opinion among commentators about this "little horn". Some say he is the same as the "little horn" of 7:8,20-25. Others say he is not, because this one comes out of one of the divisions of the Grecian Empire, that one comes out of the Roman Empire after the Grecian Empire and all of its four divisions had lost their power. Most commentators agree that this "little horn" symbolizes a king who arose in Syria in the 2nd century BC and became a great enemy of the Jews. His name was Antiochus Epiphanes. He may be regarded in some ways as a type of the coming antichrist. See also 11:21-35.

Some students of the Bible are of the opinion that just as Antiochus was king in Syria so the antichrist at the end of this age will arise in Syria. It appears to be true that antichrist will arise from within the boundaries of the old Roman Empire (7:8), and Syria was once a part of that Empire. Others think, however, that the case of Antiochus is brought forward in Daniel to show only something of the character and deeds of the coming antichrist and not the country of his origin. This is the opinion of the author of these notes. But we should be careful not to be dogmatic in doubtful matters such as these.

"Glorious land" – or "beautiful land." The translation "pleasant land" though possible is not likely. The land meant is, of course, Israel (11:16,41; Jer 3:19; Ezek 20:6). 8:10,11 "Of the host and of the stars" – and said, "Gabriel, cause this man to understand the vision."

17 So he came near the place I was standing; and when he came, I was afraid, and prostrated myself on my face. But he said to me, "Understand, son of man; for the vision concerns the time of the end."

18 Now as he was speaking to me, I was in a deep sleep with my face toward the ground, but he touched me and stood me upright.

19 And he said, "Look, I will cause you to know what will happen at the end of the indignation. For the end will occur at the appointed time. 20 The ram which you saw which had two horns represents the kings of Media and Persia. 21 And the rough goat is the king of Greece, and the great horn that is between its eyes is the first king. 22 Now as for that one being broken and four arising in its place, four kingdoms will arise out of the nation, but not with its power.

23 "And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have reached their full extent, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark schemes, will arise. 24 And his power will be mighty, but not by his own power; and he will cause appalling destruction, and will prosper, and be probably refers to believers in Israel seen as stars in this vision (compare 12:3). Antiochus swept down into Israel, captured Jerusalem, killed many thousands of people, desecrated the temple, and prevented the Jews from offering sacrifices.

"Prince of the host" – Jehovah of hosts. 8:12 The disaster to the Jews in the days of Antiochus was a result of their sin and rebellion against God.

"Army" – or "host" – the same word in Hebrew.

8:13,14 "Days" – literally, "Evening, morning". This may mean 2300 days (compare Gen 1:5,8; etc). This is a little more than six years – the period of time of the persecution by Antiochus (171-164 BC). But some scholars have thought the figure 2300 means 1150 days, this being the number of days it would take for 2300 sacrifices offered both morning and evening. 1150 days was the time between Antiochus' desecration of the temple and its reconstruction by the Jews (168-165 BC).

8:16 "Gabriel" – 9:21; Luke 1:19,26.

8:17 "Son of man" – Ezek 2:1.

8:19 In the context of the verses which follow, the time of wrath, the time of the end spoken of here probably means the end of the days covered by the vision of vs 3-14, especially the end of the time of Antiochus. But those days were surely a picture of the days of the antichrist at the end of this age.

8:23-25 Antiochus Epiphanes.

8:24 "Not by his own power" – compare 2 Thess 2:9; Rev 13:2.

"The holy people" – of Israel.

active and destroy the mighty and the holy people. 25 And through his cunning he will also cause deceit to prosper in his hands. And in his heart he will exalt himself, and by peace will destroy many. He will also stand up against the Prince of princes. But he will be broken, but not by human hand.

26 "And the vision of the evenings and the mornings which was told is true. So seal up the vision, for it will not take place for many days."

27 And I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick for days. Afterward I got up, and did the king's work. And I was astonished at the vision, but no one understood it.

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, by descent a Mede, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years according to the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet, that he had specified for the completion of the desolations of Jerusalem, seventy years. 3 And I set my face toward the Lord God, to seek him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes.

4 And I prayed to the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, "O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant and mercy for those who love him, and for those who keep his commandments, 5 we have sinned, and have done evil, and have behaved wickedly, and have rebelled, by departing from your precepts and from your judgments. 6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 "O Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us shame of face, as it is this day, to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, those near, and those far away in all the countries where you have driven them, because of the unfaithfulness they have shown against you. 8 O Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. 9 To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against him. 10 We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us through his servants the prophets. 11 Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law by departing from you, so as not to obey your voice. Therefore the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against him.

12 "And he has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great disaster; for under the whole heaven nothing has been done like what was done in Jerusalem. 13 Just as it is written in the law of Moses, this whole disaster has come on

8:25 "Prince of princes" – God Himself.

"Human hand" – Antiochus was not killed in battle but by an act of God. Compare 2 Thess 2:8; Rev 19:20.

8:26 "Seal up" – preserve it.

8:27 "No one understood it" – prophecies of future events were often not understood even by those through whom they came. We should not rashly assume that we know all about them now.

9:1 5:31. This Ahasuerus is not the same as the one of the book of Esther.

"First year" – 538 BC.

9:2 Observe that Daniel regarded the writings of Jeremiah as inspired by God and authoritative. Twice Jeremiah spoke of 70 years – 25:11,12 and 29:10. The first invasion of Judah by the Babylonian armies was in 605 BC. The 70 years were nearly over.

9:3 The knowledge that the 70 years were nearing their end inspired Daniel to prayer, not to complacency. Likewise God's promises to us should move us to prayer, should inspire us to claim them, to act on them. Let us learn from Daniel's prayer how to seek God in time of need with humility, confession, repentance, pleading. Observe the great earnestness with which Daniel sought God. He was seeking according to Deut 4:29; Jer 29:12,13.

"Fasting" – Jud 20:26; 1 Sam 7:6; Neh

1:4; Esther 4:3; Ps 35:13; 69:10; Acts 14:23; 2 Cor 6:5; 11:27.

"Sackcloth, and ashes" – Gen 37:34; 2 Sam 13:19; Esther 4:1-3; Job 16:15; Ps 30:11; Lam 2:10.

9:4 "Keeps his covenant and mercy" – Deut 7:9,12; 1 Kings 8:23; 2 Chron 6:14; Neh 1:5; 9:32.

9:5 "We" – Daniel includes himself (v 20). Compare Ezra 9:5-7; Isa 64:5-9; Jer 3:25.

"Sinned" – 1 Kings 8:46-50.

9:6 2 Kings 18:12; Jer 7:13-15,25,26.

9:7 "Righteousness" – Ps 11:7; 119:137; 145:17.

"Shame" – Ezra 9:6; Ps 44:14-16; Jer 3:25; 31:19.

"Unfaithfulness" – Ps 78:57; Isa 1:4; Jer 3:6-10; Ezek 39:23,24.

9:9 Ex 34:6,7; Ps 4:1; 15:1; 86:5; 103:8,13; Isa 55:7; Jer 33:8; 42:12.

9:10,11 2 Kings 17:13-15; 18:12; 2 Chron 36:15,16; Jer 25:3,4.

"Curse and" – Lev 26:14,33; Deut 11:26-28; 27:15-26; 28:15,63-67.

9:12 Jer 44:2-6; Lam 1:12; Ezek 5:9.

"Judges who judged us" – or "leaders who led us" – the Hebrew means either.

9:13 "Not made our prayer" – Isa 9:13; 64:7. Observe that truly seeking God's favor means to turn from sin and give attention to the truth He has revealed.

us. Yet we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our evil deeds and understand your truth. 14 Therefore the LORD kept the disaster in view and brought it on us. For the LORD our God is righteous in all the deeds which he does, because we did not obey his voice.

15 "And now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and made yourself a name, as at this day, we have sinned, we have behaved wickedly. 16 O Lord, I beg you, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and your fury be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain, because for our sins and for the evil deeds of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become an object of scorn to everyone around us.

17 "Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of your servant, and his supplications, and, for the Lord's sake, cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate. 18 O my God, bow down your ear, and hear. Open your eyes, and look on our desolations, and the city which is called by your name. For we do not present our supplications

9:14 Gen 18:25; Neh 9:33; Ps 7:9; 19:9; 129:4; 145:17. It was because God is perfectly just that He brought disaster on them. Justice must punish sin that is not repented of and forsaken. Instead of complaining against God everyone should humble himself or herself, and confess that God is just (2 Chron 12:6).

9:15 Ex 14:26-31. "Name" – Ex 9:16.

9:16 Daniel continues to place the emphasis where it belongs – on their sin and God's righteousness.

9:17-19 "For the Lord's sake" – 1 Sam 12:22; Ps 23:3; 25:11; 31:3; 106:8; Isa 37:35; 43:14,25; Jer 14:7,21; Ezek 20:9; 36:22. God's reputation was bound up with the people and the land and the city He had chosen.

9:18 "Not. . .because of our righteousness" – compare Luke 18:9-14. In this book we see that Daniel was a mighty man of God, pure and upright. However, in prayer he did not depend on any of that, but on God's mercy alone.

9:20 "Holy mountain" – Mount Zion.

9:21 "In prayer" – v 23; 10:12; Isa 65:24; Luke 18:7,8.

"Gabriel" – 8:16.

"Evening sacrifice" – Ex 29:39.

9:22 1:17; 7:16; 10:14; Amos 3:7.

9:23 "Greatly beloved" – the Hebrew verb from which this comes means "to desire", "take pleasure in", "delight in." It is not from the Hebrew word meaning "love." Heaven viewed Daniel with special regard, took pleasure in him, delighted in him. How could anyone receive a better commendation than this? How much better to be highly esteemed in heaven than on earth.

9:24-27 There has been, and is, much before you because of our righteousnesses, but because of your great mercies. 19 O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and take action! For your own sake, O my God, do not delay. For your city and your people are called by your name."

20 And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God, 21 yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the earlier vision, flying swiftly, came and touched me about the time of the evening sacrifice. 22 And he gave me information, and talked with me and said, "Daniel, I am now come forth to give you insight and understanding. 23 At the beginning of your supplications the command was issued, and I have come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved. Therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 "Seventy 'weeks' have been decreed for your people and for your holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for wickedness, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision disagreement among scholars about the meaning of these verses. Some words and phrases in Hebrew are obscure in meaning and the interpretation difficult.

9:24 "Weeks" – in Hebrew "sevens." It is clear that one "week" means seven years (4:16; 7:25). God had decreed 70 sevens for the accomplishment of six purposes. These purposes concern the Jews ("your people") and Jerusalem ("holy city"). But, of course, the results of God's work there would affect the whole world. Question: Were these six purposes fulfilled at the first coming of Christ and at His death? Or will they be fulfilled sometime in the future? The author of these notes believes that by the sacrifice of Christ the foundation was laid for the fulfillment of these purposes, but that as regards Israel as a nation and Jerusalem not all of them have been fulfilled. For example, Jerusalem remained sinful and in rebellion against God after the death of Christ and was destroyed in 70 AD. It remains in rebellion to this day.

The words "seal up prophecy" probably means here to completely fulfill it and to lay it aside as being no longer necessary (1 Cor 13:8). Certainly not all prophecies concerning the Jews and Jerusalem were fulfilled at the first coming of Christ. Another reason for thinking these six purposes were not all fulfilled at the first coming of Christ is this: 70 sevens are decreed to fulfill these purposes, but Christ was put to death after 69 sevens and before the 70th was finished (vs 25,26).

"Finish" – or, possibly, "restrain."

"The Most Holy" – this may refer either to the Most Holy Place in the temple or to the Most Holy One (Christ).

and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

25 "Know therefore and understand that from the issuing of the command to restore and build Jerusalem to the Messiah the Prince will be seven 'weeks', and sixth-two 'weeks'. The streets and the wall will be rebuilt, but in troublesome times. 26 And after the sixty-two 'weeks' Messiah will be cut off, but not for himself. And the people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary; and its end will come as with a flood, and to the end of the war desolations are decreed. 27 And he will confirm a covenant with many for

9:25 The decree mentioned here was probably that of king Artaxerxes in 445 BC. See Neh 2:1-9. The temple had been finished and some other buildings had been constructed in Jerusalem before then. But it could not be said that the city had been rebuilt, for Nehemiah said he wished to go and rebuild it, and he received permission to do so. Some of the troubles he had in rebuilding the city are recorded in Nehemiah chapters 4 and 6. From the time of the decree to rebuild Jerusalem until the ministry and death of the Messiah (the Lord Jesus) 69 sevens were to be completed.

If this time period is calculated according to the lunar year which the Jews used (360 days to a year), it reaches to the last days of Christ on earth. So we have here a prophecy of the time of the death of Christ given more than five centuries before.

9:26 "Cut off" – this word was used in the Old Testament for the death penalty. See Ex 31:14; Lev 7:20,21,25,27; 20:2,3.

"Not for himself" – this could also be translated "have nothing" or "have no one." Christ certainly did not die for himself, but for us, and on the cross, in the place of sinners, he was forsaken by both God and men (Matt 26:56; 27:46), and had received nothing that rightly belonged to Him as the Messiah of Israel.

"Will destroy the city and the sanctuary" – this probably refers to the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple in 70 AD by the Romans. This took place nearly 40 years after the end of the 69 sevens. "The ruler who will come" – probably means the final ruler of the Roman Empire at the end of this age, the antichrist, the "little horn" of chapter 7. It is important to observe that in this verse that coming ruler is said to belong to the same nation or people who destroyed Jerusalem.

9:27 "He will confirm a covenant" – some have taught that this refers to the Messiah mentioned in vs 25,26. But how can one "seven" (almost certainly meaning seven years) have to do with the covenant Christ confirmed to His disciples just before His death (Matt 26:26-29)? That covenant was not for seven years, nor did it take seven years to confirm it.

What seems a better explanation is this: "he" is the coming ruler of the people who destroyed Jerusalem in 70 AD mentioned one 'week', but in the middle of the 'week' he will put a stop to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of abominations will be one who creates desolation, until the end that is decreed is poured out on the desolator."

10 In the third year of Cyrus, king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the message was true, and involved a great conflict. And he understood the message, and had understanding of the vision.

in the last part of v 26 (the people of the Roman Empire). He has not yet appeared. When he comes to power he will confirm an agreement for seven years with many. The "many" probably refers to the majority of Jews living in Israel at the end of this age. In the middle of the seven, that is, after 3 and 1/2 years he will stop the rituals and worship of the Jews (compare 11:31; 12:11), and will try to make himself the only object of worship in Israel (and, for that matter, throughout the whole world). This will be the "abomination of desolation" that Christ warned about in Matt 24:15, and the act of the "man of lawlessness" Paul described in 2 Thess 2:3,4.

A difficult question which arises from this interpretation is this: Why is the 70th "seven" separated from the 69 "sevens" by a great many centuries (Christ was crucified after the 69th in the first century of this age, but the 70th occurs at the end of the age)? The answer may be that the book of Daniel is not at all concerned with the course of this present age. In chapter 2 four kingdoms are seen – Babylonian, Persian, Grecian, and Roman; then the thought leaps to the end of this age to the second coming of Christ. In chapter 7 the same four kingdoms are seen; then again many centuries are passed over in silence until the antichrist appears and is destroyed at the second coming of Christ. So we should not be surprised at the same way of treating events here in chapter 9.

"On the wing of abominations will be" – this may also be translated "will place abominations on a wing of" (the temple).

10:1 Chapters 10-12 form a unit and give things Daniel saw and heard on the same occasion.

"Third year of Cyrus" – Daniel was an aged man. He had been brought to Babylon more than 70 years previously as a youth.

"True and involved a great conflict" – or it could be translated "true and concerned an extended conflict", or possibly "true and burdensome," or "true and the appointed time is a long way off," or "true and covers a long period of time," but the translation in the text above seems best. The problem with translating here is that the Hebrew words have more than one meaning and so the phrase is ambiguous. See note on the Hebrew language at Ps 14:7.

2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three full weeks. 3 I ate no pleasant food, and no meat or wine came into my mouth, and I did not anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were over.

4 And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, the Hiddekel, 5 I lifted my eyes and looked and saw a man clothed in linen. He had a belt of fine gold of Uphaz around his waist. 6 And his body gleamed like beryl, and his face had the appearance of lightning, and his eyes shone like lamps of fire, and in colour his arms and his feet were like polished brass, and the sound of his words was like the sound of a multitude.

7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but great trembling fell on them, so that they ran away to hide themselves. 8 Therefore I was left alone and saw this great vision; and no strength remained in me, for my vigour changed in me to utter weakness, and I retained no strength. 9 Yet I heard the sound of his words. And when I heard the sound of his words, I was in a deep sleep on my face, my face toward the ground.

10 And, suddenly, a hand touched me, which placed me on my knees and the palms of my hands. 11 And he said to me, "O Daniel, O man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for I have now been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me,

10:2,3 We are not told why Daniel fasted and mourned. Perhaps it was because of the troubles the Jews were having in Jerusalem (see Ezra 4:1-5). Perhaps it was because of the sins of those left in Babylon, or because of their lack of desire to return to Jerusalem to help in the work there.

10:5-7 A vision of a great and glorious person who can hardly have been anyone other than the Son of God. Compare v 6 with Rev 1:13-16. Concerning other appearances of the Son of God as the divine messenger see Gen 16:7.

10:8,9 Rev 1:17; Isa 6:5.

10:10 It does not say that "His" hand touched Daniel. This may refer to the hand of an angel. In the verses which follow, the speaker may be different from the one who appeared in such glory in vs 5-9. But it is not clear whether two beings or only one are with Daniel in this chapter – v 16. Certainly in chapter 12 (which was given at the same time as this) two others are seen (12:5,6).

10:11 "Greatly beloved" – note at 9:23.

10:12 "From the first day" – Isa 30:19; 58:9; 65:24. Here is great encouragement for all those who, like Daniel, humble themselves and seek an understanding of God's revelation. God delights to hear the prayers of such people.

10:13 This verse reveals something of what I stood trembling.

12 Then said he to me, "Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words. 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me for twenty-one days. But, see, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, and I remained there with the kings of Persia. 14 Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision concerns days still future."

15 And when he was speaking these words to me, I turned my face to the ground, and was speechless. 16 And, suddenly, someone like the sons of men in appearance touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to the one who was standing in front of me, "O my lord, because of the vision sorrows have overwhelmed me, and I have no strength left. 17 For how can this servant of my lord talk with you my lord? For as for me, now no strength remains in me, no breath is left in me."

18 Then the one who had the appearance of a man came again and touched me and strengthened me, 19 and said, "O man greatly beloved, do not fear. Peace be with you. Be strong, yes, be strong." And when he had spoken to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have goes on in the unseen realm of spirits. It also gives a reason why the answer to a prayer may be delayed.

"Prince" – he is not the same as the king of Persia in the same verse. The king was Cyrus. Who was this "prince" (ruler)? It is said that he resisted God's angelic messenger, so he was hostile to God. The angel Michael is also called a "prince." It seems clear that the prince of the Persian kingdom was a fallen angel, an evil spirit who was trying to influence king Cyrus against the Jews. Verse 20 speaks of the "prince" of Greece. In v 21 Michael is called "your" (that is, the people of Israel's) prince.

Evidently there is a war going on in the unseen world of spirits between those sent to do God's will and those who oppose them. On angels see note at Gen 16:7. For other references to fallen angels see Isa 24:21; 1 Cor 8:5; 10:20; Eph 6:12; Rev 12:7. What goes on among the nations of earth is partly a result of spiritual battles fought in the unseen world – and praying believers have a part in it all. If our prayers are not immediately answered we should not think no answer will come, but continue on in faith.

10:14 "Your people" – the Jewish nation. The rest of the book of Daniel, in large part, is concerned with what will happen to that people.

10:20 "Prince of Greece" – the most come to you? And now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. And when I have gone away, see, the prince of Greece will come. 21 But I will tell you what is inscribed in the true writings. (And there is no one who upholds me against these powers, except Michael your prince.)

11 And in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to support and strengthen him.)

2 "And now I will tell you this truth: See, there will still be three kings in Persia who arise, and the fourth will be far richer than them all; and by his strength, through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the realm of Greece. 3 And a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great authority, and act according to his will. 4 And when he arises, his kingdom will be broken and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not among his posterity, or according to the authority with which he ruled. For his kingdom will be uprooted for others instead of those.

5 "And the king of the south will be strong, along with one of his princes who will gain power over him, and have dominion. His dominion will be a great dominion. 6 And at the end of some years they will join together, for the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to reach an agreement. But she will not retain the power of authority, and neither he nor his authority will stand. But she will be given up with those who brought her there, and her father, and the one who strengthened her at that time.

7 "But out of a branch of her roots someone will arise in his place. He will come with an army, and enter the fortress of the king of the north, and powerful of the evil spirits Satan had appointed to fulfill his evil will in that nation.

10:21 "The true writings" – apparently a heavenly record of those things that God had decreed should happen. This truth is revealed in some detail in the next two chapters.

11:1 "Darius" – 5:31.

11:2 From here to 12:4, beginning with Daniel's day and going on to the end of this age, there is a remarkable glimpse into the future. The prophecies contained in verses 2-36 were fulfilled over a period of 362 years.

"Three kings" – Cambyses, Pseudo-Smerdis, Darius Hystaspis. The fourth was Xerxes (the Ahasuerus of the book of Esther). He launched an invasion against Greece in 480 BC which failed.

11:3 Alexander the Great (336-323 B.C.).

11:4 "Four" – 7:4-7; 8:8. After Alexander's death his empire broke into four parts.

11:5-34 Gives us the struggle for dominance between two of the four parts of Alexander's former empire. The king of the south is the ruler of Egypt. The king of the north is the ruler of Syria and lands allied deal with them, and prevail, 8 and will also carry away as captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their valuable articles of silver and of gold. And he will continue more years than the king of the north. 9 So the king of the north will come to his kingdom, but will return to his own land. 10 But his sons will be stirred up, and shall assemble a great many forces, and they will certainly come like an overflowing flood passing through, coming back then, stirred up to wage war as far as his fortress.

11 "And the king of the south will be moved with rage, and come out and fight with him, with the king of the north, who will muster a great multitude. But the multitude will be given into the hand of his enemy. 12 And when the king of the south has taken away the multitude, his heart will be lifted up with pride, and he will overthrow many tens of thousands, but he will not remain in a position of strength by it. 13 For the king of the north will return, having mustered a multitude greater than the former one. He will certainly come after some years with a great army and much equipment.

14 "And in those times many will stand up against the king of the south. Also the violent ones among your people will exalt themselves to fulfil the vision; but they will fall. 15 So the king of the north will come, and build up a siege mound, and take the most fortified cities; and the arms of the south will not withstand him; nor will his chosen people; nor will there be any strength for withstanding. 16 But the one who comes against him will do according to his own will, and no one will be able to stand before him. And he will stand in the glorious land, with destruction in his hands. 17 He will also set his face with Syria. A very few commentators have taught that all these verses relate to the end of this present age. The great majority have taught that they give a succession of rulers of those two kingdoms over a period of roughly 160 years, beginning in 323 BC. This is the view given in these notes. The first king of the south was Ptolemy Soter, a Macedonian. The first king of the north was Seleucus. The land of Israel was directly between the kings of the north and the kings of the south.

11:6 "Daughter" – Berenice.

"King of North" – Antiochus II.

11:7-9 "One from her family line" – this was Ptolemy III.

"King of the north" – Seleucus II.

11:10 "His sons" – Seleucus III and Antiochus III.

11:11-13 "King of the south" – Ptolemy IV defeated Antiochus III in a battle at Raphia.

11:14 "South" – Ptolemy V.

"Among your people" – Jews who joined forces with the king of the north.

11:16 "One who comes" – Antiochus III.

11:17 "Daughter" – Cleopatra I. The

to come with the power of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him. He will do this. And he will give him the daughter of women, to ruin it. but she will not stand on his side, or be for him. 18 After this he will turn his face to the coastlands, and take many. But a prince will put a stop to the scorn shown by him, and will make his scorn turn back on him. 19 Then he will turn his face toward the fortress of his own land, but he will stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 "Then in his place will arise someone who imposes taxes for the glory of the kingdom. But within a few days he will be destroyed, but not in anger, or in battle.

21 "And in his place a contemptible person will arise. They will not give royal honours to him, but he will come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by intrigue. 22 And with the power of a flood they will be swept away from before him, and will be shattered, yes, also the prince of the covenant. 23 And after an alliance has been made with him he will act deceitfully. For he will come up, and become strong with a small number of people. 24 He will enter peaceably into even the richest places of the province, and will do what neither his fathers or grandfathers ever did; he will distribute among them the plunder, and loot, and riches. Yes, and he will devise his plots against the strongholds, but only for a time.

25 "And he will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south will be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army. But he will not stand, for they will devise plots against him. 26 Yes, those who eat of the food he provides will destroy him, and his army will be swept away, and many will fall down slain. 27 And both these kings' hearts will be set on evil, and they will speak lies at the same table. But it will not succeed, for the end will still come at the appointed time. 28 Then he will return to his land with great riches. And his heart will be set against the holy covenant, and he will take action, and return to his own land.

29 "At the appointed time he will return, and come to the south. But this latter time will not be like the former. 30 For the ships of Kittim will come against him; therefore he will be disheartened, and return in fury against the holy covenant, and take action. Yes, he will return and be favorable toward those who forsake the holy covenant.

31 "And forces of his will arise and defile the sanctuary stronghold, and will take away the daily sacrifice; and they will put there the abomination that causes desolation. 32 And he will corrupt by flattery those who act wickedly against the covenant, but the people who know their God will be strong, and do exploits.

33 "And those among the people who understand will instruct many. Yet for many days they will fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by plundering. 34 Now when they fall, they will be aided by a little help, but many will join them who are not sincere. 35 And some of those who have understanding will fall, to refine them, and to purify them, and to make them white, until the time of the end. For it will still come at the

Hebrew of this verse is very obscure and difficult to translate.

11:18 "Prince" – a Roman leader named Scipio Asiaticus.

11:19 Antiochus III perished in 187 BC in Elymais.

11:20 "In his place" – Seleucus IV.

11:21 Antiochus IV, also known as Antiochus Epiphanes. See 8:9-13,23-25. He seized power when the rightful heir to the throne was very young.

11:22-24 At first Antiochus IV was very successful in battle. But he was very treacherous toward those who had made agreements with him.

11:25 "King of the south" – Ptolemy VI.

11:26 "Army" – Ptolemy's army.

11:27 "These kings" – Antiochus IV and Ptolemy VI.

11:28 "Against the holy covenant" – Antiochus hated Israel. In 169 BC he came to Jerusalem, killed many Jews, and plundered the temple.

11:29 "Appointed time" – the time appointed by God to fulfill His purposes through Antiochus.

11:30 "Ships" – Roman ships commanded by Papilius Laenas.

"Holy covenant" – v 28.

"Those who forsake" – apostate Jews who sided with Antiochus (v 32).

11:31 In 168 BC Antiochus sent troops to take possession of Jerusalem. They attacked people on the Sabbath day and took captive many women and children. The temple was taken and Antiochus ordered the Jews to stop all sacrifices. He had an altar to the Greek god Zeus erected in the temple court on the altar of burnt offering. This was the state of things for more than three years. This abomination of desolation was not the same as that Jesus spoke of in Matt 24:15, but was a type, a picture of it. See Dan 9:27; 12:11.

11:32,33 The Jews were divided. Some wicked and ambitious persons came under the influence of Antiochus. Other Jews were strong to resist him, taught the people the truth, and endured great persecution at his hands. They were Jews who knew God and were willing to suffer for Him. Compare Heb 11:36-38.

11:34 "Not sincere" – in every age there will be hypocrites who say one thing and do another.

11:35 "Fall" – the very "falling" of the wise will be, in God's hands, a means to their further refinement and purification. The appointed time.

36 "And the king will do just as he wishes. And he will exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and will speak extraordinary things against the God of gods, and will be successful until the time of indignation is fulfilled. For what is decreed will be done. 37 He will not have regard for the God of his fathers, or for the one women desire, or have regard for any god; for he will exalt himself above all. 38 But in their place he will honour a god of fortresses, will honour a god unknown to his fathers, with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and desirable things. 39 Thus he will do in the strongest fortresses with a strange god. He will give great honour to those who acknowledge him, and he will cause them to rule over many, and will divide up the land for gain.

40 "And at the time of the end the king of the south will push at him, and the king of the north will come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he will invade countries, and overwhelm them and

Hebrew word here translated "fall" means to stumble from lack of strength. The truly wise through stumbling in their weakness will learn to seek and find their strength in God. Then there will be no stumbling (Isa 40:31). On refining see Ps 66:10-12.

"The time of the end" – perhaps the end of that particular time of persecution. Or the phrase may point suddenly to the end of this age. The verses which follow actually do so – v 40-45. As in chapters 2, 7, and 9 many centuries are passed over in silence and the end of this age is brought into view.

11:36-45 The king here is not Antiochus Epiphanes whose doings are described in vs 21-32. There is no evidence that he magnified himself above every god and showed no regard for the gods of his fathers (vs 36,37). And the death of Antiochus was different from that described in verses 44,45. Antiochus was but a type or picture of this one who will come at the "time of the end" (v 40).

The language of v 40 is obscure in Hebrew, so it is difficult to know whether the king of v 36 is attacked by both the king of the south and the king of the north, or whether he himself is the king of the north who attacks the king of the south. If he is the king of the north, vs 41-45 refer to him. If he is not the king of the north they do not refer to him. Since the language is obscure we should be careful not to be dogmatic and make statements which cannot be proved. The fulfillment will make the prophecy clear.

11:36 7:8; 2 Thess 2:3,4; Rev 13:5,6. Here is the essence of sin – self-will and self-exaltation. It began with Adam's one act of self-will in the garden of Eden. It will end with one man of utter self-will ruling pass on through.

41 "He will also invade the glorious land, and many countries will be overthrown. But these will escape from his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the leaders of the children of Ammon. 42 He will also stretch out his hand over other countries, and the land of Egypt will not escape. 43 But he will have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the desirable things of Egypt, and the Libyans and the Ethiopians will be at his feet. 44 But news from the east and from the north will trouble him, therefore he will set out with great fury to destroy, and do away with many. 45 And he will pitch his palace tents between the seas in the glorious holy mountain. Yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

12 "And at that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the children of your people, will arise. And there will be a time of trouble such as never occurred since there was a nation until that same time. And at that time your people the earth and the vast majority of people bowing down to him.

"Time of indignation" – Isa 26:20,21; 30:27,28; 34:2; Jer 30:4-8; Dan 8:19; 12:1; Joel 3:12-16; Matt 24:21,22.

11:37 "God" – or, perhaps "gods." This future king may possibly be either an apostate Christian or an apostate Jew.

11:38 "God of fortresses" – he will honor the person who helps him to be victorious in war. This will be the only "god" he will show respect for. Though the language of verses 36,37 suggests this king may be the "man of lawlessness" of 2 Thess 2:3,4 and the first beast of Revelation chapter 13, he may be the second beast of Revelation 13 (13:4,11-17). We should not be dogmatic about this.

11:39 "The land" – Israel. No other country could be designated here simply "the land".

11:40-45 The king of the north is in view here. He may or may not be the same as the king of v 36.

11:40 He will make many conquests (vs 41-43). Compare Rev 6:2; 13:4,7.

11:41 "Glorious land" – Israel (v 16; 8:9; Ezek 20:6).

"Edom", "Moab", "Ammon" – countries east and southeast of Israel.

11:44 "East" and "north" – compare Ezek 38:1-9; Rev 16:12-16. At the end of this age the armies of all earth's great nations will be marching toward Israel (Joel 3:9-16; Zech 12:2,3; 14:2-4).

11:45 "Between the seas" – the Mediterranean and the Dead Sea.

"Holy mountain" – Ps 48:1,2.

"To his end" – 2 Thess 2:8; Rev 19:19,20.

12:1 "Michael" – 10:13.

"Trouble" – a time of trouble is coming which will be worse than any the world has

will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. 2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. 3 And those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavenly expanse, and those who turn many to righteousness like the stars forever and ever. 4 But you, Daniel, shut away the words, and seal the book, until the time of the end. Many will travel here and there, and knowledge will increase."

5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and saw two others standing there, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. 6 And one said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long will it be to the end of these wonders?"

ever seen. The Lord Jesus warned about it in Matt 24:21. Verses 29,30 of the same chapter make it clear that He was speaking of the end of this age.

"Your people" – Daniel's people were Jews. They will be at the center of that time of trouble called in the New Testament "great tribulation" (Matt 24:21; Rev 7:14). But this does not mean that non-Jews will not suffer at that time. It will be a time of trouble for some from every tribe and nation (Rev 7:9; 12:17; 13:7,8; 20:4).

"Delivered" – Isa 45:17; Jer 30:7-9; Zech 12:8,9; 14:3; Rom 11:26,27; Rev 7:1-8; 12:13-17. This probably speaks of the physical deliverance from danger of those Jews whom God has chosen. It is not the same as the resurrection spoken of in the next verse.

"Book" – Ex 32:32; Luke 10:20; Phil 4:3; Rev 20:12.

12:2 "Will awake" – refers to the resurrection of the dead. Does this teach a general resurrection of the saved and unsaved at the same time? Nothing is said about the saved and unsaved dead rising at the same time – only the fact is given that both classes of people will rise. Rev 20:4-6 seems to teach clearly that there will be two resurrections separated by a thousand years. The prophets of the Old Testament spoke of events separated by long periods of time without indicating those events would be so separated. There are other examples of this in the book of Daniel. See the closing remarks in the note on 9:27.

12:3 "Wise" – v 10; 11:33; Job 28:28; Ps 111:10; Prov 1:7; 3:35. There are not two separate classes of people here. The wise are those who will lead many to righteousness – that is one way their true wisdom is revealed. See Prov 11:30. By their teaching and righteous living many will be turned to the God of righteousness and be made righteous themselves. This verse gives only a hint of the eternal reward and glory which await those who live such a wise

7 And I heard the man dressed in linen speak, the one above the waters of the river, as he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven and swore by him who lives forever that it will be for a time, times, and half a time, and that when the power of the holy people has been fully shattered, all these things will be finished.

8 And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, "My Lord, what will be the result of these things?"

9 And he said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. 10 Many will be purified, and made white, and refined. But the wicked will behave wickedly, and none of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.

11 "And from the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the abomination that causes and righteous life.

12:4 "Seal. . .until the time of the end" – 8:26. The book of Daniel has now been preserved for more than 2,500 years.

12:5,6 A continuation of the vision which begins at 10:4,5. The question in v 6 seems to be, not how long will it be before those events are fulfilled? but, how long will it take to fulfill them once they began to take place? The events meant seem to be those of 11:35 - 12:1.

12:7 This taking of an oath indicates that a very solemn and important matter is being referred to. Compare Deut 32:40,41; Ps 110:4; Heb 6:13-18; Rev 10:5,6.

"Time, times, and half a time" – see 7:25; 9:27; Rev 12:14; etc.

"Holy people" – the nation of Israel is called a holy people because God separated it from all other nations to be His special treasure (Ex 19:6; Deut 7:6). Now believers in Christ are called a holy nation (1 Pet 2:9,10). Who is meant here in Daniel? Israel and the holy land have been at the heart of the prophecy to this point (10:14; 11:39,31-34,45; 12:1). Here the meaning seems to be that the end will come when the nation of Israel is crushed and brought to its lowest condition.

12:8 He did not understand the meaning of the words in v 7. He wanted to know the end result of the things of the prophecy given to him.

12:9,10 It was not necessary for Daniel to understand anything further, and the Lord did not attempt to satisfy his curiosity. The heart of the prophecy related to the time of the end. Then the wise would be able to know all they would need to know. As the events unfold they will be able to understand what is happening. As for the wicked, their wickedness will blind them, and they will worship the antichrist.

"Refined" – 11:35; Zech 13:9; Mal 3:2-4. See Ps 66:10-12.

12:11 The abolishing of sacrifices and the appearance of the abomination of desolation is set up, there will be one thousand two hundred and ninety days. 12 Blessed is the one who waits, and comes to the end of the thousand three hundred and thirty-five desolation are referred to also in 9:27 and 11:31. This verse does not say what will happen at the end of 1290 days. The persecutions by antichrist are said to be a time, times, and half a time (1260 days, 42 months). We are not told here what happens during these 30 extra days.

12:12 The meaning of this too is now hidden from us. Those who reach the end of those days will understand the blessedness of it. If we do not understand now it should not trouble us. Let us remember in the study of prophecy an important matter or two – living a life of love for God and man is far more important than understanding all days.

13 “But you, go your way until the end. For you will rest, and rise to receive your allotted portion at the end of the days.”

prophecy (1 Cor 13:2), and knowledge has a tendency to puff us up but love to build us up (1 Cor 8:1). But if we ask God in faith He will give us all the understanding we need to live lives of integrity and faithfulness whatever time we may live in. And to faithful believers who are living when prophecies of the end time at last have their fulfillment He will surely give all the understanding they will need to have.

12:13 “Rest” – here means death.

“Rise” – v 2.

“Allotted portion” – Matt 5:5; Acts 20:32; Rom 8:17; Eph 1:11; Col 1:12; 3:24; Heb 9:15.

HOSEA

Author:

Hosea, the son of Beerī. His name means “salvation” or “save”. All we know about him is what is written in this book. Neither he nor his ministry is mentioned anywhere else in the Old Testament.

Date:

The kings mentioned in the first verse reigned 740-700 BC. Hosea and Isaiah prophesied at the same time. See Isa 1:1.

Theme:

The people of Israel had forsaken the true God and had fallen into false worship and idolatry. As a result their personal lives and their national life as a whole had become corrupt. Hosea (and God speaking through Hosea) urged them to repent and turn back to the God they had deserted. He set forth the long-suffering love of God, and depicted Israel as an adulterous wife. Though the behavior of His people brought great grief to God, He did not cease to love them, or to call them back to Himself. The prophet shows that eventually Israel would turn back to God.

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 At the beginning of the word of the LORD to Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, "Go, take a prostitute as your wife, and have children by a prostitute; for the land has engaged in great prostitution, departing from the LORD." 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim. She conceived and bore him a son.

4 And the LORD said to him, "Call his name Jezreel; for in just a little while I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 And on that day it will come about that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

6 And she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And God said to him, "Call her name

1:1 "The word . . . came" – 2 Sam 24:11; 1 Kings 16:7; Isa 38:4; Jer 1:2; Ezek 1:3. "Hosea" – the name means "save" or "salvation."

"Kings of Judah" – Isa 1:1. Isaiah and Hosea lived and prophesied during the same years.

"Son of Joash" – 2 Kings 14:23-29.

1:2 "The LORD to Hosea" – the prophets of the Bible were living channels through whom the Word of God came. Compare 2 Sam 23:2; Jer 1:9; Matt 22:43; Acts 28:25; 2 Tim 3:16; Heb 4:7; 2 Pet 1:21.

"Prostitute as your wife" – a possible meaning is this: God was telling him to marry a woman who He foresaw would later prove unfaithful to Hosea (3:1).

"Prostitution" – here the Lord is speaking of spiritual matters; the people of Israel had been unfaithful to God. See Ex 34:15; Lev 17:7; Deut 31:16; Jud 2:17; Jer 2:2,20; Ezek 16:15-34; 23:2,3. In spiritual matters forsaking God is the vilest thing that people can do.

1:3 Gomer means "perfection," but she proved far from perfect. Perfection is also what God wants for His people (compare Matt 5:48), but Israel as a nation proved as bad as Gomer the individual.

1:4 "Jezreel" – a wide valley or plain in the northern part of Palestine south of the hills of Galilee. Hosea was to name his son Jezreel as a sign to Israel. Compare Isa 8:3,18. The name means "God scatters". God was signifying what He was going to do.

"Jehu" – 1 Kings 19:16. The account of his rise to power in Israel and the massacre in the valley of Jezreel is in 2 Kings chapters 9 and 10. Jehu was the instrument God used in punishing the house of the wicked king Ahab, but God punished the house of Jehu for their own wickedness. Compare Isa 10:5,6,12; Jer 51:20-25.

"Cause. . . to cease" – 2 Kings 17:1-23. The kingdom of Israel was made up of ten tribes descended from Jacob (Israel). It

Lo-Ruhamah; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, but will utterly take them away. 7 But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them through the LORD their God, but will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by battle, by horses, or by horsemen."

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. 9 Then God said, "Call his name Lo-Ammi; for you are not my people, and I will not be your God."

10 "Yet the number of the children of Israel will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or numbered. And this will happen: in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people', there it will be said to them, 'You are the sons of the living God.' 11 Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and appoint one head for themselves, and they will come up out of the land; for great will

was different from the kingdom of Judah – v 7. 1 Kings chapter 12 describes how the division came about.

1:5 Israel's military power was broken in the valley of Jezreel some months before Samaria fell to the Assyrians.

1:6 "Lo-Ruhamah" – means "not an obtainer of mercy", "not loved." God had borne patiently with the northern kingdom for two hundred years. He sent them great prophets like Elijah and Elisha. See 2 Kings 17:13. But they refused His love and trampled underfoot all His commands. At last things had reached a state where God would no longer bear it and so He brought their kingdom to an end. Compare Gen 6:3,6,7; Prov 1:22-29; Jer 7:13,25.

1:7 God showed love to Judah for another hundred and twenty years, until they too went the same way as Israel.

"Not. . . by bow" – Ps 33:16,17; Isa 37:36,37; Zech 4:6.

1:8,9 "Lo-Ammi" means "not my people". Temporarily God was rejecting them because they were rejecting Him. This was according to His word through Moses in Deut 31:16-18. Compare Lev 26:14-39; Deut 28:15-68.

1:10 In Rom 9:26 Paul applies this verse in a spiritual sense to the conversion of non-Jewish peoples. This does not mean that he was teaching there could be no literal fulfillment in the nation of Israel. See Rom 11:26-29. Here through Hosea God says that His rejection of Israel was only temporary.

"Sand" – Gen 22:17; 32:12.

"The place" – the land of Israel. This is where God said that Israel was not His people, so this is where God would call them His sons. This seems to speak of the restoration and transformation of that people descended from Jacob. Compare 2:23; Lev 26:40-45; Isa 11:12; Jer 23:5,6; 30:1-3; 31:27,28; Ezek 37:11-14; Amos 9:14,15.

1:11 "Together" – Ezek 37:15-23.

"One head" – 3:5; Jer 30:21; Ezek 37:24,25.

be the day of Jezreel.

2 "Say to your brethren, 'Ammi,' and to your sisters, 'Ruhamah.'

2 "Bring charges against your mother, bringing charges; for she is not my wife, nor am I her husband. But let her put away her prostitution from her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts,

3 so that I do not strip her naked, and expose her as on the day she was born, and make her like a wilderness, and make her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy on her children, for they are children of prostitution.

5 For their mother has behaved like a prostitute; she who conceived them has acted shamefully. For she said, 'I will go after my lovers who give me my food and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'

6 Therefore, see, I will block your way with thorns, and make a wall so that she cannot find her paths.

7 And she will follow her lovers, but she will not catch up with them; and she will seek them, but not find them. Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband, for then it was better for me than now.'

8 For she did not know that it was I who gave her grain and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they used for Baal.

9 "Therefore I will return, and take away my grain at its time, and my wine in its season, and will take back my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will deliver her from my hand.

11 I will also put a stop to all her rejoicing, her feast days, her new moons, and her Sabbaths, all her appointed feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said, 'These are my rewards that my lovers have given me.'

And I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field will eat them.

13 And I will punish her for the days of the Baals, when she burned incense to them, and adorned herself with her earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers,

"Day of Jezreel" – the day when God blesses His people in the great valley where He once punished them.

2:1 Compare 1:6,8. This points to a complete reversal of God's dealings with Israel. Ammi means "my people." Ruhamah means "obtainer of mercy."

2:2 "Bring charges against" – this seems a better translation than "plead with."

"Mother" – from here to the end of the chapter God speaks through the prophet about the kingdom of Israel.

"Not my wife" – Israel was unfaithful to God and was like a woman forsaking her husband (1:2). So He was presently rejecting that people as if He were no longer its "husband".

"Let her put away" – repentance was the only hope for them.

2:3 Ezek 16:37; Lev 26:31-33; Deut 28:63. 2:4,5 1:6. The people of the kingdom of Israel, spiritually speaking, were not the children of God. Israel had turned to idols and the people were "children" of false gods. Morally, ethically and spiritually they were the result of the union of Israel with idolatry.

"I will go" – Jer 3:1,6; 44:17,18.

2:6 God would make it very difficult for Israel to continue in its idolatrous practices.

2:7 This suggests that Israel would experience great disappointments with the idols and gods it went after, and eventually return to the one true God. Compare Lev 26:40-45.

2:8 Verse 5. The people thought God's good gifts came from the false gods they worshiped.

"Used for Baal" – compare Ezek 16:15-19. Note on "Baal" at Jud 2:11.

2:9-13 God had made Israel prosperous, and He would ruin their prosperity because of their idolatry and many sins.

2:9 "Grain" – "corn" (KJV) was not then a crop in that part of the world.

2:10 "From my hand" – see Heb 10:31. None of the gods Israel worshiped, none of the nations it begged for help would be able to rescue it.

2:11 Their religious feasts had become a mockery. God had appointed them (Leviticus chapter 23), but they had no heart for God when they observed them. Compare Isa 1:12-17. So for a time He would make it impossible to them to observe them.

2:13 God declares repeatedly in His Word that He will punish idolatry – Deut 13:1-8; 27:15; Rev 21:8.

"Forgot me" – the very thing God often warned them about (Deut 6:12; 8:11, 14,19).

and forgot me, says the LORD.

- 14 "Therefore, see, I will allure her,
and bring her into the wilderness,
and speak to her heart.
- 15 And there I will give her vineyards back to her and the valley of Achor
as a door of hope.
And she will sing there,
as in the days of her youth,
and as on the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
- 16 "And it shall be on that day,
says the LORD, that you will call me Ishi,
and will no longer call me Baali.
- 17 For I will take away the names of the Baal's from her mouth,
and they will no more be remembered by their name.
- 18 And on that day I will make a covenant
for them with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the sky,
and with the creeping things of
the ground.
And I will break the bow and the sword and abolish war from the earth, and will cause them to lie down in safety.
- 19 And I will betroth you to me forever;

- yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, and in justice, and in loving kindness, and in mercies.
- 20 I will betroth you to me in faithfulness;
and you will know the LORD.
- 21 "And it will happen on that day that I will answer, says the LORD,
I will answer the heavens,
and they will answer the earth, 22 And the earth will answer the grain
and the wine and the oil, and they will answer Jezreel.
- 23 And I will sow her for myself in the earth.
And I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy, and I will say to those who were not my people, 'You are my people,' and they will say, 'You are my God.'

3 Then the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by a friend, but an adulteress. Show her love just like the love of the LORD for the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love their raisin cakes."

2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and for a homer and a half of barley.
3 And I said to her, "You shall stay with me for many days. You shall not engage in prostitution, and you

2:14-23 God here speaks of a time after Israel had suffered its punishment. He says He will bring the people back to Himself. See 1:10 - 2:1.

2:14 God is saying He will take the nation Israel again as His "wife". That time will be like a new "betrothal" (vs 19,20).

"Speak to her heart" – the literal translation of the Hebrew.

2:15 "Give her" – restore Israel's prosperity.

"Achor" – compare Isa 65:10. Achor was the place where Achan was punished for his sin – Josh 7:25,26. The word means "trouble". But God would transform trouble into blessing when Israel turned back to Him.

"Sing" – or possibly "respond."

"Youth" – compare Jer 2:2.

"Egypt" – 12:9; Ex 12:51; 14:30,31.

2:16 "Ishi" – means "my husband" – Isa 54:5.

"Baali" – means "my master" or "my Baal."

2:17 Compare Ex 23:13; Ps 16:4. God says He will break Israel free from idolatry and fulfill the righteousness of the law in them.

2:18 In other words, wild beasts will not harm them as they did in the time of their punishment (v 12). Compare Isa 11:6-9.

"Abolish war" – Ps 46:9; Isa 2:4; Zech 9:10.

2:19,20 The LORD (Jehovah – Ex 3:14,15) will again take Israel as His "bride". From then on the five qualities He lists in these verses will prevail. Compare Isa 1:27; 54:8.

"In righteousness" – or "with righteousness."
"Know" – compare Jer 24:7; 31:34.

2:21,22 When Israel turns back to God He will make the land and the people fruitful and prosperous again.

2:23 "In the earth" – or "in the land" – Jer 23:8; Ezek 36:24; 37:24,25; Amos 9:15. The same Hebrew word means both earth and land.

"My people" – 1:8; 2:1. Compare Rom 9:25. See note at Hos 1:10.

"My God" – they will take the one true God as their God again and renounce false gods and idols.

3:1 "Adulteress" – 1:2. The Lord for a time would not show His love to Israel – 1:6, but His love had not been destroyed (compare Song of songs 8:6,7). We should be very glad that God's love is not as changeable and fleeting as ours can be.

"Raisin cakes" – these were offerings the people made for the false god Baal.

3:2,3 "Fifteen shekels" – about 170 grams. It seems from this that Gomer, Hosea's wife, had become a slave. Possibly one of her lovers had sold her into slavery. So Hosea paid in money and grain the total price to buy her back. The value put on a female slave was thirty shekels – Ex 21:7,32.

"Homer and a half" – about ten bushels or 330 liters. Gomer's slavery was a picture of the captivity and enslavement of Israel to foreign nations. But God would release them from captivity in due time (Jer 30:8).

shall not be for another man; so I will also be for you."

4 For the children of Israel will remain many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim. 5 Afterward the children of Israel will return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and will show reverence for the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

4 Hear the word of the LORD,
you children of Israel;
for the LORD has a controversy to bring with the inhabitants of the land:
"For there is no faithfulness, or mercy,
or knowledge of God in the land,
2 but swearing, and lying, and killing,
and stealing, and committing adultery.
They use violence, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.
3 Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who lives in it will waste away,
along with the beasts of the field and the birds of the sky;

3:4 God would remove them from the land of Israel and bring them under foreign rule. They would not be able to worship as they had been doing.

"Ephod" – see Ex 25:7. Here the word is used of something connected with idolatry, and not for the purpose God designed.

"Teraphim" – household gods.

3:5 This is a clear statement of the future turning of Israel to God (5:15; Isa 10:20).

"David" – see Jer 30:9; Ezek 34:23,24; 37:24,25.

"The latter days" – Deut 4:30; Isa 2:2; Jer 50:4,5.

4:1 "Word of the LORD" – 1:1.

"Controversy" – God now brings against the people of the northern kingdom of Israel (v 15) a fuller description of their wrongdoing.

"No faithfulness" – Ps 12:1; 18:25,26; 78:8,37.

"No mercy" – they were failing in everything God wanted them to be.

"No knowledge" – 2:20. They did not know the Lord and did not want to know Him. Compare Rom 1:28.

4:2 "Swearing" – the Hebrew means to pronounce a curse on.

"Use violence. . . bloodshed" – when a people lack faithfulness, mercy and the knowledge of God there will be little or no restraints on their sinful nature. They will plunge into the evils God most hates (Prov 6:16-19).

4:3 There are terrible penalties that come on people who live as Israel did. Their whole country would be involved in punishment for yes, the fish in the sea will also be taken away.

4 "But let no man strive, or rebuke another; for your people are like those who strive with the priest.

5 Therefore you will stumble in the day, and the prophet also will stumble with you in the night, and I will destroy your mother.

6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

Because you have rejected knowledge,

I will also reject you,

so that you will not be a priest for me.

Since you have forgotten the law of your God,

I will also forget your children.

7 The more they increased, the more they sinned against me;

therefore I will change their glory into shame.

8 They feed on the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their evil.

9 And it will be,

'Like people, like priest';

and I will punish them for their ways,

their sins.

4:4 All were guilty, people and priests alike, so no one should accuse and condemn anyone else. Compare Rom 2:1-4.

"Priest" – note at Ex 28:1.

4:5 "Day," "night" – there was no rest from sinning. Sin makes a cruel master, keeping its slaves on the job continually.

"Prophet also" – compare Isa 28:7; Jer 2:8,26; 5:13,31; 6:13; Ezek 13:2.

"Mother" – the kingdom of Israel.

4:6 Lack of knowledge of God and His ways is a great destroyer of people – Prov 1:29-32; 10:21; Isa 1:3; Eph 4:18,19.

"Rejected knowledge" – He speaks now to the priests and says their lack of knowledge of God was deliberate. They did not know God and His ways because they did not wish to know.

"Forgotten the law" – they failed in their most important task (Deut 31:9-13; 2 Chron 17:8,9; Ezra 7:10).

"Forget your children" – they ignored what was most important to God; He would ignore what was most important to them. Compare Ps 18:25,26; Gal 6:7.

4:7 Compare Ps 106:20; Rom 1:23.

4:8 When people sinned they brought sacrifices to the priests to offer. The priests ate those offerings – Lev 6:24-29. The more the people sinned the more sacrifices they brought and the more the priests could take for themselves. They were not the last of the priests or religious leaders to make use of people's sins for selfish reasons. It goes on to this day.

4:9 People will become like their religious

- and repay them for their deeds.
 10 For they will eat, but not have enough.
 They will engage in prostitution,
 but shall not increase;
 because they have stopped obeying the LORD.
 11 Prostitution and wine and new wine take away the heart.
 12 My people ask counsel from their wooden idols, and get their answers from their rod of divination.
 For the spirit of prostitution has caused them to go astray,
 and they have given themselves to prostitution against their God.
 13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because their shade is good.
 Therefore your daughters engage in prostitution and your brides commit adultery.
 14 "I will not punish your daughters
 when they engage in prostitution, or your brides when they commit adultery,
 because the men themselves go off with harlots and offer sacrifices

teachers and leaders and they will be punished like them.

"Repay" – Deut 32:35; 1 Kings 2:32,44; Ps 28:4; Prov 24:12.

4:10-12 "Enough" – Lev 26:26; Micah 6:14.
 "Prostitution" – He probably meant both literal and figurative prostitution, sexual sins and the sin of forsaking the true God for idols (v 13). These two sins sometimes go together.

"Wine" – 7:5,14; Prov 20:1; 23:31.
 "Ask counsel from. . . idol" – compare 2 Kings 1:2-4; 2 Chron 25:15; Isa 19:3; 44:14-20; Ezek 21:21.

"Spirit of prostitution" – 5:4. This means a mind to leave the true God and run after gods and idols.

4:13 "Hills" – 10:8; Deut 12:2; 1 Kings 14:23; 2 Kings 17:10; Jer 2:20.

4:14 The daughters and daughters-in-law learned their evil behavior from the men and so the men were more guilty than they.

"Temple prostitutes" – women connected with idol temples and shrines who engaged in sexual sins with the men who came to worship.

"Without understanding" – v 6. Ruin will be the result to any people anywhere who refuse the knowledge of the true God.

4:15 Notice the distinction between the northern kingdom and the southern. Gilgal and Beth Aven were places where the northern kingdom had places of idol worship. "Beth Aven" means "house of wickedness". Here it is used to indicate Bethel (which means "house of God" – Gen 28:19). The people of Israel had changed the "house of with temple prostitutes.

So a people without understanding fall into ruin.

- 15 "Though you, Israel, act like a prostitute, let not Judah offend.
 So do not come to Gilgal,
 nor go up to Beth-Aven,
 nor swear, 'As the LORD lives.'
 16 For Israel is as stubborn as a rebellious heifer.
 How can the LORD pasture them like a lamb in a large field?
 17 Ephraim is joined to idols;
 let him alone.
 18 Their drink is sour;
 they give themselves to prostitution continually;
 her rulers love shamefully, saying, 'Give!'
 19 The wind wraps her up in its wings,
 and they will be put to shame
 because of their sacrifices.

5 "Hear this, O priests!
 Pay attention, house of Israel!
 Give ear, O royal house!
 For judgment is against you, because you have been a snare at Mizpah,

God" into a place of evil practices. Compare Matt 21:12,13.

"As the LORD lives" – taking an oath in the name of Jehovah God. The people of Israel did this hypocritically – they were devoted to idols.

4:16 "Stubborn" – compare Deut 9:7; 1 Sam 15:23; Ps 78:8; 81:12; Isa 1:5; Jer 5:23; 7:24.

"Heifer" – the nation was like a young rebellious cow.

"Lamb" – God cannot treat people like His young sheep when they are like cattle which refuse to accept training.

4:17 "Ephraim" is here used for the whole northern kingdom of Israel – see Isa 7:2,5,8,9,17; 11:13; Jer 7:15.

"Leave him alone" – that kingdom was so determined to ignore God and worship idols that nothing could be done for it (1:4-6; Prov 29:1).

4:18 They did not need to drink in order to abandon themselves to sin.

4:19 "Wind" – compare 8:7; 13:15; Ps 1:4; Prov 1:27; Isa 40:24.

"Shame" – Isa 1:29. By worshiping idols they thought they would have prosperity and peace. Instead they would be ruined and destroyed – vs 6,14.

5:1 Political leaders, religious leaders and people were all guilty.

"Snare. . . net" – literal snares were to catch birds and animals, but here the words are used figuratively. They were catching people for their own selfish purposes and oppressing the poor and helpless. Mizpah was a town, Tabor a hill in Israel.

- and a net spread on Tabor.
- 2 And the rebels are deep in slaughter,
though I have rebuked them all.
- 3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me;
for now, O Ephraim, you engage in prostitution, and Israel is defiled.
- 4 "They will not employ their deeds to turn to their God,
for the spirit of prostitution is among them,
and they do not know the LORD.
- 5 And the pride of Israel testifies against him.
Therefore Israel and Ephraim stumble
in their wickedness.
Judah also stumbles with them.
- 6 They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD,
but they will not find him.
He has withdrawn himself from them.
- 7 They have dealt treacherously against
the LORD;
for they have begotten alien children.
Now a New Moon festival will devour them with their portions.
- 8 "Blow the horn in Gibeah,
and the trumpet in Ramah!

- Cry out loudly at Beth-Aven,
'Behind you, O Benjamin!'
- 9 Ephraim will be desolate in the day of rebuke.
Among the tribes of Israel I make known what is sure.
- 10 The princes of Judah are like those who remove boundary stones, therefore I will pour out my wrath on them like water.
- 11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment,
because he willingly followed human orders.
- 12 Therefore I will be to Ephraim like a moth,
and to the house of Judah like rot.
- 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness,
and Judah saw his wound,
then Ephraim went to the Assyrian,
and sent a message to king Jareb.
But he could not cure you,
or heal you of your wound.
- 14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim,
and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I myself will tear them and go away.
I will take them away,
and no one will rescue them.
- 15 I will go away and return to my place,

5:2 God's rebukes are often ignored by those who are determined to go on their own way.

5:3 "I know" – Ps 33:13-15; 94:9; Prov 5:21; Jer 16:17; 23:24; Amos 5:12; Heb 4:13.

"Ephraim" – note at 4:17.

"Prostitution" – 1:2; 2:2; 4:10-12.

5:4 "To turn" – they had hardened their hearts so much with their sins that they had no desire to repent. Compare Heb 3:13.

"Spirit of prostitution" – 4:11.

"Not know" – 4:6; Jer 4:22.

5:5 "Pride" – those who are the most spiritually ignorant are often the most arrogant, and they who have least to be proud about are often the most proud.

"Judah" – the southern kingdom was being affected by the idolatry and corruption of the northern kingdom.

5:6 "Seek" – 1 Chron 16:10,11; 2 Chron 7:14; Ps 27:8; 119:2; Jer 29:13; Matt 7:7. Seeking God from proper motives is the best thing anyone can do. But Israel was not seeking God from right motives. They continued in their idolatry and corruption but wanted God's blessing on top of it. So He would have nothing to do with them. Compare Isa 58:1-4. The Bible tells us how we must seek God if we would find Him – Isa 55:6,7; Jam 4:8-10.

5:7 1:2; 2:4. As long as they were determined to continue in their sins their seeking God was in vain.

"New Moon" – Isa 1:14. In spite of their attempts to worship God, judgment and destruction were coming.

5:8 War was about to come on the northern kingdom.

"Beth Aven" – note at 4:15.

"Benjamin" – this area was a part of the southern kingdom. It would join with other people against Israel.

5:9 "Sure" – Isa 46:10; Zech 1:6. When God speaks of judgment on sinful people it is no idle threat.

5:10 "Judah" – evidently the southern kingdom had taken part of Israel's territory. The Bible forbids moving boundary stones – Deut 19:14; Prov 22:28. Judah's leaders would pay the penalty for breaking God's command.

5:12 God had decided to destroy both Israel and Judah.

5:13 Both Israel and Judah had been defeated by foreign armies and left like a wounded body. Compare Isa 1:5-7. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.

5:14 This is why the king of Assyria was not able to help Israel. God was against Israel and had decreed its destruction – v 9. If God is against us who can be for us?

"Tear them" – God would use foreign armies to tear them, so it was as if He were doing it. Compare Isa 10:5-7; 13:4; Jer 25:9.

5:15 God would leave Israel as He said He would – 1:6,9; Josh 24:20; 2 Kings 21:14.

"Until" – He would not forsake them forever, but would wait for true repentance. Compare Isa 54:7; Rom 11:11,25-27. God says a time would come when Israel until they acknowledge their offense, and seek my face.

In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."

- 6 "Come, and let us return to the LORD;
for he has torn us, but he will heal us.
He has struck us, but he will bind up our wounds.
- 2 After two days he will revive us;
on the third day he will raise us up,
and we will live in his sight.
- 3 Then we will know the LORD,
if we press on to know him.
His coming is as certain as the morning,
and he will come to us like the rain,
like the latter and former rain to the earth."
- 4 "O Ephraim, what shall I do with you?
O Judah, what shall I do with you?
For your goodness is like a morning cloud,
and it goes away like the early dew.
- 5 Therefore I have cut them down by the prophets,
I have slain them by the words of my mouth.
And judgments on you are like light going forth.
- 6 For I delight in mercy, and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But like men they have transgressed
the covenant.

There they have dealt treacherously against me.

- 8 Gilead is a city of evildoers,
and is defiled with blood.
- 9 And as bands of robbers lie in wait for a man,
so the company of priests commit murder on the way to Shechem;
they commit shameful deeds.
- 10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel.
There is the prostitution of Ephraim,
Israel is defiled.
- 11 Also, O Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you, when I bring back my people from captivity.

- 7 "When I would have healed Israel, then the guilt of Ephraim was uncovered,
and the wickedness of Samaria;
for they practice deceit.
The thief comes in, and the band of robbers plunders outside.
- 2 And they do not consider in their hearts that I remember all their

and Judah would seek Him in a proper way.
Compare vs 6,7.

6:1-3 These words seem to indicate the repentance and faith that would come to Israel and Judah sometime after God tore them to pieces and withdrew from them (5:14,15). Hosea is putting these words into the mouths of a future generation of people. They could not have spoken these words at the time Hosea was writing because God had not yet torn them to pieces. But eventually that nation would understand that God had torn them in justice and would heal them in mercy, that He tore them just so they would turn to Him for mercy.

6:2 "Two days . . . third day" – a comparatively brief time. But see 2 Pet 3:8.

"Revive. . . raise" – compare 2:14-23;
Isa 44:26; 49:6,8; 57:18; 61:4; Jer
15:19; 16:15; 30:17,18; Ezek 37:11-14.
6:3 "Know" – 2:20.

"Press on" – compare Phil 3:10-12.

"He will come" – words indicating faith.
Rains came to the land of Israel in winter and spring and brought life to the land. God would come and rain blessings again on His people. Compare 10:12; Ps 72:6; Isa
44:3; 45:8; Ezek 34:26.

6:4 "I" – God speaks again. At the same time Hosea wrote neither Israel nor Judah was for a complete turning to God. What little devotion they had to Him was very brief.

6:5 God pronounced judgment on them through His prophets, and once pronounced its coming was absolutely certain. The words of His mouth were spoken through His prophets and they signified destruction for the people. Compare Jer 23:29.

6:6 Here is the reason why God punished His people. They were content with the outer forms of their religion and rejected its heart.
Compare Ps 50:7-23; Isa 1:11-17; Matt
23:23,24. See also Matt 9:13 and 12:7
where Jesus quoted these words.

6:7 "Like men" – this could be translated "like Adam". The Hebrew word for Adam and man is the same.

6:8 "Gilead" – 12:11. A palce belonging to Israel east of the Jordan river.

6:9 "Priests" – not only did they fail in their most important task (4:6), they trampled God's law under their feet and became utterly vile.

6:10 4:10,12,18; 5:3,4.

6:11 "Bring. . . from captivity" – this could be translated "restore the well-being of" – the Hebrew means either.

7:1 God did not want to punish His people.
He much preferred to heal and bless them
(compare Matt 23:37). See note at Jer 48:31-39). But He could not justly do so.
The great Judge of the universe must uphold justice and righteousness and punish those who break His laws.

"Samaria" – 8:5,6.

7:2 "I remember" – 8:13; Jer 14:10;
44:21,22. Compare Jer 31:34; Heb 8:12; 10:17.

- wickedness.
Now their own deeds have surrounded them; they are before my face.
- 3 "They make the king glad with their wickedness,
and please the princes with their lies.
- 4 They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by the baker, who stops stirring up the fire after kneading the dough until it is leavened.
- 5 On the king's special day the princes become inflamed with bottles of wine.
He stretches out his hand with scoffers.
- 6 For they prepare their heart like an oven,
while they lie in wait.
Their baker sleeps all night;
in the morning it burns like a blazing fire.
- 7 They are all as hot as an oven,
and they have devoured their judges.
All their kings have fallen.
There is none among them who calls out to me.
- 8 "Ephraim has mixed himself among the peoples.
Ephraim is a cake not turned over.
- 9 Foreigners have devoured his strength,
and he does not know it.
Yes, gray hairs are here and there on him,
but he does not know it.
- 10 And the pride of Israel testifies against him.
And they do not return to the LORD
- their God, or seek him,
in spite of all this.
- 11 "And Ephraim has become like a silly dove without heart.
They call out to Egypt, they go to Assyria.
- 12 When they go, I will spread my net on them.
I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.
I will punish them, as their congregation has heard.
- 13 Woe to them!
For they have strayed from me.
Destruction to them!
Because they have transgressed against me.
Though I redeemed them, they have spoken lies against me.
- 14 And they have not cried out to me with their heart,
when they wailed on their beds.
They gather together for grain and new wine, but they rebel against me.
- 15 Though I trained and strengthened their arms,
they plot evil against me.
- 16 They return, but not to the Most High.
They are like a deceitful bow.
Their princes will fall by the sword
because of the insolence of their tongue.
This is why they will be mocked in the land of Egypt.

"Before my face" – 5:3; Ps 90:8.
7:3 4:2; Micah 7:3. Only wicked rulers take delight in the wickedness of their people.
7:4-7 These verses describe the condition among the people that delighted their rulers – adultery, drunkenness and uncontrollable passions. Verse 13 gives the result. All this in the midst of a people God chose to be His holy people and a special treasure!
7:5 "Scoffers" – Ps 1:1; Prov 1:22; 21:24; 2 Pet 3:3. They who live evil lives will mock at the things of God.
7:7 "Their judges" – or "their leaders" or "their rulers." The history of the northern kingdom of Israel was full of intrigues and assassinations of rulers. Some kings lasted only a year or two, some only a few months, one only seven days. In the 200 years of the existence of that kingdom not one of its kings was a good man who tried to serve God.
7:8 "Mixed" – Israel was the exact opposite of what God wanted them to be (v 11; Ex 19:5,6; Deut 7:1-6). Compare 2 Cor 6:14-18.
"Not turned" – burned on one side, raw on the other; unfit for the purpose it was made.
7:9 Alliances with foreign countries cost them dearly both economically and spiritually. And Israel was getting old and enfeebled and still remained in ignorance of it.

7:10 "Pride" – 5:5. "Seek" – they sought God half-heartedly and from wrong motives (v 14; 5:6,7).
7:11 "Silly" – Isa 1:3; Jer 5:21. Instead of seeking help from the Almighty they sought it from various military alliances. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.
7:12 God knows how to deal with people who behave like that. Compare 5:13,14.
7:13 "Woe" – 9:12; Isa 3:9,11; 5:8,11,18, 20,21,22.
"I redeemed them" – note on redeem at Ps 78:35. God had often freed them from their troubles and their enemies, but this is how they repaid him.
7:14 "Heart" – they wept over their sufferings and troubles; they pitied themselves, but they would not heartily seek God. Compare Deut 4:29; 2 Chron 6:37,38; Jer 29:13.
7:15 Israel was His people. All they had came from Him. He had done them good, but see what He got in return. This is the way with the people of this world. They want God's blessings and complain bitterly if they don't get them, but they will do only evil in return for all His good.
7:16 "Deceitful bow" – they will be useless

- 8 "Put the trumpet to your mouth!
The enemy is coming like an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my
 covenant,
 and rebelled against my law.
- 2 Israel will cry out to me,
 'My God, we know you.'
- 3 Israel has rejected what is good.
 The enemy will pursue him.
- 4 They have set up kings, but not by me.
 They have made princes,
 but I did not acknowledge it.
 With their silver and their gold they have made idols for themselves, with the result that they will be cut off.
- 5 Your calf, O Samaria, is rejected.
 My anger burns against them.
 How long will it be before they attain to innocence?
- 6 For this also is from Israel;
 the workman made it, therefore it is not God.
 That calf of Samaria will be broken in pieces.
- 7 "For they have sown the wind,
 and they will reap the whirlwind.
 The stalk has no bud; it will never produce meal.
 Even if it did produce meal

- foreigners would swallow it up.
- 8 Israel is swallowed up.
 Now they will be among the Gentiles like a vessel in which no one takes pleasure.
- 9 For they have gone up to Assyria,
 a wild donkey alone by itself.
 Ephraim has hired lovers.
- 10 Yes, though they hire them among the nations, now I will gather them, and they will begin to diminish because of the burden of the king of princes.
- 11 "Because Ephraim has made many altars for sin,
 they have become for him altars for sinning.
- 12 I wrote for him the great things of my law,
but they were considered something alien.
- 13 They sacrifice flesh as the sacrifices for my offerings, and eat it ;
but the LORD does not accept them.
 Now he will remember their wickedness,
 and punish their sins.
 They will return to Egypt.
- 14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker,
 and built temples;
 and Judah has multiplied fortified cities.
 But I will send a fire on his cities,

in the decisive battles to come.

8:1 "Trumpet" – to sound a warning.

"Eagle" – the Assyrian army.

"Covenant" – Ex 19:5.

"Rebelled" – 7:13.

8:2 Their cry would not sincere and accompanied with repentance (5:6,7).

8:3 "Good" – God's covenant, His law and His way.

8:4 "Kings" – 7:7; 2 Kings 15:8-30. They chose the rulers they wanted without taking into account what God wanted.

"Cut off" – observe the cause of the destruction coming on them – idolatry. Compare Ex 20:3-5; Lev 26:30-33; Deut 27:15.

8:5 "Calf" – 10:5. See 1 Kings 12:28-33. Samaria was the capital of the northern kingdom and here represents the whole nation.

"Anger" – Lev 26:28; Num 25:3; Deut 4:25; 11:16,17. Few things that go on in the world make God as angry as idolatry does.

8:6 "Workman" – Isa 40:20; 41:22-24; 44:9-20.

"Not God" – there is no connection whatever between any idol and the one true God. He will not accept any worship offered to an idol.

8:7 "Sown. . .reap" – Job 4:8; Prov 22:8; Gal 6:7,8.

"Foreigners" – Assyrians.

8:8 "Among the Gentiles" – 7:8. Gentiles means non-Jewish nations. Israel lost its character of being a separate people for God and became like others. So God could take no pleasure in them.

8:9 Compare 2 Kings 15:19; 17:3.

8:10 They were willing to pay anyone who would promise to help them.

"Begin to diminish" – the translation of the KJV here – "shall sorrow a little" – is possible, but very unlikely.

8:11 They built altars to false gods, not to the one true God, so all their worship at those places was in defiance of God, and sinful.

8:12 "I wrote" – God says the writings of Moses came from Him. Moses was His pen. Compare 2 Tim 3:16; 2 Pet 1:21.

"Alien" – Israel had become so corrupted that their own law seemed strange to them.

8:13 Verse 2. Even when they offered sacrifices to God rather than to idols, they were lacking in sincerity and their worship was not acceptable. Compare Isa 1:11-17.

"Remember" – 7:2; 9:9.

"Egypt" – 7:11,16; 9:3,6. The Assyrians took most of the people away (2 Kings 17:3-6), but some of them escaped to Egypt (9:6).

8:14 "Forgotten" – see 2:13.

"Maker" – ignoring the Creator and turning to idols is a common sin among men (Rom 1:21-25,28). Since Israel had God's law their guilt in this was even worse than that of other peoples.

"Temples" – forgetting the Creator and building temples to false gods is also a common practice among men.

and it will devour its palaces."

- 9 Do not rejoice, O Israel,
with joy like other people,
for you have gone away from your God
and engaged in prostitution.
You have loved a prostitute's pay at every threshing floor.
- 2 The threshing floor and the winepress
will not feed them,
and the new wine will fail her.
- 3 They will not live in the LORD's land,
but Ephraim will return to Egypt,
and they will eat unclean things in Assyria.
- 4 They will not offer wine offerings to
the LORD,
nor will they be pleasing to him.
Their sacrifices will be for them like the bread of mourners.
All who eat it will be defiled;
for their bread will be for their lives.
It will not come into the house of the LORD.
- 5 What will you do on the appointed day,
and on the day of the feast of the LORD?
- 6 For, see, they are going because of destruction.
Egypt will gather them up,
Memphis will bury them.
Nettles will possess their treasures of silver, thorns will be in their tents.
- 7 The days of punishment are coming,
the days of retribution are coming.

9:1 "Rejoice" – with God's judgment hanging over them it was folly to be rejoicing.

"Prostitution" – this is a recurring theme of this book (1:2; 2:2; 3:1; 4:1,10,12,15; 5:3,4).

9:2 2:9,12; 4:10.

9:3 The land of Israel is "the LORD's land." He will choose who should live there and who not.

"Egypt" – 8:13.

"Unclean" – see Leviticus chapter 11.

"Assyria" – 2 Kings 17:3-6.

9:4 "Bread of mourners. . . defiled" – Num 19:14; Deut 26:14; Jer 16:7.

"House" – there was only one temple of the LORD and that was in Jerusalem. And they would not be going there.

9:6 "Egypt" – 8:13. Memphis was the capital of northern Egypt.

"Nettles. . . thorns" – 2:12; 5:9; 10:8.

9:7 "Inspired man" – the same as a prophet. Note at Gen 20:7; 2 Pet 1:21. Israel considered God's spokesmen as fools and crazy people. Compare 2 Kings 9:11; Jer 29:26,27; Acts 26:24; 1 Cor 4:10.

"Hostility" – Lev 26:21,23,27. Compare Rom 8:7; Jam 4:4; Ps 51:4.

9:8 "Watchmen" – Isa 56:10; Jer 6:17; Ezek 3:17; 33:2-8. Observe that the Let Israel know.

The prophet is considered a fool,
the inspired man insane,
because of your many evil deeds,
and great hostility.

- 8 The watchman of Ephraim is with my God, a prophet;
yet a bird catcher's snare is in all his ways,
and hostility in the house of his God.
- 9 They have deeply corrupted themselves,
as in the days of Gibeah.
Therefore he will remember their iniquity,
he will punish their sins.
- 10 "I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness.
I saw your fathers as the firstfruit of the fig tree in its first season.
But they went to Baal-Peor, and dedicated themselves to that shameful thing,
and they became as abominable as
what they loved.
- 11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird, without birth, without pregnancy,
and without conception.
- 12 Though they bring up their children,
yet I will bereave them until no man is left;
yes, and woe to them when I depart from them!
- 13 I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place.
But Ephraim will bring out his children

watchman is a prophet "with God." God is the supreme "watchman".

"Ephraim" – note at 4:17. "A snare" and "hostility" were what faced all the faithful prophets who warned the people. This is abundantly clear in the history of Jeremiah.

9:9 "Gibeah" – see Judges chapters 19-21. That was one of the most corrupt times in Israel's history.

"Remember" – 7:2; 8:13; 13:12.

"Punish" – God is not keen to punish, but He does so when His justice demands it (Ex 34:6,7).

9:10 "I found Israel" – God speaks of the beginnings of the people of Israel as a nation when they came out of Egypt. He was delighted to have them as His people.

"Baal-Peor" – see Num 25:1-5. They gave themselves up to worship a "shameful" and "abominable" image. Note on Baal at Jud 2:11. Loving an immoral god they became immoral themselves – not an uncommon thing in our own day.

9:11 Israel would decrease in numbers and power and prosperity.

9:12 "When I depart from them" – 5:15. This is the greatest disaster possible to any people.

9:13 "Tyre" – see Ezek 27:1-25.

- to the murderer.”
- 14 Give them, O LORD; what will you give?
Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
- 15 “All their wickedness appeared in Gilgal;
so I hated them there.
Because of the evil of their deeds
I will drive them out of my house.
I will love them no more.
All their princes are rebels.
- 16 Ephraim is stricken;
their root is dried up.
They will bear no fruit.
Yes, even though they bear children,
I will slay the loved ones of their womb.”
- 17 My God will reject them because they did not listen to him, and they will become wanderers among
the nations.

- 10 Israel became an empty vine.
He brought forth fruit for himself.
As his fruit multiplied, he increased the number of altars.
As the prosperity of his land increased
they adorned his sacred pillars.
- 2 Their heart is divided.
Now they must bear their guilt.
He will break down their altars,
he will ruin their sacred pillars.

- 3 For now they will say, “We have no king, because we did not fear the LORD.
What then could a king do for us?”
- 4 They speak words, swearing falsely while making a covenant.
So judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.
- 5 The inhabitants of Samaria will fear for the calf idols of Beth-Aven;
yes, its people will mourn over it,
and its priests, who have rejoiced
over it for its splendour,
because it has now departed from it.
- 6 And the idol will be carried to Assyria as a present for King Jareb.
Ephraim will be humiliated, and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel.
- 7 As for Samaria, her king will be cut off like a stick on the water.
- 8 And the high places of Aven,
the sin of Israel, will be destroyed.
The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars,
and they will say to the mountains,
“Cover us!”
And to the hills, “Fall on us.”
- 9 “O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah.
There they stood. Then the battle in Gibeah against the children of “Murderer” – because of its sins Israel would face the slaughter of its children and be responsible for it.

9:14 God has been speaking. Now Hosea speaks. Note on such prayers at Ps 35:8.

9:15 God speaks again. “Gilgal” – 4:15 – a place of idol worship.

“I hated them” – this is just what God said would happen if Israel forsook Him and worshiped false gods (Lev 26:30). Note on “hate” at Mal 1:3. Compare Ps 5:5; 45:7; Prov 6:16.

“Love them no more” – 1:6.

9:16 “No fruit” – 10:1; Jude 12.

9:17 Again Hosea speaks.

“Reject” – 2 Kings 17:15,20; Jer 6:30.

“Wanderers” – this has been true during much of the history of the Jews.

10:1 “Vine” – Isa 5:1-7.

“For himself” – instead of for God who planted the nation in the land.

“Altars . . . sacred pillars” – not to God but to false gods (4:7; 8:11; 12:11; 1 Kings 12:33; 14:23; 16:32).

10:2 “Divided” – Jam 1:8. “Guilt” – 13:16; Ex 34:7.

“Break down” – v 8. The Lord would cause others to do this and so it was the same as His doing it.

10:3 They would speak so, after the kingdom was destroyed and their king was in prison – 2 Kings 17:4-6.

10:4 4:1,2; 7:1. This is the way deceitful hearts (v 2) express themselves. Let us resolve to keep away from such poison. See 1 Cor 6:1-8.

10:5,6 “Samaria. . . calf idols” – 8:5. The people were worshiping a god which could do nothing to defend itself. The idol with all its splendor was powerless and was taken captive along with the people of Israel.

“Beth Aven” – note at 4:15.

“Humiliated. . . ashamed” – their weakness and folly and the powerlessness of their gods would be exposed. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.

10:7 2 Kings 17:4-6.

10:8 “High places” – 4:13. “Aven” – 4:15. This could be translated as “wickedness”, the meaning of the Hebrew word. Their high places were places of wickedness because there Israel forsook God and worshiped idols.

“The sin of Israel” – 1 Kings 12:30; 13:33,34; 16:26.

“Fall on us” – the danger and suffering caused by invading Assyrians would be so great that the people would prefer to have a mountain fall on them and end their misery. Compare Luke 23:30; Rev 6:16.

10:9 See 9:9. God is speaking here.

- wickedness did not overtake them.
- 10 When it is my desire I will punish them;
and peoples will be gathered against them, when they are to be bound for their two transgressions.
- 11 And Ephraim is like a trained heifer that loves to thresh the grain,
but I will put a yoke on her fair neck.
I will drive Ephraim; Judah will plow,
and Jacob will break up his clods."
- 12 Sow for yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy.
Break up your fallow ground.
For it is time to seek the LORD, until he comes and rains righteousness on you.
- 13 You have plowed wickedness,
you have reaped evil.
You have eaten the fruit of lies,
because you trusted in your way,
in your many mighty men.
- 14 Therefore a tumult will arise among
your people,
and all your fortresses will be plundered, as Shalman spoiled Beth Arbel on the day of battle;

- the mother was dashed in pieces on her children.
- 15 Thus it will be done to you, Bethel,
because of your great wickedness.
In one morning the king of Israel will be completely cut off.
- 11 "When Israel was a child, I loved him,
and called my son out of Egypt.
2 But the more they called them,
the more they went away from them.
They sacrificed to the Baals,
and burned incense to carved images.
3 And I taught Ephraim to walk,
taking them by their arms;
but they did not know that I healed them.
4 I drew them with human cords,
with bands of love.
And I was for them like those who take off the yoke from their jaws,
and I bent down and fed them.
5 "Will he not return to the land of Egypt?
And the Assyrian will be his king,
because they refused to return to me.
6 And the sword will whirl over his cities,
and will make an end of his branches,

10:10 "When it is my desire" – God has a proper time for everything, and we should not think that because judgment does not come for a long time it will not come at all. Compare 2 Pet 3:4-9.

"Two transgressions" – perhaps the two calf idols, one at Dan and one at Bethel. Or perhaps the double sin described in Jer 2:13. The KJV translation of the last sentence of this verse is very doubtful.

10:11 "Ephraim" and "Jacob" signify the kingdom of Israel. Judah means the southern kingdom. Both would eventually go into captivity and work for their captors.

10:12 "Sow. . .reap" – God's law of sowing and reaping is always at work. See 8:7; Job 4:8; Ps 126:5,6; Prov 11:18; 22:8; Eccl 11:6; Gal 6:7. Israel had been "sowing" evil and would reap punishment. They should "sow" right actions and "reap" God's loving blessings.

"Fallow ground" – Jer 4:3. He means the "unplowed" hard condition of their hearts.

"Seek the LORD" – Deut 4:29; Ps 9:10; 22:26; 34:10; 69:32; Jer 29:13; Matt 7:7,8. This is the only way to break up hard hearts and to sow righteousness. We need His power and wisdom to accomplish any spiritual work.

"Rains righteousness" – Isa 45:8. This is the kind of rain we need – God's blessing which will make us behave righteously and justly. And we should seek God until He gives us this kind of "rain."

10:13 Israel had been sowing the wrong sort of "seed" and it resulted in great trouble.

"Lies" – v 2; 4:2; 7:13. Those who tell lies and listen to lies will have to endure the results of that kind of behaviour.

"Your way" – Isa 53:6.

"Mighty men" – instead of seeking God they put their confidence in human beings.

10:14 We know nothing about Shalman's attack on Beth Arbel. This is the only place in the Bible where these names appear.

10:15 "Bethel" – this is the town where one of the calf idols (v 5) was located (1 Kings 12:28,29). It became a center for idolatry and it would have to pay the price for that sin.

11:1 Here God is speaking again. He is the one who loved Israel and called them out of Egypt – 9:10; Deut 4:37; 7:7,8.

"Called my son" – Ex 4:22,23; Deut 32:6; Isa 1:2-4; 64:8. Matthew applies these words to the Lord Jesus in Matt 2:15.
11:2 "They" – refers to God's spokesmen the prophets through whom God called the people.

"Went away from them" – to turn away from the message of the prophets was the same as turning away from God – v 7; Jer 7:13; Isa 1:4; 2 Kings 17:13,14.

"Baals" – 2:8,13.

11:3 Like a father God taught Israel how to behave.

"Healed" – Ex 15:26.

11:4 Jer 31:3. In tender love God lifted the yoke of slavery in Egypt from them and fed them in the wilderness – Ex 2:23; 13:3; 16:13-18; Deut 7:8; Ps 78:25.

11:5 "Refuse to return" – v 7; Job 36:10; Jer 5:3; Ezek 18:30,32.

11:6 13:16.

- and destroy them, because of their own plans.
- 7 And my people are bent on backsliding from me. Though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.
- 8 "How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I give you up, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I deal with you like Zeboim?
My heart turns over within me,
my compassions are kindled.
- 9 I will not execute the fierceness of my anger.
I will not destroy Ephraim again,
for I am God, and not man;
the Holy One in your midst.
And I will not enter the city.
- 10 They will follow the LORD.
He will roar like a lion.
When he roars, the children will come trembling from the west.
- 11 They will come trembling like a bird from Egypt,
and like a dove from the land of Assyria;
and I will settle them in their houses,
says the LORD."
- 12 Ephraim has surrounded me with lies,
and the house of Israel with deceit.
And Judah still wanders restlessly against God,
and against the faithful holy ones.

11:7 "Bent" – they were not unknowingly displeasing God, but were very determined and stubborn in their wickedness, though He called them again and again (v 2).

"Most High" – 7:16.

11:8-11 Now God says He will not make a full end of Israel. He would punish the people but not completely destroy them. Israel would not become like Admah and Zeboim (cities near Sodom destroyed with Sodom – Gen 19:24,25; Deut 29:23; Jer 49:18). After sending Israel into exile He would regather them – v 11.

11:8 "How" – God's great love for Israel would not permit Him to cast them off forever.

"Compassions" – 2:19; Deut 30:3; 32:36; Ps 103:13; 116:5; 119:156; 145:9; Isa 14:1; Jam 5:11.

11:9,10 "Anger" – notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

"Not man" – Num 23:19. Men may think God is like them (Ps 50:21), but He is not (Isa 55:8,9).

"Holy One" – note at Lev 20:7.

"Like a lion" – not against them as in 5:14, but as their Redeemer calling them home.

11:11 Amos 9:14,15.

11:12 Hosea now speaks again, and shows that if God shows compassion to Israel it will not be because they deserve it.

"Lies. . .deceit" – 4:1,2; 10:2,4.

The last sentence of this verse is

- 12 Ephraim feeds on the wind,
and follows the east wind.
Daily he multiplies lies and violence.
And they make a covenant with the Assyrians,
and oil is carried into Egypt.
- 2 The LORD also brings a charge against Judah,
and will punish Jacob according to his ways;
according to his deeds he will repay him.
- 3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel,
and with his strength he struggled with God.
- 4 Yes, he struggled with the angel,
and prevailed.
He wept, and pleaded with him.
He found him at Bethel, and there he spoke with us,
- 5 that is, the LORD God of hosts;
the LORD is his memorial name.
- 6 Therefore turn to your God.
Maintain mercy and justice,
and wait on your God continually.
- 7 A merchant with the balances of deceit
in his hand loves to oppress;
- 8 And Ephraim says,
"Surely I have become rich,
I have found wealth for myself.
In all my labours they will find no evil in me that can be called sin."

somewhat obscure and difficult, but the translation of the KJV here – "But Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints" – is very doubtful. For in Hosea Judah is not revealed as faithful – see 5:5,10,12,14; 6:4; 8:14; 12:2. Also the root meaning of the word translated "ruleth" in the KJV is to wander restlessly, to roam. The word translated "with" in the KJV also means against or near.

12:1 This speaks of Israel's useless attempts to find a military ally – 5:13; 7:11; 8:9. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.

12:2,3 "Judah" – 5:5,12-14; 6:4,11; 10:11; 11:12.

"Jacob" – the people of Israel. They had behaved in accordance with the meaning of the name Jacob (Gen 25:26; 27:36).

12:4 "Angel" – Gen 32:22-28.

"Bethel" – Gen 28:12-19; 35:1-15.

12:5 "LORD" – Jehovah. Note at Ex 3:14.
12:6 Jacob had been a deceiver, but he later turned to God with his whole heart. This is what his descendants now needed to do.

"Justice" – Isa 1:16,17; Amos 5:15,24; Micah 6:8.

"Wait" – Ps 5:3; 27:14; 33:20; 37:7,34; 123:2. They (and all God's people always) should look to God for His help and favor rather than trying to find help from men.

12:7,8 Ways in which the people of Israel revealed their deceitfulness. They deceived others and themselves, and thought their

- 9 "But I, who am the LORD your God since the land of Egypt, will make you live in tents again, as in the days of the appointed feast.
- 10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and given parables through the prophets."
- 11 Is there wickedness in Gilead? Surely they are worthless. They sacrifice bulls in Gilgal; yes, their altars are like heaps of stones in a plowed field.
- 12 And Jacob fled to the country of Syria, and Israel served to get a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.
- 13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.
- 14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly. Therefore his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him, and bring back his scorn onto him.

- 13 When Ephraim spoke, trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended through Baal, he died.
- 2 And now they sin more and more, and have made for themselves cast metal images with their silver, deceitfulness would never be discovered.

"Rich" – compare Rev 3:17.

"Iniquity. . . sin" – sometimes those who are most wicked have the least consciousness of their wickedness, and can even boast that they are good. See Jer 17:9; Luke 18:10-14.

12:9 "Egypt" – 11:1.

"Tents again" – 2:14,15. The people of Israel lived in tents in the desert after they came out of Egypt – Ex 33:8; Num 1:52,53. 12:10 "I have also spoken" – 1:1. Note on prophets at Gen 20:7.

"Visions" – note at Gen 15:1.

"Parables" – 2 Sam 12:1-4; Ps 78:2; Isa 5:1-7; Ezek 17:2; 24:3.

"Through the prophets" – Heb 1:1; 2 Pet 1:21.

12:11 "Gilead" – 6:8,9. "Gilgal" – 4:15; 9:15.

12:12 Gen 28:2,5; 29:20-28; 30:31; 31:41. Jacob fled to Aram (Syria). His descendants would be taken there as captives (Syria became part of the Assyrian empire). 12:13 "Prophet" – Moses (Num 12:6-8; Deut 18:15; 34:10). God used Moses to care for Israel.

12:14 Ephraim signifies Israel. Their guilt was so great that God could no longer overlook it – 1:6.

"Bloodguilt" – 1:4; 4:2; 5:2; 6:8.

and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, "Let the men who sacrifice kiss the calves."

- 3 Therefore they will be like the morning cloud, and like the early dew that passes away, like the chaff that is driven by the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, and like the smoke out of the chimney.
- 4 "Yet I am the LORD your God since the land of Egypt, and you shall know no God but me; for there is no saviour except me.
- 5 I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.
- 6 When their pasture was rich, they became satisfied. They were satisfied, and their heart was exalted, therefore they forgot me.
- 7 Therefore I will be to them like a lion. I will watch like a leopard by the wayside.
- 8 I will meet them like a bear robbed of her cubs, and will tear the flesh from their heart, and there I will devour them like a lion. A wild beast will tear them apart.
- 9 "O Israel, you have destroyed yourself, but your help is in me.

13:1 In this verse "Ephraim" means one of the twelve tribes and "Israel" means all the twelve tribes.

"Trembling" – for a time Ephraim was one of the most powerful of the tribes. Joshua, Moses' successor, and Jeroboam, the founder of the northern kingdom, were from this tribe.

"Baal" – 2:8,13,17; 11:2.

"Died" – because of idolatry true spiritual life died out in Ephraim (compare Prov 14:12; Rom 6:23). The tribe lost also its power and prosperity.

13:2 "More and more" – sin not forsaken always leads to more sin.

"Craftsmen" – 8:6.

13:3 Israel would soon disappear from the land – 9:17; 10:7; 11:5.

13:4 11:1; 12:9; Ex 20:2,3; Isa 43:11; 45:21,22.

13:5 11:3,4; 12:13.

13:6 Deut 6:11,12; 8:10-14; 11:15,16; 31:20; 32:15,18. It is very possible to set one's heart on the things God gives, to think we deserve them and so get puffed up, and then to forget the One who gave them.

13:7,8 5:14. Compare Lam 3:10,11.

13:9 9:7. What real help is there for those who reject their true Helper? But this is something we see on every hand. People oppose the one true God and then wonder

- 10 I will be your king.
Where is any other to save you in all your cities?
And where are your judges to whom you said,
'Give me a king and princes'?
- 11 I gave you a king in my anger,
and took him away in my wrath.
- 12 The wickedness of Ephraim is bound up.
His sin is stored up.
- 13 Pains as a woman in childbirth will come on him.
He is an unwise son, for he should not stay long in the place where children are born.
- 14 "I will ransom them from the power of the grave;
I will redeem them from death.
O death, I will be your plagues!
O grave, I will be your destruction!
Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.
- 15 Though he is fruitful among his brethren,
an east wind will come.
The wind of the LORD will come up from the desert,
and his spring will become dry,
and his fountain will dry up.
It will plunder the treasury of every

- valuable article.
16 Samaria will become desolate,
for she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword.
Their infants will be dashed in pieces,
and their pregnant women will be ripped up."

- 14 O Israel, return to the LORD your God,
for you have stumbled by your wickedness.
- 2 Take with you words,
and turn to the LORD.
Say to him, "Take away all guilt,
and receive us graciously,
that we may offer the praise of our lips
like the sacrifice of calves."
- 3 Assyria will not save us.
We will not ride on horses, nor will we any longer say to the work of our hands,
'You are our gods';
for in you the fatherless finds mercy."
- 4 "I will heal their backsliding.
I will love them freely.
For my anger has turned away from him.
- 5 I will be like the dew to Israel.

that their lives are filled with trouble and there seems no help for them anywhere.

13:10,11 3:4; 10:7; 1 Sam 8:4-9,19,20; 13:14; 15:10,11,28; 1 Kings 11:29-31; 14:10.

13:12 7:2; 8:13; 9:9. "Stored up" – compare Rom 2:5.

13:13 Isa 13:8; 21:3; 26:17; Jer 4:31; 13:21; Matt 24:8.

13:14 In the midst of warnings and disaster God gives this great promise to Israel (compare 1:10,11; 2:14-23).

"Ransom" – means to pay a price for the purpose of rescue. See note on redeem at Ps 78:35.

"Grave" – the word in Hebrew is "Sheol". See note at Gen 37:35.

"From death" – v 1. "Destruction" – see 1 Cor 15:55.

13:15 The redemption God promises in v 14 was in the future. God would first punish the nation as He said He would.

"East wind" – the Assyrian army which God would send on Israel.

13:16 7:1,13; 8:5,6; 10:5,7,14; 11:6,7.

14:1 "Return" – 10:12; 12:6.

"Stumbled by your wickedness" – this is one of the principal themes of Hosea. Misery and destruction came on Israel for one reason only – their sins. This is a message for all people anywhere in any era. Compare Num 32:23; Rom 6:23.

14:2 Hosea by God's Spirit is so eager for their repentance he gives them the very words they should say.

"Take away" – or "forgive." Ex 34:9;

1 Kings 8:46-51; Ps 25:11; Jer 31:34; Dan 9:19; Matt 6:12; 1 John 1:9.

"Praise of our lips" – literally "the calves of our lips." The Septuagint has "the fruit of our lips" – compare Heb 13:15.

14:3 They should realize that their trust must not be in men, or in false gods or idols, and turn to the true Helper of needy men (compare 13:9).

"Mercy" – 2:19; 11:8.

14:4-8 God speaks these words through Hosea. When Israel turns to God and prays according to the words of vs 2,3, God will hear them and restore them. See Lev 26:40-45; Deut 4:29-31. Verses 5-7 give a beautiful poetic picture of this restoration. Compare Isa 27:3-6; 32:15-18; 35:1,2.

14:4 "Backsliding" – going away from God to pursue one's own way – 11:7; Ps 58:3; Prov 1:32; Isa 53:6. Healing of this terrible characteristic of going astray is what we all need. The only hope for healing is in God (Isa 29:24; Jer 31:33).

"Love" – 2:1,19,23; 3:1; 10:12; 11:4; Jer 31:3; Isa 54:6-8; Micah 7:18-20; Zeph 3:17; 1 John 4:8. After their repentance, after their sins are taken away and their waywardness healed, there will be no longer any obstacle to God's fully expressing His love to them.

"Anger has turned away" – sin is the reason for His anger, and when sin is taken away and forgiven there is no longer cause for anger. Note on God's anger at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18.

14:5 "Dew" – Gen 27:28. This speaks of

- He will grow like the lily, and thrust out his roots like a cedar of Lebanon.
- 6 His branches will spread, and his beauty will be like the olive tree,
and his fragrance like a cedar of Lebanon.
- 7 Those who dwell under his shade will return.
They will come alive like the grain,
and grow like the vine;
their renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.
- 8 Ephraim will say,

'What have I to do any more with idols?'
I have heard him, and observed him.
I am like a green fir tree.
Your fruit comes from me."

- 9 Who is wise?
He will understand these things.
Who is discerning?
He will know them.
For the ways of the LORD are right,
and the just will walk in them,
but the transgressors will fall in them.

God's blessing, new every morning.

14:8 "What have I to do any more with idols?"
– v 3. A question they should have asked long before.

"From me" – God is the one who is the source of all fruitfulness. This is especially true of spiritual fruitfulness – John 15:4,5; Gal 5:22,23.

14:9 Ps 107:43. "Understand" – Dan 12:10;
Prov 4:5,7; 9:10.

"Ways of the LORD" – Ps 37:34; Prov
8:32; 23:26; Matt 7:13,14.

"Right" – Ps 111:7,8; Zeph 3:5. Every individual either walks in God's ways or stumbles because of a rebellious heart – 4:5; 5:5

JOEL

Author:

Joel was a prophet who lived in the southern kingdom of Judah. His name means "Jehovah is God".

Date:

Some time about 835 BC.

Themes:

The great and terrible Day of the LORD; the warning that because of Israel's sin that day will bring on them great destruction; that destruction will be like a devastating invasion of locusts; however, God will preserve Israel at that time and punish those who attack them. In 2:28,29 there is the great prophecy about the Holy Spirit.

- 1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.
- 2 Hear this, you elders, and listen,
all you inhabitants of the land.
Has anything like this happened in your days,
or even in the days of your fathers?
- 3 Tell your children of it,
and may your children tell their children,
and their children another generation.
- 4 What the gnawing locust has left the large locust has eaten;
and what the large locust has left the crawling locust has eaten;
and what the crawling locust has left the shearing locust has eaten.
- 5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep.
And wail, all you drinkers of wine,
because of the new wine,
for it has been cut off from your mouth.
- 6 For a nation has invaded my land,
strong, and without number.
Its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and it has the fangs of a great lion.
- 7 It has laid waste my vine,
and splintered my fig tree.
It has stripped it bare, and thrown it away.
Its branches have become white.
- 8 Lament as a virgin dressed in sackcloth mourns for the husband of her youth.
- 9 The grain offering and the drink offering have been cut off from the house of the LORD.

- The priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.
- 10 The field lies waste, the land mourns,
for the grain is ruined,
the new wine is dried up, the oil fails.
- 11 Be dismayed, you farmers!
Wail, you vinedressers!
Weep for the wheat and the barley, because the harvest of the field has perished.
- 12 The vine has dried up,
and the fig tree has withered.
The pomegranate tree, the palm tree also,
and the apple tree,
all the trees of the field are withered.
Indeed, joy has withered away from the sons of men.
- 13 Put on sackcloth and lament,
you priests.
Wail, you ministers of the altar.
Come, lie all night in sackcloth,
you ministers of my God.
For the grain offering and the drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.
- 14 Sanctify a fast.
Call a solemn assembly.
Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God,
and cry out to the LORD.
- 15 Alas for the day!
For the day of the LORD is at hand,
and it will come as a destruction

1:1 "Word. . . came" – Hos 1:1. "Joel" means Jehovah is God.

1:2-4 Locust swarms are referred to in other parts of the Bible and were regarded as a judgment of God (Ex 10:13-15; Deut 28:38,42; 2 Chron 7:13). The one Joel speaks of here was the worst in the land of Israel for a very long time. The locust is similar to the grasshopper of India but not the same. Verse 4 in Hebrew has four different names for locusts – either different kinds of locusts or locusts in four different stages of development (the exact meaning of each of the four Hebrew words used here for locusts is unclear).

1:5 "Drunkards" – notes on drunkenness at Gen 9:21; Prov 23:29-35. This was evidently a common sin in Israel at that time.

"Weep" – vs 8,11,13. God was punishing them for their sins. It was no time for drunkenness and carelessness but for repentance and confession of sin – 2:12-14.

1:6,7 "Nation" – Joel means the locusts. He describes them as an invading army. Swarms containing millions of locusts come like a cloud and cover a land and are very destructive.

1:8 "Lament as a virgin" – now Joel addresses the whole nation. Their grief should be as great as a bride who loses her husband before the marriage is consummated.

1:9-12 "Offering" – Ex 29:40; Lev 2:1; 23:18; Num 6:15; 29:16. The locusts had destroyed the vines and the grain in the fields so there was nothing left to bring as offerings to the temple. Verse 12 indicates that along with the plague of locusts there was a drought in the land.

1:13 "Sackcloth" – Gen 37:34; 2 Sam 3:31; 1 Kings 21:27; Neh 9:1; Esther 4:1; Job 16:15.

1:14 "A fast" – 2:15; Lev 16:29; Jud 20:26; 2 Sam 12:16; Jer 14:12; Jonah 3:4,5; Matt 6:16; 9:15.

"Cry out" – they were to repent and plead with God to take away His judgment and restore the people and the land.

1:15 "The day of the LORD" – this phrase appears four more times in Joel (2:1,11,31; 3:14). There is no good reason to think the phrase does not have the same meaning in each place. Joel had been speaking of a past event but suddenly sees a much greater future event. The past one is just a little picture of the future one. The "day of the LORD" appears also in other books of the Bible – Isa 13:6,9; Ezek 13:5; 30:3;

from the Almighty.

- 16 Has not the food been cut off before our eyes;
yes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?
- 17 The seeds shrivel under their clods,
the storehouses are in ruins,
the barns are broken down,
for the grain is withered.
- 18 How the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle are bewildered,
because they have no pasture;
yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.
- 19 O LORD, to you I cry out, for the fire has devoured the wilderness pastures,
and flames have burned up all the trees
of the field.
- 20 The beasts of the field also cry out to you,
for the streams of water have dried up,
and the fire has devoured the wilderness pastures.

2 Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain!

Amos 5:18,20; Obadiah 15; Zeph 1:7,14;
Mal 4:5; 1 Thess 5:2; 2 Thess 2:2; 2 Pet
3:10. The day of the LORD has to do with events which will take place at the end of this age when Christ returns to earth.

"At hand" – in several of the above references it is said that the day of the LORD is near. If that day still has not come, how could the prophets speak of it as near in their own time? There are various possible explanations.

We may say that "near" or "at hand"
does not necessarily mean "coming soon".
It can mean impending, ready to come whenever God sees the time is ripe, not far off in distance. See Rom 13:11,12; Rev 1:3.

Or we may say that God was speaking through the prophets and regarding time in His own way (compare 2 Pet 3:8,9 – in His eyes it is only as the passing of three days since He spoke through His servants, or even much less than three days – Ps 90:4).

Or we may say that Joel and the other prophets were given a vision of events at the end of this age and from that point of view the day of the LORD was near in time (compare Hab 2:3).

"Destruction" – see further descriptions of that day in Isa 2:10-21; 24:1-13; Revelation chapters 15 and 16.

"Almighty" – in Hebrew "Shaddai" – note at Gen 17:1.

1:16-20 Joel resumes his description of the event in his day which was a small picture of the great and terrible day of the LORD still to come.

1:19 "To you I cry out" – calamities are not times for complaining against God, or for

Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming,
for it is at hand,

- 2 A day of darkness and of gloominess,
a day of clouds and of dense darkness.
Like dawn spreading on the mountains,
so a vast and mighty people come.
There has never been such as this;
nor will there be any such after it,
even to the years of many generations.
- 3 Before them a fire devours,
and behind them a flame burns.
Before them the land is like the garden of Eden,
but behind them a desolate wilderness;
yes, and nothing escapes them.
- 4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses,
and they run like cavalry.
- 5 They leap over the mountains with a noise like that of chariots, like the sound of a flame of fire that devours the stubble,
like a mighty people set in battle array.
- 6 Before their faces the people are despair and hardening one's heart. They should stir us to pray and seek God's face.

"Fire" – this may mean that the locusts and the drought destroyed everything like a great fire would do, or possibly because of the dry conditions literal fire broke out here and there.

2:1 "Trumpet" – Lev 23:24; 25:9; Num
10:5; Hos 5:8; 8:1.

"My holy mountain" – Ps 2:6. Both this phrase and Zion refers to Jerusalem. God speaks now through Joel.

"At hand" – note at 1:15. God is here speaking of a time at the end of this age when the day of the LORD will very suddenly come.

2:2 "Darkness" – compare 2:10,31; Isa
13:10; Amos 5:18,20; Zeph 1:15.

"Vast and mighty people" – the locusts Joel speaks of in chapter 1 were like an invading army (1:6). Does God here speak of a more literal army? Very possibly. We know that before the day of the LORD fully comes vast armies of some kind will be on the march on earth. See Revelation chapter 9. Certainly nowhere else does the Bible tell us that there will be a world-wide plague of literal locusts at the end of this age.

"Years of many generations" – God speaks of an army so vast there has never been one like it before and never will be afterwards. He is speaking, then, of an event still to come. Compare 3:9-11; Zech
12:3,9; Rev 16:14.

2:3 Literal armies can be as destructive to a land as locusts and, of course, far more destructive to human life.

2:4,5 Rev 9:7,9.

2:6 "Collect warmth" – or "gather brightness"

- in anguish; all faces collect warmth.
- 7 They run like mighty men.
They climb the walls like warriors;
and each one of them marches on in line and they do not break their ranks.
- 8 They do not bump one another.
Each one walks in his path;
and when they fall by the sword
they are not stopped.
- 9 They run to and fro in the city.
They run along on the wall,
they climb into the houses;
they enter at the windows like a thief.
- 10 The earth quakes before them,
the heavens tremble.
The sun and the moon grow dark,
and the stars withdraw their shining.
- 11 And the LORD makes his voice sound before his army;
for his camp is very great,
for strong is the one who carries out his word.
For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible, and who can endure it?
- 12 "So even now," says the LORD,
"turn to me with all your heart,
and with fasting, and with weeping,
and with mourning,
- 13 And rend your hearts, and not your garments,
and turn to the LORD your God.
For he is gracious and merciful, slow to get angry, and abounding in

- kindness,
and relents concerning disaster."
- 14 Who knows but that he may turn and relent,
and leave a blessing behind him,
a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD your God.
- 15 Blow the trumpet in Zion!
Sanctify a fast! Call a solemn assembly!
- 16 Gather the people, consecrate the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those nursing at the breast.
Let the bridegroom come out of his chamber,
and the bride from her room.
- 17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the portico and the altar,
and let them say,
"Spare your people, O LORD, and do not give up your inheritance to scorn,
so that the nations rule over them.
Why should they say among the peoples,
"Where is their God?"
- 18 Then the LORD will be jealous for his land,
and pity his people.
- 19 Yes, the LORD will answer and say to
his people,
"See, I will send you grain, and wine,
and oil, and you will be satisfied with it.
And I will no longer make you an object of reproach among the nations,
- 20 But will remove far from you the northern invader,
and will drive him into a barren and or "take on a ruddy colour." These are more literal translations of the Hebrew than the KJV, which, it seems, followed the Septuagint and the Latin Vulgate here, rather than the Hebrew. Perhaps the phrase means that their faces will be red with weeping or exertion. Several modern versions translate this "turn pale."

2:9 There will be no safety, no escape.
2:10 Isa 13:13; 24:17-21; Jer 4:23-26; Nah 1:5,6; Hab 2:21; Heb 12:26-28.
"Withdraw their shining" – vs 2,31; Isa 13:10; Rev 6:12-14.
2:11 "His army" – God says they are His army because they are an instrument in His hands to fulfill His purposes of judgment. Compare Isa 10:5-7; 13:4; Jer 25:9; 43:10-13; Hab 1:5,6.
"Day of the LORD" – 1:15.
"Who can endure it" – Nah 1:6; Rev 6:17.
2:12 1:13,14.
2:13 "Not your garments" – in those times the tearing of garments was an outward expression of grief or alarm (Gen 37:29,34; 44:13; Josh 7:6; Job 1:20; 2:12). Repentance means much more than that. It is hard hearts that need to be torn, not clothing – Ps 51:17; Isa 57:15.

"Turn" – Jer 3:12, 14,22; Lam 3:40; 5:21; Hos 14:1,2.

"Slow to get angry", etc – Ex 34:6,7; Micah 7:18,19; 1 John 4:8.

"Relents" – Jer 18:8; Jonah 3:10; 4:2.
2:14 Verse 18; Jer 26:3; Amos 5:15. The blessing the prophet was thinking of is the ability once again to worship God with offerings.

2:15,16 This is a call for the people to meet together and earnestly seek God. No one was to stay away for any reason whatever. It is the way to the blessing of the previous verse.

2:17 The religious leaders of the people must take the lead in repentance and seeking God.

"Inheritance" – Deut 4:20; Ps 28:9; 33:12; Eph 1:18.

"Scorn" – Deut 9:26-29; 1 Kings 9:7; Ps 44:13,14.

"Where is their God" – Ps 42:3,10; 79:10; 115:2.

2:18 If the people will do their part, God will be sure to do His part. Compare Jam 4:8-10.

"Jealous" – Isa 26:11; Zech 1:14; 8:2.
2:19 2 Chron 7:14; Ezek 34:29.

2:20 Some scholars think this is a reference desolate land with his face toward the eastern sea,

and his back toward the western sea,
and his stench will go up,
and his bad smell will rise,
because he has done monstrous things."

21 Do not fear, O land.

Be glad and rejoice, for the LORD will do great things.

22 Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field,
for the wilderness pastures are springing up,
for the tree is bearing its fruit,
the fig tree and the vine are yielding their strength.

23 Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God,
for he has given you the early rains justly,
and he causes the rains to fall for you,
the early rains, and the later rains
in the first month.

24 And the threshing floors will be full of wheat,
and the vats will overflow with wine and oil.

25 "And I will repay you for the years that the gnawing locusts have eaten,
the large locusts, the crawling locusts,

and the shearing locusts,
my great army which I sent among you.

26 And you will have plenty to eat, and will be satisfied and praise
the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wonderfully with you;
and my people will never be put to shame.

27 And you will know that I am in the midst of Israel,
and that I am the LORD your God,
and there is no other;
and my people will never be put to shame.

28 "And it will come about afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
your old men will dream dreams,
your young men will see visions.

29 And in those days I will also pour out my Spirit on my male and female servants.

30 And I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun will be turned into darkness,
and the moon into blood,
before the great and terrible day of to the "army" of locusts seen in chapter 1. Compare v 25. Others think it means a literal army which will invade Israel at the end of this age (compare Ezekiel chapters 38,39). Perhaps it refers both to the time then and the time still to come. See note on Isa 60:1-22.

"Eastern sea" – the Dead Sea.

"Western sea" – the Mediterranean.

"Stench" – compare Isa 34:3; Ezek 39:11,12.

2:21-24 In the earlier part of Joel the people of Israel are told to weep, wail and mourn – 1:5,8,11,13; 2:17. Now they are told to be glad and rejoice. What makes the difference? On their part, repentance and turning to God; on God's part, restoring and blessing the people and the land.

"The LORD will do great things", not they (Ps 126:3; Isa 25:1; 1 Sam 12:24). And they must rejoice in Him (v 23), not in themselves.

"Early rains, and the later rains" (v 23) – he means literal rains. There had been a drought in the land and God will give them rains "as before."

2:25 Note at 1:4. "Repay" – God speaks. He sometimes has to chastise and punish His people. But when they accept correction He pours out His blessings on them, and these blessings more than make up for the hardships and trouble they endured.

"My great army" – compare v 11. Whether an army of locusts or of men, God can use it for His purposes, and so it becomes His army.

2:26 "Praise" – compare Isa 12:1-3; 25:1.

Note on praise at Ps 33:1.

2:27 See Jer 31:34. "No other" – Isa 44:8; 45:18,21,22.

"Never be put to shame" – this must speak of a time not yet come. From Joel's day to this Israel has often been put to shame. But a time is coming when this will happen no more – Isa 29:22; 45:17; 54:4. 2:28-32 See Acts 2:16-21. Pentecost was the beginning of the fulfillment of these verses.

2:28 "Afterward" – here this means "the last days" (Acts 2:16). On "last days" see John 6:39; 11:24; 2 Tim 3:1; Heb 1:8; Jam 5:3; 1 Pet 1:20; 2 Pet 3:3; 1 John 2:18; Jude 18. The last times began with Christ's first coming and go on at least until His second coming.

"Your sons and your daughters" – that is, people of Israel. There are other promises concerning God's giving His Spirit to Israel. See Isa 32:15; 44:3,4; Ezek 36:27,28; 37:14; 39:29. Judging from the contexts of these promises the time when God will fulfill them is still in the future. Because there was the beginning of fulfillment at Pentecost does not mean that there will not be a final outpouring of the Spirit on Israel sometime in the future.

2:30,31 Compare Matt 24:29; Rev 6:12-14. These events will take place just before the "day of the LORD" (1:15; 2:1,11; 3:14). The fact that God refers to them in connection with the outpouring of His Spirit may suggest that there will be an outpouring just before the end of this age.

the LORD comes.

32 And it will come to pass, that whoever calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.
 For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
 there will be deliverance,
 as the LORD has said,
 among the remnant whom the LORD calls.

3 "For, see, in those days,
 and at that time,
 when I reverse the captivity of Judah
 and Jerusalem,
 2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will enter into judgment with them there for my people and for my inheritance Israel.
 They scattered them among the nations,
 and divided up my land.
 3 And they cast lots for my people,
 and traded a boy for a prostitute,
 and sold a girl for wine,
 that they might drink.
 4 "Yes, and what have you to do with me, O
 Tyre, and Sidon, and all the coasts of Palestine?
 Will you retaliate against me? And if you retaliate against me, swiftly and speedily I will bring your retaliation back on your own head, 5 because you took my silver and my gold, and carried my valuable possessions into your temples. 6 And you sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the Greeks, so that you might remove them far from their borders.

7 "See, I will raise them out of the place where you sold them, and will bring your retaliation back on your own head, 8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off, for the LORD has spoken."

9 Proclaim this among the Gentiles:
 "Prepare for war! Rouse the mighty men!
 Let all the warriors draw near;
 let them come up.

10 Beat your plowshares into swords,
 and your pruning hooks into spears.
 Let the weak say, 'I am strong.'

11 Assemble and come, all you nations, and all around gather yourselves together.
 Have your mighty ones go down there,
 O LORD.

12 Let the nations be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat;
 for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.
 Come, go down, for the winepress is

2:32 "Saved" – Rom 10:13.
 "Deliverance" – Isa 46:13; 59:20,21;
 Rom 11:26.
 "Remnant" – Isa 10:20; 11:10,11; Zech 13:8,9.
 "Calls" – Acts 2:39.
3:1 "Days. . .time" – the time indicated in 2:30-32.
 "Reverse the captivity of" – or it could be translated "restore the well-being of" – the Hebrew means either. Here it seems to mean to bring Judah and Jerusalem back to a place of spiritual prosperity and God's blessings (2:26,27,32; Isa 2:1-4; 40:9-11; 44:1-5; 51:1-3; 59:20 - 60:22; 62:1-12; Jer 31:35-40; Ezek 37:15-27; Hos 2:14-23; Amos 9:14,15; Zech 14:8-11,20,21.
3:2 "Valley of Jehoshaphat" – as far as is now known there has never been a valley by this name in Israel. The word
 "Jehoshaphat" means "The LORD (Jehovah) judges" and the valley is here called by that name because of events to take place there in the future. They will take place near Jerusalem (vs 14-16). God will bring "all nations" there. Compare vs 11,12; Isa 29:7; Zech 12:3; 14:2; Rev 16:14.
 "My inheritance Israel" – 2:17. God is going to deal with those nations in accordance with the way they have treated
 His people.
 "Scattered" – 2 Kings 17:3-6; 24:14;

25:8-12; Luke 21:24.
 "My land" – those who fight for possession of the land of Israel are fighting about land which belongs to God. And God will give it to those He chooses.
3:3 "Cast lots for my people" – Obadiah
 11. When their enemies conquered the land they treated the people like slaves.
3:4-8 God singles out Tyre and Sidon as examples of what He will do to "all nations" which have mistreated the people of Israel.
 See the principle upon which God will judge
 – "I will bring your retaliation back on your own head." Compare Deut 32:40-43; Ps
 79:1-7; 83:1-18; 94:23; Jer 25:12-14.
 Note on Tyre and Sidon at Isa 23:1,2.
3:9 "War" – this war is connected with the day of the Lord (vs 14-16), and so awaits fulfillment at the end of this age.
3:10 Compare Isa 2:4 which describes what things will be like when this final great battle is over.
3:11 "Your mighty ones" – this may mean angels who come to oppose the armies coming against Jerusalem. Compare Zech 14:5.
 "There" – vs 2,14-16.
3:12 God speaks. "Jehoshaphat" – v 2.
 This is not a judgment of individuals. God will deal with the armies which come against Jerusalem and pour out His judgment on them. Compare Zech 12:2-9; 14:3.
3:13 Compare Rev 14:14-20.

- full, the vats overflow;
for their wickedness is great.”
- 14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!
For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.
- 15 The sun and the moon will be darkened,
and the stars will withdraw their shining.
- 16 And the LORD will roar out of Zion, and makes his voice heard from Jerusalem.
And the heavens and the earth will shake,
but the LORD will be the hope of his people,
and the strength of the children of Israel.
- 17 “So you will know that I am the LORD your God, dwelling in Zion,
my holy mountain.
Then Jerusalem will be holy,
and no foreigners will pass through her again.

- 18 And it will happen in that day,
that the mountains will drip with new wine,
and the hills will flow with milk,
and all the rivers of Judah will flow with
water,
and a fountain will flow from the house of the LORD and water the valley of Shittim.
- 19 Egypt will become a desolation, and Edom will become a desolate wilderness,
because of their violence against the children of Judah,
for they shed innocent blood in their land.
- 20 But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation
to generation.
- 21 For I will cleanse away their bloodguilt which I have not cleansed;
for the LORD dwells in Zion.”

3:14 “Multitudes” – v 2. The valley called Jehoshaphat in vs 2,12 is here called “decision”. This does not mean God will come there and decide something. It means He will put into effect a decision He has already made.

“Day of the LORD” – 1:15.

3:15 2:2,10,31.

3:16 “From Jerusalem” – indicating that Jerusalem will be the center of God’s activities in that coming great battle.

“Shake” – Heb 12:26.

“Hope” or “Refuge” – Ps 2:12; 5:11; 46:1-3; Zech 12:8,9.

3:17 God speaks again through the prophet.

“Then” – at the time of the day of the Lord. God will dwell in Jerusalem. That this means a literal Jerusalem on earth seems clear from the statement “no foreigners will pass through her again.” Of course, foreigners never did invade the heavenly Jerusalem. In other places also God says He will make Jerusalem His dwelling place in the future – Ps 132:13,14; Ezek 48:35; Isa 12:6; 24:23; Jer 3:17; Zech 8:3; 14:16-21. But Jerusalem will be greatly changed from what it is now.

3:18 2:24. Compare Ex 3:8. “House of the LORD” – see Ezek 47:1-12.

3:19 Isa 19:5-8; 34:5-15.

3:20,21 “Forever” – Ps 68:16; Ezek 37:25-28; 43:7,9; Amos 9:15; Micah 4:6,7; Gen 17:8; 48:4. No good reason appears to the author of these notes to think that Judah and Jerusalem are not to be taken literally. It is the same city which is guilty of shedding blood, and which remained for a time unpardoned, which will exist through all generations.

“I will cleanse” – Jer 31:31,34; Ezek 36:25; Mic 7:18-20.

“In Zion” – Ps 43:3; 74:2.

AMOS

Author:

Amos means "One who carries a load". He was a shepherd, and evidently a poor man who earned money by looking after sycamore trees. His village Tekoa was about 9 kilometers south of Bethlehem, 18 kilometers south of Jerusalem.

Date:

Sometime about 760 BC.

Theme:

God is faithful to His people, so they must obey His commands and live in accordance with them; the condition of society as a whole is a reflection of the condition of the individuals who live in it; God is the Supreme Ruler of the world and will punish evil nations; He will also punish His own people who are unfaithful and disobedient to His covenant; because of Israel's sin God will use other people to uproot them from their land; but He gives a promise of eventual redemption for Israel.

1 The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds of Tekoa, the visions he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

2 And he said,
"The LORD roars from Zion,
and makes his voice heard from Jerusalem,
and the pastures of the shepherds mourn and the top of Carmel withers."

3 Thus says the LORD:
"For three transgressions of Damascus,
and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
because they have threshed Gilead with iron threshing implements.

4 So I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which will devour the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

5 I will also break the gate bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven,
and the one who holds the sceptre
from Beth Eden;
and the people of Syria will go into captivity to Kir," says the LORD.

6 Thus says the LORD:
"For three transgressions of Gaza,
and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
because they deported all the captives,
to deliver them up to Edom.

7 So I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
which will devour its palaces.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and the one who holds the sceptre from Ashkelon,
and I will turn my hand against Ekron;
and the rest of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord God.

9 Thus says the LORD:
"For three transgressions of Tyre,
and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
because they delivered up all the captives to Edom,
and did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.

10 So I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre,
which will devour its palaces."

11 Thus says the LORD:

1:1 "Shepherds – Amos was no leader in the religious establishment (7:14,15). Often God calls people from very ordinary jobs to do His great work – see Judges 6:11-14; Ps 78:70,71; Matt 4:18-22; 9:9.

"Tekoa" – this village was about nine kilometers south of Bethlehem.

"Visions he saw" – this means God revealed to him what he has written down. Compare Isa 1:1; Hos 1:1; Joel 1:1.

"Uzziah" – 2 Kings 14:21; 2 Chron 26:23. He reigned 792-740 BC.

"Jeroboam" – 2 Kings 14:23. This was Jeroboam the Second who reigned 793-753 BC.

"Joash" – a variant of Jehoash.

1:2 Jerusalem was the city God made His special dwelling place on earth. His temple was there. See Ps 43:3; 68:16; 132:13,14.

"Roars" – compare Jer 25:30. The words signify that God was aroused and pronouncing judgment against sinful people. Those "roars" make up the large part of this book.

"Withers" – a severe drought was coming on the land of Israel.

1:3-5 Damascus was (and is) the capital of Syria. For other prophecies concerning it see Isa 17:1; Jer 49:23-27.

1:3 "Thus says the LORD" – Amos was not speaking his own words but words God gave him to speak. Compare Jer 1:9,10; 2 Pet 2:21.

"Transgressions" – God sees what is going on in the world, and at the right time sends punishment on nations and cities, people and individuals. Here He speaks of national sins and national punishment.

"Gilead" – an area belonging to Israel

east of the Jordan river. Syria had captured it and behaved in a very cruel way toward the Israelites there. Now the Syrians had to pay for their sins against God's people.

1:4 Hazael was king of Syria about 842-796 BC, and Ben-Hadad was his son who ruled about 796-775 BC.

1:5 "I will also break the gate bar" – God would send enemy armies to do this. See note at Isa 10:5,6.

"Kir" – Isa 22:6. This was probably located somewhere in what is present-day Iran. The valley of Aven and Beth Eden evidently were somewhere in Syria. "Aven" means "evil" or "wickedness".

1:6,7 "Gaza" – Gen 10:19; 1 Sam 6:17; Zeph 2:4. This was one of the chief cities of the Philistines. It was on the Mediterranean coast, west of Judah.

"Deported all the captives" – possibly refers to people in Judah whom they had captured. They would have to pay for this contempt for God's people.

1:8 Three more chief cities of the Philistines are named in this verse.

"The rest. . . will perish" – there are no Philistines today. The nation has disappeared into history.

"Lord God" – see the note at Gen 15:2. 1:9,10 "Tyre" – for other prophecies concerning this city see Isa 23:1-18; Ezek 26:1 - 28:19.

"Covenant of brotherhood" – 1 Kings 5:1,12; 16:30,31. Its sin also was selling people (probably people of Israel) into slavery.

1:11,12 "Edom" – see Gen 25:23-30. The

“For three transgressions of Edom,
 and for four,
 I will not turn away its punishment,
 because he pursued his brother
 with the sword,
 and cast off all pity,
 and his anger tore continually,
 and he kept his wrath permanently.
 12 So I will send a fire on Teman, which will devour the palaces of Bozrah.”
 13 Thus says the LORD:
 “For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four,
 I will not turn away its punishment,
 because they have ripped up the pregnant women of Gilead,
 so they could enlarge their border.
 14 So I will kindle a fire on the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour its palaces, amid shouting in the day of battle, and a tempest in the day of the whirlwind;
 15 And their king will go into captivity,
 he and his princes together,”
 says the LORD.

2 Thus says the LORD:
 “For three transgressions of Moab,

and for four,
 I will not turn away its punishment,
 because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.
 2 So I will send a fire on Moab,
 and it will devour the palaces of Kiriath;
 and Moab will die amid tumult and shouting and the sound of the trumpet.
 3 And I will cut off the judge from its midst, and will slay all its princes with him,”
 says the LORD.
 4 Thus says the LORD:
 “For three transgressions of Judah,
 and for four,
 I will not turn away its punishment,
 because they have despised the law
 of the LORD,
 and have not kept his commandments,
 and their lies led them astray,
the lies their fathers followed.
 5 So I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem.”
 6 Thus says the LORD:
 “For three transgressions of Israel,
 and for four,
 I will not turn away its punishment,
 because they sold the righteous for silver,
 and the poor for a pair of sandals.

land lay southeast of Judah. For other prophecies about it see Isa 34:5-17; Jer 49:7-22; Ezek 25:12-14; Obadiah.

“His brother” – the people of Israel were descended from Jacob, the Edomites from Jacob’s brother Esau. God sees the hate, rage, and brutality in any nation and will punish it. Teman was a region and Bozrah a chief city in Edom.

1:13 “Ammon” – Gen 19:38; Jer 49:1-6; Ezek 25:1-7; Zeph 2:8,9. This land was east of Israel.

“Gilead” – v 3.

“Enlarge their border” – observe what nations sometimes do to gain more land for themselves. God will see that they pay for it. 1:14,15 Rabbah was the capital of Ammon. It was destroyed by the Assyrians. Today it is called Amman and is the capital of the Kingdom of Jordan. Compare Jer 49:6.

2:1 “Moab” – a land east of the Dead Sea, north of Edom, south of Ammon. For other prophecies concerning it see Isa 15:1 - 16:14; Jeremiah chapter 48; Ezek 25:8-11; Zeph 2:8-11.

“Burned” – in the culture of that day this was considered an evil act. This was not Moab’s only sin but was a symbol of the hatred and contempt they showed toward other nations.

2:2 “Kiriath” – probably the same as Kir Moab or Kir Hareseth, the capital of Moab. But the Hebrew here may be translated “of her cities”.

2:3 “I will cut off” – God used an invading army to do this. Compare 1:5.

2:4 From here to the end of this book God speaks of His own people. He has much more to say about their sins than about the sins of other nations. Because they had His law and knew much more truth than other people, they were more guilty and deserved harsher punishment. God determined to punish other nations; He could not let His own people escape punishment. See 3:2.

“Despised the law” – the sins of the nations described in 1:3 - 2:3 were against other people. Judah had sinned grievously against the law of God and the God who gave the law (Jer 6:19; Ezek 20:23,24; Acts 7:53; Rom 3:19).

“Lies” – may signify idols or false gods. Compare Hab 2:18. Following false gods is a sin against which God repeatedly warned His people – Ex 20:3-6; etc. A worship of gods will always lead people away from the one true God.

“Fathers” – or “ancestors” – Josh 24:14,15; Jud 2:10-12,16-19; Jer 9:14. 2:5 “Fire” – 1:5,7,10,12,14; 2:2. Since God determined to destroy other kingdoms for their sins, could He pass over guilty and unrepentant Judah? He could not and would not.

2:6-8 Now attention is focused on Israel, especially the northern kingdom (concerning the division of the twelve tribes into two kingdoms see 1 Kings chapter 12). It too

- 7 They pant after the dust of the earth that is on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the humble.
 And a man and his father go in to the same girl,
 thus profaning my holy name.
- 8 And they lie down beside every altar
 on clothes taken in pledge, and in the house of their god they drink
 the wine of those who have been condemned.
- 9 Yet it was I who destroyed the Amorite
 before them,
 whose height was like the height of the cedars,
 and whose strength was like the oaks.
 Yet I destroyed his fruit above,
 and his roots below.
- 10 "Also it was I who brought you up from the land of Egypt,
 and led you forty years through the desert,
 to possess the land of the Amorite.
- 11 And I raised up some of your sons as
 prophets,
 and some of your young men as Nazirites.
Is it not so, O children of Israel?"
 says the LORD.
- 12 "But you gave the Nazarites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying,

 'Do not prophesy'.

- 13 "See, I am weighed down by you,
 as a cart full of sheaves is weighed down.
- 14 Therefore flight will perish from the swift,
 and the strong will not strengthen his power,
 nor will the mighty deliver himself,
- 15 Nor will the one who handled the bow
 be able to stand;
 and the one who is swift of foot will not escape,
 nor will the one who rides a horse deliver himself.
- 16 And the bravest of the mighty will run away naked in that day,"
 says the LORD.

3 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

- 2 "You only have I known of all the families of the earth,
 therefore I will punish you for all your evil deeds.
- 3 Can two walk together, unless they are in agreement?

was guilty of many sins against God and His law, and had to be punished. The nation as a whole was called to be a holy and righteous people, to have compassion on the poor – Ex 19:3-6; 23:11; Deut 15:7,8,11. Instead they persecuted the righteous and oppressed the poor, and for financial gain were willing to commit any evil – 4:1; 5:11; 8:4-6. They were not interested in justice, only in bribes and profit. The poor and oppressed could not pay bribes and so got no justice.

"The same girl" – another example of despising God's law (Lev 18:7,8,15; 20:11,12).

"Profaning my holy name" – Lev 18:21; 19:12; 21:6; Jer 34:16; Ezek 20:9. God's name is linked with His people. When they sin His reputation in the world suffers. 2:8 "Altar" – they committed immoral acts at the shrines of their false gods.

"Pledge" – a further breach of the law (Ex 22:26,27; Deut 24:12,13,17).

2:9 "Amorite" – those who lived in Canaan before Israel took the land (Gen 15:16; Jud 6:10).

2:10 "Egypt" – 3:1; Ex 20:2; Deut 8:2; Josh 21:43-45.

2:11 "Prophets" – Israel alone of all the nations on earth had men inspired by God to tell the people the Word of God (this was what prophets were – Gen 20:7).

"Nazirites" – (Num 6:1-21) were people wholly dedicated to the one true God. Observe that it was God who raised up prophets and Nazirites. Compare Eph 4:11,12.

2:12 This is how Israel treated these great gifts of God. They showed utter contempt for the servants of God and therefore for God Himself. If a Nazirite drank wine he broke his vow of dedication. Israel did not want people fully dedicated to God or people telling them the truth of God. They did not want to be rebuked for their sins by either the lives or words of anyone. Compare 2 Tim 4:3,4.

"Do not prophesy" – 7:12,13; Isa 30:10; Jer 11:21; Micah 2:6. It is sad when people do not have the truth, but sadder still when they do not want the truth.

2:13-16 There could be no escape for such people even if they were God's chosen nation.

2:16 "In that day" – the day when He sent the Assyrian army to punish Israel (2 Kings 17:5-23).

3:1 2:10. "Whole family" – not just the ten tribes of the northern kingdom but Judah and Levi also.

3:2 "You only" – Ex 19:5,6; Deut 10:15-17.

"Known" – the word here indicates a special intimate relationship.

"Therefore" – they may have thought that since they were God's special people, God would not punish them for their sins (compare Matt 3:7-10). The exact opposite was true. He would punish them because they were His people. Great privileges bring great responsibilities, and when these are ignored great punishment is sure to follow.

3:3 God and Israel could not go on together unless Israel was in agreement with God's

- 4 Will a lion roar in the forest,
when he has no prey?
Will a young lion cry out of his den,
if he has caught nothing?
- 5 Can a bird fall in a snare on the earth,
where there is no trap for it?
Will a trap spring up from the ground,
if it has caught nothing at all?
- 6 Will a trumpet be blown in the city,
without the people being afraid?
Will there be a disaster in a city,
without the LORD causing it?
- 7 Surely the Lord God does nothing without revealing his secret to his servants the prophets.
- 8 The lion has roared! Who will not fear?
The Lord God has spoken!
Who can but prophesy?
- 9 Make a proclamation in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt,
and say,
"Assemble on the mountains of Samaria,
and see the great tumults in her midst,
and the oppression within her."
- 10 "For they do not know how to do right,"
says the LORD,
"who store up in their palaces
the gains of violence and robbery."
- 11 Therefore thus says the Lord God:
*"There will be an enemy surrounding
the land,*

- and he will deprive you of your strength,
and your palaces will be plundered."
- 12 Thus says the LORD:
"As a shepherd takes out of the mouth of a lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so will the children of Israel who live in Samaria be taken out on the corner of a bed,
and to Damascus on a couch.
- 13 Listen and testify against the house of Jacob," says the Lord God,
the God of hosts,
- 14 "That in the day that I punish Israel
for his transgressions,
I will also punish the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground.
- 15 And I will strike the winter house with the summer house,
and the houses of ivory will perish,
and the great houses will come to an end," says the LORD.

4 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria,
who oppress the poor,
who crush the needy,
who say to their husbands,
"Bring something, and let us drink."

2 The Lord God has sworn by his own holiness:
"See, the days are coming on you when laws and ways. If Israel would not agree there must be the punishment of separation. Compare Hos 1:2-9.

3:4,5 Every event has a cause. Lions roar thinking of their prey. They growl when they are eating it. Birds are not caught without a trap or snare. And traps and snares do not catch something if there is nothing there. Amos means that God was roaring against them (1:2) and had laid a trap for them.

3:6 People tremble when a trumpet sounds in alarm – Joel 2:1. Disaster coming on a city is like a trumpet sound from God. It does not come without cause and the cause is the Lord Himself.

3:7,8 Here Amos applies the above illustrations. Why is he there warning them of coming disaster? Because God had revealed to him what was coming and told him to prophesy. His prophesying was God roaring like a lion through him and the roar was a sure sign that disaster was coming on them. Compare Hos 5:14.

"Revealing His secret" – this God did throughout the Bible. He told people in advance what He would do – Isa 46:10.

"Prophesy" – why did Amos come to Israel to speak God's message? He felt an inner compulsion.

3:9,10 People who did not have God's law and did not know God are called as witnesses against Israel. Even such people could see that what Israel was doing was wrong.

3:11 The rich and powerful in Israel hoarded their wealth and oppressed the poor – 2:6,7. God would deal with them as they dealt with others (see note at Ps 18:25,26).

"Enemy" – Assyria.

3:12 There would be only a few survivors of the Assyrian captivity (Isa 10:20-23; 11:11).

3:13,14 "Punish" – 2:6; 3:2.

"Bethel" – this town was a center for idolatry in Israel (1 Kings 12:26-33).

3:15 This verse speaks of wealth and luxury. God would destroy all that because it was based on selfishness and contempt for the poor (4:1). See 1 Tim 6:6-19.

4:1 "Bashan" – the cows of Bashan were fat and sleek and fed on the finest pasturelands in Israel. The prophet compares the wealthy women of Israel to them.

"Needy" – 2:6,7; 5:11; 8:4-6. These women ate the finest things and cared not at all whether the poor had anything at all to eat.

"Drink" – luxury and pleasure are all they thought about while the needy died on their doorsteps (compare Luke 16:19-25).

4:2,3 "Sworn by His holiness" – the Almighty

- he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.
- 3 And you will go out the breaks in the wall, each one straight ahead of her,
and you will throw down your riches
in the palaces," says the LORD.
- 4 "Come to Bethel, and transgress!
At Gilgal multiply transgression!
And bring your sacrifices every morning,
and your tithes every three years,
- 5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving
with leaven,
and proclaim and announce the freewill offerings:
for this you love to do, O children of Israel," says the Lord God.
- 6 "But I have also given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities,
and lack of bread in all your places.
Yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- 7 "And I have also withheld the rain from you,
three months before the harvest;
and I caused it to rain on one city,
and withheld the rain on another city.
One part was rained on, and the piece which was not rained on dried up.

- 8 So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water,
but they were not satisfied.
Yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- 9 "I have struck you with blight and mildew.
When your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased,
the locust devoured them.
Yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- 10 "I have sent plague among you,
like the plague of Egypt.
I have slain your young men by the sword,
and have taken away your horses,
and have made the stench of your camps to come up into your nostrils.
Yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- 11 "I have overthrown some of you,
as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a firebrand snatched out of the blaze.
Yet you have not returned to me,"
says the LORD.
- 12 "Therefore this is what I will do speaks in this solemn and emphatic way so that the people might understand the gravity of their situation, the certainty of their danger. God has compassion on the poor and when people oppress them He sees it and one day He will arise in anger to punish the oppressors.

"Hooks" – compare 2 Chron 33:11. The Assyrians actually put hooks through the lip or nose of prisoners of war and led them away with ropes. God is declaring here that this is fitting punishment for anyone who selfishly oppresses the poor.

4:4,5 He tells them to go ahead and do what He knows they are determined to do anyway (compare Rom 1:28). Here He is speaking ironically. Bethel and Gilgal were once places where God's people erected memorials to the one true God, but Israel now worshiped false gods there (Gen 28:10-19; 35:1; Josh 4:20-24).

"Morning" – Ex 29:38-42; Num 28:3,4.
"Tithes" – Lev 27:30-32; Num 18:21.

"Every three years" – or "on the third day."
"Thanksgiving" – Lev 7:12,13. They were thanking idols for what God alone had given.

"Freewill offerings" – Ex 36:3; Lev 7:16; 22:18. There were giving God's offerings to idols.

"Love to do" – their offerings, indeed their whole religion, was hypocritical and vain. So twisted can the mind and heart of people become. See Jer 17:9; Prov 14:12.

4:6-12 The Lord speaks of methods He had used to turn His people back to Him. They were chastisements and warnings. But Israel refused to repent and stubbornly went on its own way, so there was no remedy – Hos 11:7; 2 Kings 17:14-20.

4:6 "Cleanness of teeth" – indicating nothing to eat. God sent famines to Israel because of their sins – 1 Kings 18:2; 2 Kings 4:38; 6:25; 8:1. But the people did not heed these warnings.

4:7,8 Drought was another way God chastised and warned His people – 1 Kings 17:1; Jer 3:3.

4:9 Deut 28:22; Joel 1:4-12.

4:10 "Egypt" – Exodus chapters 7-12.

"Sword" – God sent war to Israel. He used their enemies against them so He says "I have slain".

4:11 "Sodom" – Gen 19:24,25. God completely destroyed some places in Israel (probably using foreign armies). Compare Isa 1:5-9. Israel itself as a nation had just barely survived. All these various punishments were in accordance with His own Word to Israel long before, and they should have understood and turned to God. See Lev 26:14-39; Deut 28:15-35.

"Yet you have not returned to me" – this was their most grievous sin and the root cause of their other sins and the punishment which came on them. Compare Ps 107:10-13, 17-19,33,34,43.

4:12 They had ignored all His words, warnings, chastisements, and methods. So

- to you, O Israel;
and because I will do this to you,
 prepare to meet your God, O Israel.”
- 13 For, see, he who forms the mountains,
 and creates the wind,
 and declares his thought to man,
he who darkens the morning,
 and treads on the high places of the earth,
 The LORD God of hosts is his name.
- 5 Hear this word, a lament which I take up against you, O house of Israel:
 2 “The virgin Israel has fallen.
 She will rise no more.
 She is forsaken on her land;
there is no one to raise her up.”
- 3 For thus says the Lord God:
 “The city that marched out a thousand strong will have a hundred left,
 and that which marched out a hundred strong will leave only ten to the house of Israel.”
- 4 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel, “Seek me, and you will live.
- 5 But do not seek Bethel,
 do not go to Gilgal,
 and do not travel to Beersheba.

God would bring on them one final punishment – 3:11-15. There would be no escape for the nation as a whole, and they should prepare to face God’s judgment. This may be the meaning of “prepare to meet your God”. But this phrase may also be taken as a call to repentance. They should turn their backs on their sins and prepare to hear what God has to say to them. Compare 5:4-6.

4:13 The God they must deal with is the almighty Creator of the universe (Gen 1:1; Isa 40:25,26; 42:5).

“Declares his thoughts to man” – 3:7; Dan 2:28; 2 Cor 2:10. The Bible as a whole is a revelation of God’s thoughts.

5:1 Amos accepts the fact that God will execute His judgment on Israel and grieves as if it were already done.

5:2 “Virgin Israel” – compare 2 Kings 19:21; Isa 23:12; Jer 14:17; 18:13. The words personify Israel but do not mean Israel was pure.

“Never to rise again” – this means only that the northern kingdom as such was to be destroyed forever.

5:3 See 3:11,12; Isa 6:13.

5:4 “Seek me and you will live” – Ezek 18:30-32; Jer 29:13; Isa 55:6,7; 45:19.

5:5 “Gilgal” – 4:4. He is saying that idols cannot help them.

“Beersheba” – evidently this town, far to the south in Judah, had also become a place of idolatry. See 8:14.

“Nothing” – or “grief”, or “wickedness” –

For Gilgal will surely go into captivity, and Bethel will come to nothing.”

- 6 Seek the LORD, and you will live; otherwise he will break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, with no one in Bethel to quench it.
- 7 You are those who turn judgment to bitterness,
 and abandon righteousness in the earth.
- 8 Seek him who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into morning and darkens day into night, who calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the surface of
 the earth;
 the LORD is his name.
- 9 He causes destruction to burst out against the strong,
 so that destruction comes to the fortress.
- 10 They hate the one who rebukes in the gate,
 and they abhor him who speaks uprightly.
- 11 Therefore, since you trample on the poor,
 and compel him to give wheat, though you have built houses with dressed stone,
 you will not live in them.
 You have planted pleasant vineyards,
 but you will not drink wine from them.
- 12 For I know your many transgressions, in Hebrew “Aven”, which has various meanings. Here it probably refers to Bethel as “Beth Aven” (Hos 4:15).

5:6 “House of Joseph” here signifies the whole kingdom of Israel. Ephraim, the dominant tribe in Israel, was descended from Joseph – Gen 41:52; 48:17-20.

“Fire” – Deut 4:24; Heb 10:26-31; 12:29.

“Bethel” – the false god at Bethel could not even save itself, let alone Israel.

5:7 Amos begins again to describe some of the sins that were bringing God’s judgment on Israel. They were sins against justice and righteousness. Israel had become a thoroughly corrupt society where people as a whole only thought of what they could get, and not of how they could help others.

5:8,9 He reminds them again of the God who was watching them – 4:13. The Creator of the universe was well able to judge and punish Israel if the people would not seek Him.

“Pleiades and Orion” – two well-known constellations. See Job 9:9.

5:10 All they wanted was to do what they pleased and get away with it. Justice and truth meant nothing to them. See the danger of this in 2 Thess 2:11,12.

5:11 See again God’s regard for the poor – 2:7; 4:1; 8:4,6. God would see to it that their oppressors would pay for their crimes – 3:15; 4:1-3.

5:12 “I know” Hos 5:3; Heb 4:13.

“Bribe” – Ex 23:8; Ps 15:5; Prov 15:27;

- and your enormous sins.
 You afflict the just.
 You take a bribe, and you turn away
 the poor in the gate from their right.
- 13 Therefore the prudent keeps silent at that time; for it is an evil time.
- 14 Seek good, and not evil, that you may live, and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you,
 as you have spoken.
- 15 Hate evil, and love good, and establish justice in the gate.
 It may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph."
- 16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, says this:
 "Wailing will be in all the streets,
 and they will say in all the highways,
 'Alas! alas!
 And they will call the farmer to mourning,
 and those who are skilled in laments to wailing.
- 17 And in all the vineyards there will be wailing;
 for I will pass through your midst,"
 says the LORD.
- 18 "Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD!
 What will it mean for you?
 The day of the LORD is darkness,

- and not light.
 19 As if a man flees from a lion,
 and a bear meets him;
 or goes into the house and leans his hand on the wall,
 and a serpent bites him.
- 20 Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light?
 Very dark with no brightness in it?
- 21 "I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not savour your solemn assemblies.
- 22 Though you offer me burnt offerings
 and your grain offerings,
 I will not accept them ;
 nor will I have regard for your peace offerings of fattened animals.
- 23 Take away from me the noise of your songs,
 for I will not hear the music of your harps.
- 24 But let justice flow down like water,
 and righteousness like a mighty stream.
- 25 "Did you offer sacrifices and offerings to me in the desert forty years,
 O house of Israel?
- 26 But you carried the tabernacle of your Moloch and Kiyun, your idols,
 the star of your god,
 which you made for yourselves.

Eccl 7:7; Isa 1:23; 33:15. The Bible condemns those who demand bribes and those who give bribes to pervert justice. It says nothing about the helpless who are forced to give tips or bribes to get anything done (as in so many offices in India). In such cases the responsibility and the sin belongs to those who demand bribes.

5:13 A prudent man knows when to speak out and when it is useless to speak out.

5:14 "Live" – vs 4,6. Seeking God means to seek good and to turn from evil. God meets those who do this with forgiveness and blessing. Compare Jam 4:8-10.

"As you have spoken" – God was not with them; they were deceiving themselves (compare Hos 5:6,15).

5:15 Ps 97:10; Isa 1:16,17; Rom 12:9.

"It may be" – Ex 33:19. Even if they repented they would not deserve His mercy, and they would have to wait and prove their repentance was genuine.

"Remnant" – God had already determined to destroy the kingdom of Israel and only some survivors would receive mercy – 3:11,12.

5:16,17 God says this because He knew that Israel at that time would not repent and seek Him.

"I will pass through" – in judgment like a roaring lion – 1:2; 3:8.

5:18-20 Isa 2:10-21; 13:6; Joel 1:15; 2:1,2,11; 3:31. Evidently some in Israel did not understand what the day of the LORD would be like. On that day there would be absolutely no escape for the wicked.

5:21-24 Compare Isa 1:11-17.

"Burnt. . . and grain offerings" – Leviticus chapters 1 and 2. Some worship can never be acceptable to God. Jesus spoke of the kind of worship God wants – John 4:23,24.

"Peace offerings" – notes at Leviticus chapter 3.

"Harps" – the fault was not in their music but in their hearts.

5:24 Ps 89:14; Jer 9:24; 22:3; Micah 6:8; Matt 5:6,10,20. No one who perverts justice and puts righteousness to one side (as Israel did) can be pleasing to the one true God, and the worship of such people will never be acceptable.

5:25 Israel was disobedient in the desert. That is why they had to wander there forty years – Num 14:22-35. What if they brought sacrifices to God? Sacrifices without obedience is not acceptable to Him. See 1 Sam 15:22,23.

5:26 What good are sacrifices and religious ceremonies and worship when people do things God hates? How could they even imagine God was with them when they trampled underfoot one of His most important laws – Ex 20:3-6? Compare Hos 8:11-13. The first three lines of this verse may be translated in various ways. It could be "You have lifted up Sakkuth your king and

- 27 Therefore I will cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus," says the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.
- 6 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel comes!
- 2 Go to Calneh, and see; and go from there to Hamath the great. Then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are you better than these kingdoms? Or their border greater than your border?
- 3 You who would put the day of disaster far off, and cause the seat of violence to come near,
- 4 who lie on beds of ivory, and stretch out on your couches, and eat the lambs from the flock, and the calves from the midst of the stall,
- 5 who chant to the sound of the harp, and invent musical instruments for themselves, like David,
- 6 who drink wine from bowls, and anoint yourselves with the best ointments,

- but are not grieved at the ruin of Joseph.
- 7 Therefore they will now go away captive with the first who go away captive, and the banqueting of those who stretch themselves out will pass away.
- 8 The Lord God has sworn by himself, the LORD God of hosts says, "I abhor the arrogance of Jacob, and hate his palaces. Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it."
- 9 And it will happen, if ten men remain in one house, that they will die. 10 When an uncle, with someone who burns bodies, picks up the bodies to take them out of the house, he will say to him who is in a corner of the house, "Is there anyone with you?" And he will say, "No." Then he will say, "Hold your tongue! For we must not mention the name of the LORD."
- 11 For, see, the LORD gives a command, and he will smash the great house to pieces, and the little house to bits.
- 12 Do horses run on the rock? Does one plow there with oxen?

Kiyun your idols, your star-gods". Or, according to the Septuagint, "You have lifted up the shrine of Moloch and the star of your god Raphan, their idols" (compare Acts 7:43 – a quotation from the Septuagint).

5:27 Their disobedience would have a very painful result.

"Captivity" – 4:2; Hos 5:14; 9:3.

"Beyond Damascus" – in the land of Assyria.

6:1-7 Amos here describes the sin of complacency and pronounces God's judgment on it. See also Isa 32:9-11; Zeph 1:12,13. God had been like a lion roaring against them, pointing out their terrible sins and threatening terrible punishment – 1:2; 2:4-8; 3:14,15; 4:1-3; 5:16,17. It was no time for complacency and feelings of security, but for repentance and turning to God with all their heart and mind and strength. Complacency was the result of unbelief. It was utter foolishness and made more certain their destruction. See Prov 1:32. Today, in the light of the teachings of Jesus such as Matt 4:17; 5:29,30; 7:13,14; 13:49,50; 16:24-27; 25:26, complacency, smug self-satisfaction, is a mark of the utmost folly.

"At ease" (v 1) – this was carnal security, thinking they were secure in themselves no matter what God or His prophets had to say. 6:2 Hamath was a city in Syria about 180 kilometers north of Damascus. Perhaps Calneh was a city near there.

"Gath" – Josh 11:22; 13:3. It is unclear

why Amos makes the comparison he does in this verse. Doubtless it was understood by those who heard him.

6:3 "Put. . . off" – in their thinking they would not admit a day of disaster was near, and by refusing to do so they brought that day nearer.

6:4-6 Here is a picture of their complacency. They refused to think of God's coming judgment and sought only luxury and pleasure.

"Like David" – 1 Sam 16:15-23; 2 Sam 23:1. There is nothing wrong with this in its time and place. But that was not the time and place for it.

6:6 "Not grieve" – compare Ps 119:136; Jer 9:1; 13:17; Ezek 9:4-6; Joel 2:12,13; Matt 5:4; Luke 19:41.

"Joseph" – note at 5:6.

6:7 "They" – the careless and hardened who cared nothing for either God or man.

6:8 "Sworn by himself" – compare Heb 6:13,14.

"I abhor the arrogance" – see Prov 6:16,17; Isa 2:12-18; etc.

"Palaces" – or fortresses (the Hebrew word can mean either). God hated their luxury and unreasoning confidence in their own wealth and strength.

6:9-11 This is the sort of situation that would develop when the enemy captured the city of Samaria. There would be great slaughter and destruction, and fear even to mention the name of the true God.

6:12 Israel's leaders had been acting against both reason and God's order in the world.

For you have turned justice into gall,
and the fruit of righteousness into poison, 13 you who rejoice in nothing, who say,
"Did we not take power for ourselves
by our own strength?"

14 "But, see, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel," says the LORD, the God of hosts,
"and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the river of the wilderness."

7 This is what the Lord God showed me: I saw that he was forming a swarm of locusts at the beginning of the late crop, and saw it was the late crop after the king's mowing. 2 And it came about when it had finished eating the grass of the land, that I said, "O Lord God, forgive, I beg you. How can Jacob stand? For he is small."

3 The LORD relented about this. "It will not be,"
said the LORD.

4 This is what the Lord God showed me: I saw the Lord God calling to contend by fire, and it consumed the great deep, and was eating up a part of the land. 5 Then I said, "O Lord God, stop, I beg you. How will Jacob stand? For he is small."

6 The Lord relented about this. "This also will not be," said the Lord God.

7 This is what he showed me: I saw the Lord standing on a wall made with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. 8 And the LORD said to me,

"Amos, what do you see?"
And I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "See, I will set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel. And I will not pass by them any longer.

9 "And the high places of Isaac will become desolate,
and the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste;
and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

10 Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent word to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For Amos says this:

'Jeroboam will die by the sword,
and Israel will surely be led away captive from their own land.'

12 Also Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go! Run away to the land of Judah, and eat food there, and prophesy there. 13 But do not prophesy any more at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and the king's court."

14 Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah,
"I was not a prophet, and not the son of a prophet,

Horsemen and farmers had better sense than they.

"Justice into gall" – they perverted justice and by that means harmed and killed the helpless – 12:7; 5:7,12. See an illustration of this in 1 Kings 21:1-16.

"Righteousness into poison" – 5:7. They perverted the righteousness God required into self-righteousness and pride and an excuse to exalt themselves and despise others. Compare Luke 18:9-14.

6:13 "In nothing. . . strength" – or "in Lo Debar. . . Karnaim" (towns east of the Jordan river in Gilead). In Hebrew Lo Debar means "nothing", and Karnaim means
"horns" (power or strength).

6:14 "A nation" – Assyria (Isa 10:5,6).

"From the entrance of Hamath to the river of the wilderness" – or "the valley of the Arabah" – the whole land of Israel from the northernmost boundary to the Dead Sea.

7:1 "Showed me" – in a vision.

"A swarm of locusts" – God was preparing them to send on Israel for their punishment. Compare Joel chapter 1.

7:2 "I said" – compare Gen 18:23-33; Ex
32:11-13,31,32.

"Jacob" – the people of Israel.

7:3 "Relented" – Ex 32:14; Deut 32:36;
Jer 18:8; 26:19; Hos 11:8.

"Not be" – the locust plague described in Joel was at a different time.

7:4 "By fire" – perhaps a judgment like the one that came on Sodom (Gen 19:23-28).

7:7,8 The Lord here compares Israel to a wall. He wanted Israel to be "straight." When He tested them He found them altogether crooked. So the wall had to come down.

7:9 He would not send a devastating plague of locusts or destroying fire, but He would send an enemy army to destroy their places of idolatry and many of the people.

"Isaac" – Jacob's father here signifies the people of Israel.

"Jeroboam" – 1:1; Hos 1:1.

7:10 Bethel was a place of idolatry – 4:4; 5:5,6; 1 Kings 12:28-30. So Amaziah was an idolatrous priest and not a true one. He did his best to get rid of God's prophet
Amos.

"Not able to bear his words" – in other words, could not bear the truth. Compare 5:10.

7:11 Amos did not say Jeroboam himself would die by the sword, and Jeroboam did not (2 Kings 14:29). The sword did come on the "house of Jeroboam" – v 9; 2 Kings 15:8-10.

7:12 "Seer" – 1 Sam 9:9. Amos told Israel what he saw in visions. So Amaziah sarcastically calls him a "seer" (one who sees).

7:13 Bethel was a wicked king's temple;
the temple of the King of heaven was in Jerusalem.

7:14,15 Amaziah was completely mistaken in his view of Amos. So Amos explained but I was a shepherd, and a gatherer of sycamore figs. 15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' 16 Now therefore hear the word of the LORD. You say,

'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not drop your words against the house of Isaac.'

17 "Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword, and your land will be divided by line, and you will die in a defiled land, and Israel will surely go into captivity out of his land."

8 This is what the Lord God showed me: I saw a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, "Amos, what do you see?"

And I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then the LORD said to me, "The end has come on my people Israel. And I will not pass by them any longer. 3 And the songs of the temple will become wailing sounds in that day, says the Lord God. There will be many dead bodies everywhere. They will throw them out in silence."

4 Hear this, you who swallow up the needy, and do away with the poor of the land,

5 Saying, "When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain?"

And the Sabbath, that we may set out wheat for sale, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit, 6 that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, yes, and sell the refuse of the wheat?"

7 The LORD has sworn by the excellence of Jacob, "Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

8 Will the land not tremble for this, and everyone mourn who lives in it? And all of it will swell like the river Nile; and it will be tossed up and subside, like the river of Egypt.

9 "And this will come about in that day, says the Lord God:

I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight.

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamenting, and bring sackcloth on every waist, and baldness on every head, and make it like the mourning for an only son, and its end like a bitter day.

11 "See, the days come," says the Lord God, "when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

that he was not a professional prophet, that was not how he "earned his bread" (v 12), and that the king of Judah had not sent him to "conspire" in Israel (v 10). He came to Israel only because God sent him.

7:16 "Now therefore, hear" – since God had sent him to prophesy he would do so whether Amaziah or Israel liked it or not.

7:17 Amos repeats his prophesy that Israel would go into exile (5:27) and adds predictions concerning Amaziah.

8:1 "Showed me" – 7:1,4,7.

8:2 When fruit is ripe men pluck it and take it away. So Assyria would do to Israel.

8:3 "Wailings" – 5:16,17. This phrase may also be translated "the temple singers will wail."

"Silence" – was Amos about to plead for Israel as he did in 7:2,5? God did not want to hear it for He had decided that this punishment must come on them.

8:4,5 Again we see God's concern for the poor and needy – 2:6,7; 4:1; 5:12. Merchants cared nothing for the sufferings they caused the poor. They were greedy for gain and practiced dishonesty to get it. Even their religious festivals and days of rest were a burden to them because they could not do business at those times.

"Falsifying the balances" – Deut 25:15; Prov 11:1; 16:11; Hos 12:7; Micah 6:10,11. 8:6 2:6.

8:7 "The excellence of Jacob" – the Lord Himself. Compare 6:8.

"Never forget" – this speaks of the certainty of punishment for an unbelieving, unrepentant people. See Hos 8:13. Compare Jer 31:34; Heb 8:12; 10:17.

8:8 Egypt's great river, the Nile, every year during the rainy season would rise by as much as 25 feet and flood all the surrounding land. God's judgment would be like that.

8:9 Compare 5:18. The day God speaks of here is not the "day of the LORD", but it is something like it, in some ways a little picture of it.

8:10 Verse 3. "Sackcloth" – Gen 37:34; 2 Sam 3:31; 21:10; Isa 3:24.

"Baldness" – Isa 7:20; Jer 47:5.

8:11 "A famine of . . . words of the LORD" – surely the worst of all possible famines. The people would be left without a word of encouragement or comfort or rebuke or hope or warning or guidance. God would no longer speak to them through His prophets, and they would have to face His judgments without a word from Him. Compare Prov 1:22-33, especially vs 28,29; Hos 5:6,15.

12 And they will wander from sea to sea,
and from the north to the east, running here and there to seek the
word of the LORD,
and will not find it.

13 "In that day the beautiful virgins and young men will faint for thirst.

14 Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, and say,
'Your god, O Dan, lives!
and, 'The way of Beersheba lives!
will fall, and never rise up again."

9 I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and he said,

"Strike the top of the doorposts,
so that the thresholds shake,
and break on the heads of them all.
And I will slay the last of them with the sword.
The one among them who flees will not get away,
and the one among them who escapes will not be rescued.

2 Though they dig into hell,
my hand will take them from there.
Though they climb up to heaven,
I will bring them down from there.

3 And though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel,
I will search them out and take them
from there.
And though they hide from my sight in the bottom of the sea,
I will give a command to the serpent there,

and it will bite them.

4 And though they go into captivity in front of their enemies,
I will command the sword there,
and it will slay them.
And I will set my eyes on them for disaster, and not for good."

5 The Lord God of hosts is he who touches the land, and it melts,
and all who live there mourn,
and all of it rises like the river Nile
and subsides like the river of Egypt.
6 He it is who builds his upper rooms
in the heavens,
and places his foundation on the earth.
He it is who calls for the waters of the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth. The LORD is his name.

7 "Are you not like children of the Ethiopians to me,
O children of Israel?" says the LORD.
"Did I not bring Israel up out of the land of Egypt?
And the Philistines from Caphtor,
and the Syrians from Kir?"

8 See, the eyes of the Lord God are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of
the earth.
Yet I will not totally destroy the house of Jacob, says the LORD.

9 For, see, I will give a command, and will sift the house of Israel among
all the nations,

8:12 Compare Ezek 20:1-3,31. When they had God's Word they would not obey it. This was their punishment. They would understand something of its great value when it was taken away from them.

8:13 "Thirst" – he probably means both physical and spiritual thirst.

8:14 "Sin" – the idol of Samaria. Compare Jer 11:13; 32:34.

"Dan" – 1 Kings 12:28,29.

"god" – or "power."

"Beersheba" – 5:5.

"Will fall" – Hos 8:4.

9:1 "I saw" – 7:1.

"The altar" – probably the one at Bethel (7:13).

"Strike" – this signified the destruction of the place of worship there (3:14).

"I will slay" – God would use Israel's enemies as His instruments.

9:2 "Into hell" – or "to Sheol" (note at Gen 37:35).

9:2-4 Compare Ps 139:7-12. For Israel there would be no possibility of escape from God who is everywhere.

"Carmel" – a mountain in Israel.

"For disaster and not for good" – compare 2 Chron 16:9. We can well imagine the fearful condition of a people or an individual whom God determines to punish. 9:5 "Melts" – Ps 46:6; 68:2; Heb 12:29. "Egypt" – 8:8.

9:6 A beautiful picture of the work of the Creator. It was He with whom Israel had to deal.

"LORD" – Jehovah (Ex 3:14,15).

9:7 "Ethiopians" – Isa 18:1,2. Because Israel had broken God's covenant and trampled underfoot His laws, He says He would treat them as other peoples. It is true He brought them up from Egypt but He had moved other peoples also from place to place.

"Caphtor" – the island of Crete.

9:8 "Eyes" – v 4.

"Not totally destroy" – God would destroy the kingdom of Israel but not all the people (3:12).

9:9 "Among all the nations" – Lev 26:33.

"Sieve" – there would be a great shaking and sifting process which would completely separate the "grain" from what was not grain.

- like grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the smallest grain will fall onto
the earth.
- 10 All the sinners among my people will die by the sword,
all those who say,
'The disaster will not overtake or meet us.'
- 11 "In that day I will raise up the tabernacle of David which has fallen,
and repair the broken places,
and raise up its ruins,
and build it up as in the days of old,
- 12 so that they may possess the remnant of Edom,
and of all the nations which are called by my name," says the LORD who will do this.
- 13 "See, the days are coming,"

9:10 Though a remnant of the people would survive, there would be no hope for those who went on in their sins.

9:11,12 In Acts 15:15-18 James refers to these verses. His purpose was not to show that they were completely fulfilled in his day, but to show that Gentile peoples would also bear God's name - that is, find salvation in Christ.

"In that day" - in the prophets this sometimes means the "the day of the LORD" - Isa 10:21; 13:6-13; Joel 1:15; 1 Thess 5:2; 2 Pet 3:10. See Joel 3:1,18; etc.

"Tabernacle of David" - the kingdom of David. He ruled over the twelve united tribes. This kingdom would be restored. See also Ezek 34:23,24; 37:15-28. The Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Hebrew Old Testament made before the birth of Christ) is different here. See Acts 15:17 which is a

- says the LORD,
"when the plowman will overtake the reaper,
and the treader of grapes him who sows seed.
And the mountains will drip with sweet wine,
and all the hills will melt.
- 14 And I will reverse the captivity of my people Israel,
and they will build the ruined cities and
live in them,
and they will plant vineyards and drink
the wine from them,
and they will make gardens and eat
their fruit.
- 15 And I will plant them in their land,
and they will never again be uprooted from their land which I have given them," says the LORD your God.

quotation from the Septuagint.

9:13 Joel 3:18.

9:14 Isa 11:10-16; Jer 29:14; 33:7; etc.

"I will reverse" - or "I will restore the fortunes of" - the Hebrew means both.

9:15 Here is a plain declaration that the final restoration of the people of Israel to the land of Israel would be permanent (compare Joel 3:20). Since this was not the case when the Jews returned from Babylon in the 6th century BC, God is speaking of another "planting" of Israel in their land. Up to this present century this never happened. Whether the existence of Israel as a nation in the land now is in fulfillment of this verse is not clear - at least to the author of these notes. But it is clear that Israel will eventually be planted permanently there.

"Given them" - Gen 13:14,15; 28:13; Jer 3:18; Obadiah 17.

OBADIAH

Author:

The Bible tells us nothing about Obadiah. He is not the same person as the government official of the same name who lived in the days of Elijah and Ahab (1 Kings 18:3-16), or any of about a dozen other men in the Old Testament named Obadiah. His name means “Worshipper of Jehovah” or “Servant of Jehovah”.

Date:

Probably sometime about 845 BC.

Theme:

The punishment that will come on the people of Edom because of their acts of violence against Israel.

The vision of Obadiah.
 This is what the Lord God says concerning Edom;
 We have heard a report from the LORD,
 and a messenger has been sent among the nations –
 Arise, and let us go up against her in battle.

2 “See, I have made you small among the nations.
 You are greatly despised.

3 The pride of your heart has deceived you,
 you who live in the clefts of the rock,
 whose home is in the heights,
 who says in his heart,
 ‘Who will bring me down to the ground?’

4 Though you exalt yourself like the eagle,
 and though you set your nest among the stars, I will bring you down from there,”
 says the LORD.

5 “If thieves came to you,
 if robbers at night
 (oh, how you will be cut off!), would they not steal only until they had enough?
 If grape pickers came to you,
 would they not leave some grapes?

6 Oh, how Esau’s land will be searched out!
 How his hidden treasures hunted!

7 All the men of your confederacy will bring you to the border.
 The men who were at peace with you will deceive you,
 and prevail against you.

Those who eat your food prepare a wound for you.
 He has no understanding!”

8 The LORD says,
 “In that day will I not destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau?”

9 And your mighty men, O Teman, will be dismayed, so that everyone belonging to the mountain of Esau may be cut off in the slaughter.

10 Because of your violence against your brother Jacob shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever.

11 “On the day that you stood on the other side,
 on the day strangers took his forces captive, and foreigners entered through his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem,
 you were like one of them.

12 But you should not have watched on the day of your brother, on the day that he became a foreigner;
 nor should you have rejoiced over the children of Judah on the day of their destruction;
 nor should you have spoken proudly on the day of distress.

13 You should not have entered through the gate of my people in the day of their calamity.
 Indeed, you should not have looked on

1 “Vision” – Isa 1:1; Gen 15:1.
 “Edom” – for other prophecies concerning this land and people see Isa 34:5-15; Jer 49:7-22; Ezek 25:12-14; Amos 1:11,12.
2-4 They were a very proud people, so God would humble them. They thought they were great, so He had made them small. See Prov 3:34; 6:16,17; Jam 4:6-10; 1 Pet 5:5,6; Ps 18:25-27; Isa 2:11-18.
 “Rock” (v 3) – the capital city of Edom was located among rocks and cliffs and they were sure that no enemy could take it. They forgot about God the Almighty One.
5,6 Edom’s enemies would deal with them in a much worse way than thieves and robbers. They would leave nothing behind.
 “Grapes” – Deut 24:20,21.
7 Edom’s friends and allies would prove false and treacherous and deceive the people. God would use this means of destroying them.
8 Edom was famous for men of worldly wisdom – Jer 49:7 (Job’s friend Eliphaz was a native of an Edomite city – Job 2:11).
 “Destroy” – their wisdom would not be able to save either the country or themselves.

 “Esau” – another name for Edom. See Gen 25:29,30.
9 Teman was a tribe descended from Esau. It gave its name to the region it occupied in Edom.
10-14 Here is the principal reason why God would send destruction on Edom. When Israel was attacked by enemies Edom was glad and actually took part in destroying Israel.
10 “Brother Jacob” – Edom was Jacob’s brother (Gen 25:24-30). So Edom and Israel were brother nations. This is what made their joy over Israel’s destruction worse than it would otherwise have been.
 “Forever” – Ezek 35:9.
11 “One of them” – Esau was like one of Israel’s worst enemies.
12 To be glad at the destruction of a brother is devilish and those guilty of it will have to face God’s judgment. Here was a whole nation guilty of this.
13 “Laid hands on their wealth” – they jumped on a suffering people and made their sufferings worse.

their affliction in the day of their calamity, or laid hands on their wealth in the day
 of their calamity;
 14 nor should you have stood at the crossroads to cut off those among them who were escaping;
 nor should you have delivered up those among them who remained in the day of distress.

15 "For the day of the LORD is near on
 all the nations.
 It will be done to you as you have done.
 Your payment will return on your own head.

16 For as you drank on my holy mountain,
 so all the nations will drink continually.
 Yes, they will drink,
 and they will swallow,
 and they will be as though they had never been.

17 But on mount Zion there will be deliverance,
 and there will be holiness,
 and the house of Jacob will possess their possessions.

14 They were determined that none of their "brother" nation should escape, so deadly was their malice and hatred.

15 "Day of the LORD" – Joel 1:15;
 2:1,11,31; 3:14.

"Own head" – here is a theme that runs throughout the Bible (Ps 7:15,16; 18:25-27; Jer 50:29; Ezek 35:11; Hab 2:8; Gal 6:7. This will be true of both individuals and nations.

16 "On my holy mountain" – the mountain where Jerusalem is. The Edomites celebrated Israel's defeat with drinking parties. But Edom and many other nations would have to drink something other than alcoholic beverages at the time of the day of the LORD.
 See Jer 25:15-29; 49:12,13; Rev 14:10.
17 Joel 2:32; Amos 9:11-15; Rom
 11:26,27.

"Their possessions" – Gen 13:14,15.

18 And the house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame,
 and the house of Esau will be stubble, and they will set them on fire and consume them.

And no one will remain of the house of Esau, for the LORD has spoken."

19 And those of the south of Israel will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the plains the land of the Philistines,
 and they will possess the fields of Ephraim,
 and the fields of Samaria,
 and Benjamin will possess Gilead.

20 And the returned captives of this host of the children of Israel will possess the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath,
 and the captives from Jerusalem,
 who are in Sepharad,
 will possess the cities of the south.

21 And saviours will come up on Mount Zion to judge the mountain of Esau.
 And the kingdom will belong to the LORD.

"Philistines" – at that time a people along

 tion of Sepharad is uncertain.

JONAH

Author:

It is not stated anywhere that Jonah wrote this book, but according to tradition he was the author, and the prayer in chapter 2, being in the first person, is evidence that he wrote down at least that. Jonah is mentioned in 2 Kings 14:25. His village, Gath-Hepher was in the territory of Zebulun in the northern part of Israel. His name means "dove."

Date:

Possibly sometime about 760 BC.

Themes:

God has ways of making His disobedient servants obedient; God's compassion and love, not only toward Israel, but toward people of other nations; to be spared destruction those people must repent and turn to God; people from Israel were responsible to declare God's grace to other people and be an instrument to turn them to God.

1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it, for their wickedness has come up before me."

3 But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa. And he found a ship going to Tarshish, so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD sent out a great wind onto the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was about to be broken up. 5 Then the sailors were afraid, and each one cried out to his god. And they threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it by that much. But Jonah had gone down into the hold of the ship, had lain down, and was fast asleep. 6 So the captain came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean by this, sleeper? Arise, call on your God. Perhaps your God will think about us, so that we do not perish."

7 And they all said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, so that we can find out who is to blame for this calamity on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

8 Then they said to him, "Tell us, we beg you, who is to blame for this calamity on us. What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?"

9 And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land."

10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "Why have you done this?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, so that the sea may calm down for us?" For the sea was growing more stormy.

12 And he said to them, "Pick me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will calm down for you. For I know that because of me this great tempest has come on you."

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to reach land, but they could not; for the sea was growing even more stormy against them. 14 Therefore they cried out to the LORD, and said, "We beg

1:1 "Word. . .came" – Jer 1:2; Hos 1:1; Joel 1:1.

1:2 Nineveh" – Gen 10:11; 2 Kings 19:36; Nahum chapters 1-3; Zeph 2:13; Matt 12:41. Nineveh was the chief city of Assyria, and the greatest city in the world in those days. According to an ancient tradition, to go around it and all of its suburbs or sister cities was a journey of about 100 kilometers. It was about 800 kilometers from Jonah's home town in Israel.

"Their wickedness" – in Nahum's day Nineveh had become an arrogant, violent, cruel, evil, corrupt city (Nah 1:11; 2:12,13; 3:1,4,16,19). It must have been something like that in Jonah's day – 3:8. It was the great enemy of Israel and eventually – after Jonah's time – crushed the northern kingdom and took the people into captivity. See 2 Kings 17:3-6. Sometimes God asks His servants to do very difficult things and things they do not at all wish to do or understand the necessity of doing.

1:3 "To flee" – in 4:2 Jonah himself gives his reason for this. He did not want Nineveh to repent or to have God's forgiveness. He wanted God to destroy the city. Little did he seem to understand that no one can run away from God – Ps 139:7-12. And did he vainly imagine that he was the only prophet in Israel and that God had no one else He could send to Nineveh?

"Tarshish" – this city (probably on the southern coast of present-day Spain) was as far away as he could get from Nineveh and in the opposite direction. "Joppa" was in Israel on the Mediterranean coast.

1:4 "The LORD sent" – compare v 17; 4:6,7,8; Ps 107:25; Ps 29. God the Creator is in charge of His creation and can use any of it at any time for His purposes.

1:5 "Each. . .his god" – these sailors were of nations other than Israel and worshiped various and sundry gods, worthless and helpless gods which had no power to control the elements of nature (compare Ps 115:3-8).

"Sleep" – evidently Jonah did not much care what happened or whether he lived or died. He was out of touch with the true and living God, and in a stupor of disobedience and possibly despair.

1:6 The captain saw that prayer to other gods was not working and thought maybe Jonah's God would do something for them.

1:7 "Cast lots" – Lev 16:8; Josh 18:6; 1 Chron 24:5; Ps 22:18; Ezek 21:21; Acts 1:26.

1:9 "Hebrew" – Gen 14:13; 39:14; Ex 1:15; Phil 3:5.

"LORD" – in Hebrew "Jehovah" (Ex 3:14).

"God of heaven" – 2 Chron 36:23; Ezra 1:2; Neh 1:4; Dan 2:18; Isa 66:1; Ps 115:3.

"Who made" – Gen 1:1; Isa 40:25,26.

1:10 "Exceedingly afraid" – they realized that the God worshiped by Jonah was no mere tribal deity, not one of the lesser gods most people worshiped.

"Told them" – Jonah was at least perfectly open and frank with them (v 12). 1:12 It seems that Jonah was in a state of mind that welcomed death – v 5. He saw he could not run away from God, and he would rather die than go to Nineveh.

1:13-15 They had been terrified at the mention of Jehovah, the God of heaven – v 10, and did not want to offend Him by harming one of His servants.

"Stopped its raging" – Ps 107:29; Matt 8:26.

you, O LORD, we beg you, do not let us perish for this man's life, and do not put innocent blood to our account. For you, O LORD, have done as it pleased you." 15 So they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging. 16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to the LORD, and made vows.

17 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the fish's belly, 2 and said,

"I cried out to the LORD because of my distress, and he heard me.

I cried out from the belly of hell, and you heard my voice.

3 For you cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the floods surrounded me.

1:16 "Feared the LORD" – Mark 4:41; Ex 20:1; Ps 76:7; 96:4; Mal 1:14. They had seen dramatic and unmistakable evidence that the mighty Creator was at work. It does not say that they renounced their own various gods. Possibly they simply tried to add Jehovah to the list of gods to be worshiped. All too often this is the way with people. Many do not understand that to worship and serve the true God, men must renounce all gods and idols – Ex 20:1-6; 1 Kings 18:21; Isa 42:8.

1:17 Compare v 4. "Great fish" – it does not say this was a whale and it may have been a special fish that God prepared for this one event. God sent this fish to save Jonah from death in the sea.

"In the belly" – the God who made both Jonah and the great fish could keep Jonah alive in it as long as He wished.

"Three days and three nights" – see Matt 12:40; 16:4.

2:1 This is surely the strangest place from which anyone ever prayed. But the true and living God can hear us no matter where we are, no matter how extreme our trouble or how great and desperate our need. In the prayer which follows it is significant that Jonah does not pray to get out of the fish's belly. But since he is turning back to God, it seems that he assumed that God would deliver him – v 9. He may have realized that the fish was God's way of deliverance from death in the sea.

2:2 Compare Ps 18:5,6; 30:3; 50:15; Lam 3:55; Matt 14:30.

"I cried out" – he had faced death calmly, and even thought it was good for him to die – 1:12. But facing death and actually experiencing it are two different things. He went into the sea quietly enough, but when the sea began to go into him he was alarmed.

"He heard me" – yes, we see God's goodness even to a disobedient prophet.

All your billows and your waves passed over me.

4 Then I said,

'I am cast out of your sight.

Yet I will look again toward your holy temple.'

5 The waters surrounded me to the soul.

The deep closed around me, the weeds were wrapped around my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains.

The earth with its bars were about to enclose me forever.

Yet you have brought up my life from the pit, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD, and my prayer went up to you, into your holy temple.

8 Those who regard lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice to you with the

How much more will God hear those who obey Him.

"Hell" – in Hebrew "Sheol" – the unseen realm of the dead (note at Gen 37:35). It seemed to Jonah that he was as good as dead. Some commentators think that Jonah actually died, and that God brought him to life again. This interpretation also does not seem impossible, but it is not demanded by the language here, which is, after all, poetry. 2:3 "You" – 1:15. The sailors were merely God's instruments. Compare Job 1:21.

"Billows", "waves" – Ps 42:7.

2:4 Ps 31:22. "Yet" – Ps 73:22,23; Lam 3:19-23. Our danger or trouble is never so great as to be beyond the reach of God's help, if we will call to Him. This should always be our confidence.

"Holy temple" – v 7. Probably means God's temple in heaven – Rev 7:15; 11:19; 15:5,6; 16:17.

2:5 Compare Ps 69:1,2.

2:6 "Pit" – v 2; Ps 30:3; 69:15.

2:7 Verse 2; Ps 78:34,35; Hos 5:15. It is sad that people often wait until they are in the depths of trouble before they remember God and seek Him. But it is better to remember Him then than not to remember Him at all.

2:8 "Lying vanities" – sometimes this is the way the Jews referred to false gods. Deut 32:21; 1 Sam 12:21; Ps 115:4-8.

"Forsake their own mercy" – they turn their back on God's grace, the grace of the God who demands that they forsake their idols.

2:9 Though he is still in the fish's belly (v 1), he has faith that God will deliver him and enable him to sing and offer sacrifices again.

"Thanksgiving" – Lev 7:12,13; Ezra 3:11; Ps 7:17; 56:12; Eph 5:20; 1 Thess 5:18.

"Vowed" – Ps 50:14; 56:12; 61:8; 65:1; 66:13,14; 16:12-19.

voice of thanksgiving.

I will pay what I have vowed.

Salvation is of the LORD."

10 And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto the dry land.

3 And the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, 2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I tell you."

3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, in accordance with the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, three days' journey in size. 4 And Jonah began to go into the city on the first day's journey, and he cried out and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh will be overthrown!"

5 So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them.

6 For word came to the king of Nineveh, and he

"Salvation is of the LORD" – always true of every kind of salvation – Ps 3:8; Isa 43:11; 64:4; Acts 4:12; Eph 2:8,9.

2:10 "The LORD spoke" – Ps 33:9; 148:5,7,8. In this book everyone and everything, except Jonah, is seen obeying God's will. And after Jonah's disobedience God made him also willing to obey.

3:1 "The second time" – why did not God send another prophet and reject Jonah once and for all? God does not give up on His servants so easily. Compare Matt 26:34,35; Mark 16:7; Luke 22:31,32,61,62; Ex 3:11; 4:10,13; Jer 1:6. God does not accept excuses and He knows how to make His servants obedient. Perhaps we may be glad that He doesn't always use such drastic ways as He used with Jonah, but it is far better that He use such means than that He leave us in disobedience. A state of disobedience is much worse than any trouble that moves us to be obedient.

3:2 "Preach. . . the message that I tell you" – this was the work of a prophet. He was simply to deliver God's message whether it had to do with the future or the present, whether it meant prediction or just preaching.

3:3 "Arose and went" – Jonah still did not want to go, and later he was not happy when his preaching met with success (4:1-3), but he went. Perhaps God's servants are to be more commended when, in obedience to God, they do things they don't want to do rather than when they do things they do want to do.

"Three days" – see note at 1:2.

3:4 God's message was simple and direct. Of course, God did not mean that Nineveh would be destroyed whether the people repented or not (compare Jer 18:7,8; Ezek 18:21-23; 33:10,11,14-16). God is what Jonah thought Him to be – gracious and compassionate (4:2).

3:5 This was a marvelous thing, not equaled in all the days of the Old Testament, as far arose from his throne, and laid aside his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 And by the decree of the king and his nobles, he caused this proclamation to be published throughout Nineveh, saying, "Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything. Let them not eat, or drink water, 8 But have man and beast covered with sackcloth, and cry out mightily to God. Yes, have every one of them turn from his evil way, and from the violence of their hands. 9 Who can tell but that God may turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we do not perish?"

10 And God saw their deeds, that they turned from their evil way, and God relented concerning the harm that he had said he would do to them; and he did not do it.

4 But this displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. 2 And he prayed to the

as we know. This was a city of the Gentiles which worshiped many gods and with little knowledge of the true God. See 1:2 for the character of the people. Yet there was this turning to God at the preaching of Jonah – something that the cities of Galilee and Judea did not do at the preaching of the Lord Jesus Himself (Matt 11:20-24; 12:41).

"Sackcloth" – 1 Kings 21:27; Neh 9:1; Dan 9:3.

3:6 The king of Nineveh was the very powerful king of Assyria.

"Ashes" – signifies a remarkable and complete humbling of himself.

3:7 "Eat or drink" – the people were to devote themselves to repentance and calling on God, and not to go about their usual tasks.

3:8 "Evil way", "violence" – he admitted the terrible spiritual condition of his people and made no excuses for them, no attempt to cover up their sin (compare Prov 28:13).

3:9 "Who can tell" – Joel 2:14; Amos 5:15.

3:10 This was according to His nature and His word – Ex 34:6,7; Joel 2:13. Jer 18:7,8 (written long after this) reveals God's dealings with cities or countries.

"Relented" – Ex 32:14. God delights to show mercy (Micah 7:18), and is reluctant to punish and destroy (compare Jer 48:31,32; Matt 23:37; etc).

4:1 "Angry" – what other preacher in history reacted like this to a great success? Why was Jonah angry? Nineveh was a great enemy of Israel and he thought God should not have mercy on it. His view was that if God is going to show mercy to anyone let it be to Israel alone, and not to Gentile enemies of Israel. Though Jonah was a prophet of the true God his heart was not in tune with God's heart in these matters. He did not want what God wanted, and did not delight in what God delighted in.

4:2 He knew the truth of Ex 34:6,7; Ps 86:15; 103:8; 116:5; Joel 2:13; etc.

LORD, and said, "Please, LORD, was not this what I said when I was still in my country? Therefore before this I fled to Tarshish. For I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to get angry, and of great kindness, and one who relents concerning calamity. 3 Therefore now, O LORD, I beg you to take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live."

4 Then the LORD said, "Are you right to be angry?"

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat at the east side of the city, and there he made a booth for himself, and sat under it in the shade, until he could see what would become of the city. 6 And the LORD God prepared a plant and made it come up over Jonah, so that it might give shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad about the plant. 7 But the next day when morning dawned, God prepared a worm, and it attacked the plant, so that it withered. 8 And it came about when the sun rose that God prepared a hot east wind. And the sun beat down on Jonah's head, so that he fainted, and wished that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

9 And God said to Jonah, "Are you right to be angry about the plant?"

And he said, "I am right to be angry, even to death."

10 Then the LORD said, "You are sorry about the plant, for which you did not labour or make to grow, which came up in a night and perished in a night. 11 And should I not spare Nineveh, that great city, where there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand, and also many cattle?"

But he wanted this truth applied to himself and to his people, not to outsiders.

4:3 "Take my life" – compare 1 Kings 19:4. Jonah's life meant nothing to him since God would not act as he wanted Him to act (others since then have fallen into depression for the same reason). He wanted Israel exalted above all peoples and nations, and could not see that God's behavior toward Nineveh was the way to go about it.

4:4 God now has to deal again with His grieved and angry prophet. We see how gently He does this in the rest of the chapter. The answer to the question of this verse is plainly "no". No one ever has any right to question God's ways (compare Rom 9:20). It is our part to learn God's ways and gladly yield to them.

4:5 "What would become of the city" – perhaps he hoped that Nineveh's repentance was only skin deep and that God would have to destroy it after all.

4:6 "Prepared" – vs 7,8; 1:17. God begins to teach Jonah a very important lesson. Jonah was concerned about trifling things such as personal comfort, and cared nothing for the salvation of people other than his own. It is a sad fact that in this matter there are a great many in Christian churches just like him. They are glad for comforts and luxuries but care nothing for the souls of men.

"Plant" – what kind of plant is not clear from the Hebrew. Possibly it was some sort of gourd.

4:7 God can take away our comforts as easily as He provides them, and may do so to teach us a lesson.

4:8 Again we see that Jonah thought entirely too much of his comforts and not enough of the people to whom God sent him to minister. He still wanted to die, not because of the vine, but because he was still not reconciled to God's ways and God's heart.

4:9 "I am right" – he was utterly mistaken in this. No person has the right to be angry with God for taking away what He once gave. Compare Job's attitude with Jonah's – Job 1:21,22. This is one reason why Job was the best man in his day, and Jonah was hardly the best man in his. Are not many of us more like Jonah than like Job? Do we not sometimes get upset with God because He won't do as we want Him to do and takes away some of the things we delight in?

4:10,11 Here is the lesson Jonah needed to learn. Let us learn it too. Let us learn that all things of this world, like the vine that gave shade to Jonah, are passing away – 1 John 2:17, and that we must care about the things that God cares about. God is concerned about all the peoples of the world. Are we taken up only with ourselves and our comforts?

MICAH

Author:

Micah was probably from the town of Moresheth-Gath which was near the Philistine city of Gath. His name is an abbreviated form of Micaiah, which means "Who is like Jehovah?" He is not the same as the prophet by that name who prophesied in the days of Ahab. This Micah is mentioned in Jer 26:18.

Date:

Perhaps sometime about 700 BC, though Micah had been prophesying for many years before that.

Themes:

The wickedness of the people and God's coming judgment. This little book contains prophecies concerning the Lord Jesus Christ. The place of His birth is announced 700 years before it took place (5:2), and His coming kingdom is briefly described (4:1-8). A famous description of true religion is given in 6:8, and a beautiful passage about God's mercy and love in 7:18-20.

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, the vision he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

- 2 Hear, all you peoples!
Listen, O earth, and all that is in it,
that the Lord God may be a witness
against you,
the Lord from his holy temple.
- 3 For, see, the LORD is coming out of his place,
and will descend and tread on the high
places of the earth.
- 4 And the mountains will melt under him,
and the valleys will split,
like wax before the fire,
and like water poured down a steep place.
- 5 All this is because of the transgression
of Jacob,
and because of the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
And what are the high places of Judah?
Are they not Jerusalem?
- 6 Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field and a place for

- planting a vineyard,
and I will pour her stones into the valley,
and I will uncover her foundations.
- 7 And all her carved images will be smashed to pieces,
and all her earnings will be burned with fire, and all her idols I will make desolate.
For she collected them from the earnings of a prostitute, and they will return to the earnings of a prostitute.
- 8 Therefore I will wail and mourn.
I will go stripped and naked.
I will wail like the jackals,
and mourn like the owls.
- 9 For her wound is incurable;
and it has come to Judah.
It has come to the gate of my people,
to Jerusalem.
- 10 Tell it not at Gath, weep not at all.
In the house of Aphrah roll yourself in the dust.
- 11 Pass by in naked shame, inhabitant of Saphir.
The inhabitant of Zaanan does not come out.
Beth-Ezel is in mourning.
Its standing place has been taken

1:1 Jer 1:2; Hos 1:1; Joel 1:1.
"Moresthite" – he was probably from the town of Moresheth-Gath, a town in southern Judah.
"Hezekiah" – Micah was a contemporary of Isaiah and Hosea.
"Vision he saw" – see Isa 1:1.
"Jerusalem" – Micah, unlike some of the prophets, was a prophet concerning both the northern kingdom of Israel and the southern kingdom of Judah.
1:2 The whole earth should hear what God has to say to Israel and Judah. Compare Isa 1:2. When God speaks of the sins of His people He is also witnessing against all the nations of earth, for they are guilty of the same sins.
"His holy temple" – in heaven (Rev 7:15; 11:19; 15:5,6; 16:17).
1:3 "Coming" – Micah means that God was about to take decisive action. Compare Ps 18:9; 144:5; Isa 26:21; 31:4; 64:1-3.
"High places" – Amos 4:13. High places may mean either mountains (v 4) or places of false worship which were often erected on hills (v 5).
1:4 "Melt" – 46:6; 97:5; Nah 1:5. This language signifies God's coming in judgment to punish evildoers.
1:5 "Jacob" – means here the northern kingdom of Israel.
"Samaria" – the capital of Israel and the center of that nation's rebellion against God and His laws.
"High places" – Lev 26:30; Num 22:41;

1 Kings 3:2; 12:32, etc. Micah means that the whole of Jerusalem had become a place of idolatry and false worship. This happened in the days of king Ahaz – 2 Kings 16:1-18; 2 Chron 28:25.
1:6,7 Now God speaks through Micah.
"I will make" – using foreign armies to do it (Isa 10:5,6). See 2 Kings 17:5-20 for the fulfillment of this.
"Prostitute" – see Hos 4:10-15.
1:8 "I will wail" – compare Isa 16:9-11; 22:4; Jer 8:21-9:1; 13:17; 48:31,36; Luke 19:41-44.
"Naked" – Isa 20:2-4.
1:9 "Incurable" – Isa 17:11; Jer 30:12,13; Hos 7:1. For God to heal a people there must be some willingness on their part. If they refuse God's healing, their wound is indeed incurable. Here Micah speaks of the destruction the Assyrians would bring on Israel.
"To Jerusalem" – Isa 36:1,2.
1:10 "Gath" – Josh 11:22; 13:3; 1 Sam 5:8; 6:17. The prophet did not want the misery and destruction of God's people told in the cities of their enemies.
"In the house of Aphrah," a Philistine city. "House of Aphrah" means "house of dust".
1:11 "In naked shame" – that is, "in the shame of nakedness." This is the way conquering armies led away their captives. Compare Isa 20:4. "Saphir" means "pleasant." "Zanaan" sounds like the Hebrew for "come out."

- away from you.
- 12 For the inhabitant of Maroth longed for good, but disaster from the LORD came down to the gate of Jerusalem.
- 13 O inhabitant of Lachish, harness the chariot to the swift beast (she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion),
for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.
- 14 Therefore you will give presents to Moresheth-Gath.
The houses of Achzib will prove false to the kings of Israel.
- 15 Yet I will bring an heir to you,
O inhabitant of Mareshah.
The glory of Israel will come to Adullam.
- 16 Make yourselves bald, and cut off your hair in mourning for the children of your delight.
Make your baldness like that of the eagle,
because they have gone away from you into captivity.
- 2 Woe to those who devise iniquity,
and work out evil on their beds!
When morning light comes, they do it,
because it is in the power of their hand.
- 2 And they covet fields and take them

- by violence,
and covet houses and seize them ;
so they oppress a man and his house,
a man and his inheritance.
- 3 Therefore thus says the LORD:
"See, I am devising a disaster against this family,
from which you will not remove your necks;
nor will you walk haughtily,
for it will be a time of disaster.
- 4 In that day they will take up a proverb against you,
and mourn with a bitter lament,
and say, 'We are utterly ruined!
He has changed the portion of my people.
How he has removed it from me!
He has divided our fields to a traitor!"
- 5 Therefore you will have no one in the congregation of the LORD who will cast a measuring line by lot.
- 6 "Do not prophesy," they say to those who prophesy.
"Do not prophesy to them," so that they will not be ashamed.
- 7 "O you who are named the house of Jacob,
is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?
Are these his deeds?
Do not my words do good to him who walks uprightly?"
- 8 Lately my people have risen up like an enemy.

1:12 "Maroth" sounds like the Hebrew for "bitter."

"From the LORD" – compare Isa 10:5,6.
1:13 "Lachish" – a large town in Judah about 50 kilometers southwest of Jerusalem. The name sounds like the Hebrew for "team."

"Beginning of sin" – perhaps this means that the idolatry which later found a place in Jerusalem had its beginnings in Lachish.

"Daughter of Zion" – the city of Jerusalem. Compare 2 Kings 19:21; Ps 9:14.

1:14 Moresheth-Gath (v 1) would be lost to the enemy. "Achzib" means "deception."

1:15 "Mareshah" sounds like the Hebrew for "conqueror." The "glory of Israel" was God Himself – 1 Sam 15:29. Compare Ps 106:20; Jer 2:11; Hos 4:7. Perhaps the prophets called God this because He appeared as a cloud of glory in both tabernacle and temple – Ex 40:34,35; 1 Kings 8:10,11.

"Adullam" – God will come to punish the people there.

1:16 "Make. . . bald" – shaving the head was a sign of grief (Job 1:20).

"Captivity" – Deut 4:27; Amos 5:27; 6:7; 7:17.

2:1-5 Micah is speaking of the wealthy and powerful in the land. Compare Amos 1:6,7; 3:15 - 4:3.

2:2 "Covet" – see Ex 20:17.

"Seize them" – compare 1 Kings 21:1-16.
2:3 "Devising" – the powerful and rich in society left the true God out of their planning but He did not leave them out of His.

"Not remove your necks" – their wealth and power would come to nothing on the day of disaster.

"Haughtily" – see in Isa 2:10-18 what God thinks of man's pride.

2:4 Prov 3:34,35. "To a traitor" – or "to one who has turned back."

2:5 "By lot" – Num 34:13; Josh 18:10. Micah means they won't be in the land at all.

2:6 "Do not prophesy" – Isa 30:10; Jer 11:21; 26:7-9; Amos 2:12; 7:12,13; Acts 4:18; 5:40. They had the greatest privilege any people on earth every had – to hear messages direct from God through His servants. But this was the last thing they wanted.

2:7 Now God speaks through Micah. The people were badly mistaken if they thought God could not be angry with them. God's words would do good only to those who were obedient to Him and straight in their dealings with others. But the wicked would not be able to escape from disaster by trying to silence God's prophets – they would only make that disaster more certain to come.

2:8,9 "Enemy" – the leaders of those called the people of God were behaving like the people of the devil. They were enemies of

- You pull off the robe with the garment from those who pass by feeling secure,
 like men returning from war.
- 9 You cast out the women of my people from their pleasant homes.
 You have taken away my glory from their children forever.
- 10 Arise and depart, for this is not your rest, because it is defiled.
 It will destroy you with a great destruction.
- 11 If a man who is a liar, walking in the spirit of falsehood, says,
 'I will prophesy to you of wine and strong drink,' he will become the prophet of this people.
- 12 "I will surely assemble all of you, O Jacob.
 I will surely gather the remnant of Israel.
 I will put them together like the sheep of Bozrah, like the flock in the middle of their pasture.
 Because the men will be so many they will make a great noise.
- 13 The one who breaks will go up before them.
 They will break out, pass through the gate,
 and go out by it;
 and their king will pass before them,
 with the LORD at their head."

- 3 And I said,
 "Please listen, O heads of Jacob,
 and you rulers of the house of Israel.
 Is it not for you to know justice,
 2 You who hate the good and love the evil,

- who strip the skin from the people and the flesh from their bones,
- 3 Who also eat the flesh of my people,
 and flay their skin from them?"
 And they break their bones,
 and chop them in pieces,
 like meat for the pan,
 and like flesh in the pot.
- 4 Then they will call to the LORD,
 but he will not hear them.
 He will even hide his face from them
 at that time,
 because of the evil deeds they have committed.
- 5 Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who cause my people to go astray,
 who cry out 'Peace' when chewing with their teeth,
 but prepare war against the one who puts nothing into their mouths.
- 6 Therefore night will come to you,
 without a vision,
 and darkness will come to you,
 without divination.
 The sun will go down on the prophets,
 and the day will become dark over them.
- 7 Then the seers will be ashamed, and the diviners confounded.
 Yes, they will all cover their lips,
 for there is no answer from God.
- 8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of justice and might, truth, of righteousness, of the people, and

 of God (compare Jam 4:4).

2:10 There was no longer any security for them in the land of Israel. By their sin they had defiled and ruined it.

2:11 The people wanted to be told only what they wanted to hear, not the truth they needed to hear. Compare 2 Tim 4:3.

2:12 As God often did, here in the middle of prophecies of disaster He promises eventual deliverance and blessing for the people of Israel.

"Gather" – Isa 11:14; Jer 29:14;
 31:8,10; Ezek 34:13; 36:24.

"Sheep" – Jer 23:3,4.

2:13 This verse probably looks forward to the end of this age. Compare Isa 11:10-16; Amos 9:14,15. "One who breaks" seems to refer to the Messiah, the Lord Jesus. He will remove all obstacles to the permanent settlement of Israel in their land. "Their king" and "the LORD" (Jehovah) also refer to Him.

3:1-4 These rulers and leaders of Jacob and Israel included those of Judah. See vs 9,10.

3:1 "Know justice" – they were called to be God's people, a holy righteous people, therefore knowing and administering justice

was absolutely essential.

3:2 "Hate the good and love the evil" – this was, of course, the exact opposite of what they should have been. But all too often in every country and in every era this describes what leaders are like.

3:3 Of course, they were not literally eating the people. These words signify how they violently oppressed them.

3:4 "They" means the leaders.

"He will not hear" – compare Prov 1:24-31; Isa 1:15; 59:1,2; Jer 11:11.

"Hide His face" – Deut 31:17; Isa
 45:15; Hos 5:6,15.

3:5-7 The prophets who should have spoken for God were as bad as the leaders of Israel. Instead of leading the people to the truth they led them away from it.
 Compare Isa 3:12; 9:16; Jer 6:13,14;
 Matt 7:15; 24:24; 2 Pet 2:1.

3:6 Prophets were supposed to have God's light, but because these particular ones did not want the light God would plunge them into darkness. The punishment exactly fitted their crime.

3:7 "Seers" – see 1 Sam 9:9.

3:8 "The Spirit of the LORD" – Ex 31:3; Isa to declare to Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Please hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of Israel,
you who despise justice,
and pervert every straight thing.

10 They build up Zion by bloodshed, and Jerusalem with wickedness.

11 Her heads judge for reward,
and her priests teach for pay,
and her prophets foretell for money.
Yet they lean on the LORD, and say,
"Is not the LORD among us?
No disaster can come on us."

12 Therefore, on your account Zion will be plowed like a field,
and Jerusalem will become heaps,
and the mountain of the temple like
the high places of the forest.

4 But in the last days it will come about,
that the mountain of the house of the LORD will be established on the top of the mountains,
and it will be exalted above the hills,
and peoples will flow to it.

2 And many nations will come, and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD and to the house of the God of Jacob,
and he will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths."
For the law will go out of Zion,

and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 And he will judge among many peoples, and rebuke strong nations far off,
and they will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
nor will they learn war any more.
4 But each man will sit under his vine
and his fig tree,
and no one will make them afraid;
for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.
5 For each one of all the peoples may walk in the name of his god, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever.

6 "In that day," says the LORD,
"I will assemble the lame,
and I will gather the exile,
and those whom I have afflicted, 7 And I will make the lame a remnant,
and the exile a strong nation,
and the LORD will reign over them in mount Zion from now on, and forever.

8 And you, O tower of the flock,
the stronghold of the daughter of Zion,
the former dominion will come to you again,
the kingdom will come to the daughter of Jerusalem."

9 Now why do you cry aloud?
Is there no king in you?
Has your counsellor perished?

48:16; Ezek 2:2; Zech 4:6; Eph 5:18;
1 Pet 1:11. Note at John 14:16,17.

"His sin" – this was one of the most important tasks of God's prophets. Compare Isa 58:1.

3:9 "You who despise justice" – v 1. They perverted justice for personal gain – compare Ezek 22:27.

3:10 Compare 7:2; Jer 22:13,17; Isa 59:7.
3:11 Rulers, priests and prophets wanted only money. They cared nothing at all for people, for goodness, for justice. In other words, they were much like the corrupt society we see today.

"Yet" – they had their religion and thought everything would be all right. They were badly mistaken, as the next verse reveals. The words there were fulfilled when the king of Babylon invaded the land and destroyed Jerusalem. See 2 Kings chapter 25. God will punish greed, corruption and wickedness wherever they are found, though men may vainly imagine they can escape the consequences of their actions.

4:1-3 See notes on Isa 2:2-4.

4:4 "His vine" – even in the future reign of Christ over Israel and the world He will not abolish private property.

"Afraid" – Lev 26:6; Ezek 39:25-29; Zeph 3:13.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

4:5 "Walk in the name of" – means to identify with and behave in accordance with. Other nations choose the gods they please and behave in accordance with the character they think those gods have. God's people must be different. They must trust in the one true God and behave in accordance with His character. Compare 1 Cor 8:4-6; Col 1:10; 1 Thess 2:12.

4:6 "In that day" – v 1; Isa 2:2,11,17,20.
"Lame" – Jer 31:8,9.

"Exile. . . afflicted" – Ps 147:2,3; Isa 11:12; 35:10; Ezek 34:13,16; 37:21-23; Zeph 3:19.

4:7 "The LORD will reign. . . forever" – Dan 2:44; 7:14; Joel 3:20,21; Obad 21; Zech 14:9,16; Luke 1:33; Rev 11:15.

4:8 "Tower of the flock" – Jerusalem the capital city of the people of God.

"Daughter" – 1:13.

"Former dominion will come to you again" – this will happen "in that day" (vs 1,6).

4:9 Jer 8:19; 30:6.

For pains have seized you like those of a woman in labour.
 10 Writhe and labour to give birth,
 O daughter of Zion,
 like a woman in labour.
 For now you will go out of the city,
 and you will live in the field,
 and you will go to Babylon.
 There you will be rescued,
 there the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
 11 But now many nations have gathered
 against you.
 They say, "Let her be defiled,
 and let our eye look on Zion." 12 But they do not know the thoughts of
 the LORD,
 nor do they understand his purpose.
 For he gathers them like sheaves to the threshing floor.
 13 "Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn like iron,
 and I will make your hooves like bronze,
 and you will crush many peoples.
 And I will consecrate their ill-gotten gain to the LORD, and their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth."

5 Now gather yourself in troops,
 O daughter of troops.
 He has laid siege against us.
 They will strike the judge of Israel
 on the cheek with a rod.
 2 "But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are little among the thousands of Judah,

yet out of you will come forth to me
 the one who is to be ruler in Israel.
 His goings forth are from of old,
 from everlasting."
 3 Therefore he will give them up, until the time that she who travails has given birth.
 Then the remnant of his brethren will return to the children of Israel.
 4 And he will stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God;
 and they will remain, for now he will be great to the ends of the earth.
 5 And this man will be our peace.
 When the Assyrian comes into our land,
 and when he treads in our palaces,
 then we will raise against him seven shepherds, and eight leaders of men.
 6 And they will waste the land of Assyria
 with the sword,
 and the land of Nimrod at its entrances.
 And he will deliver us from the Assyrian, when he comes into our land,
 and when he treads within our borders.
 7 And the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples
 like a dew from the LORD,
 like showers on the grass,
 which do not delay for man,
 or wait for the sons of men.
 8 And the remnant of Jacob will be among the Gentiles in the midst of many peoples,

4:10 "Babylon" – Micah uttered this remarkable prophecy 100 years before it was fulfilled. At that time Assyria, not Babylon, was the strongest power in that area.
 "There you will be rescued" – this was another 70 years in the future.
4:11-13 Compare Zech 12:1-9.
4:12 "Understand his purpose" – Rom 11:33,34; Ps 2:1-12.
5:1 The scene in this verse seems to be the city of Jerusalem.
 "The judge of Israel" – or "the leader of Israel", that is, the king. See 2 Kings 25:7 for the fulfillment of this.
5:2 God speaks through the prophet. "Ephrathah" was the area where Bethlehem was located – Ruth 1:2; 4:11; 1 Sam 17:12. Bethlehem was a small town about 10 kilometers south of Jerusalem.
 "Goings forth" – this signifies activities. This prophecy is about the Messiah the Lord Jesus Christ and gives the place of His birth 700 years before He came to earth. See Matt 2:4-6. As the Son of God He is eternal and had no origin, no beginning – Isa 9:6; Ps 90:2; John 1:1. He was active all through the history of mankind.

5:3 "Give them up" – Jer 7:29; Hos 3:4,5; 5:6,15; Rom 11:11,25-27.
5:4 "He" – the Messiah, the Lord Jesus.
 "His flock" – John 10:1-16.
 "Ends of the earth" – Isa 9:7; 11:4,9; Dan 2:34,35.
5:5 "Peace" – Isa 9:6; Luke 2:14; Eph 2:14.
 "Assyrian" – Isa 8:7; 10:24-27.
5:6 "Waste the land of Assyria" – Israel has never laid waste Assyria to this day. So the fulfillment of this is still in the future. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.
 "Nimrod" – Gen 10:8-12.
 "He will deliver us" – "he" here is Christ.
5:7 "Remnant of Jacob" – the survivors of the people of Israel (Isa 10:20; 11:11; 37:31,32; Amos 3:12).
 "Dew" – speaks of blessing (Deut 32:2; Ps 110:3; Prov 19:12; Isa 26:19).
5:8,9 These verses signify a victory of the people of Israel not yet seen on earth.

- like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which, passing through, both tramples down and tears in pieces, with no one to rescue.
- 9 Your hand will be lifted up against your foes,
and all your enemies will be cut off.
- 10 "And it will come to pass in that day,"
says the LORD,
"that I will cut off your horses from among you, and destroy your chariots, 11 And I will destroy the cities of your land,
and tear down all your strongholds.
12 And I will destroy witchcraft from your hand,
and you will have no more soothsayers.
13 I will also destroy your carved images,
and your sacred pillars from your midst,
and you will no longer worship the work of your hands.
14 And I will uproot your sacred groves from your midst,
and destroy your cities.
15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury on the nations which have not obeyed me."

- 6 Hear now what the LORD says:
"Arise, plead your case before the mountains,
and let the hills hear your voice.
2 Hear the LORD's case, O mountains, and you strong foundations of the earth.

- For the Lord has a case against his people,
and he will plead his case against Israel.
- 3 "O my people, what have I done to you?
And how have I wearied you?
Testify against me.
4 For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of servitude,
and I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam
in front of you.
5 O my people, remember now what Balak, king of Moab, counseled, and what Balaam, the son of Beor, answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteousness
of the LORD."
6 With what shall I come before the LORD and bow down before the God on high?
Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?
7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
or with ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
8 He has showed you, O man, what is good.
And what does the LORD require of you,
but to behave justly,
and to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with your God?

5:10-14 These are all things which Israel trusted in after forsaking God. God will destroy all these things so that Israel might trust in Him alone.

5:10 Ps 20:7.

5:11 Hos 10:14; Amos 5:9.

5:12 Deut 18:10-12; Isa 2:6; 8:19.

5:13 Isa 2:18; Ezek 6:9; Hos 10:2; Zech 13:2.

5:14 "Groves" – or "Asherah poles" – Ex 34:13; Jud 3:7; 2 Kings 17:10.

5:15 "Vengeance" – Deut 32:41,43; Isa 34:8; 35:4; 2 Thess 1:7,8; Rev 19:11-16.

6:1,2 In this chapter God makes His accusations against Israel. It is like a scene in a courtroom, only the court in this case is the wide outdoors with mountains and hills as witnesses. Compare Isa 1:2. Israel is called on to make its defense, if indeed it dares to attempt any.

6:3 "My people" – Amos 3:2.

"Wearied you" – compare Jer 2:5. God is asking if they think He has been unreasonable and cruel toward them.

6:4 Ex 2:23-25; 14:29-31; Deut 7:7,8.

"Moses" – Ex 3:7-10.

"Aaron and Miriam" – Ex 3:14-16; Num 33:1; Ex 15:20. Far from being cruel and unreasonable, God gave them some of the best leaders any people ever had and treated them with kindness and love.

6:5 "Balak. . . Balaam" – see Numbers chapters 22-24, especially 23:8-10,20-24; 24:5-9,17-19.

"Shittim to Gilgal" – Josh 3:1; 4:19.

"Righteousness" – in this case God's righteous acts were displayed in bringing His people across the Jordan river to occupy the land He had promised them.

6:6,7 It seems here that Israel speaks and the only defense the people can offer is a series of questions. They appear to be expressing ignorance of what God really wants. And the last question in v 7 is not a proper question at all. God never asked Israel to do any such thing.

6:8 Micah speaks for God to every individual in the nation.

"He has showed you" – Israel was not really ignorant of what God wanted. He had told them repeatedly how they should behave. The ten commandments in Ex 20:1-17; much of Deuteronomy, psalms like 1, 15, 24, 119, the book of Proverbs, and passages in the prophets like Isa 1:11-17 showed Israel how they should live. What does God require of us now? That we should be righteous in our behavior; that we should know that our righteous acts cannot save us – we need God's mercy for

- 9 The LORD's voice cries out to the city, and the man of wisdom will see your name.
- "Heed the rod, and the one who has appointed it.
- 10 Are there yet storehouses of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the short measure,
which is an abomination?
- 11 Shall I acquit those with wicked balances,
and with a bag of false weights?
- 12 For her rich men are full of violence,
and her inhabitants speak lies,
and the tongue in their mouth is deceitful.
- 13 Therefore I will also make you sick by striking you,
by making you desolate because of your sins.
- 14 You will eat, but not be satisfied,
and you will be cast down in the midst of you.
And you will take hold, but will not deliver,
and what you do deliver I will give to the sword.
- 15 You will sow, but you will not reap.
You will trample the olives,
but you will not anoint yourselves with oil,
and make sweet wine, but will not drink wine.
- 16 "For the statutes of Omri are kept,
and all the deeds of the house of Ahab,
and you walk in their counsels.
So I will make you a desolation,
and her inhabitants an object of hissing.
Therefore you will bear the reproach
of my people."

- 7 Woe is me!
For I am like those who gather summer fruits,
like those gleaning the vineyard.
There is no cluster to eat of the first ripe fruit my soul craves.
- 2 The good man has perished from the earth,
and there is no one upright among men.
They all lie in wait for blood,
each one of them hunts his brother with a net.
- 3 They do evil with both hands eagerly.
The ruler and the judge demand a bribe,
and the man in a high position speaks out his evil desire.
So they weave their plots.
- 4 The best of them is like a briar,
the most upright worse than a thorn hedge.
The day of your watchmen and your punishment is coming.
Now will be the time of their confusion.
- 5 Do not trust in a friend;
do not put confidence in a guide.
Guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom.
- 6 For the son dishonours the father;
the daughter rises up against her mother,
the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
a man's enemies are the individuals of his own house.
- 7 Therefore I will look to the LORD.
I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.

ourselves and we need to show it to others; and we must not let our righteous behavior make us self-righteous and proud. Walking humbly with God means obedience to Him, trust in Him, and the mind Jesus speaks of in Matt 5:3.

6:9 "The city" – Jerusalem.

"Rod" – compare Isa 10:5,6. Israel was not able to offer any good defense against God's accusations. The people were guilty and God must punish them.

6:10 "Wicked" – Israel was not a victim of unfortunate circumstances, not ignorant of what God said. It was wicked. It was determined to do what it pleased regardless of what God thought about it.

"Short measure" – an "ephah", a measure for grain. Sellers cheated buyers. 6:11 Prov 11:1; 20:23; Hos 12:7; Amos 8:5. 6:12 "Violence" – 3:2,3; Amos 2:6,7; 4:1; 5:11.

"Lies. . .deceitful" – Ps 5:3; 12:2; 34:13; 62:4; 63:11; Prov 6:19; 19:22; Isa 32:7; 59:3; Jer 9:3; John 8:44.

6:13 "Therefore" – 2:3. Sin has inevitable consequences (Gal 6:7,8).

6:14 Isa 9:20; Hos 4:10; Lev 26:26.

"In the midst of you" – the Hebrew of here is obscure and the meaning uncertain. 6:15 Deut 28:38; Jer 12:13.

6:16 "Omri. . .Ahab" – 1 Kings 16:25,29-33. "Desolation. . .hissing" – Deut 28:37; Jer 25:9; 51:51.

7:1-7 Micah speaks. He begins by expressing his sorrow and ends with hope. 7:1 "Woe is me" – compare Jer 8:21 - 9:1.

"My soul craves" – he could see no fruit from his labors as a prophet. He could find no good people left in the land.

7:2 "No one upright among men" – Ps 12:1,2; 14:1-3.

7:3 "Bribe" – Ex 23:8.

7:4 "Thorn" – 2 Sam 23:6,7; Isa 10:17; Heb 6:7,8.

"Watchmen" – Isa 21:11; Ezek 3:17; 33:7; Hos 9:8. God's prophets were the watchmen over Israel, warning them of coming disasters. Now the time had come for God to act according to those warnings. 7:5 This reveals how much lying and deceitfulness (6:12) had corrupted the people as a whole.

7:6 Ex 20:12; Ezek 22:7; Matt 10:35,36.

7:7 Lam 3:19-24; Ps 4:3.

8 Do not rejoice over me, O my enemy.
When I fall, I will arise;
when I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be a light to me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my case and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me out to the light,
and I will see his righteousness.

10 Then my enemy will see it,
and shame will cover her,
the one who said to me,
"Where is the LORD your God?"
My eyes will see her.
Now she will be trampled down like
the mire of the streets.

11 At the time when your walls are to be built, on that day the decree will go out to distant places.

12 And on that day he will come to you
from Assyria,
and from the fortified cities,
and from the fortress to the River,
and from sea to sea,
and from mountain to mountain.

13 However, the land will be desolate because of those who live in it, as the fruit of their deeds.

14 Shepherd your people with your rod,

the flock of your inheritance,
which lives alone in the forest,
in the midst of Carmel.

Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead,
as in the days of old.

15 "As in the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt I will show him marvellous things."

16 The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might.
They will lay their hand on their mouth.
Their ears will be deaf.

17 They will lick the dust like a serpent.
They will move out of their holes like things that crawl on the earth.
They will be afraid of the LORD our God,
and will fear because of you.

18 Who is a God like you,
who pardons wickedness,
and passes over the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance?
He does not retain his anger forever,
because he delights in mercy.

19 Once more he will have compassion on us.
He will subdue our wicked deeds.
And you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 You will grant the truth to Jacob,
and mercy to Abraham,
which you have sworn to our fathers
from the days of old.

7:8-10 It seems that in these verses the city of Jerusalem (representing the people of Israel) speaks. The time is in the future. 7:8 "My enemy" – enemy nations like Assyria and Babylon.

"Fall" – this looks into the future to the time when Jerusalem would fall (4:10; Jer 52:4-27).

"I will arise" – Amos 9:11-15; Rom 11:11.

"Light" – Isa 42:16; 46:13; 60:1-3.

7:9 Lam 3:39-47; Hos 5:15; Ps 32:5; 107:10-16; Prov 28:13.

7:10 4:11-13; Ps 35:26; 42:3; Isa 51:22,23; Zech 10:5.

7:11-13 It seems Micah speaks again to Jerusalem (and, of course, God is speaking through Micah).

7:11 Isa 54:11,12; Amos 9:11. The same Jerusalem that was destroyed would be rebuilt.

7:12 Isa 11:11.

7:13 Isa 24:1-6.

7:14 Either Israel or Micah speaks, representing the future godly remnant of Israel. This prayer God will answer.

"Shepherd" – 5:4; Isa 40:11; Jer 31:10; Ezek 34:11-16; 37:24.

"Inheritance" – v 18; Ps 94:14; Deut 4:20; Eph 1:18.

"Bashan and Gilead" – fertile regions east of the Jordan river.

7:15 God speaks again. "Marvellous things" – Joel 2:30,31.

7:16-20 Micah speaks again and gives a fitting conclusion to his prophecy.

7:16 Isa 26:11.

7:17 Ps 2:8,9; Isa 25:3; 59:19; Rev 19:15.

7:18 "Who is a God like you" – Ex 15:11; 1 Sam 2:2; Ps 89:6; Isa 40:18,25,26.

"Pardons. . . passes over" – Ex 34:6,7;

Ps 103:8-13; Isa 43:25; 55:7-9; Jer 50:20; Luke 24:46,47; Eph 1:7.

"Remnant" – Micah has the people of Israel in mind (v 20; Jer 31:34; Ezek 36:25; Rom 11:26,27).

"Anger forever" – Ps 103:9; Isa 54:9; 57:16; Jer 3:12.

"Mercy" – Ps 25:6; Ezek 18:23,32; Amos 5:15; Rom 11:32.

7:19 "Compassion" – 2 Chron 30:9; Jer 31:20; 32:41.

"The sea" – compare Ps 103:12; Isa 38:17; 44:22 – different ways of saying that God will put away the sins of His people, will obliterate them, and remember them no more (Jer 31:34; Rom 4:7,8).

7:20 Gen 12:1-3; 22:16,17; 28:14; Deut 7:8; Ps 108:4.

"Grant" – the Hebrew word here does not mean "perform" (KJV).

NAHUM

Author:

Nahum means "compassion" or possibly "consolation."

Date:

Sometime about 650 BC.

Themes:

God's holiness is revealed both in punishing the wicked and in showing grace and kindness toward those who trust in Him; the righteous rejoice when they see God's justice at work; the coming destruction on the wicked city of Nineveh.

Contents:

| God's anger against the ungodly, | |
| his compassion toward the godly | 1:2-11 |
| The future well-being of Judah | 1:12-2:2 |
| The siege against Nineveh | 2:1-10 |
| The destruction of Nineveh | 2:11-13 |
| The reasons for the fall of Nineveh | 3:1-19 |

- 1 The burden concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.
- 2 God is jealous, and the LORD avenges. The LORD avenges, and is furious. The LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserves wrath for his enemies.
- 3 The LORD is slow to get angry, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked. The LORD has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.
- 4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel wither, and the flower of Lebanon withers.
- 5 The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt, and the earth heaves at his presence, yes, the world and all who live in it.
- 6 Who can stand before his indignation? And who can endure the fierceness of his anger?

- His fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.
- 7 The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble, and he knows those who trust in him.
- 8 But with an overwhelming flood he will make a complete end of its place, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.
- 9 What do you plot against the LORD? He will make a complete end of it. Trouble will not rise up a second time.
- 10 For while they are tangled up like thorns, and while they are drunk like drunkards, they will be consumed like fully dry stubble.
- 11 From you comes out a wicked counsellor who plots evil against the LORD.
- 12 Thus says the LORD:
"Though they are secure, and also numerous, yet they will be cut down, when he passes through. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.
- 13 For now I will break off his yoke from you,

1:1 "Burden" – or "oracle" – note at Isa 13:1. "Nineveh" – Gen 10:11; 2 Kings 19:36; Jonah 1:2; 3:2,3; Zeph 2:13; Matt 12:41. "Vision" – Gen 15:1; Isa 1:1. "Elkoshite" – of the town of Elkosh, location unknown.

1:2 "Jealous" – Ex 20:5; 34:14; Deut 4:34; Josh 24:19; Zech 8:2. The word jealous here indicates love for His people and anger against those who would try to destroy them. Nineveh, the capital of Assyria and here representing the whole Empire, had destroyed the northern kingdom of Israel (2 Kings 17:5,6).

"Vengeance" – Num 31:11-3 (note); Deut 32:40,41. The word means that God will justly judge and punish those who oppose Him the Creator and Ruler of the universe.

"Wrath" – notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18.

"Enemies" – those who are enemies of His people are His enemies.

1:3 "Slow to get angry" – Ex 34:6.

"Not at all acquit" – Ex 34:7. Nineveh was guilty and could not escape God's judgment.

"Whirlwind. . . clouds" – Ps 18:7-15; 68:4; 77:16-19; 104:3,4.

1:4 Ex 14:21,22; Josh 3:14-17. Bashan, Carmel and Lebanon were very fertile places but God can turn such places into deserts if He wishes to do so.

1:5 Ex 19:18; Ps 18:7; 46:2,3; 97:5; 114:4; Joel 2:10; Ezek 38:20; Heb 12:26-28.

1:6 Ps 76:7; 90:11,12; Jer 10:10; Ezek 22:14; Rev 6:17.

"Like fire" – Isa 5:24,25; 24:6; 42:25;

2 Thess 1:7,8; Heb 12:29.

1:7 "The LORD is good" – Ps 25:7,8; 34:8; 100:5; 106:1; 107:1; 145:9; Matt 19:17. Since God is angry and takes vengeance and pours out His wrath like fire, how can He be good? He does those things because He is good. Justice is an element in His goodness, and in His goodness He cannot allow men to corrupt the earth and try to destroy His kingdom, His work and His people without rising up to defend them and to punish evildoers (Num 3:1-3). In His goodness He loves good and so hates evil and is angry with it.

"Stronghold" – or "refuge" – Deut 33:27; Ps 2:12; 5:11; 7:1; 9:9; etc.

"Knows" – the Hebrew word indicates an intimate relationship. Ps 1:6; etc.

"Trust" – 2 Kings 17:14; Ps 4:5; 20:7; 62:8; Prov 3:5; Isa 26:4; 30:15; John 14:1.

1:8 "But" – those who continue on in their sins and refuse to trust in the one true God do not deserve any good thing, and have no right to expect any good thing from Him. Nineveh did not trust Him, was "vile" (v 14), and so would be destroyed. This happened in 612 BC.

1:9-14 God foretells the utter destruction of Nineveh. For other prophecies about Nineveh and Assyria see Isa 10:12-19; Ezek 32:22,23. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.

1:9 "Plot" – compare Ps 2:1-5.

1:12 "I have afflicted" – see Isa 10:5,6. It seems that God is speaking to Judah here. The Assyrians tried to capture Jerusalem, failed, and had no second chance (Isaiah chapters 36,37).

1:13 Assyria once exercised some control

- and will break your shackles in two.”
- 14 And the LORD has given a commandment concerning you, that your name will no longer be perpetuated. “I will cut off the carved images and cast metal idols from the house of your gods. I will make your grave; for you are vile.”
- 15 See on the mountains the feet of him who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace!
O Judah, keep your appointed feasts, perform your vows.
For the wicked will no longer pass through you; he is utterly cut off.
- 2 He who dashes in pieces has come up before your face.
Guard the fortress! Watch the road!
Strengthen your flanks!
Mustering all your strong forces!
- 2 For the LORD will restore the excellence of Jacob, like the excellence of Israel, even though destroyers have laid them waste, and ruined their vine branches.
- 3 The shield of his mighty men are red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots will be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir tree spears will be brandished.
- 4 The chariots will rage in the streets, they shall jostle one another in the broad roads. They will seem like torches. They will speed like lightning flashes.
- 5 He will remember his nobles. They will stumble in their walk. They will hurry to its wall, and the defense will be prepared.
- 6 The river gates will be opened, and the palace will be dissolved.
- 7 And Huzzab will be led away captive. She will be brought up, and her maid servants will lead her, moaning with voices like doves, beating their breasts.
- 8 From olden times Nineveh is like a pool, but her waters drain away. “Stop! Stop!” they cry, but no one will look back.
- 9 Take the plunder of silver, take the plunder of gold. For there is no end of treasure, wealth from all kinds of desirable articles.
- 10 She is empty, and vacant, and waste. And the heart melts, and the knees knock together, and every back is in anguish, and all their faces are drained of colour.
- 11 Where is the dwelling place of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion, the old lion, and the lion’s cub, walked, and no one made them afraid?
- 12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled the prey for his lionesses, and filled his caves with prey, and his dens with flesh.
- 13 “See, I am against you,” says the LORD of hosts, “and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions. And I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will be heard no more.”
- 3 Woe to the city of blood!
It is all full of lies and robbery;

over Judah. God, by destroying Assyria, would break their “yoke” over Judah.

1:14 “Your gods” – compare Ex 12:12.

“Vile” – compare Hos 9:10.

1:15 The mountains are the mountains of Jerusalem. The good news was deliverance from the Assyrians (Isa 37:29,33-35). Compare Isa 52:7; Rom 10:15. God through Nahum assures Judah that the Assyrians would never again invade them, and indeed, they never did.

2:1 “He who dashes in pieces” – one who headed a combined army of three nations – Babylonia, Media and Scythia.

2:2 Isa 11:10-13; 35:1,2; Ezek 37:22,23.

2:3-10 These verses describe the battle for the city of Nineveh in 612 BC before it fell to its enemies. Nahum is uttering a prophecy that was fulfilled a few years afterwards.

2:11,12 A description of Nineveh before its destruction. It was like the king of beasts breaking into pieces the nations round about. Now it would be done to Nineveh as Nineveh had done to others.

2:13 “Against you” – if God is against anyone who can be for them?

“I will” – God used the army of v 1 to burn Nineveh’s weapons of war and to kill its soldiers. Compare Jer 51:20.

3:1 God would destroy Nineveh because it fully deserved destruction.

“Blood” – the Assyrians were notorious for their thirst for bloodshed, brutality and cruelty.

“Lies” – in God’s eyes lying is so grave a sin that it is put alongside murder. Lying is brutality and cruelty against the truth, an attempt to murder it. Swords destroy

- the prey never gets away.
- 2 The noise of a whip!
And the noise of the rattling of the wheels,
and of prancing horses,
and of jolting chariots!
- 3 The horseman lifts up both the bright sword and the glittering spear,
and there is a multitude of slain,
and a great number of bodies,
no end of their corpses;
they stumble over the corpses,
- 4 all because of the many acts of prostitution of the well-favoured prostitute,
the mistress of witchcrafts, who sells nations through her acts of
prostitution,
and families through her witchcrafts.
- 5 "See, I am against you,
says the LORD of hosts,
and I will lift your skirts over your face,
and I will show the nations your nakedness,
and the kingdoms your shame.
- 6 And I will throw abominable filth on you, and reveal your vileness, and will make you a spectacle.
- 7 And this will happen:
All who look at you will flee from you, and say,
'Nineveh is laid waste.
Who will mourn for her?
Where will I seek comforters for you?'"
- 8 Are you better than populous No that was situated among the rivers, that had water all around it?
Her rampart was the sea,
and her wall was the sea.
- 9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength,
and it was without limit.
Put and Lubim were your helpers.
- 10 Yet she was taken away,
she went into captivity.
Also her young children were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets.
And they cast lots for her honourable men,
and all her great men were bound in chains.
- 11 You also will be drunk, you will be hidden,
you also will seek refuge because of the enemy.
- 12 All your strongholds will be like
fig trees with the first ripe figs;
when shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.
- 13 See, your people in the midst of you are women.
The gates of your land will be opened wide to your enemies.
The fire will devour your bars.
- 14 Draw water for the siege!
Fortify your strongholds!
Go to the clay, and tread the mortar!
Strengthen the brick kiln!
- 15 There the fire will devour you.
The sword will cut you down,
it will devour you like locusts.
Make yourselves as many as the locust, make yourselves as many as the swarming locusts!
- 16 You have multiplied your merchants
more than the stars of heaven.
The locust plunders, and flies away.
- 17 Your officials are like locusts, and your captains like the great
grasshoppers,
which settle in the hedges on a cold day,
but when the sun rises,
they flee away,
and it is not known where they will be.
- 18 Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria.
Your nobles dwell in the dust.

bodies, lies destroy souls.

3:2,3 A further description of the future battle for Nineveh.

3:4 "Prostitute" – Ex 34:16; Lev 17:7; Isa 1:21; 23:15,16; Jer 2:20; 3:1; Rev 17:5. Nineveh had many gods, many idols.

"Witchcrafts" – Deut 18:10.

3:5-7 God would deal with Nineveh as men sometimes dealt with prostitutes. He would show to other nations its filthiness, corruption and weakness, and utterly humiliate that great and proud city.

3:8-10 "No" – or "No Amon" – the city of Thebes, a large city in Egypt, the capital of the southern part of the country. The Assyrians destroyed it in 663 BC. If they could destroy Thebes they should not think they could not be destroyed themselves.

"Ethiopia" – Isa 18:1.

3:11 "Drunk" – out of their senses because

God's anger is poured out on them (compare Jer 25:15,16).

3:12 Nineveh was a huge city, very well fortified, but when the "enemy" (v 11) came their forts would fall as easily as fruit from a tree.

3:13 "Women" – in the day of battle their soldiers would be ineffective.

3:14,15 Nineveh would try desperate measures to keep enemy troops out of the city, but they would fail.

3:16 The merchants, greedy for gain, would salvage what they could from the collapse of Nineveh. Swarms of locusts coming on any land completely strip it of vegetation.

3:17 Nineveh's officials were no better than its merchants. Both groups were only out for what they could get. Between them they would strip Nineveh of its wealth.

3:18,19 Nahum the prophet speaks of the

Your people are scattered on the mountains, and no one gathers them.
 19 There is no healing for your injury.
 Your wound is incurable.

All who hear the news about you will clap their hands over you,
 for who has not had your wickedness coming on them continually?

future as if it were past.

"Slumber. . . dwell in the dust" – a figurative way of speaking of death (see John 11:11,14).

"Your wound is incurable" – indicates complete destruction. Nineveh was never rebuilt, and the Assyrians lost their power forever.

"Clap their hands" – in delight at Nineveh's destruction.

HABAKKUK

Author:

The prophet Habakkuk is not mentioned in any other place in the Bible, so all we know about him is in this writing of his.

Date:

Habakkuk probably wrote a short time before the armies of Babylon invaded Judah, during the reign of either Josiah or Jehoiakim. The Babylonians invaded in 605 BC.

Theme:

Faith in God overcoming doubt about the wisdom of His ways. The question which troubled the prophet's mind was this: Why would God use the cruel and wicked Babylonians to punish His own people Judah? The answer God gave was: "The righteous will live by his faith" (2:4), words referred to three times in the New Testament (Rom 1:17; Gal 3:11; Heb 10:38,39).

- 1 The burden which Habakkuk the prophet saw.
 O LORD, how long will I cry out,
 and you not listen?
And call out to you about violence,
 and you not save?
- 3 Why do you make me look at evil,
 and cause me to see trouble?
 For plundering and violence are before me, and there is strife,
 and contention rises up.
- 4 Therefore the law is made feeble,
 and justice never goes forth.
 For the wicked surround the righteous;
 so perverted justice results.
- 5 "Look among the nations, and watch,
 and be utterly amazed,
 for I will do a work in your days,
which you will not believe,
 even though it is told you."
- 6 For, see, I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter and rash nation.
 They will march through the breadth of

- the earth to take possession of dwelling places which are not theirs.
- 7 They are terrible and dreaded.
 Their judgment and their exaltation come from themselves.
- 8 And their horses are swifter than leopards,
 and fiercer than evening wolves.
 And their horsemen charge ahead,
 and their cavalry comes from afar.
 They fly like an eagle swooping to eat.
- 9 They all come for violence.
 Their faces advance like the east wind,
 and they gather captives like sand.
- 10 And they scoff at kings,
 and princes are scorned by them.
 They deride every stronghold,
 for they heap up earth, and take it.
- 11 Then his mind changes,
 and he passes on, and offends,
imputing this his power to his god."
- 12 Are you not from everlasting,
 O LORD my God, my Holy One?

1:1 "Burden" – note at Isa 13:1. Habakkuk received a revelation of truth from God, as all the true prophets of the Old Testament did (2 Pet 1:21).

1:2 The prophet could not get an answer to his prayers, could not get an explanation from God for the problem that troubled him. This was sometimes the complaint of other Old Testament believers – Ps 6:3; 13:1-4; 74:10,11; 89:46,47; Lam 5:20. Probably this same thing has bothered all of us at one time or another. All they (or we) could do was to wait and look to God for Him to work in His time and way.

1:3,4 Here is the problem which tormented Habakkuk. In Judah, where he lived, wicked people had the upper hand and crushed the righteous. Injustice, oppression and violence were everywhere. Yet it seemed to the prophet that God did not care; that He tolerated the situation and did nothing about it. This is a problem that has vexed many people, perhaps nearly all of us at one time or another (see Job 24:1-12; Ps 10:1-12; 13:1,2; 73:2-12; Eccl 3:16,17). God is the all-powerful Ruler of the universe, and He loves justice and righteousness – Ps 33:5; 47:2; 89:14. Yet in this world the wicked prosper and the good suffer and are denied justice. Why doesn't God do something about it?

1:5-11 In these verses God gives an answer to Habakkuk. He assures him that He is going to do something about the corrupt society of Judah. He will bring an end to it, and the instrument He will use is the Babylonian army.

1:5 "Amazed" – Isa 29:9,14. The people of Judah were God's special people whom He chose above all nations on earth – Deut 10:15; Ps 135:4. Though God had used the Assyrians to destroy the northern kingdom of Israel (2 Kings 17:5,6), the people of Judah did not believe such a thing could happen to them.

"Told" – Acts 13:41.

1:6 "I am raising up" – compare 1 Chron 5:26; 2 Chron 21:16; Isa 13:17; Jer 51:1; Amos 6:14. If any nation comes to a place of power on earth it is because the one true God has raised it up; if any falls into weakness and decay it is because He has put it down. Compare Dan 4:34,35; Isa 40:15,22-24; Acts 17:26

"Chaldeans" – the Babylonians. Babylonia became a world power and crushed Assyria, the previous greatest power, between 612 and 605 BC.

"The breadth of the earth" – here this means the lands known to the people of Judah, including their own land. God would use that people to punish His own people. See Jer 51:10 and compare Isa 10:5,6.

1:6-11 From this description of the Babylonians we see they were an exceedingly violent, arrogant and lawless people who cared nothing at all for the true God.

1:11 "His god" – compare Dan 4:30; 11:38. The Babylonians practically worshiped their military power.

1:12-17 God has given an answer to Habakkuk's questions in vs 2-4. But the prophet was not happy with the answer. He wanted God to do something, but was not pleased with what God planned to do. It seems to him that the proposed remedy was worse than the disease. He knew that his own people were bad, but that the Babylonians were even worse (v 13). And now his question is, how can a perfectly holy God use such a wicked nation to punish His own people?

1:12 "Everlasting" – Ps 90:2; Ex 3:14.

- We will not die. O LORD, you have appointed them for judgment, and, O mighty God, you have established them for correction.
- 13 Your eyes are too pure to gaze at evil, and cannot look on wickedness. Why do you look on those who deal treacherously, and hold your tongue when the wicked devours the man who is more righteous than he?
- 14 Why do you make men like the fish of the sea, like crawling things which have no ruler over them?
- 15 They take up all of them with a hook; they catch them in their net, and gather them in their dragnet. Therefore they rejoice and are glad.
- 16 Therefore they offer sacrifices to their net, and burn incense to their dragnet, because through them their portion is rich, and their food abundant.
- 17 So will they go on emptying their net, and continually slaying nations without sparing?

- 2 I will stand my watch, and place myself on the fortifications, and will look to see what he will say to me, and what answer I should give when I am rebuked.
- 2 And the LORD answered me, and said, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who reads it may run.
- 3 For the vision is yet for the appointed time, but in the end it will speak, and not lie. Even though it delays, wait for it, because it will surely come, it will not delay.
- 4 "See the proud one. His soul is not upright in him. But the righteous will live by his faith.
- 5 And indeed, because he transgresses through wine, he is a proud man, and does not stay at home. He enlarges his desire as hell, and, like death, cannot be satisfied, but gathers for himself all nations, and heaps up for himself all people.
- 6 Shall not all these make up a parable about him, and take up a taunting proverb against

"My Holy One" – Isa 1:4; 6:3; Lev 20:7.
 "Die" – Ps 118:17.

"Judgment", "correction" – he accepts what God says in v 6 about raising up the Babylonians as an instrument to punish Judah.

1:13 "Wickedness" – v 3. It seemed to the prophet that God was going to tolerate an even greater wrong in letting the Babylonians destroy Judah than the wrong already present in Judah. And since God could do no evil and could not even look at it, how could He use the evil Babylonians?

"Those who deal treacherously" – the Babylonians.

"More righteous than he" – though the prophet knew the people of Judah were bad, he thought they were still better than the Babylonians.

1:15 "They" – the Babylonians. The prophet describes them as determined fishermen who catch helpless peoples and nations.

1:16 "Net" – here signifies their military power. It enabled them to plunder other nations and live in luxury themselves.

1:17 This is an important question in the prophet's mind. Could God continue to tolerate the atrocities of the Babylonians? Would He not put a stop to them?

2:1 "Watch" – Isa 21:8; Ezek 3:17. As a prophet Habakkuk was like a watchman for the kingdom of Judah. He realized he had been questioning God and waits to see the result of it.

2:2,3 "Vision" – the revelation God gave him in a vision appears in the rest of this chapter. It concerns God's judgment on the Babylonians.

"That he who reads it may run" or it could be translated "So that a herald may run with it."

"Though it delays, wait for it, because it" – or "though He linger, wait for Him, because He."

"It [or He] will not delay" – Babylon fell in 539 BC, about 65 years after God gave this message to His prophet – a brief time in prophecy and in the rise and fall of nations.

2:4 "The proud one" – possibly the king of Babylon representing the whole kingdom, or possibly the kingdom itself personified.

"Faith" – the message is that the prophet should trust God even though he does not understand a thing God is doing. The prophet was baffled at God's ways – 1:2-4,13,17. God tells him (and us) that faith in Him is the only way for the righteous, whether they understand little or much of what God does in the world. Compare 2 Cor 5:7. See how this great phrase from Habakkuk is used in the New Testament – Rom 1:17; Gal 3:11; Heb 10:38,39.

2:5-19 God describes the character of Babylon and speaks of its downfall – vs 6-8,17. He would use Babylon to punish His people (1:6), but this did not mean that He favored Babylon over them. He would deal with Babylon too at the proper time. This is God's answer to Habakkuk.

2:5 "Transgresses through wine" – Prov 20:1; 23:31,32; Dan 5:1-4.

"His desire as hell" – the Hebrew has "Sheol" – note at Gen 37:35.

"All people" – 1:6,9,17. This is evidence that God is speaking of Babylon.

2:6 "Taunting proverb" – those nations could

- him, and say,
 'Woe to him who piles up what is not his!
 And to him who loads himself down with the weight of pledges.'
But for how long?
 7 Will not those who will bite you rise up suddenly,
 and those who will trouble you awake?
 And you become booty for them?
 8 Because you have plundered many nations, all the remainder of the peoples will plunder you,
 because of men's blood, and the violence of the land, of the city,
 and of all who live in it.
 9 "Woe to him who covets ill-gotten gain for his house,
 that he may set his nest on high,
 that he may be delivered from the reach of calamity!
 10 "You have devised a shameful thing for your house,
 cutting off many people,
 and sinning against your own soul.
 11 For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam from the timbers will answer it.
 12 "Woe to him who builds a town by bloodshed, and establishes a city by wickedness!
 13 See, is it not of the LORD of hosts

- that the peoples labour for the fire, and the nations exhaust themselves
 for nothing?
 14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
 as the waters cover the sea.
 15 "Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbour, who puts your bottle to him,
 and makes him drunk also,
 that you may look on their nakedness!
 16 You are filled with shame instead of glory.
 Drink, you also, and be counted as uncircumcised.
 The cup from the LORD's right hand
 will come around to you,
 and utter disgrace will cover your glory.
 17 For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you,
 and the destruction of beasts which made them afraid,
and because of men's blood,
 and because of violence done to the land,
 to the city, and to all who live in it.
 18 "What profit is an idol when its maker has carved it,
or a cast metal image, a teacher of lies?
 For the maker trusts in his own handiwork,
 making idols which cannot speak.
 19 Woe to him who says to a piece of wood,
 'Awake!', to a mute stone,

only taunt Babylon if they thought Babylon was about to fall.

"Woe" – the five "woes" in vs 6-19 signify that punishment would come to Babylon because of their sins. We may be sure that God will not spare any nation, any people which behaves as Babylon did. Compare Isa 5:8-24.

"The weight of pledges" – things given in pledge by others to get loans. The KJV has "thick clay" here. It seems that here they were following the Syriac version or the Vulgate, rather than the Hebrew.

2:7,8 The oppressed will rise up and overcome their oppressor. Other nations will treat Babylon as Babylon treated them.

2:9-11 Like Babylon, individuals sometimes think that by lies, deceit or force they can make themselves secure for the future. Little do they realize that the methods they use to escape ruin will inevitably lead them to ruin.

"Cry out" (v 11) – Babylon was built by riches plundered from other nations. The very walls of the city would testify against it. In the same way do not the walls and beams of many houses all over our land cry out against their owners?

2:12,13 Towns, cities, and empires can be built by violence and sinful methods, but they will all come to nothing in the end. Only what is done through God and for God and by God will endure. Compare 1 John 2:16,17.

2:14 Num 14:21; Isa 11:9. This will come about only when the kingdoms of this world become the kingdom of Christ – Rev 11:15; Dan 2:34,35,44.

2:15 This may refer to the methods Babylon used to strip neighboring nations of their wealth.

2:16 God would treat Babylon as it treated others (compare Ps 18:25,26). God would give Babylon a "cup" to drink which would make it stagger and fall and lie in nakedness and shame, stripped of its power, its wealth, and its glory. Compare Jer 25:15, 16,27,28.

"As uncircumcised" – like those who are not the people of Israel, those in covenant relationship with the true God.

2:17 Apparently the Babylonians had been very severe in their treatment of Lebanon. 2:18,19 Compare Ps 115:4-8; Isa 40:18-22; 41:29; 44:9-20. Babylon was full of idols – Jer 50:38; the people trusted in the work of their own hands, not in God. This would be a cause of terrible "woe" to them. Observe that an idol is a "teacher of lies" – it lies to people about the nature of God and how to receive divine help. Compare Rom 1:25.

'Arise!' Can it teach?
See, it is overlaid with gold and silver,
and there is no breath at all in it.
20 But the LORD is in his holy temple.
Let all the earth keep silence before him."

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard your renown,
and was afraid.

O LORD, revive your work in the midst of the years.

In the midst of the years make yourself
known. In wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Teman, the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah

His glory covered the heavens,
and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was like the light.
He had rays flashing out of his hand,
and there his power was hidden.

5 Before him went the plague,
and burning coals followed at his feet.

6 He stood and measured the earth.
He looked and made the nations tremble, and the everlasting mountains were scattered,
the perpetual hills bowed down.
His ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in distress;
and the tent curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

8 Was the LORD displeased with the rivers?
Was your anger against the rivers?
Was your wrath against the sea, that you rode on your horses and your chariots of salvation?

9 Your bow was completely uncovered, oaths were sworn over your tribes. Selah
You split the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw you, and they trembled.
Floods of water swept by.
The deep uttered its voice,
and lifted up its hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation.
At the light of your arrows they went,
and at the shining of your glittering spear.

12 You marched through the land in indignation,
you threshed the nations in anger.

13 You went forth for the deliverance of
your people,
for the deliverance of your anointed.
You struck the head of the house of the wicked, by baring its foundation to the neck. Selah

14 You pierced the head of his villages with his own spears.
They came out like a whirlwind to scatter me.
Their rejoicing was like devouring the poor in secret.

15 You walked through the sea with your horses,
through the heap of great waters.

2:20 Idols cannot speak but God can. From His holy temple in heaven He has been pronouncing judgments on the wicked of the earth. Let men be quiet and listen and learn from Him.

3:1 "Prayer" – though this is called a prayer, only in v 2 do we see any requests. Prayer can be more than merely asking God for things. Much of this psalm is a very poetic description of God as the great judge and punisher of the nations, the great warrior against wickedness on earth, and the Redeemer of His people.

"Shigionoth" – no one knows now the meaning of this Hebrew word. It was probably a musical term indicating this prayer could be sung with musical instruments.

3:2 "Revive" – Ps 85:6; 119:25,37,40,88, 107,149,154,156,159; 138:7; 143:11; Isa 57:15; Hos 6:2; 14:7. Habakkuk no longer is set on questioning God as he did in chapter 1. He is willing for God to be God, and is pleading for a revival of God's marvelous work among the people.

"Wrath" – see Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18.

"Mercy" – Ex 34:6,7.

3:3 "Teman" – an area in the land of Edom southeast of Judah.

"Paran" – a mountain not far from Edom. The prophet pictures God coming from that direction to subdue His enemies. Whether Habakkuk is referring to a past event or describing a vision which has to do with the future is not clear. Compare Isa 34:5-10; 63:1-6.

"Selah" – note at Ps 3:2.

"The earth" – 2:14.

3:4 Isa 18:4; Rev 1:16.

3:5 Ex 5:3; 9:14; Lev 26:25; Deut 32:24; Ps 91:3; Rev 15:1.

3:6 Ps 18:7; Jer 4:24-26; Heb 12:26-28; Rev 6:14; 16:18-20.

"Everlasting" – Gen 21:33; Ex 3:14; Ps 90:2.

3:7 Cushan and Midian were tribes living near Edom. The prophet gives these two names as two examples among many – v 12.

3:8 Ex 7:20-24; 14:15-31; Ps 68:17; 77:16; Rev 8:8,9; 16:3,4.

3:9 Deut 32:23; Ps 7:12,13; 45:3-5.

3:10 Ps 77:16; 93:3.

3:11 Josh 10:12,13; Joel 2:30,31.

3:12 This happened in the past and is happening now, but will be more fully true in the future – Isa 24:1-6; 34:1-4; Zech 14:2-5.

3:13 Compare Ex 3:8; Ps 68:21; 110:6; Isa 31:5; Mic 5:6; Rom 11:26.

3:14,15 See v 8.

16 When I heard, my body trembled,
 my lips quivered at the sound.
 Decay entered my bones, and I trembled in myself.
 But I will wait quietly for the day of trouble which will come on the people who will invade us with his troops.
 17 Though the fig tree does not blossom and there is no fruit on the vines, though the yield of the olive fails

3:16 The language here seems to indicate that Habakkuk has seen and heard the things of vs 3-15 in a vision.

"Trembled" – compare Dan 4:19; 7:15,28; 8:27; 10:16,17.

"I will wait quietly" – he will question God about it no more.

"Who will invade us" – Babylon. He accepts God's word that Babylon would be punished and fall.

3:17,18 Habakkuk puts into practice the word God gave him – "the just will live by his faith" (2:4). He is willing to leave the matter of God's judgments and His dealings in the world where they belong – in God's hands, and trust Him and rejoice in Him no matter what happened. Surely this is a great lesson for all of us to learn.

and the fields produce no food, though the flock is cut off from the fold and there is no herd in the stalls, 18 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD,
 I will be glad in the God of my salvation.

19 The Lord God is my strength, and he will make my feet like a deer's feet,
 and he causes me to walk on my heights.

For the choir director. On my stringed instruments.

The condition described in v 17 would be the result of the Babylonian invasion. The whole idea of this was once a terrible shock to him – 1:12-17. Now he rests in God who always knows what is the best thing to do.

"Rejoice" – Ps 97:12; Isa 61:10; Phil 4:4.

"God of my salvation" – Ex 15:2; Luke 1:47. What brought joy to the prophet was a personal knowledge of God and his own salvation. If we have this same knowledge we too can rejoice in all that may happen to us – Matt 5:11,12; John 16:33; Rom 5:3; 8:28.

3:19 "My strength" – Ex 15:2; Ps 18:1,32; 22:19; 73:26; Isa 40:29-31.

"Heights" – Deut 32:13; Ps 18:33. Deer are very sure-footed on the hills and mountains.

1 The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 "I will completely make an end of all things from the land," says the LORD.

3 "I will make an end of man and beast; I will make an end of the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea, and the stumbling blocks along with the wicked.

And I will cut man off from the land," says the LORD.

4 "I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and I will cut off what is left of Baal from this place, and the names of the idolatrous priests along with the priests,

5 And those who worship the starry host of heaven on the housetops, and those who worship and swear by the LORD, and who swear by Malcam,

6 And those who have turned back from the LORD, and those who have not sought the LORD or inquired of him.

7 Be silent in the presence of the Lord God,

1:1 "Word. . . came" – Jer 1:4; Hos 1:1; Joel 1:1.

"Hezekiah" – 2 Kings 18:1.

"Josiah" – 2 Kings 22:1.

"Amon" – 2 Kings 21:19.

1:2,3 Judging from the language of this verse, v 18 and 3:8, God is speaking through Zephaniah of a time in the distant future which still has not come. Compare Gen 6:7. God promised Noah that He would never again destroy everything with a flood – Gen 9:15,16. Through Zephaniah He speaks of destruction by other means. Compare also 2 Peter 3:10-13.

"The land" – or "the earth" – the Hebrew word means either.

1:4-13 Having announced the far-off event, God now speaks of the punishment of Judah and Jerusalem. There seems to be a mingling of events to come in the near future and the is tant future (v 7). They were partly fulfilled in 586 BC – 2 Kings chapter 25.

1:4 "I will" – compare Isa 10:5; Jer 51:20.

"Baal" – note at Jud 2:11.

"Idolatrous priests" – in Hebrew "Kemarim."

1:5 "Starry host" – 2 Kings 21:3; Jer 8:2; 19:13; Acts 7:42; Deut 4:19; 17:3-5.

"Malcam" – the god Molech – note at Lev 18:21. Trying to combine the name of the one true God with the worship of the false for the day of the LORD is at hand, for the LORD has prepared a sacrifice, he has invited his guests.

8 And this will take place on the day of the LORD's sacrifice:

I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all those dressed in foreign clothes.

9 On the same day I will also punish all those who leap over the temple threshold, who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 "And on that day," says the LORD, "this will take place:

there will be the sound of a cry from the Fish Gate, and a wailing from the Second Quarter, and a loud crash from the hills.

11 Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people will be cut down, all those who carry silver will be cut off.

12 And it will happen at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and punish the men who are settled complacently like wine on its dregs, who say in their heart,

'The LORD will not do good, nor will he do evil.'

13 Therefore their goods will become booty, and their houses a desolation.

gods of the nations – this revealed much spiritual blindness and depravity.

1:6 This was their great sin and the root cause of other sins.

1:7 "Silent" – Hab 2:20.

"Day of the LORD" – v 14; see Isa 13:6-13; Joel 1:15; 2:2,11; 3:31; Amos 5:18; 1 Thess 5:2; 2 Pet 3:10.

"A sacrifice" – Jer 46:10. Here the word speaks of a slaughter. Judah's enemies were set apart for this work of destroying Judah.

1:8 "Foreign clothes" – God saw that His people's adopting foreign dress was a sign of their adopting foreign ways of life contrary to the ways a holy people should live.

1:9 "Leap over the temple threshold" – 1 Sam 5:5. This was one of the foreign ways Judah had adopted. They were careful to observe that, but thought nothing of lying and killing – another example of how some people think that a little religious superstition can win God's favor even if their lives are full of sin.

1:10,11 Neh 3:3; 11:9; 1 Kings 20:34.

1:12 "Complacently" – Amos 6:1.

"Dregs" – Jer 48:11.

"The LORD will not do" – they felt secure in their sin and unbelief, thinking that God was inactive. Compare Ps 10:11; 73:11,12.

1:13 "Booty" – Jer 15:13; 2 Kings 24:13.

And they will build houses but not live
in them,
 and they will plant vineyards but not drink their wine.

14 "The great day of the LORD is near.
It is near, and coming speedily.
 The sound of the day of the LORD!
 The mighty man there will cry out bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath,
 a day of trouble and distress,
 a day of devastation and desolation,
 a day of darkness and gloom,
 a day of clouds and dense darkness,

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fortified cities, and against the high towers.

17 I will bring distress on men,
 so that they walk like blind men, because they have sinned against
 the LORD.

And their blood will be poured out like dust,
 and their flesh like dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them in the day of the LORD's wrath;
 and the whole land will be devoured by
 the fire of his jealousy.
 For quickly he will rid the land of all those who live in it."

2 Gather yourselves together;
 yes, gather together, O nation not desirable,
 2 Before the decree is carried out,
before the day takes away the chaff,
 before the fierce anger of the LORD
 comes on you,

before the day of the LORD's anger
 comes on you.

3 Seek the LORD, all you meek of the earth, who have behaved in accordance with his justice.
 Seek righteousness, seek meekness.
 Perhaps you will be hidden in the day of the LORD's anger.

4 For Gaza will be abandoned, and Ashkelon will become a desolation.
 At midday they will drive out the people of Ashdod,
 and Ekron will be uprooted.

5 Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast,
 the nation of the Kerethites!
 The word of the LORD is against you,
 O Canaan, the land of the Philistines:
 "I will destroy you, so that no one will live there."

6 And the seacoast will become pastures,
and caves for shepherds,
 and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah.
 They will feed their flocks there.
 In the evening they will lie down in the houses of Ashkelon;
 for the LORD their God will visit them,
 and turn away their captivity.

8 "I have heard the insults of Moab,
 and the taunts of the children of Ammon,
 with which they have insulted my people,
 and exalted themselves against their borders.

9 Therefore, as I live,"

1:14 Verse 7. "Near" – Joel 1:15.

1:15 Amos 5:18-20.

1:16 Joel 2:2.

1:17 "Blind men" – Deut 28:28,29; Isa 59:10.

1:18 "Wrath" – notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18. The wealthy sometimes think their riches give them security. But they will learn that there is no security when God rises in anger against them.

"Devoured" – vs 2,3; 3:8.

2:1 "Nation not desirable" – Judah (Jer 3:3,25; 6:15). Their behavior was shameful but they were not ashamed of it.

2:2,3 A call to repentance before punishment falls.

"Seek" – Hos 14:1-3; Joel 2:12-14; Amos 5:4,6; Isa 55:6,7; Jer 29:13.

"Meek" – only the humble would be willing to listen to the prophet and seek God.

"Righteousness" – Isa 1:17; Matt 6:33.

"Meekness" – Isa 57:15; 66:2; Jam 4:6-10.

"Perhaps" – Joel 2:14; Amos 5:15.

2:4-7 A prophecy of God's judgment on the Philistines. See also Amos 1:6-8; Ezek 25:15-17. Note on Philistines at Gen 10:14. Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod and Ekron were important cities in their land.

"Kerethites" – 1 Sam 30:14; 2 Sam 8:18.

2:7 "Remnant" – Isa 11:11,16; 28:5; 37:32; Jer 23:3.

"Turn away their captivity" – or "restore their well-being" – the Hebrew means either. Deut 30:3; Jer 32:44; Hos 14:4-9; Joel 3:1; Amos 9:13-15.

2:8,9 God pronounces judgment on the people of Moab and the Ammonites together. They were descended from the same man (Gen 19:36-38), and lived in the same general area. For other prophecies about them see Isa 11:14; 15:1 - 16:14; Jer 9:26; chapter 48; 49:1-6; Ezek 21:28-32; 25:1-11; Amos 2:1-3. Both nations were continual enemies of Israel.

2:9 "LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3. "Sodom", "Gomorra" – Gen 19:23-29.

says the LORD of hosts,
 the God of Israel,
 “surely Moab will become like Sodom, and the land of the children of Ammon
 like Gomorrah,
 a place of weeds and salt pits,
 and a permanent desolation.
 Those who are left of my people will plunder them,
 and the remnant of my people will possess them.
 10 This they will have for their pride, because they have insulted and exalted themselves against the people
 of the LORD of hosts.”
 11 The LORD will be terrifying to them,
 for he will famish all the gods of the earth.
 And each people will worship him from their own place, all the islands of the nations.
 12 “You Ethiopians also will be slain by my sword.”
 13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north and destroy Assyria, and make Nineveh a desolation and as dry as a desert.
 14 And flocks will lie down in the middle of her,
and all the beasts of the country.
 Both the cormorant and the bittern will lodge on the tops of its pillars;
their voice will sing through the windows.
 Desolation will be on the threshold;
 for he will lay bare the cedar work.
 15 This is the rejoicing city that lived without a care,

that said in her heart,
 “I am, and there is no one beside me.”
 What a desolation she has become!
 A place for beasts to lie down!
 Everyone who passes by her will hiss,
and shake his fist.

3 Woe to her who is filthy and polluted,
 to the oppressing city!
 2 She has not obeyed God's voice;
 she has not received correction;
 she has not trusted in the LORD;
 she has not drawn near to her God.
 3 Her princes within her are roaring lions;
 her judges are evening wolves;
 they leave no bone to gnaw to the morning.
 4 Her prophets are light, treacherous persons.
 Her priests have defiled the sanctuary,
 they have done violence to the law.
 5 The just LORD is in her midst.
 He will do no evil.
 Each morning he brings his justice to light;
 he does not fail.
 But the unjust know no shame.
 6 “I have cut off nations.
 Their towers are in ruins.
 I made their streets desolate so that no one passes through them.
 Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, no inhabitant.
 7 I said, ‘If only you would fear me and receive instruction,’ so that their dwelling place would not be cut off, in all that I laid on them.

“Will possess them” – this will be fulfilled in the future, since it has not been fulfilled up to the present time.

2:10 “Pride” – Isa 16:6; Jer 49:16; Obad 3. See how God loathes pride – Prov 6:16,17; Isa 2:12-18.

2:11 “Each people will worship Him” – 3:9; Ps 86:9; Hab 2:14; Zech 14:9,16. A time is coming when there will not be idols and gods in any country and all peoples everywhere will worship only the true God.

2:12 Again God speaks. Note on “Ethiopia” – or “Cush” – at Isa 18:1.

“My sword” – an enemy nation. Compare Isa 10:5.

2:13-15 For other prophecies against Assyria and its capital Nineveh, see Isa 10:12-19; 19:23-25; Nahum chapters 1-3. Note on Assyria at 2 Kings 15:19.

2:14 “Cormorant and the bittern” – it is unclear exactly what birds are indicated by the Hebrew.

2:15 “I am” – compare Isa 47:10.

3:1-8 The prophet now speaks of Jerusalem – this is the only city of which it could be said that the LORD (Jehovah God) was in it

– v 5.

3:1 “Oppressing city” – Jer 6:6; 22:3.

3:2 Jer 7:28; 22:21; Matt 7:21; Luke 6:46.

3:3 The weak and helpless were their prey.

3:4 These prophets were false prophets. Compare Jer 5:31; 14:14; 23:16,32. The work of the priests was to teach God's law and see that the people practiced it – Deut 31:9-13; 2 Chron 17:8,9; Jer 2:8; 23:11.
3:5 “Just” – or “righteous” – Ps 11:7; 89:14; Deut 32:4.

“In her midst” – God's glory, His presence was in His temple in Jerusalem. From there He worked justice in the earth, rewarding the righteous and punishing the wicked.

“Know no shame” – 2:1.

3:6 God speaks and gives an illustration of the justice He works in the earth.

3:7 “Dwelling place” – Jerusalem. God wished to spare His city – Ps 132:13; Matt 23:37-39. But He could not overlook the wickedness of the people.

“Rose early” – they were eager to get to their corrupted work. Verse 7 in Hebrew is obscure and difficult to translate.

But they rose early and corrupted all their deeds.

8 Therefore wait for me, says the LORD, until the day that I rise up for plunder. For my decision is to gather the nations, to assemble the kingdoms, to pour out on them my indignation, all my fierce anger. For the whole earth will be devoured by the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then I will restore to the people a pure language, that they may all call on the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.

10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my worshippers, the daughter of my dispersed, will bring my offering.

11 In that day you will not be put to shame for any of your deeds, by which you have transgressed against me, for then I will take away from your midst those who rejoice in your pride, and you will no longer be haughty on my holy mountain.

12 I will also leave a humble and lowly people in your midst, and they will trust in the name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Israel will do no evil or speak lies, nor will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth. They will feed their flocks and lie down,

and no one will make them afraid."

14 Sing, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!

15 The LORD has taken away judgments on you, he has cast out your enemy. The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst. You will see no more disaster.

16 In that day it will be said to Jerusalem, "Do not fear," and to Zion, "Do not let your hands hang limply!"

17 The LORD your God in your midst is mighty. He will save you, he will rejoice over you with joy, he will rest in his love, he will rejoice over you with singing.

18 "I will gather those among you who grieve for the appointed assembly, to whom the scorning of it was a burden.

19 See, at that time I will deal with all who trouble you, and I will save the lame, and gather those who were driven out; and I will see that they get praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time I will bring you back, at the time that I gather you. For I will give you a name and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore you from captivity before your eyes, says the LORD.

3:8 "Wait for me" – God would deal with them as they deserved.

"Anger" – Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

"Devoured" – 1:2,3,18; Isa 24:1-13.

3:9 Though God will cause great calamities and devastations on the earth there will be nations left for Him to purify. And He will do so and the world will be united in worship of the true God – 2:11; Zech 14:9.

3:10 "My dispersed" – Deut 4:27; 28:64; Jer 9:16.

"Offering" – Isa 11:11,12; 60:7.

3:11-13 "You" – God speaks to Jerusalem. This condition of the people of Israel has not appeared from that day to this. So its fulfillment awaits the future.

3:13 "Remnant" – 2:7.

3:14,15 Compare Isa 12:1,6; 40:1,2; 51:11. God speaks of something still in the future as if it had already taken place. See Isa 46:10.

"Daughter of Zion" – note at Ps 9:14; etc.

"The king of Israel" – Ezek 37:26-28; Zech 14:16; Isa 44:6. Notice the words "no more" – words as yet unfulfilled.

3:16 "In that day" – vs 9,11.

"Limply" – Isa 35:3,4; Heb 12:12.

3:17 A great verse showing the joy and satisfaction God has in His people. This will be true in the future of Jerusalem and its people. It is true now of believers in Christ.

"He will save" – Isa 46:13; 51:5; 63:1; Rom 1:16; Heb 7:25.

"Rejoice" – Ps 147:11; Isa 62:4; Eph 1:3-6.

"Love" – Isa 40:1; Hos 14:4; Rom 5:5; 1 John 4:16-18.

"Singing" – God sings over His redeemed people as parents sing to an infant safe in their arms.

3:18 God speaks and comforts His people.

3:19 "All who trouble you" – enemy nations.

3:20 Jer 29:14; Ezek 37:12,21-28; Amos 9:14,15.

"You from captivity" – or "your well-being."

HAGGAI

Author:

The prophet Haggai is referred to in Ezra 5:1,2; 6:14, but we know almost nothing about him. He was a contemporary of Zechariah.

Date:

About 520 BC, during the second year of the reign of king Darius.

Theme:

In his second year as king of Persia Cyrus permitted the Jews to return to Jerusalem (538 BC). Under the leadership of Zerubbabel they began the construction of the temple, but after completing the foundation they stopped the work. Haggai encouraged them to work and finish the temple, warning them of loss if they did not and promising God's blessing if they did.

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Johozadak, the high priest, saying,

2 "This is what the LORD of hosts has spoken, saying: This people say, 'The time has not come, the time for building the LORD's house.'"

3 Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 4 "Is it time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, and this house lie in ruins?

5 "Now therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. 6 You have sown much, but have harvested little. You eat, but do not have enough. You drink, but never have your fill. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm. And the wage earner earns wages to put into a bag with holes.

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the mountain, and bring timber and build the house, and I will take pleasure in it,

1:1 "Darius" – Ezra 4:24. The second year of his reign was in 520 BC. This Darius was not the same as the Darius of Daniel chapter 6.

"Word of the LORD came" – Jer 1:2; Hos 1:1; Joel 1:1.

"Zerubbabel" – Ezra 2:2; 3:2; 4:2; 5:2; Neh 7:7; 12:1; Zech 4:6-10. He was governor of Judah after the Jews returned from captivity in Babylon.

"Joshua" – Zech 3:1-9.

"Priest" – notes at Ex 28:1.

1:2 "LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

"Has spoken, saying" – the prophets knew they had a message from God and they spoke in His name with His authority.

"This people" – people of Judah.

"For building" – the Jews had laid the foundation of the temple sixteen years before, but had not continued the work – Ezra 3:8-10; 4:1-5,24.

1:3,4 They had built good houses for themselves but left God's house a ruin (it had been destroyed about seventy years before – 1 Kings 25:8-15). Like so many Christians today the people put themselves first and neglected God's work. They had time for themselves, but not for Him.

1:5 "Consider" – v 7; 2:15,18; Lam 3:40; 2 Cor 13:5; 1 Pet 1:13. God wanted His people to think about their condition and understand the reason why certain things were happening. By understanding our own ways we can understand something of God's ways with us (compare Ps 18:25,26; Lev 26:23,24).

1:6 This was the result of their self-centered ways. They got little from their hard labor and were sinking into poverty. Their purses had "holes" – as fast as they earned money they had to spend it and it seemed to be and I will be glorified, says the LORD. 9 You looked for much, and, see, it came to little. And when you brought it home, I blew on it. Why? says the LORD of hosts. Because of my house, which lies in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house. 10 Therefore the heavens above you withhold the dew, and the earth withholds her fruit. 11 And I called for a drought on the land, and on the mountains, and on the grain, and on the new wine, and on the oil, and on all that the ground produces, and on men, and on cattle, and on all the labour of your hands."

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the rest of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, because the LORD their God had sent him, and the people feared the LORD.

13 Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the LORD's message to the people, saying, "I am with you, says the LORD." 14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the governing for nothing. All this was God's punishment for their sin of forgetting His work (compare Deut 28:38-40; Lev 26:18-20).

1:7,8 He wants them to realize the cause of their poverty and do something about it. If they would try to please God He would please them. If they would honor Him He would honor them (v 13; 2:19; 1 Sam 2:30; Isa 58:13,14; John 12:26; 2 Cor 9:6-8). We have no right to expect God's blessings if we care nothing for His pleasure and honor, and think only of our own.

1:9 "I blew on it" – that is, blew it away. Because of their selfish, thoughtless ways God arranged conditions so that they would not prosper.

1:10,11 It is the one true God who gives rain, and sometimes He withholds it as a punishment for people's sins. Compare Lev 26:4,19; Deut 28:22-24; 1 Kings 17:1; Jer 14:1,22.

1:12 "Remnant" – those who had returned from captivity in Babylon. They were a small number compared to the many people who had once lived in Judah.

"Obeyed" – Deut 6:3,24; 11:13-15; 28:1-6; John 14:15.

"Feared the LORD" – notes at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

1:13 "LORD's messenger" – this is what a prophet was. He got a message from God and delivered it to the people.

"I am with you" – because of their obedience and reverence He would bless and prosper them. The promise of the Lord's presence has been enough in all ages to spur God's people on to great efforts and accomplishments – Ex 33:14; Josh 1:5; Jud 6:16; 1 Chron 28:20; Jer 1:8; Matt 28:20.

1:14 "Stirred up" – compare Ezra 1:1,5; Phil 2:13.

son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the rest of the people; and they came to work on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Haggai, saying, 2 "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the rest of the people, saying, 3 who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? And how do you see it now? In comparison with that is it not in your eyes as nothing? 4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, says the LORD, and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and be strong, all you people of the land, says the LORD, and work, for I am with you, says the LORD of hosts, 5 in accordance with the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt; for my Spirit remains among you. Do not fear.

6 "For thus says the LORD of hosts: Once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land, 7 and I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. 8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the LORD of hosts. 9 The glory of this latter house will be greater than that of the former, says the LORD of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, says the LORD of hosts."

10 In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Now ask the priests concerning the law, and say, 12 If someone carries consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and with the fold touches bread, or stew, or wine, or oil, or any meat, will it become consecrated?"

And the priests answered and said, "No."

13 Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean by touching a dead body touches any of those, will it become unclean?"

And the priests answered and said, "It will become unclean."

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, "So is this nation before me, says the

2:1-3 Some of the people had been living when Solomon's temple was destroyed by the Babylonian army many years before this – Ezra 3:12. That temple was very magnificent. See 1 Kings 6:1–37; 7:13-51. The temple they were now building was small and plain by comparison. But see Zech 4:10. 2:4 "Be strong" – Josh 1:6-9; 23:6; Jud 5:21; Ps 27:14; 31:24; Dan 10:19; Eph 6:10. "Work" – Eccl 9:10; John 6:37; 9:4; 1 Cor 15:58.

"With you" – 1:13.

2:5 His covenant was that they would be His people and He would dwell in their midst – Ex 29:44-46.

"My Spirit" – Ex 31:3; Num 11:16,17,25; Ps 51:11; 106:33; Isa 63:11-14.

"Do not fear" – if God is with us there can be nothing to fear. If He is not with us there is good reason to fear many things.

2:6 "Heavens and the earth" – Heb 12:26 refers to these words and puts their fulfillment in the future. At the second coming of Christ there will be a great shaking of heaven and earth and all the nations of earth – Rev 6:12-17; 16:14-21. 2:7 "All nations" – God can and does do what He wills among all the nations of the earth. He can and does use them all for His glory and the good of His people. Compare Dan 4:34,35.

"Desire of all nations" – some scholars think this refers to the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. It may be so but we cannot be sure. Actually all nations do not desire Him, but some from among all nations do. The same Hebrew word translated here "desired" can also mean material things which men value. This may be the meaning here and it may be significant that God speaks of silver and gold in the next verse. Compare Isa 60:5.

"Glory" – Ex 40:34,35; 1 Kings 8:10,11. If God's glory is in a building it needs no other magnificence; if it is not there no magnificence will mean anything.

2:8 Compare Ps 50:10-12. God is well able to provide His people with all they need for any work He calls them to do – 2 Cor 9:8.

2:9 The glory of Solomon's temple was coming to an end when Judah was conquered and exiled. The temple had become a place of idolatry and God abandoned it – Ezekiel chapters 8-11. Now the people had left idols and false gods and God would fill the new temple with His glory. Though there would not be in the new one as much physical splendor as in the old one there would be more of God's glory.

"This place" – Jerusalem.

"Peace" – Isa 60:17; Luke 1:79; 2:14; John 14:27; Col 1:20.

2:10-14 Two months had passed since the previous message (v 1). This new message was this: because of their disobedience, thoughtlessness and carelessness in God's work the people were unclean. Being in the holy land and in the holy city and planning to build God's holy temple did not make them holy. Holiness cannot be transmitted like that. Holiness is a matter of the heart, of the character, of the behavior, and results from obedience to God (compare Rom 6:22). And those without true holiness defile everything they touch.

2:12 "Consecrated meat" was meat brought as an offering to God.

2:13 Lev 5:2; Num 19:11-13,22.

LORD, and so is every work of their hands, and what they offer there is unclean.

15 "And now, carefully consider from this day onward. Before a stone was laid on stone in the temple of the LORD, 16 from the time of those days, when someone came to a heap of twenty bushels, there were only ten; when someone came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures out of the vat, there were only twenty. 17 I struck you with blight and mildew and with hail on all the labours of your hands. Yet you did not turn to me, says the LORD. 18 Consider now from this day onward. Consider things from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid. 19 Is the seed still in the barn? And as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit. From this day on I will bless you."

20 And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, 21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth. 22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. And I will overthrow the chariots and those who ride in them, and the horses and their riders will come down, each one by the sword of his brother.

23 "In that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, says the LORD, and will make you like my signet ring; for I have chosen you, says the LORD of hosts."

2:15 1:5.

2:16,17 1:6,9. "Did not turn to me" – Isa 9:13; Jer 3:10; Amos 4:6-9.

2:18,19 "I will bless you" – compare Mal 3:10; Ps 128:1,2; Joel 2:13,14. Because the people began to believe the prophet and to obey and honor God, He promises them there would be a great and sudden change in their condition. Instead of punishing them He would bless them, starting immediately. And He wanted them to mark down the date of this change and the reason for it, so that they might learn His ways with them.

2:20-23 On the same day that God sent a message to the people he sent a personal message of encouragement to the leader of the people.

2:21 "Shake" – 2:6.

2:22 Zerubbabel had nothing to fear from enemies either far or near. The Commander of the armies of heaven and the Controller of all earth's armies was in charge of events. Compare Ex 15:1,4,19,21; Josh 21:43,44; Jud 7:22; Ezek 38:21; Dan 2:34,35,44,45; 4:35.

2:23 "Signet ring" – Ex 3:10; 8:8. In those days this was a sign of authority. God would execute His decisions through Zerubbabel.

ZECHARIAH

Author:

Zechariah was a contemporary of Haggai, the grandson of a priest named Iddo, and so a priest himself. In the Old Testament 29 men are named Zechariah, but the prophet who wrote this book is the one who lived in the days of Ezra and Nehemiah and is referred to in their books.

Date:

Zechariah began his ministry in 520 BC, and wrote this book sometime after that.

Themes:

Rebuking the people for their sins; encouraging the construction of the temple; God's judgment on the nations; future trouble and then blessing for Israel; both the first and second comings of Christ (3:8; 6:12,13; 9:9; 14:3,4).

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, saying,

2 "The LORD was very angry with your fathers. 3 Therefore say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Turn to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will turn to you, says the LORD of hosts. 4 Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets cried out, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: Turn now from your evil ways, and from your evil deeds.' But they would not hear, or listen to me, says the LORD. 5 Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers?"

"And they returned and said, 'The LORD of hosts has dealt with us in accordance with our ways and our deeds, just as he determined to do to us.'"

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, as follows:

8 I saw a vision at night, and a man appeared riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees in a hollow, and behind him there were red, sorrel, and white horses.

9 Then I said, "My lord, what are these?"

And the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

10 And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These are those whom the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth."

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have gone throughout the earth, and have seen that all the earth is quiet and peaceful."

12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, "O LORD of hosts, how long will you have no mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have been angry these seventy years?" 13 And the LORD answered the angel who talked with me with good words, comforting words.

1:1 "Darius" – Hag 1:1; Ezra 4:24. Zechariah and Haggai were contemporaries. "Word of the LORD came" – Jer 1:2; Hos 1:1; Joel 1:1.

"Iddo" – Ezra 5:1; 6:14; Neh 12:4,16. "Prophet" – Gen 20:7.

1:2 "Angry" – notes at Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11.

"Fathers" – Jer 7:18,20; 8:19; 11:17; 32:31-35. The people of Judah turned away from God, broke His covenant and worshiped other gods. So He brought against them the Babylonians who destroyed Jerusalem and took the people into exile – 2 Chron 36:15-21. Now a remnant of the people had returned and God speaks to them.

1:3 "LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

"Turn to me" – Jer 4:1; Hosea 14:1; Mal 3:7; Jam 4:8. If they would do their part it is certain that God would do His part – Ex 34:6,7; Ezek 18:30-32.

1:4 "Former prophets" – Isaiah, Joel, Micah, Jeremiah, etc.

"Would not hear" – Jer 7:13,25; 11:7,8; 25:3-7. Any people, any individual who refuses to pay attention to what God says is heading for disaster. Compare Heb 12:25.

1:5,6 Men pass away like grass in a field but God's Word stands forever – Isa 40:6-8; 1 Pet 1:24,25. And the punishment that came on Israel and Judah was in fulfillment of that Word.

"Then they returned and said" – compare Dan 9:1-3; Jer 29:10-14; Ezra 9:3-5; 10:1.

"In accordance with our ways" – Ezra 9:7,13; Dan 9:11-14.

"Determined to do" – Lev 26:27-33; Deut 28:45-52; Jer 23:20; 39:16.

1:7-17 This is the first of eight visions God gave Zechariah – v 18; 2:1; 3:1; 4:1; 5:1,5; 6:1. It seems they all came in one night. Giving visions is one way God used to reveal His truth and His messages to the prophets. See Gen 15:1; Isa 1:1; Dan 2:19; Acts 9:10; 10:3.

1:8 "A man" – it seems this "man" is "the angel of the LORD" (v 11), none other than the Son of God Himself. Note on this angel at Gen 16:7.

"Red horse" – the color red may signify bloodshed (Rev 6:4), white may signify victory and peace (compare Rev 19:11-15), and sorrel may signify a mixture of the two.

"Horses" – the meaning of these appears in v 10. They probably signify angels whom God sends on His work in the world (compare 2 Kings 6:17; Ps 78:49; 91:11,12; Dan 10:12,13,20; Heb 1:14; Rev 7:1; 12:7; 15:1).

1:9 The angel who was talking with Zechariah is not the same as the angel of the LORD (v 11).

1:10 "The earth" – Job 1:6,7. The angels go throughout the world to fulfill God's will.

1:11 Verse 8. The angel of the LORD was in authority over all the other angels and so they brought their reports to Him.

"Quiet and peaceful" – this was the state of the earth for a time after the Medes and Persians had conquered Babylonia and established their empire.

1:12 The Son of God prays to God the Father about the condition of Judah. Compare John 17:1; Rom 8:34; 1 Tim 2:5; Heb 7:25; 1 John 2:1.

"Seventy years" – 2 Chron 36:21; Jer 25:11,12; 29:10; Dan 9:2.

1:13-17 God the Father listened to His Son and sent a comforting message to the people of Judah through His angel and His prophet.

1:13 "Angel" – v 9.

14 So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Cry out, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. 15 And I am very angry with the nations that are at ease. For I was only a little angry, and they helped forward the distress."

16 "Therefore thus says the LORD: I am returning to Jerusalem with mercy. My house will be built in it, says the LORD of hosts, and a measuring line will be stretched out on Jerusalem."

17 "Cry out again, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: My cities will again spread out through prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem.'"

18 Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked and saw four horns. 19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?"

And he answered me, "Those are the horns which scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20 And the LORD showed me four craftsmen. 21 Then I said, "What have those come to do?"

And he spoke, saying, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no one could lift up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it."

1:14 "Jealous" – 8:2; Ex 20:5; 34:14; Joel 2:18; James 4:5. Jealousy speaks of love. God's love for the people of Judah was very great, and therefore He was jealous of anything that might turn their hearts from Him, and was angry with any nation which injured them.

1:15 "Angry" – v 2. "Nations" – the nations felt secure apart from God and did many things to provoke Him to anger (compare Rom 1:18-25). God's anger against them increased because of their treatment of the Jews.

1:16 "My house" – the temple. For the fulfillment of this see Ezra 6:14,15.

"Measuring line" – here signifies either the rebuilding of Jerusalem or protection from enemies. See Jer 31:38-40.

1:17 "Comfort" – Isa 40:1. "Choose" – 2:12; 3:2; Isa 14:1.

1:18-21 A vision about the destruction of the nations which destroyed Israel and Judah. "Horns" signify authority and power (1 Sam 2:10; Ps 18:2; Dan 7:7,8; Luke 1:69; Rev 17:12). Here they symbolize the strong nations which scattered God's people, chief among which was Assyria and Babylonia. But "four" may indicate the "four corners" of the whole world.

1:20 "Craftsmen" – nations or other forces God would use to crush the nations signified by the horns. "Craftsmen" suggests something constructive rather than merely destructive.

2:1-13 This third vision has to do with the future greatness of Jerusalem and Judah.

2:4 "Young man" – possibly the man with a measuring line in v 1.

"Without walls" – Jerusalem will be such a great city that its old walls will not be able

2 I lifted up my eyes again, and looked and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 Then I said, "Where are you going?"

And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what its width and length are."

3 And, suddenly, the angel who talked with me went out, and another angel came out to meet him, 4 And said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited like towns without walls because of the many men and cattle in it. 5 For I, says the LORD, will be a wall of fire all around her, and will be the glory in her midst.'"

6 "Up, and away! Flee from the land of the north, says the LORD, for I have spread you out to the four winds of the heaven," says the LORD.

7 "Up, O Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon." 8 For thus says the LORD of hosts: After glory he has sent me to the nations who have plundered you. For he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. 9 For, see, I will raise my hand over them, and they will become plunder to their servants. And you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

10 "Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, for, see, I am coming, and I will dwell in your midst," says the LORD. 11 "And many nations will be to contain the multitude who live there – 10:10; Isa 49:19,20.

2:5 "Wall of fire" – God Himself will protect the city, so physical walls will be unnecessary. Compare Ps 125:2.

"Glory" – Ex 40:34; 1 Kings 8:10,11; Ps 85:9; Isa 11:10; 24:23; 60:1-3; Rev 21:23.

2:6 "I have spread" – Deut 4:27; 28:64; 1 Kings 14:15; Jer 31:10; Ezek 20:34.

"Four winds" – all corners of earth (Isa 11:10,11; 43:5,6; 49:12).

2:7 "Zion" – here means Jerusalem's people in exile. "Escape" is a way of saying God would bring their exile to an end (Isa 48:20).

"Daughter" – 2 Kings 19:21; Ps 9:14; 45:12; 137:8.

2:8 "He has sent me" – this seems a clear reference to the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ (vs 9,11). He will deal with the nations which have plundered Israel. Compare Ps 2:8; Rev 19:15.

"Apple of his eye" – see Deut 32:10. Israel is very precious to God and aiming a blow at her is like aiming a blow at God Himself (compare Acts 9:4).

2:9 He will cause governments to fall and the oppressed to have the upper hand over their former rulers.

"Me" – the same person as in the previous verse.

2:10 "Sing and rejoice" – 9:9; Zeph 3:14.

"I am coming" – 9:9 refers to Christ's first coming. This verse probably refers to His second coming.

"Dwell in your midst" – 8:3; 14:16; Ezek 37:27; 48:35. Note at Ex 25:8.

2:11 "Many nations" – 8:20-22; 14:16;

joined to the LORD in that day, and will be my people; and I will dwell in your midst, and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. 12 And the LORD will inherit Judah, his portion in the holy land, and will choose Jerusalem again. 13 Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation."

3 And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. 2 And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand snatched out of the fire?"

3 Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes, and standing before the angel. 4 And the angel answered and spoke to those who were standing before him, saying, "Take off his filthy clothes."

Isa 2:2-4; 11:10,12; 14:1; 19:23-25.

"Has sent me" – v 9. The LORD (Jehovah) speaks and says that the LORD Almighty sent Him. How can Jehovah send Jehovah? Jehovah is God and is revealed in the Bible as a Trinity (Matt 3:16,17; 28:19), and God the Father who is Jehovah sent God the Son who is also Jehovah.

2:12 "Inherit Judah" – the whole nation of Israel is an inheritance for Jehovah God (Deut 4:20; 9:26; Ps 33:12). In the future He (the Messiah) will choose a special part of the "holy land" as His own. It will be the land where Jerusalem is situated. There His temple and His dwelling place will be. This is the only place in the Bible where the land of Israel is called "the holy land."

"Choose" – 1:17. The same Jerusalem He once rejected He will choose again.

2:13 Isa 41:1; Hab 2:20; Zeph 1:7.

3:1 "Joshua" – Hag 1:1; Ezra 2:2. The name means "the LORD saves." Here Joshua represents the nation of Israel (v 8). God is teaching them that before He gives them the blessings He speaks of in chapter 2 He will cleanse and purify them. Compare Ezek 36:24-29. However, we may also take vs 1-5 as a beautiful picture of how God makes individuals righteous in His presence (Rom 3:20-26; Isa 61:10; Ps 132:9).

"Angel of the LORD" – 1:11; Gen 16:7.

"Satan" – notes at 1 Chron 21:1; Matt 4:1-10; John 8:44; 2 Cor 11:14. The name means "adversary", or, as some think, "accuser." See Rev 12:10.

3:2 Why should the LORD say "the LORD rebuke you?" – note at 2:11. The LORD here is the same as the angel of the LORD and His words mean that God the Father should rebuke Satan.

"Chosen Jerusalem" – 1:17; 2:12.

"Out of the fire" – this is true of everyone whom God saves from sin. Compare Jude 23. The lake of fire is the destiny of all the unsaved – Rev 21:8. Joshua here represents Israel whom God snatched from

And to him he said, "See, I have removed your sin from you, and I will put costly garments on you."

5 And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head, and put the clothes on him. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD solemnly affirmed to Joshua, saying, 7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: If you walk in my ways, and if you keep my command, then you will also govern my house, and will also have charge of my courts, and I will give you places to walk among these who are standing here.

8 "Now listen, high priest Joshua, you and your companions who are sitting before you, men who are a symbol. For, see, I will bring my servant the BRANCH. 9 For see the stone that I have laid before Joshua. Seven eyes are on that one stone.

the fire (Amos 4:11).

3:3 "Filthy clothes" – a symbol of his sinful condition. Spiritually speaking "filthy clothes" is all any of us have by nature – Isa 64:6; Rom 3:23; Eph 2:3. The very best we can do, and all the religious works which people are most proud of (Joshua was a priest), are unclean in the holy eyes of the one true God.

3:4 "Take off. . .put. . .on" – signifies taking away sin and giving righteousness. This was true of Joshua personally and will be true also of the whole land and people he represented (vs 8,9). Believers in Christ now have had a change of "garments" – Col 3:9,10. And their new garment is "costly" indeed, being the righteousness of the Lord Jesus Himself – Phil 3:9; 1 Cor 1:30; 2 Cor 5:21.

3:5 "Turban" – this was a mark of the priesthood in Israel (Ex 28:3,4,36). A clean turban symbolizes their holy dedication to God and the holy service they should accomplish.

3:6,7 Joshua was made righteous and his sin was gone. Now in accordance with that he must live a faithful holy life. Compare Rom 12:1,2; Eph 4:1.

"Who are standing here" – v 3. Evidently these were angels. Joshua would have a place with them in fulfilling God's plan for Israel. Faithfulness to God and holy living will have a great reward for anyone.

3:8 "Symbol" – compare Deut 28:46; Isa 8:18; Ezek 12:11. As high priest Joshua was a symbol of the coming Messiah, the Lord Jesus, here called "the Branch" (6:12; Isa 4:2; 11:1; Jer 23:5; 33:15). The Messiah is also God's servant (Isa 49:5,6; 50:10; 52:13; 53:11; Rom 15:8).

3:9 "Stone" – this is also a name for the Messiah (Ps 118:22,23; Isa 8:13-15; 28:16; Dan 2:35,45; Matt 21:42; Eph 2:19-22; 1 Pet 2:6-8).

"Seven eyes" – these may indicate perfect intelligence and perfect care and See, I will engrave its inscription, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 "In that day, says the LORD of hosts, each of you will invite his neighbour under his vine and under his fig tree."

4 And the angel who talked with me came back, and wakened me, as a man that is wakened from his sleep, 2 and said to me, "What do you see?"

And I said, "I look and see a lampstand of solid gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are on the top of it, 3 and two olive trees beside it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on its left."

4 So I responded and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"

5 Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?"

And I said, "No, my lord."

6 Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my watchfulness over Israel, or they may indicate the fullness of God's Spirit which Messiah would have (Rev 5:6; Isa 11:2,3). The Hebrew word translated "eyes" may also be translated "facets".

"In one day" – the foundation of the removal of Israel's sin was laid in a single day – the day Christ died on the cross. Israel's repentance and forgiveness will also take place in a single day (12:10 - 13:2).

3:10 "In that day" – 2:11. "Fig tree" – a picture of safety, peace and fellowship (Micah 4:4; 1 Kings 4:25).

4:1 "With me" – 1:9,14; 2:3. This chapter records the fifth vision God gave Zechariah. It contains an encouragement to Zerubbabel and his fellow Jews to build the temple.

"Sleep" – Zechariah's visions were not dreams. He saw them when he was awake and in a trance.

4:2,3 "Lampstand" – this is a better translation than "candlestick." One does not put "lamps" on a candlestick. This lampstand differs from that of Ex 25:31-40, and probably symbolizes something different. The two "olive trees" are two individuals through whom "oil" came to the "lamps" (vs 12-14). It seems likely that these two were Zerubbabel and Joshua – one the governor from the royal line of David, the other the high priest. Therefore it is probable that the lampstand symbolizes the people of Israel to whom they ministered. Israel was God's light to the world of that day as the Church is now (Matt 5:14).

4:4,5 The angel's question may suggest that Zechariah should have known the meaning

Spirit,' says the LORD of hosts.

7 "Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain. And he will bring out its capstone with shouts, calling out, 'Grace, grace to it!'"

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands will also finish it, and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

10 "For who has despised the day of small things? For those seven will rejoice, and will see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. They are the eyes of the LORD, which range throughout the whole earth."

11 Then I answered and said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and on the left of the lampstand?"

12 And I responded further and said to him, "What are these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes which empty the golden oil from themselves?"

13 And he answered me and said, "Do you not know what these are?"

And I said, "No, my lord."

14 Then said he, "These are the two anointed of the lampstand and olive trees.

4:6 Zerubbabel as one of the "olive trees" must not think he could minister to Israel in a proper way or accomplish God's work in his own strength. He needed the fullness of God's Spirit. This is the "oil" that needed to pour through him to the people (v 12). Compare 2 Cor 12:9,10.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

4:7 "Mountain" – here speaks of the difficulties in building the temple. But difficulties become as nothing before a Spirit-filled man who knows God's will and is working according to it.

"Capstone" – the completion of the temple. The people would then shout for joy.

4:8,9 "Foundation" – Ezra 3:8-11. "Finish it" – about twenty years later (Ezra 6:14-16).

4:10 "Small things" – this is how the work in the beginning seemed to the Jews (Hag 2:3). Great works of God often seem to begin in small and insignificant ways. Compare Matt 4:18-22; 13:31,32. No worker for Christ should ever be discouraged at the seeming smallness of the task God calls him to do. A mighty tree grows from a small seed.

"Plumb line" – speaks of building straight and true.

"Eyes" – v 2; 3:9; 2 Chron 16:9; Rev 5:6.

4:12 "Oil" – Ex 25:6; 29:7; Lev 2:1; 1 Sam 10:1; Ps 23:5; 45:7; Mark 6:13; Luke 10:34; Jam 5:14.

4:13 Verse 5.

4:14 "Anointed ones" – the Hebrew has "sons of oil." This phrase may also be translated "two who bring oil." This could mean that God had anointed them or it could mean ones, who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth."

5 Then I turned, and lifted up my eyes, and looked, and saw a flying scroll.

2 And he said to me, "What do you see?"

And I answered, "I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits."

3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole earth: according to one side of it, everyone who steals will be banished; and according to the other side of it, everyone who commits perjury will be banished. 4 'I will send it out,' says the LORD of hosts, 'and it will enter the house of the thief, and the house of the one who swears falsely by my name, and it will remain inside his house, and consume it along with its wood and its stones.'"

5 Then the angel who talked with me went out, and said to me, "Now raise your eyes, and see what this is that is going out."

6 And I said, "What is it?"

And he said, "This is an ephah that is going out." He also said, "This is their appearance throughout the earth."

7 And then a slab of lead was raised, and this woman was sitting in the middle of the ephah. 8 And he said, "This is wickedness." And he shoved her into the middle of the ephah, and pushed the lead weight over its mouth.

9 Then I raised my eyes, looked and saw two women coming with the wind in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork. And they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heavens.

10 Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are they carrying the ephah?"

11 And he said to me, "To build a house for it in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, it will be placed there on its own base."

6 And I turned and raised my eyes, looked and saw four chariots coming out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze. 2 The first chariot had red horses, and the second chariot black horses, 3 and the third chariot white horses, and the fourth chariot strong dappled horses. 4 Then I responded and said to that the spiritual influences of God's Spirit flowed through them. In that time these two were Zerubbabel and Joshua. For a possible future fulfillment see Rev 11:3,4.

5:1 The meaning of this sixth vision is clearer than that of some of the others. It declares that God's curse comes on sin and emphasizes two sins in particular, sins which must have been common in Judah.

5:3 "Curse" – see Deut 11:26,28; 27:13-26; Prov 3:33; Gal 3:10-13.

"Steals" – Ex 20:15; Matt 19:18; Rom 13:9; 1 Cor 6:10; Jer 9:3,5; Rev 21:8.

"Banished" – at some time in the future God will rid the land of all such sinners. Compare 14:20,21; Isa 13:9; 33:14; Ezek 36:25-29,33; Amos 9:10.

5:4 There will be no possibility of escape for any unrepentant sinner or anything he has. All that belongs to such people is defiled and will perish with them.

"Stones" – compare Lev 14:33-45; Hab 2:9-11.

5:5 This is the seventh vision Zechariah saw. Some of its details are very difficult to interpret.

5:6-11 This verse suggests that the full measure of the sins of the people of Israel is known to God, and that He will remove all of it from the land (compare vs 3,4; 3:9). God will again choose Jerusalem and inherit Judah as His portion and live there (2:11,12). Then wickedness will have no more place in His land. It will be holy in fact as well as in name.

5:6 "Ephah" – a basket. "Earth" – or "land."

5:11 "Shinar" – Babylonia. Babylon will be a proper home for all wickedness. Compare Rev 17:1-5; 18:2-8,23,24. But it is not clear how wickedness can be removed from Israel and transported to Babylon. Israel's great sin was apostasy – forsaking the one true God. Perhaps the meaning of this vision is that Babylon, not Israel, will be the center of apostasy in the end time; and by Babylon is meant the religious and commercial system seen in Revelation chapters 17 and 18. When Zechariah heard these words the literal city of Babylon had fallen to the Medes and Persians (Dan 5:25-31). It never regained power and fell into complete ruin. Some scholars believe it will be rebuilt at the end of this age. This seems unlikely in the light of Isa 13:17-22; Jer 50:39,40; 51:29,37-43,62.

6:1 This last vision concerns the accomplishment of God's purpose in the whole earth. As we know from other portions in Zechariah this purpose involves judgment on the nations that afflict God's people (1:14,15,21; 12:2-4; 14:2,3). Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel and other prophets wrote of the same thing.

"Chariots" – Ps 68:17; 2 Kings 6:17. These chariots probably mean war chariots and signify the defense of His people and the defeat of their enemies.

"Four" – 1:18. "Two mountains" – Zechariah was in Jerusalem and these mountains may be two of the most prominent hills there. The mountains in the vision are of bronze. This may indicate the firmness of God's purpose, the indestructibility of His plans for Jerusalem, or it may speak of judgment (Num 21:9; Ex 27:1,2; Rev 1:15).

6:2,3 Compare 1:8. The different colors may indicate different judgments.

the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5 And the angel answered and said to me, "These are the four spirits of the heavens, going out from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The one with the black horses goes out into the north country, and the white ones go out after them; and the dappled ones go out toward the south country."

7 And the strong horses went out with eagerness to range throughout the earth. And he said, "Go and range throughout the earth." So they ranged throughout the earth.

8 Then he cried out to me, speaking to me and saying, "See, those that go toward the north country have given rest to my Spirit in the north country."

9 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 10 "Take an offering from those of the captivity, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon, and come the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah. 11 Then take silver and gold and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, 12 and speak to him, saying, 'The LORD of hosts has spoken, saying, See the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he will branch out from his place, and he will build the temple of the LORD. 13 He is the one who will build the temple of the LORD, and he will bear the majesty, and will sit and rule on his throne. And he will be a priest on his throne; and there will be the counsel of peace between these two offices. 14 And the crowns will belong to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, as a memorial in the temple of the LORD. 15 And those who are far away will come and build the temple of the LORD, and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this will take place, if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

7 And it came about in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, on the fourth day of the ninth month, Kislev, 2 when they had sent Sherezer and Regemmelech, and their men, to the house of God to pray before the LORD, 3 and to speak to the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, "Should I mourn and fast in the fifth month, as I have done these many years?"

4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 5 "Speak to all the people of the land,

6:5 The four "chariots" are four "spirits" (or "winds" – Hebrew uses the same word for both). Here they seem to represent angelic forces or other heavenly powers. Compare Rev 7:1.

"All the earth" – this is mentioned because the vision concerns the whole world.

6:6 It is not said that the one with the red horses went anywhere. Perhaps it stayed in Jerusalem and indicates the great judgment that will take place there at the end of this age – 14:2; Joel 3:9-16.

6:7 "With eagerness" – eager to fulfill God's purposes in the earth.

6:8 Invasions of the land of Israel often came from the north. In the end time it seems that there will be a final great invasion from there (Ezek 38:1-9,15; 39:2). This verse may mean this: God's judgment on those northern armies will release His anger and bring rest to His Spirit which had been provoked.

6:11 "Crowns" – in Israel high priests did not wear crowns, but turbans (3:5; Ex 28:4). Only kings wore crowns. After King David, kings in Judah were always of the tribe of Judah; priests were of the tribe of Levi. Setting a crown on Joshua's head had great prophetic meaning (compare 3:8). The meaning of Joshua's name is significant "The LORD (Jehovah) saves". Jesus is the Greek equivalent of Joshua and means the same thing.

6:12 "Branch" – Joshua was not the "Branch", Jesus is. See 3:8.

"The temple of the Lord" – Jesus builds no material temple but one far greater. See Matt 16:19; Eph 2:21,22.

6:13 "Rule on his throne" – Ps 89:35-37; Isa 9:7; Jer 33:19-22; Ezek 43:7; Luke 1:32; Rev 22:3.

"A priest" – Heb 4:14; 5:5,6; 10:19-21; Ps 110.

"The two" – the Lord Jesus combines the two offices of priest and king which were separate in Judah. He does more than rule His people – as their Mediator He intercedes for them to God (Rom 8:34; 1 Tim 2:5; Heb 7:24-27; 1 John 2:1,2).

6:15 "Temple" – this, too, may refer to the spiritual temple now being built – people "far away" coming to Christ and participating in the work (John 10:16; Acts 2:39; Eph 2:13). Or it may refer to the building of the temple described in Ezekiel chapters 40-43.

7:1 "Darius" – 1:1.

7:2 "To the house of God" – or "to Bethel." Bethel means "house of God" – Gen 12:8; 28:19; 35:1. This town was about twenty kilometers north of Jerusalem. Some of the Jews returning from Babylon had settled there again (Neh 11:31).

7:3 This fast had been observed for seventy years (v 5). Evidently this ceremony began as a memorial to the destruction of Jerusalem which took place in the fifth month (2 Kings 25:8,9).

7:5,6 The fast on the seventh month was a memorial to the assassination of Gedaliah the governor of Judah (2 Kings 25:25). The Lord rebukes the people through Zechariah. He says that whether fasting or feasting they thought only of themselves. They were not and to the priests, saying, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, those seventy years, did you fast for me, really for me? 6 And when you ate, and when you drank, were you not eating for yourselves, and drinking for yourselves? 7 Should you not have listened to the words which the LORD cried out through the former prophets, when Jerusalem and its towns around it were inhabited and prosperous, when men inhabited the south and the plain?"

8 And the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying, 9 "The LORD of hosts is speaking and saying this: Administer true justice, and each one of you show mercy and compassion to his brother. 10 And do not oppress the widow, or the fatherless, the foreigner, or the poor. And do not plot evil in your heart against his brother.

11 "But they refused to listen, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, so that they would not hear. 12 Yes, they made their hearts like flint, so that they would not hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

13 "Therefore it came about, that as the LORD cried out and they would not hear, so they cried out and I would not hear, says the LORD of hosts. 14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they had not known. So the land was desolate behind them, so that no one went there or returned; for they had made the pleasant land desolate."

8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

really concerned with God and His honor and glory. Compare Isa 58:1-9. They cared more for their ceremonies than for God.

7:7 "Former prophets" – 1:4. They had told the people repeatedly that religious forms and ceremonies were not what God delighted in. For example see Isa 1:11-14.

7:9,10 8:16,17; Isa 1:17; Jer 22:3; Ezek 45:9; Micah 6:6-8; Eph 4:32; Ex 22:22-24; Lev 25:17; Deut 10:18,19.

7:11 Deut 9:6,13,27; Isa 1:2; Jer 5:3; 8:5; 32:33.

7:12 "By His Spirit" – Neh 9:30; 2 Tim 3:16; 1 Pet 1:11; 2 Pet 1:21.

7:13 Compare Prov 1:24,28; Ps 18:25,26.

7:14 "Scattered them" – Lev 26:33; Deut 4:25-27; 28:64; Ps 44:11.

"They had made" – Israel's enemies made the land desolate but Israel was responsible for it. It was their sin which brought ruin.

8:1,2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts" – this phrase appears ten times in this chapter and with it ten promises of blessing for Israel.

"Jealous" – 1:14.

8:3 "Jerusalem" – 1:3,16; 2:10; Ezek 48:35.

I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 "Thus says the LORD: I am returning to Zion, and will dwell in the middle of Jerusalem. And Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts will be called the Holy Mountain.

4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women will yet sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each one with his cane in his hand because of age. 5 And the streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.

6 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: If this is marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in my eyes? says the LORD of hosts.

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: See, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country, 8 and I will bring them, and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem, and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Let your hands be strong, you who have been hearing in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, who were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built. 10 For before these days there was no wage for man, or any wage for beast. And there was no peace for him who went out or came in, because of the enemy, for I set every one of the people against his neighbour. 11 But now I will not act toward the remnant of this people as in former days, says the LORD of hosts.

12 "For the seed will prosper, the vine will give

"City of Truth" – compare Isaiah 1:26; 65:16; Jer 33:16; Ps 15:2,3; 31:5.

"Holy Mountain" – 14:20,21; Isa 2:2-4; 11:9; Obadiah 17. It will be the holy dwelling place of a holy God and a holy people. 8:4,5 Isa 11:6-8; 65:20-25.

8:6 Gen 18:14; Jer 32:17,27. What seems to men to be very difficult to accomplish is not difficult for God.

8:7,8 God had already brought the Jews back to Jerusalem from various places. So this prophecy refers to a regathering of the Jews after that. See Amos 9:14,15; Isa 11:10-16.

"My people" – 13:9; Ex 6:7; Deut 29:13; Ezek 37:27. He means the Jews. See Hos 2:14-23; Rom 11:29.

8:9 "Prophets" – Haggai and Zechariah were two. Perhaps there were others as well.

"Foundation" – Ezra 3:10,11; Hag 2:18.

"Built" – Hag 1:7,8; 2:4.

8:10 "Before these days" – before they laid the foundation of the temple, times were difficult and the people in poverty (Hag 1:6-11; 2:15-18).

8:11,12 "But now" – Hag 2:19. God promised blessings for obedience – Lev 26:3-10; Deut its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the sky will give its dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. 13 And it will come about that just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah, and house of Israel, so you will be a blessing, for I will save you. Do not be afraid, but let your hands be strong.

14 "For thus says the LORD of hosts: Just as I decided to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, says the LORD of hosts, and I did not relent, 15 so again I have decided in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not be afraid. 16 These are the things that you shall do: Every one of you must speak the truth to his neighbour. Administer justice in truth and peace in your gates. 17 And let none of you plot evil in your hearts against his neighbour. And do not love any false oath. For all these are things that I hate, says the LORD."

18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 19 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month and the fast of the fifth and the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth month will be times of joy and gladness and cheerful feasts to the house of Judah. Therefore love truth and peace.

20 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: It will yet

happen that people and the inhabitants of many cities will come, 21 and the inhabitants of one city will go to another, saying, 'Let us go quickly to pray in the LORD's presence, and to seek the LORD of hosts. I also will go.' 22 Yes, many people and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray in the LORD's presence.

23 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: In those days it will come about that ten men from every language of the nations will take hold of the sleeve of a Jew, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

- 9 The burden of the word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus, its resting place (for the eyes of men, as of all the tribes of Israel will be on the LORD);
- 2 And against Hamath which is on its border, and against Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise,
 - 3 And Tyre built a stronghold for herself, and heaped up silver like dust, and gold like the mire of the streets.
 - 4 "See, the Lord will cast her out and he will strike her power in the sea; and she will be consumed by fire.
 - 5 Ashkelon will see it, and be afraid.

28: 11, 12.

"To possess" – Isa 58:14; 60:21; Obad 17.

8:13 "A curse" – Deut 28:37; Jer 24:9; 25:18.

"Blessing" – vs 20-23; Gen 12:1-3. To have God's blessing is good; having it to be a blessing to others is even better. Notice God says this of the whole nation, Judah and Israel combined.

"Strong" – compare Deut 31:6; 1:6,7; 23:6; Ps 27:14; Eph 6:10.

8:14,15 "I decided" – if God purposes to bring disaster on an individual or a nation nothing can stop it. And if He purposes to do good to them no one can stop that either (Eph 1:11; Rom 11:36; Dan 4:35; Ps 115:3).

8:16,17 Since God purposed to bless them and make them a blessing they had a responsibility to live according to God's instructions.

"Speak the truth" – this is something God commands all through the Bible and is of the utmost importance (Ex 20:16; Ps 15:2; Eph 4:25; Col 3:19).

"Gates" – where town elders met to discuss and make decisions.

"Things that I hate" – Prov 6:16-19; Isa 29:20,21; Ps 52:3-5; Rev 21:8.

8:18,19 "Fourth" – in remembrance of the event in 2 Kings 25:3,4.

"Fifth, seventh" – 7:3,5. "Tenth" – 2 Kings 25:1.

"Joy and gladness" – the future will be so bright that the sad things of the past will be forgotten, or else God's goodness will be seen in those things too. Compare Hos 2:15; Isa 61:3.

"Therefore" – Rom 12:1; Eph 4:1.

"Love truth" – Ps 51:6. This is an extremely important command. By nature people do not do this. They prefer lies which please them to truth which does not. Compare Rom 1:18,25; 2 Thess 2:10.

8:20-23 See 2:11; 14:16; Isa 2:1-4; 11:10,12; 14:1; 19:23-25; 55:5; 56:6,7. This happens after God makes Israel a "blessing" (v 13). The knowledge that God is with the Jews will cause people of other nations to seek Him.

9:1 "Burden" – or "oracle" – note at Isa 13:1. Hadrach is a region north of Damascus in Syria. Damascus is the capital of Syria.

9:2 Hamath was an important city in Syria. Zechariah is saying that the word of the Lord is against the whole country of Syria, that God will judge and punish it. Compare Isa 17:1,3; Jer 49:23-27; Amos 1:3-5.

"Tyre and Sidon" – see Isa 23:1-18; Jer 25:22; Ezekiel chapters 26-28; Joel 3:4-8; Amos 1:9,10.

9:3 "Stronghold" – Isa 23:4. "Gold" – Ezek 28:4,5.

9:4 Isa 23:1; Ezek 26:3-5.

9:5,6 The cities mentioned here were all in the land of the Philistines along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, west of Israel.

- Gaza also will see it, and writhe in anguish, and Ekron too;
for her expectation will be put to shame, and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will become uninhabited.
- 6 And a mixed race will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.
- 7 And I will take the blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth.
But he who remains, will be for our God, and he will be like a leader in Judah, and Ekron like a Jebusite.
- 8 And I will camp around my house because of an army, because of him who comes and goes back. And no longer will an oppressor pass through them any more, for now have I seen with my eyes.
- 9 "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! See, your King is coming to you. He is just and has salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
- 10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be removed. And he will speak peace to the nations,

- and his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.
- 11 And as for you, because of the blood of your covenant I will release your prisoners from the waterless pit.
- 12 Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope.
Today I declare that I will restore double to you,
- 13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and made you like the sword of a mighty man."
- 14 And the LORD will be seen over them, and his arrow will go forth like lightning, and the Lord God will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds from the south.
- 15 The LORD of hosts will defend them, and they will destroy and subdue with sling stones.
And they will drink, and roar as from wine;
and they will be filled with blood like bowls, and like the corners of the altar.
- 16 And the LORD their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people;
for they will be like the stones of a crown,

For other prophecies about the Philistines see Isa 14:28-32; Jer 47:1-7; Ezek 25:15-17; Amos 1:6-8; Zeph 2:4-7.

9:6 "I" – God.

9:7 "Blood" and "abominations" speak of sacrifices offered to idols. Philistia would come to an end as a nation and its survivors would be absorbed among the people of Judah. This had happened to the Jebusites, the people who lived in Jerusalem at the time of David (2 Sam 5:6-10).

9:8 "I will camp around" – v 15; 2:5; Ps 125:1,2.

"No longer" – Amos 9:14,15; Joel 3:20,21.

9:9 Several hundred years later these words were literally fulfilled. See Matt 21:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; Luke 19:28-38; John 12:12-16.

"Daughter" – 2 Kings 19:21; Ps 9:14; Isa 1:8.

"Shout" – Matt 21:9; Luke 19:37.

"King" – Isa 9:6,7; Matt 2:2; 25:34; John 18:37; Rev 19:16.

"Just" – John 18:38; 19:4,6; Acts 3:14; Heb 7:26; 1 Pet 2:22; 3:18.

"Salvation" – Luke 1:69,77; Acts 4:12; 13:47; 16:31; Rom 1:16; 10:9,10.

9:10 Verse 9 refers to the first coming of the Lord Jesus. This verse refers to His second coming. Compare Isa 2:4; 9:5-7; 11:1-10; Hos 2:18; Ps 72:8-11.

9:11 "Blood of your covenant" – Ex 24:3-8; Matt 26:28; Jer 31:31-34.

"Your" – He is speaking to the people of Judah.

"Prisoners" – Isa 42:7; 51:14; 61:1; Ps 68:6; 146:7. Though this probably refers to the people of Israel exiled among the nations, it has a spiritual application now (Luke 4:18,21).

9:12 "Stronghold" – Jerusalem or God Himself in Jerusalem (Joel 3:16).

"Prisoners of hope" – captives in other lands but hoping God will restore them to Israel.

"Double" – Isa 61:7.

9:13 "Ephraim" – represents the northern kingdom of Israel (Isa 7:2; Hos 4:17; etc). God will be like a warrior. Judah will be His bow and Israel His arrow. This speaks of the future uniting of those two kingdoms. See Isa 11:12-14; Jer 3:18; 31:27; Ezek 37:15-23; Hos 1:11.

"Greece" – may here represent Gentile nations in general, just as Ephraim represents all the tribes of the northern kingdom.

9:14,15 God Himself will come and fight on the side of the people of Israel and protect them from their enemies. Compare 12:2-9; 14:3; Joel 3:16.

9:16 "In that day" – may mean the day of the Lord (Isa 2:12; 13:6; Joel 1:15; 2:31,32).

"Stones of a crown" – jewels in a crown –

- lifted up like a banner over his land.
- 17 For how great is his goodness,
and how great is his beauty!
Grain will make the young men cheerful,
and new wine the maids.
- 10 Ask the LORD for rain at the time of the latter rain;
so the LORD will make bright clouds,
and give them showers of rain,
and grass in the field for everyone.
- 2 For the idols speak falsehood,
and the diviners see a lie,
and tell false dreams;
they comfort in vain.
Therefore the people go their way like sheep;
in trouble, because there is no shepherd.
- 3 "My anger burns against the shepherds,
and I will punish the goats;
for the LORD of hosts will visit his flock the house of Judah, and make them like his majestic horse
in battle.
- 4 From him will come the cornerstone,
from him the nail,
from him the battle bow,
from him every ruler together.
- 5 And they will be like mighty men, who trample down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle;
and they will fight, because the LORD

- is* with them,
and the riders on horses will be put to shame.
- 6 "And I will strengthen the house of Judah,
and I will save the house of Joseph,
and I will bring them back,
for I will have mercy on them, and they will be as though I had not rejected them;
for I am the LORD their God,
and will hear them.
- 7 And Ephraim's people will be like mighty men,
and their heart will rejoice as if with wine;
yes, their children will see it, and be glad.
Their heart will rejoice in the LORD.
- 8 I will whistle for them,
and gather them,
for I have redeemed them.
And they will be as numerous as they were before.
- 9 Though I scatter them among the people,
they will remember me in far countries, and they will live, along with their children, and will return.
- 10 And I will bring them back from the land of Egypt,
and gather them out of Assyria, and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon,
and enough room will not be found for them.
- 11 "And he will pass through the sea of trouble,

a symbol of beauty and glory. Compare Isa 6:3; 62:3.

9:17 A picture of the peace and prosperity that Israel will enjoy. Compare Isa 62:8-12; Jer 31:11-14; Hos 2:21-23; Joel 2:18,19,24-27.

10:1 "LORD" – Jehovah God, the God of Israel, is the only God there is. All nature is in His control and He sends rain or withholds it as He wills – Lev 26:4; 1 Kings 8:36; 17:1; Ps 135:6,7; Amos 4:7,8; Acts 14:17. 10:2 Neither idols nor the gods behind them can send rain or any other blessing – Ps 115:4-8.

"The idols speak" – idols cannot literally speak, but false prophets can speak in the name of an idol or false god. And it is all deception.

"Diviners" – Isa 44:25; Jer 27:9,10. Such people try to get guidance and information from the spirit world by the use of omens or contact with an unseen spirit. God forbids this. See Deut 18:9-14.

"Dreams" – Jer 14:14; 23:16,25-32.
"No shepherd" – Jer 23:1-4; Matt 9:36. 10:3 Jer 25:34-38; Ezek 34:1-16.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.
"Battle" – 12:8.

10:4 "From him" – from Judah – Gen 49:10; Jer 30:21; Mic 5:2.

"Cornerstone" – Isa 28:16; Eph 2:20.
"Nail" – Isa 22:23,24.

"Bow" – 9:13; Ps 7:12; 45:5.

"Ruler" – Gen 49:10; Rev 5:5.

10:5 12:6-9.

10:6 "Joseph" – the father of Ephraim here represents the whole of the northern kingdom of Israel – 9:13; Amos 5:6,15; 6:6.
"Bring them back" – Ezek 36:24-28.

"Mercy" – Ex 34:6; Ps 103:13,14; Lam 3:22,23.

"Hear them" – Deut 4:29-31; Isa 30:19; 65:24.

10:7 "Ephraim's people" – 9:13.

"Rejoice" – Isa 60:4,5; Joel 2:23.

10:8-10 "Redeemed" – note at Ps 78:35.

"I scatter them" – they had already been scattered by Assyrians and Babylonians and some had returned to the land of Israel. So this must speak of a scattering and regathering after that. For the scattering see Luke 21:20-24. For the regathering see Isa 11:11,12; Ezek 37:21-28; Amos 9:14,15.

"Remember me" – Ezek 6:9; Deut 4:30.

"Enough room will not be found" – 2:4; Isa 49:19,20.

10:10 "Assyria" – note at 2 Kings 15:19.

10:11 "Sea of trouble" – compare Isa 44:2-7.

"Dry up" – compare Isa 11:15; 19:5-8;

and will strike the waves of the sea,
and all the depths of the Euphrates
River will dry up.

And the pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the sceptre of Egypt will depart.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD, and they will walk up and down in his name," says the LORD.

11 Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars.

2 Wail, fir tree, for the cedar has fallen,
because the mighty trees are ruined.
Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the dense forest has come down.

3 There is a sound of the wailing of the shepherds,
for their glory is ruined;
a sound of the roaring of young lions,
for the pride of Jordan is ruined.

4 Thus says the LORD my God: "Feed the flock designated for slaughter. 5 Those who buy them slaughter them, and consider themselves not guilty, and those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD!
For I am rich!' and their own shepherds take no pity on them. 6 For I will no longer have pity for the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD, but, see, I 51:10.

"Pride of Assyria" – Zeph 2:13-15; Isa
2:12-18.

"Sceptre of Egypt" – Egypt will lose its sovereignty and power.

10:12 "Will walk" – Micah 4:5; Isa 26:8;
Ezek 36:27,28.

11:1-3 This seems to indicate an army invading Israel from the north – from Lebanon through Bashan east of the Jordan and then into the region of the Jordan – destroying as they come. This is in great contrast with the preceding chapter, but vs 4-17 give the reason for it. The people of Israel were going to reject their coming Messiah, the Lord Jesus, and would be punished for it. See Matt 24:1,2; Luke 19:41-44; 21:23,24.

11:4 "Slaughter" – the "flock" is the people of Israel (Ps 77:20; Jer 10:21; 13:17; Ezek 34:2). The words here indicate great destruction.

11:5 "Those who buy them" – foreigners who lead them away captive.

"Those who sell" – their leaders.

"Blessed be the LORD" – see the twisted nature of their minds. They do evil and thank God for the seemingly good result.
We still see such perverted thinking today.

11:6 "Land" – the land of Israel.

11:7 "I" – Zechariah. In the verses which follow he represents the coming Messiah, the Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of Israel. What Zechariah does and says is a prophecy of coming events.

will hand over each one of them to his neighbour,
and to the his king; and they will attack the land,
and I will not deliver them out of their hand."

7 So I fed the flock designated for slaughter, especially the poor of the flock. And I took for myself two staffs. One I called Favour, and the other I called Union, and I fed the flock. 8 In one month I got rid of the three shepherds; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also hated me.

9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. Let the dying die, and let what is to be cut off be cut off, and let all the rest eat each other's flesh."

10 And I took my staff called Favour, and cut it in two, to break my covenant which I had made with all the people. 11 And it was broken on that day. And so the poor of the flock who were watching me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said to them, "If you think it is good, give me my pay; but if not, withhold it." So they weighed out as my pay thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter, that magnificent price at which they priced me!" And I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut my other staff, called Union, in two, to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said to me, "Take again for "Favour" – God's favor toward Israel. The Hebrew word could also be translated "grace"

or, possibly, "beauty."

"Union" – indicating the unity of the people of Judah and Israel (v 14; compare Ezek 37:15-28).

11:8 "Hated me" – compare Isa 53:3; John
1:11; 15:24; 19:15.

11:9 This speaks of God's judgment on a stubborn rebellious people who would not listen to Him. Compare Luke 19:41-44.

11:10,11 "Covenant" – the meaning of this is not clear, but it may refer to the old covenant God made at Mt Sinai with Israel for the benefit of the world. Christ revoked this covenant and established a new one – Matt 26:28.

11:12 Give me my pay. . . withhold it" – Zechariah, as a type or picture of Christ, refused to continue to be their shepherd.
Compare Matt 23:38,39.

"Thirty pieces of silver" – in Israel this was the value of a slave (Ex 21:32). This is the value the Jewish leaders put on Christ.
See Matt 26:14,15.

11:13 "Potter" – see Matt 27:3-10.

"Magnificent price" – irony mingled with sadness.

11:14 "Cut. . . in two" – signifies the breaking up of the nation Israel after their rejection of Christ.

11:15-17 Because Israel rejected
Christ the good Shepherd, God in judgment will see to it that they get a very bad yourself the equipment of a foolish shepherd. 16 For, see, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those cut off, or search for the young, or heal the broken, or feed the one standing. But he will eat the flesh of the fat ones, and tear their hooves in pieces.

17 "Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock!
The sword will strike at his arm,
and at his right eye.
His arm will be completely withered,
and his right eye will be totally blinded."

12 The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel: The LORD speaks, he who stretched out the heavens, and laid the foundation of the earth, and who forms the spirit of man within him: 2 "See, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, when they besiege both Judah and Jerusalem. 3 And in that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all peoples. All who try to lift it will be cut in pieces, when all the peoples of the earth are gathered together around it. 4 In that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with confusion, and his rider with madness. And I will keep watchful eyes shepherd. Israel has had many worthless shepherds. But since the Lord here speaks of only one this one may be the final "worthless shepherd", the coming antichrist, or his helper. See John 5:43; 2 Thess 2:3,4; Revelation chapter 13. In contrast with the good Shepherd who gave His life for the sheep (John 10:11-15) the coming worthless shepherd will try to tear life from the sheep. But God will judge and punish him in due course – v 17.

12:1 "Burden" – 9:1. The one who gave this revelation, and in it declares things to come, is the great Creator of the universe and the Maker of man – Gen 1:1; 2:7; Ps 104:1-5; 139:13-16; Isa 42:5. He is well able to do what He says He will do.

12:2 "Cup" – this word in the Bible sometimes signifies God's judgment or a preparation for judgment. See Ps 75:8; Isa 51:17; Jer 25:15; 49:12; 51:7; etc. The Lord is saying that He will use Jerusalem as a means of gathering the nations of the world and judging them. Compare 14:2,3; Joel 3:9-16; Rev 16:12-14.

12:3 "In that day" – this phrase is used very often in this and the next two chapters and binds these three chapters together and points them to a time still future – vs 4,6,8,9,11; 13:1,2,4; 14:4,6,8,9,13,20,21. Various nations from time to time have besieged and conquered Jerusalem. But this verse has not yet been fulfilled. All the nations have not yet surrounded Jerusalem and that city has not been like an immovable rock. For example, in 70 AD the

on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the nations with blindness. 5 And the leaders of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.'

6 "In that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a fire pot in a woodpile and like a fiery torch among the sheaves, and they will consume all the surrounding peoples, on the right and on the left, while Jerusalem is again inhabited in her own place, in Jerusalem.

7 "The LORD will also save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not be greater than that of Judah. 8 In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the one who is feeble among them on that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD before them. 9 And this will happen in that day: I will set out to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 "And I will pour out on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and supplication. And they will look on me whom they have pierced, and will mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will weep bitterly for

Romans besieged it and completely destroyed it.

12:4 God Himself will fight for Israel against the enemies coming to destroy it.

"Horse" – see Ezek 39:3 and notes there.

12:5 The Jewish leaders in that day will at last realize that their strength is not in themselves or their weapons of war. This may mark the beginning of their turning back to God.

12:6 "Woodpile", "sheaves" – Israel's surrounding enemies.

12:7 "Tents of Judah" – the people living in the country outside of Jerusalem.

"House of David" – the rulers in Jerusalem.

12:8 "Like David" – 1 Sam 17:50; 18:7.

"Like God" – God will be with them so that their strength will be His irresistible strength (v 5).

"Angel of the LORD" – note at Gen 16:7.

"Before them" – compare Ex 14:19; 23:20.

12:9 1:21; 14:3; Isa 29:5-8.

12:10-13 It seems quite clear from the Scriptures that Israel as a nation will repent of its age-long rejection of Christ and wholeheartedly turn to God. See Isa 59:20,21; Jer 23:5-8; 31:31-34; 32:37-40; Ezek 20:40-44; 37:21-28; Dan 12:1; Hos 3:4,5; 14:1-4. See also notes on Rom 11:25-29; Rev 7:3-8.

12:10 "Spirit" – some think this means here a mind to repent and turn to Christ. Much more likely, it means the Holy Spirit. Compare Joel 2:28-32.

him, as one weeps bitterly for his firstborn.

11 In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadad-Rimmon in the valley of Megiddon. 12 And the land will mourn, each family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; 13 the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart; 14 of all the remaining families each family apart, and their wives apart.

13 "On that day a fountain will be opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.

2 "And it will come about on that day, says the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. And I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of uncleanness to depart from the land. 3 And it will come about that if anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who begot him will say to him, 'You shall not live, for you are speaking lies in the name of the LORD.' And his father and his mother who gave him birth will pierce him through when he prophesies.

4 "And in that day it will happen that every one of the prophets will be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; nor will they wear a robe of coarse hair to deceive. 5 But he will say, 'I am no prophet. I am a farmer. For from my youth a man taught me to keep cattle.' 6 And someone will say to him, 'What are these wounds in your hands?' Then he will answer, 'The wounds I received in the house of my friends.'

7 "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man who is my companion, says the LORD of hosts. Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

8 And this will take place throughout the land, says the LORD:
Two-thirds in it will be cut off and die, but a third will be left in it.

"Me" – Jehovah God is speaking.

"Me whom they have pierced" – the Lord Jesus (Ps 22:16; Isa 53:5; John 19:34,37). In other words, Jesus is the incarnation of Jehovah. See also Gen 16:7; Ex 3:14; Ps 23:1; 24:7-10; 96:10-13; Isa 6:1; note at Luke 2:11.

In this verse the Trinity clearly appears – My "Spirit" is the Holy Spirit; "I" means God the Father; "Him" means the Son of God, the Messiah. Notes on Trinity at Matt 3:16,17; etc.

"Mourn. . .weep" – at last their proud and stubborn hearts will be broken and they will weep for their great sin of rejecting their Messiah and Savior Jesus Christ.

12:11 "In that day" – v 3.

"Megiddon" – perhaps a reference to the death of king Josiah on Megiddo's plain. See 2 Chron 35:22-25.

12:12-14 "Land" – the land of Israel.

"Family" – the clans mentioned here are from the tribes of Israel. "David" represents the ruling family (Nathan was a son of David – 2 Sam 5:14). "Levi" represents the priests (Shimei was the grandson of Levi – Num 3:17,18). Does not the mention of these clans or families signify that the Lord is speaking about literal tribes of Israel and no one else?

13:1 "On that day" – 12:3.

"For uncleanness" – 3:9; Ezek 36:24-29; Heb 9:14; 1 John 1:7,9. The basis of their future cleansing is the sacrifice of Christ made two thousand years ago. That "fountain" is open now for anyone who wishes to wash in it. But Israel in general has always rejected that sacrifice. Opening the fountain to them seems to mean that God will work in that nation in such a way that they will turn back to Him and receive the Lord Jesus and His sacrifice for sin (12:10; Rom 11:25-27). Then they will wash in that fountain God has provided.

13:2,3 "Idols" – anything that Israel puts in the place of God (compare Eph 5:5). Some in Israel in the last days will worship the "beast" of Revelation chapter 13 and his image (Rev 13:8,15). After that God will abolish all idolatry in Israel forever.

"Prophets" – the Lord Himself will come (13:3,9,16), so there will be no further need of prophets. God will abolish this office altogether, and it will be plain that anyone who claims to be a prophet will be lying (v 3; 1 Cor 13:8-10).

"Pierce him through" – Deut 18:20. False prophets will then no longer be permitted in Israel.

13:4-6 False prophets, or those who think they are prophets, will try to hide the fact. Verse 6 is obscure. If it is joined with vs 4,5 the person here seems to be the prophet of vs 4,5 who is ashamed to say so; but if it is separated from those verses and joined with v 7 it could refer to Christ.

13:7 See Matt 26:31. The shepherd is the Lord Jesus. The sheep were His disciples. The sword was God's judgment against sin and the punishment for it Jesus bore in our place – Isa 53:5; 1 Pet 2:24; 3:18. But the words "I will turn my hand against" and vs 8,9 indicate that the nation of Israel as a whole is also in view. A partial fulfillment in the case of Christ's disciples does not exhaust the full meaning of this verse.

13:8,9 These verses probably refer to the end of this age. Compare 14:2,3. In the future there will be a time of terrible trouble for Israel – Dan 12:1; Matt 24:15-22; Jer

9 And I will bring that third through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined,
and will test them as gold is tested.

They will call on my name,
and I will hear them.

I will say, 'This is my people,'
and they will say,

'The LORD is my God.'

14 "See, the day of the LORD is coming, and your plunder will be divided in your midst.

2 "For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city will be taken, and the houses plundered, and the women ravished. And half of the city will go into captivity, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city."

3 Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought on the day of battle. 4 And on that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives will split in its centre from east to west, and a very great valley will form, and half of the mountain will move toward 30:7. But God will bring a remnant through that trouble and they will be a redeemed people in the land of Israel.

"Fire" – Isa 4:4; 43:1,2.

"Silver" – Ps 12:6; 66:10-12; Dan 11:35; Mal 3:2,3.

"I will hear them" – 12:10; 10:6.

"My God" – Jer 30:22; 31:33.

14:1 "Day of the LORD" – verses 4, 6, 8, 9;
Isa 13:6,9; Joel 1:15; 2:31; 1 Thess 5:2.

"Your midst" – refers either to the land of Israel (13:8) or Jerusalem.

14:2,3 "I" – God Himself is speaking.

"Will gather" – compare Ezek 38:4.

"All nations" – v 12; 12:3; Rev 16:12-14.

"To battle" – this is not a description of what happened when the Romans captured Jerusalem in 70 AD. Half the people then were not left in the city, and the Lord did not go out and fight against the Roman armies.
Instead He permitted them to be completely victorious and destroy the city. The fulfilment of these verses is still in the future.

"Day of battle" – for example, Ex 14:14;
23:31; Isa 37:33-37.

14:4 This also did not happen when the Romans captured Jerusalem, or at any other time up to the present. The Mount of Olives is still in one piece to this day.

"On that day" – v 1; 12:3.

"His feet" – the feet of Jehovah God (v 3), the Lord Jesus.

"Faces Jerusalem on the east" – Ezek 11:23; Matt 21:1; 24:3; 26:30. From there Jesus left earth and ascended to heaven – Acts 1:9-12. To the same mountain Jesus will return at the end of this age.
14:5 "You" – those then living in Jerusalem.

"Azal" – a place not now known.

"Earthquake" – Amos 1:1. The first part the north, and half of it toward the south. 5 And you will flee by the valley in my mountains, for the valley in the mountains will reach to Azal. Yes, you will flee as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah.

And the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with you.

6 And it will happen on that day that no light will appear, the splendour will grow dark. 7 For it will be a unique day which is known to the LORD, neither day, nor night. But at evening this will take place: it will become light.

8 And this will happen on that day: Living waters will go out from Jerusalem, half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea. This will occur in summer and in winter.

9 And the LORD will be king over all the earth.
In that day there will be one LORD, and his name
the only one.

10 The whole land will be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. And Jerusalem will be raised up and inhabited in her place, from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of of verse 5 may also be translated "My mountain valley will be blocked and will extend to Azal. It will be blocked as it was blocked because of the earthquake in the days of Uzziah".

"The LORD my God" – Jesus, the incarnation of Jehovah, will come. See Rev 19:11-16. Compare Isa 29:6-8; 66:15,16.

"Holy ones" – may refer to either angels or to saved human beings or to both (Matt 25:31; 1 Thess 3:13; 4:14; Jude 14;
Rev 19:14).

14:6 "No light" – compare Isa 13:10; Amos 5:18.

14:7 At the end of this age there will be strange things happening both on earth and in the heavens – things difficult for us to understand now (Joel 2:30,31; Rev 6:12-14; 8:12; 16:8-10).

14:8 Compare Ezek 47:1-12. "Eastern
sea" – the Dead Sea.

"The western sea" – the Mediterranean.

14:9 "The LORD will be king" – this points to the future. In a sense, of course, He is now king over the whole earth – Ps 47:2; Rev 1:5. But His rule is hidden and most of earth's peoples reject it and do not have a mind to obey Him. A great change will occur when the Lord Jesus Christ returns. See Isa 11:1-9; Matt 19:28; 1 Cor 15:24,25;
Rev 11:15; 19:15; 20:4-6.

"LORD" – Jehovah the one true God.

14:10 There will be great changes in the topography of the land of Israel (also v 4).
Geba was a village about 10 kilometers north of Jerusalem; Rimmon was nearly 60 kms south. From Geba to Rimmon is the area containing the hills of Judea, but it will become flat country.

"Raised up" – when the area around Jerusalem sinks and becomes a plain,

the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananeel to the king's winepresses. 11 And people will live in it, and never again will there be destruction there; but Jerusalem will be inhabited in safety.

12 And this is the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot away while they are standing on their feet, and their eyes will decay in their sockets, and their tongue will decay in their mouth. 13 And this will happen on that day: A great panic from the LORD will occur among them, and each of them will seize the hand of his neighbour, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbour. 14 And Judah also will fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together, gold and silver and clothing, in great abundance. 15 And the plague on the horse, the mule, the camel, the donkey, and on all the animals that will be in those camps, will be like that plague.

16 And it will come about that everyone left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. 17 And there will be no rain on those, whoever they may be of all the families of the earth, who will not come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts. 18 And if the family of Egypt does not set out and come, they will have no rain. They will have the plague with which the LORD will strike the nations that do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. 19 This will be the punishment for Egypt, and the punishment for all the nations that do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.

20 In that day there will be engraved on the bells of the horses, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. And the pots in the LORD's house will be like the sacred bowls before the altar. 21 Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of hosts, and all those who sacrifice will come and take them and cook in them. And in that day there will no longer be the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

Jerusalem itself will rise to a higher elevation. Verses like these seem to point clearly to changed conditions in the present earth when Christ returns and begins His reign, and not to a completely new earth and heaven and His eternal reign.

14:11 "Inhabited in safety" – 2:4,5; Ps 48:8; Jer 31:40; Ezek 48:35.

14:12 "Fought against Jerusalem" – v 2; 12:3. The plague God will send is a punishment for their crimes against Him and His people. The "rot" that will come to them will be very sudden – they will still be on their feet when it strikes.

14:13 Compare Jud 7:22.

14:14 "Judah" – 12:6-8.

"Wealth. . . will be gathered" – compare Isa 18:7; 60:5-11; 61:6.

14:15 "Horse" – 12:4.

14:16 "Worship" – Ps 86:9; Isa 2:2,3; Zeph 2:11; 3:9; Hab 2:14. They will "go up" to Jerusalem.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

"Feast of Tabernacles" – see Lev 23:33-36 and notes. This was the last of the Jewish festivals. It speaks both of the final gathering of Israel and the gathering of the nations of the world to worship the God of Israel the one true God.

14:17-19 The language seems to indicate conditions on earth which are less than perfect. See notes on Isa 65:18-25. It does not seem possible that verses like these can refer to the new heaven and earth and Christ's eternal reign. However, they would fit into Christ's millennial reign when He will rule the nations with "an iron sceptre" (Ps 2:9; Rev 19:15).

14:20,21 Everything in Israel will be fully dedicated to the Lord and set apart for Him. See note on "holy" at Lev 20:7. At last the people of Israel will become what God always wanted them to be (Ex 19:6; Lev 11:45).

"Sacrifice" – see notes on Isa 60:7; Ezek 40:38-43; 45:13-17.

"Canaanite" – the original inhabitants of Canaan were a depraved people. See Deut 7:1-6; 18:9-12; Lev 18:24-30. Often in the history of Israel people in the temple – priests, Levites and people – were as bad as the Canaanites had been (Isa 1:10-17; Ezek 8:6-18). When Christ reigns on earth things will be entirely different – Isa 35:8; Ezek 43:7; 44:9. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

1 The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel through Malachi.

2 "I have loved you," says the LORD. "Yet you say,

'How have you loved us?'

"Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" says the LORD. "Yet I have loved Jacob, 3 and I have hated Esau, and laid waste his mountains and his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness."

4 Though Edom says, "We have been beaten down, but we will return and build the desolate places", thus says the LORD of hosts:

"They will build, but I will tear down; and they will be called, The Wicked Territory, and The People With Whom The LORD Will Be Angry Forever. 5 And your eyes will see it, and you will say, 'The LORD will be exalted beyond the borders of Israel.'

6 "A son honours his father, and a servant his master. Then, if I am a father, where is my honour? And if I am a master, where is my respect? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests who despise my name.

"And you say, 'How have we despised your name?'

7 "You offer defiled food on my altar, and you say, 'How have we defiled you?' By saying, 'The table of the LORD is contemptible.' 8 And when you offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? Offer it now to your governor! Would he be pleased with you, or accept you favourably? says the LORD of hosts.

1:1 "Burden" – note at Isa 13:1.

"Through Malachi" – Heb 1:1; 2 Pet 1:21. The name Malachi means "My messenger." 1:2 "Loved you" – Deut 4:37; 7:7,8; 1 Kings 10:9; Ps 44:3; Jer 31:3. Compare Rom 5:8; 1 John 4:8-10.

"Yet you say" – vs 6,7; 2:14,17; 3:7,8,13. In unbelief the people questioned everything God said to them through His messenger. This is always the way of fallen, sinful humanity.

"How" – God had shown His love for Israel in innumerable ways, but they refused to see it. They were just like people of our own day.

"Esau" – Gen 25:24-26.

"Loved Jacob" – Rom 9:13. Jacob here also means the nation of Israel (Gen 32:28). 1:3 The behavior of Esau's descendants toward God, and toward His people Israel, made them worthy of God's loathing. See Amos 1:11; Obadiah; etc.

"Hated" – compare Ps 5:5,6; Lev 26:30; Prov 3:32; 11:20; 16:5. Esau here also means the nation called Edom. God loves all men – John 3:16; 1 John 4:8. That is, He desires the highest spiritual good of every person. He has compassion and pity for the whole world. If anyone, whoever he may be (including any Edomite), will repent of his sins and turn to God He will save him and make him His own dear child (John 1:12,13; Rev 22:17). But when people will not do this His anger rests on them – John 3:36; Rom 1:18, and He will hate their ways and their nature, and will judge and punish them for their sins. "Hate" in the Bible sometimes means to "love less." John 3:16 and John 3:36 are both true. This does not mean that His anger is less real or His punishment of sin is less terrible. Compare Luke 14:26; Matt 10:37. The Bible reveals that in Old Testament days God had a special love for the nation Israel, and that He now has a special love for believers in Christ. Believers have a special family relationship with God and God loves them as a Father (John 14:21; 17:6; 1 John 3:1,2).

"Jackals" – God showed His "hatred" for the people of Esau by forcing them from their land. See what other prophets have to say about Esau (Edom) – Isa 34:5-15; Jer 49:7-22; Ezek 25:12-14; 35:1-15.

1:4 "We will return and build" – pride, self-confidence, and ignorance of God's will.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3.

"I will tear down" – Isa 34:11; Jer 49:16.

"The Wicked Territory" – evidently Esau's descendants were particularly wicked people – reason enough for God's hatred.

"Angry" – Num 25:3; Ps 90:7-11; John 3:36; Rom 1:18.

1:5 "You" – the people of Israel. Were some of them doubting that God was a great King over all the earth (Ps 47:2)? God's actions would prove that He is.

1:6 From this verse to 2:9 God rebukes the priests in Israel.

"Father...master" – Ex 20:12; Lev 20:9; Isa 1:2,3; 63:16; 64:8.

"Priests" – note at Ex 28:1.

"Despise" – Lev 22:9; Num 14:11; 16:30; 1 Sam 2:17; Prov 14:31; Hos 12:14; Rom 2:4. People show their real attitude toward God not just by what they may say but by their attitude toward His Word, by what they do and do not do.

1:7,8 "Defiled" – the offerings they brought were contrary to God's Word (Deut 15:21), so they were unholy. See notes on offerings at Lev 1:2. Why did they bring blind, crippled or diseased animals? They wanted to keep the best for themselves and give to God the worst. This is how they showed contempt for Him. Many people today do likewise – but still want God's blessings and grumble if they don't receive them.

"Food" – Lev 3:11,16; 21:6,8. God does not get hungry and He needs nothing from men's hands – Ps 50:9-14; Acts 17:24,25. But as food satisfies our bodies so do the holy offerings of His people given in love satisfy God's heart.

"Governor" – they would not even dream of acting toward human beings whom they considered important as they acted toward God. Note and references on giving at 2 Cor 9:15.

9 "And now beg God to be gracious to us,' you say. With such offerings from you will he accept you favourably? says the LORD of hosts.

10 "Who is there among you who will shut the temple doors so that you do not kindle fire in vain on my altar! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will not accept an offering from your hand. 11 For from the place of the rising of the sun to the place of its going down my name will be great among the Gentiles, and in every place incense and a pure offering will be offered to my name; for my name will be great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts.

12 "But you profane it, by saying, 'The table of the LORD is defiled, and its fruit, its food, is contemptible.' 13 You also say, 'See, how tiresome! And you sniff at it, says the LORD of hosts. And you bring what is torn, and the lame, and the sick. This is the way you bring an offering! Should I accept this from your hand? says the LORD. 14 But cursed be the deceiver, who has a male in his flock, and vows to give it, then sacrifices a blemished one to the Lord. For I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name is to be feared among the nations.

2 "And now, O priests, this commandment is for you. 2 If you will not listen, and if you will not take it to heart to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts, I will send a curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have cursed them already, because you do not take it to heart.

3 "See, I will rebuke your offspring, and spread refuse on your faces, the refuse of your solemn feasts; and you will be taken away with it. 4 And you will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant might be with Levi, says the LORD of hosts. 5 My covenant was with him, a covenant of life and peace, and I gave them to him that he might fear me. And he did fear me and showed reverence toward my name. 6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and injustice was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from sin.

7 "For the priest's lips should preserve knowledge, and the people should seek the law from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. 8 But you have departed from the way. You have caused many to stumble at the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts. 9 Therefore I have also caused

1:9,10 "Accept you" – Jer 6:20; 14:10,12; Amos 5:22-24; 1 Pet 2:5.

"Shut the temple doors" – worship that is not in spirit and in truth (John 4:23,24) is worse than no worship at all. Far better to close any place of so-called worship where God is dishonored than for people to deceive themselves there with meaningless ceremonies. Compare Isa 1:11-17.

1:11 Ps 47:7; 113:3; Isa 19:21; 24:15,16; 56:6,7; 60:6,7; Zeph 2:11.

"Gentiles" – peoples other than Jews.

1:12,13 God will be great among the nations of earth but His own people treated Him as if He were a nobody. To them His worship was tiresome and useless, and worthy of contempt (vs 7,8). They were not the last to think and act so.

1:14 Did these worshipers expect a blessing from God? God Himself pronounces a curse on them. Compare Deut 27:15-26; Gal 3:10; Heb 6:8.

"Deceiver" – by not giving God what was due to Him, by refusing Him their best, they were trying to deceive Him, cheating Him. The same principle applies today. The Lord Jesus wants our best, not our worst.

"King" – Ps 47:1-9.

"Feared" – notes at Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

2:2 "Take it to heart" – Prov 4:23.

"Give glory" – 1:6; Matt 15:7-9; John 5:23.

"Curse your blessings" – this could mean either the privileges and advantages the priests had, or the blessings they pronounced on the people (Num 6:23-27), or both. If God turns what we think are our blessings into curses how terrible our condition! And if God did this then does He not do it now when conditions demand it?

2:3 "Rebuke your offspring" – this could be translated "spoil your seed grain" (the same Hebrew word means both offspring and seed grain. See note at Ps 14:6,7.

"Spread refuse on your faces" – signifies disgrace. Compare Nahum 3:8.

2:4,5 "Covenant. . .with Levi" – Num 3:11-13; Neh 13:29. Priests were of the tribe of Levi.

"Covenant. . .peace" – Num 25:10-13.

2:6,7 God describes what a priest should be and what some had been.

"He walked with me" – compare Gen 5:22; 6:9; 17:1; Amos 3:3.

"From sin" – Acts 26:18; Jam 5:19,20.

"Messenger" – someone whom God raised up to teach people the truth. In this New Testament era all believers in Christ are priests and should be the kind of people described here. See Heb 10:19-22; 1 Pet 2:5,9; Rev 1:6.

2:8 "The way" – the way God revealed.

"To stumble" – surely one of the worst sins priests and teachers can commit. Compare Matt 23:13-15; Luke 11:52.

2:9 They had treated God with contempt; so He made them appear contemptible to the people. Compare Ps 18:25,26; Gal 6:7.

"Partiality" – see Lev 19:15; Deut 10:15; Prov 24:23; 1 Tim 5:21; Jam 2:1,9.

you to be despised and abased before all the people, because you have not kept my ways, but have shown partiality in the law."

10 Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us? Why does each of us act treacherously against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 Judah has acted treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of the LORD which the LORD loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 The LORD will cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, the master and the scholar, though he brings an offering to the LORD of hosts.

13 And you have also done this: You cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and wailing because he no longer regards the offering, or receives it with pleasure from your hand. 14 Yet you say, "Why?" Because the LORD is a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have acted treacherously, though she is your companion, and your wife by covenant.

2:10 "Father" – 1:6; Isa 43:1. Breaking faith, lying or practicing deceit were the same as breaking the covenant God gave them through Moses (Ex 19:5).

2:11 "Which the LORD loves" – Ps 87:2. The Lord loved the sanctuary because it was in the midst of His people whom He loved. See note at Ex 25:8.

"Daughter of a foreign god" – means a woman of one of the idolatrous peoples around Israel. See Ezra 9:1,2. God forbade His people to do this – Ex 34:15,16; Deut 7:3,4. Compare 2 Cor 6:14-18.

2:12 Intermarriage with unbelievers was an abomination and the prophet wanted God to show them that by taking severe action against the guilty. See also Ezra 9:1,2; Neh 13:23-27; 2 Cor 6:14.

"Tents of Jacob" – the Jews.

"Brings an offering" – they who do detestable things sometimes bring offerings to God. Vileness and a certain kind of religion sometimes go hand in hand. But see Prov 15:8.

2:13 Because they did not repent and obey His Word, God was not pleased with their tears. They vainly thought they could get God's blessings by their offerings and tears even though they trampled God's law underfoot. See what God wants in Isa 1:16-19; 2 Cor 7:10,11.

2:14 As long as they were unfaithful to their wives, or guilty of other evils, their weeping and wailing came to nothing.

2:15 "One" – Gen 2:24.

"He was seeking godly offspring" – faithfulness in the family relationship will increase the possibility of godly offspring growing up in it. Divorce makes it less likely

15 And did he not make them one, having a remnant of the Spirit. And why one? Because he was seeking godly offspring. Therefore keep watch over your spirit, and let no one act treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, says that he hates divorce; for it is like covering violence with one's garment, says the LORD of hosts. Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not act treacherously.

17 You have wearied the LORD with your words.

Yet you say, "How have we wearied him?"

When you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them"; or, "Where is the God of justice?"

3 "See, I will send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you delight in. See, he is coming," says the LORD of hosts.

2 "But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like a washerman's soap. 3 And that there will be godly offspring.

"Keep watch over" – Prov 4:23; Luke 12:15; 1 Cor 16:13; 1 Tim 6:20.

2:16 "He hates divorce" – Matt 5:31,32; 19:4-9. If Christians ignore this statement, it will be at their own peril. And it is a very shameful thing that many of them do ignore it and do as they please about the matter of divorce. But it is surely both foolish and sinful to do something God hates.

2:17 "Wearied. . .with your words" – what people (even His own people) sometimes say is hard for God to endure.

"Delights in them", "Where. . .justice?" – seemingly those people were ignorant of the most basic matters. Compare Ps 5:4; Ezek 18:25.

3:1 "My messenger" – compare Isa 40:3; Matt 3:1-3; 11:10,14. John the Baptist was this first messenger. He appeared before Christ began His ministry. The nation of Israel did not receive him. Before Christ comes the second time a second messenger, Elijah, will appear (4:5). Mal 3:1-6 may possibly refer to either Christ's first or second coming. Indeed some features of these verses may refer to both comings. As in some other prophecies of the Old Testament there may be a spiritual application to the Church of this era and a literal fulfillment at the end of this age. See note on Isa 60:1-22.

"Messenger of the covenant" – the Messiah of Israel, the Lord Jesus Christ. Compare Isa 42:6; Jer 31:31-34.

3:2 The language here suggests judgment rather than grace. Compare 4:1-5; Isa 2:10-18; Joel 2:11; Rev 6:15-17.

"Refiner's fire" – Isa 1:25; Zech 13:8,9.

3:3 "Purifier of silver" – Ps 66:10-12; Dan

he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them like gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness. 4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 "And I will come near you for judgment, and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against perjurers, and against those who oppress the wage earner in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who turn aside the foreigner from his right, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts.

6 "For I am the LORD. I do not change. Therefore you sons of Jacob are not consumed. 7 Even from the days of your fathers you have gone astray from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts.

12:10. This is a process that has gone on throughout this age of grace and is still going on. But the Lord is doing this work in His believers, the priests of this New Testament era, not in the Levites of Israel. His purification of the Levites still awaits the future – Jer 33:18-22; Ezek 40:46; 44:10-16; 45:5; 48:11-13.

"Offering in righteousness" – this is what the Lord wants in every era. Compare Rom 12:1,2; Heb 13:15,16; 1 Pet 2:5.

3:4 This seems to mean Judah and Jerusalem as a whole. This was not fulfilled at Christ's first coming. Compare Matt 23:37-39.

3:5 "Judgment" – v 2. The Lord Jesus did not come the first time to judge the world – John 12:47. At His second coming He will be a judge – Acts 17:31; 2 Tim 4:1.

"Sorcerers" – Deut 18:9-13; Gal 5:19-21.

"Adulterers" – Ex 20:14; Heb 13:4.

"Perjurers" – Ex 20:16; Lev 19:12; Rev 21:8.

"Oppress the wage earner. . . turn aside the foreigner" – Lev 19:13; Jam 5:4; Ex 22:21,22; Deut 24:19; Isa 1:17; Ezek 22:7; Amos 2:6,7.

"Do not fear me" – Jer 2:19; 5:22; Rom 3:18.

3:6 "Change" – Heb 13:8; Jam 1:17.

"Consumed" – Israel had been unfaithful to God and deserved to be destroyed. The reason God did not destroy them was that He had made promises to them which He determined to keep and had plans for them which He would not change. Compare Rom 11:29.

3:7 "Return to me" – Isa 44:22; Jer 3:12,14,22; 4:1; Hos 14:1; Joel 2:12,13; Zech 1:3; Jam 4:8.

"How" – 1:2,7.

3:8,9 In 1:14 God called some of them "deceivers". Now He calls all of them robbers. They had robbed God by keeping for themselves what belonged to Him. They

"But you say, 'How shall we return?'"

8 "Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed me.

"But you say, 'How have we robbed you?'"

"In tithes and offerings. 9 You are cursed with a curse, for you, this whole nation, have robbed me. 10 Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this, says the LORD of hosts: See if I will not open the windows of heaven for you, and pour you out such blessing that there will not be room enough to receive it. 11 And for your sakes, I will rebuke that which devours, and it will not destroy the produce of your ground; nor will your vine in the field cast its fruit before time, says the LORD of hosts. 12 And all nations will call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land, says the LORD of hosts.

13 "Your words have been harsh against me, did this in the matter of tithes and offerings. See Lev 27:30; Num 18:21,24. Tithing is not a command given to Christians now. Believers are not under the law but under grace – Rom 6:14. So God appeals to us to give on the basis of grace – 2 Cor 8:12; 9:6,7. But surely grace and love working in our hearts will not teach us to give less than Jews under the law (1 Cor 16:2; 2 Cor 8:1-4). A tenth is the very least believers should give to God and His work. They should recognize that they and all they have belong to the Lord – 1 Cor 6:19,20, and give accordingly. Notes on giving at 2 Cor 9:15.

"Curse" – see 2:2. All breakers of God's law were under a curse (Deut 27:26; Jam 2:10), and they had broken God's law.

3:10 "Storehouse" – rooms by the temple for storing grain, etc (Neh 13:12). This is not an instruction to Christians now to give all their offerings to one church or denomination. In Christ there is freedom to give toward His work anywhere.

"Test me" – we must not test God in unbelief (Ex 17:2; Deut 6:16; Ps 78:18,41,56; 106:14; 1 Cor 10:9). God here speaks of a different kind of test. He tells Israel to believe His promise, obey Him, and see what the results would be. He has given us all a similar promise – Luke 6:38. God loves to bless believing, obedient, generous people. If we have none of these qualities we have no right to expect His blessings.

"LORD of hosts" – note at 1 Sam 1:3. He is well able to arrange all matters and all events for the good of His faithful people.

3:11 God has many ways of blessing His people. All nature is completely in His control.

3:12 Isa 61:8,9; 62:4; Hos 2:21,22; 4:5-7.

3:13 "What have we spoken" – they resisted everything God said about them instead of confessing and repenting.

says the LORD.

"Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?'"

14 "You have said, 'It is vain to serve God,' and 'what profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? 15 So now we call the arrogant blessed. Yes, the evildoers are established. Yes, those who test God escape."

16 Then those who feared the LORD spoke often with one another, and the LORD listened, and heard, and a book of remembrance was written in his presence for those who feared the LORD, and who thought about his name.

17 "And they will be mine," says the LORD of hosts, "on that day when I make up my jewels. And I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. 18 Then you will again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve him.

3:14 "Vain to serve" – could a more harsh thing be said to God by His people? It is the same as denying that He is good and loving and that He rewards faithful service. Even good people can fall into this wrong way of thinking and speaking. Compare Ps 73:2,3,13,14,22. See 1 Cor 15:58.

3:15 Job 21:7-15; Ps 73:3-12. Men make mistakes like this in their thinking because of ignorance of God's coming judgment.

3:16 "Feared the LORD" – Gen 20:11; Ps 34:11-14; 111:10; Prov 1:7.

"Heard" – 2:17; Ps 19:14; 94:9; 139:4; Matt 12:35-37.

"Book" – Ex 32:32; Ps 56:8; 97:6; Rev 20:12.

3:17 "Mine" – Isa 43:21; John 6:37; 17:6; 1 Cor 6:19. They showed they belonged to the Lord by the way they talked with each other and the Lord will publicly confirm it.

"Jewels" – or "treasured possession" – Ex 19:5; Deut 7:6; Ps 135:4; 149:4. Of everything in the world, God treasures most His redeemed people who trust and serve Him.

"Spare them" – when He rises to judge the world.

3:18 The time of judgment will make this distinction clear. Compare Matt 25:31-46; John 12:26. Observe that the righteous serve God, the wicked do not. So we can see what God thinks of a person's character by what he is doing or not doing. Then is a person who has no desire to serve God, no matter how moral and ethical he may be in many matters, actually wicked in God's sight?

4:1 "The day" – the day of the Lord (v 5; Isa 13:6,9; Joel 1:15; 1 Thess 5:2).

"Burn" – Isa 1:31; 24:6; 66:15,16; 2 Thess 1:7,8.

4:2 "Fear my name" – 3:16.

"Sun of righteousness" – Isa 60:1,19;

4 "For, see, the day is coming that will burn like a furnace; and all the arrogant, yes, and all evildoers, will be like stubble, and the day that is coming will burn them up, says the Lord of hosts. It will leave them neither root nor branch. 2 But for you who fear my name the Sun of righteousness will arise with healing in his wings. And you will go out, and grow up like calves in the stall. 3 And you will trample down the wicked. For they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this, says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Remember the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, along with its statutes and judgments.

5 "See, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. 6 And he will turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

Luke 1:78,79. The righteousness of the Lord Jesus is as bright and shining as the sun.

"Healing" – His second coming will mean complete healing to those God has chosen (Isa 32:1-4; 35:5,6; Jer 30:17; Rom 8:21-23; 1 Cor 15:52,53).

"Wings" – the Hebrew word also means "edges", "ends" or "extremities". When the Sun of righteousness rises healing will come to those even at the furthest reach of His rays.

4:3 Ps 148:6-9; Zech 12:6-9. The wicked will not always have the upper hand in this world.

4:4 "Remember" – Deut 4:9-14; 8:11; Ps 119:52; Isa 64:5.

"Moses my servant" – Ex 14:31; Deut 34:5; Heb 3:5. "Horeb" is Mt Sinai where God gave His law – Exodus chapters 19,20.

4:5 "Elijah" – Matt 17:11. Compare Rev 11:3-12. Apparently this coming of Elijah is just before "the day of the LORD" which is still in the future (1 Thess 5:2; 2 Pet 3:10). If so, "Elijah" here cannot refer to the coming of John the Baptist which was in the past.

4:6 "He will turn the heart" – John the Baptist was partially successful in this (Luke 1:16,17), but only partially. Israel as a whole rejected the Lord Jesus. In the future the nation will repent and receive Him – Zech 12:10-14; Rom 11:25-29.

"Curse" – the Old Testament ends with a reference to the law of Moses (v 4) and the threat of a curse coming on the land of Israel and on the earth. The New Testament (and the whole Bible) ends with a promise of the coming of the Lord Jesus and a reference to His grace which removes the curse and restores all things (Rev 22:20,21).

The Gospel According to MATTHEW

Author:

Matthew was one of the original disciples of Jesus Christ. His other name was Levi and he was a tax collector when Jesus called him into His service. See Matt 9:9-13; Mark 2:13-17; Luke 5:27-32. He himself does not tell us that he wrote this Gospel, but that has been the firm belief of Christians from the first century onwards. When thinking of the authorship of any of the books of the Bible we should keep in mind that God Himself is the real author of them all, making use of human instruments whom He prepared in every way to write just what He wanted them to write. See 2 Tim 3:16,17; 2 Pet 1:21. Often the human authors did not identify themselves. Their object was not to point men to themselves but to the one true God who inspired them. Each of them would have agreed with the writer of psalm 115 when he said "Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name be the glory" (Psalm 115:1).

Date:

Some years after the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, about the middle of the first century A.D. The exact year is unknown.

Theme:

Matthew, writing of the birth and life, teachings and deeds, death and resurrection of Jesus, presents Him as God's Anointed One who had been promised in the Old Testament, as the great King who brings in God's kingdom. In this Gospel there are about 60 references to Old Testament prophecy, and about 40 actual quotations from the Old Testament. Some key words, used many times, are "king", "the kingdom of God", and "fulfilled."

1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. 2 Abraham begot Isaac; and Isaac begot Jacob; and Jacob begot Judah and his brothers; 3 And Judas begot Perez and Zerah by Tamar; and Perez begot Hezron; and Hezron begot Ram; 4 And Ram begot Amminadab; and Amminadab begot Nahshon; and Nahshon begot Salmon; 5 And Salmon begot Boaz by Rahab; and Boaz begot Obed by Ruth; and Obed begot Jesse

6 And Jesse begot David the king; and David the king begot Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah; 7 And Solomon begot Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begot Abijah; and Abijah begot Asa; 8 And Asa begot Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begot Joram; and Joram begot Uzziah; 9 And Uzziah begot Jotham; and Jotham begot Ahaz; and Ahaz begot Hezekiah; 10 And Hezekiah begot Manasseh; and Manasseh begot Amon; and

1:1 The name "Jesus", like the Hebrew name Joshua, means "the LORD (Jehovah) saves." The word "Christ" is from the Greek language and means "anointed one." Its meaning is the same as "Messiah" taken from the Hebrew. One great purpose Matthew had in writing this Gospel was to show that Jesus was the Messiah promised in the Old Testament.

The Messiah was to be anointed by God – that is, set apart and consecrated by God, to fulfill the promises of the Old Testament. He was to be prophet, king, and priest (Deut 18:15; 2 Sam 7:11; Ps 2:2-9; 89:27-29; 110:1,4; Isa 7:14; 9:6,7; 11:1-9; 52:13-53:12; Zech 6:12,13).

According to the Old Testament the Messiah had to be a descendant of Abraham, the father of the Jewish nation, and of David, Israel's greatest king. To show that this was true of the Lord Jesus, Matthew gives this genealogy. Genealogies were a matter of public record and could be checked by any Jew who wished to do so.

As used in the Bible the word "son" may indicate a variety of relationships. Sometimes, of course, it means a literal son, but it may also mean a grandson, or a disciple, or a person much loved, or a descendant. Here it means that Jesus as to His human nature was descended from David who lived a thousand years before Him, and from Abraham who lived nearly two thousand years before Him.

1:2 "Isaac" – Gen 21:3,12.

"Jacob" – Gen 25:26.

"Brothers" – Gen 29:35. The Messiah was to come through the line of Judah (Gen 49:10; Ps 89:27-29. David was a descendant of Judah). So Matthew passes over the other sons of Jacob.

1:3 "Tamar" – Gen 38:27-30. "Ram" – 1 Chron 2:9,10.

1:5 "Rahab" – Josh 2:1-21; 6:25.

"Ruth" – Ruth 4:13-22. The stories of Rahab, a Canaanite, and Ruth, a Moabitess

Amon begot Josiah; 11 And Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers about the time the Jews were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after the deportation to Babylon, Jeconiah begot Shealtiel; and Shealtiel begot Zerubbabel; 13 And Zerubbabel begot Abiud; and Abiud begot Eliakim; and Eliakim begot Azor; 14 And Azor begot Zadok; and Zadok begot Akim; and Akim begot Eliud; 15 And Eliud begot Eleazar; and Eleazar begot Matthan; and Matthan begot Jacob; 16 And Jacob begot Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the exile to Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the exile in Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations.

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was like this:

(both of whom were of nations other than Israel), reveal something of God's wonderful grace and mercy toward sinful people. They were both transformed by God's grace and were brought into the family line of the Messiah.

1:6 "David" – 1 Sam 16:1; 17:12.

"Solomon" – 2 Sam 12:24.

"Wife" – Bathsheba. The story of David and Bathsheba (found in 2 Samuel chapters 11 and 12) teaches us again of God's great grace in overcoming human depravity and sinfulness.

1:8 "Uzziah" – his father was Amaziah. Joram (Jehoram) was his great-great-grandfather. In the Bible the words "begot" and "father" (like the word "son") are used to express a variety of relationships, such as grandfather and forefather. Here it means ancestor.

1:11 Josiah was the grandfather of Jeconiah (Jehoiachin).

"Babylon" – 2 Kings chapters 24 and 25.

1:16 Notice Matthew's careful use of language here. Mary was the mother of Jesus, but Joseph was not His father, except in the legal sense. The rest of the chapter makes this clear. It was enough for Matthew to show that in the legal sense Jesus was David's descendant. Luke's purpose in his genealogy (Luke 3:23-38) may have been to show that Jesus was a physical descendant of David through Mary.

1:17 "Exile to Babylon" – see 2 Chronicles chapter 36. Matthew left out some names from this genealogy – kings Ahaziah, Joash, Amaziah and Jehoiakim. It was not necessary to list all the names in the ancestral line of the Lord Jesus to show that He was descended from David and Abraham. Matthew divided this genealogy into a series of fourteens, possibly for ease of memorizing. Such divisions of names for such a purpose was no new thing among the Jews.

1:18 "Betrothed" – engagement to be married was very binding in Israel. After

After his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. 19 Then Joseph her husband, being a righteous man and unwilling to make her a public example, intended to release her from her vows, secretly.

20 But while he was thinking about these things, suddenly the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for what is conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. 21 And she will give birth to a son, and you shall call his name JESUS, for he will save his people from their sins."

22 Now all this took place so there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken by the Lord through engagement the man and woman did not live together until after the actual marriage ceremony, but engagement legally bound them together and they were even called "husband" and "wife."

"Holy Spirit" - Jesus was the Son of God. Joseph was His legal father, but God was His real father. That is, His human nature was produced in Mary by the creative power of the invisible Spirit of God (v 20; Luke 1:35). This does not mean that God came to Mary in some physical form, some kind of incarnation. This was not necessary and it did not happen. The Lord Jesus had a divine nature and a sinless human nature joined together in one personality. He was both fully God and fully man.

Notes and other references on the Holy Spirit at 3:11,16; Gen 1:2; Luke 1:15,35; 4:1; 11:13; John 1:33; 7:39; 14:16,17,26; 16:7,8; 20:22; Acts 1:5,8; 2:4,38; 1 Cor 12:13; Gal 3:14; Eph 5:18. 1:19 "Righteous" - the Greek word here means "just, honorable and fair in one's dealings with others, and upright and pious in one's attitude toward God and God's Word." Joseph believed Mary was guilty of adultery and felt he had to divorce her. But he wanted to treat her with compassion because he was a good man and doubtless still felt affection for Mary. In the case of Mary we can learn that those who do the will of God may be misunderstood, falsely accused, and brought into danger. The penalty for adultery under the law of Israel was death (Deut 22:23,24).

1:20 Note on angels at Gen 16:7. The Greek word translated "angel" means "messenger." Here it indicates a spirit being from heaven.

"Suddenly" - the Greek word here is the word for "see" and is translated "behold" in the KJV. Speakers and writers of modern English do not use "behold" except occasionally in the phrase "lo and behold." In Greek it was used to call attention to what follows and need not be translated literally. Sometimes we have put the word in the past tense, sometimes used the word "suddenly," etc. See also the note at Gen 1:29.

"Lord" - this is a translation of the Greek word "kurios." In the Greek New Testament the prophet, saying,

23 See, the virgin will be with child,
and will give birth to a son,
and they will call his name Emmanuel,

which is, being translated, "God with us."

24 Then Joseph, after he was aroused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and took her as his wife. 25 But he did not know her until she had given birth to her firstborn son. And he called his name JESUS.

2 Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, suddenly wise men from the east arrived in Jerusalem,

"kurios" is used in two ways. It is used to translate the word Jehovah, a name for God found in the Old Testament more than 6,000 times (see note at Ex 3:14,15). It is also the ordinary Greek word for Lord or master or owner or one in authority. See also the note at Luke 2:11.

1:21 "JESUS" - v 1. The Lord Jesus came to save sinful men, not to destroy them (Luke 19:10; John 3:17). He came to release them from the penalty and power of their sins and to bring them into a state of eternal righteousness, blessedness, peace and joy in God's presence (Luke 4:18,19; Acts 26:18). This is what salvation is. He saves people from their sins, not in their sins. His people are all those who receive Him by faith as Lord and Savior (John 1:12,13), all those whom God has given to Him (John 6:37; 17:6).

1:22 Much of the New Testament records events which were a fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy. This is a strong reason to believe in the full divine inspiration of the Bible. For a list of some of these prophecies see the back of this Bible. Notice that God Himself spoke through the prophets. See 2:15; 4:4; 15:4; 22:43,44; Acts 1:16; 4:25; 28:25; Heb 1:1,5,8,10,13; 3:7; 4:3,7; 5:5,6; 7:21; 8:8; 10:5,15; 13:5. See also 2 Pet 1:21; 2 Tim 3:16.

1:23 "Emmanuel" - Isa 7:14. Matthew quotes from the Old Testament nearly 50 times to prove that the birth, life, death, and resurrection of the Lord Jesus were firmly rooted in Old Testament prophecy. The life of Jesus on earth was the life of Immanuel, God incarnate, revealing God's nature and works in all their beauty and glory (John 1:1,14,18; Col 2:9; Heb 1:3).

1:24 Joseph showed he was a righteous man (v 19) by his immediate obedience to God's command. Indeed, there is no true righteousness that does not result in obedience to the true and living God.

2:1 Bethlehem was a small town about 8 kilometers south of Jerusalem. It was the home town of king David, and is referred to many times in the Old Testament (Gen 35:19; Ruth 1:19; 1 Sam 16:4; Micah 5:2). For Jesus to be born there Mary and

2 saying, "Where is he who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the east, and have come to worship him." 3 When Herod the king heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 And when he had gathered together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Christ was to be born. 5 And they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea. For thus it has been written by the prophet:

6 And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the princes of Judah, for out of you a Ruler will come who will shepherd my people Israel."

Joseph had to travel from Nazareth (Luke 2:4), about 120 kilometers north of Bethlehem.

"Herod" – there are several Herods mentioned in the New Testament. They were all related to each other and all descended from this Herod, sometimes called Herod the Great. He was not a Jew but an Edomite (Edomites were descended from Esau. See Gen 25:25,30). He was appointed king of Judea by the emperor of Rome.

"Wise men" – or "magi," the name given by Persians and Babylonians to a religious and priestly class of people which included astrologers and astronomers, interpreters of signs, and such like. They were regarded as wise men with special secret knowledge. The minds of the best of them were a mixture of knowledge and superstition. Here is the first time after Jesus came to earth that people of another nation and religion recognized His greatness and came to worship Him. They were the first of a great multitude to come.

Christ's Gospel is for all men. He is the Saviour of all who trust in Him, regardless of nationality and background (28:19; Mark 16:15,16; Luke 24:46,47; John 3:16). 2:2 It is evident that these magi had some knowledge of the Old Testament and its promises of a coming King who would be the Saviour of His people (Isa 9:6,7; etc). This knowledge was probably gained by contact with Jews who lived in various countries of western Asia after the Babylonian captivity in the 6th century BC. See the books of Esther and Daniel. The magi could have calculated the general time of Christ's birth from the prophecy in Dan 9:25-27 (which had been given to Daniel in Babylon).

We are not told what kind of "star" the magi saw or how they came to believe it announced the birth of Christ. The author of these notes believes that it was a heavenly body or other light in the sky specially created or given by God for this occasion. Its movement is evidence for this. It went due west, then due south for a few miles, and then stopped over a single house in Bethlehem, evidently low enough in the sky to indicate that particular house and not any other. No ordinary star or planet

7 Then Herod, when he had secretly called the wise men, found out from them the exact time the star appeared. 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and search carefully for the young child. And when you have found him, bring me word again, so that I too may come and worship him."

9 When they had heard the king, they went away, and now the star, which they had seen in the east, went before them until it came and stood over the place where the young child was. 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced, with exceedingly great joy. 11 And when they came into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and prostrated themselves and worshipped him. And behaves like this. It is also reasonable to believe that God convinced these magi by His Spirit that this heavenly body was somehow connected with the birth of Christ. See note at v 12.

The magi did not come merely to see Christ, or to satisfy their curiosity, or to engage in philosophical discussion about Him. They came to bow lowly before Him, to honor and adore Him.

2:3 God had revealed a truth to the far-off magi which the king and people in Jerusalem, 8 kilometers from Bethlehem, did not know. The fact that they were alarmed instead of happy to hear this good news reveals their depraved spiritual condition. They were not ready for the coming of the Messiah, God's "anointed one."

2:4 Note on priests at Ex 28:1. The chief priests were in charge of the temple worship and were the religious leaders of the Jews.

"Scribes" – these were scholars who interpreted the law of Moses to the people.

2:5,6 This wonderful prophecy, giving the exact place of Christ's birth about 700 years before the event, is found in Micah 5:2. Observe that these religious leaders and scholars knew that the Messiah would come and knew the place of His birth. But they made no effort, it seems, to find Him or to honor and worship Him. It is not what men know which makes them acceptable to God. The state of their hearts with their motives and desires is all-important.

2:8 Herod's purpose was evil (vs 13,16). But he, like many people since then, used a cloak of seeming piety to hide the wickedness of his heart.

2:9 "Stood" – no star or planet on its own could stop in the sky over a place, as this one did. This was a special work of God.

2:11 The Lord Jesus was no longer in the stable where He had been born (Luke 2:7). Many months may have passed since His birth. Observe whom they worshiped – not Mary the mother of Jesus, but the Lord Jesus Himself. And they brought their gifts to Him, not to her.

"Worshipped" – the fact that God brought these men to worship Christ, and recorded it for our instruction in His Word, tells us opening their treasures, they presented gifts to him: gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. 12 And being warned by God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they went away to their own country by another way.

13 And when they had left, suddenly the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Get up, take the young child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word. For Herod will look for the young child to destroy him."

14 When he got up, he took the young child and his mother at night and left for Egypt. 15 And he was there until the death of Herod, so that there might be a fulfilment of what was spoken about the Lord by the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I have called my son."

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent men out, and killed all the male children in Bethlehem and in all of its environs, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had found out accurately from the wise men. 17 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, that Christ is God – only God is worthy of worship (see 4:10). And God often commanded that men should worship no one but Himself (Ex 20:2-5). See other references which show that Christ is God at Phil 2:6 and Luke 2:11.

2:12 "Dream" – Gen 15:12,13; 20:3; Num 12:6; Dan 7:1; Acts 2:17. Since God revealed truth to these men after their arrival in Bethlehem, it is not unreasonable to think He did the same before they started on their journey there.

2:13 "Lord" – note at 1:20.

"To destroy him" – King Herod did not want any rivals to the throne, and the wise men had spoken of the king of the Jews (v 2). Herod was the kind of man who would kill his own sons if he thought they were a threat to his power. Behind Herod's evil intention stood Satan, the great enemy of God and man, trying to destroy the Messiah and so prevent Him from bringing salvation to men. But God knows how to work out His purposes and He infallibly does so (Isa 46:9,10; Rom 11:33-36).

2:15 Again we see that it was God Himself who spoke through the Old Testament prophets (1:22). See note at Hosea 11:1.

2:16 This verse suggests that Jesus may have been many months old when the magi came. To make sure of killing Him Herod thought it necessary to kill all male babies up to the age of two.

2:18 Note at Jer 31:15.

2:23 Nazareth was the town of Joseph and Mary (Luke 2:39). It was a small and insignificant town (John 1:45,46). A Nazarene was a person of Nazareth, so the name came to mean a person who was considered a

18 "In Ramah a voice was heard, lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more."

19 But when Herod was dead, suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 saying, "Get up and take the young child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child's life are dead."

21 And he got up and took the young child and his mother, and came to the land of Israel. 22 But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And having been warned by God in a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee. 23 And he came and lived in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He will be called a Nazarene.

3 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, 2 and nobody. Calling Jesus a Nazarene fulfilled the meaning of the prophets who revealed that Christ would be despised by men. See Ps 22:6; Isa 53:3. Some scholars connect the name "Nazarene" with the Hebrew word "netzer", which means "Branch." This was one of the names of the Messiah (Isa 11:1; etc). There is no connection between the words Nazarene and Nazirite. See note at Num 6:7,8.

3:1 Matthew passes over nearly thirty years of Christ's life and begins to write of the time when He was about to begin His ministry. Other references to John the Baptist – 11:2-14; 14:1-12; Mark 1:2-8; 6:14-29; Luke 1:5-25,57-80; 3:15-18; 7:18-23; John 1:6-8,15-35; 3:22-36; 5:33-35. The wilderness or desert of Judea was an area east of Jerusalem and Bethlehem running down to the Jordan river and the Dead Sea. 3:2 "Repent" and "repentance" are very important words in the Bible. Noun and verb together are used more than 70 times. Repentance means a complete change of mind and heart which produces a change in behavior. As John and the Lord Jesus and His disciples used the word it means to turn to God from wrong thinking and wrong doing and accept God's Word and God's will as the rule of life. True Biblical repentance results in sorrow for sins committed and a desire to be free from all sin. For those who have been rejecting Christ it means to turn to Him and receive Him as Lord and Saviour.

Repentance is linked with that true faith which receives salvation. A person without repentance is without true faith and so without salvation. See Luke 13:3; 24:47; Acts saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." 3 For this is the one who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying,

The voice of one crying out in the wilderness,
Prepare the way of the Lord.
Make his paths straight.

4 And John himself had his cloak of camel's hair, and a leather belt around his waist. And his food was locusts and wild honey. 5 Then Jerusalem, all

17:30,31. The person who is not willing to turn from all his sins - especially the sin of not trusting in Christ and putting others or other things above him - will not know salvation from his sins. John preached repentance because the people of Israel were sunk in sin and unbelief and were not ready to receive the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. Their condition was like that described in Isa 1:4; etc. For other notes on repentance see v 8; Luke 13:2,3; Acts 2:38; 17:30.

"Kingdom of heaven" - see 4:17.

"Near" - because the King of heaven (the Lord Jesus) was about to appear and begin His ministry. John was referring to a new and greater manifestation of God's kingdom than was known in Old Testament days. 3:3 This quotation is from Isa 40:3 and speaks of John's ministry of preparation for Christ.

"Lord"- the Hebrew of Isaiah is "Jehovah." Notes at 1:20; Ex 3:14,15; Luke 2:11.

3:4 Plain clothing, simple food, and a humble style of living were the usual marks of God's true prophets. They avoided the materialistic outlook and love of ostentation seen in many religious leaders today.

3:6 The word "baptized" comes from the Greek word "baptizo." A famous Greek-English dictionary gives its meaning thus: "Dip, immerse. . .plunge, sink, drench, overwhelm" (Arndt and Gingrich. Other dictionaries and lexicons are in substantial agreement with this definition).

John's baptism signified repentance and the forgiveness of sins, but it did not produce them. See also Mark 1:4; etc. No water ceremony of any kind or in any place can take away sin or change men's hearts. Only God can do so. And He does so when men receive His Son by faith (John 1:12,13; 3:3-8; 5:24; Acts 13:38,39).

3:7 "Pharisees" - a strict, conservative, very religious sect among the Jews. They emphasized the law of Moses and the religious traditions that had come down from previous generations. Many of them were very self-righteous and separated themselves from others, thinking they were holier than anyone else (the name "Pharisee" came from the Hebrew word "pharash" which means to separate or set apart). But their deeds did not match their words and Jesus severely condemned them for their hypocrisy (chapter 23). In the New Testament they are

Judea, and the whole region around Jordan, went out to him, 6 and were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. 7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his place of baptism, he said to them, "Brood of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance, 9 and do not think of saying to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father.' For I tell you that God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. 10 And even now the axe is usually seen in opposition to the Lord Jesus. "Sadducees" - another powerful sect among the Jews. In theology they were liberal, denying truth plainly taught in the Old Testament. See Acts 23:8. They were mostly from the priestly class and were in charge of temple worship in Jesus' day, but their minds were more taken up with the things of this world than the things of God. The origin of the name "Sadducee" is unknown.

"Vipers" - God had given John great insight into the character of these people. They were the religious leaders of Israel, but in John's eyes (and God's eyes) they were like poisonous snakes, injecting their venom into the life of the nation. Compare 12:34; 23:33; Ps 58:4; 140:3; Rom 3:13. The Bible reveals that sometimes the very worst of people rise to the highest place in religious leadership. See Jer 6:13; 23:11; Ezek 34:1-6.

"Wrath" - they who are not saved from their sins will have to face God's anger against their sins. Compare John 3:36; Rom 1:18. Notes on God's anger at Num 25:3; Deut 4:25; Ps 90:7-11; etc.

3:8 "Fruit" - see also Acts 26:20. Fruit worthy of repentance means such things as ceasing from evil, learning to do good, making restitution to others when wrong has been done to them, restoring what is stolen, etc. In short, true repentance results in a new way of living that will be the reverse of the former ways (see 2 Chron 33:1-20; psalm 51; Isa 1:16-20; Ezek 18:30-32; Luke 3:10-14; 19:7-9; Acts 2:36,37; 9:1,2,19-22).

3:9 See John 8:39,40. The story of Abraham is in Genesis chapters 12-25. The mistake John pointed out here is a common one among religious people everywhere - thinking that God accepts them and regards them as His people because they are of a certain religious community or sect, or because they can trace their ancestry back to some famous religious leader. Abraham was a man of God but that did not make all his descendants men of God. Now a person is not a true Christian simply because his parents or grandparents were true Christians. An individual's own faith and deeds and character are the important things in God's eyes, not who his or her ancestors were.

3:10 John meant that God was about to judge the nation. The Messiah was about to laid to the root of the trees. So every tree that does not produce good fruit is being cut down and thrown into the fire.

11 "I indeed baptize you with water for repentance. But the one who comes after me is mightier than I, and I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire. 12 His winnowing fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his floor, appear. The people were like individual trees in the forest of Israel. Compare 7:17-20; Luke 13:6-9; Ps 1:3; 37:35; 52:8; 92:12; Eccl 11:3. "Fire" - 5:22; 7:19; 13:42; 18:8,9; Rev 20:15; 21:8.

3:11,12 "For repentance" - this does not mean that John baptized them so that they would obtain repentance. If they had not already repented he would not have wanted to baptize them. The Greek word translated "for" (eis) also means "in", "into", "unto", "concerning", "about." John's baptizing work concerned repentance, pointed to repentance, and was a symbol of repentance. But it did not produce repentance, which is something only the Spirit of God working in the hearts of men can produce. See also the note at Acts 2:38.

"One who comes after me" - John was referring to the Messiah, the Lord Jesus, and he recognized how far beneath Him he was. True men of God do not claim to be God but humble themselves in the dust before God. The closer a person is to God the less he will think he is worthy to stand before God. No man was greater than John (11:11), but John thought he was unworthy to carry Christ's sandals. He knew that all he could do was baptize in water, but that Christ could bring people into the depths of God's life-giving Spirit. And water baptism is nothing without the Spirit baptism Jesus gives. It is God's Spirit who gives spiritual life to people (John 3:5-8; 6:63; 7:37-39). Note on Spirit baptism at Acts 1:5.

"Baptize. . .with fire" - here may refer to God's purging of His people as in Mal 3:2-4. Fire there means a divine energy that would enter them and give force and power to witness to the truth (compare Jer 20:9). Or fire here could signify God's anger in judgment against sin (v 7. Compare Deut 32:32; Isa 30:30; 2 Thess 1:7,8). This second interpretation seems more likely. The wheat (God's true people) will be baptized with the Holy Spirit; the chaff (those not God's true people - Ps 1:4) will be baptized with fire.

John was a model for all preachers of God's Word. He lived very simply, did not engage in religious politics, sought no fame or material possessions, was humble but bold as a lion. He emphasized certain great truths all preachers should emphasize:

God's anger against sin

The need of repentance and a change of life-style and gather his wheat into the barn. But he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." 13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. 14 But John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" 15 And Jesus, answering, said to him, "Permit it now, for in this way it is proper for us to fulfil all righteousness." Then he permitted him. 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, immediately went up out of the Personal relationship with God not based on ancestry

Coming judgments against evil men, but the future blessedness of God's true people (v 12)

The supremacy of Jesus above all

And the giving of God's Spirit to those who repent and believe the gospel of Christ.

Do those of us who are preachers desire God's approval? Let us do as John did.

3:13-15 Jesus was now about 30 years of age (Luke 3:23). John's baptism spoke of repentance and confession and forgiveness of sins (vs 6,11; Mark 1:4). The Lord Jesus was the sinless Son of God (Luke 1:35; John 8:46; 2 Cor 5:21; Heb 4:15; 7:26; 1 Pet 2:22). He did not need forgiveness. Why, then, did He come to be baptized by John? Commentators have suggested several reasons. The only reason Jesus Himself gave is in v 15 - "to fulfil all righteousness." What was right for His disciples to do, He did. He also partook of the Passover feast, thought the elements spoke of what He would do for them, not what He needed for Himself (Luke 22:14,15).

Baptism for Him was an act of humble obedience to God's righteous will, and in taking it (as in His whole life) Jesus was an example to all His followers (compare 11:29; 16:24; John 13:15; Phil 2:5; 1 Pet 2:21). He was sinless, but took the place of sinners. He was our representative. He pointed the way we should go, did what we should do, lived as we should live, and, at last, as our substitute, He took all our sins upon Himself and was baptized into suffering and death (Luke 12:50). He died the death we deserve to die.

In other words all He did, including being baptized, was a fulfillment and manifestation and glorification of God's righteousness. And baptism was but a picture of His death, burial, and resurrection which were for the purpose of making people righteous.

3:16,17 The God revealed in the Bible, the true and only God, is a Trinity. That is, in the one Godhead there are three persons. Each of the three is spoken of in these verses. Jesus the Son is coming out of the water, the Spirit of God descends on Him, and God the Father speaks from heaven. The Son is not the Father, or the Spirit. The Spirit is not the Son or the Father. The three are distinct from each other but are perfectly united as one God in essence, water. And suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him. 17 And now a voice came from heaven, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

character, mind and heart. So there are not three Gods, but one only. See also 28:19; John 5:30; 14:26; 16:15; 1 Cor 12:3-6; 2 Cor 13:14; Eph 2:6; 4:4-6; Rev 1:4,5. For Old Testament indications of this truth see Gen 1:26; 16:7; etc. The Old Testament speaks of the Father (Ps 89:26), the Son (Ps 2:12), and the Spirit (Gen 1:2), but reveals that there is but one God (Deut 6:4; Isa 44:6; 45:18).

God's Spirit is not a mere influence or impersonal power coming from God, but is a divine person. Notes at John 14:16,17,26.

In those days the dove was a symbol of innocence and harmlessness and gentleness (10:16). Since then it has become a symbol of peace.

Jesus had been conceived by the Spirit of God (1:18), and lived His whole life up to His baptism indwelt by the Spirit. At His baptism He was anointed by the Spirit for the ministry He was about to begin. In His life and ministry He laid aside His own divine powers and privileges and depended on God the Father for everything.

This anointing of God's Spirit enabled Him to accomplish all He accomplished. See 12:28; Luke 4:18,19; John 4:24; 5:19,30; 6:38; Acts 10:28; Phil 2:7,8; Isa 11:1-5. If this was the way of the Lord Jesus we should not vainly imagine that without God's empowering Spirit we can live as we ought or serve God as we ought.

3:17 God here calls Jesus His Son. See Isa 9:6; Luke 1:32,35; John 1:1,14,18; 5:18-23. This means He fully shared the nature of God, as no one else can. He is God's "only begotten Son" (John 3:16). The Father was well pleased with Him because He was without sin of any kind, because He obeyed Him in everything, because He made it the whole business of His life to please the Father. See John 4:34; 5:30; 6:38; 8:29; 2 Cor 5:21; Heb 7:26; 1 Pet 2:22.

4:1 "Devil" - the Greek word for devil (diabolos) means one who accuses or slanders. It is another name for Satan, the chief of demons. Notes on Satan at 1 Chron 21:1; John 8:44; 2 Cor 11:14.

In the New Testament we see that there are two unseen kingdoms which oppose one another - God's kingdom and Satan's kingdom (12:22-28). Satan tries to destroy God's kingdom, and tempting others to evil is one method he uses. In studying the temptation of Jesus we can learn a great deal of what Jesus is like, what Satan is like, and how we can gain victory in temptation.

The Lord Jesus had just been anointed for His great ministry by the Spirit of God. The kingdom of heaven was at hand and the King was anointed. However, the Spirit

4 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterwards he was hungry. 3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."

did not lead Jesus to ascend some earthly throne, but led Him into the desert to be tempted or tested (the Greek word can mean both). Is this the way to bring in a great kingdom - by fasting and hunger and temptation? Not man's way surely, but God's. His kingdom is spiritual. The character of the King had to be tested and approved, and the great enemy of God's kingdom, Satan, had to be defeated. This temptation demonstrated that Jesus was fully obedient to the Father and truly pleased Him in all things.

It may help us to understand the temptation if we recognize two facts: it was His human nature that was being tempted, not His divine nature (as God He could not be tempted to do wrong - James 1:13); and Jesus was tempted as the last Adam (1 Cor 15:45-49). The first Adam was the progenitor of the human race and its representative. Jesus is the progenitor of a new kind of people (Rom 5:12-21). When tempted Adam fell and dragged the whole of humanity into sin with him. Jesus resisted temptation and made it possible for man to arise with Him. The fact of Jesus' temptation as a man is stated in Heb 2:18; 4:15.

4:2 Compare Ex 24:18; 34:28; Deut 8:2; 1 Kings 19:8. In the Bible the number 40 is connected with a time of trial and preparation.

4:3 "Tempter" - 1 Thess 3:5; 1 Cor 7:5. Satan wants men to sin so that he can gain power over them, so he makes evil suggestions and tries to stir them to yield to them. This temptation was for Jesus to use God's power for His own needs, without a word of instruction from God the Father.

All men need food and there is nothing wrong with trying to provide food for oneself. Temptation comes about the way to do this. For men may listen either to the voice of the devil or to the Word of God. As God's Son the duty and privilege of Jesus was to trust His Father to meet His needs and to act only on the Word of the Father (John 4:34; 5:30; 6:38; 8:29; Heb 10:5-7).

Far better to suffer hunger in the will of God than to fill one's belly in obedience to a suggestion from Satan. And this applies to all that men need, or think they need, in this world. God has His way for men and the devil has his ways. The devil tempts us to doubt God's provision and to take matters into our own hands and to provide for ourselves regardless of the means. Compare 6:25-33; Luke 12:16-21; Phil 4:19. Compare this temptation with Gen 3:1-6; Ex 16:1-3,28; Ps 78:17-19.

4 But he answered and said, "It is written,
 Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God."

5 Then the devil took him up to the holy city,
 and had him stand on a pinnacle of the temple,
 6 and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written,

He will give his angels a command

concerning you,
 and they will bear you up in their hands,
 so that you will not at any time strike
 your foot against a stone."

7 Jesus said to him, "Again, it is written,
 You shall not test the Lord your God."

8 Again, the devil took him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them, 9 and said to him, "All these things I will give you, if you will fall

4:4 The Lord Jesus in His fight against Satan used the sword of the Spirit, the Word of God. And He put up the shield of faith to quench the fiery darts of Satan (Eph 6:16,17).

"It is written" – Deut 8:3. Jesus knew God's Word, understood it, loved it, believed it, and was determined to obey it at any cost. So He was able to overcome temptation and defeat the devil. In this, as in everything, He is an example to us. The importance of knowing the Bible, believing it and obeying it, cannot be overestimated. Those who are ignorant of it will often be unable to recognize Satan's temptations, and they will be without their chief weapon if they do recognize them and wish to fight Satan.

"Every word that comes from the mouth of God" – where are these words to be found? Jesus was referring to the Old Testament Scriptures. Notice the importance Jesus put on every word God has spoken. In other things Jesus said we can see that He believed in the full divine inspiration of the Old Testament and of His own words, and we have His promise that God's Spirit would guide His apostles into all truth (so that what they wrote would also be completely true).

He said that not the smallest part of a single letter of the law of Moses would pass away until all of it was fulfilled (Matt 5:18). He taught that words written by David were "by the Holy Spirit" of God (Mark 12:36). He said that what was spoken to the leaders of Israel was "the word of God", and that "the Scripture cannot be broken" (John 10:35). He assured us that His own teachings had come directly from God the Father in heaven (John 12:49; 14:24). He said that the Holy Spirit of God would lead His apostles "into all truth" (John 16:13), and His apostles taught that all the Old Testament Scriptures were given "by inspiration of God" (2 Timothy 3:16), and that Old Testament prophecy came through holy men of God who "spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit" (2 Peter 1:21). They also knew that they were of the truth and wrote the truth.

4:5 "Holy city" – Jerusalem.

4:6 Satan too can quote from the Bible. He will try to use the sword of the Spirit against us. He will deny that the Bible is God's Word if it suits His purpose. Or he will say it is God's Word and then pervert its meaning, if that suits his purpose. And He has many willing helpers in the world – 2 Cor 11:13-15; Gal 1:7. Satan will take his quotations from the Bible out of context and misapply them.

The words of v 6 are taken from Ps 91:11,12. They were given to those who live in God and who accept God's rule over their lives (Ps 91:1-9). The promises there were not given to those who act as they please for their own purposes apart from God. It is never wise to follow a suggestion of the devil, especially when he quotes from the Bible. His aim will always be to get us to act on our own apart from God's guidance, to have us attempt things for our own reputation or pleasure or profit, and not for God's glory.

Each of the three temptations Satan brought against Christ had to do with Christ's complete submission to God's will. Christ came to glorify God, not to win fame and name for Himself. It was not for Him to perform some spectacular miracle without moral purpose.

4:7 See Deut 6:16. Men should not get themselves into difficulties and dangers by their foolishness and presumption, expecting God to miraculously deliver them. It is man's business to believe God and obey Him, not to try to force God to do miracles. There is a big difference between presumption and faith. Observe that Jesus used a Scripture rightly interpreted to counter Satan's misapplied use of Scripture. For a proper understanding of the Bible, Scripture must be compared with Scripture, and any Scripture should be studied in its context.

4:8,9 Here Satan revealed his secret desire – he wants people to worship him. He is the "god of this world" (2 Cor 4:4). As such he wants people to honor him and bow to him and obey him. And men do so, some knowingly, some unknowingly. See Lev 17:7; Deut 32:17; Ps 106:37; 1 Cor 10:20; Rev 9:20. To accomplish this he is active in all matters on earth, both secular and religious.

One way he attracts people to himself and his ways is to offer them worldly possessions and power. He can give these things because in a sense they came into his power when he caused Adam to sin. Adam was God's person to rule the earth (see Gen 1:27,28). He was the father and representative of the human race. Satan succeeded in gaining a large measure of control over the human race because of Adam's fall into sin. Compare Luke 4:6;

down and worship me.”

10 Then Jesus said to him, “Go away, Satan. For it is written,

You shall worship the Lord your God,
and you shall serve only him.”

11 Then the devil left him, and, at once, angels came and ministered to him.

12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been thrown into prison, he went to Galilee. 13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the lake, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 so that there might be a fulfillment of what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,

the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light,
and on those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.

17 From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

18 And Jesus, walking by the lake of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. 19 And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.” 20 And immediately they left their nets, and followed him.

John 12:31; Eph 2:1,2; 2 Tim 2:26;
1 John 5:19.

For only a little of this world’s wealth or glory or power a great many people are willing to abandon righteous principles, reject God’s truth, and follow the way of lies and deceit and selfishness and injustice, which is the way of Satan (it is a very sad thing that some of these call themselves Christians).

The difference between Christ and them is seen in this: they will abandon all principles of righteousness to gain a small piece of land, but Christ would not abandon a single principle of righteousness to gain the whole world. Christ scorned all that Satan offered. He remained determined to be true to God the Father, and do the Father’s will, though it meant poverty, suffering, and death. He is our example.

4:10 See Deut 6:13. This sets forth the limit of true worship. Only The Lord (Jehovah – Ex 3:14), the God of the Bible, the Creator of the universe, the only God there is, is worthy of worship (notes at Ex 20:1-6). A clear command of God in the Bible was enough for Jesus. It meant for Him immediate, absolute, permanent obedience. And any suggestion that would lead Him away from that was to be utterly rejected. He is our example in this too. The fact that Jesus accepted worship from others and that God told angels to worship Jesus reveals that Jesus is the incarnation of God (28:17; John 20:28; Heb 1:6).

4:11 Compare Jam 4:7. See Luke 4:13. Satan had to leave for the time, but would return when he could. See here something of the work of heaven’s angels. See Heb 1:14.

4:12 14:3.

4:13 Capernaum was a town on the northwest shore of the Sea of Galilee. Jesus made it His home for some time during His ministry in the province of Galilee (Mark 2:1; 9:33).

4:15,16 See Isa 9:1,2. The great light was the Messiah, the Lord Jesus – Luke 2:32; John 8:12; 12:46.

4:17 “Repent” – see note at 3:2.

“Kingdom of heaven” – this phrase is found only in Matthew. Mark, Luke, and John all use the similar phrase “kingdom of God.” The teaching about God’s kingdom is a very important one in the New Testament. It is referred to nearly 50 times in Matthew and about 140 times in the NT as a whole. Some important references are 5:3-10; 6:10,33; 7:21; 13:11; 16:28; 18:3,23; 21:43; 24:14; 25:34; John 3:3; 18:36; Acts 1:3,6; 14:22; Rom 14:17; 1 Cor 4:20; 6:9,10; 15:24,50; Gal 5:21; Eph 5:5; Col 1:13; Heb 1:8; 12:28; Rev 1:9; 11:15; 12:10.

Kingdom of “heaven” indicates a rule that is spiritual and heavenly, having its source in heaven. Kingdom of “God” means God’s rule among men or in men’s hearts. Sometimes God’s kingdom means the outward sphere of His rule, sometimes the inner spiritual rule in the hearts of His believers. Both John the Baptist and the Lord Jesus spoke of the kingdom as being “near.” This was because Jesus the King from heaven was on the scene and His ministry was beginning (2:2; 21:5). So there would be a new and greater manifestation of God’s rule than was known in Old Testament days (see the note on God as King at Ps 47:2; also the note at Gen 50:20; etc).

4:19 Being “fishers” of men does not mean catching men for one’s own purposes. The work of Christ’s disciples was (and is) to bring men from sin to Christ and eternal salvation. This is the greatest and noblest work on earth. Observe that it is Christ who makes His disciples “fishers of men” – it does not come out of their own hearts and they cannot accomplish it themselves. Christ makes them that as they “follow” Him – as they take His way, obediently listen to His instructions, and receive the Spirit He gives. From the book of Acts and the letters of the apostles we can see what fishers of men they became.

4:20 Observe the power and authority of Jesus’ call to these men, and their immediate obedience. Here is another example of God’s sovereign choice of some from among men to be His servants (Mark 3:13,14; John 15:16; Acts 22:14,15;

21 And going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother. They were in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. 22 And immediately they left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went around all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and disease among the people. 24 And his fame spread

Gen 12:1; Ex 3:4,10; Josh 1:2; Jer 1:4,5). 4:21,22 The Lord Jesus did not choose His disciples from among the priests in the temple, the learned teachers of the law, the wealthy, or the politically or socially powerful. He chose ordinary people in ordinary jobs, and then made them extraordinary in the work of God's kingdom. Compare 1 Cor 1:26-29. This is still the method of the Lord Jesus.

4:23 "Synagogues" – these were buildings erected by the Jews throughout the land of Israel for the purpose of worship, prayer, and religious instruction and for judging cases related to the law God gave through Moses. They were centers of the religious life of the Jews. The Lord Jesus taught the Word of God in synagogues when their leaders were willing.

Also He preached to crowds on streets or hillsides or wherever they gathered around Him. His message was the good news that God was establishing His rule in human hearts. And He healed every kind of disease, sometimes with a mere word or touch. He did not do miracles for Himself (v 1-7), but in compassion did a great many for others. This was His three-fold ministry as the Messiah of Israel.

Let us learn that teaching and preaching God's truth is very honorable work, one that the Son of God Himself was happy to do. Let us learn also that He set out to help individuals in every way – body, soul, and spirit. He did not preach to suffering people without doing what He could do to relieve their suffering. He is our example.

4:24 "Syria" – the land north and northwest of Galilee. It was occupied for the most part by non-Jews.

"Demon-possessed" – possession by demons is referred to frequently in the accounts of Jesus' ministry. Sometimes the New Testament calls demons "unclean spirits" or "evil spirits." The Bible does not reveal where they came from or how they became demons, but there are hints that may lead us to believe they are fallen angels who joined Satan in his rebellion against God (12:24; 25:41; Rev 12:3). The Bible nowhere suggests that they are the spirits of human beings who have died.

Demon possession is more than demonic influence on individuals from without. It means the taking over of the bodies of individuals by evil spirits who then live in them. The Lord Jesus had absolute authority all over Syria. And they brought to him all who were in the grip of various diseases and acute pains, and those who were demon-possessed, and epileptics and paralytics. And he healed them. 25 And great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan, followed him.

5 And seeing the multitudes, he went up on a mountain, and when he was seated, his over all demons and cast them out of people with a word of command (8:16,28-32). See note also at Lev 17:7.

4:25 Decapolis was a region east of the sea of Galilee and the Jordan river.

5:1 The following teaching of Jesus up to 7:28 is called "The Sermon on the Mount" because Jesus preached it on a mountain side. He had spoken of the nearness of the kingdom of heaven (4:17), and had preached "the good news of the kingdom" (4:23). This sermon shows what Jesus meant when He commanded people to repent. It reveals what entering God's kingdom means, both in one's inner experience and outward behavior. It reveals principles which operate in the Kingdom, and those things which exclude people from the kingdom.

The sermon begins (both in Greek and English) with the word "blessed". So we can say the sermon sets forth the blessed life – who the blessed are and how they should behave. The blessed are those in the kingdom of heaven (5:3). This sermon does not give specific instructions as to how to enter God's kingdom but shows what sort of people are in it, and what they should seek to become and do.

This sermon, for the most part, is for disciples of the Lord Jesus, not for everyone (v 2. But see the note there). Those who will not receive Him as their one teacher and guru, and learn from Him in all things, will not truly understand this sermon or be able to practice it. This is for those who have entered God's kingdom through faith in the Lord Jesus, and those who are not in it cannot really put it into practice (though they may pick out a verse here and there and seem to live according to it). Any attempt they make will be imitation and not reality.

Corrupt and fallen human nature cannot keep God's spiritual holy laws (Rom 8:6,7). And fallen human nature is what we all have by birth – see notes at Gen 8:21; Ps 51:5; Jer 17:9; Rom 3:9,23. To keep the laws and principles of God's kingdom, we need to be changed, given new, spiritual life, and receive God's Holy Spirit. The Lord Jesus gives the Spirit to those who repent and receive Him by faith (3:11; John 7:37-39; 14:16,17).

Only by living in the Spirit can we practice these spiritual principles. See Gal 5:16-25. The more we are controlled by God's Spirit the more possible it will be to live as Christ disciples came to him. 2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the taught. Without God's Spirit it is impossible to be truly spiritual, and all men do not have God's Spirit (John 14:17; Rom 8:9; 1 Cor 2:14; Jude 19).

We cannot become God's children and spiritual people by trying to live according to the Sermon on the Mount. But if we are God's children we should set out by His Spirit to live according to it. For here Jesus is setting forth what it really means to be a child of God, a true believer in Himself, a real disciple. See the note on "disciple" at 10:1.

In interpreting this sermon we should always keep in mind that it is set in the context of the whole Bible, that we cannot understand it if we ignore this fact, and that the better we understand the Bible as a whole, the better we can understand this sermon.

5:2 "Them" means His disciples – those who had left all to follow Him and learn from Him (see note at 10:1). However, it seems clear from 7:28 that many other people besides His small number of disciples came up where they were on the hillside and heard Jesus speak. Some of Jesus' words, especially toward the end of these instructions, seem meant for them as well.

5:3 "Blessed" – this is a translation of a Greek word meaning happy. However it does not mean here a feeling of happiness in the heart, but a happy state, a blessed condition, one that will mean at last eternal joy in God's presence. This word is used 50 times in the Greek New Testament – 28 times in Matthew and Luke alone, 7 times in the Revelation (see references at 11:6). Twice it is used of God – 1 Tim 1:11 and 6:15, and speaks of the perfection of bliss of the Eternal One. The word when used in the NT of people speaks of spiritual blessing, the blessing that comes to those who are in God's kingdom and ruled by God. They have a share in God's happy condition.

This does not mean that the blessed in God's kingdom on earth will never know sorrow or will always experience the emotion of happiness. The fullness of their joy awaits the future. But they have a foretaste of it now, for God shares His joy with His people (John 15:11; 17:13; Rom 14:17; 15:13). True blessedness comes only when we are linked with the true God and His blessedness. The whole Bible was given that men might know of this and come to share it.

See other notes on "blessed" at Luke 11:28; Acts 3:26; Gal 3:14; Eph 1:3; Gen 12:1-3; Num 6:22-27; Deut 28:3-14; Ps 1:1; 119:1. Who are the blessed in this world? The rich? The proud and powerful? Those who are self-confident and feel very good about themselves? That is the way men think, but God's thoughts are different from theirs (Isa 55:8,9; Luke 16:15).

He says the blessed ones are those who are "poor in spirit." This means those who know their spiritual poverty and are humbled before God because of it. Why are they the blessed ones? Because the kingdom of heaven belongs to them. Repentance is necessary to enter God's Kingdom (3:12; 4:17). The poor in spirit are the ones who repent. They do so because they are convicted of their sins, they see the poverty of their spiritual condition, and they know they have no righteousness, no merit to plead before God. So they humble themselves in the dust before the Lord Jesus and receive Him into their hearts and lives.

4 "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

know their spiritual poverty and are humbled before God because of it. Why are they the blessed ones? Because the kingdom of heaven belongs to them. Repentance is necessary to enter God's Kingdom (3:12; 4:17). The poor in spirit are the ones who repent. They do so because they are convicted of their sins, they see the poverty of their spiritual condition, and they know they have no righteousness, no merit to plead before God. So they humble themselves in the dust before the Lord Jesus and receive Him into their hearts and lives.

This is put first of the blessings because this is the way into God's kingdom and the only way. And they who are in God's kingdom, every one of them, have experienced this, and so Jesus calls them blessed. These blessed ones are not those who think highly of themselves, but those who think lowly of themselves. See Luke 18:10-14. Other examples – Gen 18:27; Num 12:3; Job 40:4; 42:5,6; Ps 32:5; 40:17; 51:1-5; 90:8,9; Isa 6:5; Jer 3:25; Dan 9:3-6,20; Rom 7:18-25; Eph 3:8; 1 Tim 1:15. See the opposite of all this in Luke 18:9; Acts 8:9; Rev 3:17. God puts very great value on this quality of humility (18:2,3; Isa 57:15; 66:2; Jam 4:6).

The poor in spirit have true enlightenment – in some measure they see themselves as they really are and God as He really is. Far from thinking they are God (as some people like to do), they feel themselves to be among the worst of people and worthy of no good thing from God. Only God's grace can produce this quality in us. We certainly do not have it by nature. Neither this nor the quality of meekness (v 5) has anything to do with a natural sense of inadequacy, or timidity, or a feeling of inferiority.

5:4 This is like saying "sad people are really the happy ones." We can see from the place Jesus gives to mourning here in this sermon that it is basic to His whole teaching, that it is a foundation stone on which His kingdom is built.

This verse is linked with the preceding one. Those who see their spiritual poverty, their sin and sinfulness, will feel sorrow, will grieve that they are such sinners. And they may, for that matter, lament the sad fallen condition of the whole human race. Jesus is not talking about the sorrow of this world, the selfish sorrow that people feel because they can't get what they want, or because they experience losses, or because their hopes are dashed. That kind of sorrow works death (2 Cor 7:10).

The sorrow of those in God's kingdom is a godly sorrow that works repentance, and so it leads to the happy condition of God's kingdom. Compare Jam 4:8-10. See godly sorrow at work in psalm 51. Such people will know God's own comfort to some extent now (Isa 40:1,2; John 14:1; 16:33; 2 Cor 1:3-5), and know it fully and eternally hereafter

5 "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

6 "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst

after righteousness, for they will be filled.

7 "Blessed are the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.

(Luke 16:25; Rev 21:4).

5:5 Meekness is not weakness. In fact, it is great strength of character. It is a quality of the Son of God, the Lord Jesus Himself (11:29; 21:5; 2 Cor 10:1), and we see what it means by looking at His life. Meekness is consistent with the character of a spiritual soldier mightily fighting the battle for truth and opposing sin and Satan (Eph 6:10-17).

Meekness is a person humbly accepting the circumstances God has brought him into. It is to be willing to suffer for God, to be slighted or despised without rage and retaliation (see 1 Pet 2:21-23). The meek are those who submit to God's will, God's rule over them, and endure what must be endured for His sake (compare 26:39,42; John 18:11). The meek bend their necks to bear Christ's yoke and are willing to learn from Him (11:29; Luke 9:23).

Such people are the spiritually strong of the earth now, the blessed ones who will inherit the whole earth later. The greedy and the grasping, the self-assertive, the self-willed seekers after power and property and prestige will have no part in this earth when God gives it to the meek. Compare Ps 37:1,11. That whole psalm shows the difference between those who are meek and those who are not.

How is meekness to be obtained? The same way the other spiritual qualities are obtained – they can be produced only by the Holy Spirit as we yield to God. He does this by giving people a proper view of themselves and of others, and a proper attitude toward God.

5:6 Righteousness is a great word of the Bible. The words "righteousness," "righteous," and "righteously" are used more than 500 times. These words mean whatever is right and just and true and good in God's eyes. Righteousness is opposed to all wrong and injustice and crookedness. God, His Kingdom, His aims and purposes, His works, His dealings with men, are all absolutely righteous (Ezra 9:15; Ps 11:7; 19:9; 36:6; 97:2; 145:17; Dan 9:14; John 17:25). And He requires men to be righteous if they would be in His Kingdom and His heaven.

This verse does not say blessed are those who hunger and thirst after pleasure or money or even spiritual experience. Sinful men (which is what we all are by nature) need righteousness more than anything else, and it is that which they must seek if they are going to exist in a happy state with God forever. What we desire and seek reveals what kind of people we are. Those who have become the children of God by faith in Christ (John 1:12,13) will desire righteousness. They will want to be righteous themselves and to see righteousness prevail on earth. God's Spirit will produce this desire in them.

If this is not our experience, at least to some extent, then we may be sure we know nothing of God's righteous kingdom. A person who has no hunger for food, no thirst for water is very sick indeed. Those who have no hunger and thirst for righteousness are spiritually dead.

The Bible does not teach renunciation of desire. On the contrary, it teaches us to have right desires and to desire passionately, hungrily, thirstily for right things. The kingdom of God is not for the self-satisfied but for the desperate, the aching, the one who wants it like the body craves for food and water. Those content with what they are, and willing to behave as everyone else in the world, will never know what true blessedness is.

See psalm 119 for an example of a man who hungers and thirsts for righteousness. To seek for righteousness means to hunger and thirst for the righteous God (see Ps 42:1,2; 63:1), and for a continual fellowship and right relationship with God. It is to hunger to be like the Lord Jesus who is the altogether Righteous One (Acts 3:14; 1 Pet 2:21,22; 3:18; 1 John 2:1). It is a strong desire to be finished with all that is dark, low, unworthy of God, and unholy. Such people will be filled. When? Progressively now in this life (2 Cor 3:18; Eph 4:24; Phil 3:12). But completely at Christ's return (Rom 8:29,30; Eph 5:25-27; 1 John 3:1-3).

5:7 This verse does not teach that God will be merciful to us, save us and bring us into His Kingdom, because we are merciful to others. The mercy that saves sinners has nothing to do with whether or not they were previously merciful. See Acts 9:1-6; 1 Tim 1:13,14. Salvation comes only by repentance and faith in Christ (John 3:16; Acts 16:31; Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:3-6).

But those who are saved by God's mercy should show mercy to others. And such will have God's mercy following them all the days of their lives (Ps 23:6). This verse sets forth a spiritual law of God's kingdom which is taught elsewhere in the Bible (6:14,15; Ps 18:25,26; Gal 6:7). God does not lay aside spiritual laws with men after they experience His mercy and enter His kingdom. If people will not be merciful to others, what right have they to expect God to be merciful to them? This verse shows what real Christians should be, and indeed, what they are, to some extent. When God saves men He begins to make them what they should be. If we are not being made merciful, we reveal that He has not changed us and brought us into His merciful kingdom.

What does it mean to be merciful? It is more than to have feelings of compassion – it is to perform kind and helpful acts towards those in need (Luke 10:37; Eph 4:32; Heb 6:10; Jam 3:17). It means to forgive those who offend us and to do good 8 "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called the children of God.

to them. Compare 18:21-35; Luke 10:30-37. The supreme example of all this is the Lord Jesus Himself.

5:8 To be pure in heart does not mean to be sinless now. If it meant that, then no one on earth would ever "see God." See 7:11; Rom 7:18; Gal 5:16,17; Jam 3:2; 1 John 1:8. Jesus taught all His disciples to pray "forgive as our sins" (Luke 11:4).

The Greek word translated pure can mean clean. It can also mean without adulteration – one thing without mixture. "Pure" milk is milk not mixed with water or anything else. "Pure" grain is grain with the chaff removed. "Pure" can also mean free from defilement and guilt. So a pure heart (that is, the inner state of a person) is one that is guilt-free, sincere, upright, without hypocrisy, undivided in its aims, motives and devotion, without a mixture of deceit, darkness, etc. See Jam 4:8. It is a heart fully set on God and righteousness (compare Ps 86:11; 1 Kings 15:14; 2 Chron 16:9).

To try to make the outer things of our lives pure is not enough (see 23:25-28). God wants us to be pure inwardly (Ps 51:6,10). It is the heart God and His people must deal with. He gives an undivided, clean heart. They must guard the heart above all (Prov 4:23; 2 Cor 7:1). The whole message of Christ aims at this very thing – purity, oneness of heart, and the vision of God. Purity of heart begins with repentance and faith in Christ (Acts 15:9). The Lord Jesus, because of the sacrifice of Himself for sinners, purges the conscience and purifies the inner person (Heb 9:14; 10:22). After that believers must walk in the light and renounce all God shows to be wrong (1 John 1:5-7).

"See God" – now believers in Christ have spiritual enlightenment and know God (John 9:39; 17:2,3,6; Acts 26:17,18; 2 Cor 4:4-6; 1 Pet 2:9). They see Him with their spiritual eyes. But eventually they shall see Christ in His divine glory (1 John 3:1-3; 1 Cor 13:12; Rev 22:3).

5:9 Peace is another great word in the Bible, used nearly 250 times. The word appears 90 times in the New Testament, and in every book except 1 John. What does it mean to be a peacemaker? It is wanting peace, striving for peace in God's way. It does not mean trying for peace at the cost of truth or righteousness or justice. It is not saying "peace, peace" when there is no peace (Jer 6:14). It is not compromising with evil. True peace must be based on righteousness, and so there can be no peace to the wicked (Ps 85:10; Isa 32:17; 48:22).

What causes struggles, quarrels, fighting, wars between individuals, families, and nations? Sin – Gal 5:19-21; Jam 3:16; 4:1,2. What makes for peace? Setting men free from the bondage of their sinful

10 "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 11 Blessed are you when men revile you, and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against nature. Anything which promotes that – teaching men the truth of God, showing them how to be reconciled with God, etc – eventually makes for peace, if men respond. Peace with God and the peace of God in the heart will mean peace with others. God in Christ was the great peacemaker. See 2 Cor 5:18-21; Eph 2:14-18; Col 1:21,22.

Human peacemakers must understand that the real problem is sin, and the real remedy is Christ's Gospel. Peacemakers must also have the qualities in the preceding beatitudes. When men are like that they will take a strong stand for truth and righteousness and faith (Eph 6:10-17; 1 Tim 6:12; 2 Tim 4:7; Jude 3), but they will also try to live at peace with everyone and to promote peace between men (Rom 12:18; 14:19; 1 Cor 7:15; Heb 12:14; 1 Pet 3:11).

Why shall peacemakers be called the children of God? Because God is the God of peace (Rom 15:33; Heb 13:20), and He was willing to bear any cost, go to any lengths agreeable with righteousness, to bring men into peace with Himself. When men are like Him in this, they shall be recognized as what they are – the children of the God of peace (v 16).

5:10 This is the last beatitude – vs 11,12 add to it but do not give a new one. This blessing may sound strange to men in general, but it is true for all that.

"For righteousness' sake" – not for political or social or religious reasons, not for reasons of color, caste, creed, or because of fanaticism or error. Persecution for righteousness marks out the children of God from others (John 15:20,21; 2 Tim 3:12; 1 Pet 4:14-16). They are blessed because they are in the happy condition of being on God's side, of standing for God's righteousness and loving it enough to suffer and die for it. This is a blessed state indeed. Persecution comes to such people because the world is full of evil desires, pride, and hatred for the truth.

Sinful men do not want righteousness. They fight those who are for it, and resist the God of righteousness – John 3:19,20; 7:7; 15:18,24; Rom 1:29-32; 8:7; 12:2; 1 John 2:16; 3:12; 5:19 (remember that they persecuted and killed the righteous Son of God – Acts 3:13-15). The disciples of Jesus were righteous peacemakers, but they were despised, beaten, stoned, jailed and killed (Acts 5:40; 7:57,58; 12:1-4; 14:19; 16:22-24; 2 Cor 11:23-26; 2 Tim 3:10-12). Yet they were the blessed ones in the earth, and the kingdom of heaven was theirs. Their afflictions and troubles were for a little while, their blessedness is eternal (2 Cor 4:17,18).

5:11 This is a continuation of the blessing in v 10. Jesus here shows that to be persecuted for righteousness is to be you, falsely, for my sake. 12 Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For in this way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

13 "You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its taste, how can it be made salty again? Then it is good for nothing, but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.

14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Neither do men light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand. And it gives light to all who are in the persecuted for Him. One way men persecute the righteous is by lying about them and slandering them. But to be the kind of people the wicked hate actually is to be in a blessed condition.

5:12 Being able to rejoice in persecution comes from the knowledge that to be persecuted for righteousness and for Christ, works good for His people. Compare Rom 8:17,18; 2 Cor 4:17,18; 1 Pet 1:6,7. The fact that God will reward His servants is seen often in the New Testament (10:41,42; 16:27; Mark 9:41; Luke 6:35; 1 Cor 3:8,14; Col 3:24; Heb 10:35; 2 John 8; Rev 11:18; 22:12).

"Before you" - see 23:34-37; Acts 7:52; Heb 11:35-38. Rejoicing in tribulation was a mark of the apostles - Acts 5:41; 16:22-25; Col 1:24; 1 Pet 4:13.

5:13 God's people are the "salt" of the earth, not the "pepper" or the "sugar." The "you" here are those in God's kingdom, those who have the qualities set forth in vs 3-12, especially those who suffer for righteousness and Christ. But such people as "salt" do not make the world tasty to God! The meaning is different here. Salt preserves things, and God's people preserve the world from becoming totally corrupted, and from being destroyed by God's anger (compare Gen 18:26; 19:22).

"Trampled underfoot by men" - Christianity without the qualities listed in vs 3-12 is useless and deserves to be rejected and destroyed (Luke 14:34,35).

5:14-16 The people described in vs 3-12 are a new creation of God to give spiritual light on earth. Christ was that light while He was on earth (John 8:12; 9:5). Now His followers are "children of the light" and must shine forth with His light which is in them (John 12:35,36; Rom 13:12; 2 Cor 4:4-6; Eph 5:8; 1 Thess 5:5).

5:16 This is the best way to let light shine - not good talk, not good intentions, but good deeds. Many boast of enlightenment who are never kind or helpful to others, and who never glorify God by anything that they do. Such a boast from such people is an abomination to God.

"Father" - this is the name Jesus used above all others for God (about 170 times). The whole New Testament has the name above 350 times). It indicates that God is a person who loves, cares, protects, and house. 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

17 "Do not think that I have come to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I have come, not to destroy, but to fulfil them. 18 For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle will pass away from the Law until all is fulfilled. 19 Therefore whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men to do so, he will be called the least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever practices and teaches them, provides as an ideal father should. The name indicates also that He has spiritual children (v 9; John 1:12,13). We should do good that men might praise Him, not ourselves (compare 1 Cor 10:31).

5:17 "The Law and the Prophets" was a term the Jews used to mean the whole Old Testament. The Lord Jesus is saying His teaching was in harmony with the OT, that its laws, types, sacrifices, prophecies pointed to Himself. All its spiritual principles, the full measure of its righteousness is fulfilled by Him. He came to accomplish the whole will of God revealed there. He is the fulfillment of all that the law and the prophets pictured, described, foretold, and promised (of course, this does not mean that all that is in the prophets was fulfilled at His first coming).

With Jesus now on the scene, the Old Testament is a more glorious book with its profound meaning brought to light; without Him it would be unfulfilled and void of much of its meaning. See Luke 24:27,44; John 1:45; 5:39,46; Acts 3:24-26; 13:27; 1 Pet 1:10,11. The whole book of Hebrews shows some of the ways in which the Lord Jesus fulfilled the OT.

"I have come. . . to fulfil them" - this is one of many reasons why Jesus came from heaven to earth. See also 9:13; 10:35; 20:28; Luke 19:10; John 6:38; 9:39; 10:10,11; 12:46.

5:18 See how Jesus puts His stamp of approval on the Old Testament. See also 4:4; 15:3-6; 22:43; Luke 24:44; John 10:35. He obviously regarded it as the Word of God inspired by God's Spirit. Compare 2 Tim 3:16; Heb 1:1,2; 2 Pet 1:21. He was God incarnate and knew all things, so we should hold the same views of it that He had.

5:19 Here again it is clear that from v 3 Jesus has been talking about those in God's kingdom, those who have become God's children by a new spiritual birth. We cannot enter God's kingdom by trying to keep the law He gave through Moses (Acts 13:38,39; Rom 3:21,28; 8:3; Gal 2:16; Eph 2:8,9; Titus 3:4-7). But after entering it there are spiritual principles which will be at work. These are His own commandments. "Least of these commandments" - we can hardly think that He is referring to the Ten Commandments of the Law, for there was no "least" among those commandments. There is much reason to think that He is he will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will absolutely not enter the kingdom of heaven.

21 "You have heard that it was said to those of olden times, You shall not murder, and whoever murders will be subject to the judgment. 22 But I tell you that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause will be in danger of the judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Empty fellow', will be in danger of the Council; but whoever says, 'You fool', will be in danger of hell fire.

23 "Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there referring to His own commandments, two of which He has already given (vs 12,16), others which He was about to give.

5:20 "Pharisees" - 3:7. Here Jesus teaches plainly that not all people, and not all religious people, are in God's kingdom. A certain kind of righteousness is insufficient. This is self-righteousness, the sort of righteousness people try to gain by trying to keep the law or by doing what they consider good works, the kind of righteousness we see in the Pharisees (23:1-28; Luke 18:10-14. See also Rom 10:1-4; Phil 3:7-9). The Pharisees and scribes (teachers of the law) were the religious leaders of the people, but the righteousness of the very least believer in Christ exceeds theirs, and must do so.

What is this righteousness that God requires if people are to be in His kingdom? It is a righteousness by faith in Christ which links believers with Christ and brings His Spirit into them. They become both righteous before God and changed inwardly so that righteous living is possible to them (Rom 3:24; 5:1-5; 8:3; 2 Cor 5:17; Eph 4:22-24). The rest of the Sermon on the Mount contrasts this righteousness which God approves with that which He rejects. Righteous behavior which comes out of a changed heart will be vastly superior to that which is produced by sinners from their own natures. Indeed, what kind of righteousness could sinners ever produce even by their mightiest efforts? See Isa 64:6.

5:21-26 "Murder" - Ex 20:13. The law teachers and Pharisees would have restricted this commandment to the outward act of murder. Jesus speaks of the inner attitudes of the heart which can result in murder, of uttering words murderous in their contempt. He says the wrong sort of anger is like murder in the heart, and the person guilty of it is as much worthy of hell as the literal murderer (v 22). So men should be very careful in any matter, legal or otherwise that could result in anger, hate, the heart given to murderous thoughts. See 1 John 3:15.

5:22 "I tell you" indicates that Jesus is speaking with absolute authority as the before the altar, and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

25 "Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way to court with him, so that this adversary will not at any time hand you over to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. 26 Truly I say to you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the last copper coin.

27 "You have heard that it was said to those of olden times, 'You shall not commit adultery.' 28 But I tell you that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 And if your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it from you, for it is better for you that one of your parts is lost than Messiah and Son of God.

"Brother" - in the Bible this word is used to indicate various relationships. As well as a literal brother it may mean a fellow Jew, a fellow Christian, a fellow man.

"Empty fellow" - the Greek has "raca" - a word of contempt probably meaning empty, brainless or worthless.

"The Council" - the Sanhedrin. This was the Jewish High Court. There were 71 members of it made up of chief priests, elders and teachers of the law.

"Fool" - it is plain from this verse that to be in danger of hell one does not need to commit what men consider serious crimes. The Lord Jesus is pointing out the importance of the state of the heart.

"Hell fire" - 3:12; 7:19; 13:40,42; 18:8; 25:41; Rev 20:15; 21:8. "Hell" in Greek here is Gehenna. Note at Mark 9:48.

5:24 The implication is that God will not accept our worship and gifts if there is something wrong in our relationship with others (especially with fellow children of God) that is our fault and that we can put right. If we make no attempt at reconciliation we give opportunity to the kind of anger that is like murder in the heart. That is why He begins these verses with the word "therefore."

5:25,26 Here is another way in which God's people should live in peace with others. Hostility and quarrels over money or property are to have no part in their lives (vs 44,45). The Lord Jesus commands His people to reach an agreement with their opponents who want to sue them in court. If they do not obey, God will see to it that they have a great deal of trouble. Compare 1 Cor 6:1-8.

5:27-30 "You shall not commit adultery" - Ex 20:14. Again Jesus goes beyond the literal command of the law and emphasizes the inner thoughts of the heart. When they abstained from outward acts of sin, the Pharisees thought themselves very good people and righteous in God's eyes. They were not careful about the inner life, the state of the heart (23:25-28). One reason God's children experience poverty of spirit, mourning, etc is because they know the very that your whole body be thrown into hell. 30 And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it from you. For it is better for you that one of your parts is lost than that your whole body be thrown into hell.

31 "It has been said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' 32 But I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for the cause of sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery.

33 "Again, you have heard that it was said to those of olden times, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform your vows to the Lord.' 34 But I desires that rise in their hearts show how sinful they are by nature (see Rom 7:7,8). All Jesus' teaching in this sermon, including these verses, is pointed at making people "blessed" - people with the qualities of vs 3-12.

"In his heart" - He is not teaching that those with lustful thoughts might just as well commit acts of adultery. He is not teaching there is no difference between inward thoughts and outward action. Outward acts of sins are far more damaging to others and to ourselves than inward desires. Hate of a brother is evil in itself, but the act of murder goes beyond that and robs the brother of life. Lust is evil, but adultery further pollutes oneself and drags another into sin, with all the evil results that will come from that. If one lusts one might just as well sin outwardly is a lie of Satan. Jesus' emphasis is on watching the heart as well as the outward action.

In vs 29,30 Jesus is not teaching the literal mutilation of the body as an aid to holiness. He knew, as we do, that it is not physical eyes or hands that offend or lead us into sin, and that gouging out an eye or cutting off a hand would not make us better people or less likely to sin. If the right eye is plucked out, the left remains. If both are plucked out the imagination of the sinful heart remains (15:19,20; Gen 8:21; Jer 17:9).

Sin is in the heart and the heart must be dealt with by full repentance and a complete break with the old life. Jesus is speaking in a striking way to emphasize an exceedingly important truth - a person should do anything necessary to keep out of hell, he should cut himself off from any sin, any temptation, any hindrance to entering God's kingdom. The person who will not do this does not value the kingdom of God as he ought, or fear the anger of God as he ought. Paul taught that lusts and sinful acts were like members of the body and must be put to death. See Col 3:5; Rom 8:13.

5:31 "Divorces" - see also 19:3-9; Deut 24:1. Jesus' teaching is plain: there is only one reason that makes divorce acceptable to God - sexual immorality on the part of one of the married couple. Even then Jesus says to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is God's throne, 35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King, 36 And you shall not swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 But let your 'yes' be yes, and your 'no' be no, for whatever is more than this is from the evil one.

38 "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.' 39 But I tell you that you should not resist evil, but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also. 40 And if anyone wants to sue you and take away your coat, let him have your cloak also. 41 And does not demand divorce but only permits it. Remember this teaching is for those who have, to some extent at least, the qualities seen in vs 3-12. How can a person with those qualities divorce his wife or cast off a husband for any reason except the most serious offense? And even then there must be no haste to do so, but remembrance that both are sinners whom God has forgiven. Compare 6:14,15.

5:33-37 "Swear" - refers to the voluntary (and often very careless) use of oaths in every day life to convince others that one is telling the truth. See also Jam 5:12. Jesus tells us to be men of our word, absolutely truthful in all we say and promise. As Jesus' disciples we must never say yes when we mean no, or say no when we mean yes. Lying and deception are hateful to God and have no place in God's kingdom. See notes at Ps 5:6; 15:2; Prov 6:16-19; Eph 4:15,25; Col 3:9,10. And as God's children we should never take God's name in vain or use it lightly, but show proper reverence for His name and all that pertains to Him (Ex 20:7).

5:37 "The evil one" - or it could be translated simply "evil." Lying, swearing, and using God's name in vain have their origin in the evil one, Satan (John 8:44), but come also from the evil in people's hearts and minds.

5:38 Ex 21:24,25; Lev 24:20. That was the rule for the society, for the nation. It was a principle of perfect justice.

5:39-41 "You" in these verses are Christ's disciples. He is speaking of a principle that should reign in the spiritual kingdom He sets up in His people's hearts. It has nothing whatever to do with how a nation governs itself. Governments must resist evil (see Rom 13:1-7). The principle here concerns the relationship of Christ's individual disciples to those who wrong them, not to the state's relationship to individuals, or to other states. Those in Christ's kingdom are to show forth the qualities of vs 3-12.

The desire for revenge is deeply rooted in man's sinful nature. Some people kill others for some insult or slight injury. One purpose of the law of Moses (Ex 21:24,25) was to prevent such a thing and promote perfect justice. Jesus goes further and whoever compels you to go a mile, go with him two miles. 42 Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbour, and hate your enemy.' 44 But I say to you, Love your enemies. Bless those who curse you. Do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who abuse you and persecute you, 45 so that you may be the children of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just reveals the attitude His people should show in the face of injury and injustice. They are not to demand their rights, or think of self, but consider how to do good to those who injure them.

God's people must resist Satan (Jam 4:7; 1 Pet 5:9), and resist sin in the church (1 Cor 5:11-13; 1 Tim 5:20). But here Jesus is speaking of evil persons who wrong them as individuals. This surely does not mean that Christians should not protect their families and help others who are in danger from evil men. But they are not to fight those who would do them some injury or injustice, or seek vengeance on them. Those in God's kingdom are not to meet violence with violence, or force with force (26:52).

Jesus Himself pointed out the sins of the Jews and resisted the evil they did to God's house (see 21:12). But He did not resist those who spit in His face and beat His back and crucified Him (though He could have called angels to His aid (26:52,53)). Followers of Christ should follow Him in their attitude to personal injuries. See 1 Pet 2:21-23. This passage of Scripture has nothing to do with passive resistance to achieve political purposes.

5:42 The principle is the same as that in the above verse – reject self and represent God's spiritual kingdom which is one of grace, mercy, love and kindness. Disciples of Christ must think of others and their needs as He did. But should we give to a person who begs for money to buy intoxicating drink or drugs? Or to a crook who makes his living deceiving others? Surely our giving should not cause harm, or actually promote idleness, begging, or evil. The Lord Jesus wants us to be compassionate but not stupid. When people are in real need (6:2), we should help if we can. See 1 John 3:17,18. We may not be able to give what such people ask or all they ask, but we can give something. Compare Acts 3:6.

5:43-47 Love is at the heart of God's spiritual kingdom. The King is the embodiment of love (1 John 4:8), and His rule is love (John 13:34) and everyone in God's kingdom must obey this rule. They are to aim at perfection of love (v 48. Compare 1 John 4:16-18). Love is the fulfilling of all God's law (Rom 13:8-10).

The Old Testament nowhere said the Jews should hate their enemy, but that was the

and on the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even tax collectors do the same? 47 And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others? Do not even tax collectors do so? 48 Therefore be perfect, just as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

6 "Watch out that you do not do your charitable deeds before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

traditional teaching of the religious leaders in Israel. It was actually contrary to such verses as Ex 23:4,5 and Prov 25:21. We cannot become God's children by practicing the principle of love, but if we are God's children, we show that we are such by practicing it (v 45). God loved His enemies (Rom 5:8-10; Col 1:21,22), and He does good to them.

"Pray for those" (v 44) – Luke 6:27,28. 5:46 Tax collectors were usually Jews who served the Romans (who ruled the Jewish people at that time). Their fellow countrymen considered them traitors. Also they had a reputation for greed. 5:47 Those in God's spiritual kingdom must act differently, be better, do more than those who are not. If they do not, what evidence is there that they are in it? See v 20.

5:48 This is the only possible standard a perfect God could set before His people. God is to be their model, and not this fallen world. But only sinless people (if any could ever be found) could perfectly live up to it. However, everyone in the kingdom should aim to do so. Perfection in behavior is the goal set before Christians in other places in the New Testament. See 2 Cor 13:11; Col 1:28; 4:12; 2 Tim 3:17; Heb 13:21; Jam 1:4; 1 John 2:1,6. Aiming at perfection is not the same as achieving it – Rom 7:18,25; Phil 3:12; Jam 3:2.

Verses 39-48 reveal certain plain alternatives – who shall rule us, self or God? What principles shall we follow – the principle that self comes first and must be defended, revenged and promoted, or the principle that self must be denied, and God's kingdom put first? The constant theme of the Sermon on Mount is dying to self and being alive toward God; everything done to please Him, nothing to please self. Great motive power is needed to keep this sermon with its great spiritual demands. What is the only one that will work? See John 14:23,24.

6:1 Men may see the righteous acts or charitable works of God's people and it is right that they should (5:16). But His people must not do them hoping men will see them and praise them. It is enough that God sees and approves. There must be no hypocrisy in God's kingdom, no using of religious acts to impress men, gain a name, or get praise.

2 "Therefore when you do charitable deeds, do not blow a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, so that they may get glory from men. Truly I say to you, they will have their reward. 3 But when you do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 so that your charitable deeds will be in secret. And your Father himself, who sees in secret, will reward you openly.

5 "And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners, so that they will be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward. 6 But you, when you pray, go into your room, and shutting your door, pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. 7 But when you pray, do not use empty repetitions, as the pagans do. For they think that they will be heard because of their many words. 8 So do not be like them, for your Father knows what things you need, before you ask him.

9 "Therefore pray in this way:

Our Father who is in heaven,

"Reward" – references at 5:12.

6:2 Prov 22:9; Acts 20:35; Gal 2:10; Jam 2:15,16; 1 John 3:17,18. Notes and references on giving at 2 Cor 9:15. Christ's disciples must not call attention to their giving. Standing with a rupee in one hand and a trumpet in the other is not the way for them. That is the way of hypocrites – vs 5,16; 23:5. Hypocrites do not do good deeds simply because it is their duty and privilege to do them. If others did not see or know of them, they would never do any good deeds at all. God will not honor such people, because they are not seeking God's honor. Compare John 5:44; 12:26; 1 Cor 4:5; 2 Cor 10:18; Gal 1:10; 1 Thess 2:4.

6:3,4 In other words, tell it to absolutely no one, not even to yourself to take pride in it or to praise self. God's people do not need to keep a record of their good deeds – God will do that. Jesus is emphasizing again that those in His spiritual kingdom must renounce self and live for God alone, ignoring man's approval or blame. Acts of mercy must not become acts for applause.

6:5,6 Prayer must be for God's ear alone. It is enough that He hears. Hypocrites are not concerned about God – they want to impress men. They may seem to be worshiping God, but are really worshiping themselves. Public prayer is good, but it has its dangers. It may sometimes be difficult to speak to God without trying to impress others who are listening. This may be one reason for Jesus' emphasis on secret prayer. It will be more direct, more real, with no temptation to impress others.

6:7 Our praying should be neither mechanical or in ignorance. A name repeated over and over (see 1 Kings 18:26; Acts 19:34), or a formula of words constantly repeated, or piling up words to convince God to listen – such things have no power at all with God. God does not require our babbling to know what we need and give it to us. We do not need to wake Him up, or capture His attention (Ps 34:15; 121:2-5; 2 Chron 16:9). And we need not instruct Him about the things that are necessary for us to have. Christ's disciples do not have a God who is more persuaded to answer, the more words they speak.

6:8 "Father" – note at 5:16. Some may ask, "if God knows what we need before we ask, then why ask?" The answer is simple – we are to ask because He tells us to do so (v 9; 7:7; Luke 18:1; John 16:24). It is one of the ways in which God's people have fellowship with God, experience His joy, and obtain what is needed. It is a way which God uses to teach them many spiritual lessons. It is also a constant reminder that they are dependent on God for everything and that they should acknowledge it.

6:9 The following prayer covers those things which should be of greatest concern to Christ's disciples. See what great truth, what important requests can be put in simple language and few words. Not everything God's people will pray for is here – just those things that should daily be in their minds. This prayer is a model, an example, a sample of how they should pray and what they should pray for. We may pray for many things besides those mentioned here, but we should never think we have gotten beyond the requests of this prayer.

The words "this day" and "daily" in v 11 indicate that the requests of this prayer are good and proper ones to make every day, and not just occasionally in church. The plural word "our" indicates that these requests are appropriate for two or more members of a family, or a number of believers, to make together. Perhaps it indicates also that an individual who privately prays alone the lines of this prayer (and this is surely a good thing to do) is to think of others along with himself – his or her family, or friends, or church, or an even wider circle of believers.

"Father" – see the note at 5:16. God's people are to have God-centered prayers not self-centered ones. And we should approach Him as our loving Father who is ready to listen to us and help us (7:9-11). When we pray we are to think clearly about the One we are speaking to. The words "in heaven" indicate majesty and greatness and transcendence. The Father in heaven is the great Creator of the universe, the all-powerful God who can hear every prayer and do all things according to His own will and purpose.

"Hallowed by your name" – name means God's nature and character, who and what He is. The desire that God be honored on earth should be the very first concern of every disciple of Jesus. This must come hallowed be your name.

10 Your kingdom come.

Your will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For yours is the kingdom, and the power, before personal requests, not merely in prayer, but in life as a whole. Their prayers, desires, deeds and words should all be for God's glory, just as Christ's were (5:16; John 8:29; 17:4; 1 Cor 10:31). Is it not probable that many of our prayers remain unanswered because in our asking we do not put God's honor first in our thoughts and desires?

"Hallowed" means to be considered holy. God is the absolutely holy one, and those who pray to Him should keep this in mind. We should always want God's name to be honored and glorified in our own lives, in our families, and among the people with whom we associate. Also, perhaps, this is a prayer that God Himself will hallow His name, that He would bring about conditions among men that they would recognize the holy nature of the one true God, that He would cause people to respect and honor Him. Compare Ezek 36:23. Notes on God's holiness at Lev 20:7; Isa 6:3; Rev 15:4. 6:10 "Your kingdom come" - this concern also has to do with God, not with personal needs. But if God's kingdom (4:17) has already come, and Christ's disciples are in it, why should they pray that it might come? It has come now only in a hidden, spiritual sense in the hearts of His people. This prayer may express a desire for the spread of His kingdom in the world, that more and more people would submit in their hearts to God's rule. Or, more likely, it may be a prayer for God's kingdom to come openly and be manifest in all the earth (see 16:27,28; 25:31; Luke 21:31; 22:18, 29,30; Acts 1:6; Rev 11:15; 20:4-6). In this case it would be like praying for the return of the Lord Jesus (Rev 22:20).

"Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven" - is it not true that the will of God in heaven is done perfectly, immediately, heartily, joyously, faithfully, constantly? That is how we should want things in the whole earth, including in ourselves as individuals, in our families, and our churches. This prayer will have its complete fulfillment only when the prayer before it is fulfilled. Now everywhere in the earth the will of God is either unknown or resisted, disobeyed and despised. As individuals who pray this prayer we should make it the great concern of our life to know and do the will of God ourselves - Col 1:9; 4:12; Heb 13:20,21; 1 John 2:17; 5:14; Rev 2:26.

6:11 "Our daily bread" - after first praying for the great matters that have to do with God, disciples may turn to requests for their own needs. Bread here signifies the basic necessities of life. Observe carefully that Jesus did not tell us to pray for riches, or even for many days' needs to be given in advance. Disciples are to recognize that their day by day life on earth is totally dependent on God, and look to Him in faith to meet their needs (vs 25-33).

This does not mean that disciples are to stop working and beg God for their food. See 2 Thess 3:10; 1 Tim 5:8. They are to work, but at the same time to recognize it is God's grace and not their mere working which keeps them supplied. Should the rich, and those who always have large supplies of everything they need, pray this prayer? Certainly. They too need to recognize that they are dependent on God for everything, and that what they have today can be gone tomorrow. See Prov 23:5.

6:12 "Forgive us our debts" - compare this with Luke 11:4, where the wording is "forgive us our sins." Why has Jesus given us the same prayer in different words? Perhaps He meant the word "sins" to indicate things we have done, actual trespasses, sins of commission, and the word "debts" to signify what we have failed to do, sins of omission. However that may be, by comparing Matthew with Luke here we can see that debts toward God too are sins. We owe God perfect love and perfect obedience, and come short in our payments. The prayer Jesus taught us is not complete without confession of sin.

Keep in mind that this is a sample of the kind of prayer that all of His disciples should make, not only then, but throughout this whole age of grace. From this we judge that Jesus did not think that any of His disciples would reach a state of sinless perfection on this earth, that any of them would ever be completely beyond the daily need for forgiveness. It is plain that if day by day we need to ask for forgiveness, then day by day, either in what we do or in what we fail to do, or in what we think or desire, we are guilty of sinning and need forgiveness. Jesus would not tell us to ask for something we do not need, that did not relate to us.

On our proneness to sin and need of forgiveness see 7:11; Rom 7:18,21; Gal 5:16,17; Jam 3:2; 1 John 1:8; 1 Kings 8:46. On forgiveness see notes at vs 14,15; 9:5-7; 12:31; 18:23-35; etc. Observe that we have a right to pray for forgiveness only if we forgive those who have offended us. If we do not forgive them, how dare we think that God should forgive us?

6:13 "Lead us not into temptation" - God does not tempt men to sin. Temptation comes from Satan and from one's own heart (4:1-3; 1 Thess 3:5; Jam 1:13,14). And we must understand that we are dependent on God alone to keep us safe in time of temptation (1 Cor 10:13).

See David's prayer in Ps 141:4 - surely a and the glory, forever. Amen.

14 "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, 15 but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 "Moreover when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites, putting on a gloomy appearance. For they disfigure their faces, so that they may appear prayer God delights to answer. God does try men (see notes at Gen 22:1; Ps 66:10-12), but that is a different matter. When we pray this prayer we are asking God to act according to His will, and so we are not asking Him to keep us from all trials. We are asking that He lead us not into temptation, that He would not lead us, who are so sinful and weak, in such a way that we fall into the hands of Satan the tempter.

One more fact we should understand – it is quite possible to pray like this and at the same time have a secret desire to be overcome by temptation and to sin. This, of course, is insincere and hypocritical praying, and in such a case we should not think that God is obliged to answer us and keep us from falling. But when we pray this prayer in the right spirit, we are setting ourselves against all temptation and sin, and against the desire to be tempted. And this we must do to be successful in the spiritual life.

"Evil" – this could also be translated "the evil one," meaning Satan. The author of these notes thinks that here the translation "evil" is better than "the evil one", because it is a more general, more inclusive term. It refers to any kind of evil, from any source. The prayer to "deliver us" is the reverse of the previous request about temptation. This is something God will surely do for the trusting, prayerful disciple of Christ. Jesus would not teach us to pray for something it was not God's will to do. In this prayer Christ wants us to acknowledge that God alone can deliver us from evil within or without or from Satan, that we cannot be delivered by our own strength and wisdom.

In this whole prayer we see the relationship which must exist between God and a disciple of Jesus. God is the mighty one, the loving Father who supplies everything needed; the disciple is weak and needy and must look to God for everything. God is to be honored, not the disciple, His will done, not the disciple's. All the disciple can do is ask – "give", "forgive", "deliver." Jesus is making abundantly clear our utter dependence on a loving God.

"Yours is the kingdom. . .Amen" – a very fitting conclusion to this prayer, or any prayer. See other notes on prayer at 7:7-12; Mark 11:24; Luke 11:1-13; 18:1-8; Rom 8:26,27; Eph 14:6,7; Col 1:9; 1 Thess 5:18; Heb 11:6; Jam 1:5-8; 5:16-18; 1 John 5:14,15; Gen 18:32.

6:14,15 Compare Matt 18:21-35. This does not mean that men can earn God's to men to be fasting. Truly I say to you, they have their reward. 17 But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, 18 so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you openly.

19 "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up for forgiveness by forgiving others. Forgiveness is a gift of God's grace (notes at 9:5-7; etc). But who can receive this gift of forgiveness? Only those who repent and turn to Christ (3:2; 4:17; Luke 24:47), those in whom the Holy Spirit is working to produce the kind of people described in 5:3-12. One evidence of the Spirit's working in them is that they forgive others.

If people are not willing to forgive others they show they have not been forgiven themselves and have not received God's grace. And they will never be forgiven until they are brought to repentance and faith in Christ and are changed into the sort of people who forgive others. And for those who are already in God's kingdom, any refusal to forgive others is a very serious matter. Those guilty of it will experience God's frown and God's chastening until they learn to forgive.

6:16 This means a voluntary fast for the purpose of seeking God, disciplining the body for the sake of one's spiritual life. Compare Ps 35:13; Isa 58:6,7; Joel 1:14; 2:12. That which should be used as a means to help the spiritual life can, if abused, reveal there is no spiritual life to help. To fast in an attempt to get man's praise is monstrous. Notice Jesus says "when you fast" – He regarded fasting as good and right. He fasted 40 days (4:1) and His disciples would fast (9:14,15).

6:17,18 God rewards not every kind of fasting, but only that done from the right motives. True fasting has to do with a disciple's secret dealings with God. Others should not even be able to guess what is happening.

6:19 "Treasures" – a word indicating all that men love and count as treasures, whether money or property of some sort, or anything else. The attitude which people should have toward such things appears also in other Scriptures – for example, Luke 12:16-21; 1 Tim 6:6-10,17-19.

"Moth", "rust" and "thieves" speak of the perishing nature of worldly possessions. They may be here today and gone tomorrow. If they are not gone tomorrow we may be; and what are we laying up in heaven which will endure forever? Observe that the Lord strictly forbids His disciples to lay up treasures here. Therefore to do so is disobedience to His instructions (and therefore sin) as well as foolishness.

6:20 "Treasures in heaven" – the rewards God gives His servants (5:12). We store them up by service to God and acts of kindness and mercy to men (19:21; Ps yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroy, and where thieves do not break in or steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 "The light of the body is the eye. Therefore if your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. Therefore if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 "No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other, or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.

25 "Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; or for your body, what you will put on. Is not the life

112:9; Prov 19:17; 1 Cor 9:25; 2 Cor 9:15; 2 Tim 4:8; Heb 6:10; 1 Pet 5:4). We can do things on earth which will have eternal results. We can live for the sake of eternity rather than for our brief time here. 6:21 The Lord Jesus does not want us to love this world and its treasures, but to set our hearts on heaven. Compare Col 3:1,2; 1 John 2:15-17. There are only two possible kinds of treasures – the perishing ones in this world or the eternal ones in heaven. Which should a sensible person labor for? 6:22,23 This is true in both the physical and spiritual realm, but the Lord Jesus is speaking of spiritual matters. The subject is the same as before – treasures. To fix the eye on something is to desire it. Good spiritual eyes see things as they are and desire the glory of God, the things of the kingdom of light, and the eternal rewards He gives to those who serve Him. Bad spiritual eyes do not see things as they really are, and desire the things of time, the things related to sin, self, and darkness. They see no glory of Christ and no value in salvation (2 Cor 4:4).

The direction in which the eyes of our mind and heart look determines whether we will be filled with God's light or the darkness of sin. There are only two possible kinds of vision – that which is set on the things of this world, or that which is set on the things of heaven. Compare 2 Cor 4:18; Heb 11:26,27. God will hold us responsible for where we keep our eyes (Luke 11:35).

6:24 The subject is the same as that in vs 19-23.

"Money" – translated from a word which means riches or treasure. It signifies what men consider valuable in this world. The so-called treasures of earth can become a terrible master, a dictator that makes men serve them. They compel men to lie, cheat, steal and lose their souls. There are only two masters possible – God, or Satan who uses the "treasures" of earth to enslave men. See Satan's attempt to destroy Christ in 4:8,9. Any person, even one who thinks he is a Christian, who is serving money or worldly wealth of any kind, and says he is more than food, and the body more than clothing? 26 See the birds of the air. For they do not sow, they do not reap or gather into barns. Yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they? 27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit to his height?

28 "And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not work, they do not spin. 29 And yet I tell you that even Solomon in all his glory was not adorned like one of these. 30 Therefore, if God clothes the grass of the field like this, which today is here, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? 31 Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or, 'What will we drink?' or, 'What will we wear?' 32 (For the servant of God, is either deceived or a liar. The service of God is utterly, eternally opposed to the service of anything else (4:10).

Various countries have various gods and idols, but money is the universal idol of the world, the thing that people everywhere love, bow down to, and serve. The believer in Christ must renounce this idol as they do every other idol (compare Col 3:5; 1 John 5:21; Luke 14:33).

6:25-34 These verses too are related to the subject begun in v 19. One reason unbelievers store up treasures on earth is because they want security, and they have no trust in God. Disciples of Jesus are not to be so. Theirs should be a life free of worry (Phil 4:6,7). Of course they should plan, and work, and do what they can to provide for their families (Gen 3:19; 2 Thess 3:10; 1 Tim 5:8). But their trust in God should be such that they are not anxious even about the basic necessities of life – food, water and clothing. If they worry it is because their faith is small (v 30). Believers are not to act like unbelievers, as though they had no heavenly Father to look after them (v 32). If disciples do their part, God will surely do His (v 33).

6:26 Nature can teach us spiritual lessons. See, for example, Ps 19:1-4; Prov 6:6; 30:24-28. The God who is kind to birds will not forget His own children. But even birds do not sit on a limb and expect God to drop food in their mouths. They build their nests and gather the food God provides.

6:29 Solomon was the richest of all Israel's kings and lived in the greatest luxury and magnificence (1 Kings 10:23; Eccl 2:7-9).

6:30 "Little faith" – on four or more occasions Jesus spoke of His disciples little faith. See also 8:26; 14:31; 16:8; 17:20; Luke 17:5,6. Little faith does not mean no faith. Some have the faith that enables them to receive the forgiveness of sins and eternal life, yet not enough to escape their worries and fears, or to give them confidence in times of danger, or to accomplish seemingly impossible things by God's grace, or to help others as they might otherwise do.

6:32 God wants His people to be different

Gentiles go after all these things.) For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. 34 Therefore, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Its own trouble is enough for the day.

7 "Do not judge, so that you will not be judged. 2 For with the judgment you judge, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.

from all others, a unique, trusting, happy people, who go after heavenly spiritual things.

6:33 Disciples of Christ have chosen God as their master, not money, not the needs of the body, not anything of earth. They are to set their eyes on Him and His glory (vs 22-24). Their priorities are to be right. Their chief concern should be for God's kingdom and God's righteousness. They should care more about that than about their own needs.

To seek for God's kingdom cannot mean that disciples should try to enter it, for they are already in it. It means to seek the good of God's kingdom, its glory, its power and the rule of God more and more in themselves and in other people. Compare Rom 2:7. What is it to seek for God's righteousness? It does not mean to seek justification, because believers are already justified (Rom 5:1). It means to make His righteousness one of our chief concerns, to seek to be righteous in our personal lives as God is righteous, to have the right style of living that only He can produce in us (note at 5:6), to see His righteousness fulfilled in others and in our relationships with others. Those who put God first in all things will find that God takes care of them and gives them all they need (Phil 4:19).

6:34 Compare Phil 4:6; 1 Pet 5:7; Ps 23:1. There are four good reasons seen here in Matt 6:25-34 why believers should not worry.

First, the Lord Jesus three times forbids it (vs 25,31,34).

Second, worry is completely useless (v 27).

Third, worry makes believers act like unbelievers (v 32).

Fourth, believers have a heavenly Father to look after them and give them all they need (vs 30,33).

A fifth reason is implied - worry dishonors God. It is as if a person is saying "my heavenly Father is unable or unwilling to look after me." God does not deny that needs will occur or that troubles and difficulties will come. He only tells us to live one day at a time and have confidence in Him. See also John 14:1; Phil 4:6,7.

7:1,2 "Do not judge" - compare Rom 14:1-4,10-13. This refers to judging in the sense of condemnation - harsh, severe, unloving criticism. It does not mean that

3 "And why do you look at the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank that is in your own eye? 4 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' and, look, a plank is in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite! First take the plank out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

6 "Do not give what is holy to the dogs, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, so that they do not trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces.

the church should not judge evil and exercise discipline. See Acts 5:1-11; 1 Cor 5:1-5,12,13. It does not mean that one should not use discernment. How could we obey the Lord's words in vs 6, 15 and 20, if we did not look carefully at others and learn what they are like from what we see? Jesus taught us to be kind, but not to be blind.

But we are not to try to take God's place and condemn others. If we condemn others we will be condemned. In this matter at least, others will treat us as we treat them. More importantly, God Himself will judge us. This does not mean He will condemn His children to hell if they judge others. It means He will judge and chastise us as His children. See 1 Cor 11:31,32; Heb 12:5-11; 1 Pet 4:17.

7:3-5 As long as we have a harsh critical spirit we are incapable of helping others. Our very attitude is one "plank" we may have in our eye. Our high estimate of ourselves makes us like a blind oculist trying to prescribe glasses for others. Jesus calls such people "hypocrites" because those who judge others are guilty themselves (Rom 2:1), and have not faced themselves or judged themselves as they ought. God has not sent His children into the world as judges but as witnesses (Acts 1:8). Each disciple of Christ should think that others are better than himself - Phil 2:3. If we do that we will not condemn them.

7:6 Jesus means there are some people in the world who in their behavior are like pigs and dogs - they want to roll in the mire of sin and indulge in moral filth (by "dogs" He meant the street scavengers of villages that we see in many parts of the world, not household pets). They are not interested in repentance or God's kingdom. Compare Ps 22:16; Isa 56:11; Phil 3:2; 2 Pet 2:22; Jude 10; Rev 22:15. Such people are thoughtless and greedy, and oppose truth and righteousness.

His people are to discern such, and refrain from giving them holy truth or wisdom's pearls - until they repent, if such a time ever comes. Does this mean God's people should not preach to the unconverted? Of course not (Matt 28:19,20; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:46,47). But they must be discriminating and careful - wise as serpents and harmless as doves, knowing when to speak and when to be

7 "Ask, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

9 "Or which one of you, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone? 10 Or if he asks for fish, will he give him a serpent? 11 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give silent, and what to say and what not to say to various kinds of people (10:14,16. Compare Luke 23:8,9; Acts 13:46; 18:6). 7:7,8 Jesus gives these great promises to God's children. They are in the context of this Sermon on the Mount where we are already told what good things we should ask for and seek (6:9-15,33). So our praying should be in accordance with all that. The Bible does not give us sweeping promises that God will give us anything we ask for even if He knows it is bad for us. We should ask God for those things which will enable us to live according to His teachings. And for this we need a continual supply of God's grace to us, the power of the Holy Spirit, a pure, undivided heart, etc.

The words "seek" and "knock" indicate persistence in prayer. We should keep on seeking until we find, keep on knocking until God opens the door. Of course these verses do not teach us to ask men for what we need. Quite the opposite. We are to ask God. See also Ps 34:10; 69:32; Jer 29:13; Hos 10:12; Luke 11:5-11; 18:1-8; 1 Thess 5:17.

7:11 "You then, being evil" – this is Jesus' word to His own disciples (Peter, James and John were there, and the other apostles. See 5:1,2). They were certainly no worse than other people – indeed, they were among the best people on earth. But Jesus is describing them as they were in the eyes of a holy God, and so He calls them evil (compare 19:17; Ps 14:1-3). Jesus was emphasizing the sinfulness of all men, including His own people. Wrong thoughts, bad desires, foolish and improper acts, failure to obey all of God's commands – all this is evidence of evil natures. And the disciples were not sinless in thought, word, and deed.

If anyone thinks he is superior to the original disciples, is he not making a huge mistake? Compare 6:12; Rom 3:9; 7:18,25; Gal 5:17; 1 Tim 1:15; Jam 3:2; 1 John 1:8; 1 Kings 8:46. When we approach God in prayer, we must not come with elevated views of our own righteousness (like the Pharisee in Luke 18:10-12), but conscious of the weakness and sinfulness of our natures, and aware that if we receive anything from Him it is because of His grace and mercy.

Observe one more thing here. Jesus did not call His disciples "evildoers" as He did false prophets (v 23 – a different Greek word is used here). To say that His disciples have good things to those who ask him? 12 Therefore, in everything, whatever you want people to do to you, do the same to them. For this is the Law and the Prophets.

13 "Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many there are who go in through it. 14 Because narrow is the gate, and strait is the way that leads to life, and few there are who find it.

sinful natures is not the same as saying that they are living in sin. Our natures our evil, but we need not be evildoers. Christ's disciples have a new holy nature along with the old (Eph 4:22-24), and by God's grace they can get the victory over their evil natures and live for Him (Rom 6:12-14).

7:12 The Lord Jesus revealed how gracious God is. He is a loving Father always giving good things and seeking our highest good. Now Jesus tells us to do likewise. This is not a mere rule to follow; it is a spirit of love to have. We must be what we should be before we can do what we should do. "Law and Prophets" means the whole Old Testament (5:17). The essence of the OT is seen in 22:35-40; Rom 13:8-10.

7:13,14 Both the gate and way are narrow and restricted. Those who enter cannot take with them all the "baggage" of the world. Sin and selfishness and egoism, other gods and other ways must be left behind. Compare 5:29,30.

Entering the narrow way requires repentance (3:2; 4:17), denial of self (16:24-26), humbling of self to go God's way (5:3-5), and a willingness to accept the rule of the one true God in one's life (v 21; 6:9,10,33).

The narrow gate is the only way into God's kingdom, and the Lord Jesus Himself is both the "gate" and the "way" – John 10:7-10; 14:6. So faith in Him is the absolutely essential thing – John 3:36; 8:24; Acts 4:12; 16:31; Rom 3:21-25; Gal 2:16; Eph 2:8,9. True faith in Christ will be joined with repentance, self-denial, and a willingness to submit to God. If these things are absent can faith be genuine? (See the note at Acts 22:10).

God's "narrow" way leads to life – spiritual life, eternal life with God – John 1:12,13; 3:16; 5:24; 6:47. But compared with the multitudes of earth "few" ever find this narrow way. This is because few will desire it or search for it, few are willing to repent, humble themselves and trust the Lord Jesus alone. The few who find God's way are those who want it above everything else, who cannot rest until they find it. And this is a result of God's work in their hearts.

Most people are in the "broad" way. This is the way of the world, the way of sinners, the way of the worship of many gods, or none, the way of living according to one's sinful nature, the way of doing what pleases self without concern for what pleases God, the way of ignorance of the truth, the way of rejecting the Lord Jesus who is the true way

15 "Beware of false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. 16 You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorn bushes, or figs from thistles? 17 In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit, but a rotten tree produces bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, nor can a rotten tree produce good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not produce good fruit is (Deut 11:28; Jud 2:17; Ps 1:6; Prov 14:12; 21:2,8; Eph 4:17-19; Col 3:5-7). The end of that way is destruction. That means spiritual death, separation from God, and the lake of fire (3:10; 5:30; 25:46; Luke 16:22-24; 2 Thess 1:8,9; Rev 20:15; 21:8).

The Lord Jesus tells men to enter the narrow gate – not to admire it, or speculate about it. His disciples had already entered. Here He speaks to those who had not entered and calls them to make a decision, a decision based on all He had been teaching. Compare Ezek 18:30-32. See Luke 13:24.

"Strait" – this word does not mean "straight," but "affording little space" or "confined in area." It is translated from a Greek word that means "restricted" or "pressed together" or "confined." It is a different word than the one translated "narrow" in this verse. The way of Christ is certainly wide enough and large enough for all who truly want to be in it and who will submit to Him in faith, but too narrow, too restricted, too difficult for anyone else.

7:15-20 The Lord tells us to watch out for false prophets because they may not be obvious. They may have the appearance of genuine servants of God (sheep's clothing), but they are servants of Satan. See 2 Cor 11:13,14. Their teaching and ways are destructive (they are like wolves, the natural enemies of sheep – John 10:12; Acts 20:29,30). Their fruit (their teaching and their activities which are a result of their teaching) will reveal what they are, and the disciples of Christ who have discernment will know what they are. Their nature will be manifest in what they say and do not say, in what they do and do not do. If they continually bear bad fruit they cannot be good trees.

The warning to watch out for false prophets comes just after Jesus's exhortation to enter the narrow way. False prophets will teach things contrary to the teachings of the Lord Jesus. They will present other ways and will try to keep people from entering the narrow way (23:13). Their end will be in accordance with their works (v 19; 3:10; 2 Cor 11:15). On false prophets see Jer 14:14,15; 23:25,26; Ezek 13:1-9; Matt 24:11,24; Rom 16:17,18; 1 Tim 4:1,2; 2 Tim 4:3,4; 2 Pet 2:1; 1 John 4:1; Jude 4; 7:21-23 "Lord" – see notes at Luke 2:11; Phil 2:10,11. Here the subject is the same as in the previous verses – false prophets.

cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 Therefore, you will know them by their fruits.

21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons, and in your name perform many miracles?' 23 And then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew

They may use the word "Lord" when referring to Jesus, but they will not do what he says. Verse 21 does not mean that salvation can be gained by good works. God's will is that men should repent, put their trust in the Lord Jesus, submit to Him and do what He says (17:5; John 6:29; Acts 17:30; Rom 10:9,10. See the long note at Acts 22:10). False prophets do not do this. That which rules their lives is not the will of God but their own wills. They may speak much about the kingdom of God but they are not in it.

Many false prophets are deceived (v 22). They may think they are teaching the truth, but usually they do not know the truth, and are not trying to find the truth. They think the fact that they are prophesying and doing miracles is proof that they are in the kingdom of God. They will learn the true state of things on "that day" – the day of God's judgment.

Let us learn now that the ability to preach sermons is no sign of holiness, being able to do miracles is not evidence of salvation. Is it possible for those who are not true servants of God to prophesy, to give God's message to men, to perform miracles? Yes, it is possible. Judas Iscariot was a thief and like a demon (John 6:70,71; 12:6), and was no child of God. But he received power and authority from Christ like the other apostles (10:1-4). Balaam prophesied and proclaimed beautiful truth, but was an evil man (Num 22:1-7; 2 Pet 2:15. Another illustration of this is in John 11:49-52).

Here in Matthew 7 observe in v 23 that Christ will not deny what these false prophets will say. He knows very well that it is possible to be without salvation, and still be able to call Him "Lord" and do miracles in His name. Jesus will not say to them "I once knew you but I don't know you now." His words are "I never knew you." In other words, these false prophets were never His sheep, never belonged to Him, were never God's children (John 10:14,27).

Christ will call them "evildoers." The Greek words here mean those whose deeds are "lawless", those who do not follow righteous principles of behavior, those who transgress the ways of God. Even any good deeds they might do are done with the wrong motive. Selfishness is at the heart of all their actions, and since selfishness is evil, then what they do is evil. Such people have not learned a very basic lesson of the Bible – what they do is not as important as what you. Depart from me, you evildoers.'

24 "Therefore, I will compare everyone who hears these words of mine, and does them, to a wise man who built his house on a rock. 25 And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, for it had its foundation on a rock. 26 And everyone who hears these sayings of mine, and does not do them, will be compared to a foolish man who built his house on sand. 27 And the rain

they are. Character is more important than outward activity. If we are right on the inside, then our outer actions will also be right. But our outer actions may seem to be right to men when actually we are not right inside.

Those who do their works only for themselves will find in the end that all they will have is themselves – not Christ, not God, not salvation. A terrible end for such people is indicated by the words "Depart from me" – 25:46; 2 Thess 1:8,9.

7:24-27 In verses 15-23 we see Christ's condemnation of false prophets. In these verses we have a warning against false hearers – those who hear the truth but do not obey it. Here a distinction is made between the wise and the foolish (see also notes on Proverbs 9:1-18). In this illustration both types of people have some of the same desires and aims – both types build a "house." Perhaps the word "house" signifies a person's whole life, especially his or her life as it relates to Christianity. The foolish man may be very wise when it comes to matters of the world or finance or politics or such things. But in matters of religion he is a fool.

The big difference between the houses the two men built is in the foundation. The foundation is a part of a house which may not be seen outwardly. Often it is hidden in the ground, and from there it supports the whole house. In the deep places of the heart of the wise man is the desire to obey the Lord Jesus. The Holy Spirit has enabled him to recognize his spiritual poverty and has humbled him. He has given him a thirst for righteousness. He prays sincerely that God's will be fulfilled in his life. The wise man has trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ and shows by his obedience that he has trusted Him.

But in the hidden places of the heart of the foolish man there is not this desire to obey Christ. So naturally he does not put into practice what Christ teaches. He has no inward drive to do so. His religion is entirely a surface thing without depth. The foundation of such a person's life is shifting sand. The only foundation for a genuine Christian life is Christ (1 Cor 3:11). The foolish man does not even consider building his "house" on this one foundation. The foundation he chooses is his own thoughts, or impressions, or feelings, or his own religious ideas or doctrines.

Jesus indicated here that every person's came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house. And it fell, and great was its fall."

28 And when Jesus had finished speaking these words, it happened that the people were astonished at his teaching, 29 for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes.

8 When he had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed him.

"house" is going to be tested. "Rain", "floods" and "winds" will test every part of it, and when it is tested the foundation on which it is built will be revealed. Oh, what a storm struck Job (Job chapters 1 and 2). How Jeremiah was battered (Lam 3:1-24). See what a wave struck Peter (Luke 22:54-62). What rough weather Paul faced (2 Cor 6:4-10; 11:23-29). See too the storms of Ps 66:10-12 and Heb 11:36-38. But if a man has built solidly on Christ his house will stand, nothing can destroy it. If it is not built on Christ nothing can save it.

Rain, wind, and flood may also speak of future judgment when every house will be tested and every foundation exposed. Many religious houses that people take pride in will fall in that day with a great crash. The reason is they were not built on Christ's teachings here in the Sermon on the Mount (v 26). Christ did not give His teaching in this Sermon or any other teaching, that we might merely admire it or listen to it, or speak or write about it, but that we might act according to it. If we do not do so, disaster is the only possible result. Let us make sure "our house" is built solidly on Him, that we trust Him only, love Him truly, and obey Him heartily.

7:28,29 The reason for the amazement of the crowd was not simply in what Jesus said, but the way He said it. He did not quote this or that teacher as the authority for His teaching. He spoke with the authority God the Father have Him. See in 5:22,28,32, 34,39,44 the phrase "I tell you." Compare John 7:16,17; 12:49,50. In God's kingdom He presents Himself as Christ the Messiah of Israel (5:17), as Lord, Son of God, and Judge (7:21-23). Now in all matters concerning God's kingdom, in the whole field of religion, in all that relates to the destiny of men, in heaven and on earth, He is the absolute authority (28:18; John 17:2; Phil 2:9-11).

8:1 This is a chapter of miracles. In it the Lord Jesus shows His authority and power over human diseases (vs 1-17), in the matter of spiritual life (vs 18-22), over the forces of nature (vs 23-27), in the unseen world of spirits (vs 28-34).

All this is abundant evidence that He was just who He said He was—the Lord from heaven (John 3:13; 8:23). Christ's miracles showed forth His glory – John 2:11. They were evidence that God the Father had sent Him and that He was one with God (John
