PREFACE.

THE Scriptures contain the revelation of God's will to man,—God's word addressed to all mankind. As the Scriptures are Truth, the closer we adhere to them, the nearer we are to Truth. But the nearest approach we can make to the inspired originals, is in faithful translations, as they express the sense with the greatest brevity and precision. Hence good translations afford the best helps for obtaining a true knowledge of the Scriptures, and different versions, by learned and religious men, must be the best and shortest commentaries. The same truths are there expressed in different words. Where some are too brief and obscure, others may be more full and clear, while together, being the same in sense, they mutually illustrate and confirm each other.

The present volume contains four translations of the Gospels. These translations were made by the leading men,—the intellectual aristocracy of their day. The first version is the Gothic by Ulphilas, in the 4th century. What vigour and decision of mind,—what a clear view of the future extension and influence of the Germanic race, must Ulphilas have had to induce him to translate the Scriptures into the vulgar tongue of his people, in an age when Greek and Latin were the only languages employed for literary purposes! Ulphilas deeply felt, from his own experience, that the power of the word of God to convince the understanding and to influence the conduct would be limited, unless it was not only preached, but read in the mother tongue, through which the best affections of the heart are most easily touched.—These remarks are equally applicable to the translation of the Gospels in the 8th or 10th century from the Vetus Italica into Anglo-Saxon, and to the Wycliffe version of the whole Bible from the Vulgate into English in the 14th century, which was the dawn of that scriptural light that preceded the Reformation. In the 16th century, Tyndale presented the Gospel in a still clearer light by his translation of the New Testament from the original Greek into English, so faithfully, that it is, in substance, our present authorized Version, which constantly uses the same phraseology and often employs the very same words.

These versions, extending from A.D. 360 to 1526, are not only of great value to Divines, but deeply interesting to the philologist, who is here supplied with ample specimens of the earliest German, and of the Anglo-Saxon, as well as early English. The first German comes down to us in the translation of Ulphilas, made about A.D. 360. Though the Anglo-Saxon Gospels were translated in 735 or before, and the version printed in this volume is from a MS. written about A.D. 995, yet we have an earlier record of Anglo-Saxon writing, in the Laws of Ethelbert, king of Kent. From the Title of these Laws, we learn that "they were established in the days of Augustine*," that is, between A.D. 597, when Ethelbert was baptised, and the death of Augustine in 604. The most probable date is 599. From this time to the present, we have our written Laws; and we are told that Bede, just before his death in 735, had finished the translation of St. John's Gospel into his native tongue, called English [Englisc] in the early Laws. The Germans have the first written specimen of a Germanic language in Ulphilas, and we the next specimen in our Anglo-Saxon Laws, and at a later date in the Gospels. The English philologist will now be able to trace many words and phrases from the present time, 1865, to the translation of Tyndale in 1526, of Wycliffe in 1389, of the Saxon about 995, and of the Gothic about 360, a space of more than 1500 years. The Gothic is a language of Low German origin†, as well as the Anglo-Saxon and English, we are, therefore, not surprised to find many phrases apparently identical in Gothic, in Anglo-Saxon, and in modern English.

THE GOTHIC translation of Ulphilas is the first, in date and importance, which claims attention in a brief notice of these four versions, and of their celebrated translators.

The heathen Goths settled in Dacia, on the north-west of the Black Sea, at an early period. While resident there they became Christians, and before the Council of Nice in A.D. 325, the Christian Goths were so numerous as to elect their own Bishop, Theophilus, whose signature appears in the records of that Council. The most celebrated of their Bishops was Ulphilas‡, born in A.D. 318 amongst the Goths in Dacia. His eminent talents, learning, and benevolence gave him unbounded influence over his countrymen. It, therefore, became a proverb among the Goths, "Whatever is done by Ulphilas, is well done." This favourable impression prepares us to hear of his consecration, at the age of 30, as Bishop§ of the Goths in A.D. 348 by Eusebius Bishop of Nicomedia. He continued to discharge his episcopal duties with great fidelity for forty years, and in A.D. 388 went to Constantinople to promote the interest of his Church, where he died at the age of 70. Ulphilas wrote in Latin, Greek, and Gothic, and was full of energy in the practical application of his learning. No difficulty or literary labour deterred him when he had in view the cherished desire of his heart, the translation of the New Testament from the original Greek, and part of the Old from the Septuagint into Gothic, that every one of his countrymen might read the word of God in his own tongue. It is most likely that this great literary work was completed before A.D. 360; because, as a faithful and zealous preacher of the Gospel, anxious for the instruction and edification of the people, he had been accustomed to translate into their own language the passages of the Scriptures which he quoted. Ulphilas drew the water of life from the pure fountain, and delivered it to his people uncontaminated. He imbibed the doctrines of the Gospel at the fountain head, the original Greek, and preached those doctrines to the Goths in their own nervous and expressive Germanic tongue.

‡ Some eminent Germans write the name Ulfilas, Ulfila, Wulfila, &c. As I have not seen the name so written in any original document, the old orthography is retained. See other reasons in Origin of Eng. and Germanic Lang. vii. § 7, p. 115, note *.

Ulphilas had always taken the greatest interest in the welfare of the Goths. When, in the year 376, he saw they were grievously oppressed by the Huns, he hesitated not to implore the protection of the Emperor Valens, and pleaded their cause with such success, that the province of Mœsia was assigned to them. Their innumerable tribes then passed over the Danube into Mœsia, now Servia and Bulgaria: it was from the residence of these Visigoths, or West Goths in Mœsia that they have been called Mœso-Goths, and their language Mœso-Gothic.

Zealous Arians have always been anxious to claim Ulphilas, as belonging to them. Valens and his Arian bishops would naturally use all their influence with Ulphilas, and he would be disposed to concede as much as possible for the sake of peace and the welfare of his people. Further, as a man of principle, he could not go. In the strife, contention, and bitter persecution of the times, it is difficult to arrive at the exact truth. We know that Ulphilas was not only a man of great learning, but of honest principles, and practical wisdom; he was, therefore, with his cautious and judicious antecedents—his early and extensive knowledge of the Scriptures—not very likely to fall into fatal errors. We are certain of this, that so far as the translation of Ulphilas has been recovered, there is not a trace of Arianism to be found. On the contrary, in passages clearly unfavourable to the doctrine of Arius, Ulphilas has honestly and plainly given the literal meaning of the Greek. The chief point in which we are now concerned, is this, that those who read the Gothic version of Ulphilas are not likely to be led into error, as it is a faithful representation of the Greek. This was the opinion of the learned Junius and Dr. Marshall, the first editors of the Gothic Gospels, and of Cardinal Mai, and the great body of learned men in the past age, as well as the present.

Codex Argenteus. — We gladly leave this subject to speak of the principal MS. and the chief editions of the Gothic Gospels. The most celebrated MS. is The Codex Argenteus, or Silver Book, so called from being transmitted to us in letters of a silvery hue, though the letters of a few words in the beginning of each paragraph are in gold. I once thought with Ihre, Meerman*, and others, that the words of this splendid Codex were not written on the vellum, which is of a reddish purple colour, but that each word was formed letter after letter by metallic characters heated, and then impressed on silver or gold leaf which was made to adhere to the vellum by some glutinous substance, in the manner that bookbinders now letter and ornament the backs of books. On showing the facsimile to Henry Latham, Esq., M.A., of Brasenose College, and of the Oxford University Press, he observed the letters were not so uniform as they would be if made by the impression of metallic characters, and suggested that the form of each letter was more probably drawn with some glutinous preparation, and the silver or gold leaf pressed upon it. On looking minutely at our accurate facsimile, I saw variations which could not have occurred if metallic letters had been used. The word at the end of the third line of our facsimile is abbreviated, to make it accord with the preceding line. In the 10th line of Dr. Uppström's larger facsimile, to prevent a confused junction of the long stem of ψ with the long stem of ƿ in the preceding line, the top of ψ is bent to the left in such a manner as could only be done by a pen or pencil.

Being anxious to obtain the most accurate information, even as to the colour of this invaluable MS., I wrote to Professor Uppström. Not receiving an answer with that promptitude, which his liberality and kindness of heart always induced him to give, I presumed he had not received my letter, and wrote again. The answer came, not from the learned editor of the Codex Argenteus, but from a mutual friend, A. Diedrich Wackerbarth, whom I had known long ago, as graduating in honours at Corpus Christi College, Cambridge. I may add that he has proved himself to be one of our best Teutonic scholars by his accurate and spirited translation of Beowulf, from the Anglo-Saxon into English verse, published in 1849. His letter gives the last sad tidings of one of Sweden's most learned men, and contains so minute a description of the MS. that I feel assured my readers will thank me for introducing the substance of it.

"Uppsala, May 6th, 1865.

"Your two letters were unfortunately too late to reach Professor Uppström. Our good friend died on the 21st of January last. His death was very unexpected, and was caused by inflammation of the lungs. Your letter of the 6th ult. was accordingly placed in the hands of the Professor of Ancient Northern Literature, Prof. Säve, who went, in company with me, to the library two or three days ago, where I endeavoured by mixing water-colours to get a few approximations to the colour of the vellum of the Codex Argenteus. Since then your second letter has arrived, that of the 28th ult. Professor Säve is at the present moment exceedingly busy; but, being desirous not to keep you waiting for an answer, he this morning requested me to go up to the library, re-examine the Codex with reference to your questions, and make my report accordingly. This I have done and herewith communicate the result."—After an unsuccessful attempt to give the colour with greater precision, he sent me five specimens of the purple shades of the vellum taken from five different parts of the Codex. Our facsimile is the medium colour. My friend then proceeds,—"The vellum is still somewhat glossy. The colour varies very greatly in different parts of the Codex, in some parts indeed it may be said to have disappeared altogether or very nearly so, whereas in others it is even slightly darker than the darkest of my imitations, and has much the appearance of ripe mulberries. The leaves seem to have been coloured on one side only, the colour of the back of the sheet being that of the front showing through. Calling the highly coloured side of a sheet the front, and the other side the back, the leaves seem to have been so arranged that fronts are turned to fronts and backs to backs, so as to present uniformity of colour on both pages of the same opening of the book.

"I now turn to your other question, namely the probability of Ihre's conjecture that the letters are stamped; or, in other words, that the book is in fact printed, only letter by letter instead of sheet by sheet. To this conjecture I cannot assent, and I may add that Professor Uppström held the same opinion as myself, so does also Prof. Säve. The Codex is certainly very beautifully written and the letters are remarkably uniform, but strictly uniform they are not. . . .The breadth of the letter N is usually about $4\frac{1}{2}$ millimetres: similarly the letter Π: when the writer has been a little pressed for room the Π and N are reduced in breadth each to about $3\frac{1}{2}$ millimetres. Now had the writer formed his letters by means of a stamp, he could only have contracted the spaces between the letters, not the letters themselves, unless indeed we suppose he had several stamps of different breadths for each letter, which I do not think probable. It appears then, that the Codex has not been formed by stamping the letters but is throughout manuscript: a most beautiful and uniform manuscript it must have been, worthy of the pen of Brother Sintram of St. Gall himself, but written, not stamped.

"Another circumstance, which I think may be worth mentioning, is the following: On comparing Uppström's facsimile page with the original, I observe that in the Codex the tail of the silver Ϛ, which forms the first letter of the 12th line, goes quite over the arc of the golden Π, which begins the next following line. From this I presume we may infer, that the gilding was done before the silvering.

"I may mention that the upper part of the Ψ is not unfrequently slightly bent to the left, as in the example cited by you, even when there is no letter with which it would otherwise interfere. Indeed all the letters, though quite sufficiently uniform to present to the eye that regularity which constitutes so important a portion of what we call beauty in writing, present, when examined with a magnifying glass and a fine scale, differences of form and dimensions greater than I think would exist had they been formed with a stamp.

"Prof. Uppström, during his last journey in Italy, carefully collated the MSS. in the Ambrosian and Vatican Libraries as well as that of Wolfenbüttel. These he prepared for the press and had even just commenced printing when death put an end to his labours. The work will however not be lost to the world, as it has been placed in able hands. In fact, it will be edited by Prof. Säve.

"I may add that the Codex has evidently been ruled throughout with double lines for writing: single lines would have been sufficient for stamping."

The Codex Argenteus, containing fragments of the four Gospels, is supposed to be the work of Italians in their own country at the close of the fifth century, or the beginning of the sixth. The only MS. in exactly the same style of writing, is the celebrated Gallican Psalter* now in the Abbey of St. Germain des Près. It is of the sixth century and is said to have belonged to St. Germain, Bishop of Paris, who died May 28, 576. The vellum is stained of a purple-violet colour, and the writing is in silver letters, and a few particular words in gold. This description would serve for the Codex Argenteus, the vellum of which, however, is purple, exactly as in our facsimile, of a reddish rather than a violet tint.

The Codex Argenteus was preserved for many centuries in the monastery of Werden on the river Rhur, in Westphalia. In the 17th century it was transmitted for safety to Prague; but, Count Königsmark taking that city in 1648, the Codex Argenteus came into the possession of the Swedes, who deposited it in the Library at Stockholm. Vossius in 1655, when visiting Sweden, became possessed of it, and brought it to Holland. Puffendorf, as he travelled through Holland in 1662, found it in the custody of Vossius, and purchased it for Count de la Gardie; who, after having it bound in silver, presented it to the Royal Library at Uppsala, where it is still preserved.

* A most beautiful facsimile of this MS. was published by Count Bastard, 1843, in his splendid and expensive work on this subject. Another is given, with a minute description of Plate CX. vol. i. p. 296 in Universal Palæography, by M. J. B. Silvestre, translated from the French and edited by Sir Frederic Madden: Folio Plates, and descriptions in 2 vols. 8vo. H. G. Bohn, London, 1850. I am indebted for the sight of these facsimiles to Professor J. O. Westwood, M.A., F.L.S., author of the very beautiful work, Palæographia Sacra Pictoria, &c.

Dordrecht, 1665. There are two columns in each page, the Gothic on the left column, and the Anglo-Saxon on the right; both in their original characters, the types for which were cast in Holland, at the expense of Junius. The same book, apparently published with new titles, and a reprint of the first sheet in Vol. II, the Glossary by Junius, appeared again at Amsterdam in 1684.

II. Stiernhielm, a Swede, republished Ulphilas, with additions, entitled,—Evangelia ab Ulphila Gothice translata, cum versionibus Sueo-Gothicâ Norræná seu Islandicâ, et Vulgatâ Latinâ, Stockholmiæ, 4to. 1671. Sometimes there is bound up with it—Glossarium Ulphila-Gothicum per F. Junium, nunc Sueo-Gothica auctum, etc. per Georg. Stiernhielm, ib. 1670.

III. The Gothic Gospels were again prepared for the Press by Dr. Eric Benzelius, and published by Lye, 4to. Oxford, 1750, with a Latin translation, and notes below the Gothic: a short Gothic Grammar, written by Lye, is prefixed. This handsome 4to. of the Clarendon Press was printed with the type which Junius had presented to the University of Oxford after it had been used at Dordrecht in the Edition of 1665.

IV. A learned Swede, Ihre, a native of Uppsala, and afterwards professor, favoured the literati in 1753 with his remarks upon the editions of Junius, Stiernhielm, and Lye. He had constant access to the Codex, and his criticisms and remarks upon the editors' deviations from it are very valuable. All Professor Ihre's treatises on the Gothic version, and other tracts connected with the subject, were published under the following title: J. ab Ihre scripta versionem Ulphilanam et linguam Mœso-Gothicam illustrantia, edita ab Anton. Frid. Büsching, Berolini, 4to. 1773.

V. The Codex was again prepared and printed in Roman characters without accents, after the corrected text of Ihre, with a literal interlinear Latin translation, and a more free Latin version in the margin, with a Grammar and Glossary by F. K. Fulda. The Glossary revised and the text corrected by W. F. H. Reinwald, published by J. C. Zahn, Weissenfels and Leipsic, 4to. 1805.

VI. A commentary on parts of the Gospel of St. John, with the following title: — Skeireins Aiwaggelyons thairh Iohannen.—Auslegung des Evangelii Johannis in gothischer Sprache von H. F. Massmann, Doctor der Philosophie, Professor der älteren deutschen Sprache etc. 4to. München, 1834.—It contains an account of the manuscript, p. ix–xvii:—the Commentary in Gothic, printed in facsimile types, p. 3–34:—the same Gothic text, in Roman and Italic type accented, in one column, and a literal Latin version in the other, with notes at the foot, p. 37–52:—an account of the MS. and a short notice of Ulphilas and the Goths, p. 53–118:—a complete Glossary of the Gothic words with explanations in Latin, and the Greek equivalents, p. 121–182:—a facsimile of Skeireins, and other MSS. p. 183.

VII. Ulfilas:—Veteris et Novi Testamenti versionis Gothicæ fragmenta, quæ supersunt, ad fidem codd. castigata, Latinitate donata, adnotatione critica instructa, cum Glossario et Grammatica linguæ Gothicæ, conjunctis curis ediderunt H. C. de Gabelentz et Dr. J. Lœbe. Lipsiæ, apud F. A. Brockhaus, 1836 et 1846.—This is a very valuable work in 2 vols. 4to. Vol. I. contains Prolegomena, p. ix–xxxvii : the Gothic text of the Gospels and Epistles, as far as they have been discovered, with fragments of the Old Testament, printed in Roman type, without accents ; below is a Latin translation, and under this are very useful notes in Latin, in 2 cols. small type, p. 1–359.—Vol. II. contains Vorwort, p. vi–xi : Skeir. p. xii–xvi : Calend. Goth. p. xvii, xviii : Gloss. p. 1–214 : Griechisch-gothisches Wörterbuch, p. 215–241 : Gram. der Goth. p. 1–298.

IX. Uppström's Codex Argenteus, 4to. 1854–1857 : v. Notes, p. 570, Matt. i. 21 ; xi. 10.

X. Massmann's Ulfilas*, Stuttgart, 1857, 1 vol. 8vo. The Gothic text is printed entirely in Roman letters, of a good legible size, and fills the left hand pages. Parts of the Septuagint and of the original Greek text and the Vulgate Latin Version, both in smaller type than the Gothic, fill the right hand pages. They are in two columns, and the verses, both of the Greek and Latin, are parallel with the Gothic. The Gothic text is accented according to the system introduced by the celebrated Professor, Dr. James Grimm. Many very valuable notes, a Glossary, and a brief Gothic Grammar are appended to the Text. It is a most useful and comprehensive book, containing, in one moderate 8vo. volume, the whole of the Gothic translation of the Old and New Testaments hitherto discovered, and all that is known on the subject.

XI. Ulfila oder die uns erhaltenen Denkmäler der Gothischen Sprache. Text, Grammatik und Wörterbuch. Bearbeitet und herausgegeben von Friedrich Ludwig Stamm, Pastor zu St. Ludgeri, in Helmstedt. Paderborn, 1858.—A plain, good sized, readable text, in Roman type, without accents. The þ is used.

ANGLO-SAXON.—Before Gregory the Great planted Christianity in England by his missionaries, the energetic and warlike Anglo-Saxons had scarcely any facilities for intellectual improvement. A gradual preparation for the public reception of the Christian faith had been made by the marriage of Ethelbert, king of Kent, with Bertha, a Frankish princess. Bertha and her attendants continued their Christian worship in England, under the direction of the Bishop who accompanied her from France. The exemplary conduct of the Queen impressed the mind of Ethelbert and his court with a favourable opinion of Christianity. The way being opened by Bertha, Ethelbert in A.D. 597 gave a friendly reception to Augustine, the leader of the Christian messengers of peace, and assigned them a residence in Canterbury. As Christian doctrines and discipline expand the mind, and produce a love of learning and intellectual pursuits, these results were seen by the establishment of the first school in Kent by Ethelbert, and by his written Laws, as well as by the thirst for knowledge raised among his subjects. Those, who applied themselves to literature, manifested the strength of their intellectual powers, by a success which could not have been expected, and can scarcely be surpassed. That within a hundred years after the dawn of Christianity and literature upon the Anglo-Saxons, two such men as Bede and Bonifacius should have arisen, the one from the most northerly and the other from the southerly part of England,—from Durham and Devonshire,—is an adequate proof that the previous absence of literary knowledge did not arise from the want of intellect, but of opportunity for its cultivation. Bede had a European reputation as a Scholar, and Bonifacius as a Christian Missionary. Bonifacius, a native Saxon, and like all the Angles and Saxons of Germanic origin, speaking a Germanic dialect, was a most successful herald of peace to his kindred race on the Continent. His talents, and his heart glowing with benevolence and Christian zeal, made him the missionary Bishop over the numerous tribes to whom he had preached with such success, that he is said to have been the means of converting to the Christian faith more than a hundred thousand Germans.——Bede was born in 672, and died in 735. His works were spread over Europe, and so highly esteemed, that his Ecclesiastical History, written in Latin, was printed about the year 1474, among the early works that issued from the German press. It was translated into Anglo-Saxon by King Alfred, and is still a well-known and popular book, though tinged with the credulity of the age in which it was written. Bede was a diligent student and translator of the Scriptures, as will soon appear; but, we must first observe, that among the many books sent by Gregory the Great to Augustine, two copies of the Gospels in Latin, of the same size, and written in the same Roman uncials, are now extant. After being safely kept in the Bibliotheca Gregoriana in St. Augustine's Abbey, Canterbury, Archbishop Parker, at the dissolution of religious houses, took charge of these precious MSS.; one of these he presented, with his other MSS. and books, to the Library of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, where it still remains in perfect safety. The other copy we know from the following entry in the margin fol. 2a, "Robertus Cotton Cuningtonensis 1602," was among the manuscript treasures of Sir Robert Cotton. It is now in the safe custody of the Bodleian, Oxford. This Oxford Codex appears, from its history, as well as from its internal evidence, to have been the original from which numerous copies were made and spread over England as far north as the residence of Bede in the Monastery of Wearmouth, Durham. The internal evidence is this, that all the Anglo-Saxon MSS. have the large interpolation given in the note upon Matt. xx. 28, with others which will shortly be mentioned. This MS. of the Gospels, sent by Gregory the Great, is not the Vulgate, but the old Latin Version, the Vetus Italica, in constant use till the time of Jerome, who guided by it, finished his Vulgate translation of the Gospels in A.D. 384. As the Anglo-Saxon Version was made from the Vetus Italica, it may be useful in ascertaining the readings of this oldest Latin Version. We may cite one or two examples more in proof that the Anglo-Saxon was from the Vetus Italica, and not from the Vulgate of Jerome.

In St. Matt. xxvii. 32, the Vulgate has Invenerunt hominem Cyrenæum, and omits venientem obviam illis. The Anglo-Saxon is word for word from the Vetus Italica, as will be seen below. In this instance the Anglo-Saxon was evidently translated from the Vetus Italica.

Đâ gemêtton hig ænne Cyreniscne man, cumende heom togênes. Ang.-Sax.

A clause is also omitted in the Vulgate of St. Matt. xxiv. 41, when it is both in the Vetus Italica and Anglo-Saxon.

Duo in lecto, unus assumetur, et unus relinquetur. Vet. Ital.
Twegen beoþ on bedde, ân byþ genumen, and ôðer byþ læfed. Ang.-Sax.

Sometimes a word is different in the Vulgate and in the Italic Version, and the Anglo-Saxon then follows the Italic, as in St. Luke xv. 8.

Et evertit domum. Vet. Ital.
And âwent hyre hûs. Ang.-Sax.
Et everrit domum. Vulg.

The Vetus Italica sometimes omits a whole verse, and the same omission is observed in the Codex Augustinius and in the Anglo-Saxon, when it is contained in the Vulgate, as in St. Matt. xxiii. 14. This affords further evidence, that the Anglo-Saxon was translated from the Vetus Italica, and also that the Bodleian Codex Augustinius is the Italic, and not the Vulgate Version. See the note upon Matt. xxiii. 14, p. 577.

It is then an interesting fact, that we still possess, in the Bodleian, one of the copies which Gregory the Great sent to England,—that it is not a copy of the Vulgate, but of the Vetus Italica, and that it may be the very copy from which the Anglo-Saxon Version was made.

We are not certain as to the names of those patriotic Anglo-Saxons, who devoted their time, talents, and learning to the translating of the Scriptures into Anglo-Saxon, that they might be read by the people, and in their churches; but we have an indisputable evidence in the Rubrics, printed in our notes from the MS. that they were constantly read in Anglo-Saxon churches, as the rubrical directions declare what part of the Scriptures was appointed for successive seasons. We have no more knowledge of the exact date when the Gospels were first translated into Anglo-Saxon, than we have of the translators. We are, however, assured by Cuthbert*, a pupil of the learned Venerable Bede, the glory of the Anglo-Saxon Church, that he was finishing his translation of St. John's Gospel immediately before his death on the 27th of May, 735. As St. John is the last of the Gospels, the three preceding had most likely been previously translated. Cuthbert describes the last day of Bede's life with Christian simplicity and feeling. 'When the morning dawned he told us to write diligently what we had begun. This being done, one of us said,—There is yet, beloved Master, one chapter wanting; will it be unpleasant to be asked any more questions? He answered, Not at all. Take your pen and write with speed.—He did so. At the ninth hour he said to me, I have some valuables in my little chest; fetch them that I may distribute my small presents. He addressed each and exhorted to prayer. We wept. In the evening when his pupil said, Dear Master, one sentence is still wanting. Write it quickly, exclaimed Bede. When it was finished, he said, Support me while I go to the holy place, where I can pray to my Father. When he was placed there he repeated the Gloria Patri, and expired in the effort.'

We have no satisfactory evidence to prove that this was the first translation of the Gospels, nor that Bede's version has come down to us. The Scriptures, in their own tongue, were revered by the Anglo-Saxons, for Alfred the Great placed the Commandments at the head of his Laws, and incorporated many passages from the Gospels. Subsequent translators would naturally avail themselves of the versions made by their predecessors, and write them in the orthography, the language, and the style of the time in which they lived. From these distinguishing features, the age of a MS. may be ascertained with tolerable accuracy. Sometimes persons and places are named, which aid in fixing the date.

Anglo-Saxon MSS. of the Gospels.——Our Anglo-Saxon text* is based upon the MS. No. CXL. in Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, denoted by B; and the MS. Ii. 2. 11. in the University Library, Cambridge, designated by C; collated with Cot. or the Cotton Otho C. I. the MS. in the British Museum, and with the Hatton MS. No. 38 in the Bodleian, Oxford, referred to in the notes, by the signature H, compared with Rl. or the MS. of nearly the same form and date I. A. XIV. in the Royal Library, British Museum:—collated also with the Oxford MS. in the Bodleian No. 441, to which a reference is made in the notes by O.—Also Rush. or the Rushworth Gloss, in the Bodleian, No. 3946; and the Lindisfarne in the British Museum, Nero D. IV.

The value of these MSS. and the text formed upon their authority will be best ascertained from a short account of each, chiefly in the alphabetical order of the letters by which they are designated.

I. B. is described in Wanley's Catal. p. 116, and by Nasmith, p. 213; it is said to be copied from an older MS. before the Conquest. I think between A.D. 990 and 1030. Many vowels are accented. At the end of St. Matthew's Gospel is the following note, written in the same form of letter as the MS. but of a somewhat later date:—Ego Ælfricus scripsi hunc librum in Monasterio Baðonio, et dedi Brihtwoldo Preposito†.—Dr. Marshall, speaking of this MS. in 1664, says,—Hunc Codicem et Oxoniensem, rarius reperi ab invicem dissentientes; superioremque eos vetustatem spirare existimo. (p. 490.)

II. C. denotes the MS. of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels, in the University of Cambridge, marked Ii. 2. 11. This MS. in small folio, written in a good clear hand about the time of the ‡Norman Conquest, if not earlier, is very valuable for its accuracy in grammatical forms, and orthography as adopted in the best West-Saxon; and because it is the only copy which has the Rubrics complete, and written in the same hand and just after the other parts of the MS. Many vowels are accented. In 1704, when Wanley wrote his Catalogus Historico-Criticus Manuscriptorum Septentrionalium, the leaf, containing the following note, stood among the waste leaves at the beginning of this MS.: it is now (1865) placed at the end§:—Hunc textum Euangeliorum dedit Leofricus

* See Anglo-Saxon Notes, p. 574, col. 1. The Anglo-Saxon text.

† See Anglo-Saxon Notes upon Matt. xxviii. 20*w*. ‡ Wanley's Catal. p. 152.

§ I might merely state the fact, but I may add, that Mr. Bradshaw of King's College, who has the care of the MSS. and examines them most minutely, is satisfied, from the size and the cutting of the parchment, with other concurring circumstances, that, when the MS. was originally written, this was the last leaf; he has, therefore, restored it to what, he is assured, was its first position.

episcopus ecclesiæ Sancti Petri Apostoli in Exonia ad utilitatem successorum suorum. Then immediately follows in the same Anglo-Saxon hand as the Codex, but of a little later date,—Đas boc Leofric biscop gef Sancto Petro and callum his æftergengum into Exancestre Gode mid to ðenienne.

At the foot of a waste leaf, placed before the MS. is this note:—Hunc Codicem Evangeliorum Gregorius Dodde, Decanus Ecclesiæ Exoniensis, cum assensu fratrum suorum Canonicorum dono dedit Matthæo Cantuariensi Archiepiscopo, qui illum in hanc novam formam redigi et ornari curavit. 1566.

On the upper margin of page 1 of this MS. is written in the bold, clear hand of Archbishop Parker,—"Matthæus Cantuar: 1574." At the foot of this page in the same clear hand, "Continet pag. 401," i. e. The entire MS. contains 401 pp. The Gospels occupy p. 1–343.—Pseudo-Evangelium Nichodemi, p. 344–383, published by Thwaites at the end of his Heptateuchus in 8vo. 1698.—Nathanis Judæi Legatio Fabulosa ad Tiberium Cæsarem, p. 383–401. All the 401 pages of the MS. are written in the same bold and distinct Anglo-Saxon hand. The Rubrics are in faded, dark red letters of the same form as the MS., but written after the text was finished, as they often extend far into the margin, the latter words being placed at the end of one or more consecutive lines of the MS.: for example in Matt. xi., MS. p. 37, line 14–17. The letters of the Rubrics were most likely formed, when the Capital letters were coloured. The Gospels are divided into paragraphs, denoted by large plain Capital letters of different colours, some of which, especially the green and light blue, are as bright as if recently coloured. There is generally, but not always, a Rubric at the head of each paragraph. Three or four paragraphs are often included in a Chapter; and the chapters of our modern versions sometimes begin in the middle or other parts of the paragraphs of this MS., in which there was not originally the least indication of such a division.

III. This is what remains of the once fine MS. written on vellum before the Norman Conquest, and denoted by Cot. because it is in the Cotton Library, British Museum, Otho C. I. A minute description is given of it by Wanley in A.D. 1704*, when it was in a perfect state from Matt. xxvii. 6. It was so much injured by the fire, which destroyed many of Sir Robert Cotton's MSS. on the 23rd of Oct. 1731, that, what was defective only as far as Matt. xxvii. 6 before that calamity, afterwards looked like a charred mass. Planta, in his Catalogue of the Cotton MSS., describes it as "once consisting of 290 leaves, but now (1802) so much burnt and contracted as to render the binding of it impracticable." It was fortunately kept in a case; and what was found impracticable by Mr. Planta, has been effected under the careful superintendence of Sir Frederic Madden, by whose judicious arrangements many MSS. have been restored, and made accessible to the public. The smallest part of this burnt mass has been carefully mounted on thick folio paper, which is cut away in the middle to fit the injured vellum, and made fast by transparent paper, gummed to the edges of the paper and the vellum; the MS. can, therefore, be easily read on both sides. It is now bound in two large folio vols. Sir Frederic Madden tells us—that twenty-five folios are lost since Wanley described it. The first small fragment of this MS. now remaining is from folio 26, which Sir F. Madden has marked as part of St. Mark vii. 22. Such a note deserves the best thanks of all who consult the MS. as it saves much of their time. The fragments increase a little in size from folio 26 to 38. St. Luke is nearly complete, and occupies fol. 39–93. St. John fills fol. 95–135, and is nearly perfect, especially in the latter part. There are not any rubrical directions, and only a few badly formed capital letters of a dingy red colour in this MS. The accents are neither numerous nor carefully applied.

IV. H. The Hatton MS. No. 38 in the Bodleian*, Oxford, is the size of a large 8vo. and written on vellum, in a very uniform and beautiful, but late hand, about the time of Henry II. The letters are so uniform, upright, and near together, as to appear like printing in facsimile types. It formerly belonged to the Rev. John Parker, son of Matthew Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, who wrote his name in red chalk, "Iohēs parker," on the verso and top of the first fly-leaf. Wanley tells us that the missing leaf Lk. xvi. was neatly written and inserted by Mr. Parker. The four Gospels are arranged not in the usual order, but St. Matt. is placed after St. Luke; thus, Mark, Luke, Matthew, and John. The only Rubric in Anglo-Saxon is this at the beginning of St. John,—Her onginþ ðæt god spell ðe Johannes se godspellere gewrat on Pathmos ðam eiglande.—The accents are few, and capriciously applied.

V. This MS. denoted by Rl. is in the Royal Library, British Museum, I. A. XIV. It is very similar to the Hatton in the 8vo. size, but a little smaller. The writing is somewhat earlier in date, and less regular than the Hatton. The Rubrics are very few, and of a brighter red than the Hatton. There are scarcely any accents; yet Ysâác is found in fol. 33, 5. The four Gospels are placed in this order,—Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John.—St. Mark begins, Initium Scī Euangelii secundum Marcum. Her ys Godspelles angin, Halendes Cristes Godes sune, swa awriten is on þas witegan bec Isaiam.—Her onginð Matheus boc þas halga Godspelleres.—Begins, Soðlice wel is to understanden þ æfter Matheus gerecednysse her his oncneornysse boc Hælendes Cristes Dauides suna.—St. Luke, Nu we willað her eow areccen Lucas boc ðæs halgan Godspelleres.—Begins, Forðam ðe wytodlice manega þohte þare þinge wace ge endebyrden ðe on us gefylde sint, swa us betahten þa þe hit of frimðe gesawon, and ðare spræce þe nas wæron.—Then follows the Rubric to St. John precisely as in the Hatton MS.—This Royal MS. belonged to St. Augustine's Abbey†, Canterbury. It was also in possession of Thomas Cranmer, Archbishop of Canterbury, whose name is written on the upper margin of the first leaf.

* Wanley's Catal. p. 76. † Ibid. p. 181.

VI. O. The Oxford MS. in the Bodleian, No. 441, is closely allied to the best MSS. B, C, and Cot.; namely to I, II, and III.—This Oxford MS. of the four Anglo-Saxon Gospels is in small folio, written before the Norman Conquest*, in a fine bold Anglo-Saxon character, and has some vowels accented. The Rubrics are written in a small and recent hand, between the paragraphs; or, for want of room, in the margin. The first six leaves of St. Mark, fol. 57–62, fol. 90, fol. 131, and fol. 150, also the last three leaves of St. John, fol. 192–194, are written in a small and recent hand upon new parchment, with few accents. — The first edition of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels by John Foxe, in 1571, was printed from this Oxford MS. No. 441. It was also the basis of the edition by Junius and Marshall in 1665.

VII. The Latin of the Lindisfarne Gospels, or the Durham Book, is said to have been written about A.D. 687 by Eadfrith, a monk, and the interlinear and verbal Anglo-Saxon Gloss, by Aldred a Priest, between 946 and 968. Both Eadfrith and Aldred became Bishops of Durham. It is one of our finest MSS.

VIII. The Latin of the Rushworth Gospels appears to be written about the end of the 7th century; and the interlinear and verbal Anglo-Saxon Gloss of the 10th. The first three Gospels have been published by the Surtees Society. St. Matthew, edited by the Rev. Joseph Stevenson, M.A., 8vo. 1854. St. Mark in 1861, and St. Luke in 1863, both edited by Geo. Waring, Esq., M.A.

Printed editions.—I. The Anglo-Saxon Gospels were first printed, at the suggestion and expense of Matthew Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, under the care of John Foxe, the Martyrologist, with this title:—"The Gospels of the fower Euangelistes translated in the olde Saxons tyme out of Latin into the vulgare toung of the Saxons, newly collected out of Auncient Monumentes of the sayd Saxons, and now published for testimonie of the same at London. Printed by John Daye dwelling ouer Aldersgate. 1571. Cum Priuilegio Regiæ Maiestatis per Decennium." The text is in the clear and readable Anglo-Saxon type, used by Daye in Ælfric's "Sermon on Easter day," 1567†, the first book printed in Anglo-Saxon. The Anglo-Saxon occupies two-thirds the width of the page, and the remaining third is filled with the English Version of the Bishops' Bible in small old English. Foxe wrote the long dedication to Queen Elizabeth. The chief object for the publication of these Gospels is thus stated in the Preface:—"We haue published especially to this end, that the said boke imprinted thus in the Saxons letters, may remaine in the Church as a profitable example, and president of olde antiquitie, to the more confirmation of your gratious procedinges now in the Church agreable to the same. Wherin as we haue to see how much we are beholden to the reuerend and learned father in God, Matthew Archbishop of Cant. a cheefe and a famous trauailler in thys Church of England, by whose industrious diligence and learned labours, this booke, with others moe, hath bene collected and searched out of the Saxons Monumētes : so likewise haue we to vnderstand and conceaue, by the edition hereof, how the religion presently taught and professed in the Church at thys present, is no new reformation of thinges lately begonne, which were not before, but rather a reduction of the Church to the Pristine state of olde conformitie, which once it had." (p. 9.)

II. A much improved edition of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels* was published, with the Gothic by Junius and Marshall, in 1665, with the following ample title,—Quatuor D. N. Jesu Christi Euangeliorum Versiones perantiquæ duæ, Gothica scil. et Anglo-Saxonica : quarum illam ex celeberrimo Codice Argenteo nunc primum depromsit Franciscus Junius, Francisci filius. Hanc autem ex Codicibus MSS. collatis emendatiùs recudi curavit Thomas Mareschallus, Anglus : cujus etiam Observationes in utramque Versionem subnectuntur.—Accessit et Glossarium Gothicum : cui præmittitur Alphabetum Gothicum, Runicum, etc. operâ ejusdem Francisci Junii.—Dordrechti. Typis et sumptibus Junianis.—Excudebant Henricus et Joannes Essæi, Urbis Typographi Ordinarii. CIↃIↃCLXV.

III. A very neat and handy edition of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels appeared in 12mo, London 1842, with this title—Ða Halgan Godspel on Englisc.—The Anglo-Saxon Version of the holy Gospels, edited from the original manuscripts, by Benjamin Thorpe, F.S.A. London, Rivington : Oxford, Parker : 1842.

One peculiar feature of the Anglo-Saxon version may be noticed, before we speak of the next translation. Those terms, which are adopted in other versions from the Hebrew, Greek, and Latin, are generally translated by indigenous Anglo-Saxon compounds, so descriptive as to be intelligible to every reader. A very few examples will be sufficient to show this principle, and the compositive power of the Anglo-Saxon language. For Centurion they used hundred-man, similar to the Lat. Centurio :—Disciple, leorning-cniht, a learning youth :—Dropsy, a man with the dropsy was called wæter-seoc-man :—Parable, bigspel, a near example :—Repentance, dæd-bót, an amends-deed :—Resurrection, ærîst, a rising again :—Sabbath, reste-dæg, a day of rest :—Scribe, bóc-ere, bóc-wer, a book man : — Synagogue, gesamnung, a congregation : — Treasury, gold-hórd, gold-hoard.

WYCLIFFE.—Till the discovery of printing in the 15th century, the Holy Scriptures and other writings could only be published, or made generally known, by Lectures and by the slow process of manuscripts. Between forty and fifty years, Wycliffe was more or less closely connected with the University of Oxford. As Tutor, Head of a College, and Professor of Divinity, he had great facilities for making the Gospel generally known. In addition to the members of noble families, and men educated for lay professions, those especially preparing for the Church attended his Lectures, and were educated under his superintendence; taking with them into every parish throughout the whole country, the learning and impressions they had received in the University, giving lectures upon his principles, and often becoming his willing agents in transcribing his works. The important part, taken by Wycliffe in preparing for the Reformation by the translation of the Scriptures, will be best seen by a short notice of the chief incidents of his life.

John Wycliffe is said to have been born in 1324 at a small village of that name, near Richmond, in Yorkshire; and, at the age of sixteen, to have become one of the first members of Queen's College, founded in 1340. He was a fellow of Merton College in 1356. With much natural talent, unwearied assiduity, and a facility in acquiring knowledge, this diligent and unobtrusive student gained in the University great reputation for his learning, and faithful friends by his decision of character, combined with kindness of heart and unassuming manners. He was deservedly popular, and was much attached to Oxford for the literary facilities and the uninterrupted quietude which he could not find anywhere so perfect as in the University. During more than twenty years he gratified his insatiable desire for knowledge on all subjects, never neglecting to devote a specified time for reading the Bible, making all other knowledge subservient to the great object he ever kept in view, a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures. He read the Latin Fathers with great care, and studied Aristotle, the profound reasoner of the Greeks. As the Greek language and literature were little known and almost forgotten in England before the taking of Constantinople by the Turks in A.D. 1453, when the Greeks fled for refuge to other countries, where they introduced and interpreted the ancient Greek authors, Wycliffe had not the means of acquiring a knowledge of Greek. He could, therefore, study Aristotle only in the Latin translations and commentaries. Even with such inadequate assistance he became a most subtle reasoner, and an unrivalled disputant, able to encounter the intricacies of scholastic divinity. His great opponent, the Chronicler Knighton, admits that, while Wycliffe was generally esteemed a most eminent theologian, he had no equal in the employment of the scholastic art of disputation.

About the year 1360, circumstances occurred which called forth

Wycliffe's extraordinary talents. Oxford was so celebrated as a seat of learning in the reign of Henry III. that an immense number of students came to the University from all parts of England and from the Continent. Anthony Wood, in his Annals*, tells us they amounted to thirty thousand. When all allowance is made for this almost incredible estimate of the students by one of Oxford's most partial friends, it at least indicates the popularity of the University. By the undue influence of the mendicant Friars, the younger students were tempted to leave the Colleges for the Convent, till they are said to have been reduced to six thousand. The Church of Rome, to revive the monastic institutions, established the four orders of Mendicants, the Augustines, Carmelites, Dominicans and Franciscans. The first establishment of the Dominicans was at Oxford in 1221. With other privileges, the Popes had allowed the Friars the liberty of superintending education. They had their own exempt jurisdiction; and, in their unremitted endeavours to gain converts by trespassing on the statutes of the University, they were involved in continual disputes with the Chancellor and Scholars. The University and the Church suffered so much by this interference, that a Convocation was assembled, and a decree passed, that no youth, under the age of eighteen, should be received by the Friars into their orders. The contest became so warm and exasperating, that Wycliffe entered into the defence of his beloved University with such zeal, energy and success, as to confound the Friars. They could not resist his plain and honest reasoning. He overwhelmed them by his arguments and learning, and brought them into popular disgrace by his pamphlets on the "able beggary" absurdly advocated by the Friars.

The whole University was gratified by this display of Wycliffe's energy, talents and learning; and, in testimony of respect and gratitude, elected him Warden or Master of Balliol College or Hall, as it was then called. In the early part of 1361, he was presented by his College to the valuable Rectory of Fillingham in Lincolnshire, which he afterwards exchanged for Ludgershall in Buckinghamshire, that he might be within a few miles of his numerous friends in the University. In the year 1365 Simon de Islip, Archbishop of Canterbury, appointed him Warden of Canterbury Hall, now occupied by the Canterbury Quadrangle of Christ Church. In 1367 he defended Edward III. in refusing to pay Pope Urban the tribute which had been claimed ever since it was exacted from the weak King John. Wycliffe wrote with such ability, and used such convincing arguments, as to prove, beyond any future doubt, the illegality of the claim. The See of Rome was silent but indignant, looking upon Wycliffe with a jealous eye, as the cause of the defeat. In England this defence increased the fame of its author, and procured for him the favourable regard of the Duke of Lancaster and both Houses of Parliament. Edward III. had previously made him one of his Chaplains.

In 1372 Wycliffe was gratified by obtaining the chief desire of his heart, the election to the Professorship of Divinity. His whole life had been spent in preparing himself for the faithful discharge of the duties devolving on the Divinity Professor. Being elevated to a Professorship, which enabled him to diffuse with authority that light which had already beamed on his own mind, he used great judgment in his lectures and in the theological discussions over which he presided. His experience taught him that deep-rooted principles and old customs must be treated with a gentle hand. His heart was filled with piety towards God and love to man, which were always manifested by his unaffected simplicity of manner, in language as plain and expressive as it was elegant. His lectures always attracted a large audience, as he was ever more desirous of correcting error by the statement of truth, than by direct and personal attacks. When he had felt his way, and had obtained numerous supporters in the University, the majority of whom read and studied the Scriptures not only critically but practically; with such friends, he threw off all reserve and spoke of vital religion, the religion of the heart with its practical results, and the best means of promoting them amongst the people. His lectures and sermons were full of the Scriptures, forming short treatises on Divinity, worthy of the Oxford Professor. He entertained a deep conviction, that the only way of promoting vital and practical religion in the mass of the population, was by giving them the Word of God in their own tongue. He had, therefore, for some time been engaged in translating the Scriptures into English, from the Latin Vulgate, the authorised version of the Church of that day. Many of his most able and faithful friends assisted him in this holy work. While he was increasing in Christian knowledge, and imparting it to the common people, as well as to those numerous students of the University who attended his Lectures for the acquisition of that scriptural knowledge, which would enable them to discharge faithfully the duties of parish Priests throughout the whole land,—his reputation, his piety and worldly prosperity went hand in hand. His past services to the crown were rewarded in 1374, by his being presented to the valuable Rectory of Lutterworth. As ecclesiastics were generally the best educated men of that time, and therefore well prepared to assist in state affairs, Wycliffe was employed by the Government as a Diplomatist in several embassies. The See of Rome could not forget the rebuke and victory of Wycliffe. Though silent, Rome was ever watchful for an opportunity of crushing the successful opponent. Wycliffe and his friends went on, with great zeal and energy, in their work of translating and disseminating the Scriptures. As his knowledge of revelation increased, and his view of divine truth was cleared, he manifested greater decision and fully declared his religious opinions. When his friends, who had supported him from motives of state policy, saw that his governing principle was scriptural truth, they forsook him. The See of Rome seized the opportunity, and annoyed and persecuted him; but opposition could not retard his work.

This brief notice must not be lengthened by entering into details: it is only necessary to state, that Courtney, Archbishop of Canterbury, under the influence of the Church of Rome, with the aid of the Aristocracy and the sanction of the timid Richard II., brought a bill into the House of Lords to arrest Wycliffe and his followers, "and hold them in "strong prison till they justify themselves according to the law and "reason of Holy Church*." As soon as the Bill had passed the Lords, Courtney endeavoured to carry it into effect. The House of Commons remonstrated upon its illegality, not having passed their house. The Chancellor of the University excused himself by declaring, that his own life and the peace of the University would be endangered, if Wycliffe were taken. To allay the fury of the storm, Wycliffe thought it prudent, in Nov. 1382, to retire to the country. But persecution was so severe and unrelenting, that he was compelled to descend from what had been his throne—his professorial chair, and to leave the University for ever. He sought retirement at Lutterworth, where, despite all opposition and persecution, he fearlessly wrote in defence of his doctrines, and proceeded in his work of completing and revising the translation of the Scriptures, till his death, on the last day of Dec. 1384.

The bitter feeling and hostility of the See of Rome did not end with Wycliffe's death, but by a decree of the Council of Constance his remains were disinterred in 1428, then burnt and the ashes cast into the Swift, a streamlet which runs by Lutterworth†. But Wycliffe lives, and ever will live in the hearts and affections of the Anglo-Saxon race, as the first translator of the whole of the Scriptures into English.

As Oxford was the chief scene of Wycliffe's literary enjoyment and fame, the home of his heart, a retreat which he always sought with pleasure and left with regret, it is gratifying to know that Oxford has raised an imperishable monument to Wycliffe's memory by publishing, at its own expense, the splendid edition in 4 vols. 4to. of "The Holy Bible, containing the Old and New Testaments, with the Apocryphal Books, in the earliest English Versions made from the Latin Vulgate by John Wycliffe and his Followers; edited by the Rev. Josiah Forshall, F.R.S. etc., late Fellow of Exeter College, and Sir Frederic Madden, K.H. F.R.S. etc., Keeper of the MSS. in the British Museum. Oxford, at the University Press 1850."

This is one of the best, most laborious, and accurate editions of any early English author I have ever seen. The editors have examined and described 170 MSS., and selected and most carefully printed two of the best in parallel columns, the first written before 1390, and the second before 1420. The Prologues and every available and desirable information have been given. A very excellent and ample Glossary is appended to the 4th vol. Altogether, this edition is the work of sound and ripe scholars,—an honour to the University of Oxford and their press, as well as to the literary veterans, the editors. All must acknowledge with them, that "they have spared neither time nor pains to render their work complete;" especially when it is known, that "A considerable portion of their time, during nearly twenty-two years, has been spent in accomplishing their task."—Pref. p. xxxviii.

Our text of Wycliffe's Gospels is founded upon the first version given in this Oxford edition of 1850, collated with the original MS. in the Bodleian, No. 369 of the Douce Collection. This MS. is written on vellum, in large fol. 2 cols. ff. 486 [429 bis], consisting of two distinct MSS., both imperfect. The first is written with marginal corrections throughout, in three different hands, all before 1390*. The second part of the volume, from fol. 251 to the end, containing the Text of our Gospels, is written about the same time as the former, that is before 1390, say the preceding year 1389, the date I have adopted. A facsimile of this MS., Matt. vi. 14, 15, is given in the plate facing the Title. Sir F. Madden says, in Pref. p. xxi., that "the version described .... is to a greater or less degree the work of Wycliffe; that it is the earliest translation of the whole Bible in the English language, admits of no reasonable doubt."

Editions of Wycliffe.—The numbers I. II. and III. were from the text before 1420, adopted as the later text in the Oxford edition of 1850.

I. The New Testament of Wycliffe was first printed in folio, London 1731, by the Rev. John Lewis, Minister of Margate, Kent, with a short Glossary or Explanation of the old and obsolete words in Dr. Wycliffe's Translation. The text was taken from two MSS., one of which was his own [now, 1850, Sir F. Madden states, in the Bodleian, Gough, Eccl. Top. 5] and the other the property of Sir Edward Deering, Bart., now, 1850, of the Very Rev. Wm. Conybeare, dean of Llandaff.

II. The Rev. Henry Baber, M. A., republished in 4to., London 1810, a reprint of the preceding with the following additions, which are very valuable, and deserve the attention of every scholar. "A short memoir of the Life, Opinions and Writings of Dr. Wycliffe: an historical account of the Saxon and English versions of the Scriptures which have been made previous to the fifteenth Century. The Glossary of Lewis at the end of the vol. is corrected and considerably enlarged." (p. v.)

III. The New Testament in the same version as that published by the Rev. John Lewis was again published in 1841, from a MS. then belonging to H.R.H. the Duke of Sussex, [now, 1850, in the collection of the earl of Ashburnham,] by Messrs. Bagster, in the English Hexapla, 4to. Lond. 1841.

IV. When the 4to. edition of 1850 was commenced, Sir F. Madden says,—Pref. p. i. note [a],—"No part of the earlier of the two versions before 1390 had ever been printed, with the exception of the Song of Solomon, given by Dr. Adam Clarke in his commentary on the Bible, [8 vols. 4to. Lond. 1810–25,] from a MS. in his own library," [now Brit. Mus. Eg. 618, 619].

V. In 1848, the New Testament in the earlier version, was printed by Mr. Lea Wilson, from a MS. in his own possession, [now, 1850, in the hands of the earl of Ashburnham,] under the title The New Testament in English, translated by John Wycliffe, circa MCCCLXXX. etc. 4to. Lond.

TYNDALE.—The mind cannot be fettered by man, however powerful. We yearn for freedom of heart and soul. All the gifts of God are as free as the light of the sun. So is the light of his divine revelation free to all. By the light of the divine word man sees and knows the truth, and the truth makes him free*. Free from the thraldom of evil—and to do good. His freedom is not for selfishness, dissension and strife, but for order, harmony and truth. At particular times, we see a man raised up, whose love for truth is so great, that it frees him from all fear of evil and even from the fear of death, when put in competition with truth. Such was William Tyndale, as will be seen by a few particulars of his life. William Tyndale, the second of three sons of John Tyndale of Hunt's Court, in the parish of North Nibley, in Gloucestershire, is said to have been born there about the year 1484. He descended from Hugh Baron de Tyndale. At an early age he was sent to Oxford. John Foxe tells us, Wm. Tyndale "was brought up from a child in the University of Oxford, where he by long continuance grew up and increased, as well in the knowledge of tongues and other liberal arts; as specially in the knowledge of the Scriptures, whereunto his mind was singularly addicted; insomuch that he read privily to certain students and fellows of Magdalen College some parcel of divinity. His manners and conversation were such that all, who knew him, reputed and esteemed him to be a man of most virtuous disposition and of life unspotted. Thus he in the University of Oxford, increasing more and more in learning, and proceeding in degrees of the schools, spying his time, removed from thence to the University of Cambridge." He probably went to Cambridge with the view of profiting by the instruction of Erasmus, who lectured on the Greek language in that University, from 1509 till the beginning of 1514. At Cambridge he formed an acquaintance with a young and diligent student, John Frith, who afterwards assisted him in his translation of the New Testament. It must have been about 1518, in his thirty-fourth year, when, as Foxe tells us, Tyndale "had made his abode a certain space now further ripened in the knowledge of God's word, leaving that University also, he resorted to one Maister Welch, a knight of Gloucestershire, and was there schoolmaister to his children, and in good favour with his maister." This was Sir John Welch, of Little Sodbury, at whose house Tyndale held many disputes on religious subjects with the clerical dignitaries of the neighbourhood, who frequented Sir John's table. This brought him into so much danger, that he deemed it prudent to leave the country and go to London.

It is difficult to fix the time of his ordination; we only know that, after preaching at St. Dunstan's in the West the same earnest and practical sermons delivered in the country, he attempted to obtain the patronage of Tonstall, Bishop of London, by sending his translation of the Attic Greek Orator, Isocrates. He was unsuccessful, as the Bishop's palace was full; but an eminent merchant, Humfrey Monmouth, a favourer of Luther, admitted him into his house; and when Tyndale "understode at the laste, not only that there was no rowme in my lorde of london's palace to translate the new testament, but also that there was no place to do it in all englonde," [Prol. to Pentateuch, 1530,] he determined to go to Germany. His friend Monmouth settled upon him an annuity of ten pounds, about £150 of our money, and paid his passage that he might live abroad and finish his translation of the New Testament from Greek into English. He is said to have gone to Wittenberg to confer with Luther, who published in 1522 his first edition of his New Testament in German. Tyndale and his friend John Frith were driven from place to place, till at last they settled in the free imperial city of Worms on the Rhine, where Tyndale's first edition of the New Testament was printed at the end of 1525 or in the early part of 1526, in very small octavo.

The beautiful facsimile edition of Mr. Francis Fry, F.S.A., has been noticed and the full title given in the notes on Tyndale's translation*. He has taken so much pains to acquire accurate information, as to the printer, the place and the date of this first edition of Tyndale's New Testament, that I gladly refer to his satisfactory introduction, illustrated by facsimiles. I have only room for a very brief summary. Peter Schöffer on becoming a Lutheran, found it necessary to leave Mayence, and to settle in the free city of Worms in 1512. Fourteen works printed by Schöffer from 1518 to 1529, seven of which have the imprint Worms, have been carefully compared with the capital letters, the three sizes of type, the woodcut of St. Paul, and the numerals used in the New Testament of Tyndale, and they perfectly accord. Not only the type, but the length of the lines and their number in each page, are exactly the same in the two German editions of the Prophets as in Tyndale's Testament. The water-marks in the paper are also the same. If then the same type, the length and the number of lines in a page, the same woodcut and water-mark are found in the other works of Schöffer, printed at Worms, as in Tyndale's New Testament of 1526, can there be any reasonable doubt that it was printed at Worms by Peter Schöffer, corroborated as this inference is by the Lutheran profession of Schöffer, and the residence of Tyndale at Worms? There is not any date in the Testament; but, as Cochlæus caused Tyndale to flee to Worms in the middle of 1525, and the Testament was printed there immediately after, we may conclude it was published by the end of that year, or the beginning of the next, as it was sold in Oxford "before the 7th of Feb. 1526†."

There is an imperfect copy of Tyndale's New Testament of 1526 in the Library of St. Paul's Cathedral. The only copy known to exist, perfect from the beginning of St. Matt. to the end of Revelation, is in the Baptist's College, Bristol. Of this Bristol copy, Mr. Fry has taken a very correct facsimile, which was made on tracing paper, transferred to stone, and printed. The whole lithographic impression consists of one hundred and seventy-seven copies, of which twenty-six are in 4to.

Our gratitude is due to the free city of Worms, for the protection of Tyndale, while printing the first edition of his New Testament. In England's days of darkness and persecution, on the false plea of religion, which, when pure, and under the mild and sympathizing influence of the Gospel, abhors tyranny, we are deeply indebted to Hamburg and other free cities of Germany; and, in after times of still greater gloom, to Holland and Switzerland for their friendly reception and protection of our refugee countrymen, when their lives were imperilled at home, for conscientiously adhering to those truths which they had learned from the Scriptures. In these free cities and states, our countrymen were received as brethren, with honour,—their talents and learning acknowledged, and their works printed and published. Though Tyndale had the reputation of being well versed in modern as well as ancient languages, we should not have known the extent of his lingual acquirements, nor whether the first impression of his New Testament was large or small, if the following facts in the year 1526 had not been recorded, by the friendly hand of a foreigner, in the diary of Spalatinus, secretary of Frederic, the elector of Saxony, and supporter of Luther. Von Busche, Professor of Hebrew in the University of Marburg, a personal friend of Tyndale, "told us that six thousand copies of the New Testament in the English language had been printed at Worms; and that this translation had been made by an Englishman, sojourning there with two other natives of England, who was so skilled in seven languages, Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Italian, Spanish, English, and German, that whichever he might be speaking, you would think it to be his native tongue*."

The quarto translation with notes, partly printed at Cologne, was finished at Worms in 1526, as well as the very small octavo already described. The Dutch booksellers found such ready sale for Tyndale's translation, that they issued several editions, without any correction or supervision of the translator, who is supposed to have gone to Hamburg after 1526 to obtain the best Hebrew criticism, from the learned Jews in that city, and to correct what he had translated of the Old Testament by the original Hebrew. There he met with Miles Coverdale, who assisted him in translating the five books of Moses into English, printed by the Hamburg press in 1530. Tyndale's English version of Jonah issued from the same press in 1531. We next hear of Tyndale at Antwerp, where he found a faithful friend in Thomas Poyntz, an English merchant, who cordially received him into his house. While residing in this respected family, besides preaching to the English residents, he most carefully revised his translation of the New Testament, and in 1534, after the lapse of eight years, published it with this title:—

The Newe Testament, dylygently corrected and compared with the Greke by Willyam Tindale: and fynesshed in the yere of oure Lorde God anno M.D. and XXXIIII. in the moneth of Nouember.—Then follows. "W. T. vnto the Reader. Here thou hast (moost deare reader) the New Testament, or covenaunt made wyth us of God in Christes bloude. Which I have looked over agayne (now at the last), with all dylygence, and compared it vnto the Greke, and have weded oute of it many fautes, which lacke of helpe at the begynninge and oversyght dyd sowe therin."

Tyndale's translation of the Scriptures had been denounced by public authority in England; and, by an imperial decree promulgated at the diet of Augsburg in 1530, persons accused of heresy could be seized and cast into prison. Those who opposed the reading of the Scriptures in the language of the people were enraged when they saw the increased supply of the English version; and, availing themselves of the imperial decree, they employed secret influence and agency for the capture of Tyndale. Henry Philips was sent to Antwerp, who, under the guise of friendship, inveigled him from the house of Poyntz in August 1535, and then delivered him into the hands of the officers, sent to apprehend him as a denounced heretic. Tyndale was at once conveyed to the Castle of Vilvoord, about eighteen miles from Antwerp. Though great efforts were made for his liberation, they were all ineffectual; for, after being confined in prison more than a year, he was brought to trial; and "at last," says Foxe, "he was condemned by virtue of the Emperor's decree, made in the assembly at Augsburg; and upon the same brought forth to the place of execution; was there tied to a stake; and then first strangled by the hangman, and afterward with fire consumed, in the morning [*of October 6th], at the town of Vilvoord, in the year 1536, when he was about the age of fifty-two. Thus much of William Tyndale, who, for his notable pains and travail, may be worthily called an apostle of England."

* The date in Foxe's Calendar. See Walter's Biographical Notice, p. lxxiv, prefixed to the Works of Tyndale, 8vo. 1848.

Though Henry VIII did not appear to have any connection with carrying into effect this arbitrary, unjust and cruel decree, Tyndale earnestly and with a loud voice prayed at the stake—"Lord! open the King of England's eyes!"—The prayer of the dying martyr was heard; for, before the close of 1536, the first volume of the Holy Scriptures in English ever printed in this country, the folio edition of the *New Testament, issued from the press of the king's own printer, with the name of William Tyndale on the title. Nay more, when what is generally called Matthew's Bible was published in 1537, the king gave his royal "Licence that the same may be sold, and read of every person, without "danger of any act, proclamation, or ordinance heretofore granted to "the contrary." This Bible received its designation from the name of Thomas Matthew being given on the title-page. It was chiefly a republication of Tyndale's version; but those parts of the Old Testament, which he did not live to translate, were taken from Coverdale's Bible of 1535. The New Testament of Tyndale had been in circulation for eleven years; and it was the best translation and popular, because the language was familiar to the people. Some of the Prologues and notes of Tyndale had been introduced into Matthew's Bible, and given offence and raised opposition. To remove these objections Archbishop Cranmer, with the king's sanction, proposed the publication of the whole Bible without note or comment. He had the translation of Tyndale copied, and sent in portions to the Bishops for their correction, and then to be returned to him for his final revision. This version was published in 1539, and is known as Cranmer's, or the Great Bible, the first that was authorized "to be sett up in summe convenyent place within the churche, whereat the parishners may rede yt." The Great Bible was the authorized version in the reign of Henry and Edward; and, after the death of Mary, it was authorized by Elizabeth, and continued in general use till superseded by the revised edition of 1568 under the superintendence of Archbishop Parker, assisted by the most learned Bishops, hence called the Bishops' Bible. The first rule, recommended by King James I. in the preparation of our present authorized version of 1611, was this,—"The ordinary Bible read in the Church, commonly called the Bishops' "Bible, to be followed, and as little altered as the original will permit." From this very brief detail, it appears that our present English Version was based upon the Bishops' Bible of 1568, and that upon Cranmer's of 1539, which was a new edition of Matthew's Bible of 1537, partly from Coverdale of 1535, but chiefly from Tyndale; in other words, that our present authorized translation is mainly that of Tyndale, made from the original Hebrew and Greek. It has stood the test of the severest criticism, from his last revision to the present time, without material alteration; because Tyndale, having a critical knowledge of Hebrew and Greek and deep Christian experience, caught the very spirit of the original, and gave the impression of it in plain, idiomatic English. His style is easy, correct and vigorous. His translation of the New Testament is a fine specimen of our language, in what may be called the first stage of maturity. It is the foundation of our standard translation, which is also the standard of our language. He avoids Latin derivatives, and generally uses indigenous words, the strong and expressive Saxon terms, known by all the people. In this respect our version happily follows him. Tyndale translates τὴν ἀγάπην τοῦ Θεοῦ, Lk. xi. 42, the love of God, which our established version has adopted; but Wycliffe has the charite of God, from the Vulgate charitatem Dei. Our translators seldom depart from Tyndale, but when they do, in a particular word, the spirit of the passage is often lost; for instance, in 1 Cor. xiii. 13, Tyndale has, —Nowe abideth fayth, hope and love, even these thre; but the chefe of these is love [ἡ ἀγάπη]. Love is divine affection in the soul, for God is love [ὅτι ὁ Θεὸς ἀγάπη ἐστίν]. Faith in the Saviour is the foundation of good works, hope raises the superstructure, and love completes and crowns it in eternity. Faith works by love, and love is the fulfilling of the law [πλήρωμα νόμου ἡ ἀγάπη]. The perfection of a good work is, that it springs from love. Every Christian knows this to be his ruling principle. We have an illustration of it in filial love. How different is the feeling and conduct of an affectionate child from that of a servant! The child, influenced by love, is unwearied in attention, and the only hope is an increase of mutual affection; while the servant's constraining principle is naturally the hope of material wages. Thus, while Christian love is the constraining principle of action here, and the fulfilling of the law, when our present faith is lost in sight, and hope in enjoyment, this ἀγάπη will continue, and increase throughout eternity.—Now, if this be the literal and true meaning of St. Paul's Greek, let love be substituted for charity, wherever it occurs in 1 Cor. xiii., as it is in Tyndale 1526, followed by Coverdale 1535, Matthew 1537, Archbishop Cranmer 1539, and Parker 1568,—and there can be little doubt that love is more in accordance with the scope of the chapter than charity, and that Tyndale's last clause,—the chefe of these is love, is far better than the Vulgate major horum est charitas, or than Wycliffe's,—the moost of thes is charite, or even than our version,—the greatest of these is charity.

Before I close my Preface, I must have the pleasure of alluding to the friendly assistance I have received in the preparation and printing of these Gospels. First, and most of all, I am deeply indebted to George Waring, Esq., M.A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, and Magdalen Hall, Oxford, whose contributions to Anglo-Saxon philology as editor, for the Surtees Society, of the Lindisfarne and Rushworth Glosses, are already before the public. Many years ago the text of the Gothic and Anglo-Saxon Gospels had been very carefully transcribed, and the Anglo-Saxon collated with the oldest and best MSS. The final revision had been long deferred in consequence of other pressing engagements and failing sight, till all impediments were removed in the early part of 1864 by my friend, who made an arrangement with the Publisher to take the responsibility of preparing my transcript for the press, and seeing it accurately printed:——of harmonizing the division of verses, and the punctuation of the Gothic, Anglo-Saxon, and the translation of Tyndale with Wycliffe and our authorized version: and of regulating, as far as possible, the accents, which indicate the long sound of the Anglo-Saxon vowels over which they are placed. The accent on diphthongs is here omitted, except when found in the MSS., as it was not employed by Dr. Grimm and others to denote the length of the vowel, but merely to indicate the etymological origin of the accented vowel. Every accent in the Anglo-Saxon text, therefore, denotes the long sound of the vowel over which it is placed, and the diphthongs eo, ea, etc. are accented exactly as in B. or in C.

As the simplicity of Anglo-Saxon accentuation has frequently been overlooked, or involved in a complicated system, it will tend to remove false impressions, and to make the matter clear, by recollecting that the Anglo-Saxons only used one accent, which always indicated the long sound of the vowel over which it was placed. Our complicated system of English vowels arose from the Norman scribes, who first confused the Anglo-Saxon accents, and then attempted to supply their place by a multiplicity of vowels, which we have adopted, as will be seen by the following examples:—Cwēn a cween, fēt feet, gēs geese, etc.:—Dīc a dike, līc like, līm lime, wīn wine, etc.:—Bōc a book, fōr fore, before, gōd good, gōs a goose, etc.:—Dū thou, hū how, hūs a house, mūs a mouse, etc.:—Brȳd a bride, fȳr fire, mȳs mice. In all these instances the Anglo-Saxon is quite plain and consistent, expressing the same sound by the same accented vowel, while the English employs different vowels for the same purpose, as in c*ween*, g*eese*;—g*ood*, g*oose*, f*ore*;—th*ou*, h*ow*, h*ouse*, and m*ouse*. The greatest complication of vowels is seen in our expression of the long open sound of o, heard in n*o* and b*one*. We use oe, oa, and o with a silent final e, while the Anglo-Saxons, in all cases, merely accented the â, as,—Dâ a doe, fâ a foe, tâ a toe, etc.—Bât a boat, âc an oak, fâm foam, etc.—Bân a bone, stân a stone, etc. This superabundant employment of English vowels is troublesome to natives, and most perplexing to foreigners. On the contrary, the Anglo-Saxon system of accenting the long vowels is plain and definite. Mr. Waring has been guided by these general principles in accenting the Anglo-Saxon, but Gothic words have not been accented, because not a single accent has been found in Cod. Arg. Every possible care has, however, been taken to secure the greatest verbal accuracy in the Gothic and Anglo-Saxon texts, as well as in the other two.

I believe Mr. Waring has exerted himself to the uttermost to fulfil his engagement, and I have devoted a far longer time to the work than I anticipated would be at my disposal. Neither labour nor expense has been spared, when either could be profitably employed to benefit the work. I have, therefore, not only willingly assisted in preparing the MS. for the press, collated the B text with the C, but I have carefully read over every proof twice and the revise once, after being read in the same manner by Mr. Waring, and by a friend; every sheet has, therefore, been carefully read over at least nine times.

Mr. Waring suggested and superintended the placing of þ and ð, or the hard and soft sound of our modern th, as they are used in all parts of England at the present day. Though in our numerous provincial Dialects almost every letter has a diversity of sounds, I believe there is greater uniformity in the hard and soft sound of our th,—the Anglo-Saxon þ and ð,—than in any other letters. As the true archaism of our good old English and its nervous energy are retained in the provincial Dialects of our Island*, I have no doubt the original and genuine hard and soft sounds of the Anglo-Saxon þ and ð have been transmitted to us by the secluded peasantry of our rural districts, and confirmed by those educated in our Universities and towns. The only way then of recovering the right sound of þ and ð, and of correctly applying these characters in writing and printing Anglo-Saxon, is to adopt the true English sound of these letters. If the two distinct sounds of our modern th have been faithfully conveyed to us, we only ascend to Anglo-Saxon times and re-adopt their rational system by using their two distinct characters for these two distinct sounds. The Norman scribes could not distinguish between the hard and soft sound of þ and ð; they therefore, in writing Anglo-Saxon, confounded them, using the one or the other without any apparent distinction. Some scribes only employed ð or ð, which is the same letter in a modified form, as in the Rushworth Gloss, which discards the use of þ altogether in St. Mark, Luke, and John. Hence the th for both sounds in modern English, to the confusion of foreigners. Our present printed Anglo-Saxon text, indicating the true, the distinct hard and soft sound of th by þ and đ, will be a great assistance to foreigners, in showing the correct pronunciation of th, in English words cognate with the Anglo-Saxon.

* See Origin of the English and Germanic Languages, part iii. § 19, p. 26.

The hard, sharp, or acute sound of the English th in *th*in and soo*th*, is represented by the Anglo-Saxon Þ and þ; the soft, flat, or grave sound of TH in THine and sooTHe is represented by Đ, đ or ð.

For ascertaining the hard and soft sound of th, equally applicable to English and Anglo-Saxon, are given the following general RULES.

I. The hard, sharp or acute Þ or þ, is used in the beginning of all words, not pronominal, as þincan to *th*ink, þin *th*in.

a. And at the end of radical and inflectional terminations, as bæþ a ba*th*, clâþ clo*th*, sôþ soo*th*, þinċþ *th*inke*th*. Except wiđ with, etc.

b. And sometimes when th is preceded or followed by a consonant, as embþencan to *th*ink about; êþnes easiness; þritig *th*irty.

II. The soft, flat or grave Đ, đ or ð is used in the beginning of all pronouns and of all words derived from pronouns, as đæt THat; đe THe; đæslic like TH*is*, đanonne TH*ence*, đærđær TH*ere*.

a. Also often between two vowels, as bađu baTHs, bađian to baTHe, clâđum with cloTHes.

These Rules are in perfect accordance with those given in our best works on orthoepy.

In the printing department, we have had the most willing assistance and co-operation from all engaged in the work at the University Press, to whom our thanks are due.

To the Master of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, Dr. Pulling, to the Rev. Henry Octavius Coxe, M. A., Librarian, and to the Assistant-Librarians of the Bodleian, Oxford, I am greatly indebted, for the most ready and friendly assistance, in the consultation and use of MSS. under their care. Though I had carefully collated the whole of the Bene't, or Corpus MS. of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels, with my own copy, in 1832, and examined it again in 1841, I have frequently had to consult it since 1850. While the stringent regulations, made by Archbishop Parker, for the preservation of the MSS. and printed books left to Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, have been observed, the Master, Dr. Pulling, and the Fellows of the College, have had the happy art of giving every facility, in so friendly a manner as to avoid the least appearance of conferring a favour. The same may be said of Dr. Guest, Master of Caius College, who has most kindly removed doubts by consulting the MS. My best and most willing acknowledgments are due to the Rev. J. E. B. Mayor, M.A., Librarian of the University of Cambridge, and to Henry Bradshaw, Esq., M.A., Fellow of King's College, for their ready assistance in procuring a Grace of the Senate to take out of the Library one of their treasures, the MS. of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels. I have, therefore, had the great advantage of the unrestrained possession and use of this MS. for reference, during the time the Anglo-Saxon text has been passing through the Oxford University Press.

Notes on the Gothic Alphabet.

[1] The Gothic alphabet is evidently formed from the Greek. It was first used by Ulphilas about A.D. 360. See Facsimile, and Preface, p. iii.

[2] Most of the Gothic letters have the same sound as their English representatives; but, as in Greek so in Gothic, g has always a hard sound, as in give; and g before another g, or before k, has the sound of n: thus, Lk. i. 11, aggilus, an angel, is pronounced angilus, as the Grk. ἄγγελος: Lk. v. 21, þagkyan, to think, is pronounced thankyan.

[3] Is represented by our q sounded as kw, thus qens a wife, Lk. i. 18, is pronounced kweens.

[4] Our indefinite th would have been used, but the A.S. þ was necessary to distinguish ψ from th as separate letters in such words as athaitands, Lk. vii. 19.

[5] As ya yea, yuk a yoke.

[6] As oy between two consonants.

[7] The hard ch as the Grk. χ.

[8] As in wheila while, whan when; hw could not be used, as hw occur as separate letters in hwssopo, pronounced hoyssopo, Skeir. p. 179.

[9] 𐌹𐌰 = 11: 𐌺𐌰 = 21: 𐌽𐌲 = 53: 𐍀𐍃𐌷 = 188: 𐍅𐌰𐍉 = 537.

Notes on the Anglo-Saxon Alphabet.

	Eng. Vowels.	Ang.-Sax. Vowels.		Eng. Vowels.	Ang.-Sax. Vowels.
[b] a	a as a in man.		e o	o as o in cock.
	æ[h] as ai in main.			ǫ́ as o in coke.
[c] e	e as e in met.			ǫ́ as oo in cook.
	ǽ as ea in meat.		[f] u	u as u in full.
	ê as ee in meet.			ū as ou in foul.
[d] i	i as i in win.		[g] y	y as y in lyfaþ.
	ī as i in wine.			ȳ as y in lȳf life.

[1] Ð, ð, ȣ have the sound of th in *th*ine and soo*th*e. See p. xxxii.

[k] þ, Þ have the sound of th in *th*in and soo*th*. See p. xxxii.

Note—The accent, in Anglo-Saxon, indicates the long vowels [see notes [b–g] and p. xxx] and must not be confounded with syllabic emphasis, or the stress of the voice, which falls upon the chief syllable in a word. This emphasis, in Gothic and Anglo-Saxon, is always upon the first radical syllable of a word, and never upon prefixes, such as a, be, ge, etc.

3 Herode the kynge after he hadd herde thys was troubled, and all Jerusalem with hym.

4 And he sent for all the chefe prestes, and scribes off the people, and demaunded off them, where Christ shulde be borne.

5 They sayde vnto hym, In Bethleem a toune of Jury; for thus it is written be the prophet,

6 And thou, Bethleem, in the londe of Jury, shalt not be the leest as perteyninge to the princes of Juda; for out of the shal come a captaine, whych shall govern my people Israhel.

7 Then Herod prevely called the wyse men, and dyligently enquyred of them the tyme of the starre that appered.

8 And sent them to Bethleem, saynge, When ye be come thyder, searche dyligentily for the childe, and when ye have founde hym, bringe me worde, that Y maye come and worshippe hym also.

9 When they had herde the kynge, they departed. And lo! the starre, whych they sawe in the este, went before them, vntyll it cam and stod over the place, where the chylde was.

10 When they sawe the starre, they were marveylously gladd.

11 And entred into the house, and founde the childe with Mary, hys mother; and kneled doune and worshipped hym. And opened there treasoures, and offred unto him gyftes, gold, franckynsence, and myr.

12 And after they were warned in ther slepe, that they shulde not go ageyne to Herod, they retourned into ther awne countre another way.

13 After that they were departed, lo!

loo! the aungel of the Lord apperide in sleep to Joseph, sayynge, Ryse vp, and take the child and his modir, and flee in to Egipt, and be thou there, til that I seye to thee; sothely it is to cume, that Herode seeke the child, for to lese hym.

14 The whiche Joseph, rysynge vp, toke the chijld and his modir by ny3te, and wente into Egipt,

15 And was there til to the deth of Erode; that it shuld be fulfillid, that thing that was said of the Lord by the prophete, sayinge, Fro Egypt Y haue clepide my sone.

16 Thanne Erode seeynge that he was scorned† of the kyngis, was gretely wroth; and he sendynge slew3 alle the children, that weren in Bethlem, and in alle the eendis of it, fro two 3eer age and with ynne, after the tyme that he hadde sou3t out of the kyngis.

14 Then he arose, and toke the chylde and his mother by night, and departed in to Egipte,

15 And was there vnto the deeth of Herod; to fulfill that which was spoken of the Lorde by the prophet, which sayeth, Out of Egipte have Y called my sonne.

16 Then Herod perceavynge that he was moocked off the wyse men, was exceedynge wroth; and sent forth and slue all the chyldren, that were in Bethleem, and in all the costes there of, as many as were two yere old and vnder, accordynge to the tyme which he had diligently searched oute of the wyse men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken be the prophet, Jeremi, saynge,

18 On the hilles was a voyce herde, mournynge wepynge and greate lamentacion, Rachel wepynge ffor her chyldren, and wolde nott be comforted, because they were not.

19 When Herod was deed, lo! an angell off the Lorde apered vnto Joseph in Egipte, 20 Saynge, Arise, and take the chylde and his mother, and go in to the londe of Israhel; for they are deed which sought the chyldes deeth.

21 Then he arose vp, and toke the chylde and his mother, and cam into the londe of Israhel.

22 But when he herde that Archelaus did raygne in Jury in the roume off hys father, Herode, he was afrayde to goo thether. Notwithstondynge, after he was warned in his slepe, he tourned a syde into the parties off Galile;

CHAP. III. 1 In thilke days came Joon Baptist, prechynge in the desert of Jude,

2 Sayinge, Do ȝe penaunce, for the kyngdom of heuens shal neiȝ.†

3 Forsothe this is he, of whom it is said by Ysaye, the prophete, A voice of a cryinge in desert, Make ȝe redy the wayes of the Lord; make ȝe riȝtful the pathes of hym.

4 Forsothe that ilk Joon hadde cloth of the heeris of cameylis, and a girdil of skyn aboute his leendis; sothely his mete weren locustis, and hony of the wode.

5 Thanne Jerusalem wente out to hym, and al Jude, and al the cuntre aboute Jordan;

6 And thei weren cristenyd of hym in Jordan, knowlechynge there synnes.

7 Sothely he seeynge many of Pharisees and of Saducese commynge to his bapteme, saide to hem, Generaciouns of eddris, who shewide to ȝou for to flee fro wrath to cumme?

13 Thanne Jhesus came fro Galilee in to Jordan to Joon, for to be cristned of hym.

14 Soothly Joon forbeed hym, sayinge,

CHAP. III. 1 In those dayes Jhon the Baptiser cam, and preached in the wildernes off Jury,

2 Saynge, Repent, the kyngdome of heven is at honde.

3 This is he, of whom it is spoken be the prophet, Esay, which sayeth, The voyce off a cryer in wyldernes, Prepare the Lordes way; and make hys pathes strayght.

4 This Jhon had hys garment off camels heer, and a gerdell off a skynne aboute his loynes; hys meate was locustes, and wylde hony.

5 Then went oute to hym Jerusalem, and all Jury, and all the region rounde aboute Jordan;

6 And were baptised of hym in Jordan, knoledging their synnes.

7 When he sawe many off the Pharises and off the Saduces come to hys baptism, he sayde vnto them, O generacion of vipers, who hath taught you to fle from the vengeaunce to come?

8 Brynge forth therefore the frutes belongynge to repentaunce.

9 And se that ye ons thinke not to saye in yourselves, We have Abraham to oure father; for I say vnto you, that God is able off these stones to rayse vp chyldren vnto Abraham.

10 Even nowe is the ax put vnto the rote of the trees; soo that every tree which bringeth not fforthe goode frute, shalbe hewne doune, and cast into the fyre.

11 I baptise you in water, in token of repentaunce; but he that cometh after me is myghtier then I, whose shues I am not worthy to beare; he shal baptise you with the Holy Gost and with fyre.

12 Which hath also his fan in his hond, and will pourge his floore, and gadre the wheet into his garner; and will burne the chaffe with everlastynge fyre.

13 Then cam Jesus from Galile into Jordan to Jhon, ffor to be baptised off hym.

14 But Jhon fforbade hym, saynge, I

Chap. IV. 1 Thanne Jhesus was led in to desert of a spirit, that he shulde be temptid of the deuel.

2 And whanne he hadde fastid fourty days and fourety niȝtis, afterward he hungride.

3 And the tempter cummynge niȝ, saide to hym, ȝif thou be Goddis sone, say that these stoons be maad looues.

10 Than Jhesus saide to hym, Go, ought to be baptysed off the, and commest thou too me?

15 Jesus answered and sayde to hym, Lett hyt be so nowe, for thus hit becommeth us to fulfyll all rightewesnes. Then he suffred hym.

16 And Jesus as sone as he was baptised cam strayght out of the water; and lo! heven was open vnto hym, and he sawe the Spirite of God descende lyke a dove, and lyght vppon hym;

17 And lo! there cam a voice from heven, sayng, Thys ys my deare sonne, in whom is my delyte.

Chap. IV. 1 Then was Jesus ledd awaye of the spirite in to a desert, to be tempted of the devyll.

2 And when he had fasted fourtye dayes and fourtye nyghtes, att the last he was an hungred.

3 Then came vntyll hym the tempter, and sayde, Yff thou be the sonne of God, commande that these stones be made bred.

4 He answered and sayde, Yt is wrytten, Man shall nott live only by breede, but by every worde that procedeth out off the mouth off God.

5 Then the devyll tooke him vpp in to the holy cite, and set hym on a pynacle of the temple, and sayd vnto hym,

6 Yf thou be the sonne of God, cast thysylfe doune; for hit ys wrytten, He shall geve his angels charge over the, and with there handes the shall stey the vpp, that thou dashe not thy fote agaynst a stone.

7 Jesus sayde to hym, Hit ys wrytten also, Thou shalt not tempte thy Lorde God.

8 The devyll toke hym up agayne and ledde hym in to an excedynge hye mountayne, and shewed hym al the kyngdomes of the worlde, and the beauty of them;

9 And sayde vnto hym, All these will I geve the, iff thou wilt faull doune and worship me.

42 Geve to him that axeth, and from him that wolde borowe tourne not awaye.

43 Ye have herde howe it is sayde, Thou shalt love thyne neghbour, and hate thine enemy.
44 But Y saye vnto you, love youre enemies, blesse them that coursse you, do good to them that hate you, praye ffor them which doo you wronge, and persecute you;
45 That ye maye be the chyldren of youre hevenly father, ffor he maketh his sunne to aryse on the yvell and on the good, and sendeth his reyne on the iuste and on the iniuste.
46 For yf ye shall love them which love you, what rewarde shall ye have? doo not the publicans even so?
47 And if ye be frendly to youre brethren onli, what singuler thynge doo ye? doo nott the publicans lykewyse?

48 Ye shall therfore be perfecte, even as youre hevenly father is perfecte.

Chap. VI. 1 Take hede to youre almes, that ye geve it not in the syght of men to the intent that ye wolde be sene off them, or els ye gett no rewarde off youre father in heven.
2 Whensoever therfore thou gevest thine almes, thou shalt not make a trompet to be blowne before the, as the ypocrites do in the synagoges and in the stretes, ffor to be preysed off men; verily I say vnto you, they have there rewarde.

17 But whan thou fastist, anoynte thin hede, and washe thi face,

3 But when thou doest thine almes, let not thy lyfte hond knowe what thy righte hand doth,

4 That thyne almes may be secret, and thy father which seith in secret, shall rewarde the openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt nott be as the ypocrites are, for they love to stond and praye in the synagogges and in corners of the stretes, because they wolde be sene of men; vereley I saye vnto you, they have there rewarde.

6 But when thou prayest, entre into thy chamber, and shutt thy dore to the, and praye to thy father which ys in secrete, and thy father which seith in secret, shal rewarde the openly.

7 But when ye praye bable not moche, as the gentyls do, for they thincke that they shalbe herde ffor there moche bablynges sake.

8 Be ye not lyke them there fore, for youre father knoweth wherof ye have neade, before ye axe off him.

9 After thys maner there fore praye ye, O oure father which arte in heven, halowed be thy name;

18 That thou be nat seen fastynge to men, but to thi fadir that is in hidlis, and thi fadir that seeth in hidlis, shal ȝeelde to thee.

19 Nyle ȝe tresoure to ȝou tresours in erthe, wher rust and mouȝthe distruyeth, and wher theeues deluen out and stelen;

20 But tresoure ȝee to ȝou tresouris in heuene, wher neither rust ne mouȝthe distruyeth, and wher theues deluen nat out,† ne stelen.

21 Forsothe wher thi tresour is, there and thin herte is.

22 The lanterne of thi body is thin eȝe; ȝif thin eiȝe be symple, al thi body shal be liȝtful;

23 Bot ȝif thyn eiȝe be weyward, al thi body shal be derkful. Therfore ȝif the liȝt that is in thee be derknessis, how grete shulen thilk derknessis be?

24 No man may serue to two lordis, forsothe ethir he shal haat the toon, and loue the tother; other he shal susteyn the toon, and dispise the tothir. ȝe mown nat serue to God and richessis.

25 Therfore Y say to ȝou, that ȝe ben nat besie to ȝoure lijf, what ȝe shulen ete; othir to ȝoure body, with what ȝe shuln be clothid. Wher ȝoure lijf is nat more than mete, and the body more than clothe?

26 Beholde ȝe the fleeȝinge foulis of the eir, for thei sowen nat, ne repyn, neither gadren in to bernys; and ȝoure fadir of heuen fedith hem. Wher ȝe ben nat more worthi than thei?

28 And of clothing what ben ȝe besye? Beholde ȝe the lilies of the feelde, how thei wexen. Thei traueilen nat, nether spynnen;

29 Trewly I say to ȝou, for whi neither Salamon in al his glorie was keuerid as oon of thes.

30 For ȝif God clothith thus the heye of the feeld, that to day is, and to morwe

18 That it appere nott vnto men howe that thou fastest, but vnto thy father which is in secrete, and thy father which seith in secret, shall rewarde the openly.

19 Gaddre not treasure together on erth, where rust and mothes corrupte, and where theves breake through and steale;

20 But gaddre ye treasure togedder in heven, where nether rust nor mothes corrupte, and wher theves nether breake vp, nor yet steale.

21 For whearesoever youre treasure ys, there are youre hertes also.

22 The light off thy body is thyne eye; wherfore if thyne eye be single, all thy body ys full of light;

23 But and if thyne eye be wycked, then is all thy body full of dercknes. Wherefore yf the light that is in the be dercknes, howe greate ys that dercknes?

24 No man can serve two masters, for other he shall hate the one, and love the other; or els he shall lene the one, and despise the other. Ye can nott serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I saye vnto you, be not carefull for youre lyfe, what ye shall eate, or what ye shall dryncke; nor yet for youre boddy, what rayment ye shall weare. Ys not the lyfe more worth then meate, and the boddy more off value then rayment?

26 Beholde the foules of the aier, for they sowe not, neder reepe, nor yet cary into the barnes; and yett youre hevenly father fedeth them. Are ye not better then they?

27 Whiche off you though he toke tought therefore coulde put one cubit vnto his stature?

28 And why care ye then for rayment? Beholde the lyles off the felde, howe thy growe. They labour not, nether spynn;

29 And yet for all that I saie vnto you, that even Solomon in all his royalte was nott arayed lyke vnto one of these.

9 Other who of 3ou is a man, whom 3if his sone axe breed, wher he shal dresse to hym a stoon?
10 Other 3if he shal axe a fishe, wher he shal dresse to hym a serpent?
11 Therfore 3if 3e, when 3e ben yuel men, han knowen for to 3eue good thingus 3ouen to 3oure sonys, hou myche more 3oure fadir that is in heuenes shal 3eue good thingis to men axinge hym?
12 Therfore alle thingis, what euer thingis 3ee wolen that men don to 3ou, and 3e do to hem, forsothe these thingis ben the lawe and prophetis.
13 Entre 3e bi the streyt 3ate; for the gate that ledith to perdicioun† is brode, and the weye large, and ther ben many that entren bi it.

14 How streit is the 3ate, and narewe the weye, that ledith to lijf, and there ben fewe that fynden it.

15 Perceyue 3e, and flee fro fals prophetis, the whiche cummen to 3ou in clothingis of sheepis, bot wythynne thei ben rauyshynge wolues;
16 Of her fruytis 3e shulen knowe hem. Whether men gaderen grapis of thornys, or fijgis of breeris?

17 So euery good tree makith good fruytis; sothely an yuel tree makith yuel fruytis.
18 A good tree may nat make yuel fruytis, nether an yuel tree make good fruytis.
19 Euery tree that makith nat good fruyt, shal be kitte doun, and shal be sent in to the fire.
20 Therfore of her fruytis 3ee shulen knowe hem.
21 Nat eche man that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shal entre into the kyngdam of heuenes; but he that doth the wille of my fadir that is in heuenes, he shal entre in to the kyngdam of heuenes.
22 Many shul say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, whether we han nat prophecied in thi name, and han cast out deuelis in thi name, and han don many vertues in thi name?

9 Ys there eny man among you, which wolde proffer his sonne a stone, if he axed him breed?
10 Or if he axed fysshe, wolde he proffer hyme a serpent?
11 Yff ye then, whiche are evyll, eann geve to youre chyldren good gyftes, howe moche moore shall youre father which ys in heven geve good thynges to them that axe off hym?
12 Therfore, whatsoever ye wolde that men shulde do to you, even so do ye to them, this ys the lawe and the prophettes.
13 Enter in at the strayte gate; ffor wyde is the gate, and broade ys the waye thatt leadeth to destruccion, and many there be which goo yn there att.

14 For strayte ys the gate, and narowe is the waye, that leadeth vnto lyfe, and feawe there be that fynde it.

15 Beware off falce prophettes, whiche come to you in shepes clothynge, but inwardly they are ravenynge wolves;

16 Ye shall knowe them by their frutes. Do men gaddre grapes off thornes, or figges of bryres?

17 Even soo evry good tree bryngethe forthe good frute; butt a corrupte tree bryngethe forthe evyll frute.
18 A good tree cannott brynge forthe bad frute, nor yett a bad tree can brynge forthe good frute.
19 Every tree that bryngethe not forthe good frute, shalbe hewne doune, and cast into the fyre.
20 Wherfore by there frutes ye shall knowe them.
21 Not all they thatt say vnto me, Master, Master, shall enter into the kyngdome off heven; but he that fulfilleth my fathers will which ys in heven.

22 Many will saye to me yn that daye, Master, Master, have we nott in thy name prophesied, and in thy name have we not cast oute devyls, and in thy name have we nott done many miracles?

24 Therfore eche man that herith these my wordis, and doth hem, shal be maad liche to a wijse man, that hath bildid his hous vpon a stoon.

25 And rayn came doun, and flodis camen, and wyndis blewen, and rusheden in to that hous; and it felle nat doun, for it was foundid on a stoon.

26 And euery man that herith these my wordis, and doth hem nat, is liche to a man fool, that hath bildid his hous on grauel.†

27 And rayn came doun, and floodis camen, and wyndis blewen, and thei hurliden in to that hous; and it felle doun, and the fallyng doun therof was grete.

28 And it is maad, when Jhesus hadde eendid these wordis, the cumpanyes wondreden on his techyng;

29 Sothely he was techynge hem, as a man hauynge power, and nat as the scribis of hem, and Pharisees.

Chap. VIII. 1 Forsothe when Jhesus hadde comen doun fro the hil, many cumpanyes folewiden hym.

2 And loo! a leprouse man cummynge worshipide hym, sayinge, Lord, 3if thou wolt, thou maist make me clene.

3 And Jhesus, holdynge forthe the hond, touchide hym, sayinge, I wole, be thou maad clene. And anoon the lepre of hym was clensid.

4 And Jhesus saith to hym, See, say thou to no man; but go, shewe thee to prestis, and offre that 3ifte that Moyses comaundide, in to witnessing to hem.

5 Sothely when he hadde entride in to Capharnaum, centurio nei3ide to hym, preyinge hym,

6 And saide, Lord, my child lyeth in the hous sike on the palsie, and is yuel tourmentid.

23 And then will I knowlege vnto them, That I never knewe them; depart from me, ye workers of iniquite.

24 Whosoever hearethe off me these saynges, and doethe the same, I wyll lyken hyme vnto a wyseman, which byllt his housse on a rocke.

25 And aboundance off rayne descended, and the fluddes cam, and the wynddes blewe, and bett vppon that same housse; and it was not over throwen, because it was grounded on the rocke.

26 And whosoever heareth of me these sainges, and doth not the same, shalbe lykened vnto a folysh man, which bilt his housse apon the sonde.

27 And abundaunce of rayne descended, and the fluddes cam, and the wynddes blewe, and beet vppon that housse; and it was over throwen, and great was the fall off it.

28 And it cam to passe, that when Jesus had ended these saynges, the peple were astonnied at his doctryne;

29 For he taught them, as one havynge power, and not as the scribes.

Chap. VIII. 1 When Jesus was come downe from the mountayne, moch people folowed him.

2 And lo! there cam a lepre and worsheped him, saynge, Master, if thou wylt, thou canst make me clene.

3 He putt forthe his hond, and touched him, saynge, I wyll, be clene. And immediatly his leprosy was clensed.

4 And Jesus said vnto him, Se, thou tell no man; but go, and shewe thysilf to the preste, and offer the gyfte that Moses commaunded to be offred, in witnes to them.

5 When Jesus was entred in to Capernaum, there cam vnto him a certayne Centurion, besechyng him,

7 And Jhesus saith to hym, I shal cume, and shal hele hym.
8 And centurio answerynge saith to hym, Lord, I am not worthi, that thou entre vndir my roof; but oonly say bi word, and my child shal be helid.

9 For whi and I am a man ordeynd vnder power, hauynge vndir me kniȝtis; and I say to this, Go, and he goth; and to an other, Come thou, and he cometh; and to my seruaunt, Do thou this thing, and he doth.
10 Sothely Jhesus, heerynge these thingis, wondride, and saide to men suynge hym, Trewly I saye to ȝou, I fonde nat so grete feith in Yrael.

11 Sothely Y say to ȝou, that manye shulen come fro the est and west, and shulen rest with Abraham and Ysaac and Jacob in the kyngdam of heuenes;
12 Forsothe the sonys of the rewme shulen be cast out in to vttremest derknessis; there shal be weepynge, and beetynge togidre of teeth.
13 And Jhesus saide to centurio, Go, and as thou hast bileeued, be it don to thee. And the child was helid fro that houre.
14 And when Jhesus hadde comen in to the hous of Symond Petre, he say his wyues moder liggynge, and shakun with feueris.
15 And he touchide hir hond, and the feuer lefte hir; and she roose, and seruyde hem.
16 Sothely whan the euenyng was maad, thei brouȝte to hym many hauynge deuelys, and he castide out spiritis by word, and helide alle hauynge yuel;

17 That it shulde be fulfillid, that thing that was said by Ysaie, the prophete, sayinge, He toke oure infirmytees, and bere oure sykenessis.
18 Sothely Jhesus seeynge many cumpanyes about hym, bad his disciplis go ouer the water.
19 And oo scribe† commynge to, saide to hym, Maistre, I shal sue thee, whidir euer thou shalt go.

7 And Jesus sayd vnto him, I wyll come, and cure him.
8 The Centurion answered and saide, Syr, I am not worthy, that thou shuldest com vnder the rofe of my housse; but speake the worde only, and my servaunt shalbe healed.
9 For Y also my selfe am a man vndre power, and have sowdeeres vndre me; and Y saye to one, Go, and he goeth; and to anothre, Come, and he cometh; and to my servaunt, Do this, and he doeth it.
10 When Jesus herde these saynges, he marveyled, and said to them that folowed him, Verely Y say vnto you, I have not founde so great fayth, no, not in Israell.
11 I say therfore vnto you, that many shall come from the eest and weest, and shall rest with Abraham Ysaac and Jacob in the kyngdom of heven;
12 And the children of the kingdom shalbe cast out in to the vtmoost derknes; there shalbe wepinge, and gnasshing of tethe.
13 Then Jesus said vnto the Centurion, Go thy waye, and as thou hast beleued, so be it vnto the. And his servaunt was healed that same houre.
14 And Jesus went into Peters housse, and sawe his wyves mother lyinge sicke of a fevre.

15 And he thouched her hande, and the fevre leeft her; and she arose, and ministred vnto them.
16 When the even was come, they brought vnto him many that were possessed with devylles, and he cast out the spirites with a worde, and healed all that were sicke;
17 To fulfill that whiche was spoken by Esay, the prophet, sainge, He toke on him oure infirmytes, and bare oure sicknesses.
18 When Jesus saw moche people about him, he commaunded to go over the water.

24 And lo! there arose a greate storme in the see, in so moche that the shippe was hyd with waves; and he was aslepe.

25 And his disciples cam vnto him, and awocke hym, sayinge, Master, save vs; we perishe.

26 And he said vnto them, Why are ye fearfull o ye endewed with lytell faithe? Then he arose and rebuked the wyndes and the see, and there folowed a greate calme.

27 And men marveyled, and said, What man is this, that bothe wyndes and see obey hym?

28 And when he was come to the other syde in to the countre off the Gergesens, there met him two possessed of devylles, which cam out off the graves, and were out off measure fearce, so that no man myght go by that waye.

29 And lo! they cryed out, saynge, O Jesu, the sonne off God, what have we to do with thee? art thou come hyther to torment vs before the tyme be come?

30 There was a good waye off from them a greate heerd of swyne fedinge.

31 Then the devyles besought him, saynge, If thou cast vs out, suffre vs to go oure waye into the heerd of swyne.

32 And he said vnto them, Go youre wayes. Then went they out and departed into the heerd of swyne; and lo! all the heerd of swyne was caryed with violence hedlinge into the see, and perisshed in the water.

33 Then the heerdmen fled, and went there ways into the cite, and tolde every thinge, and what had fortuned vnto them that were possessed of the devyls.

3 And lo! certeyne of the scribes said in them selves, He blasphemeth.

4 And when Jesus sawe there thoughtes, he said, Wherfore thinke ye evyll in your herttes?

5 Whether ys esyer to saye, Thi sinnes ar foryeven the, or to saye, Arise, and walke?

6 That ye may knowe, that the sonne of man hathe power to foryeve synnes in erth, then sayd he vnto the sicke of the palsey, Aryse; take vppe thi beed, and go home to thyne housse.

7 And he arose, and departed to his housse.

8 The people that sawe it marveylled, and glorified God, which had geven suche power to men.

9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he sawe a man sytt at the receyte off custume, named Matheu. And said to him, Folowe me. And he arose, and folowed him.

10 And hit cam to passe, thatt Jesus satt at meate in his housse, and lo! many publicans and synners cam and satt downe also with Jesus and his disciples.

I have pleasure in mercy, and not in offerynge; for I am not come to call the rightewes, but the sinners to repentaunce.

14 Then cam the desciples of Jhon to hym, saynge, Why do we and the Farises fast ofte, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus sayde vnto them, Can the weddynge chyldren morne, as longe as the bridegrom is with them? The tym will come, when the brydgrome shalbe tacken awaye from them, and then shall they faste.

16 Noo man peceth an olde garment with a pece off newe cloothe; for then tacketh he away the pece agayne from the garment, and the rent ys made worsse.

17 Nether do men put newe wyne into olde vessels, for then the vessels breake, and the wyne runneth oute, and the uessels perysshe. But they powre newe wyne into newe vessels, and so are both saved togedder.

18 Whyls he thus spake vnto them, lo! there cam a certayne ruler, and worshipped hyme, saynge, My doghter is deed all redy; but com, and lay thy honde on her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose and folowed hym, with hys disciples.

35 And Jhesus compaside aboute alle citees and castels, techynge in synagogis of hem, and prechynge the gospel of kyngdam, and helynge al languyshynge†, and al siknesse.

36 Forsothe Jhesus, siynge cumpanyes, hadde rewthe of hem; for thei weren traucilid, and liggynge as sheep nat hauynge a sheperde.

28 And when he was come into the housse, the blynd cam to hym; and Jesus sayde vnto them, Beleve ye, that I am able to do thys? They sayde vnto hyme, Ye, Master.

29 Then touched he their eyes, sayng, Acordynge to youre faythe be it vnto you.

36 But when he sawe the people, he hadd pite on them; because they were pined awaye, and scattered abroade even as shepe havynge no shepheerd.

16 But to whom shal I gesse this generacioun lichy? It is lichi to children sittynge in cheepynge, the whiche, cryinge to her peeris, seien, 17 We han sungen to 3ou, and 3e han nat lippid; we han mourned to 3ou, and 3e han nat weilid.

18 Sothely Joon cam neither etyinge ne drynkynge, and thei seien, He hath a deuel.

19 The sone of man came etynge and drynkynge, and thei seyen, Loo! a man deuourer,† and drynker of wyn, and frend of puplicanys and synful men. And wijsdam is iustified of her sonys.

20 Thanne Jhesus began for to seie repreue to citees, in whiche ful manye vertues of hym ben don, for thei diden nat penaunce.

21 Woo to thee! Corozaym, woo to thee! Bethsaida; for 3if tho vertues that ben don in 3ou hadden ben don in Tyre and Sydon, sum tyme thei hadden don penaunce in haire and asch.

22 Netheles I say, it shal be softer† to Tyre and Sydon than to 3ou, in the day of dome.

23 And thou, Caphernaum, whether til in to heuen thou shalt be rerid vp? Thou shalt go doun til into helle. For 3if the vertues that ben don in thee, hadden be don in Sodom, perauenture thei shulden han dwellid til vn to this day.

24 Netheles Y saye to 3ou, for to the lond of Sodom it shal be softer† in the day of dome, than to thee.

25 In the ilk tyme Jhesus answerynge saide, I knowleche to thee, fadir, lord of heuen and erthe, for thou hast hid these thingis fro wijse men and ware,† and hast shewid hem to litil men;

26 So, fadir, for whi so it was plesynge tofore thee.

27 Alle thingis ben taken to me of my fadir; and no man knewe the sone, no but the fadir, neither eny man knewe the fadir, no but the sone, and to whom the sone wolde shewe.

28 Alle 3e that traueilen, and ben chargid, come to me, and I shal refreshe† 3ou.

16 But wheare vnto shall Y lyken this generacion? It ys lyke vnto chyldren which syt in the markett, and call vnto there felowes, and saye, 17 We have pyped vnto you, and ye have not daunsed; we have morned vnto you, and ye have not sorowd.

18 For Jhon cam nether eatynge nor drinkinge, and they saye, He hath the devyll.

19 The sonne of man cam eatynge and drinkynge, and they saye, Beholde! a glutton, and a drynker of wyne, and a frend vnto publicans and synners. And wysdome ys iustified off her chyldren.

20 Then began he to vpbraid the cites, in which most of his miracles were don, because they did not repent.

21 Wo be to the! Chorasin, wo be to the! Betzaida; for if the miracles which wer shewd in you had bene done in Tiyre and Sidon, they had repented longe agon in sack cloth and asshes.

22 Neverthelesse Y say to you, it shall be esier for Tyre and Sidon at the day of iudgment, then for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, which art lift vp vnto heven, shalt be thrust doune to hell. Ffor if the miracles which have bene done in the, had bene shewed in Zodom, they had remayned to this daye.

24 Neverthelesse I say vnto you, it shall be easiar for Zodom in the day of iudgement, then for the.

25 Then Jesus answered and sayd, I prayse the, o father, lorde of heven and erth, because thou hast hid these thynges from the wyse and prudent, and hast opened them vnto babes;

26 Even so, father, for so it pleased the.

27 All thynges are geven vnto me of my father; and no man knoweth the sonne, but the father, nether knoweth eny man the father, save the sonne, and he to whome the sonne will open hym.

Chap. XII. 1 In that tyme Jhesus wente by cornys on the sabot day; forsothe his disciplis, hungrynge, bigunnen to pluc eris of corn, and to ete.

2 Sothely Pharisees seeynge, seiden to hym, Loo! thi disciplis don that thing that is nat leeful to hem to do in sabothis.

3 And he seide to hem, Whether 3e han nat rad, what Dauith didde, when he hungride, and thei that weren with hym?

4 Hou he entride in to the hous of God, and ete loouis of proposicioun,† the whiche loouis was nat leeful to hym to eet, nether to hem that weren with hym, no but to prestis only?

5 Or whether 3e han nat rad in the lawe, for in sabothis prestis in the temple defoulen the sabothis, and thei ben with outen grete synne?

6 Sothely Y saye to 3ou, for this is more than the temple.

7 Forsothe 3if 3e wisten, what it is, I wole mercy, and nat sacrifice, 3e shulden neuer han condempnyd innocentis.

8 Trewly mannys sone is, 3he, lord of the sabot.

10 And loo! a man hauynge a drye hond. And thei axiden hym, sayinge, 3if it is leeful to heele in the sabot? that thei shulden acuse hym.

11 Sothely he seide to hem, Who shal be a man of 3ou, that hath oo sheep, and 3if it shal falle doun in to a dike in the sabotis, whether he shal nat holde, and lift it vp?

Chap. XII. 1 In that tyme went Jesus on the sabot day thorow the corn; and his disciples wer anhongred, and began to plucke the eares off coorne, and to eate.

2 When the Pharises had sene that, they sayde vnto him, Behold! thy disciples do that which is not lawfull to do apon the saboth day.

3 He sayde vnto them, Have ye nott reed, whatt David did, when he was anhoungered, and they alsoo which were with hym?

4 Howe he entred into the housse of God, and ate the halowed loves, whiche wernot lawfull ffor hym to eate, nether ffor them which were with hym, but only for the prestes?

5 Or have ye not reed in the lawe, howe that the prestes in the temple breake the saboth daye, and yet are blamlesse?

6 But I saye vnto you, that here is one greater then the temple.

7 Wherfore if ye had wist, what this saynge meneth, I requyre mercy, and not sacrifice, ye wold never have condemned inocentes.

8 For the sonne off man is lord even off the saboth daye.

9 And he departed thence, and went into their sinagogge.

10 And beholde! there was a man whiche had his hande dryed vp. And they axed hym, saynge, Ys yt lawfull to heale apon the saboth daye? because they myght acuse him.

11 And he sayde vnto them, Whyche ys he a monge you, iff he had a shepe, fallen into a pitt on the saboth daye, that wolde not take hym, and lyft hym out?

12 And howe moche ys a man better

13 Thanne he seide to the man, Strecche forth thin hond. And he streiȝte forth; and it is restorid to helthe as the tother.

14 Forsothe Pharisees goynge out, maden a counsel aȝeins hym, hou thei shulden leese hym.

15 Sothely Jhesus witynge, wente awey thennes; and many sueden hym, and he helide hem alle.

16 And he comaundide to hem, that thei shulden nat make hym opyn;†

17 That that thing shulde be fulfilled, that was said by Ysay, the prophete, seyinge,

18 Loo! my chosen child, whom I haue chosen, my derlyng, in whom it hath wel plesid to my soule; I shal putte my spirit on hym, and he shal telle dome to heithen men.

19 He shal nat stryue, ne crye, nether eny man shal here his voice in stretis.

20 He shal nat breke to gidre a schaken reed, and he shal nat quenche smokynge flax, til that he cast out dome to victorie;

21 And hethen men shulen hope in his name.

22 Thanne a blynd man and doumb, hauynge a deuel, was offrid vp to hym; and he helide hym, so that he spac, and say.

23 And alle the cumpanyes wondreden, and saiden, Wher this be the sone of Dauith?

24 But the Pharisees, herynge, seiden, He this castith not out feendis, no but in Belzabub, prince of fendis.

25 Sothely Jhesus, witynge her thouȝtis, seide to hem, Eche kyngdam departid aȝeins hym self, shal be desolat,† and eche citee, or hous, departid aȝeins it self, shal nat stonde.

26 And ȝif Sathanas castith out Sathanas, he is departid aȝeins hym self; therfore hou shal his kyngdam stonde?

27 And ȝif I in Belzabub cast out then a shepe? Wherfore it ys lefull to do a good dede on the saboth daye.

13 Then sayde he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forthe; and yt was agayne made even as whole as the other.

14 Then the Faryses went forthe, and toke counsell agaynst hym, howe they myght destroye hym.

15 When Jesus knewe that, he departed thence; and moche people folowed him, and he healed them all.

16 And charged them, that they shulde not make him knowne;

17 To fulfyll that which was spoken by Esay, the prophet, which sayeth,

18 Beholde! my sonne, whom I have chosen, my derlinge, in whom my soule hath had delite; I wyll put my sprete on him, and he shall shewe iudgement to te gentyls.

19 He shall not stryve, he shall not crye, nether shall eny man heare hys voyce in te streetes.

20 A brosed rede shall he not breacke, and flaxe that begynneth to burne he shall not quenche, tyll he sende forth iudgement vnto victory;

21 And in hys name shall the gentyls truste.

22 Then was brought to hym, won possessed with a devyll, whych was both blynde and domne; and he healed him, insomuch that he which was blynd and domne both spake, and sawe.

23 And all the people were amased, and sayde, Ys not this the sonne of David?

24 When the Pharises herde that, they sayde, He dryveth the devyls no nother wise oute, but by the helppe off Belsebub, the chefe of the devylls.

25 But Jesus knewe their thoughtes, and sayde to them, Every kyngdom devided with in it sylfe, shalbe desolate, nether shall eny cite, or housholde, devyded ayenst it sylfe, contynue.

26 So if Satan cast out Satan, then ys he devyded ayenst him sylfe; howe shall then hys kyngdom endure?

33 Ether make 3e the tree good, and his fruyt good; ether make 3e the tree yuel, and his fruyt euyl; forsothe a tree is knowen of the fruyt.

37 For of thi wordis thou shalt be iustified, and of thi wordis thou shalt be dampnyd.

38 Thanne sume of the scribes and Pharisees answereden to hym, seyinge, Maistre, we wolden se a tokne of thee.

39 The whiche answerynge seith to hem, An iuel generacioun and auoutrere sekith a tokne, and tokne shal nat be

28 But if I cast out the devyls by the Sprete of God, then ys the kyngdom of God come on you.

29 Other howe can a man enter into a mighty mannes housse, and violently take awaye his godes, excepte he fyrst bynde the stronge man, and then spoyle hys housse?

30 He thatt ys not with me, ys agaynst me; and he that gaddereth not with me, scattereth abrode.

31 Wherfore I say vnto you, all maner off synne and blasphemy shalbe forgeven vnto men, but the blasphemy against the Holy Goost shall not be forgeven vnto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a worde agaynst the sonne off man, it shalbe forgeven him; but whosoever speaketh agaynst the Holy Goost, yt shall not be fforgeven hym, no, nether in this worlde, nether in the worlde to come.

33 Other make the tree good, and his frute good also; or els make the tree evyll, and his frute evyll also; for the tree ys knowen by hys frute.

34 O generacion of vipers, howe can ye saye well, when ye youre selves are evyll? For of the aboundance of the hert the mouthe speaketh.

35 A good man oute of the good treasure of hys hert bryngeth forth good thynges, and an evyll man out off his evyll treasure bryngeth forthe evyll thinges.

36 But I say vnto you, that of every ydell worde that men shall have spoken, they shall geve a countes at the daye off iudgement;

37 For by thy wordes thou shalt be iustifyed, and by thy wordes thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then answered certayne off the scribes and off the Pharises, saynge, Master, we wolde fayne se a sygne of the.

40 For as Jonas was in the womb of a whall three days and three ni3tis, so mannus sone shal be in the herte of the erthe three days and three ni3tis.

41 Men of Nynyue shal ryse in dome with this generacioun, and shulen condempne it; for thei diden penaunce in the prechynge of Jonas, and loo! here is more than Jonas.

42 The queen of the south shal ryse in dome with this generation, and shal condempne it; for she came fro the eendis of the erthe, for to here the wisdam of Salomon, and loo! heere is more than Salomon.

43 Forsothe whan an vnclene spirit shal go out fro a man, he goth by drye places, seekynge reste, and he fyndyth nat.

47 Sothely sum man saide to hym, Loo! thi modir and thi brethren stonden with outforth, seekynge thee.

48 And he, answerynge to the man seiynge to hym, seith, Who is my modir? and who ben my brethren?

49 And he holdynge forth his hond in to his disciples, seide, Loo! my modir and my bretheren;

40 For as Ionas was thre days and thre nyghtes in the whales belly, soo shall the sonne of man be thre days and thre nightes in the hert of the erth.

41 The men of Ninivite shall rise at the day of iudgement with this nacion, and condemne them; for they repented at the preachynge of Jonas, and beholde! a greater then Jonos ys here.

42 The quene of the south shall ryse at the day of iudgement with this generacion, and shall condemne them; for she cam from the vtmost parties of the worlde, to heare the wisdome of Solomon, and behold! heare is a greater then Solomon.

43 When the vnclene sprete is gone out of a man, he walketh throughout dry places, seking reest, and fyndeth none.

44 Then he sayeth, I will retourne ageyne into my housse, from whence I cam oute. And when he is come he fyndeth the housse empty, and swepte, and garnisshed.

45 Then he goeth his waye, and taketh seven spretes, worsse then hym silfe; and so entre they in and dwell there. And the ende of that man is worsse then the beginnyng. Even so shall it be to this frowarde nacion.

46 Whill he yet talked to the people, beholde! hys moder and his brethren stode with out the dores, desyring to speake with him.

47 Then won said vnto him, Behold! thy moder and thy brethren stond without, desiringe to speke with the.

48 He answered, and sayd to him that tolde him, Who is my mother? or who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hond over his disciples, and sayd, Behold! my mother and my brethren;

50 For whosoever fulfilleth my fathers will whiche is in heven, he is my brother, my suster, and my mother.

CHAP. XIII. 1 The same daye went Jesus out off the housse, and sat by the see syde.

2 And moch people resorted vnto him, so gretly that he went and sat in a shyppe; and all the people stode on the shoore.

3 And he spake many thynges to them in similitudes, sayinge, Beholde! the sower wentt forth to sowe.

4 And as he sowed, some fell by the wayes syde, and the fowlles cam, and devoured it vppe.

5 Some fell apon stony grounde, where it had not moche erth; and a non it spronge vppe, because it had no depht off erth.

6 And when the sun was vppe, hitt cauth heet, and for lake off rotynge, wyddred awaye.

7 Some fell amonge thornes; and the thornes arose, and chooked it.

8 Parte fell in goode grunde, and broght forth good frute; some an hundred fold, some fifty fold, some thyrty folde.

9 Whosoever hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And hys disciples cam and sayde to him, Why speakest thou to them in parables?

11 He answered and sayde vnto them, Hit is geven vnto you to knowe the secrettes off the kyngdom of heven; but to them it is not geven.

12 For whosumever hath to him shall hit be geven, and he shall have aboundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shalbe takyn awaye even that same that he hath.

13 Therfore speake Y to them in similitudes, for though they se, they se not, and hearinge they heare not, nether vnderstonde;

14 And in them ys fulfylled the prophesy of Esay which prophesi sayth, With youre eares ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstonde; and with youre eyes ye shall se, and shall not perceave;

16 Forsothe ȝoure eeȝen that seen ben blessid, and ȝoure eris that heeren.

17 Forsothe I saye trewthe to ȝou, for many prophetis and iuste men coueitiden to see thoo thingus that ȝee seen, and thei saien nat, and to heeren thoo thingis that ȝee heeren, and thei herden nat.

18 Therfore heere ȝe the parable of the sowynge man.

19 Eche that heerith the word of rewme, and vndirstondith nat, the yuel spirit cometh, and rauyschith that that is sowyn in his herte; this is that is sowen besidis the weye.

20 Sothely he that is sowen on the stoon, this it is, that heerith the word of God, and anoon with ioye takith it.

21 Forsothe he hath nat roote in hym self, but it is temporal.† Forsothe tribulacioun and persecucioune maad for the word, anoon he is sclaundrid.

22 Bot he that is sowen in thornys, is this that herith the word, and the bysynesse of this world, and the falsnessis of ritchessis stranglith the word, and it is maad with outen fruyt.

23 Bot he that is sowen in to good lond, is this that herith the word, and vndirstondith, and bryngthe forth fruyt. And sothely sume makith an hundrefold, treuly another sixtyfold, forsothe another thrittifold.

24 Another parable Jhesus putte forth to hem, seyinge, The kyngdam of heuenes is maad liche to a man, that sew good seed in his feeld.

25 But, when men slepten, his enmye came, and sew aboue dernel† in the midil of whete, and wente awey.

26 Sothely when the herbe hadde herynge, and their eyes have they closed, lest they shulde se with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and shuld vnderstonde with their hertes, and shulde tourne, that Y myght heale them.

16 But blessed are youre eyes for they se, and youre eares for they heare.

17 Verely Y say vnto you, that many prophetes and perfaicte men have desired to se tho thinges which ye se, and have not sene them, and to heare tho thinges which ye heare, and have not herde them.

18 Heare ye therfore the similitude off the sower.

19 When a man heareth the worde of the kingdom, and vnderstondeth it not, there cometh the evyll man, and catcheth awaye that which was sowne in hys hert; and thys is he which was sowne by the waye syde.

20 But he that was sowne in the stony grunde, ys he, which heareth the worde of God, and anon with ioye receaveth itt.

21 Yet hath he no rottes in him selfe, and therefore he dureth but a season. For as sone as tribulation or persecucion aryseth because of the worde, by and by he falleth.

22 He that was sowne amonge thornes, ys he that heareth the worde off God, but the care off this worlde, and the dissaytfulnes off ryches choke the worde, and so ys he made vnfrutfull.

23 He which is sowne in the good grounde, ys he that heareth the worde, and vnderstondeth it, which also bereth frute. And bringeth forth, some an hundred folde, some fyfty folde, and some thyrty folde.

24 Another similitude put he forth vnto them, saynge, The kyngdom off heven ys lyke vnto a man, which sowed good seede in his felde.

25 Butt, whyll men shlepte, ther cam his foo, and sowed tares amonge the wheate, and went his waye.

26 When the blade was spronge vp, and 27 Đá eodon đæs hlâfordes þeowas, and ewǽdon, Hlâford, hú ne seow đú gód sǽd on đinum æcere? hwanon hæfde he coccel?

28 Đá ewæþ he, Đæt dyde unholdmann. Đá ewǽdon đa þeowas, Wylt đú we gán, and gaderiaþ hig?

29 Đá ewæþ he, Nese, đe-læs ge đone hwæte áwurtwalion đonne ge đone coccel gaderiaþ.

30 Lǽtaþ ægđer weaxan oð rip-timan; and on đam rip-timan ic secge đam riperum, Gadriaþ ærest đone coccel, and bindaþ sceaf-mælum to forbærnenne, and gadriaþ đone hwæte into minum berne.

31 He rehte him đá gyt óđer bigspel, đus cweđende, Heofena rice is geworden gelic senepes corne, đæt seow se man on hys æcre.

36 He forlét đá đa mænegeo, and eom to his inne; and đá genealǽhton to him his leorning-enihtas, and ewǽdon, Áreee us đæt bigspell đæs hwǽtes and đæs cocceles.

27 Forsothe the seruauntis of the husbondeman comynge niȝ, seiden to hym, Lord, wher thou hast nat sowen good seed in thi feeld? wher of than hath it dernel?†

28 And he seith to hem, The man enmye hath don this thing. Trewly the seruauntis seiden to him, Wolt thou we go, and gedren hem?

29 And he saith, Nay, lest perauenture ȝe gedrynge dernels† draw vp by the roote togidre with hem and the whete.

30 Suffre ȝe hem bothe wexe til to rype corne; and in tyme of rype corn I shal seie to reperis, First gedre ȝee to gedre dernels,† and byndeth hem to gidre in knytchis† for to be brent, but gedere ȝe whete in to my berne.

31 An other parable Jhesus putte forth to hem, seiynge, The kyngdam of heuenes is like to a corn of seneuey, the whiche a man takynge sewe in his feeld.

32 The whiche trewly is leest of alle seedis, but when it hath wexen, it is most of alle wortis, and is maad a tree; so that briddis of the eyre cummen, and dwellen in bowis† therof.

33 An other parable Jhesus spac to hem, The kyngdam of heuenes is lic to soure dowȝ, the whiche taken, a womman hidde in three mesuris of meele, til it were al sowrdowid.

34 Jhesus spac alle these thingis in parablis to the cumpanyes of peple, and he spac nat to hem with outen parablis, 35 That it shulde be fulfillid, that thing that is seid by the prophete, seyinge, I shal opyn my mouth in parablis; I shal bolke out† hid thingus fro makyng of the world.

36 Thanne the cumpanyes laft, he came into an hous; and his disciplis camen niȝ to hym, seiynge, Expoune to vs the parable of dernelis† of the feeld.

had brought forth frute, then appered the tares also.

27 The servauntes cam to the householder, and sayde vnto him, Syr, sowedest not thou good seed in thy closse? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He sayde to them, The envious man hath done this. Then the servauntes sayde vnto hym, Wylt thou then that we go, and gader it?

29 And he sayde, Nay, lest whyll ye go aboute to wede out the tares ye plucke vppe also with them the wheate by the rottes.

30 Let bothe growe to gether tyll harvest come; and in time of harvest I wyll saye vnto my repers, Gadther ye fyrst the tares, and bynd them in sheves to be brent, but gadther the wheete in to my barne.

31 Another parable he putt forthe vnto them, saynge, The kyngedom of heven ys lyke vnto a grayne of mustard seede, whych a man taketh and soweth in his felde.

32 Whych ys the leest of all seedes, but when it is growne, it is the greatest amonge yerbes, and is a tree; so that the bryddes of the aier come, and bylde in te braunches of it.

33 Anothere similitude sayde he to them, The kyngdome of heven ys lyke vnto leven, which a woman toke, and hyd in iij peckes off meele, tyll all was levended.

34 All these thynges spake Jesus vnto the people by similitudes, and withoute similitudes spake he nothinge to them,

35 To fulfyll, that which was spoken by the prophet, sayinge, I wyll open my mouth in similitudes; and wyll speake forth thinges whych have bene kepte secrete from the begynnynge off the worlde.

36 Then sent Jesus the people awaye, and cam to housse; and hys disciples cam vnto him, saynge, Declare vnto vs the similitude of the tares off the felde.

37 Đá andswarude he him, Se đe seow đæt góde sǽd se is mannes sunu;

38 Sóþlice se æcyr is đes middangeard; đæt góde sǽd, đæt synt đæs heofonlican ríces bearn, se coccel synt sóþlice đa mánfullan bearn;

51 Ongyte ge ealle đás þing? Đá cwǽdon hig, Witodlice we hit ongytaþ.

37 The whiche answerynge saith, He that sowith good seed is mannes sone;

38 Sothely the feld is the world; bot the good seed, these ben sonys of the kyngdam, dernels,† forsothe these ben yuel sonys;

39 But the enmye that soweth hem is the feend; but the ripe corn is the eendyng of the world, sothely the repers ben angelis.

40 Therfore as dernels ben gedrid to gidre, and brent in fijr, so it shal be in the eendyng of the world.

41 Mannes sone shal sende his angels, and thei shulden gedre of his rewme alle sclaundris, and hem that don wickidnesse;

42 And thei shulen sende hem into the chymney of fijr, there shal be weepynge and betynge togidre of teeth.

43 Thanne iust men shulen shyine as the sunne, in the rewme of her fadir. He that hath eris of heerynge, heere he.

44 The kyngdame of heuenes is lijk to tresour hid in a feeld, the whiche a man that fyndith, hidith; and for ioye of it he goth, and sellith alle thingis that hath, and bieth the ilk feeld.

45 Eftsones the kyngdam of heuenes is lic to a man marchaunt, seekyng good margarytis;

46 Sothely oo preciouse margarite founden, he wente, and solde alle thingis that he hadde, and bou3te it.

47 Eft the kingdam of heuenes is lic to a nette sent in to the see, and of alle kynd of fishis gedrynge;

48 The whiche whan it was fulfillid, men ledynge out, and sittynge bysidis the brynke, cheesiden the good into her vessels, but thei senten out the yuel.

49 So it shal be in the eending of the world. Angelis shulen gon out, and shulen departe yuel men fro the mydil of iuste men.

50 And thei shulen sende hem into the chymney of fijr; there shall be weepynge and betynge togidre of teeth.

51 Han 3ee vnderstonden alle these thingis? Thei seien to hym, 3he.

37 Then answered he and sayde to them, He that soweth the good seed, ys the sonne of man;

38 The felde ys the worlde; the children off the kyngdom are the good seed, the evyll mans children are the tares;

39 But the enemy which soweth them is the devill; the harvest is the end of the world, and the repers be the angels.

40 For even as the tares are gaddred, and brent in the fyre, so shall it be in the ende off this worlde.

41 The sonne off man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gadther out off his kyngdom all thinges that do hurte, and all them which do iniquite;

42 And shall cast them into a furnes of fyre, there shalbe waylynge and gnasshyng off teth.

43 Then shall the iuste men shyne as bryght as the sun, in the kyngdom of their father. Wosoever hath eares to heare, let him heare.

44 Agayne the kyngdom off heven is lyke vnto treasure hidde in the felde, the which a man founde, and hidde it; and ffor ioy there of goeth, and selleth all that he hath, and byeth that felde.

45 Agayne the kyngdom off heven is lyke vnto a marchaunt, sekynge after good pearles;

46 Which when he had founde one precious pearle, wentt, and solde all that he had, and bought it.

47 Agayne the kyngdome off heven is lyke vnto a neet cast in to the see, that gadereth off all kyndes of fysshes;

48 Which when it is full, men drawe to londe, and sitt, and gadre the good in to their vessels, and caste the bad awaye.

49 So shall it be at the ende of the worlde. The angels shall come, and sever the bad from the good.

50 And shall cast them into a furnes of fyre; there shalbe waylinge and gnasshynge of teth.

51 Jesus sayde vnto them, Have ye vnderstonde all these thynges? They sayde, Ye, Syr.

52 Đâ sæde he him, Forđam is æle geliered bocere on heofenan rice gelic đam hiredes caldre, đe forþ-bringþ of his gold-horde niwe þing and ealde.

28 Then Jesus answered and sayde vnto her, O! woman, greate ys thy fayth; be hit to the, even as thou desyrest. And her doughter was made whole even at that same tyme.
29 Then Jesus went awaye from thence, and cam nye vnto the see of Galyle. And went vppe in to a mountayne, and sat doune there.
30 And moche people cam vnto hym, havinge with them halt, blinde, domne, 31 So that the cumpanyes wondriden, seeynge doumbe men spekynge, and crokid goynge, blynd men seeynge; and thei magnyfieden God of Yrael.

32 Sothely Jhesus, his disciplis gedered to gider, seide, I haue rewthe of the cumpany of peple, for now the thridde day thei dwellen still with me, and thei han not thing whiche thei shulen ete; and Y wole nat leeue hem fastynge, lest thei failen in the weye.

33 And the disciplis seyen to hym, Therfore wherof so many loouys to vs in desert, that we fulfille so grete a cumpanye of peple?

34 And Jhesus seith to hem, Hou many loouys han 3ee? And thei seiden, Seuene, and a few smalle fishis.

35 And he comaundide to the cumpany, that thei shulde sitt to the mete vpon the erthe.

36 And he takynge seuen looues, and fishis, and doynge thonkyngis, brak, and 3aue to his disciplis; and disciplis 3auen to the peple.

37 And alle eten, and weren fulfillid, and thei token that that was ouer of relyues, seuene lepis fulle.

38 Forsothe thei that eten weren foure thousand of men, with outen litil children and wemmen.

39 And, the cumpanye of peple laft, he styede vp in to a boot, and cam into the coostis of Magedan.

Chap. XVI. 1 And Pharisees and Saduceis temptynge him camen ni3 to hym, and preiden hym for to shewe to hem a tokene fro heuene.

2 And he answerynge seith to hem, The eeuenynge maad, 3e seien, It shal be cleer, for the heuene is lijk to reed;

31 In so moche that the people wondred, to se the domme speake, the maymed whole, the halt to go, and the blinde to se; and they glorifyed the God of Israhel.

32 Jhesus called his disciples to him, and saide, I have compassion on the people, because they have contynued with me nowe iij dayes, and have nothinge to eate; and I wyll not let them departe fastinge, leste they perisshe in the waye.

33 And his disciples sayd vnto him, Whence shuld we get so moche breed in the wyldernes, as shulde suffyse so greate a multitude?

34 And Jesus sayde vnto them, Howe many loves have ye? And they seyde, Seven, and a feawe fysshes.

35 And he commaunded the people, to syt doune on the grounde.

36 And toke the seven loves, and the fysshes, and gave thankes, and brake them, and gave to hys disciples; and his disciples gave them to the people.

37 And they all ate, and were suffysed, and they toke vppe of the broken meate that was lefte, vij basketes full.

38 They that ate were iiij M. men, besyde wemen and chyldren.

39 And he sent awaye the people, and toke shyppe, and cam in to the parties of Magdala.

Chap. XVI. 1 Then cam to hym the Pharises with the Saduces also and dyd tempte hym, desyringe that he wold shewe them some signe from heven.

2 He answered and sayde vnto them, Att even, ye saye, We shall have fayre wedder, and that because the skye ys reed;

15 Ðá sæde he, Hwæt secge ge ðæt ic sí?

13 Sothely Jhesus came in to the parties of Cesarie of Philip, and axide his disciplis, seyinge, Whom seyn men to ben mannes sone?

14 And thei seiden, Summe Joon Baptist; other forsothe Hely; but other Jeremye, or oon of the prophetis.

15 Jhesus seith to hem, Sothely whom seien ȝe me to be?

16 Symon Petre answerynge seide, Thou art Crist, the sone of God lyuynge.

17 Forsothe Jhesus answerynge seide

shalbe foule wedder, and that because the skye ys troubbelous and reed. O ye ypocrytes, ye can discerne the fassion of the skye, and can ye not discerne the sygnes of the tymes?

4 The frowarde nacion and advoutrous seketh a sygne; there shall nonother sygne be geven vnto them, but the sygne off the prophet Jonas: So lefte he them, and departed.

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side of the water, they had forgotten to take breed with them.

6 Then Jesus sayd vnto them, Take hede, and beware of the leven of the Pharises and of the Saduces.

7 They thought a monge them selves, sayinge, We have brought no breed with vs.

8 When Jesus vnderstode that, he sayd vnto them, O ye of lytell fayth, why are youre mindes cumbred because ye have brought no breed?

9 Do ye not yet perceave, nether remember those v lovesse when there were v M. men, and howe many baskettes toke ye vp?

10 Nether the vij loves when there were iv M. and howe many baskettes toke ye vppe?

11 Why perceave ye not then, that Y spake not vnto you of breed when I sayde, Beware off the leven of the Pharises and of the Saduces?

12 Then vnderstode they, howe that he bad not them beware of the leven of breed, butt of the doctryne of the Pharises and of the Saduces.

13 When Jesus cam in to the coostes of the cite which is called Cesarea Philippi, he axed hys disciples, sayinge, Whom do men saye that I the sonne of man am?

14 They saide, Some saye that thou arte Jhon Baptist; some Helyas; some Jeremias, or won of the prophetes.

15 He seyde vnto them, But whom saye ye that I am?

16 Symon Peter answered and sayde, Thou arte Crist, the sonne of the livynge God.

17 And Jesus answered and sayde to Eadig eart đú, Simon culfran bearn; forđam hit đé ne onwreah flæ̂sc ne blód, ac mín fæder đe on heofenum ys.

19 And to thee I shal ȝeue the keies of the kyngdam of heuenes ; and what euer thou shalt bynde vpon erthe, shal be bounden and in heuenes ; and what euer thou shalt vnbynde vpon erthe, shal be vnbounden and in heuenes.

20 Thanne he comaundide to his disciplis, that thei shulden seie to no man, that he was Crist.

21 Fro that tyme Jhesus bygan for to shewe to his disciplis, that it byhouith hym to go to Jerusalem, and suffre many thingus of the eldris, and scribis, and princis of prestis ; and be sleyn, and the thridde day ryse vp aȝein.

22 And Petre, takynge hym to, began for to blame hym, seyinge, Fer be it fro thee, Lord ; this thing shal not be to thee.

23 The whiche, turnyd, seide to Petre, Sathanas, go after me; thou art sclaundre to me ; for thou sauerist nat† tho thingis that ben of God, but tho thingis that ben of men.

24 Thanne Jhesus seide to his disciplis, ȝif eny man̄ wole cume after me, denye he hym self, and take his crosse, and sue me ;

25 For he that wole make his soule saaf,† shal lese it ; forsothe he that shal lese his soule† for me, shal fynde it.

26 Sothely what profitith it to a man, ȝif he wynne al the world, trewly he suffre peyrynge of his soule ? or what chaungynge shal a man ȝeue for his soule ?

27 For mannes sone is to come in glorie of his fadir, with his angelis, and thanne he shal ȝelde to euery man aftir his workis.

28 Treuly I seie to ȝou, there ben summe of men stondynge heer, the 18 And I saye also vnto the, that thou arte Peter, and apon̄ this roocke I wyll bylde my congregacion, and the gates off hell shall nott prevayle a geynst it.

19 And I wyll geve vnto the the keyes of the kyngdom of heven ; and whatsoever thou byndest vppon erth, yt shall be bounde in heven ; and whatsoever thou lowsest on erthe, yt shalbe lowsed in heven.

20 Then he charged his disciples, that they shulde tell no man, that he was Jesus Christ.

21 From that tyme forth Jesus began to shewe vnto hys disciples, howe that he must go vnto Jerusalem, and suffer many thinges of the seniores, and of the hye prestes, and of the scribes ; and must be killed, and ryse agayne the thirde daye.

22 Peter toke him a side, and began to rebuke hym, sayinge, Master, favor thy sylfe ; this shall not come vnto the.

23 Then tourned he aboute, and sayde vnto Peter, Go after me, Satan ; thou offendest me ; because thou perceavest nott godly thynges, but worldly thinges.

24 Jesus then sayde to hys disciples, Yf eny man wyll folowe me, leet hym forsayke hym sylfe, and take hys crosse, and folowe me ;

25 For who soever wyll save hys lyfe, shall loose yt ; and whosoever shall loose hys lyfe for my sake, shall fynde yt.

26 Whatt shall hit proffet a man, yf he shulde wyn all the whoole worlde, so he loose hys owne soule ? or els what shall a man geve to redeme hys soule agayne with all ?

27 For the sonne off man shall come in the glory of hys father, with hys angels, and then shall he rewarde every man accordinge to hys dedes.

28 Verely I saye vnto you, some there be a monge them that here stonde,

Chap. XVII. 1 And after sexe dayes Jhesus toke Petre, and Jamys, and Joon, his brother, and ledde hem asydis in to an hiȝ hill, 10 And his disciplis axiden hym, seyinge, What therfore seyn scribis, that it behoueth Hely first come?

11 And he answerynge seith to hem, Forsothe Hely is to come, and he shal restore alle thingis.

Chap. XVII. 1 And affer vj dayes Jhesus toke Peter, and James, and Jhon, hys brother, and brought them vppe into an hye mountayne out of the waye,

2 And was transfygured before them. And hys face dyd shyne as the sun; and hys clothes were as whyte as the light.

3 And beholde! there appered vnto them Moses and Helyas, talkinge with him.

4 Then answered Peter and sayde to Jesus, Master, here is good beinge for vs. Yff thou wylt, leet vs make here iij tabernacles; won for the, and won for Moses, and won for Helyas.

5 Whyll he yet spake, beholde! a bright cloude shadowed them; and lo! a voice out of the cloude sayde, This is my deare sonne, in whon I delite; heare hym.

6 And when the disciples herde that, they fell flatt on there faces, and were soore afrayed.

7 And Jesus cam, and touched them, and sayde, Aryse, and be not a frayed.

8 Then lyfte they vppe their eyes, and sawe no man, but Jesus only.

9 And as they cam doune from the mountayne, he charged them, sayinge, Se that ye shewe thys vysion to no man, tyll the sonne of man be rysen ageyne from deeth.

10 And hys disciples axed off him, sayinge, Why then saye the scribes, that Helias muste fyrst come?

11 Jesus answered and sayd vnto them, Helias shall fyrst come, and restore all thynges.

12 And I saye vnto you, that Helias ys come alredy, and they knewe hym nott, butt have done vnto him, whatsoever they lusted; in lyke wyse shall also the sonne of man suffre of them.

15 Master, have mercy on my sonne; ffor he is franticke, and ys sore vexed, and oft tymes falleth into the fyre, and oft into the water.
16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they coulde not heale him.

17 Jesus answered and sayde, O! generacion faythles, and croked; howe longe shall I be with you? how longe shall Y suffre you? Bryng him hidder to me.
18 And Jhesus rebuked the devyll, and he cam out; and the child was healed even that same houre.
19 Then came hys disciples secretly, and sayde, Why could not we cast him out?
20 Jesus sayd vnto them, Because off youre vnbelfe. For I saye veryly vnto you, yff ye had faythe, as a grayne off musterd seed, ye shuld saye vnto this mountayne, Remeve hence to yonder place, and he shulde remeve; nether shuld eny thynge be vnpossyble for you to do;
21 But this kynde goeth not oute, butt by pryer and fastynge.
22 Whill they passed the tyme in Galile, Jesus sayde vnto them, The sonne off man shalbe betrayed into the hondes off men;
23 And they shall kill hym, and the thyrd daye he shall ryse agayne. And they sorowed greatly.
24 When they were come to Capernaum, they that were wont to gadre poll money, cam to Peter, and sayde, Doth youre master paye tribute?
25 He sayd, Ye. And when he was come into the housse, Jesus spake fyrst to hym, sayng, What thynkest thou Simon? Of whome do the kynges off the erth take tribute, or poll money? of their chyldren, or of straungers?
26 Peter sayde vnto hyme, Of straungers.

sonys. Jhesus seide to hym, Therfore sonys ben free.

27 Forsothe that we sclaundre nat hem, go thou to the see, and sende an hoke, and take the ilke fishe that first cummeth vp; and, his mouth openyd, thou shalt fynde stater;† thou takyng it, ȝeue to hem for me and for thee.

Then sayd Jesus vnto hym agane, Then are the chyldren fre.

27 Neverthelesse lest we shulde offende them, goo to the see, and cast in thyne angle, and take the fysshe that fyrst cometh vp; and, when thou hast opened his mouthe, thou shalt fynde a pece of twelve pens; that take and paye for me and the.

Chap. XVIII. 1 In that hour the disciplis camen niȝ to Jhesus, seiynge, Who, gessist thou, is more in the kyngdam of heuenes?

2 And Jhesus, clepynge to a litil child, putte hym in the mydil of hem;

3 And seide, I seie trewthe to ȝou, no but ȝif ȝe shulen be turnyd, and maad as litil children, ȝe shulen nat entren in to the kyngdam of heuenes.

4 Therfore who euere shal meeke hym as this litil child, he is more in the kyngdam of heuenes.

5 And he that resceyueth oon siche litil in my name, resceyueth me.

6 Forsothe who shal sclaundre oon of these smale leste, that byleeuen in me, it spedith to hym that a myln stoon of assis be hanged in his neeke, and be drenchid in to the depnesse of the see.

7 Woo to the world, for sclaundris; treuly it is neede, that sclaundris come; netheles woo to the ilk man by whom a sclaundre cometh.

8 Forsothe ȝif thin hond or thi foot sclaundre thee, kitt it of, and kast awey fro thee. It is good to thee to entre in to lyf feble, other croked, than hauynge two hondis or two feet to be sent in to euerlastynge fijr.

9 And ȝif thin eiȝe sclaundre thee, pulle it out, and cast awey fro thee. It is good to thee with oon eiȝe to entre in to lyf, than hauynge two eiȝen to be sente in to fijr of helle.

Chap. XVIII. 1 The same tyme the disciples cam vnto Jesus, sayng, Who is the greatest in the kyngdom off heven?

2 Jesus called a chylde vnto hym, and set hym in the middes of them;

3 And sayd, Verely I say vnto you, except ye tourne, and become as children, ye cannot enter into the kyngdom off heven.

4 Whosoever therfore shall submit him silfe as this chylde, he is the greatest in the kyngdom of heven.

5 And whosoever receaveth suche a chylde in my name, receaveth me.

6 But whosoever offend won of these lytell wons, which beleve in me, yt were better for hym that a millstone were hanged aboute his necke, and that he were drouned in the depth of the see.

7 Wo be vnto the world, because of evill occasions; hit is necessary, that evyll occasions be geven; neverthelesse woo be to that man by whom evyll occasion commeth.

8 Wherefore yff thy honde or thy fote geve the an occasion of evyll, cut hym of, and cast hym from the. Hit is better for the to enter into lyfe halt, or maymed, rather then thou shuldeste havynge two hondes or two fete be cast into everlastyng fyre.

9 And yf also thyne eye offende the, plucke him oute, and caste hym from the. It is better for the to enter into lyfe with one eye, then havyng two eyes to be cast into hell fyre.

10 Se 3e, that 3e dispise nat oon of these litile. Trewly I seie to 3ou, that the angelis of hem in heuenes seen euermore the face of my fadir that is in heuenes.

11 Forsothe mannys sone came for to saue that thing that perishide.

12 What semeth to 3ou? 3if ther weren to summan an hundrid sheep, and oon of hem shall erre, wher he shal nat leeue nynty and nyne in desert, and shal go for to seeke that that erride?

13 And if it befalle that he fynde it, trewly I seie to 3ou, for he shal ioye theron more than of nynty and nyne that erriden nat.

14 So it is nat will before youre fadir that is in heuenes, that oon of these litil perishe.

15 Forsoth 3if thi brother shal synne in thee, go thou, and reproue hym,† bitwixe thee and hym aloone; 3if he shal heere thee, thou hast wonnen thi brother.

16 Trewly 3if he shal nat heere thee, take with thee oon or two, that euery word stonde in the mouthe of two or three witnessis.

17 That 3if he shal nat heere hem, seie thou to the chirche. Forsothe 3if he shal not heere the chirche, be hee to thee as an hethen and a puplicane.

18 I seie to 3ou trewli, what euere thingis 3ee shulen bynde vpon erthe, tho shulen be bounden and in heuenes; and what euere thingis 3ee shulen vnbynde vpon erthe, tho shulen be vnbounden and in heuenes.

19 Eftsoone I seie to 3ou, that 3if two of 3ou shulen consente on the erthe, of euery thinge whateuer thei shulen axe, it shal be don to hem of my fadir that is in heuenes.

20 For where two or three shulen be gedrid in my name, ther I am in the midil of hem.

21 Thanne Petre, cummynge niȝ to hym, seide, Lord, hou ofte shal my brother synne in me, and I shal forȝeue hym? Whether to seuen tymes?

10 Se, that ye despise not won of these litell wons. For I saye vnto you, thatt in heven their angels behold the face of my fader which ys in heven.

11 Ye and the sonne of man is come to save that which is lost.

12 How thynke ye? Yf a man had an hondred shepe, and one of them shuld goo astray, will he not leve nynty and nyne in the mountains, and go and seke that won which is gone astray?

13 If it happen that he fynd him, veryly I say vnto you, he reioyseth more of that shepe then of the nynty and nyne which went not astray.

14 Even so hit is nott the wyll of youre father in heuen, that won off this lytell wons shulde perishe.

15 Moreover yf thy brother trespas ayenst the, go, and tell hym his faute, betwene hym and the alone; yf he heare the, thou hast wone thy brother.

16 But yf he heare the not, then take with the won or two, that in the mouth of two or thre witnesses all sainges maye stonde.

17 Yf he heare not them, tell hit vnto the congregacion. Yf he heare not the congregacion, take him as an hethen man and as a publican.

18 Verely I say vnto you, whatsoever ye bynde on erth, shalbe bounde in heven; and whatsoever ye lose on erth, shalbe losed in heven.

19 Agayn I say vnto you, that if two off you shall agre in erth, in eny maner thinge whatsoever they shall desyre, hit shalbe geven them of my fader which is in heven.

20 For where two or thre are gadered togedder in my name, there am I in the myddes off them.

21 Then cam Peter to hym, and sayde, Master, howe ofte shall my brother trespas ageynst me, and I shall forgeve hym? Shall I forgeve hym seven tymes?

23 Therfore the kingdom of heuenes is lickened to a man kyng, that wolde putte resoun with his seruauntis.

24 And whanne he began for to putte resoun, oon was offrid to hym, that owȝte to hym ten thousand talentis.

25 Trewly whanne he hadde nat wherof to ȝelde, his lord comaundide hym to be sold, and his wif, and sonys, and alle thingis that he hadde, and to be payed.

26 Forsothe the ilk seruaunt, fallynge doun, preide hym, seyinge, Haue pacience in me, and alle thingis I shal ȝeelde to thee.

29 And his euen seruaunt preiede hym, seyinge, Haue pacience in me, and alle thingis I shal quyte to thee.

30 Forsothe he wolde nat; but wente, and sent hym in to pryson, til that he paide al the dette.

31 Sothely his euen seruauntis, seeynge the thingis that weren don, gretely hadden sorowe. And thei camen, and tolden to her lord alle the thingis that weren don.

32 Thanne his lord clepide hym, and seide to hym, Weyward seruaunt, I forȝaf to thee al the dette, for thou preidist me.

33 Therfore wher it behouede nat and thee to haue mercy on thi euen seruaunt, as I hadde mercy of thee?

34 And his lord wroth, tok hym to tourmenturs, til that he paiede al the dette.

35 So and my fadir of heuen shal do to ȝou, ȝif ȝe forȝeue nat euery man to his brother, of ȝoure hertis.

22 Jesus sayd vnto hym, I saye nott vnto the, seven tymes; but seventy tymes seven tymes.

23 Therefore is the kyngdom off heven lykened vnto a certayne kynge, which wolde take a countes of his servauntes.

24 And when he had begune to recken, won was browghte vnto hym, whiche ought hym ten thousande talenttes.

25 But when he had nought to paye, the lord commaunded him to be solde, and his wyfe, and his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servaunt fell doune, and besought hym, sainge, Syr, yeve me respyte, and I vyll paye hit every whit.

27 Then had the lorde pitie on the servaunt, and lowsed hym, and forgave hym the dett.

28 The same servaunt went out, and founde wone off his felowes, which ought hym an hundred pence; and leyed hondes on hym, and toke hym by the throote, sainge, Paye that thou owest.

29 And his felowe fell doune and besought hym, saynge, Have pacience with me, and I wyll paye the all.

30 And he wollde not; but went, and cast hym into preson, tyll he shulde paye the dett.

31 When his other felowes sawe what was done, they were very sory. And cam, and tolde vnto there lorde all that had happened.

32 Then the lorde called him, and sayde vnto hym, O evyll servaunt, Y forgave the all that dett, because thou praydest me.

33 Was it not mete also that thou shuldest have had compassion on thy folow, even as Y had pitie on the?

34 And his lorde was wrooth, and delyvered hym to the ioylers, tyll he shulde paye all that was due to hym.

35 So lyke wyse shall youre hevenly father do vnto you, yf ye wyll not forgeve with youre herttes, eache won to his brother there treaspases.

3 Then cam vnto hym the Pharises, to tempte hym, and sayde to hym, Ys hit lawfull for a man to put a waye his wyfe, for all manner off causes?

5 And saide, For thys thinge shall a man leve father and mother, and cleve vnto his wyfe; and they twane shalbe won flesse.

6 Wherfore nowe are they not twayne, but won fleshe. Let not man therefore put asunder that which God hath cuppled to gedder.

7 Then sayde they to hym, Why did Moses commaunde, to geve vnto her a testimoniall of divorsement, and to put her a waye?

8 He saide vnto them, Moses, because of the hardnes of youre hertes, suffred you to put awaye youre wyfes; but from the begynnynge hit was nott so.

9 I saye therefore vnto you, whosoever putteth awaye his wyfe, except hit be for fornicacion, and maryeth another, breaked wedlocke; and whosoever marieth her which is divorsed, doeth commyt advoutry.

14 Jesus sayde vnto them, Suffre the chyldren, and forbid them not to come to me; ffor vnto suche belongeth the kingdome off heven.

15 And when he had put his hondes on them, he departed thence.

16 And beholde! won eam, and sayde vnto hym, Good master, what good thinge shall I do, that I maye have eternal lyfe?

17 He sayde vnto him, Why callest thou me good? There is none good but won, and that is God. But and thou wilt entre in to lyfe, kepe the commaundmentes.

18 He sayde, Which? And Jesus sayde, Thou shalt not kyll, thou shalt not breake wedloocke, thou shalt not steale, thou shalt nott beare falce witnes;

19 Honoure thy father and mother, and thou shalt love thyne neghbour as thy sylfe.

20 The yonge man sayde vnto him, I have observed all these thinges from my youth, what have Y more to do?

21 Jesus sayde vnto him, Yf thou wylt be perfecte, goo, and sell that thou hast, and geve it to the povre, and thou shalt have treasure in heven; and come, and folowe me.

22 When the yonge man herde that sayinge, he went a waye morninge, for he had greate possessions.

23 Jesus sayde then vnto his disciples, Verely I saye vnto you, a ryche man shall with difficulte enter into the kyngdome of heven.

24 And moreover I saye vnto you, it is easier for a camell to go through the eye of a nedle, then for a ryche man to enter into the kingdome of heven.

25 When his disciples herde that, they were excedingly amased, sayinge, Who then can be saved?

26 Jesus behelde them and saide vnto them, With men this is vnpossyble; but with God all thinges are possyble.

Chap. XX. 1 For the kyngdom off heven ys lyke vnto an houssholder, which went out erly in the morninge, to hyre labourers into hys vynyarde.

Chap. XXI.† 1 And ðá he genealǽhte Hierusalem, and com to Bethfage, to 34 Forsothe Jhesus, hauynge mercy on hem, touchide her eiȝen; and anoon thei sayen, and sueden hym.

Chap. XXI. 1 And whanne Jhesus came niȝ to Jerusalem, and cam to Beth-

23 He sayd vnto them, Ye shall drynke of my cupe, and shalbe baptised with the baptim that Y shall be baptysed with; but to syt on my ryght hond and on my lyft hond, is not myne to yeve; but to them for whom it is prepared of my father.
24 And when the ten herde this they desdayned att the two brethren.
25 But Jesus called them vnto hym, and saide, Ye knowe, that the lordes of the gentyls have dominacion over them, and they that are great, exercise power over them.
26 It shall not be so amonge you; but whosoever wyll be greate among you, let hym be youre minister;
27 And whosoever wilbe chefe, let him be youre servaunt.
28 Even as the sonne off man eam not to be ministred vnto, butt to minister, and to geve his lyfe for the redempcion off many.
29 And as they departed from Hierico, moche people folowed hym.
30 And beholde! two blynde men syttinge by the way syde, when they herde that Jesus passed by, cryed, sayinge, Master, the sonne off David, have mercy on vs.
31 And the people rebuked them, be cause they shulde holde there peace; but they cryed the moare, sayinge, Have mercy on vs, Master, which arte the sonne off David.
32 Then Jesus stode styll, and called them, and sayde, What will ye, that Y shall do to you?
33 They said vnto hym, Master, that oure eyes maye be opened.
34 Jesus pitied them, and touched there eyes; and immediatly theire eyes receved syght, and they folowed hym.

6 The disciples went, and did as Jesus commaunded them.

8 Many of the people spreed theire garmentes in the waie; other cut doune braunches from the trees, and strawed them in the waye.

9 Moreover the people that went before, and they also that cam after, cried, sayinge, Hosianna to the sonne of David; blessed be he that commeth in the name of the Lorde; Hosianna in the hyest.

10 And when he was come in to Jerusalem, all the cite was moved, sayinge, Who ys this?

11 And the people sayde, Thys ys Jesus, the prophet, off Nazareth a cite of Galile.

12 And Jesus went in to the temple of God, and caste out all them that bought and solde in the temple; and overthrew the tables of the mony chaungers, and the seates of them that solde doves.

22 And ealles ðæs ðe ge biddaþ ge beoþ tiþa, gyf ge gelýfaþ.†

23 Ðá he com into ðam temple, ðá comon ðara sacerda ealdras . . . . . him to, and cwǽdon, On hwylcere mihte wyrest ðú ðás þing? and hwá sealde ðé ðisne anweald?

24 Ðá andswarode se Hǽlend him and cwæþ, And ic áhsige cow ánre spræce, gyf ge me ða spræce secgeaþ, ðonne secge ic cow, on hwylcum anwealde ic ðás þing wyrce.

25 Hwæðer wæs Iohannes fulluht; ðe of heofonum, ðe of mannum? Ðá cwǽdon hig betwux him, Gyf we secgaþ of heofone, ðonne cwyþ he, scribis, seeynge the marueilouse thingis that he dide, and children cryinge in the temple, and seiynge, Osanna to the sone of Dauith, dedeyneden, 16 And seiden to hym, Heerist thou what these seyen? Sothely Jhesus seith to hem, 3he; wher 3e han nat rad, For of the mouth of children† and of soukynge mylk, thou hast made parfite heryinge?

17 And, hem forsaken, he wente forth out of the citee, in to Betanye; and there he dwelte, and tau3te hem of the kyngdam of God.

18 Forsothe on the morw, he, turnynge a3ein in to the citee, hungride.

19 And he, seeynge a fige tree bysidis the weye, came to it, and fonde no thing ther on no but leeuys oonly; and he seith to it, Neuer be fruyt born of thee, in to with outen eende. And anoon the fijge tree was dried vp.

20 And disciplis seeynge, wondreden, seyinge, Hou anon it driede.

21 Sothely Jhesus answerynge, seith to hem, Trewly I seye to 3ou, 3if 3e shulen han feith, as a corn of seneuey, and douten nat, nat oonly 3e shulen do of this fijge tree, bot and 3if 3e seien to this hill, Take thee, and caste thee in to the see, and so it shal be don.

22 And alle thingis what euer 3e shulen axe in preier byleuynge, 3ee shulen take.

23 And whenne he came in to the temple, the princis of prestis and eldre men of the peple camen ni3 to hym techynge, seyinge, In what power dost thou these thingis? and who 3af to thee this power?

24 Jhesus answerynge seide to hem, And I shal axe 3ou o word, the whiche 3if 3e shulen seie to me, and I shal seie to 3ou, in what power I do these thingis.

25 Of whennes was the baptem of Joon; of heuene, or of men? And thei thou3ten with inne hem self, seyinge, 3if we shulen seie of heuene, he shal sawe the marveylles thatt he dyd, and the chyldren cryinge in the temple, and sayinge, Hosianna to the sonne of David, they desdayned,

16 And sayde vnto hym, Hearest thou what these saye? Jesus sayde vnto them, Have ye never redde, Off the mouth off babes and suckelinges, thou haste ordeyned prayse?

17 And he lefte them, and went out of the cite vnto Bethani; and passed the tyme there.

18 In the mornynge, as he returned in to the cite ageyne, he hungred.

19 And spyed a fygge tree in the waye, and cam to it, and founde nothinge there on but leves only; and said to it, Never frute growe on the, hence forwardes. And anon the fygge tree wyddered awaye.

20 And when his disciples sawe that, they marvelled, sayinge, How sone is the fygge tree wyddered awaye.

21 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Verely I saye vnto you, yff ye shall have fayth, and shall not dout, ye shall nott only do that which Y have done to the fygge tree, but also yf ye shall saye vnto this mountayne, Take thy silfe a waye, and cast thy silfe in to the see, it shalbe done.

22 And whatsoever thinge ye shall axe in youre prayers if ye beleve, ye shall receave hit.

23 And when he was come into the temple, the chefe prestes and the seniores of the people cam vnto him as he was teachinge, and sayde, By what auctorite doest thou these thinges? and who gave the this power?

24 Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, I also wyll axe of you a certayne question, which if ye asoyle me, Y in lyke wyse wyll tell you, by what auctorite I do these thinges.

25 Whence was the baptim of Jhon; from heven, or of men? And they thought in themselves, sayinge; Yf we shall saye from heven, he wyll saye Forhwam ne gelýfde ge him?

26 Gyf we secgaþ of mannum, we ondrǽdaþ ðis folc, calle hig hæfdon Iohannem for ânne wîtegan.

27 Ðâ andswaredon hig and cwǽdon, We nyton. Ðâ cwæþ he, Ne ic eow ne secge, of hwylcum anwealde ic ðás þing wyrce.

28 Hú þinceþ eow? A'n mann hæfde twegen suna; ðâ cwæþ he to ðam yldran, Suna, gâ and wyrce to dæg on mínum win-gerde.

29 Ðâ cwæþ he, Ic nelle; . . . . . code ðeh syððan to ðam win-gerde.

30 Ðâ cwæþ he eal swâ to ðam ôðrum. Ðâ andswarude se him, and cwæþ, Hlâford, ic gâ; and ne code swâ ðeah.

31 Hwæðer ðara twegra dyde ðæs fæder willan? Ðâ cwǽdon hig, Se [yldra.][†] Ðâ cwæþ se Hǽlend to him, Sóþ ic eow secge, ðæt mânfulle and myltystran gâþ beforan eow on Godes rîce.

32 Iohannes com on ryhtwîsnesse wege, and ge ne gelýfdon him; wîtodlice mânfulle and myltystran gelýfdon. And ge gesâwon, and ne dydon syððan nâne dǽd-bóte, ðæt ge gelýfdon on him.

35 Ðâ nâmon hig hys þeowas, and swungon sumne, sumne hî ofslógon, sumne hig oftorfodon.

36 Ðâ sende he eft ôðre þeowas, sêlran donne ðam ǽrran wǽron, ðâ dydon hig ðam gelice.

37 Æt nyhstan he sende hys sunu hym

seie to vs, Whi therfore beleuen ȝe nat to hym?

26 Sothely ȝif we shulen seie of men, we dreden the cumpanye of peple, for alle hadde Joon as a prophete.

27 And thei answerynge to Jhesu seiden, We witen nat. And he seith to hem, Nether I seie to ȝou, in what power I do these thingis.

28 Forsothe what semeth to ȝou? Sum man hadde two sonys; and he cummynge niȝ to the firste seide, Sone, go for to worche this day in to myn vyneȝerd.

29 Sothely he answerynge seith, I nyle; forsothe afterward he stirid by penaunce,† wente.

30 Forsothe he, cummynge to the tother, seide lic maner. And he answerynge seith, Lord, I go; and he wente nat.

31 Who of the two dide the fadris will? Thei seien to hym, The firste. Jhesus seith to hem, Trewly I seie to ȝou, for puplicanys and hooris shulen go before ȝou in to the kyngdam of God.

32 Forsothe Joon cam to ȝou in the weye of riȝtwisnesse, and ȝe bileeueden nat to hym; but puplicanys and hooris beleueden to hym. Sothely ȝee seeynge nether hadde don penaunce afterward, that ȝe bileeuyden to hym.

33 Heere ȝe an other parable. Ther was an husbondman, that plantide a vyne ȝerd, and ȝaue an hegge aboute, and dalue a pressour therynne, and bildide a toure, and hiride† it to erthe tiliers, and wente ferre in pilgrimage.

34 Forsothe whenne the tyme of fruytis neiȝide, he sente his seruauntis to the erthe tiliers, that thei token fruytis of it.

36 Eftsones he sente other seruauntis, mo than the firste, and liche maner thei diden to hem.

37 Forsothe at the laste he sent his vnto vs, Why dyd ye not then beleve hym?

26 But and iff we shall saye of men, then feare we the people, for all men helde Jhon as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus and sayde, We cannot tell. He lyke wyse sayd vnto them, Nether tell I you, by what auctorite Y do these thinges.

28 What saye ye to thys? A certayne man had ij sonnes; and cam to the elder sayinge; Go and worke to daye in my vyneyarde.

29 He answered and sayd, I wyll not; but afterwarde repented, and went.

30 Then cam he to the seconde, and sayde lyke wyse. And he answered and sayde, I wyll, Syr; yet went he not.

31 Whedder of these ij fulfylled there fathers wyll? And they sayde vnto hym, The fyrst. Jesus sayde vnto them, Verely I saye vnto you, that the publicans and the harlotes shal come into the kyngdome off God before you.

32 For Jhon cam vnto you in the waye of righte wesnes, and ye beleved hym not; but the publicans and the whoores beleved hym. But ye though ye sawe it, yet were not moved with repentaunce, that ye myght afterwarde have beleved hym.

33 Herken another similitude. There was a certayne housholder, whych set a vyneyarde, and hedged it rounde about, and made a wynpresse in it, and bilt a tower, and lett it out to husbandmen, and went in to a straunge countre.

34 And when the tyme of the frute drewe neare, he sent his servauntes to the husbandmen, to receave the frutes of it.

35 And the husbandmen caught his servauntes, and bet won, kylled another, and stoned another.

36 Againe he sent other servauntes, moo then the fyrst, and they served them lyke wyse.

37 But last of all he sent vnto them

38 Witodlice ðá ða tylian ðone sunu gesáwon, ðá cwǽdon hig betwyx hym, Ðes ys yrfenuma, uton gán, and ofslean hyne, and habban us hys ǽhta.

40 Hwæt déþ ðæs wín-geardes hláford ðam eorþ-tylion, ðonne he cymþ?

41 Ðá cwǽdon hig, He fordéþ ða yfelan mid yfele, and gesett hys wín-gerd mid óðrum tilion, ðe him hys wæstm hyra tidum ágyfon.

42 Ðá cwæþ se Hǽlynd, Ne rǽdde ge nǽfre on gewritun, Se stán ðe ða timbriendan áwurpon, ys geworden to ðære hyrnan heafde? Ðys ys fram Drihtne geworden, and hyt ys wundorlic on úrum eagum.

44 And se ðe fylþ uppan ðysne stán, he byþ tobrysed; and he tobrysþ ðone, ðe he on uppan fylþ.

45 Ðá ðæra sacerda ealdras and ða Pharisei ðys bigspel gehýrdon, ðá ongǽton hig ðæt he hit sǽde be him.
46 Hi sóhton hyne, and ondrédon ðæt folc, forðam ðe hí hæfdon hyne for ǽnne witegan.

Chap. XXII. 1 Ðá sǽde he hym eft óðer bigspell, and ðus cwæþ.

2 Heofona ríce ys gelic gewurden ðam cyninge ðe macode hys suna gyfta.

3 And sende his þeowas and clypode ða geladodan to ðam gyftum, ðá noldon hí cuman.
4 Ðá sende he eft óðere þeowas, and sone to hem, seyinge, Thei shulen shame† my sone.

38 Sothely the erthe tiliers, seeynge the sone, seiden with ynne hem self, This is the eire; cume ȝe, slea we hym, and we shulen haue his eritage.

39 And, hym taken, thei kesten out of the vyneȝerd, and slewen.

40 Therfore whenne the lord of the vyneȝerd shal cume, what shal he do to the ilk erthe tiliers?

41 Thei seien to hym, He shal lese yuele the yuel men, and sette to hire his vyneȝerd to other erthe tiliers, the whiche shulen ȝelde to hym fruytis in her tymes.

42 Jhesus seith to hem, Redden ȝe neuer in scripturis, The stoon the whiche beldynge men reproueden, this is maad in to the heued of the corner? Of the Lord this thing is maad, and it is merueilous in oure eiȝen.

43 Therfore I seie to ȝou, for the kyngdam of God shal be taken fro ȝou, and shal be ȝouen to a folk doinge fruytis of it.

44 And he that shal falle on this stoon, shal be broken togidre; forsothe vpon whom it shal falle, it shal togidre poune hym.

45 And when the princis of prestis and Pharisees hadden herde his parablis, thei knewen that he seide of hem.

46 And thei, seekynge to holde hym, dreden the cumpanyes of peple, for thei hadden hym as a prophete.

Chap. XXII. 1 And Jhesus answerynge seide eftsone in parablis to hem, seiynge,

2 The kyngdam of heuenes is maad lic to a man kyng that made weddingus to his sone.

3 And he sente his seruauntis for to clepe men beden to the weddyngis, and thei wolden nat cume.

4 Eftsoone he sente other seruauntis, hys awne sonne, sayinge, They wyll feare my sonne.

38 When the husbandmen sawe his sonne, they sayde amonge them selves, Thys ys the heyre; come on, lett vs kyll hym, and lett vs take hys inherytaunce to oure selves.

39 And they caught hym, and thrust him out of the vyneyarde, and shlewe him.

40 When the lorde of the vyneyarde commeth, what wyll he do with those husbandmen?

41 They sayde vnto hym, He will evyll destroye those evyll persons, and wyll lett out hys vyneyarde vnto other husbandmen, whych shall delyver hym his frute att tymes convenient.

42 Jesus saide vnto them, Dyd ye never redde in the scriptures, The same stone which the bylders refused, is set in the princypall parte of the corner? This was the Lordes doinge, and yt is mervelous in oure eyes.

43 Therfore saye I vnto you, the kingdome of God shalbe taken from you, and shalbe geven to the gentyls which shall brynge forth the frutes off it.

44 And whosoever shall fall on thys stone, shalbe alto broken; and whomsoever thys stone shall fall oppon, he shall grynde him to powder.

45 And when the chefe prestes and Pharyses herde his similitudes, they perecaved that he spake of them.

46 And they went about to laye hondes on hym, but they feared the people, because they counted hym as a prophet.

Chap. XXII. 1 And Jesus answered and spake vnto them agayne in similitudes, sayinge,

2 The kyngdome of heven is lyke vnto a certayne kinge which maryed his sonne.

3 And sent forth his servauntes to call them that were byd to the weddinge, and they wolde nott come.

4 Ageyne he sentt forth other serseiynge, Seie ȝee to the men beden to the feeste, Loo! I haue made redy my mete, my boles and volatilis ben slayn, and alle thingis redy; cumme ȝe to the weddyngus.

5 Sothely thei dispisiden,† and thei wenten awey, oon in to his vyneȝerd, forsothe an other to his marchaundise.

6 But the other helden his seruauntis, and slowen hem, ponished with contek.

7 Forsothe the kyng, whenne he hadde herde, was wroth; and, his hoostis sente, he loste† the man quellers, and brente her citee.

8 Thanne he seith to his seruauntis, Sothely the weddyngis ben redy, but thei that weren clepid to the feeste, weren nat worthi.

9 Therfore go ȝee to the outgoyngis of weyes, and whom euere ȝe shulen fynde, clepe to the weddyngis.

10 And his seruauntis, gon out in to the weyes, gedreden togidre alle that thei founden, good and yuel; and the weddyngis of men sittynge at mete ben fulfillid.

11 Forsothe the kyng entride, that he shulde see men sittynge at mete; and he seeȝ there a man nat clothid with brijd clothis.

12 And he seith to hym, Frend, hou entridist thou hidir, nat hauynge brijd clothe? And he was doumbe.

13 Thanne the kyng seide to the mynystris, His hondis and feet bounden, sende ȝee hym into vttermore derknessis; there shal be weepyng and betyng to gidre of teeth.

14 Forsothe many ben clepid, but fewe chosen.

15 Thanne Pharisees, goynge awey, token a counseile, that thei shulden take Jhesus in word.

16 And thei senden to hym her disciplis, with Erodyanys,† seiynge, Maister, we witen, that thou art sothfast, and thou techist in trewthe the weye of God, and there is no cure† to thee of eny man, for thou beholdist nat the persoone of men.

vauntes, sayinge, Tell them which are bydden, Lo! I have prepared my dynner, myne oxen and my fatlinges are kylled, and all thinges are redy; come vnto the mariage.

5 They made light of it, and went their wayes, won to his ferme place, another about his merchandyse.

6 The remnaunt toke his servauntes, and intreated them vngoodly, and slewe them.

7 When the kinge herde that, he was wroth; and sent forth his warryers, and distroyed those murtheres, and brent vppe theire cite.

8 Then sayde he to hys servauntes, The weddinge was prepared, butt they which were bydden there to, were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore out in to the hye ways, and as many as ye fynde, byd them to the mariage.

10 The servauntes went out in to the wayes, and gaddered togedder as many as they coulde fynde, booth good and bad; and the weddinge was furnysshed with gestes.

11 The kinge cam in, to viset hys gestes; and spyed there a man which had not on a weddinge garment.

12 And sayde vnto hym, Frende, howe camyst thou in hydder, and hast not on a weddyng garment? And he was even spechlesse.

13 Then sayde the kynge to hys ministers, Take and bynde hym hande and fote, and caste hym into vtter dercknes; there shalbe wepinde and gnassinge of teth.

14 For many are called, and feawe be chosen.

15 Then went the Farises, and toke counsell, howe they myght tangle him in his wordes.

16 And sent vnto him there disciples, with Herodes servauntes, sayinge, Master, we knowe, that thou arte true, and that thou teachest the waye of God trueli, nether carest for eny man, for thou consydrest nott mennes estate.

17 Sæge us, hwæt þincþ ðé. Ys hyt álýfed ðæt man Casere gafol sylle, ðe ná?
18 Đá se Hælend hyra fácn gehýrde, ðá cwæþ he, Lá liccteras, hwí fandige ge mín?
19 Æt-ýwaþ me ðæs gafoles mynyt. Đá brohton hí him ánne peninc.

20 Đá cwæþ se Hælend to him, Hwæs anlicnys ys ðis, and ðis ofergewrit?
21 Hig cwǽdon, Đæs Caseres. Đá cwæþ he, Ágyfaþ ðam Casere ða þing ðe ðæs Casyres synt, and Gode ða þing ðe Godes synt.

22 Đá hig ðæt gehýrdon ðá wundrodon hig; and forléton hyne, and férdon onweg.
23 On ðam dæge comon to him Saducei, ða secgeaþ ðæt nán árýst ne sý, and hig ácsedon hyne,
24 And cwǽdon, Láreow, Moyses sǽde, gyf hwá dead sýg, and bearn næbbe, ðæt his bróðor nyme hys wíf, and strýne hym bearn.
25 Witodlice myd us wǽron seofun gebrócðru; and se forma fette wíf, and forþ-férde. And læfde hys brócðer his wíf bútan bearne;
26 And se óðer ealswá, and se þrydda, oð ðone seofoþan.
27 Đá æt síðemestan, forþ-férde ðæt wíf.
28 Hwylces ðæra snfona byþ ðæt wíf, on ðam árîste? ealle hig hæfdon hig.

29 Đá andswarode se Hælend hym and cwæþ, Ge dweliaþ, and ne cunnon hálige gewritu, ne Godes mægen.

30 Witodlice ne wífiaþ hig, ne hig ne ceorliaþ, on ðam árýste; ac hig synt swylce Godes englas on heofone.

31 Ne rǽdde ge, be deadra manna árýste, ðæt eow fram Gode gesǽd wæs, 32 Ic eom Abrahames God, and Isáács God, and Iacobes God? nys God ná deadra, ac lybbendra.

17 Therfore seie to vs, what it semeth to thee. Is it leful to ȝeue to Cesar† rente?†

18 Forsothe, the wickednesse of hem knowen, Jhesus seith, Ypocritis, what tempten ȝee me?

19 Shewe ȝee to me the prynte of the moneye. And thei offriden to hym a peny.

20 And Jhesus seith to hem, Whos is this ymage, and the wrytyng aboue?

21 Thei seyen to hym, Of Cesar. Thanne he seith to hem, Therfore ȝelde ȝee to Cesar tho thingis that ben Cesaris, and to God tho thingis that ben of God.

22 And thei heerynge wondreden; and, hym laft, thei wenten awey.

23 In that day Saducees, that seyen there is no rysyng aȝein, camen niȝ to hym, and axiden hym,

24 Seyinge, Maister, Moyses seide, ȝif eny man be dead, nat hauynge a sone, that his brother wedde his wyf, and reyse seed to his brother.

25 Forsothe seuen bretheren weren at vs; and the first, a wijf weddid, is dead. And he nat hauynge seed, left his wijf to his brother;

26 Also the secounde, and the thridde, til to the seuenthe.

27 Forsothe the laste of alle, and the womman is dead.

28 Therefore in the rysynge aȝein, whos wijf of the seuene shal she be? for alle hadden hir.

29 Sothely Jhesus answerynge seith to hem, ȝee erren, nether knowynge the scripturis, nether the vertu of God.

30 Forsothe in the rysyng aȝeyn, neither thei wedden, nether ben weddid; but thei ben as the aungelis of God in heuene.

31 Sothely of the rysynge aȝein of dead men, ȝee han nat rad, that it is seid of the Lord, seyinge to ȝou, 32 I am God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob? he is nat God of deed men, but of lyuynge men.

17 Tell vs there fore, howe thynkeste thou. Is it lawfull to yeve tribute vnto Cesar, or not?

18 Jesus perceaved there wylynes, and sayde, Why tempte ye me, ye ypocrytes?

19 Lett me se the tribute money. And they toke hym a peny.

20 And he sayde vnto them, Whose ys thys ymage, and superscripcion?

21 They sayde vnto hym, Cesars. Then sayde he vnto them, Geve therefore to Cesar that which is Cesars, and geve vnto God that which is Goddes.

22 When they herde that they marvelled; and lefte hym, and went there waye.

23 The same daye the Saduces cam vnto hym, which saye that there is no resurreccion, and they axed hym, 24 Saynge, Master, Moses bade, if a man dye, havinge no chyldren, that the brother mary his wyfe, and reyse vppe seed vnto his brother.

25 There were with vs seven brethren; the fyrst maried, and dyed with out ysshewe. And lefte hys wyfe vnto hys brother;

26 Lyke wise the seconde, and the thryd, vnto the seventhe.

27 Laste of all, the woman dyed also.

28 Nowe in the resurreccion, whose wyfe shall she be of the vij? for all had her.

29 Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, Ye are deceaved, and knowe not what the scripture meaneth, nor yett the vertue of God.

30 For in the resurreccion, they nether mary, nor are maryed; but are as the angels of God in heven.

31 As touchynge the resurreccion off the deed, have ye nott redde, what ys sayde vnto you off God, which sayeth, 32 I am Abrahams God, and Ysaaks God, and the God of Jacob? God ys nott the God of the deed, but of the lyvinge.

33 Đâ đæt folc đæt gehŷrde, đâ wundredon hig hys láre.†

34 Đâ đa Pharisciscan gehŷrdon, đæt he hêt đa Saduceiscan stylle beon, đâ eodon hig togædere.

33 And the cumpanyes of peple heerynge, wondreden in his techynge.

34 Forsothe Pharisees, heerynge that he hadde put silence to Saducees, camen to gidre in to oon.

35 And oon of hem, a techer of the lawe, axede Jhesus, temptynge hym, 36 Maistre, whiche is a greet maundement in the lawe?

37 Jhesus seide to hym, Thou shalt loue the Lord thi God, of al thin herte, and in al thi soule, and in al thi mynde.

38 This is the firste and the most maundement.

39 Forsothe the secounde is lic to this; Thou shalt loue thi neiȝbore as thi self.

40 In these two maundementis hangith al the lawe and prophetis.

41 Sothely the Pharisees gedrid to gidre, Jhesus axide hem,

37 Jesus sayde vnto him, Thou shalt love thy Lorde God, with all thyne herte, wyth all thy soule, and with all thy mynde.

38 This is the fyrst and that grett commaundment.

39 And there ys another lyke vnto thys; Thou shalt love thyne neghbour as thy selfe.

40 In these two commaundmentes hange all the lawe and the prophettes.

41 Whyll the Pharises were gaddered togedder, Jesus axed them,

42 Saynge, What thinke ye of Christ, whose sonne is he? They sayde vnto hym, The sonne of David.

43 He sayde vnto them, Howe then doeth David in spirite call him Lorde, saynge, 44 The Lorde sayde to my Lorde, Sytt on my ryght honde, tyll I make thyne ennemyes thy fote stole?

45 Yf David call hym Lorde, howe is he then his sonne?

46 And none of them coulde answere him ageyne one worde, nether durste eny man from that daye forth, axe hym eny moo questions.

9 Then shall they put you to trouble, and shall kyll you, and ye shalbe hated off all nacions ffor my names sake.

10 And then shall many fall, and shall betraye won another, and shall hate won the other.

11 And many falce prophetes shall aryse, and shall deceave many.

12 And because iniquite shall have the vpper hande, the love of many shall abate;

13 But he that endureth to the ende, shalbe safe.

14 And this gospell off the kyngdom shalbe preached in all the worlde, for a witnes vnto all nacions; and then shall the ende come.

15 When ye then shall se the abominacion and desolacion, spoken of by Daniell, the prophet, stonde in the holy place; whosoever redeth it, let hym vnderstonde it;

16 Then let them which be in Iury, flye into the mountaynes;

17 And lett hym whych is on the housse toppe, not come doune to take enytinge out of his housse;

24 Ffor there shall arise falce Christes and falce prophetes, and shall geve greate signes and wonders; so greatly that yff it were possible, even the chosen shulde be brought in to erroure.

25 Take hede! I have tolde you before.

26 Yff they shall saye vnto you, Lo! he is in the desert, go not forth; yff they saye, lo! he is in the secret places, beleve nott.

27 For as the lightnynge cometh out off the eest, and shyneth vnto the weest, so shall the commynge off the sonne of man be.

28 For wheresoever a deed body is, even thyther wyll the egles resorte.

29 Immediatly after the tribulacions off those dayes, shall the sun be derkeneth, and the mone shall not geve her light, and the starres shall fall from heven, and the powers of heven shall move.

30 And then shall appere the sygne of the sonne off man in heven, and then shall all the kynreddes of the erth morne; and they shall se the sonne of man come in the cloudes of heven, with power and greate maieste.

31 And he shall sende his angelles with the greate voyce of a tromp; and they shall gadder to gedther his chosen from the fower wyndes, and from the one ende off the worlde to the other.

23 And, hem gadrid togidre, he seide to hem in parablis, Hou may Sathanas caste out Sathanas?
24 And if a rewme be departide in itself, the ilke rewme may not stonde.

21 And when they that longed vnto hym herde off it, they went out to holde hym; for they sayde, he ys to fervent.

22 And the scribes which came from Jerusalem, sayde, He hath Beelzebub, and by the power off the chefe devyll casteth out devylles.
23 And he called them vnto hym, and in similitudes sayde vnto them, Howe can Satan drive out Satan?
24 And yf a realme be devided ageynste it silfe, that realme cannot endure.

25 And if a housse be devided agaynste it silfe, that housse cannot continue.
26 So yf Satan make insurreccion agaynste him silfe, and be devided, he can not continue, but hath an ende.
27 No man can entre into a stronge mans housse, and take awaye hys gooddes, excepte he fyrste bynde that stronge man, and then spoyle hys housse.

34 And he loked rounde about on his disciples, which sate in compasse about hym, and sayde, Beholde! my mother and my brethren.

2 And he taught them many thynges in similitudes. And sayde vnto them in his doctrine,

3 Herken to. Beholde! the sower went forth to sowe.

4 And it fortuned as he sowed, that some fell by the waye syde, and the fowles off the ayre cam, and devoured it vppe.

5 Some fell on a stony grounde, where it had not moche erth; and by and by sprange vppe, because it had not deepth of erth.

22 Forsothe ther is no thing hid, that shal not be maad opyn; nether ony thing is preuy, the whiche shal not come in to apert.

11 And he saide vnto them, To you it is geven to knowe the mistery of the kyngdom of God. But vnto them that are with out, shall all thinges be done in similitudes, 12 That when they se they shall se, and not discerne, and when they heare they shall heare, and not vnderstonde; leste at any tyme they shulde tourne, and their synnes shulde be foryeven them.

13 And he sayde vnto them, Perceave ye not this similitude? and howe ye shall knowe all similitudes?

14 The sower soweth the worde.

15 These be they whiche are by the wayes syde, where the worde is sowen; to whom as sone as they have herde itt, commeth the devyll, and takith awaye the worde that was sowen in their hertes.

25 And vnto you that have shall more be geven, for vnto hym that hath shall it be geven, and from hym that hath nott, shall be taken awaye, even that he hathe.

26 And he sayd, So is the kyngdom of God, even as yf a man shulde sowe seede in the grounde, 27 And shuld slepe, and rise vp night and daye, and the seede shulde springe, and growe vppe, whyll he is not ware.

28 For the erth bryngeth forthe frute off her silfe, first the blad, then the eares, after that full corne in the eares.

29 As sone as the frute is brought forth, anon he throusteth in the sykell, be cause that hervest is come.

30 And he sayde, Where vnto shall we lyken the kyngdom off God? or with what compareson shall we compare it?

31 It is lyke a grayne off mustardseed, which when it is sowen in the erth, is the leest of all seedes that be in the erth;

32 And after that it is sowen, it groweth vppe, and is greatest of all yerbes; and bereth greate braunches, so that the fowles off the ayre maye dwell vnder the shadowe of it.

33 And with many soche similitudes he preached the worde vnto them, after as they myght heare it;

34 And with out similitude spake he nothinge vnto them. But when they were a parte he expounded all thinges to his disciples.

35 And the same daye, when even was come, he sayde vnto them, Lett vs passe over into the other syde.

36 And they late the people departe, and toke him, even as he was in the shippe; there were also with him other shippes.

37 And there arose a great storme of wynde, and dasshed the waves into the shippe, so that it was full.

51 And he went vnto them into the shippe, and the wynde ceased. And they were sore amased in them selves beyonde measure and marveyled;
52 For they remembred nott off the loves; be cause their hertes were blynded.
53 And they cam over, and went into the londe off Genazareth, and drue vp into the haven.

5 And Pharisees and scribis axiden him, seyinge, Whi gon not thi disciplis aftir the tradicioun of eldere men, but with comyne hondis thei eten bred?

5 Then axed hym the Pharises and scribes, Why walke not thy disciples accordinge to the tradicions of the seniours, butt eate breede with vnwesshen hondes?

8 For ye laye the commandement of God aparte, and ye observe the tradicions of men, as the wessinge off cruses, and off cuppes; and many other suche lyke thinges ye do.

9 And he sayde vnto them, Well ye putt awaye the commandement of God, to mayntayne youre owne tradecions.

13 And I saye vnto you, thatt Helyas ys come, and they have done vnto hym whatsoever pleased them, as it is wrytten off hym.

14 And he cam to his disciples, and sawe moche people aboute them, and the scribes disputinge with them.

15 And streyght waye all the people behelde hym, and were amased; and ran to hym, and saluted hym.

16 And he sayde vnto the scribes, What dispute ye with them?

15 Or we schulen not ȝyue? The which witinge her priuey falsnesse, seith to hem, What tempten ȝe me? brynge ȝe to me a peny, that I se.

16 And thei offriden to him. And he seith to hem, Whos is this ymage, and the in wrytinge? Thei seien to him, Cesaris.

17 Forsothe Jhesus answeringe seith to hem, Therfore ȝelde ȝe to Cesar that ben of Cesar, and to God tho thingis that ben of God. And alle wondriden on him.

18 And Saducees, that seyen no resurecioun to be, camen to him, and axiden him, seyinge, 19 Maistir, Moyses wroot to vs, that if the brother of a man were deed, and lefte a wyf, and lefte not sones, his brother take his wyf, and reyse vp seed to his brothir.

20 Therfore seuene britheren weren; and the firste took a wyf, and is deed, no seed left.

21 And the secunde took hir, and he is deed, and neither this lefte seed. And the thridde also.

22 And seuene tooken hir, and lefte not seed. And the womman the laste of alle is deed.

23 Thanne in the resurecciοun, whanne thei schulen rise aȝen, whos wyf of these schal sche be? sothly seuene hadden hir wyf.

24 And Jhesus answeringe seith to hem, Wher ȝe erren not therfore, not knowinge the scripturis, nother the vertu of God?

25 Forsothe whanne thei schulen rise aȝen fro deed men, neither thei wedden, nother ben weddid, but thei schulen be as aungels of God in heuenes.

26 Sothli of deed men, that thei rysen aȝein, han ȝe not rad in the book of Moyses, on the bousche, hou God seide to him, seiynge, I am God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob?

27 He is not God of deede men, but 15 Ought we to geve, or ought we nott to geve? He knewe their dissimulacion, and sayd vnto them, Why tẽpte ye me? brynge me a peny, that I maye se yt.

16 And they brought hym one. And he sayde vnto them, Whose ys thys ymage, and superscripcion? And they sayde vnto hym, Cesars.

17 And Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, Then geve to Cesar that which belongeth to Cesar, and geve God that which perteyneth to God. And they mervelled att hym.

18 And the Saduces cam vnto hym, which saye there is no resurrection, and they axed hym, sayinge, 19 Master, Moses wroote vnto vs, yff eny mans brother dye, and leve hys wyf behynde him, and leve no chyldren, that then hys brother shulde take hys wyfe, and reyse vppe seed vnto his brother.

20 There were seven brethren; and the fyrst toke a wyfe, and when he dyed, leeft no seede behinde hym.

21 And the seconde toke her, and dyed, nether leeft he eny seede. And the thyrde lyke wyse.

22 And seven had her, and leeft no seed behynde them. Last of all the wyfe dyed also.

23 In the resurrecion then, when they shall ryse agayne, whose wyfe shall she be of them? for seven had her to wyfe.

24 Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, Are ye not ther fore deceaved, be cause ye knowe not the scryptures, nether the power of God?

25 Fór when they shall ryse agayne from deeth, they nether mary, nor are maryed, butt are as the angels which are in heven.

26 As touchynge the deed, that they shall ryse agayne, have ye nott redde in the boke off Moses, howe, in the busshe, God spake vnto him, sayinge, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Ysaac, and the God of Jacob?

28 And oon of the scribis, that hadde herd hem sekynge to gidere, cam niȝ, and seyinge that he hadde wel answerid hem, axide hym, which was the firste maundement of alle.

29 Jhesus answeride to him, that the firste of alle comaundementis is, Heere, Israel, the Lord thi God is oon;

30 And thou schal loue the Lord thi God of al thin herte, and of al thi soule, and of al thi mynde, and of al thi vertu.† This is the firste maundement.

31 Forsothe the secunde is lyk to this, Thou schalt loue thi neiȝebore as thi silf. Ther is non othir maundement more than these.

32 And the scribe seith to him, Maister, in treuthe thou hast wel seid; for o God is, and ther is non, out taken him;

33 And that he be loued of al herte, and of al thouȝt,† and of al vndirstondinge, and of al the soule, and of al strengthe, and to loue the neiȝebore as him silf, is more than alle brend offringis and sacrificis.

34 Jhesus forsothe seyinge that he hadde answerid wysely, seide to him, Thou ert not fer fro the kyngdom of God. And now no man durste axe him.

35 And Jhesus answeringe seide, techinge in the temple, Therfore how seyn scribis, Crist for to be the sone of Dauith?

28 And there cam won off the scrybes, and when he had herde them disputynge to gedder, and perceaved that he had answered them well, he axed hym, which is the fyrste of all the commaundementes.

29 Jesus answered hym, The fyrste of all the commaundementes is, Heare, Israhel, oure Lorde God is wone Lorde;

30 And thou shaltt love thy Lorde God with all thy hert, and with all thy soule, and with all thy mynde, and with all thy strengthe. This is the fyrste commaundement.

31 And the seconde is lyke vnto this, Thou shalt love thy neghbour as thy silfe. There is none other commaundement greater then these.

32 And the scribe sayde vnto hym, Well, master, thou hast sayde the truthe; thatt there ys one God, and that there is none but he;

33 And to love hym with all the herte, and with all the mynde, and with all the soule, and with all the strengthe, and to love a mans nehbour as hym silfe, ys a greater thynge then all holocaustes and sacrifises.

34 And when Jesus sawe howe that he answered discretly, he sayd vnto hym, Thou arte nott farre from the kyngdome of God. And no man after that durst axe hym eny question.

35 And Jesus answered and sayd, teachynge in the temple, Howe saye the scribes, that Christ is the sonne off David?

36 For David hym silfe inspyred with the Holy Goost sayd, The Lorde sayde to my lorde, Sytt on my right honde, tyll I make thyne enemys thy fote stole.

37 Then David hym silfe calleth hym lorde, and by what meanes ys he then his sonne? And moche people herde hym gladly.

21 And thanne if ony man schulde scie to 3ou, Lo! here is Crist, loo! there, beleue 3e not.

22 For fals Cristis and fals prophetis schulen ryse vp, and schulen 3yue tokenes and grete wondris, to disceyue, if it may be don, 3he, the chosene.

23 Therfore se 3e; loo! I haue bifore seid to 3ou alle thingis.

24 But in tho dayes, aftir that tribulacioun, the sunne schal be maad derk, and the mone schal not 3yue hir schynyng,

25 And sterris of heuenes schal be fallinge doun, and vertues that be in heuenes, schulen be mouyd.

26 And thanne thei schulen se mannis sone comynge in cloudis of heuene, with greet vertu and glorie.

27 And thanne he schal sende his aungels, and schal gedre his chosene fro foure wyndis, fro the loweste thing of erthe vnto the hi3este thing of heuene.

28 Forsothe of the fyge tree lerne 3e the parable. Whanne now his braunche schal be tendre, and leeuys ben sprongen out, 3e witen for somer is in the nexte.

20 And excepte that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no man shulde be saved; but for the electes sake which he hath chosen, he hath shortened thoose dayes.

21 And then yff eny man saye vnto you, Loo! here is Christ, loo! he is there, beleve nott.

22 For falce Christes shall aryse and falce propetes, and shall shewe myracles and wonders, to deceave, yf it were possible, evyn the electe.

23 But take ye hede; beholde! I have shewed you all thinges before.

24 Moreover in thoose dayes, after that tribulacion, the sunne shall wexe darke, and the mone shall not geve her light,

25 And the starres off heven shall fall, and the powers which are in heven, shall move.

26 And then shall they se the sonne of man commynge in the cloudes, with greate power and glory.

27 And then shall he sende his angels, and shall gaddre to gedder his electe from the fouare wyndes, and from the one ende off the worlde to the other.

28 Learne a similitude of the fygge tree. When his braunches are ytt tender, and hath brought forthe leves, ye knowe that sommer ys neare.

19 And thei smyten his heed with a reede, and bispatten him; and puttinge her knees thei worshipiden him.

20 And aftir that thei hadden scornyd him, thei vnclothiden him fro purpur, and clothedyn him with his clothis, and ledden him, that thei schulde crucifie him.

21 And thei constreyneden sum man passynge forth, Symount of Syrenen, comynge fro the town, the fadir of Alysandre and Rufe, that he schulde take his cross.

22 And thei ledden him in to a place Golgotha, that is interpretid,† the place of Caluarie.

23 And thei ȝauen him for to drynke wyn meddelid with myrre, and he took not.

8 And the people called vnto hym, and began to desyre off hym, accordinge as he had ever done vnto them.

9 Pylate answered them, and sayd, Wyll ye that I loose vnto you the kynge off the Jewes?

10 For he knewe, that the hye prestes had delyvered hym off envy.

11 Butt the hye prestes had moved the people, that he shulde rather delyvre Barrabas vnto them.

12 Pylate answered agayne and sayd vnto them, What wyll ye then that I do with hym whom ye call the kynge of the Jewes?

13 And they cryed agayne, Crucify hym.

14 Pylate sayde vnto them, What harme hath he done? And they cryed the more fervently, Crucifi hym.

15 Pylate willinge to content the people, loused Barrabas, and delyvered Jesus scourged, for to be crucifyed.

16 And the souldeers ledde hym awaye, in to the commen hall, and called togedder all the whoole multitude,

17 And they clothed hym wyth purple. And they plated a croune off thornes, and crouned hym with all;

18 And began to salute hym, Hayl, kynge off the Jewes.

19 And they smoote hym on the heed with a rede, and spatt apon hym; and kneled doune and worsheped hym.

20 And when they had moocked him, they toke the purple off him, and put his awne cloothes on him, and ledde him oute, to crucify him.

21 And they compelled won that passed by, called Simon of Cerene, which cam oute of the felde, and was father off Alexander and Rufus, to beare hys crosse.

22 And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretacion, the place off deed mens scoulles.

3 And they said won to another, Who shall rolle awaye the stone from the dore off the sepulcre?
4 And when they behelde yt they sawe how the stone was rolled awaye, for it was a very greate won.
5 And they went in to the sepulcre and sawe a yonge man, sittinge on the ryght syde, cloothed in a longe white garment; and they were abasshed.
6 He sayd vnto them, Be nott afrayed; ye seke Jesus of Nazareth which was crucified; he ys rysen, he ys nott here; behoolde! the place where they putt hym.
7 Butt go youre waye, and tell his disciples, and namly Peter, that he is goone before you in to Galile; there shall ye se hym, as he sayde vnto you.
8 And they went oute quicly and fleed from the sepulcre; for they trembled and were amased, nether said they eny thinge to eny man, for they were afrayed.
9 When Jesus was risen, the morowe after the sabboth daye, he appered fyrst to Mary Magdalen, oute off whom he cast seven devyls.
10 And she went and toolde them that were with hym, as they morned and weppte.
11 And when they herde that he was alive, and had appiered to her, they beleved it not.
12 After that he appered vnto two of them in a straunge figure, as they walked and went in to the country.

13 And they went and toolde it to the remnaunt, and they beleved them nether.
14 After that, he appered vnto the eleven, as they sate at meate, and cast in their tethe their vnbelefe, and hardnes off herte, be cause they beleved not them, which had sene hym after his resurreccion.
15 And he sayd vnto them, Goo ye in to all the woorlde, and preache the gospell to all creaturs.

19 And witodlîce Drihten Hælend, syđđan he to him spræc, he wæs on heofonum âfangen, and he sit on Godes swiđran healfe.

20 Sôþlice hî đâ farende æghwar bodedon, Drihtne mid-wyrcendum, and trymmendre spræce æfter-fyligendum tâcnum.

17 Forsoth these tokenes schulen sue hem, that schulen bileue. In my name thei schulen cast out fendis; thei schulen speke with newe tungis;

18 Thei schulen do awey serpentis; and if thei schulen drynke ony venym,† it schal not noye hem. Thei schulen putte hir hondis vpon sike men, and thei schulen haue wel.

19 And sothli the Lord Jhesu, aftir that he hadde spoke to hem, is takun vp in to heuene, and sittith on the riȝt-half of God.

20 Sothli thei gon forth prechiden euerywhere, the Lord worchinge with, and confirminge the word with signes folowinge.

17 And these signes shall folowe them, that beleve. In my name they shall cast oute devyls; and shall speake with newe tonges;

18 And shall kill serpentes; and yf they drynke eny dedly thynge, yt shall nott hurte them. They shall laye their hondes on the sike, and they shall recover.

19 So then when the Lorde had spoken vnto them, he was receaved in to heven, and sate on the right honde of God.

20 And they went forth and preached every where, and the Lorde wroght with them, and confirmed their preachynge with myracles that folowed.

35 And Jesus rebuked hym, sayinge, Hoolde thy peace, and come oute of hym. And the devyle threwe him in the myddes of them, and cam oute of hym, and hurt hym not.

36 And feare cam on them all, and they spake amonge them selves, sayinge, What manner a thinge is this, for with auctorite and power he commaundeth the foule spretes, and they come out?

37 And the fame of hym spreed abroode throwoute all places of the countre round aboute.

37 And no man sendith newe wyn in to olde wyn vesselis; ellis the newe wyn schal breke the wyn vesselis, and the wyn schal be sched out, and the wyn vesselis schulen perische.

38 But newe wyn is to be sent in to newe wyn vesselis, and bothe ben kept.

Chap. VI. 1 Forsothe it is don in the secunde firste saboth, whanne he passide by cornes, his disciplis pluckeden eeris; and thei frotinge with her hondis, eeten.

2 Sothli summe of the Pharisees seiden to hem, What don ȝe this, that is not leefful in sabotis?

3 And Jhesu answeringe seide to hem, Neithir ȝe han rad this, that Dauith dide, whanne he hungride, and thei that weren with him;

4 Hou he entride in to the hous of God, and took looues of proposicioun, and eet, and ȝaf to hem that weren with him; whiche looues it was not leefful to ete, no but to preestis aloone.

5 And he seide to hem, For mannis sone is lord, ȝe, of the saboth.

6 Sothli it was don and in an other saboth, that he entride in to a synagoge, and tauȝte. And a man was there, and his riȝthond was drye.

7 Forsothe scribis and Pharisees aspieden him, if he schulde heele him in the saboth, that thei schulden fynde cause, wherof thei schulden accuse him.

8 Sothli he wiste the thouȝtis of hem, and he seith to the man that hadde a drye hond, Rise vp, and stond in to the myddel. And he risinge stood.

36 He spake vnto them in a similitude; No man puttheth a pece of an newe garment into an olde vesture; for yf he do, then breaketh he the newe, and the pece that was taken out of the newe agreeth nott with the olde.

37 Also no man pourcth newe wyne into olde vessels; yf he do, the newe wyne breaketh the vessels, and runneth out it silfe, and the vessels perisshe.

38 But newe wyne must be poured into newe vessels, and boothe are preserved.

39 Also no man that drynketh olde wyne, strayght waye can awaye with newe; for he sayeth, The olde is plesaunter.

Chap. VI. 1 Hit happened on an aftersaboth, they went thorowe the corne felde, and his disciples plucked the eares of corne; and ate them, and rubbed them in their hondes.

2 Certayne of the Pharises sayde vnto them, Why do ye that, which is not laufull to be done on the saboth dayes?

3 Jesus answered them and sayde, Have ye nott redde what David did, when he hym silfe was anhungred, and they which were with hym;

4 Howe he went into the housse off God, and toke, and ate the loves off halowed breed, and gave also to them which were with hym; which was nott laufull to eate, but for the prestes only.

5 And he sayd vnto them, The sonne of man is lorde, even of the saboth daye.

6 And it fortuned in a nother saboth also, that he entred into the sinagoge, and taught. And there was a man, whose right honde was dryed vp.

7 The scribes and the Pharises watched hym, to se whether he wolde heale on the saboth daye or not, that they myght fynde an accusacion agaynst hym.

8 Butt he knewe their thoughtes, and sayde to the man which had the wyddred honde, Ryse vp, and stonde forthe in the myddes. He arose and stepped forthe.

37 Nyle ȝe deme, and ȝe schulen not be demyd. Nyle ȝe condempne, and ȝe schulen not be condempned; forȝyue ȝe, and it schal be forȝouun to ȝou.

38 ȝyue ȝe, and it schal be ȝouun to ȝou. Thei schulen ȝyue in to ȝoure bosum a good mesure, and wel fillid, and shakun to gidere, and ouerflowynge; forsothe by the same mesure, by which ȝe schulen mete, it schal be meten to ȝou.

39 Sothli he seide to hem and a liknesse, Whethir a blynd man may leede the blynde? whethir thei falle not bothe in to the dyche?

40 A disciple is not aboue the maistir; sothli ech schal be perfyt, if he is as his maistir.

41 Sothli what seest thou in thi brotheris ȝe a festu,† but thou biholdist not a beem, which is in thi owne ȝe?

42 Othir hou maist thou seye to thi brother, Brother, suffre, I schal caste out a festu of thin ȝe? thou biholdist not a beem in thin owne ȝe? Ypocrite, first tak out the beem of thyn ȝe, and thanne thou schalt biholde, that thou lede out a festu of thi brotheris ȝe.

43 Forsothe it is not a good tree, that makith yucle frutis, nother an yucle tree, that makith goode fruytis;

44 Sothli euery tree is knowun of his fruyt. Sothli neither men gederyn fygis of thornes, neither men gederyn a grape of a boysch of breris.

45 A good man of the goode tresour of his herte bryngeth forth good thing, and an yuel man of yuel tresour, bryngith forth yuel thing; sothli of the plente of the herte the mouth spekith.

46 Forsothe what clepen ȝe me, Lord, Lord, and don not tho thingis that I seye.

36 Be ye therfore mercifull, as youre father ys mercifull.

37 Judge nott, and ye shall nott be judged. Condemne nott, and ye shall not be condemned; forgeve, and ye shalbe forgeven.

38 Geve, and yt shalbe geven vnto you. Goode measure, pressed doune, shaken to gedder, and runnynge over shall men geve into youre besomes; for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you agayne.

39 And he put forthe a similitude vnto them, Can the blynde ledde the blynde? do they nott both then fall into the dyche?

40 The disciple is not above his master; every man shalbe perfecte, even as hys master ys.

41 Why seist thou a moote in thy brothers eye, and considerest not the beame, that is in thyne awne eye?

42 Other howe cannest thou saye to thy brother, Brother, lett me pull out the moote that is in thyne eye? when thou perceavest nott the beame that is in thyne awne eye? Ypocrite, cast out the beame out off thyne awne eye first, and then shalt thou se perfectly, to pull out the moote out of thy brothers eye.

43 Hit is nott a goode tree, that bryngeth forthe evyll frute, nether is that an evyll tree, whych bryngeth forthe goode frute;

44 For every tree ys knowen by his frute. Nether off thornes gader men fygges, nor of busshes gadrer they grapes.

45 A goode man off the goode treasure off hys hert bryngeth forthe that which ys goode, and the evyll man of the evyll treasure off hys hert, bryngeth forthe that whych ys evyll; for off the aboundaunce off the hert the mought speaketh.

32 They are lyke vnto chyldren sittynge in the market place, and cryinge one to another, and sayinge, We have pyped vnto you, and ye have nott daunsed; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

16 Forsoth no man liȝtinge a lanterne hilith it with a vessel, ethir puttith vndir a bed, but on a candilsticke, that men entringe se liȝt.

11 The similitude is this. The seede ys the worde of God;

12 Thoose that are besyde the waye, are they that heare; and afterwarde commeth the devyll, and taketh awaye the worde out of their hertes, lest they shulde beleve and be saved.

13 They on the stonnes, are they which when they heare the worde, receave yt with ioye. And these have noo rotes; which for a whyle beleve, and in tyme of temtacion goo awaye.

14 That which fell amonge thornes, are they which heare, and goo forth and are choked with care, and riches, and voluptrous livynge, and brynge forth noo frute.

15 That in the good grounde, ar they which, with a goode and pure hert, heare the worde and kepe it, and brynge forth frute with pacience.

16 No man lyghteth a candell and coverit hyt vnder a vessell, nether putteth hit vnder the table, but setteth it on a candelsticke, that they that enter in maye se lyght.

17 Noo thinge is in secret, that shall nott come abroode, nether eny thinge hyd, that shall not be knowen, and come to light.

18 Take hede therfore, how ye heare; for whosoever hath to him shalbe geven, and whosoever hath not, from hym shalbe taken, even that same whiche he supposeth that he hath.

19 Then cam to hym hys mother and his brethren; and coulde nott come at hym for preace.

29 For he commaunded the foule sprete, to come out of the man. For ofte tymes he caught hym, and he was bounde with chaynes and kept with fetters, and he brake the bondes, and was caryed of the fende into wildernes.

30 Jesus axed hym, sayinge, What is thy name? And he sayde, Legion; be cause many devyls wer entred into hym.

33 Therfore fendis wenten out fro the man, and entride in to hoggis; and with bire the floc wente hedlinge in to the lake of watir, and was stranglid.

34 Which thing, as thei that lesewiden syȝen don, thei fledden, and tolden in to the citee, and in townes.

35 Sothli thei ȝeden out to se that thing that was don. . . . And thei founden the man sittinge clothid, fro whom the fendis wenten out, and in hool mynde at his feet; and thei dredden.

36 Sothli and thei that syȝen tolden to hem, how he was maad hool of the legioun.

38 And the man of whom the fendis wente out, preied him, that he schulde be with him. Sothli Jhesu lefte him, seyinge, 39 Go aȝeyn in to thin hous, and telle hou grete thingis God hath don to thee. And he wente thorw al the citee, prechinge, hou grete thingis Jhesu hadde don to him.

40 Forsothe it was don, whanne Jhesu hadde gon aȝeyn, the cumpanye of peple receyuede him; forsothe alle weren abidinge him.

41 And loo! a man, to whom the name was Jayrus, and he was a prince of a synagoge; and he fel doun to the feet of Jhesu, preiynge him, that he schulde entre in to his hous,

42 For olypi douȝtir was to him almoost of twelue ȝeer, and this deiede. And it bifel, the while he wente, he was throngun of the cumpeny.

33 Then went the devyls out off the man, and entred into the swyne; and the heerd toke their course and ran headlynge into the lake, and wer choked.

34 When the herdmen sawe what had chaunsed, they fleed, and tolde it in the cite, and in the villages.

35 And they cam out to se what was done. And cam to Jesus, and founde the man, out of whom the devyls wer departed, sittynge att the fete of Jesus clothed, and in hys right mynde; and they wer afrayde.

36 They also which sawe it tolde them, by what meanes he that was possessed of the devyll was healed.

37 And all the whole multitude of the Gadarens besought hym, that he wolde departe from them, for they wer taken with greate feare. And he gate hym into the shyppe and returned backe agayne.

38 The man out off whom the devyls were departed, besought hym, that he myght be with hym. But Jesus sent hym awaye, sayinge, 39 Goo home agayne into thyne awne housse, and shewe what thynges God hath done to the. And he went his waye, and preached thorowe out all the cite, what thynges Jesus had done vnto hym.

40 Hit fortuned, that when Jesus was come agayne, the people receaved hym; for they all longed for hym.

41 And beholde! there cam a man, named Jairus, and he was a ruler off the sinagoge; and he fell doune at Jesus fete, and besought hym, that he wolde come into his housse, 42 Ffor he had but a doughter only of twelve yere of age, and she laye a dyinge. As he went, the people thronge hym.

43 And a woman havynge an issue of bloud twelve yeres, whiche had spent all her substannce amonge phisicions, nether coulde be holpen of eny, 46 And Jesus sayd, Some boody touched me, for I perceave that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman sawe, that she was not hid from hym, she cam trimblynge, and fell at his fete, and tolde hym before all the people for what cause she had touched hym, and howe she was healed immediatly.

9 And Herod sayde, Jhon have Y behedded; who is this, of whom I here suche thynges? And he desired to se hym.

10 And the apostles retourned and tolde hym, all that they had done. And he toke them, and went a syde into a solitary place, neye to a citie called Bethsaida.

11 The people knewe off it, and folowed hym. And he receaved them, and spake vnto them of the kyngdom off God; and healed them that had nede to be healed.

28 Sothli it was don aftir thes wordis almoost ei3te dayes, and he took Petre and James and John, and he sti3ede in to an hil, that he schulde preie.

27 I tell you of a surety, some there are of them thatt here stonde, which shall not tast of deeth, till they se the kyngdom of God.

28 And it folowed about an viij. dayes after thoose sayinges, he toke Peter James and Jhon, and went vp into a mountayne to praye.

29 And as he prayed, the fassion of his countenaunce was changed, and his garment was whyte and shoone.

30 And beholde! two men talked with him, and they were Moses and Helias, 31 Which apered gloriously; and spake of his departinge, whych he shulde ende att Jerusalem.

32 Peter, and they that wer with hym, wer hevy a slepe, and when they woke they sawe his maieste, and two men stondinge with him.

33 And hit chaunsed, as they departed from hym, Peter sayde vnto Jesus, Master, it is goode beinge here for vs, let vs make thre tabernacles, won for the, and won for Moses, and won for Helias; and wist nott what he sayde.

34 Whyll he thus spake, there cam a cloude, and shadowed them; and they feared, when they entred into the cloude.

35 And there cam a voyce out of the cloude, sayinge, This is my deare sonne, heare hym.

36 And as sone as the voice was past, Jesus was founde alone. And they kept it cloosse, and tolde noo man in thoose dayes eny of those thynges, which they had sene.

42 And whanne he cam nyȝ, the fend hurlide him doun, and to-brayd. And Jhesu blamede the vnclene spirit, and heelide the child, and ȝeld him to his fadir.

42 As he yett was a commynge, the fende rent hym, and tare hym. Jesus rebuked the vnclene sprete, and healed the chylde, and delivered hym to hys father.

43 And they wer all amased att the myghty power of God. Whyll they wondred every one att all thynges whych he did, he seide to his disciplis,

49 Forsoth John answeringe seide, Comaundour, we syȝen sum man castinge out fendis in thi name, and we han forbodyn him, for he sueth not thee with vs.

46 There arose a disputacion amonge them, who shulde be the greatest.

47 When Jesus perceaved the thoughtes off their hertes, he toke a chylde, and sett hym hard by hym;

48 And sayde vnto them, Whosoever receave thys chylde in my name, receaveth me; and whosoever receaveth me, receaveth hym that sent me; for he that amongest you ys the least, the same shalbe greate.

49 Jhon answered and sayde, Master, we sawe won castynge out devyls in thy name, and we forbade hym, be cause he foloweth not with vs.

moche seruyce. Which stood, and seide, Lord, is it not of charge to thee, that my sistir lefte me aloone, for to mynystre? therfore seye to hir, that she helpe me.

41 And the Lord answeringe seide to hir, Martha, Martha, thou ert bysi, and art troublid anentis ful manye thingis;

42 Forsoth o thing is necessarie. Marie hath chose the beste part, which schal not be take a wey fro hir.

Chap. XI. 1 And it was don, whanne he was preiynge in sum place, as he ceesside, oon of his disciplis seide to him, Lord, teche vs to preye, as and John tau3te his disciplis.

2 And he seide to hem, Whanne 3e preyen, seye 3e, Fadir, ... halewid be thi name. Thi kyngdom come to . . . . . .

4 And for3yue to vs oure synnes, as and we for3yuen to ech owynge to vs. And leed not vs in to temptacioun. . . . . .

5 And he seith to hem, Who of 3ou schal haue a frend, and schal go to him at mydny3t, and schal seie to him, Frend, leene to me thre loouys;

6 For my frend cometh to me of the weye, and I haue not what I schal sette bifore him.

7 And he withynne forth answeringe seye, Nyle thou be noyful to me; the dore is now schit, and my children beth with me in the cowche; I may no3t ryse, and 3yue to thee.

8 And if he schal contynue knockynge, I seye to 3ou, thou3 he schal not 3yue to hym, for he is a frend, netheles for his vnrestefulnesse he schal rise, and 3yue to hym, how manye he hath nedeful.

9 And I seie to 3ou, axe 3e, and it schal be 3ouun to 3ou; seke 3e, and 3e schulen fynde; knocke 3e, and it schal be openyd to 3ou.

servynge. And stode, and sayde, Master, doest thou not care, that my sister hath leeft me to minister alone? bid her therfore, that she helpe me..

41 And Jesus answered and sayde vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou arte busied, and troublest thy silfe about many thynges;

42 Verely one ys nedfull. Mary hath chosen her a good parte, which shall not be taken awaye from her.

Chap. XI. 1 And it fortuned, as he was prayinge in a certayne place, when he ceased, won of his disciples sayd vnto him; Master, teache vs to praye, as Jhon taught his disciples.

2 And he sayd vnto them, When ye praye, saye, Oure father which arte in heven, halowed be thy name. Lett thy kyngdom come. Thy will be fulfillet, even in erth as it is in heven.

3 Oure dayly breed geve vs this daye.

4 And forgeve vs oure synnes, for even we forgeve every man that traspaseth vs. And ledde vs not into temptacion, butt deliver vs from evyll. Amen.

5 And he sayde vnto them, Which of you shall have a frende, and shall goo to hym att mydnyght, and saye vnto hym, Frende, lende me foure loves;

6 For a frende of myne is come out off the waye to me, and I have nothynge to sett before him.

7 And he with in shall andswer and saye, Trouble me nott; nowe is the dore shett, and my servaunttes are with me in the chamber; I cannot ryse, and geve them to the.

8 I saye vnto you, though he woll not aryse and geve hym, be cause he is his frende, yet because of hys importunite he woll ryse, and geve him, as many as he nedeth.

9 And I saye vnto you, axe, and yt shalbe geven you; seke, and ye shall fynde; knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.

10 Æ'lc ðara ðe bitt, onfehþ; and se ðe séceþ, he finţ; and cnuciendum byþ untýned.

11 Hwylc eower bitt his fæder hlâfes, segst ðú sylþ he him stân? oððe gif he byt fisces, sylþ he him næddran for fisce?

12 Oððe gif he bit æg, segst ðú rǽceþ he him scorpionem? ðæt is án wyrmcynn.

13 Witodlice gif ge, ðonne ðe synd yfele, cunnon syllan gôde sylene eowrum bearnum, swâ mycele má eower fæder of heofone sylþ gôdne gâst ðam ðe hyne biddaþ.†

14 Ðâ wæs se Hǽlend út-âdrîfende sume deofol-seocnesse, and seo wæs dumb. And ðâ he út-âdrâf ða deofelseocnesse, ðâ spræc se dumba; and ða mænigeo wundredon.

15 Sume cwǽdon, On Belzebub, deofla caldre, he út-âdrîfþ ða deofol-seocnessa.

16 And sume his fandodon and gyrndon of heofone tácnes of him.

17 Ðâ he geseah hyra geþancas, he cwæþ, Æ'lc rice on hyt sylf todæled, byþ toworpen, and ðæt hûs ofer ðæt hûs fealþ.

18 Gyf Satanas is todæled on hine sylfne, hú stent his rice? Forðam ðe ge secgaþ, ðæt ic on Belzebub deofolseocnessa út-âdrîfe.

19 Gif ic on Belzebub deofla út-âdrîfe, on hwam út-âdrîfaþ eower bearn? Forðam hig beoþ eowere démau.

20 Gewislice gif ic on Godes fingre deofla út-âdrîfe, callunga Godes rice on eow becymþ.

21 Ðonne se stranga gewǽpnod his cafertûn gehealt, ðonne beoþ on sibbe ða þing ðe he âh.

22 Gyf ðonne strengra ofer hine cymþ and hine ofer-winþ, calle his wǽpnu, ðe he on-trúwode, he him áfyrþ, and todælþ his here-reaf.

23 Se ðe nis mid me, se is ongean me; and se ðe ne gaderaþ mid me, se hit tostret.

24 Ðonne se unclæna gâst gǽþ of ðam men, he gǽþ þurh unwæterige stówa,

10 Forsoth ech man that axith, takith; and he that sekith, fyndith; and to a man knockynge, it schal be openyd.
11 Therfore who of 3ou axith the fadir breed, wher he schal 3yue to him a stoon? ether if he axith fysch, wher he schal 3yue to him a serpent for the fysch?
12 Ethir if he schal axe an ey, whethir he schal dresse to him a scorpioun?

13 Therfore if 3e, whanne 3e ben yuele, kunne 3yue to 3oure children goode thingis 3ouun, hou moche more 3oure fadir of heuene schal 3yue a good spirit to men axynge him.
14 And Jhesu was castinge out a fend, and he was doumbe. And whanne he hadde cast out the fend, the doumb man spak; and the cumpanyes wondriden.

15 Forsoth summe of hem seiden, In Belsebub, prince of deuelis, he castith out deuelis.
16 And othere temptinge axiden of him a tokene fro heuene.
17 Forsoth he, as he sy3 the thou3tis of hem, seide to hem, Euery rewme departide a3ens it silf, schal be desolat, and an hous schal falle on an hous.
18 Forsoth and if Sathanas is departid a3ens him silf, how schal his rewme stonde? For 3e seyn, that I caste out fendis in Belsebub.
19 Forsoth if I in Belsebub caste out fendis, in whom 3oure sones casten out? Therfore thei schulen be 3oure domesmen.
20 Forsoth if I caste out fendis in the fyngir† of God, sothli the rewme of God is comen in to 3ou.
21 Whanne a strong armed man kepith his hows, alle thingis that he weldith ben in pees.
22 Sothli if a strongere comynge aboue ouercome him, he schal take a wey alle his armeris, in whiche he tristide, and schal dele abrood his spuylis.
23 He that is not with me, is a3ens me; and he that gedrith not to gidere with me, scaterith a brood.
24 Whanne an vnclene spirit hath gon out of a man, he wandrith by drye placis,

10 For every one that axeth, receaveth; and he that seketh, fyndeth; and to him that knocketh, shall it be opened.
11 Yf the sonne axe breed off eny off you which ys hys father, wyll he proffer hym a stone? or yff he axe fisshe, wyll he geve hym a serpent?
12 Or yf he axe an egge, wyll he proffer him a scorpion?

13 Yf ye then, which are evyll, know howe to geve good giftes vnto youre chyldren, howe moche more shall youre father celestiall geve a goode sprete to them that desire it of hym.
14 And he was a castynge out a devyll, whyche was dom. And it folowed when the devyll was gone out, the dom spake; and the people wondred.

15 Some off them sayde, He casteth out devyls by the power of Belzebub, the chefe of the devyls.
16 And other tempted hym sekynge of hym a signe from heven.
17 He knewe their thoughtes, and sayde vnto them, Every kyngdom at debate with in it silfe, shalbe desolate, and won housse shall fall apon another.
18 Soo if Satan be at variaunce with in hym silve, howe shall his kyngdom endure? Be cause ye saye, that I cast out devyls by the power off Belzebub.
19 Yf I by the power of Belzebub caste oute devyles, by whose power do youre chyldren cast them out? Therfore shall they be youre iudges.
20 Butt if I with the finger off God cast out devyls, noo doute the kyngdom of God is come apon you.
21 When a stronge man armed watcheth his housse, that he possesseth is in peace.
22 But when a stronger then he cometh apon hym and overcommeth hym, he taketh from him his harnes, wherin he trusted, and devideth his gooddes.
23 He that is not with me, is agaynst me; and he that gadereth nott with me, scatterch.
24 When the vnclene sprete is gone out of a man, he walketh through waterreste sécende; and náne ne gemét, ðonne cwyþ he, Ic gewende eft to minum húse, ðe ic of-eode.

25 And ðænne he cymþ, he hit gemét æmtig mid besmum áfeormod. . . .

26 Ðonne gǽþ he, and nimþ seofen óðre gástas wyrsan ðonne he, and ingáþ, and ðar eardiaþ. Ðonne synd ðæs mannes endas wyrsan ðam érrum.

27 Sóþlice wæs geworden, ðá he ð's sæde, sum wíf . . . . him to cwæþ, Eadig is se innoþ ðe ðé bær, and ða breost ðe ðú suce.

28 Ðá cwæþ he, Eadige synd ða, ðe Godes word gehýraþ, and ðæt gehealdaþ.

29 Ðá hyra manega togædere comon, he cwæþ to him, Ðeos cneorys is mánfull cneorys; heo sécþ tácen, and hyre ne biþ nán geseald, búton Ionan tácen.

30 Swá swá Iona wæs tácen Niniuetum, swá biþ mannes sunu tácen ðisse cneorisse.

31 Súþ-dæles cwén árist on dóme mid ðisse cneorysse mannum, and genyðeraþ hig; forðam ðe heo com of eorþan endum, to gehýranne Salomones wisdóm, and efne! ðes is mára ðonne Salomon.

32 Niniuetisce men árisaþ on dóme mid ðisse cneorysse, and genyðeriaþ hig; forðam ðe hig dǽd-bóte dydon æt Ionam bodunge, and ðes is mára ðonne Iona.

33 Ne on-ǽlþ nán man his leoht-fæt, and sett on diglum, ne under bydene, ac ofer candel-stæf, ðæt ða ðe in-gáþ, leoht gescon.

35 Warna, ðæt ðæt leoht ðe ðé on is, ne sýn þýstru.

36 Gyf ðín lichama eall biþ beorht, and næfþ nánne dǽl þýstra, ðonne byþ sekinge reste; and he fyndynge not, seith, I schal turne aȝen in to myn hous, wher of I cam out.

25 And whanne he schal come, he fyndith it clensid with beesmes, and ourned.

26 Thanne he goth, and takith with him seuene othere spiritis werse than him silf, and thei gon yn, dwellen there. And the laste thingis of that man ben maad worse than the formere.

27 Forsoth it was don, whanne he seide thes thingis, sum womman of the cumpany reysinge hir vois, seide, Blessid be the wombe that bar thee, and blessid be the teetis whiche thou hast sokun.

28 And he seide, Rathere blessid ben thei, that heeren Goddis word, and kepen it.

29 Forsothe the cumpanye comynge to gidere, he bigan to seye, This gencracioun is a weyward generacioun; it sekith a tokene, and a tokene schal not be ȝouun to it, no but the tokene of Joonas, the prophete.

30 For whi as Joonas was a tokene to men of Nynyue, so mannis sone schal be to this generacioun.

31 The queene of the south schal ryse in dom with men of this generacioun, and schal condempne hem; for sche cam fro the endis of the erthe, to heere the wysdom of Salomon, and lo! here is more than Salomon.

32 Men of Nynyue schulen ryse in dom with this generacioun, and schulen condempne it; for thei diden penaunce at the prechinge of Joonas, and lo! here is more than Joonas.

33 No man liȝtneth a lanterne, and puttith in hidlis, other vndir a boyschel, but on a candel sticke, that thei that gon yn, se liȝt.

34 The lanterne of thi body is thin yȝe; if thin yȝe schal be symple, al thi body schal be liȝtful; forsoth if it schal be weyward, also thi body schal be derkful.

35 Therfore se thou, lest the liȝt which is in thee, be derknessis.

36 Therfore if al thi body schal be liȝtful, not hauynge ony part of derknessis, lesse places, sekynge reest; and when he fyndeth none, he sayeth, I will returne agayne vnto my housse, whence I cam out.

25 And when he commeth, he fyndeth it swept, and garnisshed.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh seven other spretes with hym worsse then hym silfe, and they enter in, and dwell there. And the ende off that man is worsse then the begynnynge.

27 Hit fortuned, as he thus spake, a certayne woman of the company lyfte vp her voyce, and sade vnto hym, Happy is the wombe that bare the, and the pappes which gave the sucke.

28 Butt he sayde, Happy are they, that heare the worde off God, and kepe it.

29 When the people wer gadered thicke to geder, he began to saye, This is an evyll nacion; they seke a signe, and there shall noo signe be geven them, but the signe off Jonas, the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a signe to the Ninivites, so shall the sonne off man be to this nacion.

31 The quene off the southe shall ryse at the iudgement with the men of this generacion, and condempne them; for she cam from the ende of the worlde, to heare the wisdom of Solomon, and beholde! a greater then Solomon is here.

32 The men off Ninivite shall ryse at the iudgement with this generacion, and shall condempne them; for they repented at the preachynge of Jonas, and beholde! a greater then Jonas is here.

33 Noo man lighteth a candell, and putteth it in a preve place, nether vnder a busshel, butt on a candelsticke, that they that come in, maye se light.

34 The light off thy body is thyne eye; therfore when thyn eye is single, then is all thy body full off light; butt if thyne eye be evyll, then shall all thy body be full off darknes.

35 Take hede therfore, thatt the light whiche is in the, be nott darknes.

36 For if all thy body shalbe light, havynge noo parte darke, then shall all 37 . . . Ðâ bæd hine sum Fariseisc man, ðæt he æ̂te mid him. And he in-eode, and sæt.

38 Ðâ ongan se Fariseisca on him smeagan, and cwe∂an, hwi he ge∂wogen næ̂re æ̂r his gereorde.

39 Ðâ cwæ∂ Drihten to him, Nú ge Farisei ðæt úte is calices and disces geclæ̂nsia∂; ðæt eow innan is, ðæt is full reaflâces and unrihtwisnesse.

40 Lâ dysegan, hú ne worhte ðæt ðæt inne is, se ðe worhte ðæt úte is?

41 Ðeah hwæ̂dere ðæt to lâfe is, sylla∂ ælmessan, ðonne be∂ eow ealle ∂ing clæ̂ne.

43 Wâ eow, Fariseum, ge ðe lufia∂ ða forman heah-setl on gesamnungum, and grê̂tinga on stræ̂tum.

44 Wâ eow, ... forðam ðe ge synd swylce ða byrgena, ðe man innan ne sceawa∂, and ða men nyton ðe him on-ufan gá∂.

45 Ðâ andswarode him sum æ̂-gleaw, Lârcow, teonan ðú wyrest us, mid ðisse sage.

46 Ðâ cwæ∂ he, Wâ eow æ̂-gleawum, forðam ðe ge sŷma∂ men mid ðam byrðenum ðe hig âberan ne mágon, and ge ne âhrînia∂ ða scamas mid eowrum ânum fingre.

47 Wâ eow, ge ðe timbria∂ wîtegena byrgena; eower fæderas hig ofslógon.

48 Eallunga ge cŷða∂, and ge ∂afia∂ eower fædera weorcum; forðam hig ofslógon hig, and ge timbria∂ hira byrgena.

49 Forðam cwæ∂ Godes wîsdóm, Ic sende to him witegan, and apostolas, and hig ofslea∂ hig and ehta∂, it schal be al liȝtful, and as a lanterne of briȝtnesse it schal ȝyue liȝt to thee.

37 And whanne he spak, sum Pharisee praiede, that he schulde ete at hym. And he gon yn, saat to the mete.

38 Sothli the Pharisee bigan to seie, gessynge with ynne him silf, whi he was not waischun byfore the mete.

39 And the Lord seith to him, Now ȝe Farisees clensen that thing that is with outenforth of the kuppe and plater; but that thing of ȝou that is with ynne, is ful of raueyn and wickidnesse.

40 Foolis, wher he that made that thing that is with oute forth, made not also that thing that is with ynne?

41 Netheles that thing that is ouer,† ȝyue ȝe almes, and lo! alle thingis ben clene to ȝou.

42 But woo to ȝou, Pharisees, that tythen mynte, and ruwe, and al wort,† and passen dom and the charite of God. Forsoth it bihofte to do thes thingis, and not for to leeue hem.

43 Woo to ȝou, Pharisees, that louen the firste chaieris in synagogis, and salutaciouns in cheping.

44 Woo to ȝou, ... that ben as sepulcris, whiche apperyn not, and men walkynge aboue witen not.

45 Forsoth oon of the wyse men of lawe answeringe, seide to him, Maistir, thou seyinge thes thingis, doist dispit also to vs.

46 He seide, And woo to ȝou, wyse men of lawe, for ȝe chargen men with birthins whiche thei moun not bere, and ȝe ȝou silf with ȝoure o fynger touchen not the heuynessis.

47 Woo to ȝou, that bilden birielis of prophetis; forsoth ȝoure fadris slowen hem.

48 Treuly ȝe witnessen, that ȝe consenten to the werkis of ȝoure fadris; for sothli thei slowen hem, but ȝe bilden her sepulcris.

49 Therfore and the wysdom of God seide, I schal sende to hem prophetis, and apostlis, and of hem thei schulen slee and pursue, be full off light, even as when a candell doeth light the with his brightnes.

37 And as he spake, a certayne Pharise besought hym to dyne with hym. And Jesus went in, and sate doune to meate.

38 When the Pharise sawe that, he marveylled, that he had nott wessched before dynner.

39 And the Lorde sayde to hym, Nowe do ye O Pharises make clene the outsyde of the cuppe and of the platter; but youre inwarde parties are full of raveninge and wickednes.

40 Ye foles, did not he that made that which is with out, make that which is within alsoo?

41 Neverthelesse ye geve of that that ye have, and beholde! all is clene to you.

42 But wo be to you, Pharises, for ye tythe the mynt, and rewe, and all manner erbes, and passe over iudgment and the love of God. These ought ye to have done, and nott to have left the other ondone.

43 Wo be to you, Pharises, for ye love the vppermost seates in the sinagoges, and gretynges in the markettes.

44 Wo be to you, scribes and Pharises, ypocrites, for ye are as graves, which apere not, and men that walke over them are nott ware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawears, and sayd vnto hym, Master, thus sayinge, thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

46 Then he sayde, Wo be to you also, ye laweras, for ye lade men with burthens greveous to be borne, and ye youre selves touche nott the packes with one of youre fingers.

47 Wo be to you, that bilde the sepulcres off the prophetes; for youre fathers kiled them.

48 Truely ye beare witnes, that ye alowe the dedes of youre fathers; for they killed them, and ye bilde their sepulcres.

49 Therfore sayde the wisdom off God, I will send them prophetes, and apostles, and off them they shall slee and persecute,

50 That the blood of alle prophetis, that was sched out fro the makyng of the world, be sou3t of this generacioun ;

Chap. XII. 1 Sotheli manye cumpanyes stondinge aboute, so that thei troden ech othir, he bigan to seie to his disciplis, Be 3e war of the sourdow3 of Pharisees, which is ypocrisye.

3 Wherfore whatsoever ye have spoken in darknes, that same shalbe hearde in light ; and that which ye have spoken in the eare even in secret places, shalbe preached even on the toppe of the housses.

4 I saye vnto you, my frendes, feare ye not them that kyll the body, and after that have nothynge that he can moare do.

Chap. XIII. 1 Forsothe sum men neiȝeden in that tyme, tellinge to him of Galilees, whos blood Pilat myngede with the sacrificis of hem.

2 And he answeringe seide to hem, Wenen ȝe, that thes men of Galilee weren synneris byfore alle Galileis, for thei suffriden suche thingis?

3 Nay, I seye to ȝou; but alle ȝe schulen perische in lyk manere, no but ȝe schulen haue penaunce.

4 And as tho ten and eiȝte, on which the tour of Siloa felde doun, and slouȝ hem, gessen ȝe, for and thei weren dettours more than alle men dwellinge in Jerusalem?

5 Nay, I sei to ȝou; but also ȝe alle schulen perische, if ȝe schulen not do penaunce.

6 Forsothe he seide this lyknesse. Sum man hadde a fyge tree plauntid in his vyner, and he cam sekynge fruyt in it, and fond not.

7 Sothli he seide to the tilier of the vyner, Loo! thre ȝeeris ben, sithen I come sekinge fruyt in this fyge tree, and I fond not; therfore kitt it doun, wherto occupieth it, ȝhe, the erthe?

8 And he answeringe seide to him, Lord, suffre also this ȝeer, til the while I delue aboute it, and sende toordis;

9 And if it schal make fruyt, ellis in tyme to comynge thou schalt kitte it doun.

10 Forsothe he was techinge in the synagoge of hem in sabotis.

11 And loo! a womman that hadde a spirit of sykenesse ten and eiȝte ȝeeris, and was bowid doun, nether in ony manere myȝte looke vpward.

12 Whom whanne Jhesu hadde seyn, he clepide to hym, and seide to hir, Womman, thou ert left of thi sykenesse.

thence, tyll thou have made goode the vtmose farthynge.

Chap. XIII. 1 There were present at the same season, that shewed hym of the Galileans, whose bloude Pilate mengled with their awne sacrifice.

2 And Jesus answered and sayde vnto them, Suppose ye, that these Galileans were greater synners then all other Galileans, be cause they suffred suche punysshment?

3 I tell you, naye; but except ye repent, ye shall all in lyke wyse perysshe.

4 Or thynke ye, that those xviij. apon whom the toure in Siloe fell, and slewe them, were synners above all men that dwell in Jherusalem?

5 I tell you, naye; butt excepte ye repent, ye all shall lyke wyse perisshe.

6 He put forthe this similitude. A certayne man had a fygge tree in his vyneyarde, and he cam and sought frute theron, and founde none.

7 Then sayde he to the dresser of his vyneyarde, Beholde! this thre yeare, have I come and sought frute in this fygge tree, and fynde none; cut it doune, why combreth hit the grounde?

8 And he answered and sayde vnto him, Lorde, lett it alone this yeare also, till I digge rounde aboute it, and donge it;

9 To se whether it will beare frute, yt not then after that cut hym doune.

10 He taught in won of their sinagogges on the saboth dayes.

11 And beholde! there was a woman which had a sprete off infirmitie .xviij. yeares, and was bowed to gether, and coulde nott well lifte vp her silfe.

12 When Jesus sawe her, he called her to hym, and sayde to her, Woman, thou arte delivered from thy disease.

13 And his hand hyre on sette, đá wæs heo sóna up-árærèd, and heo God wuldrode.

14 Sothli the prince of synagoge answeringe, hauynge dedeyn for Jhesu hadde heelid in the saboth, seide to the cumpany, Sixe dayes ben, in whiche it bihoueth to wirche; therfore come in thes, and be ȝe heelid, and not in the dayes of saboth.

15 Forsothe the Lord answeringe to him seide, Ypocrite, wher ech of ȝou vntyeth not in the saboth his oxe, ethir asse, fro the stable, and ledith for to watre?

16 Bihofte it not this douȝtre of Abraham, whom Sathanas hath bounden, loo! ten and eiȝte ȝeeris, to be vnbounden of this bond in the day of saboth?

17 And whanne he seide thes thingis, alle his aduersaries weren aschamyd. And al the peple ioyede in al thingis, that weren don gloriously of him.

18 Therfore he seide, To what thing is the rewme of God lyk? and to what thing schal I gesse it to be lyk?

19 It is lyk to a corn of seneuey, which takun, a man sente in to his ȝerd; and it wax, and was maad in to a greet tree, and fowelis of the eyr restiden in the braunchis therof.

20 And eftsone he sayd, To what thing schal I gesse the kyngdom of God lyk?

21 It is lyk to sourdowȝ, which takun, a womman hidith in thre mesuris of mele, til al were sourdowid.

22 And he wente by citees and castels, techinge and makinge iurney in to Jerusalem.

23 Sothli sum man seide to him, Lord, if there ben fewe, that ben sauyd? Sothli he seide to hem, 24 Stryue ȝe for to entre by the streit ȝate; for I seye to ȝou, many men seken for to entre, and thei schulen not mowe.

25 Forsothe whanne the hosebonde man hath entrid, and closid the dore, ȝe schulen bigynne to stonde with oute forth, and knocke the dore, seyinge, 13 And he layde his hondes on her, and immediatly she was made strayght, and glorified God.

14 The ruler off the sinagoge answered, with indignacion be cause that Jesus had healed on the saboth daye, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in the weke, in which men ought to worke; in them come, and be healed, and nott on the saboth daye.

15 Then answered hym the Lorde and sayd, Ypocryte, doth not eache one of you on the saboth daye loose his oxe, or his asse, from the stall, and leade hym to the water?

16 And shulde not this doughter of Abraham be loosed from this bonde on the saboth daye, whom Sathan hath bounde, loo! xviij. yeares?

17 And when he thus sayde, all his adversaris were ashamed. And all the people reioysed on all the excellent dedes, that were done by hym.

18 Then sayde he, What is the kyngdom of God lyke? or where to shall I compare it?

19 It is lyke a grayne of mustard seede, which a man toke, and sowed in his garden; and it grewe, and wexed a greate tree, and the foules off the ayer bilt in the braunches of it.

20 And agayne he sayde, Where vnto shall I lyken the kyngdom of God?

21 It is lyke leven, which a woman toke, and hidde in thre busshels of floure, till all was thorow levended.

22 And he went thorowe cities and tounes, teachynge and toke his iorney towardes Jerusalem.

23 Then sayde won vnto hym, Lorde, are there feawe, that shalbe saved? And he sayde vnto them,

24 Stryve with youreselves to enter in at the strayte gate; for many, I saye vnto you, will seke to enter in, and shall nott be able.

25 When the good man of the housse is risen vp, and hathe shett fast the dore, and ye begyn to stonde with out, and to knocke at the dore, saynge, Lorde,

31 The same daye there cam certaine of the Pharises, and sayd vnto him, Gett the out of the waye, and departe hence, for Herode will kyll the.

32 And he sayd vnto them, Goo ye, and tell that foxe, Beholde! I cast oute devils, and heale the people, to daye and to morowe, and the thyrd daye I make an ende.

33 Neverthelesse I must walke, to daye, and to morowe, and the daye folowinge; for it cannott be that a prophet perisshe eny other where save att Jerusalem.

34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest prophetes, and stonest them that are sent to the, howe often wolde I have gadered thy children to gedder, as the hen her nest vnder her wynges, and thou woldest nott.

35 Beholde! youre habitacion shalbe left vnto you desolate. For I tell you, ye shall not se me, vntill the time come, that ye shall saye, Blessed ys he, that commeth in the name off the Lorde.

Chap. XIV. 1 And it chaunsed, that he went into the housse of won off the chefe Pharises to eate breed, on a saboth daye, and they watched hym.

10 But rather when thou arte bidden, goo, and sit in the lowest roume, that when he that bade the commeth, he maye saye vnto the, Frende, sitt vp hyer. Then shalt thou have preyase in the presence of them that sitt at meate with the.

13 Butt when thou makest a feast, call the povre, the maymed, the lame, and the blinde,

4 I woot what I schal do, that whanne I schal be remouyd fro the ferme, thei receyue me in to her housis.

5 And alle the dettours of the lord clepid to gidere, he seide to the firste, Hou moche owist thou to my lord?

7 Aftirward he seyde to another, Sothli hou moche owist thou? Which seide, An hundrid mesuris of whete. And he seide to him, Tak thi lettris, and wryt foure score.

8 And the lord preiside the fermour of wickidnesse, for he hadde don prudently; for the sones of this world ben more prudent in her generacioun than the sones of li3t.

4 I woote what to do, that when I am put out of my stewardshippe, they maye receave me in to there houses.

22 And he seide to his disciplis, Dayes schulen come, whanne 3e schulen desyre to se o day of mannis sone, and 3e schulen not se.

23 And thei schulen seye to 3ou, Lo! here, and lo! there. Nyle 3e go, nether sue 3e;

24 For as leit schynynge fro vndir heuene schyneth on thoo thingis that ben vndir heuene, so mannis sone schal be in his day.

25 Forsothe first it bihoueth him to suffre many thingis, and to be reproued of this generacioun.

26 And as it was don in the dayes of Noe, so it schal be in the dayes of mannis sone.

27 Thei eeten and drunken, and weddiden wyues, and weren 3ouun to weddingis, til in to the day in which Noe entride in to his schip; and the greet flood cam, and loste alle.

28 Also as it was don in the dayes of Loth, thei eeten and drunken, bou3ten and seelden, plantiden and byldeden;

29 Sothli in what day Loth wente out of Sodom, the Lord reynede fier and brymstoon fro heuene, and loste alle.

21 Nether shall men saye, Loo! here, loo! there; for beholde! the kyngdom of God is within you.

22 And he sayde vnto hys disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to se won daye of the sonne of man, and ye shall not se it.

23 And they shall saye to you, Se! here, se! there. Goo nott after them, nor folowe them;

24 For as the lightenynge that apereth out of the one parte of the heven and shyneth vnto the other parte of heven, soo shall the sonne of man be in his dayes.

25 But fyrst must he suffre many thinges, and be reproved of this nacion.

26 As it happened in the tyme of Noe, soo shall it be in the tyme of the sonne of man.

27 They ate they dranke, they maryed wyves, and were maryed, even vnto that same daye that Noe went into the arke; and the floud cam, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it chaunsed in the dayes of Lot, they ate, thei dranke, thei bought, thei solde, thei planted, they bilte;

29 And even the same daye that Lot went out of Zodom, hit rayned fyre and brymstone from heven, and destroyed them all.

30 After these ensamples shall the daye be, when the sonne of man shall apere.

31 Att that daye he that is on the housse toppe, and his stuffe in the housse, lett hym nott come doune to take hit out; and lyke wyse lett not him that is in the feldes, turne backe agayne to that he lefte behynde hym.

37 And they answered and sayde to him, Wheare, Lorde ? And he said vnto them, Whersoever the body shalbe, thidther will the egles resoorte.

Chap. XVIII. 1 He put forth a similitude vnto them, signifyinge that men ought alwayes to praye, and not to be wery ;

2 Sayinge, There was a iudge in a certaine cite, which feared not God, nether regarded man.

3 And there was a certayne widdowe in the same cite, whych cam vnto hym, sayinge, Avenge me of myne adversary ;

4 And a greate whyle he wolde noott. Afterwarde he sayd vnto hymsilfe, Though I feare nott God, nor care for man,

5 Yett because this widdowe troubleth me, I woll a venge her ; lest at the last she come and rayle on me.

6 And the Lorde sayd, Heare what the vnrightewes iudge sayeth ;

7 And shall not God avenge his electe, which crye nyght and daye vnto him ? ye, though he differre them,

8 I tell you, he will avenge them, and that quicly. Neverthelesse when the sonne of man commeth, suppose ye, that he shall fynde faithe on erthe ?

9 And he put forthe this similitude vnto certaine, which trusted in them selves, that they wer perfect, and despysed other.

10 Two men went vp into the temple to praye ; the one a Pharise, and the other a publican.

15 They brought vnto him also babes, that he shulde touche them ; when his diseiples sawe that, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them vnto him, and sayde, Suffre children to come vnto me, and forbidde them not, for vnto souche belongeth the kingdom of God.
17 Verely I saye vnto you, whosoever receaveth not the kyngdom of God as a chylde, he shall not enter there in.
18 And a certayne ruler axed him, sayinge, Goode master, what ought I to do to obtaine eternall lyfe?
19 Jesus sayd vnto hym, Why callest thou me goode? No man is goode, save God only.
20 Thou knowest the commaundmentes, Thou shalt nott commit advoutry, Thou shalt nott kill, Thou shalt nott steale, Thou shalt not beare falce witnes, Honoure thy father and thy mother.

13 Then sayde the lorde off the vyneyarde, What shall I do? I wyll sende my deare sonne; hym per adventure they wyll reverence, when they se hym.

14 When the fermers sawe hym, they thought in them selves, sayinge, This is the heyre, come, lett vs kyll hym, that the enherytaunce maye be oures, 16 I will therfore chasten hym, and lett hym loosse.

17 For off necessite he must have lett one loosse vnto them at that feast.

18 And all the people cryed at once, saynge, Awaye with him, and delivre to vs Barrabas;

19 Which for insurreccion made in the cite, and morther, was cast into preson.

20 Pilate spake agayne to them, willynge to lett Jesus losse.

21 And they cryed, sayinge, Crucify hym, crucify hym.

22 He sayde vnto them the thyrde tyme, What harme hath he done? I fynde noo cause off deeth in hym; I will therfore chasten hym, and lett hym goo losse.

23 And they cryed with loude voyce, and requyred that he myght be crucifyed; and the cryinge off the hye prestes prevayled.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it shulde be as they requyred.

25 And lett losse vnto them hym, that for insurreccion and morther was cast into preson, whom they desyred; and delyvered Jesus to do with hym what they wolde.

26 And as they ledde hym awaye, they caught won, Simon of Sirene, commynge out of the felde, and on hym layde they the crosse to beare it after Jesus.

27 There folowed hym a greate company of people, and of wemen, which wemen bewayled, and lamented hym.

28 Sothli Jhesu turnyd to hem seide, Dou3tris of Jerusalem, nyle 3e wepe on me, but wepe 3e on 3ou silf, and on 3oure sones.

29 For lo! dayes schulen come, in whiche it schal be seid, Blessid be bareyn wymmen, and wombis that han not gendrid, and the teetis whiche han not 3ouun souke.

30 Thanne thei schulen bigynne to seye to monteyns, Falle 3e doun on vs, and to litle hillis, Hile 3e vs.

31 For if thei don thes thingis in a grene tree, what schal be don in a drye?

32 Sothli and othere tweye wickide men weren led with him, that thei schulde be slayn.

33 And aftir that thei camen in to a place, which is clepid of Caluarie, there thei crucifieden him, and the theues, oon on the ri3thalf, and the tother on the left half.

34 Forsothe Jhesu seide, Fadir, for3yue to hem, for thei witen not what thei don. Forsothe thei departinge his clothis, senten lottis.

35 And the peple stood abydinge; and the princes scornyden him with hem, seyinge, Othere men he made saf; make he him silf saf, if he is Crist, the chosun of God.

36 Forsoth and kny3tis nei3ynge scornyden him, and offriden vynegre to him,

41 And treuly we iustly, for we han receyued worthi thingis to dedis; sothli this hath don no yuel.

28 Jesus turned backe vnto them and sayde, Doughters of Jerusalem, wepe not for me, but wepe for youre selves, and for youre children.

29 For marke! the dayes will come, when men shall saye, Happy are the baren, and the wombes that never bare, and the pappes which never gave sucke.

30 Then shall they begyn to saye to the mountaynes, Fall on vs, and to the hilles, Cover vs.

31 For yf they do this to a grene tree, what shalbe done to the drye?

32 There were two evyll doers ledde with hym to be slayne.

33 And when they wer come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucifyed hym, and the evyll doars, one on the right honde, and the other on the lefte honde.

34 Then sayde Jesus, Father, forgeve them, for they woot not what they do. And they parted his rayment, and cast loottes.

35 And the people stode and behelde; and the rulers mocked hym with them, saying, He holpe other men; lett hym helpe hym silfe, yf he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 The soudiers alsoo mocked hym, and cam and gave hym veneger, 37 And sayde, Yf thou be that kynge off the Iewes, save thy silfe.

38 His superscripcion was written over him in Greke, Latin, and Ebrue letters, This is the kynge off the Iewes.

39 The one off the malefactours which hanged, rayled on hym, sayinge, Yf thou be Christ, save thy silfe and vs.

40 The other answered, and rebuked hym, sayinge, Nether fearest thou God, because thou arte in the same damnacion?

41 We are righteously punnesshed, for we receave accordynge to oure dedes; butt this man hath done noo thynge amysse.

44 And it was about the sixt houre, and there cam a darcknes over all the londe vntyll the nynth houre.

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these thinges, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at Moses and at all the prophetes, and interpreted vnto them in all scriptures, which were written of him.

28 And they drue neye vnto the toune, which they went to. And he made as though he wolde have gone further.

29 And [they] constrayned hym, sayinge, Abyde with vs, for it draweth tawardes nyght, and the daye is farre passed. And he went in to tary with them.

30 And it cam to passe, as he sate att

36 As they thus spake, Jesus hym silfe stode in the myddes of them, and sayde vnto them, Peace be with you. . . . .

37 And they were abasshed and afrayde, supposinge that they had sene a sprete.

38 And he sayde vnto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughtes aryse in youre hertes?

39 Beholde my hondes and my fete, for it ys even I my sylfe. Handle me, and se; for spretes have nott flesshe, and bones, as ye se me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hondes and his fete.

41 And whyll they yett beleved nott for ioye, and wondred, he sayde vnto them, Have ye here eny meate?

42 And they gave hym a pece of a brouled fisshe, and of an hony combe.

43 And he toke it, and ate it before them. . . . .

44 And he sayde vnto them, These are the wordes which I spake vnto you, whill I was yett with you; that all must be fulfilled, which were written of me in the lawe of Moses, and in the prophetes, and in the psalmes.

45 Then openned he their wyttes, that they myght vnderstond the scriptures.

20 And he knowelechide, and denyede not, and he knowlechide, For I am not Crist.

17 For the lawe was geven by Moses; but favour and verite cam by Jesus Christ.

18 No man sawe God at eny tyme, the only begotten sonne, which is in the fathers bosum, hath declared hym.

19 And this is the recorde off Jhon, when the Iewes sent prestes and levites from Jerusalem, to axe hym, What arte thou?

20 And he confessed, and denyed nott, and sayde playnly, I am nott Christ.

21 And they axed hym, What then? arte thou Helias? And he sayde, I am nott. Arte thou a prophet? And he answered, Noo.

22 Then sayd they vnto hym, What arte thou? that we maye geve an answer to them that sent vs. What sayest thou of thy silfe?

23 He sayde, I am the voyce of a cryar in the wildernes, Make strayght the waye of the Lorde, as sayde the prophet, Esayas.

24 And they which were sent, wer off the Pharises.

25 And they axed hym, and sayde vnto him, Why baptisest thou then, yf thou be nott Christ, nor Helias, nether a prophet?

26 Jhon answered them, sayinge, I baptise with water, butt one is come amonge you, whom ye knowe nott;

12 After thatt descended he in to Capernaum, and hys mother, and hys brethren, and his disciples; but continued not longe there.

13 And the Iewes ester was even at honde, and Jesus went vp to Jerusalem.

14 And founde in the temple those that solde oxen, and shepe, and doves, and chaungers of money syttynge.

15 And he made a scourge off smale cordes, and drave them all out off the temple, bothe shepe, and oxen; and powred doune the changers money, and overthrue their tables.

20 Therfore the Jewis seyden to him, In fourty and sixe ȝeeris this temple is byldid, and thou in thre dayes schalt reyse it?

21 Forsothe he seide of the temple of his body.

22 Therfore whanne he hadde rysun fro deed men, his disciplis hadden mynde, for he seyde this thing; and thei bileueden to the scripture, and to the word that Jhesu seide.

20 Then sayde the Iewes, In xlvj. yeares this temple was bilt, and wylt thou rayse it vppe in thre dayes?

21 Butt he spake of the temple off hys boddy.

22 As sone therfore as he was rysen from deeth agayne, his disciples remembred, that he thus sayde vnto them; and they beleved the scripture, and the wordes whych Jesus had sayde.

23 When he was at Jerusalem at ester, in the feaste, many beleved on his name, when they sawe the signes which he did.

24 But Jesus put nott hym silfe in their hondes, be cause he knewe all men;

Chap. III. 1 Forsothe ther was a man of Pharisees, Nicodeme bi name, a prince of Jewis.

4 Nycodeme seide to him, How may a man be born, whanne he is olde? wher he may entre aȝen in to his modris wombe, and be born aȝein?

Chap. III. 1 There was a man off the Pharises, named Nicodemus, a ruler amonge the Iewes.

2 He cam to Jesus be nyght, and sayde vnto him, Master, we knowe, that thou arte a teacher whyche arte come from God; for no man coulde do suche miracles as thou doest, except God were wyth hym.

3 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto hym, Verely, verely, I saye vnto the, except that a man be boren a newe, he cannot se the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus sayde vnto hym, Howe can a man be boren, when he is olde? can he enter into hys moders body, and be boren agayne?

16 Forsothe God so louede the world, that he ȝaf his oon bigetun sone, that ech man that bileueth in to him perische not, but haue euere lasting lyf.

17 Sothli God sente not his sone in to the world, that he iuge the world, but that the world be sauyd by hym.

18 He that bileueth in to him, is not demyd;† forsothe he that bileueth not, is now demed, for he bileueth not in the name of the oon bigetun sone of God.

19 Sothli this is the dom, for liȝt cam in to the world, and men louede more derknessis than liȝt; forsoth her workis weren yuele.

20 Sothli ech man that doth yuele, is flesshe; and that which is boren of the sprete, is sprete.

7 Marvayle nott, that I sayd to the, Ye must be boren a newe.

8 The wynde bloweth where he listeth, and thou hearest his sounde, butt thou canst nott tell, whence he commeth, and whether he goeth; so is every man that is boren of the sprete.

9 Nicodemus answered, and sayde vnto him, Howe can these thynges be?

11 Verely, verely, I saye vnto the, we speake that we knowe, and testify that we have sene, and ye receave not oure witnes.

12 Yff I have tolde you erthely thynges, and ye have not beleved, howe shulde ye beleve, if I shall tell you of hevenly thynges?

13 And noo man hath ascended vppe to heven, butt he that cam doune from heven, that ys to saye the sonne of man which is in heven.

14 And as Moses lifte vppe the serpent in wyldernes, even soo must the sonne off man be lifte vppe, 15 That noo man which beleveth in hym perisshe, but have eternall lyfe.

16 God soo loved the worlde, that he gave his only sonne, for the entent that none that beleve in hym shulde perisshe, butt shulde have everlastynge lyfe.

17 For God sent not his sonne into the worlde, to condempne the worlde, but that the worlde through him myght be saved.

18 He that beleveth on hym, shall not be condempned; but he that beleveth nott, is condempned all redy, be cause he beleveth nott in the name off the only sonne off God.

19 And this is the condempnacion, light is come into the worlde, and the men have loved darcknes more then light; be cause their dedes were evyll.

17 The woman answered, and sayde vnto hym, I have no husband. Jesus sayde to her, Thou hast well sayd, I have no husbande;

18 For thou haste had five husbandes, and he whom thou nowe hast, is not thy housband. That saydest thou truely.

19 The woman sayde vnto hym, Syr, I perceave, that thou arte a prophet.

20 Oure fathers worshipped in this mountayne, and ye saye, thatt in Jerusalem is the place, where men ought to praye.

21 Jesus sayde vnto her, Woman, trust me, the houre cometh, when ye shall nether in this mountayne, nor yet att Jerusalem, worshippe the father.

22 Ye worshippe ye wot neare what; we knowe what we worshippe; for salvacion commeth of the Iewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and nowe is, when the true worshippers shall worshippe the father in sprete and in verite; for verily suche the father requyreth, to worshippe hym.

24 God is a sprete, and they that worshippe hym, must honoure hym in sprete and verite.

25 The woman sayde vnto hym, I wot well Messias shall come, which is called Christ; when he is once come, he will tell vs all thynges.

29 Come, se a man, whiche tolde me all thynges thatt ever I dyd; is not he Christ?

30 Then they went out off the cite, and cam vnto hym.

31 In the meane whyle his disciples prayed hym, saynge, Master, eate.

32 He sayde vnto them, I have meate to eate, that ye knowe nott off.

37 And here in ys the sayinge true, that won soweth, and another repeth.

38 I sent you to repe, that wheron ye bestowed no laboure; other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 Many off the Samaritans off the cite beleved on hym, for the womans sayinge whych testifyed, He tolde me all thynges, that ever I did.

40 Then when the Samaritans were come vnto hym, they besought hym, that he wolde tary wyth them; and he aboode there two dayes.

15 The ilke man wente, and telde to the Jewis, for it was Jhesu that maad him hool.
16 Therfore the Jewis pursueden Jhesu, ... for he dide this thing in the saboth.

17 Forsoth Jhesu answeride to hem, My fadir worchith til now, and I worche.

18 Therfore thanne the Jewis souȝten more for to slee hym, for not oonly he brak the saboth, but and he seide his fadir God, makinge him euene to God.
19 And so Jhesu answeride, and seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, I seie to ȝou, the sone may not of him silf do ony thing, no but that thing that he schal se the fadir doynge; what euere thingis sothli he doith, thes thingis and the sone also doith.
20 Forsothe the fadir loueth the sone, and schewith to him alle thingis that he doith; and he schal schewe to him more workis than thes, that ȝe wondre.

21 Forsothe as the fadir reysith deede men, and quykeneth, so and the sone quykeneth whiche he wole.

22 Sothli neither the fader iugeth ony man, but hath ȝouun al the dom to the sone,
23 That alle men honoure the sone, as thei honouren the fadir. He that honoureth not the sone, honoureth not the fadir that sente him.

24 Treuli, treuli, I seye to ȝou, for he that heerith my word, and bileueth to him that sente me, hath euere lasting lyf, and cometh not in to dom, but passith fro deeth in to lyf.
25 Treuli, treuli, I seye to ȝou, for the our cometh, and now it is, whanne deede men schulen heere the vois of Goddis sone, and thei that schulen heere, schulen lyue.
26 Sothli as the fader hath lyf in him silf, so he ȝaf and to the sone for to haue lyf in him silf;

15 The man departed, and tolde the Iewes, that yt was Jesus the whyche had made hym whole.
16 And therfore the Iewes did persecute Jesus, and sought the meanes to slee hym, be cause he had done these thynges on the saboth daye.
17 Jesus answered them, My father worketh hidderto, and I worke.

18 Therfore the Iewes sought the moore to kill hym, not only be cause he had broken the saboth, but sayde alsoo that God was his father, and made hym silfe equall with God.
19 Then answered Jesus, and sayde vnto them, Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, the sonne can do noo thynge of hym silfe, but that he seyth the father do; for whatsoever he doeth, that doeth the sonne also.

20 For the father loveth the sonne, and sheweth hym all thynges whatsoever he him silfe doeth; and he will shewe hym gretter thynges then these, be cause ye shoulde marvayle.
21 For lykwyse as the father rayseth vppe the deed, and quyckeneth them, even soo the sonne quyckeneth whom he woll.
22 Nether iudgeth the father eny man, but hath committed all iudgment vnto the sonne,
23 Be cause that all men shulde honoure the sonne, even as they honoure the father. He that honoureth nott the sonne, the same honoureth not the father which hath sent hym.
24 Vyrely, verely, I saye vnto you, he that heareth my wordes, and beleveth on hym that sent me, hathe everlastynge lyfe, and shall not come in to damnacion, but is scaped from deth vnto lyfe.
25 Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, the tyme shall come, and nowe ys, when the deed shall heare the voyce off the sonne of God, and they that heare, shall live.

26 For as the father hath life in hym silfe, soo lyke wyse hath he geven to the sonne to have lyfe in hym silfe;

37 And the fadir that sente me, he bar witnessing of me. Nethir ȝe herden euere his vois, nethir sayȝen his licnesse.†

30 I can of myne awne silfe do noo thynge at all, as I heare, I iudge, and my iudgment ys iust, be cause I seke nott myne awne wyll, butt the will off the father which hath sent me.

31 Yf I beare witnes off my silfe, my witnes ys nott true;

28 Then sayde they vnto hym, What shall we do, that we myght worke the workes of God?

29 Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, This is the worke of God, that ye beleve on him, whom he hath sent.

36 But I seide to ȝou, for and ȝe han seyn me, and ȝe bileueden not.
37 Al thing, that the fadir ȝyueth to me, schal come to me; and I schal not caste out him, that cometh to me.
38 For I cam doun fro heuene, not that I do my wille, but the wille of him that sente me.
39 Forsothe this is the wille of him that sente me, the fadris, that al thing that the fadir ȝaf to me, I leese not of it, but aȝen reise it in the laste day.

40 Sothly this is the wille of my fadir that sente me, that ech man that seeth the sone, and bileueth in to him, haue euerlasting lyf; and I schal aȝen reyse him in the laste day.
41 Therfore Jewis grucchiden of him, for he hadde seyd, I am breed that cam doun fro heuene.
42 And thei seiden, Wher this is not Jhesu, the sone of Joseph, whos fadir and modir we han knowun? Therfore hou seith this, I cam doun fro heuene?

43 Therfore Jhesu answeride, and seide to hem, Nyle ȝe grucche to gidere.

44 No man may come to me, no but the fadir that sente me, schal drawe him; and I schal aȝen reyse him in the laste day.
45 It is writun in prophetis, And alle men schulen ben able to be tauȝt of God. Ech man that herde of the fadir, and lernede, cometh to me.
46 Not for ony man syȝ the fadir, no but this that is of God, this syȝ the fadir.

51 I am quyk breed, that cam doun fro heuene. If ony man schal ete of this bred, he schal lyue with outen ende.

36 Butt I saye vnto you, that ye have sene me, and yett beleve ye not.
37 All, that my father geveth me, commeth to me; and hym that commeth to me, cast I not out at the dores.
38 For I cam doune from heven, nott to do myne awne will, butt his will whiche hathe sent me.
39 And this is my fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath geven me, I shulde loose noo thynge, but shulde rayse it vp agayne at the last daye.
40 And this is the wyll off hym that sent me, that every man whych seith the sonne, and beleveth on hym, have everlastynge lyfe; and I wyll rayse hym vp att the last daye.
41 The Iewes murmured att itt, because he sayde, I am thatt breed which is come doune from heven.
42 And they sayde, Is nott this Jesus, the sonne of Joseph, whose father and mother we knowe? Howe ys yt then thatt he sayeth, I cam doune from heven?
43 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Murmur not betwene youre selves.

44 No man can come to me, except my father which hath sent me, drawe hym; and Y will rayse hym vp at the last daye.
45 Hit is written in the prophetes, And they shall all be taught of God. Every man which hath herde, and learned of the father, commeth vnto me.
46 Not that eny man hath sene the father, save he which is off God, the same hath sene the father.
47 Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, he that beleveth on me, hath everlastynge lyfe.

53 Jesus sayde vnto them, Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, except ye eate the flesshe off the sonne of man, and drynke his bloude, ye shall not have lyfe in you.

54 Whosoever eateth my flesshe, and drynketh my bloudde, the same hath eternall lyfe, and I will rayse hym vp at the last daye.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and yett one off you is the devyll?

71 He spake it off Judas Iscariot, the sonne of Simon, for he itt was that shulde betraye hym, and was one of the twelve.

Chap. VII. 1 After that Jesus went about in Galile, and wolde not goo about in Iewry, for the Iewes soughtt to kyll hym.

3 His brethren therfore sayde vnto hym, Gett thy silfe hence, and goo into Iewry, that thy disciples maye se thy workes that thou doest;

4 There is no man that doeth eny thynge secretly, and he hym silfe seketh to be knowen. Yf thou do soche thynges, shewe thy silfe to the worlde.

5 For as yet his brethren beleved not in hym.

17 If ony man schal wilne to do his wille, he schal knowe of the techinge, wher it be of God, wher I speke of my silf.

18 He that spekith of himself, sekith his owne glorie; forsoth he that sekith the glorie of him that sente him, this is sothfast, and vnriȝtfulnesse is not in him.

14 In the myddes of the feast, Jesus went vppe into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Iewes marveylled, saiynge, Howe knoweth he the scriptures, seynge that he never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and sayde, My doctrine is nott myne, butt hys thatt sent me.

17 Yff eny man wyll do hys will, he shall knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I spake of my silfe.

18 He that speaketh of him silfe, seketh his awne prayse; butt whosoever seketh his prayse that sent him, he ys true, and no vnrightewesnes is in hym.

19 Did not Moses geve you a lawe, and yet none off you kepeth the lawe? Why goo ye a boute to kill me?

20 The people answered, and sayde, Thou hast the devyll; who goeth aboute to kill the?

17 And in 3oure lawe it is writun, for the witnessing of twei men is trewe.

19 Then sayde they vnto hym, Where is thy father? Jesus answered, Ye nether knowe me, nor yet my father; yff ye had knowen me, ye shulde have knowen my father alsoo.
20 These wordes spake Jesus in the tresury, as he taught in the temple; and no man layde hondes on hym, for hys tyme was nott yett come.
21 Then sayde Jesus agayne vnto them, I goo my waye, and ye shall seke me, and shall deye in youre synnes; whither I goo, thither can ye not come.
22 Then spake the Iewes, Wyll he kyll him sylfe, be cause he sayth, Whither I goo, thither can ye not come?
23 And he sayde vnto them, Ye are from beneth, I am from above; ye are of this worlde, I am nott off thys worlde.
24 I sayde therfore vnto you, That ye shall deye in youre synnes; for except ye beleve that I am he, ye shall deye in youre synnes.
25 Then sayde they vnto hym, Who arte thou? And Jesus sayde vnto them, Even the very same thynge, that I saye vnto you.
26 I have many thynges to saye, and to iudge of you, but he that sent me is true; and I speake in the worlde those thynges, whych I have herde of hym.
27 They vnderstode not, that he spake of his father.
28 Then sayde Jesus vnto them, When ye have lift vppe an hye the sonne off man, then shall ye knowe, that I am he, and thatt I do nothynge off my silfe; butt as my father hath taught me, even soo I speake.
29 And he that sent me ys with me, my father hath nott lefte me alone; for I do alwayes those thynges, that please him.

47 He that is of God, heerith the wordis of God ; therfore ȝe heeren not, for ȝe ben not of God.

48 Therfore the Jewis answeriden, and seiden, Wher we seyn not wel, for thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuel?

49 Jhesu answeride, and seide, I haue not a deuel, but I honoure my fadir, and ȝe han vnhonourid me.

50 Forsothe I seke not my glorie ; ther is, that sekith, and demeth.

51 Treuli, treuli, I seie to ȝou, if ony man schal kepe my word, he schal not se† deeth in to with outen ende.

52 Therfor the Jewis seiden, Now we han knowen, for thou hast a deuel. Abraham is deed, and the prophetis, and thou seist, If ony man schal kepe my word, he schal not taaste deeth in to with outen ende.

53 Wher thou ert more than oure fadir Abraham, that is deed, and the prophetis ben deede ; whom makist thou thi silf?

54 Jhesu answeride, If I glorifie my silf, my glorie is noȝt ; my fadir is, that glorifieth me, whom ȝe seyn, for he is ȝoure God.

55 And ȝe han not knowen him, forsoth I haue knowe him ; and if I schal seye for I woot not him, I shal be a lyere lyk to ȝou ; but I woot him, and I kepe his word.

56 Abraham, ȝoure fader, ful out ioyede, that he schulde se my day ; and he syȝ, and he ioyede.

57 Therfore the Jewis seyden to him, Thou hast not ȝit fifty ȝeer, and hast thou seyn Abraham?

58 Therfore Jhesu seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, I seye to ȝou, bifore that Abraham was maad, I am.

59 Therfore thei token stoones, that

When he speaketh a lye, then speaketh he off hys awne ; for he ys a lyar, and the father therof.

45 And be cause I tell you the trueth, therfore beleve ye nott me.

46 Which of you can rebuke me off synne? yf I say the trueth, why do not ye beleve me?

47 He that is of God, heareth Goddes wordes ; ye therfore heare them not, be cause ye are nott of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and sayde vnto hym, Saye we nott well, that thou arte a Samaritan, and hast the devyll?

49 Jesus answered, I have not the devyll, butt I honour my father, and ye have dishonoured me.

50 I seke nott myne awne prayse ; there is won, that seketh it, and iudgeth.

51 Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, yf a man kepe my sayinges, he shall never se deeth.

52 Then sade the Iewes to hym, Nowe knowe we, that thou hast the devyll. Abraham is deed, and also the prophettes, and yett thou sayest, Yf a man kepe my sayinge, he shall never tast deeth.

53 Arte thou greater then oure father Abraham, which is deed, and the prophettes are deed ; whome makest thou thy silfe?

54 Jesus answered, Yf I prayse my silfe, my prayse is nothynge worth ; hit is my father, that prayseth me, which ye saye, is youre God.

55 And yet have ye not knowen hym, but I knowe hym ; and yf I shulde saye I knowe hym nott, I shulde be a lyare lyke vnto you ; but I knowe hym, and kepe his sayinge.

56 Youre father, Abraham, was glad to se my daye ; and he sawe it, and reioysed.

57 Then sayde the Iewes vnto hym, Thou arte not yet .l. yere olde, and hast thou sene Abraham?

58 Jesus sayd vnto them, Verely, verely, I say vnto you, yer Abraham was, I am.

Chap. IX. 1 And as Jesus passed by, he sawe a man which was blynde from his birth.

2 And his disciples axed hym, sayinge, Master, who did synne, this man, or his father and mother, that he was borne blynde?

3 Jesus answered, Nether this man hathe synned, nor yet his father and mother; but that the workes of God shulde be shewed on hym.

4 I must worke the workes off hym that sent me, whill it is daye; the nyght commeth, when no man can worke.

5 As longe as I am in the worlde, I am the light of the worlde.

9 Some sayde, This is he; other sayd, He is lyke hym. He hym silfe sayde, I am even he.

11 He answered and sayde, The man, that is called Jesus, made claye, and anoynted myne eyes, and sayd vnto me, Goo to the pole Siloe, and wesshe; I went, and wesshed, and receaved my sight.

14 Forsoth it was saboth, whanne Jhesu made cley, and openyde his yȝen.

15 Eft Pharisees axiden him, how he hadde seyn. Sothly he seide to hem, He puttide to me cley on the yȝen; and I waischide, and I se.

16 Therfore summe of Pharisees seiden, This man is not of God, for he kepith not the saboth. Othere men seyden, How may a man synnere do thes syngnys?† And dyuysioun was a mong hem.

17 Therfore thei seyn eftsoone to the blynd man, What seist thou of him, that openyde thin yȝen? Sothli he seide, For he is a prophete.

19 And thei axiden hem, seyinge, Is this ȝoure sone, whom ȝe seyn, for he is born blynd? hou therfore seeth he now?

21 Sothli how he seeth now, we witen not, or who openyde his yȝen, we witen not; axe ȝe him, he hath age, speke he of him silf.

22 His fadir and modir seiden thes thingis, for thei dredden Jewis; forsoth now the Jewis hadden conspirid, that if ony man knowlechide him Crist, he schulde be don out of the synagoge.

23 Therfore his fadir and modir seiden, For he hath age, axe ȝe him.

24 Therfore eftsoone thei clepiden the man, that was blynd, and seyden to him, ȝyue thou glorie to God; we witen, for this man is a synner.

25 Therfore he seide, If he is a synner, I woot not; o thing I woot, for whanne I was blynd, now I se.

14 Hit was the saboth daye, when Jesus made the claye, and opened his eyes.

15 Then agayne the Pharises also axed hym, howe he had receaved his sight. He sayde vnto them, He putt claye apon myne eyes; and I wasshed, and I se.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, be cause he kepeth not the saboth daye. Other sayde, Howe can a man that is a synner do suche myracles? And there was stryfe a monge them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blynde agayne, What sayst thou of hym, be cause he hath openned thyne eyes? And he sayd, He ys a prophet.

18 The Iewes did nott beleve off the felowe, howe that he was blynde, and had receaved hys sight, vntill they had called the father and mother off him, that had receaved his sight.

19 And they axed them, saying, Ys this youre sonne, whome ye saye was borne blynde? howe doth he nowe se then?

20 His father and mother answered them, and sayde, We wote wele, that this is oure sonne, and that he was borne blynde;

21 Butt by what meanes he nowe seyth, that can we nott tell, or who hath openned his eyes, can we nott tell; he is olde ynough, axe hym, lett hym answer for hym sylfe off thynges that pertayne to hym sylfe.

22 Suche wordes spake his father and mother, be cause they feared the Iewes; for the Iewes had conspyred all redy, that yff eny man did confesse that he was Christ, he shulde be excommunicat out of the sinagoge.

23 Therfore sayde his father and mother, He is olde ynough, axe hym.

24 Then agayne called they the man, that was blynde, and sayd vnto hym, Geve God the prayse; we knowe, thatt thys man ys a synner.

25 He answered and sayde, Whither he be a synner or noo, I cannot tell; won thynge I am sure off, that I was blynde, and nowe I se.

27 He answeride to hem, I seide to ȝou now, and ȝe herden; what wolen ȝe eftsoone heere? wher and ȝe wolen be maad his disciplis?

28 Therfore thei wariden† him, and seiden, Be thou his disciple; we ben disciplis of Moyses.

29 We witen, for God spak to Moyses; forsoth we witen noȝt this, of whennis he is.

30 The ilke man answeride, and seide to hem, Forsoth in this thing is wonderful, that ȝe witen not of whennis he is, and he hath opened myn yȝen.

31 Sothli we witen, for God heerith not synneris, but if ony man is worshiper of God, and doth his wille, hym he heerith.

2 Forsothe he that entrith by the dore, is the schepherde of the scheep.

3 To this the porter openeth, and the scheep heeren his vois, and he clepith his owne scheep by name, and ledith out hem.

4 And whanne he hath sent out his owne scheep, he goth bifore hem, and the scheep suwen him; for thei knowen his vois.

6 This manner of sayinge spake Jesus vnto them; and they vnderstode nott what thynges they were whych he spake vnto them.

3 And his sister sent vnto hym, sayinge, Lorde, behold! he whom thou lovest, is sicke.

4 When Jesus that herde he sayd, This infirmite is not vnto deth, but for the laude of God, that the sonne off God myght be praysed by the reason of it.

5 Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 After he herde, thatt he was sicke, then aboode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that sayd he to his disciples, Let vs goo into Iewry agayne.

8 His disciples sayde vnto hym, Master, the Iewes lately sought meanes to stone the, and wilt thou goo thither agayne?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve houres in the daye? Yf a man walke in the daye, he stombleth not, because he seith the light of this worlde.

10 Yf a man walke in the nyght, he stombleth, be cause there is no light in hym.

11 This sayd he, and after that he sayde vnto them, Oure frende Lazarus slepeth, but I goo to wake hym outt of slepe.

12 Then sayde his disciples, Lorde, iff he slepe, then shall he do wele ynough.

13 Jesus spake of his deeth; but they thought, that he had spoken of the naturall slepe.

14 Then sayde Jesus vnto them playnly, Lazarus is deed;

15 And I am gladde for youre sakes, that I was not there, be cause ye maye beleve; neverthelesse let vs goo vnto hym.

16 Then sayde Thomas, which is called Didimus, vnto the disciples, Let vs also goo, that we maye deye with him.

wher Lazarus was deed, whom Jhesu reyside.

2 Forsoth thei maden to him a sopere there, and Martha mynistride to hym; Lazarus forsothe was oon of men sittinge at the mete with him.

3 Therfore Marie took a pound of oynement spikenard,† precious, and anoyntide the feet of Jhesu, and wipte his feete with her heeris; and the hous is fillid of the sauour of oygnement.

4 Therfore Judas Scarioth, ... oon of his disciplis, that was to bitraynge hym, seide,

5 Whi this oygnement is not seeld for thre hundrid pens, and is ȝouun to nedy men?

6 Forsoth he seide this thing, not for it perteynede to him of nedy men, but for he was a theef, and he hauynge pursis baar tho thingis that weren sent.

7 Therfore Jhesu seide, Suffre ȝe hir, that in to the day of my birying sche kepe that;

8 Forsothe ȝe schulen euer haue pore men with ȝou, sothli ȝe schulen not euere haue me.

9 Therfore myche cumpany of the Jewis knewe, that Jhesu was there; and thei camen, not oonly for Jhesu, but for to se Lazarus, whom he reysede fro deede men.

10 Forsothe the princes of prestis thouȝten for to sle Lazarus,

11 For manye of the Jewis for hym wente awei, and beleueden in to Jhesu.

12 Forsothe on the morwe a myche cumpany, that cam to gidere at the feeste day, whanne thei hadden herd, for Jhesu cometh to Jerusalem, 13 Tooken braunchis of palmes, and camen forth aȝens him, and crieden, Osanna, blessid is he, that cometh in the name of the Lord, king of Israel.

14 And Jhesu fond a litil asse, and sat on him, as it is writun,

15 The douȝtir of Syon, nyle thou

Lazarus which was deed was, whom Jesus raysed from deeth.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha served; butt Lazarus was won of them that sate at the table with hym.

3 Then toke Mary a pounde off oyntment called nardus, perfecte and precious, and anoynted Jesus fete, and wept his fete with her heer; and all the housse smelled off the savre off the oyntment.

4 Then sayde won of his disciples, named Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, which after warde betrayed hym,

5 Why was not this oyntment solde for thre hondrede pence, and geven to the povre?

6 This sayde he, not that he cared for the pover, butt be cause he was a thefe, and kept the bagge and bare that which was geven.

7 Then sayde Jesus, Lett her alone, agaynst the daye off my buryinge she kept it;

8 The povre all wayes shall ye have with you, butt me shall ye nott all wayes have.

9 Moche people off the Iewes had knowledge, that he was there; and they cam, nott for Jesus sake only, butt that they myght se Lazarus also, whom he raysed from deeth.

10 The hye prestes held a counsell that they myght put Lazarus to deeth also,

11 Be cause that for his sake many of the Iewes went awaye, and beleved on Jesus.

12 On the morowe moche people, which cam to the feast, when they herde that Jesus shulde come to Jerusalem, 13 Toke braunches off palme trees, and went and mett hym, and cryed, Hosianna, blessed is he, that in the name of the Lorde commeth, kynge of Israhell.

14 Jesus gott a yonge asse, and sate theron, acordynge to that wich was written,

22 Philip cometh, and seith to Andrew; eft Andrew and Philip seiden to Jhesu.

23 Sothli Jhesu answeride to hem, seyinge, The our cometh, that mannis sone be clarified.

27 Now my soule is troublid, and what schal I seye ? Fadir, saue me fro this our ; but for that thing I cam in to this our ;

28 Fadir, clarifie thi name. Therfore a vois cam fro heuene, seyinge, And I

16 These thynges vnderstode not his disciples at the fyrst, but when Jesus was gloryfied, then remembryd they, that soche thynges were written of hym, and that soche thynges they had done vnto hym.

17 The people that was with hym, when he called Lazarus out off his grave, and raysed hym from deeth, bare recorde.

18 Therfore met hym the peple, be cause they herde that he had done soche a myracle.

19 The Pharises therfore sayde amonge them̃ selves, Ye se, that we prevayle no thynge ; loo ! all the worlde goth after hym.

20 There were certayne grekes, amonge them which cam to praye at the feast.

21 The same cam to Philip, which was of Bethsayda a cite in Galile, and desired hym, sayinge, Syr, we wolde fayne se Jesus.

22 Philip cam, and tolde Andrew ; and agayne Andrew and Philip tolde Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, sayinge, The houre is come, that the sonne of man must be glorified.

24 Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, except the wheate corne fall into the grounde and deye, it bydeth alone ; yf it deye, it brengeth forth moche frute.

25 He that loveth his life, shall destroye it ; and he that hateth his lyfe in this worlde, shall kepe it vnto lyfe eternall.

26 Yf eny man mynister vnto me, lett hym folowe me ; and where I am, there shall also my minister be. And if eny man minister vnto me, hym will my father honoure.

27 Nowe is my soule troubled, and what shall I saye ? Father, delyvre me from this houre ; but therfore cam I vnto this houre ;

29 Therfore the cumpany that stood, and herde, seide, thundir to be maad; othere men seiden, an aungel spak to him.

30 Jhesu answeride, and seide, This vois cam not for me, but for 3ou.

31 Now is dom of the world, now the prince of this world schal be cast out.

32 And if I schal be enhaunsid fro the erthe, I schal drawe alle thingis to my silf.

33 Sothli he seide this thing, signifiynge bi what deeth he was to deiynge.

34 The cumpany answeride to him, We han herd of the lawe, for Crist dwellith in to with outen ende; and hou seist thou, It bihoueth mannis sone for to be arerid? Who is this mannis sone?

35 Therfore Jhesu seith to hem, 3it a litil li3t is in 3ou; walke 3e, the while 3e han li3t, that derknessis catche not 3ou; and he that wandrith in derknessis, woot nere whidur he goth.

36 The while 3e han li3t, byleue 3e in to li3t, that 3e be the sones of li3t. Jhesu spak thes thingis, and wente, and hidde him fro hem.

37 Sothli whanne he hadde don so manye signes† byfore hem, thei bileueden not in to him;

38 That the word of Ysaie, the prophete, schulde be fillid, which he seide, Lord, who bileuede to oure heering, and to whom is the arm of the Lord schewid?

39 Therfore thei my3ten not bileue, for eft Ysaye seide,

40 He hath blyndid her y3en, and he hath endurid† the herte of hem, that thei se not with y3en, and vndirstonde not with herte; and that thei be conuertid,† and I heele hem.

41 Ysaie seid thes thingis, whanne he sy3 the glorie of hym, and spak of him.

42 Netheles and of the princes manye bileueden in to him, but for the Farisees thei knowlechiden not, that thei schuld-glorified it, and will glorify it agayne.

29 Then sayde the people that stode by, and herde, it thoundreth; other sayde, an angell spake to hym.

30 Jesus answered, and sayde, This voyce cam nott be cause of me, but for youre sakes.

31 Nowe is the iudgement of this worlde, nowe shall the prynce off this worlde be cast out a dores.

32 And I yf I were lifte vppe from the erthe, will drawe all men vnto me.

33 This sayde Jesus, signifyinge what deeth he shulde deye.

34 The people answered hym, We have herde of the lawe, that Christ bydeth ever; and howe sayest thou then, That the sonne of man must be lifte vppe? Who is that sonne of man?

35 Jesus sayde vnto them, Yet a lytell whyle is the light with you; walke, whill ye have lightt, lest the darcknes come on you; he that walketh in the darke, wotteth not whither he goeth.

36 Whyll ye have light, beleve on the light, that ye maye be the children of light. These thynges spake Jesus, and departed, and hid hym silfe from them.

37 And though he hade done soo many myracles before them, yet beleved not they on hym;

38 That the sayinge of Esayas, the prophet, myght be fulfilled, that he spake, Lorde, who shall beleve oure sayinge, and to whom ys the arme off the Lorde declared?

39 Therfore coulde they not beleve, be cause that Esaias sayth agayne, 40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their hertes, that they shuld not se with their eyes, and vnderstonde with their hertes; and shulde be converted, and I shulde heale them.

44 Forsothe Jhesu cryede, and seide, He that bileueth in to me, bileueth not in to me, but in to him that sente me.

45 He that seeth me, seeth him that sente me.

46 I liȝt cam in to the world, that ech man that bileueth in to me, dwelle not in derknessis.

47 And if ony man schal heere my wordis, and schal not kepe, I deme not him ; forsoth I cam not, that I deem the world, but that I make the world saf.

48 He that dispisith me, and takith not my wordis, hath him that schal iuge him ; the word that I haue spoken, that schal deme him in the laste day.

49 For I haue noȝt spokun of my silf, but the fadir, that sente me, ȝaf to me a maundement, what I schal seie, and what I schal speke.

50 And I woot, for his maundement is euerelasting lyf ; therfore tho thingis that I speke, as the fadir seide to me, so I speke.

Chap. XIII. 1 Forsothe bifore the feeste day of pask Jhesu witinge, for his our cometh, that he passe of this world to the fadir, whanne he hadde loued hise that weren in the world, in to the ende he louede hem.

2 And the souper maad, whanne the deuel hadde sent now in to the herte of Judas, that Judas of Symount Scarioth schulde bitraye him, a knowen off it, lest they shulde be excommunicate ;

5 Aftirward he sente water in to a

43 For they loved the prayse that is geven off men, more then the prayse that commeth of God.

44 Jesus cryed, and sayd, He that beleveth on me, beleveth nott on me, butt on hym that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth hym that sent me.

46 I am come a light into the worlde, that whosoever beleveth on me, shulde nott byde in darcknes.

47 And yf eny man heare my wordes, and beleve nott, I iudge hym not ; for I cam not to iudge the worlde, butt to save the worlde.

48 He that putteth me a waye, and receaveth nott my wordes, hathe won that iudgeth hym ; the wordes that I have spoken shall iudge hym in the last daye.

50 And I knowe wele, that his commaundment ys lyfe everlastynge ; whatsoever I speake therfore, even as my father bade me, so I speake.

21 When Jesus had thus sayde, he was troubled in his sprete, and testified, sayinge, Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, that won off you shall betraye me.

22 Then the disciples loked won on another, doutinge of whom he spake.

23 There was one of his disciples which leaned on Jesus besome, whom Jesus loved.

24 To hym beckened Simon Peter, that he shulde axe who it was, off whome he spake?

25 He then as he leaned on Jesus brest, sayde vnto hym, Lorde, who ys it?

26 Jesus answered, He yt ys, to whom I geve a soppe when I have dept hit. And he wet a soppe, and gave ytt to Judas Iscarioth Simons sonne.

27 And after the soppe, Satan entred into hym. Then sayde Jesus vnto hym, Thatt thou dost, do quycly.

29 Some off them thought, be cause Judas had the bagge, thatt Jesus had sayd vnto hym, By those thynges, that we have nede of against the feast, or that he shulde geve some thynge to the povre.

30 As sone then as he had receaved the soppe, he went immediatly out; and it was nyght.

20 Remember my sayinge, that I sayde vnto you, The servaunte is not gretter then his lorde. Yf they have persecuted me, so will they persecute you ; yff they have kept my sayinge, so will they kepe youres.

21 But all these thynges will they do vnto you for my names sake, be cause they have nott knowen hym that sent me.

22 Yf I had not come, and spoken vnto them, they shulde have no synne ; butt nowe have they nothynge to cloke theyr synne with all.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my father.

24 Iff I had nott done workes amonge them, which none other man did, they shulde be with oute synne ; but nowe have they sene, and yet have hated bothe me and my father.

25 Even thatt the sayinge myght be fulfilled, that is written in theyr lawe, They hated me with outt a cause.

26 Butt when the comforter is come, whom I will sende vnto you from the father, wich is the sprete of verite, which proceadeth off the father, he shall testifie off me ;

27 And ye shall beare witnes also, because ye have bene with me from the begynnynge.

Chap. XVI. 1 These thynges have I sayde vnto you, be cause ye shulde nott be hurte in youre fayth.

2 They shall excomunicat you, ye the tyme shall come, thatt whosoever killeth you, will thynke that he doth God true service.

3 And suche thynges will they do vnto you, be cause they have not knowen the father, nether yet me.

4 These thynges have I tolde you, that when that houre is come, ye shulde remember them, that I tolde you so.

not to 3ou thes thingis fro the bigynnyng, for I was with 3ou.

5 And now I go to him that sente me, and no man of 3ou askith me, Whidur thou goist?

6 But for I haue spokyn to 3ou thes thingis, sorwe† hath fulfillid 3oure herte.

7 But I seie to 3ou treuthe, it spedith to 3ou, that I go; sothli if I schal not go a wey, the coumfortour schal not come to 3ou; forsoth if I schal go a wey, I schal sende hym to 3ou.

8 And whanne he schal come, he schal reproue the world of synne, and of ri3tfulnesse, and of dom.

9 Forsothe of synne, for thei han not bileuyd in to me;

10 Forsothe of ri3tfulnesse, for I go to the fadir, and now 3e schulen not se me;

11 Forsothe of dom, for the prince of this world is now demyd.

13 Sotheli whanne the ilke spirit of treuthe schal come, he schal teche 3ou al treuthe; sothli he schal not speke of him self, but what euere thingis he schal heere, he schal speke; and he schal telle to 3ou the thingis that ben to comynge.

14 He schal clarifie me, for of myne he schal take, and schal telle to 3ou.

15 Alle thingis, what euere thingis the fadir hath, ben myne; therfore I seide to 3ou, for of myne he schal take, and schal telle to 3ou.

18 Therfore thei seiden, What is this, that he seith to vs, A litel? we witen not what he spekith.

These thynges sayde I not vnto you at the begynnynge, be cause I was present with you.

5 Butt nowe goo I my waye to hym thatt sent me, and none of you axeth me, Whither goest thou?

6 But be cause I have sayde suche thynges vnto you, youre hertes are full off sorowe.

7 Neverthelesse I tell you the trueth, it is expedient for you, that I goo a waye; for yf I goo nott awaye, that comforter will nott come vnto you; yff I de parte, I will sende hym vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will rebuke the worlde off synne, and of rightwesnes, and of iudgement.

9 Of synne, because they beleve not on me;

10 Of rightwesnes, be cause I goo to my father, and ye shall se me no moare;

11 And of iudgement, be cause the chefe rueler of this worlde is iudged alredy.

12 I have yet many thynges to saye vnto you, but ye cannot beare them awaye nowe.

13 When he is wons come, I meane the sprete of verite, he will leade you into all trueth; he shall nott speake of hym silfe, but whatsoever he shall heare, that shall he speake; and he will shewe you thynges to come.

14 He shall glorify me, for he shall receave of myne, and shall shewe vnto you.

15 All thynges, that my father hath, ar myne; therfore sayd I vnto you, that he shal take of mine, and shewe vnto you.

16 After a whyle, ye shall nott se me; and agayne after a whyle, ye shall se me, for I goo to my father.

17 Then sayd some of his disciples bitwene them selves, What is this that he sayth vnto vs, After a whyle, ye shall not se me; and agayne after awhyle, ye shall se me, and that I goo to my father?

18 They sayde therfore, What is this, that he sayth, After a while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Forsothe Jhesu knew, for thei wolden axe him, and he seide to hem, Of this thing ȝe seken a mong ȝou, for I seide, A litil, and ȝe schulen not se me; and eft a litel, and ȝe schulen se me.

20 Treuli, treuli, I seye to ȝou, for ȝe schulen morne and wepe, forsothe the world schal enioye; forsothe ȝe schulen be sorwful, but ȝoure sorwe schal turne in to ioye.

21 Sothly a womman whanne sche berith child, hath sorwe, for hir our cometh; forsothe whanne sche hath borun a sone, now sche thenkith not on the pressure,† for ioye, for a mau is borun in to the world.

22 And therfore ȝe han now sorwe, sothli eft I schal se ȝou, and ȝoure herte schal enioye, and no man schal take fro ȝou ȝoure ioye.

23 And in that day ȝe schulen not axe me ony thing; treuli, treuli, I seie to ȝou, if ȝe schulen axe the fadir ony thing in my name, he schal ȝyue to ȝou.

24 Til now ȝe axiden not ony thing in my name; axe ȝe, and ȝe schulen take, that ȝoure ioye be ful.

25 I haue spokun to ȝou thes thingis in prouerbis;† the our cometh, whanne now I schal not speke to ȝou in prouerbis, but opynly of my fadir I schal telle to ȝou.

26 In that day ȝe schulen axe in my name; and I seie not to ȝou, for I schal preye the fadir for ȝou;

27 Forsothe he the fadir loueth ȝou, for ȝe han loued me, and han bileuyd, for I wente out fro God.

28 I wente out fro the fadir, and I cam in to the world; eftsoones I leeue the world, and I go to the fadir.

29 His disciplis seyen to him, Lo! now thou spekist opynli, and thou seist no prouerbe.

30 Now we witen, for thou wost alle thingis; and it is no nede to thee, that ony man axe thee. In this thing we bileuen, for thou wentist out fro God.

31 Jhesu answeride to hem, Now ȝe bileuen.

19 Jesus perceaved, that they wolde axe hym, and sayde vnto them, This is it that ye enquyre of bitwene youre selves, that I sayd, After a whyle, ye shall nott se me; and agayne after a whyle, ye shall se me.

20 Verely, verely, I saye vnto you, ye shall wepe and lament, and the worlde shall reioyce; ye shall sorowe, but youre sorowe shalbe tourned to ioye.

21 A woman when she traveyleth, hath sorowe, be cause her houre is come; but as sone as she is delivered off her chylde, she remembreth no moare her anguysshe, for ioye, that a man is borne in to the worlde.

22 And ye nowe are in sorowe, butt I will se you agayne, and youre hertes shall reioyce, and youre ioye shall no man take from you.

23 And in that daye shall ye axe me no question; verely, verely, I saye vnto you, whatsoever ye shall axe the father in my name, he will geve it you.

24 Hetherto have ye axed no thinge in my name; axe, and ye shall receave it, that youre ioye maye be full.

25 These thinges have I spoken vnto you in proverbes; the tyme will come, when I shall no moare spake to you in proverbes, but I shall shewe you playnly from my father.

26 At that daye shall ye axe in myne name; and I saye not vnto you, that I will speake vnto my father for you;

27 For my father hym silfe loveth you, be cause ye have loved me, and beleved, that I cam out from God.

28 I went out from the father, and cam into the worlde; I leve the worlde agayne, and go to the father.

29 His disciples sayd vnto hym, Loo! nowe speakest thou playnly, and thou vsest no proverbe.

30 Nowe knowe we, that thou vnderstondest all thinges; and nedest not, that eny man shulde axe the eny question. Therfore beleve we, that thou camst from God.

22 Jhesu seith to him, So I wole him dwelle til I come, what to thee? sue thou me.

23 Therfore this word wente out a mong britheren, for thilke disciple deyeth not. And Jhesu seide not to him, for he deieth not, but, So I wole him dwelle til I come, what to thee?

19 That spake he, signifyinge by what deeth he shulde glorify God. And when he had sayde thus, he sayd to hym, Folowe me.

20 Peter turned about and sawe that disciple, whom Jesus loved, folowynge, which also lened on his brest at super, and sayde, Lorde, which is he, that shall betraye the?

21 When Peter sawe hym, he sayde to Jesus, Lorde, what shall he here do?

22 Jesus sayd vnto hym, Yf I will have hym to tary tyll I come, what is that to the? folowe thou me.

23 Then went this sayinge a broode amonge the brethren, that that disciple shulde nott deye. And Jesus sayde nott to hym, he shall not deye, butt, Yff I will that he tary tyll I come, what is that to the?

24 The same disciple is he, which testifieth off these thynges, and wrote these thynges; and we knowe, thatt hys testymony is true.

25 There are also many other thynges which Jesus did, the which yff they shulde be written every won, I suppose the worlde coulde nott contayne the bokes, that shulde be written.

NOTES ON

THE GOTHIC VERSION.

Title, p. 2, column 1.—The Title of St. Matthew does not exist in the Codex Argenteus, but it is complete in St. Mark, where the MS. has Aiwaggelyo þairh Marku anastodeiþ Evangelium secundum Marcum incipit. From this, the Title of St. Matthew is taken. Aiwaggelyo is a mere transliteration of the Greek Εὐαγγελιον; for, as γ, before another γ in Greek, has the sound of n, so it has in the Gothic, and Aiwaggelyo is, therefore, pronounced Aiwangelyo, with the same meaning as Εὐαγγέλιον, and the Latin Evangelium, that is glad tidings, good news. Our Anglo-Saxon forefathers translated Εὐαγγέλιον by gód good, and spell a narration, news, that is Gódspell, our present Gospel. The writers of the Gospels were then styled Gódspelleras, our old Gospellers, and now Evangelists, from Εὐαγγελιστής, and the Latin Evangelista an Evangelist, or bringer of glad tidings.

Matt. i. 21. The Gothic text is based upon the Codex Argenteus, as given in —"Codex Argenteus, sive sacrorum Evangeliorum Versionis Gothicæ fragmenta, quæ iterum recognita adnotationibusque instructa per lineas singulas ad fidem codicis, additis fragmentis evangelicis codicum Ambrosianorum, et tabula lapide expressa. Edidit Andreas Uppström, Ph. D. AA. LL. M. in Regia Academia Upsaliensi Linguæ Gothicæ docens, et in schola Cathedrali adjunctus. Upsaliæ: C. A. Leffler Reg. Acad. Typographus, 1854 et 1857."

Dr. Uppström has published, on the same plan, the Gothic Fragments of St. Matthew's Gospel from the MS. in the Ambrosian Library at Milan, containing ch. xxv. 38–46: xxvi. 1–3, 65–75: and xxvii. 1;—Part of St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans from the Codex Carolinus, in the Library of Wolfenbüttel in the Duchy of Brunswick;—and the Skeireins, i. e. Ἑρμηνεία, Interpretatio, or Commentary of part of St. John's Gospel, from the MSS. in the Vatican and Ambrosian Libraries. They are printed in an inexpensive form,—an 8vo. pamphlet of 48 pages,—with this Title,—"Fragmenta Gothica Selecta, ad fidem codicum Ambrosianorum Carolini Vaticani. Edidit Andreas Uppström, Upsaliæ, C. A. Leffler, Reg. Acad. Typographus MDCCCLXI." In his preface, he defends himself from some severe strictures, which his laborious and valuable work does not appear to have deserved.

Where our text differs from Dr. Uppström's, a small † is placed after the word or clause in the text, referring to these notes for the reason of the alteration, or for the source of the addition. The indefatigable and learned Massmann has made up some of the verses of the lost chapters of St. Matthew by quotations from other sources. These verses are given from the other Gospels, in the text of Upps. on the plan of Professor Massmann's most useful and comprehensive "Ulfilas. Die Heiligen Schriften alten und neuen Bundes in Gothischer Sprache: Mit gegenüberstehendem Griechischem und Lateinischem Texte, Anmerkungen, Wörterbuch, Sprachlehre und geschichtlicher Einleitung von H. F. Massmann. 8vo. Stuttgart, 1857."

Mai. the contraction for Count Castiglione and Angelo Mai, will be quoted hereafter, it may be noticed, that they have published Ulphilæ, in Ambrosianis palimpsestis, specimen (see Note on ch. vii. 28). Mai had discovered in the Ambrosian Library at Milan, in 1817, parts of the Gothic translation of the Scriptures, under more recent writing. These are called Palimpsests or rescripts, because they were παλίμψηστοι cleaned again (from παλίν again, and ψάω to scour, clean); that is, the original writing was washed off the parchment, that it might be used for a new manuscript. The first writing could seldom be entirely obliterated, and it could, therefore, be often read under, and on the side of the later writing. Facsimiles are given by Cast. Mai. They recovered under other writing, not only this 8th verse of Matt. v., but other parts of Scripture, see note on Matt. i. 21, p. 570. —13. See Lk. xiv. 34; Mk. ix. 50 Mass. —15. Here the Codex Argenteus begins, and continues to ch. vi. 32, where another chasm occurs in the MS. indicated by a blank space in the Gothic column. Upps. p. 2 and 4.—15*e*. The small italic letter after the number of the verse, indicates the word referred to in the verse. The first word of the verse is denoted by a, the second by b, and the fifth by e. Thus, 15*e* denote verse 15, and e the fifth word of that verse, or liuteiþ. Arg. has liuteiþ, evidently a mistake for liuhteiþ; see liuhtyai in the next verse.—29*i*. Arg. has usstagg, but it ought to be usstigg.—43*ij*. Arg. has fiais fiand for fiyais fiyand.

vi. 24*y*. Mammonin—In the margin of the Codex Argenteus, against this word, Upps. was the first to notice faihuþra[ina] which Junius Glos. says, "videtur mihi composita ex faihu opes, divitiæ; et þreihan premere, comprimere, elidere, affligere; propter multiplices illas curas, quæ acquirendas acquisitasque opes comitantur," p. 244. Faihuþraina is from Lk. xvi. 9. The A.S. translates δουλεύειν μαμωνᾷ servire mamonæ, by worulld-welan worldly weal.

vii. 28*e*. ĪS in Arg. is a contraction for ÏESUS. Dr. Marshall, in the Gothic and Anglo-Saxon Gospels of 1665, was the first to suggest this true reading, in a note on Mt. xi. 16, p. 405. Dr. Marshall's suggestion was verified by Cast. Mai in 1819. Esdras ii. 36, where the word was first found written in full: thus ΠS ΓΛKΔΛ ÏESUIS us garda Ïesuis, τῷ οἴκῳ Ἰησοῦ de domo Iesu. They then add, in a note, "Ita codex explicatis omnibus litteris ÏESUIS, quum alibi sit ĪN̄IS. Ergo nunc omnino definitur controversia num legendum sit ÏESUS an ÏΛISUS, de qua jampridem egerant Ihreus in Ulphila illustr. ad Marc. i. 45. Gordonus in specimine animadv. critic. et Knittelius in Commentario ad Ulphil. p. 321." Ulphilæ partium ineditarum in Ambrosianis Palimpsestis ab Angelo Maio repertarum specimen, conjunctis curis ejusdem Maii et Caroli Octavii

Castillionæi editum, 4to. Mediolani 1819, p. 2. For an account of Palimpsests, see note to Mt. v. 8.

Matt. ix. 15*t*. Arg. atgagggand for atgaggand.

xi. 10. Arg. has meinna, it should be meinana meum, to agree with aggilu.—15*c*. From 15*c*. to 23*q*. Arg. is almost illegible. The deficient letters and words are most carefully supplied by Upps. chiefly from the other Gospels, so as exactly to fill the same spaces in the Codex Arg. as the original letters and words occupied before they were worn away or become illegible. With the aid of a good magnifying glass, and a clear light, which the constant access to the Codex enabled Dr. Uppström to choose, the distinct outlines and even faint traces of letters and words were discovered. Guided by these, and the exact spaces to be filled up in the defective Codex, there can be little doubt of the correct restoration of the deficient letters and words. These, in our Text, are all placed within brackets.

Luke vii. 32*t*. Arg. yan-ni evidently for yah-ni.

ix. 50*o*. Ni ainshun auk ïst manne, saei ni gawaurkyai maht ïn namin meinamma, Literally and in the order of the words,—Nullus etiam est hominum, qui non faciat potentiam [virtutem, miracula] in nomine meo. This passage is not found in the Greek MSS. but in some Latin versions. It is in the parallel passage of St. Mark ix. 39, where the Vulgate has—"Nemo est enim, qui faciat virtutem in nomine meo."

xiv. 31*ij*.—Gabelentz and Löbe, p. 133, note to 31*ij*, assert that—du wiganna of Arg. "Sine dubio falsum, pro du wigana ad bellum, qui est dativus vocis wigans bellum." Upps. thinks the reading of Arg. may be retained; it is, therefore, adopted in our text. Though his remarks are too long for insertion, we give the following quotation, and refer to his note for particulars. "Quid si Codicis lectio ipsa per se proba est, dummodo probe explicetur? Nos verbum pro verbo reddimus : aut quis rex iens ruere contra alium regem ad movendum l. quatiendum l. pellendum sc. eum, nœ. l. profecto, nonne sedens antea cogitat . . . . ? vii. 41i*. Arg. has distinctly þu, for þau. Upps. p. 24, line 11 in the note.

x. 18f–k*. Omitted in Arg. There can scarcely be any doubt as to the restored passage, within brackets, when it is seen under the Greek, and between the two lines now in Arg. thus,— Οὐδεὶς αἴρει αὐτὴν ἀπ' ἐμοῦ, ἀλλ' ἐγὼ τίθημι αὐτὴν ἀπ' ἐμαυτοῦ...

Ni whashun nimþ þo af
[mis, akei ïk lagya þo af]
mis silbin.

Here the first two lines of the Gothic ending with þo af, and the next two beginning with mis, the eye seems to have caught the lower þo af, and then to have naturally gone on to mis silbin, instead of mis, akei &c. omitting the whole line within brackets. Those, who have had much experience in copying MSS. know the tendency they have had to such errors. The restored line was first suggested by Dr. Marshall in 1665, p. 469, approved by subsequent editors, especially by Gab. Löb. and adopted by Upps. Mass. and others.

xi. 25no*. The reading of Arg. is that given in the text. Upps. defends it in a long note, p. 31, 32.—Mass. alters the text to þauhyabai gadauþniþ, in Greek κἂν ἀποθάνῃ, and the Vulgate etiam si mortuus fuit.

xii. 1a*. From Arg. fol. 75, 1.

xviii. 37l*. [qaþ] is omitted in Arg.

NOTES ON

THE ANGLO-SAXON VERSION.

Title, p. 2, column 2.—Gôdspell is derived from gôd good, and spell narration, message, tidings. It has exactly the same meaning as the Greek εὐαγγέλιον, from εὖ well, good, and ἀγγέλλω to bear a message, to bring tidings or news.

The Anglo-Saxon Text is from the MS. in Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, No. CXL. of Nasmith's Catal. In Wanley's Catal. p. 116, col. 1, the age of this MS. is stated to be—"Paulo ante Conquisitionem Angliæ descriptus." A reference is made to it, in the following notes, by B., which is the first letter of Bene't, for some time the colloquial name of Corpus Christi College. Some readings and correct inflections of words, with their more usual orthography, have been taken from the invaluable MS. Ii. 2. 11, in the Cambridge University Library, and referred to in the notes, by the letter C. This Cambridge MS. of the Anglo-Saxon Gospels is remarkable for its adherence to the West-Saxon grammatical forms and orthography. Wanley, in p. 152, col. 1, says "Circa tempus Conquisitionis Angliæ scriptus." It is supposed, however, that both B and C are earlier than the dates assigned to them by Wanley; probably B was written about A.D. 995. The Anglo-Saxon rubrics, in the following notes, are all copied from C, and compared with O, the Anglo-Saxon MS. of the Gospels in the Bodleian Library, Oxford, No. 441. The Anglo-Saxon Rubrics do not exist in B and H. They could not be retained in the body of our Anglo-Saxon Text, as they stand in C, without deranging the parallel order of the verses, and the loss of much space. An obelisk † is, therefore, placed in the Text, where the Rubrics begin, referring to the chapter and verse, where they will be found in the following notes.

C.—21*f.* đu C, H: tu B.—22*u.*—Tyndale has the following clause [x–ii]—and to be baptised with the baptim that Y shalbe baptised with, —because it is in Greek, from which Tyndale translated. It is omitted by the Vulgate, and therefore by Wycliffe, as he translated from the Vulgate. It is also w. in Anglo-Saxon.—28. Between this and the next verse, the following interpolation occurs in B, C, H, O.—Ge wylniaþ to geđeonne on gehwædum þinge, and beon gewanod on đam mæstan þinge. Witodlice, đonne ge to gereorde geladode beoþ, ne sitte ge on đam fyrmestan setlum, đe-læs đe árwurđre wer æfter đé cume, and se húsbonda háte đé árísan and rýman đam ódrum, and đú beo gesceynd. Gif đú sitst on gereorde, on đam ýtemestan setle; and æfter đé cymþ óder gebeor, and se ladigenda cwede to đé,—Site innor, leof: đonne byþ đé árwurdlicor đonne đe man úttor scufe. That is literally, in English,—Ye seek to become great in a small matter, and to be minished in the greatest matter. Verily, when ye shall be bidden to a feast, sit ye not in the first seats, lest a more worthy man come after thee, and the householder bid thee rise and make room for the other, and thou be put to shame. If thou sittest at a feast, in the outermost seat; and after thee cometh another guest, and the bidder say to thee,—Friend, sit nearer: then shalt thou be more honourable than the man put into the outer [seat]. The whole of this parable, except the first sentence, will be found in ch. xiv. 7–10 of St. Luke. Junius and Marshall's Evan. Goth. et A. S. p. 496. This interpolation is not contained in the Vulgate, but it is found entire in the MS. of the Gospels, which Gregory the Great sent into England by St. Augustine in the sixth century. From that time to the Reformation it was carefully preserved in the Bibliotheca Gregoriana in St. Augustine's Abbey, at Canterbury. At the dissolution of religious houses, it came first into the hands of Lord Hatton, then of Sir Robert Cotton, of Cunington, Huntingdonshire, where it was in 1602; as the latter name, place, and date are written on the MS. It afterwards found its way into the Bodleian Library, where this great treasure is still kept with the utmost care. I am indebted to Geo. Waring, Esq., M.A., for the following verbatim copy of this interpolation, taken from the Bodleian MS. Codex August. 857 D. 2. 14. "Vos autem quæritis de modico creseere, et de maximo minui. Cum autem introeritis ad cenam vocati, nolite recumbere in superioribus locis, ne forte dignior te superveniat, et accedens is qui te invitavit, dicat tibi,—Adhuc inferius accede, et confundaris. NOTES ON

WYCLIFFE'S TRANSLATION.

The text of Wycliffe has been taken from the first version, given in the 4to. Edition, published at Oxford in 1850, printed at the University Press, under the editorial care of Sir Frederic Madden and the Rev. Josiah Forshall, collated with the original MS. No. 369 of the Douce Collection in the Bodleian Library.

The following words in Italic are in the body of the page of Wycliffe's translation. They are, like our marginal readings, explanatory of words, which seemed to require elucidation. In the Douce MS. they are written in letters of the same form as the other part of the text; but, for distinction, a red line is drawn under them. For the same purpose, Sir Frederic Madden and Mr. Forshall have printed them in the Italic character. In their text of Matt. i. 2*b*. after gendride, we find in Italic or bigate. —and in v. 22*aa*. Racha, that is, a word of scorn.—vi. 13*m*. Amen, that is, so be it.—x. 39*e*. his soule, that is, temporal lyf. Though these explanatory words could not be entirely excluded, as they belong to the translation; yet, if left in the text, they would have expanded it too much to harmonise with the other versions. A small obelisk or dagger is, therefore, placed in the text, where such Italic words occur. All these explanatory words are given in the following notes, in the Italic character.

TYNDALE'S TRANSLATION.

Our text of Tyndale's version is taken verbatim from the very exact and beautiful facsimile published with the following Title,—"The first New Testament printed in the English language [1525 or 1526], translated from the Greek by William Tyndale: reproduced in Facsimile, with an introduction by Francis Fry, F.S.A., Bristol, printed for the editor, 1862."

This facsimile is a perfect representation of the earliest and most complete copy of Tyndale's version known to exist. It was printed by Peter Schöffer at the free city (frei statt, p. 24) of Worms, and sold in Oxford "before the 7th February, 1526." Had it been dated, it might have been 1525 or 1526. Further notice of Tyndale and of this edition is given in the Preface. At present, it is only necessary to observe, that it is believed our text is in the exact words written by Tyndale, for it was printed from his own MS. under his own eye. Only the evident and glaring errors in orthography are corrected, and made to agree with the same words used in other parts of the translation. Every possible care has been employed to give the words precisely as the Martyr wrote them. "The errours comitted in the prentynge" (Fol. cccIv.) are such as would most likely occur to a German compositor: as in John vii. 14 gebe for geve gave. The misprints are very numerous; but they are at once detected by an English eye. The following are a few examples:—

iv.	2	thought though
v.	4	wath · what
–	7	stoppeth steppeth as stepped in verse 4
–	27	soune sonne son
–	35	brurnynge burnynge
vi.	12	ynought ynough enough verse 15
–	45	hat hath
–	69	soone sonne son
vii.	14	thaught taught
viii.	20	honhes hondes
–	47	Gog God
–	55	is his

It would be a waste of time to cite more examples. The manifest misprints have been silently corrected, that our text might be made, as far as possible, a perfect representation of the words written by William Tyndale, one of the best scholars and one of the greatest Divines of his age.

This is not a mere abridgment of the large dictionary, but almost entirely a new work. In this compendious one will be found, at a very moderate price, all that is most practical and valuable in the former expensive edition of 1838, with a great accession of new words and matter."—AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

ANGLO-SAXON.—VERNON'S (E. J., B.A., Oxon) Guide to the Anglo-Saxon Tongue, on the Basis of Professor Rask's Grammar; to which are added Reading Lessons in Verse and Prose, with Notes, for the Use of Learners. 12mo, cloth. 5s

"Mr. Vernon has, we think, acted wisely in taking Rask for his model: but let no one suppose from the title that the book is merely a compilation from the work of that philologist. The accidence is abridged from Rask, with constant revision, correction, and modification; but the syntax, a most important portion of the book, is original, and is compiled with great care and skill; and the latter half of the volume consists of a well-chosen selection of extracts from Anglo-Saxon writers, in prose and in verse, for the practice of the student, who will find great assistance in reading them from the grammatical notes with which they are accompanied, and from the glossary which follows them. This volume, well studied, will enable anyone to read with ease the generality of Anglo-Saxon writers.—Literary Gazette.

ANGLO-SAXON.—A Analecta Anglo-Saxonica: a Selection in Prose and Verse, from Anglo-Saxon Authors of various Ages; with a Glossary. Designed chiefly as a first book for students. By BENJAMIN THORPE, F.S.A. A new Edition with corrections and improvements. Post 8vo, cloth. 7s 6d

ANGLO-SAXON.—A Delectus; Serving as a First Class-Book to the Language, by the Rev. W. BARNES, B.D., of St. John's College, Cambridge. 12mo, cloth. 2s 6d

"To those who wish to possess a critical knowledge of their own Native English, some acquaintance with Anglo-Saxon is indispensable; and we have never seen an introduction better calculated than the present to supply the wants of a beginner in a short space of time. The declensions and conjugations are well stated, and illustrated by reference to Greek, the Latin, French, and other languages. A philosophical spirit pervades every part. The Delectus consists of short pieces on various subjects, with extracts from Anglo-Saxon History and the Saxon Chronicle. There is a good Glossary at the end."—ATHENÆUM.

Ælfric's Homily is remarkable for beauty of composition, and interesting, as setting forth Augustine's mission to the "Land of the Angles."

Dr. BOSWORTH, Professor of Anglo-Saxon in the University of Oxford, assisted by GEORGE WARING, M.A., of Cambridge and Oxford. One vol, 8vo, above 600 pages, cloth. 12s

A very low price has been fixed to ensure an extended sale among students and higher schools.

"The texts are printed in four parallel columns, and very great care appears to have been taken in their collation and correction."—ATHENÆUM.

"We heartily welcome this volume, brought out with so much care and ability . . . It does credit to the printers of the University. . . . . The work is scholarlike, and is a valuable contribution to the materials for Biblical Criticism. . . We heartily commend it to the study of all who are interested either in the philology of the English language, or in the history and formation of our Authorized Version."—THE CHRISTIAN REMEMBRANCER, a Quarterly Review.

"It may almost be a question, whether the present volume possesses greater interest for the divine or for the philologist. To the latter it must certainly be interesting from the opportunity which it affords him of marking the gradual development of our language. The four versions of the Gospel, . . . with a learned and instructive preface, and a few necessary notes, form a volume, the value and importance of which need scarcely be insisted upon."—NOTES AND QUERIES.

Containing sixty examples of hitherto unpublished Letters and Documents of Blake, Boileau, Buonaparte, Burns, Calvin, Camden, Carrier, Catherine de Medicis, Charles I., Chatterton, Congreve, Crammer, Cromwell, Danton, D'Aubigne, Dryden, Edward VI., Elizabeth, Elizabeth (sister of Louis XVI.), Franklin, Galilei, Glover, Goethe, Goldsmith, Henry VIII., Hyde (Anne), James II., Jonson, Kepler, Kotzebue, Latimer, Loyola, Louis XIV., Louis XVI., Luther, Maintenon, Maria Antoinette, Marlborough, Marmontel, Mary Queen of Scots, Melancthon, Newton, Penn, Pompadour, Pole (Cardinal), Raleigh, Ridley, Robespierre, Rousseau, Rubens, Sand, Schiller, Spenser, Sterne, Tasso, Voltaire, Walpole (Horace), Washington, Wolfe, Wolsey, Wren, and Young.

AUTOGRAPHS.—A Hand-book to Autographs, being a Ready Guide to the Handwriting of Distinguished Men and Women of every Nation, designed for the Use of Literary Men, Autograph Collectors, and others. Executed by FREDERICK GEO. NETHERCLIFT. 8vo, above 700 specimens, cloth. 10s 6d — Printed upon one side only. 8vo, cloth. 15s

The specimens contain two or three lines each besides the signature, so that to the historian such a work will recommend itself as enabling him to test the genuineness of the document he consults, whilst the judgment of the autograph collector may be similarly assisted, and his pecuniary resources economized by a judicious use of the "Manual." To the bookworm, whose name is "legion," it may be observed that daily experience teaches us the great value and interest attached to books containing "marginal notes" and "memoranda," when traced to be from the pens of eminent persons.

AUTOGRAPH SOUVENIR; a Collection of Autograph Letters, Interesting Documents, &c., Selected from the British Museum, and from other sources, Public and Private, executed in facsimile by FREDERICK GEO. NETHERCLIFT, with Letterpress Transcriptions and occasional Translations, &c., by RICHARD SIMS, of the British Museum. 4to, cloth, a handsome volume, gilt leaves. £2. 2s

BARNES' (Rev. W.) Views of Labour and Gold. Fcp. 8vo, cloth. 3s

"The title, 'Views of Labour and Gold,' cannot be said to indicate the scope of the Essays, which open with pictures of primitive life, and pass on, through an agreeably diversified range of topics, to considerations of the rights, duties, and interests of Capital and Labour, and to the enquiry, What constitutes the utility, wealth, and positive well-being of a nation? Subjects of this class are rarely handled with so firm a grasp and such light and artistic manipulation."—Athenaeum.

"We have read, not indeed every word, but not much less than the whole of this book, with a satisfaction which we think every one will share who has given any serious study or attention to English history, and with a strong impression of the good taste, industry, and literary skill of the authors. . . . . We have chosen only one or two illustrations of the contents of the 'Annals of Windsor,' in order to show their historical value; but they furnish a vast quantity of information, possessing much general and literary interest, at which our space will not allow us even to glance."—The Saturday Review.

"Windsor is a grand subject! The historian, the poet, the artist, the statesman, the soldier, the courtier, the lawyer,—from mantled king to gaping citizen,—there does not exist a man who is not interested in this old pile, its vicinity, and its traditions. . . . . These volumes may be consulted with good result by any one anxious to discover any circumstance, important or trivial, concerning Windsor, which has ever been recorded."—The Athenaeum.

"BIBLIA PAUPERUM." One of the earliest and most curious BLOCK BOOKS, reproduced in facsimile from a copy in the British Museum, by J. Ph. BERJEAU. Royal 4to, half bound. £2. 2s.

As a specimen of the earliest woodcuts and of printed block-books, destined to supersede the manuscripts anterior to the valuable invention of Guttenberg, the BIBLIA PAUPERUM is well worthy the attention of the amateur of Fine Arts as well as of the Bibliographer. It consists of 40 engravings, printed on one side only of the leaves, and disposed so as to have the figures opposite to each other.

The engravings were printed by friction, with a substance of a brownish colour instead of printing ink, which was unknown at this early period. To imitate as nearly as possible the original, the plates in this facsimile are disposed opposite each other, and printed in a brownish colour. Various editions of this Block-Book have been discovered, without any writer being able to say which is the first one. A review of them is given in the printed Introduction of the book.

Besides the rhymed Latin Poetry—of which part was given by Heinecken, and after him by Ottley—the Introduction gives, for the first time, the whole of the Text printed on both sides in the upper compartment, as well as an English Explanation of the subject.

ONLY 250 COPIES HAVE BEEN PRINTED, UNIFORMLY WITH MR. S. LEIGH SOTHEBY'S Principia Typographica.

It contains some interesting literary history, Dr. Cartwright numbering among his correspondents, Sir W. Jones, Crabbe, Sir H. Davy, Fulton, Sir S. Raffles, Langhorne, and others. He was no mean Poet, as his legendary tale of "Armine and Elvira" (given in the Appendix) testifies. Sir W. Scott says it contains some excellent poetry, expressed with unusual felicity.

CHATTO (W. A., Author of "Jackson's History of Wood Engravings") Facts and Speculations on the History of PLAYING CARDS in Europe. 8vo, profusely illustrated with engravings, both plain and coloured, cloth. £1. 1s

"The inquiry into the origin and signification of the suits and their marks, and the heraldic, theological, and political emblems pictured from time to time, in their changes, opens a new field of antiquarian interest: and the perseverance with which Mr. Chatto has explored it, leaves little to be gained by his successors. The plates with which the volume is enriched add considerably to its value in this point of view. It is not to be denied that, take it altogether, it contains more matter than has ever before been collected in one view upon the same subject. In spite of its faults it is exceedingly amusing; and the most critical reader cannot fail to be entertained by the variety of curious outlying learning Mr. Chatto has somehow contrived to draw into the investigation."

"THE GAME OF THE CHESSE," the First Book printed in England by William Caxton, reproduced in facsimile from a copy in the British Museum, with a few Remarks on Caxton's Typographical Productions by Vincent FIGGINS. 4to, pp. 184, with 23 curious woodcuts, half morocco, uncut. £1. 1s—or, in antique calf, with bevelled boards and carmine edges. £1. 8s

Frequently as we read of the works of Caxton and the early English Printers, and of their Black Letter Books, very few persons ever had the opportunity of seeing any of these productions, and forming a proper estimate of the ingenuity and skill of those who first practised the "Noble Art of Printing."

THE TYPE HAS BEEN CAREFULLY IMITATED, AND THE WOODCUTS FACSIMILED BY MISS BYFIELD. The Paper and Watermarks have also been made expressly, as near as possible, like the original: and the book is accompanied by a few remarks of a practical nature, which have been suggested during the progress of the Work, and the necessary study and comparison of Caxton's Works with those of his contemporaries in Germany, by Mr. V. FIGGINS, who spent two years' "labour of love" in cutting the matrixes for the type.

"This curious volume has been the labour of a scholar's love, and will be read with ease by all. The idea of assembling the testimonies of foreign visitors, and showing us how we appeared to others in the days of Bess, by way of contrast and comparison to the aspect we present in the days of Victoria, was one which involved much arduous research. Mr. Rye had had no predecessor. . . . . He has not only added an introduction to the works he assembles and translates, but has enriched them with some hundred pages of notes on all kinds of subjects, exhibiting a wide and minute research."—Fortnightly Review. (G. Edited, with Historical Introduction and Notes, by J. O. HALLIWELL. Two handsome volumes, post 8vo, with portraits of Henry VIII. and Charles I., cloth. 8s (original price £1. 1s)

These volumes form a good companion to Ellis's Original Letters.

The collection comprises, for the first time, the love-letters of Henry VIII. to Anne Boleyn, in a complete form, which may be regarded, perhaps, as the most singular documents of the kind that have descended to our times; the series of letters of Edward VI. will be found very interesting specimens of composition; some of the letters of James I., hitherto unpublished, throw light on the Murder of Overbury, and prove beyond a doubt the King was implicated in it in some extraordinary and unpleasant way; but his Letters to the Duke of Buckingham are of the most singular nature; only imagine a letter from a Sovereign to his Prime Minister commencing thus; "My own sweet and dear child, blessing, blessing, blessing on thy heart-roots and all thine." Prince Charles and the Duke of Buckingham's Journey into Spain has never been before so fully illustrated as it is by the documents given in this work, which also includes the very curious letters from the Duke and Duchess of Buckingham to James I.

Extensively devoted to details which must of necessity interest those who care to know something more about their forefathers than the mere fact that they have existed. Many of them—until recently consigned to oblivion ever since the passing away of the remote generations to which they belonged—intimately connected with the social condition, usages, and manners of the people who—uncouth, unlearned, ill-housed, ill-fed, and comfortless though they were, still formed England's most important, most wealthy, and most influential community throughout the chequered and troublous times of the 13th and 14th centuries. During this period, in fact, there is hardly a phase or feature of English national life, upon which, in a greater or less degree, from these pages of the "Liber Albus," some light is not reflected.

The Glossary of Archdeacon Nares is by far the best and most useful work we possess for explaining and illustrating the obsolete language and the customs and manners of the 16th and 17th Centuries, and it is quite indispensable for the readers of the literature of the Elizabethan period. The additional words and examples are distinguished from those in the original text by a † prefixed to each. The work contains between FIVE and SIX THOUSAND additional examples, the result of original research, not merely supplementary to Nares, but to all other compilations of the kind.

"In giving an answer in the negative to the above question, we ask for a fair and dispassionate hearing, and in order to avoid circumlocution pass at once our Rubicon, and propound as capable of all proof the following historical heresy, viz., that Ceasar never set foot at Boulogne or Calais, never crossed the Channel, or set eyes on Deal or Dover, but that he sailed from the mouths of the Rhine or Scheldt, and landed in Norfolk on both his expeditions."—AUTHOR.

"The Vision of Piers Ploughman" is one of the most precious and interesting monuments of the English Language and Literature, and also of the social and political condition of the country during the fourteenth century. . . . . .

Prefixed to the volume are some beautiful Prefatory Stanzas by Richard Monckton Milnes, Esq., M.P. (now Lord Houghton).

PIOZZI.—Love Letters of Mrs. Piozzi (formerly Mrs. Thrale, the friend of Dr. Johnson), written when she was eighty to the handsome actor, William Augustus Conway, aged Twenty-seven. Edited by W. A. CHATTO. 8vo, sewed. 2s

"——— written at three, four, and five o'clock (in the morning) by an octogenary pen! a heart (as Mrs. Lee says) twenty-six years old, and as H. L. P. feels it to be, all your own."—Letter V., 3rd. Feb. 1820.

"This is one of the most extraordinary collections of love epistles we have chanced to meet with, and the well known literary reputation of the lady—the Mrs. Thrale of Doctor Johnson and Miss Burney celebrity—considerably enhances their interest. The letters themselves it is not easy to characterise: nor shall we venture to decide whether they more bespeak the drivelling of dotage, or the folly of love; in either case they present human nature to us under a new aspect, and furnish one of those riddles which nothing yet dreamt of in our philosophy can satisfactorily solve."—Polytechnic Review.

NATHAN HOGG'S Letters and Poems in the Devonshire Dialect. The Fifth Edition, with additions. Post 8vo. Coloured wrapper. 1s

"These letters, which have achieved considerable popularity, evince an extensive acquaintance with the vernacular of the county and its idioms and phrases, while the continuous flow of wit and humour throughout cannot fail to operate forcibly upon the risible faculties of the reader. In the Witch story Nathan has excelled himself, and it is to be hoped we have not seen his last effort in this branch of local English literature. The superstitions of Jan Vaggis and Jan Plant are most graphically and amusingly portrayed, and the various incidents whereby the influence of the "Evil Eye" is sought to be counteracted, are at once ludicrous and irresistible."—Plymouth Mail.

"The provincial dialects of England contain and preserve the elements and rudiments of our compound tongue. In Miss Baker's admirable 'Northamptonshire Glossary,' we have rather a repertory of archaisms than vulgarisms. But it is much more than a vocabulary; it preserves not only dialectical peculiarities, but odd and disappearing customs; and there is hardly a page in it which does not throw light on some obscurity in our writers, or recall old habits and practices."—Christian Remembrancer, Quarterly Review.

This is undoubtedly the best work hitherto published on the dialects of Yorkshire in general, and of Leeds in particular. The author, we believe one of our fellow townsmen—for his introductory remarks are dated 'Leeds, March, 1861'—has used not only great industry, but much keen observation, and has produced a book which will everywhere be received as a valuable addition to the archæological literature of England.—Leeds Intelligencer.

"These two volumes are filled with a minute and philosophical enquiry into the origin of names of all sorts, among all nations, and show profound scholarship and patient skill in wide and elaborate research. Much of the work is necessarily too profound for general readers—particularly the appendices to the second volume—but the larger part of the enquiry is so curious and interesting that any ordinary reader will appreciate and profit by the researches."—Birmingham Journal.

SANDYS' (W., F.S.A.) — Christmastide, its History, Festivities, and Carols (with their music). In a handsome vol. 8vo, illustrated with 20 engravings after the desings of F. Stephanoff, extra cloth, gilt edges. 5s (original price 14s)

"Its title vouches that Christmastide is germane to the time. Mr. Sandys has brought together, in an octavo of some 300 pages, a great deal of often interesting information beyond the stale gossip about 'Christmas in the olden time," and the threadbare make-believes of jollity and geniality which furnish forth most books on the subject. His carols, too, which include some in old French and Provencal, are selected from numerous sources, and comprise many of the less known and more worth knowing. His materials are presented with good feeling and mastery of his theme. On the whole the volume deserves, and should anticipate a welcome."—Spectator.

SELDEN'S (JOHN) Table Talk, with a Biographical Preface and Notes by S. W. SINGER. Third edition, fcp. 8vo, portrait, cloth. 5s

—— LARGE PAPER. Post 8vo, cloth. 7s 6d

Nothing can be more interesting than this little book, containing a lively picture of the opinions and conversations of one of the most eminent scholars and most distinguished patriots England has produced. There are few volumes of its size so pregnant with sense, combined with the most profound learning; it is impossible to open it without finding some important fact or discussion, something practically useful and applicable to the business of life. Coleridge says, 'There is more weighty bullion sense in this book than I ever found in the same number of pages in any uninspired writer.' . . . . . Its merits had not escaped the notice of Dr. Johnson, though in politics opposed to much it inculcates, for in reply to an observation of Boswell, in praise of the French Ana, he said, 'A few of them are good, but we have one book of the kind better than any of them—Selden's Table Talk.'"—Mr. Singer's Preface.

SHAKESPERIANA.

A LIFE of Shakespeare, including many particulars respecting the Poet and his Family, never before published. By J. O. HALLIWELL, F.R.S., etc. 8vo, illustrated with 75 engravings on wood, most of which are of new objects, from drawings by Fairholt, cloth. 15s. 1848

This work contains upwards of forty documents respecting Shakespeare and his family, never before published, besides numerous others, indirectly illustrating the Poet's biography. All the anecdotes and traditions concerning Shakespeare are here, for the first time, collected, and much new light is thrown on his personal history, by papers exhibiting him as selling Malt, Stone, &c. Of the seventy-six engravings which illustrate the volume, more than fifty have never before been engraved.

It is the only life of Shakespeare to be bought separately from his works.

"Very often we find ourselves differing from Mr. Walker on readings and interpretations, but we seldom differ from him without respect for his scholarship and care. His are not the wild guesses at truth which neither gods nor men have stomach to endure; but the suggestions of a trained intelligence and a chastened taste. Future editors and commentators will be bound to consult these volumes, and consider their suggestions."—Athenæum.

TESTAMENT (OLD).—The Hebrew Scriptures, translated by SAMUEL SHARPE, being a revision of the authorised English Old Testament. 3 vols, fcp. 8vo, cloth, red edges. 7s 6d

"In the following Revision of the Authorised Version of the Old Testament, the aim of the Translator has been to shew in the Text, by greater exactness, those peculiarities which others have been content to point out in Notes and Commentaries. He has translated from Van der Hooght's edition of the Hebrew Bible, printed in Amstetdam in 1705; except when, in a few cases, he has followed some of the various readings so industriously collected by Dr. Kennicott."—Preface.

TESTAMENT (THE NEW) Translated from Griesbach's Text. By SAMUEL SHARPE, Author of the History of Egypt, &c. 5th edition. 12mo, pp. 412, cloth. 1s 6d

The aim of the translator has been to give the meaning and idiom of the Greek as far as possible in English words. The book is printed in paragraphs (the verses of the authorised version are numbered in the margins) the speeches by inverted commas, and the quotations from the "Old Testament" in italics, those passages which seem to be poetry in a smaller type. It is entirely free from any motive to enforce doctrinal points, Six large impressions of the volume sufficiently test its value.

We cordially recommend this edition of the New Testament to our readers and contributors.—British Controversialist.

Upon the whole, we must admit that this is the most correct English Version in existence, either of the whole or of any portion of the New Testament.—The Ecclesiastic, and repeated by the English Churchman.

"A work calculated not only to interest the professed numismatist, but also to instruct the classical student and the historian. The unpublished Coins are rather numerous, especially when we consider how many works have been printed on the Roman series, and how much it has been studied. . . . The value of the work is much enhanced by the illustrations, executed by Mr. Fairholt, with the peculiar spirit and fidelity which indicate his experienced hand."—C. Roach Smith's Collectanea Antiqua.

Numismata Cromwelliana: or the Medallic History of Oliver Cromwell, illustrated by his Coins, Medals, and Seals. By HENRY W. HENFREY, F.R. Hist. Soc., &c., Author of a "Guide to English Coins." 4to, plates, Part I. (to be completed in 6 parts) 3s 6d

In this work, a complete historical description of all the Coins, Medals, and Pattern Pieces of Oliver Cromwell is attempted for the first time. Vertue, Snelling, Folkes, and Ruding, have all left but very imperfect notes and sketches of Cromwellian numismatics, and Mr. Hawkins never published anything on the subject; thus many vexed questions have not yet been properly discussed.

The collector and student of English Coins will find amongst the numismatic information numerous facts, details, and elucidations which are absolutely unpublished; and the numerous Autotype plates will furnish the first correct, and in some instances, the only illustrations yet published of many places.
